

Remains Of Ancient Indian Village Found

BEAUMONT, Tex. (AP)—The remains of an Indian village that may be 1,000 years old have been uncovered in an abandoned cornfield in Sabine County.

Archaeologists have found two large huts or houses, five burials, thousands of pieces of broken pottery, arrowheads, stone knives, bone fishhooks and perfectly preserved clay pots.

The work is being directed by Edward B. Jelks of Austin, an archaeologist for the National Park Service. He is working in cooperation with the Smithsonian Institution, the Army Corps of Engineers, the University of Texas and the Bureau of Reclamation.

The area will be flooded by the McGee Bend Dam. Twenty-five sites are being investigated by archaeologists.

The archaeologists have reconstructed in their minds the huts in which the Indians lived. They were 30 to 40 feet across and were built of young trees.

In each of the huts, which housed about 20 persons, graves were found at different levels. One grave was five feet deep and another six feet deep. The deeper grave contained an abundant amount of ornaments and it is assumed its occupant could have been a chief.

The scientists said that some Indians buried their dead in their houses and lived on in the house after the funeral. Some moved from the house following the funeral.

The archaeologists said the area probably was farmed by the Indians before Columbus discovered America. The Indians were chiefly an agricultural and hunting people who raised corn, squash, beans, melons and tobacco. They knew nothing of soil conservation and crop rotation and they hunted and farmed an area until it was exhausted. They would move on to another area when this happened.

Indians had strange burial customs, the archaeologists said. In some cases when a person of importance died he was buried at ground level. A few slaves and wives would be killed and buried along with him so he would have company on his way to the happy hunting ground.

Thrive In Drought

Dr. Bruce Zobel, silviculturist for the Texas Forest Service, examines a four-year-old planting of drought-hardy pines at New Baden, Robertson County. The 10-14-foot pines, thriving in an area where pines are not native, were planted in the fall of 1952.

Drought Resistant Pines Help To Forest Industry

COLLEGE STATION, Tex. (AP)—Drought resistant pines that grew 13 to 14 feet tall even during severe drought promise to become one of the most important boosts to Texas' forest industry in many decades, according to the Texas Forest Service.

These trees can be planted and may grow to maturity on 25 percent less rainfall than normally required for pines in the commercial forest belt of East Texas.

Dr. Bruce Zobel, silviculturist for the forest service, said the significance of the pines lies in the fact that some two million acres of Texas land may be suited to profitable growth of this new type of timber.

He said that the pine seedlings, planted during a period when other types of seedlings died, have a survival rate of up to 90 percent.

Zobel has headed a five-year project of selection and testing for a drought resistant strain of the pine. Most of his work has been done with loblolly pine grown from seed of selected trees in the "Lost Pines" area of Texas.

Normal loblolly pines require about 40 inches rain a year, but these pines survive on less than half this amount, Zobel said.

A six-acre seed orchard has been established at Easttrill in Cherokee County to produce seed of drought hardy strains. It will be about eight years before any large quantity of seed can be produced from this orchard.

No Handicap

Jimmie Trietsch, of Lake Jackson, blind since early childhood, who has distinguished himself as a student, author, teacher and musician, has been nominated to represent Lake Jackson in the Junior Chamber of Commerce finals to select the five outstanding young Texans of the year.

Blind Texan Has Led A Brilliant Career

LAKE JACKSON, Tex. (AP)—The shining mind of Jimmie Trietsch of the Brazosport area has never bowed to the handicap imposed by blindness.

Now 26, he is respected for his brilliant record as student, author, teacher and musician.

The Lake Jackson Junior Chamber of Commerce nominated Trietsch as one of the five "outstanding young Texans" to be chosen by the state Jaycee organization at its annual meeting in Abilene Jan. 19-20, 1957.

Trietsch chalked up a straight-A record throughout his college career which began at North Texas State College in Denton where he received B.A. and M.A. degrees and is continuing at the University of Houston where he is working on his doctorate in education.

His record of 55 A's prompted the University of Houston's Dr. J. H. Donner, dean of the college of education, to remark he had never seen another like it in all his years of teaching.

Trietsch's master's thesis at North Texas was the longest ever written in that school's history. He wrote it all himself, aided by his mother or a fellow student who read research material to him.

