Most of the older cotton is due to get a manicure, beginning this week. Labor associations report an increase in the number of hoe hands being brought to the county. The Farm Growers Association of Big Spring has been getting a lot of calls for bracero workers, who will be used mostly in hoeing cotton.

Some farmers say the late cotton will likely not be so weedy, unless the rains continue. Weeds don't come up as fast when the summer heat is on.

The wet spell may be at an end. Down in the Sterling City and Garden City country, dry spots are already beginning to show. The pasture weeds are beginning to "other two" low-priced trucks!

They're off! All three low-priced trucks are lined up at the bottom of a test grade equal to the steepest hill in San Francisco. The flag drops, and this grueling test of climbing power is officially underway. Dodge takes an early lead.

Halfway up. The extra V-8 power under the hood of the Dodge sends it quickly ahead. It's already two lengths out front. And there's a 1000-lb. test load on each one of these comparably equipped trucks. What's more, Dodge is still gaining!

Dodge flashes past the finish five lengths ahead of competition. Truck "C" and truck "F" just couldn't match that 204-hp. Power Giant. And this is just one of a rugged series of tests that prove Dodge is best of the low-priced three.

St. Lawrence, says the cotton prospect looks good right now. The only worry is insects, but farmers are beginning to poison. Henrichs said he had been inspecting several fields and found trips, aphids and a few cabbage loopers.

His gin takes cotton from a large area, since there is no gin in Reagan County to the south. Some of his customers come 20 miles with their cotton. He even has one farmer living down at Stiles who brings his cotton to St. Lawrence.

The Associated Press recently asked for a report on grain sorghum prospects for Howard County. Based on information from the county agent's office and from other sources, we sent in this information:

Prospects very good. Plenty of subsoil moisture. There will be approximately 75,000 acres planted to grain sorghums which can be harvested. This is in addition to 20,000 acres in the conservation reserve.

Most of the feed crop will be late, though there is considerable acreage of old feed. Main varieties are Martin, Plainsman, Red-bird 60 and 7078. Numerous plantings of hybrid grain were made, but farmers had to replant. For the second planting they used common varieties, because the seed is only about half as costly as hybrid seed.

Several ranchers around Ozona have helped beat the drought with caged hens. The Flying W Ranch, owned by Jack Wilkins, put in 3,000 cages a few years ago, and now has a regular egg route up in this area.

The truck driver, Buck Williams, said they also hauled eggs from 40 to 50 thousand other cages, and make a regular run into Garden City, Midland and Odessa.

Williams said they could make a profit because of volume production and saving on feed. The ranch buys whole grain, then grinds and mixes it with laying supplement. The eggs are hauled in a large refrigerated truck. It also hauls milk for a milk company when making the return trip, and this helps pay trucking expenses.

A boy's love for animals caused Jody Rodriguez and his family plenty of grief. Jody is about 13 and lives in Sterling City, where he works part time at a service station. A few weeks ago while out in the pasture he found a baby fox and brought it home for a pet.

After a few days it got over its timidity and learned to play with Jody and his brothers and sisters. Later, however, the fox lost interest in romping. It lay around in the shade and snapped at anything that came near. Jody and a sister were bitten, while two more of the children were scratched by the sullen little pet.

After it died, people began to wonder what had been wrong with the fox. The head was sent to Austin, where laboratory experts found it had rabies.

Since then Jody and eight other people have been taking the rabies shots. He was due to get his fourteenth and last one today. The little sister who was scratched still has nine more to go.

Yesterday Jody was working at the station and apparently taking the shots in stride. He still likes animals, but hereafter he'll make a wide circle around any fox or other wild animal he finds away from home.

People at Sterling City are watching their pets closely. They say the fox likely bit other animals during that time, and an epidemic of rabies could break out at any time.

KANSAS CITY (AP)—The body of pretty 10-year-old Shirley Alice Kyle was found half a mile from her home on the north edge of Kansas City early today, and police arrested a 15-year-old neighbor boy with a record of molesting children.

The boy, Salvatore Joseph Falbo, was picked up in Kansas City after an intensive manhunt through the night.

Shirley's body was hidden in tall grass and underbrush of a ravine about six miles from downtown Kansas City.

Her green shorts and striped shirt were partly torn away. There were marks on her face, scratches on her arms and legs. Officers said there were indications she had been strangled and raped.

A throng of 200 searchers had hunted almost six hours after her mother, Mrs. Robert J. Kyle, reported her missing at 7:30 p. m. Deputy Sheriff John Pitts said an 11-year-old neighbor girl, Carol Clark, told him Shirley and a boy walked off toward a ravine after he told Shirley he wanted to show

Senator Thinks Committee's Authority Will Be Challenged

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Hruska (R-Neb) said in advance of a Senate Internal Security subcommittee hearing today he expects the group's authority to be challenged under recent Supreme Court decisions.

He said he had "an idea we will meet with an assertion of immunity" when the subcommittee attempts to question two witnesses called to testify in an inquiry into communism in labor unions.

The two witnesses are Howard V. Trautman and Salvatore Testa, both of New York City. Both are members of the American Communications Assn., an independent union the subcommittee has accused of being Communist led.

Hruska said that if the immunity question is raised, the subcommittee is prepared to assert the basis of its authority and the relationship between its legislative objectives and its line of questioning.

Hruska said he favored establishing such a record in an effort to test the subcommittee's power under Senate resolutions authorizing its operation.

