$23,821 ADDED WEDNESDAY

60 Pct. Of YMCA Building Campaign Goal Is Reported

The YMCA was 60 per cent along the way toward its new building Thursday.

Report sessions of the general and big gifts divisions Wednesday added $23,821 to the figures announced last Thursday at the general kickoff for the campaign.

More than a dozen workers turned up as "quota busters," and one team headed by Clyde Angel exceeded a team goal of $2,000 with $343 to spare.

Out of nearly 300 workers, reports were received Wednesday from 73 of the solicitors. R. W. Whipkey, teams chairman, said that efforts would be redoubled to get a broader tabulation Friday at 5:15 p.m. when the second report session is held in the Settles ballroom.

The general division accounted for $17,821 raised and pledged at the report Wednesday. Of this the section directed by K. H. McGibbon had $10,115.50, and the remaining portion was reported by the section led by Clyde McMahon.

The $17,821 Wednesday came from cards on 219 individuals. This leaves 1,281 cards outstanding, not counting approximately 200 still available at the campaign office.

LAMESA — R. B. Snell was named to the City Council here Wednesday afternoon to succeed J. Ray Williams who resigned May 1. Snell also was named mayor pro tem, a post Williams held.

A resolution accepting up to $36,000 in federal funds for city-county airport runway construction was adopted by the council during its called session.

The new councilman is an attorney, deacon in the Baptist Church and a member of the Lions Club. He has been active in other civic affairs, including Parent-Teacher Assn. work.

U.S. Legation Is Fired On

PORT AU PRINCE, Haiti (AP) — The official residence of U.S. Ambassador Gerald Drew was heavily fired upon Wednesday night by unidentified persons.

Drew vigorously protested at the Haiti Foreign Ministry today. Drew, his wife and their two grandsons were not injured. Bullets splattered about the residence.

Rocks Pelt Nixon In Peruvian Visit

LIMA, Peru (AP) — A shower of rocks greeted Vice President Nixon today as he sought to visit San Marcos University's rector and talk to students. One rock grazed Nixon's neck and another clipped the tooth of a member of Nixon's party, Jack Sherwood.

Nixon then canceled his visit, saying it was obvious someone would be badly hurt if he persisted. He then paid a call on nearby Catholic University to talk to student groups there.

Two thousand students were assembled as Nixon approached 400-year-old San Marcos. The university student federation early this morning adopted a resolution saying Nixon was unwelcome in Peru because "he represents the plutocratic and imperialist interests of the North American government."

The local press identified the main backers of the resolution as Communist sympathizers.

Final Estimate Of Cotton Crop Made

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department's final estimate today placed the 1957 Texas cotton crop at 3,632,000 bales—nearly one third of the national harvest of 10,964,000 bales.

The department said that the Texas crop came from 5,905,000 acres and averaged 295 pounds of lint per acre. Texas production of American-Egyptian long staple cotton was placed at 26,400 bales.

The report said that the national crop of 10,964,000 bales of 500 pounds gross weight had a farm value of $1,618,000,000.

This estimate, based on ginnings for the 1957 crop season, compared with a 1956 crop of 13,310,000 bales with a value of $2,113,000,000.

The final figure compares with 11,010,000 bales forecast last December.

Production for the ten-year (1946-55) period averaged 13,669,000 bales.

No forecast for this year's production will be made until August. A report in July will give figures on the acreage in cultivation.

The department said last year's cotton brought producers an average of 29.5 cents a pound compared with $1.75 for the 1956 crop. Cottonseed brought an average of $51.10 compared with $53.40 for 1956.

The acreage of cotton in cultivation July 1 was reported at 14,066,000 compared with 16,833,000 a year earlier. Some land was taken out of production under the soil bank land retirement program.

The acreage harvested for the 1957 crop was put at 13,558,000 compared with 15,615,000 for the 1956 crop.

The yield of cotton per harvested acre was reported at 388 pounds last year compared with 409 in 1956 and 300 for the ten-year average.

New Squadron To Boost Webb Strength By 400

Air Force Gains Altitude Record

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The United States claimed a new world altitude record of 91,249 feet today.

The Air Force officially claimed recapture of the world altitude record with the climb by an F104A Starfighter jet.

The Air Force said the altitude mark, achieved Wednesday over Palmdale, Calif., exceeded by more than two miles the level of 80,190 feet registered only last week by a French experimental Trident Isere-06.

The Starfighter, described by Gen. Nathan Twining, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staffs, as the most advanced plane of its type ever developed, was piloted by Maj. Howard C. Johnson, 37, of Novato, Calif., and Knoxville, Tenn.

The 17-mile climb by the Starfighter, designed to exceed the speed of sound in straight upward flight, and return was completed in 27 minutes.

The Starfighter, features wings that extend only 7 1/2 feet from the fuselage. The wings are thin and the leading edges razor sharp.

Disclosure of the climb first came from the Lockheed Aircraft Corp., which manufactures the F104A.

The results of the flight over the Mojave Desert were confirmed by officials of the National Aeronautical Assn., the Lockheed announcement said.

Johnson, who took off from Hamilton Air Force Base, Calif., flew higher than any man who ever took off in a plane from the earth. Only an experimental rocket plane ever has gone higher, and it was launched from a mother plane.

Lockheed quoted Johnson as saying the flight took him through temperatures lower than 60 degrees below zero Fahrenheit.

He said he accelerated to maximum speed, pulled into a high angle climb and zoomed into the thin atmosphere to the peak at 91,249 feet.

He said the ultrasonic fighter is moving today's fighter pilot well out to the region where the sky is deep blue, turning almost black.

Johnson said he was too busy to do much sightseeing.

The plane hit more than twice the speed of sound on the flight, the announcement reported.

Johnson is operations officer of the 83rd Fighter Interceptor Squadron at Hamilton AFB. He has been in service since enlisting at Lexington, Ky., April 1, 1942.

Slayer
David Frank McKnight, 21, handcuffed and shackled, is escorted into police headquarters at Amarillo after being returned from Colorado where he was captured after a wild chase over mountain highways. McKnight will face charges of slaying an Amarillo pawnshop operator. His girlfriend, Georgia Bryan, shot and killed herself as McKnight surrendered to officers. With McKnight is Detective Sgt. E. N. Smith.

ADC Unit Starts Move In September

Personnel increase of approximately 400 at Webb Air Force Base was assured today, with official announcement of an Air Defense Command Fighter-Interceptor Squadron.

Both the Air Force and

Congressman George Mahon made announcement out of Washington to confirm the long-talked "expansion program" for the local base.

The news release revealed the transfer to Webb of the ADC's 331st FI Squadron, now stationed at Stewart AFB, Newburg, N. Y.

Webb now is slated to begin receiving the ADC personnel by September, and the move is to be completed by spring. It represents about 400 additional people at the Base.

The 331st is commanded by Lt. Col. R. C. Watson, who is scheduled to transfer here with his unit. Col. Watson was in Big Spring a few weeks ago to confer with Webb officers on details for the transfer.

The squadron currently is flying F-86 jet aircraft. The program is for this unit to convert to the super-sonic F-102 in the near future.

Transfer here of the Defense Command unit means expenditure of considerable money on various projects at the air base. This will involve hangar and housing facilities and various operational and maintenance items for the fighter-interceptor squadron.

The $4,118,000 appropriation figure which was approved by Congress for expenditure at Webb during this fiscal year presumably accommodates the expenditure involved for stationing the Defense Command unit here.

The squadron naturally will be under the Air Defense Command in its operations, but housing accommodations, etc., fall under Webb's jurisdiction as a unit in the Air Training Command.

Many conferences have been held during recent months upon plans for coordinating all factors entailed in the stationing here of the ADC squadron.

Ike Orders Troops Out Of Little Rock

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower today ordered withdrawal May 29 of all federal troops enforcing school integration at Little Rock, Ark.

The President said in a statement he hopes it will be unnecessary to return the troops at the start of the school year next September.

Eisenhower's orders on withdrawal were relayed by Secretary of the Army Brucker to Maj. Gen. Edwin A. Walker, commander of the troops which have been enforcing a court order for integration at Little Rock's Central High School since last September.

Eisenhower's statement said in part:

"Since the summer recess starts at the Central High School on May 28 and since there will be no further present need for the guardsmen, I have directed they be released May 29.

TRUST IN PEOPLE

"Following that date, I trust that state and local officials and citizens will assume their full responsibility and duty for seeing that the orders of the federal court are not obstructed."

back into Little Rock when Central High School opens for the fall term.

NO DETAILS

He replied that he was not going to attempt to project beyond the language of the President's statement.

"I think it is quite clear where the responsibility lies," the press secretary said, adding:

"We will just have to wait and see."

Faubus ordered Arkansas National Guardsmen to Central High last September. He said he did so to preserve law and order. The effect was to bar Negroes from the high school.

FAUBUS TRIP

Later, Faubus traveled to Eisenhower's vacation headquarters at Newport, R. I., for a conference with the President. There were indications after that meeting that an agreement on how to handle the situation had been reached.

But if there was such an agreement, it collapsed.

The President reportedly was under the impression that the troops Faubus had ordered to the high school would be withdrawn shortly, but that did not happen.

A few days later the President federalized the Arkansas National Guard—which took the Guard from control by Faubus—and ordered that unit, plus Army regulars, to duty at the high school to enforce integration.

Although there have been racial incidents at the school since that time, there has been no marked violence and some Negro students have continued to attend classes.

Views Aired On Water Projects

WASHINGTON (AP) — Texas delegations told congressional committees again today their views on nearly 30 million dollars worth of proposed federal aid for state water projects.

More than a score of Texans went before a House appropriations subcommittee to seek construction funds for some projects and planning funds for others.

"Some were to present their views today before a Senate appropriations subcommittee.

The Budget Bureau has recommended slightly more than 20 million dollars for water works in the fiscal year starting July 1.

East Texans differed on the proposed $6-million-dollar multipurpose McGee Bend Dam on the Angelina River, 10 miles from Jasper.

West Texans were in conflict over the proposed $14,000,000 Proctor Dam on the Leon River, a tributary of the Brazos in West Texas.

The East Texans opposed hydroelectric features of the McGee project. Both East Texas and West Texas opponents contend the McGee and Proctor dams would flood valuable farm and timberlands.

Congress already has appropriated $175,000 for planning Proctor Dam. The Budget Bureau recommended that $125,000 more be provided next fiscal year to complete such studies.

Rep. Omar Bureson, who supports the Proctor Dam project, introduced the opposing factions to the committee.

"Following that date, I trust that state and local officials and citizens will assume their full responsibility and duty for seeing that the orders of the federal court are not obstructed."

In reply to a question, White House press secretary James C. Hagerty said he did not know how many federal troops still are on duty in Little Rock.

The number is much smaller than it was when the troops took over integration duty last September.

Eisenhower ordered regular Army troops and federalized National Guardsmen into the area after outbreaks of violence at the high school when Negro students attempted to attend classes.

The President said at the time he was acting to preserve the integrity of the U.S. District Court's attempt to uphold a 1954 Supreme Court ruling against race segregation in the public schools.

Asked whether Eisenhower's action today was taken after consultation with Arkansas Gov. Orval Faubus, Hagerty replied "not that I know of."

But later, Hagerty told newsmen he had checked and had learned there had been no consultation with Faubus.

Hagerty also was asked whether he could say definitely that federal troops would not be sent

Officials Puzzle Over Welcome For Confessed 'Abuser'

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — Montgomery County officials said they were puzzled today over the rousing welcome given a Dayton area elementary school principal when he returned to the school Wednesday after pleading guilty to abusing two girl students.

A crowd of about 1,000 students and parents waved banners and presented armfuls of lilacs to Harley Haskins, 57, when he returned to Grafton-Kennedy Elementary School in nearby Northridge.

Haskins was reinstated by the Northridge School Board 10 minutes after Juvenile Judge Frank W. Nicholas fined him $500 and costs on each of two counts of unlawful abuse of two girls, 11 and 13. The board had suspended Haskins after charges were filed against him April 23.

Herbert M. Jacobson, assistant county prosecutor, said of the school welcome for Haskins: "I can't understand it. They are trying to put a halo around his head. He shouldn't be in the school system. They are trying to whitewash him for some unknown reason."

Jacobson said Haskins placed his hands on girls and fondled them, that 8 or 10 girls said so.

The ADC's decision to re-locate the squadron in Big Spring came after exhaustive study, principally upon the ability of the community to provide adequate housing for the increased personnel. Congressman Mahon played a vital role in helping work out the final decision in Washington.

Col. Watson said on his recent visit here that an advance detail will be sent to Big Spring shortly to work principally on solving housing arrangements.

Col. Kyle Riddle, commander of Webb Air Force Base, had been earlier before the Chamber of Commerce directors to request assistance in meeting the new housing demand. Estimates are that approximately 75 housing units will be needed by September, and that many more by spring.

The Chamber's housing committee has been active in developing programs to provide more housing accommodations. Through construction of new houses and apartment facilities, and in renovation and upgrading of rental properties.

