Cotton Yield Estimate For County Upped

Gins in Howard and seven other area counties had processed 267,138 bales of cotton through Friday as the harvest entered its final stage.

Two area counties revised crop estimates upward this week, and a third's estimate dropped over 1,000 bales. Now the eight counties expect 350,500 bales to be ginned.

Jack Hatch, agriculture placement director of the Big Spring TEC office, said Howard County's estimate had been raised from 30,240 bales to 32,000, and Glasscock's previous estimated production of 10,860 has been lowered to 9,500.

Dawson, the area's giant, has ginned 129,760 bales of a crop that now is estimated at 140,000 bales. Earlier the Lamesa Texas Employment Commission had revised the estimate from 125,000 to 135,000.

According to B. E. Harlow at the Sweetwater TEC office, Scurry County has ginned 16,696 of an estimated 30,000 bales; Fisher, 19,574 of its estimated 33,000; Nolan, 8,371 of 13,500; and Mitchell, 14,896 of 25,000.

Martin has ginned 48,141 of its estimated 65,000 bales; Howard 22,826 and Glasscock 6,880.

More strippers were arriving in all counties, which have benefited from frosts which caused natural defoliation.

Braceros throughout the area were leaving in unusually large numbers for the trip home, because of the cold snap and completion of harvest on many farms.

Carrying The Payload
 Luciano Salas, a bracero on Howard County farms, carries a filled sack of cotton to the trailer for its trip to the gin. At $1.55 a hundred-weight for pulling, the Mexican National earned $11 the day this picture was snapped. In Martin, Glasscock and Howard counties, over 5,000 braceros were pulling at the harvest's peak.

Reviewing The Big Spring Week

With Joe Pickle

This is a critical week for the United Fund. The organization which undertakes to raise funds for 13 agencies in our community is only two-thirds of the way to its goal, and it's running out of time and prospects. Everyone is going to have to help to get this job over. If it should fall short, it will be the agencies such as the Boy and Girl Scouts, YMCA, Salvation Army, Air Force Aid, Red Cross, etc., which will suffer.

Cotton which had not matured before Friday morning just won't—that's all. Record breaking—19 degrees or 10 under the previous low for that date—stopped cotton dead in its tracks and turned fields into a mass of black-green and white. Grain crackled in its new gray color. Tree leaves, killed by the sudden cold, hung dryly with their death rattles.

Howard County added another traffic fatality for the year when Pedro Amaro, 52, was killed when his car overturned a mile west of the Andrews highway. Just north of Lenorah in central Martin County, Jesus Morales, 49, a worker on the J. C. Epley farm, was crushed to death when a truck overturned (not far from where an almost identical mishap took a life a week ago). Mrs. Viola Isaacs, 47, of Lamesa was killed when the family car left U. S. 180 near Gail.

No. 4302, a T-33 twin jet trainer, became the second in the Air Force to cross the 5,000-hour mark. (The first, No. 530, is also at Webb AFB). This is a rather remarkable record for a jet in pilot training service. Due the biggest part on the head are the men who keep the old girl in tip top shape.

Judge Charlie Sullivan, in a surprise move, submitted his resignation as judge of the 118th Judicial District last week. Some months ago he had hinted that he had toyed with the idea, but no more was heard of it until he decided for reasons of age and health he had best leave the bench. Wonder if his successor will gauge the newness of the district courtroom with as much zeal as Judge Sullivan?

It would be difficult to convince the city commission that there is no considerable interest in a series of annexation proposals. Except for Friday, there was a full house at each of four hearings. Still, only a minor fraction of the residents involved showed up, although some had signed petitions.

The Big Spring Mounted Patrol is undertaking a novel way to raise funds for its trips to represent the city and county at various functions. It is asking residents to donate good, unused items around the house. These will be offered in auction Tuesday evening. If you have an article to give, call either Ed Cherry, Dick Fielder or Eddie Owens.

Women who are looking for a good vocation which offers security and an opportunity for satisfying service should contact Howard County Junior College about the

MANY ARE 'WEALTHY' Bracero Army Enroute Home, Pockets Jingling

Hundreds of braceros daily are leaving Howard County soil for their long trek home.

Their brown, sun-wrinkled faces show both weariness and happiness as they board buses for the first leg of their trip.

They aren't whipped workers of the soil; they're men of means, of dignity, men with greater independence now than many of them have ever known.

Monied men, many still in patched, multi-colored trousers held up with a rope, shod with rubber handmade from worn-out shoes.

Their bowed backs parted millions of fat, white cotton bolls from the soil. They got $1.55 a hundred-weight for the pulling, and they averaged $10 a day, five and a half days a week.

During the harvest's peak there were 9,769 braceros in Howard, Martin and Glasscock counties, according to the Big Spring Texas Employment Commission office.

Using $55 weekly as the average pay, the braceros here at the peak were making $537,295 a week, and Cecil Underwood, Farm Growers Assn. manager, estimates they were sending 75 per cent of it home.

That's nearly five million pesos weekly the families were getting, and in the interior of Mexico it could support a family for the rest of the year or longer.

Or it could mean some of the rare luxuries for their adobe huts, making them village aristocrats.

It wasn't easy money, these millions earned for Mexico's poor.

UF Fund Lagging; Time Running Out

The United Fund stood at the two-thirds mark Saturday with time running out and the $96,800 goal far from being assured.

Executive board members, analyzing the campaign to date, were concerned that the effort is running about 7 per cent off last year's pace.

There were some bright signs, however. Webb AFB reported $8,435 raised, or 75.7 per cent of its goal, and Col. James Johnson, board member, was optimistic that Webb will reach or exceed its quota.

So far the big gifts division has reported in $30,172, and this is about 90 per cent of its objective. Special gifts, with more than three score cards outstanding, has produced $12,794.

The employees division, another key element of the campaign, has produced $9,890 at this point; public employees $11,146; and the metropolitan division $1,248.

Officials pegged Nov. 18 as the terminal date for the drive, and whatever cleanup work is indicated then will be assigned to teams for a whirlwind effort the following week.

Horace Garrett, campaign chairman, called on all big gifts and special gift workers to complete their contacts by the Tuesday report session. Other units were urged to push for the best possible report by that time, also.

Raymond River, United Fund president, said that it would take every possible effort on the part

Midland Voters Approve Bonds

MIDLAND, Tex. (AP)—Midland voters Saturday approved, 845 to 251, a $4,750,000 bond issue for the construction of a new high school and three elementary schools.

The new high school and equipment will cost an estimated $3,200,000, the three elementary schools $1,275,000 and purchase and improvement of school sites will cost $275,000.

Widely Known San Angelo Woman Dies

SAN ANGELO, Tex. (AP)—Miss Ida Gerber, 60, in the little abstract business here for many years, died Saturday in a hospital where she had had more than 13,000 visitors in the last 18 months.

95-MINUTE JOURNEY AF Satellite Discoverer VII Is Projected Into Polar Orbit

VANDENBERG AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP)—An Air Force satellite was put into polar orbit Saturday.

Early Saturday evening, the Air Force announced that the Discoverer VII satellite launched at 3:28 p.m. EST attained an orbit. The satellite, from which the Air Force hopes to recover a capsule Sunday, was picked up by tracking stations in Alaska at 4:57 p.m. as it neared the completion of its first circuit of the earth.

Time for completion of one orbit is 95 minutes.

The 78-foot projectile's secret payload is in a capsule designed to be ejected from the orbiting second stage on its 17th trip around the earth's poles Sunday.

For the sixth time, Air Force planes will be waiting aloft to try to snatch the parachuting capsule from the sky near Hawaii.

The 300-pound instrumented capsule contains no animal life, but a duplicate of it is expected to carry monkeys into orbit later in the Discoverer series.

The Air Force says it believes it has corrected a flaw which prevented recovery of the capsules in Discoverers V and VI.

Telemetry data indicated earlier attempts failed because small batteries got too cold to operate a radio transmitter which would have guided planes to the falling capsules.

C119 Flying Boxcars will try to snag Discoverer VII's parachute on trapeze-like devices suspended beneath each plane. If they fail Navy vessels and frogmen will be standing by to recover the capsule from the water.

Famous Actor Heart Victim

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Actor Victor McLaglen, a boisterous giant who lived two lives of adventure with about equal relish, died Saturday at the age of 72.

The Academy Award-winning master of tough talk succumbed to congestive heart failure at his seaside home in Newport Beach, 40 miles south of the film capital. His son, Andy, with him at his death, said: "He never had a heart attack. It was just a matter of his heart growing old. He never had a pain."

McLaglen, a 220-pounder, 6 feet 3, won an Academy Award for the best actor of 1935 for his classic portrayal of the pathetic Gypsy in "The Informer." He was nominated for a supporting actor's award in 1952 for his performance as a terrible-tempered Irish squire in "The Quiet Man."

He was a hell raiser in many of his films, but he became a bed-fellow of adventure long before he brought his enormous energy to the screen.

McLaglen was born in England, one of eight sons of the Rt. Rev. Andrew McLaglen, an Anglican clergyman.

Child Killed In Hit-And-Run

TEXARKANA, Ark. (AP)—A 4-year-old girl was killed Saturday in a hit-and-run accident near downtown Texarkana.

The driver sped away after his car hit blonde little Marina Lee Rogers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dwin G. Rogers of Texarkana. The child, dragged about 54 feet after impact, died instantly, police said.

Police said they knew only that the driver of the car was a white man.

WARM WEATHER ON WAY BACK

After two days of freezing weather, Big Spring's low Sunday morning was forecast at 36 degrees.

Friday's chilling 19 degrees and Saturday's 28 were the first two freezes of the fall.

Midland Weather Bureau predicts Sunday's high will be 72 and Monday's, 74. Fair skies are expected.

AN EPIDEMIC AREA? Rabies Situation In County Ruled Critical

Howard County Commissioners Court will be asked Monday to declare the county a rabies epidemic area.

Such declaration is preliminary to launching efforts to eradicate rabies infected animals and enforce safety measures to prevent spread of the disease.

It is possible, if the commissioners agreed to the request, which will be made by a committee speaking for the Big Spring Chamber of Commerce, that the Wild Life Service will be asked to send men to help cope with the problem.

TWO MORE CASES? Dr. Akin Simpson, veterinarian, said Saturday that he had dispatched two more skunk heads to the state laboratory for check. He is convinced that the tests will show the animals to have been rabid. He pointed out that the heads of 14 skunks sent in to the laboratory so far this year from this county have all been found to be positive cases. One fox and one cat, victims of the malady, have also been destroyed and their ailment demonstrated.

Appearing with Dr. Simpson to bolster his appeal for the declaration of the commissioners on this matter will be Mrs. Clara Zach, Lige Fox, city sanitarian and probably by Dr. H. F. Schwarzenbach, another Big Spring veterinarian.

Last week, a meeting of the chamber of commerce was bluntly told that the spread of rabies among wild animals in the area had reached the point where it posed a threat of epidemic. It was urged that dogs and cats in the city be vaccinated against the disease. The relatively low number of inoculated domestic pets measured against the total number of such animals in the town was cited.

Skunks, which are particularly abundant this season, seem to be the commonest victims of the disease. Dr. Simpson said that one of the skunks whose head is now waiting test in Austin, had attacked a hog and 4-H club member's calf before it was killed. Whether it had bitten either of the animals was not definitely known. The two animals are to be carefully observed to see if they develop symptoms of the disease. This incident, he said, was southwest of town.

DANGER TO PEOPLE Many skunks have been sighted and killed in the city limits. So far, no person has been bitten by a rabid animal, it was said, but the large number of animals which have been proved positive on test indicates the danger to humans exists.

The commissioners will be in regular meeting session Monday. Ed Carpenter, county judge, said that he would be pleased to have the committee appear. He said that routine regular meeting business was all that he knew was to come before the board.

Steel Workers Ordered Back To Their Jobs

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court today upheld an injunction ordering 500,000 striking steelworkers back to the mills for an 80-day cooling-off period.

Industry and union spokesmen both said steps will be taken immediately to get the mills rolling again, halting the 118-day strike.

A spokesman for the United Steelworkers Union said telegrams were sent today to union locals instructing the men to return to their jobs.

From the industry's chief negotiator in the long strike came the word: "The steel companies will move immediately to reopen the plants."

There was a possibility, the union spokesman said, that some men will get back to work today. They probably would be those responsible for putting the mills back into production condition after the long shutdown—a task of days to weeks.

Arthur J. Goldberg, who fought the union's unsuccessful fight against the injunction in the high court, said he has no plans to seek a rehearing.

"The Supreme Court has spoken," Goldberg said. "However strongly one may disagree, the judgment of the court is the law of the land and must be obeyed. Under the circumstances of the case, no purpose would be served by filing a petition for rehearing."

Earlier, Goldberg was quoted by the National Broadcasting Co. news service as saying "from the Supreme Court the only appeal is to God."

"From the Supreme Court," he continued, "the only appeal is to God."

The court's ruling was given under the injunction provision of the Taft-Hartley law which provides for an 80-day cooling-off period in prolonged strikes. The court ruled only on that emergency provision of the law.

The Taft-Hartley law calls for efforts by management and labor to settle their disagreement during the 80-day cooling-off period.

However, one government source predicted today that it may be two weeks before such bargaining sessions get under way again. He said he expects the delay because both management and union will be busy with work involved in reopening of the mills.

Joseph F. Finnegan, director of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service said he will get in touch with union and management negotiators immediately to determine when they want to resume efforts to settle their long dispute. Finnegan said he hopes to be able to say Monday when the negotiators will go back to work.

President Eisenhower was informed promptly of the court's ruling. He expressed hope the steel mills will get started up again as soon as possible.

Eisenhower also hopes, press secretary James C. Hagerty told newsmen that both sides, "realizing their obligation to the United States," will continue to negotiate and reach a settlement of their differences.

'NOISY' MUTE IS FREED BY WISE JURIST

NEW YORK (AP)—A deaf mute, twice accused of using loud and boisterous language, has been freed by a judge.

Joseph Ruiz, 22, of Brooklyn, was arrested three weeks ago and again on Oct. 30 for allegedly "annoying passers-by" by talking to them.

On both occasions, Ruiz was standing on a corner with six other youths, who were also arrested.

Ruiz, through a sign-language interpreter, told Magistrate Walter H. Galdwin Friday that he had been in jail for a week because he could not raise $500 bail.

The magistrate commented: "If Ruiz is deaf and can't speak, then he can't make noise. Maybe the patrolman can tell us how he spoke."

Patrolman John Farrell said only that Ruiz and the other defendants had "failed to move on when told to."

Child Killed In Hit-And-Run

TEXARKANA, Ark. (AP)—A 4-year-old girl was killed Saturday in a hit-and-run accident near downtown Texarkana.

The driver sped away after his car hit blonde little Marina Lee Rogers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dwin G. Rogers of Texarkana. The child, dragged about 54 feet after impact, died instantly, police said.

Police said they knew only that the driver of the car was a white man.

MAY BE TWO WEEKS

Although the court's order is effective immediately, there was no prospect of an early ousting of steel. And it may be two weeks or so before new collective bargaining sessions get under way.

The steel workers averaged $3.11 hourly under the old contract. They will be paid at the old rates during the 80 days of the injunction, unless a new contract calling for different wage rates is negotiated during the period.

Both management and union will be busy for some time with work involved in reopening the long-idle mills.

Joseph F. Finnegan, director of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service, said he hopes to know by Monday when contract negotiations will be resumed. They have been suspended pending outcome of the Supreme Court appeal.

Steel officials estimated it will take up to six weeks to get production back to 90 per cent of capacity. They figure it will take three weeks to get new steel rolling in an important way.

Justice William O. Douglas was the high court's lone dissenter.

The eight other members — Chief Justice Earl Warren and Justices Hugo L. Black, Felix Frankfurter, Tom C. Clark, John M. Harlan, William J. Brennan Jr., Charles E. Whitaker and

Open House At VA Hospital

Open house will be observed at the Veterans Administration Hospital from 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. Tuesday, and Dr. Jackson Friedlander, manager, is anxious that a large number of residents will visit the facility.

"This is your hospital—it's part of Big Spring, and we're anxious that you make it a point to come out and see what it has to offer and how it serves the veterans of this area," said Dr. Friedlander.

The 250-bed general medical and surgical hospital is the largest between Fort Worth and El Paso and is likely the best equipped hospital in this region. Many of the latest therapeutic devices and methods are employed which are not available through the average private hospital due to lack of sufficient clientele, cost, or other reasons.

Many people are unfamiliar with the hospital because they regard it as a federal facility, Dr. Friedlander noted.

who may never leave the hospital. Once they were regarded as backward or custodial patients, but not any more at the Big Spring VA Hospital.

VOLUNTEERS HELP

With the aid of numerous volunteers from Big Spring and several surrounding cities, the staff is dedicated to a human warmth to let these men know that someone does care and that they are loved and wanted. From early morning until lights out, something is offered to motivate the elderly patients. As a result, there are instances of totally withdrawn patients quitting their beds for a wheelchair or cane. Some few once given up for lost have regained their old fire and have gone home.

Visitors may get to see some of this work, only a small facet of the tremendous program carried on with the help of volunteers under trained directors. They will get to peer into the surgical areas on the fifth floor, see some of the physio and occupational therapy apparatus, see the wards, great kitchens, a laundry that turns out more than 4,000 pieces of linen daily, the chapel, recreational hall, TV room, the wonderfully equipped patient and medical libraries, the X-ray rooms, ultra-sonic equipment, and many other things.

PART OF BIG SPRING

The open house on the eve of Veterans Day gives us an opportunity to demonstrate that it is not some isolated, unapproachable federal institution," Dr. Friedlander continued, "but that it is a part of Big Spring and dedicated to serving the veterans of its hometown and all of West Texas."

Staff members are homeowners, active in church and civic affairs. In several instances they are the presidents of organizations, leaders in various campaigns just as are other citizens, he pointed out.

ECONOMIC IMPACT

The hospital is not without its economic impact on the community, for it operates on a budget of $1,800,000 per annum, and well over a million of that is payroll.

The VA Hospital has 164 medical personnel, 50 administrative, and 58 maintenance and custodial, a total of 272.

In addition, there are 18 consultants—ostaining medical and dental and other authorities here and in other West Texas cities.

The hospital averaged 226 patients per day and during the past fiscal year it served 2,440 patients. This record is achieved in the face of numerous elderly patients

TOUR DATA

Tours will begin in the main lobby, and staff members will be on hand to guide small groups through the plant.

An added feature will be a concert by the Big Spring High School band at 2:30 p.m., and weather permitting, patients will be on the front entrance to hear this.

Bribe Charge

MEXICO CITY (AP) — The Interior Department has turned over to the attorney general one of its employes caught while accepting money from a foreigner to approve his immigration papers.

LETTER TO EDITOR

Airman's Wife Answers Critic Of Big Spring

To the Editor:

Regarding "Around the Rim" of Nov. 4, I would like to answer the letter you quoted from. We came to Big Spring three years ago from our home in California, and we were greeted almost immediately with a 48-hour dust storm. Needless to say, I hated it here. However, before very long I began to notice many good things about Big Spring I hadn't seen at first. If the complaining letter writer would open his prejudiced eyes a little, he would see them too. May I enumerate:

1) Dust storms have greatly decreased in both intensity and length in the last couple of years.

2) The climate is good. Nice dry heat in the summer that does not wear me out (like the horrid humidity of the East coast).

3) No 30 degrees below zero here in the winter as per much of our country. (No slush and snow ankle deep in the streets).

4) Wonderful friendly people who really make one feel welcome.

5) Friendly (for the most part) clerks and businessmen and women. We spent the month of August in California on a visit, and I had almost forgotten how cold and almost rude clerks can be.

6) The town itself is pretty. There are many beautiful residential sections and the business district is much neater and cleaner than in many other cities.

7) The growth here is very rapid. I can hardly count the new businesses and residential developments that have been built in the last three years.

8) Now he may want to complain about tornadoes. I, myself, am positively petrified of them. However, when I look at the facts, I see that (a) despite numerous warnings of tornadoes, Big Spring has never been hit, and (b) there are sections of this state and neighboring states that are hit almost every year such as the Dallas, Fort Worth area, Waco, the Panhandle and Oklahoma, etc.

