Felt Better Than Straw Tastes

You feel better with new felt feel by donning a new felt hat, Dr. Jackson Friedlander advises Carlton (Choo Choo) Carr. You don't really have to go to such extremes as eating that old straw, which, even with cream and sugar, isn't the most pleasant way to bid summer farewell. Men will find it a lot simpler and more delightful to visit their favorite store and try on new hats for the autumn season. All of which means that Felt Hat Day is Friday—and you'll find a lot of latest types listed in today's Herald.

Harry Lester Services Set

Harry Q. Lester, 61, retired rancher-businessman, died suddenly of heart attack at his home, 1204 Johnson, Wednesday afternoon.

He had sustained his first attack about a year ago. Services have been set for 10 a.m. Friday at the River Funeral Home with Dr. Jordan Grooms, First Methodist minister, officiating. Burial will be in Trinity Memorial Park with Masonic rites at the graveside.

Mr. Lester was a life-long resident of Big Spring, having been born Aug. 21, 1896 as one of the children of the late Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lester, in the family home where the Lyric Theatre building now is located.

For many years he operated an auto supply business that served the entire area. Later, he devoted his energies to his ranching interests until he retired.

Mr. Lester was a member of the First Methodist Church and of the Staked Plains Masonic Lodge. Surviving him are his wife; three brothers, Howard Lester and Noel Lester, Big Spring, and Dr. S. W. Lester, Port LaVaca; and two sisters, Miss Paula Lester, Big Spring, and Mrs. Lois Swartz of California.

Active pallbearers will be Harold Homan, Lee Porter, Willard Sullivan, Joe Flock, Jake Bishop, Sam McComb, Bob Middleton and Robert Currie. All friends will be considered as honorary pallbearers.

YOUR NEWSBOY IS IN SCHOOL

Now that your Herald Carrier boy has returned to school, he will be a little later in making his afternoon rounds. He just can't start his route until he has completed his day's classes. Your Herald delivery will not be on the same schedule as the summer months, but please be patient. Your carrier boy will be at your door as soon as possible. If your delivery service is not satisfactory otherwise, please call the Circulation Department, AM 4-4331.

BenJack Agrees To Lie Detector Test

DALLAS (AP)—BenJack Cage, ICT Insurance Co. promoter who is telling the grand jury which indicted him on charges of embezzling $600,000 his side of the story, will take a lie detector test.

Dist. Atty. Henry Wade said yesterday Cage would take the test. "You can't make anyone take it, but he (Cage) is willing," Wade said. "It will concern some of the matters he's testified about before the grand jury. We want to see whether he is telling the truth."

Wade said the decision was reached yesterday, after Cage testified for the second day. He faced another quiz today.

Cage won an indefinite delay of his embezzlement trial yesterday. Texas Dist. Judge Frank Wilson agreed with Cage's attorney, M. R. Irion, that the former head of the collapsed insurance firm would be tied up for some time by investigators.

Bodies wanting to talk with Cage include: The Travis County grand jury, two legislative investigating committees, the Internal Revenue Service, the Postal Department, the Securities and Exchange Commission and the liquidator for ICT Insurance Co.

Cage, smiling and waving to acquaintances, was called to trial yesterday but won the delay.

At Austin, Dist. Atty. Les Procter said Cage would appear before the Travis County grand jury Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. He said Cage would testify before the Special House Investigating Committee in an open hearing Thursday.

Bruce Jones of Los Angeles, who formerly worked on promotion for ICT, testified before the special grand jury yesterday. A few minutes after entering the grand jury room, he came out and told Irion he was going to take a lie detector test. Irion told Jones he didn't have to, but Jones insisted.

Irion said, "Jones made a statement before the grand jury. Apparently the grand jury doubted its veracity. And Jones volunteered to back it up by taking the lie detector test."

Results of the test given Jones were not disclosed. Cage returned to Texas Aug. 12 from South America. He posted bond here, then disappeared. He showed up for the grand jury hearing, but refused to say where he had been.

The promoter claimed he would create fireworks with his testimony.

Special Education Classes To Begin For Handicapped

Special Education Department of the Big Spring schools is functioning in the former South Ward elementary building with nearly 20 students enrolled in two classes.

More students are expected, and S. M. Anderson, assistant superintendent, said another class probably will be organized.

There are seven pupils in Mrs. Mary Newell's class for the orthopedically handicapped. There are about 10 enrolled in Mrs. Alice Gryzka's class for slow learners, Anderson said.

If parents of the severely retarded show sufficient interest, a special class for those youngsters may be set up. Anderson explained that special training can be provided for children who are retarded to the extent that they can't cope with the regular curriculum provided for the other group classified as "slow learners." The latter, he said, are capable of studying regular courses, but are given special attention in the slow learners class.

Plans call for a bus to be put in service for all the students in the special education department in about 10 days. Anderson asked that in the meantime parents bring their children to school so that they may become acquainted with the program and teachers.

Steps also are being taken to set up a class for slow learners in the Lakeview school, the assistant superintendent said.

In addition to the special education classes, speech therapy will be provided in all the elementary schools for pupils with speech impediments. In charge of this work is Mrs. Claudette Crandall.

Judge Orders Dallas Schools To Integrate

New Texas Law Knocked Down

DALLAS (AP)—Federal Judge William Atwell reluctantly ordered Dallas public schools today to start integration after the Christmas holidays. "It is difficult for me to approve this order, but this is a land of law and it is my duty to do what I have been ordered to do by a higher court," the white-haired jurist said.

Atwell, 87, had been reversed two times in a suit brought by parents of 23 Negro pupils in 1955. In a recent reversal the 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals in New Orleans ordered that Dallas schools integrate "with all deliberate speed."

The schools opened yesterday on a segregated basis. The opening was quiet. The only incident was the attempt of a Negro couple to register their children at a grade school.

One new issue is a newly enacted Texas law which prohibits further integration without a favorable local option election. The law prompted the Dallas school board to appeal for a rehearing of the July decision. The Circuit Court of Appeals turned down the request last week. The court, in effect, ruled the new Texas law unconstitutional.

It pointed out the law did not remove the court's obligation to uphold the U.S. Constitution. The decision also noted that the measure does not remove such obligation from state officials in Texas.

Whites Jeer At Negro Student

Walking with calm dignity while a group of jeering pro-segregation white students taunt her, Dorothy Counts approaches Harding High School at Charlotte, N.C. to become the first member of the Negro race to attend the school. Walking beside her is Dr. Edwin Tompkins, a friend of the Counts family and a professor at Johnson C. Smith University, an institution for Negroes at Charlotte.

Navy-Backed Pro-Castro Revolt Erupts In Cuba

HAVANA, Cuba (AP)—A revolt backed by some naval units erupted in Cienfuegos today and the government rushed troops and tanks into that central Cuban city.

The government acted after the rebels seized the police headquarters in fierce fighting that broke out shortly after dawn.

In the rebel forces were some naval and maritime police units and followers of Fidel Castro, rebel chief.

Troops were flown from Havana 150 miles southeast of Cienfuegos.

Supporters of Castro were said to be thronging the streets of Cienfuegos shouting "President Batista has fallen."

Government has been taken over by military junta headed by Castro's men.

Police Chief Antonio Ruiz Beltran had refused to surrender his headquarters and ordered police to resist. They added Beltran later was seized by the rebels and his headquarters surrounded.

Cuban army troops stationed in Havana were ordered to remain silent on the situation in Cienfuegos.

Tanks were shipped in by railway car. Other troops moved up from Santa Clara, capital of Las Villas province.

All shooting was reported to have ceased at noon in Cienfuegos, but bombing planes were said to be attacking the nearby naval station at Cayo Coco.

Telephone reports from Cienfuegos said the rebels at the outset attacked a national police car, killing three.

Cuban navy men, estimated at about 50, joined with 12 maritime police and a number of rebel partisans of Castro in attacking the national police headquarters. The police resisted.

Army and navy headquarters in Havana continued to maintain silence on the situation in Cienfuegos.

Cienfuegos have made no move to intervene. An aide to the army commander was reported killed in early shooting.

Cienfuegos' banks and most business establishments were closed. One Cuban there said "all authority has broken down."

A Cuban navy plane was circling Cienfuegos. Navy headquarters in Havana said it had no information of any outbreak in Cienfuegos.

Cienfuegos, a city of 60,000, lies about 200 miles southeast of Havana and is a big port for shipping sugar.

Enrollment Rises To 5,583 Pupils In City Schools

School enrollment edged upward Wednesday, reaching a total of 5,583 pupils—82 more than were registered the first day of school Tuesday.

Elementary schools picked up 62 additional students and the high school gained 20. There was no change in the junior high. Lakeview High School also remained static with 82 enrolled.

Totals reported today were 3,573 in the nine elementary schools, 1,176 in junior high and 788 in high school.

Enrollment rose to 463 at College Heights where school officials expect to add a new first grade section.

Washington gained 4 pupils, East Ward 3, North Ward 22, West Ward 1, Kate Morrison 25, and Lakeview Elementary 8.

