Bob Mercer, 82, remembers when he was only thirty years old and started to work for the U.S. Engineers. During 26 years with the Corps he saw the Intra-coastal Canal get its start through areas where ghost towns of early Texas left their mark.

Pioneer, 82, Recalls Times Of Adventure

ARANSAS PASS (AP) — Bob Mercer is 82, but he remembers adventure when at 30, he started to work for the U. S. Engineers.

During the 26 years he worked for them he saw the Intra-coastal Canal get its start through areas where ghost towns of early Texas left their mark.

"That was back in 1904," Mercer says, "and the Engineers surveyed the route of the waterway through coastal swamps and bays."

Frequently, the surveying parties found traces of long forgotten settlements, some of them beneath the waves of the Gulf. "On San Luis Island," Mercer says, "there was an old town in the edge of the water, and a lot of graves with headstones that would show at low tide."

This town was founded in 1839, and in those days, say historians, a regular stage coach and ferry operated between the then tiny town of Galveston and booming San Luis. However, by 1844, tides and storms had filled the harbor, and a discouraged populace deserted the settlement.

"Down the way a little piece," Mercer said, "between the markers that now show miles 415 and 420 on the canal, there was a foundation where someone had built a house, and the remains of an old wharf, but I never did learn anything about who lived at that place."

"Just east of Port O'Connor, between it and Decros Point, present day charts show submerged ruins. These used to be a quarantine station at this point when Pass Cavallo was used by boats carrying freight to early Texas.

"On the upper end of Matagorda Island is where Saluria stood. There once was a pretty good sized town there before the Civil War, with a fort and a lighthouse. A stage line ran down the island across Cedar Bayou to St. Joseph Island.

"There was a town on St. Joseph's then, about opposite where the old Aransas Pass lighthouse still stands. My folks lived there for a while before the Civil War, and then a fire the war they moved over to Mustang. One time when I was with the engineers, along about 1919 I think it was, I was on St. Jo where the old town had been, and wind and water had cleared off the foundations of some of them, so you could tell where they had been built."

Mercer's family followed piloting in the days before the Aransas Pass was settled, and the little settlement was called Mustang Island, the same as the post office. Later this was changed to Ropesville; then, to celebrate the local fishing, it was changed to Tarpon. The name Port Aransas was given to the settlement in 1911.

Mercer remembers a couple of settlements on Padre Island.

An old packing plant stood opposite Corpus Christi and an old quarantine station was close to long-closed Corpus Christi Pass. About two thirds of the way down the island is the spot where Padre Bailli's ranch was built in the days of the Spanish occupation, and where the Singer family built their home in later years. On the south side of Brazos Santiago Pass, on Brazos Island, Mercer says there were remains of another settlement.

The Difference Is In Underwear

NEWPORT, Ky. (AP) — The man who stripped down to his shorts Monday in a do-it-yourself laundry found out Tuesday why he shouldn't.

"What's the difference?" he asked. "These women come in here in shorts to do their laundry. Why can't I?"

"It's a difference of the shorts," Acting Police Court Judge Conrad G. Matz told him. Then he fined the man, James Hamley, 59, of Cincinnati, $10 and costs and told him to get out of Newport.

Judge Matz said the difference was that the shorts worn by Hamley were just plain underwear—neither decorative nor decorous.

DEAR ABBY

WANT AN ANTIQUE?

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I've been friends with a man for 18 years. He is a widower 71 years old and lives with his widowed sister who has kept house for him all these years. She is 79. I am 62 and a widow. He is a man of means but very set in his ways. He doesn't like "changes" and still has his original furniture, pictures hanging from the moldings on wires, lamps with beads and fringe. His sister asks me why I don't marry him and "take him off her hands." I enjoy his company in small doses but don't think I could take a steady diet of this man. My friends think I am out of my mind for passing up this opportunity. Am I?

INDEPENDENT
DEAR ABBY: Unless you are in the market for a valuable antique, pass him up. He sounds like he'd make a better "friend" than a husband.

DEAR ABBY: I have heard that hypnosis can help people do things they are capable of doing but could never do before. I would like to improve my typing speed. Most jobs require at least 40 words per minute and I can't seem to build my speed up that high. Could you recommend a psychiatrist who can hypnotize me for this purpose alone?

MISS D.
DEAR MISS D.: I do not recommend specific doctors. I suggest you try to build up your typing speed through practice. Hypnosis is nothing to fool around with.

DEAR ABBY: Three years ago when I was in Seventh Grade I was very unpopular. No boy would even look at me. Except one. He had failed a year, smoked, drank and was just horrible. But I didn't care. He was a boy and that was all that mattered. (I thought.)

He moved away and everyone forgot about him and I started going around with nicer kids. I came a long way and this year was elected Vice President of the Freshman class. Now this terrible boy has moved back. He is worse than ever. He is trying to pick up where he left off. I hate to snub him but I don't want him hanging around me. He tries to put his hands on me in the halls and calls me "Doll" and "Baby" and I could die. How can I keep him away from me?

Kidnaped Boy Is Home Again

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (AP)—Sleepy little Mitchell Johnson snuggled into his mother's arms late Wednesday, back home from a nightmare he probably won't remember much about.

The 1½-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Johnson was flown back from Dallas where his 16-year-old baby-sitter took him.

It all started last Monday when the baby sitter, Betty Smythe, a snub-nosed fugitive from the Girls Welfare Home in Albuquerque, wandered off with the little boy.

She had been sitting with him in the Johnson's home at Placitas, a mountain village northeast of Albuquerque.

"I don't know why I did it," the orphaned teen-ager said in Dallas after her arrest.

Mrs. Johnson had been working as a psychologist at the girls institution. She said she resigned Friday and received permission to take Betty home with her.

Her attempts to give Mitchell to strangers in a drugstore in Dallas led to recovery of the baby. Betty was found by police in a cafeteria in downtown Dallas.

An airlines employe carried Mitchell from the plane in Albuquerque to his mother. As he reached for her, the little redhead murmured, "mama, mama."

Mrs. Johnson, wean from worry, said, "I knew he was safe."

Then she said, "I'm so relieved."

As for the Smythe girl, held in Dallas, Mrs. Johnson said, "I'm so grateful she took good care of my baby."

Mountain Climbers Killed In Sierras

BRIDGEPORT, Calif. (AP)—Two mountain climbers fell to their death at 13,000 feet in the high Sierras, a rescue party radioed today.

Frank Sanborn, leading the rescuers, said the bodies were located near a quicksilver mine 80 miles east of Bridgeport.

The bodies were identified as those of Burl Parkinson, 65, South Pasadena, Calif., and Francis Foley, 53, Glendale, Calif. They had been missing since last Friday.

