Cardinal Rakes Film, Director Denies Charge

NEW YORK (AP) — In a rare pulpit appearance, Francis Cardinal Spellman yesterday sharply condemned the film "Baby Doll" and advised Roman Catholics not to see it "under pain of sin."

He denounced the Warner Bros. adaptation of a story by playwright Tennessee Williams as "evil in concept . . . certain to exert an immoral and corrupting influence upon those who see it."

"I exhort Catholic people from patronizing this film under pain of sin x x x," declared Cardinal Spellman, the archbishop of New York.

His denunciation drew immediate responses from Williams, Warner Bros. and Elia Kazan, producer and director of the picture. Kazan denied that "Baby Doll" was immoral and declared:

"In the court of public opinion I'll take my chances."

"Baby Doll" was given "C" or "condemned" rating Nov. 27 by the Roman Catholic Legion of Decency, which accused the Motion Picture Assn. of "open disregard" of its own code by approving the film. The association denied the charge.

In scoring the film, Cardinal Spellman declared:

"The conscienceless, venal attitude of the sponsors of this picture constitutes a definite corruptive moral influence. Since these degrading pictures stimulate immorality and crime they must be condemned and therefore . . . in solicitude for the welfare of my country, I exhort Catholic people from patronizing this film under pain of sin."

Kazan said in New York that the film "has been approved by the Motion Picture Authority of America, which is administered by men of discretion and conscience."

In a statement issued in New York, Williams declared from Key West, Fla.:

"I cannot believe that an ancient and august branch of the Christian faith is not larger in heart and mind than those who set themselves up as censors of a medium of expression that reaches all sections and parts of our country and extends the world over."

The film has a Southern setting and involves a jealous cotton gin owner, his child bride and a young man she befriends. It opens here for its world premier tomorrow.

CIVIC WORKER

Big Spring Loses A Leading Citizen

Ira L. Thurman, who packed an almost unparalleled record of service to his community and nation in the space of three decades, died here Sunday at 8:10 a.m.

Mr. Thurman had been ill for the past three weeks and desperately so since last Wednesday. He apparently had weathered a serious respiratory ailment only to fall victim to another.

At the time of his death he was senior vice president of the First National Bank and president of the Big Spring Chamber of Commerce. He had served as an officer or worker in a dozen or more institutions and agencies devoted to helping other people.

Funeral has been set for 3 p.m. Tuesday at the First Methodist Church, where for many years he served as a steward. Officiating will be his pastor, Dr. Jordan Grooms, and close friend, Dr. P. D. O'Brien, pastor of the Trinity Baptist Church. His remains will be laid to final rest in the Trinity Memorial Park with Nalley-Pickel Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

The First National, the State National and the Security State banks all will close Tuesday afternoon, as will the Big Spring Chamber of Commerce, out of respect to the memory of Mr. Thurman.

An affable man who fronted an inherently shy nature with good natured exaggeration, Mr. Thurman found time aside from his banking duties to help his church, the schools, the polo organization, United Fund, and a host of other causes.

He was born Sept. 6, 1892, in Rock Springs, and when he was two years old his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Thurman, moved to Glen Cove in Coleman County. Graduating from Talpa High School in 1912, he attended Howard Payne College and then worked for John W. Weeks in a drug store at Ballinger. From this post he went to a lumber company and then to the First National Bank in Ballinger.

One of the things in which he took whimsical pride was that he rose to the rank of corporal during service in World War I.

Out of the service, he came to Big Spring to go to work for the West Texas National Bank upon the invitation of a brother, John W. Thurman, then a vice president.

Big Spring had a talented Elks baseball club in those days and Thurman was a fiery third baseman on the team that included one of his bank associates, Harry Hurt.

His courtship of Miss Doris Menger ripened into marriage in 1922 and the following year they moved to Ranger where he was assistant cashier. He went to Wilmington, Calif., in autumn of that year to help organize the Bank of Wilmington. It sold a year later to the Bank of America, but Mr. Thurman remained on three more years as cashier, manager and as a director.

His heart was in West Texas, however, and in 1929 he and Mrs. Thurman returned to Big Spring and he again joined the West Texas National Bank as assistant cashier. When it merged in 1934 with the First National, he was made cashier, then vice president and a director.

His facetious claim to doing "98 per cent of the work at the bank" was almost legendary. Friends elsewhere did not inquire how he was getting along, but whether his percentage was holding up.

For nearly a decade his health had been declining, and in recent years it kept him from his desk at intervals. However, he never left of his community service.

He served as president of the Big Spring Independent School District board of trustees in 1948, the last of 12 years he had been on the board. He once had served as its secretary. After World War II, when the makeshift War Chest GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP) — President Eisenhower brought Prime Minister Nehru of India to his farm home here today for an overnight stay and intimate private talks on matters of concern to the two nations.

Their motorcade of nine cars arrived shortly before 11 a.m. after two hours of leisurely driving from Washington, 80 miles away.

The President and the visiting Indian leader were in the lead car, a black limousine. Other cars carried Secret Service agents and aides.

The weather was sunny and mild.

The party stopped briefly at the gates of the Eisenhower farm to permit photographers to take pictures.

Nehru and the President are remaining here overnight so they may talk over the world situation away from the protocol and social obligations of the capital.

Their basic aim is the achievement of closer relations and better understanding between the United States and India—not the working out of specific agreements.

Nehru, who arrived in Washington yesterday, spent the night at Blair House, the government's guest residence.

Eisenhower called at 9 a.m. to pick up the Indian leader for the trip to Gettysburg.

Eisenhower was smiling broadly as he alighted from the automobile at Blair House, across from the White House, to greet his guest.

"Good morning, your excellency," Eisenhower said.

Nehru shook hands vigorously, and Eisenhower escorted him to the limousine.

They climbed in, posed briefly in the back seat for photographers, then sped away.

About 200 spectators gathered to witness the departure.

Nine additional automobiles, carrying Secret Service men, reporters, photographers and TV and newsreel cameramen followed the car carrying Eisenhower and Nehru.

Nehru, who recently entertained Premier Chou En-lai of Red China, was expected to tell the President that Chou sincerely wants to clear away Washington-Peking antagonisms. Nehru himself would like the United States to accept Communist China in the United Nations and eventually recognize it.

In a talk to fellow countrymen at the Indian Embassy last night, Nehru said Chou had received a warm welcome in India, and he added:

"If the President of the United States were to come to India, and I hope he will, we will give him an equally great welcome."

Nehru described India's role in international affairs as being that of a bridge between nations with conflicting interests. Referring to his policy of nonalignment with either of the great power blocs, he said, "We do not sit on the fence but we reserve the right to act independently."

On arriving here yesterday, the Prime Minister and Vice President Nixon stressed points of agreement rather than discord.

Responding to Nixon's welcome at National Airport, Nehru said: "We believe in the freedom of the individual, the freedom of the human spirit. And in many other things too, I have found that there is so much in common, even though we are separated by half the world, between this great republic and the Republic of India."

India and the United States "do not always agree on policy," said Nixon, who engaged in a long-distant dispute with Nehru over Indian neutrality earlier this year. But, Nixon said, the two countries share a "common dedication and devotion" to freedom, independence and peace.

Reds Claim U. S. Planes Trespaced

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet government has accused three U.S. B-57 jet bombers of trespassing near the big Pacific port of Vladivostok last week on a flight that was "clearly a reconnaissance attempt."

A Soviet note sent the State Department via the U.S. Embassy in Moscow demanded punishment for those responsible and that steps be taken to "prevent future violations of the state frontiers of the U.S.S.R. by American aircraft."

"U.S. Air Force officials in Japan, where B-57s have been stationed since last January, said they had no knowledge of any such flight. The State Department withheld comment until the note could be studied further."

The note said the three American planes flew over the area of the big Siberian naval base Dec. 11 in the early afternoon.

"Fine weather and good visibility prevailed in the area, precluding the possibility that the pilots lost their way," the note declared. It contended the flight "can be regarded only as a premeditated action of the U.S. military authorities with obvious reconnaissance purposes."

The note gave no indication of any action taken by Soviet defense forces against the planes. But it concluded that "in the event of a recurrence . . . responsibility for the consequences of such violations will rest squarely on the government of the U.S.A."

Two Soviet MIG fighters shot down a U.S. Navy patrol plane off Vladivostok Sept. 4, 1954, and the Soviets charged the plane had flown over Siberia. Nine of the 10 men aboard were rescued. The United States denied the Russian charge of trespassing and said the plane was over international waters.

School Evacuated After Bomb Threat

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — Students and teachers at Jefferson High School evacuated classrooms this morning after police were notified a bomb had been planted in the sprawling northside school.

Classes were dismissed for the day, pending a complete search of the buildings.

City School Superintendent Thomas B. Portwood said he believed the threat was "another silly prank" such as a similar bomb threat at another school last year.

Breath Of Dry Norther Felt Across West Texas

Big Spring was beginning to feel the first breath of what weather observers termed a dry norther sweeping across northwest Texas at noon today.

Full impact of this new cold front is scheduled to strike late today and tonight. It is expected to drop temperatures to sub-freezing level over much of the state.

Official forecast for Big Spring for tonight and Tuesday calls for partly cloudy to cloudy skies, brisk northerly winds with some dust and colder weather. Temperatures tonight are booked to drop to 27 degrees here. Tuesday night is set at 50. There is no suggestion of rain or other moisture.

Official high Sunday was 65 degrees and the low Sunday night was 33 degrees.

Sunday was a pleasant sunny day in Big Spring. There was just a little nip in the air but in general the day was warmer than normal for this season.

