Seven-Up—Scores Down

Gregg Street near Fourth was littered with shattered Seven-Up bottles Monday afternoon. About 60 cases of the empty pop bottles slid off a beverage truck as it turned the corner. Debris obstructed traffic, but loss amounted to only about $50, local Seven-Up officials said.

Driver of the truck was Eldon Burks of Big Spring. He said the partially-loaded truck was heavier on the left side, causing it to sway in that direction as he made a right turn.

Supreme Court Weighs Girard's Rights Under The Constitution

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court weighed the constitutional rights of GI William S. Girard today to determine whether they overbalance the government's decision to let him be tried in a Japanese court.

The court, which listened to nearly four hours of legal debate yesterday, gave no indication how soon it will hand down its decision.

In winding up arguments seeking to block Girard's trial by Japan, Earl J. Carroll, one of his lawyers, said that if such a trial were permitted "it probably would destroy the morale of our soldiers—forever."

Solicitor General J. Lee Rankin contended the executive branch of the government acted within permissible discretion in deciding to yield to Japan's demand that Girard be tried in its courts for the death of a Japanese woman.

Rankin said that among other factors considered was evidence that Girard enticed the woman to come forward and pick up scrap metal on a firing range. Rankin noted, however, that Girard has denied he induced the woman to approach him.

HIT IN BACK
The woman, Mrs. Naka Sakai, was fatally wounded last Jan. 30. Girard is accused of shooting her in the back with an empty cartridge casing fired from a grenade launcher. He was assigned at the time to guard a machine gun and some field jackets.

Carroll asked the court: "How can you turn over to Japan a soldier who carries out his duty?" To do this, he said, might result in a situation where a State Department diplomat abroad, endangered by an advancing rioter, might turn to a Marine and say, "Shoot him as he comes over the threshold."

"The Marine," said Carroll, "might very well hand his gun to the diplomat and say, 'Here, shoot him yourself. I don't want to be tried.'"

Carroll's colleague Joseph S. Robinson ran into sharp criticism from the high bench.

Warren told him as he wound up his impassioned argument that the chief justice had the impression the lawyer had accused Rankin of making "fraudulent, false statements to this court for the purpose of deceiving."

Warren's broad smile and his friendly manner were gone as he leaned forward and told Robinson he had listened "very attentively," but that the lawyer had not supported such accusations.

NO REFLECTION
Robinson replied that he had made no reflection on Rankin. If his words were so interpreted, he said, he apologized.

Robinson contended that the status-of-forces agreement with Japan was unconstitutional. At one point he called the status-of-forces agreements a "sell-out" program that strips constitutional rights from soldiers.

Rankin's argument was that while Girard was on official duty, he was not authorized to shoot and it was not necessary to shoot.

Under the agreement with Japan, said the solicitor general, the executive branch of government in deciding to turn Girard over to Japan made a decision that could not be considered unreasonable or capricious.

He contended Girard has no personal immunity from prosecution by Japan.

The soldier, a specialist third class from Ottawa, Ill., is confined to Camp Whittington, a U.S. Army base near Tokyo.

Girard's lawyers want the Supreme Court to issue a writ of habeas corpus, releasing the soldier from Army detention at the camp.

AFFIRM DECISION
The attorneys also want the Supreme Court to affirm the decision by U.S. Dist. Judge Joseph C. McGarraghy here. McGarraghy said the government could not turn Girard over to Japan and if he is to be tried it must be by U.S. court-martial.

A U.S.-Japanese agreement gives the United States the right to handle criminal offenses committed in Japan by servicemen in performance of official duty. The agreement gives to Japan the authority to handle offenses not committed in a performance of official duty. Either country may waive its jurisdiction upon request of the other. The United States decision to surrender Girard occurred under the section permitting the waiving of jurisdiction.

Vote Set On Webb Funds
The U. S. House of Representatives has given tentative approval and scheduled a roll call vote for Wednesday on an appropriation bill including $4,118,000 for Webb Air Force Base.

Total of the proposed appropriations for military public works is $1,676,622,000. Twenty-seven Texas projects are provided for in the measure. Other in this area are $5,500,000 for Reese AFB, Lubbock, $480,000 for Goodfellow AFB, San Angelo, and $100,000 for Dyess AFB, Abilene.

The Webb funds are for operational, training, maintenance, supply and community facilities, utilities and ground improvements. The Air Force has declined to disclose details of plans for expansion of the local base.

Controversial Gas Bill Gets Approval

HOUSTON (AP)—Attorneys put final touches on their closing arguments today as the fourth George Parr mail fraud trial neared the jury.

Charges Due In Black Magic Death
VINELAND, N.J. (AP)—Juan Rivera Aponte is to be arraigned on a murder charge today in the black magic slaying of a 13-year-old boy.

Authorities said the 47-year-old poultry farm worker had signed a statement confessing that he killed Roger Carletto last Oct. 13 to get the lad's skull for use in a love potion.

Roger lived near the chicken farm of Idek Rosenblum where Aponte worked. The boy had been the object of a wide search for nine months. Aponte himself led police last Tuesday to a shallow grave on the farm where the skeleton of the boy was uncovered.

But Aponte, a Puerto Rican who has worked for Rosenblum for three years, accused his employer of killing Roger and Rosenblum initially was charged with murder.

Vineland Public Safety Director Arthur L. Joseph said Aponte's statement completely exonerates the Rosenblums.

In Aponte's shack were publications in Spanish dealing with black magic, police said. And they reported Aponte showed them the top portion of a young Roger's skull, suspended on a string in a kerosene stove.

Joseph said Roger happened to visit the shack the evening of last Oct. 13 when Aponte had just come to a chapter dealing with the use of human skulls as love potions.

According to Joseph, Aponte struck the boy from behind with his fist, knocked him unconscious, strangled him with a cord, and buried the body on the farm.

He watered the grave three times a day for seven months, in accordance with black magic practice, Joseph said, and then uncovered it briefly two months ago to remove the top of the skull.

Joseph quoted Aponte as saying he wanted to dry the skull, grind it into dust and use the powder in a potion Aponte believed would enable him to cast spells over women.

Ike OK's Changes In Civil Rights Bill

'Clarifying' Amendments May Be Added

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Knowland (R-Calif.) said today President Eisenhower has not closed the door against "clarifying" amendments to the House-passed civil rights bill.

Knowland, the Senate Republican leader, told reporters Eisenhower is taking a hands-off attitude toward possible Senate action to soften terms of the measure.

"It has never been the President's attitude that when a measure is before Congress there should not be any clarifying amendments to it," Knowland said.

Knowland made this comment when he was asked about a statement yesterday by White House press secretary James C. Hagerty that Eisenhower had not changed his position in supporting the House-passed measure.

Previously Eisenhower had expressed surprise that Sen. Russell (D-Ga.) and other southern opponents had called the bill's terms "vicious." Russell asked for a conference with the President, which Hagerty said would be arranged later.

Knowland, who moved yesterday to get the bill before the Senate despite the prospect of lengthy talk by the Southerners, indicated he personally is willing to consider changes in the House language. Russell and others have said this language reaffirms authority to use troops to enforce civil rights.

MIND NOT CLOSED
"The bill may need some additional clarification," Knowland said. "I have not closed my mind against changes in it. If it goes beyond what was intended, then it will be up to the Senate to change it. But the Senate cannot consider such changes until it gets the bill actually before it."

Knowland said he hopes a vote can be reached this week on his move to call up the bill by "lengthening" the sessions. But he said he and other supporters will not decide until Thursday whether to try to hold the Senate in session continuously on Friday and Saturday in an effort to get to a vote.

"We will review the situation Thursday," he said. "I hope that the sessions will lengthen out but I hope it will not be necessary to go around the clock."

"It will present a serious problem, however, if the vote on the motion to delay beyond this week seems to me a week's time is a reasonable period in which to get a bill before the Senate for a discussion of its merits."