Questioning of Trautman and Testa originally was scheduled last week. It was deferred after their lawyer, Victor Rabinowitz, also of New York, asked for time to study the Supreme Court's ruling in the Watkins case.

In this case, decided June 17, the court reversed the contempt of Congress conviction of John T. Watkins, an Illinois labor organizer who refused before the House Committee on Un-American Activities to name past Communist associates.

He did so on grounds of conscience. He also challenged the pertinency of the House committee's questions.

The court's 6-1 decision, written by Chief Justice Warren, said the congressional investigating power "cannot be inflated into a general power to expose where the predominant result can only be an invasion of the private rights of individuals."

The court also said congressional committees must be more specific in their questioning and that Congress must be more precise in defining the jurisdiction and purposes of its committees.

Rabinowitz said at last week's hearing that the ruling raised "serious questions" about the right of congressional investigating committees to proceed under their existing resolutions of authority.

The subcommittee, which has investigated the communications union off and on for years, has expressed concern about the ACA's continued organization of communications workers in the

New York area, a major relay point for messages of government agencies.

In a statement on today's hearing it said:

"The subcommittee, in pursuing among other things its investigation of this situation, is seeking to determine whether standards of proof required by the Communist Control Act of 1954 are too stringent."

The act provides machinery for an official finding as to whether a labor union is Communist-infiltrated and, if so, for depriving it of its right under the National Labor Relations Act.

Boy, 15, Held In Death Of 10-Year-Old Kan. City Girl

KANSAS CITY (AP)—The body of pretty 10-year-old Shirley Alice Kyle was found half a mile from her home on the north edge of Kansas City early today, and police arrested a 15-year-old neighbor boy with a record of molesting children.

The boy, Salvatore Joseph Falbo, was picked up in Kansas City after an intensive manhunt through the night.

Shirley's body was hidden in tall grass and underbrush of a ravine about six miles from downtown Kansas City.

Her green shorts and striped shirt were partly torn away. There were marks on her face, scratches on her arms and legs. Officers said there were indications she had been strangled and raped.

A throng of 200 searchers had hunted almost six hours after her mother, Mrs. Robert J. Kyle, reported her missing at 7:30 p. m. Deputy Sheriff John Pitts said an 11-year-old neighbor girl, Carol Clark, told him Shirley and a boy walked off toward a ravine after he told Shirley he wanted to show her something. Carol said she started to follow but the boy told her to go back. That was about 5:15 or 5:30.

Police checked Falbo's home. They reported his parents said he had come in about 6:30, cleaned up, dressed and left.

Authorities said his record of sex offenses goes back to 1954 and he has been under the care of psychiatrists. He was described as 6 feet tall and about 200 pounds.

Shirley was about 4 1/2 feet tall and weighed about 60. Her dark hair was in pigtails.

The girl customarily was left at home to care for a 5-year-old brother while her parents worked. Kyle, a mechanic, was in Columbus, Ind., on a reserve training mission with the 422nd Troop Carrier Wing.

'Fog' Changes House Colors

RUTHERFORD, N.J. (AP)—The State Board of Health was making tests today to find out just how and why some 200 homes in nearby Lyndhurst had changed color overnight.

Some 30 white houses turned to dark brown. The discoloration could not be removed with water.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Marvis said they first noted the change in their home at 5:30 a.m.

Mrs. Marvis said she looked out a window and saw that the house next door had turned a deep brown. Walking outside, she found her house too had changed color.

She recalled that a "fog" had descended on the area Monday night. She said the fog appeared to be laden with dirt particles.

Mrs. Miriam Sachs, head of the state's Bureau of Adult and Occupational Health Division, said a chemical reaction may have caused the discoloration.

Police said one theory advanced was that sulphuric fumes released from stagnant water, combined with heat, reacted with certain lead properties in the paint, causing the discoloration.

Prowler Slugs D. A.'s Grandmom

SAN ANTONIO (AP)—A prowler slugged the grandmother of Dist. Atty. Hubert Green Jr. in her home last night and fled while she screamed.

Police questioned two men today. They said the license number on a car spotted by a neighbor prompted the questioning.

Mrs. Roberta Shipman, 70, told officers she turned out the light to retire, and a hand touched her in the dark. She screamed, and was struck in the face, but apparently suffered only a bruise over her left eye. Mrs. Shipman lives alone.

Major New Church Is Formed Out Of Historic Older Units

CLEVELAND (U.S.)—A major new church—molded of the diverse elements of two historic old denominations—emerged on the American scene today.

President Eisenhower sent his commendations, saying: "Now, together, your services to God and neighbor will gain new strength and inspiration."

Merged into a single communion were the national bodies of the Congregational Christian Churches and the Evangelical and Reformed Church.

Affected are about 1,400,000 Congregationalists and 800,000 E. & R. Church members in 8,311 congregations across the country.

Their new denomination: The United Church of Christ.

It was ushered into being last night with pomp and worship and solemn vows.

Standing before the assemblage, the Rev. Dr. Douglas Horton, a long-time leader in the unification move and now president of Harvard Divinity School, spread his hands and prayed: "O Lord . . . speak peace and ever deeper mutual understanding to us in the years to come . . . Seal our covenant and bless our communion as we yield ourselves to Thee . . ."

FIRST BREACH

The consolidation is the first to breach the wall between the two broad wings of U.S. Protestantism with their differing approaches to church government.

The sun still shone brightly in the west, but there was a cooling breeze as a colorful procession, 10 blocks long and 1,000 strong, threaded slowly through downtown Cleveland to Public Music Hall, where some 3,000 gathered for the merger ceremonies.

