BALTIMORE (AP)—A Capital Airlines Viscount turboprop airplane, flying non-stop from New York to Atlanta, blew apart in storm-swept skies over Maryland late Tuesday, spraying wreckage and the bodies of 27 passengers and four crewmen over a two-mile area.

Less than an hour before, another Capital airliner, a four-engine Constellation, plunged over a 200-foot embankment at Charleston, W. Va., Airport and burst into flames, killing two persons and injuring at least six. This flight, from Buffalo, Rochester and Pittsburgh, also was bound for Atlanta.

One official at the Civil Aeronautics Board said it was the first time in his memory that a single airline had had two fatal crashes in one day.

The Constellation crashed at Charleston at 4:26 p.m. (EDT). The Viscount tore apart at 5:18 p.m. (EDT) while flying at about 14,000 feet over a patchwork of small farms about 15 miles east of Baltimore.

Weather may have been a factor in both cases.

Additional Voting Boxes Suggested

Possibility of more than one voting place for future city elections came out of the City Commission meeting Tuesday night.

Paul Kasch brought the problem of having only one voting spot for commission elections. He mentioned having three or possibly four voting spots, with the fire stations as voting boxes.

George Zachariah said that possibly the light votes on recent occasions were due to the lack of parking near the main fire station, the lone voting box. He also felt a heavier vote could come from additional voting boxes.

The matter was turned over to the legal department for study.

JULY 11 ELECTION

Proposal On Public Housing To Be Submitted To Voters

Decision on establishing a low-rent housing project here will be put to the voters in a special referendum on July 11, the City Commission decided Tuesday night.

The matter has been under study by the commission for about three months, and Mayor Lee O. Rogers said he would personally like to see such a project. However, he felt that the decision should be left up to the voters.

Under the setup considered, the federal government will advance 90 per cent of the money necessary to erect a housing project and bonds will be sold to provide the remaining 10 per cent. Such a project will be for the benefit of persons in low income brackets, and when they reach a certain pay level, they are required to move.

The entire program is regulated by a housing authority appointed by the City Commission. This housing authority has the power of condemnation, it hires an engineering firm to design the project and let the contract, and it also decides who may live in the units.

A 200-unit project has been suggested for Big Spring but this will be determined by a survey at a later time.

The idea was proposed by the Big Spring Civic Improvement League as an effort to improve the living conditions of persons in low income brackets — principally on the North Side.

Considerable discussion has been given to the matter by the commission. Two of the commissioners and the city manager made a trip recently to view projects in Sweetwater, Cisco, and Brownwood to get an idea of the problems involved.

Tuesday night, a four-man delegation from the Civic Improvement League met with the commission asking for an answer concerning the project. To this, Dr. Rogers proposed the referendum.

The commission pointed out that the results of the referendum did not necessarily tie the commission as to its final decision; it is strictly to get the general opinion of the voters.

There has been some question of the chance of Webb AFB personnel taking all units in the project, to which the commission is opposed. It was learned, however, that veterans and service men have equal chance at the units after disabled veterans and families of persons killed in war action, respectively. The city had already learned that 484 persons at Webb are eligible for the units.

Bruce Frazier, president of the League and present for the meeting Tuesday, said the League knew that the housing project would not solve all the slum problems, but at least it was a start.

Tom South made the motion to call the referendum, and John Taylor seconded it. The July 11 date was set, because City Manager A. K. Steinheimer said about 60 days will be needed to prepare the proper legal notices and get ready for the balloting.

In other matters, the commissioner approved participation in the YMCA's summer recreation program, through use of the city's facilities — swimming pools, golf course, softball diamonds, tennis courts, etc. It also agreed to pay for water and sewer lines to the new Y building at 8th and Owens. Costs of these lines will be about $1,700.

Commissioners also formally voted to employ John Burgess as city attorney. The commission interviewed Burgess last week and at that time extended him the job. However, since the decision was not made at an official meeting, the action Tuesday night was needed. Burgess will begin work June 1 at a salary of $400 monthly.

Herter Tosses Challenge At Russian Legate

GENEVA (AP)—U.S. Secretary of State Christian A. Herter challenged Russia's Andrei Gromyko today to join in "serious, constructive negotiation."

"I saw one big piece of the plane burning in the air, and there was smoke coming from two other parts which sort of drifted off and away."

"It was a terrible thing."

Not far away, a group of youngsters were playing ball. Suddenly debris and bodies began falling all around them. They ran for home — and cover.

At Charleston, W. Va., rain still was falling slightly when the big Constellation came in for a landing. The plane seemed to turn before it slowed down, witnesses said, and it tumbled off the brink of the hill. Then it burst into flames.

A 20-year-old stewardess, Nancy Marshall, was credited for getting many passengers out of the flaming wreckage. She forced open a door after several passengers had been unable to push it open.

"It's not a door that swings out," she explained. "It's a sliding door. All I did was roll it back."

Herter planned to use his power as today's chairman to try to open the East-West debate on German issues for which the conference was called.

Aides said privately they were not sure he could pull off this maneuver unless the Soviet campaign suddenly eased up — something they did not expect.

A French spokesman said "we think this afternoon's session will be wasted" on further argument over Gromyko's proposal to give Poland and Czechoslovakia seats at the conference round table.

Herter, France's Maurice Couve de Murville and Britain's Selwyn Lloyd all turned down the proposition Tuesday.

The Western ministers offered Gromyko a compromise, however: To let the two Communist nations and Italy and probably one or two other Western states enter the parley at some later time.

But Gromyko said through a spokesman the success of the conference was hinged on bringing in the Polish and Czech foreign ministers as full members at once. He demanded "a positive decision" and made clear he wanted it today.

Gromyko argued that Poland and Czechoslovakia should be invited because they were the first victims of Hitler's aggression and border on Germany.

The Western ministers, rejecting this argument, contended that the responsibility for a German settlement rests primarily with the Big Four powers. They said many nations suffered from Hitler and have a direct interest in Germany's future.

Ike, Nixon Agree To Help Fund Drive

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower and Vice President Richard M. Nixon have agreed to help congressional campaigners in their efforts to raise a special fund of about $400,000.

Eisenhower and Nixon accepted invitations to be the chief attractions at a $100-a-plate dinner here June 8 honoring Republican members of Congress.

Banker Indicted For Embezzlement

HOUSTON (AP)—Floyd Corwin Willard, who retired Jan. 14 as president of the South Main State Bank here, was indicted yesterday on charges of embezzling and mis-applying $259,000.

Unions Push Congress Drive

WASHINGTON (AP)—Labor unions through breakfasts for congressmen and other forms of lobbying, are mounting a growing drive to devamp sharply or kill the Senate-passed labor regulation bill.

John L. Lewis, the veteran United Mine Workers Union president, was to register his opposition today before a House Labor subcommittee.

The 73-year-old Lewis repeatedly has counseled against any new labor anti-corruption legislation. He says the problem is an internal one for unions to solve and, anyway, there are plenty of laws against embezzlement to curb union frauds if the laws are enforced.

Meanwhile the AFL-CIO, which supported the original Senate bill before amendments were added in the Senate, indicated a switch in sentiment. The AFL-CIO Executive Council is to meet here next week to go over the Senate version section by section.

George Meany, the AFL-CIO's president, hinted at federation opposition in a speech Tuesday to the Plasterers' Union. Meany spoke of the Kennedy-Ervin bill as passed by the Senate as "an active threat against the trade union movement."

The bill bears the names of Sens. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass) and Sam J. Ervin Jr. (D-NC).

Meany hinted at AFL-CIO political retaliation by remarking that labor figured it elected a liberal Congress last fall but now "it seems we haven't changed the complexion of Congress enough."

"So while we did better (politically) in 1958," Meany said, "I haven't the slightest doubt we'll do still better come 1960."

Scoreboard On Legislative Session

AUSTIN (AP)—Here's the scoreboard on the regular session of the 56th Legislature ended yesterday:

Total of 1,000 House bills introduced, 306 passed.

Total of 487 Senate bills introduced, 208 passed.

Of 61 House joint resolutions (proposed constitutional changes), 3 passed.

Of 15 Senate joint resolutions, 1 passed.

Court Requires Defense Attorneys

AUSTIN (AP)—The Court of Appeals voted 2-1 today to require defense attorneys in all felony cases.

Previously, trial courts appointed attorneys for indigent defendants only in cases involving the death punishment. The ruling came as a newly-approved bill to require the court to appoint attorneys awaited Gov. Price Daniel's approval or disapproval.

Aldine Sells Last Of School Bonds

HOUSTON (AP)—The Aldine School District's attorney moved today to free funds that would allow schools to reopen.

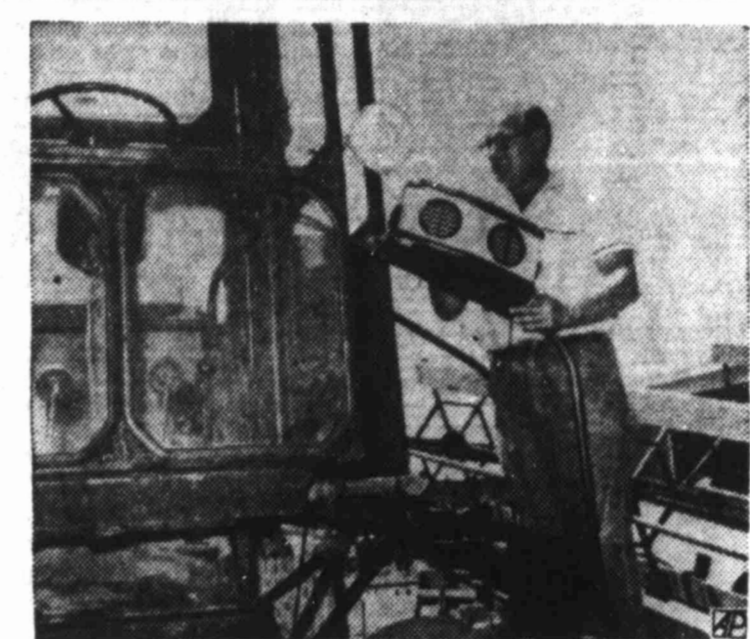

The district's financial woes were solved yesterday with the sale of the last of $200,000 in time warrants, but the funds were frozen when board factions clashed over who would have power to sign checks.

Sen. Long Opposes Dillon Nomination

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Russell B. Long (D-La.) raised a roadblock today to speedy Senate approval of C. Douglas Dillon's promotion to the No. 2 spot in the State Department.

When Dillon's nomination reaches the Senate floor, Long said, "I may speak for a day, or even two days, to illustrate why we have spent so many billions in other countries and in some instances gotten nothing but hatred in return, under the type of leadership represented by Mr. Dillon."

Ike Urges Action On Three Issues

Ready For Hot Harvest

Looking ahead to those hot harvest days, Eldon Leaming of Liberal, Kan., prepares to install an air conditioner in the all-glass cab of one of his combines. Custom combine men like Leaming follow the wheat harvest from Texas to Canada. The big push of combines gets started northward from Texas late in May.

City Public Works Director Is Named

A man now attending the University of Texas was hired by the City Commission Tuesday night as its director of public works, at a salary of $625 a month.

The new man, Bruce Dunn, this spring is completing his work on master's degree in public administration. He would be available for duty the middle of June.

Dunn, 33, didn't receive unanimous vote on his election, however. Paul Kasch said he was voting against hiring him because he felt Dunn didn't have enough experience to handle such a responsible position. "But I hope I am wrong." The other members of the board, George Zachariah, John Taylor, and Tom South, voted for him. Naturally as mayor, Dr. Lee O. Rogers, did not have to vote, but he expressed his favor of the man.

As director of public works, he will be taking the place held by Clifton Bellamy who was city engineer. City Manager A. K. Steinheimer's plan is also to hire a design engineer and have the public works director oversee the engineer's work as well as generally look after the street maintenance, water lines, sewers, etc.

Dunn holds a business administration degree from Texas Western College and a civil engineering degree from the University of Texas, plus his expected master's degree to be received this spring.

While attending Texas Western, he worked for a while for the City of El Paso and has worked for the City of Austin while going to the University of Texas.

Kasch felt that his experience didn't merit such responsibilities as will be put on him here. Steinheimer said that although engineering experience was not as great as was desired, he felt that the man had the administrative capabilities and would make the city a good director in time. "I think you will be pleased with him and won't regret you hired him."

Steinheimer pointed out that he is attending school now on a scholarship awarded by the City Managers' Assn. to an outstanding student in public administration. It is given to only one person in Texas each year.

Also the city manager said he was the best of the applicants for the job received.

Action was deferred on hiring a design engineer. One man was interviewed Tuesday night, and another will be interviewed probably Thursday. One was talked to last week.

Dunn's salary will be $625 at the first while the city plans to pay the design engineer about $600 for a start. As city engineer, Bellamy has received $700 per month.

tration degree from Texas Western College and a civil engineering degree from the University of Texas, plus his expected master's degree to be received this spring.

