Gulley found dead a mile from home

Gulley, 77, was found dead Sunday morning in a drainage ditch about a mile from the home he shared with his daughter, Becky Ott, and her family in the Flagg area.

Investigating Sheriff's Deputy Glen Snitker surmised that the elderly man may have collapsed from stress due to the cold weather and possible exhaustion. He was found almost covered with snow near his car, a 1983 El Camino, which was high centered over the drainage ditch where he was found.

Gulley's body was discovered by his son, Larry Gulley, who had reported the man missing late Saturday night.

Larry Gulley told Snitker that Elton had been seen last at about 10:30 p.m. Friday as family members were retiring for the night. Sat-were gone. According to the report, Elton's grandson thought that Elton had driven over to Larry's residence in Springlake to go to Clovis, N.M., with him.

When Larry came home Saturday between 9:30 and 10 p.m., he called Ott's residence to check on Elton and found out that he was missing. The family began calling around to see if anyone had seen Elton, and finally called the Sheriff's Office at about 11:30 p.m.

Larry told Snitker that Elton had been ill the past few days and also had a history of heart trouble, having a pacemaker and taking medication for his heart. Larry also recalled that Elton had seemed disoriented Friday morning and had been asking for his wife, who died in 1989.

Larry said that Elton had not

Castro County resident Elton urday morning, Elton and his car taken his medication with him or his wallet. He surmised that Elton may have gone to the cemetery in Muleshoe to visit his wife's grave.

Snitker requested that a missing person teletype be issued, and he patrolled the southwest part of the county, looking for Elton, who had lived in the Sunnyside area for about 10 years before moving in with Ott about a year ago. Snitker also entered Elton into the NCIC computer system as an endangered missing person, due to his health history and the weather conditions, which included blowing snow, rain and sleet, with temperatures in the teens and 20s.

Sunday morning Larry found Elton about a mile north-northeast of Ott's residence, two miles west of Flagg on FM 1524 then one mile south on CR 506, then a tenth of a (Continued on Page 2)

Perez dies in one-vehicle crash Saturday

Daniel Perez, 33, of Dimmitt, died Saturday from injuries he received in a one-vehicle crash 6.1 miles north of Littlefield on US 385.

Dept. of Public Safety Trooper Billy Spears of Littlefield reported that Perez was ejected from a 1997 Chevrolet pickup as it rolled over into a field after sliding across the roadway. It was reported that the driver, Luis Garibaldy, 39, of Arlington, lost control of the northbound vehicle due to icy road conditions. The crash happened at about 8:10 a.m.

Garibaldy and another passenger, Damian Martinez, 19, of Dimmitt, both were treated and released at Lamb Health Care Hospital in Littlefield.

"Usually, the award goes to an outstanding person in a district who has done something spectacular," said Patti Payne, who was on the awards committee. "This award went to all three of these men in recognition of how they work together, promote our industry, and take care of each other at the same time.

"In particular, their work on the boll weevil contract this year was noted, the way they helped each other out. That is not normally how competitors work," Payne said. "We're proud of them and to be able to say they belong to our industry."

Award winners are nominated by all of the association's membership, then all the nominations are collected by the award committee.

"We usually don't get a lot of nomination forms, but these three walked away with it," Payne said. "I think this is the neatest award I have ever presented. It was an honor to be able to do it."

Letter 'Energy help is requested'

Dear Editor:

This is a copy of a letter that was sent to Ann Veneman, newly appointed Secretary of Agriculture:

Dear Madam Secretary:

As you know, agriculture is the backbone of our economy, and right now we are in big trouble.

Cheap commodity prices, lack of a good export policy, and now high energy costs are threatening our very livelihood.

On behalf of Texas Corn Growers, American Corn Growers, and the West Texas Energy Users, we are asking you and President Bush to institute an emergency supplementary payment to farmers for energy-primarily natural gas to farmers who are faced with high energy prices.

Normally we are not in favor of government payments, but right now we see no other way out of this dilemma.

We would like to see a new farm bill that would give us a better shot at markets. We just want our cost of production back and to make a little profit.

This energy crisis is so bad now, many producers can't remain in business unless something is done soon.

We need this supplement for irrigation crops, grazing, hauling and harvest expenses.

Thanking you in advance for your efforts regarding this important matter,

CARL L. KING

Another energy-saving feature to look for in a new furnace is a unit with a variable-speed motor. Furnaces with variable speed motors can cut your energy costs because they consume less electricity than standard motors. Zoning Zoning can drastically lower your heating costs. With zoning, you no longer have to pay to heat or cool areas of your home that are rarely used. You won't have to heat or cool the whole house just to make one room comfortable. Zoning divides your home into separate comfort areas, which are heated or cooled based on your needs.