Flags of missionary lands and other banners flew along the long line of laymen and clergymen, many of them clad in academic robes with scarlet hoods or stoles. Led by a band of trumpeters, the representatives of the two churches filed side by side into the city's music hall, hymnbooks in hand, singing spiritedly "Faith of Our Fathers" and "Onward Christian Soldiers."

At the moment of formal unification, they intoned in unison: "We do now . . . declare ourselves to be one body and our union consummated . . . in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit."

Leaders of the two churches, standing on the stage before a tall, candle-lit cross, clasped hands firmly.

THE TIE THAT BINDS

"Blest be the tie that binds our hearts in Christian love," said the Rev. Dr. Fred Hoskins, executive minister of the Congregational Christian General Council.

Responded the Rev. Dr. James E. Wagner, president of the E. & R. Church: "The fellowship of kindred minds is like to that above."

The delegates then rose, and joining hands throughout the auditorium, echoed the words of the hymn in hearty song.

The occasion climaxed 17 painstaking, sometimes troublesome years of negotiations, delayed for one four-year period by a lawsuit.

The Congregational Christians, whose spiritual ancestors were the Pilgrims who came to this country on the Mayflower 350 years ago, developed their churches from British Protestantism. They emphasize the freedom of each individual congregation.

The Evangelical and Reformed Church, whose progenitors came to this country in the early 1700s, arose from the Swiss and German Reformation movements. Their church governing structure is more regularized.

UNION AGREEMENT

To effect the bond between these two forms of government—known generally in Protestantism as "free church" and "presbyterian" polity—the union agreement allows each church to determine its own "voluntary relationship" to denominational agencies.

It is the bringing together of groups from these two general classifications that makes the merger a milestone in the annals of Protestant unity efforts.

Cop Freed In Shooting Death

HONDO (U.S.)—San Antonio detective William Weibacher was found innocent yesterday of a charge of murder without malice in the shooting death of the son of a Mexican official.

The jury deliberated only 14 minutes to end the one-day trial.

The officer was charged in the death of Felix Linares, 24, son of a Mexican customs official, at Laredo on April 22, 1956. Linares died of a gunshot wound in the back.

Weibacher said he was working with U.S. customs agents at the time of the shooting and that Linares was a "heroin user who smoked parts of two marijuana

Would Fight Reds

Samuel D. Hawkins, right, former Oklahoma City GI who spent 42 months in Red China after being taken prisoner in the Korean War and refusing repatriation, was questioned by Mike Wallace on a TV program. Later Hawkins told newsmen he "would go to Korea and fight the Communists" and that "Communism has to be stopped."

Nixon Gains Aid For Nomination

WILLIAMSBURG, Va. (U.S.)—Vice President Nixon showed up today with some solid support from Midwestern Republicans who may have a great deal to say about the 1960 Republican presidential nominee.

Nixon's name cropped up in conjecture about the next Republican nominee as governors at their 49th annual conference discussed President Eisenhower's proposal to transfer to the states some of the functions now carried on by the national government.

The governors indicated they will give skeptical approval to Eisenhower's plan for a task force study of the idea.

Generally, the suggestion was greeted with a political yawn. The governors were much more interested behind the scenes in the identity of the man who will carry their banner in 1960.

Republicans had about as many candidates as there were GOP governors. Democrats spread all over the political lot.

Gov. Goodwin J. Knight denied he had any deal with Nixon to crowd out Sen. William Knowland of California, the Senate's Republican leader, from the presidential race.

Knight made it clear he is going to run for governor, even if Knowland opposes him.

Knight, who joined with Knowland to clobber Nixon two years ago in a contest over Republican party organization control in California, offered no public criticism of Nixon. It seemed likely that Nixon might arrange for "home base" support in the state in 1960.

LIKE HIS LOOKS

Republican governors in key states indicated they like the looks of Nixon in the absence of any other top challenger for the nomination.

Although he won't say so publicly at this time, GOP Gov. William G. Stratton of Illinois is reported to look upon Nixon favorably.

Republican Gov. Harold W. Handley of Indiana, who prides himself as an arch-conservative, probably would pick Nixon over Knowland.

Gov. Joe Foss of South Dakota said that there was no opposition to Nixon in his state.

Nixon is popularly supposed to have gone over to the "Modern Republican" wing of the party which these Midwestern governors are not supposed to represent. The fact that they retain friendly feelings indicates he has been more than ordinarily successful in playing both ends against the middle.

Nixon's espousal of civil rights legislation has put him in a solid position with the so-called "liberal" Republicans. Many of the Midwesterners have adopted Nixon and the GOP "liberals" are satisfied other candidates better look out.

While conference members talked politics in asides, they spent a great deal of time trying to make themselves look as if they were supporting Eisenhower's proposal to reverse the trend of centralization of government authority in Washington and return to the states some of the programs the federal government now operates.

TAX PROBLEM

The prospect of increasing state taxes, even though federal levies might be reduced in the same field, presented a major problem to some of the governors.

Before the governors was a report of the conference staff showing that 14 states now extract more than 10 per cent of the per capita income of their residents in state and local taxes.

In this respect, South Dakota ranked at the top with 14.44 per cent of an average per capita income of $1,245 yearly being paid in state and local taxes.

Other states where the tax take was more than 10 per cent included Arizona, Colorado, Idaho, Iowa, Louisiana, Minnesota, Mississippi, Nevada, North Dakota, Utah, Vermont, Wisconsin and Wyoming.

