Soviet Premier and Mrs. Khrushchev pose at the Russian Embassy in Washington with their guests, President and Mrs. Eisenhower and their son and daughter-in-law, Maj. and Mrs. John Eisenhower.

K-Day At U. N., But British There First

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Britain's new disarmament plan seems to drop some of the conditions that have hampered East-West agreement in the past. British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd presented it to the U.N. General Assembly Thursday, thus getting in ahead of Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev who promised to present a Soviet plan during his appearance before the Assembly today.

Lloyd, who spoke in the Assembly's general policy debate, was the first big-power to lay down a plan for discussion in new disarmament talks to start in an evenly balanced East-West committee in Geneva early next year.

City Women Wage War On Husky Rattlesnake

A 4-foot diamond backed rattler, who selected the back steps of the Howard Calhoun residence at 307 1/2 Lorrilla as a snoozing place, made a grave error in judgment. He is very dead as a result. His demise was accomplished by the cooperative efforts of Mrs. Calhoun and Mrs. Fern Smith, who lives at 309 1/2 Lorrilla.

carved into several inert fragments. He wound up minus his rattles, too, which Mrs. Smith thoughtfully whacked off and left with Mrs. Calhoun as a souvenir. Mrs. Calhoun has a small son, Stevie, three. Stevie is spending the present time inside the house until Mrs. Calhoun has time to check out the yard and make sure Mr. Snake has no relatives.

Negro Accused Of Hijacking Cabbie

Charges of robbery with fire-arms have been filed against Earl Don Green, 21, Lubbock. He is accused in a complaint filed by the district attorney in the Justice Court of Walter Grice, 27, of robbing Harold E. Prather, Big Spring taxi driver, of $87 and threatening the driver with a gun.

Grice in the amount of $2,000. He had not made bond Friday. The driver told police he had picked the Negro up as a fare at the 66 Cafe at 2 a.m. Thursday. He was told to drive the man to the 800 block on Pine St. En route, he said the Negro drew a pistol, robbed him of $87 and forced him out of his cab. The hijacker drove away. The cab was later found abandoned.

Oil Firms Sign Pakistan Pact

KARACHI (AP)—Four American and British oil companies signed an agreement today with the Pakistan government to build a 155 million (nearly 33 million dollar) oil refinery at Karachi. The companies are Burmah Oil, Caltex, Shell, and Standard Vacuum. They hold 60 per cent of the shares. The rest will be Pakistani owned.

Niki Loses His Temper In Talk To Capitalists

NEW YORK (AP)—The Soviet Premier, after three full and rugged days of speaking and touring, lost his temper momentarily in public Thursday night. But he quickly recovered his usual aplomb. Khrushchev has centered much of his attention in the Communist-Western debate on the idea that the Soviet system inevitably will overwhelm the Western way. It was in a question-and-answer discussion of the two systems that the stocky, 5-foot-5 Russian suddenly snapped back at his audience.

people allowed to listen to U.S. broadcasts? Why weren't American newspapers and periodicals allowed to circulate freely? Why were American newsmen's dispatches censored? Khrushchev parried: He and President Eisenhower had agreed their discussions would not involve interference in each other's internal affairs. "Answer the question!" somebody shouted, amid groans from the audience. The Premier blew up. His face reddened. "I am an old sparrow, so to say, and you cannot muddle me with your cries. You might not listen to me if you don't want to. But surely you must show enough hospitality not to interrupt. If there is no desire to listen to what I have to say, I will go. I have come here not to beg of anything; I come here as a representative of a great country, a great people, who have made a great revolution, and no cries can deafen, can do away with the great achievement of our people." He offered to answer the ques-

Unions May Approve Fund For Strikers

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—AFL-CIO unions are expected to approve a fund today of some 25 to 30 million dollars per month to aid striking steelworkers. The federation's 135 unions were due to commit their full treasuries, plus a pledge of outright grants, to aid the half-million steelworkers in their 66-day strike. The strike fund is supposed to guarantee that no steel striker or his family goes hungry and that the steel union will have to weaken its demands because of financial shortage.

Already the steel union has pledged a total of over 2 1/2 million dollars from fellow unions. Under the proposal due for adoption today every one of the 12 1/2 million AFL-CIO members is being asked to contribute an hour's pay per week to the steel strike. Should an 80-day court injunction stop the strike temporarily, the union and building would accumulate to help a strike later on. George Meany, AFL-CIO president, looked into the record of the Soviet Union and its Premier, Nikita Khrushchev, in a keynote convention address Thursday. Meany warned Americans to avoid being fooled by the Soviet leader on his current visit to the United States because of what Meany described as an almost unbroken record of deceit and aggression on the part of the Soviet Union.

It marked the first time since Khrushchev's arrival in this country that a leader of Meany's stature has castigated him and the Soviet record in the Hungarian invasion until present day intrusions into Laos, Tibet and India.

Meany charged that the Soviets under Khrushchev are full of deceit and ready to trigger a devastating war machine. He said Americans should not be fooled by peace protests that will hide actual efforts to spread Communist slavery.

MOSCOW (AP)—The Soviet people learned for the first time today that Nikita Khrushchev intends to visit Red China after his American tour. The disclosure came in Pravda and Izvestia accounts of the Soviet Premier's news conference at the National Press Club in Washington Wednesday. Khrushchev, in answer to a question, told of his impending trip to Peking for the 10th anniversary of the Chinese Communist revolution.

Neither the Soviet press nor Moscow radio had mentioned the trip before, though it was no secret in the West. Visits FDR Grave HYDE PARK, N.Y. (AP)—Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev made a brief, 37-minute tour today of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt's estate here, on a pilgrimage to visit the grave of the Soviet Union's strong wartime ally.

LAST VANGUARD

Satellite In Orbit, Revives Prestige

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—The Vanguard III satellite soared into orbit today and revived sagging U.S. prestige in the space exploration field. The 100 - pound satellite was boosted aloft by the last of the Vanguard rockets. The Vanguard, once the scapegoat for American space failures, thus ended its hard luck history on a triumphant note.

The success followed two straight American space flops. Just 14 hours before, a Thor-Able rocket fizzled in an attempt to place a 265 - pound navigation satellite in orbit. On Wednesday, a Jupiter missile carrying mice and frogs on a space flight exploded 1,000 feet above its launching pad.

The flops came while Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev visited this country, basking in the limelight of Sunday's successful Soviet moon strike. The satellite was the third put up in 11 tries by the Vanguard. It includes the 50-pound payload and the 50-pound third-stage rocket, which remained attached. Its job was to measure the earth's magnetic field, solar X-rays, micrometeorite bombardment and temperatures inside and outside the satellite. Shaped like an ice cream cone, Vanguard III is made of magnesium and fiberglass. It consists of a 20-inch sphere with a 26-inch tube extending from it. The tube is tapered from 6 to 2 1/2 inches in diameter.

In the tip of the cone is a magnetometer to measure the magnetic field and help locate pockets of dangerous radiation. The information may help man draw a map of the safest route to the moon and other planets.

Nine hours after the launching the National Aeronautics and Space Administration announced in Washington that radio signals from the satellite were coming in loud and clear. On the basis of information received so far, NASA said Vanguard III is following a path that takes it 2,329 miles from earth at its most distant point, and 319 miles away at its closest point. The orbit is inclined 33 degrees north and south of the equator.

As it swings down to the low point of its orbit, something equivalent to a downhill slide, it is traveling 18,567 m.p.h. At the top of the orbit, its speed is 12,631 m.p.h. NASA officials estimated the satellite would remain aloft for 30 to 40 years. They said its radio equipment should operate for about three months.

COLUMBIA, S.C. (AP)—Robert Perez has arrived in Columbia—seven worn-out tires and 11,000 miles from Santa Fe, Argentina, where he started his bicycle tour 19 months ago. Perez, 23, says he pedaled all the way, except for a one-day boat trip around headhunters in Central America. He plans to go on to New York, stopping in Washington "to shake hands with Mr. Eisenhower."

COAHOMA — Burglars hit three Coahoma business establishments Friday morning. Their loot, as best could be determined, was $100 in cash and a box of cigars. The loot was taken from the Highway Cafe, the Miller Cafe and the Texaco Service Station, all on the street which fronts on U. S. 80. Sheriff Miller Harris and Deputy Sheriff Tommy Cole were summoned to the scene at 5 a.m. Harris said that the prowlers broke a hump from the door of the service station and from the Highway Cafe. A front door glass was shattered at the entrance to the other place. The front door of the service station was forced and a back door at the Highway Cafe. Harris was informed that a passerby probably saw the burglar at about the time he committed his acts. This motorist told officers that he saw a man walking near the three places at 3:30 a.m. Later

Vanguard I, the grapefruit-size satellite launched March 17, 1958, is expected to whirl about the earth for 2,000 years.

Vanguard II—the size of a basketball—is expected to stay aloft 200 years. As to the Vanguard series, Dr. John Hagen, project director, pointed out in Washington that the program originally called for the launching of only one satellite during the International Geophysical Year. Instead the 110-million-dollar program resulted in three successful satellites.

NASA said the new moonlet probably would not be visible to the naked eye and would be hard to pick out in the heavens even with binoculars. In another development Thursday in the U.S. space program, the rocket plane X15 made its first powered flight at Edwards Air Force Base, Calif. Pilot Scott Crossfield rode the stub-winged craft down at 1,400 miles an hour on a 10-minute flight from 38,000 feet. It was launched from a bomber at that height. It is hoped the X15 will penetrate 100 miles into the sky and hit a top speed of 4,000 m.p.h. later this year.

BOX SCORE ON MOONS

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—Vanguard III is the 12th satellite placed in orbit by the United States in 20 months. The others were Vanguard I and II; three Army Explorers; four Air Force Discoverers; the Atlas "talking" satellite, and Explorer VI, the "paddlewheel" satellite.

Previous satellites still circling the earth are both Vanguard, two Army Explorers, two Discoverers and the paddlewheel. Russia has successfully orbited three Sputniks. The only one now aloft is Sputnik III. In addition, Russia's Mecha and America's Pioneer IV are artificial planets orbiting the sun. Sunday, the Soviets achieved the most spectacular space feat to date. They hit the moon with a rocket.

This motorist told officers that he saw a man walking near the three places at 3:30 a.m. Later this same man entered a parked car and drove off toward Big Spring. The loot at Miller's consisted of $80. The service station netted $12 and an undetermined amount of cash was taken from the Highway Cafe. Harris reported that fingerprints in the raided places were vague and smudged and would probably be of no help in identifying the burglar if he is apprehended.

4th Straight Month For Flow Slash

AUSTIN (AP)—The Railroad Commission slashed the October oil allowable by 51,536 barrels a day and fixed the statewide allowable for the fourth straight month on a 9-day production pattern.

The daily allowable will be 2,714,862 barrels daily next month. A majority of the major oil companies recommended an increase because of the increased demand for oil products during the coming fall and winter months.

Dallas independent oil producer E. L. Wilson, speaking for producers in that area, said he came to the monthly prorating hearing believing now was the time to increase the production. "But after listening to testimony here today I can't see any justification at all for an increase. We should hold the line where it is until the stocks are worked out," he said. "It would be better to absorb a small decrease than to take on an increase."

Chairman Ernest O. Thompson reported the supply of crude oil products is 58,300,000 barrels above the desired level. However, the figures show crude oil alone is nearly 5 million barrels below what the desired level. Gasoline and distillates are in high excess, he said.

The state's largest oil buying company, Humble Oil Co., nominated an 11-day pattern along with Texaco. Charles Shaver of Houston said for Humble: "We don't believe we can get the oil we need on less than 10 days." He indicated the company would have to buy on nine days a total of 119,000 barrels a day of spot purchases to fill its need of 418,565 barrels a day.

