LaMarca Testifies In Own Defense At Kidnaping Trial

MINEOLA, N.Y. (U) — Angelo LaMarca testified in his own defense today, trying to establish that he was insane last July 4 when he kidnaped little Peter Weinberger. His life may hang on his testimony.

LaMarca testified in the 22-day-old kidnaping trial after the usual mistrial defense motion to dismiss the charges. LaMarca is on trial for his life, charged with first-degree murder and kidnaping. He is pleading insanity.

The 32-day-old Westbury, N.Y., baby was abandoned after his kidnaping to die face down on suffocation in a Long Island honey-suckle thicket.

In arguing for a dismissal the defense claimed the state failed to prove that the tiny body found 51 days after the kidnaping was actually Peter's.

This argument sent the baby's mother, Mrs. Beatrice Weinberger, rushing from the crowded courtroom in tears.

Scientists Debunk Einstein Fountain Of Youth Theory

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE Associated Press Science Reporter
NEW YORK (U) — Harvard University scientists today blasted the idea that you would stay younger aboard a spaceship than by staying home.

Such an idea is based on a misunderstanding of Einstein's special theory of relativity, they told the American Rocket Society. Science fiction writers, some college teachers and others have proposed that space travel could give you a drink at an Einsteinian fountain of youth.

The suggestion has been that anyone traveling away from earth at high speed relative to the earth's speed would undergo slowing of his life processes. So astronauts might return from a long trip actually younger than they would be if they had stayed home all that time. A man could return younger than his identical twin who had stayed home.

But this is a fallacy, William R. Brewster Jr., Harriet B. Brewster, Majic S. Potsaid and James P. Isaacs said in a formal report at the opening of the Rocket Society's 11th annual meeting. Uniform motion relative to the earth would have no effect whatsoever on the rate of life processes, they declared. An example cited for thinking

U. N. Revolts Against Paying Suez Damages

Russia Spearheads Delegate Rebellion

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (U) — Revolt spread among U.N. delegates today against footing any part of the bill for clearing the Suez Canal.

Spearheaded by Russia, diplomats of varying political hues served notice they saw no reason why bystander nations should clean out the ships and bridges sunk in the waterway by Egypt's invaders or the defending Egyptians. Some delegates felt Britain, France and Israel should pay the entire bill. Others thought it should be covered by the owners and users of the 103-mile waterway.

The General Assembly approved over Soviet bloc objections a 10-million-dollar grant to pay initial costs of the emergency police force in Egypt.

Hungary Labor Still Opposed To Red Leader

BUDAPEST, Hungary (U) — A member of the Budapest Workers' Council said today Premier Janos Kadar faces the task of reorganizing Hungary's revolt-shattered economy with the workers in open opposition to him.

He made the statement in disclosing that the Soviet-supported Premier had rejected all demands of the Council, the spokesman for Budapest's workers.

"Kadar now rigidly rejects everything, using arguments he wrote with the help of 5,000 tanks," the spokesman said in commenting on a negotiating session last night with Kadar.

The Council is equally insistent that its demands, including the restoration of former Premier Imre Nagy to power and the withdrawal of Russian troops, must form the basis of any agreement.

The only concession the workers have been able to obtain from Kadar is the promise of authorization to publish a newspaper.

The worker representative said it was clear from Kadar's speech last night that U.N. observers would not be permitted to come to Hungary on the grounds that the rebellion there was an "internal Hungarian affair."

Other conclusions workers' representatives said they drew from the Premier's speech: 1. Everyone who opposes the government and says so can be labeled "a counterrevolutionary agitator" and handled accordingly.

2. Kadar, who a week ago told workers "Bring back Nagy and I will gladly give him back his post," now has taken the Russian view that the Nagy case is past history.

3. The concept of a multiparty system and coalition government has been definitely dropped. Kadar's new Communist party will be the only recognized political party.

OLD FRIEND HELPS FUND

THE CHRISTMAS CHEER FUND is looking to its old friends to help give it the "quick start." One of the Fund's steadfast supporters through the years, Miss Agnes Currie, sent in her check for $5 today.

Found Dead At Home

Bandleader Tommy Dorsey, shown here in 1950 with his wife, Janie, and 6-year-old daughter, Susan, was found dead in bed in his Greenwich, Conn., home. Mrs. Dorsey, who sued for divorce Oct. 24 charging cruelty, was at home at the time of death. Another child, Steve, 4, survives.

Noted Band Leader T. Dorsey Chokes To Death In His Sleep

GREENWICH, Conn. (U) — Band leader Tommy Dorsey choked to death in his sleep, a medical examiner says.

Dr. C. Stanley Knapp said the 51-year-old bespectacled "sentimental gentleman of swing" vomited in his sleep and choked to death on food particles. Dr. Knapp fixed the time of Dorsey's death at about 2 a.m. yesterday.

Dorsey's third wife, Janie, who was suing him for divorce, was in the house when he died as were their two children, but it was 12 hours before the death was discovered.

His bookish agent, Vincent Carbone, got no answer to a knock on the bedroom door at Dorsey's sprawling, $130,000 home, and went in through a window. Both Dorsey and his wife slept behind locked doors, on advice of lawyers, so they would not jeopardize the divorce proceedings.

Carbone found the body of the famed trombonist sprawled over the bed. The rest of the family had thought he was sleeping late, as he often did.

Dorsey's saxophonist brother Jimmy, two years younger, was in New York at the time. So was their mother.