Minister Gets Set For A Long Siege

FONDI, Italy (AP) — A Protestant minister, walked off in a baronial palace by a Roman Catholic Landlady, hauled food in through the window today for a long siege.

It was the Rev. Umberto Righetti's second day behind the bricked-up door of his church rooms.

With a 20-foot rope and a bucket, he hauled up a plate of steaming pasta and a bundle of groceries his followers bought for him.

The strange case of the Protestant church with the Catholic door began when the 53-year-old evangelist of the First Church of Christ rented two upstairs rooms in the old palace. His flock of 350 began to hold services there.

The only entrance of the church rooms was through a door owned by a ground-floor tenant, Mrs. Gemma Rasile, a Catholic.

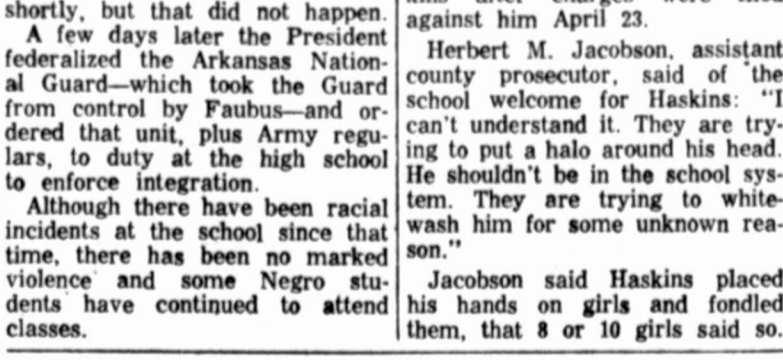

She would not stand for Protestants trooping in and out her door and got a court order permitting her to brick up the church entrance.

Jury Completed For Slaying Trial

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP) — A jury of four men and eight women was named today to decide whether Charles Starkweather was guilty and sane enough at the time of a January killing rampage to warrant being electrocuted for murder.

The jury was named on the fourth day of the trial of the 19-year-old redhead.

Eighty-eight prospective jurors had passed in review during a three-day period before the jury selection was completed.

Man In Space Just A Bother

PASADENA, Calif. (AP) — What would be gained by sending a man into space?

Very little, aside from prestige, Dr. Lee A. DuBridge said yesterday. The president of California Institute of Technology told a Red Cross luncheon that a satellite passenger would be "an unmitigated nuisance."

"As long as you are measuring things like some cosmic rays, magnetic fields, gravity effects, radio transmission effects, astronomical effects, etc., automatic instruments are necessary anyway, and the human being is quite an unnecessary encumbrance," he said.

"Two hundred pounds of scientific instruments could record more data. . . do not require all the comforts of home and would cause no broken hearts if they did not come back alive."

Rotten Fish Hit Market

DALLAS (AP) — Most of some 1,800 pounds of rotten fish shipped to Dallas from Chicago has been forwarded to Tyler and Kilgore, officials said today.

The fish, described as "quick frozen whitening," was to have been retained in Dallas after a Federal Court order was issued Monday.

Federal authorities discovered that only nine cases of an original 30-case shipment remained in storage here. The rest had already been placed on the market.

Bridge Washed Out

Flood waters on the swollen Red River washed out a 250-foot section of the Old Red River bridge at Grand Ecore, La., in Natchitoches Parish halting traffic for an indefinite period on State Route 6 between Natchitoches and Clarence. New bridge under construction is shown at right.

Pleven Completes Slate For New French Cabinet

PARIS (AP)—Rene Pleven completed his slate for a new French Cabinet today with a delicate political balancing act on France's most delicate problem—the war in Algeria.

The 57-year-old moderate politician, who has served as premier twice before, will ask the National Assembly tomorrow to approve his right-of-center slate as France's 25th postwar government.

Sixteen hours of painful parliamentary horse-trading went into the list of ministers. The main battle raged around Pleven's choice for minister of defense, who directs the Algerian war.

Pleven finally settled on Andre Morice, leader of a rightist splinter group who has been demanding a tougher fight against the Algerian rebels.

When Morice served as defense minister in the Bourges-Maunoury Cabinet last summer he inaugurated a policy of "hot pursuit" of the rebels, even into neighboring Tunisia. In line with this, French planes bombed a Tunisian border village in February and touched off a series of diplomatic events which led to the fall of Felix Gaillard's Cabinet April 16.

Morice's appointment is a concession to the conservatives who tossed out Gaillard. But it may face trouble from liberal groups in Parliament who are urging a more conciliatory tone toward the rebels.

To replace Socialist Robert Lacoste, resident minister for Algeria for more than two years, Pleven named another conservative, Andre Mutter. Mutter was expected to continue Lacoste's policy of vigorous prosecution of the war coupled with slight and gradual political reforms. Lacoste had to drop out because the Socialists boycotted Cabinet participation although they will vote to install Pleven.

Midland Rodeo Is To Open On June 3

MIDLAND — The 24th annual world championship rodeo gets under way in Midland with a street parade Tuesday afternoon, June 3, and the opening performance that night.

Over $15,000 in purses and prizes will be distributed to the winners in the five performances.

Bill Faudree, president of Midland Fair Inc., sponsor of the outdoor show, says top performers in every event are assured. Everett Colburn is the producer and furnishes the stock.

Young people who want to serve as volunteer swimming instructors for the YMCA summer recreational program should submit applications promptly to Bobo Hardy at the YMCA.

Hardy said that a number of applications were on hand and that a limited number could be selected. A training institute for the instructors is set for May 31-June 1.

Twinkling Star Mystery Still Not Resolved

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—An ages-old mystery of the heavens that stumped the astronomers turned out just as puzzling to two stratosphere-skimming space scientists.

Astronomer Alfred Mikesell said his stargazing from a balloon at 40,000 feet did not reveal why stars twinkle.

Mikesell, 44, went up with Navy Cmdr. Malcolm Ross to find out at what levels of the atmosphere the stars stop twinkling. In order to do it he needed a steady fix with his telescope.

But the small fiberglass basket in which he and Ross were perched spun constantly and made precise observation difficult.

At 40,000 feet he found the stars shine steadily. This had been discovered before. What Mikesell hoped to find was the exact altitude at which the earth's atmosphere makes starlight seem to twinkle.

Astronomers generally agree that the twinkling is the result of turbulence in the earth's atmosphere. Mikesell says finding out the specific cause would help scientists predict the speed and direction of winds in the upper reaches of the atmosphere.

Mikesell and Ross brought their balloon down near Dubuque yesterday after a 11-hour flight from northern Minnesota.

Among other things they learned man could survive at temperatures of 75 degrees below zero which prevailed during their 1 1/2 hours at 40,000 feet.

The ascent provided the first test of a technique which may be used to measure the physical reactions of men circling the earth in satellites.

Information was radioed back to the ground and relayed to Washington for analysis. The balloonists suffered no ill effects from the flight, although instruments recorded a change in the heartbeat of one for a few minutes. This may have been caused when a mechanical breathing device was turned on.

Demo Seeks 2nd Governor Term

TOPEKA, Kan. (AP)—George Docking, the 54-year-old banker who two years ago became the first Democratic governor of Kansas in 20 years, will seek re-election.

Docking announced his candidacy for a second term yesterday. Never in Kansas' history has a Democrat won two terms in the governor's office.

Asked if that precedent worried him, Docking told newsmen with a grin, "No, I can't do any worse than my Democratic predecessors."

Cops Catch 'Zorro' Seeking His Horse

CHICAGO (AP)—He was wearing a mask and a sombrero and running down State Street near the Loop Wednesday night, pausing briefly to take a quick look in every doorway.

Naturally, police driving along in two patrol wagons halted and investigated.

"Where do you think you're going?" asked Patrolmen John Doyle and Leo Stanko.

"I'm looking for my black horse," was the reply.

Stanko turned to Doyle and said: "This mysterious fellow's obviously just in from the West, and we'd better take him to the station for questioning."

At nearby Central Station, the captured one identified himself only as Zorro, a television character whose sombrero and mask are among his traditions. The cops didn't believe him—they knew he was only 4.

"My daddy promised me a black horse and I went out to look for him," the boy said as police sought to learn his identity.

An hour later, Eugene Bezroukoff, a salesman, came to the station with his wife and three other sons, 7 to 1 years old, to reclaim his 4-year-old son Ronald.

Bezroukoff explained: He was visiting a friend in a Loop novelty shop when Ronald put on the Zorro hat and mask and ran out into the street. He ran after him but Ronald disappeared in the crowd.

As the family left the station, Doyle slipped Ronald a quarter and told him: "Here, sonny, you can start saving for that horse."

"I'll get him yet!" cried Ronald, galloping into the street.

Ford, Chrysler Agree To Talks

DETROIT (AP)—Ford Motor Co. and Chrysler Corp. agreed today to a request from the United Auto Workers for full-day sessions in negotiations on new wage contracts.

General Motors Corp. last week agreed to a similar request after serving notice of termination of the UAW-GM contract May 29. Ford and Chrysler contracts run out June 1.

Negotiations at all three companies are continuing under an agreement not to disclose what is said or done at the bargaining table.

Papa Must Pay Dancing Lessons

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Buddy Cole's divorced wife says their teen-age daughters need lessons in dancing, singing, modeling and horseback riding and a judge says the bandleader is going to have to pay for them.

The court yesterday also awarded increased living expenses of $360 a month for the two girls, Christine, 14, and Cathleen, 13.

The former wife, Yvonne King of the singing King Sisters, had asked that support payments be increased from the present $200 to $500 a month.

The Coles divorced in 1953 and each is now remarried. Her present husband is another bandleader, Del Courtney of San Francisco.

Cole is musical director for Bing Crosby and Rosemary Clooney.

Californian Designs 'Flag' For Texas' 286,000-Man Navy

By LUKE L. PATRENELLA Jr., Tyler Courier-Times Staff

TYLER, May 8 (AP)—Those 286,000 Texans recently offered the rank of "admiral" in the reactivated Texas Navy by Gov. Price Daniel need look no further for a banner to symbolize those four-star commissions.

Wilky Walters, Sierra Madre, Calif., himself an "admiral" in the Texas Navy, has designed a flag ready adaptable for their use. Gov. Daniel recently reactivated the Texas Navy. And in his San Jacinto Day speech, he invited the 286,000 pleasure boat owners in Texas to register their craft as ready for emergency service at any time, and in return, receive commissions as admirals in the Texas Navy.

Walters' flag is near in appearance to the Commodore Charles Hawkins' flag which, in 1836, was approved as the national flag "for the Naval service of the Republic of Texas."

Hawkins' flag featured a large white star centered in a union blue background in its upper left-hand corner, with 13 alternating red and white stripes.

For his flag, made of red, white and blue pieces of felt board, Walters has surrounded that central star with four smaller stars to symbolize the rank of admiral in the Texas Navy conferred on him last year by Gov. Daniel.

The flag made in California made its way to Texas because of a Texas tie-in. Walters, a native of Nacogdoches County in East Texas, sent

Flag For Texas 'Admirals'

Texas Navy "Admiral" B. T. Walters of Tyler proudly displays an "admiral's" flag that might be adopted as a banner symbol for Texas owners of pleasure boats whom Governor Price Daniel, in a recent San Jacinto Day speech, invited to "register their craft as ready for emergency service at any time," and in return, receive commissions as "admirals" in the Texas Navy.

the flag to his younger brother, B. T. Walters of Tyler, who also is an honorary admiral. B. T. Walters received his commission four years ago from Allan Shivers when he was governor. "He's always sending me things," commented the younger Walters. "Wilky's sent me any number of watches, including one of those keyword watches like Grover Cleveland wore."

Watches are a hobby of the elder Walters, who joined the United States Navy to see the world in 1909, saw it, and retired in 1939 as a commissioned warrant officer.

Carson Import Plan Heats Up Old Controversy

WASHINGTON (AP)—The oil import squabble heated up today after Administrator Matthew Carson Jr. said the voluntary import program would be renewed before June 30.

Carson told a news conference yesterday it was possible some allocations made effective in some Western states Jan. 1 were too high. Crude imports in Washington, Oregon, California, Nevada and Arizona have fallen below the allocations each month.

Sen. Ralph Yarborough, Texas Democrat, said the program to curb oil imports "is a shame and a cheat on the American people."

The program administered by Carson is not working, Yarborough said. He added it is seriously hurting American producers. Under the program, a ceiling is set on the amount of oil which may come in and the various imports are each given a quota. In the five Western states Carson named, he admitted the quotas had not been filled.

Carson's office Tuesday completed hearings at which requests were made for additional allocations totaling 45,100 barrels per day by present importers seeking upward adjustments.

Carson said the Office of Oil and Gas is completing a review for the Office of Defense Mobilization of two applications for government tax benefits for proposed pipeline projects. Carson also heads the Office of Oil and Gas.

