Accurate Warning

A warning sign along the railroad tracks at Cynthiana, Ky., had a special meaning when a 20-ton tank went out of control, smashed through one building and embedded itself in another. The vehicle's driver, Army Reserve Capt. Paul S. Burton, suffered only minor injuries. Damage to the buildings was estimated at $7,000.

Daniel Cites 17 Cities, 13 Counties For Traffic Record

DALLAS (AP)—Gov. Price Daniel announced awards today from the Governor's Highway Safety Commission to 17 cities and 13 counties which had no traffic deaths in 1959. He also made awards to 21 counties and 21 cities which reduced their traffic toll. Special awards went to Bexar County, Corpus Christi and Laredo. The presentations were at the annual Governor's Highway Safety Conference, which met with the Texas Safety Council. Daniel said special awards will be made later to newspapers, radio and TV stations for their "unusually excellent cooperation" in traffic safety. These include the Texas Press Assn., Texas Daily Newspaper Assn., and Texas Assn. of Broadcasters. The Department of Public Safety and its director, Homer Garrison Jr., received the governor's special award for contributions to the safety crusade and for outstanding service. Region 2 of the DPS, commanded by Maj. Glen Rose of Houston, received the special award for the "greatest saving of lives in any Department of Public Safety region in 1959." Region 2 reported a reduction of 96 in its 1959 highway death toll, or 25.3 per cent. District 2-A, at Houston, and District 2-B, commanded by Capt. Luther Moore at Beaumont, received special awards for the 23 and 28 per cent reductions in traffic fatalities. The Highway Department and state highway engineer Dewitt Greer were presented the special award for highway engineering. For the second consecutive year, District 12 of the Highway Department at Houston, won the special award for the "greatest achievements in engineering traffic safety." Among the counties, Bexar (San Antonio) ranked in first place among metropolitan counties for a "notable reduction in traffic deaths in 1959." Bexar County was the only major metropolitan county in Texas to show a reduction of as much as 29 per cent over 1958. Corpus Christi won the governor's first place award for "notable reduction in traffic deaths in 1959" among the state's major cities. Corpus Christi's traffic deaths dropped from 21 to 7 in 1959. The special merit citation went to Laredo, only city in the 80,000-100,000 population bracket to show a reduction in traffic deaths for 1959 over 1958. Laredo reduced its death list from 8 in 1958 to 5 in 1959. Special merit citations for having no traffic deaths in 1959 went to the county judges of Collingsworth, Dickens, Goliad, Haskell, Hood, Jeff Davis, Loving, Mills, Ochiltree, Roberts, San Augustine, Somervell and Throckmorton counties. Loving County maintained its record of never recording a traffic death since its organization in 1931. A total of 21 counties showed major reductions in traffic deaths, and their judges got certificates. Those counties included: Mitchell 10 deaths in 1958 and one in 1959; Grimes 12 and 3; Jasper 16 and 5; Chambers 13 and 4; Walker 15 and 5; Hardin 11 and 5; Runtels 13 and 5; Milam 11 and 5; Montgomery 25 and 12; Cameron 46 and 24; Eastland 15 and 8; Wilbarger 11 and 6; and Orange 14 and 8. The list of cities without a traffic death includes Cleburne, College Station, Jacksonville, Snyder, Sulphur Springs and Taylor, all in the 10,000 - 25,000 population bracket. Daniel said College Station and Sulphur Springs have been free of traffic deaths for three years. Cities cited for reduced traffic deaths in 1959, with the percentage of reductions, included: 25,000-30,000 population bracket: Brownsville 37 per cent; Harlingen 64; Marshall 50; Midland 80 and Orange 75. 10,000-25,000 population bracket: Levelland 67; and Vernon 67.

Car Tag Lines Growing Longer

Monday was a big day for the car tag office—$24,741 being paid across the counter for 1960 plates during the day. Tuesday loomed as an even bigger day. Applicants who kept the lobby of the tag office jammed but did not extend into the hallway on Monday, were on hand in larger numbers today. The line extended out into the main corridor and did not diminish as the morning wore on. Friday at 5 p.m. is deadline for obtaining 1960 plates. Mrs. Viola Robinson, tax assessor, inventoried her stock of tags on Monday and sent in a rush order for a supplemental supply. The state sent the county the same number of plates for this year's business it sent in 1959. This was done in spite of the fact that estimates are the number of registrations will be materially greater in 1960. The deputies in the tag office closed the doors at 5 p.m. but it was 8 p.m. before they left their desks. The mass of paper work created by the rush of yesterday made it imperative they work overtime.

Sure Signs Of Spring

In some parts of the country, the robin may be the true harbinger of spring. In West Texas, natives know the season is at hand when the rattlesnakes emerge from their dens. Red Williams (left) and Alex Walker are shown with 36 rattlesnakes they killed on Walker's ranch 15 miles northeast of town. The snakes had from six to 15 rattles each. Williams said they used guns to slay part of the serpents and stomped the others to death.

6 Underfed Children Taken Over By Court

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—Six children—some sick, all underfed—were in a gay hospital nursery today. Authorities took them from their parents and a three-room shack after the death of two sisters. A juvenile court judge ignored cries of the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Morris, and made the children temporary wards after testimony two Morris children died last week of malnutrition and pneumonia. Morris' plywood shack on a bleak hilltop had a living room, bedroom and lean-to, where seven children slept on a single mattress with one blanket, said sheriff's Sgt. Ralph S. Kennedy. One child, Nancy, 3½, died at a hospital Sunday, two days after deputies found the children. "It is marvelous that the children were found when they were," said Sister Francella, superior of the Sisters of Charity who run Our Lady of Providence Nursery at Providence Hospital. It was the March 22 deaths of Carol Ann, 1, that led deputies to the shack home. An autopsy showed Carol died of malnutrition and pneumonia. Court testimony disclosed another child, a year old, died in Texas before the family moved to near Portland in 1954.

IMPROVING The children are improving, Sister Francella said. "The older ones — Kenneth, Joyce and Thelma — are very responsive and very happy children," she said. Kenneth, 8; Thelma, 6; Joyce, 10; Mary, 3 months; Robert, 2½; and David, 4; are the survivors. Thelma, Robert and Mary have pneumonia. "Kenneth and Joyce have been in school, but they have missed a lot on account of sickness," she said. "Joyce is in the second grade. The boy is eight and in the first grade." Robert doesn't walk. Sister Francella said his legs are very thin and he is very thin and very small. Baby Mary is in the same condition. David, she added, is devoid of sparkle and doesn't walk either.

Morris told Judge Carl Dahl that he makes $504 a month working for a logging company. "Your honor, I work very hard seven days a week," Morris said. "I have a little car repair business at home. In the past two years I've built my home and paid for my land." "You seem to make a pretty good salary," the judge said. "I can't see why you're not feeding the children."

"We are!" wailed Mrs. Morris, a tiny, thin and careworn woman with deep dark circles under her eyes. "You just ask our grocer. Every week we have a big grocery bill."

MARCH APPARENTLY GETS SECOND WIND March, which has displayed much fickleness in its weather performance, has evidently decided to go out in the traditional role of a lion. After two or three days of summer weather with the mercury pushing above 80 and the skies blue and clear, Tuesday brought a mild sandstorm. The gusty winds and the drifting dust moved in shortly after dawn and was gathering tempo steadily at midmorning. While the dust had not built up to major dimensions it still offered promise of becoming stronger as the day developed. Visibility had not appreciably diminished, but the wind was strong enough to make it unpleasant for those who had to be out of doors.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Weather Bureau wants to find out more about wind turbulence in clear weather—the kind of turbulence that may have caused a recent airliner crash that killed 63 persons. The plane disaster near Tell City, Ind., March 17 probably was caused by air turbulence or an explosion, Civil Aeronautics Board investigators have indicated. They found a structural failure in the wreckage of the Northwest Airlines prop-jet Electra. Speed limits have since been set for the Electra planes.