Adjusted figures showed 441 pupils in the Airport School, instead of 449 reported Wednesday, and 204 in Park Hill, where 214 were reported earlier.

Substantial increases are expected at North Ward, Kate Morrison and Lakeview, while smaller gains are anticipated for the other schools. Biggest influx is due next Monday.

Cafeterias were swamped Wednesday, with about 1,300 meals served. Meals are being served for the first time this year in Washington and Airport schools. Others are at Park Hill, junior high and high schools.

Judge, Schoolman In Racial Spotlight

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—Little Rock's stormy integration dilemma has focused the spotlight on a federal judge who describes himself as a onetime "humdrum lawyer," and a school superintendent who finds his man-in-the-middle role a familiar one.

The judge is Ronald N. Davies. Davies, 52, was assigned to Little Rock two weeks ago to clear up a logjam of cases caused by the recent retirement of Judge Thomas C. Trimble. There was no hint at that time that Davies would become a national figure overnight.

The 50-year-old Blossom two years ago steered the charting of a plan for gradual integration of Little Rock schools. Some praised him for his "gradualism"—although that's a nasty word among integration advocates. The National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People criticized him for such a slow approach.

Blossom's plan to first integrate at high school level met federal court approval but crowds of up to 400 persons this week kept it from being carried out.

Blossom apparently has had the support of the Little Rock school board. He was given a new 3-year contract, with a 10 per cent pay raise, only last Friday.

Judge Davies was assigned a few days ago to hear cases in the eastern district of Arkansas until Feb. 24, 1958. The order assigning him was filed Aug. 21 by Chief Judge Archibald K. Gardner of the 8th United States Circuit Court of Appeals at St. Louis.

Sen. J. William Fulbright (D-Ark) has criticized the Eisenhower administration for delay in choosing a permanent judge.

Since his temporary appointment, Judge Davies twice has ruled that Little Rock's Central High School must be integrated.

There were catcalls and little heckling as the Negroes drove up in private cars. The crowd, which numbered about 50, stood quietly across the street when the Negroes walked to the entrance.

The only loud cheer came when state police cleared a path through the jammed entranceway. Many white students refused to move from the steps until prodded by troopers.

Ike Aide Terms Charge 'Not Correct'

NEWPORT, R. I. (AP)—President Eisenhower's headquarters said today it is "not correct" that federal authorities have discussed the possibility of taking Gov. Orval Faubus of Arkansas into custody in the Little Rock school integration case.

"That rumor is not correct," said White House press secretary James C. Hagerty in commenting on a telegram Faubus sent to the President last night.

Hagerty also said there is no truth to what he called another report "to the effect that U. S. marshals or their deputies have been ordered to escort Negro children to school" in Little Rock.

Hagerty said he talked by telephone early this morning with Atty. Gen. Herbert Brownell, who was in Washington. The press secretary said the substance of the conference was that what he later told newsmen—that reports federal authorities had discussed taking Faubus into custody were "not correct."

Hagerty said either he or the President would be in touch with Brownell by phone again later in the day regarding the Little Rock situation.

He noted Brownell already had announced that the facilities of the FBI had been made available for an investigation of suspension of school integration at a Little Rock high school.

Trial's Scandal Torrent Runs Dry

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The torrent of scandal gushing from the criminal libel trial of Confidential magazine has finally run dry.

Final arguments to the jury will begin tomorrow, the last day of the trial's fifth week in Los Angeles County Superior Court. The case is in recess today.

Probably by the end of next week the jury of six men and six women will begin deliberations. It will be up to them to decide whether Confidential and Whisper magazines, Publisher's Distributing Corp., Fred and Marjorie Meade and their Hollywood Research, Inc., are guilty or innocent of conspiracy to commit criminal libel and to print lewd and obscene matter.

If the jury finds them guilty of a felony, the penalty could range up to three years imprisonment, a fine up to $5,000 or both. If the jury decides the offense is a misdemeanor, the term of imprisonment could be up to one year in jail and the fine up to $1,000.

The dominant issue of the trial — was the story about actress Maureen O'Hara making love in a Hollywood theater? — persisted to the very end.

The defense's final witness was a paralyzed former employe of Grauman's Chinese Theater. Testimony of Mrs. Jan Harkins, a young mother, was taken at her bedside in her Los Angeles home.

Mrs. Harkins testified that while working at the candy counter in Grauman's in the spring of 1954, she was told by a fellow employe, James Craig, that Miss O'Hara was "involved in a necking party" in the rear row of seats.

Mrs. Harkins said she did not see Miss O'Hara in the theater. She was the third former employe of the theater called by the defense in its effort to prove the story true.

Craig testified he saw Miss O'Hara and a Latin in a torrid clinch in November 1953. Later, Michael Casey, the theater's assistant manager, testified he saw Miss O'Hara and her companion embracing. He placed the time as February 1954.

Craig said he supplied the information for Confidential's story.

Miss O'Hara took the witness stand Tuesday and denied she ever was in Grauman's with anyone other than members of her family. She said millionaire Mexican business man Enrique Parra had never accompanied her to the theater. The defense had attempted to identify Parra as her companion in the "necking party."

Miss America Test Continues

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (AP)—Preliminary talent competitions continue today and tomorrow in the Miss America pageant.

The 51 girls representing 45 states, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, Canada, Chicago, New York City and Washington, D. C. were split into three groups of 17 girls yesterday so the 10 judges can see every entrant in all forms of competition.

Two blondes, Miss Arizona and Miss Missouri, won the bathing suit and talent championships last night in the first of three preliminary competitions.

Lynn Freyse, 20-year-old junior at the University of Arizona, captivated the judges in her beige and white wool bathing suit. Miss Freyse, 36-23-35 and 5 feet 5 1/2, hails from Tucson.

Sara Ann Cooper, 18, of Buckner, Mo., danced her way to the talent championship with a lively interpretation of the Charleston.

Miss Cooper, daughter of Walker Cooper, catcher-coach for the St. Louis Cardinals, wore the traditional garb of the Twenties for her three-minute dance before a convention hall audience of 6,612.

I haven't been over all this part of the country lately, but from what I've seen, the best cotton is located in the sandyland strip that reaches out to Fairview and swings eastward toward Coahoma. This cotton seems a good deal better than the dryland fields in Martin County and in some parts of Howard.

Several fields look good for a half bale per acre or higher. Unless we have an extremely early frost or the worms do more damage than expected, this whole area should average that much.

Feed crops are also looking good, with several fields due to thresh 1,500 pounds or more per acre.

Fat cattle are scarce in West Texas and the price is high, says Hall Kenney, Stanton packing plant owner.

"There are not many cattle being fed in this area," he said, "and the ones that are on feed are pulled out and sold too soon. When cattle with a good finish are put on the market, the buyers pay a dollar or two per hundred more than they're worth."

Kennedy says he could sell more meat than he is processing if it were of the highest quality. He is also farming some land southwest of Stanton and thinks it will make a quarter bale per acre at least. A rain and a late frost could push it past the third of a bale mark.

Kennedy says dryland farming is a hazardous business in West Texas. A dryland farmer makes some money once in awhile but there are too many dry years.

"I doubt if there is a dryland farmer anywhere in this area who has stayed even financially the last six or eight years," he said, "providing all his income came from farming and not from a business or oil royalty."

Edgar Phillips, farming in the Fairview community, says he got a good kill on cabbage loopers by using 17 pounds to the acre of 3-10-40. There was a heavy infestation of loopers, but the day after being poisoned, only a few could be found in the field. Phillips says 3-10-40 seems to be effective, but should be used in more concentrated form than when poisoning other insects.

Shirley Fryar also had an infestation of loopers and got most of them with 25 pounds of 3-10-40 to the acre.

Phillips says that with a little luck he will have the best cotton crop in many years. He wouldn't make an estimate because a lot of things can happen between now and boll pulling time.

A new type cotton that requires only 40 days from bloom to open boll is being tried at the Lubbock Experiment Station by USDA cotton breeder, Dr. J. D. Bilbro. No mention was made of the length of staple or yield; however, there is a definite possibility that this might be the answer to the quick-maturing cotton that farmers have been seeking, especially in the areas north of here where a late October frost often nips the crop.

Dr. Bilbro says bolls on older strains of cotton usually mature in about 60 days early in the season, but those blooming late in the summer require 70 days. He says this late crop is often so inferior in quality that farmers should shut off the irrigation water somewhat earlier than is the custom.

A few weeks ago in another state I spent two hours with a young couple who had made quite a farming record. They had nothing at first, but now own a well-improved irrigated farm, and have just finished a beautiful new home. It seemed that all the good things of life had come to them.

When I started to leave, the young man followed me to the car.

I could see there was something on his mind.

"I envy you," he said wistfully. "You get to travel over the country and visit a lot of wonderful places I may never see."

I told him it was I who envied him. He and his wife had accomplished more in six years than I had in a period four times as long.

