Just Before Her Death

Judy Dull, 19, Hollywood model, tied and gagged, is seated in a chair in the apartment of Harvey M. Glatman, in San Diego, Calif., just before she was strangled by Glatman in July 1957. Glatman, who took the photo, was sentenced to death for killing two other women. This photo and several of other victims were entered as evidence at his trial and released by the prosecution. Glatman, who posed as a photographer, "hired" the models, and talked them into letting themselves be tied up ostensibly for crime magazine illustrations.

Winners Named In Decoration Contest

Big share of the honors and $75 in prize money were won by Mrs. H. T. Bratcher, 1505 Aylford, in the Christmas Home Decorations Contest. Mrs. Bratcher's displays won first place in the window division, and grabbed championship honors as the best over-all Christmas scene in the city. Three winners were picked in each division, with prizes of $25, $15 and $10 awarded. In addition, a $50 award was given for the best over-all display.

Toys Will Be Shown Sunday

Big Springers will have a chance Sunday to see what miracles the firemen performed on old broken toys. All the toys which were repaired, repainted and reassembled by the fire department for distribution to needy families at Christmas will be on display Sunday afternoon beginning at 1 p.m., in the Salvation Army reported. The toys have been assembled in the old Ford building at 4th and Bell, and Fire Chief H. V. Crocker and Capt. Fred Overton of the Salvation Army urged everyone to come by and inspect the toys. Crocker said that the appeals this year for toys were heeded, and he felt that there would be enough "big" toys—bicycles, wagons, tricycles—to fill the needs. The fire department has now finished its big part in the drive, Crocker said. The Salvation Army will screen the applicants for toys and actually handle the distribution of them. This distribution will come either one or two days before Christmas.

Institutions Suspend For Holidays

Friday was H-Day—for holidays—for several Big Spring Institutions. In spite of its enormous size, it is said to be so delicate that you can drive a hammer into it with a good solid blow. Its thin walls act not only as fuselage, but also as fuel tanks. Loaded for its space duties, it weighs about 122 tons. The missile stands on concrete pedestals well over two stories high. Through these pedestals bends a long funnel—a sort of horn of plenty with its small end ready to receive the fire of the Atlas engines. When the missile blasts off, the exhaust flames from the engines pour through the funnel—cooled by some 30,000 gallons of water a minute. Even then the flames soar almost the full length of a football field from the open end of the flame deflector. Flame, steam and running water pour over the concrete spillway. Then the missile begins to rise slowly from the pad—gradually gaining speed. The two booster engines, churning at some 150,000 pounds of thrust each—and the central sustainer engine with another 100,000 pounds of thrust push the missile aloft. After the big booster engines have burned their fuels, they shuck off like two unneeded wings and the Atlas burns onward with its sustained engine alone.

At Hearing

Rep. Brooks Hays (D-Ark.) appears before a special House committee in Washington which is checking his election defeat by write-in candidate, Dale Alford, Little Rock segregationist.

Pullman Car Size Missile In Orbit

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States, triumphant at hurling a four-ton satellite into orbit, raised its space sights another notch today. The men who built the earth-circling device, which dwarfs the Soviet Union's 1 1/2-ton Sputnik III, talked about putting a man aboard another one and sending it to Venus or Mars.

President Eisenhower called it "a distinct step forward... (which) opens new opportunities to the United States and all mankind." The Pentagon echoed his words, accenting the peaceful aspects of launching a satellite the size of a Pullman car.

But early comment from members of Congress indicated a preference to dwell on what it means in military terms. And even in Moscow, celebrating the 3,000th orbiting of Sputnik III, man-in-the-street reaction was favorable. American reporters, bereft of any official comment, approached a cab driver who said: "Good. It gives us competition."

ALL OF IT IN ORBIT Eisenhower broke the news dramatically at a White House state dinner for diplomats. White House press secretary James C. Hagerty and Pentagon officials spread the word to reporters and the world.

The Atlas intercontinental ballistic missile was launched at 6:02 p.m. Thursday from Cape Canaveral, Fla. The whole thing, 85 feet long and 10 feet wide, went into orbit. It is the biggest known man-made object swinging around the globe. Its weight, between 8,700 and 8,800 pounds, nearly trebles the 2,915 pounds of Soviet Sputnik III, fired last May 15.

Sputnik III's rocket, variously estimated to weigh between two and five tons, trailed it until being burned up by air friction Dec. 2. The Atlas' orbit girdles the earth every 100 minutes at altitudes varying between 118 to 625 miles. Most Americans can see it, glowing like a star, especially at dusk and in the South. Its estimated life aloft is 20 days.

Radio signals for tracking purposes are coming from the giant artificial moon on two frequencies: 107.97 megacycles and 107.94 megacycles. Moonwatchers at El Paso, Tex., were first to report spotting it visually. They reported at 9:30 p.m. that it glowed at its magnitude, just a bit brighter than the stars in the Milky Way.

The Air Force dubbed its satellite Operation Score, after the first letters of the words signal, communications, orbit, relay experiment. These summed up its purposes except for the basic one. This was to see if the Atlas would fly as faithfully as it did two weeks ago, when it traveled a prescribed 6,325-mile course over the Atlantic.

Of Thursday night's test, the Pentagon said, "Most successful." But it did much more, as the Pentagon pointed out in a statement: "The entire vehicle achieved an orbit. As such, it is the largest satellite that has been put into orbit by the United States. More importantly, this marks the first time that a high accuracy missile guidance system has been used to steer such a vehicle into its orbital trajectory." Thus, in a matter of minutes, the United States proved once more that it has a dependable ICBM and also took the wind out of Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's taunts about "lemon-size" U.S. satellites. There was a novel twist to the launching which sent the Atlas soaring at 17,000 miles an hour. In its nose cone was a unique communications system—and there was speculation that its tape recordings included the voice of Eisenhower.

NO COMMENT Newsmen expressed this speculation to Pentagon officials, who would neither confirm nor deny it. The communications system is part of the 150-pound payload in the rocket's nose cone. It records messages sent to it and, on a command signal later, sends the messages back to earth. The Atlas weighed 100 tons on the ground. The combined thrust of its three rocket engines at sea level was 359,000 pounds. Once fired, its two booster engines dropped off and what was left, the instrumented carcass and burned-out third engine, went into orbit. Powered flight lasted 4 1/2 minutes. The spectacular shot drew such comment as this: Karl Bossart, test director at Convair-Astronautics, which built the Atlas: "Only the beginning. With something else on top of it, the Atlas can reach the Moon or Venus."

Kraft A. Ehrlicke, assistant to the chief engineer at Convair: "We can put a man in space with the Atlas, with special precautions to keep him alive." Eisenhower: "This launching constitutes a distinct step forward in space operations. The success opens new opportunities to the United States and all mankind." Three other satellites are still in space—any American. They include: The Navy's Vanguard I, a 3 1/2-pounder launched March 17 and expected to stay up 200 years. The Army's Explorer I, 30.3 pounds, launched Jan. 31. Explorer IV, 37.1 pounds, launched July 26. Both Explorers have a five-year life expectancy.

Slow On 'Draw' ALBERT LEA, Minn. (AP)—The police reporter explained: "Lt. Hjalmer Christenson went out there and disposed of it with his trusty .38. The skunk was not very fast on the draw." The Chesley Gilbertsons had called the police after the animal got into their garbage can.

Little Rock Publisher Who Dented Alford Abhors Politics

By CLIFTON WELLS LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—"I abhor politics," says John F. Wells, an Arkansas politician.

Wells, publisher of a Little Rock weekly newspaper, was thrust onto the national political stage when he contested the election of Dr. Dale Alford in Arkansas' 5th Congressional district. As a result of Wells' investigation and testimony, a House committee recommended 3-2 that Alford be denied a seat in the House pending an investigation.

Alford, a staunch segregationist, conducted a last-minute, whirlwind campaign as a write-in candidate to unseat veteran Rep. Brooks Hays (D-Ark.), a moderate on the racial issue. Alford won by about 1,200 votes. Wells charged that the Alford campaign and election was fraught with irregularities, fraud and conspiracy. He singled out Arkansas Gov. Orval E. Faubus as an alleged conspirator to turn out Hays, the Democratic opposition. Faubus has denied the accusation. Informing the public has been Wells' goal most of his 56 years. He began his career as $7.50-a-week newspaper reporter in Little Rock, his home town. He won honorable mention on the Pulitzer Prize list in 1932 for a series of articles exposing graft in public office.

When he quit the daily field in 1936, the staff of Little Rock's Arkansas Gazette wrote of their departing city editor: He was bitten by a small but vicious insect known as the Bogus Politician.

Wells served in the administration of the late Carl E. Bailey, who was Arkansas' governor from 1937 to 1941. He was left to his own devices after Bailey was defeated in a third term bid. Still a newspaperman at heart, he scraped to gether enough money to buy a used newspaper press and went into the printing business.

He launched his weekly Arkansas Recorder a few years later. Some called the Recorder a political newspaper. Wells said it was a "government news digest." "A lot of people think I like politics," he said. "I abhor politics. I definitely believe that government is the big challenge. 'I think politics is a necessary evil.'"

The Recorder's purpose, he continued, was to report state government news in depth—something he felt the dailies failed to do. By policy the Recorder avoids interviews with political officeholders. Its stories, instead, rely on public records. The paper—with a paid circulation of approximately 4,000—is also a sounding board for Wells. His pointed editorials have lashed friends and foe alike and generally take the stand of the Southern conservative.

