New Cargo Plane

This artist's conception of the Douglas C-132 giant cargo plane is the first official announcement of the U. S. Air Force's huge transport for quick supply of bases anywhere in the world. It is designed to carry a 200,000-pound payload more than 4,000 miles at speeds above 400 miles an hour. The plane is now under construction at Tulsa, Okla.

Bandit Robs Abilene Bank, Takes $3,000

ABILENE (AP)—A lone gunman slipped into an isolated room in the First State Bank just before closing time here yesterday, held up a teller and casually walked out with $3,140.20 in a paper sack tucked under his arm. The bandit missed a chance to grab another $39,000 when the quick-thinking teller stuffed only $5 and $10 bills in the sack. A suspect was stopped some three hours later at Winters, Tex., 40 miles south of here, but was released after questioning. A statewide description was broadcast of the man and a car believed to have been used in the robbery, but the gunman was still at large. Teller Bobby Nye, 28, said the gunman walked into the Commercial Teller's room while he was alone, shoved a paper sack with the words "give me your money" printed on it and displayed a small pistol. He described the man as white, in his early 30s, and about 5 feet 8 inches tall. Nye said he was wearing a blue jacket and levis. Nye said there was some $42,000 in his cage at the time, but he put only small bills in the sack. "The man didn't say a word," Nye said. "He didn't ask for the rest of the money." Cashier Lee Loper said neither he nor any of the other estimated 70 employees and customers in the bank were aware of the robbery until Nye rushed up to him and exclaimed: "We have been robbed."

Negroes Envision March On Capital

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Negro leaders say they envision thousands of praying people marching to Washington unless President Eisenhower speaks out to the South on segregation violence. The warning came to the President yesterday in telegrams sent by the Southern Negro Leaders Conference, headed by the Rev. Martin Luther King of Montgomery, Ala. "This will not be a political march. It will be rooted in deep spiritual faith," he told a news conference after his group ended a two-day closed meeting. King, leader of the Montgomery bus boycott, said he did not know exactly what form the pilgrimage would take. But he said he was sure thousands of whites would join thousands of Negroes in what the telegram called a "pilgrimage of prayer." "If you, our President, cannot come South to relieve our harassed people, we shall have to lead our people to you in the capital in order to call the nation's attention to the violence and organized terror directed toward men, women and children, the telegram said. King said the conference, comprising 97 men from 10 Southern states, would be satisfied if Eisenhower spoke in the North but pointed his remarks to the South. "But we would prefer him to speak in a troubled Southern city, one that has been the scene of violence," he said. The telegram also asked the President to call a White House conference on law and order. Noting that Eisenhower had turned down an earlier conference request to speak in the South, the telegram asked him to reconsider. Since the Jan. 11 request, the vice continued, "violence has continued to erupt by night and by day. It has grown to alarming proportions. . . . We are no longer faced with sporadic violence, but with what appears to be an organized campaign of violence and terror. . . ."

Building Record Gains $100,000

An even $100,000 in residential building was recorded at the city hall Thursday. A total of 12 building permits were issued by the city, and the $100,000 was the valuation of the 12 houses. Monticello Development Corporation was responsible for most of it. The firm secured 10 permits for houses on Morrison Drive, at $8,000 each. Two individuals, Floyd Dennis and A. M. Sullivan, then requested permits for residences valued at $10,000 each. A special city-wide promotion to build public interest in Big Spring's merchandise values was endorsed by the merchants committee of the Chamber of Commerce in a session Friday morning. The program will carry the tag of "Better-Buy Days" and will be set up as a twice-yearly event. Recommendations for the first fair are April 23-25-27 and September 19-20-21. Every retailer in the city will be urged by the Chamber of Commerce to participate, and a cooperative advertising program through The Herald is being outlined. Object of the "Better-Buy Days" is to express a city-wide appreciation for area patronage through a program of special merchandise values, and participants will stress quality in the offerings on those days. The merchants committee recommendations are to go before the C-C directorate for action next Monday.

Pampa Judge Clamps Down After Youths Defy Police

PAMPA, Tex. (AP)—County Judge Bruce Parker clamped a rigid curfew today on Pampa's youths, opened courts to the public when juvenile delinquency cases are heard and told police to place juveniles in jail without consulting him. He did so, he said, after juveniles defied officers, saying, "You can't do anything to us." Under the judge's orders, all persons 17 and under must be off the streets by midnight on weekdays and by 1 a.m. Sunday. Parker, a veteran county judge, said his action followed street fights, auto racing on streets and late hours by the juveniles. He said he opened juvenile hearings to the public because, as he explained, "parents become very irritated if it gets out or if stories are too specific and their children can be picked out. They will control them better." He cited an example which he said occurred three or four days ago in which "the cars ganged up at 3:30 in the morning and the boys had a fight, and the children told the police, 'You can't do anything with us, can't put us in jail and can't do anything.'"

Texas Official Talks At Congress Oil Probe

Yarborough, Hutcheson In Accord On Race

Republican Thad Hutcheson and Liberal Democrat Ralph Yarborough, usually at opposite ends in political thought, Friday found themselves in agreement on one point concerning the special U.S. Senate election April 2. Hutcheson and Yarborough cuddled verbally Thursday in Valentine's Day blasts against the Pool bill that would require a runoff. "April 1st is April Fool's Day and April 2 will be April Fool's Day," said Hutcheson, campaigning at Wichita Falls. The bill by State Rep. Joe Pool of Dallas has passed the House with an emergency tag and comes up for debate Monday in the Senate, needing 21 votes to become effective in time for the election. Hutcheson said the bill was aimed at Yarborough and himself. "It is evident that the men who have control of the state are not willing to let this control pass into the hands of the people," he said. Yarborough was at Abilene for a speech before a rally in support of a proposed salary increase for postal workers. In an interview, he called the Pool bill "vicious," and said it was aimed at preventing full expression of public will. He said the bill doesn't fix a definite date for a runoff election. "It should not be left up to the whim of one man to fix the runoff election date," he said. Under the Pool bill, fixing the date would be left to Gov. Price Daniel, whose vacated Senate seat is the one at stake. Yarborough said he thought the date should be fixed by the Legislature. Hutcheson also attacked what he called "irresponsible harassment" and "biased criticism" of the oil industry by U.S. Senate committees. "The time has come for responsible citizens to move aggressively to defend against unwarranted attack on one of the great industries of this country," Hutcheson said in a telegram addressed to U.S. Sen. O'Mahoney (D-Wyo). "I must protest charges made by you and others in Washington concerning the oil industry and particularly against the recent increase in the price of oil." Hutcheson said the hike appeared to be a "logical result" of economic factors. Yarborough announced the appointment of Warren B. Fuller of Martinsville as his state campaign manager. Fuller, former state commander of the Texas Disabled Veterans, served on Yarborough's campaign staff in his bid for governor in 1954. Three of the other seven candidates got in some holiday appearances. In Fort Worth, Charles W. (Jack) Hill, 53, said he thinks governments should pay merchants who collect federal and state taxes on retail purchases. Hill, a 300-pounder, also said he believes he is the answer to the plea he has heard that "Texas needs a man who can throw some weight around in Washington." Agriculture Commissioner John C. White made what he called a "non political" speech in Bremond. Another candidate, State Sen. Searcy Bracewell of Houston, said he is boosting his campaign Friday with 125 simultaneous coffee for women supporters in Harris County. He will speak on television during the socials. Carl White, Lamesa, exhibited the champion Duroc. Reserve honors were won by the Lloyd Davis of Welch entry. Best pen of three was owned by Billy Shofner. Some 200 bags were on exhibit, along with 90 lambs and 25 steers. Ollie Loner, Hale County agent, judged the swine. W. L. Stangol of Texas Tech will judge steers Saturday afternoon and Ray Mowery of Tech will judge lambs Saturday morning. Some 200 boys are participating in the annual show.

NEW FRENCH WORD SHOULD HOLD WATER

PARIS (AP)—Members of the august French Academy, guardians of the nation's culture, finished today a lengthy debate on busts — female busts and what supports them. They decided, with great solemnity, to admit formally into the French language the word "bustier," defined as "a corset or sheath to support the bust" — in other words, that garment which is known in English by the "French" term "brassiere." No Frenchman has ever heard the latter word used in that connection. In modern French "brassiere" means a child's undershirt.

Gromyko Steps Into Russia's Foreign Post

LONDON (AP)—Andrei Gromyko today replaced Dimitri Shepilov as Soviet foreign minister, the Soviet news agency announced today. Nikolai Semendovich Patolichev, Soviet representative to the United Nations, was named first deputy foreign minister. Gromyko, who steps up from deputy foreign minister, rose to prominence in the Soviet hierarchy under Stalin and former Foreign Secretary V. M. Molotov. The Tass announcement, broadcast by Moscow radio, said that Shepilov was "transferred to other work." His new job was not given. Patolichev, who takes Gromyko's place, has been a deputy foreign minister since last July. He is a member of the Communist party Central Committee.

Outlook Varies For End To East Coast Dock Strike

NEW YORK (AP)—The outlook for an end to the Northeast Coast waterfront strike continued to teeter between optimism and despair as new talks were set for today. Since the start of the strike last Tuesday there have been alternate flurries of hope and pessimism emanating from mediators, employers and the striking independent International Longshoremen's Assn. Yesterday was no exception. High hopes early in the day lapsed into an impasse. Later general mediator Robert H. Moore said the parties were within "kissing distance." The 170-member employer group, the New York Shipping Assn., foresaw a strike settlement during the day. I.L.A. President William V. Bradley commented: "We hope to fight it out tonight." But last night, after negotiations recessed, the union appeared to take a dim view of what the employers termed their "final offer." That was tempered, however, by I.L.A. counsel Louis Waldman, who insisted progress had been made at the meeting, he added. "There has been no definite turnaround. We are wrestling with problems of draftsmanship and the meeting of minds on three or four items that have not yet been realigned." A bit earlier, mediator Moore had termed the negotiations in "a critical phase which, if there is no agreement tonight, is very apt to result in a deadlock situation." Meanwhile a survey of the struck ports — from Portland, Maine, to Hampton Roads, Va. — showed the walkout by 45,000 longshoremen was costing shipping and allied industries about three million dollars a day.

Champion Swine Picked At Lamesa Livestock Show

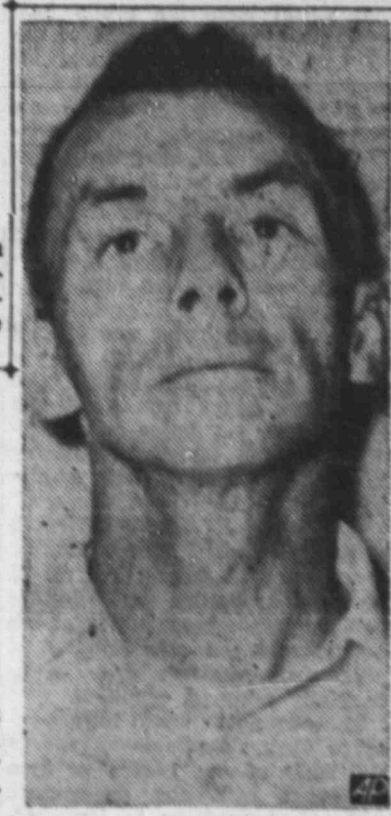

LAMESA — Best-of-breed winners were announced today to conclude judging in the Dawson-Borden Bays Livestock Show here. Donald Love, Lamesa, exhibited the champion Berkshire, with reserve honors going to Larry Griffin of Lamesa. Griffin also had the champion pen of three. Philip Stewart of Ackerly showed the Chester White champion. Carl White, Lamesa, exhibited the champion Duroc. Reserve honors were won by the Lloyd Davis of Welch entry. Best pen of three was owned by Billy Shofner. Some 200 bags were on exhibit, along with 90 lambs and 25 steers. Ollie Loner, Hale County agent, judged the swine. W. L. Joins Experiment Station's Staff

Norman Welch, scientist, has joined the staff of the U. S. Experiment Station north of town. Welch is not a replacement on the staff but an additional member, it was stated. He will pursue water and soil experiments at the station. He came to Big Spring from Checotah, Okla. He is a graduate of Oklahoma A&M College. Welch has rented a residence here but his family is to join him at a later date.

Failure To Hike Flow In Spotlight

WASHINGTON (AP)—Why haven't Texas oil officials authorized a big increase in oil production to help meet Europe's emergency needs since the blocking of the Suez Canal? That's the question the House Commerce Committee set out to answer today. Ernest E. Thompson, head of Texas' oil output regulating agency, was called to testify. Committee Chairman Harris (D-Ark.) said: "We've found out the Interior Department never did ask Texas to up its oil allowable." Yesterday, Felix E. Wormser, assistant interior secretary, told the committee Europe needed 250,000 more barrels of oil a day than it was getting, but the government didn't want to "put pressure" on state oil agencies. "I would welcome the closest cooperation with the regulatory commissions," he said. Joint Senate Antimonopoly Public Law 3 and a subcommittee is also investigating the program, along with recent oil and gasoline price increases. Secretary of the Interior Seaton told the Senate group fresh reports from Europe show that about 30 per cent of all normal demands there for fuel oil, gasoline and other petroleum products was supplied in December and January. He said that, barring unusually cold weather or other new difficulties, Europe could count on about this level of supply for the first three months of this year. In response to repeated statements by senators that his department should have tried to persuade the oil companies to hold the price line, Seaton insisted he had no authority to do so. He also declared himself opposed to any price-wage controls in peacetime. Defense Mobilizer Arthur S. Flemming said no responsible public official would try to deal with "anything as sensitive" as oil prices without a full hearing "of both sides of the issue." However, Flemming agreed to Jailed Calvin Laskey, 43, has been jailed in Elmdale, Kan., for illegally performing a marriage while posing as a minister of the Elmdale Christian Church. A check of FBI records disclosed that Laskey had been convicted 26 times on felony charges and spent nearly 20 years in jail.

