Neatness Award

Roy Hester, left, and City Manager H. W. Whitney, admire a loving cup presented to the city for having the most attractive water filtration plant in the state during 1957. Hester, water production superintendent, accepted the award last week at a short course at College Station. The cup is a floating award. Winner the previous year was Rosenberg.

CLEBURNE NURSE

Heirs To Answer Probation Of Will

CLEBURNE — Lawyers for the heirs of a bachelor who left a fortune to an attractive nurse were expected by County Clerk Louis Lee to file a reply today to an application to probate the will. Lee said Gordon Welborn of Henderson, indicated the action will be taken. He represents the sister and four nieces of J. E. Sexton, 80, who left an estate estimated at 7 million dollars to Mrs. Agnes Kirk, 40.

State law requires that any objections to probating the will must be filed by midnight next Monday. Gean Turney, who was named administrator of the estate and left $10,000 predicted that lawyers for the heirs would seek to have the will case transferred from Johnson County to Henderson or to Jacksonville.

Myers To Retire

SAN ANTONIO — Lt. Gen. Charles Myers, Air Training Command chief, will retire from the Air Force this summer. He said yesterday he will be succeeded by Lt. Gen. Frederic Smith Jr., commander of the 5th Air Force in Japan.

Legion To Mark 40th Anniversary

Howard County veterans will celebrate the 40th anniversary of the founding of the American Legion Saturday night at the Legion Hut on the San Angelo highway. The local post is to host to all veterans of World War I, whether members of the post or not. Arrangements for a barbecue supper from 6 to 7:30 p.m. have been completed by the committee headed by Jack Pearson and Henry Stewart.

Invitations to many of the WWI vets have been mailed and others whose names are not on the records are urged to join in the reunion celebration being held in conjunction with the Legion birthday. For Dunlap, membership chairman, told the group that records were incomplete and that additional members could possibly be eligible for the 35 and 40-year cards. His committee is working on this, he said. Present membership rose to 254 at the Thursday night meeting with the re-instatement of a former member, J. T. Grantham. Robert Mason was a visitor. Gregory appointed Joe Benfield, Sgt. L. D. Martin and the dismissal of Capt. Emmitt Creeluis and Patrolman Howard Miller as being "for the good of the department."

AFL-CIO Claims Unemployment Not Improved

WASHINGTON — The AFL-CIO said today available data indicates that unemployment in mid-March is at least as high as in February, instead of showing the usual seasonal improvement. The estimate was made in a memorandum sent by AFL-CIO President George Meany to President Eisenhower to support labor's contention the economy is still declining. Meany's accompanying letter to Eisenhower saying every current economic indicator demonstrates that the recession has not hit the bottom and thus here is every need for immediate action. The memo supplied statistics to indicate that both business and employment have been deteriorating. The prediction that unemployment now is the same as or higher than the 5,173,000 total counted in mid-February was based on an analysis on Unemployment Compensation benefits in the past few weeks of March and unemployment just at the February level. The memo said industrial production, orders placed with manufacturers, business investment, retail sales, work hours and other statistics announced in the past few days or due for announcement soon all show declines.

PRODUCTION DROPS

Meany's accompanying letter also noted that auto production has dropped from mid-February to mid-March by a rate of 100,000 units a week to 83,000. Steel production dropped in the same period from 5 1/2 per cent to 5 1/2 per cent, he added. "In other words," Meany said, "things are not growing better. They are in fact growing worse." Bolstering this view were two new government reports showing that both business and consumers plan to reduce their 1958 spending. One estimated business investment will be 13 per cent lower this year than last. The other said consumers plan reduced outlays for homes, cars, appliances and furniture. A bit of encouragement came from still another report that department store sales, as figured by the Federal Reserve Board, rose over the country last week 7 per cent above the corresponding week last year. But department store dollar volume so far this year is down 2 per cent from last year.

U.S. Bank Lowers Its Discount Rate

DALLAS — The Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas lowered its discount rate today from 2 1/2 per cent to 2 1/4 per cent. The discount rate is the interest the Reserve bank charges commercial banks on loans. The Dallas bank action follows similar moves taken by other Federal Reserve banks to lower the discount rate in a general easing of money. The discount rate had risen to 3 1/4 per cent last year — highest in two decades — as the Federal Reserve Board sought to fight inflation by tightening money. Late last year, the Federal Reserve began reducing the discount rate as it became apparent easier money was desirable to stimulate business.

Petitions In Mill In Police Dept. Row At Lamesa

LAMESA — Following the dismissal of two veteran police officers and the indefinite suspension of another from the Lamesa Police Department earlier this week, at least one more petition as many as six, petitions are now being circulated by Lamesans asking that the city council dismiss Police Chief Leo Box. One petition was known to have 45 signatures Friday morning. The petitions are to be presented, their sponsors said, to the city council ahead of the next meeting of the council scheduled for March 20. Box termed the suspension of Sgt. L. D. Martin and the dismissal of Capt. Emmitt Creeluis and Patrolman Howard Miller as being "for the good of the department." He charged the men were disloyal.

Preliminary Talks On Clean-Up Slated

Three preliminary committee meetings are being planned by the Chamber of Commerce in preparation for the spring clean-up campaign. After clean-up, beautification and health and sanitation panels hold their sessions, representatives will seek a conference with city officials to map plans for last spring clean-up effort. Success of the drive will depend largely on the city, since it provides vehicles and workers to remove accumulations of debris. A preliminary meeting of the three committee chairmen was held Thursday.

DUBLIN MAYOR PUTS FAMILY FOOT IN MOUTH

NEW YORK — It was snowing, but Lord Mayor James Carroll of Dublin was in hot water with his three daughters as he arrived here today for a St. Patrick's Day visit. The daughters vigorously disputed his laughing remark that they were looking for millionaire husbands. The girls intend to stay on in the United States, but they said they were looking for jobs, not husbands, millionaires or otherwise. "I think it's stupid," Dorothy, 23 and red-haired, told a reporter who asked her about her marriage plans. "We are here to see the country, not the men." Lillian, 26, and Colette, 18, chimed in that they were here simply for the experience of living in the United States. Their mother said that was correct. It all began when, before leaving Shannon, Carroll said the girls "hope to get jobs somewhere and possibly millionaire husbands."

Klansman Gets 2-Year Term For Indian Riot

LUMBERTON, N. C. — Ku Klux Klan Grand Wizard James W. Cole was sentenced today to 24 months in prison for inciting an Indian riot. Cole, dapper in a dark blue suit and pearl-studded in his black tie, but stubble-bearded from a night in jail, stood rigid as he heard the sentence. Former klansman James Garland Martin of Reidsville, N. C., convicted with the 33-year-old Marion, S. C. preacher, drew a 6-12 month sentence. Judge Clawson L. Williams had kept the klansmen fidgeting in the prisoners' dock throughout the morning, awaiting his judgment. A jury, out 43 minutes, had convicted the pair on first ballot. The charges stemmed from the Indian riot on a Klan rally near Maxtun last July. Several hundred Lumberton Indians, fired by Klan cross-burnings near Indian residences five days before the rally, shot to 30 armed Klansmen scurrying for safety. Both sides' case hinged on testimony by Ithabone County Sheriff Malcolm McLeod. He testified he learned of intense Indian resentment of the Klan and drove to Cole's home and warned him not to hold the rally. The fact that the grand wizard did hold the rally, despite the warning, was the heart of the state's case. The defense, which presented no witnesses, pounded on the Bill of Rights' guarantees of peaceful assembly and the right to bear arms, and the fact that the Klan had a lease to rally in the field near Maxton.

Tech Students Fire Rocket

LUBBOCK — Texas Tech students fired a rocket more than a mile into the air, the college said today. A team of 15 students has built seven rockets so far and fired them under carefully planned safety conditions. Donald Myrick of Lubbock, spokesman for the group, said one rocket was fired to 5,500 feet. Another went to 4,066 feet. The first three barely got off the ground.

Stores Sales Up

DALLAS — Texas department store sales rose 2 per cent in the week ending March 8 over 1957, reversing a trend of several weeks, the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas said today. The decline for 4 weeks ending March 8 was 8 per cent and 5 per cent for the year.

Senate Panel May Approve More Money For Road Work

WASHINGTON — The Senate Public Works Committee is expected to approve today a highway construction speedup bill to add 1 billion dollars to the money available this year. Sen. Gore (D-Tenn.), chairman of the Public Roads subcommittee which completed work on the bill last night, said it would have two main effects: 1. Provide thousands of jobs over the nation to counter the recession. 2. Put the 41,000-mile superhighway network — the interstate system — back on the 13-year schedule originally planned for it. Gore predicted the Senate will pass the bill next week. He noted that it had strong bipartisan approval in his subcommittee. The highway measure is a major item in an anti-recession package on which Senate Democratic leaders are driving for quick action. The bill would make available these U.S. funds over what is currently planned for the already large federal aid roadbuilding program: 200 million dollars for the interstate system in fiscal 1959 starting July 1, added to two billion already apportioned last year for that period. The extra 200 million could be allotted immediately on enactment of the bill. 900 million for the interstate in fiscal 1960 in addition to $1,600,000,000 available under present law. The entire amount would be apportioned in July this year instead of December as now scheduled. 400 million for the primary, secondary and urban road systems, known as ABC roads. This would be in addition to 875 million dollars of federal money apportioned last year for fiscal 1959 for these systems. The states are required normally to match ABC funds 50-50, and to pay only 10 per cent of the cost of the interstate. However, the bill would provide that the special 400 million ABC allotment this year would be on a 70-30 matching basis so that the states would have to put up only 171 million, and could borrow two-thirds of that amount. Gore said he believed the money for the primary, secondary and urban systems could provide many jobs in a matter of weeks because these projects are easier to get started than the more complex superhighways.

Receivership For Estate Life Asked Insurance Chief To Issue Order

AUSTIN — State Insurance Commissioner William Harrison said today he would recommend that Estate Life Insurance Co. of Amarillo be put into receivership. Harrison said he would issue the order this afternoon. "Estate Life has failed to raise additional capital and leaves us no alternative," Harrison said. "I would recommend they be put into receivership. The order telling the Amarillo company to show cause why they should not be put into receivership had said the company was $1,215,290 in the red. At the same time, Harrison said the state Board of Insurance upheld his order that he legally could not recommend to the courts that it cancel a 1 1/2 million-dollar reinsurance agreement between defunct Physicians Life and Accident Insurance Co. and Estate Life. Estate Life attorney E.A. Simpson and Fred Phillips of Dumas, wealthy building and housing developer and a director, got a delay Tuesday from Harrison. He granted them more time in their efforts to raise cash for the company. Simpson has said the company would appeal to the courts. Estate Life stockholders tried to improve their financial status earlier this week. They authorized a reduction in the company's capital stock from $500,000 to $100,000, thereby decreasing capital impairment. Throughout hearings, the company claimed its contract with Physicians Life was "colossal fraud," and if cancelled the company would be operative. It called the reinsurance agreement "bad insurance." Stockholders also authorized directors to reduce the number of shares from three million to "such a number as will most effectively promote a better and sounder financial basis for the company." Directors were authorized to call in all outstanding shares after the smaller amount was determined to reissue shares to stockholders on a proportionate basis. Harrison had said the company could be solvent if they had been able to raise more cash.

FCC Prober Says Surface 'Not Scratched'

WASHINGTON — A member of a House investigating committee said today he thinks it has not yet scratched the surface of attempted influence on the Federal Communications Commission by contestants for Miami's TV Channel 10. Rep. Bennett (R-Mich) delivered this opinion during questioning of A. Frank Katzenzine, a loser in the contest for the TV license valued at more than a million dollars. Bennett said he thought that Katzenzine exercised very improper influences on the commission. Spiritually, Katzenzine denied he had done anything improper. "We conducted ourselves in an honorable, ethical manner," he said. There has been testimony of numerous contacts with congressmen and others on behalf of Katzenzine. Bennett said Katzenzine had been helpful in bringing out what had been done by National Airlines. Because of allegations in the House hearings of pressures, the FCC moved to reconsider its February 1957 award of the channel to Public Service Television Inc., a subsidiary of National Airlines. The hearings have led also to the resignation under fire of Commissioner Richard A. Mack although Mack protested he had done nothing wrong. Mack was a member of the majority in the 4-2 FCC vote to give the channel to Public Service. This overturned an examiner's recommendation for its award to Katzenzine's radio station WKAT. Also voting for Public Service was then FCC Chairman George C. McConaughy.

MOTORIST JUST CAN'T BE TOO CAUTIOUS ABOUT AUTO

Weldon McCormick, who lives 10 miles on the Gail Highway, did everything and more that could be expected of him. And even that was not enough. McCormick was en route home last night in his 1955 Chevrolet. About a mile from home, his car ran out of gasoline. He pulled to the side of the road. He took off all four of his hub caps and locked them inside the car. Then he went on home. That was about 10 p.m. At 7 a.m., he was back at his car. The hub caps were safe — locked inside the car just as he had left them. The only trouble was — thieves had taken the head off his motor and carried away the carburetor. He asked Miller Harris, sheriff, to help him find the missing parts.

Mrs. Edith Helm, 23, of Chandler, Okla., first woman to bear a child after receiving a healthy kidney from her identical twin in a transplant operation, looks at her six-pound 13 1/2-ounce son with her husband, Lee, at Boston Lying-in Hospital. Mrs. Helm was given a healthy kidney by her twin sister, Mrs. Wanda Foster, in May of 1956. Since then both of her diseased kidneys have been removed. Holding the baby is Janice Stevenson of Exeter, N. H., student nurse.

Probers Take Look At Trust Records

AUSTIN — The Senate Investigating Committee returned today to incomplete and missing records covering hundreds of cars sold after the collapse of U.S. Trust & Guaranty Co. Committee members closely questioned L. C. McGinnis of Austin, formerly in charge of auto sales for the state insurance liquidator, about cars that were reported wrecked but turned up later in Colorado and California. "I just don't know if it's not in the records," McGinnis testified. He was on the stand most of yesterday afternoon and returned today. The committee began the hearing yesterday into charges that the state liquidation division has spent too much money in salvaging assets of bankrupt insurance companies. All testimony has been devoted to the sales of cars owned by U.S. Automotive Service, a U.S. Trust & Guaranty subsidiary. Committee counsel Gene Fondren said the state liquidators records could not fully account for the sale of 84 cars. Under questioning, McGinnis said he remembered two wrecked cars that were sold to a dealer in Lubbock. "There is no record whatever that these cars were ever owned or sold by U.S. Automotive Service," Fondren said, adding that one later appeared in California and another in Colorado. In testimony yesterday he mentioned several cars that disappeared from the U.S. Automotive Service inventory and reappeared in California. "Did you know anything about this time (1956) of cars being bought in Texas and then being taken into Mexico?" Sen. Culp Kruger of El Campo asked. "No, sir. I knew nothing about such a thing," McGinnis said. "In my opinion since about 1950 it has been unprofitable to sell in Mexico."

Absentee Voting To Open Monday In HCJC Election

Absentee voting for trustees of Howard County Junior College will begin Monday, it was announced Friday. All such voting will be at the office of the county clerk and will continue from Monday through April 1. On the ballot, with two places to be filled, are the names of Dr. P. W. Malone and John Askew Coffee, incumbents, and Dewey Martin.

Rabbit Drive Set Saturday

STANTON — Weather permitting, everything is all set for the mammoth rabbit drive booked for Saturday and Sunday on ranches in this area. The drive opens at 8:30 a.m. Saturday. Hunters are to gather at the Bernard Houston ranch at that hour. Markers are to be placed on the road from Lomax so that hunters will have no difficulty in reaching the point where the drive is to start. The hunt will spread over the Bernard Houston ranch, the Grady Cross, Tom Brothers, and the Tom and Chuck Houston ranches. A big barbecue dinner will be served at noon by the Odessa Chuck Wagon Gang and the hunt will resume in the afternoon. On Sunday afternoon, the hunters are invited to assemble again to continue the attack. Rabbits are reported to be fat and abundant and good shooting is anticipated if the weather is good.

Ex-Webb Officer In 'Space Capsule'

A former Webb AFB officer, Capt. Dan D. Fulgham, is among those in the "space capsule" for an extended test a Wright Patterson AFB. Capt. Fulgham was physiological training officer at Webb AFB, leaving here about 18 months ago to become Crew TAF coordinator for physiological training. From San Antonio he went to Wright Patterson. While here Capt. Fulgham was active in several affairs, among them the Toastmasters Club.

