'Do It Yourself' Haircut

Rickey Hicks, 3, of Flint, Mich., shows one good reason why his parents call him the "little clipper." Rickey ferreted out the electric hair clippers from a cupboard and went to work on his brother, Michael, 2, with the obvious results. Then he turned the clippers on himself but he wasn't quite so thorough. His mother reckons both heads will have to be shaved and given a fresh start by a professional barber.

Yarborough Makes Official Bid For Office

AUSTIN (AP)—Ralph Yarborough, critic of the state administration, Thursday made his third bid for the governorship, which twice before has slipped from his grasp into the arms of Gov. Allan Shivers.

Yarborough's formal announcement came about 36 hours after U. S. Sen. Price Daniel entered the race for the Democratic nomination. Six candidates now are bidding for votes.

Yarborough, 52, Austin attorney, pledged what he called "the restoration of honor, integrity and dignity" in the state government.

"The people of Texas want a new state government, free of entangling alliances and partnerships with the out-going administration. Texas wants a state government free of the policies of the past and capable of independent action," he said.

This was an apparent repetition of Yarborough's charge Monday in Baytown that Daniel had given his unconditional promise to place Shivers in the Senate if Daniel is elected governor.

Shivers defeated Yarborough in 1952 and again in 1954 when the governor polled 775,088 votes to 683,132 for Yarborough. In 1952, the vote was 833,961 to 488,345 in Shivers' favor.

Yarborough pledged a "campaign of truth, free of mud-slinging and free of sham and hypocrisy."

"I pledge a campaign giving the people of Texas the true facts in a straightforward and honest manner. This I have done in the past. This I will do again," he said.

Yarborough will draw votes primarily from the liberal-loyalist branch of the Democratic party. He supported Adlai Stevenson in 1952 when Shivers led the state Democratic organization into the GOP camp of President Eisenhower.

In 1954, Yarborough felt he was the man to challenge Shivers again and he stuck to that purpose despite heavy pressure against him within the liberal faction.

Some of that same opposition exists within the liberal ranks now.

Yarborough made the party loyalty matter a major issue in his 1954 campaign.

Louisiana Seeking Ouster Of NAACP

Help Being Extended Fire Victims' Family

Help was coming to the family of Cleveland Gossett, reduced three in number by a fire which destroyed the family home at 1106 NW 8th Street early Wednesday.

Meanwhile, preparations were made to bury three of the nine children of Mr. and Mrs. Gossett. All but cremated in the fire were Jesse Lee Gossett, 13, John L. Gossett, 8, and Joseph Gossett, 3.

The Red Cross bought a round of clothing for the family Wednesday, and Adolph Swartz, chapter chairman, said that the Red Cross chapter was prepared to furnish a house for the Gossetts.

Meanwhile, an anonymous gift of $10 was received by The Herald for the family—and other such gifts will be received and recognized. They were unconfirmed reports that some individuals had started a collection to aid the stricken family.

Mrs. Moree Sawtelle, executive secretary of the Red Cross, said that an offer had been made of a small frame structure for use by the family. If the Gossetts want it, efforts will be made to see if the site can be cleared of rubble and the small structure moved in. Possibly it could be made more adequate by an addition.

Funeral services for the three boys will be conducted at 2 p. m. Friday at the Mount Bethel Baptist Church with Rev. T. O. McGee to officiate. Interment is to be in the City Cemetery with the Nalley-Pickle Funeral Home in charge.

Hearing Will Decide Fate Of Negro Group

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP)—Dist. Judge Coleman Lindsey today overruled an NAACP effort to remove into federal court a state suit seeking to oust the pro-integration organization under Louisiana's anti-Klan law.

A federal judge could overrule Lindsey.

Lindsey said that since the law had been amended in 1948-49, there was little jurisprudence on the subject and information was "sparse and inconclusive."

High school pickets paraded outside, carrying signs linking the NAACP with communism and handing out anti-NAACP literature, as Louisiana opened the first effort in the South to block operations of the pro-integration group.

Missiles Czar

Eger V. Murphree was named in Washington as military missiles czar by Defense Secretary Wilson, charged with special responsibility to produce a missile that can span the oceans. Murphree is president of the Esso Research and Engineering Co., of Summit, N. J.

Greater Role In Atom Work Urged

MINERAL WELLS (AP)—An editor and publisher from New Mexico said today: "I think it is high time Texas stopped playing second fiddle to the rest of the country in atomic development."

Robert McKinney of the Santa Fe New Mexican told the West Texas Chamber of Commerce convention that "atomic energy now is just aching to be developed by men with big money, big initiative and big ideas."

The former Amarillo man said, "The basic fact about atomic energy today is that it has the capacity to work some fundamental changes in the economy of the world. . . . If there is any such thing as a 'wave of the future' discernible to us today it is atomic energy. . . . Relatively few people fully appreciate the size and the driving power of this wave."

McKinney, an expert on this subject, suggested a Texas committee of leading citizens to build a scientific center for research, development and application of the peaceful uses of atomic energy.

He cited the uses of atomic developments in agriculture and medicine and said "The Texas petrochemical, oil and gas industries stand to benefit at least as much as does agriculture from . . . atomic energy. Now we have a new catalytic tool—atomic radiation—which may revolutionize several important aspects of the science of chemistry—and with it perhaps a large segment of industry."

"Radiation as a catalyst may eventually make it possible to make on a large scale, from Texas oil, plastics which can compete with steel for the automobile body market."

"A catalyst is an element which causes changes in chemicals without itself becoming a part of the reaction. . . . It is a very simple catalyst. Money," he said.

"If you are smart, you will take some of this big money, this big initiative and these big ideas that Texas have, and you will invest them in making Texas a southwestern regional center for research and development in the peaceful uses of atomic energy."

Crowds Aid Protest In Bus Boycott

By The Associated Press

A number of communities across the nation took part yesterday in "National Deliverance Day of Prayer" in support of Negroes boycotting the bus lines of Montgomery, Ala.

The day of prayer, by Negroes and white sympathizers, was organized by Rev. Adam Clayton Powell (D-N.Y.) and by clergymen in local areas scattered throughout the country.

There was no estimate of the number taking part.

A crowd of 5,000 turned out in New York City to hear Powell suggest that clergymen hold their own conference on racial issues if President Eisenhower does not call one.

The Negro congressman, who is pastor of Harlem's Abyssinian Baptist Church, suggested "massive passive resistance" led by clergy "to be used only when absolutely necessary" in combating racial bias.

In Hartford, Conn., Roman Catholic Archbishop Henry J. O'Brien told a prayer day meeting:

"It must be remembered that the causes of racial tensions and conflicts are to be found within all men, and no one group of people or section of the country is solely guilty or guiltless."

In Boston, Episcopal Bishop Norman B. Nash told about 800 worshippers, about a third of them Negroes:

"The guilty are not only 'they' but also 'we.'"

"Right here in Boston, in matters of housing, education, employment and church membership, and in many other ways, there is a responsibility for each of us to acknowledge."

Also in Boston, Rabbi Joseph S. Shubov told Jewish worshippers at Temple B'nai Moshe that "the shame of segregation in the South . . . is proof that the struggle for freedom is never completely won."

In Montgomery itself there were no special meetings. However, Negro churches kept their doors open throughout the day for anyone wishing to offer prayers.

At the Bayonne, N. J., naval supply depot, civilian employees held a prayer meeting at a YWCA nearby after an employee spokesman said Navy officials had denied use of the depot's chapel because of "political implications."

Philadelphia Rocked By Blast

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A devastating explosion blasted a four-story granary into flaming rubble last night and cut a 10-block swath of damage through Philadelphia's busy 30th and Market Street section.

In 1954, Yarborough felt he was the man to challenge Shivers again and he stuck to that purpose despite heavy pressure against him within the liberal faction.

Some of that same opposition exists within the liberal ranks now.

Yarborough made the party loyalty matter a major issue in his 1954 campaign.

Texas Firms Indicted For Cotton Fraud

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Four Texas corporations and one individual were among the eight corporations and four individuals indicted yesterday by the U. S. grand jury on charges of violating the anti-trust laws.

The indictments charge that the violations came in the purchase of more than 20 million dollars worth of government cotton.

Texas corporations named were A. Campdera and Co., Dallas; Stenberg-Martin and Co., Dallas; R. L. Dixon and Bro., Dallas, and Crespi and Co., Dallas.

R. O. Beach Sr. of Houston was one of the individuals named. Other individuals named were Morris Wolf, owner of Wolf and Co., a New Orleans spot cotton brokerage firm; John Godchaux, Wolf's assistant, and Robert McCallum, Memphis.

Other corporations indicted were E. F. Creekmore and Co., New Orleans; Weil Bros.-Cotton, Montgomery, Ala.; J. A. Banker and Co., Charlotte, N. C.; and Pell Co., Charlotte.

Beach and McCallum are partners in the firm of George H. McFadden and Bro., cotton merchants.

The indictments charge the defendants engaged in an unlawful combination and conspiracy to restrain competition in determining to what the government referred to the indictment.

"As far as we were concerned, there was nothing irregular at all," Beach asserted.

Asst. U. S. Atty. Gen. Stanley Barnes, head of the Justice Department's anti-trust division, said the indictments charge the defendants conspired to allocate bids on cotton purchased from the CCC "so as to eliminate price competition among themselves and to cause damages to the United States in the operation of its cotton disposal program."

Charles Beckler, attorney for the Department of Justice, said summons will be issued for the defendants to appear and post bonds of $1,000 each.

The indictments grew out of an FBI investigation.

Showdown Due In Grand Jury Tax Scandals Probe

ST. LOUIS (AP)—A federal grand jury appeared today to be heading for a quick showdown with the government over the handling of an investigation into tax scandals in the Truman administration.

The jury has complained it has been sidetracked by the Department of Justice in its efforts to determine whether tax fixing by highly placed government officials occurred in the Truman administration.

Both St. Louis newspapers have reported growing dissatisfaction among the jurors as to the way the investigation has been going.

The Post-Dispatch recently reported some jurors felt the jury was being used as "a political football." The Globe-Democrat said today the jury's executive committee was ready to confront the Justice Department with an ultimatum to get on with the inquiry or the jury would quit.

The Post-Dispatch, however, reported that the jurors had decided against this approach.

Wyllis S. Newcomb, a special assistant to Atty. Gen. Herbert Brownell, has been in St. Louis for a week. Primarily he has been here to prepare for tax trials of two officials under the Truman administration. The Globe-Democrat says he also came to confer with the jurors.

The Post-Dispatch has reported some of the jurors feel the purpose of the delay is to provide Republican ammunition for the ensuing presidential election campaign.

The newspaper also reported some of the jurors feel they are close to having enough evidence to merit indictments against high officials in the Truman administration.

The Post-Dispatch said the jury's complaint was precipitated by failure of the Department of Justice to seek indictments charging former government officials with obstructing the prosecution of income tax evaders.

Missing Baby, Mother Sought

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Where are Mrs. Gretta June Dicus and her baby Mozelle?

Police gave increasing attention to the case of the missing baby and mother. Dicus, 31, for the apparent slaying of a 3-year-old daughter, Shirley Ann. Her body was found in a wooded area south of here Saturday, under a pile of rocks.

Dicus, who has served prison terms for bigamy and forgery, was charged yesterday with first-degree murder. Coroner Hugh H. Owens said an autopsy showed Shirley Ann had head, back and rib injuries that "could have led to her death."

Dicus' wife Gretta June, 20, and the year-old baby have not been accounted for since early in December.

Mrs. Dicus' mother Mrs. Eddie S. Gilliland of Oklahoma City said yesterday that a bloody blanket found near Cherryvale, Kan., Feb. 6 is similar to one she gave her daughter.