Fire Losses In January Low

The city suffered less than $100 in fire loss damage during January. This is the lowest monthly report since September of 1955 when no losses of any sort were reported. The total as reported by the city's fire inspector, F. W. Bettle, was only $84.33. The only fire causing insured damage in the city during the month was in the R. G. Chanler residence, 1907 Main. The residence is owned by S. C. Hardy. All the damage was to the building; there was no loss to contents. A total of 21 fires was reported to the department during the month, but two of them turned out to be false alarms. Eight came from unknown causes, and four started with gas heaters. Two each started with defective wiring and from gasoline faults. One each was caused by children playing with matches, burning trash, and a pot of beans on a stove. Losses in January of 1956 were $3,250, and the total for last December was $428.87.

Slight Dent Made In Ike's Budget

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House Appropriations Committee made a slight dent today in President Eisenhower's budget which calls for new appropriations of $73,900,000. The committee recommended that the Treasury Department be given $28,394,000 less than the $13,531,000 requested, and the Post Office Department $8 million less than the $14 billion it wanted. The group said the tax credit should have the entire $1,400,000 it sought.

DAR In Pact With Colorado Governor

DENVER (AP)—The Daughters of the American Revolution today have the approval of Gov. Steve McNichols to continue their patriotic program in Colorado institutions. The governor had asked them to suspend the activity after a DAR official said last Saturday she didn't want a "Mexican" boy to carry the American flag. A cold front expected to start rain showers over parts of Texas Friday stretched from south of Amarillo northeastward to Ponca City, Okla.

Ike Accepts Resignation Of Aide Under Senate Questioning

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower has accepted swiftly the resignation of Robert Tripp Ross as assistant secretary of defense. Ross has been questioned by a Senate committee about military contracts awarded to firms headed by relatives. Ross told Eisenhower he had done nothing wrong or improper, but "I feel that my future effectiveness in the office" has been impaired. Within a few hours after being informed last night of Ross' letter of resignation, the President wrote him a three-paragraph letter accepting the resignation, effective Feb. 20. Ross, whose wife is president of Wynn Enterprises, Inc., and whose brother-in-law H. D. Wynn heads affiliated firms, has been on a self-requested leave of absence since Jan. 11. Ross himself has been an officer of several of the companies, but said he severed all those connections in 1952 when he was elected to Congress. His letter to Eisenhower said he had been guilty of no wrongdoing. In his appearance before the Senate Investigations subcommittee Wednesday, he said, "Nothing was brought to my attention to indicate that the committee had found any evidence of any wrongdoing, improprieties or conflict of interest on my part." Then he added: "Nevertheless, I feel that my future effectiveness in my position as the assistant secretary of defense responsible for legislative and public affairs has been impaired by the very serious implications contained in numerous press stories, and I feel it would be unfair to the Department of Defense for me to continue in my position. . . . Eisenhower replied that "I understand the reasons you set forth for resigning at this time in spite of your conviction that nothing you have done violates any legal or ethical standards that must be observed in government." The President said his approval

Insurance Probe Panel Suggested

AUSTIN (AP)—A House General Investigating Committee, with broad powers to dig deeply into the insurance industry of Texas, would be authorized if a proposed resolution is adopted.

Rep. R. K. Sutton of Dallas filed his carefully worded six page resolution in the House yesterday and said he expected it to be read Monday.

The resolution would have the committee specifically directed to "make a thorough investigation into all phases of the administration of the insurance laws of this state of Texas Board of Insurance Commissioners."

"It would have the group look particularly into the affairs of the ICT Insurance Co., its financial condition when organized "and its relations with and to the Texas Board of Insurance Commissioners and the individual members thereof and the action or lack of action taken by the board."

Sutton's resolution dominated the legislative picture as the lawmakers began another long week-end recess today with special sessions ahead on water and crucial election bills.

Sutton's resolution would also have the committee investigate the laws for regulation and supervision of the insurance industry "and the method of their administration by the commissioners."

Other special points could cover civil and criminal laws pertaining to issuance of stocks; control of business properties by directors and employees; organization of the board; and the responsibility of officers of insurance firms in financially unsound condition.

The committee would have power to summon witnesses, records and books of any person or firm connected with any department under investigation; to issue attachments; cite for contempt; and obtain assistance of state officials when requested. It also would have general authority to initiate any hearings into other matter of state government.

House Speaker Waggoner Carr would appoint seven members to the committee which would have to make its first report by April 22. It also would have to report to the 56th Legislature within 20 days after it convenes.

An Insurance Commission reorganization plan has been recommended by Gov. Price Daniel. He wants the commission to be set up to function as a unit rather than as three commissioners; and he would have a commissioner or "superintendent" direct operations of the department.

The ICT Insurance Co. of Dallas was ordered Feb. 7 to stop doing business by a district court judge who handed down a temporary restraining order. Separate from court action, the commission also began receivership action and declared the firm was "hopelessly insolvent."

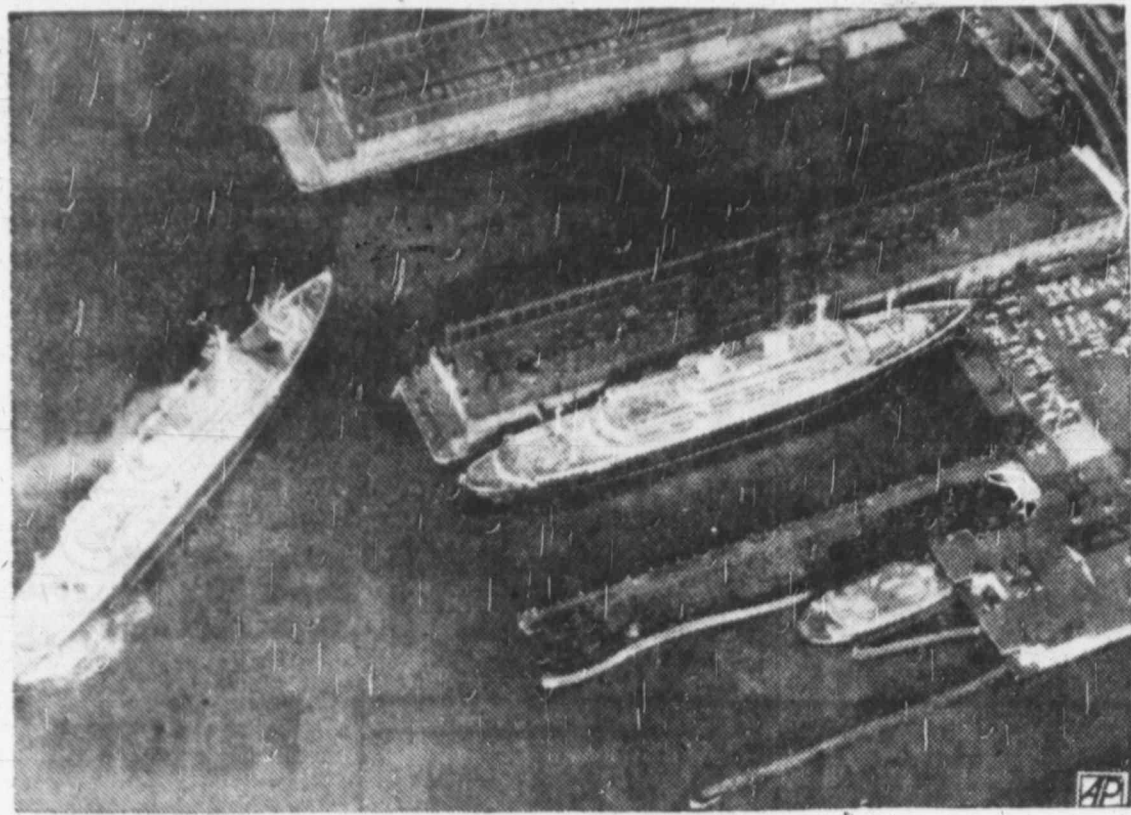

Earlier the House delayed until Monday action on a bill to double Texas students' tuition in 18 state supported colleges. In the Senate, resolutions were introduced to provide for recall elections of public officials and to boost state workers' retirement benefits.

3,779 Texans In Service In January

AUSTIN (AP)—A total of 3,779 Texans entered the armed services in January, state draft headquarters says.

Col. Morris Schwartz, director, said yesterday 3,717 Texans left the services last month. Of the number entering, only 900 were drafted.

Some 190,000 Texans are in the armed forces now.

Do-It-Yourself Docking

The liner Independence swings in toward Hudson River pier 84 to complete docking without the usual assistance of tugboats on arrival in New York from Europe. At pier, ready to pull out into the river, is the liner Constitution. A strike of dock workers further complicated waterfront operations already curtailed by a strike of tugboat and barge workers.

COMMITTEES NAMED Kiwanians Slate Pancake Supper

Big Spring Kiwanians pushed ahead with plans for the club's annual pancake supper on March 1 at the Thursday luncheon meeting of the club.

Announcement of committee assignments, distribution of tickets to be sold and general outline of plans for the annual event were highlights of the meeting.

The pancake supper, a traditional Kiwanis sponsored spring feature, will be at the high school cafeteria from 3 to 9 p.m. Friday, March 1. Adult tickets are 75 cents and tickets for children are 50 cents.

The slogan for the pancake supper is "all you can eat." In addition to pancakes, the menu will include bacon, butter, syrup and coffee. Any money above expenses goes into the Kiwanis Club fund for benefit of underprivileged children.

Harve Clay, immediate past president of the club, is general chairman of the pancake supper. Publicity is in the hands of Sam Blackburn, Ben Ferrell, and Clyde Nichols. Ticket sales chairman is Bert Anderson. His committee-men are Jack Alexander, Roy Black, Clyde Hollingsworth, and Ray Broussard. Bus boys for the evening are Jimmy Beale, Horace Reagan, Herbert Whitney, Bob Heine, Roscoe Cowper, W. B.

Hardy, Marvin Baker, Allen Robertson and Carl Strom.

Pancake cooks assigned are Jasper Atkins, head chef; Roy Black, Dalton Mitchell, Wendal Parks, Ladd Smith, Sherman Smith, Robert Stripling, Ed Fisher, Clyde Nichols, Harvey Clay, E. B. Pierson, Bert Anderson and Clyde Hollingsworth.

Bacon committee is C. A. Dahse, Earl Stovall, J. D. Elliott, Jack Ware, Ray Broussard and J. C. Pickle. Coffee committee is John Coffey, Roscoe Newell, Hubert Slipp, Clyde Wails, and S. Melinger. Butter committee: Temp Currie, John Stanley, Ernest Hilburn and Ben Ferrell. Pearl divers are: Dick Gray, Scott Hill, Dee John Davis, J. E. Smith, Bill Lyon and Ben Mooring.

Ushers are to be Floyd Parsons, H. W. Smith, J. F. Wheat, Nat Shick, and Dr. Norman Furlong. Procurement committee: Jack Rodden, H. W. Smith, Horace Reagan and Jack Alexander. Entertainment committee: J. N. Young, George Larson, Ernest Welch, Sam Blackburn and Jack Hendrix.

Dick Gray, scoutmaster for the Boy Scout troop sponsored by the club, presented five of his scouts in knot tying demonstrations as the program for the meeting Thursday. Gray told some highlights of the history of scouting. This was the club's observation of National Boy Scout Week.

No Valentines For Gas Thief

LOS ANGELES (AP)—It may have been St. Valentine's Day for most folks, but yesterday was a great big headache for Edgar J. Watt.

A jury ruled against him in the $225,000 damage suit he had filed. Then, at the conclusion of the trial he was arrested.

Watt's suit grew out of injuries he suffered when he was shot while fleeing after stealing gasoline from a truck. He charged that the owner used "unreasonable force" in protecting his property.

Watt was convicted of attempted theft and placed on probation. The warrant on which he was arrested yesterday charged him with failure to report regularly to his probation officer.

Weds Victim, Goes To Prison

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP)—Jasper Evans stood in Superior Court to receive a three to seven year sentence for shooting his girl friend nearly to death — and a few minutes later he married her.

The wedding took place yesterday in the probation officer's quarters adjoining the court before an assemblage of deputy sheriffs, court clerks and other courthouse employes.

State's Attorney Abraham S. Ullman said he couldn't object to the marriage if the bride, Miss Francine Hicks, was willing to forgive Evans "to the extent of marrying him."

Public Defender Thomas R. Robinson explained in court that Evans, 33, and his 20-year-old fiancée quarreled and separated

Fire Changes Lad's Ambition

GARDENA, Calif. (AP)—A little short on culinary experience, 4-year-old Scott Abell was surprised but not nonplussed when the egg he was preparing for his mother's breakfast exploded.

Scott walked calmly to the telephone and asked the operator to send a fireman. A Fire Department operator asked him where his parents were. "Asleep," he answered.

Since Scott didn't know his own address the fireman had the call traced, and shortly after 5 a.m. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Abell were awakened by the tramp of firemen's boots.

The egg fire had burned itself out by the time the fire ladders arrived.

Scott has decided against becoming a chef. He wants to be a fireman.

CONSTIPATED? New laxative discovery un-locks bowel blocks without gag, bloat or gripe

Constipation is caused by what doctors call a "thrift" colon that, instead of retaining moisture as it should, does the opposite; robs the colon of so much moisture that its contents become dehydrated, so dry that they block the bowel, so shrunken that they fail to excite or stimulate the urge to purge that propels and expels waste from your body.

To regain normal regularity, the dry, shrunken, constipating contents of your colon which now block your bowel must be re-moistened. Second, bulk must be brought to your colon to S-T-B-T-C-H STIMULATES it to action; to a normal urge to purge.