The new cold front was between Childress and Amarillo this morning and temperatures were between 30 and 40 all over the Panhandle. Meanwhile a secondary cold front lay behind Ardmore, Okla., and Mineral Wells but the weather bureau said that practically no effect from its front would be noted in Texas.

Skies were clear to partly cloudy in far West Texas and partly cloudy to cloudy elsewhere. Fog was reported in parts of East Texas and along the coast. Traces of rain are reported from Houston and Beaumont.

Colder weather was forecast for all of Texas. Showers were expected in East Texas. Temperatures as low as 18 degrees were predicted in the Panhandle and South Plains Monday night.

The fast moving fronts were expected to zip all the way across Texas.

Car Smashes Into Train Near Phoenix, Killing 12

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP) — Twelve persons were killed today in the collision of an old model car and a crack passenger train at the western edge of Phoenix.

A thirteen-year-old occupant of the car, an 18-month-old girl, was critically injured.

It was the worst wreck of its kind on record.

The death toll, originally placed at 11, was raised a midmorning when police searching through brush at the accident scene found the body of a young boy.

Bodies were scattered over a large area. The body of a woman weighing about 250 pounds was found 300 feet from the car's chassis.

None of the dead had been identified positively. The shattered car was traced through its license plate to a Sacramento man, but he said he had sold the car, a 1938 Chevrolet, to a Phoenix resident.

No one on the train, the Southern Pacific's Golden State Limited, was injured.

In fact, no one on the train knew about the accident until they pulled into Union Station, about three miles from the crash scene. Crew members then saw bits of flesh and a car tender on the forward truck of the second half of the diesel engine.

Mortuary attendants said bodies were those of five men, three women and four children.

Police said witnesses told of seeing the crowded car speeding toward the crossing.

The train was traveling at 75 m.p.h.

The train crew said they had felt a "jar" but didn't know at the time what it was.

Walter A. Naergelf, a motorist driving nearby, saw the accident and said:

"It sounded like a hammer hitting a two-by-four."

At the station the train paused two hours for minor repairs and continued on its way from Los Angeles to Chicago. No one aboard was hurt.

The accident took place at a level crossing marked only by a standard wooden railroad sign.

Bodies of the dead were strewn along a 30-foot-deep, 200-foot gulch at the base of the railroad embankment.

One survivor, an 18-month-old girl, was found whimpering in the bushes. She was taken to the Maricopa county hospital, where surgeons operated on her for a fractured skull and a broken jaw.

The Arizona highway patrol said it is believed to be the worst auto accident in the state's history.

Reich Army Brings Back Old Uniforms

BONN, Germany (AP) — The new German army is restoring the jackboot and a uniform similar to that of the old Wehrmacht, defense officials said today.

The present army uniforms—double breasted with wide-cut lapels—were criticized as being "un-German," "Latin American" or "like hotel porters" when they were unveiled 18 months ago.

The Rev. Clyde Nichols, chairman of the effort, expressed regret that any had been overlooked but asked that residents continue their generous spirit by taking the clothing to the former Herald location at Ninth and Main. Just leave the items on the walk next to the building, and they will be put inside at intervals during the day, said the Rev. Nichols.

The clothing is due to be processed and shipped about the middle of the week, so clothing brought to Ninth and Main should be taken there not later than Tuesday.

Omelet Cooked On Turnpike

SOUTH BRUNSWICK, N. J. (AP) — A huge omelet was cooked on the New Jersey Turnpike early today. A truck loaded with eggs overturned and caught fire near here.

Police said the omelet was so well done that a bulldozer had to be brought to scrape up a seven-foot high pile of it that blocked the highway for nearly an hour.

The accident occurred when the truck, on its way to New York, skidded and overturned. The ensuing fire fried the eggs.

Egypt Walking Into Dangerous Red Trap Of Her Own Making

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
 AP Foreign News Analyst

PARIS (AP) — Egypt, at the moment the acknowledged leader of the Arab world, is walking into a dangerous trap of her own making.

Events of the past two years, climaxed by the recent hostilities, are pushing Egypt ever closer toward unbreakable ties with the Soviet Union and the Communist bloc.

A system of political trade — at which the Russians have become expert — threatens to chain Egypt to policies of the Red bloc. She already has gone dangerously far along the road. Her sister Syria is just beginning to look down the same road, but the pattern here is still in its early stages.

This correspondent has just returned from a swing through the Middle East. There he found much clear evidence that Arab leaders are becoming frightened at Egypt's danger.

Egypt's current policies, hardened by the British-French-Israeli attack, seem to have closed off for the time being any readily accessible avenues of rescue from the West. For the moment, only President Nasser has the power to direct the direction of Egypt's change. And he himself in a sense is a prisoner of his own policy.

It is still not too late for Nasser to seek a way out of his trap. He still has a choice before him. He still can attempt to return to the original aims of the Egyptian revolution, turning the attention of the nation inward to its own monumental problems. He can try, possibly with American help, to build Egypt patiently into a position of internal strength that would make resistance to Soviet pressures possible. Or he can continue on the other road.

The Russians are patiently fashioning a chain of economic links. Egypt's trade with the East is carried on through a series of two-way agreements which amount in the long run, to barter. These bilateral deals are a form of political trade used by the Russians in attempts to drive the West out of certain markets. The pressure on Egypt is becoming enormous now.

The Communist bloc has become almost the only supplier for Egypt and at the same time an intermediary for the Western goods Egypt needs. The Russians seem to expect that Egypt eventually will be forced to gear her economy to the East bloc. Then the strong political infiltration will begin.

Controlling all propaganda outlets, Nasser's government is keeping the effects of the recent invasion on the economy well hidden from the Egyptian people. The regime also has been able to convince most of the Egyptian people that they won a great victory.

A few in Egypt know better. The army officers, for example, know Egypt suffered defeat in Sinai at the hands of the Israelis. There is some bitterness against Nasser among higher army officers whom he overruled in his decision to retire before the Israeli attack. If the public suspected a defeat at the hands of Israel, the result would be confusion and turmoil.

Flashing Axes Mark Pastime Of Basques

By RAMON COFFMAN
In mountain areas near the Bay of Biscay we find people known as Basques. These folk live chiefly in Spain, but some are residents of France. They differ in racial stock from both the French and the Spanish; but are members of the white race.

Q. Do the Basques have their own language?
A. Many of them speak Spanish or French, or both, and they have their own special language. The Basque language differs widely from that of any other group of people.

Q. What are the national sports of the Basques?
A. Two of their sports may be described as "national." These are woodcutting and pelota (pronounced peh-LO-tub).

Woodcutting contests are held in various countries, including Australia, but it is unusual for upright trees to be cut. In the homeland of the Basques, the trees are cut and laid on the ground. Sometimes they are dragged to a village square. In the sight of a crowd, axes flash as the contestants seek to prove which can do the fastest work.

The trunks differ in diameter, ranging from one to three feet. A clever woodcutter may cut through a dozen trunks in two hours, or even less.

Q. What is pelota?
A. It is the same game as jai-alai (pronounced HY-uh-LYE, also HY-LYE). The name means "merry festival." "Pelota," on the other hand, means "ball," and refers to the hard ball which is used in the game.

THE GAME OF PELOTA

Q. How many players take part in a game of pelota?
A. There may be two players or four. When there are four, two are partners on each side.

Pelota has become a popular game all over Spain. It also is played in some Latin-American countries, including Mexico and Cuba. Jai-alai contests are held in a few cities of Florida, but I regret that they are marked more by gambling than by interest in fast and skillful playing.

Syria Denies Red Influence

NEW YORK (AP)—The Syrian ambassador to the United States says reports of Soviet penetration into his country are "unfounded" but that "colonial Western policy is pushing the Arab people in that direction."

Dr. Farid Zeineddine, on a radio and TV program yesterday, said Syria is strictly neutral in the Mideast situation. Syria bought arms from Czechoslovakia, he said, "because we were unable to buy them elsewhere."

He said sabotage of the Iraq-Mediterranean oil pipeline "was the result of the Israeli-British-French invasion of the Mideast," adding:

"We would like to see the Mideast return to normal in every way. But to have oil flow in one direction while there is danger blood may flow in the Mideast is something else."

Louis Armstrong In Select Company

By EDDY GILMORE
LONDON (AP)—Louis Armstrong blew into London today to play his famous trumpet for Hungarian relief. The 56-year-old jazzman, who learned his music in a New Orleans school for waifs, found himself in select company.

At the airport to welcome him was the Hon. Gerald Lascelles, first cousin of Queen Elizabeth II, and the Marquis and Marchioness of Donegal.

"Satchmo," said the Hon. Gerald, "all London welcomes you."

"Thank you, Daddy," said Armstrong. "It was a rough flight over the ocean from New York, but I'd fly anywhere in the world for Sir Cullum Welch, the lord mayor."

Armstrong will appear at Royal Festival Hall tomorrow night, accompanied by the 100-piece Royal Philharmonic Orchestra, for the Lord Mayor of London's Hungarian relief fund.

Sir Laurence Olivier will introduce the trumpeter and the lord mayor will speak.

Despite the first day of gasoline rationing, a small jazz band and 50 Armstrong fans showed up at the airport to greet Satchmo.

"What's that button in your lapel?" a British reporter asked. "That's my fraternity button," said Satchmo. "Some college fraternity made me a member."

"College?" asked the puzzled reporter. "I didn't know you ever attended college?"

Satchmo, who never went beyond the fifth grade, replied, "Well, sir, I've played at an awful lot of universities."

