

DEAR ABBY

LOOSE TONGUES

By ABIGAIL VAN BUREN

DEAR ABBY: I gave my husband four beautiful daughters. We would have liked a boy but, like everyone, we took what we got and liked it.

that it is common knowledge that the sex of a child is determined by the father!

DEAR ABBY: When I was married, twenty-six of my husband's relatives pitched in and gave me a waffle iron. (They got it wholesale, too.)

One of the aunts who was in on the gift happens to be very well-to-do. This aunt is moving into a new home and all the relatives are giving her a housewarming. She "requested" individual cash gifts rather than presents because she is afraid she might get things that won't look good in her house.

DEAR IRRITATED: Tell them that you'd have been happy to have had a son. But a woman cannot reap boys when her husband plants girls. And smile your brightest when you inform them

I figured out that her share of my waffle iron was about a dollar. If you were in my place,

Steel Parleys Planned After Thanksgiving

NEW YORK (AP)—The United Steelworkers' union plans to resume contract talks shortly after Thanksgiving with aluminum, copper and iron companies.

But prospects for a break in the basic dispute with the steel industry remain bleak.

The steel union's 171-member wage policy committee voted unanimously Thursday to renew the 116-day steel strike if no agreement is reached by Jan. 26.

That's the expiration date of the 80-day Taft-Hartley injunction that sent half a million steel workers back to plants across the nation.

union president, David J. McDonald, said:

"I know of no foundation for such a statement. Of course we'll try again—we're certainly going to give it the old American try."

McDonald said no date had been set for resuming talks with steel producers.

He indicated the union would start exerting pressure immediately, however, for wage agreements covering 100,000 other members employed in the non-steel metal industries.

Aluminum and iron workers have remained on the job beyond contract expirations. Most of the copper workers have been on strike for three months.

The deadlock in steel has particularly affected aluminum negotiations. The aluminum industry traditionally follows the contract pattern set in steel.

McDonald described the policy committee as solidly behind union officers in their handling of the steel negotiations and the strike.

"We will resume our strike when the injunction expires, if this becomes necessary to reach new agreements," he said in a statement. "We are prepared to reach a fair and equitable contract. We hope and pray that the leaders of the steel industry will be of like mind."

In contract talks the union asked an unspecified wage increase and increased fringe benefits.

The nation's major steel companies rejected a raise as inflationary unless they won the right to make changes in working conditions to effect economies. This the union refused.

The Bethlehem Steel Co. offered financial help Thursday to 88,000 workers returning to the job after the strike.

Bethlehem offered wage advances of up to $100 per man as soon as the equivalent time—Estimated at four days—was worked.

This would save workers from waiting for the end of the regular pay period.

Employees with uncompleted vacation time can also collect vacation pay immediately instead of in December.

Mayor's Sergeant-At-Arms

Mayor Paul Egan shakes hands with Mrs. Shirley Strimple of Chicago, a woman wrestler whom he appointed in Aurora, Ill., as sergeant-at-arms to keep order at city council meetings. Mrs. Strimple, who was late for work her first day, missed one of the wildest meetings conducted by the blustery

Mamie, Nearing 63, Has Kept Privacy During Ike's Tenure

By FRANCES LEWINE
WASHINGTON (AP) — Mamie Eisenhower, who will be 63 Saturday, has managed to keep a private life of her own during the seven years she has been in the White House.
By the time her birthday rolls around next year, her successor as First Lady will have been named.
From all indications, Mamie won't be sorry to relinquish the role.
She has not sought, as Eleanor Roosevelt did, to be a national figure in her own right.
Nor, like Bess Truman, has she openly evidenced dislike for the social and public appearances that go with being First Lady.
She has kept her own public appearances to a minimum. She never makes speeches, she holds no news conferences or press interviews and accepts few outside invitations.
Her unofficial White House comings and goings are not disclosed.
During the Eisenhower administration, the traditional White House social season has been whittled down and finally was eliminated entirely this year.
This elaborate entertaining for Congress, Supreme Court, diplomats, military and officials once brought thousands to the White House for receptions and formal dinners. It probably won't be revived in the remaining years of the Eisenhowers' tenure.
For the entertaining she has done, Mrs. Eisenhower has gained a reputation as a gracious hostess at 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue. She charms guests and visitors with her ready smile, just the right inquiry, pleasantries and flattering comment.
Cereimonally, Mamie has appeared with the President and has gone out on her own for such things as the christening this year of the atomic-powered passenger-cargo ship Savannah.
Beyond these public and semi-public appearances, though, the world of Mrs. Eisenhower is private.
Secrecy and security have been employed through the years to give Mrs. Eisenhower some privacy. Everyone from chauffeurs to chefs at the White House is under a no-talking rule.
Mrs. Eisenhower has found a private and secluded vacation spot at Elizabeth Arden's Maine Chance health and beauty resort near Phoenix, Ariz. She went there in February 1958 and 1959 and may go again early in 1960.

