Sam Says It's Straw Hat Time

Man, this is old Sam, the Sartorial Scarecrow, speaking at you. Haven't you heard? Everybody - I mean everybody - is getting in on the act. What act? Why man, Straw Hat Day. . . Friday that is. Now wouldn't I be one for the birds if I tried to carry on my business with a battered old felt? You'd deserve the bird, too, if you don't hurry down to your favorite store and get yourself a cool, comfortable, classy straw. You wouldn't want the little woman to say an old scarecrow looks better? You, now would you?

Egypt- Israeli Cease-Fire Is Announced

HALF INCH AND UP

Rains Fall Over Area

Showers, ranging from about a half inch in Big Spring to a 1.36-inch downpour at Chalk, soaked the topsoil of Howard County Wednesday and this morning. The moisture pushed the April total in Big Spring to more than an inch and a quarter. With no runoff except on the pavement, the showers were expected to enable many farmers to continue plowing started after much of the county received three quarters of an inch of rain April 5. The rainfall pattern around Big Spring was the same as over much of West Texas yesterday and last night. Most gauges in this section caught from .4 of an inch upward with the Chalk shower being the heaviest reported.

Company reports from this area included the 1.36 at Chalk, .71 at Eskota east of Sweetwater, .82 at Morgan Creek, .85 at Colorado City, .8 at Snyder, .65 at Sweetwater, and .2 at Lamesa, where the weather bureau reported only .05. The Associated Press reported totals of .72 at Abilene, .19 at Lubbock, and .22 at Amarillo. Some snow fell at Lubbock and small particles of hail were noticed in Big Spring and Midland. The hail, snow, sleet resulted from a layer of warm air sliding over cold air and underneath high clouds that reached up to 11,500 feet, the Weather Bureau said. Hailstones which started falling from the higher cloud mass almost melted before they reached the ground and fell as light sleet or snow, the Weather Bureau said. The ground temperature was about 40 degrees at the time. A Reese Air Force Base plane from Lubbock was struck by lightning while aloft but the plane suffered only minor damage and the pilot and his two student passengers made a safe landing. The forecast called for continued cloudy weather over most of the state, scattered rain showers, and little changes in temperatures. Early morning temperatures ranged from 39 at Amarillo to 72 at Brownsville. Wednesday afternoon Brownsville with an 82 was the warmest spot in the state and Big Spring with 48 the coolest.

U.N. Chieftain Successful In Peace Efforts

JERUSALEM, Israeli Sector (AP)—Dag Hammarskjold announced today Egypt and Israel have agreed to an unconditional cease-fire on their borders, effective at 6 p.m. last night "and from that time on." The U.N. Secretary General's announcement came out headquarters of the U.N. Palestine Truce Commission about 24 hours after the agreed deadline for an end to the hostilities such as those which flared dangerously two weeks ago. The announcement of the agreement was issued simultaneously in Cairo, Jerusalem and the U.N. headquarters in New York. "At the request of the Secretary General of the United Nations," it said, "the governments of Israel and Egypt have notified him that as of 6 p.m., April 18, and from that time on, orders are in force to the effect that, in implementation of assurances to observe Article 2, Paragraph 2 of the (Israeli-Egyptian) armistice agreement, no military or paramilitary forces, including nonregular forces, may shoot across the demarcation line or pass over that line for any purpose whatsoever." That article of the armistice agreement says: "No element of the land, sea or air military or paramilitary forces of either party, including nonregular forces, shall commit any warlike or hostile act against the military or paramilitary forces of the other party, or against civilians in territory under the control of that party; or shall advance beyond or pass over for any purpose whatsoever the armistice demarcation line set forth in Article 2 of this agreement, and elsewhere shall not violate the international frontier, or enter into or pass through the waters within three miles of the coastline of the other party."

Saturday To Be Derby Shop Day

The first "shop day" for Soap Box racer builders will be held Saturday in the shops building at Big Spring High School. Loyd Wooten of Tidwell Chevrolet Company, one of the Soap Box Derby sponsors, said the shop equipment will be available from 1 to 4:30 p.m. for use of the racer builders. Louis Maneely, shop instructor at the high school, and Wooten will be on hand to help the boys cut out bulkheads, axletrees and floorboards. The Derby boys then may take the parts home for assembly. The shop will be open the same hours on April 28 and May 5, Wooten said. Wooten asked that Derby entrants who have not picked up their racer wheels do so Saturday morning at Tidwell Chevrolet Company. The wheels won't be available Saturday afternoon, as Wooten will be engaged in the shop work. Several boys have racer construction well along, it was reported. Some of the local race prizes also have arrived. Included are race helmets for each race driver, a flash camera set and Stanley tool board. A number of other prizes will be posted. The Derby will be staged July 4 on Lancaster Street.

JUDGE MAKES RULING

Icardi Is Acquitted Of Perjury Charge

WASHINGTON (AP)—Former Army Lt. Aldo L. Icardi was acquitted today of charges of perjury. He was accused of falsely denying complicity in the World War II murder of OSS Maj. William V. Holohan behind enemy lines in Italy. The acquittal was directed by U. S. District Judge Richmond H. Keach on a defense motion to throw out the indictment. Under court rules, since the jury already had been sworn, the motion amounted to one for a judgment of acquittal. There can be no government appeal. Icardi, 35, is now a real estate broker in Pittsburgh. An Italian court convicted him in absentia of murder - meaning without being able to get Icardi's presence in court. The perjury charge in the court here was brought after Icardi testified before a House Armed Services subcommittee in March, 1953, and swore he had no part in the slaying of Holohan. Judge Keach ruled that Icardi's allegedly false testimony before the House subcommittee could not have been material to the subcommittee's inquiry. Icardi, the father of five children, listened tensely as Judge Keach delivered a long legal opinion in which he said the subcommittee was "not functioning as a competent tribunal" when Icardi testified. And, assuming that it was functioning as a competent tribunal, he said, Icardi's allegedly false answers "did not relate to a material matter." Icardi's chief counsel, Edward Bennett Williams, contended yesterday the subcommittee's purpose in inviting Icardi to testify was to "set up" a perjury prosecution if he adhered to his denial that he had anything to do with Holohan's death. Government prosecutors Kevin T. Maroney and Victor C. Woeheide insisted the subcommittee, in looking into all aspects of the death of Holohan, had a lawful purpose, including possible legislative recommendations. Maroney specifically denied Williams' contention that Icardi was called to "set up" a perjury prosecution. "I'm not so sure that's true," Keach commented. "It looks to me like they had the situation set up pretty clearly." But, the judge said, he was not called upon to determine motives, but only to make "a naked legal determination."

Bond Election Set At Stanton

STANTON — Voters of the Stanton school district will ballot Saturday on issuance of $340,000 in bonds to construct a new high school. Polls will be set up in the school gymnasium, with voting to be from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m. The bond issue is being proposed for construction of a new high school plant, including vocational agriculture and homemaking buildings, auditorium and lunchroom. If the new plant is constructed, the present high school will become a junior high. Mrs. D. C. Zant said the gauge at the Zant farm three and a half miles north of the Luther store caught about .5 of an inch. Mrs. Arthur Stallings reported a half inch with another good shower falling at 11 a.m. Webb Air Force Base gauged .44 west of Big Spring and Texas Electric Service Company reported .53 of an inch at its Big Spring plant. At the TESCO switching station east of the city, .48 was gauged. The Herald also measured .48 of an inch. The U. S. Experiment Station at the north edge of the city reported a half inch. W. B. Dunn of Forsan said .5 of an inch had fallen there at mid-morning, and it was still raining. He said .8 of an inch was recorded a mile south of Forsan. Light showers and a little hail were reported at Sterling City. James Eiland said 4 of an inch had fallen at Stanton at 8 a.m. and showers during the morning probably pushed the total to a half inch. He said the rainfall appeared general at about that rate over most of Martin County. Garden City had about 4 of an inch at noon and the showers were general in that area. The Midland Reporter-Telegram said rainfall there amounted to about .4 of an inch at noon. Other Texas Electric Service

Railroad Commission Cuts Permissive Flow For May

AUSTIN (AP)—The Railroad Commission ordered today a cut of 78,347 barrels a day in Texas permissive oil flow for May. The commission set the allowable at 3,290,224 barrels daily. The commission retained the 16-day flow allowed for April but the 31-day month of May would result in the decrease in the average daily allowable. Exceptions to the 16-day flow statewide and in the big East Texas field were: Ft. Chadbourne, 13 days; Adams Devonian, Jigger Y, and McElroy fields, 15 days; Round Top, 12 days. Of the 11 oil companies represented at the statewide prorating hearing, all recommended a cut in daily permissive flow. Four companies asked for the 16 day production, 5 asked for 15 days and 2 asked for only 14 days. Humble, Sun, Texas and Continental oil companies told the commission the present 16-day flow would satisfy their needs. Atlantic, Gulf, Magnolia, Sinclair and Tide Water Associated asked for 15 days. A 15-day flow will drop production 220,000 barrels daily. Stanolind and Phillips requested only 14 days. The Round Top Field was reduced from 16 to 12 days and will result in an added drop of a little less than 1,000 barrels a day statewide. Humble and Cities Service have been taking about 118,000 barrels a month from the field and with a 25 per cent cut will bring on the added drop, making the cut ordered by the commission of a little more than 79,000 barrels daily. The final exact figure was not announced at once by the commission.

Texan Is Killed In Europe Jet Crash

WIESBADEN, Germany (AP)—U. S. Air Force Headquarters in Europe identified the victim of the April 17 crash of a supersonic F100 jet plane today as Lt. James C. Miller, of Route 2, Box 390, Port Arthur, Tex. Miller's jet crashed on takeoff from Bitburg Air Force in Germany. He was stationed at Sidi Slimane Air Base in Morocco. He died in a hospital to which a helicopter rescue team had taken him within 18 minutes of the crash.

Monaco's Third Theft Reported

MONTE CARLO, Monaco, April 19 (AP)—Monaco's third—and biggest—robbery of the week-long wedding celebration for Grace Kelly and Prince Rainier III was announced today. Police said five rare paintings valued at more than $95,000 were stolen yesterday afternoon from the home of Dr. S. Mikhaelios, a wealthy resident of the principality. The home is on the Boulevard DesMoulines, Monaco's equivalent of Park Avenue. Hammarskjold headed to the Middle East under Security Council orders to seek an easing of tension. He has conferred in Cairo with Premier Gamal Abdel Nasser and in Israel with Premier David Ben-Gurion. The agreement is the major result announced thus far in his peace mission. Political sources had forecast a cease-fire agreement and expected it to be announced last night.

Insurance Ills Called 'Minor'

DALLAS (AP)—Gov. Shivers told a meeting of insurance commissioners today that the "illness" of the Texas insurance industry proved to be a minor one and not an epidemic. The governor spoke to a zone five meeting of the National Assn. of Insurance Commissioners. "The Texas insurance industry as a whole is a responsible, sound industry which is making untold contributions to the progress of this state and nation," Shivers said. "The vigor and judgment of the Texas Insurance Commission, strengthened by the fine laws passed by the Legislature, have protected this healthy, growing industry from the abuses of unworthy and incompetent operators." The governor said that of the nearly 900 insurance companies with home offices in Texas, less than 80 have failed in 15 years. He said 60 per cent of the failures involved companies holding only 3 per cent of the insurance assets of the state. The governor said only 5 per cent of the failures have occurred among companies holding over 92 per cent of the insurance assets.

14 Schools Due At HCJC Senior Day

Fourteen schools will send their senior classes or representatives to the annual Howard County Junior College Senior Day Friday. School officials are laying plans for entertaining more than 400 visiting seniors, and including guests, some 500 for the barbecue luncheon. Big Spring, Sterling City, Ira, Fluvanna, Dawson, Klondike, Flower Grove, Ackerly, Knott, Gall, Hermleigh, and Forsan are to send their seniors, and representatives are due from the graduating classes at Snyder and Lamesa. Twelve trophies will be awarded in the two contests — one for Miss Senior of 1956, the other for talent. There will be scholarship awards to the top three places in each division, together with special merchandise prizes. Music will be furnished by the Webb AFB band and by the HCJC Choir. Classes which do not have to meet transportation schedules have been invited to the HCJC-Odessa JC baseball game at Steer park Friday afternoon. Dean Ben Johnson, in charge of general arrangements, said a busy schedule had been planned. Registration will begin at 8:30 a.m. and will continue until 9:45 a.m. in the administration building. During that period, there will be a reception in the student union building. At 9:15 p.m. the Webb AFB band will begin a half hour concert in the auditorium. Dr. W. A. Hunt, HCJC president, will welcome visitors at the assembly beginning at 9:45 a.m., and George McAllister will serve as master of ceremonies. On the judges panel are Lt. Charles Webb, Lt. Lester Bates, Lt. C. R. Anderson, Lt. Charles Welch and Lt. William Stuart. Preliminaries will be completed in the morning session, and at 1 p.m. the eight finalists in each division will perform again in the auditorium. At approximately 2:15 p.m., while judges are making their decisions, the choir under direction of Orland Johnson will sing. Trophies to all six winners in the Miss Senior and talent contests will be awarded by Dr. Hunt, along with scholarships for the three winners in each class, and the other prizes. During the barbecue luncheon at the gymnasium during the noon hour, the Webb AFB band will play.