"What did you take up at college?" persisted the reporter.

"Everything that wasn't nailed down," laughed Armstrong.

Refugees Begin Job Hunting

DALLAS (AP)—The 87 Hungarian refugees who arrived Saturday started interviews for jobs and homes today.

Most slept late, ate hearty, got haircuts and went sightseeing yesterday. Many attended church. They also watched a professional football game on television.

Clothing donated by area residents was fitted and medical care given.

Jules Memosa, 32, a Budapest wine-making expert, said the rebels never intended to start a revolution but it "was forced upon us."

Memosa turned intelligence agent during the fighting. His name was changed to protect relatives still in Hungary.

"We never had a revolution in mind when 10,000 of us went to ask that we be heard by the leaders," Memosa said through an interpreter.

"We didn't want any more promises, so we turned our pleas into demands." He said "Many of the secret police turned over their guns and ammunition when they saw the size of our force."

Asked if the Hungarian spirit was broken, he answered: "No—they are still holding out."

Allies Begin Last Phase Of Withdrawal

PORT SAID, Egypt (AP)—The British-French forces have begun the last phase of their withdrawal from Egypt after a tank-supported attack on guerrillas in retaliation for the ambush slaying of a British officer.

The deadline for the final pull-out was not announced. U. N. sources indicated it might be tomorrow or Wednesday. But Lt. Gen. Sir Hugh Stockwell, commander of the British-French task force, implied some of the Allied troops might still be on hand Thursday behind the barbed wire ringing their narrow beachhead along Port Said's harbor front.

Stockwell said he had agreed to a U. N. request to let 500 armed Egyptian police enter Port Said Tuesday and 350 more two days later "if the first contingent behaves itself."

Egypt planned to have more than 1,000 black-uniformed police with rifles maintain order in the city after the British-French evacuation.

After the fighting yesterday the British withdrew behind the four miles of barbed wire that bounds their two-block-wide beachhead. The French were preparing to quit Port Said, across the harbor. The U. N. police patrol maintained order throughout the rest of the city.

British and French units staged their power drive against the guerrillas by moonlight late Saturday night and early yesterday through Port Said's dark streets and twisting alleys. The attack was launched after a British officer on patrol duty was killed by a grenade hurled from ambush.

Tanks rumbled through the streets and troops combed the alleys, firing at the elusive guerrillas during the 3½-hour battle. Bullets zoomed over rooftops and red streaks from tracer ammunition laced the sky. British officers said the Allied forces "killed some Egyptians—we're not sure of the number," and captured 10 men in the battle area.

The only casualty reported on the British-French side was the victim of the grenade ambush. The guerrilla attacks have increased as the British and French prepared to quit Port Said for their ships. Egyptian President Nasser's government has disclaimed responsibility for these attacks. After the moonlight retaliatory battle, Egyptian Information Director Abdel Kader Hatem said in Cairo Egypt would assist in the U. N. against the "British-French attacks on the civilian population in Port Said over the weekend."

Prior to the British-French action, troops of the U. N. emergency force in Port Said fired for the first time on harassing guerrillas. Three grenades were thrown at a Norwegian U. N. jeep patrol Saturday, and the patrol fired back. Later other Norwegians fired on the Egyptians expect the U. N. troops to have a short stay in Port Said. An Egyptian officer at Abu Suweir, near Ismailia, said the troops would leave a week after the Egyptian police arrive.

Egypt has insisted that except for a brief preliminary period to restore order, the U. N. units sent in to guard the peace must take up positions along the uneasy Israeli-Egyptian armistice line that existed before Israel and the British-French task force penetrated Egypt.

Maj. Gen. E. L. M. Burns, Canadian commander of UNEF, said yesterday at Lydda Airport near Tel Aviv, Israel, that Israeli troops now holding a line 31 miles east of the Suez Canal will pull back farther this week. Burns made the statement after an hour's conference with Maj. Gen. Moshe Dayan, Israeli army chief of staff, at Lydda.

Burns told newsmen he could not disclose how far the Israelis would retire or quit Egypt's Sinai Desert.

Israeli sources insist their country must get assurance that Egypt will never again use Sinai to mount raids on Israeli territory.

Patman Urges Monetary Study

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Patman (D-Tex.) proposed yesterday a thorough reexamination of our entire monetary system and particularly a re-evaluation of the role of the dollar.

He said tight credit and high interest rates may block "certain social needs for schools, housing, highways" and other national programs.

The Texas Democrat, slated to head the Senate-House Economic Committee in the new session, said Congress must be certain these programs "do not get bypassed in the scramble for scarce resources."

Christmas Card Scene

Silhouetted Sudanese troops of the Egyptian Camel Corps, their weapons almost indistinguishable, seem to recreate the well-known Christmas-time scene of the Magd bearing gifts to the Christ Child. Associated Press staff photographer Jim Pringle recorded the scene as the troopers patrolled the Kantara area of the Sinai Desert to prevent smuggling in the Suez Canal region during the withdrawal of Israeli units as the United Nations police troops replaced them.

Britain, France Complain Egypt Mistreating Citizens

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Britain and France pressed complaints in the U. N. today that Egypt is mistreating its citizens with arrests, deportation and seizure of property.

The two partners in the October-November invasion of the Suez Canal called a private meeting of 16 non-Communist European U. N. delegations to explain their case against Egypt — apparently in anticipation of bringing it before the General Assembly.

A French spokesman said this afternoon's Assembly session "very likely" would be devoted to the charges against Egypt.

France has circulated a resolution asking Secretary General Dag

Red China Is Huge Machine With 600 Million Moving Parts

EDITOR'S NOTE: Canadian reporter David Lanchashire spent six weeks traveling more than 5,000 miles through Red China. Here is an inside look at one of the world's most ancient lands and what is happening to it under Communist domination.

By DAVID LANCASHIRE
HONG KONG, Dec. 17 (AP)—Red China today is an immense machine with 600 million moving parts, running at top speed.

Its 600 million individuals are sacrificing their individuality in an all-consuming drive to change a backward, poverty-ridden nation into a modern state.

China has the largest labor force in the world. With the straining sinews of the 600 million, she is struggling to leave the Middle Ages behind and equal the United States in industrial power by the year 2000.

Mule carts still rattle down the streets of major cities, but Chinese-built jet planes whine overhead. Not one Chinese in 10 million can drive a car, but Chinese-built trucks are rolling off an assembly line. Peasants still cultivate the land with water buffalo, but many farms are producing a surplus for the first time in 5,000 years.

After seven years in power, the Communists have educated millions who could not read. They have controlled treacherous rivers which for centuries have flooded and eroded precious farmland. They have reforested deserts and built highways where man has never before walked. They have unified the country and stabilized its currency.

To do this, they eliminated with firing squads and political prisons those who stood in the way.

No one thinks, except the few at the top who outline policy and form the opinions of 600 million. No one is capable of giving an original or nonpolitical answer to the simplest question.

"Thanks to Chairman Mao," the peasant will say when he proudly shows you around the socialized farm.

"Under the correct leadership of Chairman Mao and the Communist party," is the industrialist's answer for his increased production.

Intellectuals are reduced to Marxist phrasings. They thank the party for giving them the opportunity to write books which praise the system.

Ideas and opinions are taken ready made from Peiping. Radios blare propaganda.

The latest word is passed from the Imperial City to the village cadre and pushed into the heads of the villagers.

The newspapers — which give no news but pre-digested thoughts, advice and production statistics from Peiping — are read by virtually everyone who can read, and are read aloud to those who cannot. Stuck on bulletin boards, they are studied and discussed by every passerby.

Word of a new government program, a new government attitude, sweeps the country like a grass fire. Old thoughts and attitudes are discarded the same way. What was right yesterday will be dead wrong tomorrow, if the government says so.

Although the new system was stuffed down the throats of many at gunpoint, they seem, on the surface at least, to be in favor of it. A visitor, of course, hears largely only what the Communists want him to hear, and he hears it through an official interpreter. But even in casual conversation there is praise for the government.

Criticism within limits is a mainstay of the state's policy. On the eve of National Day, Chou En-lai said in a speech: "We have no reason whatsoever to be contented with the achievements attained. We should correct the shortcomings in our work. We sincerely request our friends to give us suggestions and stringent criticisms."

Faith Healer Dies Of Polio

DALLAS (AP)—Faith healer and evangelist Jack Coe died yesterday of bulbar polio.

Coe, 38, was sued last year by a Miami, Fla., couple. They charged Coe with ordering braces taken from the legs of their 3-year-old son, a polio victim. They said the boy was not healed as Coe allegedly said and suffered great pain.

The suit was dismissed recently.

The evangelist, father of six, operated the Dallas Revival Center and the Herald of Healing at Waxahachie, about 30 miles south of here.

He preached extensively through the South and employed some 80 persons.

He was admitted to Parkland Hospital Nov. 25.

Explosion Of Shell Critically Hurts Boy

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP)—John Sell, 13, was critically injured when a bullet, lying in an ash tray, exploded as he and a friend threw lighted matches on it. Flying pieces of metal pierced his jugular vein and windpipe, authorities said.

Investigators said the boy found the bullet in a trash heap and took it with him to the home of a friend.

The second boy, Edgar J. Allen, also 13, was unhurt.

Asthma and Hay Fever Relief Comes in Minutes ... and Lasts For Hours

Tiny Tablet Now Available Without Prescription!

New York, N. Y. (Special)—Medical science has developed a new, tiny tablet that not only stops asthma spasms ... but brings relief to those who also suffer from hay fever attacks.

