Spectacular Wreck Causes Injury To One Person

No serious injuries were reported in this spectacular crash that occurred about 8 a. m. today at Johnson and Sixth streets. Allie Marcus, 1103 Picketts, driver of the overturned car was being x-rayed this morning for possible injuries. Mrs. Leonard Einstein, 1607 Kentucky Way, was also checked at Malone and Hogan Hospital.

The only other automobile accident during the weekend occurred this morning. It involved George W. Jeffery, 1610 Owens, and Walter Eubanks, Gall Rt. The mishap occurred about 9:30 a. m. at 12th and Snyder Highway.

House To Get Chance Tuesday To Vote On General Tax Bill

AUSTIN (AP) — House tax compromisers indicated today that representatives probably will get a chance tomorrow to vote on another general tax bill.

"We have reached general agreement on the totals to be raised by certain types of taxes but we are still working on how the totals should be made up," Rep. Menton Murray of Harlingen reported.

Murray said the 16-man group had decided that about 25 million dollars of the next tax bill must come from natural gas and about 50 million from franchise taxes.

The Senate met briefly then recessed until 10:30 a. m. tomorrow. A technical point of order killed a Senate bill to increase student fees in the 19 state supported colleges. Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey ruled that the measure did not come within the jurisdiction of this session called specifically for taxing and spending.

Murray said the compromise committee met Saturday night, Sunday and had met twice today to consider old and new proposals.

Rep. Dick Cory offered a substitute bill that seems to be pretty favorable to the committee," he said.

Rep. Bill Shaw of Forney reportedly recommended a 2 percent excise tax on monthly utilities bills to be paid by the home owner or consumer.

Cory reportedly gave the group an overall tax plan including a 2 percent increase in natural gas production taxes, but no severance beneficiary tax, and increased selective sales taxes, but no general sales tax.

"No definite decisions were made," said Rep. Robert Hughes of Dallas.

"We're still just feeling around," said Rep. Max Smith of San Marcos. "I still feel we'll get some sort of a bill out this session."

Rep. W. T. Oliver of Port Neches said he still had pending a resolution calling for final adjournment of the second special session at noon Tuesday. "I'm not pushing it," he said, "until we see how these talks come out."

Speaker Waggoner Carr said today that he wouldn't say a compromise was a sure thing "but it looks very promising."

After the first meeting of the compromise group today Carr had a talk with Ramsey.

Afterward Carr said he had asked the compromisers "if they are able to agree on anything or come out with it today so I can put it before the House today or Wednesday."

Sen. Charles Herring of Austin, Senate sponsor of Gov. Price Daniel's tax proposal in the first special session, said he still hoped the House would get another tax bill to the Senate by Wednesday.

The second special session, powers this far to find the money for 1960-61 state operations, reaches the midway point Wednesday.

The House tried all day and late into the night Saturday to agree on a tax measure, but split on a basic dispute over whether a sales tax or a levy on natural gas should bear the larger burden.

The Senate, waiting for the House to send it a revenue measure, was in recess over the weekend. It has no major business to transact until the House votes a tax bill. Such measures must originate in the House.

Carr earlier had named the 16-member committee representing various factions in an effort to find a middle ground in the tax dispute. Its efforts were to no avail.

After the long, fruitless session Saturday, the speaker again summoned the conferees.

Yesterday he said he thought some progress had been made despite the negative votes.

Carr said he believes both the opposing factions now see that there is a no-tax-at-all group in the House that will team with either to defeat any tax measure. He said this led him to believe there would be some giving on both sides in order to achieve a revenue bill.

Meanwhile, most legislators seemed convinced that the deadlock will continue. There was more third special session talk than ever before after the House failed to write a tax measure Saturday.

Air Defense Proposals Get Indirect Test

WASHINGTON (AP) — The administration's new air defense proposals get an indirect congressional test today as the Senate takes up a bill to authorize widespread military construction projects.

The measure would open the way for spending $1,209,971,000 on U.S. military installations ranging from missile bases to housing in this country and around the world. Some of them are secret.

A comparatively small part of the bill involves construction of bases from which missiles would be fired against enemy planes. Action had been held up while the Pentagon revised its plans for air defense.

As it went to the Senate, the bill is tailored to the Pentagon's decision to continue on a cut-down basis installation of both the Army's Nike-Hercules and the Air Force's Bomarc missiles for defense against enemy planes. The money for these and for stepped-up development of a defense against enemy missiles will come later in other bills.

The only advance opposition to the program has come from Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo.) who said in an interview Saturday he considered the new program a sound compromise "which forces the taxpayer to continue to waste billions of dollars." He contended it would give only a false sense of security.

He followed up in a television interview Sunday with the contention that "I'm worried about the emphasis on defense as against the emphasis on our capacity to retaliate."

He urged more money for modernizing long-range bomber forces and the ground forces which would be used in limited wars.

The Senate bill, which deals only with construction projects, would provide about 800 millions for the Army and the remainder for reserve units.

It includes $58,045,000 for armories and training facilities for reserve and National Guard organizations.

Film Censor Law Ousted

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court today struck down the New York State movie censorship law as unconstitutional.

The ruling set aside a ban on the film "Lady Chatterley's Lover."

All nine justices agreed in holding that the ban was improper.

However, four justices said the court moved too swiftly in striking down the New York law. They were Justices Harlan, Whittaker, Clark and Frankfurter.

Justice Stewart delivered the court's main opinion.

Speaking of the New York law, Stewart said what New York has done is to prevent the exhibition of a motion picture because that picture "advocates an idea—that adultery under certain circumstances may be proper behavior. Yet the First Amendment's basic guarantee is of freedom to advocate ideas. The state, quite simply, has thus struck at the very heart of constitutionally protected liberties."

Water Usage Shows Decline

Big Springers used less water over the weekend this year than in 1958. A total of 13,684,000 gallons poured through city faucets Friday, Saturday and Sunday as compared with 18,910,000 gallons last year.

Friday, the total was 3,870,000 gallons. It was 5,138,000 gallons in 1958. Saturday, the total increased to 5,084,000 gallons, but it was 7,633,000 gallons in 1958. Sunday, it dipped to 4,730,000 gallons, still less than in 1958 when 6,139,000 gallons were used.

Bag Warnings

NEW YORK (AP)—Plastic bag warnings go out to 70,000 New Yorkers this week. They are being sent along with all city relief checks at the request of the Health Department. A number of children have succumbed by accidentally covering their faces with plastic bags or sheeting.

Child Drowns

WINDER, Ga. (AP)—A Baytown, Tex., child wandered to an abandoned dock last night and drowned near here. He was Mark McElhannon, 3, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. McElhannon.

Gas Blast Death Toll Rises To 19

Laredo Rites For Victim Of Car Accident

Services for Billy Marvin Hanson, 23, S.C., who was fatally injured in a highway crash near Laredo on Saturday morning, will be held at 10 a. m. Tuesday in the River Chapel.

Officiating will be the Rev. Roy O'Brien, who served as pastor of the Bethel Baptist Church where Mr. Hanson had been a member, and the Rev. Darrell Robinson, who is now its pastor and who was reared with the crash victim. Burial will be in the City Cemetery.

The fatal collision occurred 24 miles east of Laredo on highway 59 at 10 a. m. Saturday and Billy Marvin died two hours later in the Laredo AFB Hospital, George Terk, 19, who was with him, was hurt critically, and DeMetrio Berna, Laredo, driver of the other car, was killed.

Billy Marvin was born in Big Spring on Jan. 22, 1936 and was a graduate of Big Spring High School. He had been in the United States Navy for the past four years, serving aboard the USS Hancock and since November 1958 at Chase Field near Beville.

Surviving him are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hanson, Big Spring; a sister, Mrs. Charles Hale, Big Spring; his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Davis, Gorman; and grandfather, W. A. Wallace, Big Spring.

SWITCH FROM SWITCHBOARD

HONOLULU (AP) — After 32 years of service, the last male telephone operator in the Hawaiian Islands has hung up the receiver.

Tokuichi Sugawa, 60, had been an operator on the neighboring island of Kauai for the Hawaiian Telephone Co.

When he started there were only 500 telephones on Kauai and now there are 7,000.

In the early days, Sugawa said, "I could recognize the voice of nearly everyone who called."

Excise Tax Action Is Due Today

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress acts today on a compromise corporation-excise tax extension bill to avert a three-billion-dollar drop in tax revenues for the next year.

The House acts first and the Senate must follow quickly if present tax rates are to be continued beyond Tuesday midnight.

It was the sixth time that Congress has been called on to continue increased tax rates voted initially in 1951 to finance the Korean fighting.

The bill extends for another year the Korean wartime 52 percent income tax rate on corporation profits. It postpones a scheduled drop to 47 percent.

It also continues for a year Korean excise, or sales, tax rates on automobiles, auto parts and accessories, cigarettes, liquor, wine and beer.

A compromise of Senate-House differences, the bill was not popular with senators who voted last week to add other tax features. Failure to extend it entirely or watered down to token size by a Senate-House conference committee.

Knocked out were Senate-passed provisions for repeal of the 4 percent stock dividend credit allowed stockholders on dividend income over $50, and authority for payment of 142 million dollars of additional welfare grants to the states.

Retained in sharply modified form were Senate provisions affecting the 10 percent taxes on communications and passenger tickets.

But working against a deadline little more than 24 hours off, Congress had almost no time in which to haggle over revising the bill.

Failure to extend it entirely would mean a tax loss to the government of an estimated $3,138,000,000 a year. Even the loss entailed by a short delay could have serious effect on the administration's 1960 budget. The corporation tax rates could be made retroactive, but the excise taxes could not because they are imposed on purchases.

The compromise provides for repeal of the 10 percent tax on local phone calls effective June 30, 1960, unless Congress later decides otherwise.

The bill also provides for reducing the tax on rail, bus and airplane tickets from 10 percent to 5 percent—also not effective until June 30, 1960, and again provided Congress does not vote to postpone it further.

River Bathers Trapped By Flames

By PERRY MULLEN
 MELDRIM, Ga. (AP) — Rescue teams renewed dragging operations in the Ogeechee River today searching for more victims of a freak butane gas explosion that already apparently has claimed 19 lives. Many other persons were burned, at least 10 critically.