Nixon Makes His Toughest Speech

Noon Service Is Added To Easter List

A new feature is being added this year to the Holy Week and Easter observances sponsored by the Big Spring Pastors Association. This will be a series of noon meditations from 12:30 p.m. to 12:55 p.m. Monday through Friday at the First Methodist Church. The traditional Easter Sunrise service will be held in the City Park Amphitheatre with the Rev. Jack Strickland, East Fourth Baptist minister, as the speaker. Speakers for the noon meditations are as follows: April 11, Dr. R. Gage Lloyd; April 12, Dr. Gordon Grooms; April 13, Dr. F. D. O'Brien; April 14, the Rev. S. E. Eldridge; April 15, the Rev. H. W. Bartlett.

At the sunrise services, the Rev. V. Ward Jackson, president of the association, will sound the call to worship, and Wayne Nance will lead the hymns. Scriptures will be read by the Rev. Royce Womack, while the prayers will be led by the Rev. John Black and the Rev. Al Seddon. Nance also will be presented in a vocal solo.

NOTED BANGS STILL THERE

WASHINGTON (AP)—Mamie Eisenhower has changed her hairdo but not enough to upset one of Washington's most famous sights. Her bangs are still there. The First Lady obviously was proud Monday of her light brown hairdo with its pageboy effect in the rear. She also was proud of her trim figure. As she showed up for a ceremony on the White House lawn opening the American Cancer Society's educational and fund-raising crusade, photographers crowded in for a picture. "Mrs. Eisenhower asked: 'Are you trying to show my new figure and my new hairdo?'" Both were the result of a two-week stay at Maine Chance, a health and beauty resort in Arizona. She returned from there last week.

To Make Tour Of Every State

By The Associated Press Vice President Richard M. Nixon intends to be a hard-hitting campaigner and a responsible statesman this political year. Monday night and today, he displayed his skill at both. In his most aggressive political speech of 1960, he told a Republican party rally in Lincoln, Neb., Monday night that, if nominated for the presidency: "I intend to carry this campaign into every state, city and town that limitations of time, space and physical endurance will permit." Today he prepared for a helicopter trip to Camp David, Md., where he will join President Eisenhower and Prime Minister Harold Macmillan of Britain in their talks on such global problems as a nuclear test ban. Two candidates for the Democratic nomination, Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota and Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts, campaign in Wisconsin, where they clash in the April 5 presidential primary. Kennedy leaves Minneapolis early today and starts another round of barnstorming in the western part of Wisconsin. Humphrey put in a strenuous day in the state's Sixth Congressional District. He lunched with industrial officials, made speeches, shook hands on street corners, appeared on radio and television, toured factories and sampled Sheboygan's famous bratwurst. In Lincoln, a crowd of 8,000 filled the basketball coliseum of the University of Nebraska to hear Nixon's 38-minute speech. Their applause stopped the speech 18 times. "With Republican strength in the Congress at its lowest level since 1936," he said, "anyone who does not recognize that we are in for the fight of our lives must be smoking opium." In his campaign, Nixon said, he would not stand only on the record of the Eisenhower administration. "A record is something to build on, not to stand pat on," he told the rally. "Stand-pat, hold-the-line thinking is not enough to meet the great challenge confronting the American people at home and abroad." Describing the farm problem as one of the GOP's most difficult issues, Nixon challenged the Democrats "to fish or cut bait" on the President's request for Congress to come up with a farm bill.

Ike, Mac Call Top Experts To Consider Ban Proposal

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP)—President Eisenhower and Prime Minister Harold Macmillan called in their top scientific and foreign policy advisers today to consider a new U.S.-British proposal to ban nuclear weapons tests. New strategy for summit negotiations with the Soviet Union on other world issues also is understood to be shaping up in the two-power talks now in their second day at Camp David, Md. Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Secretary of State Christian A. Herter, were to fly by helicopter from Washington to join the morning session. Also due at Camp David were Dr. George B. Kistiakowsky, the President's science adviser; John A. McCaone, chairman of the Atomic Energy Commission; Sir William Penney, nuclear science adviser to Macmillan; James H. Douglas, deputy secretary of defense, and Philip J. Farley, special assistant to Herter for disarmament and atomic energy. Those and other experts worked in Washington Monday after Macmillan and Eisenhower came to Camp David. It was understood that they had worked out the major problems involved in developing a united British-American plan for the next move in nuclear test talks with the Soviet Union at Geneva. Eisenhower and Macmillan, who flew to the Catoctin Mountain retreat before lunch, spent more than five hours together Monday afternoon and evening. Late in the day they visited Eisenhower's Gettysburg farm. Presidential press secretary James Hagerty said that apart from the nuclear test problem they talked about a number of other subjects involved in summit preparations. They are to meet with French President Charles de Gaulle and Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev at Paris May 16.

S. African Race Turmoil Quieting

JOHANNESBURG (AP)—Large numbers of Negroes returned to work today after a one-day boycott that exploded into new violence and bloodshed. As signs appeared that South Africa's racial turmoil was diminishing for the time being, police swept through the Negro quarters looking for ringleaders of the rioting. Police reported that the district where 350,000 Negroes live outside Johannesburg was almost back to normal. This was the scene of the first demonstrations against the passbooks all nonwhites had to carry until the government yielded and suspended them temporarily. The work boycott was called by Negro leaders to mourn the death of 72 Negroes killed a week ago in demonstrations against the passbooks. At least three persons including a white policeman were killed Monday night in the orgy of violence and arson around Johannesburg and Cape Town. Eight Negro police were missing. Col. J. C. Lammer, deputy police commissioner in Johannesburg, said four Africans were arrested in connection with the wounding of three others. The body of a Negro civilian was found beside a badly damaged automobile in one Johannesburg township. The violence erupted as Negroes attacked others returning from work after ignoring a request of the African National Congress to stay home and mourn 72 Negroes killed by white police gunfire last week. Trains were stoned, municipal buildings and mission churches set ablaze and roads blocked as inflamed mobs roamed through the nonwhite settlements and even penetrated into the center of Cape Town. A Johannesburg newspaper reported new riots today inside a Negro settlement near the city. The business section of Johannesburg returned slowly to normal. Streets were more crowded although many Negroes were delayed reaching the city by blocked rail lines. Rail service was only partially restored. Defense Minister Jacobus Fouché told the Senate in Cape Town that army and air force units had been reorganized and strengthened with armed cars to help put down any further riots but would act only if the police called on them. The U. N. Security Council meets in New York Wednesday to take up last week's police shootings, despite South Africa's insistence it is an internal matter outside U.N. jurisdiction.

Negroes Held After Balking At High Price

HOUSTON (AP)—Four Negroes were charged with disturbing the peace Monday night after refusing to pay $2.50 a cup for coffee at a cafe. The three men and a woman sought service at the Tassia Drive-in in northeast Houston. "When they finished their coffee I showed them the special menu for Negroes," said Mrs. Eudelia Yabra, a waitress. The special menu sets charges of $2.50 for a cup of coffee, $15 for steaks, $6.50 for ham and eggs, and $3 for a grilled cheese sandwich. Mrs. Yabra said the Negroes refused to pay for their coffee, so she called police. The Corporation Court charges were filed against Eugene Jackson, 29; Mrs. Jackson, 29; Doll David Johnson, 31; and Willie Green, 37. Mrs. Yabra said Jackson first entered shortly before midnight and ordered coffee to go. She said the other Negroes entered as she was placing the coffee containers in a paper bag. She said they sat at a counter and drink the coffee. Eugene Martinez, 45, owner of the cafe, said he has never served Negroes. "But when this sit-down thing started I prepared this special menu," he said. "Negroes can eat here all they want. But they're going to have to pay heavy for it."

Mrs. Yabra said Jackson called her "an ugly monkey" and told her he would only pay a dime for a cup of coffee. Martinez said his regular price is a nickel a cup.

