Asthma Formula Prescribed Most By Doctors—Available Now Without Prescription

Stops Attacks in Minutes... Relief Lasts for Hours!
New York, N. Y. (Special)—The asthma formula prescribed more than any other by doctors for their private patients is now available to asthma sufferers without prescription. Medical tests proved this formula stops asthma attacks in minutes and gives hours of freedom from recurrence of painful asthma spasms. This formula is so effective that it is the physicians' leading asthma prescription—so safe that now it can be sold without prescription—in many tablets called Primatene®.

Congressman Seek Politics In Farm Issues

By OVID A. MARTIN
Associated Press Farm Reporter
WASHINGTON, Dec. 23 (AP)—Many members of Congress, preparing for another session, doubtless are asking themselves "What is good politics on the farm issue?"
Many of them feel they had better have the right answer to this question. Else they might find themselves being unseated at elections less than 11 months away.
For nearly 30 years, this has been a relatively easy query to settle. Just vote for more federal farm aid—in the form of subsidies, price supports and government purchase of surpluses.

But this is not the widely acceptable solution it once was. Without question, there is a strong and definite swing away from such government programs among farmers themselves. Too, there is a sharp change of viewpoint among city folk. The latter are not as convinced as they once were that it is necessary to subsidize agriculture to prevent farm depression that would engulf the whole economy eventually.

Secretary of Agriculture Benson has been making the pitch that farmers would be better off moneywise if they got rid of government programs that tended to hold farm prices above competitive levels. He contends that such programs narrow markets, require efforts to restrict production and cut farm income.

During the past two or three years, Benson has had support from the big American Farm Bureau Federation.
But there has been a tendency for advocates of strong government programs to discount the Farm Bureau stand. Critics have argued that this stand reflected the views of the organization's top leaders and not the rank and file of its members.

This criticism may or may not have been justified in the recent past. However, the Farm Bureau's national convention at Chicago last week offered strong evidence that its members as a whole have come around to the thinking of its leaders and Benson.

The convention, acting on resolutions developed at local and state meetings and through delegates chosen in 48 state conventions, called upon the organization's officials and board of directors to work for legislation that would gradually pull the government out of farm price-fixing and crop control.

"Where price support and production adjustment programs are used they should be designed to facilitate orderly marketing rather than to guarantee unrealistic prices," declared a convention resolution.

Observers of the convention were impressed with the high degree of agreement on this stand. Delegates from the South—once the stronghold of high government price supports—were just as far out in front seeking less government aid as were delegates from other parts of the country. There was one exception—and that was tobacco. The South appears to be sold on the idea that high supports and rigid controls offer about the only satisfactory solution for this crop.

Negro Faces Execution For Criminal Assault

HUNTSVILLE (AP)—Junior Lee Williams, 27, Bay City, Negro, faces execution early tomorrow at the state prison.
His last hope today was an appeal to Gov. Price Daniel for commutation of his sentence to life in prison.

Williams originally was convicted at Bay City in 1953 and sentenced to die in the electric chair for criminally assaulting a baby sitter, 13, three years ago this month at Bay City.

Judge G. P. Hardy at Bay City last week denied a habeas corpus motion to delay the execution. Williams previously was ordered to die in the chair last April and May but won stays—one from the state, the other while the U.S. Supreme Court was deciding not to review his case.

He won a reversal of his first death sentence from the Court of Criminal Appeals, but was convicted again the same year at Wharton. The appeals court twice has denied him another trial.

Santa Fe Cars Thrown Off Track

OAKLEY, Calif. (AP)—The Santa Fe's eastbound Golden Gate streamliner hit a car apparently stalled at an Oakley grade crossing last night and all but 2 of the 10 cars jumped the tracks.

Fifteen of the 121 passengers on the train were shaken up. No one was hurt seriously.

A Santa Fe spokesman estimated it would take 24 hours to restore service across a 1,000-foot section of mangled track. Oakley is 40 miles east of San Francisco and the train was bound from San Francisco to Bakersfield, Calif., with connections for Southern California.

Most of the passengers resumed their trips on another train.

