O. E. Bryan, general manager of the Cap Rock Electric Cooperative, greets Ed Carpenter of Vincent as members of the organization gathered this morning at HCJC for their annual meeting.

AT CO-OP MEET

Additional Phone Service Promised

Delegates to the annual meeting of the West-Tex Telephone Cooperative, Inc., Friday morning heard officers of the cooperative assure them that better and more widespread telephone service for rural users is on its way and due in relatively short time.

They also unanimously re-elected Lawrence Adkins, Lomax, District 1; Dick Simpson, Vealmore, District 2; and Mrs. C. L. Hazelwood, Courtney, District 8, as board members for the ensuing year.

The meeting was in the HCJC auditorium and was attended by some 200 men and women. The West-Tex session marked the opening of an all day gathering of co-op groups. A noonday high-light was a big-barbecue dinner served to all delegates and visitors in the college gymnasium.

A. A. McKinney, Center Point, president of West-Tex, presided at the meeting Friday morning. Mrs. L. C. Hazelwood, secretary, read minutes of the last meeting which were approved. There was a brief report on activities of the co-op. Martelle McDonald submitted the report of the committee on nominations and the election brought the meeting to a close.

Following the barbecue, members of the Cap Rock Electric Cooperative held their annual meeting. They also were to name three directors and receive reports on operations and growth of the system for the past year.

Climaxing the annual meetings this afternoon was the distribution of capital credits refund checks totaling more than $45,000.

Another highlight of the afternoon session was the presentation of a 15-year service award to Edgar Phillips, who has served on the Cap Rock board of directors since 1943.

Entertainment was to be provided by students of Howard County Junior College, and the co-op members were welcomed to Big Spring and HCJC by Dr. J. E. Hogan, Chamber of Commerce president, and Horace Garrett, chairman of the HCJC board of trustees.

House Moves Toward Final Vote On Education Measure

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House moved today toward a final vote on a billion-dollar blueprint of federal aid to help strengthen the American educational system in today's scientific world.

The bill easily passed its first test yesterday with a 265-108 vote to take it up for action. Opponents had sought to block it.

Backers said its central purpose was to encourage improvement in the quality of education, particularly in those aspects most important to national defense.

The four-year program would provide scholarships, student loans, expansion in graduate study and matching grants to the states for science teaching equipment and help in guidance of able young students.

The Senate will vote on a similar bill probably early next week. Rep. Carl Elliott (D-Ala.), author of the House bill, said he would support amendments to bring it more in line with what President Eisenhower said he wanted.

These include reducing the number of scholarships from 23,000 to 10,000 a year and stipulating they shall be based wholly on need.

The bill now provides that the first $500 of each scholarship will be an award, with up to $500 more given on the basis of need.

Rep. Adam Clayton Powell (D-NY) has said he will offer an amendment to prohibit discrimination in any of the proposed programs because of race, color, religion or sex.

Administration Has Only Few Objections To Security Hike

WASHINGTON (AP)—The administration today approved the House-passed proposal to increase Social Security benefits. Objections were raised, however, to sections of the bill which would increase the federal share of public assistance funds.

Secretary of Welfare Arthur S. Flemming presented the administration's position to the Senate Finance Committee in his first testimony at the Capitol last Friday.

Flemming said that on the whole, he believes the major changes the House approved in the Old Age and Survivor Insurance program "are reasonable and desirable and I recommend their adoption."

Among the major changes:

- 1. An increase of OASI insurance benefits by 7 per cent, with a minimum increase of $3.
2. Broadening of the taxable wage base from $4,200 to $4,800 and an increase in the tax rate effective Jan. 1, as well as a substantial speeding of the future tax increases already scheduled by law.

The bill, passed by the House

375-2, may hold the key to when Congress adjourns. The Senate committee plans two days of hearings.

In addition, the bill would increase by 288 million dollars a year the federal grants to the states for such programs as aid to the needy aged. It would make numerous other changes in the social security law.

Flemming said the administration is not against the increases in aid to individuals, but strongly opposes shifting a greater proportional share of the cost to the Treasury.

He said the state and local governments provided 60 per cent of the cost of public assistance in 1946 but by 1957 their share had decreased to 50 per cent.

Flemming said state expenditures have doubled since 1946 while the federal payments have become three times as large.

"The programs are state programs, initiated by the states and administered by the states and communities," Flemming said.

Flemming suggested holding up action in that field until next year to develop a new formula which

Ike Receives Military Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower has received a construction bill authorizing Texas military projects costing $31,503,000.

Senate approval of the $1,695,000 authorization bill by voice vote completed Congressional action yesterday.

Money for the construction projects would be provided in a separate appropriations bill still before the Senate.

Texas projects included: Army—Red River Arsenal $140,000, Ft. Bliss, $9,129,000, Ft. Hood, $4,606,000, Killen Base $31,000. Navy—Ordnance Aerophysics Laboratory, Daingerfield, $1,459,000.

Air Force—Amarillo AFB $929,000, Bergstrom AFB $1,516,000, Biggs AFB $3,252,000, Brooks AFB $435,000, Carswell AFB $2,113,000, Dyess AFB $1,263,000, Conally AFB $750,000, Kelly AFB $683,000, Laughlin AFB $897,000, Perrin AFB $706,000, Randolph AFB $245,000, Sheppard AFB $973,000 and Webb AFB $3,265,000.

Blimp Continues Flight To Pole

SOUTH WEYMOUTH, Mass. (AP)—The Navy blimp 2PG2, en route from Churchill, Man., to Resolute Bay, reported its position was 22 1/2 miles south, southeast of there today.

The blimp is on a research flight to the North Pole region. Ultimate destination of the craft is ice island T-3. Aboard are 14 crew members and a team of International Geophysical Year scientists.

A dispatch from Hugh Mulligan, Associated Press correspondent with the expedition, and representing the American press, said the blimp crossed the Arctic Circle at 8:15 p.m. Thursday. It then had proceeded farther north than any nonrigid airship in history.

Mulligan's report was received by Navy radio in Washington.

Lab Danger

OAK RIDGE, Tenn. (AP)—It may have looked like paradise to the stray cat which wandered into an Oak Ridge laboratory containing more than 150,000 mice. He ate eight mice before employees caught him.

NEWCOMER IS GREETED BY 13 GRANDPARENTS

COLORADO CITY — When William Wayne Overman entered this world Tuesday at Codgell Memorial Hospital in Snyder, 13 grandparents were anticipating his appearance.

This lad has five generations of living ancestors on both the paternal and maternal sides. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Dwayne Overman of Snyder. His grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Underwood of Colorado City and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Overman of Snyder; great-grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Walker of San Angelo, Judge and Mrs. J. B. Nixon of Hale Center, Mrs. W. H. Overman of Whiteface and Mrs. Florence Hale of Colorado City; great-grandparents are Mrs. Stella Walker of Henrieville, Oklahoma, Mrs. Lula Overman of Winters and Mrs. Mary Hardin of Abernathy.

The payroll tax would be increased next year by one quarter per cent each on employe and employer to a rate of 2 1/2 per cent. The wage base on which the tax is paid would be raised from $4,200 to $4,800. The bill also would advance the dates for future tax increases.

AF Specialists Check Failure Of Bomarc Test

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—Air Force specialists continued to check instrumentation reports today to learn what caused a Bomarc interceptor missile to fail in flight after it was launched successfully by remote control from 1,500 miles away.

The missile buzzed across the Atlantic Thursday after it was triggered by personnel manning a huge electronic computer in Kingston, N.Y.

The Air Force announced that the launching itself was successful, but that the missile missed the target when its sensitive guidance system failed to function properly during a critical stage in the flight.

The Bomarc, considered the nation's most advanced air defense weapon, was aimed at a pilotless B17 drone bomber 250 miles off Cape Canaveral.

The primary mission was to test the missile's capabilities in relation to the new national air defense warning network known as SAGE.

In a matter of seconds the drone was picked up on a radar antenna and the data relayed to the computer in Kingston.

The computer, large enough to fill a three-story building, produced the necessary firing data. Then someone pressed a button and the sleek Boeing missile was on its way.

The Bomarc launching site and the Kingston computer were connected by a special telephone cable hookup.

SAGE means semi-automatic ground environment. The system is composed of a network of radar stations and complex computers which should be able to pinpoint an enemy air approach in seconds.

Although more than 50 Bomarcs have been fired previously, the Air Force seemed to have trouble with the missile lately.

The test was postponed Tuesday when technical troubles developed. The previous Bomarc, fired July 11, was blown up intentionally when engine trouble developed.

