Record Holder Congratulated

Highest-Flying Airman Got Airsick On First Plane Ride

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The world's new highest-flying airman—nicknamed Scrapy after a boyhood fist fight at a Sunday school picnic—got airsick on his first plane ride. Air Force Maj. Howard Carrol Johnson flew a Lockheed F104A Starfighter Wednesday to an altitude of 17,280 miles—a new mark for ground-takeoff flying. Only experimental planes released from mother craft have gone higher. Asked Thursday how he felt preparing for his record assault, Johnson harked back to his high school football days and said: "Like a guy in the safety position with some guy kicking the ball and 60,000 people watching." Johnson, 38, has green eyes, a ruddy complexion, a strong chin and curly black hair. He stands 5 feet 8 and weighs 170. He was born in Knoxville, Tenn. The family moved to Louisville, Ky., when Johnson, an only child, was 10. His late father was a bookkeeper for the Louisville and Nashville Railroad. He worked as a messenger boy and typist while attending the University of Louisville. He majored in English literature but had no career in mind. In college he met brown-haired Doris Jean Holder, of Louisville, whom he later married. They live in Novato, Calif., with their children, Theodore, 10, and Carol, 4. Johnson used to watch planes flying at the old Army Air Corps base in Louisville. Several university classmates quit to join the corps and he followed suit. His first plane ride was in the service. After a few flights in primary training at Ballinger, Tex., he found that the airsickness disappeared when he was at the controls. In World War II he flew target fighters at the Laredo, Tex. gunnery school. Cadets aimed movie cameras and later plastic bullets at his plane. After the war he got a commission in the regular Air Force. He flew 87 combat missions in Korea, winning the Distinguished Flying Cross twice and the Air Medal with six clusters. He is now operations officer with the 83rd Fighter-Interceptor Squadron, Hamilton AFB, Calif.

Ban On Nuclear Tests Raises Question Of Strauss Quitting

WASHINGTON (AP)—Will Lewis Strauss quit as chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission if President Eisenhower decides to suspend U. S. nuclear testing later this year? This question is getting increasing attention in the light of a statement made by Strauss. In reply to a question about his future plans, he told a National Press Club audience that his five-year term of office expires at the end of June and "the President has done me the honor of saying he wishes me to take re-appointment."

Then he added: "There are a number of considerations to be weighed. I have reached no position. His statement stands against the background of widely published reports that he is waging a last-ditch fight against any modification of the administration's long-established policy on nuclear test suspension. Strauss contends the United States must continue testing to reduce nuclear fallout and to develop highly efficient nuclear weapons for defense against attacking aircraft or missiles. He faces strong opposition at the policy-making level. Secretary of State Dulles is known to have argued that from a diplomatic and world propaganda point of view it is vital for the United States to move toward suspending tests, and the sooner the better. Dr. James R. Killian Jr., the President's science adviser, is understood to have recommended steps toward suspension. One of Killian's own science advisers, Dr. Hans Bethe, recently testified before a congressional committee that if testing were stopped after the current series of the military advantage would lie with the United States because the United States at this point is ahead of the Soviet Union. The final decision rests with Eisenhower, who so far as is known has not yet taken a definite stand. Strauss told the press club that he is in favor of the present U.S. policy. Under this, tests would be halted only if an effective inspection system could be instituted immediately and if the Soviet Union and other powers agree to move quickly into an accord to halt the manufacture of nuclear explosives for weapons.

Looking For Ring

L.J. Abner, Big Spring version, starts his quest for the coveted Shrine ring which will be presented to the outstanding candidate at the annual spring ceremonial of the Suez Shrine Temple in San Angelo this weekend. The local candidate is E. C. Smith, above, who'll wear the Dogpatch colors throughout the ceremonial. A large delegation of Big Spring Shriners left today for the annual gathering.

Victim's Father Takes Stand

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP)—The father of the slain Robert W. Jensen wiped away tears today as he recalled his sons' last night of life Jan. 27. The father, Robert D. Jensen, a general store operator at Benet, Neb., was the first prosecution witness in the murder trial of Charles Starkweather. He told how his son, 17, left home for an evening ride in his car with his girl friend, Carol King, 16. Bodies of the couple were found the next day in a storm cellar. Starkweather, admitted party to 11 slayings, is charged particularly with the Jensen killing. The husky elder Jensen choked with emotion as he identified a picture of his son, the boy's wrist watch and other items. County Atty. Elmer Scheele told the jury Thursday that Jensen was shot six times from behind. The bullets were clustered, indicating short-range firing, Scheele said. The defense is not denying Starkweather shot Jensen but is pleading insanity. Then the defense attorney, F. Clement Gaughan, told the jury that Starkweather was suffering from delusions when he killed Jensen. Gaughan said Starkweather claims he fired after Jensen launched an attack. "That's his version. The defense is insanity," said Gaughan.

Civilian Space Agency Faces Senate Overhaul

House Version Of Ike Defense Plan Readied

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House Armed Services Committee's version of a military reorganization bill was being prepared today for presentation to the House by the end of next week. Chairman Carl Vinson (D-Ga.) said in an interview the committee will conclude its hearings by the middle of the week and finish writing its bill a day or two thereafter.

"I expect the House to approve the bill that will be presented," Vinson said, but he turned away all questions as to what it might contain.

There were strong indications, however, the bill would contain only part of the changes President Eisenhower has asked.

It was expected that the measure would provide an enlarged Joint Staff, which administration witnesses have testified would be needed to carry out Eisenhower's plans for close control of unified fighting commands by the secretary of defense.

The committee has appeared to favor Eisenhower's request for a powerful over-all research chief in the Defense Department and may approve also some adjustment of the command authority of the chiefs of the separate services so there would be no question that the commander of a combined force would be its military boss.

Beyond that, Eisenhower's recommendations were still being coolly received by the committee as it neared the end of its hearings.

Among the recommendations facing trouble were those to allow the fighting functions of the various services, now fixed by law and repeal of a section of the present law which provides that the services shall be separately administered.

Longtime Resident Of Mitchell Dies

COLORADO CITY (SC) — Mrs. Sam Brown, 83, long time resident of Mitchell County, died at 6:30 a.m. Friday at the Malone & Hogan Hospital in Big Spring. She had been ill for the past three weeks.

Funeral is pending, although the rites will be held at Kiker & Son Funeral Home in Colorado City and burial will be in the Cuthbert Cemetery beside her husband who died in September of 1951.

Mrs. Brown was born June 6, 1874, in Robertson County and was married to Sam L. Brown Dec. 29, 1892, in Turnsville. They came to Mitchell County in 1905 and settled on a farm near Cuthbert. Mrs. Brown was a member of the Cuthbert Methodist Church.

Surviving are 13 children—nine sons and four daughters. The sons are Thomas (Burr) Brown, Coahoma, Lloyd Brown, Carlsbad, N. M., Lee Brown, Robert Lee, Fletcher Brown, Colorado City, Lawrence Brown, Belen, N. M., Raymond Brown, Denver, Colo., Jim Brown, Cuthbert, Crockett Brown, Lamesa, Milton Brown, Campbell, Calif. The daughters are Mrs. McCarty, Big Spring, Mrs. W. A. Thompson, Skellytown, Mrs. W. L. Thompson, Garden City, and Mrs. J. H. Burrow, Ackerly.

She also leaves Royce Striker, Albuquerque, N. M., and Ira Striker, Rockport; and a sister, Mrs. Eddie Thompson, San Angelo. There are 32 grandchildren and 23 great-grandchildren.

TOO BAD, MEN; ISLAND PARADISE IS NOT FOR YOU

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Too bad, men, that South Seas paradise where pay is high, food and drinks cheap and women are barred is not for you—this year.

The no-help-wanted sign is up. The enchanted isles are where the United States tests its nuclear devices. Their appeal—if you want to get away from the little woman—was told in an Associated Press story earlier this week.

"We've been swamped with phone calls, telegrams, and letters since the news got out," said a spokesman for Holmes & Narver, Inc., a Los Angeles engineering firm hired by the Atomic Energy Commission to run the Eniwetok atoll proving ground.

"The only trouble," sighed the spokesman, "is that we don't have any job openings and won't have until next year. We have to say no to all the callers."

Especially intriguing about the island life: $1,500 a day living expenses, 25-cent drinks and $10,000 net salaries a year. The all-male community, 5,100 miles from Los Angeles, has been prospering since 1949.

Hope Held Out For Bloodless War

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Army held out the hope today that germs and drugs that neither kill nor maim could prevent small wars or help to win nearly bloodless victories in a big conflict.

At the same time, Maj. Gen. William M. Creasy, chief chemical officer, cautioned that the preoccupation with space and Sputniks could cause the nation to disregard what he called ample Soviet warnings that the Soviets could and would use chemical and biological weapons in another war. He said the Soviet defense minister stated several years ago that the weapons would be used along with guided missiles and nuclear weapons.

In heavily censored testimony which a House Appropriations subcommittee made public today, Creasy said also that this country had adopted in October 1956 a "national policy" on chemical and biological warfare and that the Defense Department had issued a directive to carry out the policy. The Pentagon said the directive is "top secret."

Creasy contended that the best way to stop small conflicts from breaking out would be to develop means to immobilize enemies. "If we could come up with something that produces temporary blindness, this would be the ideal type of thing where no one would be maimed tomorrow."

'Y' Campaign Reports Due

YMCA building campaign leaders were rallying the leadership of the drive for a second report session at 5:15 p.m. today in the Settles ballroom.

There have been no increases in totals since the Wednesday report session pegged the amount raised and pledged at $183,331, or 60 per cent of the $309,000 goal. However, the Kiwanis Club did vote Thursday to give $600 to the project over a three-year period. Other clubs have fund appeals before them.

K. H. McGibbon and Clyde McMahon, sectional chairmen in the general division, urged every worker to report this afternoon, regardless of the status of his contacts. "It is vitally important at this stage of the campaign to know where we are as it is to know how much has been committed," said McGibbon. "We only have one more week to go."