Programmable thermostats

Programmable or setback thermostats can make a big difference in energy consumption. These thermostats deliver maximum comfort, efficiency, and energy savings. Setback thermostats are used to achieve the temperatures you want throughout your home. For example, if you're going to be away, you can set the whole house at an energy-saving temperature to avoid heating an empty house. If you have setback thermostats, you can program them to have your living areas comfortable when you arrive home.

Your heating contractor can help you select the best furnace for your home and help you determine potential energy savings.

Ellis and Summers attend breast feeding workshop

Two nurses from the Castro County Hospital District recently completed a three-day workshop on clinical breast feeding assistance, sponsored by Mercy Health Center in Oklahoma City, Okla.

Attending the workshop were Cindy Ellis, registered nurse; and Patty Summers, licensed vocational nurse.

In addition to participating in the workshop which addressed the normal course of lactation, Ellis and Summers completed an assessment and problem solving practicum, and an examination addressing usual circumstances and common challenges with breast feeding. They were awarded certification as breast feeding educators.

Certification is an added credential that recognizes increased clinical competence in the field of breast feeding assistance.

Castro County Hospital District has two certified breast feeding educators.

Today, most mothers breast feed. Employed mothers, mothers at home, mothers of premature or ill infants and mothers in a variety of special situations choose breast feeding because of its numerous benefits.

Scientific investigations have recently identified significant benefits of breast feeding which include increased intelligence, protection against childhood infections, diabetes, liver disease, certain types of cancers, allergies, immune system disorders and sudden infant death syndrome. Mothers who breast feed have a reduced incidence of breast cancer and osteoporosis.

mother-to-daughter teaching and assistance is less available since there is a generation of grandmothers who primarily bottle-fed their babies. Increased geographic mobility among extended families further decreases assistance available to new mothers.

The conference was developed by Debi Bocar, RN, MS, MEd, Certified Lactation Consultant. She noted that families who would benefit most from breast feeding, breast feed least often.

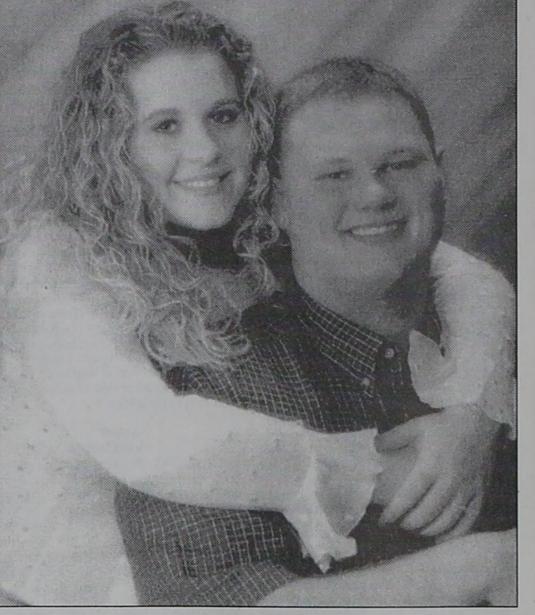

She shared strategies to encourage mothers to breast feed and assist them in a variety of special family circumstances. She identified techniques to teach families the basics of breast feeding while they are in birth settings for shorter and shorter stays.

"Practical assistance from knowledgeable health care providers is critical to get breast feeding off to a good start. Experts must also be available for telephone assistance, home health care, and out-patient consultations to help mothers overcome common challenges during the first few weeks," emphasized Bocar.

Certified breast feeding educators are qualified to assist families to meet their breast feeding goals.

The Castro Masonic Lodge No. 879 A.F. & A.M. held its stated meeting on Jan. 15.

Boyce Carter, Castro Lodge secretary, reported that he and Richard Berquist delivered 19 poinsettias to the widows of lodge members, a common practice for the local lodge each year at Christmas.

The new District Deputy Grand Master of the 100th District of the Grand Lodge of Texas, A.F. & A.M. is Marshall M. Langford of Dimmitt, and he made his official visit at the meeting. Langford informed lodge members of a request from the Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Texas.

Langford attended the Grand Lodge meeting in Waco at the end of November and first part of December. He said a large number of members were present, with representation from all lodges in Texas. Langford represented the local lodge.

The Grand Master installed Langford at that meeting and he will now represent District 100 of the Grand Lodge of Texas, which includes lodges in Dimmitt, Vega, Hereford, Friona and Bovina.

Langford presented a special plaque from the Castro Lodge to the Hereford Lodge. The award was for the service performed by Hereford Lodge members for the Castro County Lodge, including performing degrees, training officers and candidates, performing funerals and other things needed.

"They have done an outstanding job," Langford said.

