Legislature Moves Into Money Problem

AUSTIN (AP)—Texas legislators, with one of their many problems solved, shifted into action today against the 56th Legislature's prime target—more money.

Until the various committees are organized and introduction of bills begins in both houses the daily legislative sessions likely will be brief and action mostly on resolutions, routine motions and the like.

No matter when the two houses get down to work, the chief problem facing them will be the withdrawal of more than a million dollars to clear up a growing deficit and to finance state governmental operations in 1960-61.

Amish Education Probed By Court

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — On one side are Ohio's school officials, armed with state law. On the other are the Amish — a soil-tilling religious sect that came to Ohio from Pennsylvania almost 150 years ago — using the Bible as their shield. In the middle are the Amish youngsters, about whom the controversy rages. Schools and how long the youngsters go to school are the primary points of contention. State and county officials have inspected some of the Amish schools and claim they are not up to minimum Ohio standards. The state board of education has a resolution that puts the responsibility for enforcing state standards squarely on local superintendents. By a 19-2 vote, the board Monday called on the State Department of Education to give all possible assistance to local authorities in such enforcement. And at Kenton in Hardin County, the county board of education has gone to Common Pleas Court to try closing two Amish schools for allegedly failing to meet minimum standards. School Supt. Frank Blackburn says an investigation of two Amish grade schools near Kenton disclosed that a number of state-prescribed courses are not being taught, and that three of the four teachers have only gone through the eighth grade. The Amish generally follow a policy of passive resistance, but in this case they found a champion in E. Guy Hammond, a 76-year-old semi-retired attorney from Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio. Commuters Get Going-Over At Rail Meeting

By WILLIAM J. CONWAY CHICAGO (AP)—Here's a hopeful piece of news for you, Mr. Commuter.

Many people in high places are thinking of ways to help you. Their main concern is to keep you moving from your home station to the big city and back again. It's a bad situation and the prospect is even worse. Motor vehicle traffic is approaching the saturation point in the scores of cities. And the main trend in the nation's growing population is toward the huge urban centers. So 29 men—16 railroad presidents and 13 mayors and other city officials—got together Tuesday to exchange ideas on how to solve the commuter problem. Most of the railroads contend they make no profit in operating the commuter lines.

Here are some of the suggestions: Government subsidies. New equipment to lure motorists back to the rails. A federal agency to buy equipment and lease it to the rail lines or to lend them money to buy modern rolling stock. Elimination of the federal tax on commuter tickets. Provision for deducting commutation fares from federal income taxes.

Giving the railroads a better break on their taxes, allowing them more freedom in setting fares and adding trains and closing unprofitable stations.

A new U. S. transportation policy that would encourage the growth of railroads. Mayor Robert F. Wagner of New York, one of the conferees, said the problem is regional and should be handled on a regional basis. He proposed the creation of a tri-state—New York, New Jersey, Connecticut—transportation agency.

One of the basic points in his plan is this: A sharing of mass transit deficits, where they occur, among all the jurisdictions of government that have a stake.

That means local, state and federal governments. Some Eastern interests advocated federal subsidies at the one-day meeting. Midwesterners generally opposed them.

A committee of 12 was appointed to meet within the next 30 days to start work on a program. Railroad president members of the committee are George Albert of the New Haven, Ben W. Heineman of the Northwestern, Wayne Johnston of the Illinois Central, A. B. Perlman of the New York Central and James M. Symes of the Pennsylvania.

Mayors on the committee are John B. Hynes of Boston, Richard J. Daley of Chicago, Anthony J. Celebrezze of Cleveland, Frank P. Zeidler of Milwaukee, Wagner Richardson Dilworth of Philadelphia and Raymond R. Tucker of St. Louis.

Congressional Criticism Puts Castro On Spot; Deaths Stop

WASHINGTON (AP)—New congressional criticism was raised today against the wave of executions by Cuba's new revolutionary government.

The new regime, apparently taken aback by the storm of criticism provoked in the United States and elsewhere by the firing squad shootings, announced Tuesday night the executions were being suspended.

No date for their resumption was given. But a government spokesman said that when they are resumed as well as the general public will have the opportunity to watch the proceedings from military trial to execution. One House member said that if the executions continue without formal trials the regime of rebel chieftain Fidel Castro stands to forfeit the respect of the whole Hemisphere.

Castro in a Havana speech Tuesday defended the firing squad sentences imposed on Cubans convicted of war crimes by military tribunals. He said the executions were ordered only for those whose death is necessary to purify the nation.

The number of those executed was estimated unofficially at 150. "It is regrettable that Castro is executing these gentlemen without real trials," said Sen. Homer Capehart (R-Ind.).

12 Cities Involved In Defense Test

DENTON (AP)—A nationwide warning test by the Office of Civil Defense Mobilization will involve 12 Texas cities tomorrow. But the public and radio and TV stations won't be involved, said Welcom Wilson, director of the Southwestern headquarters of OCDM.

The test will be run to see how well state and local warning centers can relay word of an impending attack, he said. Points in Texas taking part in the test are Dallas, Houston, Austin, San Antonio, Amarillo, Lubbock, Wichita Falls, Waco, Corpus Christi, San Angelo, El Paso and Beaumont. Albuquerque and Roswell, N.M., and Silverport and Lake Charles, La., also are included in the test.

Natural Gas Rate Hearing Recessed

AUSTIN (AP)—The Railroad Commission has recessed until March 16 an application by Lone Star Gas Co. to increase the rate it charges distributing companies in 308 Texas cities.

The rate should be increased from 30 to 40 cents per 1,000 cubic feet of natural gas in order to give its transmission division a 7 per cent return on its investment, the company said yesterday.

The hearing was recessed to allow cities and other groups time to study the company's testimony and exhibits before filing replies. The company also has asked for a cost adjustment clause to allow the company to fluctuate its rates as the price of gas changes in the field.

Graham Undergoes Physical Checkup

ROCHESTER, Minn. (AP) — Evangelist Billy Graham was undergoing further tests today as Mayo Clinic specialists studied the serious eye ailment that brought an abrupt halt to the churchman's Southern tour.

The survey included a general physical examination to determine possible cause of a ruptured blood vessel behind the retina, which has cut Graham's vision 90 per cent in the left eye. He said it causes no pain.

An early diagnosis by the evangelist's doctor father-in-law, Dr. Nelson Bell, Montreat, N. C., called the malady both rare and serious. Dr. Bell said the condition had arisen from excessive work.

Grady Wilson, Graham associate who accompanied him here, said no report was expected before Friday.

Tax Equalization Contract Is Approved By School Trustees

The city-county-school-HCJC contract with Novis Womack for a continuous tax equalization program was ratified last night by school trustees.

The city and county had approved the agreement earlier, and it also will be submitted to Howard County Junior College trustees later this month.

The contract provides for Womack to appraise all new buildings and improvements and additions to old structures, as well as lots and acreage undergoing development. He will make a study each year of relative values of commercial and residential land and recommend changes where change of values is evident. In addition, he will evaluate all commercial personal property at the beginning of each year.

Fee for the services will be $12,000 per year, with the county to provide office space in the courthouse for Womack.

Trustees also authorized the Texas Little League to move its baseball park to the north end of the Bauer Elementary School campus, subject to the writing of an agreement acceptable to both the school district and league of officers.

Dr. Earl Burnett, president of the Texas Little League; John Ed Brown, American League president; and Harold Hall, National League president, assured trustees that Little League representatives will be responsible for maintenance of the ball park and liability for any mishaps which may occur during operation of the stadium.

The league must move its park from the present site at NE 12th and Benton because that land has been sold to the State Highway Department for development as a highway engineer's office and other facilities.

Edna McGregor, homemaker teacher here for 14 years, was granted a 4-month leave of absence because of illness in her family.

Contract with McEwen Motor Co. for use of an automobile in the driver education program was approved.

Cecil McDonald's request for a tax adjustment for the Douglass Addition was tabled, pending a conference with the school tax assessor. McDonald told the board that school taxes for 1956 and 1957 are delinquent.

He contended that the tax levy of about $3.40 per lot for that period was higher than the present levy based on appraisal by Fritchard & Abbott, firm which conducted an equalization survey here last year. He asked for an adjustment amounting to approximately 50 per cent of the taxes for the two years.

Receipt of a $1,000 gift from a donor who prefers to remain anonymous was announced by Pat Murphy, school business manager. The same donor has made several previous gifts to the school district. Trustees expressed appreciation for the funds and said the

Study Of Road Department Set

Howard County Commissioners Court approved a plan Tuesday afternoon to devote a month to a close study of the operation and efficiency of the county road and bridge department.

Hudson Landers, member of the court, told the body that in view of the fact that two of the members are new and that the county judge is also a new member of the court, he believed the body would profit from a close look at the operations of the road and bridge department.

It was indicated that at the end of the month, the court will confer with Walter Parks, county engineer and discuss any issues that may have been developed.

DEAR ABBY

MOTHER-IN-LAW!!

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: My mother-in-law is here visiting us from out of town. We were invited to a dinner party and naturally we took her with us. They served drinks first, and my mother-in-law doesn't drink. At 8:30 when no dinner was in sight, my mother-in-law went into the kitchen and fixed herself a peanut butter and jelly sandwich and a pot of tea, which she brought out and ate right in front of everybody while they were still having their drinks. My husband said he saw nothing wrong with it. I was shamed to death. I'd like your opinion. SHAMED.

DEAR SHAMED: She was quite bold to help herself and then to bring it out to eat before the guests, but I can sympathize with her. Hostesses should consider the non-drinking guest by providing something to stave off hunger. Forget it, and next time feed her first.

DEAR ABBY: I suppose this will sound made up but I hope to die if it isn't true. I am 18 and my mother is 34, but she looks younger. We are both in love with the same man. He is divorced, 30 years old, and he takes turns taking us out. He says he can't make up his mind which one he loves more. My mother has been divorced twice and says she is not interested in marriage, but if he marries me she would like to live with us and that way we could both have him. Is that against any laws you know of? IN LOVE.

DEAR IN: This is a girl's first love I know of. Your mother should use the rocks in HER head to fill up the holes in YOURS.

What you suggest is immoral, indecent and illegal. Have none of it.

DEAR ABBY: My husband has walked around for about ten years without any teeth in his mouth. (He is 48 years old.) It's not the money either. He's tried three sets and says he can't be fitted. Now our daughter is getting married in March and we all want him to get teeth for the wedding. Should we try again to get him to a dentist or do you think there are really people who can't be fitted? BETTER HALF.

DEAR BETTER: He CAN BE fitted but he may need a few adjustments until the fit is perfect. What a pity that man hasn't had anything to sink his teeth into for ten years!

