Eisenhower Sweeps Nation's Vote, But Demos Keep Control Of Congress

Congress Victory Marks A 'First'

WASHINGTON (P)— Democrats clinched control of both branches of Congress today despite the avalanche of votes that swept President Eisenhower back into office in yesterday's election.

At 1:23 p.m. they elected their 49th senator to give them a numerical edge. Earlier, at 12:50 p.m. they elected their 219th representative to assure a majority in that branch. Never before in the history of the present two-party system had a president failed to carry to election with him at least one branch of Congress.

Ike, Native Of Texas, Takes State's Votes

By ROBERT E. FORD

Associated Press Staff

Dwight D. Eisenhower, born in a railroad worker's humble house in Denison, pocketed Texas' 24 electoral votes Wednesday in the most smashing Republican victory in state history.

For the second straight time, Texas' native son crushed the hard Democratic political tradition and swept the state to defeat Democrat Adlai E. Stevenson.

The way he did it in Tuesday's general election brought jubilation to the Republican party and shock to the Democrats.

He out-distanced his own surprising victory in 1952 and made Herbert Hoover's 1928 upset of Al Smith in the state—by 26,004 votes—pale in comparison.

It was the fourth time in Texas history for the Democrats to lose a major race in Texas. The venerable Sam Houston was the first to beat the Democrats. He did it in 1859 with insurgent Democrats and the Know Nothing Party helping.

That it was an Eisenhower personal victory could be seen in the fact that only one other Republican won a major office—a congressman from Dallas County.

Otherwise the Democrats swept the field where Republicans and Constitution party candidates were entered. Few opponents of the Democrats put up real campaign fights.

Price Daniel won his race for governor with no effort. Eight state constitutional amendment proposals won by comfortable margins.

Texas Election Bureau figures, issued at 10:30 a.m., showed Eisenhower had 55.67 per cent of the Texas vote.

This figure, considered remarkable in political circles, outstripped his 1952 victory percentage of 53.22 per cent.

The vote was Eisenhower 879,236, Stevenson 690,237 and Coleman Andrews, Constitution party, 9,974.

Sen. Price Daniel defeated Republican William Bryant and W. Lee O'Daniel, an active write-in candidate. The latest vote gave 1,042,310 for Daniel, Bryant, 217,760 and O'Daniel, 84,438.

Gloom was thick at Democratic headquarters even as first returns trickled in. Tom Miller, state campaign chairman, said early, "It looks like Eisenhower would win."

Sen. Lyndon Johnson, perhaps (See TEXAS, Pg. 6-A, Col. 6)

Democratic Sen. Alan Bible was re-elected to the Senate from Nevada, giving the Democrats control of the Senate.

At the time the Democrats reached the 219 mark, one more than a bare majority. Republicans had elected 197, of the 435 House seats, 19 still were undecided, with Democrats ahead in 14 and Republicans in 5.

The member-elect who died was Antonio Fernandez of New Mexico, a veteran of 14 years.

At the same hour the Democrats were within 1 vote of winning Senate dominance as well as House control.

Democrats had elected 17 senators and Republicans 15, with Democrats ahead in undecided contests in Kentucky and Nevada and Republicans leading in South Dakota. Democrats have 21 holdovers for an assured 48 seats, one short of a majority, while Republicans have 30 holdovers for a minimum of 45 seats.

Republican Sen. James H. Duff of Pennsylvania, one of Eisenhower's earliest supporters, went down to defeat at the hands of Democrat Joseph S. Clark Jr., 55-year old former mayor of Philadelphia.

The Democrats beat Sen. Herman Welker, in Idaho; Sen. George H. Bender in Ohio.

The Republicans picked up three seats from the Democrats, so the net effect there was a stand-off. The Republican gains were made in New York, Kentucky and West Virginia.

In the battle for control of both the House and the Senate in the new 85th Congress that will assemble Jan. 3, Republican candidates generally lagged far behind Eisenhower.

In Pennsylvania for example, Duff trailed Clark by nearly 35,000 votes while Eisenhower was sweeping to victory in the state by better than half a million votes.

In the first 30 Senate races to be decided, each party won 15.

At 6:15 a.m. EST, they had won 204 seats and were leading in 26 others. Republicans had captured 167 seats and were ahead in 35 others. Democrats were on top in 10 districts now held by Republicans while GOP candidates were in front in 7 districts now held by Democrats.

Republicans had chalked up a net gain of 6 seats, losing 2 of their own and taking 8 held by Democrats. One of the Republican losses occurred in Maine Sept. 10.

Dwight D. Eisenhower

Adlai Submerged Under Vote Flood

By JACK BELL

Associated Press Staff Writer

President Eisenhower won reelection with a thunderous personal endorsement from the American people in yesterday's balloting. But he lost his coveted goal of a Republican Congress.

Fighting off the tide that gave Eisenhower a victory margin of nearly nine million votes over Adlai Stevenson, Democrats won control of the House and Senate. Eisenhower racked up 41 states with 457 electoral votes and had rolled up an 8,647,000 popular vote margin over Stevenson in returns at 1 p.m.

But despite this greatest popular vote bulge in any presidential race since 1936, Democrats elected the 219 members they needed to keep control of the House. Republicans had elected 197. Democrats were leading in 14 of the undecided races and Republicans in 5. One Democratic victor, from a normally Democratic area, died today.

A special election will be called to fill the vacancy. In the Senate, the Democrats won 49 seats, needed for control. Republicans had 45 assured seats.

The undecided Senate races involved the re-election bids of Sens. Francis Case (R-S.D.) and Earle Clements (D-Ky.), Alan Bible (D-Nev.) won.

In the wake of the election, Eisenhower was moving to weld bipartisan backing for administration policy in dealing with the Suez crisis and the Eastern European situation.

He asked both Democratic and Republican congressional leaders to a White House conference on Friday.

In a ranks-closing gesture, Eisenhower thanked Stevenson in a message his "pledge of cooperation for the immediate future and for the four years that lie ahead."

Stevenson, conceding defeat after the Eisenhower tide had ripped apart the once-Democratic South, had said in an earlier message to the White House "We appreciate the grave difficulties your administration faces and, as Americans, join in wishing you success in the years that lie ahead."

On the domestic front, another postelection reaction was an upswing in trading on the stock market. Stock prices were higher but not markedly so. Wall Street had anticipated an Eisenhower victory all along.

Eisenhower's second term victory was by the biggest margin in 20 years.

The peak of one-sidedness in a presidential contest came in 1936 when Democrat Franklin D. Roosevelt topped Republican Alf Landon by 10,797,000 in the popular vote and took 46 of the 48 states.

Eisenhower's massive victory appeared to be compounded both by his great personal popularity and an inclination among the voters against a change during the present state of world affairs.

There were signs too of a swing by Negro voters to the Republican party. Their votes were credited with helping land Louisiana (See IKE, Pg. 6-A, Col. 4)

Stevenson Gains Votes In Howard County

Howard County apparently hadn't heard.

By slightly more than the margin which President Eisenhower was swamping his Democratic opponent, Howard County went again into the column for Adlai Stevenson.

While the total vote was less than in 1952, Stevenson increased both his numerical and percentage majority. He captured 59 per cent of the vote against 41 per cent of Eisenhower.

The complete unofficial vote showed 4,406 for Stevenson and 3,051 for Eisenhower, a majority of 1,355. In 1952 the county had shown 4,779 for Stevenson and 3,433 for Eisenhower, a majority of 1,343.

In 1952 the Stevenson vote had figured at 58 per cent of the total. The write-in vote of W. Lee O'Daniel for governor proved a dud. With 250 votes in the county he even ran behind the Republican nominee, William R. Bryant. Price Daniel, Democratic nominee, polled 6,587. Total vote of these three was 7,138, substantially under the 7,457 in the presidential contest.

Results of Tuesday's balloting kept the county's long record of Democratic majority for president intact. Only in 1928 when Herbert Hoover upset Al Smith has the county ever voted Republican in a presidential race.

The President captured only one box, No. 16 in the Edwards Heights area, in this year's balloting, and that by 43 votes. Four years ago he had taken Gay Hill and No. 3 in Big Spring, both by narrow margins. This year he dropped Gay Hill by a substantial margin and was barely nosed out in No. 3.

Rural boxes gave Stevenson a heavy majority, 68.4 per cent of the total. In town the edge was (See COUNTY, Pg. 6-A, Col. 4)

Repaired Liner Stockholm At Sea

NEW YORK (P)—The repaired Swedish American liner Stockholm put to sea yesterday for the first time since her collision with the Italian liner Andrea Doria July 25. Fitted with a new bow, she made test runs outside New York Harbor. Her officers pronounced her good as new.

Wade Choate Wins District Clerk Post

Voters Tuesday gave Wade Choate the office of District Clerk for Howard County, the post to which he was appointed early this fall following the death of his uncle, George C. Choate.

Choate polled 2,145 votes to 1,797 for his nearest rival, James R. Horton. Third in the race was Denver Dunn with 1,115 votes. R. C. Thomas received 968.

Now serving as interim district clerk, Choate led in nine of the county's 16 voting boxes and tied with Horton in another. He also had the highest absentee total.

His election as an independent in the non-partisan election Tuesday means he will serve the remaining two years of the four-year term to which George Choate was elected in 1954.

SEOUL (P)—The South Korean government said two Communist MIG15 jet fighters attacked two South Korean F51 fighters today. One South Korean plane was missing.

Red Satellites Offer Troops For U.N. Police

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (P)—Two Soviet satellites, Romania and Czechoslovakia, offered today to contribute troops to the international force which the U.N. hopes to rush to the Middle East to police the battle area.

This was disclosed as the 76-nation General Assembly met in the first of two emergency sessions to deal with the Middle East and the Soviet military interference in Hungarian affairs.

The major task of the morning meeting was to speed approval of the U.N. force and start it moving. The Assembly also had before it a demand by 19 Asian and African nations for the immediate withdrawal of British, French and Israeli forces from Egypt.

The troop offers from Romania and Czechoslovakia brought to 11 the number of countries that have expressed a willingness to participate. Big powers are barred under an Assembly resolution authorizing preliminary plans for the force.

U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold was ready to report that nine nations had promised troops for the U.N. police force authorized by the Assembly to supervise a cease-fire in Egypt.

Hammarskjold announced last night that Britain and France had ordered their troops in the Suez Canal zone to quit fighting unless attacked. He said Egypt and Israel already had ordered a cease-fire, but Egypt made hers conditional on withdrawal of all foreign troops from her soil.

In an effort to speed the U.N. force to the Suez, seven nations put together a resolution giving broad approval to Hammarskjold's plans for the police force. The secretary general said Canada, Colombia, Denmark, Finland, New Zealand, Norway, India, Pakistan and Sweden had agreed to furnish troops. Others were expected to contribute.

The Assembly also had before it a proposal from Britain and France that their technicians begin clearing the Suez Canal at once of ships sunk by the Egyptians to block the channel. It was believed British Royal Navy crews already had begun work.

At an afternoon session, Hammarskjold was to bring the Assembly up to date on the situation in Hungary. The Assembly on Saturday adopted a resolution calling on Russia to withdraw its forces from Hungary.

So far as was known, Soviet troops continued to try to wipe out rebel holdouts.