Authoritative tests have proved that this remarkable compound brings blessed relief in mere minutes—and gives hours of freedom from recurrence of painful spasms.

This fast-acting formula is prescribed by doctors for their private patients who suffer from both asthma and hay fever. And now sufferers can obtain this formula—without prescription—in tiny, easy-to-take tablets called Primatene.

New Primatene opens bronchial tubes, loosens mucous congestion, relieves taut nervous tension, helps dry up nasal passages.

All this without taking painful injections, and without the inconvenience of nebulizers.

The secret of Primatene is that it contains medicines found most effective in combination for those who suffer from asthma and hay fever distress.

Primatene is available at all drug stores. The price is only 98¢ for a bottle of twenty-four tablets. And remember—if not entirely satisfied, your money will be refunded promptly.

So look forward to sleep at night and freedom from anxiety by day. Get Primatene today!

Mrs. Bass Hosts Tea For SS Class, Guests

An arrangement of gold pine cones and Christmas balls, shaped into a tree, centered the table at the tea given in the home of Mrs. A. C. Bass Sunday afternoon. Green trees decorated the red cloth used on the table, which held silver candelabra and red candles. Crystal and silver services were used.

Assisting in the house party were Mrs. W. A. Underwood, Mrs. C. E. Shive, Mrs. W. A. Miller and Mrs. W. E. Moren.

About 55 attended the party.

Home For Holidays

Here for the holidays are Mrs. J. B. Lanier and daughter, Faith Valerie, who arrived Saturday evening from Macon, Ga. They are guests in the home of her mother, Mrs. Molly Crittenden.

Holiday Tea Marks Observance Of Richardsons' 25th Anniversary

Their 25th wedding anniversary was celebrated Sunday afternoon by Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Richardson at a tea in their home. The couple was married in Clovis, N.M. Dec. 15, 1931.

Mrs. Richardson is the former Ina Davis. Combining Christmas and anniversary decorations, the house featured a theme of red and silver. An arrangement of red candles, a white Santa Claus, spruce and red Christmas balls stood on the piano.

A group of choirboy figurines, on a chest, had a background and base of silver and red and spruce.

A poinsettia rested on the registry table.

The numerals, 25, in silver were the central attraction in the tea table, which was covered with a red cloth. A bowl of white carnations held the numbers and was combined with silver candles. Silver was used for setting.

The anniversary couple greeted guests, assisted by Mrs. Richardson's mother, Mrs. J. G. Davis Sr. of Dimmitt, Texas.

Members of the house party included Mrs. Richardson's sister, Mrs. Albert Smith, Mrs. Pat Harrison, Mrs. George Pittman, Mrs. A. D. Muneke, Mrs. H. W. Mc-

Canless, Mrs. J. D. Jones, Mrs. L. A. Griffith, Mrs. L. N. Brooks, Mrs. O. B. Hull, Pyle Bradshaw, Mrs. Tip Anderson Sr., and Dorothy Driver.

Guests included J. G. Davis Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rothwell, all of Dimmitt. Other guests were present from Sweetwater, Lamesa, Odessa, Midland, Seymour, Archer City, Snyder and Lubbock. Over 200 called during the afternoon.

For the party, Mrs. Richardson was attired in a blue velvet sheath and wore clear plastic pumps. Her earrings were of diamonds.

Eastern Star Entertains For District Deputy Grand Matron

Members of the Eastern Star honored Dorothy Driver with a tea Sunday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Norman Read. Miss Driver is the district deputy grand matron.

Officers of the group formed the receiving line, with Mrs. Read greeting guests. Irene Barnett, worthy grand matron, introduced the honoree, Mrs. W. E. Carrick and A. A. McKinney, worthy patron, completed the line.

Tea was served from a pink and silver table, covered with a cut-work cloth. Pink tapers in silver candelabra flanked an arrangement of pink carnations and silver foliage in the shape of a small Christmas tree.

Crystal and silver were used in the serving, and napkins in the featured colors were marked with the honoree's name.

Over 200 called to visit with the honoree, who wore an off-the-shoulder frock of white net. This was accented with rhinestones and clear beads; she wore a red carnation corsage.

Serving in the house party were Mrs. Paul Carroll, Mrs. Eula Hall,

Mrs. O. B. Hull, Mrs. Glenn Cantrell, Mrs. Drew Lyster, Mrs. W. U. O'Neill, Mrs. W. D. Peters, Mrs. Alice Haynes, Mrs. C. A. Murdock, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Eaker, Mr. and Mrs. Rad Ware, Mr. and Mrs.

Swing Your Girl To Garden City For A Do-Si-Do

The Garden City Square Dance Club has voted to give a free dance as a Christmas present to all the square dancers of the area.

The Cosden Playboys have been employed to play for the dance, which will be held on Thursday night, in the old gymnasium at the Garden City School. The time is from 7:30 to 11:00.

All dancers and callers from any location are invited to attend this free Christmas celebration.

Carlson Hamilton, Mrs. Perry G. Jones, Mrs. F. A. Fiveash and Mrs. John Pickett.

Out-of-town guests attended from Midland, Stanton, Garden City, Colorado City, Sweetwater, Abilene, Seymour, Archer City, Lubbock, Fabens, Floydada and Idalou.

Club Honors Carsons On Anniversary

A meeting of an informal supper club Saturday evening was really a surprise celebration of the 25th wedding anniversary of Dr. and Mrs. Arch Carson.

The couple was married in Brownwood, Dec. 29, 1931; the in-honor affair was given early due to a trip to New York, scheduled at the end of the month.

Members met in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ted O. Groebel where the honored guests were presented with gifts of silver from the club and from Mrs. Doll Brooks of San Antonio.

Singing, dancing and an exchange of Christmas gifts were the diversions for the evening. Match folders and cocktail napkins bore greetings to the Carsons. Dinner was served buffet.

Eighteen guests were seated at a table featuring a bridal arrangement of white carnations and white tapers in silver candelabra. Places were marked with small cards bearing silver wedding bells.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Carson's brother, Gene Moore, and a brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kreklow, all of Eldorado.

Lamesa Organizations Have Yuletide Parties

LAMESA—Mrs. Gertrude Green was hostess for the Central Women's Home Demonstration Club Christmas party Friday evening. Decorations of the home followed the holiday theme.

Mrs. M. G. Riggan read several poems, and Mrs. Claudia Ryan told a Christmas story. The group sang Christmas carols and exchanged gifts. Refreshments were served to ten members.

LAMESA—Members of the Teen-Age Library Association were entertained with a banquet at the Caprock Room Friday evening. Melva Jo Miller, president, presided at the banquet.

Sonja Minix sang "White Christmas"; Judy Wilson sang "Winter Wonderland"; Jean Ranson read "The Night Before Christmas." Karen Applegate presented an accordion solo, and Nelda Emberton was heard at the piano. Highlight of the evening was the crowning of Joyce Grissom as the TALA sweetheart.

LAMESA—The Country Club was the scene for the dance given by mothers of the Lamesa choral groups following their concert. The mantel at the club was banked in greenery and Christmas ornaments and holly tied with red ribbons was used in the ballroom.

The serving table was laid with a red linen cloth and with felt Christmas trees and sequins; an arrangement of brass candelabra holding red tapers was at one end of the table.

The Everett McAullays were presented a gift by the group of 80 members of the groups and their guests.

Magnolia Camp Host Sunshine Club Party

OTIS CHALK—The Sunshine Club met Thursday evening at the Magnolia Safety Hall, with members of the Magnolia Camp as hostesses. Games were played and carols were sung. Gary Don Starr read "The Night Before Christmas," and sang, accompanying himself on the guitar. Gifts were exchanged by the group of 33.

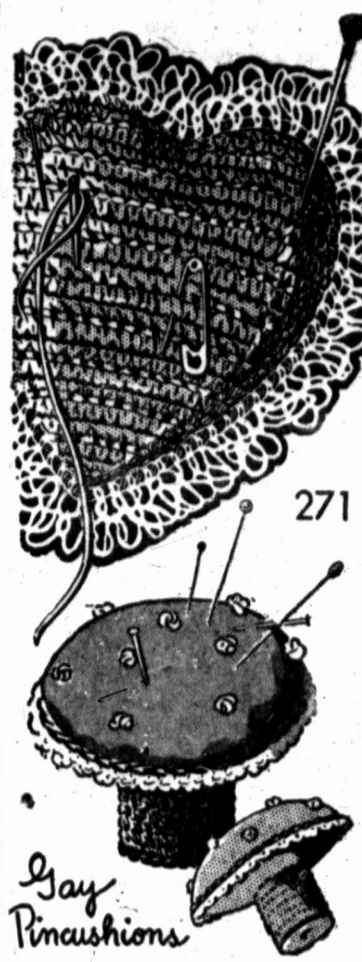

Guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gay Moore and Gay Leonard have been Mr. and Mrs. Oren Moore and Dalza Kay of Westbrook.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Hutcheson have spent part of their vacation at home.

Recent guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Parker have been her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Palmer, Jack and Larry of Jal. N. M., and Mr. and Mrs. Troy Lankford and Darlene of Westbrook.

Pen Pals Visit

Weekend guests in the home of Mrs. Ina Monteith have been Dr. and Mrs. Jack Sturm of Detroit, Mich., who were on their way to California. Mrs. Monteith and Mrs. Sturm have been pen pals for eight years, and this was their first meeting.

Homemakers Class Assembles Basket

A Christmas basket was assembled by the members of East Fourth Baptist Homemakers Sunday School Class when they met Friday evening. Mrs. Rufus Davidson was hostess for the group.