Man Shot Down By Prospective Father-In-Law

NEW YORK (AP)—A 28-year-old Brooklyn man, who was to have been married Christmas day, was shot to death yesterday by his prospective father-in-law.

Police gave this account: Francisco Napoleon Landa, 60, telephoned police about 11 a. m. yesterday and said: "I shot a man with a rifle. He's dead."

Going to Landa's Manhattan apartment, patrolmen found Jacob Kalisch, a refrigerator repairman, dead on the floor. He had been shot through the throat.

Landa said he did not like Kalisch, who was to have married his red-haired daughter Maybelle, 32. The older man said he especially disliked what he termed Kalisch's hot temper.

Landa said Kalisch knocked on his apartment door shortly before 1 a. m. and demanded entrance. Landa's wife and daughter were at a late movie.

When he refused to open the door, Landa said, Kalisch kicked it in. Landa said he then went to a closet, brought out the gun and fired.

Valley Shipments Due To Increase

MALLEN (AP)—Lower Rio Grande Valley produce shippers look for a stepped up demand after a holiday slowdown.

Prospects are bright for good vegetable demand after supply and demand level off next month. A stronger than normal citrus market is assured because of the Florida freeze. Extent of demand and prices for the Valley citrus crop, however, remain questions which will not be known until after an embargo on Florida fruit shipments is lifted Dec. 30.

The big winter vegetable crops, carrots, cabbage and lettuce, were in strong demand with good prices until late last week but a general lag was expected before Christmas.

Because acreage of carrots in the Coachella and Imperial Valleys of California was comparatively light this season, indications were that West Coast shipments would not be very heavy at any time during the season. Arizona also had a reduced carrot acreage.

The Rio Grande Valley will have a normal crop this season. Carrots should again outnumber all other Valley vegetables in carrot shipments.

Valley cabbage prices hit a new high shortly after the Florida freeze but slumped again when Florida harvesting resumed. The later prices quoted still were above normal and were expected to continue so for some weeks ahead.

The Valley's cabbage crop will be light until late due to damage of young plants in a Dec. 1 freeze. A survey showed that up to 40 per cent of the young cabbage in the western end of the Lower Valley was destroyed.

This deficiency will become a reality during February harvesting. Fields in the eastern end were not seriously damaged. Lettuce shipments generally continue to early March with weather conditions a strong factor. California and Arizona currently are shipping lettuce in large volume but it was reported warmer weather was needed in those areas to increase sizes. Florida ships very little lettuce.

Russian Film On Sputniks Planned
MOSCOW (AP)—The Russians say they are going to release shortly a new documentary film showing the launching of their earth satellites.

The newspaper Soviet Russia said today the film will include scenes from the launchings of earlier rockets, construction work on Sputnik II and shots of canine volunteers for the space flight, including Laika, the dog finally chosen to pioneer space.

Russian Agents Woo Argentina
BUENOS AIRES, Dec. 23 (AP)—Russia and her satellites are wooing Argentines with a cultural blend of Shakespeare, ballet, music and animated cartoons.

The point obviously is to convince this country—ruled by a provisional government with elections due next year—that the finer things of life play an important part in the Soviet Union. For $2,000 a month Russia rents a downtown movie theater, called the Astor for some reason, as a distribution center for its slick

Farm Agents Say Conditions Vary Highly

COLLEGE STATION, Dec. 23 (AP)—Director Jo'n Hutchings of the Agricultural Extension Service said today district farm agents report highly varied conditions across the state.

Conditions range from excellent, for most ranges except those hit back by heavy frost, to crops in the mud.

The year began as the best in a decade in most areas with apparent recovery from the drought and farmers banking heavily on bumper harvests. Early summer produced hot and dry weeks. Crops which survived this reversal promised to save the situation. Then came the rains.

The harvest was delayed two months in some areas. Nowhere was it as good as had been expected. In some areas crops rotted in the mud.

Agriculture in Texas is looking forward to one of the best situations in years with plenty of moisture. Livestock is in generally good condition, although some ranchers are feeding and low temperatures slowed growth of small grain and pastures.

