

Lt. Scott Is New Munitions Officer

Second Lt. Richard W. Scott arrived recently to serve with the 331st FIS at Webb AFB as Air Munitions Officer. Since last autumn, Lt. Scott served with the 14th CAMRON at Ethan Allen AFB, Vt., as Armament Systems and Missiles Officer.

Lt. Scott, who until 1949 attended Cambridge High in Latin located in Cambridge, Mass., served in the Navy from July, 1949, until April, 1953. He served on destroyers in the 6th Fleet as a Fire Controlman.

In September, 1953, Lt. Scott transferred to the Air Force and spent most of the next four years at Otis AFB, Mass., where he was a missile maintenance technician until going to the six-month Officers' Candidate School in July, 1958.

Upon completion of OCS, he studied at the Armament Systems Officers Course (fighter) at Lowry AFB, Colo., which he completed in September, 1959. He was subsequently assigned to Ethan Allen AFB and then to the 331st FIS.

The 331st considers itself fortunate to have an Air Munitions Officer with Lt. Scott's qualifications. In addition to five years of fire control experience in the Navy and four years of missile maintenance work in the Air Force, Lt. Scott completed many fire control system schools and missile schools—including the missile guidance technicians school and the fire control systems technicians school at Lowry AFB, Colo.

"Scotty" has also channeled his outside interests into the field of electronics, having recently completed after 2½ years of correspondence work the radio and telegraphic radio electronic fundamentals course given by the National Radio Institute.

Lt. Scott, who now makes New York City his home, is married to the former Theresa M. Grandone of Bronx, N. Y. They live at 1601A Lincoln Ave., Big Spring, with their two children, Rickie, 4, and Terry, 2.

Methodists Okay Stewardship Plan

DALLAS (AP)—The North Texas Methodist Conference approved Thursday a two-month statewide denomination stewardship movement.

The movement would put emphasis on stewardship of time and abilities, stewardship of material possessions and set the title as a minimum standard of giving.

The Texas Methodist Planning Commission which adopted the program in a March meeting in Austin, said the purpose of the project is to secure a better understanding of the meaning of stewardship and to encourage persons who have not accepted its principles to do so.

Snake Man Ready To Return To Job

BUENA PARK, Calif. (AP)—Kenneth Earnest is home and anxious to get back to work—the work in which he has been bitten by:

An alligator; rattlesnake; cottonmouth moccasin, innumerable non-poisonous snakes, and, almost finally, an Australian tiger snake.

Earnest, 22, is a professional snake handler. He was bitten by the tiger snake May 17, and won a battle for survival which has gone down in medical annals as a rare victory.

Tiger snake victims usually die. The venom paralyzed Earnest's breathing, speech and eye muscles. He was in an iron lung 10 days.

"There wasn't much pain," said Earnest. "Not like a rattlesnake bite, which has a terrible localized pain and about drives you out of your mind."

"This time it was like a heavy weight on my chest, like I was going to strangle. Each breath was a difficult procedure."

A team of five doctors worked around the clock at Los Angeles General Hospital to save him. Before the serum was found, the venom caused coagulation of his blood, which had to be constantly changed. He was given five pints of replacement blood.

Then the serum was obtained at the San Diego Zoo. It neutralized the venom, but serious kidney damage, paralysis and respiratory difficulties remained. It isn't known yet if he'll suffer any permanent after effects.

Four days ago he began to be able to breathe by himself. Thursday breathing easily, he went home from the hospital to the residence in suburban Buena Park he shares with his parents.

The snake bit Earnest as he was feeding the two tiger snakes at the family's Buena Park snake farm.

"It won't happen again," he said.

Welcome Mat For Spy's Kin

NORTON, Va. (AP)—Oliver Powers has been promised a favorable reception in the Soviet Union, where his only son, Francis, is being held as a spy in the U.S. plane case.

A telegram from Moscow earlier this week, bearing Premier Nikita Khrushchev's name, promised to help the Norton shoemaker if he journeys to visit his son.

"I plan to go and want to go as soon as possible—as soon as arrangements can be made—to see my son and to see Mr. Khrushchev," Powers told a local newsmen Thursday.

Powers himself could not be located for comment on the telegram disclosure. A source close to him said the telegram from Khrushchev was read in its entirety to the State Department in Washington soon after it was received.

Powers was reported to consider the telegram not as an invitation but as an assurance that his visit to the Soviet Union would be well received there.

He has said two parties have offered to finance his trip.

The State Department in Washington indicated Powers would encounter no difficulty in obtaining a passport.

Niki's Latest Arms Plan Is Seen As Splitting Attempt

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER WASHINGTON (AP)—A new Soviet bid to split the Western allies was seen by officials here today in Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's latest disarmament plan.

Khrushchev proposed that the means of delivering nuclear weapons—such as rockets, airplanes, submarines, warships and artillery—should be abolished at the very outset of any agreed disarmament program.

The proposal was made Thursday in letters to President Eisenhower and the heads of all other governments represented by diplomats in Moscow.

Khrushchev said he was making the offer because of the interest of other countries, notably France, in attacking the problem of nuclear disarmament by controlling the means of delivery.

State Department and other U.S. officials are studying the detailed plan. But on first reading they have found no real hope, it was reported, for breaking the East-West disarmament deadlock in a conference resuming at Geneva next Tuesday.

SOME CONCERN

At the same time there is considerable uncertainty and some concern here over the Soviet Union's latest move in nuclear test talks under way in another Geneva conference. In this negotiation the Soviet Union appeared Thursday to be backing away from an earlier show of willingness to join with the United States and Britain in the scientific study of ways to detect small underground nuclear explosions.

Western leaders have thought that the talks on prohibiting nuclear weapons testing under an international inspection system offered the best opportunity for initial agreement with the Soviet Union on one disarmament problem.

But in Geneva Thursday, the Soviet delegate repudiated a Soviet scientific group's offer to cooperate by conducting a series of non-nuclear underground explosions in the Soviet Union. He also demanded a right to inspect in detail every nuclear device to be used in a corresponding U.S. non-military test program.

SUMMIT PLAN

Khrushchev said the new disarmament plan he has now advanced was one he had intended to offer at the summit meeting which collapsed in Paris May 16.

The plan covers many angles of the disarmament problem but holds to the central theme announced by Khrushchev to the United Nations last September. He said that the end result of the disarming process should be complete abolition of all weapons and military forces.

The Western Powers have repeatedly rejected this concept, as unrealistic, saying that at the best provision would have to be made through the United Nations for preserving peace among nations.

Officials said that in the main

Khrushchev's latest proposals appeared to be a reshuffling of the earlier Soviet plan.

The newest version proposes concentrating at the very outset on major measures of nuclear arms control. Under Western plans the procedure has called for a delayed start on major measures pending the development of confidence among nations and the elaborate system of international inspectors.

MEANS OF CONTROL

Within the Western camp, however, the French government of President Charles de Gaulle has stressed what it considers the importance of controlling nuclear weapons delivery systems. De Gaulle urged this view upon President Eisenhower when he came to Washington earlier this year. Eisenhower was understood at the time to have agreed that this offered one means of control, but only one means.

Khrushchev's proposals also called for shutting down all foreign bases in the first stage of disarmament. The Soviet government has repeatedly assailed the U.S. base system in countries close to Soviet territory, most recently making use of the spy plane controversy to promote its campaign on that issue.

