Snyder Man Is County's 18th Traffic Victim

Howard County chalked up its 18th traffic death of the year at 4:40 p.m. Sunday when Jack E. Danley, 26, of 2701 Avenue E. Snyder, was instantly killed, 13.1 miles west of Big Spring on U. S. 80.

Danley, travelling alone in his car toward Big Spring, apparently lost control and the vehicle swung across the slab, skidded along the wrong side of the highway for a considerable distance, swerving from side to side. It finally rolled over two times, pinning the driver inside.

The body was taken to the Nalley-Pickle Funeral Home. Danley is survived by his wife, Margaret; one son, Tommy, 5; two daughters, Kathy, 2 and Jackie, 1; and his parents Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Danley, Peoria, Ill.

Funeral arrangements have not been announced but the body is being held at the Bolger Funeral Home in Snyder.

Danley's death brought to 17 the number of road fatalities on county and state highways for the current year. One additional death, inside the Big Spring city limits, brings the total for the year to 18.

Truck Figures In Brink's Trial

Demo Meet Sets Stage For Battle

Texas Cotton Estimate Takes Another Drop

WASHINGTON (AP)—Estimated production of cotton in Texas took another drop, caused by the drought, in the Department of Agriculture's monthly forecast issued today.

Texas production was estimated at 3,460,000 bales, down from 3,600,000 bales estimated a month ago.

The Agriculture Department said 12.9 per cent of the Texas acreage has been abandoned, and that the crop is only 67 per cent of normal.

Acreage expected to be harvested is 6,250,000, with an average of 266 pounds per acre.

Nationally, the department estimated production at 13,115,000 bales of 500 pounds gross weight on the basis of conditions Sept. 1.

Geo. Choate Loses Struggle For Life

George C. Choate, Howard County district clerk, lost his second valiant battle for life early Sunday in John Sealy Hospital at Galveston.

Once before, 17 years ago, he had fought against odds and lived, although as a cripple. His time prolonged illness had left him with no reserve, and friends were agreed that only his will to live had kept him alive until now.

The funeral remains were returned to Nalley-Pickle Funeral Home on Monday and services were set for 3 p.m. Tuesday at the First Methodist Church with Dr. Jordan Grooms officiating.

County Judge R. H. Weaver announced that the Howard County Courthouse would be closed at noon Tuesday for the remainder of the day out of respect to the memory of George Choate.

Choate was born in 1913, and moved here in 1920 when his parents took over operation of the historic Old Stewart (originally the Cosmopolitan) Hotel.

On Dec. 19, 1939, he was driving through the mountains en route to the ranch home when his car skidded on icy pavement and catapulted from the road into a canyon. He lay helpless in the suffocating cold all night, until hours later he was discovered by some Latin-American ranch hands.

Previously, he had been extremely active physically and had been chosen on all-star softball teams, and was a better than average golfer.

During the intervening years he had been stricken with illness, and once last year, while being moved from his car to his wheelchair, he sustained a broken leg. He moved here in 1920 when his parents took over operation of the historic Old Stewart (originally the Cosmopolitan) Hotel.

Sharp Temperature Rise May Affect Babe's Condition

GALVESTON (AP)—Abrupt temperature rises caused physicians attending Babe Didrikson Zahari as today to call her condition "not serious at the moment, but it might become so."

The bulletin by John Sealy Hospital where the famous athlete is stricken with cancer said "she has had some abrupt temperature elevations during the past 48 hours associated with spells of coughing but no chest pain."

The bulletin said the condition is being studied and could become serious. Otherwise the report said the Babe is comfortable and resting well. It said, however, that she has been unable to take enough nourishment to maintain her weight and strength.

Executive Committee In Session

FORT WORTH (AP)—The State Democratic Executive Committee went into session at 9:45 a.m. today, setting the stage for a bitter county-by-county battle for 639 contested seats in tomorrow's state convention.

In the background were new demands from the loyalist-liberal faction for "fair play" in the deciding the contests, and continued wrangling over convention arrangements.

Sen. Price Daniel, who won the Democratic nomination for governor by a slim margin over Ralph Yarborough, predicted his forces have the strength to organize and control the convention. He also promised fair play. The loyalist-liberal faction is also claiming that it will win.

Chairman George Sandlin of the executive committee named the credentials panel which will hear the contests under chairmanship of J. V. Hammitt of Lampasas.

The executive committee then recessed until 5 p.m. to receive whatever subcommittee reports are available then.

The subcommittee took up the Bexar County contest first and deferred hearings on Harris, Bee and Schleicher counties until the end.

As each contesting delegation was introduced, loud boos were mixed with applause. Both sides got about the same of each in the crowded, smoky hearing room in an exhibition hall across the street from Hotel Texas.

While the credentials meeting was open to as much of the public as could squeeze in, the subcommittee on resolutions met in secret. This is the committee which may take the first step in determining whether the executive committee as a whole will ask the convention to act on referendum propositions on race and states' rights approved by Democratic voters in the July primary.

The referendum proposals included one that would urge the Legislature to repeal the compulsory school attendance law where white and Negro children are mixed. Another would tighten existing laws banning marriage between whites and Negroes, and the other would urge the use of interposition to "halt illegal federal encroachment on states' rights."

The committee to canvass governor's race returns met at 2 p.m. Daniel is backed by a moderate-conservative coalition. He is opposed by a combination of party loyalists and liberals who want what they consider a fair share of party honors and a louder voice in policy matters. They backed Yarborough.

The outcome of today's hearings may play a major role in determining which runs the convention.

GEORGE CHOATE

George became a crack shot and invariably got his share of game. More recently, he was an avid boater and fisherman.

Fate seemed to have taken another swipe at him in 1942 when he filed for district clerk. His ballot fee, sent by an intermediary, went awry just before deadline and for a time it seemed he would not be listed. However, the mixup was straightened, George won the nomination handsily, and took office Jan. 1, 1943. He had been elected to six other terms and was always one of the most popular public officials.

During the intervening years he had been stricken with illness, and once last year, while being moved from his car to his wheelchair, he sustained a broken leg. He moved here in 1920 when his parents took over operation of the historic Old Stewart (originally the Cosmopolitan) Hotel.

On Dec. 19, 1939, he was driving through the mountains en route to the ranch home when his car skidded on icy pavement and catapulted from the road into a canyon. He lay helpless in the suffocating cold all night, until hours later he was discovered by some Latin-American ranch hands.

