Korean Vote Is Followed By Violence

SEOUL, South Korea (AP)—Post-election mob violence, and ballot burning spread in South Korea today. About 100 persons, most of them police, have been injured and 322 arrested. Unconfirmed reports said two persons have been killed. Caretaker Prime Minister Huh Chung accused politicians of instigating the mobs, in which students took a big part. National Police Chief Kang Su-ryong accused losing candidates and their poll watchers.

party fell after Rhee's overthrow. A mob of 5,000 at Sam Chon Po, 200 miles south of Seoul, wrecked the police station and the police chief's home, demanding that an ex-Liberal candidate be turned over to a kangaroo court to face vote-buying charges. The candidate had been under police protection since Saturday, when he was rescued from a vigilante mob that beat him and his campaign worker and paraded the candidate through the streets wearing a sign saying "I am sorry I got rich on money embezzled from the people." Mobs at Hongchon, 70 miles east of Seoul, and Unsong, 70 miles southeast of Seoul, wrecked the homes of campaign workers for ex-Liberals who won reelection to the House of Representatives.

In six election districts the targets were members or former members of ex-President Syngman Rhee's Liberal party who made strong showings in the parliamentary election Friday despite the general discipline in which the

Cards Prepared For Jury Wheel

Six clerks began typing the names of more than 11,000 Howard County citizens on small white cards Monday morning. They have until Aug. 11 to complete the job. They are preparing the cards to be placed in the jury wheel and from which jurors will be drawn to serve the county and district courts. The cards must be placed in the wheel by Aug. 15.

Wade Choate, district clerk, employed the typists on authority from the county. Typewriters and equipment were borrowed from other offices. The typists are working in Choate's office.

Navy Boost Seen As Polaris Bridge

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Navy today announced a major reinforcement of the 6th Fleet with the assignment of a third attack carrier to the force regularly operating in the Mediterranean. Officials speculated this could be a move to bolster U.S. striking power in the European area until the Navy has enough Polarislaunching atomic submarines in striking range of the north-central key areas of the Soviet Union. The Navy said that the 7th Fleet in the Pacific, which regularly varies from two to three carriers, will hereafter be maintained at the three-carrier level. The increased striking strength resulting from the additional carrier deployment is "part of a continuing program to improve the military capabilities and posture of the United States," the Navy said. The reinforcement was recommended by the Joint Chiefs of Staff.

Odum, 10:15 a.m.; Paul Turner, 1:00 p.m. (lunch); Lewis Herefords, 1:45 p.m.; Price Turner & Sons, 4:15 p.m. A general invitation is extended by the Hereford Association members for anyone interested to join the tour and visit the ranches.

In the reshaping of the 7th Fleet, the older carriers, Intrepid and Hancock, previously scheduled for conversion to anti-submarine warfare ships, will be retained as attack carriers at least until the supercarriers Kitty Hawk and Constellation join the fleet next year.

Polaris Blasted

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)—A Polaris missile veered off course and was destroyed by the range safety officer today 47 seconds after it was launched from a submerged submarine. This was the first failure in four underwater launchings for the missile.

Parents Of Confined Children

Mrs. Shirley Leach, 38, is comforted by her husband, Donald, in their Tecumseh, Ont. home during an interview by newsmen. Mrs. Leach confirmed that she had hidden three of her children in a two-story frame house for 11 years to conceal the size of her family from her landlord. Her son Gordon, 15, revealed the plight of the children to neighbors who called police. Doctors said the children seemed normal except that they were underdeveloped in size.

City Streets To Get Face Lifting

A program the city hopes will alleviate some of its street maintenance headaches is scheduled to get underway Wednesday. A schedule of unpaved streets has been outlined to receive an oil treatment, with other unpaved sections slated for asphalt stabilization, according to Bruce Dunn, director of public works. "We are asking the public to bear with us for a while during the oiling," Dunn said. "Some streets will probably have to be blocked off for a short while and residents will have to change their traffic routes." Dunn pointed out, however, that the oil penetrates in about two hours and the inconvenience to traffic is for a short time only. Dunn said the oil treatment would be first on the program, with the stabilization to follow. The program is expected to windup about the end of August. Streets slated for the oil treatment include Goliad, 18th to FM 700; 19th, Johnson to Scurry; Scurry shoulders; State, 12th to 19th; Donley, 12th to 16th; 17th, Settles to Lexington; Virginia, 17th to FM700; Birdwell, 15th to FM700; 19th, Settles to Virginia. Lyndon Asked To 'Explain' Crossing Of Picket Lines

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Flight Engineers' International Assn. today asked Sen. Lyndon Johnson (D-Tex) to explain or apologize for his crossing the union's picket lines. He said most congressmen and every member of the Democratic national committee were notified by mail of the strike at least five days before the convention. Brown said the union will gladly supply a crew if Johnson wants to charter another airplane for his campaign tour. Flight engineers struck Continental June 30 in a dispute over jet plane operations. The union says the company insists that if the engineers want to continue working on jet airplanes they must join the Air Line Pilots Assn. The engineers have refused to do this.

