Tornadoes, Hail, Rain Slam At West Texas

Funnel Hovers Here; Damage Not Reported

By The Associated Press
Tornadoes roared over West Texas Tuesday night while giant hail stones smashed windows in some towns and rains of more than three inches caused flooding in Bonham.

Severe Weather Forecast Made

By The Associated Press
The Weather Bureau issued a severe thunderstorm forecast Wednesday for a large part of West Texas, including much of the South Plains and the Pecos River Valley.

er than the last hours of May, but thunderstorms hit Waco, Dallas, Fort Worth and other North Central Texas cities early Wednesday.

Jim Morris of Monahans said residents of that West Texas city spotted at least nine tornadoes about 9 p.m. Tuesday. None touched ground. The city was hit by hailstones as big as baseballs, he said, and winds gusted at 95 m.p.h. Hail smashed windows in cars and buildings.

At Wink, just northwest of Monahans, hail and violent winds knocked out telephone service and filled the streets with rubble, said Deputy Sheriff Earl Hill of Winkler County. Hundreds of windows were smashed by the hail and roofs damaged. Hail at Wink measured 5 inches in diameter.

A 90-minute rain dropped 3.25 inches of water on Bonham sending creeks out of banks. Water rose shoulder deep in the western part of the Northeast Texas city. Several inches of water covered the floors in about 30 homes and two small food stores.

Flooding also occurred at Greenville where a sudden downpour dropped about 4 inches of rain between 2:15 and 3 p.m. in the south part of the city which is 30 miles south of Bonham.

Lightning started a fire in a duplex and it destroyed one side of the residential building. High water tensions have been increased."

Big Three Strategy Meet Slated Today

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Western Big Three strategy meeting was arranged for late today following the second secret session of the Southeast Asia Treaty Organization.

Secretary of State Christian A. Herter invited Britain's Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd and French Foreign Minister Maurice Couve de Murville to the private meeting.

The Western foreign affairs chiefs were expected to conduct a private post-mortem on the summit conference collapse and scan the future for what the Communist might do over the next few months.

They are here for sessions of the SEATO Council of Ministers, which includes also the prime ministers of Australia and New Zealand and the foreign ministers of the Philippines, Thailand and Pakistan.

Both Lloyd and Herter were to address the council, completing a round of speechmaking, before the delegates got down to more concrete details in the four-day session.

Tuesday's speakers were said to have agreed in blaming Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev for the summit blowup. They spoke about the danger of a Red Chinese push now in places under SEATO's defense umbrella, such as the tiny kingdom of Laos in Southeast Asia.

The delegates were reported in accord that the Communist threat must not be fought by defense alone, but also through measures to improve the lives of the impoverished millions who comprise most of Asia's population.

The Philippines, Thailand and Pakistan were said to be interested in more economic help from the others. But Western officials gave no evidence of proposing a big step in aid.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Marsha, a polar bear, collapsed after an apparent heart attack Tuesday at Fleishacker Zoo.

NASA SPOKESMAN

U2 Missions Pictured As Research, Not Spying

WASHINGTON (AP)—A spokesman for the nation's space agency testified today that high-flying U2 planes have made more than 200 weather flights covering about 264,000 miles since 1956.

He said his agency did not know just where the planes flew until "after the fact."

"These flights have been conducted in the United States, western Europe, Turkey and Japan," Hugh L. Dryden, deputy administrator for the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, said.

Dryden, in testimony to the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, pictured the missions as information-gathering for research work—not spying.

COOPERATED
He explained that NASA is doing its job of research on improving aircraft development and operations, arranged to put instruments on planes, military and commercial. He said it has "cooperated with foreign governments and airlines by lending instrumentation."

"Now the pattern of operation with the commercial airlines and with the military has been the same throughout," Dryden continued.

"We meet with the owners and operators of the airplanes, whether an airline or the military service, come to an agreement with them that our instruments can be installed on their airplanes . . .

"We have no detailed knowledge of the flight plans until after the fact . . .

"Observations extend throughout the world. At the present time we have instruments on Pan American and TWA jets which, of course, go around the world."

The Senate group is making a general inquiry into the summit fiasco, including the downing of a U2 spy plane deep in Russia May 1 and Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's subsequent use of the incident as a reason to draw back from meeting with Western heads of state.

FIRST WORD
The first U2 word on the missing U2 was a statement by NASA that a weather plane based in Turkey was missing.

Much of the questioning of Dryden centered on why this statement was issued. He was questioned behind closed doors but a censored transcript of his testimony was given newsmen.

Dryden said the Central Intelligence Agency cleared the "substantive facts" of the statement.

He said that NASA hadn't intended making any statement but had merely planned to answer reporters' questions about the plane.

But he said that it was decided to issue a statement rather than to have a "general free-for-all" of questioning by reporters.

"I would like to emphasize that the text of that statement as issued was not cleared with the CIA or anyone else," Dryden said.

Absentee Voting Ends, Boxes Are Being Picked Up
Election boxes are being delivered to precinct judges today in preparation for Saturday's runoff primary election. Mrs. Pauline Petty, county clerk, said that a number of judges have already picked up their boxes and election supplies. She urged others to do so at their earliest convenience.

Meantime, absentee voting closed on Tuesday at 5 p.m. Mrs. Petty said that the final total was 109. The bulk of these were cast on the last two days of the absentee voting period.

Rocky Lauds Ike's Conduct
NEW YORK (AP)—Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller said Tuesday night that Americans can be proud of President Eisenhower for his conduct at the summit conference wrecked by Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

Rockefeller spoke of the cuff before an overflow crowd of more than 800 members of the New York County Republican Committee.

Stevenson Urges Five Point Program

CHICAGO (AP)—Adlai E. Stevenson today outlined a five-point "grand strategy for peace."

He urged the United States to adopt such a program to "recover the initiative in the cold war" and "restore confidence in American leadership."

The 1952-1956 Democratic presidential nominee submitted a plan looking toward general and complete disarmament under international control in a speech prepared for the convention of the Textile Workers Union—an organization that has endorsed Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts for the 1960 Democratic presidential nomination.

Stevenson also resumed his attack on the Eisenhower administration in the wake of the collapse of the summit conference.

"The effectiveness for leadership of the present administration in Washington has been impaired if not destroyed," he said.

Stevenson proposed that the United States:

1. Build up "deterrent power and a limited war capability with our NATO allies that does not depend on the budget bureaucrats."
2. Strengthen the Western alliance by "building a stronger political and economic community in the free world," and setting up an Atlantic Council.
3. Join our allies in a long-range aid program for poor countries.
4. Make it plain that general and complete disarmament under international control is "an imperative for all of us."
5. Show the world that freedom works in the United States in meeting needs for schooling, research, health, housing and all forms of public services.

Stevenson, who has said he is not seeking the Democratic nomination but who has not ruled out a draft, opened his speech—his sixth in seven weeks—by calling the summit fiasco a defeat for the policies of both President Eisenhower and Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

"The Stalinist faction in Russia has been strengthened," he said. "Red China and Russia have been thrust closer together. World tensions have been increased."

Officials Pleased With Court Decision

AUSTIN (AP)—State officials glowed with optimism over the U.S. Supreme Court decision on Texas tidelands but oil men refused to get excited.

"It won't mean anything to us," said J. E. Gosline, Houston, president of Standard Oil Co. of Texas. L. F. McCollum, president of Continental Oil Co., agreed.

The court decided Tuesday by a 6-1 vote that Texas had the right to its submerged lands from the shore to about 10 1/2 miles at sea.

"Final success in one of the greatest legal and political battles in the history of our state," said Gov. Price Daniel. "Future leases, rentals and royalties have potential values running into the billions of dollars, according to estimates made by competent geologists and engineers."

Land Commissioner Bill Allcorn said the decision opened up "the opportunity for development of these school land properties and promising a billion dollar yield to the Texas school children of the future."

He said the School Land Board will discuss offering leases on the tidelands at "an early meeting."

The School Land Board has charge of leasing the properties. The bonuses and royalties received from leases go into the permanent school fund where they are invested and the investment income in turn is used for direct financing of public schools.

Allcorn said Texas likely will get in the near future about $82,000 that has been tied up in the court action. The state already has received $29,268,999 from the disputed tidelands area. If the Supreme Court had decided against Texas, that $29,268,999 would have been turned over to the federal government.

The land commissioner said there are 265 leases now in effect on 461,875 acres between the three mile and 10 1/2 mile limits. Only 18 leases are active.

Oil men's records show the 174 wells drilled off the Texas coast the past 22 years have included 103 dry holes. The successful completions included 47 gas wells and 24 oil wells—compared to Texas' more than 170,000 producing oil wells on the mainland.

Two Texas offshore tests are now underway—one near Galveston and another near Freeport.

The tidelands dispute in its early days caused a shutdown by

Work Going On Child Center

Work is progressing on the new home for the Howard County Society for Crippled Children and Adults.

Ground breaking on the one-acre tract at 3th and Owens St., north of the YMCA, took place yesterday. Today volunteers are engaged in working on the foundation, plumbing and sewer line.

Charles Campbell, local contractor, has begun work on the foundation, and the first concrete will probably be poured Thursday. Kitching Electric Co. is planning the wiring for the new building and is in charge of gathering in all the electrical supplies to wire it.

The plumbing is being roughed in today by A. P. Kesch and Sons, who volunteered to coordinate all the equipment needed for the plumbing job.

Other volunteers who have donated supplies are Clyde McMahon, concrete, and Cactus Paint Co., paint. The labor is being supplied by the city's labor unions.

Anyone wishing to donate to the work but who is unable to participate in the actual labor, may address a check to the Home for the Howard County Society for Crippled Children in care of either the Herald or the Chamber of Commerce.

Aquatennial Celebration Programs Begin Thursday

Boosters were whooping it up Wednesday on the eve of the opening of the summer celebration, the Aquatennial and Summer Fun Days.

Beauty contestants and others joined in a caravan to neighboring cities this morning to talk up the big promotion of displays, beauty pageant, special bargains and other activities.

Meanwhile, tempo was stepped up on the sale of Skipper Pins which entitle the wearer to special rates at the Ritz Theatre, the city swimming pools, and on some specified merchandise items during Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

The pins also are good for admission to the square dance on Main Street Friday.

Miss Big Spring contestants have been engaged in selling the pins for the past few days, and they will continue to sell them for 50 cents each.

ACTIVITIES
Activities for the big affair this week will include outdoor merchandise displays, special sales, a square dance and the annual Miss Big Spring Pageant. Backers of the Aquatennial are urging all residents in Big Spring and surrounding area to participate.

In order to encourage residents in nearby towns to take part, the Chamber of Commerce promotion committee toured the area cities Wednesday in a special caravan and extended invitations to visit Big Spring for the event. Miss Big Spring Pageant contestants, accompanied the caravan on its tour of Sterling City, Garden City, Stanton, Lamesa, Gail, Snyder, Roscoe, Lorraine, Colorado City, Westbrook and Comhoma.

KICK OFF
Kicking off the activities Thursday morning will be special displays of outdoor equipment for work and play. The displays will be an exhibit at the court house square and the public is invited to visit the square and inspect the merchandise anytime during the three-day period from 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.

In addition to displays on the square, automobile dealers from Big Spring will display new model cars along the curb. Among some 50 establishments planning exhibitions of merchandise are Big Spring Hardware, Cecil Thixton, Davis Feed and Seed, Dewey's Marine Supply, Dibrrell Sporting Goods, Good Housekeeping Furniture, Goodyear, Knox Boat Co., Montgomery Ward, R&H Hardware, Sears Roebuck, Sherwin Williams Paints, Thompson Furniture, Wasco, Wasson Trantham, Western Auto, White's, Gibson's, KBST and McCrory's.

Friday night at 8 p.m., a square Dance Jamboree, sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, will be held on Main Street between 3rd and 4th Streets. Square dance clubs belonging to the Western Square Dance Association throughout the West Texas Area have been invited to attend. Two local clubs, the Howard County Hoedowners and the Big Spring Squares, will be hosts for the dance.

40 TO ATTEND
Dusty Randall, who is master of ceremonies and square dance caller along with Harold Graves, estimates that some 30 to 40 squares will be present. Music for the dance will be provided by Jim King and his Cosden Cowboys, and prizes will be given in the waltz contest and sack race.

The climax of Aquatennial activities will come on Saturday night with the crowning of Miss Big Spring and Junior Miss Big Spring. The pageant is an annual contest sponsored by the Big Spring Jaycees, and it is slated for 7 p.m. in the city auditorium.

The winner of the Miss Big Spring competition will represent the city in the Miss Texas contest later in the summer. If she is successful there, she will go on to the Miss America Pageant in Atlantic City in the fall.

Baylor Exit Ramp Back In Picture

The Baylor Blvd. extension with East 3rd St. was taken out of the Interstate 20 picture again Tuesday night when the city commission reversed its decision of two weeks ago.