"With a week to 10 days of good weather, South Plains farmers should be able to finish their cotton and grain sorghum harvest," W. H. Jones said at Lubbock. "Grain sorghum is 85 to 95 per cent harvested, even though much of it is stored on the ground around elevators, and the cotton harvest is in full swing."

In the Panhandle, the sorghum, sugar beet and vegetable harvests are about complete and the cotton harvest is progressing swiftly in open weather. Cattle and wheat are in good condition.

Far West Texas irrigated cotton is about 80 per cent harvested and labor is adequate. Small grain is making excellent growth and livestock is in probably the best condition in 8 or 10 years.

movies. Many are in color and widescreen.
Here Arkin Productions, Moscow movie producers, present a varying bill of classics, space cartoons, propaganda and adventure films. Love stories are few. The famed Bolshoi Theater ballet scored a success this fall with three performances before good crowds.

The ballet brought only seven dancers, supplementing the troupe with local performers.
With the ballet company came Aram Khatchaturian, the composer, and his wife Nina Makarova, also well known in Russian music circles as a composer. He conducted an Argentine orchestra in the Luna Park indoor fight auditorium, admission price around 12 cents, American. She lectured.

Another of the year's top musical attractions was the violinist Igor Oistrakh, who gave concerts and lectured throughout Argentina.
In other cultural endeavors, the Russians:
Send chess masters to tour Argentina, which ranks in the top half-dozen nations in the game.
Subsidize local book publishers to turn out inexpensive editions of writers like Karl Marx, and stand ready to back any books with anti-American themes.

Offer all-expenses-paid trips to Russia to promising artists, engineers and scientists.
In the provinces the Russians maintain a dozen cultural centers where movies, lectures and concerts are given frequently.
For its work here the Russian Embassy keeps two full-time cultural attaches (the United States has one), a press officer and workers said by some to number close to 200.

Yost Due To Be Envoy To Syria

DAMASCUS, Syria (AP)—Charles W. Yost, 50-year-old career diplomat and former ambassador to Laos, reportedly will be the new U.S. ambassador to Syria.

Reliable sources said the Syrian government had approved Yost's nomination. Diplomatic sources in Washington reported last week that President Eisenhower had chosen an envoy, whose identity was not revealed then, and the Syrians had accepted him.

The new ambassador will succeed James R. Moore Jr. Moore was in the United States last August when Syria expelled three U.S. Embassy officials on charges of plotting against the Pro-Soviet government. The U.S. government kept him at home in protest against the charges and expelled the Syrian ambassador, Dr. Farid Zeineddine, in retaliation. During the U.N. Assembly, the Syrian and American governments agreed to resume full relations.

Neither Lions Club To Meet This Week
Neither of Big Spring's Lions Clubs will meet this week. J. O. Hagood, president of the Evening Lions, said that the session normally set for this evening would be postponed until next Monday. The Downtown Club will not meet this Wednesday because that falls on Christmas Day. However, it will advance its meeting one day next week and meet on Dec. 31, said Carl Smith, president.

Speeding, Theft
DENVER (AP)—Police arrested an airman for speeding yesterday and said later he admitted theft of more than $10,000 in jewel store burglaries. Officers said they found the loot in an apartment rented here by Danny Sheurick, 17, stationed at Lowry Air Force Base.

Couple To Get Baby Back As Their Christmas Gift

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP)—Each minute seemed an hour today to a young Army private and his wife waiting to receive the best Christmas present in all the world—their own baby boy.

Pvt. Douglas A. Heywood, 26, and his wife, Vickie, haven't seen 9-month-old Doug Jr. in nearly eight weeks and didn't expect him at this time.
But the Augusta (Ga.) Chronicle, the San Diego (Calif.) Union, American Air Lines and Delta Air Lines joined to make little Doug's first Christmas a happy one.

Doug Jr. was left in a children's boarding home in San Diego when Heywood was drafted and sent to Ft. Gordon near Augusta. The baby was born prematurely and the parents wanted to be sure a place was prepared for him before they brought him east. Once here, the couple found they couldn't meet the child's board bill. Doug became a ward of the Juvenile Court in San Diego and was placed in Hillcrest Receiving Home there.