Noted Actor Dies

HOLLYWOOD (P)—Actor Paul Kelly, 56, who appeared in more than 200 movies and numerous Broadway plays, died yesterday of a heart attack. Kelly, a handsome young leading man in the Hollywood of the roaring '20s, was convicted at the height of his career of killing musical comedy actor Ray Raymond in a fist fight over the affections of Raymond's wife, actress Dorothy MacKaye. He served 25 months.

FOOD RUNNING OUT Budapest Battle Hits High Point

VIENNA (P)—The shelling of Budapest by Soviet troops reached its highest point last night, and food in some areas of the city was running out.

Trustworthy information on the besieged city, received today, gave this picture:

Soviet forces have been systematically trying to wipe out pockets of resistance. Hospitals and clinics were among the targets. At a time yesterday when Moscow was broadcasting that all resistance had been liquidated, shelling of the city was increasing.

A score of Russian tanks were reported destroyed in one engagement between Russians and Hungarians near the French legation. This and other legations have been damaged. The dining room of the Duna Hotel was knocked out.

About 700 Hungarians continued to resist in the rubble-filled barracks. In some cases women were manning the guns.

Today Hungarian Communist stations went off the air abruptly. In London 2nd grad traf. In London, a British minister told the House of Commons the Communists had imposed a strict curfew in Budapest and were shooting any violators on sight.

A rebel broadcast said Dunapentele, an anti-Red stronghold in the Danube valley south of Budapest, was under Soviet attack and Russian planes were bombing the town. This report came in a broadcast by Radio Rakoczy monitored in Munich by Radio Free Europe.

Then Radio Rakoczy, presumably a portable transmitter, announced that it was ceasing transmission indefinitely.

Hours before, the Russian-controlled Radio Budapest and stations at Pecs, in southern Hungary and at Szombathely, near the Austrian frontier, had mysteriously fallen silent.

Lord John Hope, British under-secretary of state for foreign affairs, told the Commons reports to London indicated fighting was still going on in Budapest late last night despite repeated Russian demands for surrender of the rebels' arms.

"Some sections of the town were in flames," he said. "According to a Red Cross report, civilian casualties from Russia, Budapest, Pg. 6-A, Col. 7"

Ike Calls Talk By Party Heads On Mid-East

WASHINGTON (P)—President Eisenhower today called congressional leaders of both parties to a White House meeting Friday for discussion of steps toward creation of a lasting peace in the Middle East.

Eisenhower's press secretary, James C. Hagerty, said the conference also would deal with the situation in Central Europe that would include the picture in Hungary and Poland.

Hagerty said that "at the present time" Eisenhower has no plans to call a special session of Congress.

Hagerty also announced that the President would confer later with Secretary of Defense Wilson and Adm. Arthur W. Radford, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

Asked whether that session would deal with this country's role regarding a United Nations police force for the strife-ridden Middle East, Hagerty replied: "I think that would be a fair assumption."

He said it already has been made clear in the United Nations that the United States will not contribute any troops. Hagerty said this country's role will be confined to helping with transportation, and other supply and support measures.

The Friday morning conference of Democratic and Republican congressional leaders will provide Eisenhower with his first opportunity to review the situations in the Middle East and Central Europe with them.

Those invited include House Speaker Sam Rayburn (D-Tex.), House Republican Leader Joseph W. Martin Jr. (Mass.), Senate Republican Leader William F. Knowland (Calif.), and Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon Johnson (Tex.).

In addition, Hagerty said, top members of both parties serving on the armed services, appropriations and foreign relations committees of both houses are being asked to attend.

Nothing New In AF Talks

Herbert Whitney, city manager, said that no new proposals came from the Tuesday meeting with Air Force officials concerning water lines.

He said that actually the meeting was to bring both sides up to date on the housing unit water and sewer-line projects. Proposals by the city and counter-proposals by the Air Force had left both sides slightly in the dark as to where the project stood, Whitney said.

The Air Force officials on the local level said they would try to get officials out here from Washington who had some authority to state the government's position definitely.

Two weeks ago, a civilian from the Pentagon told the city that whoever called for engineering surveys on the projects acted without authority.

Shooting Shadows Mid-East Truce

LONDON (P)—Reports of continuing shooting shadowed a shaky cease-fire in the Middle East today.

Prime Minister Eden told the House of Commons there had been "some shooting" during the day at Port Said in the Suez Canal area. He said Britain had no official confirmation that Egypt accepted a U.N. cease-fire order.

The Cairo radio in a broadcast reported from Beirut, charged that British-French forces were continuing attacks "in defiance of the U.N. call for a cease-fire."

Threats of Communist intervention, and a declaration by Premier David Ben-Gurion of Israel indicating he will refuse to pull back troops from the Gaza Strip and Sinai Peninsula further threatened the hair-triggered peace, only hours old.

Soviet Defense Minister Marshal Georgi Zhukov, in a Bolshevik revolution anniversary speech in Moscow, declared Russia was ready to send military forces to throw British, French and Israeli troops out of Egypt—if the United Nations approves.

Two of Russia's satellites, Romania and Czechoslovakia, offered in New York to contribute troops to the United Nations as part of an international police force in the Middle East.

An Egyptian diplomat in Hong Kong said 250,000 Red Chinese have volunteered for "Egypt's struggle against aggression." Soviet reserve officers were reported by another Egyptian diplomat in Moscow to be volunteering.

Eden said he did not wish to emphasize the shooting at Port Said.

He declared Britain and France had not the "slightest intention" of moving ahead of their present positions, or pushing in additional forces aside from administrative and security elements.

In Jerusalem, Premier David Ben-Gurion declared the 1949 armistice with Egypt is a dead letter. He said Israel will not agree to any foreign forces "no matter under what name" being stationed on Israeli soil or territory she occupies. The occupied (See MID-EAST, Pg. 6-A, Col. 7)

Herbert Whitney, city manager, said that no new proposals came from the Tuesday meeting with Air Force officials concerning water lines.

He said that actually the meeting was to bring both sides up to date on the housing unit water and sewer-line projects. Proposals by the city and counter-proposals by the Air Force had left both sides slightly in the dark as to where the project stood, Whitney said.

The Air Force officials on the local level said they would try to get officials out here from Washington who had some authority to state the government's position definitely.

Two weeks ago, a civilian from the Pentagon told the city that whoever called for engineering surveys on the projects acted without authority.

Shooting Shadows Mid-East Truce

LONDON (AP)—Reports of continuing shooting shadowed a shaky cease-fire in the Middle East today.

Prime Minister Eden told the House of Commons there had been "some shooting" during the day at Port Said in the Suez Canal area. He said Britain had no official confirmation that Egypt accepted a U.N. cease-fire order.

The Cairo radio, in a broadcast reported from Beirut, charged that British-French forces were continuing attacks "in defiance of the U.N. call for a cease-fire."

Threats of Communist intervention, and a declaration by Premier David Ben-Gurion of Israel indicating he will refuse to pull back troops from the Gaza Strip and Sinai Peninsula further threatened the hair-triggered peace, only hours old.

Soviet Defense Minister Marshal Georgi Zhukov, in a Bolshevik revolution anniversary speech in Moscow, declared Russia was ready to send military forces to throw British, French and Israeli troops out of Egypt—if the United Nations approves.

Two of Russia's satellites, Romania and Czechoslovakia, offered in New York to contribute troops to the United Nations as part of an international police force in the Middle East.

An Egyptian diplomat in Hong Kong said 250,000 Red Chinese have volunteered for "Egypt's struggle against aggression." Soviet reserve officers were reported by another Egyptian diplomat in Moscow to be volunteering.

Eden said he did not wish to emphasize the shooting at Port Said. He declared Britain and France had not the "slightest intention" of moving ahead of their present positions, or pushing in administrative forces aside from administrative and security elements.

In Jerusalem, Premier David Ben-Gurion declared the 1949 armistice with Egypt is a dead letter. He said Israel will not agree to any foreign forces "no matter under what name" being stationed on Israeli soil or territory she occupies. The occupied

Eskimos Often See Mock Suns In Sky

By RAMON COFFMAN
An interesting sight is described in a letter from Mr. P. W. Miller, who writes:
'Back in the winter of 1936 (in January or February) I saw a circle around the sun which has always puzzled me, I would like to have you explain it, if possible.
'At noon, or shortly before, a fine, misty snow was falling. The clouds thinned out enough for the sun to appear, and I saw the circle around it which is indicated on the enclosed sketch. The circle had four satellite suns around it, and they were spaced at equal intervals - north, east, south and west.
'The satellite suns were about one third smaller than the true sun. Within a few moments, clouds covered the sight and I did not see it again.'
The objects which Mr. Miller

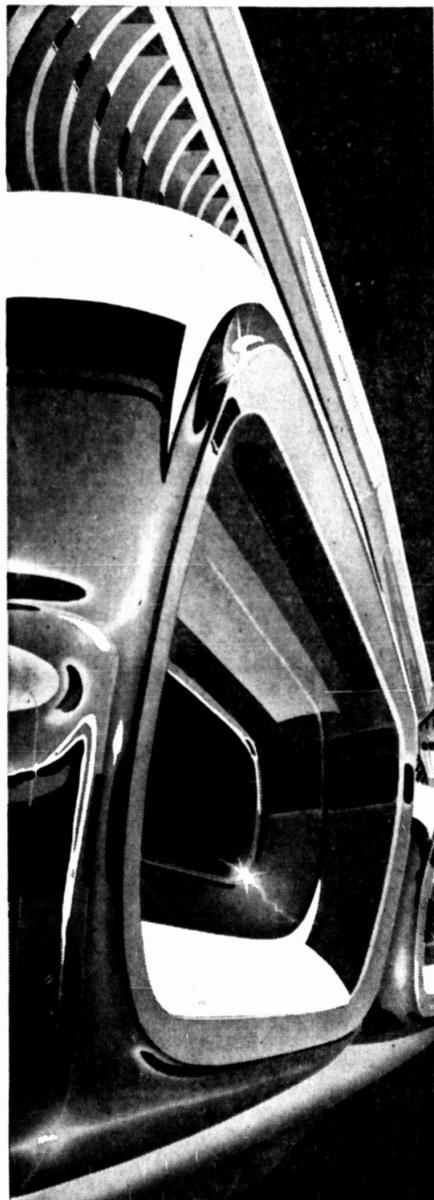

Eskimos see a sight like this more often than do people farther south.

describes are known as mock suns, also as "sundogs." Two, three or four of them may appear at the same time. If the number is four, a person may wonder whether he is seeing five suns!
That phenomenon is observed most often in the North Frigid Zone. The Eskimos, in particular, wonder about the reason for such a trick of nature.
The objects are caused by reflections of sunshine in the midst of a cloudy mass, or fog. Particles of ice, high above the ground, do much of the reflecting.
Halos form around the sun. They are large circles of light. Some times there is only a single circle, but at other times there are several. Observers may see mock suns where halos intersect one another.
The crystals of ice sometimes divide sunshine into different wave lengths, making colors appear. When this happens, the part of a mock sun closest to the sun is reddish. Elsewhere the mock sun

Son Charged In $5,000 Theft

GAINESVILLE (AP)—The son of an elderly couple here who didn't trust banks has been charged with stealing $5,000 they had buried under their home in a fruit jar.
Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Wilde discovered the money missing from the fruit jar yesterday when they checked it for the first time in eight months.
Sheriff's officers charged their son, Barney, about 40, with the theft, which they said apparently took place in early October.