Parkinson and Foley were said to be experienced climbers. They told friends they expected to climb the peak and return to their starting point, Bishop, last Sunday.

Legion Celebrates 40th Anniversary

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The American Legion, its seed planted in France in the twilight of the First World War, is celebrating its 40th anniversary.

Praised for service to veterans of the community, the Legion also has been criticized on charges of ultra-nationalism, governmental meddling and too much convention horseplay.

But its critics cannot deny the influence and power of the Legion with its 2,814,000 members.

The U.S. Army high command provided the spur for the birth of the Legion.

After Germany had been defeated, discontent arose in the American Expeditionary Force. The war was over and the doughboys wanted to go home.

The Army high command, seeking to rub out this discontent, called 20 National Guard and Reserve officers to a Paris meeting aimed at finding ways to end the soldiers' grumbling. There was talk and some recommendations.

But some officers were thinking farther ahead.

One was Lt. Col. Theodore Roosevelt Jr., son of the 26th President. Roosevelt had been thinking of a veterans' organization long before the high command moved to still the foot soldiers' complaints.

With Roosevelt the prime force, the 20 men formed a unit and started the word that a meeting would be held March 15, 1919 in Paris.

Some 1,000 officers and enlisted men flocked to Paris to a caucus, March 15-17, and the Legion was on its way.

In the United States, there followed an intensive campaign to acquaint veterans with the proposed organization. In St. Louis on May 6, 1919 the advance committee of each state made plans for a general caucus.

On the afternoon of May 8th, Roosevelt called the caucus to order.

Immediately, there was a stampede to elect him permanent chairman, against his wishes. He promptly resigned.

Roosevelt was said to have felt that the Legion would be hurt by having a person with such a well-known name as his at its helm. Finally elected chairman was Henry D. Lindsley of Texas.

The Legion was chartered by Act of Congress and the charter convention was held in Minneapolis Nov. 10-12, 1919.

This Saturday Legionnaires will return to downtown St. Louis to a plaque on a utility company wall—formerly the site of a theater where the Legion was born—and hold rededication ceremonies.

Tuesday Big Day For Eddie, Liz

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Eddie Fisher plans to marry Elizabeth Taylor in Las Vegas, Nev., next Tuesday — the day after he gets his Nevada divorce from Debbie Reynolds.

The singer changed his wedding day, originally set for Thursday, to make sure Mike Todd Jr., son of Miss Taylor's late husband, would be on hand as best man. Todd has to be in Spain next Thursday.

Fisher, making a Las Vegas hotel appearance, expects to get a Nevada divorce Monday, the day his six-week legal residence ends. Miss Reynolds said she would not contest it.

This will be Fisher's second marriage and Miss Taylor's fourth. The dark-haired actress was divorced from Hotel Herd Nick Hiltor and Actor Michael Wilding. Her third husband, Showman Mike Todd, died in a plane crash last year.

Commies Decide To 'Jaw' Awhile

BUDAPEST, Hungary (AP)—Hungarian Communists, after years of poking fun at gum-chewing Americans, are going to start making their own chewing gum.

A cookie factory in Győr will open a gum section to supply some of the local demand that has been filled by American gift packages and official imports from Communist China and Israel.

But the appeal board said its action was based on technical errors in the association's ruling and that the doctors could reopen the case.

Herter Plans Major Bid For Public Support On TV

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Christian A. Herter plans a major bid for public support and understanding tonight on the eve of his trip to the East-West Geneva conference on Germany.

Indications are he will not spring any big surprises in American policy.

The speech will be broadcast and telecast at 8 p.m., EST. Herter is expected to stress what he regards as the reasonableness of U.S. plans for a peaceful solution to the German crisis.

He is prepared to say that the proposals to be presented to the Soviets at the foreign ministers parley starting Monday will provide a sound framework — if the Reds sincerely want to negotiate.

At the same time, he is ready to renew assurances that the Allies will not abandon West Berlin to the Communists just because Moscow demands that the Western Powers get out.

It will be Herter's first major appearance before the public since he took over as secretary of state from John Foster Dulles, and he wants to win the public's confidence.

The secretary leaves Friday afternoon for the Geneva meeting with the foreign ministers of Britain, France and the Soviet Union. The conference may last a month. Herter will stop off at Bonn for lunch with German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer Saturday noon. He will go on to Geneva that evening.

Texas Members Of Finance Panel Agree Reforms Needed

By TEX EASLEY
Associated Press Special Service
WASHINGTON (AP) — Texas' two men on the House Ways and Means Committee, Democrat Frank Ikard of Wichita Falls and Republican Bruce Alger of Dallas, agree general tax reforms are needed but unlikely this year.
"Ever before hearings can be held, our committee staff must do months of research," Ikard noted. "If we can get hearings started this year we may be able to get a bill through next session."
Alger has joined Rep. Sydney Herlong (D-Tenn.) and Rep. Howard Baker (R-Tenn.), fellow committeemen, in sponsoring a bill which has won strong support from the National Assn. of Manufacturers and other big business people.
Based on the theory that tax rates already may be at such a point that henceforth they will yield diminishing returns, their plan calls for a series of reductions in the income tax and corporate tax structures.
"Top personal income tax rates would decline over the next few years from the present 91 per cent to 47. Lowest rates would drop from the present 20 per cent to 15. The corporate rate would go down 1 per cent a year until it reached a 47 per cent maximum."
This schedule, they contend, actually would produce more revenue in the long run because there would be more capital available for investment and more incentive to invest it.
Alger confides that the pending bill is a moderation of his earlier support of a constitutional amendment proposal—now pending before the states, which would put up a 25 per cent top rate on income taxes.
Ikard says he believes reforms are needed, but that the Herlong bill is predicated on an assumption, that there will be no business declines.
Delay in consideration of tax legislation, Alger said, is caused by committee studies on social security, tariff and other measures which also come up before that group.
Meanwhile, Ikard has teamed up with Rep. Jim Wright of Fort Worth, Democrat, in support of a plan for gradual retirement of the national debt.
Under that proposal, originally advocated by Wright, there would be an orderly, systematic set-aside of tax revenues each year to be applied toward the debt.
Rep. Clark Fisher (D) of San Angelo, although not a member of the tax-levying committee, also introduced a bill like that offered by Herlong and others.
"I don't know that this bill is the answer to the problem" he observed, "but it seems to be a sound approach and provides something with which to start a study. The tax structure now is out of balance."

Pendergast Group Back In, But Situation Is Hardly The Same

Editor's Note—Years ago, when Boss Pendergast ruled Kansas City, it was a town renowned for its gaudy ways. Could there be another heady binge now that the reform administration which wrested control from Pendergast has been voted out of office?

