Governor Refuses Plea By Chessman

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — Gov. Edmund G. Brown today refused to grant clemency to Caryl Chessman.

Chessman, who has been in death row for 11 years, is scheduled to be executed Friday.

The governor made his decision Sunday night before leaving on a trip to Chicago.

Car Keys Lead To An Arrest

MOBILE, Ala. (AP)—A set of car keys led to the arrest of a 32-year-old Negro construction worker on charges of raping a white housewife.

Sheriff Ray Bridges said Sam Smith of Saraland, Ala., father of six children, was jailed without bail after making an oral statement admitting the Friday night attack.

Officers traced Smith through a set of keys dropped the night of the attack. Bridges reported, and a pistol taken from the victim's home was recovered near Smith's house.

U. N. Still Snagged Over Council Seat

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Turkey edged up slightly today on Communist Poland, but resumed balloting failed to break the stubborn deadlock over a seat in the U.N. Security Council.

On the 27th ballot, Poland received 41 and Turkey 40.

Rockefeller Spurs Drive To Overtake Nixon In Race

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, aiming at the Republican presidential nomination, moved openly to the national political scene today with a call for sweeping improvements in public health programs.

The 51-year-old governor made the first of a series of planned statements on top national issues as he headed for the Midwest in a critical test of his ability to overtake Vice President Richard M. Nixon for the GOP nomination.

Nixon holds a commanding lead. Rockefeller is opening an all-out campaign to see if he can catch up.

The New York governor, in his first major political venture outside his home state, invades Chicago today for a hectic round of activities designed for maximum publicity and political value.

Before flying west, he speaks here at the American Public Health Assn. convention.

He declared in his prepared speech that there is "compelling need for fresh approaches and new methods in public health practice."

Ft. Worth Man Admits Killing Mexican Pair

MONTERREY, Mex. (AP) — The district attorney said Sunday night a Fort Worth man has admitted he might have killed a Monterrey girl and her brother but doesn't remember it.

Prosecutor Salvador Garza Salinas quoted Dykes Asken Simmons Jr. as saying: "I don't think I have committed any crime, nor that I have carried a pistol. I admit that I have mental lapses sometimes. There are occasions when I cannot remember what I have done."

"I admit that I could have done it. But if I did, I remember nothing about it."

Simmons is being held on "suspicion of homicide" in the fatal shooting Monday night of Marta and Juan Manuel Perez Villagomez, 21 and 14. Their sister Hilda, 18, was seriously wounded. The three were in their stalled car beside the highway between here and Laredo at Sabanas Hidalgo.

Eleanor Charges Ike Falls On Race

DALLAS (AP)—Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt asserted today that President Eisenhower has shown a lack of leadership in dealing with racial integration—a lack which still might be remedied by a president's conference on integration.

Swordfish Nearly Sinks Cruiser

NEWPORT BEACH, Calif. (AP)—A 500-pound swordfish smashed into a 30-foot cabin cruiser Sunday and almost sank it.

The fish hit the bow of Louis Warriner's boat a foot below the waterline 10 miles off Newport Beach. The 50-inch bill and upper jaw of the broadbill swordfish snapped off in the boat and the fish disappeared.

Batista Men Jailed In Cuba

HAVANA (AP)—Cuban authorities have announced the arrest of a number of former members of ex-President Fulgencio Batista's army on charges of counter-revolutionary activities.

The arrests were made Sunday at the western town of Vinales, 15 miles from Pinar del Rio. One North American was reported to have been in the group. He was not identified.

President Uses Taft-Hartley Law

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower today ordered the Justice Department to seek a court injunction to halt the marathon steel strike for 80 days.

The White House announced that a petition for an injunction under the Taft-Hartley law will be sought in Federal District Court in Pittsburgh Tuesday afternoon.

No Presidential Action Told

Hagerty said the report had been discussed fully.

"I have no announcement of any presidential action now," he added.

Hagerty said Eisenhower wants to study the report.

Taylor told newsmen the board reached the end of the mediation road "with very sad hearts, because we feel this is an extremely critical situation."

"The parties have a continuing obligation to resolve these issues," Taylor said, after observing that the board feels the differences can be resolved.

"This obligation to the country will not be discharged until they can sign an agreement, which is their duty in a democracy such as ours to avoid the possibility of an imposed decision."

Union Prepares To Fight

Eisenhower, on receiving his board's gloomy appraisal, is expected to order the Justice Department to apply for a Taft-Hartley Act court order to end the strike for a maximum of 80 days.

The striking Steelworkers Union prepared to fight the injunction, but promised to obey it if issued.

Filing for the injunction could come later today but more probably Tuesday in U.S. District Court here or in Pittsburgh, the union's headquarters.

Settlement failure, after over five months of steady though fruitless negotiating, left the steel industry and union bitter and accusing each other of bull-headedness.

The industry said it was resisting union wage-benefit demands that would "force another round of disastrous wage inflation upon the steel industry and the country."

The union said the industry was deliberately forcing a "poll state" return of 500,000 unemployed workers to its jobs.

David J. McDonald, union president, hinted at trouble among workers under an injunction. He complained some steel mill managers are being briefed to spy for slowdowns and report them back to Washington for court punishment under the injunction.

Everybody concerned — including Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell — agreed an injunction may get steel production resumed temporarily but will solve nothing permanently. McDonald grimly pledged a renewed strike should an 80-day injunction reach its prescribed limit.

That imposed on the nation the real threat of a new steel strike in early January.

James C. Hagerty said there is "no time limit" on the President's study of the report of his board of inquiry which tried for a week without success to bring agreement between industry and the United Steelworkers.

This apparently left time for them to make voluntary moves toward agreement by bargaining. But Eisenhower's three-member fact-finding board gave little hope for early success in their 37-page report to the White House.

"As we submit this report, the parties have failed to reach an agreement and we see no prospects for an early cessation of the strike," the report said.

"The board cannot point to any single issue of any consequence whatsoever upon which the parties are in agreement."

Taylor was referring to recent proposals for stronger government action to settle major disputes through compulsory arbitration and other actions demanded in the last few days by some members of Congress.

The board had striven for a week to combine a last-ditch mediation effort with its fact finding. It got the issues defined — something the parties had not accomplished since the dispute flared in April — and got each side to make some concessions.

But Sunday night the negotiations collapsed finally. Chairman George W. Taylor of Philadelphia said the collapse was "a breakdown of collective bargaining."

temporarily but will solve nothing permanently. McDonald grimly pledged a renewed strike should an 80-day injunction reach its prescribed limit.

That imposed on the nation the real threat of a new steel strike in early January.

Sen. John Sherman Cooper (R-Ky) called Sunday for a special session of Congress to consider imposing compulsory arbitration of the strike issues. In a radio-TV interview (CBS — Face the Nation), Cooper said Congress should not wait until it reconvenes in January because the emergency would be so great "you wouldn't get the best kind of legislation."

Sen. Gale McGee (D-Wy) added his voice to a growing cry for restudy of the tools available to the government to solve big labor strikes.

Over the weekend, Mitchell proposed in a speech to the Pennsylvania Newspaper Publishers Assn. that new legislation be enacted authorizing the President to establish inquiry boards well ahead of the time strikes reach the emergency stage.

Mitchell said this technique would help pinpoint and solve labor disputes before they get out of hand.

DEAR ABBY

GOOD NEIGHBOR

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: Our home is so close to our neighbors that we can hear everything that goes on over there without meaning to. The mother (she's about 45) screams at her 4-year-old child constantly. I can hear, "Patsy, don't climb on that! Patsy, get out of there! Patsy, you're driving me crazy!" It's like a record being played over and over.

They never let the child play with the neighbor children. They keep her cooped up in the house all day. The poor child is a nervous wreck and stutters so badly she can't be understood. When her mother isn't yelling at her, she is slapping her. The crying is more than I can stand. I'd like to help, if I could. But how? I think the mother is a mental case. The husband is about 65 and this is their only child.

Is this the kind of revenge I should expect from a man? Or could he be using my one mistake to cover up his many?

NOT FORGIVEN
DEAR NOT FORGIVEN: It is difficult to believe that a man in his right mind would behave this way. He is, of course, trying to make himself appear the martyr. He needs to go before the preacher again. This time to ask you for YOUR forgiveness. His sin is greater than yours.

DEAR ABBY: Will somebody please tell me why Hi-Fi has to be played so loud in the ordinary living room it goes through you like the vibrations of a cannon? My family says it is the only way Hi-Fi should be heard.

INTERESTED, NOT NOSY
DEAR INTERESTED: Bake a pie, cake or cookies and call on your neighbor. Cultivate her friendship so that you can tell her as a friend (not a meddling neighbor) that Patsy needs the companionship of other children. Sympathize with her. And suggest that her lack of patience could be due to nerves. Then encourage her to see a doctor. It will take time and effort on your part, but the rewards will make it worthwhile.

Please withhold my name as I requested this set as my birthday, anniversary and Christmas gift only because I knew my family wanted it so much.

I am now ready to throw the set out and ask for the mink coat I deserve.

LONGING FOR QUIET
DEAR LONGING: Either something is wrong with your Hi-Fi set or something is wrong with your family's hearing. No property installed Hi-Fi should set off vibrations that sound like a cannon. Have it adjusted by the people who installed it. There is no reason why you can't enjoy it, too.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "A NOBODY": It's nice to be important... but it's more important to be nice.

What's your problem? For a personal reply, write to ABBY, care of the Big Spring Herald. Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

DEAR ABBY: Before I was married I made a horrible mistake. I took my punishment and gave my baby for adoption. I told my husband about it before I married him.

He forgave me in front of a preacher. But he has told my sin to people in every community we've lived in (and because of his occupation, we've lived in man.) We've been married nine years and have two children.

Turks Wonder If K Making Switch To Support Religion

By HOUSTON HARTE

INSTABUL — In Khrushchev's American visit he has deliberately made many references to God and even Christ. These are unusual statements for an atheist and the head of a government which has taken a position of crushing the Christian religion. Observers here wonder if Khrushchev has decided the Soviets should reverse themselves on religion. As a politician, has the Russian Premier decided he can't overthrow the church and that he should do what other politicians have done in the past "join the opposition they can't overcome"?

The southern part of Soviet Russia is the main stronghold of Russia's five million Moslems. The central part of Russia is the habitat of the 50 million members of the Greek Orthodox Church. These two sects can have a real bearing on the action of Russia in any all-out conflict which would involve the whole world.

The Moslems and the early Jews were a very similar race. The Moslems believe the Old Testament and they accept Christ as a prophet. Mohammed is said to have merely rewritten the Old and New Testament (so a guide told us while showing us the wonderful Blue Mosque).

The Moslems did not destroy Christian churches when they took a country. They merely erected a few minarets and went on using the Christian churches for worship. The Crusaders were the only conquerors who destroyed the churches of their own faith.

AIMED AT POOR
The Moslems do not consider Christians infidels, this guide said. The Moslem religion is aimed at the poor. It promises the unfortunate great blessings in heaven to compensate for the trials and tribulations suffered on earth.

The true Moslem believes anything that happens to him is because Allah willed it. Educated Moslems seem to disagree with this doctrine. This is the reason the Moslem church, as an organization, does not believe in education.

The church discourages students from attending the American University at Beirut and Roberts College in Istanbul. When Moslem students from these schools return home they do not pay much attention to the mullahs (priests), or the old dogmatic ideas of their religion.

Moslems have 80 per cent of the population in the five Soviet republics of Kazak, Kirgiz, Uzbek, Turkmen and Tajik. These republics occupy an area the size of the United States. It's the arid area of Southern Russia where there were no industries or agricultural crops. Russia is trying to break up the nomadic tribes by taking the young men for the army and building industrial plants which require few skills to absorb the women and older men.

The Turks are imitating this program. They think it is the best.

way of modernizing their villages. The returned soldier indoctrinates his home and then his village in sanitation, modern gadgets and a new view of life. At least this is what the Turks believe.

About 100 miles the way the road goes southeast of Istanbul is the ancient city of Isnik. In 325 A. D. it was known as Nicaea. Here is a church which has always been Greek Orthodox. It was in this church that the conference was held which passed on the administration of books to our Bible and which adopted the famous Nicene Creed or statement of faith for Christians.

This same conference voted out some of the books of the early day Bible. To show how fallible Christian faith was, many of these decisions were adopted by only a few votes in councils of about 2,000 voting members.

Thousands of people would go to this church if there was any way to get there. The road is poor. There are no facilities to handle tourists in Isnik. It would be a great source of wealth to Turkey if it had any accommodations for tourists.

It is believed Asiatic Turkey has more unexplored treasures than any other country. There are ancient cities here piled on one another that are unexcavated. One of our agricultural experts says he has been in farm houses where the floors were dirt, but seen the heads of marble busts made centuries ago by the Greeks or Romans used as door stops. Pieces of Greek columns would be used as posts and the land about the dwelling would show exposed marble columns or statues. The people who live on the farm never heard of Greece or Rome.

Many people believe there are more Grecian and Roman ruins in Turkey than have been discovered up to this time with all the excavation that has been done in Italy and Greece. If this is true, Turkey is in for a rich tourist trade when it can provide facilities for taking care of such visitors.

Lanza Burial Wednesday

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Singer Mario Lanza's body will be entombed in Calvary Mausoleum Wednesday.

It was flown here in a casket Sunday aboard a jet airliner.

Lanza, 38, died of a heart attack in Rome, Oct. 7. His body lay in state in his old hometown, Philadelphia, for two days.

Rosary will be recited Tuesday in Hollywood, where a solemn requiem high mass will be celebrated Wednesday.

His widow, Betty, and their four children flew here from London several hours before the body arrived.

Truman Tells Worshipers Bible Aids Government Ken

DALLAS (AP)—Former President Harry S. Truman told worshippers at a suburban church Sunday they and their children would get a better understanding of government if they read the Bible more.

The Constitution and the Declaration of Independence are based on the Bible, and the Good Neighbor Policy is drawn from the tenth chapter of the Gospel According to St. Luke, Truman said.

"Make it your business to find out what this book says about government," he counseled.

The ex-president's address to about 900 persons at the Elmwood

Methodist Church was his final public appearance in a three-day tour of Texas during which he met with Democratic leaders, delivered three speeches and was honored at a rally here Saturday night.

His remarks at the church were occasioned by Laymen's Day, a national observance of the Methodist Church.

His appearance at the church almost doubled its usual Sunday attendance of 500. Some 600 jammed the sanctuary and another 300 heard the service over loudspeakers in an adjoining room.

