Reports Urged In UF Drive

Only a handful of workers turned in reports Thursday, first reporting date for the 1956 United Fund campaign, and D. M. McKinney, general campaign chairman, appealed for workers to make progress reports today and Saturday.

The child's abduction set in motion a search of the area by 100 policemen.

Two of the searching officers, detectives Joseph Corcoran and Edward Cagney, got the lead when they knocked on the door of Mrs. Norbert Kowalski, who remembered that her husband had told of taking a sick woman with a child home last night.

Corcoran and Cagney found Kowalski, who showed them the Byrum apartment, where they found the baby.

Deeley said that the baby appeared in good condition when police surprised Mrs. Bynum with the child in the basement apartment.

Mrs. Bynum and her husband were taken to the state's attorney's office for questioning after the baby was returned to his mother.

The baby was taken, Mrs. Bucher said, when she left the apartment to telephone for a taxi to take Mrs. Bynum home.

Mrs. Bucher told police the woman told her her name was "Gladys" and she lived in suburban Cicero. She added the woman confided she didn't want the baby she was expecting because "my husband drinks and runs around with women."

Mrs. Bucher said she was gone about five or six minutes and when she returned the stranger and the baby were gone.

Farm Girl Slays Aunt

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP)—A 12-year-old South Dakota farm girl, who said "I must be crazy," told police today how she killed her aunt with an ax after brooding over a missing $5 allowance.

The girl, Patricia Corcoran, was held for investigation into the slaying yesterday in the neat stucco home of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Bunce.

Police inspector Edward Ray gave this account: "The girl, one of nine children of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Corcoran of Mitchell, S. D., came to the childless Bunce home a month ago at Mrs. Bunce's suggestion."

Ray quoted the girl as saying she got a short handled ax from the garage and struck her aunt. Then she stabbed her with a bread knife and, when that bent, resorted to a butcher knife.

Bunce returned home an hour later to find the girl standing on a washing machine. "I've just killed Laverne," he quoted her. "I must be crazy."

After calling police from a grocery store, Bunce said he returned and found the girl sitting quietly in the living room. "I'm crazy... and homesick," he quoted her.

"She's just a plain skinny kid," Ray said. "She must be 5 feet 5 inches tall and can't weigh more than 90 pounds or so. Her little arms aren't more than two inches thick."

Thunderstorms Build Up In Gulf

By The Associated Press

More thunderstorms were expected to build up over the Gulf Friday and drift into the Texas coast.

Several barged into the coast Thursday. A mid-afternoon storm dropped temperatures 30 degrees in 30 minutes at Beaumont and dropped 1 1/2 inches of rain. Some streets were temporarily flooded. Sections of the city lost power for a time.

At Jasper, 60 miles north of Beaumont, a brief but damaging hail storm broke windows and damaged the pecan crop.

A wind storm with some hail ripped through a narrow path just west of Corpus Christi, causing several thousand dollars damage. Most damage by winds estimated at up to 70 miles an hour was at Robstown and Bishop.

Phon service was cut for a time in several areas. A 56-foot steel grain elevator under construction at Edroy came in, causing damage up to $10,000.

Scattered light rains fell along the entire Texas Gulf coast and as far inland as College Station. Galveston had .99 of an inch. Houston 1.8, Beaumont .45 and Corpus Christi .07.

Laredo had a high Thursday of 103 degrees. Predawn temperatures Friday ranged from 51 at Dalhart to 78 at Laredo.

Showers fell in areas near the Gulf coast and in sections of the West but generally fair weather prevailed in most other parts of the country today.

Skies cleared in most of the East after yesterday's rain and pleasant weather was indicated for the second game of the World Series in Brooklyn.

It was dry and clear in the Central States. There was a little pooling in the upper and mid-Mississippi Valleys and Great Lakes region. Lowest temperatures—below freezing—were reported in the northern lakes area.

In the Northern Plains, readings were some 20 degrees higher than 24 hours earlier. It was 70 at Philip, S.D.

Temperatures climbed above 100 degrees in the lower Rio Grande Valley yesterday, highest marks for the date in some cities. It was 103 at Laredo, Tex., and 101 at Del Rio, Tex.

Boy, 11, Held In Pal's Death

COLTON, Calif. (AP)—An 11-year-old boy is being held by juvenile authorities today in connection with the drowning of his school chum, George Bryant, 8, a polo victim.

The body of young Bryant, a national "Polo Poster Boy" in 1949, was found yesterday face down in 10 inches of water along the Santa Ana River wash.

Police said Lester Stewart, a playmate of George's, since the Bryant family moved here two weeks ago, told them this story: "We were scuffling at the edge of the water—I pushed George in and held his head down until he quit bubbling."

Stewart said he then went home, changed his wet clothes and watched television.

The Bryant youngster appeared on a polo fund campaign poster when under treatment at St. Helena Hospital, Napa County, Calif. He had a withered right arm as a result of the attack.

His mother, a divorcee, is a waitress in nearby San Bernardino. His father, George Bryant Jr., lives in Bakersfield, Calif.

Adlai Gets Warm Reception In Harlem

NEW YORK (AP)—Adlai Stevenson was buoyed today by a cheering reception from Negroes in civil rights-conscious Harlem.

The Democratic presidential nominee headed for the second World Series game in Brooklyn with confidence in his camp that he had surmounted a possibly critical juncture in his campaign.

His supporters regarded Harlem as something of a weathervane as to how he might fare in other popular Negro centers in Northern states with large electoral votes.

An outdoor crowd estimated by police at 10,000 applauded his contention that Negroes had made their greatest gains with a Democrat in the White House.

They applauded also when he accused Republicans of a "brazen" attempt "to seize partisan credit for progress in civil rights."

The outdoor rally last night was open to all comers, friends or foes of the Democratic ticket.

But if any of those attending were unfriendly, they were silent. Reporters covering the event heard no boos or jeers or any unfriendly remarks.

Loudest applause came when Stevenson reiterated previous assertions that "I support this decision" of the Supreme Court ruling segregation in public schools unlawful.

He quoted President Eisenhower as having said of the decision: "I think it makes no difference whether or not I endorse it."

At another point, Stevenson said Eisenhower has been "presented with an opportunity for great national leadership in this field" and had been "virtually silent."

Stevenson said Eisenhower last Monday credited Republicans with ending segregation in the armed forces, but that an executive order issued by President Truman in 1948 "sounded the death knell" of such segregation.

Stevenson said the order was issued despite testimony by Eisenhower, then chief of staff, before a congressional committee that complete desegregation in the armed forces would "get us 'into trouble'."

"I don't," said Stevenson, "mind the President's trying to make off in broad daylight with the Democratic platform—he always returns it right after election day anyway—but he better stop trying to run on the Democratic record."

The Democrat said the Republicans claimed credit for stopping discrimination in employment by government contractors but that actually "all they did was to continue the work by the Fair Employment Practices Commission" under Presidents Roosevelt and Truman.

He said the Republicans also claimed credit for ending segregation in the District of Columbia. He said "the case which meant the end of segregation in many public places in the District was initiated at the time President Truman was in office and while Mr. Eisenhower was still a private citizen."

After the rally, Stevenson drove to the Savoy Ballroom where he was a guest at a reception given by a group of Negro businessmen.

Earlier, Stevenson addressed rallies in a Jewish-Italian-Puerto Rican district on Delancey Street on the lower East Side and a rally in a Puerto Rican-Italian district in East Harlem.

He said a recent speech by Eisenhower gives the impression the Republicans had originated the New Deal.

On the lower East Side, Stevenson said Republican conduct of foreign policy has been wanting, and that Eisenhower should take East away from Secretary of State John Foster Dulles.

"Israel is imperiled," Stevenson said. "I know many of you are Jewish. I know you are anxious, and I am, too."

His speech there was marked by mechanical difficulties.

"I find it pretty hard to get in touch with he people down here," Stevenson quipped when he had been interrupted for the third time. He said that if he didn't know the people he would have suspected "Republican sabotage."

John L. Lewis Finds Nobody Will Fight Him Anymore

CINCINNATI (AP)—Labor leader John L. Lewis nowadays is like a baseball slugger who gets walked every time he comes to bat. Nobody will fight him anymore.

The 76-year-old Lewis, still hale and hearty, signed a fat new wage contract for soft coal miners yesterday, calling for a $2.40 per day package raise in wages and holiday benefits.

The veteran president of the United Mine Workers Union said he couldn't help but mention, in passing, how the quick, peaceful negotiations leading to the new contract were a far cry from the "turbulence" of coal labor relations a few years ago.

In those days of tense, prolonged strikes and negotiations Lewis was tilting with presidents, congressional committees, courts and mainly the mine owners, or anyone else standing in his way.

There have been rumors that Lewis, perhaps somewhat bored with the relative ease with which coal wage negotiations are carried on now, may bow out as UMW president but remain in charge of the union's 140-million-dollar welfare fund and substantial investments.

But Lewis won't discuss any such possibility. In fact, he gives every indication of wanting to keep the UMW helm as long as he can.

The new coal contract is to run one year until Oct. 1, 1957 or longer, unless terminated by either side. It calls for a two-stage $2 per day boost in wages—$1.20 retroactive to last Monday, and another 80 cents next April 1—plus 40 cents per day worth of added holiday benefits. This will increase basic daily pay for miners to $22.25.

The new contract works out to a raise of about 30 cents an hour—about the biggest won in an industry this year. Also, it keeps miners in the top wage bracket paid in the nation.

In Pittsburgh last night, George H. Love, president of Pittsburgh Consolidation Coal Co., world's largest producer, said he thinks the pay raise is "not too high."

Edward G. Fox, new president of the Bituminous Coal Operators Assn., made and signed the deal with Lewis. Fox declined to say whether he expected coal price increases.

But Lewis frankly said he expects price boosts.

Industry sources forecast coal price increases of about 25 to 50 cents a ton, Lewis said he expects the deal he made with Fox, covering about 150,000 of the soft coal industry's some 200,000 workers, to spread to the rest of the industry.

Lewis gave special tribute in addressing the UMW's 3,000 convention delegates here to the role Thomas Kennedy, UMW vice president, played in negotiating the new contract. Lewis said he merely "held the lamp" while Kennedy did the work.

If Lewis decided to bow out as UMW president, Kennedy, 68-year-old former lieutenant governor of Pennsylvania, would become his immediate successor.

Strauss Denies U. S. Trails Reds In Atom Development

WASHINGTON (AP) — Chairman Lewis L. Strauss of the Atomic Energy Commission describes as "patently false" Sen. Estes Kefauver's statement that the United States trails Britain and Russia in atomic power development. Strauss said the Democratic vice presidential nominee "further distorted the facts" and engaged in "malicious innuendo" in a Tuesday speech at Los Alamos, N.M., criticizing the Eisenhower administration's handling of atomic energy. The White House made public last night Strauss' memorandum to the president. Press secretary James C. Hagerly said President Eisenhower ordered the action "to keep the facts straight." Strauss said that when the present administration took office, "the development of atomic power for commercial use was stalled on dead center." He asked Kefauver to explain why. As a result of developments since then, he said, this country will have in operation at Shippingport, Pa., next year, what he called "the first large, full-scale atomic power plant in the world, exclusive for civilian use." Sixteen others are under construction or planned for completion by 1962, Strauss said, and of these five are to be built without any direct government financial assistance. Britain's Calder Hall plants, to go in operation this month, Strauss said, "are primarily plants for the production of a weapons material (plutonium) with power as an expensive by-product." So far as is known, Strauss said, Russia now has "nothing but a small, 5,000-kilowatt reactor which

Wheat Farmer's 'Mad,' Is For Adlai This Time

Editor's Note: This is another article in a series by AP's political reporters surveying sentiment in key states.

By ARTHUR EDSON
KINGFISHER, Okla. (AP)—Will A. Struck, who farms 480 acres of wheat land hard hit by drought, leaned on the front fender of a parked car and readily expressed his political sentiments. "I'm mad," Struck said.

So, although he voted for Dwight D. Eisenhower for president in 1952, this time Struck said, he will switch to the Democrats and Adlai E. Stevenson. "My wheat crop," Struck said, "wasn't worth a damn. Haven't had a good crop since 1952. Between like and the dry weather they're going to bust us poor old farmers."

In 1952, Eisenhower carried this normally Democratic state by 510,045 votes to Stevenson's 430,939. The Democrats are betting that the dry prairies and the hill country have enough discontented farmers to move Oklahoma's eight electoral votes over to Stevenson.

Republicans say the farm revolt is overrated. Anyway, they're betting on big majorities in Oklahoma City and Tulsa, where Eisenhower four years ago rolled up a formidable 52,000-vote advantage.

