Star Nabbed As 'Dog Smuggler' American Actress Susan Hayward argues with an airlines official at London Airport as flight attendant holds Yorkshirer terrier taken from her just before flight from London to Paris. Susan carried the pet under a fur as she walked to the plane, but quarantine officials spotted it and forced her to leave it behind. After some argument, she complied.

2 Presidential Preference Primaries Due

WASHINGTON, May 12 (AP)—Two more presidential preference primaries are coming up next week and six states will hold conventions. All told, national convention delegates with 97 Republican and 78 Democratic votes will be chosen during the week. The primaries: TUESDAY—Nebraska has a preference vote, with President Eisenhower unopposed on the Republican ticket and Sen. Estes Kefauver alone on the Democratic. The preference vote is not binding on the 18-vote Republican and 12-vote Democratic delegations to be chosen. Delegates run unpledged. FRIDAY—Oregon holds a preference primary. There are no Democratic entrants, but Adlai Stevenson and Sen. Kefauver are competing for write-in votes that will determine who gets the state's 16-vote delegation. President Eisenhower has no opposition on the GOP ballot for 18 delegates. Another highlight of the Oregon voting will be the Republican contest between Douglas McKay, former secretary of the interior, and Philip Hitchcock, member of the Lewis and Clark College development staff, for the U.S. Senate nomination. In November the winner is expected to meet Sen. Wayne Morse, who has only taken opposition in the Democratic primary.

Ike Gets 'Good Health' Report After Checkup

CANDIDATES TO LEARN COST OF SEEKING OFFICE MONDAY

The expense of running for office is going to be high this year. The Howard County Democratic Executive Committee will meet Monday afternoon to determine just how high the cost will be. J. W. Purser, county Democratic chairman, estimated that the two primary elections this summer will cost in the vicinity of $5,500. This will be shared by the candidates on the basis of the salaries paid for the offices they are seeking. There are only 23 candidates seeking county and precinct offices this year. A few district and state offices will be listed on the ballots. The number of office seekers is reduced this year because of the new system of four-year terms which became effective for half of the holders of political office two years ago. Cost of the elections won't be down appreciably, but victorious candidates will be assured of positions for four years. The county's 16 precinct chairmen make up the Democratic Executive Committee. Purser said they will meet about 3 p.m. Monday in the commissioners courtroom to set the candidate fees.

Civil Rights Leads Other Political News

President Eisenhower, who is a candidate for a second term, got a report of good health Saturday after a head-to-toe examination at the Army's Walter Reed Hospital. The White House released the text of the doctors' report, which said Eisenhower's heart is "well healed," and the President went off to play golf. The report described Eisenhower as "physically active and mentally alert." It said he has shown "good tolerance to increasing physical activity" over the six months since his discharge from the Denver hospital where he was treated for a heart attack last September. The report said there was no enlargement or bulging of the scar left by the heart attack. "His general condition continues good," the report said. "Civil rights dominated much of the other political news yesterday. Americans for Democratic Action, holding its ninth annual convention in Washington, said there is a "national crisis" over civil rights and blamed both parties. ADA said both the Republicans and Democrats should include planks in their 1956 platforms pledging "complete and unequivocal" support of the Supreme Court ruling against segregation in the public schools. It urged Eisenhower to call an immediate White House conference of Negro and white leaders to "ease tensions and promote cooperation." Walter P. Reuther, an ADA vice chairman and president of the United Auto Workers, said in a keynote speech that if the Democratic party tries to "straddle the civil rights question" it does not merit the support of the American people. He said the Democrats "cannot compete with the Eisenhower administration in the middle of the road."

Out Of The Doghouse Two-year-old Kyle Barnard crawls from a doghouse to show where he napped for four hours while his frantic parents, police and highway patrolmen combed the neighborhood in Fargo, N. D., for him. Although he caused them a lot of worry, Mr. and Mrs. Tillman Barnard were so relieved at finding Kyle safe they decided against another stretch in the doghouse.

SCHOOL EXPANSION Tax Rate Change Not 'Blank Check'

(This is one of a series of articles designed to acquaint the public with reasons which school officials believe establish the need for financing proposed under a $900,000 bond issue up for decision on May 13-23.) You will receive three ballots when you vote Tuesday on the proposed $900,000 school bond issue. This is because it is necessary to change the Big Spring Independent School District's tax structure if the bonds are to be supported. The district now operates under a maximum $1.50 rate per each $100 assessed valuation. As much as 50 cents of this may be put to debt service. Already the district is levying 27 1/2 cents for debt service, and cost of the additional bonds would mean at least 47 cents to total debt service. While this would be within the limit, it would cripple the district's already strained ability to operate on its maintenance funds. Instead of the $1.125 now allocated to maintenance, the board of trustees has said from $1.20 to $1.25 is needed desperately, hence it would be folly to vote bonds under the present rate limitations when doing so would automatically reduce maintenance to about $1.03. Senate Bill 116 is the device by which a district, upon majority vote of its people, can break out from under the $1.50 rate limit. It works like this: A district may levy a maintenance tax up to $1.50, and then it may levy such additional tax as is needed to service the bonds. But this is not the blank check that it seems, for checks and balances are imposed. Instead of having no debt limits, as is now the case, the new law says that no district may bond itself for more than 10 per cent of its valuations. It goes several steps further. When the total debt goes above seven per cent, the maintenance tax limit must be reduced by 10 cents; when it goes above eight per cent the maximum maintenance tax would be reduced to $1.20; above nine (and under 10) to $1.20. If voters approve the $900,000 issue Tuesday, the district's outstanding debt would be $1,300,000. See SCHOOLS, Pg. 6, Col. 2

Reviewing The Big Spring Week With Joe Pickle

If there's a sentimental day left on our calendar perhaps it's Mother's Day. Whether in hallowed memory or in tender gift, our tributes today pay respect to the one who pointed us a-right. And the one who has lost capacity for sentiment about his mother has grown cold in his soul. From most accounts we came near a twister here last Monday, for TV antennae were snapped off and some homes damaged by capricious winds. While our own locality benefited little, northern Howard, most of Borden, Dawson and Scurry got enough rain for planting. Still and all, we don't like the looks of things—the way the wind has been hanging stubbornly and briskly in the south and southwest.

Economist Who Rejected Red Overtures Back In Job

WASHINGTON, May 12 (AP)—Sidney Hatkin, government economist who says he rejected a Russian bid for military information while he was under suspension as a possible security risk, was restored to the Air Force payroll today. Hatkin had worked prior to his suspension in a division which Quarles said "analyzes a variety of Air Force programs including those concerning military aircraft and guided missiles." His suspension was ordered 14 months ago pending investigation of allegations that he had Communist links. Quarles ruled, however, that Hatkin could properly be placed in a position where he would not be working with secret information. O'Daniel Opens His Campaign

WACO, May 12 (AP)—Just as W. Lee O'Daniel said, it "seemed like old times" as the ex-governor and ex-senator opened his campaign for governor tonight. Still the master of the catchy phrase and the logical phrase, O'Daniel revived such terms as "professional politicians" and "run the rascals out" and his speech trademark—"how-do-you-do ladies and gentlemen and hello there boys and girls"—as he addressed a rally on the McLennan County Courthouse grounds. Next to the "professional politicians," he turned his heaviest language against the United States Supreme Court for its school desegregation ruling. "If some of my remarks appear unusual," he said, "please do not be shocked, for it is my intention to unshirk that bunch of socialist, brainwashed professional political lawyers sitting upon the Supreme Court bench."

Wilson Faces Probe On Security Cases

WASHINGTON, May 12 (AP)—Chairman Hennings (D-Mo) announced today he is summoning Secretary of Defense Wilson before the Senate Constitutional Rights subcommittee to explain the Pentagon's handling of security risk cases. Aides said the subcommittee also plans to summon Atty. Gen. Brownell who, like Wilson, has not responded to prior invitations. The subcommittee is preparing a report now on what Hennings describes as an exposure of abuses in the government's security program. The report is based on hearings held last November. Today Hennings made public a letter to Wilson saying the subcommittee "respectfully calls upon you" to explain among other things whether the other armed services have adopted what Hennings termed the Army's "common sense" rules for judging who is a real security risk. The letter included a protest that the Army itself "withheld unaccountably for six months" disclosure to the subcommittee that Secretary of the Army Brucker had laid down the "common sense" rules last Oct. 17. It asked how closely the Army has followed those rules.

French Claim 175 Rebels Are Killed

ALGIERS, Algeria, May 12 (AP)—The French army claimed more than 175 Algerian rebels killed in bloody ambushes and running battles across eastern Algeria today. The Nationalists countered with a daring raid into the heart of the city of Constantine. Screaming sirens alerted the 118,000 people of Constantine, the big metropolis of the interior, as the Nationalists stormed in, throwing grenades and shooting down Arabs friendly to the French.

IN LONDON Satchmo Laughs Off Popularity

LONDON, May 12 (AP)—Louis Satchmo Daniel Armstrong—a back alley boy from New Orleans—modestly laughed off today the fact that he's suddenly become the toast of British royalty. "Man, it ain't me," croaked the gravel-voiced ambassador of American jazz, "we're just all cats together." Those cats include: Princess Margaret, The Duke of Kent, The Earl of Harewood, cousin of Queen Elizabeth II, and his brother, the Hon. Gerald Lascelles. And various and assorted peers of the realm such as the Irish Marquess of Donegal and the Scot, Lord Ogilvy, heir to the Earl of Airlie. The Dixieland trumpeter ends a 10-day series of concerts in London tomorrow night, during which he's had royalty jumping to the magic of his red hot horn. Margaret hugged her trim knees and beat out time with her silver-slipped feet. The Duke of Kent chased around to Satchmo's dressing room and got his autograph. The earl called him "magnificent." The Hon. Dominic Eliot ripped his program to shreds as he kept time to Armstrong's playing of "When the Saints Come Marching In." Satchmo, who was born in James Alley in New Orleans on July 4, 1900, has taken it all in his short jumpy stride. When Oxford-educated Humphrey Lyttleton, a British trumpet player, asked Louis the secret of his torrid technique Satchmo replied: "I don't know, daddy, I just blow."

Twisters Rake Michigan, Leaving At Least 5 Dead

FLINT, Mich., May 12 (AP)—Death-dealing, home-wrecking tornadoes bombarded much of southern Michigan late today and tonight. Upwards of half a dozen struck in the populous industrial and residential areas. At least five persons were killed and more than 100 injured. Three of the dead were from a single family in Flint, where a terrifying twister killed four as it bounced along a seven-mile path through the eastern outskirts. An elderly woman was killed near Ithaca, 30 miles northwest of Flint, when a barn toppled on her. One unconfirmed death was reported in Grand Blanc, a Flint suburb. Flint counted at least 30 injured. The Detroit suburb of Lincoln Park and Allen Park had more than a score hurt. A scattering of injuries also were reported elsewhere in southeastern Michigan. Windstorms and near-cloud-bursts appeared the general rule for areas unhit by twisters. Today's tornadoes came only five weeks behind a series of twisters that killed 11 in western Michigan the night of April 13. Flint, which was hit by three separate tornadoes, was bloodied and battered by the worst twister in Michigan history June 8, 1953, when 116 were killed.

Familiar Story: 'Wonderful Results' Of Heart Attack

NARA, Japan, May 12 (AP)—Louis Calhern, distinguished star of Broadway and Hollywood, died of a heart attack today while on location for his 69th film, "Teahouse of the August Moon." He was 61. Scott said there is increasing speculation that Truman will be the Democratic presidential nominee this year and the GOP "will welcome this." He added: "There is not going to be any smearing in this campaign by Republicans. All we are going to do is talk about the Truman record." He said it was this record that was "responsible for the Democratic defeat" in 1952, when Eisenhower beat Adlai Stevenson. Test Delayed Again ABOARD USS-MT. MCKINLEY, Eniwetok, Sunday, May 13 (AP)—The sixth post-shipment of the H-bomb test was announced today by the Task Force 7 command.

Dramatic Tale Of Intrigue Unfolds During Spy Hearing

WASHINGTON, May 12 (AP)—A knock at the door on a foggy night of vodka martinis... dinner for four with a dime tip for the waitress. These were details that came out today in the story of the stocky young clerk at the Soviet Embassy in Washington who went out searching for American military information. Robert W. Davis, a historian for the medical museum of the Armed Forces Institute of Pathology, said Mikheev contacted him last January. Davis said Mikheev told him he was working on a paper about American military history and wanted to start with the Revolutionary War and go up to now and show how America each time fights a bigger war than she fights the last time. Davis said Mikheev wanted him to draw up a bibliography of writings on American military history. It never was done. Mikheev had been to see Richard S. Cutter, 45, a native of Omaha, Neb., first, on Dec. 27 of last year. Cutter, a medical librarian, said Mikheev asked for military history and he gave him Davis' name. Later, on Feb. 14, 1956, Mikheev called up Sidney Hatkin, who had put an ad in a Washington paper that day describing himself as an economist, seeking work and listing his telephone number. He wanted three things from Hatkin—growth of the American aircraft industry, major companies and industrial capacity in the industry and aircraft production, Hatkin said. On the first visit, Mikheev gave Hatkin an advance fee of $25. But when he returned to Hatkin's home in about a week, Hatkin said he gave the money back, declining to do the work. All three men said they had talked to the FBI or their agency's security officers about the contacts.

Pupils Awarded Prizes For Best Clean-Up Week Posters

Awards for prize-winning posters, made by Big Spring school children in connection with Clean-Up Week, were distributed at the schools Friday. Grand prize went to Don Alexander, fifth grader of Park Hill school. Don received $6. A special award of merit, provided by Mrs. Obie Bristow, president of the Big Spring Garden Council which sponsored the contest, was presented to Rodolfo Jimenez, sixth grader at Kate Morrison School. Rodolfo's entry did not meet specifications for the correct size poster, but his work was regarded as outstanding. The Clean-Up Week contest was open to students in the first six grades of all schools, with prizes awarded for first and second posters at each grade level. Entries were judged on the basis of originality, creativeness, neatness and appropriateness. Mrs. J. B. Knox served as chairman of the Garden Club Council's committee directing the event, and serving with her were Mrs. D. S. Riley, Big Spring Garden Club; Mrs. J. W. Dickens, Planters; Mrs. Kyle Cagle, Spaders; and Mrs. Robert Ponder, Rosebud club. The Council and the Chamber of Commerce financed the project. Following are winners (list in order; $5 to first place, $3 to second): FIRST GRADE—Susie Garcia, North Ward; Gustavo Hernandez, Kate Morrison; honorable mention to Bett Fannin, North Ward, and Mike Russell, Jan Campbell and

Cap Rock Electric Sales Set Record

April sales smashed all records for Cap Rock Electric. Cooperative and sent the year's take zooming past 11 million KWH. April demand was 4,451,715, the biggest single month on record for the system. This boosted the year's sales to 11,222,386, which was more than the 10,598,000 KWH for the entire first half of 1955. In April Cap Rock bought 4,866,040 KWH, which made its purchases for the year 12,601,920. Sales in April were almost a million and a half KWH more than for March of this year. At the end of April there were 1,859 miles of line energized, according to the monthly operating statistics of the system. This was an increase of nine miles for the month. Members connected reached 3,325, which was 54 more than the previous month. The average KWH consumption was 1,339, and the average bill was $20.42. Both were up substantially from March, which clearly reflected intensive pumping in the irrigated belt of south central Martin County. There were only 294 minimum bills for the month, which was 59 less than in March.

Scots Clan Seeking Kin

BALTIMORE (AP)—A clan claiming descent from the "first true King of Scotland, Fergus Mor MacEarcra," is searching for some one to carry on its proud name. In a letter to the Morning Sun today, Daniel A. Cooper of Llanshen, Cardiff, Wales, appealed to Baltimore people for help. "There is a statement in the records of the clan and name of Fergusson," that my great-grandfather, John Fergusson, had two brothers, Donald and William, who went to Baltimore from Perthshire, Scotland, and presumably became naturalized Americans," Cooper wrote.

A Buck Goes A Long Way

WAKEFIELD, Va. (AP)—One buck meant $500 to V. L. Worrell, owner of a local appliance store. Worrell had closed up his shop earlier this week when the buck—a full-grown deer—made an after-hours visit by crashing through the plate glass front door. Moments later, having had an unexciting look-see at the merchandise and banging up a sewing machine and a window fan, the buck made his exit—through the store's plate glass window. Said Worrell, adding up his losses and reaching the $500 total: "I had no idea a buck would go that far this day and age."

Scouting Awards Given At Forsan

FORSAN — A Boy Scout court of honor was held in connection with the Forsan Service Club barbecue on the Wash ranch Thursday evening. Clifton Ferguson, scoutmaster, presented tenderfoot badges to Roger Park, Danny Wash and Hubert Bardwell. First class badges went to Paul Brunton, Benny and Sammy Barnett. Second class awards went to Danny Henry, Fred Park, Lester Duffer and Butch Everett. Ferguson presented star awards to Mike Honeycutt and Kenneth Duffer. Recipients of merit badges and the number each won were Mike Honeycutt, 5; Kenneth Duffer, 7; Mike Huchton, 4; Murl Bailey, Frank Tate Jr. and Paul Brunton, 3 each; Danny Henry, Benny Barnett, Billy Frank Andrews and Tony Star, 2 each; and Thomas Boyd, William King, and Sammy Barnett, 1 each.

Shivers To Speak At Conference On State TB Study

AUSTIN, May 12 (AP)—Gov. Shivers will speak Monday to a conference climaxing a two-year statewide study of tuberculosis. The conference, "Searchlight on TB" will be held in the Capitol. The Texas Tuberculosis Assn. said deaths from TB last year were 816, a drop from 909 the year before but an increase in total cases to 3,867 from 3,704 in 1954. Some increases in current operating budgets have enabled state TB hospitals to employ more personnel "but not in the number needed for adequate patient care," the association said. The number of beds in state-supported TB hospitals has been increased from 1,000 in 1946 to 3,413 this year. "Still too high, the number of patients leaving state-TB hospitals against medical advice has declined from 57 per cent in 1953 to 47 per cent in 1956, due perhaps to improvement in patient care achieved during this 3-year period," the TTA said. The TTA said 33 public TB clinics operated in the state compared to 12 in 1946 but the present number of clinics falls far short of meeting the need of TB patients unable to afford private medical care. More than 1 1/2 million Texans are in 140 counties without organized local public health service for TB control, the association said.

No One Hurt In Minnesota Storm

RUSHMORE, Minn. (AP)—A small tornado ripped through this southwestern Minnesota community last night, heavily damaging more than 30 houses, farms and business places. Less was estimated at more than $100,000. No injuries were reported. The twister tore out part of a brick wall at the Rushmore State Bank and peeled off a steel roof on the Farmers Coop building. Outlying farms took the brunt of the damage. Several farmers lost most of their outbuildings as the storm cut diagonally northeastward and plowed into the town of 400.

Scaffolding Not Stolen After All

J. D. Jones of the Jones Construction Company notified Sheriff Jess Salughter Saturday that the reported theft of six pieces of steel scaffolding from his storage yard at 508 Owen was all a misunderstanding. The "stolen" scaffolding wasn't stolen at all—it had been delivered to the air base as was intended and the impression that it had been taken was result of a mischeck of records.