And, of all laxatives, only COLONOID, the amazing new laxative discovery possesses COLONOID's great moisten-ing capacity, plus COLONOID's stretch-stimulating bulk. So effective it relieves even chronic constipation overnight, COLONOID is yet so smooth, so gentle it has proved safe even for women in critical stages of pregnancy.

Superior to old style bulk, salt or drug laxatives, COLONOID neither gags, bloats nor gripes; won't interfere with absorption of vitamins and other valuable food nutrients; in clinical tests, did not cause rash or other reactions.

It's a physiological fact: Exercise tones your body! And COLONOID exercises your colon to tone it against constipation, overnight! Get COLONOID, in easy-to-take tablet form at any drug counter, today! Only 98c for the 60 tablet package, brings positive relief at less than 2c per tablet.

Dynamite Blast Wrecks Cafe, Injures Negro Woman, Baby

CLINTON, Tenn. (AP)—A dynamite-laden suitcase exploded in the heart of Clinton's Negro section last night, wrecking a restaurant and slightly injuring a Negro woman and baby.

The dynamite charge, which witnesses said was placed by a white man who raced away in a car, also heavily damaged other Negro-owned property.

The blast was the area's eighth, and by far the most destructive, since Clinton High School admitted 12 Negro students under a federal court order last fall.

In the absence of concrete clues, however, officers still declined to speculate as to whether integration of the previously all-white school is connected with the series of explosions.

Police said the suitcase, which contained "several" sticks of dynamite, was placed on a concrete slab across the street from a restaurant where several Negroes were eating. The Negroes said they saw a white man stop, leave the suitcase, jump back into his car and speed away.

The blast caved in the ceiling and inner walls of the basement restaurant.

The woman, identified as Emma Simmons, suffered a knot on the head when hit by falling plaster:

timidated and threatened until we can't stand much more."

Clinton's racial troubles started the last week in August, when the Anderson County School Board, under orders of the U. S. District Court in Knoxville, admitted 12 Negro students to the high school.

Demonstrations during that week resulted in the National Guard and state troopers being sent in by Gov. Frank Clement to restore order. John Kasper, segregationist from Washington, D.C., was sentenced to a year in federal prison for stirring up the disturbances. He is free on bond.

Sixteen other persons have been charged with violating the court order in connection with new disturbances which closed the school temporarily in December. Trial for them is pending, and all are free on bond.

The first of the explosions, also in Clinton's Negro district, was Sept. 26. There was little or no damage that time.

The other blasts have followed no clearly defined pattern.

JUNIOR HIGH NEWS

Celia Grant Is Cage 'Sweetheart'

By ROBI ANN ROBINSON

Celia Grant was crowned basketball sweetheart during halftime of the Yearling-Faculty game. She was escorted by Donnie Everett. Other nominees were Iva Nell Cole, escorted by Benny Edwards; and Jeanette Hefflin, escorted by Jimmy Tucker.

Big Spring Yearlings came out second in the Junior high tournament held here last Saturday. They lost to San Jacinto of Midland. Our boys making the all-tournament team were Donny Everett and Jay LeFever.

The junior high volleyball girls defeated the high school sophomores in their game on Tuesday evening. The girls are pretty proud of themselves for this.

Our flow of new students has dwindled somewhat this week. Among new students enrolled were Jimmy Henderson, Beth Ann Rector, Mitchell Nelson, Shirley Orange, Clara Gilbert, Virginia O'Kelly, Twila Frances, Barbara Orange, and Kimble Cannon. Welcome to BSJHS.

In balloting for next year's student body president, Carrie King was honored with the most votes. Donnie Everett was elected Future Homemakers of America dreamboat; and James B. Drake was elected volleyball dreamboat. Congratulations!

Carol Ann Phillips steps into the spotlight as Freshman of the Week. Carol is president of her Tri-Hi Y Club and was elected football queen earlier in the year. She attends the First Methodist Church and is active in its work. She has been on the volleyball team for three years and makes good grades. Carol also holds two offices in the Rainbow

TWIN TRACTION... a Studebaker-Packard FIRST so good other cars will copy it

WHAT IS IT? Twin-Traction Differential gives you new pavement-gripping traction and new safe control impossible with conventional differentials. The secret lies in the fact that the Twin-Traction Differential delivers the major part of the engine's power to the rear wheel with the best traction—instead of the wheel with the poorest traction (as in a conventional differential). The result—roadability that's better in six important ways:

1. In ice, snow or mud, Twin Traction gets you out of spots where cars with conventional differentials would "spin their wheels."
2. In highway driving, it protects against skids that might otherwise occur when one rear wheel hits a slippery spot.
3. On sharp turns, it improves roadability by applying the major driving force to the inside rear wheel. This also tends to compensate for over-steering.
4. On rough or washboard roads, it reduces the rear-end bounce, sidesway or swerve which results from a fast-spinning wheel suddenly hitting the pavement again.
5. When one rear wheel goes off the pavement onto a soft shoulder, Twin Traction directs the driving force to the other rear wheel, assuring safe, positive control.
6. In ordinary driving, Twin Traction cuts tire wear by assuring more positive traction.

Test it, yourself, today. See your Studebaker-Packard Dealer for a demonstration drive!

Popular Schoolteacher Bared As Noted Imposter, DeMara

AUGUSTA, Maine (AP)—A personable young schoolteacher who quickly won the affections of a Down East island community was identified by state police yesterday as a fantastic imposter who once posed as a Canadian surgeon in Korea.

Ferdinand Waldo DeMara, 35, a native of Lawrence, Mass., was held on a warrant charging cheating by false pretenses.

The charge stemmed from his role as Martin Dannel Godgart, an instructor of "superior qualifications" who taught North Haven youngsters English, Latin and French, instituted recreation program, organized a Sea Scout unit and won praise from his colleagues, superiors and the island population.

A Martin Godgart teaches in New York and attended Wagner College there. State police said DeMara had Wagner listed on the Maine teaching certificate they charged he obtained fraudulently.

State Police Detective Millard Nickerson said DeMara gave a "full statement" admitting he was the same man who, as Dr. Joseph C. Cyr, served with the Canadian navy and performed delicate surgery despite only elementary medical training.

DeMara, nearly six feet tall and weighing over 250 pounds, told police he went to remote North Haven, 12 miles off the Maine coast because of his isolation.

He said he "half and half" expected to be unmasked.

Only a few of the island's 415 residents claimed any suspicion of DeMara, known as "one of the best superintendents the Baptist Sunday school ever had."

Those who did, including Mrs. George Merriam, wife of the island's Baptist minister, said they were alerted because "Godgart talked a lot" — unlike traditionally tight-lipped Yankees.

It was this trait that led onelander to recall a magazine story to check on "Godgart."

Teacher William Hopkins summed up the fairly general reaction to DeMara's arrest when he said "I hope he can come back. After all, what has he done but used someone else's name? And all the good he has done with that name must certainly outweigh the bad."

Police said DeMara's career includes simultaneous Army and Navy hitches, resulting in 1½ years in a Navy prison for desertion.

He also has masqueraded as a zoology professor at Notre Dame Institute in Alfred, Maine. He studied at De Paul University, attended theology school in Grand Falls, N. B., worked as an accountant at a Houston, Tex., hotel and posed as a doctor of education to gain employment in the Texas state prison system in 1955.

Imposter Held Post In State Prison

HUNTSVILLE (AP)—Impersonator Ferdinand DeMara Jr., whose latest posing was disclosed yesterday, held a high position in the Texas Prison System for a time.

DeMara posed as Benjamin Jones and was assistant warden in charge of the main prison segregation unit for hardened prisoners here before he was unmasked in 1955.

DeMara was a hotel accountant in Houston before he joined the prison system.

At the time of his employment his papers indicated he was a doctor of education. He was first hired as lieutenant of guards at the Wynne Prison Farm for handicapped prisoners. Later he was made assistant warden.

His identity was discovered by a prisoner who read a story about him in an old magazine and notified prison officials in December 1955.

Thomas attends sales meeting

Truett Thomas, manager of Phillips Tire Company, has returned from Detroit, Mich., where he participated in a three-day conference on truck tire sales and service and saw the U.S. Royal tire plant.

The meeting was held in the Whittier Hotel in Detroit. U.S. Royal tire dealers from most sections of the nation were represented.

En route home, Thomas visited with two brothers, Coy and R. V. Thomas, in Akron, Ohio.

No Valentine, So Wife Gets Divorce

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Her husband failed to give her a present or even a kiss last St. Valentine's Day, Mrs. Doris Romo, 24, testified in winning a divorce from him S. Romo, 25, an accountant.

This prompted her attorney Lloyd Saunders to comment: "I'd better pick up something for my own wife."

"It would be the appropriate thing to do," agreed Acting Superior Judge Clarence E. Johns, who granted the decree on grounds of cruelty.

Duke Sails For Portugal For Reunion With Queen Elizabeth

GIBRALTAR (AP)—Nearing the end of his four-month global tour, the Duke of Edinburgh sailed aboard the royal yacht Britannia today for a reunion with Queen Elizabeth II in Portugal.

Elizabeth will fly from London to Lisbon tomorrow. After two days of comparative privacy together, the couple will begin a round of official engagements as part of a state visit to Portugal.

Portuguese government officials said everything possible would be done to insure privacy for the Queen and her husband through Saturday and Sunday.

"We realize they have been separated for some months," one source said.

The Duke left Britain Oct. 15 for Australia, where he opened the Olympic Games. He sailed on to other commonwealth points in the South Pacific and South Atlantic.

Last week rumors were published in the United States of a rift between the royal couple. The story brought a denial of "quite untrue" from Buckingham Palace. After a three-day silence, some London newspapers told the British public such stories had been published and termed the rumors "silly, ridiculous and baseless."

Elizabeth and Philip took no public notice of the rumors. A palace informant described the Queen as happy and looking forward eagerly to joining her husband.

The royal couple planned to spend the weekend aboard the Britannia, anchored off Lisbon, but bad weather may force them to move ashore. Private accommodations were ready on land.

Northeast Gets Snow

By The Associated Press

Snow fell in sections of the Northeast and cold continued in much of the eastern half of the nation today. Mild winter weather prevailed in most of the Western states.

The snow belt during the night extended from eastern Ohio and western New York through Pennsylvania and into extreme northern Virginia. Falls in most places were light although they measured 6 inches in the Harrisburg, Pa., area and more than 5 inches at Philipsburg, in central Pennsylvania.

The cold belt stretched from the Great Lakes region southward to northern parts of the Gulf Coast states and eastward to the western half of the Mid-Atlantic states. Temperatures averaged about 16 degrees lower than yesterday morning.

Grand Jury To Probe Murder

CUERO (AP)—The DeWitt County grand jury resumes deliberations today in its investigation of murder charges filed against August Styra, 37, Karnes County farmer.

Styra was charged with murder in connection with the deaths last June of Erwin and Emma Richter. Their scorched bodies were found in the burned ruins of their home a day after it was destroyed by fire.

The grand jury adjourned its session yesterday without returning a verdict in the case.

Naval Academy Position Offered Big Spring Youth

Bobby McCarty, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton McCarty, 435 Dallas Street, has been offered a service appointment to the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis, Md.

Now in his second year of service in the U. S. Navy as a laboratory technician at the naval hospital at Monterey, Calif., Bobby has been notified by Rep. George Mahon to be in Washington, D. C., on Monday morning.

Bobby will be here Saturday for a brief visit with his parents while en route to Washington, and then on to Annapolis.

Two years ago Bobby was nominated by Rep. Mahon, congressman from this district, to take tests which might lead to an appointment. At that time, he missed by a bare two points.

He was serious about a naval career, he said, and enlisted for four years in August of 1955, less than three months after graduating from Big Spring High School.

In his specialists class, he has ranked consistently in the top bracket.

While in school here, Bobby was active in extracurricular affairs and was a member of the football and golf squads. The latter group was among the best golf teams in West Texas that season. When Rep. Mahon was here last autumn he asked that Bobby keep in touch with him.

Overtime Parking Fines Up $200 During January

The number of overtime parking tickets paid during January was up 200 over the previous month.

The monthly report from the police department showed that $1,039 was paid to the department for overtime parking violations while in December the amount was $836. The January total is the largest for a month's period since last May when it hit $1,116.

The number of drunks fined during the month dropped from December, as did the number of moving violations. There were 71 drunks fined a total of $1,177 in January, and 85 charges brought $2,194 in fines during December.

Moving violators found guilty last month were 83, and their fines amounted to $2,266.50. In December, 93 were found guilty but were assessed only $1,021.50 in fines.

Twenty-two persons were fined $301 for driving without a proper license, and 18 vagrants were fined $145. Seven disturbance complaints brought fines amounting to $175. One simple assault fine of $50 was assessed.

Leaving the scene of accidents for two offenders brought fines of $70.

A total of $1,132 in fines was laid out in the jail at $3 per day.

For all types of offenses, including overtime parking, 1,269 tickets were issued by the department. There were 1,585 issued during December.

R. E. McClure Opens Station

McClure's Texaco Service, 701 W. 4th, will hold its formal opening Saturday.

R. E. McClure Jr. has acquired the station and will manage the business. He will be assisted by George Smith.

McClure, 26, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. (Eck) McClure of Big Spring and has lived here virtually all of his life. He said the station will carry a complete line of Texaco products, tires and tubes, and will specialize in automobile washing and lubrication.

The station is accessible from both West Fourth and Douglas streets. It is equipped with four gasoline pumps set in the center of a wide service apron. Service will be provided daily from 7 a.m. to 10 p.m., McClure said.

During the opening day, station personnel will distribute balloons, bubble gum and "fire chief" hats to the youngsters, the owner said.

This is McClure's first venture in the service station business, although he is familiar with service requirements of all types of vehicles. He has worked as a driver for O. H. McAlister, W. M. Walker and other truck operators.