Road Jobs Awarded

W. D. Caldwell Inc., was awarded contract Tuesday to asphalt 2.5 miles of Howard County roads. West Texas Sand and Gravel Co. will supply the needed gravel. The Howard County Commissioners Court opened bids for the jobs and made the awards. Caldwell was the only bidder for the asphalt part of the project. His bid was $4,670 for the two jobs. There were two bids on gravel for the roads. R. E. James Gravel Co. bid $1,342.50. West Texas Sand and Gravel bid was $1,090.25. All the bidders are Big Spring firms. The roads to be surfaced are the old San Angelo Highway from the intersection with FM 700 south and west to the Marcy school and the Hilltop road, beginning at the eastward from the Snyder highway for one mile.

K Again Raises German Spectre

REIMS, France (AP)—Nikita S. Khrushchev charged today that the master race myth is reviving and vengeance is being reborn in West Germany. Standing less than 100 miles from the West German border on the traditional invasion route from the east, the Soviet Premier told a luncheon audience: "I am disturbed by the words of (Chancellor) Konrad Adenauer that Germany has the killing of saving Europe. "We must not accept such a theory that the Germans are a superior race and that the others are servants. "We must not allow ourselves to fail in an action which will prevent the aggressor from attacking us a third time. Vengeance is being reborn in Germany." Khrushchev's verbal explosion came after a morning tour of battlefields of World War I in the Verdun area, where nearly a half million Frenchmen died in fighting off the Germans in 1916. A half-mile long parade with tumbleweeds the principal floral decorations for floats will be the main attraction of the festival.

DEAR ABBY

TAKE A CLOSE LOOK

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Four months ago I was introduced to a man, 39, who was divorced and had a 13-year-old son. In a few weeks we were engaged. I found out later that he was told that I was a very rich girl (FALSE) and that I could set him up in business.

I didn't hear a word from him for a week and he lives right here in town, so I called him. His mother answered the phone. She told me that he had changed his mind about marrying me because they found out I had no money, but he didn't have the nerve to tell me himself. I was dumbfounded! Shortly afterwards, my boy friend called me and told me not to listen to his mother, and in spite of what she had said, he loved me and wanted to marry me. The marriage plans are half-made. Should I go through with this wedding or not?

NAMELESS
DEAR NAMELESS: The apple usually doesn't fall far from the tree. If I were you, I'd put off the wedding until I looked over the whole orchard very, very carefully.

DEAR ABBY: About twice a month the kids in our group go to a movie. We are all 13 and 14 and have to pay $1.20 or else lie about our ages so we can get in for 25 cents. Most of us guys are tall so we always have the same boy get all the tickets as he is small. I would like to know if you think it is fair for us to go in this way.

YOUNG ADULT
DEAR YOUNG ADULT: Don't rationalize. Lying—whether it's about your age or anything else—is lying. Pay the adult admission and be a man.

DEAR ABBY: My husband shouts back at the television. If there is something or someone he doesn't like, he curses at the top of his voice. Abby, we live in a project and the walls are thin and I am ashamed to face my neighbors in the morning for fear they might think my husband has been yelling at me like that. What should I do?

EMBARRASSED
DEAR EMBARRASSED: Tell your sad tale of woe to the biggest blubber-mouth in the neighborhood. Then sit back and let HER solve your problem.

Lou Anne Parsons, senior in the Hankamer School of Business at Baylor University, last week was the only woman out of 17 undergraduates initiated into Beta Gamma Sigma, national business scholarship fraternity. Membership was restricted to the upper 5 per cent of the class. She is president of Phi Gamma Nu, honorary business fraternity, and recently was selected as the outstanding student in the school of business administration. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Parsons.

April 30 Set As Deadline For Rendition

Insofar as the tax assessor's office is concerned, it's just one thing after another.

Deadline for the purchase of 1960 car plates expires Friday.

Monday marks the beginning of the last month in which taxpayers can render their property to be qualified for homestead exemptions.

The owner of a piece of property who neglects to claim his homestead exemption stands a good chance of getting to pay taxes on an extra $3,000 valuation. Mrs. Viola Robinson, county tax assessor, points out.

The opportunity to make such application expires on April 30.

It is the hope of the assessor's office that the property owners will come in early and claim their exemptions, rather than wait until the last fading days of April.

Rendition property and claiming the homestead exemption is a relatively simple procedure. All the taxpayer has to do is give the deputy his name and address and then, when the assessment sheet (with declared value) is presented, sign it on the proper line.

Thunderstorms Gather In State

By The Associated Press
Thunderstorms, some brief and fierce, were gathering Tuesday for an assault on East and central portions of Texas.

Cooler weather after temperatures in the 80s and 90s Tuesday was expected for Wednesday in every section of the state.

The Weather Bureau predicted widely scattered thunderstorms for East Texas, South Central Texas and North Central Texas. Wind warning flags were displayed on all North Central Texas lakes as gusty blows began Tuesday morning.

Shortly before dawn, temperatures ranged from 51 at Dalhart to 69 at Beaumont. They were expected to rise swiftly with the sun.

Fog sheltered the upper coast before daylight and cloudiness extended from the coast into some stretches of North Central Texas. But the rest of the state was clear to only partly cloudy.

Red China Fails To Set Off A-Bomb

TOKYO (AP) — Communist China apparently did not set off an atomic explosion Monday as a member of the Indian Parliament had predicted she would.

Japan's sensitive instruments for recording abnormal atmospheric pressures and earth shock waves picked up nothing. In the past they quickly reported Soviet and American nuclear tests.

Dr. Raghuvira, a member of the Indian Parliament with private contacts in China, said on March 8 the Red Chinese would explode an atomic bomb with Soviet help on March 28 near Urumchi, in Sinkiang province.

More County Farmers Take Optional B Cotton Plan

More than 94 per cent of Howard County Cotton farmers prefer the government A plan to the B plan, even though the latter gives the farmer 40 per cent additional cotton acreage.

There are 859 cotton farms in the county. Only 43 have selected the B plan for cotton allotment according to Gabe Hammack, with the Agricultural Stabilization Committee. These 43 farms have an aggregate cotton acreage of 6,442 of the county's total of 69,702 acres earmarked for cotton production.

Hammack said that 6.5 per cent of the acreage is under the B farm rating but that only 5.5 per cent of the farms in the county have adopted this plan.

However, the 45 farmers this year who chose the B plan represents an 11-farm increase over 1959. There were 34 farms in the B plan that year.

Under the A plan, the farmer has a guaranteed price of 28.97 cents per pound for middling 7-8 cotton. If he adopts the B plan his guaranteed price is 23.18 cents. However, he has 40 per cent more acreage. If his original allotment under the A plan was 1,000 acres, and he selects the B plan, he has 1,400 acres. It was pointed out that those who choose the B plan are counting on the open market price for cotton being more than 28.97 cents.

The deadline for the farmers to express their choice of plans expired on March 16.

Hammack said that a few acres of cotton allotment have been surrendered and that in the next week or 10 days, this relinquished cotton acreage will be reallocated to other farmers.

Hammack said that some counties this year are shifting heavily to the B plan and that in Arizona and other places where long staple cotton is produced, most of the crop will be under that plan.

Daily Average Oil Production Down

TULSA (AP) — Daily average production of domestic oil declined 39,034 to 7,121,710 barrels during the week ended March 26, the Oil and Gas Journal said today.

Oklahoma has the best increase, 14,950 to 548,500 barrels. The Journal estimated 1960 production at 619,964,570 barrels compared to 612,387,100 a year ago.

Colorado was down 1,800 to 128,900; Louisiana, 1,150 to 1,096,250; and Arkansas 775 to 82,500.

Production was unchanged in Texas, 2,674,625 barrels; and New Mexico 315,100.

But when the Texas oilman published his novel recently, his branch appeared as a modest paperback. It's one of many intriguing paradoxes about one of the world's richest men, whose immense story is presented in the following article.

By SAUL PETT
DALLAS (AP)—On week day mornings, he drives himself downtown. He parks his car three blocks from the office to save 50 cents in parking fees. He carries his lunch from home in a brown paper sack. He is dressed less impressively than nine out of ten business men you meet, including those on their way to bankruptcy court. His suits usually are store-bought, not custom-tailored. On occasion, he wears the wrong suit jacket while the right one is being repaired for battle fatigue.