On May 24 commissioners passed a resolution requesting the extension from the Texas Highway Department as top priority in that area's thoroughfare system.

The request put an exit ramp previously requested by the commission next in line for consideration by the State Highway Department.

After Tuesday night's action the exit ramp is in and the extension is out.

City Manager A. K. Steinheimer reported that J. C. (Jake) Roberts, district engineer for the State Highway Department, told him and three members of a special committee at Abilene, that the exit ramp is a design criteria and as such must be left in the plans.

SAFETY ELEMENT

Without the exit ramp motorists who miss the exit at Birdwell, which is a grade crossing and therefore not entirely safe, would have to drive all the way to FM 700 to get off of Interstate 20.

Steinheimer said that Baylor Blvd. extended into 3rd St. would mean converging lanes of high speed traffic, a hazardous situation.

Tentative plans now call for Baylor to be brought into Tulane for entrance to Interstate 20.

Gulf Oil Corp. was low bidder among six on gasoline to the city. Gulf's price is 16.82 cents per gallon for regular and 18.82 cents per gallon for ethyl.

Cosden holds the current contract at 19 cents and 25.50. At the expected consumption of 18,750 gallons of ethyl and 35,280 gallons of regular gasoline in the next six months, the city hopes to effect a substantial savings with the low bidder.

Socialists Resign From Jap House

TOKYO (AP)—Socialist party members decided today to resign from the lower house of the Japanese Parliament in a last-ditch move to oust Prime Minister Nobusuke Kishi and block ratification of the U.S.-Japan security treaty.

Socialist executives tonight began gathering the resignations of the party's 125 members of the lower house, nearly 30 per cent of the house membership.

Export Subsidy Is 225 Millions

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government is paying out 225 million dollars on U.S. cotton sold up to May 13 for export during the marketing year ending Aug. 1.

The government is offering a subsidy of 8 cents a pound on cotton sold abroad during the year. The Agriculture Department said today that about 6½ million bales had been registered for export as of May 13. Exporters had earned subsidy credits totaling about 225 million dollars, it said.

The subsidy is offered to offset difference between the U.S. grower supported price and lower competitive prices in world markets.

Summit Meetings Await Diplomacy

PARIS (AP)—President Charles de Gaulle said Tuesday night there should be no more summit conferences until the way to agreement is paved by "methodic diplomatic work."

After reasonable preparation by all four powers, De Gaulle said in a TV-radio report to the French nation, France would be ready to play host again to a top level meeting.

De Gaulle was the last of the Big Four leaders to report on the breakdown of the summit parley here two weeks ago.

Matinee Idol Pleads Innocent

VAN NUYS, Calif. (AP)—Overtime matinee idol Ramon Navarro has pleaded innocent to drunken driving charges.

Police said the 61-year-old actor's car hit a parked car Monday night and he flunked a sobriety test. Last Saturday he ran into the rear of a bus, police say, and failed a sobriety test then, too.

Red Cross To Receive Chilean Relief Gifts

President Eisenhower has requested the American Red Cross to coordinate all voluntary relief offered by the people of this country to the stricken people in Chile, victimized by earthquakes, volcanoes and tidal waves.

The loss in the South American nation has been tremendous, and the Red Cross is assuming a heavy responsibility in this humanitarian effort.

The organization already has sent $175,000 in disaster relief funds, and also has dispatched expert personnel to the stricken areas.

Cash contributions are urgently needed, and the Red Cross is inviting gifts of money to help the stricken people. Gifts may be sent directly to the Red Cross, Big Spring, and will be acknowledged and dispatched promptly for direct use in Chilean relief.

Wreck Rescue Aided By Alarm

Graduation Card May Alter Plans

AUSTIN (AP)—Graduation exercises at Houston Bellaire Friday night has changed the schedule of the Texas schoolboy baseball tournament opening here Thursday.

Bellaire was granted a change in the schedule whereby it will play Friday afternoon if it gets into the Class AAAA finals, instead of Friday night as scheduled.

If Bellaire does not win its opening game against Midland Thursday night, the schedule will be as planned—with the Class AAAA consolation Friday afternoon and the championship game Friday night.

In Class AAA—are Kilgore, Seagun, Nederland and Snyder. Kilgore meets Seagun and Nederland battles Snyder Thursday afternoon in the first round.

Zone Change Is Approved

Site of H. M. Rainbolt's new Wagon Wheel restaurant was approved for re-zoning from A residential to F commercial by the city commission Tuesday night.

Re-zoning was recommended by the planning and zoning commission during its meeting Tuesday afternoon.

The site is a triangular piece of land formed by the converging 3rd and 4th streets about two miles west of the city.

The planning and zoning commission approved the Kentwood Addition plat, allowing developer E. C. Smith to proceed with development.

The portion platted for first development is 100 acres at the corner south of 25th St. and east of Birdwell Lane.

Tiny Package Becomes Balloon

WASHINGTON (AP)—A tiny package popped out of its container 210 miles over the Virginia coast Tuesday night and swiftly inflated into a plastic balloon 10 stories high.

The balloon was the fifth in a series of test launchings in preparation for putting one into orbit from Cape Canaveral, Fla.

Scientists hope to use such balloon satellites for bouncing radio communications to great distances around the earth.

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Actor Gary Cooper has undergone major surgery—removal of a portion of his colon—and will be hospitalized two weeks.

Before the operation Tuesday, the surgery had been called minor. Cooper, winner of two Academy awards, recently turned down a film role because he wasn't feeling well.

Steamer Service Strike Leaves Islands Stranded

By DON GUY
NANTUCKET, Mass. (AP)—With more than a million dollars in tourist business estimated lost over the Memorial Day weekend, residents of this island and nearby Martha's Vineyard are "mad enough to toss a harpoon into the golden dome of the State House in Boston."

Folks whose ancestors waited four years for whale ships to return from world voyages are fed up with waiting six weeks for the steamers to come over from Cape Cod.

The islanders have been cut off from regular steamer service by a strike since April 16. Three ships serving the islands are operated by a state-chartered Steamship Authority. A total of 150 officers and crewmen, represented by five unions, walked off the ships seeking higher wages and other benefits.

Leo J. Convery, hotel owner and president of the Martha's Vineyard Chamber of Commerce, said: "The strike cost the Vineyard nearly a million dollars over the holiday weekend in unrented cottages, vacant hotels, half-empty stores and restaurants and a thousand other smaller losses." John L. Hardy, Nantucket innkeeper and former selectman, estimated business was off 50 per cent on a weekend that normally would have kicked off the summer season. "The long-term dollar cost might be close to a quarter million," he added.

The Vineyard, five miles from Woods Hole on Cape Cod, has a winter population of 8,000 and upwards of 40,000 in summer. Nantucket, 25 miles from Hyannis, the nearest mainland port on Cape Cod, has 3,640 winter residents, five times that in summer and probably 100,000 one-day excursionists in the warmer months.

A dozen small vessels are plying between Woods Hole and Martha's Vineyard to substitute for the strikebound ferry Islander. Nantucket, harder to reach across Nantucket Sound, has had to depend upon larger vessels from Hyannis to fill the gap. The bottleneck at both islands has been the lack of auto transportation.

Barges have been carrying cars for upwards of $25 each, three times the steamer rate. Rental cars are virtually unobtainable on either island and most auto dealers have sold out their stocks of second-hand cars. Bicycle shops on both islands report a booming business from tourists forced to leave their cars on the mainland.

George Woods, Vineyard hotel owner, has started a suit, scheduled for Superior Court June 14, to force the authority to restore steamship service to the islands.

Nantucket Selectman John Meilly says the steamers are "Nantucket's state highway, and nobody has a right to block the highway."

First Negro Is Graduated

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—The first Negro graduate of Hall High School is Effie Jones. She received her diploma Tuesday night along with 214 white students.

Miss Jones was one of three Negro girls integrated into Hall High this year when schools reopened. They had been closed for a year to prevent continued integration at Central High School.

Two Negroes were graduated Monday night from Central, which was integrated in 1957-58. Both ceremonies were without incident.

Texas Leaders Visit Military

EL PASO (AP)—A four-day tour of Army and Air Defense Command posts brought community leaders of 13 Texas cities here for their first stop Tuesday. The group planned to see the White Sands Missile Range in New Mexico and also to visit North American Air Defense Command Headquarters at Colorado Springs.

Their trip is to familiarize local leaders with the nation's air defenses. Mayors in the group include Ed Rutherford of Greenville, Walter Holliday of Cleburne and Smith Reynolds Jr. of Tyler.

Also on the trip are J. K. Lane of Hillsboro, Chris Hansen of Waco and Oliver Otto of San Angelo.

Burglar Is Not Good Speller

DETROIT (AP)—Someone broke into a school here, stole the milk fund and left this note: "You are waisting your time if you are looking for fingerprints." Detective Garfield Campbell said he would search for someone who can't spell "waste."

Model Of Sea Water Conversion Plant

A model of a sea water conversion plant to be built at Freeport, is inspected in Washington by Dr. A. L. Mitter, left, director of the Interior Department's Office of Saline Water; Fred G. Aandahl, center, assistant secretary of interior, and Rep. Clark Thompson, (D-Tex.). The plant will have a capacity of one million gallons of fresh water daily.

King Disputes NAACP Decree

TAMPA, Fla. (AP)—A Negro candidate for president of the United States has disputed a NAACP statement that racial segregation is dead in the South. The Rev. Clennon King of Albany, Ga., candidate for the Afro-American Unity Party, said Tuesday in a letter to the Rev. A. Leon Lowry that "segregation in the South is on the increase and there is no expectation of a reversal to this trend."

King said Lowry, Florida NAACP president, made the statement following the victory of segregationist Parris Bryant in the governor's race.

King said he took exception to the remark in the interest of "truth and my devotion to the hope that the Negro people not be forever footed."

King said it appears that the South is cleverly beginning to look to the North as its mentor on how to become effectively segregated.

Two More Primaries Offer Little In Delegate Trends

By JACK BELL
WASHINGTON (AP) — Primaries in California and South Dakota will wind up pre-convention balloting next Tuesday, but will offer little indication of the trend of the November presidential race.

Zale Has Record Sales, Earnings

DALLAS — Record sales and earnings plus a record growth in the number of new stores highlight the annual report of Zale Jewelry Co., Inc., for the fiscal year ended March 31.

The annual report, released today in Dallas by company president Ben A. Lipsy, shows net sales of $51,643,834, an increase of 24 per cent over the $41,644,677 reported for the fiscal year ended March 31, 1959.

Net income after taxes, also the highest in the company's history, amounted to $3,088,886, equal to $1.96 a share. This compares with net income after taxes of $2,597,440, equal to $1.66 a share for the previous year.

Lipsy also reported an unprecedented growth in stores for the fiscal year, with 30 units added to the company. Together with 16 stores added since March 31, Zale's now operates 165 stores in 26 states from New England to the Pacific Northwest, with the company a 25 per cent gain in number of stores during the past 14 months.

Guild Charges Postponement

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Some Hollywood television producers seek to postpone start of the fall television season for one or two months, the striking Writers Guild of America charges.

The guild said producers are reported asking networks and sponsors to start the season with reruns, to take the pressure off the current contract talks with the writers. The writers have been on strike since January. There was no immediate reaction from producers to the guild statement.

The guild wired the American Assn. of Advertising Agencies Tuesday that it would appeal to other labor unions for support if there were too many delays in reaching an agreement.

Prime issue is the percentage of gross to be paid the TV writers for their work.

pledged, rather than for individual aspirants for the office.

Whether the outcome of a dozen primaries in which presidential hopefuls participated will make any decisive imprint on the two nominating conventions remains to be tested.

Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts captured strong support for the Democratic nomination by sweeping the primaries in which he was entered.

But Kennedy's rivals, who ignored the primaries, say those results proved only that the Massachusetts senator was more favored by the voters in that limited number of states than were opponents they said never were given a chance to win the prize.

Where Kennedy faced opposition, most of it came from Sens. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota and Wayne Morse of Oregon.

Senate Democratic leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, Sen. Stuart Symington of Missouri and supporters of Adlai E. Stevenson dismissed Kennedy's Oregon primary victory over them as the expected outcome in a state where he campaigned but they did not.

On the Republican side, Vice President Richard M. Nixon demonstrated that he is a strong vote getter. In a few of the primaries, as an unopposed candidate, he got more votes than President Eisenhower did in 1956.

Nixon has made it clear, he doesn't think his delegate slate will pile up as many votes among California Republicans Tuesday as Democrats will chalk up for a slate pledged to Gov. Edmund G. (Pat) Brown as a favorite son.

South Dakota will choose on the same day a Democratic slate which has been released but which still is nominally pledged to Humphrey, despite his withdrawal from the nomination contest.

A total of 7,960,753 persons voted in 12 previous major presidential primaries, an increase of 359,471 over the number who went to the polls in the same states in 1956. But the total represented only about 13 per cent of the more than 61,600,000 persons who voted in the general election four years ago.