Mrs. Eisenhower's only other trips without the President have been to Denver to visit her mother, Mrs. John S. Doud, 81.
Her most frequent companion—traveling and at home—is her only sister, Frances (Mike) Moore, wife of businessman-broker, ex-Army officer George Gordon Moore.
Mrs. Eisenhower is protected, too, by her social secretary, Mary Jane McCaffree, an ex-New Yorker who got her training as executive secretary to top businessmen.

Every inquiry about Mrs. Eisenhower has to go through Mrs. McCaffree, who brushes off virtually every one of a personal nature.
The President at a news conference this summer said any decision about taking an apartment in Washington when he leaves office would be up to Mrs. Eisenhower. He suggested "You had better get some of your lady reporter friends to go and talk to her about it."
A lady reporter tried, but couldn't get through by phone to Mrs. Eisenhower.
But Mollie Parnis, New York dress designer who has provided clothes for Mrs. Eisenhower since pre-White House days, says she gets through without any trouble.

Mrs. Eisenhower likes to discuss her personal things, says Mollie, and "she gets on the phone herself" to talk over the dress problems.
As a customer, Mollie Parnis finds Mamie the "easiest, kindest, most considerate, and least temperamental."

Convicted Rapists Lose Last Appeals

RAIFORD, Fla. (AP) — Two Negroes convicted of raping white women go to their death in Florida's electric chair today after losing last minute pleas for commutation of their sentences to life imprisonment.
The condemned men are Willie George City, 22, and John Edward Paul, 24.
City pleaded guilty to rape of a white widow at her home at Largo. Paul was convicted of raping a 47-year-old grandmother at Clearwater.

Alabama Putting Teeth In Race Laws

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — The Alabama Legislature, determined to strengthen its stand for racial segregation, has passed bills to finance private segregated schools and put brakes on Negro voter registration.
The action came without opposition Thursday night the last few hours of the 1959 session. The bills were sent immediately to Gov. John Patterson for his signature.
The school measure would allow the state to appropriate public funds directly to private schools where public schools have closed because of orders to integrate. The bill is patterned after an existing law which permits allocation of state money to private colleges.
The Legislature also approved a measure to authorize the payment of school tuition directly to a student even though his school was not under a threat to integrate.
Three measures dealt with voter registrars. Another would make it possible for state attorneys to find out who was behind any suit brought against the state. This measure apparently is aimed at the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People and similar organizations which might finance a suit seeking integrated schools.
Two of the bills dealing with boards of registrars were passed by the Senate without debate. They previously had cleared the House.
The first allows a board of registrars to use 12 days a year to catch up on its paper work. The second allows the registrars to spend up to 20 days in each even-numbered year visiting the precincts within the district—and registering only those applicants within the precinct.
The effect of these measures is to cut down on the time a board of registrars could be available for interviewing voter applicants. In most counties the boards now meet about 53 days a year. Since they can use 12 days for clerical work and then visit around the country for 20 days they will be available for interviews only 26 days.
A board provision could avoid any attempt at mass registration by Negroes by shutting down for clerical work on a day it seemed likely that numerous Negroes were preparing to register. And it could avoid Negro-dominated precincts on its visits in the even years. Under law the registrars must visit all precincts at least once during the odd years.
The third measure makes it mandatory for all courts to report to the boards of registrars those convictions that could disqualify a person from voting.

Friday 13th Club Snubs Superstition

NORTH HOLLYWOOD, Calif. (AP)—Superstition pool. They'll defy 'em all at the annual meeting of the Friday the 13th Club. And probably get out in one piece.
What'll they do? Break mirrors—bad luck, you know. Light three smokes on one match—bad. Walk under ladders—very bad.
The Friday 13th-ers are a proud lot. They have their own queen.
She's starlet Marianne Gaba, whose birthday is today. Her title's a corker — Miss Triskadekahphile of 1959.
Triskadekahphile? That's someone especially enamored of the number 13.

Runnels' Ninth Graders made it a clean sweep for teams of that school by beating Goliad Junior High, 29-0, in Memorial Stadium here Thursday night.