What made Dorsey ill was not known. He ate a heavy Italian meal with his wife and mother-in-law, Mrs. Ruth New of Atlanta, in his home the night before. Tino Barzic, his personal manager, said Dorsey was told scinty at Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore that he was developing an ulcer.

A note Dorsey left added to the mystery when police refused to comment on the case. Finally the text of the note was disclosed by Barzic.

Barzic said he planned to meet Dorsey in New York today. Besides Susie, Dorsey leaves a four-year-old son, Steve, by his present wife, and two grown children by his first wife, the former Mildred Kraft. Their children are Mrs. Lester Hooker of Richmond, Va., and Thomas F. Dorsey 3rd, in the Navy stationed at Hawaii.

Students Give To United Fund

The United School Fund, organized earlier this fall, has sent in its contribution of $350 to the Big Spring and Howard County United Fund.

Gifts from the students, tabulated with other late contributions Monday, pushed the 1956 campaign to within $1,611.81 of its $27,350 goal.

The United School Fund was organized in the public schools for the same purpose the Big Spring and Howard County United Fund was formed several years ago—to lump into a single effort the fund-raising drives of a number of agencies.

The United School Fund raised a total of $811 with $350 apportioned to the Big Spring and Howard County United Fund, $120 to the Junior Red Cross and the remainder to be presented to the March of Dimes and the Howard County Tuberculosis Association.

Actually, two checks and a few individual contributions were given the United Fund. From the Junior High United Fund came $195.15 and from the United School Fund Drive came $156.85.

After an audit showed $1,611.81 was still needed for the United Fund Monday, a special "mop up"

Las Artistas Win Yule Parade Prize

A scene in which an artist used a snowman as a model and painted a giant Christmas card won a first prize for Las Artistas in the float contest held in connection with the annual Yule parade Monday afternoon.

Second prize went to the Mu Zeta chapter of Beta Sigma Phi for a scene in which a dove of peace hovered over a replica of the earth. Stacked rifles and a cross, depicting "war and peace," won third place for the American Legion.

Mrs. J. N. Brunson, 310 San Antonio, was winner of the television receiver which was given away following the parade.

A crowd estimated at between 15,000 and 20,000 persons was on hand for the parade and other festivities formally opening the Christmas season here Monday. Thousands of youngsters got their first look at Santa Claus this year, and a score of local men swirled through the crowd distributing around 500 pounds of candy while Santa waved and shouted his 1956 greetings.

There were 13 floats in the parade, not counting the one on which Santa made his appearance. There also were bands from Coahoma High School, Big Spring High and Junior High and Webb AFB, and an Air Force color guard.

The Big Spring Pastors Association had an entry urging Big Springers to "Put Christ in X-Mas." This was followed by the Beta Sigma Phi float; eighth grade Tri-Hi-Y girls before a huge, open Bible; the Ada Bellettes, singing carols; Desk and Derrick Club members, attired in formals and riding a big trailer; and the Legion entry, pulled by a miniature tractor.

The Seba Tri-Hi-Y presented a "Night Before Christmas" scene, and the Four O'Clock Garden Club spread "The Light of Good Cheer" from a battery of candles on top of a decorated float.

The Girls Auxiliary from the East Fourth Street Baptist Church presented members on the back of a decorated truck. Girl Scout Troop No. 6 portrayed "The Good Fairy," and the Las Artistas float showed the artist preparing the Christmas card against the background of a huge Yule package.

Also in the procession was a carload of beauties and balloons from the junior college, Feta Tri-Hi-Y girls riding in a new convertible, and a marching unit of Cub Scouts.

Drawing for the first of $3,500 in merchandise awards was conducted following the parade, with Mrs. Brunson winning the television set. An electric toaster will be given this afternoon. A total of 25 prizes will be presented with the last to be given Dec. 24.

Mitchell Urges States Work Out New Labor Welfare Laws

MIAMI BEACH (AP) — Secretary of Labor Mitchell said today states should get busy enacting modern worker welfare laws if they want to avoid the federal government stepping in and doing it.

Mitchell said that while the states have taken some steps to improve welfare laws and to enact new ones, they still haven't met standards suggested by President Eisenhower and still have a long way to go.

He called on the states to "throw off complacency and do what needs to be done."

He said in an address prepared for the International Assn. of Governmental Labor Officials, an organization of state officials, that Eisenhower and his administration feel states have responsibility for unemployment compensation, temporary disability insurance, workmen's compensation, safety and other such laws.

But, he added: "I don't think there is any question either that the responsibility of the federal government will tend to increase to the extent that the states neglect their responsibility."

"Until all our states take positive steps to meet the demands of their citizens, the pressures on the federal government to do so will continue and probably grow stronger."

The labor secretary said that if the nation is to stay strong and grow, its manpower must be developed and protected.

"Our nation does not have manpower to waste," Mitchell said. "We have but 6 per cent of the world's population, and as you well know we carry far more than 6 per cent of the responsibility for the world's welfare."

"We cannot afford the terrible waste of discrimination because of race, religion or place of origin. We cannot afford the waste of skills caused by inadequate training and education. We cannot afford the waste of our people caused by inadequate social legislation which fails to give them proper security in time of need and proper restoration when they are injured."

"I say there is a new day ahead but it is a day . . . which could well remain forever in the dim blue horizon — nothing more than a mirage — unless we bestir ourselves and throw off complacency and do what needs to be done. The strength of our nation depends upon it."