By the improbable standards usually attributed to his kind in Texas, he lives a life of stringent austerity. He owns no yachts or private planes, has no chauffeur for his four cars, and maintains only two homes—one at a profit. He is something less than an ostentatious tipper.

He has his own comb-trimmer but frequently allows his wispy white hair to grow long at the temples and back of the neck. With his hair long, with those blue-gray eyes and that general look of gentle yearning, he suggests a struggling unknown author, which he is, in a manner of speaking.

HATES FOOD PRICES
When he travels, he flies commercial. Away from home, he often is irritated by food prices. "I feel," he says, "like a sucker paying $3 for a hotel breakfast." At home at night, he personally goes around the house turning off lights.

Haroldson Lafayette Hunt, at 71 one of the richest men in the world, is thrifty and admits it. He sees, not a contradiction, but a connection between thrift and great wealth. Estimates of his fortune range from 400 million to two billion dollars. Estimates of his weekly income range from one million before taxes to one million after taxes.

How much is H. L. Hunt really worth? In financial circles, this question is even bigger than what is Jack Parr really like.

Hunt, himself, isn't telling. He smiles at estimates, neither confirming nor denying. He does not appear outraged by either the high or low guesses. He implies it's ridiculous to draw up lists of the world's richest men but seems to be aware of the published rankings, including the latest which places him second to J. Paul Getty, another oil baron.

DOESN'T CARE
Pinned down, he says he has no way of knowing what others are worth, doesn't really care, and what's more, he says, he has no accurate way of knowing his own worth.

The Hunts have business interests in 15 or 20 states (he was sure at the moment) as well as in Canada, Africa and the Middle East. They're in oil, cotton, timber growing, cattle, pecan groves and real estate, and one son, Lamar, also owns the Dallas franchise of the new pro football league.

Hunt is a tall, erect man, whose face resembles Herbert Hoover's and whose politics are to the right of the former president. With a reporter, he is polite, friendly, cautious. He reveals little of the inner man except a fear of what may be said of him in print.

He personally that emerges is a bland one, as plain as the clothes he wears, as undefined as his soft, ringless fingers. But behind the blandness, one suspects that H. L. Hunt can be as positive as a pile-driver when he wants to be.

MORE FUN
He tolerates—almost seems to enjoy—questions about his wealth up to a point and then, with polite firmness, changes the subject. He clearly gives the impression that making money is far more fun than possessing or spending it.

What is Hunt's recipe for making money?
"You have to be lucky... You have to be of an acquisitive nature, aggressive and thrifty. You have to be honest and fair or at least have people think you are. You can't do a great volume of business unless your word is accepted."

"I've never tried to become the biggest oil man or anything else. I simply like to do things—oil, cattle, real estate, timber, whatever—on as big a scale as I can."

For all practical purposes, I regard a man with $200,000 as well off as a man with 200 million. A millionaire who throws his money around is stupid; he gives our Communist enemies lots of propaganda against the U.S.

"I don't spend much money. There's nothing I want but what I'd buy. But I have no inclination to throw money away."

THRIFTY ATTITUDE
This attitude is strikingly reflected in the waiting room outside the Hunt Oil Co. offices. The only reading matter I noticed was two copies of a pocket-book titled "Alpaca," written and published by H. L. Hunt.

A hand across each book cover said, "For inspection only. Please do not remove." A poster on a table shrilled in large letters, "If you have an open mind, like romance, love, freedom, you'll be fascinated by 'Alpaca.' Copies may be purchased from the receptionist for 50 cents."

Into each life, even that of a multimillionaire author, a little economy must fall.

Although billed as a novel, "Alpaca" mostly concerns itself with a constitution devised by Hunt for a small mythical country. With picturesque logic, he suggests a graduated system of suffrage whereby men in the highest income tax brackets get seven votes, not one; two bonus votes go to each citizen who waives old age benefits or government salary; no literacy or lunacy test is required for any voter; and a citizen can delegate others better informed than he to vote for him.

AN EVANGELIST
Hunt is evangelical about the message and personally seeks to promote the book. He recently made a rare public appearance in a Dallas book store where his two step-daughters sang, "How much is that book in the window?" He even sent free copies to heads of state in Europe, Africa and the Near East.

And the "H. L. Hunt Parade of Products," which sponsors radio broadcasts in the Southwest, now plugs a new one—"Alpaca, that gripping romance..."

Hunt had 100,000 copies of the book printed by a Fort Worth printer noted chiefly for his production of telephone books. He preferred, Hunt said, a cheap soft-cover book to keep the cost down and achieve greater distribution.

(In New York, a publisher told me this story: Hunt sent him the "Alpaca" manuscript but the publisher wasn't interested. An emissary then arrived from Dallas, declaring, "You realize you're not dealing with? Hunt is worth 600 million dollars. I'm worth several million myself and I'm only his messenger!" The publisher still said no.)

INTENSE INTEREST
Outside of making money, Hunt's chief interest is public affairs, and his interest is intense. Several years ago, he spent 2 1/2 million dollars promoting "Facts Forum," a series of radio discussion programs which became hotly controversial. Critics said it was ultra-conservative propaganda, anti-Catholic, anti-Semitic and anti-Negro. Hunt denied the charges.

Today, Hunt is passionately devoted to a new radio program called "Lifelines," which his companies sponsor on 50 stations in the Southwest. It is a partly political, partly religious discussion program delivered by a Nashville preacher. Among other things, it exceeds its jurisdiction, declares liberty faces as government increases, laments federal spending and federal taxing and decries the loss of constitutional freedoms, among which it includes a man's right to choose his own neighbors or keep a health inspector out of his house.

DEVOTED TO PROGRAM
The Hunts are so devoted to "Lifelines," they frequently listen to the same broadcast twice (from Dallas and New Orleans) and post signs advertising the show on their lawns, mail box and cars. One red and white earrings with the word "Lifelines" dangling from her lobes.

Hunt says he is not a "heavy" contributor to political campaigns. He did not, he says, support the late Sen. Joseph McCarthy financially although he admired much of his work. But Gen. Douglas MacArthur had been nominated for president, Hunt says, "I'd have gone all out for him financially."

He is not optimistic about the state of the world or his country. He thinks the U.S. faces imminent danger of bankruptcy and "is moving fast toward communism." He thinks the United States should pull out of the United Nations unless it gets a greater voice in that body which, he says, "is already dominated by the communists."

And if we go along as we are, as we get sold on co-existence, we ourselves will become a Communist country. I don't want a war but the tolerance and friendship evidenced by the Khrushchev and Mikoyan visits here are alarming. Such things that would not have been tolerated three or four years ago."

Hunt thinks the times call for a "strong man" in the White House and feels Sen. Lyndon Johnson may be the answer. Curiously, Johnson is not among Hunt's favorite senators because of his "New Deal voting record." He much prefers the work of Sens. Eastland, Talmadge, Goldwater, Bridges Byrd and other conservatives.

Then why does he favor Johnson for the Democratic nomination?
"Because, if we are to be saved from communism, a strong man will have to do it. Johnson has shown he can be a strong man the way he leads those Democrats and Republicans around in the Senate as though they had rings in their noses."

Ed Fisher, owner and operator of Fisher's Little Shop and also the Casual Shop, Monday signed a lease for occupying new quarters a block east of the present location at 1003-A Eleventh Place.

The new location has been leased from Cecil McDonald and will be immediately east of the new Wacker's building now under construction. Educator Defends American Mentality

By G. K. HODENFIELD
AP Education Writer

WASHINGTON (AP)—The American people aren't as morose as the television networks seem to think, the editor of the National Parent-Teacher magazine said today.

Eva H. Grant of Chicago said "We dare the networks to have a national survey conducted by a reliable research agency on what people want to see."
She predicted "the results would surprise the networks and confuse the rating bureaus," and would show "that the American people's TV-IQ will be higher than the morose one usually attributed to them."