Area Cities In U.S. Report

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Census Bureau made public today preliminary population figures for 21 new standard metropolitan statistical areas. The new designation means that detailed business, manufacturing and housing statistics will be compiled by the bureau for these areas for the first time. In earlier census tabulations the data was compiled separately for portions of the areas. The Texas areas include (with 1950 populations in parentheses): Brownsville-Harlingen-San Benito, metropolitan area 149,901 (125,170); Brownsville City 47,831 (38,066); Harlingen City 40,765 (33,229); San Benito City 16,329 (13,271); rest of Cameron County 44,985 (52,604). Midland, metropolitan area 67,322 (25,785); Midland city 62,272 (21,713); rest of Midland County 5,050 (4,072). Odessa metropolitan area 90,298 (42,102); Odessa city 79,900 (29,495); rest of Ector County 338 (12,607). Tyler metropolitan area 85,295 (74,701); Tyler city 51,082 (38,968); rest of Smith County 34,213 (35,733). Labor For Lyndon; Dick Plans Tour

Nixon To Talk With Ike, Then Set Itinerary

WASHINGTON (AP)—Vice President Richard M. Nixon, mapping his strategy, moved today to line up participation by both President Eisenhower and New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller in the Republican campaign. Long-distance calls with both those leaders by Nixon, the GOP presidential candidate, resulted in these immediate plans: 1. Nixon will fly to Newport, R.I. late today to confer with Eisenhower before taking off Tuesday morning on his whirlwind trip to the West Coast and Hawaii. 2. Robert H. Finch, newly designated Nixon campaign director, will meet with Rockefeller in New York Wednesday to work out the governor's participation in Nixon's campaign.

Unionist Predicts Votes For LBJ

HYANNIS PORT, Mass. (AP)—David J. McDonald, president of the United Steelworkers Union, told Sen. John F. Kennedy today he is sure organized labor will support the Kennedy-Johnson ticket in the November election. McDonald, after a visit with Kennedy at the senator's summer home, told a news conference he believes labor will support Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson, Kennedy's choice for vice president, as strongly as it supports Kennedy. He parried questions about reported grumbling by labor union members against Johnson as a running mate for Kennedy, the Democratic nominee for president.

5 Governors Accuse Nixon Of No Stand

HYANNIS PORT, Mass. (AP)—Sen. John F. Kennedy today released a statement signed by five Democratic Midwestern governors and three Democratic senators accusing Vice President Richard M. Nixon of a "lack of basic conviction" on farm aid and other issues. The statement was signed by Govs. Herschel C. Loveless of Iowa, George Docking of Kansas, Ralph Hersch of South Dakota, Gaylord A. Nelson of Wisconsin and Orville L. Freeman of Minnesota; and Sens. Quentin Burdick of North Dakota, William Proxmire of Wisconsin and Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota. The statement likened Nixon's break with Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson to "a political capstap leaving the sinking ship."

Miss Texas, Native State Going Steady

DALLAS (AP)—Honey-blond Mary Cage Moore and Texas are going steady. The relationship started Saturday night when the SMU coed from Laredo was crowned Miss Texas at Beaumont. It is a pretty demanding role. Immediately the talented beauty was swept into a round of activities that will last at least until after the Miss America Pageant next month in Atlantic City. Miss Moore, 18, is spending four days as a guest of the International Junior Tennis Tournament in Midland. Then she will head for Laredo to appear at the tri-regional convention of the Junior Chamber of Commerce. "I've dieted for weeks before this contest. No bread or pastries or rich things," she said. "I fully expect to be a sophomore there," she laughed. The daughter of a wholesale grocer, Miss Moore looks as good

REPUDIATION

"Vice President Nixon—a member of the Eisenhower administration team for the past 7½ years—in the short span of 38 hours since his nomination has repudiated two key parts of that administration's program," the statement said. "This is just the first evidence of his lack of basic conviction on the issues to which Gov. (Nelson A.) Rockefeller alluded so eloquently before the midnight confrontation in New York." The reference was to a midnight conference between Nixon and Rockefeller at which they agreed on provisions of the Republican platform. The statement from the Midwesterners charged that Nixon up to now has "wholeheartedly subscribed" to Benson's farm policies but in a sudden switch has repudiated him.

ACUTELY AWARE

"Those in the farm belt are acutely aware of the failures of the Republican policy on agriculture, a policy to which Vice President Nixon has wholeheartedly subscribed until yesterday," the statement said. It quoted Nixon as having said in a 1954 speech in Des Moines, Iowa, that history would record Benson as "one of the best secretaries of agriculture in our history" and as a friend of the farmer. It said he also spoke out in support and praise of Benson in Rapid City, S.D., in 1956, and quoted Benson himself as claiming in 1957 that he had "every evidence of the support of the vice president."