In the first half, Runnels fumbled on its own 30 and Goliad surged all the way to the one before losing the ball on downs. In the second period, Runnels drove 96 yards to score, Joe Don Musgrove getting the TD on a 23-yard run. The Yearlings added the double conversion and led, 8-0, at half time.

Jack Eisenhart's punt was blocked by Frank Martinez in the fourth period to set up Runnels' final score. Runnels made recovery on the Goliad 30 and Lamb eventually blasted through from the one-yard line.

Among offensive and defensive standouts for Goliad were quarterback George Rice, left end Eisenhart (who intercepted one pass and caught another for a substantial gain), halfback Don Phillips, tackle John Trego, guard Wayne Cook and linebacker Bill McDonald.

THE EVERLASTING LIGHT

From the dawn of human history, man has gazed with awe and fascination across the horizon. What secrets are buried in the sea's vast bosom and what strange lands and peoples and adventures are out there beyond the sunset?

The unknown has always presented a mystery and a challenge to mankind. Many have faced it with fear and shrinking. Others have accepted its challenge and have opened up new vistas of human knowledge.

Those who live and search in the Everlasting Light, His Holy Word, need have no fear of what lies beyond the oceans of water, the oceans of human experience, or the oceans of human thought. For the land and the sea are God's, and He rules in the kingdom of men.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL ... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Former 4-H Club Girl Tries Acting

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie - TV Writer
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Can wholesomeness pay off in Hollywood?

Here's a former 4-H Club girl to put that question to the test. Her name is Shirley Knight and she comes from Kansas and she once raised pigs. That's right — pigs.

"And I got blue ribbons for them at the Kansas State Fair," she says proudly.

She may soon be getting blue ribbons for acting. She is under contract to Warner Brothers and is doing an important role in "The Ice Palace." The studio has big plans for her.

"I wanted to be an actress from the age of 2," said Shirley. She and her sister sang duets at gatherings near her Lyons, Kan., home, and this taste of show business whetted her appetite. After high school, she told her father of her yen to try the big time.

"Only after you finish college," he told her. He thought the four-year wait would cool her ardor. But Shirley zipped through college in three years. Meanwhile, she did a TV show, reported for the Wichita Beacon and sang with a band three times weekly. And she graduated with top honors!

One of her interview subjects for the paper was Editor Norman Cousins, who told her to try Broadway if she wanted to be an actress. But her father considered New York too sinful a city for a young girl. She was allowed to come to Hollywood, as the lesser of two evils.

She stuck it out on money from home and a secretarial job. She landed the lead in a little theater play, "Look Back in Anger." It was all she needed to be flooded with offers from studios and agents. She chose Liz Taylor's agent, Kurt Frings, and accepted TV leads, but no studio contracts.

"Finally, I decided you can't get good roles in pictures unless you're under contract," she said.

Cop Hits Truck Rather Than Bus

REDLANDS, Calif. (AP) — A rookie policeman chasing a fleeing car at 100 miles an hour suddenly faced a deadly choice:

Hit a loaded school bus, stopped to unload, or smash almost head on into a truck.

He picked the truck.

Officer Thomas H. Dickson, 26, was seriously injured in the collision Thursday.

With siren screaming and red light on, Dickson said, he had chased a car several miles.

Then the police car and truck arrived at the halted school bus at the same time. With the road too narrow to pass, the officer hit his brakes and swerved into the oncoming truck.

None of the children was hurt.

Boy Drowns

HOUSTON (AP)—Michael Salcher, 8, fell into the water and drowned Thursday while trying to walk a pipe crossing Brax's Bayou.

Marlene Dietrich Signs For TV Show

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Marlene Dietrich, a television hold-out all these years, finally has given in. She has signed for a one-hour color special called "Dietrich in Paris," to be filmed in an opening night of her forthcoming appearance in the French capital.

"It has been very difficult to find a vehicle," confided the glamorous grandmother. "But in this case, I'm playing my show anyway. This prevents a lot of complications."

"Usually, when you are signing to do something in television, everybody hopes for the best and is full of ideas. Then later, the ideas are forgotten, even if intentions are still the best. That is particularly true when you are involved with music and singing. This way, I know what I'm doing."

Miss Dietrich feels she has insured her show by inviting Orson Welles to produce it.

Film cameras will cover Miss Dietrich's opening night performance at Paris' Etoile Theater while she sings many of the songs with which she is associated — "Falling in Love Again," "The Boys in the Back Room," and her nightclub opener, "Look Me Over Closely."

"I wouldn't have agreed to it if Orson hadn't been free," she says. "Because a show like this is going to need a lot of imagination."

