Half Of Murder Jury Is Seated

STERLING CITY — Six jurors had been seated at noon Tuesday in the efforts of state and defense to fill the box to try Riley Edward Gunn, 33, Odessa, for murder with malice. Only two jurors were qualified during the Tuesday morning session. Four had been accepted when court recessed on Monday.

Greek Boy's 'Doing Fine'

NEW YORK (AP) — A Greek boy rested at a hospital today, his crucial heart operation behind him.

Parkchester General Hospital reported him in good condition and "doing fine."

Monday night, about 12 hours after surgery, Dr. Aaron Gorelik helped Stelakias Farthenopoulos, 4, out of bed to a chair where the youngster sat for several minutes.

Through a Greek doctor he sent a letter to an American newsmen in New York whose heart had been saved by Gorelik in a previous operation.

Chou Arrives In India, Is Told Off By Nehru On Border Tiff

NEW DELHI (AP) — Chou En-lai arrived today and was promptly told by Prime Minister Nehru Red China's border actions "have been a shock to all our people."

"Our relations have been imperiled for the present and future," he told the visiting Red China premier.

Chou, grim-faced, had voiced hope that the Chinese-Indian border dispute could be settled "in accordance with the principles of coexistence."

Nehru smiled as he made his statement — but his words were tough and sharp.

Since his capture some time after the slaying, the prisoner has been kept in the San Angelo jail, Sterling County jail is small and not as escape proof as the Tom Green County bastle, Green explained. However, while the trial is in progress, Gunn is in the Sterling County jail. He was returned from San Angelo to Sterling City last Sunday.

Dist. Judge Joe Mays, 51st District Court, is presiding in the trial. The state is represented by Dist. Atty. Justin A. Keever. Defense attorney is Royal Hart, San Angelo.

It was for just such a chance that the boy, a slim child facing death from a heart defect, made a plea three months ago.

Through a Greek doctor he sent a letter to an American newsmen in New York whose heart had been saved by Gorelik in a previous operation.

At the end of the hour and three minute operation Gorelik, who headed an 11-member operating team, said: "Without this operation this boy had no chance at all. Thank God we could get to him in time."

The surgery was to close a hole and build healthy tissue.

President Rajendra Prasad boycotted the arrival ceremony. Since Chou is not the chief of the Chinese state, protocol did not require Prasad's presence.

Nehru was certain to put up tough resistance to the suave Chinese leader's claims to the remote territories on the India-Tibet border. Red China now occupies 12,000 square miles, India the rest.

New Delhi virtually crawled with security men drawn from various parts of the nation.

"We are taking no risks," a senior official said. Authorities forbade 300 Tibetans from coming to New Delhi from the border town of Kalimpong to protest against the Nehru-Chou meeting.

U. S. RACIAL STRIFE

Savage Fight Erupts In Demonstration Area

A savage fight between Negroes and white youths climaxed weeks of racial tension in Savannah, Ga., where Negroes have been staging sit-down demonstrations and boycotting stores with segregated lunch counters.

Ax handles, pipes, knives and other weapons were swung in the brief but vicious clash in a park Monday night. A white youth was hospitalized with a serious knife wound in the neck. Two other white youths and a Negro were treated at a hospital and released.

Police jailed two Negroes and seven white persons and began an extensive search of the area for 20 others believed to have taken part in the fight in the Georgia coastal city.

Cause of the burst of violence was not determined. Investigators said the teen-agers who were arrested gave conflicting accounts.

Melvin Bryan, 18, suffered a deep stab wound in the side of the neck.

Allan Louis Johnson, 22-year-old Negro, received a badly bruised elbow when he was struck by an ax handle.

The battle in the park occurred a few hours after police reported a white man struck a Negro student during a lunch counter sit-down demonstration at the S. H. Kress & Co. store. It was the second such incident in three days.

A white man knocked a Negro demonstrator from a lunch counter stool in the same store Saturday. The Negro's jaw was broken. Former President Harry S. Truman told newsmen at Ithica, N. Y., he wouldn't be surprised "if the sit-downs in the South were inspired by Communists."

Seven Negro ministers staged a silent prayer session on a safety zone at an intersection in downtown Chattanooga, Tenn. One of the signs they carried read, "We pray for our city in Christian love. Stop Jim Crow."

Negroes picketed a downtown variety store and staged sit-ins at three lunch counters in Chattanooga.

A Negro doctor reported he was arrested for swimming in the Gulf of Mexico at Biloxi, Miss., near a swank hotel.

In Marshall, Tex., a judge ordered four Negro students to stand trial on charges growing out of lunch counter sit-ins March 30. He dismissed motions to quash the charges.

Police in all major cities of South Africa reported that Negroes showed up in normal numbers and without hindrance by alleged intimidators.

No major violence was reported. The only police action announced at noon was a raid on an African settlement near the Indian Ocean city of Port Elizabeth, where police rounded up "undesirables," questioned 200 Negroes and detained many of them.

In Johannesburg, South Africa's largest city, buses and trains from Negro settlements were crowded with workers.

JOHANNESBURG (AP) — The one week strike called by the outlawed African National Congress to protest the white government's strict racial laws failed to achieve its aim today.

Troops were standing by at such trouble spots as the Nyanga and Langa townships near Cape Town and Calo Manor near Durban. Police riot cars cruised slowly among the houses.