House Speaker Sam Rayburn and Sen. Ralph Yarborough sat behind the pulpit.

The Rev. Braxton Bryant, pastor of the church, said he invited the former president to make the Laymen's Day address after he learned Truman would be in Dallas.

The minister, who said he is active in Democratic politics, told the congregation Truman has "done more to bring peace on earth and good will to men than any living American."

'Drunkard' Closes Longest Run In Theatre History

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The final curtain has fallen on "The Drunkard," ending the longest run in theater history.

A champagne toast and the singing of "Auld Lang Syne" climaxed the 9,477th performance at the Theater Mart Saturday. When it was over, some of the cast hardly realized the end had come.

Rising costs and the desire to sell the theater property prompted Producer Mildred Ise to close the show, which opened in 1933.

"Oh well," said Neely Edwards, 76, who played the bartender in the melodrama, "they told me this job wouldn't last when I took it."

That was 26 years ago.

Dawson County Community Chest Drive Opens Tuesday

LAMESA—Plans for the 1959-60 Dawson County Community Chest campaign are nearing completion here. On Saturday County Judge R. F. Spraberry and Mayor John Flacha issued a joint proclamation naming Tuesday, Oct. 20, as "Fill the Chest Day."

The drive officially opens Tuesday with three of the divisions planning kick-off breakfasts at Liddell's Restaurant and the special gifts division meeting at the Westward Ho Restaurant.

Campaign Chairman C. T. (Sparkey) Beckham and President Bill David are hopeful that a ma-por portion of the $24,288 goal will be reached on the opening day of the drive. They eye a quota of $10,000 the first day.

Jake Lippard, chairman of the special gifts division, named eight captains to serve with him. They are Don Nutt, Howard Garner, Gene Campbell, Carl Schoenwolf, Roy Speck, Elgin Davis, B. P. Middleton and Lowell Hunt.

Selected workers for the employe and farm division of the drive are still to be announced. Lloyd Cline heads the employe group and Merrick is farm and ranch chairman.

Agencies supported by the campaign and their budget share of the funds include: Girl Scouts, $3,745; Goodfellows, $2,140; Boy Scouts, $4,494; Salvation Army, $2,990; American Red Cross, $7,490; Texas Rehabilitation Center (formerly Gonzales Warm Springs Foundation), $1,177; Texas United Fund (USO), $902; Volunteers of America, $909; and the American Heart Assn., $538.

U. S.-British Differences Over Summit Arise Again

WASHINGTON (AP) — Differences between the United States and Great Britain over summit policy are bubbling to the surface once again.

Although diplomats don't like to talk about it, President Eisenhower and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan still don't see eye to eye on the questions of timing and negotiations.

A week-long exchange of top-secret, top-level messages has made this evident.

Apparently Macmillan is trying to rush Eisenhower and President Charles de Gaulle of France into a conference with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev at the earliest possible moment.

The British leader's insistence has surprised American officials. They had thought his earlier urgency about a summit conference was only campaign oratory. With the recent election victory in his pocket, they reasoned, he would not pressure so much. But this has not been the case.

Officials here are concerned about more than the timing. They think they have detected a willingness on Macmillan's part to soften the Western stand on the Berlin issue.

Informants say that Macmillan would like a summit conference next month, at the latest in December. President Eisenhower reportedly has suggested a meeting in early December but, if De Gaulle requests a delay, would be willing to put it off until next year, probably in February.

These differences have made diplomats feel that there must be a Western summit conference in advance of the East-West meeting. There was no confirmation, however, of a Bonn report that Eisenhower had proposed such an advance session for the end of this month.

U. S. May Equal Legate's Ejection

WASHINGTON (AP)—The State Department is reported to be considering ejecting a Soviet diplomat from the United States in retaliation for the Soviet Union's ouster of the security chief of the U. S. Embassy at Moscow.

The prospect that such a step will actually be taken is at the moment highly uncertain. Sen. John Sherman Cooper (R., Ky.) called Sunday for such a move "in the absence of an apology" from the Kremlin.

The uncertainty is due partly to the fact that some officials consider direct retaliation in such cases as an empty gesture. But it is also the result of great puzzlement here about what the Soviet move itself was supposed to accomplish.

One theory advanced in diplomatic quarters is that the Kremlin wanted to warn the Soviet people to be wary of friendly contacts with Americans in spite of the official policy of the "Spirit of Camp David" preached by Premier Nikita Khrushchev following his conference with President Eisenhower three weeks ago.

But this is only a theory and officials here are waiting to see how the Soviets themselves handle the case of 27-year-old Russell A. Langelle before they make up their minds what the maneuver may mean.

Secretary of State Christian A. Herter has declined comment on the incident.

The story broke Saturday when the State Department accused the Soviets of seizing Langelle Friday morning and trying by bribery and threat of violence to make him into a spy for the Soviet government.

The acting chief of the U. S. Embassy, Edward L. Freers, protested to the Soviet Foreign Office Friday afternoon. The acting chief of the American section, E. R. Stringanov, former Soviet Embassy counselor in Washington—in reply accused Langelle of spying on the Soviet Union and ordered him out of the country.

U.S. Takes Part In Rommel Rites

ULM, Germany (AP) — The U. S. Army officially took part with the German army Sunday in memorial services for Field Marshal Erwin Rommel, who died during World War II. Rommel, known as "The Desert Fox," led Germany's Afrika Korps and later commanded forces in Normandy, after D-Day.

Bitterest Marshall Battles Had Him On The Sidelines

By ELTON C. FAY
WASHINGTON (AP) — The bitterest controversies involving George C. Marshall were waged with him standing aloof on the sidelines.

Charges amounting almost to disloyalty were thrust at Marshall by two senators on different occasions. His defenders included a President and the Pentagon. But Marshall said nothing, either because he didn't want to recognize the charges with any personal pronouncement or because he merely followed his pattern of remaining apart from things.

There were occasions, which came only rarely to public view, when the coolly correct Marshall could be vigorous and even angry in debate.

Some of these incidents occurred while he was Army chief of staff in World War II.

There was competition between the services for materials and men. And there were also conflicting views about fighting the war.

In one 1944 incident an Army division went ashore in the Pacific islands with two Marine divisions to drive the enemy out or kill him. The Marine commander was Lt. Gen. Holland M. (Howling Mad) Smith; the Army commander, Maj. Gen. Ralph Smith. The battle was hard. The two Marine outfits were on the flanks, the Army division in the center.

The Army division moved forward more slowly, following Army technique of allowing air and ship bombardment to first soften enemy strong points. Marine Gen. Smith removed Army Gen. Smith from command.

There were echoes back in the United States—including an angry scene in the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

Marshall locked horns with Adm. Ernest King, chief of Naval operations, his opposite in the Joint Chiefs organization. The debate grew hot. It concluded when Marshall, dropping his customary coldly official manner, leaned across the conference table, shook a finger under King's nose and said furiously:

"Never again will an Army general serve under a Marine command."

The criticism which was flung at Marshall years later, in the heat of political dispute, came mainly from Sens. Joseph McCarthy (R-Wis.) and William Jenner (R-Ind.). They were waging a war against communism, during the course of which accusations were aimed at scores of individuals in and out of government.

President Truman had nominated Marshall in 1950 to be secretary of defense, to take over direction of the war in Korea against the Communists of Asia. The nomination was up for Senate confirmation, but first a law had to be amended to permit a military officer to assume the civilian Cabinet post.

Jenner opposed the nomination. Marshall, said Jenner, was a "living lie" and a "stooge" for Secretary of State Dean Acheson whose foreign policy had come under barrage from McCarthy and Jenner.

The Indiana senator declared that: "Gen. Marshall is not only willing, he is eager to play the role of the front man for traitors."

McCarthy fired off his heaviest shots at the general in a Senate speech the following summer.

Marshall, said McCarthy, was a mysterious, powerful figure who "more often than not swayed the historic decisions" made by President Franklin Roosevelt in World War II.

The Wisconsin senator declared that Marshall was inclined to follow Soviet viewpoint as against that of the other ally, Britain.

The Pentagon stepped, somewhat sideways, into the argument by sending to the Senate press galleries a file of excerpts from addresses and writings praising Marshall.

Prompt support and reply came from President Truman.

What was said and done then welled up into public affairs later.

The 1952 presidential campaign came along. Nominee Eisenhower made a political speech in Milwaukee, McCarthy's home state. Eisenhower deleted from the speech prepared for Milwaukee delivery complimentary remarks about Marshall. Two newspapers said the deletion was at the request of McCarthy.

Spokesmen for Eisenhower and McCarthy denied it at the time. Two years later, former Republican Gov. Walter Kohler of Wisconsin, in a news conference, said it was he who urged the deletion of a man under attack by McCarthy would hurt the party.

The tempest was still going on in 1958. Truman said then that he gave Eisenhower hell in the 1952 campaign because Eisenhower didn't throw Jenner off a speaking platform for calling Marshall a traitor, as Truman put it.

Scenic Highway

ROME (AP)—Ruins of ancient Rome surrounding the Italian capital will be encompassed by a system of parks, forests, and picnic areas under plans announced last week by the Ministry of Public Instruction. One park will take in ruins of the Appian Way, the world's oldest paved road still in use.

Ingrid And Children Leave Rome

Ingrid Bergman and her three children are shown at Rome's airport just before boarding a plane for Paris. The takeoff ended, for the time being at least, her battle with Italian film producer Roberto Rossellini, a former husband, for the custody of their three children. The children are, left to right, Isabella, Ingrid Isotta, six-year-old twins, and Robertino, 9.

Education Queen Of Sunday Video

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Between "Divided We Stand" and the Jack Benny show, incidental education was queen of the network channels Sunday night.
"Our American Heritage" series premiered on NBC with an hour-long colored period piece concerned with the fierce and bitter differences between Jefferson and Hamilton, both members of Washington's Cabinet.
The play takes place in 1792 when the two enemies were emerging as leaders of opposing political factions — in spite of Washington's convictions that division would be fatal for a young nation. At the same time, they were at loggerheads on the proper way to handle war which had broken out between France, which had helped us in our struggle, and England, with whom we had made peace and established profitable trade.
It was more a statement of ideas than a play of action.
Jefferson was played in a rather stately, restrained manner by Ralph Bellamy, Hamilton, whose ideas rather than person were the villain of the piece, was made believable and passionate by Arthur Kennedy. President Washington was played as a tired and bewildered chairman of the board by Howard St. John.
"Divided We Stand" was reverent and patriotic but it just wasn't very good dramatic fare. For one thing, the idealistic and turgid speeches often sounded as if the actors were quoting from letters.
Jack Benny came along on CBS with his friend Harry S. Truman, who gave us an escorted tour of the Truman Library, Independence, Mo. For the most part he showed us glass cases filled with mementoes of the presidency—pictures, models of planes and submarines, Indian bonnets, and such. The film quality was poor and the sound was worse so a lot of the talk escaped me and then audience laughter covered up some of Mr. Truman's funnies completely. Jack was his subdued straight man.
"The Strawberry Blonde" on NBC was a remake of a 1941 movie, this time with Jane Blair and David Wayne in the leading roles. It was a rather serious little comedy about a boy who lost the girl of his choice and married his secretary. He really picked the right girl, of course, and all ends well, even if the hero does do five years in jail. It was pretty in color and the music was pleasant, all in a subdued sort of way.
Then there was Saturday night's "Ballad of Louie the Louse," an original musical comedy with Phil Silvers. This involved a loan shark who keeps his clients on the hook by threats of blackmail and physical harm. He is reported dead and his victims are thus freed. However, they miss him so much that when he turns up again, reformed and broke, they put him back in the loan shark business.
At first I thought — from the cast of characters (Mary Chandler, panhandler; Leo Drayer, horse player—it was a sort of poor man's "Guys and Dolls.") Then I wondered if Nat Hiken, who created it, didn't have a message. This message could be that life is much nicer if you're broke, or it might even be that people are happier when they're being shoved around and bilked. Anyway, I didn't think it was very funny but it sure was off-beat and runyonesque.

Motorist Held In Child Rape

HANNIBAL, Mo. (AP) — Officers seeking a man who raped an 8-year-old girl seized a motorist early today after a wild chase. Sheriff Melvin Starkey said the man would be charged with the crime.
Several shots were fired before the man, chased for miles through northeast Missouri, was trapped on a dead-end street.
Police said the arrested man identified himself as Charles Harold Burch, 29, of Decatur, Ill. Several persons who saw the rapist in Troy Sunday night, before the girl was lured away from the picnic there, were to view Burch. These included two older girls who had refused to get in a car with the man who picked up the younger girl with an offer of candy.

Gen. Marshall Lies In State

WASHINGTON (AP)—The body of Gen. George C. Marshall lies in state today at Washington National Cathedral. Simple last honors will follow Tuesday at Arlington National Cemetery.
The soldier and statesman died Friday night. The five-star general of the Army was 78.
Canon Luther D. Miller of the Episcopal Cathedral will conduct services Tuesday afternoon at the Ft. Myer Chapel, which adjoins the cemetery. Marshall had requested that services be held at a minimum. His burial will be private.

Norther Runs Out Of Punch

By The Associated Press
A weekend norther that sent temperatures to a record low for this time of year in Wichita Falls and threatened records in other areas ran out of punch Monday and temperatures started climbing.
Clear skies were the rule over all of Texas except the Gulf Coast and Rio Grande Valley.
Forecasts called for clear to partly cloudy weather in all sections of the state through Tuesday, the Weather Bureau said.
Long-range forecasts issued Monday call for warmer weather throughout the state until the end of the week, when temperatures will start back down.
No rain is expected until the latter part of the week, when a few showers are forecast for all areas of the state.
The norther kicked up enough wind to send small craft warnings up along the coast. The only rain reported for the 24 hours ending at 6 p.m. Sunday was .04 at Corpus Christi.
Maximum temperatures ranged from 67 at Dallas and Sherman to 80 at Laredo.

3 Brothers Die In Apartment Fire
PITTSBURGH (AP) — Three small brothers perished in bed Sunday night as fire swept through a two-story apartment building in nearby Braddock.
Firemen said dense smoke apparently smothered the Negro boys before the blaze reached their second floor bedroom.
The children were William Dupree, 5, and his brothers, Clifford, 4, and Keith, 2.
Their bodies were found on the first floor where their bed toppled down as the fire burned through the bedroom floor.