'EXECUTION' URGED

Battle Of Leaflets Marks Ominous Calm On Cyprus

NICOSIA, Cyprus, May 12 (AP)—A battle of leaflets including an underground appeal for the "execution" of British Gov. Sir John Harding — filled an otherwise ominous calm in this troubled city today. An appeal pasted on walls about the city called the governor "Gaulther Sir John" and said "it is the duty of all Greeks" to execute him. The leaflet bore the typed signature of Digenis, unidentified leader of the EOKA organization which seeks union of this crown colony with Greece. Digenis is believed to be Col. George Grivas, former Greek army officer, who has a $28,000 price on his head. "Instead of material reward which can emanate only from scum and can be accepted only by scum," the leaflet said, "we shall make the executioner of the sadistic tormentor of the Cypriot people a national hero whose name will be written in gold letters in the roll of honor of the heroes of the Cypriot struggle." There already has been one attempt on Harding's life. Last March 23 an unexploded time bomb was found in the bed in which he had slept all night. Cypriot police passed out leaflets, too. They asked the Greek population, which make up four-fifths of the island's half million, to "disown bloodstained fanatical terrorists." The flurry began yesterday with an EOKA leaflet claiming two British soldiers — Lance Cpl. Gordon Hill and Pvt. Ronnie Shilton — had been hanged in reprisal for the execution of two Greek Cypriot rebels. The British acknowledge they are missing. In Nicosia proper all Greek-owned stores, businesses, cafes and places of amusement have been shut tight in protest against the execution of the two Cypriots Thursday. The hanged men were Michael Karalos, 22, and Andreas Demetriou, 23, convicted of murder and attempted murder.

British, Russians Spar On Diver Case

LONDON, May 12 (AP)—The Eden government engaged in cool and distant sparring with Moscow today over the mystery of the vanished frogman — and braced for bare-knuckled blows from its domestic political foes. Lionel (Buster) Crabbe, skin diver and retired lieutenant commander of the Royal Navy, is presumed to have lost his life while taking a secret, underwater peep at Soviet warships in Portsmouth harbor during the state visit of Soviet leaders Bulganin and Khrushchev. But his mission is disowned by the highest level of the British government and the Soviet government has politely refrained from calling it spying. Instead, the Soviet government last night vaguely referred to it as an "unusual fact," politely asked for an explanation and said Britain had apologized. The roughest twist to the case on the diplomatic level was the accusation by British Foreign Office spokesman today that Russia had violated diplomatic usage by announcing the apology before the British themselves disclosed it. Admitting officially that such an apology had been made, the spokesman said "when an exchange of notes takes place between nations, it is customary for a government to publish the text of its own communication only, and not that of the other government."

Crabbe's body has never been found. What happened to him is a mystery, though the Admiralty announced he presumably died on April 19, the day after Bulganin and Khrushchev arrived in Portsmouth harbor aboard the cruiser Ordzhonikidze. The Soviet note released last night, said a diver, wearing flipper and a lightweight diving suit was sighted by lookouts aboard a Soviet destroyer about 7:30 a.m. that day. After a minute or two he disappeared under water near one of the warships.

Ike, Other Top Figures Are Spoofed At Gridiron Dinner

WASHINGTON, May 12 (AP)—President Eisenhower was saluted by the Gridiron Club tonight as "the first Republican candidate in history who can give medical proof he's got a heart."

Many another quip was tossed into the tobacco smoke as the organization of 50 Washington correspondents held their 71st annual dinner and fun-poking session at the Statler Hotel.

The President was the guest of honor. Among 500 other diners were members of the Cabinet, Congress, the Supreme Court and diplomatic corps, as well as a group of editors and publishers.

Few among the high and mighty escaped unscathed during the evening of skills and songs. The spoofing was friendly but barbed.

By tradition, the only toast of the dinner was to President Eisenhower. His reply was off the record, as were the remarks of Gov. Christian A. Herter of Massachusetts, who spoke for the Republican party, and Sen. Lyndon Johnson of Texas, Senate majority leader, who spoke for the Democrats.

One speech on the record, however, was that of Roscoe Drummond of the New York Herald Tribune, the club's president.

"Surely," he said, "the President must be very pleased tonight to see among us so many fine conservative humanitarians — those Republicans eager to march forward with Eisenhower—protesting every step of the way."

Drummond didn't neglect the Democrats.

"After a moderately long deliberation, a jury of Democrats has found Ike not guilty—and sentenced Nixon to hang for it," he remarked.

"Half of the Democratic party is intent on secession. The other half seems to prefer suicide. Republicans say that if the Democratic politicians were laid end to end—they would point in all directions."

"All the Republicans know what they want—just an unshakable grip on those coattails, and then they can soar above principle."

Music was furnished by the United States Marine Band orchestra, led by Capt. Albert Schoepfer.

When the stage was lit for the annual show the guests saw the porch of "The Full-Time Country Club," crowded with sports-clad figures.

Two physicians with stethoscopes were in evidence as club members representing Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey and James C. Hagerly, White House press secretary, discussed the ease and economy of a country club front porch campaign.

A train whistle, reminiscent of the campaign put on by Harry S. Truman in 1948, interrupted their consultation. A club member masquerading as Dr. Paul Dudley White was asked for an opinion.

It was then that the President was hailed as the first GOP candidate with medical proof that he has a heart. Dr. White then broke into song to the tune of "Summer-time":

"Summer time, time for taking, it's easy,
"Fish are biting, and the golfing is fine.
"And the GOP on the front porch is resting,
"For whistle-stops are sure out of line.
"Enter 'Atty. Gen. Brownell' and 'Sherman Adams,' the president's top assistant. Brownell remarked that the government was in good hands. Replied Adams: "Everything is in good hands—with an Adams in the White House."

Secretary of Agriculture Benson was taken care of in a later scene. Asked about the serious Middle East situation, "Benson" exclaimed:

"Middle East? Middle East? Say, have you taken a look at the Middle West?"

Politicians and lobbyists were roasted in a skit which the announcer explained was laid in the politicians' Garden of Eden—"A paradise where all contributions are large, there's no conflict of interest, and they pass nothing but gas bills."

Sen. Bridges of New Hampshire, chairman of the GOP policy committee in the Senate, was introduced as a new member of the Senate's lobby investigating committee and sang to the tune of "Hello, Young Lovers":

"Hello, rich givers,
"Whoever you are,
"I know your bank account's good.
"Both of the parties will need you this year;
"Never say 'no,' not that,"

When Sen. Kerr, Oklahoma

Democrat, asked "How we gonna be statesmen if we don't come back?" a club member portraying Sen. Capehart, Indiana Republican, sang to the tune of "Oh, Dem Golden Slippers":

"Oh, them golden slush funds,
"Lovely golden slush funds,
"Happy statesmen we cannot be
"Without seniority."
"The skit closed with a member portraying former President Truman coming on stage pushing a wheelbarrow and singing to the tune of "Sixteen Tons":

"Some people say a book is wrote to be sold,
"A book is made out of fiction for gold.
"Fiction and gold and friend and foe,
"If the verbs are weak, get a ghost that's strong, I wrote
"Sixteen tons. What have I got?
"Some facts that are true and others that are not

Navy Gets Around To Sending Medal

LYNCHBURG, Va. (AP)—The Navy finally has gotten around to sending that lifesaving medal to Stephen Hughes.

Hughes, once a sailor but now a federal alcohol tax investigator here, found the medal in yesterday's mail.

Its arrival was a mere 39 years tardy.

The Navy only recently had noted the medal wasn't presented when Hughes was cited for saving a drowning shipmate in April 1917.

Thieves Pay No Mind To Protection Rules

NEWARK, N. J. (AP)—Michigan police Lt. Carl S. Pike goes around the country conducting a show in the interests of highway safety and car protection.

Pike followed one of his own rules by parking his station wagon under a street light on a main street. Returning later, he discovered thieves had broken into the vehicle and stolen $1,000 worth of property.

Postmasters Open Annual Meeting Today In Lubbock

Postmaster and Mrs. E. C. Boatler and Mr. and Mrs. Nat Shick are to attend the annual Texas postmasters' convention opening today in Lubbock.

The meeting of the Texas unit of the National Association of Postmasters will extend into Wednesday afternoon. Registration is set for this afternoon and the first business session will be held Monday morning.

Highlight of the gathering will be the banquet Tuesday evening when Norman Abrams of Washington, D. C., assistant postmaster general, will speak.

Election of officers and selection of a site for the 1957 convention will occur Wednesday morning.

Some 400 persons — postmasters and their wives — are expected to attend the meeting, Boatler said. Shick is a former Big Spring postmaster.

Uncle Ray:
Great Lakes Carry Water To Atlantic

By RAMON COFFMAN
A question about the Great Lakes appears in a letter from Thomas Forkin, who writes:

"One night my Dad asked me, 'Why don't the Great Lakes have salt water, the same as the ocean?' I would like to know the answer to that."

Certain island bodies of water are salty, but here is an important fact: salt lakes are without rivers which flow away from them.

The Great Lakes, on the other hand, have a constant flow of water toward the Atlantic Ocean. Lake Superior has the highest surface level, and it sends water into Lake Huron. Some of Lake Huron's water goes into Lake Michigan, but a vast amount reaches Lake Erie and then Lake Ontario.

Anyone who wishes to gain an idea of the amount of water which passes eastward through this chain of lakes should look at Niagara Falls. Here you can see millions of gallons of water tumbling over the brink of the falls. This water goes into a river which reaches Lake Ontario. From Lake Ontario the water goes on to the St. Lawrence River, then to the Atlantic. To a certain extent, at least, water must "stay put" if it is to become salty. The water in the Great Lakes (or in any lake) has a tiny amount of salt in it, but there is so little salt that the water tastes fresh.

A lake without an outlet becomes very salty. The water is evaporated by sunshine, and the trifling amount of salt fails to rise with the vapor. This makes little difference in a day or month or year, but the change becomes plain enough as time goes on.

Unless there is a big change in drainage, the present beds of Great Salt Lake and the Dead Sea will be filled up within a few million years.

Architect's Design Of New City Police Building

Here's the proposed exterior design for Big Spring's new police building, for which construction bids are to be opened by the City Commission Tuesday. Bonds totaling $200,000, were voted to finance the structure, which will be located at Fourth and Nolan across from the municipal building. The building is approximately 100x55 feet, covering two floors, and will be of steel and masonry construction, with the front — facing north on Fourth Street — trimmed in Roman brick and Austin stone. The entire second floor will be for the jail. First floor will house corporation court, police administration and law enforcement facilities such as radio room, identification room, photographic room and class room. Special entrance for handling prisoners will be at the rear of the building. Puckett & French are architects and engineers on the project.

Sgt. James Howard New AF Recruiter

Staff Sgt. James Howard, former airman at Webb AFB, is the new Air Force recruiter for Big Spring. Sgt. Howard's office is in Room 13, basement of the post office. He was stationed at Webb when the base opened and volunteered to return to Big Spring for the recruiting duty.

PROTECTION SOUGHT

Postmen May Get Defense For Dogs

Big Spring postmen are watching closely an attempt to devise uniforms with "built-in protection" against dog bites. The Post Office Department is working on the new-type uniforms as a part of its big safety program for postal workers. "Chemical repellants also are being studied as a means of keeping dogs from nipping at the heels and legs of mail carriers.

Postal authorities also are thinking about a new program of "patron education," but dog owners so far have not taken satisfactory steps to keep their pets from attacking postmen.

Big Spring carriers have asked the city commission to inaugurate and enforce local measures to protect them from vicious dogs, but their requests apparently have become pigeon-holed. No action has been taken.

Details of the protective devices the Post Office Department hopes to add to uniforms have not been reported to local authorities, nor has a report been made on the success of chemical repellants.

New types of shoe heels also are being investigated as a means of preventing postmen from falling on slick walks and steps. A safety education program for personnel is being inaugurated, and the department plans to eliminate such safety hazards as unguarded machines and fire risks.

The comprehensive safety program is being incorporated in the Post Office Department's Postal Manual and in the largest post offices, such as at Houston, Dallas, Fort Worth and New Orleans, safety officers are being added to the postal staffs.

Girl's Story Leads To 7 Vice Arrests

HOUSTON, May 12 (AP)—Vice raids last night led to seven arrests after a girl, 17, who ran away from a Waco orphanage told police she had been "talked into" becoming a prostitute.

The girl told city detective J. J. Jones she ran away at Waco about a month ago. "I checked into a downtown Houston hotel and before I realized it I was talked into prostitution," she said.

The blue-eyed blonde said hotel porters and hotel clerks influenced her into "filling dates" at several hotels.

"I want to forget that kind of life," she said. The girl is being held in the county detention ward.

Jones and Mrs. Lanny Dixon, a policewoman, raided four small hotels last night, arrested three hotel porters, two clerks, a former prize fighter and a woman. They said they also seized a quantity of pornographic motion pictures and still pictures at a private home.

The girl had been arrested yesterday in a hotel. After questioning, she agreed to lead police to the hotels where she had worked.

SEN. CASE

Avoid Race Issue, GOP Is Advised

PHILADELPHIA, May 12 (AP)—Sen. Clifford P. Case (R-NJ) said tonight the Republicans ought not to try to make political capital out of the issue of equal rights for Negroes.

He said in a speech prepared for a banquet of the Pennsylvania Federation of Young Republican Clubs. "There may be some in our own party who take the short range view that this is a matter splitting the Democrats and so let's stand back and let them fight each other."

"But in the long view, in the interests of our country, this is neither a sensible nor a morally just position to take. It is inconceivable to me that the Republican party should adopt such a view.

"We cannot stand aside and watch this nation be torn apart over an issue that can and must be resolved without resort to violence or the wildest compulsion."

Case also called on all concerned in the fight over civil rights to avoid "extremism." He said Negroes "have the same right to vote, to a decent education, to a decent job, to a decent house and to a decent life as the rest of us," and continued: "It seems to me high time to take the civil rights issue out of the partisan arena.

"The hurrying of wild predictions over what can happen if we give the Negro his long postponed rights is harmful, as is the continuing exchange of charges over who's to blame for the situation.

"Meanwhile, the problem is aggravated as tempers flare among the extremists on both sides and the moderates are pushed ever farther and farther back from the conflict.

"I can see no partisan advantage in watching American turn against American. This is a problem that cries out for calmness and moderation—for unity and understanding."

Case said President Eisenhower was exerting "the right kind of leadership," that "he has stood firmly for integration of our public schools on a steadily progressive basis," and urged the adoption of a moderate legislative program to strengthen and expand our civil rights statutes.

4 Schools Of County To Close With Exercises This Week

Two elementary schools and two high schools in Howard County will bring their 1955-56 school terms to a conclusion this week.

A third high school has scheduled closing exercises for May 25. Three other elementary schools also terminate their school years on that date.

Closing on May 18 will be the schools at Veinmoor, Midway, Knott and Forsan. The latter two are the high schools of the group.

Scheduled to close on May 25 will be Coahoma high school, Gay Hill, Center Point and Elbow elementary schools.

A county-wide graduation exercise for elementary students completing grade school work will be on May 21 at the Howard County Junior College. This event is slated for 8 p.m.

Most of the schools will have their own individual ceremonies in their schools on the closing days scheduled.

Bruce Frazier will be the speaker at the combined elementary graduation exercises. Special music and other features are being arranged for the occasion.

Walker Bailey, county superintendent, said that all details will be worked out early next week for this event which is held annually.

Bill Bolin, superintendent of Knott schools, said that a class of 12 seniors will be graduated at this school on the evening of May 18. Walker Bailey is to be the speaker. Baccalaureate services will be Sunday, May 13, at 2 p.m. at the First Baptist Church in Knott. The Rev. Mr. Galloway will be the speaker.

Valedictorian for the 1956 graduates is Romona Rodriguez and salutatorian, Mary Lancaster. Morris Molpus is principal of the Knott high school.

Bolin said there will be only seven members in the next graduation class at the Knott school — one of the smallest classes in history. The following year, however, he said a much larger group will receive their diplomas.

Graduation exercises for the 20 seniors in the Coahoma high school will be at 8:15 p.m. May 17 in the high school auditorium. Dr. Joe Humphrey of McMurry College, Abilene, is to speak. Baccalaureate sermon will be delivered at 8:15 p.m. Sunday, May 13, by the Rev. C. C. Owen.

Martha Camp is valedictorian of the 1956 class and Mark Reeves, salutatorian.

H. L. Miller, superintendent of the school, said eighth grade graduates will receive their diplomas on Friday night, May 18 at 8 o'clock.

Seven girls and two boys make up the graduation class at Forsan High school this year. They are to receive their diplomas on May 25 at 8 p.m. The exercises will be in the Forsan high school auditorium. No speaker is planned for the occasion — it being the practice at Forsan for the seniors to conduct their own graduating exercises.

J. T. Holladay, superintendent, said that the 1956-57 senior class would be larger than the current class.

Valedictorian and salutatorian will be elected by the senior class between this date and May 25, it was said.

Elementary school students graduating at Forsan to high school will be honored at ceremonies on the evening of April 24.

MEN IN SERVICE

Marcus D. Hayworth has been promoted to radioman third class, while serving aboard the Pacific Fleet heavy cruiser, USS Bremerton. Hayworth is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Marcus L. Hayworth, 1209 W. 6th.

The promotion followed successful completion of a Navy-wide examination conducted in February.

Sgt. Don M. Kincaid recently fired in the Sixth Army rifle and pistol matches held at Camp Roberts, Calif.

Sergeant Kincaid is the son of Mrs. Carrie C. Kincaid, 1108 Nolan. He is a custodial guard in Detachment 4 of the 6017th Area Service Unit at Camp Hanford, Wash.

Pvt. Jimmie C. Hale, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hardy J. Hale, Route 2, Colorado City, recently participated in battalion training tests in southern Germany.

Hale's battalion took part in a series of day and night firing missions with 105 mm. howitzers. It was tested on accuracy, security and communications.

A mechanic in Service Battery of the 10th Infantry Division's 35th Field Artillery Battalion, Hale entered the Army in September, 1954, and completed basic training at Fort Bliss.

Pfc. Donald B. Frazier, 22, whose wife, Marie, lives on Route C, Lamesa, recently participated in battalion training tests in southern Germany.

Frazier, son of Mr. and Mrs.

Troy C. Frazier, Midland, is a mechanic in Battery C of the 10th Infantry Division's 35th Field Artillery Battalion. He entered the Army in December, 1954, and completed basic training at Fort Riley, Kan.

Pfc. Raleigh J. McCartney, whose wife, Jeanette, lives in Big Spring, is a member of the 9th Infantry Division in Germany.

McCartney is the son of J. R. McCartney, also of Big Spring. He is a tank crewman in the Tank Company of the 39th Regiment. A graduate of Garden City High School, McCartney has been in Germany since April of 1955.

William Brackeen has been promoted to the rating of Personnelman, third class. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Brackeen, 113 Mt. Vernon.

He has been in the Navy since five months, Brackeen has been stationed in Iwakuni, Japan.

Second Lt. Justin A. Holmes, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. Justin Holmes, 301 Washington, has completed the signal corps officers basic course at Fort Monmouth, N. J.

Young Holmes' wife, Fern Holmes, also resides in Big Spring. He has been in the Army since February, 1954. He is a graduate of Arlington State College and Texas Tech.

ELLIS BROWN JR.

Visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Brown of Big Spring, is Ellis Brown Jr., who is assigned to the U. S. Naval Training Center at San Diego, Calif. Young Brown is on a 14-day leave from his duties.

Harris Funeral Set This Morning In LaGrange

Funeral services for R. H. Harris, former resident of Big Spring, were scheduled for 9:30 a.m. today in La Grange. Mr. Harris died unexpectedly Wednesday night in La Grange, where he has operated a general apgaral store.

Other details of the service were not received here. Burial will be in La Grange. Mr. Harris was the brother of Mrs. J. Y. Robb of Big Spring.