Daniel Says Too Much Session Talk

AUSTIN (AP)—Gov. Price Daniel said yesterday there is too much second special session talk.

The governor assured legislators "of my full cooperation in meeting the task before us within the 30-day period."

Gas Tax, Loans, Supports Talked

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower called today for quick congressional action boosting the gasoline tax, revising the costly wheat support and control program, and providing additional home loan insurance authority.

The President told his news conference a special message urging the three-way speedup would go to the capitol today.

The country's rising prosperity will be damaged, Eisenhower said, if the Federal Housing Administration's program is allowed to lapse for lack of the six billion dollar additional insuring authority he asked in January.

More thousands of men will be jobless, the President went on, unless new revenues are provided to keep the massive highway building program going.

He noted that the existing highway bill permits no more construction in any year than the funds available will pay for in that year.

Costs now are outrunning the income from highway—users taxes, and Eisenhower has requested that the federal gasoline levy be boosted from 3 to 4 cents. Congress has seemed little disposed to comply. Some legislators have indicated they would prefer to meet the costs for a time from general revenues.

Eisenhower, committed to a balanced budget in fiscal 1960, ignored the latter possibility in his news conference remarks, and emphatically renewed his appeal that the budget be brought into balance.

As for the wheat surplus problem, the President said it is worsening instead of improving. The government will have 3½ billion dollars invested in surplus wheat by mid-year, he said, and action must be taken speedily to revise the program.

Soviet Drive For Seating Noted By Ike

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower said today the Soviet Union seems to be pushing a propaganda drive in seeking admittance of Red satellite nations to the Geneva foreign ministers conference.

Eisenhower told a news conference he is very hopeful the Russians will abandon any such propaganda tactics so the conference can get down to fruitful negotiations.

Eisenhower had been asked to evaluate the Soviet efforts thus far to win seats at Geneva for Communist East Germany, Poland and Czechoslovakia. Those efforts have kept the foreign ministers' conference from getting to discussion of real problems.

Eisenhower replied it is very difficult to find out what is going on behind someone else's forehead.

The U.S. government, he continued, has always been for fruitful negotiations, and against using such conferences as propaganda platforms.

But the situation in Geneva, Eisenhower said, seems to have some of that—propaganda—in it.

During the news conference, the President discussed these other matters:

Khrushchev — No one has contacted him, Eisenhower said, regarding the possibility of a visit by Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev to the United States.

Spending — Eisenhower enthusiastically welcomed a question as to whether he has less concern now than earlier in the year about what he has termed reckless spending proposals in Congress.

With a smile, he said he had started to think reporters were avoiding that subject.

Making it clear he still wants the budget balanced, Eisenhower said the country is in the midst of a business upturn and yet some people are thinking of the idea of a balanced budget as something evil.

Missiles — As for complaints that money is being wasted in development of duplicate missiles, Eisenhower said need to avoid any waste in such areas is one of the most critical concerns of everyone in the administration. In his opinion, he said, progress toward cutting expense in that field is being made through the efforts of the new space agency and the Defense Department's program chiefs.

U.S. Expects Soviet Visit

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Eisenhower administration appears reconciled to a possible visit by Premier Nikita Khrushchev to the United States this summer.

Top officials are talking seriously about whether to combine a Khrushchev trip with a summit conference in some American city.

This signals a change in attitude by authorities whose views would be important in deciding both issues. Until now, they have stressed the difficulties involved in a Khrushchev visit or choosing an American site for a summit conference.

If plans for a summertime summit meeting collapse, there is some prospect the bouncy Soviet leader will force the issue by asking to be allowed to open the Soviet Exposition in the New York Coliseum June 30.

President Eisenhower probably would say "yes" to such a request. The President would have no alternative, many officials believe, now that the Soviets have agreed to allow Vice President Richard M. Nixon to open an American National Exposition in Moscow July 25.

Khrushchev has made no official move yet to set up an American visit. But Soviet authorities in Moscow have made it known that "a senior official" undoubtedly would go to New York to open the Soviet exhibit.

The Soviets are believed holding off a decision as to whom to send until they see how much progress the foreign ministers meeting in Geneva makes in setting a time and place for a summit conference.

If an American site is agreed upon and an August date fixed, Khrushchev probably would send someone else to the fair.

The roly poly Soviet dictator is known to be anxious to visit the United States, mainly to strengthen his prestige at home and abroad.

Parleys End

NEW YORK (AP) — Negotiations aimed at ending a six-day-old strike of nonprofessional workers at six hospitals have broken down. The next move is apparently up to the courts.

Death, Sickness Hitting Top Brass

By ELTON C. FAY
WASHINGTON (AP)—Death, illness and resignation are creating problems in the top civilian and military levels of the Defense Department.

Latest in this series is the announcement that Gen. Nathan F. Twining, 61-year-old chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, has undergone major surgery.

The Pentagon said the upper lobe of Twining's left lung was removed during the operation Tuesday at Walter Reed Army Hospital, and doctors began analysis of a specimen of tissue.

The purpose of such analysis usually is to determine whether any growth in the tissue is benign or malignant. The announcement said Twining's condition after the operation was very satisfactory.

At any rate, the chairman of the strategy-making organization obviously will be absent from his post for several weeks.

Word of Twining's illness came as Donald A. Quarles, deputy secretary of defense, was being buried at Arlington National Cemetery.

Resignations elsewhere in the Pentagon official family also confront the administration with filling at least two sub-secretary posts.

May 27, once mentioned grimly by the Soviet Union as the time when the Western Allies should be out of Berlin, is approaching. The Kremlin subsequently said it didn't mean to fix any actual deadline but Pentagon military leaders continue to watch with caution.

Filling the vacancy created by Quarles' death is the foremost problem. Various names mentioned in speculation include Asst. Secretary Wilfred J. McNeil, the Pentagon's official since the outset of service unification; E. Perkins McGuire, assistant secretary for logistics and Thomas S. Gates Jr., present Navy secretary.

Gates has submitted his resignation as secretary of the Navy, effective next month, but some thought he might agree to remain in Washington if offered the high defense post.

An opening exists in the Air Force secretary organization, created by the appointment of Richard E. Horner, assistant secretary for research and development, to the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

Surgery
Gen. Nathan F. Twining, 61, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, underwent an exploratory chest operation in Washington.

Home Demonstration Interest

Dressmaking is another phase of interest for Howard County Home Demonstration Clubs, and workshops for the clothing leaders of the eight units are being held three days this month. Examining a frock here are, left to right, Mrs. Elvon DeVaney, Coahoma; Mrs. L. M. Duffer, Forsan; Mrs. Nell Fryar, Lomax; Mrs. Johnny Green, City Club; and Mrs. Frances Zant, Luther.

HD Clubs Will Stage Displays

As a follow-up to National Home Demonstration Week, examples of craft work completed by Howard County HD Club members will be displayed in eight downtown store windows Thursday through the weekend.

Cooperating in the exhibits are Mellinger's, Zack's, Texas Electric Service Co., Hemphill-Wells, Anthony's, J. C. Penney, Elmo Wasson and the Singer Shop.

Highlighting HD emphasis will be the open house to be held from 9:30 to 11 a.m. Friday in the extension office. The public is invited to call during the affair.

Another facet of home demonstration work is the workshops for clothing leaders from the eight clubs. The workshops, begun Monday, will continue May 18 and 19 at the Singer Shop, with hours from 9 a.m. to noon and from 1 to 3 p.m.

Information, inspiration, recreation and association are the objectives of the home demonstration club. Units within Howard County include the City Club, Knott, Elbow, Coahoma, Fairview, Luther, Lomax and Forsan. Mrs. Jimmie Dee Jones is County HD Agent.

EAT Club Trip

Members of the EAT Club will go to Midland Thursday morning to receive instructions in applying make-up; in the afternoon, the group will go bowling. Friday evening the club will give a party in the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Hubbard Jr., 2206 Nolan, when their husbands will be guests.

Mrs. Wooten's Guests

Mrs. J. W. Wooten was pleasantly surprised by several Californians who stopped with her Monday night en route to New York and Washington, D. C. The vacationers were Mr. and Mrs. James Stenson, Nancy and Paul of Santa Ana, and Mrs. Lulu Stenson, Long Beach.

CAREER, HOMEMAKER STYLES TO INTEREST COSDEN CLUB

Fashions for homemakers and the career woman will be discussed Thursday for the Cosden Women's Club at the monthly luncheon.

Meeting at 12 noon at Cosden Country Club, the group will hear the county agent, Mrs. Jimmie Dee Jones, discuss the ways of getting variety in attire.

Nominations for officers will be made at the session; the officers will be elected at the June meeting and will take office in July, it has been announced.

For Sun Fun

Keep the youngster cool and comfortable in this new sunsuit made from carefree cotton with cute kitten applique. No. 300-N has tissue—sizes 1, 2, 3 incl., sewing and finishing directions.

Send 25 cents in coins for this pattern to MARTHA MADISON, Big Spring Herald, Box 438, Midtown Station, New York 18, N. Y. Add 10 cents for each pattern for first-class mailing.

Mrs. Newell Heads B&PW

Mrs. R. T. Newell was named president of the Business and Professional Women's Club, Tuesday evening at the Settles Hotel.

Results of the election placed Mary Cantrell and Ruth Beasley as first and second vice presidents respectively, and Mrs. Delphia Gordon as treasurer. Mrs. G. G. Sawtelle and Edith Gay were elected recording and corresponding secretaries.

The new slate, together with Mrs. Cass Hill, retiring president, was appointed delegates to the state convention. The annual meeting is set for June 12-14 in Tyler. The hospitality committee will have charge of the next meeting, which will be a dinner May 26 at the Settles.

Appointive Officers Are Told By Spoudazio Fora

At a meeting of the Spoudazio Fora Tuesday evening, appointive officers for the coming year were announced. The group met in the home of Mrs. Garland Conway, who was joined by Mrs. Bill Rosser as cohostess.

Designated as parliamentarian was Mrs. John King; federation counselor, Mrs. James C. Jones; historian and scrapbook, Mrs. Conway; reporter, Mrs. W. E. Crabtree, and critic, Mrs. Ladd Smith.

Mrs. Don Farley will head the telephone committee; Mrs. Ben Erwin, project and welfare; Mrs. Bob Bright, constitution; Mrs.

Rosser, hospitality; Mrs. Ed Cherry, membership, and Mrs. John Hill, yearbook.

Mrs. Ennis Cochran was named to head the program committee, and Mrs. Bill Lansing will be in charge of the secret pal system.

Plans were discussed for the picnic to be given for the pupils in the school for exceptional children on May 22. On May 26, members will gather at the Sands Restaurant for the installation banquet at 7 p.m.

The project for the next club year will remain the same as during the period just past—entertainment of the exceptional children.

Mrs. Cochran presented the program for the evening, discussing Party Pretties. She reminded members that the main line in party-giving is for the hostess to enjoy the gathering, which can be accomplished by correct and previous planning or preparation.

We should remember special occasions pertaining to the family, she said, not always including guests. Themes for parties may come from various sources—seasons, dishes to be used and other accessories.

Mrs. Cochran recommended that children's parties be kept as simple as possible in regard to decorations, food and games planned.

Forum Considers Program Proposals For Next Year

The Junior Woman's Forum, meeting Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Bill Draper, discussed program possibilities for next year. Mrs. David Newbolt, Mrs. E. C. Smith and Mrs. Billy Watson, as an appointed committee, advanced the suggestion that the study series deal with Family Living.

May 26 was the date set for the final meeting of the year. To be in the form of a salad luncheon, the event will take place at 1 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Don Wiley, 3203 Cornell. Each member is asked to bring a salad and so to notify the hostess by May 23.

At the refreshment hour Mrs. B. R. Newton, cohostess, assisted in serving nine members and a guest, Mrs. Bill Hunter.

Fashion Show, Tea Planned By FHA

Fashions of the high school set will be shown at a style show and tea planned for Thursday afternoon at 3:30 in the cafeteria.

Mothers of the Future Homemakers of America, classes 1, 2 and 3, will be guests for the occasion.

About 175 girls will participate in the party, modeling garments made as class projects and those assembled at home, and serving as hostesses.

Commentators will be Janie Phillips and Fredda Barfield.

Mrs. Cowan Joins Insurance Women

Insurance Women of Big Spring welcomed Mrs. Gene Cowan as a new member when they met Tuesday for lunch at the Settles Hotel. O. M. Alexander, through the courtesy of Southwestern Bell Telephone Co., showed a film entitled Thanks for Listening. The presentation pointed up telephone usage and etiquette.

Mrs. Robert Larsen was named chairman of the nominating committee, which will report at the next session.

Election Postponed

At a meeting of the DAV Auxiliary Monday evening, the group voted to postpone the election of officers until the session on May 25.

Tall Talkers Hear Book Reviews

Tall Talkers Toastmistress Club, meeting Tuesday evening at the Officers Club, heard three book reviews by their fellow members. Mrs. Donald Sackchewsky brought high points from Mark Twain's autobiography, Subways Are For Sleeping, by Edmund Love, was reviewed by Mrs. Larry Johnson, and Mrs. Jack Wickard told of Gilbreath's How To Be A Father.