As to unemployment compensation, Mitchell said states generally improved their laws during the past two years but none to the extent recommended by Eisenhower. The president urged raising jobless benefits to one-half an average worker's wage and for payments to extend a maximum 26 weeks, a half year.

"The benefit that once represented half a man's normal salary now represents a third or less," Mitchell said. "Average weekly benefits, pulled along by sky-rocketing wages, have climbed from $10.68 to $26.33. But as a Moline, Ill., housewife put it in a letter to the Department of Labor: 'You can't keep a family on $26 a week.'"

He said only four states have adopted temporary disability insurance laws, providing payments during brief periods of illness or other disability.

"What could be more ridiculous than to grant a man benefits if he loses his job and then stop those benefits if while he is out of work he gets sick?" Mitchell asked, adding that most states now do that.

Mitchell said most workmen's compensation laws are outdated. He urged "strong" state labor departments, adequate safety programs and skilled training for workers.

"If we are to meet the challenges of the future both in terms of national defense and in terms of industrial production," Mitchell said, "these matters must be dealt with."

Valley English Guest To Leave After Big Fete

MISSION, Tex. (AP) — Lady May Rous, tired but happy daughter of a British earl, will leave the Lower Rio Grande Valley today after three days of luncheons, interviews and tours.

She is heading to New York where she said, "I'm supposed to meet someone." She added, "It won't kill me or him if I don't make it on time."

Lady Rous arrived in the Valley Saturday after it was reported she was broke and stranded in Houston. She said she had been visiting friends in different parts of the country and working in each city she visited to earn money for food and transportation. But she denied that she arrived in the Valley without enough money to live.

Lady Rous has been the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Dick Hall of Mission. Hall said her charm and smile have made friends for her throughout the area.

He said she had been offered several good jobs but refused them because she wanted to go to New York.

While in the Valley she was honored at luncheons and dinners, interviewed on television and radio and followed by newsmen. She was given special tours of Padre Island, Mexico and other spots.

Longshoremen Toil To Clear Cargoes

NEW YORK (AP) — A full force of longshoremen toiled to clear cargo-choked East and Gulf Coast ports today. But legal tangles blocked an immediate renewal of contract talks with shippers and stevedore firms.

A federal court order ended a nine-day strike by 60,000 members of the International Longshoremen's Assn. Saturday. The dock-ers had walked out in a contract dispute with the New York Shipping Assn., more than 200 ships were tied up in ports from Maine to Texas.

Federal mediators prodded both sides yesterday to resume negotiations at once. But the union said it can't sit down for more talks until after next Monday.

The delay is necessary, the union said, because it must make two court appearances on injunction actions this week.

In preparation for one appearance, the IILA asked yesterday for dismissal of a court order barring it from bargaining for a single master contract covering all East and Gulf Coast ports.

The union demand for a single contract was the main issue in the pre-strike talks with the shipping association. In previous years the union had individual port-by-port contracts with the employers.

The association, which represents 170 shipping and stevedoring firms, insisted it was not authorized to bargain for any port outside New York. The organization complained to the National Labor Relations Board.

The NLRB got a federal court order temporarily restraining the union from "national bargaining."

A hearing on a government bid to extend that restraining order will be held tomorrow.

Friday Federal Court Judge Frederick van Pelt Bryan will consider extending last Saturday's 10-day no-strike injunction to the full 30 days allowed under the Taft-Hartley law.

Police Probing Arsenic Deaths

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP) — West Virginia state police, working on the assumption that the arsenic deaths of William Kidwell and his two sons were not accidental, have begun searching for suspects.

Kidwell and two sons, Thomas, 1, and Charles, 2, died during the past two weeks of arsenic poisoning. Mrs. Kidwell and their seven surviving children are in Washington County Memorial Hospital in Hagerstown, Md., recovering from the effects of poisoning.

State trooper J. E. Durst of the Charleston Barracks said "more than one person" was being sought as a suspect.

He said the state police laboratory at Charleston determined definitely that traces of arsenic were placed in the well water at the Kidwell family home near Kearneysville, W. Va.

Durst said police were looking for a man who was a family friend before the Kidwells moved from Hagerstown across the Potomac River to Kearneysville.

Fat Profit On Fat Steer

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A little over a year ago a 13-year-old Elko, Nev., ranch boy bought a calf from his dad for $75.

Yesterday the now 920-pound brown and white Hereford won the grand champion steer award at the Great Western Livestock Show. His young owner, Jay Peterson, hopes to get around $3 a pound — which would total $2,760 — for the steer at auction.

"I intend to use the money toward buying a ranch some day," said the son of Louis E. Peterson, owner of ranches in Nevada and Ogden, Utah.

Girl Strangles On Walnut Kernel

EDWARDSVILLE, Ill. (AP) — Deputy coroner E. H. Weber said the death of 2-year-old Theresa Ann McConnell was due to strangulation after a walnut kernel lodged in her throat.

Efforts failed to dislodge the kernel when the child began choking at her home Sunday.

She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest T. McConnell Jr. of Edwardsville.

Streetcar Driver Jailed For DWI

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — There was Arthur Miller waiting in his car for the light to turn green when — wham! — a streetcar banged him from behind.

Miller, 39, told police the car then backed up, not once, but twice to hit him "like a battering ram."