Mrs. H. Reaves opened the meeting with a prayer, and Mrs. L. Patton gave the devotion. Mrs. H. G. Hudson offered the closing prayer for the 12 present. This included three guests, Mrs. G. Tracy, Mrs. Patton and Mrs. Hudson.

Aluminum Reflectors

When trimming outdoor trees for the holidays, use this easy way to combine lighting with decorating for added glamour. Fashion reflectors from individual-size aluminum foil pie pans. (Many frozen pies are sold in these small containers. Make a hole in the bottom of the pan, insert the socket, and tape the reflectors to the sockets. Then, press the reflectors into the shape of stars or giant snowflakes.

Informal Party Given Saturday

Friends of Mrs. Dale Smith and Mrs. Allen R. Orr gathered in the Smith home Saturday afternoon for a holiday party.

Assisting with the greetings and serving were Mrs. Jack Wise, Mrs. A. J. Conrad, Mrs. J. J. Hardegree and Mrs. Rodney Rish.

Coppered decorations were featured over the home, with an unusual arrangement in the living room. This was of dried material in copper tones with snow birds, coppered and glittered, nestled among the stems and foliage.

A large candle in a copper shade and sprinkled with glitter, was the center of an arrangement of pine cones and other Christmas baubles for the refreshment table. A red cloth formed the background, with milkglass and crystal services used.

About 75 accepted the hospitality.

McPhaul Home Is Setting For Tea

LAMESA—About 200 guests called for tea at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McPhaul Sunday afternoon between three and five-thirty. Co-hostesses with Mr. and Mrs. McPhaul were Mr. and Mrs. Matt McCall.

The house was decked with Christmas decorations throughout. The serving table was laid with a white linen cloth with milk glass appointments. Featured on the serving table was a single gold candle surrounded by gold leaves and pine cones.

Members of the house party included Mr. and Mrs. Louis B. Reed, Dr. and Mrs. Noble H. Price, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Henderson, Mrs. Roscoe Holton, Mrs. Audrey Cox and Ann Strickland.

UNTO US A CHILD IS BORN World Adrift In Religious Fantasy Lighted By Christ

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the second in a series of eight studies of the birth and times of Christ. It describes the status of religion in the heartland of civilization at the time Jesus was born. By GEORGE CORNELL Associated Press Newfeatures Writer Let us go back. For wack. Back into the shades of indelible time. Let us wander in the byways of a strange moment when dawn came at midnight. It is long ago, but today it still is real. The marvel of that hour remains, imperishable and shimmering new. And yet, it seems so strange. How unfamiliar and remote the atmosphere, how charged with dread this ancient year when swarms of grotesque gods prevail and a newborn baby cries in Bethlehem. It is a curious circumstance. A lonely spark, deep in a pagan night. An isolated candle in the dark. Yet it shines our world. Out of a babel of delusion, one single chord strikes through the overriding din, and guides the march of destiny. It transforms men and governments. It forges the matrix of a faith. Here, in Rome's old empire, amid the jaded finery of Egypt, Greece and Persia, here astride the crossroads of a bygone age, a thousand deities hold sway, their clamor thunderous above the still, smoldering void. See those ivory shrines, those freakish images of creatures partly man and partly goat, those chanting hordes of white-robed eunuch priests, those lofty temples built to Zeus holding lightning in his hand. It is odd the turning point would come, that man's transcendent star would rise, just when he floundered most, adrift in fantasy. But that is the grand phenomenon: Out of a spiritual Sahara rises a spring of living water. This one event becomes a hub of history. You are not apt to note it in this distant age—so widespread

ZEUS A study by Guy Rowe are the myths and mystic cults: In caves or groves, the members meet to ring bells, sing and stomp. They whip up whirling frenzies, slashing their own flesh and quaffing blood and writing in the mire beneath the grated altar of a sacrificial bull—the "taurobolium." You ask, "Did many do this sort of thing?" Oh yes, quite so. It seems religious fevers race through the lands, bursting out in weird array, in rampant rites to ectoplasmic gods. These gods are potent entities; the dagger-wielding sun god, Mithra; the queen of all fertility, Cybele; the great Osiris, rebirth god, and mother-earth Demeter. Masses huddle in their shadow. It is hard to recognize this world of 2,000 Decembers back—back when that tiny parapet arose against the heathen flood, back when that garden grew up in a jungle. Come along the streets of any town, of Corinth, Alexandria, of Joppa, Tyre, or even Jerusalem. Listen to the prattling of magicians, dream - interpreters and wonder-workers. "May thy planet favor thee today." This is the common greeting. Men's minds are bowed to soothsayers, astrologers, diviners of the future in the liver of a sheep. The dazzling sights that catch the eye are the showy marble temples, served by hundreds of attendants, by throngs of vestal virgins and corps of temple prostitutes. The myths and superstitions of

Refugee Describes Battle With Reds

CAMP KILMER, N.J., Dec. 17 (AP) — "I wish there was a way for me to get back to fight those pigs." Those were the defiant words today of 22-year-old Lasso Jobbagyi, the youth who kept the Western world informed of the Russian tank assault on Budapest on Black Sunday, Nov. 4. Jobbagyi, who alternately fired at the Russians and tapped out dramatic messages on a teleprinter from the besieged Yzabod Nep newspaper building to The Associated Press in Vienna, said he's just waiting for an opportunity to battle the Communists again. He was one of those who, facing death for his part in the Hungarian revolt, fled across the Austrian border in freezing cold. He arrived here yesterday among the record 1,017 refugees landing in 15 planes at McGuire Air Force Base and LaGuardia Field. Interviewed just before he started through processing at the camp, Jobbagyi disclosed through an interpreter just how difficult it was for the unarmed peasants to oppose the Russian might. The good-looking young man with a brush haircut and ruddy complexion, had been drafted into the Communist Hungarian army in 1954 but was in an army penal battalion for various infractions like writing a letter critical of communism. He and others broke out of the camp, killing the Communist officers, and took up guerrilla warfare after the revolt started Oct. 23. Although they had no ammunition or weapons, they rounded up some trucks and drove into Budapest. On Nov. 3 he was in his home

Funds Raised For New Bank

ELLENVILLE, N.Y. (AP) — A total of $800,000 has been pledged toward the $1,050,000 needed to open the proposed new Ellenville National Bank. Harry Resnick, chairman of a businessmen's committee, announced the pledges yesterday, and added he was confident necessary capital will be raised by Tuesday, the deadline set by the government. The bank will replace the defunct Home National Bank, closed Dec. 4 after auditors found a shortage of $1,300,000. The Home Bank's president, William R. Rose, 51, is being held in $30,000 bail in connection with the shortage. Rose contends he pocketed none of the money and was only trying to help out local business men.

Famed Nurse Enters Hospital

PARIS (AP) — The French woman who nursed the defenders of Dien Bien Phu through their long siege and her husband have been flown home from Madagascar to be treated for an amoebic parasite infection, a Paris newspaper reported today. The military nurse, the former Genevieve de Galard, and her husband, Capt. Jean de Heaulme de Boutsok, were reported at the Val de Grace military hospital. He is a parachute officer she met in Indochina and married last June. Genevieve was the only French woman at Dien Bien Phu when it fell to the Communist Vietnam forces in May 1954 after a long siege. The Reds released her soon after taking the fortress.

medium build, was once a champion breast stroke 200-meter swimmer star and has a number of medals. He said he's like to study medicine.

CONSTIPATED? new laxative discovery un-locks bowel blocks without gag, bloat or gripe

Constipation is caused by what doctors call a "shriveled" colon. A "shriveled" colon is one that, instead of retaining moisture as it should, does the opposite: robs the colon of so much moisture that its contents become dehydrated, so dry that they block the bowel; so shrunken that they fail to excite or stimulate the urge to purge that propels and expels waste from your body. TO REGAIN NORMAL REGULARITY two things are necessary. First, the dry, shrunken contents of your colon which now block your bowel must be re-moistened. Second, bulk must be brought to your colon to re-stimulate it and so, excite its muscles to action; to a normal urge to purge. ONLY A BULK LAXATIVE can 1) re-moisten this dry, shrunken waste and 2) supply vital bulk to re-create a normal urge to purge. And, of all bulk laxatives, COLONAD, the amazing new laxative discovery is so effective that it relieves even chronic constipation overnight, yet is so smooth, so gentle it has been proved safe even for women in the most critical stages of pregnancy. SUPERIOR TO OLD STYLE bulk, salt or drug laxatives, COLONAD neither gags, bloats nor gripes; does not interfere with your absorption of vitamins and other valuable food nutrients; and in clinical tests, did not cause rash or other side reactions. IT'S A PHYSIOLOGICAL FACT! Exercise tones your body! And COLONAD exercises your colon to tone it against constipation, overnight! Whether occasional, frequent or chronic, whatever your degree of constipation, get COLONAD, in easy-to-take tablet form at any drug counter, today! The price, only 98¢ for the economical 60 tablet package, brings you positive relief at less than 2¢ per tablet.

Wooten Firm Handles All Moving Details

Not too many years ago, the average householder, faced with the necessity of moving his household furnishings and personal belongings to a new house or to a new city, had only two alternatives. He could either provide his own wagon and team and make the move personally or he could load his belongings on a train and then arrange for them to be unloaded and delivered at the new address.

Now that the art of moving has developed to its present stage, all of this is gone from the scene. Moving is a simple procedure—he the move from one part of town to another or from one coast to the other.

The householder merely picks up the phone, calls a bonded and experienced moving firm, tells them what he has to do and when it must be done. That's the whole deal.