The invocation was uttered by Mrs. Leland Younklin, who also introduced Mrs. Leonard Einstein. Mrs. Betty Ray Clifton, acting as lexicologist for the evening, drew the audience into a drill on word usage. Table topics were distributed by Mrs. Kenneth Tucker, while Mrs. Hollis Smith was toastmistress.

General evaluator was Mrs. H. E. Theraber Jr. Mrs. Smith presented the boner award to Mrs. Donald Barr, president. The white elephant award went to Mrs. Einstein.

Mrs. Harley Snyder, Mrs. Walter Bosselman and Mrs. Wendell Stacey attended as guests.

Installation Is Held By BSP Chapter

Members of the Xi Mu Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, met Tuesday evening in the home of Mrs. Travis Carlton for the installation of new officers.

Mrs. Carlton as president, heads the slate; Mrs. Tommy Gage is vice president; Mrs. Jack Murdoch, secretary, and Mrs. Gene Nabors, treasurer.

Announcement was made of the new officers for the Beta Sigma Phi Council. Mrs. George Elliott was awarded the special prize.

Plans were made for the meeting on May 26 at 8 p.m., when the ritual for new Exemplar members will be read. The chapter will meet at the home of Mrs. L. D. Chrane, 1502 Eleventh Place.

Fourteen attended Tuesday's session.

Clever Ritual Is P-TA Highlight

Prescribing a vitamin pill for each to ward off P-TA ills, Mrs. Tom Conway installed new officers of the Washington Place P-TA Tuesday afternoon at the school. The ceremony, done in rhyme, was the highlight of the session which attracted about 50.

The Rev. D. R. Philley brought the devotion. Certificates were distributed to all retiring officers, and a gift went to Mrs. Conway as outgoing president. Mrs. Odell Womack, in assuming the presidency, announced her committee appointments.

The group was told that school will be out at 11 a.m. May 29. They made plans to frame the P-TA Objectives and will hang the piece in the school auditorium. Third graders of Mrs. J. T. Baird won the room count.

Fans, Flowers Used For Past Matrons

Fans and flowers decorated tables for the dinner given Tuesday evening for the Past Matrons of Eastern Star. The members and guests met at Smith Tearoom, where gifts were exchanged by the star sisters.

Mrs. Jim Allen worded the invocation; a new visiting committee was appointed with Mrs. Lester Wise, Mrs. Henry Williamson and Mrs. R. D. Ulrey as members. The program was brought by Lucile Hester, who showed slides which she had made in Alaska; she accompanied the showing with a commentary on life in Alaska.

Announced as June hostesses were Mrs. Gene Gross, Mrs. Bernard Fisher and Mrs. Wyatt Eason. Thirty-two attended the dinner.

Rebekah Lodges Hold Schools Of Instruction

Schools of instruction were conducted at the Tuesday evening meetings of the two Rebekah lodge units. Mrs. Earl Wilson, from Big Spring Lodge No. 284, was notified of her appointment as district deputy president of District 11.

BIG SPRING LODGE
Mrs. L. A. Griffith, lodge deputy, held the school of instruction for Big Spring Rebekah Lodge No. 284, at the IOOF Hall. The session was prefaced with the announcement that Mrs. Earl Wilson will head District 11 as deputy president. The appointment was made by the president of the Rebekah Assembly of Texas.

Presiding for the session was Mrs. Tom McAdams, noble grand. Visits to the ill were recorded. She appointed Mrs. Gene Crenshaw, Mrs. Eddie McClain, Mrs. Tom Amerson and Mrs. Wilson as the refreshment committee for May.

Joining the 29 was a guest, Mrs. Velma Burford of Canon City, Colo.

JOHN A. KEE LODGE
School of instruction for John A. Kee Lodge No. 153 was held by Mrs. O. G. Burns, lodge deputy, at Carpenters Hall. She presented certificates of perfection in unwritten work to Mrs. Grace Martin, Mrs. H. F. Jarrett, Mrs. Jones Lamar and Mrs. Garland Land.

It was announced that Mrs.

Brownies Set Date For Chicken Supper

Brownies of Troop 220 decided to have a fried chicken supper next Tuesday, as the final assembly of the year. The plan was made Tuesday afternoon, when about 15 gathered at the Brownie Hut, Birdwell Park will be the scene of the festivity.

Mrs. Lynn Bryant, leader, read a story to the girls, who also discussed day camp. Assisting were Mrs. L. D. Hayworth and Mrs. Harry Jordan.

P-TA Hears Honor Pupils

Honor graduates of Forsan High School spoke for the P-TA at the school Monday evening; they are Charles Skeen, salutatorian, and Lorita Overton, valedictorian.

Mrs. Hamlin Elrod installed the following officers for the coming year: Mrs. Frank Thieme, president; Mrs. Ozro Allison, vice president; Mrs. M. O. Oppegard, secretary, and Mrs. M. L. Prescott, treasurer.

Appointed as a yearbook committee were Mrs. Allison, Mrs. Leo Parker, Mrs. Sammie Porter, Mrs. Tom Spell and Mrs. Clifton Ferguson, with Mrs. Thieme to serve as part of the group.

Methodist Circles Hear Variety In Programs

Members of First Methodist WSCS devoted Tuesday to circle meetings. Study and current interest programs were held in various homes.

FANNY HODGES

Mrs. Jordan Grooms welcomed members of the Fanny Hodges Circle to her home Tuesday morning, and brought the devotion. A playlet entitled Rapidly Growing

Miss Lucile Hester showed a film strip dealing with the teaching of illiterates in foreign countries to read. Mrs. Wayne Gound brought a devotion.

Announcement was made of the final business session for the year, which is set for the church on May 26 at 1 p.m. The affair will be a salad luncheon.

Cheryl Cannon Has Party On Birthday

Six small guests helped Cheryl Cannon celebrate her third birthday anniversary Tuesday afternoon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Cannon, Gail Road.

Straw hats were favors and a blue tablecloth made a background for the birthday cake, which was frosted in white with blue flowers. Gifts were presented to the little honoree.

DEAR ABBY WELL ADVERTISED

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: My husband owns a Shoe Repair Shop. When I was expecting our first baby he prayed every night for a boy. Well, I had a nine-pound boy and he almost went wild. He took shoe polish and wrote "IT'S A BOY!" all over the windows of his shop. He wanted to put an ad in the paper but I wouldn't let him. Now he wants me to go buy some of those birth announcements and send them to everybody we know but I say NO, it is like begging for a present. All our friends know we have a baby. Am I wrong or not?

NEW MOTHER
DEAR MOTHER: If you feel that sending out birth announcements is like "begging for a present," don't do it. I think your husband has already done a pretty thorough job of advertising the happy occasion. Good luck!

DEAR ABBY: I have a son who is 24. He is going with a widow who is 48, (same age as I). He is really in love with her and there is nothing anyone can say or do to change his mind. I've tried introducing him to young folks but he always goes back to her. This has been going on for four years. She has children older than he is. He's met them and likes them very much. Our clergyman has talked to him and I have talked my heart out, but he still wants to marry her. How can I stop him from ruining his life?

HIS MOTHER
DEAR MOTHER: All the words in the world are useless against the power of physical attraction. Your son is 3 times 7 and if he wants to "ruin" his life, you can't stop him.

DEAR ABBY: We know an old maid in a small town near here who has money to burn, but she is very homely. Her brother wrote to me and said she was getting on his nerves and he wished I knew of someone who could get interested in her. With all her money, it would be a pretty dirty trick to fix up a friend with this woman. If we say we don't know of anybody, can we offer an alternate way for this man to get his sister married off?

CITY FRIENDS
DEAR FRIENDS: When a woman has money "to burn" — she can usually find her own "match." Suggest that she take a cruise.

DEAR ABBY: I am a girl who is 14 years old. I weigh 123 pounds and am 5 ft. 8. One of my problems is that I wear a size 13 shoe. My feet look big and when people ask me what size shoe I wear, I am ashamed to tell them the truth, so I say I wear size nine. Some girls looked in my shoe during gym and they found out I take size 13 and they started yelling around, "Sweet thirteen and never been kissed!" Abby, I feel so bad about this I hate to go to school. What should I do?

Size 13
DEAR SIZE 13: Try very, very hard (and this will take some excellent acting ability on your part) to laugh right along with the kids who are trying to be clowns at your expense. They will soon admire you for being such a good sport and the teasing will stop in a hurry.

EVERY TEEN-AGER WANTS TO KNOW, send 25 cents and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope to ABBY in care of the Big Spring Herald.

For a personal reply, write to ABBY in care of the Big Spring Herald. Enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Texas Nudists Don't Have To Dress Up

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Texas nudists don't have to put on their clothes today.

A much-discussed antinudist bill died in the Texas House Tuesday after it had Senate approval.

The bill would have fined nudists up to $300 and assessed them up to a year in jail.

Beauty Queen In Jail On Robbery Charge

LITTLETON, Colo. (AP) — A 20-year-old girl was in a jail cell today, only 10 months after she was crowned a state beauty queen.

Dixie Ann Gottfried has signed statements admitting two armed robberies last Monday, according to sheriff's investigator William Maragos. No charges have been filed.

"All I wanted was $50 for a room and some new clothes and a few dollars to get a new start," said the 5-foot-11, 150-pound beauty. "I was flat broke."

Mrs. Gottfried won the Miss Colorado Jaycee title last July, as blonde Dixie Ann Dickes of Pueblo, Colo.

When two patrolmen arrested her late Monday night at nearby Aurora, her hair was long, unkempt and dyed black. She was dressed in slacks and a rough shirt.

Records at her home town of Pueblo show she was fined $125 last November for fighting and pouring beer on two policemen who attempted to arrest her in a tavern.

Mrs. Gottfried was arrested less than 15 minutes after an Aurora drugstore was robbed at gunpoint of $131 and narcotics.

She admitted she had robbed a Denver hotel early Monday of $17.

The lithe beauty said her husband, William D. Gottfried, 23, is in the Illinois Prison for the Criminally Insane. He was convicted of kidnaping a policeman, Maragos said.

"He'd just raise Cain if he knew about this," she said.

Carpet Compromise Cools Controversy

By WHITNEY SHOEMAKER WASHINGTON (AP) — Here's the latest on the capital's carpet controversy: Nobody will force rugs on senators.

Those who want tile floors in their spiffy new office suites may have tile floors.

This is unofficial, but it should comfort anti-carpet senators.

The floors involved in the $150,000 carpet controversy are those in the Senate's shiny new 26-million-dollar office building.

Forty-two senators now occupy quarters there. Each suite consists of five rooms. On the floor of each senator's private office is a pretty green carpet almost a half-inch thick. On the other floors are rubber tiles.

The tiles have brought complaints — from some that they aren't up to standards of senatorial stature and that they provide a slippery surface for secretaries. Carpets are needed, they contend.

On the other side are those who argue that the $150,000 the Senate has voted for carpets would be a waste of the taxpayers' money.

So, they contend, would be the further cost of trimming the bottoms from all the doors to let them open over the carpets.

Unnecessary expenditure, objected Sen. William Proxmire (D-Wis.). He polled his 15 employees and found they were perfectly content with tile.

Entirely uncalled for, said Sen. Paul H. Douglas (D-Ill.). He tried to persuade the Senate to oppose rugs but was floored by a 55-34 count despite his offer to buy rubber heels for the slipping secretaries.

Don't fret about us, said Sen. Clinton P. Anderson (D-NM), whose staff perambulates on tile. "We are satisfied," said he.

JAMES E. PEPPER

On the other side, Sen. Richard L. Neuberger (D-Ore) demanded a carpet for one, a carpet for all. Neuberger retained his billet in the old office building, which is carpeted, all the way.

The pro-rug senators say they're concerned about the ladies. High heels and tile floors, they insist, were not made for each other.

Proxmire contends the argument is slippery, not the floors. "I tried it myself and you can't slide," he said.

Proxmire and Douglas have invited the faint of heart to test a non-skid wax which they say will end all quailms.

Philip Roof, executive assistant to the Capitol architect, said the slide is only one problem. It's mostly noise, Roof said.

School Justice

NEW ROCHELLE, N.Y. (AP) — The 170 seniors of the College of New Rochelle voted Tuesday to contribute $200 apiece after graduation for use in raising teachers' salaries.

NO SURGERY NEEDED TO HEAL SWOLLEN PILE TISSUES while you shrink them!

To stop nagging discomfort of swollen piles in minutes, thousands use Stainless Pazo. Not only reduces tissue swelling, but stops pain at once, promotes healing of inflamed tissues too—all without surgery! Preparations that just act to "shrink" piles can't offer complete symptomatic relief. For real comfort, fast, you need this more complete medication. In doctors' tests, patients had immediate relief. That's because Stainless Pazo combines the most effective ingredients known for piles. Thus works 3 ways at once: (1) stops pain, itching in minutes; (2) shrinks tissue swelling, congestion; (3) promotes healing of raw tissues. You get immediate new comfort while Nature's own healing magic goes to work! Don't suffer needlessly. Get Stainless Pazo Suppositories or Ointment at drugstore. Get relief without surgery or money back!

