

Enrollment holding steady

BEAUTIFUL SIGHT—Here's how the water looked a mile north of the Flagg intersection after last Wednesday night's heavy rain. Water covered the bar-ditch from this mile field to the edge of the Farm Road 1055 pavement, and stood in the adjoining open field. Elsewhere in the Flagg community, the morning sun's rays reflected from beads of water still glistening on plants and from pools standing in flat fields and furrows. Rainfall in the community ranged from 1 1/2 to 2 1/2 inches, with most other parts of the county receiving at least half an inch also. It was the biggest rain in almost a year.

Enrollment in Dimmitt Public Schools Monday was exactly the same as it was on the third day of school last year — 1,832.

THE enrollment figure came as a mild surprise to school officials, who expected an overall increase.

However, Supt. Charlie White said the daily enrollment figures will continue to climb during the next two weeks and should hit a peak in October.

The largest class in Dimmitt's school system is the second grade, with 214 pupils. Smallest is the Dimmitt High School sophomore class with 99.

As of Monday, South Elementary School had 163 first graders, 217 second graders, 164 in the third grade and 156 in the fourth. In addition, the school had 58 students in its Head Start classes and 17 in its pre-school migrant program. Overall, South Elementary's enrollment is still below last year's.

North Elementary School reported 145 in the fifth grade and 135 in the sixth — a few less; overall, than the same day last year.

Dimmitt Junior High School showed a slight increase, with 161 in the seventh grade and 121 in the eighth.

Dimmitt High School had almost 50 more students Monday than on the third day last year, with 142 new freshmen coming in to replace the 90 seniors who graduated last May. DHS has 99 sophomores, 126 juniors and 100 seniors enrolled so far.

Dimmitt schools had 28 students enrolled in its special education classes on the first day of school.

Pioneer seeks gas rate hike

Pioneer Natural Gas Co. last Wednesday applied to city officials of Dimmitt, Hart and the 54 other cities on its West Texas system for a rate increase of at least 16.2 percent.

THE UTILITY'S request is for a hike in the general service rate it charges for gas delivered to both domestic and commercial customers in the 56 cities of the West Texas System.

Pioneer requested a 19.4 percent rate increase, but informed city officials it would accept a hike of 16.2 percent if the cities accepted the increase within the 60-day period provided by law.

Dimmitt's and Hart's city commissions are both studying the application, and neither has made any public comment about the request.

IN ANNOUNCING the rate request, K. B. Watson, executive vice-president of Pioneer, said, "With the rising costs the company has sustained, it is in immediate need of additional revenue. To avoid any further delay and expense, an increase of 16.2 percent would be acceptable although a rate increase of 19.4 percent would yield less than a 7-percent return on the fair value of the company's investment."

He added, "As an indication of the problem, the company was forced to pay an interest rate of 9 1/2 percent on its recent borrowing of $20 million."

The Texas Railroad Commission earlier had raised the "proper charge" for gas at the edge of the cities from 28 cents to 32 cents, effective last July 1. This "gate rate" adjustment, however, did not change the customer's burner-tip rate within the city.

The company said that either of the proposed rate increases would still keep the consumer cost of gas on its West Texas system "considerably below the state average for domestic and commercial use."

Neighbor scares prowlers away

A prowling incident was reported Monday night in West Dimmitt.

Mrs. A. T. Kirby, 407 Frost St., said two prowlers were spotted at her home late Monday night. A neighbor turned on her front-yard floodlight and scared the duo away, she said.

Mrs. Kirby's neighbor said the prowlers appeared to be teenagers. She theorized that they may have been looking for a car with keys in it.

Crops best in years after welcome rains

Grins on farmers' faces were as bright as the clean, sparkling after nighttime rains had drenched the thirsty fields with up to 2 1/2 inches of welcome moisture.

MANY elated farm operators were able to shut down their ir-

S. H. Lewis, 60, discovered dead in home at Flagg

Samuel Henry Lewis, 60, a farmer-rancher in Castro County since 1934, was found dead in his home in the Flagg community by neighbors last Thursday morning.

T. E. Harrison, coroner, ruled that Mr. Lewis had died of natural causes.

MR. LEWIS, a bachelor, apparently died sometime last Wednesday. Neighbors reported seeing him at work on his Flagg farm that day.

Born in Cleveland, Tenn., on March 14, 1910, Mr. Lewis had farmed and ranched in Castro County 36 years.

Funeral services were held at 10 a.m. Saturday in Dennis Memorial Chapel, conducted by Dr. Raymond Perkins, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Dimmitt. Burial followed in Castro Memorial Gardens, directed by Dennis Funeral Home.

PALLBEARERS were Thurlo Branscum, Felix Branscum, George Blanton, Fred Kuntz, Delton Tischler and J. B. Dyer.

Mr. Lewis is survived by two brothers, Tom of Dimmitt and Jim of Cohutta, Ga.; and a sister, Mrs. W. M. Cross of Cleveland, Tenn.

rigation wells as water stood in the fields and filled the drainage ditches in the southern part of the county.

The heaviest rainfall totals were recorded in the Flagg area. Danny Bruton's rain gauge showed 2.50 inches, Dale Winders received 2.0, Flagg Fertilizer 1.9, and Rex Wooten 1.5.

Rains in the 1 1/2-inch range also were reported in Sunnyside and the stormclouds dropped half an inch or more over the rest of the county.

IT WAS just what most crops in the county needed.

The rain caused only a two-day interruption in the county's $6 million vegetable harvest and in the cutting of a bumper crop of ensilage corn for local feedlots.

The moisture was made-to-order for the county's lush fields of cotton, milo, corn and soybeans, and also helped the land where winter wheat will soon be planted.

LAST Wednesday's rain was a good omen and farm operators are holding their breath, hoping their luck will hold, as crops mature toward one of the county's most bountiful harvests in years.

So far, the county's farmers have been lucky. For the first time in years, the main hail season passed over without inflicting any heavy damage. The summer has been dry, but irrigation wells have been running constantly to keep the crops coming along in good shape. Bug infestation has been heavy, but the county's spray pilots seem to be holding insect damage to a minimum.

An excellent wheat crop is in the elevators; a good market is holding firm for a bumper crop of vegetables — potatoes, onions, carrots, sugarbeets, lettuce, cucumbers; trucks loaded with corn ensilage are thick on the highway as the cutting hits high gear on a beautiful crop; thick fields of grain corn are going into their drying-out stage; lush fields of milo are beginning to show green-orange heads as they mature toward next month's harvest; and the cotton — the most plagued crop in recent history — is the prettiest in many years.

THERE ARE still plenty of dangers to keep worriers occupied during the next six to eight critical weeks. Too much moisture next month could hurt the cotton quality, hinder the vegetable harvest and make the milo and corn susceptible to lodging. Heavy winds and hail are always a possibility here, too.

Another danger is an early freeze. Last Wednesday's rain preceded the season's first "norther" Friday night, and if the six-week rule of thumb were to hold true, it would place the first freeze in the first week of October — which would hurt the cotton crop. But if the first freeze holds off until mid-October or later, the county's cotton could be the best quality in many years.

The county's agricultural industry has done its part to bring along the most beautiful crops in years. If the weather will cooperate during the next six to eight weeks, the grins on the faces of the county's farmers at year's end could be as broad as they were after last week's scaking rain.

In Dimmitt, US Weather Observer Howard Cook recorded an official .35 of an inch from the rainstorm. Rainfall reports elsewhere in the county varied, but apparently the rainstorm covered the entire county.

GRAIN CARS DERAILED—Five grain gondolas of the Fort Worth & Dancer Railroad, loaded with wheat from Dimmitt elevators, jumped the track west of Hart Wednesday afternoon. This photo, taken from atop a car still on the track, shows how the mid-train cars jack-knifed, throwing one car onto its side and ripping off its wheel assemblies. The force of the derailment ripped up the steel rails and scattered them like match-sticks. Note rails and cross-ties laid out at right as workmen prepare to siphon the grain from a gondola car into a waiting truck. Railway crews are still working to repair the track. It was the second derailment within a month along the spur-line near Hart.

70 percent of DHS grads college-bound

A whopping 70 percent of this year's Dimmitt High School graduates are enrolling in colleges, universities, business and technical schools this fall.

AS MANY as 63 of the 90 members of this year's DHS graduating class will be freshmen this year on 18 campuses in Texas and Oklahoma, according to high school transcript records.

West Texas State University in Canyon and South Plains College in Levelland are getting the lion's share of Dimmitt High's 1970 graduates. Seventeen have ordered their transcripts sent to WTSU and 16 plan to attend SPC. Texas Tech University in Lubbock is getting nine new freshmen from Dimmitt. No other school is getting more than two DHS grads.

Mrs. Lucille Dollar, who sends out the graduates' transcript records for them, keeps track of where they plan to enroll. But she explained that her records won't reflect any student's last-minute change of mind.

HERE'S where Dimmitt High School's 1970 graduates will attend college, according to their transcript requests:

West Texas State University — Jerry Birdwell, Mark Cleavinger, Gary Fernmore, Perry Graham, Rex Lust, Rodney Patton, Arlie Pettv, Russell Springfield, Randy Talley, Joan Braasfladt, Nancy Jackson, Kathv Markley, Suzanne Merritt, Jeanette Seely, Ann Vardell, Judy White, Delores Wilke Golden.

BOBBY MURDOCK ACCEPTS 'FIREMAN OF YEAR' TROPHY ... From Fire Chief Harlin Dodd

Murdock earns firemen's award

Bobby Murdock, a volunteer fireman who has averaged making two fire calls a week during the past 12 months, was named Dimmitt's "Fireman of the Year" Saturday night.

HE RECEIVED a large trophy from Fire Chief Harlin Dodd at the climax of the annual Fireman of the Year Banquet, which was attended by 40 firemen, city officials, wives and guests.