Union Head Okays Labor Legislation

WASHINGTON (AP)—The head of the AFL-CIO Ethical Practices Committee voiced support today for some proposals aimed at preventing wrongdoing in the labor movement. Others are opposed.

At the same time, Al Hayes cautioned Congress against imposing "unfair and unjust restrictions on the many who are innocent of any taint of possible or actual wrongdoing."

Hayes, president of the International Assn. of Machinists, told a Senate Labor subcommittee that enactment of any such restrictive legislation "will neither foster competent union administration, encourage free and democratic procedures in unions or stabilize labor-management relations."

Hayes was the first labor union spokesman to appear before the subcommittee. His testimony gave little indication that organized labor will support any major reform legislation of the type proposed in numerous bills pending before the subcommittee.

In his prepared testimony, Hayes contended instances of improper conduct disclosed by the Senate Rackets Committee cannot be considered as typical of the labor movement in general. He said the AFL-CIO "has acted with determination and with all the haste possible under democratic procedures" to discipline wrongdoers in the federation. Hayes restated AFL-CIO support for a proposal to make public annual labor union reports filed with the Labor Department. But he said that "in all justice, employers should be required to make similar public disclosures of their expenditures in the field of labor relations."

He told the subcommittee "we would be forced to oppose any legislation for financial reporting by unions" if employers are not made to file similar reports.

He said he was against proposals which he contended would force drastic changes in varying methods developed by unions to elect officers and change their laws and policies. "Any attempt to enforce compliance with one specific form of democracy would be impractical, unjust and dangerous," Hayes said.

On the question of curbing bribery in labor-management relations, he said it would be reasonable to enact legislation making illegal the giving or receiving of a bribe by an officer or representative of either union or an employer.

Hayes strongly backed a proposal to repeal a section of the Taft-Hartley Act which bars strikers from voting in union representation elections.

Girl With Broken Back Crawls 4 Hours For Help

JUNEAU, Alaska (AP)—For two miles Mary Morris, her back broken in two places, pulled herself with bleeding hands toward the shelter of home. Her trip to life took four hours.

While hiking alone on a rugged mountain trail, Mary fell 20 feet into a creek bed and her back snapped at two places near the waistline. Her calls for help were answered only by echoes. She started pulling herself toward her home. Four hours later she reached safety, and today she is recuperating in a Juneau hospital. The 18-year-old daughter of Juneau boatbuilder Lee Morris, is encased in a cast. "The fractures were one of those freak things that happen sometimes," her doctor said. "The spinal cord wasn't crushed or there would have been immediate paralysis."

Berserk Man Invades Clinic

PITTSBURG, Calif. (AP)—The outgoing patients of Community Hospital were waiting in the lobby to depart.

In burst Virdo E. Franklin, 55, with a wild look in his eye and a gun in his hand.

"Jump," he commanded. And the people jumped. Some out of windows, some behind doors, some under counters. Some jumped to attention as commanded.

Franklin held up a sign painted in red, white and blue. It said "Murdered my wife. They stole her heart and two backbone joints."

Mrs. Myrna McClure stuck by her switchboard.

Mrs. Anne Chase, a receptionist, slid down behind the counter and whispered to the switchboard operator for a line.

She called police. Chief Sal P. Jimmo and three officers arrived in a flash. They faced Franklin's gun.

The chief talked for 45 minutes in the face of the pistol. Franklin finally agreed to put up his gun if the chief would call Gov. Goodwin Knight in Sacramento and get back his wife's heart and backbone joints.

They put Franklin in psychopathic ward of the County Seat Hospital at Martinez.

His wife died March 26 of bronchial pneumonia.

Most Texas Lands In Soil Agreement

TEMPLE, May 8 (AP)—State Conservationist H. N. Smith reports that 53 per cent of the state's farm and ranch units are under agreements with the State Soil Conservation Service.

He says that 96,557,790 acres, or about 59 per cent of all land in the districts, are under soil conservation practices.

In his review of the 1957 conservation year, Smith also said that the rains of last April and May had given SCS field men a chance to make new and valuable measurements of the way rain goes into the soil.

He reported that out of 25 fields of cropland on which more than 12 inches of rain had fallen, 20 were wet to below 48 inches where the surface was protected by soil conservation practices.

Only 11 unprotected fields were wet to that depth. In 35 field checks on rangeland, 28 conservation-protected areas were wet to 36 inches. Only four unprotected areas had moisture that deep.

Smith said this new information will be useful in explaining why some farmers, especially in times of less-than-normal rainfall, can produce good crops when others fail.

Smith reported that in the Trinity River flood prevention project—one of the original 11 in the nation which Congress authorized in 1944—there were 25,134 soil conservation district cooperators, with plans on 5,118,801 acres.

This is approximately 60.8 per cent of the watershed's area. A total of 149 floodwater retarding dams, of about 800 needed, had been completed in the Trinity program as of Dec. 31.

In the Middle Concho project, also one of the original 11, 3,269,909 acres, or 70.9 per cent of the total area of the watershed, are covered by soil conservation district agreements.

Thirty-two of the needed 116 floodwater retarding dams have been completed in Brady, Deep and Clear Creek watersheds.

Luncheon Is Pre-Nuptial Event For Miss Barnes

Sue Barnes, bride-elect of Lt. Richard James Landon, was complemented with a luncheon Wednesday at the Officers' Club.

Miss Barnes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Barnes, 208 Dixie, and Lt. Landon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Burt Landon of Salem, Ore., will be wed May 17.

The 30 guests found their places at a table featuring the honoree's chosen colors, blue and white.

Streamers of blue mullin, punctuated with tiny wedding bells, radiated from a silver bowl filled with blue daisies and white stock.

For the occasion, Miss Barnes was attired in a beige chemise with white accessories. Her corsage, a yellow gladiolus, was from the hostesses, who also presented her with a gift in her silver pattern.

Betrothal Told

Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Grant, Lamesa Highway, are announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Patsy, to Joe W. Guinn. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Guinn of Berger. The wedding will take place in the Ford Memorial Chapel of Lubbock's First Baptist Church on June 2. Both are students at Texas Tech.

'ROUND TOWN

With Lucille Pickle

After visiting in the Forsan home of MR. AND MRS. FRANK SHANNON, Mrs. Clara Kinck has left for her home in San Francisco, Calif. Enroute home, she plans to stay a while in Phoenix, Ariz., before continuing to California where she will visit in Carmel.

Mrs. Kinck is 'my favorite Aunt Clara' so often spoken of by Rusty Draper on his television show. She is also a close friend of the Mitchell family, the father of which is the originator of Dennis the Menace. She says Dennis is now 11 years old and is the best little boy one could know.

MRS. N. R. SMITH, MRS. B. N. RALPH, AND MRS. J. P. MEADOR have returned from a trip to Mrs. Smith's cabin on the Colorado River just above Buchanan Dam. They spent several days there and returned here Tuesday.

When they came through San Angelo the three friends of Shine Philips visited him at Memorial Hospital, which is located at 902 N. Main. He is doing well and was happy over the visit with his friends.

MRS. EARL CORDER, MRS. LENA HEARN AND MRS. C. W. DEATS left today for San Antonio, where they will spend the weekend with relatives. They plan to return here Monday.

We were pleased Monday night to hear our ex-neighbor, LARRY MCNAIR, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. McNair of Snyder, sing one of the songs from Snyder Junior High forthcoming musical. Some of the cast were in Sweetwater for the 10:30 p.m. local telecast, which plugged the show that is scheduled for this weekend. I believe Larry is an eighth grader and if he continues to do as well with his singing as he did Monday, sports probably won't be his only interest—in addition to the fairer sex, that is.

Mrs. Lillian Blanton was installed as president for the coming year. Other officers installed included Mrs. J. P. White, first vice president; Mrs. T. E. Temple, second vice president; Mrs. S. B. Baylor, secretary; Mrs. R. S. Satterwhite, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Arthur Hull, treasurer. Mrs. W. E. Windsor installed the officers.

Musical selections were furnished by Mrs. E. D. David and Mrs. Carl Roundtree. Mrs. Ed Lauderdale, Mrs. A. G. Waugh, Mrs. L. M. Pratt and Mrs. I. L. Ashley were the hostesses.

Closing Dinner Is Given By Delphians

LAMESA—Members of the Delphian Club held a covered dish dinner to close out their year's work at the clubhouse Tuesday evening. The theme for the meeting was "The World of Friendship."

Does your new costume jewelry leave a stain on your wrist and neck? Scrub each piece well with a brush in warm, sudsy water. Then polish with a tissue. Brush on a film of colorless nail polish.

Placement Show Presented By Spaders Club Wednesday

Two members of the Spaders Garden Club were winners in the placement show given Wednesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Bruce Frazier.

Mrs. Dale Smith was the sweepstakes winner as well as the tri-color award in the arrangement division; Mrs. Frazier won the horticulture award of merit and the sweepstakes in that division.

Mrs. Smith formed her winning arrangement of cornflowers, blue Dutch iris, forget-me-nots and larkspur. Following the rules of a placement show, the decoration was made for a designated spot in the home. This was placed on a coffee table near a window.

The educational exhibit was considered to be the native shrubs, trees and flowers standing on the grounds surrounding the home. Refreshments were served by members on the west terrace, where a table held an arrangement of iris and bells of Ireland on a green cloth for a background.

Serving as judges for the show were Mrs. Roy Bearden and Mrs. O. R. Sires, both of Lamesa, Mrs. Obie Bristow, Mrs. J. B. Knox, Mrs. Bill Tubb and Mrs. Cliff Wiley.

JOE BROWN STASHES DUPAS IN EIGHTH

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—Joe Brown, a thunderous puncher who won't let the other guy do any of it, looked toward the fifth defense of his world's lightweight championship today—but could only intimate who his opponent would be. Joe, the skinny little guy from Houston, whipped young Ralph Dupas of New Orleans last night. He knocked him down three times in the eighth round to register a technical knockout. He has knocked out three other challengers in 16 months.

Brown predicted he would knock out Kenny Lane of Muskegon, Mich., sooner than he did Dupas. Lane is the logical man to fight Brown next. He and Dupas had agreed to negotiate for a fight with Lane before they could get together here.

Lou Viscusi, manager of Brown, was noncommittal. "I didn't see the fight and haven't talked to Joe. I've been busy counting money. I honestly can't say anything about future plans right now."

The fight at Houston's first world's championship affair drew an all-time record gate for Texas. An estimated 11,000 fans paid $68,740.

Brown will get over $36,000 while Dupas will receive better than $18,000. The net was $60,614.60, which is added to $30,000 in radio and television receipts.

Brown's defense was a thing of beauty. Dupas landed only one real hard blow all night. Brown never started using his right until the fourth round. From then on he was using his one-two repeatedly and late in the seventh round it was this combination, with the right rocking Dupas like a sledgehammer, that started the 22-year-old New Orleans hopeful on the way out.

The next round Brown was on him all the way. He actually knocked Dupas out the first time he floored him. Dupas was counted out by the counter for the knockdowns, but Referee Jimmy Webb stopped at nine and ordered Brown who had come up to the fallen Dupas, back to his corner.

Senators Near First Place

By The Associated Press
Cookie Lavagetto just missed marking his first anniversary as manager of the Washington Senators by moving into a share of the American League lead.

On May 7 last year Cookie replaced Chuck Dressen. The Senators were on the tail end of a losing streak that reached 10 games. They were last, 9½ games back.

Now they're second, a game behind the New York Yankees. Except for some great clutch pitching by Detroit's Frank Lary last night, Cookie and the Senators would have swept into a virtual first-place tie.

Lary was tagged for 13 hits and walked five but came up with eight strikeouts and left 14 runners on base as the Tigers ended a three-game slump with a 5-1 victory in the opener of a two-night pair at Washington. The Senators then socked 15 hits in the nightcap for an 11-4 victory.

The rest of the AL schedule was rained out. Reneo Bertora's first major league grand-slam homer capped a five-run first for the Tigers in the opener against Camillo Pascual, who lost his second Lary, now 2-2, lost his shutout bid in the ninth, when Eddie Yost opened with his first home run. Gail Harris singled the other Tiger run home.

I'd Be Smarter, Says Ken Layne

DETROIT (AP)—Kenny Layne, whose long wait for a crack at the lightweight boxing title appears almost over, vowed, "I'd be a lot smarter than Ralph Dupas."

Dupas suffered an eighth round knockout at the hands of champion Joe Brown Wednesday night in Houston.

Layne, who has been waiting almost five years for a similar chance, was interviewed by telephone from his home in Muskegon, Mich. He and his manager, Pete Petroskey, watched the fight on television.

Pirates Match Homer Record

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The Pittsburgh Pirates clouted three consecutive home runs against the Giants Wednesday, the 41st time the major league record has been matched.

Bob Skinner, Ted Kluszewski and Frank Thomas hit the homers off starter Curt Barclay. It has been done in the National League 26 times and 17 in the American League.

The Pirates last did it April 21, 1957 against the Dodgers in Brooklyn. Thomas, Paul Smith and Dick Groat got three off Don Newcombe.