In recent years his main target for criticism has been Gov. Faubus. Wells has denounced the U. S. Supreme Court's desegregation decision, while decrying Faubus' handling of the Little Rock school integration. A friend who felt the sting of Wells' editorial vote was Hays himself. Despite their close relationship, Wells' recorder pointed an accusing finger at the congressman for his racial moderation.

But Wells doesn't feel he is fighting Hays' battle, or against Alford. "It should be Wells vs. Faubus," he said. As the victims neared death, the sulfa drugs were applied. Again, the wonder of it: of the 79 women, 53 survived. What condition are they in now? They have a variety of diseases, such as cardiac ailments, osteomyelitis, pernicious anemia, tuberculosis, hypertension, asthma. And they have constant leg pains. Since the end of World War II the only support the women had received was from the Polish government. But last summer a group of Americans, the Hiroshima Peace Center Associates, decided to help them. The Polish women will spend six days in New York. Then they go to live in the homes of Americans who volunteered their hospitality. In each place, destinations not disclosed, medical treatment has been arranged for them.

Victims Of Nazi Medical Experiments Arrive In U.S.

NEW YORK (AP)—The wonder of it is that they can still smile—the 27 women who underwent the tortures of the damned as the human guinea pigs in Nazi experiments.

The women, flown in Thursday from Warsaw, chattered happily when the big plane dropped down from above the clouds to give them their first view of America. But physically, it was a painful exit from the plane at Idlewild Airport. It was the halt leading the lame, and here is why: At one time their legs had been cut open, their bones broken or shattered. Poisonous bacilli or gangrene-causing material such

Jury Commission Is Still Working

Jury commissioners for the 118th District Court moved into their second day's session in the Howard County grand jury room Friday. They have been instructed to draw 400 petit jurors and 20 grand jurors for the January term of the court. It was said they would probably complete their work and report to the court this afternoon. Mary Cantrell, Mrs. Rad Ware, J. D. Elliott, Horace Reagan and Roy Anderson are the commissioners.

Young Mother Takes On Care Of Orphaned Brothers, Sisters

CHICAGO (AP)—They're going to have Christmas at the Herman Smith House, but it won't be easy. "It happened too near Christmas to do anything much," Mrs. Smith said, "but we're going to have a tree and things." What happened was that Mrs. Smith's mother Mrs. Alberta Williams died Nov. 8. While the mother was on her deathbed, Mrs. Smith vowed to keep the 14 young Williams children together. Mrs. Smith took charge of her brothers and sisters, ranging in age from 2 months to 13 years. She has four youngsters of her own, aged 2 months to 4 years. So now Mrs. Smith is mothering 18 little ones. And she herself is only 22. Mrs. Smith—her given name is Marie—is a tall, shapely girl with wide-set brown eyes and hair drawn back in a pony tail. To a reporter who visited her she looked like a high school senior. How does she manage? "I get up at 4:30," she said. "I have to get a brother off on his paper route. Then I get breakfast ready. One mornin' it's oatmeal, one mornin' pancakes, one mornin' grits and eggs." Mrs. Smith, who used to live in Atlanta, whips up biscuits for breakfast and corn bread for the evening meal. "At supper I feed 'em in shifts," she said. "First the babies, then the school kids, then the grownups. We can eat in peace that way."

How about living space? The Smiths have been living in a six-room basement flat in an old frame house. They have just rented the eight rooms on the first floor to give them a total of 14. "The rent for the two flats is $120 a month," said Herman Smith, 32, who makes $60 a week as a gasoline station attendant. "It takes $50 to $75 a week for groceries."

The bulk of the double family's income is $414 a month for aid to dependent children. It goes to the widower, Alonzo Williams, who lives with the Smiths. He isn't working because of a chronic stomach ailment. Mrs. Smith, who shows a fondness for such newfangled styles as taredoor pants while displaying the dauntless spirit of pioneer womenfolk, is determined to keep all the kids together. "I got love for my brothers and sisters and I can't see 'em livin' anywhere else," she said.

Space Flight, Laboratories Step Closer Thanks To Atlas

620 May Die Over Holidays

CHICAGO (AP)—The National Safety Council today estimated that 620 Americans will be killed in traffic accidents during the four-day Christmas holiday period. The period will begin at 6 p.m. (local time) Wednesday, Dec. 24, and will end at midnight Sunday, Dec. 27.

"Those deaths need not occur and should not occur," the council said.

And it provided this prescription for driving and staying alive:

Start early, cut speed to meet traffic and weather conditions, pull off the road if you feel tired or sleepy.

If you've been drinking, the council added, don't drive.

Reds Rated Lower In Plane Progress

By ELTON C. FAY
WASHINGTON (AP)—A new estimate by American authorities of Russia's missile-bomber progress gives the Reds a lower rating than half a year ago.

An assessment made last spring, which indicated substantial leads by the Soviets in several fields of weapons, has been re-evaluated, responsible sources said today.

Now the relative, over-all position of the United States in ballistic missiles appears to have improved. In manned bombers this country retains what the analysts consider a clear superiority.

Soviet Premier Khrushchev's recent claim of an intercontinental ballistic missile capable of 8,700-mile range does not seem to have influenced this re-evaluation. Nor are the analysts ready to accept completely reports that Russia is flying a nuclear powered bomber.

The United States may not have a high-performance nuclear bomber flying for another five to eight years.

In the case of the ICBM, U. S. authorities make these points:

Khrushchev speaking to U. S. Hubert Humphrey (D-Minn) in Moscow, did not appear to have claimed that Russia had fired a missile 8,700 miles but merely said it could spur the Russians to push harder and faster in their always secret space plans.

Just 14½ months ago, man was still earthbound. Then Sputnik I startled, and shocked, the Western world.

Now the United States has scored a prodigious comeback. It possesses the heaviest as well as the most satellites. It has sent two probes nearly a third of the way to the moon.

Temporarily, America leads. But the Soviet Union could play the next trump soon. Indeed, some space experts are puzzled why she hasn't done something spectacular since the 1½-ton Sputnik soared up last May.

The main significance of Atlas is in advancing the ability accurately to thrust big and heavy satellites into space.

Big enough to carry men.

Big enough to watch the world's weather in the making through TV eyes, tracking hurricanes, vastly improving forecasts.

Or act as great communications centers, instantaneously relaying a vast volume of cables, "mail" and TV shows to any point on earth.

Or to carry telescopes seeing our universe with awesome and rewarding new clarity, undisturbed by the earth's shimmering air.

All these are eagerly anticipated by scientists.

The Atlas missile will be a main workhorse toward these goals until far more powerful rockets are developed.

Atlas, with smaller rockets staged atop it, could also launch instrumented probes investigating Venus and Mars, or going into orbit as artificial planets of the sun. Shots for Venus and Mars are among U. S. current plans.

Before man looks down at earth from a sky perch, much hard work remains to be done.

We must learn how to recover the protective, well-stocked capsule that can sustain his life within a satellite. Re-entry and medical problems of survival are being vigorously studied.

Rockets and controls must become reliable enough to give the volunteer a really good chance of making the round-trip.

Condemned Youth Is Adjudged Insane

HOUSTON (AP)—Robert Lee Freeman, 19, under death sentence for throttling his girl friend in 1957, is legally insane, a jury decided yesterday.

He had told questioners he killed Sandra Jean Maywald, 17, because she quit dating him.

Jurors heard three psychiatrists testify that in their opinion the youth was mentally unbalanced. One of them, Dr. Howard Crow, called Freeman a "definite menace to the community."

The verdict means Freeman will be confined in a state hospital. Another jury found earlier that he was sane and assessed the death penalty for murder.

The district court jury also found William Alfred Dowling, 40, another convicted slayer, is sane. He was under death sentence for slaying his wife.

Sick, Tired Bulganin Grovels Before Ex-Friend Khrushchev

By THOMAS P. WHITNEY
AP Foreign News Analyst
Sick, tired old Nikolai Bulganin groveled before Nikita Khrushchev Thursday and begged to be allowed to live out his days in peace.

Bulganin admitted to the Communist Party Central Committee that he had conspired against the party. The 63-year-old former Soviet Premier said Premier Nikita Khrushchev was right in accusing him and four other ousted leaders of reactionary activities.

Khrushchev apparently staged the humiliation of his old traveling companion as a weapon against continued conservative opposition to his radical adaptations of Communist doctrine to Soviet economic conditions.

By making the proceedings of the committee meeting public immediately, Khrushchev took his case directly to the people, whom he is wooing with promises that industrial and agricultural innovations will mean better living.

Bulganin's confession and Khrushchev's own attacks on the five-man "anti-party group" are designed to discredit all who oppose Khrushchev.

Contrite speeches were one of the devices used by Stalin to discredit his opponents. They were a prelude to execution then. None of the anti-party five is known to have met a fate worse than banishment to a small-fry job in the provinces.

Former Premier Georgi Malenkov was last reported running a power station, former Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov was serving as ambassador to Outer Mongolia, former Foreign Minister Dmitri Shepilov was teaching school and onetime economic boss Lazar Kaganovich was running a factory.

Bulganin came out of semi-retirement in southern Russia to speak again in the committee where once he was a prominent voice. As premier from 1955 until last March, while party boss Khrushchev actually ran the country, Bulganin's stout, goateed figure became world famous.

He traveled to India, Britain and other countries with Khrushchev. He posed for pictures with President Eisenhower in Geneva in 1955 and signed numerous letters to the White House.

But, Bulganin said Thursday, "when in 1957 the anti-party activities of (the other four) actively developed, I joined them." As premier, he added, "I not only became their accomplice but also nominally their leader."

