B52s Circle Globe In Non-Stop, 2-Day Flight

H-Bomb Carriers Show U. S. Power

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Air Force announced today that three B52 bombers landed at March Air Force Base near Los Angeles today after making a 24,325-mile, non-stop flight around the world.

The planes were in the air about 45 hours and flew at an average speed of 525 miles an hour. The flight left Castle Air Force Base, Calif., at about 4 p.m. EST on Jan. 16.

The Air Force said a fourth plane, following a previously prepared plan, left the formation over Africa and landed in England "on schedule."

The big Boeing, eight-jet bombers were refueled several times in flight by tanker planes.

The Air Force said the bombers refueled in the air while traveling a route that took them over Newfoundland, French Morocco, Saudi Arabia, the coasts of India and Ceylon, the Philippine Islands and Guam.

Off the southern tip of the Malay Peninsula, a little better than half way, the planes made a simulated bomb drop.

The Air Force said the bomb drop over the South China Sea demonstrates the Strategic Air Command's capability to strike any target on the face of the earth.

The bombers just about halved the time of the first non-stop round-the-world flight which was made in 1949 by a propeller-driven Air Force B50 Superfortress in 94 hours, 1 minute.

The stratofets were refueled en route by TC97 aerial tankers but the Air Force said the number of refuelings was classified.

The stratofets' flight was a well-kept secret until last night.

The Air Force then notified newsmen to be at March AFB for "an event of historical importance."

Oil Allowable Put At All-Time High

AUSTIN (AP)—The flow of crude oil from Texas fields during February was increased today by the Railroad Commission 92,970 barrels a day to 3,543,672 barrels daily—an all time high for Texas.

A producing pattern of 5 days was set for the short month compared with 17 days for January.

This was the smallest increase the commission could grant for February. Sixteen days would have resulted in a boost of 262,213 barrels daily.

Four major oil companies also asked the commission to hike January to 19 days, but the commission rejected the proposal.

Major oil companies voiced almost unanimous demands for either 16 or 17 days. Independents urged a cautious policy to keep the allowables as steady as possible. It was another victory for the independents.

Hypnotist 'Spells' Away Affection, Avoids Suit

MILWAUKEE (AP)—A balding, middle-aged hypnotist obtained dismissal of a $20,000 alienation of affections suit yesterday after he placed Mrs. Rose Werra, 43, in a trance before a judge and said softly:

"I command you to return to your former relationship with your husband. Show him respect and love. Do you understand that I will have no influence on you, that I will no longer be able to hypnotize you?"

"Yes," Mrs. Werra replied. The hypnotist, Jacob Appel, 59, continued: "When I count five you will be fully awake and refreshed."

At the count of five Mrs. Werra opened her eyes, took her purse and left.

There upon Judge Harvey Neelan dismissed the suit Silvester Werra, 44, had brought against Appel, a self-styled spiritualist who said he got his education "by candlelight, like Abe Lincoln."

Werra agreed to withdraw his action if Appel would end his relationship with Mrs. Werra through posthypnotic suggestion in the court's presence.

Werra charged Appel had won his wife's affections by convincing her that he and Mrs. Werra were married in 1776 during a previous life.

Appel contended Mrs. Werra was the medium and that she had told him of their previous "marriage."

Werra said a spiritualist had told him his wife could be returned only if Appel would "break his spell" over her. Appel denied he had any power over her but that he was willing to "take the imaginary harness off."

Detroit Book Ban Extended To Clothbound

DETROIT (AP)—Detroit police censorship on books—previously confined to the inexpensive paperback editions—has been extended to the regular clothbound editions for the first time with the banning of John O'Hara's prize-winning novel "Ten North Frederick."

The ban was announced personally by Police Commissioner Edward S. Piggins. It applies to both the paperback and hard back editions and to public libraries.

In announcing the ban yesterday, Piggins said: "This is not a book I would want my sons to read."

The ban was announced personally by Police Commissioner Edward S. Piggins. It applies to both the paperback and hard back editions and to public libraries.

In New York City, Random House, which published the book, said it would fight the ban.

O'Hara, in Williamsburg, Va., questioned whether Piggins was competent to determine what is "obscene."

The book, which chronicles the life of the son of a wealthy Pennsylvania family who fails to realize his political ambitions, originally was published in November, 1955. It was given the National Book Award in fiction by a committee of the nation's top writers.

"I personally reviewed the book," Piggins said.

"Giving the various passages of the book the most liberal and broad-minded interpretation possible, I can only agree that the censor bureau exercised sound judgment in banning the book."

The commissioner said he was for freedom of the press and speech unless abuse endangered public morals.

The censor bureau acts under a 119-year-old state law banning obscenity.

SANTA FE, N.M. (AP)—The Legislature favored a 70 m.p.h. speed limit. The state police wanted a 60 m.p.h. top. A court test resulted in the judge ruling, in effect, that any speed was okay if it was "reasonable and prudent."

But don't step on the gas passing through. State police say they don't think anything over 60 is either reasonable or prudent.

Legislators Get Holiday, But Have Plenty Of Homework

AUSTIN (AP)—Legislators gave themselves a three-day weekend holiday starting today but Gov. Price Daniel handed them enough homework to keep them busy for weeks and weeks.

"Enough work to keep us on the job for two sessions," one lawmaker quipped after the new governor spoke for 50 minutes yesterday, detailing parts and merely outlining parts of a 25-point work program.

There were more than 6,000 words in the bulky 21-page document, and Daniel's detailed budget message was still to come. He did promise the lawmakers that he hoped his future messages wouldn't be so long.

The message, calling for no new taxes unless absolutely necessary, suggesting a local option approach to public-school racial problems and touching on a host of other vital problems, generally drew favorable response from legislators. But many of them said they would need much more time to study the message before commenting.

Daniel emphasized the necessity of watchdogging against future state scandals and said that if necessary state services indicate a need for more revenue, he would suggest where the money is coming from.

The new governor threw in a promise that it would not be from a state income tax or sales tax, to which he is unalterably opposed.

Daniel put an "emergency" label on four suggestions to help expedite them through the Legislature.

Yarborough In Senate Race

AUSTIN (AP)—Ralph Yarborough, defeated three times for governor of Texas, announced today as a candidate for the U.S. Senate.

"I feel more optimistic than I have felt in any campaign of mine," the former district judge, 53, said.

"I feel good about this. I did not make this decision until I had conferred with people in every section of the state and they are all optimistic."

There had been speculation Yarborough would get into the race ever since final reports on the second Democratic primary showed he lost the nomination for governor to Price Daniel by about 3,100 votes.

Daniel has not set a date for the special election to fill his Senate post but has indicated it will be called as soon as county clerks can have the new poll tax lists ready for use—probably in 60 to 90 days.

A spokesman in the governor's office said Daniel "might possibly" issue an order today for the special election.

Yarborough said he would travel extensively and use expensive radio and television time sparingly.

"I don't have that kind of money," he said. "I'm in the best health. This is going to be no campaign for any one not feeling physically and mentally."

Yarborough said he announced in answer to "tens of thousands who have requested me by telegram, post card, letter, petition and public resolutions to be a candidate for that vacancy."

Yarborough was defeated by Gov. Price Daniel in the second Democratic primary.

The governor said the special election to fill his vacancy in the Senate would be held as soon as possible, perhaps in about 60 days.

Dallas attorney William Blakley was appointed by former Gov. Allan Shivers a few hours before Daniel was inaugurated to act as senator until one could be elected.

About half a dozen have said they will get in the special election race, among them former Supreme Court Justice James Hart, state Sen. Searcy Bracewell, and Rep. at Large Martin Dies.

Yarborough said that in gratitude for those asking him to run, he pledged "a campaign of honor and truth, based upon a genuine desire to be of service to Texas, America and all mankind."

"All the cunning delay of the political bosses will not beat the people of Texas out of this election."

"The task of the people of Texas is to arm themselves now to win this victory for honest government by paying poll taxes now."

Yarborough's statement obviously referred to the argument that took place between Daniel and Shivers over Daniel's resignation.

Mercury Sinks To 11

Strange as it seems, Friday morning was one degree colder than it was on Thursday morning.

Low temperature reading scored at the U. S. Experiment Station for Thursday night and Friday morning was 11 degrees. This, it was said, was the temperature at 8 a.m. Low reading for the same time Thursday was 12 degrees.

Weather forecast for this vicinity indicates that the current cold is on its way out. The prediction calls for partly cloudy and warmer weather this afternoon, tonight and Saturday. High today is scheduled to reach around 52. The low tonight is not expected to go below 22 degrees. High on Saturday will get up to 60.

Coldest Dec. 18 on record in Big Spring was in 1930 when the mercury hit a flat zero. The hottest Jan. 18 was in 1906 when it was 81 degrees.

Ingrid Bergman To Fly Home For Film Award

PARIS (AP)—With a lump in her throat, Ingrid Bergman flies to the United States tonight for the first time since she began her self-imposed exile seven years ago.

"I can't help being emotional about the trip," she said in her hotel suite before the departure.

"I love New York and I miss it terribly."

She will be in New York just 36 hours — long enough to receive the New York Film Critics' Award from New York film critics. Miss Bergman said she will stay in Boulder, Colo., where she is a student at the University of Colorado, while her mother makes a 34-hour visit to the U. S., her first in seven years.

