Baghdad Pact To Get All-Out U. S. Support

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States gave evidence today of extending every possible support to the anti-Communist Baghdad Pact in the Middle East short of actually becoming a member.

A reaffirmation of American backing for the four Mideast countries in the alliance, issued late yesterday, was attributed to a desire to reassure the hard-urging the United States to join the Baghdad Pact. The issue of membership, however, is tied up with the problem of Arab hostility to Israel and the related issue of solidarity among states in the Arab League.

Dag Reports No Progress With Hungary Probe

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold reported to the U.N. Assembly today that he still is unable to get observers into Hungary.

In a special report to the 79-nation Assembly, the secretary general said the possibility of a visit by him to Budapest remained open although he had had no direct reply to his offer to go.

U. S. Sets Policy On Europe Oil Aid

Oil Reaches Britain

The first oil-bearing tanker to reach Great Britain after the long trip around Cape of Good Hope following the closing of the Suez Canal, rides at anchor off the Isle of Grain in the Thames Estuary near London.

Emergency Plan Is Put Into Operation

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States today ordered into effect its emergency plan to move Western Hemisphere petroleum to oil-hungry Europe.

The plan, drafted weeks ago, visualizes possible ultimate shipment of 1,100,000 barrels of oil daily.

Mobilization Director Arthur S. Flemming asked Secretary of Interior Seaton to activate the industry's Middle East Emergency Committee.

This committee, representing 15 oil companies, has stand-by plans to pool production, distribution and tanker facilities for an effort to ease the European petroleum crisis resulting from blockage of the Suez Canal.

Most European countries already have gone under voluntary or compulsory gasoline rationing while this government withheld action—thereby exerting pressure on Britain and France to withdraw their troops from Egypt.

Flemming's action implied, but did not state, that the United States has obtained what it considers sufficient assurances from the French and British governments that their forces will be withdrawn, leaving the United Nations a free hand to stabilize conditions in Egypt.

Even with the U.S. effort, there still will be a petroleum deficit of about 20 per cent in Western Europe this winter, officials said.

Unless the canal and disrupted pipelines to the Mediterranean are restored in good time, the number of tankers will be withdrawn, leaving the United Nations a free hand to stabilize conditions in Egypt.

Flemming's statement today said the problem is not one of supplies but is "essentially a transportation problem."

"The number of tankers available to carry oil is not sufficient to permit maintaining oil consumption at normal levels everywhere in the world," the statement said.

Flemming said he acted after consultation with Secretary of State Dulles and Acting Secretary of State Herbert Hoover Jr. "and with the approval of the President."

He asked Secretary Seaton to authorize the 15 U.S. companies represented on the emergency committee to "coordinate the efforts they have been making individually to assist in handling the oil supply program."

Government sanction was required for a coordinated effort by the companies if they were not to run afoul of the antitrust laws.

"The United States desires to cooperate as fully as possible in lessening the effects of the present situation in both producing and consuming countries," Flemming's announcement said.

VISITING SHERIFF

Wal, Sir, Tombstone's Wild Nowadays (On TV, That Is)

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Wal, sir, it was bound to happen in this here electronic age: The real sheriff of Cochise County, Arizona, has come to Hollywood.

Square-jawed and gimlet-eyed, just like he should be, Jack Howard ambled in from his huge patch of mountain and desert yesterday to look over another tough-looking hombre, John Bromfield, who holds the office of "Sheriff of Cochise" on a television show of the same name.

Things being what they are these days, Sheriff Howard has a little time on his hands after subduing the bad guys, and Sheriff Bromfield has a press agent—so it was only natural they'd get together.

The show folk on the TV set allowed there were certain similarities between Bromfield and Howard besides their firm jaws:

Both have good contracts. Howard is serving as sheriff for the third time; he just got re-elected by a vote of 8,700.

"Other fellow got 31," Howard observed. He's kind of taciturn. Watching a scene from the TV series being filmed, Howard heard the dialogue go like this:

Sheriff: What made your husband think something might happen to him, ma'am?

Widow: Well, sheriff, we all got to die sometime. Sheriff: Yes, ma'am. Sheriff Howard showed no visible emotion as he listened.

mail from kids who watch the TV show. One little boy in Indiana, he said, wrote him: "Sheriff, you always get your man and prove that crime doesn't pay."

Now, not even a real-life sheriff is going to deny that. The gun Bromfield wears in the show is notched like a washrubber. When he showed it to the sheriff, Howard confessed:

"I tell you the truth, I only pulled mine twice. And no notches."

Then he asked Bromfield: "Son, how old are you?" "Thirty-one, sheriff," John answered. "Thirty-one!" echoed the 50-year-old law man. "Son, I'd give a hundred dollars to be thirty-one!"

Noted Episcopal Bishop Is Dead

HOUSTON (AP)—Clinton Quin, retired Episcopal bishop of Texas, died Thursday in St. Luke's Episcopal Hospital.

The bishop had been in a coma since Wednesday. He suffered from cancer of the throat.

His death was not unexpected. On the death of Rt. Rev. George Kinsolving, he took over on Oct. 25, 1953, as bishop of the diocese. He lived in Houston until his retirement when he and Mrs. Quin moved to nearby Richmond.

Bishop Quin is survived by his widow, and three children, Mrs. J. C. McWhirter, wife of a Uvalde banker; Mrs. Penrose Hirst, wife of the rector of St. Mary's Episcopal Church, Lampasas; and Clinton Quin Jr., a Houston printing firm executive.

Three grandchildren and a brother, Sherman Quin, a retired pharmacist of Clarksville, Tenn., also survive.

Funeral arrangements are pending.

He dedicated the hospital where he died on Oct. 5, 1954.

Two days after the dedication, Bishop Quin entered St. Luke's to have a cancerous growth removed from his neck. The condition recurred, and he returned to the hospital a number of times for treatment. The last time he was hospitalized was Nov. 9. He remained there until his death. In the clergyman's 38 years as a bishop of the Episcopal diocese of Texas before his retirement Oct. 31, 1955, the number of clergymen increased from 45 to 123, communicants from 6,800 to 36,000, and church enrollment from 2,900 to 15,000.

BISHOP QUIN
The pulpit punster

Bishop Quin's clerical garb, which he wore with pride, dignity and humbly, was the badge of his calling.

His quick wit, which ranged from subtle to heavy, from barbed sarcasm to veiled praise, was the trademark of the man.

His humor was reflected in his work, in his everyday living and in his writings and teachings. Few religious figures attained such widespread fame as a "pulpit punster" as did the bishop.

He frankly enjoyed serving his Lord. Happiness was his creed and he often stated his love of his calling.

"I get more fun out of my religion than anybody," he would say.

He sometimes shocked his colleagues with his love of pranks, but his sunny smile and open manner won the hearts of all he met, regardless of denomination or creed.

His interest in youth earned him the sobriquet of "the young folks bishop."

"The main trouble with upsetting youthful minds in college," the bishop once drawled in answer to charges that colleges were "ruining" youth, "is the training they've had at home."

His jokes—popularly known as "Quinisms"—often sprang from current events. In a safe driving campaign a few years ago Bishop Quin's calling cards suddenly had this added line:

"Drive carefully!" it read. "You may hit an Episcopalian."

His humor was often devastating. English clergymen told British congregations Quin's slogan was "Either hatch the eggs or get off the nest."

Once a young minister complained to the bishop that his congregation contained too many "ornery and cantankerous parishioners."

"I wouldn't kick too much if I were you," the bishop told him. "If everyone were perfect, you might not have a job."

On his 30th anniversary the bishop preached his own celebration sermon.

"When I was elected a bishop, I didn't want to become a bishop," he said. "I was not old enough and I didn't have the spiritual capacity or the gumption to be one."

"But I did become a bishop and after 30 years, there is nothing any one can do about it."

In his later years Bishop Quin started wearing a 10-gallon Stetson, which did not seem incongruous with his clerical garb, since the bishop was a tall, rough-hewn man who looked natural in such headwear.

Since his retirement, he referred to himself as "APOB 5."

He said the initials and number after his name stood for "A Episcopalian Church who is out of Passed Out Bishop No. 5. I'm the a job."

Poles Demonstrate Religious Faith

By COLIN FROST

WARSAW (AP)—In the past month Poland has witnessed remarkable demonstration of religious faith Roman Catholics by the thousand packed into churches across the country to pray with their newly freed Primate Stefan Cardinal Wyszyński.

Last Sunday the cardinal preached at three Warsaw churches, including St. John's Cathedral. Each time the crowd flowed over to the sidewalks outside. Inside women fainted in the crush.

These scenes have been repeated at the cardinal's visits to churches in the provinces.

To a nation more than 90 percent Roman Catholic the cardinal appears a symbol of hope that the long years of division between church and state — and factions within the church itself — are ending.

In his sermons the cardinal expresses this hope by using a parable of family life: "If one member of the family is ill at ease then all the family suffers."

The cardinal's three-year confinement, which ended in October, was itself the main barrier to normal church-state relations.

Now a joint commission is examining other issues. The church's demand for freedom of religious education tops the list.

Ranking churchmen are reluctant to discuss these talks until concrete decisions are reached.