Rabies Hits 3 Counties In W. Texas

AUSTIN (AP)—Emergency measures to control an epidemic of rabies among animals in Kinney, Schleicher and Presidio counties have been set up, the State Health Department said today. Dr. A. B. Rich, director of the division of veterinary public health, returned to Austin from the far West Texas area where he said the outbreak had reached serious proportions. It was the first appearance of rabies among foxes in western counties, although the disease has been increasing in eastern sections of the state in recent years.

Ammonia Plant Wrecked By Blast

MARCUS HOOK, Pa. (AP)—A thunderous blast minutes after midnight wrecked the Sun Oil Co. new ammonia plant at its Marcus Hook refinery early today, injuring eight persons and causing damage estimated at about three million dollars. The blast shot flames 200 feet into the air. The shock waves were felt for 20 miles.

Grace, Rainier Repeat Wedding Vows In Religious Ceremonies

MONTE CARLO, Monaco (AP)—She didn't even flicker one of her lovely eyelids when 6-year-old page boy Sebastian von Furstenberg dropped her ring at the beginning of the rites. The Rev. Francis Tucker, Rainier's American chaplain from Wilmington, Del., darted up in this minor emergency, recovered the ring from the floor of the red-carpeted cathedral and steadied the little page with a smile. Father Tucker, in fact, stage-managed the entire wedding as he partly stage-managed the entire romance between Grace and the ruler of this tiny principality. He was constantly at the elbow of Grace and the Prince telling them with whispered asides and quick gestures when to stand, kneel and pray. The ceremony — scheduled to take an hour—went over the limit by only three minutes. When it was over, the couple entered an open cream and black Rolls Royce—both smiling broadly for the first time since the ceremony began. He tugged at his collar and she leaned over to him. They appeared relaxed and waved as crowds cheered their progress under a bright sunny sky.

'Ghost' Lights In Cemetery Stir Up Town

SILVER CLIFF, Colo. (AP)—Seen any ghosts lately? Neither have the 217 residents of this southern Colorado mining town. But many of them claim to have seen the next best thing. They're eerie blue lights, about the size of baseballs, that dance furtively each night in Silver Cliff's old cemetery, one-half-mile south of town. An unidentified passer-by first reported the mysterious ghost lights April 6. Intrigued by his story, crowds of curious residents have swarmed to the cemetery each night since then. And they've not been disappointed. "You can see 'em every night," said Ray De Wall, publisher of the Wet Mountain Tribune at Westcliffe, one mile west of here. "Last Saturday night, there were at least 50 people in the cemetery, and every one saw the lights. Some of us have tried to catch them, but as we approached, they suddenly would disappear, only to show up farther ahead in some other part of the cemetery."

Vaccine Victims' Parents Sue Federal Government

BOISE, Idaho (AP)—Parents of two Idaho children felled by polio during mass vaccinations last spring charge the federal government was to blame because of what they call negligence in permitting dangerous serum to slip into the program. Exactly one year after their daughter was inoculated, Lester and Myrtle Pierce of Pocatello filed suit in Federal District Court here yesterday, seeking $150,588 damages for her death. Susan Diane Pierce, 7, died April 29 of bulbar polio, 9 days after she was inoculated. She was the first child in the nation to die after receiving shots of Salk vaccine. In a separate suit, Kenneth Turner of American Falls asked for $250,000 damages. He claimed his son, Terry, 5, became paralyzed in both legs after "close association" with a brother who had been inoculated. Both suits named "The United States of America" as defendant and said government agencies carelessly permitted "live-virus laden" vaccine to be injected into children. The suits named Cutter Laboratories of Berkeley, Calif., as the source of the vaccine, but the firm was not named as a defendant. Idaho called off the mass vaccination program last May because of a statewide outbreak of polio.

Dallas Yacht Eyesore Falls

DALLAS (AP)—In the best nautical tradition, Dr. Cosette Faust Newton, wearing a captain's cap and uniform, stayed on the bridge of the yacht Miramar yesterday as it headed for Davey Jones' locker. A waving American flag, a flower-decked tombstone, and a casket draped in black added dramatic touches to the death of the mock yacht in the backyard of the Newton home in fashionable Highland Park. The ceremony, staged by Mrs. Newton for the press, came as workmen started dismantling the Miramar, a storm of controversy for 15 years, in compliance with a court order which ruled the yacht an eyesore that was in violation with zoning ordinances.

CUE FROM IKE

Nixon Praises Demos, But Compliment's Not Returned

By The Associated Press
 Taking a cue from President Eisenhower, Vice President Nixon has spoken favorably of the Democrats. But so far Democrats Adlai Stevenson and Estes Kefauver have shown no inclination to return the compliment. Speaking in New York last night, Nixon said that "all in fairness, the credit for America's great prosperity today must be shared among Democrats and Republicans," as well as other groups. However, Nixon also criticized previous Democratic administrations. Stevenson took aim at the GOP "peace and prosperity" slogan, telling a Pittsburgh rally last night "the peace is but an uneasy truce and the prosperity has failed countless small business." Kefauver, Stevenson's announced rival for the Democratic presidential nomination, rapped the Eisenhower administration for what he said was its failure to get a school construction program started. "The administration is so anxious to write in Wall Street and the investment bankers that the school building program has been passed," Kefauver said in San Leandro, Calif. The two Democratic presidential hopefuls were a continent apart as they campaigned for votes in coming primaries. Kefauver, saying he has "no alibis, no regrets, no excuses" for the licking he took in New Jersey's primary Tuesday, looked ahead optimistically to the June 8

California primary in which he and Stevenson are contending for 69 convention votes. During a news conference in Berkeley, Calif., yesterday, the Tennessee senator said he felt he has "done awfully well" in California. Stevenson scheduled appearances in Harrisburg and Philadelphia today as he got ready for next Tuesday's Pennsylvania primary where he is unopposed on the Democratic ballot. Gov. George M. Leader and other top Democratic chiefs are supporting Stevenson in the state, and the former Illinois governor said yesterday he hopes to do "mighty well" there. Eisenhower's name is entered in the Republican primary in Pennsylvania where he owns a farm at Gettysburg. A White House spokesman said yesterday he did not know yet whether the President and Mrs. Eisenhower would vote in the Pennsylvania primary. Nixon's reference to the role Democrats have played in achieving "great prosperity" in this country appeared to follow the tone of what Eisenhower said about the Democrats during his campaign kickoff speech Monday night to a GOP gathering in Washington. Eisenhower said then Democrats, as well as Republicans, are loyal to the United States, devoted to freedom and concerned about national security and the popular welfare. Where Democrats and Republicans part company, he said, is on the methods of reaching the desired objectives. Nixon said last night the difference between the Eisenhower administration and the Truman and Roosevelt administrations lies in what the vice president described as "how we achieve" such goals as better schools, housing, jobs, and medical care. "The administrations which immediately preceded the Eisenhower administration . . . assumed in virtually every instance that federal government action was the answer to all social and economic problems," Nixon asserted. We, in this administration, have exactly the opposite point of view."

Says Demos Can't Ignore Race Issue

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Humphrey (D-Minn.) said today the Democratic party can't afford to go to the voters with a 1956 platform that "ignores or rebukes" the Supreme Court's school integration decision. Humphrey, who has taken a leading role in past convention fights for adoption of strong civil rights planks, will participate in a two-day Democratic rally opening here tomorrow. The conference schedule calls only for informal discussion of campaign issues and leaders obviously hoped to avoid any public debate now on the civil rights question, with its threat to party unity. But Humphrey said he thinks the party's presidential nominating platform will have to express "concurrence in and support of the Supreme Court's decision and the court's implementation of the integration order." "That doesn't include any congressional or executive action on the issue," he said. "My position is that the court has taken jurisdiction and that it can and will gain compliance with its order." Some Southerners have made it clear that if the platform calls for White House enforcement of the court's order, or a candidate is nominated who pledges such action, they might walk out of the August convention in Chicago. Humphrey seemed to be stopping short of such a declaration. Sen. Sparkman (D-Ala.), one of those who signed a recent congressional "manifesto" advocating legal reversal of the court's decision, declined to say whether he thinks the kind of plank Humphrey outlined would be acceptable to Southern Democrats.

Youngster Follows Grooming Habits

By LYDIA LANE
HOLLYWOOD — Jymme Shore, known professionally as Suzabelle on the Pinky Lee Show, is a veteran in show business although she is just 13.
"There is a big jump from twelve to being a teen-ager," she told me in her dressing room at NBC-TV.
"I wouldn't think of leaving the studio with make-up on," she told me. "Some of the girls in my class at school wear cake make-up and dark lipstick. I think it is wrong to try to look too old. You can learn about make-up at our age but you shouldn't use it," she insisted, "except maybe a light pink lipstick."

I don't put any polish on them. She showed me her hands.
"You see, I don't bite them either!" I asked.
"Do you pick out your own clothes?" I asked.
"Mother goes with me," she admitted. "But I take care of my clothes—pressing them and sending them to the cleaners when they need it. Sometimes I slip up when I wear a dress that needs mending or has a spot on it and I feel awful in it."

Hyperions Hear Of World Friendship

Mrs. Jordan Grooms, speaking to members of the 1905 Hyperion Club Wednesday afternoon, chose as her subject, "Friendship Has No Boundaries."
Theme of the meeting, held in the home of Mrs. Norman Read, was International Affairs. Members dressed in costumes of various countries, including Japan, Guatemala, India, Canada and Mexico.
Mrs. Grooms told the group that friendship is based on love, and that without love between countries, there can be no peace. We are suffering, the speaker said, because our friendship has not been great enough to all peoples.

Three Delegates To Represent Forsan At Meet

FORSAN — Attending the district conference of the P-TA Congress in Sweetwater today and Friday will be Mrs. D. M. Bardwell, president-elect of the local unit, Mrs. J. N. Seward and Mrs. C. C. Brunton.

cause our friendship has not been great enough to all peoples. She told of some of the movements to bring love and understanding to nations. One is the World University arrangement, under which students are exchanged between countries. It is established in 38 nations, members were told.
In 1954 and 1955, there were 308 scholarships given for refugee students, Mrs. Grooms told the group. Another method of increasing friendship is the abolishing of illiteracy. Mrs. Grooms said that there are 1,100 million people in the world who can neither read, write nor vote. This, she told her listeners, is two-thirds of the world's population.
A discussion was given by the speaker of the plan to teach a group with each person pledged to go out and teach another; governments are cooperating in this movement, members were told.
The third movement for friendship is through lines of medicine and religion, Mrs. Grooms said. A change was made in the place of the next meeting. The club will meet in the home of Mrs. James Little, 112 Lexington, on May 2. Seventeen members were present, with a guest, Mrs. Earl Ezell of San Antonio.

A Bible Thought For Today

Consider the ravens: for they neither sow nor reap; which neither have storehouse nor barn; and God feedeth them: how much more are ye better than the fowls? (St. Luke 12:24)

Editorial

Conditions, Not Veto, Hold Balance

Not until next November will anyone be able to say for sure the effect President Eisenhower's veto of the farm bill will have on the so-called farm vote. The farmers themselves were far from one mind regarding the merits of that bill. Also, if Congress heeds the President's request to pass the soil bank plan and half of the proposed benefits are made available this year, it will give the administration a talking point. By the same token if Congress — meaning the Democratic majority plus the few Republicans who joined them to pass the vetoed bill in the first place — turns down the soil bank request, the possible balance against the administration may be redressed, and the effects of the veto offset.

However, no one incident can be said to turn farm sentiment one way or the other. The farmers have been suffering, alone among our major economic groups, for more than two years now, and the principal blame falls upon the "ins." The cumulative effect of disappointment and discontent is really the deciding factor, and if the farmers as a class accept the veto as fresh evidence that the Republican Party isn't the farmers' friend, and has no serious intention of doing anything about the sorry state of agriculture, nothing that the party can do between now and the election will offset the effects of the presidential thumbs-down.

So, while the veto may not be a deciding factor of itself, it may become the final straw on the camel's back — a fact that may not become apparent until next November.

It may be that the shrewd politicians around Mr. Eisenhower who advised him to veto the bill feel the same way about the "farm vote" as Northern Democrats and Republicans alike feel about the South — that is, not essential to victory at the polls, a sort of poor relation who has to be kidded along, but not really important when the chips are down.

If the results are not what they expect, it won't be the first time the city-slickers have been taken to a cleaning by the boys from the forks of the creek.

Visit Can't Be Taken Lightly

A couple of saved-off pudgy Soviet statesmen whom the British press uniformly speaks of as "Bulgy and Khrush" descended upon the British Isles this week. Premier Bulganin and Party Secretary Khrushchev are the "rolling waters of the Arab-Israeli controversy" won't hamper them in the least. They are old hands, by this time at the art of smiling sweetly while driving the dagger home.