Bette Ford To Fight Bulls In Reynosa Ring

REYNOSA, Mexico, May 12 (AP)—Bette Ford, the McKeesport, Pa., actress and model turned bull fighter, will fight two bulls here tomorrow in a night time premier for the Reynosa bull ring. It will be Miss Ford's first fight in Reynosa but not her first under flood lights.

The small Reynosa ring will be crowded from fans of both sides of the border. "It will be just like 4 o'clock Sunday," Miss Ford said.

The petite girl, 24, became interested in bullfighting while studying in Mexico. "I love things to be tragic and dramatic and very well done," she said. "Bull fighting has all the advantages of the theater plus the thrill of danger."

Bette spent one year practicing and learning and has been fighting bulls for two years. She has appeared over most of Mexico and has killed 60 bulls. She has fought four times in the Mexico City bull ring, largest in the world.

She wants to be the greatest bullfighter who ever lived and wants to be the first woman to fight in Spain. "I want to do so much and I have so little time." After a bullfighting career she wants to go back to the theater—"if the bulls permit." Juan Bilbao, her manager, said Bette has a natural knack for bull fighting. She practices five hours every day when not traveling. She is in bed by 10, each night.

Patricia To Fight In Philippines Ring

Patricia McCormick is to be one of three matadors participating in six fights which will mark the first importation of Portuguese bulls into the Philippines.

In a letter to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. McCormick, Patty said that within a month's time she was due to leave for Manila. She will be on the same card with Pepe Luis Vasquez of Mexico and Antonio dos Santos of Portugal for the fights. Three bandereros are being taken on the tour.

Pat will fight June 3 in Tijuana and then complete all arrangements for her visa and the trip. She may fly from Mexico to Canada and across direct to Hong Kong and Manila, or to Los Angeles, Honolulu and Hong Kong.

After the tour of the Philippines, she hopes to return home by a different route, deviating to visit Tokyo, perhaps Shanghai, Calcutta, Baghdad, Malta, Rome, Casa Blanca, then on to Cadiz and Madrid and finally to Lisbon before returning to the United States.

Sometime in the latter part of July or early August, she hopes to make her debut—the big moment for which she has been waiting—in the Plaza del Mexico City.

For the past several months Pat has been making the tientos (winter tours) of the big rancheros deep in Mexico, sharpening her fighting technique. She was twice gored in the left leg, but not seriously. She also has been working in several fights, most of them in the interior.

Lamesans End Clean-Up Drive

LAMESA, May 12 — Lamesans took a pickup load of shrubbery to their various homes Saturday, last day of the tree and shrubbery exchange phase of the annual clean-up campaign.

The Dawson County Garden Club had the load of plants on the courthouse square at 7:30 a.m. Saturday. The items had been contributed by residents who wished to exchange their varieties of shrubbery for other items.

Saturday also concluded the spring clean-up drive. W. B. Osborne, chairman, pronounced the efforts a complete success.

Jo-Mill Test Rates Heavy Final Flow

A well in the Jo-Mill field of southwestern Borden County has finished for over 550 barrels per day through a partial choke.

In addition, Midwest Oil Corporation has added two new locations to the field.

Amerada No. 1-A Dorothy Cates flowed 564.86 barrels of oil through a 3/4-inch choke, plus 20 per cent water, in the final test. Top of the Spraberry pay is reached at 7,270 feet, and the hole is bottomed at 9,960 feet. The 5 1/2-inch string is set at that depth.

Flow was through perforations from 7,270-275 feet.

The well is C NW NW, 22-33-4n, T&P Survey, and about seven miles northeast of Ackery. Gravity of the oil is 37.3, and the gas-oil proportion is 84-1.

Midwest No. 3 Morris Miller will be located in the field 660 feet from south and 1,610 feet from east lines of the north half of 24-33-4n, T&P Survey, on a 320-acre lease. Drillsite is about nine miles north of Vealmoor.

Driller will be projecting to 7,750 feet with rotary equipment looking for the Spraberry pay.

The same operator is drilling the No. 6 Morris Miller 1,980 feet from south and 2,280 feet from east lines, 24-33-4n, T&P Survey. The location is nine miles north of Vealmoor.

It too will be drilled to 7,750 feet looking for the Spraberry.

About three miles southwest of Fluvanna, General Crude No. 1 W. C. Reeder has been abandoned. Operator plugged the widest prospect at a depth of 9,399 feet.

It was located 1,975 feet from north and 1,993 feet from east lines, 407-97, H&TC Survey.

McCullough Exploration No. 1 Rogers, a wildcat 17 miles southwest of Gail, has deepened to 5,670 feet. Site is 660 feet from west and 1,989 feet from south lines, 28-31-3n, T&P Survey.

It is three and a half miles northeast of the Vealmoor (Canyon Reef) field. The project is slated to drill to 8,000 feet.

Pure No. 1 Clayton is drilling below 9,153 feet in lime. Site is seven and a half miles southwest of Gail and a wildcat location. It is plotted 660 feet from north and 1,910 feet from east lines, 15-32-4n, T&P Survey.

Shell Employees Are Recognized

A total of 5,705 years of service with Shell Oil Company was honored Saturday night at the "Ten and Over Club" at Midland. In all 389 Shell employees (including 33 pensioners) in the Midland area were honored. The oldest Shell workers in point of service were G. L. Buland, Wesson plant, and Nelson Wallace, area, transport manager, each with 36 years.

Among those recognized the party were A. J. Burney, R. W. Dolan, L. F. Davison, R. E. Duncan, J. J. Hovens, C. O. Jones, and A. J. Overton of Big Spring; M. M. Fairchild, Forsan; E. F. Hermeling, R. A. Sebeto, Sweetwater.

Depletion Factor Seems To Be Safe

By CHARLES HASLET
WASHINGTON, May 12 (AP)—Signs indicate the oil industry will still have its 27 1/2 per cent tax depletion allowance after the 84th Congress passes its tax bill.

While legislation has been proposed to cut the tax benefit, industry representatives in Washington predict the present Congress won't take any such action.

They base their view on several factors, including:

1. Such a question likely would be accorded a full hearing, and no such hearings have been scheduled.
2. No general overhaul of the tax laws appears in prospect.
3. Congress seems headed toward adjournment in late July or early August, and the calendar is crowded.

The present depletion allowance, on the books since 1925, enables oil and gas operators to charge off, for income tax purposes, 27 1/2 per cent of their oil and gas income. The idea is that this advantage helps offset their risks of capital and spur exploration.

Russell Brown, lawyer for the Independent Petroleum Assn. of America, one of the industry spokesmen who doubts Congress this year will reduce the allowance, said however the subject might be raised in the Senate.

Brown said that even though the House, where all revenue measures must originate, does nothing to disturb the depletion percentage, an amendment could be brought before the Senate to reduce it.

Sen. Williams (R-De) has said he intends to offer such an amendment to some House revenue bill.

He would cut the allowance to 15 per cent.

Rep. Heselton (R-Mass) has introduced a bill to reduce the allowance to 15 per cent. The House Ways and Means Committee has not scheduled a hearing on it.

Oil Staffer
Donald J. Campbell has been named assistant manager of the southwest division of the O'Neil Daily at Dallas. Campbell, formerly of Abilene, has been with the Dallas Times Herald for the past three years. He has worked for several newspapers, including those at Wichita Falls and Abilene.

BARGAIN PRICE

Underground Storage May Be Important In Event Of A War

By MAX B. SKELTON
HOUSTON, May 12 (AP)—Much of the nation's oil may be stored underground in another war.

The use of oil products has increased more rapidly than the population because of greater per capita use. The annual use of crude petroleum rose from 12.8 to 17.5 barrels between 1946 and 1953.

The underground storage report said:

"The transportation of petroleum products to markets has, on the whole, kept up with demand."

Two Tests Final In Howard-Glasscock

In the Howard-Glasscock field, Royal Oil and Gas No. 24 Dora Roberts brought 47.44 barrels of oil in 24 hours. Sixty per cent water accompanied the test. Site is 330 feet from north and 1,989 feet from east lines of the southeast quarter, 136-29, W&NW Survey.

Fay was reached at 1,140 feet, and the hole is bottomed at 1,471 feet. Perforations are between 1,410-29 feet. Gravity is 33.

Cosden No. 15 H. K. Clay, also in the Howard-Glasscock, pumped 54 barrels. Gravity of the oil is 32.4. It is 690 feet from north and 2,310 feet from west lines, 136-29, W&NW Survey, and five miles east of Forsan.

Total depth is 1,795 feet, and the 5 1/2-inch casing is cemented at 1,777 feet.

It affords far greater protection from destructive forces in times of war.

Products Pipeline Put To Pumping

Ernie Richardson, left, veteran assistant refinery superintendent, touches the button which energizes the pumps on Cosden Petroleum Corporation's new 103 mile pipeline to Abilene. On hand for this historic moment were George Grimes, refinery superintendent, Carroll Belton, and Dan M. Krause, manager of manufacturing. Regular gasoline was started into the lines, Wednesday morning and by Saturday 20,000 barrels had filled the line. Other grades of fuel will be sent through the 6-inch line, which also has a loop going to Abilene Air Force Base.

Oil Economist Thinks Economy To Level For Several Months

By SAM DAWSON
NEW YORK (AP)—Concern over the short-term course of business grows. But confidence in the long term prospects grows, too.

A leading oil economist foresees a sideways movement of the national economy for awhile with a possible downturn to follow.

But the need to expand production capacity steadily over the next 10 years is stressed by the head of U.S. Steel. And the makers of equipment for the steel companies report a rush of new orders.

Auto production continues to slide and is now at the lowest point since December. But the big three of motordom are going right ahead with expansion plans to meet the upturn in their business that they foresee in the years ahead.

A textile leader says sales will be lower in the April, May and June quarter than they were in the first three months of the year. But he adds that the feeling in the trade is that a pick up can be looked for in August.

The situation in the steel industry is clouded right now by the upcoming labor negotiations. There seems little doubt but that the steel users are trying as hard as they can to build up inventories now, both to tide them over if there were a strike this summer and to beat the price hike that is widely expected to follow the wage talks.

At the same time, steel scrap prices have fallen. Steel output remains near capacity but there is little incentive for the mills to build up high-priced scrap stocks until they know whether or not their furnaces will be cooled off by a strike.

Most steel executives insist they have enough orders for steel, with or without a revival in the auto business, to keep their mills going for months ahead. But a doubt creeps in now and then. If steel users succeed in building up stocks they might be able to live off them for a time, if a steel strike doesn't materialize and if steel prices rise.

The long-term prospect looks slide and is now at the lowest point since December. But the big three of motordom are going right ahead with expansion plans to meet the upturn in their business that they foresee in the years ahead.

A textile leader says sales will be lower in the April, May and June quarter than they were in the first three months of the year. But he adds that the feeling in the trade is that a pick up can be looked for in August.

The situation in the steel industry is clouded right now by the upcoming labor negotiations. There seems little doubt but that the steel users are trying as hard as they can to build up inventories now, both to tide them over if there were a strike this summer and to beat the price hike that is says the company must spend 150 million dollars a year for the next 10 years to increase capacity. And it must spend 350 million a year for the next five years just to replace facilities.

Looking at the industrial picture as a whole, C. L. Burrill, chief economist for Jersey Standard Oil thinks business will continue on its present high plateau for a few months longer. He thinks the sideways movement will end "some time during the second half of this year as the elements of strength become weaker and the elements of weakness become stronger."

Averaging all predictions, the middle ground would seek to be to expect some bobbles ahead but with long-term planning for expansion serving to hold down their size and duration.

Dawson County Prospector Plugged At Medium Depth

Operators have given up on a wildcat project in Dawson County.

Brown and Scarber Drilling Company has plugged and abandoned its No. 1 Randolph Fambrough at a depth of 5,966 feet in lime. Site is about 12 miles northwest of Lamesa, at 660 feet from south and east lines of the south half of the northwest quarter, 20-M, EL&RR Survey.

The prospect had been staked Dec. 15, 1955.

Cities Service Oil Company No. 18 Dupree pumped 54 barrels of oil in a 24-hour potential test. It is in the Welch pool. The commercial pay was accompanied by 34.2 per cent water.

Top of the pay zone is 4,772 feet, and the hole is bottomed at 4,915 feet. The 5 1/2-inch casing is cemented at 4,768 feet. Gravity is 33.

Site is 673 feet from north and 663 feet from west lines, 67-3, EL&RR Survey, and about three miles southwest of Welch.

Humble No. 1 Weaver, in the Mungerville pool, is coring at 12,090 feet. Site is C NW NW SW, League 1, Taylor CSL Survey, and about seven miles northwest of Lamesa.

Record New Well Total

AUSTIN, May 12 (AP)—The record breaking oil well completion rate continued in Texas this week with 338 new wells. The year total rose to 6,137, compared with 5,490 a year ago.

Gas well completions totaled 25 and the year total 644, compared with 352. The Railroad Commission reported 156 dry holes.

Wildcats drilled 11 oil wells, 2 gas wells and 90 dry holes.

The average daily oil allowable as of today was 2,338,253 barrels, up 14,615 from a week ago.

Sharon Ridge Adds Producer

Activity at the end of the week in the Sharon Ridge 1700 field of Mitchell County found one new well and a new location reported.

Tamaya Oil Company of Midland has located the No. 1 J. H. Humphreys-Sayles 11 miles northwest of Colorado City. Plotted site is 1,057 feet from south and 2,340 feet from west lines, 2-27, T&P Survey.

Rotary tools will carry to 1,700 feet.

Revilo No. 2-D Strain, 15 miles northwest of Colorado City, finished for 29.49 barrels of oil plus five per cent water.

Gravity is 29.

Total depth is 1,795 feet, and top of the pay is 1,633 feet. Five and a half inch casing is set at the bottom of the hole and perforated between 1,683-741 feet.

Site is 330 feet from north, and west lines, 62-97, H&TC Survey.

Three Producers Final, Two Others Nearing Completion

Two wells filed potential figures, one was waiting on completion and another was fracturing prior to final testing in the Moore pool south-west of Big Spring.

Graholt No. 3 Cherry pumped 92 barrels of 29.8 gravity oil in 24 hours, plus three per cent water. Location is 660 feet from south and 330 feet from east lines, 23-33-1s, T&P Survey. Gas-oil ratio is 359-1.

Top of the pay zone is 3,079 feet, and total depth is 3,098 feet. Seven-inch pipe is cemented at 3,000 feet.

Holmes No. 1-B Patterson produced 74.89 barrels of oil, plus two per cent water, in a potential test, after operator had acidized with 3,000 gallons. Gravity is 29.8.

Maximum depth is 3,092 feet, and the 5 1/2-inch casing is set at 3,079 feet. Site is six miles southwest of Big Spring, 23-33-1s, T&P Survey, from south and 330 feet from west lines, 26-33-1s, T&P Survey.

Cosden-Petroleum Corporation No. 1 C. L. Wasson, a north outpost to the southeast end of the Moore pool, was fracturing Saturday. Total depth is 3,375 feet. Location is 330 from the south and 990 from the west lines of section 15-33-1s, T&P.

Duncan No. 3-B Patterson, 2,310 from the south and 330 from the west lines of section 25-33-1s, T&P, is available to rig before drilling plug to complete. It is bottomed 3,100.

C. D. Turner Drilling Company No. 1 Cora Lee Echols, an Istan-East Howard project located 330 from the north and east lines of section 7-30-1s, T&P, had reached 2,610 feet Saturday and was taking a core. This venture is three miles southeast of Coahoma.

Four miles southeast of Big Spring, the San Andres wildcat, Cosden Petroleum No. 1 Morgan-Wasson, 330 from the south and 2,910 from the west lines of section 22-32-1s, T&P, reached 1,714 feet in anhydrite and shale. Projected depth is 3,600 feet.

Alvon Drilling and Exploration Company No. 1 Louis Patton, a wildcat operation for deepening a hole plugged temporarily by Ray Albaugh of Big Spring in May of 1954, may move in on location in about another week. Operator is waiting on release of a rig from another job. Albaugh recently turned a deal for carrying the 7,832-foot hole on to 9,500 for a look at the Fusselman.

There were unofficial reports Saturday that Phillips No. 1-A Johnnie, in the Big Spring Fusselman field, was re-entering to prepare for a test in the Fusselman. The oil string had been set at 9,626. Initial reports indicated that the section was relatively thin and tight. Location is 660 from the north and west lines of section 7-31-1n, T&P. To the northwest Phillips No. 1-A Othello had drilled out plug on the intermediate string at 3,360 and was below 3,800 feet.

Two delegations of Japanese technicians and industrialists were here Thursday and Friday to absorb some of Cosden's know-how. Six represented the Mitsui Petrochemical Industries, Ltd. in a complete plant inspection on Thursday. Two from Maruzen Oil Ltd. were here Friday.

Among those in the Mitsui group were Y. Torri, manager of manufacturing and a director of the combine of several Japanese oil companies for petro-chemical development; T. Taguchi, chief engineer; T. Ozawa, manager of engineering; N. Nakajima, manager of development; S. Kojima, chemical engineer; A. Kume, the New York representative.

Those with Jaruzen, the only independent, wholly native owned oil company in Japan, were T. Wada, director and secretary, and C. Kato, director and manager of the engineering department.

Dan Krause, manager of manufacturing for Cosden, conducted them on tours of the plant. Although they were interested in refining, their primary concern was with petro-chemical manufacture. The paraxylene extraction especially fascinated them along with polybutylene. They were concerned also about polyethylene, but Cosden is not in this process field.

After leaving here, most of the group were bound for New York, Europe and finally Saudi Arabia. The major source of Japanese oil supply, before returning to their homeland.

It pumped 67.17 barrels, plus 11 per cent water, in potential. Total depth is 3,208 feet, and 5 1/2-inch string is set at that depth. Top of the San Andres pay is at 3,141 feet. Perforations are between 3,142-39 feet.

Gravity of the test is 29.3, and gas-oil ratio is 210-1.

Varel Completes Well On Guitar

D. V. Varel completed the No. 5 Guitar Trust in the Varel field 10 miles northwest of Big Spring. It is 330 feet from north and west lines of the northeast quarter, 20-A, B&C Survey.

It pumped 67.17 barrels, plus 11 per cent water, in potential. Total depth is 3,208 feet, and 5 1/2-inch string is set at that depth. Top of the San Andres pay is at 3,141 feet. Perforations are between 3,142-39 feet.

Gravity of the test is 29.3, and gas-oil ratio is 210-1.

Glasscock Gains Spraberry Well

The Hanley Company No. 1 Gray has been completed as a new oil in the Spraberry Trend Area of Glasscock County.

The well flowed 24 hours through a 28-64-inch choke and made 299.85 barrels of 27-gravity oil, plus six-tenths of one per cent water. Gas-oil ratio is 850-1.

Production was through perforations between 6,710-40 feet after 30,100 gallons of frac oil had been used. Total depth is 7,710 feet and plugged back to 6,825 feet. Top of the Clear Fork pay is 6,750 feet. The 5 1/2-inch string is at 7,665 feet. Location is 660 feet from south and west lines, 47-36-4s, T&P Survey.

Sterling Test Plugs At 1,550

A Houston operator has plugged and abandoned a wildcat location five miles west of Sterling City.

The location was the Frank J. Dyke of Houston No. 1 E. F. McEntire.

Operator abandoned the site at a depth of 1,550 feet in lime and anhydrite. Contracted depth of the site was 2,300 feet.

It is 330 feet from south and 1,627 feet from west lines, 33-14, SPRR Survey.

