Old Timers Talk Of Pioneer Days

By BOBBY HORTON
The kindly spirit of memory was much in evidence among old timers, as they gathered under the shade of pavilions in City Park today for the 35th Annual Old Settlers Reunion.

Upwards of 1,000 had poured in to the park shortly before the barbecue dinner was served. More sought parking space as the first plate came from the serving lines.

The meat, beans and son-of-a-gun stew had cooked practically all night for the big day. The picnic was accommodated by perfect summer weather.

Threat Of Gas Chamber Looms In Tragic Romance

WEST COVINA, Calif. (AP) — The threat of the gas chamber looms over the romance of Dr. Bernard Finch and Carole Tregoff, lovers in a triangle shattered by death.

They are charged with murdering the doctor's pretty wife, socialite Barbara Finch, 33, found shot in the back near the Finches' $65,000 home July 18.

Fingerprinted

Red-headed Carole Tregoff, 22-year-old divorcee and girl friend of Dr. Bernard Finch, holds an ink-stained hand behind her back as she is fingerprinted by Sgt. Bill Handran at West Covina, Calif., police headquarters. Finch is charged with murdering his wife, Barbara, 33. Carole was arrested as she stepped from the witness stand during the preliminary hearing for Finch where she admitted her love and intimacies with the 41-year-old surgeon. She too was charged with murder and accused of helping Finch to slay his wife.

Lady Reporter Didn't 'Dig' Her Assignment

WASHINGTON (AP) — Marie Smith took President Eisenhower at his word.

When President Eisenhower was asked by a newsman at his news conference Wednesday about his plans after he leaves the White House, he said a decision about any apartment in Washington would be up to the First Lady.

The President suggested, "You had better get some of your lady reporter friends to go and talk to her about it."

So Miss Smith, a Washington Post reporter, went to work. In a front page story in today's Post, Miss Smith wrote:

I dialed National 8-1414 and asked to speak to Mrs. Eisenhower. The pleasant-voiced operator asked "Who's calling Mrs. Eisenhower?"

I replied just as pleasantly, "Marie Smith."

She said "Just a minute," and for a split second I was sure I was going to speak directly to the First Lady of the land.

The operator came back on the line. "You're with the Post, aren't you?" I admitted the truth. Then she said "Just a minute" again and before my hopes of talking voice to voice with Mrs. Eisenhower had a chance to start sinking, another voice came on the line.

"Yes, Marie, can I help you?" It was the crisp but friendly voice of Mary Jane McCaffree, Mrs. Eisenhower's efficient social secretary.

I told her I wanted to speak to Mrs. Eisenhower. The President suggested that I ask her if they were planning to take an apartment here when they move out of the White House in 1961.

"Oh, he didn't mean for you to do it directly," she said, beginning to laugh. I laughed too and replied that I thought that was what he was saying.

"Well the answer is that she doesn't have any plans where she's going to live then," she said with a smile still in her voice.

"So that's it, Mr. President. I tried."

Brief Shower Cools Town

A light shower Thursday, officially measured at .25 of an inch at the U. S. Experiment Station, cooled off the city and urged a drop in water consumption.

The total for the day was 7,452,000 gallons, considerably less than the 9,100,000 gallons used in the same day last year.

On the east side of Big Spring in the Howard County Junior College area, 3 of an inch was gauged. Apparently, the shower was general throughout the immediate area. Very light showers fell in the southwest part of town.

The Texas Electric Service Co. plant reported 3 of an inch and the switching plant had 1. At Coahoma 25 inch measured.

At Wild Horse Creek, there was a rain report but no measurement. The TESCO Chalk substation in the Forsan area had no fall and no reports of moisture came from Garden City.

Reaction Swift To Tax Measure

AUSTIN (AP) — It took Texas legislators 195 days — a regular and three special sessions — to get together and pass a record 185-million-dollar tax bill.

Thereafter the reaction, was swift. Within an hour after the final vote late yesterday, a drug store owner phoned Capital newspapers.

"Say," he asked, "did that bill get enough votes to go into immediate effect?"

The answer was yes. "I thought so," said the caller. "I'm already getting a run on cigarettes. People want to avoid that new tax."

The measure boosts the state cigarette tax from 5 to 8 cents a pack.

But that "immediate effect" business isn't quite as urgent as some persons feared. The levy is effective Sept. 1, when the state's new fiscal year starts.

Pat Nixon Is 'Candy Lady,' And A Gracious Visitor

By FRANCES LEWINE
SVERDLOVSK, Soviet Union (AP)—"You are kind to invite us," said the smiling American woman calling on the Soviet miner's wife. "I hope you come and visit me sometime."

Pat Nixon was on one of her side excursions Thursday, visiting a worker's apartment at the Degtyarsk copper mine.

"You have a cozy place here," she commented after being shown over the spotlessly clean two bedrooms, living room and kitchen occupied by the miner, his wife and baby.

A small crowd gathered outside to get a look at the foreign visitor in Siberia.

"Come to America," the vice president's wife gaily called out to them.

Mrs. Nixon is a smiling, gracious visitor. She delicately sidesteps anything political. She admires whatever the Soviets show her and thanks them.

She handed a stick of chewing gum to a little boy who was getting a health examination. The youngster looked frightened and didn't know what to do with it.

"My daughter loves to chew gum," assured Mrs. Nixon. Then she asked her interpreter to caution the boy "don't swallow it."

"I am known as the candy lady," she told reporters.

The Soviets—the grumpy that is—don't always appreciate her goodwill tokens.

At times youngsters waiting to greet the "candy lady" have been steered away by police and prevented from getting any sweets.

MICHAEL L. BENEDUM
M. L. Benedum, Colorful Oil Pioneer, Dies

PITTSBURGH (AP) — Michael Late Benedum, fabulous oil wild-catter who earned about 100 million dollars in his 90 years, died Thursday at his Pittsburgh home.

The colorful king of the oil prospectors had an unmatchable career that extended back almost to the start of the oil business in the United States. The 100th anniversary of the industry will be marked Aug. 17 in Titusville, Pa.

He celebrated his 90th birthday July 18. At that time the balding, bespectacled Benedum said: "I am not afraid of death because I have not been afraid of life."

Mike Benedum probably discovered more oil than any other man in history. Starting with almost nothing he made and lost several fortunes before he was 50, then went on to amass an oil empire that embraced almost a score of companies.

Benedum's principal business, the Benedum-Trees Oil Co., was the parent firm of a number of other companies, including Plymouth Oil Co., Mel-Ben Oil Co., Hiawatha Oil & Gas Co., Penn-Oil and Bentex.

Benedum found oil in many parts of the world, including Ohio, West Virginia, Pennsylvania, Texas, Illinois and New Mexico in the United States and South America, Mexico and Romania.

He married Sara Nancy Lutz in Cameron, W. Va. in 1896. Their only son, Claude Worthington Benedum, died in 1918 at the age of 20 while serving with the Army in World War I. Mrs. Benedum died in 1951.

Benedum's closest survivors are three nephews and a niece—Clayton G. Benedum of Pittsburgh, Paul G. Benedum of San Augustine, Tex.; Darwin Benedum of San Antonio, Tex.; and Mrs. Paul Masburn of Albany, N.Y.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow with burial at Homewood Cemetery here.

COURT ORDER

Troubled Peace In Hoffa Union

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — There is court-ordered peace today with-in troubled Local 100 of the Teamsters Union.

The local is one which has been racked with strife between factions opposing and favoring James R. Hoffa, Teamsters International president.

Officers of the local, elected last winter on an anti-Hoffa platform, Thursday obtained a temporary restraining order to prevent 15 members of the other group from interfering with operations of the local or even entering the union headquarters.

That came after an outbreak of fighting at the union hall Wednesday night which resulted in the arrest of 12 members of the pro-Hoffa "rank and file" committee. All were charged with trespassing and disorderly conduct.

Cases of seven of the men were continued in Police Court until Aug. 6. Four others asked for jury trials, to be held later, and the 12th man was to be given a hearing today.

The 12 men, plus three others, were named in the restraining order granted by Common Pleas Court Judge Charles E. Weber at the request of attorneys for officers of Local 100.

Among the latter three were George P. Starling, who was defeated last winter for re-election as president of the local; Charles H. Govan, defeated for business representative, and Edward Hartman Jr.

The injunction petition charged them with unlawfully seeking to gain control of the union offices. Judge Weber said he will conduct a hearing later on whether to make the restraining order permanent.

Promises To Answer Red Hecklers

MOSCOW (AP)—Vice President Richard M. Nixon returned today from a flying Siberian-Ural trip and promised to answer Soviet hecklers in a televised speech to the Russian people Saturday night.

Nixon also is expected to give a nationwide television report to the American people after he stops off in Poland for a three-day visit.

He called off all appointments at the American Embassy tonight as well as most of Saturday. At Moscow Airport, Nixon in effect urged the Russians to hear and see his address.

Talking into a microphone, he said: "When I speak tomorrow night at 8 o'clock I will discuss and answer some of the questions I got during the trip. I will also give my impressions of the Soviet economy, the managers, workers and people."

Nixon called his fast-moving, five day trip outside Moscow "very interesting." The Russian people, he said, are very friendly to Americans even as the people of the United States are toward the people of the U.S.S.R.

"I found a common interest in finding ways to peace," he said. "I heard on every side the word 'mir druzhba'—peace and friendship."

Nixon, accompanied by his wife and his 30-member official party, flew into the Soviet capital aboard a Russian TU104 jet. It whisked him in 2 hours from the Ural industrial city of Sverdlovsk, 850 miles away.

During the flight, he dictated part of his address to a secretary. He arranged to spend six hours drafting it further tonight.

Nixon seemed tired after his 5,000 mile tour in the Soviet Union.

In ending his stay in the Soviet hinterland, Nixon appealed for world leaders to settle their political disputes so that Soviet and American scientists could devote their full time to peaceful atomic work instead of atomic bombs.

Nixon made his plea after traveling deep into a Siberian birch forest to inspect the site of a Soviet atomic power plant. He found a swarm of some 3,000 men and women workers, but the plant was only half as big as expected.

Vice Adm. Hyman G. Rickover, father of the U.S. atomic submarine, accompanied Nixon and seconded his words with an invitation to the Soviet engineers at the plant to tour American atomic installations.

Nixon, looking out over the maze of semi-finished brick and concrete buildings, told the workmen: "This is the most hopeful use of the atom. We look forward to our efforts to opening up great new vistas for both our people rather than production of atomic weapons."

Soviet engineers applauded Nixon's views.

W. Germany Asks Allies To Firm Up

GENEVA (AP)—West Germany today urged the United States to stand firm against any pressure to make concessions to the Russians in the final days of the Big Four foreign ministers conference, reliable informants said.

The plea was made directly to U.S. Secretary of State Christian A. Herter by Heinrich von Brentano, West German foreign minister, at an hour's conference, these sources added.

West Germany fears a diplomatic trap may be sprung by Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko before the conference ends or recesses Wednesday. The Germans believe Gromyko may offer a concession in Soviet demands that the Western garrisons get out of Berlin, then use this to pry concessions from the West.

Associates said Von Brentano told Herter his government believes any Berlin solution based on the latest Soviet proposals would weaken the Western position in Berlin. One aspect of the Soviet plan that alarmed the Germans was the proposal for curtailing propaganda and subversive activities in Berlin.

Willy Brandt, mayor of West Berlin, sat in on the talks between Von Brentano and Herter.

The West Germans met with Herter shortly before he went into another secret session with Gromyko, British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd and French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville at Gromyko's villa.

Meanwhile, high-level experts from East and West failed to reach agreement in a session devoted to an effort to find common language in the rival Soviet and Western proposals for a Berlin settlement.