Yet their appearance in Britain, according to no less astute observer than Walter Lippman, brings into greater focus the importance of talks concerning the Middle East. This, in Lippman's opinion, becomes the paramount topic, for Russia now possesses the power of war or peace in that troubled sector. He points out that "peace can be maintained if the Soviet Union will act to maintain peace. War is probable if the Soviet Union connives at war by refusing to prevent war."

Thus, the visit of these two figures cannot be brushed off lightly.

Inez Robb

It Was Princess Caroline Who Made Monaco

MONACO — No matter how much additional tourist trade the new American Princess of Monaco attracts to this roulette Ruritania, she can never hope to replace Inez Robb's heart and admiration of her predecessors.

Even if John B. Kelly, the father of the bride, and a multimillion dollar syndicate from the U.S.A. modernized and rebuilt Monaco from the ground (this is just one of the fancier rumors now circulating from the rest of Monaco and annex themselves to France.

It was this inspired Princess, great-great-grandmother of Prince Rainier III, who in the mid-19th century dreamed up the idea of a casino to put this financially tottering principality on its feet.

A royal financier to rouse envy in a Hettie Green, Princess Caroline encouraged her son, Prince Charles III, to create a House of Chance under the innocent name of the Societe des Bains de Mer.

Monaco lost about nine-tenths of its former territory and was reduced to its present breast-pocket size in 1860 when Menton and Roquebrune, upply and full of oats, voted to divorce themselves from the rest of Monaco and annex themselves to France.

Taxes in Monaco had zoomed until they couldn't be hiked again, and it was then that Princess Caroline came up with a solution that is second best to free access to Fort Knox.

The rest is history and E. Phillips Oppenheim. The Monegasques pay such a ridiculous soupcon of taxes (and is free of military service, to boot) that he lives in perpetual terror that the Princely line will die and Monaco, under an old treaty, revert to France-high taxes and boot camp.

If Princess Kelly produces an heir and thus saves them from taxation (death is less feared), Monegasques will be eternally grateful.

But it was Princess Caroline who put the principality in the chips. The only facet of the affair that surprises me is that a grateful populace has not raised statues at every corner and in every park to Caroline, the Morgan of Monte Carlo.

Thanks to her, the present Princess will reign over one of the few nations without a national debt or an unbalanced budget. Our girl has married into a going concern with no outstanding bills.

As a brochure, "Monaco, Its Past and Prestige" puts it, "Monaco is enjoying a prosperity brought about by the intelligent handling of touristic advantages" which include, in addition to an incomparable union of mountains and sea, roulette, chemin de fer, baccarat and dice.

The dice tables in the Casino are a modernization since World War II, when American soldiers once more brought to France a game sometimes confused with baseball as our national pastime. Slot machines, too, with Princess Kelly in the palace and one-armed bandits in the Casino, there is no reason for any American to feel lonely in Monaco.

Eyes On TV

CHICAGO P — An official of the National Society for the Prevention of Blindness says watching television will not wear out your eyes.

Mrs. Virginia S. Boyce of New York, assistant director of the society, said observation of a few "viewing rules" will prevent eye fatigue. They include:

Don't watch TV in a completely darkened room.

Avoid looking at the screen from too great an angle.

Sit as far from the screen as visual comfort permits.

Keep your set in good working order so it will produce clear, properly adjusted pictures.

Russians Living Up To New Role

WASHINGTON, April 19 — There are good reasons for the Russians to step into the Middle East crisis as peacemakers and to agree to go along with a world agency to develop atomic energy for peace.

They have deliberately presented themselves in a new and friendly role, and they must seem to live up to it by deeds if they want to be believed. They can only get what they want if they are believed in a world long suspicious of them.

What they want—and Communist party boss Khrushchev has said so—is world communism. That hasn't changed. Their tactics have. Khrushchev said they should try to take over peacefully where they can and by force only where they have to.

To sound convincing they had to take a first, drastic step. This meant disowning Stalin, who had come to personify communism as the violence, murder and revolution.

Stalin, set in his ways, relied on force alone. In his lifetime communism never advanced an inch without force. But reliance on force alone has become increasingly dangerous for the Soviet Union.

Since the United States and Russia both have atomic weapons neither can attempt force without the risk of destruction itself. With something besides force now necessary, Russia's new peaceful line emerged.

Winning peacefully takes time. The Russians seem willing to take it. They have a lot of time. They have made tremendous progress in science and production. They will make far more if they stay out of war.

They are the Middle East's next-door neighbor. They can't take it by force without facing war with the United States. And at the moment they are not in a position to take it from within, either peacefully or by revolution.

In every Arab country of the Middle East, including Egypt to whom Russia recently sent arms through Czechoslovakia, the Communist party is illegal. There are Communist undergrounds.

If there were upheavals in the Middle East tomorrow—according to information here—the Communists in the area are not strong enough to take over.

So it will take time, and plenty of evidence of good will from Russia, before the Communists in the Middle East get legal recognition as a political party and therefore have a chance to move into the governments.

Meanwhile, Britain would almost certainly move into the area with force if fighting between Arabs and Israelis threatened to shut off Britain's Middle Eastern oil supplies. France and the United States would probably back her up.

Once in, it would be likely they'd retain control of the area for some time to maintain peace. Russia couldn't oust them except by going to war. Why should she chance that?

She can hope to dominate the area eventually by peaceful means since the British and French are widely hated there.

As for the Russian agreement to join the atoms-for-peace agency, the Soviets would have let the United States walk off with the lead in this field if they didn't join.

Under the pushing of President Eisenhower this international agency would have gone on making friends for the West without Russia.

Proper Posture For TV

NEW YORK — Are you getting the most out of your television viewing?

If not, perhaps you have only yourself to blame. Perhaps your posture is at fault.

In television watching proper posture is as important as it is in the more competitive forms of sport — such as golf, tennis or courtship.

What is the right posture? There is no such thing as a single right posture. It depends on the program you are watching.

The trouble with most televiewers is that they stick to one posture. Typically, they sit slumped down in an easy chair that gradually cuts off the circulation in the lower part of the body.

What happens? When the fellow rises after a four-hour siege of staring at the one-eyed monster in his living room, his mind and glazed eyeballs are worn out and ready for bed.

But what about his legs and feet? They have been sound asleep for nearly four hours and are now wide awake. So what happens then? The upper part of this confused TV fan's body sleeps soundly all night, the bottom part of his body twists and turns restlessly.

By dawn he wakes up mentally refreshed, but his busy feet are now yawning and ready for sleep. No wonder such a fellow complains, "I always feel half-tired."

He is half-tired, literally. His bad TV posture has gotten his body out of physical synchronization.

The way for him to get back into condition is to vary his posture with each program. Then, after a long evening of studying the television screen, all parts of his body will be equally exercised and ready for bed.

Around The Rim

You Can Believe Anything You Hear

It doesn't pay anymore to be a cynic. And I'll never doubt anything again.

This business of the termites reformed me, just this week.

What a bunch of nonsense, I've been telling myself for two or three years now, on hearing these stories about termites eating up the bottomsides of people's houses.

Termites thrive in moist places, I reasoned. Who in his right mind ever heard of a real, live termite in a part of the world as dry as it is around here?

These people who go around offering to kill your termites are certainly making suckers out of a lot of Big Springses, I thought. What a lot of faldorf!

I was thinking those thoughts Sunday afternoon, sitting there in the easy chair. I had almost a sneer on my pan, I'm sure.

For some reason, possibly psychic, I happened to glance up above the window frame, right in front of me. A brownish spot attracted me.

A close-up showed it to be one of those little mud tunnels like you sometimes see after the rare rains on the sides of weeds and sticks.

I scraped the stuff off the wall. Underneath were little holes something had eaten through the sheetrock, plaster and paint. I looked some more. Other dirt tunnels had been constructed along the top of the wood trim of the window frame.

After scraping those off, I looked on the window sill, where the stuff had fallen. Mixed with the dried flakes of mud were some little bugs. Repulsive looking things they were, all white and slimy, kinda like the grubworms that ate the yard last summer.

Then it soaked in. Termites, I realized, were moving in.

The termite man confirmed my fears the next day. He went underneath, and found that the rascals also had started eating up the front door sill.

Since then I've learned that termites go to all sorts of lengths to survive in this dry climate. They burrow deep into the earth, however far they have to go to find some moisture. They start upward, living and working in those telltale dirt tunnels.

They work in shifts, with each crew retiring into the moist earth periodically for rejuvenation, until they reach a tasty piece of carpentry. Once established in a piece of your house, they produce their own moisture right there, and start eating you out of house and home.

I've heard tales of the things even coming through the walls and eating up the picture frames. And since they moved in to a living room last weekend, I believe the stories.

President Stands By His Convictions

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower has given the nation one of those examples of courage which come rarely in the history of American politics.

For, in vetoing the farm bill, the President was disagreeing not only with Democrats but with many members of his own party in Congress who have been prodded into taking positions similar to that of their political opponents for fear of the advantage the latter might get on the stump in the coming campaign.

Plainly the bill has been publicized so widely as a bonanza to the farmers that many Republican members of Congress in farm states fear they cannot overcome that impression by using statistics or economic arguments. There were those on the Republican side who urged the President to sign the bill and try to get a better one through Congress next time. The argument was that this would save Republican votes in November. But Mr. Eisenhower refused to yield to expediency. He took his position firmly on the basis of conviction and on what he and his agricultural advisers feel is sound economics.

It isn't easy to persuade farmers that a bill which is designed to bolster prices isn't good for them or for the country. But it so happens that the painful facts of what has been happening in agriculture are on the President's side. It is true that, by artificially supporting high prices, the government itself has stimulated the production of vast surpluses.

Today nearly $9,000,000,000 of taxpayers' money are tied up in an accumulation of farm products which the government owns and does not dare to sell for fear that to do so will send prices still lower than they are. In fact, the very existence of the surpluses has all along had a depressing effect on the price structure. The surplus problem has hung like a sword of Damocles over the American farmer for many years.

Mr. Eisenhower at the outset of his administration took a strong position against any further accumulation of surpluses and notified Congress that he wanted a system of flexible price supports so that surpluses could be worked off gradually, or at least not accumulated further. But the politicians got busy and passed a bill which he dared him to veto. It was supposed to spell political suicide for the Republican party in the farm states if not enacted.

Mr. Eisenhower pondered his course as between expediency and simple honesty. He refused to be dragged by cries that he would lose the election. He declined to accept the suggestion from some Republican sources that it would be better to sign the bill and ask Congress to revise it next time so at least to get by the presidential election this year.

There is an interesting analogy here with what happened during the Republican administration of President William Howard Taft when a high protectionist tariff bill was passed by Congress in the face of demands for a reduction in the cost of living, particularly because of the high prices of manufactured goods then prevailing. Mr. Taft knew it was a bad bill and said so, but nevertheless he signed it. The country lost respect for him, his party became split, and the 1912 election saw Mr. Taft ignominiously defeated in his attempt at re-election.

Mr. Eisenhower has adhered to his conscientious convictions despite the pressure to get him to abandon them. That's what the people have come to expect of him—integrity and consistency.

As for the agricultural states, he will, of course, lose some votes, but there are administrative powers in the present laws which can operate to the benefit of the farmer, and the chances are that farm income will show an improvement by election time without running the risk of making high price supports a permanent part of the agricultural economics of America.

Mr. Eisenhower has played it straight — with firmness and consistency — and has saved the urban families today some substantial increases in the cost of food. And, of course, city dwellers vote, too.

The Chain-Of-Command Concept

WASHINGTON — In this political year, the charge of a part-time President is bound to grow in volume. It results, in part, from the extensive discussion of President Eisenhower's health and the debate over whether he would run again.

But a look at the record shows that the heart attack has made comparatively little difference in his approach to the most difficult and demanding office in the world. The Eisenhower concept of the office differs markedly from that of his predecessors.

It is the chain-of-command concept under which broad authority is delegated to subordinates. They are responsible for success or failure in their separate departments. This is shown most clearly in the record of the President's public addresses during his first term.

His predecessors felt it was part of their duty to go directly to the public with policies which they wanted Congress and the public to accept. Again and again to nationwide audiences on radio and after the war on television, Presidents Roosevelt and Truman explained, expounded and persuaded. This was outside the campaign periods when the speeches they made were strictly political.

But Mr. Eisenhower, has rarely gone to the public. The record shows that aside from the 1954 campaign he has been on radio and/or television 40 times during his first term.

Of the total 17 or 18 speeches he can be said to deal with issues.

The appeal to public opinion by persuasion and exposition is raised acutely now by two controversies — one domestic and one foreign — now confronting the Administration.

The President's farm program has been brushed aside by Congress in favor of the old rigid price support system. While several warnings against this action have come from the White House, the President never has taken his case to the public. Now he has explained to a nationwide audience what is wrong with the bill passed by Congress. But a forthright appeal earlier might have enlisted sufficient public support for his farm program.

On the issue of his foreign aid program, again it is the President alone who can make the case. There is evidence of considerable public support for expanded foreign aid and for a commitment up to ten years in some instances. A Presidential speech explaining the whys and wherefores might focus this support, although the President already may have waited too long.