Previously, he had been extremely active physically and had been chosen on all-star softball teams, and was a better than average golfer. He was determined not to be cut off from all activities, so his brothers frequently took him bird and deer hunting.

Cairo Born Under An Unlucky Star

By WILTON WYNN
CAIRO, Egypt (AP)—This troubled city should have been born under a lucky star, but fate decreed otherwise.

When Caliph Moiz planned Cairo, he ordered a rope strung around the city's boundaries. Bells were strung on the rope. When astrologers signaled that a lucky star was in ascendancy, that rope was to be pulled, the bells rung and construction work began instantly.

A crow upset the plan. It landed on the rope and rang the bells. Astrologers sadly told the caliph the work had begun on Cairo under the sign of the planet Mars—an ill omen foretelling wars and disaster.

A thousand years have passed. Cairo long since has spilled over its old walls and sprawled out as a modern metropolis on the banks of the Nile. But its people gloomily ponder the evil omen.

Cairo again is threatened by war. Egyptians have nervously watched the buildup of British and French forces in the eastern Mediterranean, poised to move into Egypt at the first provocation in the quarrel over the Suez Canal.

The buildup began shortly after President Gamal Abdel Nasser nationalized the Suez Canal Co. July 26.

A new sense of urgency was injected into the situation when the five-nation Menzies mission to Cairo failed to bridge the gap between Egyptian sovereignty over the canal and Western demands for international control.

The fatalistic Egyptians say Egypt gets dragged into war after war through the meddling of outsiders rather than anything that Egyptians do.

"Look at the Suez Canal," an Egyptian said. "Planned by foreigners, built by foreigners, used by foreigners and now drawing foreign armies into our country."

The Egyptians still hoped the military buildup was only a bluff, but Britons who claimed to know their government's attitude insisted it was dead serious.

One Briton explained: "Ever since Abadan (the Iranian oil center lost by the British in Iran's nationalization decree of 1951), the British position in the Middle East has been collapsing and the loss of that position meant an end of Britain as a world power."

"Britain would have slipped into poverty. But now this Nasser has given us a chance to come back and we intend to take it. He grabbed the canal and that gives us every reason to move back in by force. When we return to that canal base, we once again will become a world power. No other Arab state will dare violate contracts with us. Our oil will be safe."

Such talk has led Egyptians to fear that Britain does not want a Suez compromise, that the British demand either an Egyptian surrender or reoccupation of the canal zone. The Egyptians hope to counter the threat with the following:

1. Intervention of the United States to avert use of force.
2. The Egyptians see the Soviet Union as another restraining power, though they have said little about direct Soviet support.
3. The Egyptians count heavily on public opinion inside Britain itself.
4. Finally the Egyptians look to

Miss America Gets Off To A Flying Start

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (AP)—A drawing Southern girl who likes to take life easy is off to a flying start in her hectic one-year reign as Miss America.

Marian McKnight of South Carolina had only two hours sleep after winning the coveted title late Saturday night when she was routed out of bed yesterday to face the press and photographers.

"I like to go to bed late and to sleep late," Miss McKnight said. Lenora Slaughter, director of the Miss America Pageant, broke in to say that his "routine" will be reversed.

"It's go to bed early and get up early for Miss America," said Miss Slaughter. A $50,000 jackpot goes with the title, including a $5,000 scholarship, a wardrobe and fees for personal appearances during the coming year.

Miss McKnight was a favorite of audience and judges alike. A 5-foot-5 1/2-pounder, she paraded her 35-23-35 form in a slick black swimsuit during one phase of the preliminary judging and did a hip-swinging take off of Marilyn Monroe as her talent specialty.

Other top finishers were Miss District of Columbia, Margo Lucey, 20, first runnerup who gets a $3,000 scholarship; Miss Arizona, Barbara Hilgenberg, 18, of Tucson; and Miss Kansas, Mary Ann McGrew, 19, of Wellington, $2,000 scholarships each.

No Wedding?

Hollywood was buzzing last week with rumors that Bing Crosby and his best girl, Kathy Grant, would be married over the weekend at Hayden Lake, Idaho, the Crosby summer home. Bing, however, said he's not "planning on getting married to Miss Grant or anybody else" and added "I am getting fed up with the rumor stories." Soon after, Miss Grant took a plane for Los Angeles. This picture of the two was made March 10, 1955, when they attended the Academy Awards presentations together.

Cop Takes 2 Thugs With Him

WILLOWS, Calif. (AP)—Highway Patrolman Charles Smith, shot three times in the back, clung to life long enough to kill his slayer and a second man.

Smith, 26, had haled a car driven by Kenneth J. Nelson, 20, of Martinez, Calif., and Everett Lee Harkey, 23, of Oakland, Calif., as passenger. The highway patrol identified Nelson and Harkey as Marines absent without leave.

Mrs. Dixie Lee White, who saw the gun battle from her home on Highway 99-West, told the State Highway Patrol: Smith halted the car and talked with Harkey, who got out.

Nelson suddenly got out also and fired five times at Smith, three shots hitting Smith in the back. Smith staggered but managed to get off three shots as the car started. Nelson was killed instantly. Harkey, hit between the eyes, died in a hospital. Smith was dead on arrival there.

Smith leaves a widow and two children, one born only last month. Harkey, a 1st Division Marine, was wanted by the Marine Corps for drunk driving. Nelson was sought for armed robberies in Pleasant Hill and Antioch, Calif.

Officers said the car was stolen from R. M. Lowrie of Brawley, Calif., after he gave the hitchhiking Marines a ride in Woodland, Calif.

3 Drowned In Speedboat Mishap

LAKE TAHOE, Calif. (AP)—A huge wave tipped a speedboat so violently that five of the eight passengers were thrown into Lake Tahoe yesterday. Three drowned; two were saved.

Killed were Mrs. Irene, Raynos 32, and Joseph Texara, 40, Berkeley, Calif., and Michael Brusaco, 70, Oakland, Calif.

Raymond Kechley, 19, of Berkeley, the pilot said wind and waves carried his boat 200 feet before he could restart the motor and return to the scene. Kechley and Russell Bacon managed to save Judy Brunck, 17, of Berkeley, and Marlene Perkins, 18, Portland, Ore.

The eighth person in the boat was Texara's 4-year-old son Kenny.

Youth Burns As Family Watches TV

GLENDALE, Calif. (AP)—A teenager's family watched television, unaware of a nearby fire in which he died.

Clyde Allen Baker, 16, alone in a small house at the rear of the family home, evidently suffocated before he was burned.