Knowland earlier said he had told Eisenhower that the debate on the bill may last four to eight weeks or possibly longer. He said Eisenhower is "fully informed regarding the implications" such lengthy debate might have on other administration bills.

LONG SESSIONS
Knowland has asked his colleagues to be ready for the long sessions to start possibly tomorrow but more likely later in the week.

Senate debate on a motion by Knowland to make the measure the Senate's pending business started yesterday. Knowland said he is hopeful the Senate will vote by Saturday on that motion.

The California senator made it clear that he looks for more extensive debate if and when the Senate does vote to make the bill its pending business.

In reply to questions, Knowland said there was no discussion at today's White House session regarding merits of the bill. Eisenhower repeatedly has called it a decent bill and a moderate one.

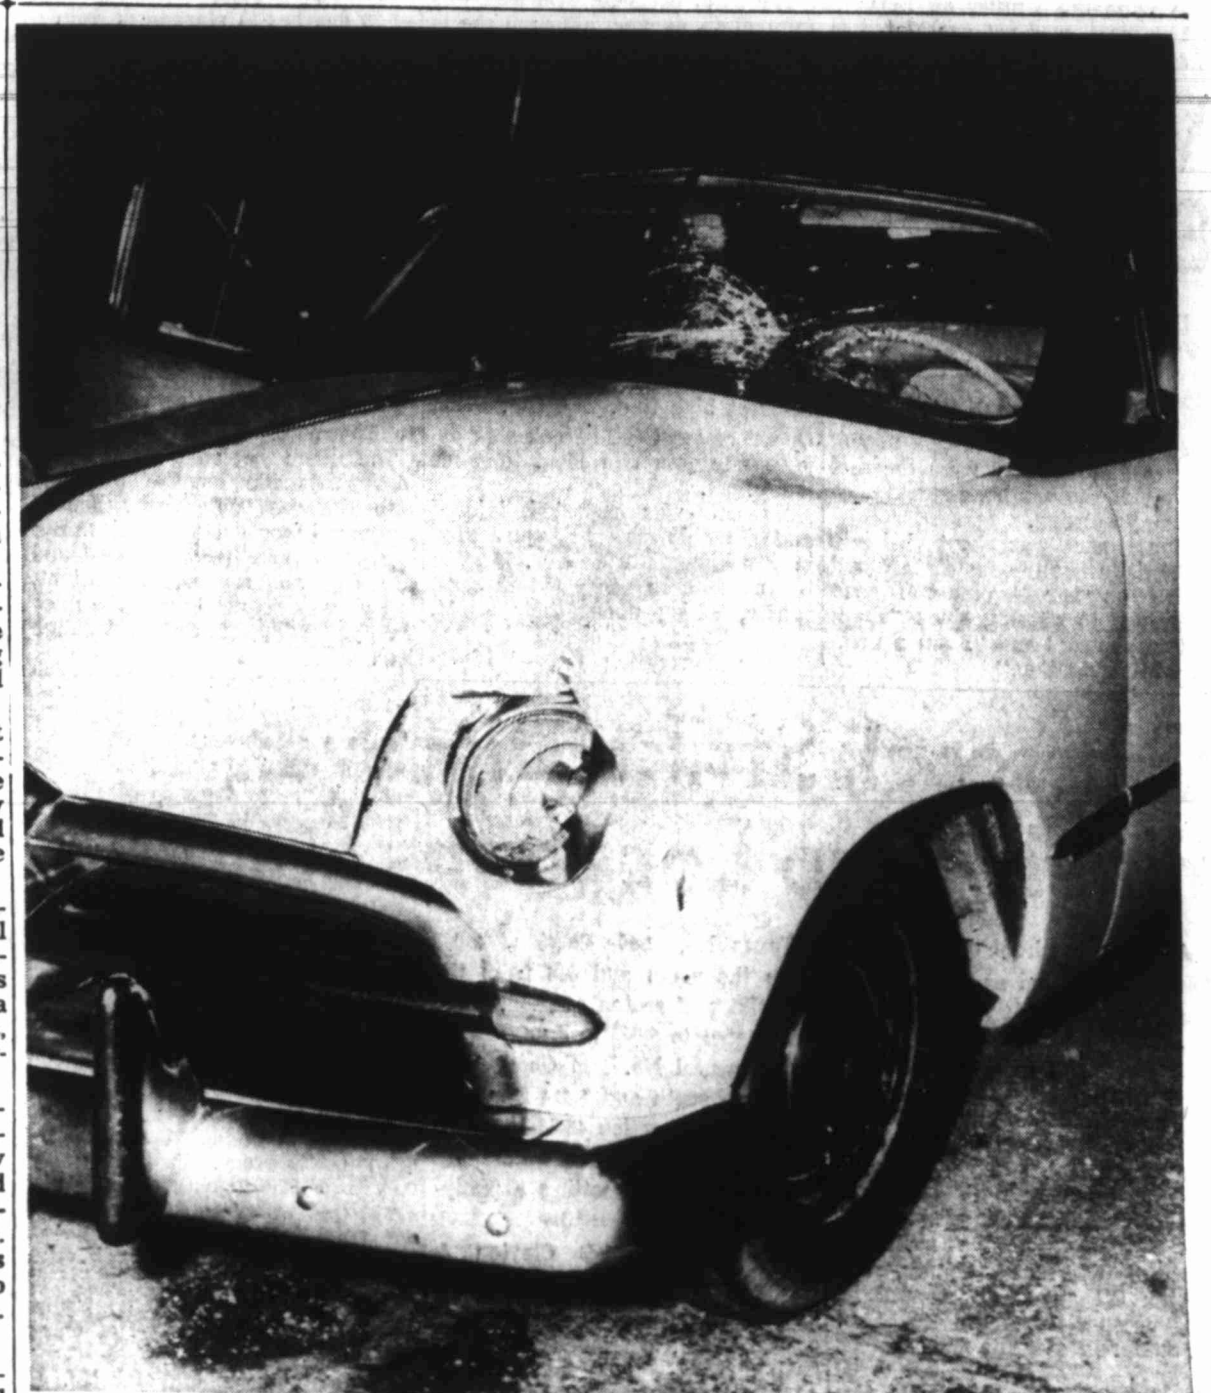

Asked how long the debate may last, Knowland said he advised Eisenhower it "could last four or six or eight weeks, or it could last longer, although I don't think it will."

In reply to questions, House Republican Leader Martin of Massachusetts said there is a possibility the House might recess after concluding its legislative business, if the Senate civil rights debate is still going on.

WORK IN SHIFTS
With Knowland directing the campaign to get the measure before the Senate for an eventual vote, GOP members were asked to sign up for periods when they will be on hand to sit out the Southern talk.

In a typical assignment, Sen. Allott (R-Colo.) said he had been asked to be on deck from 10 until 12 o'clock, each morning and night. Sen. Morton (R-Ky.) has said earlier he has day and night hours on a different shift.

The affirmative votes of 64 senators are required to limit debate.

Utilities, Street Improvements Due Discussion Today

Utilities expansion and street improvements are on the agenda for the City Commission which meets at 5:15 today at City Hall.

The council is to canvass returns of last Tuesday's $50,000 water and sewer revenue bond issue, and arrange for issuance and sale of the bonds. Commissioners also will discuss plans for construction of new water and sewer lines to Webb AFB.

The $50,000 and $175,000 loaned by the U.S. government will be used to pay for the projects. Bonds will be retired and the government loan repaid out of revenues from water and sewer services.

A big seal coating program for city streets again will be discussed by commissioners.

Old Settlers Set Reunion

Annual reunion of the Howard Glasscock County Old Settlers will be held on July 26.

Morgan Martin, president of the organization, has scheduled a meeting for 3 p.m. Saturday in the Howard County courtroom at which plans for the big event will be drawn.

Martin asked that all of the old settlers attend the Saturday meeting and join in the planning for the reunion.