DEAR ABBY: When wives ask you how to get their husbands to do chores around the house like putting up a clothesline or moving an oversized trashcan, you say, "Hire a handy man and send your husband the bill." Are you out of your mind with your answer? I nagged my husband until the middle of December to take down my screens and put up my storm windows. I got nowhere. I finally picked out the best-looking man on our block. Six feet two and black wavy hair. I asked him to do it and he was glad to. When my husband came home and saw the job done he asked who did it. When I told him he didn't say one word, but I can tell you, Abby, I never had to ask him twice to do anything around the house after that. CLEVER.

DEAR CLEVER: Unfortunately not every block has a man who is tall, dark, handsome and willing. I still think it's cheaper to hire a handy man.

CONFIDENTIAL TO FAYE: It may be an imitation FOX—but the wolf who gave it to you is the real thing.

For a personal reply, write to 'Abby' in care of The Big Spring Herald. Enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Extra Atlas Stage Due

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Air Force has ordered an extra firing stage that could permit use of the Atlas missile for shots to the vicinity of Mars and Venus. It announced today the award of a contract for the upper stage to Convair Astronautics Division of General Dynamics. Convair makes the huge Atlas intercontinental missile. Company officials said the contract would amount to about seven million dollars in its first year.

The new upper stage will contain a high-powered rocket engine designed to kick vehicles to gravity-freeing speeds.

The upper stage will also make possible the launching of vehicles weighing as much as five tons into orbits at altitudes of 100 or 200 miles, Pentagon experts said. Using only the Atlas itself, without the added stage, loads of one to 1½ tons can be fired into orbiting paths, they estimated.

One apparent use for the Atlas-upper stage combination would be to launch a manned satellite under the Project Mercury program.

The National Aeronautics and Space Administration awarded Monday its own contract for designing and building a capsule in which a man or men would ride a satellite in orbit. However, it will be at least two years before NASA has a man-carrying satellite ready for test.

Temperatures Expected To Fall

By The Associated Press
Cooler temperatures were on the way for Texans Wednesday with some freezing weather expected in the Panhandle-Plains country early Thursday.

Occasional rain was a good prospect, the Weather Bureau said, in the southeast portion of North Central Texas and over East and South Central Texas Wednesday.

Just before dawn, skies were cloudy to partly cloudy with very light drizzle falling at Dallas, Fort Worth, Austin and College Station. There was some fog at Houston and Alice. Light rain fell at Lufkin.

Temperatures ranged from 32 at Dalhart to 63 at Corpus Christi and Palacios.

The Weather Bureau said patchy fog was over most of the south central and southeastern portions of the state.

Every Man And His Dog Has Lobbyist, Report Indicates

AUSTIN (AP)—The butcher, the baker and just about everybody—except maybe the candlestick maker—seems to have a registered lobbyist.

For the first time, the public will know officially who does what to influence legislation. And most of these representatives-for-pay who appear before the lawmakers do what Webster's dictionary says lobbyist means:

"To address or solicit members of a legislative body in the lobby or elsewhere, with intent to influence legislation."

Under a new law, anyone appearing before a House or Senate committee or having other "direct contact" with a lawmaker to influence legislation will file the session is under way must register.

House Chief Clerk Dorothy Hallman is the keeper of the sworn statements. They list the person's name, his employers and the legislation which interests him.

Some 73 already have signed up. No. 1 was John Holcomb of Austin, executive secretary of the Vocational Agriculture Teachers Assn. He said he's interested in school and agriculture measures.

FOR THE PEOPLE

An unexpected registrant was Rep. Bob Bullock of Hillsboro. He said he feels all the legislators should register because they are representing the people. Bullock said he voted against the bill.

Teachers, firemen, farmers, organized labor, policemen, state employees, grocers and cottonseed crushers are represented as are railroads, airlines, gas, oil and beer industries.

More industry and individual group spokesmen are expected to sign up during the next few days.

Thomas A. Blundell of Dallas, general manager of the Texas Independent Automobile Dealers Assn., said he would appear on a proposed bill to prohibit the sale of motor vehicles on Sunday.

Horace Sherman Miller of Waco said he was employed by the Aryan Knights Kl Klux Klan religious and his interest was "in segregation—racial kind of legislation." He rubber-stamped on his statement: "Defend And Demand Americanism."

Boys Who Set Fire Placed On Probation

Two Big Spring boys who set fire to Texas & Pacific railway bridge last Saturday afternoon have been placed under a year's probation by Juvenile Judge Ed Carpenter.

The boys, one 13 and the other 14, were before the court on Wednesday, and after hearing the facts in the case Judge Carpenter decided to put the boys under the control of A. E. Long, juvenile officer, for 12 months.

The two youngsters, on an air rifle hunting trip, tossed a blazing match into a small water-filled ravine under the trestle. The water was coated with oil and immediately flared into flames.

The fire spread to the bridge and before could be put under control had caused extensive damage to the structure.

First Triple-Pump Producer On Record Finaled In Garza

R. S. Anderson has fished the No. 6 Stanolind-Stoker in the Rocker A field of Garza County as the first triple pumping producer on record and he is in the process of completing another from three zones.

In Howard County, a new Pennsylvania wildcat has been located in the northwest corner of the county. Also the Midwest No. 1 Milliken wildcat in Borden has been completed as a Strawn strike, and potential is being taken today in the Ellenburger.

The Anderson triple-producer made 74 barrels of oil from the Clear Fork, and pumping operations on all three intervals are handled by one pumpjack.

Highway patrol officers reported investigations on two accidents on Tuesday and Tuesday night.

A hydrotest truck, out of Odessa, driven by Amos Anderson Solomon, 33, went out of control on a stretch of dew-dampened paving at 3:30 a.m. today. This accident was 12 miles north of Big Spring on the Gail road.

The truck turned over and sustained heavy damage but the driver was not injured.

Tuesday at 4:15 p.m. at Airport and Wright streets, a three-car collision caused damage to the vehicles but no injuries.

The patrol said that James McKinny Clay, 18, Big Spring, in 1950 Ford, was attempting to make a right hand turn when his car was struck in the side by a 1953 Nash driven by Robert Monroe Southall, 20, Big Spring. Gulf Pipe Line Veteran Retires

G. W. Thompson, 1809 Owens, pipe line worker for the Gulf Refining Co. for 32 years, has retired ending a career that began in an era of pioneering in oil production and transportation.

His retirement was effective Dec. 31. At the time, he was serving as pump station foreman.

He was honored last Friday at a banquet in the Wagon Wheel Restaurant. Fellow workers gave him a set of power tools for woodworking, one of his hobbies. He also plans to spend considerable time fishing.

Thompson began his service to Gulf at Burkburnett in January of 1927. Since then he has worked at Roscoe, Midland and Big Spring. His jobs have included pipe line work, station engineer, running chief and pump station foreman.

He said two years spent at the Coahoma LPG station probably constituted his most challenging assignment.

Liedtke No. 1 Dillingham, C SW SW, 9-29, GTRR Survey, made hole in lime at 8,433 feet. It is a wildcat 10 miles northeast of Gail.

Ashmun & Hilliard No. 1 Miller drilled in lime at 8,352 feet today after a drillstem test in the Mississippiian on 8,285-314 feet produced only 30 feet of drilling mud with no oil shows. The wildcat is C NE NE, 313-97, H&N Survey.

Howard

Chester Hunter of Dallas staked the No. 1 J. B. Simpson as a Pennsylvania wildcat 467 feet from north and 330 from west lines of the southwest quarter, 22-33-3n, T&P Survey, and three miles west of Vealmoor. Drilling depth is 8,600 feet.

Operator swabbed the Phillips No. 1-B Roxie in the Big Spring (Fusselman) field to clean out and test today after it was treated with 500 gallons of acid. Swabbing three hours, the well produced eight barrels of oil and two barrels of oil and mud. The site is C SE, 12-32-1n, T&P Survey.

Martin

Airman Convicted Of Holdup Charge

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — Calvin Hughes, 26, convicted yesterday of a $25,000 holdup, was to be sentenced today.

The airman was convicted of the April 24 holdup of a San Antonio Savings & Loan Assn. branch.

Prosecutors presented two witnesses who identified Hughes, with qualifications. They showed that Hughes appeared plagued by debts before April 24, then spent money freely.

The defense presented witnesses who testified Hughes hit a lucky gambling streak at Lackland and Kelly Air Force Bases.

He could get a maximum of 20 years.

Defense attorneys said they would study the trial transcript before deciding whether to appeal.

Garza

Completion data on the Anderson No. 6 Stanolind-Stoker in the Rocker A field has been released, the first well on record to pump from three zones simultaneously.

The San Andres fished 74 barrels of 37-degree oil and 16 barrels of water from perforations 2,447-82 and 2,472-78 feet, and it is producing from a hollow sucker rod.

From the Gloria, operator recovered 111 barrels of 37-degree oil and eight barrels of water on final test. It is perforated from 2,018-16 to 2,753. Electric utility gross receipts tax rate made uniform at 1.5 per cent instead of varying widely as now by areas.

Elimination of military posts from cigarette tax exemption.

New formula "to remove inequity in franchise tax law, allocable by companies doing business outside the state.

Taxes repealed:

Many non-collectible or obsolete taxes eliminated, such as the occupation levy on medicine shows, itinerant physicians, clock peddlers, street car companies, waxworks—even the tax on "cannon cracker dealers." The bill also would repeal the chain store tax, coin-operated machines tax, radio-TV cosmetics tax, admissions tax, oilwell servicing tax, stock transfer tax, and others.

On this category, Seeligson said that he is recommending the repealers either because "recent court decisions have virtually nullified the tax as a revenue producer, or because all or a substantial part of the tax is paid by the state, or because of reasons of equity and administrative difficulties."

He figured there would be a biennial revenue loss of 23.8 million dollars from the changes, but a net biennial gain of 22.2 million.

Court Stands Pat On A&M Decision

AUSTIN (AP)—The state Supreme Court refused today to review its earlier decision that women should not be admitted to the Texas A&M.

The court upheld the 10th Court of Civil Appeals decision on Dec. 31. The appeals court reversed the trial court decision, saying women applicant's rights were not violated since the state also supported an all-female school, Texas Women's University at Denton.

Mrs. Barbara Alice Tuttle and Mrs. Lena Ann Bristol filed suits against A&M seeking entrance after their applications were refused. The district court at Bryan ruled they should be allowed to enter, but both the appeals court and the Supreme Court disagreed.

John M. Barron of Bryan, attorney for the women, has said he would ask the U.S. Supreme Court to hear the case on grounds of the equal rights provision.

After Awhile, It Gets Rather Old

WASHINGTON (AP)—The first edition of "Who's Who of American Women" contains the names of 19,000 prominent women—and one man.