By CALVIN MANON
KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — Kansas City gave its 19-year-old reform government the boot last month. Now everybody's wondering what the outcome will be.
Already L. P. Cookingham, city manager since May, 1940, has been forced to resign and three department heads have been fired. No explanation has been given other than that the action was taken at the direction of the new City Council.
Will the switch in administrations mean another heady binge similar to the one the city went through under the domination of the old Pendergast Democratic machine two decades ago?
Remembered are the gambling houses which operated so openly some even passed out advertising match books; the night clubs which featured the "business men's lunch," served by naked waitresses; the burlesque houses with the nude chorus lines; the dope peddlers and just about every form of vice imaginable.
The chances are there won't be a return to those times. So far the new administration hasn't given any indication that any general opening up is contemplated. In any event, the situation today hardly is comparable with that in the 1930s.
First, the coalition of Democratic factions which unseated the Citizens Assn., the reform group which has controlled the city since 1940, has no one outstanding leader.
This has been particularly evident in the Council's statement in selecting a successor to Cookingham, who had been made an issue in the campaign by several opposition candidates. They called him dictatorial and arbitrary.
The Council finally appointed Reed McKinley, Cookingham's director of public works, as acting manager until it could agree on a replacement.
Second, Kansas City's police department is under control of the state, completely divorced from control and politics. In his heyday, Boss Tom Pendergast got control of the city police through a Supreme Court decision based on a technicality in the law which vests control of police in Missouri's major cities in the governor. One of the first acts of the reform group had been to get the law corrected and the police department returned to state control.
H. Roe Bartle has been elected mayor twice as the candidate of the Citizens Assn. He also was endorsed by the Democratic coalition, which followed the policy of endorsing those citizens candidates it felt it had no chance of beating, anyway.
Party designations do not appear on city election ballots.
Why did the city finally turn on the citizens group after 19 years? Cookingham, himself, offered one explanation.
"If the Citizens Assn., made a mistake it was not to sponsor a good campaigner who had been a member of the City Council, but not necessarily a good team man," he said.
He didn't mention any name in his address before a group of Missouri University students, but it was evident he referred to the election of Charles Shafer Jr., on the coalition ticket. Shafer, elected four years ago with association endorsement, had been dropped by the organization in favor of another candidate.
He then received coalition support and was elected after campaigning as a severe critic of the administration.
Had he been re-elected on the association ticket, that group still would have had control of the Council by a 5-4 margin.
Other political observers say rising costs and the necessity for increasing city revenue through added taxes was another factor.

Youth Charged With Rape Attempt Against Classmate

TUCUMCARI, N.M. (AP)—A 15-year-old Tucumcari youth has been charged on two counts of assault in the beating and attempted rape of a 15-year-old high school classmate.
The youth, Wayne Allen Granger, was free on $1,500 bond today, charged with assault with intent to kill and assault to rape.
Granger pleaded innocent to the charges at his preliminary hearing Wednesday.
The girl was found bruised and battered, south of Tucumcari Tuesday in a clump of mesquite bushes, covered with tumbleweeds.
Attendants at Tucumcari General hospital listed her condition as fair.
Police said the girl, walking with her cocker spaniel, was offered a ride by the youth.
He told police he then, made advances to the girl, was rebuffed, and started beating her with his fists.
He drove to a mesquite-covered field, took the leash from the dog and choked the girl with it. He dragged her from the car into a clump of mesquite, picked up a rock and beat the girl's face with it.
He covered the unconscious body with tumbleweeds, took the dog to a nearby asphalt cooker tank and placed the animal inside to prevent it from directing attention to the spot. The dog was unharmed.
A youngster, hunting rabbits in the deserted field, heard the girl's moans and called an ambulance.
Police called were able to question the semi-conscious girl and learned the name of her assailant. The youth was arrested at his home.

Clouds Cover Wide Area

By The Associated Press
Clouds blanketed wide sections of South Central and West Texas Thursday, but the weather forecaster saw nothing more promising in them than scattered showers.
The rest of Texas was clear and mild.
A weak cool front which pushed slowly across the state earlier in the week touched off showers in the Houston, Beaumont and Victoria areas along the Gulf Coast late Wednesday, but they tapered off before dawn.
Temperatures at dawn Thursday ranged from 50 at Amarillo to 73 at Corpus Christi Naval Air Station.

Dahart, which often is the state's coolest point, had 52. Lubbock reported 57, Childress 55, Wichita Falls 57, Fort Worth 59, Dallas 63, Mineral Wells 61, Abilene 62, Midland 67, El Paso 67, Laredo 72, Waco 69, Austin 69, Texarkana 62, Lubkin 67, San Antonio 69, Brownsville 71, Corpus Christi 71, Houston 67, Galveston 72, Beaumont 67 and College Station 68.

He's Believer Now

IDAHO FALLS, Idaho (AP) — Grocery clerk Ken Bridges walked under a ladder leaning against a jewelry store. The ladder collapsed and a doctor took 12 stitches in sewing up the gash in Bridges' scalp.
"I'm a believer," Bridges said later.

Amarillo Celebrates Birthday Of Cal Farley, Friend To Boys

By FINIS MOTHERHEAD
AMARILLO, Tex. (AP)—Folks here figure practically everybody must have heard about Cal Farley—about the best friend hundreds of boys ever had.

In case you've missed the word, they're cranking up today to see that no one remains unformed.

Today is the twentieth birthday of Cal Farley's Boys Ranch, where 1,500 boys who might have become juvenile delinquents have grown to useful manhood.

The United Peace Officers of America, formed five years ago to support the ranch, is holding its convention here and has announced a $25,000 gift to build another ranch dormitory. Gov. Price Daniel has proclaimed May 17-23 Cal Farley week.

Farley, 62, World War I soldier and ex-wrestler, sold out a successful business so he could devote his full time to his Boys Ranch and the problems of underprivileged boys.

"What I've got to do is find a place somewhere out in the country where I can get these kids out of the alleys," Farley told rancher Julian Bivins, with whom he discussed plans for expanding boys' club work in Amarillo.

Bivins had a happy thought about his old ranch headquarters, then rarely used, at Tascosa, a ghost town 40 miles northwest of Amarillo. Tascosa had been a lusty frontier trading post, peopled by such figures as Kit Carson, Billy the Kid, Pat Masterson and Wild Bill Hickok.

Bivins gave Farley the ranch headquarters — once Tascosa's courthouse — and 120 acres.