Water Usage Is Near 1Q Million Gallons Thursday

Another hot day—another water consumption record. For the third straight Thursday, a new water record has been set, with yesterday's consumption hitting 9,311,000 gallons while the mercury soared to 99. The old record was set the previous Thursday at 9,745,000 gallons, and that record has blasted a mark set on another Thursday, July 24, of 9,735,000 gallons.

The record-breaking total was the second straight day that usage went above the nine million mark. The city used 9,612,000 gallons on Wednesday. These are the only two days this month that it has been over nine million, however.

Consumption for the month is now at $9,111,000 gallons for a daily average of over 8.4 million gallons.

1.5 Million Pass Checks For Work

WASHINGTON (AP)—Maybe it's the high cost of living or maybe many persons just don't relish the idea of loafing. Whatever the reason, government records show that nearly 1 1/2 million Americans over 65 were passing up Social Security retirement checks as of last Jan. 1 to keep on working.

Of that total about 1,180,000 were men and about 222,000 were women. In addition, the Social Security Administration said some women over 62, also eligible for retirement benefits, were continuing to work.

However, the agency figured about nine million persons over 65 were drawing monthly checks.

Austrian Hero Of Monte Casino Dies

VIENNA (AP)—Lt. Col. Julius Schlegel, who saved the treasures of Monte Casino monastery in Italy during an Allied offensive, died today. He was 63.

Schlegel was put in charge of the treasures when Allied troops advanced on the monastery, scene of a major battle in World War I.

He smuggled paintings and church relics from the building when he heard German forces were determined to defend the ancient monastery. The monastery was destroyed in the battle.

U. S. Reports Drop In Jobless Ranks

Rate Is Lower Than Normal

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government reported today the number of unemployed Americans dropped by 143,000 in July to 5,294,000.

Unemployment normally drops more sharply at this time of year. Employment rose by 198,000 to 65,179,000. The increase was not as great as usual for July.

After taking seasonal factors into account, the rate of unemployment increased. The Commerce and Labor Departments said 7.3 per cent of the work force was jobless last month compared with 6.8 per cent in June. The peak recession rate was 7 1/2 per cent in April.

Manufacturing employment was down 23,000 in July, to 15,165,000. This was less than the decline which usually occurs during the month. A small gain in jobs among producers of soft goods was more than offset by a reduction in employment in durable goods industries.

Secretary of Commerce Weeks and Secretary of Labor Mitchell said "The over-all job picture did not change significantly in July."

Heavy rains in various parts of the country apparently curtailed some farm and other outdoor activities in mid-July. Hiring of young summer jobseekers was slower than in July of most other postwar years. In the previously hard-hit durable goods sector, however, the midsummer decline in employment was smaller than usual," the statement said.

Census Bureau estimates placed agricultural employment at 6,718,000 last month. This was off 182,000 from June.

Employment in nonagricultural industries totaled 58,461,000, compared with 58,081,000 in June.

The Labor Department reported the factory work week remained unchanged at 39.2 hours in July. Usually there is a small decline during the month. The Navy said, more men—116—were assembled at the pole at any one time than ever before.

In response to a question, Cmdr. Anderson said the entire voyage in the arctic area was through international waters.

Asked whether the Russians could have detected the submarine's presence in the polar waters, Anderson smiled and replied: "If the Russians detected us, they're awfully good."

Anderson was picked up by helicopter at Iceland Thursday night and then flown to Washington for today's White House ceremony.

Girl Accidentally Shot At Lamesa Shows Improvement

LAMESA — Mollie Ray, 6, was reported to be "vastly improved" at noon today in Lamesa General Hospital where she was taken Thursday afternoon after being hit from a 22-caliber pistol pierced her head. She now is expected to recover, although little hope was held out by doctors last night.

Mollie and her sister, Nawana, 9, were playing around a tractor on the farm of their grandfather, Clyde Ray, seven miles southwest of town. They discovered the pistol which Ray carried on his tractor. As they handled the weapon, it discharged and the bullet struck Mollie under the eye.

The slug apparently turned downward and lodged under her skull at the base of the brain.

The girls are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Ray of Lubbock.

Police Sum Up Torch Clues: Call It Arson That Backfired

PONTIAC, Mich. (AP)—A secret witness, a scorched flashlight and a mysterious black Cadillac added up today to what investigators believe was a case of arson that backfired in the fatal "human torch" burning of an ex-convict Teamsters Union official.

Three days after he stumbled into St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Pontiac with over 85 per cent of his body horribly burned, Frank Kierdorf, 56, a business agent for Teamsters Local 332, died yesterday shortly after becoming a convert to Catholicism.

To the end, Kierdorf had insisted that he was set afire by two men who lured him from his home Sunday night, doused him with an inflammable fluid and ignited it. However, Michigan Atty. Gen. Paul L. Adams told newsmen he was convinced Kierdorf was caught in a blazing trap while trying to set a Flint dry cleaning shop afire.

A secret witness has told police he stopped his car when he saw the fire, watched two men running from the building and then heard a third man screaming inside, Adams said.

"We are left with the possibilities that this was an organized attempt as part of Kierdorf's union

The reports said state and local government payrolls declined by more than 200,000 in July, because of the school recess for the summer.

In commenting on the increase in the seasonally adjusted rate of unemployment, the report said the low June figure of 6.8 per cent "resulted primarily from difficulties in achieving a precise seasonal adjustment at a time when large numbers of students enter the labor force."

This suggested the statisticians had estimated too low a rate of joblessness for June.

Texas Cotton Estimate Up From '57 List

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department today estimated Texas' cotton production at 4,150,000 bales, up sharply from the state's 1957 production of 3,632,000 bales.

The production per acre was estimated at 373 pounds, a considerable increase over the 295 pound average last year.

The forecast was the first of the season by the department. The agency's nationwide forecast was for 11,583,000 bales.

This estimate, however, still is 619,000 bales more than last year's small crop of 10,964,000 bales. It compares with 14,136,000 bales for the ten-year (1947-56) average.

This year's cotton acreage is the smallest in more than 30 years. Much land has been held out of production under a marketing quota and soil bank program designed to prevent surplus production.

The 1958 crop will be supplemented by reserve and surplus stocks of 8,700,000 bales accumulated from past big crops. Much of it is stored under federal crop control programs.

In accompanying report, the Census Bureau said 212,569 running bales from this year's crop had been ginned prior to Aug. 1.

Year's First Carload Of Maize Shipped Thursday

Howard County's first carload of maize for 1958 was shipped yesterday by the Big Spring Grain & Commission Co., according to E. T. Tucker, manager.

The grain was graded as No. 2 and weighed approximately 58 pounds to the bushel. The moisture content was slightly less than 15 per cent. However, another fourth of a car was held over to be dried, since grain with over 15 per cent moisture cannot be shipped.

The carload was a mixture of maize from several farms, including those of J. W. Broughton of Howard County, Edwin and John Bednar of the St. Lawrence community south of Garden City and

W. J. Briley also of Glasscock County.

The current price for No. 2 grain if $1.65 per hundred, Tucker said. The market has dropped five cents since yesterday. The loan price has been set at $1.75 per hundred.

Tucker said that this was early maize hastened along by the dry weather. Since the drought set in, the general prospects are not as bright as last year when the county made a record yield of grain sorghums.

"A good general rain two weeks ago would have made us a good crop," Tucker said, "but it's too late now for anything more than an average yield."

After setting a device to explode into flames at the Latreille cleaners Sunday night, they said, Kierdorf dropped his flashlight. While he was groping around for it, the fire device went off, enveloping the ex-convict in flames.

His companions beat out the flaming clothes and took Kierdorf to his home in Flint, where they tried to treat his burns with a salve. (Doctors found ointment on his face, neck and shoulders.)

But Kierdorf's companions apparently decided he needed hospital treatment and drove him 41 miles to Pontiac, presumably to throw investigators off the track.

On the way he was coached to tell a story of being attacked and set aflame by two strangers.

The attorney general said that Donald Edward Keller, 34, Detroit, was being held in protective custody for questioning. Adams said Keller drove Herman Kierdorf to the used car lot where the Cadillac was sold. He said Keller denied being at the scene of the Flint fire.

Herman had described Keller as "one of my boys."

Both Kierdorf's served time for armed robbery and both were reluctant witnesses before the Senate Rackets Committee.

Linked To Kierdorf Mystery

This is the burned-out cleaning shop of Latrelle Cleaners near Flint, Mich., which has been linked to the torch-burning of Teamster official Frank Kierdorf. Michigan Attorney General Paul L. Adams said Kierdorf was burned in an attempt to set the torch to the cleaning establishment.

Single Or Double Beds Big Question

Tennessee Picks Gore

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Tennessee Democrats renominated Sen. Albert Gore in Thursday's primary, while Buford Ellington held an uneasy lead in the governor's race against three opponents.

