Opinion Due On Fund For Legislature

AUSTIN (AP) — Atty. Gen. Will Wilson said today he hopes to have an answer later today on whether or not there will be money legally available to finance the special Legislature starting Monday.
Calvert at the same time forecast that there will be a general revenue fund deficit of $6,458,307 by Aug. 31, 1959 — the end of the current fiscal two-year period. That is a problem with no bearing on the special session, but one which must be faced when the Legislature meets in January 1959.

U. S., Russia Stand Off In Mid-East Argument

Both Sides Send Dire Warnings

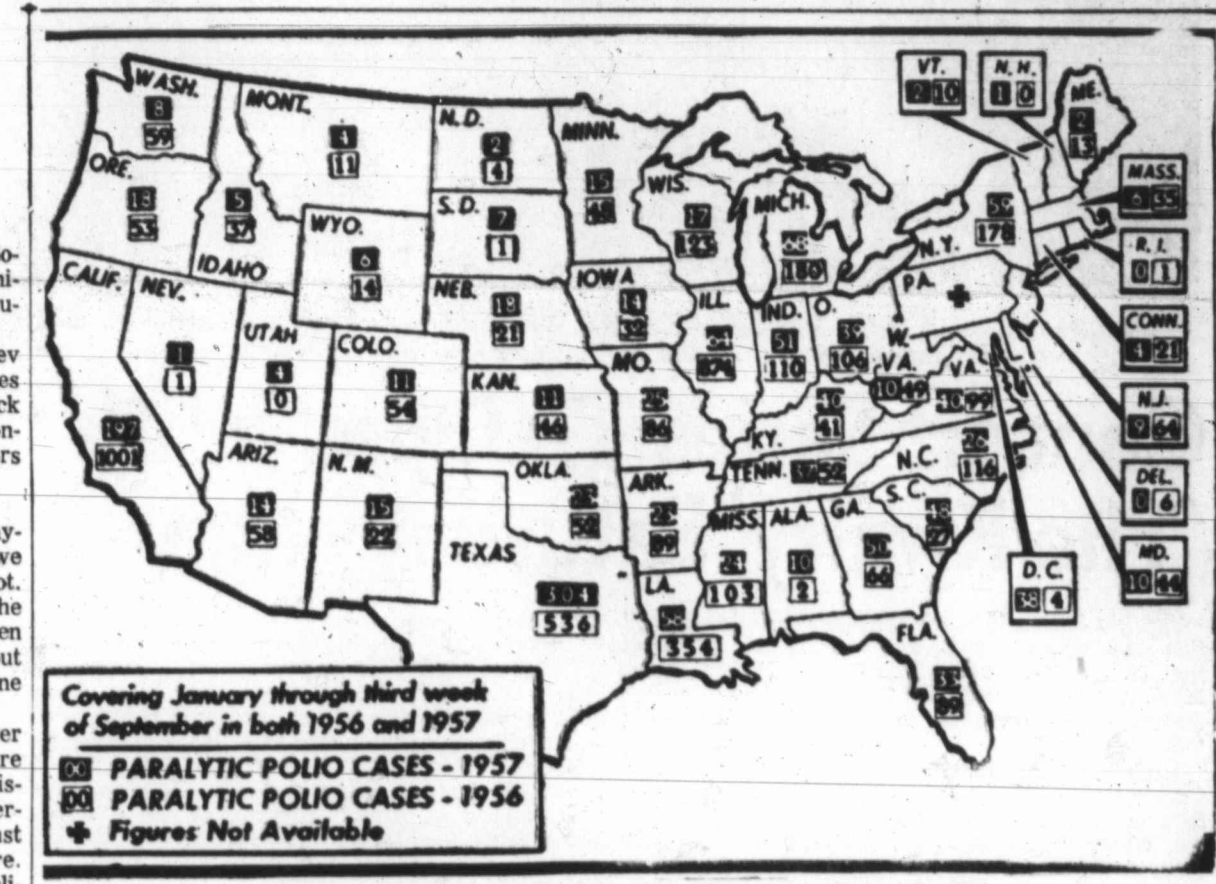

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States and Russia confronted each other menacingly over the Middle East today, with each power warning the other against plunging the area into war. His statement, made in a New York Times interview, was published yesterday.

Pentagon Pushes Testing Of Missiles

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Pentagon, still undecided between Army and Air Force versions of the intermediate range ballistic missile, will continue testing both on a speedup basis. How soon a decision can be made, a spokesman said, will depend on what future tests show. A choice of one or the other, or a combination of both, had been sought within the next few weeks.

One Year's Gain In Fight On Polio
Map details by states the decline in paralytic polio cases in 1957 compared with the same period — January through the third week of September — for 1956. Only a few states, with a comparatively low number of cases, reported an increase this year. Figures are from a report of Secretary of Welfare Folsom. He reported that the number of paralytic polio cases this year through Sept. 23 was only 1,576, compared with 5,241 cases up to this time in 1956.

Sputnik Survives Shower Of Meteors, Retains Speed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Russia's earth satellite streaked on through space today, apparently undeterred by a shower of meteorite fragments. Nearing the end of its first week aloft, Sputnik — as the Russians call their man-made moon — was said to be maintaining course and speed, circling the earth once every 96.1 minutes. The satellite has traveled more than 2 1/2 million miles since its launching last Friday, according to Soviet estimates. Accompanying it, although several hundred miles away, is a part of the rocket that propelled the satellite into its orbit.

West Awaits Word On Bid To Control Space Missiles

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Western diplomats at the U.N. today had hopes the Russians soon would accept an American offer to discuss international control of outer space missiles within the framework of the world organization. Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko moved U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge's bid yesterday to begin such talks, made at the beginning of the disarmament debate in the U.N. Assembly's Political Committee.

Russian Scientist Sees Moon Flights

MOSCOW (AP) — A Russian expert said today Soviet scientists and others abroad are at work on plans for rocket ship flights to the moon. He predicted moon flights will begin within this century. Dr. V. Dobronravov said in an interview in the labor paper Trud these flights will be followed by trips to Mars and other planets in space ships weighing 1,700 tons. Dobronravov said for a trip to the moon it was necessary to increase flight speeds only 3 kilometers — 1.86 miles a second over that attained by rockets that thrust the Soviet satellite into its orbit. He said the Soviet satellite reached a speed of 8 kilometers — 4.96 miles a second in arriving at its orbit.

MR. LINCOLN TALKS WITH ADELE AND STEPHEN A. DOUGLASS
Raymond Massey, Agnes Moorehead and Martin Gabel in scene from "The Rivalry"

Concert Series To Open With 'The Rivalry' Saturday Night

The Big Spring Concert Association leads with one of its outstanding attractions when Raymond Massey, Agnes Moorehead and Martin Gabel come to town in "The Rivalry."

The engrossing play by Norman Corwin got a great reception in San Angelo Thursday evening and will complete its two-day stand there tonight.

Curtain time for "The Rivalry" will be 8 p. m. Saturday at the Municipal Auditorium.

Mrs. Clyde Angel, president of the association, said that the last week response to membership appeals had been most gratifying.

Paul Gregory, who is presenting "The Rivalry," the story of the Lincoln-Douglas debates, as he did such successes as "Caine Mutiny Court Martial," and "John Brown's Body" prevailed upon Corwin to direct his own play. Massey, among the distinguished personalities of the American stage, will be cast in a role for which he has become almost a legend—that of Abraham Lincoln. He has, of course, starred in numerous pictures and on television, but his first love is the stage. He was a leading figure in Gregory's "John Brown's Body" and in "The Day Lincoln Was Shot," as well as in numerous other successes such as "Pygmalion" and "The Doctor's Dilemma." Some of the highest praise for his artistry, however, has been reserved for his characterizations of the great Lincoln.

In "The Rivalry," Corwin has managed to present a new, warm and humorous Lincoln in some of the behind-the-scenes episodes of the historic debates which "made Lincoln president."

Miss Moorehead, high among the list of actresses today, is no newcomer to Gregory Productions, for she starred in "Don Juan in Hell" and "That Fabulous Head." The role of Adele Douglas appealed so to her that she considered it one of her all-time favorites. Too, she is no stodge personality and welcomed the opportunity to take the theatre to audiences all over the country.

Gabel, fresh from a feature role opposite Jayne Mansfield in "Will Success Spoil Rock Hunter," is cast in the part of Sen. Stephen A. Douglas. A seasoned performer through and through, Gabel has a long list of hits. He also is a producer and writer of note.

Lt. Sutton, who formerly was stationed at Webb and Maj. Paul Omann, a student pilot, were lost on a flight from Hamilton AFB to Nellis AFB. Their remains were found last week near Donner Summit.

He will be buried in Ripley where his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Sutton, reside. Survivors other than his wife, the former Sally Brown, include one son, Terry Glenn, who was born just 13 days before his father's death. The remains have been sent to Garner Funeral Home in Ripley.

Mrs. Johnson Dies At 96, Rites Sunday

Mrs. Sarah M. Johnson, 96, widow of a pioneer Big Spring real estate man, died at her home at 509 S. Perry at 5:45 a. m. Friday. FM 700 Plans Still Stalemated

Progress on FM 700 extension is still stalemated and nothing will be done on the road until Jake Roberts, district highway engineer, can come to Big Spring to confer with the county officials.

