Gun Battle Rages In Havana Street

HAVANA (AP)—Gunmen struck in Havana today as Prime Minister Fidel Castro moved out in the field, personally directing a roundup of counterrevolutionaries. Police exchanged shots with anti-Castro gunmen near the Mexican and Peruvian embassies and the directorate building of Castro's 26th of July Movement in central Havana.

Gas Tax Increase Is Recommended

ONE CONCESSION New Housing Bill Gets Speedy Senate Action

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Banking Committee today approved a substitute $1,650,000,000 housing bill with only one major concession to objections the administration had raised against an earlier version. The committee acted promptly to get a new bill to the Senate floor less than 24 hours after failure of a Democratic effort to override President Eisenhower's veto of the original $1,375,000,000 measure sent to him in June.

Revenue To Keep Highways Moving

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Ways and Means Committee today voted a one-cent increase in the federal gasoline tax effective Sept. 1 to keep the super highway program going. The extra levy would remain in effect for 22 months. The committee voted also to divert to the highway fund some of the taxes now collected on automobiles and automobile parts.

Congress And Nikita Offer Thorny Issue

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Eisenhower administration apparently will be happy if Congress goes home before Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev comes to town. That is the definite impression Vice President Richard M. Nixon has obtained from his Capitol Hill associates. Many members of Congress have let it be known they hope Congress, Nixon and other administration leaders apparently believe that if the legislators have returned to their homes, blasts by individual members will be less likely to draw national attention.

Little Rock Quiet; Three Negro Girls Back In School

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — Three Negro girls strolled back into Hall High School for a second day of integration there with only a slight stir from segregationists. Peace had been predicted for today, after Wednesday's violence and parade. The paraders, coming from a rally at the state capitol where Gov. Orval E. Faubus addressed them, shouted "Cowards!" at the policemen. Twenty-three of them were arrested.

Steel Rejects Plan To Reduce Product Price

WASHINGTON (AP)—The steel industry, it was reliably reported today, has rejected a suggestion that it cut steel prices $10 a ton in lieu of granting a wage increase in the current strike situation. The suggestion was made by Rep. Chester A. Bowles (D-Conn.) in a letter to President Eisenhower, who in turn had it referred directly to Chairman Roger Blough of the U.S. Steel Corp.

Warm Welcome For Derbyist Tommy Welch

AKRON, Ohio (SC) — Sirens blowing, the band playing, the crowd clapping its hands, the official greeting and introduction, and a bus upon both cheeks... These are the things that make a teen-age boy swell his chest in pride, and it happened to Tommy Welch Jr., Big Spring's entry in the All-America Soap Box Derby in Akron, Ohio.

Reds Pulling Out Of North Laos Section

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP) — The Laotian government reported today that most of the Communist forces that infiltrated into northern Laos from North Viet Nam have withdrawn across the border. Col. Phoumi Nosavan, secretary of state for defense, told a news conference the Reds left behind about 1,000 men, most of them Black Thai tribesmen or members of the Communist Pathet Lao movement of Laotians which formerly controlled the two northern provinces of Sam Neua and Phong Saly.

Forsan Home Burns Down

The residence of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Turner, Forsan, was completely destroyed early Wednesday by fire. Cause of the blaze is not known and the Gilberts were away from home when it occurred. The Forsan fire truck answered the fire call but arrived too late to extinguish the fire. Apparently the house and contents were a total loss.

Supreme Court Has Not Hurt Security

CHICAGO (AP) — The security of the United States has not been endangered by any Supreme Court decision, says the American Bar Assn. Committee on the Bill of Rights in a report made public Wednesday. The ABA's Committee on Communist Tactics, Strategy and Objectives had referred to the court decisions as "illustrative of how our security has been weakened."

ALL'S WELL THAT ENDS WELL

Emergencies End Happily; Could Have Been Tragedies

Two emergencies — which might easily have gotten the bold headlines — ended happily Wednesday at Webb AFB. First a T-33 jet with jammed nose gear, slid to a safe landing along a 7,000-foot foamy path laid down for it. Within an hour, another jet, motor flamed out, came in perfectly on a dead stick landing.

APME AWARDS

77 Newspapers Cited For Exceptional News Efforts

SEATTLE (AP)—The Associated Press Managing Editors Assn. awarded 77 citations today for outstanding participation in news and newsphoto reports. Seventy-six newspapers, 9 radio stations and 2 TV stations were named in the citations. In some cases, more than one newspaper or station was named in a citation.

Announcement of the awards was made at the annual APME convention begun. The citations were given in recognition of exceptional coverage of a news event by one member in behalf of all AP members. In many instances, members supplied details and photos of a breaking story before they used the information themselves. The citations were signed by Michael J. Ogden of the Providence Journal-Bulletin, APME president, and John D. Paulson of the Fargo Forum, chairman of the Membership Citations Committee.

Those receiving citations were: News coverage — The Arizona (Flagstaff) Daily Sun; the Phoenix Gazette; the San Francisco Chronicle; the San Francisco Examiner; the San Francisco Call-Bulletin; the Boulder (Colo.) Love Nest Of Pair Revealed By Officials

WEST COVINA, Calif. (AP)—Dr. Bernard Finch and Carole Tregoff shared a love nest for months before his wife was slain, Deputy Dist. Atty. Fred Wichello says.

Dr. Finch, 41, and Carole, 22, his former secretary, are charged with murdering Mrs. Barbara Finch, 33, who was shot to death July 18. Carole's preliminary hearing resumes today after a one-day recess.

Wichello said Dr. Finch rented an apartment in nearby Monterey Park 10 months ago and that Carole went there after separating from her husband James Papa. She divorced him last January.

The prosecutor said Mrs. Finch was aware of the apartment before she filed for divorce May 20. Wichello said Dr. Finch rented the apartment under an assumed name and paid the rent through last July.

The four current trustees are Mary Moody Northern, a daughter of the late W. L. Moody Jr., Galveston financier and newspaper publisher who died in 1954; and three of Moody's grandsons, W.L. Moody IV, Shearn Moody Jr., and his brother, Robert Lee Moody.

The foundation's 250 million to 400 million dollar value is said to be exceeded only by the Rockefeller and Ford Foundations.

Agreement To End Deadlock In Moody Trust

HOUSTON (AP)—An agreement on additional trustees has been reached, breaking a deadlock among present trustees of the Moody Foundation, the Houston Post said Wednesday night.

The Post said the agreement is reported to involve appointment of three trustees in addition to the four who have deadlocked activities of the multi-million-dollar Galveston foundation.

The newspaper said three Houston men have been agreed upon and have agreed to serve: J. Sayles Leach, retired board chairman of the Texas Co.; J.M. Lykes Jr., Senior Vice President of the Lykes Bros. Steamship Co., and S. Marcus Greer, Vice Chairman of the Board of the First City National Bank of Houston.

DEAR ABBY

LET HER BE HAPPY

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: What do you do about a great-aunt who thinks the people on TV can see her?

She talks back to them and everything. Also before going in to watch Perry Como or Gary Moore (they're her favorites) she gets herself all fixed up for them.

I am having a terrible time trying to convince her that there is no use talking to those people. Can you help me? I am 12 and my great-aunt must be about 100.

DEAR ROSALIE: If your great-aunt enjoys "talking" to the people on TV, why spoil her fun? Live and let her live a little.

INSPECTION TRIP

Martin County Group Is Headin' For Pea Patch

STANTON (SC)—Some 30 men making the Martin County Chamber of Commerce agricultural tour Tuesday not only headed for the pea patch—they got slap dab in the middle of it.

This pea patch business occurred at a stop on the A. C. Woodward place in the Wolcott community of northwest Martin County. There, in two fields, the visitors saw approximately 500 acres of blackpea peas. Woodward had contracted some of the peas for canner purposes, but he's got a whole lot of dried peas on his hands now. Later, he may combine them.

On the tour, the business men and farmers, led by Jerry Hanson, chairman of the chamber's agricultural committee, swung northeast from Stanton to the Andrews highway, then north to Valley View, north and east to Brown and then to the Flowergrove farm. There they inspected projects of Craig Beckmeyer, who won the state 4-H cotton contest last year. Included were his registered lambs, capons, beef cattle and cotton.

The tour then moved to the Gene Clements place where Clements was cutting and raking alfalfa. Lunch was served by the Martin County Home Demonstration Council members at Flower Grove, and Foremost of Big Spring furnished the ice cream and milk.

After lunch the group looked at crops in the Three League area, then on to Wolcott and the pea patch. They also saw silage being chopped on the Bob Cox place and had a look at operations at the Raymond Pribla farm. They moved south to the Milt Yater and J. M. Yater farm through the heart of the irrigated cotton country. Here they inspected an outstanding pig parlor and farrow houses.

Space Monkey, Miss Baker In Need Of Hubby

By FRANK CAREY
Associated Press Science Writer
PENSACOLA, Fla. (AP) — The Navy is planning to get a husband for Miss Baker, the half-pound monkey which made history as one of the country's first space travelers.

And a brand new home is being built here for the prospective couple—a home that is swank enough for a honeymoon cottage, though not much larger than a couple of telephone booths.

But the Navy's cupid-playing role is largely scientific rather than romantic.

The "marriage" was disclosed today to a reporter checking on the status and future prospects of the tiny, goggle-eyed squirrel monkey that survived a 1,700-mile-long, 360-mile-high, 10,000-mile-an-hour ride through space May 28.

The Navy is interested in a romance for Miss Baker because scientists at the Naval School of Aviation Medicine here want to find out if the monkey's space flight could result in "any abnormalities in reproduction" due to possible radiation exposure.

The room being prepared for Miss Baker and her bridegroom is seven feet wide, five feet deep and seven and one-half feet high. The walls and ceiling are covered with formica; there is a tile floor; and there will be special lighting and air conditioning.

It looks like a young bride's dream.

Sun-Boiled Beans A La Carte

Mrs. Gladys Cook, wife of a Mohave brave, checks her solar stove cooking pot during a visit from University of Wisconsin graduate student Bradley Blake.

Indians Being Told How To Make Use Of Sun Heat

PARKER, Ariz. (AP) — A University of Wisconsin research team is selling the Indians of sun-baked Arizona on the usefulness of sunshine.

"It's not exactly selling," Dr. Milton Barnett says. "We prefer to call it good anthropology."

Dr. Barnett is head of a team which has been instructing Indians on the Colorado River Indian Reservation on the use of solar cookers developed at Wisconsin. The university wants to know if people in areas where only sunlight and poverty are plentiful will use them.

The solar cooker consists of a saucer-shaped reflector and a grill on which a pot, pan or skillet may be placed. The reflector is about four feet in diameter and made of cheap plastic coated with aluminum foil. When the reflector is pointed toward the sun, rays are focused on the grill.

Living on the sun-drenched reservation have been two members of the Wisconsin team, Mr. and Mrs. Bradley Blake. Blake is a graduate student.

"The people here are just too courteous," Blake says. "They all say they like the cookers, whether they use them or not."

The scientists had a hard time distributing the stoves at first. The neat, shiny reflectors looked like commercial merchandise to the four tribes of the reservation, who are never far from poverty.

"We had to sell them on the idea of taking something for nothing," Dr. Barnett said. Once the Indians accepted the idea, they became almost too eager to help.

Thirty-seven families accepted cookers, and all of the owners said they used them constantly. A little applied research and the scientists discovered perhaps half the families were actually using them.

Other solar cookers have been distributed to various parts of the world, but Barnett says the Wisconsin project is the first attempt at gauging the device's efficiency and acceptability in daily food preparation.

The findings? Indians have no trouble understanding, or using, the cookers.

Possible defects? Size, Dr. Barnett says. Present cookers will heat only one pot at a time. New ones being developed will hold two pots.

One complaint, though, he could not answer. "It's too hot," a Mohave housewife said. "How do you cool it off?"

Legion Holds Last Meeting Of Term, Banquet-Dance Set

The last regular business meeting for the fiscal year will be held at 8 p.m. today by Post No. 355 of the American Legion at its building on the San Angelo highway. New officers for the both the Post and Auxiliary are to be installed at a banquet-dance Saturday night.

Attendance at today's meeting by officers and committee chairman is urged by retiring commander, H. J. Morrison. Final reports on the year's activities are to be heard.

The post and auxiliary will begin the new fiscal year after officers are installed Saturday night. The program will include a banquet with dancing to music of Ross Roberts orchestra, to be held in the Settles Hotel ballroom beginning at 7:30 p.m. Admission for members of the Legion, Auxiliary and guests will buy tickets at $2 per person.

Artist Devotes Her Talent To Aiding Those Mentally Ill

TERRELL (AP)—Blank walls of Terrell State Hospital have been changed to something to behold for the 2,700 mental patients.

And all the credit goes to Mrs. Magie P. Becker, a professional artist, who lives at Richardson, Dallas County.

The hospital thinks so well of murals the 71-year-old artist has painted on the walls that it named a day in her honor—the first such event in the hospital's 75-year history.

The 5-foot, 100-pound artist has transformed the dreary walls inside many of the hospital's old wards into a riot of color with spectacular murals she designed and painted herself.

She did the entire job, which took three years, voluntarily. "My contribution to the hospital," was the way she put it.

At present commercial rates, the 3,500 square feet she painted would have cost the hospital $5,000.

"These paintings have been the springboard for a whole new series of improvements at the hospital," Dr. Manuel J. Otero, clinical director said.

Dr. Otero, who originated the idea, said "many good things have seemed to come about because of them."

For instance: In the dining room of a men's ward, where some of the hospital's sickest patients live, Mrs. Becker painted a peaceful country scene complete with a house, barn, trees, flowers and reflecting pool.

Men who eat there no longer throw food at the walls, attendants say. They seem more relaxed and eat better. Authorities have been able to put knives and forks back on the tables. There's even talk of unlocking the doors of the ward for the first time.

In another ward where Mrs. Becker painted murals, attendants say they have observed a "definite change for the better" in patients. They are less depressed and more receptive.

Mrs. Becker painted beautiful tropical murals in the hospital's drab old canteen. Immediately, patients changed the name of the place to the Tropicana Room, and it soon became the favorite place on the sprawling hospital campus.

Hospital officials found money to purchase new tables, chairs and curtains. The Dallas Mental Health Assn. bought bamboo blinds to go with the murals in another ward.

Some patients who hadn't talked for years have commented on the murals.