Blonde Beauty Slain Because Of Love Pact

BEAVER, Pa. (AP)—A balding 25-year-old mill worker says he pumped six bullets into his beauty queen friend because they had a secret pact that "one of us was going to die" if their romance broke up.

Theodore Pallow, of nearby Midland, Pa., made that statement yesterday after he walked into this western Pennsylvania community and said: "I just killed a girl in Vauport."

Police went to the scene and found the body of 21-year-old Rosalie Leis at the foot of a tree not far from her home.

The comely blonde won several local beauty contests and in 1955 was runner-up to Miss Pennsylvania in the Miss Universe contest. More recently she had worked as a clerk in a nearby plant.

Pallow, estranged from his wife and 7-month-old child, faces a preliminary hearing today on a murder charge.

Pallow said his illicit romance "broke up my home" but said, "I loved Rosalie very much."

Pallow indicated his relationship with Miss Leis was breaking up. He said he went to Miss Leis home early in the morning.

The couple walked down a lonely lane. Pallow said he shot her once.

He said she fell to her knees and begged: "Kill me quick." Then he fired five more bullets from the .22 revolver.

Slain Beauty

Rosalie Leis, 21, a blonde beauty contest entrant, was shot to death in Beaver, Pa., while walking with a married man who later said he had been keeping company with her. She was found in a wooded area not far from her home. This picture was taken in 1955 when she was a runner-up in the Miss Pennsylvania contest of the Miss Universe competition.

Sen. Douglas Continues His Fight For Slash In Excise Tax

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Douglas (D-Ill) battled today for an excise tax cut despite overwhelming Senate rejection of his proposal for a slash in both personal income and excise levies.

By a 71-14 vote, the Senate last night defeated Douglas' proposal for tax cuts totaling about $5,200,000,000. He contended the cuts were needed to fight the recession and provide more spending money.

Several opponents attacked the Douglas proposal as inflationary. They also objected to the short-cut method he was using in seeking the reduction. Douglas offered his plan as an amendment to a House-passed bill dealing with taxes on certain income of insurance companies. The Constitution requires that tax legislation originate in the House, where it normally is processed in committee before reaching the floor.

However, in advance of today's session, Douglas said he planned to offer an amendment to cut excise taxes alone. He told newsmen he felt there was "still a chance" the Senate would accept such an amendment.

Under the proposal turned down a variety of excise, or sales, taxes would be reduced about $2,200,000,000. This would include cutting in half both the 10 per cent excise on autos and the 3 per cent tax on freight transportation.

Douglas, who contends a tax cut is the quickest way to pump consumer dollars into the sagging economy, said his new amendment would call for the same excise reductions contained in the rejected proposal, except that he might revise it to eliminate the freight transportation tax entirely.

There were indications that other senators might make another try at getting a cut in personal income taxes, perhaps by raising the present $600 individual exemption.

The fate of Douglas' new proposal on excise taxes may have been foreshadowed when the Senate last night rejected by voice vote an amendment by Sen. Anderson (D-NM) to halve the 10 per cent manufacturer's tax on autos and trucks.

Sen. Byrd (D-Va.), a foe of any tax cuts at this time, estimated the Anderson proposal would cost the Treasury 850 million dollars in revenue. But Anderson said the revenue loss would total between 400 and 500 millions.

Byrd, chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, also argued that it would be "very unwise" to proceed to adopt an amendment of this importance "without first submitting it to a committee."

On the vote rejecting the Douglas amendment, Douglas was supported by only 11 Democrats and two Republicans, Senators Potter of Michigan and Langer of North Dakota.

In the House, meanwhile, Rep. Simpson (R-Pa.), a member of the tax-writing Ways and Means Committee, introduced a bill to cut taxes on personal and corporate income and to trim sharply excise levies on such items as new cars, TV sets and personal transportation. The Simpson bill would bring tax reductions totaling about $6,400,000,000.

High-Speed Rocket Sled Developing.

CANOGA PARK, Calif. (AP)—A seven-ton rocket sled that will out-speed a low-power rifle bullet is under development, its builders report.

Liquid oxygen and alcohol fuel will drive the aluminum vehicle 1,700 m.p.h., nearly 2½ times the speed of sound, the Rocketdyne Division of North American Aviation, Inc., said.

The pencil-shaped, 43-foot sled will be delivered this fall to the Air Force for high-speed tests on a seven-mile track at Holloman Air Development Center in New Mexico.

U.S. Stockholders Meetings Begin; More 'Bite' Is Seen

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—The nation's stockholders are about to have their big day. Annual meetings already under way will flourish like the green bay tree in the next 10 weeks.

This time what the owners ask management about the results of the recent past and the prospects of the immediate future may have more bite than in some jollier years.

Opening statements of chairmen of the board seem almost certain to stress the need in these times for confident thinking.

A few of the meetings are due for proxy fights for control. But the vast majority will start with the management having in its pocket all the votes it needs and spare.

More stockholders than ever are expected to turn out. Attendance at annual meetings has grown steadily since the war.

The total number of stockholders has grown in the past year. It is now well over eight million.

American Telephone & Telegraph has the most, 1,600,000. General Motors is second with 718,000.

Jersey Standard Oil third with 465,000. General Electric next with 380,000 and Ford Motors fifth with 280,000.

Some of the meetings should be love feasts. A nice handful of companies can report record earnings in 1957. Many can speak cheerfully about prospects for the months ahead. Stockholders in 229 of the 1,098 companies with common stock listed on the New York Stock Exchange know that the price of their shares increased in 1957. Some are at record highs now.

Other corporate situations may call for more explanation to the owners. Since New Year's Day some 150 corporations have cut or omitted dividend payments. But some other companies have much to brag about.

The Exchange, monthly publication of the N.Y. Stock Exchange says 648 companies listed on the big board have paid quarterly dividends regularly for 10 years or longer, with 45 of these boasting records of 50 or more years of unbroken payments.

Many of the stockholders attending this year's meetings will be reporting much larger holdings than last year.

Thirty-two companies listed on the big board last year sold $3,383,355 additional common shares to their stockholders through issuing rights for a total purchase of $1,522,752,420. And AT&T is tabulating results of its offering of convertible debentures to its stockholders—the largest offering ever made. In time these could be changed into common stock and further swell the total.

The N.Y. Stock Exchange also brags that its brain child, the monthly investment plan of selling stocks on a pay as you go basis, in its four years of life has accounted for sales of 2,059,165 common shares for $80,600,000.

Direct sales of new issues to the public and new listings have brought the number of common shares listed on the exchange this year to 4,632,928,911, up 483,737,538 in 12 months. The total is swelled by listings on other exchanges. A Merit Stock Exchange in New York, Pacific Coast Exchange in San Francisco and Los Angeles, Midwest Stock Exchange in Chicago, and those in Cincinnati, New Orleans, Salt Lake City and Spokane, Wash.

Rees quoted Turner as saying he and the children, Betty Marie, 7, and John Jr., 4, left their house about 10:30 last night to go to a store.

Instead, Turner said, he drove to Wheeling, about 20 miles north of Beech Bottom.

Turner said he threw the children into the river, then drove back to Wheeling, walked into the Sheriff's office and told his story.

Says Children Tossed In River

WHEELING, W.Va. (AP)—A 33-year-old steelworker told authorities at nearby Wellsburg last night that he had thrown his two young children into the frigid Ohio River from a bridge in Wheeling.

After several hours questioning, the Brooke County Sheriff's office said it was convinced that the man, John Turner, 33, of Beech Bottom, near Wellsburg, was telling the truth.

A search of the river was begun immediately.

Wheeling police said they found foot and hand prints in fresh snow on the sidewalk and rail of the Fort Henry Bridge. They said some of the prints appeared to be those of children.

Deputy Sheriff Evan Rees said Turner was incoherent at first and sobbed deeply at times. He said Turner could give no reason for his action.

Negro Gets Death Penalty For Slaying

BOWLING GREEN, Va. (AP)—Jermiah McCray, 23, son of Georgia Negro sharecroppers, has been sentenced to die for one of five murders authorities said he has admitted.

A jury including two Negroes convicted McCray yesterday of murder in the Feb. 2 rape-slaying of Mrs. Jeanette Griffin, a white widow.

"I hope you all are satisfied," McCray said, "that's all I got to say."

Mrs. Griffin's body was found on the kitchen floor of her home at Ladysmith Feb. 3 by her son, James McCray, and another Negro, Rush Reager 20, were arrested several days later.

While McCray was being questioned about the Griffin murder he told of the other four slayings in four other states.

Cold Canadian Air Chills Texas

By The Associated Press
Cold Canadian air chilled Texas Friday.

The Weather Bureau said a high pressure cold mass lay over part of Canada with a ridge running down into Texas.

Overnight low temperatures ranged from 20 degrees at Lubbock to 47 at Brownsville.

Amarillo and Abilene had 27, Fort Worth 31, Dallas and Texas 33, Waco and San Antonio 33, El Paso 35, Austin 36, Lubbock 38, Houston 40, Corpus Christi 44 and Galveston 45.

Skies were partly cloudy, with no rain since midnight.

Highs Thursday ran from 66 at Presidio to 28 at Dalhart.

A Bible Thought For Today

But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honor; that he by the grace of God should taste death for every man. (Hebrews 2:9)

No Reason Not To Look Our Best

Big Spring has been honored by having its filtration plant named as the most attractive one in the state in 1957. This speaks well for the city, and more particularly for the water department and those connected with the operation and maintenance of the filtration plant. This recalls that a similar honor has been placed upon the sewage treatment plant of our town. Now we will grant that not everyone will be making a special trip to view the filtration plant and that very few will find occasion to visit the sewage treatment unit, but we submit that the two do serve as good examples.

It would be just as easy to assume that a filtration plant is just another processing unit and therefore other than being neat for safety's sake, there would be no occasion to make it attractive. As for a disposal facility, one might assume that out of sight is out of mind and so why bother about appearances. Yet, in both instances workers and management have gone out of the way to make them outsparkle their neighbors. We think there are a whole lot of business establishments in Big Spring which might employ the example of these two facilities to good advantage. It makes no matter what type of activity, operation or merchandise a business may employ, there is no good excuse for being ugly and slovenly about the appearance of the business. To the extent that clothes make a difference in the impression a man may create, so does the appearance of a city's business establishments.

Looking Ahead—But Not Very Far

Last Saturday President Eisenhower said he would propose legislation that would pay unemployment compensation for a brief period to all the jobless who had exhausted their benefits for the normal period—in most states, 26 weeks. Prior to that day there had been talk among Democrats about a bill extending such benefits until December 31. But by Tuesday the Democrats had stolen the march on the administration by putting in a bill providing for an extension of 16 weeks retroactive to January 1. A great many of the "covered" unemployed have already run through their benefit time and since the period of slack employment began last September, additional hundreds of thousands will have exhausted their compensation in the weeks immediately ahead. The February jobless count was 5.1 million plus, the largest number out of work since 1940. Not all of them are "covered." Sen. Kennedy (D-Mass.) estimates there are around two million out of work who never have been covered, and he proposes to include them among the beneficiaries of any extension of the compensation period.

These are the workers who really need help, he argues, with some logic. In addition to the 16-week extension proposed by the Democrats, the bill would also provide a rate of benefits equal to 50 per cent of the beneficiary's average weekly wage with a limitation that benefits shall not exceed two-thirds of the average weekly wage within any particular state. The general business level of the country has shown no great strain up to now as a result of spreading unemployment. Reason for that are benefit payments to those without work. Exhaustion of these funds would of course have a measurable effect on the rate of business activity; so the logic of an extension is sound from a business standpoint. Few expect an upturn in employment nationally before sometime this fall, and the big question is: What happens, when the 16-week extension expires, with unemployment unchanged? Nobody in Congress seems to be looking that far ahead.

David Lawrence Tax Cut Should Be Across The Board

WASHINGTON—It is important to put the unemployment figures in perspective. Thus, while the actual number now out of work is as large as in 1941, it was then 10 per cent of the total labor force but is only 6.7 per cent of the nation's labor force today. This latter percentage figure is the same as it was in 1949, during the Truman administration, just prior to the Korean war. The truly significant figure on unemployment is not the approximately 5,200,000 just announced by the U. S. Department of Labor, but the amount of the increase over 1956, which in many respects was a normal year. For there were 2,800,000 unemployed in March 1956, and these are the people who normally "float" from job to job or are temporarily idle or who work when the spirit moves them. The net increase above the 1956 "float" is about 2,400,000. Where are these people located? How would more defense contracts allocated to a full-employment area do any good in other sections of the country where factories are shut down? People just don't give up their homes and nearness to relatives and move to other cities and towns to get new jobs. How could a tax cut, which puts more money in the pockets of those already working, do anything for those who are out of jobs and are not paying any taxes at all? These are the searching questions that must be asked when every one of the proposed remedies of an anti-recession nature is examined. For the fact is that unemployment is highest in the automobile centers and in the cities and towns where machinery and plant equipment are customarily manufactured. The Department of Labor itself announces that the increase in unemployment has occurred in automobile, aircraft, metal, and machinery plants. The latest government figures show an estimated drop of 13 per cent in the amount of business to be done in building new plants and equipment in 1958 as compared with last year. This is a sizable reduction. One plausible answer to the situation is that, if people would begin to buy autos again, it would help the heavy-goods industries. But this is related to the inventory or accumulated surplus of cars already in dealers' hands. Sooner or later this backlog of cars will be considerably reduced by an increase in sales, but it takes time for that to happen. It is argued that a tax cut will induce more spending. But experience in past recessions does not bear that out. Thus, in 1948 there was a tax cut but it did not prevent the 1949 recession. A tax cut which results in more purchases of groceries and what are called consumer items but, unless public confidence in the employment situation as a whole is restored, the tax-cut remedy will not be immediately effective. This is but another way of saying that, when any tax-reduction plan is voted by Congress, it must be of the kind that will persuade the economists generally and businessmen as a whole that a healthy step has been taken. If there were an across-the-board cut, as advocated the other day by Vice President Nixon, it would do more to encourage businessmen to hire additional persons than if the tax cut were limited to those in the lower brackets. Any "redistribution of wealth" doctrine of the latter type looks well on the surface to some politicians, but it failed to bring recovery in the 1930's and has never been looked upon as a sound device. The importance of the "across the board" theory is that it gives businessmen an incentive to expand and to make purchases of new plant and equipment. There can be no doubt that psychological factors are the most important of all today. People are hesitant to buy things they need because of a fear of unemployment. While this is true of individuals, it is even more noticeable in businesses, which fear a continued lack of new orders and are drastically curtailing expenses. The government can do a great deal to improve the psychology of the people as a whole and to encourage a buying mood. But despite all the professions of concern among the politicians on Capitol Hill, there has been no program offered as yet which would this month or next month bring re-employment to the 2,400,000 unemployed above the normal "float." Authorizing more public works is helpful to a certain extent, but it takes time to draw plans, get bids and allocate contracts. Much more important, for instance, is what the government itself is doing right now in buying automobiles and trucks it didn't purchase when the so-called "economy" wave was sweeping the Defense Department and other governmental departments during the year 1957. A recovery program is bound to be developed by the President and Congress as more and more unpleasant news breaks on the economic front in the next few weeks. The unemployment figure could go to 6,000,000 without being as high in proportion as the 10 per cent of the total labor force which was out of work in 1941. The most important step of all is to convince people generally that a recovery is inevitable and that it is a matter of months and not years. Such a sentiment may be fully crystallized before autumn comes. (Copyright, 1958, New York Herald Tribune, Inc.)

