Thomas Concern Demonstrates All Equipment

Supplies sold by the Thomas Typewriter and Office Supply, located at 107 Main Street, generally can be found anywhere — in the home, the business office, the school and even in the industrial plant.

Such in-demand items as typewriters, writing paper, fountain pens and ink are usually popular around the home, especially if the domestic has children of school age.

Of course, the concern can completely equip the modern business office with everything from electric typewriters to strong boxes, adding machines, cash registers, posture chairs, steel desks, filing cabinets and etc.

Such necessary equipment as ruled paper, special binders, typewriter ribbons and ball-point pens are also sold by the Thomas Typewriter and Office Supply.

The industrial plant, of course, couldn't get along without its business office, where the demand for one or most of the aforementioned items is great in order to keep the production lines running smoothly.

The schools, of course, need typewriters by the score for teaching purposes.

Thomas Typewriter and Office Supply is the local distributor for the famous Royal typewriter, and can fill orders for the portable, standard or electric make.

Such a machine, if standard or electric, can usually be ordered to fit the office color scheme. Consult Gene Thomas, owner and manager of the concern bearing his name, if you desire a particular color for your office.

Equipment sold at the Thomas Typewriter and Office Supply will be demonstrated upon request. Dial AM 4-6621 to arrange for a demonstration.

Mufflers should be in first class condition all of the time but it is particularly urgent that they be in perfect shape in winter weather.

Wards has a complete stock of mufflers and tail pipes for Fords, Chevrolets and Plymouth cars. Currently the store is offering to install a new muffler and tail pipe on any '49 to '53 Ford or Chevrolet for only $11.44. Wagon Wheel Improvements Planned By H. M. Rainbolts

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Rainbolt, owners of "Big Spring's Finest Restaurant," are announcing plans for expansion of their popular dining establishment to more adequately meet the needs of their Big Spring customers and the hundreds of tourists who annually dine at the Wagon Wheel Restaurant, 803 E. 3rd.

The Wagon Wheel was established in 1943 by Mr. and Mrs. Rainbolt with the thought in mind of making it the very best in every respect, he explained today.

"From year to year, the restaurant, with enlarged and remodeled to meet the demands of its many fine customers. Now, plans are being worked out to build a modern front with a spacious lobby."

"In the operation of this restaurant, there was found a demand for a modern drive-in where food and drinks could be served directly to a customer's car."

"It was found that this type of service could not be provided successfully in connection with the restaurant. So a suitable location was obtained on which to construct a modern drive-in."

Just a little more than one year ago, an up-to-date building was completed and the Wagon Wheel Drive-In was opened at East Fourth and Birdwell Lane.

"Plenty of paved parking space was provided, with awnings to provide more comfort to the customers. As has been the custom of the restaurant, courteous employees are always ready to serve drive-in customers the very finest

Dr. Dickinson W. Richards Jr., director of Columbia University's medical division at Bellevue Hospital, New York, is one of three scientists named in Stockholm to share the 1956 Nobel prize in medicine and physiology.

Ex-Red Agent Shoots Intruder

NEW YORK (AP)—Former Soviet agent Victor A. Kravchenko shot an intruder who entered his apartment Saturday night.
Kravchenko, fearful of assassins, said he grabbed for a gun when the stranger allegedly pushed into his East Side apartment and started beating him.
Kravchenko, 51, fled his job with the Soviet Purchasing Commission in Washington in 1944 and sought asylum in this country. He is the author of "I Chose Freedom," an anti-Communist book.
Last night he told newsmen he would have to search for a new apartment where he can resume his incognito life as a mining engineer. He has been using the name "Peter Martin."
Police said Michael Garcia, 21, and a pal, Joseph Ruiz, 23, rang Kravchenko's doorbell while looking for another apartment in the same building.
Kravchenko opened the door and asked what they wanted. An argument, brawl and shooting ensued.
Garcia, a piano student, was reported in satisfactory condition today at Roosevelt Hospital with a bullet wound in the abdomen. He was charged with felonious assault.

Poland In Good For U.S. Aid

WASHINGTON (AP)—A reappraisal of United States policy toward Communist Poland is in the making. The chances appear good that Poland's new, independent Red leadership can obtain American economic aid if it wishes—and if it survives.
Secretary of State Dulles told a nationwide television audience last night—after conferring with President Eisenhower—that anything which weakens the "great structure" of Soviet Communist power "and leads to its breaking up" is in the interest of the United States.
His words on this and other aspects of the sensational revolt in Warsaw against Soviet domination left little doubt that he sees the prospect of an independent Poland as comparable to the situation of Yugoslavia after its break with the Kremlin in 1948. Yugoslavia obtained help from the United States, Britain and France in order to withstand Soviet pressures.
Even before Dulles spoke out, the White House suggested in response to questions that the help given President Tito of Yugoslavia had encouraged the Polish revolt against Soviet dictation. Eisenhower ruled a week ago that aid to Tito should continue.

"I certainly think," press secretary James C. Hagerty told newsmen, "that the President's insistence on continued aid to Yugoslavia reflects itself in the Polish situation and in other unrest in other satellite nations."
The Polish crisis reached a climax last night when the Communist Party Central Committee at Warsaw drove the Stalinists from its controlling Politburo and restored Wladyslaw Gomulka, who was purged in the days of Joseph Stalin, to the powerful post of first secretary.
The ouster from the Politburo of Marshal Konstantin Rokossovsky, defense minister and symbol of Soviet power in Poland, was seen here as convincing evidence that Gomulka is in deadly earnest about winning for Poland freedom of action.
Dulles, under questioning by a TV panel of reporters, raised no objection to establishing friendly and cooperative relations with a Communist government so long as it is independent of Moscow. This country would like to see a Western-type democracy in Poland and many other nations, he said, "but that is a system which can only be spread throughout the world gradually."
He made these other main points

in his interview:
1. He considered it unlikely that the Soviets would use "mass military means" to crush the Warsaw political rebellion; a "bloodbath" was improbable. Other "repressive measures" may be used. But even if the Russians did throw their military power into action it would not succeed in putting down the drive to freedom because that has too great a popular base.
2. Should the Russians fight in Poland, he did not think "we would send our own armed forces" to oppose them. That would "precipitate World War III"—the last thing the Polish people want because he said it would wipe them out.
3. The "peril" of getting into a great war is less than it once was. With the Western world united for defense, such a conflict "would not be productively undertaken" by the Soviet Union.
4. It is unlikely that the Polish issue will go to the United Nations, at least as a threat to international peace.
5. The Soviet Communist high command is in an "obviously serious dilemma" all over Eastern Europe. With the death of Stalin, it undertook to remove some of the Stalinist controls. In doing so, it has released aggressive forces for freedom which threaten the whole power structure of the Soviet empire.