Commissioner William J. Murray told the oil men that Texas is losing its share of the market and is producing less of its reserves than other states. He said a majority of the companies nominated an increase and if the commission did not grant the increase "They can say we missed our chance to get back our share of the market. On the other hand, if we grant the increase it will be ground up into products and we will have a continually increasing amount of products."

Wilson said he knew of no other way to reduce the excessive stocks without cutting off the source of supply. Several oil company representatives hedged on their recommendations and despite pleas from Thompson for a firm nomination for either a 9 or 10 pattern refused the request.

"That's a lot of assistance to this commission," Commissioner Olin Culbertson joshed one representative. "We'd like something definite. This is your industry we are required to regulate."

Fred Dever of Shell said "It makes no difference to us" whether 9 or 10 days is ordered. Dave Young of Sinclair nominated 10 days, but, under questioning, said if he were on the commission he "probably would say 9 days."

J. C. Edwards of Texaco and J. G. Coates of Gulf nominated 11 and 10 days respectively but said the nominations are not recommendations for industry. "I do not want to presume to speculate on the industry needs. I am here to recommend for Humble's needs and I wouldn't want to usurp your position of power," Shaver said.

Thompson said he would waive that presumption but Shaver replied that "it would be unwise for me to speculate" on a production pattern.

Texas wells will be closed 22 days next month under the order. Nominations by companies: Indiana 231,000 barrels, Atlantic, 85,470, Magnolia 228,400, Cities Service 89,065, Sun 114,513, Shell 160,900, Texaco 202,000, Sinclair 130,200, Gulf 223,700, Standard of Texas 42,300, Phillips 132,908 and Humble 418,565 barrels.

Bullfight Fiesta Is Off For Good

LIMA, Peru (AP)—The annual bullfight festival in the streets of Santo Tomas Thursday brought this score: Four amateur bullfighters killed and 15 injured. Today authorities of the Andes Mountain village announced the festival is off forever. "All those killed and hurt were 'totally drunk,' a police announcement said. In the festival—a tradition for a century or more—the bulls were turned loose in the plaza and anyone could join in the fight.

K. Still Hasn't Come Down To Our Level

By SAUL PETT
NEW YORK (AP) — So how come Mrs. Nikita Khrushchev got tickets to "The Music Man" while us loyal, 100 per cent Americans are still waiting?

New York had an air raid siren test shortly after Khrushchev arrived. Lousy timing. Was the town ever safer from attack?

Maybe Mr. K. doesn't understand Americans but Mrs. K. is beginning to just like your Aunt Millie from Iowa. Mrs. K. said the New York pace was making her "dizzy."

Son Sergei marveled at our skyscrapers but added, "I would not like to live in such high houses."

Mrs. Robert F. Wagner, wife of the mayor, gave Mrs. K. a key to the city but nobody gave one to Mr. K. How's he gonna get back in or isn't that a crucial question?

Khrushchev said the Soviets made the earth a little lighter and the moon a little heavier by sending a rocket up there. He neglected to say he made this country heavier still. The total weight of the luggage brought by the Khrushchev party adds up to 25,000 pounds.

What happened to all that fine talk about showing Khrushchev the way average Americans live? So far, he has traveled only by Cadillac, presidential helicopter or private train. So far, he has eaten all his meals in the White House, Blair House, the Soviet Embassy, the Commodore and that modest little place on Park Avenue called the Waldorf-Astoria. So far, his only connection with average Americans is in living the way they'd like to.

behind-the-scenes move at the McAllen meeting to unseat Mrs. Randolph next year. She leads the party's liberal faction. The conservatives and middle-of-the-road factions led by Gov. Price Daniel, Sen. Lyndon Johnson and House Speaker Sam Rayburn control the party machinery. Action to oust Mrs. Randolph must be recommended by the June state convention and confirmed by the national convention. The state executive committee lacks power to remove her.

Connelly was reported in McAllen for a meeting of the State Democratic Executive Committee this weekend. Mrs. Randolph said: "I am surprised to find that chairman Ed Connelly of the Texas State Democratic Executive is not attending the conference of Democratic state chairmen and vice chairmen in Washington called by the Democratic National Committee."

"This is a most important working conference of party officials interested in the Democratic party and the campaign of 1960. Chairman Connelly called a meeting of the Texas State Democratic Executive Committee in McAllen on the same date of this conference after he had notice of it from the Democratic National Committee."

"I can only surmise that Mr. Connelly is not interested in working with the Democratic party nationally but only in fighting honest Democrats in Texas."

Sen. Ralph Yarborough of Texas earlier spoke against what he called "back stage scheming to oust Mrs. Randolph as national committeewoman."

Not Justified
SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — Alton Joe Bryant, charged with luring $4,000 to $6,000 from his boss' bank account, told the judge he was perfectly justified. "Because I was not receiving my full salary as agreed upon," Bryant explained, "I felt I should make an allowance for my income."

But the judge ordered him to prison anyway.

Models Killer To Die Today
SAN QUENTIN, Calif. (AP) — Harvey M. Glatman, who photographed three young models before raping and murdering them on a Southern California desert, goes to a gas chamber death today. Glatman, 31, made no effort to delay his execution for crimes Superior Court Judge John A. Hewicker called "so revolting there is only one penalty—the death penalty."

After hearing Judge Hewicker's sentence in San Diego Dec. 17, Glatman matter-of-factly told reporters, "It's about what I wanted."

Glatman, a former Los Angeles TV repairman and amateur photographer, was captured when a fourth intended young woman victim fought him off and jumped from his car. He rejected a jury trial and pleaded guilty before Judge Hewicker to the rape slayings of Ruth Rita Mercado, 24, and Shirley Ann Bridgford, 24, both Los Angeles models, in San Diego County.

He admitted also raping and strangling Judith Ann Dull, 19, West Hollywood model, in Riverside County.

On the pretext he was photographing them for crime magazines, Glatman bound and gagged his victims. He raped them and then they were slowly strangled.

Mrs. K. Is Biggest Show On Broadway

By FRANCES LEWINE
NEW YORK (AP) — Nina Khrushchev was the show on Broadway Thursday night. She went to see "The Music Man." A crowd of some 500 people stood around the Majestic Theater for hours to see the wife of the Soviet Premier. Robert Preston, star of "The Music Man," said after Mrs. Khrushchev had walked out two minutes before the finale: "She spoiled my good laugh, but I guess nobody in the world has anything against Mrs. Khrushchev."

Mrs. Khrushchev will have her second night in a row on her own when she sees "My Fair Lady" tonight while her husband continues his round of official dinners.

From the tourist in from the West Coast to actresses who risked missing cues in their own nearby show, Mrs. Khrushchev held a fascination. She apparently was fascinated and entertained herself, despite the fatigue of her whirlwind first two days in the United States.

Seated in the seventh row of the orchestra in a plush red seat second from the aisle, she may not have understood the plot of the musical set in the 1912 era, but she was laughing right along. A stage manager, watching anxiously for reaction from the famous guest, said Mrs. Khrushchev smiled, laughed and clapped her hands at the show's rollicking hit song "76 Trombones."

At the intermission, the spotlight turned from the stage to Mrs. Khrushchev and her two stepdaughters Rada and Julia, who had come with all the guests from a private dinner given in their honor in the elegant, white-carpeted Waldorf Tower apartment of Mrs. Henry Cabot Lodge, wife of the U.S. ambassador to the United Nations.

The Khrushchevs remained in their seats for the 15-minute break, surrounded by security guards. Few in the audience went into the lobby for the usual refreshments of smoke, preferring to get a glimpse of the Premier's wife. Asked if she would pose for photographers, Mrs. Khrushchev begged off, saying she was too tired.

Then with a broad smile, she added: "If it were Mr. Khrushchev, he would be agreeable."

Robert Dowling, president of the American National Theater and Academy, who reported the conversation, said she was asked if she were too tired to stay for the remainder of the 2½-hour show. Rada and Julia answered for her. They said they would all stay.

Mrs. Khrushchev, venturing out on her own in public for the first time, got a taste of what unfavorable crowd reaction, hitherto directed to her husband, is like. There was applause as she arrived at the theater—but also a loud boo.

Satellite, Rocket Had A Collision

WASHINGTON (AP) — The third stage of the Vanguard II rocket had a minor collision with the satellite it launched last Feb. 17, space officials disclosed today. Dr. John Townsend of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration said fortunately the collision during separation did not harm the orbit of the 20.74-pound moonlet.

Townsend said there always was such a collision danger, and for that reason the Vanguard III satellite that was launched today remained attached to the third stage of the rocket, and both pieces went into orbit together.

Labor Prober's Death Investigated

GEORGETOWN, (AP)—An investigation continued today into the death of a federal labor investigator, Don P. Manning of Austin.

Manning, 50, collapsed and died in a field near Bartlett Wednesday while investigating reports children were picking cotton in violation of child labor laws. Sheriff Henry Matysek of Williamson County said Manning had a cut on his head and severe bruises just below his eyes.

"I don't know if it's foul play or not and we will have to wait on information from an autopsy to say," Matysek said.

DEAR ABBY

KEEP HIM HAPPY

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: My husband isn't what you'd call "handsome." He is middle-aged. He is a bus driver and, Abby, I don't think you know how crazy over bus drivers some women are.

Just because bus drivers wear uniforms women fall all over them like they were soldiers or something. My husband says half the women on his run are mental cases. They have tried to tip him, hand him little bits of paper with their telephone numbers on them, and one woman even pinched him. I am plain looking, Abby. Should I beg my husband to take another job or should I let him stay on that bus with all those crazy women? BUS DRIVER'S WIFE

DEAR WIFE: Men who meet the public (in uniform or out) will be tipped, tempted and pinched occasionally. Give him lots of love and trust him. When a man is happy at home, he doesn't know Brigitte Bardot from Ma Kettle.

DEAR ABBY: I am 50, but nobody takes me for a day over 40. After 24 years of marriage, my husband decided he wanted to change wives. So I didn't stand in his way. It was hard to take with two children, but I lived through it. Babies love me and there never was dog who wouldn't lick my hand. Old men adore me. Any man over 70 can get interested in me in a minute, but I can't seem to attract a man near my own age. I have money in the bank, nice clothes, a good steady income and my children are married. In plain words, Abby, I want a man YOUNG YET

DEAR YOUNG: The only trouble with a woman who "wants a man" is that everybody knows it. Especially the men. If you live North—go South. If you live East—go West. Change your base of operation and broaden your contacts and you might change your luck.

DEAR ABBY: Would you tell me if I'm right or wrong. If a couple is having a baby, when the time comes for the woman to go to the hospital should she ask her husband who is sleeping right beside her to take her? Or should she call up her mother and ask her mother to take her?

This is our first baby, Abby, and I have always been a good husband. But I was never so hurt in all my life as I was when my wife said she'd rather have her mother go with her to have her baby.

That isn't all yet. When it came time for my wife and baby to come home, my wife called her mother and had her bring her home. What can I do about this situation?

DEAR LEFT: You married a mama's girl and there is nothing you can do about it. Just bear your burden in silence and pray that your wife grows up before she grows old.

DEAR ABBY: I am the 12-year-old girl who wrote you about my problem over a month ago. I didn't think you'd answer my letter, but you did.

My mother opened your letter because she thought she ought to know what is going on in my life. When she read your letter she asked me why I wrote to you instead of asking her to help me with my problems.

I started to cry and told her I didn't feel like telling her anything because she couldn't keep a secret from my aunts or anybody.

Right then and there, Abby, my mother promised me she would never tell anything I told her. And she has kept her promise, too. Thank you, Dear Abby. I will remember you in my prayers. Love, SECRET ADMIRER

Rough Celebration

MEXICO CITY (AP)—At least 15 persons died and a thousand were injured here during Wednesday's Independence Day Celebrations, press surveys showed today. Shootings, stabbings and traffic accidents were blamed for the deaths.