But they have a public assurance from the education minister, Wladyslaw Beinkowski, that the government intends to make a reality of the Polish constitution's guarantee of freedom of conscience — and that religious education will be freely allowed "while maintaining the principle of secular schools."

The precise meaning of this last statement is difficult to gauge. It could mean that priests will be allowed to visit schools and give instruction where school authorities and parents request it. But this so far is supposition.

Young children in country districts have had to walk miles in the depth of winter for their Sunday school. The church wants permission to hold Sunday schools in parish rooms or the homes of church members.

Church sources interpret Bienkowski's statement as meaning this will be granted. They think it unlikely the church in Poland will again be able to run its own grade schools, though it still has kindergartens, orphanages and the Catholic University at Lublin.

One issue believed settled is the old state demand for the right of veto on appointment of bishops. This was one of the differences which led to Cardinal Wyszyński's arrest. He contended that if church and state in Poland are separate entities, the state must not seek to meddle in church affairs.

It is reliably reported that the state has agreed to waive the veto.

Parts of the Western territories annexed from Germany after World War II are technically included in German sees. This situation was at one time built up into a big anticlerical propaganda campaign with the Communists charging that the church refused to recognize Poland's right to the lands.

The talks on these and lesser issues are reportedly still in a

Old Canal Joined Red Sea And Nile

By RAMON COFFMAN
The Suez Canal connects the Red Sea and the Mediterranean. Two oceans — the Atlantic and the Indian — were joined by way of those seas.

Q. Why was the name of Suez given to the canal?
A. At the southern end is a small city named Suez, and the name of this city was used for the entire waterway. Suez is a Red Sea port and has a present population of 35 thousand.

Q. How long is the Suez Canal?
A. One hundred and three miles. It should be remembered, however, that several lakes were used to reduce the amount of digging.

Q. Did the ancient Egyptians build a canal on the same route?
A. They built one in the same general area, but it ran westward from the end of the Red Sea, instead of northward. The historian Bredast says that the ancient canal was cut under direction of "the monarchs of the feudal age." It ran to the nearest branch of the Nile River, in the delta of the great stream.

Q. What happened to that canal?
A. It fell out of use and was clogged with desert sand, carried by the winds.

Q. Was any other canal dug in the area during ancient times?
A. Darius, the famous Persian

RED SEA Southern half of present Suez Canal.

emperor, built one along almost the same route. The old one had been filled to such an extent that the Persian canal seemed new. Darius left behind this account:

"I commanded that a canal should be dug from the stream flowing in Egypt, known as the Nile, to the sea which stretches from Persia. This canal was dug, and vessels sailed from Egypt to Persia, according to my will." Darius evidently thought of the Red Sea, the Arabian Sea and the Persian Gulf as parts of a single body of water.

Slavs See Need Of More Red Changes

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia — President Tito's government newspaper told the Russian today events in Hungary and Poland prove they need to change a lot more than just the personality cult.

This latest broadside in the Soviet-Yugoslav feud over Stalinism—or "cult of personality" in the Kremlin diction—came in an editorial in Politika.

The row started with a sharply anti-Stalinist speech by Tito Nov. 11 and a critical reply by Pravda, the news paper of Nikita S. Khrushchev's Soviet Communist party.

"Can all the injustice and crimes against thousands of people of which Khrushchev spoke be explained in this way?" Politika asked. "Would it be Marxist to claim that the deportations and suppressions of entire nations can be explained by some personal feature of Stalin?"

"Stalin could not have performed such a lot of evil to the Soviet society if certain conditions for such a policy of his, if a certain social setup and a certain administrative system had not existed.

"The fact Stalinism is something more than the cult of personality can be proved by those Polish and Hungarian leaders who have openly demonstrated what damage their countries have suffered from the bureaucratic administration and improper relations between the countries of Eastern Europe as they were created in the Stalin era."

The editorial was published on the eve of Republic Day, commemorating the 13th anniversary of the birth of the new Yugoslavia at a political congress called by Tito at the anti-Nazi partisan headquarters in Jajce, a small mountain town. For two days, all offices, factories and shops in the country will be closed.

Boy Shorn Of Presley Haircut

ROMEIO, Mich. — Shorn of his Elvis Presley-style haircut, 16-year-old Robert Phernetton can return to classes at Romeo High School today.

"I'm not happy about it," said Robert after his haircut yesterday. "It'll take years to train my hair again."

Robert was expelled from school Nov. 2 because he refused to comply with a ruling that "Elvis Presley-type haircuts" would not be allowed. Robert's mother, Mrs. Alice Phernetton, took the issue to court and the judge ruled that school officials have the right to set certain standards of personal appearance for students.

She had planned to appeal the decision. But yesterday she gave up the fight.

HOLLYWOOD BEAUTY

Saw Self On Screen, Hurried For A Diet

By LYDIA LANE
HOLLYWOOD — Charles Laughton was the first to discover the talents of Gloria Castillo from Belen, New Mexico.

"He so encouraged me toward acting," Gloria told me over a cup of tea. "That I never used my music-teacher certificate which I received at the University of New Mexico."

"The first time I saw myself on the screen it was so painful that I burst into tears and went on a diet immediately," she confessed. "I lost six pounds in one week."

Considering that Gloria is only five feet one, percentage-wise, this was a lot of weight. I was eager to hear more about this diet but first I wanted to know how she got her start in the movies.

"When 'Runaway Daughters' was being cast, 126 girls were called to be interviewed," recalled Gloria. "I was number 27 and as soon as I read for the part, the director and an executive of Golden State Productions signed me."

"Weren't you lucky," I exclaimed. We picked up our conversation of the wonderful diet on which Gloria lost six pounds in one week. "I had fruit juice and coffee for breakfast," she explained. "For lunch I had low-calorie cottage cheese and a variety of fresh fruit and black coffee."

"At dinner," she continued, "I had lean meat, green salad with vegetable salt and lemon juice, and more coffee. But I supplemented this with vitamin and mineral pills and gelatin. It is a lot of bother mixing the gelatin in water but I find it such a source of energy that I still take it three times a day."

"Gelatin also helps to make strong nails," I remarked. "It is now sold in capsule form."

"Before I found this diet," Gloria continued, "I was told a wonderful way to reduce was to eat a quart of ice cream a day for three days. I love ice cream so I tried it. But when my weight went up instead of down the first day I didn't continue."

"If you exercise when you diet," Gloria suggested, "I think you have more success in losing. I managed to ride my bike every day from my apartment to the studios."

DIET AND ENJOY IT
 Success in dieting depends on your enjoyment of it. If what you eat appeals to your taste and you are allowed to satisfy momentary craving for food you will stay with these menus until you lose weight. Start Now; Make Your Own Christmas Cards

AP Newsfeatures
 Make your own Christmas cards—for all your friends or just those special few. It's lots of fun, and if you get started early you can vary the theme of a basic card as you go along.

It's a good idea to make a card that may lead a double life—both a greeting and a Christmas tree decoration. Put a loop on it—ribbon, thread or wire will do the trick.

A little angel may be made of three triangles cut from paper or felt with pinkish shears. One triangle may form the dress, two others may be taped to her back for wings. The head may be a circle of pink paper. Copper curls are borrowed from a scouring pad. Her arms and legs are red cellophane tape. Write your Christmas greetings on a piece of folded paper, forming a booklet, and tape it to each hand.

Another simple card may be made in the form of a Christmas house. One triangle and four narrow strips of paper may be held together along each side with holiday tape. The greeting is printed — a few words to each strip. The greeting may be written in white ink on red or green strips of construction paper or green ink on red paper or red ink on green paper.

Other simple designs may be made that are just as effective — stars and pine trees in irregular shapes decorated with the bright gift wrap tapes, bits of yarn, toothpicks, pipe cleaners or other appropriate odds and ends that reflect the personality of the sender. The idea for these cards may be utilized, too, for party invitations. A very simple one may be made by cutting heavy colored paper in the shape of a Christmas ornament and then decorating it with colored inks in contrasting colors to resemble one.

If you aren't great shakes at drawing, limit your decoration to a couple of colorful bands across the ornament. The party invitation message may be sandwiched in between these bands of red, green, gold or what have you.

Christmas Cards

They're easy to make with paper, pinkish shears and colorful holiday tape. String them so they may be used as decorations on a Christmas tree.

Adele Cole To Leave For Turkey

Mrs. Adele Cole, one of the "pioneer" employees of the Big Spring VA Hospital, leaves this weekend on the first leg of a journey that will take her to a new job in Ankara, Turkey.

Mrs. Cole will work with the Joint Military Mission for Aid to Turkey when she arrives in Ankara.

She will drive to New York, where she will board an Air Force plane at McGuire AFB Dec. 8 to fly to Turkey. A stop is planned in Germany. She received orders Wednesday to report to the government post in Ankara.

Mrs. Cole came here June 10, 1950, shortly before the formal opening of the VA Hospital. Previously, she worked with the Veterans Administration in Memphis, Tenn.

At the VA Hospital, she has been assistant chief of the registrar's division.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Caughlin have as their guests his mother, Mrs. Simon Caughlin, and his sister, Mrs. Iris LeMaye, both of Houston.

Guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ted O. Groehl are his mother, Mrs. H. C. Brooks, and his aunt, Mrs. E. A. Fletcher, both of San Antonio and Mr. and Mrs. Vick Walker of Estes Park Colo.

Back Talk For The Holidays

Typical of gala new holiday styles are these two dresses cut on slim sheath lines given movement and interest by back panels and drapery. At left is a short evening frock in nylon georgette with jeweled bodice and permanently pleated sash forming winglike panels in back. At right, a slim arrow of a dinner dress in peau-de-soie type fabric of color-sealed acetate, with draped bustline and dramatic flying back panels falling from a single rose.

Change Of Silhouette Marks Feminine Attire

New silhouettes and new fabrics change the holiday fashion picture this year. The straight-as-an-arrow sheath silhouette has been given softness and movement by various devices, chief among them the floating back panel. There's a look of feminine elegance to the dresses that will shine at holiday parties this season, with a new formality. Important in the fashion lineup is a new group of man-made fabrics as well as the standbys, silk, velvet and wool. Sheer nylon georgette is used in gossamer party dresses often employing permanently pleated skirts or trimmings and sparkled with jewel embroidery. Color-sealed acetate gives new brilliance to colors of festive gowns in such luxurious fabrics as synthetic peau-de-soie, taffeta and crepe. The most brilliant season in many years calls for important formal dresses to do justice to holiday festivities.

Lamesa Girl Wed In Welch Baptist Church

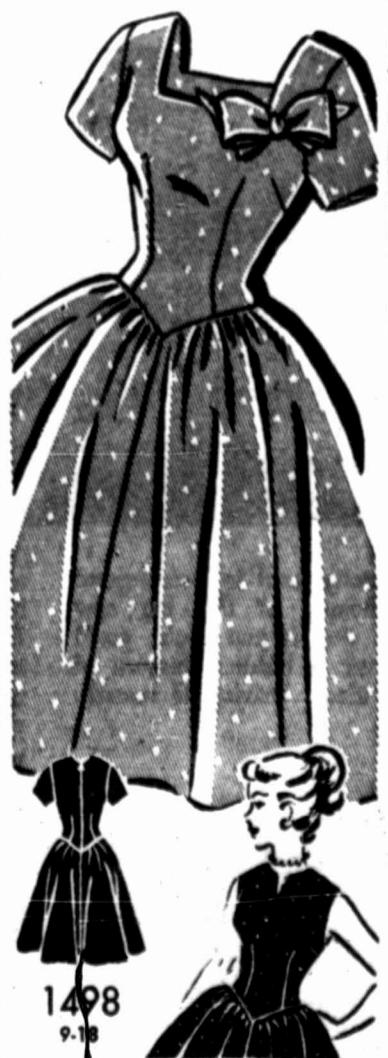

LAMESA — A double ring ceremony, read Nov. 25, united in marriage Joan Newman and Ed Dennis. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Womack of Ft. D. Lamesa, are the parents of the bride. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Brown of Lubbock. The wedding took place in the Welch Baptist Church before an arch flanked by baskets of white mums and greenery. The Rev. O. E. Fuson of Plainview read the ceremony. Mrs. Desrrell Hawker of Carlsbad, N. M., played the traditional wedding dinner Monday evening. Russell Collins, soloist. Coahoma Club Has Dinner Meeting

COAHOMA — The Coahoma 1941 Study Club met in the home of Mrs. Edd Carpenter for the annual Thanksgiving dinner Monday evening with husbands as guests. The table was laid with white linen and centered with an arrangement of fall fruits. Betty Barr was introduced as a new member. Club members drew names for the Christmas party which will be held in the home of Mrs. J. A. Westmoreland with Mrs. Melvin Tindol as cohostess. Members voted to collect toys to be taken to the Carlsbad sanatorium to be used as Christmas gifts. Mrs. Eddie Mann and Mrs. Jack Caudle attended the P-TA convention held in Amarillo recently. Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Williams spent the weekend in Commerce with their children Skeet and Charlene who are enrolled in college there. Mrs. Melvin Tindol spent the weekend in Alpine with her son Bill who is attending Sul Ross. Mrs. Emmitt Cavin of Odessa is here this week at the bedside of her father, C. A. Coffman, who is ill.

Two From Stanton Go To Convention

STANTON — The Rev. W. C. Wright and Tull Ray Louder plan to attend the Baptist Training Union Convention in Wichita Falls, Nov. 29-Dec. 1. Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Christopher have returned from Galveston where they attended the funeral of Mrs. Christopher's mother. Dr. and Mrs. Bill Lively and daughters plan to move to Midland around the first of the year. Dr. and Mrs. Lively moved to Stanton in October 1952. A candlelight initiatory degree was recently conferred by the Stanton Rebekah Lodge on four candidates, Mr. and Mrs. Pal Yates and Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Yates. During the business session of the lodge, plans were made to have the Christmas party, Dec. 10. Election of officers will be held at the next meeting night. Refreshments were served to six visitors and 25 members.

Miss Dunn Is Bride Of Charles S. Currie

COLORADO CITY—Patsy Annette Dunn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Dunn of Midland became the bride of Charles Scott Currie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Currie of Colorado City, at the bride's home, Wednesday. The Rev. Floyd Dunn of Petersburg, Texas, a cousin of the bride, read the double ring ceremony. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white lace and tulle, styled with a closely fitted bodice of lace. It was accented with tiny lace covered buttons down the front and topped with Elizabethan collar. The bride's Juliet cap held a tiered fingertip veil of bridal illusion. She carried white orchids atop a white lace covered Bible. Bennie Houghton of Odessa, a brother-in-law of the bride, was best man, and Mrs. Houghton was matron of honor. Ushers were Charles Richards of Midland, the bride's brother, and Phillip Conaway of Colorado City. The couple was honored at a reception in the home of the bride's parents, who assisted in receiving with Mr. and Mrs. Houghton. The bride's mother wore a dress of blue shantung with pink accessories. The groom's mother wore a suit of black faille accented with mauve accessories. Both wore corsage of gardenias. Charlotte Currie, sister of the bridegroom, served at the registry table. Janice Richards, sister-in-law of the bride, and Nann Welch served at the bride's table. Following a short trip, the couple will be at home in Abilene where the bridegroom is attending McMurry College. The bride is a graduate of Dumas High School; the groom a graduate of Colorado City High School.

Thigpen-LaGrone Vows Exchanged In Lamesa

LAMESA — Before a bridal arch tied with white satin ribbon, Mrs. Barbara LaGrone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Merritt, Lamesa, became the bride of Ben B. Thigpen, New Orleans, La. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Mitchell of Lamesa. Vows were exchanged Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents. The Rev. Ernest Stewart, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiated. Ruth Jones, pianist, accompanied Mrs. Ernest Stewart as she sang, "I Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer". The bride chose for her wedding a tailored suit of toast brown in Irish linen with all-over satin embroidery. Her corsage was of white carnations. She wore a hat of white beaver with her other accessories being black. Karen Merritt was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a white brocaded taffeta dress with a bolero jacket. Her corsage was of pink carnations. Louis Davis was best man. Following the exchange of vows the bride's parents were hosts for the reception. The serving table was laid with white linen with a centerpiece of pink carnations. Mrs. Dale Merritt served the three-tiered wedding cake and Mrs. Derrell Merritt poured.

Trophy Of The Season

L. E. Beene, 545 E. 14th, has a trophy to show for his Christmas shopping. It's not the sort you hang on a wall or put on the mantle, either, but one which will be around for years to come to hold clothing, etc. rather than just memories. Beene, winner of Thursday's Christmas prize given by local merchants, received a cedar chest from C. M. Epps, member of the committee.

200 Cuban Rebels Spark Revolt Try

SANTIAGO DE CUBA (AP)—About 200 armed civilians attacked two police stations here today in an attempt to spark a revolt against President Fulgencio Batista. The government claimed the rebellion was crushed in less than two hours. Three rebels were reported killed. Gen. Francisco Tabernilla, chief of the armed forces, said the situation was under control and that the army was rounding up small groups of dispersed rebels. The insurgents, many of them wearing olive-colored uniforms similar to the army's, attacked the national police and maritime police stations at 5:45 a.m. The group that attacked the national police headquarters withdrew to an abandoned structure next door which formerly had been used as a school and city hall and barricaded itself inside. Before police and soldiers could counterattack, the rebels set fire to the building and fled. Many of the attackers wore armbands identifying themselves as adherents to the "July 26 Movements," a slogan adopted by Fidel Castro, who has been charged by the government with plotting against the Batista regime from his place of exile in Mexico. July 26 is the date in 1953 when Castro led an unsuccessful uprising here and attacked army barracks. Santiago de Cuba, a city of 300,000 and Cuba's second largest, is 500 miles east of Havana and capital of Oriente province which long has been a hotbed of Castro's adherents. The government links Castro with former President Carlos Prío Socarras. Gen. Tabernilla said a soldier guarding a store of dynamite at a construction project in Holguin in Oriente province was wounded when six armed men raided the place. Havana was quiet. But radio stations were warned against spreading rumors.