Then I noticed he was hardly listening to me. Instead he was staring at his wife who was taking some clothes off the line, and the look in his eyes was cold, almost angry. Suddenly I knew the meaning of all the little things he had said during the visit. He didn't care any more about that hard-working wife than he did one of the cows.

She wasn't the kind of woman to excite any man. Plain of face, straight of line instead of curved, and with her gray matter diluted to the point of near simplicity, she had nothing to offer but loyalty and the willingness to toil like a slave.

With an odd feeling, I drove into town to see the merchant who had sent me out there. Something was wrong, and I couldn't write a success story I didn't believe in.

"It was a spite marriage," the merchant told me. "This boy is quick-tempered and had a fight with his fiancée. Before he cooled off, he drove to a neighbor's house and married this girl instead. After that, the dug in out there and tried to make a go-of-things, but it's not working out."

"He's getting up in the world now, and feels his wife is a drag socially. She knows it too, but the poor thing doesn't know what to do about it. In another two years' time that marriage will break into a hundred pieces and he'll marry some girl he thinks his equal."

I bade the store owner good bye and drove on to the next town. There was a beautiful river winding in unison with the highway and the black and white magpies were fluttering along the fence rows. Yet they passed me like the images in a dream.

The only picture in my mind was that of a young woman slowly plucking clothes off the line and then plodding on to the next weary task. What started out as a success story and maybe a little check for me had suddenly ended like sunshine blotted out by a winter storm.

I knew then the notes and pictures I took were useless. I could not write the story, even if the Reader's Digest offered to buy it.

Ex-Con Caught After 10 Years Of Living Model Life

LUBBOCK (AP)—A man who escaped a Georgia prison work gang and who said he had lived a model life for 10 years was arrested yesterday.

Police said Charles Chipwood, 31, was fined $15 for a gambling offense last week. Police found he was wanted in Georgia.

The Georgia Board of Corrections said Chipwood escaped July 18, 1947, while serving consecutive three and five year terms for burglary and larceny.

Chipwood said he came to Texas a few months after his escape and had never been in trouble except for the gambling fine. He will fight extradition.

"He has been a very good husband and father," his wife said. She said she would stick by him. The Chipwoods have three children, aged 21 months to 7 years.

Chipwood said he lived in Corsicana for a time, where he met and married his wife.

Russia Seeks Airline Pact As U. S. Airmen Admire Jet

McGUIRE AIR FORCE BASE, N.J. (AP)—Russia is bidding for a commercial airline agreement with the United States and American airmen expressed unstinted admiration today for the Soviet jet transport that has made the trip from Moscow.

The TU104, silvery, big-bodied and powerful, set down at McGuire Air Force Base last night, the first Russian passenger airliner ever to land in the United States.

Promptly, a highly placed Soviet official read a prepared statement from the steps of the ramp: "Let this flight be the beginning of regular flights between the Soviet Union and the United States," he said. "Hail to the friendship of the Soviet and American peoples."

By special agreement, the TU104 brought 40 people—mainly members of the Russian delegation to the United Nations—across the 5,570-mile route from Moscow to the Air Force base in New Jersey.

Dale added, however, that the new version of the Comet, British jet passenger airliner, "is much more lively."

The veteran aircraft designer, Maj. Alexander Seversky, on hand to see the TU104, said "the Russians are ahead of us with this particular jet engine. We are operating with a 10,000-pound thrust whereas they say this has 17,500 pounds thrust."

MORE POWER

Seversky said the newest American models will carry the same or more power.

Nearly 500 people, newsmen, photographers, air force personnel and Russian officials, braved two sharp furies of rain to see the big Soviet transport come in.

The TU104 made a smooth landing at 10:43 p.m. American pilots estimate its landing speed at 128 miles an hour.

GRINNING RUSSIAN

A Russian crewman watched the milling, excited scene. After a moment, he appeared with a camera and, grinning broadly, began snapping the photographers and newsmen.

Two pretty Russian hostesses stood in the doorway of the plane, at first refusing to come down and be photographed. Finally, they consented and soberly spelled out their names.

The same plane may go back to Moscow and then return, probably Sept. 14, bringing other members of the Soviet delegation to the United Nations.

The TU104 is the only jet passenger liner operating commercially in the world. It flies from Moscow to Peiping, Prague, and points in Siberia.

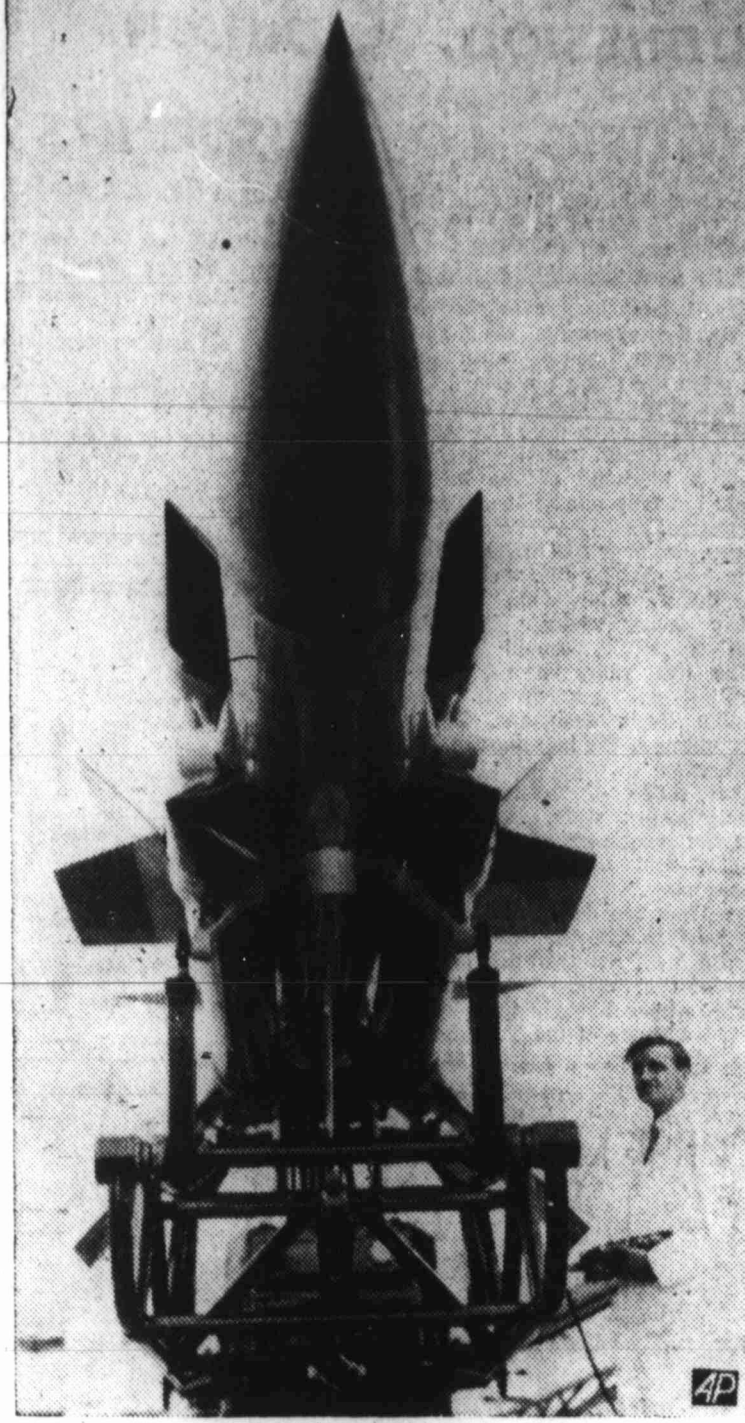

It can carry 70 passengers in tourist accommodations or 50 first class. Some American pilots are doubtful whether it is commercially economical.

It has an estimated range of 2,000 miles and cruising speeds of 450 to 500 m.p.h. Top speed is estimated at 600 m.p.h.

The Russian passengers did not reach New York City, 72 miles from the airbase, until 3:02 a.m., more than four hours after they landed. They rode in 12 automobiles with a police motorcycle escort to the Russian consulate.

Westbrook Sets Fall Registration

WESTBROOK—Registration for the fall term of Westbrook schools is to start at 9 a.m. Friday, Sept. 5, S. A. Walker has announced.

Classes will begin next Monday at 9 a.m., Walker said. The faculty has been completed and will include Mrs. J. M. Watson, first grade; Mrs. Orlean Cook, second; Mrs. T. C. Moore, third; Mrs. Sullivan, fourth; and Mrs. Robert Hutchins, fifth grade and music program.

GI Accuser Sets Girard Testimony

MAEBASHI, Japan (AP)—The soldier who said William S. Girard tossed out shell casings to lure Japanese brass scavengers onto a firing range will testify Saturday in the trial of the Ottawa, Ill., GI.

Girard's trial on a manslaughter charge resumes tomorrow for three days after a recess since its opening Aug. 26. He is accused of luring Mrs. Naka Sakai, a brass collector, to her death last Jan. 30.

