Cypriots Hold Strike To Protest Hangings

NICOSIA, Cyprus (U)—The Greek population of Cyprus launched a general strike today in retaliation for the hanging of three young Greek Cypriots convicted of murder in the underground war for union with Greece.

British authorities braced themselves for new rebel protests but there were no immediate new violence.

Reports reaching Nicosia said the strike was island-wide among Cyprus' 400,000 population of Greek descent. Workers stayed off the jobs and stores did not open.

NAM Opposes 'Tinkering' With Economy

CHICAGO (U)—The National Assn. of Manufacturers today told the Democratic Platform Committee that any tinkering with new national policies which the NAM said have restored business confidence could kill off prosperity "overnight."

Cola G. Parker, NAM president, made no mention of the present Republican administration but said "the change in the economic environment" has fostered steady economic growth.

"We have not entered a new era in which prosperity can be taken for granted," Parker said. "Our problem now is to develop a program which will encourage and protect this confidence, and thereby keep our nation moving forward."

Truman Promises To Name Favorite Democrats Ready To Open Convention

CHICAGO (AP)—Former President Truman promised today—and then hedged somewhat—that he will announce before Sunday his preference for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Truman, bubbling enthusiasm and grinning broadly most of the time, said to reporters later that there is only an outside chance he won't be able to make up his mind in the contest where Adlai E. Stevenson and Gov. Averell Harriman of New York are the top contenders.

Truman was asked about the civil rights issue, the hottest thing since Stevenson called earlier in the week for "unequivocal endorsement" of the Supreme Court's ruling for racial integration of public schools.

Panel Hits Hiding Of Juvenile Cases

AMARILLO (U)—A plea that the Legislature review the Juvenile Act of 1943 was made yesterday by a citizens committee which completed a four-month study of juvenile delinquents.

The committee said the act has "built a wall of secrecy which is unnatural and contrary to the system of checks and balances, and to the power of review that are essential to our form of government."

Juvenile courts established by the act are courts of record, but the judge has sole control over whether the records can be seen.

"This veil of secrecy causes the community to lose sight of its juvenile delinquents and consequently its responsibility toward them," the report said.

Arrests Are Reported In Cali Blast

PANAMA (U)—Arrivals from the blast-shattered Colombian city of Cali say a number of persons have been arrested in connection with Tuesday's explosion. Estimates of the total dead, meanwhile, ranged as high as 1,200.

The informants said Colombian authorities have launched an investigation of the dynamite blast which wrecked the heart of Cali, scooping a crater 85 feet deep and about 200 feet wide and causing damage put by some estimates at 40 million dollars.

Colombian President Gustavo Rojas Pinilla has labeled the explosion an act of political sabotage. The pro-government newspaper, Diario of Colombia, accused the President's political enemies of setting off the blast in an attempt to overthrow the regime.

Truman Gets Luxury Suite At Convention

CHICAGO (U)—A happy surprise was in store for former President Harry S. Truman today as he came here for the Democratic National Convention. It was a sparkling new redecorated suite not 12 inches removed from the original "smoke-filled room" of political tradition.

The new Presidential Suite in the Sheraton-Blackstone Hotel has a feature guaranteeing the greatest possible privacy: a telephone in the bathroom.

This is a refinement which the hotel staff, who showed off the five-room suite to some newsmen last night, credit to the late Harry L. Hopkins, Franklin D. Roosevelt's adviser.

Hopkins reasoned that (A) an important political figure sometimes wants to make calls without other people being privy to his secrets, and (B) about the only place a president can be alone is in the bathroom. So Hopkins ordered such phones installed at the time of the Democratic National Convention of 1940.

30 Sacrificed To Save Trapped Men

MARCINELLE, Belgium (U)—Rescue teams sealed off the upper levels of the burning Casier du Bois coal mine today, dooming an estimated 30 of the 260 men trapped below in the hope of saving the others from suffocation.

With oxygen tanks strapped to their backs, workers descended the main shaft of the 3,300-foot-deep mine in relays with big slabs of spun-glass fibers. With these, they shut off all passages from the smoke-filled shaft down to about 2,500 feet. They hoped this would enable them to descend to lower levels where most of the trapped men were believed to be.

The miners were trapped when the fire, caused by a short circuit, melted an elevator cable and sent the lift crashing to the bottom of the pit. Other escape routes also were cut off. Twenty-five miners escaped aboard the elevator before it was lost.

Salty Superstition Gets Out Of Hand

Evidently the superstition got out of hand Wednesday.

A disturbance was reported at Jackie's Drive-In, 709 W. 3rd, Wednesday night. Police officials investigated and found it was just a customer throwing salt.

The only catch was that it was still in the shaker, and he threw it across the room.

THE AIRPORT ISSUE

Those Who Benefit Most Will Foot Largest Part Of The Bill

Whether it is a car, a new refrigerator, a house or a county airport, it is always well to ask: "What will it cost?"

The project, as near as engineering estimates can determine, will be $500,000. At any rate, that is the amount of the bond issue. To this must be added, over the 25 years required to retire the bonds, the interest charges.

However, it is true that the issue will not raise your tax rate. The reason is that the bonds would be serviced out of the permanent improvement fund. Last year when Howard County voters reallocated the county tax rates, they left 22 cents in the permanent improvement fund. Fourteen cents of this goes to service the courthouse and jail bonds; the remaining eight cents to the library fund. However, the maximum 22 cents now levied brings in $33,500 per annum, which is sufficient to handle the courthouse and jail bonds, the $12,000 allotted to the library, and leave enough for the airport bonds. Because the 22 cent rate now levied is the maximum, the tax rate could not be increased.

The airport proposition will be financed locally. One reason that action has been delayed so long is that every possible avenue of federal aid has been exhausted. The CAA said, in effect, that the community's airport was given to the military in order to secure Webb AFB, and that CAA already had given its help to develop that airport.

Thus, one way you may look at it, the $500,000 bond issue is the price tag the community might place on getting and keeping Webb AFB. Over in our neighboring city of Abilene, citizens went out and literally raised a million dollars through subscription to secure a site for an air base. You might also consider the sum of the bond issue a price tag on continued aviation and other commercial progress for our community.

Howard County today has a ratio of bonded debt to valuations of 2.39 per cent. Even with the airport bonds, the ratio would be only 3.42 per cent, which one of the lowest in the state.

The preponderance of the county's population lives in the city of Abilene, where the majority of the bonded debt is concentrated. The key to Korea's future lies with the 16 million farmers, about 80 per cent of the population.

Most farm families exist on the output from less than an acre of worn-out land. Many have lived in misery for so many generations they are lethargic and unwilling to help themselves or each other.

AKRON, Ohio (Sp)—This was Henry Hendricks' day in Akron. As the Big Spring champion arrived for the All-American Soap Box Derby here Sunday, he was rushed to Derby headquarters at the Mayflower Hotel.

When the car, carrying Henry alone, streaked to the hotel behind screaming police escort, he stepped out before television cameras and a welcome by the official derby band.

After his introduction, Henry was registered and rushed to Derbytown, a boys' camp where he will stay until after the races Sunday.

The Big Spring champ will learn this afternoon which heat and lane he will race in against American's best on Sunday.

Friday he will go to Derby Downs on the outskirts of Akron, and make a test run of the track. He also will spend the morning getting his racer in shape for the big day.

Accompanied by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Hendricks, and his brother, Wesley, Henry arrived by train here early this morning.

