U. S. Assures Allies Data Is Available

GENEVA (AP) — The United States has assured its chief Western Allies it will inform them fully of developments in the talks between President Eisenhower and Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev and will consult them on any specific agreements which may be proposed.

Eisenhower, officials say, is determined not to give Khrushchev any opening for a wedge between the United States and other countries in the Western Alliance.

Informed officials said the President, in his European swing before he meets Khrushchev, will assure British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan, French President Charles de Gaulle, and West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer that no deals will be made behind their backs.

He also wants to get their ideas about problems he and Khrushchev may take up and their suggestions for improving East-West relations.

Secretary of State Christian A. Herter, British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd, and French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville are reported to have agreed that, in view of their deadlocked with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko over Berlin, the Eisenhower-Khrushchev talks are highly desirable.

CAN END TALK

The ministers reason that they now can end their conference with Gromyko in failure and leave the Berlin crisis in a state of suspension, without the prospect of an imminent Soviet move against West Berlin which would create a new danger of war. The Allies figure Khrushchev will want a good atmosphere for his American trip and will avoid unfriendly acts and belligerent talk.

The French government reacted slowly and with apparent coolness to the announcement of the impending visit exchange. But informants said the French government welcomed it as a means of buying time and stalling off the Soviet threat to Berlin.

The last session of the foreign minister's conference is set for Wednesday. It is expected that the conference will end with a brief communique announcing agreement to disagree and declaring the meeting in recess. The next round of talks may come at New York in mid-September when the ministers are expected to be on hand for the opening days of the annual U.N. General Assembly.

The possibility that Gromyko might make some dramatic, last-minute proposal for a limited Berlin deal was not ruled out entirely. But in a luncheon talk with Lloyd Monday, he reportedly gave no sign of any such intention.

He did, however, indicate that a recess of the present talks would be agreeable to him. There had been some fear he might try to keep the conference in session or veto a recess in an effort to force Herter to take full responsibility for a breakdown.

Parole Violator To Be Returned

A Negro wanted here for parole violation and in Odessa for forgery has been picked up in Kansas City and will be returned here this week.

Sheriff Miller Harris said Kansas City officials called today and said that Morris B. Minter had been apprehended. Odessa authorities plan to go for him today or Wednesday, and a deputy from here will accompany the Odessans.

Island Warfare

THE HAGUE, Netherlands (AP) — Holland's Overseas Ministry announced today that 45 Papuans in West New Guinea were killed in a clash with islanders under Dutch administration. The announcement said the dead were all from unexplored parts of New Guinea.

HELD IN C-CITY Forgery Charges Filed On Two Men

Two men are in custody in Colorado City with charges filed against them here for forgery.

Willie R. Calvert, 18, and Freddie O. McKinley, 22, were arrested there Monday afternoon, and possessed motorcycles allegedly purchased here with forged checks.

Calvert is specifically charged with passing a forged check for $104.67 to Juanita Stigen at Charlie's Cycle Shop, 411 W. 3rd. The check, on Multiple Oil Well Service Co. of Midland, was made out to D. W. Lynch and signed Oliver P. Morgan.

Pete Harmonson filed the complaint against McKinley in connection with a check for $169.15. It was on the same oil firm and made out to James B. Bosters. It was also signed Oliver P. Morgan. Both cases were filed in Justice Jess Slaughter's court.

Another person is being sought in connection with the forged checks, the sheriff's office here reported.

Deputy Jack Hackney said he was told the checks were stolen from the oil firm's office at Post. Both the men in jail at Colorado City are ex-convicts. Calvert got out in May and McKinley in July.

Bond of $1,500 has been set for Elmer L. Adams, 32, in connection with a separate forgery case. Adams has given a statement to sheriff's deputies in connection with the case.

He is charged with taking a $622.11 check made out to B. R. White from a mail box on July 17 and passing it in payment for a car. The car later developed trouble, and was sold. Sheriff's Deputy Jack Hackney said.

He was arrested near here deputies. Charges of driving while intoxicated (second offense) have been filed against Curtis M. Chaney. The complaint was filed in Slaughter's court and highway patrolman Kel Davis signed the complaint.

The charge alleges that Chaney had a DWI conviction in Glasscock County from November of 1951.

Three Accidents Checked By Police

Three minor accidents were reported in Big Spring Monday. The damage was considered relatively minor and no injuries were reported.

Carl Moverman, 1106 E. 15th, told officers his car was struck by another car while parked on Main St. near the J. C. Penney's store.

Katherine G. Littlejohn, 1826 Goliad, and Sixto G. Ramirez, Big Spring, were drivers in a collision at 3rd and Main.

Kenneth D. Morgan, Howard House, told officers someone hit his car and left the scene on the Howard House parking lot.

Affair Which Led To Death Crumbles

WEST COVINA, Calif. (AP) — The romance which led to the fatal shooting of socialite Barbara Finch appears to be disintegrating.

Pretty Carole Tregoff, the other woman in a domestic drama climaxed by death, told newsmen Monday night she no longer loves Dr. Bernard Finch.

Miss Tregoff, 22, a shapely ex-model, and Dr. Finch, 41, a wealthy surgeon, are accused of murdering the doctor's 23-year-old wife last July 18. Last Wednesday, Miss Tregoff admitted to Dr. Finch's preliminary hearing that she loved the surgeon and had had intimacies with him.

She laughed repeatedly when interviewed in jail Monday night but when asked if she still loved

Dr. Finch, her smile turned into a sneer. Did the sneer mean she no longer loved him?

"I guess so," she replied. Miss Tregoff, a former receptionist in Dr. Finch's medical center, said she left his employ last May to "get away from this mess."

"And, oh yes," she added. "Dr. Finch didn't pay for my apartment in Las Vegas, as some reports said. I did. I borrowed $300 from my folks for the rent."

She denied having anything to do with the slaying. Famed defense attorney Jerry Giesler will defend her. Miss Tregoff's preliminary hearing had been scheduled for today, but Giesler indicated he will seek a week's delay.

Nixon Polish Tour Continues In Triumph

WARSAW, Poland (AP) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon continues his triumphal whirlwind visit to Communist-ruled Poland today with an official luncheon and a sightseeing tour of Warsaw.

Today's itinerary included lunch with Premier Josef Cyrankiewicz, a visit to a housing development, a three-hour drive through Warsaw's suburbs, and a talk with students at the University of Warsaw.

U.S. Ambassador Jacob D. Beam gives a reception for the visitors tonight, and they fly back to Washington Wednesday.

During another day of cheers from wildly enthusiastic Polish crowds, Nixon spent 5 1/2 hours Monday discussing international issues and Polish-American problems with Communist party leader Wladyslaw Gomulka. He wound up his arduous day as guest of honor at a reception by President Aleksander Zawadzki.

Nixon was accompanied by Dr. Milton S. Eisenhower, brother of the President, at his long talk with Gomulka. Three hours had been allotted for the visit, but the party chief had lunch brought to his office so the discussion could continue.

Also present were Premier Cyrankiewicz and Foreign Minister Adam Rapacki, author of a Soviet-supported plan for an atom-free zone in Central Europe which the United States has opposed.

WIDE RANGE Nixon said later the talk had ranged over international matters as well as Polish-American problems.

The length of the talk forced Nixon to cancel a visit to the remnant of Warsaw's Jewish ghetto, where about 500 persons waited patiently for a look at the vice president.

At the president's reception, Nixon won applause from Polish officials and foreign diplomats with a toast to peace.