Trietsch is author of a book, "The Printer and the Prince," which deals with the influence of Horace Greeley on Abraham Lincoln. Praised by critics for its historical accuracy, the book evoked a personal letter from President Eisenhower.

Trietsch is now an instructor in social studies in the Freeport schools after teaching in Clute, where he co-sponsored the school annual and designed its format and layout for three years.

Trietsch, in addition, is an accomplished musician, playing both piano and organ. He was organist for the Temple Baptist Church in Clute for several years.

While at school in Denton, Trietsch auditioned twice to appear on Horace Heide's radio program. Reaching the finals, he recalls with a smile, "I was nosed out by a hillbilly singer."

"Because I lost my sight when I was 6, I was able to become adjusted to it more easily," he says.

November Below Normal Rainfall

AUSTIN (AP)—The Water Board reports below normal rainfall for Texas again during November with streamflow continuing deficient.

In its monthly report released yesterday, the Board said the effectiveness of spotty November rains was diminished by dry winds sapping moisture.

The first general rain since May favored the eastern two-thirds of the state but small amounts of runoff were followed by recessions.

Mars, Like Texas, Has Crazy Weather

FT. DAVIS, Tex. (AP)—A detailed study made of the planet Mars recently revealed that Mars, if there are any, experience "unusual weather" just like Texans.

Dr. Gerard Kuiper, well known astronomer who made the study at nearby McDonald-Observatory, reported that he saw a late "spring" snow storm and an enormous dust storm on Mars.

Kuiper is a member of the McDonald staff and the staff of the University of Chicago's Yerkes Observatory.

In September Mars moved to within 35 million miles of the earth, closer than it will be again until 1971.

The snow storm, said Kuiper, was an "extraordinary event" because it occurred in mid-September, or late springtime on Mars. He said the planet's polar caps, peaks of ice and snow, normally evaporated with the coming of spring.

In mid-September, however, a new snow fall occurred covering an area of 600 miles. The snow deposit was described by Kuiper as "clear white, not yellow." Outer portions of the snow cap evaporated in about 10 days, but the inner cap, 250 miles in diameter, survived the Martian summer temperatures.

"This appears to have been the first time a large polar snow has been watched," he said. He had no explanation for the unseasonal snow.

The dust storm appeared Aug. 30 and began dissolving gradually in mid-September. Enveloping most of the planet, the dust cloud was shaped like a giant "W" extending over an area 3,000 miles long and 250 miles wide. He said the dust clouds accounted for the yellow color seen on the usually reddish-orange Mars.

The astronomer's report considered the possibility of vegetation being present on Mars. He said he believed that lava fields covered by lichens, a low form of plant, account for variations in color between the dark areas of the planet. More than one-half of Mars is covered with yellow-ocher desert sand.

The McDonald studies reconfirmed the absence of "canals" on Mars' surface, Kuiper said.

32,000 Casualties In Hungary Revolt

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—Prime Minister Nehru said today Indian diplomats who recently visited Hungary reported that about 25,000 Hungarians and 7,000 Russians were killed in the anti-Soviet revolt.

This was the first estimate of Russian casualties in the Soviet tank and troop action to crush the Hungarian rebellion against communism. Previous unofficial estimates of Hungarian killed here ranged between 20,000 and 50,000.

Reporting to Parliament on Hungary, Nehru said J. N. Khosla,

Indian minister to Czechoslovakia, and K. P. S. Menon, ambassador to Moscow and Budapest, reported to him that what happened was a "revolution and a national one." He added that Russian intervention "was not justified."

MAYSVILLE, Ky. (AP)—The life of a fish is not necessarily an unhappy one. About 15,000 gallons of grain alcohol sank in the Ohio River near here when a tug rammed a barge. The tug was undamaged. Barge owners said they would try to recover the craft.

U. S. Acts To Halt Proposed Merger

NEW YORK (AP) — The government has acted in federal court to block the proposed merger of the Bethlehem Steel Corp. and Youngstown Sheet and Tube Co. A monopoly suit filed yesterday charged that union of the two steel companies would be a violation of the Clayton Antitrust Act.

Bethlehem is second in steel production behind U. S. Steel. Youngstown is sixth. The proposed $2.5-billion-dollar consolidation would still leave U. S. Steel as the No. 1 producer.

The proposed merger was announced Tuesday after the New York Stock Exchange had closed. The Justice Department immediately voiced disapproval.