The moving company sends in crews of men, provides huge trucks, all the barrels, boxes and other material for packing and protecting the furniture. The workers do all the work, load the goods on the truck. When it reaches its destination, they reverse the process and unload and unpack. The householder and his family have only to step into their new residence and take up living again.

Wooten Storage and Transfer Company, 505 East 2nd, is a good firm to keep in mind when you have to move. Wooten is agent for Wheaton's and Lyon Van Lines, expert long distance movers. In addition, Wooten operates his own vans and has his own expert moving crews.

If you are faced with a move—local or long distance—call Wooten. The day phone is 47741. At night, call 4-6292.

Thomas Stocks Christmas Gifts

For the student, the business man and that favorite nephew or niece, one can find any number of things suitable for Christmas giving at the Thomas Typewriter and Office Supply, located at 107 Main Street in Big Spring.

One of the most appreciated gifts would be a Royal portable typewriter, undoubtedly the world's most popular machine of its kind because it is the biggest selling machine of them all.

The Royal standard and the Royal electric are also much-in-demand items all over the world.

The standard, of course, comes in different colors—designed to blend into the color scheme of the office or home. An even greater variety of colors is offered in the electric, which more and more office managers are buying to speed up work.

Such gifts as fountain pens, desk sets, ball-point pens and automatic pencils are also stocked by the Thomas concern.

Of course, the establishment maintains a complete line of office furniture throughout the year. Such equipment as posture chairs, steel desks, filing cabinets, adding machines, cash registers and wire baskets are stocked by the Thomas concern.

If you desire to rent a typewriter for a short time in order to complete a single project, you can, of course, do so at reasonable terms at the Thomas Typewriter and Office Supply. The machines can be leased on a weekly or monthly basis, which ever is convenient with the user.

Business telephone number of the establishment is AM 4-6621. Dial that number for demonstration of equipment stocked by the establishment.

McMahon Concrete Company Has All Construction Materials, Equipment

When you think of ready-mix concrete, you naturally think of the Clyde McMahon Ready-Mix Concrete Company.

And many builders in the Big Spring area are discovering that it pays to think first of McMahon when in need of any type of concrete construction material or equipment.

For McMahon's name is rapidly becoming synonymous with practically everything in the concrete construction field. McMahon has added a complete supply house to his ready-mix concrete establishment.

Everyday saws and blades are available for cutting either brick or concrete. The blades are available in abrasive, diamond and "tuffie" models.

Whiteman products include powered vibrators, screeding machines, trowel and disc floating machines, rotating and stationary ring types, and the popular "power huggies" for moving concrete or other materials in the confinements of a construction project.

Accessories are available, of course, for each of the items.

Builders also will find McMahon adequately stocked with Remington stud drivers, loads and cartridges. The supply house also displays a big assortment of hand tools and a number of concrete additives to govern such things as color, hardness, etc.

Of course, McMahon still dis-

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

As a breed, traveling sporting goods salesmen know, or profess to know, more about statewide school athletic business than any five sports writers.

Indications are all eight teams entered in this season's Howard College Basketball Tournament (Jan. 3-4-5) will bring better won-and-lost records here than any field in history.

Usually, there is at least one weak sister in the octet but this time they all seem to be winning. Decatur, usually "down" in the past, won seven of its first ten starts, as an example. The Indians' seventh win came over Arlington State, 84-71.

During that stretch, Decatur had lost only to Lon Morris (twice) and HCC.

Lon Morris, another tourney entry, won its first six starts and bowled over a good Kilgore JC team, among others, along the way.

Dale Godfrey, a 22-year-old freshman from Tulsa, Okla., at 6-foot-7, is Lon Morris' "down" in the past, won seven of its first ten starts, as an example. The Indians' seventh win came over Arlington State, 84-71.

Chicago Bears Tip Lions In Roughie

By The Associated Press
The Chicago Bears, runners-up six times since they last won a pro football title in 1946, finally made it to the top Sunday, thrashing the Detroit Lions 38-21 to set up a championship playoff with the New York Giants at Yankee Stadium Dec. 30.

With Ric Casares leading the way with 190 yards in 17 carries in a riotous game at Wrigley Field, the Bears avenged a 42-10 loss to Detroit two weeks ago to win the battle for the Western Conference championship.

The Giants, also without a division title in 10 years, clinched the Eastern championship Saturday by defeating Philadelphia, 21-7.

Casares, limited to 45 yards when the Lions humiliated the Bears in their earlier meeting, broke loose for one big gain after another, including a 68-yard touchdown run that put the Chicagoans ahead to stay in the second period. Only minutes before, the Lions had lost ace quarterback Bobby Layne after he was barreled into by Ed Meadows, a defensive end for Chicago.

And a controversy over whether the action was deliberate raged long after the game, with the Lions announcing they would attempt to have the former Duke star barred from football.

Layne himself said, "I don't know what hit me." Meadows said, "There was nothing deliberate about it. Sure I was trying to tackle him and I always try to tackle hard. But as for being out to get him, there's nothing to that at all."

Harry Gilmer, Layne's replacement, passed for two touchdowns and set up another, but the Detroit defense was unable to contain the Chicago attack, which struck for 444 yards, 307 of it on the ground.

The victory gave the Bears a final Western Conference record of 9-2-1 to 9-3 for Detroit.

In other games Sunday, Pittsburgh defeated Washington 23-0, the Chicago Cardinals defeated the Cleveland Browns, 24-7. San Francisco defeated Baltimore 30-17 and Los Angeles walloped Green Bay, 49-21.

It was the final game of the regular season for all except Baltimore and Washington, who have a makeup game at Baltimore next Sunday.

By defeating the Browns, the Cardinals assured themselves of at least a share of second place in the final Eastern standings with a 7-5 record. Washington, now 6-5, could tie with a victory at Baltimore Dec. 23.

Lamar McLean scored twice in the Cards' victory, their first in 13 games against Cleveland.

The Redskins, eliminated from the Eastern race when New York clinched on Saturday, never came close to scoring against Pittsburgh. The Steelers' Ted Marchibroda led the way with two touchdowns.

Joe Arenas' 68-yard touchdown run in the fourth period triggered the 49ers to their victory over Baltimore, clinching third place in the West for Frisco and dropping the Colts to fourth.

Norm Van Brocklin's running and passing featured the Los Angeles romp over Green Bay, which enabled the Rams to drag the Packers into a last place tie in the West.

Ernest Byrd, Jr., and Lemuel Green will fight a return bout in the Lakeview School Gym the night of Jan. 15.

Byrd won on a TKO over Green in a featured bout at Lakeview last Friday night when Green was forced to quit in the second round due to an eye injury.

Byrd thus rules as the school champion in the light-heavyweight division.

In the co-feature Friday, Steve Harper, 165, won on a TKO over Robert Allen, 164, in the second round.

Rogers Lee Evans, 178, lost on a TKO to Holston Banks, 175, in the second round.

Elvis Webster, 150, and B. F. Newton, 160, fought a three-round draw.

Danny Ray Traylor, 132, knocked out Jimmy Bartley, 128, in the second round.

Charles Johnson, 128, won a decision over Earl Wayne Harper, 125.

Wilbur Allen, 118, and Dee Scaggs, 118, fought to a draw in the evening's final match.

A large crowd watched the fights.

CLASS A
Moser Will Stay
ABILENE (U) - Missouri will have to get along without Chuck Moser. The coach of Abilene High wired Don Fauror, athletic director of Missouri, yesterday that he would not come to Columbia for an interview regarding filling the Missouri head coaching job. Fauror, retiring coach, called Moser Friday asking Moser to fly to Columbia.

CHICAGO (U) - Constantine (Gus) D'Amato, who directed Floyd Patterson to the world heavyweight championship in just 32 pro bouts, today was named boxing's "manager of the year" by the Chicago Boxing Writers and Broadcasters Assn.

Mike Fetchick Is Champion At Sanford

SANFORD, Fla. (U) - Mike Fetchick climaxed his first big money year in professional golf with victory in the $15,000 Sanford Open yesterday by a record score of 263.

Not only will the $2,400 first prize make a pleasant bulge in his Christmas stocking, the way he played the 72 holes give promise of more such paydays ahead.

After an opening 65 put Fetchick, 34, in second place, the New Yorker overtook Dow Finsterwald with a 63, then withstood challenges by Finsterwald and Frank Stranahan with a 67 in the third round and again had to fight off Stranahan on the closing day.

Fetchick shot a safe 68 in the final round over the 6,205-yard Mayfair course. Even when Stranahan crept within one stroke going to the next to last hole, Fetchick kept his iron nerve and parred the final two holes.

Stranahan, 33, millionaire spark plug heir from Toledo, Ohio, also put 68 in the last round and finished two strokes behind Fetchick at 265 and collected $1,800.

Finsterwald, 27, the year's second biggest money winner of the golf tour who plays out of Bedford Heights, Ohio, came in third with 268, good for $1,400. His final 18-hole round was even par 70.

Tommy Bolt of Houston, Tex., collected fourth money of $1,200 for 270. Jay Hebert of Sanford and Dave Douglas of St. Louis each shot 271 and won $900.

Wolves Are Fined In Moreland Case

RALEIGH, N. C. (U) - North Carolina State today faced the stiffest penalty - a $5,000 conditional fine and curtailment of its basketball recruiting activities - for its method of recruiting basketball star Jackie Moreland.

In a telegram released yesterday by N. C. State Chancellor Carey H. Bostian from ACC commissioner James Weaver, State was ordered to refrain from contracting any prospective basketball player for one year.

