U. N. Action In Mid-East Is Proposed

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — Western diplomats were reported today to be backing a Norwegian plan giving Dag Hammarskjold a major role in initiating President Eisenhower's Middle East peace plan.

Informed sources said Norway was busy lining up sponsors for a resolution, which may be submitted before nightfall, to the emergency session of the 81-nation General Assembly.

The United States and Britain, while working with Norway, have decided for tactical reasons not to be sponsors, informants said. Some neutral diplomats indicated the plan had a good chance of winning the required two-thirds majority.

Main points were:

1. The U.N. secretary general would be given responsibility for making whatever arrangements he believes necessary to safeguard the independence of Lebanon and Jordan so as to permit the withdrawal of U.S. and British troops from those countries.

2. Hammarskjold would be asked to study the question of setting up an economic foundation for the Middle East to help raise living standards.

3. Hammarskjold would also be asked to study the problem of establishing a mobile U.N. peace force for the Middle East.

Under the proposed plan, the secretary general would report back to the Assembly by Sept. 30. This means the Eisenhower proposals for economic development and a U.N. peace force would come before the regular Assembly session opening Sept. 16.

Informed sources said there was no specific directive that Hammarskjold go to the Middle East personally, but it was pointed out he had ample authority to do so if he felt it necessary.

Details of the plan became known as the Assembly pushed ahead with its third day of general debate.

The situation was complicated Thursday when Jordan unexpectedly announced it would not accept a widely-backed plan to station U.N. observers in Jordan to replace British forces.

The American and British delegations to the U.N. Assembly's emergency session on the Middle East hoped, however, that Jordan's turnaround was only a token gesture. "A lady never says yes right away," one Western official said.

Jordanian Delegate Abdel Moneim Rifai jolted the Assembly yesterday by declaring his government would not agree to permit either U.N. observers or military units on Jordan territory.

"What Jordan needs and asks for," he said, "is material assistance to reinforce its own army and security forces."

Such a refusal could torpedo efforts by the United States and Britain to put through a formal proposal for replacement of their troops in Lebanon and Jordan with U.N. contingents.

Both the West and the Soviet Union had been in tacit agreement that U.N. units of some sort should take over.

Reasons To Be Happy

The parents hadn't seen the girl for 17 months and were doubly happy when a last minute switch took her off the passenger list of the ill-fated KLM Dutch airliner which crashed at sea. Marjike boarded another flight at Amsterdam and arrived safely in the U.S. (AP Wirephoto).

The plane had climbed into a violent storm. A KLM official said whatever occurred came suddenly, possibly an explosion.

A spokesman for KLM, announcing the search for survivors was being given up, said, "nothing further has been seen today in the area."

He said that in the event of "some special circumstances developing there, a further search may be carried out, but at the moment there is no possibility of this arising."

A ship which recovered five bodies said only one—that of a boy—was wearing a lifebelt.

Flight 607E from Amsterdam to New York was last heard from 35 minutes after taking off from Shannon Airport for Gander, Nfld., after a refueling stop. Capt. F. A. E. Roelofs radioed that it was flying normally at 16,000 feet.

Then silence. Some 10 hours later a British airline pilot saw spots on his radar screen. A Royal Air Force patrol plane flew over and sighted wreckage.

The French trawler General Le Clerc sped to the scene and picked up eight bodies.

The British tanker B. P. Distributor picked up another three bodies plus a passport, personal papers and other flotsam. Twelve other ships hurried into the area. The search continued throughout the night.

John S. Gleason Jr., national legion commander, said Thursday the President will address the opening session if the United Nations has completed by then consideration of the Middle East crisis.

The convention begins Sept. 1, Labor Day. Former President Harry S. Truman is to address the group Sept. 3. Also scheduled to speak is Secretary of Defense Neil H. McElroy.

Both men were removed from the critical list Thursday at an Ashland hospital.

Kidnap Loot Enters Teamster Inquiry

Kennedy Looks for Greenlease Ransom Clues

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gus Zapas, an Indianapolis Teamster official and former convict, today denied in the Senate racketeering hearings that he talked with two Chicagoans in 1953 about getting rid of "hot money—stolen money, kidnap money."

The hearing was recessed for luncheon without development of this reference.

Some time ago, Robert F. Kennedy, the committee counsel, said it was seeking information about the missing $300,000 from the ransom paid in 1954 by the parents of little Robert Greenlease of Kansas City, kidnaped and slain in 1953.

Kennedy was asked by reporters during the recess whether his question related to this.

"I'm not going to say," Kennedy replied, then added: "I expect it will come up some time during the hearings."

"We don't have the solution to what happened to the ransom," Kennedy said.

Kennedy threw the question at Zapas against a background of inquiry into the case of Dave Probstin, an Indianapolis lawyer-businessman who mysteriously disappeared in 1955 on a trip to St. Louis.

The Greenlease kidnapers were caught in St. Louis and about half the $600,000 ransom from the October 1953 crime was recovered or accounted for.

Zapas had denied earlier that he ever threatened to kill Probstin.

Blonde secretary Betty Starrett told the committee Thursday that she once heard Zapas threaten to kill Probstin. But she said that was a normal manner of speaking for Zapas.

LOAN FROM HOFFA Among Probstin's Indianapolis business interests was a taxi company financed partly through a loan from Teamsters President James R. Hoffa. There has been testimony that Zapas and other Indianapolis Teamsters officials finally took over the company.

Another witness today, Joseph G. Wood, an Indianapolis attorney, testified that Probstin called him to his home June 5 and told him he was about to undertake a dangerous mission. He said Probstin was a scared man, and asked him to help look after Mrs. Probstin's interests if he did not return.

He said Probstin told him he was about to undertake a dangerous mission from which he might not return, and asked him to help look after the interests of Mrs. Probstin if the worst should come.

Wood pictured Probstin as secretive about the exact nature of the danger.

"Probstin told me he was in great danger," Wood related. "He said he had become involved with some people he considered dangerous. He was going away on a mission he considered very dangerous."

"He was a scared man."

It'll Take Lots Of Luck If Rocket Gets Close To Moon

By JOHN A. BARBOUR
AP Science Reporter
NEW YORK (AP)—Science has made a date with that mysterious lady, the moon. But will it be able to keep it?

As early as next Sunday, scientific marksmen hope to set off the first moonbound rocket. But they will consider themselves lucky indeed if they bring off a rendezvous.

Here are some of the problems they must solve:

The moon is at least 220,000 miles out in space. But scientists must aim at any empty point, 137,000 miles ahead of the moon's course, and hope that both moon and rocket arrive at about the same time. That would be about 2 1/2 days after firing.

Granted perfect aim—and you can imagine what a small error could do in 200,000-plus miles—the three-stage rocket still must fire perfectly. This means boosting its speed to about 25,000 miles an hour needed to escape the earth's gravity.

Given this initial speed, the rocket will gradually slow under gravity's pull until nearing the moon, it will be traveling only about 3,000 miles an hour. In fact, its average speed for the trip may be only about 5,000 miles an hour.

The speed is important. If the rocket slows too quickly, it will fall short of its objective. If it doesn't slow enough, it can zoom past and on into space.

What the scientists say they would really like to do is send up a rocket that would orbit around the moon a few times and then plunge back toward earth, and probable destruction.

The rocket, in its few turns around the moon, would take a series of closeup pictures—inclined never-before-seen shots of the moon's hidden side—and relay those back to earth.

Woman's Death Probed; Husband Under Charge

James Warner Garner, 48, Midland truck driver, arrested here late Wednesday afternoon on orders of Dist. Atty. Joseph Mims, Midland, has been released from custody in Midland on posting $3,000 bond. He is accused of assault with attempt to commit murder.

Garner was arrested by Tommy Cole and Jack Hackney, deputy sheriffs, at the Big Spring State Hospital, where his wife, paralyzed and dying, was a patient.

The woman, 49-year-old, died several hours later at the hospital.

Mims ordered the arrest of Garner and requested Walter Grice, justice of the peace, to order an autopsy performed on the body of the woman. Mrs. Garner was admitted to the hospital on Monday. Mims said there were bruises on her body and indications she had been beaten. She was paralyzed when admitted to the hospital.

Garner was in the hospital room with his wife when deputy sheriffs came for him Wednesday afternoon at 5:30 p.m. Told he was under arrest, he was taken to the county jail and surrendered to Midland county officers.

Mims' office said that no revision has been made Friday in the original complaint filed against Garner—that he was still charged with assault with attempt to commit murder. The complaint was drawn and filed prior to the woman's death.

Mims was quoted as saying that neighbors of the Garner couple had told him of a fight at the residence on Aug. 5. Neighbors also informed Mims that afterward, the woman was found in her bed, paralyzed. The neighbors reported to the district attorney that they took care of her for several days.

On just Monday, it was said, Garner sought to have his wife committed to the Big Spring State Hospital but was told two physicians would have to see her and make recommendations. Apparently this was not done.

She was brought to the hospital by her husband and admitted. Her condition grew steadily worse and she died Wednesday night.

Guilford Jones, district attorney, said that Mims had called him and asked that he see to it that an autopsy was ordered.

Mims' office said that a "verbal" report was taken and that report were not announced.

Funeral services for the woman were held at 2 p.m. Friday in Eastland Cemetery at Midland under direction of Newmie W. Ellis Funeral Home.

Student Grouping Plan To Be Used In Schools At Galveston

GALVESTON — A new student grouping plan, designed to place each pupil according to his learning ability, has been inaugurated in the Galveston Public Schools.

The program—which even includes popularizing the lone-dreaded summer school—emphasizes the needs of the individual. "Our aim here is to produce the best adult citizen and help him to find his place in our community and to earn his own living to the best of his ability," Dr. Morgan E. Evans, superintendent of the Galveston schools, says.

"The Galveston Plan" does not claim to be completely new. It has borrowed some ideas from other schools, adapted other innovations, and incorporated them into a program tailored for Galveston students and their needs.

"We attempted to efficiently and effectively improve the instructional program without jeopardizing the good aspects of the program we have had for many years—in fact it is a program to make the good better," Dr. Evans said.