Qualified informants said the experts then decided to inform the Big Four ministers of their failure and leave to the ministers a decision on whether they would meet again.

Warmer air also returned to Montana, Wyoming and the Dakotas, it was fairly dry.

Clear skies prevailed across most sections of the country this morning but showers and thunderstorms were in prospect during the day in the warm and humid belt.

Manitzas Cited For Reporting Work

AUSTIN (AP) — The Austin chapter of Sigma Delta Chi Thursday night commended The Associated Press and AP staffer Frank Manitzas for "breaking through the conference committee screen" of the 56th Legislature.

The professional journalism chapter approved a resolution following a series of exclusive articles by Manitzas on the state spending budget which had been tentatively approved in closely guarded secret sessions.

The resolution commended The AP and Manitzas "for their contributions to freedom of information and the right of people to know what is happening to their state government."

Manitzas has been with the Austin AP Bureau since March, 1956. He is a former staffer of the San Angelo Standard Times.

3 Youths Die In Highway Crash

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — Three youths died early today when two automobiles crashed here in what police said was an 80-mile-an-hour race.

Officers said the cars were racing side by side when both drivers lost control. One vehicle crashed into the concrete base of a utility pole. The other struck a bridge railing.

Killed were Amador Plata, 18, and Hector Martinez. Carlos Gomez, 23, pinned in the wreckage until the metal could be cut away, died several hours later.

Two other youths were injured.

Red Precautions

VIENNA, Austria (AP) — Officials of the seventh Communist World Youth Festival took new precautions today to prevent any mass defection of Iron Curtain delegates to the West.

FISHERS OF MEN

60 Recruited In Y Leader Effort

More than three score of leaders were enrolled for various places during the Fishers of Men campaign which concluded Thursday evening.

This was 80 per cent of the goal, but many reports are yet outstanding and Joe Pickle, general chairman, expressed confidence that the target would be achieved.

New leaders were installed in a ceremony conducted by Floyd Parsons, chairman of the youth activities committee. Fishhooks symbolic of the Fishers of Men role were given to all leaders and to those who enrolled them.

R. H. Weaver, president of the YMCA, welcomed leaders into the YMCA volunteers family and noted the opportunity for shaping Christian personalities. Others who spoke were Everett Taylor, program director, and Freddie Bonfield, who spoke for the young people.

Mrs. J. D. Cauble was the top team captain, and Mrs. Margaret Johnson led the list in number of leaders recruited. Workers reaching quotas were Mrs. Cauble, Clyde McMahon, Jerry Spence, E. L. Terry, Mrs. R. H. Weaver, Mrs. Dan Krause, Mrs. Don Newsom, Wade Choate, Mrs. John Hardy, John Hardy, Tom Guin and Mrs. R. R. McEwen.

Benediction for the dinner affair held at the First Presbyterian Church, was pronounced by Bobo Hardy, general secretary of the Y.

KICK IN PANTS SAVES A LIFE

OAKWOOD, Okla. (AP) — Glen Thomas owes his life to a swift kick in the pants.

Thomas, 65 and deaf, was walking along the Santa Fe Railroad tracks near here Thursday night when a freight train approached.

Engineer W. U. Gaylord blew his whistle, but Thomas kept walking on the tracks.

Gaylord sent his fireman to the front end of the locomotive as he slowed the machine. Just before the engine reached Thomas, the fireman punched. Thomas tumbled head over heels away from the engine.

DEAR ABBY

TAKE A TRIP

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I am a 65-year-old woman and my sweetheart is 75. He has asked me to marry him. I was his housekeeper for nine years. He is a very nervous man and he told me that if he had to take a blood test at his age he would just as soon forget about the wedding. If the law insists on a blood test I am afraid he will back out on me. Do you think we need one?
 OLDSTERS: Call your clergyman (or the Justice of the Peace) and ask if a blood test is required in your state. If it is, find out which state nearest to you does not require one. (Maybe you can needle him into a little trip.)

DEAR ABBY: After returning home from a party, my gentleman friend came into my apartment for a little snack. He had worked all day and was very tired. After having a bite to eat, he flopped on my sofa and in a few minutes he was sound asleep. I let him sleep for about an hour, then I shook him and told him to get up and go home. He was very angry and hurt. He said I should have thrown a blanket over him and let him sleep.

I told him I lived in an apartment and didn't want to give my neighbors anything to talk about. He thinks because we plan to be married one of these days, I am childish. I would like your opinion.
 TRUDY: You were wise. A woman's reputation is like the authenticity of an oil painting. Once it is questioned—it is never quite the same.

DEAR ABBY: Before our baby was born my husband told his father if it was a boy we'd name it after him (Charles) and not knowing this I told my father I would name it after him (Herman). Well, it was a boy and I was in a predicament so we named the baby

"Charles Herman." My parents live out of town. When they come here they call the baby "Herman." They think that's his first name, but it's his middle name. Naturally my husband's folks call the baby "Charlie." I feel so cheap about this I could die. The baby is still an infant but when he gets old enough to answer to his name, won't this confuse him?
 DEAR NANCY: I hope by the time the baby can answer to his name you will have gathered the courage to tell your folks that the baby's MIDDLE name is "Herman." Name the next one "Herman" (or Hermine). Better check it out with your husband before you make any more promises.

DEAR ABBY: My husband is a wonderful guy but he has one bad fault. He always has his nose in a book, magazine or newspaper. Do you think he is happy with his home life? I sometimes think he is bored. He says he loves me, but he doesn't act like it. Please answer this.
 DEPRESSED: Why don't you read? Select the items in this newspaper that will make good conversation (don't forget the sports section) and strike up a lively conversation with your husband about it.

When a person reads in the presence of another, he is usually doing it in self-defense. Give him something more interesting to do, and he'll read YOU — loud and clear.

To get ABBY's booklet, "What Every Teen-Ager Wants to Know," send 25 cents and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope to ABBY in care of The Big Spring Herald.

Town Evacuates When Missile Flies

By RALPH DIGHTON SURF, Calif. (AP) — Evacuate! The cry sweeps through this tiny beach town and everything stops.

Navy buses roll down the dusty streets and 35 to 40 men, women and children climb aboard. At 7 minus 45 minutes, the buses roar away—and everyone in the country knows a big rocket is about to be fired.

Surf, Calif., is a stop on the Southern Pacific Railroad, which runs along the coast through the West's new missile launching area.

North of Surf is the 84,000-acre Vandenberg Air Force Base. To the south is Pt. Arguello, the Navy's 19,000-acre missile launching facility.

Discoverer satellite rockets arc southward from Vandenberg toward an orbit around the earth's poles. If one of them should explode or have to be destroyed, the debris might fall on Surf and Pt. Arguello.

The day before a Discoverer firing the people at Surf are alerted to get ready for evacuation. A few grumble but most of them, families of track maintenance workers, welcome this interruption of their quiet existence among the sand dunes.

Mrs. Nick Juarez, mother of three says "It's like a picnic, except that you have to go whether you want to or not. The kids think it's wonderful."

Station master Bob Wolfe is the only one who doesn't leave. Just before shot time he ducks into a crude bomb shelter made of an old fuel tank and covered with sandbags.

The civilians evacuated from Surf go shopping in nearby Lompoc, see movies at Vandenberg, or visit friends. After the launching they are hauled back home.

The government foots the bill and reimburses the railroad for the time its workmen are off the job. This is a fairly inexpensive operation.

But everything also stops at the Pt. Arguello facility, where missile and space vehicle launch sites are under construction. Twenty-four hours before a Discoverer firing, all workmen are notified to take the next day off.

A contractor source estimates this cost currently at $25,000 a day.

Discoverer V, originally scheduled to be fired Tuesday, was postponed to Wednesday, then Thursday because of weather and technical problems. Late Thursday the shot was postponed again, for at least 48 hours. Each day the people at Surf were evacuated and the work at Pt. Arguello shut down.

Noted Gem Thief Nabbed

GREENWICH, Conn. (AP) — A widely known jewel thief was arrested Thursday after he was discovered in the home of financier Alexander Guterman.

Police said Hamilton Channell, 70, was captured after 100-mile-an-hour chase.

Guterman's wife returned to her estate home here and found Channell in her kitchen. Thinking quickly, she asked if he were a real estate man. He said yes. They chatted a while, then he left.

As the man drove away, Mrs. Guterman called Greenwich police. They chased Channell down the Merritt Parkway, over the New York state line. New York police pursued him along the Hutchinson River Parkway.

In West Harrison, N.Y., a policeman spotted Channell driving slowly. When he was arrested, police said, he had $1,800 in cash and diamond jewelry. He tried to throw some of the gems away.

Channell was held in Westchester County Jail at White Plains for arraignment as a fugitive from Connecticut justice. He has been arrested 40 times during several decades.

56th Legislature Passes Tax Bill

By GARTH JONES AUSTIN (AP) — After 194 days of trying, the 56th Legislature passed a tax bill.

By an 85-44 vote the House approved late Thursday the 185-million dollar tax measure that passed the Senate 29-3 on Wednesday. The House later raised its approving vote to 115-25 to put the bill in effect Sept. 1, the beginning of the state's fiscal year.

Both houses then quit until Monday when they hope to begin final work on their second big job of the session — an appropriations bill to cover 1960-1961 spending.

The Senate meets at 10:30 a.m. Monday and the House at 3 p.m. There were more smiles on Capitol Hill Thursday afternoon. Bitter political enemies pumped each other's hand and headed arm-in-arm for the nearest refreshment center — milk bar or beer joint.

You obviously have accomplished quite a feat today," said Speaker Waggoner Carr, who fought Gov. Price Daniel's demands for a new type tax on natural gas that at the end of the bill into the law and voted to put the new levy into immediate effect.

"You have one more feat to accomplish — the appropriations bill," Carr told the House. "The speaker has urged the appropriations committee to go to work at once and bring out a bill, probably Monday."

Rep. Bill Healy, Paducah, head of the House Appropriations Committee, promised that his 21-man group would not stop work "until the spending bill is in accordance with the tax bill."

Legislative leaders estimate the 185-million dollar tax bill raises from 10 to 20 million dollars more than the 1960-1961 spending plans tentatively approved at the end of the second special session. That also includes the current 34 million deficit.

"The comptroller will cut the bill down now that we've got it passed," Rep. B. H. Dewey, Bryan, a member of the Appropriations Committee predicted Thursday night. "I'm going to work to put every dime we've got into that appropriations bill."

The House decision Thursday and the Senate's day before ended an unequalled brawl between legislators who want more sales taxes and those who want more natural gas taxes. Both won and both lost.

The most controversial item of the present bill is a 1 1/2 per cent levy on the first purchaser of natural gas or a severance beneficiary tax. However, 72 per cent of the bill is sales taxes, compared to 28 per cent on industry.

"We could have bought this bill last May," Rep. Dean Johnston, Houston, argued in an unsuccessful attempt to sidetrack the measure to another compromise committee. "This rotten sales tax the Senate sent us will be all right, some people say, because we've got that puny tax on big natural gas that will bring in only 7 1/2 million dollars a year."

Rep. Robert Hughes, Dallas, joined Johnston in his efforts. He said the bill is poorly written "and we need to send it to a conference committee to get the bugs out."

"I'm afraid a conference committee will put more bugs in it than there are now," said Rep. Bob Eckhardt, Houston, influential House leader in sponsoring the severance beneficiary tax. Daniel said earlier the natural gas tax is generally acceptable as written.