U.S. Scientists To Get Red Publications

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government announced today plans for a series of publications designed to keep American scientists up to date on Russian medical research. Surgeon General Leroy E. Burney of the Public Health Service said the National Institute of Health will translate and distribute, with $250,000 voted for the purpose by Congress, a number of Russian medical publications.

Fair Weather Covers West

By The Associated Press
Generally fair-weather covered the western half of the nation today while variable cloudiness and scattered rain spread over much of the East.
Except for scattered showers over the Pacific Northwest and northern Rockies, fair skies and lower temperatures were reported west of the Mississippi.
Fog which has blanketed the southern half of the Great Lakes was lifting in most sections in the morning and mostly clear skies ranged over the Midwest. However, showers were forecast for later today in Upper Michigan and northern Wisconsin.
Meanwhile, a band of cooler air pushed eastward through the Central States giving lower temperatures west of a line from Minnesota to northern New Mexico.
New England reported fair and milder weather.

Dallas Child Awed By Sight Of Rain

DALLAS (AP)—Little Mike Oatman, 14 months old, ran to the window last week and looked out, then unlashed a great uproar.
"What's that? What's that?" he asked his mother excitedly.
He was seeing rain for the first time. It rained in Dallas within 14 months, but rain is still rare enough to cause children to wonder.

The rains in scattered parts of the Southwest ranged up to 7 inches last week. But in the words of Texas Agriculture Commissioner John White, "they didn't make a real dent" in the 10-year drought.
The Texas moisture was too slight to help much. Scattered to heavy rains in Oklahoma helped, but most of the state reported supplies of water still were short. Rainfall in Eastern Kansas benefited wheat. Arizona reported no significant rain. The drought was becoming severe in much of Missouri.
Even had the rains been general and heavy, agricultural experts say, they alone would not have erased the scars of 10 years of general drought. The drought was broken only by a wet season in 1949.
To restore subsoil moisture, say the experts, rains must be frequent and heavy.
The Texas rains, which caused floods around Del Rio on the Mexican border, appeared the heaviest of any in the Southwest.

Where moisture fell, it raised the level of stock water ponds. On the Rio Grande, which divides Texas and Mexico, a total gain of 4 to 5 feet was expected at Falcon Dam from the heavy Del Rio rains. Flow from the reservoir has been cut off for many weeks because the water level has been low.
Rains fell in the watersheds of the rivers supplying North Central Texas cities with water but the soil was so dry the rains were absorbed where they fell and there are not much runoff into city reservoirs.
The prospects for rains in the Southwest in the fall and winter are not good, Weather Bureau records show.

Commissioner White said "he insufficient rains would have some benefits. He listed them as:
1. Morale boosters, demonstrated by "Bladder Weakness" (Getting Up Nights or Bed Wetting, too frequent burning or itching sensation or strong smelling, Cloudy Urine, due to common Kidney and Bladder Irritations, try CYSLEX for quick help. 30 years use prove safety for young and old. ing to farmers and ranchers that "it can rain in Texas."
2. Restoring stock water in tanks and creeks that had long been dry.
3. Greening up pasture lands and providing some moisture for wheat and oats in localities that go rains.
Reports from Southwestern Associated Press bureaus show varying drought conditions, ranging from desperate to barely fair.
Arizona has not had rain in a long time. Cattlemen were reported moving up to 40 per cent of their herds off the range, and widespread selling off of part of basic herds was reported.
Missouri reports the situation on livestock water and pastures is the worst in years. Hauling of water to homes and livestock is increasing.

'ROUND TOWN

With Lucille Pickle

We're all in a tizzy what with bells ringing in strange places and quiet where there once was noise, light where it once was dark and all those things. . . in other words here The Herald is in a new building! It's wonderful!

The tea sponsored by the Xi Mu Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi Sunday was an outstanding success. More than 150 men and women visited the six homes and enjoyed not only the beauty presented but also visiting with their friends.

We were sorry to have erred on naming the chapter president. She is really Mrs. L. D. Chrane. Mrs. Charles Tompkins who was given the credit was president last year but this time she served as general chairman of the affair. Scuse please, Queenie.

Right off the first crack in the box who should show up at the Rainwater home but our good friends, MR. AND MRS. C. T. WATSON of Dallas. They were with Mrs. Lina Flewellen and Mrs. H. N. Robinson. Watson was Chamber of Commerce manager here back in the early thirties when I first worked for The Herald on First Street. I knew him but I was flattered to the floor when he knew me. Mrs. Watson is still as pretty as ever. Mrs. Robinson was most attractive in a large brimmed red velvet hat. She wore it with a tweed suit and red blouse.

Young MOZELLE GROEBL has added much to the attractiveness of her parents home with some oil paintings which are used in her room and in the play house which she is outfitting. Although everyone was delighted with the main house, all the mothers of young daughters were completely fascinated with the completeness of the playhouse.

If these teas didn't do anyone any good financially they certainly could enable people to see friends they haven't seen for a long time.

We were happy to see MRS. FLORENCE LENOX who was with her sister, Ione McAllister, and Agnes Currie. Also during the afternoon we briefly visited MRS. E. D. BERRILL who looks better all the time and I've known her a long, long time.

We saw that non-water-holding swimming pool at the H. M. Smith home. Oh well. . . winter's coming on.