Reporter Pat Kelly of the Chronicle learned of the situation and the paper went into action. Juvenile Court authorities in both San Diego and Augusta were consulted and their approval obtained. Air line officials agreed to bring Doug Jr. East as a guest.

Arrangements were made for Mary Stanley of American Air Lines to take the little boy part of the way and then transfer him to the care of Harriet Videtto, a Delta stewardess from Augusta.

Last night the young mother held a long distance telephone conversation with Miss Stanley. "Take good care of him," Mrs. Heywood pleaded. "He's so little!"

"He's not so little any more!" Miss Stanley exclaimed. "Just wait until you see him."
That's just what the Heywoods are doing.

C-Club Party Has Unique Decorations

"Champagne" flowing into a golden slipper caught the eyes of guests at the cocktail party given Saturday evening by the Ladies Golf Association of Big Spring Country Club. Invitations had been issued to all members of the club. The slipper, placed on the hors d'oeuvre table, was gilded, as was the champagne bottle, which was tilted over it. A red carnation in the slipper was an accent against the background of red carnations on a green felt cloth. Guests were received by three of the incoming officers of the association, Mrs. Frank Sabato, Mrs. Ova Mae Edwards and Mrs. Leroy Tidwell. About 150 were gathered for the party; Mrs. Alex Turner, outgoing president, and Mrs. Harold Talbot, outgoing secretary, presided at the table.

Also here is Mrs. Park's mother, Mrs. J. J. Watkins, San Angelo. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Phillee and children have been in Abilene for several days. Lt. Arlen White, who is assigned with the Marines in Quantico, Va., is home on furlough until Jan. 6, with his mother, Mrs. W. J. White, and George. He has completed nine weeks of training. This week he visited in Brownwood for two days. Pt. Jesse L. Overton from Colorado Springs, Colo., will spend Christmas here with his wife and parents.

Stanton Residents Have Yule Parties, Guests

STANTON—The Stanton Rebekah Lodge held their annual Christmas party recently at the IOOF Hall. Gifts were exchanged from a lighted tree. Christmas balls, and silvered gourds, yucca pods, and pine cones surrounded by pink candles were the centerpiece. An angel on a pink cloud was placed on the vice grand's station. Walter Graves acted as Santa Claus for the party. Mrs. Roy Linney and Mrs. Charlie Christopher and charge of the decorations. Refreshments were served to approximately 40.

Mrs. W. C. Wright was hostess Monday night for the Baptist Friendship Sunday School Class. Mrs. Dortha Hayes was cohostess. Each member brought a pair of homemade house shoes to be given to patients at the state hospital in Big Spring. Instead of the customary exchange of gifts, each donated a dollar to be given as a mission offering from the church. A salad plate was served to 15.

Henry Bridges and George of Denver City visited Tuesday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Bridges.

Vows Taken By Couple In Lamesa

LAMESA—Marilyn Kay Thompson became the bride of Billy Wayne Meares in a ceremony read Saturday evening in the Second Baptist Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Thompson; he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Meares, all of Lamesa.

The Rev. A. E. Hughes read the double ring ceremony as the couple stood before an archway entwined with white satin and flanked by baskets of white gladioli and tapers in branched candelabra.

Ann Montgomery, pianist, accompanied the soloist, Mrs. Mabel Flippin as she sang, "Because." Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a waltz length dress of embroidered tulle over bridal satin, which featured long sleeves ending in points over the hands. A Peter Pan collar and a yoke of illusion were embroidered with clusters of seed pearls. The shirred skirt was attached to a softly fitted bodice. From a crown of seed pearls floated a fingertip veil of illusion. The bride carried a cascade of American beauty roses.

Mrs. Don Thompson of Midland, sister-in-law of the bride, was the matron of honor. The other attendants were Sharon Schoonover and Connie Jackson. They wore identical dresses of red taffeta and carried bouquets of white carnations.

Bud Hale of Lubbock served as best man. Ushers were Wayland Holladay and Norman Brown.

