Seniors Greeted On 'Career Day'

500 High School Seniors On Hand For Career Day Program

Education is becoming increasingly important and it is going to become increasingly more exacting in order to meet the demands of a faster age. Dr. Carl Bredt told upwards of 500 high school seniors here today.

They were the members of 11 graduating classes of area high schools and had gathered to listen to tips on potential careers.

Dr. W. A. Hunt, Howard County Junior College, extended the seniors a welcome to the campus for the annual Career Day convalesce. With them were more than two score business and professional men and women, who were serving as "experts" to tell about their occupations and professions and to answer questions of the students.

On hand were seniors from Gardea, City, Ackerly, Knott, Flower Grove, Coahoma, Lamesa, Forsan, Stanton, Westbrook, Ira and Big Spring high schools. Smaller delegations were expected from Snyder and Colorado City.

After Dr. Bredt's keynote address, seniors took part in sectional meetings until noon when they were served luncheon at the college gym. In order that they got a chance to look at alternate choice of vocation, sectional meetings were continued from 1 p.m. to 2 p.m.

Dr. Bredt, who is associate dean of student life at the University of Texas, said there were numerous reasons for continuing education beyond high school.

Education furnishes a better basis for human relations or the ability to get along with one another; it will widen an individual's span of interest; will expand an interest in our culture; it will better equip individuals to make a living, he declared.

"Of course we all know of people who had only a fourth grade education who have become wealthy and of those with considerable education who only enjoy average income," said Dr. Bredt, "but on the whole, earning ability is tied closely to education."

For instance, he reported that of those making $10,000 or more per annum, 82 per cent had college educations; of those making $7,000-$8,000 some 78 per cent; those from $6,000 to $7,000 some 77 per cent; those from $5,000 to $6,000 some 73 per cent. Conversely, those dominating the lower paid positions had the least education.

One of the most urgent reasons for continuing education at the college level is to conserve the nation's brain power, said Dr. Bredt. He estimated that the nation was not realizing the maximum benefit from a quarter of million outstanding minds each year because of failure to go to college.

He warned against going to college just to be going and against letting the mind become a mere receptacle for knowledge. Students need to learn to think, he said, and in the toughening process they will find that higher standards will be expected. There will be more emphasis upon individual capability because "we are going to get away from the great leveling process in education."

Dr. Hunt called attention of the students to the facilities of HCJC and invited them to tour the campus. Dean Ben Johnson presided at the general session. Rodney Sheppard, student council president, also welcomed visiting students and gave the invocation. A trio composed of Lavelle Fletcher, Perry Francis and Paty Francis, accompanied by Glendene Phillely, sang. Entertainment at noon included a trampoline routine at the gym.

Thundershowers Still In Forecast For This Section

Heavy thundershowers forecast by the U. S. Weather Bureau for Sunday and Sunday night did not develop but the day was overcast and gray. Temperature did not drop as low as anticipated — low for Monday morning was 39 degrees.

However, the weather bureau still insists that additional moisture is in store for the area before March leaves the scene. The forecast released at noon Monday said there will be scattered thundershowers Tuesday afternoon. The temperature, the forecast stated, will be climbing slightly.

The U. S. Experiment Station Monday morning reported that corrected totals for March show the gauges there have measured 1.11 inch rain so far this month. Total for the year is 4.42.

Their records show nine days in the month on which measurable precipitation has been recorded—including four snows.

The official rainfall for Saturday was 21 inch.

Hagler Due More Troubles

FORT WORTH (AP)—A $1,700 debt David Hagler owes his former wife may cost him a jail or penitentiary sentence.

That was the report from Dist. Atty. Howard Fender today, a day after Hagler, central figure in the sensational Sulphur, Okla., torch slaying, was arrested here on a child desertion charge.

Fender said Hagler could be indicted and tried before a jury and if found guilty, could be sent to the state penitentiary for up to two years or go to county jail plus a fine ranging from $25 to $500.

Hagler's former wife, Doris, mother of his four children, charged him with child desertion, maintaining Hagler has not met child support payments of $150 a month for more than a year.

Hagler was arrested yesterday at the home of an uncle, E. S. Eastwood in Handley. Hagler was taken to jail but was free soon on $1,000 bond.

Mrs. Doris Hagler divorced the asphalt salesman several months before he was charged with burning to death an unidentified man in a station wagon in Oklahoma in 1954.

Hagler was acquitted of murder. Later he served five months in federal prison for lying on applications for FHA loans.

Hagler has lived since in California.

County To Ask For Paving Bids

Howard County Commissioners Court will consider bids on April 14 for the paving of nearly nine miles of county highway, it was agreed at the meeting of the court this morning. Advertisements for bids for the paving will be published soon and the bids will be opened on April 14.

Walter Parks, county engineer, said that six segments of county road are now ready for surfacing and that by opening bids on April 14, the jobs can be started soon after with the arrival of warmer weather.

The paving proposed will include three miles on the Stanolind road; .34 mile on College Street, Coahoma; 3.05 miles on the Salem Church road connecting with U. S. 80; half a mile on the south end of Birdwell Lane in Big Spring one mile on the Jones road at the southwest edge of the city limits and three blocks on Lorilla and 2nd streets.

'Ranch Week' Opens Tonight

The 1958 "Ranch Queen" will be introduced tonight to "Ranch Week" activities at Big Spring High School.

Ranch Week actually will last only through Wednesday, but students have the schedule packed with activities for the two days.

The Ranch Queen, Sheriff and Foreman have been chosen by popular vote of the students. The three will be introduced during a social in the high school cafeteria this evening. Then they will preside over activities for the next two days.

Stunts and contests will be held during the noon hour Tuesday and Wednesday in the high school gym. Any student who fails to wear his western regalia during the two days will be subject to fines and jail terms.

Caught In Blizzard

A line of trucks and autos as far as the eye can see are stalled in snow along the Pennsylvania turnpike at Morgantown after a spring blizzard swept over the eastern part of the country. An estimated 800 persons from the stalled vehicles sought refuge in a restaurant in the background.

Dulles Links Aid Cut To Recession

Claims Slash Would Hurt Employment

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of State Dulles told Congress today a slash in foreign aid spending would cut employment and heighten the recession.

He testified this country would gain little and lose much if, in its drive for domestic public works projects, "we recklessly tear down the very structure of the free world," which provides peace and "the material blessing we now have."

Cognizant of growing congressional attacks on President Eisenhower's $3,942,000,000 foreign aid program as a giveaway to other nations, Dulles said its effect is the opposite.

"Its effect is to counter economic recession," Dulles told the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. "The great bulk of our mutual security funds—over three-fourths—are spent in the United States in the first instance."

He cited 1955 figures showing some 600,000 jobs were provided by the program for American farmers and workers.

"The remainder, after aiding the economy of our Allies, returns sooner or later—and mostly sooner—to be spent in the United States for the products of United States industry and agriculture," he said.

"To cut these funds would be to cut employment here at home—as well as to endanger our security."

Sen. Bridges (R-NH) predicted in advance of the hearing that Congress will attach to the aid bill a provision directing increased domestic buying of mutual assistance supplies. Sen. Knowland (R-Calif.) also was interested in this question.

HEAVIEST EMPHASIS

Dulles' testimony contained probably the heaviest emphasis the administration has put on the impact of foreign aid spending on the economy of the United States.

Critics of foreign aid have urged that funds now being spent abroad be shifted to missiles and to roads, reclamation, schools and other public works to help relieve unemployment.

"Without this program our peace would be gravely endangered, and opportunity would disappear as hostile communism more and more closely encircled us until we became a beleaguered garrison state," Dulles said.

"Not to have this program would be a 'giveaway,'" Dulles added. "We would then indeed 'give away' to communism the control of a dozen or so nations with their hundreds of millions of people."

Although the program's fundamental purpose is to bolster national security, he said, it also has "added value of special significance now" in countering the recession.

"I think Congress is alert to this situation and will do something about it," Bridges said. "I don't think we will have any difficulty in attaching a provision to the foreign aid bill directing more expenditures at home, particularly in labor surplus areas."

Bridges said he thinks the mutual security program is "in for a rough time" in Congress.

Cloudy, Cool Across Texas

By The Associated Press

Cloudy and cool weather covered Texas Monday.

Overnight temperatures ranged from 31 degrees at Dalhart and Amarillo to 60 at Brownsville.

The Weather Bureau eyed another low pressure system that formed out in the Pacific and moved in from California. This low may bring more unsettled weather to Texas by about mid-week.

Rainfall totals for the 24 hours ending at 6:30 a. m. included Texarkana .35 of an inch, Galveston .15, Sherman .12, Houston .11, and Wichita Falls .08.

Other overnight temperatures included: Abilene and Wichita Falls 40; Dallas 43; Lufkin, San Antonio and Austin 46; El Paso 47; and Houston 48.

Top rainfall for the 24 hours ending at 6:30 p. m. Sunday was .65 of an inch at Victoria.

Other reports included Abilene .07, Amarillo .11, Austin .10, Beaumont .43, Dallas .37, Fort Worth .17, Galveston .18, Houston .29, Lubbock .10, San Angelo .20, San Antonio .21, Waco .36, Wichita Falls .16, Lufkin .23, Palacios .27, Beeville .33, Kingsville .08, Cotulla .10, Junction .03, College Station .12, Mineral Wells .16, Childress .15, Dalhart .03, Sherman .12,

Son Of Early World War II Hero May Enter West Point

CHESTER HEIGHTS, Pa. (AP)—Corky Kelly, son of one of the nation's first heroes of World War II, has decided he wants to follow the footsteps of his father to the U. S. Military Academy at West Point.