Yesterday shares of the two companies declined on the exchange. Bethlehem fell $3.25 a share to $185, Youngstown $7.12 1/2 to $120 1/2 a share.

The government asked the court:

1. To find the proposed acquisition by Bethlehem of Youngstown a violation of Section 7 of the Clayton Act;
2. To enjoin Bethlehem and Youngstown from carrying out their merger agreement or any similar one;
3. To issue a preliminary injunction against Bethlehem and Youngstown restraining them from taking any action in furtherance of the merger;
4. To order the defendants to pay the costs of the suit.

The government contends the merger agreement, if carried out, "may substantially lessen competition or tend to create a monopoly."

Under the agreement, all assets of Youngstown would be transferred to Bethlehem in exchange for Bethlehem common stock. The common stock received by Youngstown would be distributed to Youngstown stockholders and Youngstown then would be dissolved.

The government complaint said: "The concentration in the hands of the largest producers of facilities for the production and sale of a variety of products of the iron and steel industry, including coke-oven by-products, pig-iron, semi-finished steel products, finished steel products and oil well drilling and production machinery will be materially increased by the proposed merger."

The government suit charges acquisition of Youngstown would "enhance Bethlehem's competitive advantage over small producers of a variety of products of the iron and steel industry . . . to the detriment of competition."

MAYBE HE HAD TWIN

Most oldtimers believe a deer reveals his age by the number of "points" he has on his horns.

Hence, a buck with a seven-point pair of antlers is assumed to be seven years old.

Billy McIlvain would like to know how old the buck he killed last week on the Buck Miller Ranch, 40 miles northwest of Toyah, may be.

This deer had a perfect horn lay-out on one side boasting five standard points. The other horn was a single spike with no prongs and no points.

Young McIlvain and his father, Bill McIlvain, returned from their hunting excursion this week.

'Cold Revolution' Topples Dictator

PORT AU PRINCE, Haiti (AP) — A "cold revolution" has toppled Maj. Gen. Paul Magloire's week-old dictatorship in Haiti, restoring constitutional authority today in the little Caribbean republic.

Magloire quit last night after three days of sitdown strikes virtually throttled all normal activity in the nation.

As the constitution prescribes, the president of the Supreme Court, Joseph Nemours Pierre-Louis, took office temporarily. He will govern until a new president is named in a national election.

The army, previously backing Magloire, triggered the change. Gen. Antoine Levelt, chief of staff, said the decision was taken in a conference yesterday. Levelt said in a broadcast, "Now we return to our barracks, awaiting the orders of our new chief."

Magloire's fall set a startling precedent in the turbulent political history of the Caribbean.

It represents a dramatic victory for the man on the street in Haiti, the workman, the student, the shopkeeper—people who fought for liberty with the only weapon they had, a refusal to work.

Unarmed and poorly organized, they countered Magloire's seizure of power by simply staying home, by closing business establishments and paralyzing transportation.

Except for the wounding of a soldier last night, no blood was spilled. The people did not even attempt to demonstrate in the streets.

The strikes began Monday. Magloire, a husky professional soldier, trained by the U. S. Marines, was elected in 1950. He was the first president in Haiti's history named directly by the people. He was proud of that.

Since the constitution prohibits two consecutive terms for a president, Magloire last May ordered election machinery to be set up for choosing his successor.

There are no political parties in Haiti. People vote for personalities, not on the basis of "tickets." Campaigning began immediately — and at this point you get two different stories.

Magloire and his adherents charged that the leading presidential candidates appealed to the people solely on the basis of "vicious criticism" of the government, and "incited the people to terrorism and violence."

The candidates were jailed last week and this correspondent's request to interview them was refused. Their backers, however, said Magloire never intended to hold an election.

Storm Heads For Lakes Area

By The Associated Press

A storm that dumped 2 to 5 inches of snow over wide areas of the Midwest headed into the eastern Great Lakes today.

It was cold in the north central region. Chilly weather extended over a V-shaped area from Texas northeastward through the Great Lakes and Ohio Valley into northern New England and northwestward through the central and northern plains.

Temperatures in the frigid zone ranged from near zero to 10 below from western Wisconsin to the Dakotas and up to around 30 in north central Texas.

The heaviest snow belt stretched through Michigan and northeast Missouri and northeastward through southern Wisconsin, northern Illinois, northern Indiana and into Lower Michigan. Falls diminished during the night.