The blast occurred about 3:30 Sunday afternoon. Two railroad tanker cars spewed flaming death on some 175 fun-seekers in a recreation area beneath a 30-foot river trestle which the Seaboard Air Line train was crossing.

No one could say whether all bodies had been recovered, but Coroner Harold M. Smith said reports that dozens were unaccounted for were greatly overdrawn.

Smith said at the time he had accounted for 17 dead.

Since then two children died of burns in a Savannah hospital. They were listed as Wayne Smith, 3, and Terry Lane, 9.

A complete casualty list was not available but 14 dead have been identified. Some bodies were so badly burned that identification was difficult.

The railroad said the explosion of one butane tanker set off a second loaded with 10,000 gallons of the cooking and heating fuel. Two trainmen were injured in the blast and the pileup of freight cars near the end of the long train.

CAUGHT IN WATER
 The blast turned the Ogeechee River bank into blackened ruins several hundred yards from the trestle. It caught some of the victims in the water, others on the bank. Children seared by the flames floundered in the river or ran screaming from the spot.

A second but lesser explosion came after rescuers reached the scene near this East Georgia town about 18 miles northwest of Savannah.

Most of the 124 cars in the freight train had cleared the 30-foot high trestle before the crash at 3:30 p. m. None fell in the water, but several piled up on the bank and burned through the night. Some of the cars were telescoped. Flat cars dangled from a 75-foot long break at the end of the 250-yard span.

First reports said the journal on one of the cars apparently broke. Some observers thought the trestle gave way.

Sparks caused by the wreck may have ignited the gas, turning the area into an inferno, or the escaping gas may have been ignited by a riverbank campfire.

BIG BOOM
 "The explosion came over the water with a big boom, and after that you could hear children screaming and yelling," David Parker, one of the injured, said. "It was awful after it happened not to be able to save the children, but there was just nothing to do."

The scene of the explosion is five miles or more from a paved highway, and about two miles from Meldrim. The area is reached by a bumpy, dusty one-lane road which is little more than a logging trail.

The freight was en route from Montgomery, Ala., to Savannah.

Witnesses said several cars started tumbling off the trestle and gas began shooting out of a tank car. Butane is transported under pressure as a liquid, but becomes a vapor when exposed to the atmosphere.

Survivors said the gas spread like a ground fog over the river, then flashed into flame with a tremendous explosion. This ignited a second car loaded with 10,000 gallons of butane. The impact of the double explosion wrecked several cars on the banks.

SCREAMING MASS
 Within seconds the area became a screaming mass of humanity. Sobbing fathers searched for their families. Injured persons yelled with pain as they struggled to escape the fire in woods along the bank.

George Hodges Jr., 21, of near Meldrim said "the train made a funny bump, bump sound when it came across the trestle and I stopped swimming and looked at it. Then some of the cars fell into the water and we began to get scared."

"When I saw the gas coming out of a tank car I grabbed my wife and ran. We heard the explosion, but we didn't look back until we got safely back in the woods."

"When we looked back we saw a great sheet of fire sweeping over the water and into the woods. It burned everything it touched. When it first went off it sounded just like a bomb. We went back and tried to help some of the people who weren't killed. They were all burned, charred black. It was horrible."

L. M. Nichols, 33, of West Savannah, saw the accident in time to save his wife and three daughters. "When I saw the gas leak out it looked just like a white ground fog," he said. "I thought at first it might be poison and I got my wife and kids out of there. Then the explosion came and the whole river seemed to be burning."

ROAD JAMMED
 Curious spectators jammed U. S. 30 which led to the disaster scene. Ambulances were unable to plow through the traffic jam. Helicopters from surrounding air bases were pressed into service, carrying the injured to Savannah.

Railroad officials said their preliminary investigation indicated that none of the cars jumped the track until after the explosions.

The Savannah Morning News said a journal on a car near the end of the train apparently broke, sending several box cars and a butane tanker off the trestle.

Sheriff Bill Harris backed up this theory. He said the explosion may have been caused by a hot box which ignited the butane.

Harris said complete identification of the dead could not be expected before Tuesday.

J. T. Harvey, who lives near Meldrim, a hamlet of 300, said if the explosions had come a quarter of a mile up or down the tracks probably no one would have been injured, except possibly some of the trainmen.

The force of the blasts and fire destroyed a house a city block away and left the area around the trestle a mass of gray ashes.

J. B. Beasley, a Savannah carpenter, grabbed his two sons, Ronald, 9, and Raymond, 14, from the water when the cars fell from the trestle. They escaped unhurt. Beasley suffered burns on both arms, legs and back.

Robert W. Morris of Meldrim, one of the first on the scene, said "Some of the people never made it out of the water. And some that did got as far as 500 yards away before the fire overtook them. I never saw so much fire. Everything was on fire."

Services Held For Wreck Victim, Big Spring Native

Funeral services were conducted Sunday afternoon in Andrews for Billy Joe Ayers, 30, former Big Spring resident, who died at the wheel of a newly purchased sports car in a mishap which occurred about three miles northwest of Lubbock about 2 a. m. Saturday.

Billy Joe was a resident of Lubbock at the time but was preparing to move back to Andrews.

Larry Myers, who was riding with Ayers, was admitted to the West Texas Hospital in Lubbock but was released later Saturday.

Friends of Ayers in Lubbock told investigating police that Billy Joe's wife of six months was left behind when her husband decided to demonstrate his Austin-Healey open sports car he had purchased Friday to Myers.

The car overturned on a curve on a country road.

Myers was thrown clear of the overturned car, then walked approximately two miles to summon help while in a state of shock.

Ayers' body was pinned beneath the car. He was pronounced dead at the scene.

Billy Joe, born in Big Spring, was a former employee of Hemphill-Wells in Lubbock and was working for Hibbett Hosiery Company. He attended Texas Tech during the spring.

Ayers and his wife had just returned from a trip to Ruidoso, N. M., where they had purchased the sports car.

Survivors, in addition to his wife, Lou Beth, include a son by a former marriage, Denton Leroy, 8, of Edwardsville, Ill., his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ayres of Andrews; his paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Ayres, Big Spring; and a maternal grandmother, Mrs. Roger of Eastland.

331st Commander To Leave July 1st

Lt. Col. Richard C. Watson, commander of the 331st Fighter-Interceptor Squadron for 45 months, will leave Webb on July 1 for a post at Malstrom AFB, at Great Falls, Mont.

From Ada, Okla., the colonel is a graduate of East Central State College, Ada, and has over 17 years of active military service. During World War II he saw action in North Africa, Sicily and Italy.

Col. Watson made several trips to this area last year before his squadron moved to Webb in August from Stewart AFB, Newburgh, N. Y.

His family arrived in Big Spring

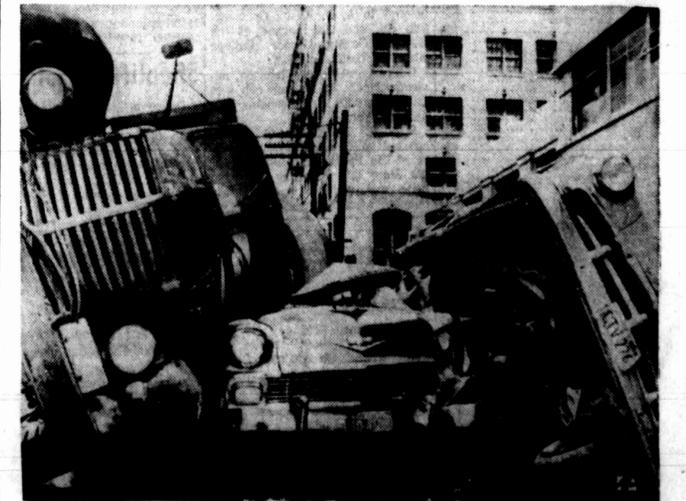

Aug. 13, taking up residence at 1907 Morrison Dr. Mrs. Watson, a native of Hillsboro, Ill., spent her first time in Texas while her husband, a little over a decade ago, was stationed in Abilene. The couple have two sons, Don, 9, and Kenny, 6.

Kenny was born in Tokyo, Japan, while Col. Watson was stationed with the Far East Air Forces. Don's birth certificate shows him to be a native of Long Beach, Calif. The Watsons returned to the United States in mid-1954, after spending three interesting years in Japan.

The new commander of the 331st FIS has not yet been named.

TO NEW POST ON JULY 1
 ... Lt. Col. Richard Watson

Cosden Filed For Potential On Outpost Fusselman Well

Cosden Petroleum Corporation filed Monday for completion on its No. 1 J. L. Whitmore, an outpost to the Big Spring Fusselman field. The venture rated 142 barrels of oil and 18 barrels of gas per day on a 24-hour pumping test.

In northern Martin County, two drillstem tests in the Ellenburger on the Pan American No. 1 Broadwell failed to return any shows. Midwest No. 1 Jones rated 69.09 barrels of oil and 54 of water on a pumping potential. Two other Borden tests which had been dually completed in the Strawn and Ellenburger plugged off the Ellenburger section.

Borden
Santiago Oil & Gas No. 1 Clayton & Johnson, C SE NE 13-30-5N, T&P, 6 1/2 miles northeast of Gall and three miles south of the Rafter Cross field, drilled to 5,249 in lime.

Midwest Oil Co. No. 1 Jones, 467 from the north and 1,980 from the west lines of section 468-97, H&TC, 18 miles northeast of Gall, was bottomed at 8,315. It had an initial production of 69.09 barrels of oil per day with 54 barrels of gas based on a 24-hour pumping test. Gas-oil ratio was 716-1, the perforations from 7,750-69. Operator washed with 500 gallons of acid.

Midwest No. 1 Milliken, completed in 1958 in the Strawn and Ellenburger, has plugged off the Ellenburger. Similarly, Midwest No. 1 Hummicut, in the W. Myrtle Ellenburger field, plugged off the Ellenburger and was producing solely from the Strawn.