Broadway Stage Blacked Out In Bitter Actor-Producer Tiff

NEW YORK (AP)—The Broadway stage is blacked out for the first time in 41 years, a victim of a bitter dispute between actors and producers.

In the midtown theatrical district Thursday night, as the 8:30 curtain time came and went, there were no blazing lights on theater marquees, no swarms of taxicabs jockeying to get their fares to the playhouses.

There will be absolutely no shows until there is an agreement," said producer Alexander H. Cohen, speaking for the New York League of Theaters.

"Actors equity is on strike," he added. "It looks like a long one to me."

Equity claims it is a lockout, not a strike. The union climaxed its pension-wage battle with producers on Wednesday night when it called the cast of "The Tenth Man" to a meeting at union headquarters just before curtain time.

The producers, in line with their warning against "hit-run" tactics by Equity, shut all 22 Broadway shows.

NO HOPE SEEN
Negotiations were scheduled to resume today, but neither side appeared hopeful.

A proposal Thursday by Mayor Robert F. Wagner for a city-finding board was okayed by Equity, but the league turned it down.

Thrown out of work were 1,000 actors and 5,000 theatrical technicians such as stagehands, musicians and electricians.

Equity presented an almost solid front, from its lowest bit player to the big-time star.

Actor Tom Bosley, who plays the late New York Mayor Fiorello H. La Guardia in the musical "Fiorello," was asked what the fiery little mayor would have done to solve the contract dispute.

"He would have locked both sides in one room until the thing was settled — fast," replied Bosley.

With so much idle talent on hand, Equity already has begun to think about staging benefit performances to gain funds for its cause.

Said Dick Moore, editor of Equity magazine: "I can say with almost certainty that they (the actors) will be used and used very soon in some type of benefit activity."

NOT AFFECTED
The movie houses in the Broadway show area are not affected by the shutdown. Also unaffected are current road shows, summer theaters, 21 off-Broadway playhouses, and the City Center Theater, which has a separate contract with Equity.

The off-Broadway playhouses expect to reap a harvest from the situation.

The big-time theaters canceled daily newspaper listings at least through Sunday. Ticket agencies were gloomy, as were restaurant owners in the theatrical area.

Those theater patrons hit hardest were out-of-towners who had built New York vacation plans around attending stage plays. Many who arrived here Thursday miled about ticket agencies or travel agencies which had arranged theater ticket reservations.

Producers have estimated that every week of a shutdown would cost them a million dollars. The big his may recover some of this when the theaters reopen, but the marginal shows seemed certain to take a financial beating.

The 22 shows had a nightly audience capacity of 27,000.

CRUX OF DISPUTE
The crux of the dispute involves an Equity demand for a pension plan. The producers say in substance that they cannot meet the demand unless they raise the price of tickets, already deemed too high. The producers made a pension offer Tuesday, but Equity rejected it as insufficient.

Equity seeks $115 weekly minimum pay. The league has offered $110. The present minimum is $103.50.

There is a 30-day actors strike in 1919 which led to recognition of Equity as the actors' bargaining agent. That strike spread to Chicago, Boston, Washington, D.C., and other cities in the East and Midwest.

Unemployed Equity members were assured of at least one meal a day for the duration of the shutdown. A second avenue restaurant (The Living Room), although far removed from Shubert Alley, informed Equity Thursday night it would serve all the beer and sandwiches an actor could eat and drink every day at 4 p.m. for a nickel.

Reunion Plans End When 4 People Drown

VALLEY MILLS, Tex. (AP)—Plans for a gay family reunion ended Thursday when four young people playing in the cool waters of the Bosque River on a hot spring day drowned when they tumbled over a waterfall.

They drowned at a YMCA camp about 4 1/2 miles northeast of this small central Texas town.

The victims were Kenneth W. Spoons, 18, his wife, Juanita, 17, his sister, Joyce, 16, all from Waco, Tex., and Lula Spradley 15, a cousin of Oklahoma City.

Mrs. E. C. Spoons, about 40, of Waco, the mother of two of the victims, watched helplessly from a spot 20 feet up a steep trail beside the stream.

The group went to the picturesque site to inspect it as a possible location for a family reunion in August. The camp had not opened for the season.

"They were just wading when one of the children got too near the edge and slipped over the waterfall," Mrs. Spoons told Valley Mills Mayor C. P. Hardwick.

"The others kept trying to help, and they went over too."

The swift-flowing river is only about 14 inches deep where the young people were playing. But the river flows over a six-foot high waterfall. The swift current has carved a wide and deep pool at the foot of the waterfall and it was in the pool that the youths drowned. Several hours after the accident the bodies were recovered about 100 yards down stream. The bodies were within a few feet of each other.

Spoons was the only one of the four who could swim and he was not considered a good swimmer. The victims were fully clothed.

Teacher Testifies At Fraud Trial

DALLAS (AP)—The dean of women at the Mineral Wells High School testified Thursday she was made a director in Teachers Professional Investment Corp., without her consent or knowledge.

Miss Robert Parnell testified at the trial of Albert L. Proffer, a former state senator, and Hollis L. Adkison of Fort Worth. They are being tried on charges of mail fraud and securities law violations and with defrauding Texas school teachers of more than $100,000.

She also said she never bought stock in the firm.

An East Texas truck farmer, Archie Phillips, of Canton, testified that Adkison and Proffer came to him in 1956 and said his son, Odean, 18, could go to a business college in Fort Worth for $420.

Phillips, who already had sent four children through college, said the men told him the school had a dormitory and all students had to be in bed by 9:30 p.m.

"But when I took Odean up there to enlist in the school they didn't have a dormitory or anything, so I didn't enlist him," the farmer said.

He testified that he "let these men talk me into paying them $210 in advance."

U.S. Atty. W. B. West III asked Phillips if he had received a refund and the answer was, "No, sir."

Earlier Dr. Bryan Wildenthal, president of Sul Ross State College, told the Federal Court jury that Proffer sold him $400 worth of stock in the corporation during a 1955 convention of the Texas State Teachers Assn. in San Antonio. Proffer is a former president of the association.

Wildenthal testified he was asked to be a director of the corporation but declined. Later his name was listed with directors and stockholders, he said.

"My confidence and faith in him (Proffer) were the only reason I bought" the stock, Wildenthal testified.

Vernon Eady, a North Texas State College professor, testified he had agreed to buy $1,000 worth of stock in the corporation and paid in $3,500.

He said he and Proffer were "still good friends and I certainly don't blame him for what happened."

School Superintendent Frank

White of Cleveland, Tex., said he bought stock at the same time Wildenthal did.

He said "They wanted to make me a director and asked me to send them a picture of me. I sent the picture but asked Proffer to give me more information before making me a director. He never answered my letter."

The trial is expected to continue through next week.

Bloody Battles Erupt In Japan On Ike Visit

TOKYO (AP)—Bloody battles erupted between rock-throwing radicals and charging, club-swinging police today as Japanese leftists launched a new wave of demonstrations against the U.S.-Japanese security pact and President Eisenhower's visit to Japan.

Students once broke into the grounds of Prime Minister Nobusuke Kishi's official residence. They were forced out, then charged three times by several hundred blue-uniformed, helmeted police.

Heads were bloodied and college men and coeds knocked to the street in a free-for-all that put the students in retreat.

No shots were fired and no one appeared seriously hurt.

The free-for-all climaxed a 3 1/2-hour demonstration by some 5,000 students around the heavily guarded Parliament building.