In the main house at the front of the lot, four members of the family were watching television. The family learned of the tragedy when a younger sister, who also sleeps in the rear house, left for bed. She found firemen fighting the blaze.

FOURTH IN SERIES Russia Announces Explosion Of Another Atomic Weapon

MOSCOW (AP)—Soviet Russia announced the explosion today of another of her nuclear weapons, the fourth in a series of atomic tests that started Aug. 2.

The announcement, unprecedented for its promptness, finally beat the United States in disclosing the testing of one of the Soviet Union's own atomic devices.

Tass, official Soviet news agency, distributed the announcement at 6 a. m. and made a special call to Western correspondents to make sure they did not overlook it. The unusual hour and speed indicated Moscow is determined that the United States no longer will be first with such news.

It confirmed a previous statement by the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission on Sept. 3 that another test explosion was held in the Soviet Union Sept. 2.

On Aug. 31 the Russians with unusual promptness said they had exploded on Aug. 30 a new and different nuclear weapon "applicable to the arming of various kinds of troops" and that this was the second test in a series that started Aug. 24.

Despite their promptness, however, the Russians were about 1 1/2 hours behind the announcement by President Eisenhower, who told a news conference that Moscow had conducted the tests in "wartime secrecy" while talking publicly of abolishing all atomic weapons.

Today's announcement said only: "On Sept. 2 and 10 of this year in the Soviet Union were held serial tests of atomic weapons in connection with a program of scientific research work.

"With the aim of increasing security for the population the explosions were conducted, as in the past, at a great height far removed from populated areas."

It gave no idea of the size of the weapon, or whether hydrogen weapons were involved.

The time of the announcement indicated that the test was conducted far east of Moscow, presumably in the Central Asian region, where it already would be daylight at 6 a. m. Moscow time.

In disclosing the Soviet tests Aug. 31, President Eisenhower for the first time fixed the site of the Soviet proving grounds as somewhere in southwest Siberia. U.S. announcements said the Soviet explosions were "less than a megaton" — or less than the force of one million tons of TNT.

Chairman Lewis L. Strauss of the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission said on Sept. 3 that the United States had made 13 announcements about Russian nuclear tests, but that the number of Soviet tests was "significantly higher."

He indicated there was something unusual about the current series by saying the United States limited itself to making statements about explosions in the Soviet Union which were of "special interest because of their large size, their special character or some other unusual fact."

Soviet reference to arming troops has been taken as an indication they were testing weapons designed for tactical use.

Ike Steps Up Use Of News Conference

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower appears to be stepping up use of a unique and influential forum, the presidential news conference, with his re-election campaign getting under way.

He will hold an off-schedule session with reporters tomorrow. It will be an afternoon meeting—something he has avoided except on rare occasions.

Three times during the last three weeks Eisenhower has met with news men under circumstances which have prompted some of them to conclude that things have changed somewhat in this election year.

The first time was Aug. 22 during the Republican National Convention in San Francisco. It was the first full-dress news conference he ever had held as president outside Washington. And it was the first presidential conference ever to be carried "live" on television.

The following week Eisenhower returned to Washington on a Tuesday evening and the White House announced that because of accumulated business he would not hold his regular Wednesday morning meeting with newsmen.

Press secretary James C. Hagerly held open the possibility of a conference later in the week, but, on the basis of past experience, reporters doubted there would be one.

But Eisenhower did hold a conference on Friday that week, and he went on to hold a regular Wednesday morning session last week — his second meeting with reporters in less than a week.

That crossed up reporters once more. They had figured, again on the basis of past experience, that Eisenhower wouldn't hold two so close together.

With this year's presidential and congressional campaigns starting, there seems to be a new awareness at the White House that the presidential news conference can be a colorful forum in an election year.

Eisenhower has been expounding his political views at each recent session. There seems to have been a decision, probably at the urging of press secretary Hagerly, to supplement the streamlined campaign traveling Eisenhower says he is planning with news conferences held as regularly as possible.

Eisenhower yesterday took a reprieve from campaign planning and flew to University Park, Pa., to take part in Episcopal communion services marking the dedication of a new Pennsylvania State University chapel to the memory of his late sister-in-law.

He returned to Washington immediately after the morning ceremony attended by family members.

The chapel is named for Helen Eakin Eisenhower who was the wife of the President's youngest brother, Dr. Milton S. Eisenhower, retiring Penn State president. She died in July 1954.

Sound Your A—It's Stylish

Mayor G. W. Dabney has proclaimed this as Harmony Week in Big Spring, a device calling attention to the annual Roundup of Harmony on Saturday evening. This is a program of music by the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barbershop Quartet Singing in America, and it possesses a lot of appeal.

is made. The songs are not designed to create tonal patterns or exhibit the delicate qualities of a voice or even an obligate perfection but rather to mix tenors, baritones and basses, or sopranos and altos in a gay, lilting complement.

And How's Your Driving?

You doubtless have noticed the series of advertisements running during the past two weeks in the Herald and headed on promoting traffic safety. Prepared by Shell Oil Company they have attacked the problem from an unique angle, that of inducing drivers to do a little self-testing.

flexes were acting, the result was almost frightening. More than this, we were reminded that safe driving tolerates no preoccupation with other matters. Perfect vision is of little value if one's mind is somewhere else. Driving calls for real concentration and sound judgment. It calls for caution rather than for chances.

Inez Wins Battle Of Yellow Mailbox

EDITOR'S NOTE: The war is over! The War of the Yellow Mailbox, that is. And the winner in a two-year battle with the U. S. Post Office Department is Col. Inez Robb. Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield says Mrs. Robb won't be badgered any longer to change the color of the yellow mailbox at her Wild Out Farm near Flemington, N. J., to white or aluminum. And, as a result of her crusade, government regulations will be changed to permit the painting of rural mailboxes any color. Here is Mrs. Robb's account of her victory in the War of the Yellow Mailbox.

Well, sir, it was a tough fight, Mom, but I win, and no one is more surprised than I! From now on, the owner of any rural mailbox in the United States, from the Atlantic to the Pacific and from the Canadian border to the Rio Grande, can paint that box any color that suits his fancy—no matter how fancy.

No longer will he be compelled to comply with an old postal regulation demanding that the box be painted either (1) white or (2) with aluminum paint, or else forfeit his right to rural free delivery. My two-year battle for the right to a yellow mailbox at Wild Out Farm near Flemington, N. J., has ended with the Post Office Department running up the white flag and suing for peace.