In an address prepared for the White House Conference on Children and Youth, Mrs. Grant said, "Children's programs, with few exceptions, are at worst stupid and offensive; at best inane and artless. What we need are more (good) programs and none of those spawned by people whose polluted hallucinations make one think they must consciously or unconsciously hate children."

American children, she said, should be provided programs that "tug at the heart and stir and stretch the mind. When I think that there are about 40 million boys and girls in school today, it mystifies me that some network doesn't go all out to reach this audience with a show all their own."

"For young adults and grown-up adults we want fewer frothy soap operas, silly quizzes and stunts, shoddy crime thrillers, Westerns that traffic in terror and stereotyped variety shows."

A similar theme was sounded in the prepared address of Prof. Kimball Wilds of the University of Florida, who said young people have become accustomed to violence on their home screens. "We can't know how much of the rise in violent crime is due to the steady diet of murder and mayhem fed our children and youth on television, but we have seen with our own eyes that youth are not horrified by it, that they consider such behavior normal and commonplace," Wilds said.

Wilds said another phenomenon of American life—suburbia—also is having a powerful effect on young people. More than 25 per cent of all the people in the United States live in the suburbs, he said, and the number is growing.

He described suburban life as an antisocial, segregated affair where "children find themselves in a society in which it seems all people are much like them. They do not learn to live with diversity."

Because income earners go to another section of the community to earn their living, Wilds said, "the child gains an unrealistic picture of the role of work. Work is something done by less fortunate people or assigned for disciplinary reasons."

Wool Incentive Deadline Set
Applications for incentive payment on wool grown and sold during the 1959 marketing year will be accepted at the Agricultural Stabilization committee office through May 2.

Gabe Hammack, manager of the ASC office, said that the payments are available to sheepmen who grew and sold wool in the marketing period which expires on March 31.

He said the exact amount of the incentive payment has not been announced. A sheepman who neglects to file his application by May 2 will forfeit his claim to this payment.

While wool is not a major item in the Howard County agricultural picture, Hammack explained there is some production of this commodity and that growers should act promptly to benefit from this payment plan.

Civil Docket Washes Out

It turned out there are no cases for trial after all in 118th District Court this week.
When Judge Ralph Caton convened a jury panel at 1 p.m. Monday, he was informed that the one case left on the docket (and, earlier in the day listed as ready for trial) had been settled by agreement. Three others, which had been checked as probably ready, were also announced as settled. In all nine of 14 litigations on the docket had been terminated by out-of-court settlement.

The panel, which had been instructed by the court to report at 1 p.m. instead of 10 a.m. as usual, was thanked by the court and excused from further duty.
Caton expressed himself satisfied with the effectiveness of his plan of delaying the jury's appearance until 1 p.m., leaving the forenoon free to clear away the docket and hear any non-jury motions. He pointed out that it saved the jurors several hours of pointless waiting in the court room.

TRY THIS ON YOUR WIFE'S INTUITION!

Some people think women aren't much interested in cars (they're mostly men!). But if your wife sees and drives Valiant just once, then says it's the car for you—don't be alarmed. The gals have a way of knowing.

She knows she'll look good in Valiant, ride well in it, have lots of room inside and trunkside. She's absolutely certain that Valiant will give the family budget a new lease on life. And you know something?—she's 100% right.

Valiant does ride well. Torsion-Aire suspension soaks up rough-road guff before it can get to you. There's room inside for a well-fed family of six, plus a vacation-sized (25 cu. ft.) trunk.

As far as the economy angle's concerned, Valiant has an inclined engine that gets a slew of miles from every gallon of regular; a fully-unionized, rust-proofed body; an alternator electrical system that makes your battery last longer; a price that makes everybody happy.

So if you usually have to twist her arm a little when you go to see a new car, you can relax at your Plymouth-Valiant dealer's. Valiant does it for you. Just call it intuition.

By DAVE CHEAVENS
AUSTIN (AP)—What one Texas newspaper did to anticipate and help solve two major community growth problems was described today at a conference of editors and municipal planning authorities.

Ed Wischamper, managing editor of the Abilene Reporter News, said a newspaper must first determine the problems, plan to meet them, then "after thorough study and evaluation of the situation, focus the spotlight on the problem."

Wischamper detailed the role his newspaper played in what he called "a daring project in which Abilene ripped out its ailing heart and installed a vibrant new one" in downtown rehabilitation.

The newspaper, he said, described the problem in a series of stories and pictures. Then it coordinated these with editorials commenting on the facts presented in the news columns.

SAME METHOD
The same procedure, Wischamper said, was followed on the big water bond issue project for Abilene and three neighboring towns. This campaign brought the newspaper The Associated Press Managing Editors' Assn. Community Service Award for 1959.

"You don't suddenly tell your readers some morning that your town is out of water or faced with that prospect a month away," Wischamper said. "Your reporting of the water supply subject in all its aspects over the years has kept the people aware of the situation."

The public affairs reporting conference, sponsored by the University of Texas School of Journalism, is dealing with problems of community growth developing from tremendous population increases. It is in its second day.

Two questions were considered Monday—will Texas cities turn to local sales or income taxes in their desperate need for more income? Should there be some way of preventing the "grotesque urban sprawl" of planless decentralization of industry's near today's cities?

LIKELY PROSPECTS

James McGrew, research director of the Texas Research League, answered the revenue question by saying that permissive sales, income or perhaps gasoline taxes loom as likely future prospects in city financing in Texas. The Legislature will not act at all to help cities resolve their pressing financial problems until the state tax question—still unanswered—is worked out, said McGrew.

Charles Luckman of Los Angeles, prominent architect and city planning specialist, said the growth of new suburban areas around the cities has been planless and disorganized.

"It is uneconomic and unsatisfactory," said Luckman. "As people leave the city because conditions become unfavorable for good living there, so also do industries seek more convenient locations for their plants outside the city limits. Their movement, like the movement of the population, is generally proceeding without plan or foresight. This planless decentralization of industry is even more dangerous than the random flight of residents to outlying areas."

SPREADING EVILS

"In a very short time, it will produce outside the city the same unfavorable conditions of smoke, soot, fumes and snarled traffic, which now prevail within it."

"This alarming migration of the unplaned grotesque urban sprawl must not be allowed to continue unchecked. It must not be allowed to ruin our great urban areas."

"From my point of view, our existing cities cannot simply be discarded like worn out machinery. They play too important a part in our destiny. How then can we check this uncontrolled and undesirable exodus?"

Adequate, wise and sensible planning is the answer, said Luckman.

"Planning in all of its aspects will have to be emphasized as never before. This goes for the building itself, as well as the way it is fitted into its setting. For example, today's grotesque and unplanned suburban sprawl must give way to plans for space and grace which reflect the 'humanization of cities.' The use of materials, like the use of skills, should be measured only by the yardstick of human needs and aspirations.

"Unless these are served, a building, no matter how beautiful, will deny the importance of the human being by failing to consider that buildings are for people—and must therefore be planned, designed and built to embody the visual and aesthetic values of the human scale. By the human scale I mean the treatment and reactions of people as individuals. It means that, to achieve this human scale, a feeling of the appreciation, peace and dignity of one person for the park bench, the drinking fountain, the reflecting pool, the textured wall surface, must be the prime consideration."

Public Relations Course Underway On HCJC Campus

Jule Thomas, training specialist and staff member of the University of Texas, began the Public Relations course Monday night in the Junior College Auditorium.

The course is to run for four nights and is designed to aid people in knowing and understanding public relations and how to use it most effectively. Those interested can still enroll tonight.

Frank Dunlap, Distributive Education teacher at the local high school, says he had never heard a more lucid analysis of the subject.

"There weren't too many people at the first meeting," said Dunlap. "But there'll be more. Those that did come will certainly be back, and others will hear about how informative and helpful this course can be."

Thomas said that there are many and varied definitions of the term "public relations." One he thought most complete and understandable was, "Public relations is simply the task of interpreting your company and its products to the public."

The course will last through Thursday night and each session will be held at 7:30 p.m. in the Howard County Junior College Auditorium.