In the spring of 1939 Farley started his Boys Ranch with six homeless boys, a supervising couple and a cook. Over the years he has built a model for boys' ranches in many states. Today there are 251 boys and 41 adult staff members in modern dormitories, a school gymnasium, dining hall, chapel and a complete ranch layout boasting its own rail depot.

Farley sold his business interests for a reported three-fourths of a million dollars to devote full time to Boys Ranch. Friends say he's put $120,000 of his own into the undertaking and never drawn a cent of pay.

Boys Ranch and Cal Farley haven't gone unnoticed. He's a No. 1 citizen in these parts.

Somebody thought it was time, nevertheless, for special recognition. Overnight the idea blossomed into an official Boys Ranch Week.

Before that, the United Peace Officers of America kicked off this Texas-size show by holding its annual convention there today.

Boys Ranch Week opens May 1. There are special events every day until the Cal Farley Day wind-up May 23, when Farley will receive a community award at a big barbecue dinner in his honor.

There are elaborate arrangements for a giant motorcade taking guests to the ranch that final day. Among those invited are governors of the 16 states now represented in the Boys Ranch student body.

Cal Farley Day promises to be the liveliest yet in reawakened Tascosa. And his neighbors confidently expect even more people to be aware of the man responsible for Boys Ranch a place where they build citizens instead of leaving the job to unreliable chance.

Tech Panty Raid Fails Of Target

LUBBOCK (AP)—Texas Tech male students blocked traffic for a time last night after an attempted panty raid.

Witnesses said between 300 and 500 students milled around one of the girls' dormitories.

Then a few entered the dormitory but fled when a faculty member arrived.

The crowd spilled into a nearby street, temporarily blocking traffic.

One co-ed fainted during the excitement, was taken to a hospital and then released.

Singer Cleared On Battery Charges

VAN NUYS, Calif. (AP)—Singer Guy Mitchell has been cleared of battery and disturbance of the peace charges growing out of a fight with a lumberyard operator.

Mitchell and Abraham Berman had filed charges against each other, Berman, 50, said Mitchell, 32, knocked him down and kicked him March 18 in a dispute over a bill for lumber. Mitchell claimed Berman started the fight. Mitchell said that his father-in-law, Aksel Sorensen, who acted as peacemaker, probably got the worst of the fighting.

Iraq Releases Italian Plane

BAGHDAD, Iraq (AP)—Iraqi authorities today released an Italian airliner with 29 persons aboard after holding it for 27 hours. The plane took off for Beirut and Rome.

The Baghdad representative of the airline Alitalia, Joseph Thweny, said the plane did not have the required permission to fly over Iraq and landed here Wednesday on radio instructions from the Baghdad airport's control tower.

He denied an earlier report that the four-engine airliner was forced down by Iraqi fighters.

The passengers included four Americans. They were identified by the airline only as Mr. and Mrs. Lachwal, en route to Beirut; and men named Laren and Harry, en route to Athens.

The plane was on a flight from Tehran to Beirut, Athens, Rome and London.

In announcing earlier that the plane had been forced down by Iraqi fighters, the airline's headquarters in Rome said the Iraqis charged the plane had violated Iraqi air space.

The airline said that while the plane was not scheduled to land in Iraq, Alitalia planes had permission to fly over Iraq along a certain corridor.

The pilot, Capt. Walter Galli of Rome, said he was under the impression it was permissible to fly over Iraq during daylight hours.

During the last two months however, airlines have had to secure individual permission for each flight over Iraq.

Old Hands May Not Be At Conventions

WASHINGTON (AP)—Television viewers of the 1960 national political conventions may have to become accustomed to a new cast of characters in key convention posts.

Reps. Sam Rayburn (D-Tex.), Joseph W. Martin Jr. (R-Mass.), and John McCormack (D-Mass.) may be missing from the glare of the camera spotlights.

Rayburn, Speaker of the House, has presided over the past three Democratic Conventions.

Martin, a 74-year-old veteran of many political wars, has wielded the gavel as permanent chairman of the past five Republican National Conventions.

The 67-year-old McCormack, graduate of "the Boston school of practical politics," has headed the platform committee of three of the past four Democratic National Conventions.

But the three House members may not occupy those spots in 1960 when the Democrats meet in Los Angeles and the Republicans in Chicago.

Rayburn remarked at a recent Washington social affair that he might not be chairman in 1960, that he might want to make a nominating speech. As neutral referees, convention chairmen can not make nominating speeches.

Rayburn attached no significance to the remark, which he said was made in jest. Whether he would accept the post of chairman if it were offered to him, he hasn't said. Some members of the democratic national committee are known to favor for the chairmanship someone less inclined than Rayburn to conciliate the party's southern wing.

A question mark has been posed over Martin's possible role in 1960 by his ouster from the party leadership in the House. He was replaced as floor leader last January by Charles A. Halleck of Indiana. Martin hasn't commented publicly on his 1960 prospects. He reportedly would accept the post if it were offered to him.

McCormack definitely does not want to head the platform committee.

"I'm not sure it will be offered to me," he said. "I don't want it. I would be most reluctant to take it. I didn't want it the last time but they drafted me."

"But I'll tell you one thing," he added. "The biggest mistake that could be made would be to pick anybody except Sam Rayburn for the permanent chairmanship."

Ike, Winnie Zip About In Golf Cart

By MARVIN L. ARROWSMITH
WASHINGTON (AP)—Picture Sir Winston Churchill zipping around President Eisenhower's farm in a baby-blue electric golf cart. There's a cigar clinched in the Britisher's teeth and he's wearing a cowboy hat.

Picture Eisenhower driving the small cart — and it sagging a bit to the right under the Churchillian bulk as they whip over the gravel roads.

That was the picture Wednesday afternoon as the 84-year-old former prime minister of Britain and his host toured the Eisenhower acres at Gettysburg, Pa., under a blazing hot sun.

and Eisenhower paused at the front door.

Inside, Churchill rested in a comfortable chair on the glassed-in sun porch and chatted with his host about the Battle of Gettysburg. A presidential aide reported that Britain's ground old warrior was just about as familiar with the general strategy and the fine points as Eisenhower is.

During the helicopter tour of the battlefield, the two World War II comrades studied a map of the area and its famed landmarks—the path of Pickett's ill-fated charge, Seminary Ridge, Little Round Top, Big Round Top.

Then they flew back to the White House where last evening Eisenhower gave another stag dinner honoring Churchill.

Today Churchill ends his White

House visit and moves to the British embassy. This evening the President will be Churchill's guest there.

U. S. 'Behind' Russia In Its Mart System

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department said today the Soviet Union lags far behind the United States in its marketing system for farm and food products.