In addition to the $15,000,000 the gas tax will bring during the next biennium, the other major money raisers include:

Motor vehicle sales tax increase from 1.1 to 1.5 per cent, $15,500,000; cigarette tax increase of 3 cents a pack, $64,452,000; new and increased taxes on cigars and other tobacco products, snuff exempted, $14,500,000; special fuels, better enforcement, $300,000; utilities gross receipts, telephone and telegraph exempted, increased 20 per cent, $3,100,000; corporation franchise tax increase, 75 cents for one year and 30 cents for both years, both temporary, $32,500,000;

Boats and motors, 1.5 per cent of retail, $2,800,000; air conditioners, 3 per cent of retail, $7,575,000; radios, television, phonograph sets and parts, 3 per cent of retail, $6,200,000; jewelry and furs, 3 per cent of retail for items $25 and over, $5,000,000; hotel and motel rooms, 3 per cent of occupancy rate, $6,600,000; liquor tax increase from $1.40 to $1.68 and wine tax increased 20 per cent, $6,334,800; comptroller's improved administration and collection, $4,000,000.

TRIPLE INTEREST

Versatility Highlight Of Three-Piece Suit

Toni Owen gets you ready for school with a three-course program that you can wear to parties, lounge in, or mix and mate with other items in your wardrobe.

The wide, flared skirt has a big box pleat in front with a series of smaller pleats following around to the back. To wear with it or the shorter-than ankle length tapered slacks is a mandarin like top, opened out at the bottom in a crisp and controlled pleat.

Use cord to trim the stand-up collar, and match it in color to velvet, corduroy, flannel, tweed texture, faille, rayon mixtures.

From this size chart select the one size best for you:

Size	Bust	Waist	Hips	Neck to Neck	Waist to Neck
10	34	24	35	16 1/2	16 1/2
12	36	26	37	17	17
14	38	28	39	17 1/2	17 1/2
16	40	30	41	18	18
18	42	32	43	18 1/2	18 1/2
20	44	34	45	19	19

Size 12 requires 5 1/2 yards of 36-inch material for jacket and skirt, pants require 2 yards of 36-inch material.

To order Pattern No. 1164, state size, send $1. Add 5 cents postage. For Toni Owen label, send 25 cents. For Pattern Book No. 15, send $1.

Hostesses Compliment Miss Campbell At Tea

Festivities continue for local brides-elect with more joining the group honored at teas and dinners.

Charlene Campbell is an addition to the betrothed girls who are being complimented. Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Campbell, Western Hills, she is the bride-elect of Donnie Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Smith, Kennebec Heights. The two will exchange wedding vows on Aug. 14.

The home of Mrs. J. L. Dorland was opened for the bridal tea Thursday evening, when she was joined by Mrs. Tom McAdams, Mrs. G. N. Bumgarner, Mrs. R. V. Foresyth, Mrs. Don Gable, Mrs. O. C. Phillips, Mrs. Tommy May, Mrs. C. D. Herring, Mrs. Stuart Cahoon, Mrs. C. D. Herring Jr., Mrs. Earl Wilson, Mrs. Luther Coleman, Mrs. Clinton Hull and Mrs. W. E. Wadsworth.

Mrs. Dorland presented Mrs. Campbell and Mrs. Smith and the honoree, who was attired in a linen, embroidered in a rosy beige. Assisting with the serving were the sisters of the couple, Mary Campbell and Sharon Smith, along with Laverne Carter, Jo Ann Ebling and Camille Hefley.

A floor length organdy cloth was used on the tea table where tiny wedding bells and bows were caught at intervals on the edge and a centerpiece was formed of yellow gladioli and tapers in crystal holders.

About 100 guests were included on the invitation list.

Mrs. Coates Entertains Lomax Club

As a roll call Thursday afternoon, members of the Lomax Home Demonstration Club told what they like about club work. The group met in the home of Mrs. Carroll Coates.

Mrs. Raymond Phillips brought the devotion for eight, and in an election, she was named to head the club for the coming year. Mrs. Gene Perry will be vice president; Mrs. Lawrence Adkins, secretary-treasurer, and Mrs. Neil Fryar council representative.

Serving as parliamentarian will be Mrs. Henry Davidson; Mrs. Tom Newman will be the reporter.

Mrs. Williams reported on the plans for the yearbook being formed by the council.

Date for the community picnic was set for Aug. 14 at 7:30 p.m. in the Big Spring City Park. The entire community is expected to attend, it was announced, with families bringing picnic lunches.

The club will have the next regular session in the home of Mrs. Perry on Sept. 3.

District 4-H Revue Held Today

Judging in the 4-H Club dress contest for District Two is being done today with about 18 girls expected for the revue.

Gathering at Texas Tech in Lubbock, the girls were to show their dresses this morning for judging.

Today at noon, they were to be guests at a luncheon given in the Tech Student Union Building, at which time the public was slated to view the show.

Attending from Howard County is Neva Jean Jackson, a member of the Knott 4-H Club, who was the winner in the senior division in the local contest.

Winners in the district competition will be eligible for entry in the state dress revue.

T. J. Walkers Have Houseful Of Guests

HOLLYWOOD BEAUTY High-Heels Wearer Must Care For Feet

By LYDIA LANE
HOLLYWOOD — When Columbia Records signed Gloria Wood for an album called "Wood by the Fire," they asked that she get in the mood by dyeing her hair flame red.

"Frankly, I hate it," she told me. "I'm not the artificial type, and as soon as I get permission, it's going back to natural. I dislike dyed hair that is not kept beautiful, and in order not to have tattle-tale roots I have to spend an awful lot of time in a beauty salon." Gloria takes a grim view of changing the color of your hair just for fun.

Gloria, whose claim to fame is a voice that ranges four octaves, supplies the voice for Minnie Mouse and many other cartoon characters.

"I was born with it," she said. Her dimples popped into view as she smiled. "Even before I was two I carried a tune with perfect pitch and great volume. The neighbors couldn't believe that such a big voice came from a baby."

When I asked Gloria for her biggest beauty problem, she quickly replied: "I would like to be a few inches taller. I wouldn't mind being only five-foot if I didn't have to wear such high heels. Sometimes, at the end of the day, my feet are swollen to almost twice their size. Soaking them in a basin of hot water with a quarter-cup of iodized table salt and the juice of one lemon is most soothing. If I can't have a good soaking, I rub my feet with alcohol and massage them with a cream. I work the cream between my toes and rub the backs of my heels as well as the soles of my feet.

"I bought a foot exerciser that looks like a rubber rolling pin with ridges in it," Gloria confided. "This has helped me a lot."

"It's putting all my weight on the front part of my feet that makes them swell. High heels throw the body off balance. Whenever I can I wear flats, but this is not often, because when I sing with others I have to wear my highest heels or even stand on a step to reach the mike."

"My foot doctor believes that many illnesses stem from improper posture caused from wearing high heels. On my low-heels days, I feel like a different person. I'm all for glamour," Gloria said in parting, "but not when it interferes with health."

Big Voice, Tired Feet
Gloria Wood, who has a range of four octaves, lends her voice to Minnie Mouse and many other cartoon figures. She laments the fashion for such high heels and tells how to treat sore feet.

Personal Gifts For Bride-Elect

Personal gifts were presented to Darlene Williams at a party given Thursday evening in the home of Mrs. Darrell Bunch.

Miss Williams, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Williams, 1005 North Gregg, will be married to Jesse McElreath on Aug. 15 in the Northside Baptist Church. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Artie Williams, 1615 E. 16th.

Hostesses with Mrs. Bunch included Mrs. Richard Tucker, Billy McElreath, Mrs. Bill Cook, Mrs. Roy Cook and Mary Ruth Barrington.

Lace over pink for the tea table stressed the chosen colors of the honoree, with cookies frosted in white and pink furthering the theme. Dahlias formed the floral decoration with a tiny bridal couple added.

Miss Williams was dressed in a sheath of pale orchid made on princess lines.

About 25 were included on the list for the informal affair.

Big Spring Back In 1890

court house is barely visible in the background. The Home Union was a general store owned by Alderman. L. C. Alderman operated the water department and telephone office. Fisher could not remember the names of the others.

BOOMING '90's

Faded Photos Recall Pioneer Days In Big Spring's History

A glimpse into the past of Big Spring is available through several pictures mailed to the local telephone office by A. D. Alderman, an early day merchant of the city. Many old settlers may recognize the building that housed a general store, the water company office, the old courthouse and the printing office.

The pictures were made in 1890 and Alderman says, in a letter the telephone company was founded in that year and was located in the water company office.

Alderman now lives in McConnelville, Ohio. Alderman operated the Home Union, and his brother, L. C. Alderman, installed and operated the first water company. Both businesses were located in the same building at 3rd and Main, where Zales Jewelry is now.

Daniel Withdraws His Nomination

AUSTIN (AP) — Gov. Price Daniel asked the Senate's permission Thursday to withdraw his appointment of Jack Woodward, Dallas, to the North Texas State College Board of Regents.

after the Senate refused to confirm Woodward. Daniel agreed to the Senate's request and asked to withdraw the appointment "in order to conform with the statutes requiring that not more than one member shall be appointed from or be a resident of any one state senatorial district."

Alderman recalls that he and his wife lived in the rear of the Home Union and that he operated the switchboard of the telephone company during all hours of the night. He explained that railroad men were often needed in a hurry during the night and the telephone made it unnecessary to send the night watchman to them.

Noting the rifle leaning against the screen door in one of the pictures, Fisher said Big Spring was not wild in those days. He scoffed at current television portrayals of the times.

47 People Hurt In Derailment

MENOMONIE, Wis., (AP) — Forty-seven persons suffered injuries that required hospital treatment and 60 others were less seriously hurt Thursday when the last seven cars of a Chicago and North Western Railway passenger train whipped from the rails on a northwestern Wisconsin hillside.

NO WILD WEST
"The cowboys would sometimes drink too much, but they fired their guns into the air and not into each other," he said. Fisher could recall only one shooting during this era. He explained that a fellow didn't like the sheriff and attempted to shoot him. But the sheriff was apparently too fast and beat him to the draw.

U. S. 80 Assn. Elects McEwen Vice-President

R. R. McEwen Jr., Big Spring automobile dealer, has been named as one of three district vice presidents of the reorganized U. S. 80 Interstate 20 Highway Assn.

His territory will encompass the area from Big Spring to Tye along the highway. He was elected at the reorganization meeting of the association in Colorado City on Thursday.

As a vice president, he will be a member of the executive committee. The executive committee will meet soon to draw up a program of activity by the association for further publicizing and exploiting the highway for which the association was organized.

Cecil Warren, Abilene, is the president of the newly organized association. The other two vice presidents are Clabe Wicker, Pecos, who will serve the area from El Paso to Stanton, and Don Pearson, Eastland, whose area is from Abilene to Fort Worth.

Don Dodson is the secretary-treasurer of the association. Approximately 30 delegates attended the reorganization meeting. Bill Quimby, manager of the Big Spring Chamber of Commerce and Coy Galley, were the local delegates.

The group perfected reorganization of the association, adopted the new constitution and bylaws and

Webb Funds Given Congress Approval

A two million dollar construction authorization for Webb AFB was apparently on its way to the president's desk Friday.

The House took similar action Thursday, thus clearing the bill for the President's signature.

Sears' Famed Annual Catalog Now On Hand

The celebrated "wish" book, approximately eight tons of it, is here again.

W. D. Tomlinson, manager of the Sears catalog sales office in Big Spring, said that the Sears, Roebuck and Co. catalogue had been received and was being distributed.

The largest catalogue ever published by the company in its 41 years contains 135,000 separate items in its pages. Individual copies weigh approximately 5 1/2 pounds. Each of the 11 mail order houses of the company has a different edition bearing at that region.

