Hall To Quit Republican Top Position

WASHINGTON (AP)—Leonard W. Hall announced today he is resigning as chairman of the Republican National Committee effective Feb. 1 and the White House indicated broadly that he will be given a high position in the federal government.

Hall issued his expected announcement after visiting President Eisenhower at the White House.

The President followed through with a statement of his own saying that after Hall takes a vacation "I sincerely hope that his wisdom and his long years of experience as a legislator, judge and chairman, will continue to be available not only to the party but to the nation in the years ahead."

Presidential Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said Hall is going to Florida and: "I would think Mr. Hall's great talents would find suitable use after Mr. Hall has completed his vacation."

A reporter noted that Eisenhower's statement referred to Hall's being available in the future to the party and the nation but said nothing about New York State. Hagerty merely laughed at that. Hall is a resident of Oyster Bay, N.Y. and there has been widespread speculation that he may try for the governorship next year.

Eisenhower had praise for Hall's service as chairman and an expression of regret that he is leaving.

"Naturally," the presidential statement said, "I sincerely regret his decision for I have valued highly his wise political advice and party leadership. But I must accept his decision no matter how reluctant I may be to do so."

Leonard Hall has been a great chairman. Under his guidance and direction, the Republican party organization has been revitalized. Today, largely through his efforts, the party is attracting many thousands of new supporters, particularly from the younger voters of our nation."

Hall has been chairman since April 10, 1953.

There was no immediate indication who will succeed Hall in the party organization. Half a dozen names have been mentioned in speculation.

'TV Therapy' For Mental Patients Urged

CHICAGO (AP)—A group of California researchers suggested today that group treatment by "television therapy" over closed circuits might be one answer to the doctor shortage in many mental hospitals.

They reported good results in experiments with patients at Agnew's State Hospital in Agnew, Calif.

The first clue that television could "reach" the patient, they said, came in the spring of 1953 when five sets were installed in the Agnew Hospital to receive commercial programs.

Writing in the current Archives of Neurology and Psychiatry, published by the American Medical Assn., they gave this account:

Some patients sat and talked for long periods with the performers and newscasters. Many of these same patients previously had been withdrawn, fearful and hopeless, refusing to talk or having anything to do with the doctors and other patients.

Others brightened and began to imitate the performers, especially the dancers.

Generally, the patients became quieter and were more easily managed.

A large percentage of the patients had developed the idea that no one cared about them, since the doctors and psychiatric technicians were too busy to devote much time to any individual. They had become afraid of attention, preferring to shrink unnoticed in the group.

Following up this angle, the researchers next tried closed-circuit television. The therapy included face-to-face situations giving the impression the psychiatrist was talking to each patient individually.

Psychodramas were staged with patients acting out their conflicts and problems. Motion pictures dealing with mental hygiene and other educational subjects also were shown.

After tests, the researchers concluded that mentally ill patients will "improve significantly in behavior patterns when given therapy by closed circuit television."

Of equal importance, they said, is the fact that many new techniques of psychotherapy have been developed but cannot be given widespread application because of the lack of trained personnel and time.

Closed circuit television may supply the answer to this problem, they said.

The report was made by Dr. Hyman Tucker, superintendent of Agnew's State Hospital; Richard E. Lewis, a senior member of the House Foreign Affairs Committee; and Mrs. Gaither Lee Martin and Charles H. R. Over, postgraduate students in psychology at San Jose State College.

Hypnotic Birth

Mrs. Wallace Covington, 34, of Houston, holds her 7-pound 7-ounce son, Raymond Anthony, born to her by Caesarean section under post hypnosis suggestion. Attending surgeons said they believe it to be the first such delivery. Mrs. Covington said she felt no pain.

BIG BREAKFAST

No Pains After Hypnotic Birth

HOUSTON (AP)—Mrs. Virginia Covington, 34, who gave birth by Caesarean section under hypnosis Thursday, was awake early today and ate a big breakfast.

"I feel just fine," she told her physician.

Since the operation, Mrs. Covington has had only one pain-killing drug. That was an injection of demerol at 11 a.m., three hours after the operation.

"I don't think she will need any more sedation," the physician said.

He said the one injection was given only because she was suffering from stomach cramps after the operation.

"My third baby was by normal Caesarean, and the pains then were much worse than they are now," Mrs. Covington said.

Mrs. Covington was delivered of a seven-pound, seven-ounce son during an operation at Memorial Hospital.

She received no anesthetic. Her doctor hypnotized her and told her that when she awakened she would feel no pain during the surgery.

During the operation, she talked to the physician and the surgeon who delivered the child.

Afterwards, she was re-hypnotized and told that when she was awakened she would recover without pain or ill after effects.

She told her physician today she felt only a mild pressure on her abdomen during the operation.

"Like a weight on my stomach," she said. "That was all. There was no pain."

Few Paying Poll Taxes

With but 17 days remaining before the time expires to acquire poll tax receipts, only 1,667 Howard County residents have guaranteed their right to vote in elections which may come up this year.

A total of 657 exemption certificates have been issued to over-65 voters in Big Spring. These certificates privilege the holders to ballot in all elections. Such certificates are required only for residents in rural communities are not required to have certificates of exemption in order to cast their ballot.

January 31 is deadline for issuance of poll tax receipts and for exemption certificates.

Mrs. Viola Robinson, county assessor, urged all citizens to take immediate steps to pay their poll tax.

She said that it is historic the last week of January sees a grand rush of belated taxpayers at her office and that sometimes the throng is so great, inconvenience to the applicant develops.

Lions To Handle 'Blue Crutch Sale'

Members of Big Spring's two Lions clubs will conduct the "blue crutch sale" for the Howard County Polo Chapter Saturday.

The group will hit the streets early, offering the canes as part of the campaign for $10,000 to carry on work of the polo chapter for another year. Ira Bigham of the Evening Lions Club and Marshall Cauley of the Downtown Lions Club will be in charge of the project.

Thief Confesses Causing Quake

LODI, Calif. (AP)—Residents of this San Joaquin Valley city finally learned the cause of that quake-like, window-shattering Dec. 24 blast.

Gary Vann, 29, jailed on a burglary charge in Calaveras County, told officers yesterday he had set off 49 sticks of stolen dynamite in a vineyard near here. Police said he explained: "I figured I had to get rid of it."

For The Birds

SAN RAFAEL, Calif. (AP)—Rats, says the county of Marin.

Birds, insists Miss Mary Jane Stumer.

In a formal complaint, the county charged Miss Stumer with feeding rats in the yard of her attractive home.

"I've been putting out bread crumbs for birds for nine years," she said. "I'm guilty of feeding birds... not rats."

If rats take a bite now and then, Miss Stumer told reporters, she is not responsible.

Dixie Segregation Plan Ruled Illegal

Pupil Assignment Program Banned

By The Associated Press

A federal judge ruled illegal today Virginia's plan to continue racial segregation in the public schools through a pupil assignment program.

Dist. Judge Walter E. Hoffman held "unconstitutional on its face" the Virginia plan embodied in laws of a recent special legislative session to assign pupils for reasons other than race or color.

The judge declared the laws were "directly in the teeth" of a U.S. Supreme Court decision that racial discrimination in the public schools is void.

Church Guarded

A Negro church that was one of four bombed in Montgomery, Ala., was placed under armed guard of Patrolman D. Osgood. The homes of two ministers who have led Negro efforts to achieve racial integration were also bombed. No one was injured.

Bus Lines Closed

Bus lines in two Southern capitals were shut down today because of violence in the racially tense South while Negro leaders from nine states continued a strategy meeting in Atlanta to map further moves for integrated bus seating.

Suspension of bus service in Montgomery forced thousands of white and Negro riders to seek other means of transportation in the Alabama capital. The City Commission ordered all bus service halted indefinitely after four Negro churches and homes of a white and a Negro minister were bombed.

Gov. James E. Folsom offered $2,000 reward for arrest and conviction of the bomb throwers and the Montgomery Advertiser said in an editorial:

"The issue now is no longer segregation on city buses... The issue now is whether it is safe to live in Montgomery, Ala."

Buses have been shot at six times since bus segregation was banned by Federal court order Dec. 21 after a 381-day Negro boycott.

The editorial suggested that special police details be assigned to buses. "The prospect is that this violence will continue and swell in volume and daring unless there is decisive action. Sooner or later a stand will have to be taken and it will be easier now. Otherwise we face the prospect of retaliatory violence between groups."

MINISTER SCORED

Bishop Cleared Of Gift Charges

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—A special investigating committee has cleared Methodist Bishop W. Angus Smith of accusations he capitalized on his office by accepting gifts from his preachers and churches for himself and his family.

"We unanimously declare the complaints to be baseless and untrue," it said. "The bishop is completely exonerated in every instance."

The committee said the Rev. James J. Stewart of Albuquerque, N.M., had used smear tactics against the bishop and was "guilty of the grossest type of unministerial conduct."

The Rev. Mr. Stewart said at Albuquerque he will continue to press his complaints by circulating them to congregations throughout the bishop's jurisdiction.

Stewart, formerly assigned to an Albuquerque church, has been without a pastorate since he refused a transfer directed by Bishop Smith.

Churches Guarded

Extra police were on duty in Montgomery to guard against new outbreaks of violence that has shaken the city 12 times in the past 15 days.

Other officers sifted scarce evidence from bombings and shootings at city buses that left Montgomery without bus service. The Montgomery Advertiser said buses should run with "whatever it takes in special police" to protect them.

Martin County 4-H, FFA Stock Show Set Saturday

STANTON (SC)—Martin County 4-H and FFA members will stage their annual fat stock show and auction here Saturday.

Animals were being weighed in and groomed for the showing today, as preparations went forward for opening of the event with judging at 8 a.m. Saturday.

About 40 entries were expected. Veiling for blue ribbons will be barrows, two classes of lambs and two classes of steers. A group of gilts also will be shown, but the animals will not be judged.

Arrangements for the show were being handled by Gerald Hanson, Martin County agricultural agent, and Elbert Steele, vocational agriculture instructor and FFA advisor for Stanton schools.

The show will be held in the county barn in the east part of Stanton. Jimmy Taylor, farm agent from Big Spring, will assist with the judging.

Judging of lambs and barrows is to start at 8 a.m. Saturday. Steers will be judged at 3 p.m. The annual auction will climax the 1957 event at 3 p.m.

Last Day Of Life For Slayer Of 44 Aboard Airliner

CANON CITY, Colo. (AP)—This is the last day of life for John Gilbert Graham, condemned slayer of 44 persons.

Graham was sentenced to die for the murder of his 53-year-old mother Mrs. Daisie King. She was one of the 44 persons aboard the United Air Lines plane blown to bits Nov. 1, 1955, over a northern Colorado beet field.

Colorado custom is to carry out the executions Friday night.

The 24-year-old Graham had no special requests on the eve of his execution.