This was said to handicap the Soviet people in achieving the good diets and standard of living they so badly want.

Information on the Soviet marketing setup was obtained by a team of department economists who visited the Soviet Union last year under an exchange arrangement.

More progress has been made by the Soviets in stepping up farm production than in marketing, the team reported.

"Their marketing facilities and methods are inefficient and old fashioned by our standards, and their market pricing system is inferior to ours," the report said.

A wide variety of breads and rolls is used, the economists said, to keep the Soviet cereal diet from becoming monotonous.

In describing retail stores, the report said there are refrigerated cases, but the meat never looks fresh.

"Butter and cheeses are good, and together with bread and ice cream, these are among the best foods in the Soviet Union. Both canned goods and fresh produce are of limited variety.

Uncertainty Brings End To Marriage

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP)—Uncertainty over the fate of the three-year marriage of Arlita Ekberg and British Actor Anthony Steel has ended with her suing for divorce.

The Swedish actress charged him with extreme cruelty in her complaint, filed Wednesday. Miss Ekberg, 27, and Steel, 39, were married in Florence, Italy, in 1956.

They have been apart since Jan. 15 and she has been making films in Italy.

When she returned to the United States recently she disclosed they were separated but she said she hadn't decided whether she would seek a divorce. The buxom blonde and Steel held a conference last week to determine if there was any way of reconciling their differences.

Superior Court was asked to approve a property settlement, details of which were not disclosed.

Lack Of Funds Delays Projects, Warrants Issued

LAMESA — Faced with demands for services and the lack of funds to provide them with, the Lamesa City Council has terminated its contract with a consulting engineering firm as an economy measure.

Councilmen also authorized the issuance of $40,000 in warrants to tide the city over until tax funds start coming in next fall. The warrants will go to the Lamesa National Bank at an interest rate of two per cent.

The engineering contract with Roberts, Merriman-Bowden and Isbell of Lubbock was cancelled by a 2-0 vote. Councilmen Bowers Purcell and Clarence Parks voted for the action, and the other council members abstained.

Members of the school board appeared concerning water and sewer for a new school building. Supt. C. W. Tarter said the board wanted to know when water and sewer lines would be extended to the new school site in southwest Lamesa. Walls of the building are going up now.

City Manager C. A. Taylor told the council the estimated cost of an eight-inch water line to the site would be $13,670, and for the sewer line would be $11,069. Since the April bond election failed, the council said the city had no funds available.

John Palmore, school board president, reminded councilmen that the school had proceeded with building at the site in good faith, feeling assured that utilities would be extended. The council agreed that the project was necessary, and that further study would be made to determine where the money would come from.

The council also appeared favorably impressed with a casualty insurance program, but again held off for further study in the matter of funds. Total cost of the program is about $10,000, and all agents of the city would share in the profits on the insurance.

Another money matter was also tabled. It concerned recommendations of the City Park Board for floor covering at Forrest Park Community Center and for two folding doors.

In other business, the council accepted a report from the Volunteer Fire Department; approved a new plat of the Yarbrough Addition; turned down a request for a taxicab permit from Hilarie Cervantes, and accepted a resolution to the Texas State Highway Department requesting that Lynn Street be widened and paved from North 7th to the Lubbock Highway and from South 8th St. to the Big Spring Highway.

Lions District Convention To Open Friday In Colorado City

A large delegation of Lions from Big Spring is expected to be among the 400 attending the Lions Club district convention in Colorado City this weekend.

Both the Downtown and Evening Lions Clubs here are expected to be well represented at the program which begins Friday morning. The District 2-T-2 convention is to be held in the Baker Hotel. The Big Springers will also be seeking to bring the district convention here in 1960.

Heading the list of speakers is Clarence L. Sturm of Manawa, Wis., incoming president of Lions International. Others on the program will be Duke Jimerson, Midland, district governor; Roy Miner, Odessa, state president of Lions International Counselors Assn.; Leonard Johnson, Alamo, governor of district 2-A; Billy Hurter, Amarillo, governor of district 2-T-1; and Joe Childers, Durango,

CLARENCE STURM

Col., past Pions International director.

Registration begins Friday at 9 a.m., and the first business session is to begin at 2 p.m. A barbecue Friday evening will honor Mr. and Mrs. Sturm.

The district talent show will be held in the high school auditorium.

Saturday's morning session will include nomination speeches for district officers as well as site for the 1960 convention. Big Spring and Brownwood are bidding for the convention next year.

Also during the morning the Lions will hear a report on re-districting which will place Big Spring in District 2-A-1 next year.

Childers and Roy Black, candidate for 3rd vice president of Lions International, from Nettleton, Miss., will speak during the Saturday afternoon session, after which officers for the coming year will be elected and the convention site announced.

The convention will close with the annual governor's banquet, honoring Jimerson. Speaker for the banquet will be Sturm.

From FIRST SLICE to ... LAST!

Finer ingredients and baking skill make Mrs. Baird's Bread taste better and stay fresh longer. This means better eating for your family and fewer of those "last slices" to throw away. Your best buy is Mrs. Baird's Bread.

Stays Fresh Longer

"This Looks Just Like Her"

So Mrs. D. D. Dyer seems to be saying of the photograph of the grandchild, four-year-old Susan Swinea. Most of the youngster's wardrobe has been made by Mrs. Dyer, who enjoys sewing as much as she does cooking, gardening, painting her home, and a heavy load of club work.

Mrs. Dyer Collects Recipes From Her Fellow Club Members

Where women are gathered together, chances are recipes are being swapped. Involved as she is in clubs and organizations, it follows that many of Mrs. D. D. Dyer's pet recipes have been handed her by companions in club and church work.

For example, the Chicken Spaghetti printed here came from an Eastern Star friend; the Potato Salad was given by a fellow First Baptist Church member, and the Date Nut Orange Cake came from another Baptist.

Those three square meals a day that are the lot of most homemakers are not dreaded by Mrs. Dyer. She finds pleasure in trying out different dishes, doing most of her cooking at noon. The evening meal is a light one, by preference of her husband, who is general car foreman for the T&P Railroad. She does bake cakes, as much for neighborly remembrances as for the Dyer table.

Gardening is an interest of our featured cook, who belongs to the Rosebud Garden Club. As a member of the Woman's Forum, she does volunteer work at the state hospital, and was formerly a Gray Lady at the VA Hospital. She takes part in the T&P Ladies Safety Council, is active in the Johnnie O'Brien Circle at First Baptist and will next month be installed as worthy matron of OES, Big Spring Chapter No. 67.