Republicans outvoted Democrats 4,124,569 to 3,836,184. But partisans couldn't read much into this because a sizable portion of the GOP total was piled up in Illinois and Pennsylvania, where Nixon was on the ballot but the Democratic presidential votes all were write-ins.

The Republican count was slightly under that party's 1956 total of 4,158,093. About 600,000 more Democrats participated this year than in 1956. The largest of the Democratic gains were registered in Indiana, Massachusetts, Wisconsin, West Virginia (where the party had no entry in 1956), Nebraska, Oregon and Ohio.

In states where there were comparative votes, Democrats outpolled the Republicans in Indiana, Massachusetts, Wisconsin, Oregon and Ohio. Republicans came out on top in New Hampshire, New Jersey and Nebraska.

In Oregon and Wisconsin Democratic battling helped bring out that party's voters. Republicans had no incentive in any of the primaries other than to make a showing for Nixon, who did no campaigning.

Campaign Picks Up Momentum

AUSTIN (AP) — Campaigns of the two judges for a place on the Court of Criminal Appeals picked up momentum today.

A testimonial dinner was planned here tonight for the incumbent, Judge Lloyd Davidson. A special bus load of supporters for Dist. Judge W. T. McDonald of Bryan was to visit Temple, Austin and San Antonio.

The runoff race will be settled Saturday.

CLEAN UP WEEK

Campaign Called 'Most Important'

By BRUCE DUNN
Director of Public Works for the City of Big Spring

This week, we are marking the Big Spring annual Clean Up, Paint Up, Fix Up campaign. In my opinion, this campaign is probably one of the most important events of the year.

Every resident of Big Spring has an opportunity, and a responsibility, to participate in this worthwhile cause. For it can make our city more attractive and healthier, as it eliminates fire hazards and rodent breeding places.

We, in the city sanitation department, plan to make many extra trips through the city in an effort to do our part in contributing to the campaign. At best, we can only pick up that trash and debris that is placed in the alleys or streets.

Thus, we ask that everyone place clean up debris where garbage crews can pick it up. The success of the entire campaign depends largely on the cooperation of all of us working together in getting the job done.

The city's part of the campaign includes:

1. Extra trucks and men will be working a special "pick-up" program;
2. Fire hazard and sanitation inspections will be made during and after the campaign;
3. Trouble spots will receive extra attention.

Residents can help city crews in the following ways:

1. Leave trash in the alleys for pick up;
2. Keep grass cuttings and dirt out of gutters in back of houses;
3. Conduct a follow-up campaign by hauling trash to the dump grounds before it accumulates into huge piles.

The residents of our city can have the kind of community they want. I hope that all of us enter this clean up program with a spirit of community pride. We can make our Big Spring an even more pleasant place in which to live.

BRUCE DUNN

SEATTLE (AP) — "You'd be surprised how hard it is to get $900 by getting it 50 cents at a time."

But Vonnie Brodine, 17, and her sister, Vickie, 16, got it, and they're on their way to Europe to spend it.

They visited Europe four years ago with their parents and liked it so much they decided they'd go again.

They earned the money baby-sitting, clerking and working in the public library.

The girls will be on their own until they return home to Seattle about Aug. 23.

ability, to participate in this worthwhile cause. For it can make our city more attractive and healthier, as it eliminates fire hazards and rodent breeding places.

We, in the city sanitation department, plan to make many extra trips through the city in an effort to do our part in contributing to the campaign. At best, we can only pick up that trash and debris that is placed in the alleys or streets.

Thus, we ask that everyone place clean up debris where garbage crews can pick it up. The success of the entire campaign depends largely on the cooperation of all of us working together in getting the job done.

The city's part of the campaign includes:

1. Extra trucks and men will be working a special "pick-up" program;

2. Fire hazard and sanitation inspections will be made during and after the campaign;

3. Trouble spots will receive extra attention.

Residents can help city crews in the following ways:

1. Leave trash in the alleys for pick up;

2. Keep grass cuttings and dirt out of gutters in back of houses;

3. Conduct a follow-up campaign by hauling trash to the dump grounds before it accumulates into huge piles.

The residents of our city can have the kind of community they want. I hope that all of us enter this clean up program with a spirit of community pride. We can make our Big Spring an even more pleasant place in which to live.

SEATTLE (AP) — "You'd be surprised how hard it is to get $900 by getting it 50 cents at a time."

But Vonnie Brodine, 17, and her sister, Vickie, 16, got it, and they're on their way to Europe to spend it.

They visited Europe four years ago with their parents and liked it so much they decided they'd go again.

They earned the money baby-sitting, clerking and working in the public library.

The girls will be on their own until they return home to Seattle about Aug. 23.

Coast Guard Find 2 Men

GALVESTON (AP)—The Coast Guard recovered two bodies today in the Texas City area. The bodies were believed to be those of two missing Houston men, Eugene Jones, 53, and Dudley Jones, 46. The men had been missing since last seen Tuesday on a fishing trip. Their 16-foot outboard motorboat was recovered Tuesday. Clothing, watches, pocketbooks, rods and reels and live shrimp were found, all in perfect order, in the boat. The anchor was up. The wife of one of the men said her husband liked to swim. The Coast Guard said one of the men might have been swimming and that the other went to his rescue. Both men were large. Their bodies were battered and still bleeding when taken from the water.

Robert Hailey Promoted To Captain In Regular Navy

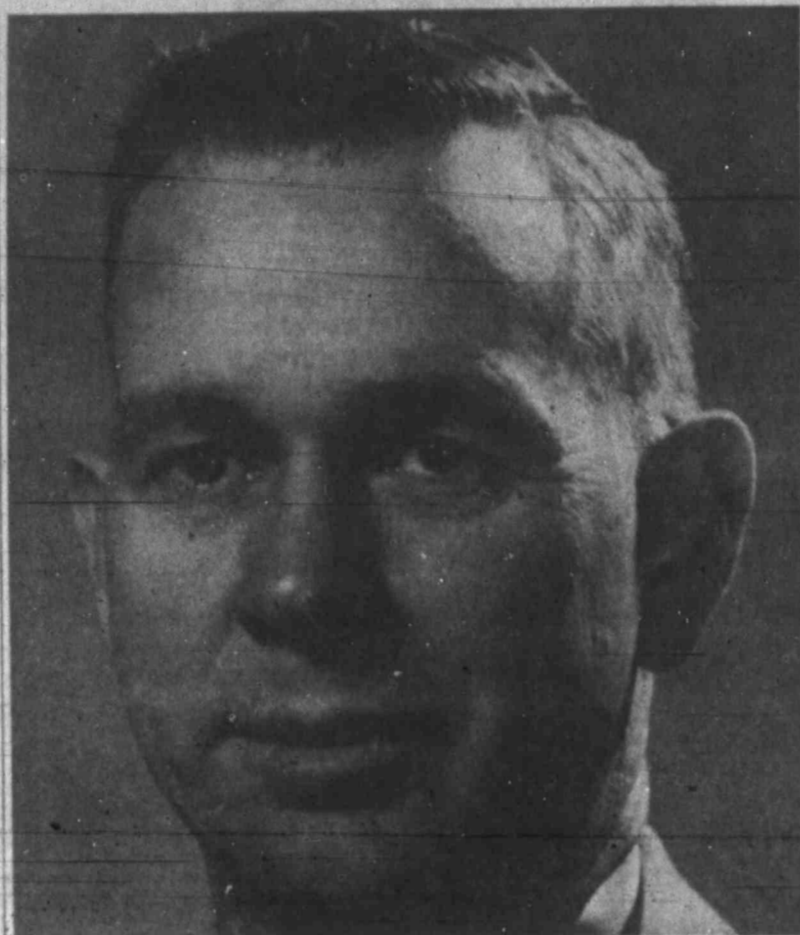

Robert Hailey has been promoted to the rank of captain in the United States Navy. Capt. Hailey is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George R. Hailey, 710 Edwards Blvd. He is presently serving on the staff of Vice Admiral Edmund B. Taylor, USN, commander of the Antisubmarine Defense Force, U. S. Atlantic Fleet. He has been in his post since July 1958 when he became operations training and scheduling officer under Adm. Taylor, who is directly responsible for the defense of North America from attack or any threat developing from the sea.

Capt. Hailey is responsible for the coordination of the activities of forces which are assigned from Argentina to Trinidad, and sometimes as far as Iceland for special situations. Among these are Task Groups Alfa, Bravo and Charlie.

He and Mrs. Hailey, the former Evelyn Morsen, daughter of Vice Admiral C. B. Morsen, USN (Ret.), live with their three children at 3507 Viney Ridge Ave., Norfolk 9, Va. Ann is 15; Robert, 13 and Christopher, 10.

Born in Austin, Capt. Hailey moved with his parents to Big Spring when he was a lad and was graduated from Big Spring High School. He completed one year of work at McMurry College before he was appointed in 1937 to the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis by Rep. George Mahon. Incidentally, he was the first appointee by Rep. Mahon to complete the academy to which he was appointed.

the academy in 1941, he reported to the heavy cruiser USS Indianapolis and was operating in the Pacific when the Japanese attacked Pearl Harbor. He took part in many of the major operations against the Japanese, including the Coral Sea and Midway campaigns. In 1943 he was awarded the Navy-Marine Corps Medal for assisting in saving the lives of two shipmates lost overboard on the Indianapolis. Toward the end of World War II, Capt. Hailey received submarine training at New London, Conn., and from 1944-46 he served in the undersea craft in both the Atlantic and Pacific. Following a tour of duty as classification and assignment officer at the Naval Disciplinary Barracks, he returned in 1949 to submarine duty as executive officer of the USS Fin-back. In 1950 he assumed command of the submarine USS Piper, and in 1952 he received orders to report to the staff of the commander in chief, U. S. Atlantic Fleet, for duty as intelligence plans officer. He was ordered to sea duty in 1954 and during the next 27 months as commanding officer of the escort destroyer USS Waller, he participated in operations in the Mediterranean, Caribbean and Atlantic area with particular emphasis on anti-submarine operations.

In 1956 Capt. Hailey reported to Rice Institute at Houston as associate professor of naval science and executive officer of the Naval Reserve Training Corps. While on duty in 1957, he participated in the NROTC summer training cruise to Quebec City, Canada and to Boston. His present assignment came in July of 1958. The Antisubmarine Defense Force assumed an increasingly important function in view of the unprecedented growth of the Soviet submarine force.

During his career, he has attended several specialized schools in Key West, Norfolk, Halifax, Nova Scotia and in Londonderry, North Ireland to develop further his knowledge of the U. S. and Allied techniques in anti-submarine warfare.

From the time he became a tenderfoot, Boy Scout in troop No. 1 some 30 years ago while the late C. S. Holmes and B. Reagan were still active in the program, Capt. Hailey has kept up his close association with Scouting. The only lapses in active work with boys has been when military duty intervened. Currently he is scoutmaster of troop No. 21 at Norfolk. His eldest son is in his troop.

Capt. Hailey teaches an adult Sunday School class and is a member of the board of stewards of the First Methodist Church in Norfolk. But he does not outshine Mrs. Hailey in civic service; for among other things she is president of the Willard Junior High School Parents - Teachers Association and is a leader in youth activities.

Verwoerd Has First Speech Since Shooting

BLOEMFONTEIN, South Africa (AP)—Prime Minister Hendrick F. Verwoerd Tuesday made his first speech since an assassin put two bullets in his head April 9, and quickly made clear he has not modified his racial segregation policies.

Speaking at a celebration of the 50th anniversary of the formation of the Union of South Africa, the champion of the apartheid predicted the white man will remain "the guardian of the black man" in South Africa.

Warning against a "black dictatorship," Verwoerd said a prosperous future can only be attained if two conditions are met.

"The first is that white South Africa must continue to rule. The second is that we as whites must be prepared to work and work hard," he said.

The Prime Minister called for a "union of hearts" between citizens of English and Dutch blood.

Verwoerd held aloft a dove and said he was sending it "out into space as a symbol of the peace and prosperity which we wish all peoples on earth." The bird refused to fly and dropped to the ground. Despite coaxing, it refused to "budge" and was finally carried away.

Elsewhere in South Africa demonstrations flared against Verwoerd's apartheid policy.

Thousands of people of all races marched through Cape Town's streets. In Durban, a statue of Gen. Louis Botha, South Africa's first Prime Minister, was covered with posters saying "Fifty Years of Oppression."

The Cape Town marchers later jammed an old drill hall to hear speakers condemn apartheid. The audience included Alan Paton, author of the best-selling novel "Cry the Beloved Country" and an open foe of apartheid.

Full Page Ads Support LBJ For President

NEW YORK (AP) — Full-page newspaper advertisements supporting Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas for the Democratic presidential nomination are appearing in 15 cities across the country.