Warden Harry Tinsley said Graham, in response to questions during a 15-minute visit yesterday, asked for no special last meal or any fresh reading material.

Tinsley quoted the young father of two children as saying "he'd just as soon" have the same food as other prisoners.

Another visitor was the Rev. Lloyd C. Kellams of Lakewood Methodist Community Church in suburban Denver. That is the church where Graham and his young wife Gloria were married in 1953, before the Rev. Kellams became pastor.

Tinsley said the clergyman spent about three hours with Graham.

FBI May Step In

In Washington the Justice Department was studying the violence to determine whether to order.

Thief Confesses Causing Quake

LODI, Calif. (AP)—Residents of this San Joaquin Valley city finally learned the cause of that quake-like, window-shattering Dec. 24 blast.

Gary Vann, 29, jailed on a burglary charge in Calaveras County, told officers yesterday he had set off 49 sticks of stolen dynamite in a vineyard near here. Police said he explained: "I figured I had to get rid of it."

Grocers Consider Service Charge On Cashing Checks

A study of whether or not a service fee will have to be placed on handling of checks was instituted at a meeting of food store operators Friday morning.

Approximately a dozen stores were represented at the conference, held under auspices of the Retail Merchants Association.

Problems confronting the store operators is the five-day banking week, which will be instituted in Big Spring on Jan. 19.

Grocers already are cashing large volumes of checks, involving heavy cost and the necessity of keeping abnormal amounts of cash on hand, and those present at the meeting said the check accommodation service is bound to increase when banks close on Saturdays. They felt that the extra burden to be imposed on stores may require a small service charge.

The Retail Merchants Association is to check into the experience of other cities, and the grocery group agreed to continue study of the proposition. Another meeting was called for 9 a.m. Feb. 5, when a definite policy may be reached.

Demos Set Mid-East Plan From Acheson Suggestions

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Democratic move took shape today to offer a substitute Middle East resolution along lines suggested by former Secretary of State Dean Acheson.

It would involve a congressional declaration of American concern with Middle East security and stability. And it would pledge congressional readiness to take up presidential proposals for economic, political and military measures deemed necessary for the area. But it would not have force of law.

The proposed Democratic substitute would stop far short of granting President Eisenhower's request for advance authority to use American troops to block any open Communist aggression in the Middle East. Furthermore, it would not authorize special military and economic aid to strengthen Middle East nations against communism. These too are sought by Eisenhower.

Plans for the substitute were announced by Rep. Zablocki (D-Wis.), a senior member of the House Foreign Affairs Committee. Zablocki said preliminary discussions show at least half a dozen committee Democrats are ready to join in offering the substitute.

Unlike Eisenhower's proposed joint resolution—which would have the force of law—the Democratic substitute would require only House and Senate passage. It would be merely a statement of intent and would not require Eisenhower's signature.

Appearing before the committee yesterday, Acheson—who served under former President Truman—contended Eisenhower already has the authority he needs to handle a military situation in the area. Other Democrats have expressed similar sentiments, citing the President's constitutional powers as commander in chief of the Armed Forces.

As for Eisenhower's economic proposals, some Democrats said the President has not yet proved his case for them. They said he can submit a separate bill when his administration has worked out all the details.

Eisenhower wants authority to use up to 200 millions out of already appropriated foreign aid funds on economic projects in the Middle East. He also wants to spend up to 200 millions a year for the next two years to strengthen the economies of free nations in the area.

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Democratic move took shape today to offer a substitute Middle East resolution along lines suggested by former Secretary of State Dean Acheson.

Texas Skies Partly Cloudy

By The Associated Press

Skies were partly cloudy over Texas except in the east Friday in the wake of a norther that swept swiftly through the state.

Temperatures early Friday ranged from 33 degrees in Childress to 55 at Brownsville.

Childress had .02 inch of rain. Sherman had a trace before midnight.

The norther was accompanied by high winds that kicked up dust and felled trees and power lines. Cold temperatures were lingering, but the Weather Bureau said it would be slightly warmer Friday.

$1 Million U. S. 80 Project Slated Here

Jake Roberts, district highway engineer, has advised R. H. Weaver, county judge, that the state is ready to issue more than a million dollars in construction contracts for U. S. Highway 80 west of Big Spring at its regular letting in March.

The Howard County projects are contingent on the county acquiring right-of-way titles to land needed for the jobs, Roberts told Weaver.

Weaver assured the engineer that the county would get the right-of-way deeds cleared immediately. The right-of-way question must be settled by Feb. 10, Roberts said, in order for the highway department to proceed with its plans for letting contracts on the project in March.

The jobs in mind propose the solving of intersection problems on Highway 80 west of the city. Under present plans, as understood by the county officials, the state will raise the highway at the major intersecting roads in order to make safe entrance and exit points.

Weaver said that the county should have little difficulty in clearing out the right-of-way negotiations. Most of the preliminary work on the matter has already been done.

Officials began their task of contacting the owners about the deeds Friday.

Legislative Lion

Rep. Tony Fenoglio of Nocona (right) looks at the lion cub that was on hand at the opening session of the 55th Legislature. Fenoglio introduced the University of Texas students who brought the 4-month-old cub to the House chamber, left to right: Manuel Hill of Bowie; Faye Pierson of St. Jo and Buford Berry of Archer City and said they were helping him during the Legislature's session.

Demos Make Plain Ike Must Fight For Legislative Plans

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congressional Democrats made it plain today President Eisenhower will have to fight for parts of his program despite the extent of his re-election victory last fall. Influential Democrats took quick exception to some of the legislative proposals Eisenhower laid before Congress yesterday in his annual State of the Union message. Applause interrupted Eisenhower's delivery of the 33-minute message only five times as he made his second personal appearance before Congress in less than a week. Despite this obvious coolness, Senate GOP Leader Knowland of California said he is confident a "substantial" portion of Eisenhower's program will be enacted. Chairman Saltonstall (Mass.) of the Conference of All Republican Senators agreed. Republicans generally praised the President's proposals. Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson promised the Senate will study the President's abbreviated proposals—to be enlarged upon in subsequent messages — "in a cooperative and constructive spirit." Sen. Aiken (R-Vt.) described the talk as a "message that would be hard to disagree with largely because it was so general." But it was evident many Democrats were preparing for a battle. As an example of how some of them felt, Sen. O'Mahoney (D-Wyo.) predicted the Democratic Congress will ignore Eisenhower's suggestion for creation of a commission of private citizens to make a broad survey of the nation's financial system. Instead, O'Mahoney said he is confident Congress will itself investigate the administration's "tight money" policies against which many Democrats have been complaining. Speaker of the House Rayburn (D-Tex.) said it would be "a very proper thing" for the House Banking Committee to go ahead with such an inquiry. Chairman Russell (D-Ga.) of the Senate Armed Services Committee signaled expected opposition to Eisenhower's forthcoming military and foreign aid budgets. Eisenhower told the lawmakers yesterday that Americans must not "delude ourselves that safety necessarily increases as expenditures for military research or forces in being go up." Russell said he wants to see details of the military and foreign aid budgets due next week before he decides what course to pursue. But he added: "I agree with all the President said about fighting inflation but it is no more inflationary to spend money on building up our own military strength than it is to spend it on building up the military forces of other nations, some of which are of doubtful friendliness to us." Sen. Jackson (D-Wash.) said Eisenhower apparently has invited a "renewal of the conflict" with senators who have demanded a faster buildup of U. S. armed might. Chairman Walter (D-Pa.) of the House Immigration subcommittee announced opposition to Eisenhower's proposal that Congress promptly "regularize" the status of Hungarian refugees admitted to this country. He said he favors a delay until it is determined whether there are any Communists among them. Sen. Kefauver of Tennessee said Eisenhower had passed "the burden to the Democratic Congress to develop programs" particularly with respect to small business, the family-sized farmer and power policies. Sen. Neuberger (D-Ore.) said he was "disappointed at the President's continued adherence to the discredited 'partnership' power program."

Eden Leaves Parliament

LONDON (AP)—Sir Anthony Eden resigned today from the House of Commons and was offered an earldom, the customary award made by the British sovereign to a retiring prime minister. Quitting the Commons seat he had held for just over 33 years, Eden again pleaded ill health as he had when he quit the prime ministership two days ago. But it was presumed he also was removing himself from active participation in front-line politics to prevent any embarrassment to his successor, Prime Minister Harold Macmillan.

Sweetwater Man Dies In Auto Crash

DALLAS (AP)—One person was killed and two others were injured today when their car crashed into a pillar at a railroad underpass. The victim was identified as Roy Clay, 31, Sweetwater. The injured were Shirley Taylor, 27, and Claude Hallmark, 22, both of Dallas.

Pond Services Held At C-City

COLORADO CITY — Funeral services for Jerome P. Pond, 78, were to be held Friday morning from the First Baptist Church, with Rev. J. F. Selcraig, pastor, officiating. Burial was to be in the Colorado City Cemetery. Mr. Pond died Wednesday afternoon. He had lived in Colorado City since 1902 and is survived by his wife, a son, a daughter, two brothers and a sister.

Texas Lawmakers Look To New Era As Shivers Regime Ends

AUSTIN (AP)—Texas lawmakers today looked to a new era for leadership as the long Shivers regime came to an end. Many of the legislators headed home for the first long weekend since the 55th session shortly after Gov. Allan Shivers delivered his farewell words yesterday in the Capitol where he began as a freshman representative 22 years ago. The new governor, Price Daniel, takes office at noon Tuesday and the Legislature will be more or less stymied until that administration charts the flow of legislation. And until Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey is sworn in, he will not announce his committee appointments in the Senate. Tuesday also probably will be the day a new U.S. senator is appointed to replace Daniel until a special election can be held in March or April. Either Shivers or Daniel will make the appointment and sentiment is that the former will hand out this prize plum. Several dozen bills were introduced in both houses, the major ones centering around solving the session's biggest pain—the lack of sufficient water. Sen. George Parkhouse of Dallas, head of the Texas Water Resources Committee which has been working on the problem for many months, introduced the bills. One would provide a 100 million dollar water development fund for water conservation and development; another would stick a tax on water claimed for use in irrigation and in hydro-electric plants. City dwellers will feel the tax indirectly from increased water bills.