Wildcat In Northern Howard Staked By Houston Operator

Goldston Oil Company of Houston has staked a new wildcat in the northern part of Howard County, while a new well was opened in the Big Spring (Fusselman) field.

Arthur field, was still testing after pumping five barrels of oil and 113 barrels of water in 24 hours. Location is CNW SE, 32-33-4, T&P Survey, seven and a half miles north of Vealmoor.

Howard Standard No. 1 Winters is operated at 4.815 feet in sand. Operator cored from 4,816-66 feet and recovered 50 feet of fine gray sand with slight to good fluorescence and bleeding oil. It then cored from 4,866-916 feet and recovered the same. It is a wildcat 1,900 feet from north and 467 feet from east lines, 6-25, H&C Survey.

TEMPERATURES

Senate Candidate Visits Big Spring

James P. Hart, former member of the Texas Supreme Court and chancellor of the University of Texas, brought his candidacy for the United States Senate to Big Spring Thursday.

On a quick swing through West Texas to meet with friends and supporters and to work in an occasional talk, Hart met informally with a group Thursday afternoon before hurrying on to an appointment at Midland.

"I'm just trying to meet old friends and new ones," said Hart. "It's a tremendous job and time is so short, but I'm getting a lot of encouragement."

Not one to indulge in personalities, Hart said that he would offer his services to the people of Texas on the basis of his record, experience and ability. He said he believed the people of Texas should make their choice on the basis of these qualifications and not on the basis of personalities or superficial issues.

Hart came here from an appearance at Snyder.

A native of Austin, he is a graduate of the University of Texas and Harvard, and was honored with a LL.D. by Baylor University in 1953. Besides private practice in law, he served as district attorney in Travis County, as special district judge, and assistant attorney general. He was appointed associate justice on the Supreme Court in 1947 and was elected the following year to a full term. He resigned in 1950 to become chancellor of the University of Texas and then returned to private practice of law in 1954. He and Mrs. Hart have five children. Mrs. Hart is as active as her husband for she is a Ph.D. and is currently a member of the Austin School Board. In his own community Hart is a member of the First Presbyterian Church, a past chairman of the Red Cross, director of the community chest, past president of the Texas Fine Arts Association, president of the Texas Philosophical Society, a director in the Austin Rotary Club, symphony orchestra and Chamber of Commerce. He also served on the President's committee on higher education.

Russian Art Critic Says Painting Nude Better Than Stalin

LONDON (AP)—A Moscow art critic proclaimed today—and Moscow radio broadcast the proclamation—that it's better to paint a feminine nude than Stalin or a shiny tractor.

The English-language broadcast, quoting critic Anatoli Chlenov, marked another step away from the tight controls which the Kremlin has exerted over Soviet culture during the late dictator's life. The broadcast was made in advance of a coming congress of Soviet artists.

Chlenov commented: "The beauty of the nude body, especially the feminine—that eternal theme of realistic art—has again found its place in the painting of Socialist realism."

Mrs. Dozier's Father Honored By Resolution

Mrs. E. B. Dozier of Big Spring has received from Rep. Obie Bristow a copy of a resolution the Texas House of Representatives unanimously adopted in honor of her father, the late Rev. James Hamilton Clark.

Rev. Clark served as chaplain of the House for 10 years prior to his death at the age of 83 on May 29, 1956. The resolution in his honor declares that House members wished to "recognize and pay tribute to the fine and worthy life of Rev. Clark and express sympathy with his family."

Rep. Bristow of Big Spring helped introduce the resolution in the House recently.

Rev. Clark was a descendant of Alexander Hamilton, first secretary of the U.S. Treasury. He was born on a farm near Georgetown June 27, 1872. He attended Galveston Medical School, later becoming a druggist. He entered the ministry in 1905.

He attended Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Tenn., and Southwestern University, Georgetown. He served as a Methodist minister for 25 years.

Following his retirement from the ministry, Rev. Clark was appointed Blanco County judge, and won re-election to the office seven times. He was named Chaplain of the House of Representatives about 11 years ago and held that post until his death.

In addition to Mrs. Dozier, he is survived by his wife, Mrs. Lela Bishop of Austin; three other daughters, Mrs. T. J. Davis of Austin, Mrs. G. G. Wooderson of Corsicana and Mrs. W. L. Davis of Lytle; and two sons, Leroy Tull Clark and James Fletcher Clark of Austin.

Alcorta Gets New Hearing

SAN ANTONIO (AP)—Convicted wife-slayer Alvaro Alcorta was granted a new hearing yesterday by Dist. Judge John F. Onion. It will keep him temporarily from his fifth date with the electric chair.

Alcorta's attorneys, Fred Seaman and Raul Villareal, alleged in a writ of habeas corpus that Alcorta was deprived of his constitutional rights under the Fifth and 14th Amendments which set out "due process of law."

Alcorta, convicted of stabbing his wife to death June 19, 1955, was scheduled to die next Tuesday in the electric chair at Huntsville.

The new hearing will be held next Thursday before Judge Onion. Alcorta will be returned from the state prison today to await the hearing.

In the application, his attorneys alleged that the state was guilty of suppression of evidence.

It said Natividad Castilleja, who was with Alcorta's wife, Herlinda, the night she died, had testified at the trial he had "no dates" or other relations with her.

The application alleges that "in fact he had been her lover and paramour and had been intimate with her on several occasions and that they informed Castilleja he did not have to mention that fact."

Alcorta has been granted stays of execution several times before on application for new hearings. He originally was scheduled to die last month.

Texan Convicted Of Rape Attempt

BROWNSVILLE (AP)—Antonio Ayala Cisneros, 23, of Brownsville, was convicted yesterday and sentenced to two years in prison on a charge of assault with intent to rape.

The charge was filed in connection with an attack on an 18-year-old Brownsville girl last Sept. 22.

Uncle Roy: Nansen Dared Death In Arctic Waters

By RAMON COFFMAN

In proportion to population, Norway has led the world in polar exploration. It was a Norwegian—Amundsen—who first reached the South Pole, and various men of Norway worked their way into the Arctic before Robert E. Peary, an American, discovered the North Pole.

The paths of polar explorers have been beset with adventure, trouble, even death. Fridtjof Nansen, who was born in Norway, had a stirring adventure while returning from a journey.

A few years before the end of the past century, he reached a point only four degrees from the North Pole. He was in company with a single companion, Johansen, and the two turned back together.

He managed to grasp a ski.

On their sledge (folded up) were two kayaks (pronounced KY-acks), along with food and other supplies. Coming to a stretch of water, they unfolded their Eskimo-style boats, and lashed them together. When the sledge was placed crosswise over them, and securely fastened, a useable craft was produced.

After a time they reached a sheet of ice. They walked about for perhaps half an hour, then one of them turned. To his amazement, the kayaks had broken away from the place where they had been pulled up.

The men raced to the edge of the ice. Then Nansen, who was the stronger swimmer, threw off his shoes, coat and mittens and plunged into the icy water. With brave strokes, he fought his way toward the double boat, which was drifting away under a light breeze.

His arms and legs began to grow numb, and he wondered whether he could reach his goal. His iron will stood him in good stead, and at last he was able to grasp a ski which had been fastened to the craft.

With all the might he could muster, Nansen pulled himself aboard. Then he paddled it back to the ice sheet. He and Johansen later managed to get back to civilization, safe and sound.

Conservatives Gain 20 Seats

DALLAS (AP)—Twenty new precinct chairmanships were won last night by conservatives who control the Dallas County Democratic Executive Committee.

The 20 new precinct chairmen elected gave the conservatives a comfortable margin on the executive committee. Fourteen other chairmen were named to fill vacancies created by resignations, deaths and other reasons.

Liberals lost a bid to amend the original list of nominees to replace some of the conservatives with liberal candidates.

J. W. Hassell Jr. was elected vice chairman of the committee. Ed Drake, conservative leader, remains as chairman. Mrs. Charles Lamb was elected chaplain and Manuel Debusk was elected secretary.

Tax Revenues For City Up To $360,000

The city tax department collected over $17,000 in various taxes during January and raised its revenue for the current fiscal year to over $360,000.

Collections in the department for the month totaled $17,344.80. Collections for January of 1956, however, were $18,676.89.

Current taxes naturally contributed most of the aggregate, $15,774.90. Delinquent taxes amounted to $638.52, and $326 came from occupation taxes. The city's taxi franchise brought in $212.25.

Only in the dog tax column did the city show an increase over January of 1956. The past month's total was $186.75, and it was only $13 in January of 1956. The increase is from the new city ordinance passed during the month.

For the fiscal year of which 10 months has passed, the total collected in the tax department is $363,553.53. During the same 10 months of the last fiscal year, the total was $352,146.02, or an increase this year of $11,407.51.

Current taxes contributed $334,992.23 of the total, and $17,555.25 came from delinquent taxes. Occupation taxes brought in $2,989 during the 10 months. The taxi franchise total was $978.37.

The city during January billed 98,714,200 gallons of water to customers, which is an increase of 18,731,100 gallons over January of 1956. It was a decrease from December of 6,767,400 gallons, however.

Water and sewer bills sent to users during January amounted to $47,948.10. This is an increase of $1,914.99 over the same period of January, 1956.

Receipts at the golf course totaled $587.50 for the month. This included $270 from day-play green fees. Nine-hole green fees brought in $36.50, and 18-hole fees totaled $12.75. Monthly golf cards contributed $40.

The city collected $3,594.82 from parking meters during the month, as compared with $4,308.58 collected during December.

The city's bonded indebtedness at the end of the month stood at $1,253,000 tax bonds and $1,441,000 revenue bonds. The indebtedness is the same as on Jan. 1.

Humphrey Sees More Prosperity

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey foresees continued prosperity for the next 18 months.

"There are no signs of a recession," Humphrey said in secret testimony before a House Appropriations subcommittee Jan. 25. The group made the testimony public today.

Humphrey, who has cautioned that a continued high level of government spending could lead to a depression that would "curl your hair," again urged that "everyone go to work" on trimming expenditures. He said business, labor and local governments must join federal agencies in avoiding inflationary steps.

Humphrey asked for $713,834,000 to run the Treasury for the fiscal year starting next July 1. This is $63,261,150 more than the department got this year.

BIG CHAIN IS BRAKE

Nylon, Steel Crash Barriers Save Planes, Lives At Webb

Eight jet planes at Webb Air Force Base have a lot in common. At one time or another during their airborne careers, each appeared headed for a crash on the Webb runway. And in each case, a contraption of heavy steel chain and nylon netting saved the plane.

In addition, the combination of nylon and steel may have saved the lives of 16 fliers.

The netting and chain compose what airmen used to call a "crash barrier," but the device has been so effective in preventing crashes that it is now called an "arresting" barrier.

Installed here in 1954, the barrier now is widely used throughout the Air Training Command. Records show that the idea has saved at least 170 ATC planes.

Webb operates two runways on the base and another auxiliary landing strip at Colorado City. All of these are more than 8,000 feet in length.

The barriers are installed at both ends of the runways. The distance of the barrier from the end of the runway is determined by the type of hazard to be encountered on the other side. These distances vary from 800 feet at Webb, to 25 feet at the auxiliary strip.

The barrier is made of nylon cord netting, suspended from a heavier cord of the same material, anchored to posts set in concrete at sides of the runway. The ends of the cords are made fast to a pair of heavy link chains—450 feet long and weighing 10,000

Underestimated Power Of Woman

BUENA VISTA, Colo. (AP)—Mrs. Darlene Jenness, 24, was arrested after the owner of a heating gas station said she made a mess of his station and office.

Shirley Ayery, owner of a freight service which supplies heating gas here, said he turned off Mrs. Jenness' fuel supply for non-payment of bills.

Later she broke 10 windows at his station by hurling rocks through them, pulled off his glasses and stomped on them, beat him about the face with her fists, brushed everything off his desk, and then went outside and hurled rocks through the windows of his truck, he said.

She was arrested by the town marshal.