The ads, under the heading "Who Shall Lead Us?" are signed by 181 persons, including Govs. Price Daniel of Texas and Buford Ellington of Tennessee, House Speaker Sam Rayburn, and Louis Johnson, former secretary of Defense.

The advertisement indirectly attacked what it said was the youth and inexperience of Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts as contrasted with the Senate Democratic leader. It called for a nationwide telegraphic and letter appeal to Johnson urging him to become an active candidate for the nomination.

"Our next president must have: maturity of judgment; devotion and dedication to duty; experience in the art of government; humility that brings human understanding; courage that precludes indecision; and above all, the demonstrated, proven ability to lead this nation. These are the minimum qualifications."

Saying Johnson is the man who best fills these qualifications, among those mentioned for the presidency, the advertisement declared:

"The record of most political leaders is written in terms solely of votes and verbal positions upon public questions. The record of Lyndon B. Johnson is written in terms of leadership—leadership that has faced up to and can master the giant issues of our times."

Top 3 Contenders Hold Summit Meet

By JOE W. LEWIS
BEVERLY HILLS, Calif. (AP) — Radiating smiles as warm as California sunshine, three top contenders for the Democratic presidential nomination had a summit meeting of their own Tuesday night.

The occasion was a glittering $100-a-plate testimonial dinner for Gov. Edmund G. Brown, who heads an 81-vote favorite-son delegation pledged to him on California's June 7 primary ballot.

The three candidates — Sens. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts, Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas and Stuart Symington of Missouri — whooped it up all day for Brown, the party and themselves.

Each got an enthusiastic reception—but Brown got the biggest hand. The Democratic banquet in the modernistic Beverly Hilton Hotel gave Southern Californians a convention preview and a chance to compare the aspirants.

But a question remained: Will the sunshine radiated by the candidates reap a harvest of California votes at the July convention?

Gov. Brown indicated the favorite-son delegation—opposed by one committed to pension promoter George McLaughlin—is up for grabs.

He told a news conference there is little chance the delegation will unite unanimously behind a single candidate.

Brown, as pleased as a ringmaster at a three-ring circus, told a blue chip audience of about 1,200: "Any one of these three (candidates) will lead us to victory (in the general election) and then to peace in the world."

The candidates whizzed through a writing round of activities. They held news conferences in 1-2-3 order, shook hundreds of moist palms, wine and dined delegates and huddled with politicians.

They gave these views in news conference, prepared statements and speeches:

Kennedy — He cannot envision Vice President Richard M. Nixon, whom he characterized as a "belligerent and bellicose man," as president. The administration contributed to the summit collapse — although the Soviets actually caused its failure — by mishandling the U2 spy plane controversy. The key campaign issue will be foreign policy and what he termed the decline of American military power.

Johnson — There is no "war party nor peace party nor party soft on communism" in America. Soviet Premier Khrushchev's claim that America sabotaged the summit conference is "an arrogant denial of the honest truth." The summit collapsed because of Khrushchev's "disgraceful conduct." Convention delegates won't be stamped onto any band wagon. The South is not likely to stage a walkout at the convention.

Symington—Kennedy should not be too confident. He has won seven primaries, but Estes Kefauver won 13 in 1959 and lost the nomination to Adlai Stevenson. The administration has a "calculated policy" of withholding information about what he termed America's missile gap. The United States must add three billion dollars to its defense budget to negotiate with the Soviets from a position of strength.

Complaint Has Several Recipes

BALTIMORE (AP) — Although miffed about bus service, a Frederick, Md., woman made it clear to the Public Service Commission she had no quarrel with it.

Mrs. A. T. Shafer filed a complaint about her dissatisfaction of bus service with the regulatory agency on a narrow sheet of paper 7½ feet long.

After registering her complaint, she added chattily:

"Well, it's strawberry season now. Here's a recipe that's very good." It described how to make "strawberry honey."

Another covered the preparation of grape wine.

The commission said it will investigate officially the bus complaint. The recipes may be looked into privately by the commissioners.

Strike Averted

DALLAS (AP) — A tentative agreement has been reached in the Dallas bus company wage dispute, averting a threatened strike.

Russians Profit On Cotton Sales

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Dmitri Maitov, Russian observer at the International Cotton Advisory Committee meeting said Tuesday his country purchases big amounts of cotton which it then resells at a profit to its satellites.

Maitov said "great efforts" are being made to produce natural colored fibers. Maitov spoke when the plenary session asked the countries represented by observers to report on their situations.

Submarine Sunk As Training Plan

PEARL HARBOR, Hawaii (AP) — A U.S. submarine was deliberately sunk off the island of Maui, in Hawaii, on May 19.

The Navy, in its announcement Tuesday, said it was the first time in U.S. naval history that an unmanned submarine was sunk and salvaged for the purpose of training.

The submarine rescue vessel USS Greenlet sank the submarine. As soon as the hull settled on the ocean bottom, the Greenlet went to work. Her mission was to rescue "personnel" aboard the sub and attempt its salvage.

As the submarine lay in 150 feet of water, a rescue crew of four went down in the Greenlet's diving bell, opened the after torpedo room hatch, and entered the submarine. Deep sea divers performed salvage work. No further appraisal of the operation was given.

The operation is part of a program designed to keep submarine rescue vessels up to date with the Navy's modern submarine fleet.

The Navy said the sunken submarine was the ex-USS T-105, which sank 22 enemy vessels and damaged 12 others during World War II.

Soviets Told Of Pasternak's Death MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviet public was told today of the death of Boris Pasternak some 36 hours after the Nobel Prize winner succumbed at his home outside Moscow.

Drive-In Owners Lauded For Help

Efforts by officers to eliminate the practice of a few teen-agers who bring intoxicants to the premises of drive-ins are directed at the offenders and not at the operators of the drive-ins, said Assistant Police Chief Leo Hull today.

Hull was elaborating on an attempted trap during the weekend which sought to catch the few offenders.

A story in Monday's Herald incorrectly mentioned the name of the Big M as a target for the trap. The trap was on the highway near the place, and similar ones were planned near other drive-ins. Hull stressed that this was for the purpose of checking cars preparing to enter the places.

The Big M, like most of the other drive-ins, does not and has never sold alcoholic beverages. It has sandwiches, short orders and soft drinks and is a favorite place for the younger set as well as the general public.

COMBATS PROBLEM Herb Vinson, who operates the Big M, pointed out that he has made every effort for weeks to prevent anyone bringing alcoholic beverages onto the premises. He pointed out that he has, at his own expense, maintained an officer on duty to insure orderliness and to root out any who might create an unwholesome atmosphere. This was the policy of Mr. and Mrs. Joe B. Masters, his predecessors.

In fact, Vinson has worked with the officers in seeking to catch those few who might obtain intoxicants elsewhere and conceal them in the car to the drive-in.

He explained that he had worked hard and was continuing to exert every effort to keep the type of place that will be wholesome for the young people. He invited parents to visit and to see for themselves.

Officers have pointed out that the apparent source of intoxicants for a troublesome few of the younger people is from older ones who can acquire it elsewhere. They have been seeking to run down these sources and to punish this offense.

This is not a problem that is peculiar to any one place, but to most of the drive-ins of the city. Hence, efforts to trap offenders is directed at the offenders and not at the drive-in managements who are cooperating to help eradicate this problem, said Hill. He lauded Vinson and others for their help.

Clues Say Natives Are Angry, Restless

Editor's Note: South Africa's dilemma is featured in three articles on South Africa today.

By SAUL PETT

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP)—How angry, how restless are the natives of South Africa under the white man's rule?

No public opinion polls cover this part of the world but there are some clues.

A black man working on a railroad or in a construction gang raises his sledgehammer, brings it down hard and, with deep fury, chants in Zulu: "Abelingo . . . basi biza o Jim."

Translation: "The whites . . . them, they call us Jim."

Or Charlie or Henry or boy or any name the white man chooses except the right one.

"We are ready to fight if guns ever come down from the north," a young native student told me.

"There is no doubt, some day we will have a revolution," said a native teacher.

"And the worst part of the tragedy," said a young native writer, "is that when it comes, we will be blind."

grabbed my lapels. "I had a friend, a teacher, I knew from boyhood," he said. "He was arrested for a pass book offense. He was tough and he was brave and he wouldn't be pushed around. They took him to a prison farm where he probably objected to something—you don't object to anything in a prison farm."

"He was killed. He was beaten to death. I know because I saw the marks on his body and I buried him."

Most of the native political unrest comes from the cities. Those in the country hear little of politics. But at one Zulu reserve, I found an exception, a native chief.

"We want to be free of colonialism, we want to own our own land," he said. "We want a voice in Parliament. We don't want to throw the white man out. We want to share his leadership. But above all, we don't want violence."

The black man, especially those in the urban areas, has come far under the white man's rule. Generally, he eats better, lives better, earns more by African standards, gets more education, more medical attention. But the irony of progress, so far as the government is concerned, is that those who have advanced the most in education suffer the most from the claustrophobia of apartheid or separation of the races.

Apartheid is not new. The white man has been corralling and segregating the black man ever since he came to South Africa 300 years ago. The segregation is total.

The native of South Africa cannot vote or join a union or strike or hold a skilled job in a white area. There's little call for skilled workers in black areas. He cannot buy his own home in the new urban housing locations.

He cannot use the white man's elevator or train or bus or theater or park bench or wash room or restaurant or even the counter at the post office.

He must carry a pass book of identification at all times and get it signed once a month by his employer or be arrested. He must get permission to change jobs or visit another town or, as in many cases where a couple is separated by different jobs, he must get a special permit to visit his wife for a few evening hours. He cannot be out on the streets after 11 p.m. without a special permit. And for all these symbols of white man's permission he must queue up outside government offices and wait in line for hours.

Only among his own people is the black man not segregated. Regardless of economic position, education or taste, they are thrown together in black new housing projects or black old slums—but always black. They are jammed together on trains and buses and, what with waiting in line, a 20-mile commuter takes four hours door to door.

The native lawyer with the neat suit, brief case and rolled umbrella must ride with the primitive woman carrying a sack of potatoes or wash on her head. The doctor rides with the medicine man who prescribes hippo fat for good health, the university student with the illiterate gold miner.

The great majority of whites, both English and Afrikaners, support total segregation. But it is the Afrikaner nationalist who resists any change or modification most bitterly. Many English feel they can always go home. The Afrikaner regards this as his only homeland.

For 300 years, he has been proud of his identity. He has fought savages and the wilderness and the British and he means to stay here, at all costs, under white rule.

"But the trouble with the Afrikaner nationalists," said an English editor, "is they are so bloody stubborn. They insisted on putting something we've had for years (segregation) on the statute books and giving it a name for all the world to know."

"But change is coming fast, like it or not. Five or six years ago we read about Kenya and thought it couldn't happen here. Our natives are different and we have more whites."

"We used to say, oh, in 50 years or so we ought to get around to changing things for the native. But now, good Lord, we may not have six months!"

Tomorrow: Hi-fi and evil spirits.

Expense Bills May Get Investigation

WASHINGTON (AP) — Dozens of expense account bills of House members have been altered or amended in recent years, the Knight newspapers said today.

In a copyrighted dispatch, reporters Don Oberdorfer and Walter Pincus said House records show that "congressmen spent tax dollars on trips, to resort areas, on night clubbing and tipping aboard luxury liners."

The receipts supporting the expense account claims then were altered in some instances, the story said, to show different purposes for the expenditures.

It said "expense accounts of only a few members of the House are involved in the unusual expense bills. In those checked while the records were still public, alterations or amendments appeared on hotel bills of more than 20 present or former congressmen."

The story said the records in the House disbursing office "had long been public documents open to public inspection."

RECORDS CLOSED

"House officials threw a secrecy cloak around the (records) after learning of press interest a few days ago. The door to the fund record room was locked and all access to the public sealed off."

The story said the practices "are concentrated in the expense accounts of House investigating committees — the very groups which have been busy scrutinizing everybody else. But nobody investigates the investigators."

It cited as an example bills of the Royal Hawaiian Hotel in Honolulu to Rep. Oren Harris (D-Ark.) in which the word food in parentheses was written in after separate charges marked "bar."

Harris is chairman of the Legislative Oversight subcommittee which recently investigated payola practices in the disc jockey business.

The story quoted Harris as commenting he does not have "the slightest idea" who made the food notations after the bar charges on the hotel bill.

NO BAR APPROVAL

"I don't approve of bar payments (being charged to the government). I have never knowingly approved a bar charge," Harris said.

The story said Rep. Omar Burleson (D-Tex.) has "ultimate responsibility" for expense account supervision as chairman of the Committee on House Administration.

It said Burleson commented he was not aware of defaced hotel bills or bar bills and said "there have been a lot of loose practices. Such charges are certainly not proper."

Under House rules only travel and hotel expenses and meals are to be charged to the government when a member is traveling on House committee business.