Accepting for Hereford were Cliff Jones, District Instructor of the 100th District of the Grand Lodge of Texas, and Fred Ruland, a member of the Hereford Lodge.

The Castro Lodge also presented a scholarship to a member of the Dimmitt High School graduating class last year.

The Castro Lodge is composed of members from Dimmitt, Hart and Nazareth. Anyone who wishes to become a Mason may ask any member for an application.

Masonry is represented by the Shriner's Crippled Children's Hospitals, which care for children at no charge to the families. Other projects include an orphanage and school in Fort Worth; a senior home; the Shriner's Circus; East-West Shrine Football Game; Scottish Rite Hospital of Dallas; and a blood drive.

Xcel Energy earns Utility of Year award

Xcel Energy, the parent company of Southwestern Public Service, has been named Utility of the Year in 2000 by Electric Light & Power magazine.

Xcel Energy "has demonstrated financial integrity, sound management, innovation, diversification-and perhaps most important in remaining competitive-has remained financially conservative while still taking advantage of opportunity," according to an article in the January edition of Electric Light & Power.

The magazine's Utility of the Year award, introduced in 1969, recognizes a utility's exemplary performance in areas such as finance, investor relations, operating efficiency and market competitiveness.

"This award recognizes the hard work by thousands of employees to accomplish a successful merger," said Wayne Brunetti, president and chief executive officer of Xcel Energy. "This merger puts us in a strong position to compete both nationally and globally in the new century.

Xcel Energy was formed last August by the merger of Minneapolisbased Northern States Power Co. and Denver-based New Century Energies. NCE was the product of an earlier merger between Public Service Co. of Colorado, based in Denver, and Southwestern Public Service Co., based in Amarillo.

Last summer's merger created the fourth-largest combination utility in the United States, with regulated

"It isn't a typical question growers ask when buying seed, but it's an extremely important one this season.

USDA has said that no Cry9C corn would be sold or grown in 2001," said Fred Yoder of Plain City, Ohio, chairman of the National Corn Growers Association (NCGA) corn board's biotechnology working group.

The message is simple: Verify before you buy.

This information will be readily available from seed companies. In late December, USDA recommended that seed companies sample and test all hybrid seed lots and all seed parent lines for the presence of information to customers when they ask for it.

"It is also very important that producers pay close attention to seed that may have Cry9C, that was stored to be re-used this season. Every corn grower needs to take reasonable precautions to avoid having StarLink appear in the 2001 crop," said TCPB Chairman Joe Reed.

Insisting on the USDA-recommended seed testing plan is the first step in assuring the integrity of the 2001 harvest," Yoder added.

New propane safety rules to become effective today use of propane will go into effect installed at new facilities. Existing today (Thursday).

The Texas Railroad Commission has adopted National Fire Protection Association (NFPA) 58 rules in a move to bring the state's liquified petroleum gas (LP-gas) safety rules in line with national standards.

While NFPA 58 rules and current state rules are similar in many respects, propane license holders should become familiar with differences in the areas of distance requirements, bulk storage, vehicles, cylinder filling, nameplates and administration.

Some examples of NFPA 58 safety rule changes are:

♦ 1-1/4 inch or larger liquid and vapor openings in stationary storage containers at new facilities with a water capacity over 4,000 gallons must be equipped with pneumatically-operated internal valves. Containers at existing applicable facilities will have five years to install the valves.

 Pneumatically-operated emergency shut-off valves must be installed at new facilities with a water capacity over 4,000 gallons. Cableoperated emergency shut-off valves may remain in LP-gas service unless the valve is replaced, at which time a pneumatic emergency shut-off valve will have to be installed.

♦ Vertical bulkheads will continue to be required for stationary facilities with a water capacity over 4,000 gallons. Horizontal bulkhead may remain in LP-gas service unless the bulkhead is replaced at which time a vertical bulkhead must be installed.

New rules governing the sale and tors 3/4 of an inch and over must be rubber flexible connectors will have to be replaced with stainless steel connectors by Feb. 1, 2003.

> In addition to safety rule changes, all propane licensees in Texas will be required to take continuing education courses as part of their ongoing safety training. The first phase of continuing education will cover certain holders of management-level and employee-level certificates in the areas of delivery truck, service and installation, cylinder filling and motor/mobile fuel dispenser operations.

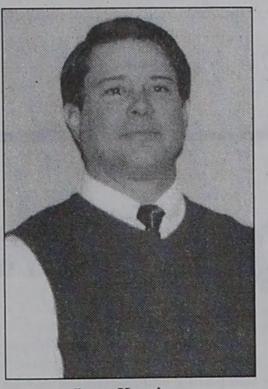

Continuing education requirements are set to go into effect on March 1.