Key To Korea's Future Lies With Poverty-Ridden Farmers

SEUL (U)—An 81-year-old man who has guided this infant republic since its birth eight years ago begins a third term as president next Thursday. Syngman Rhee's political foe Chang Myon becomes vice president.

What is in store for this battered country?

Can it ever achieve an independent existence without the millions in U.S. aid now pouring in? If Rhee does not live out his third term, is the country sufficiently stable and mature to avert political chaos?

There are no pat answers, but a canvass of informed opinion reveals areas of agreement.

Young Vincent Farmer Puts Water From Lake Onto Crop

By JESS BLAIR

There is very little underground water in the Vincent community, but this didn't stop Vernon Wolf from irrigating 40 acres of cotton this year. He had water in another place, on top of the ground and back up behind a large earthen dam. This dam was built across Willow Creek in 1950 and drains water from about five miles upstream. Early last spring when it was nearly full, he decided to try irrigating with it. He spent $4,000 on a big motor and pump and bought 3,000 feet of aluminum pipe, which was enough to reach across one end of the field so he could water down the row. The field was sod land and wasn't due to make anything the first year if dry farmed. Young Vernon irrigated the field once at planting time and then had enough water to get half way across it again. He then had to wait a few weeks until a heavy July rain west of him sent enough water tumbling downstream to fill the tank again. This week he started over the field again and figures he has had 13-acre feet, which will be enough to put a four-inch application on the cotton. The crop is not all as good as the part shown in the picture, but should average at least a bale to the acre. Next winter Vernon intends to build the tank dam eight feet higher and somewhat longer. By putting another 12,000 yards of dirt in it, he thinks the storage capacity can be boosted to about 40-acre feet.

GOP Story Boils Down To 3 Words

By RELMAN MORIN

As an aid to Republican campaigners, the GOP National Committee recently compiled a booklet listing 24 aspects of the Eisenhower administration's record, plus details of these claimed achievements and some side-swipes at the Democrats. Even skeletonized, the story runs to 102 pages. But it boils down in fact to three words which appear on the first page of the book — "Peace, Prosperity, Progress." These three, and particularly the first two, will constitute the core of the Republican Presidential campaign. They have even been linked in the slogan, "Everything Booming But The Guns." The order of precedence of what the book calls the 24 "accomplishments" of the administration gives the direction of the GOP appeal this year. In No. 1 position is the statement that the present administration "ended Korean fighting and bloodshed; waged peace instead of war." Then, "cleaned up the mess in Washington" gets the No. 2 spot, indicating that Republican speakers will miss no opportunity to recall the mink coats and deep freezes of 1952. But the next six items all refer to prosperity and one says flatly, "achieved greatest prosperity in history." The word, "Progress," of course is a kind of catch-all for such assertions as "reversed the 20-year trend to centralization of power in Washington," "set up health, education and welfare dept.," "started St. Lawrence Seaway," etc. Seven pages have been devoted to foreign policy, an area where the clash of argument almost certainly will be loudest. Says the booklet, "propaganda victory won at Geneva by Ike's convincing sincerity, which forced Russians to retract charge of U.S. potential aggression."

Democratic candidates — particularly Averell Harriman — already have begun attacking the President for his role at Geneva and the short-lived "Spirit of Geneva." Along with the claims of Republican achievements, the book also devotes some attention to the Democrats. Neatly indexed are five references to former President Truman, and others to Adlai Stevenson, and Sen. Estes Kefauver. Curiously enough, the 1952 slogan — "You never had it so good" — which was then the property of the Democrats bobs up again, this time in the GOP bag. The booklet quotes George Meany, president of the merged CIO-AFL as saying, on June 29, 1955, "Yes, right now we never had it so good." The Republican platform committee has as its chairman the tall, handsome senator from Connecticut, Prescott A. Bush. He said he has not yet been in conference with many members of the committee. "In general though, I would think the platform will call attention to the accomplishments of this administration. This will certainly be the base."

NOT TO MENTION POLICEMEN It's A Wise Man Who Knows How To Find His Own House

DEAR BOSS: There was a piece in the paper recently about the confused and chaotic situation in this here city of ours in the matter of house numbers. Seems someone sort of goofed when it came to tacking numbers on residences in certain sections of the town. Since I live in one such mis-numbered house, I claim qualification to discuss the situation. In the five months I have occupied this residence, I have had to explain in elaborate detail to business establishments and service places just how it is that my house is on the south end of Pennsylvania instead of the north end as it logically ought to be. You see, my residence is numbered 405 Pennsylvania. Why that is the number it bears, I have no idea. Technically, if you use the same general system which is loosely applied over the town, the number should be 2105, or maybe 2200 something. Last week some friends of mine arrived in Big Spring in the wee small hours of Saturday night. Not knowing exactly where I lived, they stopped in an all night service station. The station attendant was a little vague. He thought that the address was "sort of over that way." A police patrol car was in the station at the same time. The two policemen came over to my friends and offered to guide them to the address. My weary visitors happily accepted the offer. That was somewhere around 1:30 or 2:00 a.m. Off went the police car blithely on its way—incidentally in the wrong direction. Right behind came my friends in their car. The officers escorted them to the extreme north end of Pennsylvania (which ain't Pennsylvania at all—it's Aylford) and began flashing their spot light on house numbers. No soap. The search continued. Up and down the streets moved the ghostly caravan, the cops ahead, my friends following. Finally, the officers came to a halt for a conference. "Thanks a lot," said my friend. "We're sorry to have bothered you. Maybe we can find it." The officer shook his head. "No, sir-ee," he said. "This thing has become a challenge. We are going to find that address if it takes all night." The other officer suggested they query the police station by radio. A two-way discussion followed. The parade started off again on a new clue. This ended in failure. "I have the phone number," said my friend. The harassed officer brightened up. "That ought to help," he said. "Even if we have to get the chief out of bed, we're going to find that address for you." A radio message to the station. The dispatcher, armed with my phone number, called the house. There was a conference between us and the dispatcher. We offered to wind up our jalopy and go rescue the stranded visitors. Trouble was the dispatcher wasn't sure from where the radio car had called. Finally, by use of landmarks — such as the Veterans Administration Hospital—we oriented the dispatcher. He, in turn, relayed the information to the patrol car. The patrol car took off again. Right back of it rolled my friends' car. So around 3 a.m. the parade pulled up in front of our house. One of the officers mused: "This is one address I'll sure not forget." So, you see, Boss, this proves that it is a wise resident of Big Spring who can say with any assurance he knows where he lives. Your confused reporter, —SAM BLACKBURN

Has New Reducing Method

Little theatre find Felicia Farr is displaying her talents both in TV and at Columbia Studios. She tells of a unique method for losing three pounds in three days in today's Hollywood Beauty.

HOLLYWOOD BEAUTY

To Lose Those Pounds? No Food After Noon!

By LYDIA LANE HOLLYWOOD — Before Felicia Farr's pictures, "Jubal" and "Reprisal," had been shown on the coast I was getting fan mail from many readers asking me to interview this dynamic new personality.

breakfast I will have grapefruit, coffee and yellow cheese and toast. I love cheese for breakfast. And before the clock strikes 12 I will have eaten a nice steak, green beans, green salad and ice cream," she smiled. "It isn't hard to fast after that."

"I've been so busy," she confessed, "and I love it. I've done three pictures and a 30-minute TV show in four months."