Just five more weather facts: (1) No devastating floods here, (2) no danger from hurricanes, (3) we seldom get the large hail and terrific thunderstorms that hit all around us. (When Midland was hit by baseball sized hailstones recently, we got no hail at all.)

As for the crime rate, yes, it is high, but I don't believe it is any worse than anywhere else in this country. (If he is afraid to walk down the streets at night here, what would he do in New York City or Los Angeles?)

Being 13 years with the Air Force, we have lived and traveled over most of the U. S. and overseas, too. And believe me, I sincerely say there are a lot worse places to live in than Big Spring, Texas. Every place has its drawbacks, but every place has its good points.

I hope you print at least part of my letter to show Big Spring that not all of us "foreigners" feel the way "Who-Is-Not-a-West-Texan" feels.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Camille Kelley
906 Aylford St.

No Bond Set For Burglary Suspects

No bonds have been set as yet for Ralph J. Wilson and Lemuel M. Clark, Amarillo residents, charged with burglary in the Oct. 29 break-in at the Kenny Pawnshop and the Anderson Music Store.

They are being held in the county jail and Dist. Atty. Gil Jones has lodged charges against the pair in the court of Walter Grice, justice of the peace.

The two men were arrested at Miles in Runnels County after being ejected from a train on which they were riding. Runnels County officers found a quantity of jewelry on the pair and broadcast their description.

This led to the investigation by local officers into the possibility they might have been implicated in the burglaries here. The proprietor of the store identified the loot removed from the men's persons as that taken from his store.

Sheriff Miller Harris said that Arthur G. Abel, scheduled for trial this week in district court on a burglary charge had been returned here from Odessa and was being held in jail. He is accused of robbing the safe at the McEwen Motor Co.

Charles L. Murphy, accused of felony theft, was returned here from Monahan. He is slated for trial this week.

Emael Lucero, Lubbock, arrested by liquor control board officers Friday night for transporting liquor, posted $300 bond Saturday and was released from custody. Bond in the case of George Rojas, held for forgery by endorsement has been set at $2,500. He is still in jail.

RESIDENTS PROTEST Annexation Would Not Benefit, Citizens Say

"We know we are going to have to annex, but we don't want to do it now," said H. D. McElrath at the final public hearing on annexation held Friday night.

McElrath spoke the sentiments of a group of 16 citizens who represented the Cedar Ridge Addition area, 112 acres, and a 20 acre tract at the FM 700 and Gregg St. intersection.

"The city hasn't got anything to offer," McElrath stated.

NOTHING TO GAIN

This statement was backed up by Bruce Frazier, an early developer in the Cedar Ridge area. Frazier, in going over a list of immediate advantages to annexation prepared by the city, related that most of the items listed have already been provided for by the Cedar Ridge residents.

"We have a better garbage disposal system than is provided by the city. We have excellent relations with the county and our streets are well maintained. We have one of the best records in the area for stray dog protection," Frazier pointed out.

Herbie M. Smith said, "If the city had anything that we need we would like to have it. As it is, fire protection is the only real advantage you can offer us." This area now has the protection of the county fire truck. With annexation the city can provide the services of three trucks.

"We must do what we feel is best for the city. The city of Big Spring is growing into these areas."

One of the major concerns of the citizens in attendance was FFA and 4-H livestock kept in the area. Frazier told the city commission that the land's deeds stated that the livestock could be kept, if properly restrained. The group wanted to know if the city would honor this deed permit.

It was explained by Commissioner John Taylor that all deed restrictions are honored when an area is annexed, but all deed allowances are subject to city ordinances.

"This commission," Taylor added, "is certainly open to considering any amendment to the present ordinance governing livestock in the city limits."

At the regular meeting of the city commission Tuesday, second readings on the six annexation ordinances will be considered.

Vet Land Board Accepts 40 Bids On Forfeit Land

AUSTIN (AP) — Forty bids totaling $234,680 have been accepted by the Veterans Land Board in a forfeited land sale.

The bids Friday involved 4,944 acres. Originally, the land was bought through the veterans land program and later was forfeited when the buyers fell behind in payments.

Richard George of Georgetown offered the top bid of $8,871 on 177 acres in Dimmit County.

"You haven't got anything to offer us, either, as far as tax value is concerned," Commissioner Paul Kasch told the group in reply. He explained that the area under discussion will bring the city only $1,073.10 a year in taxes.

Ralph Gossett told the city commissioners that he felt the movement for annexation was premature in his area, that there is no population. He said that the property directly across the highway from him is not in the city limits.

Simulated Rescue Turns Out Be Real

HAMILTON AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP)—A simulated air-sea rescue operation turned into the real thing Friday after an Army helicopter capsized as it was extracting a man from Drakes Bay 50 miles northwest of San Francisco.

The would-be rescuers were rescued by a Coast Guard cutter standing by as part of the maneuver. Within minutes it picked up the pilot, Capt. Charles E. Hamrick, 30; co-pilot Lt. Troy Allen, 27, and Airman G. M. Cummings, 28.

An amphibian plane returned the wet but unhurt men to Hamilton AFB.

Humility Urged For Physicians

DALLAS (AP) — Doctors should "come down off our home-made pedestals," a Florida physician told Texas Friday.

Dr. Leo Wachtel of Jacksonville, president elect of the Florida Medical Assn., said: "Great men never feel great, small men never feel small."

Dr. Wachtel's appeal for more humility by doctors followed his report on a survey of hospital administrators, nurses, undertakers and drug people who were asked to air their complaints about doctors. He spoke at a Symposium of the American Academy of General Practitioners.

Daughter Born

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell E. Holland, formerly of Big Spring and now of Chanute, Kan., are parents of a daughter born earlier this week. The newborn, weighing 6 pounds 7 ounces, has been named Cynthia Kay.

Mrs. Holland is the former June Patton. Holland is employed as a rehabilitation counselor in Chanute.

Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Patton and paternal grandparents Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Holland, all of Big Spring.

Tax Collection Drive Is Planned

AUSTIN (AP) — The Internal Revenue Service plans to collect delinquent taxes from 5,000 South Texas truck owners within 90 days.

R. L. Phinney, director of the 111-county South Texas district, said Friday records show 5,000 persons have registered taxable trucks with the State Highway Department but have not paid federal taxes on the vehicles.

Trucks with a gross weight of 26,000 pounds are subject to the federal tax.

Drugs Offer Substitute In Shock Therapy

GALVESTON (AP) — New tension-relieving drugs may replace electro-shock treatments to the history books if they prove as successful in clinical tests as they have in research experiments.

Progress being made in these new drugs will be disclosed in 26 reports to a symposium of 100 doctors at the University of Texas medical branch here Friday and Saturday.

These reports will relate not only to the use of new drugs in tension cases but also in other branches of medicine.

Effective drugs in psychiatry were almost unheard of six years ago. Then the "tranquillizers" appeared, the first of which was chlorpromazine and the rauwolfia preparations.

Since this initial work there have been many derivatives developed and many proved to be effective even in chronic mental diseases such as schizophrenia—a disease which has been responsible for filling over half the bed space in state hospitals today.

But these drugs did not prove useful in tension states of which depression is the most marked. Here again statistics showed a large number of victims. Most were patients who saw his family doctor with complaints of physical illnesses.

So researchers began studies to develop drugs which would be effective in milder emotional disorders such as these tension states.

During the past two years a number of so-called "anti-depressant" drugs have been developed and are proving effective to the extent that treatment with electro-shock therapy could be avoided some day, experts say.

Much work has been done with these drugs at the University of Texas Medical Branch here.

High Interest Is Shown In Educational Studies

Chamber of Commerce manager Bill Quimby reports "an unusual amount of interest" among five groups organized to study needs and problems of education in Big Spring.

The five subcommittees appointed by the Chamber's education committee have been holding numerous meetings among themselves, and will gather in an overall meeting to exchange findings on Nov. 16.

Cliff Fisher's personnel subcommittee has sent questionnaires to all teachers inquiring about their opinions.

Quimby said findings of the five groups will be coordinated after the Nov. 16 meeting in Goliad Junior High School cafeteria.

Finch Trial To Open On Dec. 1

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Finch murder trial will start Dec. 1 in Los Angeles.

Proceedings were switched from Pomona Friday, after the defense argued it would be inconvenient to take witnesses and defendants 30 miles each day of the trial.

The trial is expected to last six weeks.

Dr. R. Bernard Finch, 41, wpa-thy West Covina surgeon, and his friend, Carole Tregoff, 22, are charged with murder of his wife, Barbara Finch, 33, was found shot dead July 18.

The doctor and Miss Tregoff are being held in Los Angeles.

MEN IN SERVICE

Army Pvt. Stanley D. Menix, whose wife, Wanda, lives on Star Route, Ackerly, recently participated with the 54th Transportation Battalion in a large-scale command post exercise in Germany.

Menix, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Menix, Route 2, Lamesa, Tex., is an operations clerk in the battalion's Headquarters Detachment in Hanau. He entered the Army in January 1959, completed basic training at Fort Riley, Kan., and arrived overseas last July.

The 20-year-old soldier was graduated from Ackerly High School in 1958 and was employed by the Sporenburg Gin, before entering the Army.

Jesse G. Gilbert, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Gilbert of 1002 E. 16th, graduated from recruit training Nov. 13 at the Naval Training Center, San Diego, Calif.

The graduation exercises, marking the end of 11-weeks of "boot camp," included a full dress parade and review before military officials and civilian dignitaries.

In 11-weeks of instruction, the "raw recruit" is developed into a Navy Bluejacket, ready for duty with the fleet.

High School Buzzing With Many Activities

By TERESA SMITH
The cold weather certainly did not cool the schedule of activities around the campus. There seems to be even more things happening now than ever before.

Tuesday afternoon the officers of the Bible Club met at Lynn Cannon's home to formulate plans for the next club meeting and discuss the Christmas Pageant. The pageant, which will be a major project for the year, will be under the direction of Mrs. J. O. Johansen, Bible instructor. It was decided that the characters Mary and Joseph will be played by Linda Green and Rayford Harrison.

ON SPEECH TRIP

Bound for "Big D" were a large group of speech students who will participate in the Hillcrest High School Speech and Debate Tournament. The different classifications in which the students are entered are boys' debate, James Skinner, Bill Cooper; girls debate, Ilameta Carr, Linda Morton; oration, Dorothy Wheeler; declamation, Mary Jane Engstrom, Doug Davis; duet acting, Bob Pierce, Janet Thorburn; dramatic interpretation, Lida Fiveash; extemporaneous speaking, Jonita Evans; and poetry, Dale Phillips, Sharon Gary. There will be judges from SMU, NTSU, ASC, and professional organizations.

At SGA Banquet

Students Taking Achievement Tests

By DE MASON
"What did you make on your report cards?" This was the main topic of discussion this week. The results were indicated by unhappy and happy faces as the cards were handed out Wednesday.

All day Tuesday and part of the morning Wednesday the seventh grade took achievement and ability tests. Mrs. Billie Harrel, counselor, gave test instructions. Seventh grade homeroom teachers acted as monitors, while tests were in progress.

P-TA CONTEST

In the contest to see whose homeroom could get the largest P-TA membership, Mrs. Turner, 9th grade algebra teacher, and Miss Clanton, math teacher, are the teachers whose homerooms won. The winning classes were given a party in the cafeteria sixth period Friday. Punch and cookies were served.

Thursday night three games were played. The 8th and 9th grades played in old Steer Stadium. The 9th grade lost 26-8. The seventh grade journeyed to Lamesa to play. They lost 6-0. The United School Fund drive was held this week. The results were very good.

ACHIEVEMENT TESTS

Achievement test scores should be ready to be interpreted to students in about 75 days. These scores will give the students an opportunity to measure their progress in school subjects which they are taking.

STUDENT COUNCIL MEET

About 20 of the Student Council members attended the West Texas Forum workshop held in Snyder, Saturday. One of the main things the workshop did was to compare ideas of Student Councils in the area. The group is sponsored by Mr. and Mrs. Don Green.

Homecoming Ceremonies Held At Football Game

By ROSALIE DeVANEY
COAHOMA — Hi, well, I guess I'll be seeing you each Sunday from now on, I'm really looking forward to it and hope you are, too.

well as the seniors and going to have to double their ways of raising money.

Coahoma High School has been very busy this week. It seems as though every thing happens all at once. The seniors were working hard preparing for homecoming, which was Friday night at the game with Roby, which we won 12-6. A bonfire and snake dance was held Thursday night and a large crowd of students and fans was on hand to help build spirit for the team.

The junior class finished its annual magazine campaign with a land slide sale of $1,116.83 with about $400.00 net profit. Donna Farmer was high salesman with $162.50 and Jerri Nell Thomas was runner-up with $108.00. The juniors are also planning a class play in the spring.

After the game Friday, a dance and social was held for the students and exes in the gym.

The basketball girls have already started their season with two scrimmages with HCJC. We won one and lost one. This week-end they entered in the first annual HCJC invitational high school girls tournament. We won two and lost two.

At the half-time, Frances Earnest, was crowned football sweetheart by captains, Harold Aberegg, Max Kenemer, and Randall Reid. Patsy Greenfield was crowned Band sweetheart by Mike Rone. Both girls are seniors. Francis is a cheerleader and Patsy is major-ette for the band.

Candidates for the annual Miss C. H. S. contest were elected this week in class meetings. The girls are: Freshmen — Judy Hamilton, Pat Hughes, Jon Ellen Ford, Yvonne Knorr, sophomores — Sandra Nichols, Margie Appleton, Ginger Richters, Linda Rogers; Juniors — Lyn Nell Mason, Glenda Haney, Nancy Hodnett, Connie Ford; seniors — Frances Earnest, Joan Davis, Judy Brooks, Zena Kay Robinson. The contest will be Dec. 12, sponsored by the senior.

The seniors have been working hard to raise money for a trip to New Orleans in May. They have had bake sales, a domino party, operated the concessions at football games and are planning a rummage sale. They also plan to help the American Legion sell tickets for its banquet on Nov. 20th. They are also planning a senior play in the spring.

Members of Methodist Youth Fellowship groups from Midland, Andrews, Lamesa, Snyder, Big Spring and other surrounding towns attended a Methodist Rally at the First Methodist Church Saturday evening. Groups from the seventh grade through senior high school joined in the meeting which was hosted by the three Methodist Churches in Big Spring.

Since there wasn't a Halloween Carnival this year the juniors as game this week, but we'll be ready for our game with Goliad next week.

Friday afternoon, fifth and sixth periods, a party was held in the gym. This was for all the students who bought the Runnels yearbook, the El Palomar. Sales receipts were required for admittance. There were refreshments, dancing and fun.

Evening meal for the group was served in Fellowship Hall of the First Methodist Church at 6 p.m. After the meal, a program of worship was centered around the theme: MY ALL FOR CHRIST. Dan Bennett read the Call to Worship. Dr. Clyde Smith gave the prayer. Special music for the occasion was "For the Beauty of the Earth" and "Alleluia," sung by the Howard County Junior College Chorus under the direction of Mr. Ira Schantz and accompanied by Mr. Jack Hendrix. The main address of the rally was given by the Rev. James Kirby of Roby.

Thursday at the pep rally Coach Scott announced Hollis Webb had been elected best lineman in the seventh grade game with Sweetwater. Joe Numer was the best back in this game.

Student Government Assn. Convention Held At College

The regional Student Government Association Convention was held at HCJC this weekend. The convention is an annual affair, which is held at a different college every year. The HCJC members of the SGA had been planning for the convention ever since school began, and they acted as hosts to the five schools attending.

Forty-one delegates were present from Odessa College, South Plains Junior College at Levelland, Amarillo Junior College, Frank Payne College at Borger and HCJC. Opening session of the meeting was held Friday night when delegates registered and attended a reception in the Student Union Building. After the reception, the delegates were invited to attend a performance of "Manana is Another Day," the college play.

A band consisting of Ronny Burkes, Randy Hensley, Tony Starr, Dennis McCullough, and Mike Moore entertained. Harold Henson introduced the main speaker of the occasion, Lt. Col. Leonard Einstein of Webb Air Base, who spoke to the members on "The Citizenship Challenge to S. G. A."

Thursday night the National Honor Society met in the library. The main topic for the evening was the induction ceremony of new members which will be held Nov. 18. It will take place in the high school auditorium during a morning assembly. The names of the new inductees will not be known until they are announced from the roster.

This week the United Fund School Drive was held. BSHS'ers donated a total of $177.13 to the drive. All rooms that had 100 per cent participation were awarded a free period Friday by omitting the fourth period class and getting out of school at 3.

A business meeting took place at 11:30 to decide details of the convention next year. At 12 noon, the delegates attended a banquet at the Desert Sands Restaurant.

Students have made signs and prepared speeches for the occasion. Each student represents a state and casts the number of votes according to the number of electoral votes the real state is allowed. For example, the person representing Pennsylvania would cast 32 votes to coincide with the 32 electoral votes allowed Pennsylvania.

From 9:15 to 10 a.m. the delegates were taken on a guided tour of the campus. Highlight of the tour was the new dormitories. After the tour, a group discussion was held on the theme: "Responsibility and Student Government." Three points were brought out: How to make the student body realize that the Association is their

A reception will be held immediately after the game in the high school cafeteria.

Lamesa Holds Homecoming

LAMESA — Annual homecoming of Lamesa High School will start with a pep rally Thursday Nov. 12.

School cheerleaders said all students and exes will participate in a combined car caravan, pep rally and bonfire at the high school starting at 6 p.m.

At 1:30 p.m. Friday, another pep rally will be held in the high school gym.

The homecoming game between the Lamesa Golden Tigers and the Colorado City Wolves will begin at 7:30 p.m. Friday.

Highlighting the halftime ceremony will be crowning of the band sweetheart, and the football sweetheart, and the presentation of four homecoming attendants from whom the homecoming queen will be selected.

A reception will be held immediately after the game in the high school cafeteria.

Eighteen On First Runnels Honor Roll

Eighteen Runnels Junior High School students made the honor roll for the first nine weeks of school.

Making "A" in all subjects, including conduct, were: Seventh Grade — Howard Bain, Jerry Belew, Nancy Lewis, Dana Rosene, Kathryn Seddon, Nancy Simms, Kay Trupp and Koleta Witcher.

Eighth Grade —Janie Barber, Harold Osburn, Judy Priest, Susan Stephens and Cheryl Whittington. Ninth grade — Ronald Bradford, Joyce Davidson, Kathleen Morton, Jane Smedley and Rickey Wisener.

Hi-Y Council Meets

The meeting of the Hi-Y Council Monday night was opened with a prayer by Johnny Case. It was decided that the reporter of each club would give the write-up of their club meeting to Joan Jordan, Hi-Y Council reporter, to be compiled in a weekly column of Y news.

Which can raise the most money for the project. On the bell is to be engraved "Freshman Class '59-60." This bell will be willed to the eighth grade at the end of the year. Our plans are to have the bell by the Runnels-Goliad game on Nov. 12.

The ninth grade Tri-Hi-Y met Monday. The meeting was opened with a prayer by Becky Forshoe. Jean Anne Black gave the devotional. Everett Taylor talked on "What Your Y Should Mean to You." Susan Gibbs was elected treasurer.

Busy Week At HCJC Comes To An End

By KAY LOVELAND
Wow! What a week this past one has been. In one way it's a good feeling to have it out of the way, but in another way it's sad that it has come to an end. So many activities that had been anticipated with excitement are over.

travel with those from HCJC, and several schools will send delegations to Waco for the field trip. HCJC and Baylor are now discussing the possibility of exchanging field trips, with Baylor going on our trips and HCJC going on theirs. Sounds great to me!

"Manana is Another Day" opened Thursday evening and played to a rather sparse, but fairly susceptible crowd. Even though the going was rough in a few spots, the play as a whole went off much better than anyone involved in the production had thought it would. Friday night, as well as on Saturday, the crowd and the actors improved. Everyone in the cast had a fine time and enjoyed every minute of the performance. Of course, most of you have heard that Terry Stanley, one of the laborers in the play, fell and cut his hand during the first night of production and had to have six stitches taken. How many of you knew that there was a prompter stretched out in the fountain? Clever, no?