Memphis Mayor Edmund Orgill and Jackson Circuit Judge Andrew T. Taylor perched within striking distance as tabulators awaited trickling returns from the state's final 250 precincts. State Sen. Clifford Allen of Nashville trailed far behind.

Gore's victory was more decisive than expected over former Gov. Prentice Cooper of Shelbyville. An ardent segregationist, Cooper campaigned against Gore's moderate civil rights position and what he termed "giveaways."

Tabulations from 2,335 of the state's 2,570 precincts gave Gore 322,797 votes to 223,386 for Cooper. The same precincts gave Ellington 194,239, Orgill 184,123 and Taylor 181,666. Allen received 52,779. Among the missing precincts were 10 big boxes from Taylor's home county of Madison, where he ran far ahead of his combined opposition.

Tennessee has no primary runoff and the high man gets the nomination in a state which has not elected a Republican governor since 1922.

Both Ellington and Taylor campaigned on a strong segregation plank, even to the point of closing public schools if necessary to avoid violence. Orgill told his campaign audiences he personally favored segregation but believed court orders should be obeyed. Allen said he thought segregation had no place as a campaign issue.

the Journal of the American Medical Assn.

A Journal editor submitted the question to two unidentified medical specialists and printed their replies.

The first consultant said the active health of an individual is dependent on how thoroughly his or her body cells receive physiological rest in slumber.

"But because humans are peculiarly psychological beings as well, interplay of personality injects an element of choice or preference," he added.

This preference, he went on, is something that can't be defined, categorized or legislated.

"The answer to the query then," he concluded, "lies in a mutual decision of the marriage partners as to whether single beds or a double bed provide better healthful balance of restful sleep and wakeful togetherness."

The second consultant suggested that in view of the nation's population trend the question should be rephrased to ask: "Should husbands and wives stop sleeping together?" He did not go on record one way or another.

An AP reporter referred the query to Dr. Nathan Kleitman, professor of physiology at the University of Chicago.

Kleitman, who has spent more than 30 years studying volunteer sleepers and the phenomena of sleep, said without hesitation: "Physiologically, it is better for each to sleep alone in a double bed. Particularly in summer when one doesn't huddle in one spot to stay warm."

But he added this is complicated by the psychological side. Some people feel more secure sleeping with someone.

"To some the security outweighs the discomfort," he said. "The decision always must be made on that basis."

Englishmen Who Like Texas Send A Delegate Here

LONDON (AP)—Sir Alfred Bosson, president of the Anglo-Texan Society, sailed for America today to make a five-day pilgrimage to the Lone Star State.

The Anglo-Texan Society was organized in London by Englishmen who like Texas. Then a group of Texans who like England formed an association in Dallas.

The British outfit aims, in the words of its constitution, "to promote friendly, cultural and economic relations between Great Britain and the State of Texas, and to welcome to this country visitors from Texas and as when possible to arrange interchange of hospitality."

Sir Alfred will go to Austin to present a commemorative scroll to Gov. Daniel and to ask him to become a patron of the Anglo-Texans.

He will also ask the Texas chief executive for a hunk of "pure Texas wood" from which a plaque will be carved to hang on the building that once housed the London legation of the Republic of Texas, No. 3 St. James Street, in the heart of London Clubland.

From Austin, Sir Alfred will go to Dallas to attend the inaugural meeting of the Dallas society.

Lamesa Sets Opening Dates For New Swimming Pools

LAMESA — The Lamesa City Council in a 2½-hour session Thursday set the official opening date of the North Swimming Pool as Aug. 17 at 1 p.m.

Although the pool will be opened actually next Sunday, Aug. 10, the council put off the formal opening a week in order that the Evening Lions Club, the group sponsoring the bond election called to vote the pool bonds, might stage an Aquatic Carnival on the later date. The council also voted that swimming on Aug. 17 will be free. The council set opening hours each day from 1:00 to 8:00 p.m., and set the admission at 30 cents for all students thru the 12th grade and 50 cents for all adults. There will be no charge for the wading pool in connection with the swimming pool.

Because of a delay in receiving some of the plumbing equipment for the south pool, the general contractor, L. A. Waller, has given the city the date of Aug. 25 for the opening of that pool. At the present time the city is attempting to arrange for the south pool to be turned over to Blackshear School for its use in physical education classes for a period this fall after the opening of school on Sept. 1.

In other action the council reappointed Ray Renner as director of the Canadian River Municipal Water Authority for a two-year term; passed an emergency ordinance prohibiting truck traffic on Chicago Drive from N. 19th Street to N. 22nd St., called for bids on 640 new parking meters; called for bids on gasoline, oil, diesel fuel and anti-freeze; accepted reports from the Lamesa Volunteer Fire Department and the Dawson County Library; and took under advisement a request from Mrs. F. H. Gonzales that a city water line be run to S. 8th and Memphis Ave.

Boy Weeps After Loss To Father

ST. LOUIS (AP) — A weeping boy, object of a custody dispute between his divorced parents, was turned over to his mother, Mrs. Mary Kane Wright of Amarillo, yesterday.

"Do I have to go back?" Joseph Wright Jr., 15, asked Judge Edward Ruddy at the hearing on a writ of habeas corpus.

The judge explained that he could not interfere with a Texas court ruling giving custody of the Wrights' three children to Mrs. Wright.

"There's more to this case than you've heard," the elder Wright, a truck driver and fighter pilot during World War II and the Korean War, told the court.

Iraqis Told, Time To Stop Celebrating

BAGHDAD (AP) — Iraq's new government told the people today they've celebrated the overthrow of the royal regime enough—it's time to go back to work.

The interior Ministry banned all demonstrations in the capital. Hundreds from the provinces have been arriving in Baghdad daily to salute the new government chiefs. Demonstrations Thursday — the biggest yet — stopped traffic in the main streets for two hours.

Kidnap-Slayer Of Infant Goes To Death In Chair Whimpering

OSSINING, N.Y. (AP)—John Angelo LaMarca, kidnap-slayer of infant Peter Weinberger, went to his death whimpering last night in Sing Sing Prison's electric chair. LaMarca, 33, who once blamed the crime on his need to raise $2,000 to pay for storm windows and other household goods, had hoped to the last minute he would be saved. But radio appeals and a flood of telegrams to Gov. Averell Harriman's office in Albany proved unavailing. LaMarca last Wednesday lost a two-year court battle — including six appeals — to escape execution. The father of two young children, he said nothing as he was escorted to the chair by the Rev. George McKinney, recently appointed Roman Catholic chaplain at the prison. However, LaMarca began to whimper as he was strapped into the device. Executed at 11 p.m., he was pronounced dead three minutes later. His wife Donna remained with him in his cell until 9 p.m. The doomed man was heard to call out occasionally, "Maybe they'll save me yet."

His attorney David M. Markowitz had gone on the air in New York City, urging the public to intercede with Harriman. The broadcast was repeated in the Albany area. The governor's office reported receiving between 400 and 500 telegrams, but there was no other comment.

LaMarca snatched 33-day-old Peter from his carriage on the patio of the Westbury, N.Y., home of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Weinberger July 4, 1956.

LaMarca, a mechanic, resided at nearby Plainview. Both towns are Long Island suburbs of New York City. The Weinbergers suffered through a harrowing series of ransom notes and telephone calls until Aug. 23, 1956, when LaMarca was arrested. It was learned then that LaMarca, panicking, had left the baby to die in a lonely Long Island thicket the day after the kidnaping. The boy died of starvation and exposure.

The FBI sifted more than a million court and motor vehicle documents, looking for handwriting clues in the ransom notes, before seizing LaMarca.

At his trial, LaMarca pleaded insanity. An all-father jury convicted him of first-degree murder without recommendation of mercy. Appeals went all the way to the U.S. Supreme Court. LaMarca ate hearty meals during his last day. In addition to his wife, he was visited by his parents, Vincenzo and Vittina LaMarca, and his brothers, Anthony and Joseph LaMarca.

Service, Your World Is Gone

WHITEHORSE, Alaska (AP)—A bunch of the boys were whooping it up in the Modern Beauty Salon.

By the shades of Skookum Jim, the Two-Ton Swede and a host of other unscented, unmanicured scoundrels, you won't believe what's happening here.

This once two-fisted rough and tumble Yukon mining capital has beauty parlor service for men. The Modern Beauty Salon announced that "in answer to many requests" Friday evenings from now on will be men-only nights.

Cleric Bans Nude Shows In Nevada

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—Catholics are forbidden to attend this fun town's nude shows. Bishop Robert J. Dwyer of the diocese of Reno—which includes all of Nevada—sent letters to all priests in the state yesterday, saying no Catholic may attend, or have anything to do with such shows. The nude shows are recent attractions of Las Vegas' night club strip. Minsky's burlesque shows and undraped chorus girls from Paris Lido Club have been big hits.