Expert Says U.S. Leads Atom Race

MOSCOW (AP) — America's atomic chief says the Soviets are not ahead of the United States in nuclear science and he sees no possibility of them forging ahead.
Chairman John A. McCone of the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission told a news conference Sunday that he came to this conclusion after leading a party of American scientists on a 10-day tour of the Soviet Union.
McCone said he favors cooperating with the Soviet Union in the peaceful use of nuclear energy provided both countries share secrets equally.
He suggested that as a first step toward possible joint U.S.-Soviet nuclear enterprises an exchange of personnel for periods of 10 months.

Cuba Gallops Off In All Directions For Prestige

HAVANA (AP) — Cuba, feeling her oats, has galloped off in a number of unfamiliar directions to round up prestige.
The chief destination of Fidel Castro's regime remains agrarian reform, but the government has undertaken various other projects to focus hemispheric and worldwide attention on this island of seven million.
Cuba is developing a national movie industry and will aim at international prizes—and markets. Shooting is scheduled to start soon on the first films. The government has guaranteed a five million dollar box office to start.

Cuba will have a government sponsored national theater. The theater house, rising ultra-modern at a cost of 5½ million dollars, is expected to open before the end of the year.
Plans are on the drawing board and 2½ million dollars in the budget for the first national aquarium. Its directors want to attract foreign ichthyologists to take advantage of the abundance of sea life in Cuba's waters.
A "writer's city," designed to lure foreign as well as Cuban authors, figures in the touristic future of the Isle of Pines. The island is being dressed up as part of the government's two million dollar-plus campaign to make Cuba a ranking tourist attraction.

Stolen Car Kills 4 Pupils

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A stolen car plowed into four children at a school bus stop in Columbus' South Side today and killed three of them, police reported.
The fourth child, Jerry Bellah, 5, suffered a broken leg.
Jerry's sister, Jane, 7, was killed.
The other victims were Randy Kline, 7, and his brother Raymond, 5.
The 22-year-old driver, who was not identified immediately, was taken to central police station.
Police said they took him from the scene quickly because angered residents were closing in on him. Witnesses told police the car was headed south on S. High Street (U.S. 23) at high speed.
They said the driver apparently tried to slow down and skidded onto a sidewalk in front of a grocery where the children were waiting for their school bus.

The minister of communications, Enrique Oltuski, has announced plans to establish a powerful transmitting station to compete with the Voice of America, BBC and Radio Moscow.
These projects have caught the imagination of a long frustrated people.
Earlier in the year a drive was launched to increase consumption of domestically produced goods.

Food Poisoning Hits 40 At Fair

DALLAS (AP)—Food poisoning—traced to dessert at a cafe on the fair grounds—struck about 40 people at the State Fair Sunday.
Thirty-seven persons were treated at hospitals. A number received emergency treatment at the fair.
Dr. James Strong, assistant director of the Dallas Public Health Department, said a cafe apparently sold pastry which touched off the illness.
The cafe was closed until the pastry was removed.

Older Men Held In R & R Riot

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — Men from 21 to 50 years of age caused much of the riotous disorder that led to the closing of a rock 'n' roll show Saturday night, police said.
A crowd of 12,300, mostly teenagers, was in municipal auditorium when fist fights, popping firecrackers, yelling and milling of the crowd brought the police riot squad to the scene.
Police hustled the more belligerent patrons off to jail. Forty-nine were booked on such charges as peace disturbance and public drunkenness. Of that group, 45 are Negroes.
The 49 range from 17 to 50 years of age. Slightly more than half are 21 or older.
There were no serious injuries.
The show was billed as "The Dick Clark Caravan of Stars," but the television emcee didn't accompany the troupe to Kansas City. He could not be reached at his home in Philadelphia for comment.
Heading the cast were singers Paul Anka, Lloyd Price, Annette, and Lavern Baker.

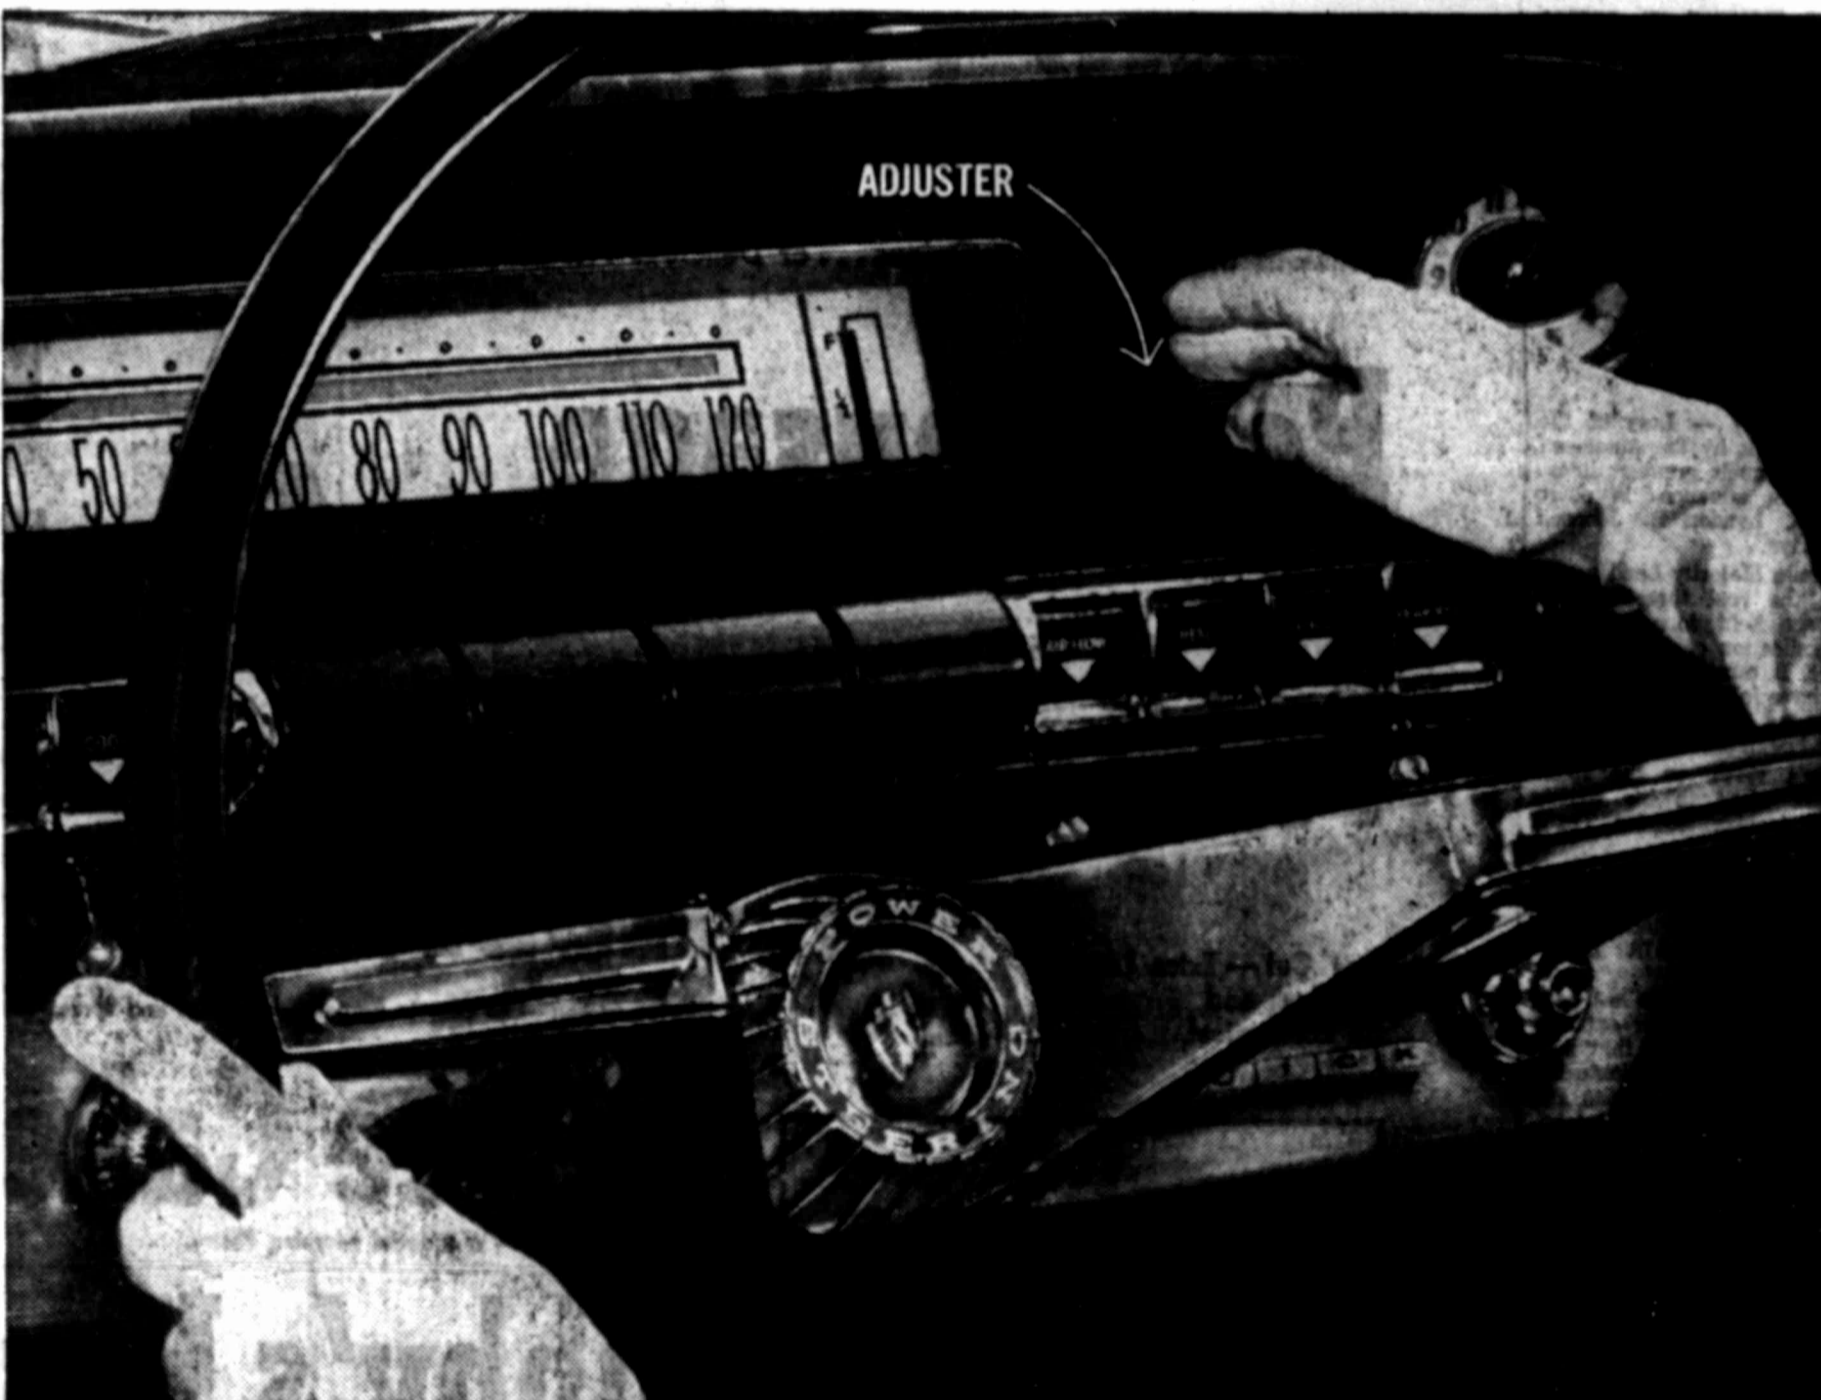

Freedom from LAXATIVE DRUGS

Lyndon Sees Bigger Peril In Softness

DALLAS (AP) — Loss of the pioneering spirit by the American people is a much greater threat than Russian advances in outer space, Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex.) says.

The Senate Majority Leader said Sunday "the real threat in the outer space field does not come from a collection of new military hardware. It comes from the fact that we have fallen behind in what has been an American specialty from the beginning — pioneering."

Johnson's views on the space race were aired in his weekly broadcast transcribed for Texas radio stations.

"American strength was founded upon the willingness of our people to penetrate the wilderness and to pioneer in the AIR AGE," Johnson said.

"Now that outer space has been opened up as a field for exploration, we can be certain that it is a subject which will dominate the thinking and the lives of men and women for many centuries," Johnson said. "It launches a new age of technology and, in comparison with the Soviets, we are deficient in that technology."

He commented that the United States generally has been first in announcing what we plan to do but "the Soviets have been first in announcements of things that have been done."

"It has been two years since the world first awakened to the fact that outer space had escaped from the science fiction magazines and become a negotiable element," Johnson noted.

"This was brought home to us when the Soviets placed, for the first time in all recorded history, an artificial satellite into orbit around the earth."

Since then, the Senator said, Soviet achievements in outer space exploration have been spectacular.

Johnson said this "does not mean that America is without achievements in the space field. But the fact still remains that it will take many years of hard work to catch up with the Soviets, and even more years of hard work to surpass them."

A huge flash of flame shoots partly over Angeles Crest Highway near Los Angeles, Calif., as the raging brush fire in the Angeles National Forest continued out of control. Lyndon Hosting Of Mateos Is Political Sign

JOHNSON CITY, Tex. (AP)—Senate Majority Leader Lyndon Johnson's homespun ranch party for President Lopez Mateos of Mexico on his face was a warm and generous expression of neighborly feeling.

It also had political significance in view of the fact that it followed by just a few hours House Speaker Sam Rayburn's opening of a campaign to make Johnson the Democratic nominee for president. Johnson says he will not seek the nomination, but he would not turn it down if the convention offers it.

The mere presence of former President Harry Truman who upset his schedule and traveled 500 miles out of his way to attend could not help but give muscle to Johnson's chances. Truman and Rayburn flew to the Pedernales River ranch together in a helicopter.

Truman did not mention politics and he has not endorsed Johnson. He has said only that the Texas senior senator is among the leading prospects for the nomination. The word politics was not spoken publicly during the short program that preceded Sen. and Mrs. Johnson's barbecue for President and Mrs. Lopez Mateos, concluding their 10-day goodwill tour of the United States and Canada.

Every speaker underlined the growing bonds of friendship between the neighboring nations. The publicity value of this is loaded on the constructive side, along with the presence of Truman, Rayburn, Gov. Price Daniel of Texas and an imposing array of political personages from Johnson's home state. Among those present were topflight Latin American figures and labor leaders from Texas.