STAYS 3 MONTHS

Worried Man Wanders Into Wood To Ponder Problems

PONTIAC, Mich. (AP) — Bernard J. Blechars, divorced and saying he was behind in his alimony payments, was troubled and fearful that police were looking for him. He went into the woods to think.

Miss Universe Had Bust 'Shot' Before Contest

TOKYO (AP)—A Tokyo plastic surgeon said today he gave a bust-enlarging plastic injection to Akiko Kojima before she won the Miss Japan and Miss Universe contests.

32-year-old Detroit shipping clerk's clothes were in rags. His hair and beard were matted with dirt. He weighed 80 pounds. He was a husky 175 when he began his self-imposed exile from society May 9.

"I'm divorced," Blechars mumbled to incredulous officers. "I was behind in my alimony. I thought the police must be looking for me. I found this place. It looked like a pretty good place to me."

For three months, Blechars said, he ate apples and berries, drank water with his hands from a muddy creek and covered himself at night with a piece of plywood.

"I didn't do anything," he said. "I just thought."

He gave no reason for leaving the woods. Police said they had no warrant for his arrest.

The place in which he lived is a swampy, secluded spot within shouting distance of several houses belonging to the wealthy who live in the suburb.

Blechars' ex-wife, Nancy, 24, reported him missing the day he said he entered the woods. He had quit his job as a shipping clerk at a Detroit manufacturing firm about a week before, she said.

"Miss Kojima is just one of many such Japanese beauties who received plastic surgeon's treatments. A number of famous Japanese actresses also received similar operations," Dr. Toshizo Matsui said in an interview.

He confirmed a Tokyo newspaper report that Miss Kojima, a Tokyo fashion model, had liquid plastic injected into her bosom at Matsui's hospital.

A spokesman for the newspaper Sankei Shimbun, sponsor of the Miss Japan contest, said the report is unfounded. "We have seen her for the past four years, and there was no need for her to get bust surgery of any kind," he said.

The doctor said the 24-year-old beauty came to his clinic a short time before the Miss Japan contest in June. He said he didn't measure her bust, but when she won the Universe title in Long Beach, Calif., last month her statistics were 37-23-38.

Miss Kojima is due here Friday. The newspaper Sports Nippon reported: "The operation is simple but painful. A coffee cupful of liquid plastic is injected into the bosom. In order not to injure the bosom, the injection is done by one shot. The operation takes only one hour with local anesthetics. When the anesthetic wears off, the part aches."

A spokesman for the American Medical Assn. said bust-enlarging injections and operations are not common in the United States.

He said doctors generally have frowned upon insertion of liquid plastic, wax or any foreign matter into the body. They regard such substances as a possible cause of breast cancer.

The spokesman reported that a few plastic surgeons in the United States have increased bust size through operations in which a solid, spongy piece of plastic is inserted beneath the breast.

But Miss Kojima's mother today angrily denied the report.

"It's a lie. I have never taken her to such a place," Mrs. Hisako Kojima said.

Matsui was not available for immediate comment on Mrs. Kojima's denial.

21 Billion Slash In Vet Pension Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Finance Committee has slashed the 40-year estimated cost of a House-passed veterans pension bill by 21 billion dollars, it was learned today.

The effect of the cut, voted by the committee in closed session Monday, would be to make the bill save $10,974,000,000 of the 105 billion dollars which under present law will be paid in pensions between now and the year 2000. As it passed the House, it would have cost $10,128,000,000 more than the law now provides.

The cut, estimated by the Veterans Administration and confirmed by several senators, is far deeper than newsmen were given to understand Monday after the committee voted.

The bill is to be called up on the Senate floor today.

Veterans organizations are urging senators to reject the Finance Committee amendments.

Senators Robert S. Kerr (D Okla.), Albert Gore (D-Tenn.) and Eugene McCarthy (D-Minn.) filed minority views protesting the committee's action. Kerr promised a floor fight.

The bill concerns pensions for veterans with non-service-connected disabilities and their dependents.

The administration proposed, and the House accepted, a new sliding scale for pensions based on need, affording a 40-year saving of 12 billion dollars.

The House, however, voted to make widows of World War II and Korean War veterans eligible, at a cost of 22 billion. At present only World War I widows enjoy this benefit.

New Housing Bill Drafted By Committee

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate Banking Committee starts work today on a new compromise housing bill. Both Democrats and Republicans predict quick agreement.

Some members said the Senate vote Wednesday sustaining President Eisenhower's veto of the $1,375,000,000 housing bill sent him in June had cleared the air and paved the way for fast action on a substitute.

Sen. John Sparkman (D-Ala.) told a reporter the full committee would base its new proposal on a trimmed-down $1,050,000,000 compromise bill written last week by the subcommittee he heads.

Sen. Homer E. Capehart (R-Ind.), senior Republican on the subcommittee, predicted that Eisenhower would sign this new bill if only minor changes were made in it.

The Senate voted 53-40 to override the veto, nine votes short of the two-thirds needed.

One Dead In Truck Accident

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A beer-laden truck and trailer hurtled from a ramp onto the crowded San Bernardino Freeway Wednesday night.

It landed upside down between cars moving in rush hour traffic. The truck driver, Michael Steck, 42, was killed.

Flying beer cases injured three occupants of other cars. Traffic was blocked for an hour.

80 YEARS FORGOTTEN

Big Hunk Of Marble Is Problem To High Brass

WASHINGTON (AP) — What they found in the Washington Monument is embarrassing to both the housekeeping and historical branches of the government.

It's a 200-pound block of marble. As big as a suitcase, it has lain unnoticed in a corner of a stair well for something like 80 years.

Workers found it when they installed a new elevator several months ago.

The big stone is apparently one of 189 sent from different states, countries and societies when the monument was being built during the last century—the job took 36 years, being finished in 1884.

This one is inscribed "Carthage," and sure enough, one of the gift stones was from the ruins of ancient Carthage—donated by an individual. Only trouble is it was supposed to have been built into the monument with the other 188, and guide books list it there.

Why it wasn't is something Edmund J. Fitzgerald, superintendent and historian of the monument can only guess. He thinks it probably just got lost during the two decades between 1860 and 1880 when no work was done on the monument.

What's he going to do with it now? He doesn't have the answer to that, either.

girl, were divorced in July, 1958. Physicians said Blechars, a Marine who served in the Pacific in World War II, was suffering from malnutrition and loss of weight but otherwise showed no ill effects from his experience.

Schools Urged To Lay Stress Science Studies

SEATTLE, Wash. (AP) — A journalism school director advised editors today to step up their competition with engineering, science and medicine for the brightest young minds.

There's an acute shortage of qualified people in newspaper editorial jobs, George J. Kienzle, head of the School of Journalism at Ohio State University reported at the convention of the Associated Press Managing Editors Assn.

"The rising star of science stole the glamor show from journalism, the traditional idol of so many of our young people," Kienzle's report said.

He urged editors to sell the profession "to the community and to the college and high school students who will be the reporters and editors of tomorrow."

Kienzle's report was part of a manpower study by the APME committee headed by I. William Hill, of the Washington, (D.C.) Star.

In another discussion, a baseball executive and an editor agreed the public is getting better sports reporting than ever before.

But the baseball man, George R. (Birdie) Tebbets of the Milwaukee Braves, suggested newspapers sometimes go too far in publishing details of athletes' private lives.

Youngsters who revere athletes may get an erroneous impression, Tebbets said, if they read that their heroes have human failings.

Jack Murphy, sports editor of the San Diego, (Calif.) Union, agreed with Tebbets on the quality of sports reporting for the public.

Their comments were prepared for an APME committee headed by William B. Dickinson of the Philadelphia Bulletin.

Success in cooperative news exchange projects by members of The Associated Press was reported by a committee headed by Richard Young of the Charlotte, (N.C.) News.

John Paulson of the Fargo, (N.D.) Forum cited AP members recognized by the managing editors' group for outstanding news coverage during the year.

Paulson said awards were made to 77 newspapers, radio stations and television stations.

Santiago Meeting Raps Castro Acts

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP)—Seven Latin American governments made plain Wednesday night that they oppose interference by Fidel Castro and his Cuban revolutionaries in the affairs of other Caribbean nations.

U.S. Secretary of State Christian A. Herter was expected to join the lineup today with a speech telling the inter-American foreign ministers conference that the United States is worried over the erosion in recent months of the principle of nonintervention in the Americas.

Mexico's Manuel Tello was applauded when he warned the ministers to be "extraordinarily cautious" about changing the principle of nonintervention.

Tello emphasized that Mexico is a traditional supporter of nonintervention and he stressed the importance of the countries in the Western Hemisphere maintaining the principle strictly as well as giving it lip service.

Brazil, Colombia, the Dominican Republic, El Salvador, Guatemala and Costa Rica also spoke strongly in favor of continued adherence to the principle of nonintervention.

None of the speakers mentioned Castro or Cuba specifically. But the Cuban revolutionary, and to a lesser extent Venezuelan President Romulo Betancourt, have been generally accused with being chiefly responsible for the wave of unrest in the Caribbean.

Cuban Foreign Minister Raul Roa sat in silence. He will speak later.

Charges by the Dominican Republic that Cuba is the training ground for revolutionaries bent on foreign invasions led to the calling of the conference to discuss the crisis in the Caribbean.

Cuban Prime Minister Fidel Castro has given open moral support to revolutionists opposing dictatorial regimes. He has declared publicly he would not allow them to use Cuba as a springboard for invasions, but invasion forces have taken off from Cuba in unsuccessful attempts to overthrow Dominican dictator Rafael Trujillo and President Ernesto de la Guardia Jr. of Panama.

The Panama government declared in a communique early today that it had been tipped another invasion plot against it is being hatched in Cuba.

Cuban Education Minister Armando Hart said in Havana there is a possibility that Castro, busy quashing a counterrevolutionary revolt at home, may fly to Santiago to address the foreign ministers conference.

The Cuban Prime Minister contends that the root of Latin-American unrest is economic. He has called for a 30-billion-dollar development program financed by international agencies.

The Cuban plan to divert the foreign ministers conference discussions from politics to economics already has run into opposition.

Brazilian Foreign Minister Horacio Lafer said at Wednesday night's session the present conference is not the place for a discussion of economic matters. But Mexico's Tello declared that the relationship of economic underdevelopment with political instability was self-evident.

RECORD AMAZING

New Commander Of Marines Got To The Top By Merit

WASHINGTON (AP) — Maj. Gen. David Monroe Shoup, selected to be the new commandant of the U.S. Marine Corps, is a tough Marine of few words. He didn't talk his way to the top.

A quick look at the record tells how he got there.

The citation which went with the Medal of Honor he won in World War II makes it clear he's a Marine's Marine. It reads in part: "He was shocked by an exploding shell, suffered from a painful leg wound and was exposed to terrific fire... but rallied his hesitant troops and led them across the reefs to reinforce hard-pressed, thinly held U. S. lines."

"Once ashore... took command of all troops, worked without rest under fire for two days... conducted smashing successful attacks against strong and fanatically defended Japanese positions."

Shoup, now 54, won the Medal of Honor as a colonel while commanding the 2nd Regiment of the 2nd Marine Division against the Japanese at Betio Island in 1943. This was perhaps the most bitterly contested island at Tarawa Atoll in the Gilberts.

Shoup's reputation in the Corps as a man of few words keyed his first meeting with reporters after Wednesday's announcement that on Jan. 1 he would succeed Gen. Randolph McPate, who is retiring at the end of this year.

Reporters, noting that he wears glasses, asked whether he was near or far sighted. He answered: "Both."

Asked about his favorite hobby, he gave reporters another one-word reply: "Shooting."

Shooting at what? The general didn't say.

But when pressed for more information about this interest, Shoup said that when he heard recently that a Marine marksmanship team had won a championship, he felt so "exhilarated that I went out and fired 30 rounds in the air."

Beyond that, his recreational interests run to chess, checkers, billiards, poker and golf. That's the order in which he named them.

He is known in the Corps as an officer who can be tough on efficiency, and who doesn't waste words any more than he would permit the Marines to waste money while he was fiscal director and inspector general of the Corps.

The son of a farmer, Shoup was born Dec. 30, 1904, in Indiana. His home town is aptly named Battle Ground. He entered military service in 1926 after graduation from DePauw University in his home state.

Shoup has served with the Marines in many parts of the world and was one of the first Marines to go overseas in World War II. He has commanded the 1st and 3rd Marine divisions. Three months ago he was named commanding general of the recruit depot at Parris Island, S.C.

HITCH-HIKER JIM
... Free Ride Stealing Crow

This Crow Doesn't Fly When He Can Ride Free

HASTINGS, Mich. (AP) — One pet on the Lorence Hubbell dairy farm isn't convinced that distances are shorter as the crow flies.

Jim, a 2-year-old crow, gets a great kick out of riding in a car, on a tractor or on the shoulders of anyone in the Hubbell family.

Recently he feigned injury along a side road and was picked up by neighbors who drove him to their home but could find nothing wrong with the wily bird. They learned he was the Hubbell pet and returned him.

"He was mighty glad to be back," says Mrs. Hubbell. "He sat on a fence and just hollered." She was surprised at his wandering away. "For one thing, his wings are clipped and, for another, he's skeptical of strangers," she says.

Jim was raised from a fledgling and is on friendly terms with two dogs and two cats who round out the pet menagerie on the 630-acre Hubbell farm.

He succeeds the original Jim Roscoe, who started the Hubbell family on its hobby of making pets of crows. "Roscoe just disappeared one day," Mrs. Hubbell says. "I don't think he cared much for civilization."

Leg Of Lamb Good Buy At U.S. Food Markets

By The Associated Press

An increase in the marketing of lamb brings lower prices for leg of lamb in many communities this weekend. Several chain stores were featuring the item as among best buys.

Other meats offered as specials in various sections are sirloin steak, ham, bacon and lamb shoulders. Rock Cornish game hens are favored in some localities, as are fresh swordfish and medium grade shrimp.

Not only domestic ham, but also the imported variety is offered at special prices.

A bumper crop of fruits in California has pushed down prices for both fresh and canned fruits. Supermarkets are expected to launch a flurry of bargain promotions soon.

Cantaloupes from California have forced down the price in the East. There also is a fairly good supply of honeydew melons. Peaches can be found in all price ranges. Blueberries, limes and summer apples continue among best buys.

There were a goodly number of buys in fresh vegetables. Among them were cabbage, squash, corn, eggplant, snap beans, lettuce, green onions, potatoes, peppers and tomatoes.