ENTITLEMENT

They are entitled to a standard $12 a day per diem allowance and are not required to submit bills or receipts for this kind of payment when traveling on committee business. Expenses above that amount require bills and receipts to be submitted.

The story said Burleson collected a total of $1,375.29 in expenses from Oct. 1, 1958, to the end of the year. Most of this, it said, was in the standard $12 a day payments, which he collected for 84 of the 92 days. This included Saturdays, Sundays, Thanksgiving and Christmas.

Burleson told the reporters he was working on several matters of business at the time—include some not listed on his account records—but was vague about details, the story said.

The reporters quoted him as saying: "When you go back over a year, you can't remember any details."

Other expense accounts cited in the dispatch were for stays by various congressmen at such hotels as the Royal Hawaiian; the Biltmore and Plaza Hotels in New York; and the Casa Montego Hotel in Jamaica.

New Revolution Haunts Huh Chung

Editor's Note: Five weeks ago Syngman Rhee was deposed as president of South Korea. Now there is talk of a counter revolution. James Cary, veteran AP correspondent long familiar with the Korean situation, analyzes the situation.

By JAMES CARY

SEOUL, South Korea (AP)—The specter of counterrevolution haunts the new government of South Korea.

So far there is no actual evidence of an organized plot to overthrow Acting President Huh Chung.

But there are strange stirrings. They probably were partly responsible for ex-President Syngman Rhee's sudden flight to Honolulu Sunday.

In the talk of antirevolution and counterrevolution, elements most commonly mentioned are: Rhee's now-discredited Liberal party; ex-Premier Lee Bum Suk's fascist-like "Blue Shirt" movement, now resurgent and renamed the National Independence League; a new reputedly leftist group, the Young Guardians of the Republic; some wealthy conservatives and perhaps some military figures.

The key to the situation is the provisional government's investigation into the rigging of the March 15 presidential election which triggered the April students' revolt that toppled Rhee.

So far the investigation has jailed nine members of Rhee's last 11-man cabinet, a minister from a previous cabinet, two former presidents of the Korean Reconstruction Bank, one Bank of Korea governor and a vice governor, two former national police directors, the chief of the presidential palace police, the 13 members of the election planning committee, two former provincial governors, a former mayor of Seoul and Rhee's personal bodyguard.

The probe also prompted the resignation of Lt. Gen. Song Yochan, the army chief of staff, who took responsibility for the army's part in the fraudulent voting. Two other top military commanders also have resigned.

The investigation is biting much deeper into Korea's former rulers than seemed likely when the probe began. Undoubtedly it is causing those who feel they might be next to seek some way of eliminating the danger.

Rhee's name, before his departure, popped up repeatedly as a possible rallying point for those apprehensive of the investigation trend. At least one high-ranking army officer, a former premier, numerous Liberal party members and even some students conferred with the old man after he retired to private life.

Both the ultra rightist National Independence League and the leftist Young Guardians would like to see Huh's reform regime ousted and new elections called immediately, without waiting for passage of a new constitutional amendment setting up a premier-cabinet form of government responsible to the National Assembly.

On May 30-31, students marched through the streets of Taejeu and Seoul, shouting "Huh Chung resign! Huh Chung resign!" The speculation is that either the Guardians or Independence League were behind the demonstrations, tacitly supported by those who stand to gain from what they advocate.

The leftist Guardians in theory are widely separated ideologically from the rightist Independence League and seem much weaker numerically. But it has been suggested that either could attract members of Rhee's disbanded strongarm anti-Communist Youth Corps.

The acting president, taking cognizance of these stirrings, told the National Assembly he permitted Rhee's hush-hush flight to Hawaii partly to clear the air of rumors that "an antirevolutionary group of reckless people" wanted to use the former president.

A Devotional For Today

He is the Rock. . . a God of truth and without inquiry, just and right is he. (Deuteronomy 32:4) God is love, and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him. (1 John 4:16)

PRAYER: Almighty God, Thou voice of the universe, tune our hearts to hear Thee speaking to us. May we not only hear Thy Word but perceive Thy truths everywhere. So help us to order our lives in harmony with Thy will. In Christ's name we pray. Amen.

(From The 'Upper Room')

A Principle Is Upheld

The United States Supreme Court has sustained Texas in her position that she retained her tidelands to a distance of 10 1/2 miles off shore when she entered the Union.

Thus, after a long and costly legal struggle which grew out of the federal claim of paramount rights over submerged offshore lands, Texas' stubborn opposition to federal confiscation has been reversed. Unless the Court should reward itself—which is highly unlikely—unless subsequent legislation by Congress muddies the waters, the matter seems settled.

The immediate effect will be to release $30 million lease money to the Texas permanent school fund. This is of substantial but not herculean import, for the increment from this amount of money, divided among schools of 254 Texas counties will not exactly make or break. It should be understood, however, that this decision may fix the pattern from now on and that $30,000,000 is but a fractional part of the ultimate yield in leases and royalties.

More important than the money is the principle, Texas had held steadfastly that it made a contract with the United States of America in which retention of its tidelands for 10 1/2 miles offshore was part of the consideration for annexation. In effect, it argued that neither the Court nor Congress could waltz on a contract, Florida enjoyed similar advantage. Justice Black complained that the decision gave more consideration to Texas and Florida than to Louisiana, Mississippi and Alabama. Perhaps so, but these were treaty or contractual considerations. Of course Congress could even it all up by fixing all the Gulf borders at three leagues.

Don't Take It Too Lightly

Russia is rattling the sabre again. This time Marshal Rodion Malinovsky has threatened to send Soviet rockets zooming toward bases from which flights over Russia may have originated.

Much speculation has followed this somber threat, and Sen. Mike Mansfield (D-Mont) wisely observed that "I would rather take his warning at face value than to underestimate what he says."

Observers think that Malinovsky's warning was calculated as a deterrent during the next six to nine months when Russia is seeking to relocate its missile bases. Apparently the U-2's photographic reconnaissance has been so effective that the location of Soviet rocket centers is well known. This being the case, Russia is in a vulnerable position relative to defense and attack, and moving to new locations is almost imperative.

Another aim-read into the warning is that Russia is seeking to frighten neighboring nations into expelling Allied bases, or into exercising stringent control over the operations from them. These bases are ringed about Russia have long been a sore spot with her, and understandably so.

Perhaps the worst thing about Malinovsky's threat is that some unintended flight over Soviet territory could loose a blast at an innocent base or city. Once missiles begin darting into the sky, the world may be sucked into a maelstrom from which it cannot extricate itself. In the case of the old West gunslinger who threatened to shoot, there was always the possibility that he might.

The 'Peace Issue' In Politics

WASHINGTON—Politicians are watching closely the so-called "peace issue." Oddly enough, it is more accurately described as a "war issue," and the last time it played a decisive part in American elections was in 1940 when Franklin D. Roosevelt won an unprecedented third term.

Nobody knew in June 1940, when Hitler invaded France, that the United States would some day be drawn into the war. What interested the voter in November 1940 was that the nation was in the midst of a crisis, and the electorate felt it was too dangerous "to swap horses in mid-stream."

under Hitlerian rule or standing up to the Nazi assault, and they gave the whole world an example of the inherent character of free people who cherish their liberty.

But the issue in politics never is drawn sharply between one party that allegedly favors surrender and the other that supposedly wants war. The real issue is whether, in the midst of crisis, there shall be a change and whether such change, which involves a turnover of high officials and confusion in governmental administration, isn't a risky business.

Something of the same atmosphere was created in October 1956 when the Suez crisis developed. It didn't matter much what the opposing politicians said about "bungling" foreign policy in the Middle East or the failure of Secretary Dulles to placate Nasser, and similar criticisms of a cautious character. What mattered was that Britain and France had sent troops to Egypt and the United States was trying to ease the situation by mediation. Democrats admit now that this crisis helped President Eisenhower win re-election, as lots of voters switched to him in the closing days of the campaign.

Back in 1916, when the United States was not yet in World War I, the Democrats had a slogan "peace and prosperity" and argued that President Wilson, who was up for re-election, had "kept us out of war." The opposing candidate, Charles Evans Hughes, Republican, contended that the Democratic administration had not been sufficiently vigorous in upholding American rights. Finally it turned out that extraordinarily good economic conditions in the western states, where wheat was selling at a record price, gave Wilson enough electoral votes—plus the South—to win even without the big states east of the Mississippi, all of which with the exception of Ohio went Republican.

When the "peace issue" or "war issue"—is analyzed historically, it will be found that what matters most are the conditions that prevail in the autumn of an election year, and not necessarily those that have gotten headlines in mid-May.

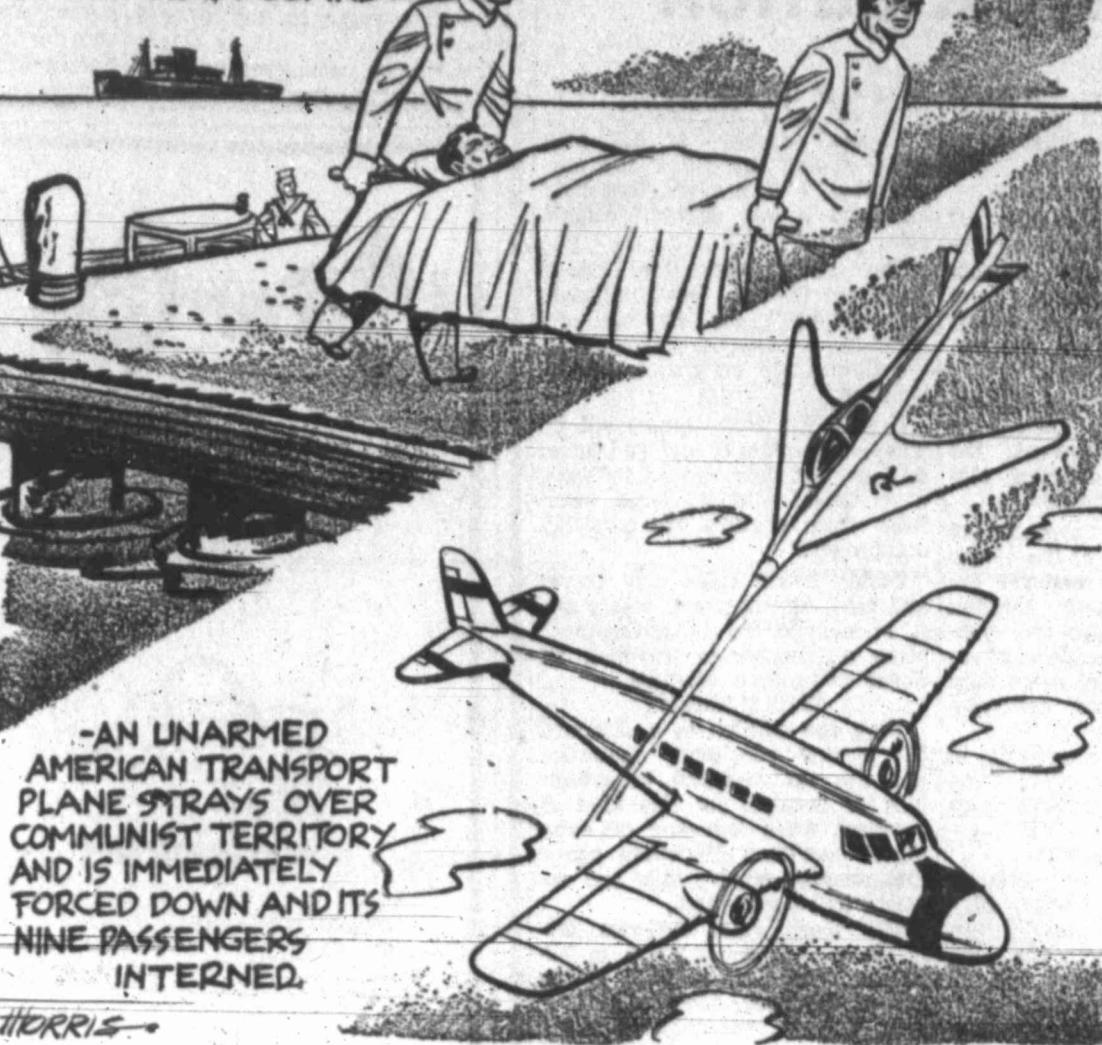

BASICALLY THE American people want peace but not "peace at any price." The veterans of past wars may not want to see another conflict but they are not the kind of men who believe in surrender and defeat. Now, it is often argued in political circles that the women do want peace at any price. Recently when the "summit" meeting collapsed and a sort of fright seized the country that war might be imminent, here and there comments were heard that women voters would really accept Communist rule in preference to destruction by nuclear weapons. The Soviets, of course, have built their whole strategy on scare and bluff and would like to conquer the world without firing a shot.

THE AMERICAN people don't like war and will not support an administration that is truly bellicose. Once war threatens, however, they support the party in power. And administration that seeks to maintain "peace with honor" is likely to get support so long as it pursues a cautious policy of restraint and doesn't weaken its defenses.