Distribution is both by mail and through the Sears outlets, including catalogue sales stores. Notices have gone out from the local office that a carload of the books has been received.

Nationally, almost five weeks will be required for distribution.

Tomlinson pointed out that around 48 per cent of Sears anticipated sales volume from the new book will come from products which were not even developed before World War II.

Included in this field are such things as television receivers, automatic washers and dryers, power rotary mowers, wash-and-wear clothing, tubless tires, portable refrigerators, interlocking tile that requires no adhesive, etc.

The catalog has had a colorful history, and has come to be regarded as one of the most authentic reflectors of the modes and materials of any given time during the past four decades.

Four hundred copies were worn to a frazzle while on display at the World's Fair, said C. W. Lutes, supervisor for the West Texas and New Mexico areas of Sears.

County School Budgets Studied

Another of the series of preliminary budget hearings for the county school districts will be held tonight.

Tonight's session will concern Gay Hill School. Already, the county school superintendent, Walker Bailey, has gone over budget matters with the school boards of Elbow and Vealmoor. After tonight, only Center Point remains.

His meeting will be held early next week, Bailey said.

Tuesday the board considered the Vealmoor budget of about $47,385. This compares with the current budget of $50,388. Actual operating budget for the coming year, with capital outlay, is $37,385, compared with $41,263 last year.

Bailey said the drop the coming year is caused by less maintenance costs, a drop in insurance fees, and a variety of other costs.

Kirkpatrick Rites Saturday

LAMESA — J. A. Kirkpatrick, pioneer O'Donnell resident, died Thursday in Morarity, N. M. after an illness of several months. He was at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Charles Wells.

Rites will be held at 10 a.m. Saturday in the first Baptist Church of O'Donnell with the pastor, the Rev. Bill Burton, officiating, assisted by the Rev. L. R. Pendley, Lamesa Second Baptist Church pastor. Burial will be in the Lamesa Memorial Park under the direction of Higginbotham Funeral Home.

For many years Mr. Kirkpatrick operated the only drayage business in O'Donnell.

He is survived by his daughter and a niece, Mrs. Emory Bean, Lamesa.

Officials Seek Answer Garbage Pickup Problem

Two city officials were in Monahans today to study the downtown garbage collection system there for possible adoption in Big Spring.

State Support Increase For HCJC Indicated By Lawmakers

There was good prospect Friday that Howard County Junior College would stand to gain as much as $15,000 per year in state support.

In approving the Senate proposed $185,000,000 new tax bill, the House set the stage for increased aid for higher education.

Texas Junior Colleges will share in the increase, apparently on a formula of $282 per student for the first 350 students and $187 per student on all over 350. This would mean $91,700 for the first 350 students in HCJC and $3,533 for the additional 19 under last year's final audited full time equivalents, or a total of $95,233. This is $11,778 more than for the current year.

But there is a strong possibility that HCJC will be allowed a 6 1/2 per cent increase earned under a growth factor. If so, its excess over 350 would be pegged at $33 (instead of 19), and amount would be $8,941, running the total state support to $99,741. This would be an increase of $16,266.

Dr. W. A. Hunt, president of HCJC, was pleased with the prospects of more state aid. He had predicted the budget of at least $93,000 state support for next year, and to do this the budget had been sliced thin.

Junior college forces have been seeking a higher per capita support from the state on the grounds that they are educating, and will be called upon to educate, a larger number of the state's college population. The junior college per capita support has figured out at about half that given senior colleges.

The laboratory was disclosed Thursday when the recovered cone was unveiled for reporters. The cone, fired July 21, is the largest ever brought back from space by this country. The 12,000-degree heat it encountered on re-entry turned it charcoal black. The cone was recovered off Ascension Island, 5,500 miles down the Atlantic missile range.

The 12-foot Atlas nose cone recovered from the Atlantic last week contained a small scientific laboratory to study effects of space radiation.

New Wildcat Is Staked 10 Miles Southwest Of Gail

A new wildcat has been staked in Borden County, and the Pan American No. 2-A Shook in the Breedlove field of Martin was flowing load and produced some oil.

The new site in Borden is Liedtke No. 1 Clayton & Johnson about 10 miles southwest of Gail. Drilling depth is 4,600 feet.

The Martin project made 47 barrels of load and 13 barrels of new oil in 12 hours. Then operator acidized and it was flowing back load and acid water on last report.

Monsanto No. 1 Jere, a wildcat eight miles southwest of Gail, ran logs today while bottomed at 9,772 feet. Operator tried a test of the Ellenburger from 9,500-772 feet, took open 30 minutes and recovery included 250 feet of heavily sulphur water-cut mud and 3,150 feet of sulphur water. The project is 1,730 from north and 1,980 from east lines, 22-32-4n, T&P Survey.

Trice No. 2 Miller, in the Rafter Cross pool, drilled at 6,950 feet in lime. The site is c w sw, 1-30-5n, T&P Survey.

Operator ran a drillstem test in an unreported zone at the Texaco No. 1 Johnson, C SW SE, 38-31-5n, T&P Survey. The hole is bottomed at 8,200 feet.

The Liedtke No. 1 Clayton & Johnson is located 1,986 from south and 660 from east lines, 11-32-4n, T&P Survey, 10 miles southwest of Gail. Drilling depth is 4,600 feet.

Forest No. 3 Harris progressed at 11,108 feet in lime. Drill site is 6,250 from south and 330 from west lines, League 268, Moore CSL Survey, in the Patricia field.

Forest No. 4 Harris, also in the Patricia field, made hole at 6,262 feet in lime. It is 3,053 from south and 3,300 from east lines, League 267, Moore CSL Survey.

Rodman No. 1 Turnbow drilled in lime and chert at 12,065 feet. The 13,000-foot wildcat is 660 from north and west lines, Labor 14, League 262, Borden CSL Survey.

Stanley No. 1 Richards, a wildcat C NE NE, 35-35-5n, T&P Survey, progressed at 8,463 feet in lime and shale today, after topping the Dean at 8,394. It is five miles southeast of Lamesa.

Angle No. 1 Cook, in the East Huntley field, has been plugged at 3,337 feet. It was 990 from north and 330 from east lines, Subdivision E, Scott Survey.

Barnes No. 1 Robertson, a wildcat 18 miles north of Post, ran logs at 3,790 feet. It is 1,980 from north and 1,650 from east lines, 20-B-9, EL&RR (Bathwell) Survey.

Trice No. 1 Lott-Slaughter progressed in lime at 5,195 feet. The site is C SW SW, 7-30, B&B Survey.

Southern Union No. 2-C Koonsman, in the Cain field, flowed 400 barrels of 43.5-degree oil through a 26-64-inch choke on potential from the Ellenburger. The site is 1,980 from south and 660 from west lines, 678-97, H&TC Survey. Total depth is 8,225, top of the pay zone is 7,656 feet, and perforations are 7,774-94 feet.

McCrary & Franklin No. 1-E Young, in the Northwest Justiceburg field, potentiated 78.94 barrels of oil and 38 per cent water in 24 hours. Gravity of oil is 35.2 degrees. Total depth is 2,660 and production is reached at 2,535. Perforations extend from 2,535-610 feet in five sections. The well is 990 from north and 820 from east lines, 131-5, H&GN Survey.

US Smelting No. 1-41 TXL, C SW SW, 41-34-3s, T&P Survey, made hole at 7,118 feet in lime and shale. It is 4 1/4 miles north-west of Garden City.

Shell No. 1 Weyman, C NW SW, 14-36-3s, T&P Survey, waited on cement to set casing at 5,000 feet today. The site is 15 miles north-west of Garden City.

Texas American No. 1 Griffin, 20 miles northeast of Big Spring, progressed at 5,343 feet in lime. It is 330 from south and 660 from east lines, 35-25, H&TC Survey.

T&P No. 2 Christian, C NW SE, 42-32-5n, T&P Survey, in the Big Spring field, made hole below 7-356 feet in lime and shale.

Low No. 2 Ryan, in the Luther Southeast field, penetrated past 6,392 feet in lime. It is 660 from north and 1,320 from east lines, 34-32-2n, T&P Survey, 14 miles northeast of Big Spring.

Marlow No. 1 Shroyer, a wildcat area, seven at the Planters Gin when it was located there by the East Viaduct now stands. He had to start ginning after a disastrous hail in 1919 swept his cotton fields clean.

The first rural road was put in about then, he continues. "I went from Big Spring to Salem, the R-R community to Center Point and back."

When that road was built, Yell remembers, his family had its chance to get a good deal of wealth for that day and time. They did not take the gamble, however.

The road cut off four and a half sections of the Webb Christian ranch and the late Mr. Christian offered to Yell the land at $5 per acre.

"But times being hard like they were, we bought only a half-section for $6 an acre," Yell says.

Within the year, land was up to $10 per acre and by the second year, the price had risen to $15.

"It was kind of like a throw of the dice, I guess," he mused.

The Stanton old timer retired a few years ago. Retirement, he says, is fine — if you figure out what to do. Fishing and hunting, for example. Right now he's far behind on that.

"My memory's so bad now that I have to write my name and address in a little black book so's I can find my way home when I do go fishing," he complained.

First Bale Of Cotton Bonus Fund Now $212.50

Agricultural committee of the Big Spring Chamber of Commerce was in session today. It met to find a way to raise the remainder of the 5900 proposed as a bonus fund for the first 1959 bale of Howard County cotton.

A total of $212.50 has been contributed. The committee hopes to close out the campaign at once and have the money ready. It is anticipated the first bale of 1959 cotton will probably be ginned sometime in August.

8 City Officials Will Attend Big Lake Meet

Eight city officials will attend the regional meeting of the Texas Municipal League at Big Lake this evening. The meeting is for all elected and appointive officers of city governments in the region.

Three Held Here In El Paso Case

Police officers arrested three men riding on a Texas and Pacific train here early Thursday morning at the request of railroad authorities.

Spring will be City Commissioners Tom South, Paul Kasch, and John Taylor; Director of Public Works Bruce Dunn, City Manager A. K. Steinheimer, Assistant City Manager Roy Anderson, City Attorney John Burgess, and Tax Assessor Collector Perry Johnson.

The men are being held for questioning about a body found in the railroad yards at El Paso.

Railroad investigators are expected to come to Big Spring to question the men. Police at El Paso suspect foul play in the death of the "hobo" there, it was reported here.

Atlas Paves Way For Manned Flight

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—The Atlas intercontinental missile, which will boost the first American into orbit around the earth, also is helping pave the way for manned space flight.

The 12-foot Atlas nose cone recovered from the Atlantic last week contained a small scientific laboratory to study effects of space radiation.

The laboratory was disclosed Thursday when the recovered cone was unveiled for reporters.

The cone, fired July 21, is the largest ever brought back from space by this country. The 12,000-degree heat it encountered on re-entry turned it charcoal black. The cone was recovered off Ascension Island, 5,500 miles down the Atlantic missile range.

Saigon Aid Probe Seen

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Mike Mansfield (D-Mont) said today he may propose an on-the-spot inquiry to get all the facts in a controversy over the foreign aid program in Viet Nam.

Mansfield is chairman of a Senate Foreign Relations subcommittee which recalled American aid officials for further questioning today about administration of the program.

He asked the officials to return with a full answer to charges of irregularities in the award of a steel contract in that Southeast Asian republic.

The charges were made by Scripps-Howard writer Albert M. Colegrove, whose series of articles written from Saigon touched off the hearings.

Eason Is Better

G. W. Eason, who was admitted to the Big Spring Hospital earlier in the week to undergo treatment, reportedly is improved and is permitted to have visitors.