Right-Wing French Seek Army Support

ALGIERS (AP)—Right-wing French settlers today made a bid for army support to block Gen. Charles de Gaulle's plan to put Algeria's future up to a vote that could bring independence from France.

But the right-wingers appeal fell far short of rousing the enthusiasm of last year's May 13 revolt which brought down the Fourth French Republic and paved the way for De Gaulle's return to power.

De Gaulle as president of France has offered Algeria three choices once the five-year rebellion is squashed— independence, full integration with France, or internal autonomy.

But he warned that independence would lead to a throat-cutting civil war in Algeria and eventual Communist dictatorship.

De Gaulle's program brought a favorable response in Allied capitals where the Algerian rebellion has tended to undermine the North Atlantic Alliance.

In Washington, President Eisenhower called the plan a statesmanlike move. Britain welcomed it as "a statement of policy of the highest importance." The West German government saw a "possibility that the tragic Algerian conflict will eventually be solved."

The right-wing settlers sought to catch the army's ear with the tune: "Why fight it sooner or later your victory is to be wasted by popular suffrage?"

While the appeal found some

THE MASTERPLAYERS OF LUGANO, conducted by Richard Schumacher, are actually concert soloist musicians banded together to present an exciting quality of ensemble playing. One of the features of this concert is the appearance of two celebrated virtuos, Julian von Karolyi, pianist, and Denes Zsigmondy, violinist.

FRED WARING And The Pennsylvanians in "Hi-Fi Holiday," his newest, greatest show, the music America loves best, gains new life and color . . . those melodies whose special qualities make them the classics of yesterday, today and tomorrow.

JOSE GRECO and Company of Spanish Dancers present an exciting mixture of dance, recitation, and song. The show is rich in dances performed like a journey through old Spain. Greco is one of the few great artists who can tolerate having important dancers around him.

HORNIBROOK AND WEBB, Duo-Pianists, are former soloists with Fred Waring and their concerts have been enthusiastically received by audiences wherever they play. Their repertoire consists of music of all types.

Gotham Is Brooding Sphinx For Khrushy

By RELMAN MORIN
NEW YORK (AP)—New York was a brooding Sphinx as it looked at Nikita Khrushchev.

No ticker tape showered down for the Soviet leader Thursday. But there were no mob scenes either.

Waves of hostility smote him at some points. Waves of applause and laughter welled up around him at others.

Standing on Park Avenue, one man clapped as the closed black limousine swept past. Another booed as hard as he could. And a woman said "I wouldn't have stayed if I'd known you couldn't see him."

The blood-red Soviet flag with its hammer and sickle floated beside the Stars and Stripes on one hotel and a man said, "That's a good sign."

Outside another hotel hostile protesters held up placards that said "Khrushchev, why not get out of here?" and "You can reach the moon but you can't reach America." One, bearing Khrushchev's photograph said, "Wanted for murder."

So it went all day, wherever Khrushchev went.

In the streets, apart from the sporadic clapping for Khrushchev, the atmosphere was eerie, almost sinister in other places, the feeling was like that in Washington when he arrived there—mainly curiosity.

"You can't figure 'em today," said a crowd-wise mounted policeman. "They don't look like they'll get out of hand, but you can't tell."

At that moment, a siren wailed up the street. It was only a fire captain's car trying to move through the frozen, bumper-to-bumper traffic. Nevertheless, the sound brought people surging toward the point where pickets were waving their placards. They in turn began shouting and pressing against the wooden barricades, penning them on the sidewalks.

When the fireman's car got through silence settled over the crowd again.

This took place in front of the hotel where Khrushchev gave his luncheon speech.

In the ballroom, Khrushchev stood up before a large, watchful, generally skeptical audience — one that had spontaneously burst into singing the "Star Spangled Banner" as he entered.

But when he got going applause followed the translation of remark after remark. And he got some laughs. The audience literally exploded when Khrushchev looked at Mayor Robert F. Wagner and said, with a sly grin: "I realize that you invited me here to see what sort of man this Khrushchev is."

Then after the artfully timed pause he said, "Well, here I am."

The fact is that Khrushchev has a magic ability to transform the public image of a dangerous man with bloody hands into a personal image of a clever, amusing, down-to-earth and rather plausible man.

Most of the New Yorkers on the streets were reacting to the public image of Khrushchev, symbolized by leaflets bearing a cartoon in which he extends a bloody hand to President Eisenhower and holds a knife behind his back.

But those who listened to him and caught the full force of his personality at close range saw the image he wanted them to see.

GM Holding Price Line On 1960 Models

DETROIT (AP)—General Motors Corp. is holding the 1959 price line on all its 1960 regular passenger car models.

The corporation announced today factory list prices on its five models — Chevrolet, Buick Oldsmobile, Cadillac and Pontiac — will not be increased over 1959 GM's announcement followed earlier reports that all of the auto industry's Big Three — GM, Ford and Chrysler — would hold the 1959 price line.

Ford and Chrysler have yet to announce their 1960 model prices.

Ward's Reports, a trade publication said Thursday a holding of the price line of last year would be the car industry's answer to inflation.

The factory list price is the price of the car as delivered to the dealer. It does not include dealer charges or taxes.

GM list prices range from $2,056 for the lowest-priced Chevrolet to $8,950 for top Cadillac luxury car.

The prices showed moderate reductions from 1959 in some instances.

The announced price ranges on the various models (with 1959 ranges in parentheses):

- Chevrolet — $2,056 two-door 6-cylinder sedan to $2,739 four-door 8-cylinder sedan ($2,066 to $2,737)
- Pontiac — $2,390 sports sedan to $3,175 convertible coupe ($2,390 to $3,184)
- Oldsmobile — $2,574 two-door sedan to $3,975 convertible coupe ($2,574 to $3,975)
- Buick — $2,500 two-door sedan to $3,885 four-door hard top ($2,500 to $3,885)
- Cadillac — $4,475 coupe to $8,950 limousine (not given).

Eds in above Pontiac listing $2,390 is correct.

Wink Rites For Stanton Woman

STANTON (Sp) — Mrs. Laura Bell Kizzier, 37, died of a heart ailment at 3:54 p.m. Thursday in the Physicians Hospital here.

She had returned to her home from the hospital two days ago after treatment for a heart condition she had had for several years. Thursday afternoon she had another attack.

Mrs. Kizzier was born in Weatherford July 17, 1902 and had been here for the past 6 1/2 years as a bookkeeper for Dr. Pepper Bottling Co. She was married on July 14, 1936, to H. K. Kizzier in Jal. N. M., and he survives her.

Other survivors are a brother, W. A. Riggan, Sarasota, Fla.; a niece, Mrs. Charles Riggan, and a great-niece, Diana Riggan, of Wink. Services will be 3 p.m. Sunday at the First Baptist Church in Stanton, officiating. Burial will be in the Kermit Cemetery, beside the graves of other members of her family. Arrington Funeral Home of Stanton is in charge of arrangements.

Officials To Attend Meeting

County Judge Ed Carpenter, in company with Commissioners Ralph White and L. J. Davidson, will leave at 7 a.m. Sunday by air for Galveston.

They are to attend the three-day convention of the Texas County Commissioners Assn. Casden is flying the Howard County men to the meeting. They will return at 5:30 p.m. Tuesday.

Neither P. O. Hughes nor Hudson Landers, the other members of the commission, will be able to make the trip.

Monday meeting of the commissioners has been cancelled but the court will convene at 10 a.m. Wednesday, Carpenter said.

Two City Girls Named As Pledges

Communism Just Doesn't Work, Society Discovers

AMANA, Iowa (AP) — Take it from members of the Amana Society, communism just doesn't work.

People of the German Pietist sect many years ago formed a community here of living here in which everything was owned by the society, everyone worked for the common good, meals were served at community tables, and no one needed money.

There was a big difference from the Soviet brand of communism, however. The Amana Society is based on a strong belief in God.

Chinese Army Now Led By Policeman

By NATE POLOWETZKY
TOKYO (AP)—The military reshuffle in Red China places Mao Tse-tung's army under the direct control of a policeman. It may mean a tougher domestic policy.

Some observers here believe the changes had little or nothing to do with Communist China's external affairs.

The reshuffle was connected with army opposition to the revolutionary communist system and the industrial "leap forward" program.

Many parts of the huge economic program have been under the supervision of the military. There had been unconfirmed reports that the soldiers complained of the manpower strains on the army.

In the reshuffle, Marshal Peng

Policemen Practice Shooting

The firearms school for the Big Spring police department closed Thursday with the officers getting actual training in target practice. Each officer fired 100 rounds at targets at the Western Sportsman Club Thursday. This firing was preceded by three days of classroom work at the police station as well as "dry" firing. Leo Robertson, firearms instructor for the Dallas office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, was instructor for the school. On the firing line are, from right, J. D. Campbell, Airman Wade, Sgt. Stanley Rogard, J. C. Mole, Jim Wade, Sam Roberts, James Baker, Elbert Ryan, L. D. Adams, R. E. Dugan, Sgt. Loyd Coppedge and Robert Smith. Several Webb AFB airmen also attended the school.

Officials Baffled On Exchange Talk

WASHINGTON (AP)—U. S. officials were baffled today by Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's charge that the U. S. State Department is hindering exchange of delegations between the two countries.

Urging an even greater flow of visitors between the nations, Khrushchev told a New York audience Thursday. The State Department has of late become somewhat afraid of this exchange of delegations."

The department itself issued a statement saying Khrushchev has been misinformed.

President Eisenhower told questions at a news conference that he did not know of anyone in the State Department who wanted to curtail the program. To the contrary, he said, he and his associates want to see it enlarged.

Negotiations have been under way between the department and the Soviet Foreign Office for several months on setting up a new program for the next two years to carry on the swapping of visits by scientific, industrial, educational and other groups which began in 1958.

Formally, the State Department declared the United States "has expressed its desire to increase and broaden exchanges and contacts between the Soviet Union and the United States and it is hoped that the current negotiations will lead to this goal."

Privately, officials were clearly annoyed by Khrushchev's comments, and wondered about their purpose.

Some thought Khrushchev might be trying to win some further concessions in the new program now being negotiated, but no one professed to know what he wanted.

The State Department noted that this country already is ahead of

K. Sees Stars But Some Can't See Him

By JAMES BACON
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev will eat snub and quaff California wine with scores of world-famous movie stars Saturday, but he probably will recognize few, if any, of them.

Ironically, one that he might familiarly spot is Johnny Weissmuller. But the onetime screen Tarzan didn't rate an invitation to the plush luncheon at 20th Century-Fox studios.

Until a recent movie cultural exchange, the only American movies shown in the Soviet Union were of prewar vintage with most of them Weissmuller's Tarzan pictures.

Another big favorite among Soviet moviegoers was former child star Deanna Durbin, who now lives near Paris.

A fan mail service reports that Weissmuller is the only actor in town who gets sizable mail from the Soviet Union.

Cary Grant and Bob Hope both reported that they walked the streets of Moscow unrecognized last year.

Hope, along with Gary Cooper, Glenn Ford, Danny Kaye, David Niven, Kim Novak, Gregory Peck, June Allyson, Leslie Caron, Maurice Chevalier, Rita Hayworth and Richard Burton are but some of the names who have accepted.

Zsa Zsa Gabor, who appeared at Hungarian freedom fighters' benefits after her native country's short-lived revolution, sent an acceptance.

There were some turndowns by militant anti-Communists in Hollywood such as Ronald Reagan, Ward Bond and Adolphe Menjou.

Bing Crosby also turned down his invitation but Crosby never attends public functions.

After the luncheon, the Soviet leader will tour the set of the movie "Can Can."

Frank Sinatra will sing "C'est Magnifique" and then introduce Chevalier, who also will sing.