Felicia chatted enthusiastically about Hollywood. "The make-up people are so wonderful. I thought I'd been given top advice in New York. But here they pointed out that my face would be more interesting if I followed my natural lip and eyebrow line which are pointed. It was going against my natural contour when I rounded my mouth and eyebrows. It doesn't sound like much," Felicia said in parting, "but when I compare my old photos with the new ones, the change is really for the better."

"Once in a while I get a craving for sweets and away I go," she explained. "And when the scales rise what do you do?" I asked. "I have no problem dropping weight," this dark-eyed beauty from the East Coast told me. "It works like magic. The trick is that I eat whatever I want until noon and after that nothing. I can lose a pound a day on this diet."

THE SHERBET DIET One of the most sensational diets ever to come out of Hollywood is Virginia Mayo's own special "Sherbet Diet," Leaflet M-47. This diet, scientifically worked out to let you safely lose up to 25 pounds in 5 weeks, features a special lemon sherbet along with lots of health-giving foods. Get your copy of this unusual diet by sending 5 cents AND a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Lydia Lane, Hollywood Beauty, in care of the Big Spring Herald.

Hard-Pressed Braves Face Crucial 5 Days

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

Milwaukee's pennant-hungry Braves, their mound staff hurting with ace Bob Buhl on the sidelines, open five fateful days in the pressure-packed National League race tonight with their second two-night double-header in 24 hours against the St. Louis Cardinals. The fourth-place Cardinals split with the Braves last night, winning 3-2 in 10 innings after a 10-1 thumping, Brooklyn's runner-up Dodgers were dumped 8-5 by Pittsburgh. The Cincinnati Redlegs belted the Chicago Cubs 8-2, climbing to within six percentage points of the Brooks and 2 1/2 games of Milwaukee.

Philadelphia made it six in a row with an 8-3 job on the New York Giants. In the American, Mickey Mantle slugged his 35th home run — for his best one-season total in the majors — as the New York Yankees hammered Washington 12-2. Second-place Cleveland was knocked off by the Chicago White Sox 7-6 on Sherm Lollar's 14th-inning home run. Boston moved within six points of the Tribe, beating Baltimore 7-2 as Ted Williams, hitting instead of spitting, walloped his 13th home run to break a 2-all tie in the sixth. Detroit defeated Kansas City 8-7.

Milwaukee's manager Fred Haney, trying to make hay, subbed Lew Burdette for rookie Taylor Phillips in a gamble for the sweep in the nightcap. But Herm Wehrmeister fouled it up with a four-hitter and singled home the winning run himself. Rookie Bob Trowbridge handled the Cards with a six-hitter for a 2-0 record in the opener. Del Crandall, Johnny Logan and Joe Adcock made it easy with home runs — two by Joe, who added his 27th in the nightcap. Bob Alaylock was the loser.

Wehrmeister, now 7-4, gave up Adcock's third home in the second inning and the tying run in the seventh on Bill Bruton's squeeze bunt. Wally Moon homered in the opener.

Frank Thomas, whose error gave the Braves two runs in the first, set things right with a three-run homer in the Pirate first off loser Roger Craig and the Buccs took it from there. Red Munger, a 37-year-old right-hander, won his third with relief help in a three-run ninth.

Ted Kluszewski and Gus Bell homered for the Redlegs, who eased in on six cut errors and a four-hitter by Johnny Klippstein. Bob Rush, who has won 10, lost his fifth.

Stan Lopata, Willie Jones and Ted Kaczanski homered in support of Robin Roberts' 14th victory for the Phils.

Bill Skowron and Elton Howard also homered for the Yankees. Bob Turley won his sixth.

Williams, fined $5,000 for Tuesday's spitting episode, clasped his hand over his mouth after slugging his 420-fog-plus homer. Mickey Vernon clubbed a three-run homer in the eighth as Mel (No-Hit) Parnell won his sixth with an eight-hitter.

Lollar drove in three runs for the White Sox, tagging reliever Cal McLish for the clincher homer. Gerry Staley won it.

Al Kaline and Frank House each homered and also smacked RBI two runs to take the lead in the sixth against losing reliever Jack Crimin. Jim Bunning won it in relief.

The local sports pages last Sunday were full of news of young Dick Ebling, but perhaps you didn't connect them all.

He started last Friday evening pitching a no-hit game for the Yankees against the Owls in Little League play, then raced to the municipal swimming pool, where he proceeded to win the trophy for being the outstanding junior entry in the YMCA Aqua Carnival.

He's not very big, even as Little Leaguers go, but he's a very talented athlete.

Tension-Filled Tam Play Begins In Chicago Today

CHICAGO (AP) — Golf tournament pros today started their search for the rainbow's end in the $50,000 winning pot of gold in Tam O'Shanter's "World" championships. A field of 93 will fire in the first round of the 72-hole sweepstakes over Tam's exacting 6,915-yard landscape, knowing that it will take four days of sub-par tension-filled play to capture the richest award in golf. The total purse is $101,200 with second place worth $10,000, third $5,000 and fourth $3,000. The list scales down to $100 for 60th through 97th position.

The $50,000 winner's share is accompanied by an optional contract of 56 exhibitions at $1,000 each and all expenses paid. Last year, Julius Boros' "World" cham-

UCLA And USC Seniors Can Play 5 Games

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—Two West Coast gridiron giants, UCLA and Southern California, got back a bit and vital segment of their eligibility-riddled football teams last night when the Pacific Coast Conference ruled their seniors could play five games per man in 1956. At the same time the conference warned that pair and its two other errant members—Washington and California—to clean up their athletic back yards or "be expelled from the conference as of Aug. 1, 1957."

The action was announced at the close of a joint session of the presidents and faculty athletic representatives of the nine member schools. Chairman Robert G. Sprout of the Presidents' Council said conference solidarity was "stronger as a result of today's action."

Five schools — Oregon, Oregon State, Washington State, Stanford and Idaho—were given clean bills of health. For two days prior to the joint session the faculty members who run the conference had examined self-confessions prepared by the nine members. Earlier in the year, when placed on probation by the conference for illegal financial aid to athletes, UCLA had declared its entire football team ineligible. Southern California did the same for 42 gridders and two trackmen. The conference then ruled this action too harsh and modified it to one year of lost eligibility for each player.

Yesterday's action restored the coming year's seniors to eligibility for five consecutive games. Sprout said he assumed the coaches would select the games in which the forgiven seniors would play. The two Southern California trackmen will be allowed to take part in half the scheduled meets.

Garden City Cats Build With Six 1955 Lettermen

GARDEN CITY (SC) — Coach Targe Lindsay will build his 1956 six-man football team at Garden City around six returning lettermen. They are Lorin McDowell, starting quarterback with the Bearcats last year; Milton Mow, 230-pounder who lettered two years; Jim Davee, a starter at left half on defense last year, although only a sophomore; Lord Jones, a shifty 140-pound junior-to-be; Kenneth Rogers, 160-pound junior; and Doug Gray, 165-pound senior center. Lindsay is also expecting great things out of Jerry Fuller, a 165-pound junior from Louisiana, ineligible last year. Missing from the Bearcat lineup will be such standouts as Jimmy Smith and Eddie Engel, two all-district players; Dale Hilger, Royce Pruitt, Jim Nelson, Rob Childers and Eugene Davee. Mow, reasons Lindsay, has the potential to become one of the finest six-man players in West Texas.

Davee should be one of the toughest and best conditioned boys in the district this fall, barring injury. A 155-pound junior, he will be a regular on both offense and defense. Jones will be one of the shiftest and fastest boys on the team this year. He averaged 15 yards per carry as a substitute back last year.