Present officers of the Old Settlers are Martin, president; Melvin Choate, vice-president; and Mrs. Morgan Martin, secretary-treasurer.

The celebrations are traditionally held in the Big Spring city park and attract large numbers of early-day residents of this and Glasscock County.

Heat Wave Sets Mark For Length

On 14 of the last 15 days, the temperature has hit 100 or above, the U.S. Experiment Station reported today. The one lone exception when the mercury did not reach or pass the century mark was last Saturday when 99 degrees were recorded.

The station said that this is the longest unbroken interval of 100-degree-or-above weather ever recorded at the station for this season of the year.

The period began on June 25. Hottest day of the series was June 27 when the temperature hit 105 degrees.

YEAR'S 8TH FATALITY Pedestrian Killed When Hit By Car

Wayne Roberts Jr., 38-year-old oil field driller, was fatally injured at 11:50 p.m. Monday when he walked in front of a car driven by Gerald LeRoy Scott, 22 on U. S. Highway 80. The accident occurred in front of the Sahara Inn 1.2 miles west of Big Spring.

Roberts died in a hospital at 5:30 a.m. of injuries received in the accident.

His home was in the O. K. Trailer Courts.

State Highway patrol officers who investigated the accident—which brought Howard County's traffic deaths for 1957 to eight—said that Scott and Faye Lander were enroute home after attending a movie. They were following traffic to Big Spring. Scott's residence is 1210 Sycamore.

Witnesses told the highway patrol that Roberts left the Sahara Inn and started to walk across the highway to the OK Trailer Courts.

He stepped out in front of the oncoming car, the witnesses related. The driver of the 1949 Ford had no chance, the patrol was told, to avoid the collision. The impact lodged Roberts on the car and he rode the vehicle until the driver could swerve from the slab and bring the car to a stop.

The injured man then fell from the front of the car to the ground. It was said the force of the collision was such that it jarred Roberts out of his boots.

Roberts was a driller employed by the Odom Drilling Company in the River Funeral Home.

Roberts leaves his wife and two daughters, Vickie Lynn, 7, and Paula Gail, 3, of OK Trailer Courts. He and his family had resided here for about a year.

He also leaves his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Roberts Sr., Wynnewood, Okla.; and two sisters, Mrs. Paul Romano and Mrs. Ora Taylor of Wynnewood.

Arrangements are pending at River Funeral Home. One of the sisters had started for Big Spring on learning of the mishap but was contacted by officers in order that she could go back and contact other members of the family.

Kasper Defense Quizzing Jury On 'Teachings' At University

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Defense attorneys asked searching questions today about the "sociological and political science teachings" at the University of Tennessee in examining a woman candidate for jury in contempt trial of 15 Tennesseans and John Kasper, Northern segregationist.

The 16 are charged with criminal contempt of U. S. District Court as a result of violence at Clinton, Tenn., last fall when Negro students were enrolled in the previously all-white high school.

"Are you familiar with the sociological and political science teachings at the University of Tennessee?" a defense attorney asked Mrs. Walter Buchanan, housewife, a candidate for the jury.

Her husband is an instructor in engineering drafting at the university.

Mrs. Buchanan said she had not discussed these studies with him, but she said she lived in the same building with the wife of a political science instructor and occasionally had talked with her about the subject.

Defense attorneys rejected Mrs. Buchanan as a juror.

They had previously established that she was a college classmate, and a personal friend, of U. S. Dist. Atty John C. Crawford Jr., the government prosecutor in the case.

This was not the first time prospective jurors had been asked about political and social studies in the schools. Yesterday several persons with educational connections also were asked if they attended "teachers' conferences" or the National Convention of the Parent-Teachers Assn.

The courtroom was again filled. Before the session began, a number of persons again came up to Kasper, shook hands with him and wished him well. One teenage girl leaned over his shoulder after he had taken his seat with the other defendants and gave him a stick of chewing gum.

A second candidate, Paul F. Holley, 63-year-old Clinton mortician, also was rejected. He said he believed Kasper was responsible for the racial disturbances at Clinton, and Kasper's lawyer, J. Benjamin Simmons, requested that Holley be excused.

U. S. Dist. Judge Robert L. Taylor agreed.

The trials, which opened Monday, immediately took on a unique and highly dramatic character.

Five, six and sometimes more attorneys from Tennessee, Georgia, Alabama, Louisiana and Maryland crowded together around a table on the right of Federal Judge Robert L. Taylor who issued the injunction the government claims was knowingly flouted.

Robert L. Dobbs of Memphis, doing most of the examination of candidates for the jury, came regularly to the same question: "If you hold strong feelings on mixing the races, would that so prejudice you that you could not give these defendants a fair trial, based on the evidence?"

Then, before accepting or rejecting the candidate, the defense lawyers would huddle, heads close together, conferring.

It was defense by committee decision, and it took time.

Cruise Ship Aground

Two tugs fail to pull the Reina del Pacifico free from coral reefs after the British cruise ship ran aground three miles off Bermuda. The ship, carrying 500 passengers en route from Bermuda to Liverpool, was not considered in immediate danger, although she listed 30 degrees to starboard. Rain squalls and high seas impeded relief operations.

With Ship Stuck On Reefs, 850 Ride Out Stormy Night

HAMILTON, Bermuda (AP)—Some 850 passengers and crew members aboard the British cruise ship Reina del Pacifico rode out rain squalls and high seas during the night, awaiting new efforts to pull the 17,872-ton vessel from the reef on which she has been stuck since dawn yesterday.

Five pleas of guilty were heard in 118th District Court on Tuesday morning.

Judge Charlie Sullivan had excused the jury panel from duty Tuesday in order that the guilty pleas might be handled. No trial is scheduled in the court for the day but it is planned to resume jury trial of criminal cases on Wednesday morning.

Pablo Flores, under a habitual criminal indictment, is booked to go on trial at that time. Flores is charged with car theft in the present case which led to the habitual criminal indictment.

Laurel Anderson, 21, airman at Webb, was the first defendant to plead guilty Tuesday. He was charged with burglary on March 27 of the Brown Trading Post. He was given a three year sentence which was suspended.

Lois Miller, charged with forgery, was sentenced to serve four years in the state penitentiary.

Amando Gonzales, charged with DWI second offense, a felony, escaped with punishment for a misdemeanor when his case was called up. Hartman Houser, appointed to defend Smith, pointed out an error in the record of the first conviction which Gil Jones, district attorney, told the court was "fatal" to the felony indictment.

Following the closing luncheon July 12 delegates will go to Valley Forge Park where 50,000 boys and leaders open their Fourth National Jamboree, camping together on 1,500 acres made available by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

The Buffalo Trail Council will have 165 boys and leaders at the Jamboree.

Henry Cabot Lodge, United States ambassador to the United Nations, will address the annual dinner July 11 and Dr. Abram Leon Sachar, president of Brandeis University, Waltham, Mass., will address the closing luncheon July 12.

Kenneth K. Bechtel of San Francisco, president of the Boy Scouts of America since May, 1956, will preside at all sessions. He is the first president of the organization to have been a Boy Scout. ## Civic Theatre To Rehearse 'Tender Trap'

T-Sgt. Dewey Magee, president of the Big Spring Civic Theatre, announced today that the group will begin rehearsals immediately for its next main stage play, "The Tender Trap."

Lt. James Fulk, the director of this production, had held up rehearsals for an all-out effort on the July 4 beauty pageant produced by the group. A general membership meeting will be held Wednesday at 8 p. m. in the Colonial Room of the Howard House.

All regular members are urged to attend, and an invitation to Big Springers and Webb personnel is extended.

Though the group has some 100 active members, participation in many civic events and the regular productions of three-act and one-act plays requires many people. ## Term Assessed For Burglary

Floyd Sherman, young Big Spring Negro, was found guilty of burglary by a jury in 118th District Court at 4 p. m. Monday. The jury assessed his punishment at five years in the state penitentiary.