Final Master Plan Report Due Today

Master plan consultant Marvin Springer is to take up the final phase of his proposed zoning ordinance today at 7:30 p.m. in a meeting at the police building. Slated to attend the meeting were members of the master plan steering committee, the city commission, planning and zoning commission and the zoning board of adjustment.

Fast Horses

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Fairmount Park police arrested three young men Sunday for speeding. They said the three were riding horses at slightly more than seven miles an hour, the limit on the park's bridle paths.

Hard Agron

Winds accompanying a heavy rain squall shoved the 251 foot freight barge Vermont aground in the Intracoastal Waterway near Beaufort, S. C. The tug Waban, out of Charleston, yanked the Vermont free and she continued her trip from Savannah to New Jersey with a scrap paper cargo.

Soviets Propose 'Summit' On Arms At U.N. Meeting

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The Soviet Union proposed today what would amount to a summit conference on disarmament at the U.N. General Assembly opening Sept. 20. In a letter to the chairman of the 82-nation U.N. Disarmament Commission, the Soviet Union said it opposes a U.S. proposal for an early meeting of the commission, composed of all 82 U.N. members. It declared that the Assembly is the best forum for taking up disarmament. "The Soviet government believes that personal participation of the heads of government of member states of the U.N. in the discussion of the disarmament problem at the General Assembly would answer this purpose best of all," it said. It suggested that Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold issue invitations to the government leaders. The letter declared this "would be of great significance, since the participation of the heads of government, especially of the states possessing the greatest military power, would largely contribute to the success in the consideration of the disarmament problem, as well as of some important political issues and would thereby reduce international tension and improve the entire international situation."

There was no immediate comment here from U.S. sources. U.S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge, who had proposed a meeting of the commission early in August, was in Washington. Lodge, the Republican nominee for vice president, had been asked by President Eisenhower to present the U.S. position before the commission. In requesting the meeting, Lodge accused the Communist nations of "callously disrupting" disarmament talks in Geneva. He said the commission should give prompt consideration to the decision of the Soviet Union to break off the Geneva talks.

County Ready To Build Plant Road

Howard County will build an access road to facilitate construction of the new Richardson Carbon Plant on the northeast edge of the Caden site.

The court, in a conference with representatives of Caden, Richardson and the T&P readily agreed Monday morning to start as quickly as possible with the road. It is planned to pave the strip and make it an all weather road.

It will begin on the north side of the tracks and extend to an easement on U. S. 89 is a short stretch of road already paved. Seven tracks of the T&P must be crossed but only an ordinary grade-crossing is contemplated at this time.

Caden agreed to see that all pipelines and power lines on the route of the road are removed or buried. It also said that negotiations have been concluded by which the T&P will sell a quarter section it owns at the north end of the road to Caden and that right-of-way will be provided for the new road without delay or cost.

The county will ask for 100 foot easements and plans to move in at once with construction. There is a strip 30-foot wide fenced along the proposed route and a road, after a fashion, now exists on this strip.

The representatives of the three interested corporations and the county commissioners also plan to ask John Roberts, district highway engineer for the state to come to Big Spring and study this new site with an eye to possibly changing the scheduled FM road tentatively approved by the state commission. This road, which would be west of the site, would be considered today, has Roberts' approval. The group today voiced the hope that once Roberts can see the need for this new road, it might be possible from the west to the new site. Roberts preferred the western location and the site was accepted by the city and by the county.

Attending the meeting today: Jack Y. Smith and Doug Green, Caden; John Hogg and G. P. McClure, Sid Richardson Carbon; George Brooks and A. C. Siler Jr., Texas and Pacific Railroad; and Bill Quinby, Chamber of Commerce manager.

RIDES A LAP ON THE PONY EXPRESS FOR BOY SCOUTS
WAC-Capt. Jan Dickerson extra-active while on duty

Active Duty Plenty Active For Capt. Jan Dickerson

Jan Dickerson has returned to her duties with the Kansas City (Mo.) Star after putting in two busy weeks of duty with her Army hospital reserve unit at Camp Carson, Colo.

Miss Dickerson, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Dickerson, 805 W. 15th, is a captain in the Women's Army Corps. Her active duty stint was something of a husband's holiday, for she was assigned by the Star to cover the risk of President Eisenhower to the 1960 Boy Scout Jamboree. She also rode a mile of the Pony Express run to the Jamboree and was called upon for some trouble-shooting for the Fort Carson public information office.

The WAC officer specializes in interesting incidents when she returns to active duty for two weeks each summer. In 1957 she volunteered with the information section at Fitzsimons Army Hospital.

Her active Army tour of four years was spent mostly in the Section of Defense Information Office at the Pentagon from 1949 through 1952.

Denver, just in time to greet the press when the president suffered his historic heart attack.

Starting with school-girl assignments for the Big Spring Daily Herald, the Miss Dickerson moved to Abilene, Reporter-News then to the Columbia, (Mo.) Columbian, before joining the Star staff.