Not that this has anything to do with the tea but MERLIN PETERSON of Fort Worth visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Perry Peterson, 611 Douglas, over the weekend.

Peterson is a former student of the University of Texas and is now working for Convar in Fort Worth. He has been with Convar since May of this year.

Getting Hair Ready For Fall First Beauty Work

By VIVIAN BROWN
Beauty repair job No. 1 falls to the hair as days grow shorter. It is time for a new permanent wave, new hair dye, hair treatments or a new hair style to complement new fall fashions.

Women who play the 'glamor role' are interested in short-cuts to charm—no more six-hour sessions in the beauty parlor. They want a beauty session to glamorize them in no more time than it takes to make a beautiful cake. These days they can find the answer to their charm problems at home or in a beauty salon in a jiffy.

Hair may be color-treated at home with a shampoo or given a real dye job in the beauty parlor, all in jiffy time.

Hardies are more casual, may be leaped in the beauty salon in such a way that they are easier to care for at home.

Hair treatments are packaged for home use so that a busy housewife may do household chores as the treatment goes to work on her head. Or an experienced operator may give her an excellent treatment while she catches up with correspondence or the latest novel.

Even home permanent wave time has been shortened. One manufacturer claims wave lotion that cuts winding time in half. Be that as it may, there is no doubt that even this chore of the permanent wave has been made pleasurable whether you wind twenty or for y curls.

Predictions for fall are that hair will be softly waved, if at all ideal for the girl who relies on the home permanent.

Most people who permanent-wave their hair at home enjoy a dual session with girl friend, Mom or daughter, so that each permanent the other's hair. A gab fest is in order while the hair undergoes its transformation.

If you are experimenting with a home permanent for the first time, be sure to read directions. You should have a faint idea too, of your hair textures. Is it difficult to wave or easy to wave? The results you get from your hair kit are entirely dependent on how you size up your hair, and whether you follow instructions carefully.

There are special kits too for different textured hair, so if one wave does not seem satisfactory, you might try another.

Rushees Are Honored At Pipes Home

Two rushees of the Mu Zeta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi were honored with a preferential tea Sunday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Ray Pipes, 1605 Kentucky Way.

The rushees were Mrs. K. N. Carman and Mrs. John Blystone. Mrs. Tom Bauch assisted Mrs. Pipes as cohostess.

The tea table decorations centered around an autumn theme of brown and yellow. A varied arrangement of flowers made the centerpiece which was flanked by yellow candles. A lace cloth over yellow covered the table. The chosen colors were also used to decorate the cake.

Special guests for the afternoon were Mrs. John Stanley, Mrs. E. C. Bell and Mrs. Gordon Wheeler. Rituals will be held on Nov. 3 at 6:30 in the home of Mrs. Darel Highley, 600 Main.

Eleven members attended along with the rushees and special guests.

HOLLYWOOD BEAUTY

Kay Starr Cut Weight From 175 Lbs. To 110

By LYDIA LANE
HOLLYWOOD — It will probably come as a surprise to many people that Kay Starr once weighed 175 pounds, since she now weighs 110 pounds.

"When you consider that I am only five feet two inches, this is every bit as enormous as it sounds," Kay told me when I visited her in her new home in West Los Angeles.

"How could you get so fat?" I asked in astonishment.

"Bad habits and emotional strain," she said. "Most people who are fat have trouble they won't recognize or face. They turn to food as a release and this habit continues after the emotional strain is no longer there."

"I was raised in the South and many of my people were farmers. I can remember our table being set with biscuits, corn bread and white bread. Everything was fried in deep-fat with no thought of calories. I began being chubby and by the time I was in high school I was plump."

Kay was singing on the radio in her teens.

"One of my sponsors was called 'Dainty Cooking Fat' and I was teased unmercifully about this. But even though I suffered while being fat I did nothing about reducing."

"Didn't it hinder your career?" I inquired.

"Not on radio but I auditioned for a lot of bands but as soon as they saw me I was out. The only reason I got a job with Bob Crosby was that he signed me before he saw me. He had heard my records and saw a photograph of my face. He told me later that when I stepped off the train he couldn't believe all of that was one person," she laughed.

"How did you solve your problem?" I queried.

"By counting calories and determination to be thin. I knew I had to reduce if I wanted to continue my career. No one can do it for you. You have to make up your mind and then ask yourself which is most important to you—eating or living."

"It's unhealthy to eat too much and it is unhealthy to reduce too fast," she continued. "It took me quite a while to get down to 110. My stomach has shrunk now so that my appetite is completely satisfied with 1,000 calories a day."

At one time I was hungry constantly. When I have a craving for something now, how I love chocolate. I'll have a chocolate fudge sundae and allow myself only 300 calories the rest of the day.

"My heart goes out to every girl who is ruining her life with obesity. If you can't do it alone, go to a psychiatrist. Don't ever be ashamed of getting help to improve yourself," she said in parting.

In Honor Affair

LAMESA — Mrs. R. W. Wilson was the hostess Friday evening for a surprise birthday celebration honoring Mrs. Elbert Harvick. Following an evening of visiting and gift inspection refreshments were served to eleven guests.

It's been a long seven months since her husband went to the Philippines and it will be a little longer before she sees him but at least Mrs. Leon Wrinkle is on her way.

T. Sergeant Leon Wrinkle went to the Philippines last March and Mrs. Wrinkle and their two children, Pam 4, and J. D., 2, have been making their home here. Sunday morning the three of them left on the first leg of their trip to see their daddy. They will sail from San Francisco on Oct. 31. The trip is scheduled to take three weeks.

To honor their friend on her departure ten women entertained for Mrs. Wrinkle at the home of Mrs. Bob Clark recently. The affair was a bon voyage party and they laid the refreshment table with a green cloth to resemble water. The centerpiece was a ship from which streamers were strung. Above the ship was a placard with the words Bon Voyage, Bonnie printed on it.