The cold air was expected to spread over the Ohio Valley southward to the Gulf Coast and southwestward through Oklahoma and Texas. Snow was in prospect from parts of Kentucky northward from South Dakota to northern into the Atlantic Coast states. Heavy falls were forecast in western New York and northwestern Pennsylvania.

Raising Pecans Has Many Problems, Including People

DENTON, Tex. (AP) — Felix Callahan uses loud recorded noises to drive the crows away from his pecan trees, but he hasn't come up with anything to keep people away.

Callahan and his father-in-law, Will Evers, run the Evers Pecan Orchard, a thriving 300-acre farm with 5,000 trees.

A daily invasion of crows cuts into their profits and people who help themselves to nuts don't help things either, said Callahan.

"At first we tried carbide guns, timed to fire at intervals, against the crows. The crows were frightened at first, then they got so accustomed to the noise they wouldn't bat an eye when a gun went off," said Callahan.

Callahan finally borrowed a public address system and some records of assorted noises. Things like bangs, whistles, dogs barking and some rock 'n roll music.

The racket scared the crows off and the speaker system was expanded to cover the entire orchard.

But the people—they still come around the edges of the orchard and pick nuts when no one is looking.

"We patrol the area regularly, and they don't have a chance to get away with much. But when we catch them at it, some of them are ready to fight."

Callahan has built other equipment for the orchard, like a giant vacuum cleaner that gulps up fallen nuts, so he may solve the labor problem at pecan picking time.

A school directive states a member of State's staff found willfully violating a conference or NCAA by-law shall be dismissed immediately.

UCLA Punt Was Oddity Of Year

By JACK HAND
NEW YORK (AP)—The football oddity of the year was a blocked punt. Blocked, that is, by the kicker's own team. It happened at Seattle. UCLA's Kirk Wilson had just punted 53 yards. The ball slithered parallel to the goal line and stopped about six inches away. Dick McVeigh, a Washington end, went behind his own goal line to kick out of danger on first down. Backing up to protect his kicker, Al Ferguson, Washington quarterback, was struck on the back by the punt. The ball sailed straight up in the air and finally was recovered by UCLA's Don Shinnick on the Washington 2. Three plays later UCLA had its first touchdown and was on the way to a 13-0 victory. Like you to hear some more? Well, there was the punt in the Catawba-Appalachian game that bounced down field, was touched by a member of the kicking team but never was blown dead. Willie Campagna of Catawba watched the Appalachian man walk away, then picked up the ball and started to walk away himself. Pretty soon he started to run. Before he stopped he had run 70 yards for a touchdown that won the game 14-7. Or maybe you'd like the story of two embarrassed backs in the Southwest Conference. Charlie Arnold, the Southern Methodist passer, threw a perfect pass to Gerald Nesbitt. The only trouble was that Nesbitt plays for Arkansas, not SMU. Nesbitt probably was as rattled at the turn of events as Arnold, but he held onto the ball. The result was an eventual Arkansas touchdown. Cameron, Okla., College and Compton, Calif., came up with a stopper that drew the vote of Hank Hollingworth of the Long Beach, Calif., Press-Telegram. Here's how Hank described it: "A Compton punt went out of bounds on the Cameron 33. The ball was placed 15 yards from the sidelines and Cameron went into a huddle. They huddled near the sidelines, not over the ball. Suddenly the Cameron center trotted out of the huddle, strolled casually to the ball, picked it up and whipped it 15 yards to the sidelines. A halfback grabbed it and, behind the entire Cameron team, ran 67 yards for a touchdown.

SWC Teams Break Even On Court

By The Associated Press
The Southwest Conference, which broke even in inter-sectional basketball Wednesday, tries two more outside opponents Thursday. Texas squeezed past Oklahoma 68-62 at Austin to partially avenge a gridiron slaughter while Mississippi Southern rolled past Texas A&M 75-63. TCU tries St. Louis Thursday and A&M plays Florida State. Mississippi Southern grabbed a quick lead and hung onto it. Southern held leads of 6-0 and 26-8 early in the game. Bob Kinney of Mississippi controlled the backboards and took scoring honors with 27 points. Ken Hutto led A&M with 22. Oklahoma held a 14-point lead at halftime, but the Longhorns tied the game in the second half, then played a see-saw game until near the end. Raymond Downs scored 22 points for honors. Don Schwall of Oklahoma had 20.