R. H. Weaver, county judge, said he had talked with Roberts by telephone and advised him of the difficulty the county had encountered in following the proposed route drawn for the new road.

Weaver suggested an alternate route might be adopted and this can be done the county can avoid expending a large amount for necessary right of way. The route as now laid out, Weaver and the commissioners feel, make it prohibitive because of the costly right of way which will have to be acquired.

The county has agreed to provide the right of way free of cost to the state. The state proposes to build a road from the termination of FM 700 at U. S. 87 just south of the city limits to connect with U. S. 30 near the Cosden refinery to the east.

The road would be a completely new highway, FM 700 now begins at the intersection with U. S. 87 and extends westward to connect with U. S. 80 near Webb Air Force Base west of town.

Three men were sent from Big Spring to the Armed Forces Induction Station at Abilene Thursday for induction into the Army.

Filling the October quota for the local Selective Service Board were Thomas Edward Angel, Floyd David Washburn and John Arthur Lawrence.

Local draft officials said only two men are scheduled for induction in November. The call is set for Nov. 6. There will be no pre-induction physicals in November.

Wayne Davis, who has been sought since Sept. 17, has been arrested in Beaumont, Sheriff Miller Harris was advised today.

Davis is wanted here for investigation of charges that he stole a car from the Yellow Cab Company, Sheriff Harris stated. According to the officer, Davis is accused of having rented a vehicle from the company on Sept. 10. He rented the car for one day only. It was a week later, the sheriff stated before a warrant for his apprehension was sworn out.

The sheriff understood that the Beaumont officers had impounded the missing car at the same time they arrested Davis.

Harris said he would send a deputy for Davis but that it is not certain when he could spare a man to make the trip.

Three cars were involved in one of two accidents which occurred here this morning.

Police said that cars were stopped for traffic on the Lamesa viaduct when a vehicle driven by Morris Gay, 626 State, approached the bridge, hit the back of a 1955 Cadillac driven by Burl Meredine, Arcadia, Calif. The Cadillac was then thrown into a car driven by Rodney Roberts, 1011 N. Runnels.

The investigating officers said no tickets were issued.

Also today, at 3rd and Main, Evelyn Bedwell, 618 NE 12th, her car, Richard Saws, Crawford Hotel, were drivers of cars colliding.

Atty. Gen. Will Wilson has notified the city that the city's $50,000 bond issues voted in July has been approved.

The mayor, G. W. Dabney, received the letter today from Wilson advising that the state had found everything in order.

The bonds were voted to help finance water and sewer line construction to Webb's proposed housing unit. They were then sold to Columbia Securities Co. of San Antonio at an interest rate of 3.6973 per cent.

Mrs. Mattie Wolf, 46, wife of Charlie Wolf, Route 1, is in Big Spring hospital with serious facial cuts, a broken nose and a fractured left wrist as a result of a two-car collision on FM 820 at 8:45 p. m. Thursday.

Mrs. Wolf's condition was described as satisfactory on Friday.

Ben Walker, state highway patrol officer, investigated the mishap.

He said that the Wolfs in a 1955 Chevrolet were travelling south on FM 820 and had reached a point one mile north of Coahoma.

Mrs. Pearl King, 57, Coahoma, was along in a 1954 Dodge, going north. The patrol officer said she had not turned on her headlights. She attempted to make a turn to the west and Wolf did not see her car in his own headlights until too late to come to a halt. The cars crashed nearly head-on. Both were extensively damaged.

Mrs. King suffered bruises and minor cuts but was not hospitalized. Wolf was treated for lesser injuries and released from the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Wolf were brought to the hospital in a River Ambulance. Mrs. King rode in the patrol car to the hospital.

HCJC To Apply For Loans To Construct Dormitories

Deep appreciation of a gift that may open up other avenues of progress to the institution was expressed Thursday by the Howard County Junior College board of trustees to the Dora Roberts Foundation.

The Foundation announced Sept. 28 that HCJC would be the major recipient of contributions over the next three years. As a result, the college will get a $300,000 student union building.

Because this structure would provide the necessary auxiliary facilities, Dr. W. A. Hunt, president, was instructed by the board to proceed with applications for plans and loan applications for two dormitories. If constructed, these would be financed solely out of revenues and would not constitute a tax obligation.

Dr. P. W. Malone, board president, named Horace Garrett, Paul Adams and Dr. Charles W. Deats as a building committee.

Dr. Hunt told the board that the annual report filed with the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools showed a per pupil cost (based on teacher salaries and supplies and library salaries and supplies and library salaries and supplies) of $318.77, which was well within the national average which approximates $350. He also said that the Texas Association of Colleges science accreditation committee had informed him that geology was included in the list for special science approval for HCJC. It had not been shown in the catalogue through a clerical error.

The matter of a dust problem at the stadium came on for consideration and Dr. Malone named Dr. Deats, Garrett and John Coffey as a committee to confer with one from the Big Spring Independent School District trustees on the possibility of remedial steps.

Angeline Montgomery was elected as assistant librarian upon recommendation of Dr. Hunt. The purchase of a dehydrator oven for the advanced chemistry lab was approved in the amount of $275. Other special purchases approved included business education equipment $1,176, the gymnasium PA system $459, the high fidelity musical equipment (for recording and reproduction) for the music department in the amount of $1,611.

The State National Bank was released from $100,000 in bonds posted when it was depository. Board members inspected the new chemistry lab, with its balance, stock and auxiliary room and also listened to the new sound equipment in the music building. Dr. Marvin Baker reported that the faculty was 100 per cent in its membership in the Texas State Teachers Association, Texas Junior College Association and the National Educational Association.

'Lucky Folder' Demand Zooms

If prior interest is a criterion, the lucky folder contest of "Oil Progress Week" is going to be a real success.

Jerry Worthy, chairman, said he had been bombarded with requests for folders after a premature announcement said that the materials were being distributed this week.

Actually, the folders will be placed in the hands of service station operators for distribution during the special week Sunday through Saturday.

The lucky visitor to some station will receive an expense-paid trip to Dallas Nov. 2-3 for two persons. One station operator will be rewarded with a $5 cash gift each day if he happens to hand a lucky folder to a mystery driver. The station operator who happens to distribute the winning lucky folder also will be given a prize, said Worthy.

Circus Arrives For Two Shows

Scores of vacant lots in the Douglass Addition southwest of Big Spring were occupied this morning with arrival of the big Clyde Beatty Circus.

The show moved here from Lamesa through Saturday. No performances were presented Thursday. It will leave Big Spring early Saturday for two presentations in Abilene.

About 650 circus workers and performers set up the "big top" near the Old San Angelo Highway and completed other preparations this morning for the first performance at 3 p. m. Another show is scheduled for 8 p. m.

Star of the show was, of course, Clyde Beatty, legendary master of wild animals. He was to go into the cage with the largest group of African lions and Bengal tigers ever assembled.

Appearance of the circus here was sponsored by local DeMolays, who shared in advance ticket sales.

Mrs. Dave Duncan Is Convalescing

Mrs. Dave Duncan is reported resting well in the Ouachita Hospital near Hot Springs, Ark., where she is convalescing from a fractured wrist.

Mrs. Duncan was injured last Saturday as she prepared to enter her car as it was parked at a curb in Hot Springs. Another car banged into the Duncan's, shoving it against one parked next to it and pinning Mrs. Duncan between them. In addition to the fracture, she suffered painful bruises.

46 Lunacy Cases Set For Oct. 22

Forty-six lunacy matters are docketed for hearing at the Big Spring State Hospital for October. It was announced at the office of R. H. Weaver, county judge.

This is about the average monthly quota of sanity cases handled by the court and the hospital. The hearings are docketed for Oct. 22.

It was indicated the same procedure would be followed at this month's session of the lunacy court docketed last month—the jurors who will hear the cases will donate their fees to the hospital to be expended for additional comforts for the patients.

Jurors are paid $1 per case for hearing lunacy matters. There are six jurors. If all 46 cases are heard as now scheduled, each juror will earn $46 for his afternoon's service. Last month—the six jurors collected their checks and endorsed them over to the hospital to be used for the benefit of patients in the institution.

Scandal Seen In Teamsters Election

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. McClellan (D-Ark.) says that Dave Beck enabled James R. Hoffa to win election as president of the Teamsters by dictating disregard of the union's constitution. Hoffa, 44-year-old Detroit labor leader, was elected by a 3-1 margin last week at the Teamsters convention in Miami Beach, Fla. McClellan, chairman of the Senate Rackets Committee, said records of the convention's Credentials Committee "reveal some situations which are just plain scandalous." The committee subpoenaed the records immediately after Hoffa's election. It is inquiring into charges that delegates had been hand-picked to rig the election for Hoffa, as alleged in a court action which sought unsuccessfully to block the election. Hoffa has been accused by McClellan and other Senate investigators of misuse of union funds and underworld connections. In Detroit, Hoffa disputed McClellan's contention that the union constitution had been disregarded. He said President Beck and the union's Executive Board were charged with interpretation of the constitution. Beck gave his interpretation, Hoffa said, and it was then approved by the Executive Board and later by the full convention. "How far do we have to go?" he asked. Earlier, he had told a welcoming crowd at the Detroit airport that "we will be faced next year

Flu Hits U. S. Like Broken Field Runner

By The Associated Press
Flu, like a broken-field runner, zigzagged across the United States today, trampling hard over some communities, dodging others, but generally dealing stiff blows. Whether it was mostly Asian flu, or combined with other varieties, was uncertain. But either way, a rampage of coughs, aches, fevers and sniffles was on. Vaccine defenses were termed by some too late or too little.