Regulation of propane, compressed natural gas and liquified natural gas to protect public safety falls within the jurisdiction of the Texas Railroad Commission. Anyone who works with propane, liquified or compressed natural gas must first qualify for a license by passing a written exam proving they know the laws and regulations.

There are approximately 3,000 licensed propane dealers, retailers and wholesalers in Texas.

The Railroad Commission also is responsible for LP-gas training in Texas. Since Sept. 1, 1997, the commission has trained more than 6,900 LP-gas company managers, employees and fleet customers on topics related to LP-gas safety and compliance with applicable standards and rules.

For more information regarding NFPA rule changes, propane license holders can contact Byron Caffey in the Texas Railroad Commission's ◆ Stainless steel flexible connec- LP-gas section at (512) 463-6931.

Cotton talks

By SHAWN WADE

Growing speculation that benefits from the 2000 crop disaster program will be significantly delayed by the Bush Administration's halt of lastsecond Clinton-era rule making is not accurate.

Plains Cotton Growers' check of the situation shows that a lack of focus by the outgoing administration, a five-week delay in election results and even USDA's own multi-layer approval process have combined to slow down the final approval of crop disaster program rules; however, the delay shouldn't amount to anything significant compared with the approval timeline for past programs.

It is anticipated that any delay that does occur won't be nearly as long as many fear.

The new administration and Secretary of Agriculture Ann Veneman appear to be trying to complete the approval process as quickly as possible so that the rules can be published and checks issued.

Growers with early appointments to figure crop disaster program eligibility and benefits may have to wait a short time before they actually receive a check. The delay shouldn't be too long, though.

The bottom line is that growers will continue to participate in the crop disaster program sign-up process while the rules are receiving final approval from USDA.

All growers should receive an entitlement report that shows how much assistance they will receive when checks are released following publication of the rules in the Federal Register.

Some patience may be required from producers as the process moves forward, although the time frame shouldn't be as long as many currently fear.

Early indications that Texas cotton growers would be shut out of the chance to purchase crop insurance at levels above 75% have proven false. This week, the Risk Management Agency announced that 80 and 85% coverage will be offered to Texas cotton growers in 2001. Plains Cotton Growers welcomed the announcement and noted that their discussion over the past few weeks reiterated the need to make coverage available so growers could decide whether or not it was costeffective.

Coverage above 75% is still relatively expensive, but the Risk Management Agency's decision means that growers will have an opportunity to consider these higher levels when making risk management decisions for 2001.

Last year's crop insurance reform bill could move many growers up the ladder in terms of their insurance coverage levels.

Growers, landlords and those involved in the agriculture industry interested in hearing the latest news and views on issues ranging from moisture management to marketing and economics should plan to attend the 2001 Southwest Crops Production Conference and Expo.

The conference will be held Feb. 13 at the Lubbock Memorial Civic Center. Registration is free and begins at 8 a.m. Lunch will be provided.

Everyone who pre-registers for the conference will be entered in a drawing for a Remington 1100 12-gauge management).

Topics which will be covered at the conference include long-range weather and pest outlooks, and production tips.

Conference highlights will include a legislative update from John Maguire with the National Cotton Council in Washington, D.C.; and a panel discussion focusing on strategies for profitability in 2001 featuring growers Danny Davis of Elk City, Okla., James Hinton of Floydada and Dale Swinburn of Tulia.

Also scheduled to speak is Texas Boll Weevil Eradication Foundation Executive Vice President Lindy Patton, who will give a report on the status of eradication activities in Texas.

Continuing education units (CEU) for licensed pesticide applicators and crop consultants will be offered. Pesticide applicators can receive four CEUs from TDA (2 general, 1 integrated pest management (IPM) and 1 laws and regulations). Certified crop advisors can receive 4.5 CCA credits (1.25 pest management and 3.25 crop

Bobbies 48, Shallowater 49

The Bobbies' offensive strategy was to challenge Shallowater's towering defense inside, get the Fillies into foul trouble and win it at the free throw line.

The plan almost worked here Tuesday night as the smaller Bobbies took the Fillies to the wall before losing a 49-48 heartbreaker.

Robertson tied it up with a pair of free throws with 6:19 left in the game, and two minutes later she gave scooped up a knocked-loose ball and Five Dimmitt players finished in put up a nifty 12-foot field goal.

It was by far the closest call that the No. 4-ranked Fillies have had in District 2-3A play. But the Bobbies didn't want to play a close game; they wanted to win it, and were bitterly disappointed when they didn't. The Bobbies took the lead with 4:25 left in the fourth quarter and held it until Shallowater's Heather Parmenter scored from underneath with five seconds left to give the Fillies their one-point victory.