On the other hand, Indiana led five other states with the lowest bracket of state and local taxes per capita income. Indiana's 6.51 per cent was the lowest in the nation.

Five other states which collect less than 7 per cent of income from their citizens to run state and local governments are Delaware, Missouri, Ohio, Pennsylvania and Virginia.

Negroes Call White Boycott

TUSKEGEE, Ala. (U.S.)—A boycott of unfriendly white merchants was called last night for Negro residents who are in the majority in this famed education center.

The president of the Negro Tuskegee Civic Assn. told an overflow church crowd that members of their race should retaliate economically against a legislative act to exclude Negroes from the city.

Negroes should "not feed those who would devour us," Charles G. Gomillion told an estimated 2,000 persons to the fervent reply of "amen."

The act passed Friday by the Alabama Legislature redrew boundaries of Tuskegee, now a city of 6,800 persons, so as to exclude most Negro residents.

Negroes now outnumber white persons about 7-3 in the town. About 600 white persons and 420 Negroes are on municipal voting roles. The change, which Gomillion called "gerrymandering," would eliminate all except 10 Negro city voters.

The act is awaiting action by Gov. James E. Folsom. It passed both legislative houses without dissent, indicating easy passage should the governor veto it.

Time For Protection!

When you're wearing a swim suit that could well be locked up in Fort Knox, it's best to have a sturdy patrolman around. That's the opinion of Mrs. P. L. Hershey, who is standing by Patrolman Varnell Johnson, and Mrs. Clyde Johnson. Mrs. Hershey wears "a few ounces of nylon and 30 pounds of rhinestones" made into a suit which she will show at the water carnival and fashion revue Friday evening at the Officers' Wives' party. The price? It's $5,000. Yes, you read it correctly. A little less expensive is the suit worn by Mrs. Johnson. Made of white chiffon and rhinestones, it is priced at $2,000—but you get a full skirt with it!

Water Carnival, Bathing Revue To Be Presented By OWC Friday

An evening of fun is being planned by members of the Officers' Wives' Club for Friday at the Officers' Club swimming pool.

A buffet supper to be served at 7 p.m. will precede the bathing revue and aquacade, which will be presented by members of the OWC and members of the base.

Included in the program are a novelty act to be given by Capt. and Mrs. C. D. Peters, and diving by Lt. J. W. Watson, Lt. K. A. Brown, Lt. Ed Troxel and Lt. William J. Carroll.

Models who will show swim suits are Mrs. C. J. Johnson, Mrs. W. R. Evans, Mrs. L. F. Willett, Mrs.

D. R. Motal, Mrs. W. C. McMaster, Mrs. P. L. Hershey, Mrs. J. R. Britt, Mrs. E. E. Harrison, Mrs. W. J. Calmese, Mrs. J. E. Perkins, Mrs. P. J. Leming Jr., Mrs. K. F. Clement, Mrs. D. R. Mitchell, Mrs. W. N. Christiansen, Mrs. K. M. Caldwell and Mrs. G. C. Bjerke. A water ballet is scheduled, with Mrs. R. G. Bryant, Mrs. Troxel, Mrs. R. Egger, Mrs. R. L. Hill, Mrs. C. A. Benjamin and Mrs. C. T. Nelson participating.

Commentator for the fashions in suits, to be shown by Swartz's, will be Mrs. A. R. Holman. Accessories will be by Alexander's.

Co-chairmen of the entertainment are Mrs. R. W. Wilcox and Mrs. J. V. Gilliland. They are being assisted by Mrs. R. J. Downey, Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Hershey, Mrs. D. K. Winston and Mrs. Bryant.

Included in the suits which will be worn are some to make the beholder gasp because of their beauty—and price. One, "Rainbow To Jupiter", is entirely of aluminum sequins, ranging from deep magenta to opalescent rose.

"Timed For Tomorrow" is a gold metallic fabric of aluminum yarn festooned with ropes of pearls. Two watches, one at the top of the suit, the other at the hip-line, are waterproof. They really keep time, too.

Mrs. Johnson will show a suit which could go from the pool into the ballroom, and no one would be the wiser. It is fashioned of yards and yards of white chiffon with rhinestone trim. The very full skirt of chiffon is gathered and caught to sweep gracefully over the dance floor or the beach.

The well-named "Baubles For A Uranium Billionaire," to be displayed by Mrs. Hershey, is made of a few ounces of nylon and 30 pounds of rhinestones. (Needless to say, she probably won't "go near the water.")

The bride is a graduate of Lamesa High School and received her bachelor's degree in English from Texas Tech. She was a member of Alpha Chi Omega. Her husband, who attended Georgia Tech, is a lieutenant in the United States Air Force stationed at Luke Air Base, Ariz., where the couple will make a home.

Pratt-Bowling Vows Are Read By Dr. Grooms

LAMESA — Wedding vows united in marriage Ruth Yvonne Pratt and Lt. William Edgar Bowling of Bryan Monday evening at the First Methodist Church here.

Pedestal candelabra with Southern smilax entwined and interlaced among the white cathedral tapers banked the altar of the church. Single tapers surrounded by smilax were used in each window.

Dr. Jordan Grooms of Big Spring read the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie C. Pratt, Lamesa. Mr. and Mrs. George C. Bowling of Greenville, S. C., are the bridegroom's parents.