Brown refused and Dupas arose after the 10-count to resume the fight.

It was a forlorn gesture. Brown's stinging left hook knocked Dupas down for a seven-count and when Ralph arose un-

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

Big Spring back Buddy Barnes will probably have the college football scouts looking his way next fall, if for nothing else than his defensive play. He's showing to excellent advantage in spring training.

The Steers line is also showing up in spring workouts and should surprise this fall. The boys in the primary are much further along than were the linemen at the same stage in 1957.

Now that Class AAA schools have cancelled out spring football training, baseball probably will be resumed as a school sport at Lamesa. The Tornados almost fielded a nine this spring but nixed plans not long before drills were to have started.

Lamesa's return to the diamond sport would mean that Snyder and Levelland would have some competition in District 3-AAA—a development which would, no doubt, delight Snyder's Speedy Moffett.

It would also please local coaches in that the Tornados would provide the Steers with a greater variety in practice opponents.

Dusty Rhodes, the one-time World Series hero who was farmed out to Phoenix by the San Francisco Giants this spring, isn't hitting for that team, either.

Ray Dumont, the live-wire president of the National Baseball Congress, has devised a plan for his annual semi-pro tournament at Wichita, Kansas, which comes about as close to pari-mutuel betting as possible, and still not be legalized gambling.

Under his proposal, each person attending his tournament would be given $100 nightly in "scrip money," with which to bet with others in the stands on plays they may arise or on the outcome of games.

Dumont, a figure organized baseball could use if it could talk him into moving into the picture, contends that horse racing is out-drawing baseball because gambling among fans is not permitted in ball parks.

Musial 7 Hits Away From Elite Circle

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press
Stan (The Man) Musial's magic number is 7. Seven hits and he becomes the eighth major leaguer to total 3,000. The way he's flying at the moment, batting a cool .529, he should join Ty Cobb, Tris Speaker, Honus Wagner, Eddie Collins, Nap Lajoie, Paul Waner and Cap Anson either Saturday or Sunday while swinging against the Chicago Cubs.

The only question at the moment is: What in the world will the St. Louis Cardinals do when Musial slumps?

PONIES ON SPOT? S'west Officials Head For Dallas

DALLAS (AP)—Southwest Conference officials begin arriving today for a spring meeting whose main business appears to be raising scholarship standards for the athletes.

Athletic directors and head football coaches will hold the initial session, getting together tonight to discuss such things as cutting the number of allowable freshman football games from five to three. The athletic directors, coaches of all sports and business managers of athletics meet tomorrow morning.

The faculty committee, governing body of the conference, opens its session tomorrow afternoon. Along with the scholarship matter—raising the requirements on grades above the rule now in effect, which calls for a passing grade with a certain number of hours of work—the committee may have some cases of recruitment to consider and reportedly will talk about trouble at a Southern Methodist-Texas A&M basketball game last night.

This was a "goal tending" ruling that gave A&M the victory and brought sharp comment from SMU officials. Control of the crowd is another issue. The committee also may reopen the Glyn Gregory case at Southern Methodist. It reprised SMU for recruiting tactics in obtaining Gregory, the Abilene High School star, and since then the NCAA has passed a year's probation on the school for giving Gregory a job "for which he was not qualified."

The tennis meet starts today at the Dallas Athletic Club Country Club courts with Rice, which won the team championship, favored to furnish the singles and doubles titlists.

Sophomores Ronnie Fisher and Art Foust will bid for the doubles championship, with the main competition expected from the Texas duo of Richard Keeton and Lawrence Becker. Keeton was a member of the championship team last year but his partner, Sammy Giammalva, has departed.

Giammalva was singles champion. Expected to battle it out for this title are Fisher, Keeton and Tommy Roberts of Rice.

In golf, where the team championship was won by Arkansas, Jerry Pittman of Southern Methodist is back seeking a repeat of the singles title. The 72-hole medal play will be today and tomorrow at the DAC Country Club.

Cubs May Get Last Laugh

CHICAGO (AP)—The last laugh on the Bob Rush deal may belong to the surprising Chicago Cubs.

Last winter, when the Cubs let veteran pitcher Rush, plus a couple of kickers, go to the Milwaukee Braves for pitcher Taylor Phillips and catcher Sammy Taylor, the baseball realm was astounded.

But yesterday Phillips, with Taylor as batterymate, hurled a five-hit, 5-1 victory over Cincinnati for his first complete game since September 1956.

It was Phillips' first triumph for the pace-setting Cubs and indicated the 24-year-old lefty may be a big wheel on Manager Bob Schefling's "youth movement" mound staff.

Scheffling has been convinced right along that all Phillips needed to be a frontline pitcher was more work and that he was able to get on the crowded staff of the world champion Milwaukee Braves. Phillips hurled only 73 innings last season for a 3-2 record after a brilliant start with the Braves in 1956. The Braves called Phillips up from Wichita in mid-1956 and the lefty completed 6 of 12 starting assignments for a 5-3 record and 2.25 ERA.

"We had great minor league reports on Phillips," Scheffling said. "Now he is getting regular work and it's bound to have a good effect on his mental attitude and pitching sharpness."

Fredie Fitzsimmons, Cub pitching coach, said Phillips notched his first Cub victory by being "relaxed."

"We finally convinced Phillips he should pitch in a game like he does in warmups," said the former Giant pitching star.

Artesia Captures 10th Win In Row

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Artesia's Giants of the Sophomore League, won their tenth straight game Wednesday against no defeats.

The Giants blasted Carlsbad pitching for a 12-6 victory. Pitcher Manager Tony York, however, filed a protest on the game over a reversed decision at home plate.

Highlight of the tenth straight Artesia victory was Bob Roman's four-run homer in the fifth. Stan Patykula was up next, and he got a four-bagger, too.

San Angelo used a 10-run third inning and just coasted the rest of the way to beat Hobbs 12-5. The Cardinals couldn't overcome the lead. A total of 20 walks were issued by pitchers on each side.

Midland's Braves took a 7-5 decision over the Plainview Athletes. Right-hander Larry Alander, who took some heavy shelling from Plainview in the early innings watched his mates come from behind a 14 deficit and tightened his hurling to blank the A's from the third inning until the ninth.

Musial 7 Hits Away From Elite Circle

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press
Stan (The Man) Musial's magic number is 7. Seven hits and he becomes the eighth major leaguer to total 3,000. The way he's flying at the moment, batting a cool .529, he should join Ty Cobb, Tris Speaker, Honus Wagner, Eddie Collins, Nap Lajoie, Paul Waner and Cap Anson either Saturday or Sunday while swinging against the Chicago Cubs.

The only question at the moment is: What in the world will the St. Louis Cardinals do when Musial slumps?

PONIES ON SPOT? S'west Officials Head For Dallas

DALLAS (AP)—Southwest Conference officials begin arriving today for a spring meeting whose main business appears to be raising scholarship standards for the athletes.

Athletic directors and head football coaches will hold the initial session, getting together tonight to discuss such things as cutting the number of allowable freshman football games from five to three. The athletic directors, coaches of all sports and business managers of athletics meet tomorrow morning.

The faculty committee, governing body of the conference, opens its session tomorrow afternoon. Along with the scholarship matter—raising the requirements on grades above the rule now in effect, which calls for a passing grade with a certain number of hours of work—the committee may have some cases of recruitment to consider and reportedly will talk about trouble at a Southern Methodist-Texas A&M basketball game last night.

This was a "goal tending" ruling that gave A&M the victory and brought sharp comment from SMU officials. Control of the crowd is another issue. The committee also may reopen the Glyn Gregory case at Southern Methodist. It reprised SMU for recruiting tactics in obtaining Gregory, the Abilene High School star, and since then the NCAA has passed a year's probation on the school for giving Gregory a job "for which he was not qualified."

The tennis meet starts today at the Dallas Athletic Club Country Club courts with Rice, which won the team championship, favored to furnish the singles and doubles titlists.

Sophomores Ronnie Fisher and Art Foust will bid for the doubles championship, with the main competition expected from the Texas duo of Richard Keeton and Lawrence Becker. Keeton was a member of the championship team last year but his partner, Sammy Giammalva, has departed.

Giammalva was singles champion. Expected to battle it out for this title are Fisher, Keeton and Tommy Roberts of Rice.

In golf, where the team championship was won by Arkansas, Jerry Pittman of Southern Methodist is back seeking a repeat of the singles title. The 72-hole medal play will be today and tomorrow at the DAC Country Club.

Girdner Takes Bowling Lead

Girdner's Electric dislodged Wasson and Trantham Furniture store as the top-ranking team in Housewives Bowling League standings Wednesday morning by blanking Good Housekeeping, 3-0.

Wasson and Trantham dropped to second place by yielding to HIFI House, 2-1. In other matches, Truman Jones Motor won over Cauble Cleaners, 3-0; and Zale's Diamondettes turned back Gandy Creamery, 2-1.

HIFI House posted high game, 690. Truman Jones Motor came in with 681-1939 while Girdner's registered the best series, 2003. Dora Court of Girdner's wound up as the top individual scorer, 175-460. Joan O'Daniel of Truman Jones was close, with 171-459.

Splits were picked up by: Bobbie Wright, Good Housekeeping, 5-6-10; Dora Court, 4-5; Isabel Mangam, Girdner, 3-7; Ernestina Schroeder, Gandy's, 4-5; Virginia Kent, Gandy's, 4-5; Virginia Pickert, Truman Jones, 5-6-10; Woodie Winn, Cauble's, 3-10; Dorothy Henderson, Cauble's, 5-7; Beverly Baird, HIFI House, 5-7-9; Betty Reid, HIFI House, 5-6-10; and Mary Ellen Schmidt, HIFI House, 3-10.

Next week, Girdner's will be pitted against Wasson-Trantham, Good Housekeeping against HIFI House, Zale's against Truman Jones Motor and Gandy Creamery against Cauble's.

An important meeting of all league members will be held at the home of Moe Cauble at 2 p.m. Monday, 1310 Sycamore Street. Officers for the 1958-59 season will be elected.

ABILENE (AP)—The Abilene Eagles thrashed the Midland Bulldogs, 7-3, here Wednesday afternoon and thereby clinched their ninth consecutive conference baseball title.

A Midland win would have tied the two clubs for the top spot. Abilene is also the defending state championship, having earned that crown two straight years.

George Nichols won his seventh straight game for Abilene, although he was spelled by Roger Mac Evans in the sixth.

The loser was Ed Bobbitt, who was relieved by Bill EASTERWOOD in the fourth.

Nichols and Evans combined to limit the Bulldogs to four hits. The Eagles combed the offerings of the Midland hurlers for seven safeties.

A five-run fourth inning enabled the Eagles to take an insurmountable lead.

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—Eva Newton has been bleeding steadily for 10 weeks, apparently from some blood vessel deep in the body.
The 46-year-old Arcadia woman is a hemophilia victim. Doctors have been unable to locate the source of the bleeding. They cannot perform an exploratory operation because of the nature of the malady.
Miss Newton has required transfusion of a pint of blood a day since late February to replace that lost through bleeding.

Dulles Says Reds Use 'Smokescreen'

BERLIN (AP)—U.S. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles accused the Soviet Union today of using disarmament talk as a smokescreen to produce a world dominated by the military power of the Chinese-Soviet bloc.
He warned the West against abandoning its nuclear deterrent shield because of what he called alluring Soviet promises. He declared Soviet failure to honor international pledges constitutes a grave obstacle to working out an East-West accord.

Dulles made his attack on the Kremlin in a speech delivered to West Berlin's Parliament. Later he flew to Paris for a meeting of U.S. ambassadors. The Communists in neighboring East Berlin called for demonstrations during his 5 1/2-hour stay in West Berlin, but they failed to materialize.
The Communists in neighboring East Berlin called for demonstrations during his 5 1/2-hour visit in West Berlin. From here, Dulles goes to Paris for a meeting of U.S. ambassadors.

Dulles flew into Communist-encircled West Berlin direct from a meeting of North Atlantic Treaty Organization foreign ministers at Copenhagen. The NATO ministers agreed to invite the Soviet Union anew to create machinery for safe, controlled disarmament.
Dulles called for dependable steps to reduce the prospect of war and elimination of the new weapons which threaten humanity with virtual extinction.

He warned against "confidence in mere Soviet Communist promises" and added: "The Soviet Union professes not to want to use nuclear weapons, but insists upon continuing at a feverish pace to multiply such weapons in its own arsenal. It calls on the free world to rely upon Soviet promises not to use its nuclear weapons in the event of war despite the long record of broken promises to which I have alluded."
"This Communist propaganda line is designed to produce a world dominated by the military power of the Sino-Soviet bloc. Freedom would have no adequate defense. There is a duty to look behind words that sound alluring and to see and reject the underlying plot against freedom."