The BSU will conduct a program at the Baptist Temple Sunday evening as a part of their group activities. Harold Henson will be in charge of the program, and Robby Allen and Barry Clayton will speak. The organization is continuing to hold a devotional time in Music 107 during activity period on Wednesdays. Attendance at these devotionals has ranged between six and twelve persons.

The high school girls' basketball tournament began play Thursday morning. Teams included in the competition were from Forsan, Stanton, Coahoma, Post, Klondike, Sands and several other surrounding towns. The members of the Women's Recreational Association served as hostesses for the tournament, and acted as guides in taking the players on tour of the campus. The finals were held Saturday night and prizes were awarded to the championship, consolation, third and fourth place teams. A sportsmanship and all-tournament team were named also. Coaches of the various teams expressed delight that the tournament could be held in such a central location.

RODEO CLUB MEETS

The Rodeo Club met Friday morning to discuss affiliation with the National Rodeo Association. If they join, they would probably enter six or seven college rodeos also affiliated with the NRA in the spring. Tommy Buckner is president and Mr. Box is sponsor. The Choir sang for the Methodist Youth Rally held at the First Methodist Church Saturday evening. At this time they have no further singing engagements, but they are rehearsing Christmas songs for their annual Christmas Assembly.

A business meeting took place at 11:30 to decide details of the convention next year. At 12 noon, the delegates attended a banquet at the Desert Sands Restaurant.

A dinner will be held by the Aggie Club members at Bruce Frazier's home Monday evening. Nominees for Sweetheart will elect one of the five. They are: Lena Zeiter, Bobbie Collins, Judi Shields, LaVern Carter, and Danna Griffice.

Lyndon Booked To Speak Before Brooklyn Club

NEW YORK (AP) — A dinner speech by Senate majority leader Lyndon Johnson, billed as non-political, is stirring political speculation.

The dinner in Brooklyn Jan. 21 will be sponsored by the Cathedral Club of Brooklyn, one of the largest Catholic men's organizations in New York. Johnson, a Protestant, will be making his first public appearance in this area since he was projected as a possible candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination.

97-Year-Old Resident Dies

Mariano A. Fierro, 97, died Saturday morning at his home, 107 NW 8th St. He was a retired laborer for Texas & Pacific Railroad.

Services will be held at 8 a.m. Monday at Sacred Heart Catholic Church, with Father Patrick Casey officiating. Burial will be in City Cemetery under direction of Nalley-Pickle Funeral Home.

The body will lie in state at the funeral home until 8:30 a.m. Sunday, at which time it will be taken to the residence until time for services.

Survivors include two sons, Telesforo and Emiliano Fierro, both of Big Spring; two sisters, Mrs. Quirina Aleman, of Big Spring; and Mrs. Maria Caballero, of El Paso; 11 grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Stool Handy For Robbing A Bank

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Two bank robbers took a stool to work Friday.

They strolled into a downtown branch of the Security-First National Bank and put the stool beside a teller's cage. One of the men climbed on top of the stool, reached over the cage and picked up three sacks of coins.

When a teller tried to stop them, the other man waved a gun. The pair fled. Loss was estimated at about $300. But it wasn't a total loss for the bank. The robbers forgot their stool.

Amarillo Is Worried Over Annexations

AMARILLO (AP) — What price is a city willing to pay for a sudden, easy population boom?

Amarillo is pondering this question with its eyes on the 1960 census. Business leaders see a high population total as attracting new business and industry.

Amarillo could gain 15,000 residents by annexation between now and census time. Not all agree this would be beneficial.

It costs money to service new residents, and in one case, the city would have to unsmear a hodge-podge residential, water and sewer situation, John Masterman, of the Amarillo Globe - Times and News, wrote recently in a survey of the situation.

The situation is considerably different from the Beaumont - Port Arthur - Port Neches-Nederland area, where cities this week scrambled to annex great industrial plants and their tax revenue.

The most controversial of the Amarillo annexation proposals, Masterman found, calls for taking in a two - to - three mile wide, sparsely settled corridor east from the city limits to embrace Amarillo Air Force Base, now six miles away.

By June, 1960, air base strength is expected to reach 14,000. Many will live inside the city limits and would be counted as Amarillo residents anyway.

An estimated 9,000 to 10,000 men will live on the base. They'll go into census records as residents of Potter County if the city doesn't claim them.

If air base annexation is the most controversial, biggest financial problem would come with annexing two-square-mile Pleasant Valley adjoining Amarillo to the north.

The unincorporated home of 4,000 to 5,000 people, Pleasant Valley, is a hodge-podge of expensive brick homes and shanties, five-acre farmlets and 200-foot-deep residential lots, uncurbed streets, dead - end alleys, horses, pigs, chickens and garden plots.

Sanitation is by septic tank. The water supply comes from hundreds of wells.

To annex Pleasant Valley, the city faces an estimated outlay of $724,000 for water and sewer lines and thousands more for police and fire protection and street improvements.

How soon can the expenditures be amortized? Should the city build a fire station there? On what basis can water and sewer services be extended to people who already have their own? These are just three of many questions involved.

The population of Amarillo is 147,949, the Chamber of Commerce estimates.

By taking in Amarillo AFB and Pleasant Valley, city commissioners see the possibility of boosting Amarillo over 160,000.

New Textbooks To Be Adopted

AUSTIN (AP) — New textbooks in seven different subjects for use next year will be adopted by the State Board of Education at its meeting here Nov. 9.

For the first time journalism textbooks will be issued in Texas public schools. The Legislature this year added journalism to the list of subjects for which books may be supplied by the state.

The three journalism texts recommended by the state textbook committee are "Journalism and the School Paper" published by D. C. Heath; "Modern Journalism," Henry Holt, and "Experiences in Journalism," Lyons and Carahan.

The other texts will include books for 7th and 8th grade science courses, spelling for grades 2 through 8, drawing for grades 1 through 8, art for high schools and trigonometry.

Traffic School Continues

Ira Scott wound up the first week of a special traffic school for Big Spring policemen Friday and readied plans for the second week. He has conducted several police department schools in Big Spring and represents the engineering division of the Texas A&M extension service. The classes are held each day in the police classroom, one in the morning and the other in the afternoon. Attending this session were, from left, R. E. Dugan (with glasses), Capt. Walter Eubanks, James Baker, Tom Hammond, and Mrs. Carolyn Lamb.

License Examiner Will Activate New Schedule

Persons who plan to apply for drivers licenses in December had better recheck their dates.

L. E. Smith, examiner, has been put on a new schedule of operations. Under this new plan, he will be in Big Spring each Monday — which, he feels, will be of greater benefit to many applicants for licenses.

The new schedule will be effective on Nov. 30.

Smith's duties include several towns in the area. Under his revised plan of operations, he will no longer be in Midland as he has in the past but has added Colorado City to his list.

The schedule calls for Smith to be in Big Spring all day each Monday. The office hours are 8 to 5. On the first, third and fifth Tuesdays in each month, he will be in Lamesa. The hours will be from 9 to 5. On each second Tuesday he will be in Stanton from 9 to 5; on each fourth Tuesday morning, 9 until 12, he will be in Sterling City and in Garden City from 1:30 to 5 that afternoon.

Each Wednesday, from 9 to 5, he will be in Colorado City. Thursdays will see him back in Lamesa.

He will begin Big Spring on an 8-to-5 schedule on each Friday and Saturday.

Smith believes this new schedule will enable him to better serve

STOP LIVING IN THE WORLD OF HALF-SOUND

If you are partially deaf, I pledge that within 15 minutes I can show you the door to a new world of amazingly clear, distinct sounds—a world free from the annoying, almost maddening background noises usually associated with ordinary hearing aids. And you will enter this world of full, clear sound without awkward, unsightly bands in the hair, wires in your clothes, or blobs in or behind your ears. Your key to this new world is the Otariot Listener, employing a modern scientific principle known as "Target Hearing"—which many scientists call an "electronics miracle." Through "Target Hearing," you will be able to hear wanted sounds crisply and clearly, without the distracting clatter and clamor of "background noises" which usually plague those wearing ordinary hearing aids. And your secret will be safe with an Otariot Listener. There are no "gadgets" or "gimmicks" to produce awareness of a hearing aid. A tiny, almost invisible tube leads to the ear.

If you feel you are losing your hearing, you owe it to yourself to come in for a free audiometric measurement and a demonstration of the Otariot Listener—worn and acclaimed by such world-renowned personalities as Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt. You will not be charged for your visit and will be under no obligation. The only thing you will give is time—a few minutes. Give me the opportunity to help you out of your lonely world of half sound.

City Commission To Talk Annexation On Tuesday

Annexation will again be the main topic for discussion Tuesday when the Big Spring City Commission meets in regular session.

Four nights last week the commissioners held public hearings on annexing six fringe areas. About 200 residents attended the hearings, most of them speaking in opposition.

Two protest petitions were presented to the commissioners, one with 46 signatures and the other with 81. The hearings were relatively quiet, however there were some outbursts from irate property owners.

Annexation was described as short-sighted and far-sighted, premature and a tax grab, too soon and too late. But most of the residents said the city could not provide services in return for taxes.

City services were criticized as to their value. Several residents said their present service was better than anything the city could offer.

5 MAJOR POINTS

The hearings brought out several points which the commission made clear as the last one was adjourned.

1. The commissioners have not decided definitely that the six annexation ordinances will get additional readings. Each of them has received the first of four that are required. The commission may suspend further readings which would delay annexations.

2. If annexation is completed, plans will be worked out to enable residents to keep some livestock. This issue was discussed at each of the four hearings.

3. Water and sewer services are not paid with taxes. These services are paid by revenues and no one pays for them unless he receives them. Taxes pay for other services.

4. In most cases, decreased costs of telephone service, water, insurance rates and garbage collection will equal the cost of city taxes.

5. The commission is concerned with the future of Big Spring and will take all future steps with the master plan in mind.

The complete annexation program, if approved, would add almost two square miles to the size of Big Spring.

The actual size is 1,222 acres and total valuation is estimated at $4,924,450. Rendered at 50 per cent, this area would build city revenue by $36,933.

The largest area considered for annexation is the Airport-Settles Heights area. It covers 403 acres and the estimated valuation is $2,821,970.

It includes Settles Heights, Wright's Addition, Wright's No. 2, Wright's Airport Addition, Wright's Airport Annex Nos. 1 and 2, Lincoln Addition, Mesa Addition, Sunset Addition, and some acreage.

This section is along U.S. 80 on the west of the city.

OTHER AREAS

The College Park Estates area is on U.S. 80, east of the city. It includes 267 acres, all acreage, and estimated valuation is $450,000.

The Lockhart Addition comprises 58 acres, valued at $365,000. It is located south of the city on the old San Angelo highway.

The Western Hills area includes 362 acres with an estimated valuation of $1,116,100. It is bounded by Coronado Hills, the State Park, Webb AFB and the Douglass Addition area.

It includes Western Hills, Kennebeck Heights, Park View, Thorp Addition, Hilldale and the Clanton Addition.

The Cedar Ridge area includes the Cedar Ridge Addition and acreage. Valuation is pegged at $153,060 and it includes about 112 acres.

It is south of FM 700 and west of Birdwell Lane.

The other area is the southwest corner of FM 700 and U.S. 87. This 20 acres is bounded by the Big Spring Hunting and Fishing Club, U.S. 87, FM 700 and Coronado Hills. It is valued at $20,000.

The city commission meets at 5:15 p.m. in the commission room at city hall.

Masquerade Is Over

Barbara Ann Malpass, 26, of Glenwood, N.Y., admitted to Jefferson County authorities in Golden, Colo., that for four months she has been masquerading through jails and jobs as a homeless boy. She finally donned feminine garb and posed for pictures in the home of Deputy Sheriff and Mrs. Sam Teague of Golden.

Girl's Masquerade Ends And She's Enroute Home

GOLDEN, Colo. (AP)—A girl, who fooled officers in four jails into thinking she was a boy, is on a four-day trip to Texas, her masquerade ended.

Barbara Ann Malpass, 26, of Glenwood, N.Y., is accompanied by Deputy Sheriff Sam Teague and Mrs. Teague on the trip to Texas where the Teagues formerly lived. They did not disclose their exact destination.

"There are no charges pending against the girl. She's as free as she can be," said Sheriff Art Wermuth.

As Charles Williams, 16, she spent 27 days in jail here, then five weeks in the home of the Teagues before the masquerade ended.

She was arrested here for hitchhiking, and for questioning regarding a burglary. Wermuth said she had no connection with the burglary.

Her sex was discovered when Teague found a letter she had written to her parents.

Autry Rites To Be Sunday

COLORADO CITY — Services will be held at 2 p.m. Sunday for Barney Lee Autry, of Cuthbert, who died unexpectedly in his home early Saturday.

He was a member of the Baptist Church, the Masonic Lodge and was a World War I veteran. Autry married the former Susan Boseman in 1929 in Colorado City. He moved to Mitchell County as a boy and was a farmer.

Services will be held in Kiker & Son Chapel, with burial in Cuthbert Cemetery.

Survivors include one son, J. B. Autry, Cuthbert; four daughters, Mrs. Travis T. Payne, Cuthbert, Mrs. V. Molitor, England, Mrs. Charles Talbot and Mrs. William T. Jones, both of El Paso; two sisters, Mrs. M. E. Hewitt and Mrs. Roy Spencer, both of Mountaintain, N.M.; and 15 grandchildren.

Missing Judge Clue Is Found

CHICAGO (AP)—Search for a missing federal judge turned to Chicago's West Side Saturday after four persons reported seeing a man answering his description in a restaurant.

Police said they doubted the man was the missing Judge W. Lynn Parkinson of the U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals who disappeared Oct. 26 after leaving the courthouse.

About 150 skin divers began a search of the Lake Michigan bottom across the street from the courthouse, in a hunt for the judge's body. Most authorities involved in the search believe Judge Parkinson's body is in the lake.

Murder Trial Of Actor Set Open Monday

BRACKETVILLE, Tex. (AP)—A young movie actor is scheduled for trial here Monday, charged with the slaying of an attractive blond actress in a case officers claim stemmed from professional jealousy and a tottering romance.

Miss LeJean Ethridge, 26, of Hollywood died at 2 a.m. Oct. 11 on the floor of a home she shared with four male extras including Chester Smith, 35, who is charged with slaying her.

She died with the five-inch blade of a hunting knife plunged into her body.

All five were extras in the picture, "The Alamo," being produced a short distance outside this Southwest Texas town.

Bus Miss Ethridge was stepping up. She had been given a bit part in the motion picture and was moving out of the house she shared with the actors.

Fred Semaan of San Antonio, well known attorney who heads the defense, is expected to request a trial postponement. He said he has not had time to prepare his case or subpoena witnesses.

But Semaan said Smith may plead guilty if the state "makes a reasonable offer."

Dist. Atty. Douglas Newtton of Del Rio says he will ask an immediate trial. He says he fears he will be unable to return members of the troupe as witnesses when they scatter after the film is completed.

County Atty. John J. Tobin, in a letter to two sisters of the victim, said Smith "was jealous of the opportunity that was afforded your sister when she was given additional parts in 'The Alamo' due to her acting ability."

Sheriff John Sheedy described the slaying this way:

"She was getting a better part in the movie, and she was moving out on Smith and the others. He thought he was going to lose her."

"Two other men and a woman went with her to bring her belongings into Bracketville (from the residence 9 miles south of here), and she went into a bedroom and packed up. They had an argument, but the others didn't think it was serious because they had argued before."

"The man apparently went through the kitchen and grabbed a knife. He met her in a hallway and stabbed her very near the heart and she fell into the front room. I found him sitting beside the body when I got there about 15 minutes later."

Tobin and Sheedy said Smith had angrily told the actress she could not leave. Suddenly he drew Miss Ethridge toward him and thrust the knife into her chest.

They said witnesses related that she stared fixedly at Smith and cried "I love you."

Smith told questioners his memory was blank for several hours before and after the slaying.

Auxiliary Happy Over Poppy Day

Poppy Day Saturday was called the most successful in Big Spring's history, with early reports showing $725 collected.

Mrs. Foy Dunlap, American Legion Auxiliary chairman of the event, said late reports are expected to swell the figure.

She expressed gratification at the response, and said the amount collected over the goal of $600 "will allow a needed expansion of our VA Hospital aid program."

Mrs. Johnnie Morrison, working with a group of Rainbow Girls, said, "Response in the Capehart area was nearly 100 per cent. These servicemen were generous in contributing to the aid of disabled veterans." Boy Scouts from Troop 19, sponsored by the Legion, turned in brimming collection cups.

Some 30 members of the auxiliary, aided by the Scouts and Rainbow Girls, distributed the poppies, replicas of the World War I battlefield flower, to be worn in memory of dead veterans of American wars.

C. A. Walker, World War I veteran, bought the first poppy for $10.

Senator Averts Injury In Wreck

PHNOM PENH, Cambodia (AP)—Sen. Hiram L. Fong (R-Hawaii) escaped injury and possible death by a Chinese Communist aid mission careened into a car in Fong's convoy 14 miles west of this Cambodian capital.

A Cambodian cyclist, whom the Chinese driver attempted to avoid, according to witnesses, was seriously injured. The four Chinese in the jeep were slightly hurt. A Filipino photographer and the Cambodian driver of the American car were shaken up.

Fong, the only U.S. senator of Asian descent, is on a personal study tour of Asia.

Prisoner, Held For Theft, Confesses To 15 Burglaries

A talkative prisoner, waiting trial for felony theft this week, cleared up the mystery of 15 Big Spring and Howard County burglaries Saturday noon, according to Miller Harris, sheriff.

The prisoner, identified as Charles Murphy, 25, had been returned to Howard County on Friday from Monahan where he was being held in jail. He is to face district court this week to answer a felony theft charge.

He informed Fern Cox, deputy sheriff, and Bobby West, investigator for the district attorney's office, that he had a few things to say.

Cox and West said the young Big Spring man, who has been in many difficulties with the law in his life here, and who faces revocation of a five year probation sentence now hanging over him, said:

"I'll tell you all about them (the burglaries), but don't ask me for dates. I can't remember the dates."

Cox estimated that the series of break-ins began over a year ago.

Included in his list of admitted burglaries were five in Coahoma. Cox related that Murphy said he broke into the Highway Cafe in Coahoma three separate times; into the Texaco Service station once and into "another cafe in Coahoma" on another occasion.

Here in Big Spring, he told of breaking into the Masters' Drive-in on three occasions; into Jen-in's Cafe, and Chub's Drive-in two times each. He also said he on several occasions, he saw two burglarized the Ace of Clubs, The Ice cars near the places which Ranchburger and the Tip Top he was burglarizing.

There are other cases in which Cox said that all of these break-ins were still carried on the off-Cox said.

Check Writers Efforts Fail

Police officers, with the help of two grocery stores, stopped a rain of bad checks on the city Friday.

A Crane County woman was being held in jail on a forgery charge, Detective Leo Hull said Saturday morning.

Patrolman Marvin Blackwell arrested the woman at the Piggy Wiggy store on a complaint by the store employees.

Police have nine checks totaling about $150 which the woman has cashed in Big Spring. Hull said forgery charges would be filed. She has signed two names in cashing the checks.

No charges will be filed against two men arrested at Furr's grocery store. Patrolman Sherrill Farmer apprehended the men and arranged with the store manager to have the money recovered.

One of the men had passed two checks totaling $35 at Furr's.

Peace Stressed In Reds' Celebration

MOSCOW (AP)—The Russians celebrated the 42nd anniversary of the Bolshevik Revolution Saturday with pageantry in Red Square hailing peace, Soviet scientific progress and economic growth.

The annual military parade, which dawn through the decades has proclaimed Soviet might to the world, was little more than perfunctory on this festive day in the Soviet capital.

The parade of weapons and fighting men took up only about 20 minutes of the two-hour march past Premier Nikita Khrushchev and other Soviet leaders atop the polished red granite tomb of Lenin and Stalin.

The remainder of the march was turned over to civilians, laborers, farmers and scientific workers, who got immense applause in this age of Luniks and atomic icebreakers.

Khrushchev heard himself praised as a man of peace in the keynote address by Marshal Rodion Malinovsky, the defense minister, who spoke against a backdrop of crimson banners in the square.