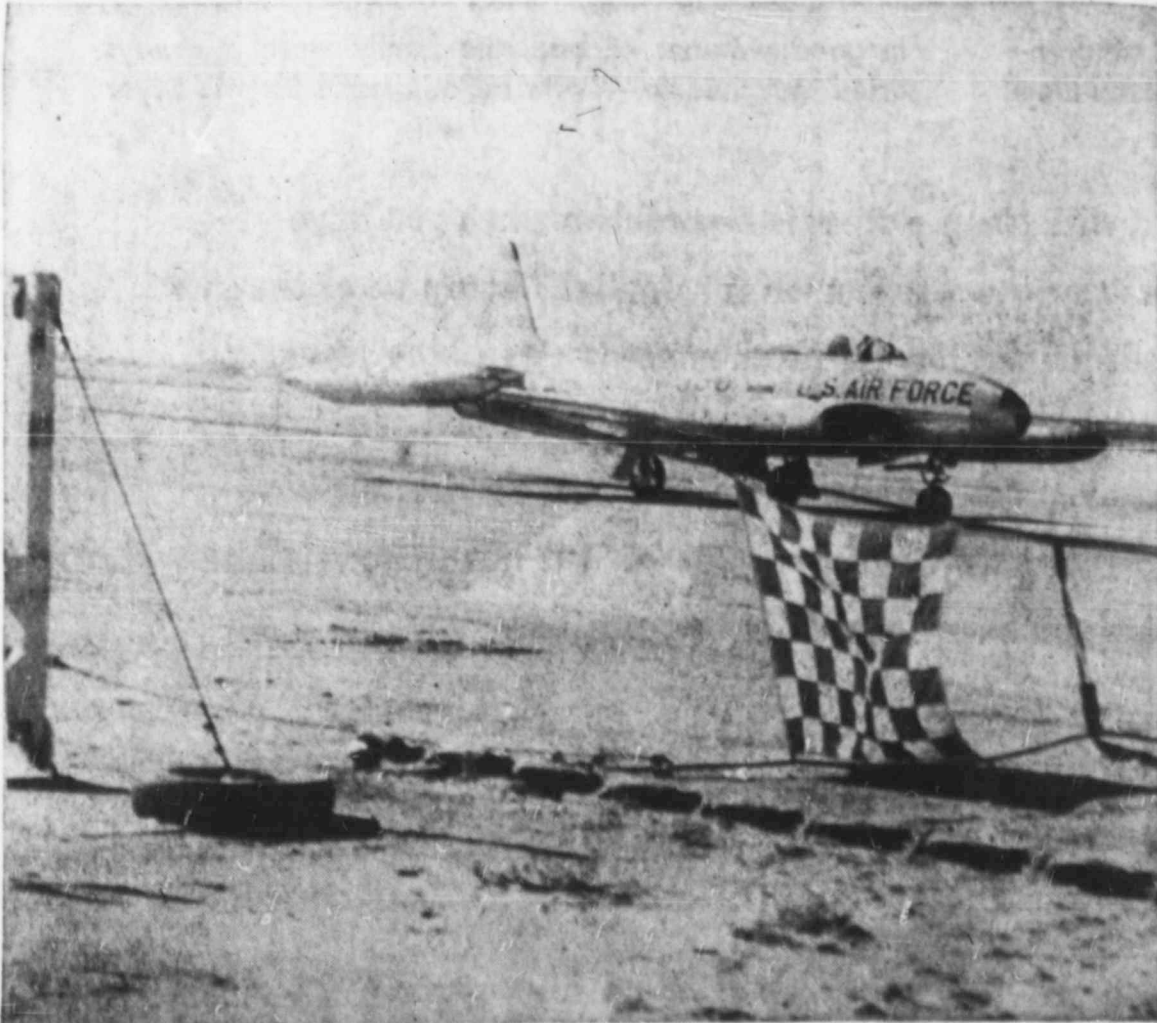

pounds—laid out on either side of the runway beyond the barrier. The pins, by means of which the barriers are fixed to the posts for position, are sheared on impact, permitting the aircraft to continue its forward movement, but at the same time steadily reducing the speed, as the drag of the heavy chain increases.

It is difficult to arrive at a specific figure as to saving, either in life or money, since the installation of the barriers here. However, a comparison of the cost of the barrier—$8,000—with the cost of a single "T-Bird" (T-33 jet)—$125,000—brings the conclusion that the barriers are earning their keep.

Figures released from the Air Training Command show that average savings are comparable to those realized at Webb. Eighty-eight barriers are in use in the command.

Tyndall AFB, Fla., and Moody AFB, Ga., have recorded 11 and nine lives saved, respectively, since barriers were installed there.

Construction and maintenance of the barriers at Webb is handled by the 3560th Installations Group, under the direct supervision of 1st Lt. Charles W. Martin, director for operations; M.Sgt. John A. Joseph, NCOIC; and T. Sgt. Robert W. Elsberry, NCOIC pavements and grounds division.

Graduate Of Big Spring High School Listed In Who's Who

By ANNE McFEVER
Big Spring High School has one of its graduates listed in Who's Who In America!

She is Dr. Elinor Pancoast, who is now Professor of Economics and Chairman of the Department of Economics, Sociology and Anthropology in Goucher College, Baltimore, Md.

Old-timers in Big Spring will be interested in the "local girl makes good" story of Dr. Pancoast, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Pancoast, who moved to Big Spring with her parents in 1908. They operated, and for a time, owned the Cole Hotel, which stood where the Howard House is now located.

While the family waited for the erection of the hotel, they stayed in the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Deats. Their son, Dr. C. W. Deats, remembers the young girl as "a most attractive and talented musician." According to him, too, she was also "staidous and very sweet and agreeable."

His sister, Mrs. Alford Moody, who was quite young at the time, had a small girl's admiration for a "beautiful young lady," she remembers.

While the Pancoast family was in the Deats' home, the grandmother came from Denmark to visit them, as Mrs. Moody recalls. She was most impressed by the pretty, high lace collars, worn by the visitor and by her lovely gray hair, which she wore "all bluffed out."

Shine Phillips recalls how much fun the young people of the town had when the Pancoasts were in the Cole Hotel. Mrs. Pancoast was an outstanding hostess; her daughters, Elinor and Elsie were quite attractive. The hotel was very much the social center of the town, Phillips remarked, remembering the good dance floor in the dining room, where the tables would at times, be pushed back to allow room for dancing.

Neil Hatch remembers Elinor Pancoast as a very quiet but very pretty girl, and one who was ready to do her share of the work when any activity was going on.

She excelled in everything she did, and everyone knew that some day Elinor would really make her mark," Miss Hatch remarked.

Joe Flock, who lived at the Cole Hotel when the Pancoasts were there, said of the two girls, "Elinor was a very aristocratic person and liked to study. She was different from her fun-loving sister, Elsie."

Elinor Pancoast was graduated from Big Spring High School in 1918. According to a letter received from her, she remembers two members of the class, Edgar Henry and Helen Vaughan. Miss Pancoast was a student at the University of Texas in 1911-13. From 1913-18, she was a teacher in the Benedicta schools, and she taught in Wichita Falls in 1917-18. From the University of Chicago, she received a Ph. D. in 1917; a masters degree in 1921, and in 1927, a Ph. D.

During World War II, Dr. Pancoast was on leave of absence from Goucher College to work with the OPA and the Social Security Administration in Washington.

In 1940, her book, "The Incomprehensible Idealist, Robert Dule Ovens in America," was published.

In 1934-35, at the request of the Ford Foundation, Dr. Pancoast carried out a study of desegregation in the Baltimore schools. A full report of her findings, "The Report of a Study on Desegregation in the Baltimore 'Public Schools,'" was published in 1936. She was director of Maryland's Workshop on Economic Education, 1934-36, held in August at Goucher College. She also served as economist on the panel, "Manpower and Employment," at the National Study Conference on the Church and Economic Life at Pittsburgh, Pa., in April, 1936. This was under the auspices of the National Council of Churches.

Besides serving in various capacities on planning boards, social security boards and in church organizations, Dr. Pancoast is now doing research for a book on social insurance.

An excerpt from her letter reads: "My mother lived with me here in Baltimore (until her death in 1935). My sister, Elsie P. Wasson, lives with me here, and is on the staff of the Towson State Teachers College. My niece, Elizabeth Ann Wasson Oldison, lives with her husband and five children in Glen Ellyn, Illinois.

"The Big Spring I remember was a small town. We knew most of the inhabitants. I have not visited Texas. I am sorry to say, for thirty years, but I understand that many changes have taken place and that I would not recognize Texas towns and cities. Perhaps, if the pressure ever lets up we shall pay a visit to Big Spring. It would be fun to renew old friendships, although, alas, I have learned that some old friends have died."

Sorority Has Discussion Of State Meet

A discussion of the State Epsilon Sigma Alpha convention was held by the local group when they met Thursday in the home of Mrs. Bob Tawater. The meet will be held in Odessa May 17-19.

Mrs. Robert Hill, Bo Bowen and Barbara Ann Eye, were appointed to the committee to write a history of the local chapter, which will be presented at the convention.

Costumes were also discussed for wearing at the first general meeting of the convention. All chapters are asked to be dressed in cow-girl regalia.

The group voted to enter a chapter section to the state scrapbook. A discussion of the district meet, which will be held in Andrews in April, was also held. The group voted to contribute $10 to the district project.

Money making projects were discussed and the group voted to sell candy.

A Valentine theme was carried on the serving table which was covered with a white cloth and held a white and red gumpop tree flanked by large red hearts and cupid arrows.

Mrs. B. E. Reagan served as cohostess.

LASS-O CLUB WILL CROWN BEAU SATURDAY

The Lass-O Beau, who doesn't know yet that he is "it," will be crowned Saturday evening at the Lass-O Club dance at Howard County Junior College.

The dance, to be given in the Student Union Building, will be preceded by a program at 8:30 p.m. The coronation ceremony will take place at 9. This will be followed by a grand march, led by the beau and his date, with dancing afterward.

All H.C.J.C. students are invited to attend.

All H.C.J.C. students are invited to attend.

Sunday School Class

Mrs. E. C. Smith was hostess to the L.L.L. Sunday School Class of Baptist Temple Thursday evening at a Valentine social. Mrs. Jack Hanson was cohostess. A devotion on "Love" was given by Mrs. N. W. Derryberry, and Valentine games were played by 13. Table decorations followed the seasonal theme.

Altrusa First Service Club To Make IF Gift

Members of the Altrusa Club voted to contribute $35 to the Industrial Foundation Fund Thursday at a luncheon meeting in the Howard House. According to officials of the foundation, this is the first service club to make a contribution to the fund.

Plans were discussed for a workshop to be held here June 1-2. Tables for the luncheon were decorated with hearts in varied sizes. The speakers' table held a pot of red tulips.

The club heard a report of the executive committee.

Mrs. Homer Petty gave a report on the work of the scholarship committee. Their recommendation of assistance to a Latin-American student was accepted.

Mrs. M. T. Kuykendall, chairman of the nominating committee, reported the following selections for officers: Mrs. J. B. Apple, president; Mrs. Ova Mae Edwards, vice president; Mrs. B. L. LeFever, recording secretary; Mrs. Coy Nalley, corresponding secretary; Mrs. C. R. Rhoads, treasurer.

Mrs. Bob Eberly was nominated to serve on the board of directors. Election of officers will take place at the first meeting in March.

Valentine Socials By Women's Clubs

LAMESA — A Valentine dinner was held Tuesday evening at the Lamesa Woman's Study Club for members and their guests. Featured on the dining table, which was laid with white linen, was a center arrangement of white Valentine trees covered with hearts and flanked by red tapers.

Following dinner the evening was spent in playing "52". Forty-eight members and guests attended. Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Jeff Shipp, Mrs. Lou Randals, Mrs. C. A. Baldwin, Mrs. J. B. Leavelle, Mrs. W. K. Crawley and Mrs. Elmer Cope.

LAMESA — Mrs. Stanley Applegate was the hostess for the Valentine party of the Business and Professional Women's Club Tuesday evening. The evening was spent in playing bingo, with refreshments being served to ten members and one guest, Mrs. Naomi Cox.

Berta Beckett Class Hears Talk By J. C. Douglass Jr.

"The Bible, The Holy Word of God" was the topic of the discussion given for the Berta Beckett Sunday School Class of First Baptist Church Thursday at noon.

The group met at the church for the regular monthly social and business meeting.

J. C. Douglass Jr., guest speaker, told the class the history of the Bible, of the various divisions and the meaning of the Scripture.

He closed his talk with a poem, "What Is The Bible in Your Life?" Douglass also sang a solo as part of his program. Mrs. J. H. Greene was in charge of the numbers.

Mrs. J. F. Sellers opened the meeting with a prayer. Luncheon tables were decorated in a Valentine theme, with small Valentines used as place cards and marking the napkins.

During the business meeting following the luncheon, the treasurer was instructed to send a check to the missionary student, whom the class is assisting.

Mrs. Lydia Rogers of Los Angeles and Douglass were guests, with 14 members attending.

Three Events Marked By Two Sports Clubs

A Valentine party, a birthday party and a wedding anniversary were celebrated Thursday evening by the Indoor Sports and Good Sports clubs, meeting at the Girl Scout Little House.

Murray Maddox of Midland, member of the local club, was the birthday honored guest, while the club celebrated the fifth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Maddox.

Valentine games were played; the tea table was decorated with Valentines, with nutcups in the same theme. Two decorated cakes, made by Mrs. Ross Hill, completed the decor.

Members were reminded of the benefit stew supper, scheduled for Feb. 26 at the high school cafeteria. Tickets are priced at 25 cents for adults and 50 cents for children. There will be a called meeting on Feb. 25 to complete plans for the affair.

Proceeds will go into the treasury of the club for the club's welfare projects and for the expenses of entertaining the executive board of District Eight, March 2.

Rugh Compton was introduced as a new member of the Indoor Sports. Mrs. H. M. Compton, Mrs. Mildred Penney and Mrs. Ruby Rowe were named as new members of the Good Sports.

Knott HD Club Plans For Benefit Program

Plans for the presentation of the Circle Four Rambler were made by the Knott Home Demonstration Club Wednesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Lacey Shaw. The program will be given Feb. 22 at the school.

Mrs. Shaw read the Scripture and Mrs. P. T. Oker offered the opening prayer. The HD Council report was given by Mrs. Robert Brown.

Care of kitchen boxes was discussed by Mrs. L. C. Matthews. Recreation was under the supervision of the hostess. The March 28 meeting will be in the home of Mrs. O. B. Gaskins.

Weldon Lindsey are the house committee.

Mrs. Van Neil is chairman of the refreshment committee, assisted by Mrs. Robert White and Mrs. O. W. Fuller. The gift shop committee will be headed by Mrs. Charley Walton and Mrs. Fred Flenniken.

It's easy to keep the family in clean clothes when you have an ELECTRIC DRYER

Diapers for baby or blue jeans for the older children—you can dry them electrically as fast as you need them!

In good weather or bad, the family wash is always dried on schedule — with an automatic Electric Dryer

Keeping the family supplied with clean clothes is no problem when you have an Electric Dryer. You don't wait on the weather or for daylight hours of clothesline drying. When the baby needs diapers or big brother needs clean blue jeans, you can dry them anytime, even at night, with an Electric Dryer. You'll need to buy fewer clothes, too, because you can launder them faster — they're ready quicker and worn oftener. And you don't need a surplus of bed linens, towels and clothing to tide you over a period of bad weather.

Keeping Weight Off

Elaine Malbin, who stars regularly for NBC Opera Theater, reveals her secrets for taking off weight and keeping it off in today's Hollywood Beauty.