The wedding reception was held at the home of the bride's parents with decorations following the red and white theme.

Mrs. Thompson designed and made the bride's traveling suit of powder blue wool. She wore a blue feather hat and black accessories. Following their wedding trip to Ruidoso, N. M., the couple will be at home at 404-A N. Ave. F.

Mrs. Meares is a senior in Lamesa High School, and her husband is a graduate of Lamesa High School. He is engaged in farming in the Hancock Community.

Sunday Afternoon Wedding Rites Unite Miss Grifford, R. Alexander

A double ring ceremony was read Sunday afternoon for Arlinda Grifford and Robert J. Alexander Jr. in the Wesley Methodist Church. Doyle Maynard, minister of the Northside Church of Christ, officiated for the exchange of vows.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Jones, Western Hills Addition, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Alexander of Vincent.

The wedding party stood before a background of candelabra entwined with fern, and a sunburst arrangement of white flowers and greenery.

Jamie Kirby, pianist, played selections of wedding music and accompanied Pat Rogers as she sang "How Do I Love Thee?"

Given in marriage by her stepfather, the bride was gowned in white satin and lace. Long sleeves of lace stemmed from a lace yoke which topped a satin bodice. The full skirt was softly pleated with a panel of lace extending the length of the skirt in front.

A cap of the lace held a waist length veil, and the bride carried camellias with a shower of lily of the valley on a white Bible.

Mrs. Robert Rogers attended as matron of honor attired in an off-white frock of faille. A full skirt joined a fitted bodice fashioned with a scooped neckline and she

Zack Grays Host Family Gathering
Mr. and Mrs. Zack Gray were hosts for a family get-together at their home Saturday with a gift exchange and chatting as highlights of the evening. Refreshments were served from a table laid in lace over a red cloth and holding an arrangement of red roses with silver foliage. Pale pink candles completed the centerpiece. Attending from out of town were her mother, Mrs. Lillie Graham, R. C. Huddleston and Mr. and Mrs. George Dunn, all of San Angelo; Mrs. Boyce Howerton and Betty Morrison, both of Amarillo.

Silver And Blue Is Setting For Banquet
In a setting of silver and blue, the Intermediate GA's and their guests attended a Christmas banquet Friday evening at East Fourth Baptist Church. Silver stars glittered from the ceiling, and blue candles were spotted along the tables. Angel hair softened the lights, and a Christmas tree was hung with silver and blue ornaments. Linda Lewis, president, acted as toastmistress. Glenda Mahoney sang "White Christmas" and a trio composed of Janet Kendrick, Lynda Sneed and Patsy Coe harmonized for "Beautiful Savior." Following a skit staged by the GA's, the Rev. Ernest Stewart gave a Christmas message. Members of the WMU prepared and served the dinner to 37. Among the guests were the GA leaders, Mrs. Bill Hanson and Mrs. Rafor Dunagan.

May Take Stand To Avoid Execution

LOS ANGELES (AP) — L. Ewing Scott, who remained silent during the long trial that led to his conviction of murder in the mysterious disappearance of his wife, may take the stand today in an effort to save himself from the gas chamber.

Found guilty of first-degree murder although his wife's body has never been found, Scott will have what may be a final chance to tell his story when the jury convenes to hear further testimony on which it will base his penalty.

Under a new California law, the jury that convicted Scott Saturday must now decide in separate proceedings whether he is to be sentenced to death or life imprisonment.

Whatever the decision, defense attorney P. Basil Lambros said, he plans to take the case to a higher court.

Scott, a 61-year-old former stockbroker, showed no emotion when the guilty verdict was announced.

Lambros said he thought Scott's failure to testify during the 11-week trial may have had a "lot to do with the jury's verdict" which came as an obvious shock to defense counsel, no matter how calmly Scott took it.

"We just didn't feel the prosecution had proved any case against him," said Lambros, explaining why Scott had been kept off the stand. "We didn't want to let him get up there and get boxed in on something else, like income taxes."

One bit of testimony the defense said it intends to present concerns another report that Mrs. Scott, who disappeared May 16, 1955, has been seen recently. Lambros did not elaborate on the report.