Cattle Owners Are Urged To Have Brucellosis Tests Run

The blood testing laboratory, which has been here through March running tests on Howard County cattle for brucellosis, will be moved from the county on Friday.

In the meantime, Jimmy Taylor, county agent, pointed out there are a considerable number of cattle in the county which have not been tested. He warned that cattle owners, whether they have one cow or a big herd, must have their stock tested.

He urged that any person with one or more cows report to the county agent's office or to the laboratory at once and arrange to have the required test made.

He said that in the tests so far, not over 1 per cent of all the cattle have been shown to be infected with brucellosis. However, statistically speaking, more than 5 per cent of all the herds tested have yielded proven reactors.

If related herd totals do not change this figure, he said, a complete retest of all herds will have to be run. If all cattle in the county are tested the chances are good the percentage figure on all herds can be diminished to the 5 per cent minimum level. That is why, he pointed out, it is vitally important that every cattle owner make certain his herd is tested.

Due to the plans of the laboratory to move out of the county on Friday, it is imperative that cattlemen act promptly. Taylor urged all cattle owners whose stock has not been tested to get in touch with him or the laboratory at once and arrange for the tests to be made.

FIS Pilots Finish School

Twelve pilots of the 331st Fighter Interceptor Squadron have already completed the F-102 Ground School conducted by the Field Training Detachment at Webb.

The course, the first phase of the Delta Dagger transition program, prepares interceptor pilots of the Webb-based unit for further training at Richards - Gebaur AFB, Kansas City, Mo. The "pioneer" trainees are:

Maj. Karubah Carnahan, Capt. Roy C. Robinette Jr., Capt. Alan S. Christner Jr., Capt. Donald L. Olson, Capt. Howard D. Below, Capt. Andrew J. Dougherty, Capt. Albert Shortt, Capt. Donald R. Thiel, Capt. Carl W. Schaffhauser, Capt. Ronald D. Kovar, Capt. Lynn Murray and Capt. Javier Blanco.

The ground school course here covers basic facts on the F-102, procedures (starting, flight control, air starts, etc.), performance data, the weapons systems (radar, rockets, missiles), hydraulic and electrical systems, and flight instruments. Pilots are also familiarized with the aircraft's engine, the Pratt and Whitney J-57-23A.

Because the F-102 simulator has not been installed at Webb as yet, pilots are sent to Richards-Gebaur upon completion of the first phase here. Those already ordered to the Missouri base are Maj. Karubah, Capt. Robinette, Kovar, Murray, and 1st Lt. Gustave Devier.

Police Check Three Burglaries

The current rash of burglaries and thefts continued at a rapid pace during the night and police are turning most of their attention toward apprehending the burglars.

Chief C. L. Rogers said he was concerned with the large number of burglaries reported during the past few days and called for residents to take every precaution to discourage illegal entries.

The Cameron Lumber Co., 700 Scurry, was entered during the night. An attempt was made to break open the safe and two coin-operated machines were assaulted.

Burglars took about six dollars from the St. Thomas Church, 605 N. Main. The Douglas Housing Project reported some cabinets taken during the night.

Names Missed In Band Winners

Two names were unintentionally omitted from the list of those sharing in band contest honors as carried in Monday's Herald. Pann Duntz placed in second division (excellent) in the alto sax solo contest. Lida Fiveash was among those who served as accompanists for the solos and ensembles.

Researcher Sees 'Safer' Cigarettes

By ALTON BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Science Writer

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—"Safer" cigarettes may already be on the market, and a cancer researcher says he hopes to learn if they really are safer.

These safer smokes may be those containing only one-fourth the nicotine and one-half the tar content of standard non-filter cigarettes, said Dr. E. Ouyler Hammond, director of statistical research for the American Cancer Society.

A vast, six-year study of more than one million Americans, now under way by the ACS, may show whether those who switched to the "safer" cigarettes actually live longer. Dr. Hammond told a seminar for science writers.

Dr. Hammond is convinced cigarette smoking is "the principal cause" of lung cancer now.

Despite all recent warnings, cigarette sales are at a new high, but perhaps the warning hasn't fallen on deaf ears because sales of filter tipped and low-tar, low-nicotine cigarettes have increased tremendously.

Dr. Hammond said "It appears the majority of Americans want to smoke, but they want to do so without running the risk of lung cancer or any of the other diseases associated with cigarette smoking."

Dr. Hammond declared cigarette manufacturers should be "required to make known the tar and nicotine content of their brand."

He said that "having a high regard for individual freedom, I would be opposed to the prohibition of cigarettes even if it would work."

Dr. Oscar Auerbach, a pathologist who has made a special study of lung tissues, declared "I have never seen a man who died of squamous or oat cell cancer of the lung—nor has anyone else shown me a case of this kind—in the last 3½ years who was not a smoker."

Squamous and oat cell types of cancer account for the majority of lung cancers, said Dr. Auerbach, of the Veterans Administration, East Orange, N.J.

Dr. Michael B. Shimkin of the National Cancer Institute, Bethesda, Md., declared studies pointing to the cigarette smoking as a cause of lung cancer amounted to a breakthrough in knowledge.

He said "the elimination of the cigarette habit would reduce the incidence of lung cancer by 60 per cent, saving some 20,000 deaths from lung cancer per year. The tobacco industry, which has put up millions to finance research, contends there is no scientific proof of a connection between smoking and lung cancer."

Big Spring Exploration No. 1 Powell has been spotted as a 3,000-foot test in Dimmit County, one mile west of Carrizo Springs. It will be located 330 from the south and 1,263 from east lines of survey No. 7, Lim & Co., Abstract No. 934, and is an offset to a gas discovery drilled by the operator last December.

Big Spring Exploration No. 1 Hardin, in southeastern Kent County, drilled Tuesday 7,024 feet in Mississippi chart. It is projected to 7,400 feet to test the Ellenburger.

Incorporators Listed For Proposed Lamesa Bank

LAMESA—Eleven incorporators listing opening capitalization of $400,000 will form the nucleus of The American State Bank here, providing a charter is granted by the State Banking Commission.

No date has yet been set for a hearing, although it is expected to be in May.

The original incorporators and proposed positions in the bank include: R. D. Brown, presently president of the First National Bank in Dalhart, executive vice president; John Saleh, attorney and director; Fred Henderson, chairman of the board; D. L. Adcock Sr., president of the board; J. D. McPhaul, W. L. Gilliam and Dick Collins, board members; and D. L. Adcock Jr., E. D. Adcock, Henry Stafford and Jac McPhaul, other incorporators. With the exception of Brown, all are Dawson County residents.

Listed among the reasons for the establishment of the bank here was the continued and steady growth of Lamesa and Dawson County, plus the large trade area which surrounds the Lamesa vicinity. There will be 4,000 shares of stock—priced at $100 per share—and no one person or group of persons will be permitted to purchase controlling interests.

In the event a charter is granted, the group is prepared to immediately let a contract and begin construction of an ultra-modern $150,000 banking facility.

The site for the proposed bank is in downtown Lamesa on a presently undeveloped plot owned by J. D. McPhaul.

There are two other banks, both national, in Lamesa and one savings and loan institution.

Murder Charge
NATCHITOCHES, La. (AP)—Joe Mack Coutee, 23-year-old convict, was returned Monday to face a murder charge in the knife slaying of his 74-year-old grand-mother.

On The Bow

Few jeeps in the annual jeep derby, or ships on the sea, have anything more decorative than model Josie Johns at the fore. Josie is posing to call attention to the annual up-and-down-hill Jeep Derby contest April 21-23 over "the roughest track in the U. S. A." The contest is part of a general Spring fiesta celebrating the riches of the Rio Grande Valley and the scenic spots of the New Mexico Southwest.

Council Reviews Police Situation

Members of the City Commission Monday looked into the recent police department personnel matters and announced that the two discharged officers would be given a hearing at the April 12 meeting.

In an informal discussion the commissioners compared notes of the incident and questioned Chief C. L. Rogers and City Manager A. K. Steinheimer.