Hostesses were Mrs. Clark, Mrs. Vincel Larsen, Mrs. Glen White, Mrs. Dan Feather, Mrs. Earl Culpepper, Mrs. Alan Kernodie, Mrs. Charles Bredemeyer, Mrs. Hack Hudgins, Mrs. Edison Taylor and Mrs. Wendal Parks.

The entertainment of the evening was to write letters to Mrs. Wrinkle for her to read during her trip. Twenty-five called during the evening.

"I'll never forget the telephone call that rushed a doctor to my mother's bedside."

An Interview With Mrs. Ora Surls by Telephone News Reporter Don Davis

Does any single telephone call stand out in your memory? Mrs. Ora Surls remembers one from 60 years ago as clearly as if it had happened last night.

Coming from a pioneer farming family, Mrs. Surls has had her share of ups and the war. Three of her boys were in service and one of them, who was headed overseas at the time, called his "Mom" before leaving. "Mother, we fly out at 2 a. m.—overseas duty. Don't worry, I'll be safe. I'll write you soon. Remember, I love you."

That was the last time his mother heard his voice. He was killed on a mission a few months later.

You'd remember calls like these, wouldn't you?

You can't help but see a little bit of everybody in Mrs. Surls' story. That's because the telephone plays such an intimate part in all our daily lives. Probably you've had a telephone call, or calls, you'll never forget. If so, and you'd care to write me about it, I'd like to hear from you. LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

High school football players should be cautioned against accepting prize money for any endeavor, whether it be for writing themes or riding a bronc at some rodeo. Texas Interscholastic League is very clear on the point. In the eyes of the men who head the august body, an athlete who accepts money for such activity is no longer eligible to participate in any sport in high school.

Charles Treas, who probably would have been an A team footballer here had he not moved from town, is now in Lakeview, near San Angelo. He's playing football for the Lakeview Chiefs, according to reports. He was an end on the Ninth Grade team here last season.

No team anywhere tries harder for its coaches than the Ninth Grade Yearlings here. Dan Lewis and Charles Caraway are doing a grand job with the boys, who have become recognized as one of the best teams of their age bracket in West Texas.

If the local school can keep all the boys now on the Ninth Grade team, the Steers should have a whale of a team by 1958.

HJC's track and field team probably won't be competing against J. D. Hanson, the excellent hurdler for Ranger Junior College, next spring. Rumors have Hanson switching to ACC in the spring. Hanson was an HJC student for a while last year.

Shortly before the 1956 American League season ended, the Washington Senators received $30 as their share of the "gate" from a game in Cleveland. The Senators and the Indians drew 365 cash customers in a stadium seating 85,000.

The Big Spring Steers seem to do better without scrimmaging two or three times a week. Coaches cut the contact work to a minimum because of the fear of injuries to key players but the boys continue to show steady improvement.

Some pro members won't scrimp on all. They reason the players in the NFL know their fundamentals, or they wouldn't be in the play-for-pay ranks.

If Connie Ryan, who managed Austin in the Texas League last season, hadn't been promoted to boss Wichita by the parent Milwaukee club, he'd have quit the chain to accept employment with the Chicago Cubs as a coach.

His old pal and running mate, Bob Scheffing, will be running things for the Cubs. Gloomy Gil Doble coached football teams which enjoyed 11 consecutive all-winning seasons.

Like Lou Gehrig's endurance record in baseball, Doble's feat isn't likely ever to be broken. He spent two of the years at North Dakota Agricultural College, the other nine at the University of Washington.

Ex-Buff Named Cadet Captain

KERRVILLE (SC) — Glenn Claude Greenlee, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Greenlee, Box 52, Van Horn, Texas, is now attending Schreiner Institute in Kerrville. The Greenlees formerly lived in Stanton, where he played football. Greenlee has received one of the highest promotions available to a cadet, that of captain and is in charge of Company B. Cadets get promoted if their scholastic record, their efficiency, and their ability to accept responsibility warrant it. Captain Greenlee is also a member of the Schreiner football team, the Mountaineers, which was given pre-season billing as one of the strongest defensive units in the Pioneer Conference. Weighing 210 pounds, he is able to stand up against the largest of the linemen and hold his own. With his aggressiveness and hardcharging ability Greenlee has won a starting spot on the Schreiner eleven.

WRECK SHOULD SLIP IN AS CHAMPION OF SEC

By ED CORIGGAN
By The Associated Press
If all goes according to expectations the remainder of the football season, the Ramblin' Wrecks from Georgia Tech won't turn into a bunch of mental wrecks after all. The state of Georgia Tech's mental health goes back two years, ever since Mississippi started winning the Southeastern Conference title.

The Engineers thought they were the class of the conference — as they probably were. But in 1954 O' Miss won the title and then last year, the Engineers' main one slip — they lost by two points to Auburn — and it slipped Mississippi again.

This year, Mississippi has made a slip. Tulane licked the Rebels last Saturday 10-3, and now the road appears clear for Georgia Tech to go all the way. Sad to relate, Georgia Tech goes against the very team that did them a favor this week and Tulane. Then they have Duke and Tennessee. After that, the coast is clear. Tennessee is the only problem O' Miss has on the remainder of its schedule.

Besides Mississippi, which will try to pull itself together at the expense of Arkansas this Saturday, Ohio State and Texas Chris-

Don Watson The 'Big Man' In Aggie Win

COLLEGE STATION, Tex. (AP) — A magazine editor, called Coach Paul Bryant of Texas A&M last week and inquired about pictures for his All-American team. He wanted to know which Aggie players would be most likely to stand out in a possible victory over Texas Christian in the Southwest Conference big game Saturday.

"I suggest Jack Pardee, John Crow and Don Watson," said Bryant. "Don Watson? Who's he?" asked the editor. "Well, if somebody wins the game for us it will be one of those three and Watson is most likely to do it," the coach replied.

Longhorns Face Biggest Test

The Big Spring Steers launch preparations today for their biggest assignment of the season, a Friday night outing here with the Abilene Eagles. All eyes in the state will be on Memorial Stadium that evening, where the Eagles can make football history by defeating the Longhorns. The War Birds have now won 29 straight games in the Texas Interscholastic League.

