West States Presentation Of Suez Plan

LONDON (AP)—The Western Big Three met today to decide how to confront Egypt with their Suez Canal plan, backed by 17 of the 22 nations at the London conference. There was no indication President Nasser of Egypt would accept his proposal despite its solid backing. It calls for international control of the waterway he seized last month.

Secretary of State Dulles first met for 40 minutes with V. K. Krishna Menon of India, whose rival plan leaving Egypt in control of the canal won support from only four nations assembled here. One nation is undecided.

Then Dulles conferred with Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd of Britain and Foreign Minister Christian Pineau of France.

French sources said the Big Three was determined to arrange for presenting the proposal to Nasser without delay. It was possible two separate groups would be chosen to present Egypt with the rival Indian and U. S. plans.

Dulles also met briefly with Prime Minister Eden and Soviet Foreign Minister Dmitri Shepilov. Shepilov championed the Indian plan yesterday.

It appeared, as delegates went back into session, that the best the Big Three could hope for would be Egypt's acceptance of India's plan for an international group to give advice only to the Egyptian canal management.

The conference was nearly over. The only business before today's session was appointment of a committee to inform Nasser of the decisions reached. Presumably, the committee would also suggest the opening of negotiations.

Dulles was said to feel that representatives of the United States, Pakistan and Sweden should serve on the committee.

In brief, this was the outcome of the weeklong conference: Seventeen nations endorsed the proposal presented by Dulles for an international board, associated with the U. N., to run the 103-mile canal. The 17 were the United States, Great Britain, France, Australia, New Zealand, Pakistan, Iran, Ethiopia, Turkey, Denmark, Norway, Sweden, Japan, Italy, West Germany, the Netherlands and Portugal.

Four nations — India, the Soviet Union, Ceylon and Indonesia — backed the substitute plan presented by Menon to leave the canal under Egyptian management but with international advisors.

The 22nd nation at the conference, Spain, did not come out in formal support of the Indian resolution but offered an amendment — which was not accepted — that would have given the same effect to the Dulles resolution.

All 22 nations agreed that Egypt's nationalization of the canal four weeks ago must be recognized, and that some form of international participation in its management was needed to insure that it always will remain open to world shipping. The difference was over whether the international group should actually operate the canal or only give advice to the Egyptians.

Egyptian spokesmen have consistently rejected the idea of international management of the canal. But since India and Russia kept in close contact with Nasser's government throughout the conference, it was believed the Egyptian president might agree to an international advisory group.

A Family Caucus

The family gathered together as President Eisenhower left Washington for San Francisco to accept second term nomination by the GOP convention. Mrs. Eisenhower beams on grandson David, 5; their son, Mal, John Eisenhower holds Mary Jean, 8 months, standing beside his wife Barbara. Barbara Ann, 7, looks toward her baby sister and Susan, 4, looks at the photographer making the picture. The children remained in Washington.

Nixon's Father Seriously Ill

WHITTIER, Calif. (AP)—Vice President Richard M. Nixon sped to this Los Angeles suburb by plane from the San Francisco Republican convention today to be at the bedside of his critically ill father, Frank A. Nixon, 77, who is stricken at 4 a. m. with an abdominal ailment. His physician said "it is very doubtful that he will survive."

Richard Nixon, expected to be nominated for a second term as vice president at the GOP convention, arrived by plane at International Airport at 9:50 a. m.

He, his wife, his brother Donald and the latter's wife, left at once by Secret Service car for the elder Nixon's home.

"We won't know how long we're going to stay until we see the doctor," the vice president said.

"But we're going to stay through the day and overnight. If conditions will permit, we'll try to get back to the convention tomorrow afternoon."

Nixon said he couldn't say at this time whether he would be able to get back in time for his scheduled speech accepting his almost certain renomination.

"But I won't know anything for sure until I talk to the doctor," he said.

The vice president, looking drawn and slightly nervous, expressed concern over his father's condition.

"The doctor has told us it is critical," he said. "It is the type of attack which could be fatal soon, or he could hang on for a few days."

The elder Nixon was stricken with excruciating pain when he arose at 4 a. m. to go to the bathroom, his physician reported. His condition quickly became critical.

By midmorning his condition was unchanged.

"He is in a great deal of pain," his doctor said, "but we have given medicine to counteract. He is conscious, but drowsy, and knows what is going on about him."

Nixon had prevailed upon his family to keep him at home.

Ike Says Nixon 'Still Acceptable'

No Nominations By Acclamation

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 22 (AP)—President Eisenhower said today Harold Stassen told him he had decided to drop his "dump Nixon" campaign.

He said Stassen told him he was going to ask the convention for permission to second the nomination of Vice President Richard M. Nixon for a second term.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—President Eisenhower talked politics today with GOP National Chairman Leonard Hall at the Republican National Convention made ready to renominate the President for a second term. Hall came away with these pronouncements:

1. Eisenhower "hopes it will be an open convention."
2. Vice President Richard M. Nixon is still "perfectly acceptable" as a running mate.
3. Eisenhower "will not discuss any other nominees for the vice presidency."

Nixon himself had flown away to Whittier, Calif., where his 77-year-old father, Frank Nixon, was reported to be critically ill.

What change this might make in convention plans was for the moment an unanswered question.

The delegates to this 100th anniversary GOP gathering were all set to renominate Nixon, and Hall said that for the moment, anyway, the convention would go ahead as planned.

He said he couldn't say, however, whether the elder Nixon's illness would interfere with plans for the vice president to make an acceptance speech of his renomination tomorrow night when the convention is to wind up.

Eisenhower talked with Nixon by telephone.

Hall said the President expressed wishes of all Americans for the quick recovery of Nixon's father.

Hall said there would be convention roll calls for both the presidential and vice presidential nominations.

A rule adopted yesterday barred nominations by acclamation.

Hall said that under convention rules anyone could be nominated against Nixon and that delegates were free to cast votes for others than Nixon even if Nixon's was the only name put before the convention.

Hall was asked whether Eisenhower was "fighting mad" over charges against his administration made during the recent Democratic convention at Chicago. The President had been pictured in published reports as angry over what he had seen of the Democratic gathering on television.

"I have never seen the President when he was fighting mad," Hall said, "and he certainly didn't appear that way this morning."

Hall had breakfast with Eisenhower. Through the morning, the President was receiving a string of other Republican leaders.

A convention showdown on Harold E. Stassen's campaign to ditch Nixon remained a possibility.

The mood of the delegates was such that only an outright expression of preference for someone else would induce them to sidetrack Nixon. And there was absolutely nothing to indicate Eisenhower would do that.

Eisenhower himself is certain to be renominated unanimously at the convention session late today, immediately after that, the delegates will choose the vice presidential nominee.

Pinned Under Steel Rods

Thirteen-year-old John Sparks grimaces in pain as firemen attempt to free him from steel rods under which he was pinned for 45 minutes. Helping his father move his firm to new quarters in Chicago, John was guiding the 12-foot-long steel rods into a steel rack when the rack collapsed, spilling tons of rods on the boy. His right leg was badly mangled.

'Over-Confidence' Is Porter Worry

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—H. J. Porter of Houston, chairman of the Texas delegation to the Republican convention, said today one problem of the GOP this fall may be over-confidence.

Porter spoke out as his 54-member delegation prepares to vote today for President Eisenhower and Vice President Nixon.

After several days of visiting with delegates and listening to party leaders, the Texans appear strongly in the Nixon corner.

"If anybody in our delegation is against Dick Nixon, he hasn't gotten in touch with me," Porter said.

The delegation chairman, Sen. Rayburn led the former to victory over the forces of Gov. Shivers last May, but another round in the battle comes up at a convention next month.

Porter said that, whatever the outcome, "a lot of the conservative Democrats are going to vote for the President again."

"A lot of them believe in Republican principles," he said. "We'll be able to prove that 1952 wasn't just an accident."

But there are some signs that Texans may not want to contribute as much to the GOP campaign this fall as four years ago, figuring that the election is a cinch, Porter said.

But he went on, "I think we'll be able to get the money in."

The delegation leader said that a long-standing split in ranks of Texas Democrats would aid the Republican ticket this year in the state just as it did in 1952.