Police booked 48-year-old George Latta on charges of operating a streetcar while intoxicated.

Cleveland Presses Roll

CLEVELAND (AP) — The presses of Cleveland's three major daily newspapers begin rolling today for the first time in 26 days. By afternoon, two of the papers will be landing with familiar pllops on steps and porches.

The newspaper famine started when one union struck one of the newspapers. It ended last night as the Photoengravers Union became the last of eight unions to ratify new two-year contracts with all three newspapers.

Upon the agreement with the photoengravers, all three newspapers immediately began phoning their employees with instructions to return to their jobs.

The Cleveland News and the Cleveland Press, both afternoon papers, said they would publish today. The Cleveland Plain Dealer, a morning paper, plans to publish its Wednesday morning edition.

Bunker In Line As Ambassador

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ellsworth Bunker, retiring president of the American Red-Cross, was reported to be in line today for appointment as ambassador to India replacing Sen.-elect John Sherman Cooper of Kentucky.

Bunker, a Democrat, served as ambassador to Italy and to Argentina during the Truman administration. He formerly headed the National Sugar Refining Co.

Informed officials said they expect President Eisenhower to announce Bunker's appointment before Prime Minister Nehru of India arrives here Dec. 16 for a four-day round of conferences.

Cooper, a Republican, plans to fly to India starting tomorrow to lay the groundwork for the Eisenhower-Nehru talks. He has been away from New Delhi since May.

U. N. Police Force Menus Are Varied

By ANGELO NATALE
ABU SUWEIR, Egypt, Nov. 27 (AP)—Morale and unity in the U.N. police force in Egypt are high, but internationalism does not extend to food. The troops' menus range from smorgasbord to curry. Seven countries now have soldiers in the police force, and others will be added. On hand are Indians, Yugoslavs, Colombians, Danes, Swedes, Norwegians and Canadians.

Most of the troops brought in enough rations from their own armies to last a week or two. The Scandinavians go for their famed smorgasbord, the Indians for their strongly flavored curry dishes. The U.N. Command is just beginning to face up to an over-all plan for feeding its men. Not only food but the meal hours and systems of rationing vary with the different nationalities.

There is another problem in morale—entertainment and recreation. The command hopes the troops will develop some entertainment programs of their own. These also would promote mutual understanding. Some of the troops have played a little soccer under the hot Egyptian sun. The energetic Scandinavians pass the dull hours with calisthenics and gymnastics. "But this can go only so far," one realistic Norwegian remarked.

The heat gets consideration all by itself. Sunburn was the first problem for the blond Scandinavians, Yugoslavs and Canadians. Many of them left snowstorms in their own countries when they flew to sunbaked Abu Suweir.

While the men are being acclimated, they are quartered in one-story barracks. After a few days, they are moved to a big tent camp inside a compound surrounded by barbed wire.

The troops have heard of Egypt's pyramids and sphinxes and the fabulous palaces of ex-King Farouk. But so far most have seen only the barracks and tents.

They are confined to the camp. The only Egyptians with whom they have contact are about 200 military police and guards stationed in Abu Suweir. Despite a report by U.N. observers that these Egyptians were showing favoritism to the Yugoslavs, there is no complaint here that the Egyptians are playing favorites. The only members of the U.N. force who have left Abu Suweir, about 12 miles southwest of Ismailia, are 190 Norwegians. They were sent north into battered Port Said to ease tension there between the British-French task force and the Egyptian population.

Abu Suweir itself is on an isolated artificial oasis watered by the Sweetwater Canal connecting the Nile River with Ismailia. A road along a narrow ribbon of green vegetation at the edge of the canal also connects Abu Suweir with Cairo, 70 miles away.

Officers Check Confession To Kidnaping, Two Murders

HUNTSVILLE (AP)—Officers today checked the story of a man they said admitted a kidnaping and told them he killed two men in Dallas in 1953.

Dist. Atty. W. T. Bennett said the man identified himself as J. W. Barry, 37, of Tulsa. He said Barry signed a statement and charges of kidnaping were filed yesterday.

Dallas detective Capt. Will Fritz said some parts of the man's story were "interesting" and indicated he would send a man here today to question Barry.

Barry was charged with kidnaping Billy Skains, 35, of Houston after hitching a ride. Bennett said Barry gave this story.

Barry pulled a toy gun as they drove through Huntsville Friday. Near Corsicana, Barry let Skains out of the car and Skains ran. Barry became frightened and ran into the brush.

He was arrested later when he tried to hitch a ride in a highway patrol car.

The statement gave this account of the slayings:

In July or August, 1953, Barry stabbed a man with an ice pick in an apartment house where he was living and burned down the house. Barry said the body of the man was found in the ruins.

Fritz said the body of a man identified as Falvillus Williamson was found in the ruins of a dwelling on South Harwood March 27, 1953. Barry said the house he set afire was on South Harwood. Barry said several months later, while working as a truck driver in Dallas, he picked up a hitchhiker. Barry said after a few drinks together, he stabbed the hitchhiker and "threw him in the river."

Cold Weather Prevails Over Large Areas

Cold weather prevailed over broad areas of the Eastern half of the country today.

Generally clear skies were the outlook in the Western two-thirds of the nation but snow flurries and rain showers were reported in sections of the Northeast.

During the night snow flurries fell from the Great Lakes southward to Tennessee and Virginia and eastward through New York. Rain showers sprinkled areas in Vermont and eastward to the coast. Light snow and freezing rain fell in sections of the Far Northwest.