Corky, formally known as Colin P. Kelly III, is a 17-year-old high school senior on whose behalf President Franklin D. Roosevelt in 1941 wrote a letter to the President of the United States in 1956.

The letter, written when Corky was 16 months old, asked that the "merits of a young American youth of goodly heritage" be considered for appointment to the academy "as a token of the nation's appreciation of the heroic services of his father, Army Air Corps Capt. Colin P. Kelly Jr."

Corky lives in this suburban Philadelphia community with his mother and stepfather, Dr. and

Out Popped A Pooped Pigeon

After being wedged for two days between the grill and radiator of this auto, a frightened and exhausted pigeon was discovered by George Sorrells of Dallas, owner of the car, and a mechanic, as they were examining defective blinker lights. Sorrells recalled having driven past a flight of pigeons on a street but thought they had all gotten out of the way in time.

House Delays Action On Military Pay Hike

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House today postponed until tomorrow consideration of a 668-million-dollar bill to raise servicemen's pay.

Following congressional custom, today's session was dedicated to eulogies of Rep. George Long (D-La.), who died Saturday.

Managers of the bill, which contains a number of features designed to make careers in uniform more attractive, said they will try to complete debate and bring it to a vote tomorrow.

Practically 2nd grad in a 8

Practically all career servicemen would get raises. There would be none for officers and enlisted men in the first two years of service, most of whom are doing obligated service.

The raises would be higher in the upper grades, both officer and enlisted, to encourage ambitious young men to stay in the service.

Enlisted men who acquired special skills could be rewarded with the pay but not the rank of higher grades, or by proficiency pay raises of $50, $100 or $150 a month.

In exceptional cases, a top enlisted man could earn as much as $10,140 a year total compensation, a four-star officer as much as $31,140.

The bill adopts some basic principles recommended by the Cordier committee, but does not accept all the departures from past military practice which the committee advocated.

This group, headed by Ralph J. Cordier, president of General Electric Co., came out for heavy emphasis on needed skills and on high pay for top ranks, to create a predominantly career force and cut down the costly turnover of highly trained men.

The bill would create two additional top pay grades for officers and two for enlisted men.

The pay raises would apply to retired and reserve as well as active personnel.

North Sumatra Is Reported Cleared Of Insurgent Forces

JAKARTA, Indonesia (AP)—Word from North Sumatra today said Prapat, one of the last reported rebel holdings in the area, was firmly in government hands.

Associated Press correspondent John Griffin telephoned from the war-torn port of Medan that Prapat was "all shot up and there are gutted vehicles in the streets from a battle last Tuesday."

Griffin said Maj. Boyke Mann Golan, who led the mutiny last week in Medan, had gone into hiding with the remnants of his force among the rubber estates about 100 miles southeast of the key port and rail center. The government retook Medan after a sea-saw battle.

Griffin said he and two other correspondents, John Dominis of Time-Life, and Marc Riboud of Magnum Photos, entered Prapat expecting to find it in rebel hands. "We were well treated by the government forces and never at any time arrested," Griffin said. "When we showed them a pass signed by rebel Col. Djambek, they laughed."

Griffin, who reported he was in good health after a month and a half in rebel areas, said Dominis and Riboud had remained at Prapat.

The Indonesian Foreign Ministry today said Dominis and Jim Mossman, British correspondent for the Sydney Morning Herald and the London Daily Mail, were picked up by Jakarta government troops in North Sumatra.

An earlier government announcement had said two Americans were found at Prapat, and it was believed at first they were Griffin and Dominis. There was no indication whether any action had been taken against any of the newsmen because they had come from rebel territory in Central Sumatra.

Griffin said he had heard of few casualties so far in the North Sumatra fighting except for a continuing battle in the Siantar area. He said Medan was quiet.

Loyalist forces claimed to have recaptured the last major oil installations held by the rebels in the eastern side of Central Sumatra in the Bengat area. The sector, in which U.S. Standard Vacuum Oil Co. operates, is about 100 miles southeast of Pekanbaru and the Caltex oil operations.

Antara News Agency reported that 43 persons, including women and children, were killed recently in an ambush by the outlawed Darul Islam, a fanatic Moslem group which has no connection with the rebellious army units, in the Central Celebes.

An Indonesian military spokesman denied reports that rebel planes had bombed Indonesia's summer capital of Bandung, 70 miles east of Jakarta.

No Mishaps Occur In City Sunday

Big Spring went over 40 hours during the weekend without an accident.

No accidents were reported from 4:25 p. m. Saturday until 10:18 a. m. today. This morning, Dolly Hubbard, 1715 Purdue, and Fred Layman, 309 E. 9th, broke the string in a mishap at 5th and Scurry.

Sunday was the first day this month without at least one accident.

Son Of Early World War II Hero May Enter West Point

Mrs. J. Watson Pedlow, who disclosed Corky's intentions today.

Mrs. Pedlow said the family planned a trip to West Point soon to determine what requirements Corky must meet. In the meantime, his precollege examination records have been forwarded to the academy.

West Point is probably more than a year off for Corky. Mrs. Pedlow said that in preparation for a possible appointment, he had been accepted by an unnamed college where he planned a year of study.

"We hope he can quietly enter West Point like any other plebe (freshman)," Mrs. Pedlow said.

The 6-foot-2 youngster is president of the student body at Westtown Friends School, has a high academic rating and has achieved Eagle Scout rank in the Boy Scouts. In addition, he is active in

Wreckage Of Plane

Famed movie producer Mike Todd was killed in this plane crash when his twin-engine private plane crashed in the Zuni Mountains of west-central New Mexico. The wreckage is about 20 miles south-west of the uranium town of Grants. A Civil Aeronautics Administration employee saw a flash. He called a pilot who, with an observer, spotted the wreckage when they investigated a small smoke plume in the distance.

Liz Taylor Leaves Sickbed Tonight For Todd's Funeral

By JAMES BACON
HOLLYWOOD — Elizabeth Taylor leaves a sickbed tonight for a flight to Chicago and the funeral tomorrow of her husband, producer Mike Todd. With her will be singer Eddie Fisher, one of Todd's best friends; MGM designer Helen Rose, a close friend of Mrs. Todd; Dr. Rexford Kenamer, the actress' physician; Howard Taylor, her brother; and Dick Hanley, Todd's executive secretary.

Todd's body, sealed in its casket, is already en route via Santa Fe train to Chicago, home town of the colorful showman. His son Michael Jr. had wanted the funeral tomorrow in Albuquerque where it was taken after Saturday's air crash which killed Todd, 34, writer Art Cohn, 49, pilot Bill Verner, 45, and copilot Tom Barclay, 34.

Todd's mother Mrs. Sophie Goldbogen, 91, a patient in a sanitarium here, was not notified of her son's death. An attendant explained that the shock "might prove very damaging to the patient." Telegrams were delivered in bales to the Todd home here, including one from Mrs. Dwight Eisenhower which read: "The President and I extend our deepest sympathy."

Heavy Machinery Moves To Site Of Crashed Plane

GRANTS, N.M. — Heavy earth-moving equipment churned into a muddy mountain valley today to dig for clues to the cause of the crash which killed producer Mike Todd. "The plane hit at an awfully steep angle — practically straight down," said Phillip Goldstein, investigator in charge of the Santa Monica, Calif., office of the Civil Aeronautics Board. Some persons theorized that the crash may have been caused by icing, which pilot Bill Verner, 45, had reported only a few minutes before the plane went down Saturday. Some pilots on the scene said it appeared that only one engine was working when the Lockheed Lodestar — the Lucky Liz — smashed into the ground and exploded. Wreckage was scattered over half an acre. One engine and other portions were buried feet deep in a fused mass.

Identification of Todd's remains were made in a telephone comparison of dental charts by an Albuquerque dentist and Todd's New York dentist, Dr. Samuel Pritz. The remains of screen writer Art Cohn, 45, were identified by a money clip he carried. An associate of pilot Verner and copilot Tom Barclay, 34, identified Goldstein said his preliminary examination as yet could not support the icing theory until a further study of weather conditions was made. He said it would be necessary to tear down the engines and propellers to determine finally whether engine failure might have been a factor. After the last chunks of the plane are dug up and examined, the CAB crew will travel to the New Jersey base of the plane for the customary check of maintenance records and pilots' histories.

Philosophy Of Todd: Broke, Never Poor

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD — "I've been broke but I've never been poor. Being poor is a state of mind; being broke is a temporary situation."

This explains as well as anything the career of Mike Todd, a fabulous gambler whose luck ran out when his plane crashed in the New Mexico badlands on the weekend.

Todd was considered an enormously lucky man. Certainly luck — another word for good timing — plays an important role in the lives of all successful people. But Todd didn't wait for luck to tap him on the shoulder. He went crashing ahead on projects which his critics scoffed at as foolhardy. Sometimes they proved to be right.

At one time, after a string of stage flops, Todd was in debt to the tune of $1,105,616. But more often he proved the scoffers to be visionless dolts. At his death, his earnings from "Around the World in 80 Days" were piling up in such millions that even he was amazed. He was reminded that he had blown fortunes before and could do it again. "I don't think so," he told me. "There's so much coming in now that it taxes even my ability to spend."

What was it, aside from luck, that propelled Todd on a roller-coaster life during his furious 50 years?

THE EARLY YEARS
The answer may be found in the early years of the son of a Polish rabbi in Minneapolis. The boy's name was Avrom Hirsch Goldbogen, and he was nicknamed Todd.

Avrom was a hustler — he had to be. He jerked sodas, sold the Minneapolis Journal, peddled fruit, played the cornet, sold shoes, shilled for a carnival, worked for a pharmacist. At 17, he headed a construction company and was a married man.