The real speed merchant on the Bearcat team will be Rogers, who the coach is counting on to develop into a tremendous ball carrier. Squadmen back from last year include Bill Chidress, 155-pound senior end; Theibert Ashill, 145-pound junior quarterback; Clifford Stephens, 145-pound sophomore center; and Mark Schafter, 140-pound back.

Promising freshmen who will bid for varsity jobs include Ben Cox, back; Frank Murphy, end; Harold Jones, back; Robert Quintana, quarterback; Dennis Carverley, end; Jim Childress, center; and Ralph Schafter, back.

Forsan was defeated in only one conference contest. Lindsay has booked five non-conference games for his charges, in addition to five district bouts.

The schedule: Sept. 7—Knox here. Sept. 14—Fort Davis here. Sept. 21—Alameda (Brewer Vets). Sept. 28—Goli here. Oct. 5—Robb here. Oct. 12—Owen. Oct. 19—Sterling City here (C). Oct. 26—Alamogordo (C). Oct. 30—Merton here (C). Nov. 3—Alamogordo (C). Nov. 10—Water Valley (C). (C) — Conference games.

McGuire Named Coahoma Coach

COAHOMA, (SC)—Billy Row McGuire, 22, of Weiner, has been named to succeed Jimmy Ray Smith as junior high school coach at Coahoma. McGuire, an all-district performer in four sports while in high school, will receive his degree from Sul Ross college this summer. He is married.

Teen-Agers Head Into 2nd Round

WILLIAMSTOWN, Mass. (AP) — The survivors faced two grueling rounds of competition today in the U.S. Golf Assn. National Junior Amateur championship at Taconic Golf Club.

Jack Nicklaus of Columbus, Ohio — a 1955 quarter-finalist — was among the 64 teen-agers who made it through yesterday's first round. Double rounds also are scheduled for tomorrow and Saturday.

Nicklaus, the only quarter-finalist from last year eligible at this time, eliminated Gary Olson of Turlock, Calif., 5 and 3.

While fans cheered his every move at the park, a Massachusetts legislator filed a bill in the Massachusetts State House to prohibit obscenity and slander by fans toward athletes. Offenders would be fined $50.

One man sent a personal check to Williams, then made arrangements with a local bank to handle contributions to help pay the Williams levy. Office girls in a Boston firm put ads in the local papers asking fans to send dollar contributions directly to Ted.

Guettler Explodes For 52nd Homer

SHREVEPORT (AP)—Ken Guettler, the Texas League's home run king, clouted his 52nd round tripper of the season against Austin last night. The 23-year-old Shreveport outfielder needs three more homers to tie a record set in 1924 by Clarence Kraft, Kratt, playing for Fort Worth, hit 55.

Williams Gives Crowd A Thrill

BOSTON (AP)—Ted Williams re-acted to his $5,000 spitting fine with a temper-soothing home run while Boston fans started fund drives for him, stormed the turnstiles and cheered.

Williams, at his best in the spotlight, crashed a game-deciding home run and a single in last night's 7-2 Red Sox verdict over Baltimore. He clasped his hand over his mouth as he returned to the dugout.

The boss of some fans — which had prompted Ted's expensive display of salivary contempt Tuesday — were smothered by the repeated roars of the 30,338 Fenway Park "family night" customers.

Williams, the great slugger, hammered his 47th major league homer far into the right field seats. Club owner Tom Yawkey, who imposed the record major league fine on Williams, was among the onlookers as Ted edged Boston to within half a game of second-place Cleveland.

While fans cheered his every move at the park, a Massachusetts legislator filed a bill in the Massachusetts State House to prohibit obscenity and slander by fans toward athletes. Offenders would be fined $50.

One man sent a personal check to Williams, then made arrangements with a local bank to handle contributions to help pay the Williams levy. Office girls in a Boston firm put ads in the local papers asking fans to send dollar contributions directly to Ted.

British May Pull German Units To Meet Suez Crisis

LONDON (AP)—Britain today was reported to have advised her NATO allies that the Suez Canal crisis may force her to pull certain individuals and military units out of West Germany.

Earlier reports said the British might bring home a whole division to replace troops being sent to the Mediterranean. The British War Office declined to confirm or deny the reports.

The reports underlined Prime Minister Eden's intimation to a worldwide radio audience last night that Britain is prepared to use force as a last resort to obtain international control of the Suez waterway.

Eden expressed confidence a "workable scheme" could be found to resolve the dispute over Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser's nationalization of the canal. He said the British "do not seek a solution by force," but he declared:

"This I must make plain: we cannot agree that an act of plunder which threatens the livelihood of many nations shall be allowed to succeed.

The allied diplomats said Eden's government has given no indication of either the nature or number of troops it may withdraw from the Continent. Britain now maintains four divisions, of about 15,000 men each, in West Germany in accordance with a pledge Eden gave to the nine-power conference on Germany last year.

The British also keep a tactical air force in Germany.

The earlier reports said the troops to be withdrawn would not themselves be sent to the Mediterranean, but would join British strategic reserves at home, replacing the Mediterranean-bound 1st and 3rd Infantry Divisions.

In his broadcast, Eden declared Nasser "has shown he is not a man who can be trusted to keep an agreement." He charged the Egyptian leader had seized the canal "for his own ends."

"Our quarrel is not with Egypt," Eden said, "still less with the Arab world. It is with Col. Nasser."

Termining the Middle East oil that passes through the canal a matter of life and death for Western Europe, the Prime Minister warned:

"If Col. Nasser's action were to succeed, each one of us would be at the mercy of one man for the supplies upon which we live. We could never accept that. With dictators you always have to pay a higher price later on—for their appetite grows with feeding."

The Daily Telegraph, which supports Eden's Conservative party, saw in his speech "clear implication" that Britain is prepared to use force if Egypt rejects proposals for international control of the canal.

Eden spoke shortly after the 19th nation had accepted an invitation to attend the conference called by Britain, France and the United States to seek international control of the Suez. The talks are to begin in London next Thursday.

Replies to conference bids still were awaited from the Soviet Union, Egypt, Spain, Indonesia and Greece.

Authoritative reports said Egypt would boycott the conference.

Russia's Foreign Minister Dmitri Shepilov said the Soviet Union would announce by Friday whether it would attend. There were strong indications in Moscow that the Soviets will accept, but it was understood they want the meeting broadened to include more Arab and Communist nations.

Underlining Eden's words on British determination to achieve international control of the canal, more military forces were readied for movement into the Mediterranean.

Two British infantry battalions and a brigade headquarters were alerted for the start of a massive 200-plane trooplift to Cyprus and Malta. Flights with other units were alerted for the start of a massive 200-plane trooplift to Cyprus and Malta. Flights with other units were expected to continue over the weekend.

At Southampton, four troopships loaded men and material for sailings within the next week.

"We have too much at risk not to take precautions," Eden said. "We have done so. That is the meaning of the movements by land, sea and air of which you have heard in the last few days."

Describing the Suez as the "greatest international waterway in the world," Eden said:

"Through it travels today about half the oil, without which the industry of this country, of Western Europe, of Scandinavia and many other countries could not be kept going. This is a matter of life and death to us all."

He accused Nasser of breaking promises and said the nationalization of the Suez Canal Co. was carried out "without consultation and without consent."

