Gavin Foresees Critical Years

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — The World War II commander of the 82nd Airborne Division told its veterans...

Gen. James M. Gavin (ret.) said, "When Mr. Khrushchev said 'We will bury you,' he meant it."

After Gavin's address Tuesday at the 82nd Airborne Division Assn.'s convention, he left for Huntsville, Ala., to consult with Dr. Wehrner Von Braun of the missile program.

The association picked Indianapolis for its 1961 convention and named Sgt. Maj. Douglas R. Swanson of Chicago and the 307th Engineers as trooper of the year.

Stuck-In-The-Mud Talk No Longer Crazy Talk In Area

GARDEN CITY — Two ranchers left here this morning going into the west part of the county.

This would have been crazy talk a couple of days ago, but Wednesday morning it made sense.

Everywhere ranges were greatly benefited, said County Agent Oliver West. Although the rains were heavy, they also fell at a rate that permitted most of the moisture to soak into the parched pastures.

Bryant Harris, who has the official gauge, measured 3.50. Elsewhere in Garden City, the amounts varied upward from 2.70.

Ranchers, Farmers, City Folks Delighted With Soaking Rainfall

Christmas in July continued Tuesday and Tuesday night for the ranchers and farmers of Howard County.

More rain fell—the most welcome summertime gift that the area could have.

Even those sections which were less favored Monday night and Tuesday morning, came in for generous helpings of showers and rains which continued through Wednesday and promised to continue on through Wednesday.

Forsan, which had gauged only .18 inch Monday-night came up with an additional 1.72 to bring the total to 1.90 inches.

tion of the water in Lake Thomas, the reservoir of the Colorado River Municipal Water District and the main source of supply for Big Spring, Odessa and Snyder, stood at 2350.30. This was an increase of 2.57 feet over the level prior to the runoff.

Most of the increase came down the Colorado, reflecting the runoff from heavy rains north and east of Ackerly and Vealmoor, as well as some from downpours east of Lamesa and southeast of O'Donnell.

The Bull Creek yield, normally a potent force, was disappointing. Expected rises from heavy rains in the Fluvanna area, which drains partly into Bull Creek in northeast Borden, failed to materialize.

Dies In Crash

BRADY, Tex. (AP)—Mrs. A. P. Waldrep, 55, of Melvin, Tex., died Tuesday when her car rammed a bridge abutment on U.S. 87 about a mile outside of Melvin in Southwest Texas.

land farms are located, reported three inches or more, and crops were virtually assured.

The east edge appeared to be the most lightly touched, with rains of an inch being the minimum.

Everywhere ranges were greatly benefited, said County Agent Oliver West. Although the rains were heavy, they also fell at a rate that permitted most of the moisture to soak into the parched pastures.

irrigation farmers in the south part of the county, depending on relatively small wells, will get to give the wells a rest.

enough to bring its total to two inches. Traditionally arid Lomax was soaked with 4.00 inches.

Knott revelled as 2.70 inches filled middle ditches and gave thirsty cotton and grain fields a long-overdue drink.

Broad smiles were on every face as the pattering drops continued to fall. Overnight, literally, what had loomed as a dismal farm year changed into one fraught with prospects for a good crop.

Here in Big Spring, more moisture soaked into lawns bringing an abrupt end to desperate efforts by hard-pressed householders to save grass, flowers and shrubs by almost continuous irrigation.

The creek did run substantially, but not at flood stage.

On the contrary, the Colorado River went on a rampage, rising twice on Tuesday. One surge Tuesday morning subsided at 1:30 p.m. only to catch a new crest late in the afternoon. By sunset, it had passed the previous peak.

The bridge, over the Gail road from Big Spring, saw the river up to near record heights. The river was running bank full and heavy bits of timber, along with a few uprooted trees and green limbs, came down with the crest.

During Wednesday, there was reports of showers at Lamesa, which might indicate the possibility of still more flow on the river. Conditions were ripe for a good catch if more rain should come on the 960-square mile drainage area.

Lake Colorado City, the Texas Electric Service reservoir, had increased by .60 of a foot early Wednesday morning and was rising slowly. The latest elevation was 2060.20.

There have been no appreciable change in Champion Creek Lake south of Colorado City. No reports had been received from Powell or Moss Creek lakes, southeast of Big Spring, but Tuesday there had been no substantial change. Cosden Lake, south of Big Spring, was left brimming.

LAMESA — "Over five inches have fallen and it is still coming down. And it's wonderful."

That was the report from Dawson County this morning as the heavy rains broke what was spreading toward a summer drought.

In Lamesa, a total of 5.25 inches have fallen in the two-day rain and an estimated 1,000 telephones in the city are out of commission due to wet cables.

It was still raining this morning and scattered reports indicate the general fall is between 4 1/2 and six inches throughout the county. One report said 7.2 inches had fallen on the Miller ranch in Borden County.

Emergency crews are working around the clock in an attempt to restore telephone service. No estimates have been given on the number of rural telephones that have been knocked out.

householders were dumping up to 12 million gallons a day on their grass.

Rains were general all over the Big Spring area. Glasscock County's ranchlands were saturated to day with the heaviest moisture in months.

Lamesa's cotton farmers beamed with happiness as 5.25 inches of precious water poured down on their fields. Snyder reported 2.75 for the period and Colorado City 1.57.

Borden County got its full share of the rains. All over the county totals were high and ranchers saw a quick revival of pastures.

In the east and northeast parts of Howard County, rain totals were averaging three inches. It is in this section that some of the most promising of the county's cotton was fighting a battle to survive.

Voting Change May Be Test For Convention

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The first big test of strength between supporters of Sens. John F. Kennedy and Lyndon B. Johnson at the Democratic National Convention may involve a seemingly innocent proposal to change voting procedures.

Some of the most important backstage maneuvering going on today at convention headquarters centered around this question: which states should be permitted to switch their votes first during the first ballot at next week's nominating sessions?

This seemingly minor issue—which may come to a vote by the full convention before next week's balloting—is that it could produce a crucial test.

The outcome of this seemingly minor issue—which may come to a vote by the full convention before next week's balloting—is that it could produce a crucial test.

This could pit the Kennedy forces, who hope switch votes will start a bandwagon move, against those of Johnson, trying to consolidate the anti-Kennedy sentiment.

Traditionally, the permanent chairman of the convention has recognized at random those state delegations which have chosen to change the way their votes were recorded on a particular roll call.

However, Gov. LeRoy Collins of Florida has suggested that, as this year's permanent chairman, he would do well to follow some systematic method in recognizing delegations.

Collins has said this would eliminate the possibility that he might be accused of bias if he recognized a state which started a bandwagon movement by shifting its votes.

Democratic National Chairman Paul Butler said "I think it would be sensible and fair" to adopt a new procedure—perhaps recognizing the delegations alphabetically.

However, Butler said Collins would be bound by the traditional method unless the rules committee recommended, and the convention adopted, new system.

It was feared that Collins does not believe a rules change is required. The Florida governor believes that, unless the convention votes otherwise, he is free to follow his own best judgment.

Bevan, British Labor Party Leader, Dies

LONDON (AP) — Aneurin Bevan, deputy leader of Britain's Labor party and one of the great self-made men of British public life, died today. He was 62.

Bevan underwent a major abdominal operation last Dec. 29 in a London hospital and had been confined in his rural home since leaving the hospital Feb. 14.

Although the nature of his ailment has not been disclosed officially, it was generally believed to have been cancer.

With Bevan at the end was his wife, Jennie Lee, a prominent Labor party figure herself and a member of Parliament.

A Labor party spokesman said Bevan died peacefully at 1:20 p.m. at his home west of London.

Bevan, a fighting Socialist with a fiery tongue, stirred up revolt and controversy within his own Labor party for years and delighted in tweaking Uncle Sam's nose.

He was the party's spokesman on foreign affairs, and had Labor won the last election he would have been foreign secretary.

In recent years, however, he underwent a subtle change as the loyal No. 2 man to the moderate, party leader Hugh Gaitskell.

When the party went down to defeat again in last October's elections he ignored the opportunity again to lead a militant revolt of the leftwingers for a thorough overhauling of the party's leadership and policies.

When he went to the hospital for an abdominal operation last December, there were expressions of regret and exclamations of "good old Nye" in some of London's most conservative clubs where the very mention of his name once brought apoplectic rages.

Deluges which brought as much as 12 inches of rain to portions of Texas since Sunday continued today in West Texas and the South Plains.

The heavy rains washed out railroad tracks and closed highways. In far West Texas, suffering from a long dry spell, ranchers said the rains "should put us in the best condition of the past 15 years."

The statement came from Herbert L. Kokernot, owner of the half-million acre "06" Ranch near Alpine.

The rains which began during the weekend stretched into the Panhandle and south to the Rio Grande, and into North Texas.

Wednesday the moisture still fell in the Big Bend country and in other portions of Texas.