Mrs. Gilliland said she last heard directly from her daughter in a letter from Houston, Tex., received Dec. 12. On the same day, she told police, Dicus phoned from Houston that her daughter had taken Mozelle and left.

She said she learned two days later, from the operator of a service station where Dicus had been employed in Houston that he had stolen $100 from the station and fled. On the same day, she related, Dicus phoned from near Houston and told her:

"If you expect to see me or Shirley, you'd better not turn me in."

President Accepts McKay Resignation

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower today accepted "with profound personal regret" the resignation of Douglas McKay as secretary of the interior. He wished McKay well in his campaign for senator.

McKay's resignation is effective April 15. He has entered the May 18 Oregon Republican primary in a bid for the Senate seat now held by Senator Wayne Morse.

State Rests In Shaver Rape-Murder Trial

BELTON (AP)—The state rested at noon today in the trial of Jimmy Shaver, 21, charged with the rape-murder of Chere Jo Horton, 3, of San Antonio.

STORIES OF EASTER-6

Pretonius, The Crucifier

(This is the sixth story in an Easter Week series. It concerns a man who believed Christ was the son of God and killed Him.)

By GEORGE CORNELL

AP Newsfeature

Pretonius was not amused. "Get a bystanie to carry that beam," he barked at a soldier. A startled citizen was conscripted for the task.

Across the leering city, a wide-eyed, excited throng trailed the execution party. Some women pressed in close to the maimed prisoner, wailing bitterly. The poor wretch said, "Weep not for me. . . ."

Three of them today, Apathetic let they were especially one of them. Officer Pretonius strapped on his buckler and spoke sharply to his four-man detail: "Get them started."

He motioned to the herald, who stepped off bearing the orders of execution ahead of the condemned prisoners. That disabled one — He looked badly hurt—would never make it. Pretonius muttered an oath.

The fellow swayed helplessly, shouldering the 150-pound cross-beam. He obviously had been severely flogged—probably cuffed about all night without rest. Some jester had put a derisive "king's crown on Him — of thorns.

Pretonius shook his head, puzzled. The fellow was a peculiar one — submissive, clean-cut, with a wise, friendly face, deeply veined with sorrow. Nothing at all like the two belligerent bandits who walked beside Him.

WTCC To Hear Farm Wage Reports

Ralph White, president of the Howard County Farm Bureau, will report to the West Texas Chamber of Commerce today the preliminary results of a cotton picking wage survey now being made here.

Dawson County farm representatives will turn in a similar report. The reports will be made at the WTCC's annual meeting now under way in Mineral Wells.

White and J. H. Greene, manager of the Big Spring Chamber of Commerce, are attending the convention.

The Farm Bureau leader said here this morning that only about 100 farmers have turned in reports in the wage survey. Farm organizations are attempting to compile as many of the reports as possible as a means of contesting Department of Labor claims that "bracero" boll pullers were underpaid in this area last year.

On the basis of Texas Employment Commission surveys, the Labor Department claims that many West Texas braceros were paid less than the "prevailing wage" last fall. Farmers in some counties have been asked to put up additional money to be turned over to their former workers.

The TEC found that the prevailing wage in this area was $1.75 per 100 pounds of cotton harvested. Braceros were paid smaller rates.

The Farm Bureau claims that the prevailing rate was closer to $1.55 per 100 pounds. White said the 100 reports received so far indicate farmers paid domestic pickers from $1.50 to $1.55, not including fees for hauling and weighing.

He said data secured in the survey will be the basis of an appeal of any Labor Department order that Howard County farmers post additional bracer pay. He urged that more farmers turn in wage reports.

Texas Soldier's Wife Is Slain

COSTA MESA, Calif. (AP)—A young Houston soldier returned from guard duty at a Nike guided missile installation today to find his wife stabbed to death in their auto-tour cabin, police reported.

Sgt. L. D. Pollom said the tiny, auburn-haired victim, Mrs. Oleta Johnson, 18, probably had been raped.

He quoted her husband, Pvt. Harold Johnson, 19, as saying he returned home about 12:25 a. m. and found her lying on the bed, a knife wound between the breasts.

Pollom said the body was clad in only a blouse, ripped nearly off, and a brassiere. There were indications of a struggle in the house and around the bed.

Friday Last Day To Vote Absentee

A total of 13 absentee votes had been cast through this morning for the city commission election to be staged Tuesday.

Friday afternoon is the deadline, however, for filing absentee votes.

City secretary, C. R. McClenny, reported that the latest votes were filed this morning.

The city election will be conducted Tuesday, but the deadline for entering absentee votes is Friday at 5 p. m. The absentee ballots can be obtained at the city secretary's office.

Dust Haze Still Hovers In Texas

By The Associated Press

Texas weather was settling back to normal Thursday but a haze of dust still hovered over the West, a hangover from the mid-week duststorm that lashed the Southwest.

Early Thursday a dust haze cut visibility from 5 to 6 miles at El Paso, Wink, Midland, Lubbock, Amarillo and other West Texas points. There were no high winds, and the Weather Bureau said the dust should settle during the day.

There has never been anything in West Texas like the feeding pens that Durward Lewter has built near Lubbock. The pens are made of steel posts set in concrete, and the wire is of heavy steel. The project covers over 100 acres. Lewter has only 5,000 cattle on feed now, but has facilities for feeding out 20,000.

He also has his own mixing equipment and storage bins for grain. He will use grain sorghums in place of corn. Several rations will be used to speed up the fattening of the steers. The steers are fed twice a day, and so much feed is needed that the feed mill will be in operation 10 to 12 hours a day.

Lewter was county agent for Howard County until last April when he resigned and moved to Lubbock to start planning the commercial feed lots.

Ray Adams of Ackerly brought his Angus cattle through the winter in line shape. He said when the sudan grass got tall enough, he just cut it and piled it into the silo, without trying to mix the two crops evenly. He thinks that sudan makes a silage just as tasty as the hagar.

Adams says he found a little deep moisture when chiseling the fields.

"There isn't much," he said, "but it will help out at planting time if we can just get one or two good rains beforehand."

The biggest credit risk to a country grocer is not the farmer who didn't make a crop. It is the itinerant worker who comes into a community, works a few weeks or months, then quietly disappears.

"You got to watch these fellows," said one grocer. "Even some farmers who ask you to credit their workers with groceries and gasoline, don't want to pay off when that same worker skips out owing a big bill."

Howard Newton who lives in the old Moore community has a well that pumps only 100 gallons per minute, but he has already irrigated 40 acres with a five-inch application of water. This seems almost impossible, but not when he tells you he started irrigating just after Thanksgiving.

A few months later two of the Smiths caught Jones in town and chased him half a block, until he dodged into a building. As they hotfooted it in after him, he killed them both with his pistol.

At the trial he claimed self defense and was acquitted by the jury. Almost immediately he had the other Smiths put under a heavy 10-year peace bond. The bond was so high that it would have broken them had they started trouble.

It was about the sixth year of the bond's tenure that I lived there. Everyone knew trouble would flare up again someday, and no one would talk about it except to their closest friends. Jones was a prominent livestock man and I used to see him often in drug stores or cafes. But always he had on a coat to conceal his gun and he always faced the front.

The Smiths bided their time. And a few days after the peace bond expired, they suddenly came upon Jones and cut him down with blazing guns. He didn't even have time to draw the pistol he had carried every day for 10 years.

I don't know what the jury decided this time, but it was either a light sentence or acquittal, as most people seemed content to let the two families settle their own quarrels.

The Jones boy had taken no part in the feud since the first fight, and after his father's death, was content to let it die. So far as I know, he and the Smiths are still living; but one thing is certain: They never became friends.

Lt. Governor Candidate Brings Campaign To City

Sen. A. M. Aikin Jr., whose name has become familiar with Texans for his part in the Gilmer-Aikin school laws which drastically revised the Texas educational system, brought his campaign for lieutenant governor to Texas here Wednesday.

"I feel most encouraged," he said. "The people and the newspapers have been most wonderful to me. Of course you never know how you are doing in a race like this, but I have received wonderful treatment."

He spoke here Wednesday noon to the Lions Club on pending constitutional amendments and addressed a junior college assembly during the afternoon. He was to be in Odessa on Thursday and in Colorado City on Friday.

SEN. A. M. AIKIN

He is a native of Red River County but has lived in Lamar County since 1907. After his graduation from Deport high school he attended Paris Junior College and went to work for a department store in 1925. Authur Caddell, the owner, encouraged him to get his law degree. He began practice in 1932 and was elected to the Texas House of Representatives that year for the first of two terms. Then he ran for and was elected to Senate. He is senior member of the law firm of Aikin-Townsend at Paris, owns a men's clothing store there, and is a bank director.

Ship, Plane Lost, 56 People Missing

NEW ORLEANS — The Mexican motor vessel Matul, reportedly carrying 50 passengers, burned and sank in the Gulf of Campeche last night with no known survivors, the Coast Guard said.

A Mexican patrol bomber, sent to look for survivors, crashed 20 miles from the scene of last night's sinking. The wreckage was taken in tow but there was no information on the fate of the crewmen. The plane normally would carry four or five men.

Red Newspaper Raid Was Routine

WASHINGTON — Commissioner of Internal Revenue Russell C. Harrington said Wednesday that the national tax crackdown on the Communist party and its newspaper "is being handled precisely as any other similar taxpayer matter would be handled."

Harrington made the statement after conferring here with Donald R. Moyses, the New York regional tax chief who, according to informed officials, organized and carried out the padlocking of a number of party headquarters and the New York plant of the newspaper Daily Worker without previous coordination with Washington. The properties were seized to satisfy federal tax claims.

EASTER STORIES

Pretonius, Soldier Who Killed Christ

of sensation-rousing holy man who claimed Godly lineage.

But He resembled no god Pretonius knew. To an alert Roman, it was safest to stay on the good side of all the gods—Jupiter, Venus, Ceres and the rest—all properly worshipped before their temple images.

Certainly not out on the way-side, or just anywhere, as this fellow was said to have taught. Like most Roman soldiers, Pretonius nominally looked to Mithras—the warrior's invincible sun god—as the appropriate god for him.

A hot sun beat down as the procession moved out the west city gate and up the fowl slope of Golgotha—the "Place of the Skull," with its stench of decay, litter of bones and ravens circling overhead.

Pretonius stood grimly, his arms folded, as the soldiers stripped the prisoners, laid them on their backs, their heads on the pathulums (crossbeams), and nailed down their outstretched hands.

Their extended arms were bound to the beams to support their weight until hoisted.

Then, one at a time, the three beams, with the bodies affixed, were raised by ropes to stout upright stakes, and the crossbeams lashed to notches. The victim's legs were set astride the beams, their feet fastened with long nails, and the arm ropes removed.

The crowd stared. Time dragged. Pretonius sweated. He loathed the assignment, especially this one, even though crucifixion was a common Roman punishment for non-Roman criminals of the worst sort and slaves.

In Syria he once watched a mass crucifixion of 1,000 rebels. There wasn't enough room for the crosses, and not enough crosses for the bodies. It was the cruelest, most spectacular death known—far worse than stoning or burning.

The nails were nothing, compared to the muscular agony. It began with the tearing pull of a man's suspended weight, then the slow, vicious cramps curling like knives through the body, the taut flesh constricting the blood flow. Most of the victims died screaming maniacs.

Death came gradually, sometimes taking days, from sheer pain and exhaustion. Often bodies were left to rot where they hung. Today, the orders were to get it over quickly, before Passover began at nightfall.

Pretonius felt strangely drawn to the imperturbable "holy man," who was so incredibly self-possessed, so remote, compared to the other ranters. The man even refused the opiate wine (mixed with gall) to dull the pain.

Spectators and passers-by on the nearby public thoroughfare jeered at Him. "He saved others—let him save himself!" The soldiers joined in the raillery, and like jackals, divided the prisoners' belongings—a custom.