The plan is based, not on one pattern of grouping, but on a multitude of groupings. Some elementary students will be grouped according to ability, others as to achievement, and others on both ability and achievement.

Individual courses will follow the same pattern of instruction but the intensity will vary according to the learning abilities of the students within the group.

There is to be nothing iron-clad about assignments of students to the special groups, Dr. Evans says. Principals and teachers are to evaluate continually the work of the individual students and reassign them as they either advance beyond or fall behind other students in their group.

The gifted student will be allowed to progress as fast as his abilities permit. The plan includes the introduction of algebra to bright junior high students.

The Galveston plan also includes other innovations. Specially qualified Spanish teachers will rotate between schools to improve the quality of instruction and create more interest in foreign language. Dr. Evans also plans a new trend for summer schools. "It used to be that summer school was a place where the failures made up work for a credit but I am hoping this can be less and less as we try enrichment programs in the summer on a fuller scale," he said.

Intensified summer course, already started at Ball High School, have advantages that there are fewer distractions, classes are smaller and the teacher has an opportunity to give each pupil more attention.

The summer school, he believes, should provide an opportunity for students to pursue intensively subjects in which they have a special interest.

$114,000 In Wreck Damages Sought By E. L. Whatley

A law suit asking $114,000 damages was filed Wednesday afternoon in 118th District Court.

Plaintiff in the case is E. L. Whatley, who sues in his own name and that of his wife, Mary Elizabeth Whatley. He is asking $114,600 of the Distributors Trucking Inc., as result of an accident which occurred on the evening of May 11, 1958.

Whatley alleges in his petition that he, his wife and their 10-year-old daughter, Suzanne, were en route from Odessa on U. S. 80 on the evening of the date named. They were traveling at about 50 miles an hour, he said, when suddenly they were confronted by a large van stopped on the pavement. The location was 1.1 miles east of the Martin-Howard County line.

Unable to stop, Whatley said he crashed into the rear of the truck. Mrs. Whatley was gravely injured and Whatley suffered painful injuries, his petition recites. He claims negligence on the part of the truck operator as cause of the collision.

IRS To Transfer Jim Scrimshire

Jim Scrimshire, revenue officer in the Big Spring U. S. Internal Revenue Service for the past four years, is being transferred from the local office to Odessa. The transfer is effective on Sept. 3.

Scrimshire will be replaced here by Joseph King who is coming to Big Spring from Odessa. Scrimshire said that he would be doing similar work to that he performs here in Odessa plus special training for supervisory assignment.

possible advancement in his career.

Forgery Suspects Are Returned Here

Ernest J. Voss and Lawrence P. Evenson, who have been held in Midland County pending action of the Midland County Grand jury, have been returned to the Howard County jail. They are charged with forgery in the complaint here. The Midland grand jury did not indict the men. They had been charged with forgery. They are being detained in the jail here in lieu of $1,000 bail set in their case here.

Jurors Notified

Sixty jurors for petit jury duty in 118th District court and 20 persons from which the grand jury will be chosen are being notified by the office of the sheriff to report to the court on Monday morning, Aug. 25. The grand jury panel is to report at 9 a. m. and the petit jury panel at 10 a. m.

Hearing Is Set On FM Project

Texas Highway Department has requested the Howard County Commissioners Court to hold an open hearing on Tuesday, Aug. 19 in the commissioners court room on FM 846.

The department explained in a letter that when a road project passes through a village or town, a hearing must be held at which residents can voice opposition they may have to the program. The state proposes to develop FM 846, a five-mile strip of road extending north from the east terminus of the Fairview road to Knott.

The commissioners said the hearing would be at 10 a. m. and any persons interested in the project are invited to be present at the commissioners court room.

Canada Irked By U.S. Travel Restrictions

OTTAWA (AP) — The Canadians have a new gripe against their neighbor to the south — the United States is restricting travel in Canada's Northern defense areas.

Elvin Hamilton, minister for Northern affairs, told Parliament last night that U.S. officials have held up approval for several months for minor Canadian officials to visit some arctic areas.

It is a matter of "national chagrin" that American permission is required to travel around the U.S.-operated Distant Early Warning radar line that warns of planes coming from the arctic or the Soviet Union, Hamilton said.

He said he has "taken up the matter with our U.S. colleagues and have had a very friendly and favorable response." A Defense Department spokesman in Washington declined comment.

Truancy Officer Hired In Midland

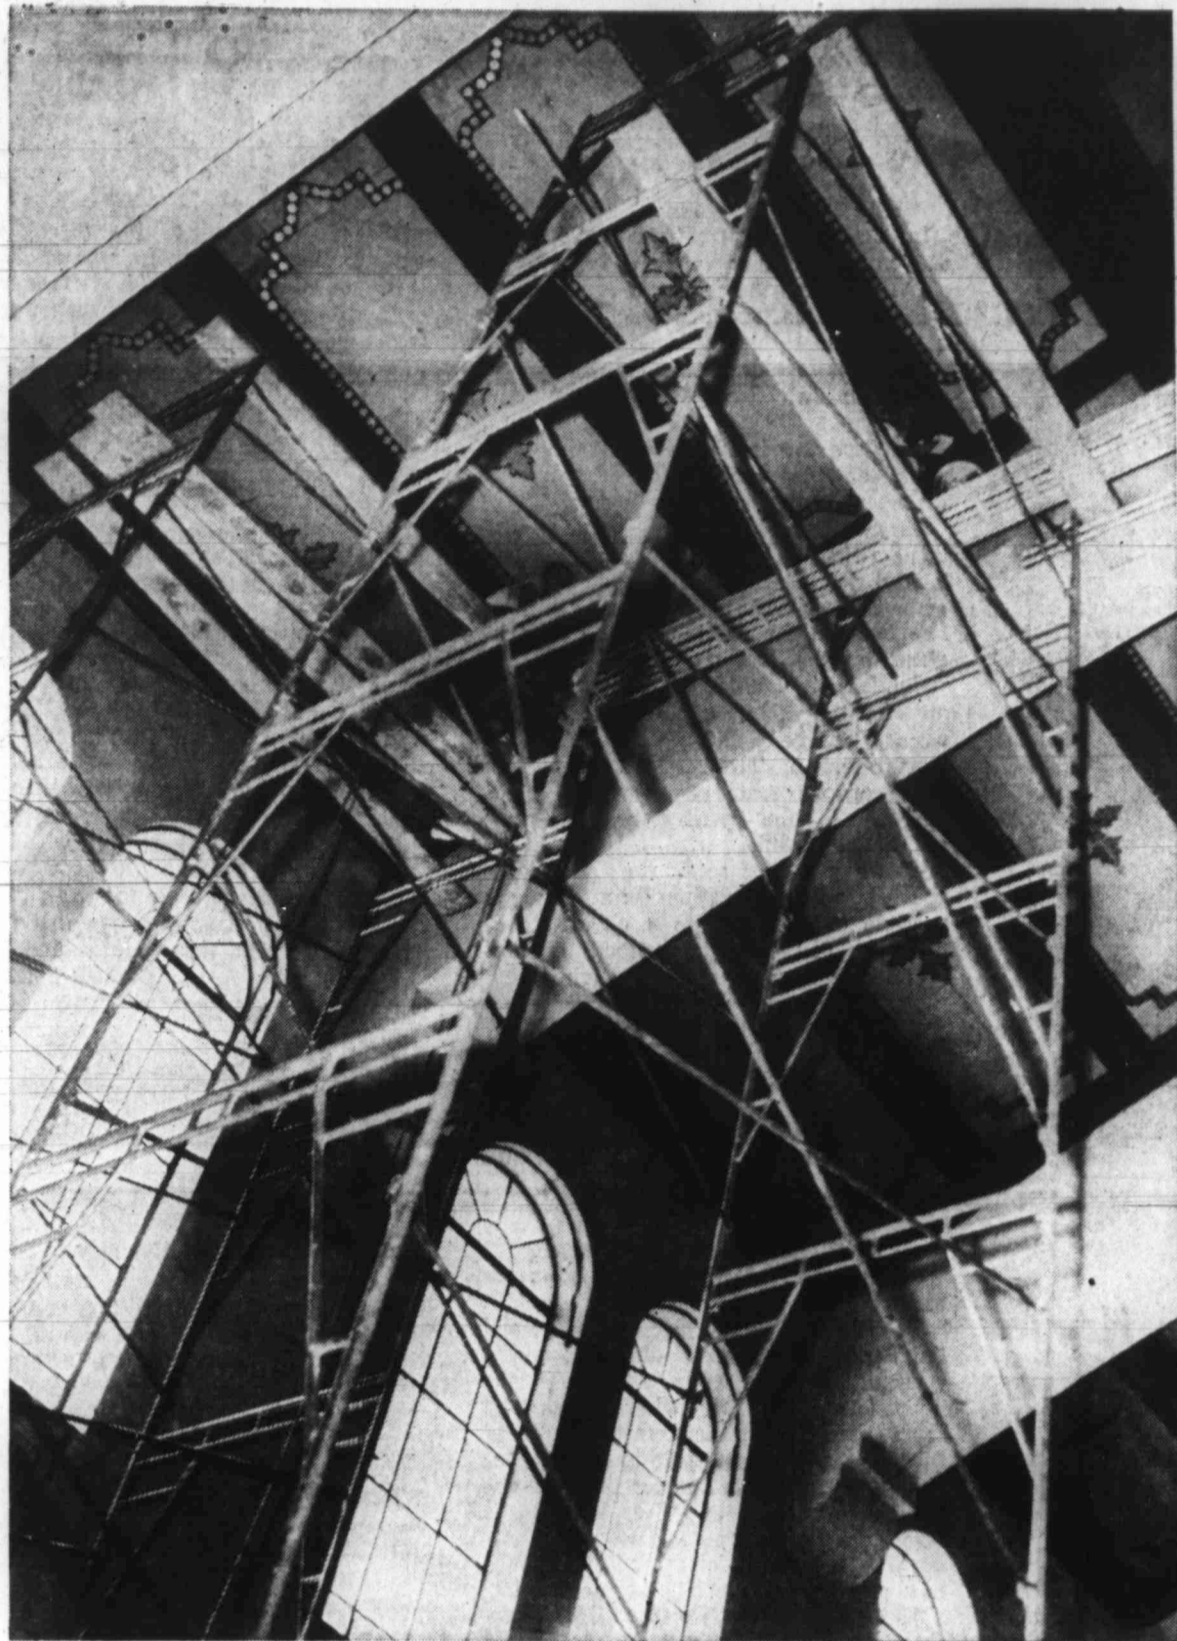

MIDLAND (AP)—Mason W. Hedrick, former director of athletics and physical education at Sul Ross State College, this week was hired to help combat truancy in Midland public schools.