The students carried placards and chanted slogans denouncing the Prime Minister, Eisenhower's scheduled June 19-22 visit and the partially ratified treaty authorizing U. S. bases in Japan for at least another 10 years.

"I don't like Ike" said one sign. Others read "Kishi, quit," "Death by hanging for Kishi," "Ike, don't come" and "Parliament resign."

The student demonstration was the curtain-raiser for a weekend of turmoil planned by Japan's left wing.

Transport unions prepared a giant tieup of public transportation Saturday. Sohyo, the leftist labor federation, ordered member unions to stop train, bus and taxi service for an hour during the morning rush.

Industry Showing Interest In Helium Conservation

WASHINGTON (AP) — Private industry is showing great interest in the long-range helium conservation program proposed by the Interior Department.

Elmer Bennett, undersecretary of the interior, said so to the Senate Interior Committee this week in urging its approval of a bill to set up the program. A similar bill has been passed by the House. The program calls for 12 more plants to extract helium—needed in defense and space activities—from natural gas before the natural gas moves on through pipelines to consumers.

The plants would be built by private industry, if possible, with the government buying the helium and storing it in the cliffside gas field near Amarillo against future needs. The government would build the plants if private companies didn't.

The Interior Department estimates five billion cubic feet of helium is being wasted annually in the burning of helium-bearing natural gas. This is nearly one-tenth of the government's present consumption of helium.

With demand for helium skyrocketing because of its use in defense and scientific programs—the government uses 90 per cent of current production—the Interior Department has warned that known reserves may become depleted by 1985 if no new discoveries are made.

The government now has its own extraction plants in Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas and New Mexico. The first three states are the major helium producers.

Bennett assured the committee his department stands ready to work out fair contracts with private companies when it gets the authority.

All the present plants were built and are operated by the Bureau of Mines, an agency of the Interior Department. The bureau is the sole producer of helium at this time.

Actress Gets Suspended Term

LOS ANGELES (AP)—"Thirty days," said the judge, and actress Greta Thyssen looked suddenly frightened.

But the judge added: "Jail term suspended"—and the Danish-born blonde beauty left Municipal Court Thursday, smiling happily.

She was fined $52.50 and placed on a year's probation on a disturbing the peace charge, filed after an officer said she struck him when he halted her car for a traffic violation. She claimed she thought he was going to kiss her.

Copter Saves Youngster At Wreck Site

FLIN FLON, Man. (AP)—A helicopter Thursday plucked a starving, nearly incoherent little boy from beside the burned wreckage of a plane where he had spent 15 lonely, fear-ridden days in the rugged bush of northwest Manitoba.

Later the helicopter and its rescue crew returned to collect the bodies of the child's father and a friend who died in the crash 300 miles northwest of Winnipeg.

"Gee, I thought you'd never come," said 9-year-old Walter Sedor to his mother at the Flin Flon hospital.

Although suffering from exhaustion and undernourishment, the child was said to be in good condition.

The father, Steve Sedor, 39, a friend, Ken Harrison, 32, and the child were on a 12-mile flight to Tarran Lake for a fishing trip when the plane crashed May 18. The boy, sitting in the back seat, apparently was thrown through the roof into heavy brush which broke his fall.

The boy told his rescuers he chewed a few roots and leaves and drank rain water. A package of supplies containing enough food for one person for at least 25 days had been thrown clear but the boy didn't touch it—apparently unaware of what it contained.

Since May 18 the weather during the day had been relatively mild, but on several occasions the temperature approached freezing at night. There were several rainy days.

Thursday, Harvey Evans, a pilot for TransAir Ltd., spotted the boy sitting on a rock about three fourths of a mile from Tarran Lake. Evans, who was returning from a flight north, said if his course had been 100 yards to either side he would not have seen the child.

Demos Don't Like Niki Interference

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev may have handed Republicans a political gift by saying the present U.S. government doesn't want to improve relations with the Soviet Union.

But some Democrats were quick to challenge his criticism of President Eisenhower and his implication that the Soviet Union might be better able to deal with a different government.

Khrushchev said in a letter Democratic leaders made public Thursday that the Eisenhower administration follows a "doctrine of aggression and provocation" which "was not created by the American people."

Not many Americans are likely to agree with Khrushchev's charges of aggression and provocation. Politicians generally believe the voters' instinctive reaction will be to rally behind a President they think is being maligned far beyond anything justified by any mistakes he may have made.

How much this sort of feeling can be transferred to Vice President Richard M. Nixon, the expected GOP presidential nominee, remains to be seen.

TAKES STEPS
But Nixon already has taken steps aimed at identifying himself as the man best equipped to stand up to Khrushchev in the international struggle that lies ahead.

This represents something of a quick shift from the Republican pre-summit position that the President—and his heir apparent for the party nomination—were qualified by experience to lead the Free World toward some satisfactory accommodation with the Soviet.

Since the summit collapse any course of this kind involves the risk of being labeled as appeasement, an ugly word with which neither party wants to be tabbed. Democrats such as Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas have shown their awareness of what Khrushchev's references to his dislike for "the present government of the U.S.A." might do to them if left unchallenged.

He told the Senate Thursday that Khrushchev was trying to divide the American people; but wouldn't be able to do it.

REPLY TO CABLE
Johnson was one of the leaders to whom Khrushchev addressed his letter. It was in reply to a cable which Johnson, House Speaker Sam Rayburn (D-Tex.), Adlai E. Stevenson and Chairman J. William Fulbright (D-Ark) of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee sent to Ike in Paris May 17. In it they cautioned Khrushchev not to sink the Paris conference because of any hope that he might find a new U.S. administration more tractable.

The Senate Democratic leader, one of the candidates for his party's presidential nomination, characterized Khrushchev's letter as an "arrogant denial of the facts."

Johnson told the Senate that the Free World was "ready to negotiate on the issues of life and death" but that Khrushchev had torpedoed the conference. The Texas senator said that "no one can seriously believe that the U2 plane incident—a by-product of the cold war—was sufficient alibi for refusing to discuss the basic issues of the cold war itself."

TOP RIVAL
Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts, who regards Johnson as his top rival for the presidential nomination, reiterated at a Chicago news conference his criticism of the timing of the flight and of the contradictory statements issued by the administration about it.

However, in a statement pledging his support to Kennedy for the nomination, Michigan's Gov. G. Mennen Williams took occasion to refer to the "debacle at the summit" and to praise Kennedy's toughness. Williams said there would be "no more summit called by Khrushchev, at a time set by De Gaulle on a plan worked out by Macmillan, with pre-summit fumbles by America and with failure for all."

Stevenson, who says he isn't running for the nomination but remains available for a draft, said in New York that Khrushchev's letter "sounded conciliatory and hopeful about the prospects for renewed negotiations."

But even Stevenson, who said previously that with the U2 spy plane incident the Eisenhower administration had handed Khrushchev a crowbar with which to wreck the Paris meeting, said "I cannot agree that President Eisenhower was solely responsible for the failure of the summit meeting."

ties before Saturday, which is her wedding day.

Daughter of Mrs. George White, 1709 Main, and the late Mr. White, the honoree will become the bride of Dee Jon Davis in the First Methodist Church. The prospective bridegroom is the son of Paul Dee Davis, Gail Road, and the late Mrs. Davis.

BRIDESMAIDS' LUNCHEON

Cards of green, white and yellow marked with small brides designated the places for 12 guests in the home of Mrs. W. B. Hardy when the bridesmaids' luncheon was given for Miss White on Thursday.