Pretonius eyed them in disgust. The abominable "holy man," German mercenaries, ignorant Italian volunteers! But they'd think him gone mad if he stopped them. He could show no heart. He was a Roman officer, a centurion, commander of a century of 100 men, professionally without sentiment, under orders. Carry on!

Pretonius sighed. Uneasily, his gaze stole up to the dying men.

They were talking, brokenly, in strained, hoarse voices. Pretonius strove to hear, his nerves edgy at the rotitude of this man, Jesus.

One robber was appealing to Him. "I deserve this. . . My crimes are many. . . Remember me."

And the "Holy One," with His awesome composure, His almost frightening forbearance, His words still vivid with hope despite the pain, the exertion and the tight breathing, said, "Verily. . . Today, thou shalt. . . shall be with Me in paradise."

Surely, this is nonsense, Pretonius told himself. What manner of god could He be—who asks no burnt offerings, no shrines—but only one's own belief? Pretonius paused to and fro, scowling at the taunting onlookers.

After one burst of public derision, the "Holy Man" raised His head, tremblingly and imploring, "Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do." Tears wet His cheeks. His sweat ran with blood, a frequent reaction.

Suddenly, the sky darkened, and a rumble sounded and the earth shook. The soldiers bounded for their weapons and shields, gape-mouthed, scared. Pretonius stood motionless, spellbound.

Some time later, the glow of day began creeping back like the dawn. The Holy Man spoke, "Father, unto Thy hands I commend My spirit. . . It is finished!" He sagged. He was dead before the soldiers lanced the three.

It was full light. A bird sang in a carob tree. Pretonius took off his helmet. "Certainly this man was innocent," he murmured. He bit his lip, a throbbing at his temples. "Truly, this was the Son of God." He glanced at his men, and ignoring them, dropped to his knees.

SHORT PANTS OKAY MONDAY IN AIR FORCE

Short pants will be an official—and optional—part of the airman's uniform, starting Monday.

Monday also is the day for changing into summer uniforms at Webb Air Force Base. The summer clothing will be mandatory after Monday. Winter and summer wear have been optional this week.

The Air Force will leave up to the individual a decision on whether he's to wear shorts. Authorities have approved the shorts—for anyone that desires them.

Traffic Death Toll Continues Increase

CHICAGO (AP)—Traffic deaths are going up and up.

The National Safety Council today focused attention on the long upward climb with this statement: "February was the 12th month in a row to show more deaths than the same month of the preceding year."

There are plenty of stuffed animals to go around, however, in every price range. And from all angles comes the word they can

Ducklings Scarce For City's Easter

Easter is the lone season of the year when baby chicks, l'il rabbits and ugly ducklings furnish eggs for boys and girls.

But from all indications, Big Spring will have to do without the ugly duckling production—there are none available here.

Only two establishments reported this week they have rabbits and baby chicks for sale—the real variety. Cooper's Hatchery and John Davis Feed Store have baby chicks, and the latter store has rabbits. But there are no ducklings to be located.

Davis Feed said they have had more calls for ducks this season than for chicks and bunnies combined. Most of the duck hatcheries are in the northern and eastern states—Delaware, Maryland, Maine—and they told local dealers they could not ship them this far.

So for 1956, kiddies will have to depend on a bigger production from rabbits and little chicks.

There are plenty of stuffed animals to go around, however, in every price range. And from all angles comes the word they can produce as many or more eggs than "real live bunnies."

Practically every grocer, variety, department, and drug store in Big Spring has a supply of bunnies, chicks, ducks, and other Easter animals in addition to a full supply of eggs and egg-decorating materials. Including plenty of the candy type to keep the kiddies filled for a few days.

Jake Robertson Out Of Campaign

Jake Robertson announced Wednesday that he is withdrawing from the race for constable in Big Spring.

Robertson said he is moving to Plainview where he will take over operation of Rook's Dairy Farm and other agricultural interests of his father-in-law, Homer Rook. He said he wished to thank Big Springers for encouragement given him in the political venture though he finds it necessary to pull out of the campaign.

Adlai Looses Attack On Estes

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Adlai Stevenson—"a little angry and upset"—has launched his strongest, most personal attack yet on Sen. Estes Kefauver, his rival for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Stevenson, in a major address here last night, charged Kefauver with trying to capture California support with the same kind of "boss nonsense" which the senator cited in Minnesota.

"But more important even than this effort to injure me . . . by confusing endorsement with dictation is that by discrediting the leaders of the Democratic party here in California the senator and his spokesmen can only weaken and divide the party and thereby help the Republicans." Stevenson declared in his televised speech. To party observers, it looked as if Stevenson had taken off his

For Exercise And Posture

Archery is actress Gail Russell's favorite sport and also her favorite form of exercise. She finds it helps perfect her posture. Warner Bros. "Seven Men from Now" is her first picture in several years.

HOLLYWOOD BEAUTY

Use Color, Design To Make You 'Feel Good'

By LYDIA LANE
HOLLYWOOD — Gail Russell's fans are so happy that she feels well enough to resume her career. And there was a very buoyant feeling on the set of "Seven Men From Now" when I visited her at Warner Brothers.

Though Gail has green eyes, she was wearing a pink dress which was most becoming. "I love pink," she exclaimed. "I feel good in it. Colors deserve to be studied because they exert a greater influence than most people realize. I feel awful in pea green and unless I am tan, yellow is most unflattering. Painting has taught me to observe colors as I never have before."

"And I think you should check your make-up colors carefully to be sure they match your costume. Unless you can change your nail polish to match each costume, it is best to avoid bizarre colors," declared Gail.

Fashion to Gail is secondary to how a dress makes her feel. "I love nice things and when I was in school, I learned to sew and made the things that I couldn't afford to buy. If you watch the sales, you can get beautiful fabrics for very little money," she suggested.

Gail's favorite form of exercise is archery. "It has developed my shoulders, helped my posture, and made me stronger all over. I didn't know that archery was such a popular sport until I posed for a publicity still, with a bow and arrow. I got tons of mail from fans telling me that I held the bow upside down."

Gail laughed. "I decided if so many people enjoyed this sport I would try it. The number of archery fields are growing all the time. If you don't get enough exercise, try archery. Walking to the target is good for you, even if at first you don't hit many bull's eyes."

When I asked Gail her pet make-up trick she told me it was eye-brows. "They do so much to frame your eyes—but when you look into a mirror straight-on, you see only one angle. In penciling the brows, always check your profile to see the effect. If you have a flat instead of a fine point to your pencil, it is easier to get a soft, natural stroke."

"Never, never no matter how rushed you are, draw a solid line," Gail cautioned. "It looks hard and artificial. And always choose a shade that harmonizes with your skin tone to achieve a natural look."

MORE EXERCISES
Girls who do not have access to archery as a form of exercise can still have a supple and streamlined figure. There's one exercise in leaflet M-20, when done properly, which will bring into play all the muscles in the body. Added at no extra cost with the exercise is a complete week's diet which can lose 10 pounds in a week for the follower. To get your copy of leaflet M-20, just send 5 cents AND a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Lydia Lane, Hollywood Beauty, in care of The Big Spring Herald.

The BPODoes entertained six guests from San Angelo Wednesday evening at their meeting in the Elks Club. From the newly organized chapter of Does were Mrs. Marlon Savage, Mrs. Bob Workman, Mrs. Elmer Easley, Mrs. Wayne Carson, Mrs. M. P. Riggs and Mrs. Arthur Green. Mrs. Green is the president of the San Angelo group.

Members voted on their selection for the Woman of the Year nominee. It was decided to begin the series of Saturday morning coffees again. The next one will be at the home of Mrs. Dwise Gilliland, 1508 Tucson, April 14.

A bake sale was planned for April 7 to be held at Piggly-Wiggly Food Store.

'Webb Chicks' Meet For Awards Dinner

Mrs. J. R. Wadkins, president of the NCO Wives Club was guest of honor at the dinner given Tuesday evening for the bowling team, "Webb Chicks."

She awarded first, second and third prizes to the winners in a bowling tournament recently held at Webb Air Force Base. Winning teams were Best Pin-ups with 1972 points; Kain's Killers with 1866 points, and Thompson's Cats with 1855 points.

AMONG LAMESA CLUBS

Groups Hear German Speaker, Music, Review

LAMESA — The Business and Professional Women met Tuesday evening at Turner's Grill for a dinner meeting. The committee in charge of the program, Mrs. Ella Austin, Wilma Jean Barns, and Mrs. Jean Jenkins, presented Mrs. M. A. Miller of Heidelberg, Germany, who spoke on International Relationship.

Mrs. Miller has been in the United States for five years and has lived in Lamesa since last June. Thirteen women heard her speak.

Teacher Is Of Many Countries

GRAND HAVEN, Mich.—When Margaret Smith's pupils ask her to tell about life in the "old country," she invariably replies, "Which one?" Her life has been such a constant moving about that she herself scarcely knows to which nation she owes her allegiance, and at one time was even a "woman without a country."

Miss Smith, an instructor at Grand Haven Junior High School, was born of Scotch missionaries in Algeria, Spain, 20-odd years ago. When the Spanish Civil war broke out in 1936, the family moved to Gibraltar.

Later Margaret and her brother went to Toronto to live with their grandparents. When Franco halted missionary work in Spain, the Smiths moved to Havana, Cuba, where their children joined them. Margaret came to the United States to attend college at Wheaton, Ill. Then she returned to Cuba to teach for three years before coming to Grand Haven.

Although her parents were Scotch they had spent much time in Canada and until she was 21 Miss Smith was considered as having Spanish and Canadian citizenship. In 1932 she was not a citizen of any country. She had renounced Spanish citizenship and was in the process of changing from Canadian to British citizenship. Now she is British with official residence in the United States.

Beth Frazier Has Birthday Party
Beth Frazier, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Frazier, was the honoree at a party for her sixth birthday Wednesday morning, given at the Farrar School.

Spring decorations were used in a color scheme of pink and green. Miniature lambs were given as favors. Birthday wishes were made for Beth, the birthday song was sung and gifts were presented. Thirty-five classmates attended the party.

The Lamesa Woman's Study Club met Tuesday evening at the club house with Mrs. Luther Standefer presiding over the business meeting. Mrs. Buster Reed, the program leader, presented Douglas Allen, formerly of Lamesa and now a teacher at the St. Louis Institute of Music, who played a number of classical selections on the piano.

Mrs. J. D. Jenkins spoke on how much insurance and credit one should have to be well taken care of. Hostesses were Mrs. Leo Johnston and Lola Mae Hewitt for about 35 who attended.

The 48 Delphian Club met Monday evening for their program on Literature. Mrs. Lex Brock, the Dawson County librarian told of the books which had been purchased with the $200 donation from the club. She displayed a number of these books.

Mrs. Tommy Brannon, program leader, introduced Mrs. Gene Campbell, who reviewed the book, "Doctor Kate" by Adele Comandini, which is the story of a northwoods doctor back in the 30's. Following the review a tea hour was held.

The serving table was laid with a pink linen cloth and centered with a styrofoam rabbit and spring flowers. About 35 guests and members attended. Hostesses were Mrs. Thomas Wilkes and Mrs. Garvin Wilkes.

New Members Join Elbow HD Club
Two new members joined the Elbow Home Demonstration Club Wednesday at the meeting in the school cafeteria. They are Mrs. Hollis Yates and Mrs. Floyd Jones.

Mrs. Leroy Findley was hostess for the group. Mrs. B. J. Petty presided, and the devotion was brought by Mrs. L. L. Johnson. Members saw a demonstration of making nut butter, given by two girls, Jean Yates and Kathleen Morton. Mrs. Pershing Morton gave a program of the large equipment needed for the kitchen.