Spanish Dance Troupe Due

People who like Spanish culture will have a rare entertainment opportunity Sunday when the Carmen Amaya troupe performs in Big Spring. There will be two shows at City Auditorium, a matinee at 2 p.m. and an evening performance at 8 p.m. The program is designed around the flamenco, ancient Spanish dance and music form which found its origin in such diverse regions as Africa, Greece, Egypt, Persia and India. Miss Amaya carries the weight of the show with dances that have been described as "fiery" and "frenetic" in style. Also featured is Sabicas, one of Spain's top guitarists. In addition there will be a complete company of dancers, singers and musicians. Miss Amaya, a full-blooded gypsy, learned her art in caves near Granada inhabited by the gypsies. She brings to Big Spring a noted reputation, with praises from noted experts as Arturo Toscanini, Walter Winchell and Cecil B. DeMille.

No Vote Here On Corn Allotments

There will be an election in many places on Dec. 11 on the question of whether the allotment system should be abandoned in favor of increased acreage for corn, but the election is of no concern to Howard County. The ASC said that farmers in this county do not raise corn and that the issue is of no importance here. No vote will be taken of the date or the election locally, it was stated.

Officials Face Conspiracy Trial

WAGONER, Okla. (AP)—Three prominent Oklahoma officials will go on trial Jan. 14 on charges they conspired to defraud the state by using relief funds to pay political workers in a state Senate runoff primary. Judge Raymond Board overruled yesterday a motion to quash informations against state Sen. John Russell Jr. of Okmulgee; Frank Easley, suspended head of the State Emergency Relief Board; and Jenk Craig, executive assistant to Gov. Raymond Gary.

Someone Will Inspect Beacon

R. H. Weaver, county judge, said Friday morning that he will either personally inspect the airport beacon given to the county by the CAA or dispatch someone to make an inspection within a few days. The beacon is now installed at Mentone in Loving County and is about 20 miles north and west of Wink. The CAA has donated the equipment to the county for erection on the new Howard County airport. It is stipulated that the county must dismantle the beacon and transfer it to this county. When the new half million dollar airport is finished, the beacon will be put in service at the site. The CAA asked that the removal of the beacon from its Mentone location be accomplished within as short a time as possible. Weaver said that the beacon would be stored here until such time as it can be installed at the new county airport.

Howard Wildcat Plugs Back To Run Tests In Canyon Reef

After reaching a total depth of 9,300 feet, operators at the Ashmun-Hillard-US Smelting No. 1 Grantham in Howard County have plugged back to 9,080 feet to run tests. The plug-back depth is in the Canyon. Five and a half-inch casing has been run, and activity is now waiting until cement anchors the casing to continue the tests. Standard No. 1-1 Blue is still fishing at 2,970 feet. It is a Jo-Mill (Canyon) try about six miles north of Ackerly, 467 feet from north and east lines of the west half, 24-34-4n, T&P Survey. In the Mungerville Southeast field, Humble No. 1 Hemphill drilled to 6,812 feet in lime. Location is 660 feet from north and east lines, Labor 31, League 3, Taylor CSI, Survey. Humble No. 2 Lane, in the Jo-Mill (Spraberry) field, made 43 barrels of load oil, cut 84 per cent water, in 48 hours. Perforations are between 4,630-74 feet. Location is 3,100 feet from north and 1,800 feet from west lines, 45-33-5n, T&P Survey.

She had been ill for the past 15 months, seriously for 10 days. Funeral services will be conducted at 10 a.m. Saturday at the Ellis Funeral Home in Midland. Burial will be in a Midland cemetery beside the grave of Mr. Rice who died in 1954. Rev. Jim Goins, Midland, and Rev. Church, Stanton, will officiate. Four other sons survive. They are O. B. Rice, Arlington; Fred Rice, Kerrville; Ed Davis, Midland; and Charles Davis, Wichita Falls. Fourteen grandchildren and 28 great-grandchildren also survive, including Mrs. James Caudle, Mrs. Harry Weeg and Marvin Standifer, all of Big Spring.

Only One Mishap Occurs Thursday

A quiet Thursday morning saw only one accident in Big Spring. It occurred at 700 Main and involved William J. Crow, Luther, and Patricia Ann Johnson, 212 Dixie. Crow was driving a 1956 Buick and Miss Johnson was in a 1953 Chevrolet. He told them that his dad was not at home so he thought he'd just keep the car until he returned. Meanwhile he had driven it quite a distance. With the police at the time was the juvenile officer, A. E. Long, and the youth was turned over to him, and the car went back to Metcalf. The car had not been damaged, the police said.

Filing Deadline On Tax Put Off

Deadlines for filing on the users tax for heavy vehicles has been extended once more. Ben Hawkins of the Internal Revenue Service said Friday that the tax, effective last July on motor vehicles with gross weight exceeding 26,000 pounds, must now be paid not later than Jan. 31, 1957, for the period July through November. The tax was set up to be payable monthly for the month preceding. However, forms (2290) for returns have not been received from the government printing office, and as a result the deadline time has been extended.

Mercury Fails To Hit Freezing

The weatherman's guess at the low temperature for last night in Big Spring missed the mark by nine degrees. Prediction had been made that a low of 28 would be reached early this morning. The lowest the mercury dropped was 37 degrees. High on Thursday was 58 degrees. Warmer weather was forecast for Friday afternoon, Friday night and Saturday. The high today is set at 68 and the low tonight at 37. There will be some settling of dust during this afternoon, it was predicted.

Prisoners Served Turkey, Trimmings

Twenty-eight "guests" of Jess Slaughter, sheriff, ate turkey with all the fixings on Thursday in celebration of Thanksgiving Day. The 28 served are the prisoners in the Howard County jail. Sheriff Slaughter said that the prisoners were served the same meal that he ate. "Never had a better Thanksgiving dinner," solemnly asserted a prisoner who was being released from custody this morning. "We really ate!"

Mom Due Hearing In Morals Case

CHEYENNE, Wyo. (AP)—A hearing will be held Tuesday for Mrs. Maxine Munson, 33, charged with contributing to the delinquency of a minor in a teen-age morals case.
Mrs. Munson, held in jail in lieu of $2,500 bond, is accused of encouraging two teen-age girls, one her daughter, to commit immoral acts with airmen.
Statutory rape charges have been filed against Emmett Bolt, 19.

Churchill Marks His 82nd Birthday

By EDDY GILMORE
LONDON (AP)—Sir Winston Churchill celebrated his 82nd birthday today, more feeble physically than 12 months ago but still possessed of a bright and magnificent mind.
The wartime Prime Minister spent his birthday much as any other man of his years and wealth. He stayed late in bed reading greetings from all over the world. He thumbed through his newspapers, had a light breakfast and got up shortly before noon.
A friend emphasized that Sir Winston was a physically very feeble and that he walked slowly and only with difficulty.
"He hates to talk about his health, or his advancing years," said the friend, "and when he posed with Lady Churchill for his official birthday photograph yesterday, he was nervous and jumpy."
Half way through the picture-taking, Sir Winston blinked, then grabbed the arm of a sofa and struggled, with difficulty, to his feet.
When Lady Churchill and a secretary tried to help him, he waved them away, saying gruffly: "No, no, I shall do it myself."
"Sir Winston," called out a photographer as he flicked his lens, "I hope to take your picture on your 100th birthday."
Turning slowly, Churchill stared at the photographer for fully 30 seconds and then replied in the tone that has withered many an adversary: "I see no reason why you shouldn't young man—you look hale and hearty enough."
A friend close to Sir Winston said he has given no intimation of any plans to retire from Parliament at any time soon, as has been rumored frequently.
Sir Winston agreed to attend two birthday parties—a luncheon with his younger grandchildren at his London home and a dinner at his country home, Chartwell, 30 miles from London, with his older grandchildren and children.

Shaver Attorneys Request Reversal

AUSTIN (AP)—Attorneys for Jimmy Shaver, twice convicted of raping and killing a child, 3, asked the Court of Criminal Appeals Wednesday for a reversal and a new trial.
Former Airman Shaver was convicted again in March at Belton in the death of Chere Jo Horton of San Antonio, July 3, 1954, and given the death sentence. The Court of Criminal Appeals reversed a death sentence handed down earlier.

Riesel Judge Sets Hearing

NEW YORK (AP)—The judge in the case involving the acid attack on Victor Riesel will hold a hearing today on admissibility of grand jury testimony by Gondolfo Miranti, one of the three defendants.
Federal Judge William B. Herlands yesterday dismissed until Monday the jury hearing the trial of Miranti, Domenico Bando and Leo Telvi.
The prosecution wants to put in evidence 42 typewritten pages of testimony purported to be statements by Miranti made before a grand jury last Sept. 6.
The defense claims such testimony was not voluntary.
Riesel was blinded with acid by an assailant near a Broadway restaurant the morning of April 3. His alleged attacker, Abe Telvi, brother of Leo, later was found shot to death on a lower East Side Street.