Previously the ACC had charged it found that State officials offered Moreland transportation money from his Minden, La., home to Raleigh and also offered Moreland a fifth year of financial help in school if he needed it.

The kicker on the fine announced by the ACC was that it will be canceled if Moreland stays at State without "athletic eligibility" and under his present scholarship arrangement.

The college has denied the charges against it and Chancellor Bostian said the penalty will be lifted if Moreland stays at State without "athletic eligibility" and under his present scholarship arrangement.

The National Collegiate Athletic Assn. Nov. 13 placed State on probation for four years in the case, the stiffest penalty ever handed out by that group.

The fine by the ACC is the heaviest financial penalty permitted by its constitution.

Weaver said the NCAA acted against State last month on the basis of a signed statement by Moreland made to the executive director of the NCAA in Weaver's presence.

Moreland, a 6-8 sensation, enrolled at State last fall after signing a letter of intent at Texas A&M and a grant-in-aid at Kentucky.

STANTON (SC) - Flower Grove and Wink ruled as champions of the Stanton Invitational basketball tournament, which closed here Saturday night.

Flower Grove drubbed Stanton in the girls' finals, 41-38; while Wink dominated Westbrook in the boys' finals, 44-40.

Knott drubbed Garden City, 45-23, in the girls' consolation finals. Flower Grove turned back Lockport in the boys' consolation finals.

In the Knott-Garden City girls' game, Jean Sample hit 27 points for Knott. Sue Paige had eight, Ann Rogers six and Virgie Graham four.

Alice Clark led Garden City with 19. Wanda Williams had eight and Marceline Gill six.

Sample and Clark were named to the all-tournament team, along with Linda Glaze, Stanton; Cook, Flower Grove; and Wingate, Garden City.

Woody Long of Knott and Frank Murphy of Garden City were selected for the boys' all-tournament squad.

Glaze of Stanton was the top scorer of the tournament among the girls with 29 points. Webb of Flower Grove led the boys with 70.

Midwestern and Abilene Christian lead the league with 2-4 records while North Texas and Trinity are winless in six outings each.

Midwestern starts the week off with a game against Hardin-Simmons at Wichita Falls. Tuesday Trinity hosts Sam Houston, North Texas plays Pittsburg State, ACC engages TCU at Fort Worth and Midwestern plays Central Oklahoma at Wichita Falls. ACC plays Texas Wesleyan at Fort Worth Friday.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (U) - An official of the National Assn. of Intercollegiate Athletics said yesterday drawing for the first round of games in the NAIA "tip off" basketball tournament at Omaha, Neb., will be made during the coming weekend.

Al Duer of Los Angeles, executive secretary of the NAIA, made the announcement.

Abilene And Nederland Favored In Playoffs

By The Associated Press
Next weekend they settle the championships of Texas schoolboy football and the signs point to Abilene, Nederland, Stamford and Siltsett, all undefeated, untied teams.

Class AAAA's title goes on the line at Austin Saturday when Abilene, seeking its 37th straight victory, collides with Corpus Christi Ray.

AAA's championship will be determined Saturday at Nederland with Garland the visiting team.

AA sends Stamford, winner of 31 straight and after its second title in a row, against the Cinderella kids of Brady at Abilene Friday.

Class A matches two unbeaten untied teams—Stinnett and Hondo—at Sweetwater Saturday.

Abilene's foe, Ray, hasn't lost a game but has one tie on its record. Nederland's opponent, Garland, dropped a game to Cleburne in early season. Brady lost a game.

Class A playoff is hardest to figure. Stinnett has lost only a couple of games in two years. Hondo, under the coaching of Max Carver, has won 34, lost 3 and tied 3 in three seasons.

Abilene was as sharp as ever last week in beating hitherto undefeated, untied Wichita Falls 20-6, and looks too strong defensively for Ray. It also boasts in Glenn Gregory the outstanding football player of the state.

Ray got into the finals by taking out a good Baytown eleven 13-6 and pretty well dominating the game. The Texans could give Abilene its hardest fight of the campaign. More than 30,000 are expected in Memorial Stadium.

Garland could beat Nederland and cause no eyebrow lifting but the records and reasoning say Nederland is going to win. The Bulldogs had a tough one last week when they hooked up in a defensive battle with San Antonio Edison and it managed to eke through 7-0.

Garland stormed virtually unhindered through the second half in topping Littlefield 28-2. It's a quick-striking team of great resources. A 95-yard kickoff return by Chuck Bailey shocked Littlefield.

Stamford looks like a cinch to win its second consecutive title without a loss but Brady is an enigma. With Fletcher Fields directing its T attack and throwing strikes all over the lot, Brady has looked as good as anybody. The Bulldogs had to come from behind but they did it magnificently to beat Sinton 20-7 last week.

In gaining the finals last week Stinnett was ruthless in smashing Eastland 55-20 while Hondo had to fight for its life against Humble with its mighty John Steagall. But Al Hartman, probably the year's finest passer, was the difference as he ran and threw Hondo to a 20-13 triumph.

Lakeview Visits Midland Thursday
Lakeview's Rockets visit Midland for a basketball game Thursday night, seeking to improve upon a 1-3 won-lost record.

Last weekend, Lakeview dropped a game for third place to Midland, 58-53, after losing in the opening round to Odessa, 69-60.

Liggins Is Kayoed
NUEVO LAREDO, Mexico (U) - Ricardo Moreno of Mexico City, 10th ranked featherweight, kayoed Bobby Liggins of Los Angeles in 1:38 of the second round yesterday.

Local Reserves Visit Stanton

Sam Bell and John Yates take their Big Spring High School B and C basketball games to Stanton this evening for return games with the Buffaloes.

The Coes meet Stanton's reserves at 6 o'clock while the Short-horns oppose the Stanton regulars at 8 p.m.

The local B team will be seeking its seventh victory in eight starts. The C team is unbeaten in three starts.

The B team will also see action here Tuesday night, at which time Andrews brings two teams here.

STANTON (SC) - Flower Grove and Wink ruled as champions of the Stanton Invitational basketball tournament, which closed here Saturday night.

Al Duer of Los Angeles, executive secretary of the NAIA, made the announcement.

The eight-team field for the "tip off," scheduled for Dec. 27-29, includes Wisconsin State, St. Francis of Brooklyn, Rockhurst of Kansas City, Texas Southern of Houston, Hamline of St. Paul, Gustavus Adolphus of St. Peter, Minn., Arkansas Tech and Indiana Central.

Record-Breaking Cager

Bob Tremaine (above) is being touted for All-American basketball honors at Hardin-Simmons. Every time he scores, he sets a new all-time record for the Cowboys. The big senior recently counted 40 points in one game for the Cowboys.

Webb And Nabors Tangle Tonight

Webb Air Force's Dusters, who returned Sunday from a road trip that carried them into Mexico, play the Nabors Pains Store basketball team in a practice tilt in the Base Gym at 7:30 o'clock this evening.

The Dusters, playing without the services of three first stringers, lost two straight games to Laughlin AFB in Del Rio and then snoped back to defeat the Acuna Rotary Club in a benefit game in Acuna Saturday night.

Laughlin's margins of victory were 87-69 and 87-74. Webb then defeated the Mexicans, 65-63, in a real thriller.

Following the game in Acuna, the Webb players were treated to a banquet by the Rotarians.

A large crowd saw the Acuna game, which was played on a concrete floor out-of-doors. Both teams played "racehorse" ball in order to keep warm - the temperatures dropped sharply after the sun went down.

In that game, Bob McDonald and Bruce Sweeney each scored 15 points to lead Webb.

Sweeney waxed red hot in the second game of the Laughlin series at which time he hit 16 of 20 shots from the field and tossed in eight more points in as many tries from the foul line. In all, he scored 40 points.

James Johnson, Bill Belndorf and Nick Thomas - all first stringers and all student pilots here - didn't make the trip from here due to flying duties.

Byrd To Fight Green Again

Ernest Byrd, Jr., and Lemuel Green will fight a return bout in the Lakeview School Gym the night of Jan. 15.

Byrd won on a TKO over Green in a featured bout at Lakeview last Friday night when Green was forced to quit in the second round due to an eye injury.

Byrd thus rules as the school champion in the light-heavyweight division.

In the co-feature Friday, Steve Harper, 165, won on a TKO over Robert Allen, 164, in the second round.

Rogers Lee Evans, 178, lost on a TKO to Holston Banks, 175, in the second round.

Elvis Webster, 150, and B. F. Newton, 160, fought a three-round draw.

Danny Ray Traylor, 132, knocked out Jimmy Bartley, 128, in the second round.

Charles Johnson, 128, won a decision over Earl Wayne Harper, 125.

Wilbur Allen, 118, and Dee Scaggs, 118, fought to a draw in the evening's final match.

A large crowd watched the fights.

Top Reds Meet To Talk Future Of Satellites

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet Communist party's 133-member ruling group was thought to be meeting at the Kremlin today, with discussion of whether to tighten or relax the grip on the satellites at the head of the agenda. Russians and Westerners accustomed to the Soviet system over the years guessed that the Party Central Committee would meet this week, probably today. There has been no announcement and there probably will be none until the session is over. Correspondents were told recently by Foreign Minister Dmitri Shepilov: "There is no secret about Central Committee meetings. We always issue a communique when it is over." From what the Soviet press has been talking about most in recent weeks, observers here believe the committee's agenda included: 1. The recent events in Hungary, Poland and Yugoslavia and their effect on the process of de-Stalinization. A decision on whether to tighten or relax the Kremlin's grip on the satellites could stem from the discussion. 2. Possible changes in the Moscow leadership. 3. Housing—Discussions of this perennial shortage have appeared frequently of late in the Soviet press. 4. Production of consumer goods—The old problem of heavy industry and arms production vs goods to make life easier, such as refrigerators and TV sets.