Hedrick will fill the newly created job of supervisor of pupil accounting, attendance and textbooks.

A native of Houston, Hedrick holds two degrees from Hardin-Simmons. He is a former coach and superintendent at Roscoe.

Midland Becomes Bird Sanctuary

MIDLAND (AP)—Midland now is an official sanctuary for birds. The city council this week declared the city a bird sanctuary and outlawed any shooting of the feathery little creatures. Action followed a request of the Midland Garden Clubs.

Painters Prefer Parachutes

High above the floor of the city auditorium, Jimmy and Arthur Sundry and their helpers apply new paint to ceiling beams. Scaffolding on which the painters are working is more than 30 feet high. The "catwalk" extends all the way across the building. The Sundry Brothers have contract for repainting all interior walls and ceiling. New drapes are to be installed and seats will be refinished. New floor covering already has been installed.

Audit Finds City Records In Order

Except for the mild criticism accruing annually in regard to inadequate inventory of materials in the city warehouse, the City of Big Spring has received a clean bill of health and a pat on the back from its yearly audit.

"In general, we found good records, accurate accounting and helpful cooperation from everyone with whom we came in contact during the examination," said R. Clyde Hollingsworth, certified public accountant, in his report on the audit.

Hollingsworth renewed criticism of the stores inventory system which auditors have said was inadequate for years, however. Card records of the supplies are kept by unit, but no record of cost of the materials has been kept, he said. Nor has any com-

Huge Missile Fired For Tests

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — An advanced research rocket has been fired from the Air Force Missile Test Center to probe the earth's atmosphere.

The huge missile roared aloft last night, flashing on and off in a brief climb through the cloud-filled Florida sky. The rocket's type was not made known immediately.

The Air Force announced the rocket was a test vehicle for the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics.

Officials said the missile is being used in a program of atmospheric sampling to gain basic research information.

Scientists hope the missile will shed light on such problems as manned space flight and an intense field of radiation 600 miles up in space.

Demo Primary Voting Questioned

AUSTIN (AP)—Alleged voting irregularities during the July 26 Democratic Primary will be looked into by the attorney general's office.

The department refused yesterday to discuss details of the investigation which was announced after a group of Montgomery County citizens called on the department.

Husband And Mother Of Child Bride In Custody

SAN ANTONIO (AP)—The husband and mother of a child bride were held in jail today while police sought the girl.

Mackley Stidham, 25, and Mrs. Marriam Clary were under charges of contributing to the delinquency of 12-year-old Edna Clary.

Mrs. Clary said in an interview yesterday that she approved of her daughter's marriage which occurred after a cotton patch romance near Plainview.

"I sure did approve of this marriage," Mrs. Clary said. "If I hadn't I know she would have run away and got married anyway. She told me that if I didn't let her marry Stidham she was going to run off with him. I didn't like the idea of losing my daughter so I agreed to the wedding." Officers said they assumed the girl was with San Antonio relatives.

Dist. Atty. Hubert Green Jr. said he would ask a court to take Mrs. Clary's six other children away from her.

The county clerk at Plainview, Mildred Tucker, said she issued a marriage license July 31 to the man and girl after a woman identifying herself as Menniom Bishop made an affidavit saying the child was 15 years old. The marriage license was returned a few days later signed by H. G. Byars, Plainview Church of God minister.

It is against Texas law for a girl to marry before she is 14 even with the consent of a parent.

Actress Ann Miller To Wed Texan

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Actress Ann Miller yesterday announced Aug. 22 as the date for her wedding to oilman Bill Moss of Dallas and Midland, Tex.

They'll be married at the Congregational Church at La Jolla, Calif. The bride's attendants will include two of her chums — Actresses Linda Darnell and Kathryn Grayson.

Moss was once wed to actress Jane Withers. Miss Miller is divorced from an iron heir, Llewellyn Milner.

plete physical inventory been taken.

City officials are aware of the situation and are working to correct the problem, he added. A perpetual inventory record is being incorporated in the city's machine accounting system, recently installed.

The city has met its debt requirements promptly and apparently has carried out all requirements of bond ordinances, the auditor said.

During the last fiscal year, cash balances in banks declined from $414,293.29 to $400,065.58 while investments in securities dropped from $248,342.95 to $174,164.23. In the meantime, total net assets of the city increased $205,152.67 with net additions to fixed assets during the year amounting to $236,667.26.

While bonded debt was reduced by $136,500, new bonds totaling $12,000 were issued, leaving bonded indebtedness at $2,646,500 at the end of the year.

Hollingsworth pointed out that while the water and sewer revenue fund showed a net operating income of $279,778.25, no allowance was made for depreciation. If depreciation, interest charges, etc., were charged against the fund, the net would have been reduced to $110,000.

"It is recognized, of course, that depreciation is not often considered in municipal accounting, but it is the view of many that a utility is a business enterprise and should be self-sustaining, even if municipally owned," the accountant added.

A Bible Thought For Today

We have also a more sure word of prophecy; where unto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the day-star arise in your hearts. (2 Peter 1:19)

The Unity Of Logic

Sometime soon the U. S. Air Force will fire at Cape Canaveral, Fla., a rocket intended to reach the moon, go into orbit around that earth-satellite, and take pictures of the two-fifths of the moon's surface which has never been seen by mortal eyes. The Defense Department has warned that the chances of getting a rocket even near the moon is no better than 1 in 10. The Russians were supposed to have tried it last May 1, but failed. Shooting at the moon with the mere idea of hitting it is a comparatively simple chore compared with what the Air Force proposes to do with its first missile aimed at that target. The sheer mathematics involved in figuring out speed, direction and timing of a meeting between a tiny man-made object and the earth's lunar playmate in the illimitable spaces of the sidereal system staggers the imagination of ordinary men. But the missile the Air Force will send up is planned to do infinitely more. It is planned not only to approach the moon at the exact moment essential, but once there something inside the rocket's marvelous machinery will go into action and compel it to take orbit around the moon, there to revolve and revolve, taking pictures of that blind farther two-fifths of the moon's surface, and to send back to earth radio signals telling what conditions are like. To figure the chances of doing all this at 1 in 10 seems highly optimistic. And yet there are men of science who not only believe it possible, but are willing to stake their professional reputations on the enterprise. A year ago the thought of putting any sort of satellite into space was considered a wild dream by a few scientific experimenters. Yet it was done more than once by the Russians, who still have one such object spinning in space, and by the U. S., which still has three going round and round. These marvels are the products of pure science, meaning that in these matters there is no room for human error and disagreement, as there is in politics, economics, religion, sociology, and the concoction of a good Irish stew. There is no room for emotion, prejudice, rivalry or guile. In their personal relations with others and in emotional stresses and strains, the men of pure science are pretty much like everyone else. But in performing their seeming miracles, they put these factors aside and stick strictly to immutable principles and cold, hard reason and logic.

Our Handicap Of Truth

In their heyday the American Indian tribes were great ones for holding intertribal pow-wows to settle their differences short of war. As among other primitive people in Australia and elsewhere there was always a principal chief and someone called a "talking chief." The principal chief might do no more than say "Ugh!" from time to time; the main burden for presenting tribal arguments fell upon the talking chief. To seal the bargains arrived at in these pow-wows, the calumet, or peace pipe, was passed from hand to hand and eternal comity was vowed. The peace terms thus arrived at often did not last very long. In other words, the primitives were just like modern "civilized" man. At New York this week, before the General Assembly of the United Nations, President Eisenhower was not only the principal American chief there present, but assumed the role of talking chief as well.

Other talking chiefs will be heard from day to day, if the session doesn't bust quicker than most people expect, until the last of the 80-odd nations were represented has had its say. At the end there may be a smoking of the peace pipe, signifying that war has been averted for the moment, but the chances are against it. Rival ideas will be put forward and vigorously supported, as well as vigorously denounced and derided. Much big medicine will be cooked up, especially by the Soviet bloc and its apologists. Charges will fly as thick as snowflakes in a blizzard. Big Chief Ike and his talking sub-chiefs are handicapped because of having to approximate the truth in all they say. But the Soviet bloc and its talkers are not so handicapped. They adhere to the Hitlerian concept that the bigger the lie, the more it will be believed by the unwary and the bored.