Johnson, speaking from an improvised rostrum under the big live oak trees in the meadow near his white frame ranch home, introduced Texas AFL-CIO chief Jerry Holleman and Fred Schmidt and Bob Bryant of the railroad brotherhoods.

He also introduced Felix Tijerina, president of the League of United Latin American Citizens (LULAC) and D.R. Hector Garcia, president of the American GI Forum, an organization of war veterans.

Auxiliary Fired Up For Fight With Fire Dept. After Firing

ORELAND, Pa. (AP) — Mary Bunting is all fired up today for her battle with the Oreland Volunteer Fire Co.

The company ignited the red-hot feud last June when it fired the Women's Auxiliary, of which Mrs. Bunting was president.

The auxiliary, composed of 35 women, recently hired a lawyer and went into Montgomery County Court seeking reinstatement on the grounds they could not be ejected because their 1959 dues had been paid and the action was in violation of their constitution. The case is expected to come up within the next 10 days.

"We'll stand up for our rights," Mrs. Bunting declared today.

"We'll stand on our own two feet. It's the principle of the thing. They won't throw us out like they did the band and expect us to take it."

"We want to regain our privileges, our social standing. If the court upholds their action, we'll start a club of our own and help out such organizations as the Little League."

Since June there have been accusations and counter-accusations. The men charged that the women are interfering in the operation of the company.

They also accused the women of being extravagant in using auxiliary funds for a pleasure trip to New York and a fling at the Copacabana.

The big thing that really added fuel to the fire was the recent disbanding of the band. The women said it was done for no reason.

A company officer said the band was disbanded because members who used to march for nothing began seeking $10 to $15 per engagement.

Lunik Heads Out Again After Sending Moon Data

MOSCOW (AP) — Lunik III raced away from the earth again today after reportedly sending the earth the first pictures ever taken of the hidden side of the moon.

The Soviet News Agency Tass said the photographs are being processed and will be published, giving mankind the first view of the far side of the moon never seen from the earth.

Scientists expect the pictures to show the same sort of cratered face as the side of the moon which the earth sees.

The pictures presumably were taken Oct. 6 — two days after the launching of the 614-pound flying observatory—when it swooped within 4,375 miles of the moon as it hurtled out into space.

Moscow Radio said the Soviet space vehicle completed its first circuit around the earth Sunday and continued on its vast orbit, running 17 minutes behind a previously announced schedule.

The next radio contact with the traveler — officially called an automatic interplanetary station—is fixed for Wednesday afternoon, when it is scheduled to be 242,335 miles from the earth.

When the rocket was launched, Tass science writer Eugeny Bogoyavlensky predicted that the Lunik would fly close enough "for the whole hidden side of the moon to be photographed."

The Soviets have been cagey about the equipment packed into the space traveler. There was no official mention of camera apparatus.

EVEN QUEEN GETS FINED

NEWMARKET, England (AP)—They fined the queen Saturday.

The Jockey Club, ruling body of horse racing in England, levied an automatic fine of $140 against Queen Elizabeth because one of her thoroughbreds was withdrawn from Saturday's champion stakes.

Capt. Cecil Boyd-Rochford, the queen's trainer, and Royal Manager Charles Moore decided the race might prove too tough for Above Suspicion and upset racing plans for next year. Prince Aly Khan's Petite Etolie was the winner.

It is the first time in three centuries that a reigning British monarch has run afoul of the law—any law.

Another Soviet scientist, Director A. A. Mikhaylov of Pulkovo Observatory, said telemetered signals from the rocket had provided "valuable and unique" information about the physical properties of the moon.

Among other things, he said, the data will help locate the moon's center of gravity and aid in studies of the inequalities in the earth's rotation.

As the Lunik headed back out into space, speculation again arose about its ultimate fate. Mikhaylov, writing in Pravda, said it might crash into the moon or burn up in the fierce friction of the earth's denser atmosphere on a future circuit.

The Lunik's present orbit is beyond the earth's atmosphere, but Mikhaylov said the orbit could be changed by the gravitational pull of the moon on another approach.

Arson Seen As New Fire Hits Burned Area

LOS ANGELES (AP) — A new brush fire, believed set by an arsonist, added its destruction today to that of a blaze still raging out of control through valuable watershed.

Authorities reported that a man in a dark sedan was spotted speeding away from both the new fire, which spread at a terrific rate, and a third which was quickly contained.

Fresh fire fighters were summoned, bringing to 3,000 the number of fighting the two fires in Angeles National Forest.

The original fire, which started last Tuesday, had destroyed 12,700 acres from the northern outskirts of Los Angeles foothill communities northward for several miles.

The first fire took its second life. Philip Chavez, 27, a Zuni Indian from Zuni, N.M., died after becoming ill Sunday. An earlier death occurred when a man fell and struck his head on a rock.

Bulldozer operators building fire lines plunged beneath aluminized asbestos blankets to save their lives when flames swept over them. They suffered first — and second-degree burns.

I KNOW IT'S TRUE... I READ IT TODAY IN BIG SPRING DAILY HERALD

This is the picture of a man who's sure he's right, because his facts are recorded in print, in a medium he respects for its care in reporting the facts—his daily newspaper.

Most people are convinced, and rightly so, that newspapers are reliable, because they know that newspaper people are trained and experienced in painstaking, impartial treatment of everything that's written and printed. This makes your daily newspaper as accurate a record of the day's events as is humanly possible to present.

Another thing—newspapers are a permanent record. Facts in the newspaper don't get twisted and confused because people don't hear them quite right, or because they fade from memory in time. They're put into permanent print, where they can be saved for future reference, and checked for reliability again and again. Readers have confidence in their newspapers. This is one of the biggest reasons why newspapers produce such consistent results for advertisers.

For honest forthright reporting, for accurate knowledge of local, national and international affairs... and for the daily advertisements that help you live better, read and subscribe to:

RAILROAD FEATHERBEDDING:

$500,000,000 LOSS

TO THE NATION—INCLUDING YOU—EVERY YEAR

Featherbedding on the railroads — pay for work not done or not needed — is costing the American people the shocking total of more than $500,000,000 a year.

You pay for it every time you shop, because featherbedding costs are hidden in the price of everything you buy.

Obsolete union work rules, involving the railroad operating employees, are responsible for this gigantic burden. Right now, for instance, these rules require every diesel locomotive to carry a fireman—even though diesels have no fires to stoke, no boilers to tend.

The forthcoming negotiations between the railroads and the unions are urgently important to the whole nation.

In asking the unions to drop these featherbedding rules, all the railroads ask for is a fair day's work for a fair day's pay.

STEEL

public hearings, helped clarify steel strike issues and led to some compromising from both sides. But it was a too little, too late proposition, officials conceded.

At the root of the steel dispute are two main issues: 1. The industry wants a freer hand at making manpower and other economic concessions — a leeway that McDonald said would come only "over my dead body." 2. The union wants economic concessions that the industry strongly opposes.

Each side gave some ground. The industry offered to submit its management prerogative demands to arbitration. Even this the union rejected. The union parred down its wage-benefit demands. But they were still too high for the steel firms.

When peace efforts folded Sunday night the union stuck fast on a proposal for a two-year contract it valued at 19 1/2 cents per hour per man. The industry, saying the cost was far more, stood for a three-year pact of something about half what the union wanted. Pre-strike worker earnings averaged $3.11 an hour.

R. Conrad Cooper of U.S. Steel Corp., chief industry negotiator, said the industry boosted its money offer from a 2 per cent payroll increase to 2 1/2 per cent and was unwilling to go higher. He said the union proposal called for a 5 per cent hike.

Kaiser Steel Corp., it was revealed, had helped the union draft a proposal designed to settle the dispute. But major steel companies meeting with Kaiser in New York Saturday decided to reject the plan. The Kaiser-Union talks had been going on secretly for months as a side line to the main negotiations.

Kaiser finally announced Sunday it would not make a separate deal with the union, and would stick with the rest of the industry.

Steel stockpiles have almost vanished. Even with production resumed under an injunction, it will be many weeks before anything like peak output is reached. Unemployment will grow. More than 225,000 workers in related industries already are idle.

And Labor Secretary Mitchell said that with the dispute still unsettled, and a possible new strike in January, business generally will be "unable to plan into the coming year with any degree of certainty."

Mrs. Moreland Dies Sunday

LAMESA — Funeral rites for Mrs. Eura Ella Moreland, 76, are to be held at 3:30 p.m. Tuesday in Lamesa Church of Christ. Burial is to be in Lamesa Cemetery with Higginbotham Funeral home in charge of arrangements.

Born Sept. 28, 1883 in Athens, she had been a member of the Church of Christ for 50 years. Survivors include her husband, George F. Moreland, five daughters, Mrs. J. M. Blakey, Lamesa; Mrs. Cuba Wornack, Lubbock; Mrs. Virgil Youngman and Mrs. Dolly Tolbert, Farmington, N. M.; Miss Jenkins Moreland, Lake J. B. Thomas, one son, Jack Moreland, Carlsbad, N. M.; four sisters, Mrs. F. F. Campbell, Mrs. G. F. Bellah, both of Lone Oak; Mrs. Morris Ratliff, Stinnett; Mrs. T. B. Adair, Sudan; two brothers, J. C. and Roy Newland, Lamesa. There are 11 grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Officials Mull Station Wagon Living Problem

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP)—The St. Louis Board of Children's Guardians is considering the case of a 23-year-old widow and her eight children, found living in a station wagon here for the second time since her husband died last July.

Mrs. William H. Catlow was found in the car Saturday. Police said she had $2,800 in cash. Weeping, she told police: "I don't need food and I don't need clothes. All I need is a home."

The children, ranging in age from 4 months to 11 years, were in good condition. They were placed in foster homes and their mother was admitted to a mental hospital for observation.

Mrs. Catlow and her family were found living in the car last August. At that time she declined the help of service agencies, and left for California. She receives $250 a month from Social Security.

Police said she and the family had been living in the station wagon since returning from Pomona, Calif., recently.

Ralph White And Mrs. Hunt On Juvenile Study Panel

Ralph White, county commissioner, and Mrs. A. W. Hunt, wife of the president of Howard County Junior College, will represent the Howard County Commissioners Court on the study committee dealing with juvenile delinquency.

Ed Carpenter, county judge, named White and Mrs. Hunt on Monday morning. He said that he felt it was advantageous to have Mrs. Hunt as a member since he believes the Junior College should at least have an ex-officio representative on the committee.

LAMESA — A 22-year-old Lubbock Latin-American was too eager to get a new 1960 Ford, according to Dawson County officers. He has been arrested and is being held on charges of burglary and car theft.

Officers said that the Latin-American broke into the McPhaul Motor Co. showroom on Friday night. He drove away in the 1960 Ford which was on display.

On Saturday afternoon the stolen car was recovered abandoned in the Hillcrest Addition. Sunday, the suspect was arrested and charged filed against him.

More than 300 delegates are expected. Host chapter members are expected from Wichita Falls, Lubbock, Odessa, Midland, Big Spring, San Angelo, Snyder and Abilene.

The child, still wearing only a light summer dress, walked out onto a country lane from a wood-ed sector just as searchers were passing by.

More than 400 searchers, including 150 soldiers, were in the rugged area when she was found.

Elbow School Troop Revived

An organization meeting is being held this evening at Elbow school to re-activate the Boy Scout troop at that point.

T. Sgt. R. M. Clark is the scoutmaster of the unit and Joe Maenner the assistant. R. E. Howels, principal of the school has sent out notices to all boys of scouting age and their fathers urging them to attend the 7:30 p.m. meeting.

Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in the Midway school a second meeting directed toward organization of Cub Pack No. 236 will be held. Doc Hudson is chairman of this meeting to which parents and their Cub-age sons (8-10) are invited.

James Eubanks Returns Home

James L. Eubanks, executive secretary of the Big Spring Citizens' Traffic Commission, was back at his desk this morning. He returned Sunday from Chicago where he attended the National Safety Council's manager's training institute.

Eubanks was one of 28 safety organization executives selected to attend the training held last week. It is the only course of its kind in the world.

"The course," according to Eubanks, "is conducted to enable local safety managers to plan more comprehensive and effective safety programs." It covers all phases of safety.

Funds for the trip were furnished by the CTC and the Big Spring City Commission.

DWI Is Charged

Two men are being detained in the Howard County Jail charged with DWI.

They are Tino Lopez and Ysidro Martinez. Both were apprehended over the weekend.

Goliad Street Job Gets Into Action

Street and Sanitation Division crews were stabilizing a section of Goliad Street this morning, north of 18th St. Bruce Dunn, Director of Public Works, said the portion of the street that poses the greatest drainage problem will get the one-shot coating.

This stabilization program is part of an over-all plan to solve many of the drainage problems in the city, short of providing paving. Streets on the north side, that received the protection, stood up well during the recent heavy rain.

Latins Arrive For Dallas Fete

DALLAS (AP)—Thirty-six South American diplomats, beautiful women and other notables arrived Sunday for the "South American Fortnight" celebration.

Each was given a celebrity-type welcome.

On the "South American Fortnight Special" from New York and Washington were Perle Mesta, Asst. Secretary of State Roy Rubottom, 10 South American ambassadors and their wives, 10 South American girls from the diplomatic corps in Washington and others from the State Department and the W. R. Grace & Co., a co-sponsor of the event with Neiman-Marcus of Dallas.

Local officers will probably attend the West Central Texas Law Enforcement Assn. conference set for Sterling City Thursday. Police Chief C. L. Rogers said this morning that his department would probably be represented, but final plans have not been made.

RUSK, Tex. (AP) — Cherokee County Commissioners Court ordered today an election on off-premises sale of alcoholic beverages within the city limits of Rusk.

The court set the election for Nov. 14 in response to a petition signed by 246 citizens.

Rusk is in Cherokee County, which has voted dry since 1901.

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Elizabeth Taylor has signed a million-dollar contract to play the title role in the movie, "Cleopatra."

Contractors Plan Meeting

General contractors throughout Texas will gather at Abilene Oct. 25-26-27 to attend the fifth annual state convention of the Associated General Contractors. Host for the occasion will be the West Texas Chapter, ACC.

Delegates to the convention will represent more than 600 firms which are members of the 15 Texas ACC Chapters.

Registration and some subcommittee meetings will open the convention Sunday morning and afternoon. A dinner and dance will be held Sunday evening at the Abilene Country Club.