Joining Mrs. Hardy were Mrs. Monroe Johnson, Mrs. Y. C. Gray and her daughter, Heien Clare. Three clusters of daisies centered the luncheon table, covered in pale green, with a single cluster at each end of the long table. Gifts from the bride to her attendants were also a part of the decor.

Silver in her selection was presented to the honoree by the hostesses.

COKE PARTY

School friends of the bride-elect gathered this morning in the home of Mrs. Champ Rainwater when she was joined by her daughter, Julie, Mrs. G. H. Wood and her daughter, Lynn, as hostesses for a Coke party.

Daisies and bells of Ireland were used to decorate the refreshment table, which followed a green and white theme.

Informally marked the occasion, during which the hostesses presented a gift to Miss White. About 20 were included on the invitation list.

Installation Luncheon Is Given For Spaders

Mrs. Kyle Cauble was installed as president of the Spaders Garden Club Thursday at a luncheon when members gathered in Coker's Restaurant.

Mrs. Dave Dorchester was placed in the office of vice president; Mrs. J. R. Bizell, treasurer; Mrs. F. D. Williams, secretary, and Mrs. Don Grantham, parliamentarian.

Mrs. Dale Smith will serve as librarian and reporter; and Mrs. Zack Gray, outgoing president, will be the representative to the Council of Big Spring Garden Clubs.

Mrs. J. A. Coffey was installing officer, using as her theme the various kinds of hands. She spoke of the Biblical emphasis on busy hands and designated each officer as needing a certain characteristic hand.

Committee chairmen were announced by Mrs. Cauble. Mrs. Don Grantham will head the program group; Mrs. Lyndell Newton and Mrs. H. B. Perry will compose the telephone committee.

Mrs. W. D. Caldwell is the hospitality chairman; Mrs. Donald Hale, head of the yearbook committee. Mrs. R. C. Armstrong was appointed to compile the scrapbook, and Mrs. V. A. Whittington will head the constitution and by-laws committee.

A gift was presented to Mrs. Gray by Mrs. Earl Burnett in behalf of the club for the work accomplished during the past year. Mrs. Burnett was in charge of the luncheon arrangements.

The next meeting, slated for July 7, will be held in the home of Mrs. C. J. Stocks at 9:30 a.m. which is a change in the time of meeting.

Make-Up Expert Gives Criticisms Of Fads, Foibles

If basking in the sun leaves freckles on your skin, take advantage of this mark of youth to add sparkle and personality to your appearance. Let them show through the thinnest application of foundation makeup when you wear sport clothes, and they will impart a fresh youthful look that is most attractive during the day.

Then, in the evening when you want your complexion to have a sophisticated, flawless, veil your freckles with cake makeup in a shade darker than your natural skin tone.

Emphasize your eyes with eye shadow, eye liner, and mascara, and fashion a flattering lip pattern with a bright shade of lipstick. By highlighting your eyes and mouth, any trace of freckles will be minimized.

MRS. JERRY DON ADAMS

Miss Haney Bride Of J. D. Adams

LAMESA — Mr. and Mrs. Walton Haney, are announcing the marriage of their daughter, Norma, to Jerry Don Adams, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Adams, Route A, Lamesa.

The couple was married Wednesday in the First Methodist Church at Lovington, N. M., with the pastor, the Rev. J. Harold Cates, reading the double ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a pastel blue street dress with matching headband of blue flowers. She carried white carnations atop a white Bible belonging to her sister, Neil Haney.

Her something old was an heirloom strand of pearls belonging to her aunt, Mrs. G. C. Hardesty, and something borrowed, a linen handkerchief belonging to her maternal grandmother, Mrs. Ernest Jones.

Tomie Jane Childers attended her cousin as maid of honor, and Adams was his son's best man.

The couple will reside at 813 N. 18th upon their return from a wedding trip to Ruidoso, N. M. Adams is employed by the Piggy Wiggy Stores here.

Program Given By Pyle Bradshaw

Members of the Credit Club met Thursday for luncheon at Coker's Restaurant, with the program presented by Pyle Bradshaw. She discussed the various kinds of credit terms, giving the definition and explaining the function of each.

A discussion was held on having summer luncheons in the homes of members; the matter will be decided at the next meeting, for which Mrs. Bill Draper will be hostess in her home.

Twelve attended the session, with the capsule prize awarded to Mrs. G. G. Sawtelle.

Bride-Elect Tea Honoree

Julie Rainwater was guest of honor at a tea Thursday hosted by Mrs. Charles Webb Jr. of Bloomington, Ind., and Mrs. K. H. McGibbon. Over 25 friends of the bride were present.

Cookie Sneed was at the guest register while Carol Ann Monnegan served.

Centering the white cloth was a white tree decorated with red carnations and red and white hearts. Silver and crystal appointments were used.

Miss Rainwater wore a white dress accented with a corsage of red sweetheart rosebuds. Her mother, Mrs. Champ Rainwater, wore a white gardenia corsage.

On August 27—Miss Rainwater will become the bride of Deibert Neal Shirey, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Shirey of Midland, in a ceremony at the First Methodist Church.

Craft Work Holds Attention Of Club

Figurines of plaster were made by members of the Elbow Home Demonstration Club Thursday afternoon at their meeting in the school. The group also worked with plastic flower-making.

Mrs. J. B. Cauble was hostess for the session and brought the devotions.

Plans for a family picnic were discussed; with the date set for July 29; the affair will be held in the city park.

Fourteen were present for the meeting. At the next gathering, slated for June 16 at 2 p.m., planning a wardrobe will be the topic of discussion.

Hostess for the next session will be Mrs. Y. M. Dunagan, it was announced.

Natural Blonde
Jean Ingram receives many compliments on her hair and complexion and confesses she uses the same preparation for both. She is seen frequently on CBS-TV.

HOLLYWOOD BEAUTY
Blond Hair Makes Her Be An Actress
By LYDIA LANE
HOLLYWOOD — When I was introduced to Jean Ingram on "The Millionaire" set at CBS-TV, the hairdresser told me, "She is one of the few natural blonds in Hollywood. I take care of her hair and I know."
"Thank you," Jean said. "I became an actress because of it. Dress designing was my first love, but then I married, sold my business and became a housewife. Then I received an offer to do hair commercials for TV. Later I hired an agent and he placed me in a series of roles. I studied acting because I believe in being prepared. And it paid off."
I wanted to know what care she gave her hair to make it so soft and shiny.
"I like simple formulas," she replied. "I use the same preparation for cleansing my hair and my face. It's liquid and I buy it at a health-food store. It makes washes out quickly and easily. And it leaves my hair so soft that I only use a little fresh lemon juice in water as a rinse. I dry my hair partially, with a towel, before I pin it up."
"I use this same liquid to remove my make-up. I smooth it on my face and rinse it off with warm water."
"Do you use any skin lubricant?"
"Yes," Jean confided. "I buy sesame seed oil at the same store for 65 cents. It keeps my skin so smooth and soft. I like a little of it also on my hair as a dressing. I have tried many cosmetics," Jean concluded, "but the routine

Dr. Harrison Is Speaker For OWC

Members of the Officers Wives Club heard Dr. Preston Harrison, superintendent at the Big Spring State Hospital, Thursday at their regular monthly luncheon.

Dr. Harrison discussed various attitudes and activities which are detrimental to good mental health and warned his listeners of things to be avoided in bringing up their children.

Accompanying the speaker were patients from the hospital who told of their childhood, showing how various happenings have affected them. A question and answer period followed the discussion.