The Weather Bureau said more rain is expected for the next five days.

FEEDING STOPPED "We have been feeding a truckload of feed every day since Dec. 1 up until July 4," said Miles Pierce, owner of the Pierce Alameda Ranch 15 miles southeast of Alpine. "That has just about broke us. We had moved stock from place to place trying to keep stock in water. This rain has solved our problem and we stopped the feed trucks July 4."

The Altuda Ranch received 4 inches through Wednesday morning after the rain clouds moved in Sunday. Alpine totaled 1.78 inches for the period, Cathedral Mountain Lodge, 15 miles south of Alpine, 3.25. Paisano Baptist encampment grounds, 13 miles west, 2.60, and Kimball Ranch, 14 miles north, 1.70.

Keefey Kimball, immediate past president of the Highland Herd Assn., said, "This was just something that had to happen to this country or it was in terrible condition. The rains should make conditions wonderful."

Roderick Webb, range conservationist for the Soil Conservation Service, said, "The country in general was in very bad condition. Most all ranchmen were feeding or getting ready to feed when the rains came. I believe most every area in my district has had some moisture this spell."

Reports from railroaders and others showed the rains general from El Paso eastward to San Antonio, and from Pecos south to Presidio on the Rio Grande.

The State Highway Department said water temporarily closed an underpass on U.S. 80 in the Sierra Blanca Mountains of far West Texas.

Blanca Mountains of far West Texas.

The Santa Fe chief dispatcher's office at Slaton reported that railroad tracks between Slaton and Tahoka were washed out.

The washout area extends for 30 miles, starting 3 miles from Slaton. It is a branch line which has freight but no passenger service, running from Slaton to Wilson to Tahoka to O'Donnell to Lamesa.

TIES IN AIR At several places the rail and ties were swinging in the air. A total of 11.90 inches of rain fell in the last two days two miles west of Slaton. The overnight fall to 7 a.m. Wednesday was 5.25 inches.

At Wilson, 10 miles from Slaton, the Santa Fe agent reported 11 inches in the last two days. Near midmorning, rains fell 60 miles in all directions from Lubbock, and rains still fell in the Panhandle city shortly after noon.

High water closed many farm roads and some highways. U.S. 84 between Anton and Littlefield had water over the road and traffic was rerouted. Water covered U.S. 82 west of Ralls but traffic could get through. U.S. 84 northwest of Slaton was closed during the morning.

Up to 5 inches fell in some of the counties around Lubbock. Water stood in the flatlands of the South Plains. If it stands long enough it can damage or destroy crops.

WATER FALLS At Buffalo Lake, 10 miles southeast of Lubbock, water ran 6 to 8 inches over the spillway. Waterfalls spilled off the sides of the canyon walls surrounding the lake.

The county agent at Tahoka said extensive damage occurred Monday night from the rain, largely in Lynn and Lubbock counties.

The rain came from a cool front that moved slowly across the state for about two days.

During the morning the Weather Bureau located the front along a line from Palestine to just north of Waco and then southwestward to Presidio. Moist, warm Gulf air, climbing over the cool front, has released its moisture as rain.

North of Lubbock an unofficial 6 inches fell and Paris got 4.74 inches in two days.

Official rainfall totals for the 24 hours preceding 6 a.m. Wednesday included Amarillo 1.03, Lubbock 4.5, Midland 2.16, El Paso .69, Alpine .75, San Angelo 2.4, Abilene 3.66, Wichita Falls .09, Fort Worth .01, Dallas .16.

Daily Average Oil Production Slips

TULSA, Okla. (AP)—With Oklahoma and Kansas reporting the biggest declines, the daily average of domestic crude oil and condensate slipped downward 9,920 barrels to 6,891,640 barrels in the week ended July 2, the Oil and Gas Journal reported today.

In the first six months of the year, the Journal reported that production averaged about 7,040,000 barrels per day or more than 150,000 barrels daily below the figure for the same period in 1959.

Production for the year now totals 1,294,784,300 barrels, or 21,103,900 barrels lower than for the same period last year.

City Water, Sewage Improvements Urged

Improvements in the city's water and sewerage systems at a cost in excess of $2 million were cited as immediate needs and recommended by master planners Forrest and Cotton Tuesday night.

Carl Shimek, of the Dallas consulting engineering firm, said that $2,100,000 is needed to construct the first phase of an expansion program to adequately serve Big Spring's present population and the estimated growth for the next seven years.

Immediate expenditure of $405,000 to correct below standard water-and sewer service in some portions of the city was called for by members of the master plan steering committee, the planning and zoning commission, and the city commission.

PLANE CAUSE OF COLLISION

COLUMBUS, Ga. (AP)—A motorist climbing out of his car after a collision was surprised to discover that a pilotless plane had caused the wreck.

main and sewer lines in those areas which either have no service at all or have inadequate service.

The need to get adequate service to these areas was given heavy emphasis by committee and commission members.

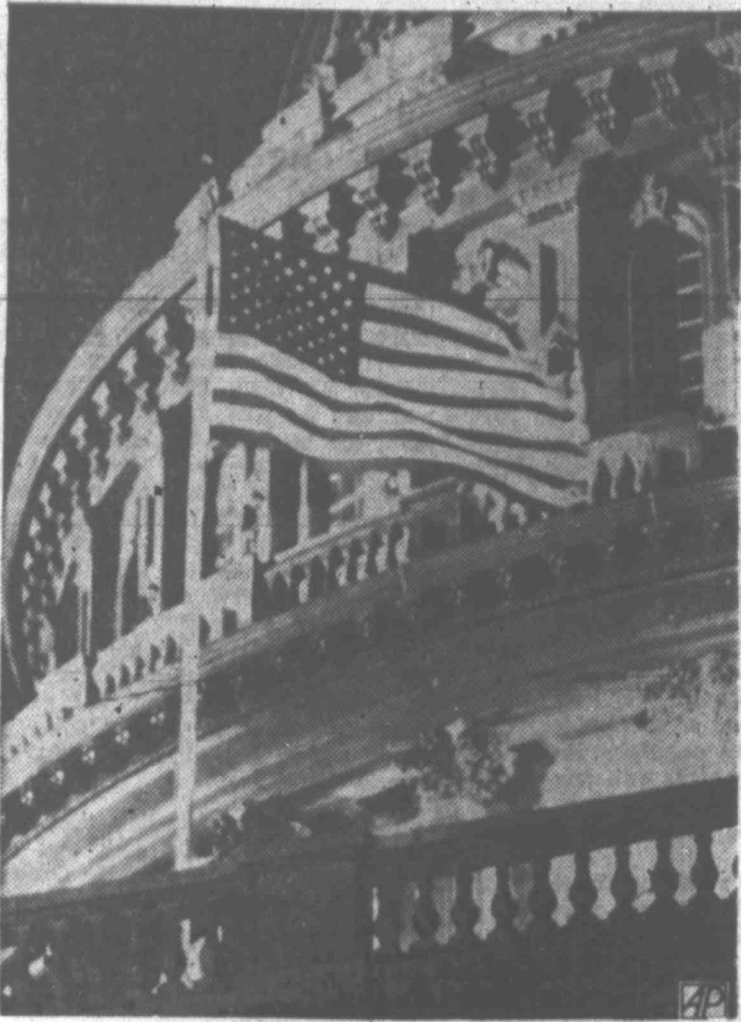

Other recommendations made by Shimek and T. C. Forrest were the addition of a 3,000,000 gallon clearwell storage reservoir at the water treatment plant, expansion of the existing sewage treatment plant, installation of a parallel interceptor sewer to alleviate the overloaded trunk line in Beal's Branch, and an additional sewage line to relieve overloaded downtown lines.

Red Rocket Tests In Pacific Begin

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviets have started their new series of long-range rocket tests to pave the way for attempts at Mars, Venus or putting a man into space. The first of the new rockets was fired into the central Pacific Tuesday, traveling 8,000 miles "in exact accordance with the pre-set program," the Soviets said. The Soviet news agency Tass said the shot "marks the beginning of the testing of new types of powerful, multistage carrier rockets for space exploration." It made no mention of the rockets' military potential as an intercontinental carrier for nuclear weapons. The final stage of the rocket—a dummy of the instrument or man-carrying chamber that would be used in a space probe—reached the water surface in close proximity to the target, Tass said. The range claimed was 850 miles more than that reported for the rocket the Soviets test-fired into the central Pacific in January. The Soviets said that one came within a mile of the target. The United States holds the distance record for rocket shots. A U.S. Atlas ballistic missile traveled 9,000 miles on May 20, from Cape Canaveral into the Indian Ocean. The Defense Department said the Atlas fell in a pre-selected target area. Of the latest test, Tass said the rocket's dummy last stage had been "adapted for passage through dense layers of the atmosphere." This could indicate that the Soviets are preparing to try to bring back and recover a nose cone from outer space, a necessary preliminary to sending a man into space. As in the first Soviet Pacific rocket test, this series was announced well in advance. Tass repeated previous warnings to ships to stay out of the impact area until the shots are concluded by July 31. The target area is a 50,000-square-mile zone about 600 miles south of Johnson Atoll, which the United States uses as a naval base.