Then she will rush back to Paris — leaving New York Sunday night — in time for the curtain on Monday night's performance of Robert Anderson's "Tea and Sympathy," the play in which she is starting with great success. The play will close for three days so Miss Bergman can make the trip.

The blonde, Swedish-born actress has not been in the United States since she left to make the film "Stromboli" with Roberto Rossellini in Italy. She and the Italian film director had a son and then married after Miss Bergman's divorce from her American husband, Dr. Peter Lindstrom.

Her daughter by Lindstrom, Jenny Ann (Pia), is a college student in Colorado but Miss Bergman says her visit will be too short for them to have their first meeting in years.

"To see Pia," she explained, "I would need a lot of time and privacy. I couldn't very well do it with all the publicity and television that will undoubtedly accompany my trip."

Sitting in the living room of her hotel suite surrounded by her three children by Rossellini — 7-year-old Roberto and 4-year-old twins Isabella and Ingrid — Miss Bergman insisted she is perfectly happy with her European career.

"Movies are made all over the world, not only in America," she said. "Then, after a thoughtful, 'But maybe one day I'll return to America.'"

Beauty's Not For The Birds

PLATTSMOUTH, Neb. (AP)—It was for the birds that aesthetic beauty went out the window at Plattsmouth's new $250,000 high school.

The gleaming beauty of heavy plate glass windows on the second floor breezeway is gone. In its place is a vandalistic touch that gives some citizens the shudders.

They look and see no beauty. They do see daubs of paint and plenty of them smearing the windows.

It seems the early morning sun would send the birds flying high, then diving down to death against the shining windows.

Dead birds on the driveway below began giving students and teachers the shivers. Thus it was that they got out white paint and brush and daubed the windows haphazardly.

It worked, says Supt. T. I. Priest.

National Guardsmen, equipped with two-way radio, will patrol the city to accept contributions. Viewers will be invited to call members of the Desk and Derrick Club at KBST-TV and at the local telephone office if they wish to make gifts. The phone company will furnish six telephones to accept the calls and two lines will be open to the television station.

Also scheduled for Saturday night is a dance at Gomez Hall in northwest Big Spring. Proceeds of the event, being directed by Ynez Yanes, will go to the MOD.

Prince, Grace Awaiting Birth Of Royal Heir

MONTE CARLO (AP)—While Prince Rainier and Princess Grace of Monaco are waiting to become royal parents, they are also working hard at being plain Mr. and Mrs.

Friends say that though their home is the 120-room palace atop the rocky cliffs of Monaco, the Grimaldis' life is much more simple than one would expect for a Hollywood movie star and the reigning Prince of an 800-year-old dynasty.

The Prince and princess live in a well-furnished, comfortable six-room apartment in the palace. It has a big open fireplace and picture windows overlooking the Mediterranean. They do most of their private entertaining there, and the Prince himself mixes the drinks behind a small bar.

The apartment is near the royal nursery — which Prince Rainier has never seen since it was remodeled—where their baby's birth is expected to take place any time after Jan. 20.

Friends say that the 33-year-old Prince and his blonde wife are extremely close. They discuss almost everything together including the wardrobe which gained her a listing among last year's 10 best dressed women.

Despite the informality of their private life, they dress for dinner. They feel that enhances their appreciation of a good meal, and both like good food and wine.

Both are shy people and the princess has not made many new friends outside her husband's family. Her pregnancy has restricted her activity much of the time. Now that her French is becoming fluent, her circle of friends and acquaintances is widening.

The Prince has warmed considerably. His latest public appearances have been casual and a trifle happy-go-lucky. During the American presidential campaign he even wore an Ike button under his coat lapel to tease an American friend who supported Stevenson.

Coahoma FFA Show To Open

COAHOMA (SC)—Future Farmers were completing arrangements today for the annual Coahoma FFA Fat Stock Show which will be held Saturday at the new club barn here.

Thirty-five members of the chapter will have entries in the show, which opens at 9 a.m. Saturday. They will exhibit 35 lambs, six steers and 10 pigs.

Judging starts at 10 a.m. James O. Taylor Howard County farm agent, will class the animals, starting with the lamb division.

At noon, a barbecue will be served with the public invited to participate at $1 per plate.

Waiting

Prince Rainier III of Monaco loosens his collar with the typical air of an expectant father at a news conference at the palace in Monte Carlo. His princess, the former actress Grace Kelly, is expecting their first child shortly. Rainier said that he and Grace have selected the name Gregoire Georges Pierre Richard for a boy and Caroline Louise Marguerite, if the child is a girl.

Oil Allowable Put At All-Time High

AUSTIN (AP)—The flow of crude oil from Texas fields during February was increased today by the Railroad Commission 92,970 barrels a day to 3,543,672 barrels daily—an all time high for Texas.

A producing pattern of 5 days was set for the short month compared with 17 days for January.

This was the smallest increase the commission could grant for February. Sixteen days would have resulted in a boost of 262,213 barrels daily.

Four major oil companies also asked the commission to hike January to 19 days, but the commission rejected the proposal.

Major oil companies voiced almost unanimous demands for either 16 or 17 days. Independents urged a cautious policy to keep the allowables as steady as possible. It was another victory for the independents.

Hypnotist 'Spells' Away Affection, Avoids Suit

MILWAUKEE (AP)—A balding, middle-aged hypnotist obtained dismissal of a $20,000 alienation of affections suit yesterday after he placed Mrs. Rose Werra, 43, in a trance before a judge and said softly:

"I command you to return to your former relationship with your husband. Show him respect and love. Do you understand that I will have no influence on you, that I will no longer be able to hypnotize you?"

At the count of five Mrs. Werra opened her eyes, took her purse and left.

There upon Judge Harvey Neelan dismissed the suit Silvester Werra, 44, had brought against Appel, a self-styled spiritualist who said he got his education "by candlelight, like Abe Lincoln."

Werra agreed to withdraw his action if Appel would end his relationship with Mrs. Werra through posthypnotic suggestion in the

New Dog Ordinance Is Effective Today

Big Spring went under a new dog law today. The city commission had its final reading of the new ordinance Jan. 8, and it had to be published in two editions of the Herald before taking effect. The second of these publications was Thursday. Under the new ordinance, any dog picked up can be redeemed from the city pound by payment of a pound fee of $1, plus 50 cents for each part of day it is kept. The old law had no provision for a pound fee. The new law has brought a large number of new registrations too. Through this morning, 89 dogs had been registered, and during last year—the entire 12 months—only 175 dogs were registered. The old ordinance required citizens to license their dogs, but the law was abused, city officials claim. The city is now in the process of building pens at the city warehouse for care of impounded animals, but they have not been completed. Until they are ready, all dogs will be taken to Dr. H. F. Schwarzbach where the pound has been located previously. Any dog picked up and not claimed will be exterminated after 72 hours. This regulation was in effect in the old law as well as the new one. The police department has been swamped this week with calls about stray dogs. Five complaints have come to the police this week about dogs in one area on Mulberry. Also this morning, a report came about dogs killing 24 chickens at 508 N. Johnson.

Interment will be in the Trinity Memorial Park under the direction of Nalley-Pickle Funeral Home. Gary died at 12:30 p.m. Thursday, approximately three days after his limp form was found dangling from a clothesline standard. A rope with which he was playing had formed a loop that caught his neck as he fell from a box. Rushed to a hospital he was given a heart stimulant and placed under an oxygen tent. He never regained consciousness. Gary was born in Big Spring on July 13, 1951. Surviving him are his parents; one brother, Don Wayne, 9; his paternal grandmother, Mrs. Lorene Voyles; his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Standfield, Lubbock; a paternal great-grandmother, Mrs. W. A. Rowell, Silverton; paternal great-grandfather, J. M. Voyles, Fort Worth; maternal great-grandfather, J. G. Jury Continues Study Of Latham Kidnaping Case

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP)—A Superior Court jury today continued deliberating their verdict in the long Latham kidnaping case. The panel was locked up at 9:30 last night, 11 hours after receiving the case. Eight hours and 15 minutes of that time had been spent in actual deliberations. The task of deciding the guilt or innocence of Mrs. Beatrice Victoria Winn, 37, and Mrs. Lucille Whisenand, 37, was given to the jury of seven men and five women yesterday on the 26th day of the trial. The two accused women denied from the witness stand that they kidnaped Mrs. Latham, 32, Sept. 12, burglarized her home, robbed her and attempted to murder her. Both defendants testified they themselves were kidnaped Sept. 12 by three men and a woman, taken

Marie Tells Jury Of Her Abduction

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Marie McDonald, emerging teary-eyed from a grand jury hearing, blamed discrepancies in her kidnap stories on sedatives and a state of shock. She repeated for newsmen yesterday a little of what she said she told the Los Angeles County grand jury investigating the case: "I was in a state of shock when I made the statement in Indio," she said, "and I never had a chance to correct it." She said she had previously been given sedatives. Marie did not say what the discrepancies were. It was at a hospital in Indio, a small desert city 150 miles from Los Angeles, that the blonde actress first told her story of being abducted from her home by two swarthy men. Later she re-narrated her story of the kidnaping at her Encino home as police cameras filmed the scene. She said that the jurors asked her about details of the first version. They were "very kind," she said, adding: "I'm glad to clear up these so-called glaring discrepancies in my statement taken in Indio." The jurors took evidence for almost nine hours and then adjourned without action until 10 a.m. Tuesday, when they will resume deliberations on possible indictments. Before she went before the jury for a three-hour appearance, Marie told newsmen that "it's my prayer that it will issue John Doe indictments against the two men" she accuses of kidnaping her. But grand jurors were unable to issue indictments against the two men. The case was handed to the jury when the Police Department announced that it was unable to discover evidence. After she left the jury room Miss McDonald, "The Body" of film publicity fame, embraced her recent escort, British actor Michael Wilding. Then she talked privately with her attorney Jerry Giesler.