The feat ties the record established by Lubbock several years ago. Apparently, the Steers came out of their losing effort with Kermit last weekend in good physical condition. Jerry McMahan, halfback, suffered a split lip but that won't keep him idle Friday. Tackle Bunky Grimes was helped off the field after experiencing a leg injury but he'll be ready to go.

If all goes well in practice, the Longhorns will be in their best condition of the season. Ronnie Phillips got in a lot of playing time in the Kermit game that will stand him in good stead.

2,000 DUCATS TO ABILENE

Tickets for the Abilene-Big Spring football game, scheduled here Friday evening, will go on sale at the school business office at 9 a. m. Wednesday.

Don Crockett, assistant business manager, said that there already had been numerous requests for tickets to this, the first district 2-AAAA game for both teams.

A block of 2,000 tickets has been sent to Abilene.

West Texas State Wins 5th In Row

By The Associated Press
The Buffaloes from West Texas State at Canyon emerged victorious from a weekend of Border Conference football that saw the hopes of at least one team dimmed considerably.

The Buffaloes won their fifth straight game of the season handily by a 45-0 score over New Mexico A&M. The victory moved the West Texans into a three-way tie with Texas Western and Arizona State at Tempe for conference leadership.

Disappointment came to Texas Western in the form of a 13-6 whipping at the hands of North Texas State. Tempe gained its fifth win, a 26-13 victory over Hardin-Simmons in another conference game Saturday.

Arizona, beat New Mexico University 26-12 and Wildcat tailback Art Luppino set a new college record for rushing. He gained 54 yards for Arizona to bring his collegiate total to 3,247 yards, 35 better than the old record. Two games of conference to conference records are scheduled for the coming Saturday.

Texas Western will meet the New Mexico Aggies. Arizona plays Texas Tech, a former member of the conference. Though now in the Southwest Conference, Tech's results with Border teams still go on the Border Conference record books.

West Texas will be idle but Temple plays San Jose State and Hardin-Simmons plays Tulsa.

Eighth Graders Defeated, 33-0

SWEETWATER (SC) — The Big Spring Eighth Grade Yearlings ipped a 33-0 decision to Sweetwater here Saturday night but coaches Chop Van Pelt and Bobby Sellers were far from displeased with the boys' performance.

Carey King and Jerry Dunlap played outstanding ball in the Big Spring backfield. Up front, Jimmy Haynes and Robert Carr sparkled. Fumbles hurt the Yearlings throughout the contest. The Big Spring club advanced as far as the Colts' 15-yard line on one occasion but lost the ball on a fumble at that point.

The Yearlings tangled with Odesa Bonham next Thursday.

Stamford, Deer Park Are Still Powers In AA

By The Associated Press
The Class AA division of Texas schoolboy football features two of the longest winning streaks extant and the teams holding them still are favored to meet in the championship finals.

Stamford, which now has won 24 straight games, and Deer Park, which has gone through 36 without defeat, continue to look like the powers of the opposite brackets. But there are some tough teams to hurdle as the Bulldogs and Deer get moving in the conference campaign. They are not expected to bob up before Stamford and Deer Park get outside their districts, however.

One team for Stamford to worry about is Comanche, which has rolled through six games without a loss and numbered upper class teams like Stephenville, Killam and Graham among its victims. Comanche gets its first big test in its own class this week and it's the feature game of the state. The Indians meet Hamilton, also undefeated and untied, at Comanche Friday night.

The Comanche-Hamilton game is a conference affair in District 8 and will establish the championship favorite. Only two of the state's 29 districts have undisputed leaders as conference play opens on all fronts. Lockney paces District 2 and Burkburnett tops District 9. Lockney is one of the 11 undefeated, untied teams left in the state.

Other teams with perfect records are Stamford, Comanche, Hamilton, Grapevine, Lewisville, Soham, DeKalb, Deer Park, Sweeney and West Columbia. Gilmer, Hebbornville and San Antonio Sam Houston are unbeaten but have tied.

Lockney and DeKalb have the week off so only nine of the unbeaten, untied teams will risk their records this week. The schedule by districts (all games Friday unless indicated otherwise): 1. Florida at Odessa. 2. Abilene at Dalhart. 3. Taha at Abilene. 4. Perryton at Childress. 5. Hamlin at Seymour. 6. Stamford at Denver City at Crane. 7. Stockton at McCombs. 8. Coleman at Ballinger. 9. Cisco at Ranger. 10. Dublin at Granbury. 11. Hamilton at Comanche. 12. Bowie at Olney. 13. Decatur at Burkburnett. 14. Dallas at Columbia. 15. Mansfield at Lake Worth. 16. Northwest at Lewisville. 17. Grapevine at Aledo. 18. Cedar Hill at Lancaster. 19. Richardson at Dallas. 20. Grand Saline. 21. Van Terrell at Willis. 22. Vernon at Willsboro. 23. 47 Undefeated

By The Associated Press
Paced by the seven victories of little Missouri Valley of Marshall, Mo., at least 47 college football teams still are unbeaten and untied.

Among the major unbeaten, each with 4 victories, are Oklahoma, second-rated Michigan State (Georgia Tech (No. 3), Tennessee (No. 7), Southern California (No. 9) and Baylor (No. 10).

Bruin-Aggie Bout Is Tops

By The Associated Press
Baylor and Texas A&M, the last teams in the Southwest Conference, meet Saturday night and the result will have a profound effect on the league championship and undoubtedly will be felt in the national rankings.

Baylor is undefeated and untied. Texas A&M has a tie to mar its record. But the Aggies, rated fourteenth in the nation, beat Texas Christian, the No. 4 team, 7-6 last week. They may be higher in the rankings this time than Baylor, which has been holding the tenth spot.

Moreover, Texas A&M now is the favorite for the conference championship because when it licked Texas Christian it beat the team that was the people's choice for the title.

Baylor, despite its perfect record, hasn't been as impressive as several of the other teams, notably Texas Christian and A&M.