In addition, she finds time to sew for the sole grandchild, Susan, 4. Their daughter, Mrs. James Swinea, and her husband, who is a tech-sergeant in the USAF, moved to Shreveport early this year from El Paso and their visits are consequently less frequent. Mrs. Dyer is completing her latest project, which has been to repaint the interior of her home at 1402 Tucson.

Here are Mrs. Dyer's recipes. You will note a Heavenly Congealed Salad, which is especially tempting in the summertime:

- POTATO SALAD
4 large potatoes, mashed
While still hot, add:
1 glass bacon-flavored cheese spread
1/4 stick butter
3 pimientos, diced
5 hard-boiled eggs
Small onion, chopped
2 tbsps. mayonnaise
Salt and pepper to taste
When the mixture is cold, add:
1/2 cup chopped celery
1 cup chopped cucumber
8 stuffed olives
- HEAVENLY CONGEALED SALAD
2 small pkgs. cream cheese

- 2 pkgs. orange gelatin
2 cups hot water
1 cup nuts, chopped
1 cup celery, chopped
1 small can pimiento
1/2 pt. whipping cream
1 small can crushed pineapple
Have cheese at room temperature. Dissolve gelatin in water and cool. Whip cream; mix in cheese. Add to other mixture and chill. Stir once or twice before it sets.
- LEMON PIE
1 1/2 cups sugar
5 1-3 level tbsps. cornstarch
1 1/2 cups hot water
Mix together these ingredients and cook until thickens. Add:
3 egg yolks, beaten.
Cook 1 minute longer. Blend in:
3 tbsps. butter
4 tbsps. lemon juice
1 1/2 tbsps. grated lemon rind
Pour in baked pie shell. Cover with meringue and bake.

- CHICKEN SPAGHETTI
1 hen, cooked and cooled in broth
1 medium onion, chopped fine
1 bell pepper, chopped
1 No. 2 can tomatoes, drained
Cook onion, tomatoes and pepper in broth. Add:
1 medium can mushrooms
1 No. 2 can English peas
Salt, paprika or cayenne pepper as desired
Cook 1 pound spaghetti in salty water until tender. Mix all ingredients and let set for a while to mellow. Serve hot with grated cheese. Serves 20.

- DATE NUT ORANGE CAKE
1 cup butter
2 cups sugar
4 eggs
4 cups flour
1 tsp. soda
1/2 tsp. salt

It's Season For Juicy Corn On Cob

It looks like this will be another banner year for folks who like corn on the cob. And who doesn't! Fresh, juicy, tender and sweet as its name, sweet corn is here again. The vanguard of this year's crop arrived at local markets some time ago. May and June usually are months of heavy supplies but sweet corn will be "in season" all summer.

Acres of commercial sweet corn for the fresh market have increased considerably since World War II. The industry has adopted better methods of picking, handling and distributing. It is cooled quickly and shipped cool. Today, you buy it garden-fresh at the store.

This year's early spring crop is some smaller than in 1958, but about 15 per cent larger than average, reports the Agricultural Marketing Service. Up to now, most of the sweet corn has come from Florida. But harvest has begun in the Lower Rio Grande Valley and supplies from the Winter Garden and San Antonio areas should be available soon. Later supplies will come from other areas.

You can increase your sweet corn enjoyment by selecting ears that are well filled with bright, plump, milky kernels, just firm enough to offer slight resistance to pressure.

If kernel contents are semi-solid or doughlike, most of the sweetness will be gone and the skin on the kernels will be tough. Overmature corn loses water in proportion to the development of solid matter. Sugar changes to starch and loss of eating quality is rapid.

Tomato Dish Solves Lunch Quandary

Hot summer days will call for mid-day meals which are light and don't encourage inertia. Stuffed tomato salad is a superb answer to the problem of what to serve.

- STUFFED TOMATO SALAD
4 medium-sized tomatoes (1 1/2 to 1 3/4 pounds)
Salt
8 ounces large-curd creamy style cottage cheese
1/2 cup lightly-packed finely-grated cheddar cheese
2 tbsps. boiled dressing
Pepper
Parsley
Salad greens
Carrot sticks.

If tomatoes do not stand straight, cut a thin slice from the bottom of them. Now cut a thin slice from blossom ends of tomatoes; cut out centers in plug shapes; with fingers or a teaspoon, remove seed and pulp. Sprinkle cavities of tomatoes with salt and invert. Discard seeds; chop pulp fine and mix with cottage cheese, cheddar cheese and dressing; add salt and pepper to taste. Fill tomato cavities with cheese necessary. Insert parsley sprigs for garnish. Arrange on salad greens with carrot sticks. Serve with French dressing if desired. Makes four servings.

- ICING
2 cups sugar
1 cup orange juice
2 tbsps. grated orange rind
Pour over cake while still hot. In pan, letting it soak into the cake.

Strawberries Signal Shortcake Time Again

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
(AP) Newsfeatures Food Editor

Strawberries are showing themselves and it's shortcake time. That grand and glorious all-American shortcake made with a lavish amount of berries, heavy cream (plain or whipped), and biscuit rather than cake — rich biscuit, yes, but biscuit.

We're also all for an angelfood or sponge cake (lower in calories than other varieties) served with a strawberry-lemon sauce. This tastes delightful "as is," but if you want to gild it you may add a topping of whipped cream.

Both angelfood and sponge cakes may be bought, of course, or made at home. If you choose angelfood made from a mix you may wish to try one of the new varieties — orange, lemon or pineapple-lemon.

Here's the recipe for the sauce. It is just slightly on the tart side so be sure you choose strawberries that are beautifully ripe. Try the sauce sometimes, too, on good old-fashioned cottage pudding.

- STRAWBERRY-LEMON SAUCE
1 pint ripe strawberries
1 cup sugar
2 tbsps. cornstarch
2 cups water
1/2 cup lemon juice
4 tbsps. butter or margarine
Salt

Turn strawberries into a colander; rinse with cold water; hull. Dry on paper toweling; slice lengthwise.

In a 1 1/2 or 2-quart saucepan stir together thoroughly the sugar and cornstarch; add the water gradually, stirring until smooth after the first additions. Cook and stir constantly over moderate heat until boiling, thickened and clear. Turn heat low; add lemon juice and butter; stir until butter melts and combines; remove from heat. Stir in a few grains of salt and the sliced strawberries.

Serve warm over sponge or angelfood cake. Makes 1 quart thin sauce.

STRAWBERRY GARNISH
We've discovered a way to fix

STRAWBERRY SWEET

strawberries for a garnish that's utterly delightful. Put 1/4 cup of seedless red raspberry preserves and 1 tablespoon of hot water in a 1-cup measure. Place the cup in a small sauce pan of hot water over low heat; stir until the jelly melts; remove the cup from the water.