Skelton Sees Lyndon Support

TEMPLE (AP)—Sen. Lyndon Johnson's formal announcement as a candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination should crystallize support for the Texan in a number of states, Bryon Skelton said Tuesday. Skelton, national Democratic committeeman from Texas and one of the co-chairmen of Texas Johnson for president clubs, praised Johnson's press conference Tuesday in Washington. He said it showed Johnson's statesmanship and his grasp of government affairs and the world situation. Skelton said that now that Johnson has formally announced, it would be possible to consolidate latent support for the Texan in other states.

Methodists Set Youth Week Plans

Youth Activities Week, having as its theme, "Where Do We Grow From Here?" has been scheduled at the First Methodist Church for the week of July 17-22. All young people, from junior high age and up in the Big Spring area, are invited to take part in the activities. Each evening's program will be in gin with a supper at 6 p.m. in Fellowship Hall. Following the supper, classes for junior high, senior high and older youth will be held. The senior high class will discuss the "Methodist Way of Life" and "Men Jesus Made." The junior high group has set as its study program, "My Church, and My Life."

August Draft Call To Get 7 Local Youths

Nation-wide draft notices have been issued for the month of August and Big Spring is required to fulfill seven places in the 8,000 figure. The figure is broken down into state-wide quotas and issued to the different state boards. The state board in turn gives each local board throughout the state a minimum quota for draft. The quota cannot be filled with enlistees, but only through drafted men who have had their physical examination and are ready for active duty. Officials at the local board say that the seven men who will be called for the August quota likely will be more than 22 years of age and who have taken their physical examination six or eight months ago. These draftees are required to go through two years of active duty in the Army. At the end of the two years, they are then put in the "Ready Reserve," where they are required to attend weekly reserve meetings and a two-week camp in the summer. When these two years are completed, the person is put into the "Stand-By Reserve" which has no weekly meetings or summer camp.

Airline Contract Gets Study; Changes Due

Contract with the Continental Airlines for use of the Howard County Airport was studied by the Howard County Commissioners Court and the Airport Advisory Committee Tuesday. A suggested contract submitted by the airlines was considered but the commissioners will suggest some changes before the paper is signed, it was announced. The airlines wanted a one-year contract and set up certain suggested terms. These were not all acceptable to the county. The Airport Advisory committee re-elected Clyde McMahon as chairman and then named him chairman of the group. Dr. M. W. Talbot Jr. was named secretary. Other members of the advisory board are H. C. Tidwell, J. D. Carter and Jack Guiley. Also present at the meeting was Dick Standefur, operator of the airport. The commissioners considered a suggestion to pave a sizeable area adjacent to the administration building to enable planes to taxi closer to the building. The court said that the improvement would probably be made as soon as arrangements can be worked out to do the job. Standefur said that business was booming at the airport Tuesday morning. Fourteen planes caught in the inclement weather landed at the field. He said that business at the airport was making satisfactory showing.

Oklahoma Vote Held

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — A surprising comeback by former U. S. Rep. Victor Wickersham, Mangum, highlighted Oklahoma's primary election Tuesday. Sen. Robert S. Kerr and the state's five other congressmen were nominated without runoffs. Wickersham apparently edged incumbent Toby Morris of Lawton to win the Democratic nomination in western Oklahoma's Sixth District. With all but 3 of the 655 precincts counted, Wickersham held a 563-vote lead. The unofficial tally was 40,315 to 39,352. This was the fourth clash between the two men, and evened the score at 2-2. Wickersham won eight years ago, then Morris ousted him in 1956 and held his seat by an 81-vote margin two years ago. Kerr, seeking his third term in the Senate, routed a pair of political unknowns in the Democratic primary. An unofficial count of 2,949 of 3,219 precincts gave Kerr 272,698 votes to 59,506 for Midwest City dentist Thomas C. Dunn and 20,280 for Keota rancher D. R. Condo. Democratic Reps. Ed Edmondson of Muskogee, John Jarman of Oklahoma City and Tom Steed of Shawnee won nomination to new terms without runoffs. Rep. Carl Albert of McAlester, the House whip, and Rep. Page Belcher of Enid, lone Republican in the state delegation, had no primary opponents.

Scout Camp Scheduled For Camp Murphy

Scout Troops of the Lone Star District will hold their Golden Jubilee Camporee July 22-23 at Camp Ed Murphy on Lake J. B. Thomas. The troops from the Lone Star District will arrive at the camp site about 8:30 p.m. July 22 and begin preparations for the camporee. Included on the program for the camporee are such Scout orientations as star recognitions, sound and smell recognitions and various types of signaling. Scouts will also learn to maneuver in the dark without benefit of flashlights. First-aid, compass-reading and fire - building also are planned in the indoctrination drills. Scouts will learn the methods of map-making, tent-building, observation and judging, and nature identification. Most of the activities will terminate about 9 p.m. July 23, but some of the campers may stay over until Sunday morning, July 24. In such case, church services will be held for those staying.

Mrs. Land, Mrs. March Are New Rebekah Noble Grands

Local Rebekah lodges held installation services Tuesday evening, and Mrs. Garland Land became noble grand of the John A. Kee lodge while Mrs. Neal Marsh was installed in that position in the Big Spring lodge.

JOHN A. KEE

In a formal installation of officers, Mrs. Garland Land became the noble grand of the John A. Kee Rebekah Lodge, and Mrs. Irene Dempsey was installed as vice grand.

Conducting the ceremony was Mrs. C. A. McDonald, lodge deputy, and her staff, Mrs. Jones Lamar, deputy marshal; Mrs. Charlie Boland, deputy musician; Mrs. B. E. Winterrowd, deputy chaplain; Mrs. M. O. Hamby, deputy inside guardian, and Mrs. Grace Grandstaff, deputy outside guardian.

At the far end of the hall stood a rustic cross decorated with white and pink dogwood blossoms; it is Mrs. Land's emblem. In the center of the cross was written her theme, "Love." Her scripture is John 3:16. White pink and green are her chosen colors.

The cross was spotlighted as Mrs. Boland sang "The Old Rugged Cross."

Mrs. Letha Massie, past noble grand, was presented her jewel by Mrs. Lamar, along with a money corsage from the members. Mrs. Boland rendered "The End of a Perfect Day."

Other officers installed were musician, Mrs. Morgan Martin; chaplain, Mrs. John Cate; warder, Mrs. Horace Smith; conductor, Mrs. Joe Nixon; RSNL, Mrs. O. G. Burns; LSNL, Mrs. Charles Lock.

Color bearer will be Mrs. J. H. Eastham; Rebekah color bearer, Mrs. S. P. Wink, inside guardian, Mrs. L. E. Robertson; outside guardian, Mrs. Gertrude Wasson; RSNL, Mrs. Leon Cole, LSNL, Mrs. L. Z. Marchbanks; RSPNG, Mrs. Roger Miller; LSPNG, Mrs. W. W. Grant; IS Chaplain, Mrs. Rebecca Robertson; and LS chaplain, Mrs. Jane Gray.

arrangement of pink candelabra in twisted dogwood branches, refreshments were served to 60 members and three guests, Mrs. L. T. Morrison and Mrs. B. R. White of Hub City Rebekah Lodge No. 299 in Lubbock and Mrs. R. H. Hickman of Clover Leaf Lodge in Houston.

Hosts were Mrs. Miller, Mrs. L. L. Robertson, Mrs. Grady Sudberry and Garland Land.

BIG SPRING

Mrs. Neal Marsh became noble grand and Mrs. Harvey Harris vice grand of the Big Spring Rebekah Lodge No. 284 Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Inis Greave, district deputy president of District 2, with her officers, installed the new leaders.

Other officers installed included Mrs. Pete Bronaugh, warden; Mrs. Earl Wilson, conductor; Mrs. Eglee Patterson, chaplain; Mrs. Melvin Newton, musician; Mrs. Claude Gilliland, inside guardian; Mrs. Earl Hughes, outside guardian; Mrs. Tom McAdams, color bearer; Mrs. A. C. Wilkerson, Rebekah color bearer; and Mrs. S. M. Casselman, Texas color bearer.

Mrs. C. D. Herring and Mrs. Beulah Morrison are right and left supports to the noble grand; RSPNG, Mrs. A. Griffith; Mrs. Harris chose Mrs. Irene Gross and Mrs. Eugene Thomas as her supports. Supports for the chaplain are Mrs. B. Wright and Mrs. Eula Pond.