Malinovsky praised the Premier's plan for total disarmament within a four-year period. He said Khrushchev's visit to the United States "opened broad prospects for the establishment of a stable peace on earth."

About 10,000 ticket-holding guests, including foreign diplomats were in the broad square to watch the military parade.

In the day's closing event, Khrushchev toasted the Soviet army as "the only army in the world which has voted with the people for its own dissolution." This reference to Soviet army support for his disarmament plan was made at a Kremlin reception.

In a later toast Khrushchev posed an end to war and declared the Soviet army is "ready for disarmament in the interests of bringing a lasting peace."

Car Victim's Rites Planned

LAMESA — Funeral services for Mrs. Ed Isaacs, 44, killed Wednesday morning in a car wreck which left her husband seriously injured, will be in Franklin, Tenn. Her body was shipped there Saturday. Franklin will be her childhood home.

Services will be at 2 p.m. Wednesday, according to tentative arrangements.

Survivors include her husband, who is an employee of the Lamesa Daily Reporter; a son, Eddie Ray, Sweetwater; her mother, one sister and one brother, all of whom live in Tennessee.

Isaacs is making some progress, according to reports from the Medical Arts Hospital, but his condition continues serious. Surgery will be attempted Monday, if he continues to make progress.

Owner Of Child's Clothes Sought

Police detectives are trying to locate a Big Spring girl who lost some children's clothes off a clothes line.

Detective Jack Jones said Saturday that a man arrested for drunkenness had the clothes in his possession. They include a little girl's blouse and pedal pushers, a baby dress and two small boy's shirts.

The owner may claim the clothes at the police station.

Menix Rites To Be Sunday

LAMESA — Funeral services for Mrs. R. S. Menix, 39, who died in Medical Arts Hospital on Friday night after a lingering illness, are set for 2:30 p.m. Sunday at St. Paul Lutheran Church. The Rev. W. H. Fischer, pastor, will officiate. Burial will be in Lamesa cemetery with Higginbotham Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Menix lived seven miles south of Lamesa on the Patricia road. She moved here in 1947 from Gaines County. She was born in Seymour.

Survivors include her husband, two daughters, Bobbie and Sally; three sons, Wilbert, Frank and Robert; one sister Mrs. Owen Herrin, Midland; two brothers, D. C. Bingham, Seminole and R. T. Bingham, Lamesa.

Potter Stewart—concurrent in a five-page unsigned opinion upholding the injunction.

It was the first time the court ever had ruled on the validity of Section 308 of the Taft-Hartley Act, passed in 1947.

This is the section which authorizes the government to seek "cooling-off" injunctions in strikes which "if permitted to occur" or to continue, will imperil the national health or safety.

Fifteen times the government has asked a U.S. District Court to issue an injunction under this section. Each time the request has been granted.

In the majority opinion, the Supreme Court rejected all contentions the union made in urging that the injunction be struck down. Among other arguments, the union said Section 308 was unconstitutional on the ground it attempted to confer upon federal courts non-judicial functions.

CONSTITUTIONAL

"We are of the opinion," said the court, "that the provision in question as applied here is not violative of the constitutional limitation prohibiting courts from exercising powers of a legislative or executive nature."

To the union's argument that the statute was invalid because it does not set up standards of lawful or unlawful conduct or the part of labor or management, the majority said: "But the statute does recognize certain rights in the public to have unimpeded for a time production in industries vital to the national health or safety. It makes the United States the guardian of these rights in litigation."

The majority said Congress, in passing Section 308, was not concerned with the merits of the positions of either side in a labor dispute or with their conduct of negotiations.

"Its basic purpose seems to have been to see that vital production should be resumed continued for a time while further efforts were made to settle the dispute," the court said.

The Justice Department, acting upon instructions from Eisenhower, obtained the injunction from Judge Herbert P. Sarge in U.S. District Court in Pittsburgh Oct. 21. The U.S. 3rd Circuit Court of Appeals on Philadelphia upheld the action six days later. Effectiveness of the back-to-work order was stayed until the high court acted.

In his 14-page dissenting opinion, Justice Douglas said the case should be returned to District Court "for particularized findings as to how the steel strike imperils the 'national health' and what plants need to be reopened to produce the small quantity of steel now needed for the 'national safety.'"

The 116-day strike, longest industrywide shutdown in steel history, has cost an estimated more than six billion dollars in wage and production losses.

More than 350,000 workers in steel-related industries were laid off, resulting in additional wage and production losses running into millions.

The Big Spring Chamber of Commerce had a committee together to hear about the rabies threat (so far principally in wildlife). There had been 14 cases reported, an alarming number. Next day when reports on two other animal heads came back, the total was 16. This is a situation that can't be taken lightly. Every pet in the county ought to be vaccinated against rabies.

Records on Water Consumption

Records on water consumption by Colorado River Municipal Water District customers showed an aggregate of almost eight billion gallons for the first 10 months of the year. This is 12 per cent up from a year ago—and that's a pretty healthy gain.

More than 100 Big Spring citizens began a monumental conference on educational problems in the city. Before it is over, they will have checked into the various facets of finance, plant, program, personnel and activities. The conclusions remain to be seen, but there can be no doubt that there will be a greater awareness of school problems.

When the Band Boosters sold the first of their fruit cakes (an annual fund raising project) to Mayor Lee Rogers last week, they may not have realized that they in truth had collared an old band booster. Not so many years ago, Mrs. Rogers was head of the boosters organization and pushing the self-same cake sale.

Radio Ownership Changes

Radio ownership changes have been rather numerous within the past six months or so, and another shaped up last week. Jim Richardson applied to FCC to buy into KBYG—which he now manages. Recently KBST went to Ted Snider and Winston Wrinkle, and prior to that KHEM to Bob Bradbury.

Infant Funeral Rites Are Today

Graveside rites for Daria Laru Greenfield, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Greenfield, Coahoma, will be at 2 p.m. today in Trinity Memorial Park, W. O. Batlen Church of Christ, Coahoma. They will officiate and arrangements are in the hands of Nalley-Pickle Funeral Home.

The child was born Saturday morning and died Saturday afternoon.

Survivors in addition to the parents are her paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Greenfield, Coahoma; maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Berry, Trenton; paternal great-grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Greenfield, Colorado City, and Mr. and Mrs. Otis White, Floyd, N.M.

Five Projects Ready To Dig In Three Pools

New President

Alvin C. Hope, San Antonio, was named president-elect of the 7,000 member Independent Petroleum Assn. of America. He will succeed Judge Gordon Simpson, Dallas.

Martin, Mitchell and Garza counties had new projects staked Saturday morning. Carthay Land Co. will dig two holes in the Post (Glorieta) field on a 520 acre lease about eight miles east of Justiceburg. They are slated for 2,600 feet. No. 4-A Borden is 1,900 from north and 660 from east lines of section 132-5-H&G survey. No. 5-A Borden is 1,900 from north and east lines of section 132-5-H&G survey. Texas No. 10-B J. E. Maboe is a new Maboe field location in Martin County about 24 miles northwest of Stanton. On 640 acres, it is slated for 4,955 feet. The site is 1,999 from north and 1,989 from west lines of section 15-39-G&M&B&A survey. Col-Tex Refining Co. of Big Spring will dig two projects in the Westbrook field of Mitchell County. They are three miles northwest of Westbrook and on a 440 acre lease. Both are set for 3,300 feet. No. 33 Abrams is 2,310 from north and 1,005 from east lines of section 33-28-In, T&P survey. No. 41 Abrams is 990 from north and 1,650 from west lines of section 41-28-In, T&P survey.

Pioneer Declares Stock Dividend

AMARILLO — Board of Directors of Pioneer Natural Gas Co. has declared a dividend of 40 cents per share on outstanding common stock, payable Dec. 4 to stockholders of record at the close of business on Nov. 20. Net income, unaudited, of Pioneer and subsidiaries for the nine months ended Sept. 30 was $3,648,782, compared with $2,696,384 as adjusted for the comparable period of 1958. This amounted to $2.20 per share on the common stock compared to $1.64 per share for the prior period, both based upon the common shares outstanding at the end of the respective periods.

Borden County Leads Area In October Oil Potentials

Borden County led the field of eight area counties in total oil potential during October. Four wells were finished during the month totaling 632.63 barrels per day on initial tests. Howard County led in the number of wells finished and in the number of new projects staked out. Nine projects were completed, all in the Howard-Glasscock field. Twelve new locations were spotted. For the immediate eight county area, 26 wells were completed for a total potential of 2,781.50 barrels of oil per day. Three of these wells were discovery projects, bringing in a total of 305.33 barrels of new oil. Ten wildcat locations were spotted during the month and 10 projects were abandoned. In established pools, 46 new projects were staked. The picture for each county included: BORDEN—Two new field wells completed for a total of 436.20 barrels of oil per day. Nine new field locations were announced and three wildcats were set to drill. Two projects were plugged and abandoned. Two discovery wells were completed, one in the Pennsylvania for 168.83 barrels per day, and the other in the Spraberry for 27.5 barrels per day. Total production for the month reached 632.63 barrels per day.

DAWSON — One field well was completed in October for a potential of 196.40 barrels per day. Six new field locations were readied and one explorer staked. There were no abandonments. GARZA — Four new field wells potential for a total of 595.65 barrels per day. Seven new field locations were staked and two wells were plugged and abandoned.

GLASSCOCK — One pool well was completed for 20.6 barrels of oil per day and another was finished as a discoverer for 109 barrels per day. A wildcat was reported ready to drill and one well was a duster. HOWARD — Nine field completions, all in the Howard-Glasscock pool, reported total potential of 421.98 barrels per day. One of the projects was a dual producer. Established fields had 12 new locations and two wildcat projects were staked. One well was abandoned.

MARTIN — One well was finished during the month for a potential of 553.28 barrels of oil per day. One new field project was staked and one abandonment reported. Established fields had 12 new locations in established fields for a potential of 251.96 barrels per day. One wildcat location was spotted and plans were set for nine field locations.

STERLING — No oil well was completed during the month, but two field locations and two wildcat locations were ready for drilling. Three wells were abandoned.

API Founder Dies Of Heart Attack

TEAGUE, Tex. (AP)—W. R. Boyd Jr., 74, prominent Texas oilman, died today after a heart attack. He was a founder of the American Petroleum Institute and served as its president in 1941. A native of Fairfield, he retired 10 years ago. Survivors include his widow and son, William R. Boyd III, an official of City Service Co. in New York.

Cosden Reports New Coke Explorer

A new wildcat in Coke County was reported set to drill Saturday by Cosden Petroleum Corp. of Big Spring. It will be No. 1 W. M. Milcan, a test of the Pennsylvania at 6,450 feet. It is 13 miles west of Robert Lee in the west part of the county. Drillsite is 1,980 from north and east lines of section 241-2-H&TC survey. The hole will be 1 1/4 miles south and slightly west of the Milcan field. There are several deep, dry holes between the site and production.

Study Reveals Oil Economy In Texas Is Near Zenith

By MAX B. SKELTON HOUSTON (AP)—Texans have been advised their state's economy relies too much on oil and gas. A three-year research study just completed includes a forecast the Texas economy based on oil and gas has about reached its zenith. Future progress, the study group's report says, must be based on other natural resources. "Texas needs to diversify or surrender its position as a dynamic, expanding, economic entity," the report said. "Texas is at a crossroad economically."

Borden Has New Site, Completion

A new Good (Mulliply) field project was staked in Borden County at week's end and another producer was reported in the Arthur (Spraberry) field.

Texaco No. 11-B A. M. Clayton is the new project slated for 9,900 feet. Operator will try production in the Good, Southeast (Fusselman) and Good, Northeast (Canyon) formations. The project is on 1,940 acres about 13 miles southwest of Gall. Drillsite is 660 from south and 1,980 from east lines of section 28-32-4n, T&P survey.

Texaco No. 7-B A. M. Clayton is an amended Good, Northeast (Canyon) project about 13 miles southwest of Gall, slated for 9,884 feet. On 1,940 acres, it is 1,880 from south and 660 from east lines of section 33-32-4n, T&P survey. Pan American No. 4-35 T. J. Good is the Arthur field completion with a 24-hour flowing potential of 169.10 barrels of 38 gravity oil and no water.

The elevation is 2,624 feet, the total depth is 7,335 feet and the top of the pay zone is 7,219 feet. The 4 1/2-inch casing goes to 7,335 feet and is perforated between 7,219-42 and 7,250-90 feet. There is a 35-64 inch choke and the gas oil ratio is 262-1. The tubing pressure was 110 pounds and operator acidized with 600 gallons of mud acid. The site is 660 from north and 2,641 from west lines of section 35-33-4n, T&P survey.

ACTIVITY INCREASES IN MARTIN Three Explorers Now Seeking Grayburg Pay

Martin County Oil Operations Increase

Long an area of little oil activity, Martin County is becoming one of the most active counties in this immediate area.

Since Pan American finished the No. 1 Breedlove as a Devonian discovery in the northwest corner of the county, activity has been slowly increasing. Today, there are four wildcats currently being worked.

No. 1 Breedlove was completed July 19, 1951 for 2,341 barrels per day. Breedlove field wells are still being finished and for large potentials. So far this year, four discoveries have been reported in Martin County and four more may be in the picture as wildcats are making progress.

The county has had eleven field completions reported thus far this year. The relatively prolific Maboe field, on the west edge of the county, has had six new wells for a total potential for 564.29 barrels of oil.

Four new holes in the Breedlove field completed for a total of 1,544.09 barrels per day. The Fran-Glas field had only one new well which came in for a 73 barrel potential.

New oil has been reported in four projects. Pan American proved the Breedlove a multipay area with discovery of Strawn production. Flowing production was 448.17 barrels per day from this section.

Operator went on to final in the Devonian for a daily flowing potential of 553.28 barrels per day. Cities Service No. 1 Glass was a Strawn discovery south of the Fran-Glas pool. It flowed 230 barrels of oil on potential test.

Husky Oil Co. found new oil in the Wolfcamp at the No. 1 Knox, project southeast of the Breedlove pool. It flowed 118.56 barrels on 24 hour potential test. Still another section of the Wolfcamp produced oil in the southeast corner of the county. It was Gordon F. Street No. 1 White. Operator made 420 barrels of oil on 24 hour test.

Currently, there are 11 projects reported either drilling or preparing to drill. Four sites in the Maboe, two in the Breedlove and two wildcats are getting set to dig. Two wildcats and a Breedlove project are making hole.

All four explorers drilling or preparing to drill are on the south and east edges of the Fran-Glas field.

Cactus Drilling Co. No. 1 E. B. Dickinson and Neville G. Penrose No. 1 L. C. Hazelwood were staked this week. Both will test the Grayburg at 4,600 feet.

Cities Service No. 1 Nail has plugged back to test the Grayburg. Operator found nothing commercial in the Spraberry below 8,000 feet.

Great Western No. 1 Allen is heading for the Ellenburger in this area. Operator had good shows of oil in the Grayburg when going through.

Present operations appear to indicate that drillers have hopes for the Grayburg in this section. It is found between 4,300 and 4,500 feet.

Although the picture appears bright for Martin County, the number of dusters still outnumber the discoveries. Six projects have been plugged and abandoned so far this year.

Four Working Rigs Lost In Basin During Week

The weekly rotary rig count indicated a loss of four workers during the week in the Permian Basin.

Total for the Basin Friday was 314 in the survey taken by Reed Roller Bit. The previous week's count was 318.

The tally was still higher than the low mark of the year when 313 were reported working on Oct. 16.

In the immediate eight county area, the total held steady at 21. Borden County still leads the area with five working rigs, one down from last week.

Dawson, Garza and Howard had four working and two were reported in Glasscock County. Martin and Mitchell counties had one each. There were no rotary operations making hole in Sterling County.

The complete count, with previous totals in parentheses, includes:

- Andrews 40 (41), BORDEN 5 (6), Cochran 3 (4), Coke 1 (1), Chaves 4 (4), Crane 20 (20), Crockett 2 (3), Crosby 1 (1), DAWSON 4 (3), Dickens 2 (1), Ector 24 (27), Eddy 18 (16), Fisher 3 (2), Gaines 13 (12), Garza 4 (4), GLASSCOCK 2 (1), Hockley 3 (5), HOWARD 4 (3), Irion 2 (1), Kent 2 (1), Lea 43 (44), Loving 9 (9), Lynn 0 (1), Martin 1 (2), Midland 10 (10), MITCHELL 1 (1), Nolan 4 (3), Peecos 12 (11), Reagan 2 (2), Reeve 6 (4), Roosevelt 4 (3), Runnels 4 (2), Scurry 5 (5), Schleicher 3 (2), STERLING 0 (1), Sutton 0 (1), Stonewall 1 (2), Tom Green 1 (2), Terry 3 (2), Terrell 2 (3), Upton 10 (10), Val Verde 0 (0), Ward 9 (14), Winkler 20 (18), Yoakum 10 (9), TOTAL 314 (318).

Fluvanna Gets 10 New Sites

Whitehall Oil Co. has spotted 10 projects in Borden County, all in the Fluvanna (Ellenburger) field. Each site is slated for the 8,500 foot level.

The new projects are clustered in an area about three miles northwest of Fluvanna on a 200 acre lease.

MEET THE 'seniors' OF THE COSDEN FAMILY...

This is the 15th in a series of special Cosden presentations recognizing the long and valued services of those employees who have been associated with the Company 15 years or longer. Cosden is proud of the scores of workers who have contributed their efforts through so many years toward the success of the company.

"I'm proud to be a Cosden employee," commented M. B. Howell, another of the Cosden seniors.

"I think we have the very best company," he added.

Mr. Howell was born July 12, 1913, in Holland, Tex. He received his education at the Academic Consolidated High School and then farmed a year before going to Texas City and Pan-American Refinery. Later he was employed in Temple for a year before joining Cosden Nov. 9, 1944. He is a No. 1 pumper at the refinery.

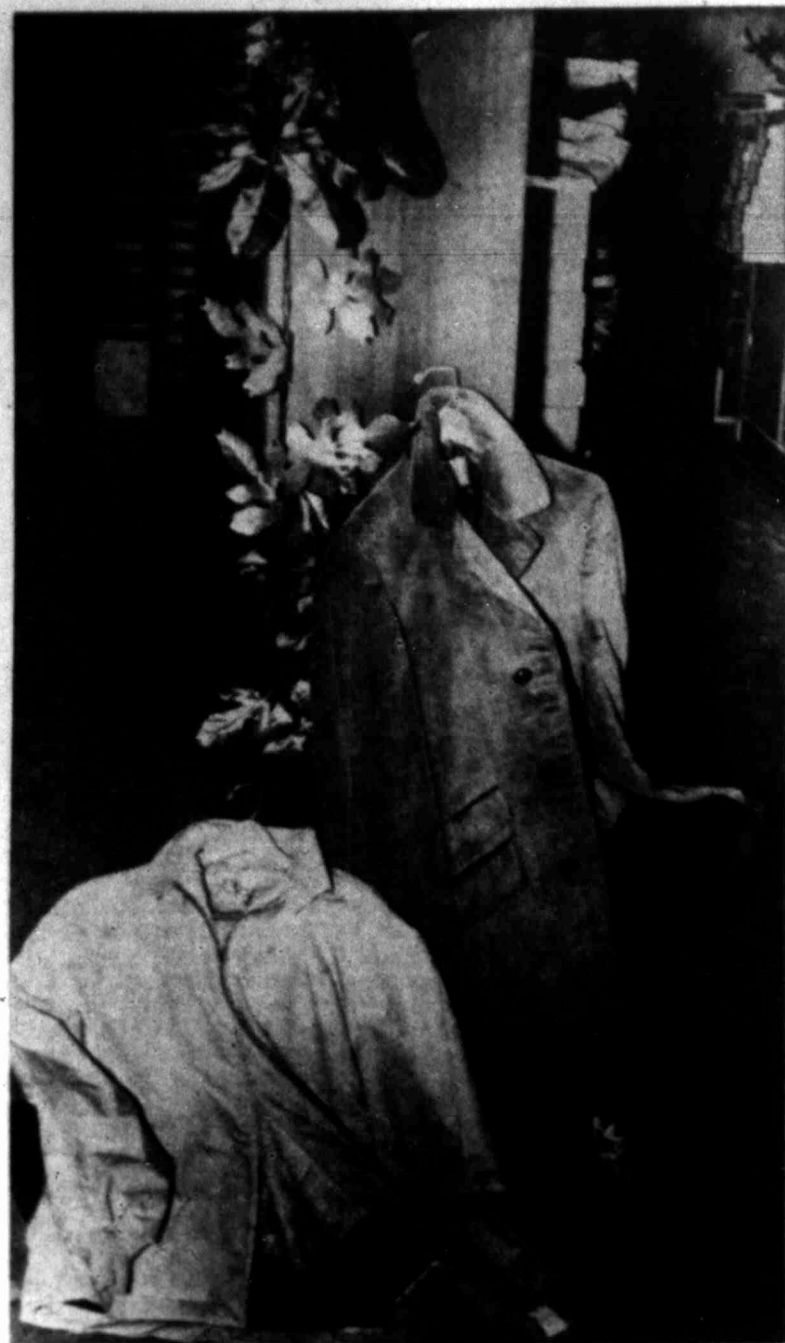

At a country party near Bartlett he met Bernice Calhoun. The couple married Aug. 16, 1930. Of the five Howell children, two, Kenneth Barton and Billy Ray, are Cosden employees like their Dad. Others include Melvin Eugene of Austin, Ladell, who lives at home, and Mrs. Joyce Elaine Barnett of Reno, Nev. There are also nine Howell grandchildren.