A. A. Cameron No. 1 Johnson, C NE SE, 4-32-5N, T&P, 10 miles northwest of Gall, was at 9,595 in lime and chert.

Dawson
Texas Crude, et al 1-20 Clay, C SE SE Labor 20-266, Kent CSL, 2 1/2 miles west of the Forest No. 1 Harris, a Fusselman discovery, drilled at 12,110 in lime and shale.

Standard Oil No. 1 Richards, C NE NE, 35-35-5N, T&P, five miles southeast of Lamesa, was at 3,445 in anhydrite and gas.

Garza
Southern Union Gas. No. 1 Elton Nance, 1,980 from the north and west lines of section 50-6, H&GN, 8 miles southwest of Justinburg, was plugged and abandoned at total depth of 8,158.

Sinclair No. 1 Stoker, 1,980 from the north and east lines of section 35-5, GH&H, six miles southeast of Post, was at 7,664 in lime. Texas RFO Inc. No. 1 Guy Price, 330 from the north and east lines of section 1116, TTRR, 13 miles north of Post, was bottomed at 4,570. It will plug and abandon.

U. S. Smelting, Refining and Mining No. 1 Lora Sims, 1,980 from the south and 660 from the east lines of section 7-2, T&NO, continued testing but no gauges were reported. It has been testing the 8,164-77 zone.

U. S. Smelting No. 1-A Sims set the 9 1/2-inch casing at 2,103 feet and waiting on cement to set.

Glasscock
U. S. Smelting No. 1-41 TSL, C SW SW, 41-34-3S, T&P, 4 1/2 miles northwest of Garden City, was moving in rotary to spud.

Standard Oil No. 1 Viola Sherz, C NE NE, 35-34-5S, T&P, 16 miles south of Garden City and eight miles east of the Sprabery Trend area, was at 9,945 in lime. Top of the Strawn was 9,600.

Howard
Ralph Lowe No. 2 Puckett, 660 from the south and 990 from the east lines of section 27-32-2N, T&P, was at 7,526 in lime.

Cosden Petroleum No. 1 J. L. Whitmore, 660 from the north and east lines of section 37-32-1N, T&P, four miles east of Big Spring, had a potential of 142 barrels of 42-gravity oil per day, plus 18 barrels of water in 24 hours pumping. Gas-oil ratio was 907-1, and production was from 9,452-54 perforations in the Fusselman.

In the Big Spring Fusselman Field, Texas & Pacific Oil staked location for its No. 2 D. W. Christian, 1,980 from the south and east lines of section 48-32-2N, T&P, eight miles northeast of Big Spring. It is on a 920-acre lease and will go to 10,000.

Williamson No. 1 Walker, 1,990 from the south and 660 from the east lines of section 24-32-1N, T&P, was at 2,285 in anhydrite and salt.

Martin
Pan-American No. 1-C Breedlove, 667 from the south and 665 from the west lines of labor 99-237, Briscoe CSL, was at 13,090 in dolomite. It took a drillstem test in the Ellenburger from 12,920-65 with 3,000-feet of nitrogen blanket. The tool was open 1 hour and there was no blow. Recovery was 210 feet of drilling mud with no shows of oil, gas or water. Flowing pressure was 1,025-1,110 and the 15-minute shutin pressure was 710. Another drillstem test was taken from 12,921-990 with a similar water blanket. Tool was open 3 hours and recovery was 200 feet of water cut mud, 3,400 feet of formation water and no shows. The 15-minute shutin pressure was 5,980, the flowing pressure 1,620-2,520.

Stirling
J. C. Williamson No. 1 Ray, 660 from the south and 1,000 from the east lines of section 2-3-5E, T&P, 14 miles west of Sterling City, penetrated to 6,835 in shale.

Commission Has Day Of No Worries
The Howard County Commissioners Court may have made news of a different sort Monday. During the morning the court had not one citizen or delegation before it — and that was something different. Usually there are several complaints, petitions, inquiries or other pleas before the court when it convenes. There were no bills even before the commissioners, which was another unusual respite.

Shoplifter Held
Police officers arrested a man Sunday morning and charged him with theft under $5. The arrest was made in connection with a shoplifting incident at Alexander's Grocery. Officers found the man in the 300 block of Northwest Third.

Summer Cub Scout Field Day Attracts 150 Boys
The summer field day for Cub Scouts drew about 150 to the Scout Round Up grounds Saturday for contests, a campfire and an over-night outing for dads and boys.

In the running broad jump Mitch Stallard (Pack 45) was first, followed by Donald Gross (43) and Buck Thompson (10). The 50-yard dash was won by Ronnie Gross, followed by Mitch Stallard and David Wyatt (137). The 25-yard sack race was taken by Mike Duke (45), trailed by Ronnie Gross and Johnny Johansen (48).

Mitch Stallard won the ball throwing contest, and Johnny Johansen and Wayne Norman (63) were next. The 200-yard relay was won by Pack 48, with 63 and 138 following. The Centipede race was taken by Pack 138. Pack 1 also was a participant.

After the games the group played capture the flag and then took in a campfire program at which Arlen Bryant, Richard Holmes, Richard Combs, Ross Reagan, Wiley Woodward and Jake Glickman gave Indian Dances. Arlen also taught the Cubs an Indian dance step. Jimmy Vermer led the singing and Louis Jean Thompson told an Indian story and taught the boys an Indian song.

New Building For C-C Bank

COLORADO CITY — Charley Thompson, president of the City National Bank, announced Saturday that a contract to build a new bank building had been let to J. W. Neson of San Angelo.

The contract figure was $258,570, and work at the building site at Third and Elm is to begin immediately, Thompson said, with a nine months completion date.

The new building will have customer parking, two drive-in teller windows and nine inside windows for the transaction of banking business.

The law firm of Thompson and Williams is to have office space in the bank, and there will be a community room for the use of local organizations and a coffee bar for employees and others.

The building will contain three vaults, one for records, one for money and one for safety deposit boxes.

Airport Area Paving Pushed

Work on paving streets in the Airport area west of town continued Monday.

Walter Parks, county engineer, said that several alleys were being cleared where possible. Over the years some of the alleys have been used as dumping areas and clearing them is slow, tedious and sometimes impossible.

Easements are being prepared for extension of the paving on Lover's Lane (Eleventh Place) from FM-700 east to the county road which was the old U. S. 80. This will cover a distance of about two miles.

A road of similar length from U. S. 80 southward to the Sinclair Canal also is about ready for signing of easements.

City To Close Deal For Land

The City of Big Spring will finalize the purchase of a half block late Tuesday across the street from the city owned filter plant.

A. K. Steinheimer, city manager, said the city would pay $10,000 to Cecil Thixton for the south half of Block 1, May Thixton Subdivision. The land will be used for future expansion of the filter plant, Steinheimer explained.

It is located at 16th and Virginia.

Deadline For Wheat July 1

July 1 is the deadline for applying for a new growers wheat allotment.

Gabe Hammack, county ASC administrator, reminded those who plan to grow wheat for harvest of more than 15 acres will have to file prior to Wednesday.

There is no restriction on the amount of wheat which may be planted for grazing, but no more than 15 acres may be left for harvest without an allotment.

The ASC staff has been occupied chiefly with compliance measurements. Until the past week agents had measured 151 fields at a cost of $5.14 per farm. Hammack said that he had 12 agents working, but some were farmers who had been able to put in only part time due to their own pressing farm problems. There is no time table on the measurement, however, and Hammack said it would be worked out without difficulty.

WEATHER
NORTH CENTRAL, NORTHWEST, and SOUTHWEST TEXAS — Partly cloudy and warm through Tuesday with widely scattered afternoon and nighttime thunderstorms.

5-DAY FORECAST
WEST TEXAS: Temperatures 1-4 degrees above normal. Minimums 28-76; maximums 84-95. No important day to day changes. Precipitation light to moderate in widely scattered thunderstorms.

WHERE CARS GO

Traffic Survey Is Planned For City

A traffic survey of Big Spring will be conducted in the next few weeks in connection with the master plan program, according to Marvin Springer, city planner working for the city.

Springer is in Big Spring today discussing various phases of the city's planning with local and area developers.

He explained that about 10 percent of the city's residences would be contacted in the traffic survey. This will give the planners a controlled selected sample basis for determining the traffic patterns of the city, Springer explained.

The survey will be made by interviewers who will ask residents how many persons live in the home and how many cars and trucks they own. The number of trips made on a specified day will also be asked.

Further information will be requested regarding the destination and nature of each car trip, Springer said.

Quimby said that if each owner will promptly advise the chamber of commerce when a tenant is obtained it will enable the organization to keep its rental listings current and accurate.

Quimby said that a number of such applicants have returned to the chamber of commerce with the report that many of the addresses given them have already been rented.

IF you have goods to sell or offer services you should be advertising in The Herald.

Every day, more than 9,000 homes receive the daily newspaper and look forward to shopping the advertising columns.

This is because to most people, advertising is news, it tells them what is being offered for sale, at what price and where.

It is there to be read and re-read again at leisure. Your advertising messages in The Herald deliver more "ready-to-buy" customers than any other medium in Big Spring.

Call AM 4-4331 now and ask to have a Herald representative outline a program of result-getting advertising for your business.

Bristow-Shaw Nuptials Held In Ackerly Church

In a Sunday afternoon ceremony at Ackerly Baptist Church, wedding vows of Patsy Jean Bristow and Roosevelt Shaw were solemnized.

The Rev. J. D. Mabry, pastor, performed the double ring service before an arch of greenery. White cathedral tapers and twin baskets of gladioli and fern outlined the altar setting.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Bristow, Ackerly. She recently received her diploma from Ackerly High School. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. W. S. Shaw of Knott and the late Mr. Shaw. A graduate of Knott High School, he is employed by Gandy Creamery.

With Mrs. Bill Hambrick at the piano, Mrs. Fred Phillips sang "Because and Whither Thou Goest, proceeding in the exchange of vows. Given in marriage by her father, the bride was gowned in satin styled with princess lines. Her face was framed by a decollete neckline. The long skirt achieved fullness at the back from a narrow group of pleats. The fitted lace bolero was cut with long sleeves ending in points over the wrists, and stand-up collar. From an open bandeau descended her veil of tulle. Showers of potted satin extended from her bouquet of Japette orchids and Frenched white carnations, mingled with hand-styled satin leaves and seed-pearl hearts.