Khrushchev, a lover of the dance, probably will get a bigger kick out of seeing Shirley MacLaine and Juliet Prowse, two beautiful-legged actresses, lead 16 shapely chorines in the famous "can can" dance.

Man Charged With Burglary

Steve Calderon Tarver, whose parade along West 3rd at 4 a.m. Wednesday, juggling a case of beer aroused the suspicions of Miller Harris, sheriff, and Deputy Tommy Cole, has been charged with burglary of the El Rancho Cafe.

Harris had been set by Walter Grace, justice of the peace, in the amount of $1,000. Mendoza had not posted bond Friday.

Harris said the man was carrying the case of beer when he and Cole interrogated him. He claimed, Harris said, that he had bought the beer during the afternoon and had hidden it in the alley. Harris said he laid his hand on the beer and found it cold as ice.

Check showed that the El Rancho Cafe had been broken into, a case of beer stolen and a 22 rifle was missing. Santos Mendoza is the owner of the cafe.

Two Thefts

Police checked two theft reports Thursday.

Rea Greenwood, 1206 Virginia, told officers of the theft of a bicycle from Goliad Junior High School. Charles Herrin reported two hub caps taken from his car parked at the football stadium.

5 Accidents Are Reported

Police officers investigated five accidents Thursday with no injuries or major damage reported.

Lloyd Wayne Coppedge, 1906 Morrison, and Richard Barry Clark, 700 Tulane, were involved in a wreck at 11th Pl. and Knowles. Gregory Verel Gossel, 545 Hillside, and Ethel Wade Thieme, Coahoma, ran together at Edwards and Lancaster.

William J. Sheppard, 1210 W. 3rd, and Charles Leslie Wilson, Sterling City Rt., were drivers in collision at Scurry and 22nd. Freddie Fremont Wilson, Gail H. and Prentis Reeves Brannon, 3700 Dixie, were in collision at 18th and Gregg.

A car belonging to Fisher P. Tynes, 900 Lancaster, rolled down the hill on Lancaster when the brakes failed. There was no accident involved.

Air Commander Relieved Following Iceland Incident

WASHINGTON (AP) — Brig. Gen. Gilbert Pritchard has been relieved of his command in Iceland in the wake of an airport incident that raised Icelandic feelings against American forces there.

Pritchard was commander of the air base at Reykjavik where two Icelandic officials were reported to have been forced by guards to lie in mud puddles.

The action was taken at the request of the Icelandic government, an Air Force spokesman said in answer to questions.

Icelandic Ambassador Thor Thors had made a formal protest to the State Department.

He said American guards at the base had forced the two officials at gunpoint to lie in puddles of water for 10 minutes and threatened to shoot if they opened their mouths.

The contention of the guard was that the two officials had entered a restricted area.

Niki On Video

WASHINGTON (AP) — Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev will wind up his American tour with a nationwide television speech a few hours before he takes off for his return trip to the Soviet Union Sept. 27.

A news conference will precede the speech.

Midland Firm Plans Wildcat Location For Martin County

Great Western Drilling Co. of Midland reported a projected wildcat exploration for the Ellenburger in Martin County this morning.

The project is No. 1 Allen and will go to 12,500 feet.

This project is about a quarter mile northwest of Tidewater No. 1, Dickinson, an Ellenburger discovery completed in 1951 at 12,090 feet. It is about eight miles northwest of Stanton.

For No. 4 Harris, Dawson County project, recovered 1,200 feet of new oil, 1,500 feet of gas-cut water blanket, 30 feet of heavy oil and 150 feet of new oil below the sub on a drillstem test reported this morning. Operator plans to core just below the perforated zone.

The test is in the Fusselman formation pegged at perforations between 12,081-148 feet. It was a four hour test and the bottom of the hole is at 12,148 feet in dolomite.

The Theiss Drilling Co. has completed the No. 3 Lasseret as a Turner-Gregory (Clear Fork) pool project in Mitchell County with an initial pumping potential of 66.38 barrels per day potential. There is 9 per cent water and gravity of the production is 26 degrees.

Garza

$100 Fines In Triplicate For This Defendant

William R. Anderson was assessed fines totaling $300 this morning on five different charges arising out of an affray during the night at Gamboa's Cafe in the 300 block of NW 3rd on the north side of the city.

In City Court this morning, Judge Grover Cunningham ruled him guilty on a drunkenness charge, a disturbance charge and a charge of destroying private property. On the three counts, the fines totaled $100.

He was transferred to the county authorities where he pleaded guilty to two other charges. One was assaulting a police officer and the other was possession of a prohibited weapon, a pistol. He pleaded guilty to both counts. County Judge Ed Carpenter handed down fines of $100 plus costs on each of the charges. Night Sgt. Loyd Coppedge was the officer named as the victim in the first charge.

Giants Hold Lead By Beating Braves

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

It's now or "wait 'til next year" for the Los Angeles Dodgers in the National League pennant race.

They open a three-game series at San Francisco tonight tied with Milwaukee's repulsed Braves for second place, two games behind the Giants. And the Giants have the edge.

Each of the three contenders has eight games left—but for each game the Braves or Dodgers lose, the Giants can lose one more and still beat 'em. If either the Braves or Dodgers win five of the eight, the Giants need only .500 ball to take it.

That's exactly the way the three have played their last eight games—the Giants winning four and losing four, and Milwaukee and Los Angeles each 5-3.

With Willie Mays leading the charge—driving in five runs and going 4-for-4—the Giants chased Warren Spain and blocked the Braves' bid for a first-place tie Thursday. They blasted Milwaukee 13-6 for a split in the two-game series. Los Angeles scrambled back into a share of second, beating Cincinnati 4-3 after home runs by Duke Snider and Junior Gilliam built just enough of a cushion to hold off a two-run rally in the ninth by the Reds.

The Dodgers, facing a "must" chore of taking at least two of the three games at San Francisco open behind right-hander Don Drysdale (16-13) against southpaw Johnny Antonelli (19-9). Milwaukee is idle, opening a two-game series at Philadelphia Thursday night against the Phils.

No games were scheduled in the American League Thursday.

In the other NL games, Pittsburgh whipped St. Louis 7-0 behind a four-hitter by Harvey Hadix, and the Phils beat Chicago 5-2.

Ed Mathews drove in all the Braves' runs, with a pair of homers and a sacrifice fly, but the Giants had it tucked away before he started slugging. Spain (19-15) faced only four men, didn't retire any and left after only 18 pitches as the Giants scored three runs in the first inning.

Mays singled the first run home, added a three-run homer (No. 21) in the fourth off Bob Rush and singled in another in a three-run seventh. Jim Davenport, who drove in four runs, and Ed Bressoud also homered for the Giants, who swung for 14 hits off six pitchers.

Jack Sanford (15-12) won it. Sad Sam Jones mopped up when Sanford was lifted for a pinch-hitter after giving up Mathews' second home run in the seventh. Snider's 22nd homer, good for three runs in the first inning against loser Bob Purkey (12-17), followed Gilliam's leadoff walk and a single by Charlie Neal. Gilliam then scored the clincher with his third homer in the eighth inning. Off Brooks Lawrence, Danny McDevitt (10-8) won it.

Coe Looks Like Leading Amateur

By SKIPPER PATRICK
COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP)—Charlie Coe, the fantastic golfer from Oklahoma City, contends a fellow has to have a "bunch of luck" to win matches in the U. S. Amateur Tournament, especially when visibility is near zero.

Coe, defending champion and a two-time winner, meets young Dudley Wysong, McKinney, Tex., today in a 36-hole semifinal test on the 7,010-yard, par 71 Broadmoor course.

The Oklahoma oil broker said his fifth round and quarterfinal victories Thursday were achieved under "the most miserable weather conditions" he's ever experienced.

Fog, rain and a chilling wind frequently interrupted the two rounds on the mile-high course.

Coe recalled his first national crown came in "lousy weather" at Rochester, Minn., back in 1949.

The Coe-Wysong winner will meet the victor of a match involving Jack Nicklaus, Columbus, Ohio, and Gene Andrews, Whittier, Calif., for the title in a 36-hole match Saturday.

Coe was 5 strokes over par in winning his fifth-round match over Ted Gleichmann, Ventura, Calif., 4 and 3. The weather improved and so did Coe's game in the quarterfinals, but he had a job beating Walker Cup member Bill Hyndman III, Abingdon, Pa., 2 up. His 68 was the best score of the tournament so far.

Wysong eliminated the veteran Tom Draper, Royal Oak, Mich., 1 up in the fifth round, then beat Dave (Spec) Goldman, Dallas, 3 and 1.

Nicklaus built up a four-hole lead on the front nine against David Smith, Gastonia, N. C., and

Wichita And Breck In Feature Game

By The Associated Press

Powers of the top divisions—Wichita Falls of Class AAAA and Breckinridge of Class AAA—clash Friday night at Wichita Falls in the week's headline game of Texas as schoolboy football.

It will match the two most talked-about teams of the season and might be a repeat of 1958 when Wichita Falls, state AAAA champion, lost only one game—to Breckinridge.

There are other outstanding games among the 311 in the four divisions that play to state championships.

Stamford, champion of Class AA, steps up for a crack at the outfit that's rated just behind champion Breckinridge in AAAA—Cleburne. The Bulldogs have been hampered by illness this week and may not be up to the form shown previously, so Cleburne will be favored.

Goliad Splits With Andrews

Goliad Junior High split a pair with Andrews Thursday evening, dropping a 2-8 decision to the Andrews 8th graders and clipping Andrews 7th graders 12-0.

The local seventh graders never let Andrews inside the 25-yard line. In the second quarter Benny Kirkland slipped off left tackle for 15 yards and a touchdown and in the fourth quarter Ricky Earle rammed right tackle for 20 yards and the other counter. On two other occasions in the first half and once in the last half the boys drove within the 10-yard line but bogged down.

Andrews took a 16-0 lead in the 8th grade game at halftime on wide plays, one going off tackle 30 yards and the other 15 yards.

Goliad's offensive bid came three minutes deep in the third quarter when Robert Neches, a sophomore, took the lead in the fourth quarter with a pass that carried 70 yards for a score. In the fourth Andrews set up the final tally with a pass interception and then punched it over. They scored two safeties for four of their points.

Six Of Eight Southwest Teams Will See Action

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Southwest Conference starts its 11-week football campaign Saturday with six of eight members on the firing line. The other two, Southern Methodist and Baylor, make a grand entrance next week.

Four of the games are inter-sectional and one is about the No. 1 battle in the nation—Rice vs. Louisiana State at Baton Rouge.

This is the only one the league isn't expected to win and it's the one that would bring the most prestige if it could be won.

Rice, rated fourth in its conference, will be facing the team that was No. 1 in the nation last year and already has been voted the same position this season.

In other games Texas will journey to Lincoln, Neb., to play the Nebraska Cornhuskers; Arkansas will host Tulsa; Texas Christian will take on struggling Kansas at Fort Worth; and Texas A&M will meet fellow conference member Texas Tech in the Cotton Bowl at Dallas.

The TCU-Kansas and A&M-Texas Tech games are night affairs. Crowds totaling 170,000 are expected to see the five games with the biggest turnout — 65,000 — at Baton Rouge where glittering LSU, packed with veteran strength, goes on display.

Knock Off The Champ Drive Gets Underway This Weekend

By WILL GRIMSLEY
Associated Press Sports Writer

The "knock over the champ" campaign, a favorite autumn pastime, gets off to a ringing start Saturday in a near full-scale opening of the college football season.

Louisiana State, unbeaten and untied in 1958 and picked to repeat as national champions, launches its campaign against upset-minded Rice Institute at Baton Rouge, La. The game will be televised nationally by NBC.

LSU has lost little of the speed and muscle which carried it through 10 straight victories and a triumph in the Sugar Bowl. It is rated a 14-point favorite.