Burglars Raid Pastor's Home

The home of the Rev. Wayne Dittloff, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, was ransacked Thursday afternoon and $25 in cash was taken.

The preacher said that the house at 206 W. 9th was burglarized between 4:25 and 5:25 p.m. The money was taken from the bedroom, but the entire house was ransacked, he said.

Two rear-view mirrors and about 10 gallons of gasoline were taken from a car owned by J. M. Yeats, while the car was parked at the Trinity Baptist Church Wednesday night. Nine shirts were taken from a Mr. Odell's car while the vehicle was at 802 W. 3rd between 7:55 and 8:15 p.m. Thursday. Tommy Jackson, 1519 Kentucky, said thieves took four hub caps from his car while parked at the high school building Thursday. In removing one of the hub caps, thieves ruined a tube and tire, he said. Eight trash cans were stolen today from McCrory's Store, 300 Main.

Military Projects To Be Separated

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower's proposal for a civilian space agency today faced probable overhaul to make sure it does not encroach on military projects.

Key members of the Senate Space Committee indicated this after hearing spokesmen for the Navy, Army and Air Force voice misgivings that the Eisenhower proposal, as now worded, might threaten control of space projects related to defense.

Their testimony was reinforced by Secretary of Defense McElroy, who told a Pentagon news conference that "the military aspect of space research" should continue to have funding and direction from the Department of Defense.

Like the service witnesses, McElroy said, "we are favorable to the formation of some civilian agency that will give direction to nonmilitary aspects of national space programs."

Chairman Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex.) of the Space Committee said all witnesses agree that the intentions of the Eisenhower bill are good.

"I concur," he added. "But there are many roads paved with good intentions. The problem before the committee is just where the road leads."

Garrison Norton, assistant secretary of the Navy for air, testified the bill, as it now stands, would permit some future president or civilian space agency boss "to simply take over everything that's from one inch above the ground on up—all airborne travel as well as space travel."

Saying he agrees with many of the Navy's criticisms, Sen. Leverett Saltonstall (R-Mass.) said he already has prepared a redraft of the bill intended to make certain that Congress retains its check on transfer of any government agencies or functions.

Secretary of the Army Wilber M. Brucker and Malcolm A. McIntyre, undersecretary of the Air Force, also said some clarification is needed.

17 Indicted At Lamesa

LAMESA — The 106th District Grand Jury, meeting in a two-day session here, handed down 17 indictments and passed until the next session the other two cases presented.

Burglaries headed the list with nine indictments; followed by three for passing forged instruments; two for second offense DWI; and one each assault with intent to murder, murder and robbery.

Indictments handed down included: Joe Giddens and Jimmy Gardenhire, two charges each of burglary; Billy Franklin Rickman, Jimmy Loden, Howard McSpadden Jr., Bobby Rickman and Teodoro Briseno, one charge each of burglary; LeRoy Bowers, LeVold Gibson and F. B. Payne, one charge each of passing forged instruments; Ruben N. Vela and Alton L. Baker, one charge each of driving while intoxicated, second offense; Willis Collins, assault with intent to murder; Jessie Rodriguez, murder; and Freddy Lee Bradley, robbery.

The sheriff said packages found in the home were labeled good luck powder, lucky witchcraft, Egyptian love powder incense, and Adam and Eve root and oil. A recipe for a love potion called for the use of dragon blood and myrrh to be mixed with spirits of nitre and heated.

Pilot's Skill Brings Airliner In Safely

CHARLOTTE, N. C. (AP)—A giant airliner skidded to a stop, its nose plowing in a foam-covered runway. A canvas cover unfurled from a rear door and passengers started sliding to the earth.

"How did I feel? I'll tell you," said George England of Detroit, brushing off his clothes. "I prayed to God. That's all you can do at a time like that."

England was the first of 65 persons off the four-engine craft, an Eastern Air Lines Super-Constellation on a Detroit to Miami flight, after the emergency landing yesterday.

Not one of the 58 passengers and seven crew members was hurt. A defective nose wheel, which could not be raised or lowered from its half-down position, caused the emergency.

Capt. J. J. Randall of Miami discovered the faulty wheel just as he took off from here at noon for Atlanta. The passengers were told about the difficulty. "Everybody in the plane was calm," said Jacqueline Wingfield of Richmond, Va., one of three stewardesses on the flight. "They acted calm, anyhow." The airliner circled for three hours, burning fuel. The stewardesses served lunch to the passengers and prepared for the landing, anchoring down heavy objects, opening doors and windows, storing loose gear in lavatories. Airport crews laid a layer of firefighters foam on the runway. Fire trucks, ambulances and personnel took stations alongside the runway. Randall estimated he slowed the giant liner to about 70 miles an hour when he touched down—instead of the usual 90 to 100 miles an hour. The plane ran about a quarter-mile down the runway before Randall shifted the weight forward. The nose wheel touched the concrete and snapped back into its housing. Then the nose tilted over and the plane scooted along for about 1,000 feet. Watchers cheered and applauded as the plane halted.

Accused

Mrs. Anjette Donovan Lyles, 32, of Macon, Ga., has been arrested by Bibb County police and charged with four arsenic poisonings. She is accused of killing two husbands, her 3-year-old daughter and the mother of one of the husbands.

Voodoo Items Fill Home Of Accused Widow

MACON, Ga. (AP)—Police discovered an assortment of voodoo equipment and recipes for love potions in the home of a widow charged with the arsenic poison deaths of four persons.

Sheriff James I. Wood said four bottles which had contained ant poison with an arsenic base also were found in Mrs. Anjette Lyles' home.

Mrs. Lyles, 33, was arrested Tuesday at a hospital where she had been undergoing treatment for circulatory trouble in a leg.

She was charged with murder in the deaths of her mother-in-law, two husbands and a 9-year-old daughter. The daughter died last month, the first husband in 1952, the second in 1955 and the mother-in-law last year. Autopsies showed the presence of arsenic.

The sheriff said packages found in the home were labeled good luck powder, lucky witchcraft, Egyptian love powder incense, and Adam and Eve root and oil. A recipe for a love potion called for the use of dragon blood and myrrh to be mixed with spirits of nitre and heated.

Harlem Congressman Charged In U.S. Income Tax Evasion

NEW YORK (AP)—Rep. Adam Clayton Powell Jr., Harlem Democrat and church leader, has been indicted on charges of federal income tax evasion and aiding in preparing a fraudulent tax return for his wife, pianist Hazel Scott.

A special federal grand jury, impaneled 16 months ago, yesterday returned a three-count indictment against the 49-year-old Powell, a Negro member of Congress from New York since 1945.

Powell supported President Eisenhower and the GOP in the 1956 election, assertedly over his displeasure with his own party's position on the racial segregation issue.

Shortly after Eisenhower's reelection, the jury was allowed to become dormant. Powell denied that this represented any deal with the administration.

The indictment was expected to bolster the position of six of seven Harlem district leaders who reportedly are out to drop Powell from the Democratic ticket this year.

HAZEL SCOTT

year. Powell has said he is going to run, regardless.

Of the counts against Powell, one charged tax evasion in a joint 1952 return with his wife. The Powells reported a net income of $5,252. The government charged that the true net was $8,932 and that they owed taxes of $1,663.

A second count states that Mrs. Scott, advised by her husband, set her net income for 1951 at $3,815, but that her net was really $9,101. A third count covers alleged violation of the federal criminal code against aiding and abetting the preparation of a fraudulent return for another person.

The three-count indictment carries a maximum penalty, if convicted, of 15 years in prison and $30,000 in fines.

Speaking from Washington, Powell said he had no immediate comment, adding: "I must talk with my attorneys before any statement can be given."

Powell took over 20 years ago from his late father as pastor of Harlem's largest church, the 9,200-member Abyssinian Baptist Church.

His indictment climaxed the stormy career of the special grand jury. A few months after the 1956 election, government attorneys stopped calling witnesses before the panel.

The situation exploded 14 months later with allegations that Washington pressure caused the probe to be dropped. This was denied by U.S. Atty. Paul W. Williams.

A grand jury faction also threatened to "run away" and retain its own counsel if the Justice Department failed to cooperate. The jury was called back last April 17. It was disbanded after bringing in its verdict yesterday.

Demos Study O'Daniel Ban

DALLAS (AP)—The Dallas Morning News said today high Democratic officials are studying the possibility of refusing to put W. Lee O'Daniel on the ballot for the party July primary.

O'Daniel announced last week he would seek the Democratic nomination for governor.

The State Democratic Executive Committee will meet in Austin June 9 to certify candidates for the July 26 primary.

The News said several Democratic leaders have suggested the committee refuse to certify O'Daniel because he didn't support the party's nominees in the general election two years ago.

If the committee should refuse certification, O'Daniel then could ask the State Supreme Court to put him on the ballot.

O'Daniel finished third in the first Democratic primary two years ago. O'Daniel then announced he would seek election as governor as an independent in the November general election. Later he was nominated by the Constitution Party for governor. Secretary of State Tom Reavley refused to certify his name because O'Daniel had participated in the Democratic primary. The State Supreme Court upheld Reavley's decision.

Graham Likes Sack Because It Takes Sex Out Of Dress

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Billy Graham says he likes the sack style because it takes the sex out of dress.

"I like the sack look," the evangelist told a largely teen-aged audience at last night's youth meeting at the Cow Palace.

"It takes the sex out of dress. It's healthy for the morals of the country. I'm going to get my wife one," he added.

At the end of the sermon, which pictured the Biblical Samson as a juvenile delinquent, 1,025 persons walked forward for "decisions for Christ." Most were teenagers and young people, Graham's assistants said.

A crowd of 18,100 crammed into the 16,500-seat hall, with roughly a mile of cars turned away because the free parking space was exhausted.

Graham said Samson was "God's delinquent" because "he had a parental problem and a romantic problem. He sinned and sin blinded Samson... Then God forgave Samson and restored his strength. He can forgive you and restore you to your proper place in life."