Prosecutors announced today that Specialist 3.C. Victor Nickel, of Inkster, Mich., will be one of three witnesses summoned when the court convenes Saturday on Hill 655 outside of Maebashi. The session will be held on the firing range where Mrs. Sakai was fatally struck in the back with an empty cartridge casing Girard fired from a grenade launcher.

Grades six through 12 have been departmentalized with Earl Cook in charge of social studies and physical education; Mrs. Bass Hines, commercial; Robert Hutchins, science; Pete Hines, vocational agriculture and shop; Mrs. LeRoy Gressett, English; Herman Parsons, mathematics and coach; Mrs. S. A. Walker, home economics; and S. A. Walker, superintendent and physical education.

Lunchroom personnel are Mrs. A. A. Raschke, supervisor, Mrs. Edgar Andrews and Mrs. Pete Hines. N. W. Stokes is custodian and bus drivers are Leslie McCarr, Westbrook; Buss Gressett, Spade; Keith Williamson, Carr; Floyd Ritchey, Rodgers; and D. J. Barber, Conaway.

Lunches will be served at the same price as last year—25 cents. Holidays to be observed are Thanksgiving, Nov. 28-29; Christmas Dec. 20-30; District TSTA convention, March 1; and Easter, April 4-7.

Westbrook's new school will be ready for use, but dedication and open house will be observed later, probably during National School Week in November.

Theft Victim

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Actress Jayne Mansfield said her $5,000 mink stole was stolen last night while she was posing for publicity pictures at the Riviera Hotel, sheriff's deputies report.

OTHER JET LINERS

The Russians say they have other jet liners, bigger than the TU104, that will fly nonstop from Moscow to New York.

American and British airmen, picked up to guide the TU104 through British and American airspace, had high praise for its performance.

"It's an excellent ship," said Capt. Boris N. Dubson, 37, of San Francisco, senior navigator. "It's smooth in flight and has very good performance at both high and low speeds."

Two other American airmen, Capt. Harold Renegar, 33, of Keller, Tex., pilot, and M.Sgt. Gaylord Robinson, 33, of Marietta, Ga., radio operator, also were aboard.

Squadron Leader Lawrence Dale, of Britain's Royal Air Force, said "it's an extremely good airplane. We all liked it a lot."

Borden County Is Planning Park On Lake Thomas

Borden County may soon develop a public park on the north shore of Lake J. B. Thomas.

The Colorado River Municipal Water District has deeded seven lots to Borden County for park purposes, said E. V. Spence, general manager.

Location of the tract (lots No. 129 through 135) is immediately west of a tank battery midway on the north shore and approximately half a mile west of the northern neck of the lake which leads to the Bull Creek diversion.

Borden County has indicated plans for improving the area for public recreational purposes, including picnicking, boating, fishing, etc.

Advice To Tall Girls

Barbara Lawrence got her first part in pictures because she was tall. Although she is five-eight, her height has never bothered her and she gives good advice to girls who are above average height. She is soon to be seen in "Joe Dakota" for Universal-International.

HOLLYWOOD BEAUTY

Ignore Your Height, And Others Will, Too

By LYDIA LANE
HOLLYWOOD—Years ago when I first met Barbara Lawrence she had to have a school teacher on the set. This annoyed her because she had finished high school and was married. But the law demanded a chaperon until she was 18. "I was my full height, five-eight, at 14," Barbara told me. "I shot up eight inches in two years. I looked older and I felt very self-conscious, so mother let me be a model, and I had a movie contract at 16."

I was visiting Barbara in her dressing room at Universal studios when the subject of being tall was brought up.

"I have definite ideas about myself," Barbara began, "and I think most of the taboos they have for tall girls are senseless. When I try to wear one of those tall-girl designs I look taller. Someone is always trying to put wide belts on me. These only emphasize my height."

"I think a full-length mirror is important for everyone, especially a tall girl. I know when I wear short hair it seems to add a couple inches to my height. A short bob is becoming to my face, but you have to get the overall picture. A long mirror gives you this."

"I think colors are very important and can be used to break your line. I've learned that some distractions around my neck are flattering—a flower, scarf or a larger sleeve. And the length of your dress is very important. Even a half inch can make a difference if it hits the wrong place."

"Ignore your height," Barbara advises. "If it doesn't bother you, it won't bother other people. And don't call attention to it with flat shoes. High heels make me taller than my husband, but he doesn't pay any attention to this and neither do I."

I admired Barbara's hair, which is a smoky blonde for her role in "Joe Dakota."

"I have oily hair and am grateful for it, because I've been bleaching it since I started in pictures and it's still in good condition. But I set a rule for myself. Every other year I let it grow out natural again. And," she smiled, "this shade you like is my own. By '58 I'll be tired of it and ready for bleaching again. I like to change around," Barbara confessed. "It keeps me from getting in a rut."

QUICK CLAM CHOWDER

Ingredients: 2 slices bacon, 1 medium-sized onion (finely chopped), 1 can (10½ ounces) frozen, condensed cream of potato soup, 1 can (8 ounces) minced clams, milk, 2 whole allspice, ground coriander, cumin seed, pepper.

Method: Dice bacon; place in saucapan (about 1 quart) with chopped onion. Cook over low heat, stirring often, until bacon is cooked and onion is lightly browned. Remove frozen soup according to directions on can and add to bacon-onion mixture. Drain clams and reserve; pour clam juice into potato soup can; add enough milk to fill can; pour into saucapan; add ½ cup more milk along with allspice, a few pinches of ground coriander, cumin seed and pepper to taste. Heat slowly, stirring occasionally, until soup defrosts and boils. Add reserved drained clams; reheat but do not boil. Makes 4 servings.

Fighting The Battle Of Bags And Crow's Feet Can Be Helped

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newswriters Beauty Editor

Beautiful prose and romantic poetry have kept the gleam in many a woman's eye, until finally the calendar ticks off too many summers and the eyes look like they've had it.

What then? The eyes lose their luster, perhaps fade. The under-eye shows puffiness or is etched in dry, fine lines. Crow's feet are no illusion. They have moved in for the duration.

The aim should be to converge on this area at once with all the knowledge, equipment and energy you can muster, says Jacqueline Cochran, noted aviatrix, and beauty expert. If you can't improve the condition you can at least arrest it, she says, and offers some advice on how to do it.

It is time for eye-cream, time for insuring 8-hours sleep a night, time for a more nutritious diet perhaps, time for checking the lighting in the home. All these may contribute to prettier and healthier eyes.

The area around the eyes that serves as a frame is helped by nourishing ingredients in eye cream. Women who diet, particularly those who give up fats, are likely to find that the area under the eye becomes dry and lined.

Miss Cochran used at least one teaspoon of butter a day in her diet because she says it helps "plump out the under-eye area," keeping it youthful.

One of the new eye creams may be worn 24 hours a day—while asleep to soothe away lines and wrinkles, and under foundation cream to continue its good work during the day. Eye cream is never massaged in however, as eye tissues are very delicate. It may be patted on gently with the finger tips, then permitted to melt into that area. Eye shadow may be applied over it to offer a dewiness through its color.

Older women are usually better off if they use very little mascara and eye shadow, particularly if their eyes are showing signs of age. Blue-eyed women may wear it better than brown-eyed types who are likely to achieve a haunted look unless they do a very deft application.

If dark circles persist under the eyes, the cause may be eye strain; late reading in poor light or watching TV in a dark room. Dark circles under the eyes may be due also to a physical ailment that a physician may clear up in jiffy time.

One woman of 50 who looks 35 attributes her still-beautiful, sparkling blue eyes to the fact that she includes garlic in her daily diet. It has a magic ingredient, she says, for protection of the eyes.

Eye cues for older women might include these:

- Avoid the too-thin eyebrow as well as the straggly brow.
- Do not use too much mascara or eye shadow.
- Eye liner may enhance your eyes but try it out on the family first.
- Use an eye cream faithfully, not just once in a while.
- Blink the eyes frequently during the day.
- Do not rub your eyes.
- Wear eyeglasses if you should.
- Wear sunglasses in strong sunlight.

Designer's Admission, Opinion Is Probably Music To Husbands

By JAMES BACON
HOLLYWOOD—Designer Don Loper made an admission today that could well upset the economy of the fashion world, but it's the kind of news husbands like to hear.

"I'm the only designer in the business who shows a dress for $39.95 along with one that sells for $3,995," he declared at the showing of his new fall collection.

"And I must honestly admit that the $39.95 dress is just as good a buy as the expensive one. The same thought, same workmanship, often the same materials, go into the cheaper one."

There is only one difference, according to Loper, and that is he makes a thousand of the $39.95 models but only one of the expensive design.

Loper, designer for many of the movies' biggest names, makes another point for husbands.

"Any dress, whether it costs $39.95 or $5,000, should last a woman five years at the minimum."

Unlike Paris designers, Loper never changes the hemlines of his creations.

"The shape of women's legs never changes style. . . . The most flattering part of the leg is midcalf, and that's where my dresses stay."

The American designer declared open warfare with the new French chemise look, a throwback to the styles of the roaring Twenties.