Committee meetings and a tour of Dyess AFB near Abilene are scheduled Monday morning. Major address at a Monday noon luncheon will be given by John A. Volpe of Malden, Mass. Volpe is presently national ACC vice president and just recently was nominated as president for 1960.

Highlight of the convention will be a reception and banquet on the night of Oct. 26. Main speaker will be former senator Josh Lee of Oklahoma.

More than 300 delegates are expected. Host chapter members are expected from Wichita Falls, Lubbock, Odessa, Midland, Big Spring, San Angelo, Snyder and Abilene.

Missing Girl, 3, Is Found

POTOSI, Mo. (AP) — A young girl missing all night in near-freezing temperatures in the Clark National Forest was found alive today, three miles from the point where she disappeared.

Donna Rulo, 3 1/2, was shivering from the cold but otherwise appeared to be in good condition.

The child, still wearing only a light summer dress, walked out onto a country lane from a wood-ed sector just as searchers were passing by.

More than 400 searchers, including 150 soldiers, were in the rugged area when she was found.

The child was calm but her parents broke into tears as they embraced her.

Before she was found, authorities had expressed fear that she might have been kidnapped. She had disappeared from the parked car of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rulo, near this eastern Missouri town when they went for a 20-minute hike into the woods about 3 p.m. Sunday.

Relative Of Mrs. O'Brien Is Ill

Mr. and Mrs. Biedose O'Brien have returned from Dallas and the bedside of her sister, Mrs. Robert Vermillion.

Mrs. Vermillion, the former Lois Brown, suffered a brain hemorrhage last Wednesday and has been in a critical condition since that time at St. Paul's Hospital. She is in room 241.

Her mother, Mrs. R. W. Brown, is still in Dallas at her bedside.

Court Turns Down O'Dwyer Tax Plan

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court today refused to review a decision that William O'Dwyer, onetime mayor of New York City, and his former wife owe $8,242 in back federal income taxes.

The decision, by the U.S. Circuit Court in Richmond, Va., upheld a ruling by the U.S. Tax Court.

The government's tax claims were for deficiencies in the years 1949 through 1951. In part of that time, O'Dwyer was ambassador to Mexico. His wife was Sloan Simpson.

ADA Sees Little Choice For Voters

WASHINGTON (AP) — Americans for Democratic Action says voters will have little to choose from in the presidential elections of 1960.

In a weekend report on the last session of Congress, the organization said that Democratic leaders had surrendered to President Eisenhower. It termed the session a failure.

As a result, ADA continued, the two parties have records that give voters little choice.

What do you know about that?

"What do you know about that?" How often you hear a newspaper reader ask this question! It's largely a rhetorical question, of course, because the newspaper reader already knows ALL about whatever it is.

The primary purpose of the newspaper is to supply the ANSWERS to the questions that most interest and most concern people. Questions as close to home as next year's local tax rate. Questions as far afield as what is happening on the other side of the world . . . which may none the less directly bear on your future.

Your answer to the question, "What do you know about that?" is likely to depend on how closely you read your newspaper . . . for accurate and complete information on everything that it is important for you to know.

THE "TOTAL SELLING" MEDIUM IS THE DAILY NEWSPAPER

"What do you know about that?" usually includes advertising, too. To most people, advertising columns of The Herald are just as important as the news columns. Through advertising, housewives know the best values offered in food stores, the latest fashions offered in smart shops. Dad can keep informed on the newest lawn and garden tools, the advances in automobiles, specials offered by any merchant. LOOKING 'EM OVER

By TOMMY HART

If the Big Spring Steers lose ten straight games this season, as some observers have predicted they'll do, they will set a modern school record.

The 1938 Steer team went through its season without beating anyone but did manage to tie Abilene, of all teams, 7-7.

That year's team played some tremendous ball, by the way, losing to San Angelo by only two points and to Lamesa by only seven (13-6).

The '38 club played San Angelo, Abilene and Sweetwater twice each. The second time around, Abilene measured the locals, 23-7, while Sweetwater beat the Steers on two occasions, 25-0, and 19-0, as did San Angelo, 14-12 and 14-6.

Big Spring's 1945 team won only one game, a 37-0 decision over Tahoka.

In the past 30 years, the local school has fielded only eight teams which have won more than half their games. The local school played better than 500 football only in the years 1931, 1932, 1934, 1935, 1936, 1940, 1953 and 1954.

There is no indication whatsoever that the school board will act on Al Miltch's contract until the end of the campaign.

Miltch says, however, that he is being hamstrung by having to work without a contract renewal and an extension of his pact for at least one more year would give his assistants and his team a shot in the arm, so to speak.

He adds if he can't prove himself in one more year here he'd be willing to surrender the reins without protest.

Even though Sweetwater could go ahead and win the District 3 AAA championship this fall, chances are not overly bright that Elwood Turner will return as the Pony coach.

Turner has given the city nothing but winning football since he arrived on the scene from Albany several years ago but he has had his critics.

He shouldn't find it too difficult to land another job, if he decides to go shopping.

The New York Yankees are quietly talking a trade with the Milwaukee Braves, in which they would exchange infielder Gil McDougald for pitcher Bob Buhl.

The Braves have never gotten the mileage out of Buhl they thought they should while McDougald has slowed down a step in the last year or two.

Jackie Burke, the pro golfer, is having more trouble with his hand. The injury has restricted his appearances on the tournament trail.

He hasn't hit a golf ball in nearly a month now and recently had to cancel an appearance on Jimmy Demare's all-star TV show because of the misery in his hand.

Rice Institute is probably the only college in the country which can boast of three quarterbacks in big league professional football.

King Hill of the Chicago Cardinals, Los Angeles' Frank Ryan and Tobin Rote of Detroit are all Rice exes.

Jesse McGuire, the Plainview boy playing football for Texas A&M, is the boy Coach Jim Myers makes the most use of under the wild-card substitution rule.

He's a stand-out on offense but a security risk on defense.

Decision On Sens May Be Upcoming

By WHITNEY SHOEMAKER WASHINGTON (AP) — Calvin Griffith may provide today the answer to what has become Washington's annual riddle: Will he move his American League baseball team?

One source on the fringe of the club's affairs predicted that Griffith would spurn once more an invitation to transfer to Minneapolis.

Unitas Big Gun In Colts' Victory

By MIKE RATHET Associated Press Sports Writer

Johnny Unitas, the artful flipper who's taken his place alongside Luckman as one of pro football's greatest quarterbacks, stands alone as the cliff-hanging variety.

Unitas' last-minute aerial sorties have been responsible for the 3-1 Colts in defense of their National Football league championship.

The 28-year-old signal-caller has fired 10 touchdown passes in the number of consecutive games in which he has tossed at least one TD record compiled by Baltimore's four games—extending to 29 the strike—and has accounted for 60 of the Colts' 94 points.

Seven of Unitas' 10 scoring flings have come in the final quarter as the Colts struggled from behind.

The script was the same Sunday as Baltimore knocked off one of its top rivals for the Western Conference crown. The Colts defeated the Chicago Bears 21-7 with Unitas connecting for two touchdown passes in the last period.

The victory moved the Colts into a tie for first place in the West with San Francisco and Green Bay. The 49ers clobbered winless Detroit 34-13, and the Packers, undefeated in their first three outings, were pounded 45-6 by Los Angeles.

In the Eastern conference, the defending champion New York Giants took sole possession of the top spot with a 3-1 mark. They knocked off Philadelphia 24-7 while Pittsburgh was dumping Washington 27-6. Cleveland moved into a four-way tie for second by whipping Chicago's Cardinals 17-7.

Avenge their sole defeat, the Colts pulled ahead of the Bears, now 1-3 for the season, when Unitas shot a 25-yarder to Lennie Moore. His one-yard flip to L. G. Dupre closed out the scoring. The Bears had tied it just after the second half opened on Willie Gailmore's 30-yard scamper. Alan Ameche accounted for the other Colt TD.

The surprising 49ers, riding the six arm of veteran Y. A. Title and halving the Lion (0-4) offense with a defensive line that flattened quarterback Tobin Rote, built a 20-0 lead and never were headed. Tittle passed for one touchdown, hitting Clyde Conner with a 37-yard toss. J. D. Smith scored twice for San Francisco.

Bill Wade's three touchdown passes and the running of Ollie Matson—who picked up 121 yards in 20 carries—overwhelmed the Packer defense which had allowed only three TD's previously. Matson scored once on a 49-yard ramble and paced the Ram's surprise running attack that also included Jon Arnett (72 yards in 11 attempts) and Tom Wilson (52 in 6).

Alex Webster broke a 7-7 tie in the second period with a 18-yard touchdown sprint that put the Giants ahead of the Eagles (2-2) to stay. Webster, making his first start and playing despite a still-painful torn cartilage in his left side, led the ground-gainers with 62 yards although used sparingly. Harland Svare opened the New York scoring by chugging 70 yards with an interception.

Making the most of seven Redskin (2-2) fumbles, the Steelers (2-2) turned three into touchdowns. Two of them built a 14-0 lead before the game was five minutes old. Larry Krukut cracked the Washington line for two scores on short plunges as Pittsburgh avenged an earlier loss. Sam Baker was the Redskins' entire offense, kicking two field goals.

The Browns (2-2), scoring in the opening period on an 82-yard drive and a 37-yard interception by Bernie Parrish, built a commanding lead before the Cardinals (1-3) could get untracked. Cleveland's Jimmy Brown accounted for 123 yards on the ground in 23 rushes and caught three passes for 22 yards.

The Cards played most of the game without both regular quarterbacks—King Hill and M. C. Reynolds. Hill injured his throwing arm in the second period and was relieved by Reynolds. Reynolds threw once, was hurt and also went to the sidelines. Defensive halfback Jim Roach took over, arching a spectacular 62-yard TD pass to Woodyley Lewis for their only score.

Louisiana State is the favorite to win the SEC crown, but must still contend with Mississippi. Both now show 5-0 records and meet on Oct. 31.

Northwestern, which shot to the fore in the Big Ten in almost as surprising a move as Yale's climbing to the top of the Ivy League, can breathe a little easier now. Purdue and Iowa, two of the main pretenders to the title, were beaten Saturday. The injury-riddled Boilermakers were toppled from the unbeaten ranks by Ohio State, 15-0, while Wisconsin thrugged Iowa, 25-16.

Texas got past one of its main threats in Arkansas, but Texas Christian has not given up hopes of getting the hot berth in the Cotton Bowl. TCU slaughtered Texas Tech last Saturday, 39-6, and appears to be waking up after being beaten by Arkansas.

On the West Coast, Southern California turned back Washington, 22-15, and Oregon shocked the Air Force Academy, 20-3, snapping the fly boys' unbeaten string at 14. The two winners stayed on the unbeaten list, but they don't meet.

Elsewhere, Syracuse and Penn State remained at the top of the East. The Orange tumbled Holy Cross, 42-6, and Penn State downed Boston College, 21-12.

Oklahoma, deflated nationally, still rules the Big Eight, and went through its 73rd game without defeat by shutting out Missouri, 23-0. On Saturday, the Sooners meet Kansas, the last league team to beat them.

In the Atlantic Coast Conference, Clemson remained at the head of the class with a 3-0 league record, although beaten by Georgia Tech in a non-loop game. The Tigers play South Carolina on Thursday.

Meredith Seeks Passing Record In SW Circuit

By The Associated Press

Don Meredith, SMU's mighty passer, is after a Southwest Conference record.

Meredith completed 15 passes against Rice last week and went slightly ahead of the pace set in 1958 by Buddy Humphrey of Baylor in setting the record of 112 completions in a season.

Meredith has connected on 45 in 4 games for 607 yards. Humphrey got his 112 in 10 games—an average of 11.2 per outing. Meredith's average is 11.25.

Meredith's 212 yards against Rice was the top performance in a statistical way last week. It gave him the lead in passing by 232 yards.

Jack Spikes of TCU increased his lead in ball-carrying when he ran for 76 yards against Texas A&M. He now has 347 yards in 62 carries. Jim Mooty of Arkansas is second with 297 on 54 runs.

Meredith is well out front in total offense, too. He has 647 yards on 110 plays. Charley Milstead of A&M is second with 459 on 105.

Jack Collins of Texas held his lead in punting. His average is 47.5 yards on 14 kicks. Gordon Spear of Rice is second with 43.1 on 9 boots.

Bill Bueck of Rice is the leader in punt returns with an 11.2 yards average. Glynn Gregory of SMU took over the lead in pass-receiving, 10 for 156 yards. Jack Estes of A&M and Gerald Moore of Baylor are second with 9 apiece.

Mike Cotten of Texas and Spikes have each intercepted four passes to lead in that category.

Evans And Henson Are Co-Captains

Jimmy Evans and Harold Henson have been named co-captains of the 1959-60 Howard County Junior College basketball team, which is now in the midst of workouts.

Evans is a Big Spring High School graduate. Henson attended Meadow High School.

The Hawks open their season here Tuesday, Dec. 1, at which time they play Decatur Baptist College.

Script To Liking Of Owls In S'west Football Race

HOUSTON (AP) — The Rice Owls, perennial silky Sullivan in early football season play head into the Southwest Conference stretch against third-ranking Texas Saturday with a script to their liking.

The Owls have yet to scratch the win column in four outings. While the talented Longhorns sport an unblemished, though shaken, record, which is the way Rice seems to like to set the stage.

Texas stormed into Houston a year ago ranked the nation's No. 4 team to face a Rice team not yet sure of its wings. The Owls collapsed Texas' title dreams with a humiliating 34-7 verdict.

Nationally-ranked Army then got the scare of its life against Rice but escaped with a 14-7 victory by virtue of a last-minute pass.

Two years ago it was the John Crow-led Texas Aggies. Coach Jess Neely's late-blooming South Mainers knocked the cadets off the top of the nation's top 10. Neely disagrees with the consensus that he brings his teams along to hit their peak for the conference chase. But the records won't bear him out.

Losses to top-ranked Louisiana State and Duke in their first two games saw five Rice quarterbacks gain only 15 yards.

Things got better against Florida. With Billy Bueck and Max Webb leading the way, the Owl quarterbacks romped for 150 yards and a 13-13 draw against the No. 17 team.

Webb ground out 75 more last Saturday as Rice shoved superstition aside and held favored Southern Methodist, then ranked No. 18, to another 13-13 tie.

"Our sophomores really grew up," Neely commented on Rice's holding its own against the wizardry of Don Meredith.