Operator Fined In Hot Oil Case

TYLER (AP)—Blaine Dunbar, Longview oil operator, was fined $9,000 in Federal Court today by Judge Joe Sheehy after pleading guilty to 30 counts of violations of the Connally Hot Oil Act.
Dunbar entered a plea of guilty to 15 counts of making false monthly reports to the Federal Petroleum Board during 1953 and 1954, and to 15 counts of interstate commerce of contraband oil.
U.S. Dist. Atty. William Steger said Dunbar owned a non-productive tract of land in Gregg County and also owned a fourth interest in an adjoining four-acre productive tract. Dunbar drilled two directional wells from the non-productive tract into the producing land, Steger said.
The oil was transported from Gregg County to New Jersey, Steger added. Sheehy granted Dunbar until Monday to pay the fine, one of the largest assessed recently in such cases.

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Actress Joanne Dru accuses actor John Ireland of cruel and inhuman treatment in a divorce suit filed yesterday. Miss Dru, former wife of crooner Dick Haymes, was married to Ireland in 1949 at La Jolla, Calif. They separated last July 5.

Shivers Proclaims Thanksgiving Day

AUSTIN (AP)—Gov. Shivers, in his official Thanksgiving Day proclamation, called on Texas "to join in giving thanks to God for the many blessings that we enjoy."
The Legislature in 1951 passed a law establishing Thanksgiving on the last Thursday in November. This year Thanksgiving is being celebrated Nov. 22 in most states and in some areas in Texas despite designation of Nov. 29.
"The American people in this year of 1956 have abundant reason to give thanks for the blessings that a divine providence has bestowed on this favored land," Shivers said. "For almost a century Thanksgiving has been a national holiday, set aside to express our humble gratitude to God for the bounty of the harvest and for the heritage of freedom that is ours."

Swallowed GOP 'Line' Whole

NEW ULM, Minn., Nov. 7 (AP)—Mike Lloyd of New Ulm swallowed the Republican line whole. Today he's carrying around in his stomach a boast on a small button it will be "like in '56."
The only disappointment for the GOP cause is that Mike isn't old enough to vote. The 5-year-old boy found the button in his older brother's bedroom.
Mike accidentally swallowed it. His father took Mike to the doctor. The physician saw the button in a fluoroscope and said "everything will come out all right."

The New Studebaker 'Hawk'

The 1957 Studebaker Silver Hawk V-8 sports-type, five-passenger coupe is one of the new line which goes on display Thursday, and is to be seen locally at McDonald Motor Co., 206 Johnson. This car is powered by a 210-horsepower, 289-cubic-inch V-8 engine, rated at 300 foot pounds of torque at 2800 revolutions per minute. The low silhouette, family-size car is almost six feet wide, less than five feet high and almost 17 feet long. It has the longest wheelbase in the industry for its price class.

ON DISPLAY THURSDAY

Studebaker Offers 1957 Line With Sports Type Emphasis

The 1957 line of five-passenger Studebaker sports-type cars, headed by the Golden Hawk with advanced styling, a supercharger, a non-slip power-dividing differential, 15 per cent better performance, 20 per cent faster steering and new safety features will be introduced Thursday. The cars will be shown locally at McDonald Motor Co., 206 Johnson Street.

The long, low family-size hardtop and coupes will be the only line of sports-type cars by an American manufacturer in 1957 covering various price brackets. The Hawks are 17 feet long, 56 inches high, almost six feet wide, and have a 120½-inch wheelbase, longest in the low price field.

The Golden Hawk with its new supercharged 275-horsepower V-8 engine, new front-rear weight distribution, new automatic transmission, and the most favorable power-to-weight ratio in its class, will be the highest performance car in its price field for 1957, according to Studebaker engineering tests.

It will be the only American production car with a supercharger. In addition to the Golden Hawk, the sports-styled line with canted rear fins will include the lower priced Silver Hawk V-8 with 210-horsepower, 289-cubic inch engine (225 horsepower with optional power kit) and the Silver Hawk six with the economical 101-horsepower, 185-cubic inch in-line engine.

The long, low cars with European-flavored styling are in sharp contrast to Studebaker's standard line of family sedans and station wagons which have a bigger American design.

The Golden Hawk has up to 15 per cent better passing and acceleration performance than in 1956 as shown by Studebaker engineering tests. This is due chiefly to use of the supercharger along with the Studebaker Flightomatic transmission for the first time and new 3.31:1 axle ratio.

The supercharger, a five-pound boost, full pressure system, rams 30 per cent more fuel and air mixture into the combustion chamber, resulting in higher explosion pressures than under normal operating intake vacuum. Driven through a

Baptist Sides With Allies

CORPUS CHRISTI — The pastor of the world's largest white Baptist church, Dr. W. A. Criswell, said yesterday "The American people would spend their blood to the last man to defend the national liberties of Great Britain and France."

The pastor of Dallas' 11,000-member First Baptist Church told the Texas Baptist Brotherhood "No matter how a man may look on the government of Edgêr or the sins of France, the lives of our nations are intermingled. "We have a common destiny. And if the time ever comes when the destinies of Great Britain and France are jeopardized by Russia, America will not sit idly by. It would mean the third world war. "All it would take to start a world-wide conflagration would be for Russia to heed the call of Egypt to send forces to help that country."

The women's Missionary Union re-elected Mrs. Clem Hardy of Waco president and Mrs. H. C. Hunt of Gregory, recording secretary.

variable rate pulley, the supercharger provides maximum power during acceleration while permitting normal fuel economy at cruising speeds.

Increased performance in the 1957 line has been aimed at the passing speed ranges for additional safety margin. In pre-production tests at the Studebaker proving ground, the new Golden Hawk equipped with automatic transmission accelerated from 30 to 60 miles per hour, the normal passing speed range, in 5.9 seconds. From a standing start to 60 miles per hour, the Hawk clocked 9.0 seconds using the automatic transmission.

There also has been a substantial advance in handling characteristics of the Golden Hawk, particularly in cornering, with a greatly improved front and rear weight distribution ratio, primarily through use of the lighter Studebaker 289-cubic inch V-8 engine and new lower steering ratio.

All Hawks are equipped with a 12-volt electrical system and have a full range of optional power assists including power steering, power brakes, power windows and power seats. Dual exhausts will be standard on Hawk V-8 models for added performance.

In new safety developments, finned brake drums have been extended to include the Silver Hawk V-8 coupe for the first time as well as the Golden Hawk. These are finned to provide 100 per cent more cooling surface and eliminate brake "fade" due to overheating. The low silhouette Hawk line has rear fins on all models which are canted outward. New rear fenders are more massive and feature back-up lights styled in identical fashion to tail lamps and mounted vertically.

Trial Called In Mail Fraud Case

HOUSTON — Trial was called today in Federal Court for George Parr and eight alleged Duval County associates named in mail fraud charges.

A grand jury returned an indictment March 6 containing 19 mail fraud counts and one count of conspiracy. The document named the nine individuals, the old Texas State Bank of Alice and the San Diego State Bank of San Diego as co-defendants.

The indictment alleges a fraud involved funds and operations of the Benavides School District.

The defendants are alleged to have diverted $173,500 of the district's funds between September 1949 and February 1954.

Defendants are D. C. Chapa, B. F. Donald Jr., Jesus Garza, Santiago Garcia, Octavio Saenz, Jesus Oliveira, O. P. Carrillo and Oscar Carrillo Sr.

Scheduled to appear this afternoon before Judge Allen Hannay's court were 200 prospective jurors. Nearly 200 witnesses have been subpoenaed.

Louisiana Goes For Ike

NEW ORLEANS — President Eisenhower swept toward a 60,000-vote victory today in democratic Louisiana, shattering an 80-year opposition to a Republican White House.

The last time Louisiana gave its electoral vote to a Republican President was in 1876, when Rutherford Hayes won.

A switch in city voting, stirred by the war scare and a Negro swing to Ike put Eisenhower strongly ahead of Adlai Stevenson. The count in 1,738 of 2,040 precincts: Eisenhower 274,695 and Stevenson 215,617.

Officials Raise Clamor For Vote Machines

There was increasingly loud talk around the court house Tuesday night relative to the need for voting machines for use in Howard County.

TEXAS

the top Democratic campaigner in Texas, asserted the Middle East crisis in effect was responsible for the Democrats' loss in the state.

Jack Porter, Republican committeeman from Texas, said Texas voters showed "they want no part of socialism."

Gov. Shivers, a campaigner for Democrats for Eisenhower, said "I am grateful that the people of Texas have recognized the strong and sincere leadership of President Eisenhower."

Democratic party loyalists had high hopes for this campaign. The touchy tideland issue was backing the party again. In 1952, Shivers and the State Democratic Executive Committee bolted to Eisenhower.

Robert Johnson, head of the Texas Election Bureau, listed as reasons for the 1952 victory:

- 1. Democratic party machinery plugged for Eisenhower.
2. Tideland.
3. Both Coke Stevenson, former governor, and Price Daniel supported Eisenhower.
4. There was cross filing of most state candidates.

In this election, he pointed out, none of these were factors.

Johnson also pointed out that a wide band of East Texas counties which always have been rock-ribbed Democratic strongholds switched to Eisenhower this year.

Among the counties which swung from Democratic to Republican majorities between 1952 and 1956 were the party-vote counties including Jefferson (Beaumont-Port Arthur), Galveston, Orange and Nueces.

Also going Republican was McLennan County (Waco), thought of as strongly Democratic. Other counties switching to the Republican side in the four years were Collin, Nacogdoches, Tittus, Upshur, Cherokee, Johnson, Walker, Iron, Hardin, Cass, Kleberg, Lamar and Jasper.

Several counties switched from Republican in 1952 to Democratic in 1956. These included Biscoe, Wilbarger, Frio, Dawson, Floyd, Wharton, Lamb, Hardeman, Taylor, Travis, Childress, Lubbock and Castro.

Also going Republican and Constitution party candidates staged such weak campaigns that their votes were not collected by the Texas Election Bureau, the unofficial vote tabulating agency organized by newspapers.

This included the race between Rep. Martin Dies and Constitution Party candidate Fred Spangler for congressman-at-large.

Coleman Andrews, running for president on the Constitution party platform in Texas and on the States Rights party ticket in other states, got less than 1 per cent of the Texas vote.

Johnson estimated the total vote when all returns are in would be 1,800,000, with about a million for Eisenhower and 800,000 for Stevenson.

Here were the latest Election Bureau totals in other races:

- For Congress by districts:
3. Former Rep. Lindley Beckworth (R) 31,405; R. E. Kennedy (R) 6,684.

Adlai Takes 2nd Defeat With Quip

CHICAGO (AP)—Adlai E. Stevenson took his second crushing defeat at the hands of Dwight D. Eisenhower today with a smile on his face and a quip on his lips.

It wasn't that it didn't hurt—he frankly confessed his disappointment before a nationwide TV audience—but you could tell he had known for days how it would all turn out.

But, he told hundreds of disheartened Stevenson volunteers jammed into the big Hotel Conrad Hilton ballroom—and millions who watched on their television sets—our cause will ultimately prevail.