One thing is clear already—Nikita Khrushchev hopes to defeat the Republican administration in this country. In the long run, Khrushchev may unwittingly help the existing administration to stay in power. For the "peace issue" doesn't mean that the President and the Secretary of State are responsible for the erratic behavior of a Communist ruler or that the voters want to choose as President someone who will bow and scrape and apologize to Nikita Khrushchev. But it's a long, long time to the day in November when the American people will vote on the "peace issue," and everything depends on what will have happened between now and election day.

THIS, HOWEVER, is the oldest form of blackmail the world has ever known. Brave men and women have stood up to it before and have sacrificed themselves rather than accept life in bondage. The British people had their choice of slavery

The End Of Summit Meetings?

WASHINGTON (AP)—The year 1960 may turn out to be the one which put a damper on summit meetings and presidential trips abroad and at the same time badly damaged American prestige.

Perhaps the worst thing about Malinovsky's threat is that some unintended flight over Soviet territory could loose a blast at an innocent base or city. Once missiles begin darting into the sky, the world may be sucked into a maelstrom from which it cannot extricate itself. In the case of the old West gunslinger who threatened to shoot, there was always the possibility that he might.

If President Eisenhower, on his trip to Japan in June, runs into a riot of anti-American protest it will do neither him nor this country any good. It will make any future president reluctant about a foreign journey.

It may not be able to, if, in an attempt to prevent any disturbance, the Japanese police get overly tough with demonstrators. Eisenhower could be walking into the most unpleasant experience of his life.

Vice President Richard M. Nixon, who ran into anti-American riots on his South American tour in 1958, indicated Tuesday that in the future summit meetings for American presidents will be a last resort.

He seems to enjoy these trips abroad. But just what tangible benefits this country gets from such journeys is not clear at all. Each one of them has potential danger.

This country's military bases in Japan—a key to defenses in the Pacific—were established under a government will preserve order when he arrives.

They rioted in protest. They also rioted against Eisenhower's proposed trip to Japan. But the pro-Western Japanese Premier, Nobusuki Kishi, approved the military agreement. And Eisenhower Tuesday made it definite he will visit Japan.

He himself, by staying home, was safe from personal and public ridicule such as Premier Nikita Khrushchev dumped on Eisenhower at Paris.

The new defense agreement with Japan goes into effect June 19, just about the time Eisenhower arrives there. Kishi probably has assured Eisenhower his

"We bought Rover for a watch dog, but we feel sure now that if burglars broke into the house the only thing he'd do is lead them to the silverware."

"Well, most dogs don't really like to be patted on the head, but Rover doesn't mind. He's too lazy to mind anything."

"What do I mean by lazy? Well, if I give him a bone, he trots out into the back yard and just stands there—waiting for me to dig a hole so he can bury it."

"A guy in the next block is buying his pooch an air-conditioned clubhouse. He made me out of his mind. I don't believe in spoiling dogs."

A Dog's Life

NEW YORK (AP) — Remarks the family dog gets tired of hearing:

By JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M. D. Seems to me there was a successful play called "The Seventh Year Itch." Well, what about the "unlimited itch" that so many people have to combat? Sufferers of skin irritation or itching or burning write me a great many letters.

Says one typical letter: "What can I do for chafing? One druggist told me to get hand lotion with lanolin. Another said to get a certain kind of soap. But it seems to do no good. I shower nearly every day, and that seems to do no good either. — Mrs. J. F. G."

There are all sorts of skin irritations—itching, burning, chafing, rashes, hives, impetigo, eczema, fungus infections, and so on. Or, in some special cases, there are the outward signs such as occur with chickenpox, measles, scarlet fever and the like.

The skin, you see, is an "organ of the body"—and the largest. The skin eruptions or irritations may come because you do or don't—consume something in diet. Or, again, the trouble may arise not because of food, but because of something you touch; or because some disease, such as those I mentioned, is in the system. Itching (like burning) is skin to be completely wrong, but where you can notice a habitual contact with the skin (slips) and also note a chronic irritation, invest a few weeks in making a test. Change the habit. If the skin irritation vanishes, you've learned the answer.

The difficulty, of course, is putting the right two things together—the cause and effect. So tomorrow let me tell you of the odd case of a "reader detective."

"Dear Dr. Molner: Could iron deficiency cause 'aching' all over, especially arms and legs, or could it be from carrying a heavy baby around all day?—C.L.O."

Iron deficiency can cause fatigue. So can carrying a heavy baby around, or lifting him in and out of his crib or play pen, with ache in the back and muscles. Many mothers get a taste of this in the time between infancy and toddling or walking. An anemia (iron deficiency) can exaggerate these aches and pains from fatigue.

A somewhat greater number of persons in the Far West than in other major sections of the country have taken steps to protect themselves. Fewer persons living in the South have done anything to prepare for a war emergency.

The proportion of those saying they have made preparations is higher in urban communities than in rural communities.

Many persons who have taken precautionary measures cite such things as storing food, water, medicine and other supplies in their basements. Others have shored up their basements, or have otherwise adapted them as bomb shelters.

So little is known about psoriasis that I hesitate to mention it. There are half a dozen treatments, more or less, which have modestly good "bating averages" in putting an end to psoriasis, but I don't know why or how.

To get back to the garden variety of chafes, irritations and such, I am inclined to think that in most of them, the answer lies in knowing what to avoid, not what to "take."

THE girls handed officers a written report on the preliminary investigation. It read:

"Clues for boogery. Two dead birds, 10 feet apart; one fosed sily bent; one piece cloth, torn; one broken beer bottle. One open window; one door by swimming pool almost open; one torn screen."

So very often, one person's skin is sensitive to some substance that has no effect on another person's—dyes, soaps, fabrics, powders, deodorants. Soaps are very important at times. Mrs. J. F. Wearing white slips for a few weeks might solve the problem. I'd suggest trying it. I might

A Revolution On The Farm

We are about to witness one of the most revolutionary changes in agriculture which has taken place in our brief life time. On the basis of an inch (or slightly less) rainfall, we are about to see the county's 70,000 acres of cotton planted together with perhaps that much or more of feed.

could plant in a day's time. They had to be rested and fed, and their sore places bound up or padded. When dark came, they were turned out to pasture or into the feed lot.

Two score years ago this would have been unthinkable. Perhaps as much as a month would have been required to plant 150,000 or more acres.

We have every reason to believe that cotton and feed planted on an inch of moisture (fortified by good subsoil seasoning, will come up to a good stand. In an area where rainfall is relatively scarce and erratic, there is no assurance that more moisture will come soon. Hence, the critical period—at least the first critical period—in agriculture is in the week following the receipt of a rain.

TODAY'S TRACTORS, with their great power, their pneumatic tires with special grips to take them over sandy as well as tight land, can go full blast all day. Instead of a paltry two rows, most carry at least four rows of planting equipment and some giants can make it eight at a time. If time is a pressing element, the tractor's headlights furnish enough illumination to continue around the clock. Consequently, the farmer now can plant an entire section or so in a matter of a few days instead of being stuck with a quarter or half a section to plant in a month's time.

IN BASEBALL, you have to get on base before you can ever hope to score. In West Texas agriculture, you have to get the crop up to a stand before you can hope to have a harvest.

OTHER METHODS have improved our agricultural picture including water and soil conservation, plus fertilization either by chemicals or plants, but none of these have contributed quite so much to the great increase in the productivity of our land as has the modern tractor and its power implements.

This wonderfully powerful and rugged machine has indeed worked a revolution on the farm.

—JOE PICKLE

A generation ago, however, we were almost wholly dependent upon horse and mule power to get fields planted. There was a limit to what these creatures could pull and hence how much acreage they

No Wonder Pepi Took It On The Lam

By the time this screed sees print, Pepi may be back in captivity. But I hope he has made good his escape from the world of indignities that man, in our affluent society, has begun to heap upon hapless dogs.

when his kind worked, hunted and sneered at such fops as the Peke.

The tale of Pepi, as I read it in a dispatch from Newport Beach, Calif., is really an atrocity story. "Reported stolen," the dispatch read in part, "Pepi, the fashion-plate black poodle with gold-painted toenails, last seen wearing a red sweater with white trim and a collar decorated with pearls and rhinestones."

If Pepi is as smart as his breed is reputed, he is hiding out until the gold wears off his toenails, he has clawed his way out of that asinine sweater and, by hook or crook, gotten rid of the pearl and rhinestone collar.

THE DOG, THE STORY continued, was tied up outside a posh restaurant where his master was dining. When the owner went out to untie Pepi and lead him home, Pepi, no fool, was gone.

I am not one to be overdepressed by Oswald Spengler's "The Decline of the West" until I contemplate what man has done to his best friend in the past 29 years.

Pepi stolen? Nonsense! Pepi, in dire shame at the extremities to which he had been driven, simply took it on the lam. Probably, for Pepi, the gold toenails were the last straw. And when his chance to escape his humiliating bondage came, Pepi knew what to do. He scrambled.

BUT IN THE PAST two decades, a whole new multimillion-dollar business has grown up around clothes—clothes, mind you—for dogs! Any well-dressed city dog, God help him! now has a mink coat for winter wear that matches that of his mistress. There are even real diamond collars for "dress" or cocktail wear.

Two standard encyclopedias in Chez Robb describe the poodle as the smartest dog alive. In addition, in his days of real glory, the poodle was a work dog on the farms of Europe and a hunting dog of splendid repute. Time and idle men turned this hard-working, self-respecting dog into a lap ornament and a household pet.

Dogs too must have a complete wardrobe of raincoats, snowcoats, fur coats (in addition to the one Nature bestowed upon them), overshoes and plastic head scarves. Their toys are as numerous and as expensive as those for children; their doghouses centrally heated and their mattresses, sheets and blankets of the best.

He himself, by staying home, was safe from personal and public ridicule such as Premier Nikita Khrushchev dumped on Eisenhower at Paris.

DOG-SITTERS are as numerous as baby-sitters and more expensive. Two pets must not be left alone for an evening, lest he get the idea that he is unloved and develop a neurosis to match his master's. And dog psychiatrists are so-o-o expensive!

NIXON SAID: "While we do not rule out any meeting which might contribute to the cause of peace, certainly the world will now have greater confidence in the traditional method of diplomacy and in discussions in the United Nations than which Mr. Khrushchev has in the past insisted."

Well, I have been expecting dogs to rebel. I see a glimmer of sunshine in Pepi. I hope he makes good his escape, takes to the hills and organizes a rebellion that will free millions of his kind from their man-made indignities.

PRINCETON, N. J.—Only one U. S. family in nine has taken any steps to prepare for an all-out nuclear war.

Well, I have been expecting dogs to rebel. I see a glimmer of sunshine in Pepi. I hope he makes good his escape, takes to the hills and organizes a rebellion that will free millions of his kind from their man-made indignities.

UNTIL Khrushchev battered him—and the American government lied about the U2 spy plane, downed over the Soviet Union—Eisenhower had a world prestige unmatched by any present head of state.

Well, I have been expecting dogs to rebel. I see a glimmer of sunshine in Pepi. I hope he makes good his escape, takes to the hills and organizes a rebellion that will free millions of his kind from their man-made indignities.

IF he runs into disorders aimed at him in Asia, he will return a dejected figure.

Well, I have been expecting dogs to rebel. I see a glimmer of sunshine in Pepi. I hope he makes good his escape, takes to the hills and organizes a rebellion that will free millions of his kind from their man-made indignities.

THE present state of civilian preparedness, Gallup Poll reporters interviewed persons in 190 different localities in the U.S., selected to represent all sections of the country.

Well, I have been expecting dogs to rebel. I see a glimmer of sunshine in Pepi. I hope he makes good his escape, takes to the hills and organizes a rebellion that will free millions of his kind from their man-made indignities.

Here is the first question asked: "Suppose you had the warning that enemy bombers and missiles with nuclear weapons were heading toward many points in the United States—have you done anything to prepare for this kind of war emergency?"

Well, I have been expecting dogs to rebel. I see a glimmer of sunshine in Pepi. I hope he makes good his escape, takes to the hills and organizes a rebellion that will free millions of his kind from their man-made indignities.

Well, I have been expecting dogs to rebel. I see a glimmer of sunshine in Pepi. I hope he makes good his escape, takes to the hills and organizes a rebellion that will free millions of his kind from their man-made indignities.

A somewhat greater number of persons in the Far West than in other major sections of the country have taken steps to protect themselves. Fewer persons living in the South have done anything to prepare for a war emergency.

Well, I have been expecting dogs to rebel. I see a glimmer of sunshine in Pepi. I hope he makes good his escape, takes to the hills and organizes a rebellion that will free millions of his kind from their man-made indignities.

The proportion of those saying they have made preparations is higher in urban communities than in rural communities.