Played-Out Oil Wells May Become Radioactive Dumps

TAMPA (AP)—Played-out oil wells may become ash-cans for radioactive rubbish.
A nuclear scientist told the Florida Academy of Sciences yesterday that disposal of radioactive waste will become an urgent problem when commercial atomic energy plants really get into production. Dr. Walter Zonn said ocean beds and old oil wells are possible dumping-spots, but he said that only research will provide a satisfactory solution.
Radioactive waste from current atomic energy plants is bound in concrete blocks, shielded by clay or otherwise pent up by means too expensive for practical large scale use.

Shows Improvement

Charlie Creighton, gored in the thigh by a Hereford bull on his ranch last Tuesday afternoon, is making satisfactory recovery at the Malone and Hogan Hospital. It was reported Friday morning Creighton suffered a 10-inch wound when the bull lashed at him with its horn as he was leading the animal from a pen on the Creighton ranch.

NOW YOU CAN GET the "Real Thing" in Hi-Fi ready to plug in and play for $100 LESS

Engineers and record collectors "in the know" have been assembling their own custom music systems in order to get a more lifelike performance no conventional set can give.
Now you too can have the same type of equipment, fully assembled, ready to plug in and play—and for $100 less than it would cost the hi-fi hobbyist to do it himself!
Best of all, you get a system that's built to specifications by a great audio research laboratory, from its diamond stylus to its separate speaker system. There's no danger of money and time being wasted on components that are not properly matched.

- Automatic 3-speed record changer
- Separate speaker system
- Diamond stylus outlasts 30 sapphires
- Uses famous Williamson-type circuit
- Wired for TV, FM and tape

Visit Disneyland

Mr. and Mrs. D. F. White and son, Donnie, are shown in front of the TWA "rocket ship to the moon" at Disneyland, Anaheim, Calif. The Whites, of 908 E. 15th, took the 12-minute rocket ride as scientists predict it will be made to the moon in 1965. They also visited other attractions of Disneyland.

Bonds Are Set For Burglary Suspects

Bonds in the amount of $2,000 each have been set for Keith Hankins and Donald Douglas Wilkerson, who are charged with burglary in the court of justice Walter Grice.

The two men are accused in the complaints with having attempted to burglarize the Newsum Food Store on Gregg. They were apprehended by city police.

HOSPITAL NOTES

BIG SPRING HOSPITAL
Admissions — Johnnie Kluck, 1516 Vines; Frank Morgan, 1004 E. 14th; Sheila Brewer, 511 NW 11th; Mildred Wright, 1204 Ridge-road; Robert Halbrook, 1111 Wood; Danny Hart, 904 1/2 E. 12th. Dismissals — Patsy Ferguson, Rt. 2; Veta Nuttall, 111 Jefferson; Consuela Amaro, 502 NW 3rd; Joe Howerton, City; Dr. Jordan Grooms, City; Joyce Sellers, Se-guin.

The overwhelming majority of Big Springs who answered a Chamber of Commerce questionnaire like to live here and believe that the city schools, police and fire departments are doing a "good job."

But they also think that services and merchandise offered by local businesses could be improved and that one of the city's greatest needs is acceptance of civic responsibility on the part of its citizens.

The answers of approximately 100 families to a list of 20 questions posed by the Chamber of Commerce in a community services survey have been summarized and are being distributed to members of the organization. About 250 of the questionnaires were mailed to Big Spring and Howard County residents several weeks ago and around 100 responded.

Their answers make up the summary which is being offered to merchants and others for use "to your best advantage."

Eighty-eight of the families answering the questionnaire said they like living in Big Spring. Seventy said they believe the local schools are doing a good job, 63 said they think the police department is performing satisfactorily and 94 replied that they think the fire department is doing a good job.

The largest number — 47 — said they think the city's greatest need is for additional recreational facilities. Forty-three said the most pressing need is for acceptance of civic responsibility.

Other "needs" mentioned and the number of votes each received were a better youth program, 33; city beautification, 27; school improvements, 26; better shopping facilities, 18; and release of commercial sites now unavailable, two.

In answering 13 questions on shopping facilities, merchandise available here, prices, etc., the 100 families ruled that Big Spring is "about the same" as comparable towns.

Sixty-three said prices here are about the same as in other cities, while 34 thought they are higher and none thought they are lower. Fifty-seven found selection of merchandise in Big Spring comparable to that in other cities, 10 thought local offerings are better, and 31 said better selections are available elsewhere.

Big Spring stores are usually as comfortable, clean and pleasant as those in other cities, said 71 of the answers. Twenty-one said local stores are better and four said they are not as good.

Forty-eight families reported they approve of the city-wide special sales days, 37 "not especially," and 13 not at all. Thirty-eight thought a wider variety of merchandise would better improve the service of local merchants, 29 favored more courtesy and customer comfort, and three voted for parking facilities.

Big Spring merchants keep customers informed about their prices through advertising about as well as do firms in other towns, said 82 of the answers.

But some Big Springers shop in other towns, mainly because they can obtain a better selection of merchandise (31), to combine shopping with entertainment and recreation (30), and because they can buy for lower prices (14).

Other towns favored for shopping are Lubbock, Dallas, Midland, San Angelo, Fort Worth and Abilene, in that order, the answers showed.

Most common items purchased in other towns are clothing (73), furniture (55), and shoes (44). All but 17 of those answering the questionnaires have lived here for six years or longer.

Acree Reserve Sign-Up To Close

Today marks the deadline for farmers to sign up to participate in the Acree Reserve program for the current year, the local office of the ASC announced.

A considerable number of Howard County landowners have signed to take part in the program and it is expected that others will probably do so when the sign-up period for the 1957 interval opens. Land listed in the current program will be taken out of production through 1961. ASC said that it was probably the next sign-up period would open soon after Jan. 1.

Play With Matches Blamed For Fire

A group of children playing with matches started the only fire reported to the fire department Thursday.

It occurred on a vacant lot however, and no damage was done. The fire was at 1100 W. 2nd.

Texas Tech Aggies Minding Manners

LUBBOCK (U)—The 850 Texas Tech Aggies are minding their manners with good reason.

The other two students of the School of Agriculture are attractive girls.

They are Marilyn Floeck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Floeck of College Station, and Perry Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. I. Thompson of Houston.

Marilyn, a senior horticulture major, is planning to be a landscape architect. She has a wide variety of interests.

"As long as I can remember I've been planting things," Marilyn says. "I decided when I was a junior in A&M Consolidated High School to major in floriculture, and changed to horticulture when I came to Tech."

Naturally, her hobbies include flower arrangements. She belongs to Alpha Phi Sorority.

Perry Thompson, a freshman animal husbandry major, chose the Agriculture School because "I've always been interested in it. When I was little we lived in the country and then my godparents gave me my first horse."

"I wanted to take agriculture in high school, but girls weren't allowed to at Lamar High School. A lot of my courses are new to me because of not having had agriculture in high school, but I really like Tech," Perry says.

Perry is a pledge of Zeta Tau Alpha and a member of the Aggie and Rodeo clubs. Her hobby is rodeoing in any form.

Pretty Aggies

Perry Thompson (left), of Houston, whose hobby is rodeoing, gives some rope pointers to Marilyn Floeck of College Station, both students at Texas Tech in Lubbock. Eight hundred and fifty-five Texas Tech Aggies are minding their manners with good reason — for the other two members of the School of Agriculture student body are these two attractive girls.

Reds Use Tanks Against Refugees

VIENNA (U)—The Russians today were reported using tanks in their fight to stop the flow of refugees from revolt-torn Hungary but the total number of fugitives to reach free Austria passed the 100,000 mark.

Austrian security officials reported that Russian tanks came within a mile of the frontier during the night in the area west of Sopron, Hungary. Shortly after, the Austrians reported, groups of refugees were fired on.

The Austrians said they could not estimate the number of casualties. It was believed to be the first time the Russians had used their tanks against the refugees. Soviet troops also continued to mine the border area, and refugees who made it over reported some of their friends had to be left behind after they stepped on mines and were injured.

Traffic Death Toll Takes An Amazing Drop

CHICAGO (U)—The nation's traffic death toll has taken a sharp drop — a turn the National Safety Council calls "amazing."

The council reported today that motor vehicle fatalities slumped 12 per cent in October.

It stated that the abrupt downturn:

Halted a rise that had extended through 19 consecutive months.

Completely reversed the normal seasonal trend.

Set up a chance to keep the 1956 total from reaching record heights.

Deaths on the streets and roads in October numbered 3,450. That was 12 per cent under the number who died in October, 1955. And it was the lowest toll for any October since 1949.

"Not since January of 1948," the council said, "had traffic deaths been reduced as much as 12 per cent in any month."

Usually fatalities are higher in October than in any preceding month of a year.

Council statisticians said that, if the rising trend of the first nine months of this year had carried through October, the October death total would have been about 800 higher.

"Credit for this improvement," stated Ned H. Dearborn, council president, "must go mainly to the average driver and pedestrian, and certainly to alert public officials who were alarmed over the fact that the traffic accident problem was getting out of hand."

"We are getting action."