"You win," says a telegram received from Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield. "We are changing regulations so any colors may be used on rural boxes. Thanks for bringing this to our attention so persistently."

Now, that's a real nice, gracious telegram. It brings to a close the two-year War of the Yellow Mailbox. It ends one more small but exasperating facet of the creeping conformity that threatens this once ruggedly individualistic country.

The idea that this great and powerful government of ours has the time, much less the inclination, to dictate to its citizens such minutia as the color of mailboxes is not only absurd but d-grading. Obviously Summerfield, a jolly, roly-poly man, agrees. When we met for the first time at the Republican powwow in San Francisco, he didn't give me a chance to open up the attack.

"You win," he said, as we shook hands.

Taking Your Troubles To A Counselor

An Eastern party says the growing demand for counseling points up to the fact that Grandpop was happier. Maybe so, but I suspect that had Granddad been opportunistic enough to put out a single advertising the fact that he exchanged advice for a fee, he'd have made money by the bucketful.

It quite probably points up to the fact that adults can't keep their lips buttoned like they did in days of yore. Whereas inability to make a marriage work caused embarrassment on the part of one or both of the parties in Grandpop's time, people today are inclined to sound off about their mates' "incompatibility," as if bringing it into the open will improve the situation.

Man has had problems he was willing to share with someone ever since he shed his fins and started walking upright. The people who have made a study of man's mental stress and profess to know introduce a lot of reasons for it.

Married people in other times often worked diligently to solve their differences. Some social workers today are caused by the fact that our forebears didn't solve some of their troubles, however, and refused to cart them to someone capable of thrashing out the problem.

Ike Personally Is The Determining Issue

Although, officially, the campaign has not yet begun, the location and the general shape of the battleground is already visible. So at least, at the risk of being proved quite wrong, it now seems to me.

eratic philosophy. Now the record is not an issue. This year he is out to prove that he is making a new party which is to have a new philosophy called "the new Republicanism." It is to combine the best features of both of the old parties.

The central contest is for the vote of the Democrats and of the independents with Democratic leanings who in 1952 voted for Eisenhower, but did not vote for other Republican candidates. The object of the Democrats is to win back these voters — to get the full Democratic vote which, when it is polled, makes a majority.

Gov. Stevenson, on the other hand, is not expecting to convert Republicans. Rather he is trying to win back Democrats. To do this, he must show them that if they come home, they will find not only the old Democratic Party, which has been their party, but that party purged of what drove them away from it in 1952, and standing for what they wanted from Eisenhower — namely peace abroad and at home.

This basic situation explains many things. For example, why "moderation" is the order of the day in both parties. The Democrats are avoiding anything which would make it harder for an Eisenhower Democrat to return to the party. Not only President Eisenhower but Vice President Nixon also are avoiding anything which could offend a Democrat who has voted for Eisenhower.

The campaign is unusual in that the opposition party is almost certainly the majority party. Yet it is true that Eisenhower starts with a personal majority. The critical question is whether he can hold on to it against the undertow which will be drawing the Eisenhower Democrats back to their normal allegiance.

Mr. Mitchell... the right of a man to decide whether or not he wants to join the union. The answer that seems to me to be most practical is that some 65 per cent of all the major collective bargaining agreements in this country contain a 'union shop' provision. This would seem to indicate that the employers of the country also favor a 'union shop,' because the law does not compel an employer to enter into a collective-bargaining agreement providing a 'union shop.'

Mr. Mitchell said he feels that, if it could be demonstrated that a worker has conscientious beliefs against joining a union, most unions "would recognize the existence of these beliefs."

The flaw in the argument, of course, about employer acquiescence in the "union shop" is that it was obtained as a rule under duress — by economic coercion — and while there are many employers who accept such a situation, this doesn't mean that they would yield on that point if they were not compelled to do so. Also, to give up the principle of "freedom of choice" just because a monopolistic practice has become imbedded in the labor-management structure doesn't mean that expediency and disregard of principle can be justified.

Secretary Mitchell pointed out that, when amendments to the Taft-Hartley law were proposed by the Eisenhower administration and reported from committees in

HCJC Group Entertained Saturday

The Faculty Ma'ams of Howard County Junior College were hostesses Saturday evening for a reception honoring the faculty of the college. Held in the Student Union Building, the affair also served to introduce the office personnel and the board members.

"I love almost everything about Hollywood but the hard water," she told me when I chatted with her on the "Hey, Jeannie!" set at CBS. "It was a bit rough on my skin, so I bought a bottle of spring water. Now I wash with that and I've had no more trouble with my complexion. I carry a bottle to the studio with me every day because I am a great one for scrubbing off my make-up with brush, soap and water."

MAKE-UP MAGIC
Women at home or in business can improve their appearances with just a little knowledge of make-up technique. Jeannie Carson did, as told in today's column. It's so easy when you have leaflet M-44, "Make Yourself More Attractive Through the Correct Use of Make-Up."

Arrangements were under the direction of Mrs. Bruce Frazier, assisted by Mrs. W. A. Hunt, Mrs. Bill Holbert and Mrs. Orland Johnson.

Gray Ladies For Webb To Be Capped Tuesday

The first class of Red Cross Gray Ladies to train at Webb AFB will "graduate" at 8 o'clock Tuesday night at a capping ceremony to be held in the base chapel. A reception will follow at the Officers' Club. The public is cordially invited for both events.

Charles H. Webb, Jr., personnel services officer, William Snell, local Red Cross field director, will open the capping ceremony. Training consisted of 11 1/2 hours of lectures and 20 hours of practical training in the hospital. The staff of the 3560th Hospital, under Colonel Whittington, presented the lectures and gave the students complete tours of the hospital. Along with this orientation provided by hospital workers, were lectures by Mrs. Garrett, Mrs. Sawtelle, and Snell.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

Sometimes, it's hard to tell a kid. There are occasions when it is difficult to make them believe what's right, when you tell them one thing and someone else who isn't thinking tells them another. Take, for instance, a boy who ran off the field in a recent scrimmage here, after being cautioned against hitting a member of the opposing team in the face.

He denied the act and that's good enough for me. But, the point when he dashed for the sidelines, a voice from the grandstand yelled: "Attabooy— give it to them!" The suggestion could have been ominous or it could have been taken the wrong way. The coaches teach good sportsmanship all week. They teach it because it is the best way to play football. But they have a selfish motive, too.

An unsportsmanlike act, if detected, would cost the team 15 yards and, worse still, could cost it the services of the player who committed the act for the remainder of the game.