ORIGINAL GOWN
Her mother had made her wedding gown, which was the something new; the old item was the gold wedding band of her late maternal grandmother. A blue garter made by Mrs. Curtis White, earrings borrowed from her sister and pennies bearing the birth years of the couple fulfilled bridal tradition.

Mrs. Woody Caffey of Stanton, wearing orchid, attended her sister as matron of honor. Linda Bristow, dressed in apricot, was maid of honor. The bridesmaid, Peggy Ingram, was in mint green. Their dresses of silk organza over taffeta boasted full skirts, cinched with taffeta cummerbunds, and fitted bodices cut with scoop neckline and kimono sleeves. Each carried long-stemmed red roses.

Wristlets of pink carnations accented the dresses of the altar tapers, Janie Kunkel, who was in blue, and Jeannine Cauble, who wore pink.

Woody Caffey, served as best man. Jimmie and Wayne Bristow, brothers of the bride, seated the guests. Groomsmen were Delano and Franklin Shaw, triplet brothers of the bridegroom.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Bristow chose a dress of

NCO Club Draws 78 To Sunday Series Of Events

Seventy-eight guests enjoyed a Sunday evening of entertainment at the NCO Club. The wives opened the period with a coffee honoring newcomer airmen second class and NCO's and their wives.

The group was greeted by Mrs. Harold Dietrich and Mrs. Robert Wells, with Mrs. Henry Graves sitting at the register. Pink underlay the lace cloth, which was a foil for a centerpiece of pink roses ringed with feathered flowers. Green and pink candles completed the decor. Mrs. B. Dayton presided at the coffee service, while Mrs. Lee Vaughn poured punch.

Following the buffet supper, guests danced to the music of the Hi-Fi Combo.

blue lace over taffeta, with a pink carnation corsage. White carnations were pinned to Mrs. Shaw's frock of pink linen, jacketed with lace.

Following the ceremony, guests gathered in the church parlor to be received by the newlyweds, their parents and attendants. The bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Dick Tobias of Odessa, was at the register.

RECEPTION
The bridal bouquet and those of her attendants clustered at the center of the table, which held white cutwork linen over pink. Pink rosebuds studded the three-tiered cake which was crowned with bride and groom in miniature.

Numerous out-of-towners attended the event. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. E. Burn Hull and Mrs. J. E. Peugh of Knott, sister of the bridegroom, formed the houseparty.

The grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Bennett, Cedar Ridge, and Mr. and Mrs. James T. Farquhar, Circle Dr.

Post-Nuptial Party Fetes Mrs. Lane

Several friends collaborated to host a wedding shower Friday evening at the home of Mrs. W. P. Hughes. The event was in honor of Mrs. Kenneth Ray Lane, the former Sue Beth Coleman.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Coleman, 201 S. Monticello, and Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Lane, 1307 Barnes, are parents of the couple who repeated vows June 7.

Mrs. J. E. Walker, Mrs. Zarah LeFevre, Mrs. B. D. Pounds, Mrs. Marvin Ferguson, Mrs. A. A. Cooper and Mrs. Vernon Baird, joined with Mrs. J. C. McWhorter, Mrs. Roy Bennett, Mrs. J. C. Pierce, Mrs. Jack Cook and Mrs. Hughes in the compliment.

The all-white table, highlighted with shasta daisies, was appointed in crystal and silver. About 40 called during the party hours. The honoree chose white accessories with her yellow cotton frock, fashioned with fitted basque and bouffant skirt. Her corsage, a remembrance of the hostesses, was of white carnations.

Girls Want Husband Who Will Spend Time At Home

COLUMBIA, Mo. (AP) — What do today's young women want in a husband?

"Men who will stay at home, help with the children and go on picnics," says Margaret Mead, anthropologist and author.

"The young women of today feel it's all right for a man to starve himself for art or to pursue some hazardous undertaking, but it's not all right for him to starve his wife and children."

"Wives don't want husbands so interested in a job that they play second fiddle to work."

Miss Mead, author of "And Keep Your Powder Dry" and other books, is a staff member of the Menninger Clinic and Foundation at Topeka, Kan. She visited Columbia as a consultant in the planning of a $2,500,000 construction project at Stephens College.

"Girls marry boys who will take the safe, easy job with tenure and fringe benefits," she says. "In the world we will have to face for another 50 years, that's not enough."

"It doesn't leave room for people to make exciting advances in science, art or exploration."

Miss Mead says a young woman's choice of a husband is influenced by her education. She says the younger generation's addiction to security can be attributed to their parents, who found precious little of it during the depression and World War II.

HOLLYWOOD BEAUTY

This Beauty Worked To Gain More Weight

By LYDIA LANE
HOLLYWOOD — Most beauty contest winners who receive studio screen tests get only one-year contracts and their options are seldom picked up. But Myrna Hansen, who has had a studio contract for four years, is an exception. Before she was chosen Miss U.S.A., she was so sure she wouldn't win that she had registered at college to major in animal husbandry.

"I thought the studio was going to release me, but when I substituted for Mamie Van Doren in a little theater skit at the studio I won a new contract because of my performance," Myrna said.

"When you decide to become an actress, there is so much to learn," she confessed. "You start to think of yourself as a piece of merchandise, and you analyze all things about yourself — from the way you talk to what you can or can't wear. I had to lose a Chicago twang."

"You've done a good job. There is not a trace left."

"I worked hard," Myrna admitted. "I read aloud and tried to listen to myself. Then when I talked my ears picked up what I was doing wrongly. The most difficult problem is not sounding affected with my new speech."

When Myrna was signed at MGM, she was told she'd have to gain 10 pounds to portray the corn-fed girl in "Raintree County."

"I had such fun putting it on," she grinned. "I had waffles with melted butter, syrup and sausage every morning for breakfast. And I had all the rich desserts with whipped cream I could eat."

But when we got on location, we had long shooting hours and I began to lose weight. The cameraman complained, and you know, I found it difficult to gain. I simply stuffed myself to keep at 135."

"How did you lose?" I asked.

"I went on a blitz diet. I lost six pounds the first week and five the second. But then I got into the spirit of dieting and took off 20 pounds altogether. Now I weigh 10 pounds less than when I started to gain."

"It's very becoming," I exclaimed.

"And I feel well," Myrna revealed. "After all, 115 isn't too little for my height. I'm five-six."

After Conference

Louisiana Governor Earl K. Long prepares to close the door of a motel room at Covington, La., where he held a press conference after his release from a state mental institution. At right is state senator B. B. Rayburn, a Long supporter. Long told newsmen he planned to rest for several days.

Long Ends Rest, Begins Campaign

WINNFIELD, La. (AP) — Gov. K. Long, refreshed after a week-end at his beloved "Pea Patch Farm," headed across state to Covington today to place himself under a team of psychiatrists.

Long is also extending his political purge, divorcing his wife, planning a special session of the Legislature and starting his campaign for re-election.

"I'm going to get a divorce just as fast as I can," he said of his wife, who twice committed him for psychiatric treatment. Mrs. Long has left the state.

Long plans to remain at Covington until Friday night. Then he will go to Baton Rouge for the first time since his commitment to Southeast Louisiana State (mental) Hospital at Mandeville on June 18.

The 63-year-old governor discussed his plans Sunday in a 15-minute news conference on the back porch of the frame farm house his estranged wife, Blanche, calls "Earl's shack."

The governor, clad in pajamas and a bathrobe, did most of the talking. Only about two or three questions were asked before the governor's advisors and psychiatrist, Dr. Paul Pratt, decided the conference had lasted long enough.

The governor told newsmen he had been considering a divorce from his wife for some time.

"I would have got a divorce a long time ago if I hadn't been in politics," the governor said. "Without causing any scandal and no trouble I'm going to get a divorce just as fast as I can."

He plans a cleanup in the state Welfare Department.

"If what I heard about Mrs. Dickerson (Mary Evelyn Dickerson Parker, director of welfare) is true, she's a bum director."

If he can, he is going to get rid of Theo Cargelosi, chairman of the Louisiana State University Board of Supervisors and long-time friend and legal advisor of the governor.

"He doublecrossed me," Long said, "representing both me and my wife."

He did not go into detail on the special legislative session, but definitely said there would be one.

Long predicted he would be elected governor for the fourth time in the Democratic primary next December. He said he would get 60 per cent of the vote as against 51 per cent he got last time.

"If any man in Louisiana is qualified to talk about politics, it's me," Long emphasized.

Crash Takes Its 5th Victim

AUSTIN (AP)—A head-on automobile crash near here last Wednesday took its fifth victim yesterday.

Janie Bertling, 13, Marble Falls, died in an Austin hospital. Two other children injured in the crash, Hal Ray Wall, 11, and Sherry Wall, 13, remained in critical condition here.

NEW YORK (AP) — Steel industry contract negotiations are recessed until Wednesday. A strike deadline has been postponed for two weeks, until midnight July 14.

President Eisenhower's intervention Saturday paved the way for the postponement. The strike had been scheduled for Tuesday night, barring a sudden settlement, which nobody expected.

David J. McDonald, head of the United Steelworkers, scheduled meetings today with his 33-man executive board and 171-member international wage policy committee. Both sessions were expected to be routine.

The industry position against granting any labor cost increases still stands. This was made clear in a statement by R. Conrad Cooper, chief industry negotiator, and by Thomas Patton, president of Republic Steel Corp.

Patton said on a nationwide television broadcast Sunday night that his firm is unwilling to grant any labor cost increases without compensating price increases. Asked about record 1959 profit reports, Patton said the long-range expectation is what must be considered.

McDonald called Cooper's re-statement of concern over inflation "a rehash of the same old mishmash." The union is insisting on sizable gains in wages and other worker benefits. Steelworkers now earn an average $3.10 an hour.

Union Head Agrees

David J. McDonald, president of the steelworkers union, at a news conference in New York City, announced he would resume contract negotiations with the industry's regular bargaining team. McDonald, who declined further sessions last week, said he would walk out again if the industry continues to refuse to grant worker contract gains.