Walter E. Curry, Republican state chairman, predicts Eisenhower won't do as well as his 47,000-vote margin four years ago. Right now, Curry would be happy to settle for a victory of 35,000 to 50,000 votes.

On the Democratic side, Sen. Mike Monroney figures Stevenson to win by 80,000 votes. He's banking heavily on farmer discontent to infect the small town merchant.

As for the state political reporters, they're so evenly divided that Oklahoma will have to go down as truly doubtful.

With every ballot counting, the farmer seems to be the voter with the loudest complaint. Saunter around Kingfisher—pop. 3,345—and you get a different idea of the complexities of the farm problem than you had in Washington.

Leon Whitaker, a young man who used to farm here but now works for a drilling company in Buffalo, Okla., was talking with Ed Baker, an insurance man. "I tried farming seven years," Whitaker said, "but everything was against me. I had to quit. One farmer can't live on a quarter section of land 160 acres—any more and make a living. I know, I tried."

"Plenty of others have found out the same thing," Baker said. "Dry weather plus comparatively poor prices, Baker said, have whittled the population of Kingfisher County from 28,000 to 12,700 since 1948. Many farmers who remain make a living only by driving 44 miles into Oklahoma City to work.

Yet neither blames the administration for the farmers' plight. Both voted for Eisenhower, and will do so again.

This is wheat country. To the south, around El Reno, you run into country that also produces cotton, alfalfa, corn—and other farm products.

Glen Brown, called "Chick" because he runs a hatchery, was saying: "You know, every time a farm is sold around here, it's added on to another farm. The little farmer is moving away, to Oklahoma City, Tulsa, Dallas. It ruins the small businessman like me."

Brown is an Eisenhower man, and no matter what the farm situation may be, "I don't see how they're going to get like out of there."

But A. G. Guth, who sells farm machinery, reports: "The Democrats who voted for Eisenhower are talking quite a bit about going back."

Wilson Harvey, a Negro who has retired from carpentry, plans to vote for Eisenhower again. He doesn't think times are too good, "but there's just so much a president can do. And old Ike did a pretty good job of stopping that war."

But E. B. Billinger, a retired railroad engineer, gives the green light to Stevenson. "Personally," he said, "I like old Eisenhower, but those men he has around him—"

Further south, in Democratic territory, E. P. Wilkinson tells you he's sure farmers who voted for Eisenhower four years ago won't do so again. Wilkinson, a Democrat, feeds 3,000 hogs at Apache. Now a shift in scenery, north of Tulsa through Oologah, Talala and into Nowata Cattle country here, with handsome herds standing around ponds so dry they look like overgrown mud puddles.

Dick Hamman, who sells home appliances, doesn't plan to change his vote. "I don't see why," he said, "after having a kid in Korea."

He then brought up a subject rarely mentioned in the Southwest: Eisenhower's health. "Personally," Hanigan said, "I think it would have been smarter to turn the old man out to pasture." Even so, he's 100 per cent for Eisenhower.

In a women's wear store, Mrs. J. J. Bowden said she doesn't know what she will do on Nov. 6. "You know what's wrong with the Democratic party?" she asked. "Why don't they get a stronger man? Why did they pick him? And I'm a Democrat, too."

At the feed store Bill Whitford brought up an issue that has been on front pages in Oklahoma recently. At Wagoner, during a contested primary election between two Democrats, charges were made that absentee ballots were used loosely and that campaign workers were paid in relief checks.

Whitford, a strong pro-Eisenhower man, figures that what many newspapers call "the Wagner vote scandal" will hurt the Democrats badly. Nor does he think the farmers are leaving Eisenhower. "The farm vote," he said, "will be heavier for Eisenhower than in '52."

Col. L. A. O'Dell — "Colonel" because all auctioneers have that title out this way—thinks some farmers may switch from Eisenhower, but "the Democrats haven't produced any new farm program."

So O'Dell will vote Republican again, as will Clyde West, a Negro who traces his politics back to the Emancipation Proclamation. "I vote the straight ticket," West said. "I never vote for a Democrat, and I've little use for any colored man that does."

At a filling station James Gatewood said he tends to vote Democratic, but he hasn't made up his mind about Nov. 6. "A few around here say they don't want Stevenson because he's divorced," Gatewood said, "but I say if we're going to follow that line we are going to cut a lot of people out of office."

Water Committee Urges 3-Cent Conservation Tax

AUSTIN (AP) — A constitutional amendment which would bill Texans with a 3-cent ad valorem tax to conserve water was proposed yesterday by the Texas Water Resources Committee.

The resolution, submitted by Fort Worth Engineer Marvin Nichols, was approved by the committee. It asks its staff to draw up the amendment which will be presented to the next Legislature. A similar proposal failed in the last Legislature.

The committee also approved a resolution by Nichols to ask the Legislature for 10 million dollars annually for the purpose of buying water conservation storage in federal-built blood control reservoirs.

vote on the ad valorem tax resolution.

Saul said he would have to "wait and see" the proposed ad valorem tax amendment before he could commit his vote.

The project to buy storage in future federal projects was first suggested by State Water Board Chairman R. M. Dixon as a means of getting more water for various uses in the state.

The committee did not know whether it would have to draw up a bill for storage plan. In other action the committee approved a bill which is aimed at regulation injection of industrial waste into sub-surface strata, which pollutes underground water supplies.

State Rep. Saul of Kress did not

Battle Plans Best Before Battles

One of the products of the recent "Water for Texas" conference at A&M College was a tentative agreement that the success of constructive water legislation next year would depend upon prior popular agreement upon a basic plan.

There is some acceptable plan worked out in advance, that this bit of history would be repeated.

But there are other little things that each of us can do—things like taking visitor to his destination instead of giving directions, if time will permit; or giving fast cheerful service in our restaurants, hotels and motels; or offering transportation if our visitors seem in need of it.

Public Not Ready To Abolish Draft

PRINCETON, N. J. — Adlai Stevenson's campaign demand for a careful "new look" at the question of compulsory military service in the light of new atomic weapons and new tactics comes at a time when the American public views the military manpower problem as follows:

If anything, young voters are more emphatic than their elders that the time is not now at hand for doing away with the draft.

1—By an overwhelming majority, voters of the country do not think the time has yet come when this country should do away with the draft.

The survey also finds little difference by party affiliation, as the following table shows:

Eisenhower Vs. The Democrats

Contrary to what most of us thought would happen, the big set speeches on television are not reaching the undecided voters on whom the outcome depends.

is probably temporary in that the decline is due to the special character of this campaign. The matters with which the voters are most concerned are deeply human questions of capacity and character.

There must be a number of reasons why in both parties there is such a clamor for personal appearances, rather than for big orations. But all the reasons derive from what I, think, the fundamental choice on which the undecided voters are crystallizing their hunches and making up minds.

Unless I am much mistaken, the contest for the Presidency is not between Eisenhower personally and Stevenson personally. Nor is it a contest between the Republican party and the Democratic party.

Horace Reagan New Kiwanis President

Big Spring Kiwanis Club elected new officers for 1957 at its Thursday noon luncheon and the election took nearly 20 minutes. Horace Reagan will be president, succeeding Harvey Clay.

HORACE REAGAN

Vice presidents are Jack Alexander and Sam Sontag. Sontag announced at the meeting that he is being transferred from Big Spring to Muskogee, Okla. John Coffey, of the nominating committee, recommended that he be elected as second vice president in recognition of the many services he has rendered Kiwanis here during his Big Spring residence.

Directors elected are: Dalton Mitchell, H. W. Smith, Robert Stripling, Roy Black, Bob Heine, Ernest Welch and Floyd Parsons. Coffey read the list of nominees proposed by the committee, asked if there were any nominations from the floor. There were none. He then moved that the officers listed by the committee be elected by acclamation. The slate was unanimously approved.

He reminded his listeners of the old days when successive drives for funds were waged to support the several community enterprises dependent on public financing. The new method, he pointed out, is far more efficient and business-like. Bob Heine, general chairman on arrangements for observation of Kids' Day celebrated last Saturday, expressed his appreciation to his committee members for the work they performed in making the day the success that it was. Reagan presided in the absence of Clay.

Band Boosters Tag Day Scheduled For Saturday

"Band Booster Tag Day" for benefit of the Junior High School band, is being sponsored Saturday by the Big Spring Band Boosters Association.

The junior high band in uniforms, drum major uniforms and uniforms for the majorettes. The Band Boosters also furnish all entertainment for visiting bands and chaperones for all band events.

Acquitted Of Driving Charge

Billy Jean Smart Tracy, charged with driving while intoxicated, was found not guilty by a Howard County court jury at 4:00 p.m. Thursday.

The Band Boosters raise all of the money required for outfitting the band. The Band Boosters have announced that headquarters for tag day will be established in the Record Shop at 211 Main. Campaign will be launched immediately after the Saturday morning parade and will be closed at 4 p.m. Chairmen for the tag day are Mrs. J. T. Morgan, Mrs. H. T. Oliphant and Mrs. Oscar Glickman. Other band mothers will assist the chairmen in the conduct of the drive. Jack Alexander, president of the association, said that all members of the Junior High Band will be working on tag day. They will wear their band uniforms.

The jurors, given the case at 3:30 p.m., were back in court in less than 30 minutes and ruled that the state had not established its case against the Big Spring woman. She was the only defendant to face a jury so far in the current criminal jury docket in the county court. Mrs. Tracy was cited for alleged driving while intoxicated on last July 14. She has been at liberty on bond since that time. She was arrested by city police and the officers were principal state witnesses. Previously this week, two other cases called for trial were dismissed by Judge R. H. Weaver who sustained a motion of the defense that the complaints had been altered.

Nixon Slashes Adlai Hopes Of End To Draft

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Nixon has again swung hard at Adlai Stevenson's expressed hopes for ending the draft, saying the Republicans will not "hold out any false hopes" of such action.

Nixon said he thinks Stevenson is "a well intentioned man," but contended the Democratic candidate lacks the background and judgment of President Eisenhower in matters involving threats to peace and freedom.

Stevenson has said the draft should be ended "at the earliest possible moment consistent with the national safety." On a nationwide television interview last night, Nixon said Republicans would like to be able to promise that compulsory military service could soon be abolished without impairing national safety. But he said they would "not kid the American people in an election year . . . when we know there is no chance of this particular time for it to happen."

It would be completely irresponsible, Nixon said, to tell allies the United States is reducing its strength and still expect them to keep up their own full efforts. Nixon promised that never, under Eisenhower, would "thousands of American boys" go into a war unprepared, as he said happened in Korea. "Some of them died because they did not have the training they needed," Nixon said.

Repeatedly, Nixon appealed for the election of a Republican Congress as well as president. He said drought stricken farmers would be better off if the Democratic Congress had not balked at administration plans for early payment of soil bank benefits. Still, he said, the soil bank in the long run will help drought areas.

Nixon said congressional opposition also had blocked projects advocated by the President under his "partnership" policy for natural resources development. Nixon declared that only this policy, emphasizing the role of local governments and private interests in power and similar developments, could fully realize the potential. He again denied Democratic charges that Eisenhower is against the "little man," saying he objected to this term for any American and that "for the great majority of Americans the Eisenhower years have been the best four years of our lives."

The interview, in which Nixon was questioned by eight newsmen in as many cities, was presented as Nixon's report on a 32-state campaign swing he completed Wednesday.

"I moved from Big Spring in 1918 and left (the Bible) in a trunk stored at the old Cooks place east of town, which is the Neil place now," said Mrs. King. The Bible contains birth and other records of her family, including the marriage of Laura Dyer and Joe Junham. She described the Bible as being 15x12x3 inches. Mrs. King's address in Arizona is Box 422.

Sandstone Is Made Of Cemented Sand

By RAMON COFFMAN

Most sandstone is hard, but some of it is soft, or at least "crumbly." Some sandstone on hillsides can be broken with gentle blows of a small hammer. A piece of it may be crumbled in the hand, and what you have left is sand!

Usually, however, a strong, natural cementing substance—silica, calcite or iron oxide—holds the grains of sand tightly together. Sandstone is a fine example of a sedimentary rock. The sediment of which sandstone is made is sand. The sand is made up of bits of granite and other rock. The sand may be moved about by wind, but more often it is carried by running water. Rivers move vast amounts of sand, as well as silt.

Q. Why is some sandstone gray, buff or white, while other sandstone is red or brown?

A. The colors are provided by the sand which made the stone, or by the cementing substance. The dark brown shades, also the red, were produced by iron oxide. Old brownstone houses (which used to be popular in eastern parts of the United States) were built from brown, or reddish brown, sandstone.