Goldbogen realized the best place for a man of his drive was show business. But he needed a new name. He borrowed the Michael from his own son and evolved the Todd for his long-time nickname, Michael Todd — it had a nice ring to it.

Gambles followed gambles, from "The Flame Dance" at the Chicago World's Fair to sumptuous Broadway productions.

Gambling finally turned sour for Todd — too many flop plays and too many slow horses. His debts mounted to over a million and the Broadway crowd counted him out. Once again they underestimated the hustling kid from Minneapolis. He was going to prove to them that a rabbi's son could produce a fantastic American success story.

Young Brothers Held In Fatal Shooting Of Oklahoma Grocer

WOODWARD, Okla. — A 12-year-old boy — termed a "tough little monkey" — and his 10-year-old brother were held today in the fatal shooting of a Woodward grocery store owner. Sheriff Hank White said the youngsters had admitted the shooting spree which left two others wounded, one critically. County Atty. H. B. King said he would file juvenile delinquency charges against Robert Smith, 12, and his brother David, 10. He said he would not file criminal charges because of their ages. Killed was Floyd Blair, 49. Critically wounded was Adrian Wilson, 22, an employe at Blair's store, where the shooting occurred. A customer, Ed Kinney, 47, received a flesh wound.

The parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith, were in Liberal, Kan., where Smith was working on a plumbing job. They were not notified until they returned to Woodward about 10 p.m. Smith said he had no statement to make.

King said the boys gave no reason for the shooting. Sometime after they left Sunday school, White said, the boys broke into a store and stole four 22-caliber pistols. About 2:20 p.m., they entered Blair's open air market. Blair was working on a rifle. The boys asked him if it was a real gun and he said it was.

Then Robert Smith said, "This one's real too," drew out a pistol and started firing. The brothers then shot out store lights and windows and fled. Robert ran to an old cotton gin about six blocks away. Police moved in on the building.

"I'll shoot the first one I can see," Robert shouted at them. Fear gas shells were lobbed into the building, then the officers entered.

Sheriff White said he found Robert in a second floor loft, pistols in each hand and pointed toward him. White said: "I had to bluff him. I told him I didn't want to shoot him but I would. Then he dropped the guns and came to me."

"I asked the tough little monkey where his brother was and he told me, 'I don't know where he is but I hope he shoots all of you when you find him.'"

David was found in the basement of the family home, unarmed.

Pressure Growing For Quick Tax Cut

WASHINGTON — Pressure for a quick tax cut built up today with new calls from Republican and Democratic members of Congress.

But Vice President Nixon said President Eisenhower is withholding any decision on such additional antirecession measures as tax cuts or increased public works spending until the statistics for March are available.

Official figures on unemployment, production and other economic factors are being compiled now, but won't be in final form until sometime in April.

Nixon said there are some signs of improvement but that "we can't make any final judgment until the figures for March are all in, and we are not prepared to say at this time what March is going to show."

He indicated the administration is concerned that ill-timed tax reduction or increased federal spending might be inflationary.

If a tax cut should be necessary, Nixon said, he would favor a broadly based reduction aimed at creating jobs. Such cuts, he said, should encourage investment as well as increased purchasing power. Thus, he said, he is against any action that would only raise personal income tax exemptions.

Boosting these exemptions was advocated by several senators. There also were proposals for cutting corporate income taxes and excise levies. Some legislators urged stepped-up spending on public works and slum clearance, as well as federal aid for emergency school construction.

The Committee for Economic Development suggested a temporary 20 per cent slash in all personal income taxes if the economy this month and next sags below February levels. The CED, a privately supported research organization, said such a slash, possibly starting around midyear and lasting for nine months, would pump about 7½ billion dollars into the economy.

The organization also recommended short-term public works and accelerated federal spending.

Mongols Told To Communize

WARSAW — Mongolia's nomadic herdsmen were told today they must end their roaming and settle down in Communist collectives.

This decision, adopted at a congress of the Mongolian Communist party and reported by the Polish press agency, would spell an end to a way of life unchanged through centuries.

The herdsmen, following their cattle on tough little ponies and living in ornate sheepskin tents, make up the greater part of Mongolia's four million population.

Communism so far has made little impact on them, despite the new meat-packing plant in Ulaan Bator, the Mongolian capital, and the arrival there of Vyacheslav Molotov as Soviet ambassador.

The Polish press agency said the congress called for collectivization of the greater part of nomadic farming. It said this must be done "voluntarily"—but within three years.

Tunisia Halts Concessions

TUNIS — Claiming U.S. support, President Habib Bourguiba says Tunisia "can make no further concessions" to France. He promised to go back to the United Nations if the French won't compromise.

"We have done everything possible to meet the French more than halfway," Bourguiba said in an interview summing up his position. The good offices mission of Robert Murphy, U.S. deputy under-secretary of state, and British diplomat Harold Beley will return to France tomorrow to negotiate with Premier Felix Gaillard. They will find him fighting for time and U.S. support of the French position in North Africa.

The National Assembly starts a month-long vacation at the end of the week, and ultranationalist opponents of a compromise will be temporarily scattered. Bourguiba said he was encouraged by a telegram from U.S. Secretary of State Dulles praising his cooperation with the Murphy-Beley mission. The Tunisian President said he took this as U.S. support for his position.

Says Recession Was 'Planned'

DELAWARE, Ohio — Paul M. Butler, Democratic national chairman, said today, "This second Eisenhower-Nixon recession was deliberately planned as a 'readjustment,' but got completely out of hand."

Butler said the administration applied "the brakes when the train had already slowed down." As a result, he said, the country is in a "full-blown recession."

Firmly In Custody

Harold G. Anderson, 38, wound up in this position atop a raft of shopping carts in a Los Angeles supermarket parking lot after he tried to cash a $20 check in the store. When the store manager declined to cash the check, Anderson fled. The manager, some of the clerks and some customers pursued Anderson and caught him in the lot and held him on the carts until police arrived. Police said he was wanted for questioning in connection with forgery and traffic offenses.

Unemployment Still Grows, But Hopeful Signs Are Seen

By NORMAN WALKER

WASHINGTON (AP) — A spot check by The Associated Press shows that unemployment still is increasing in March in the nation's major labor markets. The sample, while not nationwide in scope, will cover more than a dozen of the biggest employment areas. It showed the idle in these areas increased by about 150,000 from the middle of February to the middle of March. But there are some hopeful signs. The AP survey data, together with the government's latest unemployment compensation claims figures, suggest the jobless peak is close at hand and there may be some decline in unemployment in April.

The job picture at the moment appears to be this: unemployment is still rising, but its upward momentum is rapidly slowing down. This is due to the usual spring employment pickup on farms and in other outdoor work as weather improves. This improvement has been delayed this year because of late winter storms. But an April decline in the number of jobless, unless it is quite substantial, would not spell an end to the recession. Unemployment normally drops by about 400,000 or 500,000 between February and April. Available data indicates no decline in March. An April pickup in construction, farming and other outdoor work could reduce somewhat the overall national unemployment total — last counted by the government at 5,173,000 as of mid-February.

NO REVIVAL
The seasonal gain in outdoor work would not signal an economic revival unless there is also job improvement in the auto and plane factories, steel mills and other types of manufacturing and mining — the hard core of the current economic trouble. In Pennsylvania, where the latest jobless tally was 464,000, William L. Batt Jr., state secretary of labor and industry, expressed doubt that a seasonal upswing in construction would really bite deeply into the state's jobless problem. The Federal Reserve Board said a few days ago that production, employment, income and retail sales all had declined in February. It noted further early March declines in auto production as well as in mineral output, including crude oil.

The government's job data for March will not be known until the second week of April. A month ago President Eisenhower said there was every indication March would commence to see the start of a pickup in job opportunities, marking "the beginning of the

Ike Science Aide Couldn't 'Teach'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Dr. James R. Killian Jr., President Eisenhower's science and technology adviser, probably wouldn't qualify to teach in Washington's elementary schools, a government colleague says. The District of Columbia requires 40 semester hours of professional education courses for public school teachers — more than any other city or state. Rear Adm. Hyman G. Rickover, chief of the naval reactors branch for the Atomic Energy Commission, cited Killian's status to point up the rigidity of the rules.

Rickover Scores Modern Education

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rear Adm. H. G. Rickover says the country soon may have to choose between better education or a lower standard of living. Rickover, father of the atomic submarine, made the statement while voicing strong criticism of "progressive" education and the teachings of the late John Dewey. Rickover said the nation could assure a high standard of living for future generations by full utilization of human resources. "But it cannot be done with 180-day school years, driver training courses and print shops in high school," he added.

Film People Say Pay-TV Test A Flop

By JIM MONROE
BARTLESVILLE, Okla. (AP) — Motion picture people are still looking for a magic formula in their fight against television for a viewing audience. They are frank to admit they haven't found it yet in the first big scale experiment at putting first run movies into homes via closed circuit television. Price is one reason. Another is how to make people want to pay to see a movie at home enough to watch a few of their favorite TV programs. Some say this experiment is a true test of "pay TV" and that it's a resounding flop. Video Theaters, a big Southwest movie house chain which bankrolled the experiment, say it isn't pay TV. And it still forecasts success.