New Standards Cut Capacity Of Labor Housing

LAMESA — New housing regulations for contract Mexican National agricultural workers will probably cut housing capacity in Dawson County 15 to 20 per cent. Wright C. Boyd of the Dawson County Cotton Growers, said Thursday that the new regulations also will probably cost each farmer on the average of 15 to 20 per cent of the value of the housing to bring it up to standards. Boyd said the main objection farmers have to the regulations is in nuisance value. They certainly do not object, he said, to better living conditions for their employees. The six-page regulation covers general standards, living and sleeping quarters, cooking and eating facilities, sanitary facilities, lighting and laundry. Individual contractors and association employers are to be responsible for complying with the minimum housing standards. The new standards were announced Tuesday by the Secretary of Labor.

He served as assistant cashier there until he became an assistant national bank examiner early in 1952. He worked out of Austin as an examiner for four years before joining the staff of the Evant bank a little more than a year ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis are moving to 1408 Wood. They have two children. A daughter, Gwyn, 11, is a fifth grader. Their son, Darrow, is 18 months old.

Hippo Ivory Provided Material For Teeth

By RAMON COFFMAN

A hippopotamus usually stays in the water during the daytime, but in the evening it climbs up the bank of a river or lake. The night is spent in resting, or in looking for something to eat.

Quite often from 20 to 30 hippos gather in a herd, and make a night expedition.

The hippo's jaws have teeth both below and above, but the lower ones are larger. A single tooth (counting the long root) has been found to weigh more than five pounds! During a past period, ivory from hippo teeth was valued highly as material for making false teeth for human beings.

There are different ways to spell the plural of hippopotamus. We may write it "hippopotamuses" or "hippopotami." It seems much easier, however, to use the short form, and write "hippos."

Since the hippo cares nothing for flesh, other kinds of animals may go close to it under ordinary circumstances. If however, it chances to grow angry, it can prove a dangerous enemy. Some crocodiles have learned the terrible crushing power of the great jaws of a hippo.

A baby hippopotamus knows little, if anything about swimming or holding its breath. It can learn a good deal, however, while standing on the back of its mother and taking a ride.

The baby is able to walk within an hour after it is born. It grows to be an adult in about six years.

African natives like to eat hippopotamus steak. They hunt the animal in various ways. Sometimes they may use a method learned from whites. When a hippo bumps into a rope, he releases a harpoon from above, and the harpoon may deal a fatal blow.

Kiwanians Told Of Industrial Program

Big Spring Kiwanis Club was told the story Thursday noon of how industrial foundations, similar to the one proposed here, have brought factories and improved economy to other towns and were urged to support the local campaign to the utmost.

Bob Dyer, with the Howard County Junior College, was the speaker. Reviewing the general theme of the Big Spring effort, Dyer pointed out the possibilities that the program offers for enticing new industrial development for the town. He urged that such development means "money in the pockets" of every person in the area, regardless of his or her profession or trade.

He pointed out the sharp competition which exists between towns for industries and said that the records show that what factories have come to Texas in recent years have inevitably been located in communities where foundations such as the one suggested here have been put in operation.

Marvin Baker was program chairman for the day. Harve Clay, retiring president of the club, was presented with a plaque in appreciation of his services and with a special gift from the club. H. W. Smith made the presentation.

Horace Reagan, new president of the club, presided. He made public his list of committee assignments for the year. These are:

Kessinger Pleases Knife & Fork Club

Members of the Big Spring Knife and Fork Club had a most enjoyable experience Thursday night and Harold C. Kessinger, speaker for the evening, made a host of new friends for himself.

The humorist, who selected "The World's Funniest Adventure" as his subject and then branded the existence of man on earth as that adventure, charmed his audience with his wit and at the same time larded his discussion with many thought-provoking comments.

Kessinger, who had appeared here in 1953 as guest of the club, was back on this year's program because many of those who heard him at that time requested that he be returned.

One hundred and fifty members of the club were on hand. Many came filled with apprehension that this guest speaker might be disappointing as was the last lecturer presented. Their fears were unfounded. Kessinger launched into his dissertation without loss of time and from his opening sentence had the audience in the palm of his hand.

Kessinger termed himself no pessimist despite the rather gloomy picture he painted of the present prospects in the world and the shadowy possibilities that the future holds.

"No," he said, "I am not a pessimist; I am a discontented optimist." Inflation, he warned, is the gravest enemy that confronts this nation today. He asserted that history has always recorded inevitable disaster befalls all nations where money has been permitted to become worthless. Today's dollar is worth only 49 cents; if this trend is not halted, catastrophe is ahead of this nation.

Kessinger has a flair for euphony and his talk abounded in many passages in which this trick was much in evidence. Unlike most humorists, he did not load his lecture with jokes as illustrations of points he sought to make. Rather he cited history and statistics to support his contentions, bombarding his audience with impressive barrages of incidents and facts in a way that justified an advance description of the speech—that he held his listeners "spellbound."

From the round of applause which was accorded Kessinger, it seems highly probable that the Knife and Fork club here may argue that this charming speaker be brought back for a third appearance.

Last night marked the end of the term of office for John Taylor, club president. At the conclusion of the meeting he surrendered the gavel to Elmer Tarbox, president-elect.

Announcement was made that a considerable number of members have neglected to send in their membership fees for the year. Mrs. Moore Sawtelle, secretary, urged all members to do so immediately in order that the rolls for the year might be completed.

Next speaker on the series will be heard on the night of Feb. 13, Shirley Duncan is booked for that date. The subject is to be "Adventures Down Under." As might be determined from the title, the lecture will deal with Australia.

Leaders in the club, delighted with the Kessinger appearance, anticipated that an even larger turnout would be on hand for that session. —SAM BLACKBURN

12 Days Remain To Pay Poll Tax

There are just 12 more days left in which citizens can pay their 1957 poll tax and qualify themselves to vote in any elections which may come up in 1957.

Little interest is being shown in the matter of poll tax payments, Mrs. Viola Robinson, tax assessor said. Only 2,321 receipts had been issued by her office to noon Friday. A total of 799 certificates of exemption to older voters had been issued. This brings the combined total to 3,120 compared with 4,994 at this same date last year and 3,069 on Jan. 18, 1955.

Deadline for payment of poll tax is Jan. 31.

O'Brien Renamed To Baptist Panel

DALLAS — Dr. P. D. O'Brien, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Big Spring, has been re-appointed a member of a convention's study committee for the Baptist General Convention of Texas.

The seven-member committee was appointed by Dr. Arthur B. Rutledge, chairman of the executive committee for the BGCT, and will study the programs and correlation of several of the denomination's meetings held each year.

The work of the study committee is directly related to Sunday School, Training Union and other church activities of more than one million Texas Baptists, who participate in programs approved at the annual sessions each year.

Other West Texans on the board are George T. McBeth, Rotan, and James Weathers, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Brownfield.

Arab Youth Holds Key To The Future

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
 Associated Press Foreign News Analyst

The young, Western-educated Arab slammed his fist on the table in anger.

"How long," he demanded, "must I go on being ashamed for my own people? How long must I go on despising the rulers of my own country?"

My young friend — call him Sa'ad — frankly described himself as a member of the growing group of young people calling themselves the "Mutathemurin" — the disgusted ones of Iraq.

"We are like many other young people in Arab countries," he said. "We are becoming desperate. We will take any change — so long as it's a change."

"You Americans speak of a vacuum here. There is your real vacuum. It is not military. The young people of the Arab world will make its future for better or worse. You must help give them something to look forward to."

Sa'ad, like many another in the area, wants to be a friend of the West. He likes and copies Western ways. He suspects Russians and Communists.

Will he welcome the Eisenhower doctrine? Only in the sense that the United States is taking more direct interest in the Middle East. The Eisenhower statement promised nothing that would directly solve Sa'ad's problems or the problems of Israel either, for that matter.

If it means there will eventually be a clearcut American policy in the Middle East, Sa'ad will welcome the statement. He feels the absence of a common Western policy in the Middle East permitted Communist infiltration. The Communists made such strides that the Arab nations, recognizing the danger outlawed the party and jailed Red leaders.

But Sa'ad seems to think the Eisenhower statement misses the point. He wants desperately to detail just what it considers its interests and responsibilities.

For Sa'ad and many like him, the President laid too much stress on military action and showed too little inclination to face up to the facts of life.