The U.S. Public Health Service said estimates of Asian flu cases alone had passed the million mark, with heaviest occurrence in Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama, Arizona and New York City. An Associated Press survey showed most other states also have been seriously hit at some points. Persons stricken usually recover in a few days, but at least 15 deaths this month have been attributed to complications. Many public schools were closed. Dances and social affairs were called off. Athletic schedules crumbled. Football games were postponed or canceled by scores of high schools, and some colleges. Of a 25-man McAlester, Okla., high school team, 23 were out with flu.

FACILITIES STRAINED
At many educational institutions, infirmaries were crowded or overflowing. A former men's dormitory at Stanford University in California was converted into a temporary convalescent ward. The infection also struck in factories and industries — even prisons. In the State Reformatory for Males at Hagerstown, Md., 126 prisoners — more than a tenth of the inmates — were down with flu. Visitors were barred. Some hospitals also restricted visiting. Others refused to admit Asian flu cases, due to its highly contagious nature. Doctors and nurses were salvaged. In a state home for retarded children at Medical Lake, Wash., staff physicians — along with a third of their patients — were ill with flu, and giving medical orders from bed. Nurses were put on double shifts.

The influenza sweep seemed to follow no definite geographical pattern, striking hard at some cities with others nearby scarcely hit, then jumping full force to distant areas. The Public Health Service reported localized epidemics in areas of Utah, Wyoming, California, Texas, South Carolina and Florida with sporadic occurrences in New Mexico, Oklahoma, Missouri, Indiana, Oregon, South Dakota, North Carolina and Georgia.

ASIAN TYPE NOTED
Since identifying Asian flu requires elaborate laboratory procedures, the majority of the cases were not confirmed as being this type. But the scattered analyses showed the Asian disease was widespread. Its presence was revealed in most areas of heavy incidence. Although few city or state health departments felt that spread of the ailment had reached epidemic proportions, many reported a "serious outbreak" — far surpassing the normal rate of influenza. While the peak of infection was reported abating in some areas, it was rising in others. The health service said only Louisiana seemed to be past the worst, but localized outbreaks were still occurring there. Lack of government supervision over distribution of Asian flu vaccine drew complaints from some health officers, who charged drug manufacturers were not giving sufficient priorities to essential needs.

Waitress Executed For Mass Murders

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — A plump, 50-year-old waitress who killed three daughters, her mother and two husbands with rat poison died in the electric chair early today. She left behind a wish for her body to be turned over to a medical institution. She said she wanted it learned "why I committed the crimes I have committed."

Mrs. Rhonda Belle Martin died clutching a New Testament in her left hand. Mrs. Martin was put to death for the poisoning of her fourth husband, Claude C. Martin, in 1951. After her arrest in March 1956, she signed a statement admitting that she fed rat poison to two other husbands, three of her children and her mother. Her fifth husband, Ronald Martin, survived the poisoning, but the other victims died. Ronald Martin is the son of the victim for whose killing the waitress paid with her life. Prison officials yesterday found in Mrs. Martin's Bible a note she had written Oct. 14, 1956. It was turned over to authorities at Kilby Prison, where the electrocution was carried out. "At my death, whether it be a natural death of otherwise, I want

'Live Corpse' Case Pathway To Jail

HOUSTON (AP) — Stranger than fiction developments in what insurance investigators labeled the case of the "live corpse" landed a Brookline, Mass., business man in jail here yesterday. Detectives nabbed Alvin G. Plackter, 37—reported to have drowned in Boston harbor seven weeks ago—as he awaited a blonde woman friend on a street corner. Within a few hours a Suffolk County grand jury in Massachusetts indicted him on charges of obtaining $10,475 with fraudulent securities from the Pilgrim Trust Co. Police said a routine investigation before life insurance companies paid $145,000 on policies covering Plackter led to the discovery he was still alive. His wife, who innocently sought to collect the insurance, and the couple's child have been living with relatives in Philadelphia, officers said. Plackter, a World War II veteran who flew 103 bombing missions in Europe, disappeared Aug. 23 from his pleasure boat, Sea Mist II. Two companions aboard the 22-foot vessel had reported him missing. They told officers there was a noise as he dropped anchor because of engine trouble and Plackter presumably fell over-my body to be given to some scientific institution to be used as they see fit, but especially to see if someone can find out why I committed the crimes I have committed. "I can't understand it, for I had no reason whatsoever. There is definitely something wrong. Can't someone find it and save someone else the agony I have been through."

The condemned woman was strapped in the chair at 12:07 a.m. and received 2,200 volts of electricity three minutes later after one false start. When the switch was thrown the first time, it was discovered the electrodes hadn't been plugged into the chair and the task had to be repeated. Gov. James E. Folsom denied an appeal for clemency yesterday. Besides Claude Martin, the woman admitted poisoning her second husband George Garrett in 1939. She also told of feeding rat poison to three daughters, 3-year-old Emogene Garrett in 1937; Anna Carolyn Garrett, 6, in 1940; and Elynn Elizabeth Garrett, 11, in 1943. She also admitted that she killed her mother Mrs. Mary Frances Gibbon in 1944. Her written statement said she had written insurance policies on the lives of all six victims. She was tried only for the death of Claude Martin.

In Boston, Deputy Police Supt. Michael T. Clougherty said it was learned Plackter took out two double indemnity life insurance policies totaling $130,000 only in July, and made a $15,000 premium payment on his final day of grace Aug. 23—the same day he disappeared. Although police and the Coast Guard had concluded after a search that Plackter drowned, investigators checked further because he was known to be a strong swimmer. Mutual of New York, one of the companies insuring him, said inquiries to his creditors turned up information that Plackter, although considered wealthy, actually had serious financial troubles. He was president of the Nivin Woodworking Corp. in Cambridge, Mass. Police traced Plackter here through a check by a Houston department store of Boston references given by his blonde woman friend, 27, who formerly lived in a fashionable apartment building on Boston's Beacon Hill. Officers said the woman, who was not arrested, left Boston five days after Plackter's disappearance, telling friends she was going to Miami, Fla.

She's A Changed Girl

Actress Sheree North recognized her shortcomings and set out to make a complete change in her appearance, actions and thoughts. She gives a vivid description of her struggle toward self-improvement as she candidly chats with Lydia Lane in today's Hollywood Beauty.

HOLLYWOOD BEAUTY

Sheree Has Story Of Self-Improvement

By LYDIA LANE
HOLLYWOOD—Sheree North believes there's a psychosomatic cause behind every overweight problem and the sooner it's recognized the easier will be the "battle of the bulges."
"I am a trouble eater," she confessed to me as we settled down for a chat. "I gain when I'm idle or unhappy. But when I'm working I have no problem keeping my weight down."
"The situation I have to guard against is getting bored when I'm between pictures. It's so easy to get bogged down with meaningless activity but it's not easy to control friendships. I don't enjoy seeing the same people too often."
"I know now the value of organization. I make a daily schedule with planned activity periods of studying and periods of rest."
"A problem that you can't solve undermines your health, your work and your appearance," Sheree exclaimed. "I was fortunate in getting assistance from a fine psychoanalyst."
"It meant giving up luxuries for these treatments but I never regretted my choice," she added.
"I was very young when I started working," Sheree confessed, "and had no schooling after 14. I picked up a terrible vocabulary as a night club chorus girl. All the girls were older than I, and I looked up to them."
"No one ever tried to help me improve my tastes until I came to the studio. I thought the flapper I looked like better. I've learned a lot from the lovely clothes I've worn in pictures and my tastes have improved."
"I'm trying to give my daughter the advantages I never had and I'm training her tastes," Sheree said.

Prize At Fair Goes To Mrs. Conway's Painting
Probably one of the most excited women in Big Spring today is Mrs. D. W. Conway, who has learned that one of her paintings is winner of a third prize at the State Fair in Dallas.
Entered in the Woman's Department Amateur Group, the picture, "Fishermen," is done in oil on canvas. This, according to Mrs. Conway, is a very old medium of painting, which at one time was almost extinct.
She became interested in the medium and searched for about three years before finding someone who could help her with it. A Midland man, Jaime Fulton, had recently returned from Spain, gave her two lessons in the method.
The artist uses a heavy wax base on which to apply the colors and then the two are fused by heat. The finish ranges from smooth to rough, Mrs. Conway explained.
Her painting is a seascape, painted from a memory theme, carried from her childhood home on the Texas coast near Galveston. It shows a pelican skimming the water, with other birds circling around, doing the "fishing."