James Marlow My, How The Times Have Changed

WASHINGTON—It wasn't always like this. No one's shocked when Democrats and Republicans talk of a possible tax cut and red-ink spending to fight the recession. It took a depression to change American thinking. Back in 1929 when the depression was starting—although few recognized it—Democrats and Republicans were thinking in terms of a balanced budget. Meaning: that government spending should not exceed government revenue from taxes. On Nov. 13, 1929 Secretary of Treasury Andrew Mellon—spokesman for the Hoover administration—asked and got from Congress a tax cut for individuals and corporations. This was an antidepression step. Far from it. President Hoover and Mellon had wanted such a cut for months. So on Nov. 13—just a few weeks after the fatal stock market crash in October—their views hadn't changed. This was their reason for wanting the cut: They thought the government would be getting more revenue from taxes than it needed. Mellon even issued a statement expressing confidence "prosperity" would continue. It did just the opposite. By 1932 about 10 million were unemployed. Then Hoover and Mellon asked Congress for, and got, a tax increase. Their reason this time: that with the depression spreading and revenue from taxes falling off, the budget would be unbalanced. Congress—with Democrats controlling the House and Republicans the Senate—granted the request. It seems strange now that they would siphon off more spending money from people at a time when more spending was needed. But neither party wanted an unbalanced budget, even to fight the depression. That same year, 1932, the Democratic campaign platform promised a balanced budget and a reduction in government spending. Franklin D. Roosevelt promised the same thing in his presidential campaign that year. He did leave himself an out, however: in a speech at Pittsburgh he said, if people were starving, he'd let the budget go hang and spend. He was a little mixed up at the start on how to fight the depression. At his request Congress granted him authority to fire a number of government workers and reduce veterans' pensions. This was at a time when unemployment was staggering, and firing people only added to the chaos. It wasn't long before he launched out on huge red-ink government spending to create jobs and boost the economy. The budget had been balanced in only four of the years since then.

Emmy Winners Follow Pattern Of Up And Down

By CHARLES MERCER NEW YORK—Who was Shirley Dinsdale? asked a guy at NBC-TV. The question was rhetorical. He knew and we didn't. In 1948 Miss Dinsdale, a ventriloquist, received an Emmy television award as the Most Outstanding Television Personality of that year. The Academy of Television Arts and Sciences reports that Miss Dinsdale, whose married name is Mrs. Frank Layburn, has not appeared on television in several years. She has homes in Colorado Springs, Colo., and Falls Church, Va. In looking forward to the 10th edition of the Emmy Awards, which will be telecast live from New York and Hollywood on April 15, over NBC-TV, it's interesting to take a glance backward and see what has happened to a few winners of this highly coveted prize. In 1949, for instance two men dominated the TV scene. They were show business veterans whose television careers had their ups and downs for a time—dropped them to earth. Both were comedians and in the past year both have been acclaimed in straight dramatic roles. Their names? Milton Berle and Ed Wynn. They swept the awards that year for Best Live and Kinescoped Shows and Most Outstanding Live and Kinescoped Personality. Groucho Marx, who today is doing exactly what he was in 1950, was voted the outstanding personality of television for that year. The 1951 awards were practically reserved for Your Show of Shows and its stars, Sid Caesar and Imogene Coca, who are now doing on ABC-TV just about what they were doing then. The following year Jimmy Durante was voted the best comedian. Currently he is confining himself to request appearances. As the years passed, the awards grew longer and longer. Many of the names and programs which won are almost totally forgotten now. Others have retained their popularity—and familiarity. The only positive conclusion one can draw after studying these past records is that winning an Emmy is not a positive guarantee of enduring fame.

Hal Boyle Taps For The Horses

BERLIN—The U. S. Army is bidding farewell to horses and saying it 110 miles behind the Iron Curtain. The bugle call of "Boots and Saddles" probably will sound for the last time on active service at a farewell parade March 28 for the Berlin command's military police horse platoon. Four days later the horse platoon, 287th Military Police Co.—the last mounted unit in the U. S. Army—will be deactivated. "We can't afford the expense," explained Maj. Gen. Barksdale Hamlett. The spit-and-polish horse outfit was organized in 1945 by an old cavalry man, Brig. Gen. Frank L. Howley, America's first commandant in this divided occupied city. The platoon was supposed to patrol the Grunewald Forest border along the Soviet zone. It also was trained to break up Communist-organized mobs, but it never saw any more violent action than the annual horse shows. The platoon commander, Lt. Jeff G. Roberts, 23, of Reidsville, N. C., sighed: "No, we never caught any Russians on our border patrols. About the only thing we ever caught were two Boy Scouts, stopped from climbing the fence into the Russian zone." The platoon has 31 horses, most coming from a Hungarian cavalry group captured in World War II by an American airborne unit. Although the horses bear names like "Texas," there is only one real American mount. He is Reno Rake, a veteran of the 1950 Olympics. Most of the animals will be transferred to the Army's recreational program, for the off-duty enjoyment of equestrian-minded GIs. The Army hasn't decided what to do with the rest. —SEYMOUR TOPPING (For Hal Boyle)

Around The Rim Better Start Now For 1959

So you want to be a playwright? Forget it, unless you just like to work. Being a professional writer, I shouldn't make such sweeping statements. But it's the truth—writing of practically any sort can be wearing. The scriptwriting committee of the Big Spring Civic Theatre was given the job of whopping up a new script for this year's Easter Pageant, which the theatre produces under sponsorship of the Pastors Assn. This was to be my first attempt at that particular field of writing. The way things turned out, I feel it may be my last. But then, most authors reach that point eventually. I don't think I could look another script in the face for the next three months. As it turned out, I was a committee of one, at least at first. Being an imaginative sort, I got to work some two months later than I should have, dreaming up an idea for a script—something, I hoped, that would be entirely different from last year's production. Something that would be a change of pace, and would perhaps become a local tradition. Last year's script was an improvement over the usual Easter pageant. Traditionally, there is no narration and the action is carried out in pantomime. The only spoken lines are those taken directly from Scripture. Civic Theatre President Dewey Magee and a friend, Lt. Bob Grew, devised a script which did not basically change the traditional pattern, but did add something extra. The script they came up with was a one-man narration of the Easter story, with theatre members pantomiming the story on stage. There was no dialogue. Technical difficulties involving the placement of microphones so the audience wouldn't notice, spiked that idea. So, the dialogue was included in the narration, with actors moving their lips at the proper moments. But my idea for this year's script was even more ambitious. The original script had more than one person involved in the narration—an elderly Roman, whose identity was given in subtle hints, telling a young soldier of "the old days" in Galilee. The Easter story itself was told in flashbacks, and narration ended each time the stage was lighted. The scenes were acted out, complete with dialogue.

That problem of the microphones was to have been solved by the simple expedient of placing a shed in front of and below the stage, inside which several people with good voices would sit in front of several microphones. The actors on stage would move their lips in coordination with the readers. Sounds easy. But it turned out to be a 10-hour job just dreaming up the lines, researching, plotting, writing first drafts, and writing of the final draft. Then, another 10-hour session with Magee, Bob Walker and Capt. Allen Robertson. I had heard that writers and directors and producers sometimes have long, loud sessions in professional theatre and in Hollywood. I now learned why. It seems the director and the writer generally have divergent viewpoints on the same story, and a neutral third person has still another viewpoint. That made 20 hours of work. But that was only the beginning. As we checked over my script, it was discovered I had really pulled a DeMille: It would have taken a cast of more than 60 persons. The time element also intervened. It seems the technical problems introduced in the script were too big to work out in the three weeks remaining before Easter. It was to be a big enough headache for Director Magee without trying to turn the City Park's Amphitheatre into a movie studio lot. Back to the typewriter. No dialogue, just pantomime with narration. I managed to save many of the basic elements in the script, including the old Roman and the young soldier, but others had to go. As of this writing, the script still isn't completed (but the deadline's tonight, so it will be.) It was my own fault, actually. With a two month's earlier start, this year's Easter Pageant, as originally written, could have come off without a hitch. By waiting, I shot myself down, if I may borrow a phrase from some Air Force friends. Just wait till next year. If I get started just as soon as this year's pageant is over. Pardon me, I forgot. I still can't look a script in the face. —BOB SMITH

The Gallup Poll Russian, American Troops In U.N. Army

PRINCETON, N. J. — The American people are not only in favor of a large U. N. army; they would have little objection to one in which American and Russian soldiers served side-by-side. By a vote of nearly 2-to-1, the public feels that a standing U. N. army—which it favors overwhelmingly in principle—should not be limited to volunteers from small nations as is the present U. N. Emergency Force along the Israeli-Egyptian border. On the question of whether or not a U. N. police force should be restricted by a Security Council veto, the public is divided—with sentiment on the side of letting a permanent force operate anywhere unrestricted by a veto. As part of its series on the public's attitude toward a permanent U. N. force large enough to deal with small wars throughout the world, the Institute posed these questions: "At present, the U. N. Emergency Force is made up of volunteers from small countries. Should it continue this way, or should it include volunteers from such large countries as the U. S. and Russia?" The vote nationwide:

	Per cent
Continue same	24
From large countries also	52
No opinion	24

Under the terms of the resolution by which the present UNEF was raised, major powers such as the U. S. and Soviet Russia were not permitted to supply troops for the force. The second question: "At present, the U. N. Emergency Force could be prevented from going into a trouble area by a veto in the Security Council of the U. N. Would you like to see this veto removed, or not?" Per cent: Yes, would... 38; No, would not... 33; No opinion... 29. Technically, the Security Council of the U. N. does control the movements of any U. N. army and, by the use of the veto, Russia could countermand any moves. But in the case of the present emergency force in the Near East, a way was found to bypass the Security Council and place the issue before the General Assembly. Theoretically, if a permanent U. N. army were under the jurisdiction of the General Assembly and subject to a majority vote of that body, the situation could arise whereby U. N. troops would be dispatched to anywhere in the world. The first of two articles on the public's attitude toward a permanent U. N. force, published Wednesday, revealed that two out of every three voters were in favor of a permanent force large enough to deal with small wars around the globe. Two out of three voters questioned said they favored the creation of such a force. As regards the actual size of such an international army, the vote was 2-to-1 that it should be increased to at least 100,000 men. The present force in the Near East is considerably smaller in number.

Inez Robb Regulate Billboards On The Freeways

There is a continuing battle going on in Washington, D. C., these days—in and out of Senatorial hearing rooms—to determine whether this government and Administration will sanction a multibillion-dollar grab to benefit a handful of citizens at the expense of the nation. That is the fight of the billboard lobby to get its greedy mitts on the $30 to $50 billion in new Federal and state highways to be built in this country during the next 20 years. I presume if anyone in this audience saw a gent rifling the pockets of another citizen, he would blow the whistle. It is now pretty clear that unless we taxpayers, who are going to have to fork over for the new highways, blow the whistle on this give-away, we are going to be robbed blind. The panoramic scenic beauty of this extraordinary land through which the roads will roll will be veiled from us. President Eisenhower is on the side of right. In his budget message he declared, "Prompt enactment of legislation to control advertising on the interstate highway system is also recommended." And he augmented this two days later by declaring, "I am convinced that this activity must be controlled and regulated if the public is to have the safe driving conditions and surroundings contemplated by the high standards applicable to the interstate system. I believe that Federal legislation on the subject is necessary to assure effective state action." This is a powerful assist in the battle of the right to see and enjoy America's beauty unobscured by billboards. But it isn't enough. It's going to take work at the precinct level to defeat this attack by the well-heeled billboard lobby, which has hired as its mouthpiece the largest and most expensive firm of public relations experts in the nation. Now is the time to sit down and write that not-so-mythical pen, your Congressman, and tell him whether you want to look this beautiful country squarely in the eye or have it permanently obscured by the billboard blight that has already defaced so much of America. Already the billboard lobby, in a Senatorial committee hearing, has raised a completely phony issue by hauling the recession in by its heels. The lobby did not quite have the gall to claim that more billboards would cure the depression, but the board suggestion was there in its testimony. Secretary of Commerce Sinclair Weeks apparently sees no solution of a recession in this area and says, "I am convinced that outdoor advertising along the interstate system must be controlled and regulated if we are to have the safe and relaxed driving and pleasing surroundings contemplated." But from now on, be prepared for a barrage of lobby-hired psychologists and assorted "experts" who will write learned pieces saying that scenery is dangerous, roadside beauty puts drivers to sleep and causes accidents, and the "monotony" of nature unadorned is dangerous to motorists, young and old. We will hear this plea ad nauseum despite the fact that Harry I. Kirk, president of the American Automobile Association, in support of anti-billboard legislation, has said, "We believe the motorists of America are strongly opposed to having their interstate routes walled in by billboards." AMEN: Get out that pen! (1958, by United Feature Syndicate, Inc.)

McGUIRE AIR FORCE BASE, N. J. — The theft of a cup from the base cafeteria has been rectified—a debt to society has been paid. Base Exchange Officer Vincent DeAndrea received a dollar bill attached to a note, which read: "This dollar is for one cup taken from a cafeteria two years ago." The anonymous note was postmarked San Antonio, Texas.

Her Hands Are Eloquent

Jean O'Brien stresses the importance of caring for your hands. She believes they are the most revealing feature of a person. Jean is a contract player at MGM and will soon be seen in "Mock Trial."

Regular Care Makes Your Hands Beautiful

By LYDIA LANE
HOLLYWOOD — Jean O'Brien was given a part in "Mock Trial," but she had no idea this would mean a term contract for her at MGM. When I went to the Culver City lot to meet this newcomer I was immediately attracted to her exquisite hands with their slender fingers and long oval nails.

Although she was modest about them, she did admit she has posed for hand photography. I asked her to keep them so lovely.

"I do a lot of my own house work, and I find wearing gloves very helpful. I wear rubber ones when I have my hands in water, but cotton ones are easy to work in around the house."

"I'm a faithful hand-lotion user. You have no idea what a difference this makes. It takes just a few drops each time after washing your hands to keep them smooth, soft and supple."

"I have a manicure once a week, but the moment I feel a rough nail I smooth it with an emery board. My 'stitch-in-time' method keeps me from losing a nail."

"I think hands are much more important than the average person realizes," Jean went on. "Aside from the eyes they are the most revealing thing about a person. I've always made it a point

Lamesa Club Hosts Tea For Newcomers

LAMESA—The annual Newcomers Tea was held Tuesday afternoon at the Woman's Study Club building. Members of the club were hostesses for the tea.

As the guests arrived, they were greeted by Mrs. Glen Jones; in the receiving line were Mrs. Hugh Gaines, Mrs. L. L. Burkhardt, Mrs. Jeff Shipp, Mrs. Harry Bruner and Mrs. Wade Alverson. Mrs. O. H. Sires registered the guests.

The tea table was laid with an imported linen cloth with the center arrangement being a map of the state of Texas in white styrofoam on a revolving black marble base. Surrounding the arrangement were yellow daffodils.

Mrs. Ross McDonald, Mrs. Elmer Cope, Mrs. Jimmie Lumus and Mrs. C. A. Baldwin alternated at the silver service.

During the afternoon vocal selections were presented by Julia Holder and Jean Stone. Musical selections were presented by Sue Green, Marilyn Cox, Olinda York and Tahita Niemeyer.

Sunday School Classes Have Socials, Devotions

Members of two Sunday School classes held their monthly social and business meetings Thursday night. Devotions were presented to point up faith and service.

RUTH CLASS
A devotion for "Faith" was heard by members of the Ruth Class, Park Methodist Church, Thursday night at the group's monthly business meeting and social. Mrs. Minnie Cannon was hostess.

The speaker was Mrs. W. E. Buckner, who told of John Wesley's songs and their origin.

Plans were made for the April party, at which husbands of the members will be special guests. Mrs. J. W. Brigrance is class teacher.

Refreshments were served to 11 members and a guest, Mrs. David Massey.

PHOEBE CLASS
Mrs. Paul Sheedy was hostess to the Phoebe Class, Baptist Temple, Thursday night for the business meeting and social. Teacher of the group is Mrs. C. L. McKinney.

The opening prayer by Mrs. Richard Grimes was followed by her devotion on Service.

Plans were announced for the April meeting, and white elephant gifts were exchanged. Mrs. A. D. Nanny directed the games. Refreshments were served to nine including a guest, Mrs. Monroe Gafford.

Two P-T-A Groups Have Election Of Officers

Parent-Teacher Associations met Thursday at the various schools for business meeting and programs given by guest speakers. Officers for the coming year were elected, and delegates to the spring conference, slated for Colorado City this month, were named.

EAST WARD
Mrs. Robert E. Lee was re-elected president of East Ward P-T-A Thursday afternoon when the group met at the school.

Other officers elected include Mrs. R. L. Collins, vice president; Mrs. M. L. Manley, secretary, and Mrs. E. L. Whatley, treasurer.

The devotion was brought by the Rev. Jack Ware on the topic, "What we do, we do together."