Dodd reported that during fiscal 1969-70, the Dimmitt Volunteer Fire Dept. answered 32 fire calls inside the city, fought 30 fires outside the city limits and had 49 practice sessions for a total of 111 calls.

Murdock, he noted, was on hand at 104 of the 111 fire calls and practices during the year.

MURDOCK joined the local fire department Dec. 9, 1966, shortly after he moved here as an outside service man for Southwestern Public Service Co.

In 1968 Murdock was elected captain of the fire department, and was re-elected to the post in 1969.

This year he was elected second assistant chief.

"OUR FIREMAN of the Year was chosen for his participation and his attitude," Dodd said.

In addition to being a volunteer fireman, Murdock is a member and past director of the Castro County Jaycees, and helped organize the county's civil defense unit.

He and his wife, Wanda, and their two children, Debbie and Bradley, live at 609 W. Belsler St.

MAIN SPEAKER at the Fireman of the Year Banquet was Wayne Dye of Odessa, deputy state fire marshal.

Dye said the best way to fight fires is to prevent them. He listed public education on fire prevention as the key to controlling fire losses. But he added, "One of the hardest things to do is to get people to protect themselves from themselves."

A fire breaks out somewhere in the US every 18 seconds around the clock, Dye said. Fires last year caused $83 million in property damage and killed 474 people in Texas alone, he said.

HE LISTED seven main causes of fires, in order. They are (1) smoking and carelessness with matches, which caused more than 160,000 fires in the US last year; (2) misuse or neglect of electrical appliances, which caused 146,380 fires last year; (3) heating and cooking equipment, which resulted in more than 86,000 fires;

(4) open lights, flames and sparks, which caused some 70,000 fires last year; (5) improper use of storage of flammable liquids, which led to 59,940 fires; (6) lightning, which caused 20,640 fires; and (7) spontaneous ignition of flammable materials, which started more than 16,000 fires in the country last year.

"These fires will continue to occur until our firemen educate the public on the dangers," Dye said. He added, "No matter how many fires Dimmitt had during the past year, it was too many. People need to know what fire can do. When they realize the danger and destruction, they learn that prevention is the best way to fight fires."

"THE FIREMAN today," he said, "has to be educated to the new techniques of fighting fires, because we have so many synthetic materials. Water won't work anymore on many of these materials when they catch fire, and the fireman has to know what chemical and method to use."

Dye referred to the Fireman of the Year award as "an outstanding show of appreciation for a man," and added, "Like to consider every volunteer fireman as the Fireman of the Year."

He quoted Abraham Lincoln, who said, "Every man should be proud of his town, and should live his life in such a way that his town will be proud of him."

"I LIKE to think that a fireman performs this vital community service as part of his payment for getting to live in such a good community," Dye said. "I think the 4,250 people of Dimmitt can be proud of these 31 volunteer firemen."

Dimmitt man, 20, charged in rape

Robert Finch Jr., 20, of Dimmitt was arrested by sheriff's officers Sunday and placed under $10,000 bond on a rape charge originating in Lamb County.

A 20-year-old Dimmitt woman filed a complaint against Finch Sunday with the Lamb County Sheriff's Office. She told officers that the alleged assault occurred about 2 a.m. Sunday along US 385 between Springlake and Littlefield.

Green Bobcats are showing purple spirit

BOBCATS SWAP LICKS IN SATURDAY MORNING SCRIMMAGE ... "With an attitude like theirs, they're going to win some games"

Dimmitt's 1970 Bobcats are still more green than purple, but Head Coach Brown L. Smith feels his young squad could win some games this year on attitude alone.

"THESE KIDS have probably got more enthusiasm than any team we've had since I've been here," Smith commented after his 40 trainees had wound up their first week of practice in full battle gear.

"We've got good leadership, too," the coach commented. "For example, we told them the other day that they could go in without taking any wild sprints because they had been working pretty hard and had done a good job. But the captains (Mark Wohlgenuth and Andrew Garza) stayed out and started running wild sprints anyway. Before long, they were all out there running together."

"That sure made us feel good. I'll tell you," Smith said. "With an attitude like that, you're going to win some ball games."

SMITH hopes this enthusiasm will make up for a lack of experience, because he has only four regular starters back from last year's classy team.

Wohlgenuth, a 165-pound senior, started regularly as a defensive halfback last year and also saw lots of action at the quarterback slot, where he excelled as a passer.

Garza, a 140-pound senior was a starting linebacker all last season, and now has moved into the center position vacated by all-region Gary Langford.

HENRY RIVERA, a 160-pound senior, is back at the offensive guard post which he occupied last year.

The only two-way starter from last year in the current workouts is Randy Griffith, a 170-pound senior, who played tackle on offense and end on defense during the 1969 campaign. Smith has moved Griffith to the tight end position on offense.

Another two-way starter from last year, Robert Woolbright, is still a big question mark. The 190-pound senior lineman has been unable to pass his physical because of a nagging knee injury, and may have to undergo surgery — which could sideline him for part or all of the season. With experience such a shy commodity on this year's squad, Smith is especially anxious about how Woolbright's knee responds to treatment. Meanwhile Woolbright is having to watch the workouts from the sidelines.

FOUR OTHER squadmen have had enough varsity experience to help Coach Smith sleep a little easier.

They are Kenny Doss, 155-pound senior who saw a lot of action as a halfback and defensive corner back last year; Jay Stanton, 155-pound junior tailback; Hoyt Hestland, 160-pound senior offensive guard and offensive end who started a couple of games last year on offense; and big Pat Barvics, 210-pound junior, who started as a defensive guard in one game (See YOUNG BOBCATS, Page 10)

Sheffy's chatter

Parishes bid farewell to Kaosu, and hello to Claire

By MYRTLE SHEFFY
 J. E. and Betty Parish have been busy people and will be this winter also.
 THEY ARE the parents of four daughters, Becky, Jacklyn, Susan, who is Miss Dimmitt of 1970, and little Robin. They will be host parents to Claire Tenoillon, AFS exchange student from Agnac, a small town in southwest France. Their girl from Japan went home this week. She was Kaosu Hamada, and was sponsored by the Lions Youth Exchange program. The Parish's daughter Becky had visited this family in Japan last year. The Y.E.P. group went on a ten-day tour Aug. 10 to Aug. 19. There were 120 students and some of their American brothers and sisters. Chartered buses took students from France, Germany, Austria, Mexico and Japan. In each city the Lion families were hosts. They went to Odessa, then over to see the Carlsbad Caverns, on to El Paso for two days, went over to Juarez to see the Mexican style rodeo and Mexican music, went to Fort Davis and stayed at the Girl Scout camp there. Then on to Austin to see the state capitol and Texas University. They went swimming there. They stopped in Kerrville at the Lions Club Crippled Childrens Camp, spent the night and presented a program for the students. Each country's representative did their "thing." They went on to San Antonio, saw the Alamo and had dinner at a special German restaurant. Then later there was a cake eating contest between two German boys with their hands tied behind their backs. On to Houston where they toured NASA and the Astrodome. Next was Galveston where they saw the beach, on to Dallas for two days, then back to Lubbock, where Kaosu, the girl who stayed with the Parishes, appeared in a closeup. She left Saturday for Hawaii for a three-day rest and tour then will go home to Japan where she will be a student at Doshisha University in Kyoto.

 We must meet Claire from France.
KENT LINDSEY, who has been a Navy Reserve man, has entered the regular Navy. He is now at the Great Lakes Base for a 12-week training period, before leaving for his two years of service. Kent is the son of Bob and Doris Lindsey.
 Martha Pearl Sadler was hostess at an "84" party Tuesday evening. The ladies got the cafe for hamburgers, or what have you, then a friendly game. Guests were Leola Haberer, Faye Holland, Vera Webb, Nora Mae Newson, Janie Hastings, Ruby Webb, and Mary Lou Frazier.
MR. AND MRS. Clarence Bear-den were hosts at a steak dinner at the Colonial Inn dining room Thursday evening with "42" later in their home. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Ramey, Mr. and Mrs. N. F. Cleavinger, Mr. and Mrs. Sid Sheffy, Mr. and Mrs. George Bradford, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Carille, Mr. and Mrs. Wes Anthony, Leola Haberer, Cletha George, Ann Singer and Vera Webb.
 Juanita Stiff of Roswell spent a few days visiting her mother Ann Singer. They went to Amarillo and Tulla on business and to visit.
 Mrs. Troy Stafford and children of Tulsa, Okla., are here for a visit with her parents Woodrow and Alyce Killingsworth and her brothers Jim and Jerry.
 Mrs. Tommy Stafford and Donna of Tulsa came to Dimmitt with Mrs. Troy Stafford. She visited Mrs. Dora Houtchens a while, then went to Van Horn with her mother Mrs. Rex Sheffy and boys who came here for here. They visited the Sheffy kin while here too.
I WENT with Bob and Mildred Sheffy and Janie to Crystal City, to get their daughter Connie moved into her new trailer house. Connie will teach there. The city is south of the 90-mile wide hill country. That area is as flat as our Plains, but has much brush, mesquite and sage. They have palm trees and pink oleander bordering the yards. The railroad goes through the center of Main Street with highway on each side and the oleander on the right of way. There are other big trees, maybe pecan. It is called the winter garden country. It never gets colder than 40 degrees, but is much hotter in the summer. Texas is truly a land of contrasts.