By TOMMY HART

Burley Polk, the Stanton footballer who made good at Hardin-Simmons, is getting ready for the pro training grind in ROTC camp at Fort Hood. He'll spend six weeks there, after which it will be time to report to the pros. It'll be Lieutenant Polk after the training period. He gets his commission at the end of that time.

After 30 home games, the attendance for the Milwaukee Braves was off 28.2 per cent from last year. That means 221,856 fewer-paying customers watched the Braves at home than for the same period a year ago. Judging off that, the Braves will draw around 1,551,000 this year. The honeymoon is definitely over.

Wahoo McDaniel, the Midland football great who will play for the University of Oklahoma again this fall recently underwent eye surgery in Oklahoma City. Had a growth on his left optic.

Phil George, the San Angelo College basketball coach, had hoped to have a 6-foot-7 1/2 inch Negro boy in his lineup next season but the young man decided the Army offered more security.

Walter Hagan, one of the old-time golfing greats, says a lazy linkster could never make a good player.

In other words, you've got to work a lot, and sweat a lot, to improve your game.

An army of men play often, many every day, but they never work hard at improving their weaknesses. Instead, they'd rather practice the shots they do best.

Buddy Travis, HCG's new basketball mentor and head of a family of five, found his brood a house recently and moved in it this weekend.

He now plans to concentrate on seeing as many boys as he can, including those already signed by the departing coach, Harold Davis. The two tall boys Davis signed, Bill Edwards of Joshua and Kennedee's Charley Knotts, both assured Davis they would be here shortly before Harold pulled out for El Paso.

Ted Battles, the Midland scribe, says the Midland coaches are very worried about their football opponent with Lamesa, although the game is still nearly two months removed.

The Midland people have every right to adopt that solemn outlook.

Lamesa will not only get the jump on the Bulldogs in fall drills but O. W. Follis' team reportedly will be loaded this fall. If any team wears the District 3-AAA championship away from Sweetwater, it is apt to be the Tornados.

Big Spring's footballers can consider themselves lucky they catch the Tornados well into the season.

Battles quoted Harold King, the Midland coaching aide, as favoring an early start in fall drills for AAAA schools, rather than spring training.

"You can bring a team along more slowly and concentrate on conditioning by starting early in the fall," King stated. "Then you still have sufficient time to polish up your attack and new staff before you have to play a game."

Be that as it may, the Midland officials went along with the rest of the 2-AAAA schools and halted against the abolition of spring drills when the proposal came up for a vote earlier this year.

CHAMP, EX-TITLIST STILL IN RUNNING

Defending titlist R. H. Weaver and former titlist James Lee Underwood remained in the running for the Fourth of July Golf tournament championship at the Big Spring Country Club after quarter-final matches had been completed Sunday.

Tournament play will be suspended until Saturday (July 4) while finals are on tap in all divisions Sunday.

Weaver vanquished Bill Cheek in his second round match, 1 up. His semi-final opponent will be Tom Hutto, who fanned out W. E. Ramsey yesterday, 2 and 1.

Underwood's quarterfinal win was over Son Powell. James Lee's margin of victory was 3 and 2. He will play rough and ready R. S. (Red) McCullah in the semi-finals Saturday.

McCullah took care of Bert McAllen Sunday by a score of 1 up 20 holes.

McCullah won the 20th with a one-over par five after McAllen's third shot sailed out of bounds.

Red was four up at the turn but lost three holes in a row after the turn. On the 18th, McAllen pulled even when McCullah lost a ball—he reasoned it rolled down a gopher hole.

McCullah won four of the first five holes and seemed well on his way to a rout but McAllen settled down to play some respectable golf.

Underwood was three up at the turn in his match with Powell, although he soared to a nine on the fourth hole. At that point, he hit two balls out of bounds.

On the first nine, James Lee won the first, third and fourth holes, lost five and six, then won eight and nine.

On the second nine, Underwood won ten, Powell 13 and Underwood 14.

Tom South was the handicap phase of the tournament with a net score of 142 for 36 holes.

Three men tied for second place, each one stroke off the pace. They were Carl Benson, Charles Sweeney and Dr. Arch Carson.

Venturi Makes Odd Parlay Pay Off With Links Win

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN Associated Press Sports Writer

CHICAGO (AP)—Ken Venturi made one of the oddest parlays in golf pay off for victory in the $37,000 Chicago Open.

He credited his garden in Daly City, Calif., a suburb of San Francisco, and the wind at Glenageary Country Club with helping bring him the $9,000 first award Sunday.

In repeating for the tournament's crown, Venturi drilled shots through the gusty wind for a closing 66 and a 74-er-par total of 273. He made up five shots on Johnny Pott of Shreveport, the leader through the first three rounds, who closed with a 72 and tour assured for registering out of Odessa although he is a native of Oklahoma and maintains his home there, is one of those who did not like it when Gene Sarazen remarked for publication recently that Ben Hogan is the greatest of champions playing as a champion ship through.

"What is Sarazen an expert about, anyway, besides outmoded knickers?" Winingar asked, rather acidly.

274 for runnerup swag of $4,600. Venturi, who inserted the Los Angeles Open triumph between his 1958 Chicago Open and this one for his only victories in a year is a perfectionist.

"I had 25 putts on the last round in beating out Pott," said the 28-year-old erstwhile auto salesman. "It was the greatest putting day I've ever had."

"During the last year I've been growing various types of grass used on greens and studying them. That garden helped me a lot in learning the various grains of the grasses and their effect on putts."

"Another thing, I've learned through experience how to play in the wind. I started learning when I blew up in the 1956 Masters where the wind made it absolutely miserable for me. The percentage was with me when it was windy for the final round at Glenageary and I set 65 as a target score I would have to shoot to win."

Charles Coady is Angelo Champion

SAN ANGELO (SC)—Charles Coady of Stamford and TCU won the San Angelo Invitational Golf tournament title with a last round 69.

Coady wound up with a 73-hole medal score of 277. Dickie Cannon of San Angelo, who had been tied with Coady after 54 holes, soared to a 77 the final day but succeeded in winning second place with a 285. He beat out Colorado City's Frank Mackey by a stroke.

Mackey had a last day 75. Bobby Wright of Big Spring's lone entry in the championship flight, withdrew after the third day. He had fired a 77 on Saturday.

Bernard Rains of Big Spring, relegated to the President's Flight after the second day, had a four-day total score of 314. Don Massengale of Jacksboro won that division with an even 300. Rains fashioned a 78 Sunday.

BS Legion Loses To Odessa, 6-5

Odessa went a long way toward clinching championship honors in the District 6 American Legion Junior baseball race by thumping Big Spring at Steer Park here Sunday afternoon, 6-5.

The local team outthit the Odessans, 7-5, but committed eight errors.

Odessa scored what proved to be the winning run on a couple of misplays in the sixth. Jernigan of the opposition drove out four hits in as many official trips to the plate.

James Ingram was the winning pitcher while the loss was charged to Jay LeFevre.

Los Angeles Leans On Lefty Hurlers

By JOE REICHLER Associated Press Sports Writer

Sweden's Ingemar Johansson won the world heavyweight boxing title by unleashing a murderous right hand.

Los Angeles Dodgers are hoping to win the National League baseball championship with left hands belonging to southpaw pitchers Johnny Podres, Sandy Koufax and Danny McDevitt.

Thanks to these three left-handers, the Dodgers foundry are in second place, only a game behind the league-leading Milwaukee Braves, and riding a seven-game winning streak. The trio has won five of the seven games, including the last three.

Sunday it was McDevitt's turn as the Dodgers thumped the Pittsburgh Pirates for the third straight day, 9-4. Milwaukee protected its lead with a 2-1 squeaker over Chicago. Third-place San Francisco whipped Philadelphia 6-0 and the St. Louis Cardinals outslugged the Cincinnati Reds in a doubleheader, 9-7 and 11-8.

The Dodgers inflicted the 10th defeat upon three-time winner Bob Friend, pounding out 11 hits, including home runs by Gil Hodges, Don Demeter and Charlie Neal. McDevitt got his fourth straight victory and seventh of the season although he needed help from ace Don Drysdale in the ninth.

Eddie Mathews' 23rd home run and Del Crandall's scoring single after first baseman Dale Long had dropped his foul popup were enough for Juan Pizarro to register his first triumph for Milwaukee.

Johnny Logan, Braves' shortstop, was lost to the team for 10 days when he was spiked on the right ankle, requiring 20 stitches. Johnny Antonelli allowed seven hits and struck out six in registering his 11th triumph for the Giants, Willie Kirkland and Orlando Cepeda drove in two runs each.

Jackie Brandt hit a home run, and contributed two fine catches in left field. Richie Ashburn, the 1938 batting champion, ruined three Philadelphia threats by hitting into double plays in the first, fifth and seventh innings.

A total of 18 pitchers were batted for 53 runs and 35 hits in the Cards' sweep of Cincinnati. Six home runs were hit, four by the Reds, Cincinnati's Pete Wise-nant hit two, both in the first game, when the Reds nearly overcame an 8-2 deficit.

St. Louis also nearly dissipated a big lead in the second game. The Cards built up a 9-0 lead for Dick Ricketts but the rookie right-hander was knocked out in the seventh when Cincinnati tallied eight times.

Jerry Lynch got five hits in the two games for the Reds and Don Blasingame, Joe Cunningham and Dick Gray got four hits each for the Redbirds. The Reds lost catcher Ed Bailey for a week or so with a split finger.

Titus Harris Wins HOUSTON (AP)—Titus Harris Jr. and Ed Buckley, both of Houston, wrapped up titles yesterday in the Texas State and Open Skeet Championships.

Early Wynn and Dick Donovan pitched the White Sox to their two triumphs over the Yankees. Wynn went the distance, spacing nine hits in the opener for his 11th victory of the year and the 260th of his career. The Sox supported him with a four-homer barrage against Whitey Ford and Jim Coates. The four-baggers were hit by Al Smith, Sherm Lollar, Earl Bailey and Bubba Philip.