"The whole French line looks like a burlesque of the Twenties—and how can you burlesque an era that was a burlesque in itself? One Dior evening creation looks like something Bea Lillie might wear for a sketch in the second act of a jazz age revue."

Loper's new collection shows no tampering with the natural silhouette.

"I, unlike Dior and the rest of Paris, abide by the biological fact that a woman's bosoms are in front and her waistline in the middle," he said.

"My clothes curve where my customers curve."

Former Missionary To Teach In Del Rio

Atmosphere Holds But 10-Day Supply Of Water, Study Shows

By ALTON L. BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Reporter
TORONTO (AP)—Our air holds only a 10-day supply of water to keep all humans, plants and animals living on earth. If the air suddenly dried out—as you might wish on a muggy, humid day—early life would soon thirst to death. There's really very little water in the total air surrounding the earth. Scientists estimate that water constitutes only 1-100,000th of 1 per cent of the earth's atmosphere. These are some of the findings so far from scientists seeking to solve puzzles of the earth's water balance. That means the exchange of water between the seas, air and clouds, the soil, and all that happens in between. An understanding of the exact mechanisms of water exchange and balance could give very practical results, Dr. H. Mosby, oceanographer of Bergen, Norway today told the meeting here of the International Union of Geodesy and Geophysics. The knowledge could lead to better methods of forecasting or controlling weather. It could prevent some water-troubled areas from becoming deserts one day. These are some of the reasons for intensified studies of the oceans and air during the International Geophysical Year. Scientists of 64 nations are making cooperative researches to understand dozens of natural phenomena. What has been learned about the water balance and future challenges were described by Dr. Mosby, by Dr. R. C. Sutcliffe, a British weather scientist, and others. A strange carpet of turbulent air, only a third of an inch thick, lying over the oceans plays a vital but still poorly understood role in the earth's water balance, Dr. Mosby said. This carpet is full of holes, not uniform. To learn how it forms and exactly what it does are targets during the IGY. Dr. Sutcliffe presented estimates of how much water there is in the air. Dr. Mosby said evaporation sucks thousands of cubic miles of water into the air from the oceans each year. An attractive Soviet woman scientist indicated that the United States is ahead of Russia in some phases of work to launch artificial satellites into space. Dr. Valerija Troitskaya, general secretary of the Soviet committee for IGY, said the Russians have not yet decided on the size or weight of their satellite and haven't built a model. U. S. scientists have their 20-pound satellite ready to go.

Fire Damages Oil Field Service Truck On Guitar Lease

A truck fire northwest of Big Spring Wednesday morning caused about $3,500 damage. The truck belonged to D. W. Varel and was parked at a well location on the Guitar Lease at the time. Only the cab was destroyed; the well servicing unit on the truck was not damaged. Varel employees surmised that the fire started from ignition wires. The fire was noted by a pump-maker making the rounds Wednesday morning. He immediately informed Varel employees here and they rushed to the site and extinguished the blaze. When workmen arrived, fire had just reached fuel lines and fuel was slowly leaking. Damage would have been much more had not the crewmen arrived when they did. The firm estimated the damage to the truck about $3,500.

Plans Made To Broaden Scout Program

Executive committee members of the Lone Star Boy Scout District laid plans Wednesday noon for broadening program and increasing membership. Between now and the end of the year adult leaders hope to enlist at least 364 more boys to reach a goal of 1,462 boy members. They also will seek to organize as many new units as will be required to handle this number of boys. Existing units, however, can accommodate quite a few, for average troop membership is 15 boys, the average Cub pack membership 18 and the explorer post membership 12.6. The Rev. C. W. Parmenter, member of the advancement committee, said that emphasis would be put upon this part of the program. The current figures show 267 separate advances in rank as against 437 a year ago. There has been an increase in advancement at higher ranks and a lessening in the basic ranks, said the Rev. Parmenter. Importance of leadership training was stressed by Chester Abernathy, who had returned recently from taking the Explorers' leader training course at Philmont ranch in northern New Mexico. Abernathy is advisor of post (air squadron) No. 146. Joe Neidermeyer, program director for the council, outlined autumn plans. He lauded Sam McComb and the camping and activity committee for an excellent record of camping for the district—the greatest numerical increase in the council. Bill McRee, scout executive, urged all committees to call meetings promptly to carry out assignments on the fall round up program.

For Junior High Traffic

Raymond Neil, on the ground, helps the electrician, Roy Rogan, install a traffic light at 10th and Rannels. The light arrived Wednesday and was immediately located in time for close of school Wednesday. The City Commission authorized the light in an attempt to lessen the traffic problem in front of the school. It is on the same circuit as the one at 10th and Johnson and they will operate simultaneously.

150 Cotton Pickers Are Needed In Area

About 150 cotton pickers are now needed in the South Martin-North Glasscock County area, Leon Kinney, Texas Employment Commission manager, reported today. Kinney said about 1,000 acres of irrigated cotton will be ready for harvest this week and next. Producers are offering $2.05 per 100 pounds for picking. Hauling and weighing jobs also are open. The irrigated cotton which failed to receive as much water as it needed is opening rapidly, according to Kinney. He said there is no demand for cotton pickers yet, although that phase of the harvest is expected to start between Sept. 20 and Oct. 1. Kinney said the Texas Employment Commission will be slow to authorize the importation of Mexican Nationals to assist with the cotton harvest until the availability of native labor is fully determined. Arrival of migratory workers from South Texas is expected to be later than usual this year, due to tardiness of the cotton harvest.

Sheriff Puts 'Hold' On Checking Suspect

Sheriff Miller Harris said that he has placed a "hold" order on James D. White who is now in the county jail at San Angelo. White is wanted here to answer charges that he wrote a worthless check for $800 in the purchase of a car. Harris said that Tom Green County has several minor charges against White. It may be that these will be handled before custody of the man is turned to Howard County.

Decorated

M. Sgt. Dudley C. Carroll Jr. receives the commendation ribbon and pendant from Col. Kyle Riddle, Webb AFB commander, at retreat ceremonies staged Wednesday. Carroll distinguished himself during his management of the finance section of the Air Attache's facilities in the American Embassy in Lisbon, Portugal, from March, 1954 to April, 1957. Sgt. Carroll also wears the World War II Victory Medal, American Campaign Medal, National Defense Medal and Good Conduct Medal with three loops.

Arms Talks About As Good As Over

LONDON (AP)—The five-power London disarmament talks apparently were as good as over today with the usual lack of agreement. The West and the Russians were even deadlocked over who would take the initiative in ending negotiations. Another meeting of the U.N. disarmament subcommittee was scheduled today despite the latest Soviet assertion that there was "no room for further discussion" of Western proposals. That Soviet view was put forward last night at a Russian Embassy news briefing shortly after Valerian Zoln, the Soviet disarmament delegate, again told the subcommittee the Western proposals were not acceptable. A Soviet spokesman told reporters there was no basis for negotiation in the package plan presented last week by the United States, Britain, France and Canada, the subcommittee's four Western members. "We are not ready to accept them," he said, "it seems to me there is no room for further discussion of these proposals." With the 5 1/2-month-old negotiations now tightly deadlocked, the next obvious step was to refer the whole matter back to the parent 12-nation Disarmament Commission in New York and ultimately to the U.N. General Assembly session opening there Sept. 17. Neither side appeared willing to take the responsibility for bringing the London conference to a close. The two main features of the West's package disarmament plan call for a two-year moratorium on nuclear weapon tests dependent on a cut-off in atomic production for military purposes, and air and ground inspection against the danger of surprise attack. This would be tied up with cuts in armed forces and conventional arms. The Russians still demand an immediate and unconditional ban on atomic tests and the use of atomic weapons, the latter the West's only counter to the numerically superior Communist armies. Zorn complained that the Western proposal for a two-year halt to nuclear weapon tests is "tied up in a maze of conditions which he did not reply when asked yesterday by U.S. delegate Harold Stassen to specify any conditions he believed unworkable."

Mansfield Scores Ike Lack Of Fight

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Mansfield (D-Mont) said today President Eisenhower should spend more time fighting for individual bills and less criticizing Congress if he wants his program enacted. Mansfield, assistant Senate Democratic leader, described the recent session as "a very responsible Congress" despite Eisenhower's news conference complaint that many presidential proposals were killed or shelved. "The first session accomplished a great deal more than anybody expected when it began," Mansfield said in an interview. "The President submitted 155 proposals and more than half of them were acted upon, with another session yet to go."

Special Stamps Selling Rapidly

The 50 sheets of the special 8-cent commemorative stamp paying honor to the late Ramon Magaysay, president of the Philippine Islands, were dwindling rapidly at the stamp window of the Big Spring Post Office today. The stamps were placed on sale Wednesday. "The stamps are printed in red, blue and ochre and are the most unusual postage stamps to be issued by the post office in a long time. They are nearly square in shape and printed on almost white paper. The stamps are in sheets of 48 and it is the custom of most local collectors to buy a sheet, the post office reported. Only 2,400 copies of the stamp were ordered. The stamps were to have been placed on sale Tuesday but the shipment did not arrive in time for the office here to have them on that date.