Both Arabs and Israelis have indicated that above all else they need a period of quiet — freedom from the interminable tension. Only if this can be achieved, they say, can there be any attempt to attack the real roots of the danger.

The danger is this: Not a single Arab state in the Middle East can offer its people a firm promise of security. Not an Arab state in the area — possibly excepting Lebanon — can lay claim to any stability.

In addition, the Arab sense of injustice at the creation of Israel, and the sense of frustration at the superiority of Israel's military, economic and social life, add yeast to the growing ferment.

An ocean of bitterness and frustration provides plenty of troubled water for Communist fishing. A Russian offensive, argues the literate Arab — and many seasoned Western observers agree with him — can ignore military pacts. It can concentrate on the political, cultural and economic aspects in a patient campaign.

Arab leaders aware of this are frightened by the thought. In Egypt, for example, the Communists remain in jail, despite accusations of pro-Communism against President Nasser.

Most Arab leaders agree there is a Russian danger. It can be checked, they insist, not by Western domination but only by cooperation.

"Make us sufficiently strong to defend our own internal fronts and we will call on you if necessary to defend our frontiers," they are telling the United States.

"If we could wait for the dust to settle," one Arab leader told me recently, "if we could turn our backs on the problem of Palestine for a while, perhaps in five years or so we no longer would be in fear of Israel. Perhaps we could even live together with Israel."

Many thoughtful Arab leaders are seeking a way out of the area's pressing troubles. Frequently the suggestion is heard that a new league of Arab states, under United Nations auspices and with a fund sponsored by the United States, make an exhaustive study of the resources and how they could be used to develop the area.

If such a program should get underway with American technical help, it might go a long way toward providing an effective weapon against the sort of Communist penetration which cannot be fought off with guns.

Meade Alcorn May Get Top GOP Post

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP) — Sandy-haired, energetic Meade Alcorn, Republican national committee man and possible successor to the retiring national chairman, is a fellow who has spent his 49 years getting things done energetically.

He started lavishing energy about him back in Dartmouth in 1927 when he broke the existing world's record for 60-yard low hurdles and he has kept on the go practically ever since.

As recently as the Republican national convention in San Francisco, chairman Leonard W. Hall was so elated at the arrangements Alcorn had made that he made no effort to restrain his praise.

The convention, incidentally, brought fresh honor to Alcorn because it was in San Francisco that he was named vice chairman of the national committee. And Hall undertook the unusual action of stepping down from the chair to second the nomination.

It was there also that Sen. William Purtell (R-Conn.), apparently aware that Hall planned retirement Feb. 1 from the chairmanship, told reporters he felt Alcorn would make "a most able successor."

The one-time Hartford County state's attorney — a post in which he succeeded his famous father — also served in the Connecticut General Assembly back in 1937 and became its speaker in 1941.

With Republican chieftains gathering in Washington for the inauguration of the President next Monday, Alcorn's name was projected into public attention yesterday when telegrams calling on Republican leaders to back him and keep the country "safe from the Nixons and Knowlands" came to light. The telegrams were quickly termed fraudulent.

NEW YORK (AP) — For 49 years of his long life conductor Arturo Toscanini was associated with music in this country.

He came here first in 1908 to conduct seven seasons at the Metropolitan Opera. After touring the United States with the La Scala orchestra of Milan in 1921, he returned here in 1925 for a decade as conductor of the New York Philharmonic.

In 1936, when he was thinking of retiring, he was persuaded by the National Broadcasting Co. to come here to lead an orchestra to be created solely for him — the NBC Symphony.

For 17 years, including 16 or more weekly concerts every year, he conducted this symphony, building it up and never relaxing his severe discipline as he developed it into one of the world's top musical organizations.

He seemed to be indestructible. He reached 75, 80, 85, and let birthdays go by with his rehearsal and performance schedules unchanged.

A few years before retirement a knee injury obliged him to cancel half a season's conducting. He cut down the length of other seasons. He gave his final concert, an all-Wagner program, in Carnegie Hall April 4, 1954, and walked off the stage the picture of a beaten man.

The Fascists couldn't get the best of him, and he defied Hitler.

But now he had encountered the one indomitable enemy: age.

He had a phenomenal memory, and he had had eyesight. All his life he had committed scores to memory, and he conducted without a note in front of him.

But at the last couple of concerts — after a winter of some remarkable performances — not only his eyesight but his memory too failed. At rehearsals, it was said, he was forgetting parts of even the scheduled Wagner numbers.

But before this failure there had been so many extraordinary triumphs. To millions of people, Toscanini had come to mean music.

Born in Parma, Italy, of a poor tailoring family, he studied both piano and cello in the conservatory of his native city. He tried composing too, but he kept the results of that effort carefully hidden.

By 1931 he was so distinguished a figure he could challenge the Fascists. When he refused to play their anthem, a gang of bullies attacked him in Bologna. He quit both the Bayreuth and Salzburg festivals in defiance of Hitler — and to show where his heart lay, helped start a symphony orchestra in Palestine in 1936.

Besides his big home in Riverdale, the Bronx, where he died in his sleep day before yesterday after a stroke. He had a house in Milan, and liked to spend his summers on Lake Maggiore, north of that city.

His wife died a few years ago. Three children, Countess Wally Castelbarco, Mrs. Vladimir Horowitz, and Walter, and three grandchildren survive him.

Big Surprise For Sheriff

MOUNT CLEMENS, Mich. (AP) — It looked like a perfect bank robbery setup and the police got their men just two blocks from the scene of the crime.

Detective Conrad Koltys of the Macomb County sheriff's office told it this way:

He was half a block from the First National Bank yesterday when he heard the bank's burglar alarm go off. He spotted two young men running from the bank. They hopped in a car which had been cruising slowly down the street.

Koltys drew his pistol and stopped the car.

He found three scared young men and $210 in cash.

Three police squad cars screamed up. The young men were taken to police headquarters. They arrived about the time the bank called to report the alarm had gone off by accident.

The young men said one of them had withdrawn $210 from his account. Apologies were accepted.

Aviation Cadet Of 30 Years Ago To Address New Pilots

An Air Force pilot of 30 years ago, who today was learning firsthand just how much aviation has progressed, will be the speaker for the graduation of 80 jet pilots at Webb AFB.

H. A. Hensley of Centralia, Wash., father of one of the graduates, will be the speaker. He was an aviation cadet in 1925 and logged more than 200 hours of flight time at Kelly and Brooks Fields near San Antonio in 1925-26.

His son, 2nd Lt. Ronald W. Hensley, is a member of Webb's class No. 57-G which graduates in ceremonies at 7:30 p.m. in the base chapel.

Hensley, operator of a men's store in Centralia, was to arrive here from San Antonio by T-33 today. While at the Air Force installations at San Antonio he was to receive a helicopter tour of the area and get other opportunities to examine the 1957 Air Force.

He and Frank H. Robinson, now an Air Force major general, were friends when both were starting their training years ago. Gen. Robinson visited Webb recently, and on learning that Hensley's son was to be a graduate, suggested that the Washington man be invited to address the class.

The commencement exercises, at which the honor student will be disclosed, will be followed by a reception in the Webb officers club. This will be the first class to graduate this year.

Graduates are:

First Lieutenant Frank W. Adams, and Second Lieutenants Rex M. Barnes, Ronald C. Byer, Claudi M. Costeppens Jr., Wyatt T. Dixon Jr., Richard N. Ellis, Richard G. Hause, John R. Herd, Earl T. Redistricting Of Precincts To Be Proposed

AUSTIN—A bill to permit counties to redistrict for commissioner precincts probably will be introduced before the end of the week by two West Texas legislators.

They are Reps. Louis Anderson of Midland and Rep. Truett Latimer of Abilene.

Both supported a similar bill in the last session of the Legislature. But it was defeated by a group led by Rep. W. A. Stroman, San Angelo, who says he hasn't changed his mind.

The bill provides that voters may petition the commissioners court to call an election to redraw county commissioner precinct lines. At present only the commissioners court itself can adjust commissioner precinct boundaries.

The proposal is designed to equalize voting strength in many Texas counties where population growth in cities has made representation on commissioners courts lopsided.

Several West Texas cities elect only one commissioner, although they contain as much as 90 per cent of the county's population. The other three commissioners are elected by rural voters. This is the situation in Abilene, San Angelo and Midland.

Sponsors of the bill say it will offer counties two approaches to redistricting.

1. In counties where more than 50 per cent of the total population lives in less than 25 per cent of the total area of the county, citizens can vote on whether to cut the number of precincts from four to three. The city precinct would elect two commissioners, and the two rural precincts would elect one each. This would still provide a court of four commissioners.

2. Voters could elect to reorganize so that two commissioners will not represent more than 80 per cent of the population and the other two will not represent less than 20 per cent.

The effect of either proposal would be that cities and rural areas would enjoy more-nearly equal representation, two commissioners from the city and two from the county.

Rural voting strength still dominates the state Legislature, although since 1950 Texas has become predominantly an urban state, because present legislative districts were laid out in 1951 on the basis of the 1950 census. They will not be changed until after the next census.

The County Judges and Commissioners Association of Texas passed a resolution at its state convention last November opposing any redistricting proposal such as the Anderson-Latimer proposal.