Finest In Musical Instruments

Shown here are a few of the many beautiful Wurlitzer organs which are on display at the Adair Music Co., 1708 Gregg. Adair has an organ or a piano for any home and the decor of any living room can be materially bettered by installing one of these beautiful instruments. Adair invites a visit from any music lover who has been contemplating a new piano or a new organ for his home. The famous Baldwin pianos are distributed by Adair in Howard County.

Special Grease Rack Installed

The longest Cadillac or the shortest foreign car can be washed on the same grease rack at Charlie Creighton Tire Co. with the ease of a standard-sized auto. This is possible with a new-type rack which can be extended or shortened to fit under the axles of any car. Not only do the beams extend to support the weight of the new longer length cards, but they swing sideways to properly balance these cars. The new grease rack is among the most modern installed anywhere, and it is just one of the many new innovations used at the Creighton Tire Co. Service Station, at the corner of Sixth and Gregg, to serve you.

The rack has a special catch lock with prevents it from slipping while the car is raised for lubrication. Another innovation is its added height. A man can walk beneath it while most grease racks are not quite tall enough for a person to stand upright under them. In addition to being able to handle your cars better mechanically, Creighton has the right lubricants to give your car long life. Creighton uses Mobil lubricants a sells Mobil gasoline and oils all of which are engineered to give top performance at all times.

If you haven't become acquainted with Seiberling tires or Creighton Tire Co., just stop by Sixth and Gregg today.

Adair Is Baldwin Piano Distributor

Adair Music Co., 1708 Gregg, is Big Spring distributor for the celebrated Baldwin piano—finest of all musical instruments.

Adair welcomes inquiries regarding its product. The Baldwin possesses so many fine and extraordinary features not found in other pianos that a personal visit to the store and first hand inspection of the instrument is the only way to get the real story about the Baldwin.

The reputation of the Baldwin is so well known that everyone is familiar with the name. The greatest artists of the concert stage insist on Baldwin and depend on its infallible qualities to make their selections perfect.

However, Baldwin is not a piano restricted to the master musicians. Anyone who wants a truly fine piano in his home can have a Baldwin and if he has a Baldwin, he knows that there is no better piano obtainable. Many homes in the Big Spring area have Baldwins which have been sold by Adair Music Co. Many schools and churches have acquired Baldwins in order to insure the best of pianos for their pupils or congregations.

EASY WAY TO KILL ROACHES AND ANTS

Scientists recommend that you control roaches and ants the modern way—with Johnston's No-Roach. Brushed just where you want it, the colorless coating kills these pests. It's effective for months, sanitary, and easy to use. Get No-Roach at Safeway, Piggy Wiggly, Hall & Phillips, Newsom's, Bud Green, Cunningham & Phillips, and your local drug or grocery store.

Solved - Carpet Cleaning Problem

Science finally has the answer to carpet cleaning. Blue Lustre, a new development, is mixed with water and brushed into carpet or upholstery. It's amazing the way forgotten colors spring out. The mop is left open and left. It's easy to apply. One-half gallon of Blue Lustre cleans three 9x12 rugs. Available at Big Spring Hardware, 115 Main St.

International Is Truck Pioneer

Pioneers in progress in the truck field since 1907, International Harvester Co. is making more and more advances in engineering and styling each year.

The International A-Line, replacing the favorably received S-Line, includes a complete range of conventional, cab-forward, forward-control, and four-wheel drive models. In Big Spring, the International line can be seen at Driver Truck & Implement Co., located at 901 Lamesa.

Completely restyled are the light-duty conventional models, offered in four series. The A-100 Series pickups and Travel-alls are designed to do double duty in family use, and they are exceptionally easy riding and easy to drive.

International also provides a range of pickup bodies. Available for all models is a standard seven-foot pickup body. A custom seven-foot pickup is offered in combination with the custom cab with a maximum inside width of 54 inches. There is also an 8 1/2-foot bonus-load-space pickup.

Whether you want the standard or custom model, you can expect which lets you enjoy quiet comfort, ease, and convenience of operation. Visibility through Sweep-Around windshield and large side and rear windows is excellent.

Wagon Wheels Are Serving City In Three Locations

For the utmost in dining pleasure, try Big Spring's Wagon Wheel Restaurant or one of the Wagon Wheel Drive-In establishments.

The popular restaurant is situated at 803 E. 3rd, Drive-In No. 1 is at 4th and Birdwell, No. 2 is at 2011 Gregg.

Manager of all three places is Al Bagwell, veteran restaurant operator who has assembled a skilled staff of expert chefs and courteous, efficient waitresses.

Owners of the Wagon Wheel businesses are Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Rainbolt, who have been in the restaurant business here for nearly two decades. Both H. M. and Ruby Rainbolt take an active interest in operation of the three Wagon Wheel concerns, assisting Bagwell in any way they can.

The Rainbolts have constantly enlarged and improved their famous 1940's, throughout the year, they have applied the time proven formula for success—giving the highest quality service and serving only the best of foods in a pleasing atmosphere.

That formula made the Wagon Wheel popular literally from Coast to Coast. Tourists on busy U. S. 80 quickly spotted the Wagon Wheel. When they returned to their homes in all parts of the nation, they told friends about the Big Spring restaurant. Soon, those people were stopping at the Wagon Wheel to sample the food and service their friends had praised so highly. Scores of times in the last few years, Mr. and Mrs. Rainbolt have heard tourists tell of stopping in Big Spring because they wanted to dine at the Wagon Wheel.

Still Room For King Arthur

In one of the most fantastic compromises in diplomatic history, the Big Four foreign ministers reached this solution for seating arrangements for their Geneva conference. Russia demanded a round table with both East and West Germany participating. They got the round table and space—unused—for the Germans. The German delegations have no voice in the decisions of the Big Four and they are seated at separate desks away from the unused area of the round table.

Delinquency Mostly Just A Sport, Youth Experts Aver

Editor's Note — Many Americans believe that juvenile delinquents are just emotionally disturbed children. They're wrong, says a panel of experts who took a long, hard look at the problem. This is the second of three stories of their findings.

By G. K. HODENFIELD
 AP Education Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Juvenile delinquency—sickness or sport? Primarily it's sport, says a research report published this week — sport, adventure and a way of life.

The big majority of delinquents, according to six experts in the field, are essentially normal youngsters. They're just running with the gang and doing what comes naturally.

The study commissioned by the National Education Assn., disclosed that only 25 per cent of the nation's juvenile delinquents demonstrate any degree of emotional disturbance. And only a few of these could be helped by psychiatric treatment — the rest are either immune or allergic to it.

The six authors of the report include a pediatrician, a criminologist, a psychologist, a psychiatrist, a sociologist and an authority on cultural anthropology.

According to these experts, 85 per cent of all delinquents come from lower class families. They acknowledge that terms like lower class middle class and upper class grate harshly on American ears and are difficult to define in universally acceptable terms. But, they said, the class distinctions are there, and are especially important in a study of juvenile delinquency.

As the experts drew their line, class status is largely a matter of family aspirations rather than personal possessions. The report set forth no hard and fast rules by which a family might be classified, but it did offer some guidelines.

In the case of the lower class youngster, for instance: It is unlikely that his parents will belong to service or fraternal organizations.

His family probably spends its income on present pleasures, rather than saving for the future.

He may quit school, or intend to quit, as soon as it's legally possible.

He may use poor English.

He probably will tend to regard property — whether his own or the school's—as something to be used hard and worn out, rather than conserved.

His attitude toward money probably will be "catch as catch can," and his way of life will reflect a great reliance on fate or luck.

In the case of the middle class youngster: His parents probably belong to service and fraternal groups.

His older male relatives will generally wear suits and neckties on the job.

His family will probably save its money for future use.

The youngsters will do average or better work in school, or, if he doesn't, he will worry about it.

He will regard property as something to be maintained or improved.

His primary source of money will be a regular weekly or monthly allowance.

His way of life will reflect a strong concern for the future, and planning for the future.

The survey team said there is considerable mixing and overlapping of the lower and middle classes. It didn't go into the problem of delinquency in the upper classes because, it said, the incidence is so low and so well hidden by protective parents. In fact, the experts didn't even define an upper class.

In the matter of mental health, the report found a big difference between lower class and middle class delinquents. Although the middle class produces only 15 per cent of all delinquents, two of every three of their number are emotionally disturbed. In the lower class, the figure is about one out of five.

The big reason for this, said the report, is the strong middle class drive to "get ahead." Parents may demand too much of the youngster, or he may demand too much of himself. If the home and school make impossible demands, the youngster may withdraw into himself and become "the sickest of the sick." Delinquent acts may follow automatically.

The major pressures on a lower class youngster, on the other hand, come from his gang. There the emphasis is on toughness, smartness, excitement and "conning the sucker." The school and the cop on the beat may not approve of his actions but his gang does, and that is what's important.

The youth most likely to strike out against school and society, the report said, is the lower class youngster who wants to raise his status but can't.

Such a youth may want to finish high school and go on to college. But his older brother says, "You are old enough to drop out, what do you want to go to school for?"

His father says, "Look at me, I never went to college. Go on and get a job."

To top it off, the neighborhood gang pours its oil: "What are you, a sissy?"

Says the report: "This youngster must be tough indeed to move out and up."

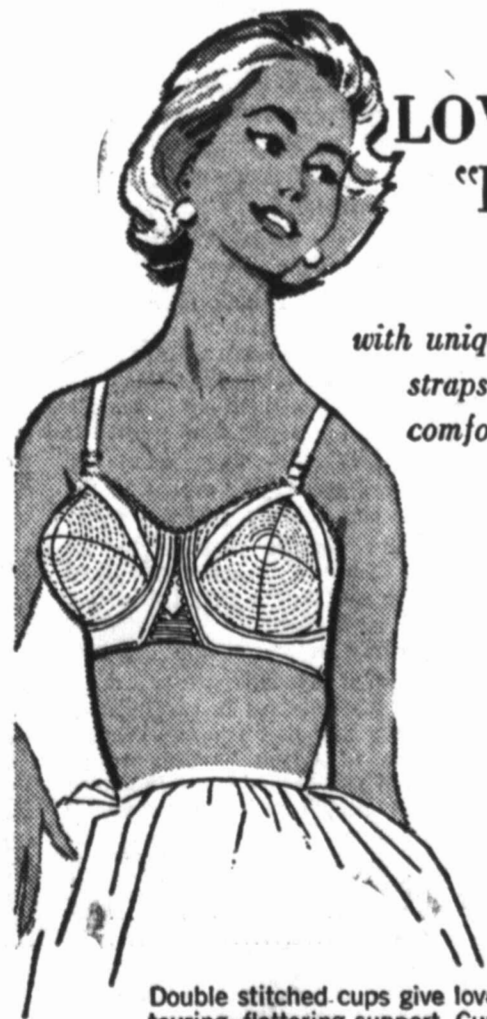

The report breaks down the nation's juvenile delinquents this way: Seventy per cent are normal, lower class youngsters and five per cent are normal middle class youngsters. Fifteen per cent are lower class youth with some degree of emotional disturbance, and ten per cent are middle class youngsters with emotional problems.

It is the lower class youngsters with emotional disturbances who are the hardest to treat, the experts said, because their parents refuse to recognize virtue or promise in clinical treatment.

"Even where clinical facilities are available," the report says, "they are likely to be rejected by parent and youngster alike."

Guard Fixes Bayonets At Struck Mills

HENDERSON, N.C. (AP) — National Guard troops sent to this industrial city to prevent further violence at two struck cotton mills met their first test with an effective show of force Tuesday night.

The crowd of strikers jeered the troops and workers leaving the plant. Between 30 and 100 guardsmen were stationed at each mill.

City police said some rocks were thrown in an area not patrolled by the Guard. The officers arrested five persons, one of whom was charged with inciting to riot.

The force of about 300 men was ordered here by Gov. Luther Hodges as a result of violence that erupted Monday night at the end of the second shift.

Workers leaving the plants were pelted with rocks, and their cars were fired upon. Local officials said the situation was beyond their control and asked for troops.

An official of the striking Textile Workers Union of America, Julius Frye of Greensboro, charged the Guardsmen were sent "to help the unreasonable management to operate his cotton mills, and provide strikebreakers free access to the plants." Frye denied troops were needed.

The Guardsmen, drawn from the 2nd Battle Group of the 30th Infantry Division, are commanded by Lt. Col. B. A. Peterson.

Peterson would not say how many troops are here. Newsmen estimated the number at 300.

Before their arrival workers entering and leaving the firm's North Henderson plant were pelted with rocks.

The 1,200 employees of the mills struck last Nov. 17 when the company insisted on removal of the arbitration clause from the new contract.

Subsequently, other issues arose, including the job status of new workers hired when the plants reopened on a one-shift basis Feb. 16.