MORE PARTIES this week—one at Glen and Kona Ratcliffs when they hosted their dinner bridge group. They are M. E. and Marge Cleavinger, Joe and Alice Cowen, Frank and Josephine Latimer, Nolan and Evie Froehner, Helen Richardson and Bob and Jeannie Estes of Bovina.
 Es and Katie Noble are in Hawaii for a tour. We will get their story when they come home.
 James and Jerrine Parks and Gladys Benson were guests at a cocktail supper Friday at the home of friends Mr. and Mrs. Bill Birdsong in Plainview.
 J. M. and Grace Wright and Ruth Wesson spent the weekend with Ruth's sister Hootie or Sybil Moberley in Hobbs, N.M.
WE HAD A newsy letter from Oleta Chism Williams of Pea Ridge, Ark. Oleta is a former Dimmitt lady. She says her brother Jesse Dempsey lives near there and her town is near Bella Vista. Her first husband was Raymond Chism. When you go to Arkansas do go by and see these folks.
 Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hill and her parents Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Duncan are back in Dimmitt to spend the winter. They have been to Flat Head Lake, Mont., for the summer months.
 Mr. and Mrs. Les Bray of Lubbock visited her brother Earl and Mable Brock for a few days.
 Mrs. L. A. Stillwell of Memphis and Mrs. Herbert Johnson, who are the mother and sister of Doris Lindsey, were here for a visit. They all went to Littleton, Colo., to visit son and brother. Oh, yes! Kim and Jeff Lindsey went on this trip too.
 Lewis and Rosa Neal have gone to Missouri for a ten-day vacation — sightseeing, fishing and visiting relatives.

MR. AND MRS. Pug Daniel have had as guests their daughter, Milli Ann Ramsey and two sons Charles and John from Yuma, Ariz., a daughter and family Lloyd and Purva Jean of Plainview. Their son Robert and Janice Daniel are visiting her folks in Vernon this week.
 Visiting D. H. (Mollie) and Diana Malone recently were his brother and family of Houston. They are Mr. and Mrs. Lyndol Malone and they flew here in their plane.
 Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Ward and sons Phil and Garland, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Ethridge of Hereford were guests of the Howard Hersheys. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Dub Guelka and Mr. and Mrs. Alanzo Cyril Hays of Chickasha and Mrs. Aline Clayton Cyril. I believe they were cousins. Mrs. Ethridge is Mary's sister. Then Friday the Hersheys visited their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Alexander and sons at Petersburg, E. D. will teach school there.
 Ulys and Millicent Davis are home from their trip. First they went to Mayos in Rochester, Minn., for Ulys's checkup, then on into Canada for a sightseeing trip and a stop off to visit cousins.
 Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Matthews and sons visited relatives at Hartley last Sunday.
 Linda Williams of Denver, Colo., visited Pat Moran last week. Pat has been home with her parents, the Russel Morans, this summer. She flew back Sunday to Newport News, Va., where she will teach school.
 LaDawn Kemp went east for a trip. She visited friends en route, also stopped off at Newport News, to visit Pat, then on to Maine for a visit before settling down to a job. Her sister Ginger Kemp is in Dallas. She is in a house with ten of her Baylor friends, Jana and Jo Lynn from Vernon and Corsicana especially. These girls teach school. Ginger is checking into jobs she has been offered.

 Louise Kemp, the girls' mother, has been visiting Mother Kemp at Clovis. She has been very ill, A. J. Kemp of Fort Worth comes regularly to visit his mother.
 Mary Hays has returned to Waco, where she is in school at Baylor University. Her brother John and Scott Moran will go there next weekend.
 Shelly George will be going to Hardin-Simmons at Abilene.
MORE students entering school are Teddy Smithson going to South Plains Junior College at Levelland, Bill Sanders and Gary Langford will attend Pharmacy School at Weatherford, Okla. Jo-an Eraafadt is going to WTSU at Canyon.
 Gay Roland, who was salutatorian last May is working at the Castro County News and plans a business course.
 Joe Bob Sanders is in the Army reserve at Fort Knox, Ky. He will go soon to the base at Fort Mead, Va. He is the son of Polly Simpson and the grandson of the Jack Smithers.
 M. L. and Polly Simpson and children Brad, Lisa and Brent are home from a long trip to Colorado, Wyoming, all the places north, back to St. Louis, Mo. Brent says they saw the ballgame between the St. Louis Cardinals and New York Mets,

MR. AND MRS. Cecil Dennis took their daughter Ginger Wallis and daughter Sherri to the plane in Amarillo Sunday where they flew back home, in Seattle, Wash.
KATHY JO Calhoun has just finished beauty school and will be going to Draughn's Business School in Lubbock.
 Mr. and Mrs. Guy Waldrop were hosts to friends, Dept. State Fire Marshal Wayne Dye and family of Odessa. Mr. Dye was the speaker for the Fireman's meeting Saturday night. Other guests were Bobbie and Harlan Dodd and Bob and Wanda Murdock. Bob Murdock was chosen Fireman of the Year for Dimmitt.
 Mr. and Mrs. Waldrop visited his brother Arthur and his wife Dee Dee in Plainview. Arthur has been in the hospital at Plainview getting over a case of food poisoning.
 Rodney Patton is in school at WTSU. He and his wife live there. He has a job on the side.
 Danny Newton is going to attend school at Tyler Junior College.
 Noble Sealey is going to Dallas to stay with an uncle and work.
 Arlie Petty is going to WTSU. His wife Doris will be attending school in Canyon.
 Glenn and Randy Schumacher are in the custom farming business with dad, Andy.
MRS. CECIL Dennis was hostess for a hamburger cookout one evening for granddaughter Sherri Wallis of Seattle, Wash., and her young cousin Lisa Blythe of Odessa. Guests were teenagers Amy Perkins, Bobbi Kirby, Mary Hamilton, Lorena Lee, Lisa Hall, Ronda Tidwell, Cynthia Dyer, Janna Hill, Suzan Wise, Sherri and Dale Doan who live at 406 NW 4th St. Dale works with the Missouri Beef Construction at Friona. Sunday guests of the Doans were his parents Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Doan Jr. of Gruver and grandparents, Mrs. W. A. Doan Sr. and Mrs. Paul Caraway of Tulla, Sunny and Randy Randolph of Earth. Mrs. W. B. Dye of Tulla is staying here for a few week's visit.

Bible Thoughts

HOW PHONY ARE YOU?
 By RONNIE PARKER

James 1.22
 "But be ye doers of the word and not hearers only deceiving your own selves."

How do you like your "morning face" and puffy eyes and disheveled hair—the one you see when you take your first look in the mirror? Most of us don't appreciate the view and try to do something about it as soon as possible. Of course, there are exceptions. Some of our modern youth apparently take a hasty glance, feel satisfied, and walk out into the activities of the day without using soap and water, a comb, or even a razor. They do physically what James says some people do spiritually when they read the Bible. When it tells them what is wrong, they disregard its warnings and refuse to let its truth make any real impression upon them. Some apparently think they can do this and still please the Lord, but they are deceiving themselves. God does not approve of hypocritical Christians who know what is right but do not practice the precepts to which they give lip service and mental assent.

How about you? Do you live what you believe? How phony are you?

Precious SIGHT

No price is too high to pay to protect the eyesight of ourselves and our children. Good eyesight is an absolute necessity in the earning of our livelihood, in the school work of our children, and in the enjoyment of all of life.

But there is another type of sight which in these times is often neglected — spiritual sight. We and our children need to be established and grounded in the love of God and His commandments, and to rely on Him. We need to meet His requirement of loving our neighbors as ourselves, thus making a better home life, community life and a better world. Psalms 34:8 reads, "O taste and see that the Lord is good; blessed is the man that trusteth in Him." Attend the church of your choice

EVERYONE IN THE CHURCH
 THE CHURCH IN EVERYONE

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Clayton to head session today at national legislative meet

State Representative Bill Clayton of Springlake has been named to preside over one session at the 23rd annual meeting of the National Legislative Conference, slated today (Thursday) at Salt Lake City, Utah.

THE SESSION will include a panel discussion on "Protecting Our Environment in the Face of Conflicting Demands."

Keynoting the panel session will be Congressman Paul N. McCloskey of California. Other participants will be Sen. Ralph S. Regula, Ohio; Richard Sullivan, commissioner of environmental protection in New Jersey; Wesley E. Gilbertson, deputy secretary for environmental protection, Pennsylvania Department of Health; and James Coulter, deputy secretary of natural resources, Maryland.

The National Legislative Conference is made up of legislative leaders from throughout the nation. More than 1,000 elected state officials and legislative staff members from the 50 states are participating in the four-day conference, which features meetings covering current state legislative problems and procedures, including environmental preservation, reapportionment, crime control and health services.

REP. Clayton, who represents the 72nd District, comprised of Deaf Smith, Parmer, Castro, Bailey, Lamb and Cochran Counties, is executive director of Water, Inc., a West Texas organization working for full water resources development. He is currently serving as secretary-treasurer of the Interstate Conference on Water Problems and has just returned from Hot Springs, Ark., where he was named to the executive board of the Southern Water Resources Council.

Yarborough to be main speaker at HP Foundation's field day

Senator Ralph W. Yarborough, Texas senator in Washington for the past 12 years, will be guest speaker for the 14th Annual High Plains Research Foundation Field Day, Sept. 10 at Halfway.

SENATOR Yarborough will speak during the evening program beginning at 5 p.m. on the south lawn of the Moody Memorial Administration and Education Building.

He is a strong supporter of farm programs and has worked for improvements in the federal farm programs and their administration.

He is a member of the Senate Appropriations Subcommittee on Agriculture and Related Agencies. And through his work on this subcommittee, agricultural conservation and special school children's milk program were resurrected.

HE IS chairman of the Senate Labor and Public Welfare Committee, and as chairman of the Health Subcommittee has written almost all health legislation the Senate passed this year.

Yarborough is also a member of the Senate Appropriations Committee, Special Committee of the Aging, Select Committee on Nutrition and Human Needs, and is senior Democrat on the Senate Post Office and Civic Service Committee.

In other activities for Field Day, field tours of research plots will be conducted beginning at 1:30 p.m., a special farm equipment showing begins a three-day run at the Foundation and a special vacation trip for two to Acapulco will be awarded.

Visitors will tour research facilities. Also, on display will be exhibits pertaining to agricultural products and services by several promotion groups, service groups and agencies.

MORE THAN 295,000 incentive awards for 4-H boys and girls are provided annually by private business, industry and foundations through the National 4-H Service Committee of Chicago.