Benson Plans On Public's Pressure To Pass Farm Bill

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of Agriculture Benson and leaders of the American Farm Bureau Federation reportedly are counting on grass roots pressure to prod Congress into enacting farm legislation before adjournment. Benson was expected to renew his demands that Congress act to ease planting restrictions on cotton and rice. He also was likely to call for renewal of a farm surplus disposal program that died June 30, and for extension of a wool subsidy program. The House Wednesday rejected a farm bill that did not go as far as a Senate bill toward lowering price supports. The Senate bill was favored by Benson and Republican leaders in the House. The Farm Bureau also backed the Senate version. After the House action Wednesday, Speaker Sam Rayburn (D-Tex) said that as far as he is concerned, that ends any prospect of farm legislation this session. There was no indication today of any change in the House. But some senators talked of a possible special session if Congress doesn't pass farm legislation.

Meanwhile, the Agriculture Department prepared to issue today its first cotton production forecast of the year. Hope by Benson and the Farm Bureau for agricultural legislation was based on what spokesmen said were strong demands from grower groups, particularly in cotton, rice and wool producing areas.

Local and state officials of the farm bureau in cotton and rice areas were said to be appealing to Rayburn and other House leaders to act on a farm bill this session.

Kiwanis Club To Entertain New Teachers

New teachers in the Big Spring City School system—about 35 in all—will be special guests of the Big Spring Kiwanis Club on Aug. 28, it was announced by Jack Alexander, president of the club.

He told the Thursday meeting of the organization that the directors had approved the plan and the purpose of the meeting is to extend a welcome to new members of the school's faculty.

Floyd Parsons, school superintendent, is to arrange for the new teachers to be present at the luncheon meeting on that date.

Kiwanians also saw films of coyote, bobcat and deer hunting made by Nolan Von Roeder, Snyder sportsman, at their luncheon meeting Thursday. Von Roeder, who is both a noted hunter and an expert amateur photographer, screened pictures of how hunters use calling devices to lure coyotes and other predatory animals into rifle-range.

The club heard an announcement of plans for the Howard County 4-H Club Championship Junior Rodeo which opens on Aug. 14. Speaking for the rodeo were four county 4-H club leaders—J. T. Coleman, Skipper Driver and Handley Driver.

The boys told the club of the prizes, the number of expected contestants and of the prize money. A big parade will officially open the rodeo on the afternoon of Aug. 14. Sherman Smith was program chairman for the day.

Harris No-Billed In Kuykendall's Death

BRADY, Tex. (AP)—Grand jurors refused yesterday to indict a race horse owner who said he shot blacksmith Joe Kuykendall in self defense July 3.

They no-billed J. B. Harris Jr., 32, of Shreveport, La. Harris had told authorities he shot Kuykendall out of the saddle at the Brady race track because the towering, part-Indian blacksmith threatened to run him down with a horse. Kuykendall was shot 7 to 9 times, causing 13 wounds, some resulting when bullets left the body.

Witnesses said the two argued earlier over a race horse trade. An Omaha, Neb., jury acquitted Kuykendall in 1954 of the death of his heiress wife, Ardath Kuykendall, 30. She was found dead in their house trailer at the race track there.

Austin Will Get Nike Installation

AUSTIN (AP)—The Austin area will be protected by a guided missile Nike installation which will be operating in 16 to 20 months, Army officials said yesterday. The Army started looking for land today.

Maj. Gen. William Biddle, commander of Ft. Hood, said the installation will be the second of its kind in Texas. The Fort Worth-Dallas area already has been designated for Nike defense. Nikes, which can carry nuclear warheads, may be used in defense against other missiles or aircraft.

Col. Leslie Staub of Kansas City, with the Air Defense Command, said there was no special reason for picking Austin and it was part of a long range program.

Your Complaint About Product May Help Maker Improve It

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP NEWS FEATURES WRITER

Complain about shoddy or poor merchandise, advises an expert. Often the merchant and the manufacturer don't know it's no good.

Although there are plenty of chronic grippers around to keep store complaint departments busy, the average consumer is too likely to shy away from making complaints, even justified ones, says Prof. Jules Labarthe of Carnegie Institute of Technology.

Often merchants have found only one or two customer complaints about an item, "yet upon investigation some flaw or weakness in the fabric or construction was so serious that we could not imagine every customer being happy with the purchase when she used it," he told a gathering of homemakers recently.

"Too many manufacturers have become more interested in quick eye-appeal than in good construction," insists housewares designer Freda Diamond. "We see it every day in everything from ostentatious automobiles to pots and pans."

PRETTY BUT USELESS
Recently, she recalled, a manufacturer brought her three brushes in a new line. She experimented with each.

"They look very nice," she conceded. "But they don't work. Not one does the job it is supposed to do."

An appliance manufacturer recently put on the market a good-looking electric frypan—and only then discovered it was impossible to remove the electric plug without scorching the cook's fingers.

"All this is bad design," continued Miss Diamond, and each instance shows that no one has taken the time or effort to find out if the item works right. The test too often these days is merely whether it looks good enough to sell well."

Miss Diamond blames a lot of this trend on some American automobile makers.

"They have done a super-duper job of aiming at vulgar conspicuous consumption," she said. "They have added useless chrome which has destroyed simple good lines. And, because up to now cars have sold so well, other manufacturers think they have hit on the good formula. As a consequence, they have been dragging along our toasters and our vacuum cleaners with them into poor design and bad taste."

WOMEN NEEDED

Remedies, she feels, lie at the source.

"I don't think manufacturers have made much use of women designers with products largely purchased and used by women," she said. "They usually will pull a woman in on a matter of color. And they will ask a woman how they should sell the item to other women."

"But apparently they don't yet think it is necessary to test the women who could tell them whether it is good or bad."

Meanwhile, dissatisfied customers can help remedy the situation—by complaining.

"If the product does not live up to specifications, it then becomes (the consumer's) responsibility to inform the retailer or the manufacturer of its shortcomings," said Labarthe. "Such reports speed up the identification of good or shoddy merchandise."

Missions Program Heard By WMS Of Church Of God

Meeting Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. V. Ward Jackson, members of the First Church of God WMS heard a program on missions. Musical highlight was a duet, "Lord, Give Me A Vision", by Mrs. R. W. Reagan and Linda Hickson.

The program on Declared Dividends was under the direction of Mrs. Truett Thomas. Answers to the question "Do Missions Pay?" were in the form of illustrative pictures. Mrs. Jackson gave the devotion on "Only what is done for Christ will last."

There will be a morning prayer hour Aug. 31, it was announced. Following the closing prayer by Mrs. Reagan, refreshments were served to nine.

The Orrs Are Safe At Iraqi Refinery

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Allen Orr, who left Big Spring in May to reside in Baghdad, Iraq, will be pleased to hear that the couple is safe in that Middle East trouble spot.

Mrs. Glen White has, this week, received a letter from Orr's mother in Tulsa, stating that the Orrs had moved out to the Iraqi government-owned refinery where he is employed. The installation, 15 miles out of Baghdad, is heavily guarded. The refinery has been taken over by the new governmental regime and the contracts of the employees have been accepted.

Living conditions are not bad, advise the Orrs, but mail service is poor and censorship abounds. Orr was for several years employed here by Cosden.

Time To Plant Lilies For Beauty In The Springtime

By MARY COCHRAN

August is the month to plant that ancient of flowers, the Madonna lily. This popular flower with its other lily family members has been loved through the ages in many different countries.

The lily bulb will be planted from now till fall at which time all spring flowering bulbs will be planted. Autumn crocus, not a lily, (colchicum) can be planted now for fall blooming.

In its native habitat, no lily is weak, but in our gardens special attention must be given in planning the beds. Some of the new varieties obtained from hybrid breeding give a combination of qualities suitable for our section of the country.

The lily is a living plant; it is never completely dormant like a tulip or daffodil. Try to get freshly dug bulbs and care for them as you would a perennial plant, keeping them out of the ground as short a time as possible.

Select a bed where air circulation is good. A gentle slope only partially surrounded by shrubs or building is perfect. They don't need to compete with tree roots but do love a spot where they get filtered sunlight through tall open trees.

This light shade prevents fading and sunburn that sometimes occurs when lilies are planted in full sun.

GOOD SOIL

The soil should be neutral to slightly acid. This means lots of humus, either compost or peat moss. A bed, 15 to 18 inches deep, should be made in good soil where there is a good amount of sand. Add superphosphate with peat moss or any compost to this bed mixing and packing well.