Murray No. 1 E. V. Hall has deepened to 1,430 feet in lime. It is a wildcat site seven miles southwest of Water Valley field of southwestern Sterling County. It is slated to go to 1,500 feet to test the San Andres.

Site is 330 feet from north and east lines of the southeast quarter, 53-5, H&TC Survey.

Planting Starts On Some Farms

Recent rains in Howard County, while lacking a great deal in being all that farmers would have preferred as to quantity, have at least permitted planting operations in general to get into action. Jimmy Taylor, county agent, said that across the county farmers are beginning their spring sowing. In a third of the county, the rains were sufficient to enable the farmers to push full speed ahead with this phase of their activities. In the balance of the county, some farms are being planted on a more or less major footing, while others are waiting for additional moisture.

Cotton and grains are both being planted at this time. The planting season will continue throughout this month and on into June, he said. Even in the third of the county where Taylor said that precipitation had been heavier, there is still a sharp requirement that more rain fall if the crops are to do any good.

Already, on some farms, grains have been planted, have come up and have been blown out, he said. Replanting is being done on many farms.

Test Patches Of New Hybrid Grain Sorghums Planned Here

Seven farmers who occupy land in nearly every section of Howard County have been supplied with sample packages of a new hybrid grain sorghum to be planted as a test this season. Jimmy Taylor, county agent, said that he has issued 420 pounds of these new seeds which were developed by the Lubbock Experiment Station and which are expected to produce one-third more grain than standard varieties now being used. Each of the seven farmers selected to conduct the tests received 60 pounds of seed.

The farmers are to plant the hybrid seed adjacent to standard varieties of sorghum in such a way that a study of the two tracts can be made and the results achieved from the hybrids be accurately determined.

Some of the seeds will be used on tight lands in the county and others on the looser soils. He estimated that the 60 pounds provided each of the test farms would sow an average of 15 acres. Originally, the county was allocated only seven 10-pound sacks of these new seeds which are extremely scarce at this time. Taylor persuaded the experiment station to increase the amount to 60 pounds per farmer. Included in the allotment are several varieties of the new hybrid.

Texas Soldier Graves Sought

AUSTIN, May 12 (AP)—The search for graves of men who served in the Texas War of Independence is being pushed by men and women interested in preserving Texas history.

A legislative appropriation of $30,000 is available for placement of markers on the graves, and this financial assistance prompted the intensive search, Millard Cope of Marshall said yesterday.

Cope is chairman of the marker subcommittee of the Texas State Historical Survey Committee. Of the 1,600 or so men who fought for Texas in the main actions of the Texas Revolution against Mexico, less than half have grave markers.

Yarborough Asks Old-Age Pension

AUSTIN, May 12 (AP)—Ralph Yarborough said today the need for a "decent pension for the old people of Texas" is so obvious it should require no additional debate. He termed the present pension level almost criminally low. As keynote speaker for the state convention of the Young Democratic Clubs of Texas, the candidate for governor pledged a better deal for the aged if elected.

Tech Sets Graduation Exercises

LUBBOCK — The Rev. W. A. Welch, minister to Texas' largest Disciples of Christ congregation, will deliver Texas Tech's 1956 baccalaureate sermon Sunday, May 27.

The baccalaureate service will be at 8 p.m. in Jones Stadium or, in case of inclement weather, in Lubbock Municipal Auditorium. Tech officials have announced.

Commencement will be 9 p.m., May 28, in Jones Stadium. Dr. Welch, is pastor of the East Dallas Christian Church, former chairman of Texas Christian University's Bible department and former head of the New Testament department in Brite College of Bible. He has held pastorates in Disciples of Christ churches at Grand Saline, Teague, Ringgold, Richardson, Handley and Luikin.

He was a president of the Texas Convention of Christian Churches in 1954 and last August was one of 12 Disciples of Christ delegates to the second assembly of the World Council of Churches, Evanston, Ill. Last year he was president of the Greater Dallas Council of Churches.

Damages Asked On Stolen Auto

Universal Auto Sales Company has filed a suit against Bill Winters asking for recovery of $1,023 in alleged damages.

The petition filed in 118th District Court asserts that Winters, in partnership with one Frank Trim, whose present whereabouts are unknown to the plaintiff, engaged in a partnership about the first of this year.

Universal Auto Sales relates that it bought a 1955 Chevrolet from the two men. The firm paid $1,375 for the car and were out an additional $100 for incidental expenses.

The car was proved stolen and was returned to its legitimate owner. The owner's insurance company compensated the Universal Auto Sales Company in the amount of $450.

This leaves $1,023, the petition asserts, which they pay the court to order the defendant to pay to them.

Farm Bureau Sets Talks On Cotton At Three Meetings

WACO — The cotton situation, termed by authorities the "most critical ever faced" will receive a complete airing at Farm Bureau-sponsored meetings scheduled May 28 at Corpus Christi, May 29 in Dallas and May 30 in Lubbock.

J. Walter Hammond, Texas Farm Bureau president, said, some of the problems prompting the meetings were rapid decrease in cotton acreage, increasing surpluses, increased foreign production, and the price advantage of synthetic fibers. He urged everyone interested in the future of the cotton industry to attend the meeting in their area.

Cotton authorities scheduled to speak at all three meetings include Jack Lynn, Washington, D. C., legislative director for the American Farm Bureau Federation; Dr. M. K. Horne, Memphis, Tenn., chief economist for the National Cotton Council; and Hoyt Gaston, Waxahachie, member of the TFB board of directors.

Lynn will explain the AFBF's seven-point cotton program. Dr. Horne will discuss the results of the Council's cotton price study which was completed recently. Gaston will discuss the state's 10 per cent cotton acreage reserve program and explain why the TFB favors a reduction of the reserve to 2 per cent of the state's allotment.

Exes Play Bovines Here On Thursday

Spring football workouts will be terminated at the local high school Thursday night with the traditional game between the 1956 team and the Exes.

Victors the past two years, the Exes can field another strong team this time. No fewer than 22 members of last year's team were seniors. Included in the group were Jerry Graves, all-state center; and Jerry Barron, elusive halfback.

The Exes can go with a lineup which includes Charley Johnson at quarterback, Barron and Alton McCarty at halfbacks and Stormy Edwards at fullback.

Up front, the Seniors can use Milton Davis and Bobby Fuller or Gerald Lackey at ends, Gary Cagle and John Davenport at tackles, Roy Hughes, Preston Bridges and Randal Hamby at guards and Graves at center.

61-Foot Shot Put Is Nieder's Goal

LAWRENCE, Kan. May 12 (AP)—Mild-mannered Bill Nieder, the greatest collegiate shot put man in history, intends to consistently break 60 feet with the 16-pound shot by the time the next frost falls.

The 220-pound University of Kansas senior figures that sort of work will earn him a berth on the United States' team in the Olympics at Melbourne next winter.

Nieder reached 60 feet 3 inches in a Kansas-Oklahoma dual April 14. He's bettered 59 feet in every meet since last winter.

Only the great Parry O'Brien, former University of Southern California ace now competing for the Travis (Calif.) Air Force Base, tops the husky, 22-year-old Lawrence native in exploiting the shot.

O'Brien holds the official world record of 69 feet 10 inches and has an indoor, leather-covered ball shot of 61 feet 5 1/2.

Nieder excelled O'Brien's national collegiate record of 59 feet 2 1/4 with a toss of 59 feet 9 1/4 in the Big Seven indoor meet last March. He beat it again in the Texas and Kansas relays.

"I don't know for sure just how far I can put," Nieder says. "But I am sure I haven't reached my peak. I believe I can get it around 61 feet, maybe 62 before Olympic time."

Nieder got into the shot put business by accident. He just "picked up" the ball one day while a junior at Lawrence High School and "threw the thing" 41 feet. The next spring, 1952, Nieder put the 12-pound ball 60 feet 9 1/2 inches for a national high school record.

A knee injury suffered in Kansas' opening football game with Texas Christian in 1953 ended a promising grid career for Nieder. An operation of the torn knee ligaments cost him most of his 1954 track activity.

Bill is married to his high school sweetheart, the former Sue Wright. The couple has one child, 5-month-old Connie. She's the same weight as the ball—16 pounds.

Olson To Meet Sugar Friday

LOS ANGELES, May 12 (AP)—There are many who hold to the belief that Sugar Ray Robinson is the finest fighter, pound for pound, among the modern-day boxers, and this may well be true.

Some argue the Sugar Man is the greatest middleweight of all time, but there you run into violent debate. You review from the distant past such immortals as "Rube" Robert Fitzsimmons, who many forget, held the middleweight crown before engaging the best in the heavyweight ranks, and Stanley Ketchell, Harry Greb, Mickey Walker and others.

Suffice to say, the 35-year-old Robinson disproved the old saying, "They never come back" when he regained his title by knocking out Carl (Bobo) Olson in two rounds last Dec. 9 in Chicago.

Now Olson, at 28, gets his chance to come back and win back the 160-pound title.

The two meet at 15 rounds or less Friday night at Wrigley Field, with fight fans of the nation sitting in via television. Los Angeles will be blacked out for the screening, of course.

The smart men say Robinson owns Olson, having beaten him three times.

The wins are true, and Sugar Ray's dramatic two-round kayo in December should have been a convincer.

But Olson and his backers are not convinced.

They argue that when Robinson stopped Bobo in 12 rounds in Philadelphia the year was 1950, and the 1956 Olson is a much better man than six years ago.

Lamesa All-Stars Blank Fort Bliss

LAMESA, May 12 — A disappointing crowd was on hand at Lobo Park Friday night to see what may have been one of the finest ball games ever played there.

The Lamesa All-Stars scored one run in the first, fifth and seventh innings to defeat the defending state semi-pro champions, the Fort Bliss Falcons, 3-0.

It was the first shutout sustained by the Falcons in the past 25 games. Kenneth Russell went six innings for the All Stars and gave up but three hits. He fanned six and walked one. Lefty Leon Hays relieved him in the seventh and allowed just one hit. He struck out six in the three innings.

The All-Stars gave Russell all the runs he needed in the first inning when E. C. Leslie took first on a fielder's choice, second and scored on Rudy Briner's single.

Forsan Lad Ties For First Place

Albert Oglesby of Forsan, representing North Texas College, tied for first place in the high jump in the Gulf Coast Conference track and field meet at Denton Friday with a leap of 6 feet 1 1/2 inches.

Wade Fisk of North Texas also leaped 6-1.

Indians Open Play Sept. 15

ABILENE, May 12 (SC) — The McMurry College Indians will meet new football foes from Arkansas and Tennessee in 1956, and renew rivalries with three former competitors.

New opponents on the Tribe schedule, released by head football coach Tommy Ellis, are the University of Chattanooga and Southern State College of Magnolia, Ark.

Old foes back on the slate are Texas A&I, New Mexico A&M and the University of Corpus Christi. McMurry's annual grudge game with crosstown rival Abilene Christian College is set for Sept. 15 and will be the season opener for both teams.

ACC is one of three Gulf Coast Conference members that McMurry will face in '56 — the others are Midwestern and North Texas State.

Rounding out the Indians' 10-game schedule are West Texas State and Howard Payne College. Ellis' assistants at McMurry are Elmo Cummins and Stan Burnham. P. E. (Pete) Shotwell will take over as Director of Athletics at the West Texas Methodist college on June 1.

The McMurry schedule:
Sept. 15—ACC at Abilene 8 p.m.
Sept. 22—West Texas at Canyon 8 p.m.
Sept. 29—Texas A&I at Abilene (x) 8 p.m.
Oct. 6—Midwestern at Abilene (x) (Homecoming)
Oct. 12—New Mexico A&M at Las Cruces, N.M. 8 p.m.
Oct. 19—Corpus Christi at Abilene (x) 8 p.m.
Oct. 27—Open
Nov. 3—Howard Payne at Brownwood
Nov. 10—North Texas at Denton 2 p.m.
Nov. 16—Chattanooga at Chattanooga 8 p.m.
Nov. 24—Southern State College at Abilene (x)

McMurry To Play SMU, TCU Cagers

ABILENE, May 12 (SC) — The McMurry College Indians have their eyes on a pair of mighty big basketball scamps — those of Southern Methodist University and Texas Christian University.

The McMurry quintet will play SMU in Dallas on Dec. 3 and TCU in Ft. Worth on Dec. 10. This marks the first time McMurry has ever been scheduled by a Southwest Conference school in basketball. Stan Burnham will join the McMurry athletic staff as head basketball coach on Sept. 1.

Giammalva Grabs SWC Net Title

WACO, Tex., May 12 (AP)—Sammy Giammalva of the University of Texas defeated Oscar Furlong of Southern Methodist in four sets today to retain his Southwest Conference singles tennis championships.

Furlong broke Giammalva's service to win the first set 6-3. Giammalva rallied with hard forehand slams to win the next three sets, 6-1, 6-1, 6-3.

GAMBOA'S TIGERS MEET CARLSBAD HERE TODAY

The Big Spring Tigers will try again today to notch their first baseball victory of the 1956 season.

Winless in five starts, the Bengals meet the Carlsbad Lions at 3 p.m. in Steer Park.

Manager Elias Gamboa has indicated he will use Pat Martinez at first base, Gus Fierro at second, himself at third, Jimmy Fierro at shortstop, Roy Lewis in right field, Benny Marquez in center, Gus Guthrie in left, Bono Arguello catching and Charley Fierro pitching.

Andy Gamboa, reserve infielder; Sonny Dutchover, reserve catcher; and Guy Lara, Isa Mendoza and Horace Yanez, all pitchers, are others who will be available for action.

Tommy Arista, the regular center fielder, will again be held out of competition due to illness.

Carlsbad will go with lineup composed of Dick Navarrette, catcher; Nene Orona, pitcher; Saggio Najar, first base; Ed Navarrette, first base; Frank Navarrette, right field; Danny Fernandez, shortstop; Nat Rodriguez, center field; Peto Biscaino, second base; and Abel Ramirez, left field.

Frank Rodriguez will be available for relief mound duty. Lira Navarrette will also make the trip here and will fill in wherever needed.

Julian Holquin is manager of the Lions.

Steer Cagers Open Next Season Against Ponies

The 1956-57 Big Spring High School basketball team will launch its season's play Tuesday, Nov. 27, here, at which time the Steers meet Sweetwater, Coach Johnny Johnson has announced.

The Longhorns recently completed three weeks of workouts. Johnson has lined up practice tilts with Lamesa, Andrews and Snyder, in addition to Sweetwater.

Next year's club will compete in tournaments at Andrews (Dec. 13-15), Brownwood (Dec. 27-29) and Odessa (Jan. 4-5), before opening its season Jan. 11 in Midland.

The Longhorns will be competing in a new conference, 2-AA, which has Odessa, Midland, San

Hawks Visit Snyder Today

The Big Spring Hawks visit Snyder today for a baseball exhibition, seeking their fourth victory in five starts.

Johnny Subia and Jimmy Marin are set to share pitching chores for the "Hawks." Salvador "Sarmiento" will be the catching.

The Hawks are fielding an exceptionally young ball club. Average age of the players is about 20 years.

Abilene And Midland Launch Playoff Series On Tuesday

MIDLAND, May 12 (SC) — The bi-district baseball playoffs between the Midland Bulldogs and the Abilene Eagles open here at 4 p.m. Tuesday.

Abilene won the coin toss to be host to Midland in the final two contests, if that many are needed.

The second game will be played Friday, starting at 4 p.m. If a third game is required, it will be untelevised Saturday afternoon.

Snyder, May 12, (SC) — The Abilene Eagles closed out their District 4-AA baseball playoff series with Snyder in short order here Friday, 9-0.

Kenny Schmidt pitched the shutout, limiting the Tigers to five hits. Six Snyder errors didn't help the home club's cause. Don McNew was the only Tiger to solve Schmidt's slants for more than one safety. He connected with two singles.

Only two batters reached third against Schmidt, who fanned 11 and walked only three.

Alan Sneed, Dwayne Prince and Ronnie Baker all saw mound action against the Eagles and gave up ten hits between them. Sneed was tagged with the loss, his third against six wins.

HC Athletes Will Be Dinner Guests

All athletes representing Howard County Junior College in competition with other schools the past school term will be honored at a banquet at the Twins Cafe at 7 p.m. Monday.

No formal program is planned, according to W. A. Hunt, president of the college.

Tip For Boxers: Watch That Left

SYRACUSE, N. Y. May 12 (AP)—Here's a hot tip for middleweight hopefuls: stay away from Yama Bahama's left hand. It may not be loaded with dynamite but, my, it can hit you often.

That was what Hardy Smallwood found out here last night as Bahama of Bimini won his 22nd straight fight by out-boxing and out-fighting Smallwood. The decision was unanimous and one-sided.

Yama threw his left jab, a hook and uppercut so fast that it was difficult to follow for everyone but Smallwood. He knew they were landing if not where they were coming from. After the fight, Bahama called Smallwood "a real tough box."

Smallwood's camp just figured Bahama had outsmarted their Brooklyn slugger by waiting him out and boxing cleverly throughout the 10 rounds.

Referee Barney Felix scored the bout 7-2-1. Judges Richie Fazio had it 6-4-0 and Paul Cummins 5-4-1. The Associated Press had Bahama winning 8-1-1.

Finsterwald Is Sole Leader At St. Louis

Maxwell Two Strokes Back

ST. LOUIS, May 12 (AP)—Dow Finsterwald, up-and-coming youthful Ohio pro, jumped back into undisputed possession of first place today at the three-quarter mark in the $25,000 St. Louis Open with a 54-hole score of 205, 11-under par.

But the 26-year-old from Bedford Heights, who turned professional in 1952, has a hot field of six bunched at his heels within four strokes of his pace-setting figure.

Finsterwald toured the 6,277-yard Sunset Country Club course in three-under-par 69 on his third round to put with earlier sub-par scores of 65 and 71.

Just one stroke back at 206 is Bill Casper Jr. of Chula Vista, Calif., who rammed home eight birdies for a 68 after two earlier rounds of 69. He's played steady golf throughout the tournament which ends tomorrow and offers a $5,000 first prize.

Stan Leofard, the Canadian veteran who was tied with Finsterwald at the halfway point, carded a one-under 71 but with it fell into a third-place tie with Billy Maxwell of Odessa, Tex., whose 69 also gave him a 24-hole score of 207.

Ed Furgal, St. Louis, former National Open champion who plays with a withered arm, scored a 69, good for a tie at 208 with Bud Holscher of Apple Valley, Calif. Holscher had a 70 on his third round.

A big jump in the standings was made by Peter Thomson, British Open champion from Melbourne, Australia, who fired one of the day's hottest rounds of 66 to give him a 204 total.

The leaders:

Sweeney Gets 16 1-3 In Meet

WICHITA FALLS, May 12 (SC)—Webb Air Force Base of Big Spring finished third in a six-team track and field meet staged in a high wind here Saturday.

Fort Sill scored 80 1/2 points in winning first place. Sheppard of Wichita Falls was second, with 69 1/2 points; Webb third, with 18 1/2; and Cameron Junior College sixth, with 3.

Lt. Bruce Sweeney scored 16 1/3 of Webb's points. He won the high hurdles in 15.3 and the low hurdles in 25 flat. Both events were run into the teeth of a wind that reached speeds of 20 MPH.

He finished in a three-way tie for first in the high jump with a leap of 6'2" and was second in the broad jump, with a leap of 32'2".

Ed Johnson of Webb was fourth in the 400-meter hurdles while Webb's sprint relay team finished fourth.