Minor Accident

Only one minor accident was reported in the city Thursday. It involved Patsy Brown, 801 Ohio, and Isaac Bowie Jones, 1908 Johnson, and occurred at 3rd and Lancaster. No major damage or injuries were reported.

His Request Denied

WAUTOMA, Wis. (AP)—For fear of grave consequences, the Wautoma City Council turned down the request of Glen Rose that he be permitted to be buried alive—with a hidden air vent—for 10 days in a city park.

MAXWELL ONE STROKE BACK IN PGA MEET

By JIM KLOBUCHAR

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—A first place crash without parallel in a major postwar golf tournament, nine men tied for the opening round, turned the PGA championship today into an unpredictable mass charge.

There was room enough at the top for such gilded names of golf as National Open champ Bill Casper, Mike Souchak and Gene Littler, and for such obscurities as Dick Hart and Chuck Klein.

There was a nod to age and battle-earned experience in the presence among the leaders of 43-year-old Jerry Barber, and a bow to youth in the presence of Art 23.

It took a 1-under-par 69 and a stubborn Minneapolis Golf Club course to get a piece of the lead. The shareholders were Casper, Souchak, Little, Klein, Hart, Barber, former PGA champ Walt Burkemo, Mike Krak of Morgantown, W. Va., and Jackson Bradley of Houston, Tex.

Seventeen others were within two strokes of the lead. They included such money players as Ken Venturi, Jack Burke, Billy Maxwell and Art Wall at 70, and Sam Snead, Bob Rosburg, Lionel Hebert, Doug Ford and defending champ Dow Finsterwald at 71.

The PGA moved into the second round with three dozen players still in contention for the title.

New System Of Gas Blending
Now Available

El Paso Natural Gas Company introduces its new "Precision-Blending" gasoline marketing system to local and area motorists today through El Paso-Dixie Service Stations located in the Midland - Odessa - Big Spring area of West Texas.

The company's Precision-Blending technique is designed to offer car owners a choice of seven different octane-rated blends of gasoline at correspondingly different prices.

Key to the Precision-Blending system is a newly developed mixing pump which is capable of delivering any of six desired blends.

The pump draws simultaneously from two underground storage tanks and accurately delivers whichever of the blends is selected by the attendant.

The seventh blend, delivered from a different pump, is Dixie regular.

The company's engineers have developed a chart, through exacting experimentation and testing, which will indicate to each car owner the grade which should best suit his needs.

Company officials have predicted that the new multi-blending technique will revolutionize the gasoline marketing field. It expects to have its entire system of El Paso-Dixie stations in West Texas, New Mexico, Arizona, and parts of Colorado and Utah converted to Precision-Blending by the first part of 1960.

Jury Convicts
8 On Gaming,
Tax Charges

TERRE HAUTE, Ind. (AP) — Twelve weary jurors Thursday night convicted eight alleged gamblers of conspiracy, excise tax evasion and failure to register as a gambling syndicate.

Maximum penalties would be 21 years in prison sentences and $50,000 in fines for each man. U.S. Dist. Judge Cale J. Holder ordered a pre-sentence investigation and set sentencing for Sept. 10.

The defendants retained their composure as they heard the verdicts. Their attorneys did not indicate whether the convictions would be appealed, although one said "that's a very good possibility."

The eight are Leo Shaffer, 59, and Jules Horwick, 55, both of Chicago; Philip Share, 55, and Irwin Gordon, 42, both of Las Vegas, Nev.; James Tamer, 47, Miami; Joseph Jacobs, 64, and Charles L. (Buck) Sumner, 72, both of Indianapolis, and Edgar M. Wyatt, 61, Terre Haute.

They remained free under $10,000 bond each. Don Tabbert, U.S. district attorney, asked that bonds be increased to $25,000 for Share, Gordon, Shaffer, Horwick and Tamer "because of their past criminal convictions." Judge Holder denied the request.

The jury convicted the defendants on all five counts against them. They were charged with conspiring to attempt to evade the 10 per cent tax on receipts as a wagering syndicate, with attempted evasion in each of three months, and of failure to register with the Internal Revenue Service as a gambling syndicate.

The jurors deliberated only 3 1/2 hours. The courtroom was nearly empty when they sent word that they were ready to report.

The 12 jurors and four alternates, all married men, had been under strict guard since June 24. Their only contact with their families was a nightly telephone call.

They heard four solid weeks of testimony, seven hours of closing arguments and 5 1/2 hours of instructions, the latter extended by a final defense objection.

The government called 133 witnesses, of whom 53 told of placing bets totaling $581,000. Nine alleged bettors took the Fifth Amendment.

Exploration Witness Ends
Controversial Gas Hearing

AUSTIN (AP) — Lone Star Gas Co. must reduce its exploration activities 66 per cent if it loses present federal income tax benefits, a witness told the Texas Railroad Commission Thursday.

E. A. Brown, operations vice president, closed out testimony in Lone Star's lengthy and controversial hearing. The company requests a boost from 30 to 40 cents per 1,000 cubic feet the natural gas price it charges distributing companies in more than 300 Texas cities. The hike eventually will be passed on to the ultimate consumer.

Brown spoke in opposition to earlier testimony by George Hess, Washington, D. C. rate consultant. He represented many cities opposing Lone Star's application.

The commission's decision is not expected for several weeks. Hess said he believed federal income tax benefits should go to the customer rather than to the producing company. He referred specifically to tax deductions allowed for drilling wells and other intangible expenses.

Brown said the company invested 48 million dollars in development and exploration from 1949 to 1957. For the past several years, the distributing company and its producing company have filed consolidated income tax returns for savings, Brown said, adding:

"If the regulatory process results in the producing company losing its tax benefits, its total operations will necessarily be curtailed."

A major issue is securing supplies and gas reserves. Brown said. That's the reason the company is asking for the increase. In 1950, it paid 4.8 cents per 1,000 cubic feet of gas. The price now is 13 cents.

In past sessions, the commission heard the company's profits continue at a high rate.

AUSTIN (AP)—The Senate confirmed today the appointment of Jack Sisco, Corsicana, and Paul Cates, Lubbock, to the board of regents of North Texas State College.

Troubled Airliner Makes Safe Landing

NEW YORK (AP) — A Pan American Airways plane en route from Boston to Bermuda made a safe landing at Idlewild Airport after developing engine trouble.

The plane carried 19 passengers and a crew of 7, including the pilot, Capt. Edward W. Kinsley Jr. of Pound Ridge, N. Y.

An airline spokesman said low oil pressure developed in one of the engines. The passengers departed from Idlewild aboard a substitute plane.

4 Children Get Sick From Poison
Intended For Dog

READING, Pa. (AP) — Four children were recovering today from arsenic poisoning, but their pet dog was critically ill.

Hospital tests indicated the children had swallowed almost enough arsenic to be fatal. Authorities said a piece of poisoned bacon rind, apparently intended for the dog, was found in the back yard of the cocker spaniel's owners, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Oswald.

The children somehow absorbed the poison while playing with the dog Wednesday and became ill.

The youngsters are the Oswald's children, Antoinette, 3, and Robert, 1, and a neighbor's children, Cindy Lou, 4, and Lou-Ann Vitalo, 2.

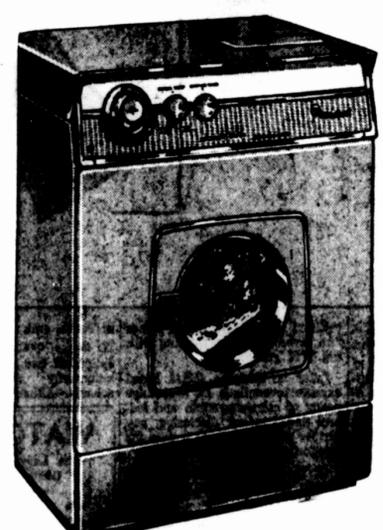

Police are trying to find the person who placed the bacon rind in the yard.

Judge Turns Down Dallas Integration

DALLAS (AP) — A federal judge Thursday refused to order integration of Dallas public schools this fall but he told the school board to "put your house in order" for integration which he said will surely come.

"You are going to integrate your schools. The question is when," 82-year-old Judge T. Whitfield Davidson said.

The hearing was held on a petition filed by attorneys for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People asking for immediate integration. During yesterday's testimony, however, they indicated they would be willing to wait until 1960.

Dallas school leaders have been in court 10 times over the school integration issue since the U. S. Supreme Court handed down its decision on school segregation more than five years ago.

The NAACP attorneys charged that while the school board president, Dr. Edwin Rippey, was quoted as saying the board would abide by the Supreme Court ruling, the board has announced no plans for integration.

At Thursday's hearing, Dr. Rippey said the school board will follow all court directives. But he told the court that state and federal laws conflict. He said the 147-school district could lose more than 2 1/2 million dollars in state aid money a year under a law passed by the state Legislature two years ago. This law calls for the loss of state aid for schools which integrate without an election. The election is held only if 20 per cent of the voters petition for it.

In turning down the NAACP request for immediate integration, Judge Davidson said: "A year from now may be sufficient time to integrate . . . we will not name any date or issue any order."

"The school board should further study this question and perhaps take further action, maybe an election."

Thurgood Marshall, chief counsel for the NAACP, threw his pencil on the table. A strong look of disappointment crossed his face.

Marshall and W. J. Durham, Dallas lawyer for the NAACP, declined after the hearing to discuss possible further moves.

"We'll have to see the (court) order before we can legally comment," Durham said.

One NAACP spokesman told a reporter "We'll not wait until next spring to reopen this thing. This will take a long conference before we know just what legal action we can take."

Judge Davidson, who opened the day-long hearing by stating his love for Southern traditions but promising a fair hearing, ended the court session with what sounded like a lecture to Negro spectators.

"As long as he (the Negro) begins imitating his white brother he is not at his best," the aged jurist said. "If you want to rise in life, there is a way... that is to excel."

During the hearing, Dr. Rippey testified that if integration comes "we favor a plan of starting with the first grade."

Later he said the school board expects to continue its long-range policy of clarifying state and federal laws before disclosing any further plans of setting a date for integration.

Of the estimated 122,000 pupils in the district, about 22,000 are Negroes.

More than 100 school districts in Texas, embracing approximately one-quarter of the state's estimated two million scholastics, voluntarily integrated their schools. Although the state law halted plans for integration in several cities, several smaller districts have integrated their schools after holding the required elections.

Hawaii's Governor

Republican William F. Quinn, 46, who has been serving as Hawaii's governor after appointment by President Eisenhower, is surrounded by well-wishers in Honolulu after he won a closely contested race for Hawaii's first elected governor. Quinn won out after a see-saw race over Democrat John A. Burns, 50, Hawaii's last delegate to Congress.

Budget For State Hospital Is Tentatively Set $2,851,734

Big Spring State Hospital's 1960-61 budget request for $2,851,734 was trimmed more than $600,000 by Legislative joint conference committee in its tentative report.

However, the allocation of $2,290,220 is up 9 per cent over money for the period 1959-60.

Dr. Preston Harrison, superintendent, said that the reduction from the funds asked will curtail some badly needed improvements contemplated but that the 9 per cent increase over current available cash will permit the institution to make some progress.

The Big Spring State Hospital now works on an annual budget of $1,094,000. He said the hospital requested about $1,425,300 for each of the next two years.

If the committee report gets a final approval the new allocation will mean an increase for the hospital of about $60,000 annually.

With this increase, said Dr. Harrison, another psychologist may be added. Also, several more workers may be added in rehabilitation services.

It is planned that each ward will receive a clerk and maid, which heretofore has not been possible. This will free many attendants for actual therapy work.