Attitudes on the foreign aid program in Congress have hardened Democrats and some Republicans are resentful over the way the Administration cut back the program last year so, it is charged, the budget could be balanced in this election year. Now, to make up for those cuts, a much larger sum is requested. The Democrats also feel that the Administration has failed to sustain the bipartisan approach to foreign policy.

This would seem to be an issue ready-made for the man who repeatedly has expressed his determination to be President of all the people. If in February or even in mid-March he had carried his case to the country, it might have made the difference. As it is, the outcome is highly doubtful.

Before he entered the White House, Mr. Eisenhower made many eloquent speeches. As the first Supreme Commander of the North Atlantic alliance, he preached the cause of European unity with a vigor and a forcefulness that contributed a great deal to his reputation as a politico-military statesman. Those speeches helped to advance him on the road to the Presidency.

Yet once in the White House he seemed to suffer from all sorts of inhibitions.

For one thing, the caliber of his speeches has not been high. He has had few who have been willing or able to spark discussion of the great issues of the day.

And the mechanics of television may have had something to do with the President's lack of ease in his infrequent public speeches. They have made him ill at ease before the TV cameras.

One of the obligations of a President is to articulate the needs, the aspirations, the hopes and the ideal of the people. In the words of Woodrow Wilson, he must be "the spokesman for the real sentiment and purpose of the country."

This President Eisenhower has not done. This phase of the Presidency is alien to his experience and background. In the chain of command, an order is an order and there is no need to persuade anyone to carry it out.

GOP Seeks Aid For Ike Soil Plan

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republicans sought today to drum up support for the administration's soil bank program in the wake of yesterday's House vote upholding President Eisenhower's veto of the catch-all farm bill.

Democratic leaders had charted no plans for new farm legislation although Speaker of the House Rayburn (D-Tex.) said without elaborating "there may be something done."

Rep. Poage (D-Tex.) predicted that "if we get a farm bill, it won't be passed until the last week of the session in July."

In the Senate, 45 members—including four Democrats—cosponsored an administration soil bank bill.

In the House, all but one of the 16 Republicans on the Agriculture Committee introduced identical soil bank bills patterned along Eisenhower's recommendations.

Democrats generally do not oppose the soil bank, which contemplates payments totaling up to $1,500,000,000 yearly to farmers who agree to take land out of production of crops already in surplus.

But Democratic leaders have insisted that any such legislation must be accompanied by higher price supports and other features the administration objects to.

Nat 'King' Cole Draws Applause

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Negro singer Nat King Cole, attacked while performing in Birmingham, Ala., last week, received a deafening roar of applause from some 10,000 white and Negro fans in the Jefferson County Armory here last night.

The singer, who said he canceled an Atlanta appearance Tuesday night because he feared a repetition of the Birmingham attack, was escorted to the armory by city police. Detectives were scattered throughout the audience, but Police Chief Carl Heustis said this was simply a precautionary measure as he had anticipated no trouble.

Dutchman On Trial By Indonesia Dies

THE HAGUE, Netherlands (AP) — The Dutch Foreign Ministry today announced the death of Capt. Leon M. Jungschlager, the Dutchman on trial for his life in Indonesia.

A spokesman said Jungschlager, former chief of military intelligence in the Netherlands Indies, died after two cerebral hemorrhages.

Dutch radio broadcasts were interrupted to give listeners the news.

Jungschlager has been on trial in Indonesia for more than a year on subversion charges. The Indonesian prosecutor had demanded the death penalty, accusing the retired naval officer of aiding a fanatic Moslem movement dedicated to overthrow of the Indonesian government.

The verdict was to have been given April 27, and foreign observers in Indonesia expected the court to find him guilty.

Jungschlager was arrested in Jakarta, Indonesia, Jan. 30, 1954, with 33 other Dutchmen while working for a shipping concern. His son, Pfc. John W. Jung who came to the United States in 1950 and entered the U.S. Army in 1954, recently asked President Eisenhower to help him save his father.

Jungschlager was a lieutenant commander in the Dutch naval air forces at the outbreak of World War II. In 1942-43 he trained Dutch airmen at Jackson, Miss.

From 1946-48 he headed the Dutch intelligence services at Jakarta. Later he returned to a pre-war post with an inter-island shipping company in Indonesia.

On Saturday, Jungschlager was taken to Tikini hospital for a medical checkup.

His doctor diagnosed a small cerebral hemorrhage. Yesterday it was announced he would be hospitalized for at least a week.

108 Titles, Many Of Them Empty, Go To Grace Kelly

MONTE CARLO (AP) — Grace Kelly received 138 titles all at once when she wed Prince Rainier III. But many of them refer to villages long since wiped off the map of France.

Rainier rules only over Monaco's 370 acres. Other titles attached to still existing places are just honorary.

Grace is actually twice a princess, four times duchess, once a viscountess, eight times countess, four times marchioness and nine times baroness. To these are added 110 other titles which translate into "lady."

Her second princess title is that of Princess de Chateau-Porcier. A century-old encyclopedia describes the place as a village of 1900 inhabitants in eastern France with a 18th century church adorned with a "nice spire."

Latest encyclopedias have dropped any mention of Chateau-Porcier, and no sizeable map of France shows it.

The duchess titles include that of Mazarin, reminiscent of King Louis XIV's Prime Minister.

The Viscountess of Murat harks back to Napoleonic days. Murat was Napoleon's brother-in-law.

Two of the countess titles point to eastern France: Belfort and Thann.

Thann sent a group of young choir singers to take part in the wedding festivities.

Grace will also be Marchioness of Baux, a 12th century village in southern France which gave its name to bauxite. The aluminum ore was first found there.

She will also be marchioness of three other places which would appear only on a very detailed map.

Most of the baroness and lady titles refer to places which were important centuries ago but which have disappeared.

Rescuers Seek Trapped Miners

SUNNYSIDE, Utah (AP) — Coal miners dug deep in a mountain side tunnel early today, hopeful but doubtful of finding still alive four miners buried in a cave-in.

The roof of the mine collapsed yesterday afternoon while six men worked in the tunnel. Two of them escaped.

The choked tunnel leads from the main slope of the Kaiser Steel Corporation's No. 2 mine at this desolate spot in mountainous east central Utah.

Rescue operations began at once, with co-workers of the trapped men attacking the jumbled mound of rubble with mechanical coal diggers.

Relatives of the men trapped inside stood alongside miners waiting to help in the rescue operations.

Rescue workers reported they had heard no cries for help nor noticed any other signs of life in the mound of rubble.

A mine spokesman identified the four as LaVell Marion Golding of Wellington, Utah, Joe Archuleta of Dragerton, and Lloyd D. Heath and Joe Otterstrom of Sunnyside.

Malenkov, Deposed Soviet Chief, May Be On His Way Up Again

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
WASHINGTON (AP)—Georgi Malenkov, deposed Premier of the Soviet Union, is regarded here as a man once more on the upgrade in Moscow's collective iron rule.

Some experts believe he may one day become Premier again. Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov is being used, in the Washington view, for his diplomatic skill but his power and influence have declined since Stalin's death. It is considered possible he will end up in the figurehead position of Soviet President when aging Marshal Klementi Voroshilov steps aside.

Marshal Georgi Zhukov, defense minister and wartime friend of President Eisenhower, is rated as a highly respected member of the ruling group but not a dominant figure. The consensus here is that military men are not trying to exercise decisive influence on Soviet policies.

Russian personalities and policies have been under close scrutiny as officials try to puzzle out what the Russians are up to with their new patterns of conduct, dramatized by their repudiation, beginning in February, of most of Stalin's works and teachings.

Ambassador Charles E. Bohlen was called home for consultation which is due to be concluded shortly.

American officials generally have concluded that the basic elements of danger which existed in Stalinist times are still present. Russia remains a dictatorship subject to the absolute decision and control of a very few men. It remains a military power of the first rank. It is guided by an aggressive ideology which as a first article of faith calls for destruction of every non-Communist system of society in the world.

The Washington analysis of Soviet behavior currently focuses on the British visit of Premier Nikolai Bulganin and Nikita Khrushchev, Communist party boss.

What they say and do will be examined closely for clues as to Soviet intentions in the Middle East, South Asia, Africa and Western Europe.

U. S. officials are convinced the major Soviet purpose in many foreign policy operations now is to disrupt as far as possible the Western defense system.

Important as Soviet foreign aims are, the predominant view here is that recent Soviet policy shifts have been motivated primarily by concern for internal strength and security. The key to the repudiation of Stalin is most often viewed in this light.

When Stalin died March 5, 1953, the one concern which united his survivors in the Kremlin was to protect themselves against each other and to prevent the emergence of a single all-powerful figure. This led to the development of what the Russians now call "collective leadership."

Also, it not only provided a basis for repudiation of Stalin, but created a necessity for it. If the people were to be sold on the idea that collective rule provided the best possible government, they had to be unsold on 20 years of propaganda that Stalin's one-man grip was beyond criticism.

Most American officials now seem convinced that Khrushchev, Bulganin, Zhukov, Malenkov and the others in the top dozen in Moscow are certain that Stalin's dictatorship was a disaster for Soviet communism and that they really believe in the collective principle.

The downgrading of Molotov is attributed here to a rigidity of thinking, an inability to give the kind of flexible policy maneuvers which Khrushchev and Bulganin pursue.

Malenkov gained premiership when Stalin died but had to give it up in February 1955. In recent months he has appeared at Moscow parties and receptions as one of the inner group, close to Khrushchev and Bulganin, with every appearance of confidence in his future.

He is regarded by various people who have had opportunity to see him in operation in Moscow and in England as extremely capable and intelligent. Coupled with the improvement in his political position, this has given rise to speculation that some day he may reach the premiership again.

Expansion Is Again Placed On Agenda

DALLAS (AP) — Expansion has been placed on the agenda for the meeting of the Southwest Conference at Fayetteville May 10-11-12, meaning Texas Tech will come up for another vote.

Tech has been an applicant for membership for 30 years and only last December obtained 4 votes — just 1 short of the necessary support. Since then Southern Methodist has announced it is switching its vote and indications are that Tech will have a minimum of 5 when it comes up again.

Howard Grubbs, executive secretary of the conference, said there was a motion on the table that called for an invitation to both Tech and Oklahoma. This motion was made at the spring meeting at Waco in 1954. Whether it will come up for a vote isn't known but indications are that it will not.

Texas A&M also may have its probation lifted at this meeting. A&M was placed on two-year probation last May but with the provision that it would be reviewed after one year. Recruiting practices got A&M into its trouble.

The conference meeting opens May 10 with a session of the athletic directors. The Faculty Committee opens its meeting May 11 at the same time that the athletic directors, coaches and business managers of athletics are discussing recommendations to be made to the faculty committee.

The annual golf tournament will start May 11 as will preliminaries in varsity and freshman track. Finals in track will be May 12. The tennis tournament is being held at Waco.

Girls In Feature Wrestling Match

Two comely girls that have dared to make their living in wrestling, a profession once considered the exclusive domain of the male animal, clash tonight in the feature match of Promoter George Dunn's grapple card in the Howard County Fair Building.

The lassies are China Mira, a Cuban; and Dot Dotson, who hails from Florida.

The two mix in the best of three falls, with a one-hour time limit.

Miss Dotson, 25, recently met and lost a close match to June Byers, the world's champion, in Odessa. She is considered among the top five women wrestlers in the world.

Despite her age, Dot has been wrestling professionally eight years. She travels on an average of 20,000 miles a year, taking on all comers. She credits Phil Duffy, Lakeland, Fla., promoter, with starting her in the game.

Miss Mira is only 22 years of age. She, too, was born in Florida, but of Cuban parents. She weighs 140 pounds and will give away ten pounds to her opponent. She is only in her second year of professional wrestling.

Tonight's semi-windup, which actually has been billed as part of a double main event, will send popular Danny Savich of Salt Lake City against Mitsuo, an Oriental.

That one, too, will be the best of three falls, with a one-hour time limit.

CHINA MIRA
Dotson Fee

of three falls, with a one-hour time limit.

Originally, Tokyo Joe was booked to meet Savich but Mitsuo agreed to take his place when Joe couldn't make it.

Savich has entered countless American homes — via television sets, that is. He's very popular with the nation's video viewers.

The show will get under way with a one-fall preliminary pitting Sony Myers of St. Joseph, Mo., against Gory Guerrero, Mexico.

Guerrero is one of the most popular grapplers ever to come out of Mexico and has already built up a following here. Myers is new to local audiences.

The show begins at 8:15 p.m. Prices have been tabbed at $2 ringside, $1.50 general admission and 50 cents for children.

Peden's Homer Stops Padres

The pitchers are tightening up and the wild hitting that marked the Texas League race in its first few days has subsided but it's still the home run that gets the job done.

Les Peden parked the ball against San Antonio Wednesday night and it brought Shreveport a 4-2 victory and a tie for first place with Houston.

Houston was getting a sparkling 6-hit pitching performance from Bill Gresson but Gresson clipped in with a home run of his own in pacing the Buffs to a 9-1 triumph over Austin.

Bob Jenkins hit a homer and triple and batted in three runs in sparking Oklahoma City to a 9-4 decision over Dallas.

Tulsa and Fort Worth didn't play because of the cold and it cost Tulsa a tie for the lead. The Oilers fell to third place.