Q. Why is sandstone in certain places soft or crumbly?

A. Because it was not under enough pressure when it was formed, or because of poor cementing. Sometimes the original cement (especially calcite) is dissolved and washed away by rain water.

Q. Is sandstone of special interest to the oil industry?

A. In certain places sandstone serves as a "reservoir" for oil. It is "porous" and about 100 cubic

Estes In Arizona, Taunts GOP Over 'Right To Suffer' Remark

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Sen. Estes Kefauver campaigned into Arizona today, taunting Republicans with the "right to suffer" remark of the former Republican governor of the state, now an assistant to President Eisenhower.

The Democratic vice presidential nominee, in a speech prepared for delivery at a luncheon here, recalled that "it was Howard Pyle who said 'the right to suffer is one of the joys of a free economy.'"

"This is a 'joy' which we Democrats—which Adlai Stevenson and I and your leaders here—don't wish to inflict further upon you," he declared.

Pyle made the remark at a press conference in Detroit last May. He later said he did not mean it the way it was interpreted. Kefauver accused the Republicans of falling down on water conservation and multi-purpose dam projects, school construction, home building and programs to aid small business.

The tireless Tennessee had another 18 hours of barnstorming lined up for today to match the gruelling pace he set yesterday in the Los Angeles area. His schedule for today started with a breakfast meeting in Tucson, where he arrived in early morning by plane from Los Angeles, included press conferences at Tucson and Phoenix, and then carried him to Pueblo, Colo., for a dinner and a speech. He is to fly to Enid, Okla., to spend tonight and then have another rough day in Oklahoma tomorrow. One new speech, at Muskogee, has been added to talks previously listed for Enid, Alva and Ponca City.

The senator's aides were highly pleased over his first campaign invasion of California yesterday. Kefauver drew one capacity and one overflow audience last night in small halls at two suburban communities in the Los Angeles area.

At his speech in Norwalk, just six miles from Whittier, the home town of Vice President Nixon, the Tennesseean got a big response from the crowd with a sharp attack on the vice president. Kefauver also went after Eisenhower in his Norwalk speech.

HYMN OF THE MONTH
OCTOBER, 1956
WHEN MORNING GILDS THE SKIES
Text trans by Edward Caswall (1814-1878)
Tune — Sir Joseph Barnby (1838-1896)
This hymn made its first appearance in Wurtzburg in 1828, without the author's name. Edward Caswall gave it to us in its English dress. An honor graduate of Oxford University, his life was marked by earnest devotion to parish work. He belongs with Chandler, Peale and Miss Winkworth among Nineteenth Century translators.
This hymn was always a great favorite at St. Paul's Cathedral in London. The refrain, "May Jesus Christ be praised," coming twice in each stanza, may well be sung in unison with full voice. The original German hymn had fourteen stanzas, but only six were included in his first translation. Four years later he included the rest of the hymn.
The tune, Laudes Domini, by Joseph Barnby (1838-1896) was written for this hymn in 1868. It has the right rhythm, and gives one just the joyous spirit in which to interpret these exultant words.

Driver Loser In Automobile Fight
DECATUR, Ill. (AP)—Frank Hauck, 24, ended up second best in an argument with his automobile.
He became exasperated over failure to unlock his car and picked up a brick to break a window and received a cut on his wrist as it came in contact with the broken glass. He was treated in a hospital and released, police said.

Many Pheasants
ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP)—Pheasant hunters bagged 1,090,349 birds in Minnesota last year, compared with 659,357 in 1954, according to state game and fish department estimates.

Great Passages of the Bible

GOD CREATED THE UNIVERSE IN SIX DAYS AND RESTED ON THE SEVENTH

Scripture—Genesis 1:1-2:3.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL
FROM last week's lesson in Revelation, the last book of the Bible, we turn to the first book—Genesis, which tells of the creation of the earth.
Pity the children who are not brought up to appreciate the wonders of the world in which we live, and to delight in its beauty and to marvel at its orderliness—the seasons following each other, each one with its own beauty and usefulness.
Many new books are being written concerning the creation of the world by scientists as well as theologians. They are most interesting, but acknowledge that a great and wonderful intelligence created it—in other words, God.
No account of the creation is more beautifully worded than that of our Bible.
"In the beginning God created the heaven and the earth. And the earth was without form, and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep. And the spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters."
"And God made the firmament, and divided the waters which were under the firmament from the waters which were above the firmament; and it was so."
"And God called the firmament Heaven. And the evening and the morning were the second day."
If I quote the entire lesson from Genesis, our space will be more than filled, so we will just say that on the third day God divided the earth and the waters, made the earth to bear grass and fruit trees bearing fruit. The entire scripture assigned us should be read aloud, the members of the class each taking part if possible.
On the fourth day God created the sun, moon and stars and set them in the firmament. On the fifth day he created whales and "every living creature that moveth, which the waters brought forth abundantly," and the birds, and every winged thing, and He blessed them and told them to multiply. On the sixth day God made the beasts, the cattle, all creeping things, and lastly "man in His own image, in the image of God created He him; male and female created He them." And He gave them dominion over all the earth and over every living thing, telling man to "replenish the earth and subdue it."
"And God saw every thing that He had made, and behold, it was very good."
"All subsequent revelation presupposes a knowledge of the universe, of life and man, such as is here recorded," writes Dr. Wilbur M. Smith. "There are accounts of creation in other ancient literatures," he writes, but none so beautiful as that in our Bible.
That "the earth was without form and void" in the beginning is accepted by scientists as the state of the world before it was formed. It was "a primeval chaos which time has fashioned into the universe that we know," according to a learned professor of astronomy.
"And the spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters."
"And God said, Let there be light; and there was light. And God saw the light, that it was good; and God divided the light from the darkness."
"And God called the light Day, and the darkness He called Night. And the evening and the morning were the first day."
"And God said, Let there be a firmament in the midst of the waters, and let it divide the waters from the waters."

MEMORY VERSE
"And God saw every thing that He had made, and behold, it was very good."—Genesis 1:31

"And God saw every thing that He had made, and behold, it was very good."
"To God who created the good earth on which we live and move and have our being, and to whom our prayers, arise, and to Jesus Christ, His Son, who died to save us, we should not only pray for help, but direct our thanks for all our blessings. When men turn to Him for aid in directing their lives—all men, everywhere in the world—the troubled times in which we live will pass and all shall be peace on earth.
Let me remind you that the week of October 15-21 is National Bible week.

Mrs. Cauble Speaker For Spaders Club

Mrs. Kyle Cauble presented the program for the Spaders Garden Club Thursday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Melvin Witter. Mrs. Don Williams presided in the absence of the president, Mrs. Dewey Mark, who was attending the fall board meeting of Texas Garden Clubs in Midland.

Local Women Attend Garden Club Meeting

Ten local women attended the fall board meeting of the Texas Garden Clubs, Inc. held Wednesday and Thursday in Midland. They are Mrs. Obie Bristow, Mrs. J. L. Balch, Mrs. J. B. Knox, Mrs. Norman Reed, Mrs. C. D. Wiley, Mrs. A. C. Bass, Mrs. J. E. Hogan and Mrs. P. D. O'Brien, all of the Big Spring Garden Club, and Mrs. Dewey Mark of the Spaders Garden Club.

More Uses Sought For Cottonseed Oil

Soon there may be some surprising new uses for cottonseed oil. The new uses may result from experiments dealing with the chemical modification of familiar fats and oils by research scientists of the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Philathea Class Has Installation

In a candlelight ceremony Thursday evening, officers of the Philathea Sunday School class of the First Methodist Church were installed.

Services were held in the home of Mrs. Fred L. Eaker. Installing officer was Mrs. H. N. Robinson. Those installed were Mrs. J. B. Apple, vice president; Mrs. Royce Satterwhite, first vice president; Mrs. Roy Penny, secretary; Mrs. Harold Parks, treasurer; Mrs. Hugh Duncan, group major; Mrs. S. R. Nobles, assistant group major; Mrs. Bill McIlvain, reporter; Mrs. B. M. Keese, teacher, and Mrs. Lina Flewellan, assistant teacher.

Guests were served from a table laid with a white cutwork cloth and featuring a centerpiece of red carnations. Milk glass appointments were used for serving. Other red and white floral arrangements, the class colors, were used for decorations.

Special guests were Mrs. Merle Stewart, Mrs. H. N. Robinson and Mrs. J. E. Foote.

Buying Bed Linen? Here is some information which will help you when buying bed linens: The word combed refers to finer, stronger, and more even cotton yarns. Carded yarns are supposed to be the heaviest. Cotton muslin sheets give longer wear but do not have the soft feel of lighter percale.

Colorful Blankets Cotton crib blankets are easy to wash, yet warm and soft. They come in a wide range of colors and patterns. Mint and maize are among this year's popular colors, along with white blankets with colored borders. There's also a wide selection of woven designs, featuring fawns, balloons, kittens, clowns, bunnies and other animals.

Cotton Newcomers Sewing for fall? Now is the time to take your pick of fall and winter cotton fabrics. Old favorites, such as denim, corduroy, and velveteen, have been joined by a host of new fabrics. There are striped tweeds, woven plaids with a worsted look, tie-silk prints, crease-resistant knits, waffle-textures, and linen-like weaves. These fabrics are cotton through and through and can be easily made into smart-looking fall and winter dresses.

To Head Officers' Wives' Club

Credit Club Has Election Of Officers

In an election held by the Credit Club, Pauline Sullivan was chosen president; Mrs. E. O. Wortham, vice president; Mrs. Pancho Nall, secretary, and Mrs. Noel H. Hull, treasurer. The group met in the Colonial Room of the Howard House Thursday at noon.

Fire Prevention Is Program Topic At South Ward P-TA

"Causes and Prevention of Fires in the Home" was the subject of a talk by H. V. Crocker, fire chief, for the South Ward P-TA Thursday afternoon at the school. Mrs. James Horton led the group in the association prayer. O. L. McGabey discussed the civic defense arrangements. The members voted to sponsor the sale of United States Savings Stamps in the school.

Iron Makes Care Of Ruffles Easy

Tucks, pleats, ruffles, and puffed sleeves are so very feminine. And these trimmings on pretty cotton dresses and blouses no longer present an ironing problem. A new electric ruffle iron helps do the trick easily and in no time at all. The iron has a tall stand which fits over the edge of the ironing board and a fabric dial which can be set for the correct temperature. The fabric can be eased over the heater aluminum iron head and smoothed with two hands when necessary.

Birthday Party

Tony Thixton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Garner Thixton, was honored on his first birthday with a party Wednesday. Guests present received balloons and suckers as favors. Mrs. Cecil Thixton, the honored guest's grandmother, served refreshments. The cake was decorated with miniature animals and inscribed with "Happy Birthday Tony."

Auxiliary Meeting

The forthcoming poppy sale, to be held in November, was discussed by members of the American Legion Auxiliary when they met Thursday at 7:30 p.m. Mrs. Granvil Miller was introduced as a new member.

Return From Ozarks

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Robbins have returned from the Grand Lake area of the Ozarks in Oklahoma, where they spent over two months. They are now at home at the Howard House.

Officers' Wives' Club Holds Officer Election

The Officers' Wives' Club held election of officers Thursday afternoon at a combined social and business meeting. Luncheon was served at the Officers' Club, and bingo was played by the group. Elected president was Mrs. R. E. Ireland. Chosen vice president was Mrs. Carlton Virden; second vice president, Mrs. Charles Dobbs; third vice president, Mrs. P. C. Phillips, and secretary, Mrs. G. K. Taylor.

Enlistment Coffee Given By College Baptist WMU

An enlistment coffee was held Thursday at 10 a.m. for members of the College Baptist WMU. The program was opened by the group singing "The Kingdom Is Coming." The invocation was offered by the Rev. H. W. Bartlett. Mrs. Paul Warren sang "Moment by Moment," accompanied by Mrs. Dewey Wilson.

Party Fetes Shirley Ray

FORSAN — Mrs. J. C. Ray honored her daughter, Shirley Ann, with a birthday party recently. The party was held in Shirley's first grade class. Mrs. G. E. Oglesby assisted in serving. Susan and Diane Heideman and Deborah Jane Ray of Lees were guests.

Scout Leaders Club Is Disbanded

LAMESA — The Girl Scout Leaders Club met Wednesday morning at the Pioneer Park Recreation Hall for their monthly meeting. During the meeting the group voted to discontinue the club, as the dividing of groups has done away with the need for such an organization.