LONGHORNS NOT SURE OF BOWL TRIP YET

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF Associated Press Sports Writer

Texas leads the Southwest Conference football race going into the last half of the season but isn't counting Cotton Bowl money yet. The competition has just started to get tough.

Five grim foes await the undefeated, footed Longhorns. The first one — Rice — is probably the most dreaded.

Texas plays Rice at Austin Saturday night thinking about all the hopes the Owls have swept away over the years. Rice has been the toughest team to beat when Texas reached this stage of the race with an undefeated, untied record. Only last year Rice floored Texas 34-7 under similar circumstances.

Texas became the undisputed leader of the conference race through three October Saturdays when the Longhorns edged Arkansas 13-12 last week.

Rice came up from the floor to tie favored Southern Methodist 13-13 and Texas Christian smashed Texas A&M 39-6 to create this situation. Arkansas beat both TCU and Baylor previously.

The big game this week is, of course, that melee at Austin. But A&M and Baylor will be trying to eliminate each other in a clash at College Station. The loser of this game will fall from contention.

The shortened conference schedule makes possible two forays into inter-sectional strife. TCU plays Pittsburgh at Pittsburgh and Arkansas strikes at mighty Mississippi at Memphis.

The Arkansas-Mississippi battle will be of great importance to the league. Not yet has a conference team been able to post a victory over a Southeastern Conference outfit.

SMU, chagrined over its costly tie with low-rated Rice, plays a game that counts nothing, meeting Texas Tech at Dallas. Tech is a member of the conference but isn't competing for the championship.

Baylor beat Tech 14-8 last week, the second conference team to turn the trick. TCU was the other. Tech won over A&M in the season's opening game.

Everybody still is in the championship race with Arkansas in probably the best position to capitalize in the event Texas should lose one. The Razorbacks have played three conference games. Nobody else has played more than two.

TCU's devastating defeat of A&M indicated the Horned Frogs have at least reached the potential outlined for them before the season started.

SMU has a suspicion that a one-man team will find it tough winning in this league. SMU has quite a one-man team — Don Meredith—but he is handling too great a task.

Big Spring's Jerry Tucker (15) looks surprised after being tackled by two El Paso Austin players, one of whom was Charles Pearce (66), in the above picture. Tucker was trying desperately to get Big Spring a score. El Paso won, 35-0. The action occurred here Friday night.

Yale No Longer Poor Relation

By ED CORRIGAN Associated Press Sports Writer

Just a year ago, Yale was a poor relation in the Ivy League, a ne'er do well sack that couldn't win a football game with its cousins.

The Eli wound up the season's work at the bottom of the league with a horrendous total of 203 points scored against them. They lost all seven of their Ivy League games and beat only two outsiders, Connecticut and Colgate.

Just about the same crowd reported to Coach Jordan Olivari this fall, and nothing except further degradation was predicted for them. If they couldn't win in '58, they wouldn't win in '59.

But couldn't they? Something happened along the way, and today Yale, of all teams, stands as the only unscathed on major outfit in the country. Until last Saturday, the Eli had to share the distinction with Mississippi and Penn.

But Yale polished off Cornell, 23-0, while Ole Miss was whipping Tulane, 53-7, and Penn was crushing Brown, 36-9.

Louisiana State is the favorite to win the SEC crown, but must still contend with Mississippi. Both now show 5-0 records and meet on Oct. 31.

Merkel Badgers Will Join Dist. 6-A Again In 1960

The growing pains the city of Stanton has experienced in recent years will force its high school into Class AA athletic ranks in the Texas Interscholastic League next year.

Now a member of District 6-A, the Buffaloes will be competing in District 3-AA starting with the 1960 football season.

Other members of that conference include Denver City, Post, Stanton and Tahoka.

Coahoma remains in District 6-A but will again have to compete against Merkel, which has been in District 10-A the past two seasons but, prior to that, was in 6-A.

Youth In Business Strictly For Self

DETROIT (AP) — The boy was the picture of enterprising youth as he beckoned busily to cruising latecomers headed for the Detroit Lions — San Francisco 49ers football game Sunday.

Forty motorists eyed the easy-in, easy-out lanes and glided into parking spaces on the big field near Briggs Stadium. The dollar asked by the youth seemed reasonable enough.

When the parkers returned after the game, their cars were there but the hustling lad wasn't.

Tucked into each windshield was a $3 parking ticket. The convenient parking lot was Detroit's J.C. Nagel playground.

BIG SPRING DAILY HERALD

SEC. B BIG SPRING, TEXAS, MONDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1959 SEC. B

Honorary Texan

Sophia Loren, taking time out from shooting scenes for a picture, "Bay of Naples," shows off a "certificate of Honorary Citizen of the Empire of Texas" in Rome. On the wall behind the actress is a map of North America on which Texas appears somewhat smaller than it really is—we're modest.

Flynn Never Let Morals Stop Fun

Editor's note: In his years as a Hollywood columnist, Bob Thomas came to know Errol Flynn well. In two articles, the first of which follows, he recalls some fascinating aspects of the veteran film star and charming rogue.

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie - TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — The film colony, already shocked by a series of prominent deaths, was stunned by the passing of Errol Flynn after 50 years of high living.

It seemed as though Flynn would always be with us, flying in town from some international playgrounds to toss a party and shake the town to its moral roots. He never let morality interfere with his fun.

In some charmless men, such an attitude would be shocking and repugnant. But Flynn had such a light air that his antics seemed almost natural as a way of life. And so he went on drinking and romancing to his final hours.

Prison Rodeo In 3rd Performance

HUNTSVILLE (AP) — Inmate performers vied with television and movie stars for attention Sunday as the Texas Prison Rodeo moved through its third performance.

The fast-moving two hour show saw prisoners have an unusually tough time with wild broncs and Brahma bulls.

Steve McQueen, star of the television series "Wanted, Dead or Alive," and Johnny Horton, Western singer, performed between the standard rodeo acts.

Charles Coburn Surprises Film Town, Takes A Bride

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Actor Charles Coburn, 82, has brought home a bride — a widow just half his age.

He caught the film colony by surprise Sunday when he flew to Las Vegas, Nev., and married Winifred Jean Clements Natzka. She is 41. They returned home Sunday night.

A TWA hostess aboard the plane to Hollywood said the couple held hands all the way. Occasionally, she said, Coburn bent over and kissed his bride's hand.

Coburn and his new wife have known each other seven years. She was married to New York opera basso Oscar Natzka, but he died eight years ago. She has two sons, aged 8 and 13.

The blonde 41-year-old accountant is from New Zealand. To indicate just how quiet Coburn kept his plans, his agent and longtime friend, Jay Faggen, said the actor didn't even tell his servants.

He would have seemed incredible in any era, but in these conformist times he stood out indelibly. His own life was so mingled with his screen roles that it was sometimes hard to distinguish which was which. Consider some of his parts:

"Captain Blood" — Flynn himself admitted being a pirate in his South Pacific youth, plundering oyster beds.

"Gentleman Jim" — The actor had more (though shorter) fights than Jim Corbett and they were better publicized.

"Objective Burma" — Flynn claimed to have seen warfare up close during the Spanish and Cuban revolutions.

"Too Much Too Soon" — He could match John Barrymore drink for drink and often did.

"The Adventures of Don Juan" — The legendary lover might well have suffered in comparison to the man who played him on the screen.

He went merrily on, living his life as he liked it, denying himself none of human pleasures.

"I do the things people would like to do if they had nerve and money enough," he once said in a rare self-appraisal. The money sometimes ran out; he spent several millions. Nerve he always had.

His most famous scrape came when he was tried for alleged statutory rape of two teen-age girls. He was acquitted.

I recall only one situation in which he denied himself anything. He had been warned to avoid an entanglement with his co-star in a movie of recent years, since she was the amour of a film tycoon.

"That was unnecessary," he told me. "I have had a longstanding rule never to make love to my leading ladies."

Tomorrow: Memories of Flynn.

Fire Kills Father, 3 Of His Children

POCAHONTAS, Ark. (AP)—Funeral services were scheduled at nearby McDougal today for a father and three children, killed in a fire which left the mother critically burned.

William Malden, 31, a laborer, his sons, Floyd, 7, and Levi, 1, and daughter, Jeanette, 2, died when flames destroyed the family's frame home at nearby Reynolds, Ark., Saturday.

Mrs. Malden was reported improved but still in critical condition at a hospital. Doctors said more than 60 per cent of her body was burned.

Three other Malden children got out of the house. Two, Alice Sue, 10, and Jeanie Louise, 9, had minor burns and a 5-year-old son, not identified, was not hurt. Authorities said a can of kerosene near a wood stove caught fire and exploded.

5 In Family Die In Crash

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP) — Five members of one family were killed today in a flaming crash on U. S. Highway 99 about 10 miles north of Palm Springs.

A young man, his sister and two of her children were flung from their auto as it careened over a highway divider after blowing a tire, smashed into another and burst into flames.

Killed were John Clifford Beall, 20, of El Monte, Calif.; his sister, Ethel May John, 33, of Brawley, Calif.; and her children, Karen Ann, 8, Barbara Lynn, 3, and James, an infant.

Riverside County Dep. Coroner Robert Drake said Beall was apparently driving.

Critically injured when Beall's car collided with his was Eugene Jennings, 46, a produce dealer whose address was given as Dade County, Fla. He is at Palm Springs Desert Hospital.

Storm To Sea

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Tropical storm Judith raced east northeastward in the open Atlantic Ocean today after leaving Florida wet but practically unscathed.

The storm, which developed unexpectedly in the Gulf of Mexico Saturday, created about its only excitement before it hit—when it was described for a few hours as a small hurricane. There was hardly any excitement during its passage.

This morning, Judith was about 550 miles east of Daytona Beach, Fla., moving at 35 miles an hour with highest winds estimated at 60 to 70 miles an hour.

Celestial Wrath? No, Just Ceiling

DENISON (AP)—The ceiling of a room in the First Presbyterian Church here collapsed Sunday, injuring four persons.

Bob Hunter, 38, was hospitalized with a broken arm and possible back injuries. Mrs. Lola Ball and Mr. and Mrs. Thad Tinsley received lesser hurts.

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery.

In case after case, while gently relieving pain, actual reduction (shrinkage) took place. Most amazing of all—results were so thorough that sufferers made astounding statements like "Piles have ceased to be a problem!" The secret is a new healing substance (Bio-Dyne*)—discovery of a world-famous research institute. This substance is now available in suppository or ointment form under the name Preparation H.* At your druggist. Money back guarantee.

Famous Baldwin Pianos Found At Adair Music Co.

Adair Music Co., 1708 Gregg, is known far and wide in West Texas as the place where the famous Baldwin pianos are sold.

It is no empty advertising slogan—"today's great piano"—when you speak of the Baldwin. It is truly the finest piano available on the American market and it has had that reputation for a great many years.

Where you find a person familiar with quality pianos, you find a Baldwin admirer. Professional and amateur musicians alike know the high quality of the Baldwin, the reputation of the manufacturer who makes them.

Nothing so dresses up the appearance of a living room as a piano. When the piano is a Baldwin the effect is doubly impressive. The Baldwin is beautiful as a piece of furniture; magnificent as a musical instrument.

Capitol Smokes

WASHINGTON (AP)—A small fire in a plumbing storage room Sunday night sent dense smoke billowing through basement corridors of the Capitol.

If you are in the market for a piano, before you buy make a visit to the Adair Music Co. Look at the beautiful Baldwins they have on display. Compare them with any other piano you may have in mind. When you have done this, the odds are heavy you'll say, "I want a Baldwin."

Adair Music Co. also has an attractive stock of used pianos on hand. If you need a good second hand piano you can find it at Adair's.

NEW LIQUID CLEANS AND POLISHES CARS

Polish your car as you clean it — with POLISHAMPOO. Just apply rich harmless suds, then simply flush off dirt and "road film" that resist ordinary washings. Car dries quickly with no rubbing or wiping, leaving a polished surface. Use POLISHAMPOO regularly to keep car clean and polished. Bottle containing 5 shampoos... 96¢. Available at Piggy Wiggy, Newsom's, Bud Green's, Jack's Drive-In, Toby's Drive-In, Hall & Phillips, and your local grocery store.

Typhoon Strikes, Heads Out To Sea

TOKYO (AP)—After killing at least 47 Okinawans and doing heavy crop damage in the Ryukyu Islands, Typhoon Charlotte skirted Tokyo today and began to blow herself out in the Pacific.

The Japanese capital escaped with only 45-mile winds and the flooding of some streets and houses.

Speak English In Civilian Affairs

PORTLAND, Maine (AP)—When Gov. Clinton A. Clauson arrived to deliver the principal address at naval ceremonies Sunday, he found the crowd already leaving. Quickly, he discovered the reason for the mixup. "The invitation said the program would begin at 1400 hours," he said. "I thought that was 4 o'clock."

66 Cafe Has Facilities To Meet Any Need

Whether you want a cup of coffee, a meal "out" for the family, or a complete banquet for your business associates, the Sixty-Six Cafe is a good choice.

Food prepared to suit the most discriminating taste and open 24 hours a day, seven days per week, makes the cafe the first choice when planning a meal out. The dining room is available to special parties on special events, by calling 4-5091.

Herb Vinson, for many years a well-known name in restaurant circles here, is manager of the cafe. Experienced chefs take care to prepare your meal exactly as you order it and only the best meats, vegetables and fruits are used in food preparations. Added to this is the courteous service by pleasant waitresses, going to make a pleasant atmosphere in which to take your family out to dine.

As a regular eating-out habit, the Sixty-Six Cafe has many local adherents. For the mealtime hours special dishes are prepared that are designed to fit the average budget.

And regardless of the time you plan to eat out, the Sixty-Six Cafe is open. No need to fit your eating habits to a particular time of day. The Sixty-Six Cafe never closes. Located on West Highway 80, just beyond the city limits, the cafe is especially convenient to Webb AFB personnel. Try it the next time you plan to eat out.

Make Certain Electric Wiring In Your Home Completely Safe

New attention was focused on the City Electrical Code recently by the Big Spring City Commission due to the fact that certain parts of the code were considered out-moded. Considerable time was given to revising the code to provide safe electric wiring in Big Spring homes.

Moving Is Art With Wootens

Wooten's Transfer and Storage terms itself "moving specialists." It is well entitled to do so. The many years experience that Wooten has had in the business of moving qualifies him to the title. He employs only the best trained and most careful of help.