Capt. A. N. Standard and Sgt. J. C. Walton, both first shift officers, were asked by Chief Rogers to resign from the force last week, and they turned in their badges Thursday.

Mayor Lee O. Rogers pointed out that there has been "a lot of hearsay and suspicion" in the matter. He later asked if the problems could not be worked out.

Chief Rogers said if the commission feels it is warranted he would re-hire the men as patrolmen. He added that he did not feel it would work out as a certain amount of resentment has developed.

Mayor Rogers explained that the commission would not instruct him to re-hire the two men.

George Zachariah said what disturbed him "is that everyone I talk to says Standard was the best man on the force." The mayor quoted Standard as saying "I don't think I have done anything to be fired for."

The commission questioned Rogers on various points of police department operations, asking about recent promotions, working hours and rotation. It reportedly was the plan to rotate shifts that caused the current flare-up of dissension, the chief said.

4 Persons Die In Crash

EL PASO (AP)—Four persons, including a driver who had been given a negligent driving ticket only minutes before, were killed 14 miles east of here early today in a head-on car-truck collision.

The shattering, multiple death crash occurred on U.S. 80, about two miles east of Clint, Tex., near a spot where four persons were killed a few weeks ago.

The driver of the automobile, identified as Eduardo Torrez, of Beville was among the dead.

The others killed were Torrez's wife, Guadalupe; Mrs. Maria Louise Gonzalez, 63, of Beville; and Mrs. David Hewitt of Corpus Christi.

A small girl, believed to be Rosanna Hewitt, about 2, daughter of Mrs. David L. Hewitt, was hospitalized here with two broken legs and other injuries.

The truck driver, Charles Stewart, a Negro from Cameron, Tex., was hospitalized in deep shock.

A negligent driving citation, handed him by a constable at Fabens, Tex., about 40 minutes before the crash, was found in a wallet belonging to Torrez.

Budget Hearing Set For Today

The Big Spring City Commission was to sit for a public hearing on the 1960-61 fiscal budget at 5:15 p.m. today.

The hearing was slated for the commission room in City Hall, however the meeting will move to the city auditorium if the crowd is large enough. Following the meeting, the commission will interview two more fiscal agents.

Two financial houses were represented at interviews Monday. They were the First Southwest Company of Dallas and the First National Bank of Dallas.

M. M. Hatcher, vice president of the bank, advised the commission to get its rate schedule in order prior to any bond issues. "It is an advantage to get the water rates properly fixed as quickly as possible so that bond sales will be at a better rate," he said.

C. M. Smith, vice president of the other firm, presented a brochure to the commission listing the firm's qualifications for handling a bond program.

The commission will probably name a fiscal agent to handle a water-sewer bonding program following today's interviews.

Wednesday, members of Forrest and Cotton will be in the city to discuss water and sewer problems with the Master Plan Steering Committee. The meeting is set for the city auditorium and all interested Big Springers are invited to attend.

Vandals Rip U.S. Flag

FORT WORTH (AP)—Vandals ripped an American flag to shreds and wrecked or defaced furnishings of an elementary school in north Fort Worth during the weekend. A policeman called it "the worst case of vandalism I've ever seen."

The vandals, believed to have been youngsters, poured glue over desk tops and inside desks, ruined all the food in the cafeteria by throwing it on floors and walls and chopped off electrical connections on all the school's appliances.

Lubbock Man Charged In Theft

SHREVEPORT, La. (AP)—John C. Smith Jr., 32, of Lubbock, Tex., was charged Wednesday with concealing and possessing blank money orders stolen from a Coopton, Okla., Post Office.

Two other men, Calvin G. Hale, 30, of Gainesville, Tex., and Robert Lee Turner, 18, of Oklahoma City, Okla., were charged with aiding and abetting. All three were arrested in Monroe Monday night.

Cat Adopts Chicks

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP)—Cinderella, a three-year-old Persian cat, has been playing "mother hen" to a brood of 13 baby chicks since she lost her litter of four kittens. Mrs. Thomas W. Farthing of Brant said the chicks seemed almost as mixed-up as Cinderella, climbing over the cat and nestling against her.

Long Says Negroes Belong In Africa
BATON ROUGE (AP)—"I would suggest those who are not satisfied—like those at the lunch counter—return to their native Africa."
That was Gov. Earl Long's comment Monday about Louisiana's first Negro lunch counter sit-down protest. He said:
"They'll find out they're doing a lot better here than they would in their native land."

Whisky Warehouse Explosion Kills 19
GLASGOW, Scotland (AP)—Britain's worst fire brigade disaster—the explosion of a blazing whisky warehouse—killed 19 firemen and injured at least 40 other firefighters Monday night.
The explosion dumped tons of rubble and burning scotch whisky on three fire trucks and rocked surrounding tenements.

Pleads Guilty
R. H. Gist, charged with writing a worthless check for $45, who was returned by Deputy Tommy Cole from Ozona Monday, pleaded guilty Monday afternoon. It was announced that the check had been paid off, and the court assessed his punishment at 10 days in the county jail.

Bob Cummings Reveals Secret Of Health

By HALVARD T. HANSEN, D.C.

Bob Cummings, popular TV star, when televised "at home" some time back, was walking through his den describing various pieces of his furniture collection for the TV audience. He came upon a strange looking table and explained that it was his chiropractic table. Like Bob Cummings, a growing number of wealthy men purchase private chiropractic tables, and to save time, have their chiropractor visit them at home. Busy men can't wait until they are sick. They must do something to prevent sickness. Millions have found that chiropractic is ideal for this purpose. Chiropractic is utilized by Eleanor Roosevelt regularly. Pres. Eisenhower and other great and intelligent men of the world. John D. Rockefeller, who established the petroleum industry, constantly utilized chiropractic. Who can call these men uninformed? Chiropractic research has proven that it is possible to locate nerve pressures before it can interfere sufficiently with normal function to cause sickness.

Many of our patients, especially those who were sick for several years before discovering chiropractic and good health are synonymous, have continued their monthly check-ups, for prevention purposes.

Some patients haven't had a sick day for several years who previously had not had a well one. You need not be a wealthy person, a TV star or a great American to be smart when your health is concerned. You, too, can enjoy good health by visiting your chiropractor.

Here is a true story, and a happy one, about a prominent man who for nearly five years had been suffering with daily headaches, hay fever, dizziness, throat congestion, aching in back of the head, neck and shoulders. He related that he had a constant low back pain that seemed to rob him of energy and left him with a "tired feeling" most of the time. Our routine spinal analysis located the defective nerves in his neck and lower spine. X-rays disclosed the offending vertebral mis-alignments in these areas which were soon corrected by spinal adjustments. He had been told by his physician, who had failed to help him, to "get-out" and find a new hobby but he chose the Hansen Chiropractic Clinic instead. He says it was the best decision he ever made. He comes in for his periodic spinal check-up full of energy, all smiles and enjoys the best of health. No. 1592.

Millions of successful case histories such as this one have made chiropractic the largest non-medical healing art in the world. Results speak for themselves — ask Bob Cummings.

If you're still sick in spite of treatments you have taken, investigate the Hansen Chiropractic Clinic as other wise readers are doing. What can you lose except your ill health?

Midland Beer Tavern Loses Its License

AUSTIN (AP)—Ervin Benny Grant of Midland, operator of a night club known as Grant's Place and Grant's Rhythm Hall, lost his beer license Monday as a result of a fight at the club March 13.

Asst. Administrator James A. Stanford of the Liquor Control Board ordered a temporary suspension made permanent following a hearing Monday. The temporary ban was imposed March 15 after Grant and his bouncer, Ed Williams, were charged with simple assault.

Grant and Williams, the only witnesses testifying in person, admitted hitting Ken Decker with blackjacks during a fight which began after Williams tried to eject Dennis Patton, a companion of Decker, for allegedly creating a disturbance.

The club operator and Williams said Decker threatened Williams with a beer bottle, then hit Grant after Grant struck Decker with a blackjack.