"I get a lot of bang out of playing dominoes," laughed Mr. Howell. He also enjoys fishing. He attends the Trinity Baptist Church and is also a member of the Cosden Country Club, the Eagles Lodge and Local 826.

College Enrollments On Downtrend, Survey Says

By The Associated Press

Enrollment records again topped this fall in many Texas colleges, an Associated Press survey showed Saturday.

A few institutions recorded declines and some still have not returned to the jam-packed days when ex-GIs walked the campus. But the trend appears upward, with increases recorded in all classifications—large, small, state, local and church.

Two of the three largest schools, Texas and Texas Tech, set records for enrollment.

The No. 2 school in size, the University of Houston, showed a 1,500 student decline. University authorities blamed the fall on a 33 per cent increase in tuition.

Amazing no one with its spectacular gains was Arlington State. It went from 4,900 students last year to 6,528 this year because it rose from junior college status to a four-year school.

Arlington thus began to rival its big brother, Texas A&M, in whose system it operates. A&M showed a minor increase of about 50 students to 7,094.

At least one college expected a decrease and found itself with an increase. This is Victoria College, which registered a 5 per cent increase although five school bus routes which brought students last year were discontinued.

Here are the enrollments:

University of Texas	18,442	17,758
University of Houston	11,600	12,150
Texas Tech	8,966	8,768
Southern Methodist	7,680	7,680
Texas A&M	7,094	7,045
North Texas State	7,023	6,779

(Author's Name Below)

It is amazing how many people are quick to offer health advice. Without any study or knowledge, they tell you what you should do or take when you are sick. Thoughtless friends are sincere but unfortunately there are many opportunists. Some door-to-door peddlers and sharp mail order promoters consider profits more important than the good their products will do.

Wise men know the only person capable of giving good advice about how to treat sickness is a physician. They also realize when they obtain medicines and health aids from a pharmacist pledged to consider health more important than immediate great profits, they are always safer.

Churches Are Urged Prepare Parade Floats

All Big Spring churches have been asked to enter a float in the annual Christmas parade to be held this year the week of December 14.

The Rev. Royce Wornack, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce Christmas parade committee, said in a letter to pastors that the story of the birth of Christ will be the parade's theme.

Object is to stress the reverence of the Christmas story, so there will be no Santa Claus, he said.

The chamber will pay expenses up to $80 on church floats.

The Rev. Mrs. Wornack urged members to fill out applications, after which a meeting will be held to work out details.

Diabetes Detection Drive Planned For Lamesa Area

LAMESA — Facilities for testing all members of the community for diabetes have been arranged and will be available during Diabetes Week, Nov. 15-21, it is announced by Dr. Noble H. Price, chairman of the Diabetes Detection drive in Lamesa.

A testing center has been established at the South Plains Health Unit on N. 3rd St., and will be open from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m. Monday through Saturday, Nov. 16 through 21.

The simple test for diabetes, which is painless, and can be taken in a minute, will be available

4-H Achievement Night Is Planned

GARDEN CITY—Annual Glasscock County 4-H Club boys' and girls' achievement night will be held here Tuesday night at 7 p.m.

Achievement exhibits will be set up by the club members, and the awards and medals will be presented to outstanding members of the year. Some 200 members and their families are expected.

at this center as well as at doctors' offices.

The drive is being sponsored locally by the Lamesa Business and Professional Women's Club, the Five-County Medical Association and the Lamesa Medical Society.

It is in cooperation with the nationwide effort of the American Diabetes Association, whose goal is to find one million undiagnosed cases of diabetes.

The drive will be outlined and the program explained by Dr. Price on Tuesday evening when the Business and Professional Women's Club meets at the Delphian Clubhouse at 7:30 p.m.

Representatives of each of the women's clubs and civic groups in the city have been invited to attend.

The immediate concern of the drive is early detection, for diabetes often exists without producing symptoms which appear serious enough to warrant calling the doctor; and prompt detection and medical care are essential to successful treatment, Dr. Price explained.

He indicated that for the most part diabetes is dangerous only when neglected, and that the easiest way to detect its presence and avoid neglect is by taking the test.

Chorus Gal Has Age Difficulties

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—It's one thing for a girl under 21 to dance in a chorus line. But sitting in a cocktail lounge — that's another matter. In fact, it's illegal.

So says Dist. Atty. George Foley who announced Friday that the resort hotels of the Las Vegas strip must keep their under-age chorines out of the lounges.

In many of the gaming palaces girls from the hotel shows are encouraged to mingle with the customers. Foley said they'll have to stop it if they're under 21, the legal drinking age in Nevada.

MIDLAND (SC) — Beleaguered Big Spring belted out more yardage than they have against any opponent this fall but Midland responded with some bashing of its own and rolled to a 42-6 District 2-AAAA victory over the Steers before 3,500 frigid fans here Friday night.

that they will break the streak are slim, what with Sad Agard and Odessa Permian ahead of them.

The Steers chugged for 15 down renewals and 217 yards rushing against Cletus Fisher's Bulldogs but the resident eleven, making great use of two plays—a slant off tackle and a spin around the end—dominated play almost from the start.

Bill Worley scored three touchdowns for the Bulldogs and gained the astounding total of 207 yards rushing in 21 carries. David Rankin twice rushed into the end zone to gather the first touchdowns in his varsity career while reserve back Jodie Givens loped 78 yards to the pay window in the fourth period.

Big Spring fans didn't have to look too hard for things to cheer about, despite the one-sided score. For one thing, Jerry Dunlap looked better barreling into the line than he has all year. He gained 80 yards in 18 thrusts. For another, sophomore Jack Irons came onto his own, picking up 65 yards in an even dozen carries.

Ronnie Clanton was credited with 52 yards in 18 carries and otherwise distinguished himself defensively.

The Longhorns did have the satisfaction of breaking their scoring drought, which had extended through four games. They did it early in the fourth period, when quarterback Tommy Whatley sought out Dunlap with a five-yard pass.

Abilene Eagles Near Sixth Straight District Crown

ODESSA (SC) — Odessa High gave Abilene all the fight it wanted before losing a District 2-AAAA decision to the Eagles here Friday night, 7-0.

The win was the eighth against no losses for the Eagles, who play Midland in Abilene next Friday.

The War Birds scored in the third period when halfback Bobby Austin went two yards at the end of a 60-yard march. The Abilene team never lost possession, after taking the second half kickoff.

Austin also booted the extra point for Abilene.

Outside of the one drive, Abilene was never able to get inside Odessa's 19-yard line. However, the Eagles threw up a good defense themselves — they never permitted Odessa inside their 30.

Austin carried the ball six times on the touchdown drive, gaining a total of 27 yards. He set up the score with a 17-yard lunge to the five.

Clemson Tigers Deflate Duke

CLEMSON, S.C. (AP)—A 30-yard touchdown pass by its second unit gave Clemson a 6-0 victory over Duke Saturday and kept the defending Atlantic Coast Conference champion pointed toward a possible New Year's Day bowl trip.

It was Clemson's first victory ever over Duke.

Quarterback Lowndes Shingler faded from the Duke 30 and looped the ball to reserve end Len Bost for the game's only touchdown. A bad pass from center wrecked the conversion try.

The defeat left Odessa with a 4-3 record. It was the Bronchos' first conference defeat, compared to two wins.

Passes from Charles McCook to Louis Adams kept the drive going. One was good for 14 yards and the other 17.

The Eagles have now won 33 straight games over 2-AAAA foes over a period of six years and need only to beat Midland for their sixth straight conference crown.

Two Upper Echelon Teams Sew Up District Crowns

By The Associated Press
Two district championships have been determined and 11 go on the line this week in the upper division of Texas schoolboy football.

Defending champions Wichita Falls of Class AAAA and Breckenridge of AAA can't win their district crowns until next week but there's little doubt they will make it.

Carrollton walloped Fort Worth Eastern Hills 19-0 to sew up District 5 AAA.

Ysleta can win District 1 AAAA Friday by beating El Paso High. Abilene can win District 2 by licking Midland.

Fort Worth Carter-Riverside can sew up District 5 if it downs Fort Worth Tech. Tyler could win the District 8 title by beating Longview. Houston Bellaire can sack up District 10 if it defeats Houston Austin.

On that drive, the Big Springers drove 81 yards across the double stripes for one of their longest marches of the year. Dunlap failed to boot the point. The Steers have scored 30 points this season, all the result of touchdowns.

Later in the round, Whatley engineered another Steer drive that carried from the Big Spring 20 to Midland's nine but he was snuffed out on a fourth down pass try back on the Bulldog 22 and the Midland gang took over. Whatley was injured on the play and had to be assisted off the field.

Texas City beat Pasadena 28-8 last week to clinch District 12 AAAA.

Carrollton walloped Fort Worth Eastern Hills 19-0 to sew up District 5 AAA.

FORSAN (SC)—Forsan shaded Garden City, 36-8, here Friday night and thus earned the right to represent District 4-B in the eight-man football playoffs.

The Buffaloes haven't been in the playoffs since 1953, although they shared district titles in 1956 and again in '58. Coach James Blake is in his third season here.

The Bisons will play Gail in the game that details for the win remain to be worked out. The win was the seventh in nine starts for Forsan, which has completed its regular season of activity. It was to have played Christoval this week but Christoval didn't field a team.

Freddie Park was the leading ground gainer for Forsan, with 92 yards. Dewey Howard got 62, Jerry Barnett 41 and Sammy Barnett 37.

For Garden City, Gary McDaniel gained 140 and Ralph Shafer 114.

Dewey Howard had a great night defensively for Forsan, making 23 tackles. Sammy Barnett had 18, Johnny Bob Ashbury 16, Park 14 and Rodney Allison 10.

For Garden City, Shafer came up with 10 tackles and Billy Seidenberger eight.

Forsan scored all its points before Garden City was able to cross the double stripes.

Four minutes deep in the opening period, Park raced 31 yards on a quick opener for the opening tally and Bardwell ran over the extra point to make it 8-0.

In the second, Bardwell added touchdown No. 2 on a three-yard run at the end of a 45-yard drive and Forsan led, 14-0.

Later in the quarter, Bardwell passed to Bill Conger. Conger missed but pass interference was called on the one and from that point Bardwell slid over to make it 20-0. A Bardwell to Conger pass for the conversion made it 22-0.

Early in the third, Howard ran 13 yards to score and Bardwell hit Jerry Pike with a pass for the double conversion.

Later in the round, Sammy Barnett bruised over from the one at the end of a 33-yard drive to make it 26-0.

Harold Jones finally scored for Garden City on a fourth quarter sprint of 11 yards. Garden City later picked up a safety on a dropped ball.

Both teams showed bruising offenses, despite the icy weather.

Sands Decided By Klondike Club

SANDS (SC) — Klondike turned back Sands Consolidated School, 26-6, in a District 3-B eight-man football game played here Friday night.

The Sands team winds up its season against Dawson here next Friday evening. Jerry Merrick scored for Sands.

Mertzon Wins, 14-12

WATER VALLEY (SC) — Mertzon edged Water Valley in a District 4-B football game here Friday night, Neal Tankersley scoring the touchdown and the two extra points that enabled the Hornets to come from behind and win in the fourth period.

waiting six months for a fight and then losing to Nino Valdes. DeJohn, unranked among the heavies, has been so-so since.

The victory gives DeJohn a Dec. 18 match with Machen in New York's Madison Square Garden.

Harry Martson, Garden promoter, said DeJohn was sure to jump into the top 10 among the heavies. Powell, from San Diego, Calif., had been ranked eighth, although DeJohn was a 6-5 favorite.

"I was caught cold," the gloomy Powell remarked in the dressing room.

Powell, 26, one-time defensive end for the San Francisco 49ers, gave up football five years ago for boxing. He now has a 20-5-3 record.

This was DeJohn's 27th knockout in 28 victories. DeJohn, who will be 28 next month, has lost seven and drawn one.

The fight drew 1,200 who paid $2,500. DeJohn weighed 205½, Powell 209.

Mike DeJohn Gets Shot At Machen

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP) — Big Mike DeJohn's smashing 47-second disposal of Charlie Powell has earned him a bout with slick Eddie Machen and a long-awaited chance to move up in the heavy-weight ranks.

DeJohn caught the ex-footballer cold with a right to the heart and a vicious left hook and dumped Powell three times before referee Joe Palmer called a halt to the nationally televised 10-round Friday night.

Powell sat down after the second blow. He got up and bounced into a flurry of lefts and rights from the aroused hometown boy, who goes for the quick kayo. Powell went down again.

Shaking his head vigorously, Powell arose and walked into a good left-right combination that put him down for the third time. DeJohn's career soared once before, when he felled bulky Alex Mitoff in 1:07 of the opening round two years ago in the same ring. Big Mike let that chance slip by, gainer of the evening, with 162 yards. Halfback Paul Graves picked up 130 paces for Coahoma. Richters gained an even 100 yards of the 266 Coahoma picked up on the ground.

Burly Footballer Batters Official

DETROIT (AP)—A burly high school football player slugged an umpire after the official called a penalty during a game Friday night.

Louis D. Bertoso, the official, said he was caught by surprise when attacked by Vince Frigiero, a 210-pound junior guard for Dearborn.

"I was dumbfounded," Bertoso declared. "He must have hit me four or five times before I could figure out what was happening."

"He belted me good, too—on the forehead, nose, mouth and below the eyes."

The flareup occurred during the game between Dearborn and Wayne high schools at Wayne. It was in the last minutes of the game which Wayne won, 35-18.

Dearborn Coach Bob Bridges said Frigiero told him after the incident that "some guy just called a penalty I didn't think was much good. So I slugged him."

Bertoso had called a clipping penalty on Dearborn after the team had intercepted a Wayne pass.

What disciplinary action, if any, to be taken against Frigiero will be decided next week by the State High School Athletic Assn. and Dearborn School Authorities.

Richters, Aberegg Score As Coahoma Shades Roby

COAHOMA (SC) — Touchdowns by DeWayne Richters and Harold Aberegg enabled the Coahoma Bulldogs to nip Roby, 12-6, here Friday night in a District 6-A football game.

The win was the Bulldogs' first in nine starts this year.

The clinching touchdown came on a pass from Royce Aberegg to his brother, Harold, a 22-yard play that occurred on the final play of the first half.

Early in the second quarter, Richters sprinted 40 yards for Coahoma's first score.

Roby's lone touchdown also came in the second quarter. Billy Simmons made it from the two at the end of a 30-yard drive.

Coahoma repeatedly knocked on the door at the Roby goal but could not rally enough strength to score again.

Simmons was the leading ground

Cats Are Upset By Vanderbilt

By BARNEY BALLARD
NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Vanderbilt combined a first quarter field goal with Tom Moore's 62-yard touchdown gallop in the third period to upset Kentucky 11-6 in a Southeastern Conference football game Saturday.

Russ Morris, junior quarterback from Louisville, Ky., booted the field goal from 21 yards out when a Commodore drive bogged down near the end of the first quarter.

Moore, Vanderbilt workhorse, broke through the Wildcat line after a fake handoff shifted the defense out of its path. He streaked down the field for a score. A conversion pass put the game out of Kentucky's reach.

A late fourth quarter drive, featured by quarterback Jerry Eismann's passing, produced Kentucky's touchdown. The score came on a 15-yarder by Eismann to end Ronnie Calh.

The score followed two other pass completions from Eismann to halfback Calvin Bird for 22 yards and to Cain for 4. The try for two points failed on a pass.

A crowd of 25,000 chilled fans saw Vanderbilt win its third game of the season and its second conference decision. The loss left Kentucky with an over-all record of two victories and five defeats.

Steel Strike Has Impact On Market

By MILO C. WILDRICK
EPPERLEY, GURJIN & TURNER, INC.
MEMBER NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE

Mixed prices in the market this week reflected mixed feelings over the consequences of a prolonged steel strike pending a court decision in the case. Volume of trading remained at a fairly high level with spurts of activity occurring on a very selective basis as news of corporate earnings and other activity was released. The overall price trend, however, was upward and stocks were firmer generally at the close on Friday. The smaller auto makers continued to pace the market this week with American Motors and Studebaker - Packard trading heavily and posting new highs, but backing off a bit at the close as profit taking activity increased. Goodyear announced plans for a three-for-one stock split, an increased dividend and a 2 per cent stock dividend on the split stock which set off a rally in the rubber group with Firestone and U. S. Rubber participating. Favorable medical reports on new antibiotics bolstered American Cyanamid, Warner-Lambert and Bristol-Myers. Eagle-Picher proposed a two-for-one split and posted a gain. Boeing was stronger on improved third quarter earnings.

REVLON OFF
Revlon lost ground as the impact of the TV quiz show investigations was felt in the market place.

OIL STEADY
Over-the-counter trading continued at a fairly brisk pace this week with prices following a highly irregular pattern, but trending slightly downward at the close. Many investors appeared to be marking time pending further developments in the steel situation which probably accounted for the highly selective basis of trading.

Transmissions and utilities were fairly active with prices mixed, but fractionally firmer on balance. Minor fractions were tacked on by Pioneer Natural Gas and Transcon Gas Pipe Line. Southern Union Gas held firm, closing unchanged while Texas Eastern Trans dropped 1/4.

Oil producers issues traded on average volume and prices irregular, but slightly softer on balance. Minor fractions were dropped by Canadian, Delhi, Western Natural Gas, Delhi-Taylor and Tekoil. Aztec countered the downward trend and added 1 while Republic Natural Gas closed unchanged.

Bank stocks traded quietly with prices mostly unchanged to fractionally stronger. Mercantile National was up 1/4 while First National (Dallas) and Fort Worth National closed unchanged. Republic National sold ex-dividend 25 per cent stock and closed at 76 bid.

Industrials and specialties traded on somewhat reduced volume and on a highly selective basis. Prices were uneven with strength appearing in isolated instances, but the overall trend was slightly softer. G. D. Searle added 3 on improved earnings while Central Soya dropped 3/4.

Steels pivoted within a narrow range with Lone Star Steel and McLouth Steel each off a minor fraction.

CORPORATE FINANCING
Securities underwriting and corporate financing activity slackened somewhat this week which was partly accounted for by the closing of many markets to observe Election Day on Tuesday.

The bidding calendar last week was heavy and resulted in a large quantity of bonds offered for sale. These included the following issues which were re-offered in the market:

$2,100,000 City of Corpus Christi, Texas General Improvement Bonds maturing from 1960 to 1979 with a Moody's Rating of "A" at yields of 3.00 per cent to 3.85 per cent.

$1,500,000 City of Port Arthur, Texas General Obligation Sewage Disposal Plant Bonds with a Moody's Rating of "Baa" maturing from 1978 to 1980 with yields of 3.85 per cent to 4.20 per cent.

$1,450,000 City of Port Arthur, Texas Waterworks & Sewer System Revenue Bonds maturing from 1963 to 1981 with a Moody's Rating of "A" at yields of 3.20 per cent to 4.00 per cent.