The work stoppage called by the outlawed African National Congress started Monday. But the day was a national Easter holiday, and this postponed the real test of a strike call until today.

The government has warned Negroes that they face loss of their jobs or banishment to native reserves in the interior if they heed the stay-at-home call.

The aim of the work stoppage is to force the government to ease its stern segregation laws and to gain freedom for jailed Negro leaders. The government broke a previous work boycott by widespread raids in the Negro settlements and wholesale arrests.

Jury Trial For Sit-In Demonstrators Set Today

MARSHALL (AP) — A jury trial opens in County Court today for four Negro students on charges growing out of lunch counter sit-ins here March 30.

County Judge George Pendergast overruled Monday all defense motions for dismissal of charges of unlawful assembly to prevent any person from pursuing his labor.

The Wiley College students are: S. J. Briscoe, Jennings, La.; Roosevelt Peabody, East St. Louis, Ill.; Ernest Gardner, Port Arthur, Tex.; and Miss Dorothy Thompson, Beckville, Tex.

They are the first of 57 Negroes so charged to be brought to trial in County Court.

Six others are under charges of unlawful picketing and will be tried later.

Three motions which Judge Pendergast overruled attacked the law under which charges were filed on the grounds that it does not spell out the offenses. Another four alleged the law is being used to discriminate against Negroes.

Attorneys U. Simpson Tate and C. B. Bunkley also appealed to the County Court the conviction of 35 other Negro students in City Court last week. They were convicted on charges of failure to leave the premises on the order of a lawful occupant during the lunch counter sit-ins March 30 and April 1.

In city cases, three of the Negroes were fined $200 each by juries and 22 others were tried before a judge and fined $50 each.

NO MATTER WHEN Big Last Minute Rush On Filings

It didn't make any difference. Although the U. S. Internal Revenue Service extended deadline for filing 1959 income tax reports from April 15 through April 18, the same last minute rush developed anyway.

E. C. Boatler, postmaster, said that at 7 p.m. Monday he checked through the mail which had been dropped in the slot. He said that every third letter he came across was addressed to the United States Internal Revenue Service.

Throughout the evening, additional reports were dropped in the box.

One worried citizen called Boatler in the middle of evening. He had gone to the post office, found all of the windows closed, and came to the erroneous conclusion that the office was closed down.

He called the postmaster and said that he "simply had to get a cancellation on his income tax report before midnight."

Violence Brings U. S. Intercession

SEOUL, South Korea (AP) — Violent demonstrations against President Syngman Rhee's tactics killed and wounded scores of persons, including several policemen, in South Korea's major cities today.

Rhee called out the army, clamped down martial law and imposed local censorship. But the rioting raged into the night in defiance of the government's moves.

The independent newspaper Hankook Ilbo checked hospitals in Seoul and estimated the dead at 60 to 70. Other unofficial tallies said the wounded ranged between 300 and 300.

Newspapers checking hospitals said they counted 81 killed and more than 300 wounded in Seoul alone. The wounded included two Americans.

The death toll appeared sure to go higher in the outbreaks protesting government strong-arm methods in last month's election.

The riots brought an unusual expression of concern from the United States for the demonstrators' grievances. The United States fought a three-year war in Korea to keep the Communists from capturing the entire country.

PERSONAL CALL U. S. Ambassador Walter P. McCaughy paid a personal call tonight on President Rhee. The embassy said the ambassador sought to "review developments and express his concern that measures adopted to maintain law and order would take into account basic causes and grievances behind the disorders."

Sporadic demonstrations have flared since March 15 balloting to underscore opposition charges of stuffing ballot boxes, restricting opposition meetings, and police brutality. Many of the demonstrators were students, and this pattern of youthful protest continued.

But today's was the worst so far. Raging during the day in Pusan, Taegu, Taejon, Kwangju and this capital, the rioting amounted to virtual revolutionary upheaval. Those five cities were put under martial law.

This is what happened in Seoul: Thousands of students came marching down the wide avenue leading to Rhee's mansion. They were from colleges and universities, junior and senior high schools.

The boulevard was clogged with the somber black of their school uniforms.

Seven hundred yards from the President's mansion, the students halted. Thirty yards in front of them was a row of armed and helmeted police.

The police had one fire truck, fire hoses, and tear gas bombs. More and more students poured into the street. Thousands lined the sidewalks and jammed the open area in front of Korea's old Capitol, burned out and still un-reconstructed from the Korean War. Suddenly there were shots. Police were firing blanks and tear gas shells.

The students surged forward, shouting and throwing rocks. The wind blew teargas back over the police lines.

The police had one fire truck, fire hoses, and tear gas bombs. More and more students poured into the street. Thousands lined the sidewalks and jammed the open area in front of Korea's old Capitol, burned out and still un-reconstructed from the Korean War. Suddenly there were shots. Police were firing blanks and tear gas shells.

The students surged forward, shouting and throwing rocks. The wind blew teargas back over the police lines.

Streams of water drenched the students but still they came on. Their barrage of stones forced the firemen to retreat.

Rocks smashed through windows of two government ministries. Cars were overturned.

CROWD DISPERSED The crowd approached the gate of Rhee's hilltop home. One hundred yards away 500 university students formed into solid ranks and dashed toward a barbed wire barricade. Up and over they swarmed, capturing four fire trucks.