This year, the Steers can ill afford to lose a player in such a way. If one party is excited from a game for conduct unbecoming to the game of football, the coaches, for example, might have to convert a guard into a halfback on the spur of the moment. The manpower problem is that critical.

That's the reason it is so important to preach, teach and practice "good sportsmanship."

I'm impressed, and I know a lot of other observers close to the boys are, too, with the manner in which the Big Spring Steers are training. They seem determined to reach peak physical condition and stay there. This could be the best conditioned club to take the field here in years.

The wood in the new stadium won't have to be painted. It has been varnished, or specially treated, and will gradually turn darker with age. The steel in the stand will probably be colored a battleship grey, in time, but not before 1957, at the earliest.

Nell Hilliard of Our Town says he happened by the Country Club in Fort Worth recently and found, to his surprise, the fairways there in little better shape than the ones at the Country Club here.

The drought has taken a toll throughout the area and golf courses are usually the first to suffer when there is a shortage of water.

Those who watched the play regularly say Charles Clark was one of the two or three best players in the YMCA Summer Basketball League here.

Clark is due back at HCJC this season. If he can stay off the injured list, he'll be a big help to Coach Harold Davis and Company.

C. A. DeWees, the Country Club golf pro here, picked up the nickname of "Son" while working for the Star Telegram in Fort Worth.

Pace Tells On Reds In Nat'l League Race

By JOE REICHLER

A three-team tug of war only a few days ago, the National League pennant race apparently has simmered down today to a hand-to-hand struggle between the fuzzy-cheeked Milwaukee Braves and the veteran Brooklyn Dodgers.

While the Braves were rebounding yesterday from five straight defeats with a 7-4 and 5-3 double-header sweep in Chicago and the Dodgers were knocking off the New York Giants 6-1, the third-place Cincinnati Redlegs absorbed a crushing 13-inning 6-5 defeat in St. Louis to drop three games off the pace — and perhaps out of the pennant fight.

The double triumph enabled the Braves not only to retain their grip on first place but sent them East — and to Brooklyn — with a full game lead over the Dodgers, whom they meet in a crucial two-game series tomorrow night and Wednesday afternoon.

The Redlegs will try to pick up precious ground in the Polo Grounds, where they will face the seventh-place Giants tomorrow and Wednesday afternoons.

The American League race is all over but the playing out of the schedule. The runaway Yankees Chicago, who split a pair while New York was beating Washington 2-1. Any combination of eight New York victories and/or White Sox and Indians defeats will clinch the seventh flag in eight years for the Yankees.

Chicago came back to defeat Cleveland 6-2 after the Indians had won the opener 4-1. Boston's fourth-place Red Sox nipped Baltimore 3-2 in 12 innings and Detroit wallowed Kansas City 7-3 a sweep of the four-game series.

Pittsburgh and Philadelphia swapped a pair of 10-inning decisions, the Pirates winning the opener 4-1 on pinch hitter Bob Skinner's three-run homer and the Phillies winning the second game 6-5 as Rob Roberts gained his 17th victory, in a relief role.

The Braves spotted Chicago four runs on homers by Don Hoak, Monte Irvin and Hobie Landrith but roared back like champions to tie the score in the fifth and went ahead in the sixth on Bill Bruton's double, a passed ball and relief pitcher Ernie Johnson's sacrifice fly.

The Braves waited until the seventh inning of the second game to snap a 1-1 tie. A walk and singles by Chuck Tanner, Felix Mantilla, Danny O'Connell and Henry Aaron did the trick, producing three runs.

Brooklyn had an easy time of it as young Don Drysdale muffled the Giants with a three-hit while Carl Furillo drove in four runs with a home run and single. Willie Mays' 10th homer was the only damaging blow by the Giants.

The Reds were ahead 5-4 when the Cards came to bat in the 13th. Herschel Freeman had allowed only one hit in four innings of relief. But Wally Moon singled and scored the tying run on a triple by pinch hitter Walker Cooper. Strategy called for two intentional passes to fill the bases but Ray Katt upset the dope by slapping a single to center scoring pinch runner Bobby Morgan with the run that gave St. Louis a sweep of their first round playoff margins to 2-0 Sunday night.

Hobbs, winner at the end of the season, dropped its second straight game to San Angelo, 6-3.

El Paso whipped Pampa, 5-4, at El Paso. San Angelo and Hobbs move to San Angelo for the third one in their first round series and El Paso will move to Pampa Monday night.

Dodgers Are Set For Big Series

By ORLO ROBERTSON

BROOKLYN (AP)—The Brooklyn Dodgers are poised and ready for their two-game make or break series against the league leading Milwaukee Braves opening Tuesday night at Ebbets Field.

The team is at full strength, the pitchers well rested and the hitters appear to be back on the confidence from a week ago when they trailed by 3½ games makes the league champions a confident crew.

Milwaukee, apparently out of its slump following two victories over the Cubs yesterday, move into Dodgertown leading by one game.

For over a week Manager Walter Alton has pointed his two ace pitchers, Sal Maglie and Don Newcombe, for this brief series. The 39-year-old Maglie, pitching some of his best ball since being obtained from Cleveland May 15, goes in the opener. Newcombe, the majors' No. 1 winning pitcher with a 23-6 record, gets the call Wednesday afternoon.

Against these two Dodger stars, the Braves will throw Bob Buhl, who has beaten the champs seven times without a loss, and Lew Burdette, the controversial right-hander who may claim thrower of an illegal spit ball. Buhl (18-7) goes against Maglie (9-4) and Burdette (18-9) against big Newk.

To back up his starters, Alton has his bull pen twins, Don Bess and Clem Labine, well rested. The brightest spot among the hitters is the streaking Carl Furillo. He is running hot. Carl drove in four runs with a homer and a straight yesterday to mark the third straight game in which he struck decisive blows. Furillo broke up Friday night's game with an 11th inning homer and Saturday doubles and scored the winning run.

And Roy Campanella, still far off his 1955 form but capable of hitting the long ball, will be back in the lineup batting eighth. He was sidelined for several games with an injured thumb.

Eight men have held two terms as welterweight boss. Ex-champion Carmen Basilio hopes to be the ninth.

The 29-year-old former Marine from Chittenango, N.Y., gets his chance Wednesday night in a return title 15-rounder with champion Johnny Saxton of New York in the War Memorial Auditorium in Syracuse, N.Y.