"The anti-party group met in my office and there concerted their anti-party reactionary work." This Bulganin explained, consisted of opposing "the general line of the Central Committee," which Khrushchev laid down.

Always a shrewd politician with an eye to his own and other people's intrigue, Khrushchev held off a showdown with the group in June 1957 until he could bring up enough party supporters to outvote and exile them. Bulganin then turned coat and ended up backing the winner, but he himself lasted only a few months longer.

Russ Legate Is Ladyless

WASHINGTON (AP) — Soviet Ambassador Mikhail Menshikov found himself in something of a lone wolf role at Wednesday night's White House state dinner for diplomats, with "no lady allocated for me."

Protocol seemed to be taking a backseat in other ways.

President Eisenhower passed up champagne with his guests from 43 nations to join 44 choir boy entertainers having soft drinks.

The White House staged the first of two dinners for the heads of 83 foreign missions.

Of the 78 guests Wednesday night, there were 10 "extra" men and Ambassador Menshikov was one of them.

The usually smiling Russian, looking a little glum, walked alone as the diplomats and ladies went by two into the East Ballroom for an after-dinner musicale.

When reporters asked why he was alone, he smiled and explained that his wife was home in Moscow and there was "no lady allocated for me."

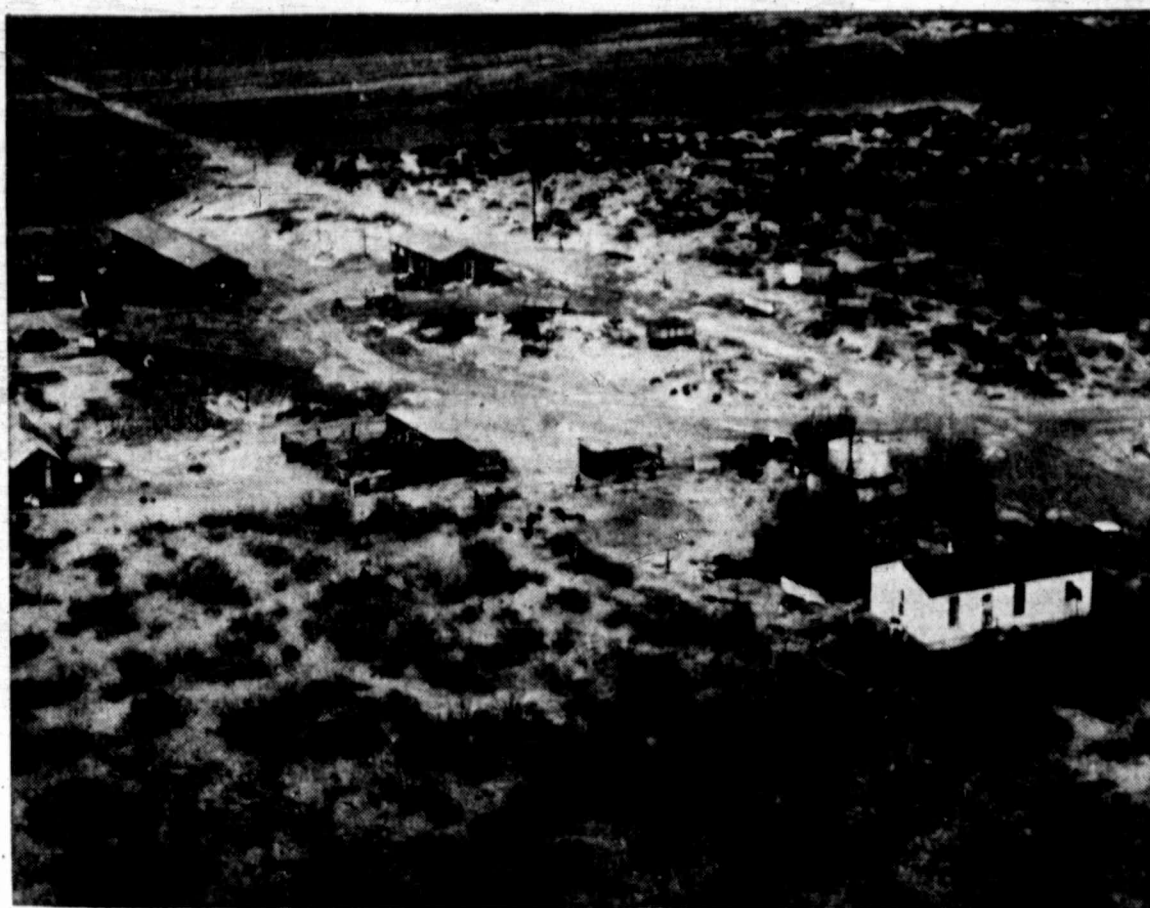

He was still alone as the guests went into a late evening duffet. He was among the first guests to leave.

West German Cop Freed Of Treason

KARLSRUHE, Germany (AP) — Dr. Wolfgang Wohlgemuth, who former West German security chief Otto John claimed spirited him to East Germany, was acquitted today of treason charges.

The West German Supreme Court said there was no evidence that the suave doctor's relations with East German Communists were treasonable or that he had kidnaped John.

John defected to Communist East Germany July 20, 1954. Returning after 17 months, he claimed Wohlgemuth drugged and kidnaped him for the Reds.

This is the home of the Melvin Bryson family and headquarters for the Lee Hanson ranch in north-east Martin County. Bryson is foreman and has worked for Hanson since 1951. The house, barn and corrals are near the center of the spread.

Hanson Spread Covers Nearly 5 Sections In Martin County

Last week's Mystery Farm picture showed the headquarters for a 4 1/4-section spread lying in the northeastern corner of Martin County and owned by Lee Hanson.

The Lee Hanson place is about five miles west of West Knott, with the house shown in the picture about a mile off the Knott road.

Hanson, who lives in Big Spring at 1401 Rummels, has owned most of the spread since 1943. He purchased most of it at that time from several owners, including M. M. Mancil, Edgar Phillips, Emmett Grantham, and Miller Nichols.

One hundred sixty-two bales of cotton came off the place this year, but in past times, it wasn't uncommon to pick from 200-300 bales each fall. That was before the days of cotton allotments when Hanson had 600 acres in cotton. The 162 bales of cotton this year came off 339 acres. The rest of the 800 acres in cultivation is in feed.

Half a section of the land in cultivation lies in Sulphur Draw and is fed by underground water

3 Abilene Students Killed In Car Crash

EUPORA, Miss. (AP) — Three students of Abilene, Tex., colleges died yesterday as their car smashed against a bridge east of here on U.S. 82.

Two other students, one also from Abilene, suffered critical injuries.

The crash killed Edward Allen Whitmore, 21, of Chattanooga, Tenn., and Edward Albert Garland, 19, of Collingdale, Pa., both students at Abilene Christian College, and Frank Palmer Fitzgerald of Silver Spring, Md., a ministerial student at Hardin-Simmons University.

Hospitalized at Jackson, Miss., are David Brown, 20, of Long Branch, N.J., another Hardin-Simmons ministerial student, and Joe Gibson of Rossville, Ga., a University of Oklahoma student.

Garland was believed to have been at the wheel. Officers said the driver apparently dozed.

Navy Cutback Hits Two Cities

By The Associated Press

The Navy's curtailment of its missile program, reduction of shore establishments, and rejection of a Texas-built plane has hit hard at Dallas and Corpus Christi.

Cancellation of the Navy's 78-million-dollar Regulus II guided missile program is expected to force Chance Vought Aircraft, Inc. to lay off 2,000 more workers at its Dallas plant.

This will bring to approximately 3,400 the number of workers to be laid off as result of Navy action this week. Wednesday the Navy cancelled its contract for Chance Vought's all-weather fighter in favor of a competitive plane developed by McDonnell Aircraft Co. of St. Louis, forcing the laying off of 1,400 workers. Before the cuts, the Dallas plant employed approximately 16,000 workers.

Corpus Christi was the big loser in the Navy's plan to cut back its operations in 17 states, eliminating about 9,000 civilian jobs over the nation during the next several years.

The overhaul and repair activity at the Naval Air Station in Corpus Christi will be the largest Navy center listed for shutdown. Approximately 3,015 civilian employees will be released when the establishment is cut down next July.

The five-room house shown in the lower right corner of the picture is occupied by the Melvin Bryson family. Bryson is foreman on the place and has been living there and working for Hanson since 1951. The Brysons have three girls.

Hanson, though living in Big Spring, continues to manage the place and spends quite a bit of time there.

Also living on the place is a Latin American, Jose Garfus, who has been working for Hanson about five years.

Hanson runs about 80 whiteface cows on the place normally, but the pasture will handle as many as 100. He branded 68 calves there this year.

The headquarters shown in the picture is not in a corner of the spread but nearer the middle. Most of the acreage lies east of the house.

Ft. Worth Ignores Ruling On Radar

FORT WORTH (AP)—The City of Fort Worth plans to continue to use radar to catch speeders even though a city councilman yesterday won a court ruling which said the electronic system was not recognized by law.

In freeing Councilman Jesse Roach, charged with driving 41 miles an hour in a 30-mile zone, Special Municipal Judge Oliver W. Fannin Sr. said "I am going to rule on the fact that there's no statute in Texas on the legality of radar and for that reason, I'm going to find the defendant not guilty."

City legal experts expressed surprise at the ruling, saying that radar had been upheld by courts all over the nation as a legal means of enforcing speed laws. They said that they did not feel that yesterday's ruling would impair the city's ability to use radar in the future.