This involves the so-called loyal Democrats and conservatives. Sen. Lyndon Johnson and Speaker Sam Rayburn led the former to victory over the forces of Gov. Shivers last May, but another round in the battle comes up at a convention next month.

Porter said that, whatever the outcome, "a lot of the conservative Democrats are going to vote for the President again."

"A lot of them believe in Republican principles," he said. "We'll be able to prove that 1952 wasn't just an accident."

Cabinet Members Laud GOP Record

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Eisenhower administration Cabinet officers paraded before the Republican National Convention last night to tell the delegates — and the nation — what had been done for the country over the past 3½ years.

But President Eisenhower's arrival here claimed the full attention of the television cameras, and left most of the Cabinet members talking to a comparatively scanty audience in the Cow Palace.

Introduced by Sherman Adams, Eisenhower's top aide, Undersecretary of State Herbert Hoover Jr. led off by reading a message from Secretary Dulles, who is in London for the Suez conference.

Dulles, the only Cabinet member not here, said the "hard and continuing struggle" against communism "needs the leadership of President Eisenhower."

Next up was Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey — but before he began to speak, Eisenhower's plane came in for landing at the airport outside of town — and the TV coverage switched out there.

Humphrey said he hopes and believes a "real tax reduction" will be possible "in the reasonably near future."

Secretary of Defense Wilson said "no nation is ahead of us now" in military strength, adding: "Nor will they be in the years ahead if we resolutely follow our present programs . . ."

Atty. Gen. Brownell pledged "full and impartial enforcement" of constitutional provisions, guaranteeing the right to vote "and other civil rights."

Secretary of Agriculture Benson said "we are proud of our accomplishment" in reversing a trend, which he blamed on the Democrats, of sharply dipping farm income and mounting crop surpluses.

Also speaking were Postmaster General Summerfield, Secretary of Labor Mitchell, Secretary of the Interior Seaton and Secretary of Welfare Folsom, as well as Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., U. S. delegate to the United Nations.

Herbert Lehman Quits Political Life

NEW YORK (AP)—Sen. Herbert H. Lehman (D-NY), a liberal pillar of the Democratic party for a generation, will return to private life at the end of the year.

The 78-year-old senator announced yesterday "with a very heavy heart" that he would not seek re-election in November. He said he is "in the best of health" but not up to the rigors of another campaign.

He said his own choice as a successor is Mayor Robert F. Wagner of New York City. But the mayor said he is "not a candidate" for the post. There were indications, however, that he might be persuaded to change his mind.

Both parties will nominate senatorial candidates at state party meetings next month.

Lehman's last public appearance before yesterday's announcement was at the Democratic National Convention in Chicago. He and Wagner worked for the nomination of Adlai E. Stevenson as the party's presidential candidate.

Lehman said he would campaign actively in the state and elsewhere for Stevenson this fall.

A wealthy investment banker, Lehman was elected to the Senate in 1949 to fill the unexpired term of the late Sen. Robert F. Wagner (D-NY), father of New York's present mayor. Lehman defeated John Foster Dulles, now Republican secretary of state, in the 1949 contest.

College May Run Colorado City Bus

The possibility that Howard County Junior College may be on the threshold of realizing part of a 10-year dream loomed Tuesday.

Trustees authorized President W. A. Hunt to negotiate through the State Board of Control for a bus which would be used to transport students from as far east as Colorado City. The action, however, carried the proviso that any such operation would be economically feasible. Without state aid, Dr. Hunt said that transportation would not be self-sustaining but that it could approach that level. Later, tuition and state subsidy on the students would more than wash out the expense, he added.

The matter came up after 20 students at Colorado City had been denied provided transportation is available. Dr. Hunt said possibly others would be interested, as well as several at Westbrook. Many junior colleges in Texas operate buses to make it possible for young people to have college training, he reported.

The board had a "keyboard" session Tuesday, purchasing two grand pianos and authorizing purchase of a bookkeeping machine for the business office. The machine would be adaptable to interchangeable control panels which would make it flexible for several operations. This action was taken in connection with the acceptance of the resignation of Earl M. Bryant as business manager. Bryant is leaving to accept a place with Grand Prairie. Dr. Hunt said that between him and Dr. Marvin Baker, adult education supervisor,

2 Men Confess Theft, Burglary

Police and district attorney authorities apprehended two persons here Tuesday who later confessed to stealing two cars and burglarizing two establishments.

The two have made statements. Police Chief C. L. Rogers said today.

Stolen were a Mercury from Big Spring Motor Company and an Oldsmobile from Hamby-Parrish Used Cars. The men claimed they took the Mercury Aug. 15 and the Oldsmobile Aug. 8. The former was found in Big Lake and the latter was found abandoned here.

Bobby West, investigator for the district attorney, said that a polishing machine was taken from Shurbrite Auto Polishing on West Third by the two. It was to have been recovered this afternoon.

The men also confessed to breaking into Couden Service No. 1, but nothing was taken there.

No Half-Day Classes Seen

Pre-registration of elementary pupils indicates the Big Spring school system may be able to eliminate all half-day sessions this fall.

Dr. Loyal V. Norman, director of elementary education, said the advance registration listed 2,603 pupils through Tuesday. He estimated this is close to 90 per cent of the district's total, and said indications are that the district has enough classrooms to accommodate all on full-day schedules.

Central Ward students were being registered today, for assignment to either College Heights or East Ward. Central will be used for junior high classes this fall.

Registration by schools Monday and Tuesday included Airport 298, North Ward 297, East Ward 299, Washington Place 634, Park Hill 157, South Ward 126, College Heights 244, Kate Morrison 231, West Ward 295, and Lakeview 112.

Sears Is Given CRMWD Post

SNYDER — The Snyder City Council has appointed Forest G. Sears, mayor, to serve out the unexpired term of R. A. (Skeet) Schooling on the Colorado River Municipal Water District Board of Directors.

Schooling resigned his post on the board to accept appointment as superintendent of Lake J. B. Thomas. Sears is a former Snyder mayor and held that post when Snyder became a member of the CRMWD. Schooling's term on the CRMWD was to have expired in May of 1957.

Sears was mayor of Snyder at the time that city petitioned for readmittance to the CRMWD. He has been active in community affairs for many years at Snyder.

Presumably he will be here Thursday noon when the board holds its called meeting to deal principally with the problem of rates to the member cities. Under terms of the indenture, a new rating formula takes effect Jan. 1, 1957.

Mitchell Pioneer Reunion Slated In C-City Thursday

COLORADO CITY — Mitchell County's annual Pioneer Reunion is set for Thursday, according to Mrs. E. A. Barcroft, Pioneer Association official.

Registration will begin at 10 a. m. at the Civic House. During the noon recess there will be a chuck wagon lunch, free to old timers 25 years or more.

Otto Jones, Dick Gregory Sr., Howard Rogers, Buck Buckalew, Elliott Dixon and Bob May are in charge of preparing the lunch, which will be held in the National Guard Armory at the rear of Civic House.

The afternoon program, from 4 until 6 o'clock will feature square dancing, recognition of old-timers and several skills by local amateurs. Porter Richardson, manager of radio station KVMC, will act as master of ceremonies.

Sheffield Trial Near Jury Stage

LUBBOCK (AP)—The E. R. Sheffield veterans land trial was expected to go to the jury today. The state and the defense rested their cases yesterday.

Colorful Industry Figure Retires

CLEVELAND (AP)—An Indiana farm boy who grew up to be one of the most colorful figures in American industry has retired as chairman and director of the Republic Steel Corp.

Tom M. Girdler, 79, stepped aside yesterday. He had served as chairman since Republic was organized in 1930.

C. M. White was elected chairman of Republic, the nation's third largest steel company. White, who has been president, has been the chief executive officer of the firm since June 21, 1955.

Girdler, short in physical stature, bold and direct in speech and action, often tangled with unions during his career.

He was one of labor's strongest foes when the CIO was trying to organize steel workers in the so-called "little steel" strike in 1937.

At the time, Girdler was quoted as saying, "Before I sign a CIO contract, I'll go back on the firm and dig potatoes."

After a bloody Memorial Day fight in which 10 were killed in South Chicago and other struggles took place in Cleveland, Youngstown and Warren, Ohio, Girdler said: "I was doing the best thing for my country when I fulfilled my obligation to the corporation."