Shirley Povich, sports columnist for the Washington Post made it clear today he's not mad about being included. In fact, he's rather used to that sort of thing.

Povich, whose unmistakably masculine face adorns his daily "This Morning" column, often gets mail addressed to Miss Shirley Povich.

Once he was invited to join the League of American Penwomen, and the application blank asked such questions as "How do you get along with the men in your profession?" Povich filled it in with, "I simply try to be one of the boys."

As for "Who's Who of American Women," Povich conceded he didn't try very hard to correct the mistaken impression of the publishers, adding "if it's all right with them, it's all right with me."

TAX ERROR IS CORRECTED—WITH REFUND

A school district error cost Weldon McClanahan $141.70 temporarily.

McClanahan has been paying taxes to the Big Spring Independent School District for the past two years. Recently, when preparing for a real estate sale, he discovered his property is located in the Elbow School District, not the Big Spring District.

Refund of his tax payments totaling the $141.70 was authorized last night by local school trustees.

Pat Murphy, school business manager, said tax officials added McClanahan's holdings to the tax roll during a survey about two years ago. The land is adjacent to the Big Spring district line.

Disturb taxes also have been paid by the property owners.

Fog Disrupts U.S. Traffic

By The Associated Press

Cottony fog slowed auto travel and disrupted air service in parts of the Midwest today, while colder air streamed down the Atlantic Coast and Great Plains areas.

Airplane traffic was shut off completely at Chicago's two major airports, Midway and O'Hare. Many truck drivers in Chicago suburban areas pulled off to the side of the highways when visibility dropped to less than a half block. Some suburban trains ran five to 10 minutes late.

Temperatures dipped into the teens as far south as Gordonsville, Va., following Wednesday's readings in the 60s. Houlton, Maine had a low of 1-degree and northern Florida cooled to the mid 30s.

Northeasterly winds spread cooler air from the Northern Plains into the Oklahoma Panhandle.

Mild weather prevailed throughout most of the Midwest.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Mr. Editor:

The city and county can now save money (after so many times) by giving our guns to Mr. W. E. Parker, boys, and rest your weary bones. He evidently thinks deputies and peace officers can live on nothing because of unsolved crimes.

I'm for handing him the seven 22-caliber bullets and empty shells and let him solve the crimes.

There are two night deputies to patrol Howard County and 10 night policemen to patrol a city of approximately 30,000 population. And if people were called citizens would obey the traffic laws, it would leave the patrolmen more time to work on felony cases (and lots of time to prevent them).

There are too many people who think they know how to capture these bandits. Well, there is a $2,225 reward (just for any information leading to them). Have at it and cooperate with our peace officers, but remember they are trained for this sort of thing and people like us are apt to kill some innocent person; besides lots of boys and men fit the only description available.

Have a heart; your city and county peace officers deserve a raise and more men.

D. R. TRANTHAM

Thinks More Deputies, Policemen Are Needed

Those who registered included: James Wiley, Houston fireman, on reduction of hours for city firemen or any other legislation affecting civil service for firemen.

Sam Neathery, Houston attorney and Harris Winfree, Austin attorney, Gulf Oil Corp.

Harold Kilpatrick, Austin, executive of Texas Council of Churches, on "legislation of moral or social character, such as the having for its objective better penal and eleemosynary institutions; that which applies Christian principle in human relations; that which supports and strengthens public education."

Lewis Berry, Austin, executive secretary, Sheriff's Assn. and Texas, on all legislation pertaining to law enforcement and officers.

Lawrence Henderson, Dallas, Texas & Pacific Railway Co.

James Temple, Dallas, the Southland Corp., on relief from taxes under Texas chain store tax law.

The truck turned over and sustained heavy damage but the driver was not injured.

Tuesday at 4:15 p.m. at Airport and Wright streets, a three-car collision caused damage to the vehicles but no injuries.

The patrol said that James McKinny Clay, 18, Big Spring, in 1950 Ford, was attempting to make a right hand turn when his car was struck in the side by a 1953 Nash driven by Robert Monroe Southall, 20, Big Spring. After the Nash struck the Ford it bounced off and rammed a parked car owned by James W. Benson.

The first two cars were damaged heavily but the parked car was not seriously injured.

Wrecks, But No One Injured

Highway patrol officers reported investigations on two accidents on Tuesday and Tuesday night.

A hydrotest truck, out of Odessa, driven by Amos Anderson Solomon, 33, went out of control on a stretch of dew-dampened paving at 3:30 a.m. today. This accident was 12 miles north of Big Spring on the Gail road.

The truck turned over and sustained heavy damage but the driver was not injured.

After Awhile, It Gets Rather Old

WASHINGTON (AP)—The first edition of "Who's Who of American Women" contains the names of 19,000 prominent women—and one man.

Shirley Povich, sports columnist for the Washington Post made it clear today he's not mad about being included. In fact, he's rather used to that sort of thing.

Povich, whose unmistakably masculine face adorns his daily "This Morning" column, often gets mail addressed to Miss Shirley Povich.

Once he was invited to join the League of American Penwomen, and the application blank asked such questions as "How do you get along with the men in your profession?" Povich filled it in with, "I simply try to be one of the boys."

As for "Who's Who of American Women," Povich conceded he didn't try very hard to correct the mistaken impression of the publishers, adding "if it's all right with them, it's all right with me."

Pastors To Sponsor Movie, Bible Play

Sponsorship of two projects was voted by the Big Spring Pastors Assn. Wednesday morning in its meeting at the Park Methodist Church.

The association will bring the film, "Martin Luther," to Big Spring for two showings, one in the northern part of town and one in the downtown area. The date was set for March 2 and Chaplain Wilbur C. Hall was named chairman of the committee on arrangements.

Backing of the association also was given to a proposed drama based on a Biblical episode for the benefit of the high school Bible class fund. The Junior College and high school drama departments have expressed interest in such a presentation. The Rev. V. Ward Jackson, Church of God pastor, will be chairman of a committee to work on this.

The association also will cooperate in the Air Force preaching mission at Webb AFB by furnishing...

Singer Devises A Manual For Blind

By DICK SINNOTT
 BOSTON, Mass. (AP) — Her name was Bede Best and when she sang with Joe Rines' orchestra at the St. Regis Hotel in New York 25 years ago, young men would stop, look, listen and sigh. A petite brunette, she could belt out a song like a Louisville slugger. Her favorites were "I Only Have Eyes for You" and "With My Eyes Wide Open."
 But these tunes belied the tragedy in her heart. For in 1934 Bede Best was going blind. One eye was sightless, the other had 40 per cent vision. Eventually, doctors said, she would live in a world of darkness.
 Later she sang with Carl Ravazza's orchestra, but the band business soon became too difficult. There was always the fear she would stumble and fall as she made her way through a clutter of instruments en route to a microphone.
 An offer came from "Al Pierce and His Gang" and Bede found a niche in radio. Then came the Emory Deutch Variety Show, but her sight continued to fail her. It was time to return home to Boston and here she made her way as a pianist at local night spots. She married, had a son, and for a while Bede, now Mrs. Elizabeth U. Welker, found happiness.

 But misfortune shadowed her. Her husband died, her mother became an invalid and Bede's sight sank to five per cent. A corneal transplant operation was unsuccessful.
 Bede began learning Braille, the system of raised dots on paper which enables the blind to read by touch. As she mastered the system she discovered how cumbersome it was for the sightless and how difficult it must be for those who wanted to compose or play popular music.
 She appealed to Lawrence Berk, who had played piano with the Rines group, and now is director of the Berklee School of Music. The two decided to work on a method of simplifying the teaching of popular music and jazz to the blind.
 They developed new symbols they say can easily be learned by anyone who has mastered Braille. The symbols, using the Braille cell system, give the melody line, the chords and time values simultaneously.
 The blind person who has memorized his piano keyboard thus is able to "read" the corresponding Braille symbols for the notes that comprise the tune and can also memorize the chords which provide the accompanying harmony.
 Students using Braille to learn music composition often had to use two 9x13 inch sheets to learn a few bars of music. It required 15 sheets to learn a chorus. The sightless attempting such a chore often would become discouraged, lose interest, give up in despair.
 Bede and Berk worked out a system that boiled down an entire song to one sheet. It features new principles of harmony and encourages improvisation.
 Their system will become part of the curriculum at Berklee next September. It will be offered to the blind at reasonable tuition rates. Students in the class will be encouraged to become teachers themselves.
 And at the head of the class—as a Berklee instructor—will be Mrs. Welker, who as Bede Best lost her sight, but never her courage.

"I told him and he told the world"

"I was one of those people who had irregularity trouble for a long time," writes Mrs. Oscar Potter of Morrow, Ohio.
 "Finally, I gave Kellogg's All-Bran a try, just to see if it would work. Believe me, it did. And when my husband started having trouble, I told him about All-Bran, too. Now he thinks it's wonderful and he's telling all his friends about it."
 "The Potters have found, as you can too, that Kellogg's All-Bran is the good-tasting, natural way to overcome irregularity caused by lack of bulk. If that's your trouble, why don't you try Kellogg's All-Bran.

Female Reward
 WARREN, Pa. (AP)—Richard J. Fairchild, 22, of Corry, told police he was driving to Warren Tuesday when he encountered two women motorists with a flat tire.
 Fairchild said he stopped and helped change the tire. After he was finished, he said one of the women said:
 "Here's your reward," and shot him with a rifle she took from her car.
 Fairchild is in fair condition in Warren General Hospital with a wound of the left shoulder as police investigate his story.

Sheriff, Tax Collector Each To Get One Additional Deputy

Howard County Commissioners Court Tuesday afternoon provided for one additional deputy for Sheriff Miller Harris and authorized Mrs. Viola Robinson, tax collector, to add one more deputy to her staff.

Pay adjustments requested by Harris for his staff were denied. Mrs. Robinson had asked for two deputies and was granted only one. Mrs. Pauline Petty had requested one additional deputy and this was denied.

The former court of county commissioners three months ago agreed to grant Wes Patton, constable for Big Spring, an additional $50 a month salary on the understanding that Patton, while still continuing as a constable, would become a full time working member under Harris in the sheriff's office.

Somehow, in the closing days of the year, no final action was taken on this proposal although the required legal advertisement of the decision was duly published.

The court Tuesday backed up the original decision and Patton was awarded $50 a month additional salary with the understanding that such pay increase would stand as long as his agreement with Harris to work as a full-time deputy in any capacity he can serve proved agreeable to both parties. If such agreement fails, the salary would revert to its former status.