TESCO Considers New Mitchell Lake

COLORADO CITY — Colorado Citizens were discussing the possibility of a new water supply Thursday, following a Fort Worth conference between city officials and officials of the Texas Electric Service Company in which plans were discussed for a dam on Champion Creek, southeast of Colorado City.

Attending from Colorado City were City Manager Rollin K. Sneathen, City Attorney John Worrell, Mayor Trevor Crawford and councilmen Jeff Taylor, Sie Hamm, Lawrence Ruddick and O. L. Simpson. Other Colorado Citizens attending were Bill Quimby, manager of the Colorado City Chamber of Commerce, Walter Grubbs, Joe Bell, A. L. McSpadden, Harry Ratliff, and H. I. Berman. The group met with J. B. Thomas, president of the electric company, and others of his staff.

The Colorado City group learned that there was a possibility of the construction of the new dam for additional water storage for Texas Electric, if land could be secured at a reasonable price. The new lake would provide water for proposed expanded activities at the company's present plant on Morgan Creek, with the water to be transferred from the new to the old lake by pipeline.

The council will meet at five on Friday afternoon to discuss the proposal.

Mitchell Votes Land Purchase

COLORADO CITY—The Mitchell County Commissioner's Court this week voted $8,469.75 for right-of-way and damage to Worth Porter, Clay Smith, Clay Smith Jr., and Mrs. Cecil Smith in connection with a 15-acre tract of land lying adjacent to Highway 80 at its crossing with Morgan Creek, five miles west of Colorado City.

The right-of-way will be used in the big freeway program on Highway 80. The court also voted to pay Dale Kinman $175 for moving a building belonging to Worth Porter from the right-of-way.

Commissioners set all salaries for Mitchell County officers at the same rate as last year; voted to reappoint Dr. J. Melvin Crymes as Mitchell County health officer and raised the county's contribution to the library operated by the Federated Clubs of Mitchell County from $115 to $132.50.

D-O Students Earn $13,124 While Learning On Job

Thirty students in the Diversified Occupations course at Big Spring High School have done well financially along with learning during the first semester.

Final reports, said Edward Shive, coordinator, show earnings of the group aggregated $13,124.16 from September until mid-January. This figure was substantially higher than ordinary because of one abnormally high per hour rate of pay for a learner situation. However, the class usually earns between $11,000 and $12,000 per semester.

Pupils attend school for regular academic and job-related studies during mornings then spend the afternoons on the job.

A Bible Thought For Today

Am I a God at hand, said the LORD, and not a God afar off? Can any hide himself in secret places that I shall not see him? saith the LORD. Do not I fill heaven and earth? saith the LORD. (Jeremiah 23: 23-24)

Voice Of Congress Would Add Weight

Mr. Dulles' testimony before the joint session of the Senate Foreign Relations and Armed Services Committee sounded like a paradox. He said there was "a very great likelihood" of American boys having to fight in the Middle East if Congress rejects President Eisenhower's request for authority to use American troops there if necessary, and to use American dollars where they will do the most good.

The true, as some Democrats have pointed out, that Mr. Eisenhower already has authority to use troops in some sudden emergency; but the existence of that power does not have the same deterrent effect on Russia that an outright declaration by Congress would carry. If Russia hears it from Congress, its effect would be enormously greater.

Don't Try To Hurry Baby Toilet Training

By DOROTHY V. WHIPPLE, M.D. Every mother is anxious to have her baby toilet trained. It cuts down laundry and work. But quite aside from the benefits to be gained by this reduction in an unpleasant task a great many mothers take pride in having their babies trained earlier than their friends' children. It is because of the pressure for early toilet training that we run into so many difficulties over this particular bit of education. You cannot expect a baby to control his elimination until he is old enough to have voluntary control of the muscles involved. No one in his right mind would expect a 3-month-old baby to walk. We know those little legs fly around with quite random movements until some time around the end of the first year, then rather suddenly the baby discovers he can make them do what he wants them to do and he begins to walk the way all the other people about him walk.

WHY I BECAME A MINISTER

Rebelle Before Entering Ministry

By REV. JESSE YOUNG
Park Methodist Pastor

I am not a preacher by choice. I chose to enter various vocations as soon as I was old enough to start out for myself. I was weighing the possibilities of them as I was growing into young manhood.

What I wanted to do most was to make money, and be independent. I did not want it to be said of me, "he was given a start." I wanted to make it myself.

I was converted when I was about 14 years of age. Then I began, in my own way, seemingly, to see myself taking an active part in the work of the church. When the preacher would preach, I would ask myself how I would feel and look in his place, but always the answer would come back, you are too timid to ever think of doing that, so I would try to forget it.

When I was in my 15th year, I was in a group where they were discussing what they would like to be. I cannot explain, other than it was God speaking to me, why I said, "I am going to be a preacher." I wondered why I had made such a statement, and pondered the statement when I would be in the field or out by myself.

When I was 18 years of age my pastor gave an invitation to anyone who felt that they were called to preach to come forward and make the call public. I could not resist the urge of the Spirit. I went forward and let the church know how I felt about my life work. I was soon licensed to preach and started to college. But being a poor boy, and having to work most of my way, I soon gave it up as too much work and not enough time to study. I went back home and went to work on the farm. My pastor wanted to help me, I am sure, but I felt that he was trying to push me out before I was ready, but I gave over to his advice and tried to preach at one of his preaching places.

Yes, I felt that I had miserably failed. I blamed my pastor for my failure, and determined that I would not let him over-persuade me again. The more I thought about it the more rebellious I became. Finally I surrendered my license, got married, and decided to pursue my old course, at least for a while.

I would say to myself and to God, I want to wait a while, I can't preach but I will sing, teach, or serve anywhere else in the church. And I did serve, I tried to make a good churchman, but I failed to have peace of mind. I was miserable both day and night.

My wife and I worked side-by-side on the farm, and were making some progress. The future looked very promising. But I had made a promise to God and he had fulfilled his part of the bargain, and now it was up to me to fulfill my promise.

I told the Lord I was ready. I wanted to show the church that I was in earnest before I asked for license. At the end of one year I told my Presiding Elder, Dr. C. A. Bickley, that I was ready to be licensed to preach, if the church would grant me license, and if he would give me a charge. He said he did not have a thing to offer me, but he would take my name before the cabinet and see what he could do for me. I was licensed, went to conference.

The conference was not half over before I knew, that I was going to be read out for the "Peacock Circuit." The battle started within my soul. I asked, Can I give up all that we have accumulated to go to this charge, to people we have never seen, and about whom we know nothing? Will they accept us? Will they cooperate with us. Can I ever make a preacher, a pastor?

The appointments were read, and I was read out for the Peacock Circuit. All the way home that night I kept on asking myself if I was really going to keep my word with God. When I reached home my wife and I talked the matter over, and in a few days we were on the field trying to get acquainted with the people and find out when we could move. The second week we moved a small portion of our household belongings and went to work trying to preach and be a pastor.

Well, needless to say, I was happy, having the feeling that I was trying to do what the Lord wanted me to do. We have now completed 24 years in this work. I can testify that the Lord knows best. I have peace of mind. Enjoy the work. And would not even think about doing anything else. My deepest regret is that I rebelled against the Lord so long.

Gospel Righteousness

JESUS TEACHES US HOW TO LIVE CHRISTIAN LIVES

Scripture—Matthew 5-7.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL
CHRIST'S teaching ministry is the subject of today's lesson, and the Scripture assigned for it is so extensive that it will be difficult to cover it adequately in one lesson. St. Matthew has placed Christ's ethical teachings near the beginning of his record of Jesus' public ministry.

It is a beautiful lesson, giving us the rules of the ideal life to be lived on earth to entitle us to be numbered among the children of God and Christ. We poor mortals will find it hard to follow Jesus' teaching in a world like ours. Only Jesus Himself could live the perfect life, but we can keep His teachings in our hearts and do our best to follow in His footsteps.

"And seeing the multitudes, He went up into a mountain; and when He was set, His disciples came unto Him; and He opened His mouth and taught them."

We studied the Beatitudes some time ago, so we will concentrate on the latter part of the lesson today, not forgetting them, and the lessons they teach, however.

From kindergarten on all children have teachers to instruct them, and from my experience there are many teachers from the very first days of school to college instructors, who have not only taught the three Rs and kindred subjects, but have had a profound influence for good which has lasted all through their students' lives. However, there never was a teacher who taught as Christ taught.

The word "blessed" is used in every one of the nine Laws or Beatitudes. A condition is stated, and then a promise of blessedness given for those who live according to His teaching.

"Ye are the salt of the earth," Christ told His listeners, but, like salt which is useless if it has lost its taste, we must strive always to keep our lives on His high level, to be truly blessed.

"Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven." This does not mean that we should boast of our good works, but that we shall so live that our good deeds are recognized by others who may thank God for them.

"Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets; I am not come to destroy, but to fulfill. Whosoever therefore shall break one of the least commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven; but whosoever shall do and teach them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven. For I say unto you, that except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in no case enter the kingdom of heaven."—Matthew 23:23-28.

"Judge not, that ye be not judged." That is a hard lesson for all of us to learn. How quick are children to blame someone else when they are found in a fault. Older people do the same thing. Remember this word of Christ's when you are tempted to judge someone.