Sherman was indicted by the grand jury for theft of two power saws and a shotgun, taken from Delbert White, who had the articles stored in the Negro American Legion Hall. The alleged theft occurred on May 16.

Sherman, on the stand, denied taking the articles and most of the state's case against him was circumstantial.

It was reported that the shotgun was later sold to a secondhand goods dealer, and the same night it was stolen from its new "owner." At the same time, two pistols were also taken but these have never been located.

Sherman was the first defendant to go on trial at the present criminal jury docket being heard by Judge Charlie Sullivan in 118th District Court.

The jury deliberated 30 minutes before reporting to the court that it had reached a verdict.

Sherman's case was the only matter heard in the court on Monday, opening day of the jury docket.

Fleahopper Hitting Early Cotton Now

A steady build-up of cotton insects is taking place in most of the early cotton, according to County Agent Jimmy Taylor. The main offender at present is the fleahopper, which is being found in nearly all fields.

"The early cotton is setting squares now," Taylor said, "and in some fields the fleahoppers are knocking them off as fast as they form."

Taylor has also found thrips and aphids but they are not doing much damage. The grasshopper infestation continues to spread slowly and the big jumbos are now being found in the southwest part of the county. Taylor says the grasshopper damage has been spotted, and some farmers are holding them off the young cotton by using poison bait.

In poisoning cotton for the smaller insects, Taylor says spraying is probably more effective than dusting at present. Several kinds of chemicals may be used. One solution is to mix a pint of toxaphene with enough water to cover an acre. Another is to mix a pint of toxaphene and DDT in a two-to-one mixture. A third mixture would be a pint of dieldrin and water.

Taylor hasn't found many worms yet, but expects them to start when cotton gets larger. He says areas with older cotton already are getting worm infestations.

U. S. Officials See Zhukov In Second Place

WASHINGTON (AP)—Top U. S. officials, in a new assessment of the shakeup in the Russian high command, have concluded that Marshal Georgi K. Zhukov is now the second most powerful man in the Soviet Union. At the moment they believe he is fully supporting the top man, party chief Nikita Khrushchev. They seem inclined now to credit Zhukov with a possibly decisive role in crushing the challenge to Khrushchev's No. 1 position during the stormy Kremlin developments of the past two weeks.

Zhukov, as a representative of the Red army, they believe, can be expected to play an increasingly important role, especially now that he has been elevated to full membership in the party Presidium. Zhukov's backing of Khrushchev has set some officials to wondering what this support has cost the Soviet party chief. The question they ask is: Has Khrushchev been forced to become a captive of the Red army in order to survive the struggle for power?

Party May Expel Ousted Red Chiefs

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet press hinted strongly today the way is being cleared to expel V. M. Molotov, Georgi Malenkov and Lazar Kaganovich from the Soviet Communist party. The government newspaper Izvestia listed various degrees of punishment which can be invoked against party members who plot against the party's "monolithic unity."

Deputy Premier Kaganovich were ousted from the party's ruling body in last week's purge. Malenkov, successor to Stalin as premier, has been singled out for the most severe criticism. The government paper declared in a full-page discussion that the 10th party Congress authorized the Central Committee, in cases of violation of discipline or revival of factionalism, to use "all measures of party retribution up to and including expulsion from the party."

Izvestia quoted Lenin and decisions of the 10th party Congress of 1921 to show that "plotters against party unity" are liable to punishment up to and including expulsion from the lowest ranks of the Communist party. Malenkov, former Foreign Minister Molotov and former First

Up to now the party press has been referring to the three and former Foreign Minister Dmitri Shepilov, demoted along with them, as "comrades." This indicated that however low they had fallen, they still were in the party ranks.

The survival of Czech Communist Party Secretary Antonin Novotny will be watched as a guidepost by many. If Novotny, recognized as somewhat of a Stalinist, is booted out during or after Khrushchev's visit, authorities believe many other satellite Stalinists will be toppled from power also. Secretary of State Dulles canceled his weekly news conference today to catch up on the Moscow developments after a six-day vacation. His initial comment was that the reshuffle could be a "power contest" and that "no clear picture has yet emerged."

House Ready To Renew Soil Bank

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House, which voted in May to kill the major part of the Eisenhower farm soil bank program after this year, appeared ready today to back down and grant it one more year of life.

The year's extension was contained in a Senate-House compromise on a $3,600,000,000 agriculture appropriation bill for the fiscal year that started July 1. In addition to money for the current year, the compromise measure would provide authority for a $60 million dollar appropriation for next year's acreage reserve program. Under that program farmers are paid for taking land out of production of basic crops that are in surplus.

Rep. Harrison (D-Va.), who led the successful House fight to end the payments indicated he may not press the battle anew. "I still don't like it," he added. The compromise bill would limit sign-ups for acreage reserve contracts to crops normally planted by July 1 next year, and would halt all payments after Sept. 15, 1958.

Harrison told a reporter the cut-off date should prevent use of soil bank funds in next year's congressional elections. "Use of this money in the elections last year was disgraceful," he said, echoing charges made during last year's campaign that payments to farmers were hurried into strategic areas just before the election.

"Under this bill, if they're going to use the money for election purposes next year, they're going to have to spend it before the middle of September."

Senate and House conferees said they expected the compromise to be passed by the House without too much trouble. Democratic and Republican conferees were united in their support of the bill. The compromise would put a $3,000 million on the amount of Soil Bank money any one farmer can receive.

The bill also would direct the government to see that farmers make a genuine effort to reduce their total production by the amount of crop land they place in the soil bank.

The conservation reserve program also would be tightened up by a directive to the Secretary of Agriculture to "give careful consideration" to the value of the land converted to trees, grass and other long-range conservation purposes. The government also makes payments for this land, under the soil bank program.

The bill would authorize $25 million dollars for conservation reserve payments. The House voted 250 million dollars, the Senate 350 million.

Secretary of Agriculture Benson told the House Agriculture Committee in January there was "absolutely no truth" to such allegations. He said he had tried to administer the program "honestly and fairly."

Agriculture Department officials have noted repeatedly that the program was late in starting in 1956 because the law to establish it was not passed until late in the session. Actual payments did not start until September, and continued through October.

Harrison noted the situation will be different next year, saying:

'ROUND TOWN With Lucille Pickle

That song, "The Best Things in Life Are Free" has been running through my brain these last few weeks, and I have worked hard on it, but I can't figure out a good vacation trip that fits in with the title. But an airlines company has it all figured out. In the late mail comes a little dream sheet that takes as its song title "It's a Woman's World," and in this little bit of dreamery one is told how perfectly delightful it is to travel by air to Paris, Rome, Rio or Hong Kong! It even tells one how well she may dine, which is no attraction to me. We go in plenty on our regular fare cooked by you-know-who.

All this wonderful bunch of stuff that a pure dreamer has written just leaves the men out of it altogether. It doesn't even stop to consider that the poor old guys will probably have to foot the bill in the long run. That always comes up some time or another and is exactly why I am still working on that "Best Things in Life Are Free" title.

New High In Luxury For Fall

Fabrics, color and trim will hit a new high in luxury this fall, according to styles being shown by leading designers. At left, a peg-top dress, designed by Claire McCardell, is of soft gray fur-flop. Feature of the dress is the new "easy" wrapped midriff.

Dynamic Style Seen In Derby Collection

(Editor's Note: This is the second of five articles on the fall fashion showings this week in New York.)

By DOROTHY ROE

Associated Press Women's Editor

NEW YORK —A red, white and blue plaid velvet dinner costume with shoes to match was the show today at Jane Derby's preview of fall fashions, on the first day of a crowded week of showings for the nation's fashion press.

The colorful and dramatic gown climaxed a showing of opulent dresses and suits designed for a prosperous and luxury-loving public.

Sensational is the only word for the Derby evening collection, which uses color with the abandon of a Fourth of July fireworks display, playing up shocker colors and brilliant metallics, along with unusual prints such as bold floral printed chiffons.