Despite the presence of Billy Cannon the Tigers' 200-pound speed merchant, Louisiana State fears the game may be one of its toughest obstacles. Rice Coach Jess Neely is renowned for getting his teams riled up against heavily favored foes.

Lakeview Opens Against Midland

Lakeview High School opens the season at 7:30 p.m. today under the lights of Memorial Stadium against Midland Blackshear.

The locals were due to play last week but had to cancel. Tickets for the ball game will be 50 and 25 cents, school officials announced.

B Team Loses, But Runnels Teams Make Good Showings

Andrews employed break-away speed to plaster the Big Spring B team 38-0 here Thursday evening at Memorial Stadium. The Runnels 8th graders countered by winning over Midland's Austin Junior High by 38-0. A called-back touchdown kept the Runnels 9th graders from breaking a 50-game string by the Andrews ninth graders at Andrews. As it was, the locals dropped a 22-18 decision.

Andrews scored twice and rammed over two extra point tries to take a commanding 16-0 lead in the first quarter. Big Spring B rallied and drove to the Andrews 30 before losing the ball on a fumble. Andrews took over and made it 24-0 at the half. Big Spring stiffened for a time in the third, then Andrews got rolling again and added a touchdown, and then put a final one in the fourth for good measure. Most of the Andrews gains came on wide sweeps, although one touchdown came on a 35-yard pass play.

FAST CHARGING

The Runnels 8th graders, coached by Bobby Zellars, relied on speed to overcome superior weight by Austin of Midland. The line outcharged the visitors consistently and only allowed one 9-yard run as the longest of the evening by Midland.

While this was going on, speedy Runnels backs were ripping off long gains. In the first Manuel Martinez swept right end for 60 yards and a score. In the second Humbert Hernandez plunged for a yard and the score after Richard Wvatt had set up the TD with a 20-yard sweep of a left end. Hernandez quickly followed this with a 15-yard scoring scamper, and Rico Flores pulled the nearest play of the evening to make it 24-0 at the half. As defensive right guard, he broke through so fast the Midland quarter back gave him the ball on the hand off, and Rico kept going for 35 yards.

MORE SCORING

There was no scoring in the third quarter, but in the fourth

Dick Irons banged for 7 yards and a tally. Later Martinez looked good in going 33 yards on a reverse. Hernandez then swept end for the only extra points of the game.

Big Spring led in first downs 9-2, in yards rushing 235-58. Seven passes were completed for 22 yards while Midland failed in two pass attempts. Runnels recovered one of its own fumbles, while Midland lost 5 of its 6 bobbles. Runnels punted twice for 20 yards and Midland once for 15. Big Spring got four penalties for 40 yards and Midland 6 for 37.

Lamb's sensational passing was a bright spot for the Runnels 9th graders at Andrews. He connected on 14 of 17 attempts, and this included three touchdowns. Had the Runnels team ran over its three tries for extra points, it could have beaten the Andrews team which ran its string to 50 straight wins.

CALLLED BACK

Big Spring thought it had the lead in the first when Lamb lofted one to Bethel for a score, but it was called back when the referee ruled Bethel had stepped out. Andrews took heart and Weaver broke off right end for 70 yards and a touchdown in the second.

Moore followed this with a 30-yard run. Weaver added two points on a cross buck to give Andrews a 14-0 lead.

But Lamb had only begun to throw. He hit Dutchover for a 40-yard TD then Bethel for 30 yards and a score. Weaver countered with a 40-yard scoring run for Andrews and added the points, but Lamb came right back on a 50-yard pass play to Dutchover. And that was the scoring.

Musgrove, Lamb, Dutchover and Bethel sparked on offense, and on defense Bobby Williams, Don White, Jimmy Calderon, Donny Clanton, Buster Barnes, and Manuel Gonzales stood out. Runnels, with a 1-1 record, plays Snyder next Thursday.

Coahoma Takes On Loraine

COAHOMA — Fortified by two backs who have been out with pre-season injuries, Coahoma's Bulldogs will be trying to break into the win column at Loraine at 8 p.m. today.

Royce Abernethy, who broke a foot the day before practice started, will be back and perhaps able to see some service at quarterback. Willie Tyler, who was hurt at the outset, also may see some time at fullback.

Boy, 15, Admits Slaying Parents In San Antonio

SAN ANTONIO (AP)—Police said a 15-year-old boy admitted Thursday night he shot his parents to death three weeks ago because they were hard on me. The badly-decomposed bodies of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Dycus were found in a locked utility shed behind their home. Officers said they arrested Phil Dycus in a department store parking lot as he prepared to go to Mexico. An older son, 18-year-old Wayne Dycus, and the couple's neighbor and landlord, W. G. Thompson, 69, found the bodies after they were attracted by a strong odor.

HARRIMAN, A CAPITALIST, GETS RUSSIAN JOB OFFER

NEW YORK (AP)—A rich capitalist, W. Averell Harriman, got an offer of a job Thursday night from Communist Nikita Khrushchev—all in fun. Soviet Premier Khrushchev was a guest at a reception given earlier by the former New York governor, who was defeated for re-election by Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller. When Harriman was in Moscow recently, Khrushchev told a dinner audience, he spoke of being unemployed and having lost his job. Khrushchev said he believed it was Soviet First Deputy Premier Anastas Mikoyan who had told Harriman that "if he is in need of a job we could offer him one." "I told him," Khrushchev said, "I could offer him a job as adviser in good faith, and a dacha, a country house, in Moscow." Khrushchev was speaking to the New York Economic Club, an organization of business leaders. And he told them that "if any of you want to have a good job in our country, you'll be paid as well and have as good a position as in any corporation in this country."

Ike To Hit Congress With Aid Demands

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower plans to hit Congress in January with strong demands for an increase in foreign aid funds and for action to lift long-term bond interest ceilings. Republican leaders said Eisenhower had been dissuaded from calling a special session of Congress partly because the next regular session opens in a little more than three months. Eisenhower is expected to sign the $3,225,813,000 foreign aid bill with some pointed references to the $704,182,000 Congress cut the amount below his estimates. The President was reported particularly concerned with the reduction of 300 million dollars Congress made in his $1,600,000,000 request for military assistance funds. Eisenhower told his news conference Thursday he hopes the Democratic-dominated Congress will "feel the heat of truth" and act next year to raise the present 4 1/2 per cent interest ceiling on long-term bonds. He said that an increase in interest rates granted by Congress on Series E and H Savings Bonds should stop the rush to cash them in. He said the lack of action to boost the ceiling on long-term bonds was "one of the most serious things that has happened to the United States in my time." House Speaker Sam Rayburn (D-Tex.) replied that he thinks "everybody is satisfied" with the interest rate bill Congress passed. He added that the administration got as much as it could expect in foreign aid funds.

Fraternity On Probation In Student Hazing Death

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The University of Southern California has suspended a fraternity and put its members on probation after a student choked to death during an initiation hazing. The university ordered Kappa Sigma to get off the campus. The fraternity's national headquarters removed its charter. Richard T. Swanson, 21, a pre-dental student, died early Thursday while trying to swallow a piece of oil-soaked liver 3 by 4 inches and 3/4 inch thick. Swanson and other pledges were required to swallow chunks of meat as part of the initiation. A policeman said: "The other boys began slapping him on the back. One stuck his finger down Swanson's throat. Then they held him upside down and tried to shake it out. Then, being kids, they just went to pieces. Some cried. Some prayed. Others became downright hysterical. One called an ambulance." Ambulance man Nathan Rubin said: "I asked if the boy had eaten anything. They told me no. I got practically no cooperation. If I'd only known he had eaten something I might have saved him. I was prepared for such an emergency." The head of the fraternity chapter, Daniel S. Hayes, 20, said: "This ritual has been going on this way for 24 years and nothing like this has ever happened before." Such hazing, according to the university, violates a long-standing code of fraternity conduct. State Sen. Edwin J. Regan, author of an anti-hazing law which takes effect Saturday, urged that "any student participating in the initiation be charged with involuntary manslaughter." "This is not a schoolboy prank," he said. "It comes close to murder."

Meg's Future Is In The Stars

LONDON (AP)—The man who predicted that Princess Margaret would get married today said the pregnancy of Queen Elizabeth II probably upset the wedding. "The wedding was in the stars," said Dr. William Tucker, president of the Federation of British Astrologers, "and the stars never go wrong." Pausing for breath during an interview he added: "You will remember that nine months ago I said the Queen would have an emotional upset in May. Well, she did, and this probably interfered with the wedding bells." Dr. Tucker was even more specific this afternoon. "The man she (Princess Margaret) was to have married was a Scorpio-born between Oct. 23 and Nov. 21. That man was Prince Henry of Hesse." Prince Henry's full name is Heinrich Wilhelm Konstantin Viktor Franz Hesse and he lives in Rome. He is talented, well-dressed and wealthy. Known as one of Europe's most eligible bachelors, he met the pretty princess in his home town Rome last April — four months after Dr. Tucker predicted her romance with a Scorpio. For the Queen, Dr. Tucker has a new prediction: "Her Majesty will have her baby at 10:30 in the morning on Jan. 17, 1960." He didn't say whether it would be a boy or a girl.

Student Denies Tregoff Attempt To Hire Killer

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—A college student denies he told police that Carole Tregoff tried to hire someone to murder her lover's wife. Donald Sanford Williams, 23, of Las Vegas, said Thursday: "The police have distorted everything I told them when they questioned me."

"During my discussions with Carole there was never any mention of murder."

He said he would not sign the statement he gave to police. Williams told police Wednesday that Carole asked him to introduce her to "two rough guys who can take care of somebody."

Police said they interpreted this to mean she wanted them to kill Barbara Jean Finch. Carole, 22-year-old divorcee, and Dr. Bernard Finch, 41, wealthy West Covina, Calif., surgeon, are charged with murdering his wife, Mrs. Finch, 31, was shot to death outside her home July 18.

Williams said Carole, a long-time friend, approached him about two weeks before Mrs. Finch was killed.

He said he introduced her to William Keachie and Jack Cody and that she later gave him a picture of a woman to deliver to the men. He denied that he identified the picture as that of Mrs. Finch, as police said he had done.

Houston School Petitions Unfilled

HOUSTON (AP)—Petitions calling for a vote on desegregation of Houston schools have been signed by only 5,943 of the 46,691 voters necessary to call the election, school officials said Thursday.

State law requires suspension of aid to a school district which integrates without an affirmative vote of the district's residents. Petitions signed by 20 per cent of the eligible voters must be on file for an election to be called. The petitions have been in circulation since June 9, the day after the Houston School Board agreed to call an election. The board is under federal court order to desegregate "with all deliberate speed."

Canned Statistics

NEW YORK (AP)—It's enough to make a dog's tail sore just thinking about it. Since the first "canister" was patented in England in 1810, more than 800 billion cans have been made in the United States alone. American Can Co., which figured out these statistics, says that if these cans were stacked end on end they would stretch beyond the planet Mercury, which is 40 million miles from earth. There are more than 600 different sizes, shapes and styles of cans made. Americans open about 42 billion cans a year, an average of 940 per family. And, as a statistical clincher, Canco reports that American can openers travel more than half a million miles a year opening cans.

Hormones Are Used Increase Steers' Weight

COLLEGE STATION — Hereford steers receiving hormone implants averaged a daily gain of .50 pound more than steers in the same group not implanted. In tests conducted at the Southwest Great Plains Field Station at Bushland, in 1958. The tests were made to determine the value of a sorghum ration with and without hormone implants.

Fifteen steers were implanted with 36 milligrams each of diethylstilbestrol (Pizer Stimplant), 15 with estradiol-progesterone (Squibb Synovex), and the remaining 15 were not implanted. George F. Ellis, associate animal husbandman of the Station, said the steers were started on feed July 1, 1958 at an average weight of 849 pounds. They were moved to the feedlot directly from station pastures and, without shrink, were charged to the feedlot at $24 per hundredweight.