Set the bulbs in their bed from 4 to 6 inches deep, depending on their size, with the large ones 10 to 12 inches apart and the small ones 3 to 5. Pack the soil firmly but be careful not to bruise them. Bulbs usually find their own level with the roots seeking the right depth. However, they cannot push themselves up so it is better to plant too shallow than too deep.

The Madonna lily, planted now so it can make its rosette of leaves by fall, is planted very shallow. The top of the bulb should not be over 2 inches below the surface and the roots should be given plenty of room when placed in the hole. Drainage is most important to lilies. If necessary, build the lily bed up 6 or 8 inches above ground level.

Plant in colonies. A bed of 6 or more of the same variety looks better than scattered lonesome plants. A handsome combination in a perennial bed is to plant the Regal or Madonna lilies in front of sky blue delphinium, both placed near a clump of pink oriental poppies.

Many lilies form tiny bulbils in the axils of the leaves during August. These are exactly like bulbils except for color. They should be saved and handled like bulbils for new plants.

Order your bulbs from a reputable firm or buy from the local nurseries. If you can't plant immediately, keep in a polyethylene bag in a cool place, till time to plant.

Recommended lilies that will tolerate an alkaline soil are: Bellingham hybrids, Madonna, crocium, David, elegans, Formosa, Giant, Hanson, Henry, Martagon, Philippine, Regal, Shuksan, Speciosum, Temulifolium, Nankeen, Tiger, and Western Sunset. New varieties are appearing all the time so don't hesitate to experiment.

NEW VARIETIES

The newest varieties listed in the magazines may be a challenge to you. Try them if you like to experiment, and maybe they will prove suitable to this climate.

Some new ones are: Black Dragon strain, Citronella strain, Emerald strain and Sentinel strain. A strain is a group within a certain kind of species. A clone is a group of plants that all originated from a one seedling plant. Some new clones are Golden Wonder, Paprika, Spice, Spotlight, and Tabasco.

To grow lilies well is their best protection from disease; better than sprays or dusts. Always spray to control aphids, however. Betsy's blight and mosaic, but a virus, are sometimes introduced into the garden with the bulb itself. Proper drainage and care in buying healthy plants should prevent these.

The new Oriental trend in gardening is a style particularly suited to growing lilies. They will do well in beds or pots. Start your Regal or Madonna now, and plan to begin in the very early fall with lilies.

Belt Or Collar? New Silhouette Leaves It Up To You To Decide

By NADEANE WALKER
PARIS (AP)—Guy Laroche today put the waistline about as high as he can without turning belts into collars.

His surprisingly slim and simple silhouette is a handsome cross between the trapeze and the baby doll. It is a complete taming of the sack.

The designer left fashion writers to name his line for themselves. His skirts just about cover the knee and that's all.

Little dust ruffles are a trademark of the new Laroche creations. They appear at the hem of coats and suit skirts, under the bustline of dresses, and peeping out from under flared collars.

The designer's strongest conviction is that the silhouette must be cut as high as possible with a belt or seam, with everything free and easy from there to a short hemline. Fullness varied from a few near-sheaths to gathered or flared, but never voluminous, skirts.

The skirt top is built up high to meet it without touching the waist en route. This apparently is achieved with an interior buckram band, and the effect is something really new.

There seems to be a rule this season that the waist is sacred or untouchable. The designers must

Sen. Humphrey Makes Ammo For U.N. Meet

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn.) undertook today a personal assignment to provide the State Department with policy ammunition for the United Nations session on the Middle East.

He said that Republicans threw cold water yesterday on his proposal that the Senate Foreign Relations Committee itself provide the material—a resume of suggestions made over the past few years for meeting problems of that crisis-ridden area.

"Some of my Republican friends felt that such a course might be construed as criticism of the State Department or an effort to dictate foreign policy," Humphrey told a reporter.

"That is not my thought at all. Some very valuable suggestions have been made by various members of the committee in speeches in the Senate and elsewhere, and others have come from nongovernmental people.

"I have asked the committee staff to continue work on a resume of all such suggestions and I plan to forward them to Secretary Dulles personally—not with the idea of telling the department what to do, but to be sure our people have the benefit of all the thinking that has been done on this very complicated subject."

The committee questioned Gerald C. Smith, assistant secretary of state for policy planning, at the lengthy session behind closed doors yesterday.

While Democrats complained afterwards that they were unable to determine the extent to which Smith's policy planning board participates in the formation of policy, Sen. Homer E. Capehart (R-Ind.) said he felt it was doing a good job in "its role of gathering facts and evaluating them."

Senators John Sparkman (D-Ala.) and J. William Fulbright (D-Ark.) said they couldn't "get any answers that meant anything" on whether the board's role was of any importance in the developing of policies to meet or anticipate recurring crises.

Americans Help To Save Old Spires

LONDON (AP)—The drive for money to save the spires of Oxford, which are in danger of tumbling down from sheer old age, has gone over the top with the help of a million dollars from America.

Lord Bridges, chairman of the historic university's building appeal, announced Thursday night that the minimum goal of $4,900,000 had been met.

The biggest single contribution—a million dollars—came from the Ford Foundation.

Sheriff Freed In Death Of Inmate

WATER VALLEY, Miss. (AP)—A jury deliberated 23 minutes Thursday and then acquitted Sheriff J. G. Treloar of manslaughter in the death of a Negro handyman who was roughed up in jail.

The handyman, 37-year-old Woodrow Wilson Daniels, died July 1 of a brain hemorrhage 10 days after his release from the Yalobusha County Jail.

Witnesses testified they saw Treloar, 36, strike Daniels.

Treloar admitted he struck the handyman several times after arresting him on charges of possessing whisky, drunkenness and reckless driving, but said the blows could not have caused Daniels' death.

Dr. M. S. McMillian testified he found nothing wrong with Daniels when he examined him at the jail after Daniels had complained, but that after his release he sent the handyman to a specialist at Memphis.

6 Inches Is As Good As A Mile

ELIZABETH, N. J. (AP)—It was only a six-inch trip, but Kenneth Kline will remember it for at least two years.

His driver's license was suspended for that period Thursday and he was forced to pay a $200 fine when his conviction on a drunk-driving charge was upheld. Kline, 31, was arrested last March 1 by Patrolman Dominick Secero.

Secero said he had warned Kline not to drive. Kline claimed he had merely stepped into his car and had intended to let his sister take the wheel. His car had moved only six inches when he was arrested, he said.

But County Judge Milton A. Peller ruled that, as far as drunken driving is concerned, six inches is as good as a mile.

Trouble Not New To Persian People

By SAM JOHNSON

TEHRAN (AP)—Few of the developments since July 14—when the new Iraq regime came to power—had a completely new sound for Iranians.

They had been telling American officials for some time that Iraq, an Arab country, was the weak link in the Baghdad Pact.

The Soviet Union, all Kurds, monarchy and Communists have been jumbled in Iran's affairs since World War II.

There were Soviet-supported Communist republics in Iranian Azerbaijan, bordering the Soviet Union, and in the adjoining area of the Kurd tribes. These are gone.

There was a strong nationwide Communist party, the Tudeh. It is virtually nothing now.

Under an emotional, sometimes weeping Prime Minister, Iran nationalized the oil industry and brought the nation near bankruptcy. Oil is thriving now under a new regime.

The same man—Mohammed Mossadeq—tried to displace the monarchy in 1953, but the mobs he had taught to storm through the streets helped to throw him out of office instead. After three years in prison, he quietly runs a big farm, with politics forbidden.

Iran's monarchy seems more stable than ever. Even so the government hesitated three days before allowing newspapers to report the assassination of King Faisal of Iraq.

On the heels of the Iraqi coup and the landing of American Marines in Lebanon, the Soviet Union announced it was holding large-scale maneuvers in the Caucasus region bordering Iran and Turkey.

Iranians seemed to accept the statement as one pressure play in a larger game. Soviet forces usually hold maneuvers in the area about this time of year, although the Soviets normally haven't made public and prominent announcements of them.

Just south of the Soviet border lies Iranian Azerbaijan. In the same area is the homeland of the Kurds, a sometime violent tribe that spreads into adjoining parts of Iraq and Turkey.

After World War II, these two areas declared themselves autonomous republics, led by the Tudeh party and backed by Soviet troops.

United Nations debates, support from the West and Iranian-Soviet negotiations brought the withdrawal of Soviet troops.

Today the Cairo radio calls on the Kurds of Iran, Iraq and Turkey to unite. These broadcasts have not upset the situation in Kurdistan, Iranian officials say, but the government has promised to spend more development money in the backward area.

After Mossadeq was ousted, Iran cracked down on the Tudeh party with a rough hand. Firing squads executed 34 Communists, mostly army and police officers. Several thousand Reds are still in jail.