Dulles reaffirmed the Western Big Three pledge to regard any attack against Berlin from any quarter as an attack upon their forces and upon themselves.
The secretary made his speech as Germans quietly observed the 13th anniversary observance of V-E Day, when World War II ended in Europe.
The East German party organ.

Neues Deutschland, kicked off the campaign for a demonstration under the slogan: "Chase Dulles out of Berlin."
"Workers will see to it that the American foreign minister learns the true opinion of the city," Neues Deutschland said. The paper charged Dulles was flying here to stir up opposition to a summit conference and create an atomic war atmosphere.
Dulles flew from the Copenhagen meeting of the North Atlantic Alliance countries' foreign ministers. The NATO Council in its final communique gave full endorsement to the West German government's insistence that any East-West summit conference must put the issue of German reunification high on its agenda.

Vocalists Heard By Lions Club

The role of music in everyday life was stressed by Mrs. H. M. Jarratt to the Downtown Lions Club on Wednesday.
She spoke on behalf of the observance of National Music Week and presented Mrs. Norman Furlong and her son, Jimmy Furlong, who each sang several selections.
Music can be a soothing influence in a hurried world, and it can bridge the international language barriers, Mrs. Jarratt said. She joined Bill Coleman in urging Lions to attend the production of the "Mikado" Monday and Tuesday evenings.
Mrs. Furlong sang "Thank God for a Garden," "I Love Life," "What is in the Air Today," and "What is a Song?" Jimmy Furlong sang "I Believe" and "Because." Both were accompanied by Jack Hendrix. Program arrangements were in charge of Bill Sneed.

Louis Carothers reported on the district 2-T-2 convention held in Odessa last weekend, and President Carl Smith announced a candy sale as a money-raising project for the club's blind and charity fund.

'Egghead' Insult Their Own Fault

ST. LOUIS (AP)—President Abram Sachar of Brandeis University says intellectuals are largely at fault for the public's dislike of eggheads.
"Too many intellectuals have moved up into a secluded ivory tower," he said in a speech at an Honors Day Assembly at Washington University. "Those who run away from responsibility are pinheads or fatheads, rather than eggheads."

Jess Talkin'

by Jess Blair

Late yesterday afternoon I made a quick trip to Stanton and up through Lenora. The countryside is green, but the wind is blowing dry and hot and the little puffs of dust were stirring in the plowed fields.

Just north of Stanton a farmer was irrigating grain land, but nowhere else were the wells in operation. Most of the irrigation farmers have started planting and will be finished by Saturday if the weather doesn't stop them.

Dryland farmers are in a quandary. They don't know whether to plant now during the unsettled weather, or to wait awhile. There is not as much top moisture as one would think. One farmer said if he planted and lost the crop, he'd have to wait for another rain.

At Lenora the dust was blowing and the topsoil looked dry. Dewey Springer said they had a terrific wind last Friday and a lot of fine hail. However, no crops were up so the damage was negligible.

He said some farmers were planting, while others intended to wait awhile. Many of them were caught with only enough seed for about two plantings and the germination is low. Those who planted a week or so ago have lost the seed, evidently because of the cold soil.

At Stanton a $250 box of Gibberellic acid had just been delivered to the Stanton Chemical and Seed Company. Manager Gerald Hanson said a few farmers who used it had got crop stands while land untreated was still bare. Several plan to buy from this latest shipment.

According to information from Popular Mechanics Magazine, the acid is like a wonder drug. The magazine said that plants grew to giant size, but didn't say what kind of plants. Anyway, the acid is supposed to act like a pair of jets on a car, giving the plants a quick send-off.

The acid is moistened and mixed with the seed. The cost is about $1 and acre, said Hanson.

There will be only about 125 acres of cantaloupes planted in the Stanton area this year, according to Hanson. The largest grower is R. B. Creech, who is planting 50 acres.

Creech has a sizeable acreage of cantaloupes last year and did quite well with them. Hanson said that each producer would do his own marketing, as there is not enough acreage to justify a packing shed.

The farm labor problem is just where it was a few weeks ago—at a standstill. No one knows what will happen. At the Basin Growers Assn. there is practically no movement of farm labor. Manager Oscar Fanning said that out of the 25 laborers sent over from Big Spring only one was still on the job.

He said that many of the brace contracts had expired and farmers had renewed them for the 30-day extension allowed by the government. After that expires, the nationals will be sent back to Mexico unless a new ruling is passed.

C. J. Russel, who farms just west of the Guitar Ranch on the Andrews Highway, had his planters ready to plant yesterday, but is waiting till the weather settles. He has only enough cottonseed for two plantings and can't afford to waste them.

Russell got four-tenths inch of rain last Friday, but the rain blew in so hard from the west that the east side of the listed furrows remained dry. He also said there was enough hail to damage the bought the farm in 1948. On a roof of the house.

Russell made a good crop last year, the best one since he 16-acre field he made 14 bales of cotton. He said there was plenty of bottom moisture now, but the top had dried out the last week or two.

O. C. Moore, who farms just north of Russell, has a 1 1/2 acre field planted 100 acres of maize. He said the topsoil had become very hard and crusty since the shower last week.

Moore also has enough seed for two plantings.

Bob Lawson, who manages a store about 15 miles out on the Andrews Highway, says some of the land around there is almost too dry to plant. Farmers who planted a week or so ago, now find that the loose ridges thrown up by the planters are dry in the center despite a light shower last Friday.

Several have already planted in the Valley View community. Some lost their seed, and everyone will have to plant over.

ROAD DUST: The little streams of the area increase and diminish with the

Some running a few weeks ago are almost dry now. Man at Lamesa service station saying a lot of people are out of work there. "It's just like a soup line the way the city is handing out free groceries," he said.

The mesquite have gone from brown skeletons three weeks ago to full leafage now. The shinnery is also green and growing, but I haven't heard of any shinnery poisoning yet. More wildflowers than in 10 years. Pretty as they are, they are worth little to the rancher, because flowers grow on weeds and the weeds are not palatable to livestock. Despite the rains of last fall and winter, many pastures still have little grass on them.

At a street corner a youngish beggar blowing a French harp. After 20 minutes with no audience, he straightened out the leg doubled under him, slammed his hat on the sidewalk and uttered a very unmusical sound. Then he walked down the street mumbling to himself. I concluded the begging business is going through hard times.

Laying an egg is hot work. Elma Nichols, Stanton poultryman, says the egg is 107 degrees Fahrenheit when it leaves the hen's body. Welch in northwest Dawson County won first place in the better community contest recently, while Lomax was one of the runners-up. The small gin may be facing extinction. Two or three are up for sale, while one company in this area contemplates building a new gin costing a quarter million dollars.

A few days ago I got to studying the frog situation out at Moss Creek Lake and concluded a frog's life is not easy. Those little brown frogs would jump into the water then immediately swim back to shore and hide in the rocks and grass. If they lay in the water a bass gets them, and if they come out on land the snakes and animals gobble them down. So the frog spends his entire life in a narrow three-foot strip of shoreline and never knows which hop will be his last.

However, he accepts his lot and carries on. He doesn't jump out of high windows when things go wrong, or abscond with the boss' money and maybe his secretary. Neither does he get the shakes and end up in a stiff white suit with the arms tied down.

Maybe if we had some of his philosophy we'd be better off. In some ways, I decided, a frog is superior to man.

Pregnant Frog Spikes Sailor's Contest Hopes

ANGELS CAMP, Calif. (AP)—They stared intently at the frog. The frog, its bug-eyed lids half lowered, looked sleepy and unconcerned.

"No question about it," said Dr. Dante L. Alvasio yesterday. "That frog is pregnant."

This was anything but good news to Bror W. Lander, former Swedish army corporal. He Begins Campaign

WICHITA FALLS (AP)—William Blakley of Dallas opened his campaign for the U.S. Senate yesterday with a tour of Decatur, Bowie and Henrietta.

brought the frog — Roll — all the way from Stockholm to this one-time gold rush mining camp 110 miles east of San Francisco. Roll is Sweden's entry in the international frog jump here May 15-18.

"What can we do?" Lander asked anxiously.

"Well, in this delicate condition there isn't much we can do," said Dr. Alvasio, medical officer of the Calaveras County Fair. "We could induce ovulation with an injection from the pituitary gland of another frog."

Ovulation means laying eggs. A frog can lay about 5,000.

"But would it be in time?"

"It would take about a week. As it is, we can't with certainty predict just when this frog will ovulate—maybe before the jump, maybe after."

So Lander went to Turlock, Calif., in the San Joaquin Valley to seek a possible substitute for Roll. Qualifying jumps in the 32nd Jumping Frog Jubilee begin a week from today—and Roll may be happily laying her eggs then. Lander, a former member of the United Nations force that patrolled the Gaza Strip in the Middle East, is seeking help from Frank McNeff of Turlock, an Irish Swede and frog fancier.

Meanwhile, Dr. Alvasio prescribed mild exercise and a diet of hamburger, cooked brown, for the expectant Roll.

The international jubilee is held annually to commemorate Mark Twain's famous story, "The Celebrated Jumping Frog of Calaveras County." His story concerned two slickers from New York's Bowery who fed buckshot to the champion jumping frog of Angels Camp — and how they cleaned out the town's bewhiskered gamblers.

Lander's frog seems to have an equally weighty problem.

AEC Confirms A-Test Series

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Atomic Energy Commission has confirmed the opening of this country's long-heralded nuclear test series in the Pacific.

The AEC gave terse confirmation, but no details, Wednesday after Rep. Charles O. Porter (D-Ore.) announced in the House that a nuclear blast has been touched off April 22.

Porter, who has just returned from the Pacific Proving Grounds, made the announcement while calling again for an end to such testing lest it accelerates the atomic arms race.

The Oregon congressman said he did not see the test and that he was not at liberty to give any information on the nature of the blast. Porter said his speech had been cleared by the AEC, which confirmed the Eniwetok explosion but would not verify Porter's statement that it was the first of 30 nuclear blasts planned for the test series.

The government announced some time ago that the nuclear tests would start this spring and run through the summer. The AEC and the Defense Department said the purpose of the tests is to work toward perfection of weapons for defense against aircraft and missile attack.

Nearly $20,000 Spent On Land For FM 700

Howard County has spent $19,877.20 to date in efforts to acquire right of way for FM 700, a check of the books showed today. This includes the $10,000 which is to be paid to Miss Jo Cole and Miss Pearl Cole when they transfer title to nearly 20 acres of their land needed for the road. A total of nearly 70 acres of 90 needed for the road project has now been purchased by the county. Negotiations are still under way for the remainder of the land needed. Land bought and the amounts paid for right of way for the road to date: Peeler and Hamby, 10.5 acres, $2,100; Hartman Hooser, 13.204 acres, $3,961.20; J. G. Arnett, 17.808 acres, $3,561.60; Jo and Pearl Cole, 19.994 acres, $10,000.

Soil Temperature Is Right For Planting

Near-summer heat and drying winds have brought the temperature of the fields in Howard County steadily higher the past few days and as a result, the land is now at the point where cotton farmers can plant. U. S. Experiment station reported that soil temperature at 6 inches has been 70 degrees or above for the past three days and has averaged better than 60 degrees for the past 10 days. Plains Cotton Growers Inc., Lubbock, in a newspaper release, said that best results from planting cotton in this section can be obtained when these temperatures are established. The association warned that

Jurors Surprised By $3 Cut In Pay

If a citizen gets a summons to serve on an ordinary petit jury in the county or district court, and it so happens that he is not called as a juror, he gets $5 for his trouble. If he gets named on a jury, of course, he gets $5 for each or fraction of a day he serves. Under Texas law, a murder case requires a special sort of jury panel. This is called a special venire. All of the jury panels for the current court term are dumped in a box and the number of special veniremen needed drawn from the lot.

Recently a special venire was summoned to serve in 118th District Court in the trial of such a case. Seventy-five names were drawn; by the time the case came to trial, the number had been whittled down to 55. Out of this number, 12 were selected to try the case.

Now the other 43 who were on hand and who were called into court one at a time and examined on their qualifications as jurors are getting their checks for their one day's work. The checks are for $2 each. Under a special state law, it is specified that a special venireman who is challenged or excused after being examined for duty shall be paid $2. If he is selected for the jury he is paid $5 for each day he serves.

Blowing Dust Still On Weather Menu

No immediate end to the winds which have harassed the countryside for two days was foreseen in the noon forecast of the U. S. Weather Bureau for Big Spring and vicinity. The surface winds will continue throughout the afternoon and the Weather Bureau said there would be "some blowing dust." Possible scattered thundershowers are foreseen for late this afternoon and tonight.