Violence has broken out repeatedly since the plants reopened. A detachment of highway patrolmen was on the scene for several weeks.

Spring Band Concert Is Set For Friday

Big Spring's public school bands will present their annual concert at 7:30 p.m. Friday at City Auditorium.

A special feature will be performance of the Haydn Trumpet Concerto by John Haynie of the NTSC faculty. His concert will be part of the high school band's program.

Also in concert will be the Runnels and Goliad Junior High School band, conducted by Tommy Frye. This group will open the concert with "The Star Spangled Banner," to be followed by the "Joy Riders March," "Song of Jupiter" featuring Mike Clark in solo on the cornet, highlights from "The King and I," and "Carnival of Trombones," featuring Jerry Younger, Robert Wade, Joyce Horn, Buddy Shepperd, Eddie Cole, J. T. Lawson, Mike Willmon and Mike Baggett.

Douglas Wiehe will conduct the high school band. The program will include, besides the Haynie concert, "Suite for Military Band," "Symphonic Suite," "Prelude and Rondo," and "El Chaco."

The senior band also will play an original composition by Frye, titled "Chorale and March."

Student Leader Gets Blind Award

WASHINGTON (AP) — Robert Winn Jr., president of the 7,000-person student body at North Texas State College, was among four students receiving "outstanding scholastic achievement awards" Tuesday.

All four are blind. President Eisenhower made the presentation, sponsored by the Recording for the Blind, Inc., which serves students with recorded textbook materials.

Winn, of Dallas, was valedictorian of the senior class at the Texas School for the Blind at Austin and has been on the honors list throughout his college career.

Winn takes part in track, golf, various clubs and honor societies at North Texas. He is studying speech therapy.

Petition To End Probation Filed

Gil Jones, district attorney, has filed a petition to have a two year probation sentence granted Horner T. Miller set aside.

Miller was granted two years probation on Feb. 4. He pleaded guilty to an indictment for writing a worthless check. Since that time, Jones said, Miller has failed to comply with the requirements of his probation.

CHEVY GIVES YOU 7 BIG BESTS!

Take it, not from us, but from the published opinions of outside, independent experts and from on-the-record facts and figures: Chevrolet gives you these 7 big bests over any other car in its field!

BEST BRAKES

In direct competitive tests of repeated stops from highway speeds, conducted by NASCAR, Chevy out-stopped both the other leading low-priced cars—and why not? Chevy brakes are far larger, built with bonded linings for up to 66% longer life.

*National Association for Stock Car Advancement and Research

BEST ENGINE

Every motor magazine has given Chevy's standard and Corvette V8's unstinted praise. As SPORTS CARS ILLUSTRATED puts it: "Indeed, this device is surely the most wonderfully responsive engine available today at any price."

BEST STYLE

POPULAR SCIENCE magazine sums it up: "The fact is, in its price class the Chevy establishes a new high in daring styling... It's the only car of the leading low-priced three that's unmistakably '59 in every modern line."

BEST ECONOMY

No doubt about this: two Chevrolet Sixes won their class in the famous Mobilgas Economy Run, got the best mileage of any full-size car.

BEST ROOM

Official dimensions reported to A.M.A.† make this clear. For example, Chevy front seat hip room is up to 5.7 inches wider than competitive cars.

†Automobile Manufacturers Association

BEST TRADE-IN

Check the figures in any official N.A.D.A.† Guide Book. You'll find that Chevy used car prices last year averaged up to $128 higher than comparable models of the "other two."

†National Automobile Dealers Association

BEST RIDE

You'll be able to tell this yourself, instantly. But MOTOR TREND magazine expresses it this way: "... the smoothest, most quiet, softest riding car in its price class."

PLUS THESE TREMENDOUS TRIFLES

Who'd want to do without Chevrolet's extra luxuries? Like Safety Plate Glass in every window, the protection of full wraparound bumpers, crank-operated ventipanes, the convenience of single-key locking, a real overhead curved windshield, oil-hushed hydraulic valve lifters in every standard engine for quieter running, a bigger luggage compartment with side wall lining... and the boon of automatic choke in every model!

No wonder more people are buying Chevrolets than any other car!

Visit your local authorized Chevrolet dealer and see how much more Chevy has to offer!

Changing Spending Habits

Based on figures on Commerce Department statistics, U. S. News & World Report finds that the average American family's spending habits have undergone a great change in the last 10 years.

Out of each $1,000 spent, the survey lists 10 items on which more is being spent and 10 on which there is less spending. Leading the list of "more spent" is housing — $124.34 out of each $1,000 today as against $98.64. Autos come next, $53.32 today as against $44.47 ten years ago. Others on the "more spent" list: Physicians and dentists, hospitals and health insurance, boats, planes, radios, TV's, private schools and colleges, foreign travel, and airplane fares.

The "less spent" list is headed by groceries, $206.13 out of each $1,000 today as against $226.07 ten years ago (this is sure to be a big surprise to the average housewife), and next is clothing — $72.61 today and compared with $94.39 ten years ago. (We imagine this item has been affected by greater use of informal attire and greater use of fewer clothes.)

Others on the "spent less" list are shoes, liquor, tobacco, home appliances, furniture, jewelry, watches, theater tickets and other amusements, and railroad fares.

So, among the three heaviest drains on the family pocketbook — housing, food, clothing — only housing has absorbed more out of each $1,000 than 10 years ago, while food and clothing have absorbed less, but food still leads the list by a decided margin.

Distinguished Public Service

J. Edgar Hoover Sunday celebrated his 35th anniversary as director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

He was appointed to the post at age 29, very young indeed for so important an assignment, by President Coolidge. He has served under five presidents without getting entangled in politics, and under 12 attorneys general, an even more potentially difficult connection.

When he took charge the FBI was riddled with scandals and paralyzed with incompetence. Under him its prestige and competence increased enormously, until today it is respected at home and abroad as one of the finest law-enforcement agencies in the business.

From the start Hoover insisted on the high quality of his operatives and the total efficiency of their work. Like him, each is a qualified attorney, and many are qualified accountants and specialists in other fields. Many an ex-FBI agent have gone to Congress or have made their marks in business.

J. Edgar Hoover, far from being an ogre, is a man of warm personal impulses, a bachelor with a real personal concern for the welfare of American youth, who believes the influences of a good home and Sunday school are potent developers of character and moral stamina.

Congratulations on his 35th anniversary in the public service are in order. The American people can be grateful for having in so sensitive a service a man of character and a high sense of personal responsibility.

David Lawrence Same Old Soviet Sucker Game

GENEVA—Throughout Europe the people have just celebrated the fourteenth anniversary of the ending of World War II on this continent. But, strangely enough, the villain who really made that war possible goes unmentioned and unscathed.

For it was the communist dictatorship in Moscow which just 20 years ago this year formed a "non-aggression" alliance with the Nazi dictatorship in Berlin. This protected Hitler's eastern front from any danger and permitted him a few weeks later to deploy his entire military force against the West.

is. Throughout the free world many people have been deluded into believing that, by sitting at the table with the Russians, either here or at a "summit" conference, something can be done to assure world peace. But the record of the Communist party, which believes in organized deception, belies any confidence that such a result can be achieved.

The Soviet game is succeeding in some important respects. Thus the world-wide scare about radioactive fall-out has produced a public opinion that is demanding a suspension of nuclear tests. Once this is done, the same demand will arise that the use of nuclear weapons also be banned. This would leave the Soviets with a huge supply of troops more powerful than that of the Western Allies. The process of dictating to the West would then be intensified.

Eventually, because the Nazi dictatorship was given a free hand, millions of Russians were slaughtered as the Nazis turned against the Soviet Union. Likewise, millions of persons across Europe were killed because that 1939 alliance made by the communist dictator gave World War II its initial impetus.

Today a communist government in Moscow is again propagandizing the world with proposals of "non-aggression" pacts and pious claims of peaceful intent. Its record, however, is one of opportunistic alliances with dictatorships in Red China and the Middle East. As the four-power foreign ministers conference begins here, the Communists are aiming at concessions that will enable them to strengthen their military position in Europe.

What is going on here, therefore, must be appraised primarily in terms of military strategy. For, when the Communists carry on a "negotiation," it is what they seek in a military sense that is really important. Now they want ostensibly to change the status of West Berlin, but actually they seek acquiescence by the Western Powers in what is often referred to as the "status quo." This means confirmation of their conquest of East Germany, Poland, Czechoslovakia, Rumania, Bulgaria, Hungary, Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania.

For why do the Soviet chiefs wax indignant about the idea of free elections in both parts of Germany, and why do they balk at the reunification of that country? They have managed by their propaganda to scare many people in the West into believing that a reunited Germany would be a menace to peace. Actually a free Germany was never a menace. When the Weimar republic was overthrown by Hitler, the true will of the German people was ignored.

The Communists now, as in 1939, prefer dictatorships everywhere — they are easier for them to handle.

One wonders when the Western Allies will begin to perceive that another communist dictatorship such as encouraged Hitler to start World War II is today playing the same kind of game that can bring on World War III. To appease the men in the Kremlin by "concessions" that are supposed to be relatively unimportant is to tell the people of Soviet Russia that in reality the dictatorship in Moscow and its conquests are accepted as an accomplished fact and that the rest of the people in the world are willing again, as in the 1930's, to buy that kind of ephemeral "peace."

Today elections in both East and West Germany would mean a free and independent Germany, but this is not what Moscow wants. It seeks a divided Germany so that, through communist stooges, it not only may continue a puppet dictatorship in East Germany but continue to infiltrate West Germany. It plans to keep West Germany in a state of limited armament and wants to push the NATO military forces out of West Germany altogether.

It is in the face of this brazen effort to carry on its program of world conquest, the Communists are accepted in this conference on a so-called "negotiating" basis.

Shoot Not This Old Gray Head!

James Marlow Red Predictions Coming True

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Soviets — with help from the West, which let itself get tangled in childlike talk — are turning the foreign ministers meeting into the kind of spectacle predicted by Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

The ministers, he said, would get bogged in details. He wanted first a summit meeting of the "heavyweights." After they had reached agreements, he said, the ministers could get together to stew over the details.

Khrushchev finally consented to a Big Four foreign ministers conference — United States, Soviet Union, Britain, France — because the West insisted. The meeting was to open Monday. So what happened?

Before the ministers could even hold their first session they got snarled in an argument — over the kind of table to use — which for all practical and realistic purposes was strictly kid stuff.

It hardly added, in the eyes of the world, to the dignity and seriousness of the meeting.

The West, allied with West Germany, refuses to recognize the legitimacy of the East German Communist government, which is a Soviet satellite. But the U.S.R. wants exactly this kind of Western recognition for the East Germans.

While all this was being hashed over, the Soviets' Andrei Gromyko got the conference further confused. He demanded both West and East Germany be allowed to take part in the Big Four conference as full participants.

This is exactly what the West didn't want — for East Germany, that is — (or fear that Western permission for East Germany to sit in as a full participant might be interpreted as Western recognition for East Germany.)

To avoid such an interpretation, the West had been willing for the two Germanys to sit in the conference room but with the understanding they would be merely consultants who couldn't speak unless asked a question.

A compromise was worked out. The two Germanys couldn't be full participants, but instead of having to wait to speak until spoken to, both could ask permission to be heard on any subject.

So the first brief meeting of the Big Four was held and finished. Then Gromyko messed things up for the second meeting. This time he demanded that the Soviet satellites, Poland and Czechoslovakia be allowed to take part as full participants.

The West objected. So the second meeting, Tuesday, broke up. It, too, was brief.

None of Gromyko's demands — that the two Germanys, plus Poland and Czechoslovakia take full part in the Big Four conference — should have caused any surprise.

Last March, when the Soviet Union agreed to a Big Four meeting, it demanded the full participation for the two Germanys and Poland and Czechoslovakia.

The reason Gromyko was able to snarl up the meeting now with this demand for those countries was that the Big Four foreign ministers hadn't worked out details before they met. They are tangled in the details now.

But the way Gromyko handled all this can be interpreted as a form of Soviet contempt for the whole idea of a foreign ministers meeting.

He could have made all his demands at one time on the first day. Instead, he stretched them out, delaying by that much any effort by the Big Four to get down to the business which brought them to Geneva, the discussion of Germany.

Hal Boyle Woes Of A Columnist

NEW YORK (AP)—Remarks a newspaper columnist gets tired of hearing—or overhearing:

"Be careful of what you say—or ole 'Big Ears' will have it in the newspapers, the next thing you know."

"You mean that's all you do is write just one piece a day? How in the world do you spend your spare time?"

"I've got a young nephew that doesn't know what to do with himself. How can he go about getting a job like yours?"

"Personally, I don't have much time for reading, but my wife says she likes your column very much. What's it about?"

"Personally, I don't find much time for reading—just the really important things. But my husband says he gets a laugh out of your column. What's it about?"

"If you can't help me get a parking ticket fixed, just what does the power of the press really amount to?"

"Where do you get all your ideas—steal 'em?"