Mrs. Petty led a round table discussion of parliamentary procedure. The next meeting was announced for April 11 in the home of Mrs. Bess Hill.

Youth Needs Challenge For Ability

CHICAGO—Young people are a combination of idealism, natural curiosity and stupendous energy, and they want to harness this productive drive into creative channels.

Charles W. Ferguson, writing for National Parent-Teacher magazine, the official publication of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers, says youths like emergencies that make them feel necessary.

Give them a project which means something and makes them feel needed, he said, and adolescents will do an amazingly good job. He cites some examples of what young men and women are doing around the country when their energies and ideals are combined. They have landscaped school grounds, replanted a fire-ravaged woodland, helped blind and sick neighbors, raised money to pave the streets of their town, rid their community of poison ivy and raised funds for a church.

"Many youth activities are focused on problems that are beyond what might be considered the normal concerns of youth," says Ferguson. In Tacoma, Wash., high school students interviewed adults on the kind of local government they thought most appropriate for their community. In New Rochelle, N.Y., they made a careful study of traffic conditions and placed their findings before the city council. In Webster Groves, Mo., students studied the question of the use of public swimming pools by all races and presented their findings with a recommendation for a local commission on human rights.

If all such cases could be compiled and codified they would make an encyclopedia of social hope, Ferguson said.

Garden Council Schedules Pilgrimage, Flower Show

A spring pilgrimage and fall flower show were planned Wednesday morning at a Big Spring Garden Club Council meeting in the home of Mrs. Obie Bristow.

The pilgrimage date, subject to approval of individual clubs, is set for May 20. Each club will select a yard to be visited during the pilgrimage.

Children Should Read Critically

YPSILANTI, Mich. — "Children must learn to distinguish between writing based on fact and writing that is merely ideas or emotions felt by the author," says a reading expert.

Dr. Kathleen B. Hester, professor of education at Michigan State Normal College, worries about whether children learn to read critically, so that they know what the author means. "Every citizen should be able to recognize and discount propaganda and to evaluate ideas encountered in reading," she says.

She is more concerned about the child's understanding than whether teaching methods should include more use of phonics, or sounding out words, along with sight reading.

Dr. Hester, who works under the alert eye of her big white cat, Puppypat, has published a book on teaching children to read. "This country has lost a lot of potential ability because of the inability to read," she says. She is also co-author of a series of 20 reading books for elementary schools, putting her theories into practice.

Nat Ex Could Make Contenders Of Sox

By BEN OLAN
The Associated Press

Unless he's hit by a line drive, a thrown ball or a slumping earned run average, Bob Porterfield looks ready to come up with a whale of a year and put the Boston Red Sox in the thick of the American League pennant race.

Porterfield, obtained from Washington last November, has looked great in the Sox exhibition games. He's won three, lost one and put together an awesome 1.50 ERA, giving up only two walks and three earned runs in 18 innings. With guys like Ted Williams, Jackie Jensen and Sammy White on his side, there's little reason to doubt that Bob will improve on his 19-17 pitching record of last season.

The rub, however, is that he will have to steer clear of injuries. For if anyone can qualify for the title of the "unluckiest player in the majors" it's the same Mr. Porterfield.

Bob, now 31, came up to the New York Yankees in 1948 with a fine reputation. The following year, Casey Stengel was ready to make him one of his front-line hurlers.

"But there was always something wrong," complained Casey. "Sore arms, sore legs, sore head, always something sore."

After that Porterfield came up with sundry other hurts, including a fractured jaw and a concussion. Yesterday, Porterfield gave up only three hits and one run in six innings as the Red Sox downed the Kansas City A's 7-2. Jackie Jensen slammed his first homer of the spring.

Injuries struck four players in the Yankees - Washington game, won by the Senators 6-4. After the victims were counted up the list looked this way: Yankees—Mickey Mantle, pulled leg muscle; Billy Martin, bruised knee; Senators—Pete Runnels, bruised hand; Hal Griggs, bruised ankle; Bob Turley took his fourth pounding of the Grapefruit League season. He gave up six runs in six innings.

The Detroit Tigers, with rookie infielder Buddy Hicks getting six hits in six at bats, came to life and defeated the Philadelphia Phillies 15-5.

Maxwell Will Seek 2nd Azalea Crown

WILMINGTON, N.C. (AP)—Likely Azalea Open Golf Tournament began today on the sandy stretches of the par 72 Cape Fear Country Club course.

To date the PGA has conducted 12 tournaments on its winter tour and 11 men have shared the victories. Only Ted Kroll managed to win twice—and he is not here.

Winners of seven of the remaining 10 events are in the field of 150. The last three tournaments have seen an outsider come charging up to win his first major test on the circuit.

Last Sunday Gardner Dickinson Jr., of Panama City, Fla., won the money at Miami Beach, Fla. The week before it was Mike Fetchick of Mahopac, N.Y., winning at St. Petersburg, and before that it was Don Fairfield of Casey, Ill., who grabbed the Pensacola Open.

All are competing here in a tournament that has seen a pro notch his first big one twice in the last four years.

Four years ago Jimmy Clark of Laguna Beach, Calif., crashed into the winner's circle for the first time in a big money event. Last year Billy Maxwell, former Na-

Greco-Roman Mat Matches Carded

TULSA, Okla. (AP)—Greco-Roman wrestling, a sport little known in this country, today took over the mats where seven National AAU freestyle championship matches were won last night.

The University of Toledo's Joe Scalzo, who will coach this year the first U.S. team in the Olympic Games' Greco-Roman style, hoped the competition would draw the most skilled of the freestylers.

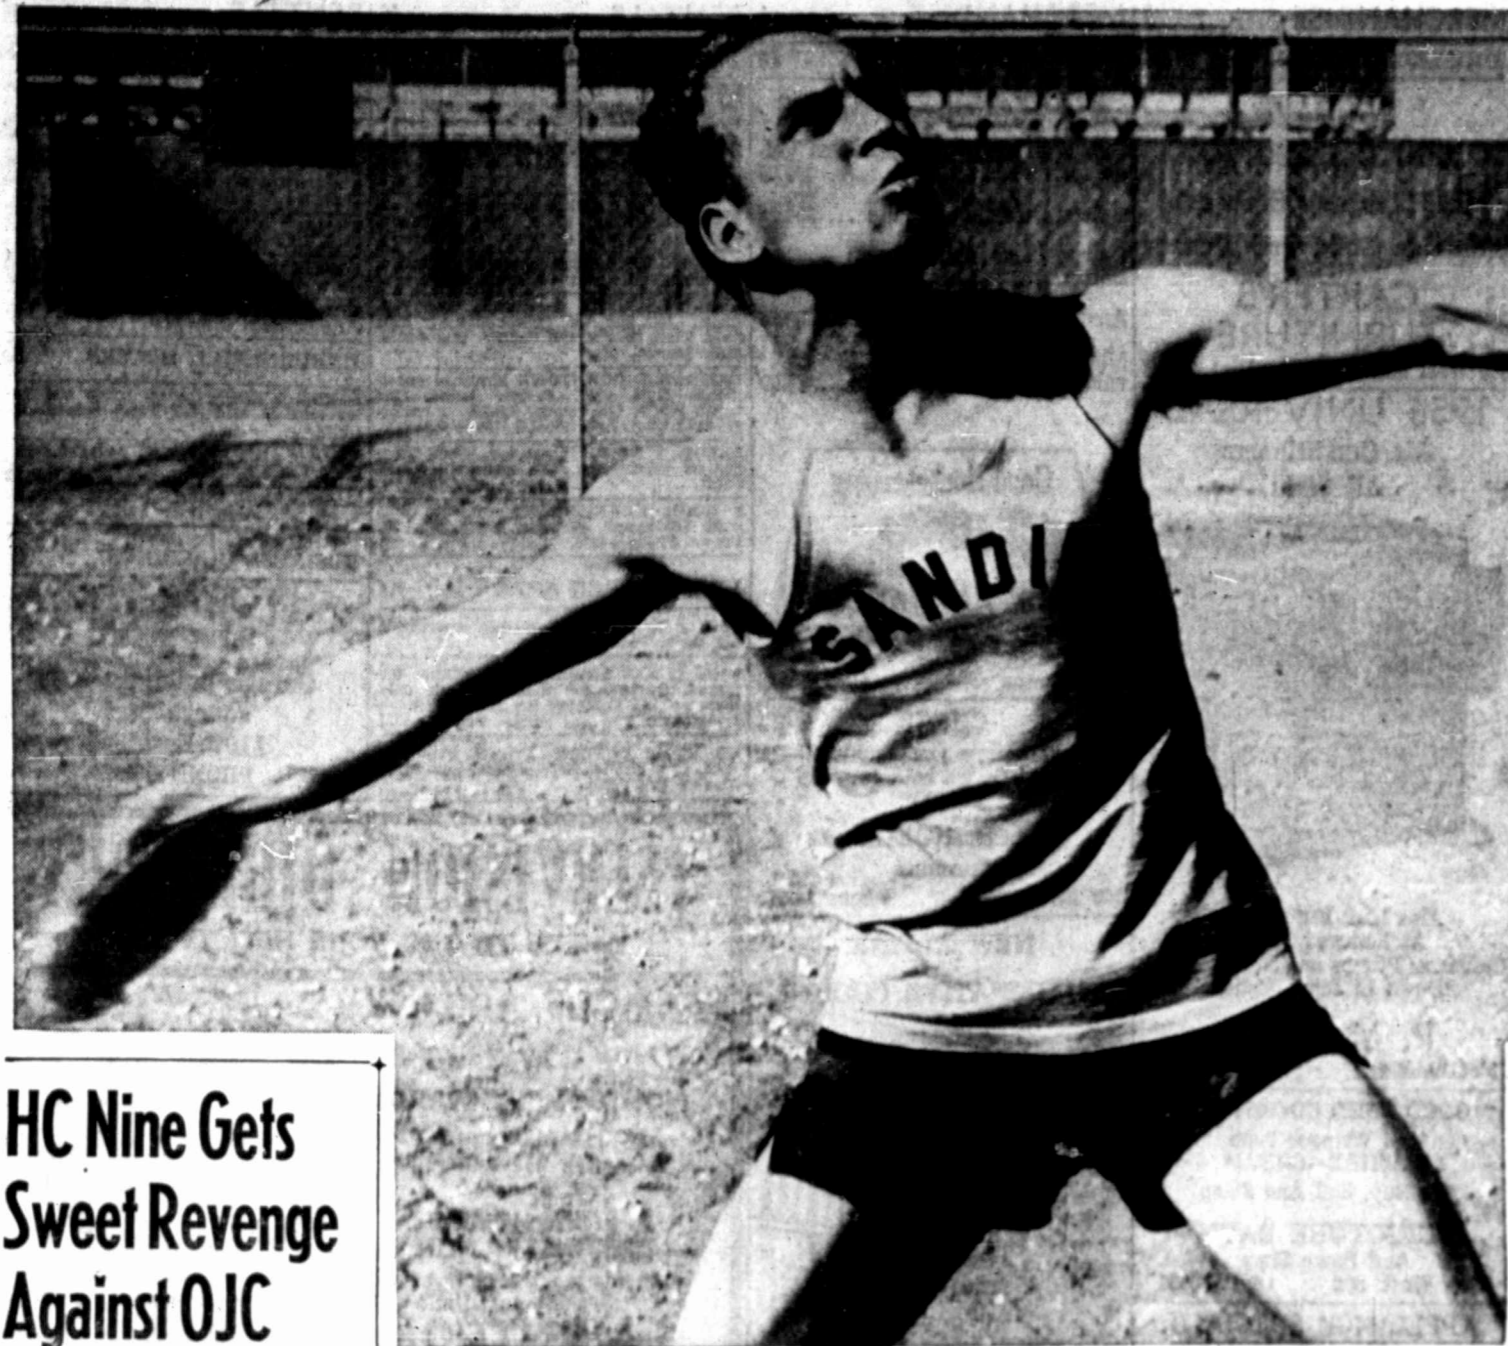

In Greco-Roman, a wrestler is not permitted to use his legs for holds or tripping and may grasp an opponent's body only above the waist.