"Take Time for Others" is Mrs. Marsh's theme. Emblems will be the clock and the letter R. Her slogan is "Being a Rebekah around the clock." The yellow rose was chosen as her favorite flower. The noble grand's scripture is II Timothy 2:15, and aim is "The happiness of others."

In back of the noble grand's station, the wall was covered with green paper and "Take Time for Others" was spelled out with large pink letters. A clock was in the center with colored numerals. The hall was decorated with green, pink, white and yellow streamers.

The table was covered with a lace cloth over a pink underlay. An arrangement of roses was used.

Out of town guests included four members of the Berta H. Porter Rebekah Lodge No. 260 in Lamesa, and two members of the Lamesa Rebekah Lodge No. 90.

Among local members was Mrs. A. L. Beale, who has just returned from two years on Guam where her husband has been stationed. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Gross.

A total of 45 members was present.

Miss Jackson Speaks On 4-H Work

Neva Jackson, a 4-H member from Knott, was the speaker at the Fairview Home Demonstration Club meeting Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Jackson told of her trip to the state fair as the representative of District One in the 4-H state dress review. There will be a dress review July 21 at HCJC, she stated.

The speaker displayed a 4-H Club book that she is keeping. She told the club that 4-H work had given her more confidence in herself and her abilities.

Mrs. C. R. McCleary was hostess for the session. Mrs. Frank Wilson presided in the absence of the president and vice president.

An all-day meeting is being planned for July 19 at the Knott home of Mrs. Shirley Fryar. The group will meet at 9 a.m. to study outdoor cooking.

Mrs. Jarratt To Be WMU President

Mrs. H. M. Jarratt will be president of the Baptist Temple WMU for the coming year, it was decided at the meeting Tuesday morning.

Mrs. D. C. Boren opened with session with prayer. The devotion was brought by Mrs. Jarratt on "Be Thou Faithful Unto Death." Silent prayer followed, with Mrs. A. R. Posey concluding.

"Woman's Missionary Union," by Alma Hunt, will be the next study book of the group, it was announced.

On July 19 the next Royal Service program will be given. The Brotherhood of the church will be invited to join in the evening meal. In charge of the program is the Evan Holmes Circle.

The cape and crown for having the most members of her circle present was won by Mrs. Boren. The benediction for 10 members was given by Mrs. Jim Leath. The WMU Round Table met after the meeting, choosing the book to be read for the month.

Louisiana Guests

Guests in the home of Dr. Eileen McAvoy, 1709 Purdue, are Mrs. Raymond Voss and Mrs. Gladys Miller, both of Baton Rouge, La.

SPADERS TO HEAR ARRANGER

Mrs. Obie Bristow of the Big Spring Garden Club will be the speaker for members of the Spaders Garden Club Thursday at 9:30 a.m. in the home of Mrs. Norman English, 2501 Alabama.

This is a change in the place and time which was announced for the session. Flower arranging is the topic on which the program is based. Mrs. Bristow is a national flower show judge and the session is in preparation for the coming Fall Flower Show, slated for October.

It took an encounter with a power lawn mower for Marie Long, right, a registered nurse, to allow her partner, Sybil Mitchell, to take over the care and bandaging of her injured foot. This is just a typical example of the give and take which these two lady farmers have employed to make their unique partnership and business ventures a success.

Farming Partnership Is Curiosity To Friends

By VIVIAN LEE
LAMESA—Sybil Mitchell and Marie Long, Lamesa's lady farmers, are a familiar team to Lamesa, yet their unique partnership fascinates even their closest friends.

They share many interests and seldom disagree; because they both feel there's nothing more fun than watching something grow, their farming operations, which began as an avocation, are fast becoming an occupation.

Sybil and Marie met when the latter, a registered nurse came to Lamesa from Tennessee in 1940 to become surgical nurse for the now defunct Price-Black Hospital; by 1941, they were sharing an apartment. Sybil was operating a drive-in cafe, and Marie was in public health nursing at that time.

When Marie's job transferred her to Fort Worth, Sybil went along and worked for Conair where she was employed till the end of World War II. Marie served a hitch in the U. S. Army Nurses Corps, and the pair returned to Lamesa in 1947.

They wanted to buy land then. And they could have—for about $50 an acre—if they'd had the money. Instead, they bought their first property, a residential lot, and put their partnership on a real business basis. They built a four room contemporary home of Aus-

Turn-About

Marie went to work for a local doctor, while Sybil took on the duties as parts manager for an auto firm. Sybil is as much at home in a garage as on a tractor as she is behind the wheel of the girls' 1959 air-conditioned Oldsmobile.

Although visitors may think it odd, natives are not in the least surprised to see the sleek car pull off the Lubbock highway just north of town, and the two women emerge get their hoes, and start down the rows of irrigated cotton on their 35-acre patch together.

Getting up between midnight and 2 a.m. to drive out to change the water has been a joint project of the girls, too. But for the next month or so, Sybil will be farming alone. Marie couldn't go back to sleep after the midnight water changing chore, so she was moving the lawn at daybreak and got her foot in the power mower. A couple of broken toes and a big toe without a nail have curtailed her farming activities temporarily.

Neither of the girls will admit they feel the "planting on the twin sign" is the reason for their good luck. They have engaged the services of Texas Tech agricultural professor Dr. Elle, as a consultant for their irrigated farming operation this year and are following his recommendations.

Dr. Elle is quite taken with his clients, and the two were amused when a communication from his was addressed simply "Dear Farmer Mitchell." They first met Dr. Elle, Sybil and Marie convinced him of their earnestness about farming. They simply told him they wouldn't be satisfied with a bale and half to the acre; they wanted two and a half.

Fishing and politics interest these two women almost as much as farming. They are avid Democrats (the real kind) and were two of Dawson County's delegates to the state Democratic convention in 1956. They even stopped in Uvalde for a visit with John Nance Garner that summer.

These farmers now number among their tangible and intangible assets two irrigation wells, their land, a home, furniture, their new car, two Pekinese dogs and a bond of common interests and understanding.

Even those who know them best wonder if Sybil, a shrewd business woman, and Marie, a public school nurse, won't one of these days give up their respective careers and devote their full time to being "lady farmers."

first time the designers will show their collections under one roof. In the past, the 11 members that make up the Roman "alta moda" couture houses showed their collections separately and at different locations, making it difficult for out-of-town buyers and fashion writers.

Irene Brin, a pint-sized energetic writer for Italian, Spanish and American magazines, was instrumental in getting the fashion houses together.

Miss Brin, with the Roman couturiers, worked out a compact, co-ordinated package at the Palazzo Venezia. The show will last three days.

On July 12 boutique and accessory collections will be on view in the mosaic acre that used to be the private office of Benito Mussolini.

The actual showings will begin the following day in an adjoining room, massive with fresco and hung with a mammoth chandelier.

The last day will bring out the big guns: Fontana, Gattinoni, De Luca, Eleonora Garnett, and Baratta.

Rumors are rampant that the unfitted-fit is the big news in Italian fashion, and color, long a mainstay, is brighter than ever. Fernanda Gattinoni and Eleonora Garnett are the feminists of the Roman group. Floaty chiffon, one of Garnett's favorite media is in every collection she makes. Gattinoni, famous for embroidery, always presents glittering examples of jeweling on the most elaborate fabrics.

Gattinoni is also working on a new skirt she says is "a slight triangle with a lot of shape and a little stiffening." She claims it will be becoming to all figures.

De Luca, who has done tricky sleeves before, is planning to do something revolutionary with the arm. "I have created a new proportion that widens the top and skimps the skirt."

Fontana will only promise that her collection is rich with some of the most beautiful and sumptuous evening clothes ever made.

July Is Not So Kind To Yankees As June

when they lose two in a row for the first time in more than a month, but find their American League lead whittled to one game.

That's what happened when they were held to three hits by Pete Ramos and Chuck Stobbs, blew a 3-0 lead and lost 5-3 in 10 innings at Washington Tuesday night. Art Ditmar, who had won five straight, was tagged for the loss after following Ralph Terry and Bob Turley to the mound.

Ace Hurlers Getting Lots Of Relief Work

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer

The way top clubs are using starting pitchers in relief these days, you'd think it was the final week of the pennant race in the National League.

Even the first-place Pittsburgh Pirates have fallen into the trend, calling on Bob Friend for a save Tuesday night as they beat Milwaukee 5-4 in 10 innings on Rocky Nelson's second home run for a 4½-game lead over the second-place Braves.

The Pirates, shut out for eight innings, hadn't called on a starting pitcher for relief all season. But it's nothing new among the Braves or the third-place San Francisco Giants.

Braves have used Warren Spahn, Lew Burdette and Bob Buhl a total of 11 times, in starts and relief, in the last 13 games. Mike McCormick, Johnny Antonelli and Jack Sanford have made 11 appearances in the Giants' last eight games under Tom Sheehan.