A. E. Long, juvenile officer, was given $25 a month additional car expense money. He had asked not only for $50 a month additional car expense but for a $25 per month salary increase. His salary remains at $325 and his car expense allowance goes to $75 per month. Grover Coates, constable at Coahoma, was allowed an extra $25 per month car expense allowance

He had asked that his $175 a month salary be increased.
 Pete Thomas, assistant county engineer, was granted an increase in pay of $25 a month. He will now receive $475 per month—the salary requested for him by Walker, Parks, county engineer. Parks, second constable, his office assistant, Marie Jennings, be given a $45 a month increase in salary was denied.
 No action was taken on the request of Joe Tom Draper that he be appointed to the post of constable Precinct 1, Place 2, which he said is vacant.
 Harris expressed disappointment.

U.S. May Agree To German Formula

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States may be willing to modify its policy on German reunification if it can get West Germany and other Allies to agree on some revised formula.

The whole German situation is under intensive review in the State Department in preparation for new exchanges on the subject with the Soviet government.

President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles expect to discuss Germany, including Berlin and the reunification problem, in talks with Soviet Deputy Premier Anastas I. Mikoyan Friday and Saturday.

Dulles gave the tipoff on possible modification of the U. S. stand at a news conference Tuesday. He said reunification of East and West Germany through free elections—the formula the Allies have backed for years—is not the only method by which East and West Germany could be merged. But he declined under questioning to specify what other methods were possible.

West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer has always opposed any alteration of this formula. The Soviet government—in spite of an apparent agreement to such elections at Geneva in 1955—has insisted on a merger worked out directly between the East and West German regimes.

The end result of current State Department discussions, subject to consultation with the European Allies, could be some innovations in United States and Western policy, or a new decision to stand firm on present policies.

Africa Treason Trials To Start

PRETORIA, South Africa (AP) — South Africa's mass treason trial of opponents of the government's white supremacy policy gets under way again Jan. 19. After more than two years of preparation, 30 of the original 156 defendants will be in the dock next Monday. Another 61 will go on trial April 20. Charges against the remaining 65 have been dropped.

All were arrested in December 1956. They still have had no chance to enter pleas to an indictment charging them with conspiring to overthrow the government by violence.

An important element of the government's case is the "Freedom Charter" adopted at a "Congress of the People" organized in June 1955 by the African National Congress and other nonwhite political organizations.

The "Freedom Charter" demands equal rights for all races, nationalization of South Africa's mineral wealth, banks and "monopoly industry," repeal of discriminatory laws, maintenance of world peace, and independence for all peoples of Africa.

A Devotional For Today

I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice. (Romans 12:1.)

PRAYER: Our Father, may we be heartened by seeing sinners coming to Thee. We pray also that wherever our daily life is lived, we may make of that place a temple to show forth the glory and honor due Thy holy name. May we encourage others to accept Thy saving power; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Turning To The Tough Job

Near that the speakership has been set in the House of Representatives, the Texas Legislature can now buckle down to the critical business of finding some way to absorb the deficit and to levy ample taxes for meeting the demands of the biennium.

There will be pressures for increased appropriations, but in all probability getting substantial new money out of the Legislature is going to be a tough nut to crack. When it comes to new taxes, the solons are going to take a conservative approach. (In the speakership race between Waggoner Carr of Lubbock and Joe Burkett of Kerrville, it was not so much a question of who was conservative, but who was the more conservative.)

Loading more on the oil industry, long a favored spot, will be hardly feasible, for the industry's evil days are responsible in a good measure for the state's weakened financial position. The ad valorem levy long since has offered little promise—in fact it has been marked almost for extinction on the state level. The governor and other leaders have come out solidly against a general sales tax.

Hence the best guess is that there will be a leveling up of existing levies so that the base will be broadened. There is no assurance that the next session will not bring a sales tax, however. In fact, it is a real possibility.

A Real Test For The Rebels

Word coming out of Cuba brings news of mass executions of followers of the deposed dictator Batista. One account, confirmed only recently, tells of the execution of 75 at one time and of burial in a common grave. From other parts of Cuba come stories of other executions, less numerous, yet contributing to a swelling tide.

In every instance the new Cuban regime has insisted that those executed were given full and fair trials. They may have been given trials, but most of them could hardly have been full trials in our interpretation of the word. Moreover, trials were by provisional and military tribunals, which do not always zealously safeguard civil rights.

While one can appreciate the pent up wrath that has corroded the souls of rebels during more than two years of oppression and often during times of persecution, torture and death, this cannot justify a wave of unrestrained vengeance. Hate and recrimination may not be bottled at will, but they can be restrained and made to yield to orderly processes.

This may be the first real test of the new forces headed by Fidel Castro—the test of discipline and of restraint. Failure to meet it will cost Castro and his followers much of the great reservoir of goodwill they possess in this country.

David Lawrence Military Strength To Insure Peace

WASHINGTON — The most sensational section of President Eisenhower's address to Congress last Friday seems not to have made the big headlines in many newspapers in this region. Yet the fact that he said what he did, particularly while Anastas Mikoyan is in this country, can hardly be without considerable significance, especially to the men in the Kremlin—who they really care to learn what is actually blocking a Soviet-American understanding today.

For the President's statement was perhaps the strongest declaration about the Soviet Union made by any President of the United States since the close of World War II. Here are Mr. Eisenhower's exact words:

"We cannot build peace through desire alone. Moreover, we have learned the bitter lesson that international agreements, historically considered by us as sacred, are regarded in Communist doctrine and in practice to be mere scraps of paper. The most recent proof of their disdain of international obligations, solemnly undertaken, is their announced intention to abandon their responsibilities respecting Berlin.

"As a consequence, we can have no confidence in any treaty to which Communists are a party except where such a treaty provides within itself for self-enforcing mechanisms. Indeed, the demonstrated disregard of the Communists of their own pledges is one of the greatest obstacles to success in substituting the rule of law for rule by force."

This is the most severe indictment of the Communists that any Western government has made in recent years. On top of it has just come nevertheless a grandiose proposal from Moscow that "peace talks" over the Berlin issue be held with the 28 governments allied in the last war. It's the same old game of presenting in a spectacular manner to the world the picture of a Soviet government supposedly anxious to talk peace and make peace. But there's no evidence that the Communist regime will respect whatever written agreement may be consummated.

President Eisenhower realizes, of course, that the United States, to satisfy world opinion, must exhibit a constant willingness to talk. He adds, therefore, in his message:

"Yet, step by step, we must strengthen the institutions of peace—a peace that rests upon justice—a peace that depends upon a deep knowledge and clear understanding by all peoples, including our own, of the causes and possible consequences of failure in this great purpose."

Thereupon the President sets forth the only guarantee of peace today—armed strength. He says:

"To achieve this peace, we seek to prevent war at any place and in any dimension. If, despite our best efforts, a

How To Influence People

Russia's Schools Today Many Study English, Few Talk It

By RUTH DUNBAR
KIEV, U.S.S.R.—A traveler can easily get the impression that Russia is a place where everybody studies a foreign language but nobody speaks one.

Soviet 10-year schools require six years of foreign language of all students. The favorite language today is English.

Yet unlike most European countries, where an American can get by very well with only his native tongue, the traveler in Russia who doesn't know the language is lost in a sea of strange sounds.

Hotel and restaurant workers, clerks in stores and taxi drivers—persons who in other countries more accustomed to tourists usually have a working knowledge of English—know nothing but Russian. The man-on-the-street won't understand your simplest statement.

Shepavlenko put it this way: "We are firm in the belief that our cultural, economic and scientific connections with other peoples expand every year. So we must also expand our foreign language study. Our country is profoundly interested in the expansion of contacts with other nations. That explains our interest in languages."

In Moscow, he said, 400 of the city's 625 10-year schools teach English. Throughout the Russian Republic, "not less than half" do. He added that before "the great patriotic war" (Russia's name for World War II), 60 per cent of the students took German, with the rest divided between English and French.

Today, English ranks first, enrolling about 45 per cent of the students. Some 30 to 40 per cent study German. The rest take French or one of many other languages offered in Soviet schools.

Since in Russia, foreign languages is not studied purely for cultural values, but for practical political and economic reasons, it is not surprising to find a growing interest in the languages of the East.

START IN SECOND GRADE
In Tashkent, children may study Hindi, Chinese or Persian as their foreign language. Like all children living in the Soviet republics that use a native language other than Russian, they must become trilingual.

Their regular classes are taught in their native tongues, which in Tashkent is Uzbek. But starting in the second grade, they take Russian each year. In fifth grade, they begin their study of a foreign language, just as children in Russia proper.

BUSINESS DEAL
Spotting us immediately as foreigners, small boys swarmed about on the streets to ask for "chew gum" in exchange for souvenir pins. But except for this business deal, an English conversation with them could go no further.

The Russians are aware of the weakness in their foreign language program. They frequently said they have placed too much stress on grammar, not enough on acquiring a speaking knowledge.

Sergei G. Shepavlenko, director of the Institute of Methods of Teaching, a branch of Russia's Academy of Pedagogical Sciences, told us:

"We are not satisfied with the teaching of foreign languages. Pupils who complete the course have trouble expressing their thoughts and reading rather simple matter in a special field. We should add more years to the language instruction. In some schools, we are now beginning it in the fourth grade."

Henry Weiser, English specialist at the institute, said: "We are in a transition period. We are beginning to put more stress on oral speech. We are revising our textbooks to attain more thorough mastery of vocabulary."

Russia requires all students to study a foreign language because she considers it vital to international relations.

Around The Rim We Should Have Known It

The filibuster, with a new slight curb, is still with us. Instead of two-thirds of the membership of the United States Senate being required to vote for a gag rule during debate, now two-thirds of those present and voting can put a stopper on talking and bring a matter to vote. This will make some difference, but not a lot.

Hence we can continue to look to record when some senator gets the floor and turns on the lip to stall out a vote. From the World Book Encyclopedia I learn that Sen. Strom Thurmond (who is the only presidential candidate ever to actively campaign in Big Spring) holds the record for a one-man filibuster. Back in 1957 he began reading the text of the election laws of the 48 states, and he kept reading and talking until 24 hours and 18 minutes had passed.

But purists contend that this is a tainted record, for somewhere in his verbal meanderings, the senator paused to let another senator make an insertion into the Congressional Record.

Sen. Wayne Morse lays claim to the one-man uninterrupted filibuster, for he orated solidly for 22 hours and 26 minutes when he was trying to block passage of the tidelands bill. Sen. Morse is reputed to have loosed more verbal gas than the output of natural gas from the tidelands that year.

It was 50 years ago that Sen. Robert LaFollette Sr., then a young member of the upper chamber, oiled his tonsils and took out to a solo effort of 18 hours and 23 minutes. His feat was hailed widely in its day, but needlessly so for the senator had yielded to several questions.

The state legislatures, which have looser rules and frequently younger, more robust men, have much longer single effort filibusters.