David Lawrence The Need For Unity In Foreign Policy

WASHINGTON — Critics of American foreign policy, both inside and outside of the Democratic-controlled Congress, are having a hard time being specific. They generally bemoan what seems to them a lack of "positiveness," and they even blame the President and the Secretary of State for not having a secret microphone in the Kremlin to get minute-by-minute reports of what an erratic Khrushchev plans to do throughout the world. The tendency after every crisis is to complain either that the "intelligence" reports of the United States were not adequate or timely, or that the United States has failed somehow to checkmate Soviet moves in the world. Partisan politics and the hope for some advantageous issue from a political standpoint undoubtedly are back of most of the criticism, especially the mimeographed speeches and statements that flow from certain quarters in and around the Democratic membership of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. The doctrine that "partisanship ends at the water's edge," an American tradition, seems to have been replaced by an attitude which says, in effect, that any criticism of the United States—even if the Soviets pick it up for their own radio broadcasts—is good sniping in the game of politics-above-patriotism. The main criticism seems to center on the charge that the United States should have foresen the way things have shaped up in the Middle East. Just how is never made clear. But the idea most widely advertised is that the United States should have taken Nasser into its bosom and loaned him billions for the Aswan Dam, even though he indicated clearly beforehand that he intended to seize the Suez Canal and secretly got arms from the Soviets. Sometimes it is argued by the hindsight critics that the Western allies never should have allowed the state of Israel to be created in the first place. This is a favorite gripe, particularly among some people who want to continue to do business with the Arab countries and feel that it is expedient to apologize constantly for America's interest in Israel. There never seems to be any inclination to search the real estate titles in the Middle East and to go back far enough to discover that the people of Israel may possibly have lived there long before the Modern Arab monarchies or colonies came into being. World War I took most of Asia Minor away from Turkey and enabled some new republics and monarchies among the Arabs to start up in business. But simultaneously Israel's right to existence as the Palestinian homeland was recognized in public declarations made by the foreign secretary of Great Britain and by the President of the United States. The issue today isn't Israel, or Arabian supremacy, or "colonialism," handy as it may be to toss slogans around that reflect the prejudices of the interested parties. The real issue in the world today is the same as it was before World War I and before World War II. It's whether a single power—an authoritarian government and dictatorship—shall threaten the peaceful life of the free democracies or true republics of our times. Most of the international mischief perpetrated in the Middle East, the Far East, and inside Europe, Africa and North and South America—usually called "subversion" or "infiltration"—can be traced to an espionage apparatus of worldwide proportions financed and directed by the evil men in the Kremlin. Some glib critics still doubt that Iraq or Lebanon have been victimized by the Soviet spy rings. They call it just "people's uprising" when the king and his family are murdered and their bodies mutilated. What kind of "Arab nationalism" is it that not only assassinates kings and prime ministers but also drags through the streets the bodies of Americans deliberately removed from their hotel and killed? Wouldn't this be more realistically described as "Arab barbarism?" There is only one way to keep the peace in the world. It would have saved us participation in two world wars. It's to build militarily a strong alliance with Western nations that believe as we do, to say again and again that force will be used to secure respect for our rights, and to mean it. That's the only "positive policy" America can pursue—to be ready to go to the "brink of war" and let the world know it. But such a policy cannot succeed if there's internal disunity and if kibitzers deride firmness as "brinkmanship" and thus weaken the hand of their own government. Criticism is helpful always when it is constructive, and there isn't any difficulty recognizing when it is and when it isn't. Unity inside the United States and inside the Western alliance is worth as much militarily as many divisions of troops. (Copyright, 1958, New York Herald Tribune Inc.)

When Anything Can Happen

James Marlow

Mid-East Development Takes On Regional Aspects

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower's idea for some organization to develop the Mideast has been kicking around in one form or another for at least two years. He proposed it this week to the United Nations. This was a switch. Until now the Eisenhower administration had relied mainly on a different approach to the problem of helping the Arab countries develop industrially, agriculturally, and so on. The emphasis had been on dealing with the nations individually and giving them help individually. What Eisenhower offers now is a broad, regional Mideast development organization to be run by the Arabs themselves with the money and technical help coming from interested countries, like the United States, and from private capital. This would, if the President's words can be interpreted correctly, put the Arab-run organization outside the U. N. Almost two years ago—on Dec. 20, 1956—Sen. Hubert Humphrey (D-Minn.) suggested a regional,

Sam Dawson U.S. Business Propaganda

NEW YORK (AP) — The American businessman as well as the American diplomat is spreading the story of our type of economy to counteract the Soviet words-and-rules drive. The debate under way in the U. N. General Assembly shows that our diplomats aren't universally approved abroad. American business has had its sad times abroad, too. But in recent years there have been sharp changes in American business practices overseas as the nation worked out from under what was once almost universally stigmatized as dollar diplomacy. On the propaganda front, a number of U. S. business organizations are in there pitching. On the more subtle personal relations front, a host of U. S. corporations are trying for better understanding. The Advertising Council has waged a campaign to sell the world on the merits of what it calls the People's Capitalism. More recently it has launched a drive to convince Americans as well as others that under our system the future of this country is economically bright indeed. Organizations like the U. S. Council of the International Chamber of Commerce and the Committee for Economic Development have put out studies of the problems of foreign trade and American investment abroad. The National Foreign Trade Council, has latched specific practices and urged changes in both our policies and those of other lands if the American investor is to increase his holdings further. These sums have more than doubled since the war and now are around $25 billion dollars. American corporations are still widely assailed by the Soviet as exploiters of the foreign lands they have helped develop. But whatever may have been the motives of the previous century in tapping resources abroad, today's corporations are quite a different breed. Sitting nervously on the sidelines as the U. N. debates the Middle East struggle are American oil companies with huge stakes there. These firms long ago adopted there, in Venezuela and elsewhere, a plan whereby the proceeds were split 50-50 with the country where they found oil. Some newcomers of late have sweetened this take for the host nation. But it wasn't all profits that the oil companies were handing out. In preaching the American doctrine they have set up model towns with schools and hospitals, hired natives at good pay and helped raise the standard of living of many other lands. This goes for Western Europe too, where they've put millions of dollars into refineries and development of the distribution of Middle East oil where it is most needed. Big American automobile companies have opened plants abroad. A chief reason naturally was to take advantage of special production, distribution and foreign exchange benefits. But a big side-line has been the raising of standards of living of other lands and a brushing off of some of the American doctrine that U. S. business can produce without exploitation. The list of American industries operating abroad, buying abroad, selling abroad is a long one. More and more corporations now train employees before sending them overseas — not only in the language and financial rules for doing business, but also in the customs and prejudices so that fewer toes get stepped on.

Around The Rim

Needed: Right Measure Of Discipline

In Houston, a parent and a teacher are embroiled in violence over a grade of "D" given the parent's schoolchild. In California, two teen-age boys tie a youngster to the railroad tracks, and the child's father unties his son and pulls him away seconds before a train speeds by. Here are two incidents out of the daily news that, together, spell out what is wrong with this country's youth. Parents have been blamed before, but this criticism is justifiable only when leveled at a major percentage of parents. The good parents are nearly helpless to stem the maladjustments brought about by the bad parents. Careless or selfish parents take the attitude that their children can do no wrong. Teachers and principals live in mortal fear of them and neighbors live in a constant state of irritation. There is too much permissiveness, too much coddling, and if the schools also are guilty of these sins, it is only because parents put up with it. It is possible to give love to a child without coddling, and discipline without cruelty. Children in this modern environment grow up with a leaning toward psychosocial, having and obeying strong impulses, some of them of a violent or even murderous nature. And when such children pass into the emotional jungle of the teen-age years and end up killing someone, and the judge asks why they did it, they point an accusing finger at comic books or some equally asinine reason. Child guidance experts believe them and there follows a cry for banning of comic books. Children with proper discipline develop in the opposite direction of neuroticism, an ingrained inhibition against those things that are considered bad or evil. Sometimes, under domination of cruel parents, neuroticism overdevelops in a child. It was this result of too much strictness that led to a reaction of too much permissiveness. It is a long, hard road the human race has traveled, and I think we are entitled to some mistakes. But when a mob of punks old enough to know better beats an elderly man to death just for the fun of it, someone has made a mistake for which there is no excuse. —BOB SMITH

Inez Robb Hoffa Expert At Confounding Senators

By FREDERICK C. OTHMAN (Writing for Inez Robb, who is on vacation) WASHINGTON—The gag's going around the Senate today about the fellow who was turned down for a top job in the Teamsters Union. He couldn't prove he'd spent time in the penitentiary. The situation's not quite that bad, but almost, according to Senator John L. McClellan (D., Ark.) and Company of the labor racket committee, which is looking into the doings of Jimmy Hoffa, the new president of the biggest labor union. All over the country, seemed like, Teamster officials turned out to have been arrested, convicted and sentenced to prison on charges ranging from extortion to murder. "Why haven't you done something about this?" demanded committee counsel Robert Kennedy. Hoffa, sitting there in his peeled-onion haircut and his white socks and looking innocent like a boy from Indiana (his home state), said time after time that he hasn't ousted hoodlums from the union in Michigan, California, Tennessee, Illinois, Pennsylvania, or anywhere else because he hasn't had time. If he hasn't been worrying with the Senators, he's been in court defending himself, said Jimmy, sounding hurt. How could he clean up his union when the Feds so far hadn't given him the chance even to warm his own executive chair? This didn't satisfy Kennedy. He named the unionist-hoodlums, one by one, and listed their nefarious records. There were more than a dozen. Hoffa said some paid their debts to society and were good men. Others were facing trial before union tribunals, and some, he said, had no charges against them. "What about Sam 'Shorty' Feldman of Philadelphia?" Kennedy insisted. "What about him?" countered Hoffa. "He was arrested only last week on charges of transporting $400,000 worth of stolen bonds," replied Kennedy. "Why haven't you fired him?" Hoffa said he'd take up the case of Feldman in due course, along with all the others. He urged upon the Senators patience. "This is a sordid situation," exploded McClellan. "Lord Almighty! You are the head of the union and you are perpetuating this thing." Jimmy's mouthpiece, E. B. Williams, suggested that never in history had Congress ousted a member immediately upon his conviction of a crime. He always got a hearing before his peers. "All I know is that if I had a man working for me and I found he was a crook, I'd get rid of him," the Senator replied. It developed then that the Teamsters had lent from their pension fund $40,000 to one John Patanti and $1,000 to Armand Abass. Between them, said Kennedy, they'd been arrested more than 40 times. "Does having a criminal record help in getting a job from the union?" the counsel asked. Hoffa said he considered the collateral, only. Then it turned out that Hoffa, International Vice President Bert Brennan, and Patanti were leading stockholders in a Canadian something called North American Ramp Metals Company. Hoffa said he bought 50,000 shares for $7,500 cash, which he pulled from his pants pocket. He said this stock now was selling for $1, a share and his holdings presumably were worth $50,000. "Trouble was, he got only 5,000 shares. He said the other 45,000 shares are being held in escrow to be doled out to him when the rare-metal business gets better. This sounded complicated to the Senators. Hoffa said he was no expert on Canadian securities regulations. On one thing I must testify he is an expert; that's on confounding Senators. The Gallup Poll Public Wants To See Khrushchev At U.N.

