A STATEMENT FROM THE STORE MANAGER:

I called a meeting with the assistant manager and all of the department managers. I asked them to produce the largest May this store has on record. I told them, "This is your sale and the prices will be set by you as department managers." This was where I made my mistake. I have been in Big Spring several years and these are the lowest prices since I have been here. As you can see, profit is no object, so buy at the lowest prices in years. All items are first quality unless so stated.

A Statement From The Assistant Manager:

When Mr. Gebert called this meeting I was surprised to hear him say he would run the items the department managers picked at the price they selected. I was more surprised when I saw the ad layout and the reductions the department managers had made. I was really shocked when Mr. Gebert approved the ad as presented by the department managers. If you want to save money, buy now and pay later, on Wards convenient time pay plan—A small down payment will deliver this merchandise to your home.

Exercise Helped

HOLLYWOOD BEAUTY

Simple Exercises Keep Actress Fit

By LYDIA LANE
HOLLYWOOD — When I visited the "Take a Good Look" television show and watched Peggy Connelly clowning with Ernie Kovacs, I thought what a good job she had done in regaining her figure after the birth of her baby.
 "Just what did you do?" I asked Peggy, when she joined me later.
 "For three months after I became pregnant, I had a ball. I ate everything I wanted and as much as I could hold. Then the doctor told me I was going to have to diet because he didn't want me to gain more than 15 pounds in all. I didn't actually count calories, but I just denied myself all sweets and starches.
 "You don't have to be hungry, if you eat meat, vegetables, cheese, fruit and salads. And dieting certainly didn't affect the baby. Mine weighed eight pounds.
 "Peggy is five-foot-five and weighs 115 pounds.
 "I didn't have to reduce much after the baby was born, but I did have to get my body back into condition. It is a mistake to judge your figure entirely in pounds. A flabby body at any weight is unattractive.
 "My favorite exercise is so great that I only have to do it once a day to firm my stomach muscles," she went on. "It's an advanced exercise that you may have to work into, but it's worth trying.
 "Lie on the floor flat on your back and lift up both legs until you form a right angle. Keeping your heels together and without pointing your toes, lower your legs very slowly to a count of 60. You probably won't be able to do this at first, but you can work into it. Remember not to cheat because the best pull doesn't come until the last few inches from the floor. So be sure you don't hurry them."

 "To firm the inside of the thighs, Peggy likes this exercise.
 "Sit on the floor and bend your knees, placing the soles of your feet together. Keeping your back straight, press your knees with your elbows, trying to get them flat on the floor." Peggy demonstrated this to me with great ease. "You can feel the pull all the way from the knees up and that's good because these are the first muscles to get flabby."
MORE EXERCISES
 "Want to get back in shape? Don't wait until the sag has set in! If you are going to have a baby or have had one within the past six months this leaflet was designed for you. Leaflet M-9, "Regaining Your Figure After Childbirth," is a must for every young mother. There is no time like the present to regain your girlish figure. For your copy of this vitally important leaflet, send only 10 cents and a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Lydia Lane, Hollywood Beauty, Big Spring Herald.

'ROUND TOWN

With Lucille Pickle

It took a lot of standing and waiting but Big Spring had a former resident who got to see all the royal family of Great Britain with the exception of Prince Charles when Princess Margaret married Antony Armstrong-Jones. MRS. BILL BRIGMAN (Janet Hogan) and some friends started early to get to London from Bentwater AFB. They waited four hours to see the spectacle standing "six feet deep" facing the boulevard down which the procession came.

 The temperature was seemingly mild to a West Texan but the 71 degree reading was much too warm for the British, according to Mrs. Brigman. Over 400 people fainted from the heat.
 The pomp and ceremony was exciting along with seeing other such dignitaries as Sir Winston Churchill, and Earl of Mountbatten.
 Another exciting time is in store for the Officers Wives Club from the base when Queen Elizabeth opens the Ascot races on June 14 which has been designated as Officers Wives Club Day.
 The Brigmans expect to be back in the States before the end of the year.
 MR. AND MRS. ROY WARD have returned to their home in Tulsa, Okla., after visiting here in the home of his sister, Mrs. BUCK RICHARDSON.
 When little JOHN MARK CHOATE was named Tuesday he became the fifth J. M. CHOATE in the family.
 Houseguests of MR. AND MRS. EARL BURNETT are MR. AND MRS. PAUL APPLETON and ANGELA of Pampa.
 MRS. W. B. HENRY has returned from Houston where she visited relatives. She accompanied her son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Keefer of Odessa.
 MR. AND MRS. CLYDE McMAHON left Wednesday for Buffalo, N. Y., where Mr. McMahon will be a voting delegate from the West Texas area to the National YMCA meeting.
 MR. AND MRS. J. C. ROGERS have returned from a trip to San Francisco, Calif. En route home they stopped overnight in Las Vegas, Nev., and also spent some time in Grand Canyon, Ariz.

RS Meet Is Held

Decorations furnished the theme of the Royal Service program Wednesday for the WMU of the Baptist Temple.
 Members of the Evan Holmes Circle were in charge of the program. On one side of the room they had decorated with flowers to form a fairylike atmosphere. Here Mrs. Monroe Gafford stood to read the "Once Upon a Time View on Missions." On the opposite side the room was bare. Here Mrs. Pete Shepherd presented the factual information.
 Mrs. Charlie Boren read a poem "If I Could But Tell All the Glory," and then read the names of missionaries on the prayer calendar. Mrs. Sam Bennett led the prayer for the missionaries. Mrs. A. R. Posey led the final prayer.
 During the business hour an announcement was made of the leadership training course scheduled for May 31 at 1 p.m. in the church. All officers, youth leaders and chairmen of WMU will be included.

Woman's Forum

The Woman's Forum will meet in the home of Mrs. Clyde Thomas Jr., Friday at 2 p.m. instead of in the home of Mrs. Cecil McDonald.

Retired Members Honored

Retired locomotive engineers and their wives were honored Wednesday by Division 90 of the GIA to the B of IE at a covered dish luncheon in Carpenter's Hall. Devotion was given by R. C. Williams.
 The T-shaped table was decorated with bouquets of mixed spring flowers. Honored guests were Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hart; Mr. and Mrs. V. W. Heard; Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Simmons; Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Jones; Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Gill; Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Ripps; Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Urey; Lewis Sullivan and Jack Skalicky.
 The meal was prepared and served by the GIA members following the regular meeting which was held during the morning hours.
 Forty-five were present for the affair which was photographed by Pyle Bradshaw.

P-TA Installs At W'brook

WESTBROOK — Mrs. Edward Blakeney was installed as president of the Westbrook P-TA at a meeting recently in the school auditorium.
 Mrs. Witt Hines was in charge of installation services. Elected to assist Mrs. Blakeney were Tom Sawyer, vice president; Mrs. Ralph Bryant, secretary; Mrs. Herman Parsons, treasurer. Chairmen were appointed and introduced.
 Devotional thoughts were presented by Pete Hines. Superintendent Herman Parsons was in charge of a roundtable discussion on projects for the coming year. Suggestions were offered by the group.
 A gift was presented to Mrs. W. A. Bell, outgoing president.

T. E. Lewis has returned from Fort Worth where he consulted an eye specialist. Recent guests in the Lewis home have been Mrs. Raphael Harris and Mrs. Gilbert Leach of Colorado City. Evelyn Bell of Colorado City is visiting in Andrews.
 Mr. and Mrs. Leon Bird and baby of Odessa spent the weekend with their parents.

Westbrook Pupils Mark End Of School

WESTBROOK — Classes in the grade school celebrated the end of school with picnics, train trips and skating parties recently.
 The first grade pupils traveled by train to Sweetwater for an all-day outing, accompanied by their teacher, Mrs. J. W. Watson, and several mothers.
 Members of the seventh and eighth grades went to Snyder for a picnic, skating party and movie, and the sixth grade had a similar celebration with their teacher, Ralph Bryant.
 A train trip to Sweetwater was a treat for the fourth and fifth grade students.

Coke Party Given For Lions Auxiliary

Mrs. Earl Burnett and Mrs. Wayne Bartlett were hostesses to members of the downtown Lions Auxiliary Wednesday morning for a Coke party in the Burnett home. Refreshments were served from a table centered with a profusion of spring flowers.
 New members welcomed by the group were Mrs. William Boudreaux and Mrs. Waymon Clark.
 Hostesses for the June entertainment will be Mrs. B. M. Keese and Mrs. Jeff Brown.

Knott Residents To Game In Spur

KNOTT — Mr. and Mrs. James Jeffcoat, Alvis, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Nichols and Billy saw Spur defeat Lubbock in the Palmetto polo game at Spur Sunday.
 Jamie Jeffcoat spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. James Howard in Sands.
 Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Rogan and Judy spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. James T. Rutledge in San Antonio.
 Visiting from Hobbs, N. M., are Mr. and Mrs. Walter Burton who are the houseguests of the Rev. and Mrs. Vernon King.
 W. A. Burchell is receiving medical treatment in a Big Spring hospital.
 Approximately 500 attended the annual barbecue of the Co-Op Gin held at the school Saturday night. Gerald Willborn is manager of the gin.

Women Writers Program Topic

Contrasts and similarities were noted in the lives of two contemporary women writers when Mrs. Tom Barber brought the program for the 1960 Hyperion Club Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Norman Reed.
 Writers whose background and works were discussed by the speaker were Mrs. Grace Noll Crowell, poet laureate of Texas, and Mrs. Cornelia Otis Skinner, actress and author.
 Mrs. Crowell has handled words beautifully since a child and prayed for the gift of writing-poetry. She had a severe back injury and was incapacitated for many years, but recovered her health and bore three sons. Her great dream was to write a novel.
 Mrs. Skinner was born in Iowa, to Dallas, Texas, where she now makes her home. At this time she wrote her famous "Heritage."
 The poetess is a prolific writer, having written 18 books in the time between the 20's and 50's. In 1940 she completed 14 books. She is now working on a book of devotions. Her favorite subjects are home, nature and God; her cardinal virtues are sincerity and simplicity.
 In 1936 Mrs. Crowell wrote "Bright Destiny," for which she was rewarded by being named the poet laureate of Texas. Another honor from Texas came in 1938 when she was named Mother of the Year. She has also been named outstanding poet of the nation and one of 10 outstanding American women.
 Testimony to the wide-spread reading of her works has come from all over the world, with packages bearing small gifts of appreciation for the inspiration given by her writing.
MRS. SKINNER
 Cornelia Otis Skinner was known as the little actress with the big name when she was trying to make a name for herself on the legitimate stage and it wasn't until 1941 that she was received by the New York that had repeatedly rejected her.
 Miss Skinner is probably best in the field of monologue. She did years of research for the "Wife of Henry VIII," which has been well received. She has also authored books, written plays, radio scripts and screenplays. She likes being an actress and frequently calls on her husband to aid as stagehand, a job he enjoys to the extent of leaving his office across the nation to spend an hour as a helping hand.

 The attractive actress has had the not-very-flattering title of being one of the 10-worst-dressed women.
 During the business meeting Mrs. J. A. Coffey brought the report from the city federation and Mrs. W. A. Hunt reported on the state convention. She told of the message brought by Governor Price Daniel on "Today's Challenge."
 Nineteen members were served refreshments from the table laid with a lace of cloth. The center piece was an arrangement of pink and orchid gladioli.

Schools Friends Meet In Ackerly For House Party

Lt. Knedlik Wins Honor Of Instructor Of Month

1st Lt. Donald E. Knedlik of the 3560th Pilot Training Squadron has been named Instructor of the Month for April. This honor is based upon excellent performance of all phases of the exacting task of teaching fledgling students to fly high-performance jet aircraft.

The announcement was made at the monthly PT group dinner, a native of Washington, Kans., Knedlik attended Washburn University at Topeka, where he was graduated in '55 with a bachelor's degree in business administration. Entering the Air Force in September, 1955, he went through primary at Bainbridge, Ga., and basic at Webb, graduating in May 1956. He attended Basic Instructor School at Craig AFB, Ala., before joining the staff as an instructor pilot in 1st Flight, Section III. He is presently an element leader in his flight, and has graduated seven classes.

Knedlik is scheduled to leave Webb in July for the Weapons Control Officer School at Tyn-

Some Damage As Weather Goes On Spree

By The Associated Press

A tornado destroyed a barn and hail smashed young cotton plants into the ground as violent weather hit North Central Texas Wednesday night.

A metal barn was destroyed by a funnel five miles east of Eastland. The twister caused no injuries.

Rain and hail fell from thunderheads at Olney, near Wichita Falls, and in many other areas. Cotton plants were hard hit by a severe hail storm that struck in a narrow strip north and east of Floydada, 60 miles northeast of Lubbock. An estimated 50 per cent of the cotton crop in the area was destroyed.

The storms hit while a wide area of North Central and West Texas was under a tornado forecast. The area included Dallas, Fort Worth and was bounded by a line from Gainesville to Terrell to Menard to Colorado City to Nocona and along the Red River back to Gainesville. Another severe weather and tornado forecast was issued later in the evening for most of Northeast Texas. That forecast expired with only a few scattered thunderstorms occurring west and southwest of Dallas-Fort Worth and at Granbury, Itasca and Stephenville.

Early Thursday the weather over Texas was mild. Skies were cloudy to partly cloudy over the eastern half of the state and generally clear over the western portion. Temperatures ranged from 56 at Dalhart to 78 at Laredo and College Station. No rain fell during the morning.

Rainfall totals for the 24 hours ending at 6 p.m. Wednesday included Laredo 1.17 inches, Tyler 1.35, Sherman 1.15, San Angelo .93, Wichita Falls .36, Abilene .09, Lubbock .17, Austin, Houston and Mineral Wells .01, and a trace at College Station, Beeville, San Antonio, Fort Worth, Dallas and Amarillo.

The high temperature Wednesday was 101 at Laredo and the low maximum was 80 at Galveston.

Corcoran Faces Quizzing On Role As FPC 'Nagger'

WASHINGTON (AP)—Thomas G. Corcoran faces questioning today about his self-described role as a nagger of the Federal Power Commission.

Corcoran, an intimate adviser to the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt and still a power in Democratic politics, Wednesday defended his FPC contacts in a fast barrage of testimony to the House Legislative Oversight subcommittee.

At times grim, at times smiling, Corcoran emphatically insisted there was nothing secret, wrong or improper in his privately contacting three FPC members during a $2-million-dollar gas pipe line case last October.