But the record for talking belongs to none of them—and of course I should have guessed it.

The encyclopedia chronicles that last summer a housewife from Tulsa, Okla., won a talking contest by jabbering constantly for 94 hours, 32 minutes and 5 seconds.

As a mere male, I bow to the over-powered superiority of the female tongue, the nearest thing this side of heaven to perpetual motion.

U.S. World Fair Pavilion To Belgium

Well, hurray for our side and for the Belgians, too!

The Belgian government is pleased to accept as a permanent gift from Uncle Sam the glorious pavilion and the theatre that housed (1) the American exhibits and (2) the American performing arts at the Brussels Universal Exhibition of 1958.

The announcement of the gift and its acceptance was made today by Howard S. Cullman, American commissioner general to the Brussels fair. Believe it or not, it ain't easy to give things away these days, even for free. Today's happy denouement is the result of long and earnest negotiations between the two governments.

But the theatre, said to be the most modern in the world, and the pavilion, widely acclaimed as the architectural gem of the fair, will be preserved. That is, the exquisite theatre, built for permanence from the beginning, will remain untouched, and will be used as a home for the Belgian national theatre.

The announcement of the gift and its acceptance was made today by Howard S. Cullman, American commissioner general to the Brussels fair. Believe it or not, it ain't easy to give things away these days, even for free. Today's happy denouement is the result of long and earnest negotiations between the two governments.

But the theatre, said to be the most modern in the world, and the pavilion, widely acclaimed as the architectural gem of the fair, will be preserved. That is, the exquisite theatre, built for permanence from the beginning, will remain untouched, and will be used as a home for the Belgian national theatre.

Along with the roof will disappear the wide balcony or second floor of the pavilion. Thus the floor of the balcony, which was built for permanence, will become the roof of the first, or lower, floor. Granted that the pavilion, a visual delight to all fair visitors, will be much changed, nonetheless its architect, Edward D. Stone, does not grieve—much.

"I took an enormous professional pride in the pavilion as a whole," Mr. Stone said. "Its drama and audacity will now be lost, but the Belgians have come up with a brilliant, practical, and realistic solution to the problem of transforming the pavilion into a permanent exhibition hall."

As one who loved the American pavilion and exhibits, I rejoice that so much of our contribution to the fair is to be retained by the Belgians. From the moment the fair opened, it was widely rumored that the Belgians were most eager to retain the theatre.

But then there was a touchy international question: Would the Russians be offended if the Belgians wanted the American theatre and felt disinclined to ask for any permanent souvenir of the Soviet exhibition?

Apparently that problem was solved and fairly disingenuously. By happenstance and the luck of the draw for fair space, the United States drew acreage within the city of Brussels proper and not in Heysel Park, immediately adjoining.

Heysel Park is the king's park, or a royal park. Every fair building in that park by agreement, must be demolished or removed and the park restored to its original appearance.

Because the American buildings were on city, and not royal, property, they could be saved. (Although their acceptance by the government will save the American government a million or so for demolition, since we, too, had agreed to remove our buildings en toto.)

The only other fair building to be preserved, I understand, is the handsome, modern Norwegian Building. It, too, has been given to the Belgian government, which is taking it down piecemeal and reassembling it for use as a schoolhouse.

The Russian Building, known from the day the fair opened as "The Ice House," was built in sections, trucked to Brussels and set up. Now the reverse process is in order. The Soviet building is being carted back to the Soviet state to be reassembled as a factory, which was exactly what it looked like from the beginning.

The Vatican is removing its spectacular church, built in sections, too, and the treasures that filled its exhibit are being returned to the 50 countries from which they were borrowed.

Thus the great triangle at the fair, occupied by the United States, the Vatican and the Soviets, will soon be no more. Only the American buildings will remain. I, as one citizen, rejoice that their beauty was such that the Belgians, egged-on by I understand by Queen Mother Elizabeth, had decided to retain them in perpetuity. The Gallup Poll 'Stay In Berlin', Says U.S. Public PRINCETON, N. J. — If the leaders of Soviet Russia have any doubts about where the American people stand on the Berlin question, they can put those doubts at rest.

A nationwide survey just completed by the American Institute of Public Opinion finds the U. S. public solidly behind the position taken by Secretary of State John Foster Dulles.

By a better than 7-to-1 margin, those persons who are familiar with the Berlin situation think we should keep our forces there even at the risk of war.

A typical comment was this one by a 38-year-old Portland, Ore. musician: "We should remain in Berlin at all costs."

In polling annals, it is seldom that an issue of international significance attracts the wide interest which the Berlin problem has in the few weeks that it has been in the headlines.

As of the time of the survey, more than three out of every four adults across the country, or 77 per cent had heard or read about the Berlin issue.

Those persons familiar with the problem were asked by Institute reporters: "Do you think we should keep American forces in Berlin — along with British and French forces — even at the risk of war?"

U. S. FORCES STAY IN BERLIN?
Per Cent	Per Cent
Yes, should	83	65	41
No, should not	5	8	8
No opinion	12	27	51

Analysis of the survey results shows that the heaviest support for keeping U. S. forces in Berlin comes from persons who have attended college, with sentiment among the college-trained group running better than 16-to-1 in favor.

Another interesting aspect of the survey is the fact that the issue cuts across political party lines rather evenly.

Here is the vote by education levels and by party affiliation:

No opinion		Familiar
Per Cent	Per Cent	Per Cent	Per Cent
8	8	12	61
96	81	61	88

A typical comment of persons in the survey who upheld the minority viewpoint was this one by a 52-year-old farmer near Harlingen, Texas: "We should keep our hands off, get out of Berlin, and tend to our own business."

Problems and possibilities in hair styling were discussed by Mr. and Mrs. Willard McCann, operators of the Beauty Walk, in revealing the spring trend, the pair demonstrated hair styling on guest models.

Another highlight of the program arranged by Mrs. Garland Conway was the appearance of Miss Paula Insel of New York City, who has presented locally an art travelrama. She showed a series of slides depicting the work of Mrs. Calla L. Lukes, New York artist.

instructions, good manners and respect of property. She pointed out that the major difficulty encountered with students at this level, however, is their lack of effort to learn; in a great many instances, she indicated, this disinterest stems from insufficient encouragement at home.

Parents can stimulate their children's thirst for knowledge by showing an attitude of interest toward the student. P-TA units are not organized at the high school level, she stated, but the parent can keep up with his child's report cards and can insist on a certain study period each day. The parent can also encourage good citizenship.

Miss Slaughter sketched the guidance program, wherein tests can be given to a student to see where his interest and ability lie.

An enrichment program has been introduced at the high school for the gifted student; on the other hand, there are English and mathematics courses for those who are lagging in these subjects. She commended the organization of a National Honor Society locally, to recognize the outstanding scholars.

Social functions are provided the high schoolers in the form of class-sponsored activities, outside groups such as YMCA clubs, and in large affairs sponsored by the student council, she concluded.

During the business period, Mrs. Bruce Wright Jr. announced the Federation Tea slated for 3 p.m., Feb. 6 at the Student Union Building. The group also tentatively set Jan. 30 as the date for a March of Dimes coffee; the affair will be from 10:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. E. C. Smith, 1701 Yale. Mrs. Draper was appointed general chairman; Mrs. Don Wiley will have charge of food, Mrs. D.

vid Newbolt will be at the register, and Mrs. Billy Watson will be responsible for invitations.

A contribution was voted to the Stanton Study Club, to help reimburse that unit for Christmas and forthcoming St. Patrick's decorations at the VA Hospital.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Draper and her cohostess, Mrs. Wright, to six members and a guest, Mrs. Horace Rankin.

Bulldogs Nip Steers In Overtime Thriller

Apparently hopelessly beaten in the last ten seconds of play, the Midland Bulldogs reached back and found the shots they needed to first tie, then defeat the Big Spring Steers, 61-58, in a five-alarm District 2-AAAA basketball thriller here Tuesday night.

The Bulldogs, rated just behind the Odessa Bronchos in the conference, were in arrears, 55-52, when they brought the ball downcourt with 15 seconds showing on a clock in Steer Gym.

Tall Mike Humphrey, who had been boxed in most of the game, hit a field goal from the side to enable the visitors to pull within a point at a tie.

Little Jimmy Potet, who followed for the ball, following an erratic pass on the part of Big Spring, and made good on one of two free shot offerings to force the contest into overtime.

Shortly after play was resumed in the three-minute overtime, Bobby Fisher put the Bulldogs ahead to stay with a tipn bucket.

Bill Thompson, a stickout for the Steers all evening, capitalized on a gratis pitch to make it 57-56, Midland but Steve Brown put the decision out of reach when he hit a bucket with 55 seconds showing on the clock.

It didn't matter after that but the sides exchanged two-pointers in those remaining seconds, Big Spring scoring on a field goal and Midland on a brace of free pitches by Potet.

Big Spring led by as much as five points a couple of times in the fourth period but the rangier Bulldogs simply surrounded the Steers and took charge to fight back into contention.

The Steers staged a heroic struggle. They were down ten points at one stage in the first half but had pulled to within two points of a deadlock at the intermission.

Thompson was terrific. He scored 23 points, tops for the game, and played an outstanding four game, although he had four fouls against him at the end.

Potet paced Midland's attack with 20 points.

Jimmy Reese of Midland repeatedly knocked the bottom of the net in the first quarter but he failed to score after the rest period and finally fouled out. He wound up with ten points.

Humphrey, far and away the tallest man on the court, didn't make a field goal in the first half and only one through three periods of play. He emerged with eight points.

A tremendous player was Benny McCrary of Big Spring, who stuck to Humphrey like fly paper and scored 13 points in his own right.

The Steer B team took a bad licking, yielding to the undefeated Midland reserve, 70-41. In that one Homer Mills hit 14 points to lead Big Spring while Goosie Marsh counted 18 points to pace the visitors.

GIRLS WIN, TOO

Buffaloes Surge Past Sterling

STERLING CITY (SC) — Forsan's boys burned just enough fuel to spark to a 46-35 conference win over Sterling City's Eagles here last night, and the girls pulled a thunderous upset in knocking the host Eaglettes, 46-42.

Forsan made a clean sweep for the night, getting a B boys victory, 44-7.

The Buffs, paced by board-hawking George White, hit only 30 per cent of their shots. But White hauled in 16 rebounds to make up for the off-shots. He lead scorers with 12.

The girls had been beaten by teams which Sterling downed, but Forsan was ahead most of the game in grabbing the district lead with a 2-0 standing. At the close of the first period, Forsan owned a 15-13 edge, was tied 28-28 at half and 35-35 at the end of the third.