Suddenly the rifles came up. A volley crashed. Volley after volley followed. Students fell. Students ran. Tear gas shells plopped down among the wounded.

Defying the strict military rule, armed demonstrators at nightfall attacked two police sentry boxes in the northeastern sector of Seoul. Three policemen were reported killed, and many others wounded.

Men carrying rifles roamed Seoul's near-deserted streets, defying the nighttime curfew.

The martial law commander, Lt. Gen. Song Yo-chang, army chief of staff, appealed for order and reminded citizens that "Communist troops are poised in the North waiting anxiously for a return to strife."

The U. S. Embassy did not elaborate on "causes and grievances" but it obviously referred to widespread complaints against the election and police brutality. This marked the first time the U. S. government had publicly acknowledged possible merit in the demonstrators' charges.

The demonstrations marked the gravest internal crisis of Syngman Rhee's 12 years of power in South Korea.

If the demonstrations go unchecked for any length of time, some observers felt, they could put the government of the 85-year old president in jeopardy.

The riots were set off by the March 15 election, which returned Rhee for a fourth term in office and elected his running mate Lee Ki-Poong — defeated four years ago on Korea's split ticket balloting — as vice president.

Opposition candidates claimed the elections were rigged. From the rioting, hundreds of thousands — probably millions — of Koreans believe it, too.

French President De Gaulle Gets Down To Brass Tacks In His Canadian Visit

OTTAWA (AP)—French President Charles de Gaulle gets down to the major business of his Canadian visit today—a round of pre-summit talks with Prime Minister John G. Diefenbaker and a speech.

The two leaders scheduled two private meetings to discuss Western strategy at the May 16 summit conference in Paris and other matters of concern to the free world.

De Gaulle and his wife arrived in the Canadian capital from Paris Monday night, beginning a 17-day visit to Canada, the United States and French Caribbean territories.

The tour is partly social, but both De Gaulle and Diefenbaker stressed the importance of consultations in the present world situation.

De Gaulle described his visit to Canada as a link in "a chain between free peoples" which began with his recent trip to Britain and will be concluded with his talks with President Eisenhower.

The Canadian prime minister said De Gaulle's visit "gives expression to the close relationship which has developed between members of the North Atlantic community, and to the never-ending need for continued cooperation with full consultation among the members of NATO, in matters which affect not only the vital interests of the Western world, but of freedom itself in the world."

Also taking part in the talks are the foreign ministers of the two countries—Maurice Couve de Murville of France and Howard Green of Canada; Francis Lacoste, French ambassador to Canada, and Pierre Dupuy, Canadian ambassador to France.

The talks were expected to cover the whole range of international problems, with special attention to disarmament and the suspension of nuclear tests, in which Canada has a major interest.

Light Vote Seen In N.J. Primary

NEWARK, N.J. (AP) — Fair weather and a light turnout were the forecasts today as the polls opened for a New Jersey primary election highlighted by a contest for the Republican U.S. Senate nomination.

Sen. Clifford P. Case is seeking renomination after one term in the Senate.

Robert Morris, the challenger, is making his second bid to become a GOP Senate candidate.

Also to be chosen are a Democratic Senate nominee in a one-sided contest; House nominations in all 14 congressional districts; convention delegates; members of party county committees, and nominees for local and county offices.

Most Republican observers rated Case a favorite but they said Morris was gaining strength in a campaign some looked on as a scrap between the GOP's liberal and conservative wings.

Morris, former counsel to the Communist-hunting Senate Internal Security subcommittee, sought the 1958 Republican Senate nomination. He ran third in a three-way primary. He has been campaigning on what he calls too much nondefense spending and too little awareness of the Communist threat.

New Scandal Hits Denton DPS

DALLAS (AP) — The Dallas Morning News said today that additional cases of clandestine affairs between State Highway Patrolmen and married Denton women are being investigated by the Department of Public Safety.

The new investigation came on the heels of evidence collected by private investigators hired by the husband of one of the two women involved in the newest episode involving highway patrolmen assigned to the Denton area, the News said.

Maj. Guy Smith, the regional commander, declined to comment on the development.

Four patrolmen were suspended from the Highway Patrol in March pending results of an investigation of similar charges.

Smith said at the time that the four patrolmen, who denied the accusations, would remain under suspension until the department's investigation had been completed.

There's One In Every Crowd

Mrs. Joy Cutchshaw found these baby rabbits in the shrubbery at the plant where she works in Dallas. When she arranged them in tumblers for a formal portrait, all cooperated but the little fellow at right. As the photographer tripped the shutter, the rabbit hopped from his tumbler and landed in this perfect handstand.

Cox Raises $36 Doorknob Question

DALLAS (AP)—Jack Cox made $36 doorknobs and a pay raise for teachers two of his main points as he brought his campaign against Gov. Price Daniel to Dallas Monday night.

Again and again the Breckenridge businessman raised the issue of the doorknobs installed in the new Austin State Office Building as he hit at Daniel's financial policies.

The fast-talking Cox said the "public school teachers must have a pay increase and I am willing to help pay for it."

He spoke to 1,230 persons at a $5 a plate beef, potato and string bean dinner in a downtown hotel.