Tempers continued to be frayed as the race rolled through its first week. Leo Thomas, Austin third baseman, was suspended indefinitely by Dick Butler, league president, for shoving Umpire Mike Briscese during an argument.

Red Davis, manager of the Dallas club, was thumbed out of the game with Oklahoma City in the very first inning for sassing the umpires when a balk was called on pitcher John Fitzgerald.

Trip To State Meet Okehed For BS Team

Big Spring High School volleyball girls were authorized by trustees this week to compete in a state volleyball tournament at Brownwood, tentatively set for April 28.

It was not definitely established that a Class AA division would be conducted at the Brownwood meet.

Dr. Z. T. Huff, dean at Howard Payne College, informed Coach Arah Phillips of Big Spring via letter that a state tourney in that division would be held if the proper interest were shown and the Texas Interscholastic League did not discourage the meet.

The state champion in Class B only was determined last year but Huff said the college would be 'happy' to sponsor play in both Class AA and A, if no outside interference occurred.

Regional playoffs have been authorized by the TIL since 1954. The state is currently divided into eight different AA regions.

The Steerettes are continuing workouts until definite word comes through on the state meet.

Big Spring topped Plainview in two straight games at Lubbock last week to win regional laurels.

Trustees also voted to offer the Aces Auto Club, a YMCA affiliate, the use of the football practice field for a hot rod show May 26. No charge would be made for use of the field, but if the club elects to use the baseball park the customary rental will be charged, trustees said.

Bernard Bartzten Pitted Against Flam In Meet

HOUSTON (AP) — Bernard Bartzten, pitted a perfect three-match record today against seventh-seeded Herb Flam in the quarter-final round of the 22nd annual River Oaks Tennis Tournament.

A second match in a revised River Oaks format paired two members of the preliminary U.S. Davis Cup squad, Hamilton Richardson and Gil Shea.

The second half of the quarter-finals will be completed tomorrow with top-seeded Vic Seixas meeting Tom Brown, seeded eighth, and former Wimbledon champion Dick Savitt meeting third-seeded Eddie Moylan.

Bartzten, the 1954 national egypt courts champion who was ignored when the preliminary Davis Cup team was selected, took on Flam after sweeping his first three matches without losing a game.

The second-seeded Bartzten yesterday eliminated a young Texas star, James Schmidt, Galveston, 6-0, 6-0. Flam made a quick job of a 6-2, 6-2 victory over Ulf Schmidt the new U.S. indoors champion from Sweden.

Richardson, now a Rhodes scholar at Oxford, was forced to three sets but finished strong to defeat 10th-seeded Grant Golden of Chicago, 5-7, 6-3, 6-0. Shea, seeded fourth, had to hustle.

Bob Boyd Eyes Humez Match

CHICAGO (AP) — After taking a soundly-booded 10 round split decision over Holly Mims, Bobby Boyd now is aiming for Charley Humez as another stepping stone to a chance at the middleweight crown.

The lanky, long-armed Boyd, 22, and the stubby Mims, 26, hamstrung each other in an unimpressive, clinching-and-holding nationally televised bout last night at Chicago Stadium.

Boyd, regarded as Chicago's hottest ticket prospect in five years and ranked No. 2 among contenders, managed to gain his 10th straight victory.

He knocked his Washington, D.C., opponent to the canvas with a short right in the sixth round. It was the first solid blow Boyd could land. He staggered Humez with another right to the head in the eighth and got through another solid right in the ninth.

Both missed repeated leads earlier and took several good rights fired by Mims from inside. Although Mims beat Boyd to the punch several times in the first five rounds he failed to punch often enough to hold his early lead.

Referee Bernard Weissman warned them several times to quit holding and wrestling.

The turnout of 2,496 fans booded lustily at the spread of points on the officials' scores. Mims' manager, Nick Trotta, stormed about the ring at the decision.

Under the Illinois maximum 10-points-per-round system, Judge John Bray scored in favor of Mims 93-90. Judge Spike McAdams gave it to Boyd 98-90 and Weissman was for Boyd 97-92. The Associated Press card had Boyd ahead 97-95.

Boyd, a 9-5 betting choice, outweighed Mims 161 to 156-1/2.

Marciano Said 'Short-Changed'

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP) — Pudge boxing Promoter Jimmy Murray was called back today before the California boxing investigation where he was accused of short changing Rocky Marciano and Don Cockell in their heavyweight championship fight and paying $10,000 "on the side" to Marciano's manager.

James Cox, counsel for the investigators, introduced a series of Murray's work sheets and a check stub yesterday in an effort to show the promoter paid $10,000 "under the table" to Al Weill, manager of the champion.

Murray insisted he got the money himself and lost it betting on the horses a few days after the title fight in San Francisco May 16, 1955.

Cox, former Stanford football tackle, said Murray subtracted the $10,000 from the net gate receipts before figuring the fighters' purses. State boxing inspectors placed the net receipts at $169,728. Murray's records indicated the boxers were paid on the basis of a $159,306 net.

"SHORTAGE OF $4,170"

This Cox said, made Marciano's 40 per cent $63,720, "a shortage of $4,170."

Whoopers Go Northward

WASHINGTON (AP) — The northward flight of the 27 whooping cranes making up the only known surviving flock has started, the Fish and Wildlife Service said today.

The service appealed to humans not to molest the big white birds on their 2,500-mile flight from the Aransas National Wildlife Refuge in Texas to their summer grounds near Great Slave Lake in Canada. A regular resting place for them is along the Platte River in Nebraska.

The service said only 8 young whoopers are in the world today so far as is known. Last fall 28 whoopers made the trip to Aransas but during the winter one of the adults disappeared. Only 21 of the cranes were in the northward flight last spring.

The birds are large enough to be seen easily and recognized—five feet tall with a seven-foot wing spread, white except for a red crown and black wing tips.

It is against the law to shoot the birds. The Service said no large white bird may be legally shot at this time of year so it is impossible to bag a whooper by "mistake."

Two Cee City Boys Honored

COLORADO CITY — Coach Bob Reilly of Colorado City announced Wednesday that two members of last year's Wolf squad had been named to the National High School All American Football Team for 1955.

They were Jim Windham, 17 year old Junior, and Billy Simmons, 17 year old Senior. Both may receive an invitation to play in the annual All-American high school clash in Memphis, August 15th. The game is sponsored by the Wigwam Wisemen of America.

Windham was all-district at tackle last year, but will probably not play, since players are usually made up of seniors.

Simmons, all-district end and co-captain, called signals from an end position last year, but was all-district at tackle as a Junior. Simmons plans to attend Rice Institute this fall.

Windham is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Windham, Simmons the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl A. Simmons.

Defending Champ Into Q-Finals

LAREDO (AP) — Defending champion Joanne Bruni of Laredo moved into today's quarterfinals of the Texas Women's Public Links Golf Tournament.

The 16-year-old Miss Bruni, who yesterday advanced by defeating Lee Knott of Seguin, 6 and 4, was to meet Betty Jean Martinez of San Antonio in today's quarterfinal match. Miss Martinez defeated Mrs. P. C. Borne of Houston 7 and 6 yesterday.

Results in other championship flight matches included: Wanda Sowell, Tyler, defeated Mrs. Jack Hancock of Gladewater 6 and 5.

Three Are Added

FORT WORTH (AP) — Bill Casper of Chula Vista, Calif.; Paul Harney of Bolton, Mass., and Lionel Hebert of Erie, Pa., three young professionals, were added to the field of the $25,000 Colonial National Invitation Golf Tournament today.

"TWO-FIVE" IS COMING TO BIG SPRING

NATION-WIDE "2-LETTER, 5-NUMERAL" TELEPHONE NUMBERING SYSTEM TO BE INTRODUCED IN JULY

ALL telephone numbers will have a "new look" when the nation-wide "2-5" telephone numbering system is introduced here in July.

The new "2-5" numbering plan simply means that all telephone numbers here will include two letters and five numerals.

Nearly all telephone numbers here will retain the same five numerals they now have, but all will be preceded by the first two letters of the central office name, AM herst. For example, the telephone number 3-5252 will become AM herst 3-5252, and you'll dial A-M-3-5-2-5-2.

A very few telephone numbers may have to be changed entirely because of technical reasons.

A new edition of the telephone directory—listing all the new "2-5" numbers—will be delivered just before the new numbering plan goes into effect.

The new central office name ... AM herst ... is needed so that telephone numbers here will conform to the standard nationwide numbering plan. The new numbering plan is part of a nation-wide plan for dialing long distance calls, and will pave the way for expansion and improvement of Big Spring's long distance dialing system.

We are proud to announce the coming addition of Big Spring to the nation-wide "2-5" numbering plan, and we are sure you will like the increased speed and efficiency of your long distance telephone service.

If you or your firm use stationery or cards containing your telephone number, please keep the coming number change in mind to avoid overstocking before July.

CLIFF FISHER,
Manager

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

Ronnie Baker, who pitched the Snyder Tigers to that 8-6 victory over Big Spring last week, is a former Howard County boy. When he was born, his parents lived near Forsan. They moved to Snyder around 1951.

Scotty McFarland, who wrestled and refereed here for George Dunn several times late in 1954, is now a chiropractor. His ring earnings helped pay for his education.

Arah Phillips, girls' volleyball coach at the local high school, leaves that job in May to assume similar duties at fast-growing Howard County Junior College.

Miss Phillips, associated with the local schools since 1943, has been commissioned to build up girls' volleyball at the local college and there's no doubt but what she'll succeed. She never thinks in any other terms.

Girls' volleyball, or any kind of athletics for the fairer sex, wasn't encouraged much when Arah took over at the high school. Mrs. Booty Blount, who now lives in Austin and who is the mother of Peppy Blount, helped Arah raise the money for the first uniforms for the girls.

The Steerettes played their first game in 1943 and a victory over the faculty did much to buoy their confidence. A short time later, they ran into a buzz saw when Sterling City gave them some harsh lessons on the court while racing to a 11-7 victory. The local lasses picked themselves up from the floor and realized they had a long way to go.

Their record since that time speaks for itself, however. Since the Steerettes began organized play under Arah in 1945, they have won 175 while losing 72 times. Miss Phillips' B teams have done even better, having accumulated a 132-46 won-lost record.

Six times the Steerettes have been crowned district champions. Since Regional play was organized three years ago, the local girls have twice captured Regional crowns.

In all, the Steerettes have won 39 assorted trophies of various dimensions and emerged as champions in no less than 17 invitational tournaments.

What would Arah's ideas be on an all-time Big Spring team of girls she has coached?

That proved to be a hard assignment but she finally settled for Virginia Costello of the 1947 team; Rosemary Rice, 1953; Mona Lee Walker, 1954; Charlene Wilson, 1954; Louise Burchett, 1955; and Barbara Hale of this year's team.

It proved extremely difficult, says Arah, to choose between Hale, Jean Peters and Freda Donica, all of this year's team, in naming the sixth girl.

As to the best team the Steerettes have faced in her tenure here, Coach Phillips said that would be between Ringgold and Fort Stockton, with a slight edge perhaps going to the former.

Ray Knoblauch, who used to hurl (and very capably) for the Odessa Longhorn League entry, was lined up to open the first four series of the Shreveport Sports of the Texas League played this season.

Charley Gillespie, the Lubbock scribe, says Floyd Elkins applied for the Sunday coaching job before he hired out at Lake View.

He'll probably wish he had been hired to tutor the Roughnecks, after dealing with toughies like Lamesa, Sweetwater and Snyder this fall.

HE'LL PLAY, TOO

Jim Zapp Named Webb Manager

Jim Zapp, colorful outfielder-first sacker of the 1954-55 Big Spring professional baseball teams, has been named manager of the Webb Air Base club.

Zapp, now employed at Webb, rejected a contract extended by Port Arthur of the Big State League this year.

The big Tennessean, who used to play ball with Willie Mays, will be an active manager with the Dusters. He said he would be eligible to take part in Southwest Air Force Conference games.

Jim holds the all-time Big Spring record for home runs in professional baseball. He clubbed 32 for the local club in 1954, although he missed the early part of the season with the locals.

He drove out 29 for Big Spring last year, before being sold by the Cooden Cops to Port Arthur in July.

The Dusters were booked to open their season earlier this week.

Costes Is Best US Bet In Run

BOSTON (AP)—The Boston A. A. Marathon, once considered a severe test, may prove nothing more than a stopwatch exercise today in its 60th running.

Marathons are no cinch, mind you, but the time has come when the BAA course has been reduced to 26 consecutive 5:20 miles with a 385 yard sprint at the finish.

Though the Asians are missing this trip, Japan's Hideo Hamamura lowered the course mark to 2:18:22 last year and looked ready to jog another 26 at the finish line.

Finland's Veikko Karvonen won in 2:20:38 in '54 and Japan's Keizo Yamada got the previous best effort of 2:18:51 two years ago.

Even last year's third place man, Nick Costes of Natick, Mass., was clocked in 2:19:57—fastest marathon ever recorded for an American.