L. G. Elliott, chief legal investigator for the board, read affidavits from Decker and Patton claiming they were beaten as Decker sought to persuade Williams to let him take Patton home. Another affidavit quoted Ken Dawson, another patron, as saying Grant and Williams continued to hit Decker after he was unconscious.

Patton filed assault charges after the incident.

Financier Indicted In Texas Oil Swindle

NEW YORK (AP)—The internationally known financier, John Van Allen of New York, has been indicted in an alleged $10-million-dollar Texas oil swindle.

A federal grand jury indictment returned Monday charged Van Allen and a group of other persons and firms with conspiring to defraud investors.

The defendants are accused of conspiracy in the sale of 750,000 unregistered shares of common stock of Gulf Coast Leaseholds, Inc.

A month-long probe in the case was conducted by Securities and Exchange Commission agents in Washington, New York, Chicago and Houston.

Asst. U.S. Atty. Donald H. Shaw, who headed the probe, gave this account of the alleged conspiracy: In 1951 Van Allen bought the shares at from $1 to $3 a share through a Zurich firm, Brandel Trust.

While Van Allen ran up the price with unregistered over-the-counter deals, the shares were sold to the public at $10 to $14 a share. When the buildup collapsed, the price fell to $2 and the firms selling the shares went out of business.

The indictment carries maximum penalties on conviction of five years in prison and a $10,000 fine for each count against an individual or a $10,000 fine against each firm.

Also named in the indictment were:

Paul Hagenbach, a Swiss attorney and director of Brandel Trust; Roy B. Kelly of (5 Bay Tree Lane) Washington, D.C., a former director of Gulf Coast Leaseholds; Cecil V. Hagen of Houston, former Gulf Coast president; Irving H. Hertzberg of Issing, N.Y., former president of the defunct over-the-counter brokerage firm of F. W. MacDonald and Co.; and Jules Bean of New York, a director of another over-the-counter brokerage firm, Singer, Bean and Mackie Inc.

Pierre Du Val of Forest Hills, Queens, former president of Du Val's Consensus, a defunct investment and advisory service of Long Island City, Queens; Charles Stahl of Princeton, N.J., former board chairman of the defunct brokerage house of De Pontet and Co.; Adam Miles of Edmonton, Alta., a former officer of the defunct Canadian Brokerage firm of Stahl, Miles and Co. Ltd.; Martin Teller of Hollywood, Calif., and Michael Ackman of New York, both employees of the defunct brokerage firm of M. J. Shuck Co.

3 Deputies Suspended As Probe Result

AMARILLO (AP)—Three Potter County sheriff's deputies were suspended Monday in another aftermath of last week's crime probe here by a state House committee.

Suspension of the officers followed less than 48 hours after County Judge Roy Joe Stevens of Randall County quit under fire from the probing committee.

Sheriff Paul Gaither of Potter County (Amarillo) suspended Chief Deputy Curtis Travis, Criminal Capt. Dick Bufkin, and Deputy Nappy Nall on advice of the County Commissioners Court.

Gaither said he had not acted earlier because "I assume a man is innocent until proven guilty."

In another development Monday night, the Randall County Democratic Executive Committee extended the filing date for county judge candidates to April 7 at midnight. Originally, Monday midnight had been the filing deadline.

The action was taken under a section of the State Election Code which permits political parties to determine their own affairs where no specific state law applies.

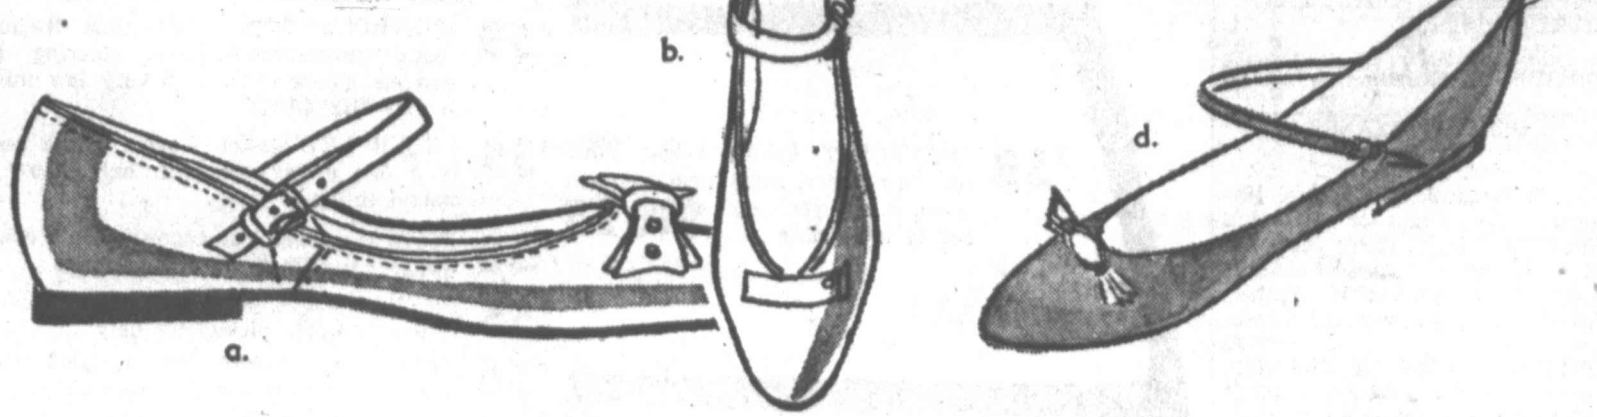

By nominating a candidate for the May 7 primary, the Democrats can have a candidate on the November General Election ballot. Stevens' term has two more years to run.

The three deputies suspended by Sheriff Gaither were named by a witness last week who said her husband paid out $500 weekly for protection of his gambling establishment. The witness was the estranged wife of gambler Lester Davis.

Under pressure from the Commissioners Court, which said it would act if he didn't, Gaither suspended the men effective next Friday, the same day that Stevens' resignation goes into effect.

The suspensions, Gaither said, will remain in effect until the men clear themselves, if they can.

Paar Finds British Humor Is Different

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television - Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Gypsy Jack Paar and his traveling troupe came to us—courtesy of tape, of course—from London Monday night.

The format was that of the New York show, and Hugh Downs, Hans Conried and Jose Melis were on hand.

Jack seemed serious, restrained and a bit nervous. Maybe the studio audience was responsible. It was not his own New York partisans and persisted in laughing loudly at unexpected moments—at commercials and slips of the tongue.

Hugh Downs had a big night. He tried a commercial in a British accent on the Paar Show and he made his acting debut in a filmed episode of NBC's "River Boat." I would say that his British accent is as good as his acting.

Next Week's motion picture Oscar awards program will have to go some to be more entertaining than Friday night's awards show on NBC. It consisted primarily of what it promised to be: a gentle but nevertheless adroit spoof of television and its devoted viewers. The awards went to logical candidates. However, I would have voted for "The Crime of Jebal Deeks," instead of "The Moon and Sixpence"; for Lucille Ball instead of Loretta Young, and for Harry Belafonte's show instead of Fred Astaire's. But differences of opinion, after all, are what make polls necessary—and TV reviewers' jobs available.

Friday night marks the end of a TV era—the last show Lucille Ball and Desi Arnaz—now separated—plan to make together. Old "I Love Lucy" shows are still very much around on re-runs and re-runs, however.

But although the old order changeth, television will not be entirely without a Desi Arnaz. Desi IV 7-year-old son of Lucille Ball and Desi Arnaz, who was born in 1953 received more headlines than the recent addition to Britain's royal family, will star on Dinah Shore's April 3 show. Little Desi will play—what else?—Conga drums while the youngster who played "Little Ricky" in the TV series—his name is Richard Keith—will lead an all-child band and play drums.

Recommended tonight: "The Juggler," NBC, 8:30-9:30—starring Tony Curtis; Garry Moore Show, CBS, 10-11—with Ella Fitzgerald and Mel Tormé; "Korea—No Parallel," ABC, 10-11—documentary filmed in that now almost-forgotten country.