Although they sank only two field goals in the first quarter, the Bobbies stayed within three points at 12-15 with 7-of-7 shooting from the freethrow line while allowing the Fillies a single freebie.

The Fillies turned the tables in the second quarter, though, sinking 8/9 free throws to Dimmitt's 2/4 to stretch their lead to 32-22 at halftime.

Shallowater continued to hold a 10and 12-point lead during the first three minutes of the third quarter, but then Dimmitt mounted an 11-1 run on a pair of field goals by Tamara Robertson and five of six free throws by Robertson, Shayla Kenworthy and Heather Black. By the end of the third quarter, the Bobbies had cut the Fillies' lead to two points, 39-37.

24 points from all over, was the only Dimmitt player to score in double figures. Fabela was Dimmitt's second-high scorer with 9, while Heather Black contributed 6. For Shallowater, Pounds-a 6-0 freshman guard-finished with 23 and Parmenter with 15.

"Our girls did just exactly what they planned to do, and worked the game plan just as well as they could," a disappointed Coach Tim Gilliland said after the game. "We were there. It was our game to win or lose. It was a tough one to lose."

He added, "We wanted that one really bad. That made it hurt even more. We were ready to play, and we had every chance in the world."

The lost left the Bobbies tied for second place in the district with a 5-3 mark, with two games to play against Muleshoe and Cooper, both of whom they have beaten earlier.

Dimmitt cruises at Roosevelt

Bobbies 61, Roosevelt 47

The Bobbies continued to show improvement Friday night with an impressive 61-47 win at Lubbock Roosevelt.

The victory represented a 17-point turnaround for the Bobbies, who had lost to the Lady Eagles here in their first meeting, 40-43.

The victory also rejuvenated the Bobbies' playoff hopes, putting them back into second place in District 2-3A behind Shallowater.

Dimmitt gained a five-point lead in the first quarter, 16-11, but lost it in the second as Roosevelt battled back to close it to 26-25 at halftime.

It was in the third period that the Bobbies took control with an 18-6 run.

After Roosevelt's Alisha Castilleja opened the second half with a back-door layup to put the Lady Eagles ahead by 27-26, Tamara Robertson started Dimmitt's run with a 10-ft, clean-up basket from the lane, then continued to lead the charge with 12 points in the third, including two-of-two free throws and a pair of three-pointers-the last one coming with 0:01 left in the quarter after a 30-second stall ...

"I think I just had a hot hand-I could feel it," said Robertson, who finished with a game-high 24 points. By the end of the third, the Bobbies had a commanding 44-31 lead, and they built it to 59-40 before the Lady Eagles fought back with seven points in the final minute.

Stacy Saenz led Dimmitt's firstquarter scoring with six points and finished with 10, while Heather Black scored 10 also, including sixof-six free throws.

It was free throws that made all the difference in the score. The Bobbies sank 80% of their free shots (20 of 25, including 11 of 12 in the fourth), while the Lady Eagles managed only four of nine.

"We were just determined to beat them this time," Robertson said. "It feels good."

In the junior varsity girls' game, the JV Bobbies walloped their Roosevelt counterparts, 56-18. Caitlin Buckley was Dimmitt's high scorer with 19.

Bobcats 86, Roosevelt 73

A scary thing happened to the Bobcats on their way to a blowout at Lubbock Roosevelt Friday night.

The Eagles mounted a second-half insurrection that cut an 18-point Dimmitt lead to 10 in the third and 8 in the fourth before the Bobcats pulled out an 86-73 win in a fiercely fought contest.

It was the highest score of the season for the Bobcats, who were averaging 62 points per game while giving up an average of 54.

The Eagles' 73-point total was the second-highest against the Bobcats this year. Amarillo High is the only other team to have scored more than and 59-49, in the waning seconds of 70.

double figures. Dee Norman burned the nets for 27 points while Daniel Proffitt netted 18, Austin Sherman 15, Matthew Wright 11 and Marcus Larra 10.

Brent Josselet and Matthew Sandoval, the team's two "sixth men," were the only other Bobcats to see action in the scoring fest. Josselet scored four points and Sandoval one.

The No. 6-ranked Bobcats appeared to have the situation in hand as they outscored the Eagles 24-12 in the first quarter and 15-9 in the second to take a 39-21 lead to the locker room.

But in a furious third quarter, the Eagles (12-12, 3-1) rang up 28 points, including a 10-4 run to start the quarter.

There was a lot of hand-checking as Roosevelt mounted a much tougher man-to-man defense that led to seven Dimmitt turnovers in the third, including five Roosevelt steals.

With Craig Heintze, Bobby Chiles and Calvin Harris leading the way, the Eagles closed to 10 points, 57-47 the third. Josselet fended them off by Five Dimmitt players finished in swishing four-of-four free throws in the final 26 seconds.