Between and during jobs, she was graduated from Hardin-Simmons University and has taken graduate studies at the University of Wisconsin and Missouri. While on a special assignment studying German press methods, she wrote a series of the refugees from East Germany which appeared in Texas' Harve-Hanks newspapers.

Youth Jailed For Burglary

Police are holding a 14-year-old Negro boy in connection with the burglary of a house and a wide-spread incident at the State Hotel, 204 1/2 Gregg.

The youth was arrested this morning by Officers Elbert Ryan and Frank Glascock after a neighbor notified police he was breaking into a "bunkhouse" in the 1300 block of Lancaster.

Police believe the boy took a watch, some perfume and cigarette lighters from the residence. The youth confessed to window peeping at the hotel Saturday.

The body will lie in state at River Funeral Home until Tuesday morning when it will be taken to San Sabá Services will be held at 4 p.m. Wednesday in the Richard Springs Church of Christ and burial will be in the Richard Springs Cemetery.

Stabbing In Flats Fight

A white man who suffered serious stab wounds in a fracas in the North Side flats area Sunday morning was reported resting comfortably Monday in Cowper Clinic Hospital.

John Tindol underwent major surgery Sunday to repair a stomach wound and two lesser stab wounds he received in the shoulder.

A witness, Percy Lloyd Hale, Tindol's companion, told police that four Latin-Americans were involved in the fight with Tindol which took place in front of Sam's Lounge, 406 NW 3rd, shortly after midnight. No arrests had been made Monday morning. Tindol was taken to the hospital in a Nalley-Pickle ambulance.

Lebcowitz Attends Managers Meeting

Jay Lebcowitz has just returned from New York where he attended the company's annual managers' convention. A highlight of the conference was the presentation of new fall lines, including diamond, merchandise. Lebcowitz said that the solitaire diamond has come back into prominence and will be featured in greater array. The influence will extend even to diamond solitaire pendants. The emphasis on diamond watches also is noted, along with consumer interest in pearl jewelry.

Robinson Named RCA Secretary

DENVER—Appointment of Bob Robinson, Cardston, Alberta, cowboy at secretary of the Rodeo Cowboys Association, has been announced by the Denver headquarters of the organization.

Robinson moves today from the board of directors of the R. C. A. where he has served since January, 1959, to his new post.

Operational growth in the sport, which last year totalled over three million dollars in prize money from 400 rodeos in the United States and three Canadian provinces, required the staff-addition, explained Les Connelly, Denver, who has served as secretary-treasurer of the organization since 1957. Connelly will remain in charge of the local office.

Warren G. (Preckles) Brown, Lawton, Okla., has been appointed to fill the vacancy created by Robinson's new position.

Youth Held In Sex Death

WHEELING, Ill. (AP)—An 18-year-old former mental patient was questioned today in the sex-slaying of Betty Bonham, 5.

The child, a stranger, partly stripped body was found Saturday, concealed beneath mud and leaves in a shallow trench in a weedy lot close to the Benham home near Wheeling, 35 miles northwest of downtown Chicago.

She had disappeared Friday evening.

The youth, held without charge was identified by police as Paul F. Jackson of Des Plaines, a few miles south of Wheeling.

Jackson was seized by forest rangers who spotted him Sunday night lurking near a wooded lovers' lane near Des Plaines.

Jackson asserted he had been in St. Luke's Presbyterian Hospital in Chicago at the time of the slaying. Hospital records showed he had been in the hospital from 9:45 a.m. to 2:45 p.m. on Saturday—after the girl's body was found.

Hospital personnel said that Jackson wore a blue shirt and tan trousers. Similar clothing was worn by Lynn, 42, who was one of the searchers who came upon the body.

The search for other clues was pressed.

Deputies were ordered to interview everyone living within a two-mile radius of the Benham home.

One resident of the area, Steve Gutz, whose home is just west of where the girl's body was found, said he saw a blue-shirted youth walk across his property and a nearby cornfield about 7:15 p.m. Friday.

Anti-LBJ Suit Filed

AUSTIN (AP)—A motion asking dismissal of a suit questioning Texas' Johnson-for-president law was filed in Federal Court today.

Leon Jaworski of Houston filed a motion to dismiss the suit on the grounds the argument over Sen. Lyndon Johnson's name appearing twice on the November ballot is a state not federal court matter.

Federal Judge Ben Rice took no action at once.

Jaworski is one of four lawyers named to defend State Democratic Chairman J. E. Connally of Abilene, Vice Chairman Mrs. Max Brooks of Austin, Jake Jacobson of Austin, state secretary, and Secretary of State Zollie Steakley.

The suit was filed by Michael Schville, 24, of Dallas and asked an injunction to prevent the state Democratic committee from certifying Johnson and to keep Steakley from placing Johnson's name on the ballot twice.