Relatives here attend Vega player's funeral

By Mrs. Florance Albracht
The many relatives living here of Ned Arho of Vega were saddened to hear of his death Friday, after he collapsed at football practice last Thursday evening. Relatives attended the rosary Sunday evening and the mass Monday at 9 o'clock at the Immaculate Conception Church, and the services which were conducted at the high school auditorium following. School was postponed a day in Vega so all the school children and teachers could attend the funeral.

Mrs. Agnes Hoefler and children, Ann and George, of Buckman, Minn., spent several days here last week visiting her cousins, the Schacher families.

MRS. LOTTIE Wethington and daughter, Mrs. Mary Helen Taylor and children, Elaine, Victor and Debra, came from Farmington, N.M., to visit the Tony Ackers, Bud Kerns and Joe Warrens. Elaine and Victor stayed here with their grandparents, the Joe Warrens, and will be attending school here the coming year. Mrs. Lizzie Birkenfeld and daughter, Marcella, left last week for a trip through Kansas, Iowa and up through Yellowstone Park. The Tony Gerbers received word Sunday that they have a new grandson, born to the Norbert Gerbers of Enid, Okla.

MR. AND MRS. Ernie Brockman attended the National Knights of Columbus convention at Houston Aug. 18-20. It was the 88th annual meeting. Brockman is a state officer in the K of C. Anna Beth Hoelting flew to Houston last Thursday to visit a few days with her brother, Marvin and his wife before returning to college at Texas Tech Tuesday. Anna will be a sophomore at Tech. Mr. and Mrs. Larry Vercamp of Wichita Falls and his mother from Henryetta had dinner Friday with the Albrachts.

MICHELE ANN, the adopted baby daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Schulte, was baptized Sunday in Holy Family Church by Father Stanley. Sponsors were Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hoelting. The happy vacation days were over for all the students of Nazareth School when classes started Monday. Sister Benedict Marib, Sister Immaculate and Mrs. Dora Albracht went to Amarillo Sunday afternoon for the music workshop and liturgy conducted by Father Stanley.

THE CATHOLIC Youth Organization enjoyed a guitar folk mass in the Catechetical Building Sunday afternoon, followed by a well-

A Plugged Nickel? Although an ordinary "nickel" is worth only five cents, there are five "nickel" coins valued at $50,000 apiece. This came about because five unauthorized Liberty Head "nickels" were minted in 1913, the year the Buffalo design took over. The "nickel" is actually 25 per cent nickel and 75 per cent copper.

Sorority goes 'back to school'

Mrs. Laqueta Hill hosted a "school days" luncheon meeting at her home Saturday for members of the Alpha Epsilon Tau chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority.

MEMBERS came dressed as school children and had a sack lunch in the Hills' back yard before the business meeting, which was conducted by Mrs. Sue DeVaney, president.

Oct. 10 was set as the date for the sorority's second annual Harvest Hoedown. Co-chairmen of the event are Mrs. Hill and Mrs. Virginia Hansen.

Plans for the coming club year were discussed, and reports were heard from all committee chairmen.

Workers make HD garage sale a big success

By IRENE KEATING

The Home Demonstration Council Garage Sale Saturday was successful. Thank you, Castro County News and KDHN for the publicity we had. I'd also like to thank Juanita Welch for her contribution. She isn't one of our club members but she sure helped us out.

MRS. BUNA SHWEN is very active for her age. She was busy working at the sale from 9:00 to 6:00 and never did she complain. That's the secret to living long and being healthy. Others who were faithful workers were Rachel Cleaver, Nell Ingram, Bobbie Damron, and Blanche Glen. Blanche and her husband kept Katrina in the afternoon. I sure d'd appreciate it. I got a good sun-burn out of the sale.

1. Prepare beds for planting bulbs and winter annuals.
2. Divide, transplant, and establish perennial beds including: Bearded Iris, Camas, Day-lilies, Shasta Daisy and Violets.
3. Complete digging, drying and storing Gladiolus corms.
4. Continue to water when needed.
5. Spray roses at regular intervals for Blackspot and Mildew control. Mildew is especially prevalent this time of the year.
6. Fertilize and water Chrysanthemums.
7. Clean established garden beds. Cut back or pull out faded annuals.
8. Purchase Tulip bulbs and chill in refrigerator at 35 to 40 degrees F. for 60 days.
9. Make final selections of spring flowering bulbs.
10. Consider a third application of insecticide for chinch-bug control if prevalent in the neighborhood.
11. In the northern part of Texas, Peonies can be dug and divided from now through Mid-October. Select roots that have three to five eyes or buds. It is best not to disturb established plants unless they are crowded.

Former residents wed in Fort Worth

Miss Joy Branaman and Frank Smith exchanged wedding vows Friday in the home of the groom's uncle, Forrest Kullum, Fort Worth.

THE BRIDE, a 1970 graduate of Dimmitt High School, is the daughter of Mrs. Otis Chester of Burnet.

Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Ray Smith, was formerly employed with Radio Station KDHN in Dimmitt. He is a graduate of Richland Hills High School.

The newlyweds will make their home in Fort Worth, where the groom is employed with Southwestern Bell Telephone Co.

Boys Ranchers work on rodeo

An event that began in 1944 to help a group of boys will be held for the 26th year when more than 350 young cowboys at Cal Farley's Boys Ranch put on their annual Boys Ranch Rodeo over the Labor Day weekend.
COMPETING with each other, the boys will ride bareback broncs, Brahma bulls, steers, calves and stick horses for the trophies and honors that are waiting for the winners. Every boy at the Ranch has some part in the rodeo, either as a contestant or working as an usher, parking cars, operating concessions or helping at one of the many behind-the-scenes jobs that makes the rodeo the only one of its kind in the nation.
"All of the boys have something to do in the rodeo," Ranch president Virgil Patterson says, "and they have been working hard to make it the best rodeo they have ever put on."
A SPECIAL attraction of the rodeo will be giant-size barbecue beef sandwiches with all the trimmings that will be sold for $1.00 to those wanting to picnic at the Ranch. This concession will be run by boys learning meat-cutting and cooking for their vocations. Soft drinks, pop corn and other refreshments will be sold by other boys.
Rodeo performances are scheduled for 2 p.m., Sept. 6 and 7. Tickets for either performance are available in advance at the Boys Ranch office, 600 West 11th Street in Amarillo or write Box 1890. Reserved box seats are $2.50, general admission is $1.50 for adults and 75 cents for children. All proceeds are used for the expansion of the Ranch.
ABOUT 350,000 parents, teachers, business and professional people give freely of their time and know-how to serve as 4-H volunteer leaders.

Financial Facts
By Willis A. Hawkins, Jr.

Have you ever looked at the signatures on your dollar bills?
Without those signatures your currency would be worthless. Excepting the first year of printing in 1861, all paper money bears at least two engraved facsimile signatures of Treasury officials. On the 1861 Demand Notes, there are two signatures, but they are those of Treasury employees signing for the officials.
Almost all currency in the series of 1862 through the series of 1923 bears the names of the Register of the Treasury and the Treasurer himself. The only exception is the Federal Reserve Notes of 1914, where the Register's signature is replaced by the signature of the Secretary of the Treasury, the highest official in the Treasury Department. Today, of course, all our currency has the Secretary's and the Treasurer's signatures.

Miss Kennedy describes mission work in Europe

Meitzie Kennedy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Kennedy of Hart, has returned from a trip to Europe with some 65 other youths from Highland Church of Christ of Abilene, Hardin, Ark., and Lubbock Christian College.

THE TRIP began June 3 when Miss Kennedy and 10 other LCC students boarded a plane in Lubbock for Dallas, where they were met by other youths; then to New York, where they joined the rest of the group.

Following a get-acquainted period, they boarded a plane for Paris at 7 p.m. They arrived in Paris at 6:55 a.m., with a six-hour time difference from Lubbock.

The youths arrived in Paris tired but eager. They first went sight-seeing, but found Paris streets littered with paper.

THE NEXT morning they traveled to Geneva, Switzerland, for a 10-day stop. Their daily schedule was to arise at 6:30 a.m., have breakfast, then walk to the YMCA at 8 a.m. for daily assignments to the work areas.

The students walked to their assignments with 10 or 12 per group, and would then divide into twos or threes and pass out pamphlets and talk with the French people.

They distributed some 244,000 pamphlets in about 4½ days. At the completion of each day's work about 3:30, they would meet for choir practice.

Richard Andrewski brought the evening message following the devotions. The messenger spoke in French.

ANOTHER song session lasted until approximately 10 each night. "We sang every chance we got, as this was a means to get people listen to us," Miss Kennedy said. "We spent one evening singing in a park."

Leaving many new friends, the group left June 15 for Luzanne and an afternoon of shopping. The next day they went on to Interlaken, where they visited the castle of Chillon.

In Interlake, the students were delighted to hear English spoken, when they met a group of young men from Wheaton College in New York. They heard the all-male chorus perform.

FROM THE top of the cathedral, the group heard the town crier call the hour. Miss Kennedy thought it a bit "spooky."

A picnic in the Swiss Alps was in store the next day, then on to Zurich. From Zurich the group flew to Amsterdam, Holland.

Sunday, after worship service with Christians in Amsterdam, the young people boarded a plane for London.

Meitzie Kennedy

MONDAY was spent in seeing the sights of London, including Buckingham Palace and the changing of the guard, Piccadilly Square, Westminster Abbey, Big Ben, Parliament, the Tower of London with the crown jew-

Annual field day set Sept. 10-12 at HP Foundation

Activities are beginning to jell for the 14th Annual Field Day and Farm Equipment Show to be conducted Sept. 10-12 at the High Plains Research Foundation.

AS USUAL, area residents are cooperating in efforts to present one of the best research farm showings ever.