A move can be an ordeal for a householder. It can leave the poor fellow a nervous wreck if he is careless in the moving firm he selects to do the job. The way to avoid this stress and strain is very simple—just call Wooten Storage & Transfer. Once you have done that and assigned them to the job, your worries are all over.

Your possessions will be handled exactly as you want them handled.

electrical wiring safe? The electrical ordinance does not require that you re-wire your home, but it may be a good idea to have your wiring checked, particularly if it is old.

Pettus Electric Co. offices and warehouse located on the Snyder Highway, is a good number to call in this regard. Albert Pettus has more than 20 years experience behind him in electrical work. Also, he maintains an experienced and skilled crew of men to handle any electrical problem you may have.

Whether you would like your entire house re-wired, or just a new outlet installed in one wall, Pettus and his men can assure you of a safe and trouble-free job. Pettus maintains a complete stock of electrical parts and you are guaranteed a good installation when you call on him to do your electrical work.

Equipment too is important and Pettus is equipped to make almost any electrical installation. Whether your residence or a commercial building is in need of trouble-shooting, Pettus can handle the job.

Convenience is another feature of Pettus' work. Experienced workmen are available 24 hours a day to look into your problems.

The day telephone number is 4-4189, and the night number is 4-8795.

A Devotional For Today

We know that all things work together for good to them that love God. (Romans 8:28.)
PRAYER: Dear heavenly Father, forgive us for our wilfulness. Help us to submit to Thy will. Teach us that in all things Thou dost work for good to those who love Thee. In Jesus' name. Amen.
(From The 'Upper Room')

Providing For College Education

How many young parents of children now in public school are putting aside savings to see them through college?
The Ford Foundation got Elmer Roper and Associates to survey 5,000 households in all parts of the country to determine which way the wind blew with respect to higher education.
Most parents expect the children to go to college — 89 per cent of them. Yet 60 per cent had no saving plan earmarked for this purpose; even the 40 per cent who did have a plan put aside an average of only $156 last year in the education kitty.
College costs average $1,450 a year, and most of the parents interviewed were aware of that. Yet when pined down as to where the money had to come from they were vague. About two-thirds said they would draw on their savings; 41 per cent depended on scholarships their children might win; 29 per cent thought they would draw on current income; 13 per cent planned to use government or college loans, and 4 per cent bank loans.

All this, perhaps, is a reflection of the live-it-up attitude so common in all walks of life. It may also reflect the fact it takes about all the average family makes to get by day to day.

If there is higher moral obligation resting on parents than seeing to it that their children should have an opportunity to acquire a college education it isn't immediately apparent; for in this age a college education for those who have the necessary mental equipment to acquire and make the most of it can mean the difference between success in life or failure.

Unlamented Mr. Flynn

Death at 50 of a coronary swept the Tasmanian-born actor Errol Flynn off this mortal coil and into whatever never-never land his soul must be destined for.
He died as he had lived — to put it mildly, in a convivial mood, with his latest girlfriend, a seventeen-year-old — he had a penchant for young girls.
Some commentators have likened Flynn's career with that of John Barrymore's. Each liked his liquor and each was handy with the girls, but there the comparison ends. Barrymore was a great actor, at his best; a man of brilliant intellectual endowments — wasted, to be sure, and largely unused, but innate in him. At times he was irascible and short-spoken, but normally considerate of others and with a gentleman's instinct for courtesy and gallantry. Much can be forgiven such a man.
Flynn was a swashbuckler, like the elder

Douglas Fairbanks — but with the latter the swashbuckling was confined to the stage; with Flynn it was chronic and irrepressible, professional as well as instinctive and inebriated.
There was sympathy and admiration for Barrymore in spite of his shortcomings, for he had the basic inclinations and training of a gentleman. There was evidence that he suffered embarrassment and shame when his uncontrollable habits got the better of him.
If Flynn ever showed the slightest compunction for his misconduct we never came across it. He seemed to glory in it, to shock people as a fulfillment of some inner urge. Barrymore made a considerable contribution to the dramatic art. That was one saving grace that ended Errol Flynn. He died an old man before his time and practically unlamented.

T-H Virtue: Everybody Hates It

The great virtue of the Taft-Hartley law is that everybody — well, nearly everybody — hates it.
Labor leaders call it the "slave labor act." Employers call it a "dead-end street." And labor mediators and arbitrators consider it unwieldy.
Even the chairman of President Eisenhower's Taft-Hartley Board of Inquiry in the steel strike loves it not.
Before Prof. George W. Taylor, of the University of Pennsylvania's Wharton School, accepted the appointment, he called President Eisenhower's attention to a U. S. News & World Report interview with him:

Q: "How do you feel about the Taft-Hartley machinery for handling big strikes?"
A: "Everyone knows it's not adequate. If the Taft-Hartley procedures are meaningful, they should serve the same function as a strike — that is, get people to modify their extreme positions. I don't think they have done that."
Yet, the President and his Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell were not averse to naming a man who dislikes the law.

WANT TO AVOID IT
That is Taft-Hartley's virtue.
It's so disliked that companies, unions, and mediators want to avoid it.
Unions object because the 80-day injunction sends workers back to jobs under terms of the old contract — what they're striking against.

Employers find the procedure cumbersome because it postpones a solution of issues. After 80 days, the strike can be resumed.
Labor arbitrators and mediators find the law restrictive. They can inquire, report, but not recommend how a dispute be ended.
Thus, the Taft-Hartley weakness could be its strength.

David J. McDonald, president of the United Steelworkers, vehemently announced he will fight an injunction in court.
The steel industry is now resigned to an injunction. Industry leaders figure that once the workers go back, McDonald won't find it easy to get them to go out on strike again. Yet, they'd rather bargain — settle the dispute here, now, and for all.

Most important, Taylor, as chairman of the Board, used the Taft-Hartley procedure to mediate the dispute in a last-gasp effort to avoid an injunction.

MEDIATION HELPED
This is not a departure. David L. Cole, as chairman of a 1948 Taft-Hartley Board, used mediation to avert a coal strike.
Coal inventories were low. A strike

'ROUND THE WORLD IN 80 DAYS?

William L. Ryan

Fantasy In The World Of Arms

There's a touch of Alice in Wonderland about the discussion of disarmament these days.
This issue is the most important one facing the world today, involving the question of the very survival of the human race. But for all that there is more than a little grim comedy in the proceedings. Illogic is being piled upon illogic until the mind reels.
For example, have a look at this exercise in logic just broadcast by Moscow Radio in support of the latest Khrushchev disarmament proposal:
"The Soviet Union has proceeded from the only correct principle: That controls cannot be an end in themselves and must be organically linked with realization of practical measures."

This Soviet gobbledygook appears to mean that there can be no controls over the carrying out of any disarmament stage until the disarmament stage is agreed upon. That is, control and the disarmament measure must spring into being at the same moment.
Moscow goes on:
"Since it is the Western Powers were not prepared to recognize the justice of this viewpoint, the question of controls became a stumbling block to disarmament talks."
"As a result, the Soviet government formed the firm conviction that the way out of this impasse is to be sought in general and complete disarmament. Only such a radical solution of the problem will remove all the obstacles piled up in the discussion of partial disarmament and pave the way to establishment of a comprehensive and complete control system."

In other words, nobody got anywhere in talking about partial disarmament because one side wanted foolproof controls agreed upon in advance. Therefore, by this reasoning, the talks will be more successful if they concern complete and total disarmament with no advance agreement on the control system.
This is supposed to make sense. Both sides must be aware that it does not. But it is powerful propaganda. The West realizes this. But it, too, must talk about the thing seriously, or there will be even more powerful propaganda against the West.

So the statesmen of the U.N. Political Committee are talking and marking time in this grim game of one-upmanship. At this moment, Khrushchev is one up. The United States is cooking up a general review of the disarmament situation over the years in preparation for a U.S. counterproposal which may or may not even be the score.
Lacking such a proposal at the moment, the United States seems to take the position it has no choice but to say it will give serious consideration to the Khrushchev bombshell. This does not mean the United States takes the Khrushchev proposal seriously, but only that it fears what the effect will be in some parts of the world if it says it is not taking it seriously.

Khrushchev has been willing to concede that his total disarmament would be a big bite to swallow all at once. He proposes, then, to take it in stages, and the two sides once again are back where they started: on the theme of partial disarmament.
Both East and West might welcome a degree of disarmament to lighten the awesome burden of an endless arms race. But the Soviet stand on the key question of controls makes one wonder whether the Kremlin is or ever was interested in significant amount of disarmament.

Massive military potential makes powerful politics, and there is no indication whatever that the Kremlin has lost its taste for powerful politics.
Voices At Play
CAMP KILMER, N. J. (AP)—This training center of World War II now rings with children's voices. The voices are part of "operation youth."
The program, under the guidance of Army reservists, permits children from the metropolitan area of New York to forget the city's clamor and enjoy recreational facilities here.
The noise of the children at play has been recorded by the Voice of America for broadcast overseas.

Old Manuscript
URBANA, Ill. (AP)—The University of Illinois Library has purchased a manuscript used in 1362 at the coronation of Charles IV as king of France.
The Library paid $5,000 for the intricate, hand-lettered Latin document, which was used to show the order of liturgy for French coronations in the 14th Century. The manuscript was sold by a New York firm.

Real Load
LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Cab driver Arlie McDonald had a weighty problem when Jim and Tim Minatra hailed his taxi.
The Minatra brothers are carnival fat men—Tim weighing 643 pounds and Jim 550. Both couldn't get in the back seat of the taxi.
To balance the car, the cab driver placed one man in front and the other in back.

More Grey Heads Around

NEW YORK (AP)—Things a columnist might never know unless he read his mail:
A report put to the U. S. Senate says that as a people we are growing older faster than we are growing younger. This is not only probably true nationally, but in our own neighborhood and local veins. The figures say only 3 million Americans were over 65 in 1900; by 1970 it will be 20 million.
The fellow we gave our opinions to yesterday today shows the usual old age signs of nongratitudes.
The mattress has no known father in history. The Romans enjoyed it 300 years before they traded republicanism for dictatorship. At different times mattresses have been stuffed with reeds, hay, wool, feathers, and uneasiness.
Do you have trouble in reading a menu? Singer Polly Bergen is said to own more than six dozen pairs of eyeglasses but rarely uses them. Have you ever met anyone with weak eyes who had 73 excuses for not saying hello?
Our quotable notables: "As I grow older," said Andrew Carnegie, the steel master, "I pay less attention to what men say. I just watch what they do."
The responsibility of fathering one child at a time grays many a man with duty. Here are the odds of multiple daddynood: quintuplets, 90 million to 1; quadruplets, 900,000 to 1; triplets, 9,000 to 1, and twin 90 to 1.
Women call for room service more often than men, according to a survey by the Hotel Edison here.
It now costs $47,000 to train a general practitioner in medicine—far less than it does to locate one by phone.

St. David's Episcopal Church at Cheraw, S. C., has been used as a hospital in two wars—the American Revolution and the Civil War—and has the veterans of eight wars buried in its graveyard.
Some doctors predict that if the normal life expectancy reaches 100 years, women will outnumber men five to two.
That would be too many too late.
One can only hope that a male of that vintage will reward them with a bright remembrance and a dead ear.
It is said that science has perfected a new atomic clock that will neither gain nor lose a second in 1,000 years. The fellow who built it awaits his critics.
Papal point: Pope John XXIII, a beautiful man, told a friend, "In the days of Pius X, the people said of him, 'He may be a pope, but he is a fine figure of a man.' Of me on the other hand, they say, 'A fine figure of a man he is not, but he has an honest face.'"
The Schick electric razor people say that U. S. men remove 900,000 miles of whiskers daily. Whir-r-r today, where tomorrow? Word has just reached me there is positive proof that the western tip of Virginia is farther west than Detroit. See your local map.
Memorable signs of modern times: This one over a store selling frozen foods said, "Best food you ever thaw."

Darn Clever, These Viennese

Worth repeating:
An old Viennese saying:
"A bachelor lives like a god and dies like a dog; a married man lives like a dog and dies like a god."
A grammar school boy's composition on cats:
"Cats that's meant for little boys to mail and tease is called Mauthease cats. Some cat is reknowned by how quiet their purr is and these is Purlisian cats. Cats what has had tempers is named Angura cats. And cats with deep feelings is called Felines. I don't like cats."

DR. LESTER L. COLEMAN, New York surgeon and authority on psychosomatic medicine:
"If we were to believe the statistics presented by 'scare' campaigns to raise funds for health organizations, this is what our destiny would be like: By 1968, one out of every five of us would be dying of cancer while one out of 20 would be in a mental institution. We probably would be visited from time to time in the hospital or asylum by one of our children, a victim of cerebral palsy or polio while our second child would be at home, ill with rheumatic fever. The third child would, under these circumstances, be forced to go to his psychoanalyst alone."

Mind you, this could only happen if we were fortunate enough to have escaped the ever-compounding effects of heart disease, tuberculosis, arthritis and smoking cigarettes—and if we had not been previously destroyed by July or Memorial day accidents. This picture is not presented as an amusing concept, but rather to provide some idea of how we are shocked into destructive anxiety."
SYDNEY J. HARRIS, Chicago columnist:
"Some people are so pig-headed that when they dial a wrong number they blame you for answering the phone."
One young intern to another, discussing theories about pre-natal influence:
"Obviously, there is no such thing. It's been disproved time and again. For example, before I was born, my mother broke a batch of phonograph records. But it never bothered me... never bothered me... never bothered me..."

A letter writer to a New York newspaper, proposing a cure to the city's juvenile delinquency problem and who signed his missive "an American Indian."

Maybe We'll Be Better Off

MEMPHIS, Tenn. — While we pause for station identification and to change oil, my strong-minded sister, who lives here, still refuses to allow a television set in her house, and she always has:
For here there is no cliff-hanging, no awful suspense over the status of that All-American Boy, the bright, always right Charles Van Doren. "Why, when she asks, more or less the only American to go her happy way, miss a feeling of impending doom."
It now turns out that there were passels of persons all along who sensed there was a skunk in teevee's Denmark. But not me! No, sir, I swallowed the quiz shows, hook, line and sinker. That is, I swallowed the shows like "21" and "The $64,000 Question," and for a very personal reason.
My reason was that I had had a great deal of experience with a man who enjoyed total recall. He was my father. Papa never read, saw, heard or experienced anything that wasn't indelibly fixed in his mind and memory.
SELF MADE MONKEYS
For months, during the great teevee quiz hysteria (as opposed to today's outraged indignation), I kept feeling that papa had lived 20 years too soon to make a monkey out of the know-it-alls—although, as it turns out, they were quite capable of making monkeys out of themselves without papa's help.
As categories came and went on the quiz shows, I continued to think what a marvelous showing papa could have made in such divisions as Shakespeare, American poetry, the Bible, Homer, geography, Dickens and almost any period in history. Papa read for pleasure, pure and simple. But every word stuck in his memory and was on tap when needed.
My two suns, Nellie Virginia and Kittie Lee, enjoy the same faculty, but to a lesser degree than papa. (Let me say quickly that it wasn't inherited. My sister, brother and I can't remember five minutes worth of anything. We would have fared worse on a quiz show than Randolph Churchill, who, obviously, hadn't gotten the word from the producers.) Anyway, with this family background, I was equipped to be Credulous Carrie. I looked at the Van Doren, the Dr. Joyce Brothers and the Elfiida Whatshere names and sighed with admiration and envy. I believed that they, like papa, were blessed with total recall.