The cold air mass extended from New Mexico and Texas to the Great Lakes and eastward to the Atlantic Coast. Biggest drops in temperatures were reported in Oklahoma and Arkansas southward through Texas and Louisiana. Readings were about 12 degrees lower than yesterday morning.

The cold air was expected to cover the Atlantic Coast states during the day. Snow and snow flurries were predicted from Maine southward through West Virginia.

There was a warming trend from the Northern Plains through the Central Mountain States. A little warmer weather also was in prospect from Texas to Mississippi and northward to the western Great Lakes region.

Little change in temperatures was expected in the western third of the country, with fairly pleasant weather for this time of year.

Hearing Delayed In Slaying Plot

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—A hearing on a writ of habeas corpus for three men free on bond has been delayed until next Monday by Judge Clarence Mills.

The three are Grady King, Jay Wilson and F. W. Wilson. Officers have identified King as the head of an Oklahoma County bootlegging syndicate which they say was involved in a "fantastic" plot to slay four competing bootleggers.

The delay in the hearing was asked by County Attorney Granville Scanlan who said he needed more time to question witnesses and "check wire recordings covering the plot."

The three men were freed on bond.

3 Die Of Lack Of Air

MOUNDSVILLE, W.Va. (AP)—Two young brothers and a baby sitter died last night in a home at McKeefrey, four miles south of here, when an old-fashioned seven-burner gas stove apparently consumed all the oxygen in the room.

Marshall County Sheriff Lawrence J. Burley said death was apparently due to asphyxiation, but Coroner Ernest D. Conner has not yet given an official verdict.

The youngsters, Dennis Lee Conner, 6, and Timothy Linn Conner, 10, were found near the door of the room. The baby sitter, Howard Phillips, about 52, of Phillips, was found sitting in a chair in front of the stove. Burley said there was no ventilation in the room.

Mrs. Mildred Conner, mother of the boys, was entertaining a church group in her home at the time. Phillips was watching the boys in a foundation-type house which Mrs. Conner had had built nearby.

Arson Suspected In Brief Fire In O. Henry House

AUSTIN (AP)—Fire flared briefly last night in the O. Henry house and Marshal W. L. Heaton said "it looks like arson."

The blaze was confined to loose wallpaper and did little damage. A suit was filed yesterday by Austin attorney Wright Stubbs for an injunction to prevent placing the building on a controversial memorial site.

Policeman Ralph Miller said an unidentified witness told of seeing a man with a candle and another with a flashlight enter the house before the blaze.

Local historians say the house is one of several where William Porter, who adopted the literary name of O. Henry, lived while an Austin resident from 1884 to 1889. A controversy has arisen over moving the house to a park area. Stubbs' petition described the frame house as an "attractive nuisance" and said children might be injured playing in the "dilapidated structure."

Little Squirts Try Hand As Firemen

GARDEN GROVE, Calif. (AP)—Two young boys decided to see how their new water pistols would do as fire extinguishers.

The lads, 7 and 8, set a vacant house on fire, authorities said, and were squirting away manfully but unavailingly when firemen arrived with more powerful equipment.

Firemen estimated damage at $500. The boys were turned over to their parents.

Firemen Save Girl

Firemen climax a half-hour battle in a gravel pit mud hole to pull Susan Elliott, 12, to safety at South Bend, Ind. Susan and two boy companions, playing on frozen earth, broke through the thin crust into the sucking mud. The boys scampered to safety and called firemen. Firemen said Susan had sunk to her waist when they arrived. She was taken to the hospital for treatment of exposure.

U. S. Girl Casts New Light On Fashion In Skin Shade

NAHA, Okinawa, Nov. 27 (AP)—An American child here is highly dissatisfied with her fair tresses and white skin. "Why do I have to have blonde hair?" asks curly-haired Penny Lynn Prosser, 6. "Why can't I have black hair?"

Her father is Robert Prosser of the Okinawa Star, English language newspaper. He wrote of Penny's complaints in an editorial.

To Penny, anyone whose hair is not straight and black is doomed to a life of the most abject humiliation.

"And why not?" Prosser said. "Born in Japan, raised in Tokyo and Okinawa, she claims as her closest friends the little Okinawan girl around the corner, the Eurasian girl down the block and a well-mannered but uniformly brunette assortment of Japanese and Okinawan Nisei children, plus a smattering of Filipino kids."

Penny complained she was the lone blonde on her school bus and was equally outnumbered at school.

"Why do I have to have such a light skin?" she tearfully asked her puzzled parents. "Blue jeans look good on girls with brown skin. I just hate white skin."

Prosser wrote he had no answer for Penny. He counseled she was stuck with her light skin and blonde hair, just as people with brown skins and dark hair are stuck with theirs.

But he ventured she had cast "a new light on the whole question of what's the popular shade of skin to wear this season."

Penny has two grandmothers in the states, Mrs. Ima Webb Wright of Austin, Tex., and Mrs. W. B. Prosser, of Omaha, Neb.

Slavs Slap Russ Reaction

BELGRADE, Nov. 27 (AP)—The Yugoslav Communist party warned Russia today it has only two alternatives in its relations with Eastern Europe—"to return to Stalinism or to secure democratic relations based on equality among Socialistic (Communist) countries."

This was the answer of Borba, organ of the Yugoslav party, to the recent attack by Pravda, the Soviet Communist party organ, on President Tito's criticism of the Soviet military action in Hungary.