Corcoran, Washington attorney for Midwestern Gas Transmission Co., defended his actions before the subcommittee which is looking for evidence of any outside influence being applied on the power commission.

The gray-haired, 59-year-old attorney said that he was just as public about his contacts as if he had led a brass band down the FPC halls.

He said he was forever pressing the commission to expedite action on his client's cases, but did not talk about the cases' merits.

"I was a nagger," he said cheerfully.

NEWARK, N.J. (AP)—City officials here report a heavy demand for civil defense booklets.

A display of the free pamphlets, including "The H-Bomb and You," went largely unnoticed for nearly two weeks, officials said, but since Monday's collapse of the summit conference, 1,000 have been snatched up.

Home Town Pride Gets Census Lumps

By FINIS MOTHERHEAD

Home town pride is taking even more lumps than some may have suspected from Texas findings of the 1960 census.

There have been walls aplenty as the word filters out, mostly from cities registering smaller population advances than they confidently expected.

And only stout growth by urban centers has kept Texas on the profit side—counting more people than before, that is—in the census ledger.

Preliminary reports from 198 of the 254 counties show an aggregate gain of about 400,000 in state population—the past decade. The number of Texans in those 198 counties would be fewer than in 1950, however, if about a dozen larger counties hadn't teamed to pick up more than half a million new residents.

Figures are still to come from the two most heavily peopled metropolitan areas—Houston and Dallas-Fort Worth—plus the sizeable El Paso and Galveston sectors. Barring a sharp reversal in the trend, that should assure a tidy net increase in the statewide total.

LATER DATA
Data from the remaining 56 counties should finish coming in by late next week, the census takers report.

An unaudited tally puts the 198-county aggregate, drawn from most sections of Texas, at 5,193,204 men, women and children. In the last census 10 years ago, the government counted 4,792,776 people in those same counties.

Austin, disappointed that the state capital failed to hit 200,000, started a drive to enumerate any persons missed by census workers, who counted 184,830.

Expressions of at least mild chagrin came from spokesmen in a number of other cities. San Angelo's Mayor Paul Hudman said his city has "work cut out for us to encourage more people to come here" after learning the city had grown to 58,287, up 12 per cent.

San Antonio learned happily that 176,028 residents in a decade swelled population of the Alamo City to 584,471, around 40,000 more than the Census Bureau anticipated. Some local estimates had ranged past 600,000, but military personnel assigned there permanently were counted only by Bexar County and not San Antonio.

CORPUS SATISFIED
More than satisfied likewise was Corpus Christi, which got credit for a gain of nearly 54 per cent with 166,717 people. For all Nueces County the figure went to 229,949.

From a percentage standpoint, the West Texas oil city of Midland registered one of the most impressive spurts. Its preliminary report listed 59,552—nearly 175 per cent over a population of 21,713 in 1950. The Midland figure was released in advance of the county-wide total.

Abilene found it nearly doubled in size, climbing to 80,428. Beaumont posted a 26 per cent gain with 118,471. Amarillo, sprawling across parts of both Potter and Randall counties, grew from 71,474 to 128,068.

The population of all the Lone Star State enumerated in 1950 was 7,711,194. This included county (metropolitan area) totals of 866,701 for Houston, 614,799 for Dallas, 361,253 for Fort Worth, 194,968 for El Paso and 133,066 for Galveston.

First reports to Regional Census Director James Stroud in Dallas, all subject to possible revision, indicate gains for no more than about 90 counties. Enumerators found fewer people in the others from which there are preliminary reports.

PLAN PROTESTS
Leaders in several cities have promised formal protests to the Census Bureau along with requests for recounts.

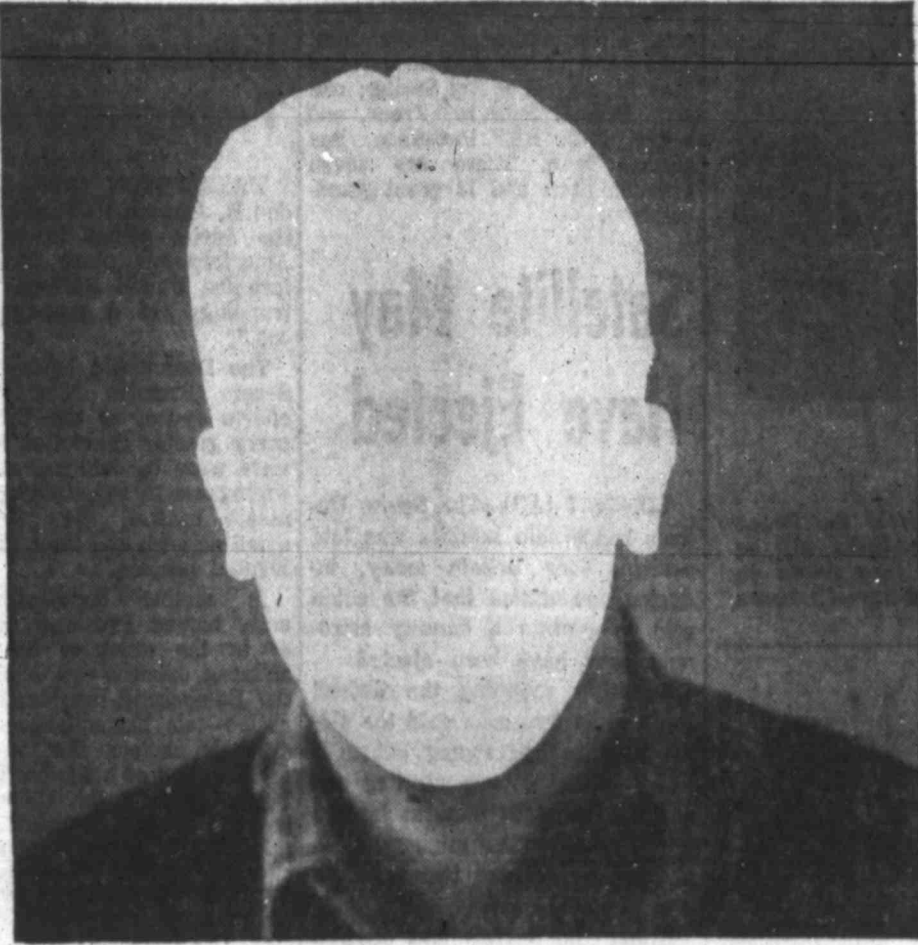

At Paris, in North Texas, Mayor Bill Hagan declared the city's reported drop from 21,643 to 20,696 people must be in error. "Everything in Paris points to a population increase," he said.

Sweetwater's City Commission voted a protest resolution at a census figure of 13,893, only 274 greater than in 1950. City Manager Garland Franks said officials felt the total "is inconsistent with all other growth factors in the city."

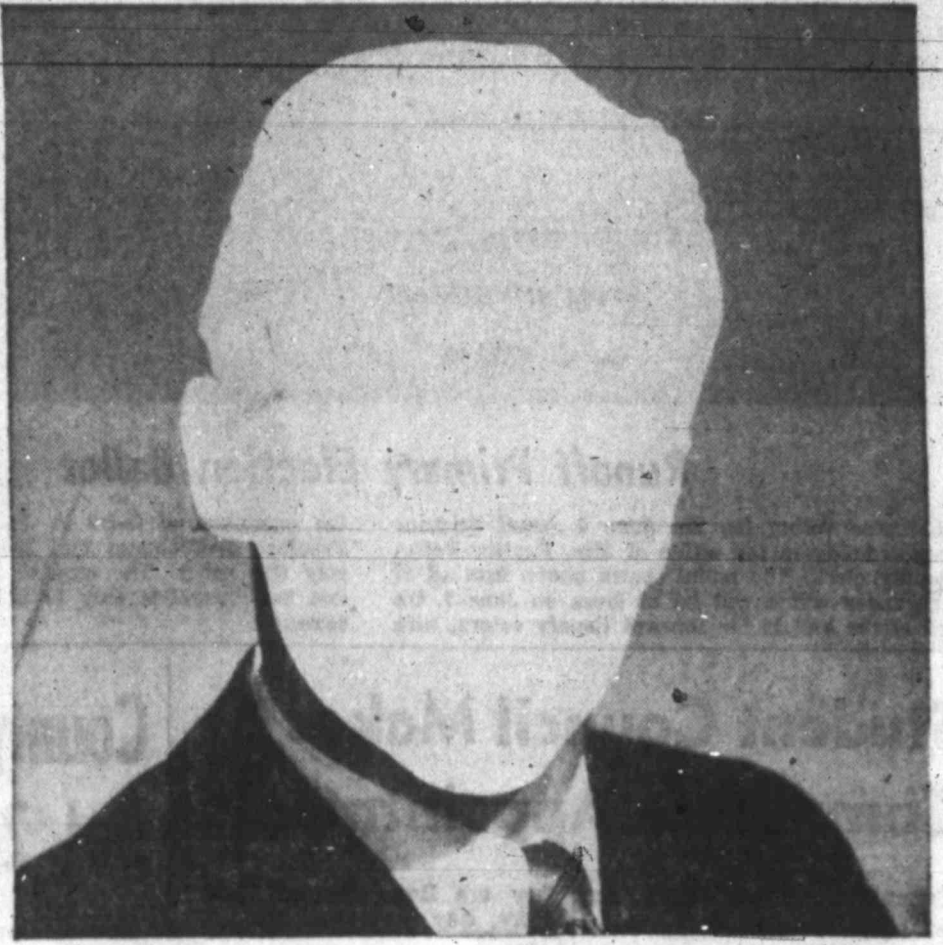

Boosters of Lubbock were disturbed at a count of 128,068, up from 71,474 in 1950 but 30,000 shy of local estimates.

Another bright spot was the Lower Rio Grande Valley, where there were pleasing gains throughout the 13-county 15th Congressional District. Larger cities there by the latest report are Laredo with 69,816, Brownsville with 47,831 and Harlingen with 40,765.

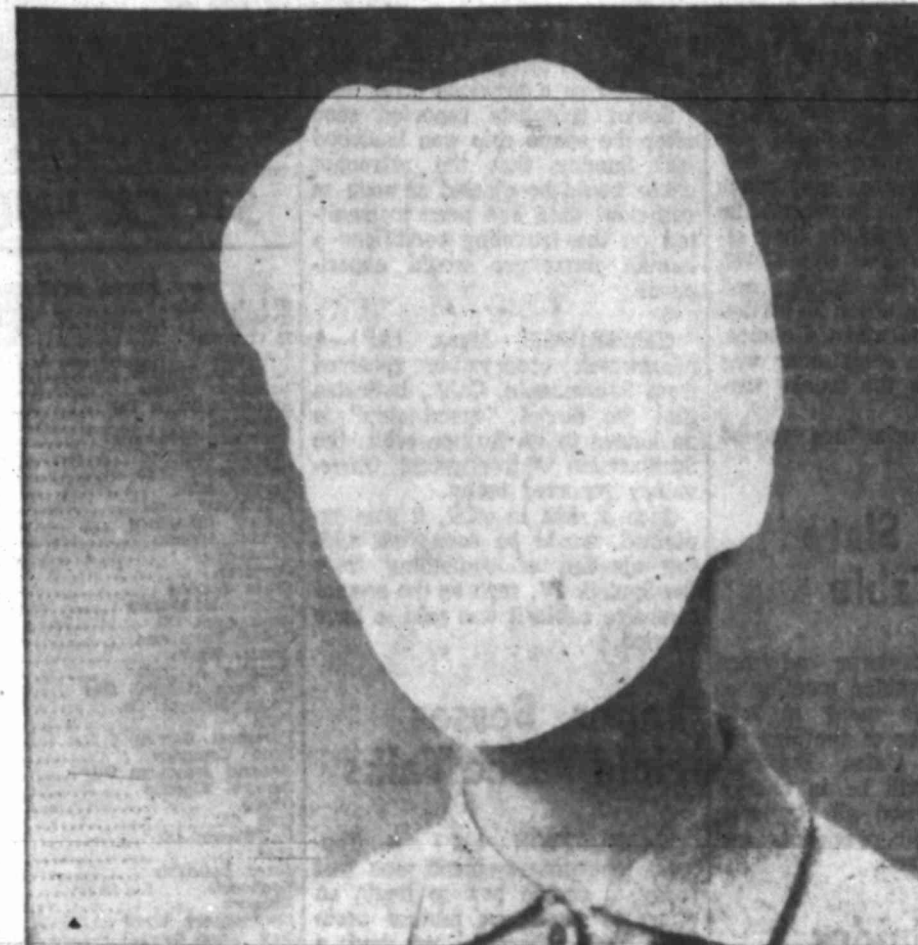

Census supervisors predicted the Far West Texas region from Midland-Odessa to El Paso and the Lower Rio Grande Valley might prove the state's two biggest gainers when all the figures are in.

IF YOUR LAST NAME IS DIFFERENT from the person who has the telephone where you are living, you may be missing many a phone call. A separate listing is ideal for each adult—relative, friend or boarder—whose last name is different from the person in whose name the phone is listed.

BUSINESSMEN can pick up valuable new business, increase profits, keep customers happy by making it easy for people to reach them at home after regular business hours. For instance, list in the directory both your office number and the telephone number to call after business hours. Why not do it today?

YOUNG ADULTS often miss calls—and, worst of all, social events—because friends don't know how to reach them . . . don't know how their family's telephone is listed in the directory. Why take a chance? Put your name in the phone book. You can pay for the listing out of your allowance or earnings from your job.

ACTIVE WOMEN who are workers in club, church, civic groups often have trouble telephoning each other, because they know each other as Helen Jaynes or Karen Chalmers, don't know the first name or initials of husbands in whose name the phone is listed. End this trouble by listing your name in the phone book, too.

Journalism Grants Made

NEW YORK (AP)—Scholarships for summer study in journalism have been awarded 14 Texas high school teachers by the Newspaper Fund Inc.

The fund announced names of winners Wednesday and said the fellowships were made possible by grants by The Wall Street Journal.

A total of 340 fellowships at a cost of $100,000 were made. The fellowships are designed to encourage more talented young people to choose journalism as a career by assisting high school newspaper advisors and journalism teachers.

Bernard Kilgore, president of The Wall Street Journal and head of the Newspaper Fund, said, "I am sorry we couldn't do something for every teacher who is seriously interested in better training to teach journalism."