SMU-Ex, Cassidy Star In Detroit's Comeback

By DAVE DILES
DETROIT, Oct. 22 (AP) — A pair of halfbacks fresh out of college and a rejuvenated quarterback with eight years of pro experience behind him are steering the Detroit Lions back into the National Football League spotlight.

The Lions picked off their fourth straight victory yesterday, 20-17, over the splintered San Francisco 49ers. Quarterback Bobby Layne and rookie halfbacks Hopalong Cassidy and Don McIlhenny sparked the unbeaten Lions. Layne's 170-yard field goal with just 17 seconds to play wrapped up the triumph.

It was Cassidy, the 180-pound redhead from Ohio State, who brought the Lions into position for the dramatic kick after Detroit gained possession on an interception with just three minutes to play.

Marching from their own 35, the Lions drove to the San Francisco 9 in 11 plays. Cassidy carried the ball seven times and a Layne-to-McIlhenny pass covered 21 yards.

"We never needed the rookies any more than we needed them against the 49ers," said Head Coach Buddy Parker. "But they couldn't have come through any more wonderfully than they did."

Cassidy and McIlhenny handled nearly all the Detroit ball-carrying chores, Hopalong going 70 yards in 15 tries and the former Southern Methodist star picking up 104 in 13 attempts.

In Detroit's four decisions, the two halfbacks have carried the ball on more than half of the Detroit rushes, and accounted for more than 500 yards.

"We haven't run away from anybody," Parker smiled, "but when you're winning, you don't count points."

Layne's passing—its effectiveness cut down last season by arm trouble—and the running of the two rookies have molded a new spirit into the Detroit club that won only three games and lost nine in 1955. Detroit wound up in the Western Division basement with its worst finish in seven seasons. Now the Lions are leading the division.

The two unbeaten kingpins of the National Football League, the Detroit Lions and the Chicago Cardinals, are finding their thrones threatened by rumblings of revolt from below.

The Lions held to first place in the Western Conference yesterday by the San Francisco 49ers when quarterback Bobby Layne booted a clutch 17-yard field goal just 17 seconds from the end for a 20-17 victory.

The Cardinals, outrushed 229 yards to 125, had to capitalize on six passes intercepted, a blocked field-goal attempt and two fumble recoveries, to down the Philadelphia Eagles 20-6 and retain first place in the Eastern Conference.

Meanwhile, the closest pursuers, the Chicago Bears in the West and the New York Giants in the East, displayed their mounting strength with lopsided victories. The Bears, accumulating a 209 yards on the ground, 28 in the air and 26 first downs, buried the Baltimore Colts 54-7.

The Giants trounced the Pittsburgh Steelers 35-10 on the limber arm of Chuckin' Charley Conery. The 32-year-old quarterback flipped three scoring passes.

In the other games, the Washington Redskins finally won their first after three straight defeats, beating the once-routed Cleveland Browns 20-4. The Green Bay Packers with a separation, Totin Rote to Billy Howton combination turned back the Los Angeles Rams 42-17.

Henry Ransom Takes PGA Title In Texas With 204

By MAX B. SKELTON
HOUSTON (AP)—Henry Ransom, after an absence of 15 years, has regained the Texas PGA golf championship.

The 45-year-old Bryan professional and rancher posted a wind-swept one-under-par 70 yesterday for a 54-hole 204 to win the 1956 title.

Ransom's nine-under-par total gave him a three-stroke margin over amateur John Paul Cain.

Water, and a four-point edge over another veteran pro, Byron Nelson of Roanoke.

The championship carried a $1,000 first prize. Nelson won $700. Cain received a new set of irons. Hayfey normally keeps Ransom out of golf after mid-August and this was his first venture into the Texas PGA since he won the championship in 1941 at Amarillo.

Ransom won with a 65-69-70-204 against Cain's 70-66-71-207. Nelson had a 67-66-75-208. Sharing fourth place were Earl Stewart Jr., Dallas, with a 70-67-72-209, and Rex Baxter Jr., University of Houston, with a 68-72-69-209. Stewart, a pre-tournament favorite, won $500.

The winners included: Jack Smith, Amarillo, 67-71-73-211 ($300). Doug Higgins, Midland, 74-68-71-213 ($108.33). Boyd Huff, Midland, 74-69-73-216 ($45). Dick Turner, San Angelo, 73-71-72-216 ($45). Odie Beck, Waco, 73-72-71-216 ($45). Richard Dickson, Galveston 71-75-71-217. (amateur) Warren Carrell, Lubbock, 76-72-69-217 ($40).

Lamesa Frosh Rack Up Win

LAMESA — The Lamesa Freshmen kept on with their winning ways Saturday night as they smashed the Brownfield Brownies, 27-4 in a game held off at Golden Tornado Stadium here. The "Whirlwinds" held the Brownies scoreless until late in the fourth quarter.

The Whirlwinds took the opening kickoff and moved about 80 yards for the initial score, which came on fullback Howard Westmoreland's 27 yard smash. Westmoreland converted. Before the first quarter ended, the "Winds" held the Brownies, forcing them to punt out to their own 40. Four plays later, Jim Cox sliced through from the one for the second TD for the locals. Westmoreland added the extra point.

The officials carried the ball farther during the second quarter than did the ball carriers, and because of the penalties, neither team was able to score. At Golden Tornado Stadium here, the "Whirlwinds" held the Brownies scoreless until late in the fourth quarter. The Whirlwinds took the opening kickoff and moved about 80 yards for the initial score, which came on fullback Howard Westmoreland's 27 yard smash. Westmoreland converted. Before the first quarter ended, the "Winds" held the Brownies, forcing them to punt out to their own 40. Four plays later, Jim Cox sliced through from the one for the second TD for the locals. Westmoreland added the extra point.

Then came the Brownies' tally. Gene Pendley broke into the clear on the Brownies 27 and scampered 73 yards for their only TD. The extra point was blocked.

The Whirlwinds are expected to move into faster company Thursday night when they meet the Snyder Puppies at Snyder.