To run a 2:20 marathon, an entry is traveling at the rate of a 5:20 mile or 100 yards in 18 seconds. The runner is chugging along at 11 1/4 miles per hour (a four-minute mile is doing 15 m.p.h.).

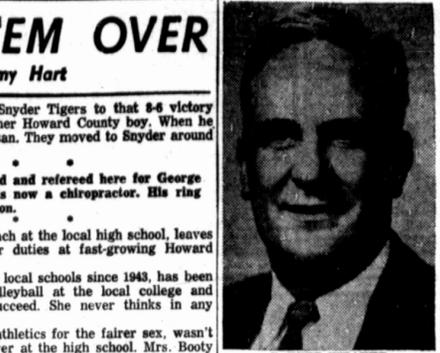

Once a difficult course to negotiate, this classic road race now scarcely fazes the well-trained participants even in the series of slopes leading up to Boston College known collectively as "Heart-break Hill."

The 1952 winner, Doroteo Flores of Guatemala, is among the 211 scheduled to start the race. He won in 2:31:53.

Today's temperature was expected to be in the mid fifties. Finland, has two runners on hand — Eino Oksanen and Antti Viskari.

In this Olympic year, American runners have their best chance to win since Johnny Kelley "The Elder" last brought a domestic victory in the event back in 1945.

The BAA is the first of two Olympic trials — the other will be in Yonkers, N.Y., in September. Costes, 29-year-old Natick school teacher following a methodical and rigorous training program he learned from Luxembourg's Joey Barthel, and 25 year old Johnny Kelley "The Younger" (no relations) are the most likely winners for the United States. The race starts at noon (EST).

DeWitt Weaver Meet Referee

Weaver Referee At Regionals

LUBBOCK (SC) — DeWitt Weaver, Texas Tech athletic director, has been designated referee for the Region One University Interscholastic League Meet at Texas Tech Friday and Saturday by Delmer Brown, meet director.

Joe Holmes of Lubbock is the starter. Most officials are from the ranks of the South Plains Officials and Coaches Association.

Because of the large number of entries, particularly in Conference B, preliminaries have been called for Friday for the first time in several years. Preliminaries will be necessary, said Brown, in all events in B—where Districts 1 through 16 are included—and in most or all running events in A, which lists four districts.

All Conference AA competition is scheduled for Saturday beginning at 1 p.m. Only Districts 1AA and 2AA are included.

Tennis competition in girls and boys divisions for all three conferences will be conducted by George Philbrick and Miss Sue Rainey on the Tech courts Friday and Saturday. Warren Cantrell will direct boys golf competition for the three conferences at Hillcrest Country Club Friday and Saturday.

Only two defending track championship schools will be represented — Amarillo in Conference AA and Andrews in Conference A. Sundown, Conference B titlist last year, is in another region this spring.

Last year's golf winners were Amarillo in AA and Monahans in A. No B teams entered. Odessa was the AA tennis power, while Booker and Lakeview tied for top honors in Conference B. Honors in A were distributed among seven schools.

Admission to the track finals Saturday afternoon is $1 for adults and 50 cents for students. All other events are free.

Yogi Berra Running MVP Thing Into The Ground

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

Yogi Berra's running this "most valuable player" thing into the ground.

With three American League MVP plagues already up on the game-room wall in his Woodcliff Lake, N.J., home, the 31-year-old New York Yankees catcher is off to his best start yet in a shot at an unprecedented fourth award.

The Yankees have scored 19 runs in walloping the Senators twice so far in Washington and Yogi, always a dangerous hitter with a man on base, has driven in seven of them. He just plain gave the Senators a fit—reaching base safely in his first nine trips to the plate in the two games with five hits and four walks.

It wasn't until his 10th trip that Washington—showing even worse pitching than was expected—finally got him out, on a pop foul.

That was in the eighth inning of last night's game and by then the damage had been done as the Yankees scored four times in the first off-ex-teammate Bob Weisler.

The 2-0 record enabled the Yankees to keep pace with Boston's Red Sox, who rallied to beat Baltimore 8-4 yesterday for their second straight.

Chicago and Cleveland were idle. Cold weather postponed Kansas City at Detroit.

The National League had only one game scheduled, and the New York Giants scored twice in the ninth to take another one-run decision from Pittsburgh 5-4.

Billy Martin took up where Berra left off for the Yanks, driving in four runs as New York scored six runs in the first three innings off Weisler and then added three more in the fourth off rookie Hal Griggs. That was enough to shrug off a three-run Washington rally that chased starter Johnny Kucks in the eighth. Jim Konstanty finished.

Pete Runnels' home run and an triple by rookie Dick Tettelbach provided the only bumps for Kucks over the first seven frames.

Bob Porterfield, late of the Senators, gave up only five hits for the Red Sox, but they included two-run homers by Gus Triandos and rookie Tito Francona, and Boston had to rally for six runs in the fifth to get home safe. The big inning was manufactured on four hits, four walks and a sacrifice fly off starter — loser Ray Moore.

Jimmy Piersall's accidental hit scored two runs to keep the rally alive. Ducking from a 3-2 pitch, his bat got in the way of the ball and popped it into right field for a single.

Ted Williams singled and walked twice, putting his batting average at .300.

NEW YORK (AP)—Rocky Marciano's big decision—to retire or not to retire—is due within 10 days and may be made tomorrow when the heavyweight champion meets with his manager, Al Weill, at Macon, Ga.

Norris reveal plans yesterday for a series of elimination bouts to provide a September challenger—or a new champ if Rocky quits.

Rocky's Decision Is Due Friday

Track Meet Again Set Back By Rain

SHOWERS have forced postponement of the H.C.J.C. Odessa JC dual track and field meet for the second straight day.

The meet was originally booked for Wednesday but moved back to today, due to rain. Morning showers again forced a postponement and it now has been delayed indefinitely, since the two teams are committed to run in the West Zone meet at Lubbock Monday.

Maxwell Enters Arkansas Meet

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP)—The second annual $15,000 Hot Springs Open Golf Tournament opened here today. Bo Winger is the defending champion and Cary Middlecott, the former Memphis dentist, is considered the class of the field of about 70. Winger, from Oklahoma City, is rated a good chance to repeat because of the ease with which he conquered the par-72 course last year.

Both Middlecott and Winger shot practice 66s yesterday, but they were bested by Gardner Dickinson Jr. of Fort Worth, who turned in a master and an unknown amateur each made a hole-in-one.

Paul Runyan, a native of Hot Springs and now a club pro at LaJolla, Calif., registered his ace on the 160-yard 17th hole.

The amateur, Billy Joe Denton of Wilson, Ark., holed his shot on the 230-yard No. 11.

Several top touring professionals who had been listed as tentative competitors have not arrived and presumably had decided not to enter. The entry list does not close until the last threesome leaves the tee today, however.

The starters include Fred Wampler, who was beaten by Sam Snead in a playoff for the Greensboro, N.C., Open title last week; Bob Tozki, winner of the 1954 Tam O'Shanter Tournament; veteran Jimmy Clark; and many promising young pros like Billy Maxwell, former National Amateur champion; Bud Holscher, Dick Mayer and George Bayer.

Bragan Using Iron Rule To Change Bucco Outlook

NEW YORK (AP)—It takes a big stick to lift the Pittsburgh Pirates out of the National League cellar then Bobby Bragan means to wield it as often as necessary.

The 1956 baseball season is only three days old but already the 37-year old freshman manager has fined two of his players for careless play and served notice that failure to observe a 1 a.m. curfew, without permission, will cost violators from $500 to $1,000.

"We are the type of a club that can't afford to make mistakes," said the ex-major league shortstop and catcher after fining outfielder Roberto Clemente and first baseman Dale Long $25 each for what he called careless plays in yesterday's 5-4 loss to the New York Giants.

Bragan said Clemente was fined for missing a squeeze bunt sign. Long was penalized for cutting off a throw to home plate in the ninth, when Gil Coan scored the tying run on a sacrifice fly.

Bobby, an off-season Sunday School teacher who didn't hesitate to bring his players up short in three years at the helm of the Hollywood Stars of the Pacific Coast League, said "our team is geared to good pitching and a tight defense."

Not since the days of Manager Bill Meyer have any of the Pirates been chastized by fines. Meyer once fined Bill Werle, a pitcher $500, and made Bob Chesnes, also a pitcher, dig up $300. But Fred Haney, whom Bragan succeeded, never wielded the big stick in any such manner.

Suggs Favorite In Dallas Meet

DALLAS (AP)—Louise Suggs, from Sea Island, Ga., leading money winner of the women's professional golf tour, was established as the favorite today as a field of 43 moved out in the first round of the $7,500 Dallas Women's Open.

Miss Suggs toured Glen Lakes Country Club's 6,300-yard course in three-under men's par 68 yesterday in a pro-amateur. She beat out Beverly Hanson of Apple Valley, Calif., by a stroke for low pro and won $100.

Her brilliant round made her the top choice for $1,350 first money but Patty Berg, Betsy Rawls, Betty Jameson, Betty Bush and Marlene Bauer Hagge were rated strong contenders.

Miss Berg had a 75, Miss Bush 79, Mrs. Hagge 75, Miss Jameson 73 and Miss Rawls 80.

Davis A Good Rain-Maker

The farmers should hire Coach Harold Davis of H.C.J.C. as a rain-maker. He can make inroads into a drought simply by booking a baseball game.

The Hawks were lined up to play Frank Phillips in a doubleheader here recently but the first rain in three or four months fell and caused a postponement of the action.

He booked Webb Air Force Base for a practice game earlier this week but the contest was weathered out.

Now it appears tomorrow's West Zone contest with Odessa JC, which was to have been played in Steer Park, may have to be called off or transferred to Odessa. Reason: Part of the infield is under water.

Russians Agree To World Atom Agency

WASHINGTON (AP)—Diplomats credited Russia with another strong bid for international good will today in its agreement to join the Western powers in setting up a worldwide atoms-for-peace agency.

A 12-nation conference, including the Soviet Union and the United States, agreed last night on a charter for the proposed new organization which would function under the general sponsorship of the United Nations.

The charter will be presented to an 84-nation conference which will meet at U. N. headquarters in New York in September.

The agreement was announced by the State Department after a series of meetings which began Feb. 27.

The action appears to assure creation of a project initiated by President Eisenhower in December 1953. He called for an international atoms-for-peace pool which would spread the benefits of peaceful atomic power over the world.

In essence the organization is designed to pool contributed atomic materials from the United States, Russia, Britain, France and Canada primarily, and make them available to applicant countries which lack the knowledge and industrial resources for producing their own atomic fuels.

In the consuming countries the fuels will be "burned" in atomic furnaces to produce electric power and thereby raise the industrial level and living standards.

Russia for more than a year and a half refused to cooperate and the Western powers went ahead on their own. At the Geneva summit conference last July Premier Niko- loid Bulganin told Eisenhower Russia would contribute fissionable material if an agency was set up. Subsequently Moscow agreed to take part in the conference here. Its representative was Ambassador Georgi N. Zarubin.

Early in the sessions Zarubin conceded two points which helped to make the final outcome possible. He dropped a bid to include Red China. He also yielded on a Soviet proposal that the new agency be subject to the big power veto in the U. N. Security Council.

The Soviets are reported to have stated reservations on several points of the charter. But they joined in making adoption of the charter by the 12-country group unanimous.

Not all the objections came from Russia, however. India and some other nonatomic powers are reported to have protested that some early drafts would have given them little say in the agency.

This was the third Soviet action this week seemingly calculated to promote the idea that Russia is now cooperating in constructive developments.

Others were an offer of cooperation in U. N. efforts to make peace between Israel and the Arab states and the announced dissolution of the international Communist information agency, the Cominform.

American officials remain highly skeptical of Soviet aims in these maneuvers, but they concede they have wide appeal for millions of people.

The machinery provided by the charter for the new atomic agency consists essentially of:

1. A 23-nation board of governors with power to make decisions needed to develop and promote the peaceful uses of atomic energy.
2. A director general to be selected by the board and to serve as executive head of operations.
3. A staff of scientists, inspectors and others to conduct operations, provide technical advice to recipient countries and make certain that dangerous materials do not fall into unscrupulous hands.
4. A relationship with the U. N. to be worked out in detail by the board. It is understood the agency would report to the General Assembly and the Security Council but would not be subject to direct operations control.

The 10 nations which participated in the Washington talks in addition to the United States and Russia, are Britain, Australia, Belgium, Brazil, Canada, Czechoslovakia, France, India, Portugal and South Africa.

Atlantic To Construct Gas Plant At Crane

DALLAS (AP)—Atlantic Refining Co. said yesterday it would construct an absorption gasoline plant five miles northwest of Crane in the University of Texas Block 31 field. The plant will supplement existing pressure maintenance facilities and handle up to 25 million cubic feet of gas daily. The plant will remove natural gasoline, butane and propane from the formation gas.

Next Year's School Calendar Approved

A 177-day school calendar for 1956-57 has been approved by the school board.

The calendar prepared by Floyd W. Parsons, superintendent-elect and principals, sets school opening next fall on Sept. 4. The term ends May 29, 1957.