> When the smoke cleared, the Eagles had outscored the Bobcats 28-22 in the third.

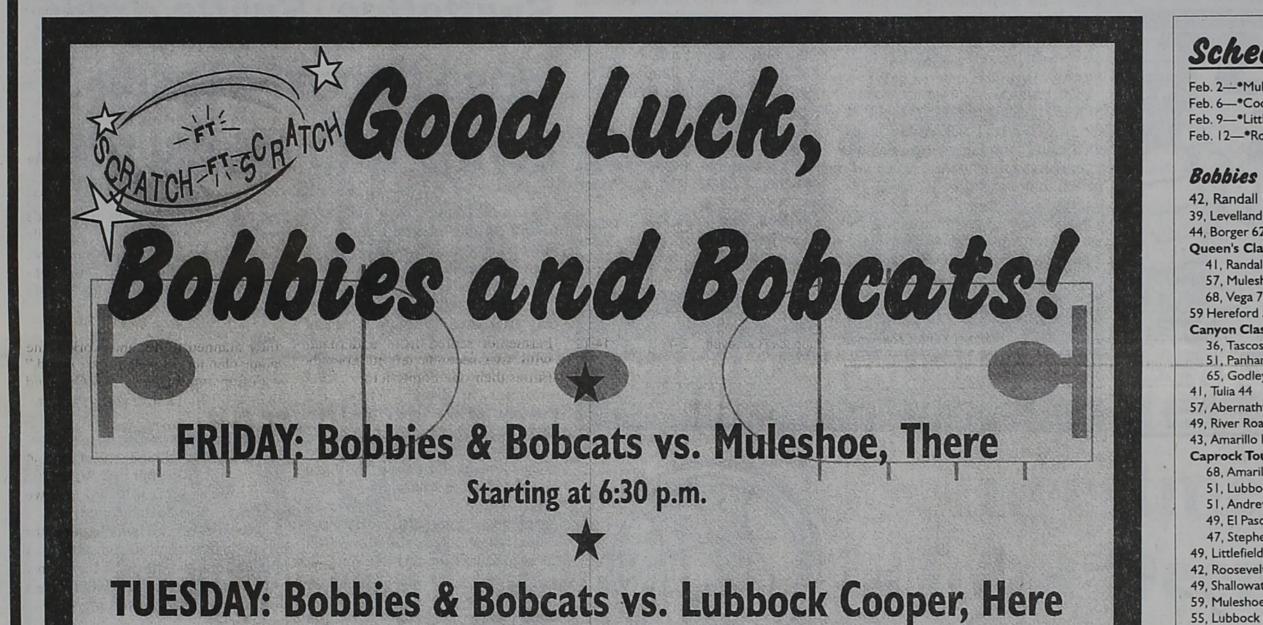

> The two teams continued toe-to-toe in the furious fourth. Concentrating on position, the Eagles kept the Bobcats from getting many second shots, but Dimmitt still got balanced scoring in the quarter from Norman (8), Wright (6), Proffitt (4), Sherman (4), Larra (2) and Sandoval (1).

> Proffitt, Sherman and Norman sank six-of-six free throws in the final 46 seconds to seal the 86-73 win for the Bobcats.

> Norman made it a double-double with 12 rebounds to go with his 27 points. Larra was the Bobcats' floor leader again with 13 credits, but there was plenty of exceptional play to go around as Sherman notched 11 credits, Proffitt 10 and Sandoval 10.

Lubbock Roosevelt won the boys' junior varsity game, 61-43.

FOULED! Marsha Black (20) of Nazareth is hammered by Valley's Emily Woods (42) as she attempts a fast-break layup Friday night in a District 3-A game at Valley. Black missed both free throw attempts, but the Swiftettes had no problems scoring during the game, posting a 72-32 win.

Naz teams sweep Valley to stay perfect in district

The Nazareth Swiftettes and Swifts each finished the first half of District 3-A play with unblemished marks after they sailed past Valley Friday night.

The Swiftettes, minus 6-0 all-state post Whitney Hoelting, had no problems with the Lady Pats, rolling to a 72-32 win in Valley.

The Swifts rattled the Patriots from the opening tip and cruised to an 86-41 victory.

Both Nazareth teams were 3-0 and in first place among District 3-A teams after Friday's wins. The girls improved their overall season mark to 23-4 while the boys jumped to 17-

The Swiftettes jumped out to a 13-0 lead in just four and a half minutes of action Friday, with Wendy Black, Mandy Hoelting and Stephanie Thiel sparking the run.

By the end of the quarter, Nazareth had jumped out to a 21-5 lead, scoring 11 of those points off of 11 Valley turnovers in the stanza.