Former Gov. Allan Shivers introduced Cox and declared the candidate "is running to win and so help me I believe he is going to make it."

Shivers, a former ally of Daniel, called Cox "one of the most able and promising young men who has appeared on the Texas scene in many years."

At times Cox was bitter, other times sarcastic, as he attacked Daniel on what he called his silence on tax issues.

"Price Daniel will become the first candidate in history to take the Fifth Amendment on his own platform," Cox declared. "He refuses to divulge his platform because he knows it would incriminate him."

The new state office building has 1,000 doorknobs that cost $36 each, Cox said.

"A $36 doorknob isn't a major item, when we are spending over 3 million dollars a day," he said.

"But let's think of it this way: For a dozen $36 doorknobs, the state could raise a school teacher's salary $400 a year."

The burden of Cox's proposed 2 per cent sales tax "upon a family with a $3,000 annual income would be just about half the cost of one $36 doorknob," he said.

Speaking of Daniel's tax policies Cox said:

"No sales tax, no income tax, no business tax. Pay raises for school teachers, medical allotments for senior citizens, more money for this and for that, $36 doorknobs for everybody, and no taxes that won't be popular."

"What are the tax plans of Price Daniel?" Cox asked.

John Kimbrough, former Texas A&M football star, was introduced at the dinner.

He said he was sending out letters to Aggies asking them to vote for Cox instead of Daniel.

THIS DAY IN TEXAS

By CURTIS BISHOP

Major John B. Jones of the Frontier Battalion of Texas Rangers reported on this day in 1877 that the "Kimble County Roundup" had been effected.

"I find no organized resistance," he informed Adjutant General Steele by telegraph.

The lawlessness in Kimble County had reached such an extent that outlaws could successfully resist holding court, and District Judge W. A. Blackburn refused to convene a regular session in Junction without Ranger escorts.

Jones marched in with three companies, captured some 30 outlaws by combing all of the county and screening prisoners. The Ranger net produced outlaws wanted for crimes in 18 other Texas counties.

The total of arrests mounted to 41 after a second excursion, which was probably the biggest "haul" in Ranger police history.

Judge Blackburn's district court adjourned on May 6 after returning 25 indictments. Some cases were discontinued because only nine inhabitants of Kimble County were considered "fit" for jury duty.

State Candidates Keep Hammering

By The Associated Press

Political candidates kept busy Monday making speeches while their campaign offices worked to gather votes in the May 7 Democratic primary.

Waggoner Carr and Atty. Gen. Will Wilson had help from their supporters in their race for the attorney general's office.

Carr's Houston headquarters publicized a Houston Post editorial which endorsed the House speaker and called him "ably qualified to be Texas attorney general."

Wilson's workers opened campaign headquarters at Galveston and Mrs. Ed Harris, head of the pro-Wilson staff there, issued a statement which said:

"We believe that since Judge Wilson drove syndicated gambling out of Galveston three years ago, our city has been on the upgrade economically as well as morally and is headed for a bright future as one of the leading cities in Texas."

Gov. Price Daniel — whose opponent Jack Cox spoke in Dallas — spent Monday in Austin, Tuesday he will attend the Houston Press Club's gridiron dinner and take part in a program dedicating KHOV-TV.

On Wednesday he takes part in the historical Pageant of Flags and the Texas Heritage Ball in connection with the San Jacinto Day celebration at Houston. Cox will also be in Houston Tuesday.

Cox spoke before 1,230 persons at a $5 a plate dinner given in honor of himself and former Gov. Allan Shivers.

It was a full-blow, campaign speech in which Cox touched on many points ranging from the $36 doorknobs on the new Austin State Office Building to pay raises for Teachers and Daniel's tax program.

Shivers introduced Cox and said Cox is "running to win and so help me I believe he is going to make it."

A candidate for the Court of Criminal Appeals, Jim D. Bowmer, was in Houston Monday for a coffee.

Lead Commissioner Bill Allcorn campaigned in Port Arthur and planned visits in Beaumont, Orange, and Houston this week.

Don Yarbrough, seeking the lieutenant governor's office, was in Waco Monday where he urged increased old age pensions.

Wilson campaigns in Houston and Laporte Tuesday while Carr will spend Tuesday in Houston.

La. Gov. Ben Ramsey campaigns in Dallas Tuesday after spending Monday in Waco.

Yarbrough visits Sugarland, Richmond, Rosenberg, Columbus, Hallettsville, Cuero, Floresville Tuesday.

Girl Resting Well After Heart Surgery

DALLAS, Tex. (AP)—A delicate four-hour operation was performed Monday to repair the heart of a 3-year-old girl from Mexico befriended by a bachelor cab driver.

Ruth Maria Cvetic's condition "is satisfactory; in fact a little better than we had expected," said a doctor at Childrens Hospital of Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Cvetic moved to Mexico City from Austria five years ago. When they learned their child needed corrective open heart surgery they wrote to doctors in Germany and Sweden. The doctors replied that the surgery could only be done in America.

The family headed for Texas last week. Their car broke down in San Antonio and they continued here by bus, arriving Thursday morning.

It was at the bus station that they met W. H. Henry, 30, a cab driver.

When Henry learned the family's reservation at a hotel had not been confirmed he turned his trailer house over to them and moved in with friends. Then he found 10 persons who would donate blood to the girl.