Scott has based his defense all along on his contention that his wealthy socialite wife left him voluntarily and is, as far as he knows still alive.

Negro Girl Is Airline Hostess

NEW YORK (AP) — Ruth Taylor, 25-year-old registered nurse, has become the nation's first Negro airline stewardess.

Charles Abrams, chairman of the State Commission Against Discrimination, said Miss Taylor was hired by Mohawk Airlines, which operates only in Northern states. She will report for work Jan. 13.

A native of Boston, Miss Taylor was graduated from Trumansburg (N.Y.) Central High School and Bellevue School of Nursing here.

She had filed a complaint with the SCAD after applying to Trans World Airlines for a job as stewardess and being told she could not be hired because of "intangible factors that have to be considered."

Jail Matron Foils Escape Attempt Of 5 Prisoners

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — A spirited little matron spread an alarm as five jail prisoners charged toward her last night and foiled their escape try.

Mrs. Agnes Mabes, 51, said one prisoner struck her and knocked her to the floor as she still had the alarm phone in her hand.

She went to the aid of a deputy and a visitor to the jail, both of whom had been knocked unconscious. A prisoner promptly knocked her to the floor again.

Smoothing her slightly soiled matron's uniform, Mrs. Mabes said: "I wasn't scared too much. I thought about giving the alarm first."

She did and 100 officers were on the scene within minutes. The prisoners, led by convicted bank robber George Jernigan, 26, never had a chance to leave the courthouse in which the Oklahoma County jail is located.

Four men were flushed from their hiding places in offices and a fifth man captured as he jumped from a second floor window. He landed within a few feet of waiting police officers.

Sheriff Bob Turner identified the others as Burl Stotts, Luther Bringingood, David Leclair and Bob Lewis, all of Oklahoma City.

Many Youths Hurt In Hayride Mishap

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — A Saturday night hayride wound up as a grisly nightmare for a group of teen-agers after an old model car rammed into the rear of the straw-filled trailer carrying the youngsters.

A passenger in the car, Joe Martinez, 23, Seguin, Tex., was killed. Seven of 27 injured remained hospitalized today, including the driver of the car, Frank Arenas, 22, San Antonio.

The trailer was knocked into a water-filled ditch. Some of the youngsters were found wandering about the area more than an hour after the accident.

The injured included the party's chaperone, retired Sgt. Paul Reed. His foot was amputated. At least one of the teen-agers lost a limb.

The youngsters were members of the Ft. Sam Houston Teen-age Club. Most were dependents of military personnel.

Ingrid To Rome To See Children

LONDON (AP) — Actress Ingrid Bergman, her suitcases jammed with toys, flew to Rome today to spend Christmas with her children and her estranged husband Roberto Rossellini.

Miss Bergman is making a picture in England. She and Rossellini, Italian film producer and director, were legally separated last month but agreed to spend Christmas together for the sake of their son and twin daughters.

Pope Calls For End To Armament Race

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Pope Pius XII called on mankind yesterday to halt the arms race lest it lead to disaster and endanger the fate of "the earth itself." He implied that he endorses the West's proposals for controlled disarmament.

In his 19th annual Christmas message to the world, the 81-year-old pontiff counseled Christians not to fear Russia's current triumphs in the Sputnik field.

The leader of the Roman Catholic Church declared, were "often of very short duration."

The pontiff's speech, beamed to a host of nations by the Vatican's powerful new radio transmitter, was believed to be the most widely broadcast message in history.

As he did last Christmas, the Pope affirmed man's right for self defense, but he called on the governments of the world not to be misled by pride in a race for arms supremacy.

The cost of an arms race is ruinous, he warned.

"Such quantities of material, such sums of money derived from savings and the result of restrictions and toll," he said, "must be expended on human labor taken away from urgent need, are consumed to prepare these new arms."

"Even the wealthiest nations," he cautioned, "must foresee the times in which they will regret the dangerously weakened harmony of the national economy, or are in fact already regretting it, though endeavoring to conceal the fact."