Borba's reply was couched in generally conciliatory tones, making no mention of the reported Russian seizure of former Hungarian Premier Imre Nagy and some other current issues between Moscow and Belgrade.

The Yugoslav party organ said Russia was basing its relations with Yugoslavia on equality but it asserted Stalinist conceptions in the Kremlin were hampering Soviet relations with other East European Communist countries.

Old Stunt Fools Policemen Again

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—A car pulled up near a downtown intersection last night and shots rang out.

A pedestrian dropped to the sidewalk, two occupants of the car leaped out, picked up their victim, put him in the car and quickly drove off.

Not long after police got a report of a similar incident from another section of town.

Every police cruiser was alerted and it wasn't long before a group of high school boys was rounded up and lectured on how far they can go in initiation stunts.

Water Meeting To Be Held On Legal Question

AUSTIN (AP)—Water Board Chairman R. M. Dixon said today he will meet with Dallas officials next week to settle legal questions on selling Elm Fork water. The board postponed action yesterday on a request from the Dallas Power and Light Co., which wants to buy a maximum of 9,550 acre feet of water for industrial use from Dallas. The water would come from Elm Fork of the Trinity River.

Dixon said the questions involved are: The city's permits for the water do not include the right to sell it for industrial use. Dallas appropriated the water for city purposes.

Whether the city is entitled to all the water developed from its watersheds, and does the city own water which would flow over spillways during a flood season.

He said the questions do not involve the city's right to contract, nor the Dallas power company. Dixon said a protest filed by Denton did not enter into the conflict.

Mayor Jack Bryson of Denton wired the board protesting that granting the power company's request would endanger Denton's permits. He said the action may give the power company's permit a priority over Denton's right to the water.

Bryson said he believed Dallas permits do not allow the type of sale planned.

"We do not believe the water held under Dallas permits has been previously authorized for diversion as requested" by the power company, the mayor said.

Board attorney Joe Carter said Dallas may have to amend one of its water permits before it can sell water to the Dallas power company.

Dixon said the power company could "go ahead with its present plans" to build a reservoir and pumping station.

L. J. Blaize, vice president for DP&L, said the company would build a reservoir on the south fork of the Grapevine Creek and pipe the water from Elm Fork. The reservoir would serve primarily as a circulation system for cooling the new plant's turbines, he said.

Blaize said the contract stated the city could not sell the water until it had a 2-year supply. Dallas now is in one of its worst water shortages and is buying water from the Red River.

The engineer explained the power company would pay Dallas $60,000 a year for storing the water when it becomes available and 2 cents for each 1,000 gallons it pumps to the reservoir. After the plan is in operation, the company would pay 4 1/2 cents for 1,000 gallons but not the annual storage fee.

Stork Is Climax For A Big Year

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—A big year for writer Robert E. Lee has reached a climax. Lee, who with Jerome Lawrence dramatized "Inherit the Wind," longest running play on Broadway, and "Auntie Mame," already a hit with Rosland Russell starred, became a father yesterday. His wife, Janet Waldo, who plays Corliss Archer on television, gave birth to a daughter, Lucy.

The couple has another child, Jonathan, 4.

Charges Set In Morals Case

CHEYENNE, Wyo. (AP)—County Atty. Walter Phelan said today he was preparing charges against a mother, 23, and four teen-agers arrested Saturday in a morals raid. Police Chief Fred Schmoker said the raid climaxed a series of immoral acts that started last September at the residence of Mrs. Maxine Munson. Jailed with her were her daughter, 13; a girl, 15; and two Warren AFB men, Emmett Bolt, 19, and a 17-year-old.

Schmoker said all but Mrs. Munson signed statements telling of repeated immoral relations among the girls and airmen at the residence. He said the statements related that Mrs. Munson invited the airmen there and encouraged the illicit activities. Bolt's statement, Schmoker said, reported the airmen were asked "at different times" by Mrs. Munson to pay her money. She is separated from her husband, Schmoker said. Phelan said he would charge

Safe Robbed

William Marshall Bullitt was explaining to newsmen in Louisville, Ky., how he kept cash in the safe at his home when this picture was made. The safe was robbed of money now estimated at less than $100,000.

Police Still Seek Clues In Huge Safe Cracking Job

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Police still are searching for clues which might crack the huge theft of cash from a hidden wall safe at the sprawling estate of William Marshall Bullitt.

County Detective Elmer Emery said last night palm prints were found on the outside of the window which thieves apparently used to gain entrance to the mansion.

County Police Sgt. James Wyatt said employees of the Bullitts will be fingerprinted today. 8,000 The amount stolen ranged from the 83-year-old Bullitt's estimate of between $40,000 and $50,000 to a $274,000 figure given by police.

A pickup order for known safe crackers yesterday resulted in the arrest of two men.

Earl Vincent Burton, 33, and James Hairston, 31, both of Louisville were charged with vagrancy and released on $500 bond last night.

Mrs. Bullitt said the cash stolen from the double combination safe would be around $77,000. Bullitt, one-time solicitor general of the United States, guessed even lower — $40,000 to $50,000.

But Wyatt said the Bullitts have not told police there was any figure other than $274,000 stolen.

The money was taken late Saturday or early Sunday.

The two men arrested yesterday gave police alibis for the period involved. Burton has a record of at least 16 arrests and has served prison sentences. Hairston was sentenced to four years in the state penitentiary in 1950 for a safebreaking.