Teachers from Texas who received the fellowships and the college or university selected for summer study included:

Ed Cole, San Angelo Central High School, University of Texas.

Collector Of Courthouse Pictures

Urlin Streu stands before the Deaf Smith County Courthouse in Hereford, Texas, who has taken color slides of every courthouse in Texas—254 of them—started his unusual hobby 11 years ago. He and Mrs. Streu traveled about 15,000 miles in making the collection.

This Man's Hobby: Courthouse Photos

HEREFORD (AP)—There may be other persons who have been in all of Texas' 254 counties. But Urlin Streu of Hereford has pictures to prove it.

It all began 11 years ago when Mr. and Mrs. Streu were on route to Dallas. They stopped for a picture of the quaint Knox County Courthouse.

He took his 254th courthouse picture in February of this year. It was in Houston.

He and his wife have traveled nearly 15,000 miles to make the color slides.

"When I took that first picture in Knox County," Streu said, "getting slides of every courthouse in Texas was the furthestest thought from my mind. I would have doubted my sanity if I'd even considered such an idea."

But the seed had been planted and it grew to a kingsized hobby by the mid-50's.

He's picked up a lot of historical information on his trips.

For instance, he learned that a new courthouse was once built around records stolen from another courthouse. That was in Aspermont.

And that a county once voted down a bond issue for a modern courthouse because they had become so attached to their run-down, crumbling old one. The sentimentalist live in Red River County.

And one courthouse very much resembles a Chinese pagoda. This is in Rockport.

After the trip to Dallas, he took pictures on a trip to the Del Rio region. By 1951 his collection increased by 20.

The number of pictures grew intermittently.

"In 1955, we really got interested in making it a hobby," Streu says. "Prior to a 10-day trip that year, our living room floor was covered with maps pinpointing county seats, and with almanacs and history books in preparing for a picture making trip."

On their longest single trip, they reached 33 courthouses in 3,000 miles on an 11-day 1957 tour.

The collection was completed with a 2,300-mile trip to 27 courthouses.

Arctic Farm Test Success

OTTAWA (AP)—Canada's Department of Agriculture has found that vegetables can be grown far inside the Arctic Circle.

The department has supervised experimental gardens as far north as the shore of the Arctic Ocean. F. S. Nowosad, officer in charge of northern agriculture, says farming in the sub-Arctic should no longer be considered a novelty.

One problem is lack of rainfall during the short growing season. But the long hours of sun each day produce rapid growth.

At least a million acres of agricultural land is divided almost equally between the Yukon and Northwest territories. Permanently frozen soil—permafrost—lies under all the land but it is well below the surface after the land has been tilled a few years. Pears and lettuce have been grown successfully at Inuvik. Strawberries and eggplants have been produced at Fort Simpson, 150 miles north of the British Columbia border in the Yukon. Broccoli, celery and cauliflower grow at Whitehorse.

Nowosad says the Yukon and Northwest territories may never develop field crop farms but "development of natural resources in the Canadian North definitely includes agriculture."

Judge Rejects Appeal For Indictment Kill

MONTERREY (AP)—District Judge Guillermo Olguin Armida Wednesday rejected an appeal by Dykes Askew Simmons of Fort Worth to set aside an indictment charging him with the murder of three young Mexicans last October.

A penal court judge had indicted him for the murders, but Simmons had asked that it be set aside. Judge Olguin Armida said evidence was adequate to justify the indictment.

Simmons was returned to jail to await sentencing by the trial judge.

Simmons is charged with killing Marta Perez Villagomes, 14, her sister Hilda, 18, and their brother Juan Manuel on the Laredo-Monterrey Highway Oct. 12, 1959.

Their car had broken down, and they had asked Simmons for help. When he could not start the car, he ordered the girls to get into his car. They refused, and Simmons allegedly opened fire on them. Two died instantly, Hilda died Oct. 29.

He could receive the death penalty, although a 20 to 30-year sentence is more likely as capital punishment is frowned on in Mexico.

Nixon Adds Up Findings, Says GOP Can Carry New York

WASHINGTON (AP)—Vice President Richard M. Nixon added up the score of a two-day visit and concluded today that Republicans can carry New York in November with a team effort.

The team he had in mind, by his own statement, included Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller. The governor has been polite but seemingly unenthusiastic about Nixon's expected selection as the Republican presidential nominee.

Nixon himself was a model of circumspection Wednesday, every time he dealt with the question of Rockefeller's announcement that he will not attend the GOP convention in Chicago. The question came up during Nixon's appearances in Syracuse, Auburn and Buffalo.

Yes, Nixon said, Rockefeller certainly is a possibility for the presidency. Yes, Nixon accepts as final the governor's statement that he won't take second place on the ticket.

No, he had not presumed to ask county leaders to support him for the nomination in the face of State Chairman L. Judson Morhouse's proposal that the 96-vote convention delegation be kept uncommitted.

Yes, he felt the Republicans could carry New York in the general election by a "major united party effort." This latter, Nixon told reporters later, indicates he thinks Rockefeller will go all out in New York to get him elected after he is nominated.

Nixon was obviously as pleased as a man who had hit a grand slam homer when he wound up a round of enthusiastic receptions Wednesday night.

Republicans turned out in numbers that belied any coolness on their part toward the Californian who had crowded their own governor out of the presidential arena.

Returning to Washington on a chartered plane, Nixon told reporters what impressed him most was that crowds clustered on street corners to wave and cheer as his caravan rolled by.

"It was almost as though the general election campaign already was on," he said with an air of near disbelief.

Nixon minced no words about the difficulties he believes lie ahead of the Republicans in winning New York's prized 45 electoral votes.

"I consider New York a major battleground," he told a news conference Wednesday. "It is one of the key, close states in a nationally close election."

"There will be a battle here of the greatest magnitude. But with a united-party effort we can carry it."

Paint Blister Problem 90% Solved with New Du Pont LUCITE® House Paint

Laboratory Blister-Test shows how regular house paints react to abnormal moisture conditions, compared to "Lucite" over Du Pont Blister-Resistant Primer (lower right panel), which shows no sign of blistering.

"Lucite" makes the difference, and only Du Pont makes "Lucite". Hard, satin-smooth surface of "Lucite" forms a protective shield that wards off dirt and grime, guards against destructive weather.

SUPERIOR BLISTER RESISTANCE, OUTSTANDING DURABILITY, EASY APPLICATION MAKE "LUCITE" GREATEST HOUSE PAINT DISCOVERY IN 30 YEARS

With Du Pont's new "Lucite" Acrylic House Paint, you may only have to paint your house once a decade! This amazing new paint discovery is made with "Lucite" acrylic resin, similar to the acrylic resin used so successfully in the longer-lasting "Lucite" auto finishes.

Resists Paint Peeling and Blistering

Blistering, long the homeowner's biggest headache, now gives way to the chemical research that created Du Pont "Lucite" Acrylic House Paint. Used over new Du Pont Blister-Resistant Primer, on new wood or old surfaces from which the paint has been removed, it resists unsightly blister damage. "Lucite" effectively resists blistering, cracking and peeling in 90% of the cases tested—even over yellow pine!

Serves as "Lucite" Protective Shield

New "Lucite" is the only house paint made from "Lucite" acrylic resin. Because its surface is extra hard, heavy rains wash dirt right off. But "Lucite" won't chalk and run down to discolor adjacent walls and masonry. The tough acrylic resin in the finish helps resist rain, snow, baking sun, deteriorating elements of all kinds.

How to Make Your House Paint Job Last 50% Longer

New "Lucite" has been tested for years, in all kinds of weather, in all parts of the country. Results prove that this outstanding paint, when used properly, can actually last 50% longer than ordinary house paints.

To gain the maximum benefits of extra durability and blister resistance with this amazing new house paint, you should start your painting from a bare wood surface—either new wood or old wood from which all paint has been removed. Start with a coat of Du Pont's specially formulated Blister-Resistant Primer. Then apply two coats of "Lucite".

Performance over surfaces from which the paint has not been removed depends on the condition of the old paint. It's not possible to assure freedom from blistering, cracking and peeling unless the old finish is removed. However, if the old finish is firmly adhering, with little or no chalking, you can expect good durability if you apply two coats of "Lucite" over Blister-Resistant Primer. When you next paint your house (or a portion of it), be sure you buy or specify "the paint that's worth the work": "Lucite" Acrylic House Paint.

FOR THE FULL STORY ON NEW "LUCITE", CONSULT YOUR LOCAL DU PONT PAINT DEALER:

Tablecloth Doodler Has Left Art Objects In Many Cafes

By BERNARD GAVZER
AP Newsfeatures Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—Through thousands of often solitary restaurant meals, dress manufacturer Lou Oppenheim amused himself and whiled away the hours with spur-of-the-moment sketches of the people around him.

Using the tablecloth or a napkin, he would draw facile pencil or pen likenesses of strangers—or sometimes he would draw upon his imagination and create splendid figures of primitive people.

Doesn't this artistic doodling on tablecloths annoy restaurant people?

"I can honestly say that no one has ever objected or complained, and many times the manager or waitress will present the sketch to the person I've used for a model or ask me to sign it if it is some other kind of drawing," Oppenheim says.

As president and founder of the Strand-Woodstock Manufacturing Co. of Barrington, Ill., the 60-year-old bachelor is comfortably off and would never consider accepting payment for any drawing.

"I couldn't make a living at this in any way," he says, "and I don't consider myself an artist. Rembrandt is an artist, Toulouse-Lautrec is an artist. I am a doodler."

As a youth of 14, he attended classes at Chicago Art Institute for two months but had to give it up to support his family.

"But I have been sketching ever since," Oppenheim says. "I like to work on materials like tablecloths and napkins because of the texture. I imagine I've done thousands of such drawings in the last 40 years."

Since he is his firm's sole salesman, Oppenheim finds himself away from Barrington for long periods. He divides his time among

Jumping Frog Contest Coming

ANGELES CAMP, Calif. (AP)—Summit conference and their failures may come and go but the international jumping frog olympics remain a beacon of international cooperation.

There are no entries from the Soviet bloc. But the Calaveras County Fair has frogs from the Netherlands, Lebanon, the Philippines, Japan, Germany, Switzerland, Jordan, England, Kenya, the British West Indies, Canada, Australia and South Africa.

The contest supposedly began in 1863, when some New York slickers fed the local champ, Daniel, a handful of buckshot so he could be beaten by an ordinary frog on which they placed bets. The yarn was immortalized by Mark Twain. The frog jumps were revised in 1927.

Artist

Manufacturer Lou Oppenheim, whose hobby is tablecloth doodling, draws another of his arty sketches in a New York restaurant. Behind him are some of his other doodlings, placed on display by the restaurant manager.

Chicago, New York and Miami. And he finds himself taking all his meals in restaurants. Consequently he does his drawings in such places.

"I spend as little time as possible in my hotel room and the only time I will ever draw there is if the weather is so bad I cannot leave the hotel," he says.

Oppenheim was glowing with pleasure recently as he showed off some of his drawings which were being publicly exhibited for the first time. The appreciative ownership

Boris Pasternak Is Heart Victim

MOSCOW (AP)—Poet-novelist Boris Pasternak is reported suffering from a heart attack and stomach hemorrhage at his home in the village of Peredelkino, 15 miles from Moscow.

The author of the controversial novel "Dr. Zhivago," who won the 1958 Nobel Prize for literature, was reported unable to read or receive visitors. He is 70.

Marshall Due New Sidekick

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Mister Dillon will have another sidekick after next season on the "Gunsmoke" TV series. Chester is quitting.

"I'm very fond of Chester, but I've gone about as far as I can go with him in development," said Dennis Weaver, who plays Marshall Dillon's assistant. He told CBS Wednesday that he'll look for his own show when his 6-year contract expires after the 1960-61 season.

You'd Never Guess She's Champ Racer

FORT WORTH (AP)—Mrs. Marion Herring Sr. of Fort Worth is a proud grandmother, a canny business woman, an interior decorator and a world traveler. She is small and petite with flashing dark eyes, a ready smile and quick wit. What you wouldn't suspect is that Ruth Herring was once a world's champion professional outboard racing driver.

During her four-year career on a Class A "shingle," she blazed to six official world records and cracked many other marks unofficially.

When she quit racing in 1953 she held every record she could win in her class—competition, straightaway, and international. One of her international records still stands.

Today Mrs. Herring shrugs it off with "All I did was drive old T-80 (her boat's number). Marion deserves the credit. He was the mechanic that put the engine together, the boat in the water, and told me to get in and take off."

Her husband thinks she is too modest. "She took a terrific physical beating in those little boats. Many times she's finished a race with bloody knees from the constant pounding of the hull against the chop."

The Harrings, who now operate one of the largest inland marinas in the nation at nearby Eagle Mountain Lake, began racing back in the early 1930's to help promote marine sports in this part of the country.

Ruth roared to her first world mark in 1933. It was the Class A straightaway mark. She raised it herself four times, finally to 84.25 miles per hour.

In that year she was the top ranked outboard professional driver in the nation—the same year that Gar Wood Sr. was recognized as the top man in the inboard racing.

To her husband she gives much of the credit for her ability to win races.

Competitors believed her husband was using some mysterious fuel which enabled her to beat them.

"He didn't though," she says. "But he personally machined every part in the engine so that it fit like a glove. He'd tear the engine apart and rebuild it after every race. That's what gave me the extra five miles per hour speed and beat 'em."

'Beautiful But Dumb' Is Right

MANILA (AP)—Newsmen interviewing shapely contestants in a Manila beauty contest discovered Wednesday night that one thought ex-President Syngman Rhee of South Korea was a fashion model. Another had never heard of Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

Protest Lodged

GAZA (AP)—The United Arab Republic lodged a protest with the U.N. Armistice Commission today, charging three Israeli jets flew over a United Nations plane taking Prime Minister Nehru of India to the Gaza Strip.

Response to the opening of the new YMCA building has been little short of amazing. Several thousand people went through the new plant the first afternoon when it was thrown open for the public inspection. Since then, boys and girls, men and women have flocked to the new facility to make use of it. For example, one division of the high school club groups had 258 on hand for the installation and rededication ceremonies, followed by a brief swim in the indoor pool, in another unanticipated development, more than 100 adults and young people had taken out memberships in a three-day period. Hence there can be little doubt as to the popularity of the new plant.