Henry acted as the family's interpreter in consultations with doctors and sat with the girl during the night while her parents slept.

The critical period lies ahead for the girl, doctors said. It may be a week before they know if the operation is a success.

It was a swarm of lightning bugs.

Parlor Pigeon

WARREN, Ohio (AP) — L. R. Marcus has a pet pigeon who hates pigeons and loves people.

Marcus found the pigeon with a broken foot and injured beak, and nursed him back to health. Now, Marcus says, the pigeon follows the family like a pet dog, loves television, stays up to watch the late show and won't retire until the family does.

Marcus says the pigeon can open doors by flying against them and pushing with his feet, loves to ride in a car and barks at dogs, a trick he learned from the Marcus' family dog.

Death Takes Beardsley Ruml, Idea Man Who Created Withholding Tax

DANBURY, Conn. (AP)—Beardsley Ruml, 65, who invented "pay-as-you-go" tax withholding and paid $70,000 a year just to think for a department store, died Monday following a heart attack.

R. H. Macy and Co. department store and the New York Federal Reserve Bank, he was advisor to the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico at his death.

A native of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, Ruml was a Phi Beta Kappa at Dartmouth College, and got a doctor's degree at the University of Chicago with a thesis on psychology — measuring and determining intelligence.

He arrived in Wheeling late Monday night after appearances in Clarksburg, Fairmont and Morgantown. At a reception in a hotel ballroom at Morgantown Kennedy drew what was probably the largest indoor crowd so far in his West Virginia campaign. Local officials estimated that there was between 1,000 to 1,500 persons on hand.

Kennedy Eases Up On Travel

WHEELING, W. Va. (AP)—Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass) eased up on the travel in his West Virginia presidential primary campaign today, with a full day of appearances in and around this steel-manufacturing city of 60,000.

On his itinerary were morning appearances at two colleges within a few miles of Wheeling—Bethany and West Liberty State—and two plant tours in the afternoon.

Kennedy and Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn) are entered in the May 10 West Virginia primary as Democratic presidential candidates. Humphrey is not in the state this week.

Kennedy's arrival in Wheeling brought him to a section where, compared with this overwhelming Protestant state as a whole, a large segment of the population shares his Roman Catholic religion.

After speaking at a reception here tonight, Kennedy will fly to Beckley in southern West Virginia. He will wind up this week's three-day campaign swing with appearances in about a dozen places in the southern part of the state.

the example of the principal in resigning over a paddling incident. Principal A. B. Martin and more than half of the 32 faculty members already have written letters of resignation. The remainder indicated they will follow suit.

Asked what he was going to do about running the school, Chairman James T. Hall of the Hahira Board of Trustees declared, "I'm going to do just like the board of education did—I'm going to dump it right back into the board's lap."

This was the best information that could be gathered on the Lowndes County Board of Education's action following a four-hour special hearing Monday. At issue was a demand by the parents of 14-year-old Earl Cornelius that Martin and Mrs. Dwight Maples, a teacher, be fired for spanking the eighth grader.

Lowndes County School Supt. C. W. Meacham was not available for comment. A service station operator said Meacham drove off about midnight, saying, "Come on, let's go to Atlanta."

Apparently the superintendent planned to confer with state school officials at the capital.

Martin, principal for nine years, said he could not continue to head the school without the backing of the board of education.

He denied that he encouraged any of the teachers to follow his lead in resigning. "I have let them make that decision themselves," Martin and his wife received many visitors Monday night as friends dropped by to pledge their support. Lights also burned late in other houses of the community with a population of about 1,000 as parents gathered to discuss the problem.

Most townspeople agreed with Mayor D. K. Hollis who said he did not think the publicity would be good for the boy, school or Hahira.

Martin and Mrs. Maples, who is seven months pregnant, said the boy was whipped Wednesday. The principal said he gave Earl the standard five whacks for leaving the school without authorization.

The youth chose a paddling in preference to writing a 3,000-word theme, Martin said.

Mrs. Maples, wife of the football coach, said she added about three more to the five she administered later in the day because he would not stay bent over a desk. She claimed the punishment was necessary because Earl had lied "just to get out of my room" for a while.

Elmer Cornelius, a Hahira school bus driver, and his wife charged in the warrants they obtained that Mrs. Maples spanked their 5-foot-5, 101-pound son "30 times with a board."

They agreed to drop the charges if the board of education found the punishment was justified. Martin and Mrs. Maples posted $500 bonds.

Actors Approve Pact In Strike

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Members of the Screen Actors Guild have ratified a new contract with major movie studios.

More than 1,500 SAG members, meeting in the Hollywood Palladium Monday night, voted unanimous approval of the agreement reached April 8.

Ratification means the studios are free to begin work on new productions. Work was resumed earlier on some of the eight pictures interrupted by the actors' strike, called last March 7.

Dies Of Shock

ABILENE (AP)—One man died and another suffered serious injuries Monday when an iron windmill leg on which they were working apparently blew into a 7200 volt power line.

Dead is Sam Spruell, 53, of Bronte. In serious condition in the Winters Hospital is Grant Linsley, 65, of Shep.

The two were setting windmill legs in concrete on the Ed Stevens ranch about 30 miles southwest of here.