Most young people, he said, know more about actress Jayne Mansfield's measurements than they do the First Commandment.

Graham departed from his sermon to advise his audience not to blame South Americans for the stoning of Vice President Richard Nixon yesterday in Lima, Peru. He said this sort of thing was engineered by a well-organized minority and that the majority of South Americans are not against the United States.

Railroad Wins Damage Suit In Fatal Crash

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—A Maricopa County Superior Court jury decided in favor of the Southern Pacific Railroad Co. last night in a $520,000 damage suit stemming from the nation's worst car-train collision.

The suit was filed by Cecilia B. Alires, administratrix of the estates of 9 of the 12 persons killed when a car collided with the Southern Pacific's Golden State Limited Dec. 16, 1956, at a southwest Phoenix crossing.

All 12 killed were car occupants. The only survivor in the jam-packed 1937-model car was Crucita Alires, 3. Cecilia's niece. Nine members of the Alires family were killed in the crash.

Carpets Keep New Look

With proper care wall to wall carpeting will retain the new look.

Correct cleaning methods have seemingly been a mystery and controversial even to carpet manufacturers. After much research a product is on the market that cleans and fluffs up beat down carpet paths plus removal of spots, thereby maintaining the new look. The textile engineer of a large carpet mill says—"It's the best we've found."

The product is Blue Lustre. It is easily applied with a long handle brush. One half gallon of Blue Lustre concentrate cleans three 9x12 rugs.

JOSEPH E. DAVIES

Joseph Davies, Former Envoy, Is Dead At 81

WASHINGTON (AP)—Joseph E. Davies, former ambassador to the Soviet Union and a diplomat under three presidents, died early today after a lengthy illness. He was 81.

Death came a short time after midnight at his family home here.

Davies, a wealthy Washington lawyer, was named ambassador to the Soviet Union in 1936 by President Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Out of his two years as U. S. envoy to the Kremlin he wrote "Mission to Moscow," a best seller that appeared in 1942, the year after Hitler attacked the Soviet Union.

The book was credited widely with galvanizing U. S. sympathy for the Soviets, who Davies predicted would withstand the German onslaught.

Davies served as ambassador to Belgium and minister to Luxembourg for two years after leaving Moscow in 1938. He also held a number of special assignments under Roosevelt and later President Truman.

Davies, a native of Watertown, Wis., first entered government under President Wilson, whom he served as campaign manager in Wilson's first try for the White House in 1912.

The former diplomat was 81.

Last December, Davies asked the Federal District Court to name a Washington bank as conservator of his property.

In a petition filed with the court, Davies said he was unable to care for his property himself because of his physical incapacity and age.

Although an avowed capitalist, Davies got along well with the late Soviet dictator Josef Stalin during his service as ambassador and was the first foreign envoy to have a personal interview with the Soviet leader in 1938.

Davies first became active in national politics as a Western campaign manager for Woodrow Wilson in the 1912 election. He served under Wilson as U. S. commissioner of corporations and was the first chairman of the Federal Trade Commission, serving from 1913 to 1918.

He left that post to run as a Democrat for senator in Wisconsin, but was defeated. In 1919, he was an economic adviser to Wilson at the Versailles conference.

Between public assignments, Davies practiced law in the Washington firm of Davies, Richberg, Tydings and Landa, and was identified with the firm until his death. He specialized in international and corporation law.

Born Nov. 29, 1876, Davies received his law degree from the University of Wisconsin in 1901.

He was first married in 1902 to Emlen Knight of Madison, Wis., but the marriage ended in a divorce.

Later he was married to Mrs. Marjorie Merriweather Post, heiress to a breakfast cereal fortune. She divorced him in 1955, after 20 years of marriage, charging mental cruelty. She lives in Washington.

Davies is survived also by three daughters, Mrs. Mildred E. Tydings, wife of the former Maryland senator; Mrs. E. Fontaine Broun, wife of a Washington attorney; and Mrs. Robert L. Grosjean, now with her husband in Hamburg, Germany.

Assaults On Nixon Bring Criticisms

LIMA, Peru (AP)—The stones and spit which greeted U.S. Vice President Richard Nixon at Peru's oldest university brought down condemnation today on the Peruvian government from one of the capital's chief newspapers.

It appeared the violence at San Marcos University Thursday might put a stop to Nixon's face-to-face attempts to convince Latin-American students the United States is a better bet than the Soviet Union.

A round-table conference with Ecuadorian students and labor leaders—scheduled after Nixon's arrival later today in Quito—was cancelled.

Sources close to the vice president said in the three nations remaining on his tour he might abandon his custom of visiting the leading universities to talk with students.

Nixon had been warned that his visit to the Lima university might result in leftist-inspired violence but he went ahead. A rock grazed his neck, and a U.S. Secret Service agent had a tooth chipped by a flying stone as students spat on the party and jeered: "Nixon get out."

Nixon shouted back: "Don't you want to hear facts?" but the mob shouted him down and he left for Lima's Catholic University to meet with students there.

As Nixon returned to his hotel on foot, another group demonstrated against him.

The outbursts against the vice president shook Lima. The influential newspaper El Comercio said the police should have taken steps to prevent the outbreaks. Opposition papers already had criticized the government for failing to prevent similar—but milder—anti-Nixon demonstrations the day before.

Nixon made no official fuss but Foreign Minister Raul Porras quickly expressed official and personal apologies. The government also replaced the wreath Nixon had laid on the monument to South American patriot Jose San Martin, which demonstrators tore up.

Nixon told newsmen he was deeply moved by apologies he received privately from Peruvians. When he left his hotel later, crowds applauded him as if to make amends.

Lima police reportedly got orders to round up Communists responsible for the demonstrations. Informed sources said the nationalistic Aprista party—Peru's largest—expelled a student member for joining the mob.

Circus To Become Part Of City Zoo

PAWTUCKET, R.I. (AP)—Under a lease-lend agreement, the Ringling Bros. and Barnum and Bailey Circus menagerie will become part of this city's zoo 10½ months a year for a $1 token fee.

The animals, valued by the circus at more than $100,000, are due to arrive from New York next Tuesday morning aboard four flat cars. They will be exhibited from the middle of May each year to the following April 1.

The animals will be shipped each April to Madison Square Garden in New York City for the annual performances there.

Accident Victim Comforted

A policeman tries to comfort the child while awaiting an ambulance. The driver of the car said the girl darted into the street while playing in front of her home in Kansas City.

Lady Congressman's Husband Prefers His 'Happy Home'

OKLEE, Minn. (AP)—The husband of Rep. Coya Knutson (D-Minn.) said today he had asked his wife not to run for a third term in Congress.

In a statement, Andrew Knutson said that since her election four years ago their home life has deteriorated to the extent that it is practically nonexistent.

Rep. Knutson was not available for comment.

But in Washington, an office aide of Mrs. Knutson said the congressman had telephoned from Minnesota to say that her personal relationship with her husband is a personal matter and she does not care to discuss it with the press.

The aide said she did not know from where in Minnesota Mrs. Knutson had called.

"I want to have the happy home that we enjoyed for many years prior to her election," Knutson said, adding that he expects his wife to comply with the request.

"Coya hasn't been home for Christmas for two years, and for Easter the past three. I have seen our son but a few times and for only brief visits," Knutson's statement said.

Rep. Knutson, 45, was elected to her first term from Minnesota's 9th District in 1954.

A former schoolteacher, she served two terms in the Minne-

Come Home!

Rep. Coya Knutson (D-Minn.) has been asked by her husband not to run for a third term in Congress. Andrew Knutson said at Oklee, Minn., that her career does not allow her to spend enough time at home.

Knutson said that another reason for his request was that Bill Kjeldahl, Rep. Knutson's executive secretary, exercised dictatorial powers over her.

"Finally," Knutson's statement said, "I believe it is useless for her to be elected as the decisions that are made are not hers but Kjeldahl's, an individual who assumes no responsibility yet dictates the policy of her office."

Knutson, an alternate delegate, carried the statement to the 9th District Democratic-Farmer-Labor convention at Crookston, Minn., last Sunday. He told a reporter that he gave it to State Rep. Harvey Wilder, Crookston, convention chairman, with a request that it be read to the delegates but that Wilder refused.

Copies of the Knutson statement later mailed to news media bore the notation "Press Release from Andy Knutson, Oklee."

Knutson, 40, owns a small hotel in Oklee and also works for an implement company here as a machine installer.

Kjeldahl was a key figure in a Minnesota 9th District controversy centering around Rep. Knutson's support of Sen. Estes Kefauver in the state's 1956 presidential primary.

Rep. Knutson released Kjeldahl, now 29, from her office to work in Kefauver's campaign. The Tennessee senator subse-

Indicted DJ Quits Station

NEW YORK (AP)—Indicted disc jockey Alan Freed has quit New York radio station WINS, saying it failed to give him any support after a riot which followed his rock 'n' roll show in Boston.

Freed said last night that the station's lack of support was a "hard thing to swallow."

"Certainly they should have given me a little support after all the unproved publicity from Boston. But they ran all week refusing to say anything."

Freed was reached by phone after his manager Jack Hooke made public a letter of resignation that Freed sent to WINS.

Hooke said there was a "wishy-washy" attitude by WINS toward Freed since the violence in Boston last Saturday night.

Station officials could not be reached immediately for comment.

The Boston riot led to Freed's indictment by grand jury on charges of inciting the unlawful destruction of property during the outbreak.

More than 6,000 young people attended the show at Boston Arena. In the aftermath, 15 persons were robbed or assaulted by roving gangs of teen-agers.

Freed has denied there was any trouble in or around the Arena.

Ford Says Labor Demands Would Raise Car Prices

DETROIT (AP)—Henry Ford II, president of Ford Motor Co., said today the current demands of the United Auto Workers on the auto industry would raise new car costs more than $300.