New Deputy

Wade Choate, district court clerk, announced today that Irene Ringener has been named as deputy in his office. SSB-Replicator Joan Watkins, who has resigned to move to Dallas. Mrs. Ringener has been employed in the office of the county tax assessor and resigned from that post to associate herself with the district court clerk's office.

Congress Faces Civil Rights Fuss

By JOE F. KANE
WASHINGTON (AP)—Congress may run into a squabble over civil rights legislation when it convenes for its post-summer session.

Sen. Jacob K. Javits (E-N.Y.) served notice Sunday he will introduce a bill containing provisions of the Republican Party's civil rights plank when the Senate goes back to work a week from today. The House meets Aug. 11.

Sen. Styles Bridges of New Hampshire, chairman of the Senate Republican Policy Committee, predicted civil rights legislation might be introduced and said he wouldn't be surprised if it would touch off a Southern filibuster.

But Sen. Thurston Morton of Kentucky, GOP national chairman, made it clear he wants the session to steer away from what he called any ambitious or time-consuming measures.

Morton said Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, Republican minority leader, shared his view on a limited agenda.

Democratic leaders have not included civil rights legislation in their plans for the session. Javits said the new leaders in both parties should act as soon as possible to supplement the civil rights platform pledges adopted at the Democratic convention.

The New Yorker said he would like to see Democratic leaders join him as sponsor of legislation "to demonstrate the spirit of bipartisan cooperation which must exist from the very beginning if meaningful civil rights bills are to pass the Senate."

Javits said these four recommendations in the GOP platform require legislative action:

1. A provision that completion of six primary grades in state accredited schools is conclusive evidence by literacy for voting purposes.
2. Authority for the attorney general to bring civil rights suits on behalf of individuals who charge denial of constitutional rights, including the right to attend a non-segregated public school.
3. Modification of the Senate rule which "permits the filibuster and the threat of filibuster to frustrate the passage of meaningful civil rights bills."
4. Javits said he also plans to introduce a resolution calling for a 1961 White House conference on civil rights.

Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts, the Democratic presidential nominee, and his running mate, Senate Majority Leader Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas said last week they would bear down during the session on medical care for the aged, housing, aid to education, mutual security appropriations and minimum wage legislation.

Thrift Suspect Is Returned Here

Jack Ricci, under indictment for felony theft, was returned to Howard County on Saturday from Amarillo and has been placed in the county jail. No bond has been set in his case due to the absence from the court house of the district judge. Judge Ralph Canon, who is on a week's vacation, Ricci was returned here by Tommie Cole, deputy sheriff. Cole also returned Doc Rhyme, charged with writing a worthless check. Rhyme was arrested in Vernon.

He appeared before Judge Ed Carpenter, county court, and pleaded guilty. He was fined $75 and costs.

Ollie M. Holcomb, charged with DWI, was also arraigned before Judge Carpenter Monday. She pleaded not guilty to the charge. Judge Carpenter set her bond at $500.

Pistol Charge To Be Filed

Charges of carrying a concealed weapon, a felony, were prepared against a 36-year-old Latin American. The complaint had not been filed officially at noon but the district attorney's office said it would be filed.

The charge names Albino Renteria, identified by officers as a former convict. The charge grew out of a disturbance at a service station early Sunday morning. The defendant is being held in the county jail.

G. D. Cagle, attendant at the Sinclair station, NW 4th and LaMesa Dr., told police Renteria asked him to make a phone call for him, and attacked him when Cagle explained there was no telephone at the station.

In the ensuing scuffle, Renteria was knocked down and Cagle spotted a pistol in Renteria's belt. Cagle told police he grabbed the pistol and fired into the air to attract a passing patrol car. Officers did not hear the shots, however, but were alerted by neighbors. Renteria was taken into custody by patrolman Walter Johnson.

Y Leaders Drive Gets Underway

A leadership enlistment campaign was launched Monday at the YMCA with a goal of 48 additional volunteers.

First report meeting by two dozen workers is set for 5 p.m. today, a second for the same time Wednesday. By Thursday evening the project is to be completed and new volunteers will be welcomed at a Victory Dinner at the Y.

R. H. Weaver is heading the Fishers of Men enlistment, assisted by Mrs. Bill Neal, Mrs. R. H. Weaver, M. B. Koger and Bill Quinby as captains. Each of the group leaders has five helpers who are committed to fill two leadership posts.

Top Quarterhorse Entries Expected

Quarterhorses from all parts of West Texas and from New Mexico will be in Big Spring on Saturday to appear in the second annual Big Spring Quarterhorse Show at the Rodeo Bowl.

Jimmy Taylor, county agent, said that entries are already being received including one from Corpus Christi. He said most of the horses will arrive early Saturday morning but that a few will probably be on hand Friday.

Some of the best of the breed in the area are to compete in the show here which is officially sanctioned by the American Quarterhorse Association and the West Texas Quarterhorse Association. Judges for the show will be B. F. Yates, Plainview.