Would he try for the presidency again?

"I'm a candidate for bed," he responded lightly to the reporter's query.

His more formal note was sounded shortly after midnight when he left his suite at the Sheraton-Blackstone Hotel and walked across the street to the Conrad Hilton to tell hundreds of mournful followers.

"To you who are disappointed tonight, let me confess that I am

Two Mishaps Occur In City Tuesday

Two accidents including a hit-and-run were reported in Big Spring Tuesday.

A 1949 Packard, owned by a Sgt. Rogers was hit and the rear fender damaged. The car was parked at 509 W. 4th. He told the police. Today, the police were looking for a car fitting description given by Rogers.

Ruth Jenkins Harrell, 209 Hardin, and Arthur McNew, Rt. 1, were drivers in collision at Third and Gregg Tuesday.

GOVERNMENT PUPILS HERE LIKE IKE, TOO

Government students in Big Spring High School went for Eisenhower in a special election project yesterday on about the same basis as voters in the national election.

Eisenhower and Nixon received a little more than 58 per cent of the votes cast. Vote for the Republicans was 42 to 30 for the Democratic nominees, Stevenson and Kefauver.

High school "voters" also went the write-in route: in a couple of instances, giving W. Lee O'Daniel, write-in candidate for governor, one vote, and writing in Jess Slaughter's name once in the local sheriff's race.

In the district clerk's race, pupils gave Wade Choate 19 votes, James Horton 3 and R. C. Thomas 2 votes.

All of the proposed Constitutional amendments were favored by the students. Heaviest majority went to the teacher retirement proposal, which won the pupils' approval 57-4.

The election was a project of students of Mrs. Ronald Maves. A week ago, the three government classes conducted mock conventions, naming the candidates as their presidential nominees.

Few Write-Ins Cut County Dem Totals

Democratic county and district nominees, unopposed by Republican candidates, piled up heavy votes in Howard County Tuesday. The number of write-in names scribbled on ballots was lighter than usual.

A few humorists injected a lighter note into the serious business of voting by the write-in route. There was one vote polled for Ben Hogan, famous golfer, for president. Joe Smith, the mythical candidate introduced in the Republican national convention, rated seven votes in Big Spring City Hall box.

Otherwise, the number of new names on the ballots were few. Jess Slaughter, present sheriff, rated 10 such votes against Miller Harris, the Democratic nominee. P. O. Hughes, candidate for commissioner Precinct 1, was figuratively opposed by one or two write-ins — J. H. Fray, for one, and Cy Terrazas, for another.

Several suggestions for constable were injected into these races, but insufficient number of such votes developed to make any impression on the total.

George Mahon, congressman for the 19th District, polled a total of 5,287 votes. R. L. Tollet, Big Spring oil executive, drew one vote as a write-in.

J. G. (Obie) Bristow, state representative from this district, drew no write-in opposition.

Other county candidates and their vote totals:

Guilford Jones, district attorney, 5,260; Harvey Hooser Jr., county attorney, 5,171; Mrs. Viola Robinson, tax assessor, 5,305; Miller Harris, sheriff, 5,270; P. O. Hughes, commissioner, Precinct 1, 1,021; Hudson Landers, commissioner, Precinct 3, 1,599; Walter Grace, justice of peace, Precinct 1, Place 1, 5,413; J. W. (Wes) Patton, con-

Short Cotton Harvest Near End In Howard

The short cotton harvest in Howard County is rapidly drawing to an end. At the close of business Tuesday the four Big Spring gins had ginned a total of only 1,517 bales. Gin managers report that from 65 to 80 per cent of the cotton is already gattered.

"We can't make a very accurate prediction," said one manager, "because we don't know what the weather will be. A big rain or a couple of bad sandstorms would put so much sand in the cotton that farmers might not bother to gather some of it."

Also the date of the first killing frost might make some difference. Ginners say that some of the top growth has matured rapidly since the rain, and given another 10 days could make a difference of many bales.

Grades and staple have held up well until recently. Now much of the cotton is getting sandy, which cuts down on the grade. The staple is also shortening since the smaller bolls started opening.

The price has dropped somewhat due to more cotton being downgraded. Much of it is grading strict low middling spot, and is averaging out at 23 to 25 cents per pound.

Among the 1,617 bales ginned in Big Spring, nearly 200 bales were brought in from Glasscock County. However, most of this came in early in the fall before the St. Lawrence gin was completed. Ginners report practically no out-of-the-county cotton being ginned now.

While the county harvest is probably three-fourths complete, there is still an area of several hundred acres of young cotton along the Howard-Martin County line. This cotton was planted in late June and early July and has been estimated at a one-fifth to one-third bale per acre average. Most of this is almost ready to be harvested and will likely be ginned in Big Spring.

The estimate for Howard County has been set at about 4,700 bales.

Howard Favors All Amendments

Howard County went along with the rest of Texas Tuesday in giving strong endorsement to eight amendments to the state constitution.

Majorities for the constitutional changes ranged from about two to one to 12 to one.

Heaviest approval (and this also was true over the state) went to Amendment No. 4, providing for broadening of the retirement program for school teachers. School people here had waged a most active campaign in behalf of this issue, and their efforts bore fruit. This carried in the county 6409 to 508.

Smallest margin went to Amendment No. 2, which enables county commissioners courts to order tax reallocations without a special referendum. Strangely enough, Howard last year had approved its own tax reallocation in a special election.

Here were the complete, unofficial totals:

No. 1 — Aid to persons wrongfully sentenced: For 5710, against 543.

No. 2 — Tax Reallocation: For 3,976, against 1,940.

No. 3 — Broadening investments of college fund: For 4,564, against 1,240.

No. 4 — Teacher Retirement: For 6409, against 508.

No. 5 — Veterans Land Fund: For 4435, against 1519.

No. 6 — Changing oath of office: For 4763, against 711.

No. 7 — Jury trial waiver for insane: For 5049, against 918.

No. 8 — Denial of bail: For 4670, against 1367.

28 Absentee Ballots Ousted

Twenty-eight Howard County voters, who applied to the county clerk for absentee ballots, received them and then returned the documents to the election officials, would be shocked to learn that their efforts were in vain.

Their votes were not tabulated. Twenty-eight of the absentee voters failed to comply with the law which specifies that such ballots must be officially certified before a competent official or a notary public.

George Zachariah, presiding over the special canvass box, had no alternative but to reject these 28 votes.

Many were from Howard County voters who are now in the armed forces. Some were from residents of the county who asserted in their applications they would be unable to go to the polls on election day. Several were from former county residents who are now living in other states but who are still qualified under Texas law as electors.

Church Forms 'Carol Choir'

Organization of a Carol Choir for the First Baptist Church was effected at a meeting Tuesday afternoon.

The unit is composed of boys and girls, nine through 12 years of age, and it will be under the direction of Wayne Nance, church music director.

The group will be instructed in theory, music appreciation, and especially in hymns and anthems. Besides singing for the church on various occasions, the choir will take part in associational, district and state music festivals.

Twenty-seven members were measured for choir robes of royal blue and white. Rehearsals have been set weekly for 4 p.m. on Tuesday, and enrollment is being held open until Nov. 13.

Deanna O'Brien is to be the accompanist. Choir mothers are Mrs. P. W. Malone, Mrs. Leroy Tidwell, Mrs. L. B. Griffin, Mrs. Clayton Bettie and Mrs. Charles Sweeney.

Stevenson Wins Mitchell

COLORADO CITY — Mitchell County gave the Democratic ticket a thumping majority Tuesday, the Stevenson ticket leading the Republican slate by 1,875 to 1,082.

All of the amendments were affirmed by majorities of four and five to one, and Price Daniel, received a solid vote of 2,367 for the governor's chair. W. Lee O'Daniel, the "write-in" candidate, received 336 votes and William Bryant, the Republican nominee, trailed with 159.

The total vote was estimated at 3,170. Carr, a box in the northwest part of the county was not reported. All other nine boxes were completed and totaled 3,135 votes. The vote compared favorably with the second primary when 3,185 votes were cast.

Highway Talks Slated Friday

Extension of State Highway 350 from Snyder northeastward to Knox City will be discussed Friday morning at a meeting of the Highway Committee of the Chamber of Commerce.

R. L. (Bob) Cook, chairman, has called the meeting for 10 a.m. Friday in the Chamber of Commerce offices at the Permian Building. Also on the agenda are discussions of proposed improvements for roads leading to Lake J. B. Thomas.

State 350 now connects Big Spring and Snyder. Its extension to Knox City would open a new route between West and North Texas.

John Harvey Dies Tuesday

John Harvey, 79, died in a hospital at 11:20 p.m. Tuesday after an illness of a year and a half. He had been a resident of Big Spring for the past 12 years.

Rites have been set for 3 p.m. Thursday at the River Funeral Home with Elder Douglas Church of the Church of Jesus Christ, Latter Day Saints (Reorganized) church, officiating, assisted by Elder Carl Leonard Jr. Burial will be in the City Cemetery.

Mr. Harvey, who was born Feb. 7, 1877, leaves only one survivor, a niece, Mrs. W. H. Toerck, Big Spring.

Cow Killed When Struck By Auto

Arthur Joseph Lavigne, salesman from Amarillo, rammed his 1955 Chevrolet sedan into a cow at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday. The accident occurred 9.4 miles west of Big Spring on State Highway 176. The cow was killed.

Jimmy Parks, highway patrol officer, said that details of the mishap were confused, but that the car was only slightly damaged. Lavigne was not injured. The cow was owned, Parks was told, by C. E. Roberson. The accident occurred at the entrance to the J. S. Spears residence.

Traveler Robbed Of $3 Last Night

A man en route to Fort Worth told the police Tuesday night that he was "rolled" and relieved of about $3.

The man, R. H. Beam, said he was robbed in the railroad yards here. He told the police he was en route to Fort Worth from Midland.

Ike, Dick Have New Namesakes

CORPUS CHRISTI (AP)—Dwight Eisenhower Heffner and Richard Nixon Heffner were doing nicely in the hospital nursery today, and their parents were relieved.

The twin boys were named nine hours before the polls closed yesterday.

Dwight Eisenhower was born at 11:08 a.m. His brother followed 10 minutes later. They are the children of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Heffner.

Heffner, an oil well surveying company employee, left the hospital about noon to vote for Eisenhower and Nixon.

AF To Probe 'Cold' Atoms

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Air Force has agreed to explore a revolutionary theory that a new type of super atomic energy can be released by making atoms extremely cold instead of hot.

The originator of the concept, Navy scientist Robert Leon Carroll, 40, said today he is confident his theory will prove out — and will make possible space flights literally faster than a flash of light.

He said the fuel could be some ordinary and inexpensive material, possibly even common sand.

Carroll theorizes that as an atom gets colder and colder and becomes less active, its electrons gravitate toward the nucleus and at the same time are forced by this constriction to move faster and faster.

If the atom becomes cold enough, he believes, the electrons would plunge into the nucleus and disintegrate it, releasing the entire energy of the nucleus.

Corpus Christi Fire

Firemen pour water into a blazing building in downtown Corpus Christi as flames threaten the entire block. The fire started in a kitchen of a grill and quickly spread to two office buildings.