Most pay television systems involve scrambled broadcast signals and a device for unscrambling them. The device is operated by deposit of a coin or through a telephone connection. The Federal Communications Commission has decided to hold up plans for trial demonstrations until Congress has a chance to act. Several bills are pending which would prohibit subscription TV. Video insists its experiment is simply a new method of marketing movies, made necessary by the growing tendency of Americans to stay at home. "We're just taking the mountain to Mohammed," said Wayne Wallace, Telemovie manager. Video officials discovered quickly that their mountain was too high. After six months, the firm cut its programming and whacked its price from $9.50 to $4.95 a month. Now it's picking up customers. Instead of showing first run movies on two channels afternoon and evening, it cut the film service to one channel in the evening. The other carries background music 16 hours a day. But what Video is really banking on to pull its experiment out of the red is the toll meter. With

S. Korea Due New Weapons

SEOUL, Korea (AP) — South Korea's ambassador to Washington said today "modern weapons are arriving or will start arriving here in a few days" for Korean forces. Ambassador You Chan Yang said his government is proposing that the United States lift its restriction against providing foreign troops with nuclear arms. The United Nations Command brought 280mm. atomic cannon and Honest John rockets for American troops in Korea last January. South Korea has demanded "modern weapons and equipment" for her forces ever since the talk of reducing the size of her army. A sharp cut last year in U.S. appropriations for military aid has led American officials to recommend that at least 60,000 men be trimmed from the 700,000-man army. "Troops cannot be reduced before our military strength is sufficiently boosted by new weapons," Yang declared. "Otherwise it would be putting the horse behind the cart."

Video President Henry Griffing announced 300 homes would be on the hook when the experiment started. More than five months later he said Telemovie customers still numbered only 300 and the project was losing money in big chunks.

Racist Jury 'Probes' FBI

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP) — State Sen. W. M. Rainach described today a Webster Parish grand jury probe of the FBI as "part of a general pattern to move the South into an offensive against integration." The chairman of the Southwest Citizens Councils of America said FBI interference also was resulting in non-cooperation by local officials and could mean a breakdown in federal law enforcement in the South. The Webster grand jury summoned FBI agents who had investigated Negro vote registration. Last week, the jurors censured Wilson White, assistant U.S. attorney general in charge of civil rights, for refusal to permit the FBI agents to testify fully. The jury also indicted M. M. Coleman, Minden Negro funeral home director, for attempted intimidation of a public official. Coleman requested the FBI probe.

A panel of 25 jurors has been notified to report to Howard County on Tuesday at 10 a.m. to try criminal cases which will be called at that hour.

School Evaluation Survey Planned

Preliminary work on evaluation of the Big Spring school program was to be started today.

Panel Charges Millions Stolen In Union Funds

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Rackets Committee reported that "some 10 million dollars in union funds have been either stolen, embezzled or misused" in 15 years by officials of five labor unions.

It listed them as the Teamsters, Bakery Workers, United Textile Workers, Operating Engineers, and Allied Industrial Workers unions.

The report, signed by seven members of the bipartisan committee, drew a sharp dissent from the eighth member.

Sen. McNamara (D-Mich.) appended a report of his own calling the money figures "phony" and assailing what he termed "antilabor bias" in the majority findings.

McNamara said, "The colorful language and some of the findings in these chapters are more related to the old Police Gazette than to a supposedly objective congressional report."

The committee singled out employees of seven states for what was described as "union busting" tactics. The employees were accused of using labor consultant Nathan Shefferman's services for this purpose.

The report said Shefferman's operations "provide a shocking indictment of the activities of a number of employers."

The firms cited were Sears, Roebuck & Co., Chicago; Whirlpool Corp., Marion, Ohio, and Clyde, Ohio; Morton Frozen Food Co., Webster City, Iowa; Mennen Co., Morristown, N.J.; J. V. Pletcher Co., Louisville; Seampulse Co., McAlester, Okla.; All State Insurance Co., a Sears affiliate, Skokie, Ill.; Englander Co., Chicago; and H. P. Wasson Co., Indianapolis.

McNamara said he didn't think the committee went far enough in its probe of management misconduct. He suggested that industry should consider the AFL-CIO example of adopting a code of ethical practices.

The majority report said its findings were not intended as any "wholesale indictment" of either labor unions or employers. Rather, it said, the findings should be "a danger signal" to the others in those fields, the vast majority of whom it termed undoubtedly honest.

The second section of the two-part report will be filed "toward the end of the week," a committee member said.

Boy's Fines Total $150

Murray To Speak

ODESSA (AP)—Railroad Commissioner William Murray will speak at a dinner meeting of the Permian Basin Chapter of the American Assn. of Oilwell Drilling Contractors here Wednesday night.

3,000 Feet Of Free Oil Found On Test Of North Vincent Well

A drillstem test was under way today at the Standard of Texas No. 1 Guffey in the North Vincent field of Howard County, after a test during the weekend produced 3,000 feet of free oil.

Meanwhile, a new wildcat has been staked in Sterling County by Duncan Drilling Co., and Paul Tetz will deepen the discovery well of the Teas (Spraberry) field to test the Ellenburger. In Borden county completed the Shell No. 2-BA Slaughter in the U Lazy S field from the Ellenburger and prepared to swab the Pennsylvania.

The Stanotex No. 1 Guffey hit the top of the Pennsylvania reef 7,428 feet minus 5,085, and recovery from the test was 100 feet of oil and gas-cut mud, 3,000 feet of free oil, and 30 feet of oil-cut water. The venture is two miles north of Vincent.

Shell No. 2-BA Slaughter prepared to swab the Pennsylvania today after completing in the Ellenburger. On 24-hour potential test, it flowed 329 barrels of oil and a trace of water through an 8-64-inch choke. It produced from open hole below 8,647 feet after acidizing with 1,500 gallons. The well is C SE NW, 15-30-6n, T&P Survey, in the U Lazy S field. Perforations in the Pennsylvania extend from 8,326-38 and 8,366-76 feet.

In the same field, Shell No. 1-BC Slaughter drilled at 210 feet in redbeds. It is 660 from south and east lines, 2-2P-6n, T&P Survey, and 12 miles north of Gall. Kerr-McGee No. 1 Slaughter, in

Vandals Hit Church, School

Vandals worked overtime during the weekend, causing damage at a church and school on opposite sides of town.

At St. Mary's Episcopal Church, 10th and Goliad, the vandals hit between 2 and 5 p.m. Saturday, according to the pastor, Rev. Bill Boyd. He said they took all the light bulbs in the men's and women's rest rooms and broke them against the sides of the rooms.

The light bulbs in the court yard were also stolen, along with several from the exterior lighting system.

About a dozen bulbs were taken in all, he said. Eleven window panes were broken out of the Kate Morrison School on the North Side sometime Saturday night. The damage was noticed by patrolmen about 5 a.m. Sunday.

Churchill Is Progressing

ROQUEBRUNE, France (AP)—Sir Winston Churchill was reported today to be progressing normally and satisfactorily after a slight setback in his recovery from pneumonia and pleurisy.

A source close to the household said that no alarm was felt for the 83-year-old statesman, whose convalescence from his illness last month was interrupted by a relapse Saturday.

The source said the flight today from London of Churchill's daughter Mary, Mrs. Christopher Soames, and his personal physician, Lord Moran, was not an indication that the family was greatly worried.

Leaving London, Mrs. Soames said she had not seen her father since Christmas and "as he is convalescing very slowly, I thought it should go out to see him."

Lord Moran, who had hastened to Churchill's bedside after he was first stricken Feb. 18, said he had planned to return to the Riviera about this time anyway "to see if he was fit to come home."

"I had no definite date for the visit," Moran said, "but, in view of the latest reports, and because I understand he wants to come to London, I am going."

Churchill was reported to have shaken off much of his weekend fever and was said to be resting comfortably.

Dr. David Roberts, his local physician, described the relapse as "a slight recurrence of a former illness." He added that "things are as we want them to be, and we are not worried at the moment."

Paul C. Teas will re-enter an old well for deeper exploration at his No. 2 Slaughter site, 660 from the south and west lines of 40-2, T&NO Survey.

The project is 13 miles southwest of Post and will be deepened to 8,500 feet. It was originally completed at 5,378 feet as the discovery well of the Teas (Spraberry) field.

Shell No. 1-D Slaughter, 660 from the north and west lines of 18-1, Hays Survey, ran logs to total depth of 8,260 feet and is preparing for a drillstem test.

The Shell No. 2-C Slaughter, 660 from south and 1,880 from west lines of 33-2, T&NO, drilled to 7,300 feet in lime.

The Humble No. 1-B-1 Slaughter, 1,980 from the north and west lines of 33-2, T&NO Survey, reached 6,122 feet, still in lime and shale, and is remaining.

Standard No. 1 Guffey, 2,173 from the south and 467 from the west lines of 58-20, Lavaca Navigation Survey, reached 7,495 feet after topping the Pennsylvania Reef at 7,446 and 7,465. Tools plugged after one hour, but after it was unplugged gas surfaced in two minutes. The test then recovered 30 feet of oil cut water. The drillstem test is being recovered.

El Paso No. 1 Barnett, 660 from the north and east lines of 9-25-1n, T&P Survey, drilled at 1,295 feet in shale and anhydrite.

Standard No. 1 Yates, 660 from the south and west lines of 22-263 Kerr CSL Survey, pumped 32 1/2 barrels of oil and 113 1/2 barrels of water in 24 hours. In the Devonian, it is still pumping.

A wildcat location 12 miles west of Water Valley is the Duncan No. 2 Harris, 330 from the north and 990 from the west lines of Section 131, Block 6, H&TC Survey. It is to be drilled to 2,100 feet with rotary equipment. Site is on a 160-acre lease.

Members of the grand jury are Ralph White, foreman; W. L. Sandridge, Alvin S. Bates, B. D. Lee, J. H. Fryar, Cecil McDonald, Mrs. W. N. Norred, L. A. Rawlings, Paul D. Sledge, Hershel Mathies and H. H. Thames.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

WITH TOMMY HART

Johnny Hughes, the fifth grader who won three races in last week's Elementary School track and field meet here, is the finest looking trackster to come along here in years.