The party will be held at the VA Nurses Home with Frances Bartlett as hostess Thursday evening.
Mrs. Adrian Randle spoke on palmistry and answered questions from the group. She showed how the lines of the hand told much of the person's personality and pointed out that palmistry is a science.
During the business meeting the rush calendars were distributed and plans for the jewel and pledge ritual were made for November. Miss Eye was appointed treasurer.
Several members plan to attend the district eight convention in Fort Stockton Oct. 20. All attending have been urged to bring cotton clothing to be given to patients at McKnight Sanatorium. Writing materials were also asked for.
Mrs. Waymon L. Phillips reported on the meeting of the Mental Health Association and told the members of activities suggested for volunteer workers. No action was taken.
Refreshments were served to nine members.

Benson Target Of Egg-Tossing Farmers Who Want 'Attention'

SIoux FALLS, S.D. (AP)—Secretary of Agriculture Benson restated his appeal for flexible supports for farm products yesterday after escaping a barrage of eggs aimed at him.

The eggs came as he was being introduced by South Dakota Gov. Joe Foss at the State Mechanical Corn-Picking Contest on a nearby farm, a prelude to today's national finals at the same scene.

Benson, whose hat was splattered by a thrown egg as it lay on the speaker's platform, did not mention the incident in his speech. In later conversation he said nothing like it ever had happened to him before and called it un-American.

Maynard Gudahl, a state patrolman said Maynard Rankly, 21, a farmer from Volga, S.D., admitted he and four others had thrown the eggs.

"We weren't getting any attention. We've written him letters and we figured this was one way of getting his attention," the officer quoted Rankly as saying.

The egg throwers were not held but Foss said he had ordered agents of the state attorney general to press for their prosecution. "Anyone who would throw eggs would as soon throw a rock or knife," the governor said. "I ducked when one flew past my ear. I could have lost an eye. In every group there is a small minority of odd balls."

WRONG TARGET

Sole casualty of the barrage was President Ray Quinn of the Sioux Falls Chamber of Commerce. He was struck on the arm and about the knees.

A titter ran through the crowd, estimated by state police at about 7,000, when the eggs were thrown. But the levity subsided as Benson started to speak. There was only a smattering of applause when he finished.

Mrs. Alfred Solem, Canton, said, "It wasn't a very nice thing to do even if we don't like him." But her husband said he wasn't surprised because "I expected it."

General comment of the crowd was that it was sort of a childish stunt. The egg-throwers all are

Texas Schools Hit Hard By Flu

By The Associated Press

New highs in absenteeism due to influenza were on record in Texas schools Friday. Dallas school officials counted 30 per cent of their students out at one school, J. P. Starks Negro elementary.

Statistician Homer Fuller said at least 14 schools in Dallas had absentee rates of 20 per cent. The school system had 3,185 students out ill Thursday.

The slate of cancelled high school football games had at least one addition. Robstown High School called off its game with Laredo Friday night, after a number of its players came down with the flu.

State Health Commissioner Henry Holle said good physical condition is the best defense against the disease.

At the University of Texas, Dr. Paul White said about 2,000 cases have been reported out of the school's 17,000 enrollment. He said the matter was one of "grave concern."

Officers Seek Sheriff's Assailant

BUFFALO, Tex. (AP)—Officers combed the eastern Central Texas countryside near here today for a prisoner who escaped from an auto after the Mills County sheriff was shot.

Ottawa Burnished For Queen's Visit

OTTAWA (AP)—This capital of Canada, its population mushrooming overnight to almost twice its normal 200,000, is a burnished, bedecked and excited city on the eve of the arrival of Elizabeth II, queen of England, and her husband, Prince Philip, duke of Edinburgh.

The royal plane carrying Britain's Queen will land at nearby Uplands Airport tomorrow afternoon for the beginning of a four-day holiday, prelude to a six-day visit to the United States.

Preparations have been in progress for months. Five miles of fluttering bunting are strung on government buildings alone. Flags of Canada are everywhere, adding touches of brilliant red as they wave throughout the city.

Lawns are clipped, hedges trimmed, streets are washed and Her Majesty's North American subjects, hoping to glimpse their Queen, are laying out their Sunday best.

Planning has been so careful and painstaking that one official charged with preparations for a state dinner, is reported to have eaten and talked his way through a sample banquet menu twice to make sure that this affair will be concluded on schedule.

Hundreds of Royal Canadian Mounted Police, local cops and a special protection force are practiced in maneuvers for handling eager crowds, hysterical women and lost children. They are versed in all details of controlling mobs while, at the same time, permitting the Queen and her husband to see and be seen by as many of her subjects as possible. The dominion's famed four-horse landau, in which the governor general usually rides to open Parliament, has been refurbished for the young Queen—whose great-grandmother chose Ottawa as the capital of what was then a province of the empire.

If bad weather upsets this colorful aspect of the ceremony, there is on hand a special limousine with a transparent top ready for use.

The opening of Parliament—Monday—is an especially important occasion, because it is the first time it has been presided over by the reigning monarch of the British Commonwealth, although the dominion has been a regular port of call in the royal rounds for three generations.

Television cameras are being set up at important stops. The Queen's speeches, and the duke's too, will be carried throughout Canada by radio. A horde of newspaper men and women— from England, the United States and from all over Canada—are arriving in the city. One airlines official, charged with moving the press corps from Ottawa to Williamsburg, Va., next Wednesday for the Queen's U.S. visit, estimates the size of the communications corps at 700.

STORIED RIVALS MEET IN LAMESA TONIGHT

B SPRING	LAMESA
26 Andrews 13	7 Midland 6
13 Levant 20	23 Kertmit 20
7 Snyder 15	21 B Field 0
6 Swisher 26	41 Totals 26
22 Totals 87

Two storied rivals, Big Spring and Lamesa, come to grips on the football commons at Lamesa this evening. Kickoff time is 8 o'clock. Lamesa is favored by two touchdowns in some quarters. Too, the Tornados will be facing a club that isn't up to par physically—several members of the local team have been out with the flu this week. Still and all, the Lamesans can expect to work for what they get. Licking their wounds from three straight defeats, the Steers are in no mood to yield another verdict, without a fight. The Tornados, who haven't beaten the Longhorns since 1952, have knocked off Midland and highly-rated Brownfield this year while losing a toughie to Kermit. Big Spring got away to a fast start, smashing Andrews by two touchdowns, but then ran into trouble against Levelland, Snyder and Sweetwater. Coaches Al Milch, Curtis Kelley, Mitchell Malouf, Roy Baird and Harold Bentley may very their attack somewhat against the Tornados tonight. They intend to make better use of all their backfield talent and perhaps resort to the pass a bit more. The Steers are up against it in one respect, however, Buddy Barnes, starting tailback, has been ailing most of the week with the flu and may not even suit out tonight. In that event, Bill French is due to go to quarterback, with Jimmy Evans switching off to the tailback spot. Milch will sacrifice weight for speed in his line, according to present plans. He's set to go with Gale Kilgore in place of Danny Birdwell at one end and may spell Maxie Carey with Franklin Williamson at one guard spot. Lamesa is wealthy in quarterbacks—having sophomore Kirk Wiggins to back up Frankie McKinney and Sam Jones, who have been dividing time at the spot. Last week, both McKinney and Jones were out but Wiggins stepped in and guided the Tornados to a three-touchdown win against Brownfield. It was Lamesa's most impressive victory of the year, although the Tornados had earlier knocked off Midland, 7-6. Fleet Larry Marshall, a 146-pounder; Bill Addison, 164-pounder blocker; and Eddie Peterson, 162-pounder, lent help to the Lamesa secondary. Bobby Clement, one of the finest ends in the state, will be at one wing for Lamesa. Bobby weighs 165 pounds and uses every ounce of it to excellent advantage. The Tornados also have a 220-pound center, tackles who weigh 194 and 180, respectively; and two light but nimble guards. A near-record crowd is due to turn out, since Lamesa will be opening its home season. The Tornados were to have made their home debut against El Paso Austin Sept. 20 but that game was cancelled due to an outbreak of flu in the Austin school.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

The last of the Dixie Series probably has been held. For one thing, the set isn't a sound financial risk anymore. For another, it extends the season too long and competes for attention with the World Series, which isn't good.

Trinity University of San Antonio took a real financial licking on its recent football game with Ole Miss. Only 8,000 fans showed up and Trinity had to guarantee the Johnny Rebs $35,000 to come to Texas. The loss could cause a financial crisis at Trinity, which almost dropped football last year because the club took too much of a beating at the box office.

Peppy Blount, formerly of Our Town and now of Tyler, was one of the officials who worked the Georgia Tech-SMU football game in Atlanta a couple of Saturdays ago. Peppy has one of the highest ratings among officials in the state and, for that reason, roams far and wide to work games involving Southwest Conference clubs.

While in Atlanta, he renewed acquaintances with Carlisle (Frosty) Robison, the Big Spring lad who is playing end for Bill Meek's eleven at SMU.

A recent policy adopted by the athletic department at the local high school will permit boys who quit one sport to report for another—but only after the season of the first endeavor has been completed.

In other words, any or all of the boys who quit the B team recently can come out for basketball, after the Steer gridders have played their last game.

One of the boys who quit, Terry Lewis, is back in football uniform and is making a good hand.

Rice's Owls, which may have ruined the Rose Bowl Jan. 1 attraction last week by routing Stanford, could go a long way toward knocking the lustre off the Orange Bowl game Saturday in their game with the Duke Blue Devils.