Presenting exhibits of agricultural information and ideas will be members of Women's Cotton Promotion Clubs with a display of some of the latest styles in cotton clothing. Other exhibits will include sewing and cooking hints from the Hale County Home Demonstration Council and special displays sponsored by the Hale County Noxious Weed Control District, Hale County Farmers Home Administration Service and the Hale County Soil and Water Conservation District.

THE FIELD DAY activities will feature guided tours through research plots and a guest speaker on opening day.

Highlighting the event will be a three-day farm equipment show featuring the latest farming equipment by some of the top agricultural equipment manufacturers in the nation.

According to Dr. Tom Longnecker, director, the field day is shaping up as a top attraction. "WE FEEL confident that our cooperation with the Plainview Chamber of Commerce on this Farm Equipment Show will promote one of this year's leading attractions," he said.

Observers of field day activities annually come from all over the area. Longnecker pointed out that many of those attending are "flying farmers."

"As in the past, the Hale County Farm Bureau has volunteered its services to make sure that farmers and others persons flying in to attend field day activities have transportation to the research farm at Halfway."

els, and St. Paul's Cathedral. The next day was spent in more sight-seeing and shopping before boarding a plane Wednesday for the flight home.

An air strike was in effect, delaying the departure home from London by three hours. The delay upset the schedules in New York, causing the group to miss their plane to Dallas.

AFTER ALL the flight delays and the long wait, the group was finally routed through Washington, D.C., to Dallas — where another delay caused them to miss the last plane that night from Dallas to Lubbock.

Springer rites held in Kress

By Mrs. Owen Andrews
Funeral services for F. J. Springer of Kress were held Monday afternoon in the Kress Baptist Church.

Mr. Springer, 88, died early Sunday morning in a Plainview hospital. Numerous relatives live in the Hereford-Dimmitt area, including a granddaughter, Mrs. John Messenger; a brother, J. E. Springer; and three sisters, Mrs. A. T. Jones, Mrs. T. L. Sparkman and Mrs. Deward Roberson.

SPENDING the weekend with the Tony Vigils recently were relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Nat Raybal and family of Dora, N.M., Mr. and Mrs. Ted Lopez and daughters of Clovis, and the Gilbert Romero family of Las Vegas. Ralph Gomez, a nephew, has spent two weeks with the Vigils and returned to his Las Vegas home with the Romeros.

Mrs. Claud Price of Floydada visited her sister, Mrs. H. M. Mobley, several days recently. Also, the Don Mobleys of Farmington and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Reno of Midland spent the weekend with Mrs. Mobley and others of the family.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Vogler and boys of Houston returned home after a two-week visit with parents and other relatives here. They, the Voglers, the Walter Voglers and Harry James Vogler spent a three-day vacation in the New Mexico mountains, as far as Cimarron, while they were

Advice from Madame Nina:

"My husband looks much younger than I do."

Dear Mme. Nina: I suppose you'll tell me that a million women wish they had my problem... a handsome young-looking husband.

Actually, I'm three years this fellow's junior but sometimes I think I must look like his mother.

Every morning I seem to find another wrinkle. Can you help?

Losing Ground

Dear Losing: Take heart! There is now a new-type cream, called Genava, created by my famous Nina laboratories. With it, your skin can start looking younger and younger instead of older and older. The ingredients of Genava, a substance new to cosmetics, stimulate your own skin cells to increase moisture. This "plumps up" your cells (the secret of a young girl's natural complexion).

In clinical tests, small wrinkles and little crow's-feet disappeared, and even the deepest wrinkles showed great improvement. This was the report of a noted dermatologist who tested the ingredients of my Genava. And all my friends say the same.

P.S. Not one million — twenty million women wish they had your problem.

Madame Nina of Paris, three times winner of the French "Honneur au merite" medal for her cosmetic contributions.

You can get Genava at

Root nematode killing peaches

A very small worm-like parasite, commonly known as root knot nematode, is playing havoc with peach trees in some Texas orchards.

SYMPTOMS of the parasite invasion include stunted trees and yellowing of the foliage, and a close examination of the roots reveals the presence of small diameter galls, Jerral D. Johnson, Extension plant pathologist, said.

"There are two methods of controlling the nematode problem in peach trees," Johnson said. "The first is the use of resistant rootstocks, Okinawa or Nema-guard. Homeowners who are planning to plant trees this fall should contact their nurseryman to assure that the varieties they want will be available on either of these two rootstocks."

The next method of controlling nematodes is the use of soil fumigation, Johnson said. This is required on trees that are already planted and on which nematode are later found, he explained.

"NEMATOCIDES containing DCP such as Nema-X, Nematode Killer, Fumazone, Nemagon or Oxy-BBC-12 can be used," Johnson said. "These materials should be applied in a basin around the drip line of the tree and then watered in with about a three inch layer of water to act as a water seal."

"This will force the fumigant down around the root system of the plant, which will result in the death of the nematodes."

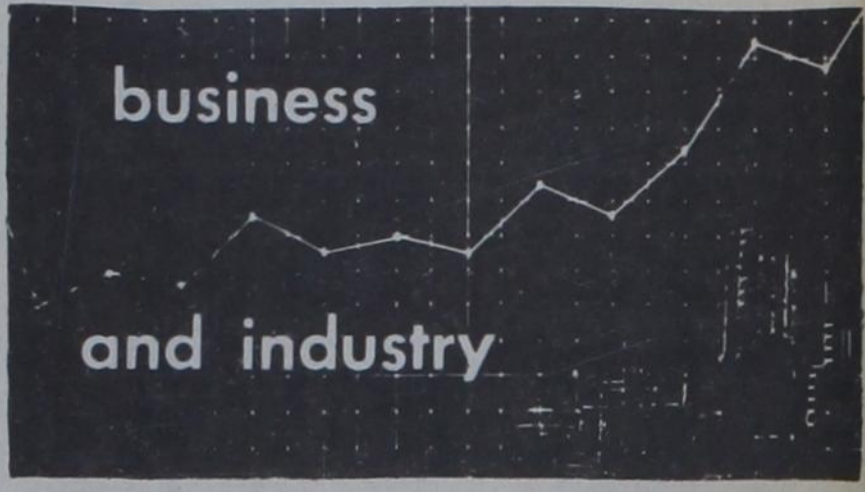

Not all nematodes cause galls; therefore, soil tests are sometimes required to determine if other nematodes might be involved in the decline of the fruit trees, Johnson noted.

IF YOU suspect nematode damage, it is suggested that a soil sample be sent to the Plant Nematode Detection Laboratory, Texas A&M University, College Station, Texas. The county agent's office, according to Johnson, has the sample bags, sheets and mailing containers for these soil samples.

State dove map is now available

The Texas Parks and Wildlife Department is distributing the 1970 dove maps to help prospective hunters prepared for the season on white-winged and mourning doves starting in September.

THE MAPS will be available this week from license deputies, department regional and field offices, or from department headquarters in Austin.

For regulatory purposes, the state again has been divided into a North Zone and a South Zone. The North Zone mourning dove season is Sept. 1 to Oct. 30. The South Zone mourning dove season is Sept. 26 to Nov. 24, except in those counties having a whitewing season, where it will be Sept. 5 and 6, Sept. 12 and 13, and Sept. 26 to Nov. 20.

Shooting hours in all counties will be from 12 noon to sunset.

THE department map clearly indicates, by shading, which South Texas counties have a whitewing season this year, and it also shows the protected "buffer zone" for whitewings along the Rio Grande in Starr County and a portion of Hidalgo County.

Whitewings may be hunted in 21 counties only on Sept. 5-6 and 12-13.

Daily bag limit for both species is 10 birds, with a possession limit of 20. Bag limits of both white-winged and mourning doves may be taken in the counties having a whitewing season Sept. 5-6 and 12-13.

THE MAP also reminds sportsmen that no hunting is permitted in game refuges, state and federal parks, game reserves, within corporate city limits or from public roads or road rights of way.

The retention of one fully-feathered winged dressed dove is required in these counties having a whitewing season when both mourning and white-winged doves may be taken. This requirement also applies when doves are imported from Mexico or any foreign country.

Shotguns must be plugged permanently to three-shell capacity and may not be larger than 10 gauge. Rifles are prohibited.

The closed area is south and west of a line extending along US Highway 83 from the Starr-Zapata County line to Mission, and from Mission to the north city limits of Hidalgo via FM 1016 and FM 1926 during the concurrent white-winged and mourning dove season.

Early teal hunt to be held again

Texas shotgunners again will be able to test their shooting eyes on the sporty teal this September as the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department has authorized continuation of the early teal season throughout the state.

THE SEASON will be Sept. 12-20, from sunrise to sunset, with an aggregate limit of four per day of bluewing, greenwing or cinnamon teal. Possession limit is eight.

The special early season is held to provide a harvest of the birds which traditionally migrate south earlier than other waterfowl. The bluewings in particular are early, passing through Texas on their way to South America from mid-August through September.

Although the teal season has been set by the Commission, official action on regulations for this year's seasons on other duck species, geese and sandhill cranes will not be taken until the Aug. 1 Texas Parks and Wildlife Commission meeting.

HUNTERS need no special permit to participate in the early season but a 1970-71 Texas hunting license is required if hunting outside the county of residence. Non-resident hunters should have a non-resident hunting license or a five-day migratory bird license. Federal duck stamps also are a requirement for all duck hunters.

Presbyterians to hold joint session Sunday

The Presbyterian Churches of Dimmitt and Muleshoe will worship together in the Dimmitt church at 11 a.m. Sunday.

REV. JAMES AIKEN, field director for national missions of the Plains Presbytery, will be the speaker.

After the morning worship service a fellowship luncheon will be served to members of both congregations in Lamar Fellowship Hall of the First United Methodist Church. Members of the Dimmitt church will provide meats, drinks and bread, and each family is asked to bring a vegetable and a dessert or salad. Rev. Ed Manning, pastor of the two churches, said the area ministry council will hold a business session after the luncheon — about 2 p.m. The council meeting will be open to all members of both congregations.