Colorado GOP Candidates Shaken Off Ike Coattails

DENVER (AP)—President Eisenhower scored a sweeping victory in Colorado, his Western vacation home, in yesterday's election but his Texas friend, former Gov. Dan Thornton, was beaten for the Senate.

Thornton conceded he had been defeated by John Carroll, 55, former Fair Deal congressman from Denver making his third try.

Democrat Stephen McNichols, 42, was elected governor. Alva B. Adams Jr., Democrat and son of a former senator, was locked in a close battle with Republican Rep. Edgar Chenoweth.

The state's three other congressmen won handily, with only small scattered precincts left to report. They are Democrats Byron Rogers and Wayne Aspinall and Republican William Hill, elected to a ninth term.

McNichols defeated state Sen. Donald Brotzman, Republican making his second bid for governor, and will succeed Democratic Gov. Ed Johnson, who is retiring.

The vote: Eisenhower 371,714; Stevenson, 246,245; Senator, 1,665 precincts: Carroll 300,455; Thornton 294,334; Governor, McNichols 312,597; Brotzman 291,862.

Coloradans voted 2 to 1 to revise their old age pension system which has brought the highest payments in the nation, currently $112 a month. They will substitute a $100 monthly pension plus a medical and hospital plan. The vote was 321,667 to 162,872.

4 AF Officers Die In Crash

HOBART, Okla. (AP)—Four Air Force officers of the 98th Bomb Wing died in the flaming wreckage of their B47 jet bomber which plunged into a field near this southwestern Oklahoma town last night.

The craft was based at Altus AFB, 30 miles from the crash scene.

The victims were Capt. Francis Bouchard, pilot; Maj. Joseph Wilford; and Capt. Lee Ellis Jr., all living at the Altus base with their families. The home town of fourth officer, Lt. Andrew Tolson, was Bartlesville, Okla.

The bodies and wreckage were found scattered over a three-quarter mile area. The plane crashed and exploded.

The flaming wreckage destroyed a barn. Several homes and buildings were just west of the crash scene. There were no reports of other damage or injuries.

Texas Voters Okay Eight Amendments

By MARSHALL COMERER Associated Press Staff

Texas tacked eight amendments to their ancient Constitution Tuesday.

The 40,000-word Constitution, adopted in 1876, has now been amended 129 times.

A ninth amendment, to give the Legislature power to provide aid to needy individuals permanently and totally disabled, will be voted on in a special election next Tuesday because of an oversight by the Legislature in setting the election date.

The amendment to improve teacher retirement benefits won by the widest margin, about 7 to 1.

Amendments which added 100 million dollars more to the veterans' land program and gave counties power to reallocate their tax funds were adopted by the smallest margins, about 2 to 1.

Latest returns from the Texas Election Bureau gave this vote for approval on the amendments:

1. Compensation for false imprisonment, 811,466 to 133,043.

2. Tax re-allocation, 580,427 to 293,111.

3. College fund, 676,513 to 195,815.

4. Teacher retirement improvement, 927,039 to 121,669.

5. Veterans' land fund, 666,000 to 278,859.

6. Oath of office change, 681,716 to 138,198.

7. Lunacy trial waiver, 740,006 to 146,697.

8. Denial of bail, 687,327 to 184,614.

The amendments do these things:

1. Allow the Legislature to grant aid and compensation to persons who have been fined or imprisoned for offenses for which they were not guilty. The Constitution had permitted only release from prison or remission of fines.

2. Allow commissioners' courts discretion in allocating ad valorem taxes to various county funds. The Constitution had specified how much could be allocated to permanent improvement, jury, road and bridge and general funds.

3. Give 12 state colleges shares in a 5-cent ad valorem tax and removes the University of Texas, Texas A&M and their branches from that tax support. The latter institutions would build from the permanent university fund. The amendment also allows the permanent university fund to be invested partly in blue-chip corporate stocks instead of government bonds only.

4. Change the teacher retirement program so legislatures can improve teacher pensions and add disability and death benefits.

5. Expand the veterans' land program by adding another 100 million dollars for land loans and creates a new administrative set-up designed to prevent irregularities.

6. Change the wording of the oath of office for appointive officials.

7. Allow persons charged with insanity to waive a jury trial, except when a criminal offense is charged. Jury trials have been mandatory.

8. Give district judges the right to deny bail to persons twice convicted of felonies.

Loraine Woman Recalls Civil War

By TOM JAY GOSS II
Mrs. W. H. Finley of Loraine has lived from a time when the roar of Yankee cannon-filled the Southern air until that same air has sounded to the thunder of jets. She has had 99 birthdays, and is still "right peart" and enjoys her birthday party as much as if she were nine instead of 99.

She was born in Searcy, Ark., Oct. 24, 1857, and remembers that her father was killed in the Civil War when she was about six years old.

Battlefields in Europe will be recalled by a number of Big Spring veterans Saturday when they see the red poppies being sold by the American Legion Auxiliary.

Old Statute Used Against Unionists

Deadline Near For Getting Yule Gifts In Overseas Mail

Do you have any friends in the armed forces whom you intend to remember Christmas with presents and who live in some overseas country? If so, it's high time you were about your Christmas shopping in order to get the presents in the U. S. mail in ample time to guarantee delivery to these friends by the merry old Yule.

we'd had to eat everything in the world for salt and we had to go to Little Rock to get salt. My mother went with her brother-in-law to Little Rock and it took a whole month.

"Oh, those were hard times," she said as she shook her head. "Folks that talk about hard times in these days don't know what they are talkin' about."

Mrs. Finley married in 1874, moved to Hico 10 years later, and in 1907, she and her husband and children came to Loraine, where they bought a farm. Mr. Finley died in 1930.

Mrs. Finley has been in the hospital only twice—both times as the result of a fall. She fell when she was 90 and was in the hospital for a time, and a year ago she fell again. But her daughter, Mrs. Lily Bennett, with whom she lives in Loraine, says she seems to be as hale as she did a year ago.

She has three living children, Mrs. Bennett, Mrs. Ira Crowover of Odessa, and Mrs. L. D. Sowell of Fort Worth.

Old Statute Used Against Unionists

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—An old unlawful assembly statute was invoked here for the first time and resulted in conviction of three Teamsters Union members yesterday.

Vice President Oscar Lair, Gordon Bryan and C. B. Horton, were convicted of unlawful assembly during the union's strike against 11 transfer firms last July.

Judge Dwain Box set sentencing for Nov. 16. The union men were accused of threatening to harm a truck driver if he kept unloading furniture.

fee may not be included in packages addressed to offices in Denmark and Germany. Customs declarations must accompany all parcels shipped by parcel post to offices in the Canal Zone, England, France, Iran, Morocco, Netherlands, Saudi Arabia, Scotland and Wales. In general, ordinary parcel post parcels are limited to 100 inches in length and girth combined and to a maximum weight of 70 pounds. However, it was warned that special size and weight limitations are in effect for all parcels destined for delivery in England, Scotland, Turkey and Wales. This is why, Boatler pointed out, it may be advisable to talk the package and its contents over with the post office officials before attempting to mail it. If you are to send your gift by air parcel post, it must be kept in mind that a package cannot exceed 30 inches in length and girth combined and it must not weigh more than two pounds. For those civilian friends who live in Puerto Rico, Alaska or Hawaii, the deadline for gifts to be mailed, if the presents are to be on time for Christmas, it is not later than Dec. 4. For the far west the dates vary from those in the far east and it would be wise to make sure by seeing that the gifts are on their way well ahead of the Dec. 4 date.

Originality, Christmas Gifts Combine For Exciting Business

Mrs. E. V. Spence holds the keepsake gembox which she made for her husband. Included on the top are a watch chain, a ring, the covers from an antique watch and other family treasures. At top center, is the keepsake box, chintz-covered, which belongs to the designer. Gembox Jr. is at the right of Mrs. Spence, while a lace-covered gembox and one of the fan boxes share the center with a man's gembox; note the key and the coins on the latter. At the far right is a gembox made for brides. Covered in a soft-hued fabric, the box is again covered with lace and topped with delicate flowers and jewels.

By ANNE LEFEVER
A desire for convenience, the making of two Christmas gifts, originality and the enthusiasm of friends has led to a growing business for Mrs. E. V. Spence.
In August, 1955, she bought a lacquered steel gadget box in which to keep her earbobs and other jewelry in order. Finding it most convenient, she made one for each of her two sisters.
These, she decorated with flat bows of velvet ribbon, with a variety of costume jewelry placed on top in a casual manner. Friends of Mrs. Spence, upon seeing the results of her originality, immediately asked that she make more of the attractive boxes. Before Christmas, she had promised to make five.
Widening her decorating plans, the versatile worker cut small fans from felt and fastened them across the boxes. Then, she used various kinds of jewelry, bracelets, rings, pins and earbobs to adorn the container. On some of the fans, gay colored stones and pearls mark the shafts.
A box, which she decorated for herself, is a "keepsake box," on which she has placed treasured articles. A keepsake box has also been made for Gene, her husband.
An addition to her store of gem boxes is the baby box, containing two drawers and topped with a tiny wooden toy. These are done in pale blue, pink or yellow; there is space on top for the hospital bracelet, for the tiny first ring and for other articles as baby outgrows them. It can finally become a keepsake box.
Receiving enthusiastic encouragement from various friends, Mrs. Spence began to toy with the idea of making the boxes to sell. Some of the most substantial help came from long-time friend, Chase Holland Sr. of San Angelo.
It was at his invitation that "Liz" displayed her gem boxes in the Holland Jewelry Company exhibit at the gift show held in Dallas in September. Again through his influence, House Beautiful for November has run an advertisement for the gem boxes. Mrs. Spence can tell you exactly the page number and the position of the "ad" on the page!

The exciting business has grown to such an extent that she now has two helpers, Mrs. Robert Pondrom and Mrs. Fred Doelph. She has also developed a label, which reads "Gembox, Original Design by Liz Spence."
Gemboxes have been placed in stores in Alice, Austin, Dallas, Laredo, Midland, Odessa, Lubbock, San Angelo, Abilene, Snyder and Big Spring. This energetic designer has received letters of inquiry from firms in Florida, California, Salt Lake City, North Carolina and towns in Texas.
Mrs. Spence has shipped one gembox to Washington, D. C., as a graduation gift. She has made 146 up to the present time, and through selling and using them as gifts, she has disposed of all but 23.
She laughed as she recalled how surprised she was when a Texas Ranger, seeing the attractive boxes for the first time, immediately chose one for his wife's Christmas gift!
Fabrics used are rich and colorful and make a lovely setting for the sparkling jewelry atop the box. There are containers covered with embroidered rayon taffeta for Gembox Jr., made in pastels for Baby. For women, lace velvet ribbon, brocades, silks, flowers and chintz offer a wide choice of beauty.
Gemboxes made especially for brides are of the daintiest, most feminine designs, with a wedding ring and an engagement ring holding a prominent place among other lovely pieces of jewelry.
For the men, there are boxes covered with leather in an ostrich grain. These may be either tailored or marked with masculine jewelry. Or, it's a wonderful way to preserve your husband's war medals and other mementoes.

Major Business Uncertainties Gone

By SAM DAWSON
NEW YORK — Two of the major uncertainties plaguing business in recent months have been removed today.