Lollar also hit a home run in the second game, a three-run blast off loser Don Larsen in the first inning. That was sufficient for Donovan to register his fifth victory although he needed help from Turk Lown in the ninth.

Sunday also has been a big day for Charlie Maxwell of Detroit. The left-handed hitting outfielder clubbed his 16th home run with a man on base in the third inning. It was the ninth time Maxwell has homered on Sunday and it helped the Tigers overcome an early Baltimore lead.

Harmon Killebrew and Jim Lemon batted in three runs apiece for Washington as Russ Kemmerer went all the way for his fifth victory.

Painters Grab Pair Of Wins

SAN ANGELO (SC)—Nabors Paint Store swept both ends of a double header from Corner Drug of San Angelo here Saturday night, 4-0 and 5-1.

Spec Franklin tossed the victory in the opener, setting the home one down with a mere two hits.

One of those was a double by Phil Russell, who also hit a home run in the five-inning second game. Franklin fanned ten.

John Rowatt was the losing pitcher in the opening game while Jim Clatterback accepted the defeat in the second go.

Billy Paul Thomas clubbed a first inning triple with the bases loaded for Big Spring in the opener. Franklin and Ralph Murphee had doubles for the Painters.

Cotton Mize was on the hill for Big Spring in the afterpiece. He yielded only three blows and struck out five.

Nabors plays Tarzan Mercantile in Grady Tuesday night. The Painters now have an 11-1 won-lost record, having lost only to Webb.

James R. Hoffa twists his mouth as he answers questions at a hearing before the Senate Rackets Committee in Washington. The Teamsters Union president said he believed it proper to use union funds to defend one of his subordinates in a trial for allegedly diverting union funds to bribe a judge.

Fourth Salk Shot Recommended

WASHINGTON (AP) — A fourth dose of Salk polio vaccine was officially recommended Saturday for all persons who completed the basic three shots a year or more ago.

Surgeon Gen. Leroy E. Burney of the Public Health Service made public, with his endorsement, a recommendation to that effect from a special committee of advisors he had asked to review the Salk vaccine situation.

There was no reference in the announcement to live polio vaccines, which thus far have not been approved by the service for general use in the United States. Burney said he expected to issue a statement on live vaccines in a day or two.

West Germany Pushes Ahead With Plans For Berlin Vote

BERLIN (AP)—West Germany pushed ahead today with plans for a presidential election in isolated Berlin despite Soviet warnings such a move will be viewed as a provocative act.

Officials remained alert as Communist East German officials said they would look at the election 110 miles behind the Iron Curtain with "great seriousness." But there was no expectation of any real trouble when the Electoral College meets Wednesday.

The U. S. State Department brushed aside Soviet notes to the Western Big Three protesting the holding of the election in West Berlin. Officials in Washington termed the notes a new effort to meddle in Germany's internal affairs.

The Soviet note to the United States said the Soviet Union considered holding the elections in Berlin "a new attempt to use the current abnormal situation in the city in order to inflame even more the situation in Germany."

State Department press officer Lincoln White said the decision to hold the election in Berlin "merely represents a continuation of a tradition begun with the presidential election in Berlin in July 1954." That election was held in Berlin without Red protest.

Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko declared in Moscow that holding the election in Berlin was another example of an effort to create tension.

The Soviet Union and East Germany insist West Berlin is a part of East Germany. The State Department holds that the Red-girdled city is "held in trust by the principal Allied powers as the capital of a reunited Germany."

The 1,038-member Electoral College will choose a successor to 75-year-old President Theodor Heuss, who is ineligible to run for a third five-year term. Chancellor Konrad Adenauer is backing Heinrich Lübke, agriculture minister in his government and a member of his Christian Democratic party. He is opposed to Carlo Schmidt, Socialist, and Max Becker, free Democrat.

The Western Allies and the Soviets meanwhile continued preparations to resume the foreign ministers' conference on Berlin July 13.

British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd was expected to contact the U. S., French and West-German foreign ministers this week on a British plan to redraft Western proposals on Berlin in an attempt to break the East-West deadlock and pave the way for a summit meeting.

Prime Minister Harold Macmillan was reported convinced that enough had transpired before the foreign ministers' talks recessed in Geneva nine days ago to justify a summit parley.

Soviet Deputy Premier In U. S. For Culture Show

NEW YORK (AP) — Soviet First Deputy Premier Frol R. Kozlov arrived Sunday to preside at the opening of the Soviet cultural and scientific exhibition.

President Eisenhower flew here today to pay a short visit to the exhibition and to meet with Kozlov briefly. Vice President Nixon is already here to take part in the opening ceremonies at the New York Coliseum.

The show opens to the public Tuesday. The affable, gray-haired Kozlov—called the No. 3 man in the Kremlin—will go to Washington Tuesday to talk with Eisenhower and Secretary of State Christian A. Herter.

Kozlov arrived in the world's biggest airliner, a Soviet prop-jet TU114, which set a record for flying time between New York and Moscow.

It was the first nonstop flight between the two cities. The flying time was 11 hours and 6 minutes for the 5,062-mile trip. That's an average speed of 460 miles an hour.

Kozlov is a square-faced man of 50, with a ready smile and a loud voice. He smiled often and made several jokes after his arrival. During a three-hour boat ride around Manhattan, the view of the skyline prompted him to say "those who created this city certainly chose a very good site."

He chatted amiably with two pretty American models on the trip. They will display fashions later at the American exhibition in Moscow. Smilingly Kozlov told one of them: "I hope you like Moscow but you'd better not keep saying 'da.'" ("da" means "yes" in Russian).

New York's Mayor Robert F. Wagner greeted Kozlov as he stepped aboard the boat.

Kozlov's two-week visit to the United States is expected to include visits to San Francisco, Detroit and Pittsburgh.

Kozlov was noncommittal in his comments. He said that the fact that the Soviet Union was opening an exhibition here and the United States was opening one in Moscow "is a great achievement and a step forward toward the improvement of relations between our countries."

He also remarked on the record flight from Moscow, saying the distance between the two countries was being shortened by technical advances, and "opportunities for reciprocal meetings have expanded."

Democrats Hail Hawaiian Victory

HONOLULU (AP)—Democrats jubilantly claimed today their heavy vote in Hawaii's primary means victory for them in the islands' first state elections next month.

They contended that the big Democratic vote was the forerunner of a sweep that would send three of their fold to Congress and elect a Democratic governor and Legislature.

Republicans were quick to answer that GOP candidates ran unopposed in the nominating primary Saturday while Democrats engaged in vote-drawing contests. They said the Democratic outpouring was expected.

Some GOP leaders nevertheless conceded that the party would be the underdog in the Aloha State's first election July 28.

Both parties turned to campaigning in the wake of the primary and a simultaneous statehood plebiscite in which Hawaiians voted approval of statehood by a whopping 17 to 1 margin.

The 132,938 yes votes so dwarfed the 7,854 votes against statehood that it exceeded even the most optimistic predictions.

The primary voting produced three candidates of Japanese or Chinese ancestry out of the six nominated for Hawaii's two Senate seats and one in the House of Representatives. At least one of the trio appears certain to go to Congress.

Democrats nominated Frank F. Fasi, 38, and former Hawaii governor Oren E. Long, 70, for the Senate.

Fasi, a territorial senator, scored a major upset by beating Chinese-American William H. Heen, 78, who had served 32 years in the territorial Senate and had come out retirement to seek the nomination.

Fasi polled 46,868 votes to 31,307 for Heen.

Hiram L. Fong, 52, a wealthy businessman of Chinese descent, ran unopposed for the Republican nomination and drew 42,396 votes. He will oppose Fasi for one Senate seat.

Long registered 61,625 votes to overwhelm two Democratic aspirants in the nominating contest. His Republican opponent for the other Senate seat will be Japanese American Wilfred C. Tsukiyama, 62, veteran territorial senator who garnered 40,700 votes running unopposed in the primary.

For Hawaii's lone House seat, Democrats nominated territorial Senator Daniel K. Inouye, 34, a decorated war veteran and lawyer who lost an arm serving with the famed "go for broke" al-Nisei regimental combat team in World War II.

Inouye received 50,787 votes to outdistance another Japanese American, Mrs. Patsy Takemoto Mink, 31, who trailed with 21,802. Inouye will be opposed by Republican Charles H. Silva, Hawaii Department of Institutions director, who collected 38,515 votes running unopposed for the Republican nomination.

The Democratic camp drew much of its optimism from the showing of John A. Burns, delegate to Congress, in winning the party nomination for governor. Burns, 50, amassed 69,152 votes to 7,828 for Edward J. Hitchcock. His vote total was well ahead of the 49,431 received by Eisenhower-appointed Governor William F. Quinn running unopposed for the Republican nomination.

Fake Kidnapers Face Justice

AMARILLO, Tex. (AP)—Three airmen who caused authorities all sorts of trouble by faking a kidnaping may learn today what disciplinary action they face.

City police, sheriff's officers, highway patrolmen and 40 Air Force police fanned out Saturday night in a search for a getaway car.

Maj. Theodore Newnam, provost marshal, identified the Amarillo Air Force Base trio as Airman Charles J. Moore, 20, Tucson, Ariz.; Clarence Marcuarela, 22, Matagorda, Tex., and Raymond L. Watson Jr., 26, Nashville, Tenn. Watson played the victim as the others forced his hands behind his back and took him from the base service club into a car outside.

An airman who witnessed the incident supplied a description of the trio and the car.

Arrested at their barracks, the men admitted the prank but gave no reason for it, Maj. Newnam said.

Violence Rolls Up Grisly Texas Toll

By The Associated Press
Violence rolled up a grisly toll of at least 33 Texans last weekend. Traffic took at least 11 lives and six shooting deaths were reported.

Deaths for the period beginning at 6 p.m. Friday and ending at midnight Sunday included these in West Texas:

Terry Lynn Cole, 5 months, was injured fatally in the crash of a car driven by her mother—Mrs. Edgar Cole—at Odessa Saturday night.

Billy Marvin Hanson, 23, and George W. Terk, 19, sailors stationed at Chase Field in Beville, and Demetrio Bernal, 38, Laredo, died in a two-car collision east of Laredo Saturday.