Couple Married In Sparenberg Rites

LAMESA — Mrs. Mabel Trice of Sparenberg and Douglas Van Dorn of Austin were married Monday evening in the Sparenberg Methodist Church. The Rev. Carl Nunn, pastor of the church, read the single ring ceremony. For her wedding, the bride wore a dawn grey tailored suit with shell pink velvet hat and pink accessories. Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Backmeyer were the couple's attendants.

Mrs. Phillips Speaks At Coahoma HD Club

"Lighting the Kitchen" was the theme for the program presented Wednesday at the Coahoma Home Demonstration Club. The program was presented by Mrs. D. S. Phillips. The group met in the home of Mrs. J. W. Wood. Mrs. Sam Armstrong, president, gave a report on the recent HD meetings in San Antonio.

Mrs. Cox Hostess For Bridge Club

Members of the Afternoon Bridge Club of Garden City met Wednesday with Mrs. C. J. Cox. High score was won by Mrs. J. A. Bigley and second high went to Mrs. W. C. Underwood. Special prize was won by Mrs. Bigley. Bingo prizes went to Mrs. Ray Hightower and Mrs. Clyde Reynolds. Mrs. Buster Cox was a special guest.

Local Paintings To Hang At State Fair

Four paintings by local women will be displayed during the State Fair of Texas in Dallas Oct. 6-21. The paintings were judged in preliminary competition. Artists and their paintings include Marjorie Havins, second place in pastel, titled "Billiards"; and fourth place in still life oil, titled "Fish Dinner." Mrs. D. W. Conway, fourth place in pastel, titled "Rascal." Mrs. E. A. Jones, fourth place in landscape water color.

Church Of God LMS Hears Book Review

A book review on "Mission Fields, USA" was heard Thursday evening by members of the First Church of God LMS. Mrs. J. E. Parker gave the review following the devotion on Matthew by Mrs. R. E. Hickson. During the business meeting, reports were heard and it was announced that the local church would be host for the West Texas District Rally to be held Tuesday. The rally begins at 10 a.m. Lunch will be served at noon and the rally will close at 2:30 p.m.

Stanton Women At Convention In Tyler

Mrs. Leja Shankel and Mrs. Magie Davis of Stanton have returned from Tyler where they attended the Licensed Vocational Nurses Association Convention held in the Blackstone Hotel. Mrs. Shankel is past president of the Midland Division 22. They are both employed by Martin County Hospital. The two were accompanied by Mrs. Berta Sexton and Gena Mosley of Midland. The convention will be held in Galveston next fall.

Mrs. Cox Hostess For Bridge Club

Members of the Afternoon Bridge Club of Garden City met Wednesday with Mrs. C. J. Cox. High score was won by Mrs. J. A. Bigley and second high went to Mrs. W. C. Underwood. Special prize was won by Mrs. Bigley. Bingo prizes went to Mrs. Ray Hightower and Mrs. Clyde Reynolds. Mrs. Buster Cox was a special guest.

Luncheon Is Given For Miss Bennett

Cupid predominated in the decorations for the luncheon given Thursday for Louise Ann Bennett. Mrs. John Hodges and Mrs. R. W. Whipkey were cosponsors for the affair, which was held at the Settles Hotel. Miss Bennett, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. M. H. Bennett, is the bride-elect of Jerry Worthy. The couple's wedding date is set for Oct. 12. Three white china compotes, supported by cupid figurines were placed on the table of the honoree. These held arrangements of pink carnations and sweetheart roses in combination with pink malle. Down the center of the side tables, at intervals, were corsages of pink malle and satin ribbon holding tiny cupids. The hostesses presented a gift of crystal to the honored guest. About 35 attended the luncheon.

Steers, Sweetwater Meet Here At 8 This Evening

Boasting a rock-ribbed line and a record that they feel needs to be improved upon, the Sweetwater Mustangs move into the new football stadium tonight to do battle with the downtrodden but far from downhearted Big Spring Steers.

This is the first night game in many years played between the two clubs and it starts at 8 p.m. Usually, the two elevens wind up their seasons playing each other on Thanksgiving Day.

Sweetwater holds a whopping edge in the series between the two teams. However, the Ponies haven't won here since 1950.

In 41 contests played between the two clubs, the Ponies have won 28 times, compared to 13 losses. There have been no ties in the series, which started in 1907.

Last year, the Steers played perhaps their finest game of the season, yet lost, 20-13.

Of the Big Spring team which took the field in Sweetwater last Thanksgiving, only one starter returned. That would be Walter Dickinson.

Sweetwater has four regulars back from the 1955 game, including Jimmy Feagan, end; Sammy Glass, tackle; and its two guards, Pat Gerald and Brice Hartgraves.

The Pony backfield is all new. Glenn Reed, a 155-pounder up from the B team, will be at the controls. Donnie McNeal, used primarily on defense last year, will be at left half; Ed Scott, 147 pounds, at right half; and Jim Hardin, 155, at full back.

Both teams have been hit hard with injuries. It appeared quite probable here this morning that

Sam Baugh Back In Old Haunts

WASHINGTON (AP) — Warm and cold receptions awaited Sammy Baugh today on his return to his old football stamping grounds.

The Touchdown Club arranged a luncheon to honor the Texan who came to the Washington Redskins in 1937 and in a 16-year stay established just about all the lifetime National Football League aerial records there are.

George Washington University, however, primed its football team to make Baugh's visit as miserable as possible.

Morrison Tries Airport At 9

Airport and Kate Morrison tangled in the first Ward School Football league game of the day at Steer Stadium Saturday. They take the field at 9 a.m.

Park Hill and East Ward clash in the second engagement. North Ward and West Ward have it out in the third contest while Washington Place opposes College Heights in the day's final engagement.

Morrison Tries Airport At 9

George Bayer Out Front With 65

EL CAJON, Calif. (AP) — George Bayer, the big better from Grossingers, N.Y., led by one stroke today in the 72-hole San Diego Open Golf Tournament on the strength of a seven-under-par 65 opening round.

Bayer's 32-33 effort put him one ahead of Jay Hebert, Sanford Flax, Paul Harney, Boston, and Ed Furgol, St. Louis, all tied at 66.

San Diego's Gene Littler, the pretourney favorite, posted a 67 to tie for third with Mike Souchak, Grossingers; Dick Mayer, St. Petersburg, Fla.; Jerry Barber, Los Angeles; Ernie Vossler, Midland, Tex.; and Tommy Bolt, Chattanooga.

Coahomans Seek To Slow George Johnson Tonight

COAHOMA (SC) — The biggest crowd of the season may be on hand here tonight to see if the Coahoma Bulldogs can neutralize the overpowering offense of the Sonora Bronchos. Game time is 8 p.m.

Sonora's bang-bang attack is built around the 175-pound George Johnson, the leading scorer in Texas schoolboy football at the present time.

Johnson, a 10-second man in the 100-yard dash, was held without a point for two periods of play by McCamey last week, yet wound up scoring four touchdowns. In all, Johnson has made 126 of Sonora's 152 points.

Coahoma figures to match him with Don White, a bruising runner. White has been handicapped with injuries but he figures to be ready to ramble tonight.

Shorty Barr will be the Coahoma quarterback tonight. He has done an adequate job since Mac Robinson was injured in the Bulldogs' first game.

Coahoma will field a heavier line than will the Bronchos but most of the weight advantage is concentrated in Royce Hull, 200-pound guard; and the 225-pound Bobby Null, tackle. Both play on the same side of the line, incidentally.

Yearlings Visit Odessa Saturday

The Big Spring Ninth Graders visit Odessa Saturday afternoon for a game with Bonham Junior High. Kickoff time is 2 p.m.

The Yearlings have broken even in three starts to date. They were tied by Sweetwater, 14-14; lost to Andrews, 41-14; and won over Snyder 26-13.

J. B. Davis has been showing to advantage in the Big Spring camp and should do some hard running against Bonham. Others counted on include Gordon Bristow, Donnie Everett, Freddy Brown and James Drake.

Bearcats, Hobbs In 8 p.m. Clash

GARDEN CITY (SC) — Garden City, winner in three of four games played to date, host Hobbs in an 8 o'clock engagement tonight.

The Bearcats will be idle next weekend. They open their six-man conference season here against Sterling City the night of Oct. 19.

Martinez Booked

Yogi Is Feared Most By Bums, Says Robinson

BROOKLYN (AP) — The Yankee most feared by the Dodgers is not Mickey Mantle — it's Yogi Berra, says Brooklyn's Jackie Robinson.

"That's the man who hurts us most," said the veteran infielder of the bustling New York catcher. "We'd a lot rather have Mantle up there in a tight spot than Berra."

Although Mantle is the American League's triple offense champion-batting leader at .353, home run king with 52 and tops in runs-batted-in with 130 — the Dodgers, says Jackie, are more afraid of Yogi's ability to come through in a clutch.

"We figure that if we can stop Berra, we can stop the Yankees. If Berra is hot, we figure we're in bad trouble. This is a fighter—he'll try to whip you with a toothpick."

Robinson said the Dodgers get a particular kick out of beating the Yankees because of the "aura of invincibility that has been built up around them."

"We don't look on them as a bunch of prima donnas," added the Brooklyn third baseman. "We respect them as tough ball players. We know they're good and we just try to prove we're better."

Robinson said if the Dodgers had to vote on the second most feared man on the Yankee club it would be Whitey Ford, the pitcher who lost the opening game 6-3. "Whitey didn't have it against us in that first game," Jackie said. "But he's a great pitcher."

"If he's right he can beat anybody in any park. It's not going to be pleasant meeting him again."

Then Jackie's fierce team pride came to the fore. "But if it's Ford against Maglie (Sal Maglie, winner of the opening game) I'll have to go with the Old Master. The Old Master (the Dodgers' name for Maglie), in my book, is the greatest fighter I ever saw in baseball."

A writer interrupted: "That's not what you said when he was a New York Giant, Jackie."

"Oh, yes, it was," Jackie rebutted. "When he was a Giant I called him every name I could think of. But I wasn't sore at Maglie. I was just sore because he wasn't a Dodger."

Norton War Birds Visit Buff Field

FORSAN (SC) — Coach Frank Honeycutt is expecting his Forsan Buffaloes to have one of their toughest games when they take the field against the Norton Eagles tonight. Kickoff time is 8 o'clock.

Norton, recent conquerer of Merzon, brings a fine all-around attack here and will probably boast a slight weight advantage over the Bisons.

Forsan is still undefeated, having turned back Flower Grove, Ackerly and Knott in that order. The Buffaloes won't be at full strength. Tony Starr, halfback and quarter on the team, banged up his knee recently and won't be available to the team for several games.

Forsan will again lean heavily upon the running ability of Pat Brunton and the passing of George White.

Norton will start Sam Morgan, 205, and Darrell Lee, 196, at ends; Glenn Culp, 145, center; and Cotton Dismore, 140; Jimmy Jennings, 180; and Ed Poehis, 184, in the backfield.

11TH PLACE IS RECOMMENDED

Fans attending tonight's football game between Big Spring and Sweetwater here are being advised to enter the parking areas around the new stadium via Eleventh Place, rather than by Kentucky Way.

Li'l Pigs Try Big One In Fort Worth

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
The Associated Press

Arkansas' little pigs try to fell the big one—TCU—in their first bid for the Southwest Conference football championship Saturday.

The conference opener will draw some 30,000 at Fort Worth with the nation able to watch on TV. They'll see one of college football's smallest lines march against TCU's massive men in a game few think Arkansas can win.

Baylor's Bears will be in College Park, Md., trying to wreck Maryland, while SMU goes to Columbia, Mo., seeking to plaster Missouri.

Of equal importance will be intersectional battles at Houston, where Rice tackles Louisiana State, and at Austin, where Texas plays West Virginia.

THIS EVENING

Miami And UCLA Both In Action

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.
By The Associated Press

Hopeful Miami and harrassed UCLA kick off October's first weekend of football tonight and even competition from the World Series can't detract from the widespread interest in what's to follow.

The sophomore-loaded Floridians, 14-6 winners over South Carolina in their opener last week, face untested Boston College as they seek another season as successful as last year's. Miami was 18th in the final 1955 ratings by The Associated Press poll of sports writers and broadcasters. This week's poll put Miami in a 13th place tie with Illinois.

UCLA, last year's Pacific Coast Conference champion, is trying to balance its remaining manpower after penalties inflicted for illegal payments to athletes. The Uclans took a thumping from Michigan last week and now they face Oregon, which with two non-league victories, appears to be one of the stronger conference teams.

A Skyline Conference game between Denver and Montana and an intersectional tilt between George Washington and Hardin-Simmons rounds out the major Friday night program. Then comes a tremendous Saturday schedule with heavy emphasis on intersectional games.

