CAPTURE OF MALOLOS

Philippine Capital Taken Without Much Resistance.

Aguaibon Retreats and Is Supposed to Have Gone to San Fernando.
Some Natives Returning.

Manila, April 4.—The American flag was raised over Malolos at 10 o'clock Friday morning. The Kansas and Montana regiments on entering the city found it deserted, the presidencia burning and the rebels retreating towards the mountains in a state of terror. It is believed they cannot in the future make even a faint resistance.

General Hall's brigade advanced from Marquina up the Mateo river valley toward Mantalban, driving the enemy to the hills on the north. The rebels were considerable in force at the junctions of the rivers Nampa and Ampite with the Mateo, but the American artillery soon scattered them with heavy loss. The Americans lost one killed, Lieutenant Greer of the Fourth Infantry. General Hall eventually returned to the waterworks.

The only prisoners captured were a few Chinamen. They said Aguinaldo left Malolos on Wednesday. The principal citizens of Malolos, with their families and goods had been taken to the country on the north, while others departed on the south, carrying their possessions and driving cattle and other animals before them.

Most of the rebel forces were removed Thursday evening to positions east of the railroad, leaving only some small bands in strong trenches in front of Malolos.

General MacArthur started for the rebel capital at 7 o'clock Friday morning with two rapid fire guns flanking the track, two guns of the Utah battery to the right and two guns of the Sixth artillery to the left. The Kansas and Montana regiments moved upon Malolos and the Nebraska and Pennsylvania regiments and the Third artillery kept along the right of the railroad.

The only effective stand made by the rebels was in houses eastwards half a mile from Malolos and on the right where the Nebraska regiment, as was the case Thursday, had the hardest work and suffered the greatest loss.

Colonel Funston, always in the front, was the first man in Malolos, followed by a group of dashing Kansans.

The Filipino flag, which was flying from the corner of the town, was hoisted down the main street of the Malolos regiment triumphantly raised their own above it.

From reports gathered by American officers from prisoners and others, it is believed the rebel army is constantly losing strength by desertions and that, although the enemy may make one or two more stands, the forces of Aguinaldo will degenerate, and soon get down to a few hundreds, who may continue to rage a guerrilla warfare in the mountains.

The American troops behaved splendently. They advanced steadily against successive lines of trenches, through woods and jungles, suffering from frightful heat. In addition the American volunteers were handicapped in fighting by the fact that their Springfield rifles are shorter range than the Maunder rifles, in the hands of the rebels.
Under those circumstances the steady advance of our troops was really a remarkable achievement. But the most noteworthy feature of this onward sweep of Americans is the patience and endurance of private soldiers. They never hesitate to plunge across any kind of difficult country, against any number of the enemy, and face positions entirely unknown to them.

Natives Returning to Their Homes.

Manila, April 4.—Natives continue in returning to their homes. They are coming in all along the American lines and many of them on seeing the promises of good treatment are fulfilled are inducing their relatives to return to their homes.

Major General Ellwell S. Otis, commander having arrived heroically discussing the situation. The commissioners Admiral Dewey: "Hearty congratulations on the magnificent work of the army."

The United States Philippine commissioner, the last member of that body, Col.
Charles Denby, formerly minister to China, having arrived heroically discuss-

THAT RECEIVERSHIP.

Railroad Officials Underestimated the Cost, Causing the Trouble.

Kansas City, April 4.—The bonds of the receivers, Robert Gillham, E. L.
Martin and J. M. D. Triamble, appointed for the Kansas City, Pittsburg and Gulf railway Saturday night and fixed at $25,000 each, was approved here by Judge James Gibson. The National Surety company gave the bond.

President A. E. Stillwell expressed the opinion Monday that the receivership would not be overturned by the Federal courts; an attempt, it has been stated, would be made shortly by eastern interests.

One of the officers of the company who declined to let his name be used, said:
"The receivership is due to a mistake in the financial plans of the company.
Provisions were made for only $150,000 a mile for the equipment, when it should have been $200,000 a mile. As a result over $200,000 had to be taken out of the treasury, which should have been applied to the interest fund. Money to pay interest had to come out of the earnings and this is why the road was forced to the wall. Last month the road made $225,000 against $275,000, a year ago. Every ton moved in January cost only 3 1/2 mills a mile, which is a record equalled by no other road in the west. There was no necessity for a re-ceivership of the road as far as the earning capacity of the road was concerned."

MURDER IN OKLAHOMA.

At Ponca City Clyde Mattox Stabbed to Death Lincoln Swiney.

Ponca City, O. T., April 4.—Clyde Mattox killed Lincoln Swiney, an Osage ranchman, here in a saloon during a quarrel in which Swiney was the aggressor. Mattox used a knife on his assaultant.