DEAR ABBY

START TALKING

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: You may say this is not my problem but I am very much disturbed and don't know what to do. Our son, who is 15, pals around with his boy cousin who is the same age. Our son started to avoid his cousin and when we questioned him he said the boy can't go into a place downtown without stealing one or two small articles. We know my brother and his wife have no idea their son does these things. We hate to tattle-tale, but we are afraid if we let it go on, the boy will be caught and taken to the police station. His father is a well liked, prominent businessman in town. Should I give them some hint or stay out of it altogether?

Wife" after he's instructed me to turn them down. Isn't there more to being "the man of the house" than just signing the checks?

DEAR CONFUSED: A "man" (and I use the term loosely) who constantly uses his wife as the goat is a little boy grown tall.

DEAR ABBY: I have a sister whom I call on the telephone and she is my problem. The minute she hears my voice she says, "Wait a second until I find a cigarette." When she returns I ask her what she is doing and she says "Nothing." About half an hour later she says, "I have to run, there is someone waiting outside in the car for me!" and bang goes the receiver. Is this a nice way to treat an elder sister?

DEAR ABBY: This is no time for "hints." A frank heart-to-heart talk is the only solution. For the boy's own good, and as a favor to his parents I urge you to tell them at once.

DEAR ABBY: Is it right for a husband to avoid poker games which he doesn't care for with the excuse, "My wife objects." He also tells salesmen to "talk to the

THE ELDEST DEAR ELDEST: Half an hour on the telephone should be a pretty complete chat. She could be more courteous, but perhaps if you brought the conversation to a close earlier, she'd be happier to chat with you.

DEAR ABBY: I see so much about married men getting mixed up with single women who'd just as soon break up their homes as not. I have been around a lot and would like to say that no man has to break up his home if he doesn't want to. Here are THREE good excuses he can use when his girlfriend puts the pressure on him. (They work, too, because I have used them.)

1. "You are a good kid and deserve better than me, so I am turning you loose for your own good." 2. "I can't stay true to one woman as you can plainly see." 3. "My wife is crazy and I can't leave her in that condition."

DEAR ABBY: Why do some parents object to ROCK AND ROLL? There is nothing wrong with it and let me tell you something—my mother has a pile of old records and I played them and if you think rock and roll is bad you should hear the one that was popular in her day called "MINNIE THE MOOCHER."

Kitchen Place For Christmas

ST. JOHNS, Nfld. (AP)—"Come out to our place for Christmas," said skipper John Chafe to a friend. "Ye have no room to hang 'er down in the city." Chafe feels sorry for city dwellers who build spacious living rooms and small kitchens. He says the prime ingredient for a good time is a sizable kitchen—the center of activity in many Newfoundland homes.

Chafe, a veteran of 40 years on fishing boats and in the woods, is like hundreds on the Avalon Peninsula—known for "times" at Christmas. Celebrations often last two weeks. He explains: "We pull the table from the wall, pile the food and rum on her and them that can't find a place to sit down can go in the living room."

The door opens continually as friends and relatives drop in to sample the skipper's rum and his wife's cooking. "She'll be a good one this year. I got $45 saved up in an old tin for liquor," says Chafe. The skipper will take his battered fiddle from the wall and play jigs and reels for hours while the floor groans under dozens of dancing feet. Between dances, men will tell jokes and stories, often about their experiences on the Grand Banks or in search of seals.

Some visitors will stay for days. Others leave only to return with another bottle, another friend or more food. The merry-making continues until all have had enough to last till next Christmas.

Fiscal Probe Battle Looms

WASHINGTON (AP)—A new Democratic attempt will be made in the next Congress to force a broad investigation of Eisenhower administration money and credit policies. This was assured today when Rep. Wright Patman (D-Tex) said he will reintroduce the same investigative resolution that was defeated in the House last year after a bitter floor fight. Patman said in an interview the proposed inquiry should go into what he called the administration's "hard money, high interest" monetary policies. He said it also should take in the national banking system and the Federal Reserve system. He told a reporter his own inquiries had uncovered indications of "fraud, dishonesty and corruption" in administration of the government's monetary operation through the Federal Reserve. He did not elaborate. Patman is one of the most vocal congressional critics of the administration's monetary policies. He contends they result in higher interest rates, benefiting only the bankers. The Texas congressman also is a long-time advocate of revision of the Federal Reserve system's independent status. He would make the Federal Reserve, the national banking system of the government, more responsive to Congress and the administration in power.

Bridge Dumps Car, Bulldozer, 4 People

CALALEN, Tex. (AP)—Four persons, a car and a bulldozer fell into the Nueces River as the middle span of a steel bridge gave way yesterday. Fishermen rescued the four motorists, who scrambled from the car moments after it sank. They are Grace Wilson, 53; Mrs. Annice Elliott, 49; Bobby Elliott, 12; and Walter Hillard, 52, all of Corpus Christi. They apparently suffered no serious injury. Trucker Leroy Harp of Alice hit the accelerator as he felt the 150-foot span quiver. His truck got across safely but the bulldozer it was carrying rolled off into the stream. The bridge, 16 miles northwest of Corpus Christi on Highway 9, was built in 1932. Nearby is a new two-way concrete bridge over the Nueces.

Garza Discovery In Permian Finals For Dual Completion

The Wilson No. 1 Connell well in Garza County which was re-perforated Thursday as a San Andres discovery, has also been finalized as a strike in the Gorieta.

The Gorieta section yielded 51 barrels of oil below 3,000 feet. Earlier, it potentialized 101 barrels of oil from the San Andres. The strike is about six miles east of Post and was drilled to try the Ellenburger. It found the deep zone dry, however.

No Alert For Missile Watch

Big Spring Moonwatchers may be out peering skyward for a possible glimpse of the new Atlas satellite but it will be on a strictly voluntary basis.

The local organization has received no official information at noon relative to the new man-made moon and no instructions to watch for its passage in the skies.

E. B. McCormick, chairman of the Big Spring Satellite Observers Corps, said he had not even heard that a new satellite had been discharged until informed by the press.

"We have had no information from the headquarters relative to posting watch for the thing," he said.

"If we get a message, naturally we will try to muster a crew and man our observation post."

J. T. Clements, vice president of the corps said he had no word nor any information about the satellite other than what he read in the papers or heard on radio broadcasts.

Texas Legislative Council Urges Interest Rate Control

AUSTIN (AP)—The Texas Legislative Council voted today to recommend passage of a law permitting the Legislature to set interest rates on small loans and to license small loan lenders.

The council said the licensing and regulatory bill "is designed to eliminate unethical and unscrupulous lenders, the so-called loan sharks, to regulate and control business practices and to curb abuse of borrowers at the hands of lenders."

Texas now has a constitutional limitation of 10 per cent a year on interest rates, one of four states with such a limit.

The council recommended to the Legislature passage of a constitutional amendment which would authorize the Legislature to classify loans and lenders, license and regulate lenders, define interest and fix maximum rates of interest. This would take approval of the voters in addition to a two-thirds vote of the lawmakers.

A study committee, headed by Sen. Abraham Kazen Jr. of Laredo, said the operations of the small loan business in Texas in recent years had been characterized by numerous abuses of borrowers by loan sharks. The committee said overcharging, pyramiding of loans and harassment of borrowers had been cited in the business and occurred because the state did not have adequate laws for regulation.

The council adopted without discussion these other proposals: An increase of 100 highway patrolmen for the fiscal year ending Aug. 31, 1960 and of another 100 highway patrolmen the next year.

Salaries of highway patrolmen increased with the student patrolman's starting salary of $300 a month be raised to $317. Add driver education as a state-

Goldfine Guilty Of Contempt In Tax Probe

BOSTON (AP)—Industrialist Bernard Goldfine was convicted in federal court today of criminal contempt for failure to comply with the court's order to produce records of one of his textile mills in a tax probe.

About the same time Judge Charles E. Wyzanski Jr. was filing his decision in Boston, the 67-year-old Goldfine was reading innocent in Washington to a contempt of Congress indictment.

Goldfine's secretary, Miss Mildred Paperman, also was found guilty of criminal contempt in regard to the Strathmore Mills of Boston and the Northfield Mills of Northfield, Vt., two other Goldfine enterprises.

The Goldfine conviction was on books of the Lebanon Mills of Lebanon, N. H.

Goldfine was found innocent on complaints regarding the records of the Lebedale Mills of Lebanon, N. H. and George Mabbett & Sons Co., of Plymouth, Mass.

In Washington Goldfine is accused of flouting Congress by refusing to tell House investigators enough about his financial dealings.

In the Washington hearing it was brought out Goldfine had made gifts to former presidential aide Sherman Adams and other public officials. Adams denied there was any wrongdoing in the matter. He subsequently resigned his White House post.

Goldfine stepped forward briskly today when his name was called in District Court in the nation's capital. He pleaded "not guilty" in a firm voice. Judge John J. Sirica set his trial for March 16.

Goldfine had little to say to reporters and was unaware at the time of the court action in Boston.

In the Boston decision, Judge Wyzanski said he will impose sentence Monday.

Passengers Get Grandstand Seat In Atlas Firing

CHICAGO (AP)—Some 90 passengers on a Miami-to-Chicago airliner saw from their grandstand the sight of a lifetime Thursday night—launching of the Atlas satellite.

The plane, a Delta Air Lines DC7B, was flying at 19,000 feet over Vero Beach, Fla., when the satellite missile was fired from Cape Canaveral about 40 miles to the east.