Also Western Pleasure class and Western Riding Class competition will be arranged.

Points scored here are accepted by the two associations and will be credited toward the national records.

The show will be open to the public and the local quarterhorse fanciers are eager to have as large a turnout as possible for all events.

First on the program will be halter class competition which is slated for 9 a.m. There will be halter classes for animals of all age brackets.

At 1:30 p.m. the performance classes will take the arena. Both junior and senior groups will be entered. There will be classes for reining, roping, barrel racing and cutting horses.

Stamps In The News

Ever see a bandied antester? If not, you have the opportunity on a new 6-pence brown postage stamp soon to be issued by Australia.

Scheduled for release on Sept. 30, the adhesive will replace the 6-pence Kookaburra stamp which has been in use for 23 years. The bandied antester stamp issue will coincide with the South Australian Philatelic Exhibition which opens Sept. 29 and closes Oct. 1 in Adelaide.

The stamp's designer was Miss Eileen Mayo of Neutral Bay, New South Wales, whose other designs were used on the 6-pence Tiger Cat, 9-pence Kangaroo and the 1-shilling platypus stamps.

The final design of the United States stamp commemorating the U. S. - Japan Treaty Centennial has been approved by Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield. The stamp will be first placed on sale Sept. 26 at Washington, D. C. The design featuring the Washington Monument and cherry blossoms was described in this column a few weeks ago.

Collectors desiring first day cancellations of the 4-cent commemorative may send addressed envelopes, together with remittance to cover the cost of the stamps to be affixed to the Postmaster, Washington 11, D. C.

Bear in mind that this is a vertical stamp and covers should be addressed low and as far to the left as possible.

First day cover collectors are reminded that the United Nations commemorative stamp honoring the Fifth World Forestry Congress to be held in Seattle, Wash., will be available on Aug. 29. The stamps will come in two denominations—4 cents, and 8 cents.

To obtain covers, send your addressed, unstamped envelopes to the United Nations Postal Administration, United Nations, N. Y. The outside envelope should be clearly marked "First Day Covers—Fifth World Forestry Congress." Remittance to cover the cost of the stamps to be affixed must be enclosed in either money order or certified check (no cash). The number and denomination of the stamps to be affixed must be stated in the upper right corner of the envelope. A filler of medium weight should be placed in each envelope with the flap turned in. Send prior to Aug. 29.

Argentina has issued a new air-mail stamp to honor the new provinces of the former territories of Neuquen, Santa Cruz, Formosa, Chubut and Rio Negro, reports the Argentine Ministry of Communications. The design shows a stern with five leaves representing the new provinces.

Belgium has issued a new set of stamps honoring the independence of the Belgian Congo. The stamps depict various activities of the people of the new Republic of the Congo. The values are 10-centimes, 40-c, 1-Franc, 2-F, 2.50-F, 3-F, 6-F and 8-F. All the stamps bear the following inscription in French and Belgian: "Independence of the Congo-30-4-1960."

When the 4-cent SEATO commemorative stamp was released at Washington, D. C., there were 514,905 first day covers cancelled. A total of 919,386 stamps were sold on May 31 with a value of $36,419.44.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

Buddy Travis, the hard-working basketball coach at HCJC, has signed himself a 6-foot-7 boy.

The tall young man—he's only 17—is Nelson Gilbreath, who played his high school ball at Sulphur Springs but whose family farms around Yantis.

Gilbreath weighed 220 pounds when active in the sport last season but hard work on the farm has done wonders about working off the excess tonnage. He's down to 200.

Russell Howell, the principal at Elbow school, alerted Travis about Gilbreath. Seems Howell coached Nelson in grade school.

Gilbreath was offered a full scholarship by East Texas State College but decided he liked the local setup better, after a visit here.

Gilbreath was a regular his senior year only at Sulphur Springs but those who have seen both of them play say he's as far advanced as 6-foot-9 Tom Garrison was when Tom started his sophomore year at the local college.

Garrison won a flock of basketball honors before he departed HCJC and earned a scholarship to Baylor.

Gilbreath averaged about 14 points a game for Sulphur Springs last season.

Travis now has a squad of about 20 boys with which to work next season.

Included in the group are Elvis Spradling of Girard, who stands 6-5; Denis Calverley, Garden City; and Clark Jennings, Tulsa, each of whom stands 6-4; Larry McElyea, Abilene, who makes full use of his 6-3 frame; and "Big" Stands 6-2, and Jerry Williams of 6-5. Jim N.M., who stands only 6-1 but who jumps like a 6-5 boy.

Travis will probably take in coaching schools in Dallas and Albuquerque, N.M., scheduled for succeeding weekends.

If he has to pass up one or the other, however, he's apt to go to Albuquerque.

Quite likely, Atlanta, Ga., will replace Montreal in the International Baseball league next season.

When Earl Stewart, the Dallas golfer, was a senior and a star golfer at LSU, Jay Hebert — the reigning PGA champion — was a freshman there.