Price trends were mixed in various parts of the country. Thus, eggs were lowered as much as 6 1/2 cents a dozen by one chain in the Southeast while being raised 4 cents a dozen in the Midwest.

Butter prices tilted a bit higher. Chickens were among special sales items in several sections.

Negroes File School Appeal

DALLAS (AP) — Dallas Negroes Wednesday appealed to the U. S. Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals for help in desegregating Dallas public schools.

A notice filed and signed by Atty. W. J. Durham declared that Federal Dist. Judge T. Whitfield Davidson on Aug. 4 gave a "final judgment" on their request for immediate desegregation.

Judge Davidson has denied that he has rendered a final decision in the case. He said he has just delayed his decision until a later date.

In the order signed several days after the hearing, Judge Davidson denied the request for immediate desegregation.

He added he was retaining jurisdiction of the case until a date closer to the fall of 1960 to give him a better chance to see what the outlook for desegregation might be at that time.

Judge Davidson also warned the school board that school desegregation here is inevitable and that they should prepare for it. He also suggested that the school board take steps to initiate a school desegregation election required under state law.

Carroll Berres, 43, convicted of murder 20 years ago, spends all his free evenings transcribing books into braille. He is sighted.

There are a number of women certified as brailists in Iowa, but Berres is the lone man. He was introduced to the braille system last year by Mrs. Alvin Kirchner, head of the Braille Transcribing Division of the Iowa Commission for the Blind.

Berres finished a normal 14-week Braille training course in just eight weeks, then produced a 50-page manuscript which was submitted to the Library of Congress, and on which work certificate is based.

Berres works seven days a week in the prison pharmacy and gives up all his recreation periods to work as a clerk in the inmate canteen.

Each week he attends an advanced mutual-improvement class, a group-therapy class, a social-improvement class, and teaches an elementary class in mutual improvement.

On free evenings, he works at his Braille transcription, when not teaching other inmates how to transcribe books into braille.

James T. Lake Is In Foul Business

HOUSTON (U)—Foul business is James T. Lake's business. Lake, a lone sentinel on the roof of Busch Stadium here, keeps an eye out for vagrant baseballs. He spots where they land outside the park and calls down to ball boys who retrieve them. Lake has served as ball spotter for the Houston Buffs for six years. He handles the parttime job at nights and during day games on weekends. "An average of maybe eight or 10 balls go over the stands each game," he told Martin Dreyer of the Houston Chronicle. "We get most of 'em back." The Port Terminal Railroad clerk sits on the roof outside the press box with a clear view of the diamond. He stations three ball boys outside the park behind the first and third base and home plate stands. One of the boys is his 12-year-old son, Bobbie, who goes scooting when Lake points to the landing place of a wayward foul ball. Another son, James Lester, 17, is the Buffs clubhouse boy. And Mrs. Lake and their daughter, Linda, 6, are apt to be found in the stands. Lake usually gets out to the game two or three hours early and sees to the recovery of balls cracked over the fence during batting practice. Several dozen old balls are used in the pre-game drills and 36 new ones for the game. Lake's job includes retrieving balls that land on the roof and his antics sometimes alarm sports writers watching him lean precariously over the edge. The 41-year-old former amateur ballplayer has to do some fancy ducking to avoid the speedy missiles. "I've been hit on the leg and almost hit another 100 times," he says. He catches many of the blows to the "sign him up" cries of fans. Who's the foulingest of them all? That's easy, Lake says. It's former Buff Ken Boyer, now a St. Louis Cardinal Star.

Don't Laugh At Lizzie, The Old Girl's Spitting Again

LUFKIN, Tex., Aug. 13 (U)—Lizzie, a 1941 model fire truck, has reclaimed her place in the sun with the Lufkin Fire Department.

Six months ago she stood rusting beside the Central Fire Station, a cranky, aging relic of the days when this city's firefighters first used mechanical wagons.

But city officials decided Lizzie was overdue for renovation, said Bob Bowman, writing for the Houston Chronicle. Firemen worked on her during their spare time.

Recently she spouted up city streets before a parade making her latter day debut to townspeople.

"She's not as pretty as some of the newer models of fire trucks, but we just don't make fun of her. She's a proud lady," Fire Chief D. C. McPherson said.

Lizzie sports a fresh coat of bright red make-up, new tires and a glittering coat of polish.

"Main trouble in fixing her up was the tires," McPherson said.

"After searching around we finally had to order them special from a firm in Houston."

The chief says Lizzie does 20 miles an hour easy and probably could hit 45 with a little strain.

But the old girl won't be seeing any fire fighting. She'll serve mostly as honor guard for Lufkin's other fire trucks, heading parades and appearing at city activities.

Potent Gun For Lawmen

BEAUMONT, Tex. (AP)—A Beaumont man has developed for law enforcement officers an electric machine gun whose armor-piercing bullets can blast an automobile engine at 200 yards.

C. A. Stockholm, 55, Beaumont inventor who has been experimenting with special guns for law enforcement officers most of his life, says the gun fired from a car 110 miles per hour can put all of its bullets into a rectangular target 8 by 14 inches.

The weapon is a 21-round gun, built around a modified 12-inch barrel revolved using .357 magnum cartridges.

A demonstration of the gun for law enforcement officers will be held Tuesday at the de-activated airstrip at Hondo Air Force Base, 45 miles west of San Antonio.

Biggest City If It Was To Say So

HONOLULU (U)—Honolulu could claim to be the biggest city in the world — with city limits more than 1,600 miles from downtown.

The official city boundary covers an expanse of 540,000 square miles, most of which is Pacific Ocean.

Technically, the boundary extends to Midway Island, 1,149 miles to the west, and to Palmyra Island, 960 miles southwest.

Stepping Out

TUCSON, Ariz. (U)— Police can't figure how four men who walked out of the Oshrin Hospital in Tucson made such a clean getaway. They were dressed in bathrobes and cowboy hats.

Franks, who has received a $25,000 grant to study alcoholism in the United States, feels the situation is least likely to occur in introverts — quiet people who prefer to remain by themselves to read or listen to music.

Attacks On Lyndon Have Boomeranged

WASHINGTON (U)—A West Texas attorney, here for a congressional hearing, says the attacks on Sen. Lyndon Johnson by Sen. William E. Proxmire (D-Wis.) and Democratic National chairman Paul Butler have boomeranged.

"That's certainly been the result out in my part of the state," Lloyd Croslin of Lubbock, a former district attorney, said.

"Their attacks have widened the middle-of-the-road group which has long backed Lyndon."

Croslin, a secretary to Rep. George Mahon (D-Tex.) from 1935 to 1940 while studying law, testified before a House Interior subcommittee against a bill that would destroy retroactively, priority rights on certain oil and gas leases in the public domain.

Singing star of a local summer stock theater's production of "Show Boat" is a Texas actress, Marijane Maricle of Schulenburg.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Maricle, she visited Capitol Hill and escorted by Rep. Clark Thompson of Galveston, went to present the "Dean of Congress" with a small oak gavel. It was carved by her father.

Congressional secretaries got a salute from Rep. Jim Wright of Fort Worth, who wrote in his weekly newspaper to constituents:

"Most Congressmen will admit that a very considerable portion of whatever success they may attain in Congress is attributable to the skill and dedication of the people who work for them in their offices."

"Franklin D. Roosevelt on one occasion referred to his staff aids as 'those nameless persons with a passion for anonymity.'"

He noted that a survey showed the average congressional administrative assistant to be approximately 40 years old, the holder of more than one college degree, married and a parent. Ten per cent are Phi Beta Kappas, 30 per cent have doctorates and less than 1 per cent are even remotely related to the boss, the survey disclosed.

Blood Volunteers Rally To Aid Of Young Abilene Girl

DALLAS (AP)—A squadron of private planes landed today on a unique mercy mission.

The 7 airplanes flew here from Abilene with 23 passengers who had volunteered to give blood to an Abilene child scheduled for delicate heart surgery at Parkland Hospital.

Donna Rae Davis, 8, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rachel Davis, was scheduled for surgery to correct a defect in her heart.

The operation is of the type which requires a large amount of blood given by donors on the same day as the surgery.

About two weeks ago the Abilene Reporter-News published an appeal for volunteers with O-positive type blood to fly to Dallas.

Doctors say a large number of people have O-type blood but only about 15 per cent of them have O-negative.

When the Abilene newspaper published a second appeal more than two dozen persons with the required blood type volunteered to fly to Dallas.

In the operation the large blood vessels leading to the patient's heart are severed and connected to the machine. The device takes over all duties of the patient's heart during the surgery.

Wife Of Well Known Lamesa Man Killed In Car Accident

LAMESA — Arrangements are pending here for Mrs. Sam Logan Stevens, 36, victim of a traffic mishap five miles west of Sweetwater about noon Wednesday.

Mr. Stevens, 73, operator of the Sam Stevens Welding Company which holds substantial government contracts for manufacture of street sweepers, was in a critical condition at the Simmons Memorial Hospital in Sweetwater.

They were en route to Rising Star where Mr. Stevens was to look after a farm he has there. Somehow their car collided with a truck whose driver had parked it off the road to go across the highway to a cafe.

Mrs. Stevens' body was returned to the Higginbotham Funeral Home here. Services will be held in Lamesa but burial will be in Midland, her home until she came here in 1943. She was born in Seogoville and was a member of the Baptist Church.

Surviving are two sons, Raymond Lee Porter and William Gene Porter, both of Lamesa; five of Mr. Stevens' children including

Sam Stevens Jr., Lamesa, Lloyd Stevens, Stanton, Floyd Stevens, Panhandle, Mrs. Alvin Morrison, Longcamp, and Mrs. Billy Henderson, Mineral Wells. She also leaves her father, D. L.

Self-Admitted Arsonist To Escape Murder Charge

ELMIRA, N.Y. (AP)—A murder indictment against Jane Ann Shusko, 15, has been dropped and she has been transferred to Children's Court.

Her brother and six of her sisters died July 11 in a fire that police said she admitted setting in her house.

Justice Floyd E. Anderson dismissed the seven-count indictment Wednesday. The grand jury recommended this because of Jane Ann's age and "circumstances surrounding the case." The jury did not elaborate on the circumstances.

Flames were visible for 10 miles Wednesday night as the old Hollywood Club, former throne room for the late Sam Maceo's gambling empire, burned to a blackened hulk.

In the palmy days of the 20s and 30s, the club presented a parade of top entertainers, but of late its bright lights had been darkened by court order. Federal officers obtained a court order padlocking the place for 99 years because of illegal liquor sales and gambling. The present owner is listed as Gulf Properties, headed by Sam Serio, an old Maceo lieutenant.

Business' Biggest Problem People; Not Technicalities

The biggest problem in business is not technicalities but people. And the biggest problem in personnel is in developing leadership. Buz Buttons, Midland, told the Downtown Lions Club Wednesday.

Careers can be changed or even revolutionized by a change in attitude, he said. Frequently individuals suffer from such a lack of confidence that they are surrounded by a negative outlook on everything they attempt. A calculated positive approach can whip this problem.

An improved memory also can be a great asset, and Buttons contended that there weren't such things as good memories and bad memories but rather trained and untrained memories.

Still another ingredient to success in a business or other careers was enthusiasm, he said. This could be projected to yet another area of human relations, including the capability to express sincere appreciation.

Even in firms concerned with manufacture and use of the latest in business machines and automation, periodic ratings of employees were based only 25 per cent upon technical knowledge and 75 per cent on ability to get along in the job and with other people, he declared.

Sound Barrier Blasts Arouse Sleeping Town

RANDOLPH, Mass. (AP)—The predawn stillness of Randolph was shattered today by three explosion-like sounds and a fire alarm.

Hundreds of persons gathered in the business district where fire-fighting equipment pulled up.

But everything was in order. Later, police explained that a patrolman heard the three explosion sounds and at the same time saw what appeared to be smoke coming from one of the stores. He pulled the fire alarm.

The explosions, however, were probably jet planes breaking the sound barrier and what appeared to be smoke was fumes from the store's air-conditioning equipment.

Ike's Remarks Stir Up Mess Of Confusion

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP)—President Eisenhower, speaking of what he would like Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev to see on his coming visit, inadvertently provoked a small uproar Wednesday in Denison, Tex.

Denison is Eisenhower's birthplace, but when he was still an infant the Eisenhower family moved to Abilene, Kan., where he spent his childhood and young manhood.

The President told his news conference he would like Khrushchev to see "the little town where I was born." Later, acting press secretary Wayne Hawkes said the President meant Abilene rather than Denison. Hawkes told newsmen to change the phrase to "the little town where I was reared" in the transcript of the news conference.

Before the clarification was issued, the mayor of Denison called a special meeting of the city council. The chamber of commerce also called a hurried meeting to work out plans for a visit from the Russian boss.

The contest of the President's remark, as given in the transcript, seems to bear out that he was thinking of Abilene. He said of Khrushchev's forthcoming visit: "I would like to see him, for example — I would like to see him go in the little town where I was born (later changed to reared) and pick up the evidence of course there are some still alive when I was there, you know — and let them tell him the story of how hard I worked until I was 21, when I went to West Point, because he said in one of his conversations to Mr. Nixon 'What do you know about work? You never worked.' Well, I can show him the evidence that I did. And I would like him to see it."

It still isn't known whether Khrushchev will visit Abilene. But he appears less likely to visit Denison.

Knitting Champ

When it comes to knitting, mothers and grandmothers have nothing on this lad. He's Dennis Weller, a seven-year-old second-grader from Roseville, California. Dennis surprised one and all — except his grandmother, Mrs. L. W. Payne — when he walked off with a blue ribbon and a third place white ribbon for his knitting at the Placer County Fair. Dennis took up knitting last winter and his grandmother entered his handiwork. (AP Wirephoto).

Red-Backed Regime Wins Sicily Vote

PALERMO, Sicily (AP)—The Sicilian Legislature voted a Communist-supported government into office Wednesday but none of the Cabinet posts went to Communists or left-wing Socialists.

After four rounds of voting, the Regional Assembly picked eight ministers for the government of Regional President Silvio Milazzo. They included three members of Milazzo's Christian Social Union, two Monarchists, a Fascist, a dissident Christian Democrat and a Democratic Socialist.

The outcome of the voting was new evidence of Milazzo's dominance of Sicilian politics. All but the Democratic Socialist were his choices.