Many persons who have taken precautionary measures cite such things as storing food, water, medicine and other supplies in their basements. Others have shored up their basements, or have otherwise adapted them as bomb shelters.

TO FIND OUT what specifically people would do in the event of an emergency, this question was asked: "What would you do to protect yourself and your family?"

Hard Worker

Donna Anderson, who has become a star with her first picture, believes in working hard for what you want. She is soon to be seen in "Inherit the Wind," a Stanley Kramer production.

HOLLYWOOD BEAUTY

Relaxed Attitude Necessary For All

By LYDIA LANE
HOLLYWOOD — One of the happiest girls in Hollywood is Donna Anderson, who has received such fine critical notices from her first picture, "On the Beach." Now she is working in "Inherit the Wind" with Spencer Tracy and Frederic March.

In a big wide circle, alternating directions. "I like to exhale as I bend over, rag-doll fashion, and try to make my back as limp as possible. Then I come up one vertebra at a time while inhaling. "Then I stand up with my arms relaxed at my sides and rotate my shoulders back and forward. I let my head fall forward and hang heavy and I rotate it always in both directions. Then I go to bed and fall right to asleep. "They say the most effective way to relax is through the mind; that if you learn to quiet your thoughts you can quiet your nerves. I have been practicing, and I try to meditate a little every day. It may sound easy, to make yourself think about one thing, but it's not. Just try it. You start out repeating a word or a phrase or holding on to an image, and the first thing you know, your mind has wandered to a different subject.

"When I was ten years old, I started dancing, but it wasn't until two years later that I became dedicated," she confided. Stanley Kramer saw Donna in a pantomime and was so impressed with her dramatic ability that he offered her a contract and acting lessons. For a girl just out of her teens, Donna takes her success without affectation. "I have always had a lot of drive," she said. "I wanted my life to have some meaning. I feel sorry for people who don't have goals, because achieving something is the way to be happy. You can't generalize, but it seems to me, a lot of teen-agers try to see how quickly they can 'do something' instead of how well, and they miss a lot of pleasure."

"Several people have told me of mental pictures that help them relax. One is to picture yourself lying in a meadow of soft green grass with a gentle breeze stirring and a warm sun making your drowsier and drowsier until you are fast asleep. "THE ART OF RELAXATION Does meeting new people make you nervous? Are you calm and relaxed or does your stomach do dizzy-fits, do you develop a headache and your palms grow moist when you think of mingling with a new group of people? If any one of these things applies to you, learn how to relax! Leaflet M-4, "How to Relax," is an easy guide to daily relaxation. Your copy will be on its way when you send only 10 cents (one dime) and a self-addressed, stamped envelope to Lydia Lane, Hollywood Beauty, Big Spring Herald.

HERE ARE TIPS FOR GIVING INFORMATION ON WEDDINGS

June brings an increase in the number of brides and to each, the newspaper account of her wedding can be a pleasing record to be kept through the years.

We of the Woman's Department are anxious to give the very best coverage from the engagement announcement through the pre-nuptial courtesies to the marriage ceremony. For this, we need the help of the betrothed and her mother, perhaps these tips will help with the details we need for good stories of the activities.

First, the announcement should be made at least three weeks in advance of the wedding; we do not accept an announcement less than two weeks prior to the ceremony.

A questionnaire will be furnished which will assist the bride-elect and her mother in giving information on decorations, the bridal attire, attendants, reception plans and other items of interest.

This questionnaire and the bride's picture should be returned to us at least two days before the wedding; if the information is late, some of the details will have to be omitted, and very likely a picture will not be used.

Use Correct Make-Up For Boating Fun

If you're going to be caught up this summer in the biggest boating boom that ever swelled the waves, choosing the right make-up to wear aboard that cruiser, sailboat, schooner or yacht can be almost as important as choosing the right gear.

Sun-tanned skins look best with a fluid or cream-type make-up foundation. These do a good job of smoothing out uneven color and at the same time duplicating the silky sheen that tanned skins acquire.

In applying either type of creamy foundation, use a damp facial sponge. Use make-up sparingly. Don't apply powder, however, until hours later, when the sheen becomes a shine. Then, use a cream powder from a cake which doesn't leave as mat-like a finish on the skin as loose powder does.

Using pastel shades of lipstick will make your sun-tan look darker. But don't wear pastel shades with a white overcast. Use iridescent tints for paler colors instead.

If you dine under artificial lights aboard your craft, leave the lipsticks with blue undertones out of your make-up box. When you're surrounded by blue waters, blue-red lips will seem to turn purple. The exceptions to this grim rule are sunny pastel orchid lipsticks. When worn with subtle orchid shades in clothes.

Texas Youth Council To Spend 13½ Millions

By ED OVERHOLSER

AUSTIN (AP)—More than 13½ million dollars must be spent in the next biennium to care for the mushrooming number of juvenile delinquents and orphans in state institutions, the Texas Youth Council reports.

The council Tuesday adopted a $13,695,636 budget for the two years beginning Sept. 1, 1961 which includes $2,635,750 for new buildings, and a home for neglected Negro children.

The budget, about 3½ million dollars above the current biennium, also includes another plea to the Legislature for a juvenile parole system.

Dr. James Turman, executive director, recommended that $168,300 be spent in fiscal 1962 and $303,300 be spent the following year for the parole system.

In its first year of operation, the board would hire five area supervisors and 20 parole officers and would increase the number of parole officers in 1963 to 45.

Texas' population grew 32 per cent from 1952 to 1959 while the crime rate for juveniles 10 to 17 jumped 104 per cent, Turman said.

The expanding Gatesville State School for Boys would get another new training unit to house 240 boys. The board anticipates an increase from the present population of 1,300 to 1,783 in 1962 and 2,455 by 1966.

A total of $612,650 was earmarked for construction at Gatesville, $615,000 at Gainesville School for Girls, $1,122,000 for a state home for dependent, neglected and orphan Negro children, $160,000 at the Negro Girls Training School at Crockett, $40,000 for the Waco State Home (orphans) and $85,600 for the Corsicana State Home (orphans).

The council said appropriations for three dormitories to provide space for 120 girls and eliminate the "double decking" now required are urgently needed.

The budget also would lift Turman's salary from $10,000 to $15,000 a year.

The new Texas Blind, Deaf and Orphan School for Negroes, built at a cost of $1,514,000, will be ready by Sept.

Turman said the Terrace School unit at Gatesville, for the intermediate age group, will be completed this fall to handle 240 boys. The Hill Top School there, for chronic offenders, will be completed next year. A new 40-bed dormitory at Gainesville will be ready in July.

Crawlers Wanted

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Wanted: "Sewer crawlers."

The city began accepting applications Tuesday for sewer crawlers to plug leaks, rat holes and the like in the vast Philadelphia sewer system. Applicants must be able to fit in an 18-inch pipe.

Western Union Makes Agreement

WASHINGTON (AP)—Western Union reached a contract agreement with the Commercial Telegraphers Union early today, a few hours after the old contract ran out.

The possibility of a strike was averted.

E. L. Hageman, chief negotiator for the CTU, said he expected both parties to sign the agreement on Thursday.

Only one thing held up the signing, Hageman said, and that was the required paper work. The negotiators were too tired to do any of it right away.

The final negotiating session, which began Tuesday, did not end until the early hours of today.

Hageman said the new contract would give most Western Union employees a 10-cent an hour wage increase effective June 1 and another five-cent increase next Jan. 1.

Testimony Claims Mrs. Haden Of Sound Mind

HOUSTON (AP)—Dr. Morris Kilgore told a jury Tuesday that Mrs. Lucy D. Haden was of sound mind when she signed a will disposing of her $4,700,000 estate.

Mrs. Haden died in 1956 at the age of 84 and named her son, Edgar D. Haden, the principal beneficiary in the will which she signed in 1945. Two other children and three grandchildren are contesting the will.

Kilgore's testimony in Judge Thomas Stovall's District Court was in conflict with that given last week by his uncle, Dr. F. Hartman Kilgore, Mrs. Haden's physician from 1944 until her death.

Dr. F. Hartman Kilgore testified that the woman was mentally unsound from early 1945 until her death.

A nurse, Mrs. Mary Martin, testified earlier that Mrs. Haden was of unsound mind several months before the will was signed.

Two contracts between Edgar Haden and a Houston law firm were introduced into evidence. A Feb. 14, 1945 contract quoted Haden as saying he would be entitled to a normal share of his mother's estate but that the law firm would receive 25 per cent of anything over a normal share he might receive.

Another contract made after the will was signed Aug. 15, 1945, conveyed to the law firm 25 per cent of a one-fifth interest in the estate.

Edgar Haden was left an undivided interest in one-fifth of the estate under the terms of the will and it provided that he and seven other heirs share the remainder of the estate equally.

Among those contesting the will are another son of Mrs. Haden, Cecil Haden, and a daughter, Mrs. Lila Haden Brandon.

Myrna Loy Ends Fourth Marriage

EL PASO, Tex. (AP)—Myrna Loy, best known for her movie portrayals as an ideal wife, ended her fourth marriage Tuesday with a "quickie" divorce in Juarez, Mexico.

The action was uncontested by producer Howland Sargeant, a former assistant deputy secretary of state.

The well-known screen star charged incompatibility. A separate property settlement was signed in New York last month.

The couple, married in 1951, reportedly had been separated about two years.

Giants Yield In Own Park

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

What's with the San Francisco Giants? Don't they know they're back home, where all that good pitching is supposed to pay off? They won 14 of their first 19 games at spanking new Candlestick Park. But now the Chicago Cubs have taken two of three there, knocking out three of the Giants' top pitchers and dropping them 1 1/2 games behind the National League-leading Pittsburgh Pirates.

After jarring the Giants out of a share of the lead with a split in a Memorial Day doubleheader, the Cubs won 9-1 Tuesday night against southpaw Johnny Antonelli. The Pirates defeated Cincinnati 4-3 in 11 innings at Pittsburgh.

Last place Philadelphia cut loose for six runs in the eighth inning and whipped Milwaukee 12-7. Los Angeles rapped St. Louis 8-3. The Cubs, responsible for three of the Giants' seven defeats at spacious Candlestick, got this one on a pair of doubles by Jerry Kindall, good for three runs, and homers by Ernie Banks and Bob Will. Banks socked his 10th in the game. He also had a triple and double. Glen Hobbie (4-0) was the winner, losing a shutout when he walked Willie McCovey and hit Orlando Cepeda ahead of a

Yawkey Hints He May Move Club

By BOB GREEN

BOSTON (AP)—Boston Red Sox owner Tom Yawkey is so fed up with the treatment his team is getting from local sports writers he has dropped a hint he may move the team from Boston. But multimillionaire Yawkey, in a rare news conference, said he will go along with Billy Jurges as manager of the seventh-place team. Later he qualified his remarks about moving the club.

He made a surprise appearance in the press room atop Fenway Park just before Tuesday night's Boston-Washington game. Yawkey dropped several hints he may move the team if the writers don't quit riding the club. He chided the reporters gently at first, then not so gently.

"How many of you guys think you're qualified to manage a ball club?" he demanded. He fixed one reporter with a stare. "Do you?" "No, I don't think I'm qualified," the reporter answered. "You're damn right you're not," Yawkey snapped.

"Sometimes it goes beyond the bounds of human dignity and reason," he said. "I don't put up with it. I don't have to. Just remember I've got the last word. I've got an ace in the hole. And I'll use it if I have to. There's an innuendo there I think you all understand."

Later, however, Yawkey said he has no present plans to move or sell the club.

A six-run outburst in the final frame gave the Yankees a come-from-behind 10-7 win over the Dodgers Tuesday night in a National Little League game.

Sammy Mins collected three hits for the Yanks and teammate Eddie Crittenden slammed out two singles.

Sabres Trounce Daggers, 14-8

Jimmy Carruthers and Charles Richardson each had three hits to lead the Sabres on a 14-hit assault and a 14-8 International Little League victory over the Daggers.

Richardson stroked a double and Carruthers had a pair of two-baggers for the winners. Richardson and Wiggins combined talents on the hill to limit the opposition to only two base hits.

Orioles Widen Gap In Junior Circuit

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer
You can call 'em the Baby Birds or the Kiddie Korps, but what those Baltimore Oriole pitchers are doing to rest of the American League these days is spelled m-u-r-d-e-r.

The five kid hurlers—Steve Barber, Chuck Estrada, Jack Fisher, Milt Pappas and Jerry Walker—all barely old enough to vote, have packed away 16 of the front-flying Birds' 25 victories.

Walker, the last to become a winner, nailed his first decision with a 3-2 victory over the New York Yankees Tuesday night.

It was the fifth victory in six games for the Orioles and it gave them a two-game edge over Cleveland, Chicago's defending champion White Sox shook their slump and beat the second-place Indians 4-4.

Kansas City spilled Detroit 2-1 behind the three-hit pitching of Dick Hall. Boston escaped the cellar while plunking Washington 1, defeating the Senators 5-1.