"What's life like on a free pass? Do you guys ever pay your way in to see anything?"

"Well, how's the ole press agents' livesaver today?"

"It's a really cute idea. We're holding a canary singing contest to introduce a new bird food, and if you'll just agree to serve as a judge you'll find plenty of really cute material."

"What if it is made up? Do you think a thing has to be true to be interesting?"

"I been reading that Khrushchev is sick. How sick is he actually?"

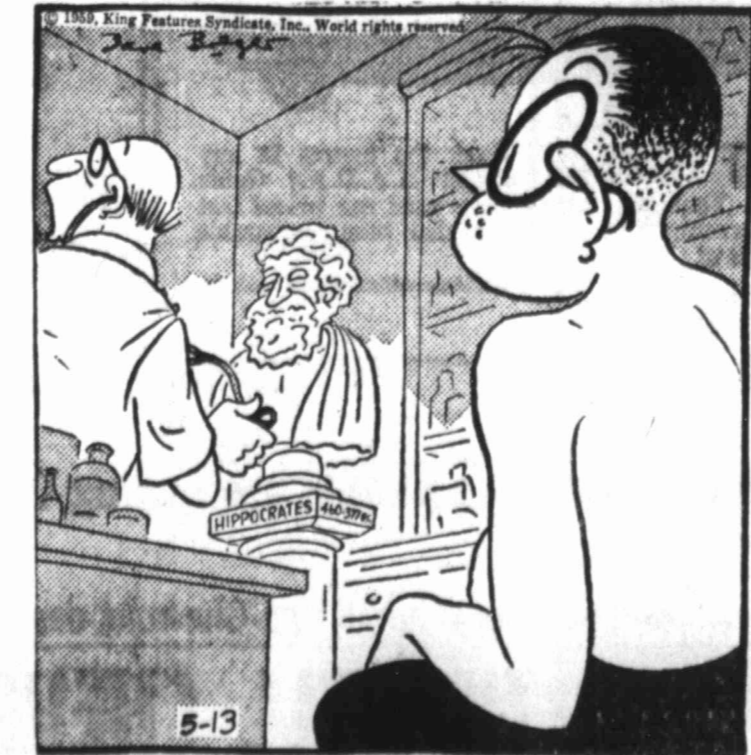

"Don't tell me a guy in your position doesn't get a really good Wall Street tip now and then. How about passing one on, ole pals wally?"

"Dear sir: You cur. Why are you always picking on women in your column? Are you mad at your mother? (signed) 'Angry Wife.'"

"Dear sir: You jerk! Why do you always give wives the best of it in your column? Are you a man or a mouse in your own house? (signed) 'Old-fashioned Husband.'"

"Sure I know it's a tough job and you could use a raise. But look at it this way: There are at least six guys on the copy desk who are tired of writing headlines—and would love to have your problems — and your working hours."

"Nurse! Arrange to have this man rushed to the hospital at once—I can BARELY detect his heart-beat!"

Around The Rim Financial Center Of The World

If you own a share of stock in most any substantial American corporation, you have interest in an eight block street in the heart of New York.

It is, of course, Wall Street, which took its name from a wall which Peter Stuyvesant, who founded New Amsterdam, had built from East River to the Hudson. He erected it to keep the cows and chickens in and the Indians and some unwelcome Englishmen out, but it became the boundary for a street.

Along this way and just outside the stockade in 1792, men met regularly under a buttonwood tree to "make a market" in bonds, money and government notes of the post-Revolutionary War days.

After the Civil War New York became the financial center of the nation and the New York Stock Exchange rose on the location of the buttonwood tree. While trading was thus moved indoors, down the street others met on the curb in the open until 1921, buying, selling and signaling to associates in buildings across the street. This was the "curb," now the American Stock Exchange.

In its series on famous streets, Dodge News points out that Wall Street has been known as the "street of hope," the "street of faith" and as Nikita Khrushchev described it, "the most evil street in the world."

Everyone is agreed it is the financial center of the nation, and probably of the entire world.

Along this canyon of concrete, stone and glass, there are many names such as Morgan, the country's most famous and until recently the largest investment firm. There is the Federal Reserve Bank of New York, the bank for banks with its $600 million in gold bars stashed away for foreign governments. There is the Trinity Church and the graveyard where Alexander Hamilton, Robert Fulton and other famous Americans are buried, and the old Federal Building where George Washington was sworn in as the first President and the first Congress passed the Bill of Rights.

But Wall Street is known best of all for the stock exchange with its floor about two-thirds the size of a football field. There are 18 U-shaped trading posts spotted over the floor, and each of these deal exclusively in some 65 to 70 different stocks. If you want to buy a certain stock, your order (stipulating the price you are willing to pay) is relayed to a broker. He makes his way to the proper trading post and there meets with someone who wants to sell that same stock. If prices agree, they make a trade, if not they contact their customers and get clarification which may result in a transaction. Frequently these stock orders are cried out from the posts, and in feverish trading noise is such that bidding is done by signals—and a wag of the finger can mean millions.

From 7 p.m. until 9 a.m. the following day the street is almost deserted. Then it springs suddenly to life as people hurry back and forth and the din mounts. "Are they all mad?" asked a prince from India as he looked down on the exchange floor. No sir, they are simply saying "I want to buy so many shares of such and such for this price," and "I'll sell, but I'll have to have this price." Just like haggling at the village square—only to the tune of as much as 8,000,000 shares and $36,000,000 a day.

Inez Robb Democracy Safe From Bolshoi Ballet

My lodge, the Daughters of the American Revolution, may ask me to turn in my badge and/or my husband. But the truth will get out, and here goes: despite the stern resolution of the Daughters (in convention assembled in Washington, D. C., last month) against all cultural exchanges with the Communist bloc, I have been in rapt attendance at the Bolshoi ballet, now performing in New York on its first American tour.

Perhaps I should get on the record at once that I have survived my brush with Communist culture unscathed in my devotion to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. No less than in my dedication to freedom, democracy and the capitalist system (which permitted the Robbs to pony up $30 for a brace of tickets).

I entered the Bolshoi ballroom a 100 per cent American and left it in the same condition. By and large, I found the Bolshoi magnificent. But watching the breathtaking performance of this famed company did not shake by jot or tittle my patriotism or my lifelong belief that my own, my native, land is the most.

Despite the dazzling technique of the Bolshoi, I left its presence unscathed by any itch to join the Communist party or undermine Uncle Sam. It didn't make Communist theory or practice or dialectic one iota more attractive.

The big, enthusiastic audience that jammed the Metropolitan Opera House to see the Bolshoi didn't look or seem any more subversive or politically weak-kneed than, say, an audience whooping it up at "The Music Man" or "JB" or "Sunrise at Campobello."

This audience had come, I suspect, to look at one of the artistic triumphs of our age and not to look for a new political philosophy.

Despite the triumphs of Van Cliburn and the "Porgy and Bess" company behind the Iron Curtain, neither seems to have exercised any notable influence in converting listeners to democracy and free enterprise. Undoubtedly, U. S. citizens can look at the Bolshoi with no more damaging erosion to their moral and political principals than the Russians in the reverse situation. At least, I have that much confidence in my fellow citizens.

Or almost. My faith was a trifle shaken when my husband, a stubborn Republican of Scotch descent to whom a $15-theatre ticket is life's blood, whispered to me, 15 minutes after the curtain went up on the ballet, "Did you ever see so many pretty girls?"

Ten minutes later, when he seemed about to let out a long, appreciative wolf whistle, I hissed, "Turncoat!"

In a taxi on the way home after the performance, my spouse not only declared that attendance at the Bolshoi was $30 well spent, but asked, "What effect do you suppose the United States is having on that troupe?"

That was the thought that had been chasing through my mind all during the performance. We are convinced that the impact of this free and glorious country on the Bolshoi troupe cannot help but be beneficial to it and to us. Creeping knowledge of the United States within the U.S.S.R. is better by far than none.

It is always a source of wonder to me that some persons and organizations have so little faith in the political hardihood of their compatriots that they believe their fellow citizens can be seduced into communism by a ballet or a symphony.

Only 13 members of the D.A.R. at the Washington convention voted against the revolution damning cultural exchanges with the U.S.S.R. I like to think that number symbolic — one for each of the Original Thirteen States.

The Gallup Poll Fear Voiced We Lag In Military Power

PRINCETON, N. J. — The debate in Washington over the nation's defense effort in general and its missile program in particular raises this question:

Does the public think we are dropping behind—or keeping ahead of—the Russians in our military power?

Judging from the results of a recent nationwide survey conducted by the Gallup Poll, more people think we are dropping behind the Russians than think we are keeping ahead of them—by a margin of 34 per cent to 24 per cent.

One person in every four, or 25 per cent, thinks we are staying even with the Russians in our military power.

To measure popular reaction to the controversy thus far, carefully trained reporters for the Gallup Poll asked this question of an accurate cross-section of adults in every region of the country:

"Some people say that we are dropping behind the Russians in our military power. Others say that we are keeping ahead. From what you have heard or read, how do you feel—do you think we are dropping behind or keeping ahead?"

Their replies:

	Per cent
Dropping behind	34
Keeping ahead	24
Staying even	25
No opinion	17

Persons who attended college are more inclined to take the position that the U.S. is dropping behind the Russians than are those with less formal education. Among college-trained persons, 38 per cent think we are dropping behind as compared with 31 per cent among grade school people.

The vote by education levels:

	Col High Gr.	Per cent
Dropping behind	38	34
Keeping ahead	24	24
Staying even	22	28
No opinion	16	14

A larger proportion of rank-and-file Democratic voters believe we are dropping behind in our military power than do GOP voters, as the following vote by party affiliation shows:

	Reps.	Dem.	Ins.
Dropping behind	29	38	32
Keeping ahead	27	22	24
Staying even	27	24	25
No opinion	17	16	18

A cross-analysis of education and party indicates that party affiliation is more important than education in determining responses to this question.

Shortly after Russia launched its first satellite early in October, 1957, a Gallup Poll survey found the weight of sentiment across the country believing that Russia had moved ahead of the U. S. in the development of missiles and long distance rockets.

Virtually half of those questioned at that time or the per cent, said they believed this to be the case, while 32 per cent did not. These figures were in sharp contrast to the way the public had viewed America's supremacy over Russia in the field of scientific advances in the past.

In a survey one year later, the vote was close to being evenly divided, with 40 per cent believing that Russia was farther ahead in the field of long range missiles and rockets and 37 per cent believing that the U. S. was.

A survey early this year by the British Gallup Poll found that, at least in England, public opinion is convinced that the U. S. will be lagging behind Russia within the next decade in the field of science.

Forty-three per cent of Britons questioned in a survey said that Russia would have the leading position ten years from now, compared to 13 per cent who said the U. S. and 11 per cent who said Great Britain.

Large Anchor Found

POINT PLEASANT BEACH, N. J. (AP)—A large anchor, relic of the days of sailing ships, has been dragged from the Atlantic Ocean seven miles southeast of Manasquan Inlet.

Encrusted with rust, barnacles and clam shells, the anchor was accompanied by more than 300 feet of wrought iron chain.

It was recovered by the commercial fishing boat Adelle, and stands 9 1/2 feet tall by 8 1/2 feet wide at the flukes. Each chain link weighs more than 10 pounds.

Santa Disabled

LINCOLN, Neb. (AP)—Clarence Fiske was awarded $1,849 for injuries suffered while on duty as a department store Santa Claus last December.

Fiske told the court he was totally disabled from Dec. 25 to April 1 as the result of injuries received when a girl jumped into his lap.

BALTIMORE (AP)—Pharmacist M. L. Cooper is stocking leeches on his shelves these days. The public demands, it he says.

The retail price is $1.50 per worm. Most of his sales are to people with shiners, who contend one leech usually will drain the coagulant from one black eye.

"They don't cause infection," says Cooper, "and they're cheaper than beefsteak."

Keeping It In The Family

JANESVILLE, Wis. (AP)—Kenneth Leeder, 52, was charged with leaving the scene of an accident after his car smashed into a parked auto owned by his father.

Tibetan Revolt Dying, Border Reports Show

By WATSON SIMS
NEW DELHI (AP)—The rebellion in Tibet appears to be dying. It may already be dead. Reports reaching the border towns of Kalimpong and Gangtok indicate the uprising of Khampa tribesmen, which flared fiercely late in March and early April, has been snuffed out by the superior guns of Red Chinese occupation forces. The provisional government which the resistance forces proclaimed a month ago has not been heard from. Refugees straggling out of the Himalayan land of the lamas picture it as held firmly under the heel of Chinese overlords determined to prove they can rule without public approval — and without the Dalai Lama if need be. Refugees say the main reason the revolt failed was lack of weapons. The handmade rifles and clubs of the Khamapas proved no match for Chinese artillery and machine guns. Reports published in New Delhi say that nearly half the 10,000 refugees who have flocked into the border states of Sikkim and Bhutan are Khamapas. Many are believed to have been wounded as they fled. Gyantse, where the rebels were strong enough six weeks ago to march against the Chinese commander at gunpoint, now lies quiet and subdued under Chinese guns. One arrival from there said the huge monastery was under Red guard and that pilgrims had to get clearance from Red troops. Many rich Gyantse merchants were reported in prison. On May Day local youths were forced to shout Red Chinese slogans and chant "we want reforms," the witness said. Indian observers, who emphasize there is no way of checking the refugee reports, believe the Chinese are making an all-out attempt to put down the rebellion as proof they can do without the Dalai Lama, god-king of the Tibetans who has taken refuge in India. The Chinese apparently feel such a demonstration might make the Dalai Lama more willing to return under Red terms. As long as the young titular ruler remains in India, he is a potential rallying point.