Milazzo is a former Christian Democrat who quit the party saying its leaders in Rome were not doing enough for the Mediterranean island. Milazzo won re-election as regional president last month with the backing of the Communists, left-wing Socialists, and dissident Monarchists, Fascists and Christian Democrats.

The Assembly met July 31 to elect eight ministers but only one got the necessary majority for election. Communist and left-wing Socialists had so few votes that they were eliminated from today's ballots. But they supported the president's candidates all the way.

Mamie's Mother Ill In Denver

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP)—Mrs. Mamie Eisenhower has gone to Denver because of the illness of her mother, Mrs. John S. Doud.

The White House disclosed today that Mrs. Eisenhower left Washington by train Tuesday night.

Acting press secretary Wayne Hawkes said Mrs. Doud's health has been bad for some time.

Hawkes, however, did not agree with a newsman's suggestion that the First Lady's departure was sudden. He said he knew of her decision the day before Mrs. Eisenhower left.

C. E. Taylor Rests After Heart Attack

WESTBROOK — C. E. Taylor is under treatment in a Big Spring hospital following a heart attack here last weekend. Currently, he is making satisfactory progress although he is still seriously ill.

His sons and their families, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Taylor, Pensacola, Fla., and Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Taylor and children, Houston, and Mrs. C. E. Taylor have been at the bedside.

SUMMER ACTIVITY

Teacher Pursues Career As Clown

LOS ANGELES (AP)—School-teacher Tom Kelly thinks a teacher should do something really different in the summer. So he's doing it—as a circus clown.

Kelly, 28, has been teaching the fifth grade at Lowville Academy in Lowville, N.R., for six years.

In the summer he hits the road with Cristiani Bros. Circus, which opens here Aug. 20.

It was in 1956 that he got the idea that a circus ring would be a good contrast to a classroom.

"I had always been interested in the theater," he says. "I had done some work in the East, always in character parts."

He wrote of his ambition to Ernesto Cristiani at Sarasota, Fla., and was invited to join up. "It is fascinating," he says. "We move almost every day. We don't play in a building but under the big top. We live in house trailers and eat in the cookhouse."

Kelly works with an Italian clown, John Bogohi, a veteran of 40 years.

"He's the hobo," Kelly said. "I'm the neat clown. I'm all in white with white makeup. It's an old European style."

Tom's no relation to the famous clown Emmett Kelly.

"I don't even come from a theatrical or circus family," he says. "You might say I came in over the side wall."

Tom says he's found a lot of satisfaction in amusing people.

"In this day and age there just doesn't seem to be enough laughter," he says.

But even under the big top he can't get away from teaching entirely. Each morning he holds class for the circus people's children.

Pork Is Good Buy This Week On Texas Markets

By The Associated Press

A big increase in hog slaughtering makes all pork cuts readily available and economically priced in most Texas markets this week-end, the Agricultural Marketing Service said Thursday.

It reported the number of hogs slaughtered for market last week was 20 per cent greater than in the same week of 1958.

Other high-protein foods on the federal agency's abundant list are eggs, small turkeys and broiler and frier chickens.

Fruits and vegetables in good supply and at prices attractive to Texas shoppers are green cabbage, bulk carrots, eggplant, grapes, nectarines, peaches, plums, red potatoes and watermelons.

Bartlett pears from California and rutabagas from Canada are slightly cheaper than a week ago. Prices increased slightly on wine-sap apples, avocados, cauliflower, celery, grapefruit, popular-size oranges, lettuce and white and yellow onions.

Increased shipments on beans, peppers and cucumbers are coming from North Carolina, corn from the Midwest states and potatoes from various western producing areas.

Boy In Dryer Gets Idea Of Real Warmth

LEBANON, Ohio (AP)—It was hot out in the sun but 6-year-old Philip Flannigan found a hotter place.

While his parents worked in their garden, he climbed into an automatic clothes dryer, the type which starts when the door is closed.

Philip closed the door. A short time later, an older brother heard him bumping around in the machine and pulled him out.

Except for being pretty hot and shaken up a bit, Philip wasn't hurt.

Cars Get Blame For More Mishaps

PROVIDENCE, R.I. (AP)—A traffic safety expert says automatic cars are making it possible for more accidents to happen.

Allen E. Hawkes, state supervisor of research and highway safety promotion, told the Kiwanis Club automatic transmissions, power steering, power brakes and other improvements make driving possible for too many people who shouldn't.

Baby Beaten To Death By Teenage Boy

NORFOLK, Va. (AP)—Police say a teen-age boy beat his 2-year-old step-sister to death because he couldn't stand her crying.

Fussell Harris, 16, goes before Juvenile Court today for a preliminary hearing on a murder charge in the death of little Nadine Leary.

Police quoted Harris as saying he beat Nadine when she cried while he was baby-sitting with her Tuesday night.

Teen-agers Want Nikita To Go To Church In U.S.A.

MOBILE, Ala. (AP)—A group of Mobile teen-agers wants Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev to go to church when he visits this country.

The youngsters today wrote President Eisenhower, "as our representative of a peace loving and Christian nation," to ask his help.

Friendly Man Is Not Bookie Court Decrees

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Joseph Anton Kaleel has been cleared of bookmaking charges because he only took bets from friends.

Several witnesses told U.S. Judge David W. Ling they made bets with Kaleel on just a friendly basis, not as professional bookmaker and customer.

Kaleel was charged with avoiding the federal use tax for bookmakers. Patrick Coleman, assistant U.S. Atty., said Kaleel handled $50,000 a month in bets.

Lease Date Is Hint To Length Of Steel Strike

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United Steelworkers said today they have a hint how much longer the month long steel strike will last.

The union found out some time ago, before the strike began, a union official said, that steel company strategists took a lease until Oct. 15 on special strike-use office space in the Chrysler Building in New York.

Proposal Red Chinese Chief Visit Rejected

WASHINGTON (AP)—A proposed invitation to Red China Premier Chou En-lai to visit the United States has been vetoed by President Eisenhower, says Rep. Charles O. Porter (D-Ore). Porter, prompted by the coming visit of Russian Premier Nikita Khrushchev, had suggested a similar exchange of visits between Chou and the President.

AIRPORT OPERATION

Military-Civilian Talks On Traffic

Tentative proposals which might become the basis of air traffic control between Webb AFB and the Howard County Airport were discussed by military and civilian representatives Wednesday.

In general the suggested patterns would find Webb making an effort, wherever possible, to keep most jet traffic west of the county airport. Where it is necessary to fly in the vicinity of the county port, jets would hold to certain minimum altitudes in the area of the county port approach pattern.

The proposals are for the purpose of examination and perhaps testing. There is no official status for them at this stage.

Representing the military at the conference held at Webb AFB were Col. Charles H. Pierce, commander of the 356th Pilot Training Group; Capt. Roy E. Butz, assistant wing operations officer; and Maj. Sherrod H. Hooborn Jr., pilot training group operations officer.

Those speaking for civilian aviation in the new port area were Jack Gulley, Clyde McMahon, Bill Quimby, Bill Edwards and T. E. (Dick) Standifer.

Top Recruiter

M. Sgt. Robert L. Martin received a certificate of merit as a top recruiter Wednesday from Lt. Fred Willis, recruiting officer from the Abilene main recruiting station. The honor was authorized by Capt. Lanus Weisheit, commander of the Army Recruiting Station at Abilene, headquarters for 33 counties.

Recruiter Is Designated As 'Top Man' In District

M. Sgt. Robert L. Martin, U. S. Army recruiter for Howard, Borden, Gaines and Dawson counties, was named top recruiter for his 33 county area Wednesday.

Lt. Fred Willis, recruiting officer from the main recruiting station at Abilene, came to Big Spring to make the presentation. The award was made for Martin's recruiting of seven men during July, the highest percentage-wise in the entire district.

Martin lives at Lamesa, is married and has four children. He has been in the Army 21 years, and said he plans to finish out 30 years service before retirement.

Commander of the U. S. Army recruiting station at Abilene is Capt. Lanus Weisheit, who recommended the award certificate. The authorization came from the Fourth Army headquarters at Fort Sam Houston, San Houston.

Westbrook Schools To Open Aug. 31

WESTBROOK — Registration of pupils at the schools here has been set for Aug. 31 at 9 a.m., and buses will run on that day.

Supt. C. R. Hutchins said that classes will start on Sept. 1 with the cafeteria being in operation that day.

The faculty is still not complete, but Hutchins hopes to have all places filled by Aug. 31.

Weiner Roast

WESTBROOK — The Boy Scout troop, led by N. J. McMahon, scoutmaster, held a weiner roast at Lake Colorado City last weekend. Twelve attended the affair.

Child's Death Cause Of $200,000 Damage Action

Mr. and Mrs. James Edwin Dodson, 409 Nolan, have filed a suit for damages in the amount of $200,000 against Montgomery Ward and Co., in 118th District Court.

Their infant son, Jerry Don, fell from a service elevator in the Montgomery Ward store June 6 and died of injuries a few hours later. He lacked seven days being two years old at the time of his death.

In their suit, the Dodsons state that on the day of the accident the father and son went to the third floor and bought a linoleum rug. Being specifically invited by an employee, they boarded a service elevator to bring the rug downstairs, it is said.

The child fell through an opening between the platform and shaft about four stories.

Panama Fears Invasion Try

PANAMA (AP)—The Panamanian government today claimed that another invasion of Panama is being planned in Cuba to topple President Ernesto de la Guardia Jr.

Interior Minister Jose Domindor said some of those involved also had a hand in last April's abortive invasion of the Central American republic.

Trucker Killed

NEDERLAND, Tex. (AP) — Julius Thiel, 50, of Beaumont died Wednesday when his heavy concrete truck went over an embankment and crushed him.

Crystal Clear Why Name Picked

WAUPACA, Wis. (AP) — Officials replacing old highway signs at the entrance to nearby Little Hope discovered, by checking old maps, that the community's real name should be Crystal River. Residents quickly agreed to the change.

New Hospital Bed Given Final Test

ST. LOUIS (AP) — A new type of hospital bed — operated by pushing a button — was unveiled recently at the convention of the Catholic Hospital Assn.

The bed is mounted between two 78-inch hoops and is operated by electric pushbuttons.

A patient — prone — can push a button and the huge wheels revolve until the bed assumes a vertical position and the patient can walk away. Push other buttons and the bed assumes other positions.

Oil Workers Settle Strike

CHICAGO (AP)—Federal mediators announced an agreement was reached early today in the two-week old strike of 4,800 independent Petroleum Workers of America against the Whiting, Ind., refinery of Standard Oil Co. (Int.).

The agreement will be submitted to the union members for ratification Friday.

Terms of the agreement were not disclosed immediately.

The strike began July 28 over contract demands which a union spokesman said since were narrowed to one main issue—minimization of overtime so jobs could be spread out among more workers.

The plant was shut down July 28, but the firm resumed partial production Aug. 3 with almost 600 supervisory personnel operating the refining unit at the plant, the nation's third largest oil refinery.

The union estimates average wages range from $2.90 to $3 an hour, but the firm said the average is more than $3.

GETS ITS 'CUT' Financial Benefit To City From Bus Benches

A little known source of income to the city is the franchise granted to A. D. Harmon Jr. who establishes benches at bus stops throughout the city. Harmon sells advertising on the benches and pays the city 10 per cent of the gross income from the revenue.

Tuesday he requested permission to place 52 more benches throughout the city. The request gave the location of 35 benches now on location.

City Manager A. K. Steinhilber told the commissioners that approval was needed for every location, however the franchise reads that they must be moved if persons owning adjacent property complain. On the basis that property owners have the final okay on each placement, the commissioners voted approval of almost 90 street intersections that may have bus stop benches.

Driving Dog Is Traffic Puzzle

IRON RIVER, Mich. (AP) — A driverless automobile, with its motor running, suddenly jumped forward and smashed into another car. Investigation revealed that the car's only occupant, a small dog, had jumped up and hit the drive button on the automatic transmission.

Negro Families In White Area Pose Problem

CHICAGO (AP) — Two Negro families moved into a three-story apartment building in a previously all-white neighborhood Wednesday. Police patrolled the area and no incidents were reported.

The apartment building at 4338 W. Jackson Blvd., on the West Side, had been the target of demonstrations last week.

Morale Boosters Work At The Job

CHICAGO (AP) — Parting is sweet, not sorrowful when teen-age volunteers are in the Mount Sinai Hospital children's ward for the end of visiting hours.

The hospital has 75 high school students who do volunteer work in their spare time. One helpful activity is reading to child patients so they won't feel lonely immediately after their parents depart for home.

Miss France, 1957

Lisa Simone, who came to California as Miss France of 1957 in the Miss Universe contest, tells Hollywood Beauty columnist Lydia Lane what to do for aching feet as they chat during luncheon at Fouquet's in Paris, France.

HOLLYWOOD BEAUTY

Expensive Help For Tired Feet--Yes?

By LYDIA LANE
PARIS—I have just come from a delightful luncheon at Fouquet's with Lisa Simone, who was Miss France in 1957. She is here to see her mother, but now Hollywood is her home since she married producer Steve Arclay.
Simone graciously let me practice my French, but she speaks English with such a slight accent that she is quite busy on TV in America.
"The last time I saw you was at CBS on 'The Millionaire' set," I reminded.
"Yes," Lisa said, "and we had a hurried American lunch."
I was interested that she ordered steak and fr
"But first I'll have hors d'oeuvres, and we will finish with cheese, and that will be very French," she consoled me.
Lisa started her career as a ballet dancer and still exercises to keep her figure.
"I never walk when I'm in Hollywood, but here in Paris everyone walks everywhere, and my feet have been so sore at night," she exclaimed.
"Ditto," I chimed.
"I'll tell you what to do," Lisa said. "It's very good. Ballerinas know how this helps when they have been on their toes for a big

Wedding Colors Are Used At Tea

Yellow and white, chosen colors of Barbara Dumm, were used Wednesday evening in a miscellaneous shower given for her. She is the bride-elect of Baron Bloomer, son of Mrs. Winnie Foree, 404 Lancaster.
Mrs. Foree and the mother of the honoree, Mrs. G. W. Dumm, joined Mrs. Robert E. Rogers, a hostess, and Miss Dumm in a receiving line at the home of Mrs. Don Yates.
The hostess group had presented corsages of small kitchen aids to the trio. Yellow was predominant in that given to Miss Dumm, who was attired in a gray linen sheath with black accessories.
About 35 guests were registered by Mrs. Jeff Alexander, a hostess, while gifts were displayed and serving was done by two other hostesses, Mrs. Bill Crow and Mrs. Leon Gass, along with Mrs. Yates.
A white cloth covered the tea table, which was centered with an arrangement of white vinca and yellow statice. The colors were also featured in the refreshments served.
Miss Dumm and Bloomer will be married on Saturday.