MEDAL WINNERS—These five young pianists are now the proud owners of National Guild Founder's Medals, which they earned by memorizing a prescribed number of songs from the teaching repertoire of Irl Allison, founder of the National Guild of Piano Teachers. From left are Patricia Smith of Hart, Deana Hargrove, Laurel Summers, Gay Oldham and Gregg Calvert of Dimmitt. All these students have earned "Superior" ratings in National Guild auditions. Not pictured are four other local students who earned Founder's Medals—Jana Mapp and Debbie Lacy of Hart, and Vera Patton and Melanie Nelson of Dimmitt.

Laubach workshop slated in Tullia

A Laubach literacy workshop will be held at the First Baptist Church in Tullia Sept. 9-11, with residents of Castro County invited to take part.

THIS IS the second Laubach workshop in the area, designed for those interested in learning how to teach a non-reader to read and write the English language. Thirty-six persons from the area enrolled in the first workshop.

Sessions will be held from 9 a. m. to noon and from 1 to 4 p. m. Sept. 9, 10 and 11. Enrollment fee is $10 per person, which pays for all materials used.

Those attending are asked to bring sack lunches. The First Baptist Church of Tullia will serve the drinks.

Those interested in enrolling should send their name, address, city, church or organization, and $10 registration fee to Literacy Workshop, First Baptist Church, Box 450, Tullia, 79383, no later than Monday.

"We must have everyone pre-registered by Aug. 31 so that we may order the necessary materials," said Mrs. Nelson Borchardt of Tullia. "It will be necessary for each participant to have at least 16 hours in the workshop to receive a teaching certificate."

Plainview Air Show to feature dogfight, stunts, glide-rides

The third annual Plainview Air Show will be held Saturday and Sunday.

LAUNCHING the program will be a display of aircraft sponsored by the Amarillo chapter of the Experimental Aircraft Association at 6 p. m. Saturday at the Hale County Agriculture Center, south of the Hale County Airport. Aircraft from five states are registered in home-built, antique and warbird categories, and will be judged by EAA members, led by Chief Judge William Lewis of Lubbock.

Twenty-four free plane rides will be awarded during a drawing, and a nighttime skydiving demonstration by the Amarillo Skydivers will top Saturday night activities.

SUNDAY activities will begin with a fly-in breakfast for visiting pilots at Hale County Airport, beginning at 8 a. m.

The air show at 2 p. m. will feature aerobatic flying demonstrations by Doug Rhinehart of Albuquerque and Harold Neumann of Kansas City.

Confederate Air Force planes on hand will include a P-38 Lightning, an F4F Wildcat, P-51 Mustang, German ME108, German ME109 and a Japanese dive bomber.

LEFTY GARDNER of Brownwood and Gerald Martin of Hereford, two of the top pilots in the Confederate Air Force who flew in the movie, "The Battle of Britain," will reenact a blazing dogfight of World War II in the high-powered fighter planes.

Jan Wampler of Plainview and a group from Clovis, N.M., will fly demonstrations of radio-controlled model aircraft.

"Gyrobat" is a gyrocopter will be performed by Frank Bellocchio of Dallas, a rated flight instructor.

GLIDERS from the High Plains Soaring Society of Amarillo will be on hand and glider rides will be available to spectators.

A giant CH-3 helicopter from Sheppard Air Force Base, Wichita Falls, will join the array of aircraft on display.

Dusty Rhodes of Santa Fe, N.M., national aerobatic judge of the Experimental Aircraft Association, will be on hand to announce activities.

Admission fees will be used by the Plainview Kiwanis Club for youth activities.

175 attend Lions barbecue

By TEENY BOWDEN

A good group, approximately 175, attended the Lions Club barbecue at the community building Saturday night. The proceeds from the supper will be used to improve the community building and assist Girlstown at White Face.

IT IS QUITE evident we will not be getting our pictures made for the church directory Aug. 29, because we have not yet heard from the company. Their representative is overdue, and has not yet called. We will try to give you plenty of advance notice.

An 8-pound girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Glen Wilson Monday afternoon in the new Central Plains Hospital in Plainview. She was named Melinda Jill. A breathing difficulty developed, a lung collapsed, so she had to stay in the incubator for a few days rather than coming home with her mother Thursday. LaGlenda and Gwenelyn stayed with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wilson.

A large group attended the Lions Club hamburger supper at the community building Monday night. It was their regular meeting night.

Rev. and Mrs. M. D. Durham of Lubbock visited last Friday and again Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Phelan.

MRS. RAY JOE RILEY hosted her bridge club last Thursday. Guests were Dorothy Gilbreath of the community and Gail Ratcliff, Kathy Graham, Mona Merritt, Stephanie Love, Martie Benton, Marilyn Hardison, Marilyn Carver, Carolyn Jones, and Shirley Wise, all of Dimmitt.

Rev. and Mrs. Mack Turner and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Phelan of Fieldton had dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Phelan last Sunday. The fire department was called out to the east of the Phelans last Sunday to put out a car that was on fire.

Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Bradley returned home last Friday night after a few days vacation in the mountains of Colorado.

Mrs. A. T. Morgan visited with Mrs. Jimmy Ivy of Lazbuddie last Tuesday afternoon.

BILL RISTER of Abilene and Guy Brass of Eula were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rister. Mrs. Rister took Bill and Guy to Palo Duro State Park Tuesday and Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rister were Sunday night dinner guests of the Claude Moores and Gary of Summerfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Rister had as guests last Monday night the Claude Moores, and Gary, Bill Rister and Guy Brass.

SUNDAY dinner guests of Mrs. J. D. McElroy were her children, Mr. and Mrs. Bud McElroy, Sharon and David, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd McElroy of Littlefield, Mr. and Mrs. James Osborne and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ronnie McElroy and family, Wayne McElroy and Lori Wilson, Mrs. Velma Duncan, Gail and Steve, all of Levelland.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Ivey returned home from their trip through three national parks and into Canada last Saturday night.

Mrs. Thomas Parson came in Thursday evening after attending the WMU house party in Waco this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Dubbie George and children spent last Sunday with his grandmother Mrs. Cletha George and all of her grandchildren except Larry George who is in Vietnam.

Dorothy Gilbreath and Jo Eddie Riley were two of the hostesses at a shower honoring Mrs. George Pulley, the former Kathy Graham in Dimmitt, last Saturday in the home of Mrs. Kenneth Jackson.

Nine men attended the regular Baptist Men's meeting Tuesday night.

ED THOMPSON, net Ed Townsend as reported last week, had part of the stitches taken out of his finger Tuesday and the rest of them Wednesday. He is healing satisfactorily. So is L. B. Bowden's boil or cyst.

Janis Bridge is one of the two Springlake-Earth students entered for the Miss Lamb County Beauty Pageant Aug. 28. She is sponsored by the Springlake Lions Club. She was named second runner-up in the Miss Wool Contest. She is a senior this year.

It was back to school Wednesday for the Dimmitt students. Three teachers on the faculty are from the community — Mrs. Mack Turner, who teaches in the High School and Mrs. Robert Duke and Mrs. Charles Axtell who teach in the grade schools.

Springlake-Earth started enrollment this week. Classes will start Monday. Mrs. Howard Cummings teaches in high school here.

Hart Schools also start Monday with enrollment Friday. Olton School doesn't start until Thursday. Cindy Elkins has been working at the bank in Olton this summer. She will be a senior this year at Olton and a twirler for the band which started practice Monday night. They will have their pictures made Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Powell of Dimmitt, and the children until school started, spent Monday through Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. Ezell Sadler and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Sadler and children. Dorna Hampton, Audrey Shottenkirk, Marie Montiel and Hazel Dunn recently received their caps as student nurses. They will not graduate until next May.

MRS. DEAN KIRBY and boys and Mrs. Larry Odum of Hereford had dinner with Leslie Louder Tuesday. Mrs. Kirby and Dennis visited Tuesday morning with Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Louder, Mrs. L. B. Bowden and Marie Lewis.

Several from the community attended the swimming party at the Earth pool Friday night.

Leslie Louder visited Thursday morning with Mrs. Larry Odum in Hereford. They spent Thursday night with him.

Carl Dean Carson and Don Ott were enrolling at South Plains Junior College in Levalland and getting things in order three days of this week. Classes will start Monday.

Over an inch of rain was received in the northern part of the community Thursday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas spent the weekend vacationing in the mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. Ezell Sadler and Mr. and Mrs. Alton Louder attended the Louder reunion in Lubbock Sunday.

Mrs. Roy Phelan had charge of the current missions program in WMS Wednesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. David Sadler and Melody of Lubbock came out Friday evening to work in the ensilage harvest over the weekend.

New area mental health center is for 'anyone who needs help'

The new mental health-mental retardation center in Plainview, which serves Castro and eight other counties in the area, is intended "to treat people on an individual basis instead of having them warehoused down to the state institutions in Austin, Abilene or Wichita Falls," the Kiwanis Club of Dimmitt was told Monday.

SPEAKING to the local Kiwanians was Mrs. Elizabeth Woodley of Plainview, coordinator for the new center which carries the formidable name of "Central Plains Comprehensive Community Center for Mental Health-Mental Retardation."

The new mental health center is part of the multi-million-dollar Central Plains General Hospital complex, which was recently dedicated.

The center is staffed and equipped to cope with virtually every type of mental or emotional problem and to tailor the treatment to the individual's schedule and needs, Mrs. Woodley said.

"ALCOHOLICS and people with emotional problems can get treatments and therapy over the weekends as in-patients under the partial hospitalization program, and not interrupt their jobs or regular schedules," she said. "Or their treatment can be tailored to day-only or night-only care and therapy, depending on their jobs or schedules."