A good man, woman or child is soon known by their attitudes and actions toward others. "Ye shall know them by their fruits," Christ said. "Therefore whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man which built his house upon a rock; and the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house, and it fell not; for it was founded upon a rock."

The person who heard but did not heed the Lord's words He likened to a man who built his house upon the sand so that when the storms came his house collapsed.

"And it came to pass, when Jesus had ended these sayings, the people were astonished at His doctrine: for He taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes."

"I think Jesus' teaching in this lesson should leave a profound impression on all who are privileged to study it, from the youngest to the oldest. Let us never forget Christ's words, and try to live up to the ideals set forth in the lesson."

THE ANSWER IS GOD!

WORSHIP HIM IN CHURCH EVERY SUNDAY . . . AT HOME EVERY DAY . . .

COUNTERPANE CATHEDRAL

There was a man who had stopped going to church because, he said, "Church doesn't make me feel any nearer to God."

One night he stepped into the children's room to kiss them good night. And suddenly he felt as though he were in church. There was a pillowed altar and a devout congregation in prayer. Yet he didn't feel any nearer to God.

And in that moment he learned the truth that every soul must learn; religion is not some outer force that brings God close to a man. Religion is man's inner yearning which reaches up and discovers how near God is.

And so, from the example of his children, he learned how to find the faith which had eluded him. And, finding it, he returned to church to share with other Christians the rich experience of worship . . . to receive the spiritual gifts of Word and Sacrament . . . to serve Christ in the vital, challenging work of the Church.

He knows that in church—or in a moonlit nursery—God is near those who want Him near!

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For the sake of his children's souls. (2) For the sake of his community and nation. (3) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. (4) For the sake of himself and read your Bible, daily.

USC Trojans Enter 1957 ABC Relays

Trackdon's biggest name school, the University of Southern California, will compete in the 1957 American Business Club Relays March 15-16.

Jess Mortenson, coach of the Trojans, has agreed to bring his team here to run against Oklahoma A&M, the University of Houston and a team not yet named. Southern Methodist University could fill the fourth spot.

The university division of the cinder extravaganza is being created for the first time here and will be held along with a junior college and high school division.

Mortenson has indicated he would bring upwards to 18 men to Big Spring for the meet.

The ABC club has set up a budget of $5,000 to stage the Relays. The USC team will be flown here from Pasadena.

The junior college and high school divisions will be open to any team and a record turnout is expected in both classes. Already two New Mexico high school coaches — Al Clovis and Lovington — have indicated they would like to bring their teams here.

George McAllister, former HCJC track mentor and now dean of men at that school, is the man responsible for getting Southern Cal into the meet. Last week, McAllister was sent to the West Coast to confer with Mortenson and other coaches about training methods. At that time, Mortenson volunteered to bring his team here if ABC officials could bring in other major schools.

Both Ralph Higgins, coach at Oklahoma A&M, and Johnny Morris of the University of Houston have indicated they would bring full teams here.

The local meet will be held in competition with the Southwestern Recreational Meet at Port Worth but McAllister said he was confident the ABC show would attract more than its share of teams.

The HCJC racing oval, where the Relays will be staged, is considered to be one of the finest in the Southwest. It is already being put in condition for the spring schedule.

Upwards to $1,000 will be spent on trophies for winners in the meet.

Among junior colleges which have already indicated they will send teams here are Blinn, Arlington, State, Cisco, Odessa, Schreiner, Amarillo, Ranger and HCJC.

High schools which have asked to be accepted include O'Brien, Snyder, Pampa, Clovis, N. M., Lovington, N. M., Midland, both schools in Lubbock and Big Spring.

The meet will be sanctioned by the AAU for the first time.

One of the features of the high school and perhaps the junior college division will be an eight-man mile relay race, in which each entry runs 220 yards. It has never before been run in this section but has proved to be very popular with the crowds on the West Coast.

A relay queen is to be named and crowned for the first time, too. The method for selecting the queen will be discussed at a future ABC club luncheon.

Arnel B. Smith, Cal-Tex Refinery employe, displays this fine set, taken from Lake Colorado City this week. The six big bass were taken on a shimmy wiggler with bucktail, Smith says, in the space of about three hours. The fish weigh from 3 to 6 pounds and total 24 pounds.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

Al Milch told the local school trustees at their meeting earlier this week that, if he got the job as head football coach here he'd try to bring in John Ford and Ronnie Sizemore as assistant coaches.

Ford was a passing demon for H-SU several years ago. The past two or three seasons, he's been an aide to Warren Woodson at the University of Arizona.

John, called Model-T in his college days, won a trophy for being named the most valuable player in a Shrine North-South game in Miami, Fla., at the conclusion of his collegiate play.

He's a brother to Kenneth Ford, the one-time Breckenridge ace who is now a star passer in the H-SU backfield.

Chuck York of Brady, interviewed the same night that Milch was here, seemed anything but anxious to leave Brady.

That's not hard to understand. He has 16 lettermen returning, loses only six boys off last year's squad, which went all the way to the state finals before losing to Stamford. Chuck said he felt Brady should have beaten Stamford. He said two fumbles and two bad punts ruined his team's chances.

The Brady boys didn't hold Stamford in awe. Neither did the coaches fear Gordon Wood and Company. And they were so eager to play them again, York booked a practice game with the champs for next season.

Willie Pastrano, the New Orleans boxing cutie, is a heavyweight but he says, he's put on only eight pounds since he was 12 years of age. His 180 pounds was carried on a five-foot-one frame in those days, however. Now, he stands six feet and tips in at 168.

One more word about Milch, he thinks Midland and not San Angelo or Abilene will be the football team to watch in District 2-AAAA next fall.

The Bulldogs lost 21 players via graduation but return a good nucleus.

The weather during the Crosby Open golf tournament at Pebble Beach, Calif., in which Texan Billy Maxwell led during the first round, is something Californians don't like to brag about.

When Maxwell ankled off the 18th green at the end of 36 holes of play, he told a reporter:

"I'm freezing to death."

Bill was 'hurt' on the par three 17th of the Cypress Point course Sunday, when he wound up with a five.

Last weekend, the Frank Phillips JC basketball team of Borger gave the Texas Tech freshmen all they could handle before losing an 87-73 verdict.

Phillips, which played the Picadors as good a game as did San Angelo College, must now be regarded as the West Zone favorite.

The Picadors had four boys to hit in the double figure in the game. Carroll Williamson of Borger led Phillips in scoring with 19 points.

The Borger team enjoyed a four-point lead at one stage in the opening period.

Tom Morehead, a former Big Spring and now of Lubbock, officiated the game, by the way.

Zeke Bonura, one-time manager of the Midland Indians, will condition his Bradford Pony baseball league club at Ponchatoula, La., this spring.

Tickets For 3-3A Banquet Go Fast In Colorado City

COLORADO CITY (SC) — Tickets to the District 3-AAA All-District Football Banquet are now on sale in San Angelo. Sweetwater, Snyder and Lamesa.

The allotted 80 tickets — priced at $3 each — went on sale Monday in the four towns.

Banquet chairman Bill Quimby announced this week that Colorado City's 80 tickets have been sold and names are being taken for persons desiring tickets.

Ducats not sold in the four other towns will be returned to Colorado City a week prior to the banquet for sale to the general public.

The banquet, featuring University of Oklahoma's head coach Bud Wilkinson as speaker, is scheduled February 13 in Colorado City's Primary School Cafeteria.

Colorado City Quarterback Club is sponsoring the affair, in cooperation with the district coaches.

The 22 players selected on the first and second all district squads will be honored.

Jayhawks Try Ciscoans Here Saturday Night

HCJC's Jayhawks return to court action here Saturday night, meeting the dangerous but unlucky Cisco JC Wranglers.

B teamers will see action at 6 o'clock. The featured attraction gets under way at 8 p.m.

HCJC will be seeking its second straight win over Cisco and its 13th success in 18 starts. In their last assignment, the Hawks outshot the powerful San Angelo Rams from the field but lost at the free throw line, 75-68.

The Hawks beat Cisco in Cisco, 62-54, back in December but the Wranglers fought the locals all the way down to the wire.

The Ciscoans mount a real threat in George Callaman, a tall soph who can hit from far out. Cisco brings a lackluster record to town but Coach Harold Davis has warned his athletes not to be complacent about the Wranglers. He insists the Ciscoans can come onto their game at any time.

Cisco lost a game Tuesday night to Decatur Baptist College, 79-62. Callaman hit 19 points in the game. Decatur recently lost to San Angelo in the finals of the Howard College tournament here.

Davis will go with his regular lineup, which means Charles Clark and Stan Williams will be at forwards, Bobby Wardell at pivot and Al Kloven and Mike Powell in the back courts.

Johnny Watson, Larry Glore and Jerry Hodges—all of whom are considered part-time regulars—will see lots of action, however.

Davis is pleased with the improvement in play of Wardell and Williams, who got off to slow starts but who have looked good in recent games.

Cisco has won four games while dropping six.

The Hawks hold wins over Webb AFB, Decatur Baptist, HSU's Butons, ACC B, Ranger JC, Schreiner, McMurry B, Lon Morris, Wharton, Temple and Odessa this year. They've lost twice to San Angelo and once to Odessa.