Holidays include Thursday and Friday, Nov. 29-30, for Thanksgiving; December 21, 1956, to Jan. 7, 1957, for Christmas; and April 19 and April 22, 1957, for Easter. One day also will be taken out for the district meeting of the Texas State Teachers Association next spring. The first semester ends Jan. 18 and the second semester starts Jan. 21, 1957.

Graduation dates include the high school baccalaureate on May 28, junior high commencement May 27, and high school commencement May 28, 1957.

The calendar calls for meetings of the administrative staff next Aug. 27 and 28, and a general faculty workshop Aug. 29-31. School opening activities will be suspended Sept. 3 in observance of Labor Day.

Starfighter In Flight

This overhead view above the California desert shows the unusual configuration of the new Lockheed XF104 Starfighter, the Air Force's fastest fighter. The plane's wings, only 7½ feet from the fuselage to the tip, are set back near the tail and slant downward. Their leading edges are almost knife sharp. The XF104, and production model F104A, were shown to newsmen for the first time. Top speed of the plane is secret.

Airman Slayer Gets Life Term On Guilty Plea

MADILL, Okla. (AP)—Prentice Day, 21, was sentenced to life in prison today for the Feb. 14 slaying of an Illinois airman bound for Texas.

Day changed his plea from innocent by reason of insanity to guilty. Judge W. J. Monroe, passing sentence, told the former juvenile delinquent:

"You are as bad as any mad dog ever turned loose on this country. You ought to be kept out of circulation for the rest of your life."

Monroe ordered that the records sent with Day to the Oklahoma State Penitentiary at McAlester show that he recommend that Day never be given a pardon or parole under any circumstance.

Day was arrested by the FBI in New York last week for the slaying of Airman Roger Timm, 22, Evanston, Ill., Feb. 14, 1956, near here.

Timm's body was found Feb. 21. He had been shot and his body thrown from his car, which was found at San Antonio.

Timm was on his way from his home to a new station at the Abilene AFB when he picked up the hitchhiking Day in Rolla, Mo.

The swarthy 6-foot-5 Day, who was given an undesirable discharge from the Army after Korea, told Monroe he didn't know why he killed Timm.

Safe Deposit Boxes Are Special Banking Service

By SAM BLACKBURN
If you are in the market to rent a safety deposit box in Big Spring, the answer is: (1) yes, you can get one — and they come in three assorted sizes; (2) no, we're sorry, but we have a waiting list for the boxes on hand.

You see, it depends on which bank you happen to go to in your quest.

If you go to the First National Bank, there are boxes available.

If you go to the State National Bank, there are no boxes available.

The First National Bank added a considerable number of safety deposit boxes to its supply about five years ago. The enlargement of this department was brought about by the elemental business condition that there were more customers than there were boxes. Since the addition of the extra supply, the bank has been able to supply the demand.

H. H. Hurt, vice president, said that the boxes at the First National are in three sizes to serve the individual needs of the customer. Most folk want the smallest size — but for others, there are much larger boxes available.

Temp S. Currie Jr., at the State National Bank, said the boxes in service there are of the same type — only there aren't any available for rent at this time.

Folk use them for all sort of things. They keep bonds, insurance policies, jewelry, souvenirs, deeds, abstracts and all sorts of valuables in them.

Unusual objects sometimes wind up in safety deposit boxes. There have been instances on record, in the days of prohibition, for example, when contraband booze was sometimes hoarded in the boxes.

The subscriber to a safety deposit box pays a stipulated fee — plus tax — as annual rental for the service. He signs on the register — he must sign again each time he visits the bank to inspect the contents of his box.

He is given two keys, identical in design.

"We give them two keys," said Hurt, "because experience shows that the customer nearly always loses one."

His safety deposit box cannot be opened by the bank without use of the subscriber's key. Nor can the subscriber open the box, assuming he had access to it, with his key, unless he has the master key which is retained by the bank and which fits a second lock on each box. Both keys must be employed to unlock the box.

The banks provide the customers with small private rooms to use when they are mulling over the contents of their safety deposit boxes.

Safety deposit boxes are an important feature of the banks' service in Big Spring as they are elsewhere. A special department is operated to provide the customer with prompt service when he calls at the bank and asks to inspect his box.

Court Hears Sanford Plea

AUSTIN (AP)—The Court of Criminal Appeals heard oral arguments Wednesday as a writ of habeas corpus for Vern Sanford, indicted on a charge of making illegal contributions to L. Gov. Ben Ramsey's 1954 campaign.

No action was taken. The court will rule later.

Everett Looney, Sanford's attorney, told the court Sanford was indicted at Waco under a law in the Texas election code that is unconstitutional.

Indictments charge Sanford spent $76 on two Ramsey ads in the Waco Tribune-Herald.

Looney said Dist. Atty. Tom Moore was "confused over whether the money was a contribution or an expenditure."

Looney said the statute "insofar as it makes it an offense to spend money to publish or speak your view is unconstitutional."

New Trial Ordered For Ex-Airman

AUSTIN (AP)—The Court of Criminal Appeals ordered a new trial today for Louis White, 43, of Kosse and Austin. He had been sentenced to life in the murder of his wife.

White was an Air Force sergeant at Bergstrom AFB, Austin, when his wife, Mrs. Mildred Mack White, 33, of Tyler was killed in April, 1954. Daeth was by strangulation.

Punch Refill

Mrs. B. M. Estes ladies a special punch recipe into crystal for party guests. Like other local women on today's food pages, Mrs. Estes likes to entertain informally and simply.

Anyone For A Party? Ideas From Mrs. Estes May Inspire

Mrs. B. M. Estes likes to entertain informally. An occasional open house or a bridge or conversation get-together in her home, 706 W. 14th, requires a minimum of planning but the refreshment table sparkles with ideas like these:

CHEESE APPETIZERS
On cocktail crackers spread unusual fillings. Mrs. Estes likes cream cheese for a spread. She seasons it with a few drops of lemon juice or adds chopped chives, parsley and grated onions. Canned deviled ham is another spread Mrs. Estes uses.

PARTY SANDWICHES
1 3-ounce package cream cheese
1 tablespoon milk
4 slices crisply cooked bacon, crumbed
1 teaspoon horseradish
1/4 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
6 thin slices whole wheat bread
Soften cheese by mashing with fork. Blend in all ingredients and spread on white bread. Top with whole wheat slices. Trim off crusts and cut in three or four shapes. Garnish with pickles, cocktail onions and olives. To make cornucopias, Mrs. Estes mashes soft bread at corners to hold shape.

MINTED LEMON-LIME PUNCH
1 1/2 cups sugar
2 1/2 cups water
1 cup fresh mint leaves
1 tablespoon grated lemon peel
1 cup lemon juice
1/2 cup lime juice
Combine sugar and water and cook five minutes. Cool slightly. Pour over mint leaves in bowl. Add other ingredients and cover to steep. Strain and chill. Serve diluted with an equal amount of water. Garnish ice-filled glasses with lemon and lime slices.

Besides using this for company, Mrs. Estes keeps a pitcher in the refrigerator in the summer for play-weary daughters, Debney,

Onion Dip Delights Mrs. Milam's Guests

Tired of cheese dips? Here's a new idea that draws raves from guests of Mrs. L. J. Milam.

CREAMY LION DIP
Whip 1/2 pint sour ("salad") cream. Fold in a package of dried onion soup mix. Serve with corn chips. This is less expensive than cheese dip, says Mrs. Milam, and it stays white and fluffy during the evening.

To wind up your party, after the company has whetted their appetites with the dip, serve big slices of Mrs. Milam's rich pie with coffee. This is the recipe:

DATE PARTY PIE
3 egg yolks
1/2 cup sugar
1/4 cup milk
1/4 pound packaged dates, cut fine
1/2 cup pecans
1/2 stick butter
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
3 tablespoons flour
Mix sugar and flour. Add egg yolks, then milk and dates. Cook until dates dissolve, about 10 minutes. Remove from fire and add butter, pecans and vanilla. Pile in baked pie shell. This is rich enough

Serve Nostalgia With Old-Time Soda

Take guests back to their drug store soda days. This is easy and a novelty.

QUICK CHOCOLATE SODA
3 heaping teaspoons quick cocoa powder
Small amount of milk
1 scoop vanilla ice cream
Chilled ginger ale
Combine quick cocoa powder and milk in a tall glass. Add vanilla ice cream. Fill slowly with chilled ginger ale or other carbonated beverage. Yield: 1 soda.

5, and Denise, 3. Here is an easier punch:

PATIO PUNCH
1 envelope raspberry or strawberry summer ade drink
1/2 cup sugar
3 cups cold water
2 cups orange juice
1/2 cup lemon juice
Combine and stir until ade and sugar dissolve. Pour over ice cubes. Makes 6 punch cups.

without a topping, says Mrs. Milam.

For cool refreshment Mrs. Milam prepares this for guests:

ROYAL PURPLE DESSERT
1 can black cherries, pitted
Small can crushed pineapple
1/2 cup pecans
1 package black cherry or dark colored gelatin

Use juices as part of liquid to dissolve gelatin. Fold in ingredients and chill in fancy molds. After the dessert starts to set, stir again to keep fruit from jelling at the top.

For serving top with cream cheese mixed with pineapple juice.

Cinnamon Spice 'N Everything Nice In Ice Cream

For easy-to-make cinnamon ice cream, buy vanilla and chocolate ice cream. Mix together in the proportion of two parts of vanilla to one part of chocolate ice cream.

To 1 pint vanilla and a 1/2 pint chocolate, add 1 to 1 1/2 teaspoons ground cinnamon. Mix thoroughly. If desired, add more cinnamon to taste. Re-freeze cinnamon ice cream in freezing compartment of refrigerator — with cold control set at coldest point. It takes a little longer to re-freeze commercial ice cream. Allow 10-12 hours.

For Cinnamon Ice Cream using home mixes: Using either the quart-size powdered or conealed-liquid prepared ice cream mixes, follow the first freezing process as indicated in the directions, but do not add vanilla.

Mix thoroughly three tablespoons chocolate syrup and 1 to 1 1/2 tablespoons cinnamon, add to ice cream, mix, put in refrigerator, freeze and serve. Use more or less cinnamon, according to taste.

Mrs. Stitzell Suggests Dessert For Busy Hostess

If you're a busy hostess, Mrs. Fred Stitzell has a pineapple dessert cake you can fix several days ahead of your party.

"The longer this cake sets in the refrigerator, the better it is," she says, adding that it is really just as simple to prepare as it sounds. Here is the recipe:

BUSY HOSTESS CAKE
2 cups sifted flour
1 1/2 cups sugar
3/4 teaspoon baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon grated lemon rind
1/2 cup shortening
1 cup minus 2 tablespoons canned pineapple juice
1 teaspoon vanilla
3 egg whites, unbeaten

Sift flour, sugar, baking powder, salt into mixing bowl. Add rind. Drop in shortening. Add juice and vanilla. Beat 2 minutes with electric beater at low speed. Add egg whites. Beat 2 more minutes. Bake in greased square pans 25-30 minutes in a 350-degree oven.

Chill layers and split in half. Beat 1 cup heavy cream. Add 1/4 cup sugar. Spread layers with Pineapple Filling and whipped cream. Top cake with whipped cream. Store in refrigerator at least several hours before serving.

PINEAPPLE FILLING
In top of double boiler mix thoroughly 1/4 cup sugar, 2 1/2 tablespoons cornstarch and 1/2 teaspoon salt. Mix 1/2 cup lemon juice and the grated rind of one lemon. Add 3 egg yolks, 1/2 cup canned pineapple juice and 2 tablespoons butter. Cook over boiling water until smooth and thick, about 15 minutes. Let cool.

Fill Meringues With Peach Melba

Here is a special party dish: PEACH MELBA MERINGUE

Meringue:
4 egg whites
1/2 teaspoon vinegar
1/4 teaspoon salt
1 cup sugar
1/2 cup oatmeal

Topping:
6 cooked peach halves, drained
1 to 2 cups sweetened raspberries
1 teaspoon cornstarch
Add vinegar, vanilla and salt to egg whites. Beat to a stiff foam. Add sugar very gradually, about a tablespoon at a time, beating well after each addition. Continue beating until mixture stands in lustrous peaks. Lightly stir in the oatmeal.

Place heavy brown paper on cookie sheet. For each meringue, drop egg white mixture by tablespoons to form a circle on the paper. Five mounds make a nice-sized meringue. (Leave the center hollow and be sure the edges of the spoonfuls touch so meringue will hold together.) Bake in a very slow oven (275 degrees) 45 minutes to 1 hour. Cool for a few minutes, then remove from paper.

Place a peach half on top of each meringue. Pour thickened raspberry sauce (made by stirring corn starch into defrosted raspberries and heating until thickened, stirring occasionally) over peach halves. Serve immediately.

Pat-Down Pastry Can Be Pressed Instead Of Rolled

Here is a crust made a comparatively new way — with salad oil.

PAT-DOWN PASTRY SHELL

Ingredients:
One and one-half cups sifted flour, 1 1/2 teaspoons sugar, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/2 cup salad oil, 2 tablespoons cold milk.