Nine of the top ten teams in the current AP ratings are listed for important contests with Michigan State (No. 2) and Michigan (No. 5) meeting at Ann Arbor in the headliner. This game could well decide the Big Ten championship, although both Michigan State and defending champion Ohio State (No. 4) are ineligible for the Rose Bowl.

Michigan gave a very impressive performance in its 42-13 opening victory over UCLA last week, but so did State in beating Stanford 21-3. Stanford travels east this week to face Ohio State's Buckeyes.

Oklahoma, which easily held its No. 1 rating in a 36-0 opening victory over North Carolina, goes after its 32nd consecutive victory against Kansas State, already beaten twice. Georgia Tech (No. 3) has an open date. For the next five teams it's Mississippi (6) vs. Houston, Pittsburgh (7) at California, Texas Christian (8) vs. Arkansas, Tennessee (9) at Duke in a real toughie and Southern California at Wisconsin.

The Big Ten is involved in three more important intersectional games — Iowa-Oregon State, Northwestern-Tulane and California-Illinois — and a conference clash between Minnesota and Purdue. Indiana faces Notre Dame, which had a week off after losing its opener to Southern Methodist.

Other tests between major powers of different sections include:

At Dallas, Texas Tech plays a Texas A&M team that may need to get to the Cotton Bowl via ambulance. The Aggies are virus-ridden with a sick list that long but still are easy favorites to clip Texas Tech.

TCU may have to battle both overconfidence and Arkansas. TCU is one of the heaviest favorites to lap up a second title. But Arkansas puts an undefeated record on the line and TCU coaches are quite wary.

Baylor, SMU and Texas are favorites in their intersectional games, none by a heavy margin, however. Rice is an underdog to a once-beaten team. LSU lost to A&M last week in its season start. Rice won its opening game, downing Alabama.

A victory by West Virginia over Texas would occasion no great surprise. Neither would a triumph by Maryland over Baylor. But SMU, although crippled up and minus regular wingman Willard Dewveall and half back Lon Slaughter, would cause some eyebrow lifting should it tumble to Missouri.

This is how they look: TCU-Arkansas: Too much everything by TCU; the Horned Frogs by a couple of touchdowns.

Baylor-Maryland: A better Baylor team than last year while Maryland doesn't appear close; Baylor by a touchdown.

Texas-West Virginia: West Virginia commands respect but Texas has too much aerial might.

Rice-LSU: LSU always has been tough for the Owls; Louisiana State in a squeaker.

Abilene Names Tri-Captains

ABILENE (SC) — Glynn Gregory, Stuart Peake and Rufus King have been named tri-captains of the Abilene High School football team.

Gregory is a halfback, Peake a guard and King an end.

Big Spring Teams Halve 2 Games With S'water 11's

Big Spring's most successful football team, the Seventh grade Yearlings, turned the trick again here last night.

The Yearlings, coached by Jimmy Marcus and Hugh Hamm, were in command all the way in drubbing the Sweetwater Juniors, 7-2.

Dennis Lee scored the lone touchdown of the game just as the first quarter ended on a double reverse from 35 yards out. Dexter Pate added the extra point on a run.

The defense rigged up by Marcus and Hamm held the Sweetwater attack at bay throughout the contest, although Sweetwater advanced as far as Big Spring's 30 on a pass early in the fourth.

Ken Moeling, Earl Lane and Ernie Samples again played outstanding defensive ball for the Big Spring club. Samples proved especially difficult to move out of any play.

Jimmy Madry divided honors in the Yearling secondary, along with Pate and Lee.

The Seventh graders have now won three times in four starts.

Big Spring's Eighth graders didn't fare so well. They yielded a 42-7 decision to Sweetwater but did have the satisfaction of scoring their first TD of the year.

Tommy Rutledge ran four yards for the Yearlings' tally in the first period, climaxing a 60-yard drive. Tommy Whately added the point.

The Yearlings fought the visitors on fairly even terms until Carey King, halfback, was re-injured and had to leave the game.

The half-time score favored Sweetwater, 21-7.

Guard Bill Copelin played outstanding defensive ball in the Big Spring line.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

Let's hear no more talk about Big Spring being a poor football town.

Local fans, by consistently showing up for games, both here and away, have put the lie to that claim.

Andrews and Levelland are supposed to be two of the real hotbeds in schoolboy football out this way but receipts for the Big Spring-Snyder game here last week came close to equalling what Big Spring drew in Andrews and Levelland combined.

Big Spring is so much larger than either place, you say? True, but those places benefit from the fact that fans come from miles around to see their teams. In this county, Forsan, Coahoma and Knott bid for their fans' attention.

Andrews sold about twice as many season tickets as did Big Spring. The people there knew from the start that the Mustangs were going to wrestle with the giants. The situation was even more pronounced in Levelland, where Johnny Hickman was supposed to come up with his "best team ever."

Here, the fans have known from the start that the local team was going to have its troubles. But the fans continue to come out. Chances are, if weather conditions are favorable, there'll be another good turnout tonight, when the Steers try to gore the Sweetwater Mustangs.

The Andrews' game proved more lucrative for Big Spring than did the one in Levelland. Receipts at Andrews amounted to $3,785.00 while those in Levelland came to $3,363.25.

Big Spring and Snyder played before 5,335 last week, who paid out $6,147.15 to get through the gates.

You can't judge how a team is going to draw off one game, true, but the Steers were 'down' last year and the fans never lost interest.

The Steers averaged 3,893 paying customers at five home games last year.

Their top crowd saw them against Andrews — 5,305. Their best road turnout was at Snyder — 4,805.

Overall, the 1955 Steers drew 39,103 fans, a drop of 6,121 from 1954.

They say DeWitt Weaver is having his troubles as coach at Texas Tech because he has surrounded himself with a team of assistants who are not head coach material.

It is quite probable that Weaver will step aside as coach up there after this year to concentrate on the job of athletic director.

Alton McCarty, a defensive halfback for the Big Spring Steers last year, scored a touchdown in Cisco JC's 46-18 rout of Goodfellow AFB last weekend.

Buck Francis, the Snyder scribe, says Wayne Fields may make local football fans forget all about Frosty Robison and J. C. Armistead, Big Spring's great backs of the 1953 state finalist team.

Perhaps you haven't noticed. The man-in-motion play is coming back in favor with football teams all over the country.

Don't be surprised if the Sugar Bowl committee picks a Southwest Conference team for one of its New Year's Day teams. The racial ban will bar many a team and officials there have come around to the conclusion that Texans would flock by the thousands to the Crescent City Jan. 1, no matter which team was chosen.

Shorthorns Play Odessans At 7:30 P.M. Saturday

Cheered by the team's showing against Coahoma in a scrimmage held earlier this week, Coaches John Perry Yates and Sam Bell are preparing to send their Big Spring High School B footballers out against Odessa at 7:30 o'clock Saturday evening.

The Shorthorns have been badly mauled in their first three starts. They opened by losing to Sweetwater, 20-0; then yielded a 33-19 verdict to Andrews and then were kayoed by Snyder, 50-13.

The local athletes have been showing steady improvement, however, and may be about ready to come into their own.

It appeared doubtful for a while that the starting quarterback, Billy Bob Satterwhite, would be able to play. He suffered a knee injury and it was first feared he had a torn cartilage. However, he was better Thursday and indications are he'll get into action.

Bill French and Terry Stanley will also be available for duty as "the man under."

Against Coahoma, the Dogies ran a multiple offense and it proved puzzling to the Bulldogs.

Billy Bob Lewallen, Scott Ellison and Jimmy Tucker are among the backs heavily counted upon by

SENATOR CLUB MAY BE SHIFTED TO LOS ANGELES THIS WINTER

WASHINGTON (AP) — A shift of Washington's American League baseball club to California in time for next year's season was reported to be under consideration today.

The Washington Post and Times Herald quoted Club President Calvin Griffith as saying in New York City that he has such a plan "under consideration" and that an offer made by Los Angeles city officials "looks very attractive to us in many ways."

Griffith, who is in New York for the World Series, was further quoted as saying:

"If we make the move, the Griffith family will still retain control of the team. We do not plan to sell to anybody."

Both Los Angeles and San Francisco have long sought a major league franchise. Washington finished eighth and seventh, respectively, during the last two seasons, and trailed the major leagues in attendance.

Nevertheless, the Post and Times Herald quoted Griffith, the club made money although "not enough to speculate with."

Big Spring Man In Top Office Of Suez Temple

CECIL D. McDONALD
Suez Shrine Temple Potentate

Shrine Ceremonial Opens Here Today

Big Spring today puts out the welcome mat for Shriners of the Suez Temple and their ladies. An estimated 2,000 will take part from more than a dozen cities in the area.

Registration will be under way during Friday and also during Saturday at the Settles Hotel, where headquarters will be maintained, all during Friday and also during Saturday morning. During the day the Divan (the ruling body of the temple) and various committees will be in session.

First major function will be the banquet at 7 p.m. at the Cosden Country Club, south of the city, honoring Cecil D. McDonald, Big Spring, the potentate of the temple. Lt. Charles Webb will play during the progress of the dinner, and Mrs. Don Newsom and her sister, Margie Neaton, will sing. Distinguished visitors will be introduced by McDonald.

Afterwards the customary bingo party is to be held at the same location. The temple plans to give away a host of electrical appliances during the evening.

Saturday morning while regular registration is under way, there will be another registration for the ladies who wish to take part in the luncheon and style show at Cosden Country Club. This function is being arranged by Ed Fisher, member of the club here and operator of the Little Shop from whence models and clothing will come.

The men will, of course, be occu-

Abilene Club Carrying On Broad Activity

The Abilene Shrine Club, which supplied the first potentate of Suez Temple, has spread its philanthropic and welfare work over a broad field its first six years.

President J. M. Martin outlines the services thus:

"We have contributed to some 50 children since 1950, and have admitted any number of children to the hospital. We have furnished braces, shoes, etc. to many other children and have given money for travel expense to parents of children who didn't have the money to take the children to the hospital.

"We have donated repeatedly to the West Texas Rehabilitation Center, bought a television set for the Old Ladies Hall of the Abilene State Hospital, donated to the Drum and Bugle Corps for the last two years, donated to the Goodfellow Boys Ranch and sponsored the Shrine football game on televised with their gay parade during the morning, and at noon there will be a barbecue for nobles and novices (candidates) at the baseball park.

At 2 p.m. the first (ritualistic) section will be held at the City Auditorium, and at 4 p.m. the second (initiation) section will be held at the auditorium.

The traditional ceremonial ball, which climaxes the festivities and business, will begin at 9 p.m. (at 1 a.m.) at the Cosden Country Club. In charge of the ceremonial will be Wallace Moritz, San Angelo, master, with K. H. McGibbon and Arch Ratliff, the latter president of the host Big Spring Shrine Club, as assistant ceremonial masters.

Probably not since the first decade of the century has a Shrine ceremonial been held in Big Spring.

Shriners' Schedule

Leads Work

Dean of Southwest Texas Shrine Club presidents in age but the most active Shrine official in promoting the organization's work with crippled children is J. M. Martin of Abilene.

vision in December of 1955."

Past presidents, in order, have been Raymond Thomason Sr. (first potentate of Suez), C. S. Rogers, Hubert Northcutt, E. L. Turner and J. M. Martin.

Serving with Martin at present are Farland Lindley, vice president, and Lawrence L. Alexander, secretary-treasurer, along with directors Frank Simmons, Eugene McCarrroll, Harold Wheat, R. V. Davis, E. L. Turner and M. C. Arnold.

Top man in the Suez Temple, which holds its autumn ceremonial here Friday and Saturday, is Cecil D. McDonald, a native of Big Spring where he has been a community leader.

Since 1932 he has been a member of the Divan of the Suez Temple and since January has been Potentate of the temple, having succeeded Henry M. Rogers, Sweetwater. He was a charter member of the Big Spring Shrine Club when it was organized in 1951 and served as its charter president. His record in Masonic work is long and distinguished. McDonald holds a dual membership in the South Gate, Calif., Lodge No. 596, which he entered in 1936, and in Big Spring Lodge No. 1340, of which he is a charter member.

He is also a charter member of the Suez Temple, which was chartered in 1951. McDonald is a 32nd degree Mason, and belongs to the York Rite in the Dallas consistory. On the same date of his election as potentate, he received the Degree of Knight Commander of the Court of Honor at Dallas. Prior to becoming part of the Suez Temple, his Shrine work was in the Hella Temple at Dallas.

By no means has his activity been confined to his fraternal work, for he has served two terms as a member of the Big Spring City Commission; he has been a member of the Lions and Optimist clubs; he has been a member and chairman of the First Methodist Board of Stewards; he has been on the board for the Methodist Orphans Home at Waco. He also has served as a Chamber of Commerce director.