Rail Mediators In Wage Talks

CHICAGO (AP) — The National Railway Mediation Board today tackles the job of settling wage disputes between the nation's railroads and three unions whose members help operate the trains.

The unions are the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, representing 121,000 employees; Order of Railway Conductors and Brakemen, 20,000; and the Switchmen's Union of North America, 8,000.

The BRT is seeking a $3-a-day pay hike and seven paid holidays a year.

Key demand of the switchmen is for a 25 per cent pay raise and seven paid holidays.

The conductors and brakemen want a 25 per cent raise plus an additional 20 per cent increase for short-run and commuter service.

The board recently announced settlement of a pay dispute involving the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen. The 50,000 employees involved were granted a package wage boost totaling 26 1/2 cents an hour over the three years.

Glanton Rites Set At Teague

The body of Fred Glanton, 61, who died in a local hospital at 1:30 p.m. Sunday, has been shipped in a Nalley-Pickle ambulance to Teague for burial.

Last rites were to be said there at 2 p.m. today. Burial was to take place in the Cotton Gin Cemetery near Teague.

Mr. Glanton, who moved from Oklahoma to Wink in 1927 to go into business with his brother, Sandy, was in retirement at the time of his death. He had suffered a stroke and never did recover. Three years ago, he sold his business interests in Wink, Jal, N. M., and Hobbs, N. M., to Sandy.

A veteran of World War I, Mr. Glanton was a member of the Hobbs Masonic Lodge No. 63, the Consistory of Santa Fe and the Albuquerque Shrine.

Mr. Glanton was born Aug. 15, 1895, at Teague.

Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Caroline Wood of Monahans; one granddaughter; three brothers, Sandy of Hobbs, N. M.; Hugh and Mack, both of Teague; and two sisters, Mrs. Esther Thompson of Mexia and Mrs. J. D. Vaughn, Monahans.

Pungent Pudding Arrives For Scots

NEW YORK — Enough haggis to feed 1,000 hungry Scotsmen arrived on an airliner at Idlewild airport yesterday.

A 600-pound shipment of the pungent pudding was flown in from Prestwick, Scotland, for the annual dinner of the St. Andrew's Society.

Webster's dictionary describes haggis as "a pudding made of the heart, liver, lights, etc., of a sheep or a calf, mixed with suet, onions, oatmeal, etc., seasoned, and boiled in the stomach of the animal."

Russo-Slavic Relations Said Growing Worse

By BORIS BOSKOVIC
BELGRADE (AP) — Yugoslavia's relations with Hungary and Russia were reported steadily deteriorating today.

At the same time, there were reports that President Tito recently may have taken the initiative in attempting to revive the Balkan Pact linking Yugoslavia, Greece and Turkey — although not as a result of Yugoslavia's difficulties with the rest of the Communist world.

Relations with Hungary and Russia have worsened since former Hungarian Premier Imre Nagy left the Yugoslav Embassy in Budapest last Thursday, only to be deported to Romania in violation of a Hungarian-Yugoslav agreement.

Yugoslav newsmen in Hungary are reported treated much less favorably by Hungary's Janos Kadar government than previously. They cannot get information easily. The official Hungarian government newspaper reprinted in full the attack on Tito carried in Moscow's Pravda.

More than 60 persons, including families of Yugoslav diplomats in Budapest, were rumored to have returned to their homes in Belgrade.

Belgrade radio announced today that Tito sent a letter in August to Turkish President Celal Bayar. Contents of the letter were not disclosed, but there were reports, unconfirmed officially, that Tito urged an improvement in Greek-Turkish relations and a strengthening of the 20-year Balkan Pact concluded between the three nations in 1954.

In the early stages of the pact negotiations, stress was laid on it as a possible military force to counter the threats of Russia. But, as a result of a lessening of world tensions at that time, Yugoslavia urged it be restricted to improving economic and cultural ties. The dispute between Greece and Turkey over Cyprus weakened the pact and it has never had much force.

Ex-Premier Nagy Comes Under Fire

VIENNA, Austria (AP) — Hungary's Soviet-controlled government has stepped up its propaganda attack on Ex-Premier Imre Nagy, apparently in a new attitude to discredit anti-Soviet workers demanding Nagy's return to power.

Premier Janos Kadar made a strong personal attack on the ex-Premier, admitting he is in exile in Romania and linking him with counterrevolutionaries. Kadar said now are making "impossible demands" on the Hungarian government.

Kadar conceded Hungary's economy still is crippled and chaotic because of strikes and passive resistance. He said work started yesterday in "almost every section of the country but we cannot say that production is normal. There are still local and very damaging strikes."

Reports from Budapest said there was a general trend toward resumption of work but that many factories were still idle. This was attributed to unrepaired machinery in some cases and to passive resistance by workers in others.

The Budapest Workers' Council was promoting the back-to-work movement, but at the same time it still insisted that the Communist government must meet popular demands for the withdrawal of Russian troops and the return of Nagy.

"The workers have to live," said a council spokesman. Kadar declared his government does not consider Nagy "permanently exiled."

"But we think it better he remain outside the country for the time being," Kadar said, "because some of the many still-hiding counterrevolutionaries might assassinate him and try to blame our government for it."

He added that his regime planned no "criminal procedure" against Nagy "despite his grave deeds."