McCormick, making his fourth appearance in six days, was no match for southpaw Johnny Podres, who allowed just four hits as Los Angeles whipped the Giants 9-0. St. Louis defeated Chicago's Cubs 3-2, and Philadelphia beat Cincinnati 2-0 behind a four-hitter by Robin Roberts.

Softball Teams Needed For Forsan Tournament

James Blake, Forsan, said today that only five teams have entered the Forsan softball tournament which is scheduled to take place July 11-16.

The tournament was originally planned as a double-elimination affair, but Blake said unless more teams enter the meet, it may have to be cancelled.

Coca Cola, Temple Baptist, and Foremost are the only Big Spring teams entered along with the Forsan team.

Sarazen: Grand Slam Would Be Top Feat

By JOHN FARROW
ST. ANDREWS, Scotland (AP) — Gene Sarazen, the old master who has spanned four decades of championship golf, said today that a grand slam by Arnold Palmer would be superior even to that of the legendary Bobby Jones. Palmer with the American Open and Masters titles already under his belt, today started shooting for the third big one—the 72-hole British Open championship.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

T. A. Smith, a local grocer and baseball enthusiast, have purchased 51 per cent of the stock in the Big Spring Tigers and will direct the business affairs of the local contingent of the remainder of the season.

For a time there, it appeared the club would be ripped apart because of disagreements over the manner in which the books were being kept. Several of the star players quit for a time.

The team is now leading the New Mex-Tex league and, from all indications, no one can head it off. A sizeable bonus awaits the winner of the circuit at the end of play.

The Tigers have more history behind them than any other area baseball team. In good years and bad, they've managed to keep going and, from all indications, they're fielding one of their all-time best contingents.

John Conley, Snyder's astute head football coach, says that Dick Hayes—who will represent the Tigers in this year's Texas Coaches Association All-Star football game at Dallas—is the best athlete he's ever coached.

That's quite a statement, considering the fact that John was at the helm of the Tigers when Jack Spikes was roaming the football ranges in West Texas.

The speedy Hayes, who wrecked Big Spring both as a halfback and a quarterback, is bound for Texas Tech.

He'll be hard to replace in the Tiger backfield. It wouldn't surprise me to see DeWitt Weaver, the Tech mentor, move him back to halfback.

The SMU 1959-60 basketball team—of which Big Spring's Jan Loudermilk was a member—drew an average paid attendance of 6,566 fans for ten home games the past season.

That's triple the average of 2,167 for the 1955 campaign, and the attendance was considered good at that time.

Marty Marion and Enos (Country) Slaughter, one-time teammates on the St. Louis Cardinals, are reportedly cool to each other at Houston.

Marion owns part of the Houston American Association club while Slaughter is its manager.

Marty has the idea that Country should be in the lineup and thereby bolster attendance. Slaughter has been favoring injuries and insists he's not able to play.

Slaughter has reached the time in life when he serves a rest, too. He's 44 and that's ancient for a baseball player. He hurt his chest in a collision with a heavily-armored catcher early in the season.

The coach of the U.S. Olympic wrestling team has requested that the team be outfitted with Elmer Tarbox's Handicaps, in order to get his charges in the best possible shape for the August campaigning in Rome.

Elmer plans to donate the weights to the team as his contribution toward the Olympic fund, which is sorely in need of help at the present time.

The Olympic grapplers will make use of both the arm and leg weights manufactured by the local concern.

Pros In Canadian Open Beef About Condition Of Greens

TORONTO (AP) — The 51st Canadian Open Golf Championship over the suburban St. George's course got under way today with the pros complaining about the state of the greens.

Most of the field of 147 toured the 6,516-yard par-72 course Tuesday and comments were caustic.

The grippers preferred to remain anonymous and the general theme was that the lightning-fast, spiked greens probably won't stand the gaff of all the traffic, observed one pro who carded a three-under-par 69 practice round.

The late starters will have to give away a couple of strokes," commented another. "The greens are full of spike marks — no good," he added.

The field is probably one of the strongest in the history of the tournament. Among the starters are six former winners, including three-time champion Sam Snead of White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., and defending champion Doug Ford of Crystal River, Fla., who turned in a four-under-par 68 practice-round Tuesday.

With Snead and Ford are former winners, George Bayer of Gabriel, Calif.; Doug Sanders of Miami Beach, Fla., 1956 winner; West Ellis, Jr. of Aldersee, N. J., titleholder in 1958, and veteran Jim Ferrier of San Francisco, who pocketed the first-place money in 1950 and 1951.

DEAR ABBY

TOBACCO HABIT

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I never thought I'd see the day when I'd write to a newspaper for advice, but here I am. Our problem is our 16-year-old son. He has become so addicted to cigarettes that if he doesn't have one he gets jittery and his hands shake.

We have explained the dangers of smoking and have had our doctor explain it to him. He says he knows all those things, but he can't stop now. We've taken away his privileges and punished him in every way possible, but it has not helped. He's gone without lunches to buy cigarettes, and if he has no money to buy them, he'll beg one. Now what can we do?

PARENTAL FAILURES
DEAR PARENTS: If a 16-year-old boy is to overcome the cigarette habit, he must do it the same way other cigarette slaves do. First, the boy himself must sincerely WANT to stop smoking. If he wants to badly enough, his own determination will create the inner strength it requires. Without it—all else is futile.

DEAR ABBY: I have been married for four months. A baby is on the way. My husband and I were not meant for each other and divorce is the only way out. Believe me, I am certain this marriage cannot last for reasons I would rather not mention here. My parents tell me that I should not consider divorcing my husband until after the baby is born. I am living with him now only for appearances, but I am definitely going to get rid of him as soon as I have this baby. What I want to know is, can I get my maiden name back?

MATTER OF TIME
DEAR MATTER: This is a matter for a lawyer. Under the circumstances, the court (for judge) usually tries to dissuade a mother from resuming her maiden name because it could reflect on the child. Think it over.

DEAR ABBY: The man I am going to marry has been married and divorced. I am 24 and he is 34. He has two daughters, 7 and 9, and his ex-wife uses them for all they are worth to keep in close touch with their Daddy. She coached the girls to ask him if they could be flower girls at our wedding. When he suggested it, I hit the ceiling. I feel that his daughters and their mother do not belong in the wedding party. Some of my friends think I am being small and narrow-minded. My fiance says it is up to me. May I have your opinion?

BEA-WILDERED
DEAR BEA-WILDERED: I am in your corner. Your fiance's children do not belong in your wedding party. Furthermore, it is very poor taste for a discarded mate (and/or the children) to attend an "ex's" second wedding.

AF To Check Atlas Delays

WASHINGTON (AP)—Reported delays in construction of launching sites for Atlas missiles will be checked by the Air Force. Secretary of Defense Thomas S. Gates has told the Air Force he wants a detailed progress statement this week, a Pentagon spokesman said Tuesday night.

The check apparently relates to at least two major projects, the ICBM sites at Offutt Air Force Base, Omaha, and Francis E. Warren Air Force Base, Cheyenne, Wyo. The inquiry will cover the status of work at various missile bases, schedules of materials used, quality of construction work and other factors.

The Air Force vice chief of staff Gen. Curtis E. LeMay, said last month that slippages in the projects at Cheyenne might delay the operational readiness date there as much as six months.

Judge Orders Addison To File Creditors List

DALLAS (AP)—Uranium promoter John Milton Addison was ordered to file a complete list of all his creditors Tuesday by U.S. Dist. Judge T. Whitfield Davidson.

The judge said Addison was to supply the names, addresses and amounts of money owed by July 14. Davidson continued the bankruptcy hearing against Addison until July 18.

The judge issued the order at the end of a hearing on a creditor's motion for a summary judgment of bankruptcy.

He cautioned Addison and his attorneys that the information requested must be supplied "in good faith" and any failure to do so will be "dealt with harshly."

"At that time (July 18) I want the attorneys for the petitioning creditors to have all the information assembled about the case," the judge said.

Davidson noted that the petitioning creditor's claim amounted to $20,000 and the government holds more than $100,000 in a bag confiscated from Addison last summer.

He said that "putting the $20,000 claim against the $100,000, it wouldn't appear to a layman that this man is bankrupt."

Attorneys representing three creditors said there were many more Addison creditors and his total debts were more than $1,250,000. They had asked that Addison be declared bankrupt and his assets and property be turned over to a receiver.

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Things haven't been too funny on the set of "The Facts of Life," a Hollywood comedy.

Lucille Ball fell into a boat Friday during filming of a scene with Bob Hope, and suffered a black eye, scrapes and bruises. She was hospitalized.

Then supporting actor Don DeFore hurt his back while doing a slapstick scene—aggravating an old injury. He went to another hospital.

Mel Frank, producer-director of the film, broke an ankle while golfing. He was back at work Tuesday—on crutches.

David Golding, the movie's publicity man, is down with the mumps. Hope is keeping his fingers crossed.