HOLLYWOOD BEAUTY

When You Reduce, You Change Eating Habits

By LYDIA LANE
HOLLYWOOD — Elaine Malbin, who is only five feet tall might be called the little girl with the big voice. When she was still in her teens she made her debut singing operatic arias in New York City's Town Hall. She is now under contract with NBC and hopes TV will popularize opera to the extent radio did the symphony orchestra.
"Opera singers have to pay attention to their figures more than ever," Elaine told me, on a recent visit to the coast. "I know because I once was 30 pounds overweight. This meant in order to get back to normal which is 98 pounds I had to take off one-fourth of my weight."
She looked at me and smiled. "I know you are thinking 'How could anyone let herself go to that extent?' But every excessively fat person has a problem whether she knows it or not. My mother died when I was very young and there was no one at home to see what my brother and I ate. Instead of a meal we would have a soda or candy bars and because this diet was so insufficient I was hungry most of the time and turned more and more to sweets."
"I didn't discover that I could sing until my sophomore year at high school," Elaine confessed. "And a vocal teacher suggested that I take singing lessons. We were poor and my father had to go into debt to give me this training so I was determined to make good. At that time I had a single purpose, to perfect my voice. I studied so hard that I had no time for normal social life."
"The more lonely I became the more I turned to food as a consolation. At that time I had no idea that this was emotional eating. I thought my body demanded food and when anyone made a comment about my reducing I paid no attention because I knew most opera singers were fat."
"I recently saw a picture of myself," Elaine shook her head, "at 19. I looked 30."
"What gave you the incentive to reduce?" I asked.

"Three years ago I fell in love for the first time and I listened to whatever he said. 'If you will reduce,' he advised, 'you will benefit your career and your personal life.' I took the hint. For the first time my heart was in dieting. I wanted to be pleasing in his eyes more than I wanted to eat."
"I made the mistake of wanting to take off in a few weeks what I had been almost a lifetime accumulating. I stayed on a five-day diet for months. I ate so many eggs and tomatoes that I set up an acid condition in my system and became very ill."
"Everyone needs a balanced diet but a singer can't keep in voice without one. And she has no reserve unless she is properly nourished. I set about learning the nutritional value of food and I studied calorie charts. I was determined to get thin but not at the price of my health."
"I looked at Elaine's figure-revealing sheath, and then said, 'You have done a beautiful job.'"
"It is real thrill," she admitted, "because I have permanently licked my weight problem. I have changed my eating habits completely. You have to do that or you will gain back what you've just taken off. Improving my appearance," Elaine said with deep feeling, "has brought such happiness into my life."
"What did you find the most difficult phase of reducing?" I wanted to know.
"Shrinking my stomach," she confessed. "The first weeks of reducing were hard. My advice is to become as active as possible at this time. Plan a full day, do anything you can to take your mind off how hungry you feel."
"If your appetite gets the better of you be prepared with low-calorie foods to gorge on. In one day I have eaten three cantaloupes. Carrots, celery or raw cabbage are filling without being fattening."
"Now I live comfortably on 1,000 calories a day but in the first weeks of dieting this seemed like starvation to me. I make breakfast my most substantial meal. The food you eat at the start of the day gives you energy and is more readily burned up."
"What do you consider a substantial breakfast?"
"Melon or grapefruit, two poached eggs, two strips of dry bacon, one slice of whole grain health bread, coffee with skim milk."
"For lunch I have salads and for dinner, grilled meat, chicken or fish, green and yellow vegetable and fresh fruit for dessert. I am very happy thinking of food in terms of how it can help my body," Elaine concluded.
TAKE OFF WEIGHT THE EASY WAY
Anyone can take off weight but the trick is to keep it off. Elaine Malbin's "Rules for Taking Off Weight and Keeping It Off," brand new leaflet M-22, gives many suggestions on how to be a successful dieter. Here you'll learn the way to shrink your stomach, to eat intelligently and to maintain health. You'll also learn how to eat so that your body is nutritionally healthy. For your copy send 5 cents AND a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Lydia Lane, Hollywood Beauty, in care of The Big Spring Herald. Be sure to ask for Leaflet M-22.

Valentine Theme Highlights Two Social Affairs Given Thursday

Valentine's Day was the inspiration for two pretty parties Thursday, with hostesses entertaining at the Big Spring Country Club and in a private home.
A coffee, given Thursday morning at the club, had as hostesses Mrs. Jack Cook Mrs. Jake Morgan, Mrs. Jack Irons, Mrs. Tom South, Mrs. Howard Schwarzenbach, Mrs. Fred Kasch, Mrs. Tom Guin and Mrs. Charles Tompkins.
A Valentine tree decorated the club foyer, where members of the house party alternated in greeting guests. Hostesses invited arrivals into the ballroom and to the tea table.
The table was covered with a red felt cloth and held an arrangement of pink carnations in combination with red hearts in a silver bowl. Silver services were used by members of the house party who alternated at the table.

Floral arrangements, following a Valentine theme, decorated the entertaining rooms.
Included in the house party were Mrs. K. R. McEwen Jr., Mrs. Kent Morgan, Mrs. James Underwood, Mrs. Hal Battle of Snyder, Mrs. Claver Miller, Mrs. Doug Orme, Mrs. V. A. Whittington, Mrs. Travis Reed, Mrs. Sunny Edwards, Mrs. Gus Barr, Mrs. W. L. Wilson Jr. of Gail, Mrs. R. W. Thompson, Mrs. Tommy Hutto and Mrs. George Elliott.
VALENTINE TEA
Complimenting their friends with a Valentine tea Thursday afternoon were Mrs. Allen R. Orr and Mrs. George S. Grimes, who entertained in the Grimes home.
Guests, greeted by the two hostesses, visited and chatted in the living room and den as they were served refreshments from a Valentine table.

A red linen cloth showed beneath a lace cloth and red candles burned in silver holders. Between the candles was an arrangement of red carnations, silvered foliage and lemon leaves in a silver bowl. Double hearts, silvered, centered the carnations.
Silver accessories accompanied the silver coffee and tea services used by Mrs. E. W. Richardson, Mrs. John E. Brown, Mrs. George S. Harwell and Mrs. A. J. Conrad in serving.
Assisting the hostesses in entertaining were Mrs. Dale Smith, Mrs. J. M. Bradley, Mrs. Richard Grimes, Mrs. Jack Gulley, Mrs. D. J. Greenwood and Mrs. G. K. Chadd.

College Heights P-TA Has Student Program

"The First Valentine" was presented in story and song at the College Heights P-TA meeting Thursday afternoon. Second grade pupils of Cora Cowan and Mrs. L. T. Newton presented the program.
Big Spring High School students of the Bible class presented the devotion on David.
The life story of Mrs. Billy Davis was heard by the group.
A nominating committee of three was appointed.
Sixty were present for the meeting.

Valentine Cookies

Valentine cookies were made Thursday afternoon by Brownie Troop 51 at the home of Mrs. Frank Perry. These were then packed into boxes as gifts for the mothers of the girls.

T&P Safety Group Hears Dr. Marcum

Dr. C. B. Marcum was guest speaker at a meeting of the Texas and Pacific Safety Council Thursday afternoon at the Settles Hotel. His subject was "Cancer" and accompanying him was Mrs. Hayes Stripling, who showed a film dealing with breast cancer.
The meeting was opened with the repetition of "The Lord's Prayer." Mrs. F. W. Bettle won a special prize.
Hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. E. A. Williams and Mrs. C. B. Sullivan.
Twenty-four members were present, with four guests: the two speakers, Mrs. Laura Smith and Mrs. H. M. Compton.

Legion, Auxiliary Hold Bingo Party

A joint social was held Thursday evening by the American Legion and the Auxiliary. The social, held at the Legion clubhouse, was a bingo party.
Decorating the clubhouse were lovebirds in large pink cages and surrounded by red hearts.
The display table of prizes was covered with a green velvet cloth and surrounded by red hearts.
The special bingo prize was a complete set of cook ware which was donated to the club.
About 20 couples attended the party. The next meeting of the auxiliary will be Monday at 8 p.m. at the clubhouse.

Bailey - Overton Vows Exchanged Thursday

Frances Lee Bailey and Maurice Edward Overton exchanged double ring wedding vows Thursday evening in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse M. Bailey, 2110 Main. Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Overton are the parent of the bridegroom.
The Rev. B. R. Howze, pastor of the Primitive Baptist Church, read the ceremony. Decorations included baskets of palms and gladioli flanked by white wedding bells.
Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of silk tulle styled on princess lines. The low neckline was trimmed with white Chantilly lace. A fitted jacket of lace buttoned at the waistline with tiny lace buttons. The bridal veil of silk illusion was shoulder length.
The bride carried a bouquet of white and red roses.
In bridal tradition, she carried a handkerchief, borrowed from her grandmother, Mrs. Clara Burks; it served also as something old. The bride's dress was new, and she wore a blue garter.
Mrs. Leroy Rankin, cousin of the bride from Odessa, wore a princess dress of blue. Best man was Jesse Bailey Jr., brother of the bride.

At the reception, a Valentine theme was used in decorations. The table was covered with a lace cloth and held an arrangement of red carnations and white stock and greenery. The three-tiered wedding cake was decorated with hearts and topped with a miniature bride and groom.
Serving was done by Dorothy Baker, Ackerly, and Mrs. Floyd Pike. At the register was Mary Beth Gaskins.
For traveling Mrs. Overton wore a tan wool suit with brown accessories. After the wedding trip the couple will make a home at the Big Spring Trailer Courts.
Mrs. Overton is a graduate of Big Spring High School and attended Howard County Junior College. She is presently employed by her father.
Mr. Overton graduated from Garden City High School, where he was a member of the F.H.A., Beakart staff and participated in various sports.
Out-of-town wedding guests included Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Burt, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Truelove, Midland, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Rankin, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Solomon and family, Odessa, and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Boyd and family, Vealmoor.

A Bible Thought For Today

I say unto you, that likewise joy shall be in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, more than over ninety and nine just persons, which need no repentance. (St. Luke 15:7)

Can't Afford To Advertise Failure

Although not a lot of fanfare has attended their efforts, those who have gone out in behalf of the Industrial Foundation are getting some reasonable results. No exact figures have been released, but it is safe to say that between a third and a half of the goal is in hand or in sight.

Almost everyone can put something in the Foundation. Those who cannot give any or all in cash can pledge and pay over a period of time. The Foundation doesn't have to do all of its work in a day, but it does have to look to the community for enough funds to bring it into active being.

Time To Think It Over

The House at Austin has approved, 115-20, a resolution by Rep. Truett Latimer of Allenton, proposing a constitutional amendment providing for annual sessions of the Legislature at a rate of pay of $4,800 per annum. It now goes to the Senate for concurrence, and if the Senate accepts the House measure without amendment, the question will reach the voters in November of 1958 for their approval or rejection.

members $5,000 per year; New York, which pays $7,500 per year; Massachusetts, salary $5,200; Michigan, salary $4,000. Weightier argument in favor of an annual rather than a biennial session is that it is unbusinesslike and unrealistic for a state with a billion-dollar budget like Texas to fix that budget so far ahead, without knowing what the future holds. Annual sessions would make for closer attention to the state's fiscal requirements.

Obeying the Gospel as a young man, I wanted to know about God and His revelation to man. I realized that the Bible was the only source from which I could learn the attributes of God and his will to man.

I began attending a class conducted by the minister where I lived for all who had the desire to develop their personal abilities in knowing the Bible and being able to tell it to others.

As a young man I wanted to know the Bible, but I wanted to learn all about in just a few days. I was told by an elder in the church that there was no shortcut to knowing the Bible. Also, no easy way to learn God's revelation to man, but, it would take much study and even in a lifetime one wouldn't know all.

The Bible is called "The Unsearchable Riches."

Someone said to a gospel preacher, "I would give half of my life to know the Bible as you know it."

The preacher said, "That is exactly what it has cost me."

Paul said, "Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth." (2 Tim. 2:15.)

Under supervision I learned such passages as Matthew 9:37, 38, "The harvest truly is plentiful, but the laborers are few; Pray ye therefore the Lord of harvest, that he will send forth labourers into his harvest."

I had the urge to tell others

The desire to help myself help others had as much to do with my being a minister as anything else. I wanted to serve God and man, because the service God wants and the service man needs is reasonable and helpful. I want my life to be a credit to God and humanity.

I believe that man is in the world to serve and not to be served. The supreme need of the race today is constructive unity. Who in all the world is big enough, and noble enough, to be our pattern, our leader, our ideal? Christ is the leader, Christ is that ideal. I developed this attitude early in life, "Lord speak and I will hear, command and I will obey."

Parables of the Kingdom

CHRIST ILLUSTRATES MORAL TRUTHS BY OBSERVATIONS FROM NATURE

Scripture—Matthew 13.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL

WHAT is a parable? Webster's dictionary says: "A short, fictitious narrative from which a moral or spiritual truth is drawn."

We may not call them parables today, but parents, teachers and clergymen are very likely to adopt the parable form to stress a moral to children and adults. Somehow a story told in parable style makes a deeper impression on the audience of whatever age than a simple explanation or direct command would do.

In this 13th chapter of Matthew we are told of seven of these parables, four of which Jesus told as He sat in a boat anchored on the shore of the Sea of Galilee, while the multitude of people who had followed Him stood on the shore.

We must wonder how many of that great crowd "got the point" seed, but an enemy came at night and sowed poisonous weeds among the good plants. The owner of the field let the weeds and wheat grow together until harvest time, then gathered in the wheat separately from the tares, saving the wheat and burning the weeds.

The kingdom of heaven, Jesus said, was like a tiny mustard seed that, planted, would grow into a huge tree; or like a woman who took a small amount of leavening and put it into a mass of dough, and the whole mass was made light.