The head-on collision of a pickup truck and a car killed Marvin D. Kirkland, 24, Wichita Falls, and injured seven persons near Archer City Saturday.

Bill Ayres, 30, Lubbock, died Saturday when his sports car overturned.

Hanson and Ayres were Big Spring natives.

Antonio Campusano, 24, and Francisca Romero, 14, both of El Paso, were found shot to death in a parked car south of Fabens.

Walter Beeb, 38, of Grandfalls, was found shot to death Saturday in his home.

Officers said a train accident apparently caused the death Friday or Saturday of John Ira Sigler, 4, Blackwell, Okla. His body was found along the railroad tracks 21 miles west of Odessa.

Panel Lists 3 Steps To Put Lid On Inflation

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Cabinet committee has reported to President Eisenhower that Congress must take three immediate steps to control inflation. The committee, headed by Vice President Richard M. Nixon and made up mostly of Cabinet members, said in its first report that the country's economy is at a critical juncture. Congress it said, must take these minimum actions promptly: 1. "Make it clear that the federal government intends to use all appropriate means to protect the buying power of the dollar," and recognize "reasonable price stability as an explicit goal of federal economic policy." 2. Balance the budget by refraining from going beyond the expenditures provided in the President's budget, both this year and in the years to come; and reduce the national debt. 3. Remove the interest ceiling on government bonds. Otherwise the Treasury will have to issue short-term bonds "equivalent to money." There is very little difference between this and "just cranking up the printing presses and rolling out greenbacks," the report said. Signers of the interim report, in addition to Nixon, were Secretary of the Treasury Robert B. Anderson; Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield; Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson; Secretary of Commerce Lewis L. Brown; U.S. Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell; Raymond J. Saulnier, chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisors; and W. Allen Wallis, special assistant to the President.

In New York the play also enjoyed success. Osborne followed this up with "The Entertainer." Sir Laurence Olivier actually asked to play the role of Archie Rice in the play. This was followed by "Epitaph for George Dillon" and finally, "The World of Paul Slickey." In the three years since "Look Back" Osborne became a relatively rich man with a beautiful actress wife, Mary Ure. He lives in luxurious rooms and drives a long, sleek sports car. In his plays, money-making is one of his most destructive habits his character can acquire. But he's making it so fast that he has five companies. "Of course I enjoy money," he says. "Anyone who says he doesn't is a fool." Osborne says he's tired of being called an angry young man. "They're just sitting around waiting for me to become corrupt. They even criticize me for wearing better clothes than when I was penniless."

Lubbock Plans Bracero Moves

MEXICO CITY (AP) — A delegation from Lubbock County, Texas, began planning their strategy today in an attempt to have a ban on contracting Mexican farm workers lifted. The Mexican government last week blacklisted the country for contracting new braceros after the report that a Lubbock beauty shop refused service to two women employees of the Mexican consulate there. The Lubbock group arrived here last night. They are George Pfeifferberger, president of the Plains Cotton Growers; Francisco Gonzalez, director of the South Plains Lions Club; Clayton Enger, president of the Lubbock County Farm Bureau; John Lowrey, director of the Lubbock Lions Club; and Russell Barr, a prominent farmer. A report from Lubbock said the group plans to confer with foreign office officials. One of the group said today, however, their exact procedure has not been worked out. "We want to get a few doors open first," he said. He referred to the Lubbock situation as unusual but said he could not explain that further at this time. Vice President Thomas Jefferson put it this way on April 7, 1960: "It is more material that there should be a rule to go by than what that rule is." Speaker Frederick H. Gillett summed it up in these words on April 3, 1922: "It is extremely important that precedents should be followed." "Cannon's Procedure," together with "House Rules and Manual," and some 19 thick volumes of "Precedents," make up "The Book" by which the House operates. They date back to March 4, 1789, when the first Congress met and Speaker Frederick A. C. Muhlenberg of Pennsylvania established the precedents. The tens of thousands of pages contain the answer to just about every situation that may confront a speaker. The job of finding the precedent belongs to Lewis Deschler, parliamentarian of the House, Deschler or an assistant sits alongside the presiding officer at all times. They can scent a knotty problem in the making and never fail to have a formal ruling ready, with ample precedent to back it up. It's a rarity for anyone to question a formal ruling by the speaker. In the past few decades, "The Book" records that only one speaker made a mistake, and several years later the House decided it was not a mistake after all. Nicholas Longworth of Ohio was the speaker involved. He made a ruling which the House didn't like and he was overruled on an appeal. Several years later, the same problem arose and Longworth reluctantly ruled in accord with the earlier House decision. Then the House decided its earlier decision was wrong and Longworth had been right all along. It overruled his second decision and upheld his original position.

Clyde Barron Rites Monday

Funeral services for Clyde G. Barron, 49, former resident of Big Spring, were conducted at 4 p.m. today in River Funeral Home. Burial was in Trinity Memorial Park. Barron died on Sunday in a Midland hospital. His home was in Jal, N. M., where he was an employee of the Static Collar Oil Co. He was born in Gorman, Jan. 30, 1910. He had been ill 11 days. Survivors include his wife, Elvira and one daughter, Mrs. Joyce McMurray, both of Jal, four brothers; Tony Barron, Big Spring; Henry Barron, San Angelo; Ruben Lee Barron, Odessa; Joe Edward Barron, Coahoma; three sisters Mrs. Fannie Mae Nunn, Coahoma; Mrs. Alene Gregg, Coahoma; Mrs. Bessie Myrtle Swindle, Dallas. There are two grandchildren.

Wayne Is Grandpa

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Actor John Wayne is a grandfather for the second time, a 7-pound 5-ounce girl, named Alicia Marie, was born Saturday to the actor's son, Michael, and the former's Gretchen Diebel.

Too! Too! Bang! A miniature train, puffing at 10 miles per hour, ran smack into a convertible stalled on the tracks in a Fort Worth park. None of the 96 persons aboard was hurt. The train began operation 10 days ago on what is billed as the world's longest miniature railroad line.

'The Book' Never Wrong, Solons Say

WASHINGTON (AP) — Speakers of the House of Representatives, like umpires in a baseball game, never make mistakes. They go strictly by "The Book" and "The Book" is never wrong. Any errors it might contain have become virtues through petition. "The Book" quotes many famous personages to support the theory that speakers of the House should stick by their predecessors' decisions, right or wrong. On the flyleaf of "Cannon's Procedure," one of a series of publications that constitute "The Book" is this exchange from "The Merchant of Venice": "Bassanio: And I beseech you—wrest once the law to your authority; to do a great right, do a little wrong." "Portia: It must not be. 'Twill be recorded for a precedent, and many an error by the same example will rush into the state." Or, as Speaker Champ Clark stated it on January 8, 1916: "It is better to have some kind of a rule, than no rule at all." Vice President Thomas Jefferson put it this way on April 7, 1800: "It is more material that there should be a rule to go by than what that rule is." Speaker Frederick H. Gillett summed it up in these words on April 3, 1922: "It is extremely important that precedents should be followed." "Cannon's Procedure," together with "House Rules and Manual," and some 19 thick volumes of "Precedents," make up "The Book" by which the House operates. They date back to March 4, 1789, when the first Congress met and Speaker Frederick A. C. Muhlenberg of Pennsylvania established the precedents. The tens of thousands of pages contain the answer to just about every situation that may confront a speaker. The job of finding the precedent belongs to Lewis Deschler, parliamentarian of the House, Deschler or an assistant sits alongside the presiding officer at all times. They can scent a knotty problem in the making and never fail to have a formal ruling ready, with ample precedent to back it up. It's a rarity for anyone to question a formal ruling by the speaker. # Martin County Caravan Plans Visit On July 1

Martin County Diamond Jubilee Inc., sponsoring agency for the celebration of that county's 75th birthday, is sending a good will caravan to Big Spring on July 1. Bill Quimby, manager of the Big Spring Chamber of Commerce, has been advised that the caravan will reach Big Spring at noon. It will parade through the city and come to a halt on east side of the Howard County Court House. The delegation will be met west of town by members of the Big Spring police department and provided with an escort through the business district. Quimby said that he did not know the luncheon plans for the 60 Martin County persons who will be in the caravan. Purpose of the visit is to publicize the Martin County Diamond Jubilee celebration which is to be presented July 12 through July 18.

Bible Class Fund Over $1,900 Mark

Two more contributions pushed the high school Bible Class fund over the $1,900 mark Monday. The Adult III Sunday School Department of the Baptist Temple made an offering of $116 for the fund, and from the Century Class of the First Presbyterian Church came a $20 gift. These pushed to $1,873.65 the amount of cash raised in the appeal for support of the fund. Another $45 has been pledged over course of the next school year, making a potential of $1,918.65.

Queen Receives Biggest Reception

At nearby Stratford, the Shakespearean Festival group gives a command performance of "As You Like It" for the royal couple. More than 6,000 people overflowed a temporary grandstand erected on the pier where the royal yacht Britannia tied up. Several thousand others were standing around a huge enclosure. In the harbor, hundreds of boats, large and small, were lined up. Flags and streamers fluttered from masts and rigging. As the Britannia approached, she blew three deep-throated blasts and the harbor became a bedlam of noise as the warm craft responded. It was a small sunshiny morning. After a reception on the usual red carpet on the dock, the Queen and her husband, Prince Philip, set out on a tightly knit program that will not end until 10 p.m. Tuesday as the Queen breaks the routine of formal ceremonies for two of her favorite diversions, horse racing and the theater. Canada's top racing event, the Queen's Plate, will be run here with the Queen and Philip watching. At nearby Stratford, the Shakespearean Festival group gives a command performance of "As You Like It" for the royal couple. The couple went ashore for two hours Sunday at Kingston and attended services at the United Church in the late afternoon. It was the first time the Queen had attended religious services other than Anglican on Canadian soil. Canada's United Church was formed in 1925 in a merger of Methodists, Presbyterians and Congregationalists. The Rev. Richard H. N. Davidson preached an 11-minute sermon. He prayed for guidance for the royal couple and the strength for them to carry out their "heavy duties." He also offered a prayer for Elizabeth's two children, Prince Charles and Princess Anne. He noted that the Queen and President Eisenhower had dedicated the St. Lawrence Seaway Friday and that she saw part of the gigantic St. Lawrence power project Saturday. The preacher said man's works are futile and useless unless employed for the betterment of all mankind.