13 Cases Set For Trial Next Week In Co. Court

Thirteen county criminal cases—all DWI—are to be set for trial the week of May 13, John Richard Coffee, county attorney, announced Wednesday. How many of these cases can be tried during the week is uncertain. It is also not yet ascertained in what order the matters will be called for trial. Twenty-five jurors have been summoned to report to Judge R. H. Weaver, county court, at 10 a.m. Tuesday. The remainder of the week court will convene at 9 a.m. Cases which are to be called for trial are those against Chester A. Jones, J. W. Rasco, Vernon Phillips, Clyde O'Daniel Weems, Benny Matlock, James Cooper, William Ellige, J. C. Garrett, Donald A. Green, Juan Rodriguez, John Goodman, J. A. Smith and Otto Alfred Jackson. All of these defendant have previously pleaded guilty and have been released on bond by the court. This is a part of a continuous program of criminal court jury dockets initiated by Weaver and Coffee in an effort to dispose of some of the many criminal cases which are pending in the county court.

Didn't Get Away

BENNINGTON, N. H. (AP)—Edward Hussey of Cambridge, Mass., hooked a big rainbow trout on Whittemore Lake in Bennington—but his line broke. As he watched the fish swim away, he jumped into the water, grabbed the retreating end of the line, retrieved a 5-pound, 14-ounce trout—a "big one" that didn't get away.

Fire Threat Results From Leaking Fuel

A fire truck was called but not needed in an accident here Wednesday night. A pickup driven by George Kirkpatrick of Coahoma and an oil truck occupied by Loy Darden, Golden West Motel, were in collision at 3rd and Benton. One of the fuel tanks on the diesel truck was leaking and the fire department was called to stand by in case of a fire. Also Wednesday, Billy Chesnut of Dalhart and Mary Flud of Snyder were in collision at the corner of 24th and Scurry.

Student Council Leaders Briefed On Responsibilities

Next year's high school student council leaders were briefed this morning on their responsibilities and opportunities for service to the school and community. The new officers met with the 1957-58 leaders at the final council session of the year. Retiring officers spoke briefly, including Stephen Baird who discussed three qualities of leadership, Valjean LaCroix who spoke on council activities, and Julius Glickman who outlined objectives and responsibilities of council members. Leaders must be dependable, interested in their work and open minded, said Baird. Miss LaCroix said council members should work to promote student-teacher and student-community understanding. Glickman said the council should strive to promote general student welfare, scholarship and school spirit.

Just Plain Mad

Dieters Will Appreciate This D'zert

If you are inviting weight-watchers to dinner, here is a good dessert to serve. Whole fresh strawberries will add a colorful garnish.

STRAWBERRY ROYALE

Ingredients:
 1 envelope unflavored gelatin
 1 cup cold water
 1 tsp. lemon juice
 1/4 cup instant nonfat dry milk powder
 1/2 cup very hot water
 1-3 cup frozen orange juice concentrate (undiluted)
 1 pkg. (10 ounces) sliced frozen strawberries (thawed).

Method:
 Sprinkle gelatin over 1/2 cup of the cold water and allow to stand to soften. Put remaining 1/2 cup cold water, the lemon juice and instant nonfat dry milk powder into a deep bowl. Beat with rotary beater (hand or electric) until stiff, about 8 minutes; refrigerate.

Continue at once as follows so whipped milk will not have to stand long. Add hot water to softened gelatin; stir until dissolved. Stir in orange juice concentrate. Place over ice cubes and a little cold water and stir constantly until mixture is the consistency of unbeaten egg whites. Stir in thawed strawberries, including juice. Fold in whipped milk.

Turn into 1 1/2-quart serving dish or 8 individual serving dishes. Chill until firm, about 4 hours. Makes 8 servings.

Flavor Of Lemon Is Tops For Spring Menus

Spring menus suggest lemon desserts. Something about the citrus flavor appeals to folk at this time of the year—it's fresh, light and good for you.

Here are two recipes that are unusual. Lemon Cake Pudding emerges from the oven with a cake top and custard bottom. Strawberries provide the piquant touch for Lemon Squares.

LEMON CAKE PUDDING

2 tbsps. flour
 1/4 tsp. salt
 1/2 cup sugar
 2 eggs (separated)
 1 cup milk
 2 tps. grated lemon rind
 2 tbsps. lemon juice
 Put flour, salt and sugar into a sifter; reserve. With rotary beater (hand or electric) beat egg yolks slightly; sift in flour mixture; beat just enough to combine. Add milk, grated lemon rind and lemon juice; beat enough to mix.

With clean beater, beat egg whites until they hold stiff peaks that stand straight up when beater is slowly withdrawn. Turn stiffly-beaten egg whites into egg yolk mixture; beat gently just until combined.

Turn into buttered 1 1/2-quart souffle dish (7 1/2 inches inside diameter and about 2 1/2 inches deep). Mixture will fill dish only part way. Place in pan of water that has just come to the boiling point. Bake in this water bath in slow (325 degrees) oven for 35 to 45 minutes or until cake tester inserted in center comes out clean. Cool and serve. Makes 5 servings.

LEMON SQUARES

1 pkg. lemon pudding and pie filling mix
 1/2 cup sugar
 1 tsp. gelatin
 2 cups water
 2 egg yolks
 2 tbsps. sugar
 Sponge cake
 2 cups halved fresh strawberries

Combine pie filling mix, 1/4 cup sugar, gelatin and 1/4 cup of the water in saucepan. Add egg yolks and blend well. Then add 1 1/4 cups remaining water. Cook and stir until mixture comes to a full boil and is thickened. This takes about 5 minutes. Remove from heat.

Beat egg whites until foamy throughout. Add 2 tablespoons sugar, a tablespoon at a time, beating after each addition until sugar is blended. Then continue beating until this meringue mixture will stand in soft peaks. Fold in hot pudding.

Line bottom of 8x8x2-inch pan with sponge cake, 1/2 inch thick. Top with strawberries, reserving about 1/4 cup. Pour pudding onto berries. Garnish with remaining berries. Chill until firm. Cut in squares. Serve with whipped cream, if desired. Makes 8 to 10 servings.

Dad And The Children Will Cook Dinner For Mom On Mother's Day

We know some folks who plan a special treat for mom on Mother's Day. Dad and the children are not only going to do the dishes for the Queen of the Home. They're going to prepare dinner too!

If the weather is nice, Dad will don his apron and heat up the charcoal in the outdoor brazier. His goal is a tender, succulent steak that will call for seconds. But rain forbidding, he'll still don his apron and fry chicken in the oven. With it he and the children will serve baked potatoes and buttered asparagus and a gelatin salad.

They'll crown the meal with a Mother's Day Cake topped with an easy icing. Want to try it too? Well, the recipes are shared here:

Steak For Mom

Steak wins approval any day. But what a wonderful treat it would be on Mother's Day if Dad would do his apron, prime the outdoor grill, and prepare a juicy steak for the first lady of the home on Her day.

OVEN-FRIED CHICKEN

4 cups corn flakes
 1 egg
 1 tsp. milk
 2 tps. salt
 1/2 tsp. pepper
 2 1/2-3 pound frying chicken
 1 tbsps. butter or margarine, melted

Crush corn flakes into medium fine crumbs. Combine egg, milk, salt and pepper. Dip chicken pieces into egg mixture; roll in corn flakes crumbs. Place in greased shallow pan or casserole. Sprinkle with melted butter.

Bake in 350 degree oven about 30 minutes. Turn chicken and bake about 30 minutes longer or until tender.

MOTHER'S DAY CAKE

1 pkg. white cake mix
 1 sq. unsweetened chocolate, melted
 2 tbsps. water

STEAK FOR MOM

1 tbsps. sugar
 1/4 tsp. soda

Prepare white cake mix as directed on package. Combine chocolate, water, sugar and soda. Blend, then add to 1 cup of batter, mixing only enough to blend.

Line bottoms of two round 8-inch layer pans with paper. Put batters by large spoonsful into pan, alternating plain and chocolate mixtures. Then with knife, cut carefully through batter once in a wide zigzag course.

Bake in 375 degree oven 20 to 25 minutes. When cool, frost with dark chocolate frosting. Top with nosegay made with paper dolly and candy flowers. Apply bow and the word "Mother" with pink frosting forced through a pastry tube.

DARK CHOCOLATE FROSTING

1 cup instant sweet cocoa mix
 1/4 cup boiling water
 1 to 1 1/2 cups sifted confectioners sugar
 3 tbsps. softened butter or margarine

Combine cocoa mix and boiling water in mixing bowl. Stir only until cocoa mix is dissolved. Add 1 cup sugar and stir until smooth. Add butter. Beat well.

Then add remaining sugar gradually, beating after each addition until of right consistency to spread. Makes 1 1/2 cups frosting, or enough to cover tops and sides of two 8-inch layers generously.

GELATIN SALAD

1 10-oz. pkg. frozen raspberries, thawed
 Water
 1 3-oz. pkg. black raspberry-flavored gelatin
 1/2 cup chopped celery
 1/2 cup chopped blanched almonds
 1-3 cup mayonnaise
 1/2 cup instant nonfat dry milk crystals
 2 tbsps. lemon juice

Drain raspberries; reserve juice. Add enough water to raspberry juice to make 1 cup. Heat raspberry juice mixture to boiling point. Add gelatin and stir until gelatin is dissolved.

Chill until thickened. Add raspberries, celery, almonds and mayonnaise. Blend. Mix with whipped instant crystals.

To whip crystals, mix them with 1/2 cup ice water. Whip until soft peaks form, 3 to 4 minutes. Add lemon juice. Continue beating 3 to 4 minutes, until stiff peaks form.

A Bible Thought For Today

Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things. (Philippians 4:8)

Looking Ahead At A Vital Problem

What will Big Spring and Howard County be like in 10 years, in 20 years or more? What will be required to maintain first class hospital standards for the projected population? What else will be required to maintain a quality of service which has earned the city respect as a medical center? How have other communities come to grips with this problem? What sort of facilities have they provided and what are the prime operational problems? What are the advantages, if any, of centers, or open-staff institutions as compared with separate private facilities? Whose responsibility is it to provide acceptable if not superior hospital accommodations? What are the best avenues of financing?

These are but a few of the hundreds of questions which three subcommittees of the Chamber of Commerce hospital survey committee will be raising and seeking to answer in the months ahead. It would be folly to predict what the findings would be, for if that could be done accurately the commissioning of these committees would be a waste of energy and time. The important thing is that Big Spring people have started to make an objective analysis of the problem as possible, and that they are looking ahead to future needs rather than being forced into hasty or ill-advised action because of the natural unfolding of events or because of an emergency situation. This is a question which vitally affects us all. When it comes to what we wear, what we drive, what we eat, what we do, we may adjust our choice to our circumstance; but when it comes to medical care, no one wants less than the best.

Music Gains Footing In Our Lives

Our music clubs have come up with another well rounded series of programs for the observance of National Music Week. Over the years these faithful members have diligently provided a type of observance which has made the public more cognizant of the place of music in our world and our lives, and which, at the same time, has managed to match quality and popularity.

To some it may seem that progress is slow, but progress is definitely being made in the field of music in Big Spring. The response is not always as spontaneous or as large as we might wish, but those with good memories can recall the days when a better type of musical program wouldn't have attracted a corporate guard.

Now we have several choirs, many people of exceptional vocal talents. We have hands; we have several with above average to brilliant abilities at the piano and organ. We have arrived to the point where our college music department, with the encouragement of others, is undertaking "Mikado." In our concert association series the emphasis has been upon good music.

Appreciation of the music arts is the product of exposure to meaningful music. Boogie-woogie, rock 'n roll, combo and assorted other forms of music will continue to come and go, but go they will because they lack the depth and the body which makes good music endure. Top literature must say something and say it in a special way. Good music must do the same thing. In Big Spring the music clubs have been instrumental in helping us upgrade our level of appreciation and thus give music a better footing in our lives.

Here's Plan To Cure All Economic Ills

The members of the Cabinet stood at attention. "Sit down, sit down," said the Red Queen peevishly. "Formality is inappropriate when 5,000,000 persons are unemployed. Every one wants to cut taxes, taxes."

"Whose taxes?" asked the Carpenter. "His own taxes, naturally," said Alice. "Whose else's," and Alice clapped her hand to her mouth.

"It's bad manners to cover your mouth, child," said the Red Queen. "Why do you do it?"

"My grammar," said Alice. "I'm not sure whether it should be whose else's, or whom else's, or else whom's, or who else's."

"Cut taxes!" The Walrus shook his head. "That will more unbalance the already hopelessly unbalanced budget." He was his consistent grumpy self. "As the keeper of the exchequer, I resent that."

"Not at all," said Alice genially. "I've whipped up a Miracle Plan. We can cut taxes by a third, and use the reduction to balance the budget."

"A psychiatrist, quick," bellowed the Red Queen. "Alice has been reading the Congressional Record."

"Let's listen to her," counseled the White Queen. "That's what a psychiatrist would do."

"It's elementary," said Alice. "We have too many persons unemployed. Unemployment compensation doesn't permit the unemployed to buy automobiles, refrigerators, washing machines, or keep up their installment payments. Manufacturers of autos, refrigerators, washing machines have cut production. Therefore, they don't buy machinery or build new factories. They use less steel, copper, etc., and so reduce inventories."