Speaking in the great hall of the palace of Poland's cabinet, the vice president recalled that President Eisenhower had seen the war destruction in Poland 14 years ago and that Nixon himself had seen Warsaw's reconstruction.

Nixon referred to his talks with Polish leaders during the day. "There was complete agreement on this one issue: what happened to Warsaw, what happened to Poland in the last war, must not happen again either to Poland or any other country on earth," he declared.

Amid a roar of applause, he continued: "And statesmen who disagree on economic and foreign policies can and will find a way to settle their differences without the resort to force. I know I speak from the heart of the President."

Red Chinese Ambassador Wang Ping-nan was not present at the reception. Nor was Gomulka, who had interrupted a vacation to attend the afternoon talk with Nixon.

Widower Denies Marriage Plans, Family Moves On

NEW YORK (AP) — A 70-year-old Mississippi widower says he never did intend to marry the 40-year-old German widow.

The widow, Astrid Manns, arrived Monday from Germany with four of her five children, a car, and 13 pieces of luggage.

Lokie G. Lynch of Oxford, Miss., met her ship when it docked, but he told reporters that publicity about the two planning to marry was all wrong.

"Why shucks," he said, "I could marry 20 people down home if I wanted to."

"I've been a widower 19 years," he went on. "I got a little farm and a small government pension and I've been batchin' it. I just figured these German people, they're so clean and neat and nice, it would be nice to have one as a housekeeper, that's all. There wasn't any talk about marriage."

New York has not extended any invitation, but Mayor Robert F. Wagner has said the city would cooperate officially.

The San Antonio, Tex., Press Club invited Khrushchev to be guest speaker at its Gridiron dinner Oct. 10.

Mayor R. L. Thornton of Dallas said he would give Khrushchev the same cordial welcome of any other distinguished person.

New York has not extended any invitation, but Mayor Robert F. Wagner has said the city would cooperate officially.

The June figure was 63 permits for a total valuation of $429,139.55.

This year is still keeping pace construction-wise with 1958, despite the loss shown this past July. For the first seven months of 1959, there have been 429 building permits issued for a total of $2,565,412.55. Last year, there were 626 permits issued totaling $2,946,715.

100 Degree Weather Is Back Again

Water consumption and the temperature took high jumps Monday in Big Spring.

The temperature touched 100 degrees for the first time since June when the mercury crossed the century mark only three times.

Water consumption reached 8,762,000 gallons Monday, almost 2 million gallons more than the same day in 1958. Last year, the usage was 7,066,000 gallons.

Through most of the summer months, water consumption has lagged far behind 1958 figures.

Whipkey Resting Following Attack

Robert W. Whipkey, publisher of the Herald, was resting well at noon Tuesday at Cowper Hospital following a heart attack earlier in the day.

His physician said he had suffered a coronary occlusion of moderate severity but that he was resting quite well. He may not have visitors.

Whipkey had been to an early morning breakfast at Coker's honoring Col. Kyle Riddle, who is leaving his post as Webb AFB commander soon. He had returned home before going to work and became ill. Mrs. Whipkey summoned his physician and he was removed to the hospital in an ambulance.

Sept. 15 Seen As Khrushy Date

WASHINGTON (AP) — It now appears that Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev will begin his visit to the United States on Sept. 15.

State Department officials said today it is safe to assume he will arrive here that day. They said they could not officially confirm that date. The final word has to come from Khrushchev himself.

It is expected he will come directly to Washington. Informants said that since Khrushchev is an official guest of the United States, his visit to Washington would by all means precede an eventual appearance elsewhere, such as the United Nations General Assembly in New York.

Sparkman Asks Courteous Reception For Russ Leader

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. John Sparkman (D-Ala.) proposed today a campaign for public understanding to insure a safe and courteous U.S. reception for Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

Sparkman, a member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, was among a majority on Capitol Hill who applauded President Eisenhower's decision to exchange visits with the Soviet leader.

There were some, however, who angrily protested, like Sen. Thomas J. Dodd (D-Conn.) who called Eisenhower's invitation "a national disgrace."

The Khrushchev visit, he said, will "discourage millions of neutrals throughout the world and reduce the will of our own people to resist the evil forces of communism."

But the general reaction among Congress members — and among state governors meeting in San Juan, Puerto Rico — was that the potential good far outweighs the possible harmful effects.

Sparkman, like a majority of those who commented, voiced the hope that out of the exchange of

That Cool, Cool Religion

DENTON (AP) — They're still talking here, man, about that Sunday night jazz at the First Methodist Church.

Church officials, man, said the reaction was favorable.

Not a square in the congregation, man, the 40-minute score for John Wesley's standard prayer service, man, was arranged by Ed Summerlin, a graduate student at North Texas State College here.

Summerlin presently is appearing with a dance band at a leading Dallas hotel.

Saxophones, trumpets, trombones, and drums echoed through the building that before had heard only voice, piano and organ.

Why, Dad, except for two hymns the score—the whole thing—was Summerlin's own jazz composition. He didn't change the tempo of the hymns, man, he just wrote smooth, hep new harmonies.

The music was played by Summerlin and some other North Texas State cats, the moaning sax, the crying trumpets, and slip-horns. It went right on, man, right on through the entire service, except for a 20-minute sermon preached by William B. Slack Jr. and, man, he's a former television actor and the assistant pastor at this church.

Presiding over the whole set-up, man, was Dr. Roger Ortmyer, a member of the faculty in Dallas of Southern Methodist University's Perkins School of Theology.

That's not all, man. In August, the jazz service will go to Purdue University, Lafayette, Ind., for the National Youth Convocation.

And you know, Dad, Summerlin said the National Broadcasting Co. already has made arrangements to film parts of the Purdue service for telecasting.

Bids Mount For Khrushy

NEW YORK (AP) — Invitations are mounting for Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev to see a cross-section of American cities next month.

Philadelphia wants him to take a look at the Liberty Bell and Independence Hall.

Marshalltown, Iowa, has invited him to "visit this community of diversified agriculture and industry in the heartland of America."

A suggestion that Khrushchev visit Kansas came from Olin K. Pettefish, president of the Lawrence, Kan., Chamber of Commerce.

The San Antonio, Tex., Press Club invited Khrushchev to be guest speaker at its Gridiron dinner Oct. 10.

Joint Panel Up In Air As Tension Grows

AUSTIN (AP) — House and Senate leaders disagreed again today on when a joint conference committee may get together on the state's $2,415,000 spending bill.

"I don't know but it doesn't look too good," said Rep. William Healy, Paducah, House appropriations chairman.

The committee went behind closed doors again, seeking final agreement.

Other legislators said they are becoming restless because:

1. The Senate refused to approve a resolution authorizing $25 a day pay for lawmakers. The House passed the measure.

2. The hush-hush appropriations meetings keeping news from the public.

Senate leader William Fly and Healy went several verbal rounds last night, members said. The major argument was not on spending but who leaked detailed accounts of the big spending bill to The Associated Press last week.

Temporary agreements on more money for Texas A&M College, which was cut because of enrollment drops, changed again. The final decision was behind the closed, frosted glass door.

"We're making many changes," a member said.

Senate President Pro Tem Abraham Kazen Jr., Laredo, became acting governor with Gov. Price Daniel and Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey reported "out of the state." This is the customary honor paid the president pro tem—second in line to the chief executive's post.

The Senate approved yesterday the final adjournment (sine die) date as noon tomorrow. House approval is necessary to move up the third session's closing date. It is now Aug. 15.

August Band Schedule Set

The August band schedules for the high school and junior high schools started today in Big Spring, according to Doug Wiebe, High School band director.