The Swiftettes' defense brought Valley's offense to a grinding halt for most of the first half. Valley was forced into committing 21 turnovers by an aggressive Nazareth defense. The Lady Pats attempted just 10 shots over the first 16 minutes of action. Valley turned the ball over 31 Photo by Dwayne Acker times Friday night as the Lady Pats struggled to handle the pressure applied by the Swiftettes.

While Valley shooters struggled to find their mark-they hit only 10-of-27 field goal attempts for the game-the Swiftettes had no problems finding the bottom of the net. Nazareth hit 50% of its shots (28-of-56) and sank 11-of-18 free throws.

Thiel, who finished with 26 points to lead Nazareth, picked up eight in the first quarter. Black took over in the second stanza, popping a pair of threes as she finished with 12 in the period to boost Nazareth to a 43-14 halftime lead.

and 12 in the quarters, respectively. Black and Mandy Hoelting joined Thiel in double figure scoring, contributing 19 and 17, respectively.

Another big Nazareth run set the tone in the boys' game, too, and the Swifts rolled to the big 86-41 district win.

The Swifts pulled ahead 9-0 in less than two minutes, using a three and fast-break layup by Kade Wilcox, a steal and coast-to-coast layup by Daryl Pohlmeier and an offensive put-back by Eric Schilling to take control.

Valley did break the ice with 5:57 left, but after that single basket, Nazareth reeled off the next 12 points to take a 21-2 lead with 3:45 left in the period.

Valley was able to score seven points against the Swifts' second team before the starters returned to the game with less than a minute remaining.

Wilcox immediately turned a steal into a court-long drive and layup to give his team a 23-9 lead.

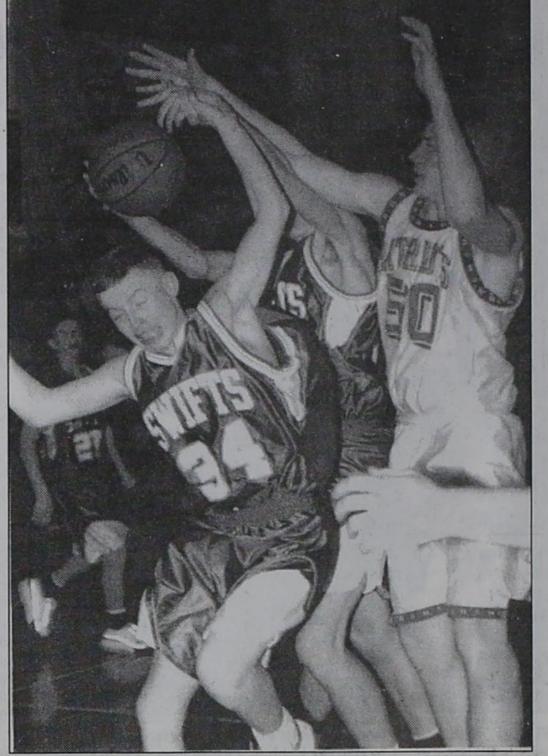

In the second quarter, Nazareth outscored Valley 25-9, using a series of Patriot turnovers to set up transition buckets and more.

The Swifts took a 30-point lead, 48-18, into the locker at halftime after Brock Birkenfeld scored off of a Tyler Ehly steal as time expired.

Sixteen of Nazareth's 48 first-half points were layups scored off of Valley turnovers. The Swifts' defense was able to anticipate most of the Patriots' moves and stole the ball 20 times in the first half.

Valley protected the ball a little better in the second half, but Schilling and Nazareth dominated the boards and allowed the Patriots few second shots.

Nazareth enjoyed balanced scoring throughout the second half, and the Swifts turned that 30-point halftime toward earning a return ticket to the win. playoffs Tuesday by virtue of big wins in Happy.

The Swiftettes and Swifts upped their records to 4-0 in District 4-A play after handing Happy a pair of losses at Cowboy Corral. Each Nazareth team has a two-game lead over second-place Happy with two games remaining in district action. The Cowgirls' and Cowboys' two losses are to Nazareth.

The Swiftettes stayed a step ahead of the Cowgirls for most of the game Tuesday before claiming a 65-52 win.

The boys' game also was a close battle, but Nazareth pulled away in the second half for a 61-45 win.

Back-to-back buckets by Happy's Buffy Adkins kicked off scoring in the girls' game, but a three by Lesley Brockman silenced Cowgirl fans.

game at 6-5 with 4:57 left in the first quarter.

Stephanie Thiel drove down the middle of the lane, blazing by Cowgirl defenders on her way to scoring a left-handed layup, one of several she would pick up in the first half. That gave Nazareth a one-point lead and the Swiftettes never trailed again.

Thiel poured in eight points and Whitney Hoelting added six as the Swiftettes finished the period with a 17-10 lead.