1. Business now knows which party will be in the White House for the next four years and the make up of the Congress for the next two years. Uncertainty over that sent tremors through the stock market a number of times this year.

2. The gullible who were wondering if the Russians had changed their spots now know they haven't. Events in Hungary show that the Russians still behave like Russians. Presumably our foreign policy and business planning can now be tailored to fit the confirmation of that knowledge.

With the election over, the open season for soothsaying gets underway. From now until Christmas industrial leaders, economists and about everyone else will predict what's in store for business, for the employed and the unemployed.

Unhatched statistics will be counted all over the place.

The trouble with the announced statistics, as far as the soothsayer is concerned, is that they show where we have been.

What those addicted to predicting the future of business need are statistics showing where we are now and where we are going. Many economists arrive at these by projecting the past statistics into the future — a process about on par for accuracy with long range weather forecasting.

Not all of the uncertainties have been removed today by any means. There is the big question whether they will just be opening the door for increased Russian penetration of the Middle East and even of the Far East.

There is the uncertainty as to how long the Russians will get by with their occupation of Eastern Europe — even tanks and planes may not be able to hold a subjected people against its will for ever.

At home there is the uncertainty still as to how the consumer will react to the slowly but steadily rising prices on many items that he would like to but but could live without.

And undoubtedly uncertainties as yet unborn will come forth. American business has lived so long with one crisis after another as to expect new ones to arrive almost as regularly as the seasons.

Farm Revolt Fails To Form To Give Demos Any Major Help

WASHINGTON (AP)—A farm revolt, on which the Democrats had counted, failed to develop enough steam in yesterday's presidential election to give them any major help.

Outside the South, all the farm states except traditionally Democratic Missouri gave their electoral votes to President Eisenhower. The Democrats had made Eisenhower administration farm policies one of their prime issues. They talked about declines in farm prices and incomes during the past four years and promised early action to boost price supports and to take other steps they said would improve the agricultural economy.

They had accused Eisenhower of going back on 1952 campaign promises in behalf of farmers. The Democrats had looked to Iowa, Illinois, Minnesota, Michigan and the Dakotas for a revolt of farmers against the GOP.

farm states, claiming that most farmers approved administration farm policies.

There is a question as to what extent satisfaction or dissatisfaction with present farm programs influenced farm voting. Political reporters who toured the Midwest bread basket during the campaign ran into many farmers who said they disliked GOP farm policies but planned to vote for Eisenhower because they credited him with bringing peace.

Recent developments in the Middle East may have had even greater influence than had appeared earlier in putting farm votes in the Eisenhower column.

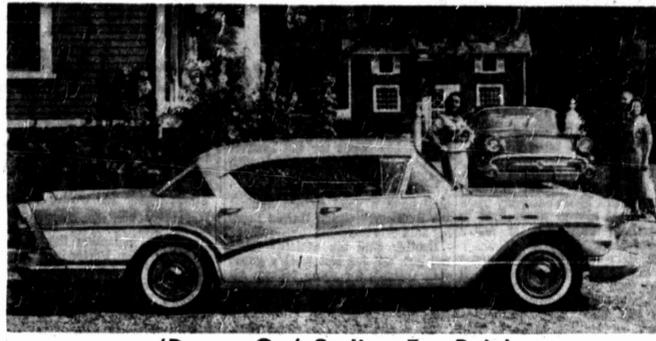

The Eisenhower administration is expected to stand pat on farm policies it maintains will, over the long run, get the government out of agriculture.

Benson, the architect of those policies, is expected to remain in the cabinet.

He campaigned hard for the party ticket than perhaps any other members of the Cabinet. Eisenhower has repeatedly said he backs Benson's views.

But administration adherence to these farm policies does not mean that the farm issue is a dead one. Democrats in Congress are expected to make new efforts to increase government aid for agriculture even if they face certain presidential vetoes. That would be one way of keeping the issue alive for the 1958 congressional elections when Eisenhower will not be running.

The election, significantly enough, saw the defeat for Senate seats of two top-rung farm officials of Democratic New Deal days — former Secretary of Agriculture Claude R. Wickard of Indiana and R. M. Evans, onetime agricultural adjustment administrator, of Iowa. Both had sought to unseat Republican incumbents on the farm issue.

'Dream Car' Styling For Buick

The classic design of Buick's new "dream car" styling for 1957 is exemplified in this Super four-door hardtop with its low silhouette and racy lines. Powered by a 300-horsepower V-8 engine, with 10-4-1 compression ratio, the Super is called one of the most agile cars on the highway. The entire Buick line, with bigger panoramic windshields, roomier bodies and a completely new chassis, goes on display Friday. The cars will be shown here at McEwen Motor Co., 403 Scurry.

TO BE SHOWN HERE FRIDAY

Many Engineering, Styling Advancements In 1957 Buick

More engineering and styling changes than any previous model in Buick history is announced for the 1957 Buick line, which is being introduced publicly. McEwen Motor Co., 403 Scurry, will show the cars Friday.

The new line features all-new roomier bodies, boldly designed in smart, new "dream car" styling, and more powerful V-8 engines, and a completely new chassis with improved ride and handling.

All of the new cars have been reduced in height. Some models are as much as three and three-eighths inches lower than last year, without any sacrifice in ground clearance. Headroom remains the same and legroom has been increased in the four-door hardtops.

A new 364-cubic inch V-8 engine, with 10-4-1 compression ratio, generates 300 horsepower in the Roadmaster, Super and Century series, an increase of 45 horsepower over last year. The Special, which also has a 364-cubic-inch engine, with 9.5-to-1 compression ratio, has a maximum horsepower rating of 250, compared to 220 last year.

The variable pitch Dynaflo transmission is continued as standard equipment on the Roadmaster, Super and Century, and optional on the Special.

The new styling presents dramatic new front and rear design, bigger panoramic windshields with a more rakish slant to the pillars; new bumpers both front and rear; and three-piece back windows on the Special, Century and Roadmaster.

The new front end design features a grille with fine vertical bars of die-cast zinc chromed and polished to a high luster. A red, white and blue medallion, with wings extending from either side, is centered in the grille. The medallion is embossed with the figures 1-9-5-7, following the custom Buick introduced last year of putting the model year on its cars.

The hood line has been lowered and the fender lines raised, accentuating the long, low silhouette, and also providing better visibility.

Two-tone paint in compatible colors is offered as optional on all series with the top and upper body painted one color and the lower body below the sweepers, the other.

The lower silhouette of the new Buicks was made possible by changing the frame design to permit the body to nestle between the side rails.

Two entirely new features have been incorporated in the front end suspension system for 1957. For the first time a ball-joint suspension is used, improving the stability on the car on corners and curves, and a new anti-dive device reduces front end dive on fast stops by approximately 60 per cent.

Coil springs both front and rear are continued on all models.

New interior design includes a new steering wheel, new padded instrument panels, which are standard on the Roadmaster, Super and Century, and optional on the Special, and a larger glove compartment, located near the center of the instrument panel.

Buick's 1957 line comes in 30 body styles with a two-and four-door hardtop and a convertible in each series. A two- and four-door sedan are offered on the Special series only.

LIMASSOL, Cyprus (AP)—An electrically detonated bomb today killed a British airman and injured four other servicemen. The bomb presumably was set by members of the EOKA underground waging a violence campaign to unite Cyprus with Greece.

Wreck, Gophers Picked To Win

NEW YORK — Using some of Tuesday's slightly used ballots to pick this weekend's college football winners. Last week's voting brought 38 winners from 46 positions. That's an average of .826 and hiked the season's figures to 244 right, 71 wrong for '56.

This week's picks:

Georgia Tech over Tennessee: The season's Dixie masterpiece and it could be as close as last year's 7-7 tie. Georgia Tech's slick senior back field foursome and the home field give the Engineers a slight edge over Johnny Majors and the Volunteers.

Minnesota over Iowa: This is your TV morsel for Saturday afternoon. Both are in the running for the Big Ten Rose Bowl trip. Bobby Cox to keep the Gophers on the Pasadena path.

Oklahoma over Iowa State: The Sooners had their 1956 scare at Colorado last weekend.

Michigan State over Purdue: Len Dawson, Purdue's famed flinger, not up to par.

Stanford over Oregon State: John Brodie is the decisive factor. The winner of this one becomes No. 1 in Rose Bowl parade.

Clemson over Maryland: What a perfect spot for an upset.

Texas A&M over Southern Methodist: Jack Pardee and his hard hitting makes take another step toward the Southwest Conference flag.

He Can't Pass?

He can't pass but he beats you with his passes. He can't run but he always makes the run that counts. Which describes Roddy Osborne (above) quarterback, who makes Texas A&M click as it drives for the Southwest Conference championship. He seldom passes except in the clutch, after the Aggie ground game has shocked the opposition into forgetting that there's any such thing as a pass. But he's tried 16 and completed 10 this season for 180 yards — a gaudy average of .625. He is third in conference ball carrying with 407 yards on 104 rushes — the busiest runner in the conference.

Ed Bailey Is Named Soph Of Year In Nat'l League

NEW YORK, Nov. 7 — Ed Bailey, who contributed 28 home runs to Cincinnati's major league record-equaling output of 221, today was voted the National League Sophomore-of-the-Year for 1956.

The 25-year-old catcher drew 71 votes and barely beat out Ken Boyer for the award. The St. Louis third baseman was named on 68 of the 206 ballots cast by members of the Baseball Writers Assn. of America participating in the annual Associated Press poll.

Pittsburgh outfielder Bill Virdon, the NL Rookie-of-the-Year while playing with the Cardinals in 1955, wound up third in the voting with 57 votes. Relief pitcher Don Bessent of Brooklyn received 5 votes and Roberto Clemente, another Pirate outfielder, 4.

Wally Moon was named on one ballot, but the Cards' outfielder was ineligible for the award because he was third-year man.

Bailey was just a second-string catcher behind veteran Smokey Burgess at the season's outset, but gained a regular berth as a result of his prolific batting. Besides his surprising home run production, the husky Tennessee also wound up with an even .300 batting average and 75 RBIs.

This was in direct contrast to his disappointing rookie season of 1954 when he hit only 197 and poked nine homers in 73 games. Bailey was batting .205 after 21 games the following season when the Reds sent him to San Diego. There he batted .282 and hit 16 homers to earn another trial with Cincinnati.

Bailey also developed into a clutch performer with the Reds, hitting two grand-slam home runs and two pinch-hit homers that came in the late innings. In a June game against the Dodgers, he enjoyed his biggest day with three homers and six runs batted in.

Boyer, after swinging at a better than .350 clip during the first half of the season, went into a slump but still managed to finish at .306—fifth highest in the league. He found the range for 26 homers and 98 runs driven in.

Virdon, runner-up in the batting race with a .319 average, came to the Pirates early in the season in a deal with St. Louis. Playing with both teams, he took part in 157 games.

HSU Frosh Play Tech Thursday

ABILENE (SC) — Hardin-Simons University freshmen journey to Lubbock Thursday for a night contest with the Texas Tech Frosh.

Coach Howard McChesney is expected to start Don Powell, Olton, and Gene Pairett, Taylor, at the end slots.