The development fund would be set up by issuance of state bonds and would allow cities and other political subdivisions to receive state aid. Both will require constitutional amendments approved at the polls. Several hours after the House adjourned, about a dozen bills were dropped on the chief clerk's desk in their start toward becoming laws. A Lobby Registration Act was brought in by Rep. Zeke Zbrank of Daisetta, and signed by 12 others. Rep. Marshall Bell of San Antonio introduced a measure that would prohibit members of the Legislature to be paid for appearing before a state agency for a private interest without filing a sworn statement listing the clients and the nature of the services requested. Reps. Reagan R. Huffman of Marshall and Jerry Sadler of Percella introduced a bill to retain segregated schools unless approved at an election called by a petition signed by at least 25 per cent of the qualified voters. If the school integrated otherwise it would not receive state support or accreditation. Another Huffman bill would make it unlawful for any member of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People (NAACP) to be employed by schools, counties, cities or the state. Several juvenile delinquency bills were introduced in both houses. A House bill would authorize recovery of civil damages due to willful property destruction by minors of up to $300 from their parents. Senate bills would provide that any boy 10 to 14 and any girl 10 to 15 who commits a felony would be prosecuted as any other person except a jury trial would be required to determine whether the youngster understood the nature of his act. Another would make it a misdemeanor for anyone under 18 to drive a motor vehicle while drunk or without a proper license. A bill was introduced in the Senate by Sen. Jarrard Secrest of Temple designed to substitute a flexible rating system for surety and casualty insurance, including auto insurance. It would replace the uniform rate law. In his speech before a joint session, Shivers told the lawmakers they will have about 90 million dollars in spending margin, almost enough to meet appropriation requests. But he suggested it would be wise to leave some in the bank. He also urged a primary in the special Senate election; an approach to the segregation problem "with a minimum of emotion and a maximum of common sense"; a paid parole system and increased highway patrol salaries.

Jet Bomber Blast Kills 6 Crewmen

ANDOVER, N. B. (AP)—A giant B52 jet bomber blew up in flight yesterday while the pilot was partially hooded for a training test. Six of the nine Air Force men aboard were killed. Two others are missing. The ninth man parachuted to safety and is reported in good condition at Loring Air Force Base in Limestone, Maine, the plane's home base. Hundreds of heavily garbed men, including Air Force men, Royal Canadian Mounted Police and French-Canadian trappers and guides waded through snow-choked woods in bitter cold in search of the two missing crewmen. Several hours after the crash of the B52 jet bomber, an Air Force B29 crashed on landing at Bergstrom Air Force Base, near Austin, Tex., killing six crewmen and injuring three others. The public information office at Loring identified five of the six victims of the Andover crash as: Capt. Richard A. Jenkins, the aircraft commander, Huron, Ohio; Capt. William C. Davidson, Stockton, Calif.; Capt. John E. McCune, Hayward, Calif.; Capt. Marquid H. D. Myers, Tracy, Calif.; T. Sgt. Ray A. Miller, Racine, Wis. All were married and all but Davidson had children. The only known survivor was 1st Lt. Joe L. Church, Charlotte, N. C. A spokesman at Loring said a team of Air Force flight safety experts from Norton AFB near San Bernardino, Calif. and officials of the Boeing Airplane Co. would take part in an investigation of the crash. Boeing builds the eight-million-dollar, swept-wing B52s. Brig. Gen. William K. Martin, Loring commander, said in a statement "an unusual maneuver may have resulted in exceeding the flight limitation of the aircraft." In Washington, the Air Force said the pilot was undergoing a reflex test wherein the flier's eyes are partly shielded and the plane put into an "unusual" position. The pilot then must right the craft. The Washington spokesman said the plane apparently had been "placed in a position beyond its capability." The plane was the fourth B52 lost by the Air Force on training flights since February 1956.

Parakeets, Catfish May Help Solve Cancer Cause

By RENNIE TAYLOR
AP Science Reporter
PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—Parakeets with huge brain tumors and catfish with cancer of the lip may help medical science to learn more about the cause of malignancy. And the absence of cancer in some animals is as striking as its presence in others, a researcher from Ohio State University reported today. Cow udders are singularly free of cancer despite the fact that they are subjected to alternate periods of swelling and dryness and to injuries from milking. But in humans and mice, breast cancer is common. Canaries seldom develop malignancy, but one out of every seven chickens has a cancer or tumor. Somewhere in this puzzling picture there must be clues to the origin of malignancy. Dr. Hans G. Schlumberger told a seminar sponsored by the Arizona division of the American Cancer Society. Dr. Schlumberger could offer no theories to explain the strange findings which he has made in several years of research. Parakeets develop many tumors of the pituitary gland, the tiny organ at the base of the brain which influences other glands in the body. Some of these growths become so large that they almost crowd the brain out of the skull and cause the eyes to bulge from their sockets, the researcher reported. The prevalence of lip cancer in catfish may mean that there is a cancer-causing chemical in the rivers where they live, Dr. Schlumberger said. But no such chemical has been found so far. Cancer in chickens and other meat animals is no hazard to humans who consume them, he said, since a cancerous chicken cell is destroyed by the human digestive system if not killed by the heat of cooking.

Valley Milkmen Testify At Mart Hearing

EDINBURG, Tex. (AP)—Five Valley producers testified yesterday they had no complaints on weighing of milk by processors or of the accuracy of butterfat tests. The testimony came on a milk marketing hearing for the Valley. One witness, Garnet Spear of Rio Hondo, said it was his personal belief that it would close up the dairy industry in the Valley if processors had to pay a 17 cent differential to Valley producers.

The hearing is on the proposed extension of the Corpus Christi Milk Marketing Order, which would make the Valley a separate production area with a minimum price to producers 17 cents per hundredweight higher than the Corpus Christi price.

Spear said he wanted to stay in the dairy business in the Valley and didn't want to see it priced out.

Another producer, R. E. Ratcliff of McAllen, said he thought it would be to the best interest of all Valley dairymen to oppose any marketing order coming to the Valley.

Ratcliff said he saw no need for a Marketing Order and would rather deal with the processors "man to man." He said he thought the 17-cent differential would just pay part of the freight on outside milk coming into the Valley.

Other producers who testified against the producers were C. A. Nelson, B. W. Kirsch of Willacy County and C. D. McPeck of Santa Rosa.

Once-Blind Writer Sees World Again

MANSFIELD, Tex. (AP)—John Howard Griffin, 36-year-old novelist whose vision suddenly returned after 10 years of blindness, looked with awe at the world of 1957 today, his once sightless eyes fitted with corrective "cylinder glasses."

"The faces and forms and colors of the world of 1957 jumped wildly before my eyes like a kaleidoscope," he said in describing his reaction to the return of his vision yesterday.

Griffin, author of the controversial 1952 best seller "The Devil Rides Outside," remained under a doctor's care because he has had trouble focusing his eyes since his vision mysteriously returned while he was working on another novel at his parent's farm Wednesday.

"My doctor says my vision may be completely cleared in about a month," he said.

He was fitted with corrective glasses yesterday to help his long-unused eye-muscles coordinate his vision. "This is the most terrific shock I've ever had," he said.

"These cylinders are very painful. It is like magnets pulling on your eyes. Yet things have steadied down. The doctor says for me to wear them as long as I can stand them."

"Oh, gosh, if I can just keep my sight."

Griffin began to lose his sight

12 years ago when he was an Air Force sergeant in the South Pacific. He suffered a concussion when a B24, loaded with bombs, exploded. His vision gradually faded until he was totally blind by 1946.

His doctor said he thought a clot blocking the flow of blood to the optic nerve had burst, enabling him to see again.

But he said in an interview establishment of the base would leave Brazil open to attack by "any enemy of the United States."

Because of that, he added, Brazil wants the United States to speed up consideration of aid for economic projects Brazil considers essential for its security.

Macedo Soares denied emphatically suggestions by some U.S. officials that Brazil is attempting to bargain on the establishment of the base.

6 Crewmen Die When Aerial Tanker Falls

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—Six crewmen died last night when a B29 aerial tanker crashed and burned while landing at nearby Bergstrom Air Force Base. Three others were injured, none seriously.

The plane crashed while refueling the ground after a refueling mission, hurling four crewmen out of the flaming wreckage. Five men were killed instantly and a sixth died later in the base hospital.

The Air Force identified the victims as: Lt. Ronald Rosetti, 24, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred R. Rudolph, Paterson, N.J.

Lt. Robert E. Smith, 23, son of Mrs. Jeanne Gray, San Antonio, Tex.

Sgt. Edward Clifford Clemmons, 29, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford B. Clemmons, Beckley, W. Va.

Sgt. Thomas Salazar, 24, son of Mrs. Mary Salazar, Uvalde, Tex.

A.2.C. Michael Bryan McIntosh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry David McIntosh, Houston, Tex.

Lt. Don Anderson Berg, son of Robert L. Berg, Birkenfeld, Ore. Berg died four hours after the crash.

The wreckage burned two hours before fire fighters could extinguish the blaze.

Newsman and photographers were barred from the scene immediately for security reasons.

An airman returning from the scene said, however, that the plane was demolished.

"It's in so many pieces, it's all over the place," he said.

Air Force spokesmen said Rosetti was the aircraft commander and was piloting the plane. Berg, who died in the hospital, was the co-pilot.

HCJC Board Votes Salary Adjustments

Howard County Junior College trustees handled a matter of routine business Thursday, including two salary adjustments and authorizing travel to special meetings.

Faculty members were authorized to attend the meeting of the Texas Junior College Association in Dallas and the $30 per instructor in the budget for this purpose was appropriated. Similarly, the board authorized Jack Hendrix, in charge of instrumental music, to attend the national Music Educators convention in Chicago Feb. 8-12.

An adjustment of $75 per month for directing activities of the Student Union Building from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. daily and keeping it open in the evenings was voted. The board also approved an additional $50 per month for operation of the telephone PBX board recently installed at the college.

Dr. W. A. Hunt, president, was instructed to negotiate with Arah Phillips concerning an early start in contact with high school seniors who may consider attending college.

All outstanding keys to any buildings on the campus were ordered turned in and the board adopted as a policy a rule that no keys were to be in possession of any one unless recorded and issued by the business office. No duplicates are to be made except by the business office.

Trustees officially adopted the annual audit which was presented at the previous meeting by Neil G. Hilliard, CPA.

So far as HCJC board members are concerned, the ABC club may operate concessions in connection with its projected track relays here in the spring. The matter was referred to the Big Spring school board which operates the stadium properties jointly with HCJC. The board also voted to buy a blade for its tractor. The school district is due to purchase an aerifier and HCJC trustees asked if the school would also buy a scoop attachment.

Dr. Hunt reported that furniture in the practical arts building. He also said two courses of electronics had been started and one in citizenship. Dr. Leland Medsker, Berkeley, Calif., visited the board briefly. He studied HCJC student personnel practices Thursday as part of a nationwide research program by the University of California. HCJC was one of six junior colleges in Texas, which as a policy of seven states selected for the study.

Livestock Team To Compete At Iran

A livestock judging team from Big Spring High School will compete in judging contests at Iran Saturday. Trett Vines, vocational agriculture instructor, reported today.

Eight students will make the trip to Iran with Vines and Ed Seay, junior high instructor. It had not been determined this morning which three would make up the official judging team. Vines said a second group will judge for practice.