Project Is Selected By Garden Club

A long-term project was selected by members of the Four O'Clock Garden Club, meeting Wednesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Edward Kohanek.
The group will take over the landscaping and care of the small park at the junction of Circle Dr. and Tucson, it was decided.
Mrs. Bill Tubbs, a member of the club since its beginning, was given an honorary membership. She has been unable to attend meetings due to her illness.
Principles of landscaping were discussed by Mrs. Guy Cook, who reminded the group of the elements of size, appropriate plantings and other things to be considered in beautifying the yard or garden.
Mrs. Jimmy Harper will be hostess on Sept. 9, when the club meets in her home, 1108 Stanford, at 3 p.m. Nine members were present Wednesday.

Rebeks Plan For Fund-Raising

Plans for fund-raising were made Tuesday evening by members of the John A. Kee Rebekah Lodge when they met at the lodge hall.
Set for the next session, the project will benefit the pilgrimage planned for the Home for the Aged at Ennis and the Children's Home at Corsicana. The group of 22 also decided to sell Christmas cards to benefit the treasury.

Wedding vows will be repeated by the couple Aug. 28 in the First Presbyterian Church. Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Havens, 810 E. 18th, and Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Young of Eunice, N. M.
Two of the hostesses, Mrs. Glenn Hancock and Mary Ann Nugent, served refreshments from a table decked in white organdy and appointed in silver. Silver accents were noted in the red and white floral arrangement.
Mrs. Floyd Mays, Mrs. Franklin Nugent, Mrs. Riley Foster, Mrs. Kelley Lawrence Jr. and Mrs. Ross Boykin shared hostess honors along with Mrs. Luther Coleman and Mrs. Leona Hughes. Judy Foster was at the register.
Red carnations in corsage were presented to Mrs. Havens and the honoree, whose white pique sheath was accessorized with red. The guest list included 150.

Construction Group Names Committees At Wednesday Meet

Standing committees were appointed at a meeting of the Big Spring chapter of Women in Construction Wednesday noon, when members met at Cokers Restaurant for luncheon.
Green and white were selected as colors of the group, and the chrysanthemum named as the flower.
An invitation from the Lubbock chapter was extended to the observance of the organization's day on Aug. 22.
Mrs. O. A. Badwick was introduced as a new member; Mrs. Thomas Bennett announced a membership campaign which will be made soon.
Regular meeting dates were set as the second Wednesday of each month by the 15 members present, who were joined by a guest, Janice Downing.

Planters Club Has Luncheon Meeting

A salad luncheon was served buffet style to 19 members of the Planters Garden Club, Wednesday, Mrs. U. E. Dickens and Mrs. F. L. Collins were hostesses at the former's home.
Mrs. Wallace Carr was introduced as a guest.
Next session for the group will be on Sept. 9, when the hostess will be Mrs. J. W. Tranzham, 1319 Stadium.

Opportunity For Contrasts In Frock

A way to spice a drooping late-summer-early-fall wardrobe by the royal designer, Norman Hartnell.

The waist-length double breasted jacket has a wide boat neck cut low enough to show the contrasting yoke of the dress, which matches the sleeve band.

Linen, pique, cotton, silk, shantung, faille, and wool crepe are all suitable fabrics; linen, pique, shantung, faille, or satin for the yoke and sleeve trim.

Select your correct size from this chart. Our pattern measurements are comparable to ready-to-wear sizes.

FRETFUL PROBLEM

TV 'Personality' Worries Conried

By CHARLES MERCER
 NEW YORK (AP)—Hans Conried was brooding the other day over the new phenomenon of "personality" as introduced to modern life by American television. Hans, after years of steady employment as a perfectly respectable actor (everything from Shakespearean roles to mad scientists) Conried went on the Jack Paar Show and quite soon found himself a "personality."
 "At first I felt naked," he recalled. "There I was, Conried playing Conried, with no role to hide behind. I had to talk, and that wasn't too hard, of course. I've been talking since I was a year old. Then, I guess, I began creating the personality of Hans Conried, a role to hide behind."
 But who, asked a fellow, really is Conried? What is he?
 Conried fixed his dark eyes on the fellow somberly and offered an item, a clue: The true Conried lives happily with his wife and two sons in a large California house that contains 7,000 books, most of which he's read. But he refused to divulge anything further about the secret life of Hans Conried except that he wants another bookcase in his house and there doesn't seem to be room for it.
 Conried has become a "personality" thanks to his appearances on the Paar show and other TV panel programs. But it hasn't hurt his professional career as an actor. In fact, his career has been enhanced, with more offers for better roles.

 Next Sunday, for example, he will co-star with William Bendix in "The Ransom of Red Chief," an NBC-TV special which also features Mickey Rooney's 9-year-old son, Teddy.
 A new idea in network programming comes on ABC-TV Oct. 18 in a weekly half-hour series called "Championship Bridge with Charles Goren."
 In the Sunday programs Goren won't teach you to play, but he'll offer tips to make you a better player—if you'll concentrate on it.
 Two teams of players will go four hands during each half-hour program. The actual contests, played in a studio, will be observed by Goren and Alex Drier from another studio so that their comments won't disturb the players.
 Rock Hudson will make his TV debut as host and star of a 90-minute special on CBS-TV Oct. 8. Other stars signed for the variety program include Tallulah Bankhead, Sammy Davis Jr., Mort Sahl and Esther Williams.

REAL MOUNTAIN MEN
 ... Jerry Duffield and John F. Monroe

Don't Say Business Men Are Softies—They Ain't

WILLIAMS, Ariz. (AP)—Don't go around saying all modern businessmen are softies. Someone may bring up the Bill Williams Mountain Men.
 The Mountain Men are an exclusive band of gents who punish themselves brutally just for fun to perpetuate the memory of the rugged trappers who carved an empire from the wilderness of the Old West.
 For 51 weeks of the year they're doctors, judges or cafe owners. They live quietly in the Grand Canyon gateway town of Williams, which — like their group — was named for a Bible-totin' old trapper.
 But late each winter they grow bushy beards, don buckskin clothing and give up comforts of home for a 51-day, 185-mile horseback ride to Phoenix.
 The trek is something of a public stunt with the ride timed to end at the Arizona State Fair-ground on opening day of the annual Phoenix Rodeo. But it's no lark for a tenderfoot.
 It's an overland trip through steep, cold mountains and parching desert. The parttime adventures ride all day, cavort and spin tall tales far into the night and then try to catch a few winks in bedrolls thrown on the hard, rocky ground.
 The Bill Williams Mountain Men have been making their ride for six years and only 29 starters have gone all the way.
 The only non-Arizonan to stick the full distance is John F. Monroe, a 63-year-old Milwaukee investment banker who did it this year.
 Monroe quickly learned why so many who try it drop out along the way—saddle sores.
 "My face was badly sunburned when we reached Phoenix," he says. "But, man, you ought to have seen the other end."

 Few outsiders get invitations to join the mountain men on the trek. Monroe got his quite by chance.
 "A year ago," he recalls, "my wife and I were driving through northern Arizona when we saw this weird mob of buckskin-clad riders. We thought they were a bunch of unemployed shepherders."
 "When we found out what they were doing, we got acquainted with them. Later they asked me to make this year's trip, and they probably were laying odds I wouldn't last."
 The rub of the saddle isn't the only discomfort.
 "Dropping down from the cold, wild country of 7,200 feet into the head of the desert is a rugged ordeal," says Monroe. "And the rocks under your sleeping bag hardly equal the luxury of the Waldorf-Astoria."
 "But the companionship of those men ranks as one of the great events of my life and made it all worthwhile."
 The respect was mutual. Monroe's determination convinced the mountain men. They made him an honorary member.
 The mountain men don't make the return trip by horseback. They are too sore from the one-way ride and too tired from four days and nights of whooping it up in Phoenix.

Former City Man Here On Marine Leave

Cpl. Donald L. Parker, USM, stationed at 29 Palms, Calif., is in Big Spring for a brief visit with his mother, Mrs. E. L. Hutchinson of 705 E. 14th.
 The young marine was called home to be at the bedside of his brother, C. A. Parker, Dallas, who was knifed and left seriously wounded 10 days ago. Young Parker was attacked at a Dallas drive-in stand and is in Baylor Hospital where his condition continues serious but not critical. He is in very grave condition for a few days, according to his mother.
 Young C. A. Parker works for the Lone Star Gas Co. He is well known in Big Spring. Cpl. Parker enlisted in the Marines two years ago. He has been in and around Big Spring often and has many friends here.
 Mrs. Hutchinson said that C. A. Parker had just recovered from a serious illness at the time of the attack on him at the drive-in.
 The marine corporal will remain here a few days and then return to his brother's bedside for the remainder of his leave of absence.

KO Forgotten

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—They are the best of friends now but State Senator Charles R. Fenwick once knocked out Gov. J. Lindsay Almond when they were students — and boxers — at the University of Virginia.

Indictment In Perjury Case

AUSTIN (AP)—The Travis County Grand Jury may return a new perjury indictment Friday against former State Insurance Board Chairman J. Byron Saunders of Tyler, reliable sources say.
 Saunders is scheduled to go to trial Monday on a perjury indictment which came out of legislative investigations into the 1957 collapse of ICT Insurance Co. of Dallas.
 A new indictment will clarify the present charge and cause a postponement of the trial until sometime in late September, the sources said.
 The jurors questioned this week several persons who appeared when the first indictment was returned. Witnesses included Nile Ball of Houston and E. A. McSpadden of Dallas.
 Dist. Atty. Les Procter refused to comment on the grand jury's actions which are secret by law.
 ICT was an enterprise of former Dallas promoter Ben Jack Cage. Cage, now in Brazil, has been sentenced to 10 years in prison for embezzlement.

PICTURESQUE SEACOAST ... Attracting Many Visitors
ISLAND AWAKENS

Sleepy Kona Gets New Surge Of Life

By CARL ZIMMERMAN
KAILUA-KONA, Hawaii (AP) — The sleepy Kona coast, cradle of Hawaiian history, is coming to life again with a new wave of visitors. And, they are getting a friendlier welcome than the first arrivals 150 years ago.

English explorer Capt. James Cook was slain in a battle with the Polynesians in 1779, a year after he discovered the islands.

Now, the little village of Kailua is becoming a growing resort center. Four hotels are operating and more are planned.

Kailua, on the island of Hawaii itself, is a 45-minute plane ride from Honolulu.

This was the first capital of the islands, and the first church was built here. A short distance down the coast is the City of Refuge, a burial place for Hawaiian royalty and a sanctuary to which Hawaiians in other times who committed crimes could flee and be immune from punishment.

Other attractions for tourists include some of the world's best deep sea marlin fishing and skin diving.

The past isn't dead and buried here. Mokuauia church, built in 1923, is still an active landmark. It sounds its chimes every evening.

Hulhee Palace was the residence of the Hawaiian royal family, but now is a museum.

Nearby is the historic residence of Kamehameha I, first king of all the Hawaiian islands.

The capital remained in Kailua until 1820, when it was moved to Honolulu.

The home of the king, who lived in a grass shack as did his ancestors, has vanished with hardly a trace. All that is left is a rubble of lava rock from a shrine, ringed by piles of lumber and a cattle pen.

Now, a hotel is planned for the area and the new state government is hoping to restore the historical site itself.

Kailua is also a good place to see the hula as the Hawaiians originally danced it.

For an unvarnished taste of old Hawaii, the best recipe is a trip to the City of Refuge.

Along a solitary shore, Hawaiians had built massive lava rock walls and platforms in a groove of coconut palms.

Youth Admits Art Vandalism

COLUMBUS, Ga. (AP) — An 18-year-old library page boy will plead guilty Friday to charges of setting a $30,000 fire in an art museum and scrawling swastikas on Jewish synagogues, authorities say.

Solicitor General John Land described the youth, Richard V. Smith Jr., who likes to read Nietzsche, as "very intelligent but misguided."

Land said Smith would be allowed to enter guilty plea; to charges of second and third-degree arson, which carry prison terms of 1-10 and 1-3 years respectively; and two counts of malicious mischief.

Letters To Editor
Says Management Claims Of Featherbedding Unfair

To The Editor:
Railroad workers are being subjected to an attack by management. They have been accused of featherbedding. It is a deliberate campaign which has been pursued even before there have been any contacts between labor and management and before any negotiations have been suggested on the subject. This seems to railroad men to be wholly unfair. Perhaps a few quotes from Sen. Hubert Humphrey in his talk before the International Convention of BLP&E and its Ladies Society, will help clear the picture; said Sen. Humphrey in part:

"For railroad management to call upon the government to step in and settle an issue even before an honest effort has been made to reach an agreement... is completely at variance with all protestations of the railroad industry against government interference and meddling in its affairs."

"Millions of dollars have been spent in an effort to convince the public that railroad workers deserve the reproachful epithet of featherbedders. Railroad labor has been responsible labor, realizing that its own advances can be made only with the advance of the railroads. Railroad labor has proven itself today to be probably the most productive of any group of workers in the world. Its aims in productivity (from official figures supplied by railroad management) have outstripped those of workers in any other industry. Its productivity has been increasing approximately twice as fast as that of (other) industry."

Railroad labor has waged an unending fight to keep our railroad transportation strong for national defense as well as peacetime. Several times railroad unions took their stand in support of management-sponsored legislation even though management, at the same time, was bitterly opposing legislative measures sought by the brotherhood.