Mark Reeves of Coahoma and Cliff Manning of Sundown will work as starting tackles. Two former Snyder High School players, Norman Grimmitt and Don McNew will be the guards. Woodrow Drinnon of Weichert is due to start at center.

The backfield will be composed of Jim Tom Butler, and Joe Allen, both of Crane; David Cleveland, Stephenville; and James Butler, Sweetwater.

Another Turkey Shoot Planned

Another turkey shoot will be held at the Western Sportsmen's Club Sunday, starting at 1:30 p.m.

The club is located two miles west of Big Spring, on the Andrews Highway.

All entries will be classified according to experience and past records. Entries will not compete against shooters out of his or her class.

Special events are on tap, according to club officials, who were very pleased with the size of the competing field in the last meet.

A specialist will be on hand to sight entries' deer rifles for them. Their fee will be $1 a gun.

Visiting shooters are, of course, welcome at the range.

Logart And Harris Meet In Chicago

CHICAGO — Isaac Logart, a familiar ring performer to television audiences, tonight will try to block Clarence (Duke) Harris' climb up the welterweight ladder.

Logart, winner of six out of seven starts this year, is a 2-1 choice in the nationally beamed 10-rounder (10 p.m. EST, ABC) which marks the TV main event debut of the 24-year-old Detroit fighter.

Cats Play Host To Midwestern On Saturday

ABILENE (SC)—Abilene Christian College will be out to reach the 500 mark again Saturday when the Wildcat eleven plays host to Midwestern University at ACC's Homecoming.

The Saturday afternoon game also will be a struggle to see which of the two clubs ends up in the Gulf Coast Conference cellar. They have lost their only conference outings, Midwestern to North Texas and ACC to Trinity. ACC's season record is now three wins and four losses.

Coach N. L. (Nick) Nicholson said he would work the Wildcats hard this week ironing out offensive mistakes and polishing up his ground and passing game.

After the Wildcats' 36-6 loss to powerful Mississippi Southern, Nicholson pointed out that his gridgers had a lot of work to do on defense, too.

"I am more unhappy with the defense than the offense," Nicholson said. "Mississippi Southern hurt both in the air and on the ground. They did most of their damage in the air after the first quarter," he said.

Nicholson was pleased, however, with the improved performance of his second unit which saw a lot of second half action.

The Wildcats came out of the game with only minor bruises.

Both Luther Thomas and Jerry Holley saw some action in Mississippi. Thomas broke a bone in his foot in the opening game and Holley broke his wrist. Both are now ready to go at full speed.

Tackle Standley Scott is out for the rest of the season with a broken arm suffered in the Southwest Texas game.

Nicholson warned his gridgers that they could not let down against Midwestern.

"They have as good a quarterback as we have been up against all season," Nicholson said, referring to talented Jackie Weldon.

"For us to beat Midwestern we'll have to play as good as we have been all season," Nicholson added.

Midwestern has yet to beat ACC in the eight-year history of play between the two schools. However, all the games have been close and last year ACC had to come from behind in the closing moments to beat the Indians, 26-21. ACC has won seven games in the series and one tilt ended in a tie.

Webb To Meet Goodfellow

The Webb AFB basketball team is currently engaged in putting on the final polish for their first game scheduled for Nov. 12, when they play Goodfellow AFB in the Webb gym at 7:30 p.m.

The team has been holding practice sessions for nearly a month with 10 to 15 players attending each turn-out. Even though this many practice sessions have been held, however, Personnel Services officials are encouraging other personnel to make their bids for spots on the team, for none of the positions has been positively filled.

Team officials say that, due to lack of overall height, the base team will likely rely on speed instead during the coming season.

The fact that several players have had a good deal of high school and college experience should be a big help, they add.

Practice sessions are held every day in the base gym.

Tornadoes' Hopes Are Built Around John Middleton

LAMESA (SC) — Speedy John Middleton, a regular in the Lamesa backfield for the past three seasons, is keeping the Lamesa Tornadoes in the District 3-AAA title fight.

Hurt in the game with Big Spring, the senior halfback has come back strong to lead the conference in scoring with 72 points. All have been scored at the result of touchdowns, since he doesn't kick extra points.

No one else in the district is close to him in the scoring marathon. Snyder's Tommy Pritchard is a distant second with 36 points, followed by Milton Ham, also of Snyder, who has 32 points.

Idle this week, the Golden Tornadoes return to action Nov. 16.

Tech In Bad Shape For TCU Game

LUBBOCK — Texas Tech comes up to its game with TCU this week probably in its worst condition of the season.

The thin squad has just lost its fifth starter—halfback Ronnie Herr, who had a shoulder separation in Tech's 13-13 tie with Oklahoma A&M last week.

Halfback Milton Vaughn may miss his second game in a row as the result of an ankle sprain. Quarterback Buddy Hill, who has a knee injury, will be used only as a spot performer.

Two linemen are out. They are tackle Bob Kilcullen with a broken wrist and Barton Massey, center, with a fractured elbow.

Sale At An End

DALLAS — The public sale of Cotton Bowl tickets closed at midnight and the count today is expected to show that the demand is larger than the supply.

Coaches' Hopes Are Buoyed After Two Good Workouts

Two good workouts by the Big Spring Steers this week have buoyed coaches' hopes for the District 2-AAAA game Friday night with Midland here.

"If the boys play their game, they have a good chance against the Bulldogs," Coach Harold Bentley said this morning.

Bentley said the athletes could not get "up" for last week's game with Odessa, for some reason, although they performed creditably and might have won had it not been for five fumbles.

The Steers had to go along Tuesday without Billy Johnson, regular quarterback, guard Jerry White and end Bobby Suggs.

Johnson was in bed with the flu while White and Suggs reportedly were out of town. Johnson was back in school this morning, however, and White and Suggs were scheduled to report for drills again this afternoon.

The absence of Johnson gave the Steers a good opportunity to use Jimmy Evans and Frank Powell at the quarterback slot. Evans could see considerable action at that position Friday night.

Suggs, since he has missed two days of practice this week, may be used only on offense this week. Ronnie King could play his defensive halfback position Friday.

Lewis Porter and Walter Dickinson divided time at White's line-backing post yesterday and both gave every indication they could man the position. Porter is primarily an offensive starter while Dickinson has been going both ways but up front.

The coaches have been concerned with how to slow Midland's grinding ground offensive. Changes in the Steers' defensive strategy are in the offing.

Bobby McAdams and Chubby Moser are working out with the A team and will probably suit out Friday night. McAdams is a center-linebacker, Moser a tackle.

Midland showed to advantage against San Angelo last week, despite the 21-6 loss it suffered, according to Chop Van Pelt and John Yates, who scouted the Bulldogs. In Larry Cooper, the Bulldogs have a quarterback who doesn't run too often but who is one of the better high school passers in Texas. He's cool as the proverbial cucumber, too.

Bob Boyce, 182-pound sophomore back with Midland, is the boy who is already being compared with the great Wahoo McDaniel in Midland. He, Bobby Hill and Freddy Hedges do most of the ball-carrying for the Purple and White.

Cooper's favorite passing target is Jim Owens, well known here as a baseball hurler.

In event you'd like to know what you're seeing when you peer into your football crystal ball, the Big Spring football teams—from the varsity squad down through the Seventh Grade Yearlings, all of which meet outside competition—have won 13 decisions while dropping 21 and playing three ties.

The B team and the Eighth Graders have failed to win a game. The varsity corps have prevailed only twice in eight starts but the Ninth and Seventh Grade contingents have come through with flying colors. The Ninth Graders have won five, lost twice and played two ties in nine assignments. The doctored little Seventh Graders have finished on the long end of the score six times in seven outings.

Jan Loudermilk, the local high school's stellar, all-around athlete, is a cousin to Herb Fletcher, one-time Steer tackle and now a pilot for American Airlines.

It was Herb who influenced the family into letting Jan continue in football after the big boy developed pleuritis early in the season and had to go on the shelf.

Fletcher probably developed faster in one year as a tackle than any other Big Spring athlete in history. He was way back in the ranks as a junior, a boy who didn't seem to have much co-ordination but he developed into one of the area's saltiest linemen by the next year.

One of Big Spring's real hard-luck kids of all time is Ronnie Phillips, the halfback who re-injured his foot in last week's game with Odessa.

Phillips had to lay out all of the first half of the campaign because he broke his toe in a practice session when a teammate stepped on it. Up until that time, Ronnie was looking to advance, especially good as a broken field runner. He was also one of Big Spring's finest defensive players and would have benefited as one of the few players who piled up playing time with the varsity troops last season.

With him in there all the time, the Steers might have won two more games (Kermit and Odessa) than they did.

Col. LeRoy Bible, who helped with the small-fry baseball program here last summer, is rooting for Tennessee to make it to the Cotton Bowl this year.

Born in Green County in Eastern Tennessee, the Colonel attended the Knoxville school a couple of semesters.

Bible figures, as does most everyone else, that Georgia Tech will provide the Vols with their sternest test. That historic clash comes up Saturday.

Bible hails from the same neck of the woods that Bobby Dodd, the Georgia Tech mentor, was raised in. Dodd was born in Sullivan County, which adjoins Green County in Tennessee.

You can look for Midland to "run up the middle" against Big Spring here Friday night.

The Bulldogs aim their power that way and hope simply to muscle their way past the Steers.

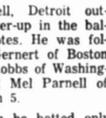

The Bulldogs haven't impressed local scouts too much, who figure they can be "had." Big Spring will have to hold onto the ball, however.

Buzz Bainbridge, the Sante Fe, N. M., ski instructor, plans to be here Nov. 16, at which time he will promote his favorite sport.

He'll bring one of Frank Howard's color ski movies with him and plans to stage a ski style show and display equipment available at the Sante Fe Ski Basin.

Vic Wertz Wins Comeback Laurels In American Loop

NEW YORK (AP) — Vic Wertz, whose recovery from a sometimes crippling disease gave renewed hope to similarly afflicted thousands, made the American League Comeback-of-the-year in 1956.

WERTZ

Wertz, who fell victim to polio in August, 1955, received the votes of 105 of the 178 members of the Baseball Writers Assn. of America participating in the annual Associated Press Poll.

The Cleveland first baseman regained his position as one of the game's outstanding sluggers the past season by walloping 32 home runs and driving in 106 runs. He led the Indians in both departments and was second in the league in homers and third in RBIs.

Charley Maxwell, Detroit outfielder, was runner-up in the balloting with 17 votes. He was followed by Dick Gernert of Boston with 12, Chuck Stobbs of Washington with 10, and Mel Parrnell of the Red Sox with 5.

Wertz, although he batted only .294 last season picked up the power slack caused by the slumps of Al Rosen, Al Smith and Bobby Avila. He played in 136 of the Indians' 155 games, being sidelined briefly with a pulled leg muscle.

Vic's polio attack shocked the baseball world.

Olympic Games' Plans Proceed

MELBOURNE, Australia (AP) — Preparations for the Olympic games proceeded at full blast Wednesday, unaffected by the announcement Communist China was withdrawing its team because of the presence of a Nationalist Chinese group from Formosa.

The chief executive officer, Sir William Bridgeford, reiterated the games will not be endangered unless there is a general world war.

Actually, tensions eased considerably, with the first Russian delegation encoached at the Olympic village of Heidelberg and holding workouts as if unaware of fighting between Hungarian and Russian forces in Hungary. There have been no incidents.