The luncheon was arranged by the Air Base Group with Mrs. Ross Simpson as chairman.

A nautical theme was followed with gay sailboats and tags sailing on a sea of crepe paper in the centers of the tables. Winner of the centerpiece on head table was Mrs. Jack Wickard; other prizes went to Mrs. Herman Tillman, Mrs. Ed Voltrath and Mrs. M. Coppinger.

DEAR ABBY

TOO LATE NOW

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Boy, oh boy, do I ever need your help! I am 14 and like this this boy Norman (also 14) very much. I found out he was getting his curly hair cut off for a crew cut on Saturday morning. I was happy because I know the barber he goes to. I told the barber how much I liked him and asked him if he would save Norman's curls for me, so he did. Guess what? Somehow it got back to Norman and now he won't even look at me. What should I do?

LOVES NORMAN

DEAR NOVES NORMAN: Quit drooling over him—and hang on to those curls. That's probably as close to Norman as you'll get until his hair grows out and he grows up. A 14-year-old boy would rather have a girl secretly hate him than publicly like him.

DEAR ABBY: We have a widowed grandmother, aged 60, who has had this man living with her for the past four years. He is now in his late thirties. She owns her own home and is very well off financially. Despite our protests she brings him to all the family gatherings. We can hardly stand him.

Everyone in town knows about these two. Is there anything we can do to get rid of him? Some folks say it is none of our business, but we think, out of respect to the memory of our deceased grandfather, we should put a stop to it.

We've asked her to please leave this fellow home when she comes to family get-togethers, but she won't come without him. We hoped she'd get over this nonsense but it's been four years now and he is still around. If she dies, will this man have any claim on her property, holdings and insurance?

INTERESTED GRANDCHILDREN.
DEAR INTERESTED: Evidently Grandma doesn't care what you or the neighbors think. I don't know what provisions she has made for her property holdings and insurance—but her lawyer probably does. If you are interested—why don't you ask Grandma?

DEAR ABBY: Is it normal for a pretty, 35-year-old woman (who looks 25) to refuse to have any friends over? When I mention inviting a couple or two in for an evening it starts a terrible argument.

We have been married 10 years and have no children. We own a beautiful, new, ranch-style home with new modern furniture, so she doesn't have to be ashamed to invite people in. But she flatly refuses. The two of us get along fine and I have absolutely no complaints except this one. How do I get her to invite people over? Or should I just give up?

NO FRIENDS

DEAR NO FRIENDS: Perhaps your wife lacks confidence. She probably feels that she doesn't know how to entertain properly and is afraid to try. Let her know that the people who are worth entertaining won't like her less if she isn't the hostess with the mostest. Don't give up. Everybody needs friends.

Rocky Might Take Stage With Foray

By The Associated Press

Sen. John F. Kennedy's endorsement by Michigan Gov. G. Mennen Williams held the center of the political stage today, but a Midwest foray by Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York seemed likely to draw the limelight back toward the Republicans.

Williams, who heads a 51-vote convention delegation, announced his support of Kennedy Thursday after a cordial chat with the Massachusetts presidential contender at Mackinac Island. Williams' action does not bind the Michigan delegation, but seems likely to swing it solidly into Kennedy's corner. Not counting the 51 Michigan votes, an unofficial Associated Press tally gave Kennedy 334½ committed convention votes, out of the 761 needed for nomination. Rockefeller flies to Fargo, N.D., today to start two days of farm belt stumping for Gov. John E. Davis, Republican candidate for the Senate in a special June 28 election. Rockefeller recently declared he's still available if the Republican convention wants to draft him as its presidential candidate. But at the same time he said he doesn't expect it to happen. Vice President Richard M. Nixon is otherwise unopposed for the top spot.

Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, who has been running without saying he's a candidate, was put squarely in the contest Thursday by House Speaker Sam Rayburn and other friends. They announced formation of a Citizens for Johnson movement with Johnson's approval.

Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn.), who bowed out of the presidential sweepstakes after Kennedy drubbed him in the West Virginia primary, made clear Thursday his presidential choice now is Adlai E. Stevenson. In a telegram to Stevenson,

Humphrey praised him for his speech in Chicago this week setting forth a five point "grand strategy for peace."

Stevenson has made no overt effort to get the nomination he had twice before, but remains available for a draft.

Another Democratic aspirant, Sen. Stuart Symington of Missouri, said Thursday at Fresno, Calif., that Stevenson is "beginning to act like a candidate" in his recent statements and speeches on foreign affairs.

Symington wound up a four day expedition into California, where he and other Democrats have been prospecting for support in the state's 81-vote delegation. Gov. Edmund G. Brown is California's favorite son candidate, and so far has avoided leaping one way or the other among the major candidates.

Prisoner Pay

NEW YORK (AP) — Starting July 1, the city for the first time is going to pay prisoners $ to 10 cents a day for their work, Correction Commissioner Anna M. Kross announced Thursday. The new city budget provides $30,000 for a token start in paying for prisoner services—which include laundry and bakery work, gardening, cooking repairing, and garment mending.

Beauties Refined At Splash Party

It's a beautiful home and a lovely looking pool, if one could only find it.

The address is listed as 1106 W. 16th, home of the James Duncans. Only it turns out 1300 W. 16th. The 1106 is in the middle of canyon.

The occasion is the second swim party for the Miss Big Spring and Junior Miss Big Spring contestants. Mrs. R. U. D. finds the address, since she's not too timid to ask, drops daughter Shirley off at the door. Other contestants arrive about the same time, see a girl in a bathing suit heading through the breezeway toward the patio and pool, and they follow.

Late arrivals know where to go by the parked cars and the splashing sounds.

Some, it is obvious, do not intend to get wet. They wear shorts, among them Mary Jane Engstrom, Sharron Creighton, Joan Bratcher; two girls wear dresses.

What's this shining light? Oh, just Malinda Crocker, in a bright blinding silver bathing suit. She and Mary Jane take up a game of ping pong. "I just love to play ping pong," says Malinda. Later, she goes into the pool.

Started to ask the girls if they knew how to play gimp gimp—that's ping pong spelled backwards—but thought better of it. Don't want to get myself thrown into the pool.

Virginia Morris climbs aboard the plastic kayak, paddle in hand, nose clamps on nose. She promptly swamps it. Sharon Gary tries out the kayak, doesn't know how to paddle it, ends up going in circles.

Kathleen Soidan and Lillian Burnett bring in loudly colored Chinese coolie hats. Good for the sun, and for confusing the poor Jaycee officials trying to figure out what they are.

The host, Daryle Hohertz and Chub Jones, sit at the poolside table. Dripping beauties Glenda Haney and Rosalie DeVaney come over to chat, joined by Joan and Sharron; when the soft drinks are served, they are joined by nearly everybody.

Daryle wants to know how many will go with him to the TV station for Jo Ann Forrest's program. The girls turn chicken, one by one. Glenda has on her mother's suit, and "No, I just can't go on TV." Liable to find out where the suit went.

Daryle finally rounds up a crew and they leave—seems they were just dying to go on TV, but would not admit it.

Caroline Wilson corners me. "I'm not engaged," she says in no-nonsense tones. "Just going steady." Seems her boyfriend and her mother both were rather upset by a previous article, particularly with the coincidental arrival of a bouquet of flowers from the friend.

"Okay," sez I, "you're not engaged, just going steady. I'll set it right in my column."

"You are forgiven," says Caroline.