Actually, Miss Dietrich has signed with a TV producing company and negotiations are under way for a sponsor, who shouldn't be hard to find.

If Secretary of Labor James P. Mitchell's last-acting performance this week was any indication, what the administration now needs is Ernie Kovacs, a great practitioner of the sight gag. The cake hat made a good photograph for the newspapers, but the sight of a secretary cutting up a mocha confection while making a serious speech about the effects of the steel strike was a sight TV advisor Robert Montgomery might have vetoed.

Second Trinity Hearing Ends

AUSTIN (AP)—Backers and opponents of plans to build dams across the Trinity River at Livingston and Wallisville in Southeast Texas have 10 days to figure out their next moves.

The second week of hearings before the State Board of Water Engineers wound up Thursday with lawyers for both sides still wrangling over just what is pertinent in the controversial case. Testimony will resume Nov. 23. Conflicts in the schedules of lawyers and board members caused the delay.

Houston and Trinity River seek to build a 23-35 million dollar dam and reservoir at Livingston and a 5 million dollar salt water barrier at Wallisville. The projects would create lakes from which the city and the TRA propose to pump more than a billion gallons of water per day.

The San Jacinto River Authority, Southern Canal Co. and Livingston area landowners oppose the application.

The SJRA furnished the most lengthy opposition so far, with attorney Alex Pope of Houston questioning witnesses at length about plans for the dams, water usage and distribution systems.

Top O' The World
Corine Rotzschfater, center, of the Netherlands, picked in London as Miss World, is flanked by second place Maria Rossi, left, of Peru and Israel's Ziva Shorrat, third. Pleased over charges by Loretta Powell of the United States and Huguette Demers of Canada that the contest was rigged, Miss Rotzschfater said, "I'm a model and I need publicity. Now I'll be able to charge higher prices."

House Speaker Race Started

AUSTIN (AP)—House members won't cast their votes for speaker for more than a year, but the candidates are already busy.

Reps. Wade Spilman of McAllen and James Turman of Gober, two of the four announced candidates for the post, have scheduled luncheons here preceding tomorrow's Texas vs. Texas Christian football game.

Each candidate invited House members to attend his luncheon — a handy method of seeing who lines up on which side.

Spilman, an attorney, has been considered a candidate for the job since the Legislature convened last January.

Turman who holds a doctor of philosophy degree, resigned as assistant to the president of Texas Women's University in Denton when he announced his candidacy Aug. 8.

Each is in his third term in the House. Their announced opponents are Reps. L. DeWitt Hale of Corpus Christi and Frank B. McGregor of Waco.

Rep. Ben Glusing of Kingsville was considered a major candidate until he withdrew earlier this year. Another candidate, dropped from the race when he paid his filing fee to run for land commissioner. The next speaker will be elected when the Legislature convenes in January 1961.

Election Fever

MEXICO CITY (AP)—Ambassador Ruperto Alarcon Falconi said Thursday there is great enthusiasm in Ecuador over next year's elections. He expressed confidence his conservative party will win.

TEXAS CHAMPIONS OF FREEDOM
ERASTUS "DEAF" SMITH
Scout, Soldier and Hero of San Jacinto

In 1821 people did not usually come to the untamed Texas Territory for their health. But one man did just that — Erastus Smith, from New York by way of Natchez. He wandered over the wild frontier country, learned its topography, made friends with Anglos, Mexicans and Indians. He grew strong and well, but never regained his hearing. When Texans began their fight for independence from Mexico, "Deaf" Smith — scout and soldier — took his place with Fannin, Bowie, Travis, Milam, Sam Houston and the other champions of freedom. His best known service to his chosen country was the destruction of Vince's Bridge, just before the battle of San Jacinto. Bridging Vince's Bayou, then in flood, it offered the only means of communication between the Texan and Mexican armies and the remainder of Texas. When Deaf Smith destroyed it, on the morning of April 21, 1836, he effectively isolated the Mexicans from reinforcements and prevented an orderly retreat. The fact that it also isolated the Texans was of no importance to Smith. He and his people would win. They were fighting for liberty and the right to live as they chose.

Today Texans still demand and get their right to choose the way they want to live. In this vigorous and freedom-minded homeland — "Beer Belongs" and this is why the United States Brewers Foundation works constantly, in conjunction with brewers, wholesalers and retailers, to assure the sale of beer and ale under pleasant, orderly conditions. Believing that strict law enforcement serves the best interest of Texans, the Foundation stresses close cooperation with the Armed Forces, law enforcement and governing officials in its continuing Self-Regulation program.