The career of Mattox is one of the most colorated in the southwest. In 1891, when a boy he killed a negro in a quarrel, was tried in the Federal district court here and sentenced to death.
He escaped from jail in 1893, was captured and sent to the penitentiary. His mother, Mrs. S. W. Hatch, after vainly spending a fortune in his behalf, appealed to President Cleveland, who finally commuted Mattox's sentence to life imprisonment. A second appeal made in person to President McKinley resulted in a pardon.

FIRST TEXAS BOYS.

They Have Gone Into Camp Awaiting to Be Mustered into
The Regulars.

Galveston, April 4.—The camp of the First Texas regiment located at the eastern end of the government reception, back of the gun battery, at the city beach and at the foot of Forty-fifth street, has been christened Camp Egbert.

The camp was named in honor of the late Colonel Harry C. Egbert of Twenty-second regular infantry, who fell at the head of his command in the Philippines on March 25.

The tents were brought out to the camp early Monday morning and the work of pitching camp was commenced and continued till the canvased topped houses were all ready for occupancy.

Preparations for mustering out the men is progressing rapidly. The rolls are nearly completed and accounts computed and registered and checked.

Presented With a Sword.

San Francisco, April 4.—The crew of the battleship Iowa, now lying at this port, have presented Captain Robley D.
Evans, who commanded the Iowa in Cuban waters during the war with Spain, with a handsome sword. The sword bears the inscription:

Presented to Captain Robley D.
Evans, United States navy, by the crew of the United States ship Iowa.

On the reverse side are the words:
"To our hero—too just to take a fallen foe, we give this sword instead."

These words refer to Captain Evans' captain's sword when it was offered to him by the commander, who was brought on board the Iowa after the battle of Santiago.

TO DESTROY COUNTERFEIT.

More Than a Billion Dollars Has Accumulated at Washington.

Washington, March 22.—Preparations are being made by Chief Wilkie, of the secret service, to destroy $1,221,396,988 worth of counterfeit coin and bogus notes which have been accumulated by his bureau. Of this amount $117,243 represent United States treasury notes, silver certificates, bank notes and fractional currency; $10,021 is in the imitation of gold, silver, nickel and copper coin. The balance of this sum is in imitation of various other obligations and securities, including far similes of Tennessee state warrants, Missouri defense bonds, state bank notes and "flash" notes.

When spurious coin and notes, together with the counterfeiters' outfit, are captured an inventory is taken of them and they are properly labeled and boxed until the time arrives for them to be destroyed. The paper money will be macer-ated by the same machinery which is used in destroying worn out genuine notes, but the metal will be sent to a private foundry here and melted. Many counterfeiters are now serving long terms in the penitentiaries for making this money.

BRAVE COLONEL FUNSTON.

He Had a Record Even Before He Entered in the Volunteer Army.

Kansas City, April 3.—Colonel Frederick Funston of the Twentieth Kansas Infantry, who with a handful of soldiers, was the first man to enter Malolos, and whose brilliant record since the Philippine campaign, opened, has attracted much attention, is a son of an Congressman Funston, of the Second Kansas district.

In his earlier days Funston worked as a reporter on the Fort Smith Tribune.
During President Harrison's administration he was sent to Alaska by the government on a hunt for specimens and had many thrilling experiences, demonstrating his prowess. He made a canoe trip alone 900 miles up the Yukon.

In the fall of 1894 Funston went to Cuba and enlisted in the Cuban army.
For two years he fought valiantly for the cause of the insurgents. At one time he was commissioned a colonel and he commanded the entire artillery forces under General Garcia. He fired the first dynamite gun used by the Cubans in their war against the Spanish and was in many severe battles.

On one charge he received a bullet just below the heart which penetrated his body. He returned to Kansas and had barely recovered from his wound when Governor Leedy appointed him colonel of the Kansas regiment. Last fall Col.
Funston was called to Florida and gave General Miles many points of value regarding Cuba.

Colonel Funston's friends have urged him for appointment as brigadier general and his name has been prominently mentioned as a gubernatorial candidate.
Colonel Funston is 33 years of age.

NO LAW TO PUNISH.

A Self Confessed Murderer Ordered Released by Judge Springer.

Vinita, E. T., April 3.—Judge Springer in a bold case proceedings, brought by William Mills charged with murder, has ruled there is no court in the Indian Territory with jurisdiction over crimes committed in the Cherokee Nation before the abolition of the tribal courts, if the criminal and his victim were members of the Cherokee tribes.

Mills, who is Cherokee and confessed to the murder of his wife, was ordered discharged.

Germany Will Accept.

Berlin, April 3.—A correspondent here of the Associated Press learns authoritatively that after the meeting minister of foreign affairs, Baron Von Richthofen, had been despatched with the emperor United States Ambassador White passed an hour at the foreign office. It is generally believed an understanding has been reached which is likely to bring about an amicable and satisfactory solution of the whole Samoan difficulty. It is understood that while the United States and Great Britain have steadily declined to accept Germany's two proposals, the new one has been accepted by all three powers.

According to a high German official the American explanation has been found to be satisfactory, and Germany has accepted the proposal to send a commission to investigate the Samoan affair.