Eddie, Liz Winging Toward A Spanish Yacht Honeymoon

By JAMES BACON
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Eddie Fisher and Liz Taylor, the Romeo and Juliet of the jet age, winged today toward a honeymoon in Spain. The famed newlyweds spent their wedding night sitting up in a TWA jet airliner speeding from Los Angeles to New York. They had to spend a few hours between planes in New York before they could board another non-stop flight to Madrid. There they are to make another quick change into a charter plane for Barcelona, where a honeymoon yacht will meet them. The two may not be alone until they get in the honeymoon cabin — one styled after Christopher Columbus' quarters aboard the Santa Maria. The cruise will be a leisurely 10-day trip up the northeast coast of Spain, with occasional stops at fishing villages—where the honeymooners probably won't be recognized. "And that's all right by us," the two chorused as they boarded a plane at Las Vegas, Nev., for Los Angeles Tuesday night. Fisher said he was so nervous and happy that "I don't need a plane to get me there." His schedule in Las Vegas was at jet age speed, but on the ground. At 1:30 p.m., he left his suite at the Tropicana Hotel and joined the Jewish War Veterans, Las Vegas branch, in a brief ceremony at the hotel's front door. Then a limousine sped him to the county courthouse, where in 104 minutes he got a Nevada divorce from actress Debbie Reynolds, alleging mental cruelty. A quick phone call brought Liz to join him in the marriage license bureau across the hall from the divorce court. Then, 3 1/2 hours after the divorce, the two were wed in brief Jewish rites performed by two rabbis in a residential area synagogue. A limousine then hurried the two past 300 fans outside the synagogue and on to the bride's $500-a-week rented ranch. There champagne corks popped furiously for a hasty reception. Next the couple hurriedly gathered up their luggage and passports and were off to the airport. The plane took them to Los Angeles to meet the jet for New York. While their 19 pieces of luggage were shifted to the jetliner, the newlyweds waited in an office at the airport. Then they posed for more pictures, waved to a crowd of 100 fans, and headed east. Fisher's grounds for divorce from Miss Reynolds did not specify details of the mental cruelty he alleged. Reporters asked him in Las Vegas if he could explain what the charge meant. He refused. But he told newsmen: "If the public only knew the truth — the real reason for our split up." The record of the hearing was closed—a privilege Nevada courts grant in divorce cases when principals request it. Judge David Zenoff declined to discuss testimony, other than to say Fisher's claim to legal residence in Nevada seemed satisfactory. In Hollywood, a reporter asked Miss Reynolds what she thought of the nuptials. Miss Reynolds, 27, mother of Fisher's two children, said only: "As I have said before, I wish them every happiness."

Don't diet yourself into CONSTIPATION

As you may know, there's a good reason why folks who go on diets often have trouble with irregularity. For whenever you change your eating habits, and particularly when you eat less, you may not get enough good bulk food. And, of course, lack of bulk in the diet is one of the common causes of constipation. But, fortunately for people who want to lose weight, there is a way to get back on schedule naturally—without going off your diet. A safe, delicious way. It's the Kellogg's All-Bran way. You see, just a half-cup of Kellogg's All-Bran—only 95 calories—provides all of the good bulk you need for gentle, natural regularity. So if you'd like to stay on a diet, and stay regular, too, try Kellogg's All-Bran with milk. It's America's favorite whole bran cereal, you know... now by 3 to 1!

Legislature Gives Up, Gets Ready For Special Session

By GARTH JONES
AUSTIN (AP)—The 56th Legislature, given the job of solving Texas' taxing and spending problems, gave up and went home last night. Most of the problems remain to face a special session beginning Monday. "It is true that we have not done all we had hoped to do by this good hour," Speaker Waggoner or Carr told the House. "But there is always satisfaction in having done our best—and in having laid strong foundations for completing the work that remains." "Even before the special session begins there is speculation that we will not be able to do the job in a second special session," Gov. Price Daniel told both houses in a last-minute message. "In addition there are powerful forces outside the Legislature already advocating a 30-day stalemate in order to keep from being taxed." Daniel said the special session would be limited to "retirement of the present deficit, passage of an appropriations bill to cover necessary spending and passage of a tax bill to meet these expenses." There was practically none of the usual horse play on adjournment. One of the last legislative acts yesterday was approval of a pay raise for lawmakers. If approved by voters in 1960, senators and representatives will get $4,800 annually plus $12 a day during legislative sessions. The House failed to act on about a dozen Senate approved bills while about 150 House bills never got debated. Almost 1,500 bills were introduced during the session. One of the last Senate acts was authorization of a committee to investigate operations of four major state funds—teacher and employe retirement funds, permanent school fund, and the University of Texas permanent fund. Other final day action included: A water and boat safety measure aimed at controlling reckless boat drivers and wild water skiers got final approval. Election of Sen. R. A. Winert, veteran Seguin legislator, as president pro tempore of the Senate between sessions. Final passage of a compromise bill setting up a visual inspection by veterinarians at livestock auctions. Senate approval of House amendments to a bill prohibiting the parking of cars on highways. Senate approval of House amendments to a bill outlawing stock on state and national highways. Farm to market roads were eliminated. Final passage went to bills: Revising the procedure in figuring damages in workmen's compensation cases. The principal argument came over a provision, which stayed in, raising attorneys' fees from 25 to 30 per cent. Prohibiting the use of the word "wholesale" in advertising goods for sale on the retail level. Requiring that corn meal and corn grits be enriched with vitamins. Corn meal used in making tortillas is exempted. Revising absentee voting by mail procedures. Providing three months of preschool English classes for beginning students who cannot speak English. Giving former Texas Rangers or their widows $80 a month pensions. The plan was approved by voters last November.

Studies and commissions authorized yesterday included: A study of uninsured motorists; ways to make the State Board of Water Engineers at least partially self-sustaining; continuation of a study of problems of the aged; non-resident fees at state colleges; license and operating fees charged by state departments; laws on organization of local water districts; and making the University of Houston a state-supported school. The last resolution passed by the House allowed $750 for member telephone and telegraph expenses between now and next Monday. Each member's full time secretary will be kept on the payroll during the interim—at a total estimated cost of $7,500. Adjournment stopped argument over members trimming their staffs to one full time secretary, at $10 a day, during the coming special session. During the regular session each member had one full time and one part time secretary.

Solar Blast Kicks Up Magnetic Storm

SACRAMENTO PEAK OBSERVATORY, N. M. (AP)—An explosion on the sun, described as one of the strongest radio flares ever recorded, kicked up a magnetic storm in the earth's atmosphere Sunday. Now it is dying out. Astronomers say they expect the last of it Thursday, along with the last of accompanying radio trouble. Harry Ramsey, chief observer at this mountain top observatory in south central New Mexico, said, "The solar flare was about 100,000 miles in length and 50,000 miles wide."

China Reds Shell Tiny Matsu Isle

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP)—Chinese Communists shelled Peikang Island in the Matsu group Tuesday night for the first time this year. The Reds fired 23 shells at the 2 1/2 square miles of island only 7 miles off the mainland. The 14-minute attack came on an even-numbered day, when the Communist guns on the mainland facing the Quemoy and other Nationalist offshore islands normally are silent.

Cartwright Wins Vote In Galveston

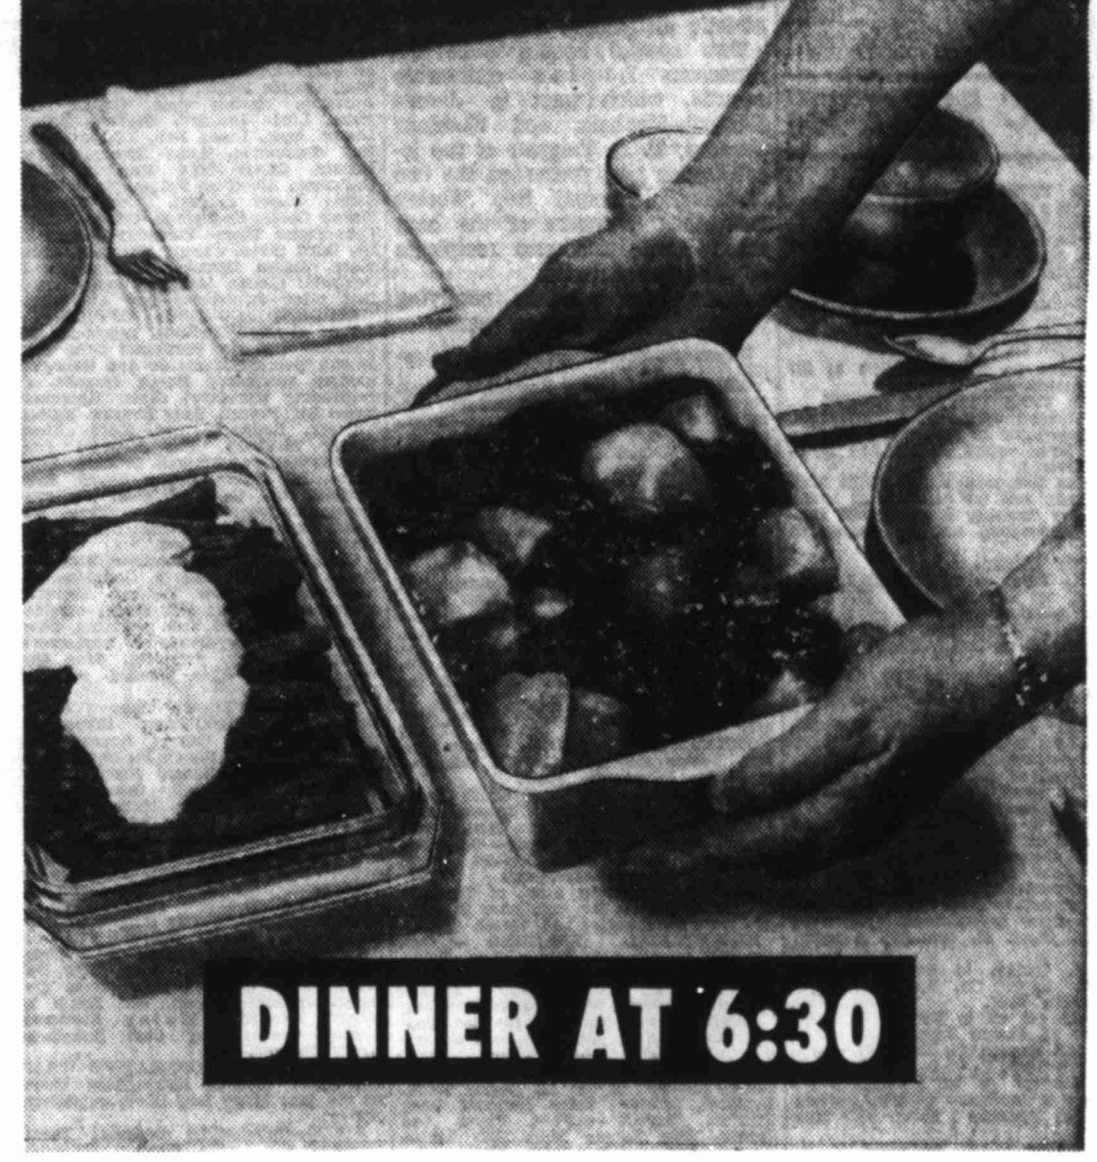

GALVESTON (AP)—Former Mayor Herbert Cartwright will replace George Roy Clough as mayor here. In final unofficial returns from yesterday's elections, Clough, who has served since he defeated Cartwright in 1955, ran third. Charles Ott, school board member with the backing of the Chamber of Commerce, finished second and Asst. Dist. Atty. Andrew Baker was fourth. A record turnout of 14,600 voters also approved a commission to re-write the City Charter and indicated they favored a city manager form of government. Police and Fire Commissioner Walter Rouke Jr. and Finance Commissioner Dave Figari were re-elected. Other officers were not opposed. Voters approved a pay increase for city firemen and police and proposals to sell city land and authorize a contract with Houston Lighting and Power Co. to operate the city lighting system. Rejected were plans to raise the ad valorem (property) taxes and hike the salaries of the mayor and city commissioners. Complete unofficial returns from the 35 precincts showed Cartwright with 5,655 votes, Ott 4,988, Clough 2,553 and Baker 1,032. Cartwright stressed Charter revisions and raises in pay for city employees in his campaign. Clough, 68, made headlines when he proposed that Galveston be allowed to operate as an "open town" with various forms of vice permitted under police supervision and regulation.