The 45 head were fed in one lot and all figures on costs and feed consumption are averages. The stilbestrol implanted steers gained an average of 2.94 pounds per day and the Synovex implanted steers gained an average of 2.71 pounds. The non-implanted animals gained an average of 2.12 pounds per day. The final weights after the 122 day feeding period were non-implanted-1,109 pounds; stilbestrol implanted-1,210; and Synovex implanted-1,178. The warm carcass weights for the stilbestrol, Synovex and non-implanted steers were: 711.3, 681.9 and 657.4, respectively.

Returns over all costs except labor and interest were $23.28 for the stilbestrol implanted, $7.58 for the Synovex implanted and a loss of $6.00 for the non-implanted. The Agricultural Information Office, College Station, can supply a copy of the report (PR 2096) which gives the complete test results.

Fall Festival On Saturday At Park

Committee chairman report all in readiness for the 4 o'clock opening of St. Thomas Fall Festival at City Park, tomorrow, Sept. 19. The barbecue held in connection with the Festival will be served from 6 to 8 p.m.

Additional booths have been planned during the week. Featured will be a country store, fish pond, cake walk, penny pitch, grab bag, cold drink stand, dart game and coin jug. Numerous prizes will be awarded during the festival.

Officials have expressed approval of the smooth progress of all phases of the event, including ticket sales. Plans are being made to accommodate a crowd of upwards of 750 at the barbecue, while a much larger crowd is expected to visit the fair ground booths.

All ticket holders are asked to remember that in case of inclement weather the Festival activities will be transferred to the National Guard Armory.

BIG SPRING DAILY HERALD

SEC. B BIG SPRING, TEXAS, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 18, 1959 SEC. B

Farm Labor Committee For Howard County Announced

The Rev. Patrick Casey, Sacred Heart Catholic Church, D. F. Bigony, Howard County cotton farmer and Jack Arms of the West Texas Compress Co., are the members of the 1959 Howard County Farm Labor Committee.

They will meet today to make recommendations based on figures supplied by the Texas Employment Commission on the number of cotton pickers who will be needed in Howard County to harvest this year's crop.

Committees in Martin County and Glasscock County met on Tuesday.

The Martin County Committee, composed of the Rev. Bernard J. Binversie, St. Joseph's Church in Stanton, Jerry Hanson of the Stanton Feed and Supply and Leon Turner, Martin County cotton grower, recommended that 6,400 pickers be allotted to their county.

Fritz Henrichs, manager of the Paymaster's Gin, Sidney Hirt and E. J. Bednar, cotton growers, are committeemen for Glasscock County. They placed the labor needs of their county at 980. Attending the meetings in Martin and Glasscock County was Jack Hatch farm placement interviewer. He will also meet with

State Reformatory For Young Forger

A 16-year-old boy, well known to local juvenile authorities, will be removed this week to the Gatesville Training school.

His latest escapade, involving the forgery and cashing of half a dozen checks in Big Spring business houses and the theft of $23 from his father, brought him to the end of his rope.

Apprehended when his attempt to cash the sixth forged check at the Safeway Grocery failed, he was brought before Ed Carpenter, juvenile judge, on Thursday afternoon. Judge Carpenter heard

19 Cases On Civil Docket

Judge Charlie Sullivan in 118th District Court has instructed Wade Choate, district clerk, to prepare a docket of 19 civil cases which are set down for trial the week of Sept. 28.

How many of these cases will be ready for trial will not be known until the docket is sounded on that date.

The 19 cases are all either damage or compensation suits. There are eight of the latter and 11 of the former tentatively slated for trial.

The cases set for trial include: Jack J. Tucker et al versus Thomas Lane Barnett, damages; Hiram Reid et ux versus Jack Mitchell et al, damages; H. G. Caldwell et al versus Dabco Inc., damages; Roy Coble versus Floyd McIntyre, damages; Ervin E. Rister versus J. C. Bumpass Jr., damages; Jimmie Darrell Fielder versus Texas Employers Ins. Built-In Germ Control Studied PALO ALTO, Calif. (AP) — A medical scientist reported today he is on the trail of a built-in secret weapon against microbes which humans may carry from birth onward.

This as yet unidentified defense against disease has little or nothing to do with antibodies which the individual acquires through exposure to germs or viruses, he said.

Instead, it is something which allows many kinds of germs to live in the body without producing illness. It does not kill the microbes, but merely keeps them from running rampant, he reported.

This characteristic of humans and animals may be the thing which will protect us against infectious diseases after we have reached the end of our rope fighting microbes with antibiotics, said Dr. Lowell Rantz. The problem is to find what it is and help it do its work.

Dr. Rantz, a specialist in infectious diseases at the Stanford University Medical School spoke at the dedication of the new 22-million-dollar institution on the Stanford campus. He also talked to newsmen.

Travel Talk For Kiwanis

Big Spring Kiwanians were taken on a tour of Puerto Rico Thursday. Margaret McAdams, executive director of the Girl Scout Council, Abilene, who attended a summer camp for Girl Scouts in Puerto Rico, was the speaker.

She illustrated her talk with slides which she had made in the islands.

She was presented to the club by Larson Lloyd, who is an active leader in the Girl Scout movement in this community.

The slides revealed the amazing need for more work such as is performed by the Girl Scouts in Puerto Rico.

A new member was installed in the club. He was Delaine Crawford, manager of the Rock Oil Co. Floyd Parsons, lieutenant governor, served as inducting officer.

Dr. Kirkpatrick Acting Director Of Foundation

Marjorie Ruth Kirkpatrick, MD, will become acting medical director of the Texas Rehabilitation Center (Gonzales Warm Springs Foundation) Sept. 21. She will serve in the position in the absence of Dr. Odon von Wersowetz, medical director, who is hospitalized in Gonzales.

Dr. Kirkpatrick formerly practiced here as a member of the Medical Arts Hospital. On the way home from a hunting trip, the car in which she was riding overturned, killing her companion and totally paralyzing her. She was hospitalized for many months and finally returned here for a brief period. Ultimately she went to Gonzales to concentrate upon regaining partial use of her limbs, and in time she was able to accept a place on the staff as assistant doctor. Then she became assistant medical director.

After leaving the Center, Dr. Kirkpatrick went to Bellevue Hospital, New York, to complete her residency in rehabilitation. She will be on leave of absence from Bellevue while on duty at TRC.

Bomber Is Safe After Engines Loss

AUSTIN (AP) — A flaming B-47 bomber landed here safely Thursday night after losing power from three of its six engines.

Bergstrom Air Force Base officials said an engine fell off the bomber over Bryan. The pilot was forced to cut the other two engines on the same wing. The plane landed a few minutes later at Bergstrom and the flames were quickly put out. There were no injuries.

The plane was stationed at McConnell AFB, Kan.

Air Force officials began a search today for the engine that fell off in the Bryan vicinity.

4 Rebels Killed

A Devotional For Today

Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ; who gave himself for us. (Titus 2:13, 14.)
PRAYER: Our Father in heaven, we look to Thee for guidance and strength. Grant us wisdom and courage to proclaim Thy good news to all mankind. May we be instrumental in drawing others to the throne of grace. In Christ's name. Amen.

(From The 'Upper Room')

Effects Of Strike Spread

The steel strike itself has idled half a million steelworkers for more than sixty days, but that is only part of the story. An additional 175,000 workers in allied industries have had their productive energies destroyed. All these workers and their families have been living mostly "on the cuff" for more than two months—absorbing a loss of income that would take years to make up even if they win most of their demands eventually.

The steel mills also have taken economic losses, not to mention various contractors and other firms dependent on steel for continued operations.

The nub of the dispute between labor and management is that labor demands more pay and other benefits, contending steel is able to meet the demand without undue strain. The mills on the other hand, contend wage increases would be inflationary.

Ability to pay higher wages is a matter of dispute. The claim that a wage hike in steel would touch off a chain of demands for hikes in other industries is hardly debatable. That a general round of wage increases in industry would set off another round of price rises and therefore worsen inflation is obvious.

To all intents and purposes the steel strike has now settled down to a test of strength between the labor bosses and the steel bosses. The workers in steel and allied lines and the consumers of steel products are caught in the middle, and the national economy is jeopardized.

George Romney, president of American Motors, addressing a sales executives' club in New York this week, declared that the steel strike is not democracy at work but reflects a concentration of power in the hands of a few that should "please a visitor like Soviet Premier Khrushchev."

"A most regrettable aspect of American life today," Mr. Romney asserted—"for us as well as Mr. Khrushchev to see—is the fact that union power and employer power has been concentrated to a point at which an industry basic to the nation's economy can be shut down by the willfulness of either group."

This collision of "two excessive forces," he warned, can only lead to intervention by the government to protect the people as consumers, and "the end result of the road we are on will be some form of the totalitarianism Mr. Khrushchev personifies."

New Flood Of Violence

After a summer of re-runs and mediocre fill-ins, the new TV season has burst upon the expectant public in a blather of extravagant ballyhoo.

From what we've seen of the "new" shows there will be more of everything—more westerns and crime stories, some of them drawn out to an agonizing full hour; more shootings, stabbings, muggings, knockdowns—wham, wham!—mayhem, sadism and sheer violence for violence's sake.

There must be at least one beating in every chapter—with fists, with the butt of a rifle, with pistols, with anything that comes handy. A new refinement has been added: men don't stand toe to toe and slug it out any more, they get down and wallow in the mud together like hogs. Women get slapped or kicked. Kids get roughed up.

All in the name of entertainment. And yet some people wonder why kids nine and ten years old sometimes pick up the handiest iron bar available and beat somebody's brains out with it—in real life.

The public demand for such violence must be limited, if it ever existed, so the responsibility for this outrageous state of affairs can rest only on the producing end of the TV industry. We have no doubt many exhibitors who are as fed up and disgusted with this obsession with crime and violence as most of their viewers must be, but the industry can turn out only so many shows and the exhibitors have to use something to fill out their time.

There will be a revolution, eventually, but it seems a long time making itself felt by the producing end of the industry.

Solemn As A Funeral

WASHINGTON—The moon is far away. So seemed the hearts of the people as they watched Soviet Premier Khrushchev when his car moved slowly through the streets of the national capital. It was a dignified reception—as solemn as a funeral procession.

One couldn't help feeling sad and sorry and wondering why such a visit was not postponed until conditions were ripe for it. Khrushchev himself appeared friendly and somewhat bewildered. He knew the crowds were restrained. He must have felt the silence of the 200,000 who lined the thoroughfares.

There were some spectators, of course, who look upon the Soviet leader as a criminal, and there were others no doubt who know little of his background but regard him as a symbol of communism—indeed, as a hostile symbol. It is difficult to show friendliness to a potential enemy. There has been nothing in recent months to indicate that the Soviet ruler will do anything constructive to advance the cause of peace—he was treated, therefore, with natural suspicion and distrust.

The entrance of Nikita Khrushchev to Washington, with all the fanfare and ceremony that is officially bestowed on a head of state, made an impressive picture. Kings and queens and foreign dignitaries have passed along the streets of Washington before, and the people here are not as demonstrative as in other cities. They are used to officialdom in Washington. But the people here do cheer. They do express themselves. They do smile, and they do show their enthusiasm in countless ways. But this time there was a strange mood of quiet acquiescence—a staring at the headline maker whose threats and boasts have been given front-page play in the press in recent years. Even President Eisenhower seemed grave and perhaps worried.

Maybe the Soviet premier will be unable ever to interpret the curious reception he got. It was not artificially contrived. It was the spontaneous expression of people who feared that the man they were watching might someday push a button and start a world war.

Normally, when a head of state comes to Washington, the people here feel that in honoring him or her, the tribute is also for the people of the foreign country who have sent their representative on a mission of friendship and good will. Many Washington people must have wished there were on this occasion some way to show the friendship felt in America for the people of the Soviet Union.