Matty Bell, the SMU athletic director, and Dog Dawson, the former Southwest Conference athletic hero, are two who have made hotel reservations here for the April 4-5 American Business Club Relays.

Jack Reid, a 64-year-old rancher who resides in Sterling County but who maintains six spreads all over West Texas, played football for the now defunct San Angelo Methodist college way back in 1909.

He turned football pro for a San Angelo team the following season for the princely sum of $40 a month, big money in those days. His football career came to a sudden halt in a game in Fort Worth in 1910, however, when he suffered a broken leg.

The accident hastened his entry into the ranching profession, needless to relate.

Hard-working W. O. (Junior) Maxwell, who quit the many golf course here to take up employment as the manager of the links course at Webb AFB, is working hard to give the local base a first-rate course.

The layout is eventually going to be one of the beauty spots of this area.

Right now, golfers are forced to use three temporary greens (on a nine-hole course) but that situation may not long endure.

Jan Loudermilk, Big Spring's all-state basketball player, has been named to another all-opponent team, this one chosen by Max O'Banion, the Lubbock High mentor.

Other members of the mythical club include Paul Hyatt, Amarillo High; Warren Tipton, Borger; Bill Brown, Pampa; and Plainview's Bob Grampe.

Previously, Dave Cook of Lubbock Monterey had selected Hyatt, Loudermilk, Tipton and Grampe on his all-five team, along with Billy Taegel of Plainview.

Paul Hahn, the trick golfer who made a hit in an appearance at the Country Club here several years ago, is back in the area.

He's scheduled a show at the San Angelo Country Club for 5 p.m. April 3.

Hahn's patter sounds a lot like that of Bob Hofer who himself is an ardent golfer.

Charles Lindsey Marchbanks, the local insurance man who served as manager of the SMU baseball team while in school, says he still winces when he recalls how he caught Tommy Bowers' curve balls on his shins.

Marchbanks would warm up the Pony hurlers between innings while the SMU backstop was putting on his gear.

One of Webb AFB's and West Texas' premier bowlers, Ken Becker, is shipping out shortly to Korea.

I'm told only two options for seats in Texas Tech's new football stadium have been sold here, and only one of these to a Tech ex.

Maule May Come Here For Relays

Sports Illustrated magazine, a weekly publication, has notified the American Business Club Relays it will probably send Tex Maule, a former Dallas newspaper man, here to cover the big April 4-5 meet.

Maule has been a by-line writer for the magazine for the past couple of years and specialize in track and pro football.

LONGHORNS, LUBBOCK SQUARE OFF TODAY

Deprived of the chance to play a doubleheader here last weekend when the Plainview Bulldogs failed to put in an appearance, the Big Spring Steers head for Lubbock today to start a busy week of baseball activity.

It turned out that Coach Good Graves of Plainview got mixed up on his dates. His team hosted Portales, N.M. in two games Saturday. They won the first one, 17-6, and lost the second, 18-0.

The Longhorns meet Tom S. Lubbock in a makeup contest, starting at 4:15 p.m. On Tuesday, they oppose Lubbock Monterey in a single game in the local park, starting at 4:15 p.m. Friday, the locals open a three-game series with the Poly Parrots of Fort Worth here. The two nines play at 4:15 p.m. Friday, then meet twice on Saturday, with the first game due to begin at 1 p.m.

Billy Roger, a letterman senior, will probably toe the slab for Big Spring today.

Lubbock High carries a 2-1 record into action today, having dropped an 8-3 decision to Odessa last Friday after winning its first two starts.

Tom S. got six hits off Odessa hurling but was outclassed from the start.

Coach Roy Baird would probably come back with Lefty Chubby Moser as his hurler tomorrow. Moser has two wins to his credit, having beaten Andrews and Pecos.

Jay LeFevre, Rock Johnson, Johnson, John Curtis and Eston Hallis are among those who could see relief mound duty today and Tuesday.

Odessa High knocked off Monterey, 2-0, in a game Saturday at Lubbock, as Tommy McMorris fashioned a two-hitter for the Bronchos. The defeat left Monterey with a 1-1 record.

Arnold Flake was the Monterey pitcher. He was tagged for five hits. First sacker Bill Boyd managed the only two hits for Monterey, and one of those was a scratch blow.

While the "Fight of the Year" is going on in Chicago, heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson will be giving a three-round exhibition in London on the same night. The exhibition program will be featured by an international heavyweight tussle matching contender Cleveland Williams of Houston, Tex., and Welshman Dick Richardson.

Tonight's television over DuMont, 10 p.m. EST main event at New York's St. Nicholas Arena matches a couple of aggressive middleweights, Tony Gonzalez of Orange, N.J., and Eddie Andrews of Lowell, Mass.

Garnet "Sugar" Hart of Philadelphia and Charley "Tomstone" Smith of Los Angeles, a couple of hard-hitting welterweight contenders, collide in the TV headliner Wednesday night, 10 p.m. EST at the Philadelphia Arena, over ABC-TV.

Trophies will be awarded to the champions, runnersup and consolation round winner. A ten-player all-star team will also be selected.

The tournament is under the direction of E. C. Smith, local contractor who said all proceeds over and above expenses would go toward the YMCA building fund. Admission prices have been pegged at 25 and 50 cents.

First round pairings: White Well Services, Monahan, vs Nabors Paint Store, Big Spring, Tuesday; Ace Builders, San Angelo, vs Robinson Drilling Company, Monahan, 8:30 p.m., Tuesday; A & J Electric Company, Midland, vs Elliott Drug, Big Spring, 10 a.m., Tuesday; E. C. Smith Construction, Big Spring, vs Sivalis Tank Company, Odessa, 7 p.m. Wednesday.

CINCINNATI (AP) — Only two fans saw them off 10 days ago. They were pelted with derisive snowballs by their classmates. But the basketball team of Xavier University found things a lot different when they returned in triumph from New York yesterday with the National Invitation Tournament championship.

A crowd estimated at up to 10,000 persons stormed the Greater Cincinnati Airport and made things so difficult for officials, there was some doubt the team's plane could land.

The team got a horn-blowing, police-escorted parade from the airport through the streets of Cincinnati to the Xavier campus.

At the campus there was a noisy, cheering reception at the school's fieldhouse. The team even had a chance to heave a few snowballs—symbolic ones of paper—back at their classmates.

Even Coach Jim McCafferty, the only one who believed his team could go anywhere at the tournament, said dazedly, "I'm afraid I'll wake up and find out it's all been a dream."

Xavier had left for the tournament with a lackluster 15-11 record.

It ran through four upsets, winning the championship Saturday with a 78-74 overtime victory over Dayton.

Alexander's Jewelry hung onto first place in Industrial Bowling league standings despite the fact that it suffered a 2-1 reversal at the hands of Tom Conway's Service Station in games over the weekend.

In other matches, Snider's Gulf Station edged Frasier's Men's Store, 2-1; Toby's kayed B&H Well Service, 2-1; and Donald's Drive In turned back Wilson Brothers Construction, 2-1.

Conway's posted the top team scores of 858-2353.

But Summersell had the best tallies among the individuals, with 224-555.

Next week, Snider Gulf faces Toby's, B&H Well Service meets Prager's Men's Store, Donald's tries Conway's Station and Alexander's takes on Wilson Brothers.

Standings:

Team W L Pct. Alexander's Jewelry 49 26 .656

Wilson Brothers 43 38 .529

Prager's Men's Store 43 38 .529

Donald's Drive In 40 41 .494

Tom Conway's Station 39 42 .480

Snider's Gulf Station 33 48 .512

Richie Ashburn (.297) is the center fielder, of course, although Smith has been using Don Landrum as an Ashburn-type hitter who batted .294 at Miami. There had been recurrent trade rumors involving Ashburn who may wind up in Los Angeles or St. Louis.

Anderson (.268 with 17 homers as rookie) will play left, probably platooning with Rip Repulski (.260). Bowman (.266), Chuck Harmon (.258) and handyman Dave Phillely (.295 at Chicago and Detroit in the American League) are the reserves.

Stan Lopata (.237), apparently recovered from last year's knee injuries, is the No. 1 catcher with help from Joe Lonnett (.169).

If Roberts comes back, Smith will have a solid starting trio that includes Sanford and Curt Simmons (.12-11). Morehead (.1-1) is expected back from the Army by opening day to take a regular turn.

Reputed to be the smallest major league player Washington Senators outfielder Albie Pearson, 5-5, is sandwiched between Jim Lemons, left, 6-4 and Norm Zauchis 6-5 as they meet at Clearwater, Fla., training camp. Pearson and Zauchis, a first baseman, are obtained from the Boston Red Sox.

Basilio Is 8-5 Betting Choice Over Robinson

By The Associated Press

Can Sugar Ray Robinson do it again?

That same question has been popping up frequently through the years and so far the old master of the ring has been answering it with a resounding yes.

The years may finally catch up on him, however, in Chicago Stadium Tuesday night when he makes a bid to win the middleweight crown for the fifth time in the return bout with champion Carmen Basilio.

Basilio, 30, is an 8-5 favorite, to beat back the challenge of the 37-year-old veteran whom he dethroned by split decision in stirring 15-round in Yankee Stadium Sept. 23, 1957.

Although he's only lost the title three times—the retired once—Robinson will be trying to win it for the fifth time.

He took it first from Jake LaMotta in Chicago Feb. 14, 1951, lost it to Randy Turpin in London and regained it from the Briton in the same year. He retired in 1952 and came back two years later to flatten Bobo Olson for the title. Then came his fights with Gene Fullmer and Basilio last year.

The fight, scheduled for 11 p.m. EST won't be seen on home television. It will be sent over a closed circuit to theaters and auditoriums coast to coast and in Canada.