Method:
Sift flour, sugar and salt into 9-inch pie plate. Mix salad oil and milk in measuring cup. Whip with a fork and pour all at once over flour mixture. Mix with fork until flour is completely dampened.

Press evenly and firmly with fingers, lining bottom of pan; then press dough up to line sides and partly cover rim. Be sure dough is pressed to uniform thickness. To flute, pinch dough lightly with fingers. Do not use a high fluted edge.

Use Fresh Coconut

Many good Florida cooks use fresh coconut with fish as well as with desserts. If you don't like the tedious job of grating coconut, you may put it through the food chopper.

Berries Fill Cake

Add sliced strawberries to vanilla pudding and use as a filling for angel food cake. Cut the cake crosswise in three layers.

Well established in English and French cuisines, flans can be made in American kitchens as a sparkling new party dessert.

Continental 'Flans' Are Easier Said Than Done

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

Flans, eaten with relish in France and England, have always intrigued us. But we never tried to make this dessert because flans, in which the pastry for the sweet is usually baked, are hard to come by. Recently a friend showed us how to achieve a flan with an ordinary round layer-cake pan.

The pastry for our flan is delightful—crisp, tender and short. It's a rich golden color, too, due to the new yellow shortening that is used in its making. A layer of strawberries is placed over the baked pastry, then a layer of Vanilla Cream is added and last a meringue. For a garnish, sliced bananas are tip-tilted around its edge. The bananas hide a surprise: they give no hint of the luscious spring-time strawberries hidden in the filling's creamy depths.

MERINGUE CREAM FLAN

Ingredients:
One and one-half cups sifted flour, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 cup new golden yellow shortening, 3 to 4 tablespoons water, halved small strawberries, Vanilla Cream, 4 egg whites, 1/2 teaspoon cream of tartar, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 cup sugar, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 1 large banana.

Method:
Sift together the flour and salt into a mixing bowl. Cut in shortening with a pastry blender until mixture looks like coarse cornmeal. Sprinkle water over, 1 tablespoon at a time, and mix lightly with a fork until all flour is moistened. Gather dough into a ball and roll out on a lightly floured pastry cloth with a stockinette covered rolling pin into a circle about 10 inches in diameter. (Don't roll too thin; there should be few pastry scraps left after trimming.)

Place a round layer-cake pan (8 by 1 1/2 inches) upside down on a baking sheet. Transfer the rolled pastry to the outside of the sheet and gently press it around the pan, making small tucks at even intervals if necessary. Trim off overhanging pastry with a sharp knife, cutting against baking sheet. Prick bottom and sides of pastry at about 1-inch intervals with a fork. Bake in a hot (425 degrees) oven about 16 to 18 minutes or until pastry is a golden color. Cool. Place flat serving dish on top of pastry; invert; carefully lift out pan. Arrange two layers of strawberries in bottom of pastry flan and pour warm Vanilla Cream over them. Allow to stand until Vanilla Cream is cold.

Beat egg whites with cream of tartar and salt until frothy. Gradually and thoroughly beat in sugar. 1 tablespoon at a time; continue to beat until meringue is glossy and will hold stiff straight peaks when beater is slowly withdrawn. Beat in vanilla. Pile meringue lightly over filling, making sure it touches edges of pastry; with the back of a tablespoon, swirl the meringue into graceful peaks. Place in a

Parisian Touch Transforms Shrimp

New shrimp recipe! It boasts an unctuous sauce of an attractive color—the sort they eat in Paris. Another inducement: no separate cooking of the shrimp in water for this dish.

SALICY SHRIMP

Ingredients:
One pound shrimp, 2 tablespoons butter, 1 tablespoon flour, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon celery salt, 1/4 teaspoon curry powder, 1/4 teaspoon paprika, 1/4 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce, 2 tablespoons chili sauce, 1/2 pint (1 cup) light cream, Tabasco sauce, 6 to 8 slices bread, butter.

Method:
Shell and devein shrimp using cold water to clean; dry well. Heat butter in 1-quart wide-bottomed saucepan until it hisses. Add shrimp and cook over moderate heat, stirring gently until opaque through and tinged with pink.

Remove from heat. Sprinkle flour, salt, celery salt, curry powder and paprika over shrimp. Return to low heat and stir to coat; add Worcestershire sauce, chili sauce and cream; stir constantly until thickened and simmering; simmer for several minutes but do not boil. Sauce will be on thin side.

Meanwhile toast bread and spread with butter; cut each slice into 4 triangles and keep hot in low oven. Spoon shrimp into 4 scallop shells or other individual dishes; perch 2 triangles of buttered toast at sides of each shell; accompany with extra toast. Makes 4 first-course servings. Or serve with toast or rice for 3 main-course servings. Note: Use the shrimp that count from 24 to 28 per pound for this recipe.

Cherry Sandwiches Make Ideal Fare For Hungry Folks

If your guests are the lean and hungry kind, fill them up with sandwiches.

Keep these spreads in the refrigerator for kitchen raids or be a little more formal and fill a lazy susan:

PINK PINEAPPLE SANDWICH

1 No. 2 can sliced pineapple, drained
1 cup creamed cottage cheese
1/4 cup finely chopped celery
1/4 cup chopped maraschino cherries, drained (about 10 cherries)
6 slices toast
Reserve 6 slices pineapple; chop cheese, chopped pineapple, celery and cherries; mix well. Spread on toast. Arrange reserved pineapple slices over cherry mixture. Garnish with cherry halves, as desired. (Makes 6 sandwiches)

CHERRY CURRANT SANDWICH SPREAD

1 8-ounce package cream cheese, softened
2 tablespoons lemon juice
1-3 cup currants
1/2 cup chopped walnuts
1/2 cup chopped maraschino cherries, drained (about 20 cherries.)
Buttered toast
Combine cheese and lemon juice; beat until blended. Fold in currants, nuts and cherries. Spread on toast to make sandwiches.

Punch Bowl Needs Refills With This

If you want to do yourself proud, serve this in the punch bowl:

SPICED FRUIT PUNCH

2 cups boiling water
2 tablespoons tea
2 cups corn syrup or 1 1/2 cups honey
Few grains salt
1/4 teaspoon ground cloves
1 quart loganberry or any tart juice
1/4 cup lemon juice
2 quarts ginger ale
Sprig of mint
2 oranges sliced
6 whole cloves
Add tea to boiling water. Cover to steep.

Finnish Bread Doubles As Rice-Filled Dumpling

Here's a new idea for a hot bread which can double as a main dish! It's a foreign style dumpling with a tender rice filling. A pastry covering is pleated around the rice and after baking the bread is served with a hardcooked egg and margarine or butter sauce.

This baked "dumpling" may be used as a bread or main dish and can be served at breakfast, brunch or supper. Instead of the egg sauce you can serve it with a chicken gravy with bits of chicken and you'll have a delicious main dish. Your family will love the delicious flavor, intriguing appearance and tender pastry around the piping hot rice. If you wish, you may use your favorite recipe for pastry, following the directions below for making the egg sauce and for cooking the rice for the filling.

FINNISH KARJALAN PIIRAKAT WITH EGG SAUCE

1/2 teaspoon salt
2-3 cup uncooked white rice
2 1/2 cups milk
2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
1 teaspoon salt
2-3 cup chilled shortening
3 to 5 tablespoons cold water
1 tablespoon beet or cane sugar
Milk
3 hard-cooked eggs, diced
1/2 cup melted margarine or butter.

Put the salt, rice and 2 1/2 cups milk in a 2-quart saucepan. Stir well. Place over a high heat. When bubbles appear around the edge of the saucepan, turn the heat as low as possible. Cover with a lid. Leave over this low heat 40 minutes or until most of the milk has been absorbed by the rice. Stir frequently during the cooking.

While the rice is cooking, make the pastry. Sift together the flour and salt. Cut in the shortening with two knives or with a pastry blender. The mixture of flour and shortening should resemble coarse corn meal. Add a tablespoon of water at a time quickly mixing and pressing the mixture together with the back of a spoon until the mixture holds together. Use as little water as possible. Press into a ball. Place on a lightly floured board or lightly floured waxed paper. Shape into a long roll 12 inches long. Cut into 12 pieces. Roll each piece of dough into a thin circle about 6 inches in diameter.

Stir the sugar into the hot cooked rice. Place a heaping measuring tablespoon of cooked rice in the center of each pastry circle. Pleat the dough up around the rice letting a few grains of rice show. Press the dough firmly against the rice. The pastry with the rice inside will be ball-shaped and look somewhat like a dumpling. Pour about 1/2 teaspoon of milk over the exposed rice. Place on an ungreased cookie sheet. Bake in a pre-heated 450 F. oven for 25 to 30 minutes or until the pastry is crisp and brown. This adds a crunchy flavor.

While the pastry bakes, mix together the eggs and margarine or butter. Serve "dumplings" hot topped with egg sauce. If desired, top with other sauces such as a chicken gravy with small pieces of chicken or diluted cream of mushroom soup with diced hard-cooked eggs. This recipe makes 6 servings allowing 2 to a serving.

Savings Bond Holdings At All-Time High

DALLAS — With the 15th anniversary of the volunteer U. S. Savings Bonds program coming up on May 1, Americans own more than $40 billion in Series E and H bonds, an all-time peak roughly one third higher than E bond holdings at the end of World War II.

Nathan Adams and Ed Gossett, co-chairmen of the Texas Savings Bonds committee, consider this "reason enough for congratulating Americans on their thrift" but they also consider the reverse of the picture a shining one.

"I am also impressed by the fact that, since E bonds were put on sale in May, 1941, Americans have cashed billions of dollars of their bond holdings to buy things they needed," Adams commented.

"I think of these cashed bonds in the proper perspective. In terms of benefits already realized by our people," Gossett explained. "In wartime and since, most bond buyers saved them to spend later on important things.

"When we spend savings wisely for important ends we are helping to strengthen our economy and improve our living standards. When we save today for spending at the proper time later, we are maintaining the reserves to keep the spending stream flowing steadily. In an economy such as ours, saving and spending are both essential. When personal income is high, as it is now, is the time to step up our saving. "The goal of our Savings Bonds program for 1956 is $5,650,000 in E and H bond sales, only five per cent higher than actual sales in 1955. I know of no better way to protect our prosperity than to spend and save wisely. The fruits of expanding production in an expanding population are within the reach of all if we keep things in the proper balance."

Uncle Ray: Cro-Magnons Were Remarkable People

The marks on the bison suggest that the artist wanted to show where it was struck by spears or arrows. Below is a Stone Age sketch of a woolly rhinoceros.

By RAMON COFFMAN

The smartest and most remarkable people of the Old Stone Age seem to have lived in the valley of the Dordogne River in southwestern France. At least that was the area in which remains of them were located for the first time 88 years ago.

A certain cave existed near the village of Cro-Magnon, and the remains of five persons were found there. Three skeletons of men were dug up, also one of a woman and one of a child. The nearby village gave its name to the "Cro-Magnons" as people of that type were called.

Scientists studied the skulls, and reported:

"The skulls are the largest left by people of the Old Stone Age. Their brains were equal in size to those of modern white men!"

Skeletons of the same general type were found in other caves, including some in the French Riviera. The average height of Cro-Magnon men was about six feet.

The Cro-Magnons were clever at fashioning stones into knives, axes and other tools. They also produced the most advanced artists of that period. In the Dordogne valley we find today a vast number of engravings and paintings on the walls of caves, and these show high artistic skill.

Suggestions have been made that the Cro-Magnons moved into France from another part of the world, but we are without proof of that. Some scientists believe that the development took place in the Riviera, toward the end of the last glacial period in Europe.

In any case we salute the Cro-Magnons! There is reason to believe that they were the chief ancestors of the white race in Europe.

Roosevelt Kin To Wed Midland Man

FORT WORTH (AP)—Miss Ruth Chandler Roosevelt of Fort Worth, granddaughter of President Franklin D. Roosevelt, will be married to Henry Lindsley III of Midland in a ceremony attended only by members of their families at 8 p.m. Saturday, April 21.

The wedding will take place in All Saints Episcopal Church where the bride's mother, Mrs. Harry Eidson, and step-father, Col. Eidson, are members. Elliott Roosevelt of Meeker, Colo., will give his daughter in marriage.

Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt is expected here Saturday for the wedding. Lindsley is the son of the late Robert Stewart Jr., and Henry Lindsley Jr., both of Dallas.

Three of the bride's brothers will be in the wedding party. Elliott Roosevelt Jr. of Fort Worth and William Roosevelt of Meeker, Colo., will be groomsmen; and David Roosevelt of Fort Worth will be an acolyte.

Students Plan To Continue Education

AUSTIN (AP)—Some 92 per cent of 3,000 high school seniors tested indicate they plan to continue their education at least four years beyond high school, Dr. H. T. Manuel, University of Texas testing and guidance bureau director, said today.

The students were tested in the university's new admissions testing program. An additional 1,000 are expected to take the May 12 tests scheduled in Abilene, Amarillo, Beaumont, Bryan, Dallas, Fort Worth, Galveston, Houston, Lubbock, Midland, San Antonio, Tyler, Waco, Wichita Falls and elsewhere.

Manuel said many students had very high scores, and there were relatively few failures.