Pilot Ralph Eames turned his plane broadside to the spectacle as passengers, alerted by First Officer William Ballenger, stared out of the ship's right side windows.

Schoolboy Gridders In Final Contests

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Writer

Goliad Ninth Wins, 38-27

Lamesa Junior High School basketball teams slipped into town Thursday and slipped out with two victories in three tries against Goliad JH quints.

Only Dan Lewis' Ninth Graders were able to salvage a victory for Maverick teams. They won by a score of 38-27, after a slow start. The Ninth Graders now have a 3-1 won-loss record.

Jim Madry, although he couldn't hit a free throw, scored 14 points as the Big Spring leader.

Goliad's Eighth Graders lost a 25-12 verdict while the Goliad Seventh finished on the short end of a 36-34 score in a game that was decided in overtime.

Goliad's chances diminished in that one when John Paul Amos, the team's leading scorer up to that point, fouled out. Amos and D. Anderson tied for top honors, each with 10 points.

The Goliad Eighth Graders now are 1-3 on the season while the Seventh Graders are winless in two starts.

clash at Austin for the Class AAAA crown. Breckenridge and Kingsville battle at Breckenridge for the Class AAAA gonfalon, Stamford and Angolan play at Waco for the Class AA title and White Deer meets Elgin at Sweetwater for the Class A championship.

Only Angleton boasts an undefeated, untied record and that isn't expected to stand when the smoke has cleared Saturday.

White Deer is unbeaten but has a tie on its record.

Crowds totaling 35,000 are expected to see the four state finals with the biggest turnout at Austin where 20,000 will watch the top class melee. Breckenridge will have 7,000—all that can get into the park—Waco looks for 3,000 to 5,000 and Sweetwater is due to lure 3,200 into the stadium.

The gallant bid of Pasadena for the Class AAAA crown has captured the fans' imagination. It's a team that wasn't even expected to win its district title and certainly not to reach the finals of one of the toughest races in history. But it's the longest underdog in years. Wichita Falls, with what many consider the best team ever produced—and Wichita Falls has won three state championships—is so heavily favored it may get cocky.

The Coyote attack, featuring the passing and running of John Gunning and Travis Reagan, is absolutely awesome. Wichita Falls smashed Abilene, the team that was favored to win the title, and it soundly whipped Highland Park, the defending champion.

Breckenridge also is a heavy favorite over Kingsville, the Cinderella boys from the South who bounced back from a 50-6 lushing at the hands of Kerrville to rush into the finals on the flying feet of Doug Harvey and Preacher Pilot. Breckenridge is the only team holding a decision over mighty Wichita Falls.

Stamford will be after its third state championship in four years when it lines up against Angleton at Waco. The fact that it was able to remove the fine Terrell team, the defending champion, made it the favorite over Angleton with its versatile Randy Curson. Donnie Davis leads a fearsome Stamford offense.

Everybody has wondered how Elgin ever got into the finals but there has been no mystery about White Deer, which leads the state in scoring. The Bucks have rolled up 511 points in 14 games. Elgin's big hope is Harry Krenk, a runner, passer and defensive stalwart. White Deer features the running of Hershel Powell and Allen Harmon and the passing of talented Jackie Burns.

The Elgin-White Deer game is the only one that is expected to be a close one. It may be a bit of a toss-up, but it is expected to be one of the best of the season.

The record was four out of eight last week. Here's the final round-up:

Wichita Falls 26, Pasadena 8, Breckenridge 14, Kingsville 6, Stamford 16, Angleton 8, White Deer 20, Elgin 7.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

If Bill Thompson isn't the most improved basketball player I've seen, then he comes close to it.

Bill was good last season, but he more or less lived in the shadow of Jan Loudermilk. He fed the ball to big Jan and helped him set scoring records that may never be broken around here. He did a very workmanlike job in the back courts and had as much to do with the Big Spring Steers' successes as any player. Still, he let Jan reap most of the headlines, content in being a part of the winning fabric that coach Johnny Johnson had woven.

With Loudermilk gone, Thompson moved to center stage, however. He has developed to the extent that should some curious stranger approach any local basketball buff with the request, "Take me to your leader," Thompson would be the lad they'd head for.

Bill can drive. He can stand in the backcourts and pop the cotton. He can rebound and he can defend with the best of them. Those who haven't seen him play are missing a treat.

A rumor has now become a fact.

Big Ten teams will start playing a round-robin schedule in 1960, which means that each team will be able to schedule only one practice tilt.

The conference teams now play no more than six or seven league contests.

The Big Ten doesn't have to worry whether or not such a schedule will alienate the affections of observers in other sections of the country. They annually lead the country in attendance.

Warren Spahn, the Milwaukee hurler, values his farm near Harts-horne, Okla., at $450,000 and says it is all paid for.

Spahn, a native New Yorker, decided to make Oklahoma his home after soldiering there during World War II and meeting his future wife.

One third of the six University of Texas football players who completed their eligibility the past season hail from Colorado City.

J. B. Padgett and Arlis Parkhurst of Cee City are among the six Longhorns who will earn sheepskins in June.

Jesse Ballew, who played football for Levelland against Big Spring, is a regular on the South Plains Junior College basketball team.

Glenn Frazier, the veteran Andrews mentor, reportedly is getting consideration for one of the coaching jobs at Odessa.

Frazier would, no doubt, have to take a pay cut if he moved from Andrews to Odessa but he's told friends the wolves can get too vocal for him on occasions.

Hobbs, N.M., may also make overtures to Frazier. The head job at Hobbs, vacated recently by Monroe Harrison, doesn't pay $8,000 per annum but school officials there indicated recently they were willing to go much higher in order to get a competent man. Hobbs doesn't have money worries.

Johnny Malaise, the Odessa High School basketball coach, is expected to push Hugh Cochran, the former Big Spring athlete, for the basketball job at Odessa's new high school, Permian.

Cochran is now Malaise's assistant.

Al Lightner, a West Coast basketball official, wore a pedometer while working a game recently and discovered he'd traveled 6 1/2 miles while chasing the ball players in a regulation game.

Big Spring's Jan Loudermilk led the SMU freshmen basketball team in scoring for the third straight game earlier this week against Lon Morris but the Colts took a 70-64 drubbing in a game played at Jacksonville, home of the Bears.

Loudermilk scored 21 points and outshot everyone from the field, although Don Dennis of Lon Morris sank 13 free tosses and wound up as the leading scorer, with 25 points. Four SMU boys, including Jan, fouled out of the game, as 29 persons were called against SMU and only 18 against Lon Morris.

Jan's point output ran his season's total for the three games to 86 points.

Big Jan, incidentally, plans to visit his mother in St. Paul, Minn., during the holidays.

Rice And Baylor Are Decided

By The Associated Press

The Southwest Conference lost a couple of inter-sectional games Thursday night and had its edge shaded to just one for the season in the basketball campaign.

Rice was upset 68-62 by Missouri and Baylor took a 63-55 trimming from Tulane and those were the fourth and fifth inter-sectional beatings for the week against two victories. So the season standing is 16-15.

Eight more inter-sectional games are scheduled Friday and Saturday nights with the Texas Aggies, only unbeaten team in the league, putting it on the line in the Birmingham Classic at Birmingham.

Odessa Wranglers Decision Sayre

ODESSA (SC)—The Odessa Junior College Wranglers won their sixth basketball decision of the season by belting Sayre, Okla., 88-63, here Thursday night.

Paul Thorpe led the Odessa offensive with 27 points.

ODESSA (88) — Thorpe 11-5-27; Russell 2-4-8; Swanson 4-2-14; Cooper 4-8-8; Britt 1-2-7-16; Sayre 5-2-12; Fortune 6-3-12; Rodriguez 6-6-0. Totals 88-63.

SAYRE (63) — White 5-11-11; Loyd 1-2-4; Dunn 6-6-0; Webb 1-7-3; Breeding 2-4-4; Bentley 1-2-1; Ball 2-4-4; Williams 5-1-1; Hagard 7-1-15. Totals 63-88.

Nino Valdes Risks Lofty Ranking In Go Tonight

NEW YORK (AP)—Nino Valdes risks his lofty ranking and Pat McMurry gets his big chance tonight in a heavyweight bout at Madison Square Garden.

Nino's voluble manager Bobby Gleason already has claimed the title for the 6-3 Cuban giant with the 41-inch reach.

McMurry's manager his father, is particularly upset because his son didn't make the top 10 in the National Boxing Assn. ratings after he whipped George Chavalo in the Garden Oct. 17. Ring was more impressed, placing him No. 10 among Floyd Patterson's contenders.

"I'm ready for the champ right now," said McMurry, who hails

Jayhawk Rebounders

JAYHAWKS AND STEERS ON TWIN BILL HERE

Howard County Junior College's Jayhawks go after their seventh basketball win in ten starts in an 8 o'clock joust with Sayre, Oklahoma, Junior College here tonight.

The Jayhawk reserves square away with Vernon Harton's Big Spring High School Steers in a preliminary go at 6 p.m.

Sayre brings a 4-6 record here. The team was routed by Odessa last night in Odessa, 88-63, but Coach Huckabe lamented that it was the Oklahomans' worst showing of the year. The Sooners hit only 29 per cent of their shots against the speedy W'anglers.

Sayre was off to a great season until they lost their ace pivot man, Dudley Freeman, for the season with a bad knee. Jerry Williams and Wayne Haggard pace the Sayre attack. Others who will probably start for the visitors include Whipkey, Lloyd and Ball.