Daytime suits and costumes here are fur-bearing, slender and easy of fit. If the suits aren't fur-trimmed they are satin-trimmed, and sometimes both fur and satin are used for a luxury touch, such as a mink-collared suit tied with a big brown satin bow.

The belted and bloused silhouette is the pet of the Nettle Rosenstein collection, in marked contrast with the loose, unfitted lines predominant in most other showings. Mrs. Rosenstein likes a neat waistline, and although she doesn't cinch it, she marks it with a belt-wide or contoured but definitely shaping the silhouette.

The original advocate of the "little black dress," this designer again shows many sleek and sexy black outfits, notable among which is a long, slithering black crepe dinner dress with long sleeves and low-cut back, slit front and looking like a suitable gown for a femme fatale.

Evening gowns here are luxurious and dramatic, the most effective being slender, draped and bearing trains.

Dawson County To Share Park Costs

LAMESA — The Dawson County Commissioners Court Monday voted to pay the City of Lamesa one-half of the purchase price of the new park being developed in the Hollis-Carver Addition.

The county's share is $2,256 and will be paid from the officer salary fund. The city recently purchased the property and has begun development of the park.

Judge Aubrey Boswell reported to the commissioners that he had been informed that Dawson County was the first county in the Lubbock district of the State Highway Department to enter into an agreement with the state for the securing of right-of-way for highway improvements.

"This does not necessarily mean we will actually be the first county to collect money from the state under the agreement," said Judge Boswell.

The commissioners voted to call a meeting for 1:30 p.m. Thursday with property owners along U.S. 180 to discuss sale of right-of-way needed for the widening of the highway to the Gaines County line.

The report of County Treasurer Clyde Bostick, as of June 30, 1957, revealed a balance in the county treasury of $258,735.05, an increase of almost $30,500 over the balance at the same time last year. In discussing the report with the court, however, Boswell pointed out that several funds were considerably lower than last year. Included are the general, jury, road and bridge and officers salary accounts.

Judge Boswell pointed out, too, that the precincts had each paid $4,000 for the construction of the new cotton classing office during the past month, swelling June expenditures to $43,685.36. Without that expenditure, said the judge, the expenditures would have been about normal.

A bonding company representative, Gordon Charleton of San Angelo, met with the court to discuss the sale of some government bonds in which permanent school funds are invested, and the reinvestment of that money in school and municipal bonds.

Cecil Speck met with the court to discuss charity patients at the Lamesa General Hospital.

Stockholders In Oil Firm Offer Merger

CORPUS CHRISTI (AP)—La Gloria Oil and Gas officials said yesterday the firm will become a subsidiary of Texas Eastern Transmission of Shreveport if a 70 million dollar stock transaction is approved.

George Brown of Houston, chairman of La Gloria, said Texas Eastern directors have voted to offer stockholders of La Gloria one share of Texas Eastern common for each of the one million shares of La Gloria capital stock outstanding.

Orville Carpenter, Texas Eastern president, said the transaction would involve about 70 million dollars.

John Lyne Guardia president, said "I do not foresee any obstacle that would prevent the transaction from being completed."

He said the offer had been approved by the La Gloria board of directors, but must be approved by the Securities Exchange Commission and accepted by holders of 81 per cent of La Gloria shares.

La Gloria would be operated with its present management and personnel as a subsidiary of Texas Eastern, Carpenter said.

La Gloria's main producing properties and plants are located along Texas Eastern's pipeline system in Texas. It owns a refinery at Tyler and a natural gas processing plant at Fallurrias. At the end of 1956 it owned interests in 326 producing oil and gas wells. Crude production of the 17-year-old company averaged 7,000 barrels a day while natural gas production averaged 80 million cubic feet a day. Gasoline, kerosene and other gas production averaged about 8,500 barrels daily.

Reds Ask 2-Year Test Suspension

LONDON (AP)—Brushing aside the U.S. proposal for a 10-month ban on H-bomb tests, Russia insisted yesterday they be suspended for at least two years and that an East-West formula be worked out completely renouncing nuclear weapons.

Russia's Valerian Zorin rejected key points of the latest U.S. proposals in a 30-minute speech before the five-nation U.N. Disarmament subcommittee.

Taken aback by the stiffening in the Soviet attitude, Western delegates canceled today's session so they could study Zorin's remarks.

British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd termed the speech disappointing while Jules Moch of France said it "seemed propagandist."

One U.S. official said the speech would disappoint anyone looking for concessions from the Kremlin. But he contended that at least Zorin took no backward step.

Moscow radio had warned earlier this week that anyone who expected concessions as a result of the shakeup in the Soviet hierarchy would be disappointed.

On the positive side, Zorin again said his government was convinced a partial disarmament treaty could be worked out. Apparently he meant it could if the West accepted the Soviet proposals.

The Soviet delegate rejected the U.S. proposal that scientists be assigned to map out how a suspension of nuclear tests might be enforced.

"To bring experts together now is a waste of time," he said.

He again demanded that nuclear tests be suspended at once for two or three years. Russia, he added, would consider Western demands that such a suspension be linked with a cutoff of nuclear weapon production. But he renewed demands—which the West has rejected—that such an agreement contain a renunciation of use of nuclear weapons.

Khrushchey Turned Tables On Enemies

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia (AP)—Reports from Moscow circulating in this Communist capital say Russia's ruling Presidium actually voted to oust Nikita Khrushchey but he turned the tables to dump his top opponents.

The Soviet Communist party chief was said to have had the powerful backing of Defense Minister Georgi Zhukov and First Deputy Premier A. I. Mikoyan in turning back the move against him.

This account, which originated with Communist sources in the Soviet capital, could not be confirmed officially but close observers of Russian affairs believe it probably is true. It goes like this:

A special session of the Presidium was held June 17. It presumably was called at the request of now ousted Deputy Premier V. M. Molotov and his supporters.

With three unidentified members absent, a majority supported a formal motion to remove Khrushchey and name a new Communist party hierarchy, including all new party secretaries.

Khrushchey — with only Zhukov and Mikoyan in his corner — challenged the vote. He declared he was elected first secretary by the party Central Committee, was responsible to and could be fired only by the committee.

Zhukov's support of Khrushchey's position carried special weight because the marshal spoke as head of the armed forces.

Faced with that opposition, the Presidium members agreed to call a meeting of the Central Committee. It opened June 22 and continued through June 29.

When the committee session ended, Khrushchey came out with its full backing and Molotov, Georgi Malenkov and Lazar Kaganovich were booted out.

From Warsaw came a report that the chief differences between Khrushchey and his opponents centered on agricultural policy.

AVERAGE IS 2.22

Biggest Rains Gauged In July

Yes, Junior, it can rain in July in Big Spring.

Residents, particularly the newcomers, have been eyeing the cloudless blue skies, which have prevailed steadily since this month began and anxiously watching the hot sun beat down on the countryside.

"Does it ever rain in July in this part of the country?" they query.

It does, indeed.

The average rainfall for the month over the first 50 years of the century was 2.22 inches. Even in the seven years since 1949, there have been two Julys in which more than four inches of moisture fell. In 1950, the July rains totaled 4.26 inches. In 1955, there was 4.94 inches of rain in July.

Wettest July in all Big Spring history was in 1902. During that month 12.89 inches of rain was gauged. Four of the heaviest rains for given dates in July in the past 57 years fell in that month. These four rains provided 10.50 inches of the 12.89 total.

In 1945, July provided 9.45 inches moisture. There have been eight years when the rain in July was better than four inches.

The 12.89-inch deluge of July 1902 is the wettest one month the district has ever known—nearest to it is April 1923 when 12.77 inches rain fell. October 1908 with 11.87 inches is in third place.