After tonight, the Hawks play only two non-conference games before opening against Frank Phillips of Borger here Feb. 2. They meet McMurry B in Abilene Jan. 26 and ACC B here Jan. 29.

Braves Need A Second Sacker Who Can Hit

MILWAUKEE (U)—The Milwaukee Braves are in the market for a second baseman who can hit .270 or better. If they find him, they might become favorites in the National League race.

Braves General Manager John Quinn discussed the 1957 campaign and Milwaukee trouble spots last night in a talk at the Press Club.

As for the race, Quinn said he saw it as a contest between the Braves, Brooklyn, Cincinnati and possibly St. Louis.

Second base and left field, where Danny O'Connell and Bobby Thomson labored last year, are the trouble spots. If able to rub out either one, or both of the weak positions, the Braves probably could take the field in April a jump ahead of the competition.

Quinn said, "If O'Connell could add 30 points to his batting average I think nothing more could be desired." The second baseman hit .239 in 1956.

"Don't be surprised if you see some new names on our club this year," Quinn said, and then added that he didn't mean they would have to be players with established reputations. They could come from the farm system.

Mentioned as possible future Milwaukee second sackers are Gene Baker of the Cubs and Red Schoendienst of the New York Giants.

Steers, Odessa Tangle Here Tonight In 2-4A Headliner

All eyes in District 2-AAAA will be on the local high school gymnasium tonight, where the Big Spring Steers host the Odessa Bronchos.

Game time is 8 o'clock. There'll be a B team contest, starting at 6:30 p.m.

The largest crowd of the home basketball season is due to sit in on the action. More than a few fans will accompany the Bronchos from Odessa.

Odessa, a team that runs and shoots, will be trying to stay in contention for the top spot in conference standings — a rung now occupied by Big Spring and Abilene.

Another loss would put a serious crimp in Odessa's hopes of repeating as the conference king. The Hosses suffered a 65-64 upset at the hands of downtrodden San Angelo last week.

Big Spring got off to a shaky start, rallying to beat an up-and-down Midland team, 50-43, last week. The Steers were idle last Tuesday.

The local athletes have been concerned with taking exams all week, something that could effect their play tonight. However, the boys are in fine shape and good spirits.

Though Big Spring will have the tallest boy on the court in the 6-foot-5½ Jan Loudermilk, Odessa will field a team that perhaps averages more in height than Big Spring.

In Bobby Knight, the Hosses have a good rebounder. Knight stands a little more than 6-3 and uses his arms and legs to excellent advantage.

Odessa's chief threat, however, is Paul Thorpe, the conference's leading scorer (in district games alone) with 46 points. Thorpe managed 23 points in each of his first two games.

Craig Cannon is another Odessa threat. He has tallied 27 points in two games.

Mike Musgrave and Jesse McElreath must rise to the heights in the backcourts if Big Spring is to win. The Steers must get a lot of mileage out of such boys as Donald Lovelady, Jimmy Evans and Don Anderson, too.

Loudermilk counted 20 points in the Longhorns' opener against Midland and has been averaging better than 22 points in each of the 17 games the locals have played.

Big Spring has won 14 of those 17 games, incidentally, and has yet to lose a game this season outside of tournament play. They have yet to drop a decision to another conference team, too, the only 2-AAAA team which can make that claim.

The B team has won 18 while losing three games and will be a slight favorite to topple the Odessa reserves.

Other conference action ends

Jones May Miss Game Tonight

Abilene to Midland. The Eagles rule as a slight favorite to win that one and knock Midland completely out of the race.

Commerce (SC) — East Texas State (10-5) and Stephen F. Austin (13-1) will meet here Friday night to decide second place standings in the Lone Star Conference.

Currently, both teams are deadlocked for second place with 3-1 records. In conference play, both teams have beaten the same teams, Sam Houston, Lamar Tech and Texas A&I, and have both lost to Southwest Texas in San Marcos, a usual thing since the Bobcats seldom lose on their home court.

Facing one of the toughest games of the season, Coach Bob Rogers of East Texas has one of the worst cases of the blues yet. Among other things, his only returning starter, Casey Jones, is on the sick list with a cold and has been ordered to be by doctors.

Jones is a former HCJC star.

Three Jayhawks Average 15 Pts.

Three players on the HCJC basketball team — Mike Powell, Al Kloven and Charles Clark — are averaging 15 points a game each.

Clark is the leading scorer, with 229 points, four more than Powell. Kloven, who has played in three fewer games than the other two, has 189 points to his credit.

Clark has also captured the most rebounds — 177 — and has the most free tosses — 114.

Powell has accounted for the most number of field goals — 94 — and has the fewest number of fouls among the regulars — 27.

Johnnie Watson has the best record on free shots, having made 42 of 56, or 75 per cent.

The Hawks have scored 1163 points in 15 games to 1038 for the opposition. Their average-percentage stands at 77.5 to 69 for the foe.

Yearling Quintets Sweep Three Games From C-City

Big Spring's three junior high school basketball teams swept a series from Colorado City tonight here Thursday evening but the Ninth Graders won just by the skin of their teeth.

Charley Caraway's Yearlings, who had beaten the Wolf Cubs decisively in Colorado City recently, had to rely on a field goal by Bob Evans in the last 30 seconds of play to win, 44-43.

Evans emerged as the Yearlings' leading scorer, with 11 points. Jim Richardson paced Colorado City with 20.

The Big Spring Eighth Graders won, 38-24; while the local Seventh Graders prevailed, 40-8.

The Seventh Graders game was highlighted by a field goal made for Big Spring by an unidentified Colorado City player.

Jimmy Madry led the Seventh Graders in scoring with eight points while Jerry Dunlap paced the Eighth Graders with ten.

The Ninth Graders now have a 7-3 won-lost record. The Eighth Graders are 4-5 while the Seventh Graders have copped seven of nine starts.

Bradley Is Running Ahead In Missouri Valley Race

By BEN OLAN
The Associated Press

Tabbed as the "dark horse" of its conference early in the season, Bradley is running ahead of the Missouri Valley basketball pack today.

Upsetting its opponents' stalling tactics, Bradley rallied to defeat Houston 81-64 last night to lift its pace-setting conference mark to 5-0. On the year, the 12th-ranked team is 12-2.

Midterm examinations have put the college schedule at a comparative standstill.

The Kansas Jayhawks, top-rated in this week's Associated Press poll, are idle until Feb. 2 when they will attempt to gain revenge for last Monday's 39-37 setback by Iowa State.

North Carolina (No. 2) will stand on its 15-0 record until Feb. 5 when it meets Maryland.

Bradley used a full court press to stop Houston's stalling game. Houston took a 2-0 lead at the start and then held the ball for about two minutes. The Braves went into the press and shot into a 45-28 halftime lead.

Houston lost two starters, Dean Evans and Russ Boone, on personal fouls early in the second half and Bradley upped its advantage to 74-52. Joe Billy McDade, with 17 points, and Gene Morse, with 14, paced the Braves' attack. Both are sophomores.

Elsewhere, Bob Gibson sparked Creighton from behind to hand Drake its sixth straight loss 74-60. St. Peter's (N.J.) whipped Adelphi 94-73 to stretch its winning streak to 17 games over a two-year span.

LOCAL TEAMS SWEEP COURT

Six basketball teams representing Big Spring, from the Seventh Grade level on up, are playing the game at a 760 clip.

They have won a total of 57 games while dropping only 18.

Only local team to play less than 500 ball in the Eighth Grade contingent, which has now won four of nine assignments.

The most successful contingent is the high school B team, winner in 18 of 21 starts. The A squad has won 14 and lost 3. In Junior high, the Ninth Graders are 7-3 while the Seventh Graders have won seven of nine.

Houston Hires Colgate Coach

HOUSTON (U)—Colgate's Harold Lahar, 38, accepted the University of Houston head coaching job today, succeeding Bill Meek, who resigned two weeks ago to become head football coach at SMU.

Lahar has been head coach at Colgate, an Eastern independent, since 1952. In five seasons he compiled a 26-15-4 record.

The past two seasons Colgate has posted 6-3 marks under him. Lahar graduated from Capitol Hill High School in Oklahoma City in 1937 and starred at Oklahoma U from 1938 through 1941.

"We think we have obtained one of the outstanding coaches in the nation," Harry Fonger, University of Houston athletic director, said. Terms were not disclosed.

Turnip Greens Grow By Tracks

COBB'S SWITCH, Tex. — Devotees of turnip greens are getting their fill these days from perhaps the world's longest turnip green patch—a 16-mile strip along the Texas and Pacific Railway right-of-way.

This year's crop of turnip greens, which sprout voluntarily each season along the railroad between Terrell and Wills Point, is one of the best yet. The plants are six to eight inches high.

Some Texans say boiled turnip greens taste better than spinach. The greens are a favorite cooked with hog meat and served with corn bread.

The 16-mile patch has drawn praise from turnip green enthusiasts.

"God bless the T&P and its turnip greens," Mrs. Lola Grierson recently wrote. She said she drove the 70-odd miles from her home at Fort Worth just to get a mess of the greens.