2 Odessa Women Killed In Crash

PECOS, Tex. (AP)—Two Odessa women died Tuesday night in a highway crash which state highway patrolmen said apparently was caused when a truck driver suffered a heart attack.

Killed in the car-truck crash 17 miles east of Pecos in West Texas were Mrs. Shirley McGee, 24, and Mrs. Ella May McGee, about 52. Three small daughters of Mrs. McGee suffered injuries which were not thought to be serious.

Officers said truck driver Floyd M. Calley, about 63, of Pecos, lost control of his truck after suffering a light heart attack. They said he was expected to recover.

Yarborough Cagery On Lyndon Support

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Ralph Yarborough Tuesday said he would support Lyndon Johnson's formal announcement of his candidacy for the Democratic presidential nomination.

"I think it was a very forceful statement. That about covers it." Asked whether he will support Johnson's candidacy at the national convention, Yarborough said, "I certainly would not throw any stumbling block in his way."

"I will be in Los Angeles and will testify Friday before the convention's Platform Committee on national resources, education, veterans affairs and problems of the aged. I am not a delegate to the convention," he said.

Yarborough said he felt the convention has a strong field of candidates and added: "I have no derogatory remarks about any of them."

"I'm not fighting anybody," he said, "and will support the ticket loyally."

Texas Democrats in the House and Texas Gov. Price Daniel, who was across the country on the West Coast, a longtime political mentor who will offer the Texan as a nominee at the Los Angeles convention, called Johnson's handling of his news conference here "a masterful performance."

Rep. Olin Teague of Bryan, another at the conference, declared: "I feel that any delegate throughout the country who will review the record of Sen. Johnson suggested, will support him. I think he is the best man in the United States today for the presidency and has shown more leadership than any other man in or out of government."

Describing Johnson's statement as "magnificent," Rep. Homer Thornberry of Austin said: "He based his candidacy on the great need which exists for strong leadership for America and the entire free world. In my opinion, the people of the nation will respond to this splendid challenge."

Among others at the news conference were Reps. Clark Thompson of Galveston and J. T. Rutherford of Odessa.

Remarks that Johnson made a good statement came from four House members who are the only ones of 21 Texas Democrats in the House not named Democratic convention delegates—Reps. Albert Thomas and Bob Casey of Houston, John Dowdy of Athens and Jack Brooks of Beaumont.

Gov. Daniel, interviewed at Portland during a trip through Oregon, predicted Johnson's formal announcement would gain him votes from previously uncommitted delegates.

"I think also that Johnson will be helped by bringing the convention 'rigging out in the open,'" said Daniel, referring to charges by some Democrats that the convention has been rigged to capture the nomination for Sen. John F. Kennedy. "I think that will hurt Kennedy."

Flier Killed

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP)—Air Vice Marshall Keith L. B. Hodson, 44, deputy chief of operations at North American Air Defense command, was killed Tuesday parachuting from a disabled T-37 jet trainer. He was one of Canada's top airmen. His rank was equivalent to a U.S. Air Force major general.

Earhart Execution Evidence Studied

LOS ANGELES (AP)—An Air Force officer says security officers are evaluating what he believes to be conclusive evidence that the Japanese executed aviator Amelia Earhart.

Miss Earhart and navigator Fred Noonan disappeared in July 1937 while crossing the Pacific on a projected round-the-world flight. Capt. Paul Brian Jr. said Tuesday that an Air Force officer has photographic evidence and affidavits from 72 eyewitnesses to the capture and execution of Miss Earhart and Noonan.

And, said Brian, Capt. Joseph Gervais wrote him he had found a prewar Japanese mandate island of Saipan, "the original and only burial site of Amelia Earhart and Fred Noonan."

Gervais' investigation was not an official Air Force inquiry. It was the second time in five days that unofficial investigators have found evidence that the Japanese killed the U.S. fliers.

Brian is author of a book titled "Daughter of the Sky" in which he proposes a theory that the Americans landed far off course at Saipan and were executed to keep them from telling the world that the Japanese were secretly fortifying the island.

But in Tokyo a former imperial navy captain denied that such an execution occurred.

Zenshiro Hoshina was, in 1937, chief of the section of the Naval Affairs Bureau handling executions.

"I absolutely deny it," he told newsmen who told him of Brian's report. "No such execution could have taken place without my knowledge and approval."

Japanese authorities earlier had denied a report publicized last Friday that Miss Earhart's plane had crashed off Saipan and that she and Noonan had been reportedly executed.

That report came from an investigation by a team of newsmen from the Columbia Broadcasting System and the San Mateo (Calif.) Times. They recovered a generator from a plane they believed to be Miss Earhart's Lockheed-built craft.

Aircraft technicians still are studying the device to determine if it could have been from her plane.

Brian, 39, an assistant professor of English at the Air Force Academy, said the Air Force had placed a security classification on the photographs and affidavits obtained by Capt. Gervais.

Sect Retreats To Await An Atom Attack

BENSON, Ariz. (AP)—Members of a small religious sect apparently are barricaded in their sealed homes and church awaiting an atomic attack, from which they expect to be the only survivors, a sheriff's officer reports.

Known as the Full Gospel Assembly, the group is believed to include about 20 families. Their homes and church are close together on the outskirts of this small southern Arizona town.

"It's like a bomb down there," Deputy Sheriff Ray Coffey said Tuesday night. "There isn't a soul around, not even a dog. They don't answer their telephones or their doors."

"In the past couple of weeks they've bought at least $30,000 to $50,000 of food. I saw some of them load about $25,000 worth into a truck at a wholesale house in Tucson myself."

"The neighbors tell me they carted the food into their homes until after midnight Monday. Then they must have sealed themselves in because they sure aren't around now."

"All of the windows and doors on the houses are covered with newspapers and tape. They've even covered their evaporative coolers and plugged keyholes. I guess they're afraid of radiation or something."

"From what I gather, they figure they'll be the only ones left after this attack."

Authorities became aware of the situation Tuesday when Warren Burke of Benson complained that his wife and four children were refusing to eat.

Burke, who is not a member of the sect, told officers his wife recently had talked vaguely about the church, the world's end and atomic attacks.

Members of the sect arrived in Benson about six months ago from Columbus, Ohio. Coffey said their leader is the Rev. Ann Welmer, a former Assembly of God minister.

Democrats Faced With 'Vat' Crisis

By JOE LEWIS

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The Democrats, who take pride in being the party that repealed prohibition, are faced with a crisis of vast proportions.

As convivial a bunch of two-titled drinkers as any other political party, the Democrats won't be able to buy, sell or drink liquor in the Sports Arena, site of the 1960 convention.

And when they go next door to the huge outdoor Coliseum for the final session and the Democratic presidential nominee's acceptance speech, it will be a time for sober reflection. The same rules apply there, too.

A raft of restrictions imposed by the state-county-city commission that runs the Sports Arena and the Coliseum won't even permit the party of the bourbon to buy a beer on the premises.

"No one around here is old enough to remember a similar ban," a spokesman at convention headquarters noted dryly. He added: "It looks like the bar across the street is going to do a helluva business."

The Democratic party isn't seeking a reputation as guardian of guzzlers, he noted, but a cool brew or two has been known to allay frayed tempers in the heat of a sizzling convention.

James E. Doyle, executive director of the Adlai Stevenson campaign committee, commented: "Liquor is not considered a necessity in the Democratic convention hall. Unlike the oratory at the Republican convention, the Democrats' speeches are never dry."

For those who need some form of liquid refreshment, there will be plenty of healthful California orange juice, soda pop, milk, iced tea and coffee.

That's the promise of Carolyn Latimer, coordinating secretary for the various California host committees charged with keeping the delegates happy.

"Besides," she added primly, "the convention will be stimulating enough without liquor."

Leaders in the architects' profession in Texas will be in Big Spring Monday for joint meetings of three groups: The executive committee of the Texas Society of Architects; the West Texas chapter of the TSA, and the Abilene chapter of the TSA.

Big Spring is affiliated in the West Texas chapter, which also includes San Angelo, Midland and Odessa.

TSA executive committeemen expected here include Jack Corrigan, Dallas, president; Robert P. Woltz, Fort Worth, a past president; Arthur Feur, Austin, secretary and treasurer; Harold E. Calhoun, Houston; James E. Atchison, Lubbock; Ed Carroll, El Paso; and John Flowers, executive director of the association.

The committee is to convene at 11 a.m. Monday in the offices of Puckett & French, and have a discussion on general professional affairs, and particularly developments in West Texas.

Members of the two chapters are to be here later in the day. There will be a hospitality period Monday evening at the Settles Hotel, followed by a dinner at Coker's Restaurant.

Castro To Seize U.S. Property If Sugar Quota Not Increased

HAVANA (AP)—Fidel Castro's Cabinet today authorized him to expropriate all American property in Cuba and pay for it only if the United States buys more—not less—Cuban sugar at premium prices.