To attend the contests with the instructors are Tommy Buckner, Bruce Moore, Lanny Hamby, Eddie Whitaker, Robert Whittington, Leslie White, Charles Engle and Jimmy Whitefield.

Police Radar Unit To See More Service

Big Spring motorists will probably see a lot of the radar set in the near future.

Because of the increase in traffic accidents the police department has adopted a policy of using the radar unit for a short time every day. Since it was purchased in the fall, it has been used only sparingly.

During the past two days, the police department issued 43 speeding tickets in school zones. Police Sergeant Bill Walton said that the department will continue to use the radar unit around schools to try to cut down on speed there.

The unit was used on FR 700 at the Airport School Wednesday and 15 tickets were issued. Speed limit in a school zone is 20 miles per hour, Walton said they clocked some drivers as fast as 44 m.p.h. in the area Wednesday.

Thursday, it was used around College Heights School, and the department issued 24 tickets.

Walton said that the department did not plan on hiding the radar unit; it will be mounted in sight and probably beside a police car. He warned however that school zones will not be the only area checked.

"Any street or highway in Big Spring will be in for a spot check occasionally," he added.

UF Membership Meeting Is Scheduled For Feb. 5

Annual membership meeting of the United Fund of Big Spring and Howard County will be held at 7:30 p.m. Feb. 5, in the Settles Hotel ballroom.

The date was set at a meeting of the UF board of trustees Thursday afternoon.

New officers, and a third of the slate of trustees, will be elected at the meeting. Champ Rainwater, current president, appointed a nominating committee composed of Truman Jones, D. M. McKinney, Dan Krauss, Adolph Swartz and B. W. Currie.

The UF board had a treasurer's report showing $98,650.03 in

Guthrie Finals Well In Albaugh Field, Dawson Test Fruitless

C. W. Guthrie finalized a well in the Albaugh (Yates) field in the southeast corner of Howard County.

Operators meanwhile took a drillstem test at a Dawson County wildcat but found no oil shows.

The new well is Guthrie No. 1-C Sarah Hyman and is about 11 miles southeast of Coahoma. It brought 53 barrels of oil on potential.

At the Skelly No. 1 Frank Freeman in Dawson, operator ran a drillstem test below 7,000 feet but recovered only mud without shows of oil. The venture is nine miles southwest of Lamesa.

Borden

Standard No. 16-6-B T. L. Griffin cored today below 6,071 feet in time and shale. The project is 1,620 feet from north and 1,120 feet from east lines, 29-25, H&C Survey, six miles northwest of Vincent.

Continental No. 1 W. D. Johnson, a wildcat 16 miles north of Vealmoor, cored at 7,180 feet in sand today. It cut a core from 7,113-7,127 feet and recovered 59 feet of dense sand with a show of oil. The venture is C SW SW, 31-32-50, T&P Survey.

Drillhole of the Continental No. 1 Jones wildcat has been changed. It will be 680 feet from south and west lines, 154-25, H&C Survey, 12 miles southeast of Gall. Drilling depth of 8,650 feet was not changed.

Dawson

Standard No. 1-1 Blue deepened to 8,423 feet in time and shale. It is trying for Canyon pay six

Minister Takes Up New Duties

Thomas E. Cudd will officiate at his first services as the 14th and Main Church of Christ minister on Sunday.

Mr. Cudd arrived here this week from Colorado Springs where he has been minister of the Central Church of Christ for the past 3 1/2 years. He succeeds Lyle Price, who accepted a call to be minister at Harlingen.

Mr. Cudd will participate in an 8:30 a.m. radio program, then Bible School at 9:30 a.m. and the morning worship at 10:30 a.m. He also will be on a TV program at 4:30 p.m. and at the evening worship at 7 p.m.

A native of Wilson, Okla., Mr. Cudd is a graduate of Freed-Hardman College in Henderson, Tenn. He held pastorates at Artesia, N. M., Bayard, N. M., and Wetumka, Okla., for approximately eight years before going to Colorado Springs.

He and Mrs. Cudd and their daughter, Jane Ellen, who is in the ninth grade, are at home in the parsonage at 1301 Main. They have a son, Thomas M. Cudd, who is a sophomore at ACC in Abilene.

JUNIOR HIGH NOTES

Holidays Bring Wave Of Socials

By ROBE ANN ROBINSON

We've been back again with all the news from junior high. I imagine we all had a wonderful vacation and attended many parties. In fact, that's most of the news this week because school activities have barely got back into the swing of things.

The ninth grade Kappa Xi Tri-Hi-Y had a New Year's dance at the YMCA. A few of those there were Luan Lawson and Jackie Touchstone, Betty Lee Jones, Larry Knight, Carol Phillips, James Drake, Ira Nell Cole, Betty Edwards, Carolyn Washington, Dale Standand, Marilyn Bigham, Jackie Richbourg, Judy Fredon, James Herring, Pat Johnson, Gordon Reister, Jerrin Record, Bruce Moore, Lacy Gause, Doug McEvers, Mary Ella Bain, Doug Eastman, Marilyn Mann, Pat Davis, Shirley Terry, Frank Powell, Sherry Lanning, Jake Coleman, Carolyn Sewell, Don Cannon, Ann Robinson, Jimmy Montgomery.

Another party was given by Ann Robinson and Judy Fredon last Saturday. The following girls dressed in Bermuda shorts and attended a kids' show: Jerrin Record, Luan Lawson, Ira Nell Cole, Pat Johnson, Judy Fredon, Luan Wren, Gloria Coker, Betty Lee Jones, Carol Phillips, Carolyn Washington, Calli Sewell, Ann Robinson.

Most for a party just before the end of the year was Barbara Stalser. Helping her celebrate were Linda Cole, Judy Mitchell, Susan Bean, Jo Nell Hudgins, Doug McEvers, Pam Fanning, Charles Dyer, Danny McCracy, Larry Moore, and an out-of-town guest, Bonnie Brinkins.

Saturday Last Day For Chest X-Rays

Saturday will be the last opportunity for Big Spring and Howard County residents to avail themselves of the opportunity for free X-ray examination of their chests.

The unit, which has been doing a land-office business in the corridor of the Howard County courthouse, will bring its local assignment to a conclusion Saturday.

Wednesday, the unit reported the 1,000th X-ray examination had been made - the biggest single day's operation since the equipment was set up and put to work on Monday.

This brings the grand total to 3,708 for the first four days operation. Friday morning, school buses were disgorging scores of boys and girls at the courthouse square and a line that filled the hallway was moving slowly but steadily past the X-ray machine.

If the crowd continues as it was at 10 a.m., it was possible that Friday will result in the greatest number of X-rays for the week.

There is no charge for the X-ray examination. The films taken here are sent to Austin where they are developed and checked by experts on tuberculosis. If the film shows no danger signs, the subject is advised of his good fortune. When suspicious clues show up on a plate, the information is relayed by the Austin office to the subject and to his family physician.

When such warnings are found, it is advised that the person contact his physician and submit to a thorough examination.

The X-ray unit was in Big Spring about 10 months ago. There are four units, similar to the one now in the city, operating around the country in Texas. The length of the unit's stay in a town is dependent on the population in the community and in the interest shown in the program.

Webb Housing Project Awaits Land Purchase

Because of delay in completing formalities of land acquisition, the on-base housing project at Webb Air Force Base is facing another delay of from 45 to 60 days. It was learned at the base Friday.

The Corps of Engineers has responsibility of arranging for the tract and has been delayed in completing its formalities. A commitment has been made for purchase of approximately 115 acres of land immediately to the southeast of the base, from Cecil Wasson.

Meanwhile other elements in the project have been proceeding. Col. C. M. Young, Webb commander, said a final statement of eligibility can be forthcoming from the Federal Housing Administration on immediate notice, he said, and all that next step in procedure would be to advertise for construction bids. The project calls for 400 houses.

Col. Young indicated that progress will be swift, once the Corps of Engineers completes the land transaction.

C-City Baptist Pastor Resigns

ANSTON, 25, pastor of the Oak Street Baptist Church, is resigning to become an evangelist.

Anston's resignation will be effective Feb. 10, when he and his wife and children will move to Abilene.

Anston, a graduate of Abilene High School and BSU in Abilene, became pastor of the Oak Street Baptist Church in May of 1954. Since then he has been active in church expansion and 27 new members have been added to the church rolls since 1954. The Oak Street church has just completed a new church building and has converted the old church into an education unit.

Claim Exemptions Promptly To Keep Taxes In Order

The Internal Revenue Service reminded all taxpayers subject to withholding tax that it is extremely important for them to keep employers advised of all changes in their exemptions.

Ben Hawkins of the local IRS office warned taxpayers that one of the common difficulties experienced by the Service is straightening out erroneous withholding tax certificates.

If a taxpayer's exemptions have changed, he should obtain a new certificate (Form W-4), fill it out, and return it to his employer. This should be done immediately, especially when dependency changes have an application to the current year.

Such factors as marriage, divorce, birth of a child, or assumption of a recognized dependent may alter an individual's tax status.

Employers who find that their withholding bracket does not suit their individuality may file with their employer a claim for exemption to increase withholding deductions to an annual total figure approximately satisfying their tax owed, Hawkins said.

Similarly, persons with small additional incomes beyond that on which tax is withheld may follow this practice to avoid heavy tax payments at the April 15 deadline each year.

G. W. Van Zandt, Retired Farmer, Dies At C-City

GEORGE WASHINGTON VAN ZANDT, 79-year-old retired farmer, died at his home in south Colorado City Thursday.

Mr. Van Zandt was born Feb. 28, 1878, in Bosque County but had lived in Mitchell County since 1928. He was a Methodist and had married Cora Harvare, Jan. 8, 1928, in Robert Lee.

Funeral services will be held Saturday at 12 p.m. in the Kibor and Son Chapel. Burial will be in the Westshore Cemetery.

He is survived by his wife, three sons, Otto of Sunflower, Paul of San Antonio, and Marshall of San Diego, Calif.; two brothers, C. C. Van Zandt of San Antonio and J. Van Zandt of O'Donnell; two sisters, Mrs. E. J. Ebbeman of Odessa and Mrs. Mary Moore of San Antonio; 13 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Abandoned Bike

Another bicycle was found and brought to the police station Thursday.

The bike was abandoned at 2300 N. 14th. Jake Brown told officers. Patrolmen then picked it up and carried it to the police station.

County Court Jury Week Ends With Three Acquittals

Jurors serving the Howard County criminal court reported they duty Friday morning but found there was no work for them to do.

They were excused and thanked for their services during the week and were told that no further criminal cases will be tried at this time.

Two cases were decided as "ready" for trial Friday but circumstances arose which resulted in their continuance.

Plans To Remodel City Hall Shown

City officials got their first look at preliminary drawings of the remodeled city hall today.

Puckett and French, architects, prepared the drawings and turned them over to city officials today for approval. The work was authorized in the $800,000 bond issue approved by voters in August of 1955. The remodeling work and work on the city auditorium was pegged at $75,000.