John L. Lewis, then head of the CIO, blamed Girdler for the 19 deaths at South Chicago. Girdler blamed "CIO arrogance."

Girdler was a sharp and outspoken foe of the early New Deal. He said one of his greatest dislikes was the impetus which the Roosevelt administration gave to activities of organized labor.

He was associated with several other firms before he joined Jones & Laughlin Steel Corp. as assistant superintendent in 1914. When he left the company as president in 1929, his salary and bonus totaled $350,000 and his stock interest had a market value of 1½ million.

The new corporation, Republic Steel, was organized in 1930 with the merger of several independent steel companies in the Midwest states. Girdler became chairman of the concern and also was president until 1937.

Lamesa Woman Is Killed In Collision

LAMESA — Lucina Somora, 35, Lamesa, was instantly killed at 8:30 p. m. Tuesday to become the 11th traffic fatality in Dawson County in 1956.

Four other persons were injured in the same accident.

They are Howard McFadden, 33, Lamesa, driver of a 1956 Mercury, who has a broken knee cap and a deep cut in the lip; Allen Harry Seal, 12-year-old son of Dr. Frank Seale, owner of the car, cuts and bruises; Otto Somora, 49, brother of the victim and driver of a pickup truck also involved in the accident, and his wife, both of whom suffered bruises and cuts.

A fourth person, who was with the Somoras, was not injured and had left the scene of the accident before Henry Crump, highway patrolman, could identify him.

According to Crump, the accident occurred on State Highway 137, two miles south of Welch. McSpaden's car hit the rear of the pickup drive by Somora.

Miss Somora was thrown out of the pickup which toppled over and crushed her.

The Mercury, Crump said, travelled 2 of a mile beyond the scene of the crash before it came to a halt.

Body of the victim is being held at the Higginbotham Funeral Home. Funeral arrangements have not been announced.

Suez Conference Not A Total Loss

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
Associated Press Foreign News Analyst

Surface indications are that the 22-nation conference on the Suez Canal crisis already is a failure. But it has not been a total loss. Most likely it is just the forerunner of more conferences to come.

In this respect, the conference has contributed something valuable. It has provided a cooling off period and a situation which still could lead to highly unpleasant consequences in the Middle East.

The United States, speaking for the Western Big Three, has presented one plan for the future of the lifeline waterway. India representing the neutralist voices of the cold war, has presented another. Before the conference is over, new refinements may be added.

There is no question but that Egypt will reject the Western plan for a Suez Canal Board which in effect would internationalize the company. Egypt might be persuaded to accept an Indian proposal giving Egypt full control over the 103-mile canal, with an international body serving only in advisory or consultative capacity. In displaying a favorable attitude toward the Indian proposal, Egypt has acknowledged the vital international interests in the canal.

But the conference was carried out without the participation of Egypt, and it was thus foredoomed to general failure. There is hardly any authority in international law for a decision on the future of territory of a sovereign state.

If there is any winner in the conference thus far, it is the Soviet Union, by a slight margin. But even the Soviet Union has its problems in this respect. It is being cautious.

The Soviet Union supports the idea of a new conference of all nations involved, including all the Communist nations, all the Arab nations of the Middle East, and Egypt herself. The wily Soviet foreign minister, Dmitri Shepilov, is now in a position to claim victory no matter what the result of this meeting. If it results in a broader conference, that was the original Soviet proposal. If it results in a majority resolution begging Egypt to accept internationalization, the Russians can say this was dictated to an automatic majority by the "imperialists" of the United States and Britain. The Russians have already made it plain they think this conference can take no legal decisions.

But the Soviet problem is not a simple one. At this moment the Russians do not want — and cannot afford — a new open break with the United States, and thus Shepilov and the Soviet press have avoided attacking the United States directly in the controversy. The Russians apparently have taken note of the ugly prospects for them in the Middle East of an explosion which could hardly be confined to that area of the world. They seem to recognize that the United States must stand by its Allies in the West. Thus the Russians are making cautious, anti-colonial capital of the situation while attempting to keep it within safe bounds.

Steer Roping Set At Clovis

CLOVIS, N. M. — Date for the 10th Annual Steer Roping at Clovis, N. M., has been set for Sept. 2. This year 10 top men will rope, trip and tie 60 head of big horned 700 pound Mexican Steers.

Since its inception in 1947 the Clovis steer roping with its rich purse, has become known as the "big" steer roping attracting the nation's leading steer ropers. Each roper pays an entrance fee which is added to the prize money. Among high money winners are Clark McIntyre, Kiowa, Okla.; Shoate Webster, Lenapa, Okla.; Carl Arnold, Buckeye, Ariz.; Ike Rude, Brawley, Calif.; Everett Shaw, Stonewall, Okla.; Cotton Lee, Ft. Sumner, N.M.; and Toots Mansfield, Big Spring, Tex. Making competition keen this year will be promising younger ropers, such as Don McLaughlin, Smithfield, Tex.; John Dalton, Federal, Wyo.; and Sonny Davis, Ft. Sumner, N.M.

Adding to the spectator interest will be a Calcutta pool. This is a sale in which the ropers are auctioned to the highest bidder. The total amount is then split 40, 30, 20, and 10 per cent with the party buying the winning ropers dividing the proceeds.

Big steer roping combines man and horse in a rugged contest against a wild thrashing steer. In this event the horse is trained to run past the steer after the roper has made the catch. The horse turns away when the trip is made, jerking the steer down and continues dragging it until the roper swings to the ground and is in position to cross and tie any three legs of the steer.

LEADERS IN YOUTH RALLY
Ronnie Flowers and Barbara Houston

Youth Rally Slated For All Next Week

Young people of the First Christian Church are all set for a Youth Rally which they hope next week will draw in other young people for fellowship and inspiration. Leading in the special week will be Ronnie Flowers, Tulsa, Okla., ministerial student at TCU, and Barbara Houston, Kearney, Neb., a junior at TCU. They will arrive here Saturday in time for a get acquainted party at the home of Caroline Wilson at 800 Settles Street.

The rally starts with the Sunday 11 a.m. worship when Flowers will speak. He will supply the pulpit again at 7:30 p.m. as he will each evening at the same hour through Aug. 31. Song services will be conducted by Miss Houston, who also will direct the recreational activities. While the young folk have a recreational period following each evening's service, Flowers will speak to the adults in the church sanctuary. Then the two groups will gather for a brief nightly devotional set aside as "God's moment."

Daily activities will begin at 8:45 a.m. with a meeting of the Round Up teams. The Rev. Clyde Nichols, minister of the church will counsel with the group at that time. At 9:30 a.m. there will be a meeting with all the youth to plan the day's program. During afternoon Round Up teams will be engaged in visitation, enlistment and in some recreational activities.

There will be a picnic at the City Park at noon Monday. Jennie McEvers will be the hostess. On the evening of Aug. 31, there will be a chuck wagon feed at 6 o'clock.

Directing arrangements is a committee headed by Brownie Rogers, general chairman. Other leaders are Jennie McEvers, co-ordinator; Jerry Gardner, Christian Youth Fellowship president; and Caroline Wilson, ChiRho president.

Flowers long has been active in student and religious affairs. In high school he was chaplain of his DeMolay chapter and president of his C.Y.F. At Oklahoma A.A.M., where he was a freshman, he served on the board of the student activities, was president of his church's Young Adult fellowship. He has been vice president of the TCU Disciples Student Fellowship, president of his fraternity, a worker in religious emphasis programs, and an intermarital sports letterman.

Miss Houston was a representative on the student board in high school and on the Y-Teens, editor of the school paper and recipient of Elks' most Valuable Student Award. She also was president of the C.Y.F. at Kearney and co-president of the district and of the West Nebraska C.Y.F. Conference. At Drake, where she was a freshman, she was president of the campus YWCA and was active in Christian service organizations. Miss Houston was secretary to the executive committee for the religious week committee at TCU and editor of the Student Angle, a South west regional student youth newsletter.

3 Die As Plane Misses Houses

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP) — The commander of a stricken Air Force transport plane banked away from a group of houses to an open spot where the aircraft crashed and burned last night, killing three men and injuring three others critically.

None of the men was publicly identified, pending notification of their families. The cause of the crash was not determined but at least one engine was not operating.