Without calling them by name, the Pope endorsed the North Atlantic

Chennault Has Lung Cancer

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—Retired Maj. Gen. Claire L. Chennault, leader of the World War II Flying Tigers, disclosed today that he is suffering from cancer of the lung.

The 67-year-old U.S. military aviation pioneer told a press conference a tumor was removed from his left lung in August 1956. But he said the malignancy returned and no further operation was possible.

He looked tired and haggard. His voice was almost a whisper, but he blurted out on a cold.

He now is chairman of the Board of Directors of Civil Air Transport, the Far Eastern airline he founded in Shanghai 11 years ago. He arrived in Formosa 10 days ago on CAT business, accompanied by his 34-year-old Chinese-born second wife.

Chennault said he plans to return to the United States Jan. 10.

Teen-Agers Score Success With First Rocket Firing

OGDEN, Utah (AP)—A trio of secretive teen-agers has an announcement for the world. Their weekend firing of a rocket was "successful."

No motion picture news cameras ground, no government officials observed, no bulletins on countdown proceedings were issued.

Johnny Stoddard, Steve Mercer and Bruce Herrick, 17-year-old science students at Weber High School, hid behind sandbags, hooked wires to a battery, pushed a button and watched as their "success" sped upward trailing smoke.

The two-inch heavy steel rocket, 69 inches long, roared through the clouds over northern Utah. It hurtled back to earth—as planned site. It was recovered "very badly mangled."

The boys, using trigonometry, calculated their rocket had gone up 3,600 feet at a speed of 338 m.p.h. It took 15 pounds of solid chemical fuel to do the job and the material burned about a second.

Then the youths forgot security momentarily to "leak" word of their accomplishment to the press. Absolute secrecy was necessary they said, lest other "unexpe-

Union Prober Said Victim Of Accident

ST. CLAIR SHORES, Mich. (AP)—Ralph Winstead, missing chief investigator of the United Auto Workers whose body was pulled from Lake St. Clair yesterday, died of accidental drowning, a coroner's report said last night.

Winstead, 64, was to be a key witness in a 4½-million-dollar suit now under way against the union, Detroit police and state police. He vanished from his home near the lake Dec. 15 to "for a walk on the ice" and never returned. The following day he was scheduled to testify in the case.

Dr. Richard Olson, a Pontiac, Mich., pathologist who performed the autopsy with Macomb County Coroner Raymond C. Markle, said there were no signs indicating death other than by drowning.

State police said they have no orders to investigate further.

Some UAW officials have voiced suspicions of foul play.

Winstead was one of the defendants in a malicious prosecution suit brought against the UAW and others by Carl Renda, one of four men arrested in 1954 in connection with the 1948 shotgun wounding of Walter P. Reuther, UAW president.

Winstead was scheduled to testify in the trial last Monday and was described by his attorney Walter M. Nelson as "one of the most important witnesses in the case."

Winstead's wife Zena said on the day he disappeared he had been to the UAW's Solidarity House to look at some records. She said he left again shortly after he returned, saying he was going for a walk.

He was last seen near the ice over a canal in the vicinity of his home.

Spellman Speeds On GI Journey

TOKYO (AP)—Francis Cardinal Spellman, Roman Catholic archbishop of New York, moved at top speed through a full schedule today on his annual Christmas visit to GIs around the world.

Chennault said he plans to return to the United States Jan. 10.

The cardinal, who arrived yesterday aboard a crippled airliner, called on U.S. Ambassador Douglas MacArthur II and Lt. Gen. Charles D. Palmer, commanding general of the U.S. Army in Japan.

Girl Recovering From Amputation

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Quiet little Rosella Auxier, 15, who lost both feet through amputation last week, continued to make satisfactory progress today at Children's Hospital.

The dark-haired youngster, whose legs were frozen from the knees down, lost her right foot Saturday, four days after doctors removed the left foot.

Her exhausted mother, Mrs. Sarah Auxier, has been at her bedside almost constantly since the girl was rushed here after being found unconscious Dec. 13 in an abandoned store at Prestonburg, Ky. Rosella says all she can remember is leaving her grandmother's home to take a walk five days before she was found.