Construction Lag Shown Last Month

Construction during July took a sharp dip of over a million dollars less than the same month last year and dropped back almost $300,000 behind the previous month.

This year is still keeping pace construction-wise with 1958, despite the loss shown this past July. For the first seven months of 1959, there have been 429 building permits issued for a total of $2,565,412.55. Last year, there were 626 permits issued totaling $2,946,715.

There were 62 building permits issued at the municipal building for construction valued at $144,964. In July, 1958, the value was $1,382,210, caused primarily by a flush of 177 permits for the Douglas Addition.

Wide-Open Labor Bill Fight Indicated As Hearings Begin

WASHINGTON (AP)—A wide-open floor battle over labor control legislation was indicated today as the House Rules Committee called hearings to determine procedure.

Without working over the legislation itself, the committee decides on debate limits, the extent of amendments to be allowed, and ground rules which play a big part in shaping House action on bills.

Before it was a bill approved 16-14 by the House Labor Committee but opposed by many who want it changed on the House floor.

The committee consequently was expected to send the bill to the floor wide-open to amendment to satisfy members who consider it too weak and needs strengthening, and others who say it is too tough and needs toning down.

The Rules Committee, under pressure to get the bill before the House this week, suspended hearings on other legislation to give it priority.

As it came from the Labor Committee, the measure eased many restrictions of the Senate-passed bill but followed that bill's general pattern.

It would ban "hot cargo" clauses in union contracts and extortion picketing. A modified labor "bill of rights" is included, but without the criminal penalties the Senate voted for violations. The bill would require unions to make extensive financial reports and a bill would require the National Labor Relations Board to take jurisdiction in all labor dispute cases. The

'Dog Days' For Texas

By The Associated Press

Summer's so-called "dog days" stayed with Texas Tuesday after a Monday that brought record heat for the season to many places.

Forecasts called for continued "warm" temperatures with isolated afternoon and evening thundershowers.

However, the whole state was clear at dawn. Temperatures were hot as the sun peeked over the eastern horizon, ranging from Dallas' humid, muggy 82 to a comfortable 69 at Dalhart.

Monday's temperatures, paced by Presidie's burning 109 degree maximum, were mostly in the high 90s. But several points reported 100 or more.

It was 105 at Cotulla, while Seymour, Laredo, Van Horn and Dalhart had 102, Wichita Falls and Childress 100, El Paso, San Antonio, and Alice 101, and Austin, Fort Worth, Midland, Junction, College Station, and Mineral Wells 100.

Galveston's 90 was the lowest maximum in the state.

Monday's only rainfall, what there was of it, was .12 of an inch at Fort Worth and .03 and an inch at Greenville.

Expert Calls Owls Stupid

NEW YORK (AP)—Despite their scholarly appearance, owls are just plain stupid, says Roger S. Payne, a graduate biologist at Cornell University.

He stopped by the Bronx Zoo Monday, and his scorn for owls knew no bounds.

"They are even dumber than chickens, if that's possible," he said.

Payne bases his knowledge on two years of research with owls. He said that in his laboratory he has seen owls take off from their perches and crash into the rafters time and time again. He had one owl that had to be forced for six months. When it finally did eat it attacked the man who fed it.

However, he had to admit that stupid as owls are, they seem to elude researchers pretty well. He has had considerable trouble getting enough to carry on his research.

Reaction Generally Favorable To Ike-Khrushchev Visit Pact

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower is taking a direct hand in U. S. foreign policy discussions, raising them to a summit level whether or not the talks result in a summit conference.

His exchange of visits with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev and an earlier trip to Europe to confer with heads of the major western Allies will give Eisenhower direct contacts with the participants in any later summit meeting.

A generally favorable reaction, both in this country and elsewhere in the world, greeted Monday's announcement that Khrushchev has accepted Eisenhower's invitation to visit the United States next month.

Many expressed hope that East-West tensions would be eased if Khrushchev were impressed first hand with the nation's strength and peaceful intentions.

Talks with Eisenhower and a 10-day tour of the country are among the plans for the Khrushchev visit. Reports from Moscow said the Soviet Premier is expected to bring along his wife, son and daughter.

With most details still uncertain, there has been no announcement whether Mrs. Eisenhower will accompany her husband to Europe.

The Khrushchev announcement overshadowed Eisenhower's plans for an earlier series of meetings with British, French, and West German heads of government.

These could bear importantly on his talks with Khrushchev.

U. S. officials said details of the newly announced travels must be worked out. But they spoke in terms of Eisenhower's attending a Western Big Three summit meeting in Paris, plus talking separately with the British and French chiefs and with Germany's Chancellor Konrad Adenauer.

Eisenhower was expected to go to Paris in the latter part of August. Khrushchev is due here in September, perhaps around mid-month. No date has been fixed.

Eisenhower's own later visit to the Soviet Union.

From the standpoint of diplomatic troubleshooting, Eisenhower's trip to Western Europe shaped up as a picnic compared with the tough task of dealing with the Russians on East-West issues.

Eisenhower will be returning to the area where he served many years as an international military commander. The Allies, despite some differences, see eye to eye on most problems.

The largest exception in this harmony scene is the towering Charles de Gaulle, whose ideas about France's destiny have caused concern in the Western camp.

De Gaulle has demanded a voice for France in the use of atomic weapons, has withdrawn the French Mediterranean Fleet from NATO combat command, and has embarked on a controversial campaign to quell the Algerian insurrection.

Eisenhower has not met with De Gaulle since he took office. Britain's Prime Minister Harold Macmillan and Adenauer both have been to Washington this year. But the nationalist Frenchman has brushed aside invitations to visit.

The European journey gives

Eisenhower a chance to talk with De Gaulle without obviously going out of his way to do so.

Eisenhower recently said he and De Gaulle "are old friends, comrades of the war and since," who might be able through personal talks to make special progress in smoothing out differences between the two governments. He noted that many of the differences have to do with defense.

In his discussions generally with the Western leaders, officials said Eisenhower might deal with such matters as his exchange of visits with Khrushchev, East-West disarmament, nuclear test ban talks, and the German problem.

Washington authorities waded into the many details that remain to be ironed out on the Khrushchev visit.

The broad agreement for the exchange was handled in such secrecy and on such a high level that most State Department officials below the rank of undersecretary seemed unaware of it until Monday's announcement.

U. N. diplomats expect Khrushchev will address the General Assembly in New York. He could do that without an invitation, as a member of the Soviet delegation.

Where else he will travel during his 10-day tour of the United States will depend on where he would be properly received and what he wants to see. U. S. officials were sounding out local leaders in various parts of the country to see if they would cooperate in a Khrushchev visit to their area.

board may now decline, jurisdiction in small cases, and the states are prohibited from acting.

It strongest and most influential backing came Monday from Sam Rayburn (D-Tex.), who declared: "I think it who a splendid job." Rayburn said the Labor Committee bill "covers racketeering in a fine fashion."

But only five of the 30 Labor Committee members had a good word to say for it. The others said it would be too tough on labor, or not tough enough.

It appeared that at least two substitute bills would be offered when the bill gets to the floor.

One, favored by President Eisenhower, would strengthen restrictions in the Labor Committee bill and would give the states the right to act in labor disputes which the NLRB has refused to handle. It also would restore criminal penalties.

Reps. Phil M. Landrum (D-Ga.) and Robert P. Griffin (R-Mich.) sponsors, said their bill is not anti-labor but a "fair, reasonable and moderate" approach to elimination of labor union abuses.