"By Egyptian law the company's employees, French and British, are ordered to stay at work under threat of imprisonment," Eden said. "The pattern is familiar to many of us . . . We all know it is how Fascist governments behave and we all remember only too well what the cost can be in giving in to fascism."

The Prime Minister said the canal must be run in the interests of all countries and "in our view this can only be secured by an international body." That was the purpose, he added, in calling the London conference.

"I am confident that the conference can produce a workable scheme for the future of the canal," he said.

Outlining British hopes for international control, Eden said:

"There will be wealth for all to share, including Egypt. There is no question of denying her a fair deal or a just return.

"But if anyone is going to snatch and grab and try to pocket what really belongs to the world, the result will be impoverishment for all, and refusal by some countries at least to lead their lives at such a hazard."

The Egyptian Embassy in Paris issued a statement asserting that Nasser's government would not revoke its nationalization of the canal. The statement said the British and French military preparations were evidence that "colonialist impotence does not hesitate to increase tensions in pursuing its imperialist aims."

The embassy also said Egypt would improve the canal so that a tanker of any tonnage could use it. It added that Arabic and French would be the two official languages of the nationalized canal authority to make things easier for employees and users of the canal.

Funeral Held For Boyd Gibson Child

GRANBURY (SC) — Funeral services will be held here today at 5 p.m. for James Robert Gibson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Gibson, 1101 Ridgeway in Big Spring.

James Robert, 6, died in a Glenrose hospital early Wednesday morning.

Rev. Maple Avery, pastor of the East Fourth Baptist Church in Big Spring, will conduct the service.

Survivors include his parents; a brother, Steve Gibson; one sister, Cheryl Gibson; the paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Gibson of Granbury; and the maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harley Cherry, also of Granbury.

Refreshing—but not filling

Wonderful what the modern diet trend—the trend to lighter, less filling food and drink—has done for people's looks, as well as for their health!

It's this up-to-date taste in diet that makes today's men so lean and trim, keeps women so lovely and slender.

Pepsi-Cola keeps pace with this wholesome trend. Today's Pepsi-Cola, reduced in calories, is never heavy, never too sweet. It refreshes without filling.

Have a Pepsi—the modern, the light refreshment.

Billy Graham Film Booked

Upon arrival in Los Angeles from his 30,000 mile evangelistic tour through Asia, Evangelist Billy Graham told reporters that "we were constantly amazed at the response in India and throughout Asia. You would have to see it to believe it!"

People in the Big Spring area will have an opportunity to "see it" through the new documentary film, "Eastward to Asia," which tells in detail the story of the Rev. Graham's meetings in India and seven other oriental countries.

The film will be shown Friday evening at 8 p.m. in the College Baptist Chapel at Birdwell Lane and North Monticello.

Filed by the professional documentary cameramen in each country, "Eastward to Asia" portrays graphically the culture and way of life in those countries, and captures the thrill and inspiration of the huge crowds which attended every evangelistic service at which Mr. Graham preached.

The picture steps beyond the usual documentary film, however, for it presents an evangelistic message, and is climaxed by a close-up interview with Billy Graham in the study of his home as he recounts the 8-week tour.

Gross Burned In San Antonio

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — The third burning cross in a month was found last night at the San Antonio city limits.

The cross, about six feet high and four feet wide, was on the highway 90 right of way near two settlements, one occupied by Negroes, the other by a group of farmers. It was near Lackland Air Force Base.

Bexar County fire chief Cliff Holcomb said the cross seemed to have been wrapped in military blankets and soaked in an inflammable liquid.

He said it would be checked for fingerprints.

Uncle Ray:

Numerous Pets Are Displayed By Boys

By RAMON COFFMAN
BEDFORD — This city, with a population of 55 thousand, is fairly close to the center of England. It is one of the places where ancient Romans (chiefly soldiers) lived from 1,500 to 1,800 years ago. Numerous remains of the Romans, including clay jars, have been found in and around Bedford.

On my way here, I saw a real estate sign within about 100 feet of the railway tracks. It read: NEW HOUSES FOR SALE BY WILLIAM OLD.

Frank C. Pape, widely known artist, has moved here from Tunbridge Wells. He lived with his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Pape, and four grandsons — Timmy, Barry, Nicky and Benny. All of these folk are my cousins, but we need expert figuring to decide how many times "removed" we are!

I have played pingpong with my younger cousins, who are in their teens. A few hours after my arrival I asked whether the family had any pets. I had failed to observe a dog or a cat in the house. The answer came quickly: "Yes, we have hundreds of

Two of my young cousins led me to an area behind the house, and showed me several guinea pigs, along with birds of many kinds. I saw six white fantail pigeons, two orange weavers, two green singing finches, five rollers, 10 golden pheasants, 15 silkie, a pair of Java sparrows, some guinea fowls and perhaps 50 budgies.

Never before have I looked at such a large private collection of birds. Some of them were nesting. If this sort of thing keeps up, I think the Pape family will find itself in the bird business!

Possibility Of Another Huge Lake For Area Is Envisioned

The decision to undertake studies of potentialities of another dam on the upper Colorado River may in time prove to be quite as momentous as the original decision to create Lake J. B. Thomas. This is the opinion of E. V. Spence, general manager of the Colorado River Municipal Water District, a former member of the state board of water engineers and a former inter-state water compact commissioner.

Directors of the CRMWD, meeting here last week, gave the green light which resulted Wednesday in filing with the state board of water engineers a presentation for the study on the Colorado River south of Colorado City and north of the southern Mitchell County line. Reassessing demands in light of growth more rapid by 25 per cent than had been anticipated, the board elected to have another look at long range supplies.

Spence said he was going immediately to Austin to confer with the state board of water engineers relative to gauging stations to be operated as a cooperative undertaking between the board, the district and the U. S. Geological Survey. He said he would ask for one gauge somewhere between the confluence of Big Silver Creek with the Colorado and north of the county line. Another will be sought on Beals Creek branch of the Colorado. Above Big Spring, there is an area of saltation on Beals, which in years of scant rainfall results in chloride concentrates.

This points up one of the phases of the study — that of quality. S. W. Freese, Fort Worth, consulting engineer for the district, told the board last week that stations immediately below the point of study showed a four year maximum of 161 parts per million chlorides (salt). The U. S. Public Health recommended standards allow up to 250 ppm. Part of the study will deal with means of trapping or by-passing any areas of serious surface concentration of salty water, or of sectors where salt water might percolate up from below. Freese was confident that means could be developed to further improve the already acceptable quality of the proposed new reservoir.

If a site proved feasible in extreme Mitchell County, he continued, a drainage area in excess of 2,500 square miles would be above the dam. Lake J. B. Thomas, which provides for a maximum storage of 204,000 acre feet of water, some 40 miles upstream, has a drainage area of 900 square miles. The presentation envisions the appropriation of 66,000 acre feet per annum, which would call for a dam big enough to impound a lake of more than 300,000 acre feet. This could yield over 40 million gallons per day on a sustained basis if it produces in the same ratio as Lake J. B. Thomas. Such a lake would guarantee much more than the projected needs of member cities and present customers, if the rough engineering estimates pan out. This would leave ample cushion to negotiate with other users, such as Midland, on terms that would be mutually beneficial to these customers and to the district.

Spence looked upon the new study as new evidence of the district's area function as a grassroots creation dealing now with the water problem and looking years ahead to insure maximum development in West Texas.

The big dance on Saturday night will be the final event on the program.