Thiel converted a three-point play with 2:35 left in the half, giving Nazareth a 27-15 lead, but the Swiftettes couldn't shake the Cowgirls.

Three baskets by Chandra Adkins and a three-pointer by Amber Pearson cut Nazareth's lead to six with 1:10 left.

Nazareth was able to regain a ninepoint edge after a Wendy Black steal turned into a Tara Kleman trey for a 33-24 Nazareth lead at intermission.

The Swiftettes constructed a 14point lead with 3:43 left in the third, but Happy again methodically dismantled that lead, trimming it to 10 by the end of the stanza as Nazareth suffered a drought for the rest of the quarter.

Nazareth answered with threes by

Nazareth teams took a giant step free throws by Brockman to seal the Thiel finished with 27 points and Whitney Hoelting added 14. The Adkins sisters combined for 29 of Happy's 52 points.

The first meeting between the Nazareth and Happy boys was all Nazareth. This time the Cowboys gave the Swifts everything they could handle.

In a nip-and-tuck first quarter battle, the Swifts finally eeked out a onepoint lead, 13-12, after Eric Schilling got a steal and turned into a basket with seconds left on the clock.

The score was tied twice in the first period and Happy owned a threepoint lead midway through the quarter before Nazareth was able to take the lead for good on Schilling's basket

Triple free throws by Kade Wilcox opened scoring in the second quarter, Happy enjoyed its last lead of the starting a 7-0 Swift run.

Daryl Pohlmeier helped boost the Swifts to a 29-18 lead with 2:18 left in the first half, but Happy cut it to six, 29-23, on a jumper by Jeremy Givens with 1:27 left and a long desperation three-pointer by Bobby Parish that swished the net just before the buzzer sounded.

Happy wouldn't go away.

After allowing the Cowboys to pull within four early in the third, Nazareth went on a 8-0 run for a 37-25 lead. Sparking the run were back-toback threes from Trey Robb and Blake Birkenfeld and a jumper from Pohlmeier after a Birkenfeld steal.

Once again, Happy came back with a run of its own, pulling within five.

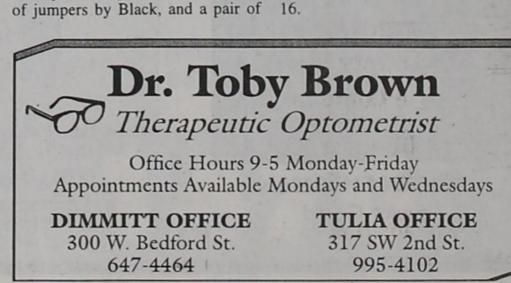

Wilcox scored his only points of the third with a single tick left in the stanza and that gave Nazareth a 46-35 lead.

Schilling took control in the fourth quarter, picking up two quick baskets. Wilcox got a steal and jumper for a 52-37 Swift lead with 6:22 left. Over the final six minutes, Nazareth's defense limited Happy to eight points, preserving the win.

Schilling, who saw limited action in the second and third quarters be-Buffy Adkins pulled Happy within cause of foul trouble, finished with eight with 2:30 left in the game, but 21 points to lead all scorers, and he picked up all of those in the first and Mandy Hoelting and Thiel, a couple fourth quarters. Sudan shut down the Hart offense in the second quarter, holding the Horns to a measly three points. The Hornets poured in 15 points during the stanza to take control of the game by intermission, 24-17.

Not many hospitals offer laparoscopic surgery. But Plains Memorial does, thanks to Dr. D.S. Patel.

Dr. Patel has been serving local residents for 17 years. He practices family medicine daily at the Medical Center of Dimmitt, and also is a board certified surgeon, with a specialty in laparoscopic surgery.

"We've been doing laparoscopic surgery in this hospital over five years now," Dr. Patel said.

Dr. Patel enjoys practicing in a small town because he grew up in a small town in India with three brothers and three sisters. He and his wife, Indi, came to the US in 1970; he already was an M.D. at that time. Both he and Indi are naturalized citizens of the US. Dr. Patel served a medical residency in Cleveland, Ohio, and did postgraduate study in laparoscopic procedures at the University of California, the University of Virginia and Twelve Oaks Hospital in Houston.

Dr. and Mrs. Patel have two grown

Dr. Patel is both proud and humble about his calling as a physician and surgeon.

"In my culture," he said, "it is believed that part of God is in every person, in the soul. If I hurt you, I am hurting that part of God that is in you.

"So I pray to God every possible second. When I'm driving my car or truck, I don't even have the radio or music on. I ask God to be with me and with this community, to help me in healing with these hands, and to not let me take away anybody's life. And He has definitely answered my prayers all these years. "It is all God's doing."