PRINCETON, N. J.—A substantial majority of the American people would like to see Russia's Nikita Khrushchev make an appearance at the current UN General Assembly meetings in New York. Not only would the public welcome the Soviet premier's attendance at the New York session, many also believe he should be invited to the White House by President Eisenhower, if Khrushchev should come to this country. If the American people were acting as travel guides for Mr. Khrushchev in a tour of the U. S. his itinerary would likely include many stops in average U. S. towns to see how typical Americans live and very little visiting of historical sites across the country. With the possibility of a surprise appearance by Khrushchev at the UN still not completely discounted by many observers, the Institute's corps of reporters asked this question of Americans across the country: "Do you think it is a good idea or a poor idea to have a 'summit' meeting between leading world figures, including Khrushchev of Russia, at the UN in New York City?" The vote nationwide: UN SUMMIT MEETING? Per cent Good idea 67 Poor idea 17 No opinion 16 Generally speaking, those who would like to see a UN summit meeting feel that it is always better to try and talk things over, no matter what the chances of real success, and that the UN forum is the sensible place to do so. Those opposed to the move feel that little would be accomplished by such a meeting, that the U. S. would be on the defensive, and that it might result in a severe propaganda defeat for America. A second question in the survey dealt with a possible move by President Eisenhower if the Soviet Premier were to suddenly arrive at UN headquarters: "If Khrushchev comes to a meeting at the UN in New York City, do you think Eisenhower should invite him to the White House?" The vote nationwide: IKE INVITES KHRUSHCHEV TO WHITE HOUSE? Per cent Yes, he should 47 No, should not 35 No opinion 18 Khrushchev has often expressed a desire to see the United States. Memorial Given CWF

Acceptance of a memorial gift highlighted the business-meeting of Christian Women's Fellowship, Thursday evening, in the parlor of the First Christian Church. The session was followed by Dr. P. D. O'Brien's screening of slides made in Alaska and the Holy Land.

Mrs. Cliff Wiley presented a hand-crocheted tablecloth, a gift from Mrs. Mike Kokinkis of Detroit, Mich., in memory of her sister, Mrs. Ann Petroff. Both Mrs. Kokinkis and her sister were former members of the church.

In an election, Mrs. R. E. Hoover was named president to succeed Mrs. Glen White, who will move Sept. 1 to Midland. Mrs. H. W. Smith was elected secretary. Appointments included that of Mrs. H. L. Bohannon as sympathy chairman and Mrs. Luther Bean as representative to the state hospital advisory council, with Mrs. Clyde Hollingsworth as alternate.

After the devotion by Mrs. J. D. Benson, the group heard Dr. O'Brien tell of his experiences in Alaska a couple of years ago when he was sent by the Baptists on a preaching mission. "Alaska is tomorrow," said the pastor of the First Baptist Church. The statement is true, he insisted, not only from the economic viewpoint but from the standpoint of Alaska as a mission field. Colored slides showed some of the scenes where he visited.

Refreshments were served to 30 by the Mary Martha Circle.

Fresh Produce Abounds On The Markets; Blueberries Are Here

Texans will find fresh fruits and vegetables plentiful in their markets this weekend, the Agricultural Marketing Service says.

Among the items that cost less are green cabbage, carrots, celery and potatoes. Round red potatoes from Texas and Colorado are in good supply and economically priced. Supplies are increasing on California long whites and Colorado russets. Idaho potatoes have started moving in small volume.

Lettuce, onions, pole beans, green peppers, yellow crookneck squash and tomatoes are about unchanged in price. Supplies are plentiful and quality is mostly good.

Locally grown okra is not as abundant and prices are slightly higher.

Watermelons flooded the market at practically giveaway prices. Quality is unusually good. Cantaloupes are slightly higher in some areas, as supplies are decreasing. California grapes are reaching Texas markets in increasing supply at about steady prices.

Arkansas and Texas peach supplies are dwindling as harvesting nears completion. The bulk of the supply is from California, with prices about unchanged from last week.

California Gravenstein apples are slightly lower. Bananas should be coming down in price as shipments from Central and South America have picked up. California and Arizona citrus prices are about unchanged.

A new item is Michigan cultivated blueberries.

Beef prices are about unchanged, with ground meat, chuck and shoulder arm roasts comparatively good buys. Pork prices are slightly lower. Whole or half cured hams are featured in most stores.

Fryers continue to be a good buy, although prices are about a penny a pound higher at most markets. Egg prices are about unchanged from a week ago.

Aqua Tapers Illumine Sanctuary For The Hill - Blewett Wedding

A profusion of cathedral tapers, tinted aqua, illumined the sanctuary of East Fourth Baptist Church, Thursday evening, when nuptial vows were exchanged by Tommye Anne Hill and Enoch Lewis Blewett.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. T. F. Hill, 811 East Twelfth, and the late Mr. Hill. Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Blewett, 305 Creighton, are the parents of the bridegroom. As the bridal party stood before an arch formed of eight candles, the Rev. Maple Avery, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Levelland and former minister of the local church, administered the double ring rites. Green ferns and candle trees at the sides of the altar enhanced the setting.

In the organ prelude, Virginia Ann Cain blended the strains of Oh Promise Me, Why Do I Love You, The Day of Golden Promise, Dearly Beloved and Traumeri, with Indian Love Call played during the ceremony. Mrs. Bob Craig, soloist, sang Because and Grieg's I Love Thee. The Bridal Chorus heralded the bride's entrance, and Miss Cain played the Wedding March as the recessional.

Reuben Hill gave his sister in marriage. She was gowned in white Chantilly lace over bridal satin, the skirt flowing into a train. Of princess lines, the bodice was molded with high waist that elongated at back into a point where pleats released full folds. Self-covered buttons descended to the point. The round scooped neckline, outlined with the lace motif which was brushed with beads and pearls, framed the single strand of pearls which was the gift of the bridegroom. The close-fitting sleeves ended in points at the hands. A small lace hat traced with pearls held in place her fingertip veil of illusion.

She carried a crescent arrangement of white roses on a white Bible, which was given her by Maxine Stocks and Patsy Reeves, members of the YWA of which the bride was counselor.

With the new gown which was made by her mother, the bride carried as something old a handkerchief which had been given her mother by Mr. Hill prior to their marriage. Pearl earrings borrowed from Ann Hall of Asheville, N. C., her college roommate, and the aqua streamer in her bouquet completed the tradition.

Anna Beth Halverson of Byars, Okla., attended her cousin as maid of honor. She was dressed in aqua crystalline, ballerina length, cut with short sleeves and sabinina neckline ending in a deep V at the back. A sash of matching silk organza crossed in front to tie and form a drape to the hemline in back. Her headpiece was a large bow of the dress fabric, and her pumps were dyed aqua. Pink rosebuds were carried on a pink lace fan.

Dressed identically as was the maid of honor were the bridesmaids. They were Mrs. Bill Hanson, Big Spring, and Mrs. Raymond Lewis of Olton, nieces of the bride; Mrs. R. C. Armstrong and Colleen Slaughter.

TAPER LIGHTERS
The tapers were lighted by Valjean LaCroix, Sammie Sue McComb, Judy Cautle, Shirley Terry, Carlene Coleman, Judy Reagan and Ceila Grant, the bride's cousin. The girls, all high school cheerleaders whom the bride has sponsored, wore aqua dresses of cotton satin, streetlength. They were styled in the same fashion as were the honor attendants, with the drape sash flowing from bustles formed of pink asters.

Karen Lewis, grand-niece of the bride, scattered pink rosebud petals from a lace basket. Her long dress of aqua had round collar, puffed sleeves, and sash and her headpiece was made of matching flowers.

Louis E. Stallings, a cousin of the bride, served as best man. Pat Blewett, T. W. Blewett Jr., and Duane Blewett, all brothers of the bridegroom, acted as groomsmen as did Bill Hanson, her nephew. Guests were seated by Billy Van Pelt, John Yates, A. J. Cain, Hugh Hamm, Dan Lewis and B. B. Lees.

OTTAWA (AP) — President Eisenhower told Canada's Parli-ment today that differences between the two neighbor nations can be solved and must not be allowed to overshadow the transcendent importance of free world cooperation in the winning of the global struggle against communism.
"We stand together at a pivotal point in history," Eisenhower told a warmly applauding Parliament.
He was interrupted 10 times during his speech by members' applause and the traditional desk thumping.
"The differences between us are not insurmountable," he said.
"We are not enemies, but friends.
We are not the enemy of our common enemies, but their natural allies.
Our interests are not in conflict, but complementary. Our paths lead to peace, prosperity, and freedom for all men."

Turning to matters which he said are "troublesome between us," the President said that in disposing of surplus wheat overseas, the United States has no intent to damage normal commercial markets and that he thinks "we have been generally successful" in this.
Canadians have contended that the disposal program has cut into their commercial markets overseas. But Eisenhower said he considers the basis for past objections by Canada has been largely removed and "the doors of consultation" will be kept fully open on this subject—"there must never be a final word between friends."
The President conceded that in the past the wheat program has caused inconvenience and occasional damage to Canada. But in several respects, he said, Canada stands to benefit from U.S. removal of surplus farm products into overseas consumption.
He contended that many hungry people have had food which they would not have had otherwise, that storage of the products would have depressed the world market and world prices. And, he said, the foreign funds obtained by the sales in the long run should help raise living standards and enlarge the markets for everyone.

TRADE BALANCES
Canada also has been unhappy about an unfavorable balance of trade with the United States running to around one billion dollars a year.
Eisenhower observed that American goods flow across the border only because Canadian consumers want to buy them.
To try to balance the trade books once a month or once a year with every nation, he said, would stifle trade rather than expand it. Furthermore, he said, Canada's export deficit to the United States is offset by export surpluses to other countries and by the flow of investments to Canada.
While the question of control of some Canadian industries by American citizens is raised, these industries are subject to Canadian law, he pointed out.
He noted that U. S. investments have helped provide employment, tax revenues and other benefits to Canada.
If there are defects in the investment process, Eisenhower said, he is confident ways will be found to correct them, "because this is in the interest of both countries."