Ike, Adlai In Disagreement On Red Offer

By The Associated Press
Russian Premier Bulganin landed in the middle of the U.S. political campaign with a loud thump yesterday. President Eisenhower denounced him as a mediator in the controversy over ending H-bomb tests.

Bulganin's latest note — endorsing the views of "certain prominent public figures in the United States" who want H-bomb tests halted — drew a stinging reply from Eisenhower and added fuel to the current campaign debate.

Even before Eisenhower's rejection of the Bulganin letter, Adlai Stevenson put out a statement saying, "The White House seems to have dismissed the Russian offer out of hand."

Stevenson said the Bulganin letter appeared to contain "nothing new," but it is encouraging that Russia appears to be still disposed to curb these dreadful weapons.

Stevenson referred to an earlier statement by presidential press secretary James C. Hagerty, who had called the letter "a propaganda exercise rather than a serious attempt to achieve understanding between heads of state."

Sen. Knowland (R-Calif.) called on Stevenson to "repudiate the unwarranted interference of Premier Bulganin... in our free American elections."

Sen. Gore (D-Tenn.) said he agreed the Bulganin letter was an "improper intrusion" into the American campaign. He said Eisenhower was "entirely correct in rejecting it."

Secretary of State Dulles, in a television interview connected with H-bomb explosions. He said such radiation is "relatively a very minor angle of the problem" which has been "built up into an effort to create a great scare."

Bitter Exchange In Atom Offer Seen

WASHINGTON (AP) — Russia's Premier Bulganin almost certainly will fire a quick reply to a letter from President Eisenhower accusing him bluntly of meddling in the American political campaign.

Officials who forecast today that Bulganin will reply promptly said they expect him to deny any intention of interfering in the U.S. political campaign by his surprise message Friday renewing his appeal for an end to atomic and H-bomb tests.

Foregoing diplomatic language in his reply, Eisenhower said Bulganin's newest plea attacked "my own sincerity" and was "personally offensive to me" in its attack on Secretary of State Dulles.

In predicting a speedy reply from Bulganin, diplomatic officials said Eisenhower's charges were of such a serious nature that almost any government would feel impelled to reply swiftly.

They acknowledged that if Bulganin adopts the same strong language Eisenhower used, it will virtually end prospects that such personal messages ever will lead to concrete steps toward world disarmament.

An end to the Eisenhower-Bulganin exchanges, however, would not disappoint top American officials. Many have felt for months that the Kremlin was relying on them as convenient propaganda avenues more than as any serious attempt at negotiation.

Eisenhower said that if an ambassador had done what Bulganin did, he would be expelled from this country.

In denouncing Bulganin's letter, Eisenhower in effect accused the Soviet leader of seeking to give a helping hand to Adlai E. Stevenson, the Democratic presidential nominee, who has been urging that this country take the lead in working toward an end to big-scale nuclear tests. He says the danger to mankind from radiation set loose by such blasts is growing steadily.

Cool Front Due In State

By The Associated Press
A weak cool front was scheduled to move across Texas Tuesday but the U.S. Weather Bureau said it would bring no moisture and little change in temperature.

The clear skies and mild weather Sunday and Monday in the state were a contrast to Saturday's violent storms that claimed five lives.

Brownsville with .12 inch and Beaumont with .10 were the only points in the state reporting rain Sunday.

Early Monday morning skies were clear over Texas. Temperatures before dawn ranged from 39 at Dalhart to 61 at Galveston and Beville.

Maximum temperatures Sunday afternoon ran from 71 degrees at Wichita Falls to 86 at Laredo.

Water Consumption Shows Big Decline

Continued cool weather has brought a sharp drop in city water consumption, and the usage Sunday was barely over two million gallons.

Prison Rodeo Sets Record

HUNTSVILLE (AP) — The prison rodeo has set a new attendance record for its first three performances. Another crowd is expected Sunday when the event will be televised nationally.

Attendance was 32,000 yesterday, equalling the mark set Oct. 16. It brought the attendance for the month to 82,000, which Prison Board Chairman H. H. Coffield Rockdale said was an all-time high for the first three performances.

Sunday's performance will be televised on NBC's "Wide, Wide World" program.

Among visitors yesterday was Lee Simmons of Sherman, former general manager of the Texas Prison System, who started the rodeo in 1931.

"I never dreamed it would grow to this extent. Seeing this crowd makes me feel good inside," Simmons said.

Hearst Chicago Paper Is Sold

CHICAGO (AP)—The Chicago Tribune Co. has taken over the ownership of the Chicago American but the former Hearst afternoon daily will continue to publish "as a separate organization."

The sale of the American, a cornerstone in the vast Hearst newspaper organizations, was announced simultaneously in the Sunday morning editions of both papers.

The purchase price was not disclosed. The Tribune, Chicago's 109-year-old morning newspaper, said it bought all the physical assets of the American plant except the real estate.

Announcements by Chesser M. Campbell, publisher of the Tribune company, and H. G. Kern, general manager of Hearst newspapers said the American will continue to publish in the Hearst Building, and that Stuart A. List, publisher of the American, will continue in that capacity with the present staff.

Editor & Publisher magazine's yearbook lists the American, published continuously in Chicago since 1900, as having a daily circulation of 506,415; Saturday edition at 430,979; and Sunday edition at 710,398.

It listed the Tribune's daily circulation at 928,763 and its Sunday edition at 1,375,006.

Announcements of the sale quoted Hearst Publishing Co. officials that the sale was part of Hearst's program of modernization and expansion of its 15 other newspapers in 11 major cities.

Wish Fulfilled

APPLE VALLEY, Calif. (AP)—Motorist Clarence V. Knemeyer stopped his car when he saw a man lying in the road. He told Sheriff's officers the man told him "I want to get hit by a car."

Knemeyer went to call deputies and when they arrived they found 71-year-old Frank L. Sawyer dead—killed by a car that they said apparently hadn't stopped.

Detroit Workers Mostly Democrats

By JACK BELL

DETROIT (AP)—The shift was changing. Men and women streamed in and out of Chrysler Corp.'s sprawling Dodge plant in Hamtramck.