But Sherry Fletcher's 34 points made for the win. The forward, aided by Jean Jones and Darla Dunagan, was double-teamed by the defense much of the time. Guards Linda Camp, Ella Beth Story and Judy Shoultis did an outstanding job on the defensive end for Forsan.

The B boys socked home 55 per cent of their shots, and had no trouble as Bob Shelton poked in 14, Jack Ashbill 11, and Gary Hardkicker 10.

Coach James Blake's boys and Merritt Roman's girls own 2-0 records each.

Next games for the teams come Friday in the Garden City tournament. The boys play Stanton at 5:54 p. m.

Casper, 300 Others Are On Hand For Crosby Meet

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (AP)—Billy Casper, bulky enough to go bear hunting with a bass fiddle, is going to defend his title in Bing Crosby's 13th National Pro-Amateur Golf Tournament.

The news isn't so good for the 300 qualifiers who start the rounds on three courses Thursday, but this is: Cary Middlecoff, who walked off with most of the loot in 1955 and 1956, can't come. Middlecoff is tied down back East on business.

Casper, of Chula Vista, Calif., won last year's event with a 27. And he teamed with Bob Reynolds, amateur and former Stanford football star, for second money in the pro-am.

Last year's pro-am was won by pro Jay Hebert and Roger Kelly, Los Angeles attorney, with a best ball total of 260. Hebert is back in the field.

Singer Bing Crosby annually gives $15,000 to the tournament which he started in 1937 as sort of a friendly clambake in this picturesque Pacific coastal town. To that is added $35,000 by the television sponsor of the Sunday finals. The $50,000 total puts it with the golf's richest prizes.

The take from admissions, programs and concessions go to charity. In the 13 years since the war, the Crosby tournament has netted more than $350,000, mostly for four youth centers.

There are a number of celebrities back this year, including comedian Bob Hope (handicapped at 10) and TV star Desi Arnez, with the highest amateur handicap—13. Singer Gordon MacRae

Texas, Mexican Leagues Stage Parley Today

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
SAN ANTONIO (AP)—An alliance baseball leaders think will be a shot in the arm to the game will be formalized today by the Texas and Mexican Leagues.

Hailed as a "great thing" by President Dick Butler of the Texas League and the furtherance of friendship by Carlos Rubio, president of the Mexican League, the alliance in the form of an interlocking schedule and final playoff for the Pan American championship will be officially arranged in a joint meeting of the two Class AA circuits.

The Mexican League met here yesterday and awarded franchises to the same six clubs that made the race last year. It turned down two applicants — Tampico and Vera Cruz — because it had to limit its membership to a half-dozen clubs to match the Texas League.

Monterrey, Mexico, Poza Rica, Nuevo Laredo, the Mexico City Reds and the Mexico City Tigers will make up the Mexican League. San Antonio, Austin, Victoria, Tulsa, Amarillo and Corpus Christi are the Texas League clubs. They have working agreements with the Chicago Cubs, Milwaukee, Los Angeles, St. Louis, Baltimore and San Francisco respectively.

At a banquet last night Charley Grimm, vice-president of the Chicago Cubs, expressed pleasure at his organization forming a tie-up with San Antonio. He also said he felt the Texas-Mexican League alliance would be a big boom to minor league baseball.

Rubio, through an interpreter, said "there is no better way to bring about love and friendship between two countries than on the field of baseball."

Butler declared the alliance was an important step and he called on an interpreter to convey the pleasure of the Texas League to the owners of the Mexican League clubs.

Texas League club owners said they knew there would be many problems attached to the alliance but that the good results would over-balance the troubles.

Grady Howlett, owner of the Tulsa club, said that while his city was far from Mexico and had a relatively small Mexican population, he still felt the new plan would be of benefit to Tulsa. "I am promoting baseball on an international basis and also putting over the point that we now have a 12-club league instead of eight, this will be able to see more faces during the season than before," Howlett said.

Grady Hatton, former major leaguer who manages San Antonio, said he looked forward to playing in Mexico. "I played a number of games there with semi-pro clubs, found the Mexicans to be great fans and fine players and the altitude you hear others say here to be a myth," Hatton declared.

Under the alliance, Texas League clubs will each play 18 games in Mexico, meeting each Mexican League club three times, and Mexican League clubs will do the same in Texas. These games will count in the standings of the two leagues. When champions have been determined, they will meet in a series to decide the title of the Pan American Assn.

An All-Star game will be played in Mexico City July 12. Each league will present a team picked from its six clubs.

West Point Begins Quest For New Football Coach

WEST POINT, N.Y.—Army today began the long quest for a new football coach and athletic director, while failing to throw a clue on the mystery of why a coach would abruptly quit.

Earl (Red) Blaik, fresh from an undefeated season and the toast of the coaching set for his "lonely end" offense last year, resigned Tuesday, effective Feb. 15, his 62nd birthday, after 18 years with Army.

His only reason: "This is the proper time to withdraw from college sports, as to overstay a coaching career is unthinkable."

To a man, Army brass said they were caught completely flatfooted. One high West Point officer said "We were so surprised that we have no one else in mind. We're wide open for all applications."

"There are several theories about Blaik's resignation. It has been said he has a bad stomach and the steadily increasing pressures of the game are getting to be too much. It has also been said he was at the end of his rope trying to convince the brass Army should play post-season bowl games and thus gain additional prestige. And it has been said he wanted to be able to have prospective players tutored before taking the entrance examinations just as Navy has been doing.

The last two offer the most logical reasons. At the end of last season, when Army compiled a record of eight victories, no defeats and one tie, the Cadets were certain bowl timber. But the policy of higher ups was against it. After expressing his regrets at leaving the Academy, and pointing out the strong position of Army sports, Blaik said:

"At the present time, there is no personal commitment to any future plan, though within a reasonable time I shall accept one of several opportunities either in television or business. Right now, Mrs. Blaik and I are going to take a short vacation."

Earl Robinson, University of California state who received a $65,000 bonus to sign, will get a trial at third base. The 22-year-old is a graceful fielder with a strong arm although his hitting needs to be improved.

BEHIND AT HALF, HAWKS RALLY TO WIN

LUBBOCK (SC)—Down 11 points at half time, the Howard County Junior College Jayhawks pulled out all stops to defeat Lubbock Christian College, 82-76, in a West Zone basketball game played here Tuesday night.

The victory was the 11th in 16 starts for the Big Spring Club and its first in two conference games. A fine exhibition of shooting early in the game by freshman Jimmy Evans kept the Hawks in contention while Harold Henson, who had not been expected to play due to an injury, might have been the difference in the waning minutes.

Evans played his finest game and wound up with ten points for the evening while Henson, hitting seven of nine field goal attempts, tossed in 14 for the evening.

The Lubbock team, after getting 49 points in a torrid first half, could hit only eight buckets in the final home club capitalized on 26 of 37 free toss opportunities to stay in contention.

Bobby Davis and Gilbert Bell played their usual fine games around the baskets for HCJC and Bell was the Big Spring's top scorer, with 15 points. Davis, who had 13 points, grabbed off 15 rebounds to ten for Bell.

HCJC got off to a 6-2 lead on three quick baskets by Evans and the Hawks were out front, 26-20, after ten minutes of play. Lubbock stole the ball several times after that, however, and then shot into the lead.

The Hawks didn't catch up again until 9 1/2 minutes had elapsed in the second half. They finally pulled ahead at 55-55.

Henson then hit his hot streak and the Hawks pulled away for keeps. Leading by four points with 8 1/2 minutes to go, the Big Spring club went into a stall and the strategy paid off. Lubbock had to come out and try to get the ball but it didn't work.

The Hawks hit 43 per cent of their shots the first half—19 of 44 attempts—and 15 of 37 the last half for 41 per cent.

They outscored the home club by a margin of 44-27 in the final half.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

It's unlikely now that Bob Harrell will depart the San Angelo coaching job before the 1959 season, even though he asked for and didn't get a renewal of his contract.

Harrell told intimates he had practically been assured of a three-year extension on the pact, which is timed to be terminated in the summer of 1960.

However, some members of the school board discussed the idea of adding to the contract and they exerted so much pressure that the proposal was nixed.

Harrell has come around to this line of reasoning, however: (1) He could experience a good season in 1959 and thus hold the trump hand at the bargaining table; (2) it is too late to negotiate the desired kind of contract with another school; (3) if a situation at another school does develop to his liking he is in a position to seek it, secure in the knowledge that he hasn't violated any trusts, instead is the maligned party.

There is also talk that responsible school men in Midland went so far as to sign that Nebraska coach to a contract several days ago.

When word circulated that the job had been filled, it deflated unfavorable reaction among influential people in the town.

They were quick to make their feelings known on the matter, with the result that school officials held up the news release, for fear of adding to the unpleasantness.

The Texas Tech aide, J. T. King, was supposed to have been one of the last two men considered for the job. Midland will have to go considerably above $7,500 per annum in order to get him. He's making at least $10,000 more than that where he is.

The deposed coach at Midland, Audrey Gill, has an ideal setup now but he reportedly wants to coach again, if he can find the right kind of setup.

Hayden Fry has a strong sentimental attachment to Odessa High School, having played, as well as coached, there. For that reason, he has decided against transferring to the University of Arkansas as a backfield coach.

Earlier, he had passed up the opportunity to move over to the Permian High School in Odessa, even though the new school apparently will get most of the material Odessa High now has.

It still looks as if Ted Dawson will get first chance at the Permian job, thereby leaving a vacancy at Ector High.

Bobby Savage, the one-time Big Spring athlete who now coaches football for East High School in Des Moines, Iowa, adds substantially to his income as a basketball official at this time of year.

The other night, Savage was working a game between William Penn College and Iowa Wesleyan. A weird finish to the game had Savage boxed into a corner but Bobby made the best of it and apparently came out without damage to his physical being or his reputation.

Wesleyan was leading by one point with eight seconds to go. Penn had the ball and asked for a timeout. The rest of the Penn team kept going and didn't stop until the timepiece showed only four seconds of play remaining.

There was no way to run the clock back to eight seconds, so the timer used a stopwatch on the bench, running off four seconds and then starting the scoreboard clock.

Penn scored a basket during those first four seconds. Wesleyan tossed in the ball and called for a time out with two seconds remaining. The timer didn't see the signal and time ran out. Savage had no choice but to use the stopwatch again. Wesleyan was then given another two seconds to get the ball in play, got a shot off during that time, but it fell short.

The Wesleyan coach protested over the odd windup but Penn was declared the winner, 69-68.

Bradley Upset By Louisville Cards, 79-66

By BEN OLAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

The University of Louisville has been going down the college basketball ladder steadily since putting together a 21-5 mark two years ago. But once in a while the Cardinals spring a surprise.

Tuesday night was a case in point when they beat seventh-ranked Bradley 79-66.