Preliminary sketches call for the water and tax departments to be separated but to be left on the first floor. Also remaining on the first floor will be the city secretary, purchasing agent, building and plumbing inspectors, and the receptionist.

Moving to the second floor will be the city engineer, city manager, and drafting department. An office was included for the Citizens' Traffic Commission, but recently, the city has been considering an office for CTC in the police building. This is considered since most of the Traffic Commission's work is in the police.

The building will also have offices for the city attorney, an administrative assistant, and a planning engineer, plus a receptionist for the city manager. These offices are planned for future expansion. Walton Morrison, city attorney, does not maintain an office there now.

The present corporation courtroom will be used for city commission meetings. This will give ample room for persons attending the commission meetings on business. At the present time, when a delegation of citizens or more than 10 people attend the meeting, there is no room for them to sit.

Promotions At Lamesa Bank Are Announced

LAMESA - The board of directors of the First National Bank of Lamesa authorized several promotions in the staff of the bank, announced election of a new director at its annual shareholders meeting this week.

A. Marden Clayton, Borden County rancher and member of a pioneer Borden County family, was elected to the board of directors.

G. R. Crawley was named executive vice president of the bank, succeeding his father, W. K. Crawley, who becomes senior vice president. William B. Brown, assistant vice president, becomes a vice president, and Joseph N. Spikes, veteran officer of the bank, becomes cashier. He had formerly been assistant vice president. Elected assistant cashiers were Lloyd E. Clime and Elgin Davis Jr.

Directors renamed include J. E. Barron, W. J. Beckham, W. N. Cope, G. R. Crawley, W. K. Crawley, Olan Earnest, E. R. Yates and Bryant Bryant was re-named chairman of the board.

Bank officials renamed include Yates, president; Barron, vice president; Harry Barrington, Jessie Barron, H. H. Derstine and W. L. Taylor, assistant cashiers.

There were no changes in the board of directors or officers at the Lamesa National Bank, according to Carl Rountree, president.

Derby Movie To Be Shown

First showing of the Soap Box Derby film for the current year will be held at 8:30 a.m. Saturday at the Fitzer Theatre.

Luan Wooten handling the promotion for Tidwell Chevrolet, said that Gandy's Creamery had granted time for the presentation at its weekly kids' matinee.

The film is built around the 1956 All-America Soap Box Derby finals in Akron, Ohio, where Big Spring was represented by Henry Hendricks. This year's film stresses the importance of parents to the success of the derby project.

Wooten said that the film also will be shown at various schools by Dan Conley for the sponsoring Lions Club, and that the picture will be viewed Wednesday at the regular Lions Club meeting in the Settles.

It had not been planned for the club to meet next week, but Dr. Marshall Cooley said the football banquet, which was to have supplanted the meeting, had been postponed until February.

Ordinance Hikes Dog Tag Sales

The city's new dog ordinance which was passed this week evidently has had its effect on dog owners, city officials reported.

The new law requires citizens to have their dogs vaccinated and registered - which is the same as the previous ordinance, but the people did not abide by it.

However, since Jan. 2, the city has issued 21 registrations. During all of 1956, the city issued only 175 tags.

Citizens must have dogs vaccinated and then bring vaccination certificates to the city hall for registration.

Drought Proposals Drawn Up For Ike

LAMESA - Several specific suggestions are to be made to President Eisenhower and Secretary of Agriculture Benson as the result of a meeting in Lamesa Thursday.

Farmers from 25 counties in West Texas met at the invitation of the Dawson County Farm Bureau to discuss the drought situation and to offer suggestions for assisting farmers and ranchers to weather the storm. H. L. "Hub" King of Brownfield, a member of the Texas Farm Bureau Drought Committee, summed up the findings from the meeting attended by about 120 Farm Bureau members and representatives of the Texas Sheep and Goat Raisers Association and the South Plains Milk Producers Cooperative.

King will meet with the other members of the Drought Committee, Harold West of Bishop and H. C. Brinkner of Beville, in San Angelo Sunday to survey these and suggestions they will have to offer. All three members of the committee are holding meetings with farm groups in an effort to determine their wishes and needs.

The President will land at San Angelo Sunday for an overnight stop on his drought tour.

DeVany To Go To Drought Meeting In Wichita, Kans.

C. R. DeVany of Coahoma, district director for the Texas Farm Bureau Federation, will leave Sunday for a three-day conference on the effectiveness of existing drought aid programs and the subsequent presentation of new assistance recommendations to President Eisenhower.

The Howard County farm leader was in El Paso today for drought discussions similar to the ones held Thursday in Lamesa.

Farmer representatives from all sections of the huge southwestern drought area are to confer in Wichita, Kan., Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday next week. They will attempt to appraise effectiveness of the present disaster emergency assistance programs and

Gasoline Theft Suspects Queried

Police picked up three men with a gas can and a rubber hose and questioned them about theft of gasoline Thursday night.

Sgt. Alvin Witherunner and Patrolman Blaz Bailon arrested the three on the Andrews Highway and booked them for theft. Two were 15 and the other was 17.

Junior High School officials reported loss of a recording machine valued at $200. It was taken sometime during the Christmas holidays.

Cops Continue Kidnap Probe

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Police are hoping to talk to a sandwich maker, a service station attendant and a landlord who might fit into Marie McDonald's story of being kidnaped from her home. Detectives would like to find: The person who made the turkey sandwiches Miss McDonald says her kidnapers fed her at one point. The man who put gas in the old green car the blonde movie actress says was used to transport her from a small house in Los Angeles to a desert highway near Indio, where she was found last Friday night. And, possibly, the landlord of the house where she says two swarthy kidnapers held her while planning to ransom her for $80,000. Police said yesterday that Miss McDonald told them the house had no food in it, and might not have been regularly occupied. This might indicate that the house was rented for a hideaway, detectives said.

Mideast Crisis Tops List Of Best News Stories Of 1956

By PAUL R. MICKELSON
Associated Press General News Editor

Oil and water mixed to produce the biggest news story of 1956. More important than President Eisenhower's re-election, even more significant than the courageous but pathetic revolt against Russian rule in Hungary, was Gamal Abdel Nasser's seizure of the Suez waterway and the consequences that brought the jittery world perilously close again to the brink of war.

Newspaper, radio and TV news editors, voting in the annual Associated Press poll to determine the 10 biggest stories of a big news year, unhesitatingly named the Middle East crisis number one. As the year drew to an end, the ancient land of the Pharaohs was the world's most explosive trouble center. England and France were politically and economically shaken.

The estrangement of the world's two mightiest powers, the United States and Russia, was wider and more serious. Four years after he engineered the bloodless coup that toppled the high-living King Farouk from his ancient throne, the 33-year-old Nasser set off the volatile world crisis by seizing the Suez canal, the most vital single lifeline of the British Empire. Unable to regain control of the canal by diplomatic and economic pressure, Britain and France suddenly decided to invade Egypt.

world influence at a new modern low. Still standing—defiantly in control of the Suez canal that his forces had sabotaged so thoroughly that a severe oil shortage now plagued Europe—was an even mightier Dictator Nasser with a new-found "friend" in Russia. ELECTION PLACES SECOND A presidential election, almost always the top story of the year, was second but it was a dull campaign and a landslide for Ike. The nation showed it liked Ike more in 1956 than in 1952. He rolled up a popular vote plurality of about 10 million votes over Adlai Stevenson and outscored him 457 to 74 in electoral votes, carrying even Louisiana as he reduced the Democratic "solid south" to six states. Four years earlier, Eisenhower's electoral vote margin was 442 to 88, Stevenson winning nine states—seven of them in the South. Only the pre-convention political activities gave the campaign zest. The doubt as to Eisenhower's availability due to his illnesses and the

The Latin Touch

Latin American Katy Jurado feels that Mexican girls are more sheltered and more feminine than American girls. This fiery miss from Mexico brings some beauty secrets straight from the wood-burning fires south of the border. Katy will appear soon in Allied Artists' "Dragon Wells Massacre."

HOLLYWOOD BEAUTY

Mexico Formula For Beautiful Eyelashes

By LYDIA LANE
HOLLYWOOD — I hadn't seen Katy Jurado since she won an Academy Award nomination two years ago so I was glad to have a long visit with her recently. This fiery miss from Mexico is quite at home in the United States and she has great admiration for Americans.

The talk turned to eye make-up and Katy confessed she was conservative and preferred black. "The best mascara I have ever used is made in Mexico from a seed that is put in a wood-burning fire until it turns black. You just rub a wet brush on this seed and apply it to your lashes and they will be coated to look thicker and longer but will never stick together."

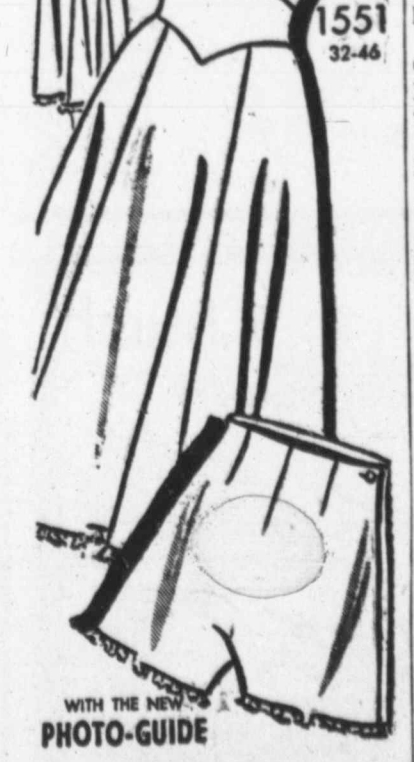

"I don't know how the average girl manages to have a family and career and look so glamorous. I just finished making 'Dragon Wells Massacre' for Allied Artists and I hardly had time to eat and sleep. Even with servants the Mexican women do not manage to be so well-groomed."

We chatted about the difference in education between Latin American girls and those in the United States. "You are brought up with more of an idea of independence," Katy said. "The Mexican girl is more sheltered and this makes her more feminine in her attitude toward men. I don't think a man likes to be bossed and I don't think a girl has respect for a man who will allow himself to be pushed around."

Katy mentioned the streamlined figures of the American girls. "In the fashion magazines they have no curves. Latin men like a more feminine figure," Katy asserted. "I am glad because I like everything that fattening."

I admired Katy's eyelashes. "They are my own," she explained. "Mexican women pay great attention to eyes. They feel that they are the most dominant feature of the face. And you'll find mothers stroking their babies eyelashes with a drop of oil."

"What kind?" I asked. "From the castor bean," Katy told me. "If you start using castor oil as a child it helps to thicken the lashes."