Laymen Hear Of Hospital Work

The importance of clinical pastoral training and the workings of the chaplaincy in a state mental hospital were outlined for the First Baptist Brotherhood at the regular monthly meeting Tuesday evening.
With Chaplain Marvin Berkeland presiding, three theology students—Keith Wright, Wooten Walsh, and Erlene Gaskin—told and demonstrated how chaplains work with patients, some of the problems encountered and how critiques help the ministerial students to find more effective techniques.
"Most people who are mentally ill have become so because of one or both of two things," said the Rev. Berkeland. "Either their relationships and adjustments to other people have not been satisfying, or they are similarly disturbed in their relationships with God."
Except in certain types of mental cases, which are in a small minority, chaplains have an initial interview with the patient, and whether they return for additional talks is up to the patient, explained the Rev. Berkeland.
Announcement was made of the Royal Ambassador camp for junior boys July 14-18 and the intermediate boys July 21-25 at the Baptist encampment grounds just south of town. At the same location on July 28 the one-day Brotherhood encampment will be held. G. G. Morehead, district president, said.

Lyndon Releases
Report On Water

WASHINGTON (AP)—A huge report on Texas water development possibilities, released today by Sen. Lyndon Johnson, contends the state's future growth will be determined largely by the use it makes of this natural resource.
While proposing no specific projects, the report dwells at length on the plausibility of switching floodwaters from one Texas river basin over to another where the river may be at normal or below normal level.

Traffic Mishaps
At Static Rate

LAMESA — Traffic accidents for Lamesa in June totaled 19, which was one less than May's record, according to Chief of Police Morris Zimmerman.
Property damage was $4,650 or nearly $2,000 more than the May amount of $2,770. Three of the mishaps resulted in minor injuries to occupants of vehicles.
This brings the total accident for the year to 135 with 16 injuries.
Property damage for the first six months has been estimated at $38,455.

Interest Rate Hiked As Inflation Brake

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Federal Reserve Board, showing deepening concern over the threat of inflation, has reversed its recession policy and moved toward tightening the money supply.

The change in direction—the first since last November—came with the announcement that effective today the discount rate at the San Francisco Reserve Bank would go up from 1 1/2 per cent to 2 per cent.

The discount rate represents the interest charged Federal Reserve member banks borrowing money from the reserve system. A boost in discount rates normally goes hand in hand with a general increase in interest charges.

Thus, the reserve board action yesterday held broad implications for anyone planning to go into debt to buy a factory, an automobile or a living room rug. The general feeling in financial circles was that only a worsening of the economic picture could make it cheaper to borrow money.

With the discount rate boost taking effect in San Francisco, similar increases by the other 11 reserve banks are expected to follow, although there may be some time lag.

A board spokesman said the decision to switch policy direction was influenced in part by an increase in inflation sentiment which has been reflected in a rising stock market. He said another factor was the apparent bottoming out of the recession. The spokesman also noted recent upward moves in some interest rates.

A year ago—before the recession got a foothold—discount rates reached a peak of 3 1/2 per cent. But last November the reserve board abandoned its tight money policy and began easing the money supply to combat the growing recession. In four successive steps, the discount rate was lowered until it reached 1 1/2 per cent last April.

Although the reserve board's new action was in the direction of tighter money, it can't be said the board is putting any real squeeze on credit. The system's member banks have idle reserves of nearly half a billion dollars, which means they have available plenty of money for lending.

State police first reported that Col. Cummings was carrying highly classified information, but Capt. J. E. Marshall of Sheppard AFB said an inventory showed nothing of this nature was missing.

U.S. Easing Curbs On Russian Trade

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States is reluctantly easing its curbs on trade with the Soviet bloc in Europe.

It is doing so under pressure from allies and American businessmen in search of new markets.

The Commerce Department announced it plans a substantial cut in the list of 922 items banned in any U. S. trade with the Communists.

All trade with Red China, North Korea and North Viet Nam continues to be prohibited, however.

And some items, especially in fields like chemistry and electronics, will be added to the list of commodities prohibited in U. S. trade with the Soviet Union and the Soviet satellites of Eastern Europe.

Officials could specify no particular items to be lifted from the control list. They said no decision had yet been made except the general one announced by Secretary of Commerce Weeks after a four-month consultation at Paris with 14 other free world trading nations.

"Significant changes are being made in U. S. export controls," Weeks said. "These changes will lead to a net reduction of U. S. controls."

Other officials said there will be a substantial cutback in the number of items banned in U. S.-Communist bloc trade.

The 15 nations which met at Paris included Japan and all the North Atlantic Treaty members except Iceland.

They agreed upon a master list of 120 items banned in Red trade and 35 to be watched for possible embargoing if they appeared to be "strategic"—that is, potentially helpful to Chinese-Soviet war power.

DEAR ABBY

MOMMIE'S GIRL

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: How does a person go about telling her best friend that she is spoiling her daughter (aged 6) rotten? My friend's child is the worst behaved child I (or my friends) have ever seen. During a bridge game she will sit in her mommie's lap the whole time whining and pestering her mother. She is constantly interrupting the game by asking for gum, candy and soft drinks. The rest of the girls and I are ready to scream but we like this woman so much we don't want to hurt her feelings. I would appreciate any suggestions you have for improving the situation.

READY TO SCREAM
DEAR READY: "Mommie" is in need of a friendly suggestion and if you are her best friend, you are elected: Her child (like all normal children) will get away with as much as she can. If Mommie can't discipline her, she should visit a child counseling service and get a few pointers.

DEAR ABBY: The man who lives next door is fat and jolly. He's ancient. He must be in his fifties. He keeps telling me what a knockout I am and how he envies the lucky man who marries me. He is married himself. He bet me a dollar he could get both his hands around my waist and he won. Do you think he is harmless or should I watch out?

NEIGHBOR GIRL
DEAR NEIGHBOR: This foxy old wolf proclaimed DOLLAR DAY and got himself a bargain. At 50, a man is not ancient—nor is he harmless. Keep your distance.

DEAR ABBY: We are an older couple and have some dear friends with whom we visit back and forth. Whenever we go to their home for dinner they let their parakeets fly around the rooms. They also don't discourage the birds when they fly to the table and eat out of our dishes while we are eating. I don't think this is very nice but we don't want to say anything. Abby, they think this is cute. What do you think?
MRS. R.K.

DEAR MRS. R. K. I think your friends are for the birds. You would be perfectly within your rights to ask them to keep their little feathered friends in their cages during mealtime.

DEAR ABBY: I fell in love with

Lad Accidentally Kills Brother

HOUSTON (AP)—An 11-year-old boy told Houston officers he accidentally killed his brother last night with a gun they had stolen.

Phil Stephens, 12, died a few hours after he was shot in the back.

Officers quoted his brother, Ronnie, 11, as saying that the two boys broke into a South Houston swap shop Aug. 12 and stole one gun each.

He said they started playing with the weapons after their parents, Mr. and Mrs. P.A. Stephens of Pasadena, left the house for a trip to Galveston Bay and Ronnie's discharged accidentally.

Police said the guns recovered at the Stephens home bore serial numbers identical to those reported stolen from the swap shop.

TEXAS CHAMPIONS OF FREEDOM

JAMES BOWIE

Defender of Lone Star Liberty

Like so many heroes of Texas legends, Jim Bowie was no peaceable homebody. He was born for adventure, and lived to write his name indelibly in Texas history, as one of the defenders of the Alamo.

He came to Texas in 1828, trailed by tall tales of derring-do . . . duels . . . smuggling forays with pirate Jean Lafitte . . . free-wheeling speculations in lands . . . riding alligators. In Texas the Bowie legends grew . . . his long lost Spanish mine . . . a Colonel of Texas Rangers . . . Indian fights . . . marriage to a high-born Mexican girl and her tragic death.

But when the critical hour of Texas independence came, Jim Bowie was on hand . . . as a leader at the battle of Concepcion, the Grass Fight, the siege of Bexar. And when Wm. B. Travis reached the Alamo with the regular army troops he found Jim Bowie commanding the volunteers. Together these two champions of freedom in Texas faced Santa Anna's final charge on March 6, 1836.

Today Texans still demand and get their right to choose the way they want to live. In this vigorous and freedom-minded homeland, "Beer Belongs" and this is why the United States Brewers Foundation works constantly, in conjunction with brewers, wholesalers and retailers to assure the sale of beer and ale under pleasant, orderly conditions. Believing that strict law enforcement serves the best interests of Texans, the Foundation stresses close cooperation with the Armed Forces, law enforcement and governing officials in its continuing Self-Regulation program.

First Tax Notices Ready For Mail

Six hundred of the 13,000 notices to as many property owners in Howard County have been prepared by the office of the county clerk. The notices advise the property owners that valuations on their property for tax purposes have been revised by the survey made by Pritchard & Abbott, tax engineering firm, and that opportunity to protest such valuations will be open Sept. 8-12.

Mrs. Pauline Petty, county clerk, said her staff will work nights preparing and mailing the notices.

The city is sending out 7,500 similar notices and the Big Spring Public School system will send out about 6,000.

Electric Co-Op Passes The 2,000-Mile Mark In Lines

Cap Rock Electric Cooperative passed the 2,000-mile mark in the extension of its system in July.

At the end of the month the miles stood at 2,001, an increase of five for the month. Consumption, for the first time this year, surged ahead of a year ago. Hot dry weather signalled that the ubiquitous drought of the 50's had again caught up with the area, and Cap Rock purchased 5,537,590 KWH of power and sold 5,314,513 KWH. The previous month the system had bought 3,615,680 KWH and sold 3,043,995 KWH. In July of 1957 Cap Rock bought 4,894,580 KWH and sold 3,580,126, hence the demand this July was about a million KWH more than the same month a year ago. While the cumulative total through July showed 18,767,930 KWH bought and 16,269,572 sold as compared with 24,716,140 bought and 21,347,867 sold for the same period a year ago, the trend in the past two months has been to reduce this margin.

For the first five months of the year Cap Rock sold 7,911,064 KWH. During June and July the system sold 8,358,508 KWH, or more than in the preceding five months.

At the end of July there were 3,820 members connected, which was a new record by exceeding the previous peak of 3,817 in November of 1957.

22 Sign Up For YMCA Course

Twenty-two adults have signed for the adult leadership training course at the YMCA, and registrations are still open.

Bobo Hardy, general secretary, said he was pleased with the response thus far but that he hoped the number would increase. He emphasized that the course is open to any parent regardless of whether they intend to work with Y youth groups.