Minnie Lee Thompson of Lubbock was the soloist for the ceremony. She sang "I Love Thee" and "Through the Years." Mrs. Jake Lippard accompanied her and presented the traditional wedding marches.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an original model gown of white imported French lace over taffeta and skirts of nylon tulle. Designed with a portrait neckline outlined with scalloped lace, the fitted bodice had tiny sleeves completed by gauntlets. Her Empire waistline held velvet ribbon tied in a bow with long ends at the center back, from which stemmed a skirt made with a fitted princess midriff that flowed into a full circular skirt with stiffened lower edges; the lace and taffeta over tulle swept into a cathedral train.

Lenorah Couple Takes Double Ring Vows

Double ring vows, repeated Tuesday evening, united Nina Rice and Paul West in marriage.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Rice of Lenorah; the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Otis West of Coahoma. The Rev. Mark Reeves, pastor of the Coahoma Baptist Church, officiated for the ceremony, which took place in the Lenorah Baptist Church. The bridal party stood before a background of gladioli in baskets flanked by candelabra and arrangement of giant daisies.

Mrs. Jimmy Sawyer, pianist, played the traditional wedding music and accompanied Jan Nichols, who sang "Because."

The bride's father gave her in marriage. She was attired in a ballerina length frock of white lace over taffeta fashioned along princess lines with a V-neck. The long sleeves, ending in points over the hands, were fastened with tiny pearl buttons.

Her veil, waist length, was bridal illusion attached to a small coronet. The bride carried a bouquet of pink carnations with carnations and ribbons in cascade.

Doris Godwin of Lenorah was maid of honor. Her dress was of blue taffeta made similar to that of the bride. She wore a blue hat and a white carnation corsage; her accessories were white.

Bobby West of Big Spring, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man. Ushers were the bride's brothers, B. J. and Floyd Rice, who also lighted the altar tapers. A reception at the church parsonage honored the couple after the wedding, with the parents and attendants assisting in receiving guests.

An ecru lace cloth over blue covered the table, which was centered with an arrangement of flowers in blending shades. A wedding cake in two tiers was topped with a bridal couple.

Jo Ann Hayes was at the register, with others in the house party being Janelle Jones, Lonita Longley and Mrs. Sammy Yates.

When the couple left on a trip, the bride chose a light blue dress of embossed cotton topped with a jacket of navy. Her accessories were white.

Mrs. West is a graduate of Stanton High School. Her husband is a Coahoma High School and Howard County Junior College graduate. He was graduated from Hardin-Simmons, where he was a member of Alpha Chi fraternity.

Reps Still Factors In National Race

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

Cincinnati's Redlegs are still in business in that the National League dog fight, climbing within five percentage points of the lead after three question-mark guys — "Lucky" Brooks Lawrence, sore-backed Ted Kinnawski and squat-swagger Smokey Burgess — helped junk a 4-13 slump.

All three had a hand in last night's 3-2 decision over the New York Giants that hoisted the Redlegs, who now have won six of seven, onto almost even terms with the idle first-place St. Louis Cardinals.

Lawrence, target of jests belittling his 19 victories of last year, four-hit the Giants to win his eighth. Burgess' two home runs kept the Redlegs in the game and Klu's two-out pinch sign in the ninth bagged it.

The race got even chummier as Brooklyn's southpaw rookie Danny McDevitt four-hit Milwaukee 3-0. That upped idle Philadelphia to third, 1 1/2 games back, spilled the Braves to fourth, also 1 1/2 shy, and raised the fifth-place Brooks within two games of the leaders.

MEET AUGUST 24

Cards, Packers Set Austin Date

AUSTIN (SC)—Austin, a city noted for its avid football fans, will host its first professional football game, Saturday, August 24, in Memorial Stadium.

Contestants in the exhibition will be two of the National Football League's most respected squads—the Chicago Cardinals and the Green Bay Packers.

The two clubs will do battle under the lights at Memorial Stadium for the benefit of the Austin Kiwanis Charities Foundation, a cooperative, non-profit organization comprising three Capital City Kiwanis Clubs. The Foundation, along with the University of Texas' Ex-Students' Association, are sponsoring the event.

Many former Southwest Conference stars, as well as grid adepts from several other Texas schools, are included in the lineups of both teams.

The Packers have great guards as The University of Texas' Bobby Dillon, Rice's all-time greats Tobin Rote and Bill Howton, Baylor's Hank Gremminger and Bill Lucky, SMU's Bill Forrester and Val Joe Walker.

The Cardinals' roster includes SMU's Bill Livingstone; Baylor's Charley Dupre and Dave Lunceford; Arkansas' Pat Summerall, who will be starting his sixth season with the Chicago team, and Lamar McHan, outstanding quarterback.

Add Julian Spence and Jimmy Hill, two of the most illustrious names ever to play for Houston-Tillotson, Dick "Night Train" Lane, from Austin, and Jerry Tubbs, Oklahoma's All-American to the list, and the total adds up to the fact that Texas football fans will see many familiar stars in action on August 24th.

Tickets for the 8 p.m. clash are available on a first-come, first-served basis, priced at $3.50 each, tax included. Twenty-five cents must be added if tickets are ordered by mail. Checks or money orders may be made payable to either the Ex-Students' Association or the Kiwanis Charities Foundation and mailed to Box 8013, University Station, Austin, Texas.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

DeWitt Weaver, the Texas Tech football mentor, faces a big job this fall trying to find a right guard.

Floyd Hull, one of the returning letterman guards, is definitely out with a couple of misplaced vertebrae and Big Spring's Brick Johnson, who was the No. 2 man at that position in spring drills, won't return because of scholastic problems. There are reports the No. 3 right guard will be missing, too.