Accident Occurs On Parking Lot

One of three accidents occurring in Big Spring Wednesday was on private property. Police said that cars driven by Alicia Wright, 710 Galveston, and Donna Romina, 1496 E. 6th, collided on the Piggly Wiggly parking lot Wednesday morning. In the 300 block of Scurry, Nestor Flores, 508 NE 8th, and Virgil Long, 1515 Kentucky, were in collision. Involved in a minor accident at 4th and Bell were John Hood Jr., and Robert Strub, Midland.

Transporting Liqueur Complaint Is Filed

Daniel Drew, Snyder, was formally charged with transporting liqueur in a dry area in a complaint drawn by the county attorney's office Thursday morning. A notation shows he was picked up 25 miles east on Highway 350 on Wednesday night by the highway patrol.

Well In East Vealmoor Field Flows 15 Bbls. Of Oil Hourly

The Lario No. 1-C Branon operation in the East Vealmoor Field flowed at a rate of 15 barrels of oil per hour after acidizing. The venture is about seven miles west of Vincent in Howard County. Operator acidized with 750 gallons and after swabbing three times, the well kicked off and flowed 84 barrels of oil (54 barrels above the flush) at the 15-barrel-per-hour rate through a 24-64-inch choke. In Sterling County, Ferguson of Midland has located a Yates wildcat half a mile south of Sterling City. It is east of the Durham field but separated by a dry hole. It is Ferguson No. 1 Foster-Hildebrand.

Borden

Shell No. 1 Slaughter, 12 miles north of Gail, deepened to 5,338 feet in shale and lime. The location is C NE NE, 16-30-6, T&P Survey.

Dawson

Cosden continued to swab load oil from the No. 1 Worthan, nine miles northwest of Lamesa. It is a wildcat 660 from south and 4.112 from east lines, Cunningham Survey.

Stone Cold Drunk In The Auto - And The Kids Are Starving

HOUSTON (AP)—When Sgt. A. H. Moore stopped Wednesday to investigate a car parked illegally he opened the door on a situation almost unmatched in Houston police history. Sprawled on the front seat of the car, stone cold drunk, was a man 38, an empty wine bottle near his hand. Dead drunk on the rear floor was his wife, also 38. Asleep on the back seat was a baby, 2, hungry and dirty. Curled on the front floorboards near his father's feet was a boy, 4, as dirty and hungry as the first. Officers hauled all of them in, then made a fast trip to the couple's home. There they found five more children, the youngest a 4-month-old boy. The older children told officers they had been alone in the unkept house all day, with only a bit of dry cereal to eat. All were taken to the County Probation Department, where they eagerly gulped food and hot chocolate. "Our father does this a lot, but this is the first time in a long while for mother," the oldest boy said. "I can't explain why we did it," the father said when he sobbed up slightly in jail. "I guess I just can't leave the bottle alone." The mother wept when she woke. "I am so worried about my children," she said.

Parr Motion For New Trial Denied

HOUSTON (AP)—Federal Judge Joe Ingraham denied today a motion for a new trial in the George Parr mail fraud case and directed that the South Texas politician and four associates be remanded to the custody of the U.S. marshal pending posting of an appeal bond. Defense attorney Percy Foreman said bonds would be posted with U.S. commissioner Billy Costa this afternoon.

Two Webb AFB Sergeants Retire

Two sergeants from Webb AFB retired from the Air Force last week. M. Sgt. Andrew G. Fulton Jr. received his retirement certificate for Air Force service totaling more than 20 years, and plans to make his home temporarily in San Angelo. Sgt. Fulton came to Webb last April from Laughlin AFB, Del Rio, and has been assigned as quality control inspector with the 3560th M&S Group. T. Sgt. Stanley S. Poreda, retiring after 20 years in the Air Force, has been at Webb for two years, during which time he has been assigned to duty with the commissary. Sgt. Poreda has held assignments in public information and food service, and during his career has seen foreign service in Germany, Japan and Korea. His home is in New London, Conn., and he plans to return to his native city immediately.

Bid Acceptance Is Recommended

Freese & Nichols, consulting engineers for the Colorado River Municipal Water District, have recommended awarding of contract for pump station construction to A. P. Kasch & Sons of Big Spring. The Kasch & Sons bid of $57,104 was lowest of four submitted at bid openings here last week. Second lowest was by J. W. Cooper Construction Company, Inc., Odessa, in the amount of $59,923. The recommendation will be up for board action, possibly within about two weeks. One station will be at Big Spring and the other in eastern Martin County. Pumps and motors already are in place.

ARMY ASKS NEGROES WITH WHITE WIVES TO TAKE TRANSFERS

BAD KREUZNACH, Germany (AP)—The U. S. Army has recommended that Negroes with white wives transfer out of the Texas-based 2nd Armored Division. "It's a matter of preventing embarrassment" when the division begins to move from here to Ft. Hood, Tex., in November, a spokesman said. Some of the Negroes in the division have married white German girls. The spokesman declined to say what would happen if a Negro with a white wife insisted on going with the division to Texas. A spokesman at Army headquarters in Heidelberg commented: "I guess about all you can do in a case like that is appeal to a man's good judgment." The division public information officer said he could not say how many of the 14,000 soldiers are Negroes and how many have white wives.

Faubus May Cause Decisive Action

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Legal research indicated today that Gov. Orval Faubus' appeal to President Eisenhower may well bring forth a statement which will be decisive in the state-federal strength test in Arkansas.

When 2,000 deputy U.S. marshals were down up across the street from the Pennsylvania militia in 1869, President Madison's statement backing up the federal courts carried the day against the militia.

When Georgia defied the U.S. Supreme Court in 1828 and 1830 over control of Cherokee Indian lands, the state courts had their way when President Andrew Jackson took their side, saying, "John Marshall has made his decision, now let him enforce it."

These cases were included in items gleaned from old law books and records by Prof. Paul H. Sanders of Vanderbilt University Law School in his work as director of the Race Relations Law Report.

Noting that there was "a striking parallel" between the Pennsylvania case and the showdown in the making between state troops and a federal judge in Arkansas, Sanders went back for a deeper search on the background of the Pennsylvania case.

It started as a state court prize action on a privateer's capture of

10-A Big Spring (Texas), Herald, Thurs., Sept. 5, 1957

States, but is expressly enjoined by statute, to carry into effect any such decree."

Gen. Bright and eight other militia officers were indicted, tried by a jury and convicted of resisting the law of the United States and were sentenced to a fine and prison term by Judge Bushrod Washington, the first President's nephew.

The legal principal established, however, Madison pardoned them within a month.

Ike Tries Luck At Tough Golf Course

NEWPORT, R.I. (AP)—Vacationing President Eisenhower, eager as a schoolboy, arranged to try his luck today at one of the nation's toughest golf courses.

The President, who arrived from Washington yesterday for an extended stay, booked a match at the exclusive Newport Country Club. He instructed aides to keep him posted regarding any developments on the troublesome school integration situation at Little Rock Ark.

Eisenhower and his wife, still convalescing from surgery she underwent Aug. 6, are at a vacation

White House at the U.S. Naval Base on coaster Harbor Island, situated in Narragansett Bay just west of historic Newport.

"We look forward to the time of our lives," the President told an applauding crowd in the city's Washington Square after riding through jammed streets in an open car.

A bit later, he put vacation plans aside for a time and conferred by telephone with Atty. Gen. Brownell, in Washington, on the halting of integration at Little Rock.

LARRY TAYLOR

Young Preacher Says He Was Dope Addict, Bum

Larry Taylor, Howard Payne ministerial student who is conducting a revival meeting at Phillips Baptist Church this week, turned from a role as hoodlum to preacher within three months.

He was hooked on H (heroin), as he tells his story, and had a record of petty crimes when his unusual transformation took hold.

Not long after graduation from Edison High (San Antonio) in 1955, Taylor went to a revival meeting at a San Antonio church. At that time he had been on dope for 18 months, taking the stuff in the veins with a needle and eye dropper.

Never one to take stock in church services and praying, he found himself going forward when the invitation was extended.

"Something happened that night," he said. "I heard that invitation to go forward and so I went. I didn't feel any real emotion or anything like that, and yet I knew I'd never be the same."

And he wasn't, for he got the monkey off his back.

"I broke the habit in three days—cold turkey style," which in addict lingo means he stopped without medical aid. It was with divine help, otherwise he couldn't have made it. Also, with divine help, Larry is on his way to becoming a preacher and has some 30 revival meetings to his credit. He speaks each day at 10 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. at the Phillips Baptist Church at 5th and State St.

The President and Mrs. Eisenhower rested at the temporary White House yesterday afternoon after arriving by plane from Washington at nearby Quonset Point, R.I., and traveling the rest of the way here by Navy cabin cruiser across Narragansett Bay.

Eisenhower arranged to play the Newport golf course this morning with Howard Cushing, the country club president; Norman Palmer, the club pro, and Hagerty.