Speed-Up Ahead For Korean Vets Under GI Program

Some Korea veterans, in night school or in part-time training under the Korean GI Bill, may have to start accelerating their courses if they want to finish up by the termination date of their GI training benefits. Ray Boren, contact representative at the Big Spring Veterans Administration Hospital, pointed out that a veteran's GI termination date is eight years from the date of his discharge, but in no event can he take GI training beyond Jan. 31, 1965. Veterans may not be paid GI educational allowance after their termination dates have passed, Boren said. He explained that a veteran discharged in 1952 faces a termination date next year, in 1960. For a veteran discharged in 1953, his termination date would come sometime in 1961. Boren suggested that veterans check their own individual termination dates. If the date is hard upon them, he added, they may want to accelerate their courses by taking additional subjects or going to summer school. CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

4 Unhurt In Plane Crash

ABILENE (AP)—Three Colorado residents and a California man escaped injury yesterday when a light plane crash-landed near here.

The single-engine aircraft suffered heavy damage.

The pilot, Floyd Rodenbeck, Center, Colo., said the plane ran out of gas. Passengers were Francis Rodenbeck of Fullerton, Calif., brother of the pilot, and Mr. and Mrs. Ken Leach of Center.

Hunt For Missing Airmen Is Spurred

WIESBADEN, Germany (AP)—Discovery of a marker trail pointing north over the Libyan Desert has spurred the search for the remains of nine crewmen of a U. S. bomber which crashed in World War II.

The trail was found by a U. S. Army mortar team which has searched across some 200 square miles of sand in the past three weeks. The team's next objective was the remains of about 10 persons several miles beyond the end of the trail.

The search was launched after a team of British geologists found the almost undamaged B24 Liberator on hard-packed sand. The bomber, identified as the "Lady Be Good" from Bengasi, apparently had made an unmanned belly landing on its return from a bombing raid against Naples, Italy, April 3, 1943.

The logbook recounting the flight, flight gear, fatigue clothing and full water jugs were in their original places inside the plane. It was believed the plane was damaged in the raid and the crew parachuted into the desert, then perished in an attempt to walk to civilization.

The mortar team found the marker trail about 20 miles north of the plane. It ran another 24 miles northward, ending at a crossing of old desert tracks.

The trail was made of boots, parachutes and other flight equipment weighted down with small stones and pointing carefully north. After more than 16 years in the hot, dry Libyan Desert, the gear was virtually intact.

The tracks at the crossing were made by five Italian vehicles which tried to cross the desert during the war. Three were abandoned and two made it to the coast.

Reports from Bengasi said the remains of about 10 persons lie near the abandoned vehicles. It had been assumed they were Italian soldiers, but the mortar crew said they could be the American bomber crewmen who are still carried on U. S. records as missing in action.

"It is possible, the team theorizes, that the missing airmen—by conserving their energies and walking only at night—could have followed the route (of the Italian cars) until they reached the abandoned vehicles where last hope faded," an Air Force official said.

NEA Calls Again For Education Aid

By G. K. HODENFIELD
AP Education Writer

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The National Education Assn. today renewed its demand for a massive program of federal aid to education. It said failure to finance adequate schooling is "a tragedy for the under-educated, a menace to the society, and an incongruity in the world's richest nation."

A statement issued by the Education Policies Commission of the NEA and the American Assn. of School Administrators said ignorance and poverty go hand-in-hand. This is a national problem, it said, because ignorance and poverty cannot be quarantined.

It said Americans are spending just over 10 1/2 billion dollars annually to operate public schools. Quality education requires more than 18 billion dollars a year, the statement said, adding that the average expenditure per pupil should be raised from $310 a year to a minimum of $540.

The 18 billion dollars recommended, the commission said, does not include reducing the present shortage of school facilities and classrooms, and takes no account of school enrollment, which is increasing by one million pupils per year.

Many states and the local communities do not have the resources to finance adequate education, the commission said.

It said that Mississippi, for instance, in 1955 spent only $132 per pupil. But that figure represented a greater effort on the part of Mississippi than did New York's expenditure of $365 that year, the commission said.

It said the extra money should go toward hiring more teachers and increasing teacher's salaries. Higher salaries in industry, it said, are luring many potential teachers into other fields.

The commission said the federal government is the only tax collecting agency able to raise the money needed for quality education.

The NEA Sunday announced plans for a long-range study of the nation's educational needs and problems.

Dr. Ruth A. Stout, NEA president, said the study would deal with every facet of education. Some $50,000 has been set aside for the first year of the study, which is expected to take three or four years to complete.

Rain Falls In Gulf Area

By The Associated Press

Light rain fell on the Palacios area of the Gulf Coast Monday as cloudy skies made showers possible for much of the rest of the state.

Only the lower Texas coast and sections of West and Northwest Texas reported clear skies.

The weather picture developed after a cool front moved into the Panhandle Sunday, then faded.

Forecasts call for partly cloudy weather with occasional showers in East and Central Texas and isolated thunderstorms in the rest of the state through Tuesday.

Precipitation should be light in most places if it comes at all, the Weather Bureau said.

The only rainfall report for Sunday came from Van Horn, where .68 inch fell. Scattered thunder-showers were reported over the Panhandle, South Plains, Pecos Valley and mountain sections Sunday night.

Sunday's high temperature was 109 at Presidio on the Rio Grande. Wink had 105 and Laredo and Lubbock 100. Corpus Christi and Beeville's 88s were the low maximums.

DEAR ABBY

NEEDS A DOCTOR

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I'm afraid there is something wrong with my husband. He thinks everybody is trying to put something over on him. He holds up traffic on a toll bridge counting his change three and four times and you know those boys never try to cheat you. He makes everybody give him a receipt for as little as a dime. He spends hours adding up his bills looking for an error (he has never found any) and his suspicious nature is driving me crazy. He never was like this, Abby. It all started about a year ago. Is there anything I can do about it?

WORRIED
DEAR WORRIED: Get your husband to a doctor! When a person begins to imagine that everyone is trying to "put something over on him"—eventually someone does: A butterfly act.

DEAR ABBY: Can a person be in love with two people at the same time? I think I am. I am 20 years old, Abby, and am considered a smart girl, but this has me baffled. I fell in love with Bob No. One during my freshman year at college. Last summer I met Bob No. Two, and we fell in love with each other at first sight. I still love Bob No. One when I am with him, but the minute I see Bob No. Two I feel that I love him, also. Each wants me to stop seeing the other but I can't make up my mind which Bob I love more. I think I love them both. Is this possible?

IN LOVE WITH TWO BOBS
DEAR IN: You've got Bob fever.

DEAR ABBY: I am a decent wife and mother but my sister's husband makes passes at me like I was a stray dog or something. I have told him to cut it out, but I never made a scene because I want to keep down trouble. Must I tell my sister or my husband or should I crack his head open for him?

A LADY
DEAR LADY: If your brother-in-law insists on ignoring your warnings—tell your husband.

DEAR ABBY: Our daughter is three years old and is left-handed. My husband contends that a left-handed person is handicapped living in a right-handed world. He is overly concerned about this situation and thinks we should try to train her to use her right hand exclusively. I feel that by attempting such a thing we might make her nervous and create other problems—such as stuttering. She is a happy and well-adjusted child. I say leave well enough alone.

RIGHT-HANDED
DEAR RIGHT: I agree with you.

CONFIDENTIAL TO J. L.: It is better to love a short man than never to have loved a tall one. Reconsider.

To get ABBY'S booklet, "What Every Teen-ager Wants To Know," send 25 cents and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope to ABBY in care of The Big Spring Herald.

Desert Burial Had Too Many Witnesses

ACTON, Calif. (AP) —The wife of a retired gardener saw a man stop his car near her ranch home on this lonely stretch of desert "where nothing ever happens."

"I went into the house and got my binoculars," Martha Schulze said Sunday. "I saw him bury something, but I didn't know what it was."

"Let's go up and see what he buried," Mrs. Schulze told her husband, Charles, 76.

"No," he said, "let's go shopping first. What's buried there will stay there."

When they returned from a shopping trip to nearby Palmdale, Mrs. Schulze and a neighbor walked to the spot and dug up a woman's purse and shoes. Then Mrs. Schulze called police.

The purse belonged to Ina Huebner Mosher, 38, who five months ago married Gerald Mosher, an oil field worker.

Police found Mosher, 43, asleep in a hotel room in San Fernando, a suburb of Los Angeles. Officers said Mosher told them, between sobs, that he had strangled his wife Saturday in a fit of jealousy.

Mosher told police he loaded his wife's body in his car and drove aimlessly for several hours. Then he stopped near Mrs. Schulze's home and buried the purse and shoes.

"I didn't know what I was doing," Mosher told police. Then, they said, he led them to his wife's body, dumped from the car along a private road near San Fernando.

Louis Armstrong Leaves Hospital

SPOLETO, Italy (AP) —Trumpeter Louis Armstrong was discharged from Spoleto Hospital today, pronounced recovered from a severe attack of pneumonia.

The famed jazz musician left for Rome, telling hospital attendants he planned to do some sight-seeing. Physicians warned him to take it easy.

Armstrong was stricken last Tuesday, shortly after he arrived here to take part in the Festival of Two Worlds.

Dr. Alexander Schiff, Armstrong's personal physician, said the musician and his wife would remain in Rome until Thursday, then fly to New York.

Armstrong said he wanted to get back to America in time for his birthday. He will be 59 July 4.

It's so much faster to FLY!

Body Discovered In Houston Park

HOUSTON (AP) — A couple strolling through a city park early yesterday found the mutilated body of a 10-year-old girl, apparently strangled by a costume jewelry chain twisted about her neck.

Authorities said the Negro child, Mattie Louise Mitchell, had been raped. Her parents reported her missing the evening before.