$1,250,000 San Antonio River Authority maturing from 1960 to 1968 with a Moody's Rating of "Baa" at yields of 3.00 per cent to 4.30 per cent.

$1,250,000 City of Garland, Texas Electric, Water and Sewer System Revenue Bonds maturing from 1960 to 1987 rated "A" by Moody's at yields of 3.00 per cent to 3.95 per cent.

$1,900,000 City of Garland, Texas General Obligation maturing from 1960 to 1984 rated "Baa" by Moody's at yields of 3.00 per cent to 4.10 per cent.

The market appears to have reached its high point, and should not show any great increase during the coming week.

Lawyers To Air Views On Court

AUSTIN (AP) — Texas lawyers will be asked to express next year their opinions on qualifications for candidates for the state Supreme Court, Court of Criminal Appeals and 11 civil appeals courts. The poll was approved Friday by State Bar directors. Balloting will be by mail beginning Feb. 1.

November Ushers In Fall Weddings

Fern trees and white wrought iron candelabra formed a background for the bridal party when Beverly Kay Martin and Jimmy Joe Sinclair exchanged double wedding ring vows in the sanctuary of the First Presbyterian Church Saturday evening.

White aisle markers led to the large sunburst of white gladioli, before which stood the white satin prie dieu that the couple knelt on for the ceremony, read by Dr. P. D. O'Brien, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Martin, 807 West 15th; parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Sinclair of Hope, Ark.

Mrs. Ray Dabney, organist, played the nuptial music, accompanying Hubert Nelms as he sang Because and The Lord's Prayer.

Chantilly lace and tulle fashioned the gown of the bride, who was given in marriage by her father. The neckline of the fitted bodice followed the natural scallops of lace, which was re-embroidered with seed pearls. Long sleeves tapered to points.

The full skirt over taffeta and net was of alternate lace and pleated tulle tiers, with a front panel of lace, also re-embroidered.

On a white pearl Bible, the bride carried a cascade of stephanotis and pearlized leaves with a center of orchids nestled in satin and tulle.

WEDDING TRADITION

The bridal veil, which was borrowed from Mrs. Dennis Jones, was waist-length and was held in place by a pearl tiara with a single pearl teardrop as central ornament. Something old was a handkerchief provided by Mrs. Ira Minchew; the white Bible was new, and the bride wore a blue friendship garter. In her slippers were pennies minted in the couple's birth years.

Maid of honor was Karen Baldwin; bridesmaids were Mrs. Gwyn Hagood and Cookie Sneed of Sembole.

The attendants were identically dressed in velveteen of Dior blue, made princess style with emphasis on small bows at the back waist-

A double ring ceremony, read Saturday evening in the College Baptist Church, united in marriage Sheila Holmes and A.C. Dick L. Bennett.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Shelton Holmes, 1501 East Sixth; the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Zelda Bennett of Independence, Kan.

Sunburst arrangements of white gladioli and red carnations were banked in palms of emerald fern, interspersed with cathedral tapers. The bridal aisle was lined with white satin bows.

As the couple knelt on a white satin prayer bench, the vows were read by the Rev. H. W. Bartlett, pastor of the church.

Nuptial selections, sung by Mrs. Gorman Rainey, included I Love You Truly, Because and the Wedding Prayer. She was accompanied by Mrs. Don Richardson, pianist.

MOTHER MADE GOWN

The bride's father gave her in marriage. Her gown of white velveteen had been made by her mother, as were the dresses of the feminine attendants.

From a fitted bodice with high scalloped neckline, stemmed a full skirt, which she wore over crinoline and net ruffles. Topped with a back bustle effect, the skirt extended into a chapel train. Long sleeves and the back of the waist were fastened with small self-covered buttons.

From a small pillbox of white velveteen floated a fingertip veil of bridal illusion. Pearls bordered the headdress.

Orchids in a nest of stephanotis rested on the white pearl Bible which the bride carried. The Bible was named as something borrowed, since it is the Bible carried by members of the Hardin-Simmons University Cowgirls.

A pearl ring, the old article, was supplied by the maid of honor, Jean Edens of Talpa. The bridal attire was new, and in the bride's slipper was a penny minted in the year of her birth; she wore a blue garter.

Luan Phillips and Barbara Carver of Odessa, bridesmaids, joined Miss Edens as attendants. All were identically attired in red vel-

Before an improvised altar in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sullivan, 1008 Nolan, Mary Loretta Turner and Elmer Lee Yarbrough recited nuptial vows Friday evening.

The Rev. Cecil Rhodes, pastor of the Westside Baptist Church, read the double ring ceremony as the bridal party stood before a fireplace adorned with baskets of gladioli. Greenery on the mantel held six white tapers.

Mr. and Mrs. Coy Turner, 505 West Eighth, are parents of the bride; parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Elmer L. Yarbrough, 505 Young.

Bridal music, during the evening was by recordings, climaxed with a traditional wedding march for the entrance of the bride, who was given in marriage by her father.

WEDDING GOWN

The wedding gown, made by the mother of the bride, was a white brocade satin sheath, sleeveless, and with a bateau neckline which dipped low in the back, to be marked with a bow of the satin.

An overskirt of white net was gathered over the slim skirt, and the bridal veil, shoulder length, was attached to a small feathered bandeau. On a white Bible, a gift from the bridegroom, the bride carried red roses.

Her bridal attire was the something new, while in her white brocade slippers, she carried pennies marked with the birth years of the couple. In the Bible was a handkerchief, old, and borrowed from Mrs. Effie Franklin, and a blue garter completed the tradition.

Mrs. William J. Yockers was her sister's matron of honor. Her sheath of blue brocade satin featured a bateau neck and a slim skirt, and her flowers were in an old-fashioned nosegay.

Preston Yarbrough attended his brother as best man.

The newlyweds received felicitations at the reception, held immediately after the ceremony, when their parents assisted in greeting guests.

veleen frocks, full-skirted, with sabrina necklines and puffed sleeves. Their tiny hats were of red velvet and they wore white gloves. Flowers were white carnations in colonial bouquets.

Lee Stratton of San Francisco, Calif., attended the bridegroom as his best man. Ushers were Bob Jehring of Connecticut; Ron Dority of Ellsworth, Maine; Scotty Ellison and Wayne Lynn, both of Big Spring. Groomsmen were Dennis Holmes, brother of the bride, and Jim Perron of California.

Nancy Bartlett, flower girl, was dressed in red velvet and wore a bandeau of white carnations. She carried a basket of red rose petals. Rex and Russ Rainey served as ring bearers.

Dressed in the same fashion as were the bridal attendants were Gwendolyn and Ave Caldwell, who were the taper lighters. They wore bandeaux of red carnations in their hair.

RECEPTION

The couple was assisted in receiving guests at the reception, held at the church by the parents of the bride and by the brother and sister-in-law of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Bennett of Syracuse, Kan., as well as the feminine attendants.

A white net overlay covered the white satin cloth and was caught at random with tiny red satin bows. Red carnations and tapers made the centerpiece for the table, on which was the three-tiered cake, frosted in white and decorated in red roses. A small bridal couple stood under an arch on the cake.

At the register was Mrs. Rainey; others in the house party included Mrs. D. H. Goodnough of Abilene, Mrs. Ben Caldwell, Mrs. Bill Draper and Mrs. Noel Hull.

When the couple left for a trip to Kansas, the bride had donned a suit of honey-blond wool with a jacket of beaver cloth. Her hat was of brown feathers and her shoes, gloves and bag were brown. To her jacket she had fastened the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

A graduate of Big Spring High School, the new Mrs. Bennett attended Hardin-Simmons University, where she was a member of the Business association, Cowgirls, Dean of Women's Advisory Board and the Speech and Drama Club.

Airman Bennett was graduated from Independence, Kan. High School and is now stationed at Webb Air Force Base. The couple will make a home in Big Spring.

REHEARSAL PARTY

Following the wedding rehearsal, the attendants gathered at the home of the bride's parents for visiting and refreshments.

New Boon For Plants Has Been Developed

COLLEGE STATION—Man once again has stepped in and beat nature at her own game, this time with a substitute for that agriculturally sacred material known as soil.

Texas A&M College floriculturists, who are both teachers and researchers, have developed and are using a mixture of peat moss and a form of natural glass called "perlite."

The system is not to be confused with hydroponics, the soilless practice of raising plants with the aid of nutrient chemicals dissolved in water.

Perlite is a naturally occurring siliceous rock. Webster's Dictionary defines it as "volcanic glass with a concentric shelly structure."

When prepared for horticultural use, it resembles coarsely ground white marble and each particle is about the size of a pinhead.

R. E. Odom, assistant professor in the A&M Floriculture Department, said perlite has several unique characteristics. The material is inert, chemically neutral, does not absorb water and will last indefinitely.

Another unusual property is its lightness, weighing only about seven pounds per cubic foot. In the manufacture of perlite, it is heated to a high temperature, causing it to expand and pop like popcorn. Each particle contains many tiny air cells and bubbles.

Perlite also is valuable for horticultural purposes because it resists penetration of excess water, while at the same time holding enough moisture on the particles to be readily available to plant roots and the cut ends of stems and cuttings placed into a propagating medium. The result is a near ideal air-water relationship for best plant growth.

Professor Odom said A&M has been working with the perlite-peat moss system for about four years. The most common mixture is 50 per cent perlite and 50 per cent peat moss.

The peat, he said, retains water and nutrients and harbors beneficial soil organisms. To this mixture is added fertilizer according to the type of plant being grown.

Pastors Church Pioneers In California Dance Hall

Recent arrivals to Big Spring are the Clairs Wiederhofts. The Rev. Wiederhoft has become the pastor of the St. Paul Lutheran Church, moving here from Arcadia, Calif.

"Santa Anita race track is Arcadia's greatest claim to fame," says the young minister. "Most people have never heard of Arcadia, but they have all heard of Santa Anita."

Wiederhoft hales from Truman, Minn., originally, while Mrs. Wiederhoft was raised in Houston. She was graduated from Austin High School and a business college there. Later she was employed as the executive secretary to the chief accountant of the Shamrock Hotel.

Through her position at the Shamrock, Mrs. Wiederhoft met many world-famous people such as Gen. Douglas MacArthur, and show business greats Sophie Tucker, Jack Benny, Dinah Shore, Roy Rogers and Dale Evans, and the comedy team of George Burns and Gracie Allen.

"When my husband and I were married, our reception was held at the Shamrock," blazes Mrs. Wiederhoft relates. "It was a wonderful climax to my three years of employment there."

The Wiederhofts met at a Lutheran conference held in Houston when mutual friends introduced them. They were married eight years ago.

Right before their marriage, Wiederhoft received a call to come to California, and they spent their honeymoon traveling there.

At that time there was no Lutheran work in Arcadia, and the Wiederhofts began a pioneer church, with the first meetings held in a dance hall.

"We had to clean out the whisky bottles every Sunday morning before church," Frances Wiederhoft recalls.

Our Savior Lutheran Church grew to 225 communicant members, with as many as 400 people sometimes attending services during the eight years the couple was there.

Six-year-old Cynthia, a little first grader who has two teeth missing at this time, was five weeks late in enrolling in school but she has already caught up with her class in reading.

Jonathan has become a real Texan since his arrival. The robust four-year-old now has his first pair of cowboy boots.

Frances Wiederhoft enjoys working in the yard, and is anxious to get settled here so that she can begin again. She also enjoys photography and fishing.

The Rev. Wiederhoft is a chess player who also finds pleasure in pinocle and hunting. He decided to enter the ministry as a youth of 19 and enrolled in Concordia College at St. Paul, Minn. Seminary came next in Springfield, Ill.

"There is no greater challenge than the ministry," says the Rev. Wiederhoft, "and no more glorious work."

Mrs. Tingle Joins Hannah Class

Mrs. B. H. Tingle was introduced as a new member of the First Baptist Hannah Class Friday at a covered dish luncheon at the church.

Seven members were present with two guests, Susan and Janie Johnson. Mrs. F. W. Bette brought a devotion. The group will meet next on Dec. 4, with the place and the type of gathering to be announced.

'Clothes Closet' Open To Returning Missionaries

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Imagine arriving in a cold climate with seven children to clothe after spending several years in equatorial Africa.

That's the problem a group of Presbyterian church women had in mind six years ago when they started The Mission Closet, a clothes-lending institution primarily for missionaries and their families.

Tacky Party Is Featured By Class

The doorbell rang at 601 Edwards Circle as guests gathered in the home of Mrs. John Davis for the Tacky party of the Philathea Class of the First Methodist Church.

Arriving were evening-gown-clad matrons, flappers, gay nities figures, and a South of the Border dancin'. The occasion was a get-together to enlist new members. Polaroid pictures were made of various groups.

Hostesses along with Mrs. Davis were Mrs. Cecil McDonald, Mrs. J. H. Stewart, and Mrs. J. D. Jones.

A contest for the tackiest was staged, with Mrs. Harold Parks and Mrs. Miller Harris tying for first place. They were awarded prizes of dish rags and cracker-jacks.

Refreshments were served from a turquoise linen-covered table. Red bandanas were pinned at intervals around the edge. Centering the table was an arrangement of pink roses flanked by pink tapers.

Troop 340 Names Patrol Officers

At a meeting of Girl Scout Troop 340 Friday afternoon, patrol officers were elected.

Gathering at the home of Mrs. Lee Burklow, members selected Betty Jordan and LaRhonda Holland as patrol leaders; assistant leaders are Mary Turney and Barbara Burklow; scribes are Linda Hamlin and Lana Satterwhite.

Mrs. E. L. Hutchinson is assistant troop leader. Mrs. D. W. Pendergrast was a guest.

How can I say "Thank You" to thousands of women? During my four years with the "House of Charm" that's how many we served—over and over again!

It has been such a genuine pleasure to meet and work with so many of Big Spring's charming ladies.

Sincerely,

'ROUND TOWN

The plant life isn't so perky anymore out our way. So far, the leaves are still on the trees but they don't look the same. The little native walnut has turned to a bright yellow; the mimosas are an undecided blend of brown and yellow but the old willow and the chinaberry are still acting like winter didn't come. The castorbeans and cannas are a sad sight, turned deep brown overnight while the tomato plants that still were blooming are just plain black. The pretty azalea chrysanthemums that were so gay only a week ago, have taken on a 'burnt' orange look. Other tuberous growth seems to have been cut down with a blow torch.

Back from a three month tour of Europe, MRS. CARL STROM has made an interesting tale of her trip including an audience with Pope John and a viewing of a style show at Dior's Salon.

Nature smiled on the ocean crossing, and the water was so smooth all the way that it really became quite a bore, according to the local traveler.

In England MRS. BILL BRIGMAN (Janet Hogan) who was Mrs. Strom's next door neighbor here, came up to London to visit with her and the two took a boat trip down the Thames. According to Mrs. Strom, she had more trouble understanding the Britons than any other people; however, she found the most polite taxi drivers there. The people of the British Isles appear to be very well fed and those she saw were very well groomed. There is little evidence of war damage here as compared to that in other countries.

Mrs. Strom, along with four other members of the party, had an audience with Pope John, whom she says appears much younger than his 70 years. While at the Vatican Museum she made a special effort to be shown the original Latin Vulgate. At St. Paul's Museum she saw the memorial to American soldiers who fell in action in World War II and also England's memorial to Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Norway's coastline was the most beautiful sight she saw, including glamorous Paris. In the big French city, the Big Springer attended a style showing at Dior's Salon and, in her opinion, anything that resembled wearing apparel was strictly accidental. To the shop's credit, however, she was much charmed by the perfect matching of hats, jewels, gloves and shoes.

At Versailles she visited the room where the 1919 treaty was signed and was shown the chair in which Woodrow Wilson sat to sign the paper.

Scotland, whether in the lowlands or highlands, was a gorgeous sight of purple heather with sheep grazing about to complete the scene. Crops seemed to be bumper wherever farming was possible. In fact, Mrs. Strom says if all the fields in cultivation produce as much as the ones she saw, she believes help from over here won't be necessary much longer.

There was an abundance of food wherever the group stopped, and all the eating places served many courses which the Americans were not accustomed to. Our traveler found the dressing used by most Europeans, made of olive oil and vinegar, was preferable to our popular mayonnaise.

While many tourists in Europe hit extremely rainy spells, this party had only one rain to contend with. Sunshine was everywhere as they went to Sorrento, Italy, and to the Isle of Capri. They took a boat trip to the Blue Grotto and again were favored with beautiful weather.

The party breakup in Paris was a sad affair for the group of 12 who had made the tour in a special bus. All travel was done by bus in England and on the continent.

Mrs. Strom boarded the jet plane in New York and arrived in Midland Saturday.

MRS. G. A. BROWN, 411 Bell, who has had surgery at Malone-Hogan Hospital, is at home now and is able to have her friends visit her.

Scrapy And His Best Friend

One of Scrapy's favorite perches is on the fingers of his owner, Ruth Beasley, who has raised the small English sparrow from a tiny helpless creature to a regular bird dynamo. He likes to perch on her hand as she goes about her housework, and to wake her from a nap, he'll swoop by rapidly. That falling, Scrapy drags his wing across her face until sleep is impossible. Weekends in the Beasley home are not too happy for the small bird as that is when he shares attention with Wee Seeng, a tiny pekingese which Miss Beasley keeps for friends on occasion. He ignores the animal until the dog is petted and then his jealousy comes to the front and he makes it known in no uncertain terms.

Sparrow Doesn't Know If He's Bird Or People

By ANNE LEFEVER

No English sparrow ever had it so good as does Scrapy, a bit of fluff and feathers which practically dominates the household of Ruth Beasley, 705 East 17th.

Miss Beasley, librarian at Goliad Junior High School, fell heir to Scrapy about seven years ago, when one of her pupils brought him to school. The baby sparrow had only the soft down of very young birds at the time; he had to be fed by hand and he was taught by his benefactress to fly.

Due to his upbringing "Scrapy thinks he is people," and is very good proof for the affirmative side of the argument that environment is stronger than heredity.

Ice cream is a favorite food of Scrapy as is chocolate and contrary to the behavior of his untamed relatives who ruin quantities of fruit each summer, he cares nothing for apples, oranges or other kinds of fruit; he prefers canned pineapple!

Fish is another delicacy of this chatterer, and raisins rate high on his list of favorite foods. He is quite a bread eater, and a special treat is for him to be fed by hand. Just give him a morsel of bread that is a bit too big to swallow at one time, and he will daintily place it in his "bread and butter plate", a small container secured to the side of his cage. There he will peck at it until the plate is empty. Shreds of beef roast, he will enjoy by chewing and chewing.

There comes an end to this hand feeding, though, when Scrapy is no longer hungry. Then it is that he will turn his back on the feeder; continue to force the food on him, and such a scold as he can be!

Another time that his temper is displayed is when Six Bits a little crippled parakeet, feels the need of visiting and bird talk. Scrapy's cage is his private property and on it there is evidently a "No Trespassing" sign visible only to the eyes of birds. If the cripple does manage to get into the sparrow's cage, there is a very short visit, since he is made to feel most unwelcome by Scrapy's remarks delivered in a harsh rasping tirade.

Human trespassers receive almost the same kind of treatment from the small bird who has appointed himself guardian of the premises. Two or three times members of Miss Beasley's family have entered the house when she was gone—only to be put to rout by the attack of Scrapy.

On the other hand, when Mrs. Annie Beasley, mother of Miss Beasley, drops in for a visit—it is the bird who gets the attention or else he creates such a disturbance that talking is difficult.

Contrary to the ways of parakeets, Scrapy considers his cage floor his bathroom; consequently, he never eats off the floor. All his food must be in containers. A bath is a delight for him, and a very special bath is a shower taken when an ice cube is placed on top of his cage to melt. Entrance into his cage is quite often made in the fashion that firemen come down a pole at the station—he grasps a bar and slides.

There are probably three words which could best describe the transplanted sparrow—he's a character.

matron of honor had placed her bouquet at the base of a single candelabrum festooned with red rosebuds and holding white tapers. A miniature bridal figurine decorated the cake in three tiers. At the guest register was Barbara Yarbrough, sister of the bridegroom.

Coming from out of town were the bride's brother, Mr. and Mrs. Gaylord Turner of Stanton.