Those who have had a part in it should feel a measure of pride. Many have given almost sacrificially to make it possible, and many, many more have given generously. Within a year or so, it likely will be necessary to appeal for some additional help to clear out a modest indebtedness remaining on the property. About 85 per cent of the plant, improvements and appurtenances will have been paid for by the time all work is done. The challenge, therefore, will be two-fold. This involves the YMCA and its staff and its devoted volunteers to execute the sort of purposeful activities which will not only justify what has been done but which will open the way to completely free the association of encumbrances.

Round About Salve For The Husband

A question that has been subject to growing doubt of recent years was answered in a clear-cut manner by Superior Court Judge David A. Nimmo in Jersey City, N. J., one day this week. Who is the real head of the household, the husband or the wife? The husband, ruled Judge Nimmo in a separate maintenance case brought by a wife who had been divorced by her husband on the ground that she wouldn't follow him to the new home he had set up more convenient to his work. The wife's case was thrown out; she doesn't get a penny.

The husband had moved to Jersey City from New York to be nearer his work. He declared in his petition that he needed to cut down on his travel time between home and job. He had been falling asleep on the job, he alleged, because his wife's social activities kept him up late. In his ruling, Judge Nimmo held: "Of course, a husband cannot take his wife to some distant point if it is not in good faith, but here the defendant had good reason to move closer to his job. The court holds the defendant did not abandon his wife; she deserted him by not going with him."
Well, it may not be a history-making decree; but it may establish a precedent that other harassed husbands may find welcome.

Marquis Childs West Is Now Fearful, Uncertain

PARIS—So complete is the disaster of this conference and so grim is the prospect ahead that it is idle to speculate on what the future may hold. But surely in this desperate hour it is time to look back on the five years that have passed since the United States last attended a meeting of heads of government.

In that time profound changes have taken place in the balance of power in the world and those changes have been reflected in the tense and uncertain atmosphere here.

THE CONTRAST is striking. At Geneva in August of 1955 the attitude of the West was relatively relaxed. Even though the Soviets had succeeded in breaking the American monopoly on the atomic bomb far more swiftly than the most pessimistic Western estimates—and although they had gone on to develop the hydrogen bomb, the West still looked at the East through spectacles colored with a rosy complacency.

TO TAKE in the changes that have occurred in five years one has only to realize the transformation of the principals who were present then and now. Khrushchev came to Geneva as first secretary of the Communist party with the then Premier Nikolai Bulganin. The tendency was to treat them as comic figures, Bulg as a kind of boozey old Kentucky colonel and Khrush as a back-slapping comedian. In retrospect it is strange to think how long the image persisted of a hard-drinking funny man. Nothing could be further from the truth, as Khrushchev has demonstrated again and again what a ruthless resourceful skillful leader he is, with a sense of timing that is matchless.

When he has said, as he has repeatedly, that he intends to overwhelm us in competition short of war he means just that. The West has unfortunately failed to understand what that competition means.

WESTERN STATESMEN are angry, and great believers in the traditional, which means formal, way of chastising people who offend them. They wear dignity like a charm to ward off vodka.

But beginning in 1957 with Sputnik No. 1, the Soviets scored a series of startling firsts. Their achievements were written across the horizon of the world one after another. It was characteristic that they should have timed the sending of a space ship for the opening of this conference.

WESTERN STATESMEN are angry, and great believers in the traditional, which means formal, way of chastising people who offend them. They wear dignity like a charm to ward off vodka.

THE AMERICAN reply, and it may have a solid basis in fact, is that the scientific achievements of the American space program are more significant for the future than the spectacular stuntlike performances of the Soviet Union. But what is important is that this is not believed abroad and whether it is accepted at home is doubtful. The American story has not been put across.

THE WEST came to this summit conference under duress, as it were; under the threat to Berlin. Far from being relaxed the Western Powers are tense and uncertain, awaiting with trepidation and even dread the next move by the Soviet Premier. This is one measure of the change that five years have brought about. It is a sobering reflection that these changes could have taken place with, on the whole, so little awareness in the West.

THE SOVIETS have likewise successfully trumpeted to the world the figures on their economic growth and here they are on stronger ground. Whether the annual increase in production is eight per cent or six or even a little less, it surpasses the growth rate of the United States by a wide margin.

Turn Of The Tables

DEALFIELD, Wis. (AP)—For three years the all male Racine County Club sponsored an essay contest on the subject, "Why Men are Better Writers than Women." Each year a woman won first prize.

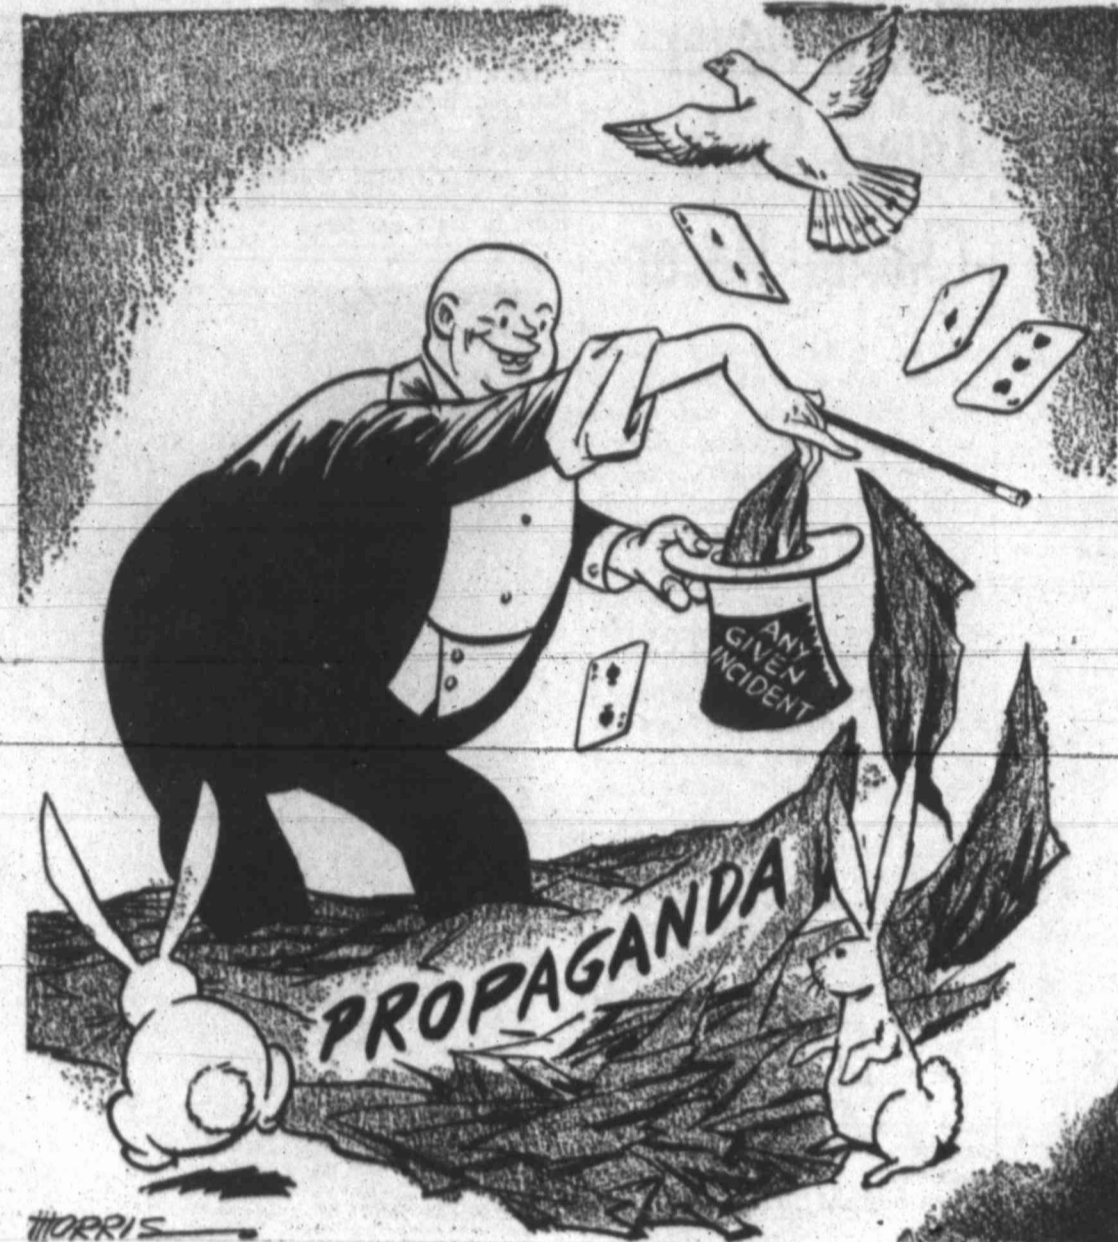

This year the club changed the subject to "Why Men are More Romantic than Women."

At last a man won. He was Conrad Rinelli of Milwaukee.

His wife, Victoria, however, placed third.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—When Charlie Gunter was hailed before a U. S. Commissioner on charges of making moonshine whisky in the Great Smoky Mountains National Park, he explained he was possum hunting.

James Marlow We Can't Treat Khrushchev Lightly

WASHINGTON (AP)—Premier Nikita Khrushchev is such a ham he'd go good in a delicatessen window. But he's no windbag. The West made its mistake in treating him as one.

call Nazi sympathizers what Khrushchev did Wednesday at a news conference? The Russian word he used came out in various translations as jiffraff, louts, and bastards. Western statesmen might think such terms, but they wouldn't say them.

Around The Rim We'll Have Grass Manana

You can't grow grass in caliche. I realize that is not one of the great ideas of modern times, but it came as a stroke from the blue to my good wife Joyce and me. Moving into a new house, we were confronted with a large front yard which had been carefully covered with rocks about the size of golf balls, some even bigger.

washed rocks. The ground is a little softer than the concrete sidewalk, but not much. I should add that we obtained some expert advice before we started. Some folks told us that the ground would easily grow grass. These folks we listened to eagerly and complimented them on good judgment.

So we bought a huge supply of grass plants which had an impossible name and dug troughs to hold them. After a generous sprinkling of fertilizer, we practically emptied Lake J. B. Thomas on the yard. (At least the water bill indicated it.)

But then, caliche with rocks doesn't have to be mowed. I believe I'll start next week.

Juco Meet Entries Will Arrive Today

Entries for this weekend's big National Junior College Track and Field meet, which will be held in Memorial Stadium on the Howard County Junior College campus, now total 40.

Last year, 40 teams entered in the meet at Hutchinson, Kansas. Of that number, 33 showed up. Tom Conway of the ABCub, co-director of the meet, said he expected most of the teams which have committed themselves, to be in attendance here. The teams are due to start showing up today and some of them will get in work-outs before night comes on.

Most of the teams will be quartered at the Settles Hotel.

Coaches and attending sports writers will gather in the Officers Club at Webb AFB starting at 7 o'clock this evening for a social hour and a banquet.

There will be no formal program at the banquet, merely a welcoming address by the American Business Club, co-sponsors of the meet.

The meet formally gets underway at 7 o'clock Friday evening, at which time preliminaries will be run. Semi-finals in the running events and some finals in the field events will take place at 9:30 a.m. Saturday while other finals start at 7 p.m. Saturday.

Hutchinson, Kansas; Phoenix, Ariz.; Coffeyville, Kansas; and New York City Community College are still among the favorites. Hutchinson is the defending titlist.

Coaches will attend a clinic, scheduled for 12:30 p.m. Saturday in the Student Union Building at Howard County Junior College. Chief speaker then will be Elmer Brown, TCU trainer.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

Bob Lane, track mentor at Arlington State College and a University of Alabama assistant among the senior college mentors who will be present for the National Junior College Track and Field meet here next weekend.

Red Drew, Alabama's head track coach, had planned to be here but will be concerned with coaching duties of his own at the time.

Drew may make an offer to R. D. Ross, the HCJC miler.

Howard County Junior College probably won't accept many more athletes who don't have a high school grade average of 85 or better.

Last season's Jayhawk basketball team had perhaps the finest scholastic record of any squad in the history of the school.

Texas Tech will meet such schools as the University of Florida, LSU, Oklahoma, Hamline, Loyola of the South and Vanderbilt on the basketball court next season.

In addition, the Raiders will oppose the Phillips Oilers on the hardwoods.

Ex-Big Spring Wayne Bonner's successor as head football coach at Anson High School is John Howie, one-time Abilene High School griddier. He was at Memphis High last season.

Howie has a reasonably good chance to produce a champion at Anson, now that Stamford has been declared ineligible for the championship and placed on probation by the Texas Interscholastic League.

Howie attended college at Texas Western. He was a quarterback in high school and an end in college.

Quite probably, Midland's Mike Marsh will attend SMU on a basketball scholarship. The 6-foot-8 all-state performer flew to Indiana recently to look over the campus at the state university.

SMU may also land Tom Craft, a football end of Waterloo, Iowa, who is the son of Harry Craft, the one-time big league outfielder and manager.

Each of the lights in the "Soxogram" in the new scoreboard at Comiskey Park in Chicago has 40 bulbs in it.

Just to set up the electrical machinery needed to operate the board demands a control board 14 feet long and 7 1/2 feet high.

Big Spring High School hasn't had a Latin-American to play much football here in years and years.

Willie Mendoza, a safety on defense, may correct that shortcoming within the next two or three seasons. The sophomore is showing to advantage in spring workouts now.

Incidentally, several members of the Steer football team needs jobs for the summer—preferably outdoor jobs that require physical labor.

Those who have a line on such positions should contact Emmett McKenzie, the head mentor.

They tell of the two automobile race-track owners who were exchanging stories of their troubles.

Said Moe: "In January I lost $5,000, in February $10,000. And, in March, I even topped that. I operated $15,000 in the red."

"What about me?" Joe countered. "I sent my son through three colleges and a racing school. I bought him a new convertible, a stock car and a sports car. This cost me thousands of dollars. So what happens? He decides to be a doctor. Can you tell me anything worse than that?"

"Sure," replied Moe, with a forlorn look. "April!"

Paolo Rosi Loses To Eddie Perkins

By JERRY LISKA
CHICAGO (AP)—Paolo Rosi, erstwhile No. 2 lightweight contender, may have left his fight in the gym before tangling with unranked Eddie Perkins in the Chicago Stadium Wednesday night.

"My legs, they just don't want to go, maybe I trained too hard," ruefully explained Rosi, a 9-5 favorite, after he dropped a unanimous 10-round decision to 23-year-old Perkins of Chicago in a nationally-televised bout.