Mr. Khrushchev, of course, in his opening address at the airport, spoke about the friendship and good will he brought and managed to introduce a gibe about the Soviet achievement in hitting the moon. But, unfortunately for him, the same words are not as meaningful as when they come from a foreign visitor who is trusted and whose government has repeatedly manifested its friendship for the American people.

There have been times in the last 26 years since the United States extended formal recognition of the Soviet government when there might have been applause and outbursts of enthusiasm if the head of that government had visited Washington. Such a visit, for instance, during World War II might have been the occasion for cheers for an ally—for the people of Soviet Russia who were making supreme sacrifices for our common cause. But since 1945 the Soviets have steadily forfeited the respect of the American people. Even Mr. Khrushchev, in public speeches in 1956, had to denounce what happened during the Stalin regime, though everybody knows he himself played an influential part in some of the same acts of the Stalin government.

To attempt to present to the American people today the head of a government which has for the last 14 years broken pledges, dishonored its written agreements, and carried on acts of aggression and brutality in many countries of the world, is to ask that crime be ignored and applause be given to the man who is responsible for the continuance of the same kind of policies and programs in the Soviet Union today.

Nikita Khrushchev's mind dwells in a world of his own making—as far away from American ideals and the spirit of freedom as the distance to the moon. Only a miracle could transform him into a different being.

There are those who hope for such a miracle. The next 12 days could convey to the Soviet premier some idea of what was really back of the coolness in the courteous reception he received here on Tuesday. If he begins to ponder what makes whole peoples distrustful, he will at least have made a start toward that better understanding which he claims to seek in the relations between the government of the Soviet Union and the American people.

AWOL Dog Found

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Army Pvt. and Mrs. Alva Fincham Jr. drove 500 miles, searched several days for their pet dog which was AWOL, then drove back to Ft. Riley, Kan., discouraged.

But the Humane Society didn't give up. It continued running a newspaper advertisement. A week later the dog, named Johnny, was found and shipped to the Finchams. It had bolted from a shipping crate at the St. Louis Union Station.

Khrushchev Puts On A Good Show

WASHINGTON (AP)—Nikita Khrushchev is putting on one of the great shows of the 20th century. But how it looks depends on whether you're sitting in the United States or elsewhere.

There's never been anything like this in our time.

Here he is, an ordinary-looking man, not too well educated, a one-time miner who struggled up the ladder from the coal pits to become the boss of one of the most powerful nations in history.

More than that, despite this country's long hostility to communism and the billions it has pouring into defense against the Soviets, the top man in world communism has been invited over.

He gets a 21-gun salute, he stays at the Waldorf-Astoria, he's guest of honor at a White House dinner. And it goes further.

No matter how distasteful he and all he stands for may be to millions in this country, he practically compelled the United States to invite him in the hope that this may be the way to find a peaceful solution to the Berlin dilemma.

Thus is not hard for Premier

Khrushchev to see in himself a symbol of all the backward people and nations who dream of rising out of poverty and ignorance to a place of equality with, or even superiority to, the best on earth.

Whether Americans like it or not the invitation to Khrushchev—meaning the blackjack, Berlin circumstances which brought him here—is frank recognition that the Soviet Union, long despised by some as primitive, is equal to us in power.

His whole performance has been like that of a man who knows he has the Western world puzzled and guessing.

He speaks of himself as the harbinger of peace (but warns of the horror of war if there is no peace); he says the ice of the cold war has begun to crack since his arrival (but he hasn't so far yielded an inch on anything); he remains jolly, the traditional mark of a man of good will (except for sudden flashes of anger at affronts); he bounces around with the enthusiasm of a long-delayed tourist (as well he might, since he's the first head of a Soviet government to come here); and he gives the impression of a man who is going to enjoy himself, whether or not anything comes of his trip at all.

The image of himself which he has been anxious to project to the American people—and to all others, since his words and pictures are being sent everywhere—is that of a man of good will.

But he has also been projecting another picture of himself, which the Americans can like or leave, but which most probably looks good to the whole Communist world and perhaps even to the neutral and backward people too.

He's been friendly, but tough without being unpleasant about it. He's not letting anyone get the notion he's being beguiled or softened by the attention given him as the representative of world communism.

At a Waldorf luncheon Thursday, he put himself in focus: "Who am I, then? Let's say that I am a man who when I appear before Communists, I applaud American capitalists. I applaud them. People might think this is no politician, this is a weather vane."

He has made it clear to people everywhere that he is calmly sure of himself and the ultimate triumph of world communism. For instance: At the National Press Club this week, with the whole nation watching him on TV, Khrushchev very joyfully informed the United States in its own capital that communism would in the end drown and bury capitalism.

Around The Rim

The Passing Of A Golden Age

Notes on the passing scene:

His name was Bill Koutsigos (pronounced KOOT-see-cuss), and he had come over to Corpus from Greece many years before. He moved to Austin eventually, and opened a tiny cafe just down the Drag near the University of Texas.

I knew him about 13 years ago, during my freshman year. I needed a part-time job, and Bill set me to work waiting on the counter (there were no tables). It was called the U. T. Grill. There was room on one side for walking space, the long counter; and the other wall was lined with the cash register, shelves for dishes and utensils, the grill, and refrigerator. All cooking was done by Bill himself up front, and dishes were washed in the rear.

Bill hadn't been making much of a living up till that year, and he was thinking of retiring. His place was too dingy, and there's something about watching a steak being cooked that, for the weaker stomach, requires a lot of plush leather and shiny chrome. This is especially true of college areas, with all the half-adults, half-children.

But that was the year the veterans were returning and going to college on the GI Bill—a period of maturity on the campus that several professors called "the Golden Age." The veterans had seen too much, and had visited too many dinky little places overseas, to be revolted by an old Greek with a greasy apron.

It was Bill's heyday. For more than four long years, he had more business than he could take care of, and he even thought of expanding.

But it was not to be. Year by year, the veterans left, and Bill's clientele fell off. The new generation, busy with party raids and fraternity and sorority goings-on, began swamping the shiny, plush restaurants which the veterans had avoided.

There used to be a liquor store on one side of Bill's cafe, and a lumber company on the other. One evening, the lumber yard caught on fire, and the three buildings burned. Male students converged by the hundreds and helped the firemen rescue certain potable items from the fire, few of which their owner ever saw again. Nothing was saved from the lumber yard or Bill's cafe.

I have visited the campus on numerous occasions since then. Ran into Bill one day just after the fire, and he said he'd decided to retire.

He was a thrifty man, so there was no worry about the money he had to retire with. And I suspect there were plenty of memories to take him too.

Different people recall different things; but to me, that "Golden Age" will always come with a thought of two about an old Greek in a greasy apron, and the best steaks this side of Paradise.

She Kept Her Bags Packed

An old woman of 89, who longs to return to Sicily to live out the rest of her days and to die in her native land, is going to get her dear wish.

Thanks to the generosity of a New York philanthropist, who wishes to remain anonymous, and a travel agency that is buying her ticket home, Mrs. Nicolina Castagna will be on her way to Sicily tomorrow. She will even have a little money in her pocket, sent in by kind persons touched by her plight when it was reported in this column 10 days ago.

Mrs. Castagna is the tiny, shriveled woman who ran afoul of New Jersey justice and the Middlesex County Welfare Department a few weeks ago. Neither the courts of New Brunswick, N. J., where she lives in squalor, or the Middlesex County Welfare Department, which has paid her a monthly average of $66 on which to exist since 1946, could believe that out of this pitance she could save enough for a ticket to Sicily and $3,500 to support her after she reached there.

For, when Mrs. Castagna was "apprehended" on the strength of anonymous phone calls, police discovered in her squalid room a ticket back to her native Sicily and $3,500. She was within hours of sailing when the insistent anonymous informer sent police hurrying to her wretched home.

Neither the judge nor the welfare department could believe Mrs. Castagna's story that for years she had lived on a diet of bread and onions, denying herself every creature comfort, to scrape together the money for a ticket to Sicily and a nest egg that would prevent her being a burden to her few remaining relatives in that island.

I grant that it is an incredible story. But so is the will of an old lady in a land whose customs and tongue have always remained alien to her.

Since the death of her blind husband in 1948, Mrs. Castagna has been wholly alone. It was then that she began the long, pinch-penny bread-and-onion regime that would take her home to die among the few relatives still living. About her state of semi-starvation the welfare department obviously did nothing. It was only when her little hoard had been uncovered that it rushed indignantly into court.

Where she could have acquired it except by her pitiful program, no one has attempted to explain. The old lady, through an interpreter, said a little of the money had been given her by sympathetic neighbors and some of it had been entrusted to her to give, in turn, to Sicilian relatives of her neighbors when she finally reached home.

You may play the horses, shoot dice or live in the bingo parlors on relief, but, obviously, it is against the moral order to save! Anyway, Mrs. Castagna's ticket and her money were taken away from her by the courts, and the funds returned to the indignant welfare department.

It was then that the telephone began to ring. Immediately, the Sessa Travel Agency of Brooklyn called to say it would provide passage for Mrs. Castagna. And so it has. She sails tomorrow in a pleasant cabin on board the S. S. Queen Frederica.

Then came a call from a gentleman who begged anonymity, but who offered to replace Mrs. Castagna's confiscated money. And so he has. A letter of credit from his bank for $3,500 has already gone forward in Mrs. Castagna's name to a bank in Sicily. In addition, kind readers have sent in contributions ranging from a dollar bill to a check for $50.

Mrs. Castagna wept when she heard the news that her dream was to be realized. But she had never lost faith, for the little old lady had never unpacked her shabby bags. And her faith has been justified, for tomorrow she sails for home and, let us hope, final years of peace and happiness.

The Gallup Poll

Nixon Rides Moscow Trip Crest

PRINCETON, N. J. — Vice President Nixon is still riding the wave of political success stemming from his trip behind the Iron Curtain.

In the latest Gallup Poll test of his political strength, Nixon has, for the first time, pulled out slightly ahead of Sen. John Kennedy by a razor-slim margin.

Here are the results:

| NIXON VS. KENNEDY | |
|--------------------------|----------|
| Sept., 1959 | |
| | Per cent |
| July (Pre-Moscow) | 39 61 |
| Aug. (Post-Moscow) | 48 52 |
| TODAY | 51 49 |

This is Mr. Nixon's best showing to date against Kennedy in tests of their political strength over the last two years.

The closest the vice president came to wiping out the senator's margin, previous to the Russian tour, was in June, 1958, in the aftermath of Nixon's triumphant return from his South American tour. At that time, Kennedy had 51 per cent of the vote to Nixon's 49 per cent.

By the end of 1958, however, the Massachusetts senator had once more taken a commanding lead over the vice president—a fact to be remembered in any analysis of what the Nixon lead at present means in terms of next year's election contest.

WHAT OTHERS SAY

In a week marking the twentieth anniversary of the outbreak of World War II, we suppose there is a certain appropriateness in speculation about the nature of another major war, if one ever comes. But it is permissible to doubt whether some of the speculation serves any very useful purpose.

For example, the Congressional Joint Committee on Atomic Energy has just come out with a report on the effects of a nuclear surprise attack on this country. It pictures 50 million Americans killed, another 20 million seriously injured, and about 50 per cent of the nation's dwellings destroyed or made unusable for a long time.

The authors of the current report nonetheless do have a point; they would like to jar the people into approving a national bomb-shelter program, estimated in this case to cost $20 billion. We suspect that the famous apathy of Americans on this score is not really apathy so much as it is healthy skepticism that such a program is an answer to anything. The idea is not only full of unknowns and imponderables; in addition, the chances are good that the rapidly developing technology of warfare would make bomb shelters impractical by the time, if ever, it came to use them. — Wall Street Journal.

on the eve of the vice president's departure for Moscow showed Kennedy with a wide margin over Nixon.