Among other things which have been cut out by the decrease will be a new physician, pay increases for the medical staff and the nurses; and a rehabilitation center building.

The Austin State School for mentally retarded alone was slated to receive more money than the State Hospital Board requested; the tentatively-approved joint conference committee report shows.

Other schools received less. Increases averaged 5 per cent. The school requested $4,620,000 and the committee authorized $4,774,222.

Other agreements reached on hospital and special schools operating expenditures for 1960-61, with percentage increase or decrease over present spending and what the hospital board requested:

Mental hospitals—Austin, $8,982,826, up 6 per cent over present spending, board requested $10,600,000; San Antonio, $6,765,590, up 7 per cent, requested $8,683,707; Terrell, $6,245,760, up 4 per cent, requested $8,100,000; Wichita Falls and Vernon, $6,612,742, up 11 per cent, requested $8,464,010; Rusk,

$5,144,358, up 3 per cent, requested $6,603,758; Geriatric homes—Confederate Homes, Austin, $1,645,262, up 2 per cent, requested $1,774,222; Kerrville, $2,700,926, up 5 per cent, requested $3,009,258.

Mentally retarded schools—Austin, $4,758,445, up 16 per cent, requested $4,620,000; State School Farm Colony, Austin, $2,460,296, up 5 per cent, requested $2,666,404; Mexia, $4,329,348, up 17 per cent, requested $4,518,756; Abilene, $3,786,828, up 13 per cent, requested, $4,033,250; Denton, $478,858, new school and first appropriation, requested $528,000.

Tuberculosis hospitals—East Texas, Tyler, $3,137,074, up 8 of 1 per cent, requested $3,418,272; McKnight Sanatorium, $2,577,948, down 5 per cent, requested $2,738,000; San Antonio, $4,234,962, up 4 per cent, requested $4,740,000; Legion at Kerrville, $1,388,055, up 6 per cent, requested $1,523,500; Harlingen, $2,583,494, up 8 per cent, requested $2,745,162.

Special schools—Moody State School for Cerebral Palsied Children, Galveston, $457,225, up .5 of 1 per cent, requested $477,646; Alabama - Coushatta Indian Reservation, near Woodville, $140,116, down .1 of 1 per cent, requested $159,220.

VA Volunteer Workers Are Being Sought

The Veterans Administration Hospital is hoping to interest retired Big Springers in volunteer work at the local installation, Jackson H. Friedlander, manager of the hospital, said Thursday.

The VA has joined with the American Assn. of Retired Persons in a nationwide program for senior citizens. Retired men and women with ability in companionship services and arts, crafts, and hobbies are needed by the hospital.

Dr. Ethel Andrus, president and founder of the AARP, has pledged the support of the organization across the country in spearheading the drive. Sumner G. Whittier, VA administrator, said, "We are seeking to demonstrate to our senior citizens that volunteer work in a VA hospital is a meaningful, productive alternative to rocking chair retirement."

All persons concerned expressed the opinion that the program would be advantageous both to the hospital and to elderly persons. Retired citizens will be making new friends and helping others make the transition from the hospital to the community.

Interested persons may secure additional information concerning the program at the local VA hospital installation.

Welcome Crack-Down

Without fanfare, Liquor Control Board agents have been cracking down on sale of intoxicants to minors. In this effort they have had the support of local law enforcement officers.

Three businesses have lost their beer licenses as a result of alleged sales to under-age customers.

Nor did the campaign stop there, for during the month there have been 15 convictions in corporation and justice court against minors for consuming intoxicants.

This is a good start.
Over a period of time it is all too easy for laxness to develop, and unfortunately there are some few who will circumvent the law for the benefit of sales—even to minors. If the licensee has room for doubt in making sales, that doubt ought to be resolved against the customer.

The campaign may produce better results because of the crack-down on the steps to punish those who contribute to the delinquency of a minor but never deal with the minor. Youths who would defy the law by obtaining and consuming intoxicants are old enough to know right from wrong. When they do wrong under the law, they should be held accountable for it.

Bureaucratic Snafu

Red tape and an out-of-gas airplane caused the loss of time needed to give the Texas Gulf Coast adequate warning of the approach of the season's fourth hurricane. As a result, many in the Southeast Texas area are of the opinion damage ran unduly high because preparations were not taken against a severe storm which roared in at 80 m.p.h. instead of 30-40 expected.

This was not the case of a missed forecast, although in early stages this was partially true. A Navy plane had flown through the eye of the hurricane at 1:25 p.m. but had to land at Corpus due to exhausted fuel supply. For the next three to four hours there was no contact with the menacing storm although the Navy had information enough to warrant hurricane warnings. But from 1:25 p.m. until 3:35 p.m. there followed a series of telephone conferences between Weather Bureau stations in New Orleans,

Miami and Washington. Finally, it was decided that the small tropical depression was after all a hurricane. It was agreed to release this information at 4 p.m., another 30-minute delay with a hurricane bearing down near the mainland. To compound the failure, the bureau had information from a Mexican freighter some 14 hours earlier of very high winds south of Galveston, and a chemical firm's radar picked up a whirling storm 60 miles south of Freeport, heading north. Other weather stations confirmed the report, but it was nearly three hours before even this warning was released.

Why? The report did not say, but possibly again it awaited inter-bureau conferences. And perhaps that explains the snafu—bureau. The Weather Bureau has many virtues, but its bureaucratic red tape—which has much of the personnel buffaloes—is something to behold.

Nothing Gained In Parley With Khrushy

WASHINGTON — Many people who watched the boorish, arrogant Khrushchev on television a few nights ago wondered why such a dictator and bully should be humored so much by the American government. In view of the deliberate distortions of the Nixon-Khrushchev repartee in the officially controlled press and radio of the Soviet Union, the question that naturally arises now is what possible good could come from a "summit" meeting with such an irresponsible mind.

There is nothing really new being uncovered nowadays about the Khrushchev personality. He has talked for hours with various American officials and other prominent men from Western countries. He is shrewd and skillful in debate. He is used to having his own way and can't understand why the United States doesn't knuckle under at his command. His point of view hasn't changed a bit since he first grabbed power in the Kremlin. He insists that the way to ease tensions and prevent crises in the world is for the United States to do what he says. There is no middle ground, as he sees it, between "capitalism" and what he inaccurately calls "socialism." In the end he is sure one will triumph, and he is confident it will be Communist imperialism rather than the system under which America and the West have thrived.

Most of Khrushchev's visitors, including perhaps Vice President Nixon, come away with the idea that maybe it would be a good thing to "educate" the Soviet premier by arranging for him to come to the United States for a visit.

But this is a fallacy. Khrushchev can no more be "educated" than Hitler could have been. The two men are very much alike. There is one little difference—Khrushchev secretly orders his murders and tortures of dissenters, while the Nazi dictator did it openly and boasted about it. Khrushchev is responsible for the execution or exile of thousands of Hungarians. The present Hungarian government is his slave and captive, as also are the other neighboring countries in Eastern Europe. But Khrushchev resents any mention of "captive nations."

What Khrushchev lacks is a sense of decency and dignity and an appreciation of the other fellow's viewpoint. He is as absolute as a czar. The impression has been widely spread that he has an inferiority complex and wants to be invited to stay at the White House so as to show off to his people that he is accepted as a world leader. But even after he did this, he probably would argue just as vehemently that what America and Europe need is Communism. He has an obsession on the subject of world conquest.

To accord Khrushchev the kind of invitation he wants is to give him a chance to make propaganda and belittle the very country that would be treating him as its guest. He would distort the purpose entirely on his return home and boast to his people that even America recognizes his prowess in a position of leadership in the world.

In the Soviet Union Khrushchev isn't popular with the people outside the ruling Communist group who are familiar with his personality. He needs prestige at home. One way to get it, he thinks, is to be accorded attention by the heads of other governments. He enjoys being sought after. He nevertheless plays constantly at the game of trying to divide the Western Allies by appealing to their materialistic interest in trade relationships.

What should the West do about such a dictator? Domestic politics in Britain and a tendency on the part of some British Labor party people to seek a close working arrangement with the Kremlin complicate the problem for the West. As for France, Gen. de Gaulle declares he wouldn't come to the United States for a "summit" meeting and says it should be held in Europe if at all. So, even if the United States were agreeable to a meeting with Khrushchev in this country for the "summit," French objections would prevail.

Then what about a "summit" meeting of only President Eisenhower and Nikita Khrushchev in the United States? This would arouse suspicions among our Allies. It's true that Prime Minister Macmillan went alone to Moscow, and Khrushchev showed his bad manners by insulting his guest in a public speech.

The British leader, incidentally, was busy for weeks afterward explaining that he wasn't making any separate deals. So it seems that if Gen. de Gaulle will not come, there is no likelihood of a "summit" meeting in America. If one is held, it will be in Europe, and President Eisenhower would attend reluctantly and then only if "progress" has been made through the four foreign ministers toward a settlement of the Berlin problem.

Judging by the way the Soviet premier has handled the visit of Vice President Nixon, nothing substantial would result from a "summit" meeting. Khrushchev doesn't understand that an American President isn't a dictator and can't make "deals." And the only kind of deal the Soviet premier wants is one of the appeasement and surrender variety. This he will never get as long as Dwight Eisenhower is in the White House.

States, Truman Behind Ike Candidacy

WASHINGTON (AP) — Why did President Eisenhower decide to seek the presidency in 1952? One main reason was to beat President Truman whose re-election, he felt, would be bad for the country. As it turned out, Truman didn't run.

This piece of American history and all that follows—except for background material in parentheses—can be stated on high authority as an accurate presentation of some of Eisenhower's views. Besides his feelings about Truman's administration, Eisenhower had been persuaded to run because he had certain ideas with respect to the relationship between the federal government and the states. He is still not happy about that relationship.

Two of Eisenhower's chief political advisers—while he was still commander of the NATO forces in Europe—were New York's Gov. Thomas E. Dewey and Sen. Henry Cabot Lodge (R-Mass).

They told him Truman would try for a second full term and that only he, Eisenhower, could beat him. And he had become persuaded that re-election of Truman would not be good.

But by the time it became apparent Truman would not run again, Eisenhower felt his own political career was well launched and there was no way to withdraw.

(Eisenhower seemed pretty well up to his neck in politics at the beginning of the 1952 presidential year. On Jan. 7, while Truman was still undecided about running, Eisenhower not only disclosed he was a Republican but indicated he would try for the presidency if he received a "clearcut call to political duty." This meant if the Republican convention the following summer chose him.)

In that same month, while he was still at NATO, he said: "Under no circumstances will I ask relief from this assignment in order to seek nomination."

(But Lodge had entered him in the New Hampshire Republican presidential primary, which he won March 18, beating Sen. Robert A. Taft (R-Ohio). In the same state Democratic primary Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn) beat Truman.

(Eleven days after being beaten in New Hampshire, Truman announced he would not run again. Four days after that, on April 2, Eisenhower asked to be relieved of his NATO command by June 1. He came back then and campaigned for the nomination.)

What about Eisenhower's reasons for seeking a second term in 1956?

He felt there were certain objectives related to his philosophy of government—the relationship between government and the individual—which he wanted to see carried out.

He was fearful the Democrats would nominate and elect a candidate who represented an opposite philosophy and he had been told that only he could be assured of winning in 1956.

Looking back on his decision to run for a second term, it can be said he is glad none of several other people got the presidency. (This writer does not know what people he has in mind.)

But Eisenhower feels deeply disappointed by the difficulty and failure to work out any significant redress of balance of federal and state functions which he tried to initiate at a conference of governors.

He found that the governors talked loudly of wanting to recapture states' rights but were reluctant to do anything about it because they were unwilling to take on the burden of higher state taxes that might be involved.