In business he has headed the McDonald Automotive Service, which was founded in 1939 and succeeded in 1946 by the McDonald Motor Company. He also established the S.M. Lumber Company in 1949 and the Mae Development Company, a real estate development firm. He has had other interests, including a trailer court and motel.

Born in Big Spring, McDonald attended school here, also Peacock Military Academy, San Marcos Military Academy and San Bernardino (Calif.) College. He worked for the Texas & Pacific Railway Company and for Cosden Oil Company here, and then for Standard Oil, Firestone and Westinghouse Electric in California. During World War II he served two years as an operating engineer at the Big Spring Bombardier School, then spent two years in the United States Navy.

He is married to the former Helen Wagge, and they have a son and a daughter, Cecilia and Billy.

Heads Shrine Hosts

Arch Ratliff, as president of the Big Spring Shrine Club, is carrying responsibility as chief of the host group for the Suez Temple's Fall Ceremonial. The Big Spring club has approximately 125 members.

Calhoun Lauded In Congress Speech

Galloway Calhoun, a Texan who has been one of the outstanding leaders of Shrinedom, received unusual tribute in the form of an address in the House of Representatives, delivered by Rep. Brady Gentry.

The address, entered in the Congressional Record, follows:

Mr. GENTRY, Mr. Speaker, the Honorable Galloway Calhoun, of Tyler, Tex., past Grand Master of Masons of the State of Texas, past Imperial Potentate of the Shrine in North America, President and Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Shriners Hospitals for Crippled Children, was elected by the board of directors of Indiana Technical College, Fort Wayne, Ind., to receive an honorary degree of Doctor of Humanities which was to have been conferred upon him in person at the commencement on May 20, 1956, when the eminent scientist, Charles F. Kettering, was the speaker.

Because of illness Dr. Calhoun could not attend. His friend, Dr. George E. Stringfellow, of West Orange, N. J., longtime business associate of the late Thomas Alva Edison, member of the imperial divan of the Shrine and a member of the board of the college, received the citation in behalf of Dr. Calhoun. Dr. Stringfellow was authorized by the board to present the citation to Dr. Calhoun at the annual meeting of the Texas All State Shrine Association in Houston on May 26, on the assumption that Dr. Calhoun would be able to be present. Dr. Calhoun had not sufficiently recovered, and the Governor of Texas received the citation from Dr. Stringfellow for Dr. Calhoun.

In presenting the citation, Dr. Stringfellow read the following message from Dr. Archie T. Keene, president of Indiana Technical College:

Mr. Calhoun, because you realize that to be effective, any efforts in behalf of humanity must be rooted in unflinching personal integrity; because you know that prosecution of the evil-doer should be undertaken only by the pure of heart and that the strength for such efforts comes from rectitude and simplicity; because you realize that the sick and the weak give to the strong and the able an opportunity to develop gentleness, humility, and gratitude; and because your own concern and love for the physically unfortunate have grown to the place where you are willing to sacrifice your own vitality and talents for their welfare — which is the ultimate in unselfishness — Indiana Technical College, upon the approval of its board of directors, is honored to pay tribute to you and through the authority in it vested by the State of Indiana confers upon you the degree, doctor of humanities (honoris causa), with all of the rights, titles, privileges, and obligations appertaining thereto.

Archie T. Keene, President.

In receiving the citation for Dr. Calhoun, Governor Shivers said:

Thank you, George Stringfellow, President Kendall Baker, of the Texas Shrine Convention, imperial sirs of the Imperial Council of the Shrine for North America, distinguished guests, ladies and nobles of the Mystic Shrine.

It is a proud moment for me that I have been selected to receive this honorary degree of doctor of humanities from Indiana Technical College, on behalf of our great and good friend, Galloway Calhoun, who cannot be with us this evening because of illness.

We can say to all of you that we truly love Galloway Calhoun, and in his behalf we express our gratitude for this recognition. No citizen of Texas has been more interested in his fellow man than has Galloway Calhoun. He has contributed generously of his time and talents, as well as his economic resources, to make this Nation secure in its freedoms, more able to cope with its ever increasing problems, and to create a better feeling among all people. I know I can express his deep regrets because of his inability to be with us here tonight. His contribution to the great humanitarian work of the Shrine for North America has been invaluable.

His legion of friends are saying a prayer for his speedy recovery, and in his behalf I am privileged to say thanks many times over to you, and to the members of the board of Indiana Technical College and all its faculty, for this additional honor which has come his way.

Mr. Speaker, the people of all walks of life in my congressional district and the State of Texas feel that they themselves are honored through this award to a great American citizen by one of our country's outstanding educational institutions. We who know Galloway Calhoun intimately realize full well that it is a worthy and most deserved tribute to one who, throughout his life, has given his utmost in service to humanity.

Heading the Chanters, a group organized in 1951, is William D. Wheatley of San Angelo. The organization frequently sings for church, civic and other fraternal groups outside the Shrine and Masonic realm. Wheatley has been director since 1953.

Setting for the style show, presented by The Little Shop, is to be a dress shop. Mrs. Max Lovett of San Angelo will serve as commentator as the models show a variety of attire. Mrs. Clyde Angel will assist her.

Director

Models will be Mrs. Robert Pinner, Mrs. Roy Reeder, Mrs. Raymond River, Mrs. Arch Ratliff, Mrs. Ira Thurman, Mrs. John Davis, Mrs. Paul Carroll, Mrs. R. E. McKinney, Mrs. P. D. O'Brien, Mrs. Albert Smith, Mrs. W. H. Smith, Mrs. A. K. Turner Jr., Mrs. Harry Middleton, Mrs. A. B. Munkke, Mrs. George Pittman, Mrs. Tip Anderson, Mrs. H. W. McCanness and Mrs. Ed Fisher.

Showing frocks for the younger set will be Fan Barber of Coahoma, Annette Boykin, Kay McGibbon, Betty Boykin, Cecilia McDonald, Sue Boykin, Kathleen Thomas and Cleo Rita Thomas.

Luncheon, Style Show Set At Cosden Club Saturday

A luncheon and style show, planned for the entertainment of wives of Shriners attending the fall meeting of the Suez Temple, is scheduled for Cosden Country Club Saturday at 1 p.m.

Decorations will follow a wine, gold and black color scheme with the luncheon served buffet style. Mrs. Zollie Boykin is in charge of the decorating committee; Mrs. Sam Goldman is head of the hospitality group. Assisting with registration is a committee with Mrs. Shelby Read in charge.

Setting for the style show, presented by The Little Shop, is to be a dress shop. Mrs. Max Lovett of San Angelo will serve as commentator as the models show a vari-

Actor And Physician Started Shrine, Just For Good Cheer

By HUBERT M. POTEAT
Past Imperial Potentate,
A.A.O.N.M.S.

Officially the Shrine began its career on September 26, 1872, in the City of New York. But spiritually the Shrine was born when the first caveman decided that it was better to smile than to frown, that a joyful countenance was to be preferred to a terrifying scowl, and that good humor had much more value than anger and threats.

The Shrine's two founders, William Jerome Florence, an eminent actor, and Walter M. Fleming, a distinguished physician, built the new order upon the perfectly sound principle that every man, in order to do his best work, must enjoy play and diversion. They chose as kindred spirits for their new venture Masons of their circle of friends who had received the degrees of the York or the Scottish Rite.

The Order spread at first slowly, but with steadily growing enthusiasm. Today it numbers 166 Temples, of which nine are located in Canada, one in Mexico City, one in the Canal Zone, one in Honolulu, and the rest in the United States. The membership is now over 760,000. Suez Temple's West Texas membership this year is 2,211.

The governing body of the Shrine is the Imperial Council. The word "Imperial" is used because the Shrine embraces territory outside of continental United States and is therefore an empire. Each of the 166 Temples sends elected representatives to the annual Imperial Council session, their number being determined by the size of the membership of the individual temples.

The Imperial officers are headed by the imperial potentate. The lowest office in the line is that of imperial outer guard. There is always a contest for that position and the Noble who is elected moves up automatically thereafter, until 10 years later he becomes imperial potentate.

The Shrine appeals to the strong manhood of North America for a variety of reasons.

In the first place, the oriental pageantry and the magnificence of costumes and regalia appeal to men who may be old in years but who are still young in spirit. Little boys play cops and robbers; Shriners play Moslems and infidels. It should be said here that founder Billy Florence had the privilege of traveling rather widely in Moslem countries and that it was he who was responsible for the adoption of the dress, titles and symbolism of Islam.

In the second place, the Shrine provides opportunity for fun and play and mirth on a truly magnificent scale. Shriners are apostles of good cheer and happiness and as such are performing a very vital function in this tragic modern world of ours. Indeed, it may be said that we have been "called into the Kingdom for such a time as this."

Only Scottish Rite or Knight Templar Masons are eligible for membership in the Shrine.

Parade To Be Highlight Of Ceremonial

The highlight of any Shrine ceremonial certainly as far as the general public is concerned, is the parade.

Colorful and gay, this year's parade, which moves off at 10:30 a.m. through the downtown area immediately after the Big Spring High School homecoming parade, will have units entered from a dozen cities. They are Abilene, Brownwood, Sweetwater, San Angelo, Big Spring, Coleman, Snyder, Odessa, Midland, El Paso, and Hobbs, N. M.

The temple band, drum and bugle corps, together with fire trucks, mounted patrols, the float containing the ritualistic degree team, and others will be entered.

All Shriners will be wearing their fezes, and many of them will be in full regalia.

Livening the parade will be the distribution of 15,000 pieces of candy.

The parade will make up at Second and Goliad, and will move south to Third for a point of beginning. Then it will go to Main Street, turn north to First, west to Scurry, south to Fourth, east to Runnels and north past the headquarters Hotel (the Settles) and will then disperse about Second and Runnels.

Raymond Thomason Sr. of Ahlone was the first head of Suez. The intervening top officers were J. N. Clark of San Angelo, Howard E. Harlowe of Brownwood, and M. L. Leddy of San Angelo.

Assistant ceremonial master for the Shrine rituals during the Big Spring meeting is K. H. McGibbon, above. He serves for this ceremonial as assistant to Wallace Moritz of San Angelo.

AID TO CRIPPLED CHILDREN IS PRIME WORK OF MEN IN SHRINE

There's a lot of good work benefiting little people behind the big fun of men in the Shrine program. For instance, did you know that — The Shrine maintains 17 hospitals for crippled children in North America.

There is a total of 1,040 beds in the 17 Shrine hospitals. It costs over $10 per day for each child's care. The average cost per patient for each year is $995.42. The average time a crippled child is hospitalized is 93 days. Physical therapy was given to more than 81,000 crippled children in Shrine hospitals during the past year. Over 13,000 casts were applied on these little patients last year. An average of 4,000 braces are applied to these patients yearly. More than 33,000 X-rays are taken of the children's deformities each year.

Shriners' Hospitals for Crippled Children have cared for more than 250,000 crippled children. The annual cost to maintain the Shriners' 17 hospitals and their services is about $5,000,000.

Presenting The Suez Patrol

This is the makeup of the Suez Patrol, drill team which adds much to many special functions. This picture was made at the all-state Shrine convention in Galveston last year. H. B. Mills is commander of the Patrol, and Joe B. Pierce is the captain.

Suez Temple Band Leader Is 'Old Hand With Baton'

Director of the Suez Temple band is an old hand with the baton. He is Sam Goldman, Big Spring. Goldman has been active in Shrine work since he entered the temple at Roanoke, Va., after his return from overseas in World War I. He has been active in Shrine bands most of that time, too. He began playing with the band in the temple where he became a Shriner and has played in numerous ones since. He has gone to the Imperial Council as a member of practically every Shrine band in Texas. Wherever he has lived in West Texas over the past three and a half decades, Goldman has had his finger in bands. He organized bands at San Angelo, Sweetwater, Roscoe, Lorraine and even in Big Spring where he moved in 1932. At Colorado City he took over a band and developed it to such a degree of proficiency that he and the band were awarded gold medals at the West Texas Chamber of Commerce convention in Mineral Wells, and he was personally presented with a gold cornet. He organized the band here as a hobby. He will direct the band in a brief concert at 9:30 a.m. Saturday in the Settles lobby. The band will march an hour later in the big parade through the downtown area.

Colorful Roads To Aid Tourists

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP)—Florida highways soon are to blossom with added color which is supposed to keep tourists from getting lost. Principal highways will have their own, distinctive marker colors so it'll be harder to lose them at busy intersections. For example, U. S. Highway 27, the first route to be marked, will have its black and white markers replaced by green ones to be put up every 2 1/2 miles from the Georgia line to Miami. U. S. highway 1 will have red markers and so on.