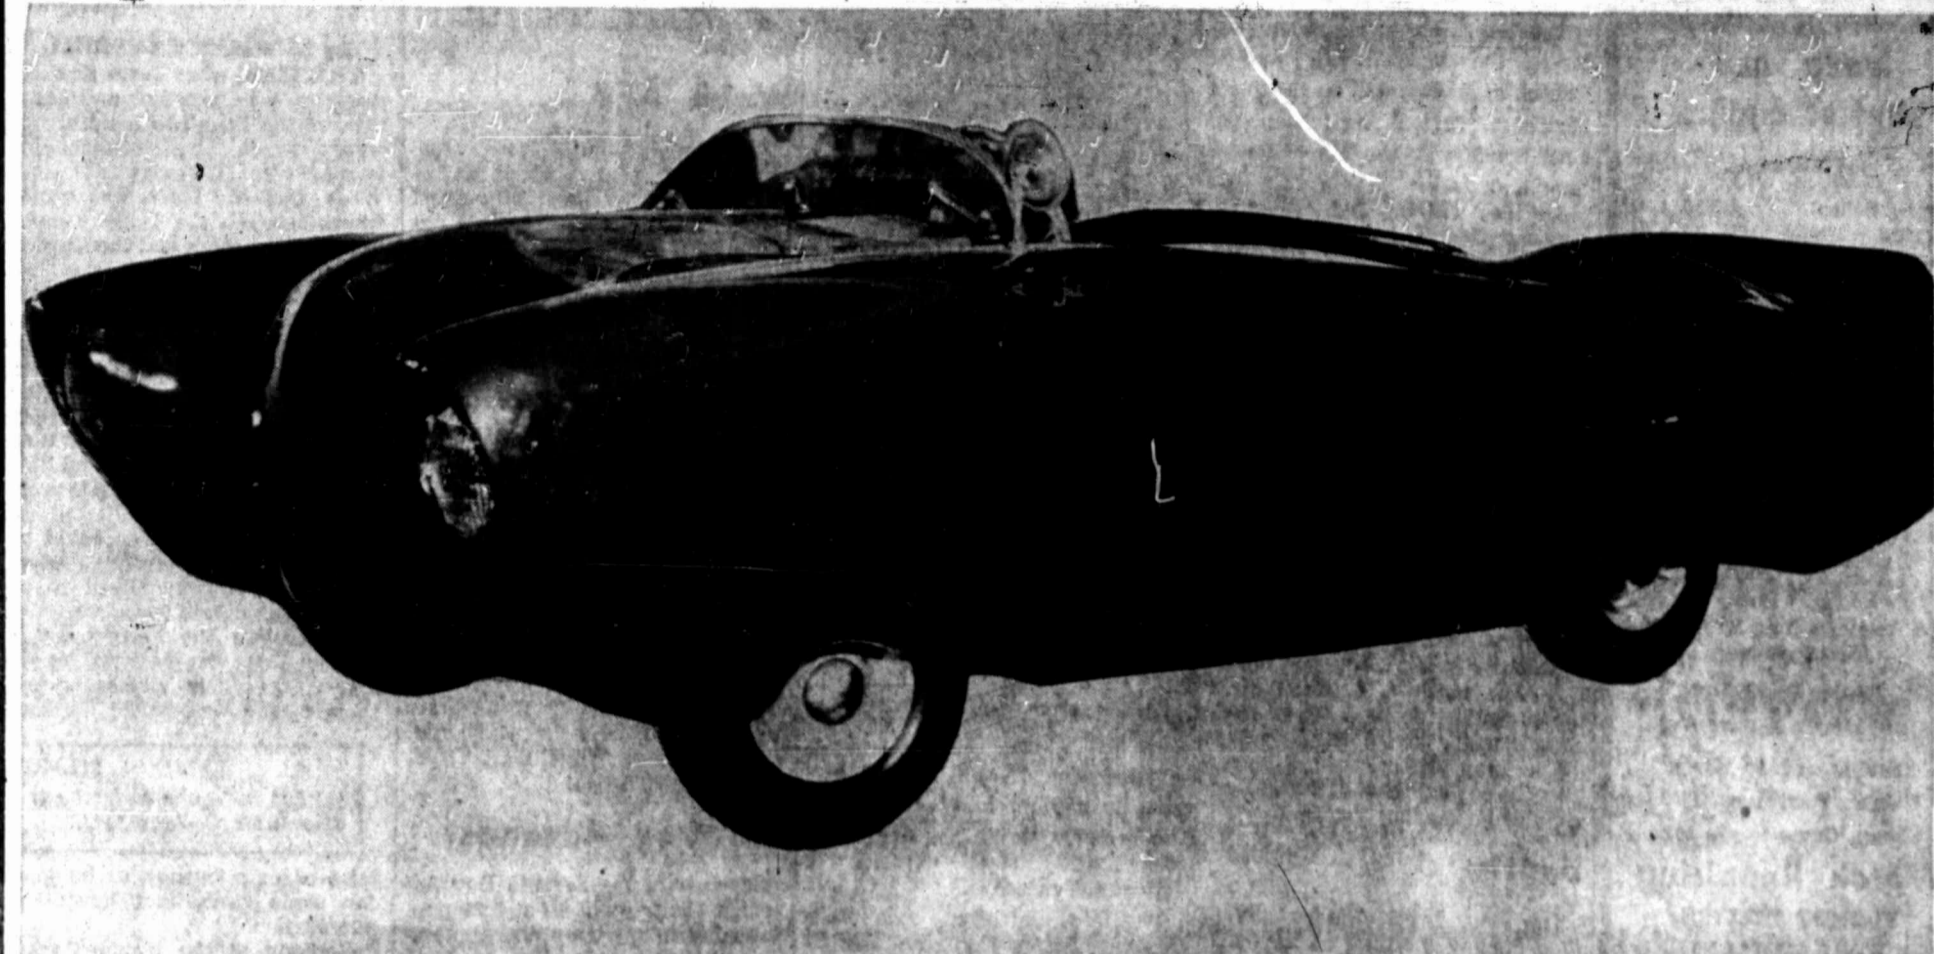

Traffic fatalities in the first 10 months of this year added up to 32,420. The total was 5 per cent higher than in corresponding period of 1955. But at the end of nine months it was 8 per cent higher.

Dearborn said the October improvement had not eliminated the possibility that the 1956 total would top the record of 39,696 killed in 1941. But he added:

"We are almost certain now that the toll will be well under 41,000. A couple of months ago it looked as if it might reach 42,000."

The council noted that the October decrease was spread out through all regions of the country.

Mystery Air Base Revealed

ADELAIDE, Australia (U)—A mystery U.S. Air Force team has been based in the hills just outside Alice Springs, central Australia, for the past four years, the Adelaide News said today.

It speculated whether the team—No. 421 USAF Unit—was the spearhead of an eventual rocket test team to be situated in Australia.

The team arrived in 1952 when a Globemaster transport landed top secret crates of equipment, the paper said. Personnel of the unit was changed during the past four years but its headquarters 10 miles from Alice Springs is as tightly shut as ever. The report said it is known camp installations include highly specialized radar tracking instruments which are not only suitable for following radioactive cloud conditions resulting from U.S. hydrogen bomb tests, but could form the nucleus of equipment for rocket tracking.

Scriptural selections will include Paul's statement to the Galatians (3:21): "Is the law then against the promises of God? God forbid: for if there had been a law given which could have given life, verily

Let Not Your Hearts Be Troubled

BELIEVE IN GOD, AND IN CHRIST.

Scripture—John 14.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL
THE TIME when Jesus and His disciples were together and Jesus uttered the beautiful, comforting words which constitute today's lesson, was Thursday of Holy Week, and the place was somewhere between the Lord's Supper in the upper room and the Garden of Gethsemane.

Christ had convinced the Apostles that He was going to leave them, and they were very sad-hearted and in need of comfort and guidance. We can imagine that they wondered what they would do without Him; how they could carry on His work and how terribly they would miss His presence with them?

The younger children could be reminded of their feelings when their mother was obliged to be absent from home for some time; how desolate the house seemed without her; it was no longer home. Or their sadness again, and receive you unto Myself; that where I am, there ye may be also."

How many troubled hearts have been soothed by those words of our Lord's, although nearly 2,000 years have passed since He pronounced them. Learned in Sunday school, the children will doubtless console themselves with them later in their lives when they encounter the problems of life.

Jesus then said, "And whither I go, ye know, and the way ye know."

Further Jesus said: "I will not leave you comfortless; I will come to you. Yet a little while, and the world seeth Me no more, but ye see Me; because I live, ye shall live also."

"He that hath My commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth Me; and he that loveth Me shall be loved of My Father, and I will love him, and will manifest Myself to him."

Jesus promised that the Holy Spirit would come to His Apostles and comfort them after He was gone, and "He shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you."

"Peace I leave with you, My peace I give unto you; not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid."

take a long journey to be gone for some time, and how they missed him.

Looking at the troubled faces of these men who had been His close friends and helpers during His ministry, Jesus said: "Let not your heart be troubled; ye believe in God, believe also in Me."

Then He said: "In My Father's house are many mansions; if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto Myself; that where I am, there ye may be also."

THE ANSWER IS GOD!

WORSHIP HIM IN CHURCH EVERY SUNDAY . . . AT HOME EVERY DAY . . .