Around The Rim

Almost One Less Dog

Almost got me a dog last week. Had I done so, it would have been the first one in my several years of driving, and I would have felt pretty bad about it. Driving down (or up?) Scurry, a pickup truck coming in the opposite direction. Big boxer dog, trailing a leash, and under my car. Couldn't turn left, or I'd have hit the pickup, and children playing by the side of the road on my right. So I hit the brake.

Didn't erase the dog, fortunately. Scared him, and a tire caught him by the leash and nearly jerked his neck out of place. Woman on a front porch, where the dog ran in fright, scolded her children vehemently for letting the dog out, and into the street. Might cause someone to have a wreck, she said.

Made me feel better about the whole thing.

One of the most fascinating characters in the Bible is Mary Magdalene.

She is mentioned only in passing, and gleaned mostly from research by Biblical scholars. But her story, brief as it is, contains one of the most incisive points to be found in the Scriptures.

A point, I might add, that many self-satisfied people find embarrassing. I am reminded of a case from my childhood, where a woman was caught in the act of running around on her husband. After the ruckus that followed, she was left alone to think about it, and to repent. She did repent, and her family took her back.

But her church did not. There were a large number of Pharisees in this particular congregation, and all they could think of was that his woman had a bit of evil in her past.

These modern-day Pharisees apparently did not wish to recall the story of Mary Magdalene.

Mary of Magdala, to put it bluntly, was a prostitute. She symbolized all the weakness and evil of womankind, and was mortal enemy to everything good and moral. Yet, when she came face to face with a Man she despised, a Man called Jesus, everything changed.

Mary Magdalene is generally admitted by those who claim to know to be second only to the mother of Jesus among the woman saints.

The point those modern Pharisees missed was that a woman may lose her virginity and never be able to regain it; but virtue may always be regained. I'd like to see their faces when they have to answer for it.

The Pigeons Are Ruining The World

Wars and rumors of war continue to rock the globe. But one world-wide conflict, as universal as Freedom vs. Communism, is largely overlooked. That is the continuing struggle for supremacy between people and pigeons. Even Dick and Nick haven't touched on it yet.

Unless nations forget their difference and unite in this struggle, pigeons are apt to win this struggle and abolish people before the H-bombs do. As any city dweller is aware, pigeons are gaining on us all the time, getting bolder and brasser by the minute. And messier, too.

Nothing is sacred to these feathered louts, with their greedy, beady eyes and their beatnik swagger. When Robert Moses tried to run Will Shakespeare out of Central Park this summer, public opinion stopped him cold. But what pigeons, who never read a Gallup poll, have done and continue to do to Will's statue in the same territory would make even Mr. Moses blush.

Pigeons are the Jukes of the bird world, and Foul-Up is their middle name. They have no respect for statues, public buildings or pedestrians. Cities throughout the world have spent billions in various attempts to rid their environs of pigeons in the name of sanitation and safety. But nothing short of a double-barreled shotgun or equalizer puts man on a par with pigeons.

All my pigeon pique came to the surface on the other day when I cut through Bryant Park, a lovely, leafy bower, on the way to Broadway to pick up a pair of tickets for "Gypsy." That is, I started to cut through Bryant Park. But I hastily retreated. Pigeons are in full control there. And if the saturation aerial bombardments were not amply alarming, the birds are now sufficiently strong and organized to push people off the park sidewalks.

In the park, people were running from pigeons, both on the hoof and on the wing. But what really shook me was the sight of foolish people feeding the enemy. The human nitwits stood in the park, scattering handfuls of peanuts and bread crumbs to sneering, strutting pigeons who have boasted they will bury us (people).

Persons who feed pigeons are soft in both heart and head. They are either pigeon-dupes or feathered fellow-travelers. They're strictly for the birds, and ripe for the FBI.

There ought to be a law that makes pigeon-feeding a capital crime, comparable to pushing dope or kidnapping. The necessity of making pigeon-feeding a hanging offense was emphasized when I reached Broadway and the statue of Father Duffy, World War I hero. What pigeons have done to Father Duffy does not bear repeating, yet some idiot with a sack of crumbs stood at the foot of the statue lading out a free lunch to the vandals. Even Broadway critics are less lethal than Broadway pigeons.

People have never yet been able to best pigeons. The only way to win is to send the whole squallid tribe into extinction to join the Passenger Pigeon.

When St. Paul's Cathedral repaired its wartime damage, it installed at great expense anti-pigeon do-dads to keep the dirty birds off copings and spires. Well, it keeps the pigeons off copings and spires, all right. But the Okies of the Feathered World have simply set up housekeeping on the great flight of steps leading up to St. Paul's. When I was in London last May, I had to kick the birds out of the way to get into church.

Pigeons have passed their usefulness in either war or peace. It is now either people or pigeons to the death. The world isn't big enough for both.

Break For Savers: Interest Rates Up

Pretty soon, you and I, as depositors in savings banks and purchasers of savings bonds, are going to get a break. Interest rates are sure to notch upward. And high time, too.

Neither Congress, the Federal Reserve Board, nor several state banking commissioners — most notably, the Secretary of Banking in Pennsylvania — can hold back justice or the money markets.

In New York City, the Dime Savings Bank of Brooklyn has shocked "friendly competitors" by announcing its intention to pay 3 1/2 per cent interest on deposits for the last quarter of this year and then push up to 3 3/4 per cent next year. The present rate on savings deposits in New York is 3 1/4 per cent.

The plan brought a bark of distress from Earl B. Schwulst, president of the Bowers Savings Bank, Manhattan, largest savings institution in the United States. Schwulst feels the second jump is pushing too hard. He'd like the New York Banking Superintendent to impose a 3 1/2 per cent ceiling on all savings banks and thus stave off a competitive race for deposits.

In most large cities of the United States, including New York, commercial banks are already paying 3 per cent on savings deposits — Cleveland, Toledo, Columbus, Memphis, Oklahoma City, Minneapolis, Kansas City, Jacksonville, Chicago, New Orleans, Atlanta. Throughout California, the aggressive Bank of America long ago established the 3 per cent rate.

In New York, the Franklin National Bank of Franklin Square, L. I., wants to go to 3 1/2 per cent — to compete with savings banks and with savings and loan associations. But the Federal Reserve Board refused to raise its 3 per cent limit on what member banks may pay. In February, the Chase Manhattan Bank requested the right to pay 3 1/2 per cent on time deposits of foreign banking institutions. This was denied. Since then, the First National City and other banks have asked the FRB to lift the ceiling. They fear they'll lose deposits of this type, since large depositors can invest in short-term U. S. securities and do better than 3 per cent.

The conspiracy of inaction against savings depositors can't continue for long. Since June, Congress has been debating the President's request to eliminate the ceilings on (a) E-bonds, now at 3.26 per cent, and (b) marketable bonds, now 4 1/4 per cent. If authority is granted, the Treasury will raise the rate on all newly-bought E-bonds retroactive to June to 3 1/4 per cent and will increase the rate on all E-bonds now outstanding.

This would slow E-bond redemptions and encourage sales. This would free the Federal Reserve, too. The Reserve has been reluctant to raise its 3 per cent ceiling so long as the Treasury is stuck with the 3.26 per cent ceiling on savings bonds.

The sterling plaque for prolonged inaction, however, goes to Secretary of Banking Robert L. Myers Jr., of Pennsylvania. He imposes a 2 1/2 per cent ceiling on the interest payable by commercial banks and 3 per cent on that payable by savings banks. This means that Philadelphia savers get a lower rate of interest than savers only 90 miles away in New York; it means that Philadelphia commercial banks can't compete with New York banks on time deposits.

Interest-rate ceilings have been imposed to guard against competitive overbidding for deposits — such as occurred in the booming 'twenties. Congress ordered the Reserve Board to regulate the interest rate of member banks. Some state legislatures gave banking departments authority to impose ceilings on state institutions.

Recently ceilings have been used to keep interest rates down, rather than to encourage bankers to give savings depositors what the money markets say depositors are entitled to.

When government bonds sell to yield better than 4 per cent, when high-grade corporates can be purchased to return 4 1/2 per cent and up, when mortgages pay better than 5 per cent, savings institutions can earn money, even if they pay 3 1/2 interest.

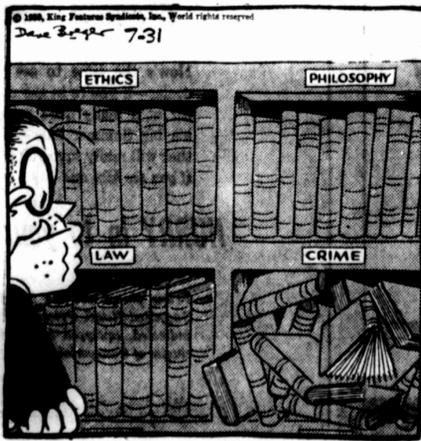

You read advertisements in many newspapers of savings and loan associations offering 4 per cent. Yet, outdated ceilings imposed by Congress, the Reserve Board, and state bank commissioners discriminate against E-bond buyers and depositors in savings and commercial banks.

The argument against lifting ceilings on bank interest is that banks may not always be able to earn as much as now on their deposits. They might be "stuck" paying too high interest rates. However, interest rates go down as well as up. Or is that a new thought?

BSSH Chaplain Supervisor To Serve As Guest Pastor

In the absence of Dr. R. Gage Lloyd, who is on vacation, the First Presbyterian Church will hear, Sunday morning, the Rev. Marvin A. Berkeland, chaplain supervisor at Big Spring State Hospital, in a sermon on "Hope." Chaplain Berkeland, who has served here the past two years, was a parish pastor before training for his present work. He was ordained in 1952 as a pastor in the Evangelical Lutheran Church. There will be no evening worship service.

CHAPLAIN M. A. BERKELAND seech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment."

Assembly Of God

The Rev. S. E. Eldridge, pastor of the First Assembly of God, plans to preach Sunday on "The Presence of the Lord" and "This Untoward Generation."

Baptist

"Justice of God's Judgment," Heb. 9:27 and "When Judgments of God are Dated," Jon. 3:4, will be the Rev. W. A. James' messages to Airport Baptist Church. The Rev. A. R. Posey, Baptist Temple pastor, has announced his sermon topics: "The Authority and the Expressions of God," Rom. 3 and "The Three Woes," Rev. 8:13.

Hillcrest Baptist congregation will hear the Rev. H. L. Bingham in "Where Will You Hide?" 2 Pet. 3:9-12, and "Mt. Zion and the Life to Come," Heb. 12:22.

For his sermons to the First Baptist Church, Dr. P. D. O'Brien has chosen, for the 8:45 a.m. service, "Was Jesus Actually Tempted?," Heb. 4:15, and, at 11 a.m., "He Said—But God Said," Luke 12:18. The Rev. Frank Pollard, assistant pastor, will preach on "Are You a Christian?" James 2:14, at 7:45 p.m.

Phillips Memorial Baptist Church will have messages from the Rev. D. R. Phillely on "The Wonderful Power of Christ," Mark 2:1-12, and "Christian Obligation," Matt. 23:27. Sunday will mark the beginning of the Rev. Phillely's fourth year as pastor of the church. In the past three years there have been 252 additions to the church, a parking lot has been purchased and graveled, a nursery to accommodate 100 babies has been built, and the church yards have been landscaped.

A visiting preacher, yet to be announced, is scheduled to preach at Calvary Baptist Church.

The Rev. R. B. Murry, pastor of the Northside Baptist Church, announces that the Rev. Richard Tucker of Big Spring will occupy the pulpit at both services Sunday.