Music Study Club To Sponsor Program Feb. 5

Members of the Music Study Club heard plans Wednesday for the Feb. 5 presentation of James Gammino and his String Symphonette of Odessa. This will be the Texas Day observance for the club. The musicians will appear at the Municipal Auditorium in a concert sponsored by the club, especially for the children of the county schools.

Meeting in the home of Mrs. Harold Talbot, the club heard a program of music in the jazz classification. Mrs. Harrol Jones and Joyce Howard were hostesses. Leader for the afternoon was a Elsie Willis, who gave a discussion, with blackboard examples, of the various rhythms in music. Presenting music by American composers, Mrs. Bill Griese and Mrs. Leslie Green played "Tiger Rag" as a piano duet. "Memphis Blues" was a duet with Mrs. Omar Pitman on the organ and Mrs. Green at the piano.

Illustrating the European manifestations of the jazz age was "Sentimental Melody" played by Mrs. Fred Beckham. A quartet, composed of Mrs. Talbot, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Noble Kemmer and Mrs. Bill Bonner sang selections typical of the manifestation in the United States.

Mrs. C. A. Boyd played a piano selection, "Tango American." The club will meet Feb. 13 in the home of Mrs. Pitman, with Mrs. J. E. Hardesty and Mrs. Beckham as hostesses.

Two bills concerning women, soon to be presented to the state Senate, were discussed by the group. No definite action, for or against the bills, was taken. The resignation of Mrs. Walter Robinson, for reasons of health, was accepted with regret. A questionnaire, completed with the outstanding needs of the city, was reported to the members.

Mrs. J. B. Apple read a poem, "I Know Something Good About You." A nominating committee, composed of Mrs. M. T. Kuykendall, Oma Buchanan and Mrs. Willard Sullivan, was appointed. They will report their nominations at the first meeting in February.

About 26 were present for the luncheon. Speaking on education in the home, W. S. Goodlett Jr. expressed his view that education should be started early in the life of a child. Taking the society's viewpoint, Mr. Goodlett said that education does more for raising the standard of living than any other factor.

Bruce Frazier, speaking on the college level, said that education gives a person the chance to enjoy doing what he is best fitted for. The professional viewpoint was expressed by Dr. Neil Sanders. She said that education gives one a better knowledge of discipline and a keener sense of appreciation for the fellowman.

Preceding the discussion, members of Mrs. L. D. Spradling's third grade presented a song skit on "Smookey, the Bear." Mrs. B. P. Bolding's third grade sang "Frosty, the Snowman," followed by Mrs. J. R. Hale's third grade presenting "Winter Wonderland."

Mrs. W. A. Cobb announced that the Mother's March on Polio would be held Jan. 31. The social following the business was under the direction of Mrs. Lowell Knopp.

EAST WARD P-TA At the Thursday meeting of the East Ward P-TA, it was announced that the Mothers' March on Polio would be held Jan. 31. All volunteers were asked to meet at the home of Mrs. Robert Lee, 1604

Local candidates entered in the district contests are Mrs. Estes for beauty and Bo Bowen for Esquire. Mrs. Carl Wilkerson, who is moving to Weirton, W. Va., was presented with a baby's silver spoon. Refreshments were served to 13.

Prayers were offered by Mrs. Rufus Davidson, Mrs. H. Reeves, Mrs. T. F. Hill and Mrs. A. Porch. Twelve were present. Lees HD Club Has Officer Installation Mrs. Earl Wooline was installed as president of the Lees Home Demonstration Club at their meeting Thursday afternoon. Mrs. Joe Carter will serve as secretary.

Nine members were present for the meeting. Mrs. Carter will be hostess for the group when they meet Jan. 24.

Yearbooks of the Luther Home Demonstration Club were completed at a meeting of the group Thursday afternoon Mrs. Louis Underwood was hostess. Elizabeth Pace, HD agent, spoke to the club on how to organize and arrange kitchen storage space in order to save time and space. The women were shown how to make dividers for use in storage spaces.

Ten members answered roll call with "What I Like Best About Club Work." Three guests were present. The next hostess will be Mrs. Dean Self, Gail Route, on Jan. 24 at 2 p.m.

Midway P-TA Plans Benefit Show Jan. 18 At a meeting of the executive board of the Midway P-TA Thursday afternoon at the school, it was announced that Ben Hall and his Circle Four Ramblers will play for a benefit show. Date was set for Jan. 18 at the school. Proceeds will go into the P-TA treasury. Bruce Frazier will be speaker for the organization at the regular meeting on Jan. 17 at the school. Time for the meeting is 7:30 p.m.

Safety Council Officers

P-TA Groups Discuss Education; Plan Mothers' March On Polio

"Education, An Investment Rather than an Expenditure" was the title of the panel discussion held Thursday evening at the meeting of the College Heights P-TA. Joe Pickle was moderator of the group. Mrs. Jack Wilson, taking the teacher's view on the subject, said there should be a better parent-teacher relationship for a better understanding.

Speaking on education in the home, W. S. Goodlett Jr. expressed his view that education should be started early in the life of a child. Taking the society's viewpoint, Mr. Goodlett said that education does more for raising the standard of living than any other factor.

T&P Safety Council Has Installation

Texas and Pacific Ladies Safety Council held their annual luncheon at the Wagon Wheel Restaurant, Thursday, at which time officers were installed.

The accomplishments of this organization were enumerated in a talk by A. C. LaCroix, superintendent of T&P's Western Division. LaCroix praised the work in public and community safety and offered every assistance possible to the new group of officers installed.

The superintendent of safety, J. H. Williams, from Dallas, made a talk explaining that the work done by the T&P Ladies Safety Council over the line had become nationally recognized and for the third consecutive year, President Volmer has been presented the National Safety Council's highest award, that of public safety activities in towns and communities through which the railroad operates.

During the luncheon it was decided to hold a benefit MOD coffee Jan. 18, from 10 to 12 noon. In addition to the council participating, the other auxiliaries will be invited to participate.

Mrs. Hayworth Is Honored At Dinner

Mrs. M. M. Hayworth was honored recently with a dinner at the Wagon Wheel. Hosts for the dinner were present and past employees of the First National Bank, where Mrs. Hayworth has been an employee for the past 14 years. Mrs. Hayworth is leaving this weekend to make a home in Berkeley, Calif. About 60 attended the dinner.

Study Indicates Dixie Favors Rule By Law

NEW YORK (AP)—A study of desegregation at Lamar State College of Technology at Beaumont, Tex., indicates most white Southerners favor segregation but feel community law and order is more important.

Dr. Warren Breed of Tulane University made the study, the second in a series of field reports dealing with Southern communities where violence took place over school desegregation. His report was released yesterday.

A federal court order desegregation at Lamar Tech last Aug. 30. Classes started Sept. 24 with 26 Negroes enrolled and were never seriously upset by protests.

However, up to 75 pickets white persons—with the possible exception of a student declared publicly in favor of desegregation at Lamar, not even from "southern liberal" ranks. Despite this," he said, "desegregation took place and in a city 29 per cent Negro."

Breed's study emphasized these points:

1. The community leaders who felt called upon to express their personal feelings declared against desegregation.

2. The "key value" which motivated the authorities to restore order was not "equal opportunity, but law and order."

3. Few Beaumonters took much of a stand either way.

4. The protest against Negro students was led by women from the lower-middle class. Their appeals were white supremacist in tone.

5. An editorial in the Beaumont Enterprise which asked, "Who is running our city—the legally constituted authorities or a handful of the fringe of the citizenry?" helped spur officials to stop disorders.

6. The churches were not prominent in the affair—on either side. Breed found white students accepted the Negroes and bent over backward to be pleasant.

Jesus Baptized and Tempted

CHRIST TOLD SATAN TO BEGONE, AND REMAINED THE SINLESS ONE

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL. OUR LAST lesson ended when the Holy Family returned to their homeland and settled in Nazareth. St. Matthew gives us no details of Jesus' life between the time when He returned from Egypt with His parents, and His appearance before He began His ministry after His baptism and the temptation in the wilderness.

Only Luke tells of the birth of John the Baptist and of his retirement to the wilderness where he lived a hermit's life, until his return to preach repentance of sin and the coming of Jesus Christ, as prophesied by the prophets of old.

He must have appeared an odd person in "his raiment of camel's hair, and his meat was locusts and wild honey."

People flocked to hear him and to be baptized by him, confessing their sins. He must have received these gladly, but "when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees come to his baptism he was angered, saying: O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?"

Satan left Jesus then, and angels came to minister to Him. When Jesus heard that John the Baptist had been imprisoned, He went to Capernaum and began to preach. Here He found four of His apostles, first Simon Peter and his brother Andrew who were casting their nets into the sea. Jesus said: "Follow Me," and at once they left their nets and followed Him.

Then Jesus saw James and John who were with their father mending nets. At the Lord's call they too left their father and followed Him, and all the rest of their lives they accompanied Him, and when He left them they carried His message to many peoples. All but John were martyred.

The teacher of the younger classes cannot do better than to discuss the temptations that they meet in their daily lives—the temptation to cheat at lessons, to be cruel or unjust to others, to help themselves when in shops without paying, etc. Tell them that when they are so tempted, they should think of Jesus and ask for His help in resisting.

The older pupils should be reminded that only by leading lives of morality and integrity can their lives be successful.

MEMORY VERSE
"Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and Him only shalt thou serve."—Matthew 4:10.

Bring forth therefore fruits meet for repentance." He also warned these men not to plead that Abraham was their father, saying that it would do them no good.

These groups were the two chief Jewish parties. The Pharisees were strict observers of the laws, ruthlessly denouncing anyone who did not rigidly keep all the traditions that had accumulated around the law of God through hundreds of years. The Sadducees were the theologians, few in number, but well educated and often wealthy.

Jesus, too, came to be baptized by John, who was reluctant at first to baptize Him, saying that he, John, should rather be baptized by Him. Jesus, being sinless, had no need to be baptized, as He had no sins to confess, but we may conjecture that He felt it would please His Father, God.

So John baptized Jesus, saying that he, John, should rather be baptized by Him. Jesus, being sinless, had no need to be baptized, as He had no sins to confess, but we may conjecture that He felt it would please His Father, God.

Then was Jesus led up of the spirit into the wilderness to be tempted of the devil. After He had fasted for 40 days and nights, and was "an hungred," Satan came to Him, suggesting that He could turn the stones into bread.

WHY I BECAME A MINISTER Clyde Nichols Felt Call Since Boyhood

I was made a minister by the grace of God. There was no Damascus Road with a lightning round about me from heaven. There was no burning bush with a voice commanding, "Put off thy shoes."

CLYDE NICHOLS

There were no seraphim crying one to another, "Holy, holy, holy." That God has called others in such dramatic fashion I do not question, but His call came to me in a far less spectacular way.

I was made a minister by my mother and father. Though I dare say it was the last thing they dreamed of my being, I was made a minister by the example of their lives; by their love and devotion to God; by our family worship at the close of each day; by their love and their prayers which have followed me. I was made a minister by parents who took me to Sunday school and church and led me to love the house of God next to my own home.