Another substitute, regarded as more nearly reflecting the views of organized labor, is backed by 43 House Democrats headed by Rep. John F. Shelley (D-Calif.). He contends the other bills would hurt legitimate labor unions.

Shelley said his bill "is a simple measure designed to do a simple job — get the crooks who have infiltrated the labor-management field."

The Shelley bill contains no "bill of rights" for union members, emphasizes financial accountability of unions and their officials, and makes extortion or shakedown picketing an unfair labor practice under the Taft-Hartley Act.

It makes other changes in the committee version, including omission of provisions affecting NLRB.

For Eisenhower's own later visit to the Soviet Union.

From the standpoint of diplomatic troubleshooting, Eisenhower's trip to Western Europe shaped up as a picnic compared with the tough task of dealing with the Russians on East-West issues.

Eisenhower will be returning to the area where he served many years as an international military commander. The Allies, despite some differences, see eye to eye on most problems.

The largest exception in this harmony scene is the towering Charles de Gaulle, whose ideas about France's destiny have caused concern in the Western camp.

De Gaulle has demanded a voice for France in the use of atomic weapons, has withdrawn the French Mediterranean Fleet from NATO combat command, and has embarked on a controversial campaign to quell the Algerian insurrection.

Eisenhower has not met with De Gaulle since he took office. Britain's Prime Minister Harold Macmillan and Adenauer both have been to Washington this year. But the nationalist Frenchman has brushed aside invitations to visit.

Playhouse Fire Kills 3 Children

NAMPA, Idaho (AP)—Fire swept through a wooden playhouse here Monday and killed three small children before a neighbor could rescue them.

The victims were Mary, 4, Mark, 5, and Kathy Bryant, 6, children of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Bryant.

"I kicked in the front door, but it was too late," said Willard Bradbury, a fireman who lives next door and discovered the fire.

The four-foot high playhouse was located in a corner of the family's yard. There was no immediate explanation of how the fire began.

The children's parents were at work, and a babysitter was tending three other Bryant children in the house.

DEAR AUNTIE: This crush cannot get out of hand if she leaves the grocery store on foot. Ask the Kemoses at the market to cooperate by explaining to her that he isn't allowed to have riders in the truck.

DEAR ABBY: Our son is 24. He's just been divorced and is living at home again. He is robust, gainfully employed and is buying an automobile and motorcycle on time. He is on the go seven nights a week.

Should he be expected to contribute toward home expenses? If so, how much is fair? We are in moderate circumstances.

DISAGREEING PARENTS
DEAR PARENTS: A 24-year-old "boy" is a man. He should, in my opinion, contribute the same amount at home that it would cost him to live in a hotel (or rooming house) plus his board and laundry. You do him no favor by supporting him when he is able to support himself.

DEAR ABBY: A certain married couple who used to be in our crowd suddenly gave us all the cold shoulder.

It seems that a rumor got started that they were being divorced. They denied it and tried to find out who started the gossip, but so many people repeated it that it was impossible to pin it on anyone.

Now they refuse to associate with any of us. I say if there were no truth to the rumor they would have laughed it off in the first place. Or don't you believe, Abby, that "where there's smoke — there's fire?" EX FRIENDS

DEAR EX: Where there's smoke there is not always fire. Could be just someone smoking the peace pipe. Those who repeat gossip are as guilty, in my opinion, as those who start it.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "GOLF WIDOW": Play with the girls. There's more than one fair way.

What's your problem? For a personal reply, write to ABBY in care of the Big Spring Herald. Enclose a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

FREEDOM OF THE PRESS

Trial Of Peter Zenger 225 Years Ago Today Recalled

By SAM BLACKBURN
The place was New York. The date was Aug. 4.
The event was a trial. The charge was criminal libel.
The defendant was a newspaper publisher and editor. He published a weekly paper called the New York Weekly Journal. His opposition to the policies of the governor in the administration of public affairs had led to the indictment against him for criminal libel.
He had been held in jail since the fall of the preceding year. The courts refused to allow him reasonable bail. Now, on Aug. 4, he was brought from jail, arraigned in a court before a judge appointed and controlled by the governor he was accused of libeling.

William Cosby. He held that his appointment from the king gave him royal powers. And he was handling public affairs in utter disregard to justice or honesty.
Zenger, a printer by trade, formed the Weekly Journal to oppose the tyranny of the royal governor. Zenger was not a well-educated man. He wrote vigorously but not brilliantly, but he wrote what he believed and he had the courage to point the accusing finger at the greedy governor and at the sycophants who were waxing rich at the expense of the honest, hard-working colonists.
Cosby did not take this criticism with patience. Early in the autumn of 1734, he ordered four editions of the Journal seized and burned. The courts refused to honor the order. The board of city aldermen declined to permit the public whipper to carry out the governor's request.

Hamilton to make use of such a defense. He would not, the judge warned, be permitted to present such an argument to the jury.
Hamilton, despite the warning, defied the court. He pleaded with the jury to determine whether his client had actually libelled the royal governor or whether Zenger had but printed the truth.
JURY ACTS PART
So convincing was Hamilton's appeal, the jurors, in their own turn, ignored the instructions of the court. Hamilton had warned them the court had instructed them they could not consider this issue of truth or falsity.
"Do not heed the court," he pleaded. "Look into the truth in this matter. Find out for yourselves whether Zenger has lied about Governor Cosby or whether he has but told the honest truth."
So on Aug. 4, 1735—225 years before a group of embattled farmers were to fire on the British red coats at Lexington—these 12 men, with a courage difficult to understand, returned a verdict of not guilty.
Zenger, freed from his cell, returned to his dingy little print shop and he and his brave little wife continued to publish their small newspaper. What happened to him is lost in the mists of time.
Hamilton went back to his desk. He, too, disappears from the scene. Cosby's tyranny was shattered.
Probably no one in that day really knew what had been accomplished in that trial.
The evaluation had to come later.
But actually, when a jury of 12 citizens, voting that an editor had printed only the truth about a deplorable condition, and, by that verdict, decreed newspapers and the right and the duty to print the truth about anything that concerns the public.
And in that courtroom, Freedom of the Press, as we know it in America, came into being.

PAPER CONTINUED

Despite the indictment against him, the Weekly Journal, in which had appeared the editorials criticizing the governor and for which editorials the editor was now being held in jail, had continued to publish each Sunday.
The editor's wife, a courageous little woman, who was as deeply concerned in the issue at stake as her husband, saw to it that the little newspaper was in the hands of its subscribers each week. She made little trips to the prison where the editor was confined and through what became known later as "the hole in the jail door," she was instructed in the problems of publishing the paper.
When did all this happen? A long, long time ago—225 years ago today in fact.
The editor's name was Peter Zenger, a resident of the Royal British colony of New York. The colony at that time was governed by a ruthless, greedy individual.

Steel Strike At A Glance

By The Associated Press
IDLE — Half a million United Steelworkers who struck the basic steel industry 21 days ago; also about 88,000 employees in allied industries.
NEGOTIATIONS — Industry and union leaders met jointly in New York Monday under the guidance of federal mediators, but there were no reports of progress. Joint talks slated to continue Tuesday.
LOSSES — Industry loses some 200 million dollars worth of business each week; strikers lose nearly 70 million dollars a week in wages.
ISSUES — Union wants a 15-cent-an-hour wage hike plus fringe benefits; industry rejects this demand on grounds that high labor costs would force steel prices up and cause inflation.
WASHINGTON — Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo) calls on the White House to stop issuing statements and says the President should use his power and office to get a reasonable and prompt settlement.

Khrushchev Taking Calculated Risk With Journey To U. S.