COLLEGE HEIGHTS
Mrs. Chelsey McDonald district vice president was guest speaker for the College Heights P-T-A Thursday afternoon to a group of 50.

Mrs. McDonald pointed out that the children of today have the same problems as in the past in molding their character, although they are more matured and capable at a younger age. She stressed the importance of parents encouraging independence in their children.

Mrs. W. E. Blanchard brought the devotion.

Mrs. Buford Hull was elected president for the coming year; Mrs. C. L. Cook vice president; Mrs. Garland Land, secretary, and Mrs. Carl Billings, treasurer. Mrs. Hull and Mrs. Cook will be delegate and alternate to the spring conference in Colorado City.

The group saw a film on cancer.

Mrs. Joe Hedleston's room won the attendance count.

Altrusa Club Officers Are Elected

Mrs. G. G. Sawtelle will head the Altrusa Club for the coming year, with Mrs. A. C. Bass to serve as vice president.

The two were elected Thursday at a business meeting of the club held at Wesley Methodist Church.

Chosen to work with them were Mrs. Alfred Collins, recording secretary; Mrs. R. L. Penny, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Houston Cowden, treasurer. Mrs. Raymond River was elected to serve on the board of directors.

Mrs. M. T. Kuykendall was granted a year's leave of absence because of the illness in her family. A donation of 10 dollars was voted for the Heart Fund.

Reports were made on the college students which the club is assisting with scholarships; Mrs. Travis Reed, chairman of the projects committee, reported on a possible project for the group.

Twenty-seven were present.

Garden Club School Ends

Sixteen members of garden clubs had registered Thursday for the examination to be given this morning at the end of Flower Show School No. Four.

The course has been given Wednesday and Thursday at Texas Electric Service conference room and was sponsored by the Council of Big Spring Garden Clubs.

A total of 47 gardeners attended the course, with nine of those being refresher students.

Women from Midland, Lamesa, Hereford, Kermit and Roswell and Lake Arthur, N. M., joined the local group in the work.

Wednesday's sessions dealt with flower arranging and were taught by Irene Haddock of Dallas.

Mrs. George Boyle of Rio Grande City was the instructor Thursday for horticulture and flower show practice.

Indoor Sports Club Has Business Meet; Endorses Tax Bill

The Indoor Sports Club met for a business session Thursday evening at the Girl Scout House, with 14 attending.

Letters were prepared for mailing to senators and congressmen endorsing the passage of the Keogh Tax Bill. This bill, if passed, will allow an exemption of $1,200 in the income tax from handicapped persons.

The meeting of the district executive board, slated to meet here June 7-8, was discussed. Announcement was made that the next meeting of the club will be a social to be given at the scout house.

Claudia Arrick, Hugh Compton and Mrs. Charlie Boland were appointed as a nominating committee; they will report at the first meeting in April.

Members of the Good Sports Club played games of 42 during the business session and served refreshments after the meeting.

Tolford Durham Speaker For ESA Sorority Meet

Five ways to please others and win their friendship were given members of the Epsilon Sigma Alpha Sorority Thursday evening by Tolford Durham.

The sorority met in the home of Mrs. Fred Sitzell with Mrs. Harold Summers as cohostess.

Durham's subject was "The Art of Selling Yourself: he told the group that each of us sells her personality to someone every day. We should take an inventory of ourselves, the speaker said, and be honest and sincere in doing so.

To inflate the ego of others he suggested that a request for advice or information be made; attribute knowledge to another; indicate the possession of knowledge or experience in another, especially an older person; compliment a possession of the other one or give him a direct compliment.

He left the group with the thought, "When you leave a person more satisfied with himself because of his contact with you, he will like you."

Announcement was made of the state convention, to be held in Brownsville in May, and of the district convention, scheduled for Odessa on March 29.

Rush activities were planned; the first party will be given in the home of Mrs. Bob Tawater on March 27. Mrs. Doug Ward will be cohostess.

Mrs. Durham, Barbara Ann Eye and Frances Bartlett were appointed as a nominating committee. The group agreed to send an ESA tray to Kay Ming, former member, who is to be married in April.

Refreshments were served to 10.

Pillows For Comfort, Decoration

little girls are making decorative covers for pillows to be used in their homes. During this week, Scouts and Brownies have been observing a week especially set aside for them to include the date of the organization's founding, March 12, 1912.

Climate And Soil Are Favorable For Growing Dahlias; Plant Now

By MARY COCHRAN
You may not be able to make a silk purse out of a sow's ear but you can develop a beautiful flower from a common field variety. That is the history of our beautiful dahlias of today—natives of Mexico, and kissing cousins of the common weed, the beggar's tick.

Because they are native to this climate, dahlias here have equalled some of the finest grown anywhere. They will tolerate an alkaline soil and prefer sand. Thus they are ideal for Howard County.

Start spacing and cultivating your dahlia beds now in a place that gets at least four hours sun. Wind takes its toll, and some natural or artificial windbreak will be of benefit.

A soil of 60% sand is desirable. This can be achieved by using one gallon of sand in each hill. Dahlias like slightly acid soil so add ground limestone at the rate of three to five pounds to each 100 square feet every three or four years.

If you are just beginning a new bed that you want ready for planting the first of April, work the soil thoroughly with some bone meal, humus, and some bone meal. For exhibition blooms, plant until June.

Numerous forms of the dahlia are available. Unwin dahlias grow easily from seed and they, as well as the miniature types, are excellent for cutting. Many buy the plants ready to set out. These will grow true to type. The most reliable method is to buy the tubers, or roots. They are available in many local stores now. Many special varieties can be secured from the flower houses in time for this planting season.

GET GOOD ROOTS
The size of the roots is not important. If they are good firm roots, a small one will produce just as good plants. Each tuber should be placed horizontally in a hole six inches deep with its eye pointing upward. Fill the hole to about four inches and, as the plant grows, add more soil around the stem. Place a stake by each root as you plant it; these plants grow quite tall. A stake placed after planting might pierce the tuber.

Dahlias should be cultivated often, especially after rains or watering; pull the soil always toward the plant for strength and to aid in drainage. After buds form, work carefully; for there will be surface roots you can injure. This is a good time to mulch with compost, hay, grass clippings or peat moss to prevent the plant getting too dry.

Water only when the plants show need of moisture until mid-July when they need water once

WESTBROOK — The P.T.A. will sponsor a banquet honoring the boys and girls basketball teams at 7:30 p.m. March 29. The public is cordially invited to attend the event in the school cafeteria. Parents are asked to bring basket lunches. The girls were district champions and the boys placed second, after Loraine.

Buddy Lewis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Lewis, was honored on his ninth birthday with a party at the home of his parents, Saturday, Mrs. Sam Oden assisted the hostess in directing games. Favors were balloons and bubble gum, and refreshments were served to 27.

The menus to be followed by the school luncheon have been announced for next week. Monday: Baked ham, candied sweet potatoes with marshmallows, lime jelly salad, yeast biscuits, butter, syrup, milk; Tuesday: Hamburgers, sliced cheese, potato salad, onion, lettuce, tomatoes, pickles, chocolate cake, butter, milk; Wednesday: Meat pie, cabbage salad, butter beans, bread and butter, peach halves, milk; Thursday: Barbecued meat balls, creamed potatoes, combination salad, bread and butter, banana pudding, milk; Friday: Red beans, macaroni and tomatoes, relish plate, cornbread and butter, apple crisp, milk.

Coahomans Return From Vacation Trip

COAHOMA—Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Spears have been visiting their sisters in Fort Worth and their children. Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Spears and daughter in Austin. Spears is attending the University of Texas. R. D. Cramer is reported to be doing nicely following major surgery in the Veterans Hospital in Big Spring. Nancy Hodnett, Coahoma High School student, was back in school this week following an appendectomy of two weeks ago. Mrs. Ralph White is at home following a week's visit in Houston with her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Martha White and boys.

Mr. and Mrs. Val Best were hosts Wednesday evening to the members of the Young Adult Sunday School Class of the Presbyterian Church. A brief business meeting was followed by games of forty-two. Refreshments were served to 16 members and one visitor.

At a meeting of the Coahoma Parent Teacher Association Thursday afternoon the following slate of officers was elected: Mrs. C. H. DeVaney, president; Mrs. Aron Stoker, vice president; Mrs. James Barr, secretary; and Mrs. Bobby Cathey, treasurer.

Sam McCombes of Big Spring spoke to the association on the importance of scouting following the devotion by Mrs. Carmen Wyatt and a film, refreshments were served in the home-making department to approximately 45 people.

Former Resident To Study In Michigan

WESTBROOK—A. B. Cecil Crow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claud Crow of Colorado City, formerly of Westbrook, Mich., left Monday for Battle Creek, Mich. to enter a water sanitation school. He has spent 17 days with his parents after completing basic training in San Antonio. His father, A. B. Jack Bagby, whose home is in Honolulu, has been a guest of the Crow's and will report Sunday to the base at El Paso. The group visited Wednesday afternoon in the Sam Oden home.

Attending the championship basketball games in Austin Saturday were Supt. and Mrs. S. A. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Morgan, Earl Cook, Donny Swofford, Doyle Lankford, Newton Bacon and J. C. Putnam.

A. E. Lowery was called to Oklahoma by the illness of his mother.

Mrs. Willie Byrd is in San Angelo this week attending the State W.M.U. conference. She has been the house guest of Mrs. John Ash and Johnnie.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Andrews moved into their new home in Westbrook. They have been living on the A. L. Young farm.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Stephenson of Rossville were guests of the Oran Moores.

Committees Set For Band Banquet

LAMESA — Committees were named to start work on the High School Band Banquet when the Band Mothers met Tuesday afternoon. The annual affair will be held on May 3 at Lamar Forest Community Center. Mrs. Don Nutt was named general chairman.

Varied Items Stolen Here

Thieves took a variety of items from houses and cars here Thursday night. A tarpaulin was stolen from Jones & Laughlin Supply Division, 201 Bell. The tarp had been left outside the building officials said. A Mrs. Pope, at 8th and Galveston, told the police that a door had been stolen from the address during the night.

Two hub caps were taken from a 1956 Lincoln owned by A. J. Bell, 1004 W. 4th. Bell's car was parked at the Clover Bowl at the time.

Deputy Answers Damages Petition In Abilene Court

John R. Coffee, Howard County attorney, has filed a motion for summary judgment against Deputy Sheriff Randall Sherrod in federal district court at Abilene. Sherrod is one of three defendants in the suit filed by George Wayne Moorhead of Big Spring. Moorhead asks judgment for $75,000 in damages and alleges that his rights were violated in connection with investigation of an alleged assault on Jack Bennett of Big Spring for the district attorney.

In the motion filed by Coffee, Sherrod denies all allegations and asserts that Moorhead's petition fails to show a cause of action over which the court has jurisdiction.

Similar petitions were filed last weekend by the other defendants.

Wintry Weather Due To Continue

The weatherman sees no immediate let up in the wintry weather which has ruled the countryside for the past week. Partly cloudy skies and a low tonight of 28 degrees to be followed on Thursday was 43. The high today should be around 45 degrees, the forecast stated, with a similar reading for Saturday.

Composer On Opera Panel

Metropolitan Opera stars Zinka Milanov and George London and Pulitzer-Prize-winning composer Norman Dello Joio will be featured on "Opera News on the Air," during the first intermission of the Metropolitan Opera broadcast of Puccini's "Tosca," 7 p.m. CST, Saturday on ABC radio.

During the second intermission of "Tosca," quizmaster Jay Harrison will pose puzzles for a panel of four experts on "Texas's Opera Quiz."

Grating with questions sent in by listeners will be musicologist-author Henry Simon; Walter Duclos, head of the University of California opera department; George Marek, vice president of RCA-Victor and Paul Jarzetzki, assistant to the Met's artistic administrator.

Teen-Age Baseball Fund Drive Opens

The Teen-Age Baseball association which operates leagues for boys in the 13-14 and 15-16 year age brackets, has started a fund-raising campaign.

Officials say $1,500 is needed for operating expenses this year.

Donations can be mailed either to Y. A. Whittington, care of Golden Petroleum Corporation, or Bob Bell, Radio Station KBST.

Budget Conference

Leopold Leaves Prison

Gen. Nathan Leopold, imprisoned 33 1/2 years for his part of the 1934 slaying of 14-year-old Bobby Franks, leaves Stateville Penitentiary, Joliet, Ill., on parole.

Leopold Spends 2nd Day In Chicago

CHICAGO — Still shaky after a fast automobile ride from Stateville Prison, ex-convict Nathan Leopold today spent his second day of freedom in Chicago, scene of the crime for which he served 33 1/2 years.

Leopold, probably the world's most publicized convict, remained in the Gold Coast apartment of Abel M. Brown, real estate man and his onetime classmate at the University of Chicago.

Leopold, a diabetic, became sick at least six times during a fast 40-mile ride to Chicago after his release from Stateville Prison near Joliet. The automobile halted frequently and the 53-year-old

Leopold staggered to the roadside, ashen and nauseated. Unless his condition improves, Leopold is expected to remain in the Brown apartment until arrangements are completed for his departure for Puerto Rico, where he is to serve his parole working as a $10-a-month lab technician in a small mission hospital in the mountains near the town of Adjuntas.

Leopold and his companion Richard Loeb were sentenced to life and 99 years for the 1924 slaying of 14-year-old Bobby Franks. Loeb was slain in 1936 during a prison fight.

Navy, Friendly Simian Put Each Other Up A Tree

NORFOLK, Va. — The U.S. Navy and Nicky, a friendly Barbary ape, have each other up a tree.

Nicky, destined for a Memphis zoo, escaped from his cage yesterday and fled up the rigging of the cargo ship Antares.

He was kept awake during the night hours by the glare of spotlights thrown on the 50-foot mast. How to get him down? The Navy wished it knew.

"I think he'll come down all right," said Cmdr. J. F. Miller, skipper of the Antares, which is tied up at a Norfolk Naval Base pier. "Maybe we can lure him down with bananas—he seems to like them. We'll just improvise as we go."

When it became obvious that Nicky wasn't going to be persuaded to come down, Miller set a "monkey watch."

The "monkey watch" hoisted a small heater into the rigging to keep Nicky warm. It focused the spotlight on him to be sure he wouldn't crawl out a cargo boom unnoticed.

Once a sailor succeeded in getting the three-foot-tall, 5-year-old Nicky to descend and accept a banana. But before a net could be lowered over him, Nicky sped back up the mast—with the banana.

Nicky is a gift from the British admiral commanding at Gibraltar to the Memphis zoo. He was being transferred from his seagoing cage to the smaller cage in which he will be shipped to Memphis when he got away.

Fire Kills 2 In Waco Hotel

WACO — Two persons burned to death in a fire that ruined a small hotel early today.

Police Lt. Bennie Reed said three others were in hospitals. Firemen were checking the register and with the manager of the New Waverly Hotel, A. V. Donnell, in an effort to determine if any persons were missing.

The hotel was in the top floor of a two-story brick building which was rebuilt after being destroyed by the 1953 tornado. Four business firms on the ground floor weren't burned but were damaged by water.

The hotel in south Waco on the outskirts of the business district had 12 permanent residents and 11 transients. Lyman Rogers of Dallas is the owner.

One of the injured is a man who jumped from a window. The other two suffered burns.

A police car and a fire truck scraped fenders on the way to the blaze.

One of the dead was identified tentatively as Robert Sparks of Austin.

Court Overrules Father, Returns Girl To Convent

HILLSBORO, Ore. — Alice Miller, 19, yesterday was given permission by a court to continue her life in a Roman Catholic convent where she intends to become a nun.

State Circuit Court Judge Glen Heiber turned down a plea from her father that she be returned to his home and control.

The father, Ivan R. Miller of Milwaukie, Ore., and his wife "live by the Golden Rule but have no religion," they said.

At a recent hearing on the case, the Millers testified they had enrolled their daughter for 10 years in Catholic schools.

Judge Heiber said in his ruling that testimony disclosed Miller had ordered the girl to choose between her religion and her home. This ultimatum, the judge said, emancipated Miss Miller from parental control.

The judge said the girl had entered the convent of the Sisters of St. Mary of Oregon at nearby Beaverton of her own free will.

"The court," he said, "knows of no law under the circumstances of this case, and the inconsistency practiced by these parents, which permits parents to require a child growing into mature years to give up its faith as a prerequisite to remaining in the household and as a result causing the child to leave and forage for itself."