Removal Of Tick Cures Paralysis

JACKSON, Miss. (AP)—University of Mississippi Medical Center physicians say a 3-year-old Indian girl has been cured of almost complete paralysis by the removal of a tick from her scalp.

Doctors said a pregnant tick of a certain species secretes a venom that can cause paralysis and could cause death.

The little girl, admitted to the hospital July 4, had lost speech and movement. The paralysis began in her feet and spread through her entire body.

Doctors found the tick in her scalp. When the insect was removed, the girl was cured.

Ford wins the battle of the builds

Sure! Many people buy Fords because of their long, low, whistle-collecting looks. Do you blame them? But beauty alone isn't enough to earn for a car the No. 1 spot in America's heart. And that's just what Ford has earned. The real secrets of Ford's success are the extra values that go into building a Ford. Let's look at a few of these features. Ford shares them only with a select number of America's most expensive cars. But you get them at low Ford prices.

1. Only Ford in its field has a frame design that lets you ride within the side members for greater roominess, smoothness and safety.
2. Only Ford in its field gives you a modern V-8 engine with rigid, deep-block design for smoother, quieter, longer-lived operation.
3. Only Ford in its field offers automatic variable-rate rear springs that automatically adjust to give a smoother ride on roughest roads.
4. Only Ford in its field offers new swept-back ball-joint front suspension that "rolls with the punch."
5. Only Ford in its field offers as many as five strengthening roof cross members for a more rigid roof.
6. Only Ford offers such a savingful car. A Ford Six beat all other cars in the Mobilgas Economy Run in the miles-per-gallon department.
7. Only Ford in its field offers a frame with 3 tubular cross members. There are 5 cross members in all... enabling the frame to withstand stress from all directions.
8. Only Ford electronically balances every V-8 engine while it's operating under its own power.
9. Only Ford in its field offers so much soundproofing for a quieter ride under all road conditions.
10. Only Ford in its field offers a well sealed body for greater freedom from dust wherever you go.
11. Only Ford in its field offers your door assist springs and two-position front door checks for easier entrance.

Accused Spy Claims French Asylum, Spokesman Denies It

By STANLEY JOHNSON PARIS (AP)—Russian-born George Zlatovski, indicted in New York on a charge of selling secret data to the Soviet Union, declared today France has granted political asylum to him and his wife, Jane. A government spokesman denied it.

The spokesman, a Foreign Ministry official, said the question of political asylum would come up only if and when the United States formally asks extradition of the couple.

The United States has not yet presented such a request, though official moves are under way. The case was being discussed in both the U. S. Embassy and the French Foreign Ministry. The question is complicated because extradition also would involve the French Justice and Interior ministers.

As the spokesman outlined procedure: As soon as a request is in hand, the case will be handed to a "chambre mise en accusation," the rough equivalent of a grand jury. The United States must present all the facts, as in any other request for extradition. The court will have three weeks to decide the case.

Zlatovski, 47, a Russian-born naturalized American who formerly was a lieutenant in U. S. Army intelligence, declared in an interview at his Left Bank apartment: "The French have given us political asylum. We are their guests. We can say nothing which would embarrass our hosts."

Volunteers Testing Asiatic Flu Serums

WASHINGTON (AP)—Human volunteers are helping to test experimental vaccines designed to combat Asiatic flu—and another week or so may reveal whether one can be standardized for practical use.

A spokesman for the U. S. Public Health Service said today that five manufacturers have submitted samples of proposed vaccines to the service's Communicable Disease Center at Montgomery, Ala. "Potency" tests are under way there.

The spokesman cautioned, however, that even if one or more of the vaccines passes the tests, it will not be possible to produce them in unlimited quantities by fall — when influenza usually is most prevalent.

He said a few "relatively localized outbreaks" of the disease — which has reached epidemic form in Asian nations — already have occurred in the United States. Other outbreaks of influenza-like diseases are suspected of being the Asiatic type, though not yet confirmed as such.

The malady is a relatively mild one in that it seldom produces complications, but patients have high fevers and "ache all over." No deaths stemming from it have been reported in this country.

The spokesman said vaccine samples from one manufacturer, whom he declined to identify, have been under test at Montgomery for "two or three weeks," but that samples from the other four were received only last week. He said it takes a month or more to complete the tests.

In the tests, the spokesman said human volunteers are injected with the vaccine, and tested at weekly intervals to determine how much resistance they have developed in the form of "antibodies" in their blood.

He stressed that there is no danger of the volunteers developing the flu itself as a result, because the infective route for the disease is by way of the nose and throat.

Not So Velvety In Traffic Fight

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Mel Torme, the "velvet fog" crooner, has pictured himself as not so velvety in a traffic altercation.

He told it thus yesterday: A motorist repeatedly bumped his car against the back of Torme's. The singer got out and asked how come. The other driver jumped out, swung at Torme and missed.

Torme swung back and felled his antagonist. The latter jumped, swung, and a ring on the man's finger grazed Torme's eye. The man sped away, his license number unnoticed by Torme.

Newsman heard the crooner relate the Saturday incident in explaining why he was late yesterday at a rehearsal. He said he'd just visited a doctor, who said the eye was unhurt.

B & K Visit Czechoslovakia

PRAGUE, Czechoslovakia (AP)—Soviet Premier Bulganin and party chief Nikita Khrushchev crossed the border into Czechoslovakia by train today to begin an official visit hard on the heels of the sweeping Kremlin shakeup.

Prague radio said the two Soviet leaders received a warm welcome at the frontier station of Cerna party problems with the visitors.

Antonin Novotny and a crowd of 15,000.

The welcome included greetings from a number of lesser Czech government and party leaders, an honor guard, children bearing flowers, speeches and "welcome kisses." Both Soviet chieftains beamed as they stepped from their train into the bright sunshine.

Similar welcome demonstrations awaited them all along the route to Prague. The 500-mile journey to this Communist capital will take another 24 hours, giving Novotny plenty of time to talk over party problems with the visitors.

Uncle Ray:

Mice Are Destroyed
By Butcher Birds

BY RAMON COFFEMAN

Butcher birds have won little favor, but some farmers say that they do more good than harm. They are found in most parts of North America, as well as on other continents.

Butcher birds of North America are from nine to 10 inches long. They are fairly close to robins in size, but their colors are gray, white and black.

Northern butcher birds (also called northern shrikes) nest in various parts of Canada and Alaska. In winter they go to such states as Kentucky and Virginia, also to California, Arizona and Texas. Some of them, however, spend time above snow-covered fields and (with other food scarce) attack sparrows and chickadees.

Southern butcher birds (also called southern shrikes or loggerhead shrikes) nest and live chiefly south of the Mason and Dixon Line. In winter, especially, they are found in Mexico, as well as in states which border the Gulf of Mexico.

Wherever they live, butcher birds like to eat insects and field mice. In some sections they perform helpful work in keeping down the number of locusts.

Butcher birds also eat lizards and young snakes. Sometimes they spy those reptiles from heights of 57 or 100 feet before swooping down. Butcher birds have the custom of carrying victims to thorn trees when possible. A mouse or English sparrow may be hung from a long thorn. Later the victim is eaten.

A butcher bird.

Q. Are butcher birds able to sing?
A. The males sing after a fashion. Their song is rather poor, however, and hardly as good as that of a catbird. They utter harsh call notes.

A short circle that carried me through the Coahoma area yesterday revealed that crops are holding up well in that area. Young cotton is not growing too fast and could use some rain, however moisture is more plentiful than it is in the north part of the county.

D. C. Buchanan was installing a pipeline at his dairy. This is a milk line and is made of glass tubes. As the electric milkers operate, the fluid is taken through the pipes, strained automatically and flows into the big, 600-gallon refrigerated tank.

Buchanan says it will save a lot of labor and will cut down on milking time. He is well pleased with the new dairy set-up. The dairy men used to drive to town every morning and wait until 10:00 o'clock for the milk truck from Midland. The milking and delivery took most of the morning. Now they can finish milking and get in several hours field work before noon, because the dairy trucks come to each farm and get the milk without the owner's help.