While the "Fight of the Year" is going on in Chicago, heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson will be giving a three-round exhibition in London on the same night. The exhibition program will be featured by an international heavyweight tussle matching contender Cleveland Williams of Houston, Tex., and Welshman Dick Richardson.

Tonight's television over DuMont, 10 p.m. EST main event at New York's St. Nicholas Arena matches a couple of aggressive middleweights, Tony Gonzalez of Orange, N.J., and Eddie Andrews of Lowell, Mass.

Garnet "Sugar" Hart of Philadelphia and Charley "Tomstone" Smith of Los Angeles, a couple of hard-hitting welterweight contenders, collide in the TV headliner Wednesday night, 10 p.m. EST at the Philadelphia Arena, over ABC-TV.

Trophies will be awarded to the champions, runnersup and consolation round winner. A ten-player all-star team will also be selected.

The tournament is under the direction of E. C. Smith, local contractor who said all proceeds over and above expenses would go toward the YMCA building fund. Admission prices have been pegged at 25 and 50 cents.

First round pairings: White Well Services, Monahan, vs Nabors Paint Store, Big Spring, Tuesday; Ace Builders, San Angelo, vs Robinson Drilling Company, Monahan, 8:30 p.m., Tuesday; A & J Electric Company, Midland, vs Elliott Drug, Big Spring, 10 a.m., Tuesday; E. C. Smith Construction, Big Spring, vs Sivalis Tank Company, Odessa, 7 p.m. Wednesday.

CINCINNATI (AP) — Only two fans saw them off 10 days ago. They were pelted with derisive snowballs by their classmates. But the basketball team of Xavier University found things a lot different when they returned in triumph from New York yesterday with the National Invitation Tournament championship.

A crowd estimated at up to 10,000 persons stormed the Greater Cincinnati Airport and made things so difficult for officials, there was some doubt the team's plane could land.

The team got a horn-blowing, police-escorted parade from the airport through the streets of Cincinnati to the Xavier campus.

At the campus there was a noisy, cheering reception at the school's fieldhouse. The team even had a chance to heave a few snowballs—symbolic ones of paper—back at their classmates.

Even Coach Jim McCafferty, the only one who believed his team could go anywhere at the tournament, said dazedly, "I'm afraid I'll wake up and find out it's all been a dream."

Xavier had left for the tournament with a lackluster 15-11 record.

It ran through four upsets, winning the championship Saturday with a 78-74 overtime victory over Dayton.

Alexander's Jewelry hung onto first place in Industrial Bowling league standings despite the fact that it suffered a 2-1 reversal at the hands of Tom Conway's Service Station in games over the weekend.

In other matches, Snider's Gulf Station edged Frasier's Men's Store, 2-1; Toby's kayed B&H Well Service, 2-1; and Donald's Drive In turned back Wilson Brothers Construction, 2-1.

Conway's posted the top team scores of 858-2353.

But Summersell had the best tallies among the individuals, with 224-555.

Next week, Snider Gulf faces Toby's, B&H Well Service meets Prager's Men's Store, Donald's tries Conway's Station and Alexander's takes on Wilson Brothers.

Standings:

Team W L Pct. Alexander's Jewelry 49 26 .656

Wilson Brothers 43 38 .529

Prager's Men's Store 43 38 .529

Donald's Drive In 40 41 .494

Tom Conway's Station 39 42 .480

Snider's Gulf Station 33 48 .512

Richie Ashburn (.297) is the center fielder, of course, although Smith has been using Don Landrum as an Ashburn-type hitter who batted .294 at Miami. There had been recurrent trade rumors involving Ashburn who may wind up in Los Angeles or St. Louis.

Anderson (.268 with 17 homers as rookie) will play left, probably platooning with Rip Repulski (.260). Bowman (.266), Chuck Harmon (.258) and handyman Dave Phillely (.295 at Chicago and Detroit in the American League) are the reserves.

Stan Lopata (.237), apparently recovered from last year's knee injuries, is the No. 1 catcher with help from Joe Lonnett (.169).

If Roberts comes back, Smith will have a solid starting trio that includes Sanford and Curt Simmons (.12-11). Morehead (.1-1) is expected back from the Army by opening day to take a regular turn.

Stretch Drive Pays Off For A. Palmer

By MERCER BAILEY

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP) — After Arnold Palmer's tingling stretch drive victory in the St. Petersburg Open, touring golf professionals inside the Florida east coast today for two pro-amateur events starting with an 18-hole in Fort Lauderdale.

Tomorrow they jump to West Palm Beach for the 36-hole Seminole program. There for the first time this winter circuit riders will tangle with two of the game's all-time greats, Ben Hogan and Sam Snead. Hogan and Snead have been touting their games for the Masters at Augusta, Ga., the first week in April.

Palmer, 28-year-old consistent money winner from Latrobe, Pa., had to shoot 6 under par 65, the best round of the tournament, to nail down top prize of $2,000. He birdied the final hole, thereby avoiding a sudden death playoff with Dow Finsterwald, Tequesta, Fla., and Fred Hawkins, El Paso, Tex. Palmer's chart for four rounds over the 6,265-yard, par-71 Pasadena Club course read 70-69-72-65-276. Finsterwald had 70-70-67-70-277. Hawkins 72-72-67-66-277. They got $1,350 each.

Leo Biagetti, St. Paul, Minn., closed with a 69 for 279 and fourth money of $1,000. Bill Casper Jr., Apple Valley, Calif., picked up $900 with a 67 and a 280 total.

Wo Winger, Odessa, Tex., was next with 68 and 281, worth $800. Both Palmer and Hawkins started the final round four strokes behind pace-setting Finsterwald.

At the turn Hawkins had reeled off three birdies and pulled even with the scrambling Finsterwald, Palmer was one stroke behind.

Palmer caught the other two on the 15th hole. Arnold Palmer, $2,000. 70-69-72-65-276. Dow Finsterwald, $1,350. 70-70-67-70-277. Fred Hawkins, $1,350. 72-72-67-66-277. ## It's Oscar Time And Here's Private Vote

By BOB THOMAS
 HOLLYWOOD — The movie capital, which thrives on superlatives, promises its most star-studded, rip-roaring production next Wednesday night — the 30th annual Academy Awards.

Having put up the money for the show this year, the town is also putting up the stars. Producer Jerry Wald promises 90-count "em—90.

Among them are many who are seldom if ever seen on TV — except in old movies: Clark Gable, Mae West, Gregory Peck, Rock Hudson, Cary Cooper, Doris Day, Gene Kelly, Cyd Charisse, Burt Lancaster, and others.

Here's how the major races look in my smog-ridden crystal ball.

BEST PICTURE—"The Bridge on the River Kwai" appears the favorite. More than any of the others, it was a good solid movie with a capital M. "Witness for the Prosecution" was more of a filmed stage play. "12 Angry Men" a filmed TV show. "Sayonara" and "Peyton Place" owed much to their origins as novels. All were effective, but "Kwai" offered stirring, effective use of the movie medium.

CHOICE—"The Bridge on the River Kwai"

BEST ACTOR—Alec Guinness sustained a fine performance in the tough role as the "Kwai" commandant. He is in line for honors for his many great jobs in the past. Marlon Brando ("Sayonara"), Charles Laughton ("Witness for the Prosecution") and Anthony Quinn ("Wild Is the Wind") are past winners, so their impact on Academy voters is not as great.

Anthony Franciosa had a showy part in "A Hatful of Rain," but it didn't have the sustained dramatics for top competition.

CHOICE—Alec Guinness.

BEST ACTRESS—Oh, my! This race is a killer. First, let's eliminate past winner Anna Magnani ("Wild Is the Wind"), whose role was pure Magnani, and Lana Turner ("Peyton Place"), who has had better parts.

That leaves Elizabeth Taylor ("Raintree County"), Deborah Kerr ("Heaven Knows, Mr. Allison") and Joanne Woodward ("Three Faces of Eve"). The Oscar could go to any of the three.

Liz was the best thing in "Raintree County" and did her finest work to date. Joanne had a great tour de force as the three-faced neurotic, and the Academy often honors newcomers. Deborah did not have her greatest role as the shipwrecked nun, but the Oscar is sometimes given on the basis of past performances. And she has had a string of superlative ones.

CHOICE—Deborah Kerr.

Liz Declares Todd Really A 'Softie'

By JAMES BACON
 HOLLYWOOD — Mike Todd, the cocky showman who put up a fearless front to the world, actually lived in mortal dread of one thing.

"He was afraid someone might find out he really was a softie," his beautiful wife declared in a bedside interview—her only one since she learned of his death in an air crash Saturday.

Of the crash, Elizabeth Taylor commented: "I begged him not to go—to wait one more day. I don't think he wanted to go. He came upstairs six times to kiss me goodbye before he left the house."

The actress worried about bad weather at the time of Todd's departure and over the fact that she couldn't accompany him. A virus, which brought a 102-degree fever, kept her home—and alive today.

Of a dozen stories attesting to Todd's little known soft-hearted side, here are a few which Liz herself confirmed as true:

A maid employed by the couple only three months had a daughter who contracted cancer. When Todd heard of it, he picked up the phone and ordered Dick Hanley, his executive secretary: "Find the best cancer specialist in the world—I don't care what it costs—and fly him here."

Hanley complied with the order and the daughter of a new maid got the finest medical treatment.

For years, Todd's New York office was located at 1700 Broadway. The unpretentious suite was kept clean by an old charwoman named Maude.

When "Around the World in 80 Days" was finished, the film's distributing company asked Todd to move his office to a more luxurious location, which he did.

One day in the midst of an important executive meeting, Todd suddenly interrupted: "Hey, what happened to Maude?" Told that she had been let go because the new offices had their own janitor service, Todd told Hanley: "See Maude's still kept on salary."