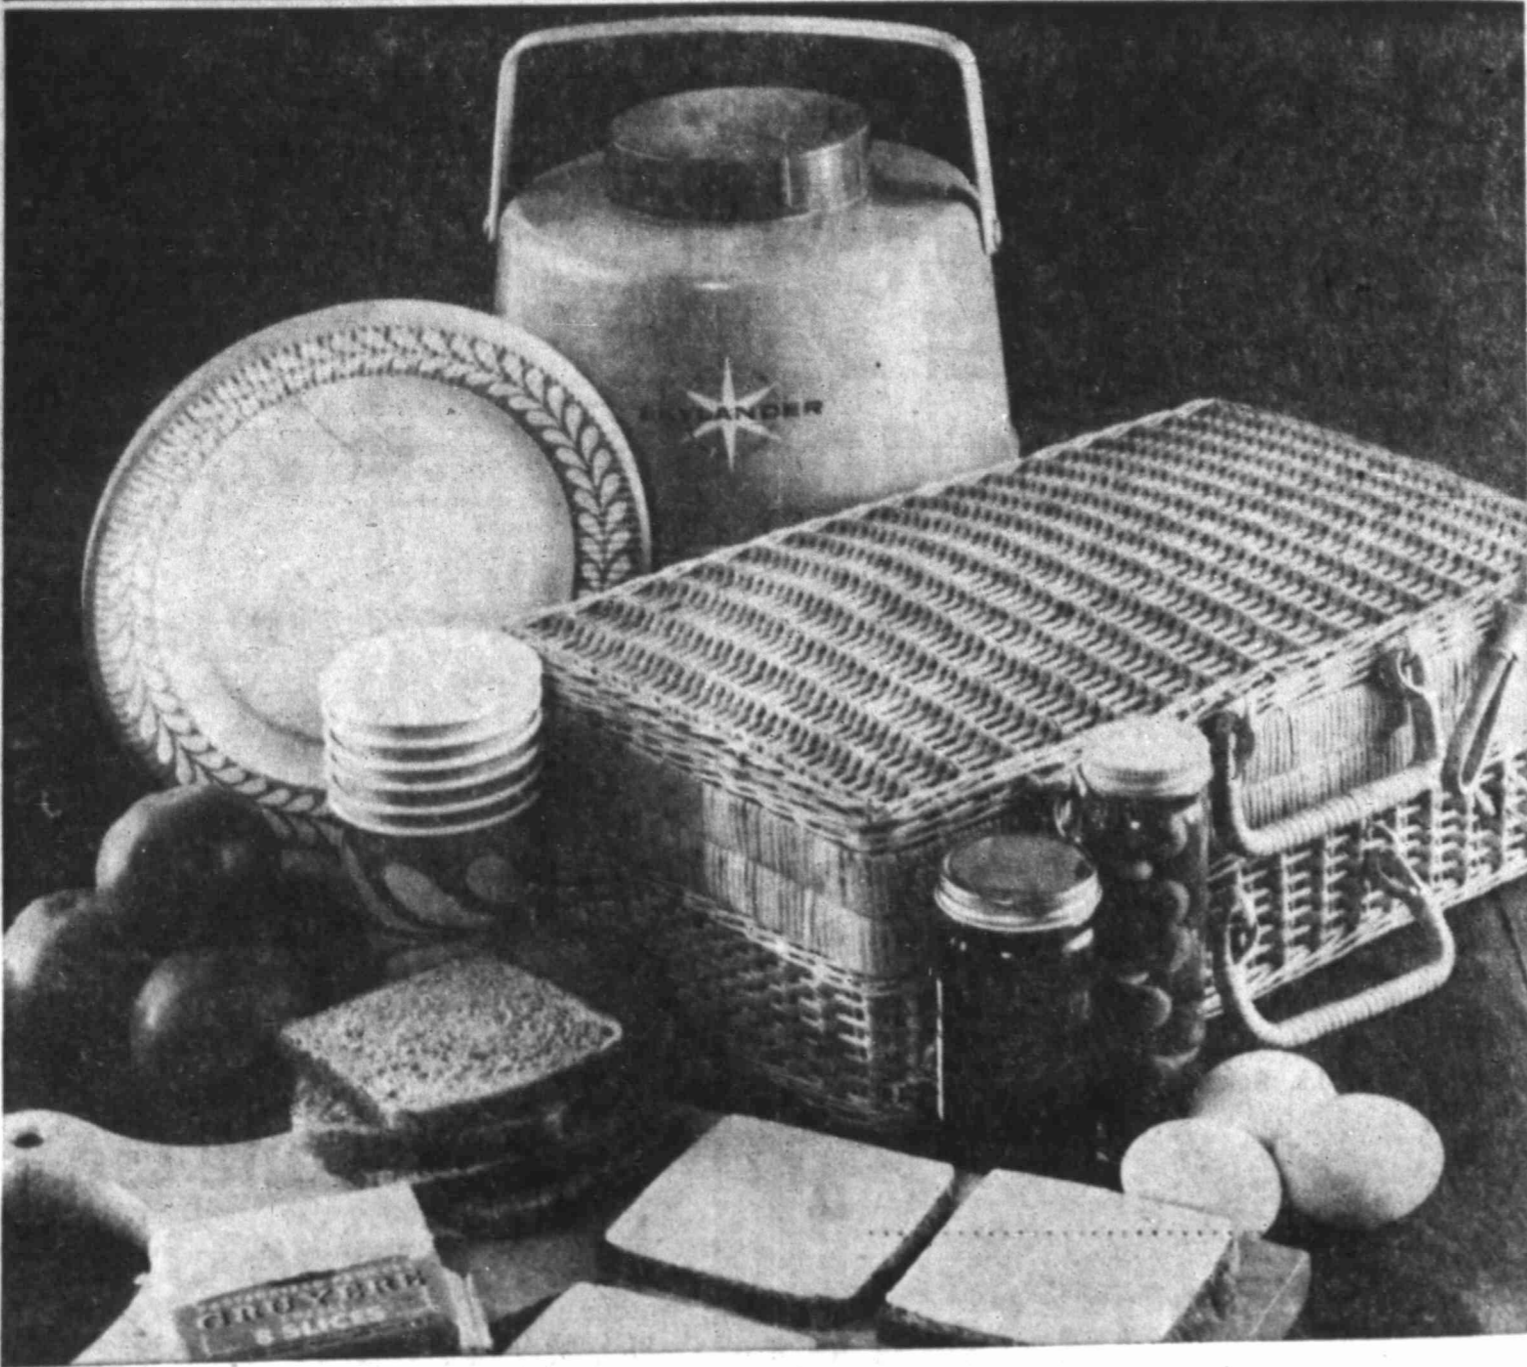

"Railroad legislative representatives have sought to secure enactment of measures designed to relieve the present freight car shortage, as well as to protect the public from the unjustified abandonment of passenger train service."

"Another thing that is right about railroad labor is its concern about railroad safety and its determination to do all in its power to halt the steady rise in railroad accidents. I am sorry to say that efforts of the Railway Labor Executives' Association to establish a joint labor-management committee on safety were turned down by railroad management."

"Railroad labor is clean, because railroad workers have built strong, democratic organizations, and they are determined to keep them that way."

We are joined in these feelings by the Brotherhoods of Locomotive Engineers, the Locomotive Firemen, and Railroad Trainmen.

Sincerely,
J. T. Allen
Order of Railroad Conductors.

Picnics, Sandwiches Are Synonymous

To most people, sandwiches are more than acceptable the year 'round. But August this year is being promoted as sandwich month. Get out the picnic hamper, pack it full of cookies, olives, pickles, tomatoes, fruit, boiled eggs. But don't forget the makings for palatable sandwiches. To keep peace, take along enough for at least two go-rounds for everyone.

Sandwiches Make Cooling Fare, Are Easy On Cook And The Budget

Who is it that doesn't relish a hearty, delectable sandwich? The sandwich is almost a tradition in this country. It can be anything from an open-faced version to a double and even triple decker concoction.

Ingredients for these favorites can be any and everything. We know folks who ask for nothing more than a couple of slices of bread bathed with mustard and shielding thin slices of onion. There are hordes of folk who stick with jelly and peanut-butter filling, and there are others who cling to an old-fashioned hamburger.

Sandwiches spare the home-maker hot hours in the kitchen, occasionally, and are easy on the family budget. Make up your own pet combinations and devour them with gusto:

OLIVE-CHEESE-BACON COMBO
 2 tpsps. butter or margarine
 1/4 cup chopped green pepper
 2 tpsps. flour
 1/4 tsp. pepper
 1 cup milk
 1 tsp. grated onion
 2 cups grated Cheddar cheese
 1/2 cup grated carrot
 1/4 cup sliced pimiento-stuffed green olives
 12 slices bacon, cooked
 6 slices toast
 Melt butter or margarine. Add green pepper and cook 5 minutes. Add flour and pepper; blend. Gradually add milk and cook over low heat, stirring constantly, until thickened. Add onion, cheese and carrot and cook until cheese melts. Add olives; mix well. Arrange bacon on toast. Pour olive-cheese sauce over toast. Garnish as desired. Makes six servings.

Sandwich Spread Uses Bacon, Cheese
 Bacon and cheese tend their full-bodied flavors to open faced sandwiches which never fail to please.

Try this combination:
CHEESE 'N' CHIVE SANDWICH
 16 slices bacon
 8 slices sandwich bread
 3 tpsps. mayonnaise
 6 ounces cream cheese with chives, softened
 3/4 cup mayonnaise
 3 cups corn flakes or 3/4 cup packaged corn flake crumbs
 1/4 cup butter or margarine

Cook bacon partially. Toast bread on one side only. Spread untoasted side with butter. Add mayonnaise to cream cheese; mix well. Spread on buttered toast. Crush corn flakes into fine crumbs; combine with butter. Sprinkle over cheese; top with bacon slice.

Broil about three minutes or until heated through.

Old-Timey Dessert Is Up-Dated

Rose water in a rice pudding? Not today, but this was a prized flavoring in Martha Washington's day. Many Mt. Vernon puddings used rose water (no longer used as a food flavoring) and usually were highly spiced and plump with "currants" or "raisings of ye sun."

RICED FLORENTINE
 1/2 cup uncooked white rice
 1 1/2 cups water
 1 tsp. salt
 2 1/2 cups milk
 1/4 tsp. cinnamon
 1/2 tsp. cloves
 1/2 tsp. nutmeg
 1-3 cup uncooked raisins
 1/2 cup beet or cane sugar
 3 eggs, beaten
 2 tpsps. confectioners' sugar

Put the rice, water and salt in a 2-quart saucepan. Bring to a vigorous boil over a high heat. Turn heat down low. Cover with a lid and simmer 14 minutes. Stir in the milk. Cook, uncovered, about 20 to 30 minutes over a medium heat until the milk is absorbed. Do not boil. Stir occasionally. Stir frequently toward end of cooking.

Stir in the cinnamon, cloves, nutmeg, raisins, currants and 1/4 cup sugar. Stir some of hot mixture into eggs. Return to saucepan. Mix well.

Pour into a greased 1 1/2-quart glass baking dish. Place in a pan of hot water. Bake in a 300 degree oven 50 to 60 minutes or until liquid in center is absorbed. Pudding stiffens as it cools. Sift on the powdered sugar. Cool. Serve warm.

This recipe makes eight to 10 servings.

RICE PUDDING

Take Note, Picnickers

Even mother can join the fun and turn a family picnic into a vacation from chores. A well stocked picnic chest in the kitchen, that's kept ready and waiting, is the secret.

Naturally, the usual picnic equipment should be stored on the shelf. These will include paper cups, plates and napkins; plastic or other inexpensive tableware; vacuum jugs; and waxed paper and foil.

A variety of picnic foods belongs, too. Canned and bottled foods such as meat spreads, processed cheeses, peanut butter, pickles and olives will always be needed. Packages of cookies and potato chips belong on the shelf, of course, as do jars of mayonnaise or other salad dressings, mustard and relishes.

Home economists emphasize that in hot weather, or if there is to be a delay before the picnic meal is eaten, it is wiser to carry sandwich ingredients separately and make the sandwiches fresh upon arrival. Salad ingredients should be carried separately, too, and mixed with mayonnaise just before serving. It's safer, makes the meal more enjoyable, and of course, saves work for mother.

It's Easy To Make Minted Tea

Afternoon tea is just as refreshing a custom in summer as it is in winter. Only difference is that in cold weather it's served hot—in summer it's iced tea on sultry afternoons, however, you need not make an elaborate display of it. A platter of cookies, either the packaged kind or simple homemade drop cookies, make a quick, satisfying accompaniment.

The iced tea itself is equally easy to prepare. For a quick energy pickup, many persons at this time of year enjoy it lightly sweetened and mint flavored. No need to put out the sugar bowl or add a bunch of mint leaves from your garden, however. Just use your favorite After Dinner Mints. Peppermint, lime or lemon flavored mints give iced tea the most delicate taste.

Here are the measurements. Pour six cups of boiling water over four tea bags and 1/2 cup of the mints in your teapot. Cover and let tea steep about four minutes, or until mints are dissolved. Strain and pour at once over ice in your tallest glasses.

RECIPES
CONTEST

Have you sent in your entry to the Herald's recipe contest? Remember, entries must be postmarked prior to midnight, Sept. 4, to be eligible for the $10 cash prize in each of seven categories and the $100 cash prize for the best recipe.

You can enter as many recipes as you like; each must be hand-printed or typewritten. Watch for complete instructions.

Divisions include salads, bread or rolls, main dish, vegetable, cake or pie, one-dish and general desserts. All the recipes entered will be published in a special supplement of the Herald on Sept. 20, as a Guide to Better Meals.

Barbecued Turkey Needs Flavorful Sauce Accent

The barbecue season is here and small turkeys are plentiful, so why not combine these factors and have barbecued turkey or a "turkey-Q"?

Small or lightweight turkeys are best to barbecue, for you can cook them more quickly and more thoroughly over an open fire without burning them.

For flat cooking on a grill, split the bird in half lengthwise and break the joints so they will lie as flat as possible. Fasten the leg and wing to the body of each piece. Place the pieces on the grill skin side up at least seven inches from the coals. Cook slowly one to two hours, depending on distance from heat. Turn and baste often.

If you have a spit on your grill, run the rod through the breast parallel to the backbone and bring it out through the body opening. Center the bird on rod, attach holding forks in breast and tail areas. Tie or skewer wings to body, tail to spit rod and crossed legs to the tail. Insert and fasten a meat thermometer in one thigh and place over coals.

For the first 15 minutes, or until the turkey is golden brown, keep fire hot. The fire may then be lowered or bird-raised so it sizzles mildly as it turns.

Baste flat or spit-cooked turkey with sauce or melted fat every five or 10 minutes or often enough to prevent burning. Cook until meat is tender. A cut into the thick drumstick muscle should not reveal a pink color if it is ready to eat.