The President scheduled the match to follow a round of work on government business at a small office set up for him at the naval base. He brought with him from Washington about 35 bills approved by Congress shortly before it adjourned last Friday.

At the civic reception—which Mrs. Eisenhower did not attend because her doctors advised against over-exertion—the President said he may stay at Newport "a great deal" longer "than some others think I should." There has been speculation that the vacation is likely to last until about mid-October—shortly before Queen Elizabeth's scheduled visit to Washington.

"For myself," Eisenhower said with a broad grin, "I assure you that no vacation has ever started more auspiciously. Never did I feel so good on the first two hours of getting away from Washington, and I assure you it is not just because I am getting away from Washington."

6,100 Books Are Loaned In August

Howard County Free Library had a busy August but it lagged slightly behind an even busier July, it was said by Opal McDaniel, librarian, Tuesday.

A total of 6,120 books was issued by the library during the month. July's total was over 7,000 books.

These were classified as: Adult non-fiction 649; adult fiction, 2,714; juvenile non-fiction 357; adult fiction 1,470; preschool books 930.

30-DAY WEATHER OUTLOOK
We're on edge of near-normal belt

'Near Normal' Rain Due In September

If the U. S. Weather Bureau's 30-day forecast for September is right, this part of the country is in for what the bureau calls "near normal" rainfall and "near normal" temperatures.

In August the Weather Bureau called the shot on rainfall when it forecast near normal precipitation for this section of the country. It missed out a wee bit on the temperature guess the Bureau forecast much above normal temperatures for the month in this area.

Rainfall for August was close to normal but owed its position largely to one major rain which dumped two inches on the town. As a whole, the month was rather dry—too much so to please the cotton farmers who would much have preferred to have had more

Russia Seen As 'Land Of Average'

Russia is a land of the average, R. L. Tollett in effect told the Downtown Lions Club at its Wednesday meeting.

Tollett, president of Cosden Petroleum Corporation, was reporting on a trip he made in company with Dr. M. H. Bennett to Moscow during the early summer.

One is struck by the sameness of the population, he said. Clothing is comparatively drab, by our standards, but no one lacks adequate clothing. There are few luxuries but there are no beggars. There is apparently less drinking than in America, but hard liquor (almost always vodka) is consumed. There are no houses of prostitution. There are no employable unemployed.

But there is no private ownership of property. Industrial and technical progress, while impressive, lags in most areas by American standards. The individual drive for achievement appears to be dulled, for the state is uppermost.

Court Held In Woman's Yard

DETROIT (P)—Court convened yesterday in the front yard of Mrs. Florence Bittkofer—in full view of her angry neighbors and her puzzled dogs.

Mrs. Bittkofer's defense was simple: "Spot is a good dog. My dogs don't bite anybody."

But the neighbors said Mrs. Bittkofer's two dogs—and their six puppies—were a nuisance. They said the dogs barked at night and often rushed at them.

Judge John D. Watts of Detroit's Traffic and Ordinance Court went to Mrs. Bittkofer's yard to hold the hearing after she said she was too ill to come to his courtroom. She was charged with harboring a nuisance.

Spot and the other dog, Susie, maintained a discreet silence. But Mrs. Bittkofer, 46, had plenty to say. At one point Judge Watts warned her: "Be quiet or you'll go to jail."

Mrs. Bittkofer lost the case. Judge Watts found her guilty but referred her to a probation officer. He ordered Spot and Susie sent to the Michigan Humane Society pound. The puppies had been given away.

The crowd drifted away and Mrs. Bittkofer sat sobbing on the steps of her front porch.

Prices are moderate, for he and Dr. Bennett had a three-room suite for $30 each a day, and this included food, transportation, etc. They were furnished a graduate student for interpreter, and she accompanied them everywhere.

Getting into Russia is not the formidable problem that most people suppose, he said. As to air traffic, he ventured that the Midland-Odesa terminal generated more than Moscow's airport.

The club, in a business matter, voted to continue to hold its meetings at the Settles Hotel.

Airmen Nabbed In Border Town

SAN ANTONIO (P)—Two A.W.O.L. airmen captured in a Mexican border town yesterday were transferred here today.

Charges of attempted robbery were filed yesterday against Robert Hougan, 25, and Ronald Richy, 22. Police questioned them about the pistol slaying of a San Antonio filling station attendant Tuesday night. Both denied any knowledge of the slaying.

The airmen were captured in Ciudad Acuna and returned to their station at Laughlin Air Force Base in nearby Del Rio.

They were charged with trying to hold up a restaurant at San Antonio Monday night. Hundreds of officers took part in the manhunt.

Killed shortly before 4 a.m. yesterday was John Mareks, 34, father of three. He was shot three times as he ate at a table beside the service station.

Fresh Fruit, Cottage Cheese Salad Platter

This fresh fruit salad spectacular, composed of five fruits and a mixture of bleu and cottage cheese is as nutritious as it is eye appealing. Besides that, dieters can enjoy the sight as well as the taste.

Crisp bread sticks will add to the delight of this luncheon for a warm day such as we have in September.

Fruits And Vegetables Of Today Appeared On Tables Of Long Ago

Most of the more than 100 fruits and vegetables we know and use in this country today appeared on the tables of the ancient centuries before the Christian era. Many of them are among the oldest food plants cultivated by man.

During the 20 years that it took to build the gigantic Cheops pyramid at Gizeh, Egypt, in the 5th century B. C., the workers consumed about two million dollars worth of onions, garlic and radishes. In the Bible, we find the exiled Israelites complaining to Moses that they sorely missed the cucumbers, melons, leeks, onions and garlic which were part of their diets in Egypt.

SEEDS 5,000 YEARS OLD
Seeds of the primitive green pea have been found in lake mud of areas inhabited by the Swiss lake dwellers of the Bronze Age, some 5,000 years ago. Cherry pits have been discovered in prehistoric caves.

Apricots, bananas, cabbage, grapes, peaches and dates are all believed to have been well known 4,000 years ago. Coconuts were an Asiatic delicacy at least 1,000 years before Christ and grapefruit, lettuce and plums were common by the first century A.D. Historians believe man was budding and grafting apples 2,000 years ago and oranges were mentioned in Chinese writings of 2200 B.C.

We can thank northern Asia for apples, apricots and cabbage; China for peaches, pears and persimmons; India for citrus fruits, mangoes, cucumbers and eggplant; the islands of the Pacific ocean for coconuts and yams; and Arabia for dates and figs. Okra came originally from Abyssinia, watermelons from South Africa and grapes, radishes, olives, lettuce, asparagus, garlic and beets from the countries on the shores of the Mediterranean.

FEW ARE NATIVE
Few of the popular fruits and vegetables of today are native to America. The early settlers learned of corn, pumpkins and squash from the Indians and soon found such delicious fruits as strawberries, raspberries, blackberries, plums, cranberries and blueberries. Varieties of grapes were also discovered here, but those that we normally eat today are of European origin. Aside from these, however, the heritage of our fruits and vegetables is found across the seas.

Irish potatoes? Not at all. The "spud" traces its ancestry to Latin America, as does the tomato. Both, incidentally, are of the same family. The Irish minkier for potatoes stems from the fact that this vegetable became a mainstay of the Irish diet after its introduction there.

NEW MODELS
But, ancient as is the lineage of our fruits and vegetables, today's models are a far cry from the types that existed centuries ago. For that matter, in many cases our own great-grandparents would be hard pressed to recognize some of the larger, juicier, more colorful items on the produce counters today.

These "new model" fruits and vegetables are not the product of chance but of extraordinarily complex and lengthy procedure by plant breeders. These scientists are able to so manipulate plant genes (the elements in sex cells by which hereditary characters are transmitted) that strong points of one plant are bred into a related plant. Each new variety developed is tested in many ways before being offered for production.

GREAT IMPROVEMENT
Today we have seedless grapes and seedless grapefruit, tight packed head lettuce, thicker, crispier bunches of celery, smoother, cleaner skinned potatoes, such relatively new varieties of apples as the red and golden Delicious and bigger peaches, like the Elberta. According to experts in the United Fresh Fruit and Vegetable Association, virtually every fruit and vegetable on the market today has been improved by modern plant breeding and this work is continuing steadily.

Tomorrow the picture looks even better. The scientists have produced blueberries as large as grapes and sweet corn with a yield many times that of present varieties. Plant geneticists are working on such "new models" as thornless blackberry bushes and the "perfect peach."

One of the most exciting developments in the modern history of fresh fruits and vegetables is the extension of seasons so that many of these delicious and nutritious foods that formerly were available only part of the year are available all year 'round.

Add New Flavor To Salmon Dish

Do you sometimes serve creamed salmon as a luncheon dish? Add lemon juice and drained capers to the cream sauce for a fillip.

Plain cold canned salmon is delectable when it is served with a sauce of whipped cream seasoned with salt, white pepper, lemon juice, sugar and bottled or finely-grated fresh horseradish.

A salad of water cress and paper-thin slices of cucumber is a "must" with this.