Shrine Crippled Children's Hospitals For Needy Only

A Texas Shriner, Galloway Calhoun of Tyler, is chairman of the Board of Trustees of Shriners Hospitals for Crippled Children, reputed to be the world's greatest philanthropy.

Through the widespread group of 17 hospitals, starting with the first in Shreveport, La., on Sept. 16, 1922, the treatment and healing facilities and care have been extended to 250,000 crippled children.

Calhoun, a visitor to San Angelo on many occasions, is a past imperial potentate of Shrinedom. He also is a past grand master of the Grand Lodge of Texas Masonry.

The Shrine hospitals now are located in: Chicago, Greenville (South Carolina), Salt Lake City, Lexington (Kentucky), Los Angeles, Mexico City, Philadelphia, Portland, St. Louis, San Francisco, Shreveport, Spokane, Springfield (Mass.), Minneapolis, Winnipeg, Montreal (Canada) and Honolulu (Hawaiian Islands).

The hospitals were built and are maintained by the ancient Arabic Order of the Nobles of the Mystic Shrine for North America whose membership today is more than 760,000.

The idea of providing medical care for indigent crippled children, without regard to their race, color or religion, by the Shrine of North America, was first conceived by W. Freeland Kendrick.

The hospitals receive a yearly budget which is met through the national fund, and operating costs are covered by annual hospital dues for which each member of the Shrine is assessed. While the major financial support comes from within the Order, donations, contributions, wills and bequests are made to the hospitals by persons impressed with the value of the work and who desire to contribute to its continuation and expansion.

The financial outlay of the Shrine toward the building and maintenance of its hospitals has exceeded $50,000,000. It is impossible, of course, to place a dollar value upon the efforts of the Nobility in furthering their aim to aid crippled children. Annual operating and improvement costs are nearly $5,000,000.

For Them, $50 Million Spent

Shriners' Hospitals for Crippled Children, the major philanthropic project of the Shrine, represents a financial outlay toward building and maintenance alone of $50,000,000. Annual operating and improvements costs run approximately $5,000,000. The reward: Happy faces of children such as these who perhaps had been given up as "hopeless" cripples because money or the specialized medical and surgical treatment seemed impossible to attain. Children who go to Shrine hospitals cannot pay for the attention; those whose parents can pay are sent elsewhere to make way for the needy.

Hospital Work Began With 'Bubble Speech'

(From A Shrine Magazine)
World War One had just cleared the horizon, the years which had taught our members to give unselfishly of their service and money. We had learned from these experiences the value of life forces and united effort, that any burden placed on the many made the task lighter, forecast success.
It was during this period that Past Imperial Potentate Freeland Kendrick was inspired to the belief that the Shrine should engage in some great humanitarian effort for the benefit of mankind and out of this thought he conceived the idea for the Shriners Hospitals for Crippled Children. A resolution to this end was presented by him to the Imperial Council at its Session held in Portland in 1920.
There was much discussion as it cast the Shrine in an entirely new undertaking. A member arose who could speak with knowledge of the work, for he had been privileged to have had experience in crippled children's service at a small hospital supported by the Scottish Rite Fraternity in Atlanta, Ga. As his story and logic unfolded, the Council was electrified. In the years that followed this Session, many of those present were pleased to call it "Forrest Adair's Bubble Speech." He said: "I was lying in bed yesterday morning about four o'clock and some fellow who had strayed away from the rest of the band stood beneath my window for twenty-five minutes playing 'I'm Forever Blowing Bubbles.' I dropped into a peaceful sleep and I dreamed of a little crippled child's hospital operated by the Scottish Rite Fraternity in Atlanta, and I thought of the wandering minstrel of the early morning and I wondered if there was not a deep significance in the tune that he was playing for the Shrine—'I'm Forever Blowing Bubbles.'"

He said much more and then concluded by saying: "Let us stop building temples of stone and marble and build up some of our unfortunate human beings. Let us lay aside the soap and water, stop blowing bubbles. Let us adopt this resolution that has for its objective the giving of little children a fairer chance in life and if there is a Shriner in North America who, after seeing the first crippled child that has been treated, objects to having paid the $5.00 annual contribution, I will give him a check back for the money."

Needless to say, the resolution was passed and in accordance therewith the incoming Imperial Potentate, Ellis Garretson, appointed a committee of seven members of the Imperial Council as follows: Sam P. Cochran, Hella Temple, Dallas; W. Freeland Kendrick, LaLu Temple, Philadelphia; Philip D. Gordon, Karnak Temple, Montreal; Oscar M. Lanstrum, Algeria Temple, Helena Mont.; John D. McGilvray, Islam Temple, San Francisco; John A. Morrison, Kismet Temple, Brooklyn, to make a study and report back at the next Session of the Imperial Council held in Des Moines, June 1921.
During the intervening year, this committee met frequently, consulted with prominent hospital and medical authorities and from these contacts, authorities on their subject, the committee recommended that the first hospital should be located in St. Louis, where a block of ground could be procured adjoining the Barnes Hospital and Washington University, with an outstanding medical school from which it would be possible to set up a medical and nursing program.

The report carrying this recommendation was presented to the Imperial Session at Des Moines and was signed by the following six members of the committee: Sam P. Cochran, W. Freeland Kendrick, Philip D. Gordon, Frederic W. Keator, Oscar M. Lanstrum and John D. McGilvray, at which time the Imperial representatives were told that the committee had consulted with some of the outstanding orthopedic surgeons of the nation and that the American Orthopedic Association most heartily approved the plan to render aid to the crippled children of this continent, and in a telegram stated: "May we not emphasize to you the need of viewing this problem in the broadest and most understanding way. We admire your wisdom and generosity in taking up this difficult problem. Surely as time goes on a close association will develop between our body and you, who have had this clear vision of rendering a wonderful service in a field where such service is much needed."
At this Session of the Imperial Council, a national board of trustees of the Shriners Hospitals for Crippled Children, consisting of seven members of the Imperial Council, was elected. The board of trustees was authorized to apply for incorporation under the name of the Shriners Hospitals for Crippled Children, with full power to make provision in such incorporation for such authority as may be deemed necessary to carry out the purposes intended. They were authorized to select and purchase sites, to erect and maintain hospitals for treatment of children afflicted with club feet, curved spines and joints, infantile paralysis and such diseases and deformities that come within the scope and province of orthopedic surgery, said hospitals to be located in the centers of population and the most important railroad centers of the region where they would be accessible to parent and child.
Looking back over the many years of service of our hospitals, we cannot but realize that it was launched on an efficient basis. We had the best advice that could be obtained from a qualified advisory board of orthopedic surgeons, who receive no compensation and at no time failed when their advice was sought. We salute these men with a grateful heart for the Shriners and the thousands of crippled children that, through their assistance and guidance, we have given an opportunity to have an equal chance in life.

The following requirements for admission are observed without exception:
(1) The parents must be unable to pay for medical services.
(2) The primary reason for treatment must be to improve or cure a crippled or deformed condition.
(3) The child must be under 14 years of age, and it should be reasonably certain that treatment can be completed before the age of 14 years.
(4) The child must be of sound mind, of average intelligence and mental activity.
(5) The child must be examined and approved for admittance by the Chief Surgeon or his assistant.
(6) The application form must be signed and vouchsafed for by a Shriner who personally knows the financial condition of the parents or guardian.
Children meeting the above requirements are admitted to the hospital without regard to race, creed or color. All medical and hospital and other services are free and gratuitously given and no parents for services can be made by or in behalf of any child so admitted.

The hospital is financed by an annual contribution assessed to each Shriner, except those who have purchased a life membership in the hospital which can be done by payment of $150, together with gifts and bequests.
Tens of thousands of crippled children have moved through the portals of various hospitals and each has been benefited in some way and sent forth to take his or her place in society.
One of the first results achieved by the Shriners Hospitals for Crippled Children has resulted in making the nation conscious of its obligation to those innocent children and other institutions are being established to aid the crippled children. The Shrine is proud of the part it has played, but realizes that without the wide public support that has been generously given by non-Shriners an undertaking such as the Shriners Hospital for Crippled Children could never have attained its great success. Its history is being written in the reconstructed bodies of boys and girls. To the individual Shriner, their names may never be known, but we have the consciousness that out in the world are now young men and young women who have been privileged to share better health and the joys of social and economic activity because of the aid rendered to them in their formative years by the Shriners Hospital for Crippled Children.

This is a compensation that no words can touch.
Kiddies To Enjoy Shriners Parade
Kiddies will have as much fun as anyone following the Shrine parade here Saturday morning.
This fits the Shrine pattern to a T, for the organization concentrates on helping youngsters, particularly crippled children.
But back to the parade and the kiddies. One reason that it will be particularly interesting is that no less than 15,000 pieces of bubble gum will be thrown from the Big Spring float, an ancient fire truck.
Nor will that be all the goodies to be distributed. The ritualistic float will have some 1,500 sacks of candy to be handed out.

Iowa Inmates Due 'Best-Dressed' Title
FORT MADISON, Iowa (AP)—Inmates of the Iowa State Penitentiary here are looking forward to being "the best dressed cons of 1957."
Short sleeved, wide collared, open throated sport shirts will be standard dress for prisoners next summer. The new clothing already is in production at the state men's reformatory at Anamosa.

Generous Cabbie Repaid With Bonus

MEXICO CITY (AP)—A taxi driver loaned an American tourist 20 pesos ($1.60) when they arrived at a baseball park and found the tourist had left his wallet at the hotel.
"If we return for your money," said Eustacio Morales, himself an ardent baseball fan, "you'll miss the game. This is enough for the ticket and taxi to the hotel. You can repay me tomorrow."
Morales was repaid—with a bonus for his courtesy.

Both Up A Tree

BALTIMORE (AP)—It started with a tree-trapped cat and led to the usual call for assistance from the fire department.
But when they answered the call, firemen had to rescue a tree-trapped man who had tried to rescue the cat.

Sports Cars Only

MADISON, Wis. (AP)—A giant semi-truck rolling through here had three suggestions printed on its rear doors. One with an arrow pointing to the left said "passing side"; one to the right cautioned "suicide"; and one pointing down toward the huge rear axle said "sports cars."

Chanters Represent Suez Temple

One of the several uniformed bodies of Suez Temple is the Chanters. The group is pictured here with director William D. Wheatley, front center. The group has sung before a number of civic and fraternal organizations over the state. Their activities are not confined to the Masonic groups nor to the Suez territory.

Round Of Social Activities Planned

Shriners and their ladies, here for the autumn ceremonial, won't lack for activity.

Aside from the business sessions, ritualistic work and initiations, there are a round of social events. These get under way Friday at 7 p.m. at Cosden Country Club with the Potentate's banquet, followed by a bingo party. Saturday morning there will be a parade at 10:30 a.m., and during the lunch hour women will have a luncheon and style show at the Cosden Country Club while nobles and novices will be having a barbecue at the baseball park. That evening the traditional ceremonial ball will be held at Cosden Country Club.

Testimonial

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP)—The tall, dark man in chocolate colored shirt and hornrimmed glasses tried out two new automobiles than told the salesman: "I think I'll take this one—it has more power." Police said he used it next day as a getaway car in a $1,876 daylight holdup of a savings and loan company.

Who's Who?

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M. (AP)—Residents of this city may have to buy a program in the future to tell the cops from the robbers.

Burglars who broke into a cleaning plant here recently gave police an added incentive to crack the case. Among the clothing stolen was a police officer's shirt.

Legion Of Honor Serves As Temple's Color Guard

A uniform unit with the chore of leading parades as color guard of Suez Temple, the Legion of Honor was organized May 1, 1954, by a group of Snyder Shriners.

Officers are Billy F. Fisher, captain of the unit; Joe V. Robinson, first sergeant; Skeet Jones, staff sergeant; and Squad Leaders Marvin Hanback, S. E. Swanson and Garland Armstrong. All have been active in the unit since its inception.

Plans are to build up the Legion to a membership of 18 permitting organization as a regular drill squad unit.

The Legion of Honor will lead the Spring Ceremonial parade here at 10:30 a.m. Saturday. It also will lead Suez at the All-State in Houston May 25 and 26.

Patriotism as well as good cheer and good works are among the precepts of the Shrine organization, and the Legion of Honor is charged with a basic obligation of presenting and carrying the colors.

Mother Has Thanks For Shrine Hospital

(EDITOR'S NOTE: The following article written by a Chicago mother tells poignantly how the Shrine helps with children's hospitalization programs. What happened to her child is representative of a free service rendered to a quarter million others.)