Time for Jo Ann's show. Past time. We rush into the house, our host turns on the TV, but too late. The party was over, anyway.

The girls agree as they leave that it was a nice party. Some light frolicking, but little horseplay; a lot of quiet conversation. Saving their strength for tomorrow, no doubt.

Midland Gains In Census Count

MIDLAND (AP)—A revision of census figures placed Midland's population today at 62,272.

Mayor Frank Thompson said the revision came from James Stroud, regional field director of the census.

The preliminary figure was 59,552.

Thompson said the figure increased when nearly 3,000 persons improperly credited as living outside the city were credited to Midland.

Pentecost Day Is Remembered

Pentecost Sunday will form the bases for many sermons in local churches Sunday as the birthday of the Christian Church is remembered.

Two local pastors and their families will be leaving the city. The Rev. and Mrs. Joe McCarthy, pastors of Park Methodist Church, left Thursday for Pioneer Memorial Church outside Merkel. They had ministered in the local church for two years. Taking their place will be the Rev. R. O. Browder, former pastor at Darrouzett.

The Rev. and Mrs. D. R. Philley of Phillips Memorial Baptist Church will be leaving Monday for their new pastorate in Jacinto City, a suburb of Houston. There they will labor in the Second Baptist Church.

Chaplain Eugene Clemens, Catholic chaplain at Webb AFB, will read mass for the last time at this assignment Sunday. He will be stationed in Iceland.

A guest speaker, the Rev. Elra Phillips, a Methodist minister recently located in Cooper, will speak at the First Church of God in the morning service Sunday.

Revival will begin Sunday at Calvary Baptist Church, announces the pastor, Rev. Raymond Gary. Evangelist will be the Rev. R. D. Heflin, pastor of Temple Baptist Church in Port Neches. The meeting will last a week.

Now in progress at the First Assembly of God Church AFB is a revival that will close Sunday night. Evangelists are the Rev. and Mrs. A. N. Trotter, missionaries to Africa. The Trotters have served five terms on the mission field.

A series on stewardship will be started by the Rev. R. B. Murray at Northside Baptist Church Sunday morning.

Preacher's Home Congregation

The Rev. D. R. Philley has his own congregation at home. Mrs. Philley, Buddy, 17, 15-year-old George and 5-year-old Tena.

Philleys Take A New Church

BY SHERI WEBBER

A money tree was in full-bloom Wednesday evening at Phillips Memorial Baptist Church.

"I'm going to try to find the seeds," laughs the Rev. D. R. Philley, "if the tree will grow so well in Big Spring, just think what it would do in that fertile country around Houston!"

The money tree was a farewell gift of the Phillips Memorial congregation to the Rev. and Mrs. Philley and their three sons. The family will spend their last Sunday at the church this week, and Brother Philley will preach his last sermons as the group's pastor.

On Monday the quintet will leave for a suburb of Houston, Jacinto City, to minister at the Second Baptist Church.

"I hate to leave here," says Mrs. Philley. The couple has pastored the eight-year-old church four years. For the past three years Mrs. Philley has taught kindergarten at the Christian Day School. She has worked in the church as superintendent of the beginners department.

The Rev. Philley entered the ministry 16 years ago. "I was tickled when he did," says his brunette wife. The preacher, who was raised in an orphanage, was 25 years old before he attended a church regularly.

When the couple entered the ministry they were the parents of three children, Barbara and Glendene (now Mrs. Joe Frank McCollum) and Mrs. Willy Brooks, both of Lubbock and Buddy, who is now 17. Since they went into ministerial work full-time, they have added 15-year-old George and Gene, 13.

The boys at home consider Pug, 1-year-old bulldog, another member of their family.

"The Lord called me into the ministry," says Philley. After leaving his job as assistant superintendent for a construction company, for nine years he pastored churches in Oklahoma. Before coming to Big Spring the preacher ministered in Cross Plains. Since Philley came to Phillips Memorial Baptist Church, the church has bought parking lots and paved one of them. They have landscaped the yards and put sidewalks around the edifice. The education building has been enlarged and the other buildings have either been remodeled or completed. The nursery has been enlarged to accommodate 100 babies— from birth through 3 years of age. Four years ago there was space to take care of only 12 babies.

Average Sunday school attendance has grown from 125 to 200 under the Philleys' guidance. A total of 350 have joined the church.

The Rev. D. R. Philley sums up his four-year pastorate in Big Spring with "This is the most pleasant stay we've ever had."

The Golden Rule

THE REAL MEANING OF GENUINE LOVE FOR OUR NEIGHBORS

Scripture—Matthew 7:1-12; Luke 10:25-37.

By NEWMAN CAMPBELL

IN INTRODUCING today's lesson, the Rev. Dr. Wilbur M. Smith writes in Peloubet's Select Notes, "Every man living a normal life has relationship with the members of his household, with fellow workers in business, or in school, with the government, of the nation of which he is a citizen, and with friends. Then there is the highest of all personal relationships, with God. Our study today, like the Ten Commandments, has to do with both of these. When a man (or woman) is right with God, he will be right with his fellow man; but when his life is totally separated from the fact of a living God, he is living an impoverished life, void of the lofty ethical standards which have been set."

ed. "And who is my neighbor?"—Luke 10:25-29.

Then Jesus told a parable, which is quite familiar to us all who read the scriptures. It concerned a man who was on a journey when he fell among thieves who "stripped him of his raiment, and wounded him, and departed, leaving him half dead."—Luke 10:30.

A priest came that way, but when he saw the wounded man he "passed by on the other side. And likewise a Levite, when he was at the place, came and looked on him, and passed by on the other side.

"But a certain Samaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was; and when he saw him, he had compassion on him, and went to him, and bound up his wounds . . . and set him on his

"Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them."—Matthew 7:12.

before us by our Creator and Lord.

These words apply also to children, from early youth to manhood or womanhood.

"And behold, a certain lawyer stood up, and tempted him, saying, Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?" Jesus said: "What is written in the law? How readest thou?"—Luke 10:25-28.

"And he answering said, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbor as thyself."

Christ said, "Thou hast answered right: this do, and thou shalt live."

The man was not quite satisfied with this answer, and asked,

"Which now of these things must I do to inherit eternal life?"

The man, of course, said, "He that sheved mercy on him, and then said Jesus unto him, Go and do thou likewise."—Luke 10:36-37.

In our modern world, who are our neighbors? The people of the whole world. Let us remember Jesus' teaching, and treat them as we would like to be treated.

MRS. A. N. TROTTER

Missionaries Now Conducting Revival

The Rev. and Mrs. A. N. Trotter, missionaries to Africa, are conducting a series of special meetings each night through Sunday at the First Assembly of God Church, West Fourth and Lancaster. Pastor of the church is the Rev. S. E. Eldridge.

The Trotters have served five terms, 10 years, on the African mission field. They have recently completed several months of evangelistic meetings in Nigeria, West Africa, among the most primitive tribes.

During this last term of service, Rev. and Mrs. Trotter spent a year in South Africa teaching in an Assembly of God college. They were in the country during the recent race riots.

"Africa in Revolution and Revival" will be the Rev. Trotter's sermon topic Saturday evening, at 7:30. Rev. Trotter is well-known as a camp meeting and convention speaker.

Vacation Bible Schools Start In City's Churches

Vacation Bible Schools are getting in full swing with the close of school terms.

This week saw VBSs conducted at East Fourth Baptist Church and Phillips Memorial Baptist Church. At East Fourth Baptist 165 was the average attendance with 159 children enrolled.