It was just a year ago that Rosi won the Bronx, N. Y., gave lightweight champion Joe Brown a stiff battle before losing in the ninth round on a TKO because of cuts in a title match.

But Wednesday night, Rosi never got untracked against the aggressive Perkins.

Perkins really had the right wave length in his punching against Rosi, who was missing badly and won only four rounds on the cards of all three officials. One official, Judge Harold Marovitz, didn't give a round to Rosi, awarding six to Perkins and calling four even.

Perkins, winning his 18th bout against 7 losses, weighed 137. Rosi, suffering his 6th defeat against 31 victories and 1 draw, scaled 134.

Referee Joey White voted for Perkins 40-44. Judge John Bray also saw it for Perkins 48-44 and Judge Marovitz liked the Chicago boxer 50-44.

Rosi suffered a cut over his left eye in the first round. His handlers claimed he was butted, but the rest of the way, the cut didn't bother Rosi as much as the elusive Perkins.

Rosi's manager, Frank Tomaso promised a rematch. But Perkins clamored for a shot at Brown, the 135-pound king.

Matchmaker Ben Bentley of the National Boxing Enterprises, Inc., said he planned to talk to Brown's manager Lou Viscusi in a few days about a possible Brown-Perkins title bout.

Victoria's Streak Ends

By The Associated Press

Victoria's seven-game winning streak and stronghold over Pan American Assn. teams came to a blistering close Wednesday night as the Rosebuds were blanked by the Mexico City Reds 8-0.

The loss was the first in Texas-Mexican League warfare for Victoria.

The Reds waded through three Victoria pitchers en route to the shutout.

San Antonio clobbered Pasa Rica 18-1 to replace Victoria in second place, 2 1/2 games behind Rio Grande Valley. The Valley nine cut-down Puebla 6-4.

In other action Amarillo bounced Veracruz 9-3 and Austin whipped Monterrey 5-3. Mexico City Tigers at Tulsa was washed out.

Puebla touched Dick Le May for three runs in the first inning on a three-run homer by Roberto Cardinal and later got another run in the second.

San Antonio bombarded Pasa Rica with home runs galore and collected 18 hits in all.

Dick Getter led the assault with two homers, and Jeff Rogers, Hank Moreno, Duke Duote and Ken Hubbs hit one each.

John Davolio and Claude Horn teamed up to send Amarillo past Veracruz. Davolio twirled a six-hitter and Horn rapped four hits, including a two-run triple.

Cecil Butler set both the pitching and hitting pace as Austin toppled Monterrey. He scattered seven singles, walked three and fanned four while registering two hits, one a 340-foot homer.

Senate Group Takes Up New Baseball Draft Bill

By JOHN CHADWICK
WASHINGTON (AP)—A Senate committee takes up today a bill that would give the new Continental League a chance to draft many baseball players controlled by other major league clubs.

The measure, introduced by Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn.), chairman of the Senate Antitrust and Monopoly subcommittee, already has been criticized by Baseball Commissioner Ford C. Frick.

Frick, fresh from a strategy meeting in Chicago with major league owners, was one of three witnesses called by the subcommittee.

Also slated to testify were Branch Rickey, president of the fledgling Continental League, and George M. Trautman, spokesman for the minor leagues as president of the National Assn. of Professional Baseball Leagues.

The Continental League has accused the majors of doing everything possible to slow down and hamper its plans to start operating next year. One of its main problems is to get the ball players it needs.

Kefauver's bill would help by forbidding any club to own or control more than 100 players and by requiring them once a year to offer 60 of the 100 for unlimited draft to other clubs.

He has charged the majors with hoarding players, saying some of the clubs have controlled as many as 450 players through their farm systems.

The bill also would outlaw any conspiracy to block a new league, such as the Continental, which sets itself up by major league standards.

The proposed player limitation is the chief new feature of the bill, which otherwise is patterned along the lines of legislation previously introduced by Kefauver to give professional sports limited exemption from the antitrust laws.

His status on this score has been put in doubt by Supreme Court decisions.

The other sports affected by the bill are hockey, basketball and football, but Kefauver said today's hearing will deal only with baseball. Testimony on the other sports was taken last year.

Shortly after Kefauver introduced the revised bill, Frick said its effect would be to eliminate minor league baseball.

Vernon Law Wins Sixth Game, 4-2

PITTSBURGH (AP)—If there's a secret to Vernon Law's success, it's control.

The Pittsburgh Pirate right-hander became the winningest pitcher in the major leagues Wednesday night by defeating St. Louis 4-2. It was his sixth victory against one loss.

"Control is probably my biggest asset," Law said. "I feel as though I lack some of the speed of fast ball pitchers like Don Drysdale so I rely on control."

"Concentration on it in practice is probably the greatest thing. When I'm warming up I throw to spots. In fact, I do that all the time—throw to spots."

"I use my fast ball in tough spots, and I change speeds on the batters," he added.

Law used that fast ball effectively Wednesday night after the Cards got five of their nine hits, all singles, in the final two innings.

The 30-year-old hurler has walked only seven batters in 70 innings, less than one a game.

Juco Baseballers Begin Tourney

GRAND JUNCTION (AP)—Eight teams from as many states open play today in the National Junior College Athletic Assn.'s baseball tournament.

A new champion is insured since Paris, Tex., which won the inaugural event last year, failed to qualify.

Tarleton College of Stephenville, Tex., which eliminated Paris this year, met Wilmington, N.C., in the opener.

Daggers Topple Rockets, 9-4

Charles Bishop teamed up with Roger McGowen Wednesday night to limit the Rockets to six hits and gain the International Little League win for the Daggers, 9-4.

McGowen and Pat Stanley each had a double and a single for the winners. Dan Riley had a double and a single for the Rockets and teammate Gary Leath also stroked a two-bagger.

Bishop was the winning pitcher. Tonight the T-Birds and the Sabres square off in league action.

Precision Timers To Be Used Here

Six precision hand timers — described as the most accurate mechanical timing instruments ever built — will keep tab on times of entrants in the National Junior College Track and Field Meet this weekend (May 21-23) at Memorial Stadium of Howard Junior College at Big Spring.

They will be provided for the meet by Alexander's Jewelry of Big Spring, and the Bulova Watch Company, Inc., of Jackson Heights, N. Y.

Developed after nearly five years of research, the 21-jewel timing instruments are precision built to tolerances of 41,000,000 (four one-millionths) of an inch and are checked to an accuracy of one second in 24 hours of operation.

Because of their extreme complexity and delicacy, only 200 have been built in the past two and a half years. Each has a retail value of $350.

Anderson Saves Devils' Win

David Anderson put the stopper on a threatening Dodger rally Wednesday night and saved the Devils' 10-8 National Little League win.

Ronnie Anderson had a two-for-two night at the plate for the winners. Tommy Dobbs and Larry Harp each had two hits for the Dodgers. Howard Hall had the only other hit. All five were singles.

In minor league action Wednesday night the Red Sox mutilated the Cubs, 18-12. Don Crockett was credited as the winning pitcher.

Baker Fashions Three-Hitter

Bobby Baker twirled a three hitter Wednesday night and also rammed out a double and a single as the Cabots tripped the Pigs, 4-3 in an American Little League bout.

Terry Smith had a double and Daniels added two bingles to the Cabot attack. Charles Vessell, Jerry McMahon and John Martin got the only hits off Baker.

Snead's Tourney Threat Mounts

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va. (AP)—If the other 63 pros didn't already suspect it, Sam Snead is ready to set them his usual pace in his 72-hole golf tournament starting today.

In his last three full fledged practice rounds, Snead whipped around the Old White in 68, 64 and 63 strokes. Par for the 6,497-yard course where people have been hitting golf balls since 1884 is 70.

Nabors Paint Loses Two To Odessa

Odessa's softball nine swept both ends of a doubleheader here Wednesday night as they bested Nabors Paint, 4-1, and 5-3.

The first game went 11 innings before the visitors rallied for three runs to break the 1-1 deadlock. Stephens whiffed 20 Painters in the 11 frames.

In the five-inning second game, Nabors was riding a 3-1 lead going into the final stanza but two hits and two errors produced a four run outburst and the margin of victory.

Braves Move Up In National League

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Milwaukee's bombing Braves finally have gained some ground in that National League race—and they did it while being held without a home run for the first time in two weeks.

Using singles and doubles Wednesday night the Braves scored a 3-1 decision over San Francisco that handed southpaw Mike McCormick his first defeat and left the Giants in a first place tie with Pittsburgh.

The Pirates gained a share of the lead by beating St. Louis 4-2. It was Pittsburgh's seventh victory in eight games.

Cincinnati defeated Los Angeles 5-4 in 12 innings in the only other game played in the NL. Chicago's game at Philadelphia was rained out.

The Braves beat McCormick, who won his first five, with a seventh inning run that broke a 1-1 tie. Reliever Don McMahon then saved it by getting Willie McCovey on a fly to center with Bob Rush (2-0) on it.

Right-hander Vern Law, who has lost one, became the first six-game winner in the majors, going all the way with a nine-hitter against St. Louis. The Cards, with manager Solly Hemus rumored on the way out, were blanked on six hits until the ninth while losing for the 14th time in 16 road games. Pittsburgh scored twice in the first, then rallied to win two in the seventh against ex-Pirate Ron Kline (1-3).

Frank Robinson made it 4-1 in the 10th with his two-run homer off losing Dodger reliever Danny McDevitt (6-1).

Bill Henry (1-1) won it with one inning of relief after Jay Hook gave up 10 hits and four runs but fanned 10 in 11 frames.

Lions To Send Team To Coast

COMMERCE, (SC) — East Texas State will send two relay teams and two individuals to the Coliseum Relays at Los Angeles this weekend.

The 440 and 800 foursomes of John West, James Baird, Fred Schaefer and Sidney Gerton, together with Coach Delmer Brown will fly to California Thursday where Friday night they will run against relay teams from Baylor, Abilene Christian, Southern California, Occidental and San Jose State.

Gerton will run in the 100-meter dash, and Baird will compete in the broad jump as well. The New Boston sophomore has run the 100 meters only once this year, turning in a win in 10.3 seconds at the Southwestern Relays at Lafayette, La. Last year he had 10.3 in his only metric race. Baird, senior from Dallas (Sunset) has a best competitive leap of 25 ft. 5 1/2 in. for the season, during which he has been beaten only twice.

The 440-yard relay team has turned in two races of 41 seconds flat as they swept the big meets after a slow start. Last year the same four turned in a 40.7 time twice. The 800-yard relay quartet also was unbeaten in the big meet, turning in a best of 1:25.1 at Texas Relays.

They will return to the campus Sunday and plunge immediately into final examinations.

Blind Golfers Prep For Link Tourney

HEWLETT, N.Y. (AP)—Charles Boswell will play the Sewanee Harbor Club golf course next Saturday without even seeing it, and he'll probably shoot in the 90s.

The genial 43-year-old from Birmingham, Ala., will be defending his national championship against a dozen other blind golfers. He's won the event 11 times in 14 years.

Included in the field are such experienced performers as Bob Allman of Philadelphia; Peter Bell of Oak Park, Mich.; William Gilman of Portland, Me.; Harry Hunter of Detroit; Joseph Lazaro of Waltham, Mass.; Ben Pearlman of Lester, Pa.; Arthur Smith of Cheltenham, Pa.; Philip Tuso of Philadelphia; Harold Urlick of Euclid, Ohio; Tom Hurley of Albany, N.Y.; Jim Stora of Philadelphia, and Charles Tooth of St. Petersburg, Fla.

The blind golfers go over a course with a coach who lines up the shots for them, rattles the cup to give the location of the hole, judges the distances and otherwise serves as "eyes" for the players.

Ruidoso Stalls Jammed As Opening Day Nears

RUIDOSO, N. M. (SC)—Friday, at 1:30 p.m., finds Ruidoso Downs kicking off the longest racing season in its 14-year history. Ruidoso Downs opens the curtain on 1960 horse racing in New Mexico. Nearly a thousand head of the finest thoroughbreds and quarter horses in the nation jam the Downs' stalls to overflowing, and it looks like a banner year for the nation's fastest growing race track.

The opening day feature, the Ruidoso Jockey Club Purse, a 400-yard graded allowance, will bring eight of the better quarter horses postward. So closely is this fine field rated, it is almost impossible to pick a pre-race favorite.

Top weight in this sprint has gone to Pinch Bar and Outrider. Pinch Bar, and 8-year-old gelded son of the great Three Bars showed well during the 1959 racing season when he galloped home in front twice during the year, finishing third in six other races for a total take of some $4,000.

Outrider, also at 119 pounds, holds an almost identical record for last season with two wins toward a total of nearly $4,000. Mr. Quick, a winner of three races in 1959 draws a 117, while Bob Ace, who runs equally well at almost any distance, has been assigned 115 pounds.

Sierra Hotshot, also 115, shows a record of 4 wins, two seconds and two thirds for his 18 starts in 1959—boosting his winnings to near the $4,000 figure. Ranga Catch Me, 109, was a Sunland Park winner this year as was Flight Deck, Molly Miss, and Lark Year round out this short-but select field for the Jockey Club Purse scheduled for opening day.

While the quarter horse feature for opening-day overhadows the thoroughbred events, both "long" and "short" chalk players will find this card to their liking. The ever popular daily double will be offered on the first and second races—the Quiniela on the 12th and final race.

Chance Gone, Frankie V. Daumle, Double Court.

Eighth Race, TB Claim, 1 mile: Jessalyn, ABBA's Grandson, Mr. Bill, Miss Bold, Chance Count, Hand O' Fortune, Revolucionero, Miss Barry, Sparklin' Pink, Kansas Boy.

Ninth Race, TB Claim, 5/8 furlongs: Wise Capt., War Tuffy, Dark Miraculous, Burning Muse, Hay Ousey, Bean Valley, Proud Way, Bold Slip, Sharp Tack, Lancer 2nd.

Tenth Race, QH & TB Claim, 8/16 yards: Howl N. O'rievy, Mr. Yankie, RY Tom, Donald, Sam, Glesbar, First, Mike, Arroyo Boy, Bob Bone.

Eleventh Race, Ruidoso Jockey Club Purse, 400 yards: Pinch Bar, Outrider, Sierra Hotshot, Flight Deck, Bob Ace, Ranga's Catch Me, Mr. Quick, Molly Miss.