The course begins at 7 p.m. Monday. One of the highlights will be the Tuesday evening session on understanding the Youngster. For the middle childhood group (6-7-8) there will be film, "Sociable Six to Noisy Nine." This will be followed by a lecture and discussion. The other film will be "Meaning of Adolescence," and the discussion groups will be broken into separate units for leaders of boys and girls. Hardy said that the Thursday evening topic, "Christian Education in the YMCA Program," also was especially important. The course terminates Aug. 22.

Martin Co. Sets Capon Show Dates

STANTON (Sp)—Dates for the annual Martin County 4-H and FFA Capon show have been fixed on Nov. 14-15.

Agriculture committee of the chamber of commerce advanced the dates of the show, said H. M. McReynolds, chamber manager, in order that the birds would be available for Thanksgiving.

McReynolds, a resident of Stanton since January 1921, has assumed his duties as regular manager of the chamber, succeeding Allen Singleton. Twice he has served as acting manager and now assumes the role on a regular basis. McReynolds has been engaged in the wholesale meat and real estate business here.

Cub Scout Pow Wow Slated Saturday At The City Park

The annual Cub Pow Wow is set for 4 p.m. Saturday at the City Park, and Jack Alexander, Cubbing commissioner, is looking for several hundred participants.

While Cubs (boys 8-9-10 years of age) are playing their parents and other leaders will be getting training helps at the pavilion.

Afterwards, there will be a basket picnic for the Cubs and their families, followed by a campfire ceremony staged by the Order of the Arrow, a Scout camping fraternity.

Cubs accompanied by their Dads will engage in a sleep-out, departing the park about 7 a.m. Sunday after the Cub has prepared breakfast for both of them.

The pow wow will begin with a flag raising ceremony, said Alexander, and boys will engage in a round of contests such as horse-shoe and washer pitching, foot and sack races, etc.

Leaders will be given tips on handicraft and on planning of skits and stunts, as well as other part of the Cubbing program. All den mothers and Cubmasters are urged to take part, according to Alexander. Each Cub family is asked to bring a basket lunch for the picnic, and the Cub and his father enough food for breakfast.

A missionary to French West Africa, Charles E. Greenway, will relate some of his experiences and tell of progress of missions during morning services at the First Assembly of God Church Sunday.

Greenway was appointed to the mission field by the Foreign Missions Department of the Assemblies of God in 1944. For three years he was stationed at Tenkodogo in the upper Ivory Coast, working among 400,000 of the Mossi tribe. He and his wife were the only missionaries of any Protestant denomination in the vast territory.

CHARLES GREENWAY

Returning to Africa in 1949, Greenway entered the Togo-Dahomey field of French West Africa, where he opened a new station at Tangueti. From here he reached five tribes who had never before heard the Gospel. Five out-stations were opened. Greenway served as superintendent of the Togo-Dahomey Assemblies of God and principal of the Bible School for three years.

In July, 1956, he opened the Assemblies of God work in Senegal. This area stretches for hundreds of miles from Sudan to the Atlantic. Its four million people are, for the most part, unevangelized. Greenway built a mission station and church at Tambacounda.

Prior to going to Africa, Greenaway pastored in Pennsylvania, Massachusetts, Maine, Alabama and Connecticut. He attended Eastern Bible Institute in Green Lane, Pa., and L'Alliance Francaise, Paris, France.

After his furlough Greenway plans to return to Africa and continue this work in the Senegal area. At present he is visiting various churches of the Assemblies of God presenting the needs of the Senegal field.

Justice to Minorities

FOLLOWERS OF CHRIST SHOULD BE FRIENDLY, KIND AND JUST TO ALL PEOPLE

Scripture—Leviticus 19:33-37; Deuteronomy 23:7-8; 24:14-16; Matthew 9:9-13; John 4:7-9, 25-26, 39-41; Galatians 3:26-28.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL

"IF A STRANGER sojourn with thee in your land, ye shall not vex him." But the stranger that dwelleth with you shall be unto you as one born among you, and thou shalt love him as thyself; for ye were strangers in the land of Egypt; I am the Lord your God."—Leviticus 19:33-34.

The Lord then warned the children of Israel that they must not cheat the stranger, but use "just balances, just weights" in all transactions.

Possibly there has never been a time in all the years since those laws of God's were read when we should ponder and act upon them more than today. Many strangers are within our gates and in our schools, churches, homes, in our neighborhoods. School children encounter classmates who are strangers to our customs and language.

We all—students from the lower grades through college and all in the Christian way. We should treat them as Christ would have done, helping them to adjust and be happy in their new environments after suffering persecution and abuse in their old homes from which they have fled.

In the 24th chapter of Deuteronomy we are told how we should treat people who work for us. "Thou shalt not oppress an hired servant that is poor and needy; whether he be of thy brethren, or of thy strangers that are in thy land within thy gates: At his day thou shalt give him his hire, neither shall the sun go down upon it; for he is poor, and setteth his heart upon it."—Deuteronomy 24:14-15.

Jesus "saw a man, named Matthew, sitting at the receipt of custom; and He saith unto him, Follow Me. And he arose, and followed Him." In his position, collecting taxes for the Romans and hated by his fellow citizens, Matthew probably was thoroughly tired of his job. So when this splendid Man beckoned him, he gladly left his occupation and followed Christ, of whom he was a true and loyal follower all the rest of his life.

Matthew seems to have taken

Jesus into his house and made a feast to which many "publicans and sinners" came and sat down with Him and His apostles. The Pharisees saw this and asked His disciples why He ate with such people.

Jesus heard and told them: "They that be whole need not a physician, but they that are sick. But go ye and learn what that meaneth, I will have mercy and not sacrifice; for I am not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance."—Matthew 9:12-13.

MEMORY VERSE

"Let brotherly love continue. Be not forgetful to entertain strangers: for thereby some have entertained angels unawares."—Hebrews 13:1-2.

A Samaritan woman came to draw water and Christ asked her to give Him a drink. She was amazed that a Jew would ask one of her country—despised by Jews—even for a drink of water, and asked Him to tell her why He did. Jesus knew her history, that she had not been a good woman. However, He said, "Whosoever drinketh of this water shall thirst again; but whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life."—John 4:13, 14.

The woman told Jesus that she knew that "the Messiah cometh, which is called Christ; when He is come He will tell us all things."

Jesus said: "I that speak unto thee am He."—John 4:25-26.

The woman went into the city and told all she met that the Messiah had come. Many came to Him and believed, and the woman forsook her former way of life through Christ.

Paul writes to the Galatians: "For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female; by the Division of Christ Jesus." What is more than 300 years old but new as the next minute?

BIG BEN? THE DAILY NEWSPAPER? AN ABACUS?

ONE OF A SERIES

ANSWER: THE DAILY NEWSPAPER. Although its origin goes back to the early 17th Century, your newspaper is as modern as tomorrow. In recent years newspapers have invested over $700 million in new plants and equipment, and improvement is constantly going on. An automotive official said, "We can talk a lot about automation, but the newspaper press is probably the earliest and still one of the most remarkable examples of automation ever developed."

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Day	Book	Chapter	Verses
Sunday	Psalms	96	1-13
Monday	Psalms	72	1-20
Tuesday	Psalms	61	1-8
Wednesday	Matthew	7	24-28
Thursday	Hebrews	13	6-8
Friday	Revelation	22	1-5
Saturday	Psalms	119	137-144

Rocks and a relentless sea . . . stone sentinels . . . waves broken into misty foam . . . then caves and clefts and briny pools of rounded sculpture.

Who wins the endless fray? Today it may be the rocks, tomorrow the sea! Yet man goes on building his cities, tilling his soil, believing in his God.

Is not this the parable of all life? Time, like an ocean, floods relentlessly over the shores of life. Today sure! Tomorrow uncertain. But we go on building and tilling—and if we understand the parable—believing in the One whose love and power control today and tomorrow.

There is Something in life more certain than the rocky coast . . . more persistent than the crashing wave. It is the call of God to faith. It is the firm, sure Message of the Church to a battered, changing world!

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

That guy who recently beat Dan Hodge, the Olympic wrestler turned professional boxer, really needed the money.

He is the father of five and he had lost his only two previous professional fights. His name is Art Norris.

The only Midland footballer who received a scholarship offer last year is Ray Eathery. He'll attend New Mexico A & M.

Dr. M. H. Bennett, reading a query in this window as to when the Big Spring Country Club came into being, says it was organized in 1924. Bennett himself led the drive to form the club and bring golf to Big Spring.

Bennett also recalls that R. L. Price, a late banker here, served as the facility's first president.

Bennett, by the way, says he's feeling better and expects to be back at work around Oct. 1. He's been on the shelf for several weeks now.

Herb Elliott, Australia's sensational miller, runs 20 to 40 miles a day just to stay in shape.

Now 20 years of age, he set the Australian junior record for the half-mile (1:50.8) and the mile (4:22.0) while in high school. He has a bent nose, acquired in a game of Australian football. He once broke a foot while helping his family move a piano.

He considers a climb through rugged mountain country, with some good books to read while resting, the ideal vacation.

Elliott opines Americans lead too soft a life, eating too many processed foods. And he considers women one of the principal softening processes in the life of our athletes.

His father is a furniture dealer in Perth.

J. D. Kimmel, an All-American gridder at the University of Houston, has a chance at a scholarship in petroleum engineering at Rice and may be through with pro football.

You'll be able to get the Detroit Lions-College All Stars football classic over radio but not TV tonight.

ABC is handling it in both instances and ABC doesn't have a TV outlet in this immediate area.

There'll be ten Texans in the game by the way—five on each side. The All Stars can call upon King Hill, Jim Shofner, John Crow, Bobby Joe Conrad and Charley Krueger.

Clendon Thomas of Oklahoma, who spent part of the summer here in the ROTC training program at Webb AFB, will get in the game, too.

The Lions will depend upon such Texas products as Tobin Rote, Bobby Layne, Yale Lary, Harley Sewell and Bill Glass.

No matter whether Rote or Layne do most of the playing for Detroit tonight, Jerry Reichow will quarterback the Lions for the next four exhibition games.