Letter Causes Court Protest

AUSTIN (AP)—A sudden flare-up over a letter from District Director of Internal Revenue R. E. Phinney of Austin marked the Sam Serio income tax evasion trial yesterday. Defense counsel Wright Matthews showed government witness Charles Webb a letter stating all records required by the Serio attorneys had been destroyed by fire. Webb, supervisor of the account card unit at the IRS district office here, was holding extracts of Serio tax records dating back to 1917 in his hands. "This letter from Mr. Phinney says all those records were destroyed by fire," the defense attorney said. "We found them later on," Webb replied. "You mean they're lost when the government wants them?" There was no reply. The letter from Phinney to Matthews was dated Sept. 20, 1955. Investigation of the Serio income tax file began in 1951. Serio, a partner in the Maceo enterprises and longtime bookkeeper for the Galveston gambling syndicate, is charged with evading payment of $19,796 in income taxes due for 1949 and 1950.

Billie Dillon Wins Medalist's Honors

Billie Dillon, the pre-tournament favorite and defending champion, easily won medalist's honors in the annual Big Spring Country Club's Women's Golf tournament Tuesday with a six-over par 80. Billie's first round opponent today was to be Jodie Sabatto, who qualified with a 98. Jodie was also one of the favorites in the tournament.

Mrs. Dillon is now favored to attack the Friday finals with Elsie Turner, who qualified with a 97. In all, 22 players qualified for the tournament — the exact number predicted by tournament officials.

NBA Willing To Re-Instate Robinson If He Will Fight

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The president of the National Boxing Assn. said today that Sugar Ray Robinson will be reinstated as middleweight champion if Carmen Basilio is willing to fight him here on Sept. 21.

signed contract with promoter Norman Rothchild for our services in Syracuse in July. "My information," Klein said, "is that Basilio has not signed to fight Fullmer."

"If there is definite assurance that Robinson and Basilio will fight in the near future," Dr. Ward Wylie said at his Mullen, W.Va., home, "I'm certain the winner would be recognized as the world champion."

George Galford, Robinson's adviser, said that if Basilio does not agree to the match, Sugar Ray still would fight in Philadelphia on the same date against European middleweight champion Gustav Schultz.

Sabres Tip Comet Nine

The Sabres won their second game in three International Little League starts by downing the T-Birds, 6-1 here Tuesday at 9:30 p.m. while the nine-hole flight was to start at 9:30 a.m.

The fight would be promoted by Samuel Rose, a city councilman, who was not present at the news conference. He is ill in a hospital.

Robinson would get 45 per cent of an estimated $750,000 to one million dollar gate and the same percentage of more than $300,000 in television and radio receipts.

Locals Nudge Campbell Club

Roy Billings socked a three-run triple in the sixth inning here last night to push the Locals past Campbell, 7-6, in a Texas Little League ball game.

Basilio would receive 20 per cent. By signing, Robinson partially fulfilled a New York State Athletic Commission ultimatum to sign for a Basilio fight by Friday or lose his title in that state.

The NBA lifted Robinson's title by edict on May 4 after repeatedly warning him to sign for a defense against Basilio. Robinson won the middleweight title from Basilio March 25, 1958, but hasn't fought since.

41 Are Entered In City Tourney

Fifteen more local linksters have qualified for the City Golf tournament, bringing to 41 the total number of entries posted.

Basilio's other co-manager, Joe Netro said "We've got to be satisfied."

Al Klein, a member of the Pennsylvania Athletic Commission, said the deal had been in the works for 10 days.

Four-Game Winning Skein Restores Dodgers To Top

The Los Angeles Dodgers won their fourth in a row Tuesday night, beating Philadelphia 3-1 behind the five-hit pitching of young Danny McDevitt. That gave the Dodgers a half-game lead over Milwaukee although the two clubs are tied percentage-wise (.600).

Al Klein, a member of the Pennsylvania Athletic Commission, said the deal had been in the works for 10 days.

"I have $10,000 Robinson posted in bond money that says the deal won't be a phony," Klein added. "When Basilio and his managers realize the financial aspects of the deal, I'm confident they'll sign."

Jets, Pigs Play To Wild 17-17 Little League Tie

A wild 13-run sixth inning ended the Jets and the Pigs in a tie, 17-17, here last night in an American Little League baseball game.

No one has been able to put together more than a four-game string in the National League scramble. Fact is, only the Braves and Dodgers have won that many in a row. The Braves won their first four and took first place early in April. The Dodgers won four straight and came within .133 percentage points of first place three weeks ago.

St. Louis kept Cincinnati from making it a virtual three-way tie by beating the Reds 7-4. Pittsburgh defeated San Francisco 6-5 in 12 innings.

Devils Decision Yankees, 6-0, In National League

The Devils bounced the sparkless Yankees, 6-0, here last night in National Little League baseball action.

Because of the curfew rule (no inning may start after 9:30 p.m.) the game goes down as a draw and must be resumed later. As soon as it can be worked into the schedule the teams will finish the game.

The Jets scored seven runs in the top of the sixth but couldn't hold the Pigs who came back for six. The bases were loaded for the Pigs when the last out was made.

Texans L'il League Revises Schedule

The Texas Little League baseball schedule has been revised slightly, and competing teams will step into the new pattern beginning Monday.

The game was a loosely played scramble. Jet pitchers issued 18 bases on balls and struck three batters. However, 11 Pigs went down swinging.

LOOKING 'EM OVER With Tommy Hart

Julian Pressley, who coached the Odessa Bronchos to a baseball pennant in District 2-AAAA the past season, says it was "this year or never" for him.

Pressley, who credits his reserves for getting him to the throne room, loses practically all his regulars but James Ingram, the strong-armed boy who pitched the Bronchos to the title.

Don Clay, the Brooke Army Medical Center athlete who set a new javelin throw record in the Webb AFB track and field meet here last weekend with a toss of 193 feet, 1 inch, has done better in his time.

Mack Alexander is becoming a tower of strength in the Big Spring High School football primary.

The Pittsburgh Steelers made their decision to move back to Forbes Field from the University of Pittsburgh stadium after making a telephone poll of their season ticket holders.

LSU has Bob Pettit, the famous pro cage star, trying to talk tree-top tall Lewis Qualls of Smiley into attending the Baton Rouge school.

Roy Baird and Harold Bentley, the local coaches, will return to school at Sul Ross College in Alpine for the first six weeks this summer.

Carlyle Strickland, who appeared here several times with the Decatur College basketball team, is headed for Howard Payne College.

Californians' claims to track supremacy in the United States are refuted in the most recent edition of Sports Illustrated magazine.

The Texas high schools' new emphasis on the spring sport can claim most of the credit for the fact that the state is fast becoming recognized as a track power.

At that time Cosden will oppose Campbell, and Tuesday Kent meets Reef.

The new schedule will begin the third week of play in the Texas League. The first half of the schedule starts June 6, and the second ends July 13.

Cosden Retains Edge In League

B&B Construction struck down Standard Sales for three games this week in the Men's Classic bowling league to remain two games out in second place.

Two weeks remain in this circuit.

Motion To Extend Milch Contract Is Defeated

Bid of school athletic director Al Milch for an extension of his contract failed last night.

At the same time, two trustees said their action last night shouldn't be taken as an indication that they won't be in favor of extending Milch's contract next year.

Parsons said he offered the recommendation "not on the basis of his won-lost record in football, but for other qualities," including loyalty, ability to function as director of school athletics, will to work, and relationship with other school personnel.

CRITIQUE Of The Local Entertainment Scene

By Bob Smith

The Texas Fine Arts Assn. has given outlying regions more voice in its organization.

Formerly, the TFAA was centered on Austin, its official capital, and where the big state-wide art exhibits are held annually. The shows are held in the Elizabeth Ney Museum and Laguna Gloria, one of the most beautiful such centers in the Southwest.

The reorganization plan does away with regional representative posts and establishes state-wide directorships and positions on the executive committee. Terry Patterson of Big Spring is now a member of the committee. The action was taken Saturday during the annual state exhibit.

Among local folk spotted at Laguna Gloria over the weekend were Mrs. Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. John Findlater, Dr. and Mrs. Norman Furlong, and Dr. Phil Deza. Findlater and Mrs. Patterson attended the TFAA officials' meeting.

Las Artistas had no booth, but Mrs. Patterson and a group of several other painters obtained a booth for student entries and their own works. Findlater gave demonstrations of sketch portraits. It was one of the biggest and most entertaining fiestas Laguna Gloria has yet seen.

Gen. William F. Dean, once a captive of the Chinese Communists, admitted after his release that he had prepared to kill himself rather than break under the relentless brainwashing to which he was subjected.

Playwright Henry Denker, upon viewing the Ed Murrow program at which Dean's admission was made, saw in this situation prospects for drama of the highest order. What, he asked himself, would happen to a younger, less experienced, and weaker man, were he subjected to the same pressures that had almost broken an old soldier whose courage and integrity are unquestioned?

Collaborating with Ralph Berkley, the playwright came up with an answer in "Time Limit." It is the story of a young major on trial for having gone over to the other side during imprisonment by the Chinese Reds. The play penetrates the nature of courage and cowardice, and lays open the fact that there is a little of both in all of us.

This highly dramatic play will be staged by the Midland Community Theatre this weekend and next. Further information may be had by contacting the box office.

People are always kidding me about this column — and sometimes, a few old soreheads say something non-complimentary. Thus, I was about ready to write a piece about the woes of a columnist.

But Hal Boyle of the Associated Press beat me to it. If remarks a columnist gets tired of hearing—or overhearing—holds any interest for you, turn to the editorial page.

But finish this column first, please.

Fred Short has another feather in his cap.

This week, he received a letter from the students and drama coach at Rankin High School, whose entry won first place in class B at the TIL meet in Austin. They also copped the best actor and best actress awards.

Short had helped the thespians in training for the area and regional meets, from which they went on to state. He's hoping he'll get some recruits for his drama department at HCJC, through aid to high schools in the area.

5 Freedom Bills Die

AUSTIN (AP)—Five freedom of information bills died yesterday when the 56th Legislature ended. Gov. Price Daniel said he favored a bill requiring open meetings of government bodies, but he would not say whether he would submit it to the special session starting next week.

The special session is limited to measures offered by the governor. An open-meetings, open-records measure died in a House subcommittee. It had been approved in the Senate with amendments that backers of the original proposal did not support.

Rep. R. L. Strickland of San Antonio, chairman of the subcommittee, said, "California passed a bill similar to this. It had to come back for repeal. I'm certainly for the principle of open meetings, but this bill is not the vehicle."

Five measures proposed to guarantee the public's right to know failed to pass. All were backed by the Associated Press Managing Editors Assn., Texas Daily Newspaper Assn., Texas Press Assn., and Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalism fraternity.

Controversial Author Mellow Toward Censors

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Still as banned as ever, Erskine Caldwell appears to be mellowing toward those who ban him.

A little, anyway. Perhaps it is his ailment that has softened his indignation. He suffered a painful calcification of his hand and underwent an operation to cure it. The hand must remain in a cast and elevated, so Caldwell's vast literary output is stopped temporarily.

"I've always typed with two fingers—couldn't possibly dictate," he says.

Caldwell and his lovely wife had come here from their San Francisco home to discuss filming of his 35th and latest book, "Claude's English," with Warner Brothers. So far no area has banned this one, but it's early yet.

"I had to change the title for England because the spelling of English was considered to be an affront over there," he reported. "Also in France, because it was considered insulting to the memory of a writer named Claudel who had died recently."

The chronicler of raw life in the South said he is banned regularly in Boston, but "Detroit is worse. There they have three members of the police department who pass on all the books, plays and movies. They've got to ban something, in order to justify their jobs."

Caldwell's treatment of Negro-white themes has caused him to be banned in South Africa. Even his native Georgia gives his works the heave-ho at regular intervals, he said.

Moving around is part of Caldwell's nature. He has lived all over the East and West coasts, and he may move anywhere next. Anywhere but Chicago.

"Chicago is a moneymaker's town," he said. "It holds nothing for me."

"Besides, Chicago is the only major city in the United States where 'Tobacco Road' couldn't play."

FCC Application

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Federal Communications Commission received yesterday an application from Odessa, Tex., where R. L. McAlister of Borger, Tex., asked for a standard station on 1550 kilocycles, 5 kilowatts, daytime.

Castro Warned To Hold Tongue

PANAMA (AP) — Panama's government has told Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro to watch his tongue if he has hopes of getting back 86 Cubans who invaded Panama in an abortive attempt at a revolution.

Foreign Minister Miguel Moreno Jr. Tuesday rejected a request for repatriation of the Cubans made by Cuban Under Secretary of State Eric Aguero.

Moreno told Aguero that the possibilities of repatriation were not helped by Castro's criticisms of President Ernesto de la Guardia's government for getting the help of the Organization of American States against the invaders.