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev is taking a calculated risk in accepting an invitation to visit the United States.
His exchange of visits with President Eisenhower will permit an unusual calm to settle over the main arenas of the cold war for a couple of months. But there is no reason to suppose that peace has broken out.
Khrushchev has long indicated he badly wanted the invitation to America. He maneuvered industriously to get it. But why was he so eager?
Khrushchev's projected few days in Washington and President Eisenhower in Moscow will be in effect a meeting at the summit, a two-sided meeting with other countries on the outside.
The Western Allies are being reassured and are making noises like they are welcoming the exchange. By the time Khrushchev gets through, they possibly will be wondering what really went on behind closed doors. The idea that Khrushchev is thinking along such lines cannot be discarded, for he is known to have entertained a notion of splitting the Allies by hinting at a possible two-way deal to keep the world in its place.

But there is some risk for Khrushchev himself. The same uneasiness he may seek to arouse among the Western Europeans also can be provoked among the Chinese Communists. A Moscow-Washington display of peace, friendship, and all's right with the world can hardly make Peiping sublimely happy.
Red China is in no position to flirt with the idea of world peace. It has too far to go, straining every muscle to make its own revolution succeed. It needs an American enemy.
Coming on top of the obvious failure of the Big Four foreign ministers to agree on Berlin and Germany, the sudden outbreak of exuberant good will might be viewed as an unexpected, highly welcome ray of light.
But the Berlin affair is working out as predicted by those familiar with Soviet ways. Khrushchev issued an ultimatum. To carry through on it would have been a grave risk. To back down would have been awkward. What better solution than to leave the whole matter up in the air while Khrushchev lumbers about the United States trying to look like a pigeon of peace?
Khrushchev probably has other reasons for wanting to come to America.
It's likely he wants to measure the climate of American opinion. This was done for him by two first deputy premiers, Anastas I. Mikoyan and Frol R. Kozlov. But possibly Khrushchev believes neither deputy and wants to see for himself.
Khrushchev possibly considers Americans suckers for a broad grin and hearty handshake. He may think they will be eager to forget all about the cold war by the time he is finished with them.
But the United States has much to gain by the exchange. Vice President Richard M. Nixon's reception in the Soviet Union and

Canadian Party Has Reduced Death Penalty

OTTAWA (AP) — Capital punishment has been reduced in Canada since the Conservatives came to power two years ago.
Prime Minister John Diefenbaker's Cabinet has commuted 25 of 32 death sentences since June, 1957. The previous Liberal Cabinet allowed 21 hangings and commuted 18 death sentences between 1954 and 1956.
Under Canadian criminal law, the courts must sentence anyone convicted of murder to death. But the federal Cabinet decides whether a murderer hangs or receives a life sentence instead.
The Conservatives' reduction of death sentences has led to criticism in some quarters that the Cabinet is making a mockery of court decisions. Justice A. M. Manson of Kamloops, B.C., charges that the Cabinet's action constitutes an infringement of Parliament's rights.
Lester B. Pearson, Liberal leader in the House of Commons, said that if the government wants to abolish death sentences, it should propose such a change in Canadian law and let Parliament decide.
But Justice Minister Edmund D. Fulton said in an interview the Cabinet's policy is no indication that the government wants to abolish capital punishment. Such an action, he said, is a right only the Parliament can exercise.
"There should certainly be no feeling on the part of a judge that in commuting a death sentence we are reversing him," he added, contending that there is a difference between the court's responsibility to administer the law and the Cabinet's duty to exercise its law-given prerogative of mercy.
"That is a responsibility a Cabinet cannot evade," Fulton said.

Musical Talent, Fortune Telling Can Make Wallflower Into Belle

By DOROTHY ROE
AP Women's Editor

Girls who yearn to be popular, always in demand and the life of the party might heed the advice of Betty Penon, women's editor of The Boise, Idaho, Statesman.

"Learn to tell fortunes," says Betty. "If you add a smattering of astrology and handwriting analysis, so much the better. You'll never have a dull moment."

Betty subscribed to a course in fortune-telling and palmistry a few years ago, got interested in the whole psychic subject and added astrology. Now she's the center of attention at every party, never at a loss for dinner invitations, and besieged on all sides by friends who look on her as an oracle.

Blue Lustre Easy Cleaner

Every homemaker selects her rugs, carpets and upholstery with great care—choosing just the right colors and type of fabric that will best serve their needs over a long period of time.

Surprisingly enough, many do not give sufficient thought to the cleaning care required for their fine furnishings. But if there were some magic selector to choose the best rug shampoo or upholstery cleaner for this purpose, it would probably point to Blue Lustre Carpet and Upholstery Cleaner.

More housewives are discovering the excellence of Blue Lustre for keeping their room furnishings looking new and bright all of the time. They have found Blue Lustre is safe to use, brightens colors instantly and leaves carpet pile open and fluffy. Blue Lustre is not only easy to use, the cost is very small, because one half gallon of Blue Lustre concentrate is sufficient to clean three 9x12 rugs.

Blue Lustre has been recommended for use in all types of shampoo applicators including electric shampoo machines. It can also be applied with an inexpensive long handled brush. Since a good cleaning job depends on the quality of shampoo used—Blue Lustre is always the wise choice because it is completely soapless and leaves no residue to cause rapid re-soiling. Blue Lustre is available at Big Spring Hardware.

New Linen Service Is Growing Rapidly

The new linen service has been in existence only about five months but the management said that business has been growing at a fast pace. One of the main reasons for this fantastic growth is the type of merchandise used.

All the items furnished are of the highest quality. This is of value to the motels, cafes, barber and beauty shops, and drug stores as well as the linen service firm, because the linens can stand up under heavy use. They are not un-der heavily used, they are not un-der heavily used, they are not un-der heavily used.

Big Spring Linen, being a local firm, can give fast service to all its customers. Ross Roberts is the route man.

North Squad Hit By Two Mishaps

FORT WORTH (AP)—The North squad awaited a decision today on whether it is to have the services of all star Alford, Wichita Falls, end, and Mike Gieb, Garland guard, in the All Star football game of the Texas Coaching School.

Each suffered injury of old ailments in the first scrimmage session Monday and were considered doubtful participants in the game Friday night at Texas Christian University stadium.

Both had recently undergone operations. Alford to remove bone chips from his foot and Gieb to correct a knee injury.

A determination will be made today on whether the boys will be able to play.

If they cannot substitutions may be made for them but their probable loss was lamented by North Coach Elwood Turner of Sweetwater, who said he had planned to depend heavily on their defensive ability.

There were no injuries on the South camp, but Coach Darrell Tully of Spring Branch cut short the afternoon workout because of the heat.

They Balk, Too

Numerous balks can be called against the burros in a donkey ball game but there's nothing in the rule book to cover it. Such a situation developed in the picture above, with dire results for the rider. The directors of the Chamber of Commerce and the Jay-Cees will try to ride the donkeys in a game at the old Steer Stadium, Tenth and State Streets, at 7:30 o'clock this evening.

NEXT TO STEER PARK

Donkey Game Set For Grid Stadium

Tonight's donkey baseball game, which meets a team composed of the directors of the Chamber of Commerce against the Junior Chamber, will actually take place on the turf of the old Steer Stadium next to Steer Park, rather than the diamond itself.

The winner of the contest will take on Wing Headquarters at Webb AFB tomorrow evening at the same hour.

The Jaycees, who thought up the whole business, are charging $1 for adults and 50 cents for children as gate tariff and will use the money for the parties they stage regularly for the patients at the Big Spring State Hospital.