THE NEXT STEP

The speed of modern life tempts us to think of our goals and to forget the importance of a single step. But the men who scale the highest peaks concentrate on one step at a time.

There seem to be plenty of folks with noble aspirations who rarely go to Church. Some of them may reach their goals; but legion are the others whose "one false step" starts an avalanche of broken hopes.

The steady, sincere, every-Sunday church-goer usually has noble aspirations and a far better chance of achieving them! He has learned to study each step by faith and prayer . . . to test the ground on which he treads . . . to climb with others in a common quest of the summits of life.

Destiny depends on the next step!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

A&M Wins First SW Crown In 15 Years

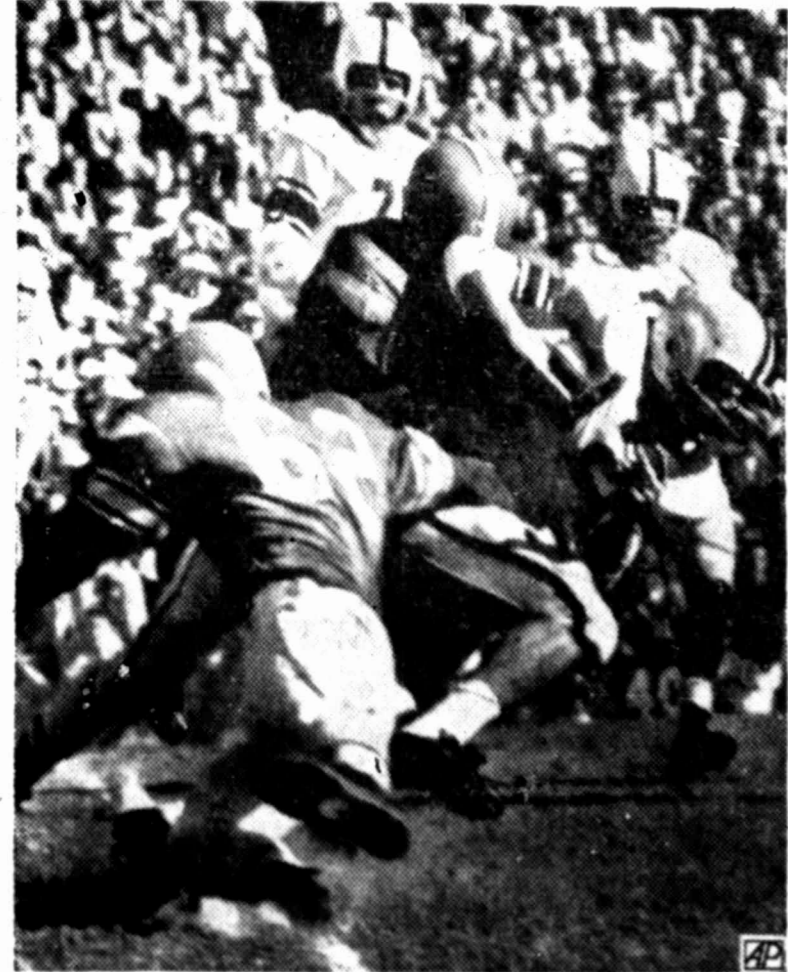

AUSTIN (AP) — Texas A&M beat Texas 34-21 to smash an ancient jinx, wop the Southwest Conference football championship after 15 years of trying and wound up as the only undefeated team in the conference in a decade yesterday.

As 62,000 looked on, the versatile Aggies wiped out a 32-year-old jinx as they slashed to victory in Memorial Stadium.

Roddy Osborne quarterbacked the Aggies, and teamed with Jack Pardee, John Crow, Loyd Taylor and George Gillar to run the Longhorns into the ground.

It was the first victory by A&M in this stadium since it was built in 1924.

Ed Price, Texas coach, was sending his last team into battle. He had resigned several weeks before.

Osborne On The Move

Roddy Osborne (12) Texas A&M quarterback, drives through the University of Texas line for a 9-yard gain before being stopped by Don Wilson (62) center and J. T. Sealmon (79) tackle, of Texas. The play was in the first quarter of the annual Thanksgiving Day game played in Austin. (AP Wirephoto).

The Aggies took the lead the first time they had the ball and stayed ahead all the way although Texas twice drew within a touchdown in the last minutes of the game.

The Longhorns were driving toward what appeared to be another touchdown but were stopped by a pass interception.

Crow ran 27 yards for one touchdown. Osborne made two touchdowns of four yards each and Pardee staged a one-man surge when he took a kickoff back 85 yards then cracked over from eight yards out for a score. Gillar got the other Aggie counter with a 1-yard blast.

Star of Texas was Bob Bryant, a pass-catching wingman who took two throws from Joe Clements for touchdowns. Walter Fondren, the Mr. Everything for Texas, ran 43 yards for the other.

Texas A&M 7 13 14 0-34
Texas 0 14 0 7-21

Texas A&M scoring—touchdowns: Crow (27, run), Pardee (8, run), Osborne 2 (4, plunge; 4, plunge), Gillar (1, plunge). Conversions: Taylor 3, Conrad 2.

Texas scoring—touchdowns: Bryant 2 (14, pass-run from Clements); 10, pass from Clements; Fondren (43, run). Conversions: Fondren 3.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

When SMU swept the boards in Southwest Conference basketball play last season, it marked the first time since 1947 that a team won all of its league starts, when Texas turned the trick.

Since 1928, when the conference first had its present membership, only three teams have gone through undefeated.

Whiteface, coached by the former Big Springer, Emmett Broderick, won its bi-district football game with Happy on first downs only to lose out in the court room.

It turned out Whiteface played a boy who was attending his 11th semester of high school, which is contrary to Texas Inter-scholastic League regulations.

As a result, Happy gets to play Wheeler in this week's regional finals.

If I had to pick a District 2-AAAA football winner for next year this early, it would have to be San Angelo.

Graduation practically wipes out Abilene's great team. It hits Midland very hard, too. San Angelo gets hurt, losing nine of the 11 boys that started against Abilene. However, the Bobcats return some stellar linemen plus some fine backfield replacements.

San Angelo fielded one of the finest B teams in the area, too.

Odessa could be a factor but no one now can forecast the impact the new high school over there will have on the football fortunes of the Bronchos.

The new school will be composed in the main of Latin-American boys but students from the south part of the county should and probably will attend classes out there. The only high schools found in Ector County are in Odessa.

Big Spring, with a dozen returning lettermen, will be a pushover for 2-AAAA team next year.

Big Spring will benefit, in time, from its fine junior high school team. You must remember this, however. Big Spring has only one junior high school, whereas Midland has two, Odessa three, San Angelo two and Abilene three.

With junior high boys, one can usually count on one-third of the players making, one-third quitting and the other third going on to play high school ball in the same town. That means one-third of the junior high boys will still be here when they finish high school.

In the other schools in the conference, you can bank on the same ratio but, you add the fractions together, and you get anywhere from two-thirds to a whole team.

Big Spring has another junior high school on the planning board but it probably won't field a football team before 1958, if by then.

One thing working in Big Spring's favor in football: Odessa is already planning toward a third high school. Progress is going to force new high schools on Abilene and Midland inside of four or five years, San Angelo has to share its students with Lake View.

There will be no need for a new high school here within the foreseeable future.

Sundown's football successes over the years may have influenced another coach in that area to resign.

Wilson Head, mentor at Denver City, says he's through as a coach after this year.

Head reportedly has been under fire in Denver City for some time.

Local Junior High Teams Open On Road Next Week

All three Big Spring Junior High School basketball teams face busy campaigning this season.

The three Yearling quintets open Monday night in Sweetwater, with the first contest down for 6 p.m.

The quintets play their first home games here Thursday, Dec. 6, at which time they host Andrews.

Six games are on tap for the Ninth Graders before the Christmas holidays. The Eighth and Seventh Graders see action five times before the Christmas recess.

The Ninth Graders will compete in tournaments at Odessa and Midland, as well as play host to area schools in their own meet Feb. 8-9.

The Eighth Grade contingent will enter a tourney in Snyder Jan. 25-26.

The schedule:

Dec. 3—at Sweetwater, 6:00, 7, 8, 9
Dec. 6—Andrews here, 5:30, 7, 8, 9
Dec. 8—Corden at Midland, 6:30, 8
Dec. 10—Lamesa here, 2:30, 9, 8, 7
Dec. 13—Sweetwater here, 6:00, 7, 8, 9
Dec. 17—Snyder here, 2:30, 9, 8, 7
Jan. 7—at Colorado City, 6:00, 7, 8, 9
Jan. 10—at Snyder, 3:30, 7, 8, 9
Jan. 12—at Lamesa, 2:30, 8, 7, 9
Jan. 17—Colorado City here, 6:00, 7, 8, 9
Jan. 20—at Odessa Tournament, 9th Grade
Jan. 20 Snyder Tournament, 8th Grade
Feb. 1 & 2 Midland Tournament, 9th Grade
Feb. 4—at Andrews, 6:30, 7, 8, 9

Bowl Lineups May Be Known By Saturday

By BOB HOORING
The Associated Press

Navy and Baylor will try to oblige bowl scouts tomorrow while Texas A&M fans mourn the plight of the best Aggie team since 1939.