Fragrant Dishwater Is Liquor Evidence

SOUTH NORFOLK, Va. (AP) — Exhibit A in a forthcoming illegal liquor trial here will be a big kettle of oddly fragrant dishwater. Police brought back the dishwater from a recent raid on a business establishment. Analysis showed it was pretty largely corn liquor.

Officers claim the owner of the place that was raided tried to dispose of the illegal liquor by mixing it with the dishwater in the sink.

Moore Claims Connally Aid

By The Associated Press

Waco Dist. Atty. Tom Moore's headquarters claimed support today of former Sen. Tom Connally in Moore's bid for attorney general.

Moore asserted at Gonzales Tuesday "Greedy monopolies and lobbyists are trying to buy the attorney general's office with lavish and high spending."

His runoff opponent, Will Wilson of Dallas, said Texas cannot afford to put a man in the office "whose legal opinions would be based primarily on political amosities."

"I am not going around the state promising all things to all people," Wilson said. "My pledge is simply to enforce the laws of Texas vigorously, courageously and honestly, to ferret out corruption whenever and wherever it arises and to render sound legal opinions based on the laws."

He said his experience was "proof that I will conduct the office for the benefit of the entire state and not waste time on factional political bickering and haggling."

Moore said "Texans know that I am the only candidate in the race dedicated to representing the people and not these special interests."

Thirty Thousand Acres Put In Soil Bank Program Here

Howard County farmers readily accepted the soil bank program, with 637 signing agreements to plow out cotton and wheat.

Very little wheat had been planted in the county, but 12 farmers signed wheat agreements. Seven of these also had cotton acreage in the program.

Total amount of money to be paid in the county is around $500,000, according to an announcement by county office manager of the ASC, Gabe Hammack. He said the checks would probably be mailed out sometime in October.

Total cotton acreage put into the soil bank was approximately 30,000.

Lehman Opens Gap In Liberal Ranks

NEW YORK (AP)—The retirement of Sen. Herbert H. Lehman (D-Lib-NY) from politics leaves a massive gap in the ranks of the Democratic party's liberal wing. In the view of many, Lehman was the mightiest oak in the liberal woods.

He announced yesterday that at the age of 78, after 28 years on the political hustings as governor of New York and later senator, he no longer felt up to the demands of campaigning and would not run for re-election this year.

Lehman was a tireless advocate of civil rights legislation, public housing, foreign aid. He was a relentless foe of racial segregation, immigration restrictions and the transfer of tidelands oil fields from the federal to state governments.

HERBERT LEHMAN
He had three careers

It would be hard to point out any occasion when Lehman, a determined fighter, sacrificed principle for expediency, no matter how unpopular the cause.

In this he was like the late Sen. Robert A. Taft.

Unlike Taft, however, Lehman rarely spoke in postwar years as the voice of his party. Often he found himself far to the left of the party majority.

Lehman, although often speaking up for the rights of leftist political groups, was rarely accused of being soft on communism, even by his most partisan opponents.

He frequently criticized Soviet Russia and in 1954 voted along with the entire Senate for a strong anti-Communist bill.

Lehman is a square-jawed, dignified man. His bald head is fringed by white hair, but his beaming eyebrows remain black. His private life has always been one of the utmost respectability.

The senator began his political life in 1928 at the age of 50, when he ran for lieutenant governor of New York with Franklin D. Roosevelt at the top of the ticket.

The long-time friends won with ease. Four years later Roosevelt ran for president and Lehman won his first term as governor.

He went on to win an unprecedented four terms in the governor's chair, over a period of 10 years.

He supported Roosevelt's policies almost without exception for the rest of his political life.

After service as the first director-general of the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration, Lehman ran for the Senate in 1946. He was beaten by Republican Irving M. Ives.

Three years later he won a special New York senatorial election by trouncing John Foster Dulles. Lehman won a full term in 1950.

He ran on the tickets of the Democratic and Liberal parties, the latter a New York state organization.

Lehman, in a familiar paradox of American politics, came to his liberal convictions from a background of great wealth.

He was the son of the founder of Lehman Brothers, the Wall Street investment banking firm.

He was in the textile and banking fields before entering politics.

On his 78th birthday, the New York Times in an editorial said Lehman has had three careers—in business, philanthropy and in government.

"To all that he has done he has brought a keen intelligence, a humane spirit, and an urgent sense of responsibility," the Times said.

72 May Earn Seats In Next Legislature

AUSTIN (AP)—Nine freshman senators and 63 new representatives may earn seats in the 55th Legislature.

The runoff Saturday finds two senators and 10 House members fighting for survival. In all, 29 seats are contested.

Already the new look in the Legislature shows 53 new members in the lower branch and 7 in the Senate. The Republicans hope to make a few more changes in November.

Democratic voters will decide Saturday on three Senate and 38 House seats.

Sens. W. H. Shireman of Corpus Christi and Doyle Willis, of Fort Worth seek re-election. Shireman must defeat Bruce Reagan. Willis' opponent is Joe Fyle.

Carroll Cobb and Preston Smith seek the Senate seat for District 28. Both whipped incumbent Kilmer Corbin July 28. All are from Lubbock.

Sixteen of the 31 Senate seats were involved in the primaries.

Four senators who sought re-election were beaten, two who did not seek another term were re-elected.

Methodists Set World Conference In North Carolina

LAKE JUNALUSKA, N. C.—Approximately 2,500 delegates and accredited visitors from 79 countries are due here Sept. 1-12 for the ninth session of the World Methodist Conference.

The meeting is sponsored by the World Methodist Council, a 300-member body linking 40 Methodist communions with a total membership of 18,000,000 and a constituency of approximately 40,000,000.

Bishop Ivan Lee Holt of St. Louis, Mo., council president, said the conference is expected to be the largest worldwide gathering of Methodists ever held. It also will be the biggest international religious meeting in the United States since the 1954 Evanston Assembly of the World Council of Churches.

Organized in 1881, the conference met last in 1951 in Oxford, England, birthplace of Methodism. The last session in the United States was in 1947 in Springfield, Mass. The conference, which is purely fraternal and exercises no legislative powers, is not expected to meet again in this country for 10 or 15 years.

Preceding the conference, the World Federation of Methodist Women will be in its quadrennial session Aug. 27-31. Officers include: Mrs. Ottilia de Chaves of Brazil, president; and Mrs. Paul Arrington, Jackson, Miss., vice president. Five hundred women from 34 countries are expected.

Ingrid Won't Appear On Sullivan TV Show

NEW YORK (AP)—Ed Sullivan says Ingrid Bergman will not appear on his television show after all.

Last July 17 Sullivan announced he had signed the Swedish-born actress for an October or November appearance on "The Ed Sullivan Show" (CBS).

Smathers Sees Chance To Oust 8 Republicans

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Smathers (D-Fla.), whose job it is to help make such predictions come true, says he thinks Democrats have a good chance of unseating eight incumbent Republican senators.

Smathers is chairman of the Democratic Senatorial Campaign Committee. His statement yesterday did not discuss the chances he sees for Democrats seeking Senate re-election, and so made no prediction of any net gain in the Senate, where the Democrats now hold a 49-47 edge.

Sen. Schoepel of Kansas, chairman of the Republican Senatorial Campaign Committee, has predicted a net GOP gain of four seats.

Smathers claimed "a definite advantage" for Democrat Richard Stengel over Sen. Dirksen (R-Ill.), and "an excellent chance" that Senators Bush (R-Conn) and Duff (R-Pa) will lose to Democrats Thomas Dodd and former Philadelphia Mayor Joseph Clark respectively.

He listed other incumbents he said the Democrats have "a good chance" of defeating as Senators Francis Case (R-SD), Young (R-ND), Kuchel (R-Calif), Bender (R-Ohio) and Butler (R-Md.).

Smathers' only unqualified prediction of victory, however, involved West Virginia, where no Republican incumbent is involved. Democratic Gov. William C. Marland is opposing former Republican Sen. Chapman Revercomb for the remainder of the term of the late Sen. Harley M. Kilgore (D-W.Va). Smathers said "we will win" in that state.

Adlai Stakes Hopes On What May Be Hardest Campaign Yet

LIBERTYVILLE, Ill. (AP)—Adlai Stevenson staked his hopes today on what may possibly be the most grueling speech-making campaign ever attempted by a presidential candidate.