Twelfth Race, TB Claim, 1 mile: Soris, Morris, Rough Cut, Romp and Play, Won O'war, Mighty Roman, Competition, Co-Dolly, Bearrun, Glory Wine.

200 ROTC Cadets Assigned To Webb

Webb AFB will be summer camp site June 19-July 16 for about 200 ROTC cadets — most from Texas colleges and universities.

Texas A&M will be sending 27 cadets; The University of Texas, 15; Texas Tech, 13; Baylor, 12; Texas Christian, 12; others from several states—as far east as Syracuse University, New York.

During their month of field training the future air officers will work as a unit, with Lt. Col. Leonard A. Younk serving as camp commander, Capt. Verry C. Hewitt, supply officer, and 1st Lt. John D. Schanep, assistant training officer, will be the other Webb officers assigned to the unit.

Hewitt at the moment is mainly concerned with outfitting the men with their new summer uniforms. This will be the first time, he said, that the 503 khakis will be mandatory wear for the cadets. Divided into eight flights of approximately 25 men each, the men will work closely with eight tactical officers and four airmen cadre who are currently teaching air science at the different colleges. Four administrative officers and an athletic and information officer will complement command headquarters.

Garrison life for the cadets will be one of regimentation. Billed in the Officers' BOQ, they'll follow strict schedules, which some days will be from 5 a.m. till 10 p.m. Each man will receive a physical examination at the flight surgeon's office, to determine his flight status.

The training curriculum will include: Physical training; pistol and carbine familiarization; navigation and survival briefings; students in Air Force supply; management and sanitation; chemical, biological and radiological warfare; and orientation rides in T-33 jet aircraft.

Teacher Who Praised Niki Loses His Job

SAN ANTONIO (AP)—A high school teacher who allegedly called "Nikita Khrushchev 'the greatest man in the world'" and said U.S. pilot Francis Powers should be put to death was fired Wednesday night, the San Antonio News said today.

Columnist Paul Thompson said the teacher, Winston McDaniel of San Antonio Robert E. Lee High School, was dismissed by unanimous vote.

McDaniel said his remarks were taken out of context. He said he is considering appealing the board action, which would give him the right to a public hearing.

Supt. Virgil Blossom of the district said McDaniel "has been suspended from further duties as a teacher."

"The judgments used, along with statements made in his classroom, reflect conduct prejudicial to the best interests of the school district," Blossom said.

Blossom, who came here last year after serving as superintendent of schools in Little Rock, Ark., during integration strife, said the board had not authorized him to make further statements.

Thompson said the board based its action on a tape recording made Monday by a student in one of McDaniel's classes.

The tape, Thompson wrote, recorded McDaniel's comments that the United States is lucky that "the greatest man alive today" is in charge of Russia.

The columnist said McDaniel, in answering questions of board members, "took the line that nothing he said in the Monday class should be considered his own opinion."

Thompson said the tape was made with McDaniel's knowledge and consent.

Tame Robin
Cary Don Samara, feeds his pet robin at his home in Oklahoma City. Cary, 8, said the robin followed him home one day and says the bird now bathes in the family bath tub and sleeps in a cage. The family tried to free the bird, but it refused to stay outdoors and returned to the house.

Dr. Hunt Is Graduation Speaker At Area Schools

Dr. W. A. Hunt, president of Howard County Junior College, will be graduation speaker tonight at the 30th annual combined graduation exercises for pupils of the Howard County common schools. The exercises are to be at the HJC auditorium at 7:45 p.m. Thirty-two eighth graders will receive their diplomas from Walker Bailey, Howard County school superintendent.

Gay Hill will provide 14 of the graduates; Elbow 11; Center Point 4; and Vealmore 3. This will be the final year in which Elbow students will participate in the exercises. Elbow consolidation recently with Forsan and, after this year, its graduation program will be held in conjunction with that of the latter school.

Mrs. Robert T. Mason, Elbow, will play the recessional and professional for the exercises. The Rev. Darrell Robinson, Gay Hill, will pronounce the invocation and benediction.

All relatives and friends of the young graduates are cordially invited to attend the exercises.

12 Pupils Ousted For Panty Raids

HUNTSVILLE (AP)—Twelve pupils at Sam Houston State College have been expelled in connection with recent panty raids on women's dormitories.

W. T. Creager, dean of students, said Wednesday the investigation is continuing and that 40 to 50 other students may be dismissed before it ends.

"I have a long list of names and we plan to expel anyone who is found to have been among the ringleaders," Creager said.

World Is Nervous On Summit Failure

PARIS (AP)—A nervous world faced a dangerously uncertain future today as hostile chiefs of the United States and the Soviet Union turned away from the East-West battle at the summit to plan their strategies for new cold war conflict.

All hope of a quick cooling of tempers and slow rebuilding of polite relations between Washington and Moscow was dead—buried under a new barrage of insults hurled by Nikita Khrushchev at President Eisenhower.

To Western diplomats surveying the wreckage of the Big-Four conference and the violence of the Soviet Premier's news conference Wednesday, the future looked ominous.

A breakdown of disarmament negotiations, a new crisis over Berlin, a return to bitter propaganda warfare, a Red China flare-up in the Far East were all regarded as possible.

Eisenhower, who scorned to reply at once to Khrushchev's slashing assault, plans to make a TV-radio report on the summit disaster to the American people soon after he gets home Friday.

LEGAL NOTICE

THE STATE OF TEXAS
To: RUDOLPH MILES, Defendant (s).
Greeting:
You are hereby commanded to appear by filing a written answer to the Plaintiff (s) within ten (10) days after the expiration of forty-two days from the date of the issuance of this citation, same being Monday the 20th day of June 1960 at or before the clerk of the District Court of Howard County, Texas, at the Court House of said County in Big Spring, Texas.

Said Plaintiff (s) Petition was filed in court on the 15th day of May, A.D. 1960, in this cause numbered 12,302 on the docket of said court, and styled: RUDOLPH MILES, Plaintiff (s), vs. RUDOLPH MILES, Defendant (s).

A brief statement of the nature of this suit is as follows, to-wit: Plaintiff alleges legal marriage residence in Texas with months and in County six months. Plaintiff asks for divorce on the grounds of desertion and habeas corpus and defendant was married on or about December 26, 1949 and separated on or about September 1, 1959. They have one child: Margaret Sue, age 16. There is no community property to be adjudicated. Plaintiff asks for care and custody of said child, as is more fully shown by Plaintiff (s) Petition on file in this suit.

If this citation is not served within ninety days after the date of the issuance, it shall be returned unserved.

The officer executing this process shall promptly execute the same according to law, and make due return as the law directs.

Issued and given under my hand and the Seal of said Court at Big Spring, Texas, this 2nd day of May, A.D. 1960.

WALDE CHROATE, Clerk,
District Court, Howard County, Texas.
By Jo Ann Watkins, Deputy.

LEGAL NOTICE

NOTICE OF HEARING

APPROPRIATE PUBLIC WORKS OF THE STATE OF TEXAS

NO. 212

Notice is hereby given to whom concerned that COLORADO RIVER MUNICIPAL WATER DISTRICT, the possessor of which is P. O. Bond, Big Spring, Texas, on the 4th day of May, 1960, has filed with the Board of Water Engineers for the State of Texas, in which it applies for a permit to appropriate of the unappropriated waters of the Colorado River in Mitchell County, Texas, and is distant in a south-south-westerly direction from Big Spring, Texas, about 21.2 miles.

A total of 50,000 acre feet of water annually, by impounding 40,700 acre feet, 40,000 acre feet to be used for municipal purposes, 5,000 acre feet for industrial use and 5,000 acre feet for mining use, all being more fully set out in said application.

Station 17-5 centerline of the proposed dam is located at a point which bears N 67 degrees 27 minutes W 421.5 feet from the east corner of Section 10, Block 11, SPRING CO. Original Survey, on the right bank of the Colorado River in Mitchell County, Texas, and is distant in a south-south-westerly direction from Big Spring, Texas, about 21.2 miles.

A hearing on the application of the said DISTRICT will be held by the Board of Water Engineers for the State of Texas, in the office of the Board at Austin, Texas, on Monday, June 20, 1960, beginning at ten o'clock a.m., at which time and place all parties interested may appear and be heard. Those opposing the granting of said application should file written protests with the Board and the applicant at least five days prior to hearing date, giving their reasons therefor and such other information as is required by Board Rule 20.2. Such hearing will be continued from time to time, and from place to place, if necessary, until such determination has been made relative to said application as the said Board of Water Engineers may deem right, equitable and proper.

Given under seal by virtue of an order of the Board of Water Engineers for the State of Texas, at the office of the Board at Austin, Texas, this 6th day of May, 1960.

Signatures:
Dorwood Mansford, Chairman
STATE BOARD OF WATER ENGINEERS
ATTEST:
Audrey Strandinman, Assistant Secretary

Wins Reprieve

How to Judge the Value of Your Newspaper

Have you ever judged the value of your newspaper? What it actually means to you and your family? Then, let's pause a second and analyze its true value.

Right from the very first page to the last, your newspaper is packed with all the latest news about your community, your state, your nation and the whole world. Also, there's market and financial news and sports coverage. For mother, there are features that appeal to her whether it's fashion... social events... homemaking or a dozen other feminine interests. Too, both young and old always find the comics entertaining. In all these and many other fields, you'll find this a complete family newspaper... a newspaper that becomes a family affair the minute it arrives.

Army Conducts Hard Cold Tests

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Army is conducting cold chamber tests more rigorous than those faced by Arctic explorers in efforts to determine how much exposure a man can take, how many men can endure it and what food is most conducive to pulling through.

The project was disclosed Wednesday. The tests are being made at Lankenau Hospital's new research center.

Serling's Grim Nazi Drama Brilliantly Played For TV

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Rod Serling's grim drama about the horror that was the Warsaw ghetto during the German occupation of Poland came to television Wednesday night doubled in impact by events in Paris earlier in the day and week.

About an hour after the CBS Playhouse 90 production of "In The Presence of Mine Enemies," came to its bleak conclusion, the network (and rival NBC, too) was taken over by an unedited picture account of Nikita Khrushchev's long threatening diatribe.

The Serling play was concerned with brutal German army treatment of Polish Jews. It pulled no punches reconstructing the tragedy that took place in the 100-block square, walled compound where 500,000 Jews hungered and suffered until the uprising that killed all but a few.

The story concerned a gentle rabbi who lost and then found his faith in spite of an embittered, savage son and a daughter coldly ravaged by a Jew-hating Prussian officer.

The play carried its bitter lesson. It was well acted by a cast which included Charles Laughton, Arthur Kennedy and Susan Kohner. But I would have been watching some situation comedy if I had not been a TV reviewer.

The "Richard Diamond" shows which will help fill the gap left by NBC's soon-to-depart Startime hour will be new shows, not reruns as reported earlier by the network. CBS' "Candid Camera" series which will start in October, got a new lease on life this past season as part of the Garry Moore Show.

Sunday's Alfred Hitchcock show stars Neile Adams, the pretty Polynesian dancer. She is the wife of Steve McQueen, the bounty hunter of "Wanted Dead or Alive." NBC and the sponsor are sticking with their planned "Journey to Understanding" program series even though President Eisenhower has revised his journaling plans. CBS will have more "Eyewitness to History" shows, too, and is in a more flexible position. It had not definitely decided on dates and hours for shows based on the President's Soviet and Japanese visits.

CBS' "Camera Three" next Sunday morning will study the techniques of Swedish film director Ingmar Bergman. Person to Person will visit the Craig Stevens (he's Peter Gunn and she's actress Alexis Smith) and Earl Kintner, chairman of the Federal Trade Commission on Friday night.

Case Of Russ Spy Handled Quietly

By TOM BENTON

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — The case of a Soviet employe of the United Nations secretariat, caught spying at the time of Premier Nikita Khrushchev's visit to the U.S. last year, was handled efficiently and without an international uproar, says Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

Nixon contrasts the incident, reported officially for the first time Wednesday, with Khrushchev's use of the U2 spy plane incident to scuttle the summit conference in Paris.

Despite the apparent possibility of a return of the East-West cold war, however, Nixon declared that he doubted Khrushchev would resort to force.

"He believes he can gain his objective of world domination without war," the vice president declared in a speech at a sales executives' convention.

Nixon said the Western nations must prove they have the stamina to resist.

The revelation of the Soviet spy case enlivened the wind-up of the vice president's upstate New York tour. It took Nixon almost the entire day, in fact, to fill in the details of the incident, which ended last January with the expulsion of the Soviet U.N. employe. He was identified at U.N. headquarters as Vadim A. Kirilyuk, a former political affairs officer in the territorial research and analysis.

At first Nixon said that two members of the Soviet U.N. delegation had been caught spying in Illinois at the very time Khrushchev was addressing the U.N. in New York. Later, an aide said Nixon meant to say the incident was in Springfield, Mass.

Then Nixon confirmed that the pair actually had not been arrested. Later, at a news conference, he said one, a U.N. secretariat employe, had been sent home after an investigation by Dag Hammarskjold, U.N. secretary-general.

Another had not been directly involved and is still in this country, said Nixon. An American from whom the pair sought highly classified information at Springfield is in the clear, the vice president said.

Later, Sen. Albert Gore (D-Tenn.), said in Washington that Nixon used the report to further his political fortunes. But a Nixon aide said the whole thing was mentioned by Nixon just to illustrate the "method the United States used in quietly handling an incident which has some parallels to the present situation."

DEAR ABBY

ARE YOU SURE?

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I have been looking for a job since last September. I am 22, a college grad (Liberal Arts), and people tell me I am nice looking and have a pleasing personality. I'd like a selling job. Everywhere I apply, I am told, "Sorry, but you have had no experience." Abby, how is a girl going to get experience if nobody will give her a job?

INEXPERIENCED
DEAR INEXPERIENCED: If you are after a selling job, the first thing you must do is demonstrate your ability to sell a would-be employer. Make a case for a chance to prove yourself. An employer is not likely to hire a sales person who is content to take "no" for an answer without a struggle.

DEAR ABBY: I met a man at a dance. He asked me to dance. He was a wonderful dancer and I fell in love with him at once. I asked him to take me home and he did. He explained that he was a married man but didn't get along with his wife. Divorce was out because of religion.

I kept calling him at home. I knew it wasn't right, but I couldn't help myself. I just went crazy over him. He came to my house a few times, but would never be seen with me in public. I bought him a watch for his birthday.