The Orioles beat left-hander Whitey Ford (2-3) for the first time in four decisions going back to last September. The clinching run came off reliever Ryne Duran, however, in the eighth inning on three walks and a sacrifice fly by Clint Courtney. Duran, now has given up a dozen walks and 10 runs in his last five appearances, covering just four innings.

The Yankees finished with four hits, all off Walker. He struck out seven, fanning six of the first nine batters, and faced only 19 through six frames. The Yankees broke through on Mickey Mantle's leadoff double and a single by Roger Maris in the seventh. Walker left after giving up his fourth walk, to Mantle, leading off the ninth. An error sent Mantle to third and he scored as Yogi Berra hit into a double play for the third time in the game.

The White Sox broke their losing string at four and reclaimed third place from New York, 3½ games behind Baltimore. A two-run homer by Gene Fresse tied it 2-2 in the fourth off loser Gary Bell (5-3) and Al Smith's solo homer triggered a winning, three-run sixth. Billy Pierce (4-2) was the winner, with 2-1-3 innings of shutout relief by Russ Kemmerer. Jim Piersall, fined $250 by AL President Joe Cronin for his Memorial Day ruckus, homered for the Indians.

Kansas City swept the three-game series with Detroit for a five-game streak although also managing just three hits. Southpaw Pete Burnside (2-1) lost it, giving up two hits in his seven innings. Ardy Carey homered for the A's first run in the sixth, and they got the winner in the seventh on a walk, a sacrifice and a pair of infield outs. Hall, a Pittsburgh castoff, had a two-hit shutout until Sandy Amoros hit a pinch home run in the eighth.

Boston Manager Billy Jurges received a vote of confidence from club owner Tom Yawkey a few minutes before game time and the Red Sox then chipped in with their fourth victory in 18 games, winning two in a row for the first time in that span. Tom Brewer (4-1) won it with a four-hitter and a squeeze bunt that beat Bill Fischer (0-2) in the second inning.

Powell is the AF defending champion in the hop, step and jump. He won last year with a leap of 48 feet 5 inches.

Such stars as Eddie Southern, former Olympic entry from the University of Texas; and Max Truex, one-time distance running star for Southern California, will be among the entries in the meet, which is due to attract about 150 athletes.

From the meet, a team of all-stars to represent the Air Force in the inter-service championships at Quantico, Va., June 11-12, will be selected.

Most every track buff in the area knows that Dave Sims, who ran in that Race of the Century here against Bobby Morrow in the ABC Relays two years ago, is the fastest athlete in the history of Duke University.

The second fastest probably was Brandy Davis, who is now manager of the Dodger-owned Orlando entry in the Florida State Baseball League.

In 1953, Davis stole 36 bases for New Orleans and was thrown out only three times. He pilfered home no less than eight times that season.

Houston Grad Is Rapping The Ball

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Confident Lou Boudreau says, "Don't worry, Cub fans, Ernie Banks is hitting again, and Jerry Kindall, the new kid at second, is working out fine."

Banks, the National League's most valuable player the past two seasons, hit a homer, double and triple Tuesday night in Chicago's 9-1 victory over San Francisco.

Kindall, called up from Houston May 13 to replace the traded Tony Taylor, drove in three runs with two doubles.

The Cubs belted four Giants pitchers for 11 hits while Gian-

Airlift Program To Chile Ends

PANAMA (AP) - A giant U.S. Air Force airlift to stricken Chile wound up today as the last shipment of relief supplies for earthquake victims was flown to Santiago. More than 900 tons of supplies and 700 relief workers have been airlifted 6,000 miles from the United States in six days.

Mrs. Eisenhower Enters Hospital

WASHINGTON (AP) - Mrs. Mamie Eisenhower entered Walter Reed Army Hospital Tuesday for treatment of an attack of acute asthmatic bronchitis, the White House announced today. Doctors reported today that the First Lady is "as comfortable as she can be" under the circumstances, press secretary James C. Hagerly told newsmen.

He added that she is feeling better than Tuesday and has very little fever. He said Mrs. Eisenhower would remain under treatment for "a short while" - presumably, only a few days. Mrs. Eisenhower, 63, has had such attacks before, Hagerly said, but none as severe as the current one.

DEAR ABBY

JUST TELL HER

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: My mother-in-law has a nice home, a nice husband and they are very well-to-do. I get along fine with her, but she gets on my nerves because of one fault. If I wear a dress she has never seen before, it's "What? Another new dress?" She makes us feel as though we are very extravagant, although we live within our budget, don't owe anybody a dime, and have never asked them for anything. When we invite them for dinner and serve an expensive cut of meat, she says, "My, your grocery bill must be tremendous!" My husband says to laugh it off.

But I'm laughing with tears in my eyes. TRYING HARD DEAR TRYING: Don't let her needle you. Beat her to the punch and tell her exactly what is new (if anything is) and if nothing is new, tell her that you haven't bought anything since she last looked inventory. When serving, tell her how much everything costs. Announce (with the dessert) that you don't owe a dime and find living within your income a real challenge - but you're doing it!

DEAR ABBY: I am a 17-year-old girl with a problem that worries me a lot. When I was little I used to play Tarzan and beat my chest with my fists. I was told that this would stunt my growth there. And it has! Everyone makes fun of me and I am so embarrassed I could die. My doctor says I am just slow. Is there anything I can do to give me a shape in the meantime? NO SHAPE DEAR NO SHAPE: Shop!

DEAR ABBY: My 12-year-old boy has recently become a diabetic. He has to eat a large variety of food that has to be measured, etc. When we are invited to the homes of friends for dinner, is it proper to take along my own food for the boy? Or should I tell the hostess what he needs? Or should I be quiet and make the best of it until we get home? MOTHER OF A DIABETIC DEAR MOTHER: Tell your hostess your problem, and ask her if she would object if you brought your own food for the boy and prepared it for him.

DEAR ABBY: Is it possible for a woman to become a mother at 58 plus? I would ask my physician but I am afraid he would laugh at me. I would appreciate a quick reply. Don't use my real name, please. Just sign me. WORRIED DEAR WORRIED: Ask your physician. He would be the last one to laugh.

"What's your problem?" Write to Abby in care of The Big Spring Herald. For a personal reply, enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope. Abby's best-selling book, "Dear Teen-Ager," is on sale at all bookstores.

Kidnaping Suspected In Death Of Mrs. Ruby Hayes

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Police investigated the possibility of kidnaping in the slaying of Mrs. Ruby Hayes who was found shot to death near Tucumcari, N.M. Officers said they received a telephone call reporting that the Marrero, La., bar manager was forced into an auto by two unidentified men.

Police at Amarillo held the woman's estranged husband, Mel Hayes-of-Childress. The El Paso sheriff detained Herbert Broome, 38.

Officers arrested Broome at a road block after he was found driving a car fitting the description of one believed to have been driven by Mrs. Hayes, 41. Mrs. Hayes' son, 4, was found in an El Paso grocery store. He told officers two men left him at the place. He also said a man shot his mother and threw her in a ditch.

Children on a picnic found Mrs. Hayes' body in a cottonwood grove five miles west of Tucumcari Saturday.

Childress police held a man in jail Tuesday and sent his picture to El Paso to see if the young son of the dead woman could identify the man. Later Childress police said the man had been in Childress during the time of the woman's death.

Loyalist Demos Claim Five Alabama Votes

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) - Loyalist Democrats staked a claim on five of Alabama's 11 electoral votes today and hoped to preserve them for the party nominee in the presidential election. But defiant states rights had a tenacious grip on the remaining six, and threatened to withhold them from the national party if it nominates a presidential candidate distasteful to the South. Uncounted returns from Tuesday's Democratic runoff primary held the final answer. Many of them were in the heavy-voting loyalist stronghold of north Alabama, but several states rights counties also were unreported. With 10 seats on the electoral college at stake, incomplete returns showed five states rights and five loyalist leading the field for Democratic nominations. The 11th place was filled in the first primary May 3. States righter Bruce Henderson was nominated without a runoff. The states rights were sworn to withhold their votes from the national party nominee if he is repugnant to the "peculiar racial problems of the South." They said that rather than vote for a hostile candidate, they would favor giving their support to another Democrat sympathetic to Southern traditions. Loyalists promised to support the national party. Refusing to accept segregation as the real issue, they argued that a division in party ranks could serve only to benefit the Republicans. Returns in the election of Democratic convention delegates showed candidates favorable to Sens. Lyndon Johnson of Texas and Richard Russell of Georgia among the leaders. Johnson gained a potential 10 votes from Alabama. Russell had four. Johnson, the favorite of 15 of the state's convention delegates, elected in the Democratic primary May 3, had first call on five of the leading candidates in Tuesday's runoff election.

Stock Prices Irregular Amid Busy Trading

NEW YORK (AP)—Stock market prices thrashed irregularly today amid busy trading. Some sharp gains among selected issues studied the list. But advances and declines were generally limited to around a point. Electronics shares slumped as mid-day selling wiped out earlier gains. Most aircrafts, rubbers, metals, oils and tobaccos retreated. But utilities spurted ahead. Motors, vending machines and mail order houses edged higher. Steels, chemicals and rails were mixed. Western Union paced the advance among selected issues by climbing 2 1/2 points. Selling dropped General Instrument and General Telephone more than a point. General Time and Zenith held gains of about 1. Losses of a point or so were taken by Goodrich, General Dynamics, Universal Match, Lorillard and Kennecott. At noon, the Associated Press average of 60 stocks was up .30 at 215.10 with industrials unchanged, rails off .10 and utilities up .60. The Dow Jones industrial index was up .28 at 626.43 at mid-day. Government bonds advanced while corporate securities turned mixed.

Census Bureau Wants Proof

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Census Bureau said today any recount of the 1960 population of Galveston will depend on whether it receives evidence there actually has been an undercount. A bureau spokesman said a long telegram from the Galveston Chamber of Commerce protests that the preliminary 1960 population figure for the city is too low. He said, however, that the bureau does not regard the facts set forth in the telegram as sufficient evidence to warrant a new count. The chamber cited, among other things, increased school enrollment and more telephone and public utility connections, as indicating an undercount of the population. The spokesman said, however, that these factors alone do not indicate a corresponding increase in population since the trend generally has been toward an increase in telephone and utility connections and in school enrollment without a corresponding increase in population. He said many cities feel that their population should be greater than the enumerators found it to be.

HOT BUY IS REALLY HOT

Johnson Gains
Idaho Support

BOISE, Idaho (AP)—Idaho political writer John Corlett said Tuesday that Sen. Lyndon Johnson "made a spectacular grab" of national convention delegates during a visit to Idaho Friday and Saturday. Johnson is an unannounced candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination.

"As matters now stand, Johnson is first choice preference of 3 of the state's 26 (half-vote each) delegates and may have as many as 11 in his hand," said Corlett in The Idaho Statesman.

Idaho Democratic delegates may vote individually on the first ballot but after that must cast their 13 votes for a candidate favored by the majority.

Even Best Entertainers Require Good Material

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
NEW YORK (AP)—Nanette Fabray, Tony Randall and some other talented performers took an hour Tuesday night to demonstrate conclusively that even the best entertainers need decent material.

It was an interminable 60 minutes on NBC devoted to a musical of sorts called "So Help Me, Aphrodite." The plot was reverse Walter Mitty—the diner waitress who dreams she's Marie Antoinette and Pocahontas in turn as the comedy-type truck drivers became courtiers and braves.

The basic idea was tired, the lines were stale, and the whole thing defied the efforts of Miss Fabray and Randall.

Big league television is over 10 years old now. That's time enough for it to have learned that original musical comedies just aren't its dish. At least it hasn't been able to come up with a credible effort yet. Tuesday night's effort should result in putting that art form permanently off TV limits.

Steve Allen turned out one of his worst shows in a below-average season Monday, mostly by turning over the lion's share of it to Phil Harris. Harris apparently hasn't learned the difference between vulgarity and comedy. Jonathan Winters was the one redeeming feature.

Although BC's "Bourbon Street Beat" will disappear come fall, Richard Long will continue as a private eye—on "77 Sunset Strip," the prototype of all those production-line woodunitis.

Marion Lorne, after major surgery last week, is coming along nicely. Miss Lorne, one of the regulars on the Garry Moore Show, will convalesce until fall.

If a trend could be noted in the awards made during a recent contest among over 1,300 commercials, it was in favor of wordless ones and funny ones. Elaine May and Mike Nichols were the salesmen in one prize-winning commercial and Ernie Kovacs in another.

Recommended tonight: "Music for a Summer Night," ABC, 7:30-8:30—with Kitty Carlisle, hostess, and music designed for outdoor concerts; Perry Como Show, NBC, 9-10—final show of the season; Steel Hour, CBS, 10-11—"Game of Hearts," with Betsy Palmer and Jeff Donnell.