Single Wing New To Most Bruins

WACO (AP)—Playing in the Sugar Bowl will be a new experience in more ways than one for Baylor. It's Baylor's first appearance in the New Year's football game at New Orleans. In the second place only a handful of Baylor players ever saw a single wing offense. It has been 27 games since the Bears went up against the formation made famous by the late Pop Warner and which virtually died out a decade ago. And the last time Baylor faced the single wing it was coached by the same man who will be sending Tennessee against the Bears in the Sugar Bowl—Bowden Wyatt. Wyatt was head man at Arkansas in 1954 when present seniors on the Bear squad were sophomores. His Razorbacks beat Baylor 21-20. Since then Baylor hasn't even had a glimpse of the formation because Wyatt went to Tennessee last year and his Vols haven't played anybody hereabouts.

Steers Among Favorites In Andrews Tournament

The undefeated Big Spring Steers rule among the favorites in the annual Andrews Invitational Basketball Tournament, which gets under way today and continues through Saturday night. Jefferson of El Paso is the defending champion and is in the same bracket with Big Spring. Pecos, Odessa and Seminole are other strong contenders for the championship, along with Midland. Andrews has won its own tournament twice but is given only an outside chance to enter the throne room again. Both Big Spring and San Angelo, another tournament entry, have beaten Andrews in its own gym and the win by Big Spring was very decisive — by 21 points. The Steers, who meet powerful Monahans in a first round game today will carry a record of four straight wins to the tournament. The Longhorns have knocked over Lamesa, Sweetwater, Andrews and Snyder, in that order.

SEIXAS READY TO PLAY IN DAVIS CUP MATCHES

By WILL GRIMSLEY
PERTH, Australia (AP)—The official draw today paired Herbie Flam of Beverly Hills, Calif., with Ramanathan Krishnin for tomorrow's opening match of the inter-zone Davis Cup finals between the United States and India. But it was a meager development compared with the overnight recovery of U. S. ace Vic Seixas, the 33-year-old cup veteran from Philadelphia. Seixas, who will play the second singles match against India's captain, Naresch Kumar, reported his ailing shoulder greatly improved when he arrived for the ceremonies at the Royal Kings Park clubhouse. A doubtful starter until then in the series to determine Australia's cup challenger, Seixas said heat treatments administered by a doctor last night had removed all pain from his shoulder. U. S. Captain Bill Talbot said he was pleased with the opening lineup but he refused to commit himself on his team for the doubles on Saturday. "That'll depend on the result of the opening singles matches," he said. The Americans are favored to score a 5-0 sweep although Krishnin, a vastly improved 19-year-old who holds two victories over Jaroslav Drobný, figures to be tough. Krishnin and Kumar, 27, carried Seixas and Ham Richardson to five sets in doubles play at Wimbledon this summer. Talbot will pair Seixas with Sammy Giammalva of Houston, Tex., in the doubles if Vic and Flam win their singles matches tomorrow. If there is an upset, Flam will be substituted for Giammalva.

In addition to Andrews and Jefferson, Odessa and Monahans have won the championship at Andrews in the past. Pecos waded into the semi-finals last year before losing to Jefferson by five points and is returning with two all-tournament selections in Bubba Ephraim and Billy Jim Simmons. Midland, with Larry Cooper and Jim Owens as basket threats, will certainly be a factor. Odessa has yet to suffer a defeat and apparently is almost as strong as last season, at which time it went to the state meet. Two gymnasiums, the Junior High and High School, are being used to stage the preliminary games in the tournament. Six games are on-tap today and tonight, three in each gym. Here are the first round pairings, listed with tournament sites and starting times. All first round games will be played today and tonight: Lamesa vs Kermit, 6 p.m., JHS Gym; San Angelo vs Pecos, 6 p.m., HS Gym; Andrews vs Midland, 7:15 p.m., HS Gym; Monahans vs Big Spring, 7:15 p.m., JHS Gym; Odessa vs Seminole, 8:30 p.m., HS Gym; El Paso Jefferson vs Andrews B, 8:30 p.m., JHS Gym. If Big Spring wins, it meets the survivor in the Andrews B-Jefferson contest at 6 p.m. Friday, playing for the right to enter the finals. Should it lose, it takes on the loser in that game at 6 p.m. tomorrow. Jefferson, of course, is playing without the services of the 6-foot-8

Albert Almanza, who guided the Silver Foxes to the crown last year but who rather was declared ineligible for being over-age. Coach Johnny Johnson of Big Spring will probably start a lineup composed of Jan Loudermilk at center, Jimmy Evans and Donald Lovelady in the forecourts and n d Capt. Mike Musgrove and Jesse McElreath at guards.