I have just come from Shangri-La. . . Would you like to go there with me for a bit? Our little girl required hospitalization. But where? Yes, we had heard of the Shriners Hospitals Quick, then, an application. We acquired one, mailed it and waited. Grave doubts, fears, black nights, gloom pervaded our home. Then came the letter for her to come and be examined.

We are just inside of the epic Clinical Department now. Efficiency, kindness enveloped us. The diagnosis — immediate hospitalization. Again those deep wells of despair. All mothers share these feelings. You had raised your child for about eight years, babied and no doubt spoiled her and now she must be taken from you all as suddenly as switching on a light. You kiss her and wave good-bye. Hold back those tears, she mustn't see you cry. What would they do to her? Oh, please, please let them be ever so kind.

And then we could go to see her. Nervous, trembling we walked down the hospital halls. Suddenly though something seemed to steal through our bodies, a feeling almost akin to reverence, the tranquility, peace. What could all this be?

Then we saw her. She wasn't crying. What perky little dresses the girls had on, one prettier than the other and hairdos with saucy bows. Had we entered a fairyland? Was all this true? The nurses smiled; they were kind. And your little girl's spirit wasn't broken, no, she was even rather fresh. Her teeth? They were shining like pearls. "Oh, yes, mother, we clean them twice a day!" Another miracle.

The beautiful walls with nursery rhymes and pictures, sunlight on all sides, happiness beaming on all those dear little faces, cleanliness everywhere. The hospital, the beds, the boys, your child — everything shone. The doctor came and chatted and you laughed with him. You began to sort of bubble over inside, a light, funny, giddy feeling ran through you.

Were I training men for the Shrine and making the rules, I should require every man to go through one of the hospitals and then he would have even a deeper, bigger feeling about the wonderful organization of which he was soon to become a part. Every mother must feel as grateful as I, and, yes, humbled by this wonderful Shangri-La that I thought existed only in books.

Sincerely,
Mrs. G. H. K., Chicago, Illinois

Helpful Answer

DALLAS (AP) — The post office informed a woman that a small black and white dog was preventing mailman Houston L. Thomson from delivering her mail and that delivery would have to be held up until it was tied.

The woman's answer didn't help much. "The black dog doesn't belong to us," she wrote. "We've tied up the white dog so please leave the mail now."

The Wagon Wheel

"One Of The Southwest's Finest Restaurants"

The Wheel

In the dim and distant past, man conceived the idea of the wheel as an instrument to ease the heavy burden of his primitive life.

History does not record the name of the person or persons who envisioned and fashioned the first wheel. Neither is it known when nor where this historic and revolutionary event took place.

The wheel is so commonplace and is so widely used, it is difficult for us to realize that there was a time when it did not exist.

In all of its ramifications of usefulness, the wheel is interwoven firmly into our social and economic life. It is one of man's major contributions to civilization.

Without the wheel, the rich and abundant life we now enjoy would vanish overnight. Civilization, as we know it today, would perish from the face of the earth, and life once again would become hard and primitive.

All of our modern tools and implements of agriculture would give way to the wooden plow, and the rich harvests we now reap in such abundance, would disappear . . . were it not for the wheel.

There would be no trains or planes . . . no ships or motor vehicles . . . no factories or mines . . . no vast and varied outpouring of goods and services . . . were it not for the wheel.

Famous Shrine Rooms In Masonic National Memorial

Heads Ritual

Ed Korper of San Angelo is Past Imperial Potentate for the Suez Temple.

The movement of the Masonic Fraternity of the United States to provide a building to properly house the Washington Masonic Relics started on February 22, 1910, but ground was not broken until 1922, and it was not until May 12, 1932, that the great George Washington Masonic National Memorial was dedicated. Besides contributions to the construction costs of this historic edifice, the Shrine made appropriations for completing three Shrine Rooms in the Memorial Building typifying the fun making and philanthropic activities of the Mystic Shrine. The first of these is the middle of "Shrine Room." Second is a room dedicated to the Trustees of the Shrines Hospitals and is called the "Hospital Room" and third is the "Imperial Room."

Detroit Temple Is Largest In World

The Detroit Masonic Temple is unique among Masonic Buildings of the world because all of its various branches are housed in the same structure. The first sod was turned on Thanksgiving day of 1920, and the working tools of America's first President, Masonry's own revered George Washington, were brought from Alexandria, Virginia, and employed in the spreading of the first mortar. Thus, the same trowel father of our country used in laying the cornerstone of the National Capitol was used on Sept. 18, 1922 to lay the cornerstone of this magnificent edifice.

Wasn't A Birdie, Just An Alligator

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Four golfers at the West Palm Beach Country Club, intent on birdies and eagles, bagged an alligator instead. One of the foursome, Felix Biviano, came upon the three-foot reptile when he sought his ball near a sand trap. With the help of the others — Jim Cleary Jr. and professionals Clyde Usina and Augie Boyd, he tied up the alligator and later released it into a nearby canal.

For Gay Evenings

Who wouldn't have a wonderful time in this sheath of black crystal-line tulle worn by Mrs. Harry Middleton for the style show to be presented Saturday at the luncheon planned for the wives of Shriners. Pleats in the back provide not only width for dancing, but give the effect of a small bustle topped with a bow. The yoke of sheer marquisette is studded with rhinestones. The bouffant sleeves are made of four pleated ruffles of marquisette. Note the clever feathered carbobs, which form a half-hat.

The "SHRINE ROOM": This particular room contains a variety of exhibits typifying the varied activities of the Mystic Shrine. Featured displays are (a) the beautiful mechanical Shrine parade of miniature uniformed units, (b) an expansive relief map of North America, with light bulbs to designate the location of Shrine Temples, as well as Shrinedom's 17 hospitals for Crippled Children, (c) oil paintings of Nobles Warren G. Harding, Franklin D. Roosevelt and Harry S. Truman, (d) a case containing the official red fez of each Shrine Temple, (e) replica models of the Shrine Hospitals, (f) various historic Shrine exhibits.

The mechanical Shrine Parade display is in a floor case measuring 28 feet by 7 feet, with a miniature model of the Taj Mahal at one end. The parade is composed of five complete divisions, all expressive of the spirit of the Shrine, with official Divans, brass bands, Arab patrols, Oriental bands, Chanters, Legions of Honor, floats, chariots, calliopes, horses and camels. There are over 900 miniature uniformed figures in the parade, and the official colors of the Shrine — red, yellow and green — characterize many of the brilliant costumes and uniforms.

Wasn't A Birdie, Just An Alligator

There are some 12,000,000 cubic feet of space in all, making it the largest and most complete building of its kind in the world. In all there are 28 units in the building, grouped into three major divisions. The ritualistic tower, the auditorium and the Shrine Club. The ritualistic building, or 14-story tower, provides a home for 34 Lodges, five Royal Arch Chapters, a Cryptic Rite Council, two Knights Templar Commanderies and the four Coordinate Scottish Rite Bodies. The Scottish Rite Cathedral has a seating capacity for 1,600. The main auditorium seats 5,000, and possesses one of the largest stages in the United States.

There are also facilities to feed 5,000 people at one sitting, and the Temple's ballrooms are the finest in the city. The 10-story unit at the east end of the building is devoted to the exclusive use of Moslem Temple. The main floor, with its offices for the Illustrious Potentate and the Recorder of the Shrine, has the appearance of an up-to-date hotel lobby. The Club also provides a magnificently furnished lounge, a well-appointed writing room, and a fine billiard room.

In Shades Of Brown

Shirred silk jersey in a blonde mink shade fashions the one-piece frock to be shown by Mrs. Paul Carroll at the Shriners' wives luncheon Saturday at Cosden Country Club. The plaid neckline is adaptable for various treatments—Mrs. Carroll wears a scarf of beige chiffon, to match her hat of mushroom shape. The hat, hand-embroidered in wool yarn and sequins of brown and gold, has a crown of jersey.

Close Inspection

Mrs. Max Lovett of San Angelo, left, writes a description of the suit worn by Mrs. A. B. Muneke, which she will model for the Shriners' wives at the luncheon Saturday. Mrs. Lovett is to be the commentator for the show. Mrs. Muneke's suit, of imported British black wool, is in a deep brown with a geometric plaid of gray-blue. The double-breasted coat has one lapel, and the skirt is an slim lines. Her high-top cloche is trimmed with lops of bronze beads.

166 Temples On Shrine Roster

AND NOW! SEE, I CAN WALK— POEM TELLS OF HOSPITAL WORK

My legs were crooked—born that way. I couldn't move around; I'd never stood or walked. Sometimes I'd crawl upon the ground. They called it "act of providence," which has to be endured. Anyway, the neighbors said, such cases can't be cured.

But not my Ma! She used to say that rich folks found a way To straighten crippled children's legs, so they could run and play. "It don't seem fair that there's no hope," she'd say, "for boys like mine Whose folks are poor!" And then one day, she heard about the Shrine.

The Shriners' doctor saw my legs. He didn't shake his head Like most folks did. "We'll fix you up as good as new," he said. "We're awful poor," said Ma. "It's hard to pay for food and rent."

"Give us that boy," the Shriners said. "It won't cost you one cent!" They didn't ask what church we went to, or if any. Or if we had some Shriners kin. Their questions wasn't many. They took me in. And then one day the doctor said, "Well, son, Let's try those new straight legs of yours and see how well you've done."

I don't know how they did it—I'm not much on doctor's talk; I only know I used to crawl—and now! See, I can walk; I wonder why my mother cried when I went home so straight And fine! But through her tears I heard her say, "God bless the Shrine!"

Suez Chanters Appear Before State Sessions

The Suez Shrine Chanters, organized in March 1951 with Noble Floyd Scott, president of the Texas Shrine Chanters Assn., assisting, have appeared at all the all-state meetings since. They were at the Amarillo meeting in 1951, the Austin session in 1952, El Paso 1953, Dallas 1954, Galveston 1955, and will be in the approaching Houston meeting. William D. Wheatley has been director since 1953. Other present officers are Maj. Alfred Fernandez, president; Hal Heaton, vice president; J. B. Andrews, secretary and treasurer, and Gretchen Heaton, accompanist. The first director was Herschel Summerlin. Manny Goldberg was first president, with his successors being Tom Cox, Dan Kleinman, Summerlin, Dr. Perry, J. C. Byars and Maj. Fernandez. The Chanters are available to sing for church, civic and other fraternal groups outside the Shrine organization and Masonic groups.

10 West Texas Clubs Linked To Suez Temple

Ten Shrine Clubs strategically located over West Texas form complementing support and regional liaison for Suez Temple here.

They were organized following the inception of the San Angelo Shrine Club, forerunner of territorial Suez Temple, in 1947.

The clubs and their presidents include: Abilene, J. M. Martin; Big Spring, Arch Ratliff; Concho (San Angelo), Dr. Perry J. C. Byars; Lamesa, A. L. Moss; Permian Basin (at Big Lake), W. T. Mills; Plateau (at Sonora), Edgar Shurley; Heart of Texas (at Brownwood), Luther Haynes; Snyder, Charles P. Mussewhite; Sweetwater, A. O. Patterson; Midland, Dr. Henry Schlichting.

First president of the San Angelo Shrine Club was E. E. (Gene) Armistead. Ben E. Godfrey, elected secretary of the club, continued in that capacity and then was chosen recorder when the temple was recognized.

Virgil Musick and J. N. Clark were the second and third club presidents.

The club, with massive West Texas support, sent a delegation of the Imperial Council in Chicago in 1949 to petition for chartering of the temple. The council postponed the application for a year.

In 1950 at Los Angeles 834 bonafide petitioners asked the Imperial Council again for recognition and a dispensation was granted. Working a year under the conditional dispensation the temple advocates sent a successful delegation in 1951 to the council in New York City.

'This Is The Way It's Done'

Cecilia McDonald gives her brother, Billy, directions for tying ribbon bows on the bottles of cologne which will serve as favors at the luncheon to be given for Shriners' wives Saturday at the Cosden Country Club. Her mother, Mrs. Cecil McDonald, takes time out from the various preparations for the weekend to help with the bow-making and tying. Cologne was a gift of The Little Shop, which presented the style show after the luncheon.

The papers carried 1,500 members, 500 more than the requested figure. Raymond Thomason Sr. of Abilene was the first potentate of Suez, being elected during the dispensation era. Successive potentates have been J. N. Clark of San Angelo, Howard E. Harlowe of Brownwood, M. L. Leddy of San Angelo, Henry M. Rogers of Sweetwater, and the current potentate, Cecil D. McDonald of Big Spring. The next election is scheduled for the third Monday in January, 1957.