Giant planes continue landing in clusters at Essendon Airport daily, swelling the population of the Olympic village.

McKinney, McAdams Are Named QBC Co-Captains

R. E. McKinney, former school board member, and Garner McAdams have been named co-captains of the Big Spring Quarterback Club for the 1957-58 school year. The election was staged at last night's regular weekly meeting of the booster organization, held at the high school.

They succeed Jack Johnson and Lee Porter, who will serve until school ends in May. McKinney is an insurance man here while McAdams heads a concern which does oil field construction work.

New members of the QBC's board of strategy include Mrs. D. Wain Leonard, Tom McAdams (a brother to Garner) and a member of the present school board, Ed Freeman, John Janak and Mrs. Orville Bryant.

Holdover members on the board include Ted O. Groebel, Mrs. Ray McMahan, Jerry Sanders, W. T. Phillips, V. A. Whittington, Elmo Phillips and Charles Staggs.

In addition, the two present co-chairmen — in line with the established policy of the QBC — will go on the board of strategy, starting with the 1957-58 school year.

Plans for Dads' Night, which takes place at Friday night's football game here between Big Spring and Midland, were also discussed at last night's meeting.

All fathers of players or friends of players who intend to wear players' numbers during the game are being urged to gather at the southwest corner of the playing field at 7:30 p.m. Friday.

At that time, some one will be on hand to pin the boys' numbers on their backs.

The group will occupy a special seating section near the players on the sidelines.

It was also agreed to charter a bus for the players to the San Angelo game a week from Friday night.

The annual Quarterback Club's banquet honoring the 1956 players will be staged sometime the latter part of this month, according to present plans, although the exact date was not set last night. Other details relative to the banquet remain to be worked out but are to be assigned to committees shortly.

Aggies And TCU Are Favorites

By The Associated Press

Texas A&M, Baylor, Rice and TCU are favored to win Southwest Conference football games this week.

Odds makers gave A&M 7½ points over SMU at Dallas. Baylor is a 13-point choice over Texas at Waco.

Rice is granted less than a point over Arkansas at Fayetteville. TCU is a solid 3-touchdown favorite over Texas Tech at Lubbock.

Switzerland is under pressure to resign from groups protesting against the Russian suppression of the Hungarian freedom movement.

From other countries came news of uncertainty about Olympic Games participation.

The Russian intervention in Hungary nearly stopped Denmark from competing. Finally, after considering protests against Danes competing with the Russians, the Danish Olympic committee decided to send 32 athletes and leave the decision whether to compete to five Olympic officials. They will decide after arrival in Melbourne.

Five Nations Pull Teams Out Of Olympic Games

LONDON (AP) — Five teams have withdrawn from the Olympic Games and one other is debating pulling out as the world's biggest sports gathering approaches under the black cloud of increasing international tension.

Latest country to quit the Olympic Games are Communist China, Holland and Spain.

Peiping Radio said today China refused to send a team "because the International Olympic Committee persists in recognizing the Olympic committees of two Chinas and allows Taiwan (Formosa) to send a team to the Olympics."

Egypt withdrew its team Aug. 12. Iraq pulled out Nov. 3 because of the grave Middle Eastern situation.

Lost To Team

Jerry Fuller, a regular on the Garden City Bearcat six-man football team, broke his leg in last weekend's game with Mertzon and was lost to the Tabbies for the season. He is in a Big Spring hospital. Garden City plays Forsan at Forsan Friday.

HE KNEW WHAT HE WANTED

LUBBOCK (SC) — Jimmie Wilson, Texas Tech business manager of athletics, figured the eight-year-olds playing touch football in Jones Stadium would be happier with real football jerseys.

So he came back from the equipment room with a set of old red tearaway jerseys of the Red Raiders. Throughout the distribution of the jerseys one lad kept insisting, "I want number 22. Give me 22."

Deciding that one of the boy's idols, Wilson asked why he wanted that particular jersey.

"Because that's the number my daddy wears with the Detroit Lions," replied Bobby Layne Jr.

Texas Keeps Only GOP Congressman

By WHITEY SAWYER
Associated Press Staff

Texas still had its Republican congressman Wednesday. Bruce Alger of Dallas, Democrats swept the other 5 contested races and 16 without opposition.

Alger, elected in 1954, took an early lead over Democrat Henry Wade. Both had campaigned extensively in conservative Dallas County.

Alger's lead increased throughout the night and Wade conceded at midnight.

Albert Thomas won re-election to his 11th term over Republican Anthony Friloux Jr. in the 8th District at Houston.

Robert Johnson, head of the Texas Election Bureau, said Congressman-at-large Martin Dies could be considered re-elected. Dies' opponent was Fred Spangler of the Constitution party.

Former Rep. Lindley Beckworth quickly defeated R. E. Kennedy in the 3rd District. He will succeed Rep. Brady Gentry, who did not run.

John Young, who defeated Rep. John Bell in the Democratic primary, won over Mrs. Olive Stichter of Corpus Christi, running on the Republican ticket, in the 14th District.

J. T. Rutherford defeated Charles Gibson in the sprawling West Texas 16th District.

The Republican congressman, Alger, won a surprise victory over Democrat Wallace Savage two years ago in both elections. He ran on a "support Ike" platform.

Neither Texas senator was up for re-election. A special election is expected late this year or early next to fill the seat of Sen. Price Daniel, who was elected Governor. Daniel resigned effective Jan. 15 or when a successor is qualified.

Gov. Shivers has said the special election could not be held until next year.

The Election Bureau in its report early Wednesday, gave these figures by districts:

1. Returns from all 8 counties, 2 complete: Beckworth (D) 31,405; Kennedy (R) 6,684.

2. (Dallas) Complete: Wade (D) 81,696; Alger (R) 102,288.

3. (Harris) Thomas (D) 134,159; Friloux (R) 82,400; Miller (C) 4,251.

4. Returns from 18 of 19 counties, 1 complete: Young (D) 51,748; Stichter (R) 8,536.

5. Returns from 18 of 19 counties, 7 complete: Rutherford (D) 43,222; Gibson (R) 24,911.

Marine Reservists Beginning Physical Training Program

The local Marine reserve platoon has begun a physical training program which probably will continue through the winter. It consists of rigorous exercising and several other phases of instruction intended to improve physical fitness.

At the Monday night meeting, new recruits were issued clothing rations and gear. Instructions and lectures were given on the nomenclature, maintenance, and care of the Browning automatic rifle. The men will fire these weapons at some future date.

Among men receiving promotions in rank were Pfc. Jan. G. Tally, Pfc. B. D. Overman, Pfc. Alexander, Pfc. Nolan Simpson, and Pfc. Wesley Hildreth.

Jubilant Eisenhower Pledges To Work For All People, Peace

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower, jubilant over a smashing re-election victory, said today he would work with all his strength "for 168 million Americans here at home and for peace in the world."

A tumultuous ovation greeted Eisenhower as he appeared at a victory rally a few minutes after his opponent Adlai Stevenson conceded defeat and sent Eisenhower "warm congratulations."

The 66-year-old President had scored a great triumph in a career marked by triumph, by roll-up, up a bigger victory over Stevenson than he did in 1952.

And Eisenhower told a Republican party celebration at the Sheraton-Park Hotel at 1:45 a.m.: "I think that modern Republicanism has now proved itself. And America has approved of modern Republicanism."

Eisenhower's victory talk was made to a wildly cheering crowd of about 2,000 party faithful in the hotel ballroom and to a nationwide television and radio audience.

He said he wanted to make a pledge, and then went on to say: "With whatever talents the good God has given me and with whatever strength there is in me, I will continue—and so will my associates—to do just one thing: to work for 168 million Americans here at home and for peace in the world."

Even as he received election returns last night, Eisenhower kept close watch on developments in Soviet-crushed Hungary and the Middle East. About midnight the White House announced that Eisenhower had just received a "very friendly and encouraging" message from French Premier Guy Mollet regarding efforts to halt the shooting in Egypt. The detailed contents of the message were not made public.

Eisenhower and his family went to the hotel about 10 p.m. after they had checked early election returns at the White House while having a quiet dinner. Eisenhower associates sensed early that he was going to win "big."

But even after the result became certain, Eisenhower deferred his ballroom appearance until he received word that Stevenson had conceded.

When word of that concession reached the crowd in the ballroom three floors below the presidential suite, a joyous shout went up. A few minutes later Eisenhower and his party appeared.

Time and again he stepped forward on the stage to acknowledge the applause and cheers. Time and again both arms went above his head, outstretched in his familiar campaign salute.

At his side was Mrs. Eisenhower, radiant with an armful of pink roses. With them were Vice President Nixon, also re-elected, and his wife; the Eisenhowers' son and daughter-in-law, Maj. and Mrs. John Eisenhower; and the First Lady's mother Mrs. John S. Doud.

Mrs. Eisenhower waved a kiss to the crowd, and the Nixons also took a bow.

Nixon, in presenting Eisenhower, called the election result "a tremendous vote of approval" of Eisenhower's first term and his administration's policies.

Then it was Eisenhower's turn. Here is what he said: "Mr. Chairman, Mr. Vice President, my very good friends in this audience and everywhere in the United States to whatever areas my voice reaches:

"This is a solemn moment. The only thing I should like to say about this campaign is this: it is a very heart-warming experience to know that your labors—your efforts—of four years have achieved that level where they are approved by the United States of America in a vote.

"Such a vote as that cannot be merely for an individual, it is for principles and ideals for which that individual and his associates

Rains Kill 50

BOGOTA, Colombia (AP) — Two weeks of torrential rains throughout Colombia have claimed at least 50 lives and caused vast damage to warehouses dwellings and crops, government sources said.

have stood and have tried to exemplify.

To all the people of the United States who have understood what the administration — the Republican party — has been trying to do in these past four years, and consequently have worked so hard for the re-election of that administration, my most grateful thanks.

The only thing I can say to all the people — all the Americans who have voted that ticket which puts us back into the same positions of responsibility — I can only say, it is our earnest prayer that nothing we can ever do — or shall ever do — will betray that trust.

And now let me say something that looks to the future: I think that modern Republicanism has now proved itself. And America has approved of modern Republicanism.

And so, as we look ahead — as we look ahead to the problems in front, let us remember that a political party deserves the approbation of America only as it represents the ideals, the aspirations and the hopes of Americans. If it is anything less, it is merely a conspiracy to seize power. And the Republican party is not that!

Modern Republicanism looks to the future. Which means it looks to that area — that time — in which our young are most interested. And this means that it will gain constantly new recruits from the youngest of our voters. And as such, as long as it remains true to the ideals and the aspirations of America, it will continue to increase in power and influence for decades to come. It will put the way to peace among nations, and to prosperity — advancing standards here at home in which everybody will share, regardless of any accident of power, of station, of race, religion, or color.

And if we cling to these ideals, if we uphold them, if we fight for them, then I say: Republicans deserve, then, the vote of confidence that Republicans, friendly Democrats, and Independents, have given us this day.

My friends, I conclude with a pledge: With whatever talents the good God has given me, with whatever strength there is within me, I will continue — and so will my associates — to do just one thing: to work for 168 million Americans here at home—and for peace in the world.