The bout will be broadcast and telecast coast to coast with TV blackouts in Syracuse, Utica, Rochester, Birmingham and Waterbury.

Basilio, a 2-1 choice when he dropped his crown to Saxton in Chicago March 14 on a controversial decision, is an 8-5 favorite to win it back on his home grounds. The ring-scarred veteran claimed he was "robbed" in Chicago and most of the fans and boxing writers felt he was entitled to the verdict.

Saxton became the eighth man to reign over the 147-pounders twice when he beat Basilio. He had won the crown from Cuba's Kid Gavilan on another disputed verdict and lost it to Boston's Tony DeBarco, who handed it in turn to Basilio on a 12th-round technical knockout.

Willie Troy of Washington and England's John L. Sullivan, a couple of attack-minded middleweights, clash tonight in the feature 10-rounder at New York's St. Nicholas Arena. Troy's record is 33-5-2 with 23 kayos. Sullivan's record is 64-20-3, including 35 kayos.

Du Mont will telecast at 10 p.m., EDT.

Ninth Graders Open 1956 Season Against S'water

An estimated 40 boys are working out, seeking places on the Ninth Grade football team here. The Yearlings launch their season here at 7:30 o'clock Thursday evening against Sweetwater.

Coaches of the contingent are Charles Caraway and Dan Lewis, who report their club has made considerable progress since drills got under way.

The Yearlings, who recently scrimmaged the Steer B team, are confining their drills to the practice field north of the high school building.

One tackle position is posing a problem for Caraway and Lewis. Mackie Alexander, a 200-pounder, will take care of the other position. As it appears now, Bud Bridges

Mantle Jinxed In Record Bid

NEW YORK (AP)—The month of September, which has defied such stalwart challengers as Jimmy Foxx, Hank Greenberg, Hack Wilson and others, is proving a real stumbling block to Mickey Mantle as well in his efforts to equal or better Babe Ruth's 60 home runs of 1927.

The New York Yankee slugger who started with 47 home runs in September, two games up on Ruth's record pace, has failed to hit a single ball out of the park in the eight games he's played so far. Although Mickey currently is only two games behind the pace, his chances are getting slimmer by the day. His last homer came on Aug. 31, in New York's 12th game.

Mantle has 47 home runs in his teams' first 137 games. Roth had 49 after the same number of games but he hit his 50th the next day and wound up with 11 of his 17 September homers in the final 17 games. Mickey must hit 13 in the Yankees' last 17 games to tie the Babe.

Mickey's chances of joining the few who captured the triple crown (batting, home runs and runs batted in titles), also is being challenged. The Oklahoma Comet went hitless in four times at bat yesterday as his league-leading batting average dropped to .355. Ted Williams, his closest pursuer, is 11 points behind with .344.

The Boston slugger, however, may have difficulty reaching the required 400 official times at bat. He needs 60 and has only 18 games in which to get them.

Mantle has the home run championship well in hand but he may be hard pressed to win the RBI title. Detroit's Al Kaline is four behind Mickey's 118 RBIs but the Tigers have one more game to play than the Yankees.

Mickey already has lost the total hits lead to Chicago's Nellie Fox. The White Sox second baseman has 173 to Mantle's 173.

Hawks Trounce Big Lake, 7-3

BIG LAKE (SC) — The Big Spring Hawks nailed down a 7-3 verdict over the Big Lake Tigers here Sunday afternoon by scoring four runs in the ninth inning.

Jimmy Marin opened the big ninth with a double, his third hit of the game. N. Paredes, Salvador Sarmiento and Jimmy Fierro also had base hits in the round.

Ramirez hurled the win, setting the Big Lake team down with seven hits.

Marin and Johnny Subia each batted out three safeties for the Hawks while N. Paredes, Sarmiento and Fierro collected two hits each.

The Hawks visit San Angelo next Sunday for a game with the Greyhounds.

Greene To Face Chiefs Tonight

PORT ARTHUR (AP)—The Big State League playoff was all even today as Port Arthur and Corpus Christi squared off for the fifth game.

Tenacious Port Arthur leveled it up at 2-2 last night by slamming four runs across in the seventh inning to come from behind and win, 8-5.

Three singles and three bases on balls turned the trick. Then Angle Blyrd stepped in to hold the Clippers to one hit in three innings of nifty relief pitching.

Tonight, when the clubs meet in the fifth game, Carl Greene, 21-game winner during the season and victor in three playoff games, will pitch for Corpus Christi. George Zackey will be Port Arthur's choice.

Crippled Longhorns Open Last Drills For Ponies

Still in bad shape physically, the Big Spring Steers open their final week of workouts this afternoon for the Friday night debut in Andrews.

The Longhorns are resigned to the fact that they must get along without end Jan Loudermilk and halfback Rommie Phillips Friday.

There is a possibility halfback Johnny Janak may not be ready to play, either.

If such is the case, then coaches Harold Bentley and Roy Baird must have a few changes in their lineup.

The Longhorns will start brushing up on the offense they will employ against the Mustangs. They never used many play patterns against Brownfield in the scrimmage here last Saturday.

Rosewall Defeats Hoad In All-Aussie Final

By ED CORRIGAN

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (AP)—It really made no difference that Ken Rosewall won the national tennis championship. His victim, Lew Hoad, just as well could have won it. Either way, the title was headed back to Australia today for the first time since Frank Sedgman took it Down Under in 1952.

What it did show, though, was that American tennis is seriously ailing. Three Australians got into the semifinals and if it hadn't been for old-folks Vic Seixas, it would have been the first all-foreign semifinal in history.

Seixas was the fellow who was supposed to be all washed up at 33. Yet he advanced further than any other American. Except for Mike Green, the American youngsters showed very little. And Green, besides promise, showed that he was at least a year away from the top.

That's what confronted the American tennis brass before and after Rosewall drilled out a 4-6, 6-2, 6-3, 6-3 victory over Hoad in the final on the wind-swept turf of the West Side Tennis Club.

They were the two top amateurs in the world and proved it. The match was a good one, and Rosewall proved the complete master after the first set.

"The wind was difficult for both of us," said Rosewall. "We have wind in Australia, but it doesn't swirl like this. Sometimes, it looks as though three balls are coming at you and you wonder which one to hit."

This was Rosewall's first big victory over his Davis Cup mate in more than a year, and it was a good one for it prevented Hoad from scoring a "grand slam." He already had won the French, Australian and Wimbledon titles. Had he grabbed the National, he would have been the second player in history to turn the trick. Don Budge did it in 1938.