Stevens, about 70, heard the electrical cracking of the electricity and rushed to the scene. He pulled the two men free, but Spruell was already dead.

Something New For Police

Police Department Adds Teletype Communications

By JACK RADER
A teletype machine was put into operation at the Big Spring Police Station for the first time today. The machine, similar to that used by the Daily Herald and other news media, enables city police to send written messages directly to three area units and, through relays, throughout the state. Chief C. L. Rogers said that the teletype's value lies in the fact that it "saves air space." The radio is often so crowded with calls from surrounding area radios that local messages are cut off, the chief said. By using the machine to send messages to out of town stations, that much radio space is saved for calls to patrol and traffic units within the city or to units in the immediate outlying area, Chief Rogers said.

Civic Theatre Extends Time For Dues Paying

Directors of the Big Spring Civic Theatre, Inc., extended the deadline for paying dues for the current fiscal year, during a special meeting Monday.

Originally, a resolution of the board set April 1 as the deadline for paying dues this year. Only dues-paying members can vote in elections and hold office.

It was pointed out Monday that only a handful have paid dues and others have been unable to contact the treasurer. The deadline was extended til 9 p.m. Thursday.

The organization will elect a new board during the membership meeting Thursday.

State Board Allocates Funds For Boiler Work

The State Hospital Board, according to the Associated Press, has allocated $20,000 to be spent at the Big Spring State Hospital for boiler repairs. Dr. Preston W. Harrison, superintendent, said Tuesday that he has not been officially advised of the action but that he presumes it will provide for a general overhaul of the second of two boilers used at the institution.

The other boiler was overhauled last summer—the first overhaul job it has had since installation in 1938. The officials here had requested that the second boiler be given the same treatment but Dr. Harrison said that nothing has reached his desk about the matter.

The two boilers are used to heat the hospital and to provide high pressure water systems for its operation. The No. 2 boiler is in bad repair, Dr. Harrison said, and in grave need of an overhaul job. The other which was repaired last summer is now in excellent condition, he said. However, he emphasized that it is imperative that both be in good condition.

They are used alternately in serving the hospital.

Nixon's Backers Eye New Jersey

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon's friends watched today's New Jersey senatorial primary for signs of the scope of discontent among conservative Republicans.

Some members of the right wing have voiced fears in recent weeks that the vice president may be getting ready as the prospective presidential nominee to take the party over to the liberal camp. If Robert Morris, former counsel for the Senate Internal Security subcommittee, should score an upset over Sen. Clifford P. Case (R-NJ) in the primary, the outcome would be certain to fan a new flame of demands for Nixon to take a stand with the conservatives.

A Case victory, on the other hand, apparently would tend to confirm Nixon's judgment that to win the votes of independents and some Democrats in November he had better go a measurable distance beyond the Eisenhower program in some fields.

Nixon has made it clear to his associates he has no intention of moving so far in this direction that he will be tagged as a liberal. He prefers a designation as a "constructive conservative."

Cactus Chapter Hears Fisher

Cactus was the name chosen for the charter chapter of the American Business Women's Association when the group met Monday evening for dinner at Coker's Restaurant.

Clifford Fisher, president of the Chamber of Commerce and manager of Southwestern Bell Telephone Co., was the speaker. Using the topic Leadership Responsibility, Mr. Fisher pointed out various ways members could participate in promoting civic growth. He suggested they could become better citizens by taking membership in the Chamber of Commerce and actively working with the organization.

Reports were heard from the various committees. The members voted to continue the dinner meetings at Coker's during May and June.

Mrs. Marie Price, president, urged as many members as possible to attend the district meeting in Dallas on April 23 and 24 at the Baker Hotel.

Approximately 100 attended.

ISC May Lose Charter If No New Members Gained

A happy group of handicapped men and women in Big Spring is rounding out more than 11 years of organization with the coming Thursday when the Indoor Sports meet at 7:30 p.m. in the Girl Scout Little House.

The first such organization in the south is facing the possible loss of charter due to the faltering membership which must be as much as 10; the local membership has dropped to nine and Mrs. Charlie Boland has urged that any person that is eligible, to call her or Mrs. G. F. Painter. Their telephone numbers are AM 4-2486 and AM 4-4119.

Qualification for membership requires that the person must have lost a limb or the use thereof, be on crutches or in a wheelchair, or any other physical disability, blindness, etc.

Marks For Poise

Carolyn Komant, who has won a coveted term contract at Warner Bros., feels that her success came from the combination of poise and naturalness. She has done some Warner Bros. TV shows and will soon make her movie debut.

Posture Important For Poise, She Says

By LYDIA LANE
HOLLYWOOD BEAUTY — Carolyn Komant attributes her winning a beauty contest and a contract at Warner Bros. to her elder sister, who is a model.

"Poise carries you a long way when you are nervous. You may not be confident but it helps to appear that way," Carolyn told me, as we lunched in the Green Room.

"My sister taught me to have confidence, and she drilled into me the importance of good posture," she went on. "She told me good grooming and gracefulness would carry me further than anything else. An important factor is not how beautiful you are but how well you can create an impression of beauty."

"Then she made me practice walking around the house with a book balanced on top of my head—and do knee bends so I could sit down and get up gracefully."

"You should never flop into a chair or get up with a push. Back up to a chair and feel for it with the calf of your leg and then lower yourself into it. Put your hips all the way back, so that you can comfortably sit up straight; never cross your legs, but you may cross your ankles."