Probable starts for the C.C. team are Pete (Speedy) Cook, pitcher; Don (Lightning) Newsom; catcher; Col. Kyle (Lefty) Riddle, first base; Cliff (Rabbit) Fisher, second base; Jim (Fingers) Lewis, short stop; Dan (Rapper) Krause, third base; Dr. Carl (Aoe) Marcum, left field; Garner (Zephyr) McAdams, center field; and Clyde (Sluggo) McMahon, right field.

Cook says he has one claim to athletic fame. He's never suffered a defeat as a pitcher in a donkey baseball game. Of course, that could mean he never pitched in one.

Ralph McLaughlin, boss of the Jaycees, said he'll throw caution to the winds and start George (Riddles) Creagh as his pitcher. Chub (Knuckles) Jones will try to catch his slants, if his donkey will cooperate.

At first base, McLaughlin will have John (Dingles) Jones, while Jim (Row Boat) Scoggins will be at second. Daryle (Quicksilver) Hoberz will be at third and John (Count Down) Burgess will be at short stop.

In the outfield, the Jaycees will make use of the talents of Bob (Tex) Johnson in left, Wayne (Tris Speaker) Basden and Bill (Mumbles) Gray in right.

Ralph Godfrey of Crescent, Okla., is furnishing the burros for the game, which may never be the same after tonight's imbroglio.

They Balk, Too

Numerous balks can be called against the burros in a donkey ball game but there's nothing in the rule book to cover it. Such a situation developed in the picture above, with dire results for the rider. The directors of the Chamber of Commerce and the Jay-Cees will try to ride the donkeys in a game at the old Steer Stadium, Tenth and State Streets, at 7:30 o'clock this evening.

Donkey Game Set For Grid Stadium

Tonight's donkey baseball game, which meets a team composed of the directors of the Chamber of Commerce against the Junior Chamber, will actually take place on the turf of the old Steer Stadium next to Steer Park, rather than the diamond itself.

The winner of the contest will take on Wing Headquarters at Webb AFB tomorrow evening at the same hour.

Webb, Brooke Meet Tonight

The Webb AFB baseball team, which split a double header with the Tigers here Sunday, play their first home game under the lights this evening, at which time they host Brooke Army Medical Center. Game time is 8 o'clock.

The two teams clash at the same hour tomorrow evening. The public is invited to attend.

Lights have only recently been installed on the Webb diamond.

Hersch Wells will probably start on the mound for the locals this evening while Ronnie Hagler could get the slab call tomorrow.

New League To Go With Fresh Faces

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP)—The Embury American Football League claims it will shoot for the sparkling rookies and not raid its rival National Football League for material. Sponsors say simple mathematics will bring the rookies into their camp.

"We think we have an advantage over the NFL," Dallas franchise holder Lamar Hunt says. "We can tell a boy it's no sense in signing with Pittsburgh, for example. For $8,000 say, he can sign with Dallas and be sure of making the team."

Title Fight Slated To Be Held Sept. 22

NEW YORK (AP)—There was every indication today the Floyd Patterson-Ingemar Johansson heavyweight championship re-match would come off Sept. 22 as tentatively scheduled, but where it will be held and how the arrangements will be handled are in the vague category.

The two remaining directors of Rosensohn Enterprises, Inc.—Vincent Vellela and Irving Kahn—admittedly have no experience in fight promotion. Vellela says his interest primarily is in the finances. Kahn, as president of Telemoptr, Inc., is interested primarily in the ancillary rights including television, radio and movies.

This situation developed Monday when Bill Rosensohn, president of Rosensohn enterprises, severed all connection with the organization and said he would sell his one-third interest for $75,000 to anyone who cared to buy.

Rosensohn's resignation came as an outgrowth of a feud with Vellela which came into the open last Friday. Vellela, who holds two-thirds of the stock, elected Kahn as a third director of the enterprises. Kahn and Rosensohn have not been on the best of terms.

Rosensohn, front man and ostensibly promoter of the first fight in June in which Johansson scored a knockout in the third round, said he had offered Vellela and Kahn a chance to buy his stock, or allow him to buy Vellela's stock for $150,000.

Vellela said he would not buy or sell without first going over the company's books.

Vellela said the promotional loss on the first fight was "closer to $70,000 than the announced $40,000" and that the promotional expense was close to $300,000, a figure he termed fantastic.

Rosensohn said he is entirely out of the picture now, although Rosensohn Enterprises holds Johansson's contract for the return fight.

In Sweden, the champion's advisor, Edwin Ahlquist, said: "We very much regret the resignation of Bill Rosensohn, and we are going to demand a full investigation into the whole business before any decision on the return match is passed."

Ahlquist also said he and Johansson are not satisfied with the accounts rendered so far of the income from the title fight.

"If we don't get a full account of the first match and a completely clear picture of the distribution of the income from the next one within a reasonable time, we will turn to the New York Boxing Commission," Ahlquist added.

Although refusing to discuss how Ingemar feels about boxing for a promoter other than Rosensohn, Ahlquist said: "We have no reason to obstruct plans for a return match if we get the figures we want."

Kahn said the site of the rematch probably will be announced by Aug. 10 and that the two fighters would have ample time to reach their peaks by Sept. 22. Patterson left Monday for an undisclosed upstate New York point to start road work.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

Sports dialogue:

JOHN PIPES, director of the recent Sectional Round for the U. S. National Public Links Golf tournament:

"I'm going to have to have some help if there's to be a Sectional tournament in the area next year. Some one in the other towns is going to have to contact the public links players for me and get them to enter. It's just too big a job for one man."

PAUL RICHARDS, Baltimore Orioles' manager:

"Everybody raves about the Chicago White Sox pitching but what would it be without Luis Aparicio? He's just the greatest shortstop ever. Put him on our ball club and we'd be leading the league."

BILL VECK, president of the Chicago White Sox:

"Making a deal unquestionably is the most fascinating part of the job of running a major league ball club. To the baseball executive trading holds the same appeal as hitting does for a player. That's where all the fun is. The rest of the job is just a lot of hard work. I make hundreds of long distance calls a month to baseball officials in both leagues to keep informed on what players may be available. It's like using radar."

LEE WALLS, Chicago Cub player:

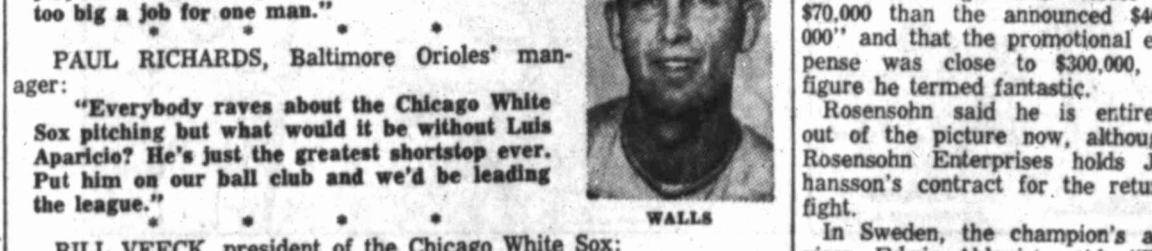

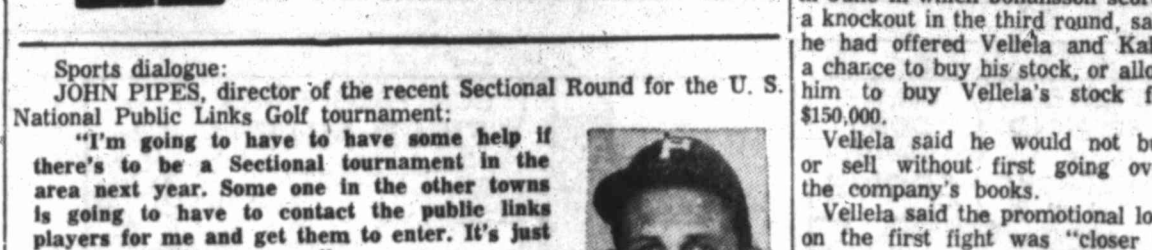

"Some players can take the idea of being traded, some can't make the adjustment. I'm telling you this from my own experience. The Pirates were the first big league team I played for and when they traded me to the Cubs I'm not ashamed to admit I broke down and cried. I never got over it the rest of the year with the Cubs. But by the next season I was alright. Frank Thomas (Reds) is a sentimentalist and he never thought he'd be traded. I know he's still hurting inside and it may take him until next season to recover. Some players are like that. Al Dark and I had dinner with Thomas not so long ago and he poured out his heart to us. He didn't want to talk about his troubles at first but I drew him out because I knew what he was going through. Dark, for instance, said being traded never affected him but he admitted his makeup may be different from ours."

OLIVER KUECHLE, Milwaukee sports writer:

"The profundity of the football scouts which the pros like to spread is a myth. Most of the scouts are assistant coaches who on a Saturday escape from their own coaching strait jacket long enough to catch a college game or guys who on five other days of the week sell insurance. Except for the help they get from college coaches who "sell" their opinions, the program of weights, the publicity which stars get, the ordinary statistics which are available to every newspaper reader, the pro scouts have nothing special."

THE WINCHESTER PROOF, published by makers of the Winchester Rifle:

"The chukar partridge, whose homeland is the foothills of the Himalayas and other areas in the Middle East, was first introduced as early as 1883. Although released in many states during this early period, the chukar seemed unable to find a suitable home. In 1935 some Nevada sportsmen, financed by the State Game and Fish Commission, decided to try the bird among the arid, barren slopes of the Sagebrush State. By 1947, Nevada was able to hold the first unlimited hunt for chukars ever held in this country. In 1952, hunters harvested some 43,000 birds during seasons that exceeded 30 days in some areas. Since a mere 6,300 birds were released between 1935 and 1953, there is little doubt of the chukar's adaptability to the Nevada habitat. Other Western states (notably Washington, Oregon, Idaho, California, Wyoming and Utah) have also had success in introducing the chukar as a game species."

We Weren't The Best, Says LSU Mentor, Paul Dietzel

BY HAROLD V. RATLIFF

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP)—Paul Dietzel says he does not think his Louisiana State football team was the best in the nation last year and he wonders if this season's will be as good.

Dietzel explains that he has lost one important ingredient of winning, good kicking.

The headman of the team voted first in the country with an unbeaten season made his comments at the Texas coaching school.

While he has 31 of 35 lettermen back, including All America halfback Billy Cannon, and 24 of his players will be seniors, Dietzel said he would miss the good all-around kicking of Tommy Davis.

"We have three important phases of football—offense, defense and kicking," he declared. "Davis was the best in America last year."

Davis had another season of eligibility but he signed with the professional San Francisco 49ers.

Berra Is Star In American's All-Star Win

By BOB MYERS

Associated Press Sports Writer

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The count stood all square at one apiece for the 1959 All-Star classics between the American and National League today. And back to the formal pennant races went the ballplayers.

Manager Casey Stengel's American Leaguers paced a 5-3 defeat on Fred Haney's Nationals as a paid attendance of 54,982, fourth highest in the game's history, sat through the game in sun-baked Memorial Coliseum Monday.

The victory avenged a 5-4 setback absorbed by the Stengel men in the first All-Star game July 7 at Pittsburgh.

The game grossed $283,120 and netted, after taxes, $262,536.47.

The Pittsburgh game grossed $229,636 and netted $194,503.46.

Individual honors went to catcher Yogi Berra of the Yankees, whose two-run blast off Dodger pitcher Don Drysdale put the Americans in front, 3-1, in the third inning for a lead they never relinquished.

Oddly enough, this was Yogi's 11th All-Star appearance but the first time he had hit for extra bases.

Collective honors went to the American League pitchers who throttled such sluggers as Hank Aaron, Ernie Banks, and Willie Mays.

The winning pitcher was Jerry Walker of Baltimore, 20, who just a year ago was laboring for Knoxville, Tenn. in the Class A Sally League.

Walker, inserted into the squad the afternoon before, yielded but one run and two hits in the three innings he worked.

The loser was strikeout artist Don Drysdale of Los Angeles.

"This was a great day for the Italians," said Yogi, referring to the homerun by Rocky Colavito of Cleveland in the eighth inning and Malone's four bagger.

Sharing pitching honors with Walker were Early Wynn, Hoyt Wilhelm, Billy O'Dell and Cal McLish.

For the Nationals, Dodger Jim Gilliam and Frank Robinson of Cincinnati smacked homeruns.

The contest, which lasted 2 hours and 42 minutes, had its moments.

One came with the introduction of the All-Stars. It was hard to say which, if either, drew the biggest hand—big Ted Williams or Stan Musial.

Of course, such Los Angeles idols as Gilliam, Wally Moon, Drysdale and Charlie Neal drew hearty applause. But Williams, in his 16th All-Star game, and Musial in his record 17th, were the sentimental heroes.

Good Oil Show Reported In Glasscock County Wildcat

Good shows of oil came on a drillstem test at a Glasscock County wildcat. The zone being tested was the Spraberry. At the U. S. Smelting No. 1-41 TXL wildcat about 4 1/2 miles north-west of Garden City, operator tested from 7,339-78 feet and reversed to 350 feet of oil and 350 feet of very heavily oil and gas-cut mud. Thirty feet of free oil was found below the sub. Big Spring Exploration No. 1 Carl, potential wildcat strike in Seminole County, Okla., was preparing to perforate the zone below 2,000 feet today and test. In Hill County, Mont., John Hinch (Big Spring Exploration) No. 1 McFadden took a second drillstem test, this one in the Madison from 3,300-20. Recovery was 160 feet of heavily oil-cut mud and 900 feet of sulphur water. Operator was drilling ahead and may make another test in the Madison.

Airport Hangar Bids On Aug. 27

The Howard County Commissioners Court turned its attention to the budget for the coming year this morning after spending all day Monday in general matters. Among the problems handled Monday was setting a date to open bids on the large hangar at the county airport.

After looking at plans and specifications for the hangar, the commissioners decided to open bids at 2 p.m. on Aug. 27. The architectural firm of Puckett-French designed the building. The large hangar will also provide office space for the fixed base operator, Bill Sandifer, and space for the airlines serving Big Spring. The county is to furnish money for the hangar, but Sandifer's firm will pay for the building over a 15-year period. In other matters Monday afternoon, the commissioners discussed some easements which must be secured before work on the Center Point road can be done. Today, the commissioners began going over the rough drafts of the fiscal budget with the county auditor, Lee Porter. One member of the court, Hudson Landers, was unable to attend. All others, Judge Ed Carpenter, and commissioners P. O. Hughes, L. J. Davidson, and Ralph White were in attendance.