So says George Wilson, the Lion mentor, who says he wants to give Jerry a thorough chance at the position. He says if Reichow doesn't make the ripple as a signal-changer, he'll be shifted to a flanker position.

The hitting of young Gene Lamb in Little League play here the past season has been phenomenal.

The star pitcher-catcher of the small fry Yankees clubbed 20 home runs over the season, a record that should stand for some time to come.

AT SAN ANGELO

Cardinals Shaded In Opener, 14-2

SAN ANGELO (SC) — The KHEM Cardinals of Big Spring were ousted in the first round of play in the State Senior Teenage baseball league tournament here Thursday night by the Ace Builders of San Angelo, 14-2.

The "ten-run" rule was invoked after the fifth inning. The contest didn't get started until 9 p. m., an hour later than scheduled.

The Angelenos picked up a run off Jay LeFevre in the first inning and then added five in a nightmarish second.

Loose Big Spring fielding contributed to the one-sided defeat. Between them, Jay and Zay LeFevre gave up the rather modest total of eight hits but six Cardinal errors made it easy for the Builders. Between them, the LeFevre twins surrendered 12 walks.

Two of Big Spring's four hits were off the bat of Bob Andrews. Zay LeFevre and Jimmy Roger accounted for the other two.

Ronnie Stephens, the first of two San Angelo hurlers to see action, was the winning hurler. He labored four innings.

Donnie Hall and Tommy Ford clubbed triples in San Angelo's attack.

In other tournament games, Texas City thrashed Texarkana, 12-6, but had to get an extra inning to do it; Houston outlasted Irving, 2-1; and Baytown raced past Denton, 6-1.

In semi-final games today, Houston takes on Baytown at 6 p. m. while San Angelo challenges Texas City at 8 p. m.

Championship finals are scheduled for Saturday night.

Collegians Set For Aerial Show

CHICAGO (AP) — The All-Stars start Operation Ozone tonight. They are expected to make a daring effort to beat the Detroit Lions, champions of the National Football League.

The Lions rule a solid 13 1/2 point favorite to gain a 16th decision for the pros in the rivalry. The All-Stars have won seven times, the last being 30-27 over the Cleveland Browns in 1955, and have held the pro champs to two standstills.

Stars backfield in an attempt to smear passing plans. But don't get the idea the collegiate sensations of 1957—many of whom already are under contract to NFL clubs—are lambs being led to slaughter. They have the passers, speedy receivers and break-away runners to make the Lions pant.

'Out-Of-Town Law' Irks Boyd People

BOYD, Tex. (AP)—Too many out-of-town lawmen cramped the style today of some Boyd residents who prefer it wild and woolly-like Wednesday night after Police Chief Lee Cockrell was shot.

The outlander lawmen moved in to watch developments after Cockrell was shot three times when he tried to arrest three young men whom he said caused a disturbance at the home of Boyd Mayor W. B. Horn.

One of the trio, all charged last night with assault to murder, also was shot. He was Joseph Earl Henderson, 21, hit in the arm by a pistol slug.

Chief Cockrell remained in improved condition today in a Fort Worth hospital with slugs in his arm and back. Henderson was not believed in serious condition.

Whereabouts of the other two youths was not disclosed. Sheriff Rock Ramsey said he took them in "temporary custody" Wednesday. They are Warren Sautler, 23, and Orville Lee Peel, 22.

Critical comment came from City Councilman Abe Birdwell of Boyd who resented so many out-of-town officers. "I don't think we need a Ranger," he said. "I don't think they should have sent him."

"Too much 'eighter from Decatur, county seat of Wise," cracked a grizzled townsman. His was a wry reference to the presence of Texas Ranger Jim Paulk, Sheriff Ramsey and his deputies, and a Highway Patrol unit moved here.

Birdwell seemed to agree with the sentiments of the townsman who used the old crap-shooting chant to describe his feelings. "It will all quiet down," the councilman said.

Sheriff Ramsey, from Decatur, the Wise County seat, his men and the other officers moved in after some 200 of this 550-population town's residents gathered in front of the city hall Wednesday night to jeer and shout approval of Cockrell's shooting.

New trouble among Wise County youngsters erupted last night at Rhome, 7 miles east of here. There were reports that Boyd and Rhome teen-agers were involved in a skating rink riot.

"Naw," said Sheriff Ramsey. "It wasn't much, just a bunch of kids from Newark and Rhome, a little old fistfight." One of the skating rink battlers went to a doctor's office to be patched up. Newark is also a neighboring Wise County community.

Mayor Horn said the trio threatened his life Wednesday in demanding removal of Cockrell, who they said had been "pushing people around." Mrs. Horn called police.

Cockrell and a patrolman answered the call and met Sautlers, Peel and Henderson at a watermelon market on Main Street. Words were exchanged and gunfire followed.

People Aboard Ill-Fated Plane Had Varied Missions

NEW YORK (AP)—Varied missions brought together the 91 passengers aboard the big KLM Dutch airliner which crashed in the sea off Ireland yesterday.

Some had attended a church celebration. Others had visited relatives. Still others were just vacationing.

Twenty of the victims, mostly persons of college age, were returning from a Church of the Brethren heritage tour of Europe in connection with an anniversary celebration of the church.

Mrs. Elfriede C. Borchsen, 58, Houston, Tex., was coming back from a six-week visit to relatives in Germany.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Van Wijk, Ripon, Calif., were on their third air trip abroad to visit relatives in Holland.

Returning from a European trip were Mrs. Maria Humphrey and her 3-year-old daughter, of Bloomfield, N. M.

Also vacationing was Phyllis

McCalmont, 50, Pittsburgh, Pa., social worker.

An entire Egyptian fencing team, with its Hungarian coach, was aboard.

Keith Miller, a sports writer for the Freeport (Ill.) Journal Standard, was returning with his wife after a European tour which included areas where he had served with the U. S. Army.

Widowed Mrs. Francesca Hawryns, 68, was en route from her native land to spend her final years with her son.

Mrs. Catherine Peters, 54, Wrenville, Minn., was bringing back her 86-year-old father Claas Schipper from Germany.

Audrey Kilhefner, 21, Elizabethtown, Pa., and John Hollinger, 22, Mannheim, Pa., were engaged in June after graduation from Elizabethtown College. Both were members of the Church of the Brethren group. Audrey was considering a Christmastime wedding.

Defiant Mother Says She'll Go To Jail For Daughter

CHICAGO (AP)—A young mother, sentenced to six months in jail for refusing to bring her daughter to court, says she'll serve her term rather than give up her 9-year-old child to her former mother-in-law.

The mother, Mrs. Patricia Van Etten Karam, 26, lost custody of her daughter Loretta Van Etten last July to the child's grandmother Mrs. Margaret Van Etten. The child had lived with Mrs. Van Etten since she was 17 months old and her parents were divorced.

Mrs. Karam, who has remarried but been given permission to visit her daughter Sundays. On July 27 she took the child out and then refused to bring her back. Mrs. Van Etten brought a contempt action. Mrs. Karam appeared before Superior Judge Daniel A.

Covelli Wednesday and was told to produce the child.

"I won't," she said. When Covelli asked: "Even if I send you to jail?" she replied: "I'd be willing to sit in jail rather than produce her."

In passing sentence, considered a record for a mother in a marital custody case in Chicago, Covelli told Mrs. Karam: "You have the key to your own cell. If you tell us where the child is or send her back, you will be released immediately."

Mrs. Karam told a reporter that her daughter has witnessed so many arguments since the court wrangle began that she sometimes becomes hysterical. She said she wanted to send her to a boarding school "so she won't have to be in the middle of all this."

"If I can give some peace and quiet and happiness to my daughter out of this (being in jail), then it's worth it," she said.

South Korea Has 10th Birthday

SEOUL (AP)—South Korea sent wave after wave of big guns and battle-arranged troops surging through Seoul today to mark the 10th anniversary of the Korean republic.

For 30 minutes, troops and giant guns filled tree-bordered Capital Avenue, less than 40 miles from the front lines of the war with North Korea.

Reviewing the decade of "tragedy and triumph," President Syngman Rhee told a crowd of 40,000 massed in Seoul Stadium. "We remain free . . . Asia's bulwark against the further spread of communism."

New Equipment Sent To Tunisia

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States is shipping a new supply of military equipment to Tunisia to strengthen that North African country's police force.

The shipment, part of which has arrived in Tunisia, includes small arms, jeeps, trucks and radio supplies. A similar shipment was sent earlier this year.

American officials said the equipment was being turned over to Tunisia at the request of President Habib Bourguiba. They said there was no connection between the shipments and the unrest in the Middle East.

Here's A Teen-Ager Who Runs A Real Household

LONG BEACH, Calif. (AP)—Worried about teen-agers? Well, consider the case of Judy Moore.

She's 15 and cute. She has a steady boy friend and likes rock 'n' roll. She grew up in a twice broken home. She lives in a low income housing project.

Her mother is in a hospital after major surgery.

Neighbors called juvenile officers to the Moore home the other day.

Trouble? Not at all.

They thought Judy was carrying too big a burden for a 15-year-old. This is what amazed juvenile officers found:

Judy in charge of seven younger brothers and sisters. All were clean and well fed. The refrigerator and cupboards were stocked with nourishing food.

Judy's role as head of the house began when her mother Mrs. Bonita Moore Kenny went to the hospital 10 days ago. The mother gave Judy $20 for food and left more money with neighbors.

In Judy's care were 9-month-old twins Darlene and Debbie; Randy, 2; Jacqueline, 5; Nancy, 8; Billy, 9; and Bonnie Jean, 10.

The officers took the children to Juvenile Hall. They kept them a day and sent them back home with a housekeeper to oversee things.

Judy had proved herself quite a homemaking executive. She delegated duties — dry the dishes, make the beds, dust and mop — to the older children.

Judy and the housekeeper are running the house together. But it's easy to see who is still at the helm:

Judy ordered: "Billy, I told you to change that shirt."

"Bonnie Jean, the dishes are ready to dry."

"Nancy, go bring Randy in here so I can wash his face . . ."

MOTHERS make it a pleasure instead of a "chore"