Buchanan is hoping to group a good feed crop this year. He has cane and Atlas sorgho which will be made into silage. He says the feed at the home place northeast of Big Spring is growing well. He is farming some land southeast of Lee's Store, however, and says the feed down there is burning up.

An area crop report from Lubbock states that cotton in most counties is making good growth. Some of it has begun to set squares.

Insects are working in some sections but have not become a serious problem yet. Cabbage loopers are ragging up cotton in Terry County. Grasshoppers are damaging crops in Garza, Scurry and Yoakum counties. Thrips, fleas, hoppers and some aphids are found in most areas, but have not done much damage.

The farm and backyard poultry flocks seem to be gradually disappearing from this section, according to C. J. Chapman, Stanton feed dealer. Low egg prices have contributed to it. Also the tendency of people to get away from "chore jobs" has been another factor.

Martin County is still producing about as many eggs as ever, but most of them come from three or four big caged flocks. Chapman says these poultrymen are sweating out some low egg prices now, but every indication points to profitable sales this fall. There has been a large reduction in the number of hens in the country, and this egg shortage should start prices climbing before cool weather.

Yesterday morning I was down at the Texas Employment Commission noticing the swarm of common laborers hunting jobs. My sympathy goes out to these people, because I know a lot about common labor jobs. I worked at several unskilled jobs in my younger days and know the kind of money such work pays.

I used to hang around the employment office in Amarillo during the early depression days and worked off and on at a variety of jobs. I drove a five-mile team, washed dishes in a cafe, helped an old lady paint a barn and even pushed a wheel barrow overloaded with bricks.

Only twice did I get fired. I got fired from the mule-skinning job because the head mule and I didn't see eye to eye on things. He tried to kill me with his hind feet, and I condensed his skull with a six-foot two by four.

I got fired another time, but this was caused by taking the wrong advice. It happened one day when a man came to the office to get some spud-sorters. He carried six of us to a warehouse where we were to pick out the rotten potatoes from the good ones and put them in the proper piles.

One kid got fired the first five minutes. He saw a big rat peeking

Out from behind some feed sacks and started chinking potatoes at it. The boss chased the boy off without paying him anything.

The next to go was a fat, middle-aged man who used only one hand at the job. He claimed the other one had been hit with a beer bottle the night before and was too sore to move.

That left four of us, two boys who came together, and a tall, scar-faced man who looked like Satan's half-brother. The boys tired out before noon and were going at it in slow motion when the boss came back and told them to get out. He then complimented Scarface and me and said we were real workers. He was leaving for lunch, but gave us permission to work right on through the lunch hour.

After he was gone, Scarface looked at the pile of spuds and said: "Kid, the way we're going, we'll run out of spuds in another hour. Slow down, we gotta make this job last all day."

So we slowed down. We would pick up a potato, look it over carefully, balance it with one hand then the other, and finally lay it gently in the right pile. Frequently we rested between potatoes and went to get a drink.

"Tell you what, kid," Scarface said, as the pile of spuds got smaller and smaller, "I'll bet them bums this morning threw away a lot of good potatoes. Maybe we better go through that rotten pile again and pick out the good ones. We'd sure be doing the boss a big favor by it."

Evidently the boss didn't appreciate the favor. We were breezing along at a sleepy turtle's pace when he returned and caught us. He looked at the potatoes and then at us. Then he strode into his office and came out holding some money.

He slammed the money into our hands and said: "Now I'll give you just 10 seconds to get off this property. And if that employment office sends another deadbeat down here, I'll shoot him right between the eyes!"

Such scenes made me realize there wasn't much future in this sort of work. Not long afterwards I decided it might be best to return to school.

I haven't done much common labor the last few years, but I can sympathize with anyone who does. It's sure a hard way to make a living.

Theatre Group Schedules Two One-Act Plays

A pair of one-act plays, "Sorry, Wrong Number" and "The Game of Chess," will be presented by Summer actors of '57, a new theatrical group.

Rehearsals opened a week ago and dates for the presentation have been set for July 18-19 at 8:30 p.m. in the Howard County Junior College auditorium. Nick Trapattas is directing. Admission will be 75 and 55 cents.

George Clark, with a number of successful roles to his credit, has been cast as Alexis Alexandrovitch, governor of a Russian state, in Goodman's "The Game of Chess." In the supporting role is Robert Corn, a newcomer to Big Spring but no novice to the stage. Corn, now stationed at Webb Air Force Base, has had experience with theater groups in California. He plays Boris Shamrayeff, selected by lot to assassinate the governor.

MYSTERY THRILLER
Miss Billie Freeman stars in Lucille Fletcher's "Sorry, Wrong Number," the tale of a neurotic invalid whose only contact with the outside world is her phone. This mystery thriller moves to a rapid and unexpected climax with Margy Keaton and Charles Panagakos cast in supporting roles.

The Cosden Chorus under the direction of Orland Johnson will sing between plays. This will mark its first Big Spring appearance since arrival of new choral uniforms.

Sgt. Robert Martinez is stage manager and technical advisor. Both Martinez and Trapattas are well-known to Big Springers. They represented Webb AFB in the Air Force "Tops in Blue" competition. They are active in Big Spring Civic Theater work, and have given a helping hand with other civic projects. They will be most recently remembered for the part they played in the recent production of Victor Herbert's "The Fortune Teller."

Solon Lashes Censorship

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Moss (D-Calif.), head of a House Government Information subcommittee, today called "unrealistic" a Pentagon directive restricting information on the Air Force guided missile program.

Moss told a reporter the Air Force has a good case in trying to get the directive changed because, he said, it "appears to do more harm to the Air Force guided missile program" than it contributes to security.

Brig. Gen. Arno H. Luehman, director of the Air Force Office on Information Services, told the subcommittee yesterday that he believed progress on the missile program had reached the point "where maybe we ought to tell a little more about it."

Luehman said his office was concerned over what he called "erroneous impressions" that the Air Force is making little progress in its missile program, and was considering asking Air Force Secretary James H. Douglas to take the matter up with Secretary of Defense Wilson.

Poison To Battle Lawn Pests Is Available At R&H Hardware

Grub worms, bane of the lovers of beautiful lawns, are beginning to make their appearance in Big Spring, according to word reaching R&H Hardware 504 Johnson. Homeowners have been dropping in with increasing regularity in recent days asking for a remedy. R&H always recommends that grub and especially the Ortho brand of the poison. Properly used, the store insists, this poison will quickly put an end to the grub-worms and the damage they do to expensive and valued lawns. They also recommend fertilizing the lawn with Goldwath's Turf-Special — a specially blended fertilizer which R&H has found does wonders for lawns in the Big Spring area. The product includes all of the needed minerals that grass must have to do its best. It is found only at R&H in Big Spring.

Another new line at the store of particular interest to flower growers is a new type of Gras-Stop — corrugated zinc strips, six inches wide, which can be driven along a flower bed and block grass runners from spreading into the flower area.

Remington 'Quiet-Riters' Come In Decorator Colors

You no longer have to type on a drab colored typewriter. Remington Quiet-Riters come in decorator colors to give you typing perfection and color, too. Click's Press, 302 E. 9th, carries the Remington Quiet-Riter which comes in four subtle shades — white sand for the modern mood, mist green, an extremely versatile tint, French gray for harmonizing with any decor, and a rich, appealing shade called desert sage. The Remington Quiet-Riter is a truly modern portable which features Exclusive Miracle Tab. This tab sets and clears tab stops right from the keyboard. Another feature is the patented simplified ribbon changer which reduces ribbon changing to an easy operation. The Quiet Riter is a portable which has the 44-key, 88-character keyboard found on the latest, finest office typewriters, plus a new carrying case, styled to mix and match with the finest luggage. In addition to the Quiet-Riter, Click's also carries the Remington Office-Riter, a perfect low-cost typewriter for the modern business or professional office, and the Remington Rand electric adding machine which also comes in cheerful new colors.