When the couple left for an undisclosed destination, the bride wore a sheath of black linen with black and white jacket, to which she had attached the flowers from her wedding bouquet.

At the end of the trip the Yarbroughs will be at home at 105 West 18th.

The new Mrs. Yarbrough attended Big Spring High School, where she was a member of FHA. The bridegroom, who attended Weatherford High School, is employed by Forsan Oil Well Supply Company.

Sewing Club To Dress Dolls For Christmas

Dressing the dolls purchased each year by the firemen will be an immediate project of the Eager Beavers Sewing Club. The dolls are given each year to needy families.

Mrs. J. E. Freeman was hostess to the group of six who also voted to give $5 to the VA Hospital's indigent fund.

Next Friday the group will meet in the home of Mrs. R. I. Findley, 1810 Owens, at 9:30 a.m.

COSDEN CHATTER

Cosden Delegation Attending API Meet

Marvin M. Miller and Dan Krause, senior vice presidents, headed Cosden's delegation to the American Petroleum Institute's annual meeting in Chicago, which will be in progress through Thursday. Krause is a member of the General Committee Refining Division. Others comprising the group from here are Douglas Orme, R. W. Thompson, R. M. Johnson, George Grimes, E. B. McCormick, Sam Hefner and Paul Meek. Nelson Phillips, Jr. and R. O. Wilson from Dallas joined them.

A distinguished visitor to the refinery Friday was Dr. D. A. Howes, who is associated with the British Petroleum Company Ltd., London, England.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Simpson are attending homecoming festivities at Howard Payne College this weekend in Brownwood.

Recent guests of Mary Archer were her sister and family, the I. A. Jacksons of Fort Worth.

I. Motoyama and S. Sakuyama of Nippon Shokubai in Japan were business visitors Tuesday.

Fifth graders from Washington Place School toured the refinery last week.

Mrs. Glyn Jordan will visit her family in Fordyce, Ark., next week.

Lester Beauvais was in St. Louis, Mo., during the week.

In Los Angeles recently were Don Fresno and Dave Seager.

Mrs. Ted McClung is back at work after an illness which hospitalized her.

A son, Craig Martin, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Jim Long on Oct. 28. He weighed 7 pounds, 1 ounce. Mrs. Long is a former Cosden employe.

Hearty Meals At Cafeterias For Local Scholars

Only four menus are planned for the school cafeterias for the coming week, since Friday will be a holiday to enable teachers to attend BE Day at Webb AFB. Here is what your child will be offered:

MONDAY — Hamburger steak with gravy; whipped potatoes; buttered peas; hot rolls; fruit salad (apples, oranges, bananas, peaches, marshmallows); milk.

TUESDAY — Pizza; country style green beans; imperial pear salad; peanut butter cookies; milk.

WEDNESDAY — Chicken and dumplings; cranberry sauce; mixed greens; peach slices; milk.

THURSDAY — Wieners with kraut; pinto beans; fresh tomatoes; cornbread; cherry crunch; milk.

World Community Day Is Observed Friday

Parcels for Peace were brought to the World Community Day observance Friday afternoon at the Park Methodist Church; the meeting was sponsored by the United Church Council.

Gifts of clothing brought by the women will be sent overseas for relief in the refugee camps.

The Rev. Al Seddon, pastor of St. Paul Presbyterian Church, was the speaker for the afternoon; the Rev. Joe McCarthy, pastor of the host church, opened the session with prayer after a prelude of music by Malinda Crocker.

Mrs. Harold Pearce brought a meditation, and Mrs. Lee Hanson read scripture passages. Hymns and responsive readings with a solo by Mrs. Doug Clemens, completed the program.

Dismissal was with a prayer offered by the Rev. John Black, pastor of the First Christian Church.

Midway Homecoming Dinner Set Nov. 24

All residents and ex-residents of Midway are being invited to return on Nov. 24 for the homecoming and Thanksgiving dinner planned by the P-T-A at the school. It's to be an old-fashioned affair, with no tickets sold, and no formal invitations sent out; it's a chance for newcomers to get acquainted with the other residents and for old friends to renew friendships.

The P-T-A, sponsoring group, has suggested a menu, with guests free to adapt their contributions to the tastes of their families. Included in the menu are baked chicken and dressing, peas or beans, potatoes or yams, choice of salads and desserts. Coffee, tea and bottled drinks will be sold by the P-T-A.

Dinner will be served at 7:40 p.m., with coronation ceremonies set for 9 p.m. Proceeds from the King and Queen contest will go into a fund for buying a film projector for the school.

Candidates for the king and queen are, from the first grade, Donna Parks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Parks; Mike Rathmell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rathmell; second grade, Peggy Irwin, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. W. M. Irwin; Dickie Lepard, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Lepard.

The third grade is represented by Debbie Nichols, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Nichols; Billy King, son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. King; fourth grade by Robbie Smart, daughter of Mrs. Nelda Smart; and Melvin McKinney, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Adams.

Wesley Class Meet Takes Place Friday

Thirty-three attended the monthly luncheon and business meeting of the First Methodist Susannah Wesley Class. The group met Friday at the church.

Tables were decorated with yellow and white chrysanthemums by the hostesses, members of Mrs. A. D. Franklin's division.

The Rev. George Neill, associate pastor, offered the invocation. Mrs. Mary Guilliams brought a devotion on the topic, Being a Christian. Mrs. D. F. Bigony entertained with the reading of a poem.

Cardwells Entertain

FORSAN — Nine boys and girls from the junior department of the Forsan Baptist Church were entertained in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Cardwell with a hamburger fry. Canasta provided diversion for the group.

Royalty Candidates

Winners In Duplicate Bridge Told

Master Point Day will be next Friday afternoon for duplicate bridge players who gather at Cadden Country Club for games.

Sponsored by the Ladies Golf Association of Big Spring Country Club, the sessions, which begin at 1 p.m., are open to anyone wishing to play. Fee each afternoon is 50 cents.

Announced as winners in Friday's games were Mrs. Doug Orme and Mrs. Winston Harper, first, in north-south position; Mrs. J. D. Robertson and Mrs. Dan Greenwood, second; Mrs. James Duncan and Mrs. R. Weaver, third; Mrs. B. B. Badger and Mrs. C. M. Dublin, fourth.

East-west winners were Mrs. Harvey Williamson and Mrs. Hayden Griffith, first; Mrs. Pete Harmonson and Mrs. Floyd Mayes, second; Mrs. Malcolm Patterson and Mrs. Jack Irons, third; Mrs. Ben McCullough and Mrs. John Stone, fourth.

Vegetable Medley

Dice carrots, celery, snap beans and white turnips small; cook in one saucepan with a small amount of salted water just until tender. This vegetable medley tastes wonderful when doused with butter and will save you washing several pots.

Former Resident Is Wed In Local Church

Mildred Elaine Moore carried white carnations on a white Bible during the marriage ceremony uniting her to Boyt H. Smith Jr.

Mrs. Smith is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Moore of Iowa Park, former residents of Big Spring. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Boyt H. Smith Sr., Iowa Park.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Ray Meyers, pastor of the Westside Baptist Church, Big Spring, Saturday morning at 10 in the local church.

Mr. Moore gave his daughter in marriage. She was attired in a royal blue wool suit accented by a blue felt hat. Her shoes were black heels, and in one she carried a penny minted the same year she was born.

In following the tradition, she carried a white Bible belonging Mrs. Joe A. Moore of Bryson, as something old, something new was her wedding suit, while she had borrowed earrings. Something blue was the garter, which had previously been worn by Mrs. Neal Robb, her cousin.

Wedding music was provided by Rita Wilson, who played because, Beverly Rasey of Big Spring as maid of honor and John Wood of Iowa Park as best man. Miss Rasey was dressed in beige chiffon with royal blue and beige accessories. Her corsage was of blue carnations.

RECEPTION The refreshment table was laid with a white linen cloth adorned with pink roses, the wedding cake and silver appointments for the reception held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Neal Robb, Route 1.

December Nuptials Planned

Announcement has been made of the engagement and approaching marriage of Jerri Henderson and Phil Jones. Parents of the couple are Mrs. Earl F. Henderson, and the late Mr. Henderson, and Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Jones, all of Lamesa. The couple plans a wedding late in December.

Tassinaris Marry With Home Vows

Beatrice Gonzales, 701 NW 9th, and George Joseph Tassinari, of Webb AFB, were united in marriage Friday evening.

Justice of the Peace Walter Grice performed the ceremony under an arch of white wedding bells. The nuptials were held in the home of the bride's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Eleno Barrera.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her uncle, was dressed in a blue wool suit and blue shoes. She wore a white feather beret. Her corsage was of white carnations.

Mrs. Eleno Barrera, the bride's aunt, was matron of honor.

Mrs. Tassinari is the daughter of Mrs. Amelia Gonzales. She is a 1959 graduate of Big Spring High School. The bridegroom is originally from Chelsea, Mass.

Forty guests were registered by Mrs. Homer Petty at the reception that followed the ceremony in the Barrera home.

A three-tiered cake featuring a miniature bride and groom stood on a colorful cross-stitched table cloth.

lines. Cowl necklines extended into deep V-shapes in the backs. Hats were tiny bows to match those on the frocks; and blue velvet mitts completed the ensembles.

Blue carnation nosegays with edgings of satin and maline were carried by the trio.

Serving as best man was F. J. Collins, uncle of the bridegroom. Guests were seated by John Brown, Johnny Harrison and Paul Miller. The latter two also lighted the tapers. Groomsmen were Billy Bluhm and Roy Brown.

At the conclusion of the ceremony, guests gathered in the fellowship hall for a reception. White satin covered the bride's table, overlaid with net in tiers extending to the floor. A single candelabrum, entwined with fern and white carnations, held white tapers. Silver appointments were used in serving punch with the three-tiered cake holding a small bride and groom.

HOUSE PARTY

Mrs. Charles Marchant was at the register. Serving was done by Mrs. Jones and Jeanne Hammond. Other members of the house party were Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Hutto, Mr. and Mrs. Ben McCullough, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Younger and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Carpenter.

Coming from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Autry, Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Martin, all of Snyder; Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Claxton of Dallas; Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Casey of Fort Worth; Col. and Mrs. Roy O. Irwin of Houston.

For traveling, the bride chose a suit of brown basket weave wool with a dyed beaver collar. Her hat was beige and accessories were brown.

Upon their return, the couple will be at home in Big Lake where the bridegroom is an employe of Baroid Co. He is a graduate of Hope, Ark. High School and Howard County Junior College.

The new Mrs. Sinclair is a graduate of Big Spring High School, where she was a member of the FHA. She was graduated from Howard County Junior College and has worked for Commercial Credit Corporation.

For the wedding, Mrs. Martin was attired in a princess frock of blue peau de soie, with which she wore a short jacket with Queen Anne collar. Her small hat was of sequins and her accessories were blue, her corsage was a cymbidium orchid.

BRIDESMAIDS' DINNER

An informal dinner was given at the bride's home for her five attendants, and she took the opportunity to present her gifts to them. Fall flowers decorated the table for the party, given on Tuesday.

WEDDING REHEARSAL

The bridegroom presented gifts to his attendants at the rehearsal dinner Thursday evening at Cokers Restaurant. About 20 were included in the invitation list.

Luncheon Salad

JUST AS FORESEEN

Italy Does Well — Thanks To U. S. And Marshall Plan

By HOUSTON HARTE
FLORENCE — Italy is doing well, too. But it is not just like we planned it. Italy's economy has surged forward with that of the rest of Western Europe, but the progress has not been as equally divided as it is at home or as we had anticipated the benefits of the Marshall Plan would achieve.

Tuscany, the area here in the northern central part of Italy which always has been ruled from Florence, has the physical aspects of great progress. There are scores of new apartment buildings just outside the business area. There are many remodeling jobs going on downtown. There have been new hotels erected to take care of the growing tourist trade.

There is full employment in the flourishing leather, silver and gold handicraft trades. The countryside is prosperous and the area boasts of the largest and finest crop of grapes in years. Tuscany is expected to produce a 1959 vintage of wine that will go down in history as one of the best of this century.

NOT ACCEPTED WELL

But the trouble is that there are many families in this section where an honest laborer who does an honest day of long labor has an income of no more than $200 a year. Italy has been accustomed to rich landowners and rich bankers almost from the days of the Caesars, but this lack of distribution of wealth is not accepted as well in the last half of the 20th Century as it was under the dukedoms or the city states. There is dissatisfaction among Italians.

Italy is another western European country that no longer needs Marshall Plan funds. The billions we have poured in here have accomplished their purposes as far as the economy of the country as a whole is concerned. But the lack of an equal distribution of wealth can result in creating situations which will feed communism instead of curbing it. Americans here have warned the Italians of this danger.

Telling Italy or any other country how to manage its internal affairs is an almost impossible situation for the American government. The Italians are a proud people. They are grateful for our financial help, but the parties in power could not dare to play into the hands of a strong Communist party by accepting too many suggestions from us as to how they shall run their internal affairs.

They can accept our advice on collective security and NATO, but no government could stay in office which took our suggestions on taxation, minimum wage scales and other economic policies.

HOTEL RATES SIMILAR

The hotel rates in Florence are about the same as they are in New York, at least this is true with the two deluxe hotels which face each other across the Piazza Ognissanti. Without definite facts as to the wages of their help you would be safe in estimating the daily wage would be about one-fourth of San Angelo's or Big Spring's and one-sixth of that of hotels in New York City. It is this typical situation which is keeping Italy from being one of the bright spots in the all-around economic picture of European recovery from the ravages of the last world war. These hotels must be built.

Despite the fact that it is the end of October, that Florence is in northern Italy in the rolling Apennine hills which are the beginnings of the Alps, it has been summertime here throughout October. The tourists pack the hotels and shopping streets and the Florentines are enjoying a booming tourist business like they have never had before.

A half dozen different sightseeing bus tours operate every day to Pisa, Siena, Assisi and the Florence museums and their environs. They are packed like in mid-summer.

Florence has built three new hotels along the Arno in the last three years. It has remodeled to American standards (bath with each room) a half a dozen more and under construction are two additional hotels which will be ready by spring. Old palaces are being refurbished to American taste if not rates.

The American tourist is taking the place of the Marshall Plan in providing American dollars to Europe, especially Italy. It may be an hallucination of the Texas mind, but it does not help the rates charged here for everything from a bedroom in an air-conditioned hotel to a cup of coffee, for the U. S. to continue to act like giving money away was the principal reason for which the American people were created.

It seems to me the time is come when we need to see America for a year or so until the other, travelers get the cost down to a reasonable figure. The cost of visiting Western Europe is fully one-third higher today than four years ago. Next year it will be higher if we continue to pour across the Atlantic in the droves the European hotel keepers expect.

DIFFICULT CHOICE

Much Speculation On Successor To Sullivan

With Judge Charlie Sullivan's formal announcement he intends to vacate the 118th District Court bench, effective Jan. 1, speculation is rife around the court house as to who will be his successor in office.

Appointment of a man to fill out the year from Jan. 1 until the next general election date will be made by Governor Price Daniel. However, it is generally agreed that the governor will be influenced largely by recommendations he may receive from the county. It is obvious the choice will be some attorney from this county. There are three counties in the 118th Judicial District but outside of Howard County, there is only one attorney in three. Glasscock County has no attorneys; Martin County has but one.

FROM HOWARD COUNTY
 Therefore, it is generally agreed that the governor will make his choice from the members of the Howard County Bar.

However, from a purely legalistic standpoint, it is not required that a judge of the district court be an attorney. Under state law, he can be any citizen of a county who has served as judge of a Texas court for a period of at least 4 years. Since many county judges in Texas counties are laymen, yet by virtue of their offices, preside in county court sessions, it is possible for a non-lawyer to be chosen as a district judge. Observers point out that several of the more able of the state's district court judges have come from this group.

No one anticipates, apparently, that Governor Daniel will make such a choice here.

Several names of local lawyers have been bandied about as likely prospects for the post. None of these has declared himself as contenders for the appointment.

Governor Daniel has nearly two months in which to make his choice.

It is possible that the Howard County Bar Association could make a recommendation to the governor but there are few attorneys in the city who think such action will be taken. It has not been the policy of the local bar to make such recommendations and in view of the fact that the successor will probably be selected from its relatively small membership, none of the lawyers here seem to think that any such recommendation will be made.

HAS TWO CHOICES

The upshot seems to be that Governor Daniel will have two choices in the matter—to select some attorney from any who might actively solicit appointment to the vacancy or to act on such recommendations as lay constituents of the executive might choose to submit to him.

Meantime, Judge Sullivan said he intends to go right ahead with the operation of his court just as he has for the 10 years he has been in office. He will demonstrate this "business as usual" policy on Monday when he opens a week of criminal jury trials.

Area Student Honored

Travis Davis, senior student at Sul Ross State College, left, was recently given the semi-annual Victor J. Smith Industrial Arts Memorial Fund scholarship. The industrial arts major lives in Odessa with his wife, Joyce, and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Doyle Davis, live on Route 1, Ackery. Shown giving him the award is Jack Crawford, an instructor at the school.

Music In Heaven

NEW YORK (AP) — Passengers aboard a New York-Milwaukee - Minneapolis stratocruiser flight will be entertained with live organ music starting Sunday. Northwest Orient Airlines said Thursday the luxury flight between the three cities will feature a 190-pound organ plus a professional organist.

Ginning Report

LAMESA — A report from the local Texas Employment Commission office indicates that 129,760 bales of cotton have been ginned to date. Ginning figures from all gins of the county are tabulated each Friday.

20 Criminal Cases Slated For This Week

District attorney Gil Jones has added three cases to the 17 originally scheduled to go on trial in a session on 118th District Court starting Monday.

The latter three cases include those in which indictments have been returned against Arthur (Sonny) D. Dale, burglary; Riley Bruce Carson, driving while intoxicated, second offense; and C. L. Murphy, theft by bailee.

Originally scheduled for trial were Mary Loya, forgery; Mary Lou McGriff, forgery; James D. White, child desertion; James D. White, worthless check; Curtis M. Chaney, Andrew Wright, Ray Meeks, Eugene Peach, Robert Watson, James Evan Chisum and Alex Menchaca, Edward O. Robertson, all driving while intoxicated, second offense; Andrew Peres, assault with intent to murder; Earl Don Green, robbery; Morris Fowler, theft; Hovey Moore, forgery; and Roger E. Allison, forgery.

Next Question: Did That Hurt?

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP)—Kenneth Lingle has gone to great lengths to answer questions propounded by his 8-year-old son, Dennis.

He managed to satisfy Dennis on these: "How high is a flagpole?" "How far is it from here to France?" He's stumped by this one: "How many square inches are there in Denver?" Help, Denver!

Nehru, 70, Is Troubled Over Indian Future

By WATSON SIMS
NEW DELHI, India (AP)—The Prime Minister of India leaned forward at a children's rally and was sorry to be old.

"My birthdays are chasing me and I cannot escape them, it seems," said Jawaharlal Nehru, "although I would like to go away and spend the days untroubled of it."

"If anyone reminds me of my age I do not like it. But how to hide it? Everybody knows it."

"I will tell you a secret provided you do not tell it to anybody. I had decided that I would go away somewhere without telling anyone on that day and spend it peacefully and try to forget that it is my birthday."

"It was a secret but I have told you about it."

Next Saturday, Nov. 14, Nehru's 70th birthday will catch up with the only prime minister 400,000,000 Indians have known in 12 years of independence.

The anniversary will find Nehru enjoying popularity among his people probably unparalleled anywhere in the world. Millions of Indians adore him, not only as a political leader but as a saint. Some Hindus worship him as a reincarnation of Vishnu the protector.

At three score and 10 years, Nehru speaks with great prestige in the world's councils. Leaders of East and West respect him. The nonaligned nations of Asia, totaling with India nearly a fourth of the world's population, generally follow him.

Yet there will also be shadows over the anniversary. More than at any time in years, the policies and institutions to which Nehru is devoted are under strain.

Friendship with Communist China was a foundation stone of India's foreign policy, laid by express direction of Nehru. This year the friendship soured. The prime minister's birthday finds Chinese troops holding two sectors of Indian territory and claiming 40,000 square miles more.