One day he mentioned he needed $300 to repair his car. He didn't ask for it. I insisted he take it and told him to pay me back when he got the money. After that I never saw him again. I called him up and he said it was too risky to be seen going into my house. How do I get my money back? And also the watch.

FOOLISHLY YOURS
DEAR FOOLISHLY: The watch is HIS—but you got the work. Lady. Unless you want to make it a matter of public information, you'd be smart to write off the "loss" as a tuition in the school of experience.

DEAR ABBY: I am going to marry a very nice fellow but I find myself in a peculiar situation.

Three weeks ago he took me to meet his mother, who seemed very charming. Soon afterwards she invited me over for tea and a talk. When I arrived she had a friend of hers there who used to be a beauty operator. They spent the whole afternoon debating on how I should wear my hair and how I should do my eyebrows.

This afternoon my future mother-in-law telephoned and asked me to stop over after work. She wanted to "teach me how to dress."

Abby, I suppose everyone could use a little advice along these lines, but I used to model for a wholesale house, and I go to a good beauty shop every week. People usually ask ME for advice on grooming and fashion and I am very hurt by the whole thing. I would like to get off the "redecorating hook" and remain friends with this woman. Got how?

HURT
DEAR HURT: Go — listen courteously, and then do as you please.

DEAR ABBY: I am eight years old and am going to be nine on September 10th and I have a question for you, Abby. Is there any such bird as the STORK or did they make that up, too?

CHARLES
DEAR CHARLES: Yes, there is a bird known as the stork, but don't believe everything you hear about it.

"What's your problem?" Write to Abby in care of the Herald. For

Parish Ruled 'Extinct'

GARDEN CITY, N.Y. (AP)—A strife-torn Brooklyn parish has been declared extinct, by the annual convention of the Protestant Episcopal Diocese of Long Island. Controversy at the Church of the Holy Trinity began 11 years ago over the left-wing activities of the Rev. William Howard Melish. He was present at the 93rd annual convention Tuesday at the Cathedral of the Incarnation church house. Neither he nor any member of his faction of parishioners raised a voice against the surprise action. The Rev. Mr. Melish, who was forced out as supply priest at Holy Trinity about three years ago, has repeatedly denied any Communist connection. When the parishioners first split over his activities, he was head of the National Council of Soviet-American Friendship. The church has been closed for almost three years on orders of the Rt. Rev. James P. DeWolfe bishop of Long Island. A petition to declare the parish extinct—adopted without a dissent—was presented to the bishop by the rector, the Rev. Dr. Herman S. Sidener, two wardens and six vestrymen. Among the reasons they cited were that the church no longer had sufficient male members to serve as wardens and vestrymen.

Niki Summit Friend Seen As Big Power

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
Associated Press Writer
PARIS (AP)—Some Western observers see Marshal Rodion Malinovsky, Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's constant companion at the stillborn summit conference, as a man whose influence may play an important role in Kremlin politics.

The stocky, square-jawed Soviet defense minister would probably play an important part in any struggle for power that developed in the Soviet Union. This does not mean that he would necessarily oppose Khrushchev. There are plain indications, however, that within the armed forces there has arisen a hard core of resentment which could ally itself with political forces opposing Khrushchev's foreign and domestic policies. The Soviet army has long regarded itself as immune to the pressures which play upon other elements in the dictatorial society. This is particularly true of its officer corps. They are known to have resented the cuts in the armed forces which Khrushchev directed in order to give emphasis to the peace offensive which—up to now—has colored his foreign policy. At the Paris conference, Khrushchev seemed to be unusually attentive to Malinovsky. The question naturally arose whether there was any connection between this and Khrushchev's startling performance. In two days, the Soviet Premier rolled back the years to the edgy and dangerous days of 1948—when Joseph Stalin blockaded Berlin. Not in the 12 years since have feelings between the Soviet Union and the United States been so taut. Who is responsible for Khrushchev's sudden shift? Is it the army, allied with certain politicians? If so, where does Malinovsky stand?

Souffles For Two!

Just right for two is this recipe for:

INDIVIDUAL SWISS CHEESE SOUFFLES

1 tbsp. butter or margarine
1 tbsp. flour
¼ tsp. salt
Cayenne pepper

¼ cup plus 2 tbsps. milk
¼ lb. finely grated Swiss cheese (1 cup lightly packed)
2 eggs, separated

In a 1-quart saucepan melt butter over low heat; stir in flour, salt and a dash of cayenne. Add milk; cook and stir constantly until thickened and bubbly.

Keep heat very low and add cheese; stir vigorously and rapidly just until melted. Remove from heat at once and don't worry if mixture is stringy.

Beat egg yolks slightly; beat in part of the cheese mixture; beat back into saucepan. With clean beater, beat egg whites until they hold a soft peak. Fold in cheese mixture completely.

Turn into 2 individual souffle dishes (1½ cups each). Bake in moderate (375 degrees) oven 20 minutes or until puffed, golden brown and firm on top. Serve at once. Makes 2 servings.

Use Your Noodle

No can of crisp Chinese noodles in the house when you decide to prepare chow mein from left-over roast pork or chicken? Then use one of the crisp unsweetened cereals instead.

FRESH ASPARAGUS
... cut and cooked for tenderness

Asparagus Tips Can Be Tender

Are you under the impression that the tips are the sweetest part of asparagus? If so, just try cutting the stalks in short lengths and panning them briefly in butter. Chances are you'll change your mind.

For this method of cooking, the fibrous outer covering of asparagus stalks, up to the tips, must be pared off with a swivel-blade vegetable peeler. For the cooking utensil, choose a modern-type deep skillet with a tightly-fitting cover.

If the stalks are quite thin, they may be cut in 1-inch lengths with slanted ends.

If on the medium-thick side, place your knife at a wide angle and slice so that the pieces are a couple of inches long, thin and oval-shaped. When you reach the tip, angle the knife the same way and leave whole or cut in half. The tips will be thicker than the rest of the pieces but they will cook in the same length of time and won't break up.

To pan 1 pound of asparagus (plenty for two) use an 8-inch skillet, 1 tablespoon butter, 2 tablespoons water and ¼ teaspoon salt. Simmer, covered, just until tender crisp—5 minutes or less; stir a few times and watch absorbently so as not to scorch.

To pan two pounds of asparagus (plenty for four) use a 10-inch skillet with 2 tablespoons butter, ¼ cup boiling water, ½ teaspoon salt, and the above method of cooking. If there is a little water left in the skillet after cooking, drain it off, then stir in another tablespoon of butter.

When asparagus are panned in this way they are perfect to serve right along with any meat—from hamburgers to ham. Whole stalks of asparagus make an admirable appetizer or after-the-main-dish salad. As their accompanying sauce, browned butter is superb.

Melt butter slowly until it turns hazelnut color; then skim off the foam and pour over the cooked stalks. A tablespoon of butter for each generous serving of asparagus is ample.

Asparagus have an affinity for eggs. Serve them with Eggs Benedict—that luscious combination of toasted English muffins, ham, sauce.

Creamed eggs on crisp toast on the menu for lunch? Asparagus make the perfect go-along.

Asparagus give a fillet to fish. They are particularly delicious with cold poached fresh salmon and homemade mayonnaise with plenty of lemon juice. If fresh salmon steaks are broiled, asparagus doused with lemon butter make a wonderful accompaniment.

Roast Beef Heads Nation's Shopping List This Weekend

By The Associated Press

Roast beef will appear on many American dinner tables this Sunday, judging from the specials advertised by supermarkets and neighborhood groceries.

Rib roast is the favorite in the East and Far West, while round steak is favored in some Midwestern areas. Prices run 4 to 10 cents a pound less than a week ago.

Further offerings of roast beef are in line with U.S. Department of Agriculture forecasts of supplies continuing above last year's levels. Better grades will account for most of the increase—the first half of this year, it's said, while lower grades will be more plentiful the last half.

Lamb prices are up 4 to 10 cents a pound. Fryers are being pushed in the East, Middle Atlantic region and Midwest. You can get them for 20 cents a pound in some places.

Best vegetable buys this week are carrots, corn, eggplant, lettuce, old stock medium onions, green and yellow squash, radishes, nearby kale, green onions, endive, escarole, Texas' new crop onions, sweet potatoes, peas, and tender new potatoes from California and Florida.

Best buys among fruits are bananas, oranges and pineapples, while good bargains can be had from among avocados, limes, lemons, grapefruit and strawberries.

Chiffon Roll Lusciousness

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
AP Newsfeatures Food Editor

Great actors have a repertoire: Parts they have thoroughly rehearsed and are prepared to perform. Fine cooks, we submit, should have a repertoire of cake recipes they have tried many times (on the family) and are prepared to bake for applause from guests.

For centuries accomplished cooks have turned out two traditional sorts of cake—the "butter" type (flavored many ways) and the sponge type (including angel-food). But about 10 years ago chiffon cake made an appearance, using oil for the shortening, plus a new mixing method.

High and handsome, chiffon cakes are often baked in large tube pans, or the recipes are halved and they're put into regular 8 or 9-inch square or the longer narrower loaf pans.

What's so special about this cake? For one thing, it stores well. For another, its texture—airy but substantial, moist and tender—intrigues. Most standard comprehensive cookbooks brought out nowadays pay attention to this cake.

But the chiffon roll, offspring of the tube-pan chiffon cake, has been somewhat neglected. Baked in a jelly-roll pan, it boasts the qualities of its big sister and may be filled in various luscious ways. Spread rich cocoa cream over its surface, before rolling. Or for the filling use plain whipped cream, sweetened to taste and flavored with vanilla, plus fruit—bananas, pineapple, strawberries, raspberries or blueberries.

If you want to include a chiffon roll in your baking repertoire, start rehearsing with this basic recipe.

CHIFFON ROLL

1 cup sifted cake flour
¼ cup sugar
1½ tps. double-acting baking powder
½ tsp. salt
¼ cup corn oil
3 eggs, separated
6 tbsps. water
1 tsp. vanilla
¼ tsp. cream of tartar
Confectioners' sugar

Yummy Newcomer

New version of the old fashioned sponge cake spread with jelly is this chiffon cake roll with cocoa cream.

Lightly grease a 10 x 16-inch jelly-roll pan; line bottom with waxed paper; lightly grease paper. Mix together and sift into a deep bowl the flour, sugar, baking powder and salt.

Make a well and add in this order, the oil, egg yolks, water and vanilla; beat with a spoon until smooth.

Add cream of tartar to egg whites; beat until egg whites form stiff peaks. Gently fold (do not stir) first mixture into egg whites until well blended.

Pour into prepared pan. Bake in a moderate (350 degrees) oven for 12 minutes or until cake springs back when lightly touched with finger. Turn out on a towel covered with confectioners' sugar. Peel off waxed paper. Starting at the end, roll up in towel and cool. Unroll and remove towel.

Spread cake with desired filling; roll and wrap firmly in waxed paper. Chill about 1 hour or until ready to slice and serve. Sprinkle with sifted confectioners' sugar. Makes 10 to 12 servings.

Romaine Is Fixed In A Special Way

Prepare that romaine a special way this time:

WESTERN SALAD
1 head romaine
6 seedless oranges
1¼ cups green celery crescents
Roquefort cheese dressing
Salt

Freshly - ground pepper.
Tear washed chilled romaine into bite-size pieces in salad bowl. Peel and section oranges; arrange over romaine. Sprinkle with celery.

Just before serving toss with dressing, salt and pepper to taste. Makes 8 to 12 servings.

...but we make it for you

Just Texas and a little bit more—that's Gladiola Land. Here live the best home bakers in America—known far and wide for their biscuits, cakes and pies.

Naturally, when it comes to flour, these ladies are hard to please. We have to make Gladiola Flour their way—or else. It keeps us on our toes, but it's worth it. Every day, every year, Gladiola outsells every other brand.