Miss Miller became a member of the Catholic Church last year while attending Holy Name College at Spokane, Wash. She became a candidate for the Catholic order here last January. She also is attending classes at Maryhurst College, a Catholic institution at Oregon City, and intends to become a teacher in a Catholic school.

Miss Miller said she feels no bitterness toward her father. "He's really very dear, not mean—he just can't understand the Catholic Church. . . . I do hope that as the years go on, he will come around," she said in an interview at the convent.

Venezuela May Try Proration

DALLAS — The Dallas News quoted two oil men high in industry circles today as saying Venezuela has posed the possibility of some limitation on its oil production.

The news said its sources, which it identified as high in industry affairs and in constant touch with the imports situation in Washington, said this limitation in Venezuelan production would be under provision that the United States does not move toward mandatory controls on imported petroleum.

The paper said its sources believed this is the real reason Matthew Carson Jr., administrator of the government's voluntary imports limitation program, is in Caracas, Venezuela.

Venezuela has indicated that maybe it will make some effort to prorate its crude production if mandatory import controls are not applied by this country," the News quotes one of its sources as saying.

"Carson is down there to see just what Venezuela proposes to do and how it will be handled in case the country does do something."

Ike, Macmillan Plan June Meeting On Summit Talks

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower and Prime Minister Macmillan will meet here in June to coordinate U.S.-British planning for a summit conference with the Soviet Union.

The White House announced the meeting will be held June 9-10. By that time the issue of whether to hold a summit conference will very likely be settled, officials believe, and most of them say privately they are sure there will be a conference.

Other subjects expected to come up in the Eisenhower-Macmillan sessions include cooperation between the United States and Britain in atomic energy developments, U.S. supplies of nuclear missiles for British bases, Middle Eastern problems, East-West trade and a review of conditions in the Far East.

Eisenhower and Macmillan met twice last year — in Bermuda last March and in Washington last October. Both also attended a meeting of the heads of government of the NATO countries in Paris in December.

Secretary of State Dulles, who has been attending a meeting of the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization, told a news conference in Manila that a way must be found to end the U.S.-Soviet "impasse" over a heads of government conference. He said the deadlock arises because the Soviet Union is interested in a meeting whether or not it produces agreements while the United States is primarily interested in getting agreements.

The prevailing view in diplomatic quarters here is that disarmament may provide the way out of the impasse.

The idea would be to negotiate through diplomatic channels and possibly an East-West foreign ministers conference a tentative plan for Soviet-Western agreement on some phase of disarmament, probably the phase dealing with suspension of nuclear tests. The summit conference would act on this.

Danne Green screams as a chair wielded by George Kozachuk begins its downward flight toward her skull. But whether it lands on target, Prof. Fred Short would prefer to keep secret, since this is a scene from "Night Must Fall," a psychological thriller in three acts being prepared by Short's drama department at HCJC. The play will be seen in HCJC's Auditorium March 20, 22 and 24.

Jap Papers Make Death Of Sergeant Into Mystery

TOKYO — Japanese newspapers today began weaving a cloak and dagger mystery around the body of a U.S. master sergeant found floating in Tokyo Bay. The police identified the dead man as Emmet E. Dugan but the Army withheld confirmation until relatives were notified. A spokesman said the man had been missing from his Army intelligence unit since Feb. 4. Press reports said Dugan spoke fluent Chinese and had been assigned to collect information on Red China. He was frequently seen with Chinese friends, the newspapers said. The Army said it "has no definite knowledge that he was engaged in any investigative activity at the time of death. He could have been a victim of robbery, among other things." The man's wallet was missing. The body found Wednesday was dressed in civilian clothes. The jacket had a California label. "The preliminary autopsy indicates he was dead before he hit the water," the Army said, adding there was a bruise on the forehead. The body, which apparently had been in the water about two weeks, was identified from fingerprints. The sergeant had been listed as absent without leave from his unit at Camp Zama, near Yokohama, and later was listed as missing. His wife left for the United States Wednesday and is believed now in transit.

Negro Boy Knifed In School Brawl

DALLAS — Jerry Scott, 15, a Negro high school pupil suffered three knife wounds in a fight in a class room yesterday. The incident occurred in a darkened room while students watched a film. Scott was cut twice on the head and once in the chest. Another pupil was arrested.

Shah Of Iran Divorces His Queen On Question Of Heir

TEHRAN, Iran — The Shah of Iran today announced his divorce from beautiful young Queen Soraya because she failed to give him a son and heir to his throne. The divorce followed weeks of negotiations with the childless, 26-year-old queen, deliberations within the Royal Council and long hours of soul-searching by Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlavi. Soraya now is in West Germany with her father, the Iranian ambassador there. The 38-year-old monarch and his green-eyed wife had been a devoted, almost inseparable couple, but the Shah, as a court communique put it, "ignored his personal feelings for the sake of the nation's high-level interests."

The communique said the royal advisers had urged that the heir to the Iranian throne be a son of the Shah, rather than a brother as had been suggested, because of the country's great interest and to "avoid possible future unrest." Court sources said there was no official hint of the ruler's next bride or whether the Shah would marry before making a trip to Japan, Formosa and the United States in May. Officials said he was downcast over the divorce and probably will not marry in the near future. Soraya reportedly had refused to remain the Shah's wife if he took another spouse in an effort to get an heir. Moslem men are permitted four wives at one time, but Soraya is the daughter of a German woman, was educated in Europe and has many Western ideas. The Shah has one daughter by his first wife, Princess Fawzia of Egypt, but women cannot succeed to Moslem thrones. The monarch divorced Fawzia in 1949 because she, too, apparently could not give him a son. The communique put Soraya's divorce settlement at $134,000. She reportedly also will keep several million dollars worth of jewels the Shah bought for her during their seven years of marriage and will get a court pension to pay her living expenses. The handsome Shah married Soraya, whose name means "Star," Feb. 12, 1951. Since 1953 she has traveled to Switzerland several times, and the couple consulted New York doctors on a 1955 visit to the United States in hopes of ending their childlessness. The divorce ended what had appeared to be one of the world's happier royal marriages. The queen had been widely credited with helping the Shah develop from a rather ineffectual young man with a fondness for sports cars and flying into a strong ruler who steered his country down a pro-Western path.

Snow Storms Blanket East

By The Associated Press
Late winter storms left a blanket of snow across wide areas in the Eastern half of the country today, with falls ranging up to nearly a foot in some areas. Thunderstorms and strong winds hammered areas in the Southeast during the night but appeared abating. The mid-March storms swept from the Plains eastward along the Ohio River and moved into Eastern sections of the nation. More than 9 inches of snow was reported in Cumberland, Md. Heavy snow also fell in eastern West Virginia, with up to 7 inches in some places. Falls ranged from 4 to 7 inches in a narrow belt from southwest Ohio through eastern sections of Ohio and across the central and southern parts of Pennsylvania. From 1 to 3 inches fell in parts of Virginia and New York state. The snow headed into New England and was expected to continue in most of the Northeast during the day. At least nine deaths were blamed on the stormy weather. These included five in highway accidents in Kentucky and one in Maryland. Deaths due to over-exertion while shoveling snow included two in Ohio and one in Kentucky. South of the snow belt, rain fell in the Carolinas and Florida and southern Virginia.

Princess Grace Bears Heir To The Throne Of Monaco

MONTE CARLO — Princess Grace of Monaco today gave birth to her first son — the new heir to the throne of Monaco. The boy was named Albert. The royal palace said the baby weighed 8½ pounds. The palace said he would be christened Albert Alexandre Louis Pierre. The baby displaces his 13-month-old sister Princess Caroline in the line of succession to his father, Prince Rainier, Monaco's 31st sovereign. The boom of the 101-gun salute — it would have been only 21 for a girl — set off wild rejoicing in the 367-acre principality on the French Riviera. The little prince was born at 10:50 a.m. in the royal apartments where Caroline had arrived Jan. 23, 1957. The Parisian baby specialist here for the birth, Dr. Emile Hervet, had been called to the bedside of the former movie queen at 8. Prince Rainier and Grace's mother Mrs. John B. Kelly of Philadelphia also were on hand. The new baby had light brown hair and was reported in bouncing health. He measured 20 inches long as he lay on the baby scales. The 28-year-old mother, the former Grace Kelly, also was reported in excellent health throughout her pregnancy and took a long walk yesterday with her mother. The news spread through the postage-stamp principality in seconds and wild cheers went up. Yachts and boats in Monte Carlo's harbor left loose with sirens and whistles.

Cadillac

It's an Easy Step from Dreaming to Driving!

Here he is at last—just a few miles out on his maiden journey—with his hands on the wheel and his head in the clouds. It's his!

And yet, truth to tell, he does have one regret. For he knows that he needn't have waited this long, had he but realized what an easy step it is from dreaming of a Cadillac to driving in a Cadillac.

Like a great many motorists, for instance, he was not aware that a Cadillac—in view of its obvious virtues—could be so modest in price.

Nor did he appreciate, until the facts were presented, how economical a Cadillac is to maintain or how wonderfully it holds its value over the years.

And little did he suspect how accommodating his dealer would be in welcoming him to membership in the great and distinguished family of Cadillac owners.

So, if you have your heart set on a Cadillac, you should hesitate no longer to investigate this happy set of circumstances.

In fact, why not visit your dealer today? He will be happy to help you select your favorite Cadillac model with your favorite Fleetwood interior—be it the luxurious Sixty-Two Coupe or the magnificent Eldorado Brougham.

T&P Official, Music Firm Aid Ball Park Fund Drive

The vice president of the Texas and Pacific Railway and a local music company gave a push today to the Moose Lodge's drive for a new Little League baseball field.

The T&P official, L. C. Porter of Dallas, sent in a check for $50 after hearing of Big Spring's need,

Judge Rules On Parochial Buses

AUGUSTA, Maine (AP)—A ruling that the public transportation of parochial school children presumably would be constitutional has been issued by a Maine Superior Court judge.

Judge Harold C. Marden's ruling came while denying a petition by the Augusta Taxpayers Assn. to enjoin the city from using a token $250 appropriation to provide bus service for the children of two Augusta parochial schools.

according to Sam Burns, Moose Lodge governor.

Anderson Music Co. of Big Spring offered to provide the home plate and pitchers plate for the ball parks at a total cost of $27.60.

Burns reported the total collected thus far amounts to $1,572.60, with $10,000 as the goal. He added that the Moose Lodge expects to glean $1,000 for the drive from the Dr. Morton Greene stage show slated next month.

Sharing A Laugh

President Eisenhower shares a laugh in Washington with George Meany, center, president of the AFL-CIO, and Walter Reuther, president of the United Auto Workers Union. This occurred as the President posed with labor leaders who called on him at the White House. On a serious note, the callers told Eisenhower the recession is growing worse and requires immediate tax cutting and public works remedies.

Texas Business Men Indicate They Would Back Sales Tax

HOUSTON (AP)—Business spokesmen hinted today they would back a general sales tax and said if Texas must have new taxes, they should show a "friendly attitude" toward wealth-creating enterprises.

The Texas Manufacturers Assn. told the Tax Study Commission the Legislature "holds the whip-handle" and the lash of taxation may either damage or assure the state's future economy.

While the TMA—generally regarded as the voice of big business—did not recommend any specific tax, it suggested future taxes be on a "broad base" and strongly indicated a leaning toward a general sales tax.

The TMA's brief was filed with the commission, holding its third public hearing here today and welcoming all individuals and groups in this area to have their say.

Other groups to appear were the Texas Brewers' Institute and the Tax Research Assn. of Houston.

The TMA brief was prepared by D. O. Tomlin, president, and Ed Burris, executive vice-president.

It represented the views of 3,000 manufacturers and related businesses.

The commission will report its fact findings to the Legislature in January, 1959.

The TMA urged elimination of "useless frills" in state government, said the tax base has been so narrow "that many people are not aware that they pay any state taxes at all."

S'Water School Paper Cited

NEW YORK (AP)—Texas high schools and colleges fared well in Columbia University's student newspaper and magazine contests.

Texas schools dotted the list of winners, picked from more than 1,400 entries.

Texas A&M publications took top place in three categories.

There were five winners in each category, top honor being medalist.

Texas winners included:

- The Pioneer, Austin High, 80 Pao, second in the contest for newspapers for schools of more than 2,500 students.
- First place winners to 1,500-2,500 classification:

Surplus Food For Families

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP)—Surplus foods were on hand for distribution today to about 250 Hamilton County families certified by the County Welfare Department.

About 350 families in the city were issued a month's supply of foods yesterday in the second distribution of surplus commodities this winter by the City Relief Bureau.

Mrs. Sue Lee, bureau director, said the food came from the Tennessee Department of Agriculture and included meal, flour, cheese, rice and powdered milk.

A month ago, 176 families received surplus food.

Asbury Black Jr., district manager of the Tennessee Department of Employment Security, said 10,400 persons, or 8.8 per cent of the total labor force, were unemployed in the Greater Chattanooga area as of Feb. 15. The district includes Hamilton County, Tenn., and Walker County, Ga.

School Bus Tragedy Averted

REEDSPORT, Ore. (AP)—A school bus, which only a short time before had been loaded with some 50 grade school pupils, plunged over a high bank into a field near here yesterday.

The bus driver, Harold Andrews, 55—the only occupant—was dead inside. He apparently suffered a fatal heart seizure, said Deputy Coroner Jack Ungar.

First reports, relayed here by radio, that the bus had plunged into nearby Smith River sent a wave of panic through this southern Oregon coastal town. It was thought that the children might still have been aboard.

The children had been let off earlier, however, and Andrews was en route to pick up another load when he was stricken.

No Tax Chance

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—Tax Commission Chairman Joe Dunn said yesterday he sees no chance for Oklahoma's falling tax revenues to increase next year.

Sumatra Rebels Got U.S. Aid, Official Says

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP)—Premier Djuanda claimed today that American-made arms and ammunition were dropped to the Central Sumatran rebels a few hours before Central Government troops captured the oil center of Pekanbaru.

"The arms could have been purchased from the United States by private persons who have become stooges of the rebels," he told newsmen.

The left-wing newspaper Bintang Timur said the weapons were dropped from an Australian air force plane. This was denied by Australian Ambassador L. R. McIntyre.

A. H. Arnold, attorney for the American-owned Caltex Oil Co., said he hopes the Central Government will allow his company to resume operations in the Pekanbaru area. Arnold said Caltex employees in Pekanbaru reported all Americans safe and the oil installations undamaged.

Caltex has 125 million dollars worth of installations in the fields near Pekanbaru and at Sumatra east coast ports captured by the Jakarta forces. Ships with food and supplies now are en route from Singapore to Caltex workers.

REBELS GIVE UP

A correspondent of the government's Antara News Agency reported from Pekanbaru that large numbers of rebel troops fled after throwing away their arms, or surrendered.

Three hours after the government paratrooper landing, life was back to normal in Pekanbaru, Antara said.

During the past week's clashes at Pekanbaru and three east coast islands, the rebels have either skirmished briefly or headed for the jungle before government troops arrived.

Rebel sources in Singapore indicated this was part of a plan to lure government forces away from the shore into the Sumatran wilds, where the rebels can wage a guerrilla war.

In Jakarta, a nine-man parliamentary commission reported it had made no progress at working out an agreement between President Sukarno and former Vice President Mohammed Hatta, whom the rebels want installed as premier to give the outer islands a better economic deal, and purge the government of Communists.

The commission said Sukarno insisted on carrying on his own negotiations with Hatta, which also have not produced an agreement.

Mysterious Skunk Perfumes House

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. (AP)—Somewhere in the house shared by Miss Amanda Glick and Miss Clara Schlabach there is a skunk. Of that they are certain. But where is the skunk?

With the help of Sheriff's Sgt. Leonard Logan the two elementary school teachers took the house apart—literally, when it came to the front porch steps—but found no skunk.

"They slept last night with windows open and incense burning. 'But what do we do next?' asked Miss Glick.

Income Tax—Texans are already paying $1,300,000,000 in federal taxes on the highly graduated scale. A state income tax if levied should not be graduated.

Tax on corporations—Such taxes are withheld from stockholders or extracted from pockets of customers in goods or services rendered. If imposed on this "already overtaxed" group, industrial growth would suffer and capital investment be frightened away.