Whilden Runs 9.2 Hundred, With 9.5 Wind At His Back

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark., May 12 (AP)—Bobby Whilden ran 100 yards in 9.2 to better the world's record today to furnish the only record in a Southwest Conference-track and field meet dominated by Texas.

Whilden's 100 cannot be submitted for a world record because he had a 9 1/2-mile-per-hour wind at his back, but it will stand as a conference record. He also equaled a conference mark when he ran the 220 in 20.4.

The world's 100-yard record, is 9.3. Texas captured the meet with 76 points with Texas A&M winding up second with 53 1/2 and Baylor third with 52 1/2.

The talented Longhorns won six first places and tied for a first in sweeping to a comfortable victory. They did this although upset by Baylor in the 440-yard relay. The Golden Bears, rolling up their biggest total in a conference meet in history, beat the crippled Texas sprint relay team in 41 seconds flat.

Texas always has been supreme in the 440-yard relay, but loss of anchor man J. Frank Daugherty, who had a leg injury, was too much.

Local Girls Win 5 Medals In Midland Tennis Meet

MIDLAND, May 12 (SC)—Big Spring entries in the Midland Junior Tennis Tournament won two gold and three silver medals in competition with teams representing San Jacinto and Cowden of Midland, Bonham and Bowie of Odessa, Kermit, Hamlin and Pyote teams here Saturday.

Although Big Spring was represented by a girls' team only and both boys and girls were eligible, the Bearlings won second place in team standings. Pyote was first with 40. Big Spring had 14 while San Jacinto was third, with nine.

Big Spring's Eighth Grade doubles team of Shirley Killough and Layla Glaser won the title in that division. After accepting a forfeit from Pyote, the Big Spring girls proceeded to beat San Jacinto, 7-5, 2-6, 6-0, and then topped Kermit's team of Brenda Nunn and Janice Stevens, 6-2, 6-2.

Moss Lake Has Some Big Ones

Having caught the biggest bass on record for Moss Creek Lake (a 12-pound monster), Roy Pickle shows that hooking big ones at the lake 10 miles southeast of Big Spring was no fluke. Here he exhibits two catfish which weighed 13 1/2 pounds together.

BAD WEATHER HURTS LUCK OF FISHERMEN

Fishing played second fiddle to the wind last week, and there were comparatively few catches reported.

Some damage resulted from the extremely high winds at Lake Thomas on Monday. Several docks and boat houses were hard hit, but none was demolished. This happened to be the night that Hiram Reid, patrolman, picked to spend on the lake. He beat a retreat to his "wigwam," barely managing to hold it together.

All this turmoil resulted in some general rains over the lake shed and nearly a foot more of water poured into the lake. This turned the color back to a faint red, but toward the end of the week the water was clearing.

The rise seemed to have stimulated catfishing. Henry Moates and his companion, a Mr. Cole, hooked several nice ones on a trot line, the largest being 15 pounds.

Marvin Dupree caught a 10-pound yellow cat, and Thursday he headed four beautiful channel cat.

Mrs. H. C. Reid, who has been going after the crappie, joined Mrs. Eggleston and caught 17 of them, plus 11 white bass on Thursday evening.

Best fishing has been through the week. Last Sunday boat, water ski and surf board enthusiasts flocked to the lake by the scores. It was hot and comparatively still, a near ideal day for fun. All this activity made it a little disconcerting for the fishermen.

Some good crappie catches have been made about the middle of the lake where the water changes color, and 15-foot depth appeared to be the best level of fishing.

The concrete boat launch ramp, continues to get a good deal of activity. By and large, most of the catches at Moss Creek Lake have been on the modest side. But Roy Pickle, caretaker for the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company, has seemingly mastered the touch of luring the big ones. On top of his super-bass catch (a 19 1/2-inch whopper weighing 12 pounds on April 26), Roy landed two husky catfish. Together they weighed 13 1/2 pounds, and both of them were landed via the pole route near the dam on the south side.

More fishing equipment is sold annually in the United States than any other sporting goods item and this may be a record year in that respect for the sporting goods dealers, especially in West Texas.

More and more people are turning to the pastime, because more fishing areas are constantly being created.

National Fishing Week Is Under Way

National Fishing Week begins today, coinciding with perhaps the most favorable time of the year thus far to wet a hook.

Waters are quieting down on the lakes and pools in the area and the weather is warming up, conditions that bring out the piscatorial enthusiasts by the hundreds.

To the regular fisherman, the special week makes little difference. He ordinarily goes to his favorite spot every chance he can get.

Chances are he can get a break on some of the new fishing gear he needs, however, by calling at his favorite sporting goods dealer, since some of the stores are doing their part toward recognizing the week by offering some goods at special prices.

Oliver Takes White Sulphur Springs Lead

By GEORGE BOWEN
WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va., May 12 (AP)—Holy-poly Ed Oliver finished in a whirl of three birdies to roll into the third-round lead of the White Sulphur Springs Open today by shooting 64, six strokes better than par.

It was the best round so far of the tournament and gave the veteran pro now playing out of Boston a total of 200 with 18 more holes to play tomorrow.

Oliver, 10 strokes ahead of par for the distance so far, held a two-stroke advantage over Sam Snead, the host pro, who had come in earlier with a 66.

Mike Fetschick of Yonkers, N.Y., who started the round three strokes ahead of Oliver and Snead, had to scramble to equal par 70 and wound up in a tie for third with Vic Ghezzi of Inwood, N. Y., at 203. Ghezzi shot his second straight 67.

Jack Isaacs of Langley Field, Va., who went off sharing the lead with Fetschick, ballooned to a 74 and total of 207 to fall off the pace.

He was alone in fourth place and another stroke back came James Feree of Winston-Salem, N. C., Robert L. Watson of Ardsley-On-Hudson, N. Y., and Mike Souchak of Durham, N. C., at 208.

The 40-year-old Oliver, a clown at times but a perennial threat, shifts to the supposedly easier Greenbrier course tomorrow on which Snead and Fetschick played today. They will go to the Old White for the finale.

Erskine Pitches Second No-Hitter For Brooks

BROOKLYN, May 12 (AP)—Carl Erskine pitched the Brooklyn Dodgers to a no-hit, no-run victory over the New York Giants today, 3-0. It was the second no-hitter for the right hander who stopped the Chicago Cubs with a blow on June 19, 1952.

The score that time was 5-0. Erskine walked two and fanned three in chalking up his second victory of the season. He also has lost two.

The last previous no-hitter in the majors was by Sam Jones of the Cubs against Pittsburgh on May 12 a year ago as the Cubs won 4-0.

Erskine had the Giants in submission all the way today until the ninth inning when Whitey Lockman fouled one out of the park. That was the closest he came to losing his no-hitter.

Immediately after A. Darr, captain of the Giants, hit back to Erskine for the final out, the slight young Hoosier was mobbed by his Dodger mates. President Walter O'Malley immediately announced a check for $300 would be waiting for him in the dressing room. Oddly enough, Don Ferrarese, young rookie left hander with the Baltimore Orioles, had a no-hitter going against the New York Yankees across town in Yankee Stadium. He lost his, however, when Andy Carey beat out a high chopper to second base to open the ninth.

ALL IS IN READINESS FOR LL OPENERS HERE

Schedule of Big Spring's three Little Leagues will be released in The Daily Herald during the coming week.

Play in the circuits formally gets under way a week from tomorrow evening. Games are carded at 6:30 and 8:30 p.m.

Most of the teams have been working out for the past three weeks and lineups of each of the 12 clubs are all set.

The Little League park, located on the Snyder Highway, is in fine shape. Broken boards in the fence were replaced and the entire plant was painted.

A committee is now endeavoring to sell fence signs. The money would go toward operation of the circuit.

All indications point to the fact that baseball for the small fry will experience its biggest season here. There is talk one and possibly two farm leagues will be organized, giving boys who did not make any of the 12 teams a chance to play.

The League season extends from May 21 until July 21, at which time the playoffs will begin.

The season will close earlier than usual this year in order that all boys can take their vacations before school begins.

Bucek To Rice

HOUSTON, May 12 (AP)—Billy Bucek, who scored 132 points last year at Schulenburg, has signed a Rice letter of intent. Bucek was a Rice letter of intent. Bucek was an all-district basketball player three years, ran the hurdles in track and played tennis.

If your car is your office, you owe it to yourself and your sales to own an A.R.A. It's hard to win customers and influence sales if you're hot and irritated... soaked with perspiration... worn out from stop-and-go driving in city traffic on torrid days. With an A.R.A. in your car, what a difference it makes to your comfort and appearance... and to your sales enthusiasm! Because A.R.A. keeps you cool and fresh, you save on cleaning and laundry bills, too.

Come in today

DO IT YOURSELF Barbecue Cart For Back-Yard Service

By BILL BAKER
 Out-of-door furniture is the order of the day.

Now that the days are getting longer and warmer, more and more of you will be spending extra hours in the yard. You'll probably plan lots of back yard meals, too.

And what better aid to back yard dining can you have than the barbecue cart pictured above? You'll be able to build a copy of it for yourself for only a few dollars in materials and a few easy workshop hours with my pattern package 112.

Here are the cart's features: One large storage section, with doors opening to both sides, gives ample room for holding bulky dishes. Above this are two smaller areas, each with a pull-down door, for additional storage. A wide work area on top, cut-outs for glasses, shelf space for silver, napkins and dishes — these are other features you'll enjoy and appreciate.

Your cart will be completely portable. Two wheels and a push-rail will make it possible for you to use the cart near your cooking area and then wheel it to the table at serving time.

Many Good Features In This Barbecue Cart

Each part of the cart, let you tack, trace and cut in the workshop. It's so easy that even a novice will have few problems. Easy-to-understand assembly directions and a full material list help too.

Asphalt Cotton Sacks Lashed

ELSA, Tex., May 12 (AP)—Travis Massey, president of the Hidalgo County Farm Bureau, warned cotton farmers today the use of asphalt coated picking sacks will make their cotton harder to sell.

Massey said synthetic fibers are causing increased competition in the fiber market and quality standards for cotton are increasing.

Many mills refuse to buy cotton from a producing area where it is known that tar spots get into the fiber through the use of asphalt coated sacks, Massey said, and other mills pay less for cotton in order to make up for losses they sustain from contaminated fabrics.

Massey said the tar on the asphalt coated sacks cracks and flakes, and when sacks are pulled over the sides of trailers and emptied the tar comes off in the cotton.

Much tar is cleaned out in the gin, but some is broken up into small bits and clings to the fiber, he said.

If spinning mills blend several bales of cotton together before processing, one contaminated bale can cause tar spots in the entire lot.

The result is often down-graded fabrics which sell for 10 to 20 per cent less than normal value.

SMU Official Will Lead Base Mission

Dr. George C. Baker Jr., professor of evangelism in the Perkins School of Theology at Southern Methodist University, will return here this week to begin the annual Protestant Mission Week at Webb AFB.

Dr. Baker came here first in 1954 and proved an extremely popular figure among base personnel. The mission will start at the base chapel next Sunday morning with Dr. Baker speaking on the subject, "Too Good to Be Untrue."

Music will be furnished by the Webb AFB Choir. For the evening service he will speak on "You Never Had It So Bad." For this service, the Webb Choraleers will be in charge of the music, and the 3560th Pilot Training Group will be sponsors.

The next day Dr. Baker will address the Sunday School teachers at 10 a.m. He also will present the devotional over KBST-TV at 4:30 p.m., as he will on May 22 and 23. Dr. Baker speaks the evening of May 21 on the subject, "How Do You Spell Failure?" Music for this service is to be furnished by the First Methodist Choir and the 3560th Air Base Group will be the sponsor. At 10 a.m. the next day he will speak to the NCO Wives Club.

For the evening of May 22, Dr. Baker will speak on "The Many Splendored Thing." Music will be by the First Baptist Choir and the sponsor will be the 3560th Maintenance and Supply Group. The final service the evening of May 23 will feature the subject, "When the Devil Pricks Up His Ears." The Pilot Training Wing, the 3560th Installations Group, and the 8360th USAF Hospital will be sponsors, and music will be furnished by the First Presbyterian Choir. Each evening Lt. Charles Webb is to be the accompanist. The nursery will be open for the convenience of parents with small children.

Walker Dies In Electric Chair

HUNTSVILLE (AP)—Asserting to the last minute he was innocent, Tommy Walker, 29, a Dallas Negro, died early Saturday in the electric chair at the penitentiary for the rape-slaying of a white woman.

Walker was strapped into the chair at 12:01 a.m. and was dead 5 minutes later. Asked by the warden if he had anything to say, Walker shook his head and declared "I'm innocent." While being strapped, he closed his eyes and moved his lips, as though in prayer.

He was convicted of raping Mrs. H. C. Parker of Dallas and slashing her throat in September of 1953, a slaying which brought widespread terror to much of Dallas. Vigilantes patrolled sections of the city and supplies of pistols and door chains were sold out almost immediately.

Walker refused to order the traditional last meal. Asked why, he said "It isn't going to do me any good."

Brochure Explains Lease-Buying Plan Of PO Department

The Post Office Department has a new brochure on the lease-purchase program under which many towns and cities are beginning to get badly needed post office buildings.

Entitled "Post Office Department Lease-Purchase Procedures and Documents," the brochure can be obtained from the regional real estate manager, A. P. DeWitt, Box 3, Dallas 21, Texas.

The lease-purchase law, enacted by the 83rd Congress, makes it possible to employ the financing and construction capacity of private enterprise to provide modern buildings for government use. Under this program, the Post Office Department may buy facilities substantially in the same manner that the average American buys his home in periodic payments like rent. Excessive immediate outlays of public funds are avoided.

Twenty-seven lease-purchase post office projects have been approved, and four of them are in Texas, at Garland, Grand Prairie, Houston and Refugio. Additional lease-purchase projects have been approved by G. S. A. as federal buildings at New Orleans, Lafayette and Lake Charles, La., and Gainesville, Tex.

Ceiling Collapses

GAINESVILLE (AP)—Part of the ceiling at the Gainesville High School auditorium collapsed and crushed about 11 rows of seats yesterday. No one was hurt although teacher Ken Bearden and several students were in the auditorium.

THERE'S NOTHING LIKE A STORY BOOK to bring peace and quiet to an active day, Mrs. Bernie Coughlin, pictured at left, has found. With their three children, Anita, at left, Tina and Lee, she prepares for a story hour. Anita, who is six years old, attends Park Hill School. Tina and Lee are two and two and a half years old, respectively.

WATCHING FOR THAT BIRDIE is about the funniest thing Kenda Joye Harmon, pictured at right, has been told to do yet! She's the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Harmon Jr. and is the ripe old age of four and a half months. Her blue eyes predict that she'll be a blonde—wait a few months for more hair to appear and we'll discuss the color then!

Very Special Mothers

The story goes that a little child, hearing for the first time of an unfamiliar thing—adoption—was quite distressed. But a thinking Mother quickly set all fears at rest with these words: "Why, honey, I was able to choose you. That shows Mother loves you best of all."
Well, "best of all" may be debatable, but there's no debate about the unbounded happiness that has come into homes when children are adopted. Some of that happiness is caught by the photographer today, as The Herald salutes all Mothers everywhere through the presentation of a group of very special mothers—those who have adopted their little ones.

Bearden Children Celebrate With Birthday Parties

Mrs. Elvin Bearden has been hostess for two birthday parties in the last two days! Friday morning, Michael Gene entertained four of his friends in observance of his second birthday anniversary. The group played with toys and balloons and were served refreshments. A cake was shaped and trimmed to resemble a cowboy hat. Guests were Brenda Conway, Susan Thurman, Ricky Mitchell and Craig Caudill. Leandra Bearden celebrated her seventh birthday with a theatre party Saturday morning. After attending the movie, the group went to the Bearden home, where they were served a picnic lunch. Guests were Pat Webb, Wanda Lou Simpson, Claudia Caudill, Bert Fannin and Iris Knox.

Susannah Class Has Annual Luncheon

Fifty-five attended the annual Mother-Daughter luncheon of Susannah Wesley Class Friday at First Methodist Fellowship Hall. Lucille Hester gave a meditation on "Life and Teachings of Paul." The pastor, the Rev. Jordan Grooms, led the opening prayer. Mrs. Mary Howie's group hosted the luncheon. Special guests were Mrs. Jesse Young, Mrs. C. N. Morton, Mrs. E. L. Barrick, Mrs. Arthur Pickle, Mrs. B. C. Bradley, Mrs. L. B. Baird, Mrs. J. E. Foote, Mrs. Charilla Leonard and Marian McDonald.

Baptist Class Meets

Mrs. R. E. Collier was hostess Thursday evening to members of the LLL Sunday School class at the Baptist Temple. The opening prayer was offered by Mrs. Leonard Edwards. Mrs. Robert Hill brought the devotion. Refreshments were served to nine members and one guest, Mrs. Lloyd Lile.

'ROUND TOWN

With Lucille Pickle

Hello, Young Mothers! Welcome to the big organization that is the only one dedicated to the job of rearing a happy family. How much better to be the symbol of motherhood than the symbol of sex such as the bright and shining Miss Marilyn Monroe. Can't you just see her with her horizontal walk trying to soothe a baby with the colic?

One of the nicest Mother's Day gifts will be the one presented today in Chattanooga, Okla. in honor of Mrs. E. A. Martin, who is the mother of Mrs. Eva Pyeatt and Mrs. J. A. Eberidge of this city. When Mrs. Martin visits with her daughters here, she always attends services at the First Baptist Church and to her the baptistry background scene is a sermon within itself.

Today a copy of the scene done in oil by Mrs. Myrtle Lee, will be presented to the First Baptist Church in Chattanooga and dedicated to Mrs. Martin and the late Mr. Martin by their pastor, Rev. Jones, who asked that the ceremony be held on Mother's Day. Other children who will be present are Mrs. C. P. Brandon of Longview and C. E. Martin of Chattanooga.

Mrs. Martin is 84 years old and is a "1901'er" in Oklahoma. She has served in her church many years as pianist and organist and not only is a charter member but is the oldest member.

Weekend visitors in the J. B. PICKLE home are their daughter and her family, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Lancaster, Diantha, Meredith Ann and David, of Kermit, and a son, J. J. Pickle and daughter, Peggy of Austin, and Bishop Bailey, and daughters, Linda and Janet.

MR. AND MRS. G. H. HAYWARD have as their guests Capt. and Mrs. Harry Wyatt and daughter, Bobbie D. Ann, of Waco, and G. H. Hayward, Jr. who is an engineer for Convoir in Fort Worth. Another daughter and her family, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hall of Big Spring will also join in a family get-together.

MR. AND MRS. W. A. UNDERWOOD have as their guests, her sister, Mrs. A. B. Moore of Los Angeles. Also recent visitor in their home have been Mr. and Mrs. G. V. Chovins, former residents, who now reside in Waco.

Friday guests of MRS. J. B. NALL were her daughter, Mrs. E. L. Nalley, and a friend, Mrs. Joe Holliman, of San Angelo.

In the Saturday Evening Post feature, "Toughest Outfit in the Army," Major Holland Holt, who is the chaplain for the 77th, and is quoted about his feelings toward parachute jumping, is the brother-in-law of MRS. FRED RECKHAM.

MRS. C. C. JONES is in El Paso to be with her sister, Mrs. Nancy Wilson, who is critically ill.

Word from MRS. L. B. MAULDEN from Fort Smith, Ark. tells us that Mr. Maulden has undergone emergency surgery and is now progressing satisfactorily. He will probably be able to return to Texas the latter part of the month. The Mauldens were en route to Salisaw, Okla., to be with his father who had suffered a stroke, when he was taken ill and had to be removed from the train.