Robby Acquired By NY Giants

NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Giants announced today they had obtained Jackie Robinson from the Brooklyn Dodgers in exchange for pitcher Dick Littlefield and an undisclosed amount of cash. Horace Stoneham, president of the Giants, and Dodger head Walter O'Malley, closed the deal at the major league meetings in Chicago earlier this week, but withheld the information until the players could be advised. Although the amount of cash involved was not given, there were reports it was around $30,000. Robinson began his major league career with Brooklyn at the start of the 1947 season, joining the club from its Montreal farm of the International League. He has played first base, second base, and in recent years at third and the outfield. Littlefield was obtained in the Alvin Dark deal with the St. Louis Cardinals last summer. He had a 44 record with the Giants this year. Bill Rigney, Giants manager, said Robinson would play first base for the Giants. The regular Giants first baseman, Bill White, is now in the Army.

Price Hasn't Tipped Plans

AUSTIN (AP)—University of Texas officials indicated last night that resigning football coach Ed Price still had not said if he would accept a job as an instructor at Texas. Dr. Logan Wilson, university president, spoke last night at a testimonial dinner given Price, athletic director Dana X. Bible, and the 1956 Longhorn football team by the Interfraternity Council. Wilson said he hoped "Ed Price would be able to accept a position on the teaching staff, which has already been tendered him." There had been earlier reports that Price had been offered some kind of instructor position after his resignation becomes effective Dec. 31. Details of the offer were not announced. Price resigned Nov. 1 after being hung in effigy three times. The Longhorns lost nine of their 10 football games this year, including all Southwest Conference games. Price's successor has not been named. Wilson lauded both Price and Bible, who is retiring next Sept. 1, and said "Never at any time even under the most discouraging situations did you let the university down."

Fighters At Work

NEW YORK (AP)—Both Sugar Ray Robinson and Gene Fullmer were back at their training camps today, ready to resume preparations for their once-postponed mid-weight title bout. The bout, originally scheduled for last night at Madison Square Garden, was put off until Jan. 2 when the champion came down with a severe cold. Willie Hoepner in his last start a couple of weeks ago, is first in line as the No. 1 challenger. "I've watched Archie's style for a long time," said Spieser. "Since I was ranked first among the light heavyweight contenders, I watched closer than ever at ring-side the night he lost to Patterson." That a Spieser-Moore fight would be held in Detroit is a definite possibility. Spieser has had 24 fights, winning 19, losing 4 and fighting to one draw. Most of his fights have been against heavyweights because of the lack of good competition in his own division.

Chuck Spieser Will Seek Early Bout With Champ

DETROIT (AP)—Muscular Chuck Spieser is quite willing to become the second man in recent history to make the jump from Olympic boxer to world champion. Although a proposed title bout between the 27-year-old Spieser and light heavyweight champion Archie Moore is just in the talking stage, the former Olympic boxer (1948 and 1952) will resume training next week "just in case." Moore, turned back in his bid for the heavyweight crown by former Olympic titlist Floyd Patterson, must defend or relinquish his light-heavy championship by March 18. Spieser, a former Michigan State boxer who knocked out

Help Needed For Christmas Party At State Hospital

The Big Spring State Hospital Bill Ragsdale, chairman for the affair, said that a number of clubs had contributed to the fund, but that the increasing patient load made it necessary to have more support for the party.

Two ward buildings, activated and filled since last year, have added a third to a hall to the number of patients to be served with the traditional social. Those who can contribute to the fund were urged to contact Ragsdale or Bill Gray at River Funeral Home, Oliver Coter at the Herald, Joe Clark at Prager's or R. L. Heith at Malone & Hogan.

This year's party will be held at 7:30 p.m. on Dec. 19 at the recreation hall in the north building. Ragsdale urged all friends of the hospital to visit the hospital for the party.