Manufacturers gross receipts—A bad tax on any level—and doubly so on the state since many manufacturers can operate elsewhere. The price of goods would rise disproportionately. Only one other state has such a tax and reports from it indicate industry is locating elsewhere.

The commission has held public meetings in Dallas and San Antonio. It goes next to Abilene March 28 and hopes to have another session soon in East Texas.

The commission is a group of lawmakers and laymen set up by the last Legislature to make a full study of the Texas tax structure and report its fact findings in January 1959.

That is when the Legislature meets to grapple with a mounting deficit. Taxes have been raised on a piecemeal basis, but no coordinated plan for financing has been worked out.

Here's View Of New Restaurant

This is a section of the new dining room of the enlarged and remodeled 66 Cafe on West Highway 80. The area, which can be transformed into a private dining room for private club gatherings or parties, is paneled in rich birch wood and has new fixtures throughout. The entire restaurant has been modernized, with kitchen space tripled and much new equipment added. Herb Vinson is manager.

New 66 Cafe To Observe 'Open House' Saturday

The 66 Cafe, enlarged, remodeled and redecorated throughout, will observe its formal opening all day Saturday.

The public is being invited to inspect the new facilities and free coffee and doughnuts (ice cream for the youngsters) will be served from 9 to 11 a.m. and from 2:30 to 5 p.m. Herb Vinson, manager, announced. The establishment is on West Highway 80.

Visitors probably will have difficulty in recognizing the new restaurant as incorporating the old 66 Cafe. Interior has been re-arranged completely, and a spacious dining room has been added. Size of the kitchen has been tripled, and much new equipment has been installed, including an exhaust system that changes air in the kitchen every 90 seconds.

New fixtures have been custom built for the restaurant, and the building is year-round weather conditioned with heat pumps and refrigeration equipment.

The large dining room added to the north side of the building is equipped with folding birch-panel doors which may be used to seal it off for private gatherings. Parties of up to 70 persons can be accommodated comfortably, Vinson said.

The birch paneling is used throughout the private dining area and is utilized effectively in the interior finish of the front dining section.

Booths and chairs are upholstered in a turquoise fabric and the same color is featured by the bamboo drapes. Shrimp was selected as the plaster color, and mirrors have been used extensively by the decorator.

The entire interior of the kitchen—walls and ceiling—have been sheathed in formica for sanitation and ease of cleaning. Modern rest rooms have been added.

Entrance to the building has been redesigned and plans call for paving the large parking area in the immediate future. Originally, it had been planned to have the paving completed in time for the formal opening, but continuous unfavorable weather has made that impossible, Vinson explained.

Capacity of the restaurant has been doubled by the remodeling and enlarging project. The parking area is adequate for a crowd of restaurant capacity.

Vinson said he wishes to express appreciation to the many patrons of the restaurant who have endured the inconvenience of the construction work while the expansion has been under way.

The manager said K. H. McGibbon and Herbert Keaton, owners of the building, have spared no expense in making the restaurant one of the most attractive

First Christian Delegation Will Attend Meeting

The Rev. Clyde Nichols, pastor of the First Christian Church, will head a delegation from the local church to the district convention at Snyder Sunday afternoon. Evening services here will be cancelled in order that members may take part in the Snyder event.

Registration will be at First Christian Church, Snyder, at 2 p.m. During the afternoon there will be sectional meetings for the high school youth (CYF), for the intermediates (H.I.R.H.O.), and for the CMF and CWF. The afternoon speaker will be J. E. MacDonald, association secretary of the Texas Board of Christian Churches for West Texas.

District CYF will have charge of the evening worship. The Rev. Clyde Foltz, minister of Midland Memorial Christian Church, will be featured speaker. A report will also be heard from Fred Holland, director of the church camp at Lake Brownwood. Separate banquets are scheduled for the adults and the young people.

Approximately 35 Big Springers are planning to attend the convention. Among these are committeemen Wendal Parks, nominating; Don Williams, time and place; and John Porter, resolutions. The Rev. Nichols is program chairman.

City Tax Revenues Gain In February

A large delinquent tax collection during February upped the city tax department's total revenue to over $13,000, some $4,600 above the same month of 1957.

Total tax department revenue during February was $13,391.19, compared with $8,701.95 during February of 1957. And of the total last month, $7,369.79 came from delinquent taxes. The delinquent revenue was $4,674.33 above February of 1957, and the department's increase over the same month of 1947 was $4,689.24.

Current taxes were down $670.34 (to $4,464.93), according to the monthly report from the department. Interest, penalties, and costs on delinquent taxes totaled $1,090.75, compared with $407.46 for February of 1957, however.

The increase in delinquent collections is partially due to work by the city attorney, Wayne Basden, who has been working old accounts for both the city and school district.

For 11 months of the fiscal year, total tax department revenue is $398,762.30, an increase of $26,516.92 over the same time of last year. Current taxes naturally accounted for most of the income, $359,194.83. This is $19,067.33 over the same time of 1957.

Delinquent tax collections amounted to $26,149.83, and $5,156.21 came on interest and penalties on back taxes. Occupation taxes ran $3,408.96, and the tax franchise contributed $1,078.22.

The city secretary's report for February showed the city's bonded indebtedness at $1,235,500 tax bonds and $1,411,000 revenue bonds as against $1,242,500 and $1,466,000, respectively, at the end of January of this year.

During February, the city metered 103,964,800 gallons of water to customers, an increase of 13,752,600 over February of last year. Water and sewer bills during February amounted to $52,110.35, or $3,793.92 more than the same time of 1957.

General fund receipts amounted to $27,465.66 including $6,095.47 from the gas franchise and $4,711 from corporation court fines. Auditorium rental contributed $230, and $135 came from electrical permits. Building permit fees totaled $134. Dog taxes amounted to $142.25.

Fishing and boating permits brought in $180, and revenue from peddler registration fees amounted to $157.50.

The city received $420 from sale of cemetery lots and got $237.50 for opening graves. Special care of lots brought in $129.

At the golf course, nine-hole green fees contributed $36, and golfers paid $215 for day-play cards.

Special Programs Set For Sunday In Several Big Spring Churches

Several Big Spring churches have special programs planned for Sunday.

Dr. Franklin E. Swanner, Plainview evangelist, will begin revival services at the East Fourth St. Baptist Church Sunday morning. Rev. E. Otis Moore, first pastor of St. Paul Presbyterian Church, will return to the pulpit Sunday morning to open a day-long observance of the church's fifth anniversary.

A program of special music, to be presented by the Pasadena High School Choir, is scheduled for Sunday evening at the First Methodist Church.

John Stevens, Abilene minister, is to preach Sunday at the 14th and Main Church of Christ, in the absence of the pastor. There will be no Sunday evening service at the First Christian Church because members and leaders will be in Snyder for a district convention.

Here is the complete schedule of activities in local churches:

Baptist
Dr. P. D. O'Brien, First Baptist pastor, will deliver a sermon on "Our Debt to Grace" at the morning worship hour, with text from 1 Cor. 15:10. His evening message will be "What Do We Mean By Conversion?", Acts 15:3. "Our Four Selves", 2 Cor. 13:5 is the sermon topic announced by the Rev. D. R. Phillely at Phillips Memorial Church Sunday morning. At the evening hour he will preach on "The Traveler On The Jericho Road", Luke 10:30-37.

At Calvary Baptist Church, the congregation will hear the Rev. J. H. McWilliams ask "What Think Ye Of Christ?" Text will be Matt. 22:42. "Satisfaction Guaranteed" is his topic for the evening hour, with text from Matt. 11:28-30.

The Rev. A. R. Posey will occupy the pulpit of Baptist Temple at both services Sunday. In the morning he will speak on "The Plan of Salvation." The Rev. R. B. Murray, Northside Baptist, will deliver Sunday sermons on "Building With God", Neh. 4:14, and "A Call For Today", Heb. 3:13.

"Sin And A Sinner's Saviour" and "Deliverance From Judgment" will be the Rev. H. L. Bingham's messages Sunday at Hillcrest Baptist Church.

Dr. Franklin E. Swanner of Plainview, mission secretary for District 9, Baptist General Convention of Texas, will be conducting revival services at the East Fourth Baptist Church beginning Sunday and continuing through the following Sunday. R. B. Hall Jr., a local boy who is a senior student at Hardin-Simmons University, will lead the singing.

The Rev. Ernest D. Stewart Jr., pastor of the church, urges all to attend services throughout the week, at 10 a. m. and 8 p. m., with evening prayer meetings scheduled at 7:30.

Catholic
Mass will be said by the Rev. Fr. William J. Moore at 7 a. m.

St. Paul Presbyterian To Observe Fifth Anniversary

Next week marks the fifth anniversary of St. Paul Presbyterian Church and special services will be held Sunday.

First pastor of the church, the Rev. E. Otis Moore, now associate pastor of the First Southern Presbyterian Church, Austin, will preach at the 11 o'clock service. The angel choir will sing "When I Go to Church" by West and the adult and fellowship choirs will sing "O God of Might" by Black. Dinner will be served to the congregation after the worship service.

In the afternoon, an informal program will be presented at 2 p. m. Motion pictures of past events at the church will be shown by Harvey Carmack, Leola Edwards and Bobbie Peters will present a skit on the history of the church. Several out of town guests and former members are expected for the services.

The First Presbyterian Church of Big Spring interested several of its members in Presbyterian work in the east part of the city in the summer of 1952. With the help of the Church Extension Committee of El Paso Presbytery of which Dr. R. Gage Lloyd was chairman at the time, a building was erected at Birdwell Lane and Wood. First services were held in the and 11 a. m. at St. Thomas Catholic Church. Confession will be heard from 5:30 to 6 p. m. and 8 p. m. on Saturday. Benediction will follow the last mass.

At the Sacred Heart (Spanish speaking) Church, Mass will be held at 8 a. m. and 10:30 a. m. Sunday. Confessions will be heard on Saturday from 5-6 p. m. and 7-8 p. m. Benediction will be at 5:30 p. m. on Sunday.

Mass will be said Sunday at 8:30 p. m. in Coahoma at St. Joseph's Mission by the Rev. Fr. Adolph Metzger, OMI.

Christian
First Christian congregation will hear the Rev. Clyde Nichols in a sermon on "Christ Abides Forever", John 12:34. Sunday morning the choir, under the direction of Orland Johnson, is to sing "A Psalm of Praise", Lorenz.

Services for the evening are being cancelled in order that many from the congregation may be in Snyder to attend the district convention, which convenes at 3 p. m.

Christian Science
The healing and saving power of faith when it is advanced to spiritual understanding, will be brought out at Christian Science services Sunday.

Scriptural readings in the Lesson-Sermon on "Substance" will include the following from James 2:14: "What doth it profit, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith, and have not works?"

Church of Christ
In the absence of the minister, T. E. Cudd, the congregation at Main St. Church of Christ will hear sermons by John Stevens, Abilene.

Church of God
Sermons announced by the Rev. W. Ward Jackson for the First Church of God are "The Beauty of the Church" and "The Fiery Furnace".

Episcopal
All services of St. Mary's Episcopal Church will be held in the new sanctuary at 10th and Gollad.

The Living Word
Morning services begin at 10 at The Church of the Living Word, 1201 West Third, announced the pastor, the Rev. Lee F. Shell Jr. who will also occupy the pulpit for the 7:30 p. m. worship service. Worship hours begin at 7:30 p. m. each Tuesday and Friday.

'Evangelism of the Church

WAYS IN WHICH WE MAY SPREAD THE GOSPEL OF CHRIST

Scripture—Mark 5:18-20; Luke 8:26-39; 10:1-8; Acts 5:14; 1 Thessalonians 1:6-10.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL
AS JESUS stepped ashore from a ship at Gadara on Galilee's eastern shore, "there met Him out of the city a certain man, which had devils long time, and wore no clothes, neither abode in any house, but in the tombs." In the mountains of Gadarenes were many caves and rock-tombs where the demons lived.

"When he saw Jesus, he cried out, and fell down before Him, and with a loud voice said, What have I to do with Thee, Jesus, Thou Son of God most high? I beseech Thee, torment me not. (For He had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For oftentimes it had caught him; and he was kept bound with chains and in fetters; and he brake the bands, and was driven into the wilderness)." Luke 8:27-29.

Jesus then asked him a simple question: "What is thy name?" "And he said, Legion; because many devils were entered into him."

MEMORY VERSE
"Show how great things God hath done unto thee."—St. Luke 8:39.

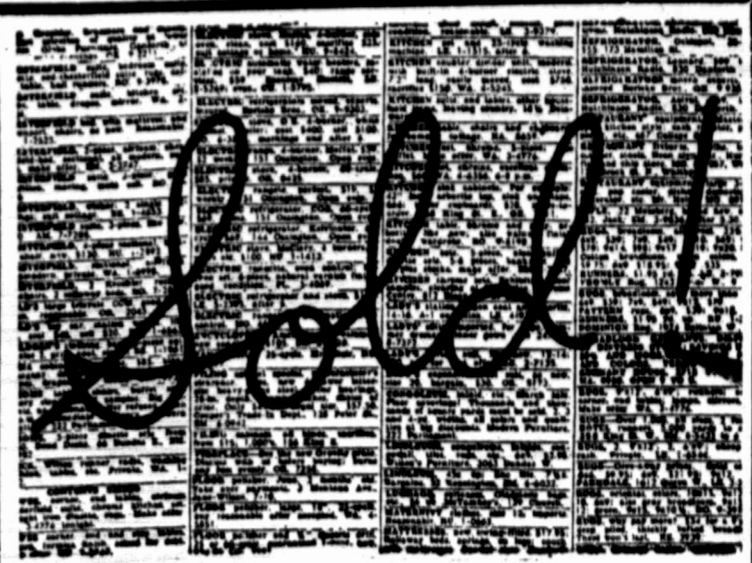

Then the spirits made a strange request of Jesus: "They besought Him that He would not command them to go out into the deep."

A herd of swine was feeding near at hand and the demons begged that they might enter into them. Jesus agreed, and "the devils went out of the man, and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the lake, and were choked."—Luke 8:33.

When the men who fed the swine saw this, "they fled, and went and told it in the city and in the country." Then they returned to Jesus, "and found the man, out of whom the devils were departed, sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed, and in his right mind; and they were afraid."

The people who lived in that part of the country were also filled with fear, and they begged Christ to go away, "and He went."

FOUNDATIONS

You have to go down if you want to go up! That sounds like foolishness, but it isn't.

If you plan to build a garage, you don't need to dig very much before you lay the foundation. But if you plan to rival a modern skyscraper, you must start deep below the earth's surface.