His campaign director James A. Finnegan called it the "greatest grass roots campaign of all time."

Before it begins, Stevenson and his Democratic vice presidential running mate, Estes Kefauver, will fly into every region of the country.

Stevenson called Finnegan to his farm home near here today to complete plans for the precampaign trip, which will be climaxed by a major political address on Labor Day, Sept. 3, in Detroit under labor union auspices.

In the grass roots campaign, Stevenson will work through many crucial states, county by county, mostly by automobile.

"We know we cannot win a contest of dollars," Finnegan said in a statement. "The Republicans can outstep us 10 to 1. They'll have expensive television time to burn, but Gov. Stevenson is going to overcome this by carrying the election to the people and by making this a real person-to-person campaign; not just a canned radio-television one such as the Republicans are planning for Mr. Eisenhower."

There was no reference to the health issue in statements by either Stevenson or his campaign manager.

Next week's precampaign trip calls for joint appearances by Stevenson and Kefauver in Santa Fe, N.M., Monday; Bonneville Dam, Wash., Tuesday; Sioux City, Iowa, Wednesday; Knoxville, Tenn., Thursday; and Chicago Friday. Three other such regional appearances will be made in the following week at places yet to be determined.

"I want to talk first hand with our local and state leaders about our presidential campaign plans and get their ideas," Stevenson said. "I want to make sure we strike together in hammering home the great issues of 1956."

Finnegan said next week's visits were not designed to attract "crowds or headlines" which will come later, but to "rally our forces."

The Stevenson camp said their candidate is a vastly different man from the beaten Democratic presidential nominee of 1952, and that he is looking forward to dawn-to-midnight campaigning that will give him personal contact with as many voters as possible right up to the eve of the election.

Texas Faces More Heat

By The Associated Press

Texas faced rising temperatures with prospects of only a few widely scattered showers Wednesday.

Predawn temperatures ranged from 58 degrees at Amarillo to 77 at Galveston. No rain was reported.

High afternoon temperatures Tuesday ranged from 97 at Presidio to 89 at Dalhart.

Raymondville had 1.35 inches of rain. Harlingen got .30 of an inch, Rio Hondo .25, Weslaco .33 and Donna .04. El Paso got .44 of an inch and Galveston .30 Tuesday.

Meanwhile, light showers fell in a few areas but fair and mostly pleasant weather prevailed in most of the nation.

It was a little on the cool side in the eastern third of the country from the Ohio Valley eastward to the Atlantic Coast and southward to the Gulf. Temperatures were about 7 degrees lower than 24 hours earlier, generally in the 50s, with a few 60s in the North. Readings ranged up to the lower 70s along the Gulf Coast.

The Gray Ladies, an American Red Cross organization which trains and maintains voluntary workers to help in many different jobs, has been formed for the first time at Webb AFB in the Nurse's Aide Service field. Classes began Tuesday.

Numerous membership applications have been received by Maj. Margaret Fallon, Chief of Nurses at the hospital, from members of the Officers' Wives' and NCO Wives' Clubs. The maximum membership in the Webb chapter will be 25 members.

The first orientation meeting of the Webb AFB Gray Ladies was held at the Officers' Club, Ivy Room Monday evening. The speakers, during this first meeting, were William Snell, Red Cross field director at Webb, and Mrs. G. G. Sawtelle, executive secretary of the local American Red Cross.

According to Maj. Fallon, many of the applicants for training as Gray Ladies are working at the base hospital; however, the women must complete the necessary 28-hour training before they are eligible to wear the Red Cross uniform.

Included in the training program are lectures on military and medical setting; administration of the hospital and hospital ethics; safeguarding military information; sick and convalescent patients; the place of the volunteer in the Red Cross program; duties of Gray Ladies.

Short Outer Wear More Popular Than Ever This Season

Waist length and fingertip length jackets and short overcoats will rise to a new high level of popularity this fall.

In the waist length, or "flee" jackets, top honors go to the zip-front models in lightweight worsted fabrics, with check and shadow plaid designs. An off-beat model which could make a big impression is designed in gray and white herringbone tweed with a bright fire-engine red leather lining.

Top fabrics in the fingertip length jackets will be covert, tweed, flannel, gabardine and melton. Favored styles are those with double breasted front, wide collar and leather peg fastenings in olive green, light tan and medium gray colors.

Blazer Jackets Rate High With Scholars

Ivy League type blazer-strips are a major fashion highlight in fall sport jackets. Men are no longer saddling themselves with the burden of heavyweight clothing throughout fall and winter, and lightweight fabrics are becoming strongly favored for comfort and reasons of practical appeal.

Some of the most popular choices in sport jackets will be those featuring a vertical stripe in color combinations of deep red and Cambridge gray, gray and olive green, or medium tan and smoke blue. Most important fabrics will include medium weight wool worsted and soft, lightweight tweed.

A new fabric which is destined for high fashion significance in sport jackets, is a knitted wool worsted jersey which has a soft, tweed appearance, is light in weight and which steadfastly refused to wrinkle despite all kinds of rough treatment.

Finger Painting

Finger painting is fun for pre-school children and develops their interest in art. Mothers will find that it is a favorite occupation for older children, too, for after school hours.

There are many inexpensive sets available. Or you can make paints at home by adding vegetable coloring to thin starch. They can be applied on cardboard, wrapping paper, or writing paper.

Rebekahs Make Plans For Benefit Coffee

Plans for a benefit coffee were announced at the Tuesday night meeting of the Big Spring Rebekah Lodge 284.

Members met at the IOOF Hall with 25 present. One guest, Mrs. Kamita Cash of Shreveport, La., was introduced. Mrs. Velma O'

Donald, formerly of Weatherford, was introduced as a new member.

Mrs. Henry Roger gave a reading titled "Why I Am A Rebekah."

The coffee will be held Friday morning from 7-11 in the home of Mrs. C. B. Herring, 1501 East 2nd. All members are urged to attend.

Foot Check Is Vital To Good Health

The National Foot Health Council is again sponsoring Child Foot Health Month during September to teach children the importance of better foot care, good posture, and how to walk. The slogan is "FOOT CARE SHOULD COMMENCE IN CHILDHOOD."

During Child Foot Health Month school physicians in many states will include the examination of the feet in the fall health check-up. Foot examinations are required by law in Massachusetts, Rhode Island, and California, and many other states include foot health education for children.

During the summer months children's feet grow rapidly at play and the proper development of their feet requires new leather school shoes fitted large enough to provide for the summer time foot growth. Children's feet should be re-measured every 1 to 3 months, and fitted with correct size shoes and hosiery at all times. Outgrown footwear is the cause of bone and joint defects and deformities of the feet, legs, and spine.

There's More Hat Ahead For Girls

There's a "more hat" look ahead for the school set too, as new millinery fashions stress abridged-editions of grown-up styles!

Long-popular beanie and half-hats are on the way out as deep-crowned, small brim styles, Tyrolean types, larger bonnets and rollers are presented for young misses.

Gay colored felts, velvets and novelty yarns are the fabric leaders. Ribbons, mock jewels, and pearls are the most popular trims!

Members of the John A. Kee Rebekah Lodge met Tuesday evening at Carpenters Hall, with Mrs. Morgan Martin, vice grand, presiding. Initiation services were set for September instead of at the time originally decided upon.

Practice for the initiation will be held Tuesday evening, and all members of the degree team are urged to be present. Visits to the sick were reported.

The Chinese Auction and cake walk brought in $30 for the lodge. This will be used for the Home For The Aged in Ennis and for the Children's Home in Corsicana, during the pilgrimage to be made Sept. 25.

Twenty-two attended the meeting.

Typewriters Are Aids In Education

Authorities say that using a typewriter at an early age helps to teach children the alphabet and facilitates learning to read.

Parents should instruct the child on the machine operation; how to insert the paper, how to strike the keys, move the carriage and roller and how to start a new line. The child should be permitted to take this time tapping out the letters.

Tyrolean Style

The important provincial, or Tyrolean theme, in girls' fashions for fall brings with it velvet or corduroy jenkins laced or buttoned over new fall prints. Aprons are natural toppings for calicos and gay Tyrolean prints.