Biggest Relays Of All Start At 10:00 Friday

By the hundreds, athletes from all over West Texas will move into Big Spring Friday for the 11th running of the American Business Club Relays.

The big cinder show gets under way at 10 a.m. at Howard County Junior College. It will be concluded about 4 p.m.

There'll be no admission charge for the spectators—fact is, there is no way to charge admission. The only catch is that the fans will have to watch the spectacle from the outside of the cyclone fence. There are no seats at the field at the present time, other than those for the entries, coaches and judges on the infield of the track.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

Perhaps you missed it. Kilgore Junior College, which HCJC coach Harold Davis described as the "tallest junior college team I've ever seen," returned the National Juco basketball title to Texas last weekend by belting Hannibal-LaGrange of Missouri in the finals at Hutchinson, Kan., 68-65.

The Texans spotted Hannibal a ten-point lead at the half but came roaring back.

In the past five years, Hannibal has been runnerup in the meet twice and finished third the other three times.

Pueblo College of Colorado, which nibbled on an invitation to the Howard College Tournament here last Christmas week, turned up with the tournament's outstanding player, a 6-foot-4 lrd named Gene Poston.

Coach Harold Davis would probably like to have both Pueblo and Kilgore in next season's Howard College Tournament.

Kilgore competed here the first year the tournament was held. The Hawks held the distinction of facing (though losing to) Kilgore in the Pioneer Tournament at Wharton last season.

The Longhorn League ranked only sixth among the nine Class C leagues in attendance last year, yet the surviving members joined with three WT-NM league cities and became a Class B affiliate.

At that rate, the cities will be asking for major league status in five or six years.

The overall draw of the Longhorn League amounted to 248,584 and that figure has, no doubt, been padded a bit by League Proxy W. D. Green.

Alex Carrasquel, who managed the Sweetwater entry when that city fielded a Longhorn League team, will serve as the pitching coach of the Mexico City Red entry in the Class AA League this season.

Buck Francis, the Snyder writer, says he probably will never leave the last of the remark he passed on when the Big Spring High School basketball team got caught in a snow storm in Amarillo during the winter and had to stay over for a couple of days.

At that time, Buck allowed as how he didn't think it very smart on the part of Coach Johnny Johnson to take his boys on the trip.

Following the Steers' appearance in Snyder later in the season, a couple of the players ventured by Francis and asked him if it was all right with him if the team returned to Big Spring.

When the Steer baseball team went to Snyder last week, several of the local players sought out Buck and made a similar inquiry.

Look for a large number of college football games to be played the night of Saturday, Oct. 27.

Reason: The University of Oklahoma and Notre Dame meet in the nationally televised game that afternoon and not many of the schools want to buck the competition.

Rice and Texas are discussing such a move, at the present time.

Another Texas junior college basketball coach has quit. He is Leslie Robinson, mentor at Allen Academy the past 11 years, who took a similar job at Trinity University in San Antonio.

Robinson's teams won 159 games compared to 98 losses while he was at the Bryan school.

Jayhawk Linksters Lose Close Match To Odessa

ODESSA (SC) — Odessa Junior College gained a narrow 2-1 golf victory over HCJC's twosome here Wednesday afternoon, swinging the tide on the final hole.

James Lee Underwood of HCJC, medalist for the day, defeated Ken Garrison of Odessa, 1 up.

Wilbur Cunningham, HCJC, a linkster who is showing rapid improvement, lost a 2-up decision to Charley Brashear, Odessa, although he had an eagle on the fourth hole.

Cunningham also had a birdie while Underwood, in carving out a 2-over-par 74, had two birdies. Underwood won his match on the final hole with a birdie four. Cunningham lost his the same way. The matches were played on the 9-hole Sunset course.

The scoring:

Underdog Winner Over Lightburn

CLEVELAND (AP)—The new ring ratings are just out, but a name is missing among the lightweight contenders to be reckoned with. Langston Carl Morgan Jr., of Youngtown, Ohio, belongs among them now.

A 3-2 underdog in the betting, Morgan scored a unanimous decision in a slam-bang 10-rounder last night against Ludwig Lightburn, classy British Honduras boxer who ranks fourth among the lightweight hopefuls.

Ben Hogan To Play For United States

NEW YORK (AP)—Ben Hogan's retirement seems to have been short-lived.

The four-time National Open champion from Fort Worth, Tex., who announced after his defeat in the 1955 Open that he was through with serious competitive golf, accepted an invitation today to represent the United States in the International matches at Surrey, England, June 24-26.

John Jay Hopkins, head of the International Golf Assn., made the announcement. He said Hogan was unable to commit himself on the British Open at Liverpool July 2-6.

Reports out of Florida are that Hogan has whipped his game into top shape with intensive practice and will be ready to shoot for the "big ones" again this year.

This will be Hogan's first visit to the British Isles since he won the British Open at Carnoustie in 1953.

One other U. S. player will be chosen to team with Hogan in the competition, to which 28 nations have been invited.

Lopez Says He Won't Concede To Any Team

By BOB MYERS

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—Al Lopez, manager of the Cleveland Indians, is not conceding the American League pennant to the Yankees or anyone else.

He just happens to believe that the Cleveland baseball club is an improved one over the 1955 team that finished only three games behind New York.

Lopez was emphatic as he reviewed reports that almost everyone has already surrendered to the Yankees.

"I don't feel that way at all," he exclaimed. "I doubt whether Marty Marion or Higgins feel that way either."

He referred, of course, to the White Sox pilot and Pinky Higgins of the Boston Red Sox, who finished third and fourth behind him last year.

"And maybe the Yankees aren't so sure," he volunteered. "I read in the papers they are looking for a right-hand pitcher."

Lopez, it might be noted here, isn't just about to part with any of his right-handers, of which he happens to have three, if not five, of the best in the business.

They would be Bob Lemon, Mike Garcia and Early Wynn, plus a fellow named Bob Feiler, who should not be counted out, and still another, Sal (The Barber) Maglie, one of the craftiest, smartest in the game. To these, naturally, add lefty Herb Score.

Switching from the pitching prospects, Lopez said:

"Look at it this way. Bob Avila isn't going to drop 70 points in his batting average. Al Rosen isn't going to drop 60—"

Lopez referred to the disappointing 272 Avila batted last year in comparison to the 341 of 1954, and Rosen's 244 as against 300 the year before.

Most experts with the club agree the deal with the Chicago White Sox, which brought Cleveland outfielder Jim Busby and shortstop Chico Carrasco, will be of benefit, despite the loss in the negotiations of their best long ball hitter, Larry Doby.

This remains to be proved.

Steers Visit Snyder Today

LeRoy LeFevre, tall right-hander, will probably mount the knoll for Big Spring against Snyder in a high school game carded for the Snyder diamond this afternoon.

Snyder could counter with Tim Roberts, freshman lefthander, who blanked the Steers in a previous appearance.

T. L. Kennedy, relief pitcher-infielder, has been sick and may not see action for the Steers.

It's possible Coach Roy Baird will start Billy Blumh at third and send Eugene Hall back to the outfield.

North Ward Shuts Out Washington

Striking for all its runs in the final innings, the North Ward softball team shut out Washington Place, 4-0, here Wednesday afternoon.

Mike Martinez repelled one threat after another to get credit for the victory. He set the opposition down with five hits.

Martinez and Earl Harper paced North's attack with timely hits. North currently has a 4-0 win-loss record.

Carter Favorite In Test Tonight

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Jimmy Carter of New York City, who has three times won and lost the world's lightweight title, is a 5-3 favorite to defeat Don Jordan, Los Angeles, in a scheduled 10-round fight tonight at the Olympic Auditorium.

ACC Cats Score Run-Away Win

ABILENE, Tex. (AP)—Abilene Christian College racked up a runaway victory in a quadrangular track meet yesterday, scoring 77 points to 39 for second-place East Texas State. Shepperd Air Force Base scored 31 1/2 and Texas Tech 15 1/2.

Bobby Morrow, ACC's great sprinter, won the 100-yard dash in 9.6 seconds, running into the wind.

Austin In Visit

MIDLAND (SC) — The Midland Bulldogs host El Paso Austin in a baseball exhibition, starting at 4 p.m. today. The Bulldogs will carry a 6-3 won-lost record onto the field.

Burglars Don't Have To Break Into Every Place They Enter

By DON HENRY
Chances are that many break-ins are not break-ins; they are walk-ins. The public cries indignantly every time a business establishment or private home is burglarized, but the number of places left open by accident or through carelessness could easily be the reason for so many such crimes.

Recently in an eight-day period, a total of 11 business firms were found by patrolling policemen to have a door or window open or unlocked. At two other places the safety lights were out inside the places.

Two of these places were found with an open window or door Friday night — the night burglars broke into six establishments.

One burglary last week was reported in a private home where the complainant admitted the front door had been left unlocked — on two separate occasions — while no one was at home.

During the eight-day period checked, the police book read:

On Sunday night, an "open building" — a window open in a service station, and a light out behind a business;

On Monday night, a door open at one business and a window open at a motor company;

Tuesday night, a window open at a car dealer's shop;

Wednesday night, a light out behind an establishment;

Thursday night a door unlocked at a jewelry store;

Friday night, a door open at a florist, and a window open at a service station;

Saturday night, doors open at a motor company and an insurance office; and

Sunday night, a door open at a storage building.

Of course part of the job of policemen both in cars and walking beats is to check doors and windows, but if owners of the city's businesses are too careless to check their own property, why is the clamor so great when a series of burglaries are reported? police officials ask.

Chief of Police C. L. Rogers urged all business and home owners to check when they leave their premises. That way they will be making work easier for the city's policemen and making work harder for the city's yegs.

A quick check will be sufficient to locate a door that was overlooked. Also a window might have a broken pane near the latch. Or possibly the safety light hanging near the safe could be burned out.

These slight mistakes made before closing may seem insignificant. But the next morning when the safe is standing open with papers strewn around and the money bag producing nothing but air, the owner will not reject the thought to call the police, sheriff, and district attorney.

The police chief added that the old saying which starts, "An ounce of prevention . . ." is just as true in closing a business every night as it is in taking polo shots.

News Report Vindicates Snake's Meow

By HAL COOPER
LONDON (AP)—Ever hear a snake "meow"?

A British newsman reports that he has, in Rhodesia, and this has made Tracy Phillips the happiest man in London. After 23 years, vindication is his.

After all, if one snake can meow, then there's no reason why another can't go "hoo!"

The London Times correspondent in Rhodesia wrote a piece recently telling how he saw at close quarters a clutch of young cobras which meowed like kittens.

Phillips, who had been quietly fuming for upwards of two decades, sprang to his writing desk and dashed off a letter which appeared in the Times today.

"In your issue of Sept. 7, 1932," he wrote, "I ventured to record an observation of mine that certain African snakes, in addition to their hiss of fear or anger, are capable of producing a prolonged and repeated high-pitched liquid note, a subdued but very clear belling 'hoo!'"

The director of the East African Agricultural Research Station, Mr. Leechman, replied to you on Sept. 12, 1932, that my statement was "A direct challenge because all snakes known to science are unable to make any other sound than hissing or rattling." He was therefore rather unkind about it."

The unkindness of Mr. Leechman, Phillips indicated, was such that it had silenced the Londoner ever since. However, he did not fail to note:

"In your issue of Sept. 27, 1932, Mr. David Freeman, after 23 years in Malaya, described, as the cry of a cobra, 'a very faint and exceedingly shrill note, so high-pitched as to be barely audible by human ears.'"