Nalley-Pickle Equipped For All Emergencies

When tragedy strikes in a family, many loved ones are at a loss as to what course to take toward planning a proper service. Fortunately, there are agencies licensed and long experienced in just such work. One such concern is the Nalley-Pickle Funeral Home, located at 906 Gregg Street in Big Spring.

Both Coy Nalley and J. C. Pickle, owners and managers of the concern bearing their names, are experienced embalmers and funeral directors, duly commissioned by the state.

If the deceased was under the care of a physician, you should call the one who was attending him, then call the funeral director of your choice.

If the deceased was not under the care of a physician or death resulted from accidental or unknown causes, the coroner or medical examiner will have to issue a death certificate. Your funeral director can advise you.

In all cases, you should notify your funeral director promptly. He will respond, day or night, and his work is hampered enormously if you delay, even for a short time.

His counsel will be invaluable to you, as well. Remember he has devoted his life to a study of many details and the ways and means of dealing with them and can relieve you of needless worry and care.

Not only does the Nalley-Pickle concern plan and carry out services but maintains three ambulances to act in times of emergency. Drivers and attendants are trained to act without the loss of valuable time, when a few seconds might mean the difference between the life and death of an individual.

Nalley-Pickle burial insurance, which provides funds when they are needed most, can be purchased through the concern and payments can be made any way the customer desires — quarterly, semi-annually or annually.

Ross Prepares Choice Barbecue

For the finest in real, old-fashioned pit barbecue, all you have to do is go to the Ross Barbecue Stand.

The name "Ross" has come to be synonymous with "barbecue" throughout this area. The Ross Barbecue Stand, located at 904 E. 3rd Street, has become a landmark in the city, because of its reputation for serving only the choicest cuts of barbecued meats.

Owned and operated by L. M. Ross, the establishment has been located at its present address for many years. Newcomers to the city aren't long in hearing of the popular barbecue center and, after their first orders of the tangy, delicious barbecue served there, they quickly become staunch customers.

Old timers of the area, of course know all about Ross' barbecue. They've been eating it for years, and know that the consistent high quality on which Leslie Ross has built his reputation will be maintained.

Ross barbecue has been known and enjoyed in Big Spring for two generations. It is prepared according to an exclusive recipe which Leslie Ross inherited from his parents who were in the business here before him.

Leslie, of course, has become a master at preparation of the delicious barbecue. Using the famous recipe, he turns out real "West Texas barbecue" over old-fashioned wood fires. Using only the choicest cuts of meat, he assures his patrons of mouth-watering goodness with every bite of the delicious barbecue.

The Ross Barbecue Stand is located on the west-bound segment of U.S. 80 in the eastern part of Big Spring. It may be reached from the east on East Third or from the downtown area by way of Fourth Street. It is just half a block west of Donley, so patrons from the western or downtown sections of the city should drive on either Second or Fourth to Donley, turn back to third on Donley and then back west a half block to reach the establishment.

Comedian's Doomed Son Off To Europe

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Young Richard Skelton, suffering from leukemia, is off to see the ruins of Pompeii. That's the sight the famed comic's son most wants to see in Europe.

The Skelton family—Red, wife Georgia, daughter Valentina, 10, and Richard, 9—left by Scandinavian Airlines early today for Copenhagen. Bo Roos Sr., business manager for the comic, also went along.

"I just want Richard to see some of the great wonders of the world," Red told a reporter as his carrot-topped son played nearby as vigorously as any other boy his age.

The boy's illness is in the so-called remission stage where the cancerous blood cells apparently lie dormant.

The boy's doctor has pronounced him in the pink for the trip. Specialists in Copenhagen, Zurich and other European cities will give the boy checkups en route.

"Our main concern is to see that he does not become overly tired on the trip," Mrs. Skelton said. That, she added, is a big job even when the child is home.

The itinerary has been arranged so that all European hops will be short ones and the stays in the various countries leisurely.

Countries to be visited will include Denmark, Sweden, Germany, Switzerland, England, France, Italy, Spain, the island of Majorca, the Azores and, finally, Mexico City and home.

The trip will take approximately six weeks or longer. Plans to visit the Far East have been postponed.

Richard's desire to visit Pompeii came about in typical small boy fashion. All last week, a local television station has been showing the old movie, "The Last Days of Pompeii."

Red said that his son watched it with childish fascination almost every night. The boy said he wanted to see the ruins and that was all his father needed.

Texas Cools Off, Showers Are Forecast

By The Associated Press

Texas had cooled off a bit Tuesday and more showers were forecast.

Showers hit Palacios, Victoria and Beaumont Monday and Houston and Austin Tuesday.

Skies were partly cloudy from Waco south to the coast and clear elsewhere.

Early morning temperatures ranged from 82 degrees at Galveston to 65 at Amarillo.

A weak cool front helped keep Monday's readings down in the Panhandle.

Highs Monday ranged from 104 at Salt Flat to 89 at Galveston and Corpus Christi.

Chester Barr, 44, was killed by lightning in his backyard during a storm at Houston Monday.

A northerly flow of cool, dry air spread across broad areas in the midcontinent today, ending a spell of hot and humid weather.

No immediate relief was indicated from the warm and humid weather in the East and Southeast.

Biggest temperature drops during the night were in the Great Lakes region and Mississippi Valley, with readings in the 50s and 60s compared to the humid 70s and 80s the previous night. The southern boundary of the cool air extended from the lower Great Lakes region to the mid-Mississippi Valley.

Widespread thunderstorms were reported along the southern fringes of the cool air. A thunderstorm at Indianapolis was marked by gusty winds of 63 m.p.h. The Weather Bureau reported 2.35 inches of rain in a six-hour period in Pittsburgh. Many low-lying sections were flooded.

Earlier yesterday, violent storms struck areas in Michigan, Wisconsin and Illinois. Torrential rains drenched Detroit, with up to 6 inches of rain in six hours. More than 100,000 automobiles were stranded in what police termed the Motor City's worst traffic jam.

Swap Horned Toads

VALLEY FORGE, Pa. (AP)—Among hundreds of packages in the National Boy Scout Jamboree post office were three parcels addressed to the Texas Scouts of the San Houston Council. They contained horned toads—prime material for swapping.

'Skullduggery' Claimed In U.S. Drought Relief Program

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Williams (R-De) said today he thinks the term "skullduggery" well describes some things that have happened under the federal drought relief program.

Williams called Agriculture Department officials for further questioning by members of a Senate Agriculture subcommittee investigating 1954-56 operations of the plan.

The subcommittee heard testimony yesterday that some drought relief money was used to support a Texas county official's polo hobby and his dog; that much was used by recipients in various states to pay off old bills, and that the chairman and another member of the Upton County, Tex., Agricultural Stabilization Committee received thousands of dollars of payments to which they were not entitled.

A. S. Rounsaville of Dallas, an Agriculture Department auditor, also told the group audits have disclosed irregularities totaling nearly two million dollars in the 212 million dollar feed grain program. But he said irregularities were the exception rather than the rule.

Williams, chairman of the subcommittee, said he hoped Kenneth Scott, a top echelon boss of the program, will be prepared to testify about some $32,585 worth of "relief" Williams said was received in 1954 by "the famous King Ranch, a fabulously rich outfit in Texas."

Williams has told the Senate the King Ranch had been allowed to buy 931 tons of cottonseed pellets for its cattle at a discount of $33 a ton. He said then this was done "on the assumption that they were a farmer in distress."

Williams said he still believes what he told the Senate in 1954—that was "a shocking misuse of a well intended program."

Williams said officials of the King Ranch—a cattle empire which Williams described as "bigger than the state of Delaware"—will be permitted to testify if they desire, but that meanwhile he wants Scott to tell whether the big ranch ever paid back the $32,585 or got other federal farm aid.