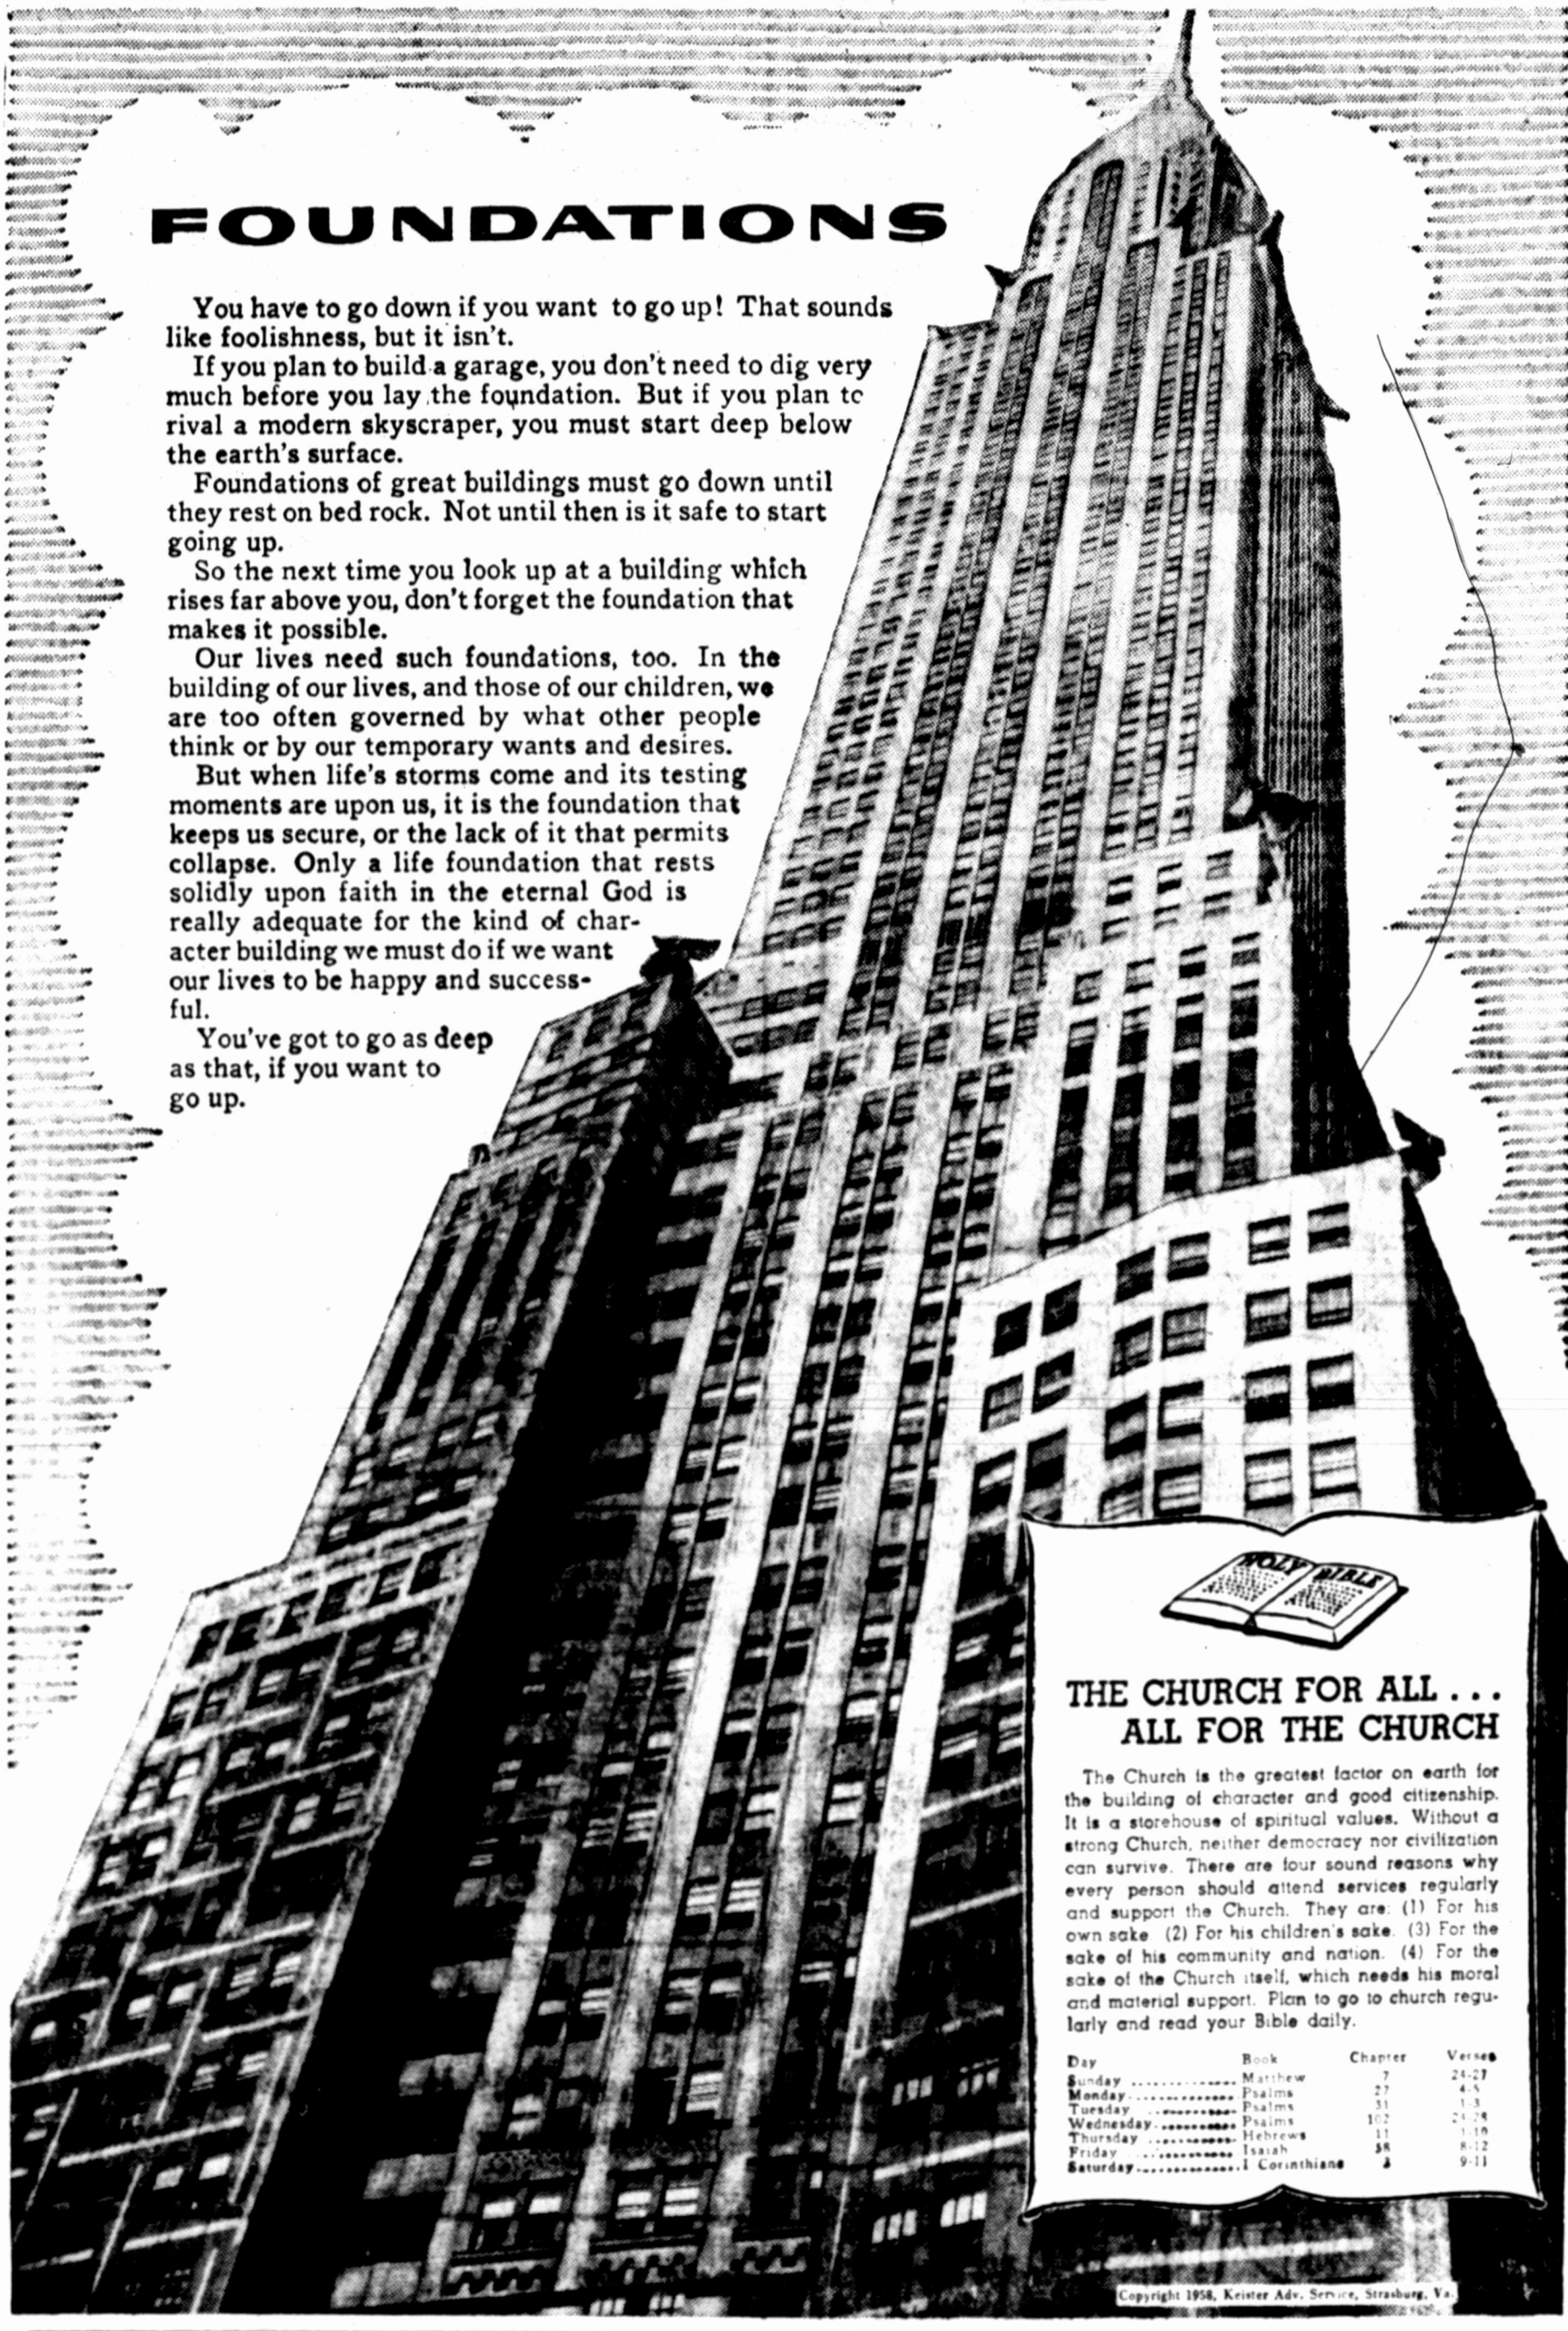

Foundations of great buildings must go down until they rest on bed rock. Not until then is it safe to start going up.

So the next time you look up at a building which rises far above you, don't forget the foundation that makes it possible.

Our lives need such foundations, too. In the building of our lives, and those of our children, we are too often governed by what other people think or by our temporary wants and desires.

But when life's storms come and its testing moments are upon us, it is the foundation that keeps us secure, or the lack of it that permits collapse. Only a life foundation that rests solidly upon faith in the eternal God is really adequate for the kind of character building we must do if we want our lives to be happy and successful.

You've got to go as deep as that, if you want to go up.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake (2) For his children's sake (3) For the sake of his community and nation (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Coach With New Catches

Hank Watkins (center), assistant football coach at the University of Houston looks over the athletic 'letter of intent' with two Big Spring boys he signed to attend the school. Danny Birdwell (left) and Knox Pitzer are the athletes. Birdwell was an all-district guard. Pitzer played both guard and tackle.

MOSER, ROGER START FOR HERD SATURDAY

Roy Baird's Big Spring Steers seek revenge for a defeat handed them earlier this week in a baseball doubleheader with Andrews, set to begin at 1 p.m. here Saturday. Both engagements are down for seven innings. A seventh inning run stopped the Steers in Andrews Tuesday. The Bovines had deadlocked the score with a two-run outburst in the top half of the round but the Ponies scored in their half of the frame before the Steers could retire a batter. Lefty Chubby Moser and Billy Roger both showed to advantage in their mound work for the Steers in the opening game. The LeFevre twins, Jay and Zay, Kenny (Rock) Johnson, Terry Stanley, Eston Hollis and John Curtis are other Steer hurlers who could see action tomorrow.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

Time was, a few years back, when basketball experts insisted a team that couldn't pass couldn't possibly win.

Pampa, the new State AAAA champion, put the lie to that. The Harvesters were no great passing team. Instead, Coach Clifton McNeely emphasized dribbling, apparently theorizing that the opposition would invariably foul in trying to get the ball. The strategy worked to near perfection. In none of their four play-off games (against Fort Worth Paschal, Big Spring, Dallas Woodrow Wilson and Port Arthur) did the Harvesters have an edge in shooting from the field. Only against Woodrow Wilson did Pampa make as many field goals — each team had 20.

The Harvesters, however, proved Dead Eye Dicks at the foul line, winning all four games by converting penalty shots.

Alvin Green, the Webb AFB lad who fights Donnie Fleeman for the Lightweight boxing championship (professional version) of Texas in Odessa April 7, once held the crown.

He beat Fleeman in 12 rounds in April 1956, while only an 18-year-old. Fleeman shaded him in a return bout to claim the title in October of that same year.

Alvin has been in the Air Force for over ten months and is assigned to Support Squadron at the local base. He has contributed his talents and experience to the Base boxing team by giving instruction and by acting as the team coach.

He plans to weigh in right at 175 pounds, the limit. He stands 5-feet-11 and has a 31-inch waist and a 17-inch neck.

The Tyler youth considers his most valuable weapon to be fast, persistent punching.

"I'm not a real heavy hitter," says he, "but I like to move in on my opponent with as many fast punches as I can."

Of the 18 fights Green has won, six were KO's.

Alvin is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Green of Lake Charles, La. The younger scrapper is a new bridegroom. He took unto himself a wife, the former Loretta Grace Winn of Columbus, Texas, on George Washington's birthday.

Green is the only man ever to conquer Fleeman, his April 7 opponent. Donnie has won 17 of 18 starts. Donnie is quite a boxer but can reach back and come up with that kayo punch when he needs it. It should be quite a fight.

Gene Tunney, the one-time Heavyweight boxing champion, has his hand in 12 different business concerns and dabbles in real estate, paper, banks, timber, coal and rubber.

Of the 14 events staged in the university class of the Border Olympics in Laredo last weekend, 13 were won by boys who will take part in the ABC Relays here April 5.

Emmett Smallwood of Texas A&M copped the broadjump with a leap of 23 feet 4 inches. Otherwise, it was a sweep for ABC entries.

Incidentally, Jack Smyth of Houston finished second in that event with a leap of 22 feet 10 1/2 inches, and Smyth will be making his second appearance in the ABC meet this year.

Boxer Ray Robinson has been offered a job by a theatre-TV group as the result of the know-how he showed in setting up the closed circuit for his upcoming bout with Carmine Abilio.

HIGH SCHOOL ATHLETES IN RECREATION SHOW

FORT WORTH — The schoolboys, more than 1,000 strong, open the biggest Southwestern Recreation Track and Field Meet of them all today. They are expected to start a landslide of records, most of which should come from collegians. Eddie Southern and Joe Villarreal of Texas, Bobby Morrow of Abilene Christian and Bertil Holmgren, the leaping Swede of SMU. The college athletes swing into action tomorrow.

This afternoon some 85 high school athletes in preliminaries and a smattering of finals with Abilene favored to take the championship over Byrd of Shreveport, the 1957 king. Tommy Minter of Gladewater could wipe out the broad jump record of 22 feet 10 1/2 inches that has stood for 14 years. The Gladewater star did 24 feet 3 1/2 inches last season. The Andrews sprint relay team that has whipped up 43.5 might erase the record of 43.4 and Abilene was only two-tenths of a second over the mile relay record of 3:26.2 at the Border Olympics last week. Six to nine records are likely in the university class in which Texas is defending champion and has competition from nine other schools. The college division, also filled with record potentials, has 16 teams and the junior college class has drawn 17.

Total entry of 1,540 track men from 128 schools is the all-time high for this 35-year-old meet, bettering last year's record 1,473.

Also today 73 colleges and high schools will stage a golf tournament. There are 16 in the university - college division, 13 in the junior college-freshman class and 44 high schools. The total individuals is 380, giving the combined track-golf meet a total entry of 1,920-100 more than the record number of last year.

At 9:20, HCJC's Bobby Blumh was to get off, in company with Carl Jones, Jerry Lance and Larry Flowers. Bunky Grimes of the Hawks, playing with Jesse Brown, Jimmy Nutt and Travis Sharp, was to leave the first tee at 11 a.m. Donald Lovelady of the Big Spring collegians was to start at 12:40 p.m., with Pat Williams, Don Achziger and Ed Moore. The tournament is to continue through Saturday.

Four Ex-Champs Go After Cage Crowns Tonight

By The Associated Press
Ten of the nation's top teams, four of them former champions, join six unranked quintets tonight in college basketball's title-seeking parade.

The NCAA has the big-school field all to itself today in four regional tournaments. The NIT in New York takes a day off after opening round victories by St. John's of New York and St. Joseph's of Philadelphia.