Shirley Fry of St. Petersburg, Fla., who won the women's title with a 6-3, 6-4 decision over Althea Gibson, said she was through with tennis for the year.

"My nerves won't take it," said Miss Fry, who also holds the Wimbledon championship.

MEETING LAMARQUE

Deer Park Plays Feature In AA

By The Associated Press

The Class AA division of Texas schoolboy football plunges headlong into the schedule this week, with every member in action and with the feature game at Deer Park where the erstwhile Class A champions make their start in the higher class.

Deer Park, twice king of Class A, will be really stepping up as it meets Lamarque, a Class AAA team, at Deer Park Friday night.

This is of more interest than the clash of defending Class AA champion Stamford with Ballinger. Stamford should win its game with comparative ease.

The mighty Bulldogs, running their string to 16 straight victories, knocked over Quannah, 46-12, last week. Ballinger was losing to Brady, 14-0.

Deer Park is rated the strongest team of the southern bracket but it is untested. Deer doesn't open the season until this week.

Other stand-out games send Hillsboro to Class AAA Killeen, Phillips to Childress and Commerce to Class AAA Stephenville. Hillsboro, Class AA finalist last year, claims it is rebuilding. What it does against powerful Killeen will indicate whether it has rebuilt already or not.

Atlanta, which smashed Mt. Vernon, 22-13, last week in a show of power, journeys into Arkansas to play Texarkana in a top inter-sectional game.

There are 125 games on the week's schedule. The schedule by districts (all games Friday unless indicated otherwise):

- 1. Lockney at Dimmitt. Dalhart at Glimmer. Hereford at Canyon. Abilene at Tule. Sulphur at Mullin.
- 2. Oton at Floydada. Post at Crosbyton. Seagraves at Alton. Hamlin at Spur.
- 3. Phillips at Childress. Shamrock at Letour. Canadian at Perryton. Amarillo II at Wellington. Padonah at Quanah.
- 4. Winters at Anson. Munday at Seymour. Ballinger at Stamford.
- 5. Crane at Monahans. Fabaka at Denver City. Fort Stockton at Big Lake. San Angelo Lakervier at McCaskey. Colorado City at Seminole.
- 6. Coleman at Brownwood. Ranger at Mingers. Wells.
- 7. Howie at Granbury. Llano at Hamilton. Comanche at Big Spring. Eastland at Dallas. Albany at De Leon.
- 8. Burkholder at Jova Park. Rotan at Oberlin. Decatur at Fort Worth. Duncan at Hill. Graham at Nacoma. Archer City at Elgin.
- 9. Muenster at Whitesboro. Fort Worth Lanier vs. Lake Worth. Midkiff at Maudsley. Basco at Greenville. Eastland at Grapevine. Northwest at Hurst.
- 10. Leonard at Waco. Dallas Jefferson at Seagraves. Kaufman at Mesquite. Richardson at Carrollton.
- 11. Van at Henderson. Grand Saline at Jacksonville. Adams at Terrell. Wills Falls at Jacksonville.
- 12. Sulphur Springs at Mt. Vernon. New Boston at Pittsburg. Canton at Commerce. Winnsboro at White Oak. Bonham at Honey Grove.
- 13. Atlanta at Texarkana. Ar. (Thursday); Texarkana II at Hooks. Linden at DeKalb.
- 14. Clarksville at Pine Tree. Jefferson at North Caddo. Hughes Springs at Dandridge. Muskogean at New London. Kinloch at Gilmer.

Playoffs To Open On Two Fronts

By The Associated Press

Texas League playoffs open at Houston and Dallas Tuesday night and if season's play is a criterion, Houston and Fort Worth should take the first round.

Houston entertains Tulsa, a club the Buffs beat 15 times in 22 games. The Buffs' final game of the regular season, in which they won the pennant, was a 2-1 triumph over Tulsa.

Dallas is host to Fort Worth, an outfit that holds a 12-10 edge for the season. However, most of those victories were early in the campaign. The last time Dallas and Fort Worth met, Dallas won three straight.

Heavy Voting Due In Maine Election

PORTLAND, Maine (AP)—Heavy voting is expected today in a Maine election the Republicans claim will spur the nation into re-electing President Eisenhower in November. Democrats say the issue is not Eisenhower but continuation of a semblance of two-party government in Maine.

The Republicans are trying to recapture the governorship from Edmund S. Muskie, first Democrat to hold the office in 20 years, and hold the state's three U.S. House seats.

If Muskie, 42, beats House Speaker Willis A. Trafton Jr. (R), 37, he will be the second Democratic governor to be re-elected since the Civil War.

Two of the state's leading political writers have given the nod to the tall, curly-haired governor. They also see the three Republican congressmen as victors.

One of these writers, Peter M. Damborg of the Guy Gannett papers, looks for a 300,000 turnout — only 10,000 off the gubernatorial record set in 1936. There are about 500,000 eligible voters this year.

Two GOP congressmen are opposed by the Democrats they beat two years ago. They are Representatives Robert Hale, 66, seeking an eighth term in the 1st Dist. against James G. Oliver, 60, and Clifford G. McIntire, 48, of the 3rd Dist. whose third-term foe is Kenneth B. Colbath (D), 57.

Fighting for the 2nd Dist. seat of retiring Rep. Charles P. Nelson (R) are State Sen. James L. Reid, 48, and Frank M. Coffin, 37-year-old chairman of the Democratic State Committee.

The big question in the race for the governorship is: How many of the so-called "Muskie Republicans" of 1954 will stick with him this time?

Two years ago Muskie defeated the Republican incumbent, Burton M. Cross, by a vote of 135,673 to 113,296 — or 54½ per cent of a total vote just under 249,000.

Bad Lights Lead To Liquor Arrest

PORT HURON, Mich. (AP)—It was only natural that state police would stop Vincent Damico when his panel truck had only one working headlight. But in the back end of the Detroit man's truck, officers found 56 one-gallon jugs of home brewed liquor. They jailed him for illegal possession.

Election Fun

Singing star Jane Morgan has a barrel of fun pegging up the traditionally early Maine election. Maine's early vote is supposed to foretell the national political trend but Jane says she isn't taking sides, in or out of the barrel. Voters in Pine Tree State will decide whether to keep in office Edmund S. Muskie, first Democratic governor in two decades. Jane has been appearing in summer stock at a theatre in Skowhegan, Maine.

Balloon Hovers Over Decatur

DECATUR, Ill. (AP)—Decatur residents got a good look yesterday at a big balloon which hovered over the city virtually all day.