If Duke beats Rice (and it will be favored to do that very thing), the Devils may carry an unbeaten record to the Miami New Year's Day classic against Oklahoma.

You've got to regard Big Spring's Gerald Davidson as a leading candidate for all-district honors at guard. Week in and week out, Gerald does the best all-around job of any local lineman. He misses very few assignments.

In the Big Spring Steers' four games to date, Wayne Fields has gained a total of 380 yards in 73 tries at carrying the ball. Or, to put it another way, his average carry comes to 5.1 yards.

One of the state's most celebrated high school football stars last fall, who matriculated at a Southwest Conference school, is reportedly being investigated by conference officials.

Bird dogs of one of the member schools, it is said, are suspicious of the recruiting methods used to get him.

Abner Haynes, the Negro back who plays for North Texas State College, was asked by one of his coaches shortly before the season started how much he weighed. Haynes replied he tipped the scales at 175, which is ten pounds in excess of his actual weight. When his claims were challenged by the coach, Haynes replied: "Yeah, coach, but I'm 175 pounds tough."

STENGEL HEAPS PRAISE ON HANEY, BURDETTE

NEW YORK (AP)—Casey Stengel, the loser, heaped praise on his victorious rival manager, Fred Haney, after the Milwaukee Braves beat the New York Yankees 5-0 and won the World Series.

Even longer and louder was his praise of the three-game-winning pitcher Lew Burdette.

Visiting the winners' dressing room after the final game yesterday, Stengel offered more than the congratulations and good wishes demanded by custom. "You did a great job all the way. If I had to lose to anyone, I'm glad it was you," Stengel told the man who became Milwaukee manager in June 1956, and whose team won the world championship in his first full season as pilot. "Your team was great and Haney managed better than Stengel." As for Burdette: "He's the best pitcher we've faced," Casey said. "Nobody I've seen since I took over this club has stopped us this way. He's a game fellow and not afraid to throw one over the plate and make you hit it."

Haney, naturally, singled out Burdette for his highest praise although he admitted he considered removing the pitcher in the ninth inning. "If he could cook, I'd marry him," the seamy-faced Milwaukee manager chuckled.

Maxwell Team Winner Here

A quartet captained by W. O. (Junior) Maxwell of Big Spring won first place in the Pro-Amateur golf tournament staged at the Big Spring Country Club Thursday. Maxwell's foursome scored a total of 152 points. Tied for second place were teams led by Son Powell and Bobby Wright, both of Big Spring. Each was one point back.

Maxwell had as partners Norman Brady and Gil Jones, both of Big Spring; and Punk Peel, Post. Playing with Powell were Lt. Capps and Byron Chudom, both of Big Spring; and A. E. Loyd, Post. Wright's teammates were Jasper Atkins, Burl McAllen and Pete Harmonson, all of Big Spring. Ross Dixon, Colorado City, was the low pro with a 73. W. E. Ramsey, Big Spring, was second with a 75. Maxwell, Shirley Robbins of Big Spring; Nick Gallardo, San Angelo; C. G. Griffin, Brownfield; and Lou Hannum, Colorado City, were the other pros on hand. In all, 44 players entered the meet. The entry list was reduced because of competition offered by the World Series telecasts and the cloudy weather.

East Texas Back Paces Lone Star

By The Associated Press
Gary Berry of East Texas State has rolled up 165 yards carrying the ball in two games and that makes him tops in two offensive departments of Lone Star Conference football. He leads in rushing and also is No. 1 in total offense although gaining nothing in passing. Jerry Thompkins of Texas A&I is far away the leader in passing. He has completed 10 of 28 throws for 328 yards.

Porker Frosh, TCU Wogs And Shorthorns Win

By The Associated Press
Texas Christian, Arkansas and Texas took the lead in the Southwest Conference freshman football race Thursday night with victories over Texas A&M, Southern Methodist and Baylor, respectively.

Arkansas and Texas won with last-night's drives. Texas Christian was the superior to Texas A&M, grinding out 314 yards in a 20-6 triumph. Arkansas licked Southern Methodist 13-7 on the passing of George McKinney of Texarkana. He threw to Darrell Williams for 68 yards to put the ball on the SMU 8. Then, after a line try lost two, tossed 10 yards to Williams for the payoff touchdown with only three minutes to go. SMU led 7-6 until then. Texas scored after time had run out to trim the Baylor Cubs. Tommy Newman passed to Roy Goodman for 20 yards as the clock stopped with the ball in the air. Drew Morris got the first Texas touchdown with a 4-yard plunge and Baylor tied it up on a 31-yard run by D. E. Tillman.

Yearling Teams Win Pair Over Lamesans

The Big Spring B team last week and two local junior high school elevens last night set a pattern in dealing with Lamesa which the varsity troops can profitably follow. Last week, the junior varsity—using a Hairbreath Harry finish—polished off the Lamesa Bees, 7-6. Last night, the Big Spring 7th Graders and 8th Graders both won at the expense of the Dawson county troops, the 7th Graders by a 37-7 tab and the 8th Graders by the narrow margin of 13-12.

Lamesa was never in the 7th Grade game. Coaches Hugh Hamm and Jimmy Marcus watched their boys roll up six touchdowns and then flooded the game with reserves before the visitors could mount an offensive. Jerry Bethell, taking the ball on a tricky reverse, churned 12 yards for Big Spring's first score early in the game, after Lamesa had failed to get the yardage on a fourth down try and yielded possession on its own 36.

Quarterback Rickie Wisener kicked the PAT to make it 7-0. Three minutes later, after Big Spring had recovered a fumble on Lamesa's 25, Tony Dutchover scooted over from 12 yards out on an end sweep. A penalty nullified the score but Dutchover came right back to count again from the 15 to give the Yearlings a 13-0 lead. After Jimmy Horton had recovered another Lamesa boggle just before the quarter ended, Joe Don Musgrove sprinted 21 paces for Big Spring's third tally. Big Spring added another before the half was out when Wisener, reversing his field several times, blurred 63 paces to touchdown-land. That made it 25-0. On the first play from scrimmage after the half, Dutchover roared 55 yards for another score. The Yearlings counted again in the third period when Jimmy Horton ran 71 yards after getting good blocking where it counted most. Lamesa averted a shutout when Tommy Zachary went across from the one at the end of a 67-yard run. Bobby Pervis added the point on a run.

The Big Spring 8th Graders had to stage a furious rally in the fourth quarter to pull their game out of the fire. It was Lamesa's first loss in four games. Big Spring scored first when, on fourth down, Dexter Pate passed to Jimmy Madry for 22 yards. The play occurred in the second period.

Lamesa came right back to tally when an aerial from Gene Westmoreland to Raymond Howington covered 24 yards. That's the way it stood until early in the fourth when Skipper Beal went over for Lamesa from the one at the end of a 67-yard march. Lamesa tried to rush the ball over for the extra point after each TD and failed. Big Spring took the kickoff and marched to a TD without a slipup, relying heavily upon Benny Pitzer in the drive. Pitzer, heretofore used principally on defense, alternated with Dean Lee and Pate to move the ball down to the ten, from which point Benny cruised on over. He then powered across the extra point to provide the margin of victory.

BRAVES PROVED REAL CHAMPS IN CLUTCH

By JOE REICHLER

NEW YORK (AP) — Milwaukee's miracle is now complete. The miracle man is Fred Haney with Lew Burdette his magic wand. Just five years after the franchise shift from Boston, the Braves rose from a frustrated, badly disorganized seventh-place team to a world championship outfit with a bright future.

Watch Out For That Right

Battling Barbara Buttrick of Berkshire, England, throws a hard right at Phyllis Kugler of South Bend, Ind., as the two girls fought it out in a feature boxing bout at San Antonio, Mrs. Buttrick won a 6-round decision from her heavier foe. (AP Wirephoto).

A REAL HOMECOMING

Valhalla Not Like Braves' Welcome

By DION HENDERSON

MILWAUKEE (AP) — The Braves brought the world championship of baseball home last night. "I thought," said one hero whom even five years in the home of the Braves had left unprepared to face 750,000 roaring voices, "that you had to die in battle to get this kind of a welcome."

But Valhalla was never like this. Said homecoming chairman Ben Barkin, "I hate to think what would have happened if we'd had a chance to really plan this celebration."

This is what happened: Milwaukee, which holds within its metropolitan area about a million souls, turned out most of them early last night, and kept them out late. The downtown area — scheduled to see a parade of the world champions after their arrival — began to clog with humanity in midafternoon.

By the time the Braves' airplane touched down at 7:30 p.m. there were 250,000 people in an area roughly two blocks wide and two miles long along Wisconsin Avenue. Not a wheel turned in this area for hours.

Meanwhile, at the airport, 10,000 jammed the terminals piers, decks and roof and another 10,000 swarmed over the field. When the door of the chartered airliner opened and Manager Fred Haney appeared, what little in the way of formal ceremonies had been prepared were swamped along with the television crews and cameras.

Unfurled at the airport were the first of the banners which repeated the same message for miles: "Welcome back to Bushville." This term of opprobrium — used opprobriously by a Yankee spokesman when the big shots from the Bronx brushed off a polite civic reception of their ill-starred visit to Milwaukee last week — has been taken to the bosom of the burghers here and is flaunted on every side.