Blinking a bit in the October sunshine, some hurried homeward. Some migrated toward the new headquarters of United Auto Workers Local No. 3.

Others wandered in groups up the street to a bar.

Here are the men and women who make up the well-organized core of Democratic strength in Hamtramck.

Will they vote 90 per cent Democratic, as leaders of that party claim? This seems doubtful. Will they vote 75 per cent Democratic, as Republican leaders contend? This too is open to doubt. Somewhere in between, the realists say.

There are an estimated 700,000 UAW members in Michigan and most of them seem to be getting from their union a day-by-day political indoctrination. They are a powerful factor among the three million or more Michigan voters who may go to the polls next month.

But is their concentrated political strength offset at least in part, by Republican gains among Detroit's 400,000 Negroes?

Can the Democrats hold intact their overwhelming strength in Detroit and at the same time pick up substantial support among Michigan's generally Republican and somewhat discontented farmers? Are the state's small business men whose income depends primarily on that of the farmers, looking toward the Democrats?

These questions can't now be answered with any authority. However, surface indications are that President Eisenhower again will pocket Michigan's 20 electoral votes, but with a sharp reduction of the 321,000-vote margin he rolled up over Adlai E. Stevenson in 1952.

Eisenhower's personal pull this year may determine whether Detroit's nonpartisan Mayor Albert E. Cobo can win an uphill battle on the Republican ticket against Democratic Gov. G. Mennen Williams, bidding for another term.

Williams won four years ago despite Eisenhower's big Michigan vote. But now the national and state ballots are combined, as they have not been previously.

To many of the members of UAW Local No. 3 in Hamtramck, the political pattern is simple: Eisenhower was a great general, but he is a poor president. They're going to vote Democratic, all the way.

Among those interviewed, there was no sign of enthusiasm for Stevenson, but almost everywhere was the expressed determination to vote the straight Democratic ticket.

One exception was Terry Alexander, lining up his work schedule with the union secretary. Commenting that he had been laid off for at least 18 months during the last three years, Alexander said he hasn't made up his mind on the presidential race. But he said he likes Williams for governor again.

Percy Harding, a millwright in the Dodge plant, said he was going to vote the straight Democratic ticket "because I don't like Ike or anybody in his Cabinet." Up the street an argument was going on in the dim recesses of a tavern.

Ruth Harvey, who works for Dodge, said there wasn't a woman in her plant division who had indicated she was going to vote for Eisenhower.

"I'll bet you, out of a group of any 50 women in the whole plant, you wouldn't find five who are going to vote for Ike," she said.

"When Eisenhower ran four years ago, almost all the women were for him. But now they are strictly against him. He's a good Army man but he's no good for the working man."

John McMahon, a peppery Scotsman who works alongside women in the plant, said he couldn't agree. McMahon, a Democrat all the way, said a little sadly he's having some political trouble with some of the women in his department. One of them, he said with an air of amazement, even wears an Ike button to work.

"She says Eisenhower got us peace and is most likely to keep it and she is going to vote for him," McMahon said. "How do you argue with a woman like that?"

In the world of the taxi driver, the hotel porter, the waitress, the elevator operator, the building service employe, the bartender and the man who digs ditches, Eisenhower is strong.

For example, Lewis Strong, who runs an elevator in Detroit's War Veterans' Memorial Building, said "I voted for Ike in 1952 and I'm going to again, but I'm going to split my ticket this time and vote for Soapy Williams."

Reuben Culbertson, a Negro waiter, said he had been voting Democratic for a long time, "but I'm kinda undecided this year."

He added: "I might vote for President Eisenhower. He's a good man. Course, I'll vote for Gov. Williams."

Mrs. Cora Holloway, a Negro maid, said she is going to vote for Eisenhower "because I'm afraid if we change we might get involved in one of those wars again."

Mary McCarver, a Negro maid, said she voted for Eisenhower in 1952 "because I wanted my boy to come back home from Korea."

"But, Stevenson, that's my man now," she said. "Lots of people here in Detroit have lost their jobs. Men just can't seem to get work."

Smog Makes City Living Unhealthy

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A scientist says country dwellers live five years longer, on the average, than their smog-breathing city cousins.

Dr. Linus Pauling, Nobel prize-winning chemist of the California Institute of Technology, said "People who live in smog-free cities will live perhaps that much longer than those who dwell in the smog."

Uncle Ray:

Tilden Victory Was Accepted By Hayes

By RAMON COFFMAN

Most historians speak of U. S. Grant as a president who did little good for the nation while he was in office. It is the common agreement that he was honest personally, but the same statement could hardly be made about many of the men he appointed to public office. One historian relates:

"Personally honest, Grant did not realize the evil-doing of the rogues who ran the government. . . Scandal followed scandal."

Q. Who was nominated by the Republicans as their candidate to follow Grant?

A. Rutherford B. Hayes.

In the convention James G. Blaine was the leading candidate at first. He was brought before the convention in a stirring speech by Robert G. Ingersoll, widely known Illinois orator. Ingersoll described him as "the Phaedrus Knight."

Blaine led during the first six ballots, but then Kentucky changed its vote to Rutherford B. Hayes, an Ohio leader who had ranked fifth on the first ballot. That change of vote started a stampede to Hayes, and he was nominated on the seventh ballot.

Q. Who was the Democratic candidate?

A. Samuel J. Tilden, governor of New York. He was a brilliant lawyer and had prosecuted and exposed the "Tweed ring" and the "Canal ring." In this manner he had stopped the corrupt use of funds by members of both parties in New York.

Despite the cold treatment which he received from Tammany Hall, Tilden won the electoral votes of New York. He also carried Indiana, New Jersey, Maryland and Connecticut, in addition to various southern states.

Almost everyone believed that Tilden was to be the new president. Even Hayes said, "I am of the opinion that the Democrats have carried the country and have elected Tilden."

A glimpse of the White House, based on a picture made half a century ago.

Two New York Republican leaders, however, were less willing to accept such a result. They sent important telegrams to friends in three southern states.