That was more than a year ago and she still draws a weekly paycheck from the Michael Todd Co.—although she hasn't lifted a scrub brush for it in that time.

"Mike loved people," said Liz. "He often said he couldn't hold a grudge more than 20 minutes—and he never did."

She told how much she and Todd loved each other.

"No one ever will know just how much. Even our fights, and we had plenty, were a sort of love-making."

Pilot Saved From Ocean

Members of a rescue unit haul 34-year-old Leo John Colapietro into a lifeboat after the jet plane he was flying exploded eight miles off shore at Santa Monica, Calif. The boat crew teamed with a helicopter crew, including the unidentified diver, lower left, to make the rescue. The diver swam to the injured pilot and towed him to the side of the boat. Colapietro, a test pilot for Douglas Aircraft, was taken to a hospital where he was described as in fair condition.

INCOME TAX DEADLINE

Aspirin Consumption May Hit Astronomical Rate By April 15

DEAR BOSS: Your informative memo inquiring about the available supply and consumption of aspirin tablets by Big Spring residents has been on my desk for some weeks now.

It was only this past week (I happened to look at the calendar) that the urgency of this matter impressed itself on me.

Boss, why didn't you write an additional note reminding me that deadline for payment of Federal Income Taxes is just three weeks off? If you had, I would have realized instantly how important it is there be an ample supply of aspirin in town.

You see, on a national footing the average American reportedly gulps down three aspirin tablets a week. Assuming that we have 30,000 population and allowing that maybe 10,000 are youngsters who do not have the urgent need for these pills that their elders have, we use around 60,000 aspirin tablets in an ordinary week.

But, Boss, the next three weeks aren't ordinary. Look at all of the folk who have blithely postponed working out their income tax reports. Now, with so little time left, they are bound to start on the job. When that starts—oh, boy! Dad will need aspirin by the quart and his temper will be so ragged that mother will also have to resort to the 5-grain models. And three a week, honest, won't be near enough. Our average consumption of aspirin, if we swallow 60,000 a week on ordinary weeks, should jump to astronomical figures these next few weeks.

I have made a hurried and worried survey of the situation and I am relieved to discover stacks of aspirin bottles and tins in drug stores, food stores, cafes, filling stations and five-and-ten stores.

I am convinced there are plenty of pills to meet the crisis projected by the approaching income tax deadline but I am concerned whether there will be enough left over to last the community out the month.

I have consumed my share of aspirin and I puzzle over the national three aspirin tablets per week figure. Who takes one aspirin?

If I have a headache, one is worse than none and often two are no better. I have learned that in all headache preparations the one common substance used is aspirin. Additional compounds may be added, as claimed, but it all boils down to the inevitable presence of aspirin.

The next step in this scientific study of the problem took me to a doctor friend.

"What's the maximum dose of aspirin a person can take and not risk shuffling off this mortal coil?" I asked.

The doctor explained to me that aspirin is a poison when taken in excess quantities and that some doleful characters have even attempted, and perhaps achieved, suicide by gulping down aspirin by the handful. Children sometimes get their little fingers on the family aspirin and eat the lot. They wind up at the hospital, often very sick, but generally the medics can pull them through.

When you sit down to figure out your Form 1040 do a little calculating on the aspirin needed. The doctor tells me that you can, in a dire emergency, take as many as 24 tablets in 24 hours and not suffer any. He does not recommend this, naturally. Some folk are more prone to bad effects than others—be sure you're not one of these if you have a need for an excessive quantity.

SPLITTING HEADACHE
Another funny thing—if you take too many aspirin (above the standard maximum) know what happens?

You get a splitting headache, first of all. You are dizzy, your ears ring and you suffer a dimness of vision. You get sick to your stomach. If you've really overdone it, you pass into a coma. And the books warn that you can doggone sure die as a result.

So, Boss, answering your first question: Yes, there is plenty of reserve aspirin on hand in Big Spring. As to the second, even though you feel you just have to do something, don't overdo it. If things are real bad you can survive 24 tablets in 24 hours. I don't think my medical friend recommends this for income taxitis.

"We sometimes give such dosages in extreme cases of rheumatic fever," he said.

I figure one 12 tablet bottle would be about enough when you sit down at the dining table with your income tax report.

750 Negroes In Former White Texas Schools

AUSTIN (AP) — There are now some 750 Negroes attending 35 Texas colleges and universities that previously were all-white schools.

Eight others have adopted a policy of integration but have no Negro students at the present time, a survey by Richard Morehead of the Dallas News' Austin Bureau shows.

The 750 Negroes represent slightly more than 1 per cent of the 65,000 students enrolled in the 35 schools.

One school, the University of Texas' Galveston Medical Branch, has a Negro resident surgeon on its staff. Of the medical school's 502 students, 22 are Negroes.

The University of Texas has the largest number of Negro students, according to the survey, 165, compared with 15,925 white. A North Texas State is the largest having Negroes on its athletic teams. Two are on the football team.

Schools which have desegregated include state junior and senior colleges and some church-supported schools.

Texarkana Junior College has been ordered by a federal court to admit Negroes but has not done so. Negro students who attempted to register there were turned back by a crowd of pro-segregationists.

Most of the desegregated colleges are in Central, West and South Texas; but Lamar Tech at Beaumont in Southeast Texas, near the Louisiana border, now has 57 Negro students. Pro-segregation groups there put up picket lines but were unable to halt integration.

Suicide Suspected
IDAHO FALLS, Idaho (AP) — An auto parked near the city dump blew up last night, scattering debris as far as a block away and killing the only occupant. Coroner Jack A. Wood Jr. said the death appeared to be suicide.

The victim was identified as Arthur D. Johnson, about 24, a brick worker.

Presley Reports For Induction

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — Rock 'n' roll singer Elvis Presley reports for Army induction today. If all goes as expected, he'll be Pvt. Presley before nightfall.

The only hitch would be if he flunked his physical examination. That's considered extremely doubtful. He was in the best of health when he took his pre-induction physical a year ago.

Swearing-in ceremonies were set for late today. Just when Elvis' group leaves for the reception center at Ft. Chaffee, Ark., depends on whether there are at least seven volunteers reporting here to go with the 13 draftees.

If there are, the new soldiers leave tonight by charter bus. If not, they'll go tomorrow by train, switching to a bus at Little Rock.

Elvis, 22, returned from Hollywood 10 days ago after his latest picture was completed. He's had little to say about Army life as his induction day approached.

"I haven't talked to anyone about what I'll do in the Army. I'll do what they ask," he said.

His only expressed concern: "Those fellows (the Army) are getting up about the time I usually go to bed."

He spent yesterday in bed after an all-night roller skating party with friends.

He visited the barber twice during the past week and had his hair cut a little shorter each time. The result was a semi-flat-top. However, he left ample working room for the Army barber.

Home Blasted

DALLAS (AP) — A home in north-east Dallas was shattered by an explosion yesterday, but Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hays and their four children escaped injury. Hays said he thought fuel leaking from his auto was ignited by a hot water heater in the attached garage.

Franco May Support King

MADRID, Spain (AP) — Speculation arose today that Gen. Francisco Franco may have dropped his objections to putting a Spanish king back on the throne.

The dictator's wife returned from a visit to Don Juan of Bourbon, the 44-year-old pretender who lives in Portugal. Mrs. Carmen Polo de Franco had four meetings with him.

Persons present said she curtseyed deeply and addressed Don Juan as "Your Majesty." They said Spanish Foreign Minister Fernando Maria Castiella, who accompanied Mrs. Franco, also met with the pretender's political advisers in Lisbon.

Informants said Franco, who is past 65 and has no sons or any obvious political heirs, must have approved the meeting and may have suggested it.

PERMANENT IMPROVEMENTS

Charles Campbell Installs Brick, Stone Building Facings

Owners of stucco homes or commercial buildings are more fortunate than others when it comes to remodeling with the modern new stone and brick facings, according to Charles Campbell, local contractor. They can cover their homes or other structures with the brick or stone much more economically than individuals owning frame buildings. Reason for this is that stucco must be added to the frame structure before the stone is applied. If the house is stuccoed already, one step in the installation is eliminated. This cuts the costs, of course.

"All we have to do is apply the stone at a stucco house," Campbell explained. "At a frame house, we have to first stucco and then install the stone."

However, even when stucco must be applied, the remodeling can be accomplished economically. For one thing, the stucco won't require the "finish" of a regular stucco job, since it will have to serve only as base for the stone or brick facings.

Campbell pointed out that the stone he handles is permanent. And it is a permanent change that many homeowners here are making.

"We can change the appearance of any structure," Campbell said. "A large percentage of our business is installing new stone fronts, but we specialize in remodeling homes. Most of the stone fronts installed by Campbell here have been of brick facing. There are numerous examples throughout the city and their attractiveness and good condition after years of service attest to the quality of Campbell's work. The brick facing consists of large slabs which are cemented to stucco walls. Even close inspection of the finished product fails to reveal that it is not real brick. Homeowners here have a preference for the mural stone, Campbell said. This facing resembles Austin stone. Age makes it even more attractive than when new."

Campbell has been a contractor in this area for two decades. He performs all types of stucco work and concrete construction. Although he will undertake concrete work of any kind, his services are in most demand in the "finish" phase of construction, such as the installation of slab floors for garages, driveways, etc. Campbell resides in the Hilldale Addition. He may be contacted by telephone at AMherst 4-2407.

White Truck Is Built To Handle All Assignments

The designing engineers of the White Motor Co. have gone to the men who should know—the operators—in coming out with a better truck, and the White WC-24TD diesel is the result.