Former resident, MARY FRANCES NORMAN, who is to graduate from the University of Texas at Austin, is spending the weekend in the home of Dr. and Mrs. E. H. Happel, 900 Johnson.

Airport GA Makes Focus Week Plans

The Girls' Auxiliary of Airport Baptist Church will observe Focus Week with an activity each day during the week. Monday evening, they will meet at the church at 6:30 for choir practice. Tuesday evening, the intermediate GA will entertain the junior GA at the church at 6:30 p.m. Refreshments will be served by the WMU.

The girls will attend prayer meeting in a group Wednesday evening. They will meet at the church at 6:30 p.m. Thursday for a prayer service. Friday evening at 6:30, they will meet at the church and have visitation from there. Saturday morning, they will leave from the church at 7:30 to attend the associational breakfast. This affair will be held at the Baptist Encampment.

Plans have been made under the leadership of Mrs. J. D. Buchanan, sponsor of the intermediates, Mrs. A. Miller, for the juniors, and Mrs. W. A. James, young people's secretary.

Will Be June Bride

The engagement and approaching marriage of Mille Balch is being announced. Miss Balch is the daughter of Mrs. Cornelius C. Balch and the late Mr. Balch. She will be wed to Johnny C. Allison, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Allison, on June 16. The ceremony will be read in the home of the bride's sister, Mr. and Mrs. Art Matewell, 1916 East 17th. (Photo by Bradshaw.)

To Wed

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Madry, 807 E. 19th, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Henrietta, to Billy Lex Harkrider, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Harkrider, Lamesa. The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. Cecil Rhodes on May 25. (Photo by Barr)

Mary Felts Honored At Pre - Nuptial Tea

Mary Felts, bride-elect of Daxx Derchester, was the honoree for a bridal shower Friday evening at the home of Mrs. A. D. Webb. Guests were greeted at the door by Mrs. Webb, Miss Felts, and her mother, Mrs. James Felts. The honoree chose a dress of printed pink nylon organdy which she wore over pink petticoats. The short puffed sleeves and the neckband were bound in pink satin and the cummerbund was of the same material. She wore pink pearl jewelry, and her shoulder corsage was of pink carnations. Hostesses for the affair, in addition to Mrs. Webb, were Mrs. Merrill Creighton, Mrs. Ray Fortson, Mrs. Roy Tidwell, Mrs. Wade Shanks, Mrs. Judson Lloyd, Mrs. Garner McAdams, Mrs. Festus McEath, Mrs. Lucian Jones, Mrs. Thelbert Camp, Mrs. Charles Harwell and Lou Ann Nall. Mrs. Camp and Miss Nall presided at the refreshment table that was laid with pink with a white organdy cloth that was tied at the corners with pink satin bows. The centerpiece was formed with six pink candles and a floral arrangement of white carnations that featured a white styrofoam bridal couple. A color theme of pale pink and green was used in the refreshments and the service was in crystal and silver. Mrs. Lloyd registered the 74 guests who called during the evening. The wedding of Miss Felts and Mr. Derchester will take place at 8 o'clock in the evening on June 2 at the First Baptist Church.

50 Hear Recital By Piano Pupils

About 50 attended a piano recital given by pupils of Mrs. Neil Fryar Friday night at Lakeview Baptist Church near Stanton. Special guests were Bernice Beeman who sang "Beyond the Sunset," and his daughter, Kathleen, who played "Choo-Choo-Boogie" and "Jerusalem the Golden." Pupils participating were Danny Fryer, Elizabeth Caldwell, Maxie Bulsgerbaum, Beth Narried and Raymond Painter.

Modern Forum Has Conservation Study

Conservation was the subject of the study for members of the Modern Woman's Forum Friday afternoon in the home of Mrs. A. D. Wade. Cohostesses were Mrs. Hugh Duncan, Mrs. R. H. Blasingame and Mrs. J. D. Leonard. Mrs. J. P. Dodge was program leader, and she chose as her topic, "This Land Is Ours." She told the group that the first state park was given to Texas by the mother of Pat Neff, one-time governor of the state. The park, named Mother Neff Camp Ground, took in seven acres on the Lech River southwest of McGregor. It was intended for camp meetings and recreation. This started the interest in state parks, the speaker said, and others were located over the country. The Big Bend Park with 700,000 acres is the largest in Texas. Our local park comprises 349 acres.

Members were told that the largest national park in North America is Jasper National Park in Canada. Mrs. M. A. Cook spoke on Conservation of Texas Soil, telling of various grasses to be planted to improve soil conditions. Mrs. John B. Knox was guest speaker, and she gave demonstrations of flower arranging. She told the club of the Litterbug campaign and of the poster contest recently held in the schools. The winning posters were shown to the group. Loretta Jenkins of Stanton, granddaughter of Mrs. Wade, played "Tiptoe Through The Tulips." "It's a Grand Night For Singing," and "The Holy City." The last selection was especially for Mrs. Wade. Mrs. Ira Driver stressed the importance of helping supply clothing to be used in the shop for the patients at the State Hospital. The next meeting was announced.

Chapel Vows Recited At Morning Ceremony

Elizabeth Ann Wise became the bride of Lt. Rodney R. Rish in a chapel ceremony at 10 a.m. Saturday.

Dr. Jordan Grooms, pastor, read the double ring vows at First Methodist Chapel. Nougats of pink roses and larkspur marked the wedding music was played by Darlene Agee, organist. Music background for the ceremony was "The Lord's Prayer." The bride, given in marriage by her father, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Wise Jr., 1504 Kentucky Way. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Rish, Kenon, Ohio. Beige was the dominant color chosen for the bride's costume. The sand shantung dress was topped by a duster embroidered in shades of brown. Accessories were beige and brown. The dress itself was designed with a fitted empire waist, slightly flared skirt and three-quarter length sleeves. A pale purple orchid and lilies-of-the-valley were her flowers. For the traditional "something old" the bride carried a small Bible of her husband's great-grandfather. A blue ribbon marker was in the Bible. She borrowed a white linen handkerchief from her grandmother. Something new was a gift of jewelry from the bridegroom. She wore a penny in her shoe. The matron of honor was Mrs. Delbert Motal. She wore a boxy suit of grey and white shantung with black and white accessories. She carried yellow roses. Lt. Norman C. Miller served as best man. WEDDING TRIP Before making their home at 1313 Tucson, Mr. and Mrs. Rish will visit the bridegroom's parents. The couple's parents joined them in the receiving line at the reception at the church. Guests were served a double wedding ring cake and coffee by Mrs. Allen Orr and Mrs. Bill Johnson. Mrs. Charles Clark was in charge of the guest register. Other members of the house party were the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Edd Rudd of Arlington, and Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Rudd of Odessa. The bride attended Howard County Junior College after graduating from Forsan High School. She sang in the choirs at both schools and was an FHA member and cheer leader in high school. In college she sang in the Barber Shop Quartet. The bridegroom attended Bowling Green State University. He was a member of Pershing Rifles, Sigma Phi Epsilon and ROTC Band.

Hyperions Join Friday For Tea

Spring flowers on a filigreed lace cutwork cloth centered the refreshment table at the annual Hyperion Council tea Friday afternoon. Hostesses were 1905, 1946 and 1948 Hyperion Clubs. The tea was held in Howard County Junior College Student Union Building. The program was musical, presented by a double trio of Central Ward sixth grade girls and a triple trio of College Heights sixth grade girls. Directors were Mrs. Bill Griese and Ruth Burnam. During a business session conducted by the council president, Mrs. R. W. Thompson, a recommendation to have two annual luncheons instead of a fall luncheon and spring tea was submitted. Voting will be done in the fall. Representatives from the six clubs reported on the club year's projects and achievements. Making reports were Mrs. Clyde Angel, 1905; Mrs. E. V. Spence, 1930; Mrs. Don Newsom, 1946; Mrs. R. R. McEwen Jr., 1948; Mrs. Harold Jones, 1953, and Mrs. Albert Smith, Jubilee. Pouring at the tea table was Mrs. Clyde Angel, immediate past president of the council.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Roman and Mrs. Roy Henderson; Bardwell, from the local 4-H Club. Twenty seventh graders had a picnic Friday night at the Scout Tank. Eight parents and two teachers accompanied the group.

Right For Sun Or Swim

The pale chartreuse of Mrs. R. C. Jordan's swim suit is a perfect background for the cummerbund effect of stripes. These are in both harmonizing and contrasting colors of raspberry, lemon, yellow and a deep chartreuse. At right, Mrs. D. R. Motal carries a short jacket of orange, figured in white. Her suit is exactly the opposite pattern, white background with orange figures. Models and suits are two of the presentations which brought wolf whistles at the style show given for Webb officers and their guests Saturday night at the base. Mrs. R. L. Morris was commentator for the revue, which was presented by Swartz's.

For A Gay Evening

Planned to catch the eyes of the stag line as well as everyone else are the two dresses modeled by Mrs. Charles O. Lescher, at left, and Mrs. Peter Hershey. Mrs. Lescher's aqua net is fashioned of one ruffle over another, all worn over aqua taffeta. Rhinestone jewelry accompanies the sequin-trimmed black net worn by Mrs. Hershey. Black taffeta makes the basis of her frock. The formals are two of the gowns shown by Swartz's at the style show presented Saturday for the opening of the officers' cocktail lounge and patio at Webb Air Force Base.

Webb Officers Have Opening Festivities

Formal opening of the Officers' Cocktail Lounge and patio at Webb Air Force Base was initiated Saturday evening with the cutting of a ribbon between the two.

Immediately following was a water carnival in and around the swimming pool, with a water ballet. Participating in the ballet were Mrs. Lowell Hale, Mrs. R. A. Wright, Mrs. Bill Walker, Mrs. Ed Troxel, Mrs. R. Hill, Mrs. L. C. Ficklin and Mrs. John Bachman. A diving exhibition was presented by Ed Troxel, Marvin Montgomery and Jim Watson. Adding fun to the presentation was the clown, Kirk Brown. A swimming demonstration for women was given by Mrs. Troxel and Mrs. Walker.

Junior High Lists Popular Students

LAMESA — In a special assembly program of the Junior High School held Wednesday, results of the popularity poll conducted last fall were announced. ## CAMPUS CHATTER

By Margaret Pierce

First off this week, we, the students of HJJC, want to send out a "get-well-quick" message to those girls we have all missed, due to an accident Sunday night. Myrna Sproul, Myrtice Jones, and Mary Forhand, on their way home last Sunday evening from a swim in San Angelo, were in a two-car collision. They were hospitalized at the Malone-Hogan Hospital, where Myrtice Jones is still a patient. Mary and Myrna were dismissed Friday. Let's all help Myrtice "get-well-quick" by dropping by for a visit when we have a few minutes to spare.

A banquet was held Monday night for all the members of the Future Teachers of America in HJJC. It was held in the Western Room of the Wagon Wheel Restaurant. Those attending were: Belva Jo Wren, Betty Earley, Mary Lou Garcia, Consuelo Fierro, Sue Neal, Margaret Pierce, Peggy Bradford, Charlene Fuller, and Mrs. Betty Walker, the FTA sponsor.

Two new resolutions were introduced and voted on. The new president for the next school year is Consuelo Fierro. Charlene Fuller was recognized as the outstanding member of the club for the year.

The choir had another busy week with four engagements. Tuesday afternoon, they journeyed to the Colorado City High School. Thursday night a concert program was presented to the public. Earlier Thursday, they sang for the Kiwanis Club. The choir sang at the Lamesa High School Friday afternoon. They still have a full schedule ahead of them for the coming week.

Phil Stovall was home over the weekend from Ranger Junior College. He visited his parents and his girl-friend, Margaret Pierce. HJJC's golf team, James Lee Underwood and William Cunningham, attended the State Tournament and finished as runner-up.

They came out one stroke behind the champion Navarro team. The Hawks' baseball team attended the Region V baseball tournament last weekend. They finished the tournament as runner-ups. They were beat out in the final game by Sayre, Okla. However, the boys did a good job of beating Clarendon with a score of 11-3. Kid Waddell beat Clarendon on a 3-hitter.

The HJJC Jayhawks won the state track meet and are now preparing to attend the Nationals. They won a good first place with 41 points while the second place winner, Blinn Junior College, came up with 24 1/2 points. Four new records were set by the Jayhawks. Jim Blasingame set a new record in the 800-yard run. His time was 2:01.3. He also participated in the mile relay with Harold Hicks, Fred Stuart, and John Dale Curtis with them setting a new record in this event. The time was 3:25.6.

Tommy Black set a new record in the pole vault when he vaulted 13-1 1/2. In the preliminaries, Freddie Stuart set a new record in the 220-yard low hurdles. His time there was 24.8.

First place in the 440-yard relay was won for HJJC by Charlie Brown, Tommy Black, Freddie Stuart, and John Dale Curtis. Harold Hicks captured the third place in the 440-yard dash.

The 100-yard dash ended with John Dale Curtis in first place and Freddie Stuart taking fourth. Tommy Black came out second in the high jump and fourth in the broad jump.

The Engineering Club journeyed to Austin last weekend for an engineering show. Those going were Eddie Gill, Jimmy Burkholder, Douglas Warren, Bob Patterson, Kenneth Honeycutt, John Alva Richardson, Edwin and Earl Rawlins, and Mr. Marshall Box, sponsor.

Annual Sponsor Names Workers For 'Tornado'

LAMESA — Bennie Speck, annual sponsor, has named the staff for the 1956-57 "Tornado." David Olson, assistant editor this year, was named editor. Others are Connie Nix and Jay Claiborne, assistant editors; Pam Price, picture editor; Beverly Brewer, art editor; Ray Estrada, assistant art editor; Dell Davis, sports editor; and Dick Norris, business manager.

T&P Slaters Picnic

A family picnic will be given by Texas and Pacific Ladies Society Council May 25 at 6:30 p.m. at City Park. Plans were made at a Thursday meeting. Mrs. S. M. Barbee was hostess to 50 guests.

Barbara Barrow Reveals Betrothal

LAMESA — Mr. and Mrs. Mart Barrow of Star Route 1 announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Barbara Jean, to Martin Samuel Burkhead of Los Angeles, Calif. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Burkhead of Lamesa. The couple will be married June 21 in First Baptist Church with the Rev. Walter G. Horn, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, reading the ceremony. The bride-elect, a 1951 graduate of Lamesa High School, attended Hardin-Simmons University, where she was voted the best actress and was treasurer of the freshman class. She was graduated from Texas Tech in 1955, and has been teaching in the McCamey schools. Mr. Burkhead is also a graduate of Lamesa High School. He was graduated from A&M College in 1955 where he was a member of the Singing Cadets. He is a physicist for Hughes Aircraft Corporation in Los Angeles and is working on his masters degree at UCLA.

OES Has Service For Two Members

LAMESA — The Lamesa Order of Eastern Star held a memorial service Thursday evening in memory of Aubrey Cox and M. C. Lindsey, both members who passed away this year. In memory of them a large high backed chair was draped with white satin with a spotlighted pink rose lying across the arm. With background music of "Lead Kindly Light" Mrs. H. W. Jobe, the program leader, gave the poem "The Star and the Rose." The altar was then draped. The officers, carrying lighted tapers entered and formed a cross, while the chaplain read the 23rd Psalm. In conclusion Mrs. Bob Lindsey Jr., worthy matron, read the poem "The Rose Beyond the Wall." The regular chapter meeting followed with a "Tribute to Mother" given by Mrs. Al Griffin. Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Maudie Lamphear, Mrs. Jack Broles, and Mrs. Jap Baldwin.

Mrs. Grimes Feted For Mother's Day

Mrs. George Grimes was the honoree of an early Mother's Day observance Friday evening in the home of her son, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Grimes. Gifts were presented to Mrs. Grimes and bridge games were played after the barbecue dinner. Guests were Mr. Grimes, their daughter, Mrs. Johnny Brown, Mr. Brown, Johnny and Kent, their son, Clarence Grimes, Mr. and Mrs. George Harvell, Sheila Holmes, Dickie and Randy Grimes.

Good Instrument Only If Used

L. C. Porter, vice president of the Texas & Pacific Railway Company, put his finger on the crux of the detailed report made by Dr. Sidney L. Miller, one of the nation's leading economists, concerning the possibilities of West Texas. In substance he said this: Dr. Miller has highlighted the challenges and opportunities; the study will have been a waste of time and money if it is not used in pressing for area progress.

If that sounds obvious, then the reason is that his statement is so patently true. Experience has taught that it is a lot more difficult to use the fruits of a survey than it is to make the survey itself. Examine your library or those of your agencies and note how long it has been since you referred to the initial publications issued in the early stages of this self-same West Texas survey.

There was nothing startling in what Dr. Miller had to say here Friday. He listed some of the major opportunities in agriculture such as full feeding of livestock, more pork production, better breeding, better crop varieties, soil and water conservation, pasture improvement. He pointed out that industrial development can be had for a price and that getting it is a man's game. He reminded of the need for constructive conservation of oil and gas as well as of soil and certainly water.

Now, all of this we know, and most of it we have been preaching for years. Well, then, were Dr. Miller's efforts

(and they undoubtedly have been beyond calculation) over the past nine years fruitless?

Farm from it. His contribution — if we intelligently apply some of the lessons and conclusions — will be entirely worthwhile. It is all to easy and natural for those within a given area to take a subjective, provincial view. The fact that an economist of Dr. Miller's standing has reached the same basic conclusions after a most exhaustive and objective study should be reassuring. With renewed confidence, we ought to not only keep on preaching these things, but overcome timidity of capital by adding action.

The Texas & Pacific Railway Company, although joined and supported by the West Texas Chamber of Commerce and a number of local Chambers and communities, has been the heaviest contributor to this project. Thousands of dollars have been pumped into it.

The study was undertaken as an act of faith on the part of the T&P. As a partner in the development of a great area, the T&P deserves to benefit from its far-sighted attitude. One community — like Big Spring — with enough energy and astuteness to face the problems and solve them would almost justify the effort, particularly if it blazed a trail for others. Dr. Miller said that we had blazed a trail in water conservation and distribution; why not on broader economic industrial frontier?

Senate Will Miss Services Of George

WASHINGTON—For many weeks the idea of a withdrawal by Senator George, Democrat, of Georgia from his prospective race for re-election has been quietly discussed here.

This correspondent learned about it in confidence about ten days ago from a prominent Georgia business man who happens to be a close friend of both Senator George and former Governor Herman Talmadge.

"We who are friends of both men," he said, "feel that it would be wiser for Senator George to withdraw not only because the strain of the campaign would be great for a man of his advanced age but because we feel that a contest would, if possible, be avoided."

When asked at the time what the Senator's plans might be, the answer given was that these same friends hoped President Eisenhower would find an opportunity to use the Senator's services, since it would be an excellent way to emphasize bipartisan cooperation on foreign policy.

It is to be noted that, when news of the withdrawal of Senator George became known on Wednesday through a copyrighted article in the Augusta, Ga., Chronicle and was later confirmed the same day by the Senator himself in Washington, there was ready at once a letter from the President offering to the Georgian a post of great importance in international affairs.

There was nothing prearranged about it in the sense that this action was designed to influence the Senator's decision. Actually the Senator didn't make up his mind till a few days ago that he wouldn't make the race. Incidentally, the volunteer workers in his headquarters in Atlanta are reported by the United Press to have been caught flatfooted on Wednesday-by the developments in Washington and had already mailed out 30,000 pamphlets and 28,000 letters relating to his prospective campaign. So it was apparent they were not notified of Mr. George's decision till the last moment.