Knit Shirts Tops For Boys' Wear

No young man's school wardrobe is complete without a well-rounded selection of knit sport shirts.

And — the choice for the new trend is terrific! There are horizontal narrow stripes, wide vertical ones, heather-type yarns and bright combinations of solid colors with striped trims.

The wonderful variety of collar styles and yoke trims is inspired by the Italian influence, though the convertible opened-or-buttoned collar — and the classic crew neck are included in most collections.

Bright-hued reds, blues and browns, greys and blacks — are the important colors.

Watch Those Sizes
It is said that until the age of 12, the average youngster's shoe size changes every four to eight weeks. After twelve, the change varies from every 12 to 16 weeks.

Favors, Toys Forecast Campaigns

By DOROTHY ROE

With the whole country in an uproar over the coming election, it's time to add a light note to party decisions. You can do it easily, if you spend a few hours at your sewing machine to whip up some whimsical party symbols, which can serve as party favors, bazaar items or toys for the children.

Local sewing center experts suggest you make toy donkeys and elephants of solid-color plastic, easy to keep bright and clean and easy to make.

Each toy animal requires about a yard and a half of plastic. They are made with the help of one of the new instant patterns in which all the pieces for each animal are on one pattern piece of tissue paper. Use transparent tape to hold the pattern piece to the plastic, then cut around the piece. It's lots quicker than laying out several separate pieces.

The elephant may be made of bright blue plastic. The vest, the bow tie hidden under his trunk and his big blue eyes are made of colored plastic tape. The donkey, of course, is of pale gray plastic, with bright red vest and tie, also of colored plastic tape.

You are reminded to use a fine needle and small stitch to sew plastic. These toy animals may be stuffed with shredded foam rubber or just plain cotton batting. Never use pins to baste plastic, for the tiny tape will take care of basting problems.

For the features and vest, the colored plastic tape is simply stuck on the plastic fabric. For the bow tie, double the tape so the sticky sides are together and cut into the shape before sticking on the animal.

These toy animals will be a sure-fire attraction at a church bazaar or fair. Make them up in various colors to sell.

Or make them as a centerpiece for a fund-raising luncheon, or as favors for a planning-committee luncheon. After the election, they'll be happy with the teddybears in the children's room.

1504 Always Practical

Always feel well groomed. You'll save time and money when you sew this classic — a minimum of fabric needed and few pattern pieces.

No. 1504 with PATT-OR-AM A included is in sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, 20, 40, 42. Size 14, short sleeve, 4 1/2 yards of 35-inch; cap sleeve, 4 yards of 39-inch.

Send 35 cents in coins for this pattern to IRIS LANE, Big Spring Herald, 367 W. Adams St., Chicago 6, Ill.

Pile Coats Popular

Pile coatings from alpaca piles to synthetics in fur tones are worth watching. Because of their similarity to fur in look, feel, and color, pile coats are expected to gain widespread popularity.

Mrs. Monroe Gafford gave the Bible study titled, "The Fullness of Living," taken from a book by J. Wesley Smith. Her scripture was from John 10.

A Bible Thought For Today

The Centennial For The G.O.P

The San Francisco gathering of Republicans marks the 100th anniversary of the GOP. Its ticket of a hundred years ago, headed by the spectacular John C. Fremont, went down to defeat at the hands of a Democratic ticket headed by James Buchanan, our only bachelor President, though Cleveland was married while in the White House during his first term.

Colfax, but he was passed over four years later because he had made many enemies within the party and was suspected of intrigues with anti-Grant Republicans. In his place the party nominated Henry Wilson.

J. A. Livingston

Demo Veep Race Wasn't So 'Open'

The inside story of what really occurred at the Democratic National Convention in selecting a vice presidential nominee bears little resemblance to what the American people were led to believe happened.

of Mayor Wagner of New York, another Catholic. While Stevenson said he had not made any commitments to Kefauver, nevertheless the Tennessee senator did withdraw in his favor and a few weeks ago gave a big bloc of votes to the former Illinois governor to help assure his nomination. So it was a tough pill to ask Kefauver's managers to swallow when they were told they must seek the vice presidential nomination in an "open" convention.

Mr. Bregor

"Shh...! Daddy's trying to figure out how to buy a 24-inch screen on a 17-inch salary..."

For one thing, it was not by any means a precedent-breaking method. For the same kind of contest for the vice presidency took place at the Democratic National Convention in Chicago only 13 years ago, when Henry Wallace almost went over the top and Truman came from behind with the private blessing of FDR and the big-city bosses to dump the then vice president.

But it was the only way out for Stevenson, especially since this time, as always, the big delegations watched for a hint or nod from the managers who knew that the man who won the presidential nomination had definite ideas about what strength a running mate could bring to the ticket. For Kefauver had campaigned in many states and has an already active and enthusiastic nucleus of supporters from New Hampshire to California.

It naturally will be conceded by some defenders of Stevenson that he didn't dictate the selection of Kefauver and that the convention did it in what Stevenson himself described as a "photo finish." But the strange story of that first ballot is that the careful planning of the Stevenson managers to get Kefauver nominated in a seemingly spontaneous way almost came a cropper because of the manner in which the Southern delegations ganged up on Kefauver and supported Senator Kennedy of Massachusetts.

Kefauver, therefore, was logical and whether or not Stevenson admitted it publicly, he was under deep obligation to the Tennessee senator. It was assumed that Kefauver would win anyway on the first ballot and that the Kennedy and Wagner forces at least would have a run for their money.

Squeaking Shoes

Stevenson knew that Senator Kennedy — whose father, Joseph P. Kennedy, is a multimillionaire and a good contributor to the campaign funds of the Democrats — had been making for several months a vigorous and intensive canvass throughout the Democratic organizations of the country in the hope of landing the vice presidential nomination. It was the only organized effort of consequence for the vice presidential nomination.

Ike's Popularity Stays At High Level

PRINCETON, N. J.—President Eisenhower's personal popularity remains at the same high level that it has been throughout his first 43 months in office.

The only group in the country that receives any sizable number of mentions on this score is the farmer. Even so, only one voter in every 10 believes that the Eisenhower administration has not treated the farmers fairly.

There has been a range of only 22 percentage points—from an alltime high of 79 per cent approval in August, 1955, following the Summit Meeting at Geneva, to a low point of 57 per cent approval in November, 1954, at the time of the Congressional elections.

Among both Northern and Southern farmers interviewed, 38 per cent say they have not received fair treatment at the hands of the administration, while 55 per cent of all farmers believe that no one group has been unfairly treated.

Eight Juveniles To Go Before Judge

Eight juveniles, arrested in the past week for various offenses, are to be detained before R. H. Weaver, juvenile court judge, at 2 p.m. Thursday.

The accumulation of youthful offenders represents results of findings by officers in a series of crimes.

The youngest of the lot is an 11-year-old boy from Elbow who has admitted being a companion of a 13-year-old in a raid on a feed store in which extensive damage was accomplished.

The 11-year-old defendant, involved in the case by a confession of his accomplice, was brought to the office of A. E. Long, juvenile officer, late Tuesday. He corroborated the story told by his comrade.

Long said that another boy, 13, has been connected with a break-in which occurred Sunday night and which had not been discovered by the raided establishment owners until Long called their attention to the matter.

This boy, Long said, entered the West Wrecking Co. plant on East Third, opened the cold drink vending machine and took several dollars. The machine was not locked.

The operators of the place had not discovered that the machine had been tampered with until the theft and his parents paid the West Wrecking Co. for the money taken. No action will be pushed against this offender.

The others in the lineup of eight to march before the judge have been involved in a series of petty break-ins and vandalism which occurred in the past 10 days.

Services are scheduled at 10 a.m. and 8 p.m. daily through Sept. 2. Prayer groups are to meet at 7:30 p.m. daily.

A general invitation to the public to hear the sermons is extended.

No serious injuries were sustained when a youth fell from the high diving board at the city pool Tuesday.

Mike Hickman, 11, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hickman, who reside in the city park, fell from the high board Tuesday afternoon hitting his leg on the side of the pool.

He was taken to Big Spring Hospital in a River ambulance but was not admitted; he was treated for cuts and bruises and released.