Ford, in a letter to Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn.), said the union demands on the auto industry "amount to more than 70 cents an hour, exclusive of profit sharing. If granted by us and our suppliers generally, would raise the cost of an automobile more than $300. No automobile company could grant such a demand and expect to stay in business."

"As a matter of fact, any increase above present labor costs—even of a few cents per hour—would have to be reflected in immediate price increases on cars and trucks, if the present losses of some automotive companies are to be curtailed and the declining profit margins of others corrected."

Kefauver wrote Ford for his opinion on a proposed cut in the present 10 per cent federal excise tax on autos in return for price reductions by the auto builders.

A flareup of tension in contract negotiations between General Motors and the UAW was eased today by agreement to discuss a union charge that the company is threatening to scrap the jobs of 300 skilled workers.

The UAW claimed that the bargaining table that General Motors is shutting down the die room of its Fisher Body Division plant in Pontiac, Mich.

UAW headquarters issued a statement saying, "The shutdown threat proves just what the UAW has been saying all along—that industry overexpanded productive capacity without any similar effort to expand consumer buying power."

Youth Accused Of Attempting Perjury

Charges of subornation of perjury have been filed against Clyde Weems, 19, in connection with investigation of a DWI complaint filed against him on Feb. 16.

The complaint alleging the perjury attempt was filed on Thursday in the court of Walter Grice, justice of the peace, by the district attorney.

Weems' trial for DWI is docketed for next week in the Howard County Court.

He is accused in the new charge of endeavoring to persuade one James Lively to testify that he (Lively) was driving the car at the time of the alleged DWI violation.

Weems was involved in a spectacular mishap which almost involved the Howard County Court-house.

The car left the paving on Gregg near the Third Street intersection, shattered a parking meter on the court house curb, ranged south-eastward across the lawn and wound up against a power line pole on the south side of Fourth Street.

Investigation of the attempted subornation of perjury was under way today in the office of the county attorney and the district attorney.

Charges of unlawful liquor transportation have been filed against Joe B. Murphy, 37, Lubbock.

He was apprehended by officers of the Liquor Control Board eight miles north on the Vealmoor road.

Clinton E. Kennedy, 30, who gives 206 Goliad as his address, has been charged with aggravated assault in a complaint filed today.

Bond in his case has been set at $500. He is accused of attacking Daphne Pauline Counts.

Firemen Have Busy Morning

The fire department had a busy night, answering two fire calls and false alarm since midnight.

About 12:30 a.m. today, firemen were called to the T&P yards where a fire developed in the back seat of a car owned by J. L. Driver.

The men were called out again at 5:23 a.m. and went to 1606 Sunset, but the call was a false alarm.

About 20 minutes later, a fire developed at the Duncan Hotel, 310 Austin. No cause was found for the blaze which consumed a mattress.

Thursday, small damage was caused to the residence of Curtis Choate, 102 E. 18th. No cause was found for the blaze, reported firemen from the 18th and Main sub station.

Firemen also went five miles west of town where grass was being burned on the T&P tracks. No damage resulted.

High School Bible Class Is Honored

The Bible department at Big Spring High School has come in for two happy surprises.

Thursday morning three representatives from the Key Club presented the department with a large, handsomely bound Bible.

The Bible contains numerous full page illustrations. George Peacock, president of the first period class, received the Bible from Stephen Baird, president of the Key Club.

Student Lisa, a national student publication, has a feature article on the Big Spring High School Bible project on Old Testament settings.

To this list could be added another pleasing development—the registration of 82 students for Bible next year. This is the highest number ever to sign for the course and will necessitate three sections.

Bible instruction in the high school—on a historical, moral and literary but not doctrinal line—is financed identically by the school by local churches, friends of the program and the Big Spring Pastors Assn.

Mrs. C. B. Arnold's Father Succumbs

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Arnold have returned from Athens where they were called on the illness and death of her father, W. P. Wallace, 81.

Mr. Wallace died Monday and rites were held Wednesday in the Haskell-Foster Funeral Home at Athens. Burial was in the O'Behe Cemetery. Surviving Mr. Wallace are his widow, 9 children, 17 grandchildren and 9 great-grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold were in Piersall when notified of her father's serious illness. Mr. Arnold's youngest brother, Lew H. Arnold, 50, had died suddenly of a heart attack.

Approximately 100 elementary school boys' members of the YMCA's Gra-Y (grade Y) program, will stage their annual game festival Saturday.

The contests will get underway at the old stadium at 10th and State at 9 a.m.

Events include such things as two boys riding a stick back to back; one boy using another as a "wheelbarrow"; lame duck, chariot, piggy back, tow sack, ankle grass races, potato relay, 3-legged races, etc., plus 50-yard dash and 440-yard relay, said Everett Taylor, program director.

C Of C Dinner Raises $150 For Gail P-TA

GAIL (SC)—The Borden County school cafeteria was filled with 85 Big Spring and Gail citizens Thursday night for the annual Friendship dinner with the meal netting over $150 for the Gail P-TA.

Sponsored by the Big Spring Chamber of Commerce, the friendship dinner brought a closer relationship between Big Springers and Borden County residents. The Big Springers bought tickets for themselves and the Gail "guests" which contributed $120. Another $30.50 was collected by Howard County Sheriff Miller Harris and Chub McGibbon in fines from the Big Spring people.

All money was turned over to the Gail P-TA which furnished the meal. Red Smith, former Big Spring Chamber manager, was master of ceremonies, and the musical program was presented by Patty and Peggy Francis, Lavelle Fletcher and Glendene Philey, HCJC students.

Dr. J. E. Hogan, president of the chamber, told the group that Big Spring was willing to help its neighbors to the north in any way possible. This working together would benefit both counties.

He suggested that possibly the Big Spring Chamber of Commerce extends its membership to include Borden County, as well as Glasscock County to the south. He said that Big Spring would be willing to help Gail with its problems in any way necessary and urged its residents to call on the Big Spring Chamber of Commerce.

North Vincent Well Produces 400 Barrels Of Oil In 8 Hours

Operator needed only eight hours to get a potential test at the Woodson No. 3 Pauline in the North Vincent (Canyon) field of Howard County.

In for that time, the well had produced 400 barrels of 41-degree oil for a calculated 24-hour potential test of 1,200 barrels. A 1/4-inch choke was employed.

Potential test should be taken in the very near future at another well in the field, Standard of Texas No. 1-2-A Winters. Tank battery is being constructed at the present time.

Borden

Harper & Huffman No. 1 Miller made hole in lime and shale at 7,105 feet today. The Ellenburger project is C NW NW, 1-30-50, T&P Survey.

Brown & Liedtke No. 1 York deepened to 6,375 feet in lime and shale. Location is C NE SW, 323-97, H&TC Survey, and 14 miles east of Gail.

Dawson

Newman Bros. No. 1 Warren is an abandoned project at a depth of 8,700 feet. The Pennsylvania failure was 660 from north and east lines, 12-34-5n, T&P Survey, and 11 miles east of Lamesa.

Garza

Shell No. 1-CD Slaughter, in the Happy (Strawn) field, made hole in lime at 3,480 feet. The drillsite is 150 from north and 1,980 from east lines, 43-2, T&NO Survey. Operator ran a drillstem test at total depth of 9,080 feet in the Ellenburger at Shell No. 1-E Slaughter. The wildcard is 1,980 from north and west lines, 18-30-7n, Massey Survey.

Glasscock

Standard of Texas deepened the No. 1 Currie to 7,022 feet in lime and shale today. It is an 11,000-foot wildcard C NW NW, 220-29, W&NW Survey, and 12 miles northeast of Garden City.

J. Roy Derrick No. 1 Hoelscher is a duster in the Spraberry Trend Area 15 miles south of Garden City. Operator gave up on it at a depth of 6,000 feet. It was 660 from north and 1,980 from east lines, 34-35-5s, T&P Survey.

Four miles southwest of Lees, Ken Tex No. 1 McDowell has been plugged and abandoned after finding no shows of oil in drilling to 2,865 feet. Drillsite is 2,310 from north and 990 from east lines, 42-33-2s, T&P Survey.

Howard

Operator constructed tank battery today at the Stanotex No. 1-2-A Winters in the North Vincent pool. The well is 467 from north and west lines, 6-25, H&TC Survey, and a mile north of the Vincent community.

A calculated 24-hour potential of 1,200 barrels of 41-degree oil was figured at the Woodson No. 3 Pauline from an actual eight-hour flow of 400 barrels through a 1/4-inch choke. Gas-oil ratio gaged 11.101-1, with tubing and casing pressure being 950.

The well is in the North Vincent field, 2,002 feet from south and 330 from east lines, 57-20, Lavaca Navigation Survey. Total depth is 7,561 feet, with production in the Canyon reached at 7,408. Perforations extend from 7,408-18, 7,444-49, and 7,458-61 feet.

Martin

Husky & Pano Tech No. 2 Breedlove, in the field bearing that name, penetrated to 9,382 feet in lime and shale. The venture is 1,419 from north and 4,509 from east lines of League 258, Briscoe CSL Survey and 10 miles southwest of Patricia.

Pan American No. 1 Ross was completed in the Breedlove pool for only 22.75 barrels of oil and 113.74 barrels of water in 24 hours. The well is 660 from north and west lines of Labor 4, League 259, Borden CSL Survey. Deviation perforations extend from 12,154-74 feet. Gravity of the oil is 39.6 degrees.

Chicago rose about a point. Fractional gains were made by Southern Pacific, Southern Railway and Chesapeake & Ohio. S. Steel and Youngstown Steel were up by major fractions. Bethlehem's gain was smaller.

American Motors gained around a point. A big percentage rise for this low-priced stock. Chrysler dropped a fraction.

International Harvester and Caterpillar rose fractionally. Allied Chemical was up 1/8. Government bonds declined.

NEW YORK (AP)—Cotton was 30 to 45 cents a bale higher at 37.14 today. May 36-17, July 36-16, October 37-14.