The parade itself was a 11th-hour ordeal for the Braves themselves, but they were game. Faced with 30 convertibles and 47-degree temperatures spiced by an 8-mile-per-hour wind off Lake Michigan, the Braves looked at the massed thousands stretching out for miles along the route.

"Leave the tops down," they said. "These people have waited five years for this." Not a square foot of curbstone was unmaned along the scheduled parade route, and as the caravan reached deeper into the city intersections swelled shut with the crowds. As the safari approached within a mile of the downtown area, there was barely a clear lane for the cars carrying the heroes.

At the stadium itself, thousands more had wedged themselves into a committee of the whole in the Braves parking lot. There had been some innocent thought that the athletes, once here, would be able to get into their cars and drive anonymously away. They did, but it was some hours later, and only after scores of officers built a safety lane with beef and motorcycles from the parade cars to the stadium.

Graham Steers Continue Pace In 59-0 Triumph

By The Associated Press

Graham, which has averaged almost 74 points a game, continued its rampage in Texas schoolboy football Thursday night, smashing Fort Worth North Side 59-0.

The Steers, one of the top-rated teams in Class AAA, were slaughtering a Class AAAA team. It brought their total to 295 points in four games and harkened back to the 1920s when Waco High School was rolling up 700 points a season.

Graham remained among the 16 undefeated, untied teams in Class AAA. None of the teams with perfect records were in action in Class AAAA but San Antonio Burbank, unbeaten but once tied, downed San Antonio Sam Houston 13-0.

The big show comes Friday night with Abilene, which has run its victory string to 41 straight, meeting Lubbock and favored to advance within one game of the all-time winning record.

Class AAA has the most games in which undefeated, untied teams risk their records against other unbeaten outfits.

San Benito and Uvalde play each other, Kilgore needs unbeaten but tied Palestine, Killean does the same with Mineral Wells and Brenham the same with El Campo. Cuero steps down for a battle with undefeated, untied Edna of Class AA and Aldine meets undefeated but once tied Port Acres of Class AA.

Follis Is Named To TCS Committee

AUSTIN (AP) — Committees to pick all-star football and basketball teams for the Texas Coaching School at Houston next August were named yesterday by the Texas High School Coaches Assn.

Joe Golding of Wichita Falls is chairman of the North football committee and Joe Hamrick of Harlingen heads the South group. O. W. Follis of Lamesa, Leon Vineyard of Terrell, Theo Miles of White Oak and Louis Boynton of Wheeler are members of Golding's committee. J. W. Helms of San Benito, Travis Hughes of Deer Park, Cotton Lindloff of Mart and Ralph Burnett of Chilton are on Hamrick's committee.

Nat Gleaton of Abilene is chairman of the North basketball committee and will be assisted by Gano Tubb of Littlefield. Jimmie Littleton of South San Antonio is chairman of the South committee with Charles W. Boggess of San Antonio as a member.

Huge Turnouts Are Expected At Six Games

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.

Six college football games tomorrow likely will attract about half a million spectators if the influenza germ doesn't cut too big a swath among fans.

The bug already has been felt by the players themselves. It put a damper on workouts by a number of major elevens this week and forced cancellation of several small college and high school games.

But coaches from major teams, with the possible exception of Nebraska, reported today they expect their squads to be close to top shape physically. Nebraska has had half its 50-man squad affected by the germ. But the disease apparently has run its course at Notre Dame and Oklahoma.

Army and Notre-Dame, resuming a series that was abandoned 10 years ago because the almost-hysterical interest in their games put too much pressure on players and coaches, are expected to fill Philadelphia's Municipal Stadium almost to its 102,000 capacity.

Michigan and Michigan State, playing a key game in the open race for the Big Ten championship, will appear before another 100,000 at Ann Arbor and 75,000 will jam the Dallas Cotton Bowl to see national leader Oklahoma go after its 43rd consecutive victory, against Texas.

Ohio State likely will draw its usual 80,000 for a homecoming game at Columbus against Illinois. The Rice stadium at Houston (capacity 70,000) and the Stanford stadium at Palo Alto, Calif. (90,000), should be pretty well filled when these teams meet Duke and Washington State, respectively.

Comparatively speaking, Army-Notre Dame is a low pressure affair this year although both teams are unbeaten so far. A decade of cooling off, plus a weak 1956 Notre Dame team and a few ordinary Army football teams, have reduced the pressure. But the winner undoubtedly will receive a lot of attention when next week's ratings are made.

Michigan State and Michigan, each 2-0 for the season, were ranked second and sixth in this week's Associated Press poll. The victor still will have to contend with Minnesota (No. 4) and Iowa (No. 8) in the Big Ten race. Minnesota plays Northwest and Iowa plays Indiana Saturday. Illinois and Ohio State (each 1-1) will be opening their conference campaigns.

Cable Assumes Lead In League

Cable Cleaners edges Truman Jones Motor, 2-1, in a battle for first place in the Housewives Bowling league at Clover Bowl this week.

In other matches, Girdwell Electric nudged Good Housekeeping, 2-1; Team 6 won over Wasson and Trantham, 2-0; while Gandy Creamery blanked the Zale Diamondets, 2-0.

Olive Cauble, a sub, was the top point-getter, with 199-525. Her average is 175.

Hazel Walker of Girdner's was next, with 171-498. She has a 166 average.

Girdner posted a team high of 698-2028. Wasson and Trantham registered a 682 game while Good Housekeeping had an aggregate of 1963.

Next week, Girdner's faces Wasson and Trantham. Team 6 opposes Good Housekeeping, Truman Jones tangles with Zale's and Gandy's tries Cauble.

All Eyes In SWC Are On Rice Saturday

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF

Associated Press Staff Writer Baylor and Arkansas, a couple of rugged old battlers, have it out at Waco Saturday night in a Southwest Conference game of deep significance.

The major interest, however, rests on a melee at Houston, where Rice's wild-eyed offense rams into Duke's steel-gauged defense, and a deep-dyed rivalry at Dallas, where Oklahoma's awesome Sooners meet lightly regarded Texas.

These two games, of great national portent, will get the crowds, with 50,000 or better at Houston and 75,504 jammed into the Cotton Bowl for the Texas-Oklahoma festivities.

But there couldn't be a better setup for an important game than the Baylor-Arkansas clash. Both were pre-season choices to fight it out with Texas A&M for the championship.

Arkansas, possessing speed, savvy and experience and able to move like lightning, would be favored to win if the game were anywhere except at Waco. No Razorback team has ever been able to climb the Golden Bear menace there.

Baylor, too, is big, tough and of seemingly limitless manpower, and considered much better than the outfit that lost to Miami last Saturday after a weeklong battle with the flu.

Rice is a mild underdog to Duke, the nation's fifth-ranked team with a defense that appears up to the task of stopping an outfit that goes after the yards in chunks.

Texas is an exasperating underdog to Oklahoma, the Big Red with the 42-game winning streak and not satisfied with anything less than No. 1 in the nation. A victory by sophomore-strewn Texas would be in the category of a miracle.

The conference is reasonably confident of breaking even in inter-sectional play. Unbeaten Southern Methodist meets a Missouri team racked up by the Texas Aggies in the Cotton Bowl Friday night, and Texas Christian plays downtrodden Alabama at Fort Worth Saturday night.

Texas A&M, which has moved through 13 games without defeat last season and this, will be playing in comparative obscurity Saturday night. The Aggies meet the University of Houston at College Station and, while they have been troubled by injuries and illness, they'll be easy favorites.

With a season record of 12 hits, four misses and two ties in the prognosticating league, the choices this week are far from guaranteed:

Hunter For Treasure Defeated Mutineers

By RAMON COFFMAN

Mutiny on board a sea-going vessel is almost, if not quite, a thing of the past. Aside from novels, I have not read any account of it for a long time.

A few hundred years ago, the story was quite different. Mutinies took place time and again, and sometimes the sailors became pirates.

One mutiny started on board a British vessel during the reign of King James II. The master of the ship was William Phips, a colonist born in Maine.

Phips had gone to England with an account of sunken treasure in the area of the Bahama Islands. A Spanish galleon, he declared, had gone down at a certain spot, and he had located the place.

Thanks to the Duke of York, Phips obtained from the king a frigate with 18 guns to search for the treasure. The duke hoped to obtain a large share of what might be found.

There were 95 men on the frigate, and several of them plotted to seize the vessel. They wanted to be pirates, possibly with Phips in command. The ringleaders went to the captain and told him of their plan.

Instead of giving time to the proposal, Phips struck out boldly and knocked two of the would-be pirates to the deck.

The other plotters walked away and it seemed that they had given up all thought of mutiny. When a landing was made on an island, however, a score or more of them gathered on a beach to make further plans. Phips obtained word of what was taking place, and his loyal sailors trained cannon on the men who had gone ashore. When they heard him threaten to blow them to pieces, they fell on their knees and begged for mercy. Phips failed to find treasure on that voyage, but on a later voyage he obtained gold and pearls, along with 32 tons of silver. The king and the duke obtained most of the riches, but Phips went back to New England with treasure worth 170 thousand dollars in present-day money.