"It takes practice to do it automatically," she continued. "When you get up, put your weight on your feet and rise with your knees. That is where the Mark 10:44, 45 was the scripture reference used by Mrs. Arthur Pickle in the devotion.

Mrs. Elmer Boatler, stewardship chairman, was in charge of the program. A skit entitled "Space-For-What?" was presented. Those participating were Mrs. Jack Irons, Mrs. Joe Moss, Mrs. Charles Harwell, Mrs. R. V. Middleton, Mrs. Don Farley, Mrs. Ed Byrnes, and Mrs. Lloyd. The benediction was given by Mrs. George Neill.

Red and white tulips formed an arrangement in the center of the refreshment table. Mrs. Lloyd and Mrs. Moss served.

City Recreation Staff Recruiting Is Now Under Way

The staff for the citywide summer recreational program is now being recruited. Bobo Hardy, representing the YMCA as the administrative agency for the program, said that there were several vacancies on the staff.

There is a need for one or more women to handle the athletic, crafts and similar activities for the girls' program.

Similarly, there is an opening for crafts work, fun club supervision and other work with boys. The program is financed jointly by the schools, city, United Fund, and the YMCA serves as the coordinating agency. Upwards of 2,000 youngsters take part in the activities which extend over a two month period.

Something Can Be Done For Asthma

By HALVARD T. HANSEN, D.C.

There have been years of orthodox study of Asthma but with no real success until nerve interference was considered by the new physical medicine researchers recently.

They found that Asthma is a condition of constriction of the bronchial tubes and congestion of the mucous membrane lining the tubes. They also found that nerve irritation brings this condition about. Nerve fibers cause the air sacs muscles to contract changing the diameter of the bronchial tubes and the mucous secretions become excessive during constriction spasms.

To regulate and bring back normal nerve supply to the bronchial tubes by adjusting, replacing and correcting the structural interference with the nerve supply to this area is the chiropractic method which has worked like magic for the past sixty-five years.

Take this case from our clinic files and it will illustrate how chiropractic heals Asthma by correcting its cause.

This forty-four year old businessman had a history of Asthma, hay fever and sinusitis for over twenty years. He suffered intermittent attack throughout his childhood since a severe siege of pneumonia when seven years old. He was "another" case who had been told by his family physician that he would "outgrow" Asthma. He related he had spent a small fortune on medicine, drugs and specialists. Two years ago following an attack that lasted fifteen consecutive days and after making the rounds of doctors and remedies, he came to the Hansen Chiropractic Clinic upon the advice of an old acquaintance of his, who is a chiropractor in his home town in East Texas.

Our routine spinal examination and spinal X-rays located the nerve interference responsible for the muscular spasms about the tiny air sacs which caused the Asthma. The nerve disturbance was promptly corrected. His Asthma has not returned. He still receives periodic check-ups to keep him well No. 1673.

Something can be done for Asthma! Chiropractic proves it! Investigate for yourself. You have nothing to lose except ill health.

ELECTRICITY

Your thrifty way to cook... only pennies per meal

You cook for pennies when you cook electrically. Most electric surface cooking, at low settings, uses heat thriftily. The electric oven, insulated on all four sides and top and bottom, keeps heat inside where it belongs. And, once the oven reaches the temperature you select, it uses electricity less than half of the cooking time. It costs an average of only about 3c a meal to cook with clean electricity. See your electric range dealer soon. Thrifty electric cooking is another of the many ways in which your dependable, low-cost electric service helps you live better... electrically.

TV Violence Defended By Script Writer

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television - Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Those scenes of violence and brutality in so many television shows may seem unnecessary to critics and large segments of the viewing public. But in many instances they are a substitute for a plot.

"It's impossible to develop a decent puzzle-mystery-show in less than an hour," explains Bill Roos, half a husband-wife writing team which specializes in this form of expression. "If you have seven or eight characters, you must introduce all of them and set them up with motives. There just isn't time for this in a 30-minute program. So you have fewer characters and more action."

Roos who, with his wife, the former Audrey Kelley, writes under the name of Kelley Roos, says that in addition to fights, courtroom scenes are especially adaptable to TV drama.

"The bailiff can introduce a character and a couple of questions by one of the lawyers can set up a motive," he says. "Another short cut is having the detective talk to himself, explaining what's going on."

"But nowadays it's pretty hard to write a 30-minute TV show that doesn't rely largely on violence. The vogue is for opening a show with a scene of violence—a shooting, a fight or somebody being run down. This is called a 'teaser,' and it is supposed to be a 15-second hook which will keep the audience sticking around to find out what it is all about."

The Roosees have explored literary crime in all of its forms, turning out books, mystery novels, TV shows and adaptations, stage plays and motion pictures, including "Scent of Mystery."

Clear Skies For Texas

By The Associated Press

Clear skies covered most of Texas Tuesday but a few scattered clouds were sighted over the Corpus Christi and Galveston areas early in the day.

Early morning temperatures ranged from 43 at Texarkana to 65 at Galveston. No rain was reported.

High temperatures Monday ranged from 89 at Presidio to 92 at El Paso, 80 at Van Horn and 68 at Sherman. Most other readings were in the 70s.