Wash and hull strawberries; dry on paper toweling. Lightly spear a strawberry (at the hulled end) with a thin-tined fork; dip into the warm melted jelly to coat. Hold the berry a second or so over the cup of jelly to drain a bit. Lightly spear another fork into the tip of the coated strawberry and (with the help of the first fork) stand the berry on its hulled end on several thicknesses of paper toweling. Dip the remaining berries, one at a time, the same way.

Allow the berries to stand until as much of the jelly as is going to drain down does so. This amount of jelly will be enough for dipping about 1 1/2 pints good-size strawberries.

This garnish takes a little doing but the final effect is wonderful to look at and delectable in flavor. Well worthwhile for a party!

Named delegates to Girls State in Austin this summer from Lamesa High School are Ruth Ann Scott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Plans Are Complete For Selection Of Miss Wool

The 1959 Miss Wool of Texas Pageant will bring some lucky young lady an opportunity to compete in one of the nation's top three contests—The National Miss Wool Pageant.

In addition, the Texas wool ambassador will leave the state pageant with a $7,000 all-wool wardrobe, including original coronation gown, and will receive an air-conditioned, power-equipped Chevrolet on Aug. 31, for use throughout her year of royalty.

The biggest prize of all—a chance at the coveted Miss Wool of America title, will become a reality for Miss Wool of Texas in late August, following her selection in the Texas pageant, July 14-17.

As the state finalist in the national pageant, she will be vying for prestige, publicity and gifts including a $25,000 all-wool wardrobe and extensive travel promoting the wool industry. One finalist representing each of the 21 wool-producing states will compete in the national event.

Any young woman from Texas between the ages of 18 and 25 who has completed at least one year in an accredited college or university is eligible to apply for the Miss Wool of Texas Pageant, provided she has not competed in the contest in previous years. She must wear a size 10 garment, be between 5 feet 4 and 5 feet 8 inches tall, and meet certain other requirements explained in the application folder.

Three days of boating, water skiing, dining and dancing and many other activities will precede the wool style show and coronation pageant in Sarah Bernhardt Theatre on July 17. San Angelo's new million-dollar coliseum will be the site of the national coronation pageant, Aug. 28.

Application blanks for the state pageant are available from the Miss Wool of Texas Committee, P. O. Box 712, San Angelo, Texas. Deadline for submitting applications is June 15. Eleven finalists will be chosen by the committee to compete in San Angelo, and will be notified of their selection by wire about June 20.

There is no charge for applying for the contest, other than furnishing glossy photographs in four specified poses. The photos will be returned to the applicant in all cases.

The Miss Wool of Texas Pageant originated in 1932 in San Angelo, and has been conducted annually. In 1958 the contest became national in scope, with 13 western wool-producing states competing. In that year Miss Wool of Texas became a secondary pageant. Miss Miriam LaCour, 1958 winner of the Texas contest, was chosen alternate National Miss Wool. Miss Beverly Bentley, Albuquerque, N. M., received the national wool crown.

Both pageants are produced by the Wool Committee in San Angelo, in conjunction with the Wool Bureau, Inc., the National Wool Growers' Assn. and the American Sheep Producers' Council.

Sallings Will Make Home In Miles

COAHOMA—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Salling and children Terry and Mike spent the weekend in Miles, where they are building a new home. They will leave Coahoma at the completion of this school term, as they have accepted positions with the Miles High School. Salling will serve as the superintendent there and she will teach in the commercial department.

The seniors of Coahoma High School returned home late Sunday following a five day trip to Oklahoma. Most of the time was spent at Lake Murray Lodge, State Park. Twenty-seven seniors made the trip accompanied by the class-sponsors, Mrs. Paul Allen and Grady Tindol and the senior room mother, Mrs. Jessie Brooks. Mr. Allen and Mrs. Tindol also made the trip.

High school students will observe ranch week Thursday and Friday climaxed with a hay ride and dance at the school cafeteria.

Names of the best dressed cowboy and cowgirl will be announced at the close of the evening. This is being sponsored by the student council.

HOLLYWOOD BEAUTY Starlet Profits From New Ideas In Make-Up

By LYDIA LANE

HOLLYWOOD — When a photographer in Bossier City, La., photographed Arlene Howell for the school's year book, she had no idea that this would lead to the Miss Universe contest, her being named Miss U.S.A. and to a movie contract with Warner Bros.

"Fortunately I had been voted the prettiest girl in my class, so I dressed very carefully for that photograph," Arlene reminisced in her dressing room on the "Maverick" set. "My sister was a Powers model in Dallas, and I had learned a lot about make-up from her. Once when she came home she stared at me and said, 'Those eyebrows will have to go.'" Arlene chuckled. "They must have looked awful. They were black and arched real high. I had copied them from a model in a magazine. My sister made me use a brown pencil and follow my natural line.

"Eyebrows can change your whole expression. And you always appear hard if the line is severe instead of sketched on with little feathery strokes," she added.

"My sister also insisted I use a lipstick brush," Arlene continued. "At first it seemed very awkward, but I'm glad I learned to use it because it makes a neater outline."

"I see you are using the 'smile' shape," I commented. This is an inverted comma made with lipstick at each corner of the mouth.

"Yes," Arlene agreed. "It took me a week before I could do it as neatly as I wanted, but I think it is becoming to most people."

Arlene has a particularly clear and lovely complexion, and when I mentioned this to her she said: "I don't have a sweet tooth, and I've never cared for soft drinks. Diet helps but I will tell you a Southern beauty secret. After I cleanse my face, I smooth evaporated milk over it and my neck and lie down a few minutes while it dries. I can feel it pulling and tightening my pores. And after I rinse it off with clear water my face feels so smooth."

"Has the studio made any changes in you?"

"They are giving me lessons to lower my voice and to take away my accent. It helps me to think of the low notes in a song. And I find putting my thumb between my teeth and reading without moving my jaw is good for diction, because it makes me use my lips more," she concluded.

EAR APPEAL

Never underestimate the charm of a lovely voice. Make yourself lovely to listen to. Have a more attractive voice. You can lower it or raise it, whichever is needed. With Leaflet M-6, "Exercises to Improve the Speaking Voice," you will learn how. For your copy of this unusual leaflet, send only 10 cents and a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Lydia Lane, Hollywood Beauty, in care of the Big Spring Herald. Be sure to ask for Leaflet M-6.

Miss U. S. A. Has A Secret

Arlene Howell, this year's Miss U. S. A., tells an old-fashioned Southern beauty secret. Arlene is seen frequently in the Warner Bros.' "Maverick" series on ABC-TV.