FEET OF A TEACHER
I was made a minister at the feet of a Sunday school teacher, a teacher who caused the Old Testament Prophets, the Master of Men, and the Apostle Paul to live again for me. After all these years I can still see a face and hear a voice which gave witness to the consecrated life of one who loved God and desired more than anything to share it with those to be the men and women of tomorrow.

I was made a minister by my own minister whose life was a demonstration of what God can do with a consecrated man. In his efforts I first saw the power of God to transform and change the lives of men.

I was made a minister by those who listened to my first sermons and offered encouragement, by countless people who have touched my life and helped in so many ways, people, I know now, who were used by God to bring help in time of need.

SAME COURSE
I was made a minister by the multitudes unfeeling, gaunt, starving for the Living Bread. Amidst the crying needs of life, I have come to know that the supreme need of every life, and the life of the world, is God, revealed to us through Christ Jesus, our Lord.

I was made a minister, and how do I feel about it? I am persuaded that if my life were to be lived a thousand times, that along the way there would come the call. Just as before, there would be "many a conflict, many a doubt, fightings and fears within, without," but at last the surrender—"My life is little to offer; my talents are few, and these are small; but if I am needed, if I can serve; "Here Am I; Lord, send me!"

Arctic Air Over North
By The Associated Press
Skies cleared over most of the storm-swept Midwest and Northeast today but arctic air spread over the snow-covered areas.

Cold air plunged southward over most of the eastern third of the country in the wake of heavy snowstorms which pounded wide sections of the region yesterday, after lashing the Midwest. Heavily laden snow—up to a foot in some places—fell in a broad section from the Rockies to New England.

The severe winter storm was blamed for at least 22 deaths, mostly attributed to exposure or overexertion while shoveling snow. Eight deaths were reported in Illinois, seven in Michigan and two in New York state.

Temperatures in some Eastern areas were nearly 40 degrees lower than yesterday morning. Biggest falls were from east Texas across most of the lower Mississippi Valley into the South Atlantic Coast states. Readings were in the low or middle 30s.

Oil Map Figure Sets 'Deals'

HOUSTON (AP)—A man charged in the theft of oil maps from the Gulf Oil Corp. said yesterday he was back home for more deals.

Col. Odie Seagraves, 70, under indictment in the celebrated theft case, issued a challenge to "anyone to prove the charges against me."

In an interview, Seagraves said he was more concerned about recent published statements about him than the charges.

"They said I might have been the richest man in Texas," he said of one published account. "To tell the truth I might have been the richest man in the world if I had held on to some of my deals."

Seagraves said he was letting his lawyers handle the case against him.

He was indicted by a federal grand jury in Pittsburgh, Pa., on charges of conspiring to transport stolen property through interstate commerce. Others indicted on the same charges were: Irving Milner, former New Yorker believed to be in Canada, Emanuel Lester and Edward Leberman, both of New York.

Authorities have said their trial may come up by June.

Seagraves told newsmen he planned to be in Houston several days and then possibly would go to California.

He said he has several deals in the mill.

Hymn Of The Month

JANUARY, 1957
LEAD ON, O KING ETERNAL
Text—Ernest W. Shurtleff (1862-1917)
Tune—Henry Smart (1813-1879)

The author of this hymn little thought that, when he was asked as a member of the graduating class at Andover, Massachusetts Theological Seminary to write the graduation hymn for the class, it would become one of the great church hymns.

Such was its appeal that we find it in almost every hymnal, and it is the favorite of young people throughout America. Written as it was by a young man for young men, it expresses the eagerness for service that he and his classmates felt on finishing their "days of preparation."

The hymn tune, Lancashire, is ideal for these challenging words. Quoting from the late Augustine Smith, we find this—"It has quickness and vigor enough to make an instant appeal to youth, and with them a rare combination of genuine dignity and melodic surety."

It was composed by Henry Smart (1813-1879) and written for the celebration of the Tercentenary of the Reformation of Blackburn, England, Parish Church, where he was organist.

THE ANSWER IS GOD!

WORSHIP HIM IN CHURCH EVERY SUNDAY . . . AT HOME EVERY DAY . . .

THEY'RE GOING TO STICK A NEEDLE IN ME

Yes, Sonny, we do it all the time!

Mommie holds you in her lap. And that nice, friendly doctor gets the needle ready. Then . . . OUCH! And there's one less disease for you to worry about.

If only it were that easy to protect you from some of the other diseases that infest the world . . . the plagues that eat away man's moral and spiritual fibre.

But religion can't be injected with a needle!

So it requires wise parents, and Christian homes, and worshipping families, and vigorous churches to get you ready for a noble, happy life.

Better take it up Sunday with your folks; ISN'T IT TIME FOR ALL OF US TO GO TO CHURCH?

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake, (2) For his children's sake, (3) For the sake of his community and nation, (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible, daily.

BUZ SAWYER

HERE COMES THE TARGET DRONE!

FIRE!

OH, DEAR GOODNESS! WHAT'S THAT?

BAM!

CHRISTY HAS BLUNDERED INTO AN ANTI-AIRCRAFT PRACTICE RANGE.

YOU IDIOTS! THAT WASN'T A TARGET DRONE!!! IT WAS SOME BLASTED CIVILIAN IN A CUB!

IT WAS?

DIXIE DUGAN

I HAVEN'T FINISHED TALKING WITH THIS KIND YOUNG LADY...

THE DOCTOR WANTS YOU STONER TO REST... PERHAPS TO BETTER GO.

BUT I'LL BE BACK ANOTHER DAY.

BARRR... WHAT TOOK YA SO LONG?

LET'S GO, PA—I'VE GOT A LOT OF FIGURING OUT TO DO.

NANCY

I HOPE AUNT FRITZI BUYS ME THAT NECKLACE FOR MY BIRTHDAY.

I'VE BEEN HINTING ALL WEEK.

AHEM

LFL ABNER

MARRY HIM? BUT SPY-JEST GIVE ME SOME REASON!!

MAMA, CAN I GO OUT WITH MY GIRL FRIENDS TONIGHT?

YOU CAN GO OUT WITH THE GIRLS TONIGHT, BUT DON'T COME HOME TOO LATE.

DAGWOOD—TAKE OFF YOUR HAT AND COAT—I WAS TALKING TO COOKIE.

WELL, I THOUGHT THAT WAS ODD.

BLONDIE

MAMA, CAN I GO OUT WITH MY GIRL FRIENDS TONIGHT?

YOU CAN GO OUT WITH THE GIRLS TONIGHT, BUT DON'T COME HOME TOO LATE.

DAGWOOD—TAKE OFF YOUR HAT AND COAT—I WAS TALKING TO COOKIE.

WELL, I THOUGHT THAT WAS ODD.

ANNIE ROONEY

WELL, BIX, HOW DID I DO, MAKING LIKE LITTLE ANNIE'S LONG-LOST MOTHER? WAS I CONVINCING?

MAIZIE, BABY, YOU WERE WONDERFUL! YOU ALMOST HAD ME BELIEVING IT, MYSELF! AND OUR MR. FLING WAS PRACTICALLY WEEPING!

WELL, THE ACT HAD BETTER PAY OFF BIG. THIS KIND OF TALENT COMES HIGH.

IT WILL, BABY, IT WILL. YOUR LITTLE BIX ISN'T GONNA GET THIS CLOSE TO SO MUCH DOUGH WITHOUT MAKING PLENTY OF IT RUB OFF ON US!

ZERO, I DON'T KNOW WHAT'S WRONG WITH ME! THOSE PEOPLE ARE SPORED TO BE MY VERY OWN FOLKS—AN I JUST CAN'T FEEL ANYTHING! I GUESS YOU GOTTA GET USED TO GOOD THINGS JUST LIKE YOU DO BAD THINGS!

SNUFFY SMITH

JUGHAID—I WANT YE TO RUN THIS CUP OF CORN MEAL OVER TO MIZ CAPHART'S AS FAST AS YORE TWO LAIGS WILL CARRY YE.

WHAT'S ALL TH' RUSH ABOUT, AUNT LOWEEZY—CAN'T I JUST MOSEY ALONG?

OH, AFTER I ONCE GET ON TH' RIGHT STREET, I JUST KEEP LOOKIN' DOWN AT TH' WALK...

...AN' WHERE ALL TH' MUDDY LITTLE FOOTPRINTS TURN IN...

...THAT'S WHERE GRANDMA LIVES!

GRANDMA

GRANDMA, HOW DO YOU ALWAYS FIND YOUR WAY HOME WHEN YA CAN'T SEE WHERE YOU'RE GOIN?

OH, AFTER I ONCE GET ON TH' RIGHT STREET, I JUST KEEP LOOKIN' DOWN AT TH' WALK...

...AN' WHERE ALL TH' MUDDY LITTLE FOOTPRINTS TURN IN...

...THAT'S WHERE GRANDMA LIVES!

DONALD DUCK

EEEE-YEEEE

YEEE-OOOO

OOOO

JOE PALOOKA

MR. WALSH IS UPSTAIRS... BUT WH-WHO ARE YOU? WHAT DO YOU WANT?

I'M HIS FIANCEE... WE'RE GOING TO BE MARRIED SOON... EXCUSE ME—I MUST SEE MY DAH-LING?

KNOBBY... SWEETHEART?? I JUST FOUND OUT YOU WERE HERE... YOU SHOULD HAVE TOLD ME? OH, YOU POOR DEAR??

YOU JUST DIDN'T WANT TO MAKE YOUR BABYKINS WORRY... IT WAS SO SWEET OF YOU, MY PRECIOUS?

NICE GOIN', SIS... GOOD OL' RELIABLE JERRY??

SCORCHY SMITH

THIS CAVE IS A PERFECT SPOT FOR THE JOB, LUKE...

FINISH THEM OFF, INSIDE, THEN COVER THE ENTRANCE WITH ROCKS! I'LL MEET YOU IN DENVER WHEN THINGS COOL OFF A BIT!

STEP IN, GENTS!

OAKY DOAKS

PRINCESS POMONA, DO WE HAVE TO PUT UP WITH THIS INTRUSION?

ER... POMONA...

I JUST GOT BACK FROM THE DUCHY OF DEADHAM AND NOW I'M LEAVING HERE FOREVER!

AND I'M GOING TOO!

THIS IS THE BEST NEWS I EVER HAD!

I'M GLAD YOU'RE GOING, OAKY DOAKS!

...BECAUSE YOU DON'T CARE A RAP WHOSE LAP I SIT ON!

YOU GOTTA FACE IT... IF YOU BRUISES YO' LITTLE HEART WHEN HE BECOMES TWENTY-FIVE OR THIRTY...