FFA Awards Given At 'Parents Night'

Future Farmers of America attempted something different at their annual spring barbecue Thursday evening and it proved highly successful.

Instead of a father and son affair, the chapter turned the program into a parents' night and moved it indoors. With mothers joining the dads and the boys, more than 200 were present for the function at the high school cafeteria.

The Star Farmer award for the outstanding chapter member of the year went to Tommy Buckner. Jimmy Engle won the Star Greenhand (first-year student) award.

Other special awards for distinguished achievement went to George White for leadership; Charles Engle for livestock production; Esco Hamlin for beef cattle production; Tommy Buckner for swine production; Quinn Den-

Sen. Hayden Urges Direct Fund For Bracero Program

WASHINGTON (AP) — Chairman Carl Hayden (D-Ariz) of the Senate Appropriations Committee, said today Congress must provide a direct appropriation if the Mexican Farm Labor Program is to continue beyond June 30. Hayden said he believes the proposed use of a revolving fund contributed in fees by growers hiring Mexican workers is contrary to the law authorizing the worker importing program. Hayden said the law specifically prohibited the use of the fund to pay the salaries and expenses of regular employees of the Labor Department. Robert Goodwin, director of the Department's Bureau of Employment Security, testified yesterday Hayden's position was supported by the action of the House in eliminating reference to the revolving fund in the Labor Department appropriation bill. The point of order against the revolving fund also stripped from the bill authority to spend $1,550,000, and left only $480,600 for compliance activities. Goodwin told the Senate Appropriations subcommittee handling the bill the $480,600 would be required to pay off the accumulated leave of employees and liquidate the program. Goodwin said the idea for using the revolving fund to pay all expenses of the program originated with the Bureau of the Budget. He said it would require raising the fees charged employers from $10 to about $5 for each Mexican worker recruited. Goodwin was asked about the effect of a $219,400 cut recommended by the House Appropriations Committee in the over-all $24 million dollar budget for the program next year. He said the cut would require the closing of two centers on this side of the Mexican border, and restrict the others to a five-day week to eliminate premium pay for weekend and holiday work. This would mean, he said, growers would have to travel a greater distance to get workers, and have a longer wait for the help they need in some instances—all at greater cost to the employers. Goodwin said because of greater domestic unemployment, it is expected fewer Mexican workers would be imported during the coming year, but he said he could not estimate the decrease. The bureau, he said, is renewing its efforts to find domestic workers willing to perform "stoop labor" farm chores.

Donors Praise Aerial Hero

MADISON, Wis. (AP)—"Our only regret is that our contribution cannot bring the boy's daddy back," wrote a couple donating to a fund for the tiny son of an Air Force pilot killed after guiding his disabled jet plane away from a residential area. The note accompanying the gift of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Carlstrom, added: "He shall be remembered in our prayers each May 5, as this day was our second anniversary of being happily married—and had it not been for him, it could have been our last." Lt. Gerald Stull, 26, was approaching for a landing at Trux Air Force Base when his F102 fighter lost power in a flameout as it plummeted toward a cluster of homes on the city's east side. Stull, a native of Beaumont, Tex., dived the plane into Lake Monona. Apparently when sure he would miss the homes he fired the ejection device, but was too low for his parachute to open. Stull left a widow, 22, and a son who was three months old on the day his father died. The welfare and education fund for the boy, George Clark, was organized by the Wisconsin State Journal, Madison morning newspaper. Through last night cash gifts amounted to $1,136, plus unlisted pledges.

24 Weary Miners Trudge To Freedom After Cavein

SHARPLES, W. Va. (AP)—Twenty-four weary, dirty miners trugged through a long, winding abandoned mine shaft to freedom today after spending more than 16 hours trapped underground. The miners were all in good physical condition. They joked freely over cups of hot coffee. Many of their relatives were waiting at the mine offices and rushed up to greet the men as they stepped down from the trucks. The last of the 24 to leave the mine at 5:50 a. m. was Robert Turner, assistant general manager for the Boone County Coal Co., operators of the mine. Mine officials said the miners had been trapped more than a mile from the entrance of the slope mine which burrows into the side of the mountain. They were believed to have been about 2,000 feet behind debris which clogged the main passage into the mine. The first eight men reached the entrance of the unused passageway at 4:50 a. m. The first report that the trapped men had been reached came from Richard F. Wesner, general manager of the coal firm. The trapped men were reached by the third team to attempt a rescue through an air shaft leading into old workings located on an opposite side of the flooded passageway. The air shaft leading into the old passageway was discovered by inspectors and mine foremen. The 22 miners represented the entire working force in the No. 2-A mine at the time. Scores of anxious onlookers including families and friends took up their vigil as crews labored. Mine officials said the cave-in was not uncommon. They said recent heavy rains had added to the small lake pumped into a ravine in the mine's coal-washing process.

Proposed Dormitories For HCJC

Trustees of Howard County Junior College gave final approval to tentative plans for two proposed dormitories, and also officially designated locations. The project is dependent upon a federal loan, funds to be repaid wholly out of rental revenues. Above is a sketch provided by Puckett & French, architect-engineer, for the proposed 102-unit men's dormitory, and below is a conception of the proposed 52-unit women's dormitory. In both instances most of the furnishing would be built in. Cost of the two is estimated at $600,000.

HCJC Board Approves Preliminary Dorm Plans

The final draft of preliminary plans for two dormitories proposed for Howard County Junior College was approved by trustees Thursday.

At the same time the board gave its approval to the plot plan for location of the projected plants—one to accommodate 52 girls at the northwest corner of the campus, the other for 104 men at the southeast edge of present buildings. The application has been filed, but Dr. W. A. Hunt, president, is due to make a minor correction in the application the first part of next week at Dallas. He expressed the hope that the college's application would be processed and acted upon expeditiously.

HCJC is applying for a long-term federal loan to finance the two projects. The cost of construction would be repaid entirely out of revenues and would not become a tax liability. Bulk of college dormitory construction in recent years has been financed in this manner. Sam Anderson, vice president of the Howard County Society for Crippled Children, Mrs. Walter Parks and J. T. Clements presented a request to the board for an on-campus site for a proposed treatment center for crippled children. Horace Garrett, president, said that the board was interested but desired more information about space requirements.

Progress on construction of the student union building is satisfactory, Olen Puckett and Bill French, architect-engineer, told the board. Grade beams likely will be laid within a week. Structural steel is on hand, metal window and door frames are on order for delivery this month, and a considerable volume of masonry materials is arriving on the ground. Work should progress even more rapidly than up to this point, they thought.

Approval of the 1958-59 college catalogue, including the fee charges, was voted by the board. The $200 charge for out-of-state students was re-affirmed.

Blessings of the board on the American Business Club's bid for the national junior college track meet was voted. Dr. Hunt said he planned to accompany the track team to the national meet in Hutchinson, Kans., and to join with ABC representatives in urging that the national junior college meet be scheduled next year for Big Spring.

Rare Brain Malady Takes Martin County Boy's Life

STANTON (SC)—Wayne Windell Flowers, 10-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Flowers, died at 2:30 a. m. today at the family residence 15 miles north of Stanton.

Formerly an A student at Grady school, the lad was stricken in June of 1957 with a rare brain malady. He was born Feb. 19, 1948, in Lamesa.

Services have been set for 2 p. m. Saturday in the Stanton Church of Christ with Elmore Johnson, minister, officiating.

Burial will be in the Evergreen Cemetery under the direction of Arrington Funeral Home.

Wayne leaves his parents; two brothers, Tommy Ralph Flowers and Steve Lynn Flowers; and a sister, Joyce Elaine Flowers, all of the family home.

He also leaves his paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Flowers, Lamesa, and maternal grandfather, Morris Durham, O'Donnell.

Variety Show Is Slated Saturday By VA Employees

A variety and talent show, sponsored by the VA Hospital Employees Assn. and featuring local performers, will be staged Saturday evening in the Howard County Junior College auditorium.

There will be no admission charge and the public is invited to view the show, said Tolford Durham, one of the VA employee leaders. The program will include instrumental and vocal music, with both solo and ensemble groups to perform, along with a square dance exhibition, baton twirling, tap and acrobatic dances and other numbers.

The show is to start at 7:30 p. m. Saturday and will last about an hour and 15 minutes.

It's Up To Us; We Must Make Good

The Air Force announced Thursday that the 331st Fighter Interceptor Squadron would be moved from Stewart AFB, N. Y., to Webb AFB starting in September.

This move involves some 400 people at the outset, and the move is to be accomplished over about a six months period. In coming to Webb and the "wide open spaces," the 331st soon will be converting to F-102s instead of the F86s currently in use.

Safeguards For Union Members

In his summation of the results of the inquiry into racketeering in organized labor, and between labor and management, Sen. McClellan (D-Ark.) acknowledged recent clean-up efforts of the AFL-CIO, but pointed out that about all the top organization could do is kick out non-complying and obstreperous affiliates, whereupon the exiled union's officials set up shop outside and continue their old habits.

limiting the length of time the top officials may retain a "trusteeship" over the local. In short, laws that would compel the bosses to be responsive to the wishes and demands of the rank and file membership, and making it impossible or difficult for racketeers to move in on a local and milk the membership of their funds.

Mothers Will Be Honored Sunday In Services Of Big Spring Churches

Mothers will be the queens in churches throughout the city Sunday as congregations join in an almost universal observance of Mothers Day.

Sermons on motherhood, the home and family ties are planned by most of the ministers. At the First Christian Church, flowers will be presented to the youngest and oldest mothers and to the mother with the most children.

Revival services are to start Sunday at the College Baptist Church. Carlos Gruber, a native of Latvia and missionary in South America for many years, is to be the visiting evangelist.

Gruber and the pastor, the Rev. H. W. Bartlett, will alternate in the pulpit at morning and evening services throughout the week. Gruber also will be in charge of music.