"In March, 1933, in the periodical, 'East Africa,' a Northern Rhodesian reported killing in his orange-packing house two snakes whose sounds he described as a 'hoo!' He adds that local Africans state that these snakes can 'crow.'"

"Subsequently, Dr. J. O. Shircore, after 30 years in Nyasaland, described in 'African Affairs' (page 183) another snake 'unhooded and not a cobra.' He adds that 'the male crowed like a cock. Both (male and female) have a warning note—chu, chu, chu—which is repeated in quick succession.'"

Special Award

M-Sgt John W. Gilmore, right, receives a commendation ribbon from Col. Raymond Downey for his work in eliminating engine failures on T-28 planes of the type used at Webb AFB until about two weeks ago. The award was made to the T-28 expert during graduation exercises at the base Wednesday. Sgt. Gilmore has been ordered to Clark Field, The Philippines, and will leave Big Spring next week.

Borden, Glasscock Cases Are Cleared

Statements which promise to clear seven burglaries in this area have been secured by Sid Reeder, Borden County sheriff, and Sam (Buster) Cox, Glasscock County sheriff.

Climaxing a year of checking leads, the peace officers got admissions from two convicts in the state prison that they participated in burglaries at Gail and Garden City. The prisoners implicated another man also serving a term in the state penitentiary.

William Howard Jones, 25, serving five years from Brazoria County for theft, and William Carey, 30, serving 15 years from Raymondville for a armed robbery, made the statements to Reeder and Cox. Carey told the officers that he had a job driving a big truck for a Dallas firm. On cross-country trips Jones said Fred Dawson, 40, serving 12 years for escaping from prison, would accompany him.

On Feb. 14, 1955 they stopped in Gail, Carey and Jones said, and broke into the courthouse and two service stations. They made off with $119.23 of county funds and $45.50 belonging to Reeder's son. They even stole the sheriff's badge.

Similarly, they pulled in at Garden City on the night of April 9, 1955, and hit the courthouse, the superintendent of schools' office, and Garden City Cafe, and Shell Service Station. Cox's office was ransacked but nothing was taken. The school lost about $40, the cafe about $10 from a cigarette machine and music box, and the service station a radio and around $13 in money from vending machines.

Both Reeder and Cox said they would submit the matter to the grand jury in their respective counties, and if indictments are returned, they will seek to have the men brought back on a bench warrant to stand trial. They obtained statements from the two at the Ramsey No. 1 state prison farm.

Adame Convicted, Gets Five Years

DEL RIO, Tex. (AP)—R. L. Adame, former Duval County school superintendent, was found guilty of theft by false pretenses here yesterday and given a five-year prison term—three years more than was assessed in an earlier conviction.

Notice of appeal was filed immediately by defense attorneys for the former Duval County official who was accused of felony theft of school funds on or about Dec. 4, 1952.

School Set For Parents Of Deaf

Parents of deaf children are urged by Bill Kitts, Department of Public Welfare official for the Big Spring area, to enroll in the special parent's school at the Texas School for the Deaf, June 3-9.

Kitts pointed out that there are a number of unfortunate youngsters in the county who cannot hear and that these annual schools for their mothers and fathers often clear the way for such children to greatly improve their chances for a happier life.

There is no charge for the school. Kitts points out. The only expense the parent faces is his transportation to Austin and back. At the school, he is housed at a dormitory and eats at the dining room of the school.

The official release calling attention to the special school reads: "Parents whose children are between the ages of 18 months and eight years and who have never been in school are eligible to attend. (This does not mean kindergarten or preschool.)

"During the morning hours, the children are with our teaching staff. In the afternoon and evenings when there are planned activities for the parents the children are cared for by our house parents."

The visit to the state school, Kitts points out, will familiarize parents with the way the institution operates and do much to eliminate misunderstanding about the school which may exist in the minds of parents.

Kitts urges that all parents of deaf children who are interested in enrolling their children in the state school and who feel that attending this special session for parents would be of benefit in making a decision, contact him.

"I will be glad to go into all details with such parents and do what I can to encourage them to make the trip to Austin on June 3-9," he said.

"There are children in this county who are afflicted with deafness and the opportunities offered at the school for them to have a better chance in life are most important.

SWITCH TO DEMOS?

Uneasy Political Kinship In N. Dakota Heads For Breakup

BISMARCK, N. D. (AP)—An uneasy political kinship of 40 years standing in North Dakota is headed for a breakup. The Nonpartisan League, which fought Republican policies almost everywhere except at the ballot box, is ready to cross over to the Democrats.

Republican primaries against more conservative elements. But up until now it has always been welded to the GOP in the general elections.

They have gone beyond the Democratic party's liberal movement. The league captured control of the Legislature in 1916 and started putting the state into business with such ventures as the Bank of North Dakota, the state mill and elevator and a hail insurance department.

Driving Lesson Ends In Tragedy

PITTSBURG (AP)—An improper twist of the steering wheel turned the thrill of a teen-ager's first driving lesson into tragedy.

The switch leaves unclear the position of the volatile Sen. Langer (R-ND), a driving force behind the league for more than two decades.

South Korea Sets Date For Election

SEOUL, South Korea (AP)—The South Korean government today set May 15 as the date for the presidential election which will pit Syngman Rhee against one of his long-time political foes.

Scientist Says Electrons Key To Life Energy

LA JOLLA, Calif. (AP)—A Nobel Prize scientist today offered a new hypothesis that life's energy can only be understood in terms of electromagnetism.

He used the term "electronics excitation" and linked it with thyroxine, the human hormone of the thyroid gland.

Dr. Albert Szent-Georgyi, 1937 winner of the Nobel Prize in physiology and chemistry, said the hypothesis was based on known behavior of electrons. He applied this behavior to explain transmission of energy within animal muscle.

Szent-Georgyi said that he believed the energy stored in a chemical within a muscle was transmitted by this electronic excitation. He explained that an electron was excited into leaving its original energy level by reversing its spin.

Uncle Ray: Tornado Winds Are Furious And Deadly

By RAMON COFFMAN

The tornado has been called "the most furious and deadly" of all storms which the winds let loose on the earth.

A. A hurricane sweeps over a larger area. A tornado has faster winds, but they strike an area of limited size.

Q. Where do tornadoes strike? A. In many parts of the world. The valley of the Mississippi River has the largest number of them.

Q. Are all other parts of North America safe from tornadoes? A. In a period of 25 years, Nebraska had 72 tornadoes, Iowa had 124 and Kansas had 177.

Ike Aide Urges Loan To India, 'No Strings' Crude Oil Purchasers Urged To Hike Prices

HONOLULU (AP)—Dr. Neil S. Jacoby, economic adviser to President Eisenhower, says the United States should loan one billion dollars to India, without strings and on a long-term basis.

AUSTIN (AP)—The president of the Texas Independent Producers and Royalty Owners Assn. has called on crude oil purchasers to raise prices at least 60 cents a barrel.

HAPPY EASTER EGG CAKE

Giant Dessert Calls For Second Helpings

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Try this Easter Egg Cake if you want a special dessert for your holiday dinner. When it was served to a group of men and women recently, all the men asked for second helpings.

Chunks of the cake are folded into a delectable lemon mixture. The whole glorious concoction is then chilled. Before serving, it's unmolded, frosted with whipped cream and surrounded with a nest of tinted coconut.

EASTER EGG CAKE

Ingredients:
One envelope unflavored gelatin, 1/2 cup cold water, 6 eggs (separated), 1 1/2 cups sugar, 1/4 cup lemon juice, 1 1/2 teaspoons grated lemon rind, 1 large (8 or 9 inch) angel-food cake (broken into walnut-size pieces), 1 cup heavy cream (whipped and sweetened to taste), shredded coconut.

Method:
Sprinkle gelatin over water and let soften while cooking yolk mixture. Blend yolks and 1/4 cup of the sugar. Add lemon juice and rind and cook over simmering water, stirring constantly, until as thick as a medium white sauce. Do not have the water touching the bottom of the pan containing the yolk mixture.

Remove from heat, add softened gelatin and stir until gelatin is dissolved. Chill until mixture begins to thicken and starts to mound when dropped from a spoon. Meanwhile prepare a soft meringue of the egg whites and the remaining 1/4 cup sugar. Fold thickened yolk-gelatin mixture into the meringue. Then fold together meringue mixture and angel cake pieces. Pour into 12-cup mold. Chill until firm—several hours or overnight.

Shortly before ready to serve, frost with the whipped cream. Surround with coconut tinted pale green. Makes 12 to 14 servings.

Note:
To make the meringue, beat the 6 egg whites to a coarse foam. Beat in 1/4 cup of the sugar thoroughly, 1/2 tablespoon at a time; continue beating until stiff and glossy—meringue should hold stiff straight peaks when beater is slowly withdrawn.

Easter Eggs Grace Table After Hunt

No one would deny the young pleasures of coloring hard-cooked eggs for Easter. But how to use the eggs after they've seen their day of glory?

One way is to stuff them and serve them hot in a cream sauce enlivened with ham.

HOT STUFFED EGGS

Ingredients:
Six hard-cooked eggs, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon prepared mustard, 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce, pepper, 2 cups water, 1/2 cup instant nonfat dry milk powder, 3 tablespoons flour, 1/4 cup (or more) finely diced cooked ham, 2 to 3 teaspoons finely grated onion (pulp and juice), 1/4 teaspoon salt, 2 teaspoons minced parsley.

Method:
Shell eggs; cut in half lengthwise; remove yolks and mash. Add 1/2 teaspoon salt, Worcestershire sauce, mustard and a dash of pepper; mix well. Fill center of each egg half with egg-yolk mixture. Place in an 8-inch square baking pan.

Pour water into top of double boiler. Sprinkle instant nonfat dry milk powder and flour over the surface. Beat with a rotary beater until just blended. Cook over hot water, stirring constantly, until slightly thickened.

Add ham, grated onion and 1/2 teaspoon salt. Cook until thickened a little more. Pour sauce over deviled eggs; sprinkle with minced parsley. Bake in moderate (375 degrees) oven 10 to 15 minutes or until thoroughly heated.

Orange Dessert Takes The Cake

Here is the Easter dessert. Compliments of Mrs. Elmer Dickens, 609 Circle, this is the recipe:

FRESH ORANGE LAYER CAKE

Ingredients:
2 1/2 cups sifted cake flour, 1 1/2 cups sugar, 2 teaspoons baking powder, 1/2 teaspoon soda, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/2 cup shortening, 1/4 cup unstrained orange juice diluted with 1/4 cup milk, 1-3 to 1/2 cup unbeaten eggs, Grated rind of 1 orange. Sift into bowl flour, sugar, baking powder, soda, salt. Add shortening and grated rind and 2-3 cup liquid. Beat 2 minutes with mixer. Add remaining liquid and eggs. Beat 2 minutes. Bake 30 minutes in 350-degree oven in three layer pans. Use a butter frosting.

Use Heart, Gizzard

Kitchen economy: The uncooked heart and gizzard of a small broiling chicken may be brushed with melted butter or margarine and broiled with the rest of the chicken during the last 15 or 20 minutes of cooking. Turn the heart and gizzard as necessary.

Fill Crusty Rolls

Hollow out crusty rolls and fill with ham salad. Wrap in aluminum foil and bake in a moderate oven until hot through.

Pantry Shelf May Yield Inspirations For Season

Canned salmon, from the pantry shelf, makes a pleasant main course for lunch when served vinaigrette style. Salmon is such a nutritious food—offering protein, vitamins and minerals—that it deserves a good place on the family table.

And here's another luncheon idea that relies heavily on the pantry shelf—hot soup, followed by a salad of canned cherries and pineapple, oranges and celery. Crusty rolls or French bread and butter will taste good with the salmon platter; serve assorted crisp crackers with the fruit salad bowl.