When the multitude were sent away, Christ went into a house and explained to His disciples the meaning of these parables. He also told them some other parables, first of a man who found a treasure, hid it in a field and then sold other possessions that he might buy the field. And

Then the Lord pointed out that when fishermen had filled their nets, they drew them to shore, then sat down, and sorted the catch, keeping the good, edible fish and throwing the others away.

Can we, when we hear a sermon or lesson, recognize the pearl, the treasure, or the good seed which, remembered and cherished, will help us to be fit to enter the kingdom of heaven? And will we, too, pass our knowledge on to those who have it not, and by our example aid others to spiritual grace?

The chapter ends sadly, with Jesus speaking in His home of Nazareth and being rejected by His former neighbors and friends. He said, "A prophet is not without honor, save in his own country, and in his own house."

Another parable of sowing seed was of a man who sowed good seed in his own house.

THE ANSWER IS GOD!

ANSWER THIS QUESTION

Am I My Brother's Keeper?

Those words do come from the Bible. And they have sometimes been quoted to justify a man's lack of concern for the welfare of others.

When we quote Scripture we must be careful WHOM we are quoting!

It was Cain, the first murderer, who asked that biting question. God had said, "Where is Abel, thy brother?" And Cain was trying to escape the consequences of his crime.

Each of us is responsible for his brother's welfare. That is the very reason this feature is appearing in your newspaper.

You and your family need the spiritual resources our churches offer. In whichever Christian congregation you select there are waiting to welcome you many men and women and young people whose faith has taught them a deep concern for their brothers.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Grady Wallace Gets Big Chance Tonight

By PETE PEDERSEN
The Associated Press

It's graceful Grady Wallace's turn to bid for the lead in the national college basketball scoring derby tonight.

The 6-4 South Carolina forward leads his teammates against Virginia in an Atlantic Coast Conference home game.

He needs one of his better nights if he's to close in on leader Chet Forte of Columbia and runner-up Wilt Chamberlain of Kansas.

Chet the Jet has an average of 30.18 points per game; The Still has 29.94 and Grady 29.90.

Wallace needs 36 points tonight to take the lead.

Wallace, a 170-pound senior, is noted for his graceful hook shots, his rebounding and defensive work. He led Gamecock scorers last year with a 23.9 mark and has been the mainstay of a so-so (11-9) team this season.

Forte and Chamberlain go into action tomorrow when Columbia visits Dartmouth and Kansas hits Missouri.

Action was in low key last night as most of the nation's leading teams rested for a strenuous weekend. In the Southern Conference, William and Mary brought its loop record to 6-7 by downing Virginia Military 83-66.

In the Skyline Conference, Denver staged a second-half comeback to trip Montana 55-53, and Utah used a late surge to overwhelm New Mexico 107-82.

The Dayton Flyers, enjoying one of the hottest streaks in college circles, breezed over Regis College of Denver 97-53 for their 10th victory in their last 11 games.

In the Southeastern Conference's lone outing, Georgia Tech bounced arch-rival Georgia 67-65 by erasing a 4-point deficit in the last three minutes.

St. John's of Brooklyn enhanced its prospects for an NIT bid by stopping Niagara 71-67, and Manhattan traced New York University 53-78.

College Heights Clinches Top Spot In City League

| Team | W | L | Pct. |
|-----------------|---|---|------|
| College Heights | 7 | 1 | .875 |
| East Ward | 4 | 3 | .571 |
| Washington Pl. | 4 | 3 | .571 |
| Kate Morrison | 3 | 4 | .429 |
| Park Hill | 3 | 4 | .429 |
| West Ward | 1 | 6 | .143 |
| North Ward | 1 | 6 | .143 |

Robert Wilson tossed in eight points and Tommy Gentry seven for the winners, Herman Wright and N. Truex each had five for North.

East Ward finished second by beating Washington Place, Park Hill won over Airport, 35-13, and Kate Morrison nudged West Ward in other games.

The games were moved up from Saturday morning.

Baseball Teams At Work In SWC

By The Associated Press

Texas University's baseball squad launches its bid to climb out of the Southwest Conference club Friday.

The Longhorns open practice with lettermen returning at all but one position. About 30 candidates are expected to turn out for the first drills.

Leading the returnees will be pitcher J. L. Smith, who was voted the most valuable player of the 1953 NCAA baseball tournament.

At Dallas, three newcomers will be making bids for starting pitcher assignments when Southern Methodist opens its baseball drills.

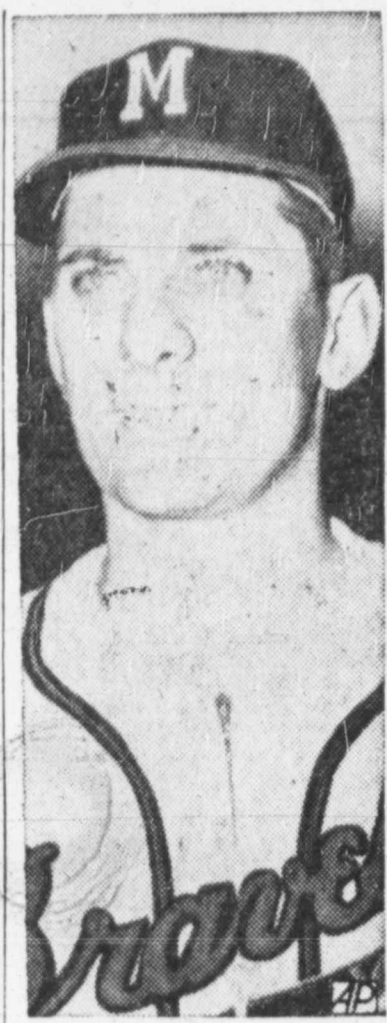

Carl Schlemmer, former Odessa High School star who was out last spring with a shoulder injury, and Marvin King and Paul Dean Jr., freshman veterans, will be making bids for starting assignments. Six lettermen will participate in the opening practice.

New Pro Football Loop Is Talked

BALTIMORE (AP)—A move to organize a new professional football league was launched today.

The backer, Millard Lang, 44, president of the Baltimore Rockets of the American Soccer League, has written letters to the mayors of 16 cities, inviting them to participate in the organization of the United States Football League.

The plan calls for a Northern Division consisting of Baltimore, New York, Buffalo, Boston, Cincinnati, Detroit, Milwaukee and Minneapolis. The Southern Division would have Miami, Atlanta, New Orleans, Louisville, St. Louis, Kansas City, Houston and Dallas.

To Detroit

Second Baseman Jack Dittmer, 29, above, was acquired by the Detroit Tigers from the Milwaukee Braves this week. Dittmer, who can play third base as well as second, hit .245 for the Braves in 1956 but played in only 44 games.

Sportsmen Approve Proposed License

HARLINGEN (AP)—A proposal now before the House which would require all fishermen to pay $2.15 a year for a license has won the approval of the Valley Sportsmen Club board of directors.

Board members said yesterday they would send copies of the resolution to all Valley legislators.

Licenses for fresh water fishing now cost $1.65. No license is necessary for salt water fishing.

"We've been asking the Game and Fish Commission for a lot of things and I think it is only fair that we should help finance their work," said Ed Cooper of Harlingen, past president and member of the board.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

Ted Sitton, Graham's new head football coach, played his high school ball under Big Spring's Carl Coleman at Stamford back in 1946 and '47.

Sitton was an end the first year Coleman was there. Carl moved him into the quarterback's slot his second year, with pleasing results. Carl recalls Sitton as the most deceptive signal-changer he ever tutored.

Ted was also quarterback on the ACC freshman club that met and vanquished Howard County Junior College's only team in history here in 1948.

He moved in as head coach at Graham when Bob Curry departed the post "for great security" in the Fort Worth public school coaching setup.

The Fort Worth coaches probably have less pressure on them than mentors in any other part of Texas. Perhaps that is one reason they do not always turn out the kind of clubs they could.

The local high school may come out with its poorest golf team in years and years, unless someone develops extraordinarily fast.

On the subject of golf, Munny Pro Junior Maxwell reports that 61 linksters played his course last Saturday and another 91 toured the layout the following day. Those totals do not include the members paying monthly dues who made the rounds.

The best weekend average on a 'pretty day' has been about 50, according to Junior.

It has been reported that Lake J. B. Thomas last year lost more than twice as much water via evaporation as it did through usage.

If that be the case, then the city could be making use of some of the idle liquid by providing the method for irrigating all the fairways.

The water fees would go up but the added revenue would more than pay the difference.

I like the story Tony Kaufman tells on himself about his days in the big leagues.

Tony enjoyed much success as a hurler. When he lost his sharpness, he was shunted to the bush leagues but was determined to return as a flycatcher. The New York Giants finally brought him back up but he couldn't hit big league pitching.

Despite his failures with the stick, he was sent up as a pinch hitter in a game with the Pirates in the Polo Grounds one afternoon. He bounced out to the infield.

Taking the batter's usual route back to the dugout after his failure to hit, Tony stopped at the water cooler.

He picked up a cup and as he was about to take a drink a fan in a nearby box roared excitedly: "Don't drink that, Kaufman! Don't drink that!"

The fan seemed so sincere that Kaufman hesitated, took the cup from his lips and asked the fan what was wrong.

"Why, your poor stiff, that water's for ball players," the fan replied, changing his voice inflection that time so that it showed no concern.

Johnnie Watson, the HCJC cager, played the game in high school against Jack Moreland, the Minden, La., nittie who brought the title of the Atlantic Coast Conference down upon North Carolina State. Watson was by Dayline, La., before coming out here.

Moreland recently transferred to Louisiana Tech, where the ex-HCJC star, Jim Knotts, is a regular. He'll be eligible four years there.

How's-that-again dept.: A report from out of Shreveport says that Ken Guettler's home run rampage in the Texas League last year was due mainly to the fact that the circuit switched to the "more lively" Rawlings ball. Previously, the TL teams had been using the Goldsmith 97 pellet.

When the Longhorn League used the Goldsmith 97 several years ago, it had so much rabbit in it you could hear the heart-beat.

Martinez Leads The Way Into GG Semi - Finals

FORT WORTH (AP)—Lightweight Jake Martinez of El Paso, the lone returning champion, leads the way tonight in the semifinals of the 21st annual Texas Golden Gloves Tournament.

Martinez outpointed Paul Sapient of Dallas in the quarterfinals last night. He held the edge all the way.

Finals will be staged Saturday night.

A pair of collegiate heavyweights staged one of the best quarterfinal bouts. Gene Babb of Austin College took a decision over Christian College.

Babb, representing the Greenville Regional Center, built up a lead with a fast-paced second round. Mania took the third. There were no knockdowns.

In another rousing battle, welterweight Bill McFarland of Amarillo floored Joel Martinez of Austin in the first and then fought his way to a decision.

In other bouts, Ray Fleming of Fort Worth scored an unpopular decision over Robert Espinosa of Odessa and Victor Grafio of Beaumont won his featherweight match over Willie Ballard of Fort Worth.

Babb tangles with Charles Milton of Fort Worth in the feature heavyweight bout tonight. Milton scored his second straight TKO last night by stopping Bill Lunsford in the third.

OU Trophy Case Adds Rice Cup

NORMAN, Okla. (AP)—Oklahoma's trophy case, already full to overflowing, has one more item in it today—the Grantland Rice Trophy, given to the nation's No. 1 football team.

The Sooners were presented the award yesterday by Tim Cobane, sports editor of Look Magazine, which sponsors the trophy in cooperation with the Football Writers Assn. of America.

At the same time, juniors Clendon Thomas and Don Stiller were named co-captains of the 1957 football team.

Hayes Making No Plans To Scout

DALLAS (AP)—Cautious Doc Hayes, Southern Methodist University basketball coach, said yesterday he is making no plans to scout the Kansas team.

"I don't think the conference race is over by a long way," Hayes said. His Mustangs, however, are two games in front of the pack with four games to play.

The Southwest Conference champion plays the Big Seven titlist in the first round of the NCAA west regional tournament at Dallas March 15. Kansas is expected to win the Big Seven title.

Shreveport Lands Seattle Hurler

SHREVEPORT (AP)—The Shreveport Sports have announced the purchase of lefthander Fred Baczewski, 30, from Seattle of the Pacific Coast League.

Baczewski had a 4-2 record for Vancouver of the Pacific Coast League last year. He pitched for Shreveport in 1949 and was sold to the Chicago Cubs. He returned to Shreveport in 1952 and helped the Sports take the Texas League playoff title.

Ancient Fossil Found In Cellar

MILTON, Pa. (AP)—It took nine years and a television program to arouse John Reich's curiosity about that piece of clay he uncovered while digging his cellar.

But now he knows. It's a fossil containing sea shell imprints and its about 320 million years old.

The American Museum of Natural History in New York City estimated the fossil's age in a letter to Reich, saying, "It was removed from its parent outcrop by glacial action approximately one million years ago."

Reich said he sent the fossil to the museum after seeing one of its films on television.

In Crucial Test Tonight

The HCJC Jayhawks (above) face the Clarendon JC Bulldogs in perhaps their biggest West Zone test of the season here tonight. The Hawks are now 2-3 within the conference. Another defeat would knock them out of the running. Left to right in the V, they are Jerry Hodges, Wick Pickett, Bob Richards, Tommy Black, Charles Clark, Johnnie Watson, Stan Williams, Bobby Wardell, Ernest Hayes, Alvin Cochran, Buddy Mayes, Al Kloven, Max McCulloch, Larry Glare, Gene Young and Mike Powell.