Born in Riga, Latvia, Gruber moved to Brazil at the age of 13 and became active in jungle missions in Sao Paulo. He came to the U. S. in 1937, graduated from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary in 1940 and was pastor of the Latvian Baptist Church in New York City for six years. He became a citizen of the U. S. in 1948.

This is the schedule of programs announced today by local church leaders:

Baptist

Continuing the series of sermons on the Book of Revelation at 8:30 a.m. worship service, Dr. P. D. O'Brien, First Baptist pastor, will speak on "The Message to Ephesus," Rev. 2:1-7. At the 11 a.m. service his subject will be "The Fine Art of Motherhood," 2 Tim. 1:5. Sunday evening the title will be "The Creative Use of Fear," Heb. 11:7.

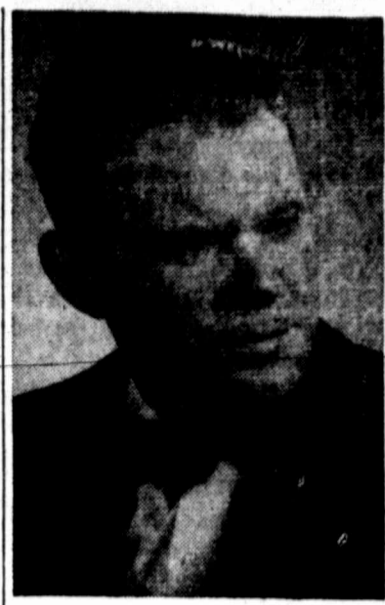

The Rev. A. R. Posey, Baptist Temple, will preach on "The Mother of Us All," Sunday morning. He will also occupy the pulpit at evening worship.

Hillcrest Baptist congregation will hear the Rev. H. L. Bingham in messages on "No Greater Responsibility," 2 Sam. 21:10, and "Perfection Demanded."

In the absence of their pastor, the Rev. Ernest Stewart, the East Fourth Baptist Church will hear messages at both services from Chaplain C. O. Hitt, VA Hospital.

"The Christian Home — America's Fundamental Need" is the sermon topic announced by the Rev. D. R. Phillely for Sunday morning at Phillips Memorial Baptist Church; text will be from Gen. 13:18-19. At the evening hour he will bring the third in a series of doctrinal sermons: "Scriptural Sanctification," Heb. 10:5-14 and 2 Tim. 2:19-21.

The Rev. H. W. Bartlett, College Baptist Church, will preach on "The Upward Way," Matt. 5:1, 2, 48 and Matt. 7:28-29; in the evening his message will be "The Rule of Our Thoughts," Prov. 4:23. Revival services will begin at the morning hour, with music under the direction of Carlos Gruber. The revival will continue through May 18, with sermons by Gruber each morning except Saturday at 9:30 and messages from the Rev. Bartlett at 8 p.m. daily.

At Northside Baptist Church, the Rev. R. B. Murray will bring a Mother's Day sermon at morning worship. An evangelistic message is planned for the evening period.

"A Message to Womanhood," Luke 23:27, is to be delivered Sunday morning by the Rev. J. H. McWilliams at Calvary Baptist Church. For the evening message the title will be "What Shall I Do with Jesus?" Matt. 11:25.

Catholic

Mass will be said by the Rev. Fr. William J. Moore at 7 a.m. and 11 a.m. at St. Thomas Catholic Church. Confessions will be heard from 5:30 to 6 p.m. and 8 p.m. on Saturday. Benediction will follow the last mass.

At the Sacred Heart (Spanish-speaking) Church, Mass will be held at 8 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. Sunday. Confessions will be heard on Saturday from 5 p.m. and 7-8 p.m. Benediction will be at 5:30 p.m. on Sunday.

Mass will be said Sunday at 5:30 p.m. in Coahoma at St. Joseph's Mission by the Rev. Fr. Adolph Metzger, OMI.

Christian

Pointing up "A Partnership with God" will be the Rev. Clyde Nichols at First Christian Church, Sunday morning. Text is 1 Sam. 1:11. Mrs. N. B. Furlong, soprano, will sing "How Lovely Are Thy Dwelling-places," Little. Following a longtime tradition at the church, flowers will be presented to the oldest and youngest mother in the congregation and to the mother with the largest family in attendance.

For the evening hour, the Rev. Nichols' subject will be "When Jesus Follows You," Matt. 9:18. Baptismal service will follow.

Christian Science

Man's God-given dominion over fear and limitation will be set forth at Christian Science services Sunday. Readings in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Adam and Fallen Man" will include the following from Psalms (37:5,29): "Commit thy way unto the Lord; trust also in him; and he shall bring it to pass. . . . The righteous shall inherit the land, and dwell therein for ever."

Church Of God

"Family Ties Are Sacred" will be the Rev. V. Ward Jackson's message to the First Church of God, Sunday morning. Text is Psa. 127:3-5. At the evening hour, he will speak on "Three Great Promises," Deut. 33:25.

Episcopal

The Rev. William D. Boyd, rector of St. Mary's Episcopal Church, 10th and Goliad, has announced the schedule of Sunday services. Celebration of Holy Communion at 7:30 a.m.; family worship at 9:15 a.m.; and Morning Service at 11 a.m.

Lutheran

The Rev. Wayne Dittloff will bring the message at the worship services at 10:30 a.m. at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Sunday school and Bible classes are set for 9:30 a.m. The adult discussion group will meet at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday under the charge of the minister.

Methodist

The Rev. C. W. Parnmenter, Wesley Methodist Church, will deliver sermons on "Queen for All Time" and "Belated Saints."

At the First Methodist Church, Dr. Jordan Grooms will be in the pulpit Sunday morning. The evening sermon will be brought by Bobby McMillan, Big Spring student enrolled at McMurry College.

Presbyterian

Offering "A Salute to Mothers" will be the Rev. Jack Ware in his morning sermon to St. Paul Presbyterian Church. There will be two worship services, at 8:30 and 11 a.m. The junior choir will sing "All Things Bright and Beautiful," Williams, at the early service. For the 11 o'clock period, the adult choir will sing "Seek Ye the Lord," Roberts, and the angel choir will sing "A Present for Mother's Day." At evening worship, the pastor's subject will be "Abimelech. He reaps what he sows."

Dr. R. Gage Lloyd's sermon topic at First Presbyterian Church, for both morning services, 8:30 and 11, will be "Heirs of the Grace of Life." It will be broadcast over KBST. In the evening he will continue his series of messages on "These Scribes the Gospel: Aquila and Priscilla." Special music will be offered by the children's choir.

Webb AFB

Chaplain Verlin E. Mikesell will have charge of Protestant services at 11 a.m. at the base chapel, when his message will be "The Christian Home." Sunday school is set for 9:45 a.m. in the chapel annex.

Father Kenneth E. Henriquez will officiate at Mass at 9 a.m. and 12:15 p.m. Sunday. Confession will be from 7 to 8 p.m. Saturday.

God's Provision for Worship

MOSES TELLS HIS PEOPLE OF THE LORD'S INSTRUCTIONS FOR BUILDING HIS SANCTUARY

Scripture—Exodus 35-40.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL
THIS LESSON is the story of the building of the sanctuary by the children of Israel. If the teacher, especially of the younger classes, can obtain a model of the tabernacle, or a picture of it, it would be helpful. Consult your book shops or, especially, religious book shops. A visit to a Jewish place of worship—with a member of its congregation to explain the service—would be helpful to the older classes.

Moses received the instructions for the building of the sanctuary on Mt. Sinai, and "gathered all the congregation of the children of Israel together, and said unto them, These are the words which the Lord hath commanded, that ye should do them."

The word sanctuary "comes from a Latin word meaning sacred or set apart, so though commanded. The women brought their jewelry and spun with their own hands fine linens in blue, purple and scarlet.

Not only did the congregation bring gifts so that the sanctuary might be built, but every man who had a knowledge of the work to be done offered his services.

The description of the building and the furnishing of the sanctuary have not space to relate here, but it is most interesting and should be read, at least in part, to the classes.

"And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, On the first day of the first month shalt thou set up the tabernacle of the tent of the congregation. And thou shalt put therein the ark of the testimony, and cover the ark with the veil."—Exodus 40:1-3.

Then the Lord gave implicit instructions as to the order of the we are not living in Old Testament times, we do worship in places that are made to remind us of the true character of worship and of the holiness of God."

—Dr. Wilbur M. Smith

The work was to be done on six days of the week only, so that the Sabbath could be kept. "Take ye from among you an offering unto the Lord: whosoever is of a willing heart, let him bring it, an offering of the Lord; gold, and silver, and brass, and blue, and purple, and scarlet, and fine linen, and goats' hair, and rams' skins dyed red, and badgers' skins, and shittim wood"—the Jewish name for a valuable and durable wood, believed to be some kind of acacia, according to the encyclopedia.

Many other offerings for the building and furnishing of the sanctuary were asked for, and the people responded enthusiastically. Both men and women brought their gifts as the Lord commanded.

The lesson for all of us, in whatever church we worship, is to copy the enthusiasm and generosity of the children of Israel in the building of the tabernacle. If our congregation is considering building a new church, let us have a picture or model available.

Baptist Convention To Attract 15,000

A record-breaking attendance of from 15,000 to 20,000 persons is expected in Houston for the 1958 sessions of the Southern Baptist Convention and several related meetings.

The convention itself holds a four-day session opening May 20 and ending May 23. About six related groups meet May 19 and 20, preceding the Convention's opening.

Three points of greatest interest at the session will include: A report of the Convention's committee to study total Southern Baptist Convention program; a report from Rep. Brooks Hays (D., Ark.), convention president, who last month spent a week in Moscow as guest of Russian Baptists; a special program on world peace at the Friday night session, the closing program of the Convention.

The official attendance figures include only registered messengers who come from the 31,000 churches affiliated with the Convention. The Convention, however, is open to visitors, who do not register. There are often 2,000 or 3,000 visitors.

The record registration of messengers was in 1953 when the Convention also met at Houston—12,976. Convention leaders expect this year's registration to easily surpass 13,000, plus the several thousand visitors.