However, such voters are entitled to vote in the run-off election on Aug. 25. Officials say that all such electors are required to do when they go to the polls is to advise the voting precinct judge their poll tax is in the hands of the clerk. The precinct officials will have an official list of the eligible voters in that precinct. Such voters will be permitted to vote after the list has been checked and it has been determined their names are on it.

The poll tax receipts for the absentee voters who balloted in the first primary will be released for return to the voters after Aug. 28. The absentee voters who voted by that method in the Aug. 11 bond election will not be able to regain their papers until after Sept. 11. The county clerk's office said that such voters are as involved in these cases are requested to call at the office after expiration of the proper time allowance and pick up their receipts. They will not be mailed to their owners.

In other words, voters who filed their poll tax receipts to vote in the July 28 primary can redeem their receipts by calling at the office after Aug. 28 and those who used the receipts for absentee voting in the Aug. 11 bond election should reclaim them after Sept. 11.

A songfest preceded the dinner.

Mrs. A. R. Trussell, Mayo Ranch Motel, reported to police Tuesday that she had been bitten by a dog, but investigation showed the animal had been vaccinated.

Mrs. Trussell said she was bitten by a black and white terrier at 1107 E. 4th. Patrolmen found the animal belonged to a Mrs. Thompson, who reported the dog had been vaccinated within the past year.

However, Mrs. Thompson said she was taking him to a veterinarian for a check.

George Choate, district court clerk, who has been seriously ill for many weeks, has been removed from Big Spring to the John Sealy hospital at Galveston.

A Nalley-Pickle ambulance left at 10 p.m. Tuesday with the court clerk. He was accompanied by his brother Curtis Choate, a niece, Sharon Choate, and his brother-in-law, Don Capansky.

It was not known how long the official is scheduled to remain at the Galveston hospital.

Kluszewski Keeping Cincinnati In Race

By ED WILKS
By The Associated Press

Ted Kluszewski, just "a pain in the back" at season's start, now is keeping Cincinnati's Redlegs in the National League pennant race while beating off a challenge to his club home run title from rookie Frank Robinson.

TED KLUSZEWSKI

The big first baseman, who has led the Redlegs in homers for five of the last six seasons, was in Manager Birdie Tebbetts' doghouse last spring. An aching back, plus too much extra beef, had Klus slumping and he wound up on the bench for a while.

Now he's back in business. In his last seven games, of which Cincinnati has won four, he has been batting at a .400 clip, driving in eight runs and socking five home runs.

Junior Gilliam, who had two doubles and half of Brooklyn's eight hits against the Cards, stole home in the third inning with the decisive run. Carl Erskine won his 11th, but needed Don Bessent's relief in the last two frames when his arm tightened. Singles by Gilliam, PeeWee Reese and Snider scored one in the first off loser Herm Wehrer.

Ed Mathews' three-run homer in the first inning, his 29th, got Bob Buhl rolling toward his 15th victory in the afternoon portion of Milwaukee's sweep. Billy Bruton's sacrifice fly scored the clincher in the fourth to beat Ruben Gomez. Second-inning home runs by Joe Adcock (31) and Del Rice (3) gave the Braves three runs in the night contest as Gene Conley rode out a 10-hitter for his seventh victory.

Victim Of Both Predicts Brown To Whip Bud Smith

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Former welterweight contender Arthur Persley, who had unhappy meetings with both lightweight champion Wallace (Bud) Smith and challenger Joe Brown, predicted today Brown will whip the Cincinnati titleholder in their bout here Friday night.

Persley went even further and said he believed Brown stood a good chance of hanging a kayo on Smith in the 15-round, nationally televised title match.

The fight with Brown last January, Persley said, "was the toughest one of my life."

Lopez To Quit At Year's End, Despite Finish

MILWAUKEE (AP)—No matter where the Cleveland Indians finish in 1956, Al Lopez will tender his resignation as manager at the end of the season, The Associated Press learned today.

Smith's smash cracked two ribs and sent Persley to the hospital and into a forced absence from the ring. Smith used the fight as a stepping stone to a title match and won the championship from Jimmy Carter at Boston six months later.

Both Smith and Brown exuded confidence today as they began to taper off in final training drills.

Hobbs Adds To S'West Lead

Hobbs, now apparent champion in the Southwestern League, jumped ahead even more Tuesday night with a double victory over Carlsbad.

Smith's smash cracked two ribs and sent Persley to the hospital and into a forced absence from the ring. Smith used the fight as a stepping stone to a title match and won the championship from Jimmy Carter at Boston six months later.

'Slugger' Score Is Toasted By Indians

NEW YORK (AP)—It was Herb Score the "slugger," not Herb Score the pitcher, the Cleveland Indians toasted in the locker room after their budding southpaw ace had shut out the New York Yankees on two hits last night.

El Paso dropped back with a 6-1 loss to San Angelo. Pampa overpowered Plainview 18-6 and Roswell whipped Midland 4-2. Ballinger at Clovis was rained out.

Corpus Christi took a 6-5 licking from Wichita Falls Tuesday night. Port Arthur nosed Texas City 3-2 to remain in a tie for fourth with Wichita Falls.

UCLA, Washington Put On Probation By NCAA

DENVER (AP)—University of California at Los Angeles and University of Washington, already reeling from Pacific Coast Conference punishment, have been dealt another blow by the National Collegiate Athletic Assn. for cash payments to their football players.

Council yesterday placed UCLA on probation for three years and put Washington on probation for two. During these periods neither school's teams nor athletes may participate in any of the NCAA's 14 national championship events or in 25 other events sanctioned by the NCAA.

season basketball tournaments and track relays. The council heaped most of its censure on UCLA with a declaration that the Los Angeles school had violated an NCAA code requiring member schools to establish and maintain high standards of "personal honor, eligibility and fair play."

3 Steer Exes On McMurry Roster

ABILENE (AP)—The McMurry College Indians will be counting on the services of three ex-Big Spring High School athletes when they open fall football practice Sept. 1.

BOBBY HAYWORTH

Last year Hayworth carried the ball 34 times for 153 yards, a 4.5-yard average, completed 4 two touchdown passes; and intercepted three passes at his defensive half-back position, one of which he ran back 60 yards for a touchdown against Sul Ross State.

that gave the San Angelo team a 13-12 victory in a post-season bowl game last year at Gulfport, Miss., after they had won the Pioneer Conference football championship.

Little Leaguers Continue Action

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (AP)—Little League baseball finalists today moved into the windup of first-round games in the 10th annual Little League World Series.

Young Tommy Ellis, starting his first year as head coach of the Indians, will have 14 lettermen returning. McMurry lost six all-conference starters by graduation.

Waco Manager Is Tops In Big State

ABILENE (AP)—Monty Basgall, manager of the Waco Pirates who are currently battling for the top spot in the Big State League race, has been selected as the Class B circuit's manager of the year.

McMurry backers believe the Indians will have perhaps the best backfield combination since the 1947-50 heyday of little All-American Brad Rowland, with depth and experience at every position.

Aggies Facing Another Year On Probation

DENVER (AP)—Texas A&M faced the prospect today of going another year without being eligible to participate in national championships or bowl games.

The council said the violation was based on its finding that "members of the football staff permitted student-athletes to provide false information to UCLA and the PCC."

The council said UCLA players received money from the Young Men's Club of Westwood and the Bruin Bench, Washington players, the council said, were paid by the Greater Washington Advertising Fund and received loans from the Evergreen Education Foundation.

5 Children Die In Apartment Fire

CHICAGO (AP)—A gas explosion started a short-lived but raging fire in a suburban apartment last night and five young brothers and sisters burned to death. The blast occurred in the housing project apartment of Jack Davis, 29, in suburban Argo. He escaped injury but his wife, Alice, 25, was severely burned. The children of the Negro couple who perished were Mike, 4; Allen, 3; Jackie, 2; Denise, 1; and Ricky, 3 months.

403 Apply For Absentee Ballots

Fifty-three more voters chose to ballot by absentee vote in the coming run-off primary election on Saturday than followed that same course in the July 28 primary. A total of 403 applications for absentee ballots were received by the office of the county clerk for the Aug. 25 election. This compares with 350 in the July 28 election. Seventy-five of the applications were received by mail and the remainder—328—were voters who came to the office of the clerk and personally balloted ahead of election time.