Tech is hopeful it has another Gene Carpenter in Harold Hudgeons, a tree-tall youth who enrolled there to play basketball.

Carpenter is the local youth who checked in at Tech and grew three inches to 6-8 before he graduated. He was one of Tech's money players.

Hudgeons, a freshman, reported at 6-8 and has already added two inches to his height.

There's a lot of pressure being brought to bear on the Big Eight Conference to send its football champion to the Orange Bowl every year.

Right now, conference rules permit the titlist to go only every other year.

The Orange Bowl group wants the champ regularly because the TV network wants it that way. Too, Miami likes the way those Oklahoma people spend money.

If the Big Eight will agree to the proposal, there's talk the other teams will be taken from the nation at large rather than the Atlantic Coast Conference, as has been the custom in the past few years.

That means there would be competition with the Sugar Bowl people for the No. 2 team in the Southwest Conference. The Orange Bowl committee also likes the way those Texans spend money.

Umpire Warren Holkie of the Southern Association, mentioned here recently (he used to work in the old Longhorn League), has a son who is considered quite a hockey player. He'll get a tryout with the Detroit Red Wings next season.

The National Open golf tournament differs from most meets mainly because its rules dictate that entries go 36 holes on the final day—Saturday.

Few know the reason why. The United States Golf Association lamely explains that in event there is a tie at the end of 72 holes, it could be played off on Sunday.

The Sul-Ross-University of Mexico football game, scheduled for Sept. 28 this year, will be played in Big Lake rather than Alpine. The contest is being sponsored by that city's Lions Club.

One of the nicest compliments we've heard about Shirley Robbins, who has returned here as general manager of the Big Spring Country Club, is that he is capable of growing grass on a ceiling.

It was credited to J. T. Hammett, the well-known West Texas pro.

Ranchland Hills CC of Midland hired Robbins away from Big Spring in the first place because he is an expert on turf, probably the best in West Texas.

First prize in the softball tournament at Odessa, in which Big Spring's Cosden Oilers are competing, is $100. The runnerup gets half that amount.

Don and Pat Stanley, those red-hot basketball twins who set all kinds of scoring records for Buna in the state meet last season, are headed for Kilgore Junior College.

Houston Wins NCAA Title With Dramatic Finish

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. —A pair of slender, per-busting collegians led a field of 64 into the first round of matched play today in the 60th annual NCAA golf championships, already the scene of sparkling performances.

The list of contestants was completed this morning when 11 golfers, all tied with 156, staged a sudden-death playoff for six spots needed to fill out the 64 finalists.

Lanky Roger Rubendall of Wisconsin, former Big Ten champion and son of a Freeport, Ill., club professional, and Warren Simmons 19, Syracuse University junior, bettered par by two strokes over the 6,897-yard Broadmore Course yesterday for medalist honors and the co-favorites' role in the meet which ends Saturday.

Rubendall was tied for 10th and virtually ignored as Simmons flashed around the course in a record 69 Monday. But he came out of nowhere and sliced four strokes off par yesterday with a remarkable 68. With a 74-68-142, he tied Simmons' 69-73-142 and was a heavy favorite today to beat St. Joe State's Jim Clark in his opening-round test. Simmons was matched against Ernie George, also of San Jose.

The dramatic finish came in the team championship race, won by defending titlist Houston, which placed three players among the 18 qualifiers. Stanford led by one stroke with Houston's Jim Hiskey approaching the 15th tee. Then teammate Frank Wharton caught Hiskey and told him the situation —that Hiskey needed par, all the way to give his team the tie.

The crew-cut kid did it, narrowly missing a birdie-3 on the final hole, and Houston finished with 602 strokes to Stanford's 603.

Ten Texans were among the qualifiers. Three were from North Texas State, famed for producing collegiate golfers. They are Harold Sexton, Juan Estrada and Tom Reed.

Another qualifier was a Marcelino Moreno of Texas A&M.

In the first round today Reed played Gene Lookabill, North Carolina; Estrada played Bob Prall, Oregon; Sexton played Dick Burgoon, Franklin and Marshall, and Moreno took one of the playoff winners.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. —(UPI)—In the NCAA golf tournament, Houston, Texas, won the title today, defeating Stanford, 147-147.

Frank Wharton, Houston, 74-72-149; Rex Baxter, Houston, 75-72-148; Juan Estrada, North Texas State, 74-74-149; Tom Reed, North Texas State, 74-74-149; Jim Hiskey, Houston, 77-72-150; Harold Sexton, North Texas State, 77-72-150; Marcelino Moreno, Texas A&M 77-75-152; Tom Brown, Southern Methodist, 80-72-153; John Garrett, Rice, 77-77-154.

Bankers Decision Bengals, 25-6

First National Bank won a 25-6 decision over the Tigers in American Minor League play, thereby stretching its winning streak to six straight games.

James Bowen pitched the win, setting the Bengals down with three hits. It was his first mound victory of the year.

Bowen fanned nine, issued two bases on balls and hit batter Shoddy defensive play on the part of the both teams contributed to the big score.

Collegians To Gain From Dallas Meet

DALLAS —Jim Ling, Dallas businessman who lost over $100,000 last year promoting two Dallas golf tournaments, is putting on a $40,000 tournament in September and says any profits will go into a college scholarship fund.

Ling's scholarship plan consists of sponsoring 20 Dallas schoolboys in a year-around program, culminating in its second year with an award of a $2,000 scholarship to one of the boys.

The boys each will receive membership card entitling them to play at two local courses without charge. The Ling Foundation will provide each course with four sets of clubs for the use of the boys.