I am the Want Ad

My mission is to serve humanity without regard to creed or position or time or place. I herald the arrival of the new born, I serve them through life and announce their demise. I am the servant of the poor, the commissioner of the rich.

With each sunrise and each sunset I go forth with new missions to perform. Each new day new thousands rely upon me to fill their needs and satisfy their wants.

I search out all manner of things for all manner of persons. I find the castle for the newlyweds, a home for those grown weary and aged. I find a business for a future giant of industry and a little shop for a widow's livelihood. I alter the course of millions, and many times the future of maid and man is of my determination. I recover the lost pets of weeping children, and restore lost persons to anxious friends.

I sing the praise of artisans, proclaim the skill of craftsmen. I find labor for the man of brawn as well as opportunity for trained and active minds. I am the Fabled Dwarfs, Aladdin's Lamp and the Magic Wand of modern times. Millions in trade are consummated through me, yet the value of my service is not to be measured in silver or gold. Even rogues avail themselves of my power and filch from those who trust me.

I am an index of trends, a barometer of commerce, harbinger of coming events. I am a byword in countless thousands of homes, the first thought in many times of need. My speed of action, the sureness of my success, matches the completeness of my public acceptance. Within my lines are the sad stories and the glad stories of everyday living that go to make up life. I perform in my own individual way and for me there is no substitute.

No other medium, no other method, plan or scheme can duplicate my service. In multiple, I become the world's greatest market of services and things. I am born of the people and have lived and grown by their insistence and over the protests of those who held my destiny. I have become an institution of service big enough and broad enough to do anything for anybody at any time — I AM THE ... WANT AD!

O'Malley Didn't Break Color Line: Robinson

By WILL GRIMSLEY
NEW YORK (AP)—Jackie Robinson stuck to his guns in calling his old Dodger mates a "deteriorated team" today although a new light was thrown on the apparent reason for the blast—award to Walter O'Malley for breaking the color line in baseball.

O'Malley, president of the Los Angeles Dodgers, declined comment. Wesley Brazier, executive director of the Urban League, who made the award, said: "The award was presented to O'Malley for the entire Dodger organization and not to O'Malley individually for a single accomplishment."

It was this award which provoked a broadside from Robinson, the first Negro to play in the major leagues and now retired. "That's preposterous," fumed Robinson, executive of a restaurant chain. "O'Malley had nothing to do with it. It was all Mr. Rickey's (Branch Rickey, former president of the Dodgers) idea and I don't believe O'Malley knew anything about it. In fact, he wasn't too keen about it in the first place."

In Pittsburgh, Rickey, chairman of the board of directors of the Pittsburgh Pirates, tried to calm the troubled waters.

"Jackie is right in that O'Malley had nothing to do with introducing Negroes into the major leagues," Rickey said, "but Walter wouldn't claim he did. He might have accepted the award to avoid embarrassment."

Robinson, who retired shortly after being sold to the Giants in December 1957, was bitter in his attack on the Dodgers' present president.

"The Dodgers have deteriorated," he said, "and O'Malley must take the responsibility for that. Our team—the team that won so many pennants—was a Rickey team."

"He (O'Malley) cashed in on the team that was built into an all-powerful unit by Branch Rickey. Now that these players apparently can no longer deliver, he finds himself in a situation where he doesn't have adequate replacements."

The once-powerful Dodgers (9-13) are next to last in the National League.

Criticizing O'Malley's baseball acumen, Robinson said, "The system hasn't developed anything since O'Malley replaced Rickey as head of the Dodgers, except for some young pitchers."

Jackie said he still corresponded with several of the players and wishes them well but foresaw nothing but bad times for them.

"Something's happened to them," he said. "I don't know what it is, but it isn't the same club any more."

Not An Aid For Umpires

This isn't really a seeing eye dog for blind umpires, but the German shepherd mascot of the Bridgton, Maine high school baseball team. Tinker makes no attempt to rule on the plays, but takes his stance behind the catcher during batting practice waiting to chase foul balls. The dog is owned by Dr. Fred Skillin of Bridgton.

Giant Park Is Proving A Real Haven For Sluggers

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—In spite of legitimate boundaries, Seals Stadium, home of the San Francisco Giants, is proving as enticing a home run haven as the Dodgers' now famous Los Angeles Coliseum.

Forty-five homers were bashed in the Giants' first 19 home games in a park measuring 361 feet in left field, 349 in right and 410 in deep center.

The Los Angeles Coliseum with its 250-foot left field screen has accounted for only four more in the same 19-game period. Most cleared the 42-foot high screen. In the Giants' new home, 36 have sailed over the six-foot wire fence into the left field bleachers, three over center and six into or over the right field bleachers. The Giants have hit 24 of the 45.

Last year, 36 homers were hit in the first 19 games in the Polo Grounds—Dimensions 279 in left, 400 in center and 257 in right.

"All you have to do now is get the ball high in the air," said one Giant bigwig. "The wind does the rest."

And the wind usually does it for the right-handed swingers as a stiff breeze blows almost constantly toward the left field bleachers.

San Angelo Bucs Trim Carlsbad

By The Associated Press
The San Angelo Pirates crept to within one-half game of the Midland Braves in a battle for the top spot of the East Division of the Sophomore League Thursday.

The Artesia Giants continued to set the pace in both the East and West brackets as they won their 11th straight against an unblemished record.

San Angelo outlasted Carlsbad 9-8 while Midland dropped a 4-2 decision to Artesia. Plainview spanked Hobbs 9-5.

San Angelo had taken the lead in the eighth with four runs—three of them coming on a triple by Bud Montgomery.

Although the Giants got nine hits, they scored their winning three runs in the second without a safety.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

Roy Baird and his Big Spring Steers wind up a record-breaking baseball season tomorrow in Snyder.

WAYNE FIELDS

"Ball one!"
Whereupon a fan groaned:
"Well, I see we've got another lousy club this year."
He then departed the premises.

Wayne Fields, the Big Spring High School football tailback, looks like a cinch all-district performer for 1958, if he can stay healthy. Fields would have rated the elite group last fall, had he not been hit by injuries. As it was, he received two first team votes cast in a league city other than Big Spring.

Jewel's Reward, Eddie Arcaro's mount in the recent Kentucky Derby, is known for his temperament, as well as his fleetness of foot. He has no taste for music, not even rock and roll. For that reason, trainer Ivan Parke moved in a record player, placed it right outside the door of his stall and played the record, "My Old Kentucky Home," over and over to the animal.

Parke wasn't trying to run the horse fast (though he might well have succeeded). He was hoping Jewel's Reward would become accustomed to the tune, which is played every year on the parade to the post.

Parke might have outfoxed himself, at that. Jewel's Reward may have hung around, waiting for the encore.

Sidney Garton, the New Boston speedster who is being hailed as the "new Bobby Morrow" in some quarters (and who could also wind up at ACC) says Pasadena's Bert Coan probably failed as a sprinter this spring because Coan insisted on high jumping.

Garton contends that high jumping takes too much spring out of one's leg.

Garton himself broad jumps but he insists that event doesn't take the spring the high jump does.

The New Boston flash isn't the picture runner Morrow is, by the way. Bobby doesn't seem to be exerting much effort when he runs. Garton seems to be straining with every stride.

Sidney is interested in playing college football, incidentally. He is a halfback on a T formation team last fall. He scored three touchdowns in one game last fall.

The Tournament of Champions at Las Vegas, Nevada, will be continued for at least five years.

Contracts were recently signed between the club's sponsors and the PGA, calling for an annual purse of $40,000, a service fee of $2,500 instead of the $4,000 it has been paying.

In addition, the committee agreed to donate $4,000 each year to a tournament to be held in some other city the same weekend.

Mustangs To Be Disciplined?

DALLAS (AP)—The Southwest Conference Faculty Committee opens its spring meeting today amid indications SMU will be called on the carpet.

Trouble at the Texas A&M-SMU basketball game at Dallas last winter is down for discussion and action may be taken in the case of athlete Glynn Gregory which caused the school to be placed on probation.

The basketball game won by Texas A&M on a "goal-tending" ruling might bring a reprimand for SMU athletic officials. Athletic Director Matty Bell and Basketball Coach Doc Hayes publicly criticized the officiating of Dan Watson. A conference rule states school officials should make complaints about officials in writing directly to the conference office and not to the press. This is the "gag rule" adopted several years ago and which has yet to be tested.

Also, the question of crowd control at the controversial game will be discussed.

The Gregory case concerns the Abilene athlete who went to SMU. The school was reprimanded because it allegedly violated the rule governing transportation of athletes to the campus for visits.

The NCAA then placed SMU on probation because it held Gregory was given a summer in the oil fields for which he was not qualified. The conference had approved the job but NCAA said it got additional information after the conference action.

The conference had announced that it had a light agenda and that the major topic would be raising scholastic standards for athletes. Under the plan being discussed athletes would have to have some C's instead of the mere D's that pass them and make them eligible for athletics.

Athletic directors and football coaches met last night to work out recommendations to the Faculty Committee. They decided there would be no more student athletes doing recruiting work with the schools paying the expenses. They also recommended athletes who participate professionally will retain their scholarships until they have finished at school.

This means that a football player who participates in a sports event like the Senior Bowl, where he gets paid, will be able to finish out his athletic scholarship although no longer eligible to compete in sports at the particular school.

The athletic directors and coaches voted to recommend that freshmen continue to play five football games. There had been some agitation for three.

Braves Will Try To Firm Up Lead

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

The world champion Milwaukee Braves, leading the National League for only the third time this season, see what they can do about staying there tonight against Cincinnati—the club that put 'em in first place for keeps last season.

The Braves, who haven't held first for two consecutive days thus far, were handed a percentage-point lead by Cincinnati yesterday. The Redlegs rammed home eight runs in the ninth for a 10-8 victory over the Cubs in the only game scheduled.

A 5-4 victory over the Redlegs at Milwaukee hoisted the Braves into the National League lead on Aug. 6 last season.