Gridders Must Get Birth Certificates

Boys reporting for the first football practice session at 7:30 a.m. on Aug. 21 are reminded to bring along a birth certificate. Carl Coleman, coach, said that a copy must be filed with the Texas Interscholastic League to resolve any question about eligibility. The certificates will be photostated so that the copy may be forwarded, one retained for local records, and the original returned to the boy. Coleman urged those who do not now have their birth certificates to start at once to obtain them.

Uncle Ray: Animals Slain By Thousands In Arena

By RAMON COFFMAN
ROME — I shall go on with questions and answers about the Coliseum.

Q. What weapons did gladiators use?
A. Sometimes two men with swords and shields fought against each other. In other cases one gladiator used a sword and the other a trident, or three-pronged fork. Spears were employed by many gladiators.

Q. Were there times when men fought wild beasts instead of one another?
A. Yes, that often happened. A man with a sword or spear might oppose a lion or a bear. At times there were elephant hunts. Mounds of earth were placed in the arena, along with trees, to make the hunting seem "real."

Q. Is it true that Vestal Virgins attended fights in the arena?
A. I am sorry to say that the Vestal Virgins, who played a part in Roman religion, watched the cruel events. They sat near the emperor, and held their thumbs upward or downward to decide whether or not the life of a fallen gladiator should be spared. Enormous crowds watched those horrible spectacles, and this fact speaks ill for people of that time. Performances of that sort never would be allowed in a modern country.

Q. Is there another spelling for "Coliseum"?
A. Yes. "Colosseum."
Q. Was the Coliseum the largest gathering place for Romans?
A. The remains of the Coliseum have been preserved to a greater degree than those of any other Roman arena, but the Circus Maximus was far larger. The Circus Maximus dates back to the Roman Republic. It was enlarged by Julius Caesar, and was the scene of many events, including chariot races. It has been estimated that the Circus Maximus would hold 200 thousand persons!

Some Candidates Fail To Turn In Campaign Reports

All candidates who are still in competition in the current election contests were supposed to have filed supplementary reports on election campaign expenditures on Aug. 16 with the county clerk.

Some of the candidates made such reports but there were a number who overlooked the requirement. Next and final report on election expenses must be filed not later than Sept. 3, the election law specifies.

To an earlier rendition made ahead of the July 28 primary election, expenses must be filed not later than Sept. 3, the election law specifies.

Doomed Man Sees 'Vision'

HUNTSVILLE (AP)—Flaudell Fite said in a death cell interview today that he had seen a vision in which a voice told him God stood between him and the electric chair. He has been on what he called a "penitence fast" since Friday.

Fite, 27, a Negro, is scheduled to die in the chair Thursday. He was convicted of raping a Garland girl, 17, on July 9.

"God showed me three folded sheets to reveal to me that I would be freed," he said. "It's not over yet. Even if I get to the electric chair, I'm going to strap myself in, if God lets it go that far. And if it goes that far, I don't believe it will work."

Fite said he had not had food or drink since Friday "in remission of my sins." Death cell guards said he had returned all food.

Highlights Of GOP Platform

By OVID A. MARTIN
SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Here are the highlights of the 1956 platform as proposed to the Republican National Convention:

TAXATION AND FISCAL POLICY—Pledged tax reductions insofar as they are consistent with a balanced federal budget. Special attention would be given small and middle income families and small independent enterprises.

It promised further reductions in government spending, maintenance of a "sound" dollar and an "atmosphere" that would be conducive to business expansion. It also pledged aid in developing a safer aviation industry and sponsorship of a modernized merchant marine fleet.

It pledged "improvement" of present government efforts to aid small business—expanded participation in government buying programs, loans and "reasonable" rates, additional technical research and changes in antitrust laws to facilitate their enforcement.

LABOR—Promised a revision and improvement of the controversial Taft-Hartley Labor Relations Act, and an extension of the federal prevailing minimum wage law.

It said the Eisenhower administration has enforced "more vigorously and effectively than ever before" the laws which protect working standards.

HEALTH, EDUCATION AND WELFARE—Promised to support with "vigorous action" programs designed to promote the physical, mental and spiritual welfare of the people. It promised to make new efforts to enact a federal assistance program for schools.

The party said it will seek extension and perfection of a "sound" Social Security system and continue to support housing programs.

AGRICULTURE—It endorsed

Eisenhower administration farm programs featuring flexible price supports and a soil bank program to reduce production of surplus crops. It promised to work toward "full freedom instead of toward more regimentation, developing voluntary rather than oppressive farm programs."

As in 1952, the party set as its goal "full parity" for agriculture in the market place rather than in the form of government subsidies.

GOVERNMENT AFFAIRS—Promised a more efficient government and the maintenance of an employe security program that would assure that government workers are of unquestioned loyalty and trustworthiness.

It promised further efforts to get government out of business, to improve the postal service and the "non-political" Civil Service system. Immediate statehood for Alaska and Hawaii was pledged. Self-government, national suffrage and representation in Congress were favored for the District of Columbia.

CIVIL RIGHTS—The party "accepted" the Supreme Court decision banning racial segregation in public schools and concurred with the court's conclusion that its ruling should be accomplished with "all deliberate speed" through local federal courts.

It opposed use of force or violence by any group or agency to carry out desegregation, but called for use of "every legal means" by all branches of the government to end discrimination.

FOREIGN AFFAIRS—Called for continuance of the collective security system as a basis for U.S. foreign policy. In the Near East, it favored a policy of "impartial friendship" for the Arab states and Israel. But it expressed determination to maintain Israel as a free state.

The platform claimed the Eisenhower administration had advanced the cause of peace through its military and economic aid to friendly countries and by stands taken by the President at the Geneva Big Four conference. It said Soviet Russia now recognizes that the United States is dedicated to peace, but that it will not try to "purchase it at the price of freedom."

DEFENSE—Pledged to maintain a strong military establishment so long as U.S. security and the peace of the world require it. It declared the United States has the strongest striking force in the world.

RESOURCES—Expressed pride in the administration programs for conserving natural resources, and endorsed the Eisenhower policy of developing them in partnership with private interests.

ATOMIC ENERGY—Pledged "continuous, vigorous" development of atomic energy both for defense and peaceful uses. It said that until the Republicans came into power, a "stalemate" existed and only an arms race with the prospect of eventual catastrophe faced the world.

Golden Rule

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Unemployed window washer George M. Kandarian walked into the University police station and handed over a woman's purse containing $131. He said he found it at a street intersection, and to the desk sergeant he phrased his Golden Rule philosophy this way: "If I had any, I'd want my money returned if I lost it."

Panama Is Canal Owner

CAIRO (AP)—A Panamanian diplomat said today that the Panama Canal belongs to Panama and that country never will accept international control.

Raphael Vallarino, Panamanian minister to Italy and Egypt, told a reporter here these points were made in a note Panama had given Britain. Similar notes were dispatched apparently to other nations attending the Suez conference in London.

Vallarino said the note to Britain expressed Panama's deep regret at not having been invited to the London conference.

Vallarino said the protest note emphasized Panama's full sovereignty, authority and control over that canal and declared that, in spite of U. S. administrative control, the canal, its water and the land surrounding it entirely belong to Panama.

He was asked if Panama planned to nationalize the canal. He replied: "I don't like to talk about this matter. This is something with which only my government is concerned."

Vallarino said the Suez Canal belongs to Egypt just as the Panama Canal belongs to Panama. He said he had come to Egypt from Rome especially to discuss the current situation with President Nasser and Foreign Minister Mahmoud Fawzi.

In a statement made public Aug. 4 in Panama, the government said it would not consider itself bound by any decisions of the London conference. It said, "The Panama Canal which is bounded by our territory is of vital interest to our country and is similar in some respects to the Suez Canal."

The United States built the Panama Canal and rents a canal zone five miles wide on each side of it for $1,330,000 a year. The Panamanian Canal Co., a U. S. government body, runs the canal. Treaties with Panama dating back to 1903 grant the United States use, occupation and control of the canal zone for all time.

The Suez Canal Co., a privately promoted international corporation, built the Suez Canal and operated it until Egypt nationalized it July 26. The company had a 99-year concession to run the Canal until 1968, when it was to become the property of Egypt. It paid the Egyptian government part of the profits.