DOUBT ASSAILS
Only once, before the big blow-up, did doubt assail me. It seemed incredible to me that young Mr. Van Doren couldn't name the present king of Belgium, H. M. Boudin II. Even I, with a memory like a sieve, knew that one. But then I reasoned, persons whose heads are always in books are often oblivious to facts right under their respective noses, as the time papa was reading "Diana of the Crossways" and the house was on fire.
Well, the house is on fire again. If it burns teevee right down to the ground, maybe we'll all be better off. There are mighty few programs worth saving. If the fire companies arrive on time. Otherwise, I favor giving teevee back to the Russians, who invented it in the first place, and starting all over.
The dishonesty revealed in rigging quiz shows is nauseating, but I'll bet a nickel now that the persons really responsible, including the networks — who cannot grandly wash their hands of all guilt — go scot free, even of public obliquity. The tempter, in one woman's opinion, is at least as glibly as the tempted and should likewise feel the tar.

Judicial Chickens Come Home To Roost

WASHINGTON — Chickens come home to roost—even in court rulings. Once, not so long ago, the Supreme Court of the United States ruled that persons suspected of Communist affiliations could not be deprived of their jobs in defense industries unless permitted through counsel to confront accusers and cross-examine them. That's the law of the land today.
Now comes a special three-judge federal court in Louisiana and says that the registrars who handle voter registrations cannot be forced to participate in hearings of the National Civil Rights Commission unless an opportunity is given them through counsel to confront and cross-examine witnesses and to examine the complaints and any derogatory information previously given to the government by their accusers.
The National Civil Rights Commission finds itself stymied. It says it cannot proceed to investigate irregularities in refusing registration to certain voters until the Supreme Court decides whether the ruling of the special court in Louisiana should be upheld or reversed.
Commenting on the ruling, an official of the Civil Rights Commission said the other day that the commission had to protect the identities of informants. He said to the United Press International:
JOBS ENDANGERED
"A lot of them are state employees such as school teachers who would lose their jobs. Others would be subject to physical harassment."
This has a familiar ring. It's what the FBI has been saying all along, though critics have insisted that the FBI must open up its files in cases involving suspected Communists and give them a chance to rebut the charges.
Much of the information and many tips about law violations come from anonymous sources or individuals who have been promised that their names would not be revealed in any court or tribunal.
The Supreme Court of the United States, however, brushed aside this practical barrier and, in a case known as Greene versus McElroy, held that the Defense Department had not been authorized by Congress to conduct hearings in its industrial-security clearance program which would deny civilian employees the rights of confronting and cross-examining any witness.
So the special federal court, in ruling on the questions raised in the Civil Rights Commission case, said:
"In accordance with the teachings of Greene versus McElroy, we decide only that in a hearing such as the one envisaged here, the commission had no right to deny the accused registrars the traditional rights of confrontation and cross-examination in the absence of explicit congressional authorization to do so.

SAME ISSUE
"In Greene versus McElroy the Supreme Court held these safeguards were not to be denied to one being investigated for alleged communist associations and sympathies in the absence of explicit authorization from either the President or Congress. Surely, duly chosen state officials are entitled to the same protection, especially since no considerations of national security are involved. So is every citizen. In Greene versus McElroy, the government did not take the petitioner's job away from him, but he did lose his job as a result of a government finding to the effect that he was not a good security risk.
"If the commission here finds the charges against the registrars are true, they are faced not only with public scorn and possible loss of their jobs, but also with probable indictment, arrest and prosecution."
The court ruled that the act itself which created the National Civil Rights Commission is constitutional but that the commission's rules of procedure were not authorized.
Plainly American citizens in the South who act as registrars in voting districts are entitled to the same rights as persons suspected of Communist affiliations. It would seem, therefore, that the Supreme Court will have to abide by its earlier ruling or else be in the position of issuing one ruling for loyal Americans and another for those suspected of Communist affiliations.

MRS. TRAVIS DALE SCHAFER

Janette Bostick Bride Of Travis Dale Schaffer

LAMESA—The Rev. William C. Emberton was the officiating clergyman for the marriage of Janette Bostick and Travis Dale Schaffer Friday. The altar of the Church of the Nazarene where the vows were read was decked with an archway entwined with greenery and white carnations.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Bostick. She was graduated from Lamesa High School and attended Bethany Nazarene College, Bethany, Okla., for two years. At the time of her marriage she was employed at Lamesa National Bank.

Schafer, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Schaffer, was graduated from Foran High School and is an associate of Texas Electric Service Co.

Nelda Emberton was organist, and she accompanied the vocalists, Mrs. Roy Huffaker and Mrs. J. A. Hancock. The wedding marches were played by the bride's aunt, Elizabeth Bostick of Lubbock.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a street length winter white dress with metallic brocade accented with blue sash. She wore a strand of pearls belonging to her paternal grandmother, Mrs. F. D. Bostick, and she carried white carnations showered with satin streamers atop a white Bible.

Trella Dawne Schaffer was the bride's only attendant, and the Rev. Nicholas Kovac served as best man. Guests were seated by Roy Huffaker and Ronnie Wilson. After a wedding trip to points in New Mexico, the couple will reside at 212 N. Houston.

Baby's Furniture Reflects Adult Taste

Babies are young Americans. Some are even going Early American with the new cribs that now decorate the nursery.

Baby's furniture seems to be trending toward adult taste — traditional, modern, or what have you — but not a "room apart."

Regardless of this decorating idea, the safety and comfort of the child is never forgotten. Side rails are being made higher to prevent the lively baby from bouncing out; the slats are close enough together so the baby won't get his head caught; mattresses are made firm, yet buoyant for good sleep and proper bone formation.

Driving from suburban Pikesville to Bethany Beach, Del., the Bermans were stopped four times by state troopers and told all four times they had forgotten to pack their food hamper in their station wagon.

Teachers Are To Meet In Odessa

About 40 members of the local chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma, Beta Kappa, will attend the regional meeting of the honorary society for teachers in Odessa on Saturday.

Committee chairmen from Big Spring are Betty Joyce Gray, publicity; Mrs. R. F. Davis, awards; Mrs. Virgil Smedley, registration; Mrs. H. L. Derrick is recording secretary.

Mrs. A. C. Kloven will be present at a breakfast for chapter presidents to be given at the Lincoln Hotel at 7:30 a.m. Saturday. Registration will be accompanied by an informal coffee from 9:30 to 10 a.m. Serving as the hostess group will be the Delta Iota Chapter of Odessa. Members are also expected from Gamma Lambda Chapter, Denver, Colo.; Delta Phi, Andrews; Epsilon Eta, Midland, and Epsilon Omicron, Lamesa.

Directors for the sessions are Dr. Madge Davis, immediate past president of Alpha State and chairman of the committee on scholarship, and Mrs. Bess Mc-Donald Church, Alpha State chairman of the initiation committee. Dr. David will be the speaker at a luncheon to be held in the Permian High School, where all sessions of the convention will take place.

Escape Room

Relaxed rooms make relaxed people. In this era of high tension living there should be an "escape" room for the harassed husbands or the weary wife. Soft colors, good books, low music background help to create serenity. Comfortable chairs and an attractive sofa bed will complete a peaceful picture.

Autumn Is Good Time To Work On Old Lawns: Start New Ones

Since grasses flourish in cool autumn weather, many homeowners use the warm days and cool nights of fall to establish a new lawn or to renovate an old one.

Results of extensive research and experiments show that lawn care in the fall is most important for a number of reasons.

First, there is a long season of good grass-growing weather at this time of year and annual weeds, such as crabgrass, knotweeds and many others are no longer germinating to compete with the stand of grass. Also, insects and diseases that attack lawns are usually less destructive during the fall period of cooler weather.

A well-established lawn that has been fertilized systematically can be kept in good growing condition by a fall application of plant food. According to research, this fall feeding not only promotes greener lawns later in the season if the weather is mild, but develops a strong root system able to withstand freezing and thawing conditions of winter.

Using either a 10-6-4 or 5-10-5 formula, the fertilizer is applied at the rate of one and one-half to four pounds per 100 square feet of lawn space. A good watering after the application moves the plant food down to the root zone where it stimulates quick and hardy growth.

Fall is also an ideal time for starting a new lawn, with most grasses. When starting a new lawn, it is well to remember that almost all soils lack adequate amounts of plant food required for proper plant growth. To encourage this growth, it is necessary to add these missing nutrients to the soil by feeding before and after the lawn has been established.

For this feeding, agronomists suggest two to three pounds of plant food with a ratio of two parts of phosphate to each part of nitrogen and potash. (Example, a 5-10-5 analysis). This amount should be spread evenly over each 100 square feet of the intended lawn area, then the soil spaded and pulverized down to a depth of eight to 10 inches. An additional two pounds of fertilizer should be applied after this and raked into the top two inches of the soil.

Wet down the entire area and let it stand for 24 hours, allowing the plant food to blend thoroughly with the soil. This will aid rapid, uniform seed germination later on.

When the soil has settled, rake the area thoroughly, filling in the low spots. This develops a good seedbed that is well-fertilized with the plant food the young lawn will need for instant and continuous growth.

Next, consult a reliable seed dealer for the grade and rate of application of grass seed.

After the seeds are broadcast, water thoroughly, using a fine spray of water to avoid washing the seed away.

Daily watering during seed germination encourages maximum growth of the young grass shoots. Continued watering thereafter helps the fertilizer to develop a deep root system.

NSA Meets For Luncheon

Members of the National Secretaries Association met Saturday for a luncheon at Cosden Country Club, with a guest speaker, Mrs. Alice Powell of Austin.

Mrs. Powell, secretary of the Texas-Louisiana Division of NSA, is the board contact for the local chapter of NSA. She was accompanied by Jamie Crowell, president of the San Angelo chapter and sister of Lt. Col. Dick M. Crowell, commander of 331st FIS, Webb AFB.

The speaker discussed the activities of division and chapters and reminded members of the deadline, Dec. 1, for making application for a CPS examination.

Announcement was made of the regional conference to be held in Fort Worth on Nov. 6, 7 and 8, with a division meeting slated for Mineral Wells in May, 1960.

Mrs. Powell described the association as the world's largest organization for women in one profession, telling the group that there are 18,000 members in NSA.

The table was centered with an arrangement of artificial fruit, which was presented to Mrs. Dalton Conway, president of the local chapter. Nine were present.

The next meeting will be at Desert Sands on Friday when the members meet for luncheon.

Informal Chat

Over cups of coffee, two officers of the local chapter of National Secretaries Association chat with the secretary of Texas-Louisiana Division of NSA, Mrs. Alice Powell, center. At left is Mrs. J. R. Asbury, vice president of the local group, and at right is Mrs. Dalton Conway, president. Mrs. Powell was guest speaker at a luncheon given Saturday at Cosden Country Club for members of the chapter.

Guest Speakers Slated For HD Club

The Fairview Home Demonstration Club will meet at 2 p.m. Tuesday in the home of Mrs. Shirley Fryar instead of the time originally scheduled. Speakers will be Mrs. Ray Shortes and Arah Phillips.

Mrs. Shortes will give a report on the state meeting of the Texas Home Demonstration Association which she recently attended in Galveston. Miss Phillips will discuss her European tour and will show slides taken during the journey.

Visitor From Eden

Visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bill Unger, 2411 Morrison, is her mother, Mrs. G. M. Sudduth of Eden. Mrs. Sudduth will also be a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Yates, 102 Walnut, former neighbors in Eden.

Fire Is Fatal

BERLIN (AP)—Fire in a children's home at Zingst in East Germany killed five of the home's 70 youngsters Saturday night, the official East German News Agency ADN reported.

Violence Claims 23 Texas Lives

By The Associated Press
Violence claimed at least 23 lives in Texas over the weekend, with traffic accidents and shootings blamed for the majority. Highway collisions, three of which involved trains at grade crossings, killed at least 16 persons.

The count covered the period from 6 p.m. Friday to midnight Sunday.

West Texas deaths included these: The collision of a Texas & Pacific passenger train and a crude oil truck near Odessa Saturday killed Don Kirkland, 34, of Odessa, driver of the truck.

A South Plains couple was killed 10 miles north of Spade Saturday when their auto plowed into a combine being hauled by a truck on a farm road. They were Loid Wilson, 54, and his wife Ruby, 37. Earl Scroggins, 35, Cheyenne, Okla., died Sunday night when his auto plunged off an embankment 20 miles east of Pampa.

Flaming Object Is Called Meteor

By The Associated Press
A flaming object hurtled through the skies over North and Central Texas Sunday night.

Highway patrolmen, city police and authorities at James Connally AFB in Waco reported inquiries from persons who saw the object. Authorities decided the flash was a meteor burning up.

Broadcast Chief Vows Safeguards For Quiz Programs

CHICAGO (AP) — Harold E. Fellows, president of the National Assn. of Broadcasters, said today that the industry is prepared to set up its own additional safeguards if necessary to prevent "ringing" of TV quiz programs. Fellows, speaking at the opening session of the association's two-day fall conference, expressed personal concern over certain testimony presented recently to a congressional committee.

West Texans See Sonic Boom Cause

FORT WORTH (AP)—Convair and the Air Force have taken 37 leaders from West Texas towns to Omaha, Neb., in an effort to convince them sonic booms are "the sound of security." The booms are made by jet planes flying faster than the speed of sound. Several flights by Convair's B58 Hustler are scheduled over West Texas and sonic booms are expected. Making the trip from Fort Worth to the Strategic Air Command headquarters were leaders from Fredericksburg, Brady, Llano, San Saba, Brownwood, Hamilton, Coleman and Kerrville.