And it was a comparatively even victory, too. Bradley trailed by four points at the intermission, eight shortly after halftime and by four again a few minutes later.

But then Louisville's John Turner and Roger Tieman began connecting with long set shots from the side and the Cardinals pulled away. Tieman led the scoring with 20 points.

West Virginia was the only other team among the top 10 to see action and the 10th-rated Mountaineers came through handsomely by trimming the Cardinals and Mary 86-76 for their 42nd consecutive Southern Conference victory.

The Mountaineers, seeking their fifth straight conference title, put their league record for the season at 6-0.

In another Southern Conference tilt, George Washington defeated Richmond 72-64.

In the Southwest Conference, Texas Christian increased its lead to two games by defeating Rice 59-52. Texas Tech whipped Texas 64-47 and Baylor upset Southern Methodist 78-73.

Dartmouth took a 74-56 Ivy League victory over Harvard and Duke edged Clemson 45-41 in a tight Atlantic Coast Conference tussle.

Mariquette blasted Valparaiso 96-74 in its 11th consecutive success. DePaul handed Notre Dame its ninth defeat in 13 games, 69-66. Virginia snapped a seven-game losing streak by rolling over Washington and Lee 89-66.

Elsewhere, Bucknell pulled away from Penn State in the second half to win 80-67. Memphis State turned back Florida State 75-72 to lift its record to 9-1 and Connecticut beat New Hampshire in the Yankee Conference 65-51.

In tonight's most important game, top-ranked North Carolina State faced fourth-rated North Carolina. Other contests pit Xavier of Ohio at Dayton, South Carolina at Wake Forest and Yale at Army.

Passive, Lonely Woman May Be First In Space

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP)—A passive, lonely woman may be the first space pioneer.

Col. John Stapp, director of the Air Force's Aeromedical Laboratory at Wright Field, Ohio, says research shows that men "start worrying about their families and become aggressive and irrational" too soon to stand a long and confining trip.

The longest a man has been able to stay in a test chamber has been 42 hours, the colonel told the Alameda-Contra Costa Counties Medical Assn. Monday.

But a single woman who tried, he continued, lasted five days and wanted out only after her food was used up.

"This particular woman was a passive personality and she had no family or close friends to bind her to vital, earthly concerns," he noted.

Ward Catalog Shows Changes

CHICAGO — Paris fashions, electronic appliances, chemically made fabrics, automatic controls and expanded lines of recreation merchandise receive more attention than ever before in the new 1959 mail order catalog which Montgomery Ward is now distributing to more than 6,000,000 American families.

The Ward catalog reflects the changes in the merchandise that American families are buying in this jet-rocket-satellite age — casual clothes are that products of chemistry, the automatic kitchen and laundry appliances that have become a part of every home, the outboard motors, power tool shops and vacation travel equipment that families require for leisure time.

From the new front cover design of a young and modern family to the colorful back cover featuring nylon passenger car tires, the catalog reflects the changing buying habits of mail order customers. Ten years ago, the majority of Ward's catalog customers lived in rural areas. Today, 60 per cent live in metropolitan areas.

Prices are approximately the same as those listed in the 1958 Fall and Winter catalog. A comparison of identical staple items in all merchandise lines of the two catalogs shows the average price level up eight-tenths of one per cent.

Some merchandise items carry lower price tags, particularly in clothing, bedding and fabric lines where index items are slightly lower in price. Prices of home furnishings, auto accessories, building materials, and hard line merchandise products are slightly higher.

"Moscow's Lunik was a superhoax," the story said. "The Russians tried to fire a multistate missile on Jan. 2. It aborted. Red propagandists changed its name from Lunik to Mecha—dream, carried it in their fancy past the moon, and, like many another dream, lost it in space."

News About Noses: Wide, Hot Climate

LOS ANGELES, Calif. (AP) — It's amazing what Ralph Riggs knows about noses.

"The nose of a Negro," says specialist Riggs, "is designed as an air cooler. The Caucasian's nose is an air heater."

Dr. Riggs, of Louisiana State University, got onto the subject while addressing a seminar on nose surgery Tuesday at the College of Medical Evangelists.

"You can pretty generally figure," he said, "the wider the nose the warmer the climate."

Another thing about noses. They are part of the mechanism the body uses to make you turn over at night.

"In 70 per cent of the cases," said Dr. Riggs, "I can tell what side a person sleeps on by examining his nose. Really."

"A person is directed by his nose to turn over every hour or so. One side of the nose takes it easy while the other side takes over the task of doing most of

Cooper Protests Sen. Goldwater As Campaign Chief

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. John Sherman Cooper (R-Ky) said today Republicans will be laying themselves open to charges they are antilabor if they name Sen. Barry Goldwater (R-Ariz) as their campaign chairman.

Cooper, who was the unsuccessful candidate of Senate Republican liberals for floor leader, said he has no objection to a proposal that GOP members running in 1960 pick the campaign director.

The Kentucky senator made it clear, however, that he regards Goldwater as the likely choice of the 1960 class if this proposal is approved. The Conference of all GOP Senators was called into session today to consider the matter.

"Sen. Goldwater is a good man and his views are honestly held," Cooper said. "But if he is selected as head of the campaign committee it will give the Democrats a chance to label the Republicans as antilabor in 1960. I think that would be unfortunate."

Goldwater, who was re-elected last November, has campaigned aggressively against the use of compulsory union dues for political purposes.

Cooper said the liberal group he represents may offer a candidate to oppose Goldwater. He said there had been some talk of Sen. Hugh Scott (R-Pa), former Republican national chairman, in this connection.

Increase Seen In Crude Oil Demand

AUSTIN (AP)—Nominations of the state's biggest oil buying companies indicate an increase of 431,395 barrels daily in the demand for crude oil in February. Nominations submitted to the Railroad Commission yesterday total 2,853,241 barrels a day compared with 2,721,846 barrels for January. The statewide oil proration hearing will be held tomorrow by the commission to determine the February flow.

R. H. Weaver Re-Elected As President Of YMCA

R. H. Weaver, who led the YMCA through a year that included a capital funds campaign for a new building, was re-elected president of the organization Tuesday.

R. H. WEAVER

Other officers named were Dan M. Krause, vice president; Arnold Marshall, treasurer; Mrs. Arch Carson, secretary. Directors certified by the nomination committee were declared elected and the board approved the nominations of Fred Kasch, M. R. Koger and W. D. Caldwell as members. The long range planning committee has been assured by Puck-

During the afternoon before the banquet, he will be available for counsel with those engaged in the problem of dealing with juvenile delinquency. The banquet is set for Monday evening at the Cosden Country Club.

Resignation of Mrs. Ray Fortson from the YMCA staff was accepted with extreme regret, and the board adopted a resolution of appreciation to her for her long and devoted service to the Y.

Financial report of the Y's activities for the past year was given by Horace Garrett, treasurer. He said that revenues had aggregated $31,273 and expenditures $30,529, improving the association's cash position slightly. The budget had been $23,480, but most of the over-run in revenues and expenses were occasioned by funds paid in and out for specific activities.

Atlantic Slashes Permian Prices

DALLAS (AP)—Atlantic Refining Co. slashed the price it will pay for Permian Basin crude oil 7 to 15 cents a barrel yesterday. The largest cut was in West Texas-New Mexico sour type crude, dropped 15 cents a barrel to $2.87 for 40-gravity oil. A 2-cent gravity differential for crudes below 40 remained unchanged. The new top for intermediate grade crude is $3.01 a barrel, down 7 cents. Also reduced 7 cents a barrel to a new top of $3.08 was the Ellenburger oil bought by Atlantic in the Block 31 field. The new postings were effective yesterday morning.

Water Authority Elects Officers

PLAINVIEW, Tex. (AP)—The Canadian River Municipal Water Authority elected a new president Monday, but failed to solve the biggest problem—what to do about price differentials for city water. The board has set up a proposed four-zone rate schedule. Amarillo and Borger would pay 14.64 cents per thousand gallons; Pampa and Plainview 15.64; Lubbock 16.64; and 17.64 for Slaton, Tahoka, Lamesa, Brownfield, Levelland and O'Donnell. C. T. Johnson, Plainview, was named president; George Finger, Borger, vice president; and A. A. Meredith, Borger, secretary-treasurer.

ett & French, architect-engineer, that plans and specifications for the YMCA new building will be ready the first week in February. R. W. Whippley, chairman of the long range planning committee, said. Recommendations to the board regarding advertisement for bids will be made at the February meeting. Also, a resolution empowering the officers to borrow funds for interim financing of the construction will be presented at that time. Whippley reported that those making pledges had responded admirably in the last part of December and boosted the amount in hand for the project. Plans for the annual banquet are shaping up well, Mrs. Curtis Driver reported. She said that Judge Philip Gilliam, Denver, Colo., juvenile judge, would be flown here by Cosden Petroleum Corp. to address the gathering.

Local Stores Taking Part In 'Checker-Of-Year' Event

Piggly Wiggly and Furr's super markets here are participating in the "checker of the year" contests now being conducted in more than 2,000 U. S. Canadian and Latin American food stores. The contest is sponsored by the Super Market Institute and the National Cash Register Co. Twenty million super market shoppers in the United States, Canada and Latin America will have an opportunity to vote for their candidate for the 1959 Checker of the Year. Henry J. Eavey, president of the institute and operator of one of the world's largest super markets in Ft. Wayne, Ind., announced.

be specially decorated during this industry's unusual tribute to its front-line shock troops—the girls (and some young men) who ring up and bag hundreds of food orders daily and manage to keep smiling all the while. Customers will mark their ballots and drop their votes into big red-and-white ballot boxes until the closing day Feb. 14. The Checker of the Year Awards is not a beauty contest, Eavey explained. While customer votes count in selection of the Checker of the Year, customer voting is only one plateau. Proficiency and personality tests also are conducted by independent boards of judges.