SALMON PLATTER VINAIGRETTE

Ingredients:
Two cans (1/2 pound each) salmon, 1/4 cup olive oil, 3 tablespoons wine vinegar, 1/4 teaspoon onion powder, 1/4 teaspoon garlic powder, 1 avocado, 1 medium-sized tomato, radish accordions, cauliflowerets, escarole or chicory or other salad greens.

Method:
Drain salmon, reserving liquid; turn salmon out without breaking in center of serving plate. Shake salmon liquid, olive oil, vinegar, onion powder and garlic powder together thoroughly. Peel avocado and slice into eighths. Cut tomato into 8 wedges. Arrange tomato and avocado slices alternately around salmon. Garnish with radish accordions, cauliflowerets and salad greens. Serve with dressing. Makes 6 servings.

CHERRY BOWL SALAD

Ingredients:
One jar (1 pound and 1 ounce) dark sweet cherries, 1 can (12 1/2 ounces) pineapple cubes, 2 large oranges, 1 cup thin celery crescents, parsley.

Method:
Drain cherries and pit. Drain pineapple. Peel one orange and cut into membrane-free sections. Slice other orange (with peel on) into thin rounds; cut each round in half. Arrange cherries, pineapple and peeled orange sections in salad bowl with unpeeled orange slices around edge of bowl. Garnish with parsley. Serve with mayonnaise and crisp crackers. Makes 4 servings.

Glazed Ham Rolls Feature Stuffing Of Tangy Apples

Just reading this recipe for baked ham, stuffed with juicy, tangy-flavored apples, will set your taste buds dancing and when you serve this to luncheon guests or to the family you'll find it more than lives up to your expectations.

GLAZED HAM ROLL - UPS WITH APPLES

Winesap apples, coarsely shredded to make 1 cup, 1/2 cup fine dry bread crumbs, 1/4 tsp. salt, 1/2 tsp. pepper, 1 tsp. powdered dry mustard, 1 tsp. sugar, 2 tbsps. melted butter or margarine, 6 slices boiled ham, 1/2-inch thick.

Syrup: 1/4 cup light corn syrup, 2 tbsps. water, 1/4 cup cider vinegar, 2 tbsps. grated orange rind, 6 whole cloves, 1 2-inch stick cinnamon. Combine apples, crumbs, salt, pepper, mustard, sugar and butter or margarine in a bowl and blend well. Spread each slice of ham with a spoonful of apple mixture and roll up like a jelly roll. Fasten with toothpicks. Arrange the ham rolls in a shallow baking pan and pour syrup glaze over them. Bake in a hot oven (400 degrees F.) for 30 minutes, basting several times during baking. Remove toothpicks before serving. Makes 6 servings.

Crunchy Yams Go With Main Course

This is an idea for a main course accompaniment:

PEANUT CRUNCH YAM CASSEOLE

3 cups mashed yams, 2 tablespoons butter, 1/2 cup warm milk, 1/2 to 3/4 teaspoon salt, 1/2 to 3/4 cup chopped salted peanuts.

About 1 doz. marshmallows. Add butter and salt to milk. When butter is melted blend with yams. Beat until fluffy. Add more milk, if needed. Pile lightly into greased casserole. Heat in 375 degree oven 20 to 25 minutes. Top with marshmallows and sprinkle with peanuts. Return to oven, heat until marshmallows brown lightly. Serves six to eight.

Chop Up Chicken

Moisten finely chopped chicken or ham with a little mayonnaise and season with finely-grated onion. Spread on rounds of cucumber, sprinkle with paprika and center with tiny sprigs of parsley. Nice with tomato juice when company's coming.

LOOK! NEW WAYS TO BRIGHTEN YOUR EASTER TABLE:

1 Easter Bunny Salad
Mold fruited lemon gelatin in 9" round pan. Cut 4 faces with round cutter and arrange on lettuce cups lined with cottage cheese. Cut 8 ears. Eyes are cherry halves; noses are candy hearts, whiskers are coconut.

2 Sweet Potato Crunch
Add a few thin slices of unpeeled orange to boiled, peeled sweet potatoes. Top generously with coarsely chopped peanuts. Pour syrup over all and bake according to your favorite recipe.

3 Mustard Cheese Sauce
(Fine on asparagus, and broccoli, too!) To 1 1/2 cups medium white sauce add 1/2 cup shredded sharp cheese, 1 tbsp. prepared mustard, 1/2 tsp. Worcestershire sauce. Pour over asparagus, garnish with egg slices.

4 Walnut-Cheese Sticks
Delicious served with fruit juice or fruit cocktail. Roll pastry, cover half with shredded sharp cheese. Fold and re-roll. Cover top with chopped walnuts. Roll lightly, cut in strips, bake 'til golden.

5 Easter Egg Chocolate Pie
Drop spoonful of sweetened whipped cream on each wedge of pie, top with green-colored coconut. (Shake coconut in jar with drop of food coloring and water.) Fill nests with small jelly beans.

Your Easter Ham:
how to bake it, how to glaze it, how to garnish it!

Total baking time for your ham will depend on the kind of ham you buy: fully-cooked, uncooked, or tenderized. Most hams carry baking instructions on the wrapper.

To glaze your ham: 30 minutes before your ham is done, score and stud with cloves as shown. Drizzle ham with honey and over this sift brown sugar. Repeat every ten minutes until ham is a glossy brown.

Calla Lily Garnish: Cut thin slices from peeled turnips. Form slices into cornucopia around thin sticks of carrot. Fasten with toothpicks and drop in ice water. May be made the day before.

Easter feasters will be elated when treated to either of these delightful dishes. Yet, they're both simple to prepare—no elaborate preparations—no fancy ingredients. So, build a palate pleasing Easter menu around a succulent, savory ham or a golden, plump roast chicken. Choose your favorite, plus all the trimmings, from our complete selection. You'll save money—and collect the buying bonus of S&H Green Stamps with every purchase.

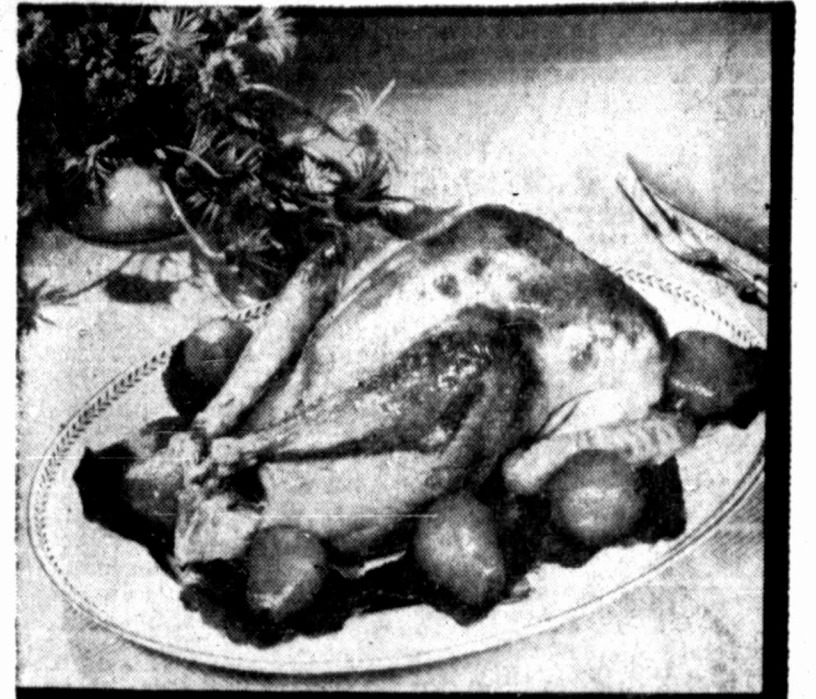

HAWAIIAN HAM

Follow label directions for baking ham. One-half hour before baking time is completed, remove ham from oven and cover top with drained pineapple slices. Place a maraschino cherry in the center of each slice. Spear pineapple chunks with cloves and stick into sides of ham. (With pineapple on top and sides—the tangy sweet pineapple flavor will have a chance to penetrate all through the ham.) Coat ham and pineapple with honey and return to the oven. Baste with drippings and additional honey every ten minutes until pineapple slices are golden brown and glazed.

GEORGE SMITH
Advice about Easter ham

Shank End Is Best Buy, Says Butcher

For the best bargain in your Easter ham, Hull and Phillips butcher, George (Smitty) Smith, advises a shank end.

"You'll get more center slices than with a butt end, which has a large concealed bone," he explains.

Some of his customers ask Smitty to loosen the round bone in the shank end and to cut off the hock for them.

Smitty recommends that they wrap the ham in foil and bake 10-12 minutes a pound. When it is cooled, the ham can be boned by pressing the thumbs against the loosened bone. Next the ham is cut in half.

Then slicing, always across the grain for more tender meat, is easy. He chops the hock into four pieces so that the homemaker can use it for seasoning beans or greens.

Nicholses Will Enjoy Family Meal Sunday

Easter dinner is a family meal in the home of the Rev. and Mrs. Clyde E. Nichols, 1211 Wood.

After Sunday services at First Christian Church the Nicholses will sit down to a table laden with their favorite dishes—baked ham with pineapple flowers, cherry salad, asparagus, candied yams and nut loaf cake.

Here is Mrs. Nichols' ham recipe:

EASTER HAM

Wrap a 10 or 12 pound smoked ham loosely in one of the new plastic papers or foil and place fat side up on rack of roaster. Do not cover pan or add water. Bake in slow, 300-degree oven allowing 25 minutes for each pound.

Forty-five minutes before total baking time elapses, remove paper and rind from ham and make shallow diamond cuts across the fat. Spread with a glaze of 1 cup brown sugar and the juice and grated rind of an orange.

Decorate with pineapple ring flowers with maraschino cherry centers. Bake uncovered in 325-degree oven for remaining time.

"We have ham at the least excuse," says Mrs. Nichols, who thinks this recipe is simple. Her secret is the slow oven.

The children, who appreciate the flower decorations on the ham, have a favorite salad made with cherry gelatin and red pitted cherries topped with salad dressing and served on a lettuce leaf.

These are the candied yams that will grace the table:

YAMS

Strip skins from precooked yams and cut into quarters. Dip each piece into syrup made by boiling 1 cup brown sugar with ¼ cup water. Place in greased baking dish and season with salt, pepper and generous bits of butter. Pour remaining syrup over yams and bake 5 to 10 minutes in a quick, 400-degree oven.

This dessert is easy to make and unfrosted.

NUT LOAF CAKE

¼ cup shortening
1 cup sugar
2 eggs, separated
1½ cups sifted cake flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
¼ cup milk
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 cup chopped nuts
Cream shortening and sugar. Add egg yolks and beat well. Sift together flour and baking powder and add alternately with milk. Add vanilla and nuts and fold in stiffly beaten egg whites. Bake in greased loaf pan for 50 minutes in 350-degree oven.

Limeade Meringue Makes Occasion Of Festive Day

Making an occasion of Easter? Then you might enjoy serving your family and friends this lime-green pie:

LIMEADE MERINGUE PIE

Ingredients:
One cup sugar, ¼ cup cornstarch, ¼ teaspoon salt, 1½ cups boiling water, 3 eggs (separated), 1-3 cup frozen limeade (thawed and undiluted), 1 tablespoon butter or margarine, green food coloring, ¼ teaspoon vanilla, 6 tablespoons sugar, baked 9-inch pie shell with fluted edge.

Method:
Mix 1 cup sugar, cornstarch and ¼ teaspoon salt together thoroughly in 1-quart saucepan. Add water gradually, stirring until smooth after each addition. Cook and stir constantly over moderate heat, until thickened, clear, and bubbling—1 minute or so.