Kadar charged Nagy had countenanced the "murderous counter-revolution" — the Russian term for the anti-Soviet rebellion — and said this element was inspiring and supporting the strikes and worker resistance. The counter-revolutionary groups, he declared, were "spreading outrageous reports and making impossible demands" on the government.

Wedding Bells Are Locked Out

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — The jingle of the jailer's key has locked out the sound of dreaded wedding bells for 66-year-old Eloy Able.

Able told police he had been robbed of $575 which he had saved for his forthcoming marriage. But investigating officers found that Able already was married and had five children.

Able told officers he had been courting another woman, and suddenly realized he was "in too deep." He said he made up the robbery tale to get out of the marriage. Obliging police booked him for making a false report to authorities.

THE BIG M

Outdates everything else on the road with its dream-car ideas!

Here is one of those rare cars that, in a single model changeover, re-directs the whole course of automobile design. For the new Mercury makes a clean break with the plump, bulging lines of the past—presents a sleek, clean-cut, dynamic look that's straight out of tomorrow.

NEW! V-ANGLES TAIL-LIGHTS FROM DREAM-CAR DRAWING BOARDS—A stunning example of the BIG M's Dream-Car Design. They help dramatize Mercury's gleaming new breadth and brawn. Mercury is now over 6 1/2 feet wide, more than 17 1/2 feet long!

NEW! SET-FLIP BUMPER-GRILLS GIVES A MASSIVE BUT GRACEFUL LOOK—New beauty with a purpose. The oval design acts as a double bumper—provides high and low protection.

NEW! SLIM, BRIDGE-STRONG ROOF, MORE GLASS THAN EVER—It spans the most spacious passenger compartment in Mercury history. You enjoy up to 829 square inches more visibility. There's a sculptured panel in the roof, rear deck, and rear seat. Outside styling "flows" into the interior. And Mercury is new in everything else. You can get a power seat that "remembers" your favorite driving position. And there's a Power-Booster Fan, in the Montclair series, that saves horsepower other cars waste. And much, much more. To see everything, we invite you to stop in at our showroom today.

Simplest Way To Rob A Bank

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A man robbed a bank of $1,002 in the simplest manner possible — just grabbed the money from a teller. No note, no words, no gun. The teller, Mrs. Wilma de Filippo, 28, told police she was counting her last deposit before closing her window for lunch. The man reached under the wicket, snatched the money from her hands and escaped from a Citizens National Bank branch in a car driven by an accomplice.

Businessmen Begin To Move Cautiously

By SAM DAWSON
NEW YORK (AP)—Most trade and manufacturing concerns are flying high. But caution is coming back into the thinking of a growing number of businessmen today. It showed up first in the stock market. Daily ups and downs there have been attributed to war scares as they wax and wane. The return to a cold war basis — with the possibility of even worse — has played a large part in the planning of both stock traders and industrialists.

But there is a group in Wall Street — even if a minority as far as sounding off is concerned — who have been wondering about the high price of stocks and the high speed of industry as it climbed to new heights. In the market the worry has been over the debated question of whether stock prices have risen faster than earnings and so are now anticipating what industry will be doing well into the future. In industry the worry is whether another leveling off period may be ahead. Earlier this year industry paused after a headlong upward rush and leveled off for a time. In the summer, and especially after the end of the steel strike, it shot upward again.

Industrial production apparently climbed to a new high in November. Department store sales are running a bit ahead of a year ago. Personal incomes, on average, are at a new high. In many places employment is at a record high. Few, if any, see any marked backing down from these heady heights.

But some are beginning to preach caution. Before they left for Hollywood, Fla., for their annual convention, a number of members of the Investment Bankers Assn. of America were advising their clients to take a cautious approach to common stocks and were praising the virtues of bonds and tax exempt securities.

The uncertainties they see in the outlook include the touchy affairs in the Mid East and in eastern Europe, where others than ourselves have already upset trade routes, piled up problems of getting oil and dollars on the western Europeans — a crisis that some 1,200 American exporters, importers and financiers are worrying with at the convention sponsored by the National Foreign Trade Council here this week.

The uncertainties here at home include the yet to be tested willingness of motorists to buy as many of the new cars as Detroit thinks they should. There is also the general question of higher prices and the consumer's willingness or ability to pay.

The National Assn. of Purchasing Agents say that so far there is no sign that war scares have influenced the buying of its members. But it says they are much more cautious now about buying far ahead — both because of the increased prices and the easy availability of most materials.

Another worry both for industry and for stock traders is the slow but steady shrinking of profit margins. Operating costs have been rising faster than they can be passed along — and it's beginning to show in the earnings statements, although so far it hasn't affected the dividend policies of most companies.

Even the big boom in plant expansion and equipment buying — now at a record high — shows some first signs of slowing down. While machine tool shipments are at a high level, new orders aren't pouring in as fast as they once did. And new plant building may top out in the first half of 1957.

Bogart In Clinic For Neural Case

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP)—Humphrey Bogart is in St. John's Hospital for treatment of a nerve pressure condition which followed a cancer operation. The 55-year-old actor underwent surgery last March for removal of a growth on his esophagus — the gullet, a tube from throat to stomach. Bogart said later in an interview that the operation was "highly successful." A statement from his doctor said Bogart was admitted yesterday "for treatment of nerve root pressure due to excessive scar formation following previous surgery." The physician said he didn't know how long Bogart would be in the hospital.