Attending the meeting from the Big Spring chapter are: Wesley Grigsby, senior counselor; George Peacock, Johnny Ray Phillips, Bob Leach, Adrian DeGraffenreid; DeMolay. They are accompanied by Clyde McMahan, Donald Loveman and Eddie Haynes.

Local delegates, it was said, are making no particular effort to obtain a state office nor to enter any of the contests.

Those interested may contact Ed Johnson at 1010 N. 2nd. Johnson, a recent Big Spring resident, is a past president of the Big Spring Chapter of SPEBSQSA. The first meeting will be held in the Speech Auditorium at the High School on Aug. 16.

The men—Pvt. James Gordon, 23, of Alachua, Fla., and Pfc. Fred R. Chandler, 21, of Kansas City, Mo.—are among seven Negro soldiers on trial in the case. The blonde girl's voice quivered at times and tears streamed down her face as she appeared as a prosecution witness before a general court-martial.

The girl, whose name was not made public because of her age, said she was raped five times in a period of about 15 minutes while her German boy-friend was restrained.

The seven soldiers are charged with raping her last July 9 in a woods near Bamberg, where they are stationed. The incident set off a wave of German protests against American soldiers.

Tech Scientist Studies How A Flame Burns

LUBBOCK (AP)—Fire has been known since cave man days, but man still hasn't found out everything he wants to know about it.

Dr. R. G. Rekers of Texas Tech is one of those still studying it. Bob Garrett, graduate student from Garford, is helping Rekers.

The primary purpose of the research, Rekers said, is to understand more about the chemical reactions within a flame, although many practical applications of the findings may be possible in the future.

More efficient use of fuels could well be one result of the study.

The spectroscope, which separates light into colors and parts, is the basic tool of Rekers' study. Many added refinements, including a built-in camera system, produce the spectrograph needed for such intensive research.

The light from burning gas such as methane is photographed through the spectroscope at varying pressures and conditions. The picture shows what pressure and conditions get the most from the gas in heat and light.

Photographs can show what happens to the many molecules that make up gas as it burns. At some temperatures, elements are often released, later to recombine or perhaps form new substances.

Study Of Flame

Dr. R. G. Rekers, Texas Tech chemist, gazes into a flame as he seeks answers to one of mankind's oldest questions: What happens when a flame burns? The answers to the question may have application to everything from rocket and jet fuels to the kitchen stove.

School Leaders Quit To Open Post For Kin

KNOTT (SC)—Two members of the School Board here resigned Tuesday night to enable a distant relative to be hired as a school employe.

Meeting in session the board also voted to give discounts for payment of school taxes during the first months of the school term.

Forrest Cockrell was hired by the board as bus maintenance man, but before he could be hired, Lloyd had to resign. M. A. Cockrell is current secretary of the board.

State law forbids a person being hired when relatives serve on the board of trustees. A special meeting will be held to name new members.

Trustees voted to give three per cent discount on school taxes if paid in October, two per cent if paid in November, and one per cent for taxes paid in December.

In addition, the group changed allocation of tax funds. Previously, $1 had gone to the local fund and 50 cents to the interest-bearing fund.

The change voted Tuesday night calls for $1.25 to go into the local fund and 25 cents to the interest and sinking account.

Superintendent Bill Bolin reported to the board that with filling the maintenance position, his staff is complete.

A special meeting has been called for the trustees for Aug. 27 to elect two new members. Also at that time, they will go over the new budget also.

Reds Rush Aid To Suppress Revolt TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—A report from Hong Kong to the official Chinese Nationalist Central News Agency says the Reds are rushing a mechanized unit to Tibet to help suppress revolts against Communist rule. Quoting "reliable sources," the government agency also reported that the Reds are completing construction of a big jet air base near Lhasa, the Tibetan capital.

Pleasant Politico Heads Dixie Bloc In Drafting Of Platform

By ED CREAUGH CHICAGO (AP)—Last night we saw upon a chair. A governor—or was he there? The press thought yes. The gov. said "Hey?" No doubt he wished we'd go away. That was the situation last night when some old friends of Mississippi Gov. James P. Coleman dropped in for a chat. Word had got about that Dixie meeting was in the works. Since Coleman has emerged as the principal spokesman for the South in the drafting of the Democrats' platform for this year, it seemed likely that Coleman would be the host.

You'd never have known that this was the way it turned out, though. Unless you had normal hearing. A reporter went to Room 1151 at the Palmer House. That's the governor's room number. Quite a considerable debate was flowing out over the transom. Words like "candidate" and "platform" floated through the corridor with great distinctness.

So the reporter knocked on the door of Room 1151 to ask what was going on. A plumbing man in shirtsleeves answered the knock. "Meeting?" he inquired. "No meeting going on here." And, gently, he closed the door. Ten minutes later there were more reporters knocking.

Some friendly fellow. Glasses. Southern accent. "We'd like to speak with Gov. Coleman," said one of the newsmen. "I'm the governor," said the shirtsleeved man, affably. "See you in about 45 minutes." He did, too. And into his room went the press.

It hadn't really been a meeting at all, he said—just some fellow Southerners who were paying a call. Politics? Why, sure they talked politics, said the governor. What else? This is a Democratic National Convention, isn't it? What would you expect a bunch of delegates to talk about? The governor of Mississippi was as pleasant as the most hidebound carpetbagger from the northlands could ask.

But he wasn't giving away any Southern secrets. What would the South do in the convention?

That, said the governor generally, would await developments. Would the South go for front-running candidate Adlai Stevenson?

Well, said the governor, just as generally, the delegates he knew had nothing against Stevenson "as of this date." But, he said, you never know what sort of civil rights plank the convention may come up with. Fact is, you never know just what will happen. Some pretty fair sharpshooters among the fast-assembling news corps took a try at drawing the governor out. Sitting in their midst, he told them exactly what he wanted to. What he didn't care to say, he passed over with disarming charm.

Going down in the elevators later, most of the reporters said it didn't look to them as if the South—at least as personified in Gov. Coleman—was spilling for a fight.

But most of them voiced a hunch that the governor and his friends wouldn't go away after next week's convention entirely emptyhanded.

Chicago Polio Outbreak Grows

CHICAGO (AP)—Chicago's mounting polio outbreak—now 609 cases and 13 deaths—today appeared heading toward the halfway mark of a full-scale epidemic.

Clinics and hospitals, wary of the mid-August and September peak polio season, stepped up their program of inoculating thousands of Chicago children with Salk antipolio vaccine.

The U.S. Public Health Service, on the basis of the city's nearly four million population, has set 1,330 cases as the number marking an epidemic.

The 1956 polio surge in Chicago—the nation's highest—is more than 3 1/2 times greater than a corresponding period in 1952 when the previous high was set with 170 cases and 11 deaths. The total number of cases in 1952 was 1,203.

watched the mushrooming polio outbreak did not plant any mass inoculation of delegates.

Dr. Karl Meyer, chief medical officer for the convention, termed the polio emergency as not serious enough to warrant any planned shot program.

The city's Board of Health president, Dr. Herman N. Bundesen, reporting 27 new cases and three deaths yesterday, said, "There is no cause for alarm for delegates."

Bundesen explained that 300, or 49 per cent, of the 609 cases were in the high incidence West Side area while the International Amphitheatre—site of the convention—is on Chicago's Southwest Side. However, Bundesen continued his appeal for vaccinations, especially to parents of children in the 5-and-under age bracket. So far, this group had 332 or 54 per cent of the 609 cases. Moreover, only 39 of the 609 polio victims to date had Salk shots.