"It behooves you, your Majesty," and Alice bowed. "To turn the spiral around, get people to buy. The prevalent theory is, cut taxes. Then consumers will have more money to spend on autos, shoes, rugs and swimming pools. They'll have more money left for instalment collectors."

"That plan is too slow, too awkward. It requires people to earn money before they get their money back as a tax cut. I want to put money in the hands of the consumers before they earn it. In that way, my proposal will balance the budget and make you the greatest Red Queen since the Queen of Hearts."

"Continue, dear sweet Alice," said the Red Queen. "I've always admired the Queen of Hearts."

"Thank you, your Majesty," said Alice. "The plan is designed to increase purchasing power. Of course, we could do that by sending airplanes aloft to strew dollar bills throughout the land. However, that's too crude in this modern era. True, it distributes money. It even gives the unemployed something to do—running thither and thither to gather up the money. It's a form of occupational therapy."

Even the Walrus was listening as Alice continued.

"But the proposal has this grave disadvantage. The money would go to the fleet, the alert, the strong. Those who have jobs, who have been eating well, would be the victors. Distribution would be haphazard, accidental. Voters would deplore the irrationality."

"It's an ideal plan for unemployed street cleaners," said the Carpenter. "They're efficient at spearing pieces of paper. It would set me up in business—making spears."

"Enough, enough jabbering," shouted the Red Queen. "I'll not let you exploit the Public Purse." She turned from the Carpenter to Alice, banging her mace. "The plan, the plan! What is it?"

"Yes, your Majesty," replied Alice. "I propose an immediate remission by Treasury check of one-third of last year's taxes. This would put about $20,000,000,000 into circulation. Even today's unemployed would get something if they worked last year."

"This plan is fast. Taxpayers don't have to wait for a tax cut. They get it once a government check for back taxes—taxes already paid. Then they can spend and create their own jobs. I call it Operation Bootstrap, and she placed a nicely bound book before the Red Queen labeled "Operation Bootstrap—Grand Plan to End Recession."

"And the beauty of it all is," said Alice, "that the resulting increase in production and employment would boost this year's corporate and personal income. And the increased tax collections on this higher income would balance this year's budget."

"How can you balance the budget if you're giving money away?" asked the Walrus belligerently.

"We're giving away last year's money," said Alice. "In so doing, we're balancing this year's budget. Could anything be simpler?"

"Nothing, nothing could be simpler," said the Walrus.

"That's fine," said the Red Queen. "The plan's adopted unanimously. The recession's over. The meeting's adjourned." As the others filed out of the council chamber, the White Queen lingered behind to soothe the Walrus.

Ike's Getting His Hair Mussed

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower is getting his hair mussed on two major programs. He's in bad trouble on both. He has talked a lot in favor of both. It remains to be seen what else he'll do besides talk.

He has a record of making public statements in behalf of programs he sends to Congress and then leaving the infighting to others — like pressuring members of Congress, buttonholing them, telephoning them.

It's for this tactic particularly that he's been criticized for lack of leadership. Now his reciprocal trade program and his plan to reorganize the Defense Department are getting kicked around.

Take them one at a time. Reciprocal trade — This 24-year old program dies June 30 unless Congress prolongs it. Eisenhower has asked that it be extended five years more. This is its purpose:

To encourage trade this country can lower tariffs on imports from other nations if they lower their tariffs on imports from us. Eisenhower wants power to cut American tariffs after 25 per cent in return for concessions from others.

He considers this program of the utmost importance in helping build up non-Communist countries and keeping them away from Communist influence. The Soviets are stepping up their trade programs. The trade itself doesn't mean much to them. Last November Premier Khrushchev said, "We declare war upon the United States... in the peaceful field of trade." But three years ago he explained what was behind Soviet trading: "We value trade least for economic and most for political purposes."

In 1957 American exports were 21 billion dollars, imports only 13 billion. But there is strong opposition to the trade program Eisenhower asked, from both Democrats and Republicans. A majority in both parties in the House appears to be against it.

Republican opposition in the House has been estimated at 4-1.

Exports mean a lot of money to a lot of American workers and businesses. But imports are poison to a lot of workers and businesses because of the competition involved.

Eisenhower has estimated that knocking out the trade program would jeopardize the jobs of 4½ million American workers. Foes of the trade program not only complain it hurts them but argue can tariffs another 25 per cent in return for concessions from others.

Opposition is common from the South, where the textile and plywood industries feel hurt by imports; oil states in the Southwest are opposed; so are zinc and lead states in the West. The coal miners of West Virginia are against it because imported fuel and residual oils are in competition with coal.

Defense reorganization — Its purpose: to provide for "unified planning and direction" of the armed forces by strengthening the authority of Secretary of Defense McElroy and the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

Even the armed services themselves, as they expressed their views to Congress, are divided: the Army and Air Force are in favor; the Navy and Marines have found things about the plan they don't like.

And there's division in Congress, even among the most powerful Democrats.

Rep. Carl Vinson, Georgia Democrat and chairman of the very influential Armed Services Committee of the House, is the toughest and loudest foe. But Rep. Clarence Ladd, Missouri Democrat and chairman of the extremely influential Appropriations Committee, is all for the program.

There's a good chance — despite all Eisenhower's urgings to the contrary — that the plan will be badly watered down if not shoved aside. Vinson's committee is writing a substitute proposal.

Just to show what kind of watering down the program faces: Vinson said his group could write its substitute on the back of an envelope.

Foreign aid — In this field Eisenhower's program looks healthier. He asked almost four billion dollars to continue it another year.

NEW YORK (AP) — Characters we've heard about but never expect to meet:

Statesmen who would rather be right than president.

A woman who could go on a diet without bragging.

A man who could go on the wagon without bragging.

Anyone who ever knew a simple way to attract a waiter's attention.

A girl who could blow smoke through her nose and still look sophisticated.

A wife too proud to go through her husband's pockets, particularly on a night when he has returned home after playing poker.

A husband too honorable to peek at his wife's diary.

A politician who ever gave a constituent a free cigar — or anything else.

An unselfish cat that leaped into the water to save its drowning master.

Anyone who honestly felt his life began at 40.

Anyone who gave a blood transfusion without the feeling he was an unsung hero.

Anyone who never had a sick day in his life.

A wife who really enjoyed doing the dishes.

A candidate who means it from the heart when he says, "I don't care who you vote for, as long as you vote."

A big spender who steps up to the bar and announces, "Drinks for the house — on me."

A Boy Scout who ever helped an old man across the street.

A newspaperman who wore his hat on the back of his head — or cussed out his city editor to his face.

A private detective who leaped into a cab and shouted to the driver, "Follow that car—there's a five-spot in it for you if you don't lose him."

A doctor who, after losing a patient in surgery, said, "Well, you can't win 'em all."

A columnist who would admit his job was easier than working for a living.

Still Useful And Faithful As Ever

My trip with the Air Force this week, with stops at five bases from Texas to Florida, let most of the air out from under my wings.

As an ex-member of that branch of the service, I've been considering myself as a sort of half-authority on Air Force activities. Sure, they're flying an awful lot of jets now, and there's much talk about missiles and such, but everything else is about like always, I thought.

Monday and Tuesday, I learned it isn't true. With about one exception, I found there isn't a piece of equipment in the Air Force that was used 12 or 15 years ago when I did my hitch.

Even the serving trays in the mess halls have been changed. The old Air Force has been revolutionized since its separation from the Army. About the only thing that has hung on from the old days is the venerable old C47, better known in some circles as the "gooney bird."

I noticed that a good many airmen now refer to the old ship in disparaging terms, calling attention to its relative slowness, flop-eared appearance, etc. But the old timers can't help but be ashamed of such remarks, and it's easy to detect their respect for the veteran ship. Pin them down, and they'll admit that the C47 (the civilian DC3) is just about the most dependable, safest and enduring craft that ever flew the skies.

The trusty transport must have been at least 10 years ahead of anything in its field. The manufacturers actually shut down production of the C47 some 20 years ago, after saturating the market.

Then World War II occurred and suddenly there was an overwhelming demand for planes that could haul a lot of soldiers and supplies safely and swiftly. Nothing then available fits the requirements like the gooney bird, later to be known as the Army's work horse. So the C47 factories were fired up again, and a few thousand new transports were turned out.

Their role, unarmed and defenseless in delivering World War II troops to the battleground and then supplying them with everything from handgrenades to howitzers was one of the decisive forces of the war.

As you probably have guessed, I was in a C47 group. I was proud of the gooney bird then and I'm proud of it now, but this week I got the feeling that it and I are something out of the past as far as the Air Force is concerned. Still, the C47 plugs along, faithful as ever.

Communist Infiltration Continues

WASHINGTON—Secret testimony, just made public, reveals that the Communists are intensively engaged in an effort to exploit interracial difficulties in the United States.

A few days ago the correspondent raised the question whether the bombings of Negro schools and Jewish synagogues in the South were part of a Communist plot to inflame public opinion and cause intense friction among the people of this country. The Louisville bombing in which Communists were implicated was cited as a case in point.

In this connection the words of J. Edgar Hoover, director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, uttered in executive session before a subcommittee of the House Appropriations Committee in January but just released, take on special significance. He said:

"The Negro situation is also being exploited fully and continuously by Communists on a national scale. Current programs include intensified attempt to infiltrate Negro mass organizations. The Communist party's objectives are not to aid the Negroes—but are designed to take advantage of all controversial issues on the racial question so as to create unrest, dissension, and confusion in the minds of the American people."

Many persons have been lulled into the belief that the Communist menace in America is either nonexistent or insignificant. This impression has been fostered in part by the vicious attacks that have been made on the government's efforts to ferret out security risks and to uncover Communist espionage.

The FBI uses undercover agents, who become members of the Communist cells and report on what actually is going on. When FBI Director Hoover speaks, he is talking from a knowledge of what the undercover agents report. He said to the House committee:

"We now have approximately 150 known, or suspected, Communist-front and Communist-infiltrated organizations under investigation."

"Our investigators have clearly shown that the Communist party, U. S. A., is a hard core of conspiratorial Reds controlled by the heavy hand of Moscow.

"Efforts of the bona fide party membership have been complemented by an intensified program of infiltrating mass organizations. To disguise its programs as the offerings of legitimate organizations and to divorce its activities from the stigma of open identification with Communism, the party has established many 'front' groups and continuously strives to infiltrate unsuspecting, well-respected organizations. Since front groups are used to dupe loyal citizens in supporting and promoting campaigns which are designed to help the Communist party attain its goals, they constitute one of the most important phases of Communist activity in the United States."

One of the cleverest pieces of propaganda effort is the artificially stimulated furor about "fall-out" and "nuclear tests." The FBI has not made any comment on it. Some of those active in making protests are sincere and loyal. Some are apparently duped by clever propagandists.

It so happens that last Sunday on the CBS program, "Face The Nation," Lewis Strauss, chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission, did make a comment on the propaganda about nuclear tests. He said that "at the bottom of the disturbance there is a kernel of very intelligent, deliberate propaganda," and that "a great deal of money is being spent on it" such as, for instance, in nationwide mailings of anti-test "news releases."

Dr. Robert Newell, professor emeritus of radiology at Stanford University, now a consultant in the Navy's radiological laboratory in San Francisco, said a few days ago that it would take the explosion of a thousand bombs to double the present world level of "carbon 14" in the atmosphere and in the oceans "and it would not be detectable in a hereditary way."

But the critics of the tests had already gotten considerable publicity with a variety of statements, couched in the technical phrases of science, predicting dire results to the human race from nuclear materials. Such efforts to prevent America from continuing needed tests of nuclear materials are gaining ground because the public cannot tell who are the loyal, sincerely convinced scientists and who are the phony ones trying to help the Communist cause. It's just the setting for the kind of activity FBI Director Hoover has analyzed in his testimony to Congress.

De Valera Still Looks Ahead And Hopes

DUBLIN—Time and political success have mellowed the Irish rebel in Eamon de Valera since first I interviewed him in New York 30 years ago.

But neither time nor tide has diminished his eloquent gift of gab. Now, at 76, the Grand Old Man of Ireland is still the great, free-wheeling talker of old, and devil a man can get a word in edgewise when the Irish Prime Minister has the floor.

He had the floor when last I saw him in Dublin 16 years ago, and he had not relinquished it when I had the good luck to see him again the other day in his government offices. But if the gift of words is undiminished, it has softened with the years.

Sixteen years ago that sore subject, the end of partition of North and South Ireland, produced de Valera fireworks. Today it induced only gentle hope, although it is obvious that the union of the North and the South would be the glorious crown to a long life devoted to Irish independence and union.

"I hope the problem will be solved," said the "Prime." "But don't ask me how! I am opposed to violence as a means of ending partition. I wish the two could get together and act for the best interest of all the Irish people."

He, who had fought the British to a standstill on the matter of a free, independent Irish Republic, talked quietly of the future possibility of an association of that republic with the British Commonwealth of Nations.