Broncs Upend Insurers, 10-9

The Big Spring Hardware Broncs edged the Sabbath Insurance Company team, 10-9, for their sixth win in 11 American Minor League starts here Monday afternoon.

Gary Odell score was proved to be the winning run when he doubled in the fifth and raced home when Larry Broughton hit to second base. The infielder made the throw to the plate in an attempt to get Odell but not in time.

Odell had two doubles for the Broncs. David Terry pitched the win, limiting the Insurers to six hits. He walked four and fanned two.

The Bankers are still leading the league with a 7-5 won-lost record.

Vossler, Maxwell Enter At Odessa

ODESSA —At least three former champions will be in the field here July 25-28 in the $10,000 Odessa pro-amateur golf tournament.

Ernie Vossler of Midland, who teamed with amateur Rex Baxter of Amarillo to win first last year, has sent in his entry. Billy Maxwell of Odessa, champion as an amateur in 1952 and who teamed with Red Roden of Odessa to tie for first as a pro in 1955, losing in a playoff, already has entered.

Bo Winger of Odessa, who teamed with Maxwell to win in 1952, also is back.

COSDEN SLAMS TEXACO, 6-2

ODESSA (SC) — The Cosden Oilers of Big Spring "hung tough" in the Odessa Invitational softball tournament, beating Tuesday night Odessa, 6-2, in the losers' bracket here Tuesday night.

The defeat eliminated the Texaco team from title contention. Cosden plays the winner of the Midland National Bank-Lamesa game at 8 o'clock Thursday. Midland and Lamesa clash tonight at 9:30.

Blue Top Drive-Inn of Odessa, first round conqueror of Cosden, has reached the semi-finals of the winners' bracket and faces the survivor in the Midland-Lamesa engagement.

Wink takes Utility Air Coolers of Midland in the losers' bracket at 8 o'clock this evening.

AIO Is Upset By 61st Nine

Air Installations suffered its second defeat of the season and dropped out of a tie for the lead in Y.M.C.A. Industrial softball league standings in play here Tuesday night.

61st Flight Line Maintenance jolted AIO by winning a 14-13 decision. It was the first success of the league season for the Flight Line group.

Puckett scored the winning run when he singled. Chadwell sent him to second by walking and Adams drove in Puckett with the tally.

In the first game, Ernie Kennedy counted in the seventh inning to enable Gulf Oil to skimp by Web AFB, 2-1. Kennedy reached base on an error and Jim Ward won his own game with a long hit.

Ward shaded Jack Long in a fine mound duel. Each hurler gave up three hits.

Sox Hand Hurls No-Hit Game

By The Associated Press

Frank Baumann, the bonus pitcher of the Boston Red Sox who's getting seasoning with Oklahoma City, gave the Texas League its first no-hit, no-run game of the year Tuesday night.

He not only held Fort Worth hitless and scoreless for nine frames, but went on two more innings to bring the Indians a 1-0 triumph.

The loss knocked Fort Worth out of fourth place and allowed Austin, which downed Shreveport 4-3 in 10 innings, to take over the spot.

Leading Dallas split a doubleheader with Tulsa and gained a half-game on second place Houston, which took a 9-1 hammering from San Antonio.

Joe Kotrany pitched Dallas to a 3-0 victory in the 7th inning opener, allowing only one hit, but Tulsa came from behind for four runs in the seventh inning of the nightcap to beat the Eagles 7-7.

Gulf To Host Cee City Team

Gulf Oil plays host to the Colorado City All-Stars in a softball doubleheader at the city park tonight. The first of two seven inning games begins at 7 p.m.

Manager Marvin Healey of Gulf has nominated Jim Ward and Leon Kerby for pitching duties. Healey himself may pitch part of the second game, however.

Raymond Uziel is manager of the Colorado City club. He has informed the local management he will go with Gene Parham and Jay McCoolin in the box.

Broadway Billy Loes Is Writing Comeback Story

BALTIMORE (AP) — Broadway Billy Loes, his promising pitching career apparently doomed by a sore arm at the age of 28, is bidding for "Comeback of the Year" honors a year later as the ace of the Baltimore Orioles.

The sometimes-eccentric right-hander hurled one of the best games of his career last night as he blanked Kansas City 5-0 on three singles. He pitched perfect ball for 5 1/3 innings and wound up facing only two batters more than the minimum. He threw only 98 pitches.

The performance came several hours after the Orioles had announced a $1,000 raise for Loes on his 1957 contract.

Loes struck out six and didn't walk a man as he won his eighth game of the season while completing nine innings for the fifth time in 10 tries. He has lost only three and his earned run average stands at 2.63.

"He really showed me something," coach Al Vincent said after the game. "You just don't throw a better fast ball than he had and his control was perfect."

Loes has a good start toward his best record in the majors. He never won more than 14 in four full seasons with the Brooklyn Dodgers of the National League after receiving a $21,000 bonus in 1949.

Manager Paul Richards of the Orioles purchased Loes from the Dodgers for $20,000 May 14, 1956. The pitcher had been sidelined with a sore shoulder muscle, diagnosed as tendonitis.

"He's never had a losing year since he has been in baseball so I'm willing to gamble on him," Richards said. "I know his arm has been sore, but he's still young enough to recover."

After he arrived with the Orioles, Loes was ordered by Dr. Dr. Erwin Mayer, team physician, to have several front teeth extracted. Since then the pain in his arm has gradually lessened.

Another qualifier was a Marcelino Moreno of Texas A&M.