Warren Spahn (4-0) was the winner then and he's Milwaukee's starter tonight.

Bob Purkey (3-0), the only pitcher to shut out the Braves this season, is the Redleg choice.

Smoky Burgess was the Redlegs' choice in the ninth inning yesterday and he couldn't have been choicer—slamming a pinch-hit, three-run homer that capped the comeback spurt. Joe Nuxhall, fourth of five Redleg pitchers, was the winner. He worked the seventh and eighth, and paired with Hal Joffcoat for three innings of perfect relief.

The big blow was Burgess' first homer of the year and it came on the first pitch by reliever Fernando Rodriguez.

The Cubs had built an 8-2 lead with five in the fifth and Dale Long's solo homer in the sixth. The rest of tonight's schedule sends Philadelphia to Pittsburgh, Chicago to St. Louis and Los Angeles to San Francisco.

Cosden Splits 2 In Midland

MIDLAND (SC)—Cosden of Big Spring and the A&J Electric Co. team of Midland split a softball doubleheader here Thursday night, the Oilers coming back to take the afterpiece, 6-1, after the Electricians had prevailed in the opener, 1-0.

Scoreboard for Cosden vs Oilers. Includes columns for AB, R, H, E, and totals for both teams.

Troy Wetsel pitched one-hit ball for the Oilers in the opener but his mates couldn't get him a run. Hill, first man up for A&J in the first inning, received a base on balls and scored on a hit by Webb.

Billy Paul Thomas singled for Cosden in the first inning and Daryl Snider poked out a one-baser in the fifth—the only two hits the Electricians' Webb gave up.

Wetsel struck out 11, Webb nine. Speck Franklin was very much in command for Cosden in the second engagement. He hit and the Electricians only two hits and fanned 10.

His mates got to Brooks for nine hits, including three singles by Buck Drake. Thomas had a triple and a double for the Big Spring team.

TO BEAT OUT YANKS Senators May Not Need The Devil

By ED WILKS The Associated Press In the stage play "Damn Yankees" 1958 was the year the Washington Senators, with the help of the Devil, beat the New York Yankees for the American League pennant.

Well, this is 1958 and you can give the Senators a double take. They've been raising the Devil so far, haven't lost to the Yankees yet and are in second place, half a game behind the Bombers going into tonight's game at Yankee Stadium.

Pete Ramos, a 23-year-old right-hander who last season gained his only two victories over the Yankees in eight lifetime decisions, takes a 2-0 record to the mound tonight for the Senators. The Yankees plan to start Bob Turley (3-0).

The Senators closed in on the Yankees with a 4-1 victory over Detroit yesterday. Rain shelved the only other game scheduled, Cleveland at New York.

Only one game was scheduled in the National League, with Cincinnati beating Chicago 10-8. The Senators, who beat the Yankees 5-4 in 10 innings in their only meeting of the season, were retired in order for 4 1/3 innings by right-hander Bob Shaw. Then three successive hits, singles by Jim Lemon and Norm Zauchin and a double by Rocky Bridges, made it 2-0 in the fifth. Three hits and Clint Courtney's sacrifice fly counted two more in the sixth and Shaw was 0-2.

Young Ralph Lumentum won his first in the majors, with Dick Hyde's fine relief help. The 21-year-old lefty gave up four hits and struck out three, but walked six—two of them ahead of Reno Bertoia's RBI single in the sixth. Hyde allowed three hits in his 3 2/3 innings.

The rest of today's schedule sends third-place Kansas City to Detroit, Cleveland to Chicago and Boston to Baltimore.

The Texas star might be throwing away his chances of setting a record. He probably would have smashed the conference 440 record of 46.9 and possibly would have surpassed the world mark of 45.8.

WEBB ENTERS 31-MAN TEAM IN MEET HERE

Webb Air Force Base will enter a 31-man team in its invitational track and field meet at Memorial Stadium Saturday, which begins at 1 p. m.

Trapshoot Planned Here For Sunday

The Western Sportsmen Club will hold a registered trapshoot at 1:30 p. m. Sunday at its shooting range northwest of town and all persons interested in gunning for targets are invited to participate.

Spectators will be welcomed, too, an official of the club stated this morning. Those entering will take aim at 200 birds, 100 at 16 paces and the other 100 from handicap.

Trapshooters from all over the area are due to be competing for the prizes.

Lopes And Ortiz Tangle Tonight HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Lightweight Joey Lopes of Sacramento, Calif., goes into the ring at the Hollywood Legion Stadium tonight a slight favorite to whip Carlos Ortiz of New York and snap the Easterner's string of 26 victories.

The 10-round match will be televised by the National Broadcasting Co., starting at 9 p. m. EST.

Pigs Rally In 5th, 6th To Turn Back Jet Nine The Pigs enjoyed two big innings to thrash the Jets, 11-9, in an American Little League baseball game here Thursday night.

Behind, 9-3, going into the fifth, the Pigs scored four runs in that round and duplicated that output of tallies in the sixth.

Terry Isbell, the winning pitcher, helped his own cause with a double and two singles. Baxter Moore and Sonny Patterson each collected two hits for the Jets. Patterson absorbed the pitching loss, yielding nine hits to the Pigs.

JUNIOR HIGH NEWS

Honor Students Are Announced

By GRETCHEN BRIDEN

Mr. Thomas Ernest, principal of Junior High, has revealed the high point boy and girl in the class which graduates into high school. Sandra McCullough is valedictorian and has an average of 96.2. Gary Walker, the salutatorian, has an average of 96. Congratulations to these students on this highest of honors.

Tuesday the caps and gowns for graduating exercises arrived and will be ready for rehearsals and the real thing. Winners of the American Legion awards and the D.A.R. awards were also announced. Kay Crowner and Ronnie Clanton were elected by the student body as the Legion award winners, while Joyce Phillips and Ross Reagan were chosen for the D.A.R. awards.

The Future Farmers of America boys were hosts to their fathers at an annual barbecue Thursday evening. The freshman octet sang several numbers and the Future Homemakers of America served the group.

We want to congratulate Judy Foster on being chosen Future Homemaker of the year. Judy was selected for her extra points in grades, homemaking and work done on her junior degree.

Our school has been the scene of plenty of work this week. Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday the Student Council and band members helped with sixth grade orientation. The sixth graders were served refreshments and were escorted around the buildings.

The speech and choral groups were busy preparing for the assembly which was held Thursday afternoon. The assembly consisted of a play, "Never Say No," and was presented by members of the speech class. Mrs. Kenneth Evans is the instructor of the class.

The choir, directed by Mrs. Forrest Gambill, featured its spring concert numbers. The junior high band will present its annual spring concert today at 8 p.m. It will have a dual concert with the senior high band, and the program will be at the senior high auditorium. Medals and awards will be given to members of the band who participated in the regional contest and won first division.

The choir performed at the First Presbyterian Church last Sunday morning and will sing at the First Baptist Church this Sunday.

elected officers for the coming year. Named were Freda Bonfield, president; Judy Foster, vice president; Wanda Boatler, secretary; Mary Locke Crosland, treasurer; Jo Ann Durham, parliamentarian; Netta Kay Laws, historian; Lynn Clawson, chaplain; Jean Roberts, reporter; Elena Patterson, song leader.

The ninth grade Hi-Y elected officers, too. Tim Williamson was named president; Robert Carr vice president; Emmett Morgan, secretary; Mike White, treasurer; Ben Neal, chaplain; Bill Copeland, parliamentarian.

Today's Freshman of the Week is Buddy Newell. He is one boy you are sure to have fun with, and Buddy is the kind of boy everyone likes for a friend. He served on the student council in the eighth and ninth grades. He was president of seventh and eighth grade classrooms. This year Buddy is assistant editor of El Palomar, the school annual. Last year he was activity editor. He is an active member of Hi-Y, where he served as secretary last year. He is also a member of DeMolays. He plays football and basketball and has been on the honor roll seven times. Buddy attends the First Baptist Church where he is president of his Sunday school class.

Probe Ordered In Rail Crash

RIO DE JANEIRO (AP)—President Juscelino Kubitschek today ordered an investigation into the crash of two commuter trains in which an estimated 150 persons were killed. It was the second disaster in as many months on the government's Central de Brasil line and the worst train wreck in Brazil's history.

Some 300 more passengers were injured last night when one electric commuter train plowed into the rear of another.

Rescue workers toiled through the misty night to pull the dead, dying and injured from the twisted metal cars piled along embankments 10 miles north of Rio de Janeiro.

Thousands ringed the scene of the wreck. At nearby stations other angry commuters rioted in protest.

Sixty-seven passengers were killed March 7 when three Central de Brasil trains rammed together. Until yesterday the highest death toll in a Brazilian rail wreck had been 119, in 1952.

Kubitschek, who went to view the wreckage at midnight, said the investigation would get underway at once and he would take "necessary measures no matter who is hurt."

Officials said one train of five cars was stopped about 100 yards north of Mangueira station when an eight-car train came down the same track at about 45 miles an hour. The engine of the speeding train sliced through three quarters of the rear car of the stopped train.

Violent Weather In West Texas Tapers Off To Rain

By The Associated Press

Violent weather boomed across West Texas Thursday night but it tapered off to some light rain and drizzle and a dry thunderstorm Friday.

Tornado funnels were reported near Haskell and Chillicothe Thursday night, but police said they were not confirmed. Haskell had strong winds, rain and light hail. Wichita Falls had heavy rains and winds of 25 miles an hour. Nocona also got heavy rain and hail. Hail and rain fell near Lake Kemp, near Seymour, and at Levelland.

Friday the Weather Bureau said there was drizzle at Amarillo, light rain at Wichita Falls and fog at Childress. San Antonio reported thunder.

But more thunderstorms and thundershowers were forecast for all but West Texas.

One tornado funnel was reported on the ground near the Stamford Lake Dam, about 10 miles southeast of Haskell, Friday night. But the Haskell Police Department