Milk Makes Pick-Up For After School

Milk and milk drinks make excellent pick-ups during the afternoon when the children come home from school. Served with cookies or sandwiches in the middle of the afternoon, they provide a healthful snack to satisfy young appetites until time for the evening meal.

Milk coolers also round out a simple lunch, furnishing needed protein and calcium.

Many different types of fruit, whether fresh, frozen or canned, can be mixed with ice cream to form the basis of delightful ice cream sodas.

Here are recipes for refreshing

PEACH ICE CREAM SODA
1 8-ounce can sliced peaches, drained.
1 pint vanilla ice cream
Divide peaches and vanilla ice cream among six tall glasses. Fill each glass with milk. Serve at once with iced tea spoons.

STRAWBERRY-PINEAPPLE FLOAT
1 can frozen strawberries
1 can frozen pineapple chunks
Soda water
1 pint strawberry ice cream
Combine strawberries and frozen pineapple. Spoon into bottom of six tall glasses. Fill glasses almost to top with soda water. Spoon strawberry ice cream in. Serve at once.

For a special treat serve with kabobs made by stringing pineapple chunks and strawberries on drinking straws.

For Backyard Feast, Grill Fish, Tomatoes

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor.

An end-of-the-season cookout we strongly recommend is one of grilled fish steaks and whole tomatoes. The fish is marinated in a seasoned olive oil and lemon juice mixture, and the marinade is used during the grilling of fish and tomatoes.

This combination is perfect for backyard cookery. When we tested the recipe in the garden patio of our New York house, we used just one layer of charcoal briquets (about 24) in our large outdoor grill, and the cooking time was 20 minutes. The fish steaks were put on a fine-meshed grate, which we had greased copiously, and we had a long-handled wide spatula on hand for turning them.

Accompanying the fish and whole tomatoes were crisp potato sticks. We emptied these out of their can onto a square of foil that had its edges turned up, and heated them at the edge of the grill. (Potato chips could, of course, be served instead of the sticks.)

Our salad was one of shredded green cabbage garnished with fluted cucumber slices and a dusting of paprika; the dressing for the salad was oil and vinegar plus seasonings, but the liquid from a jar of bread-and-butter pickles was used as part of the vinegar.

Fruit and cookies rounded off this pleasant and satisfying supper.

GRILLED FISH STEAKS AND TOMATOES
Ingredients:
4 portions fish steaks (about 1/2-inch thick (2 to 2 1/4 pounds)
1/4 cup olive oil
Juice of 1 lemon (3 tbsps.)
1/4 tsp. salt

Turkey Sandwiches Good For Picnics
For one of the last picnics in the park, here's a simple menu and an easy to make sandwich:

PARK PICNIC
Deviled Eggs Tomatoes
Watercress Sandwiches
Turkey Sandwiches
Fruit and Cookies Beverage
TURKEY SANDWICHES
Ingredients:
1 can (5 ounces) boned turkey
2 tbsps. mayonnaise
1 tsp. catchup
1 tsp. minced scallion (with some of the green top)
Salt
Pepper
Thinly sliced bread
Method:
Mix the turkey, mayonnaise, catchup and minced scallion; add salt and pepper to taste. Makes cup. Use as sandwich filling.

Fancy Potatoes
Is there a ricer in your kitchen? Then rice boiled potatoes directly into a serving dish and top with thin slices of butter and a dusting of paprika. The potatoes stay fluffy this way.

Jellied Fish Creole Has Tomato Flavor

For these transition days, too hot for heavy food and cool enough that substantial dishes welcome, try this creole fish.

JELLIED FISH CREOLE
4 to 6 FISH FILLETS
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
3 small onions, sliced
1 clove garlic, minced
1 (1-pound, 3-ounce can) tomatoes

1/2 teaspoon crushed oregano
1 envelope unflavored gelatin
2 tablespoons lemon juice
1 tablespoon minced parsley
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper

Wipe fillets and cut, if necessary, to fit into large frying pan; set aside. Melt butter or margarine in frying pan; add onion and garlic and cook until onion is soft. Place fish on top of onion-garlic.

Pour off 1 cup liquid from canned tomatoes. Sprinkle gelatin over fish. Add remaining ingredients. Bring to a boil; lower heat; cover skillet and cook 10 minutes or until fish flakes easily when tested with a fork.

Remove fish to a platter. Chill. Add softened gelatin to sauce in pan; stir, breaking up any large

Applesauce Shake
Like applesauce—for eating, that is? Then you'll probably go for this milkshake with a minted applesauce flavor.

MINTED APPLESAUCE MILK SHAKE
3 cups cold milk
1 cup canned applesauce
2 drops mint extract
Sugar

Combine ice cold milk, applesauce and mint extract; blend thoroughly. Add sugar to taste and a few drops of green food coloring, if desired. Serve with fresh mint sprig garnish.

pieces of tomato, until gelatin is dissolved.

Pour all but 1/4 cup sauce into 4 to 6 small molds. Chill until firm. Chill remaining sauce until slightly thickened. Arrange cold fillets, well drained, on serving platter.

Spoon slightly thickened sauce over fillets. Chill. To serve, unmold jellied sauce and arrange on platter with fish. Garnish with parsley. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

How To Torture Your Wife

YOU SAW JULIA DOWN TOWN? WHY DIDN'T YOU TELL ME BEFORE? SHE MUST HAVE GIVEN YOU SOME MESSAGE FOR ME!
IT JUST SLEPT MY MIND. OH—YES, SHE DID SAY SOMETHING. LET'S SEE NOW—OH, YES, SHE SAID TO TELL YOU THAT MR. AND MRS. WHOOSIS—I FORGET HIS NAME—HAD A BIG ROW OVER SOME WOMAN HE TOOK TO LUNCH, AND THEN SHE SAID SOME DAMNED YOU BOTH KNOW WAS HAVING HER FACE LIFTED, OR MAYBE IT WAS HAVING HER HAIR DYED—AND SHE SAID TO TELL YOU THERE WAS A BARBARIAN SALE IN TOWN—I FORGET THE NAME OF THE STORE, SAY, ISN'T DINNER ABOUT READY?

Emotions Have Simmered Down In Levittown

LEVITTOWN, Pa. (AP)—Emotions have simmered down. The restless, pushing, sometimes violent crowds are only a memory. From time to time local police make the rounds of routine patrol. State police, on emergency duty for about two weeks, have gone.

The men come and go to their jobs as usual. Their wives shop, chin with neighbors, wonder how they will get through the housework in the early September heat.

Such is Levittown—and specifically, its Dogwood Hollow section—three weeks after the first Negro family moved into the previously all-white housing development of about 15,500 homes, and nearly 60,000 people.

Outwardly, Dogwood Hollow seems pretty much as it was before William and Daisy Myers came with their three children and settled down in a pink ranch style house Myers bought for a little more than $12,000.

NO ROUGH STUFF

Myers, his family and friends move about without molestation. Some in the neighborhood have accepted the family cordially, some grudgingly. Others say they had to yield unwillingly in order to prevent further violence. On that alone, the visitor is told again and again, there is unanimity—a determination there will be no further rough stuff.

The mid-August move of the Myers family touched off eight straight nights of noisy demonstration, with crowds of more than 400 milling about each night. Eleven persons were arrested.

Gov. George M. Leader sent in state police after local authorities pleaded the situation was getting out of hand.

The demonstrations ended, but not the sharp differences of opinion.

The Levittown Betterment Assn. organized for the avowed purpose of getting the Myers family out by any legal means, continued its efforts. Its leader, James Newell formerly of North Carolina, said: "The Levittown Betterment Assn. hasn't stopped working to oust Myers. We don't advocate violence, but we want to get him out, and we won't stop until our mission is completed." He said the association has 250 active members.

TALK SENSIBLE

On the other side is the Citizens Committee of Levittown, led by the Rev. Ray L. Harwick, who asserted: "Now that the violence has stopped, we can talk sensibly. We want to attack the problem without emotion. We don't favor forceful integration, but we do feel a man has a right to live where he chooses." The Rev. Mr. Harwick said his group has about 100 adherents.

Perhaps the most unruffled person of all is Myers.

A 32-year-old refrigeration technician working in Trenton, N.J., across the Delaware River, Myers said:

"Time is my greatest ally. In a few months people will forget this stir. All I want is to be a good neighbor. I hope my neighbors will do the same. Good-neighborliness should be the goal of all of us."

Dawson County Has New Farm Assistant

LAMESA — DeLacy Frampton began his duties here Tuesday as assistant county agent for Dawson County.

A June graduate of Texas Tech, Frampton has been serving as junior assistant county agent in Crosby County during the last two months. He will replace Marcus Crow, who resigned recently to farm in Cochran County. The new assistant agent is a native of Dahart.

Safe Is Saved

RENO, Nev. (AP)—Oilman Wayne Hinckley figured that if he posted the combination on the outside of his safe, thieves wouldn't damage it. He was so right. Burglars used the combination to get at $276 in cash and $3,881 in checks.