Planning to start next week for a week and a half, June 6-15, is Baptist Temple. Children will meet from 8:30-11:30 a.m.

To start Monday of next week is College Baptist VBS. It will run Monday through Friday from 9-11:30 a.m.

At the 14th and Main Church of Christ morning sessions will run from 9-11 a.m. Monday through June 10.

Hillcrest Baptist Church will hold a week-long Bible school starting Monday. Time is 8-11 a.m. each morning.

"Signaling for Christ" will be the theme of the Birdwell Lane Baptist Church VBS from June 13-17. Meeting time is 9-11:30 a.m.

Both Presbyterian Churches will start their Bible schools June 20. The First Presbyterian Church will conduct theirs until July 1, while the St. Paul Presbyterian Church's school will last until June 24. Sessions will start at 8:30.

Four In Deadlock For Tourney Lead

MEMPHIS (AP) — The $30,000 Memphis Open golf tournament blasted into its second round today with a herd of eager front runners pondering every stroke. Tied with six were rookie Bob Shave of Willoughby, Ohio, and three old pros, Ken Venturi of San Francisco, Howie Johnson of Houston and Bob Rosburg of Palo Alto, Calif. Looming one stroke back were Ben Hagan of Fort Worth and Baltimore's Bill Collins.

Six were bunched at 67, including defending champion Don Whitcomb of Borrego Springs, Calif. Six more had 68s and eight others were poised at 69.

The 136 pros and 14 amateurs will be thinned out — to the top 70 pros and ties — after the second 18 over the 6,500-yard, 34-36-70 Colonial Country Club course.

It Seems To Me

By DON RIDDLE

Stanton's do-it-all athlete for the past four years, Norman Donelson, says he will decide sometime within a week where he will attend college. The tall Martin County product has narrowed his choice of schools to two—Texas Tech and Howard County Junior College. He says he has been offered a partial scholarship to the Southwest Conference school on his track potential but has been offered a complete scholarship to the local JC on his basketball and track talents combined. In the four years he performed for the Buffaloes, he earned 10 varsity letters. Four numerals were in track, four more in basketball and two were earned on the football field.

His senior year, Donelson was named to the All-State football team as an end. The same year he was named to the All-Area team in basketball and he placed fourth in the state schoolboy track and field meet in the quarter mile. Donelson broke the Stanton High School seasonal scoring record in basketball this past season as he amassed 522 points. As a junior, he was the high point man in the district track and field meet with 14 points and at that time the meet was scored on the five-point system.

He went through four years of school and says he never got home before six o'clock in the afternoon due to athletic workouts, yet he graduated with a scholastic average of 81. He plans to major in agriculture in college. Once again the major league ball players will select the eight starters on the two squads for the All-Star game. For the past two seasons the players in each league selected the starters except the pitcher and this method of choice seems to be the best so far.

Each manager will then select the starting pitcher and the remaining members of his team. In the first All-Star game last year, only 25 players were allowed on each squad. In the second clash, the limit was raised to 28. Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick has elevated the limit this year to 30 players. All the eight starters must play three innings and no pitcher is allowed to hurl more than three innings unless he is on the mound and the game goes into extra innings. Another rule change this year prohibits a team manager to start the same pitcher in both games. Don Drysdale began both games for the National League last year.

Bass fishing on Lake J. B. Thomas has been increasing lately and the best chance of getting the big one, according to the successful anglers, is by using a chugger if you plan to fish topwater, and a white Bomber or Hellbender for deep-water fishing. A recent report from some West Texans who caught over a hundred white bass indicates that the specie is beginning to school. Word is that some kind of spoon with a trailer about 18 inches long will produce the best white bass results and many fishermen bring 'em in two at a time this way. When a white bass one of the baits and begins to churn the water, he attracts others and one will usually hit the other bait. Most of the blacks have been taken in shallow water this spring but we predict that before the season is over, the deep-running lures will be the most successful baits.

Snyder In Finals Of State Playoffs

AUSTIN (AP) — Houston Bellare engages San Antonio Harlandale and Snyder clashes with Seguin in the Class AAAA and AAA finals of the State Schoolboy Baseball Tournament today.

Bellare blasted its way into the finals with a 11-2 victory over Midland Thursday while Harlandale shot down Paschal 4-1. Snyder bowled over favored Nederland 5-2 and Seguin tripped Kilgore 3-1 to set the championship stage in AAA.

Bellare had little trouble in its conquest, scoring nine runs in the first two innings to coast past Midland. Six Bellare batters banged out two hits each to pace the lopsided win. They were Billy Prueitt, Steve Cosgrove, Jerry Braswell, Tom Hillary, Jerry Schlessler and John Crane. Harlandale's Myer gave Paschal little to work on, retiring 20 straight batters through 6-13 innings before Lance Cobb shattered his no-hitter with a single.

An error coupled with Paschal's second and last hit—by Bob Bigley—accounted for the Panthers' lone run.

Ronnie Jones and Norman Gladson of Snyder teamed up to put down Nederland on one hit. Jones held the Nederland crew hitless for five innings before tiring. Snyder took a four-run lead—all unearned—in the first game, added another tally in the fourth and was never threatened except for a two-run uprising in the sixth.

Seguin rode into the finals on the arm of Charley Hartenstein and several Kilgore errors. Hartenstein, winning his 15th game in 17 decisions, gave up Kilgore's lone run in the second on a pair of singles and Johnny Wright's bunt.

All three of Seguin's runs were unearned, spoiling a fine six-hitter by Bob Schuman.

Butch Foster twirled a brilliant one-hitter for Cosden Thursday night as they dropped the Reef team, 9-1 in a Texas Little League bout.

Foster also pounded out a pair of three-run homers to lead his team at bat. Larry Bennett added three singles to the Cosden attack.

Holding, Morris In Hall Of Fame

SIoux FALLS, S.D. (AP)—Four former athletes were formally inducted into NAIA track and field hall of fame Thursday night. They were C. W. (Bill) Martin, formerly of Notre Dame, Charles Foster of Kearney State Teachers College, Neb., Charles Holding, formerly of East Texas State, and John W. Morris, now coach at Houston Univ.

JOHN MACK ANDERSON

Anderson Takes Coaching Post In Home Town

John Mack Anderson submitted his resignation as a coaching aide at the local high school Thursday, the third mentor the local schools have lost within the past week. Ted Kirby quit a junior high position last Friday to take a similar post at Kermit while Billy (Chop) Van Pelt resigned last Monday to become the varsity line coach at McAllen High School.

Emmett McKenzie, the local coach and athletic director, said he disliked the thought of losing all three men but felt it was a compliment to their ability that other schools were seeking their services.

Anderson, who has been here only since March, will become the head football coach at the high school in his home town, DeFuniak Springs, Fla. DeFuniak Springs is a town in western Florida of about 6,000 which plays a brand of ball comparable to Class AAA in Texas.

It is located about halfway between Tallahassee and Pensacola. John Mack has been coaching for nine years. He spent five seasons at DeFuniak Springs and the past four at Orange, where he served as an assistant to Ted Jeffries. He was head basketball coach at DeFuniak Springs.

He is a graduate of Troy State Teachers in Alabama. At DeFuniak Springs, he succeeds Mack Rooks. He and Mrs. Anderson have two children, Buddy, age 7; and Brenda, 6. They plan to move to Florida sometime this weekend.

John Mack will coach football only at DeFuniak Springs. Anderson remained here long enough to help McKenzie and the other coaches with spring training duties.