Observers say the party was virtually annihilated in the drive led by Gen. Teimour Bakhtiar, head of the Security Information Department.

Improper Turn

LAKE WORTH, Fla. (AP)—One event in the Florida State Junior Olympic Swimming and Diving Championships wound up without a winner last night. Winter Haven's team, swimming unopposed in the 200-yard medley relay for girls 15-16, was disqualified for an improper turn.

Manager Robert Henderson first said this is out of the question. However, Henderson said after a meeting yesterday that company officials had taken under study the union proposal for the 13 per cent wage increase but stipulating it would extend over a two-year period.

The mine produces most of the country's molybdenum, a white metal used mainly to harden steel.

"The rosary has been a powerful prayer for Christians throughout the entire history of the church," Father Hamblin said.

"Whenever Christianity has been threatened, people have turned to Almighty God and his blessed mother for help. They will help us now in the troubles that have come upon our community."

LEADVILLE, Colo. (AP)—At 5 in the afternoon a church bell chimed in this two-mile-high mining city. It signals a call to prayer—a labor strike may be ended—a strike that is crippling historic Leadville's economy.

The bell is high in the tower of Annunciation Catholic Church. The Rev. James B. Hamblin, pastor, arranged for a rosary service daily at 5 p. m. until a strike is settled at the Climax Molybdenum Co. Father Hamblin tugs the bell rope himself.

About 1,100 workers have been on strike since July 21 for higher wages at the Climax mine, farther up the valley.

Cacti Just Have To Go Thirsty

By The Associated Press

There wasn't enough rain in Texas Friday to give a cactus a good drink.

Longview had 43 of an inch in the 24 hours ending at 6:30 p.m. Thursday and Galveston a 7-d Houston reported traces. A light shower northeast of McKinney was the only rainfall reported overnight.

Highs Thursday varied from 109 degrees at Presidio to 89 at Corpus Christi.

Dawn temperatures Friday ranged mostly through the 70s.

Justice in Government

THE QUALITIES OF CHARACTER AND CONDUCT THAT SHOULD BE SHOWN BY THOSE WHO EXERCISE AUTHORITY OVER OTHERS

Scripture—Deuteronomy 16:18-20; 17:14-20; II Samuel 8:1-9; I Kings 2:1-4; 3:1-14; Amos 5:11-15; Romans 13:1-5.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL. WHILE the words concerning the character of men in high government positions were written many centuries ago, they apply as much to our times as they did to ancient days.

In the pages of our newspapers we too often read of men (and women) who abuse their positions of trust to enrich themselves through embezzlement, dishonesty, graft, etc.

Let us read about the quality of character of the men the Lord said should be chosen to judge in Israel.

The Israelites were near the end of their wanderings toward the land of promise, when they listened to these commandments: "Judges and officers shall thou make thee in all thy gates, which the Lord thy God giveth thee, throughout thy tribes; and they shall judge the people with just judgment."

"Thou shalt not wrest judgment; thou shalt not respect persons, neither take a gift: for a gift doth blind the eyes of the wise, and pervert the words of the righteous."

"That which is altogether just shalt thou follow, that thou mayest live, and inherit the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee."—Deuteronomy 16:18-20.

Dr. Wilbur M. Smith suggests that the younger classes might be asked to name some of the authorities in their own community, the mayor, superintendent or principal of schools, a judge, sheriff, etc. "The older classes will find in this lesson warnings directed to those who hold positions of authority and who might be tempted toward embezzlement, graft or injustice."

Even Solomon, that monarch who was noted for his wisdom, who loved the Lord and "walked in the statutes of his father David" was not perfect. He had many wives and through them, we are told, he "sacrificed in high places" to idols.

Nevertheless we have a very rewarding glimpse into his character in the following episode: Solomon went to Gibeon to sacrifice to the Lord, and one night the Lord appeared to him in a dream, saying, "Ask what I shall give thee."

Solomon thanked the Lord for all the mercies shown his father and himself, saying that now that he was king, "I am but a little child; I know not how to go out or come in." As ruler over a great people who were the chosen of the Lord, he asked: "Give therefore Thy servant an understanding heart to judge Thy people, that I may discern between good and bad: for who is able to judge this Thy so great a people?"—I Kings 3:5-9.

Amos was aware of the wickedness of his day, calling it "an evil time." "For I know your manifold transgressions, and your mighty sins: they afflict the just, they take a bribe, and they turn sons, neither take a gift: for a gift doth blind the eyes of the wise, and pervert the words of the righteous."

"Let every soul be subject unto the higher powers. . . . Whosoever therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God. . . . For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. . . . Do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise of the same."—Romans 13:1-3.

"Render therefore to all their dues: tribute to whom tribute is due. . . . honor to whom honour. Owe no man anything, but to love one another: for he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law."—Romans 13:7-8.

I am the Want Ad

My mission is to serve humanity without regard to creed or position or time or place. I herald the arrival of the new born, I serve them through life and announce their demise. I am the servant of the poor, the commissioner of the rich.

With each sunrise and each sunset I go forth with new missions to perform. Each new day new thousands rely upon me to fill their needs and satisfy their wants.

I search out all manner of things for all manner of persons. I find the castle for the newlyweds, a home for those grown weary and aged. I find a business for a future giant of industry and a little shop for a widow's livelihood. I alter the course of millions, and many times the future of maid and man is of my determination. I recover the lost pets of weeping children, and restore lost persons to anxious friends.

I sing the praise of artisans, proclaim the skill of craftsmen. I find labor for the man of brawn as well as opportunity for trained and active minds. I am the Fabled Dwarfs, Aladdin's Lamp and the Magic Wand of modern times. Millions in trade are consummated through me, yet the value of my service is not to be measured in silver or gold. Even rogues avail themselves of my power and filch from those who trust me.

I am an index of trends, a barometer of commerce, harbinger of coming events. I am a byword in countless thousands of homes, the first thought in many times of need. My speed of action, the sureness of my success, matches the completeness of my public acceptance. Within my lines are the sad stories and the glad stories of everyday living that go to make up life. I perform in my own individual way and for me there is no substitute.

No other medium, no other method, plan or scheme can duplicate my service. In multiple, I become the world's greatest market of services and things. I am born of the people and have lived and grown by their insistence and over the protests of those who held my destiny. I have become an institution of service big enough and broad enough to do anything for anybody at any time — I AM THE WANT AD!

16 Dead, One Missing After Ship Collision

NEWPORT, R. I. (AP)—Sixteen crewmen are dead, one is missing and 25 others are hospitalized in the wake of yesterday's early morning oil tanker crash at Newport Harbor entrance.

The 15 who perished in the fire were members of the crew of the Gulfco, a 10,340-ton vessel, empty and outward bound. Among them were Capt. Monteville Eden, and his second officer, Raymond C. Day, both of Port Arthur, Tex.

Those in hospitals had injuries ranging from critical to minor. The second tanker involved was the S. E. Graham, a 250-foot motor ship inbound with over half a million gallons of gasoline in her tanks.

Today she was still burning furiously and Coast Guard officers predicted the fire would rage for at least five days unless the ship could be torpedoed.

Macmillan In Cyprus Parley

ATHENS, Greece (AP)—British Prime Minister Macmillan and Greek Premier Constantine Karamanlis met today amid diplomatic optimism that they might reach some agreement about Cyprus.

The hopes in diplomatic circles were based on recent toning down of the government-controlled Turkish press toward the Cyprus problem and a U.S. aid grant to Turkey which the diplomats felt might "take her mind off Cyprus."

NEWPORT, R. I. (AP)—Fifteen men were killed and 25 injured, four critically, when two tankers collided off Newport yesterday. One Turkish steamer was reported missing by the Coast Guard.

U.N. Begins Middle East Meet Today

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The U.N. General Assembly begins an emergency special session on the Middle East late today, out of a long hiatus of business until next Tuesday or Wednesday.

Before adjournment, the Soviet Union was expected to make its usual fruitless move to seat Communist China in place of the Chinese Nationalist delegate.

The special Assembly session was called by unanimous vote of the Security Council last night on a compromise resolution. The resolution got both the U. S. and Soviet votes by avoiding specific mention of the original U.S. charge of indirect aggression by the United Arab Republic in Lebanon and (2) the Soviet demand for immediate withdrawal of U.S. forces from Lebanon and British forces from Jordan.

But Soviet Delegate Arkady A. Sobolev, after dropping his resolution, said the main purpose of the emergency session still should be to devise measures for the troop withdrawals.

U.S. Delegate Henry Cabot Lodge told the Council the special session should deal with broad and fundamental problems of the troubled area, going beyond stop-gap measures to stabilize the immediate situation. Informed sources said the U.S. delegation was working hard on a far-reaching political-economic program for the Middle East which it plans to submit.