The situation has given Nehru's critics an opportunity to say, "I told you so," and they have said it over and over again. Newspapers in India are more hostile to the prime minister than in past years. He has quarreled more with the press and his political opponents.

Some critics claim nonalignment, with which Nehru identified himself, has proved impractical. They say India must reconsider her military policies now that Tibet has vanished as a buffer region and Chinese troops are on Indian soil. Even the nature of nonalignment has become controversial.

DEAR ABBY FAR EAST DEBATE

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: You recently advised a GI who had fallen in love with a Japanese woman while in Japan that if he wanted an American woman to bathe and dress him he should get himself admitted to an old folks home.

Like all American women, Abby, you missed the point. American men do fall in love with Japanese women because they make such excellent servants. A Japanese waitress in Ginza has more fresh affection in her voice than some American men hear all their lives in the U.S.A.

It is easy to understand why a man would prefer a wife who would rather help her husband wash his back than drive him out to a P-TA meeting. How are you going to lick such an offer?

DEAR ABBY: Whenever I hear someone sound off about how devoted, obedient and loyal Japanese women are, I reply, "Why don't you go to Zanzibar or Saudi Arabia and buy a slave for 10 pounds British sterling?" C.E.D.

DEAR ABBY: May I respectfully advise you that when it comes to the subject of comparing American women to Japanese women you do not know what you are talking about.

As an American man who has spent many years in Japan I can testify that I have never seen a Japanese woman elbow her way into an elevator nor have I ever heard a Japanese woman raise her voice to her husband in public.

They are not all out of the rice paddies, either. Eighty per cent of all high school graduates in Japan go on to college. You American women would do well to pattern your behavior after your Japanese cousins. ONE WHO KNOWS

DEAR ABBY: I lived as a bachelor for many years in Tokyo and never found it difficult to resist the charms of the Japanese women. To be perfectly frank, their idiotic conversation would drive a normal man to drink.

I observed a handful of GIs marrying Japanese girls, but 99 per cent of these misfits would have had a tough time getting an American girl of any age to marry them.

Sincerely,
COULD WRITE A BOOK

DEAR ABBY: I resent your attitude toward American men marrying Japanese women. Witness our own James Michener who wrote the beautiful stories "South Pacific" and "Sayonara." Michener recognized the superiority of the Japanese women. Furthermore, he proved his sincerity by marrying and bringing home a beautiful, cultured Japanese doll.

ROSS

DEAR ROSS: Mr. Michener's Japanese doll was not imported. She was a Japanese-American.

DEAR ABBY: My brother was in the U. S. Navy and he went nuts over a Japanese doll. He married her and went away on a 6-month cruise. When he came home he found his wonderful Japanese wife washing somebody else's feet.

BROTHER BEN

Livestock Survey For County To Be Initiated

Postmaster E. C. Boatler announced today that rural carriers will begin distributing Livestock Survey cards Nov. 19 on Route 1, Knott Rt., Gall Rt., Garden City Rt. and Sterling City Rt.

Patrons receiving livestock cards are requested to complete and return them. Cards will then be returned to the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service in Austin. Information is used in estimating numbers of cattle, hogs, sheep and chickens.

Information obtained is returned to farmers ranchers through Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service releases, newspapers, radio and television.

This annual survey has been a joint undertaking of the post office and the Department of Agriculture since 1924, Boatler said.

Gunman And Woman

Robert Mitchum is a pistolero, and Julie London is the romantic interest in "The Wonderful Country," Sunday through Tuesday at the Ritz. The film is based on Tom Lea's novel of the same name. Lea is best known as author of the novel, later a motion picture, "The Brave Bulls."

Tom Lea Has All Fingers In Pie For Film Version

Every writer should have the experience of active participation when his literary work—novel, short story or screenplay—is being transformed into a motion picture. That is the opinion of Tom Lea, the gifted El Paso author and illustrator, who became a working member of the production team when his best-selling novel, "The Wonderful Country," was made into a film with Robert Mitchum and Julie London in the top starring roles. Lea did everything but carry the camera—and he probably only missed that because nobody asked. He acted in the picture, served as technical advisor and coached actors in their dialog and character interpretation. He worked with Director Robert Parrish and Producer Chester Erskine on script and dialog changes and was available at any time and anywhere for anybody who needed advice or guidance from the property man to production designer Harry Horner and the stars. And he says it was an experience no author should miss.

Museum Piece

"Horrors of the Black Museum" had double insurance at the box office, since it features two factors which American moviegoers apparently find irresistible—a horror story and a bevy of beautiful girls. The girl above is June Cunningham, one of the inhabitants of the Black Museum, and the film shows Thursday through Saturday at the Sahara.

Hudson, Day Team For 'Pillow Talk'

"Pillow Talk" brings together for the first time two of the nation's most popular screen stars, Rock Hudson and Doris Day.

Taking its title from one of the songs sung by Miss Day the story, set in New York City, opens with Rock and Doris becoming bitter enemies without ever meeting—all because they share a telephone party line. The first time Rock ever sees Doris, he learns that his best friend and wealthy show-backer, Tony Randall, is in love with her. Rock, who writes songs, decides that, somehow, he must meet this lovely interior decorator.

This poses somewhat of a problem in view of the bitter things they've said to each other on the phone. But Rock manages to swing it by masquerading as a big rancher from out of the West. Then the fun starts.

One of the big surprises of "Pillow Talk" is the comedy talent displayed by Hudson, whose popularity up to now has been gained in straight dramatic roles. He also tries his first screen vocalizing with a number titled "Inspiration." The spirit of the comedy is aided immeasurably by the outstanding performances of the always-delightful Tony Randall and Thelma Ritter. Also assists come from Julia Meade, Nick Adams, Marcel Dalio, Allen Jenkins and Lee Patrick.

In all, six new song numbers are woven through the picture. Besides "Pillow Talk," "Possess Me," and "Inspiration," there's "Roly Poly," a new party song, for audience participation, and two on the "blues" side, "You Lied" and "I Need No Atmosphere," both done by the night club pianist-chanteuse, Perry Blackwell.

Censors Add Line Of Dialogue To David Niven Film

NEW YORK (AP)—A movie review board has approved a film dealing with unmarried love. The producer agreed to add a line of dialogue saying in effect:

"We were wrong to have premarital sex relations."

The film, "Happy Anniversary," had been refused a seal of approval by Geoffrey Shurlock, production code director in Los Angeles.

The review board, meeting here, gave its sanction to the film last week after the producer agreed to have the male lead speak the additional line.

David Niven and Mitzi Gaynor are featured in the film, which deals in part with the premarital relations of a husband and wife.

Leslie Caron's A Little Waif No More

"For the first time since I made my movie debut I have broken away from a wistful-waif type of role that I seemed to play in every movie."

This was Leslie Caron talking. She stars in "The Man Who Understood Women."

In previous roles including the award-winning "Gigi," Leslie never quite matured on the screen. She was always the little girl who was never looked on by her co-star as a woman, until the last reel of the picture.

"This is my most adult role to date and I couldn't be happier with the character I portray—a widowed actress who finally gets a screen test and is molded into a Hollywood star by one of Hollywood's genius types. In addition Charles LeMaire has created a wardrobe for me that women will be drooling over. Altogether it's a most happy assignment," Leslie said.

As a matter of fact this role in "The Man Who Understood Women" is a far cry from the roles she played in "An American in Paris," "Lili," "The Glass Slipper" and her previous Twentieth Century-

Model Theatre

NEW YORK (AP)—Allan A. Buchantz is producing "Happy Town" for Broadway after elaborate preparation.

Buchantz, at work on the idea 2½ years, built in his office a half-inch scale model of the stage on which he visualized the musical. It was equipped with a light-board to demonstrate theatrical effects, had a real fly gallery, and automatically revolving turntables.

"Better than electric trains," commented the producer. "But the theater is the most extravagant plaything in the world."

Star Aids Painter

NEW YORK (AP)—The most exclusive painting exhibit in the city is running in the Broadway dressing room of Gwen Verdon, star of "Redhead."

Through a cast member, Miss Verdon heard of the work of Yoram Kaniuk, a young Israeli artist, and was so taken with his works that she decided to convert backstage quarters into a gallery.

The clientele is limited to other players and acquaintances who visit Miss Verdon, but so far more than $250 worth of original Kaniuks have been sold.

De Mille Estate Exceeds $4 Million

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Cecil B. De Mille left an estate of $4,043,607.

This disclosure came last week when a judge approved distribution of $40,750 in bequests to friends and former employees of the pioneer film director-producer. De Mille, who died last January at 77, left most of his estate to his daughter, Cecilia De Mille Harper.

Poor Fish

Alan Ladd's wife (that's Carolyn Jones) has many lovers. One of them traps hubby into a net of suspicion, and draws the net tighter. The suspense grows with the plot until the climax, which the Hollywood publicists told us not to tell.

'Man In The Net' Mystery Yarn, Has Famous Stars

A suspense story with two well-known stars is "The Man in the Net."

Starring in the film are Alan Ladd, Carolyn Jones and Diane Brewster, with John Lupton, Tom Helmore and Charles McGraw in supporting roles. Michael Curtiz directed a script by Reginald Rose.

"The Man in the Net" concerns Alan Ladd who becomes a hunted murder suspect when his neurotic wife is found slain in their home. Ladd, a commercial artist who, with his wife, retires to the relative quiet of a Connecticut town after a hectic existence in the wilds of mid-Manhattan, is known to be at odds with his alcoholic spouse. When her corpse is found buried on his property, Ladd is forced into hiding by an irate, aroused and suspicious township. Hiding in a cave, he is befriended by a group of youngsters, and it is with their aid that he attempts to prove his innocence.

Ladd, as the much maligned, but stairway artist, is a man in a horrible dilemma, and Carolyn Jones is his highly neurotic wife. Diane Brewster is a sympathetic neighbor whose life becomes entwined with Ladd's.

"The Man in the Net" is an adult, suspenseful mystery film playing Sunday and Monday at the Jet.

Actor's Aide To Ask Continuance Of Trial

BRACKETTVILLE, Tex. (AP)—An attorney for Chester Smith, 32, Hollywood movie extra, said today he would ask a continuance in the actor's murder trial when it is called Monday.

Smith is charged with the knife-slaying of Lajeane Ehrhridge, 26, also a Hollywood movie extra. The Hollywood people were in Texas working on the John Wayne production "The Alamo."

Exchange Pact

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Jorge Ferrer, federal director of the film industry, said today he believes a reply will be received from Argentina in two weeks on a proposal for a film exchange agreement between the two countries.

Lee Bowman Has Survived Many Scrapes

By BOB THOMAS AP Writer-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—There was Lee Bowman on the floor, cooked by a gangster's sap and with a switchblade aimed at his gutlet. A shot was fired by an obliging blonde and Lee lived on to solve another case.

This bit of drama took place at Desilu Studios, where Lee is filming "Miami Undercover," a new TV series for United Artists. It came easily to him, and with good reason.

During his film career, Bowman played a columnist-sleuth in "The Walls Came Tumbling Down." He starred on radio in an Erle Stanley Gardner series, Jonathan Kegg. And for 90 weeks he played Ellery Queen on live TV.

So his new guise as a Florida crime hunter (with sidekick Rocky Graziano) is a natural result of his long battle against the underworld. The series brings Lee back to California after a six-year exile to the greener pastures of New York and Connecticut.

"I left somewhat as an accident," he explained. "The picture business had been slowing down and I was doing some hour dramatic shows on TV. I went back to New York to do an Ellery Queen. The star, Richard Hart, died on a Tuesday and I did the show on Thursday. I had no idea of getting into a live series, and they offered it to me, and I stayed."

Lee moved his family to New Canaan, Conn., and he admits that his departure was considered rather treasonous in some local circles.

After his seasons as Ellery, Lee stayed on to do Broadway shows, front TV spectacles for a auto concern, conduct a real estate-insurance firm with his brother, act as director of a commercial film concern, perform on a weekly drama over NBC radio and appear on the panel show, "Masquerade Party."

Guardian Asked For Star's Mother

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Appointment of a conservator for actress Marilyn Monroe's mother is asked in a court petition.

The petition said the mother, Gladys Eley, 57, is now in a private sanitarium near Los Angeles. The document was presented by Miss Monroe's former business manager, Inez C. Nelson. Mrs. Nelson said the petition was filed with consent of the actress, identified in it as Marilyn Miller. She is married to playwright Arthur Miller and no longer lives here.

Lionel Barrymore Type Role Needed

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex. (AP)—Mike Cline, an aspiring actor, felt he had a rusty future. He had several contacts lined up in New York and the money to finance an assault on the big city stage.

Feeling exuberant, he went on a little outing with a friend and misjudged a joyful leap from a bridge abutment. Now Mike wants to know if anyone has a part for an actor with two broken ankles who'll have to tread the boards in a wheel chair.

Lili Finally Grows Up

Henry Fonda is a Hollywood-type super-genius, and he molds Leslie Caron into a desirable woman in "The Man Who Understood Women." Only trouble is, he can't seem to make much headway himself—indicating even a genius has a stupid streak, sometimes. Leslie, best-remembered for her role in "Lili," now has her first fully adult role. "The Man Who Understood Women" plays Wednesday and Thursday at the Ritz.

Texas Political Scene: Talk, Talk, But No Action

By GARTH JONES
AUSTIN (AP)—The big news in Texas politics is that nothing is happening. It's all talk, talk, talk.

"In all my years I've never seen so many politicians who say they aren't politicians running for offices for which they haven't announced," said one old Capitol observer.

"We can't tell the players because we don't have a program," another added.

Right now it looks as if the program or list of candidates for state offices won't be available until shortly before the Feb. 1 filing deadline.

The No. 1 silent possible candidate is Gov. Price Daniel. Most everyone thought they had Daniel's plans figured until he casually warned about a month ago to not count him out of the 1960 governor's race. "I want to see who wants to replace me," he said—and hasn't said any more.

Even published reports that he might switch to campaigns for the lieutenant governorship or for the Supreme Court brought no response.

Whatever Daniel's political intentions, two speeches next week won't hurt him—Nov. 10 to the Texas Farm Bureau convention in San Antonio and the Nov. 11 dedication of the 38th Division's memorial monument on the capitol grounds.

Daniel's probable chief opponent will be Atty. Gen. Will Wilson—if Daniel runs and if Wilson runs. There were recent reports that Wilson would announce his plans last month but nothing appeared. However, there is a rumor from Wilson's office to the effect that he plans a governor's race whether Daniel runs or not.

Tuesday night Wilson speaks to the Wichita County Bar Assn. in another of the numerous appearances planned throughout Texas before Jan. 1.

Former State Highway Commissioner Chairman Marshall Formby of Plainview is the only announced gubernatorial candidate. He has been campaigning since last spring.

Speaker Waggoner Carr of Lubbock has said several times he would prefer a race for attorney general but he has never closed the door on a campaign for governor. Carr's plans, along with any easy half dozen others, depend on Wilson's plans.

If Wilson runs for governor it appears Sen. Charles Herring of Austin and former Secretary of State Tom Reavley are sure bets to battle to succeed him. They may be joined by District Attorney Henry Wade of Dallas, Dan Walton of Houston, Les Procter of Austin, and Tom Moore of Waco, along with Dist. Judge John Onion of San Antonio and maybe Secretary of State Zolle Steakley.

Another big question mark is Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey's plans. There have been reports he may be considering a race for the Supreme Court or the Railroad Commission. If Ramsey doesn't run the would-be successors may include Sens. Bill Fly of Victoria, Jarrard Secrest of Temple, Crawford Martin of Hillsboro, Jep Fuller of Port Arthur and Hernein. Some say former Sen. George Nokes of Waco and former state Rep. Dolph Briscoe of Uvalde are possible candidates. Banker Walter Hall of Dickinson has been mentioned.

Land Commissioner Bill Allcorn has said he will seek re-election. Rep. Jerry Sadler of Palestine is his only known opponent but Sen. Ray Roberts of McKinney may take the race also.

Rep. V. L. Ramsey of Beckville announced this week for state comptroller. Comptroller Robert S. Calvert has not disclosed his plans.

Railroad Commissioner Ernest O. Thompson is the only member whose term expires next year. There has been no indication he will not seek re-election. Should there be an opening Ramsey or Bob Slagle, former campaign manager for Sen. Ralph Yarborough, have been mentioned as prospects. Austin oil consultant R. E. Pinkston is a definite candidate.

Three terms expire in the Supreme Court next year. Chief Justice J. E. Hickman will not seek re-election and Associate Justice Bob Calvert has announced for the place. If Calvert is elected chief justice then his associate justice's term ending in 1963 will be up for appointment.

Associate Justices Joe Greenhill and Clyde Smith have not announced for re-election but are expected to do so soon.

Greenhill was elected to an unexpired term in 1957 after a close race with Dist. Judge Sarah Hughes of Dallas. There have been recent reports Mrs. Hughes will contest Greenhill again for the full six-year term beginning Jan. 1, 1961.

"I can only say that I'll decide before the filing date," Mrs. Hughes said.

Just to make sure that every part of Texas is touched by political campaigns in 1960 there also will be 150 contests for the House of Representatives and at least 16 for state senator.

And there are reports that Sen. Lyndon Johnson is seeking the Democratic nomination for president in 1960.

The sixth of the United States "Champions of Liberty" stamps will honor Thomas G. Masaryk, founder and first president of Czechoslovakia. As in the past, these stamps will be issued in two denominations — 4 cents for first class domestic postage and 8 cents for first class international surface mail.

The Masaryk stamps will be placed on sale at Washington, D. C., on March 7, 1960, the 110th anniversary of Masaryk's birth. Details as to design and colors will be announced in this column soon.

And there are reports that Sen. Lyndon Johnson is seeking the Democratic nomination for president in 1960.

War I. In 1918 he was chosen that nation's first president and remained in that capacity until 1935.

Said Postmaster General Arthur

E. Summerfield "These stamps commemorating Thomas G. Masaryk as a 'Champion of Liberty' will thus mark not only the strong friendship of the peoples of the United States and Czechoslovakia, which Masaryk symbolized, but also their common aspirations for freedom."

Previous "Champions of Liberty" have been Ramon Magsaysay (1957), Simon Bolivar and Lajos Kossuth (1958) and Jose de San Martin and Ernst Reuter (1959).

The famed British Commonwealth collection of H. M. Spencer Lewin of Montreal, Canada, was sold for more than $23,000 in a two-day auction in New York recently. The top price went for a Mauritius Nov. 4, earliest impression of the 1848 2-pence with frame line cut at top right. It sold for $1,050.

LOOKS AT BOOKS

THE DAY OF SAN JACINTO by Frank X. Tolbert; McGraw-Hill Book Co., Inc., New York.

With John Wayne's current filming of the "Alamo" in the Southwest Texas brush around Bracketville, Texans will do well to read Frank X. Tolbert's latest book, "The Day of San Jacinto."

Of course the battle of the Alamo does not figure largely in Tolbert's historical volume, but it is put in proper perspective in the cavalcade of events which led inexorably to the story-book climax where the San Jacinto merges into Buffalo Bayou on the Southeast Texas coastal plains.

No one can read this book without realizing anew that the Alamo is revered as a symbol of stubborn, blind courage that will not yield to any odds. It was a tragedy of mistakes and errors but in the end it did serve as a battle cry at San Jacinto.

The strength of Tolbert's book is in its factual reporting of hazy and often sugar-coated historical events. A seasoned and gifted reporter, Tolbert recounts the events leading up and during the battle of San Jacinto much as though he were reporting a big story today.

His people come alive as people with earthy feet and not unapproachable and infallible saints. Sam Houston is not glossed—he is a hard-drinking, rough-hewn natural leader who led one of the most nondescript armies in existence.

The Texan army—if it could be called that—was about as seedy and as mutinous as any that ever existed. Half of the leaders thought they could do a better job than Houston and said so. Some wanted to—and did—go off at tangents.

But on the eve of the battle into which Santa Anna was being drawn at the bayou plain, Houston and Tom Rusk stood up and spoke with such power and simplicity that the motley assembly was transformed. The next day they were equal to their day in destiny.

As a Texan—either born or bred or recently arrived—you ought to read Tolbert's book published by the McGraw Hill Book Co., Inc., (1221 W. 42nd St., N. Y. 36, N. Y. —J.P.