The forecast Monday called for clear to partly cloudy skies over Texas through Wednesday.

Daily Average Oil Production Down

TULSA (AP) — Daily average domestic oil production was down 11,335 barrels to 7,037,085 barrels during the week ended April 16, the Oil and Gas Journal said today.

The biggest contributor to the loss was Oklahoma, which dropped 14,900 to 531,000 barrels.

The Journal estimated production at 768,768,900 barrels compared to 764,353,600 a year ago.

Colorado was down 600 to 128,900 and Arkansas 150 to 82,550. Louisiana was up 750 to 1,102,500.

Production was unchanged in Texas, 2,551,175 barrels, and New Mexico, 312,000.

DEAR ABBY

GO AHEAD

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Once a month I go with a group of Red Cross or YWCA women to a dance at the Veterans Administration Hospital not far from here. I am married and my husband thinks it is just fine. In fact, he sometimes drives the group.

It is my mother who is giving me a hard time. She says she has heard that all kinds of things go on at these dances. I swear I have never seen anything improper occur at any of their dances. Whenever I see those poor battle-fatigued boys I say to myself, "There but for the grace of God goes my brother."

My mother told me to write and ask you if you—a married woman—would go to one of these dances. She says if you would go, then she thinks it's all right for me to go.

WANTING TO DO RIGHT
DEAR WANTING: I would go. I have gone. And I hope to go again.

DEAR ABBY: I can't tell you my name because as long as I can remember my father has called me "Stupid" and my mother has said I was nuts.

I am a clean-living, 16-year-old boy. I don't smoke or booze or run with girls or hang out on street corners. I am in bed by 9:30 every night. My grades are average and I never flunked or was in any trouble in or outside school.

My parents want me to be another Einstein. I just don't have that kind of brain. No matter what I do, it's never good enough. I'll be glad when I finish high school and can get out of this house.

NOT WANTED
DEAR NOT WANTED: Climb upon my knee, Sonny boy. You ARE wanted. Some parents lose

Judge Caton First Y Panel Speaker

Ralph Caton, 118th District Court judge, will be speaker for the first session of "Politics and Government," a YMCA adult training course that begins Thursday.

The class meets at 8 p.m. in the YMCA building. Bill Quimby is coordinator for the course which runs four sessions, covering state and national political governmental organization and procedure.

Particular emphasis will be given to the mechanics of nominations and elections and other local and regional experts will give special presentations. Caton is to speak on "local organization and procedure."

The course is free to YMCA members and a $3 fee has been set for non-members.

patience and use strong language only because they know you are capable of doing better. "Good" is not good enough any more. Standards are higher, competition is tougher. Don't be bitter. Your parents want you to be above average for YOUR sake—not theirs. Use your head, boy—a child who is not "wanted" is ignored, not prodded by his parents.

DEAR ABBY: What can the owner of a small beauty shop do in a case like this? I buy magazines for my customers to read. Several of my customers will come in for a shampoo and set and start to read a story under the dryer. When their hair is dry they say, "May I take this magazine home with me and bring it back?" (I never see the magazine again.) I don't know how to handle this problem. I don't want to get my customers mad at me.

SHOP OWNER
DEAR SHOP OWNER: Tell them that you have adopted a new policy: NO MAGAZINE LEAVES THE SHOP. I doubt if anyone will be "mad" at you.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "WET PILLOW": Crying (especially in private) will get you nowhere. Tell him what's on your mind.

"What your problem?" Write to Abby in care of the Big Spring Herald. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

For Abby's pamphlet, "What Every Teen-Ager Wants To Know," send 25 cents and a large, self-addressed, stamped envelope in care of the Big Spring Herald.

Good On Gender

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—A group of Monroey Junior High School students presented Clarence the rat as their exhibit at a science fair.

Purpose of the exhibit was to show the effects of dope. However, Clarence became healthier and the day before the show opened "Clarence" gave birth to six rats.

Clarence went on display, but the kids changed his name to Clarice.

Lutherans Open Business Sessions

AUSTIN (AP) — Lutherans in convention here opened formal business sessions today after communion and worship services and an orientation meeting Monday night.

It is the 37th convention of the Texas District of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod.

"The Power of Christ's Resurrection" was the sermon topic for Dr. John Behnken, St. Louis, at a worship service Monday night to start the five-day session.

NO COMPROMISE

With five of the six compacts, you have to compromise . . . but with The Lark, there's no compromise on selection, roominess, performance or luxury.

ONLY THE LARK, of all compacts, gives you a choice in all models of either a 90 hp. economical six-cylinder engine or doubly powerful V-8. For the second straight year, The Lark V-8 topped all other eights in the Mobilgas Economy Run.

ONLY THE LARK, of all 6 passenger compacts, is less than 15 feet in length (it is shorter outside than all other compacts); but inside there's larger-car room, true six passenger comfort.

ONLY THE LARK, of all compacts, offers all these: automatic transmission, power steering, power brakes, Twin Traction differential, 4-barrel carburetor, Hill Holder, air conditioning, reclining seats, padded dash and many other mechanical, comfort and safety features.

ONLY THE LARK, of all compacts, offers you a full choice of compact models: Convertible (only one in the field and the lowest priced U.S. made), hardtop, 2 and 4-door sedans, 2 and 4-door station wagons.