In early evening, it moved southeastward and later was reported over Terre Haute, Ind.

It seemed probable the balloon was the same one launched in Minneapolis Friday by University of Minnesota scientists. It soared 144,000 feet, about 24½ miles, to exceed all previous altitude marks for such devices.

The scientists are conducting balloon experiments to study cosmic rays and meteorology in the upper atmosphere.

Community's Peace Ruined By Hog Horde

WRIGHT CITY, Okla. (AP)—The peace of this southeastern Oklahoma community is being disturbed by a horde of rail-thin hogs.

So many, in fact, that some were found rooting around a drug-store and a church.

The situation is so acute that county commissioners will meet today to decide if a special election should be called to decide whether the porkers can run loose on the open range the same as cattle.

The commissioners say the porker problem has brought on a wrangle between established ranchers and squatters who own a lot of hogs but little or no farm property.

The controversy has grown so heated that some fences were cut with wire snippers and officers said they were fearful of something more serious between the two factions unless the issue is settled soon.

The small property owners and squatters trucked their hogs down from the hills and dumped them on the highways where there was still some unburned patches of grass left from the summer drought.

"The situation has become desperate," Louis Monroe, a rancher owning 450 acres, declared. "Someone said there were more rain-thin hogs in Wright City than people but that is not true."

Wright City has a population of 1,200 and there's not more than 700 or 800 loose hogs in this vicinity.

Buddy Burke, another rancher, added, "I kicked three hogs out of the doorway of the drugstore when I tried to get in to buy some medicine."

Monroe said that only recently a pastor had to stop his sermon when some hogs started fighting under the church. Investigation disclosed nine of them grunting around the basement — apparently to escape the heat.

Cypriot Rebels Make First Attack On French Garrison

NICOSIA, Cyprus (AP)—Cypriot rebels made their first attack yesterday on French troops of Cyprus' booming "Suez garrison." The rebels inflicted no casualties on the French, but they killed a Greek Cypriot and wounded five British soldiers in other attacks.

Gunmen in ambush aimed small arms fire at a French army truck two miles from Famagusta on the east coast. French soldiers in the truck fired back. None were wounded, though the vehicle was hit five times.

The Greek Cypriot was shot dead in a coffee shop in Ayia Ioannis, a southwestern village. Four British soldiers were in a truck blown up south of Nicosia. A bomb was detonated electrically in a tree as the truck passed by. Another soldier was wounded by a bomb blast on a British servicemen's beach near Limassol, south coast port.

Gunfire and bombs also were directed from ambush at British army vehicles near Kyrenia on the north coast. Bombs were thrown at other vehicles at Kythrea, eight miles northeast of Nicosia. A time bomb was found and disposed of in a ditch near the British district commissioner's house in Larnaca on the east coast. No casualties resulted in these cases.

Adlai Says Living Costs Hurt GOP

By The Associated Press

Adlai Stevenson said today there is "a growing concern over the rising cost of living" which dims Republican chances in the November elections.

The Democratic presidential candidate, at a luncheon conference with party leaders in Hartford, Conn., added in prepared remarks:

"... I have encountered a widespread and sober concern over the absence of leadership in Washington, over the insecurity and want that discolors our prosperity, over the ugly disorders that warp the path of civil rights, over the deterioration of political and military positions in the cold war, and over much else."

Stevenson's prime target, President Eisenhower, formally opens his own campaign Wednesday with a rally at his Gettysburg, Pa., farm for key campaign leaders from all over the nation.

In Columbus, Ohio, Saturday, Stevenson also called for stabilization of farm income "at full parity" and said Democrats insist that something can be done to give small businessmen a "reasonable chance of surviving in the world of giants."

In the wake of the Columbus speech, Sen. Aiken (R-Vt.) accused Stevenson of following a "policy of misrepresentation on farm issues" that is "caving in around him."

Aiken said Stevenson "finally has admitted that Democrat farm policies created surpluses that are difficult to get rid of" and "has been deluded into believing low income families can eat it all—regardless of the fact that many commodities, like cotton, are not edible."

And Sen. Mundt (R-SD) renewed an earlier challenge to Stevenson, saying Stevenson seems "afraid" to comment on a recent remark by former President Truman about Alger Hiss.

Truman, asked at a Milwaukee news conference if he thought Hiss had been a Communist spy, replied "no." Hiss served a federal prison term for perjury after denying he passed U.S. secrets to Communist agents.

Mundt said, "It appears that Mr. Stevenson either is afraid to come to grips with Mr. Truman on this issue or of offending the ADA (Americans for Democratic Action) or left-wing elements that are supporting him."

Republicans also were still smarting from a vigorous assault made by Truman Friday night. Among other charges, the former President said Eisenhower is shirking his presidential duties by handing them to subordinates to maintain his own popularity.

Republican National Chairman Leonard Hall retaliated with an accusation that Truman is "losing his grip." He said Truman apparently "has embarked on a hate campaign against the Republicans."

Church Membership In U.S. Increases

NEW YORK (AP)—The National Council of Churches says church membership in the United States has soared beyond the 100 million mark for the first time in history.

Uncle Ray:
Island Of Crete Had Pioneer Civilization

By RAMON COFFMAN

Now and then someone speaks of the time "when the world was young." There is special interest in those words, but they could mean several things.

The world was young, for example, at the time our planet started to spin through space and to circle around the sun. Neither animals nor trees nor shrubs existed in that period.

We might speak of the Old Stone Age as the time of the world's "youth." That was the period when the human race was young, but people often mix the story of mankind with that of "the world."

Long after the end of the Stone Age, the human race learned to make written records. At that time the world, or at least civilization, was young.

Scholars differ as to the place where the art of writing originated. Many say that the honor belongs to Egypt, and they have important facts on their side. Others believe that the Sumerians (who lived on land which later became a section of Babylonia) were as early as the Egyptians in producing written records, possibly earlier.

A certain island also played a part in the morning of civilization. I am thinking of Crete, which lies to the south of Greece. It has been described as "equally distant from Greece, Egypt, and Asia Minor." The fact is that it is closer to Greece than to any other mainland.

The Egyptians and Sumerians were ahead of the people of Crete, but the ancient Greeks were behind them: It seems clear that Crete became a civilized country a thousand years before Greece could claim that honor.

The story of Crete goes back to a time before the fall of Troy. The man who did most to learn the facts about Crete was a British scientist. I shall start his story tomorrow.