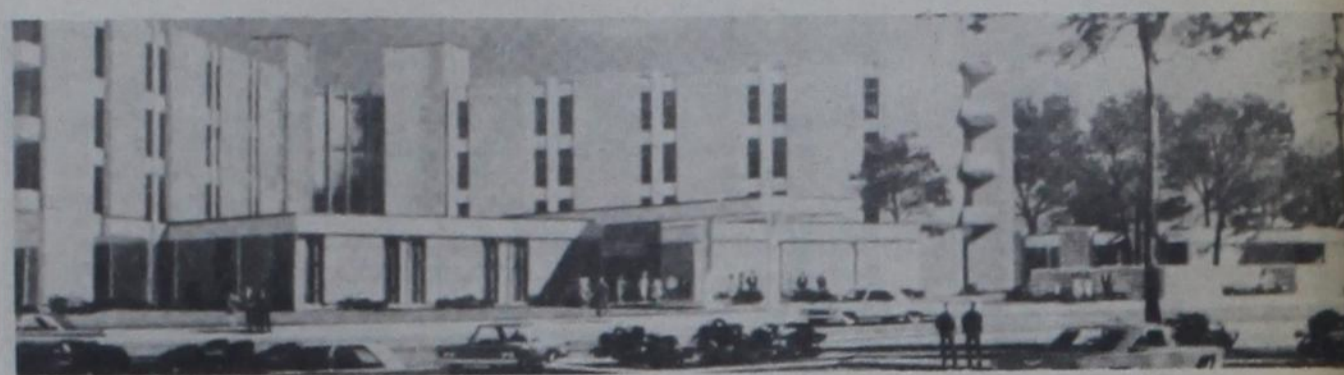

Special group therapy sessions have been set up on Saturday mornings for teenagers with emotional hang-ups, "and we've been averaging 50 to 60 teenagers every Saturday," Mrs. Woodley said.

There's also an out-patient plan for those who need only regular visits with a psychiatrist, social worker or therapist.

THE CENTER is already handling detoxification cases at the rate of 12 a month, Mrs. Woodley said, and is working with drug-takers who have had "bad trips."

"We've already had some from your county with drug problems," she said, "and I'm sure Plainview is more aware of our center now, too, with the drug problem that came to light over the weekend."

The center is now able to take a certain number of "crisis" cases involving those who are

TO SERVE AREA—This is the new Central Plains General Hospital complex in Plainview, with its Central Plains Comprehensive Community Center for Mental Health/Mental Retardation (adjoining main hospital at right). The mental health center serves a nine-county area, including Castro. Members of the Castro County board of advisors for the mental health center served as hosts and hostesses during the recent dedication and open house of the facility. Noel Gollehon of Dimmitt, chairman of the Castro County advisory board, is the county's delegate to the center's board of directors. A full-time social worker is to be named soon to coordinate the center's services for Castro County residents.

at the end of their emotional rope and are considering drastic action or emotional surrender.

"SINCE WE got our full-time psychiatrist in July, it's been one crisis after another," Mrs. Woodley said. "There was a waiting line when I left to come over here today, and we had had to bring in extra chairs. This should give you some indication of how much this center is needed."

Also provided at the center are occupational and recreational therapy facilities for adults and children, with full-time therapists on duty.

Other facilities include sophisticated machines for pinpointing brain or nerve damage, and special equipment for testing mentally retarded persons.

"STARTING Sept. 1, every person who needs to go to a state school for the mentally retarded must apply through the Central Plains Comprehensive Center, where they will be tested," Mrs. Woodley said. "Formerly, the county judge's approval of an application was all that was needed, but not anymore."

County judges and physicians refer drug users, emotional "crisis" cases, alcoholics and anyone else whom they feel can be helped by treatment at the center. Teenagers with emotional problems are usually referred to the center by high school counselors.

"OUR GOAL is to help, treat, cure and release," Mrs. Wood-ley told the Kiwanians. The center is designed toward this goal right down to the color scheme, furniture and so forth.

"For instance, we don't have beds as such," she said. "We have day-beds in the rooms with bolsters on them to make them into sofas in the daytime. The object is to get the person out of bed and out of the center and back into society. The tendency of the emotionally disturbed person has been to get into bed, pull the covers over your head and stay there."

"Our center is designed to do away with the initial shock such as you get at most state institutions, and to let the patient know he is in a friendly atmosphere, among people who care," she said.

SHE added, "No one is turned down because of inability to pay."

Despite the services it is already providing, the center is being hindered in its total program because of a holdup in a federal staffing grant that was expected.

The center, she explained, requires a large staff of professional psychiatrists, psychologists, social workers, consultants and aides and operating expenses will be more than $300,000 per year.

BUT THE center has found itself caught between the philosophies of different administra-

"The community center concept was devised by President John F. Kennedy and was okayed by the Johnson Administration," Mrs. Woodley said. "It was during the Johnson Administration that we wrote our plans for the center. But the Nixon Administration hasn't bought the program."

She added, "We desperately need this federal staffing grant, and we're writing all the letters we can to try to expedite it. Until we get it, we can't carry out our full program."

FOR instance, the center can't start its "crisis intervention" (suicide prevention) service until the federal staffing grant is approved to pay for the staff and facilities which the service will require.

"We had an attempted suicide last week, and had to send the girl on to Dallas, when she could have received complete treatment right in Plainview if we had had our staff and facilities available."

Also being held up by the staffing grant delay is a pilot program for Castro and Bailey Counties, in which a resident social worker will be hired to help individuals at the local level and refer them to the Plainview center when indicated.

THE NEW center is the first of its type in Texas to be built in a city of less than 100,000 to serve a multi-county rural area, Mrs. Woodley said. Previously, all mental health centers established in the state were located in metropolitan areas.

Boosters urge sign-ups today

J. R. Matthews, president of the Dimmitt Athletic Booster Club, this week urged all who want to take part in the club's activities this year to pay their dues no later than today (Thursday).

NAMES of all paid-up Booster Club members will be included on the club's page in this year's DHS football program, which goes to press Friday.

Dues are $5 per couple and may be taken to the club treasurer, Dr. James Sims, at his dental office at 408 1/2 NW Fifth St.

The Booster Club's first regular meeting of the year will be Monday night, Sept. 7, when members will view the 1969 Southwest Conference football highlights movie. The meeting is open to all interested persons, and a special invitation has been extended to all DHS football players and their parents. Refreshments will be served.

ASCS ballots to be mailed

ASC community committee election ballots will be mailed to all known eligible farm voters Tuesday, according to Jim Elder, chairman of the Castro County Conservation Committee.

FARM VOTERS may vote for up to three of the candidates listed, or they may write in their choices on lines provided at the bottom of the ballot. To be counted, all ballots must be properly signed and mailed or returned to the county ASCS office by Sept. 11. Votes will be tabulated Sept. 15 at 8 a.m. in the county ASCS office.

In each of the five ASC communities in the county, three community committee members and two alternates will be elected. The candidate receiving the largest number of votes becomes chairman; the second largest vote-getter, vice-chairman; third, high, regular member; fourth and fifth highest become first and second alternates who may serve on the committee if regular members are temporarily absent or if a permanent vacancy occurs.

ASC community committees are temporarily absent or if a permanent vacancy occurs.

"IT'S VERY important that farmers elect their most qualified farm-neighbors for community committee posts," Elder said. "These community committees elect the county ASC committee and choose its officers. They also assist the county ASC committee in local administration of government farm programs and help keep farmers informed on how the programs affect individual farm operations."

Any farm-owner, tenant or sharecropper who is of legal voting age may vote if he has an interest in a farm and is eligible to participate in any ASCS program administered in his community. Others who may vote are spouses of eligible voters, a minor who supervises and conducts the operation of an entire farm, a legal guardian who manages a farm for a child, and a person representing a legal entity such as a partnership or corporation.

Elder pointed out that producers who have farm interests in more than one community may select the community in which to vote, but may vote in only one community in the county.

VOTING by proxy is not allowed. Voters who certify their ballots with an "X" for a signature must do so before a witness and obtain the signature of the witness for the ballot to be counted.

A list of known eligible voters is open for inspection at the county ASCS office. Any person who believes he is an eligible voter but who is not listed should get in touch with the county ASCS office as soon as possible, Elder said.

He also said that any voter who has not received a ballot in the mail within a few days after Sept. 1 should call the county ASCS office to arrange to receive a duplicate ballot if necessary.

Chief wants 'mug shots' of past city dads

Calling all former Dimmitt mayors and commissioners: REPORT to the police chief — he wants your picture for his files.

Don't jump to the wrong conclusions — he doesn't suspect you of a thing. He just wants your picture for a city hall display which he's compiling.

Chief W. W. Jones is trying to round up photographs of all former mayors and commissioners so he can have them copied for a permanent city hall display. The photo displays will be accompanied by brief histories of each commission's achievements.

DIMITT'S city commissions date back to 1925, Jones said. "I've got the pictures of a lot of them, but I'm having a hard time rounding up the rest," the police chief said this week. For former city officials who are no longer living, Jones is depending on their families to provide photos.

If your commission had a group photo made while you were in office, that would be best for the display, Jones said. Otherwise, individual photos will be sufficient.

EASY RIDER—When W. H. Bellinghausen broke out some grassland on his farm 3 1/2 miles southeast of Nazareth, this young prairie dog was left without a home, and was lost in the newly plowed field. Bellinghausen caught the confused young animal, put him in a bird cage, and now gives him a steady diet of oats, grain and leaves. Whether the young prairie barker is at home or commuting to the farm with Bellinghausen, he shows an unabashed curiosity about everything that's going on around him.

bigger and more experienced teams we'll be playing this year." The powerful Floydada Whirlwinds, who lost only to state champion Iowa Park in the regional playoff last year, have most of their big green machine back this year and are ranked as the top Class AA team in North Texas.