With the Middle East consigned for the moment to the General Assembly, the big powers still were working for propaganda mileage with cross demands for summit conferences.

Lodge and Britain's U.N. representative, Sir Pierson Dixon, charged Soviet Premier Khrushchev with first accepting and then rejecting a Security Council meeting of heads of government to discuss the Middle East. This happened after Khrushchev visited Peiping last week and "future historians someday may know why," Lodge said.

British Prime Minister Macmillan messaged Khrushchev that he still was anxious to take part in a summit conference to end the cold war, and Sobolev told newsmen he thought the Assembly's Middle East session might be a first step toward a summit conference on all major issues dividing the Kremlin and the Western Allies.

No Bond For Teel Slayer

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—No attempt will be made to obtain bond for Connie Nicholas, divorcee accused of killing business executive Forrest Teel, during the month or so it takes a Marion County grand jury to consider her case.

Frank A. Symmes, attorney for the 42-year-old newsmen said he thought it would be cruel to obtain a short period of freedom for his client if the grand jury should send her back to jail.

Mrs. Nicholas failed in a suicide attempt after her lover of 15 years had died of pistol bullet wounds July 31. She appeared in Indianapolis Municipal Court Thursday, accompanied by a maternal uncle, and pleaded innocent to murder.

Under Indiana law, a person can be brought to trial for murder only on a grand jury indictment. The murder affidavit was merely a holding charge pending grand jury investigation.

'Dixie Dugan' Story Line Writer Dies

NEW YORK, N.Y. (AP)—J. P. McEvoy, 61, novelist, playwright and poet, died today at his home. McEvoy, who had been ill for several months, died of a stroke. With him at his bedside were his wife and four children.

McEvoy had been a roving editor for Reader's Digest magazine for 20 years. He wrote at least 10 Broadway plays and revues, beginning with "The Pottery" in 1923 and ending in 1957 with "Stars in Your Eyes."

At The Base, Man, Not In The Road

MALIBU, Calif. (AP)—Two men met about an hour earlier than they had planned Thursday night. The cars they were driving sideswiped each other 30 miles south of where they were to meet.

The drivers were Jack Hope, comedian Bob Hope's brother and business manager; and Leroy W. Thomas.

Abandoned Glasscock Wildcat Getting Strawn Tests Today

Tidewater Oil Co. is testing the Strawn section at the Glasscock wildcat which completed earlier this week from the Devonian as a gas strike.

Operator Thursday was testing both zones and came up with an estimated gas rate of 1,010,000 cubic feet per day along with some distillate.

The project is a re-entered abandoned wildcat about 17 miles southwest of Garden City.

In the Dunigan field, Sinclair No. 2-B Waddell was still waiting on cement to set, all string for tests in the Ellenburger and Strawn sections. The project is C SW SE, 20-30-6N, T&P Survey.

Midwest No. 1 Clayton, a wildcat 12 miles northwest of Gail, deepened to 8,041 feet in shale. The exploration is C SE SE, 16-31-6N, T&P Survey.

The Moncrief No. 1 Miller drilled in the Mississippian today at 8,555 feet after finding the Strawn fluid. Operator tested the Strawn from 8,292-830 feet with tool open one hour. Recovery was 6,880 feet of salt water and 752 feet of salty mud. It is a wildcat seven miles northeast of Gail, C NE SW, 32-30-6N, T&P Survey.

Texas National No. 2 Richardson, an Ellenburger wildcat west of the Triple (Pennsylvanian) field, drilled in anhydrite and salt at 2,725 feet today. The 12,500-foot project is 2,047 feet from north and 660 feet from east lines, 77-M, EL&RR Survey, 10 miles northwest of Lamesa.

Texas Seaboard No. 1 Nowell, a Pennsylvanian wildcat 10 miles southeast of Lamesa, was bottomed at 4,033 feet in lime and preparing to run a drillstem test from the Devonian earlier this week.

Farmers Wage War On Insects

Boll worm infestation is general in cotton fields all over Howard County and cotton growers are now busy waging poison warfare on the pests, Jimmy Taylor, county agent, said Friday.

Taylor said he had visited scores of cotton fields in all parts of the county and had found worms on all. The degree of infestation varies somewhat, he said, but the hatch seems to be heavier in the area 10 miles north of Big Spring.

He said that initial poisoning attacks have already been launched by most farmers and that some are preparing for the second treatment.

The state agricultural department recommends two poisonings for the worms—for a spray, the formula calls for Toxaphene-DDT at the rate of 1½ quarts per acre; for dust, either 2-10-40 or 3-10-40, or 20 per cent Toxaphene and 80 per cent sulphur applied at the rate of 12 pounds per acre.

Taylor said the average cost per acre per poisoning treatment will run approximately $1.

13 Gifts Added To Barbecue Fund

Another 13 names were added today to the list of donors for the Cap Rock REA barbecue.

The total rose to 173 and the local businessmen have given $1,051 for financing the feed. Smith Transport Co., Montgomery Ward & Co., X-Ray Barber Shop, Faye's Flowers, Hilburn Appliance, Edwards Heights Pharmacy, Wagon Wheel Drive-In and Hemphill-Wells Co.

Ike May Not Send Reply To Khrushchy

WASHINGTON (AP)—With a U. N. General Assembly session already called, President Eisenhower may decide against making a formal reply to his newest letter from Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

Khrushchev suggested the Assembly meeting Tuesday in a note which rejected earlier proposals for a summit meeting of the U. N. Security Council. Eisenhower accepted the idea promptly in a public statement, and the Council ordered an Assembly meeting which starts late today.

Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles were reported to have the possibility of a reply under consideration. But State Department officials said various other points raised by Khrushchev might be adequately dealt with in the General Assembly debate on the Middle East situation.

Liquor Charge Follows Chase

A Tahoka man, driving a 1956 Plymouth in which he had three cases of beer, failed in an attempt to escape from Kel Davis, highway patrol officer, Thursday afternoon because he wasn't familiar with the sharp turns on a country road.

The result was: The overturning of his car, the seizure of the illegal beer and his own arrest for illegal transportation.

Davis said that he saw the man, Claude F. Renfro, 47, in his car and that the man was driving erratically. He turned around planning to interrogate the driver. He said that Renfro raced away at 85 miles an hour. He turned off U. S. 87 at a point 15 miles north of Big Spring and sped down a country road. Two miles further, the road turned sharply. Renfro was unaware of the turn and was going too fast to make it.

The car went out of control and flipped over. Davis said the driver was not hurt but the car was extensively damaged. The beer, in cans, survived but was dented rather badly.

Renfro was placed in Howard County jail and charges of unlawful transportation lodged against him in county court.

Mercy Death Shakes Home

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP)—The home of Joseph H. and Barbara Donelson was quiet, but tense, as the first hour of Thursday passed. Death hovered near.

On the first floor sun porch lay Nicholas W. Delzeit, 89. Mrs. Donelson's father. Since 1951, when he retired from his farm, he had lived with Joe and Barbara. Most of that time Delzeit was in a wheel chair or on crutches.

Since June, he had been bedfast. Several times in July he almost died, and Wednesday night a priest administered last rites.

That night at dinner, Joe said: "When grandpa passes away we will take a two-month vacation."

Joe went to bed. A 50-year-old carpenter foreman, he had become ill on the job Monday, and had been taking it easy at home.

Mrs. Donelson, two sisters, a daughter and a son-in-law sat in the kitchen, sipping coffee.

"I heard a sound like a venetian blind being snapped shut fast," Mrs. Donelson told police later.

"I walked into the living room and he (Joe) was standing there with the gun in his hand.

"He handed it to me and said: 'Here, I done it. Call the police.'"

On the porch, Delzeit was dead from a shotgun wound in the head.

Donelson told police he couldn't remember anything after he went to bed Wednesday night. He was taken to jail. No charges have been filed.

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The late gangster Al Capone's attorney has pleaded innocent to a bad check charge. Trial for Abraham Teitelbaum was set for Sept. 29 in Municipal Court. He was arrested last month on a complaint that he had cashed a $100 worthless check at a market.

Adlai Sees China As Summit Slayer

WARSAW (AP)—Adlai Stevenson called for a much wider and freer exchange of ideas and information.

"We must not only learn more from each other but more about each other," Stevenson said.

Stevenson said his talk with Premier Khrushchev Tuesday had "served to measure the gulch which unhappily divides our countries."

He said he and the Soviet leader had agreed that the goals and interests "that unite us must prevail."

Stevenson urged competition between the two nations in constructive rather than destructive fields.

"More important—that competition between great, responsible powers," he said, "is cooperation and that means give and take and common goals."

Stevenson traveled extensively during his stay in Russia. Top leaders he met in addition to Khrushchev included Deputy Premier A. I. Mikoyan and Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko.