Sayre has beaten the Frederick All-Stars, 63-41; OSR, 59-47; Oklahoma Tech freshmen, 70-52; and Amarillo, 63-57; while losing twice to Frank Phillips of Barber, 83-72 and 98-72; Panhandle A&M Frosh, 59-57; Clarendon's Bulldogs, 71-51; Fort Smith, Arkansas, 63-58; and Odessa.

The Hawks will be trying to rebound after blowing a 90-68 decision to the San Angelo Rams in San Angelo.

Probably starters for the locals include Tommy Zinn, Gilbert Bell, Buddy Davis, Benny Carver and Ray Clay. Harold Henson, Jimmy Evans and Jesse McElreath will see plenty of action, too.

Big Spring High School will carry a 9-5 won-loss record onto the floor against the Hawk B team.

Bill Thompson, Preston Hollis, Zay LeFevre, Benny McCrary and Joe Bob Clendenin are apt to start for the Steers against the college reserves.

The Sayre game winds up play for the Hawks until the Howard College Tournament here, which starts New Year's Day.

The Steers won't see action again until Dec. 30, at which time they visit Plainview.

Charles Clark Is Second In Aggie Scoring Derby

STATE COLLEGE, N. M. (SC)—New Mexico State will take a four-won, five-lost record into its game with Rice Saturday evening.

The game will be played in the new Las Cruces High School gymnasium. Game time is 8 p.m.

Rice's Owls will be led by 6-9 Tom Robitaille, an all-Southwest Conference choice last season and all-SWC tournament team selection for the past two years.

Robitaille led Rice last season with 358 points and a 14.9 average. As a sophomore he was second to Temple Tucker with 330 points and 13.3 average.

To date Rice has suffered one loss, gained two wins. The loss was to Kansas in a road game, 65-49. Rice wins have been over Wisconsin 78-37 and Louisiana State 64-56.

NMSU will take a record of four wins, five losses into the game. Settling down on its home court, New Mexico State has been making up for a rugged road trip which sent it against some of the country's top basketball powers and netted a one win, five loss record.

Since then the Aggies have won three consecutive home games over McMurry of Abilene, New Mexico University, and Centenary College.

After Saturday night's game Charles Clark, a 6-3 forward from Big Spring, Tex., with 73 points in eight games for an average of 9.1 points.

Most accurate of the Aggies is Jim Davis, a senior and a forward from Clovis, N. M. He has made 26 of 51 field goals for 51 per cent from the floor. At the free throw line he has connected on 14 of 19 attempts for 73.7 per cent.

New Mexico State, with a season record of four wins, five losses, trails its opponents 66-9-66.1 points a game so far. Aggie shooting percentage is close to the opponents; 49.8-40.6. But the opponents have shot more, 539 field goal attempts to 488. Opponent free throw percentage is 65.3 compared to 62.7 for New Mexico State.

Giants Aren't Great But They Try, Says Howell

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Jim Lee Howell looks you straight in the eye when he tells you that nobody—but nobody—is more surprised than he over the New York Giants' amazing climb into a first-place Eastern Conference deadlock with the Cleveland Browns.

The tall Giant coach watched his squad persevere through its next-to-last stiff workout for the big playoff game Sunday against the Browns for the right to meet Baltimore in the NFL title game.

"This is not a real good team," he said earnestly. "It's the most determined, fightingest group I've ever coached, but it still makes mistakes and is still learning. I honestly thought we'd never get as far as we have."

"When the season started I didn't think we'd win more than four games. And if I had known about all those injuries I'd have said we'd be lucky to win more than two games."

To what did he attribute the Giants' 9-3 record?

"A great defense, a good bench. Spirit, hustle, will to win, increasing confidence with each victory. Harmony and unity," he said.

"It's a real team in every sense of the word. Every player is a coach. They help each other, cheer each other, point out each other's mistakes. They make it easy for the coaches."

Howell proudly pointed to team statistics which showed the Giants first in the league in defense against rushing and against passing.

"I showed those figures to the boys just a few minutes ago," said Howell. "I also pointed out that our Jim Patton was No. 1 in pass interceptions. They were mighty proud of that. They jokingly referred to themselves as the triple crown champions."

Crash Survivor Rescued

Chief Says Canon Provided Material

FT. HOOD, Tex. (AP)—A former Killeen chief of police testified yesterday that a box of helmet liners were delivered to the city after he had requested them from Lt. Col. Jack Y. Canon.

The testimony came during the court-martial of Canon, who is charged with stealing some ammunition and other items, threatening an enlisted man, and killing two cows.

The court-martial was to adjourn again Tuesday afternoon until the following Monday, Dec. 29, for the Christmas holidays. After sessions Dec. 29 and 30, it will recess again until Jan. 2.

The former police chief, John Heaton, said that he and Red Whitley, a safety chairman of the Killeen Chamber of Commerce, had asked Canon, then Ft. Hood provost marshal, for some helmet liners for the Killeen school children's safety patrol. He said a box of liners, in various states of disrepair, were delivered in September 1957.

Heaton admitted under cross examination that between 70 and 80 per cent of the children in Killeen were from military families and that most of them wore helmet liners.

Heaton also said that there had been a spirit of cooperation between the military and city police and that Canon had always cooperated with the Killeen Police Department.

He testified that Canon did not get any of the ammunition. He said Canon told him that the fort ammunition wasn't accurate enough for him and that he poured his own bullets.

Man-In-Space Project Launched

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government has launched a large-scale project to shoot man into space. But it will be several years, at least, before the age-old dream of space flight becomes true.

Dr. T. Keith Glennan, head of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, gave his news Wednesday night in a speech at a dinner commemorating the first powered flight by the Wright brothers 55 years ago.

Glennan said long-range effort and careful studies would be necessary before the first man is sent on a space ride.

Costs, Advances Trigger Cutback

WASHINGTON (AP)—Costs and weapons advances have triggered a sweeping Navy cutback in shore establishments and spelled the end to a major missile program.

To keep pace with cutdowns in its operating forces, the Navy said Thursday night, 30 ground bases in 17 states will be closed, reduced or merged.

The announcement spoke of rising prices and higher labor costs. About 9,000 civilian jobs will be abolished over the next several years.

Canceled after an outlay of 78 million dollars was the Regulus II guided missile program. The air-breathing missile can soar more than 1,000 miles at twice the speed of sound. It flew in about 40 successful tests.

Officers Clear McBride Widow

WACO (AP)—Two investigators agreed yesterday that the widow of road contractor Gerry McBride is not to blame for the knife death of the wealthy Waco man.

Mrs. McBride, 45, had voluntarily undergone a lie detector test. Asst. Dist. Atty. Burney Walker said this disclosed she had nothing to do with her husband's death last Saturday.

Justice of Peace Vic Hall, who acted as coroner, added that on the basis of peace officers' reports he could not "definitely state whether Gerry McBride's death was homicide or suicide."

As far as his office is concerned, Hall said the case was closed. The body of McBride, stabbed with two kitchen knives, was found in the couple's palatial home. Officers said at the time Mrs. McBride apparently was the only other person present.

SEEMS INCREDIBLE

U.S. Prestige Rebounds From Last Year's Disaster

WASHINGTON (AP)—America's scientific and military prestige, a key element in the cold war, rebounded high today from the lows of double disaster a year ago.

A mighty U. S. Atlas rocket roared into orbit around the earth Thursday night. It became a satellite weighing between 8,700 and 8,800 pounds—three times heavier than the biggest Soviet Sputnik.

That was a comparison easily understood by the man in the street in London, Moscow and New Delhi.

It carried significance too for the military officer and government official: the United States had a missile with power and control to dump a nuclear warhead on a target on another continent.

Of such stuff is made prestige that can bolster friends, give pause to enemies and nudge the vital in-betweeners who want to lean with the winning side.

The U. S. comeback seemed incredible in view of the shattering Soviet success starting with Sputnik in Oct. 4, 1957, a Pearl Harbor Day for U. S. prestige.

On Nov. 3 the Russians threw into orbit Sputnik II, carrying little dog Laika. The weight this time: a half ton.

On Dec. 6, Pearl Harbor Day again, as U. S. prestige was concerned, America's first satellite-bearing rocket—a Navy Vanguard—blew up on its launching pad.

Not until Jan. 31 of this year did the United States get its first foot in the satellite race. But the Army's Explorer I weighed only 31 pounds, a midget against its Soviet rivals.

On March 17 the Navy finally got a satellite into orbit too, shooting Vanguard I to a record height of 2,246 miles to give its satellite a top life expectancy of 200 years. But Vanguard I was a Lilliputian 3 1/2 pounds.

On May 15 the Russians tossed up Sputnik III, 2,929 pounds. It's still going.

Yet the American scientific show was coming to life. An atomic sub nosed under the arctic icecap. The Air Force and the Army tried rockets that soared a third of the way to the moon. An Atlas zoomed on course for 6,325 miles across the Atlantic.

Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev said the Russians had a missile capable of going 8,700 miles. U. S. officials underscored the word "capable," discounting Communist possession of any such operational weapon for at least two years.

American authorities deny Thursday night's launching was a propaganda move. They said it would carry out important communication experiments.

Atlas is big enough to be seen with the naked eye by the millions in the earth over which it was aimed. And its tape recording playbacks are highly convenient for worldwide rebroadcasting by the Voice of America.

Satellite Visible In South Tonight

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP)—The Smithsonian Astrophysical Observatory says America's mighty Atlas satellite should be visible over the southern parts of the United States tonight.

The Smithsonian said that because of the angle at which it was launched the satellite would travel north almost as far as Cape Hatteras.