Barbecue chefs often prepare a favorite sauce to accent the flavor of the turkey. These sauces are used as marinades to baste the meat during the cooking process or they may be passed with the meat at the picnic table.

Here are a few sauce recipes. Vary them to suit your taste. Prepare them ahead of time and store until needed. A narrow paint brush is handy for brushing on sauce or melted fat or butter.

THICK BARBECUE SAUCE
 Brown 1/2 cup chopped onions in 2 tablespoons fat or oil until lightly browned. Add 1/2 clove, grated garlic, 2 tablespoons vinegar, 1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce, 1/2 teaspoon chili powder, 3/4 cup water, 3/4 cup catsup, 1/2 teaspoon salt and 1/4 teaspoon black pepper.

Cover and simmer about 20 minutes. If sauce gets too thick, add a small amount of water. Use immediately or keep in a covered container in refrigerator until needed. Serve hot.

LEMON BARBECUE SAUCE
 Mash 1 garlic clove with 1/2 teaspoon salt in bowl. Add 2 tablespoons grated onion, 3/4 teaspoon black pepper, 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce, 1/4 cup salad oil, and 1/2 cup lemon juice. Chill 24 hours before serving.

BARBECUE MEAT SAUCE
 Melt 1-3 pound butter in sauce pan. Add 1 cup catsup, 1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce, 2 teaspoons dry mustard, 1/2 clove crushed garlic, 1/2 teaspoon Tabasco sauce, and salt and pepper to taste. Simmer for 15 minutes and serve hot.

Use all sauces sparingly; a highly seasoned sauce may mask the natural good flavor of a "turkey-Q."

Garnished Foods Give Summer Table A Lift

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
 It's too bad that attractively arranged food sometimes seems confined to top-notch restaurants and color photographs.

And yet the art of garnishing food can often give budget-minded family meals a lift.

"Don't bother with all that fancy stuff!" my father used to say when he thought my sisters and I were spending too much time fussing in the kitchen. But I was always interested to note that he was the first to comment with pleasure on a colorful platter of say chops surrounded with baked tomatoes stuffed with green peas or creamed spinach. And he'd get a big bang out of a cake frosting that boasted seedless grapes meticulously arranged in an amusing design.

One of the most edifying of cool lunches on a warm day is a platter of Scandinavian-style open sandwiches with their delightful garnishes that add as much to flavor as they do to looks.

To make them, open a can of salmon, drain and remove skin and bones. Mash the fish and mix with a little lemon and onion juice, adding mayonnaise, if you like. Spread slices of whole wheat or pumpernickel bread with the salmon paste.

Now go to work on the toppings, being as economical or as lavish as you like. Here are suggestions:

1. Cross from corner-to-corner an overlapping line of stuffed olive slices; top with cheddar cheese heart.
2. Lay on two dashing round egg slices; spread the yolk with red caviar and add a slash of scallion.
3. Pile in center: green leaf, tomato slice and cottage cheese.
4. With half-circle radish slices make a scalloped border all around the edge; arrange a flower of sweet gherkin slices in center.
5. Arrange half-slice of tomato and slices of cucumber; dot with a parsley posy.
6. Arrange three spears of marinated asparagus; add a swirl of pimiento.

Pickles Provide Part Of Diet's Salt

Don't over-do your salt consumption these days simply because they've heard that some persons take salt tablets in extremely hot climates.

Some men who do exceedingly hard labor out of doors may lose great amounts of salt through perspiration. Medical authorities may then advise salt tablets.

Most authorities agree, however, that by merely salting your table food a bit more than usual you will replace the needed amount of salt in your body. Or you may eat an extra pickle or two. According to pickle packers, an average size dill pickle provides half the normal daily requirements of ten grams of salt in a most palatable way.

Weaver Looking Ahead

Between games on Texas Tech's 1959 schedule, Coach DeWitt Weaver could be excused for watching construction on the Jones Stadium expansion to 40,000 capacity by 1960 when the Red Raiders first compete for the Southwest Conference football championship. Following this season, the present east stands will be moved back 200 feet, the field will be excavated 30 feet, and the ensuing slopes lined with seats. The pressbox and improvements under the west stands will be ready for the 1959 season, and athletic offices will be completed during the winter.

JAMES BLAKE FACING JOB OF REBUILDING

FORSAN, (SC)—This could be a season of rebuilding for the Forsan Buffaloes, who begin two-a-day eight-man football workouts Monday at 6 a.m. Coach James Blake is beginning his third season here and must find replacements for six lettermen, who had big hands in Forsan's 8-2 won-lost record in 1958. Missing from the Forsan camp will be George White, Charles Skeen, Kenneth Duffer, Stanley Willis, Raymond Martin and Milton Bardwell. The first five of that group weighed about 185 pounds each. Blake and his aide, Tom Spell, will greet nine returning lettermen in a number of years. No regular will go over 165 pounds. The Buffs apparently will have ample speed but no depth, to speak of.

FOR LOCAL TEAM

Bowman Roberts Poised To Hurl

Bowman Roberts, voted the winner of the Most Valuable Player award in last week's District 7 Junior Teen-Age Baseball tournament here, will probably get the mound call for Big Spring in the Kiwanians' opening game at the State Meet with Brownwood at Brownwood this evening. The two teams take the field at 6 o'clock for the right to play in Saturday's semi-final engagement. A play-by-play account will be aired over Radio Station KBST Big Spring 1490, with Bob Rogers doing the play-by-play account. Roberts has a good fast ball and a sneaky curve. His slants will be received by reliable Jerry Tucker. Other starters for Big Spring will probably be Terry Young in right field, Jack Irons in center, Roy New at first base, Don Ellis at shortstop, Jeff Brown at second, B. Hammock in left field, and Terry Dooley at third base. The Kiwanians earned the trip to Brownwood by defeating Floydada, 22-0; and San Angelo, 6-3, in that order. Little is known of the Brownwood entry. It is sponsored by the Veterans of Foreign Wars there. In other first round games, Neeley's of Waco opposes Amarillo at 6 o'clock this evening. On Friday evening, Texas City tries Sweeney at 6 p.m. while Pasadena and Texarkana square off at 8 p.m. Neeley's of Waco and Pasadena are favored to reach the finals.

Willie Shoemaker Boots In 3500th Win Of His Career

CHICAGO (AP)—"I don't keep track of such things," said jockey Willie Shoemaker after entering the winner's circle for the 3,500th time. A week before his 28th birthday, Shoemaker Wednesday became one of a select group of jockeys who have booted home 3,500 or more winners. He had been riding the last three days in Arlington Park with a foot injury suffered in the starting gate last Saturday. He was blanked Monday, won Tuesday, and missed the rest of the afternoon. The Shoemaker who won his first race at Golden Gate Fields in California on April 20, 1949, reached 3,500 in Wednesday's second race with Mad Duchess. In boosting his total to 3,502, Shoemaker ran his year's winners to 227 in a strong bid for his fifth national riding championship. He is four ahead of his chief rival Bob Ussery, who is riding at Saratoga Springs, N.Y. After scoring his 3,500th victory, Shoemaker said: "I really didn't know I was so close to it until I read it in the papers the other day. I just don't keep track of such things. I knew I had something over 3,000 but not how many more." Since the 4 feet 10 1/2 inch, 101-pound Shoemaker tasted his first victory, aboard Shafter V for a $21 payoff, he has had 13,751 mounts and his horses have won close to $18,800,000.

M. Mixers Retain Lead In Circuit

With the last week of competition coming up, the Merry Mixers still hold the lead in the Tuesday Tumblers' bowling league despite slumping to a 2-2 split match with the Goofers this week. The Shouda Beens batted over the Kats, 4-0, and the T-33's stayed three points back of first in a 3-1 win over the Matronettes. Nancy Staller of the T-33's recorded a 201 high game and 430 second-ranked series, while teammate Joan Malkiewicz scored a 167 game. Fran Nixon, Shouda Beens, had the top series count, 431. Spills were converted by Virginia Pickett, Merry Mixers, 3-10; Dot Henderson, Matronettes, 2-7; Eileen Cody, Shouda Beens, 7-4-10; and Pat Drake, Shouda Beens, 3-10.

Millers Keeping Close To Lead

The charging Louisville Colonels may be riding the hottest winning average in the American Association, but somehow Minneapolis always seems to be close behind. Enjoying a four-game lead in the Eastern Division, Louisville beat Charleston 5-3 in 11 innings Wednesday night to sweep their series. The runnerup Millers nipped Houston 5-4 in 10 innings in a fine display of pressure ball. Omaha defeated Indianapolis 6-4. Denver whipped Dallas 3-1 and 13-2 and Fort Worth clipped St. Paul 2-1 but lost the second game 3-5. Herb Plews cracked an infield hit with the bases full and two out in the 10th inning at Houston. The scoring runner was Stu Locklin. Seth Morehead was the opener at Fort Worth on an unearned run, but the Cats were set down on eight scattered hits by Jack Colburn in the nightcap.

Rosburg, Dentist Detroit Favorites

DETROIT (AP)—Defending champion Bob Rosburg and Cary Middlecott, twice a winner, paced a field of 154 today into the first round of the $25,000 Motor City Open Golf Tournament at nearby Meadowbrook Country Club. They face strong contention from Dow Finsterwald, last week's winner of the Cleveland Open; Art Wall, top money winner for 1959, and Billy Casper, National Open champion. Others like Arnold Palmer, Julius Boros, Tommy Bolt, Pete Cooper and Jerry Barber are capable of walking off with the $3,500 in first prize money when the 72-hole tournament concludes Sunday.

Take Shorter Swing: Bayer

By GEORGE BAYER The big man has a longer arc to his swing and therefore some people expect he ought to hit the ball a mile. I'm 6-foot-5 and believe me there are times when physical assets can be detrimental. Many people who are tall try to hit the long iron shots too far. Don't try to hit the ball hard. If you need more distance use a longer club. With me it was only a matter of control. Ted Kroll got me to go to a shorter controlled swing and it helped my game. When you shorten the back-swing you can tell where the club is all the time. The shortened backswing gives you control of the clubhead and control of the swing. The big backswing means there is more room for error.

Local Horses Go At Raton Racing Strip

RATON, N. M. (SC)—Of the 18 member TRA tracks operating during the month of July, La Mesa Park headed the list percentage wise with a daily increase in mutual play of 17 per cent in comparison with 1958. Comparing the mutual handle for the first three-day weekend of racing during the month of August in 1958 the total showed an increase in excess of 14 per cent on last Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Using this figure for the first three-day weekend of racing during the month of August as a yardstick attendance and mutual-wise, there is no telling to what heights mutual figures will soar in weeks to come.

Friday's well-balanced 12 race card is one to test the ingenuity of the best of Form-Players. The feature 11th race brings out the best of claiming placers of which eight of those entered in the nine horse field carrying a claiming tag of $2,000 and ironically, the grey ghost No Quest, winner of three of his four starts is the lone entrant wearing a tag of $1,750. He has proven his worth not only as a sprinter but also at distances exceeding one mile. Being a versatile runner, he is capable of running on fast or off tracks.

Ludier owned by D. Scharnow will be ridden by son Robert. The father-son combination have become prime favorites with the local players, father and son having teamed together with several winners since their arrival from Ruidoso.

P. H. Herndon's Rowdy Joe is in a four-year-old currently and in his last appearance the Herndon gelding put on one of the finest stretch drives displayed at this track when after trailing the field in the early stages, he was up to win handily at seven furlongs.

Big Fiddle is a winner of two here, both being over a distance of ground. Polly Cracker and Gamely have both scored recently at one mile. Vern Phillips' Sorbet and Wayne Carlisle's Mr. Nuisance have yet to break into the winner's circle in 1959. This is his first appearance in many months at this lengthier distance.

A newcomer to La Mesa is a four-year-old filly Colmel's Date from the C. F. branch of Albert Grantham of Big Spring, Tex. The Grantham Miss is a late arrival from Ruidoso where she competed in allowance races.

The supporting 10th race brings together an eight-horse field of middle distance runners competing in a claiming race at seven furlongs. Frisky Whisky, a late arrival from Ruidoso owned by the Grantham spread will be starting for the first time at La Mesa. The remainder of the field consists of Seamanship, Fortune, Deep Ferro, Wise Bear, Lana Mon and Splendor, each of the former will be vying for their first win since May 22.

Ten distance runners have been entered in the overnight Quinella 12th race which is to be decided at one mile. Of the 12 races offered on the Friday card, 10 are conditioned for thoroughbreds with the third and fourth races bringing together quarter horses at 400 yards. First post for each of the three days of racing this weekend is 1:15 with Daily Double wagering on the first and second races, and Quinella wagering on the 12th.

Ed Mathews Carries His Share Of Load

Milwaukee's Braves may not be the all-conquering champions they were a year ago but it hasn't been the fault of third baseman Ed Mathews. He is hitting an even .300, has slugged 33 home runs and has driven in 79 runs. He already has exceeded last year's totals of 31 homers and 77 runs batted in when his average was only .251. Ed powered two home runs Wednesday night, each with a man on base, to boost the Braves into second place with a 6-4 victory over Cincinnati. Henry Aaron added a home run, his 39th, and a triple from veteran Bob Rush, who hurled scoreless ball over relieving southpaw Juan Pizarro in the second.

Bears To Seek More Offense

By JERRY LISKA Associated Press Sports Writer RENNELAER, Ind. (AP)—In top shape defensively, the Chicago Bears must shoot for offensive improvement this National Football League season. The Bears last year finished in a Western Division tie for second with the Los Angeles Rams at 8-4. Owner-Coach George Halas, 62-year-old pioneer of pro football, said today his club has the ingredients to sharpen its attack.

But, he added, the Bears also need all the breaks they can get in a 1959 schedule which pits them twice against the NFL champion Baltimore Colts and the Rams within their first six games. Halas has high hopes that full-back Rick Casares and halfback Willie Gailmore, the crux of the Bear running game last season, will be bolstered by a couple of rookies. They are 235-pound fullback Johnny Adams from Los Angeles State and Pete Johnson, a fleet 200-pound halfback from Virginia Military Institute. Another offensive threat is improved Johnny Morris, third in Bear rushing in 1958.

Halas also emphasizes that what he calls the Bears' "P.O.M."—players out—offensive setup will be much stronger with a corps of fine receivers. He is high on an array of such offensive ends as veterans Harlon Hill, Bill McColl, Jim Dooley and Bob Jewitt, and rookies Willard Deweave of Southern Methodist, John Arent of Indiana, Tony Cartera of Elon College in North Carolina, and Bob Coronado of College of the Pacific.