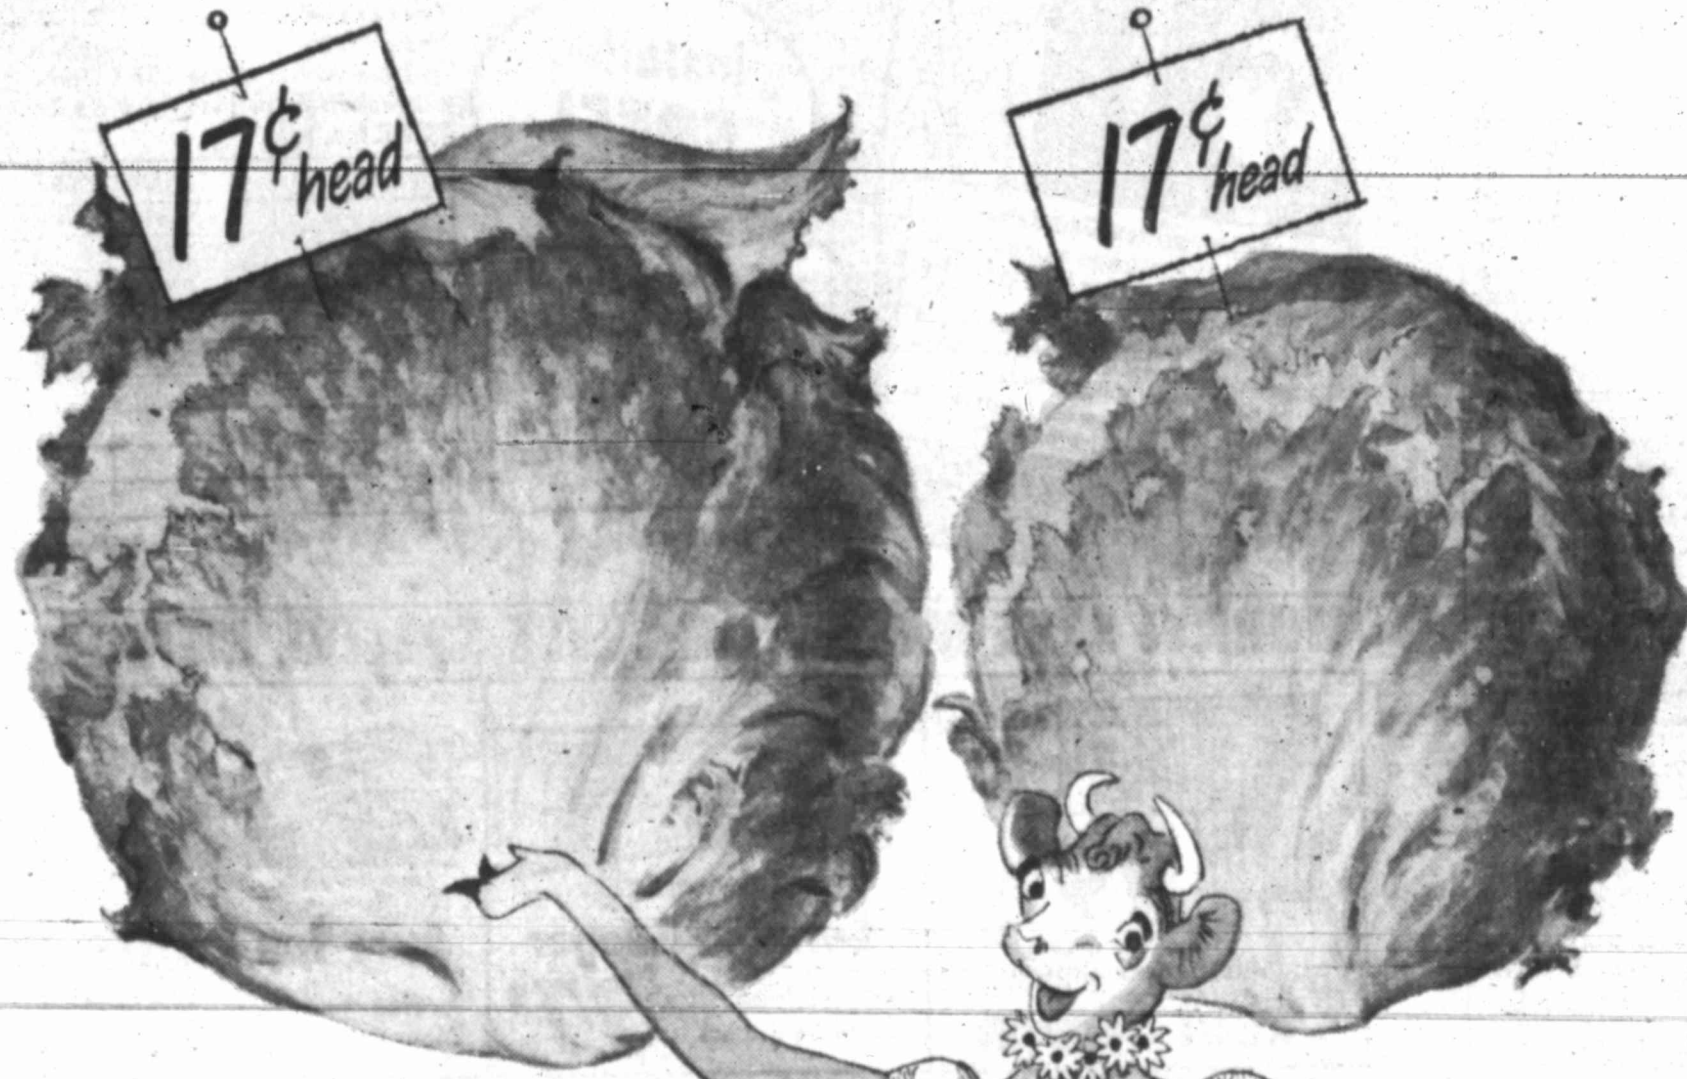

Folks in Sharpeye, O., have to be satisfied with something less, but you don't. Gladiola quality is your best bargain in flour. Remember—snow-white Gladiola costs, the average family, only about ½¢ a day more than the cheapest flour at your store.

Bake and be Glad—with GLADIOLA FLOUR

The best-selling flour in the Southwest

(On a clear day, Sharpeye folks can see all the way to Indiana along state highway 502.)

WHEN YOU PAY FOR THE BEST... BE SURE YOU GET IT! (Buy Borden's)

You can look at lettuce and tell which is the fresher, crisper head. The price is the same so naturally you choose the best. The very same difference exists in milk. You can't see this difference but it's there... in the taste, in the freshness, in all the extra steps taken to assure quality. The price is the same so choose the milk you know is best just as you choose the best head of lettuce. Your choice will be Borden's. The name Borden's is synonymous with quality. It has been for over 100 years. So, when you pay for the best be sure you get it. Buy Borden's.

... spice cake, prunes, penuche frosting, and modern recipe.

Old-Time Cake Rates Modern Family Praise

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

Cake mixes are here to stay, and most mothers of growing families use them often. But we have not yet met the young woman who—having successfully baked, filled and frosted a cake from scratch—didn't get enormous satisfaction from her accomplishment.

In the middle of the 19th Century our Victorian ladies—given the boon of commercially manufactured baking soda and baking powder—developed high and airy cakes such as no other cuisine had produced. This recipe for Prune Spice Cake with Penuche Frosting should help to keep alive the grand old American art of cake-baking.

Of the popular flavors used in the 1880s—rose, lemon, orange and spice—the last is still a particular favorite. Adding such flavor affinities with the spice as prunes and penuche is another reminder of the days of our Great Cakes. The method of making our cake has been up-dated to assure 20th Century cooks success; but the rest is definitely in the best of the Victorian tradition.

FROSTED PRUNE SPICE CAKE
1 1/2 cups sifted flour
1 tsp. baking soda
1/2 tsp. salt
1 tsp. cinnamon
1/2 tsp. nutmeg
1/2 tsp. cloves
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 cup light brown sugar, firmly packed
1/2 cup soft butter or margarine
1/2 cup milk
1 tsp. cider or distilled white vinegar
2 eggs
1/2 cup chopped plumped prunes

Penuche Frosting
Grease two layer cake pans (8x1 1/4 inches); line with waxed paper; grease paper. Sift together the flour, baking soda, salt, cinnamon, nutmeg, cloves and sugar; add brown sugar and butter; stir milk and vinegar together and add. Beat for 2 minutes. Add eggs; beat well another 2 minutes or until smooth. Stir in prunes. Turn into prepared pans; bake in moderate (350 degrees) oven 30 to 35 minutes or until cake tester inserted in center comes out clean. Remove from oven and cool 5 minutes; turn out on wire racks; remove paper; cool. Spread Penuche Frosting between and on top of layers. If desired, garnish with prunes and walnut halves.

NOTE: To plump prunes, let 1/2 pound prunes stand in 1 pint (or enough to cover) cold water 24 hours; pit before chopping to make amount called for in recipe.

You Want To Tamper With Classic Dish

Trust Americans to make changes in recipes. Maybe you are of the firm conviction that United States cooks use their ingenuity and improve dishes from other countries. Maybe you are vehement in saying they should leave well enough alone.

Now it's France's Croque-Monsieur that comes in for different treatment. Perhaps you know this hot snack under the name of Sandwich Chaud?

Made the French way it's a combination of Swiss cheese and ham layered between slices of bread, dipped in a French-toast mixture and then browned in butter.

Prepared the latest American way the sandwich gets an addition—a layer of thinly sliced cranberry jelly.

The traditional French-toast dipping-blend may also get something new—a suspicion of freshly-grated nutmeg.

Use either baked or boiled ham for the Croque-Monsieur but slice the meat thin or the sandwich will be bulky to handle. The Swiss cheese should be sliced thick enough to give robust flavor.

PENUCHE FROSTING
2 cups light brown sugar, firmly packed
1/2 cup milk
1/2 cup butter or margarine
1/2 tsp. salt
1/2 cup chopped plumped prunes

Put brown sugar, milk, butter and salt in a saucepan; stir over low heat until butter melts and sugar dissolves. Stirring constantly, bring quickly to a boil or 240 degrees on a candy thermometer. Remove from heat and beat until lukewarm. Add prunes, stir until ready to spread.

FISH FILLETS CASSEROLE
1 1/2 lbs. frozen fish fillets
1-3 cup minced onions
3 tbsps. butter or margarine
3/4 cup uncooked rice
1 1/2 cups water
1/2 tsp. salt
1/2 tsp. pepper
1/2 tsp. marjoram
2 tbsps. minced parsley
1 1/4 cups milk
Salt and pepper

Thaw fish and separate fillets. Cook onions in 2 tablespoons of the butter until soft. Add rice, water, salt, pepper, marjoram and parsley. Bring to rapid boil. Lower heat to simmer; cover. Cook about 14 minutes, without removing lid, until rice is tender. Spread in buttered 10x12-inch baking pan. Arrange fish fillet over rice.

Scald milk in the same pan in which rice was cooked. Pour over fish and rice. Dot with remaining butter and sprinkle lightly with salt and pepper. Bake in slow oven (325 degrees F.) until milk is almost all absorbed and fish flakes easily. Serves 6.

TOP-OF-OVEN MEAL
1/2 lb. beef cubes
1 tsp. shortening
1 can condensed tomato soup
1 cup chopped onion
1/2 cup chopped green pepper
1/2 tsp. salt
1 1/2 cup rice
Brown beef in shortening. Add all ingredients but rice and cover; simmer 30 minutes. Stir in rice. Cover and cook 30 minutes longer or until meat and rice are tender, stirring occasionally. Serves 4.

Broccoli with lemon or cheese sauce is tasty with this dish.

TOMATO-CHICKEN CURRY ON SAFFRON RICE
1/2 cup minced onion
1/2 cup chopped green pepper
1/2 cup chopped celery

Good With Lamb
When you have mango chutney in the house mince some of the big pieces of fruit in the condiment and add it, along with a little of the chutney sauce, to gravy. Wonderful with roast lamb!

Casseroles Can Be Different!

—Yes, and look and taste so delicious!

HAMBURGER CASSEROLE

1 lb. ground meat
1 medium onion, chopped
2 tbsps. butter or margarine
1 1/2 tsp. salt
1/2 tsp. chili powder
1 1/4 cups canned corn, drained
2 cups tomatoes, cut up
1 1/4 cups prepared herb-seasoned stuffing
1/2 cup water
1/2 cup melted butter or margarine
Brown meat and onion in butter or margarine—about 5 minutes, stirring with fork to break meat up. Then, in 2 qt. casserole, combine meat and onion with salt, chili powder, corn and tomatoes. Blend stuffing with water and melted butter or margarine, and sprinkle over top of casserole. Bake at 350 degrees F. 30 to 35 minutes or until topping is browned. Garnish with parsley, if desired. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

FISH FILLETS CASSEROLE
1 1/2 lbs. frozen fish fillets
1-3 cup minced onions
3 tbsps. butter or margarine
3/4 cup uncooked rice
1 1/2 cups water
1/2 tsp. salt
1/2 tsp. pepper
1/2 tsp. marjoram
2 tbsps. minced parsley
1 1/4 cups milk
Salt and pepper

Thaw fish and separate fillets. Cook onions in 2 tablespoons of the butter until soft. Add rice, water, salt, pepper, marjoram and parsley. Bring to rapid boil. Lower heat to simmer; cover. Cook about 14 minutes, without removing lid, until rice is tender. Spread in buttered 10x12-inch baking pan. Arrange fish fillet over rice.

SAFFRON RICE
2 tbsps. butter or margarine
1/2 cup finely chopped onion
1 1/2 cups (3-oz. pkg.) precooked rice
1 1/2 cups fat-free chicken broth
1/2 tsp. salt
Dash of pepper
Pinch of saffron
Melt butter or margarine, add onion, and saute until tender but not browned. Add packaged precooked rice, broth, salt, pepper and saffron. Mix just to moisten all rice.

Bring quickly to a boil over high heat. Cover and remove from heat. Let stand 13 minutes.

Artichokes Are Star At Dinnertime Meals

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
AP Newsfeatures Food Editor

We're all for impressing guests when the impulse results in a superb meal. What matter the motive, if the food be utterly enjoyable?

So go to it, you status-seekers. Offer your next dinner guests a first course of artichokes. This is one vegetable that lives up to its promise—it looks and tastes elegant after it is cooked.

If this first course is to be served around the dining table, plan on serving a whole artichoke for each portion. If you serve the first course in the living room with before-dinner drinks, as we sometimes do, halve the artichokes and remove the chokes. Small Chinese or Japanese teacups without handles, are perfect for holding the dip that accompanies this hors d'oeuvre.

This dipping sauce may be Hollandaise or Vinaigrette; in the following recipe we offer simple but wonderful browned butter.

Artichoke-eating etiquette demands that the leaves be pulled out one at a time, their base be dipped in the sauce, and then the fleshy part be scraped off between the teeth. When the heart is reached, it's cut with a fork and dipped before downing.

You'll notice that this recipe calls for adding oil and other seasonings to the water in which the artichokes are cooked. Does the oil make a real difference? It certainly does! The cooked artichokes glisten in a way that pleases the eye as well as the palate.

ARTICHOKE WITH BROWNED BUTTER
4 medium-sized artichokes
Boiling water
1 teaspoon salt
4 peeled and halved garlic cloves
4 round thick slices lemon
4 tablespoons salad oil
1/2 cup butter.

Cut off 1 inch from tops of artichokes straight across. Cut off stems leaving 1-inch stubs, if stems are long. With scissors, clip tips of leaves. Wash in cold water; place in kettle; cover with boiling water; add salt, garlic, lemon and oil. Boil, covered, until a leaf can be pulled out easily or the base can be easily pierced with a fork—20 to 45 minutes. Drain off water; cut off stubs; turn upside down to finish draining.

Melt and cook butter in a small saucepan over low heat until it turns medium-brown, swirling pan occasionally. (This may take 10 minutes or so; watch carefully.) Stir while pouring into containers so clarified part and solids will be evenly distributed.

Serve artichokes, standing upright, hot or cold with browned butter for dipping. Makes 4 servings—8 if artichokes are halved.

Remember This

Kitchen arithmetic: A teaspoon of salt and one-eighth teaspoon of white pepper are needed for two cups of white sauce. Use these proportions of the basic seasonings whether the sauce is thin, medium or thick.

ELECTRICITY

The comfortable way to cook ... because it's COOL

Every time you cook during hot weather, you'll appreciate the comfort of cool electric cooking. Electric surface cooking units transfer heat to utensil bottoms by direct metal-to-metal contact, with no intervening air space. They heat the utensils and the food, not the kitchen. The electric oven is insulated on all four sides and top and bottom to keep heat inside where it belongs. Result: your kitchen stays almost as cool as any other room in your home. See your electric range dealer soon. Cool electric cooking is another of the many ways in which your dependable, low-cost electric service helps you live better... electrically!