BUZ SAWYER

THE EERIE WAIL OF THE SKY WITH BEING PRIMED FOR FLIGHT UNDER THE SPREAD OF THE B-29 SHRIILS THRU THE LONG NIGHT AS THE REFUEL CREWS CASUALTY GO ABOUT THEIR DANGEROUS WORK...

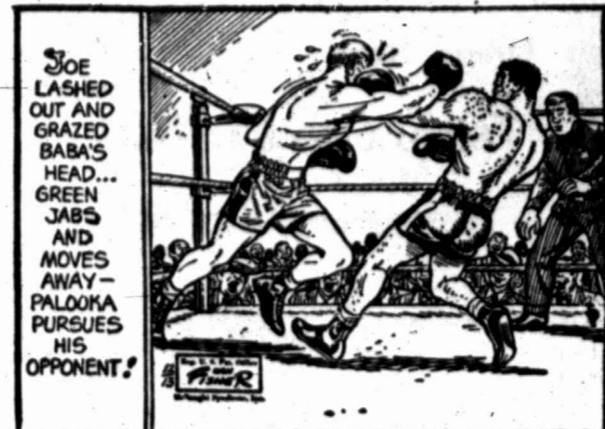

EVERY SECOND IT'S TOUCH AND GO... ONE TINY SPECK OF DIRT IN THE HYDROGEN PERSONE TANK, AND THE LITTLE SHIP WOULD BE BLOWN TO DUST... OR A SUDDEN LEAK COULD SPRAY THE MEN WITH 297° BELOW-ZERO LIQUID OXYGEN INSTANTLY FREEZING THEM TO ICICLES.

WELL, THAT DOES IT. SHE'S FULL AS A TICER, FROM NOW ON SHE'S SAWYER'S WORRY. YEAH, I'M GLAD I'M NOT RISKING MY NECK FLYING THAT THING.

JOE PALOOKA

JOE LASHED OUT AND GRAZED BABE'S HEAD... GREEN JABS AND MOVES AWAY - PALOOKA PURSUES HIS OPPONENT!

JOE SEEMS EAGER FOR A QUICK FINISH... THIS IS MOST UNUSUAL FOR THE CHAMP? WE NOTICED THAT KNOBBY WALSH IS NOT IN JOE'S CORNER TONIGHT - WHEN WE FIND OUT WHY, WE'LL PASS IT ALONG TO YOU!

SLOOKA STAYS RIGHT ON TOP OF GREEN. HE HAS THROWN CAUTION TO THE WINDS... OOH... HE'S WIDE OPEN! N.H.

NOW, BABE... NOW!

DIXIE DUGAN

WE'VE ACTUALLY NEVER HAD A HONEYMOON - ALONE ON AN ISLAND SOUNDS LIKE JUST WHAT THE DOCTOR ORDERED -

MRS. BURNELL - PROFESSOR SCRUBBOL - INSISTS ON SEEING YOU -

ALL ISS LOST - MRS. BURNELL -

SCORCHY SMITH

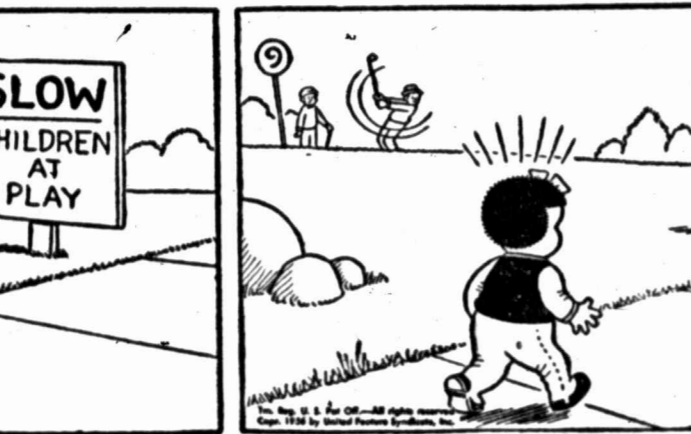

WHILE WE'RE UP HERE, LAD, LET'S FIND OUT WHY LUKE RONDY DOESN'T WANT ANYONE IN THIS TERRITORY!

LEAVE THE HORSES HERE, BOY. WE'LL HOOF THE REST OF THIS - AND BRING YOUR GUN!

POGO

IT'S AMAZIN'! FAIR DINKUM AMAZIN', GOBBER! YOU'RE BREAKIN' COBBER! YOU'RE ALL NAUGHTY COMING OUT OF IT NOW, HATE... NOTHING LIKE A SPOT OF TEA.