Cozby And Swain Lead JC Tourney

ODESSA (AP)—Jerry Cozby and Danny Swain of Odessa College enter the final round of the National Junior College Golf Tournament today with a five-shot edge over the field.

The two surged ahead after Thursday's 36 holes, pushing their 54-hole score to 436. Charles Meisner and Melvin Chisum, another Odessa team, drifted from a first-round tie for the lead to second place with 441.

Weatherford Junior College's George Powell tied Meisner, the singles leader, with rounds of 73 and 69 to bring his total to 214.

Stigman Winning Spurs As A Relief Pitcher

By ED WILKS Associated Press Sports Writer

A year ago Dick Stigman was a 17-game loser in the minors. Now he's Cleveland's relief ace, a southpaw stopper who has kept the Indians close to Baltimore in that American League pennant race.

While the Orioles have taken over first place by winning 11 of their last 14 games, Cleveland has clung to second by winning nine of the last 14 — and Stigman has saved five of the nine. He kept the Indians within 2 1/2 games of the Orioles by putting down a four-run ninth-inning rally at Kansas City Thursday night, saving a 7-6 Cleveland victory over the A's after Baltimore had beaten the New York Yankees 6-5.

Chicago's third place White Sox fell 3 1/2 games back with a 4-3 loss at Detroit. Washington jumped out of the cellar and dropped Boston to eighth by sweeping a doubleheader from the Red Sox, winning the nightcap 8-7 in 11 innings after an 8-3 romp. Every club but the White Sox chipped in on an 18-home run total that tied a 28-year-old record for five games. Twelve National League homers tied the eight-game major league record of 30 set in 1950. Stigman, 24, who had a 9-17 record at San Diego in the Pacific Coast League last season, relieved winner Jim Grant (3-1) with three runs home and two-out in the ninth. Dick Williams' pinch single scored another run, but after pinch-hitter Hank Bauer walked, Stigman got Harry Chai on a fly, ending the A's winning string at five.

Tito Francona, Woole Heid and Johnny Romano homered for the Indians' last six runs, all off Ray Herbert (2-4). Marv Throneberry hit a two-run homer for the A's. The Orioles scored all their runs on three homers for a three-game sweep over the Yankees and their seventh victory in eight games. Gene Woodling's home run won it, cracking a 5-5 tie in the eighth against Art Ditmar (2-3). Brooks Robinson's one-on home run had tied it 2-2 in the fifth, and Jim Gentile then gave the Birds a 5-4 lead in the sixth with a three-run homer. Chuck Estrada (5-1) won it in relief.

Bill Skowron and Roger Maris drove in all of the Yankees' runs and had six of their 10 hits. Each hammered a homer off starter Hoyt Wilhelm, with Maris keeping the AL lead with his 12th.

Charlie Maxwell drove in three runs for the Tigers, Russ Kemmerer (1-3) was the loser in relief.

The Senators walloped five home runs, two by Bill Gardner, who hit a grand slam in the nightcap. Gardner, Jim Lemon and Bob Allison unloaded in the opener as Washington beat the Delock (0-1). Don Lee (1-0) was the winner. A two-out triple by Faye Throneberry beat Frank Sullivan (1-6). Pete Ramos (3-6) was the winner.

FREE BASEBALL CLINIC SLATED HERE FOR SMALL FRY PLAYERS

A free baseball clinic for Little Leaguers, sponsored by the Texas A&M Club, will be staged here Friday and Saturday, June 24-25. Chief instructor will be Joe White, who operates the mammoth Southwestern Baseball Clinic at Waco each year. The Little Leaguers will repay the favor by helping the Argie Exes sell tickets for the organization's annual barbecue, proceeds of which are used to provide scholarships for A&M students. A portion of the money the Little Leaguers raise through ticket sales will go into the Little League fund, for use as league officials see fit. It's possible Teen-Age League players will have an opportunity to take advantage of the instructions offered by White and other teachers. Barbecue tickets sell for $1.50 each. Of that amount, the Little Leaguers sell for 25 cents.

Mosley And Pope Limit Daggers To One Single

Mike Mosley and Hank Pope combined talents on the hill to limit the Daggers to a single safely Thursday night as the Cornets took a 10-1 win in an International Little League fray. Pope had the game's only extra

Fernandez Tries Emile Griffith

NEW YORK (AP)—Argentina's Jorge Fernandez gets his first major test in the United States tonight in a 10-round waterweight fight with promising Emile Griffith of New York. The St. Nicholas Arena feature will be broadcast and telecast (NBC 9 EST) nationally. The 24-year-old invader has been made a 7-5 underdog to the 22-year-old New Yorker. The stocky Argentine has scored 50 knockouts in compiling a 68-3-1 record. Griffith's record is 17-2, including six kayos.

Depositions Due In Hotels Case

FORT WORTH (AP) — Oral depositions will be taken next week in a lawsuit involving hotels at Sweetwater and Colorado City. Judge Harris Brewster of 67th

Dist. Court Thursday postponed a hearing in the case by agreement of opposing attorneys.

Hotels involved are the Baker in Colorado City and the Mathisen in Sweetwater. Brewster recently ordered both into receivership pending outcome of the litigation.

'Sing Along' Was Sleeper Of Year

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — When, a couple of weeks back, NBC's fall-starting hour was filled with a musical show called "Sing Along with Mitch," neither sponsor nor network was much excited about the program. It was—by Startime standards—a low-budget show, $100,000. The gimmick was that home viewers were invited to sing old familiar songs along with the male chorus and orchestra. Host Mitch Miller, a bearded records-company executive, confined his remarks to the fewest possible words.

But, in terms of audience response, "Sing Along with Mitch" turned out to be the network's sleeper of the year. As soon as the show was over, the switchboard at network headquarters was overloaded with approving calls — 350 came in before the night was over.

To date, NBC has received almost 1,000 letters about the show—all enthusiastic raves—and mail is still coming in, forwarded by affiliate stations.

"This show has received more mail than any special all year," says Kathryn Cole, manager of the network's Information Department. "And by that I mean mail that is sent directly to the show or to the performers."

Of course, the sing-along show response came no where near that received by NBC during the period five months ago when Jack Paar was engaged in his headline walk-out and walk-back. What Mrs. Cole refers to blandly as "The Paar Incident" drew 28,774 letters—22,031 of them pro-Paar, and 6,393 anti-Paar. Another 350 were noncommittal.

Mrs. Cole, after 18 years of handling broadcasting mail, can usually predict the types of shows which will pull mail. She knows, for instance, that religious shows invariably draw a quantity of approving mail, that public affairs programs—such as the network's recent report on Castro's Cuba—also will arouse the letter writers. Steve Allen's involvement in the Cary Chessman case drew 12 approving letters; 11 disapproving.

Perry Como wound up his season in traditional TV style: Thank-yous to the behind-the-scenes crew. Everybody tried to look so surprised when his carefully rehearsed turn came up. Comedienne Jeff Donnell on Wednesday night's Steel Hour, proved a convincing actress in a serious, if strictly sudy, story.

Rodeo Box Seats Still On Sale

Sale of box seats for the annual Big Spring Cowboy Reunion and Rodeo is progressing nicely, according to Ed Fisher, chairman of the sales.

"There are still a few good boxes left," he pointed out.

The rodeo boxes sell for $15 and each one has six seats. Interested persons can get further information concerning the boxes by contacting Fisher or Edith Gay at the Chamber of Commerce.