The stepped-up vaccination drive in Chicago is now averaging about 50,000 inoculations a day, Bundesen reported.

How to make your fried chicken

Picnic-Perfect

Blend together 1 beaten egg, ¼ cup milk, 1 tsp. salt, ¼ tsp. pepper. Dip each piece of chicken into egg mixture—then into your favorite breading (flour, cornmeal, bread crumbs, cracker crumbs or crushed cornflakes). Place ¼" of shortening or oil in large skillet. When grease is hot, place coated chicken pieces (meaty parts first) into skillet to brown, turning with tongs. When all pieces are brown, reduce heat, cover tightly and cook until meatiest pieces are fork tender. (20-40 min.) Uncover the last 5-10 minutes to crisp the skin.

A Wonderful Way To Relax

Listening to records on the new hi-fi set which her husband constructed and reading her favorite book, is Mrs. Eugene Kalnitsky. Her husband, Capt. Kalnitsky, is a base doctor at Webb. Both natives of New Jersey, the Kalnitskys have been in Big Spring a little over a year. Mrs. Kalnitsky's contribution to our food page today is a delicious and unusual recipe for Italian Lasagne. This is one of the favorite meals around the Kalnitsky household and they both love to surprise their guests with this exotic menu.

Italian Lasagne Will Provide Tasty Surprise

What better way to spend time in the kitchen than having the restful strains of a hi-fidelity phonograph filling the air?

Mrs. Eugene Kalnitsky combines one of her hobbies of listening to records while she does the cooking duties.

For guests or special occasions Mrs. Kalnitsky enjoys preparing baked Italian Lasagne. Besides being a busy officers' wife Mrs. Kalnitsky teaches school during the regular school year. This past year she taught primary grades at Airport School. Mrs. Kalnitsky attended Ohio University and graduated from New Jersey State Teachers College.

Dr. Kalnitsky received his doctor's degree from New York-Bellevue College of Medicine. His pre-med work was done at Rutgers University with his internship in Brooklyn.

The Kalnitskys are now listening to their favorite records on their new hi-fi set which Capt. Kalnitsky constructed himself. They enjoy listening to classical music the most, but also enjoy all other kinds of music. Reading is another pastime they both like.

The Kalnitskys have lived in Big Spring for a little over a year and the Captain still has a year of duty to serve.

Mrs. Kalnitsky said that people in Texas are extremely friendly and she enjoys the congenial air very much. "When we were first moving in, neighbors started coming over with coffee and all kinds of things to eat," she commented. "Everyone is so warm and friendly and just open their homes to you, which is unusual to people from my part of the country," Mrs. Kalnitsky added.

Here is the recipe for this tasty, spicy and highly unusual Italian dish called Lasagne. Mrs. Kalnitsky says that some substitutions may be used if the ingredients mentioned are not available.

To serve with this recipe use a tossed green or vegetable salad and hot French garlic bread and tall, cool glasses of iced tea.

For the sauce: Brown in saucepan 1/2 cup olive oil; 1 small onion, diced; 1 chopped clove of garlic. Add and simmer for 15 minutes 1 No. 2 1/2 can of Italian tomatoes (plain tomatoes can be used), 1 tablespoon of chopped parsley, 3 basil leaves, salt and pepper to taste and 1 can tomato paste.

Meatballs: Mix thoroughly 1/2 pound chopped round steak, 1/4 cup bread crumbs, 1/4 cup milk, 1 beaten egg, 2 tablespoons grated cheese, 2 tablespoons of chopped parsley, salt and pepper to taste. Shape into 1 1/2 inch meatballs. Brown in fry pan with olive oil and add to saucepan.

Simmer mixture for 30 minutes. While the sauce is simmering, boil 6 quarts of water with 3 tablespoons of salt added and 1 tablespoon of oil. When water is boiling rapidly slowly add Lasagne (this is a noodle type ingredient which is unavailable in town, but can be purchased at larger places—to substitute use a 1 pound package of the larger plain noodles) and cook about 25 minutes. When done, add cold water to stop further cooking. Drain well.

Arrange casserole with several spoonfuls of the sauce on bottom, then add a layer of Lasagne (noodles) and several slices of mazzarella (a type of cheese); then add 4 or 5 tablespoons of ricotta (when this Italian cream cheese is not available, use a package of cottage cheese finely mashed). Next sprinkle with grated cheese and spread about 1/4 of the sauce and meat balls on top. Repeat layers, ending with Lasagne and sauce. Bake in 350 degrees oven for 20 minutes.

New 'Burger Is A Delight

By CECILY BROWNSTONE

We've invented a hamburger. Tasters have given it their blessings and naturally we're prejudiced in its favor. Our inspiration for the hamburger came from the Italian way of serving roasted sweet red peppers and anchovies together. If you are partial to these two foods, do try this recipe.

OUR OWN HAMBURGERS

Ingredients: One pound ground beef chuck, 4 whole canned pimientos (drained), 8 caper-rolled anchovies (drained), salt, pepper.

Method: Make 8 flat matching six-patties of the beef; each should be about 4 inches in diameter. Place a pimiento in the center of 4 of the patties; tuck 2 anchovies into each pimiento. Cover with 4 remaining patties and seal edges well with fingers so hamburgers look plump and are about 3 inches in diameter. Grill over charcoal or in a little butter in a skillet to desired doneness. Sprinkle both sides of hamburgers with salt and pepper during cooking.

We like these hamburgers served with well-battered toast but otherwise unembellished. But if you are planning to cook and serve them outdoors, you may wish to offer them with hamburger rolls, slices of tomato and onion and d pickles.

Olives Add Flavor To Combination

Macaroni and cheese is always a favorite dish, but next time you plan on serving it, why don't you try this new touch?

Ingredients: 2 cups uncooked macaroni, 2 1/2 quarts water, 2 teaspoons salt, 4 tablespoons butter or margarine.

4 tablespoons flour, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon pepper, 2 cups milk, 1/2 pound cheddar cheese, grated, 1-3 cup sliced stuffed olives, 1 cup soft bread crumbs, 2 tablespoons butter, melted.

Cook macaroni in boiling water, with two teaspoons salt added, for about 10 minutes or until tender. Drain and rinse with hot water. Melt 4 tablespoons butter in top of double boiler, over boiling water. Add flour, salt and pepper; stir until blended. Add milk gradually and stir until sauce is thick and smooth. Add cheese, reserving 1/4 cup for topping. Stir sauce until cheese is melted; add olives.

Place macaroni in a 2 1/2-quart casserole; pour sauce over it. Pour melted butter over bread crumbs and toss until all are coated. Sprinkle remaining 1/4 cup grated cheese and the buttered crumbs on top of macaroni. Bake in moderate oven, 350 degrees F., for 20 minutes, or until topping is nicely browned.

Blueberry Muffins For Surprise Dish

If you like blueberry muffins that have an excellent texture, and yet aren't overly sweet, here's your recipe.

BLUEBERRY MUFFINS

Ingredients: Two cups sifted flour, 4 teaspoons double-acting baking powder, 3/4 teaspoon salt, 1 egg, 1/4 cup butter or margarine, 1/4 cup sugar, 1 cup milk, 1 cup blueberries (washed and picked over and drained), 2 tablespoons sugar.