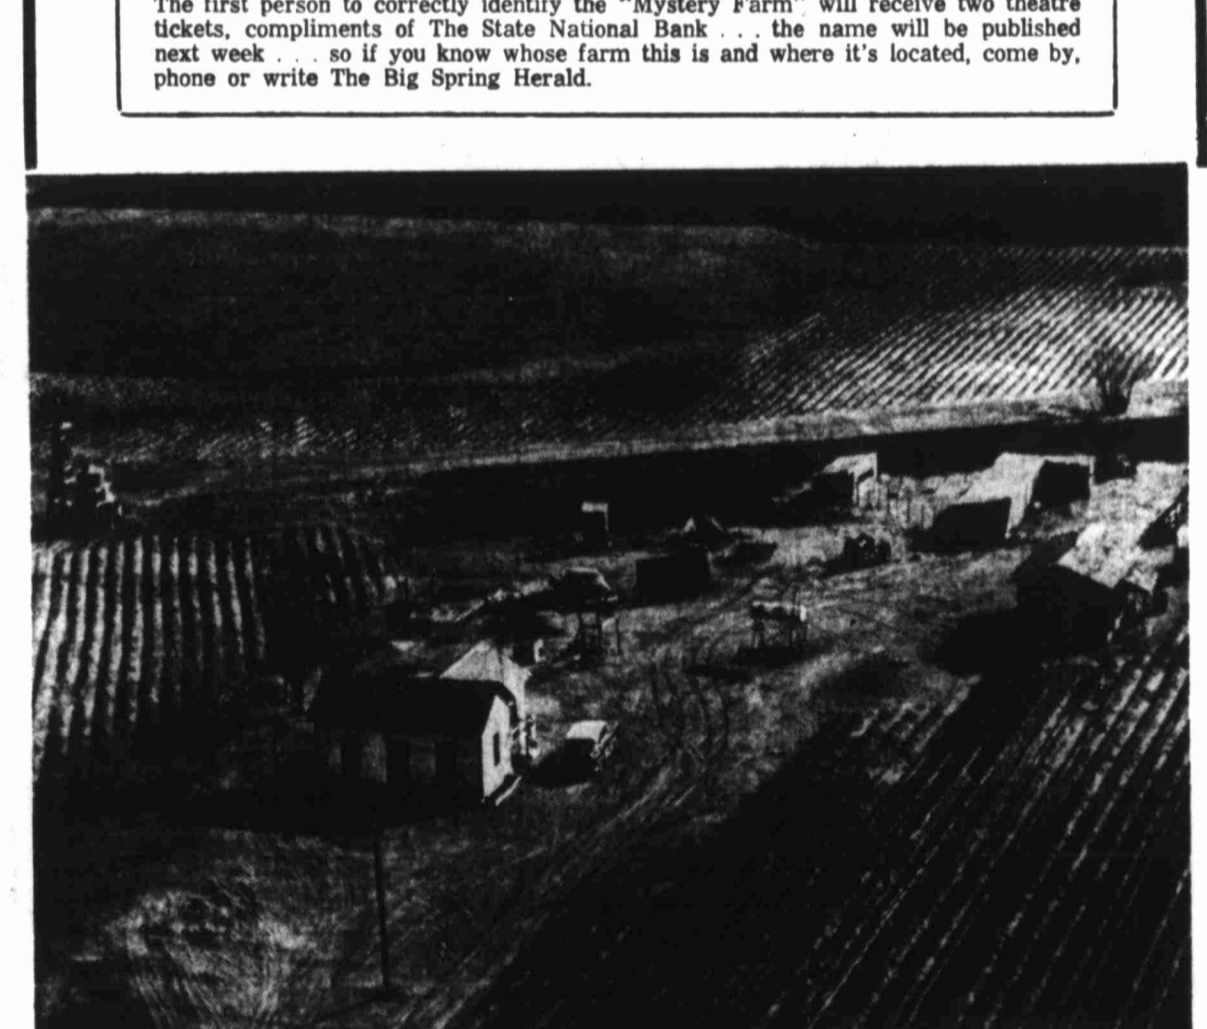

There will be company winners, state winners and then 10 regional winners from nine regions of the United States and one international region. International entries include candidates from Cuba, Puerto Rico and Newfoundland. The 10 regional winners will be flown via United Airlines to Atlantic City, where the final judging and selection of the 1959 Checker of the Year will take place on May 25 during the annual convention of Super Market Institute.

The winning checker's prizes will include a two-week tour of the Hawaiian Islands as a guest of the Doi-Hawaii Pineapple Co., a chest of Allswest silverware donated by Swift & Co., a milk stool, and many merchandise prizes. This is the fourth year SMI and the National Cash Register Co. have conducted the contest. Eavey said the competition has served to acquaint the public with the high standards of the super market industry.

Carr 'Runs' Over Burkett

AUSTIN (AP)—"What happened, Daddy?" asked 8-year-old James Burkett.

That, said Rep. Joe Burkett of Kerrville, was the hardest question he had to face in his 79-71 loss yesterday to Rep. Waggoner Carr of Lubbock for speakership of the House.

Carr's 9-year-old son, David, was jubilant over his father's success. Burkett said he had no excuses for his loss and no regrets. He was one of the first to stand and applaud when Carr came forward to take the oath of office.

The campaign, which actually began during the 1957 Legislature, was one of the closest in the history of the House. In 1933 Coke Stevenson defeated A. P. Johnson of Dimmitt County 82-68 and in 1935 Stevenson beat R. W. Calvert 80-68.

The outcome of the race brought forth a fast-spreading quip from one House wag. "Have you heard about the first traffic fatality of the Legislature?" he would ask. "Carr ran over Burkett."

"Run over, nothing," Burkett commented. "I got Hell stomped out of me."

Carr made a speech after the election in which he pleaded for cooperation from both sides. He said that the state's urgent business—business that we cannot do properly without the highest order of teamwork," Carr said.

Sexy Star Speaks Of A Noted Topic

By CHARLES MERCER
NEW YORK (AP) — "Men," says Julie Newmar, "have much greater imaginations than we have beauty—bless their hearts." A man would have to have quite an imagination indeed to outdo the beauty of Miss Newmar, an actress of curvaceous pulchritude who currently is playing on Broadway in "The Marriage-Go-Round." Next Sunday she makes her television debut on "Omnibus" in a satiric comedy on Hollywood life written by S. J. Perelman and entitled "Malice in Wonderland."

"I play an actress, an extra-type girl who's a little larger than life and overwhelms her blind date, a psychiatrist played by Keenan Wynn," said Miss Newmar. "In a way it's the part of a Hollywood sex-goddess."

Why is it, a fellow asked her, that the movies have developed quite a few "sex goddess" types and television has not developed even one?

"Sex has a lot to do with lights," said Miss Newmar. Black is not a color that expresses sex. On television you simply black and white—most of the time. For instance, I'm wearing black today. If I wanted to convey an impression of sexiness on anyone I'd have worn beige."

She was doing mighty well in black, the man said.
"Not that I'm aware of," she replied. "Maybe when color sets are in more general use television finally will develop a sex-goddess."

For the Sunday "Omnibus," Perelman fashioned three of his short stories into a comic satire. The production will be directed by James Lee.

"The Twentieth Century" begins a two-part series on juvenile delinquency Sunday that traces the story of a typical delinquent and new rehabilitation effort being undertaken in New Jersey.

Stephen Fleischman, who wrote, directed and produced the filmed program, had a choice of doing a study of the suburbs or juvenile delinquency. He chose the subject of delinquency, he says, because "The problem is just too big to ignore and cries for treatment."

Hardeman Vest Is 'Bullet Proof'

AUSTIN (AP)—"I've got on a bullet proof vest," Sen. Dorsey Hardeman of San Angelo quipped Tuesday.

Hardeman talked freely about his open, statewide campaign against proposed Constitutional Amendment No. 1. It would have created annual sessions of the Legislature and give lawmakers a $7,500 a year salary plus unlimited office expense.

Legislators have blamed Hardeman for the defeat of the measure. Because it didn't pass, they start today on their regular $25 per day expense money with no salary.

Atlas Satellite To Die Jan. 21

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP)—Scientists at the Smithsonian Astrophysical Observatory estimate that Atlas, America's biggest satellite, will plunge in flames Jan. 21.

The scientists said that the 4½-ton artificial moon will burn and disintegrate when 30 to 50 miles aloft in its plunge.

Dr. George Veis said the satellite, launched Dec. 18, will have made about 500 trips around the world before it expires.

County Agent Is Put In Charge Of Fair Buildings

Jimmy Taylor, county agent, Tuesday agreed to become custodian of the Howard County Fair Buildings and see to their maintenance and upkeep.

The County Commissioners Court asked Taylor to accept the responsibility. The county recently acquired title to the fair grounds and buildings which were deeded to it by the Howard County Fair Assn.

Taylor will serve as contact man and will keep the court advised as to requests for the buildings and as to needed repairs and maintenance.

Takes New Post

ALAMOGORDO, N.M. (AP)—Lt. Col. David Simons, who reached 102,000 feet in a balloon in 1957, has been named head of the department of bio-astronautics at Randolph Air Force Base, San Antonio. Simons has been attached to the aero-medical laboratory of the Air Force Missile Development Center here.

series when it comes here Jan. 22. Besides Marjorie Talchiet and George Skibine, the lead dancers, Kenneth Johnson, Veronika Mlakar, Barbara Steele and other stars, there will be 17 in the corps de ballet. Backing up these will be an orchestra of some dozen and a half players, plus a number of stage hands, wardrobe mistresses, etc. to round out the entourage.

Additional lines are being strung in the city auditorium to take care of the maze of scenery carried by the ballet. Until now the stage has lacked sufficient lines for lavish staging, and even "The Diary of Anne Frank" suffered somewhat from having to be pitched further back due to lack of front lines.

All this will be needed, for in "Camille," one of the three offerings of the evening, there will be no less than six scenes. "Susanna and the Barber," another ballet scheduled for presentation, requires scenery change, and there will be three scenes to "Idylle," the other offerings by Ruth Page's group.

Curtain time is set for 8 p.m. Jack Hendrix and Mrs. Ann Houser will be in Odessa Saturday to help judge the Odessa Symphony Orchestra auditions. Their co-judge will be Walter Mantani, conductor.

Fred Short and his College Players are expanding the theatre art into the field of radio. They are planning quite a few one-act plays for KBST in connection with that station's allocation of time to HCJC for educational purposes. The players also plan to present the one-acts before civic groups.

These specific common sense features are the big reasons why Ford is the best seller:

1. Six passengers, not just four, ride in comfort. Yes, even the man in the middle. Because Ford's full-depth seats are extra thick all the way across—there's no hard spot in the center as in some cars.
2. The doors are wider for easier entry. Compared with Ford's major competitor, they open wider... and have two-stage front door checks.
3. Ford's styling is sensible. It's clean and simple like the Thunderbird. No useless wings that are easy to dent.
4. Ford's frame is safer. In its field, only Ford has a wide-base frame that seats all passengers within the protection of its husky side rails.
5. Ford's spacious luggage compartment is easier to load and unload. High rear trunk wall on Ford's nearest competitor makes loading difficult.
6. Ford's got the most sound and weather insulation—everywhere. No other low-priced car compares.
7. Ford is economical. You save up to a dollar a tankful with Ford's standard Six or Thunderbird V-8 engines—for they thrive on regular gas. You need change oil only after each 4000 miles. The muffler is aluminized to last twice as long as ever. And Ford's new Diamond Lustre Finish never—ever—needs waxing.