HC And Clarendon Vie Here Tonight

Their backs against the wall in West Zone play, the Howard County Junior College Jayhawks will try to return to winning ways in an 8 o'clock engagement here against the Clarendon JC Bulldogs. The Hawks got off to a great start in conference competition, winning their first two starts. However, they recently returned from a road trip which saw them lose all three games. The Big Springers weren't at full strength for any of the games. Had they been, perhaps they would now have an unblemished record against Zone foes. Coach Harold Davis had to rearrange his lineup when Charles Clark, the leading scorer, was dropped from the squad. The starting lineup is still imposing but the reserve power tails off badly. Probable starters for HCJC tonight are Mike Powell, Stan Williams, Al Kloven, Bobby Wardell and Johnnie Watson. Larry Glare, Alvin Cochran and Wick Pickett will be available for early relief chores.

Spider Webb Meets Neal Rivers In Ring Tonight

NEW YORK (AP) — Ellsworth (Spider) Webb and muscular Neal Rivers, a couple of well-traveled middleweight title contenders, make their Madison Square Garden debuts tonight with the streaking Spider a 12-5 favorite.

Webb, now a Chicago resident, puts a winning streak of 17 as well as his No. 4 ranking on the line against the hard-hitting youngster from Las Vegas. The 22-year-old Rivers is ranked eighth among the challengers for Gene Fullmer's 160-pound crown.

A nonwinning teammate of Floyd Patterson of the great U.S. Olympic boxing team of 1952, the 25-year-old Webb hopes to grab a pro boxing title just like Patterson did. He's been taking giant steps in that direction since his Army discharge. Winner of 12-1 record when tapped for service in 1953, the Spider has swept seven straight since resuming his boxing career last May. Rivers has a 32-5-1 record, including 19 kayos. He is ranked eighth.

NBC will broadcast and telecast at 9 p.m. Big Spring time.

Bill Meek Bound By New Contract

DALLAS (AP) — Bill Meek, Southern Methodist University's new football coach, is bound by his contract not to consider taking another coaching job for five years. Terms of Meek's 10-year contract signed Jan. 5 were revealed yesterday by SMU vice president Sterling F. Wheeler. The salary was not disclosed. The contract specifies that the former University of Houston coach will not talk with any other school regarding a coaching job for five years. If SMU wishes to retain him after five years and he wants to stay, he will be retained at his present salary for another five years.

HC Girls Win Over Cowgirls

ABILENE (SC)—HCJC's Jay Hawk Queens defeated the HSU Cowgirls, 25-17, in a volleyball exhibition here Thursday afternoon. The Big Spring team journeyed on to Fort Worth, where today it opens play in the Texas Wesleyan College tournament. Louise Burchett scored 13 points and Ester Bueno ten for HCJC. Gaye Nippert had six and Sandy Brown four for HSU. HCJC plays SMU at 2:30 p.m. today in the TWC Meet. The contest will be unrec'd on Court I of the Recreational building in downtown Fort Worth. In other first round games, TSCW of Denton opposes TWC, North Texas State College of Denton plays the PE Teachers of Fort Worth and TCU tries Baylor. Consolation and championship finals take place in the TWC Gym.

Local Lassies Trip Abilene

ABILENE (SC)—The Big Spring High school girls' volleyball team got off to a fast start in District 2-AAAA play here Thursday evening, defeating Abilene by scores of 15-3, 15-4. Earlier Abilene had topped San Angelo by 15-3, 15-10 tabs. Nita Farquhar and Freda Donica paced Big Spring in scoring, getting ten and nine points, respectively. Betty Adams had four for Abilene. The Big Spring B's also won, 15-1, 15-4, as Barbara Porch hit 11 points and Barbara Coffee ten for the winners. Linda Morrison counted three for Abilene. The Steerettes go to Imperial tomorrow for the annual Buena Vista tournament, meeting Lamesa in the second round. Both schools drew first round byes.

Bergstrom Winner Of AF Tournament

ALEXANDRIA (AP) — Bergstrom Air Force Base looked forward to its second trip to the Air Force's Southwest Conference as East Zone champion. Bergstrom, of Austin, Tex., repeated as East Zone titlist last night with an 87-84 victory over England AFB of Alexandria, La. England also earned a trip to the Southwest Conference tourney at Lackland AFB, San Antonio, Feb. 24-25.

Braves Could Abandon Base

ATLANTA (AP) — The Milwaukee Braves will close down their big baseball farm operation at Waycross if a racial bill passed yesterday by the Georgia Senate becomes law. John Mullen, Milwaukee farm director, said "we would simply have to pack up and leave Waycross" if the Georgia House passes and Gov. Marvin Griffin signs the measure, which would outlaw interracial athletics. Last year a similar bill died without coming to a vote. Another major league farm director, Bill McKechnie Jr., of the Cincinnati Redlegs, said if the bill is enacted "we'll abide by it." The Reds use Douglas, Ga., as the site for training six of their minor league clubs. "We would have to adopt a policy of segregation," said McKechnie, if the bill affects the teams that train at Douglas. The Redleg official indicated that his organization has no intention of moving out of its South Georgia training site. Other major league clubs with minor league training bases in Georgia are the St. Louis Cardinals at Albany and the Baltimore Orioles at Thomasville. A Cardinal official said "we don't make the laws, we merely abide by them," and declined to comment further on how the proposal, if written into law, would affect the club's operations at Columbus and Albany, Ga. There was no comment from Baltimore. The measure, written by Sen. Leon Butts, is admittedly aimed at driving Negro players from the Class A South Atlantic (Sally) League. Butts, a former University of Chattanooga football player, has told newsmen that his move was inspired largely by the use of Negro players at Columbus, a Sally member near his little home town of Lumpkin. The bill would prohibit race mixing on the practice field as well as in contests.

Playoffs Opened

COLLEGE STATION (AP)—Negro Class A and B high school basketball district champions open play for state titles here today. Playoffs for Class AA and AAA district champions will be held Feb. 22-23.

John Roseboro Could Succeed Bums' Campy

HAVANA (AP) — Brooklyn's long search for a "new Campanella" may have ended in John Roseboro, a young man from Ashland, Ohio, who is drawing rave notices from Caribbean baseball scouts. Roseboro, only 23, hit .338 with Caracas in the Venezuela Winter League and competed in the Caribbean series against Cuba, Puerto Rico and Panama. Last year he was a .273 hitter with 25 home runs at Montreal. "Roseboro is the No. 1 prospect I've seen any place," said Mickey Owen, who managed Mayaguez, the Puerto Rican League champions. "He can do all things big-run, hit and throw."

"Sure he can be another Campanella. He can do things Campanella can't do right now. He can run like an outfielder and on top of everything else, he's a left-handed hitter. That's something everybody needs, a left-handed hitting catcher with power." "If he was a free agent, I'd give $100,000 just to sign him up."

Owen, of course, has no chance to sign Roseboro, who is headed for the Dodger camp at Vero Beach, Fla. The Dodgers still carry Roseboro on the Portland roster in the Pacific Coast League but that's just for bookkeeping purposes. Clay Bryant, manager of the Dodger's Fort Worth farm in the Texas League, has had Roseboro under his wing for the past two winters in Venezuela. He managed him at Caracas this year. "In my opinion, he's ready right now," said Bryant before last night's final Caribbean Series game. "I'm really high on him and I've talked to Buzzie (Bavasi, Brooklyn vice president) about him quite often. "I think he can do it. He has all the tools to go all the way. He is the most outstanding catching prospect we've had in years with great speed and good power, but his receiving could be a little better. He has improved 100 per cent in the last year. "Of course if Campy is right, you know he's going to do the catching. But Roseboro is going to beat him quite a bit."

Four Big Spring Quints In Knott Semi-Finals

KNOTT (SC)—Finalists in the annual Knott Outsiders basketball tournament will be determined in games here tonight. The title goes on the line at 8:30 p.m. Saturday. Elliott's Drug plays McGibbon Oil Company at 8 o'clock this evening. Nabors Paint Store tries Tate-Bristow-Parks at 9 o'clock. All are Big Spring teams. In consolation round play, West Side Baptist squares off with Patricia Gil Company of Klondike at 6 p.m., while Garden City has it out with Mort Denton of Big Spring at 7 p.m. In games last night, Elliott's Drug raced past West Side Baptist, 72-30; McGibbon Oil Company trounced Klondike, 54-51, in the best game of the evening; Nabors Paint Store belted Garden City, 67-47; and Tate-Bristow-Parks kayoed Mort Denton Pharmacy, 59-30. Tommy Black proved unstoppable for the Elliott Drug team. He scored 36 points. Gerald Scott led him a big hand with 16 points. None of the Baptists hit more than ten points. R. Shaw and Ben Williams led the McGibbon Oil Company team to victory, scoring 15 and ten points, respectively. Harry Calverley hit 22 points and Delnor Pass 18 for Garden City but that team still took a drubbing at the hands of Nabors. Bill Bennett banged away for 22 points for Nabors. Buddy Mayes had 19 and Ray Crooks 17. Tate-Bristow-Parks trailed going into the last quarter, 41-36, in its game with Mort Denton but Charles Clark scored ten points in a torrid last period that brought the Insurers from behind. Bobby Maines of the Insurers led his team in scoring with 18 points, the same number counted by D. A. Miller of Mort Denton.

Joe Black Takes Early Lead In Texas Open

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — A couple of fellows who haven't shared a dime on the winter tour and an old campaigner playing on borrowed time led the $20,000 Texas Open into its second round today. On top was Joe Black, Abilene, Tex., who ripped Brackenridge Park's 6,490 yards for a 7-under-64 yesterday while some of the biggest guns of the links trail faltered badly. A stroke back was Bob Kay, West Hartford, Conn., who plays the tour only in the winter. Tied with Kay was the veteran Ed Furgol, who has won plenty in his career but right now is fighting time and a ripping arm muscle. Furgol hurt the arm in 1954 but has continued to play. He knows he will have to drop out any day now and have it sewed up but he's not about to stop until forced to. Ironically, it's his right arm, not his withered left arm. Black, former assistant professional at the Abilene Country Club and who once was a star player at Hardin-Simmons University, is making the tour for the second time. The 23-year-old shot-maker never has finished in the money and has earned this winter only $57 in a pro-amateur at Tucson. Such stars as Gene Littler, Singing Hills, Calif., the Texas Open champion last year, virtually shut themselves out of contention. Littler had a 76. Jack Burke, the PGA champion from Klamath Lake, N. Y., also got into trouble with a 72. Mike Souchak, the Grossinger's, N.Y., blaster who holds the Texas Open and PGA record of 257 for 72 holes, also had a 72. Jimmy Demaret, Klamath Lake, N. Y.; Johnny Palmer, Tulsa; Jimmy Walkup, Cleveland; and Wesley Ellis, Riverdale, N.J., were tied at 66. Cary Middlecoff, Dallas, the National Open champion, had a 67.

Coahoma Girls Oppose Roby

COAHOMA (SC)—The Coahoma girls have a glorious opportunity to bring new athletic honors to their school tonight when they host the Roby sextet in an important District 6-A game. The starting hour is 7 p.m. Winner of the contest emerges as the 6-A titlist. Each team carried an 8-1 won-loss record conference competition into action. Coahoma has lost only to Roby and that in an overtime period in Roby. Roby was upset by Stanton. Patty and Peggy Francis will be basket threats for the Bulldogs. Boys' teams of the two schools clash at 8 p.m.

CITY'S NEWEST CHURCH—CALVARY BAPTIST Edgar Ray, Rev. J. E. Eastham, T. J. Mitchell check sign

Calvary Baptist Church Organized

Organization of Big Spring's newest church — the Calvary Baptist — was completed Thursday evening.

Eighteen persons were listed on the membership rolls of the church, which will be co-operating with churches which compose the Baptist Missionary Association of Texas.

Several out-of-town ministers were present to assist in the organization of the church. The Rev. Jimmie E. Eastham, who is supplying the pulpit, is to preach at both morning and evening services on Sunday.

The congregation has acquired the property formerly held by the Main Street Church of God at 10th and Main Streets.

At the first meeting of a congregation, the church voted to give 10 per cent of its general church offerings to foreign and home missions, benevolences and Christian education.

Among those who were listed as charter members were Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Eastham, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Ray, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Watkins, Glenda Watkins, Peggy Watkins, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hunt, Larry Hunt, Sharon Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Qualls, Jo Ann Watkins, and Joyce McChristian.

In addition to ministers here from Lamesa, Lubbock, Midland, Odessa, and Amarillo, the Rev. Don Noshoro of Tokyo, Japan, a student in Jacksonville College, was present.

Mrs. Stewart Dies Of Attack

Mrs. C. H. Stewart, 59, died on the way to a hospital after suffering a heart attack at her home, 206 Austin, this morning.

Nalley-Pickler Funeral Home will ship the body to Atlanta this evening. Funeral services will be conducted there, but arrangements are incomplete.

Mrs. Stewart was born April 28, 1897, in Dolph, Kans. She was a member of the Church of Christ at 11th and Birdwell.

Survivors include her husband, C. H. Stewart of Big Spring; a son, Norman Finlayson of Linden; four sisters, Mrs. Della Hargett of Avery, Mrs. Cassie Stewart of Dolph, Mrs. Irene McWilliams of Atlanta and Grace Burns of Hammond, La.; and two brothers, Bill Burns of Atlanta and Thomas Burns of Los Angeles, Calif.

Lamesa Buys Site For Wells

LAMESA — Mayor Bob Crawley reported Thursday that the city has exercised its option to purchase the W. E. Bartlett farm, four miles north of Lamesa.

The city paid $48,000 for the 160 acres, to develop it for water. The city also has an option to lease water rights from Wisely Wells, who owns the adjoining farm, at $10,000 per year.

Lamesans will vote Feb. 26 on a $240,000 water bond issue, $10,000 sewer extension bond issue, and a $50,000 fire station and equipment bond issue.

After Thursday's transaction, there is only about $12,000 left from an earlier bond issue. The city paid $18,000 cash, and borrowed $30,000 on a short term basis to pay for the farm.