The new seizure decree, drafted by the Cabinet at a session last night, authorized President Osvaldo Dorticos or the prime minister to take over any property owned by U.S. companies or citizens in Cuba "when deemed necessary in the national interest."

The law also provides for expropriation of companies in which U.S. citizens may have "interest or participation." An example is the British-Dutch Shell Oil refinery whose operation along with the U.S. Esso and Texaco refineries was taken over by the government last week.

The Cabinet said the expropriation was authorized because of "the constantly aggressive attitude" of the U.S. government and particularly the authority given President Eisenhower by Congress to reduce Cuba's sugar sales to the United States.

Underlining the retaliatory nature of the action, the decree pinned compensation for the seized property directly to American sugar purchases.

It said the American owners would be paid in 2-1/2 percent, 30-year Cuban government bonds backed by a special fund. But the fund is to come from 25 percent of the dollars paid for sugar sales to the United States in excess of 3 million tons a year and at a price of 5 1/2 cents a pound or more.

Cuba's sugar quota this year is 3,100,000 tons, and sugar industry sources in Washington expect Eisenhower to cut it perhaps 700,000 tons. That would put American purchases 600,000 tons below the figure at which the first dollar would go into the compensation fund.

The decree also put a super-premium price on Cuban sugar before the American owners can be repaid: The United States has been paying about 5 1/2 cents a pound, or about 2 1/2 cents above the world market price.

The decree specified that expropriation edicts could not be applied.

It also contained what appeared to be a retroactive clause stating that it annulled all "legal dispositions and regulations that are opposed to the application of this law."

The decree gave no indication of the next target for seizure but the Cuban Electric Co. is assumed to be high on the list. Half of its 300-million-dollar valuation is American held, and it is the largest single American holding in Cuba.

Congo Soldiers Protest Use Of Belgian Officers

LEOPOLDVILLE, Congo (AP)—About 200 soldiers of the Congo army demonstrated for several hours today in front of the infant African nation's Parliament building, demanding removal of all their white Belgian officers.

Other soldiers mutinied Tuesday night in Thysville, 75 miles southwest of the capital, and imprisoned their white officers.

The demonstrators in Leopoldville at one point roughed up the army's Belgian commander, Gen. Emile Janssen, and seized his pistol.

They finally marched back to their barracks after speeches by Prime Minister Patrice Lumumba and other government ministers.

The demonstration was confined largely to the Parliament building and the barracks. Otherwise life in the capital continued much as usual.

There were reports that the rebellious soldiers also want higher pay.

The force has no commissioned Congolese officers. It has been inviolable to the Belgians in maintaining order in this nation where intertribal quarrelling and killing have existed for years and have flared again in the political uncertainties of independence.

The Belgian officers are remaining at the invitation of the Congo government.

Jury Hears Liner Case

A jury of four women and two men was hearing evidence in the trial of Paul S. Liner Jr. charged with DWI in Howard County Court today.

Liner is alleged to have driven a motor vehicle on the streets of the city on April 16 while under influence of intoxicating liquor.

His case will be the first to go to a jury in this week's jury trials in the county court. Tuesday, a defendant slated for trial changed his mind just before the jury was seated and entered a plea of guilty.

Tuesday afternoon, five attorneys, representing clients whose cases are docketed for trial this week in the court appeared before Judge Ed Carpenter to ask for continuances in their cases.

In each case, Judge Carpenter denied the motion and ordered the cases for trial as scheduled. The trials will continue through Friday.

Wooten Grocer Company Sold

Announcement has been made in Abilene of the sale of the Wooten family of the H. O. Wooten Grocer Company, one of the pioneer food wholesale firms in West Texas.

Horace Wooten, (a former Big Spring resident) president of Wooten Properties, Inc., a major shareholder in the wholesale firm announced sale of shares to the Kay Kimbell interests of Fort Worth. Exact price was not announced, but the sale involves more than a million dollars.

Founded by the late H. O. Wooten, the Wooten Grocer Co., at one time had distribution houses throughout West Texas, including one in Big Spring. In the post-war years, the operation was concentrated on fewer units, and the wholesale house here was closed, and the city served out of a Midland house.

The sale includes a Wooten subsidiary, Parkway Foods, Inc., which operates retail grocery stores in Big Spring, Snyder, Odessa, Midland and Abilene.

Bette Davis Wins Divorce
PORTLAND, Maine (AP)—Actress Bette Davis won a divorce from her actor-husband, Gary Merrill, today. She testified that Merrill was "a man who really must be on his own."

Merrill did not appear in court to contest the charge. He is in Spain making a movie. He was given 30 days in which to appeal. Court officials said there are indications, however, that he will not pursue the case.

Miss Davis, a resident of nearby Cape Elizabeth, was awarded a token alimony of a dollar a year and was given full custody of three children, one by a former husband, and two adopted by the Merrills.

Lyndon Backers See Win On Fifth Ballot

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson's campaign forces said today they aim to land the Democratic presidential nomination for him no later than the fifth convention ballot.

They concluded that overtaking the pace-setting Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts represents a large-sized order. But Oscar L. Chapman, co-chairman of the Citizens for Johnson campaign organization, issued the flat prediction that "we'll make it."

The Kennedy drive, Chapman said, "has gone about as far as it can go," adding that this is short of the 761 votes necessary to win the nomination.

Johnson formally announced his long-known candidacy only Tuesday and told a televised news conference "I expect to be nominated."

The Texas senator said his backers have told him a third ballot victory is possible, but he added he feels no one can predict with certainty of which ballot the decision will come.

CRUCIAL VOTE
Chapman said the third ballot "will be crucial," and added in an interview: "That will be the keystone. The break in Kennedy's strength will begin to take place on the third ballot."

He said the fourth or fifth ballot should bring a Johnson victory, depending on the sharpness of what happens on the third. Johnson himself said he does not know how many first-ballot votes he will have, but "my friends tell me I will have in excess of 500 and my leading opponent will have less than 600, and I believe this is correct."

The latest Associated Press poll of delegates shows Kennedy with 540 1/2 votes as the front runner, and Johnson next with 221. Others are uncommitted or spread among favorite sons and other candidates.

Johnson headquarters said the senator plans no further public move in his campaign until reaching Los Angeles Thursday afternoon, when another Johnson news conference is planned.

NO COMMENT
Kennedy reserved comment at his Cape Cod summer home. He plans to fly to Los Angeles on Saturday.

Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo) said during a surprise visit to Harrisburg, Pa., he didn't think much of Johnson's chances.

"I've never felt Northern states would support Johnson," Symington said. He did not comment on Johnson's statements.

Without mentioning Kennedy or other aspirants by name, Johnson nevertheless aimed some thrusts at them.

Johnson said he had held up his announcement until after Congress adjourned lest it interfere with performance of his duties as the Senate majority leader.

"Those who have engaged in active campaigns have missed hundreds of these (Senate) votes. This I could not do—for my country or my party," Johnson said.

He keyed his announcement to a solemn tone. His thesis was that the next president will face "awesome tasks" and, that evil forces will be poised to strike at any weaknesses the next president may show.

STRONG FORCES
"These forces will have no mercy for innocence, no gallantry toward inexperience, no patience toward errors," Johnson said.

Again clearly with Kennedy in mind as his front-running adversary, Johnson pictured himself as an experienced official who has known "the presidency—and the men in it—intimately" since 1937.

Former President Harry S. Truman raised questions Saturday whether Kennedy's age and experience qualified him for the presidency now. But Kennedy replied Monday that he has served 14 years in Congress and said a new generation of leaders is needed to cope with new problems.

Kennedy is 43, Johnson 51.

Both Johnson and Chapman indicated they will not echo the charge of India Edwards, Chapman's co-chairman, that Kennedy's health would score against him as a candidate.

Johnson noted that Kennedy had been ill for several months in 1954, and that Johnson himself had suffered a heart attack in 1953.

Johnson said he felt that he and Kennedy both have demonstrated they are "tough enough" for the presidency.

Chapman said "I am not a doctor and I know nothing about Mr. Kennedy's health."

Services Held For J. A. Finley

COLORADO CITY — Funeral services for John Adams Finley, 83, retired Loraine farmer, were held Tuesday at 4:30 p.m. in the Lightfoot Church of Christ in Loraine. Burial was in the Loraine Cemetery under direction of Kijker and Son Funeral Home.

He was born in Tennessee, August 26, 1876 and married Lillie Williams there in 1897. They came to Mitchell County in 1921. He was a member of the Church of Christ.

Survivors include his wife of Loraine; two sons, Floyd of Snyder and Luke of Anson; three daughters, Mrs. Florence Palmer of Lubbock, Mrs. Mae Clines of Knott and Mrs. Myrtle McClure of Odessa; one sister, Mrs. Mae Williams of Murfreesboro, Tenn.; 19 grandchildren and 33 great-grandchildren.