It is understood that the death of Senator Barkley last week, due in part to the strain of public speaking, had much to do with the final decision by Senator George to avoid another campaign. The White House knew, of course, that he was considering the move, and planned its action accordingly. For it was deemed an excellent opportunity to get the benefit of Senator George's services and to accentuate the bipartisan aspects of foreign policy. Apart from this, there is a strong bond of friendship between the President and Senator George.

Politically, the action of Senator George does not necessarily mean that Georgia will be without a contest this fall. The Democratic primary, which is equivalent to an election, will bring out opposition to former Governor Talmadge, who has already announced his candidacy. It is believed that some of the anti-Talmadge groups have felt they would have a better chance against the former governor if they had a younger and more enthusiastic champion of their cause than Senator George to represent them in the primary.

As for the situation in the Senate, the retirement of Senator George is a distinct loss to the Eisenhower administration. Always objective and broad-gauged in his approach to foreign-policy questions, Mr. George played an influential part in shaping the administration's course. When, however, he becomes an adviser and sits in the executive branch of the government, he will not have the same influence in the Senate as he has today.

But even if the President should be re-elected and get a Republican majority in the Senate, he would need the help of a man like Senator George in dealing with members of both parties on Capitol Hill on matters of foreign policy. It would have been far better for the Eisenhower program in international affairs if Senator George could have been re-elected and remained in the Senate. But, recognizing all the factors, the President—who was apprised of the situation several weeks ago—stood ready to take advantage of the fact that Senator George's services would be available to the administration in a few months.

There is on every side admiration for Walter George as a statesman. At heart he has been a conservative. His chairmanship of the Senate Finance Committee helped to steer the nation through the shoals of New Dealism, though he incurred the political enmity of FDR because of it. Occasionally Senator George veered from conservatism in order to help his own party on domestic policies. On international questions, however, he never let partisanship warp his judgment—a rarity in public life nowadays.

Bird Has Keys

BOSTON—Of the thousands of motorists who called the Massachusetts division of the American Automobile Assn. for assistance in 1953 this was recorded as the most unusual: "Please service an ostrich that swallowed my automobile keys at Fraaclin Park."

The motorist was supplied with a new set.

Free School Space

BANGOR, Mich. — A Catholic school can't use its own new building for awhile so it offered the classroom space rent free to the Bangor public school. Bangor is building a new school but it won't be ready until next January. So it will use the four-room Catholic school facilities next fall.

The Catholic school offered use of the space when it found it couldn't get teachers for the new building until fall of 1953.

Help, Police

COLUMBIA, S. C. — Martin Hungerpiller parked his car in the lot outside the office where he works. Another car rolled down an incline, bumped his car into a third one, causing an estimated $35 damage to a fender. Hungerpiller is a clerk in the detective office and the cars were in the police department lot.

Vinegar Bend?

PARIS, Tex. — A bird flew into the cab of James Daniel Johnson's pickup truck. Johnson grabbed for the bird and lost control of the truck. The pickup crashed into a vinegar tank car standing on a railroad siding, causing $250 damage to the truck and $150 to the tank car. The bird got away.

Farmers' Gripe: Too Many Schemes In Washington

PRINCETON, N. J. — While the politicians of both political parties are debating the merits of flexible and rigid price supports, the average farmer in the Midwest today is likely to view any farm measure as "just another scheme out of Washington."

Students of the farm situation would make a great error if they assumed the typical farmer is following all the ins and outs of farm legislation. Even though his livelihood is at stake, he just isn't bothering with "all the goings on" and would be hard put to tell you which party is responsible for the latest maneuver designed to help him.

In short the farmer is a little bit overwhelmed by all the talk of "soil banks," "75 to 90 per cent of parity," and the "two-price plan." He looks at his hard-hit pocketbook, considers the low prices he just got for the hogs he took to market, and offers his solution to the farm problem:

"Get my prices up!" This reporter has just returned from a tour of the Farm Belt. With another member of the Princeton staff and 50 resident reporters from the field staff, we were seeking to find out not only "how" the farmer feels but "why" he feels that way — the reasons behind his opinions.

We talked with farmers in all parts of the Farm Belt — those who farm the rich black soil of southern Illinois and Iowa, the hilly countryside of Minnesota and Wisconsin, and the flat plains of Kansas, Nebraska and the Dakotas.

Everywhere we went, the story was the same: "Both parties are so busy politicking over the farm problem, they haven't got time left to help us out."

Take the case of Ralph Conrad, a 42-year-old farmer from just outside Sturgis, Mich. We stopped and talked to him in his field as he turned from chipping up stumps to tell his point of view on the farm situation:

"Like's done a good job," the tall, weather-beaten ex-Marine commented the supported Eisenhower in 1952, "and I give Benson a lot of credit, too. The trouble is there are so many guys that just want to talk."

"These Democrats have condemned the farm program," he continued, "but they haven't come out with anything of their own. They say '90 and 100 per cent of parity' — why, too many people don't know what parity is."

But Conrad is like many farmers — isn't any happier with Republican measures. "Neither party is really doing anything," he said, "they pull a string one day and another the next day."

Conrad is like the average farmer in his support of Eisenhower. He differs from the average, however, in his support of Benson. In many instances, we found the Secretary of Agriculture, serving as the Administration's "whipping boy" for the farmers.

For example, not too far from Conrad's farm in a neighboring county, we stopped and talked with Herman Bishop. The cigar-smoking young farmer of 28, who has 150 acres in "just general farming," had this to say about the Administration:

"I think Ike's doing a good job, but his Secretary of Agriculture is completely wet — he's trying some old experiments that wouldn't work before. The biggest share of the blame goes to Benson."

One hears this same general sentiment all over the Farm Belt. In Minnehaha county, South Dakota, a 57-year-old farmer, with a 160-acre cattle and hog farm, commented: "Ike's O.K. — but that Benson — why don't the Congressmen keep him out of our hair!"

It should be pointed out that while the farmers disapprove of the way Benson is handling his job, they are not worked up enough — out the average — to want him out of office. Only a few farmers thought that the solution to the farm problem was "to get Benson out of there."

Quite often we ran into the sentiment that "Benson just can't do a very good job, things being what they are." Even young Mr. Bishop, who thinks the biggest share of the blame goes to Benson, admitted: "If I were in Washington trying to solve the farm problem, I'd probably want to commit suicide."

Here is the vote on Eisenhower's popularity with Midwestern farmers today, as well as that on Benson. It should be noted that the President's popularity — although relatively high — is roughly 10 points below the level at which it stands on a nationwide scale.

"Do you approve or disapprove of the way Eisenhower is handling his job as President?"

Per cent
Approve ..... 62
Disapprove ..... 27
No opinion ..... 11

"Do you approve or disapprove of the way Secretary of Agriculture Benson is handling his job?"

Per cent
Approve ..... 23
Disapprove ..... 57
No opinion ..... 16

The disapproval vote on Benson comes largely from the farmers classifying themselves as Democrats and Independents. It is interesting to note, however, that about four out of 10 Republican farmers disapprove of the way Benson is handling his job.

Despite all the criticism of his Secretary of Agriculture, Eisenhower enjoys an immense popularity among Republican farmers and gets a vote of confidence from a substantial majority of Independents. A majority of Democratic farmers, however, disapprove of the way he is handling the Chief Executive's reins.

Another indication of Eisenhower's personal popularity with the farmers comes to light in the results of a survey conducted since the President vetoed the controversial farm bill.

Interviewers were assigned to return to the same area they had worked in before the veto. They found a majority of the farmers believe Eisenhower did the right thing in vetoing the farm bill, as the following figures show:

"Do you think President Eisenhower did the right thing in vetoing the farm bill?"

Per cent
Yes, right ..... 52
No, wrong ..... 29
Don't know ..... 19

Although Midwestern farmers are overwhelmingly of the opinion that they are worse off now than they have been in the last few years (U. S. farm prices dropped 28 per cent from February, 1951 — during the Korean war — to last December), the average farmer is hopeful about the next six months.

The Midwestern farmer has many ideas as to what he believes caused the farm problem. The one he cites most frequently, however, is the huge surplus and overproduction.

When we asked farmers what they thought the U. S. should do with the surplus, here's how they answered:

Per cent
Give it away here in the U. S. 42
Give it away to countries that need it ..... 32
Sell it abroad ..... 11
Sell it at a reduced price in this country ..... 10
Keep it in storage, we might need it some day ..... 3
Other ..... 13
Don't know ..... 19

(The table adds to more than 100 per cent since some farmers gave more than one answer.)

However did the right thing in vetoing — that, is refusing to approve — the farm bill?"

Yes, right ..... 52
No, wrong ..... 29
Don't know ..... 19

When we asked farmers what they thought the U. S. should do with the surplus, here's how they answered:

Per cent
Give it away here in the U. S. 42
Give it away to countries that need it ..... 32
Sell it abroad ..... 11
Sell it at a reduced price in this country ..... 10
Keep it in storage, we might need it some day ..... 3
Other ..... 13
Don't know ..... 19

(The table adds to more than 100 per cent since some farmers gave more than one answer.)

The overwhelming majority of farmers, therefore, want to get rid of the surplus in some fashion. Although the surplus is valued at some six billion dollars, three out of four farmers want to just "give it away."

Summing up, the Midwestern farmer today is not acutely interested in all the farm legislation, nor is he wedded to any particular solution to the farm problem. Looking at the Commodity Credit Corporation's surplus bins in all parts of the Midwest, he attributes the farmer's plight to the surplus. And then he thinks of the surplus as something that should be gotten rid of — he sees no sense in "paying a million dollars a day to keep storing it."

The main thing that matters to the farmer is his hard-hit pocketbook. In his opinion, the farm problem will be solved when that pocketbook is full once again.

Around The Rim

Another Mother - A Gentlewoman

Each one's mother must be the bright light of love, and if this were not so, the world would be a dreary place.

But in addition to one's own, there are other "mothers" who leave indelible impressions: who, at one time or another set up a pattern of understanding and influence that leaves its impression upon others.

Perhaps this could be an aunt, or a neighbor of wholesome soul, or a woman of great heart aiding you in a lonely place. It could be a mother-in-law.

It is not inappropriate, I trust, on this Mother's Day, to express a few small words of tribute to my own mother-by-marriage, whose appointed time on earth ended just a short time ago.

The description that always seemed most apt to me, for Mrs. Beulah Saylor, was that of gentlewoman. For truly, she was gentility itself. In the conduct of her household, in the direction of her children, in her contacts with relatives, and in her relations with everyone with whom she met.

There was an aura of serenity about her, one born of great fortitude, and this in turn had sprung from a steadfast faith developed in meeting undue adversity.

It must be given to some people that they shall bear burdens that others never know. My mother-in-law was one of those whose lot seemed to be a constant testing of strength and soul. It is glory to her name that she was never found wanting in the testing.

Her health was her particular load to carry. I knew of this, of course, only in her later years, but I know that it extended way back—back through years as a young widow left with the rearing of a brood of seven. Years when disabilities must have been—in most eyes—almost beyond human endurance. These were illnesses of great variety, of great intensity and of prolonged duration.

But she managed to see, to it that there was no cloud over the happiness of her home. Her philosophy must have been that problems occurring were simply problems that were to be solved; that crises appearing merely were crises to overcome. The philosophy worked. The children were fed and clothed and schooled, and principled in Christianity, and sent on their way to make homes of their own. This, you must agree, is the fulfillment of Motherhood.

And this burden she bore—ah, well, it was hers, and not one to pass on to others. Hers and the Lord's, with whom she had a hand-in-hand relationship.

It was this relationship, I doubt not, that resulted in the serenity that characterized my mother-in-law. If her days were troubled, she had One to turn to, and did; if her nights were sleepless, she had a Companion for comfort.

And so this companionship built for her fortitude, and it built her faith. This inner security gave her strength of conviction which did not have to be argumentative. It gave her personality that did not have to be prepossessing. It gave her a quietness that was comforting.

I don't know whether she had read a poem of John Greenleaf Whittier, but she could have adopted it for her own:

And, as the path of duty is made plain,
May grace be given that I may walk therein.
Not like the hireling, for selfish gain

With backward glances and reluctant tread—
Making a merit of his coward dread—
But, cheerful, in the light around me thrown,

Walking as one to pleasant service led;
Doing God's will as if it were my own.

Yet trusting not in mine, but in his strength alone!

Ike's Word Needed On School Aid Program

WASHINGTON — The role of President Eisenhower as referee over the forces pulling in different directions comes out with startling clarity in the struggle centering on proposed Federal aid to build public schools.

In view of the serious decline in educational standards, there is no need more urgent for the nation's well-being. As the White House Conference on Education demonstrated beyond any doubt, public opinion is overwhelmingly behind building new schools as quickly as possible.

Yet if the referee does not soon put aside the umpire's role and intervene actively and positively with his party's leaders in the House, the probability is for no school help from this Congress.

The odds are against such intervention by the President. It is contrary to his fixed view of the office and to his personal inclination. And what is more, as so often in the past, he has been getting contrary advice from different sources.

On the one hand, he is being told that if he just lets things go along as they are, the Democrats in Congress will be thrown off balance and the blame for failure of school aid will rest on them.

That can be done by sufficient Republican support for the amendment being pressed by Representative Adam Clayton Powell Jr., of New York with the backing of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.

The Powell amendment provides that no Federal school construction money shall go to school districts that fail to start integrating white and Negro pupils. If this is voted by the House, then it touches off the Southern Democrats in the Senate and with only two more months of the session remaining, the threat of a filibuster is enough to kill all hopes for the legislation.

Representative Charles A. Halleck of Indiana, second in command for the GOP, is believed to be privately opposed to school aid, and his colleagues think he will vote for the Powell amendment, thereby setting an example for most of his party to follow.

What the President could do is to call Halleck to the White House and tell him he would like to see school aid put ahead of any and all political considerations. Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare Marion Folsom is reported to be advising the President to do just that, out of a sincere concern over meeting the grave deficiency in school classrooms.

Even if the $3 billion asked by the President or the $4.4 billion in the Kelley bill should be voted, it would be 1958 before school construction actually could be started. If this Congress fails to act, it will be 1959 or later before anything can be done to relieve a situation growing more critical all the time.

Representative Augustine B. Kelley of Pennsylvania, sponsor of the school aid bill, and his opposite number on the Republican side, Representative Samuel K. McConnell, also of Pennsylvania, are going as delegates to the meeting of the International Labor Organization in June.

Without Kelley and McConnell, the school legislation is likely to lose. When they return toward the end of June, it will be too late for action, with the political conventions in August as the deadline.

The meeting of National Education Association representatives brought out that school construction costs have advanced about 20 per cent during the past year.

It also was brought out that the latest rise in the rediscunt rate by the Federal Reserve System has caused a tightening of the money supply.

Almost every factor is working against the building of new schools. There is one man and only one man who can take the positive steps to change the situation. That is the President of the United States.

He and he alone can bring to focus the power of the Federal government in a matter that touches America's leadership — yes, survival — for the future as directly and as immediately as any of the issues conveniently labeled "military."

There's Power Within Each Of Us

Years ago, I was asked to help a university student who was failing badly in his school work and couldn't stay on the football team, of which he was an important member, unless he got his marks up.

This boy was a big, fine-looking fellow, very popular with the student body. Unfortunately, the faculty did not quite share the students' enthusiasm for him, and he was close to being on his way out.

We sat together in my office and he slumped in his chair. "I just can't get the stuff, Dr. Peale," he said. "I may have a big body, but I've got a little brain. Just a little brain in a big body. Anyway, what difference does it make about college? I can go out and play professional football and make all the money I need."

"Maybe so," I told him, "but how long can you play professional football? Then what will you do — be on relief the rest of your life? And you're indulging in self-minimizing by telling me you've got a little brain. You really don't know the calibre of brain you've got. I'd guess you have good mental equipment and can really go places if you get a proper self-appraisal and some real faith in God."

"To accomplish this," I continued, "I suggest that you do a revamping job on your thinking, shifting your thought emphasis from negative to positive. Instead of dwelling negatively on assumed deficiency in ability, concentrate on doing the best you can with what you have. Ability can be developed by giving all you've got to the job at hand. Believe you can succeed. Really work at your studies, and at the same time picture success in your mind. To this, add a humble faith in God by asking His help in freeing your mind from doubt and fear. Then your brain will reveal power you never knew you had."

He thought a moment. "O. K., I'll try." And, indeed he did try, for one day he came to see me and said, "I'm scared to death."

"Look at this examination paper. I got an 85. I'm really scared to be so high. This can't last."

"Boy, I explained, 'that is only the beginning. You're just discovering the potential power within you.' Then I gave him a quotation from Basil King, and it helped this boy, as it has helped many. 'Be bold and mighty powers will come to your aid.' Keeping saying that to yourself," I said, "and keep on believing that God is helping you."

Today, that boy is a successful man with many good years ahead of him, rather than the discarded athlete and frustrated person he might have become. He found and brought into action a potent force called "the will to believe." He experienced the truth that the Lord will help discover and bring to focus the unused powers within us.

The will to believe is very important. Marcus Bach, of the famous interfaith School of Religion at the University of Iowa, calls his unique new book, "The Will to Believe." In it he points out that "the greater the will to believe, the greater and richer your life."

Believe in God, in yourself, and in life, and you, too, will discover the power within.

Bible Words for Today

PROVERBS 3:5, 6 — "Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and do not rely on your own insight. In all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make straight your paths." (RSV)

A wise man, centuries ago, was anxious that his son would make a real success of his life and in order for him to avoid the pitfalls which would endanger him — gave this bit of valuable counsel. This passage could well be labeled — "The Road-Map for Christian Living."

If we heed these directions; not relying on our own insights alone; trusting the Lord with all our hearts; acknowledging the Lord in all we do and say each day; we will be sure to arrive safely at our destination, because the road will be made straight.

This age needs a road map for daily living. In God's Word, we have the master-plan and if we heed the Holy Spirit and obey the words of the wise man — we will have no regrets or fears — for, we shall arrive home safely at eventide.

Spadea's American Designer Pattern

by Margot M. Glinlock

FOR GRADUATION, MAYBE?

Princess Silhouette Has Long Gores, Set-In Yoke

This interpretation of the princess silhouette by Margot McClintock is slated for sewing whether it comes off your sewing machine in white pique, sharkskin, linen or dobbie weave cotton. It can be one of the prettiest graduation dresses ever, or in a variety of other fabrics and colors, a dress to live in all summer long.

Based on long gores with the side ones shaped to form the tiny shoulder caps, it features a set-in yoke, notched just above the false pocket wells.

Buttomed to below the hip bone, it is as easy to step into as it is to make. The pattern is cut with retail sizing measurements and open perforations that preserve the tissue for future use.

Other suggestions for material: tulle, gingham, chambray, shantung, taffeta, seersucker, novelty widths in either silk or cotton.

Sizes 10, bust 34, waist 24, hips 33 inches, neck to waist length 16 1/2; size 12, bust 35, waist 25, hips 38 inches, neck to waist length 16 3/4; sizes 14, bust 36 1/2, waist 26 1/2, hips 37 1/2 inches, neck to waist length 17; size 16, bust 38, waist 28, hips 39 inches, neck to waist length 17 1/4; size 18, bust 40, waist 30, hips 41 inches, neck to waist length 17 3/4 inches.

Size 12 requires 4 1/2 yards of 36-inch material for dress.

To order Pattern No. 1263, state size, enclose $1.00. Airmail handling requires 25 cents extra. Address: AMERICAN DESIGNER PATTERNS, P. O. Box 535, G. P. O. Dept. B-5, New York 1, N.Y. 144-page "Pattern" Booklet XII-50 cents. If paid by check add 4 cents.