Star's Mate Loses Paternity Suit

LOS ANGELES — Peruvian composer-dancer Moises Vivanco has been adjudged the father of 2-year-old twin daughters born to Miss Maureen Shea, 24, former secretary to his wife, singer Yma Sumac.

Superior Judge Jesse J. Frampton said yesterday Miss Shea presented a "very strong case, and, conversely, the evidence of the defendant was weak and not convincing."

The court has not yet ruled on Miss Shea's demand for $500 monthly support for the girls. She testified that she and Vivanco engaged in intimacies while traveling about the world with Miss Sumac from February 1952 to March 1954.

King Saud Pays Visit To Nasser

CAIRO, Egypt — King Saud of Saudi Arabia arrived today to a 21-gun salute and a warm welcome from President Nasser.

Saud, Nasser and representatives of Jordan and Syria were expected to discuss their attitude toward President Eisenhower's new Middle East program.

Marriage Vows To Remedy An Error

ATCHISON, Kan. — Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Steele, married for 26 years, plan to make it strictly legal tomorrow.

"There will be no formal invitations, no presents and no cigars," Steele said when he obtained a marriage license in Atchison Wednesday.

The Steeles were married Aug. 26, 1930, at the Goddard, Kan., Methodist Church. Steele said they were the fifth couple married that day. Apparently the minister misplaced their marriage license in the shuffle. The completed certificate never was returned to Probate Court for incorporation in its legal records.

Steele, a composing room employe of the Kansas City Star, discovered the legal deficiency when he applied for a veteran's benefits and was required to produce legal proof of marriage.

The Steeles plan a honeymoon after Saturday's ceremony at Okaloosa Methodist Church.

They'll visit one of their six daughters, Mrs. Sterling Park, at Brownsville, Tex.

More Snow For U. S.

By The Associated Press

More snow and continued cold for broad areas of the country today.

The season's longest cold wave—more than a week in some Midwest and Eastern areas—has brought record low temperatures and heavy falls of snow.

Nearly a foot of snow fell yesterday in the Buffalo, N.Y., area as a near blizzard whipped off Lake Erie. Snow fell during the night and early morning in most of the Great Lakes region and southward into the Ohio Valley and also in the Middle Mississippi Valley.

Heavy snow was expected off the east end of Lake Ontario, with lighter amounts for central New York and sections north of Albany. New England also was in the path of the snowstorm.

Colder air extended southward into the South Atlantic Coast states and only extreme southern Florida was out of the frigid belt.

Temperatures were below freezing along the middle Gulf Coast region with readings near freezing extending into extreme northern Florida.

Macmillan Avows Britain Still Great

LONDON — Prime Minister Harold Macmillan says Britain is still a great nation and is going to stay great.

In a nationwide TV and radio speech devoted largely to Britain's future, Macmillan declared: "Every now and again since the war I've heard people say, 'Isn't Britain only a second or third class power now? Isn't she on the way out?'"

"What nonsense! This is a great country and don't let's be ashamed to say so. It has a superb record of achievement of every kind . . . It has no reason to quiver before temporary difficulties."

Macmillan also declared Britain's partnership with the United States will be preserved and strengthened, but said, "We don't intend to be satellites."

"The life of the free world depends upon the partnership between us," he said. "Any partners are bound to have differences now and then. But true partnership is based upon respect. We don't intend to part from the Americans and we don't intend to be satellites. I'm sure they don't want us to be so. The stronger we are, the better partners we shall be, and I feel certain that as the months pass we shall draw continually closer together with mutual confidence and respect."

In his only reference to the Middle East attack which led to the downfall of Sir Anthony Eden as prime minister, he said: "I believe history will justify what we did."

"The difficulties we are up against are the price we are paying for action," he said. "But the price of inaction, the price we would have had to pay for letting things slide, that might have been very high indeed."

He said he regards industrial power as the key to Britain's prosperity.

"We lead the world in the production of atomic energy for peaceful and industrial uses," he said, "and we're going to stay in front."

Painted By Nature

The stand at the Capitol in Washington where President Eisenhower will take his inaugural oath, Jan. 21, has already been painted white, but is given an extra coat by snow which fell all day. A mobile TV unit is parked in the foreground, well in advance of the ceremony.

EL PASO

EL PASO — A B57 bomber crashed while landing at Biggs Air Force Base near here yesterday, killing its two crewmen and injuring a civilian worker.

John White said today that the 750 millions were hard, specific figures based on production losses.

"That doesn't," he said, "include rangeland deterioration — you can't put that in dollars and cents. And it doesn't include the losses from premature sale of market cattle. And it doesn't include the losses caused by sale of foundation herds at less than replacement costs."

Most Texas cities are booming with their new industries, oil and oil-related wealth. On the other hand, dryland farmers and the small-town businessmen who depend on their purchases, are having a rough going.

The President didn't see the locked store entrances or the business places empty of customers. He heard a great deal of the need for cheap and easy federal credit for farmers which have suffered seven years of drought, but he couldn't see exactly what it's needed for.

One great need is to prevent farm destruction by wind erosion — the weather phenomenon that results in great dust storms.

H.N. (Red) Smith, head of the Texas office of the U.S. Soil Conservation Service, said in November 670,000 acres underwent emergency plowing to protect them from wind erosion. Another 400,000 acres were treated in December. And 6,200,000 acres in 68 counties, he said, are in condition to blow when the winds really get fierce starting in February and continuing through May.

"The farmers are going to have to have to have help either in credit or in government cost sharing," Smith said. "This unquestionably is the worst we've ever had."

After all the dry years, he pointed out, there isn't much vegetation to help tie down the land. And the rainy season, if one should come to sprout protective vegetation, is in April and May after the winds already have gotten in some hard licks at the soil.

To buy tractor fuel for this emergency plowing, "they're having to go into debt," Smith said.

Said Agriculture Commissioner White: "Ninety per cent of Texas farmers and ranchers owe a great deal of money."

And, pointing to the lack of crops or poor crops in many sections in 1956, White said, "Ninety or nearly 90 per cent paid nothing on their mortgages."

Not all the state farm economy is in bad shape. Farm production and quality were superior, for instance, in the Lubbock area and in other South Plains and Panhandle sections where farmers can irrigate from wells.

This specialized production, mostly from cotton and grain sorghum irrigation, helped bring Texas farm income to within 9 per cent of the 10-year average.

But the "average" can be misleading because it includes seven straight years of drought and a couple of other dry years preceding the good rains of 1949.

Take one crop. The 10-year Texas wheat average is 50,722,000 bushels. Last year it was 26,388,000. But in 1949, a year of adequate rains and the kind of year Commission White talks about, production was 92,676,000.

From the viewpoint of human privation, of which the President could see little, Karnes County in south Texas is a serious example. It once was one of Texas' leading agricultural counties and state leader in flax raising. Cotton, corn and grain sorghum were the other principal crops. The farmers are the kind you'd describe as "substantial."

Most farmers haven't made a substantial crop in Karnes County in five to seven years, and credit is being exhausted.

County Judge W. S. Pickett said that as of today, 7,899 persons are on the relief rolls in a county with 17,500 population. Many are farmers who earlier won state or local recognition for their modern farming practices.

To anyone who says the farmer should be left to fight his battles alone, Judge Pickett said, "I wish they'd come down here. We're about to starve to death."

Earlier this year, there were 10,000 on relief, but many, said Judge Pickett, went to less hard-hit areas this fall to pick the cotton crop and haven't returned. He said 25 out of 150 businesses in town closed last year.

The judge's voice got a little husky when he said, "All of our young fellows have left. They're not coming back here. They never will."

"Eventually we'll have nothing but farmers that are growing older by the day."

Ike Couldn't See Human Problem In Drought Tour

DALLAS — President Eisenhower saw crippling damage on his 14-hour, ground-level inspection of Texas drought land; this week he couldn't see in full the human side of the drought, and that adds up to a national problem.

For instance, he couldn't see farmers borrowing money for tractor fuel to keep their land from blowing away, once-proud farmers accepting food relief packages for their families, or the procession of young men going broke and leaving their farms for city jobs.

Nor could he, by the limitations of time and distance, gain an insight into the privation brought in by the 750-million-dollar drought loss suffered last year by Texas farmers alone.

Hungary Faces Bad Shortage Of Food

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. — U.N. observers reported today that revolt-torn Hungary faces a severe food shortage and 12 per cent unemployment by midyear.

The four-man mission visited Budapest Jan. 4-7 to look into relief needs as a result of the rebellion against Soviet domination.

The group said that to stave off the food shortage Hungary needs 440,000 tons of various foods; 14,500 tons of seed; and 10,150 tons of chemical fertilizer.

The food items included 400,000 tons of wheat; 20,000 tons of sugar; 10,000 tons each of lard and tallow; and 3,000 tons of lemons.

The observers approved a suggestion from the International Committee of the Red Cross, which has been distributing U.N. relief goods in Hungary, that Hungary be given the needed foods and farm supplies but that they in turn be sold to the Hungarian people through normal economic channels and at "the basic average world prices."

The Red Cross and the observers recommended that the funds thus realized be paid to the Hungarian Red Cross for "assistance to the needy, hospitals, social institutions and related welfare programs as well as operational costs of the relief program."