Purple Plums

Canned purple plums are usually economical to serve for dessert; to vary them give them a topping, just before serving, of sliced banana.

Substitute

One-quarter teaspoon of baking soda plus one teaspoon of cream of tartar is the approximate substitution for one teaspoon of baking powder.

Crosby A Grandpa For Second Time

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Bing Crosby is a grandfather for the second time.

Ex-showgirl Sandra Drummond, the wife of Bing's son, Philip, gave birth to a 5-pound 3-ounce daughter Wednesday. She was named Dixie Lee after Philip's mother, who died in 1952 after a long illness.

The couple was married last Sept. 25.

Last December, Philip's twin, Dennis and his wife, ex-chorus girl Pat Sheehan, had their first child — a boy.

Bing's sons aren't the only ones increasing the Crosby clan. The groaner's wife, actress Kathy Grant, is expecting her second child next fall.

Actress Discovers Pain Of Loneliness

By ROB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — "Sometimes I could get so lonely I could scream."

This helps to explain the mystery of Inger Stevens. Seemingly a well-adjusted, independent person, the bright young actress underwent an emotional crackup last January. Hollywood was shocked to learn that she had swallowed a poisonous cleaning fluid at her New York apartment.

She is back here now and working again. Tonight she stars on CBS' Playhouse 90 in "Diary of a Nurse." She talks volubly about her life and career, though she avoids what specifically caused her turmoil.

But Inger did talk about the loneliness that can afflict a single girl. She is a divorcee.

"The thing I miss the most is having someone to share things with," she said earnestly. "I come home in the evening bursting to unburden myself of the things that happened to me during the day's work. But there is no one to tell them to.

"Yes, I have dates, but that isn't the same. You need someone to share the day-to-day events of your life. When you have no one like that, life can get very difficult. Sometimes I could get so lonely I could scream."

I suggested the solution to her problem would be to find a man.

"Yes, I hope some day to find a man who will love me and whom I can love," she agreed. "But until that happens, I have to find other means of curing my loneliness. I do that by keeping busy."

"I want to keep my career active now. There is talk of a picture or two. My contract with Paramount allows me to do live television and I enjoy excitement of doing live shows. For two whole years when I was getting started, I did a great number of TV dramas. I can also do a play, and I'd like to find one."

Von Braun Aids Youths

NEOGA, Ill. (AP) — An ambitious rocket experiment by three high school pupils has gained the attention of the country's top missile scientist, Dr. Werner von Braun.

Rick Jakle, David Carruthers and Paul Braden plan to launch a 6-foot rocket—carrying a white mouse—sometime in June. They hope to recover the mouse and the nose cone.

The boys arranged to meet Von Braun when the famed rocket expert was lecturing at the University of Illinois April 16. He spent an hour counseling them. Since then he has exchanged letters with the boys.

"Keep up the good work," he said in his latest letter. "Sometime you can join my team at Huntsville" — the Redstone Arsenal, Huntsville, Ala.

Preparations for launching have been made on the Carruthers' farm near Neoga, a Cumberland County town of 1,200.

Scientists from the University of Illinois and Eastern Illinois University have agreed to attend the day of the test.

Von Braun can't make it.

Blasts Shatter Coal Tipples

JELLICO, Tenn. (AP) — Two explosions in the business district of this coal town on the Kentucky state line shattered two coal tipples in the Louisville & Nashville railroad yards early today.

The tipples and coal were set afire, but no injuries were reported.

It was the latest of several incidents of violence reported since a strike of United Mine Workers members has idled much of the east Tennessee coal industry.

Police said, however, that they had no clues to the identity of the person who set the blasts, and saw no one at the scene.

The blasts came less than 24 hours after 11 rifle shots were fired from ambush at a strip coal mine near here. Nobody was wounded.

John Deal, operator of the strip mine, said the shots were fired at him and four workmen, who ducked into a large iron bucket on a power shovel.

The mine is near Habersham near the Kentucky state line.

Fred Astaire Walks Off With 'Emmies'

By JAMES BACON
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Fred Astaire and his first big show for television danced nimbly away Wednesday night with every Emmy within reach.

"An Evening With Fred Astaire" had been nominated for nine Emmys — and won them all.

But television's oldtimers took their share of the 42 awards—among them Jack Benny, Loretta Young, Dinah Shore, Perry Como and Edward G. Murrow.

Omnibus, the Hallmark Hall of Fame, Playhouse 90 and the Alcoa-Goodyear theater were winners among the big programs. Among TV's gunslinger adventures' the choice was Maverick.

But the night's star was the 60-year-old Astaire, who climbed to the stage so many times to accept the TV Academy's Emmys that for the last award — for the outstanding program of the year—there was no one on stage to make the presentation.

Actor Robert Young hurried down the aisle of the Moulin Rouge night club to give the Golden Statuette to Astaire.

"It's a big night for dear old dad," Astaire breathlessly told a nationwide television audience which saw the 90-minute show over NBC-TV.

That just about summed up the 11th Annual TV Emmy Awards show.

Astaire or his show won for most outstanding single program; best special musical or variety show, one hour long; best single performance by an actor; best direction of a single musical or variety program; best writing of a single musical or variety program; best live camera work; best art director; best musical contribution and best choreography.

The old pros had things coming their way. Jack Benny won two awards as best actor in a comedy series and for the best comedy series. Dinah Shore, a repeat winner, was named best actress in a musical series and her Sunday night show was tagged the best musical or variety series.

Julie Harris, the gentle heroine of "Little Moon Of Alban," was selected as the best single performance by an actress.

The Perry Mason series won Emmys for the private eyes, with Raymond Burr taking best lead in a dramatic series and Barbara Hale best supporting actress. Loretta Young was named best leading actress in a dramatic series.

"Maverick" was named best western. Dennis Weaver, the gimp deputy to Marshal Dillon in "Gunsmoke," was cited as best supporting actor in a dramatic series. Jane Wyatt was named best leading actress in a comedy series ("Father Knows Best").

Ann B. Davis was named best supporting actress in a comedy series for her Schultzie on the Bob Cummings Show. Tom Poston, one of Steve Allen's gang, was named best supporting actor in a comedy series.

Illustrated Lecture

TWIN FALLS, Idaho (AP) — A class of city firemen and their wives gathered Wednesday night for a Red Cross refresher course in first aid.

As the class opened, a large light bulb dropped from a ceiling fixture and broke upon the head of Mrs. William Heinrich.

Instructor William Bergadine immediately administered first aid, lecturing the while on how to patch up face cuts and bandage a wounded head. Then her husband took her to the doctor, who removed four pieces of glass from Mrs. Heinrich's scalp.