John White, observatory public information officer, said the satellite should be much brighter than any previous satellite because of its low point of about 115 miles.

He said it should be clearly visible to the naked eye, looking like a fast moving bright star.

Santa Pays Visit To West Side Kids

Santa Claus, well supplied with gaily adorned gifts, made his annual visit to the kids who live in the neighborhood of the West Side Park on Thursday noon. He appeared under the auspices of the Big Spring Kiwanis Club as he has for the past nine years.

A hundred boys and girls, selected by persons familiar with the neighborhood and chosen on the basis that other than for the Kiwanis intervention, Christmas for them would be a drab day, were fed ham sandwiches, cookies and Cokes. They were told the story of the first Christmas by the Rev. Wayne Dittloff, Lutheran minister. Santa Claus, escorted by Police Chief C. L. Rogers, then appeared and there were individual gifts for each child—plus a bag of fruit, nuts and candy as a bonus present.

Wives of Kiwanians prepared the sandwiches and the cookies. Jack Roden furnished the cold drinks. Kiwanians acted as helpers in distributing the food and presents.

Ideal weather prevailed and added materially to the success of the annual Christmas party. A Christmas tree in the Community building at the park was laden with presents.

Check of the gifts revealed that a majority of the young guests received games, toys, dolls and other items likely to be cherished by children.

Kiwanians have sponsored these annual West Side Park Christmas events for the past nine years.

Cap Rock 'Family' Slates Yule Party

The Cap Rock Electric family will have its annual Christmas party here at 6:30 p.m. Friday.

This year's dinner affair is being held in the fellowship hall of the First Church of God at 2011 Main.

All employees of Cap Rock, and its sister cooperatives, Westex Telephone and Cap Rock Refrigerative, and their wives or dates will be guests. Also present will be members of the boards and their wives and other special guests.

Under the direction of Miss Arah Phillips, a program of Christmas music will be presented. First there will be singing of Christmas carols, followed by a reading of the Christmas story by Mrs. Ward Jackson.

A trio composed of Linda Halenbeck, Jo Nita Evans and Betty Reagan will sing "Winter Wonderland" and "Silver Bells."

More than three score people are expected for the affair.

The Brightest Fireworks Yet

By JACK KING
CAPE CAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—Launching of the nation's Atlas intercontinental ballistic missile is the most spectacular fireworks display this famous rocket test center has to offer.

The rocket, 224,000 pounds of power coated with stainless steel, stood free of its service tower for more than an hour before the spectacular launching.

It turned crimson as the rays of the setting sun reflected off the missile case. Later it shone in the beams of powerful floodlights.

Then at 6:02 p.m., the countdown announcer shouted "Zero" and a brilliant flash of white flame shot from the tail of the "Big A."

There was a pause, and then the mighty rocket struggled aloft—slowly at first—with its three engines blazing, it began to accelerate atop a tapered tail of white flame.

The cape turned to daylight for miles around as the monster weapon soared. The thunder of its three-engine power package rocked the coastline.

The Atlas is unique as far as big rockets go in that the full power of the engines is built up on the ground.

After about 60 seconds, the Atlas—just a bright fireball now—curved high in the sky and droned toward the east.

Because conditions were perfect, the Atlas was in sight for about seven minutes before it finally faded out like a fiery meteor.

Turncoat Spouts Communist Line

HONG KONG (AP)—Richard G. Corden, ringleader of the 21 American turncoats of the Korean War, emerged from Red China today spouting the Communist line full blast.

Corden, 31, from East Providence, R.I., told a news conference: "I firmly believe there is more democracy in Communist China than in the United States. I've got nothing to be ashamed of. I learned a lot."

He left Communist China because he was homesick and could not finish his studies in ancient Chinese literature.

He is the 10th of the turncoats to return from Red China. One other died there. Corden said the 10 still behind the Bamboo Curtain are doing well and he knows of none who want to return to America.

Joy at the Savior's Birth

ANGELS BRING THE GLAD TIDINGS TO SHEPHERDS WATCHING THEIR FLOCKS AT NIGHT
Scripture—Luke 1:28-38; 2:1-20.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL
AGAIN we study the beautiful story of Christ's birth as told in St. Luke. It is one that never grows old, but can be read again and again when the Christmas season comes around.

The New Standard Encyclopedia says that the first celebration of Christmas on its present date was held in Rome about 350 A.D. The word Christmas is an old English word, according to the Old English Chronicle, dated 1123 A.D., writes Dr. Wilbur M. Smith, editor of Peabody's Select Notes. "The word is made up of two words, Christ and mass," meaning the festival of Christ. The initials A.D. with which we record the date, are the initials of the Latin words Anno Domini, meaning "the year of our Lord."

We must condense the lesson here so that it will not overrun our space. To a young woman named Mary who lived in the city of Nazareth, God sent the angel Gabriel to tell her that she would be blessed by the birth of a Son whom she would call Jesus. She was affianced to a man named Joseph, who was descended from King David.

Mary was troubled because she was not wed, but the angel said that the Holy Ghost would come upon her, and the Son "shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest."—Luke 1:27-35.

The angel told Mary that she had found favor with God, and said, "blessed art thou among women." Mary went to her cousin, Elizabeth, who was expecting a child. When Elizabeth saw Mary, the child in her body leaped, and the Holy Ghost filled her. She said to Mary, "Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb."—Luke 1:40-42.

Then Mary said: "My soul doth magnify the Lord, and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour. For He hath regarded the low estate of His handmaiden: for, behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed."—Luke 1:46-48.

Based on copyrighted outlines produced by the Division of Christian Education, National Council of Churches of Christ in the U.S.A., and used by permission.

If there is time in the class period, this beautiful song of Mary, which we call the Magnificat, should be read in its entirety, for it is one of the loveliest songs of praise to God in the New Testament.—Luke 1:46-55.

Elizabeth, the classes should be reminded, was the mother of John the Baptist, the forerunner of Christ.

A tax was levied by Caesar Augustus on all the country, to be paid by each family in the city of the man's birth. So Joseph and Mary went to the City of Bethlehem. Finding no room for them in the inn, they lodged in a stable or cave, and it was there in a manger that Mary gave birth to the first child, and called Him Jesus, and wrapped Him in swaddling clothes.

To whom did news of this wondrous Child's birth first come? Not to a king or other noted person, but to humble shepherds who were watching their flocks in a meadow at night. "The angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round them; and they were sore afraid."—Luke 2:8-9.

But the angel told them not to be afraid, for he brought them tidings of great joy. "For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord. And this shall be a sign unto you: Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger." Then many angels appeared to them, saying "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men." When the angels went away, the shepherds sought out the Babe and proclaimed His birth to all they met.—Luke 2:11-18.

The tragedy is that in our time, this peace on earth, which was prophesied so long ago, has not been accomplished. However, we can still recall God's words and hope and pray that in

Ready for Christmas Guests ... home-decorated cookies

You, Too, Can Easily Have Decorated Cookies, Cakes

Have you ever looked in a bakery window with a touch of envy because all the holiday goodies were so pretty? Many a home-maker has wondered why her own hot breads, cookies, or decorated cakes didn't quite measure up to bakery shop glamour, and much of the secret is in the finishing.

Cakes is a simple formula applied to the top and allowed to drip gracefully down the sides. The secret of the "professional" look is that the glaze must be very smooth and just the right consistency. Using a failproof frosting mix when you make your own guarantees good results:

VANILLA GLAZE
1 pkg Pillsbury Loaf-size Vanilla Frosting Mix
3 tbsps hot milk or cream
For angel food, sponge, other tube cakes:
Combine frosting mix and hot milk; stir until smooth. Thin with a few more drops of milk, if necessary. Spread on top of inverted cakes, allowing to drip down sides.

She spoke of the origin of the yule log, which was begun in Wales; the speaker told of how the first creche was displayed by St. Francis of Assisi, and reminded listeners of how the first Christmas tree came to be made. Mrs. R. R. McEwen Jr. told the meaning of the Christmas carols and of how that type of music was originated. Preceding the singing of several familiar carols, Mrs. Harold Talbot gave the history of such songs as Deck the Hall, which came from the custom of decorating the homes in Wales in preparation for bringing in the Yule log. The writing of It Came Upon A Midnight Clear by a Unitarian minister, Edmund H. Sears, was brought to the minds of the group by Mrs. Talbot, who also told of the composition of O Little Town of Bethlehem by Phillip Brooke, who lived in Boston, but was on a visit to the Holy Land when he wrote the song. Legion Membership Goal Is Exceeded Membership in the Howard County Post of the American Legion has reached 297. Jack Pearson, membership chairman, reported at the organization's Thursday night meeting.

This surpasses the assigned quota of 258 and gives Big Spring the second largest membership in the 19th district.

Pearson announced that the membership campaign will continue although there are to be no more meetings of the Post this year. Awards for Post membership attainment as well as the individual awards are compiled on Dec. 31. Pearson is urging that the committee members complete their contacts prior to that date. He also made an appeal to all former members to mail or bring in their memberships in time to be included in the 1958 drive.

In other business the entertainment committee announced the Christmas Party for Monday night and said arrangements are being made for a New Year's Eve Party.

The Post re-inaugurated "Posting the Colors" with an armed color guard and instituted an honorary station for past commanders. Tribute was given to Roger Miller, past commander, at the meeting. A past commander will be assigned the station at each meeting.

Byron Hill, house committee chairman, reported the Legion Home is open for members on Saturday and Sunday afternoons.