Among the small colleges, two upstarts, South Dakota and St. Michaels of Vermont, meet in Evansville, Ind., for NCAA small college crown after upset victories in the semifinals.

In Kansas City, the semifinals of the NAIA match defending champion Tennessee State and Texas Southern in one game and unbeaten Western Illinois and Georgetown of Kentucky in the other. The winners meet Saturday night for the championship.

Tonight's NCAA double-headers at Charlotte, N.C., Lexington, Ky., Lawrence, Kan., and San Francisco will reduce the field to 16 teams for the regional finals Saturday, four of which will remain to battle it out at Louisville March 21-22.

Indiana, Oklahoma State, Kentucky and San Francisco are the former champions among the NCAA contenders but they are not involved in the two big games on tonight's card.

One is the clash at Lawrence between high-scoring and second-ranked Cincinnati, starring All America Oscar Robertson, the nation's top individual point getter, and third-ranked Kansas State, led by talented Bob Boozer.

The other is at Charlotte, where All America Guy Rodgers leads the fifth-ranked Temple Owls in quest of their 24th straight victory. They have lost two of their previous 28 games, 66-40. St. Michael's turned back highly regarded Evansville 78-70.

The NAIA ran mostly true to form as Western Illinois chalked up its 25th successive victory with a 70-47 demolition of Youngstown and Tennessee State whipped Texas 81-62. Texas Southern gained the round of four by turning back Coe 98-78 and Georgetown upset West Virginia Wesleyan 83-74.

St. John's got off on the right foot in the NIT after a slow start by downing Butler 83-72. St. Joseph's moved up with a 49-72 conquest of St. Peter's of Jersey City.

The semifinals of the NCAA small college tourney produced the big surprises. South Dakota tripped defending champion Wheaton, winner of its previous 28 games, 66-40. St. Michael's turned back highly regarded Evansville 78-70.

The semifinals of the NCAA small college tourney produced the big surprises. South Dakota tripped defending champion Wheaton, winner of its previous 28 games, 66-40. St. Michael's turned back highly regarded Evansville 78-70.

The NAIA ran mostly true to form as Western Illinois chalked up its 25th successive victory with a 70-47 demolition of Youngstown and Tennessee State whipped Texas 81-62. Texas Southern gained the round of four by turning back Coe 98-78 and Georgetown upset West Virginia Wesleyan 83-74.

St. John's got off on the right foot in the NIT after a slow start by downing Butler 83-72. St. Joseph's moved up with a 49-72 conquest of St. Peter's of Jersey City.

Base Hits Needed, Says Yank Skipper

By The Associated Press
Aside from the Milwaukee fan who sent a weeping willow tree to New York Manager Casey Stengel: It made O' Casey mad. But that's not the only reason Stengel is angry. His Yankees need some willows with base hits in them.

The American League champs dropped a 1-0 verdict to the Boston Red Sox for their fifth loss and third whitewashing in six exhibition starts.

After the game, Stengel alerted regulars Hank Bauer, Bill Skowron and Gil McDougald. "Be ready to work by the weekend," he told the tender-arm trio. "We gotta win a ball game pretty soon."

In commenting on the $45 bill he received from a tree nursery in Wisconsin for "one weeping willow delivered at Glendale, Calif.," Stengel's home," Casey said, "The guy who pulled the joke is going to find it expensive because the willow goes right back unless the New York club wants to pay for it."

The Yankees managed only six hits off Frank Sullivan, George Sussie and Al Schroll. Billy Conso got the winning hit for Boston, a long single to left center after Sammy White's double in the third inning.

Milwaukee raked Johnny Podres for six runs in the first two innings as the Braves defeated the Los Angeles Dodgers 8-2. Doubles by Andy Paiko, Johnny Logan and Felix Mantilla featured a four-run outburst by the Braves in the second inning. Felipe Montemayor honored for Los Angeles.

The San Francisco Giants clobbered the Chicago Cubs 13-2 behind the slugging of Daryl Spencer, who had two home runs and a pair of singles.

In other games, Roy McMillan hit a three-run homer and led Cincinnati to a 7-3 triumph over Pittsburgh; rookie Bob Shaw pitched six sparkling innings as Detroit beat Kansas City 8-6; Minnie Minoso's third-inning double drove in the only runs as Cleveland blanked Baltimore 2-0; Washington clubbed Jack Sanford for eight runs in whipping Philadelphia 9-1; and Gene Green's single in the 14th enabled St. Louis to nip the Chicago White Sox 3-2.

Barrett's mark at Laredo is 11 seconds under the mile record here set by R. D. Ross of Lamesa in 1956.

Another state champion of last spring, Bud Morgan of Snyder, will compete here Saturday. Morgan won the 180-yard low hurdles in the state meet last year. Morgan also holds the Canyon Reef low hurdles mark at 19.6.

Several of the teams were entered in the Comanche Relays at Fort Stockton two weeks ago and the Possum Kingdom Relays at Graham last week, both meets of which were canceled because of inclement weather.

Preliminaries will begin at 9 a.m. Saturday with the finals slated for 2 p.m.

AT SNYDER SATURDAY Steers One Of 18 Teams In Meet

Other teams entered for Saturday's meet here are San Angelo, Lake View, Sweetwater, Colorado City, Lamesa, Midland, Odessa, Levelland, Littlefield, Dumas, Borger, Pampa, Plainview, Tom S. of Lubbock, Monterey of Lubbock and Snyder.

One of the feature races Saturday will be the mile run where Bobby Cunningham of Littlefield, defending state champion, will run against Bobby Barrett of Midland, who won the mile at the Border Olympics last weekend at Laredo in a record 4:29.3.

Steerettes Open Tourney Play At 7:30 O'Clock

Big Spring, the defending champion, is one of the favorites in the 14-team Plainview Girls' Invitational volleyball tournament, which gets under way today and continues through Saturday.

The Steerettes, boasting an 18-2 record, and tournament successes at Odessa and Lamesa, as well as in their own meet, take on Dalhart in their first round game at 7:30 o'clock this evening. Other first round pairings, listed with starting times (all games today and tonight): Phillips vs Plainview, 3 p.m.; Pampa vs Plainview B, 3:45 p.m.; Snyder vs Olton, 4:30 p.m.; Nazareth vs Canyon, 5:15 p.m.; Lamesa vs Levelland, 6 p.m.; Seminole vs Kress, 9 p.m.

If Big Spring wins, it tangles with the survivor in the Nazareth-Canyon battle at 11:45 a.m. Saturday. A loss would send it into the consolation bracket and book it for an 8:45 a.m. contest tomorrow.

Consolation finals are scheduled for 6:15 p.m. Saturday. The engagement for third place is down for 7:45 p.m. The title goes on the line at 8:30 p.m.

Three exhibition games involving college teams will be played during the tournament and two of them involve HCJC's Jayhawk Queens.

The Queens play Wayland at 8:15 p.m. tonight, and Texas Tech at 7 o'clock Saturday evening. Tech and Wayland live at 4:15 p.m. tomorrow.

Lakeview Cagers Play Sweetwater

Lakeview's All-Stars of Big Spring play Sweetwater in an exhibition basketball game at 7:30 o'clock this evening in the Lakeview Gym.

Admission prices have been set at 50 and 25 cents.

Sweetwater is the only team to have conquered Lakeview this season, having kayoed the locals, 115-105. Lakeview has won five games.

Those who will play for Lakeview include Ernest Byrd Jr., Charles Evans, Arthur Jones, Billy Weatherall, Charles Marshall, John Thomas and Roy Collins.

Robert Allen and H. T. Baker will officiate the game.

Poss Leads Garden City To Victory

STERLING CITY (SC)—Led by Delnor Poss, the Garden City Independents walloped Sterling City, 88-42, in a practice basketball tilt Thursday night.

Poss, former H.S. star and now coach at Garden City High School, tossed in 35 points for the winners. Both teams are entered in the upcoming tournament at Garden City.

Rats Subdue Sport Quint

The Rats subdued the Sports Thursday in the finals of the basketball tournament conducted in Johnny Johnson's PE classes at the local high school. The tally was 50-14.

The Roadrunners copped third place by shaming the Wolves in an overtime period, 21-19.

Members of the all-tournament team included Dennis Dunn, John Roy Phillips and Dave Montgomery, all members of the championship club; Dale Stannalind and Charles Sunnersell, both of the Sports; Dickie Gregory, Roadrunners; Jerry Beard, Trotters; Jimmy Parkhill, Wolves; and Jimmy Harris and Jerry Denton, both of the Rats.

The high point player for the tournament was Phillips, who scored 36 points in four games.

The PE class will now stage a three-weeks' bowling tournament at Clover Bowl. Use of the alleys has been offered by George Steakley, owner.

Scott First Hawk On Tee In Meet

Howard County Junior College's four golfers tee off at widely separated times in the Southwestern Recreational meet at Fort Worth today.

The university and junior college linkers are playing at the Meadowbrook course.

Gerald Scott of the Jayhawks got off at 8:20 a.m. in a foursome which had Kelly Skipper, Rives McBee and Danny Mason as other members.

At 9:20, HCJC's Bobby Blumh was to get off, in company with Carl Jones, Jerry Lance and Larry Flowers.

Bunky Grimes of the Hawks, playing with Jesse Brown, Jimmy Nutt and Travis Sharp, was to leave the first tee at 11 a.m.

Donald Lovelady of the Big Spring collegians was to start at 12:40 p.m., with Pat Williams, Don Achziger and Ed Moore.

The tournament is to continue through Saturday.

Stoneham Says His Team Will Outdraw L.A.

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—President Horace Stoneham of the Giants predicts that over the years his club will draw more fans in San Francisco than the Dodgers in Los Angeles.

This despite the fact Los Angeles County with four million people is about twice as large as the northern California Bay area.

"San Francisco is a better sports town all around than Los Angeles," Stoneham said. "The next couple of years those big opening day crowds in the Los Angeles Coliseum (100,000 capacity) will give the Dodgers a big edge in home attendance."

"But when we get in our park, I'm sure over the years we'll outdraw them."

San Francisco will have its new stadium with 45,000 capacity in 1959.

The Giants president denied reports the club was disappointed with advance ticket sales although he indicated they weren't as rapid as expected.

"They're twice as good as our best year in New York," he said. "I think we had about $650,000 in 1955 after the championship year and in San Francisco we'll do about $1,300,000. On opening day we could have sold out the Los Angeles Coliseum and the Rose Bowl combined."

That in round figures would be 200,000 people—10 times as many as will be crowded into San Francisco's Seals Stadium April 15 to see major league baseball on the Pacific Coast for the first time.

The Giants' prey was asked if the Dodgers were declining.

"No," he said. "We're just getting better and we can still better all of a sudden. There are a couple of young fellows in this camp who can help right now."

"This Orlando Cepeda talked with me a few days ago and just talking there seemed to be no question in his mind that he was the Giants' first baseman and a good hitter. With Willie Kirkland, he'll provide new power. And this kid Jim Davenport has been a pleasant surprise. It's just a question of whether this is the right time to start him."

Loretta Young's Mate Files Suit

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Television star Loretta Young's husband accuses her and their business partner of "dishonesty, mismanagement and unfairness."

Advertising executive Tom Lewis, whose 17½-year marriage to the actress has been considered one of Hollywood's happiest, filed a civil suit yesterday to dissolve their company, Lewislor Films, Inc. The company has had a part in producing her filmed show seen Sunday nights on NBC-TV.

He alleged that Miss Young and her partner Robert F. Shewalter "in combination as directors and stockholders and president and secretary-treasurer" have "exercised complete control over the corporation to the complete exclusion" of Lewis.

Unless the corporation is dissolved promptly, Lewis contended in the complaint, he will be deprived of his rights as a shareholder "due to the continued and additional dishonesty, mismanagement and unfairness" of Miss Young and Shewalter.

In New York City, where he is vice president in charge of television for the C. J. LaRoche Advertising Co., Lewis said the suit is "a corporate matter" and has "no personal implication."

In Hollywood, Miss Young was not available for comment. Her press agent said she knew of no trouble in the marriage.

Shewalter said there is no personal friction between Miss Young and Lewis "as far as I know. Atty. Nathan J. Neilson, who filed the Superior Court action for Lewis, said it is, so far as he knows, "purely a matter of the dissolution of a business."

Lewis brought the suit against the corporation, Miss Young and Shewalter who, with him, are its owners. Shewalter described it as a "service company without assets or liabilities."

He added that Lewis produced Miss Young's show for a year or so but has not been identified with its production for about two years.

Lewis' suit alleged that the corporation has declared no dividends although net profits for the fiscal years ending in April 1955, 1956, and 1957 were $19,029.55, $39,177.75 and $37,223.42.

He also alleged that on May 11, 1956, he resigned as an officer and director at the request of Miss Young and Shewalter and that afterward they increased their own salaries to twice what they had been.

No Replacement For Bo Bowen

Bo Bowen worked her last day at the city-county health unit today, and no one has been located to replace her.

Miss Bowen, city-county health nurse, has resigned to take charge of a hospital at Fort Davis. She will begin her duties there Monday. In charge of the hospital is Dr. Don Gaddis, who was at Stanton until about three years ago.

Dr. R. E. Johnson, director of the three-county health unit, said Thursday that no one had been hired to take Miss Bowen's place although several persons had applied. In addition, he had not been able to find anyone to help with the weekly clinic on Thursday.

As a result, Dr. Johnson announced that the Thursday afternoon clinics will be canceled until a nurse can be hired.

Abilene Woman Threatened By Mental Patients

ABILENE (AP) — Mrs. N. E. Alcott, a bookkeeper, told police she was threatened with butcher knives when two teen-age students at a school for retarded children robbed the Cornelius Music Co. of $4.10 yesterday.

Mrs. Alcott, who worked for the music company, said she suffered slight bruises in a scuffle with the boys, and told police they threatened her with butcher knives while taking the money from a cash register.

They fled when a customer came into the store, she said. Police found them about a block away. Detective J. H. Roberts said the money and three butcher knives were in their possession. The boys are 14 and 15.

Girl Threatens Cop, Is Slain

TOPPENISH, Wash. (AP) — A rookie patrolman shot a 16-year-old girl to death at a crowded bus station yesterday as she aimed a pistol at him.

Sandra Lingscheid, only child of a Columbia Basin irrigation project farm couple from Elliptopia, Wash., was killed by two .38-caliber slugs which tore into her left chest.

She had ignored three demands to throw down her gun.

The girl and a companion, Janice Teel, also 16, of Pasco, Wash., had been stopped as runaways as they alighted from a bus.

Patrolman Richard Stevens, 33, told Police Chief Earl Phillips he had no recourse but to shoot the girl, whose gun posed a threat to the some 50 persons crowded into the small bus depot in this south central Washington city.

Stevens had been sent to the bus depot to intercept Sandra and Janice at the request of Franklin County officials.

Plane With Sick Boy Disappears

MONTICELLO, Utah (AP) — A light plane carrying a sick 10-year-old boy to a hospital disappeared in a snowstorm southwest of Monticello last night.

Sheriff Seth Wright said three persons were aboard the plane. It took off for Monticello about 6 p.m. from Fry Canyon, an isolated uranium mining area in rugged southeast Utah about 45 air miles southwest of Monticello.

Wright said those on the plane were Robert Warren Barris, 35, Grand Junction, Colo., the pilot; Val D. Adams, 10, Fry Canyon; and Johnny Guthridge, 26, also of Fry Canyon. The nature of the boy's illness was not determined.

Senator Seeks Farm Bill Okay

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Ellender (D-La.) said today he still hopes for enactment of a Senate-passed bill to prevent cuts in farm price supports on this year's major crops and dairy products.

But Sen. Aiken (R-Vt.) said "it looks as though we are finished up on any general farm legislation this year."

Secretary of Agriculture Benson said yesterday he would expect President Eisenhower to veto the bill if the House also passes it, but Ellender talked hopefully of the possibility of overriding a veto.

The House Agriculture Committee will take up the bill Monday, and Chairman Cooley (D-NC) said he expects approval. One of its subcommittees already has approved a dairy support price freeze.

The Senate passed by a 50-43 vote yesterday the bill applying a freeze to all major crops, but rejected by the same numerical vote a separate bill applying only to dairy products.

The Senate-passed bill would prevent Benson from lowering supports or acreage allotments on this year's crops and farm products below last year's levels. He could increase them.