Wheat Seeding Rules Relaxed

New regulations permit greater latitude in planting of winter wheat provided the county ASC office is notified prior to seeding.

Gabe Hammack, county administrative officer, reminded today. Each farm is entitled to plant up to 30 acres for home consumption, provided the operator notifies the ASC office before the field is planted. Grain from these 30 acres may be harvested for livestock feed, for human consumption, or for subsequent seeding of the farm.

Regulations which permit unlimited seeding for cover purposes are still in effect, but acreage in excess of the basic 15-acre allotment must be plowed under by next May 10.

Orson Welles Plus Sputnik Too Much

KELOWNA, B.C. (AP) — Orson Welles and the Russian satellite proved too much for some radio listeners last night.

Radio station CKOV in this Okanagan Valley town devoted a brief newscast to the day's reports on Russia's Sputnik, now spinning around the earth.

Then, without an introduction or advance warning, the station put on a recording of Welles' famous "War of the Worlds" broadcast in 1938.

Twenty years ago thousands of radio listeners were frightened by the make-believe report that men from Mars had invaded the earth. Last night 60 phone calls came in within a few minutes from anxious folk who thought Sputnik had landed hostile Russians in North America.

Good Response To Appeal For Old Clothing

Church, P-TA and other groups and individuals have responded marvelously to appeals for serviceable old clothing, said Clyde Rowe, visiting teacher, Thursday.

However, there is still a need for more clothing for girls 6-12 years of age. This includes underwear, dresses, etc., which are needed in order to keep a number of youngsters in school, according to Rowe.

The Salvation Army is handling the clothes collection and distribution and has set up a distribution day on Thursday, Rowe reported. In all cases where Rowe investigates and finds a need for clothing to enable children to attend school, he issues an order which the Salvation Army honors without further checking.

With the approach of the winter season, the need for heavier clothing is increasing, he said, and jackets and coats of all types and for all ages will be in urgent demand. Winter shoes also are needed for children, because most of what is now available are sandals or other summer types.

The generosity of Big Spring people in calling the Salvation Army about clothing they can give

Plains Cotton Estimate Up

LUBBOCK — A 25,000-bale increase in the 1957 High Plains Cotton Crop estimate during September has pushed the October estimate past 1,700,000 bales, according to the Lubbock Cotton Exchange and the Plains Cotton Growers Inc.

The September estimate totaled 1,688,000 bales for the 23 member counties of the Plains Cotton Growers whereas for October the estimate is 1,713,000 bales.

While the crop estimate is a bit larger, several agricultural officials admit that dryland cotton has suffered for moisture in some counties and the estimated yield has thus been reduced.

Frost still is the top danger feared most by High Plains producers. It could either see this crop estimate realized or it could see a much smaller crop harvested, depending on how late or early frost comes.

Estimated production in some of the 23 counties of the Plains Cotton Growers include: Borden 8,000; Dawson 125,000; Howard 32,500; and Lubbock 216,000.

Number Of Wrecks Showing Increase

September saw more accidents in Big Spring than in any month in the past year and a half.

The city recorded 82 accidents for the highest total in either 1956 or '57. Four of the mishaps were hit-and-runs, while injuries resulted from three.

Sixteen of the accidents occurred on U. S. 87, while 15 came on 4th. Nine were on Main, and eight occurred on 3rd.

Four collisions came at the corner of 4th and Scurry, and three at 4th and Benton.

Ground Fog Cloaks State

By The Associated Press

Ground fog cloaked scattered areas from West to Central Texas early Friday but forecasters said little or no moisture was in prospect.

Except for a prediction of scattered light rain or drizzle in West Texas, the Weather Bureau expected nothing more than cloudy to partly cloudy skies and continued mild temperatures.

Fog reduced visibility early in the day to about one-fourth mile around Amarillo, Lubbock, Wichita Falls and Mineral Wells.

There was a little drizzling rain at a few places Thursday, and President got .45 inch. Other measurements included Amarillo .05 and Brownsville and Houston both .01. Thursday's top temperatures varied from 58 at Amarillo to 82 at Brownsville.

The readings early Friday were mostly in the 50-55 range, with a low of 48 at Wichita Falls and ranging up to 68 at Galveston.

'Dixie' Replaces National Anthem

FOREST, Miss. (AP)—The Forest High School band played "Dixie" for a football kickoff last night, but it came at the half instead of the beginning of the game.

For the opener, a color guard of four National Guardsmen paraded onto the field with the U.S. and Confederate flags, and the band played "The Star Spangled Banner."

During the playing of "Dixie" at the start of the second half, the spectators jumped to their feet and cheered wildly.

The announcement by School Supt. L. O. Atkins during the early stages of the Little Rock, Ark., school dispute that "Dixie" would replace the national anthem at a Forest football kickoff Sept. 13 was widely publicized.

Rain that night kept the band indoors. Last night's game was the first contest since then. Forest lost to Newton 12-7.

Russia Tests New Nuclear Device

Gunmen Rob Post Office, Kill Citizen

PAISLEY, Ore. (AP)—Gunmen walked into this little ranch town's post office yesterday. In the next 15 minutes, they robbed it, pistol-whipped a woman and killed a 60-year-old man who tried to stop them.

After the gunmen fled in a car, a posse of more than 150 rifle-bearing men set out after the gunmen. Roadblocks sprang up.

The gunmen abandoned their car and fled on foot through the brushy prairie.

A man later was shot in the shoulder by the posse near a ranch. At a hospital in nearby Lakeview, under police guard, he told officers his name is Donald Ferguson. He said he is 32 and from Bakersfield, Calif. He said nothing more.

State police said they were not certain how many persons were in the gang that robbed the post office and killed John T. Lawson, a plumber. Estimates of the number of gunmen ranged from two to four.

Lawson yesterday was walking near the post office when an unidentified woman shouted that it was being robbed.

Lawson ran to his car and grabbed a rifle. As he reached the front door of the post office, one of the gunmen shot once and killed him.

Mrs. Anita Bannister, the postmaster, said that 15 minutes earlier a man entered the post office and flashed a pistol.

"He threatened to kill me several times... pushing me around and hitting me on the head with his gun. Three women came into the post office after that and that man just lined them up against the wall," she said.

A second gunman later entered, took money from the safe and left. It was then Mrs. Bannister heard the shot.

Mrs. Bannister said the gunman got only a small amount of money and an undetermined number of blank money orders.

State police said they were not certain how many persons were in the gang that robbed the post office and killed John T. Lawson, a plumber. Estimates of the number of gunmen ranged from two to four.

Lawson yesterday was walking near the post office when an unidentified woman shouted that it was being robbed.

Lawson ran to his car and grabbed a rifle. As he reached the front door of the post office, one of the gunmen shot once and killed him.

Mrs. Anita Bannister, the postmaster, said that 15 minutes earlier a man entered the post office and flashed a pistol.

"He threatened to kill me several times... pushing me around and hitting me on the head with his gun. Three women came into the post office after that and that man just lined them up against the wall," she said.

Care In School Zones Urged

KNOTT (SC) — Another appeal to motorists to regard school warning signs and to stop for halted buses was voiced here today by Supt. Bill Bolin.

He said that there had been several complaints of drivers sailing through the school zone without slowing speed to conform to state law. Unless this practice is brought under control, school authorities will have to take numbers and report them to peace officers, he indicated.

Response to requests to be careful to observe state law regarding school buses has been encouraging, Bolin added. His drivers have been instructed to turn on blinkers when stopping and to turn them off, once the bus has resumed movement. State regulations require passing traffic to stop in both directions when a bus is stopped on the road.

Dixie Congressmen Ask Ike For Talks

WASHINGTON (AP)—Republican Rep. Bruce R. Alger of Texas and four other Southern GOP House members yesterday asked the White House for a conference to talk over "the entire Little Rock situation with a view to the withdrawal of federal troops."

"Our group will be available on any date convenient to you," the group wired President Eisenhower.

"We would, however, appreciate at least 24 hours' advance notice to enable some of us to reach Washington from our representative congressional districts."

Other signers included Reps. Roy Hill of Virginia, Cramer of Florida, Jonas of North Carolina and Poff of Virginia.

Alger said in Dallas last night that the matter "is above party politics."

"We want to go to Washington as Southerners, get the facts, carefully analyze them and then offer the President whatever help possible," he said.

"It must be recognized that the integration problem is a sectional one that cuts across party lines. None of us in the South approves of force. You cannot legislate customs and morals."

"In fact, the use of force may antagonize law-abiding citizens. We Americans are not used to being pushed around. We are law abiding. And we in the South bow to nobody as law abiding citizens."

"One of the things I would like determined is if it was constitutionally right to send in the troops," he said.

"Beyond this concern is this question: Why the haste in sending troops to Little Rock? For the answer this and other questions I would appreciate learning the contents of the 400-page FBI report given the federal judge in Little Rock just before his ruling that integration must proceed.

"Did the judge feel that integration could go forward peacefully after reading the report?"

"It is my feeling that if we Southerners are to help solve the problem, or even take a firm stand on the Little Rock situation, we must have the facts. These are presumably in the report.

"There is another gap in the link that we do not have, as I see it."

"Gov. Faubus of Arkansas claimed that he had evidence that there would be violence if forced integration was attempted. What was his evidence?"