Presentation Of Play Cancelled

The Howard County Junior College production of the one act play, "Minor Miracle," was presented at the Cap Rock Electric Cooperative annual membership meeting today as scheduled.

The play, which was an award-winning presentation among competition of several colleges last year, was canceled because one of its members, Joe Beard, was offered a screen test in Hollywood. He departed a few days ago and a replacement for his role as a Swede in a lost raft could not be found.

Others to have been in the cast included Doyle Phillips, Chuck Worley, and Jack Culpepper. John Austin had been assisting in direction.

Legion Post Will Sponsor GOC Unit

Sponsorship of the local Ground Observer Corps unit was assumed by the Howard County Post of the American Legion at its Thursday night meeting.

Meeting with the Legionnaires was S. Sgt. Alfred Buchalter, military representative of the corps which operates under the direction of the Dallas Filter Center. The Big Spring unit will operate under the direction of Miller Harris, Legion national defense committee chairman.

An invitation has been issued by Harris for voluntary observers to assist in manning the post here. A training meeting has been scheduled for Aug. 28 at the Legion Hut and interested persons will be asked to attend.

According to Sgt. Buchalter only a short training period is required to qualify members of the unit for observer duties. Practice alerts are to be scheduled monthly.

Legion sponsorship will not change the status of membership in the Corps, Harris said. Present members of the unit are urged to remain active and membership in What is gathered around the world for you...each day?

ANSWER: NEWS: The daily newspaper is the focal point for news reports from all around the world—and just around the corner. It's an exciting business gathering the news and then printing it out in the daily newspaper to just about everyone in any community. And it is all accomplished in a matter of only a few hours. It's the excitement and immediacy of the daily newspaper that makes it eagerly read every day—and makes it one of the big reasons why advertisers use it.

HOW IS PROPERTY KEEPING?
That's a question that we are asked most every day. Frankly, the way property "moves" when it is offered for sale depends a lot on how it is handled. For this reason we suggest that you consult our firm. Moving property is our business! If you really want to BUY or SELL—Place full confidence in us.
WE WON'T LET YOU DOWN!

DEAR ABBY

BAN VISITORS

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I am a patient in a hospital and have multiple ailments, but let's not go into that. I am practically a permanent invalid, but my problem is not me, it's my visitors. Most of my visitors are better for me than medicine, but this one aunt and uncle who visit me irritate me so much I wish they'd stay home. They come in complaining about how hard it was for them to get up here. Then they start telling me about all the bad news in the family. Then they complain about how bad business is and also how poor their health is and end up telling me MY illness is all in my head and I should snap out of it. What do you do with people like that?

SICK OF RELATIVES
DEAR SICK: Patients who are irritated by visitors should enlist the co-operation of their doctors. Simply have the doctor tell them they are not to visit unless called—and don't call them.

DEAR ABBY: We adopted a lovely baby after having him for two months we had to return him to his unwed mother. We are both heartbroken and it will probably take a long time to get another one. I would like your advice as to what we should do with all the gifts people gave us for this baby. We acknowledged them all immediately and most came from out of town. We feel funny now because we have the baby gifts and no baby. My closest friends said they'd be hurt if we returned them. Awaiting your helpful reply.

SAD PARENTS
DEAR PARENTS: Keep the gifts for your next baby. The gifts would want it that way. Good luck!

DEAR ABBY: My mother-in-law is part French and has lived in France most of her life. She says the beauty operators over there have known for a long time that women who were heavy smokers in their younger years always started to grow dark mustaches after they reached 40. The glands, she says, are stimulated by nicotine. Is there any truth to this?

DEAR DOLORES: If nicotine stimulates the growth of hair (he it on a woman's face or a man's head) this is one "claim" the cigarette advertisers have not yet discovered. I'm no authority on glands or the effects of nicotine, but I suspect this tale is without foundation.

DEAR ABBY: I am the "good kid" of the family. I've always knocked myself out for my husband's relatives. When they come to visit me I make them feel so welcome with cooking, baking and cleaning up after them they never leave. My sister-in-law doesn't bother with company. She doesn't cook or bake one thing extra. She lets everything lay where they dropped it and practically ignores them. They call her a slob and it's like water rolling off a duck's back. If anybody called me a slob I'd cry for a week. Why can't I be like my sister-in-law? CLEO

DEAR CLEO: Because you're a lady—not a slob.

DEAR ABBY: Maybe this will help some other married woman to think twice before she makes a mess of her life like I did. I had been married 16 years, am 35 years old and my husband is 38. I started to work to help buy a few extras and this was my mistake. I should have stayed home where I belonged. I got mixed up with a married man. I broke up his home, my husband left me and I lost my kids. All this happened in 14 months because I thought things that money can buy were important. Take my advice, ladies. Stay home and let your husbands support you.

New Deficits May Mean Tighter Bind

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — Purists blame past government deficit spending for the postwar waves of inflation that makes balancing your family budget so tough today.

They fear that new deficits now building up will be the cause of your getting into even a tighter bind.

Economists differ on what the government can and should do to offset this inflation or to keep it within bounds.

Current deficit goes back to a combination of Sputniks and recession. Sputnik triggered a quick rise in defense spending plans. The recession has cut back on corporate incomes and to some extent on personal incomes. Even with tax relief hopes out the window, Treasury collections are off.

Combine more defense spending with less tax revenue and you go into red ink fast.

The classic way that Treasury deficit financing leads to inflation, with all its woes of a rising cost of living and a shrinking dollar, is this:

To raise the 10 to 12 billion dollars of new money the Treasury now believes it must have this fiscal year, it apparently plans to borrow from the commercial banks. The federal reserve system will see that they have enough money to lend the Treasury by increasing the money supply.

The added Treasury securities the banks take on are regarded much the same as cash and will make it possible for them to extend much more credit to any business taking off on an inflationary foot.

The classic case of too much money ready and willing to chase after goods will be with us again as in the early postwar years. But this time there will be too few goods only if demand should rise above the present over capacity to produce.

The federal government will be putting into the economy perhaps 12 billion more dollars than it will be taking out in taxes. State and local governments also are borrowing to spend.

Some estimate that by the final months of this year the three levels of government will be spending at an annual rate of nearly 95 billion dollars, or 6½ billion more than a year ago. Much of the spending will be on the cuff—inflationary.

What can hold this in check? If business recovery is enough to raise corporate earnings substantially, the Treasury will rake in more and cut its deficit some.

If an over-enthusiastic business recovery sires speculation, the Fed could turn from easy money to tight money and try to dry up as much of the new Treasury money in the commercial banks as possible.

The administration, which speeded up the pace of government spending to ease the recession, could slacken the outgo again.

Congress could cut back some of the spending programs it passed or is still considering as anti-recession measures.

Heavenly Happenstances Leave Utah Folk Awed

SALT LAKE CITY (AP)—A couple of heavenly happenstances jarred and mystified Salt Lake Valley residents last evening.

First there was an explosion, later identified as a sonic boom caused by a plane breaking the sound barrier. Some observers thought they saw a missile and two chase planes in the sky. News-men were told that further information was classified, but that the military knew of no missiles over Utah at the time.

Moments later came the balloons — two of them, one leaking an odd-smelling gas. They floated down from the sky and landed southeast of Salt Lake City as Henry Engh, 45, and his family stood in their yard discussing the blast noise.

The boom thunderclapped over some 30 miles of the valley, and many residents ran outside to see what caused it. Many reported seeing the craft overhead — two tiny jets high in the sky following a larger, black craft. No damage was reported.

Maj. Gen. Maxwell E. Rich, Utah's adjutant general, identified the noise as a sonic boom but added: "All other information about it is classified."

He said he saw no connection between the boom and the unmarked balloons. He ordered an Air National Guard unit to take charge of the plastic objects and try to identify them. The Weather Bureau said they weren't theirs.

As for the boom, the Strategic Air Command headquarters at Omaha said it had no operational missile units in the Utah area.

Other missile centers and the Defense Department said there was no missile firing yesterday.

12 Miles A Day For Constituents

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Joe Kilgore (D-Tex.) complained of being tired each day when he got home from his congressional duties.

But Mrs. Kilgore suspected it wasn't just those weighty decisions.

She was right. She bought him a pedometer and discovered he walked 12 miles per day back and forth from his office to the Capitol and to committee hearings.

Slicing Stamps Called Illegal

PITTSBURGH (AP)—The local post office received a letter this week with a 3-cent stamp and one-third of another on the envelope in an effort to meet the new four-cent postage rate.

Postmaster James C. Smith said this violated a law which prohibits mutilation of stamps.

Another letter had half of a two-cent stamp in addition to the three-cent stamp on the envelope.