Sour Note

Enzo Sordello, a leading baritone who was fired by the New York Metropolitan Opera, tears up a photograph of Maria Meneghini Callas, prima donna whom he blames for his dismissal. Sordello claimed Miss Callas had him ousted because he held a high note longer than she did in their duet at the end of the second act of "Lucia Di Lammermoor." Rudolf Bing, Met's general manager, said Sordello was fired for insubordination. This picture was taken by Bob Noble, staff photographer of the New York Herald Tribune.

Clock Turned Back As Cold Cuts Power

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP)—How many candles does it take to heat—heat, not light—a living room? That's what one woman wanted the Hartford Courant to tell her Saturday night. The woman lived in one of the estimated 100,000 homes that lost electric power, and in the majority of cases that meant also loss of heat, as an ice storm Friday night and Saturday bedeviled the whole northern half of Connecticut. She wasn't the only one who turned back the clock—not the electric clock, though—to colonial times to exist through a rigorous December weekend. Fireplaces served for heating and cooking. Candles provided illumination. Without television or radio, folks had to talk to each other for entertainment. Armories and other emergency shelters were thrown open, but the vast majority preferred to stick it out in their homes. The army in New Britain was the only one of 40 that got any customers. Ten persons were sheltered there. In hard hit West Hartford, a suburb of 45,000, ten families spent Saturday night in an American Legion hall. Merchants reported Saturday was the biggest day they ever experienced in the sale of candles, canned heat, flashlights, portable radios and radio batteries. And the purchasers weren't Christmas shopping.

Freedom's Dawn

Light of dawn breaks through the window of a Military Air Transport Service plane and outlines the sleeping figures of Hungarian refugees Radna Zolani and his daughter, Marika, whose head rests on his shoulder. They and 197 other refugees were welcomed in the full light of freedom on American soil.

Strike In Budapest At An End

BUDAPEST (AP)—The Hungarian workers' sit-down strike appeared to be ended today in Budapest and the provinces. Lack of coal and power still hampered production. Work resumed at the Bejolanis electrical equipment plant, center of the new wave of slow-downs and sit-downs last week protesting the arrest of two leaders of the Budapest Central Workers' Council. The two labor leaders, Sandor Racz and Sandor Bari, have not been released by the Soviet-supported government of Premier Janos Kadar. But the threat of hunger and winter cold appeared to have broken the strike. A Hungarian army lieutenant barred Western correspondents who tried to enter the Bejolanis plant to talk to some of the 6,000 workers. The officer said the plant had been declared a military area and was occupied by Hungarian troops and police. Along with the back-to-work movement, reports of widespread guerrilla activities in the Hungarian countryside and large-scale desertions by Russian troops generally were discounted in Budapest. But most Western observers agreed that the Russians have lost a satellite, and that Hungary will never slip back into the subservience to Moscow which characterized the regime of Stalinist Matyas Rakosi. Reliable informants indicated Kadar's government would probably postpone the proclamation of its "new program" which had been promised for late this week. The reason seemed to be that the situation is returning to normal so slowly that the Premier's advisers thought it would be better to draft a program in what they termed "a more temperate atmosphere." There is still much sullenness and grumbling. These sources said the government wanted to establish its own legality by reviving such pre-revolution constitutional bodies as the Federal Parliament and the Presidential Council. However, many outstanding political figures in both are in the Soviet Union and have been described officially as enemies. And none of the non-Communist leaders Kadar needs to give his regime some semblance of popular support have a seat either in Parliament or in the Presidential Council.

Feaster Rites Set At Buford

COLORADO CITY — Arthur F. Feaster, 64, prominent farmer in the Buford community where he lived for 62 years, died in the hospital here Sunday after a long illness. Services will be held at 3 p.m. Tuesday in the Buford Baptist Church with a former pastor, the Rev. J. C. Keon, officiating, assisted by the Rev. Everett Yielder, Brownfield, and the Rev. Clint L. Eastman, pastor at Buford. Burial will be in the Colorado City cemetery under the direction of Kiker & Son. Mr. Feaster was born in South Carolina on Sept. 18, 1892. He was married in Colorado City to Miss Gertie Jackson on Dec. 7, 1917. Other survivors are three sons, Aaron Feaster, Dewayne Feaster and Ronald Lee Feaster, all of Colorado City; two daughters, Mrs. Mildred Willis and Mrs. Joy Cotto both of Colorado City; three brothers, Luther Feaster and Clint Feaster, Colorado City, and Clu de Feaster, Mission, and two sisters, Mrs. Ewell Smith and Mrs. R. V. Hammond, Colorado City. He also leaves 10 grandchildren.

Daniel Sees Strong Water, Soil Plans

AUSTIN (AP)—Governor-elect Price Daniel predicted today that the 55th Legislature would produce "a strong, long-range water and soil conservation program." "I feel that the approaching session will go down in history as the Legislature that put Texas on the right track in preserving and developing its water resources." Daniel said the lawmakers also showed vital interest in legislation for improvements in laws on law enforcement, the public school system, state hospitals and special schools, traffic safety, and lobby registration. The next governor said his legislative program was being prepared, including the drafting of budget bills, which must be submitted to the Legislature within 20 days after he takes office. Daniel's statement was a report on two weeks of conferences with members of the Legislature. He said the meetings had been "highly productive, and I predict a very constructive session of the Legislature next year." "I have visited with Lieut. Gov. Ramsey, Speaker-elect Waggoner Carr, and a majority of the members. She was married to J. W. Holley in Nashville on Feb. 4, 1886. Four more entries were announced today for the Christmas decorations contest of the Chamber of Commerce and the Big Spring Council of Garden Clubs. This is the last day decorations may be entered. Latest file entries were Mrs. Udell Morris, 1801 Nolan, window and door; Mrs. Johnny Griffin, 609 W. 16th, yard and door; Mrs. John Page, 1202 Stanford, window; and Mrs. H. T. Bratcher, 1505 Aylford, window and door.

Last Soil Bank Claims May Be Settled Quickly

Gabe Hammack, ASC office manager, said that long-awaited information on just how to make final settlement for a few borderline cases in the Soil Bank program has been received. With the instructions on hand, Hammack said that his office would be in a position to pay off the remaining few claims against the Soil Bank for the 1956 program. Letters have been dispatched to the landowners involved asking that they come to the office. He said only about 15 such cases remain to be settled. D. F. Bigony of Fairview called the police department and reported a Chevrolet pickup stolen. He gave the police the name of a man he thought probably took it. Police got the call about 3:25 a.m., and at 3:50 they recovered the vehicle at 100 NW 3rd Driving it was a Mexican National farm laborer.

Missing

Magazine writer George Sessions Perry, 46 (above), was the object of a continuing search by authorities in an area near his Guilford, Conn., home. The search was started after his wife reported him missing.

Perry Search Is Resumed

GUILFORD, Conn. (AP)—Police Chief Joseph Quinlan ordered the five-day-old search for Texas writer George Sessions Perry resumed today, although he said he is positive Perry isn't anywhere near his home.

Perry's wife reported him missing from their home here last Thursday.

Perry, 46, weighed 185 when he disappeared, but friends said he lost 60 pounds from his 6-4 frame in the last year to arthritis.

Police said he couldn't have gone more than a few miles. His wife thought he might have gone looking for the family dog, which was lost a few days before.

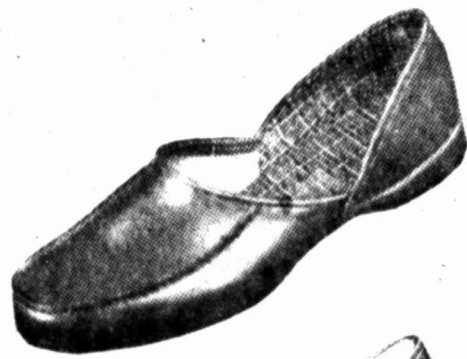

Chief Quinlan said police have run down rumors that Perry was seen in other places without result.

10 Injured In Bus-Car Crash

LONGVIEW, Tex. — Ten persons were injured last night in a collision between a Continental bus and a car two miles south of here. State Highway Patrolman Glenn Elliott said the accident occurred at the intersection of Farm Road 1045 and State 26. He said the car contained five Negroes.

The five occupants of the car and five occupants of the bus were injured. None of the bus passengers were believed to be in serious condition.

The injured were taken to Gregg Memorial Hospital at Longview.

The extent of the injuries of the occupants of the car was not known.

Frigid Blast Moves South

By The Associated Press

A frigid blast of arctic air which spread across the border from Canada yesterday has continued its southward movement dropping temperatures over the central Rockies, Central Plains and most of the upper Mississippi Valley and Great Lakes. Snow flurries accompanied the colder air mass over much of the area.

The remainder of the nation meanwhile, presented varied weather patterns.

Snow, sleet and freezing rain were in prospect for northern New England today while generally fair weather was reported in South-eastern states.

It was partly cloudy over states bordering the central and western Gulf Coast while showers sprinkled Oklahoma and Arkansas.

French Gas Up

PARIS (AP) — French motorists got the bad news today that the price of gasoline has gone up 9 per cent. The government decreed increase brings the price to 79 cents a gallon. Finance Minister Paul Ramadier explained this was due to the increased cost of shipping fuel around South Africa or buying it in the Western Hemisphere.