Reds Abdicate In San Marino

SAN MARINO (AP)—San Marino's Communist government surrendered its power to a rival anti-Communist regime today, ending 12 years of Red rule over this tiny republic.

San Marino Christian Democrats formed a provisional government—already recognized by the United States—at the start of the upheaval.

Moral Standards in a Church

PAUL PLEADS FOR PURITY OF LIFE, AND LOVE
Scripture—I Corinthians 5-6; 13.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL
IN THIS lesson Paul is still concerned with the members of Corinth, many of the members of which were not living as Christ would have them. He is concerned about immorality and association with all types of evil persons, writing that when a person is known to them as being evil in any way, they should not associate with him, eat with him, but should banish him from their company.
Dr. William M. Smith suggests introducing the lesson to the younger pupils by telling them how, if they drank poison their whole bodies would be affected and they would be very ill and in need of drastic treatment. So if they mistreat their bodies they will eventually suffer not only in body, but in mind and spirit. He suggests that children should be taught that anything they say or do that they would not care to tell their fathers or mothers is wrong.

Then Paul takes up the question of one person having a matter against another. He should not go to a court of law, but to "the saints" in the church to be judged. Paul writes, "Is it so, that there is not a wise man among you? no, not one that shall be able to judge between his brethren."
In all Paul's writings the 13th chapter of I Corinthians is the most beautiful and helpful. It is a lesson in Christian conduct for classes of all ages, and for all of us to remember and practice in our daily lives. If we follow this teaching, how much better the world would be, which often seems to us full of misunderstanding, rudeness and cruelty.

"Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not charity (love), I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal."
"Even if one is generous and charitable, giving freely of his goods to help the poor and needy; or if he suffer martyrdom, 'it profiteth me nothing' without love accompanies it."
Love "suffereth long and is kind; love envieth not; vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up. . . . seeketh not her own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil."

you don't have to WRESTLE for it if you use the WANT ADS

you don't have to HOWL for it when you use the WANT ADS

you don't have to USE for it when you use the WANT ADS

And The Moral Is: USE Herald Want Ads

Give God A Chance—God Will Open Doors For You!

WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

Frightening, isn't it? You see a picture like this and suddenly you feel as if you are standing at the edge of a chasm in the dark. You are confronted with the threat of the unknown, and you don't like it.

Why, you wonder, does it have to be like this? Why can't men live together in peace?

We all need the courage to face the unknown future unafraid. We need to find and to develop love, understanding, and peace of mind. But to attain our goal, we need help. That help can be found in the Church, which gives us Faith.

On World Wide Communion Sunday—millions of men and women will unite in solemn observance of one of Christianity's holy sacraments. There will be new faces at thousands of altars, men and women who have only recently begun to realize where man's Hope is to be found.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

New Trials Planned For County Court

R. H. Weaver, county judge, said that he intends to call a week of jury trials in Howard County Court but that he has not determined the date.

He said he intended to consult with John Richard Coffee, county attorney, before setting the docket.

Some weeks ago it was announced that a series of jury sessions in county court would be scheduled in an effort to clear up the mass of accumulated cases now pending in the county criminal docket.

One week's session was conducted at that time.

District Court will resume jury trials on Oct. 28. This will mark the opening of a new term for the court.

U.S. Orders End To Fingerprinting For U.S. Visitors

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Eisenhower administration today ordered an end to fingerprinting for virtually all visitors to the United States. A few exceptions were made.

The new rules are expected to become effective next weekend.

Under them, visitors could come here from the Soviet Union, which has complained for years against the fingerprinting requirement, without being fingerprinted.

Furthermore, if the government decided as a matter of policy to let them come, newsmen from Red China, Olympic athletes and the like would come within the waiver.

The State Department announced the action which was taken officially by Secretary of State Dulles and ATTY. GEN. Brownell who used authority given by Congress last Sept. 11.

Dulles and Brownell, the department said, today authorized publication of new regulations which "will waive the fingerprint requirement on a basis of reciprocity in the case of most non-immigrant visitors."

Now, She Has Only The Memory

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Five months after her marriage in 1942, something went wrong with Mrs. Henry Miller's memory. She couldn't remember her husband, didn't even know her own identity.

After 10 cloudy months — during which Miller became known as the "amnesia husband" — she finally recalled the marriage, threw her arms around her husband. They vowed nothing would ever separate them again.

And nothing did until yesterday, when Mrs. Miller, now 37, found her 58-year-old husband dead in their apartment. He had suffered a heart seizure.

Faubus-Ike Fight May Have Changed Integration Outlook

By RELMAN MORIN

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—What now for Little Rock?

What now for integration elsewhere in the South?

It may well be that the whole complexion of that great social struggle has been changed by President Eisenhower and Gov. Orval Faubus.

The thunderous September events in the city showed the breadth and depth of the feeling against integration. Most people applauded Faubus for using the Arkansas National Guard to keep Negroes out of Central High School.

Then came the riots and federal troops.

Prior to that violence. Most people thought of the problem primarily in terms of integration versus segregation. They knew, of course, that the Supreme Court had declared segregation unconstitutional.

But they did not think of it as a question of obeying or defying the court's order, of complying with the law or flouting it.

The road from Capitol Hill in Washington to the school down the block seemed a very long one. Few people in Little Rock expected to be confronted so soon with the hard alternative of accepting integration or challenging the U.S. government.

PRECEDENT SET

Moreover, a precedent has been set. Violence may be answered, again and again, by the arrival of federal troops. Short of civil war, what resistance is left? What could it accomplish?

Thus Little Rock has clarified the issue, laid it squarely in the lap of every parent with a child in a segregated school.

For this reason, integrationists in Little Rock and elsewhere contend that Faubus and the rioters inadvertently dealt segregation a mortal blow. They think he has lopped years off the revolutionary process.

They expect to see a stronger civil rights bill enacted in Congress next year. They believe the federal courts will be less likely to permit delays in integration, and that the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People will become more militant, demanding more action sooner.

As for Faubus, the question seems to be: How does he get out of this impasse without surrender and loss of face?

On the morning he left for Newport, R.I., to meet with President Eisenhower, he seemed supremely confident of his position. He told this reporter, "I'm on the ground. I'm in control. It's up to them to make the next move."

STOOD GROUND

Neither the federal court injunction against him Sept. 20, the riots Sept. 23, nor the arrival of federal troops Sept. 24 seemed to shake him—so far as you could see.

Then came the efforts of the four Southern governors to work out a compromise. The President and Faubus both issued statements giving the gist of it.

Only a few hours later, having read Faubus' version of the understanding, the White House said the deal was off. Some of the phrasing in the governor's statement was unacceptable.

At a news conference the next day, Faubus did not look so confident. Several times, he showed through his usual calm as he answered questions. "What do they want to do, write my statement for me?" he asked, raising his voice. He did not hesitate to accuse the White House of "double talk."

Meanwhile, Central High School is open. The nine Negro students are going to classes under guard. Attendance rose daily during the first week.

Students and teachers describe conditions inside the school as being about as normal as they could be in such circumstances. There have been a few disturbances, and Virgil T. Blossom, superintendent of schools, acted quickly and forcefully.

A girl student said, "You're not really conscious of the soldiers there. They don't escort the Negroes to classes any more. They just stand in the halls."

"Some of the kids simply ignore the Negroes. Some are polite to them. There are two Negro girls in my gym class and they seem very nice."

She said a white boy sat a table in the school cafeteria with some Negroes during the first week. Later, some other white boys told him they would "get" him after school. "But I don't think they did," she said.

Judging from the attendance figures, it appears that between 15 and 20 per cent of the parents who have children enrolled at Central High are determined to keep them out.

For the others, integration has come and they seem to be accepting it.

As for the city, this incident may be a straw in the wind — a letter signed "Iris Bell" appeared in the Arkansas Gazette, Little Rock's morning newspaper. It said, "You will see a quick right-about-face in the situation," if persons who employ Negroes should discharge them, and if Faubus would cut Negroes off the welfare rolls. The letter closed, "P.S., I discharged my maid this morning."

Executives of the paper said they immediately received a call from a woman they described as "prominent" in the city.

"She said she wanted to place an ad saying that she would personally employ any Negroes fired for that reason. There were about a dozen other letters like hers."

Zoning Change Is Ruled Final

No new hearing is slated for zoning changes made by the City Commission Tuesday. H. W. Whitney, city manager, said today.

The school had asked for one after learning of the change of an area in front of the school.

Monday night at a public hearing, the zoning board recommended changing half-blocks from Goliad to Young south of Eleventh from residential areas to an E zone —community business. Then Tuesday night, the City Commission approved the change.

However, the board of education thought it had not been consulted or notified of the public hearing, and Floyd Parsons, school superintendent, asked for another meeting.

The city checked, however, and found that a letter notifying the school of the public hearing had been mailed. Whitney said he consulted the city's legal staff and learned this was sufficient and no new hearing would be slated.

The school system wanted to contest the zoning change on the grounds that community businesses would bring ice cream parlors, thus hurting the cafeteria's business. In addition, at a public hearing next Tuesday, the city will consider making cafes legal in an E zone.

Parsons said school representatives would be present for the hearing next Tuesday.