In Big Spring, the place to look for White trucks is Sid Bolding Motors, 312 State. You should go to them also for any truck repair; their mechanics specialize in doing a superior job.

The White Co. felt that the operators could come up with ways to improve trucks, and their ideas were submitted to the designing engineers. The WC-24TD model came out with seven major features which distinguish it from any other diesel tractor: low operating cost, lightweight design, 96-inch dimension, maximum safety, driver comfort, ease of maintenance, and adequate power.

The powerful 200-horsepower engine provides higher sustained speed on hills, thus saving valuable trip time. And the lightweight design cuts down chassis weight and increases payload potential. The White firm used aluminum and lightweight high-tensile steel for adding strength and also to save weight.

The 96-inch dimension, from front of bumper to back of cab, permits using the tractor with a 35-foot trailer and still have clearance on the 45-foot overall length limit. The truck has a lower center of gravity, thus improving vehicle balance, steering, and riding. Maximum visibility is also assured because of higher windshield and larger rear-view mirrors. Every comfort and convenience is provided the driver including 50-inch front springs; compressed air starter; an oversized, quieter, muffler; three-way adjustable seat, twin brake and accelerator pedals, and a cab-ventilating and under-seat heating system. Contact Sid Bolding Motors, at 312 State, about this or any other White-made truck. There is one for your needs.

U. S. Royals Incorporate All 'Safeties'

Which safety do you put first in automobile tires — blowout safety, puncture safety, thruway safety or skid safety?

You get all four with all new U. S. Royal Safety First tires, sold locally by the Phillips Tire Company, located at Fourth and Johnson Streets.

If you travel where you're likely to hit a pot-hole in the road, you need the blowout safety of today's new Safety First tires. U. S. Royals are so strong they are actually used in landing a 21-ton airliner. Driving where you're apt to pick up nails, you need protection from sudden "flats", puncture safety. U. S. Royals, with nails driven through their treads, survived 3,000 miles—with no "flat".

Do you drive for hours on congested highways? Then you need "thruout" safety — and you get the most from U. S. Royal New "Safety First" tires have up to eight times the cruising endurance.

If you do a lot of bad-weather motoring, up and down slippery hills, you need the skid safety of the new U. S. Royal tires. Thousands of traction edges stop you up to 57.3 feet quicker.

The all new U. S. Royal Safety First tires have been completely engineered with your safety as the first consideration.

Every molecule of their chemistry, every contour of their construction is new. Their specifications are dictated by the most modern methods of electronic computation.

They've been put through the most exhaustive testing in tire history, racking up more than 241 millions of tortuous miles. They have, in truth, earned the name Safety First.

Best of all, U. S. Royal Safety First tires cost no more than ordinary tires... mile for mile, dollar for dollar.

River Funeral Home Proud Of Role In Community

River Funeral Home, 600 Scurry, recognizes deeply the obligation it has to the community and to the patrons who come to it for service.

At times when death strikes a family, the need of the bereaved for competent, sympathetic and helpful aid becomes tremendous. Few persons are experienced in the many details which much arise when death occurs. To relieve such persons of the worry and responsibility of meeting these details and coping with them is one of the services River feels it is most competent to handle. Funeral services at River Funeral Home and under the direction of its tactful, sympathetic and courteous personnel alleviate much needless worry and sorrow that such tragedies invoke.

River never ceases in its efforts to find more and more ways to help its patrons and to broaden the field of service it renders. The "little things" which mean so much in such sorrowful times are never overlooked and their great importance is highly respected by River.

It is most uncommon for a person to coldly anticipate and plan just what he would do or be called upon to do if a member of his family should die.

River knows this to be the case; it recognizes the universal "unpreparedness" of the average individual in such an emergency. And it stands ready to step in, assume all of the responsibility and so free the sorrowing relative of the details which must be worked out.

River is proud of its part in the community life and takes great pride in its professional work.

Gossip About Notorious Figures

If Dorothy Kilgallen can tell unusual stories about famous people without revealing their names and thereby start a guessing game among her readers...

endeavor has what amounts to the same trouble and has been known to take things like radios from players' locker and even blocs of game tickets.

One of America's most famous entertainers, no longer among the living, once paid a Broadway character $50,000 to 'step out of the life of one of his girl friends, in order that he could marry her.'

One of our best known fighters twice sold out to gamblers for sums totaling $325,000, while at the height of his career, because the courts made it difficult for him to spend any of his own money for long periods at a time.

The owner of one of New York's plush night clubs was a bootlegger in one of our dry states years ago. The law tried for years to hang a rap on him, without success.

One of sportsdom's best known personalities is a kleptomaniac, who continues to steal little things, even though he is well off financially.

So at last this had become the policy of the government, and all future administrations had a directive to act.

What a wacky amount of political huffer-mugger and financial skulduggery often went on in the '30s when the wife and daughters of some newly rich citizen of this republic wished to cement their shaky social position with a curtsy before their Britanic Majesties!

Not a pearl of wisdom on the matter can be squeezed from anyone in the industry here. For one thing, the court, equally divided on the question and thereby upholding a lower court's finding, did not issue any opinions that might generate public discussion of the ruling.

Like icebergs, there's a lot in such cases that doesn't meet the eye. Maybe it wouldn't be nearly as interesting if it were common knowledge.

Shed A Tear For Passing Of A Custom

Look who's shedding a nostalgic tear over the decision of Her Majesty, Elizabeth II, to end the age-old custom of debutante presentations to the monarch at the Court of St. James's...

And what now will become of all the impoverished English gentlewomen who used to earn their tea and crumpets teaching American debutantes to curtsy, manage a court train and keep those three Prince of Wales plumes glued to their gowns?

Granted it was a silly custom, anti-democratic and without real rhyme or reason. So why am I shedding a crocodile tear? Well, partly because life is real, life is earnest to such an extent these days that it is wringing all the color and pageantry out of existence.

At all odds, I rejoice that I witnessed, from the outside looking in, the final brilliant evening court of this century. That was the court held during the coronation of King George VI and his Queen Elizabeth in 1937.

So at last this had become the policy of the government, and all future administrations had a directive to act.

With thousands upon thousands of Londoners, I stood in the packed Mall and watched the debutante procession move slowly down the great thoroughfare to Buckingham Palace, ablaze with lights both inside and out.

As reported in the news columns, it simply seems to mean that if you take quotations from a copyrighted work in spoofing it you must have the copyright holder's permission.

It was a glimpse of fairyland! Surely Cinderella's coach in no wise could match the splendor of these gorgeous equipages powered by matched horses.

Parody is one of the most ancient and honorable forms of public entertainment. Suddenly to find it illegal is astonishing—and a little frightening in the area of freedom of expression.

But I shall never forget one—typical of all — with the coachman ramrod erect on the box draped in scarlet and gold. Both he and the two footmen, standing like martinetes at their post in the rear, wore powdered wigs, black tricornes, white coats heavily embroidered in gold, scarlet knee breeches, white silk stockings and buckled slippers.

Asparagus Makes A Gourmet Salad

For a gourmet salad that requires very little preparation, we suggest Asparagus Salad. Here's how to do it:

ASPARAGUS SALAD

Ingredients: 1 can (14 1/2 oz.) all-green asparagus 2 tbsps. olive oil 1 tbsps. salad vinegar 1/4 tsp. salt 1/4 tsp. pepper 1/4 tsp. sugar 1/4 tsp. Bahama mustard Salad greens

Method: Drain asparagus and place in long narrow container. (Asparagus liquid can be refrigerated and used in a soup.) Shake together olive oil, vinegar, salt, pepper, sugar and mustard in a small jar with a tight cover until blended. Pour dressing over asparagus; chill for 1 hour or longer. At serving time, arrange asparagus on salad greens and drizzle marinade over.

Forsan FHA Schedules Activities For Week

This evening, the Forsan Future Homemakers of America will award degrees at a meeting at the school as part of the observance of FHA Week, in progress at this time.

Mrs. W. M. Romans is home-making instructor in the Forsan school.

Sunday evening the girls and their parents joined for a social at the school, following church services. Devotions will be given each day at the school by a member of the group. These include Mary Beth Yates, Winona Hall, Ella Beth Story, Mae Bronaugh and Sue McElroy.

Tuesday, slated as Cooperation Day, will see members being especially nice, "with no fussing and quarreling"—it was announced.

Wednesday has been designated as Teacher-Student Day, and members will teach classes during the school sessions.

Dutch Treat Day, on Thursday, will be a pleasure for the boys, friends, since they will be honored with special attention and taken on dates, "for free."

Daddy Appreciation Day is set for Friday, with various nice things planned for the girls' fathers.

Saturday will find the girls making money for their treasury, when they observe the "Servant-For-A-Day" routine. Each girl plans to work at some task, for which she will be paid; the money is to be donated to the club treasury.

Truett Vines, Bride Feted

Mr. and Mrs. Truett Vines, who were recently wed, were given a surprise housewarming and miscellaneous shower Saturday evening at their home on the Snyder Highway.

Guests were members of the Senior and Junior High Schools, about 50 attended the party. Hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. Louis Mameely, Mrs. Ed Shives, Mrs. Clemon Montgomery, Mrs. Edward Seal and Mrs. L. H. Stewart.

For After-Five

After five cottons greet the resort season with a lightened, more luxurious look for leisure hours. Nelly de Grab uses sheer cotton for a hostess costume in a fashionable paisley print. Cell Chapman fashions a flaming red date dress in featherweight cotton chiffon.

Debits Unchanged?

FT. MADISON, Iowa (AP)—If the color of ink being used is a fair indication of American business conditions, 1957 was no better or worse than 1956. The Sheaffer Pen Co. reports no change in the proportion of black ink and red ink sold during 1957.