"We also have three fine quarterbacks in Ed Brown, Zeke Bratkowski and Rudy Bukich," said Halas. The Twig Hits At Fast Clip KANSAS CITY (AP)—"I guess I'm shooting a little over my head at bat, but I might as well enjoy it," says little Wayne Terwilliger. In 30 days, "Twig" has advanced from a substitute to a star of the Kansas City Athletics.

The 34-year-old second baseman contributed virtually nothing to the A's this season until July 14, when he got into the lineup because of injuries to Jerry Lampe and then Joe Demaestri. Twig was batting .195 when he got his chance to start. Since then, he has hit safely in 18 of 23 games and his average has soared to .302. Wednesday night, Terwilliger collected two of the A's eight hits as the team bowed 9-4 to Cleveland.

There's no arguing the fact that Terwilliger is hitting over his head. In 11 seasons of professional baseball, he has hit better than .300 only once, and that was in the minors seven years ago. But his value to the team lies in defensive ability and speed, two elements always in short supply at Kansas City.

Texas League Teams Fare Well In Pan-Am Playoffs

DALLAS (AP)—With the Pan American Association hookup with the Mexican League over, Texas League owners jotted down statistics and found Texas League teams won 130 and the Mexican League 84. The final games were played Wednesday. The Texas League owners also agreed to keep the same clubs—San Antonio, Victoria, Tulsa, Amarillo, Corpus Christi and Austin—with no expansion next year. Five of the clubs have major league working agreements lined up and prospects appeared good for the sixth team, Amarillo, to get one in 1960.

Austin again lined up with Milwaukee, Tulsa with St. Louis, Victoria with Los Angeles, San Antonio with the Chicago Cubs and Corpus Christi with San Francisco. A meeting of the Texas and Mexican Leagues will be held in October to make formal plans for 1960. Champions of the Texas and Mexican leagues will meet at the end of the season for the Pan American title. Wednesday Nuevo Laredo beat Tulsa 7-2 for the Mexican League's only victory in the final night's play. Victoria, the Texas League leader, defeated Poza Rica, the Mexican pace-setter, 5-2. Austin tripped the Mexico City Reds 5-4, Amarillo crushed Monterrey 13-1, Corpus Christi got Veracruz 6-5 and San Antonio cancelled its game at Mexico City with the Tigers because of wet grounds. The only game scheduled Thursday is a makeup—Tulsa at Austin. Julio Moreno of Nuevo Laredo scattered seven Tulsa hits, Jim McKnight homered twice, Jim McKeon hit a homer on for Tulsa's runs. Amarillo blasted Monterrey with 19 hits. Leigh Lawrence turned in a sterling relief job for the Gold Sox, giving up one hit in seven innings. Ernie Bowman clouted a first-out single with Jim Wright on first in the ninth inning and Wright raced home to give Corpus Christi its victory over Veracruz. Jim Williams of Victoria smashed a two-run triple to break a 2-2 tie in the seventh inning and scored the final run off an error. Bobby Knoop did the damage for Austin against the Mexico City Reds. He hit a bases-loaded single to highlight a four-run outburst in the sixth inning and lined a single in the eighth that scored Chuck Buheller with the winning run.

Alpine Has Clinched Top Spot In Divisional Race

By The Associated Press Alpine, the South Division leader in the Sophomore League, hosts Hobbs, the North Division leader, again Thursday but the outcome really doesn't matter to Alpine. The Cowboys have the division lead clinched. They show a 77-29 record and second place. Midland is 51-35-26 games behind. The clubs play a 126 game schedule and if Alpine lost all the rest of its games and Midland won all of its games, Midland still would end up six games behind. Hobbs tripped Alpine 2-1 Wednesday night. Midland crushed Artesia 15-1. Carlsbad sniped Odessa 4-3 and Plainview defeated Rowell 3-2. Lynn Rube of Hobbs bested Gary Modrell in a pitching duel. Rube allowed eight hits, struck out four and gave four free bases. Modrell gave up five hits, walked three and struck out five. Larry Alander hurled four-hit ball and Midland jumped on Artesia for 19 hits. Jerry Williams and Pat Sherrill homered for Midland. Terry Barber hurled a three-hitter and struck out 13 men, but his Odessa Dodgers lost to Carlsbad when the Potashers came up with three runs without a hit in the seventh to win. An error, three walks and a sacrifice fly did the damage. Jack Hanes struck out 11 as Plainview beat Rowell. Phinickview picked up an unearned run in the first and added two more in the sixth for the victory.

Candidate

Judy Foster, 16-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Riley Foster, 907 W. 16th, has been nominated for Queen honors in the Greenbelt Bowl football game, which will be staged in Childress Friday night. Born in Winters, Judy has been a student in the local schools since the first grade. She's now a junior in high school. She was nominated by Ronald E. (Bubby) Moore, owner of Big Spring, a player in the game. Judy Regan is another candidate from Big Spring for Queen honors.

Art Butler Is Golfer To Beat

By MATT KRAMER PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—Match play opened at Waverley Country Club today with Art Butler of Pasadena, Calif., still the man to beat in the Western Amateur Golf Tournament.

Butler, the leader since the opening day of this long tournament, is the only entrant who consistently has bettered par 36-36-72. To go with rounds of 69 and 71 on the first two days, the former New Hampshire amateur champion added a 69 and 70 in the final qualifying rounds Wednesday to become medalist with a 10-under-par 278.

He met Bob Pratt, Houston University player from Bellevue, Wash., in the first round of match play today. Pratt qualified with 290.

Butler's closest competitor in qualifying play was Ron Luceti, San Francisco, who had final rounds of 68 and 71 for a total of 283, 5-under par. Even with par at 288 were two former champions—James "Billey" Key of Columbus, Ga., who won his title last year, and Lt. Bruce Cudd, a Portlander now stationed with the Navy at Clarksville, Tenn. Cudd won in 1954. Tied with them was Pete Dye of Indianapolis.

Ten-Year-Old Is Set To Deliver

KANSAS CITY (AP)—"Murphy the Great" will be on the mound when the Kansas City Athletics meet the Chicago White Sox Saturday night. Murphy — it's Harry Murphy Jr. — is 10 years old and has quite a reputation in his hometown of Ottawa, Kan., as a pitcher. Young Harry will toss out the first ball for the A's.

Murphy pitched his Peevee League team to the championship this season. The team had a 7-0 record, and Murphy pitched every game, including three no-hitters. He struck out 90 batters in 35 innings. Peevee League games last five innings.

Baseball 'Poor Boy' Endeavor

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF AP Sports Editor An effort was made to get baseball restored to the curriculum of the Texas Coaching School. The plea was turned down for several reasons. The main objection to having a lecturer on baseball at the clinic is the lack of interest on the part of the baseball coaches. They won't attend the lectures and the fellow who's supposed to talk about the game but it's an expense for nothing.

The situation is a paradox. Whereas high school baseball is growing in Texas—now there are some 300 teams—few coaching it are interested in finding out how to coach it. Texas High School Coaches Association officials point to inept coaching as the main reason in the first place. Few of the schools have experts doing the coaching. Too often the coach of some other sport or a member of the faculty who doesn't know a hit from third base is given the job of tutoring the baseballers. Most of them don't get paid anything extra for the coaching.

There's not much incentive for learning the finer points of the game and spending the proper time with the boys to teach it.

Waggoner Carr Plans To Advance Political Career

LUBBOCK (AP)—Texas House Speaker Waggoner Carr said Wednesday night he felt he had an "obligation to run" for governor or attorney general next year. The state representative from Lubbock for the last nine years said: "People here have been real nice to me, and it looks like I would have a middling good chance to win."

"I sort of feel like it would be my obligation to run." He said he probably will reach a decision some time this fall. Carr told newsmen he believes he came out of the Legislature's four sessions (one regular and three specials) in a stronger position politically than when the regular session started.

DANCE TO FIRE GODDESS
... Hula symbolizes ancient rite

PASTOR SPEAKS OUT Ancient Hawaiian Fire Dance Severely Rapped

HONOLULU (AP) — The ancient Polynesian gods are restless on the sleepy Kona Coast of the island of Hawaii.

The dance of Pele, the goddess of fire, is under attack.

The Rev. Glen Fisk, Congregational minister of Hawaii's oldest church, says Pele's hula is idolatrous, and dances honoring the old gods "might become a stumbling block to those weak in Christian faith."

"I happen to know," he says, "that there are many folks out there, and dances honoring the old superstitious beliefs — like sprinkling salt around the house after a funeral, or placing leaves in the house when there are visitors to drive away evil spirits."

Two members of his congregation have resigned from a hula troupe that performs the dances. In the Pele hula, dancers do not go through the usual swaying of the hips. They gather around a fire pit, pointing to the fire and making gestures.

Mr. Fisk says he did not tell the two dancers to quit the show but he approves of the action.

Mrs. Winona Beamer, whose hula troupe lost the dancers, says she fears that a proposed program of Hawaiian pageants intended as a tourist attraction could be impaired by the attack.

But no support for the minister's views could be found among other clergymen.

The Rev. Samuel A. Keala said: "It is not worship but acceptance of tradition and the culture of the past."

"I have seen the Pele hula. Those who participate in it are far from being idol worshippers."

Real Bugs In These Autos

HOUSTON (AP)—Infestation by the destructive Kharrha beetle has caused 226 French automobiles imported by Chrysler to be fumigated at Port Houston.

Chrysler International and Chrysler Motors Corp. filed a $100,000 damage suit in federal court against Alvalda Shipping Co., operators of the British freighter Lodestone as an outgrowth of the beetle attack.

The Lodestone brought the small automobiles here from Rotterdam and Chrysler alleges in its petition that the cars became infested while a part of the Lodestone's cargo.

Aid To War Vets

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower Wednesday signed a bill by Sen. Ralph Yarborough (D-Tex.) permitting about 7,000 Korean War veterans to secure additional education under the GI bill.

Actress Has Tough Time Selling Self

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—"The biggest problem I have is convincing producers I want to act. They wonder where they have heard the name Nancy Valentine. Then they say, 'Oh, yes, she was the girl who was married to the Maharajah of Cooch Behar. She must be so rich that acting is just a hobby.'"

Not so, says the beautiful blonde. She's acting because she needs to support herself and her daughter. And she's making headway: She is now doing her first feature movie.

Nancy is admittedly a publicity-created personality. To the general public—and film producers, too—she is one of those elusive names that pop up in the news and gossip columns.

But can she act?

"I've appeared on hundreds of TV shows," she says, "but producers always ask me, 'What have you done?' It's disheartening."

Between scenes of movie-making Nancy recounted some of her amazing history. She first came to Hollywood from New York as one of the long parade of Howard Hughes discoveries. She grew restless with inactivity and became an acting hopeful for David Selznick and Mervyn Leroy.

Enter the Maharajah. Their alliance is clouded in legend, but it appears that they met in a Hollywood night club, he fell head over turban for her and took her to India as his wife.

"But India was undergoing an economic shakeup," she said. "If the country recognized our marriage, it would have meant the loss of investments that the royalty had in banks overseas. About this time, my relations with the Maharajah were getting a little shaky anyway, so I decided to call it off."

She returned to Hollywood and three years later married wealthy Frederick Tillinghast III. This broke up after two years and one daughter. Now at 31, Nancy Valentine is working hard to make her career catch up with her publicity.

Boy Slayer Is Freed From Jail

HOUSTON (AP) — A youth who testified he shot his cab-driver father to death while the man whipped the boy's mother was released Wednesday.

Alton Eugene Wright, 16, was found innocent of a delinquency charge by a jury.

Young Wright testified he shot his father, Alton Wright Sr., April 15 as the father beat the mother, Mrs. Edna Wright, 34.

TV Station Plans

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Dallas businessman, John H. Freeman, applied to the communications Commission Wednesday for a television station at Wausau, Wis. Freeman, trading as Wausau Telecasting Co., is the only applicant.

Cubans Tense Under Crisis

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Foreign News Analyst

HAVANA (AP)—It can be unwise for a Cuban to be careless about questions nowadays.

He might ask casually of the wrong person: "How do you think things are going these days?" and be told partly: "That's a counter-revolutionary question."

El Jefe Maximo — the topmost leader — of the revolution, Prime Minister Fidel Castro has a strange idea of democracy. To win Cuba seems to represent the purest form of Athenian democracy because the crowds come out at his beck and call to cheer for his leadership.

Castro rails against dictatorships in Latin America, and it is likely he is completely sincere in believing himself a champion of liberty. On the surface there's liberty in Cuba.

A man can talk openly if he chooses. But if he is overheard, he can be in for trouble. A newsman can print what he wants without a censor looking over his shoulder. But when it appears in print he can find himself in hot water.

There seems little prospect for free elections in Cuba for years—nor is there much prospect for formation of real opposition political activity.

Castro, however, does not appear to relate these things to dictatorship. It's just that he does not seem to permit Cubans any doubt about the road they're traveling.

Some aspects of the developing revolution have an ugly look, though on the surface they might appear innocent enough.

For example, there are the "Patrullas Juveniles"—the youth patrols.

Retail 'Wholesale' Exacts A Penalty

By DON HENRY

"Wholesale" retailing as a sales gimmick is now verboten, kaput and just plain against the law.

County Attorney Wayne Burns, commenting on a new state law now in effect, said that the regulation passed by the recent session of the Legislature also prohibits advertising a liquidation sale when such is not the case.

The attorney said that the advertising regulation makes it unlawful for a business to "misrepresent the true nature of its business by use of the words manufacturer, wholesaler, retailer, or others of similar import . . . or to represent itself as selling at wholesale or to use the word wholesale in any form of sale or advertising unless such person . . . is actually selling at wholesale" the items so advertised.

Also, it is "unlawful to misrepresent true ownership for the purpose of carrying on a liquidation sale, auction sale, or other sale which represents that the firm is going out of business." In addition, "any firm which advertises in any manner (concerning) wholesale auction . . . should clearly state the true name and . . . address of the actual owner in any and all advertising."

The regulation also includes fines for failure to comply.

Burns said that the regulation doesn't prevent wholesalers from selling to individuals; it only prevents advertising such business. A "wholesaler" is considered one who sells commodities to others who plan to resale the products, Burns said.