Ike Interrupts Envoy Gathering To Tell Of Moon

By FRANCES LEWINE

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower strode dramatically into the center of a glittering White House diplomatic gathering to announce that the United States had placed a nearly 9,000-pound satellite in orbit.

He gave his dinner guests — top-ranking diplomats from 41 other nations — the first word of the great scientific advance Thursday night.

The news that a mighty Atlas missile was in orbit reached the President at the White House minutes before he was due to go down to the state dinner.

He decided to share his secret with his dinner guests even before his press secretary, James C. Hagerty, made the news known to the rest of the world.

But he saved the dramatic moment until he had shaken hands with each of the 78 guests assembled in the East Ballroom.

The red-coated Marine Corps band, unaware of the President's plan, had struck up a march for the chief executive to lead his guests from the ballroom to the state dining room.

But Eisenhower didn't follow the schedule. Instead, he turned back into the middle of the ballroom.

There, standing beneath three glittering chandeliers and in the dazzle of an 18-foot Christmas tree, he announced that he had something interesting to tell his guests.

Simply, the President reported that the United States had gotten a satellite of almost 9,000 pounds into orbit and it was expected to stay there about 25 days.

The diplomats applauded.

Only 35 Men Knew Of Shot

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)

Only 35 men knew that an Atlas missile would be shot into orbit until three hours before the spectacular launching.

"We called the 35 members of The Club," said B. G. MacNabb, a fiery Scot who is operations manager.

"There are 940 fine men working for Convair at the Cape and only three of them knew about the satellite launching—even after the final button was pressed and the missile was launched," MacNabb said.

Among those who had to receive the advance word was the range safety officer, whose duty is to destroy the missile if it strays off course. Crewmen manning tracking stations for tracking the missile had to be notified three hours in advance.

One of the important operations of a regular Atlas shoot is the in-pact prediction chart at central control. It tells where the missile will land.

Personnel in central control were infuriated when one unidentified crewman stood in front of the chart and blocked the view of observers at a critical moment. It was all part of the act.

'Hasty Heart' Is Superb Viewing

By CHARLES MERCER
NEW YORK (AP)—Broadway supplied television with a work of superb entertainment Thursday night when "The Hasty Heart" was presented on CBS-TV. Don Murray gave a tremendous performance as a dour, doomed Scottish sergeant of World War II who tried to reject love and friendship in a Burma hospital. Barbara Bel Geddes, who appears on television too infrequently, was grand as the nurse who fell in love with the sergeant. Jackie Cooper was outstanding as the Yankee member of the international set of patients in a field hospital.

Everything on the television networks in the coming week—with a few exceptions—will be concerned with Christmas. For example: Saturday night—NBC-TV, Cincinnati presents a Western version of Charles Dickens' "Christmas Carol," starring George Montgomery, Audrey Totter, John Smith. Sunday—NBC-TV, Omnibus stars Gene Kelly in his television debut with "Dancing—A Man's Game." CBS-TV, a half-hour program of Christmas music by the Salt Lake City Tabernacle Choir. NBC-TV, Shirley Temple's Storybook offers "Mother Goose," with Miss Temple, her three children, Elsa Lanchester, Billy Gilbert and Carleton Carpenter. Monday night—NBC-TV, The Goodyear Theater offers "Curtain Call," starring Jackie Cooper in a half-hour drama about a child star trying to make a go as an adult actor against the enmity of a critic. Tuesday night—ABC-TV, Naked City strikes an ironic note on the holiday with "And a Merry Christmas to the Force on Patrol." Wednesday night—CBS-TV, Pursuit presents "The Silent Night," a one-hour filmed drama starring Lew Ayres, Patricia Neal, Victor Jory. CBS-TV, Armstrong Circle Theater abandons its usual format to offer live from New York dramatic readings and narrations by Victor Jory and special Christmas music. Both CBS-TV and NBC-TV will present a variety of religious services and music in the late hours of Christmas Eve and early hours of Christmas morning. Thursday night—CBS-TV, Playhouse 90 presents the celebrated Christmas ballet, "The Nutcracker" by Tchaikovsky.

Cult Buries Bomb Dead

NORTH HOLLYWOOD, Calif. (AP)—Followers of Krishna Vanta buried their leader Thursday. Vanta and nine others died Dec. 19 in the dynamiting of the Fountain of the World cult headquarters at nearby Chatsworth. "We are not here to pay homage to the dead," said Priest Samuel, the officiant, "for none have died here. There is no mourning in our hearts." Cult members sat emotionless, their eyes closed. The services also were for blast victims Martin Baker and his 9-year-old daughter, Keela.

McCarey Retains A Touch Of Comedy

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP)—It takes a real laugh master to retain the true comedy touch for three decades. One who has never lost his skill at tickling the national funnybone is Hollywood director Leo McCarey. "I'm accused of being the laziest man in the business," said Leo, who has a weatherbeaten face and dark snapping eyes. "In over 30 years I've only made about 25 pictures. Some men in that time have turned out 200, or even 300."

McCarey has won three Oscars and been nominated for two more. And his roster of films include such landmarks as "The Awful Truth," "Ruggles of Red Gap," "My Favorite Wife," "Indiscreet," "Going My Way," and "The Bells of St. Mary's." Leo over the years has been one of Hollywood's top money earners. He has a great gift for friendship, and his friends have ranged from Jack Dempsey and the late Jack Barrymore to a host of colorful unknowns, in practically every walk of life. An associate said this is McCarey's unspoken creed: "Never go up the hill alone."

Son of a famous West Coast boxing promoter, Leo became a lawyer and still brags he retired from active practice with a perfect record: He never won a case. He started in pictures as a script clerk, directed a number of the Charlie Chase and Laurel and Hardy comedies. They gave him a love for pantomime that has never left him, and he still likes to write with his camera as much as his typewriter. "Everything I do is partly visual," he remarked. "I love pantomime. I revel in it. Words are necessary, but the movies are still a very visual art. I like wherever possible to let action tell the story."

Whether he takes a writing credit or not, Leo almost always takes a firm hand in shaping the final script. "Nobody should tell a story who is not a story teller," he said. "The writer is the story teller, and the future of movies is to have more directors who are also writers." "I find it easier to direct characters I have created rather than those created by someone else. You know them better as people." A stout defender of Hollywood, McCarey says his biggest need now—and always has been—fresh ideas. "The truth is," he added, "that every time you have a novel idea, it is hard to find people willing to put their money into it — because it doesn't remind them of something else that has been successful."

Cold Air Due This Weekend

By The Associated Press
A cold air mass pushing southward from Canada is due to take the bloom of Texas' Indian-summer weather this weekend. Skies, which have been clear most of the week, started clouding at scattered points in Texas Friday and the U. S. Weather Bureau said cloudy conditions will prevail over most of the state by Saturday. Cooler weather is predicted for the northern half of the state by Saturday.

The cooler air is expected to reverse the warming trend that followed last weekend's bitterly cold weather. Temperatures Thursday afternoon were balmy, ranging from 62 at Abilene, Amarillo, Big Spring, Dalhart and Lubbock to 75 at Alice. Thin clouds partially covered skies along the Gulf Coast and in far West Texas early Friday with pre-dawn temperatures ranging from 30 degrees at Junction to 57 at Galveston. Beaumont reported an early morning fog.

Strike Prohibited

DALLAS (AP)—After a stormy court session during which he admonished both sides, Federal Dist. Judge T. Whitfield Davidson yesterday signed an order prohibiting a Missouri-Kansas-Texas Railroad strike.

Daniel Aide Says Budget Doesn't Cut UT Money

AUSTIN (AP)—The governor's proposed spending budget for 1960-61 does not reduce the current operating budget of the University of Texas, an official of the governor's office said yesterday.

Jess Irwin Jr., budget director for Gov. Price Daniel, said Daniel's recommendation to the Legislature does not apply available funds of the university against the total appropriation. This leaves these funds to the discretion of the university. University President Logan Wilson had called the recommendation "dismaying."

The university asked for an operating budget of $13,376,364 and this was cut to $10,625,860 compared with the current appropriation of $10,532,900. Irwin said $1,400,000 was applied by the Legislature from the available funds against the operating appropriation. He said had Wilson considered the fact that the budget does not apply available funds, a $1,190,493 increase would have been apparent. This is the amount the budget would provide over the operating appropriation from general revenue for the present biennium.

'Expert' Advice On Women: Know That They're Tetched

By RAYMOND E. PALMER
LONDON (AP)—To get along with women, you have to understand that they're a little crazy. That's the advice of Roger Vadim, ex-husband of Brigitte Bardot and now wed to Annette Stroyberg, a Danish model. Vadim, a lean, 30-year-old screen director, talked over lunch in a London restaurant: "If you have a great love for beautiful women, then beautiful women will know it. And they will be attracted to you. "All women are a little crazy; cultivate zair craziness. That way zair true personality comes out. "Zey love to indulge in zair craziness. But too many men stop them. "Zey love a man who encourage them to be crazy."

just 22, smiled over the top of her water glass. "Annette cannot cook," Vadim noted, by way of nothing in particular. Annette tilted her head and narrowed her wicked-kitten eyes. Like Bardot, she is slimly curvaceous. Both have high cheekbones, a provocative pout, the out-thrust chest. Came the inevitable question: "What does Annette have that Brigitte hasn't?" Vadim shrugged: "A sense of humor." He said Annette's first movie will be made in France early in 1959. Vadim will direct. It will be called "Dangerous Acquaintances" and Annette will play a sweet young wife. No running around in a bath towel as Bardot used to do? "No," said Vadim. "Annette is not ready for that."