School Officials At Pecos Meeting

School began for the principals of the Big Spring schools Monday. Initial activity was a trip to Pecos to attend the district meeting of the Southern Association. All of the principals in the schools, with one exception, made the trip. E. S. Morgan, new principal of Lakeview School, has not as yet arrived in town but he has assistant Floyd Parsons, superintendent, he would be here Wednesday. At the meeting in Pecos, the principals heard the 1959-60 association requirements and the steps new schools seeking membership in the association will have to take. Big Spring high school and junior high schools are members of the association. Elementary schools in the system are affiliated with the association. Parsons said that steps are being initiated this year to qualify the elementary schools for full membership. Today, the principals were in their respective buildings busy checking inventories, preparing materials and getting ready for an administrative staff meeting which is scheduled for Wednesday. This conference will be in the superintendent's office. Parsons said that a principal is still needed for the new Marcy school and that an assistant principal for the high school is yet to be employed.

Former Residents Here For Reunion

Downtown Toledo Learns New Tricks

By BILL NEWKIRK
 TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — Downtown Toledo, fighting to hold its retail business from the lure of shopping centers in the outskirts, is using some of the tricks of its suburban rivals.

The city began Monday a 45-day trial of four downtown pedestrian malls, complete with grass, trees, flowering shrubs, blooming flowers, benches, and a playground for the kiddies.

And to top what the shopping centers offer, the malls include an elongated pool containing five penguins from the Toledo Zoo and at other spots Saturday from the Toledo Museum of Art.

All this where only four days ago were only asphalt, cement, brick, and the busy bustle of vehicular traffic.

Thousands of Toledoans responded as the malls officially opened, milling through the four-block area, and, as was hoped, dropping in at the stores around it to browse and buy.

Inspector Frank Baumgartner, head of the Police Traffic Bureau, said traffic on the rims of the malls was heavy but kept flowing smoothly.

Michael Yamin, president of LaSalle's Department Store, said the mall idea was "a shot in the arm for downtown Toledo. It looks extremely promising."

Mrs. Paul Rausch of Napoleon, Ohio, here with her husband, said: "We came out out of curiosity, but I like the atmosphere and we'll be back. It's a big improvement."

Carl Clymer of Fremont, Ohio, said the mall was "by far the most sensible thing Toledo has ever done to improve business conditions."

To get space for the malls the city shut off two blocks, each of Adams Street and Madison Avenue between Huron and St. Clair streets. Thirteen bus lines were rerouted.

Over the weekend 150 workmen placed 2,400 feet of asphalt curb to outline curving walkways down the center of the mall blocks. Eighty tons of topsoil was leveled back of the new curbs and topped with 350 square yards of sod.

The workmen set out 110 young trees, more than 100 shrubs, and some 10,000 flowering plants. Toledo nurserymen supplied these at cost.

The background of the malls can be traced back to many plans over many years to brighten up downtown Toledo. But the idea caught on early this year when six teams from the Toledo chapter of the American Institute of Architects began putting down on paper their thoughts on how the downtown section of this city of some 360,000 population could get a face lift.

After the 45-day trial is over the mall proponents will appraise the value of the downtown center. If it has been a success, if the shopping center indicates a continued trend toward downtown stores, city and county officials will begin planning for a permanent and more elaborate mall system.

India Builds First Fresh Milk Factory

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—With foreign help, the Indian government is completing a project to provide the Colombo Plan, Ten dependably pure fresh milk.

Milk is a luxury in India. Those who can afford it usually get milk from emaciated, sickly cows, diluted with impure water.

But to a devout Hindu, milk is nectar. It is one of the prime offerings to a deity. Nothing is said to please a departing soul more than a few spoonfuls of milk.

The government is building a big milk processing plant in the heart of New Delhi's industrial suburb. A system of cattle colonies is being established within a 50-mile radius of the city.

Sacred cows will continue to wander in Delhi's streets, but small, unsanitary private farms will be banned from the city.

Five countries are supplying money, experts, and equipment for the first milk plant of its kind in India. More than half of the funds for the four-million-dollar project came from New Zealand, through the Colombo Plan. Ten experts and machinery have come from Britain, West Germany, Sweden and Denmark.

The plant will turn out 100,000 gallons of milk a day. It will also produce ice cream, butter, and the first powdered milk made in India.

The foreign experts hope to get the plant into production by mid-September. The original completion date was Independence Day, Aug. 15. A water and power shortage caused the delay.

Man-Sized Capsule Unoccupied—Slated For Launching Soon

WASHINGTON (AP) — The first man-carrying type of space capsule is scheduled for launching — unoccupied — next month.

It will be sent up from Cape Canaveral, Fla., by a vehicle called Big Joe, essentially a modified Atlas intercontinental ballistic missile.

The conventional Atlas, 75 feet tall, climbs to altitudes of several hundred miles and delivers its warhead at speeds of more than 15,000 miles an hour over a range of up to 6,300 miles.

Big Joe, by contrast, will rise vertically to about 120 miles, then tilts at right angles and slightly downward.

With its mighty engine still putting out full power, it will thunder down a slanted course through the earth's thickening atmosphere.

The purpose: a maximum test of the ablation or heat erosion of the outer space of the space capsule's nose.

The space capsule atop the Atlas in Big Joe is the same weight — 2,100 to 2,200 pounds — and will have the same instrumentation and pressurized compartment as the man-in-space capsule but will not have the environmental equipment required to keep a man alive.

Concert A Sellout

MEXICO CITY (AP) — The National Symphony Orchestra of Washington presented its first Mexican concert last night at the Palace of Fine Arts before a sell-out audience.

An advertisement in the English-language News announced: "Tickets on sale at J.M. Marroqui 28-405. Phone 12-77-04."

Immediately below this was the line: "Tickets sold out."

Senate Adds Fund To Texas Projects

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate late Monday added almost $90 million dollars to a bill that includes funds for the underground Civil Defense center-shelter at Denton, Tex.

The supplemental appropriations measure was passed earlier by the House. Other Texas projects also are included in the bill.

The big bill, calling for expenditure now of $1,076,186,108 had no opposition in the Senate as it was approved 79-0 on a roll-call vote.

A number of Senators praised the Appropriations Committee from the Senate floor for the recommended increases.

Senate Majority Leader Lyndon B. Johnson has been a strong backer of the measure and appeared before the committee to boost the Denton CD shelter.

The measure contained only $609,843,845 when it passed the House. But it now goes to the Conference Committee with the expectation, Senators said, that House conferees will approve many of the Senate increases.

Senator Johnson has said he hopes that an appropriation of $2,700,000 for the Office of Civil and Defense Mobilization to construct a prototype regional underground shelter-center at Denton is kept in the bill.

President Eisenhower asked Congress for the funds in June, but the House Appropriations Committee would not approve them. Following appeals by Senator Johnson and Rep. Frank Ikard, Wichita Falls, Tex., Democrat, the amount was included in the Senate bill.

The proposed underground headquarters would be used in an emergency to conduct governmental operations. However, it would normally be used by regional Civil Defense officials who now use rented quarters in Denton.

Also approved by the Senate was an $800,000 appropriation for the River Basin Study Commission for Texas. This was about $80,000 more than the budget-conscious House approved.

The joint federal-state RBSC, which received only $170,000 in the regular 1959 appropriations, will make a study of the Trinity, Neches, Colorado, Brazos, Guadalupe, San Antonio, San Jacinto and Nueces River basins.

When the House bill was drawn up, no funds were included for the salt water conversion plant to be erected at Freeport because no site had then been decided upon.

The new Senate bill, however, included $1,500,000 for this project.

Also approved was $450,000 for construction of 30 permanent masonry-type residences for employees of Falcon Dam on the Rio Grande. The House measure included only $125,000 for replacement of about 10 of the present 38 frame houses there.