Next week look for Spadea's American Designer Pattern by David Goodstein.

Schedule Given For Garden Pilgrimage

Some of the lovely gardens and yards of the town will be opened to the public next Sunday afternoon.

This annual pilgrimage of beautiful gardens is sponsored by the Council of Big Spring Garden Clubs for two reasons. One is to add to the treasury of the council; the other, to show some of the beauty in the city.

Schedules for the pilgrimage may be bought from members of any of the garden clubs. Big Spring, Planters, Spaders or Rosebud. Priced at $1, they give the location of the gardens. Hours are from 4 to 6 p.m.

Tickets may also be bought at the first garden to be shown, which is that of Mrs. Norman Read, 503 Washington Blvd. Showing this setting will be the Rosebud Club.

The Spaders Club will be sponsors of the next yard. It is at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Lane, 1934 Nolan. The garden of Mr. and Mrs. T. B. McGinnis, 1209 Eleventh Place, will have as its sponsor members of the Planters Club.

From there, the pilgrimage will move to the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Sullivan, 1315 Wood, where the Garden Council is showing the garden. The Council will also show the garden of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Storm, 501 Westover Road.

Last garden to be visited is that of Dr. and Mrs. Allen R. Hamilton, 1807 Main where tea will be served. Hostesses here will be members of the Big Spring Garden club.

Round Of Events At Midway School

A musical pageant began a round of end-of-school activities at Midway Friday night.

The all-school picnic will be held Friday at City Park. Students will leave from the school at 10 a.m. Seventh and eighth graders will spend two days at Presbyterian Camping Grounds, Buffalo Gap, May 22-24.

The eighth grade will join other county schools in graduation exercises May 21 at 8 p.m. Howard County Junior College Auditorium.

Directing the pageant was Mrs. Robert Mason, music instructor. Marjorie Logsdon was reader. Songs and folk dances from over the world were performed by students.

After the production, the P-TA presented gifts to outgoing officers and to the faculty members.

Lamesa P-TA Has Program On Safety

LAMESA — The Junior High P-TA met Thursday afternoon in the Junior High cafeteria.

V. C. Bearden, assistant principal, led the program, "We the People Insure Richer Dividends Through Safety." Bob Milliken was the guest speaker. His topic was "Let Us Be Safety Conscious." The Junior High School Band, under the direction of Bill Green, presented selections.

C. W. Tarter, school superintendent, installed Mrs. J. D. Harris as the new president. Mrs. Albert Lamb, vice president; Mrs. Aubrey Boswell, secretary; Mrs. Dell Barron, treasurer; and Mrs. Marie Maddox, historian. Hostesses were Mrs. Reid Bethel and Mrs. Buddy Barron.

Lamesa Seniors Graduate Tuesday At First Baptist

LAMESA — Baccalaureate and commencement services for Lamesa High School seniors will be held on evenings of May 20, and May 22, respectively. Both services will begin at 8 p.m. at the First Baptist Church.

Guest speaker for the baccalaureate services will be the Rev. Milo B. Arbuckle, pastor of First Baptist. The invocation will be by the Rev. Walter G. Horn, First Presbyterian Church, and the benediction will be by the Rev. J. L. Mayhew, First Methodist Church.

Two musical numbers, a vocal solo, "The Lord's Prayer" will be sung by Bobbie Minnix and the a cappella choir under the direction of Lambuth Cribb will sing "How Lovely is Thy Dwelling Place." Marian McDonald will present the organ prelude, the processional and the recessional.

The traditional commencement program includes the invocation by the Rev. E. L. Jones, pastor of Bryan Street Baptist Church and the benediction by W. T. Hamilton, minister of Lamesa Church of Christ. Carl Crouch, salutatorian and president of the senior class will give the welcome. Tom Koger, president of the Student Council, will speak on "Service."

Sunny Barrow will give the valedictory address. Music on the program will be a clarinet quartet, vocal solo, Shirley Spencer, and the Choir.

Recommendations for graduation will be by Abe Holder, high school principal. C. W. Tarter, superintendent of Lamesa Schools, will accept the senior class as graduates. D. L. Adcock Sr., president of the Lamesa board of education, will present the diplomas, while Ray Culp, assistant principal will make the presentation of awards.

Miss McDonald will play the processional and recessional for commencement exercises also.

HONOR STUDENTS

Of the 134 candidates for graduations, 35 have maintained an average of 90 or above for the past four years. You'll be surprised at how much you can save—time and money, too—by following these homemaker hints:

- To make a blanket that's too short for the bed, or the occupant therein, usable, sew a 15 inch piece of flannel or flannel-ette to the bottom of the blanket. No one will notice it if you tuck under that part.
- To keep your hair from getting so dry and brittle, wash with shampoo when you have a lot of shampoo to use, also shampoo, wrap an ice cube in a thick rag and wash with that.
- To protect an ink-written address on a package from being smeared by water or snow, rub it several times with the stump of a white candle.
- To keep those crumpled petticoats crisp like new, Perma Starch is your answer. After washing, starch them in medium-strength solution of Perma Starch.
- To scrape the bottom of a pot, use a wooden spoon or the sharp end of a wooden clothespin. This minimizes noise as well as damage to the pot.
- To fill a bottle of wine quickly, wrap it in a piece of flannel that's been dipped in ice water and not wrung out. It'll bring the wine below room temperature in 10 minutes.

HOLLYWOOD BEAUTY

Dale Evans Follows A 'Lucky 13' Diet

Lydia Visits Horse Enthusiasts

When Lydia Lane visited Roy Rogers and Dale Evans in their new San Fernando Valley ranch home, one of the prize items they wanted to show off was a bronze statue of Roy's horse, Trigger. Miss Lane learned, too, about Dale's "Lucky 13 Diet." Roy and Dale star in their own series on NBC-TV each week.

By LYDIA LANE
HOLLYWOOD — Being movie stars hasn't changed Roy Rogers or his wife, Dale Evans. They still like the wide open spaces, and when the city grows up around their ranch they move to another. They now have 130 acres in Chatsworth, which has a beautiful view of the Southern California mountains and valleys. They have just finished remodeling their rustic ranch-house.

When I stopped by for our visit, I found Dale in the kitchen with a pan of something she quickly shoved into the oven with the word, "Surprise!" She told me it was her own recipe for hot peanut butter canapés. This brought up the subject of calories. While we were waiting for Roy to get out of his working clothes we chatted about keeping thin. Dale began the conversation.

"I find weight can creep up on you. I am only 5-3 so even one extra pound makes a difference. If my clothes feel tight, I immediately eliminate cake, potatoes and hot breads."

"I try to plan meals for all of us which are nutritionally sound," Dale explained. "But when I am serious about taking off a pound or two, I get out a list of low calorie foods that are filling and I plan my meals from these. Reducing is not difficult if you don't allow yourself to get hungry."

Dale supplied me with this list. It's her "Lucky 13 Diet." It consists of skim milk, buttermilk, yogurt, lean beef, chicken, grapefruit, apples, celery, raw cabbage, green beans, spinach and soft or hardboiled eggs and carrots.

As we chatted about ranch life, Dale explained, "I can't go in for complicated grooming, but I am almost eccentric about cleanliness. When I was on the road with a band I got in the habit of washing my nylon undies every night before I went to bed. I still do. And I never take off anything without inspecting it to see whether it is ready to wear another time."

"These one-night-stands with an orchestra," I commented, "are good do-it-yourself training."

"They certainly are. Doing my own hair and nails gives me such a feeling of independence. I shampoo my hair in the shower and always towel-dry it. It is much more healthy than hot air, though I do have a hairdryer for emergencies. I hate artificial hairdos. I set in big pin curls to make it look natural."

When Roy came in we chatted about combining marriage and a career.

"Dale and I work together, but it is hard for couples that don't. It is dangerous for young married couples to be separated. The first years there is a lot of adjusting and getting acquainted to do. You can't really know a person until you have lived with them. I think marriage should not be gone into lightly but rather it should be treated as something sacred."

Dale left the room to speak with the children. I asked Roy what had attracted him to his lovely wife.

"We worked together and I liked her personality. What made me fall in love with her was her inner beauty. A girl can make herself over with make-up but she can't change her smile. That's very revealing. I like a girl to be natural. To be immaculate and sweet smelling."

"I am a farm boy," Roy confessed. "When things were going bad back in Ohio I came to California and picked fruit during the day and sang songs and played my guitar at night. Later I joined a group, 'The Sons of the Pioneers,' and we attracted the attention of Hollywood scouts."

"I was at Republic for 14 years and made eight pictures a year. But I like TV better because we shoot the scenes right here on the ranch." He was speaking of "The Roy Rogers Show" on NBC-TV.

"Your friends say being a movie star hasn't changed you," I told him.

"If there is anything in a person that kills me it's egotism. I never could understand why I have had such success, because I can't get up to sing without being scared."

Roy is in great shape without an ounce of superfluous fat.

"Do you take a postman's hol-day and ride Trigger for exercise?" I asked.

"No," Roy confided. "I like to operate my tractor and race my boat." He showed me a miniature of his latest boat, with which they won a 120-mile marathon.

Dale joined us again bearing a tray of her peanut butter canapés. They are sections of English muffins coated with peanut butter and toasted under the broiler for just a few minutes. These along with some delicious coffee brought our visit to a pleasant close.

DALE'S OTHER DIET
Dale Evans has a 10-day reducing diet which she uses in addition to her list of "Lucky 13" foods. Planned menus for breakfast, lunch and dinner, with plenty of variety in the items, makes this diet fun to keep up with. Dale supplements this leaflet with some old-fashioned home beauty secrets passed on to her by her grandmother. To get your copy of Dale's own diet, Leaflet M-29, send 5 cents AND a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Lydia Lane, Hollywood Beauty, in care of The Big Spring Herald.

Tough Decision

A judge must make a difficult decision between a boy's real mother and his adopted parents in "The Divided Heart." Above is a scene from the prize-winning film showing the lad, played by Michael Ray, embracing his foster parents.

CHILD AT STAKE

U. S. Critics Laud 'Divided Heart'

"The Divided Heart," a British film which has earned the praises of U. S. critics, plays Sunday through Tuesday at the State Theatre.

Unlike the usual melodrama, this film does not portray good and evil as the two forces struggle for possession of a small child. Instead, the contenders are as human as the rest of us.

The cast includes Cornell Borchers, Yvonne Mitchell, Alexander Knox, and Michael Ray. Miss Borchers portrays a German wife who has adopted a small boy (Michael Ray). It develops the boy's mother, who was believed dead, is very much alive, and wants her son back. Miss Mitchell portrays the real mother, a concentration camp survivor, whose husband had been killed by the Germans in Yugoslavia. It is up to Knox, as judge of the U. S. Court of the Allied High Commission for Germany, to decide who gets the child.

The audience has as difficult a time deciding between the two women as the judge.

Miss Mitchell received the British Academy Award for her portrayal of the Yugoslav mother.

PLATTER PALAVER

By Mary Sue Hale

Many standards are used in determining the top tunes of a particular week. The number of wheels that have to turn in order to present the national, state or local top records in the order of their popularity is astonishing.

Several weekly, bi-weekly and monthly magazines and booklets whose purpose is to announce to the public the rating of current records appear on the market. Comparing the contents, you will find very few surveys run parallel.

But when you consider the torture each of these companies goes through to produce the polls, you will feel an acute sympathy for the soul who chose his manner in which to earn his livelihood.

First they must have a network of agents, extending over the entire nation in prominent spots, who report back to headquarters the tunes the local urchins have chosen to respond to in the manner of record and sheet music sales and disk jockey and juke box performances. Then the publisher of the music magazine or pamphlet must determine which record received the best reception over the past week, which tune ranks second, and so forth.

The fact that all magazines of this type have slightly varying popularity charts is no small wonder.

A solution would be to junk all Elvis Presley records, or merely keep on playing Presley releases until the bobby soxers staged a revolt. All depends on the way you look at it.

Don't know whether Elvis Presley has affected your household as he has mine, but there has been a slight change regarding the new star. The source of guidance for three teen-agers (one up and coming), my mother—has established a set of hard and fast rules she thinks have worked out very nicely. Rule number one: No Elvis Presley records before breakfast or during meals; rule number two: No Elvis Presley records when she is in hearing distance.

"Relatively new in the business" is no longer descriptive of Dot recording star Pat Boone, for he has recently passed the one-year mark in the music business. And what a year it has been! His most recent big success was "I'll Be Home," which was popular only a few months back. Perhaps his most outstanding record as a singer is that of being the only artist in the business to be on the "best selling retail record charts" 38 out of the 52 weeks of his first year of records. His current hits are "Long Tall Sally," and "Just As Long As I'm With You."

Grace Kelly's New Film 'The Swan,' Shows At Ritz

After all the noise about Grace Kelly's marriage to Prince Rainier III of Monaco, "The Swan" may come as something of an anti-climax. Still, it's an interesting story, it was well directed, it stars Alec Guinness and Louis Jourdan, and Miss Kelly, it cannot be denied, is a good actress.

HI--TALK

By Mary Sue Hale

Members of the junior class agreed that all the headaches and time spent was well worth it after seeing the seniors swoon appreciatively over the fixings for the Junior-Senior banquet, prom and party.

Promptly at 6 p.m. Saturday, seniors and juniors alike gathered in the Cosden Country Club, decorated as it had never been before. Served buffet style, the meal was eaten amid the theme of "My Blue Heaven," featuring blue and silver decorations carried out further by blue and silver programs and tickets, and floral arrangements that followed the pattern as well as plate favors, which were small white angels.

Dennis Jones served as master of ceremonies with Logan Boles giving the invocation. Kay Jamison supplied dinner music. The welcome to seniors and guests was given by Johnny Janak, junior class president. The response was given by the president of the senior class, Rodney Sheppard.

A skit in keeping with the theme was supplied by Tommy Pickle, Clena Whittington, Donnie Bryant, Don Anderson, and Bobby McMullan. Assisting with the entertainment were the Sportsmen, Johnny Janak, Walter Dickinson, and Ronnie King.

The Shortcuts, composed of Kathy McRee, Annette Boykin, Helea Gray and Sue Boykin, also contributed to the program. Darlene Agee presented a solo number.

After the banquet, the group split into two portions. Included in those retiring to the high school cafeteria with prospects of a party were Terral Turner, Patsy Grant, Joyce Lankford, Betty Cain, Loby Grant, and Mojie Henson.

The remainder of the group stayed at the club for the gala festivities of the prom. Supplying prom music were the Skyliners from Webb Air Force Base. This music drifted from the orchestra backdrop of a sky blue enclosure sprayed with silver dust.

Formations of silver-sprayed tumbleweeds, sprinkled with silver star dust lined the dance floor. This was seen through a mist of blue angel hair clouds. More blue clouds lined the walls and blue spotlights provided the only lighting.

Formally attired couples whirled on a dance floor covered with serpentine, dancing under a sky blue ceiling broken by floating light blue balloons.

A few couples spell-bound by the "My Blue Heaven" mood were Jafe Hill and Gary Brown; Sandra Flowers and Alton McCarty; Maxine Rosson and Don Shore; Clyde McMahan and LaVelle Wasson; Julie Rainwater and Jerry Barron; Toni Barron and Johnny Janak; Sandy Jennings and Walter Dickinson; Nancy King and Charles Johnson; Cecelia McDonald and Milton Davis; Lou Ann White and Gerald Lackey; Barbara and James Tibbs; Marlene Mann and David Dibrell; Pudgie Gray and Logan Boles; Jacqueline Smith and Charles Marchant; Kathy McRee and Dennis Jones; Danne Green and Don Anderson.

Following the prom, a breakfast was given for all seniors and their dates by Clyde McMahan at his Lake J. B. Thomas cabin. Following a swim in a roped off area of the lake some of those having an early breakfast were China Carroll, J. T. Baird, Tom Guin, Kendra McGibbon; Sally Cowper, Rodney Sheppard; Londa Coker, Randal Hamby; Margaret Fryar, John Westbrook; Jerry Graves, Sue Boykin; Stormy Edwards, Carol Rogers; Ann Richbourg, John Davenport; Barbara Shields, Jerry Forsythe; Iris Jones, Eddie Harris; Glenda Adams, Richard Pachall; Bettie Anderson, Norman Gound; Richard Engle, Tommie Jo Williamson. Doing the serving were Mrs. Jim Zack, Mrs. Escot Comp-ton, and Mrs. J. D. Jones.

Then after a night that occurs only twice in their lives, sleepy juniors and seniors, departed for home with mixed feelings. For the juniors, there was the feeling of achievement. Their prom had been a success. For the seniors, there was a feeling of losing something that could never be regained. The passing from one era into another. The exchange of the shelter of high school for a more demanding life, a more adult life. But for all, it was a night to remember forever.

The pressures and experiences of manning a radio station belonged to the senior class Saturday as they had complete charge of Radio Station KBST all day. The purpose, as it has been in years past, was to earn money for the senior trip and senior gift. This was accomplished by the fact that the senior class was given 30 per cent of the advertisement money that members of the class sold to advertisers of Big Spring for advertising over KBST on Saturday.

Complete with copywriters, secretaries, and announcers, the senior class filled the air waves with programs from the organizations of BSBS and music, combined with regular broadcasts.

New officers for the four Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y clubs were elected Monday night, and plans were made for the installation and rededication service.

Jacqueline Smith was elected president of Feta Tri-Hi-Y, while Lou Ann White was named first vice president, and Danne Green second vice president. Filling the office of secretary for the second year in succession will be Sue Boykin. Sue Barnes will be treasurer, Cecelia McDonald, historian, and Londa Coker parliamentarian. Janet Hogan will be chaplain.

To serve as president of senior Hi-Y next year will be Jerry McMahan. Serving as vice president is Louis Porter and Johnny Janak, secretary. Dennis Jones, for the second year in succession, will serve as treasurer, while Dornie Bryant will be chaplain. Parliamentarian will be Logan Boles, and Walter Dickinson is new sergeant at arms.

Johnny Roy Phillips will be serving as president of Junior Hi-Y next year. Assisting as vice president will be Stephen Baird, while Julius Glickman is secretary. Treasurer is Bob Leach, chaplain is Robert Stripling, and parliamentarian is George Peacock.

Barbara Coffey was elected president of next year's junior Tri-Hi-Y, while Brenda Gordon was elected first vice president and Nita Farquhar second vice president. Selected to be secretary is Prissy Pond, and Lynn McMahan was elected treasurer. Serving as historian will be Sandra Havins, and Sammie McComb will be parliamentarian.

New officers will be installed tomorrow night at the First Methodist Church beginning at 8 p.m. Registration for summer Hi-Y camp, which will be held August 14-19 near Hunt, are due to be turned in Monday night at regular "Y" club meetings. A $4.50 registration fee is to be turned in with registration blank.

Lamesa Woman Is Mother Of Year In Baptist District

MRS. W. J. BECKHAM

LAMESA — Mrs. W. J. Beckham has been named by the District 8 Southern Baptist Convention as the Mother of the Year. As the winner of the District 8, which includes five counties, Mrs. Beckham is now the nominee for the State Convention.

Mrs. Beckham is active in both church and civic organizations. She is director of the Joy Carol Choir of the First Baptist Church where she is also church organist; she has her own organ program each day on KPET Radio and is a noted soprano soloist. Mrs. Beckham is the Rotary Sweetheart and pianist and is active both in P-T-A and the Band Mothers Club.

The Beckhams have three sons, C. T. and Josh who are in the Air Corps in Fairfield, Calif., and Pat who is a student at Baylor. One daughter, Cookie, is a member of the Lamesa Junior High School.