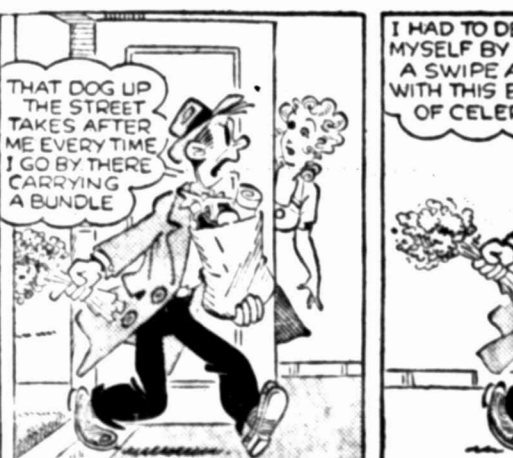

LET ME SEE - COO! YOU STARTED A WEEK AGO ON THE PENTATHLON - IT'S TAKEN YOU 150 HOURS AND YOU'RE NOT FINISHED!

WOW! THE NEW CHAMP! THE NEW BLINKIN' CHAMP! HEY! YOU BARBACOCK YOU'VE STONKED FOOT OF NAUGHTA AGAIN!

BLONDIE

THAT DOG UP THE STREET TAKES AFTER ME EVERY TIME I GO BY THERE CARRYING A BUNDLE

I HAD TO DEFEND MYSELF BY TAKING A SWIPE AT IT WITH THIS BUNCH OF CELERY

I'M GOING OVER THERE RIGHT NOW AND COMPLAIN TO THOSE PEOPLE ABOUT THAT DOG

DICKIE DARE

SOMETHING I'VE BEEN WANTING TO SAY TO YOU, DOC!

DARE'S A GOOD KID, BUT WHAT COULD A BOY SAY TO HEAL AN OLD MAN'S BROKEN SPIRIT?

I WAS REALLY CHAGGED ON THAT FISH HOOK DEAL, SIR! MY BRAIN FELT A MILLION YEARS OLD.

ANNIE ROONEY

NO, MRS. LA MARNE, MR. FLING IS NOT AT HOME - BUT I'M GLAD YOU CALLED. EVERYTHING IS SET FOR THAT LITTLE PROGRAM WE DISCUSSED. I HOPE YOU ARE PREPARED TO DO YOUR SHARE. ARE YOU?

I - I SUPPOSE SO, HARVEY. I'M WILLING TO DO ANYTHING THAT WILL GET LITTLE ANNIE OUT OF THE WAY - HARMLESSLY, OF COURSE - BUT I CAN'T AFFORD TO GIVE YOU MUCH. I HAVE VERY LITTLE MONEY -

DON'T WORRY, IT WON'T TAKE MUCH - OH! I MUST HANG UP! THE 'SUBJECT MATTER' IS HERE!

LITTLE SPORT

SNUFFY SMITH

SAY!! AREN'T YOU SNUFFY SMITH - THE MAN WHO SOLD ME THAT ANTIQUE SPINNING WHEEL LAST SUMMER?

UH - I DON'T KNOW -

GOOD HEAVENS, MAN!! DON'T YOU KNOW WHO YOU ARE?

THOMAS TYPEWRITER AND OFFICE SUPPLY

JUST FOR A CHANGE, SUPPOSE YOU WASH THE DISHES TONIGHT AND I'LL DRY THEM

I'D LIKE TO, MABEL, BUT I HAVE SUCH A HORROR OF GETTING DISHPAN HANDS. PERHAPS AFTER THE WAR WHEN I CAN GET A PAIR OF RUBBER GLOVES -

GRANDMA

IT'S ABOUT TIME I HAD A NEW ONE!

LET ME SEE SOMETHIN' THAT WILL HOLD ALL O' THIS, PLUS A FEW COMIC BOOKS, A BIT O' LUNCH AN'...

YOU NEED TH' LARGER ECONOMY SIZES, GRANDMA! COUNTER NO. 12

DONALD DUCK

HAND OVER YOUR WALLET! THIS IS A STICK-UP!

WOULD YOU MIND BREAKING THAT WINDOW AND CLIMBING IN, SIR?

THANKS FOR DOING IT MY WAY, SIR!