The future for professional baseball in Odessa appears anything but bright.

In their first 40 home games in Sophomore League play this year, the Odessans averaged only 397 paying customers a game.

The Odessa Shrine Club, which sponsors the team, says the next 30 days will decide whether or not the club is retained in 1960.

Odessa is off about 7,000 in attendance from last season.

Biggest thing Odessa misses is rivalry with neighboring cities like Midland, Big Spring and San Angelo.

Some of the PGA officials are concerned over the amount of betting going on among the pros on the circuit.

Some of the leading golfers have been known to swager in four figures on the total score needed to win a tournament. PGA officials point out that those who are out of contention are prone to think more of their own bet than their shotmaking.

Cook's Triumphs In Softball Meet

Cotton Mize stepped in to stop an uprising in the sixth inning and went on to get credit for the victory as Cook Appliance

Company defeated Charlie's Package Store, 5-4, in the championship game of the ASA District 6 Softball tournament here Saturday night.

Both teams won rights to take part in the State meet, which will be held in Brownwood later this month.

Sox Benefitting From Vet Wynn

By REN OLAN Associated Press Sports Writer

Off to a late start, Early Wynn has finally thrust his withered right arm smack in the middle of the American League pennant picture just as he did a year ago when the Chicago White Sox took all the marbles for the first time in 40 years.

Futile and 40 in the first half of the season, his 21st in the majors, Wynn is still 40. However, his 22-game winner of 1959, has bounced back to record three straight victories. Meanwhile, the White Sox have opened up a game and a half lead over the runner-up New York Yankees.

Sunday, Wynn won the early game 5-2 over Washington while Bob Shaw and Kerry Staley combined to give Chicago a double header sweep with a 9-5 victory in the nightcap. Wynn buried his second successive complete game, a 4-7-hitter, and lifted his mark to 7-7.

The Yankees lost ground, dropping the opener to Kansas City 5-2 in 11 innings before Art Ditmar put them back on the right track with a seven-hit 6-0 triumph in the second game. Baltimore nipped Cleveland 6-5 and Detroit split a pair with Boston as Ted Williams slammed his 50th lifetime homer. The Tigers won 9-6 and lost 8-4.

In the National League, Pittsburgh maintained its two-game lead despite a 6-2 setback by the Chicago Cubs. The third-place Los Angeles Dodgers defeated the Braves 7-5. San Francisco won its fifth straight 6-2 over Cincinnati and St. Louis took two from Philadelphia, 9-2 and 5-3.

Wynn, in addition to collecting his 27th lifetime triumph, also moved into 10th place on the all-time strikeout list. He fanned 11 in his 11th game, his 1,000th career out.

Minnie Miñoso, another snappy veteran at 37, bopped in each game and collected two singles in the second. White Sox teammate Roy Sievers blasted his 20th off Jack Kralie (4-1) in the first inning of the nightcap.

Hector Lopez' erratic right arm got in the way of Yankee manager Casey Stengel's belated birthday celebration. Playing third base in a late-inning switch, Lopez made two throwing errors in the 11th and opened the gates for three unearned Kansas City tallies.

Stengel, who was 70 Saturday, was honored between games after which Ditmar posted his eighth triumph. The Yanks, who scored three times in the second on a sacrifice fly by Bobby Richardson and a two-run single by Gil McDougald, handed Kansas City ace Bud Daley (12-9) his fifth straight defeat.

Lindsey Marchbanks, president of the Optimist Club of Big Spring has announced his participation in the nationally-televised "Friend of the Boy Day" football game between the Dallas Texans and the Los Angeles Chargers. The Texans are members of the newly organized American Football League started last year by Lamar Hunt.

The game to be played in the Cotton Bowl at Dallas, September 25, will honor some 30,000 boys attending the game as guests of the Optimist Clubs of District Seven and of the Dallas Texans. Marchbanks said it will be a wonderful opportunity to honor our young boys, recognizing them and the fact that less than 5 per cent of them ever get "into any trouble with the authorities."

Marchbanks said the half-time activities of the September 25th game will be devoted to telling the story of the Optimist Clubs and the work they do with boys. "The game will be televised nationally and will give us a wonderful opportunity to honor our young people," he added.

White Sox have opened up a game and a half lead over the runner-up New York Yankees.

Sunday, Wynn won the early game 5-2 over Washington while Bob Shaw and Kerry Staley combined to give Chicago a double header sweep with a 9-5 victory in the nightcap. Wynn buried his second successive complete game, a 4-7-hitter, and lifted his mark to 7-7.

The Yankees lost ground, dropping the opener to Kansas City 5-2 in 11 innings before Art Ditmar put them back on the right track with a seven-hit 6-0 triumph in the second game. Baltimore nipped Cleveland 6-5 and Detroit split a pair with Boston as Ted Williams slammed his 50th lifetime homer. The Tigers won 9-6 and lost 8-4.