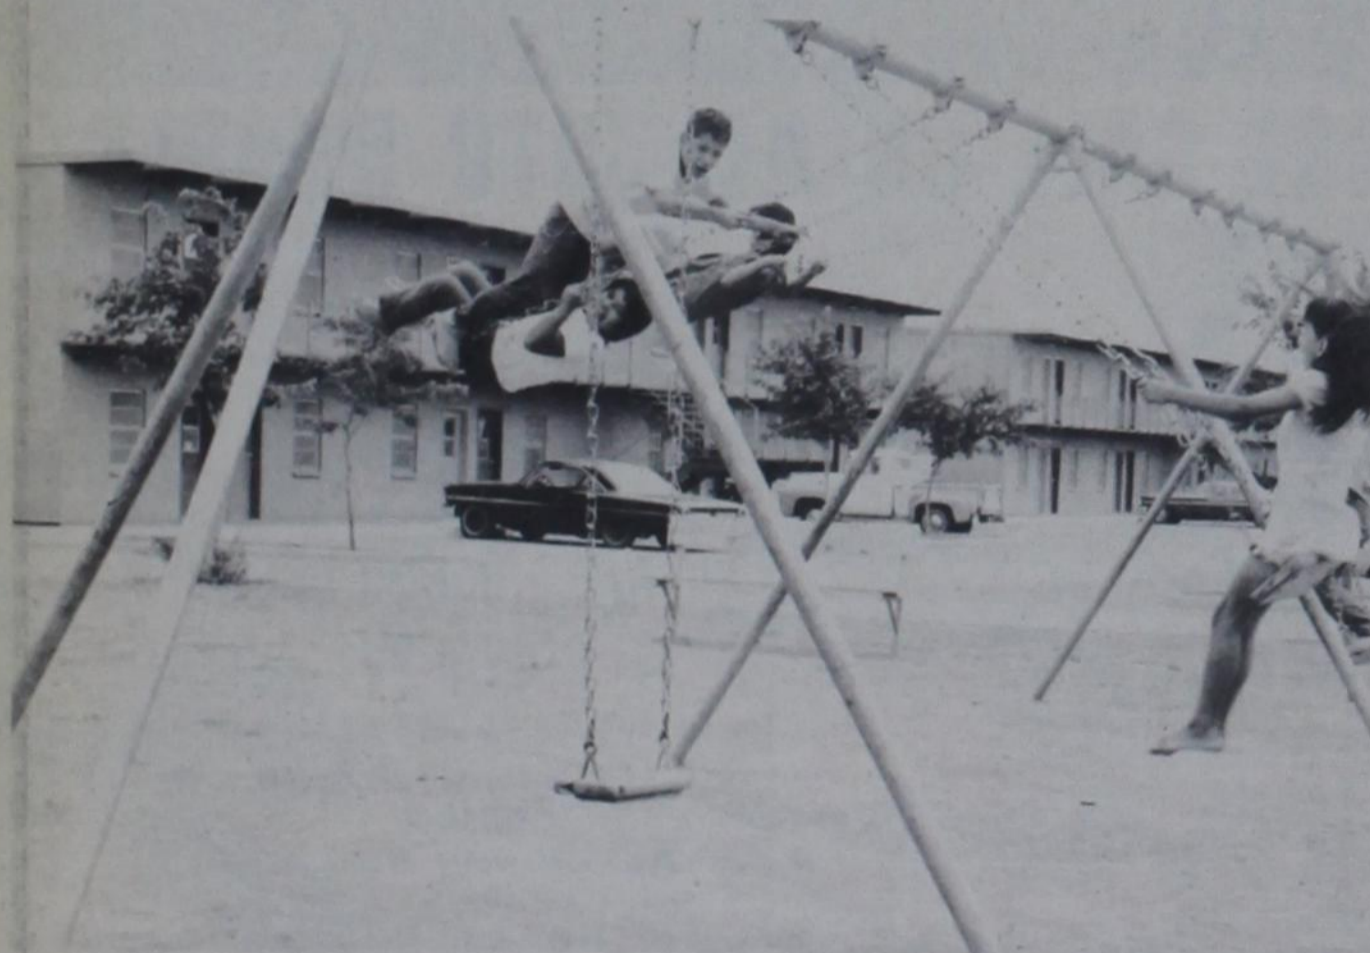

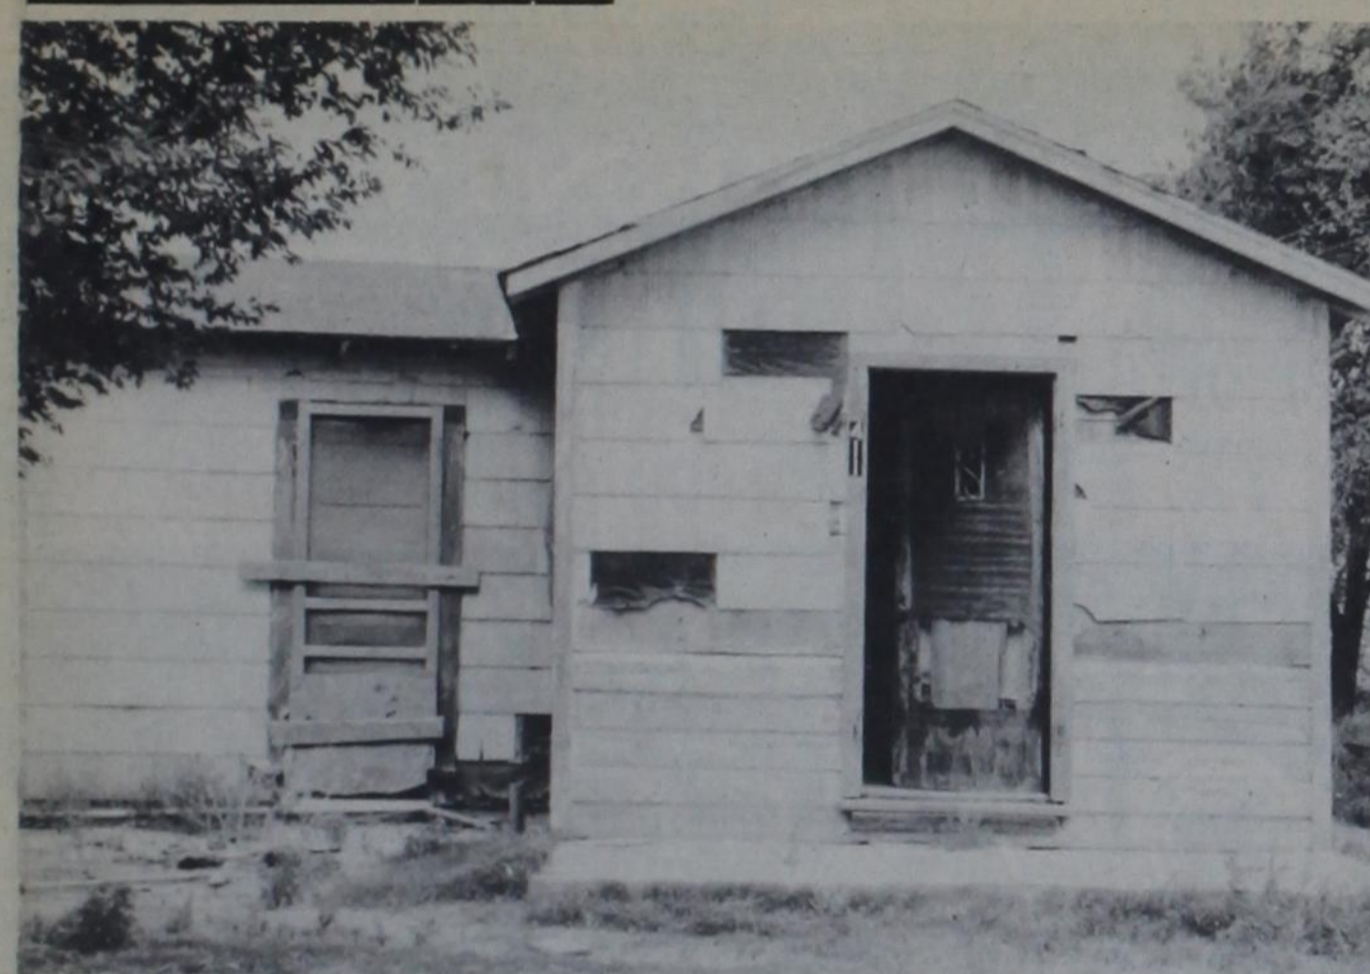

As if that weren't a tough enough problem to ponder, Smith's young charges will have to face a rugged new opponent in district play this year — Littlefield, which has dropped from AAA status and is expected to field a powerhouse. Also new in the district is Morton, which is likely to be strong. Then there's Olton — there's always Olton. And Lockney. And...

"I THINK our overall schedule will be tougher than it has been," Smith said. "Every opponent will be stronger, I think."

On the Go

RECENTLY moving to Dimmitt are Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Bracheen and baby from Oklahoma City. Jerry is with A-1 Mechanical. The Bracheens will live on South Fifth Street.

The Face of Dimmitt

OLD VS. NEW—The desolate shack in the top photo represents the only type of housing that formerly was available to migrant workers and their families here. Such shacks—which degrade their occupants, their neighborhood and the community itself—are still the rule rather than the exception in most Texas cities where migrant workers seek housing. Slum dwellings such as this—and many others that are much worse—are perpetuated not only by landlords but also by crew chiefs who don't want to pay the rent for decent housing for their workers. Fortunately, though, there has been a welcome change in the face of Dimmitt. In the bottom photo, workers' children enjoy the playground equipment at the Castro County Agricultural Housing Project, where they and their parents live in decent family apartments. All 192 of the project's living units were filled this summer, and it's reasonable to expect that they will be full-up every summer from now on. This is proof enough that both employers and workers appreciate decent housing. The new housing project has improved Dimmitt's statewide reputation as a community that cares, and opens the way to more future growth. The Castro County Agricultural Housing Association and the Farmers Home Administration are to be commended for seeing this gigantic pilot project through and for creating such an improvement in the face of Dimmitt.