Sunday will be the final day of the revival launched last Sunday at Birdwell Lane Baptist Church. The pastor, Elder R. D. Lee, has been doing the preaching.

Catholic

Mass will be said at St. Thomas Catholic Church, 605 N. Main, by the Rev. Fr. Francis Beazley, OMI, at 7 a.m. and 11 a.m. Rosary and benediction are at 7 p.m. Sunday. Confessions are heard on Saturday from 4:30 to 6 p.m., and from 7 to 8 p.m. Catechism classes for grade school children are from 10 to 11 a.m. Saturday and from 10 to 11 a.m. Sunday for high school children.

At the Sacred Heart (Spanish-speaking) Church mass will be held at 8 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. Sunday. Confessions from 5 to 6 p.m. and 7 to 8 p.m. Saturday. Benediction will be at 5:30 p.m. on Sunday.

Christian Science

Brotherhood will be a theme dealt with at Christian Science services Sunday in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Love." Paul's stand on brotherhood is emphasized in readings from the Bible including this passage from 1 Corinthians (1:10): "Now I be-

Southern Baptist Group Expanding

By TOM HENSHAW Associated Press Religion Writer They call themselves the Southern Baptist Convention. But the tag is rapidly becoming a misnomer.

Quietly but surely, the Southern Baptists are pushing their denominational frontier northward with such success that they can no longer be considered strictly a regional church.

But don't say "We're competing with the other churches," says the Rev. Elmer Sizemore, assistant pastor of New York's Manhattan Baptist Church. "We're sort of co-workers with them."

The Manhattan Baptist Church is a prime example of Southern Baptist expansion. It was founded two years ago as a mission with 40 members. Six months later it became a full-fledged church. Now it has more than 400 members and is still growing.

The New York church is the mother organization for a number of fledgling missionary chapels sprouting up in the northeast. One is in Hempstead, L.I., the Southern Baptist's farthest penetration to the north.

A missionary chapel also is in the making in Middletown, Conn., where home fellowship meetings are being held.

Despite the regional sound of their name, the Southern Baptists are a potent religious force nationally.

Their 9,200,000 members rank them second in size only to the Methodists among American Protestant churches.

The Testing of Faith

SUFFERING ADVERSITY, A MAN RETAINS HIS FAITH AND ALLEGIANCE TO GOD

Scripture—Job.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL. TODAY'S LESSON is the story of a good man who resisted evil and suffered heart-breaking calamities, but still remained true to God and, in the end, triumphed over all his misfortunes.

There was a good man in the land of Uz" (probably in the Arabian desert, according to Peloubet's Select Notes, edited by Dr. Wilbur M. Smith). His name was Job and he was "perfect and upright, and one that feared God, and eschewed evil."—Job 1:1.

He had seven sons and three daughters. The sons gave feasts to which they invited their sisters, and after these feasting Job rose up early in the morning and offered sacrifices for them, thinking that perhaps they might have sinned.—Job 1:5.

Job was prosperous, owning "a very great household; so that this man was the greatest of all the men in the east."—Job 1:3.

"Now there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the Lord, and Satan came also among them."—Job 1:6.

The Lord asked Satan if he had considered His servant, Job, that there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil."—Job 1:8.

Satan answered that Job probably was so perfect because the Lord had given him all the good things of life, and if these were taken away from him, "he will curse Thee to thy face."—Job 1:9-11.

Having complete confidence in Job, God said to Satan, "Behold, all that he hath is in thy power; only upon himself put not forth thine hand."—Job 1:12.

The first calamity that befell Job was when a messenger came and told him that as his oxen and asses had been stolen by the Sabaeans (the ancient inhabitants of southern Arabia), and his servants slain; only he had escaped.—Job 1:14-15.

Another messenger came to Job to tell him that his sons and daughters, who were feasting in one brother's house, had been killed when the house collapsed in a terrific windstorm. Job was overcome with grief, but he fell down upon the ground and worshipped, saying, "Naked came I from my mother's womb, and naked shall I return thither: the Lord gave, and the Lord hath taken away; blessed be the name of the Lord."—Job 1:16-21.

Next Job was afflicted with boils. Job said to his friends, "I have heard that you prayed for your friends, and the Lord turned the captivity of Job, and gave him twice as much as he had before."—Job 42:10.

Job had seven more sons and three daughters, and "in all the land were no women found so fair as the daughters of Job."—Job 42:12-15.

Would you and I have the fortune of Job if we were afflicted as he was? Let us pray that we may be brave in adversity and, like him, retain our faith in God.

"Is life worth living? If it is, what makes it so?" Dr. Wilbur M. Smith asks in Peloubet's Select Notes on the lesson. "This may seem a little difficult for young people and yet we find that it is the young people today who are frustrated and often baffled over this fierce struggle for existence."

"Life is what we make it," someone has said. If we live as Job did, bravely facing our troubles, living "devoid of evil," we will find it is worthwhile no matter what happens to us, whether we be young or old. We may have to mourn the loss of dear members of our families or close friends, but we need not lose our faith in God's goodness.

We may have to mourn the loss of dear members of our families or close friends, but we need not lose our faith in God's goodness.

Next Job was afflicted with boils. Job said to his friends, "I have heard that you prayed for your friends, and the Lord turned the captivity of Job, and gave him twice as much as he had before."—Job 42:10.

Job had seven more sons and three daughters, and "in all the land were no women found so fair as the daughters of Job."—Job 42:12-15.

Would you and I have the fortune of Job if we were afflicted as he was? Let us pray that we may be brave in adversity and, like him, retain our faith in God.

"Is life worth living? If it is, what makes it so?" Dr. Wilbur M. Smith asks in Peloubet's Select Notes on the lesson. "This may seem a little difficult for young people and yet we find that it is the young people today who are frustrated and often baffled over this fierce struggle for existence."

"Life is what we make it," someone has said. If we live as Job did, bravely facing our troubles, living "devoid of evil," we will find it is worthwhile no matter what happens to us, whether we be young or old. We may have to mourn the loss of dear members of our families or close friends, but we need not lose our faith in God's goodness.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Day	Book	Chapter	Verses
Sunday	John	6	15-21
Monday	John	6	22-27
Tuesday	II Samuel	22	22-29
Wednesday	Ephesians	6	1-7
Thursday	II Timothy	4	6-12
Friday	I Corinthians	12	7-13
Saturday	Matthew	22	34-40

The imaginative adult waits for his ship to come in. The child watches his ship go out.

And only the ship which has gone out will ever come in!

Success, in other words, comes to those who venture. Discovery is the reward only of the explorer.

But failure can repay our venturing; futility can frustrate our exploring.

What shall we seek when our ship goes out? This is the crucial question! Shall we seek the qualities of faith and noble life which make honest ventures worthwhile; or the selfish lures which make searching our downfall?

It is no strange coincidence that so many of the happy, contented, successful people in our community are also faithful church-goers. Jesus said:

Seek ye first the Kingdom of God, and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added unto you.

Civic Theatre Closing Season With Successful 'Four Poster'

The Civic Theatre Thursday night began closing out its summer season with a good, responsive audience, albeit one of a small size.
 "The Four Poster" is the last play to be presented this season. It will continue at 8:29 p.m. today and Saturday in H.C.J.C. Auditorium.
 The play tells the story of a married couple from their wedding night to the time that they have become grandparents, and covers a period of 35 years.
 There are few people who are or have been married who could fail to find a scene here, a bit of dialogue there, that somehow did not seem familiar.
 "The Four Poster" is unorthodox in one respect — there are but two people in the cast. The married couple was played by Bill and Jean Sandefur, and they played their roles well.
 There were a few lapses, a handful of flubbed lines, but as a whole the Sandefurs made their dialogue and stage action seem real. There were the inevitable accidents that drive actors wild, but the Sandefurs covered well. The cape hanging on the nail, the four poster bed hanging one leg off the platform, were made to seem a part of the script.
 The huge bed must share acting honors — it dominates the stage throughout the play and is the perfect straight man.
 One point of good news to the audience — the auditorium was sprayed before the performance, and there were few mosquitoes in evidence. It will be sprayed again tonight and Saturday.
 "The Four Poster" is directed by John Austin, and co-produced by Dewey Magee and Roy Rosene.

Something Old, New On Week's Video

By CHARLES MERCER
 NEW YORK (AP)—There's something old and something new on network television in the coming week if you'll twist the dial here and there. All times are Eastern Daylight.
 Saturday on NBC at 2:25 the Cardinals play the Milwaukee Braves. At 1:30 on CBS the professional Golfers Assn. Tournament comes from Minneapolis. At the same hour NBC offers a look at the Monmouth Oaks from Monmouth Race Track.
 At 8 "Perry Presents" Tony Bennett, Jaye P. Morgan and the Modernaires on NBC. If you've missed the series "Brenner," take a look at it on CBS at 9.
 Major league baseball on NBC Sunday returns to the Cardinals and the Braves at 2:25. At 5 CBS returns to the Minneapolis tournament for more golf.
 In the way of something old, "20th Century" repeats the second part of "The Face of Crime" on CBS. At the same time on NBC Chef Huntley and NBC News cameras offer something new with a report on the impact of the steel strike on Gary, Ind.
 "General Electric Theater" repeats an interesting half-hour drama on CBS at 9. Fred MacMurray stars as a lonely man seeking companionship in the deserted Sunday precincts of downtown Los Angeles.
 Monday at 6:45 NBC brings the All-Star Baseball Game from the Los Angeles Coliseum at 6:45.
 The Lennon Sisters are guests on the Jimmie Rodgers Show over NBC Tuesday at 8:30. There's some fine and fresh summer entertainment these summer Tuesday evenings on the Andy Williams Show over CBS at 10.
 In celebration of the second anniversary of "American Band-

Valley Short Of Braceros

MERCEDES, Tex. (AP) — The Lower Rio Grande Valley is short about 18,000 braceros, Manager C. B. Ray of the Valley Farm Bureau said Thursday.
 He reported that Washington officials told him they will attempt to get contracting stepped up.
 About 1,700 workers were processed at the Hidalgo, Tex., center Thursday and the Labor Department has promised 4,000 more will be processed Friday, according to Rep. Joe Kilgore of McAllen.
 The bureau said about 45,000 braceros have been contracted thus far this year. Most are helping harvest valley cotton.
 Ray said recent scattered showers have caused some concern among farmers and they asked the labor shortage be solved.

Lamesa Realtor Board Created

LAMESA — A Lamesa Board of Realtors was organized here Wednesday with K. W. Dulaney being named president of the board.
 The election of officers followed a pre-organizational meeting at the Chamber of Commerce building with state officials explaining the makeup of local boards and of the state and national Real Estate Associations.
 Guy Weekes was elected vice president of the board and Willie Belle Cleveland, secretary-treasurer.
 A meeting of the Lamesa board will be held next Tuesday night for the purpose of making application for membership in the state and national groups. Proposed by-laws will be discussed and a representative to the state board will be elected.
 Present for the meeting from the state organization were Ervin E. Luedtke of Austin, executive secretary; W. Austin Hollywood, Austin, director of education; and from Lubbock, Hall W. Patillo, state director and Joe Phillips, state vice president-elect.

Continuous-Vision TRIFOCALS from TSO let you see clearly at ALL DISTANCES

Near... Far and IN-BETWEEN, too!

If you wear bifocals, you may see well near and you may see well far, but not well in-between. To see clearly at distances from two to five feet . . . you may need TRIFOCALS . . . a third focus within one lens.
 TSO TRIFOCALS are serving many thousands with clear vision for this in-between range. If your in-between range of vision needs improvement, consult an experienced TSO Doctor of Optometry about Continuous-Vision TRIFOCALS.