Cook Kills Ex-Wife In Hospital Bed

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—An unemployed cook used a butcher knife to kill his former wife as she lay in a St. Joseph hospital bed, police said.

Charles Clifford Porter, 44, was seized by two orderlies Tuesday after he stabbed the mother of four in the chest, left arm and shoulders.

Another patient ran screaming from the semi-private room she had shared with Ella Porter, 26, who was under treatment for a nervous condition.

Police said the Porters had numerous spats in the past and that a divorce had become final recently. Porter was charged with murder.

BUICK'S VINTAGE YEAR!

Don't take our word—ask a neighbor about his Buick '60!

Buick sales are soaring, so chances are someone near you owns a new Buick '60. Ask him about it... this greatest of all Buicks. Sit in the wide, soft seats, note the ro-o-o-o-m! Try a ride, feel the proud way this beauty flows over bumps, thanks to the costliest, best chassis on any U.S. car. If you're lucky, your neighbor may even let you check out his Wildcat V8 and Turbine Drive* for seat (when you're hooked). But, the clincher comes when you try this Buick on for price. A beauty of a buy any time, your Dealer's trades are for their all-time best right now!

SEE WHY THE BIG MOVE'S TO BUICK! YOUR QUALITY BUICK DEALER IN THIS AREA IS:

McEWEN MOTOR COMPANY 403 S. SCURRY ST.

Wooten Grocer Company Sold

Announcement has been made in Abilene of the sale of the Wooten family of the H. O. Wooten Grocer Company, one of the pioneer food wholesale firms in West Texas.

Horace Wooten, (a former Big Spring resident) president of Wooten Properties, Inc., a major shareholder in the wholesale firm announced sale of shares to the Kay Kimbell interests of Fort Worth. Exact price was not announced, but the sale involves more than a million dollars.

Founded by the late H. O. Wooten, the Wooten Grocer Co., at one time had distribution houses throughout West Texas, including one in Big Spring. In the post-war years, the operation was concentrated on fewer units, and the wholesale house here was closed, and the city served out of a Midland house.

The sale includes a Wooten subsidiary, Parkway Foods, Inc., which operates retail grocery stores in Big Spring, Snyder, Odessa, Midland and Abilene.

Camera Stolen

Only one theft was reported during the past 24 hours but that one was costly. H. J. Holland, 1743 Purdue, told police that his $225 movie camera was carried off from a bench at the city swimming pool.

Quartet To Appear

The Pilgrims, a quartet of teen-age singers, will appear Thursday night at the First Assembly of God Church. The service will start at 7:45 p.m. Featured will be selections of old, favorite songs and a variety of new songs, as well as instrumental numbers. Left to right, the young men are John Akins, pianist; Burt Perrant; Johnny Hays; Morris Paschall and Calvin Brannon. The Rev. S. E. Eldridge invites the public to hear the group from Southwestern Bible Institute, Waxahatchee.

Texas U. Worries On Parking Space

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — Finding room for an expected 30,000 students by 1970 doesn't worry University of Texas authorities as much as finding more teachers and parking spaces.

Dr. L. D. Haskew, university vice president for developmental services, made the observation Tuesday.

"We can handle 40,000 students on our campus now," Haskew commented, "but we can't handle the automobiles of 40,000 students," he said.

Network Problem: Newscaster Also Doing TV Commercials

By BERNARD GAVZER
NEW YORK (AP) — After the turmoil of convention coverage ends, a platoon of NBC executives will sit down with Frank Blair and thrash out this problem: Should a well-known newscaster also appear in TV commercials? Blair, the handsome gentleman who does the newscasting for "Today," has been in several huddles with network executives and there were rumors that some of the talk was tough.

"It wasn't, and isn't," Blair says.

The network reportedly got worried about the situation because it was thought the public might have some doubts about newscasts done by a man who also acts as spokesman for advertisers. NBC sent a memo to chiefs and upper echelon talent which said (in substance) cut out any activity that could be interpreted as a conflict of interest.

Blair, sometimes referred to as the millionaire announcer ("Not true," he says, "the government gets most of it") has been busy as spokesman for four advertisers other than those on the "Today" show.

"I've never gotten any condemnation from the public about commercials," says Blair. "It would be interesting to know what the public attitude is."

Blair's contract with NBC describes him as a commentator, but he says "I'm the last of the standup newscasters."

"There was no ultimatum from NBC telling me that I have to give up free-lance commercial work," Blair says. "If it came to a showdown, I'd probably stay with NBC. I would not give up 25 years as a newscaster to become a commercial announcer. But there are a number of questions involved here."

For instance: "Let's presume I tell NBC I can't give up commercials because they bring me a sizeable income. Of what value am I then to the advertiser? The advertiser wants me because of my association with news. Will he still want me without that association?"

"On the other hand, if the 'Cleanup TV' directive is going to apply to everybody, it will have to apply equally to me. I assume that under the directive I would do commercials on the 'Today' show but not on a free-lance basis. Then, there's the problem of contracts. I've got free-lance contracts calling for my services for the next two years. You can't just break contracts."

"There's one thing I am certain about. I'm a newscaster. That's what I want to be. I'll go along with NBC within reason to maintain my status with the company and as a newsmen."

That remarkably many men with the mustache, Ernie Kovacs, (10:30 p.m. EDT-ABC) is scheduled to vanish Thursday, Aug. 4, for the summer. In the time slot will be—guess what?—movies. However, these promise to be older than anything else on TV. Titled "Silents Please," they will be half-hour versions of silent movies.

Ex-Minister Dies

WHITTIER, Calif. (AP) — The Rev. Alfred H. Aekley, 72, composer of 1,500 gospel and children's songs died Sunday. A retired Presbyterian minister, he once worked with evangelist Billy Sunday as a composer and musician.

Prince Gives Laugh Over Picasso Art

LONDON (AP)—Prince Philip, a buff for science, cricket and polo, spent 32 minutes surveying the 65 years of artist Pablo Picasso's career Tuesday night—35 minutes at the chow table that accompanied it.

"Ha, ha, ha," was the major comment on the art from the husband of Queen Elizabeth II. What he thought about the food—that Spanish hash of chicken and rice called paella—was not reported.

The prince was the honor guest at the opening of the Tate Gallery's summer show of Picassos. The 268 paintings and other works from private and public collections in 12 countries, are the biggest showing of the noted Spanish artist's work ever assembled.

The artist stayed home at his chateau in France, keeping up the prodigious output which has made him a millionaire at 78.

In addition to the paintings, paella and Philip, the 2,000 previewers who paid five guineas—$14.70—a head got to see movie stars Gregory Peck and Anthony Quinn, to drink a sour red wine called sangria and to hear a background of canned flamenco music. The show opened to the public today and will run until Sept. 18.

Proceeds of the preview went to the Institute of Contemporary Arts, a private group which has plans for an exhibition and study center in London. Fleur Cowles, American writer now married to a Briton, is a big wheel in the institute.

The collection ranged from Picasso's "Girl With Bare Feet," painted when he was 14, to stylized compositions completed last year.

More than 100 of the paintings came from the artist's own collection. American lenders included New York's Museum of Modern Art and Metropolitan Museum, the Buffalo, Cleveland, Philadelphia and Yale museums, Walter P. Chrysler Jr., Edward G. Robinson, W. Averell Harriman, U.S. Ambassador John Hay Whitney and Joseph Pulitzer Jr.

Frank, Elvis Both Charmed By Actress

By BOB THOMAS
AP Wire — TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Juliet Browne, born in Bombay and brought up in South Africa, has managed to beguile both Frank Sinatra and Elvis Presley.

She is 23, but wise and witty beyond her years. She has a puckish pretty face and a dancer's disciplined frame. Although she has been in America only 18 months, she can speak the idiom equally well with Presley's mountain boys and Sinatra's hep crowd.

To use Frank's phrase, she's a gas. Producers and critics seem to think so, too. She drew raves for her work in her first Hollywood film, "Can-Can." "That floored me, because I had so little to do in it," she said.

She did enough to win the lead opposite Elvis in his comeback film, "G.I. Blues." Inevitably, his interest became more than professional and they did some dating. This was while Sinatra, who had been escorting her regularly, was on a trip to the Orient.

Whenever Elvis and Juliet had heart-to-hearts on the set, jokers would warn them: "Here comes Frank!" It got to be a running gag.

A couple of weeks ago, a Presley lieutenant shouted "Here comes Frank" and got a jeering reply from his leader. But—surprise!—there came Frank.

"It was a panic," Juliet recalled with a giggle. "I never in the world thought that Frank would ever visit me on the set."

All of which demonstrates the pull of the chestnut-haired charmer. It's also a tribute to her diplomatic skill that she managed to avoid a clash between the two singers and is able to juggle both dates without conflict. Until lately, everybody considered her Frank's girl.