"It is quite possible for a united, independent Ireland, if her people wish it, to be associated with the British Commonwealth of Nations, always provided an oath of allegiance to the Queen is not required," Mr. de Valera said. "Without our forfeiting our independence as a Republic, an external association with the Commonwealth is possible."

He stood in front of his desk as he talked—a tall, rangy man who holds himself straight as ever. The years have set lightly on him, although the shock of dark hair I remember so well from 30 years ago is now reduced to a gray fringe.

The professional air that always stamped him, and no amount of rebellion ever changed, still marks him. His dress is still and ultraconservative single-breasted dark blue suit, with old-fashioned vest. His white shirt still ends in a high, hard collar. And his glasses are still the turn-of-the-century type with thin metal frames and bows.

Born in New York, near the spot where the Chrysler Building stands, this man of mixed Irish and Spanish ancestry is now troubled with the problem of keeping young Irishmen in Ireland and preventing their emigration to the New World.

"We must find 20,000 new jobs a year to keep our young people home," the Prime Minister said. "Industrialization is the solution to this problem. We must be up and doing. We have been late in the industrial race."

At 76, this scholarly revolutionary is still looking vigorously to the future of the country he helped create. The world whose history he changed in the 20th Century has long since forgotten that he first gained fame throughout Europe as one of the foremost mathematicians and astronomers. But he still has his eyes on the stars.

Flirting With Death

FLAGSTAFF, Ariz. (AP) — Joseph P. Lipinski Jr. of Flagstaff figures the best place for him is home in bed.

While fishing in the Gulf of California his boat capsized 15 miles off shore. He was rescued after several hours in the water.

Nine days later he was overcome by fumes while applying an enameled cement wall finish in a shower room at Arizona State College at Flagstaff. A school employe found him unconscious. He was pulled to safety.

New Fad

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — One explanation for the latest teen-age fad—dancing in one's bare feet!—was given by a Buchtel High School girl here.

Said she: "My feet hurt."

Pie's Good, Mommy!

It's forbidden food most of the time for "Billy" Lowe, but just this once his mother obliges with a tiny taste. Mrs. Bill Sims' recipe for this superb pecan pie is revealed in the accompanying story.

Home Economics Degree Merely Enhances Her Gift For Homemaking

When Mrs. Bill Sims began her career as a homemaker three years ago, she had a head start over the majority of girls. She was newly graduated from Southern Methodist University with a degree in home economics education. As her practice teaching assignment, she had instilled the fundamentals of homemaking into her eighth grade pupils. All of this training merely enhanced her native talent for this choice role.

Cooking is one of her favorite activities, and she admits to a special fondness for preparing fancy desserts and salads. Often a recipe invites improvisation, and she takes pride in experimenting. A prime example is a cobbler recipe which she varies not only with different fruits but with fruit juices. And she has one recipe for a basic mix from which she can make any number of quick breads—77, according to the original.

WORKS OF ART

Her pies are works of art that would make some of those pictured nationally pale in comparison. She has what she describes as a "never-fail" pastry recipe which she shares with the readers. With it goes her timely tip—to be assured of a flaky pie crust, brush it with butter before baking.

With the entertainment whirl in full swing, any of the recipes which she gives here will be welcomed by many a hostess. The Angel Cake may be delicately tinted, if desired.

Although gifted in sewing, Mrs. Sims confesses that she dislikes making her own frocks. However, she enjoys making sport shirts for her husband, who is assistant Howard County agent, and she likes to sew for their 13-month-old son, "Billy" Lowe. Their apartment at 1501-A Wood has traces of her way with a needle, in the form of curtains. As an active member of the American Association of University Women, she has given liberally of her time and talent in helping with the group's monthly parties at the state hospital and making dresses for one of the patients.

Sims, a native of Paint Rock and a Texas Tech graduate, is an angler by hobby and, with his wife, takes to swimming and bridge as well as to square dancing, which they used to do in her home town, Sterling City. They are sponsors of the Senior High MYF at First Methodist Church.

Another fruitful interest of his is growing tomatoes and flowers. Energetic Mrs. Sims has made it her practice to do quite a bit of canning and to use the tomatoes in chow chow. This year she thinks she will convert the crop into dill tomato pickles.

Try these recipes of hers:

PECAN PIE

1 cup white corn syrup
1 cup sugar
1 heaping tbsp. flour
1 tsp. butter
4 eggs
1 tsp. vanilla
2 cups pecans

Mix flour, sugar and corn syrup. Add eggs, one at a time, and beat mixture well after each addition. Drop in nuts, vanilla and butter. Pour into unbaked pie shell and cook at 350 degrees for about 30 minutes, or until done.

PASTRY

2 cups flour
2-3 cup shortening
1/4 cup water
1/4 tsp. salt
Make a paste of about one-third of the flour and the water. Meanwhile, after salt has been sifted in with flour, cut in shortening with pastry blender. With a fork briefly stir in paste and use blender to complete mixing. After rolling out dough and placing it in pie plates, brush the crust with butter before baking.

ANGEL CAKE

2 cups milk
2 cups sugar

6 eggs, separated
2 tsp. gelatin
1/2 cup cold water
1 tsp. vanilla
1/2 tsp. salt
1 large angel food cake
1 pt. cream
1/2 tsp. cream of tartar
1/2 pt. cream, whipped

Put gelatin in cold water. Bring the milk and 1/4 cup sugar to scalding point. Add well beaten egg yolks and 1/4 cup sugar with salt added to milk gradually, stirring constantly. Custard should coat spoon in 20-30 minutes. Re-

Add Onion, Cheese To Green Beans

Green beans are good almost any way they are cooked—whether with bacon, salt pork or butter. But next time you prepare them, try adding dash with cheese and small white onions. They'll work magic.

ONIONS, SNAP BEANS

1 pound fresh snap beans
1 inch boiling water in pan
1/4 tsp. salt
1 pound small white onions
1 inch boiling water in pan
1/4 tsp. salt

Margarine or butter
Parmesan cheese

Wash beans. Cut off tips and leave whole. Place in saucepan with 1 inch boiling water and 1/4 teaspoon salt. Cover. Bring to boiling point and cook until crisp-tender, lifting the lid 3 to 4 times during cooking to retain green color of the beans.

Peel onions, leave whole and place in a saucepan with 1 inch boiling water and 1/4 teaspoon salt. Leave uncovered and quickly bring to boiling point. Cook until onions are tender.

Season beans and onions with margarine or butter, ground black pepper and additional salt, if desired. Arrange in serving dish. Sprinkle with Parmesan cheese. Serves 4 to 5.

For Babies—

There's Food Variety, Nutritional And Good

Latest in the fast-growing line of strained and junior dinners are vegetables and ham (there is both a strained and junior version); strained split peas, vegetables and bacon; and junior egg noodles and beef.

The fine flavor of these new dinners is cause enough for their quick acceptance by mother and baby, but there are several other reasons for their approval by nutritionists. These "dinners" serve to introduce a baby to grownup flavors. These meal-in-one varieties have a good nutritional "balance."

It has been established that no nutrient is of value by itself; but instead it depends for its effectiveness on the presence of other needed nutrients. For example, the body does not utilize fats, carbohydrates and proteins by themselves; they must interact. And calcium and phosphorus, for example, work hand in hand with vitamin D.

Nutritionists have established a

Mushrooms, Touch Of Elegance To Peas

An epicure will applaud the teaming of mushrooms with frozen green peas. A bit of onion further lifts this everyday vegetable into the realm of gourmet food.

EXTRA-GOOD GREEN PEAS

Here is the recipe:
Ingredients:
1 1/2 lbs. butter or margarine
1 small onion (cut into thin rings)
1 can (3 ounces) chopped broiled mushrooms
1 pkg. (10 ounces) frozen green peas
Water
1/4 tsp. salt
1/4 tsp. white pepper

Method:
Melt butter in saucepan; add onion rings and drained mushrooms, reserving mushroom liquid. Cook over low heat, stirring often, until onions are golden. Add frozen peas. Add enough water to mushroom liquid to make 1/2 cup and pour in with salt and pepper. Bring to a boil, separating peas if necessary. Boil gently about 5 minutes or until peas are tender.

Serve with pan juices or remove peas and other vegetables with slotted spoon and reduce pan liquid by boiling, then pour small amount left over peas. Makes 4 servings.

Lemon-Butter

You'll need to add 2 tablespoons of lemon juice to a quarter cup of butter for a lemon-butter sauce for fish or vegetables. The trick in preparing this, is to cream the butter and then mix in the lemon juice very slowly so the butter will gradually absorb it.

General directions for baking a pastry shell: prick the shell well all over with a fork and bake in a very hot (450 degrees) oven for 12 to 15 minutes or until gold colored. Remove from oven, cool and then fill.

Graham Crosses Oakland Bridge

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Evangelist Billy Graham crossed San Francisco Bay today for a noon-time service at Oakland's Scottish Rite Auditorium with Rotarians and Kiwanians.

Oakland Mayor Clifford Rishell also has invited Graham to conduct an outdoor rally in Oakland sometime before he concludes his Bay area crusade June 8.

Graham addressed a crowd of 14,200 at the Cow Palace last night. Answering his appeal to "decide for Christ" were 288. It was his 10th sermon in the 16,500-seat auditorium.

Graham denounced materialism and covetousness. He said that included "overindulgence in everything...too much food, too much drink, too little sleep...too much sex."

He condemned "women who do not have to work who neglect their children."

Graham has drawn 165,000 persons to his meetings so far and there have been 5,070 "decisions for Christ."

Next House Office Building May Bear Rayburn's Name

By TEX EASLEY
AP Special Washington Service
WASHINGTON, May 8 (AP)—

When the 65 million dollar additional House Office Building is completed in about three years it may be named in honor of a Speaker longer than any other person in history.

At present there are two block-square buildings about 200 yards from the Capitol with two and three room suites for the 435 representatives and many committee rooms.

One, the "Old House Office Building," was authorized in 1903 and finally ready for occupancy on Jan. 10, 1908. The cost was $4,860,000.

The "New House Office Building" was authorized in 1929 and ready for occupancy in 1933. It cost $7,805,000.

The matter of designating the newest building already is a practical problem to the Capitol architect. He refers to it as the "additional Office Building," but this won't do when congressmen and others on Capitol Hill have to make frequent references to it. So, when the time for dedication nears the House will adopt a resolution for designation. The talk now is that the three structures will be named after the speakers presiding at the time each was authorized.

The first thus would become the "Cannon Building," after Uncle Joe.

The second would be tabbed the Longworth Building, although a Democratic-controlled House might decide to name it the Garner Building, since virtually all of the construction was done when the Uvalde congressman served as Speaker.

The newest building, anyway you figure it, most likely will be designated "The Rayburn Building."

At the moment the veteran Bonham congressman is much in the limelight, so far as architecture is concerned, for his unwavering support of the proposed 32-foot extension of the front of the Capitol at a cost of 10 million dollars.

Anyone who claimed to have had knowledge of the political plans of Sen. Ralph Yarborough prior to the latter's announcement speech of April 28 must have had psychic powers or better.

The senator's wife, talking with friends at a party here the next day, said there was still a slight question in his mind when he left for Texas to make the address.

Sen. Lyndon Johnson, who had just issued a statement saying he would take a hands-off position in the forthcoming Senate race, came up to Mrs. Yarborough and with a grin said:

"All right, Opal, let's hear some campaign talk if you're going to solicit my vote."

Early passage is predicted for the Dowdy bill, which would strengthen existing laws against pornography and obscenity. Introduced by East Texas Rep. John Dowdy, the measure provides for prosecution of offenders at the point of delivery of offensive material. Under existing law, a publisher of such material doesn't face a jury in the area where his products may have been distributed and done harm.

Excerpts from recent newsletters of Texas congressmen to their constituents:

Rep. Wright Patman of Texas: "The Russian people did not seem to fear that they would be corrupted by our Texas pianist; and the American farmers were not afraid that their confidence in the American way of life would be undermined by visits from the Russian farmers. I believe that more meetings between peoples and greater exchange of news correspondents would make it less likely that heads of governments will do irrational things to precipitate war."

Rep. J. T. Rutherford of Odesa: "A woman from El Paso, widow of a Spanish-American War veteran...wrote me that the V.A. stopped her pension check some months ago, and when she wrote to find why, received this deadpan reply: 'According to our records we find that you are deceased.' The lady in her letter to me said 'This is entirely incorrect. I am very much alive.'"

Rep. Jim Wright of Fort Worth, answering a question as to whether he employed a "ghost writer" to do his newsletters, said: "Maybe I'm a bit old-fashioned about this particular sort of thing. Somehow the practice has always struck me as just a little deceptive. It's too much like palming off someone else's thoughts...or some one else's work...as your own. So just to set the record straight, in case anyone else should have wondered, I write it...every Thursday night after the kids are in bed, on a broken-down portable in the kitchen. (My wife won't let me do it on the dining room table. Claims I drop cigarette ashes on the rug, which is strictly her imagination, of course.)"