For the third year in a row, it appears Navy will be playing for a bowl invitation against Army in their traditional battle before an expected 100,000 in Philadelphia's Municipal Stadium.

The Midshipmen went on to the Sugar Bowl to whack Mississippi 21-0 two years ago but lost a chance at the Cotton Bowl last year when the Cadets posted a 14-6 upset.

Cotton Bowl officials have their eyes on Navy again this time according to reliable reports.

The host team in Dallas will be Texas Christian because Texas A&M, which completed an unbeaten season by thumping Texas 34-21 yesterday, is ineligible for postseason competition under an NCAA ban for recruiting.

Baylor is a popular choice to meet Tennessee in the Sugar Bowl though neither have been selected officially. The Baylor Bears play Rice tomorrow. Tennessee risks an unbeaten, untied season and the Southeastern Conference championship against Vanderbilt.

Tennessee is sure to be invited to one bowl.

Of 10 positions in the five major bowls, six are still open.

Here's the setup:
Rose—Iowa vs. Oregon State.
Orange—Colorado vs. Clemson.
Duke or South Carolina. The Atlantic Coast Conference will choose its representative Sunday after ACC champion Clemson plays Furman. The ACC doesn't have to pick the titlist and the Tigers didn't win any Orange Bowl friends in its recent 21-0 loss to Miami's Hurricanes.

Sugar: Both unnamed. Probably Tennessee vs. Baylor with Georgia Tech and Houston also under consideration.

Cotton: Texas Christian vs. Navy. Syracuse, Georgia Tech or, possibly, Tennessee.

Gator: Georgia Tech, or Mississippi vs. Navy, Baylor, Pitt, Syracuse or Wyoming.

It is evident plenty rides on tomorrow's encounters.

In addition to the Tennessee, Navy, Baylor and Clemson games, Georgia Tech meets Georgia, Mississippi faces Mississippi State and Houston runs into weak Detroit.

Ackerly Teams Win 3 Games

ACKERLY (SC) — Ackerly basketball teams swept three games from Forsan here Thursday night.

The Ackerly boys warmed up after a slow first half to subdue the Buffs, 66-60. The Eagles trailed, 16-10, at the end of the first period and 30-27 at half time but the home club counted 26 points in the next eight minutes of play and never trailed thereafter.

Ackerly won the girls' game, 53-19. The triumph was the Eagles' fifth in six starts.

Wanda Williams accounted for 19 of Ackerly's points. Dorothy Williams had 14, Eva Sue James and Jamie Kunkle nine each and Janice Bearden two.

The Eagle B team also prevailed, 22-21.

Buster Grigg accounted for 12 of Ackerly's points. Duffer scored 13 to lead Forsan.

L'field, Wichita Falls And Crane Record Wins

By The Associated Press

Abilene, scourge of Texas schoolboy football for two seasons, makes its start toward a third straight Class AAAA championship Friday.

The Eagles blast at lightly regarded Ysleta in a first round playoff at Abilene.

Dallas Highland Park and Wichita Falls won opening games Thursday and six more quarterfinalists will be determined Friday and Saturday.

Class AAA, with Littlefield already in the quarter-finals through a 20-13 victory over Andrews Thursday, has seven games Friday and Saturday.

Classes AA and A are deciding quarterfinalists. Crane got three Thursday with a 21-7 victory over Coleman while Deer Park slapped Devine 46-14 in AA. Deer Park, unbeaten in four seasons, are favored to reach the finals.

In Class A, Stinnett, state favorite, blasted Farwell 32-0 and Mart upset Gaston 20-7 Thursday.

Wichita Falls was awesome in a 28-7 conquest of Tyler. Harold Morgan was the mainspring, scoring two touchdowns and passing for one. Morgan and David Allred ran Tyler into the ground.

Highland Park remained undefeated and untied through 11 games by whipping Dallas Crozer Tech 21-6. Highland Park meets Wichita Falls in Dallas Dec. 8.

Jack Collins and Robert Mighill led Highland Park. Collins ran 58 yards for one touchdown and scored another on a 2-yard blast. Mighill raced 80 yards for the other counter.

Three AAAA first round games are scheduled Friday with Ysleta at Abilene as the feature. Houston Sam Houston and Houston Lamar clash at Denton. Bonham and Gilmer at Paris. Brady at Hillsboro. Giddings at Navasota and Sinton and Hebronville at Falfurrias.

Five games are scheduled Friday in the Class A second round with Merkel and Sonora meeting at San Angelo. Eastland and Henrietta at Wichita Falls. Groveton and Humble at Huntsville. Hondo at Bastrap and Hallettsville and Bishop at Refugio.

Wilmer-Hutchins and Linden complete the second round at Commerce Saturday.

S'West Scrap Ends Saturday

By The Associated Press

The Southwest Conference football campaign grinds to a stop Saturday with everything settled except who's going to finish second, who's going to be the leading ball carrier and other minor matters.

Texas A&M beat Texas 34-21 Thursday to win the championship and finish the campaign undefeated but once tied. This apparently ended the season for the Aggies.

They are talking about contesting an NCAA ruling that prohibits them from playing in the Cotton Bowl but they'll have to hurry.

TCU lashes at SMU at Dallas, needing to win to insure a clear second. The Horned Frogs already are in the Cotton Bowl.

At Waco, Baylor will be driving for a spot in the Sugar Bowl. The Bears, with a 7-2 record, are in a strong position to make the New Orleans New Year's Day classic if they beat Rice in their final game.

Baylor could tie TCU for second place in the conference race by defeating Rice while TCU lost to SMU.

Tommy Gentry of SMU will have to catch only two passes to take first place in receiving. Bob Bryant of Texas caught three Thursday and has 24 for the season. Gentry has 23. In third place is Fondren with 22 and fourth is Swink with 19.

Moore, Patterson Bid For Heavy Title

By JERRY LISKA
CHICAGO (AP) — For the third time in modern ring history, a vacated world heavyweight title is up for grabs at the Chicago Stadium tonight in a showdown between two unique contenders, 39-year-old Archie Moore and 21-year-old Floyd Patterson.

ARCHIE MOORE
Record Assured

They battle for Rocky Marciano's abdicated crown. Latest odds were 6 to 5, pick 'em, in this 15-round bout. A gross gate of $250,000 with 18,000 attendance is indicated.

A new age record for a heavyweight champ is certain because Moore, reigning light heavyweight champion, can become the oldest to win boxing's biggest bauble or Patterson can become the youngest. To date, Jersey Joe Walcott was the oldest winner at 37 and Joe Louis the youngest at 23.

Moore must nail Patterson early or his aging legs will fall him against Patterson's fast pace in the late rounds.

As for Patterson, two things remain to be proved — can he take a real punch and will his mended right hand stand up if he takes a Sunday swing with it at Moore. Patterson has not had a bout since he broke his hand against Jackson.

The contracts call for each fighter to get 30 per cent of the gate and $200,000 TV-radio rights, a potential melon of nearly $450,000.

Soviet Fems' Surge Is Offset In Decathlon

By TED SMITS
MELBOURNE (AP) — American handymen Mill Campbell and Rafe Johnson rang up 15 United States' points with a one-two finish in the grueling decathlon today to partially offset a strong, female-inspired Russian advance in the Olympic team standings.

Campbell, a former Indiana University fullback from Plainfield, N.J., cracked Bob Mathias' Olympic record in winning the two-day, 10-event test of track and field versatility with 7,937 points. Only a poor performance in the pole vault kept him from breaking the world record as well.

Other Soviet athletes scored heavily in secondary events so that all but two swimming events completed on the ninth day's program, the United States lead had dwindled to 68 points in the two-nation battle for the unofficial team championship, 341-273.

where he did 12-0 1/4, and in the javelin, where his toss was 97-8 1/4.

The gold medal for Campbell was the 20th of the games for the United States squad and the 13th for Coach Jim Kelly's mighty track and field squad. And, combined with Johnson's five points, it couldn't have come at a more timely moment.

Picking up where he left off yesterday after winning three of the first five events, Campbell won the 110-meter hurdles in 14 seconds flat and fired the discus 147 feet, 6 1/2 inches to all but clinch the gold medal with the pole vault, javelin and 1,500 meter run still to come.

Meanwhile fullscale swimming competition, in which the U.S. hopes to balance Russian points in gymnastics during the last week of competition, got underway at the modern, glass-enclosed pool and records fell with nearly every stroke.

Bill Zoryk of Northampton, Mass., and Springfield College broke his own world record as eight qualified for Saturday's 500-meter butterfly final. Zoryk was timed in 2:18.6—four-tenths of a second under the record he set in the U.S. Olympic trials in Detroit in August.

Scattered features were a fourth place finish in the women's individual fencing foil for Janice-Lee Romary of Tarzana, Calif., a bronze medal for Offit Pinion of Egg Harbor, N.J. and a surprise 11th place windup for defending champion Joe Benner of West Point, N.Y., in the pistol shoot and Hungary's first gold medal of the Games, by its kayak pairs team in the canoe competition.