Beat egg yolks slightly; stir a little of the hot mixture into them; stir back into hot mixture. Cook and stir constantly over low heat for about 2 minutes. Remove from heat; gradually stir in thawed undiluted limeade. Stir in butter; add food coloring drop by drop to get the color you wish. Cool slightly. Pour into baked pastry shell; cool.

Beat egg whites until frothy throughout; beat in ¼ teaspoon salt and vanilla, then 6 tablespoons sugar, 1 tablespoon at a time; beat thoroughly after each addition; continue beating until stiff peaks form. Pipe meringue over filling.

Ham Sandwiches Give New Twist To Holiday Supper

For Easter Sunday supper, try this:

NEW HAM AND CHEESE SANDWICHES

Ingredients:
1½ cups finely chopped cooked ham, 1 cup grated cheddar cheese, 2-3 cups chopped ripe olives, 2 tablespoons mayonnaise or mayonnaise-type salad dressing, 1 teaspoon chili powder, 12 slices bread, 2 eggs, ¼ cup milk.

Method:
Mix together the ham, cheese, olives, mayonnaise and chili powder. Spread 6 slices of the bread with the mixture. Cover with remaining bread and cut into triangles. Beat eggs just until yolks and whites are combined; add milk and beat enough to combine.

Dip sandwich triangles into egg mixture. Place on broiler pan (without rack) or cookie sheet. Toast under broiler until browned on one side; turn with spatula and brown other side. Makes six servings.

Pizza Makes Perfect Lenten Supper Dish

Just right for a Lenten supper: pizza made with a yeast-dough base and a topping of tomato, cheese and anchovies plus olive oil and seasonings.

Crunchy vegetables taste good with pizza, so have a tray of them on hand—carrot and celery sticks, radishes. If you like them, add raw cauliflowerets to the vegetable tray. Here's a gadget that is a lot of fun: a radish roser. It can be bought at a dime store, is made of plastic and looks something like a small lemon or orange squeezer. When you press a radish down over its points the result is something that vaguely resembles a petaled flower. Bring the gadget into the living room if you want a conversation piece, but have plenty of radishes on hand so guests can try their hand at rosin!

The large flat metal pans on which pizza is traditionally baked may be had in many housewares stores. Don't let a little thing like lack of special pizza pans keep you from trying this very savory recipe. It's a favorite with family and friends. It will bring you repeat!

LENTEN PIZZA

Ingredients: 1½ cups milk, 2½ tablespoons sugar, 1½ teaspoons salt, ¼ cup shortening, ¼ cup warm (not hot) water, 2 packages active dry compressed yeast, 3½ cups sifted flour, Pizza Filling, olive oil (for brushing).

Method: Scald milk by heating in a saucepan over low heat until bubbles appear around edge; stir in sugar, salt and shortening. Cool to lukewarm. Measure warm water into bowl; sprinkle in yeast. Stir until dissolved. Stir in lukewarm milk mixture and flour. Beat 2 to 3 minutes. Cover. Let rise in warm place free from draft, until doubled in bulk—about 30 minutes. Stir batter down. Beat about ½ minute. Spoon into 2 greased 12-inch (inside diameter) pizza pans or divide in half and spoon onto greased baking sheets. Spread evenly with greased hands. (If baking sheets are used spread dough in rounds about 12 inches in diameter.) Press around edge to form a standing rim of dough. Brush dough with olive oil. Bake in a hot (400 degrees) oven 5 minutes. Add filling and continue baking as directed in Pizza Filling recipe.

PIZZA FILLING

Ingredients: 1 can (1 pound and 12 ounces) tomatoes (well drained), 1 can (6 ounces) tomato paste, 1 large clove garlic (minced), ½ pound Mozzarella cheese (thinly sliced), 1 can (12 ounces) anchovy fillets (drained), ¼ cup grated Parmesan cheese, 1 teaspoon salt, ½ teaspoon dried crushed oregano, ¼ teaspoon pepper, 2 to 4 tablespoons olive oil.

Method: Mix drained tomatoes, tomato paste and garlic; spoon onto pizza shells after they have baked; 5 minutes. Arrange Mozzarella cheese and anchovies over tomatoes. Sprinkle with Parmesan cheese, salt, oregano, pepper and olive oil. Continue to bake in hot (400 degrees) oven about 25 minutes. Cut into wedges and serve at once.

Negro Files For School Post, 6 Whites Withdraw

WEST COLUMBIA, Tex. (AP)—The entry of a Negro candidate for a School Board post in this coastal plain hamlet has caused five of the nine white aspirants to withdraw from the race.

A sixth later withdrew, leaving three white candidates and the lone Negro, Traversia Viola, an undertaker.

White withdrawals seemed to be based on hope the vote would not be split, thereby insuring election of the usual all-white board.

Some quarters said the withdrawals of white candidates had solidified a 232-vote Negro bloc for Viola.

Berserk Negro Captured After Standing Off Police

CALLANDS, Va. (AP)—Police Wednesday captured asleep in a creek bed a berserk Negro who had held them off with gunfire for 10 hours and then escaped them in the darkness.

Lum Harris, about 46, was tracked to some reeds by bloodhounds soon after they were put on the trail near the farm home from which Harris had escaped.

He fled when a police armored car smashed down the walls of the house.

Harris, sought by police for battering his aged father critically with a hammer, wounded four police of the 20 police on the siege.

Eight tear gas grenades fired into the house failed to dislodge him, although witnesses said the house was so full of fumes it appeared to be on fire. A reporter said this morning the air in the house was still acrid.

The bloodhounds made a beeline for Harris and stood over him as he lay sleeping. He awoke and reached for his deadly four-pound hammer and chain with which he had beaten his father.

Two state troopers grabbed him and shackled his hands.

After that Harris was meek. He was suffering from a shotgun pellet wound in his right eye and a wound in his right leg.

The siege took place about 22 miles northwest of Danville, in southern Virginia.

Jury 'Stymied' In Tax Probes

ST. LOUIS (AP)—A federal grand jury has complained it is stymied in its investigation of tax scandals in the Truman administration.

The protest was in an unusual report handed up to Judge George H. Moore yesterday.

"It is our conviction," the jury said, "that the original investigative staff with whom we worked so closely during the latter part of 1955 could be most helpful. We hope they can be made available soon enough to make really effective use of the time which remains."

Wyllis S. Newcomb, special assistant to the attorney general, and Warren Olney III, head of the Justice Department's Tax Division, worked with the jury last year.

Newcomb and Olney have not been active in the investigation in recent weeks. Instead, the jury has been working with David Luce and Max Goldschein, assistants to the attorney general.

The Department of Justice previously had indicated it would suspend the grand jury investigation until after the trial in May of Matthew J. Connelly, T. Lamar Caudle and Harry Schwimmer, already indicted for conspiracy to fix a tax case.

Connelly was an executive assistant at the White House in the Truman administration. Caudle was head of the Justice Department's Criminal Division.

Sound Reason For Fixing Varying Date For Easter

Why haven't the poets written more about the Easter moon? They have produced reams of verse about other moons — the harvest moon, the Indian moon and innumerable variations in which the moon is featured. But for some reason none has turned to the Easter moon.

And yet of all the days and occasions of the year, none has so much relation to the moon as Easter — sacred holiday of countless millions of people.

Even the day on which Easter falls each year is wholly dependent on the moon. The Sunday is fixed by study of the lunar calendar and its determination hinges entirely on that satellite's position in the heavens at the proper season.

Look up the formula by which Easter is set: "Easter shall be on the first Sunday following the Paschal full moon which happens upon or next after the 21st of March."

This explains the variation from year to year in the occurrence of this holy day.

This formula by which Easter is established traces back to AD 325 when the Council of Christian Churches in Asia Minor met at Nicea. It is a part of the Nicene Creed.

There was a very sound reason that these early day fathers of the Christian religion decided on this particular method of fixing this date for the observation of the day of resurrection.

A practical and common-sense argument was a factor in determining the method and the role that the moon would play was vital to the successful employment of the formula.

In the ancient days, after Christ had been crucified, and his few followers began to spread about the civilized world with their preaching of a new philosophy, groups of Christians began to be formed.

It was essential to the successful perpetuation of this new creed that certain important dates be emphasized.

Some of these days could be fixed by calendar.

For example, the scriptures record that Christ was born at a time when his earthly parents had been summoned by Roman order to come to Bethlehem "to be counted." The Romans were a methodical people. They kept accurate records so it was a simple matter to determine the exact date of the great event by determining the day when the imperial order for a census of Judea applied.

But other days were not so easily established. The day of the Crucifixion and the day of the Resurrection, for example. The records were vague and there were conflicts in the evidence.

Christianity was establishing a new religion among peoples who had been followers of other religions.

These other faiths had their holidays and the founders of Christianity were wise enough to designate many of these pagan days, revised to fit the new philosophy, as holidays for the followers of Christ.

They knew that days which were commonly observed and had been observed for centuries would be easier to establish as Christian holidays than newly designated dates. Easter for example.

Pagans for countless centuries had observed a spring holiday — a date when winter had passed and the new growth of a new year was making itself evident.

It was truly a day when the "dead" world, long in the grasp of winter, came back to life.

The Risen Christ fitted perfectly into this ancient holiday and so the founders modified the pagan event and established Easter.

Selecting the date each spring posed a new problem.

The followers of Christianity were few in number and widely scattered.

The basic aim of the Easter ceremonies was that the adherents of the new faith must assemble together for joint worship on this holiest of days.

For the adherents of the new religion to do this, many had to travel long distances.

To make this travel less dangerous and easier to accomplish, the nights should be moonlit.

Thus, when the Nicea conference pondered the subject and established the method of fixing the date for Easter, they made certain that the period would be one in which a full moon would be in the skies.

Thus the pilgrims en route to the sacred shrines and appointed centers would have better and safer traveling conditions and be safer from the hordes of outlaws which often ravaged caravans.

So why haven't the poets written much of the Easter moon — an interval when Luna, of the ancient theologies, becomes the servant of the newest religion?

U.S. Will Go Ahead With Atomic Tests

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The United States is going ahead with its April H-bomb tests at Eniwetok atoll despite protests of the native Marshall Islanders.

A U.S. statement to the U.N. Trusteeship Council's special committee on petitions said President Eisenhower himself had made the decision. Eniwetok and the other Marshall Islands are a U.N. trust territory administered by the United States.

Boy From Ireland Will Be Entrant In Soap Box Derby

DETROIT — Further international flavor will be added to the 19th All-American Soap Box Derby at Akron, O., Aug. 12, with an official entry from the Irish Free State.

This will be Ireland's first participation in the great amateur coasting car racing event for boys, aged 11 through 15, according to W. J. King, All-American general manager and assistant advertising manager of Chevrolet.

As in 1955, there will again be two entries from Canada, one from Alaska and one from Western Germany, King said, making a total of five champions from outside the United States in the field of approximately 150.

The opportunity for Irish youth to compete for the All-American title, the trip to Akron and a share in $15,000 in scholarship prizes and other valuable awards is the climax of a project begun in 1950 by Cyril McConoran, an Irish youth worker.

McConoran was the prime mover on a committee of persons who organized an unofficial race for boys at Dunleer in County Louth that year. His dream was to see an official Soap Box Derby race for boy-built, gravity-propelled cars held in Ireland with the winner going to America to compete in the All-American.

To carry forward that plan, he appealed to General Motors Overseas organization in London which, in turn, referred him to McCairns Motors, Ltd., of Dublin. The McCairns organization agreed to sponsor the Irish Soap Box Derby.

Because arrangements were complete only shortly after the first of the year, there will be only one Soap Box Derby race in Ireland this summer — a final event in Dublin sometime in July. Contestants from all of Ireland's 26 counties are eligible while youngsters from Northern Ireland may enter through the border counties.