This has been the trend:

| NIXON VS. KENNEDY | |
|--------------------------|-------|
| Per cent | |
| July (Pre-Moscow) | 39 61 |
| Aug. (Post-Moscow) | 48 52 |
| TODAY | 51 49 |

This is Mr. Nixon's best showing to date against Kennedy in tests of their political strength over the last two years.

The closest the vice president came to wiping out the senator's margin, previous to the Russian tour, was in June, 1958, in the aftermath of Nixon's triumphant return from his South American tour. At that time, Kennedy had 51 per cent of the vote to Nixon's 49 per cent.

By the end of 1958, however, the Massachusetts senator had once more taken a commanding lead over the vice president—a fact to be remembered in any analysis of what the Nixon lead at present means in terms of next year's election contest.

VOTE BY REGIONS

A look at the current vote on the two men by different regions of the country shows Mr. Nixon ahead of Mr. Kennedy in three areas—the East, the Midwest, and the Far West.

In the 13 states of the heavily-Democratic South, the Massachusetts senator runs ahead of Nixon.

This is the regional vote:

| NIXON VS. KENNEDY | |
|-------------------|-------|
| Per cent | |
| East | 51 49 |
| Midwest | 54 46 |
| Far West | 52 48 |
| South | 46 54 |

The upsurge in the Nixon vote since July springs largely from his increased appeal to the nation's Independent voters. Before the Russian trip, the vice president trailed Kennedy by a wide margin among Independents.

Immediately following the trip, Nixon pulled up even with Kennedy among Independents; today, he is out ahead of him by the following margin:

| NIXON VS. KENNEDY | |
|-------------------|----------|
| Independents Only | |
| | Per cent |
| Nixon | 54 |
| Kennedy | 46 |

God's Promise of Peace

WHAT BASIC VIRTUES DOES GOD DEMAND IN THE INDIVIDUAL LIVES OF HIS PEOPLE?

Scripture—Zechariah 7-11.
By NEWMAN CAMPBELL
DR. WILBUR M. SMITH, editor of Philadelphia Select Notes, suggests that the younger classes will find this lesson quite difficult. "The opening remarks of the teacher will, therefore, be of unusual importance in gaining the attention of the pupils. The class might be asked, he suggests, to give the characteristics of an ideal city or town. 'In our lesson we learn what virtues God Himself desires to see in a city, and how He will ultimately fulfill His desire in the city of Jerusalem.' Zechariah, author of the book, which is the longest of the writings of the 12 Minor Prophets, was the son of Berechiah, the grandson of Ido, who was priest and prophet. Zechariah was first told by God to speak to the priests and the prophets, saying, 'Should I weep in the fifth month, separating myself, as I have done these many years?' God's answer to the people was: 'When ye fasted and mourned in the fifth and seventh month, from even those 70 years, did ye at all fast unto Me, even to Me? And when ye did eat, and when ye did drink, did not ye eat for yourselves, and drink for yourselves? How about us today? Do we, when we eat at home or with friends, after the blessing has been said, think of God and His mercies and blessings? Even when we partake of the sacrament in church, are we thinking of Jesus Christ, who died for us, or do our thoughts wander to everyday happenings in our lives? It is good to ponder on these things. These are the rules of individual conduct which the Lord gave to Zechariah: 'Execute true judgment, and show mercy and compassions every man to his brother.'—Zechariah 7:9.

MEMORY VERSE

"Execute true judgment, and show mercy and compassions every man to his brother."—Zechariah 7:9.

midst of Jerusalem; and they shall be My people, and I will be their God, in truth, and in righteousness."—Zechariah 8:7-8.
In our country, and in many others, many men and women are in the parks to rest and refresh themselves, and children play happily in our streets. Zechariah prophesied that "the seed shall be prosperous; the vine shall give her fruit, and the ground shall give her increase, and the heavens shall give their dew; and I will cause the remnant of this people to possess all these things."—Zechariah 8:12.
"And it shall come to pass, that as ye were a curse among the heathen, O house of Judah, and house of Israel; so will I save you, and ye shall be a blessing; fear not, but let your hands be strong."—Zechariah 8:13.
If we as individuals and as a nation are strong to resist temptation and live as the Lord God and Jesus Christ commanded, we too shall have peace and prosperity. That is the lesson I would impress upon the young people of the Sunday school classes. National Council of Churches of Christ in the U.S.A., and used by permission. Mexican Paper Sees Ike Meeting As Risky

MEXICO CITY (AP) — The newspaper Excelsior says President Eisenhower took a big risk in agreeing to the meetings with Soviet Prime Minister Nikita Khrushchev, and "we hope his sacrifice may serve for something."

The newspaper said Eisenhower is risking "his international prestige and his popularity in the United States — even the political power of his party — in an effort to reach an understanding with Russia."

Art Season Opens With Exhibition

The Big Spring art season opens Saturday with an exhibition by Las Artistas.

The show will be held in the old SUB building at Howard County Junior College, and will be open to the public from 9 a.m. to 10 p.m. Saturday, and from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. Sunday. The exhibition will be interrupted only briefly at around 2:30 p.m. for judging. Judging the show will be Arnold Leonder, of Midland.

There will be five divisions for entries: oils, watercolors, pastels, graphics and miscellaneous. Each division except miscellaneous is subdivided into classes, including portraits, landscapes, still lifes and animals.

The exhibition will include modern, realistic and other schools of art.

Awards will be given Sunday about 2 p.m. The awards will include the annual club trophy for "best in show" and cups for four other top winners. Ribbons also will be awarded.

Ten per cent of all sales will go into the club building fund.

John Findlater, co-chairman, said entries are open to members and prospective members of Las Artistas.

One of the purposes of the exhibition, he added, is to attract attention to the art-minded, particularly new people in town, with an aim of expanding the club's membership.

He invited all prospective members to attend the exhibition and get acquainted with Las Artistas. He coupled this with his invitation to the public in general.

Mrs. Bismarck Schaefer is chairman.

Registration of entries closes today at 6 p.m. Entries will be taken at the site of the show in the old SUB building.

Work must be original and not under supervision of a teacher or in a school or class in art; there is no limit as to size; there will be no charge for entries by club members.

No more than 17 paintings per person may be exhibited; paintings previously exhibited in competition in Big Spring will not be eligible for entry or judging; all paintings must be framed, and drawings or watercolors must be matted or framed.

Cool Front In Panhandle

A weak cool front stretched across the Texas Panhandle Friday, promising more thundershowers like it touched off in the area Thursday.

Amarillo caught .13 inch of rain and Childress had a trace as the front approached.

Clear skies prevailed over most of Texas, with a few clouds noted over the South Plains and East Texas and along the Gulf Coast.

Forecasts called for partly cloudy and mild weather for all sections of the state through Saturday, with scattered thundershowers in Northwest and Southwest Texas and occasional thundershowers in East and South Central Texas.

Long-range forecasts said more showers can be expected early next week in East and Central Texas. Occasional rainfall also is likely in West Texas.

Temperatures dropped behind the cold front Tuesday. Amarillo and Dalhart had maximum readings of 82, with other high temperatures ranging up to 102 at Presidio.

Bob Cummings Seems To Jinx Chosen Fields

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — It's Robert Cummings' theory about the inverted pyramid, and you can make of it what you will.

"It's uncanny," he muses. "Every time I get into a new field of entertainment it dies under me—and always in the same pattern."

Folks are always amazed at how far back Bob's career goes. Though he looks the sophomore, he's an unabashed 49 and began as a stage actor in 1930. Those were the days when Broadway was thriving with 300 shows annually.

"When I started, a play with a single star was enough for the public," he observes. "As business got worse, the shows got bigger and bigger. You had to have a Ziegfeld Follies or Earl Carroll's Vanities or George White's Scandals loaded with stars to draw a crowd."

The legit field faded, and Bob leaped to vaudeville, playing straight man with Milton Berle.

"In the old days, a vaudeville show needed only six or seven fair acts—Fink's mules, some acrobats, a funny guy and so forth," Bob said. "As vaudeville started to slip, the theaters added a movie, then piled up the stars."

Bob had the distinction of tossing straight lines to Berle on the final vaudeville bill at the Palace. On to radio!

"Once again it was the same thing," Bob sighed.

As radio progressed it began lumping more and more stars together, he said, until TV pushed big-time radio over the brink.

Cummings plunged into the movies in 1935.

"But I could see the movie industry was starting to die around 1939," he remarked. "The war came along and kept the business going until 1946 or 1947, when the movies began to hurt. They started throwing six or seven stars in a picture, but that didn't help."

Ever agile, Cummings leaped into yet another medium, television. After the tepid "My Hero" series, he scored with a five-year run of the Bob Cummings Show. Now he's worried.

Civic Theatre Votes Annual Dues, Sets Up A Workshop

Some of the Civic Theatre's financial problems may be eased somewhat thanks to action taken in Thursday evening's meeting.

Theatre members voted without delay nor much discussion, a proposal to levy dues of five dollars per year. The action was a peaceful climax to an idea that has been batted around and at times fiercely argued during the nearly five years the theatre has been in existence.

The resolution, introduced by Glenn Cootes, would extract the five dollar fee from members only, and one payment would cover an entire family's membership.

Dues payment would entitle members to vote, hold office, and attend the theatre's productions without charge.

"This does not mean," Cootes said, "that those who do not pay dues cannot take part in theatre activities. It only gives them certain membership privileges."

The resolution, as passed, lifts no barriers to non-paying members who wish to act, work behind stage, or otherwise take part in theatre work.

Dues payments will be made on a fiscal basis, the deadline annually being April 1.

President Bill Sandefur introduced a discussion of childrens theatre, with the aim of an adult presentation to the school children of Big Spring before Christmas. He was empowered to look into the matter further.

Mary Archer was named overseer of a workshop group which will present one-act plays for entertainment at future meetings of the Civic Theatre. This activity also is aimed at giving members more opportunity for experience in acting and direction.

Miss Archer reported 16 people had signed up for the workshop, and that a meeting would be called next week. She urged anyone interested to contact her by telephone.

Roy Rosene was confirmed by membership vote to fill an empty spot on the board of governors. The vote was by acclamation.

Hugh Butler McCauley, after the meeting, showed slides of photographs he had made during the Civic Theatre's summer season.

Crowd Protests Khrushchev Visit

NEW YORK (AP)—A capacity crowd, wearing black armbands and carrying black flags, jammed Carnegie Hall Thursday night in a Khrushchev protest rally. Police estimated 2,500 persons attended the rally. It was sponsored by National Review, a conservative weekly, and Crusade for America, an organization with the aim of "exposing Communists and Communist fronts."

They Got It

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP) — Four bandits surrounded the car of market owner Chester Cook. "Hand us the sack," one of them barked. Cook gave them the only sack he had. It contained four sandwiches, a bottle of hair oil and some underwear.

Van Cliburn Receives Bid To Attend Niki Reception

DALLAS (AP) — Van Cliburn, the young Kilgore, concert pianist who became internationally famous after winning the Tchaikovsky International Piano Festival in Moscow last April, has received a special invitation to a reception for Russian Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

The Dallas Morning News, in a copyrighted interview with Cliburn, quoted him today as saying he had received the invitation.

Cliburn said he understood the reception will be at the Russian Embassy in Washington. He said he did not have details.

"I don't know whether or not I will be asked to play," he said.

The News interviewed Cliburn in New York, by telephone.

The pianist said that his mother, Mrs. Harvey Cliburn, is visiting him while in New York for medical attention, "but I hope she might be able to go with me to the reception."

Cliburn said he had not been invited to participate in any of the affairs for Khrushchev in New York today and that when the Premier arrived in New York he "was at home practicing, just like any other morning."

He is to leave New York Sept. 28 on a European concert tour.