Method: Sift together the flour, baking powder and salt. Whip egg with rotary beater (hand or electric) until thick and ivory colored. Cream butter and 1/4 cup sugar; beat in whipped egg until smooth; add sifted dry ingredients and milk; beat only until smooth. Mix blueberries with 2 tablespoons sugar; fold into batter, adding any of the sugar that the blueberries haven't taken up. Fill buttered muffin-pan wells two-thirds full. Bake in hot (425 degrees) oven 20 minutes or until muffins are lightly browned and a cake tester inserted in the center of one of them comes out clean. Run a small spatula around edges of muffins and remove; serve at once with butter. Makes 12 to 14 medium-sized muffins.

Cantaloupe, Mint Used For Refreshing Salad

Want to whip up a cool and refreshing taste-treat? Then try a mold of jellied lemon and orange juice flavored with mint; add pale apricot-pink cantaloupe balls so they will be suspended in gleaming splendor.

Serve this mold at your best company buffet. Cold ham and hot biscuits will accompany it beautifully. Add a bowl of romaine and water-cress sprigs dressed with olive oil, wine vinegar, prepared mustard and, if you like, a touch of garlic.

For a first course on this menu, creamy clam chowder sprinkled with chives is perfect. Serve the soup hot or cold. For dessert offer both vanilla and coffee ice cream with a coffee or chocolate sauce. Or if you're energetic, serve a home made mousse or Bavarian Cream instead of the ice cream, making it coffee, chocolate or maple-syrup flavor. Crisp cookies and coffee (hot or iced) will top off the dessert course delightfully.

MINTED CANTALOUPE MOLD

Ingredients: Two envelopes unflavored gelatin, 1/4 cup cold water, 1/4 cup hot water, 1/4 cup sugar, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 1/2 to 2 tablespoons coarsely chopped fresh mint, 1/4 cup fresh strained lemon juice, 1/4 cup cantaloupe juice or cantaloupe juice and water, 1 cup fresh strained orange juice, 2 1/2 cups fresh cantaloupe balls, fresh mint leaves for garnish, 2 cups cantaloupe balls for garnish if ring mold is used.

Method: Soften gelatin in cold water and set aside. Mix hot water, sugar, salt, chopped mint and 1/4 cup of the lemon juice. Heat to boiling point; strain and pour over gelatin; stir until dissolved. Strain cantaloupe juice from pulp around seeds. Pour into a cup and add enough water to make 1/4 cup. Add to gelatin with remaining 1/4 cup of the lemon juice and the orange juice. Refrigerate, stirring often, until mixture is about as thick as fresh egg whites and has begun to set. Fold in the 2 1/2 cups cantaloupe balls. Turn into a 6-cup mold. Chill until firm. Unmold and garnish with mint leaves; if ring mold is used, fill center with 2 cups cantaloupe balls. Makes 8 servings.

Note: If you haven't a French ball cutter, use the 1/2 teaspoon size from a set of round bowl measuring spoons to make the cantaloupe balls.

FOR WEIGHT WATCHERS Despite cantaloupe's satisfying hint of sweetness, half a melon contains only 37 calories. The melon is high in vitamins, particularly vitamin A.

ter, use the 1/2 teaspoon size from a set of round bowl measuring spoons to make the cantaloupe balls.

Eggplant Good Dish Served With Lamb

A different and delicious vegetable dish that is especially good served with lamb.

Ingredients: One eggplant (1/2 pound), 1 medium-sized onion, 2 large (1 pound) tomatoes, 1/2 of a large green pepper, 2 tablespoons olive oil, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon pepper, 1/2 teaspoon sugar, 1 can (8 ounces) Italian-type tomato sauce.

Method:

Pare eggplant and cut into 1/4-inch cubes. Peel onion and chop fairly fine. Plunge tomatoes into boiling water or rotate over a gas flame; remove skin and slice; remove as many seeds as possible with fingers, then dice. Cut pepper into thin strips. Heat oil in 10-inch skillet; add eggplant and onion; cook gently until eggplant is soft and light brown, stirring often — 3 to 10 minutes. Add tomatoes, green pepper, salt, pepper, sugar and tomato sauce. Simmer until thoroughly hot, stirring several times. Makes 6 servings.

Cranberry Apricotade

Fruit-flavored beverages are in demand in hot weather! Here's one everyone will like.

Ingredients: One-half cup cranberry juice cocktail, 1 can (12 ounces) apricot nectar, juice of 1 large lime (about 2 tablespoons).

Method: Mix cranberry juice cocktail, apricot nectar and lime juice together; chill. At serving time, fill four 10-ounce glasses with ice cubes; pour fruit drink over ice.

Coahoma School Board Fills All 35 Faculty Posts Filled By Board

COAHOMA (SC) — All positions have now been filled for the Coahoma schools, Supt. H. L. Miller announced Wednesday.

Miller also announced school would open on Sept. 4 and the first day would follow the regular and complete schedule, even to the operation of buses and lunchroom. The faculty has been convoked for 9 a.m. Sept. 3.

A band school has been announced for Aug. 20, and indications are that sessions will be held in the late afternoon. All former students as well as beginners were urged to enroll.

During the summer all 10 teachers have been repaired, and the school plant has been given a general retouching and necessary maintenance. The football field has been put in excellent condition.

The board has accepted the resignation of Jimmy Ray Smith, Miller announced, and elected Billy Row McGuire, Sul Ross graduate, to be junior high coach and faculty member. Fred Eugene (Gene) Adams, Wink, was named band director, succeeding Margaret Douglas. Adams had four years experience in the Wink High School band and four years in the Sul Ross band. The band this year will have new red uniforms with white trim.

Shirley Jean Probst, a graduate of Hardin-Simmons University, will be in charge of the public school music program. She succeeds Mrs. Robert T. Mason, who this year will divide time between Gay Hill and Elbow. Miss Probst is an accomplished musician in piano, band and voice.

Miller reminded parents of all beginning youngsters that they must bring copies of their birth certificate and vaccination certificate on opening days. These are required for admittance.

Thirty-five persons were elected to faculty positions Tuesday by the Big Spring Independent School Board.

Although six were lost through resignation, Supt. Floyd W. Parsons announced only eight teaching and one counselling position remained to be filled.

Still to be filled are two social science teachers for the senior high school; a math teacher and counselor at the junior high; four elementary teachers; and one elementary counselor.

Resignations of Mrs. Wanda Allen, Wilder A. Roe, Emmette Broderson, Mrs. Margaret Allen, Mrs. Carolyn Canning, and Mrs. Ann McComb were accepted.

Those elected for senior high assignments were Dee Jon Davis, Big Spring, BS degree, science; Bill Daves, Big Spring, M. Mus. degree, choral; Frank S. Farar, Fort Worth, M. Education, distributive education; Emil B. Pierson, Beeville, M. Education, vice principal and counselor at high school; Ed Shive, Lubbock, BS degree, industrial cooperative training; W. P. Van Pelt, Big Spring, BS degree, biology-coach; John P. Yates, Port Arthur, B. Education, PE-coach.

Elected for junior high assignments were Sam Bell, Overton, BS degree, driver education-coach; Joy Boles, BA degree, English; George W. Curry, California, MA degree, social science; Hugh Hamm, Denton, BS degree, science-coach; Hollis Lloyd, Meadow, M. Education degree, English; Jimmy Marcus, Lubbock, BS degree, math-coach; Irene M. Moss, San Marcos, BA degree, English; C. W. Tanner, Beeville, BA degree, driver education; Rayetta Walzel, Uvalde, BA degree English; Louise Williams, Texarkana, BA degree, speech.