HE'LL GROW UP FRIGHTENED... IGNORANT... SUSPICIOUS... FIT ONLY PER WORK IN THE TEEVIES... ALL BECAUSE YOU AN' GIVE HIM A MOTHER'S LOVE.

ALONE UNLOVED, HE WILL PACK AN LEAVE HOME... YOU, A WIDDER WOMAN, KEED AN PENNILESS... AN HIM OFF TO EARN A MISERBLE FORTUNE AS VICE-PRESIDENT OF THE VIDEOS...

THE ONLY TIME YOU'LL HEAR OF HIM IS WHEN THEY HAS A LOSEAL AN' BACK HELL COME IN RAGS AN' BOTH OF YOU WILL HIDE TOGETHER EATIN' BREAKFAST FOOD AN' BURNIN' COMIC BOOKS TO KEEP WARM.

DICKIE DARE

THE KEY WORKS—BUT CAN'T SEE A THING IN THERE! HEY, THERE'S A FLASHLIGHT DOWN THE CORRIDOR.

HOW TO GET BACK TO THAT DOOR... WHIP IT FAST... CLOSE IT...

IT'S TAKING ONE HORRIBLE CHANCE, BUT—HERE GOES...

FOOTSTEPS COMING THIS WAY! AW, FATE, BUT—LET IT BE THAT DEVIL OF A CAPTAIN!

Lamesa Cotton Growers Will Pick Directors

LAMESA—Nine directors of the Lamesa Cotton Growers and two directors to the Plains Cotton Growers will be named next Tuesday at the annual meeting of the Lamesa Cotton Growers. A. L. Moss, president of Lamesa Cotton Growers, said the meeting will be held in the District Courtroom of the Dawson County Court House. Directors whose terms expire include Jim Dunn and Bill Anderson, precinct one; A. E. Hale and F. P. King, precinct two; Moss and Jack Broyles, precinct three; and Cecil O'Brien and Carson Echols, precinct four. A replacement for precinct one for E. A. Hargrove will be named. Hargrove moved to Post recently to accept the management of a gin there. Ben Dopson and E. D. David are currently directors of the Plains Cotton Growers, and their terms expire. Holdover directors include J. E. Griffin, precinct one; Wright G. Boyd and D. L. Adcock Sr., precinct two; Hayes Walker and Clyde Brannon, precinct three; W. K. Crawley and Carlos Berry, precinct four. Officials of the Lamesa Cotton Growers, in addition to Moss, include Adcock, vice president; Crawley, secretary-treasurer; and Mrs. Louise Moore, executive secretary.

Five-Day Jail Term Assessed

A. V. Moore Jr., who has been in jail since Nov. 27, has just five more days to serve and then he will be released. Moore, arrested in connection with the absence of a worthless check, has been in custody since Nov. 27. Brought before Judge R. H. Weaver in county court on Thursday afternoon, he told the court that even if the court set bond for him he "doubted" if he could make it. He explained that while he has been in Big Spring for a year, he knows no residents who qualify as bailsmen. Therefore, he said, he "might as well plead guilty." The court assessed five days in jail. This was the least possible penalty for the charge. Harvey Hooser Jr., county attorney, said that Moore has a number of other bad checks in town. He insisted that the man make efforts to pay off these as soon as he is freed from custody.

Kiwanians See Therapy Film

Big Spring Kiwanians saw the special color film produced locally by the Cosden Petroleum Company in cooperation with the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis Thursday noon at its meeting. The movie, photographed at the Westward Ho Motel swimming pool, told the story of the water therapy activities carried on each summer in this city to aid victims of poliomyelitis and kindred crippling diseases. Bill Frank, advertising manager for Cosden, presented the film. Also on hand to speak of the current "March of Dimes" campaign and urge its support was Ward Ware, chairman of the local campaign. Horace Reagan, newly elected president of Kiwanis, presided at the meeting for the first time.

DWI Defendant Wins Acquittal

It took a Howard County Court jury 30 minutes Thursday to find Matthew Marion Brown not guilty of driving while under influence of intoxicating liquor. The jury filed out of the court room at 3 p.m. It was back at 3:30 and Mrs. J. O. Nixon of the former "man" jury handed the acquittal verdict to Judge R. H. Weaver. The trial had been in progress all day. It was the only case for jury trial Thursday. Brown, arrested by city police on Dec. 26, was alleged by the state to have driven a pickup truck in the business area while intoxicated. Chief witnesses for the state were Sgt. Alvin Hillbrunner and Officer Blair Ballou of the Big Spring police. They arrested Brown at the corner of West Third and Gregg. George Thomas was defense counsel, and Harvey Hooser Jr., county attorney, prosecuted the case.

Macmillan Shapes Plans For Cabinet

LONDON (AP)—Prime Minister Harold Macmillan shaped plans today for a broad reshuffle of the shaken Conservative government he inherited from Sir Anthony Eden.

Near the top of Macmillan's agenda as he settled into his first full day in his new office was the question of a post for Richard A. Butler, his passed-over rival for Britain's highest political post.

Clyde Thomas
Attorney At Law
First Nat'l Bank Building
Phone AM 4-4621

Premier Mallet. It was not certain that Macmillan would decide to drop Lloyd, but his future at least was considered in doubt.

If Butler stays put as government leader in Commons, Colonial Secretary Alan Lennox-Boyd was tipped as a possible man for the Foreign Office.

Butler told a reporter he "will definitely serve in the new Cabinet, although the office I shall hold has not yet been decided."

"In public life, one has to do one's duty," Butler added. "I would certainly not desert the ship at a time like this."

Butler's support is of crucial importance to Macmillan and the Conservative party. Generally considered the No. 2 man to Eden throughout the previous government's 21 months in office, he has a strong bloc of supporters in the House of Commons.

In a recorded broadcast to the nation last night, Macmillan said he was forming a government he would present for Queen Elizabeth's approval "in a few days."

He paid tribute to his "old and very dear friend Anthony Eden," and appealed for united support.

"We have a difficult task before us," he said. "It will need all our courage and strength, and it will need the sympathy and understanding of every one in the country, whatever their party or beliefs."

There were indications Macmillan might visit Washington soon to rebuild U. S.-British friendship. The new Prime Minister and President Eisenhower are friends of World War II days, and high Washington officials said Macmillan will be welcome whenever he decides to make such a visit.

There was no indication of Eden's future plans. He and his wife remained in seclusion at Chequers, the official country home of prime ministers. They were preparing to leave the country residence by the weekend.

Describes Kidnapers

Detective Ector Garcia, a police department artist, draws a sketch of one of two men sought as the alleged kidnapers of Marie McDonald as the actress (right) supplies a description. She leafed through two large volumes of police file pictures, pointing out facial characteristics similar to those of the two men who she said kidnaped her from her home near Los Angeles.

Committee Urges New Water District

AUSTIN (AP)—The Texas Water Resources Committee yesterday said it would ask the Legislature to create a 6-county underground water district in the San Antonio-New Braunfels area, but reached no decision on a water tax.

The underground water district would include parts of Bexar, Comal, Kinney, Hays, Uvalde and Medina counties. The district would recharge its underground reservoir by constructing dams and pumping water into the ground.

The committee has been seeking money to buy conservation storage in federal reservoirs. Its most recent efforts have gone virtually unsupported. Only one group said it favored the proposal and "with reservations."

The tax was described by the committee's attorney, Joe Carter, as a "claim" tax. He said the tax "was not based so much on use as it was claim."

Representatives from various Rio Grande water irrigation districts termed the proposed tax as "discriminatory against irrigators."

The constitutional amendment which would set up the tax calls for charging 10 cents annually for each acre of land irrigated by riparians. Irrigators who have water permits would pay 10 cents for each acre they claimed to irrigate.

Hydroelectric and other non-consumptive users of water would pay 15-cent for each 325,000 gallons and all other diversionary users would pay 10 cents for the same amount.

Committee Chairman Sen. George Parkhouse said, "This tax would cost everyone in Dallas who has a water meter about a dime a month." He predicted a total $1,900,000 could be raised in 1958 with the tax.

Parkhouse made the statement while questioning the Rio Grande Valley witnesses. Parkhouse said the Valley farmers were "always wanting but never wanting to pay."

Sen. Hubert Hudson of Brownsville said it was not true. He said the Valley people would favor a statewide property tax over the proposed tax.

Gene Leach of the Texas Farm Bureau said, "We cannot go along with it," while talking about the proposed amendment. He also said the bureau would support the property tax as they did in the last session.

The committee, which at one time thought of raising the money by taxing pleasure boats and motors, heard these suggestions to get the money:

- 1. Taxing the water stored in reservoirs.
- 2. The statewide property (ad valorem) tax.
- 3. A graduated corporation profit tax.

Borchers Claims 'Fear' Caused Illicit Affair

PASADENA, Calif. (AP)—It was "fear" which made red-haired Dorothy McCully submit to a man described in court as a "Texas gangster," says William Borchers.

The balding, bespectacled insurance man admitted yesterday he knew about the affair involving the woman the prosecution claims he murdered.

Borchers, 45, said he loved his secretary, 31, although he knew Marvin Prestridge was a frequent visitor at the apartment Borchers had rented for her.

"Doty submitted to Prestridge out of fear," Borchers said.

Borchers claims he shot Mrs. McCully accidentally Oct. 9 while they were driving in his car near the Pasadena Rose Bowl. Mrs. McCully was formerly wed to Louis (Chicken Louie) Ferrantello, slain Dallas bar owner.

The insurance man is estranged from his third wife. He admitted yesterday he was in love with Los Angeles taxi dancer June Ackerman just before he met Mrs. McCully in May, 1956.

"But my love for June didn't compare to my love for Doty," he said, adding that with Mrs. McCully "the physical relationship was very, very sublimated by something far bigger and more precious."

Adenauer Urges Ban On H-Bomb

BONN (AP)—West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer today called on the world powers to clear the way for settlement of international problems by banning thermonuclear weapons.

"Thermonuclear weapons no longer can be considered as a means of waging war," the 81-year-old Chancellor declared at his first news conference of 1957.

Navy Lectures Set In Midland

Seapower and nuclear-powered warfare and the Navy's responsibility will be the film-lecture, open to the public for the first time, sponsored by the Midland Naval Reserve Officer's School on Monday. The affair will be at 7:30 p.m. in San Jacinto Junior High School, Midland.

Included in the program is a discussion of nuclear power and its employment in planes and ships of the U.S. Navy. The guided missile cruisers, submarines, jet seaplanes and super carriers will be pictured and discussed in their importance in today's sea power.

The Naval Reserve Officers' School is composed of reserve officers from the Midland area who attend weekly to maintain and develop proficiency in duties relating directly to your national security in peacetime as well as wartime. It is in its second year of operation with Commander William D. Hays of Midland as commanding officer of the unit. LCDR Hays is the commandant of the school.

The public is invited to attend. Coffee-time will follow the lectures of Commanders Scott and Marks.