In the first round today Reed played Gene Lookabill, North Carolina; Estrada played Bob Prall, Oregon; Sexton played Dick Burgoon, Franklin and Marshall, and Moreno took one of the playoff winners.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. —(UPI)—In the NCAA golf tournament, Houston, Texas, won the title today, defeating Stanford, 147-147.

Ballinger Licked By El Pasoans

By The Associated Press

It seems there's always some combination that comes up to keep the Southwestern League race at status quo.

Tuesday night leading Ballinger took a 17-9 hammering from El Paso but second place Carlsbad was walloped by Hobbs 13-1 so Ballinger maintained its 2-game bulge over the Potashers.

El Paso blasted eight runs in the third inning and never was behind in its conquest of Ballinger. It was a wild game, both hitwise and runwise, with 17 safeties on each side. And there were five home runs.

Hobbs beat Carlsbad for the second straight night, this time bashing 15 hits. Jim Waldrip allowed the Potashers only nine and kept them well scattered. The lone Carlsbad run was unearned. Midland beat San Angelo 8-5 with the Indians cashing in large-ly on the wildness of pitcher Joe Lowrey and some poor catch fielding.

Bankers Decision Bengals, 25-6

First National Bank won a 25-6 decision over the Tigers in American Minor League play, thereby stretching its winning streak to six straight games.

James Bowen pitched the win, setting the Bengals down with three hits. It was his first mound victory of the year.

Bowen fanned nine, issued two bases on balls and hit batter Shoddy defensive play on the part of the both teams contributed to the big score.

Collegians To Gain From Dallas Meet

DALLAS —Jim Ling, Dallas businessman who lost over $100,000 last year promoting two Dallas golf tournaments, is putting on a $40,000 tournament in September and says any profits will go into a college scholarship fund.

Ling's scholarship plan consists of sponsoring 20 Dallas schoolboys in a year-around program, culminating in its second year with an award of a $2,000 scholarship to one of the boys.

The boys each will receive membership card entitling them to play at two local courses without charge. The Ling Foundation will provide each course with four sets of clubs for the use of the boys.

Broncs Upend Insurers, 10-9

The Big Spring Hardware Broncs edged the Sabbath Insurance Company team, 10-9, for their sixth win in 11 American Minor League starts here Monday afternoon.

Gary Odell score was proved to be the winning run when he doubled in the fifth and raced home when Larry Broughton hit to second base. The infielder made the throw to the plate in an attempt to get Odell but not in time.

Odell had two doubles for the Broncs. David Terry pitched the win, limiting the Insurers to six hits. He walked four and fanned two.

The Bankers are still leading the league with a 7-5 won-lost record.

Chinese Reds Halt Criticism

HONG KONG (AP) — Threatened by another agricultural crisis, the Chinese Communist government has ordered postponement of its big criticism program at the county level. Copies of the official Peiping People's Daily, received here today, carried such a directive from the ruling State Council. China launched a nationwide "rectification" campaign May 10 with the stated objective of correcting abuses now dividing the masses from the Communist party leadership. In order to ferret out complaints and "rectify" them, Communist Chairman Mao Tse-tung invited all classes of individuals to indulge in free, almost unlimited criticism. The Red leadership now apparently fears the campaign—which is agitating the whole country—might interfere with plans for a bumper harvest. Should there be a crop failure similar to that caused by last year's natural calamities, China will find itself on the edge of disaster.

Attorney Group Asks Limit On Supreme Court

SUN VALLEY, Idaho (AP)—Definite restrictions on the power of the U.S. Supreme Court were suggested today in a committee report to the National Assn. of Attorneys General. "We propose," said Atty. Gen. George F. Guy of Wyoming, chairman of the association's Committee on Federal-State Relations, "that Congress enact legislation that would say in effect to the Supreme Court:

"You cannot exert exclusive jurisdiction over a state law unless Congress specifically authorizes you to do so."

Guy reported during the final day of the association's annual convention. A adjournment was scheduled for tonight, after an address by John Ben Shepperd, former attorney general of Texas. "I feel," Guy said, "that this matter of federal-state relations could be solved quickly if we would go back to the basic fundamentals of our government; that the powers not delegated to the central government are reserved to the states. It's that simple."

The controversy over federal-state relations has been threaded through much of the discussions during the three-day convention here.

It has touched on the Supreme Court ruling affecting administration of the Smith Act and on states' control of subversion.

Thurmon Arnold, a former assistant United States attorney general and onetime judge of the U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals in Washington, D. C., said yesterday he felt the "danger" is in the Supreme Court's actions in the economic field.

"The principal role of the Supreme Court once was to see that government did not interfere in business activities," he said. "Now that role has been turned inside out."

"The due process law now is devoted almost exclusively to the protection of civil rights. It no longer is a protection for business."

Uncle Ray: Old Legend Explains Salt In Large Lake

By RAMON COFFMAN
The Pueblo Indians of the present time are confined chiefly to the states of New Mexico and Arizona. In former times, however, many of them lived in northern Mexico, in the Panhandle of Texas, in southern Colorado and in central Utah.

The Pueblo Indians who used to occupy central Utah are the ones who interest me today. It seems almost certain that they were the ones who invented the legend which was supposed to explain the salt water in Great Salt Lake. This is the way the legend goes:

An Indian hunter pursued a deer which vanished near the shores of a large lake. In the shore he was greeted by a dwarf, who said to him, "You have lost the deer, but I will give you a good home. For GENERAL INTEREST section of your scrapbook."