In the National League, Pittsburgh maintained its two-game lead despite a 6-2 setback by the Chicago Cubs. The third-place Los Angeles Dodgers defeated the Braves 7-5. San Francisco won its fifth straight 6-2 over Cincinnati and St. Louis took two from Philadelphia, 9-2 and 5-3.

Wynn, in addition to collecting his 27th lifetime triumph, also moved into 10th place on the all-time strikeout list. He fanned 11 in his 11th game, his 1,000th career out.

Minnie Miñoso, another snappy veteran at 37, bopped in each game and collected two singles in the second. White Sox teammate Roy Sievers blasted his 20th off Jack Kralie (4-1) in the first inning of the nightcap.

Hector Lopez' erratic right arm got in the way of Yankee manager Casey Stengel's belated birthday celebration. Playing third base in a late-inning switch, Lopez made two throwing errors in the 11th and opened the gates for three unearned Kansas City tallies.

Stengel, who was 70 Saturday, was honored between games after which Ditmar posted his eighth triumph. The Yanks, who scored three times in the second on a sacrifice fly by Bobby Richardson and a two-run single by Gil McDougald, handed Kansas City ace Bud Daley (12-9) his fifth straight defeat.

Lindsey Marchbanks, president of the Optimist Club of Big Spring has announced his participation in the nationally-televised "Friend of the Boy Day" football game between the Dallas Texans and the Los Angeles Chargers. The Texans are members of the newly organized American Football League started last year by Lamar Hunt.

The game to be played in the Cotton Bowl at Dallas, September 25, will honor some 30,000 boys attending the game as guests of the Optimist Clubs of District Seven and of the Dallas Texans. Marchbanks said it will be a wonderful opportunity to honor our young boys, recognizing them and the fact that less than 5 per cent of them ever get "into any trouble with the authorities."

Bengals Smash Loving Troupe By 33-0 Tally

The Big Spring Tigers snapped a two-game losing streak by flogging a Loving, N. M., team, 33-0, here Sunday afternoon.

The Bengals were to have played the Abilene Eagles in two games but Abilene could not fill the date.

Loving was no match for the Tigers from the second inning on. The locals scored in every inning from the second through the eighth. Their biggest outburst came in the third, at which time they counted eight runs.

Every player in the Big Spring lineup hit safely at least once. Fidge Daniels drove out four hits, including a home run in the third with one on and another in the fourth with a mate aboard. Tito Arenabria also had a four-master for Big Spring, the blow arriving in the fifth with two on base.

Pat Martinez and Danny Vades, the winning pitcher, each collected four hits while Arenabria, Sonny Dutcher and Guy Laya each drove out three.

Vades picked up his fourth victory in five decisions. He worked seven innings, allowing only four hits while fanning eight and walking one.

Mike Medina was the losing hurler. Pat Martinez worked the last two innings on the hill for the Tigers, fanning two and walking one.

The Tigers have now won 20 of 22 starts. They play Piedras Negras, Mexico, in a double header here next Sunday, starting at 1 p.m.

Patrick J. McGovern Jr., 22, of Watertown, Mass., is one of three Americans arrested in Moscow for seeking to distribute the magazine "Amerika." The three Americans, a Briton and a West German were arrested and accused of disturbing the peace because they handed out copies of the U. S. government-produced magazine on the street.

Pastor Sees Trouble In Catholic Chief

WACO (AP) —The minister of the 3,000-member First Baptist Church of Waco said Sunday "millions of American citizens are afraid of what might happen" if Sen. John Kennedy, the Democrat, is elected President. Kennedy is a Roman Catholic.

Dr. Harold Lindsey, discussing the religious issue in the presidential election said in his sermon Sunday: "Theologically, the Roman Church's doctrine of church and state has not changed, nor has the Church's design to control nations in a practical way."

"The Catholic Church was forced to cease its hot war but has waged a continuous cold war," he continued. "Now, with the nomination of Kennedy, the cold war has reached new proportions, and should be elected the Catholic hierarchy will have a tool at the highest level through which they will work."

"Even though Mr. Kennedy had declared repeatedly he will not be pressured by the Vatican, and that he would support the Constitution, one wonders if he is ignorant of the historical position of his church, or if he believes those who are not Catholics are oblivious to the designs of the hierarchy."

Lindsey, the Texas member of the Southern Baptist Foundation and a member of the Baptist General Convention of Texas, called his sermon "The Issues Involved in Mr. Kennedy's Bid for the Presidency." He listed these reasons he said Kennedy "must not be elected:"

He (Kennedy) would be subject to the traditional pressures of the Church; he would be subject to a power other than God, his conscience or his country; the Church would project itself into affairs of state through him; and it would be impossible for him to carry out his duties as President and remain in good standing in the Church.

Dr. Lindsey also predicted a flow of federal money to Catholic institutions if Kennedy is elected and said slow change would "whittle away" free worship, free pulpit and free church because, the pastor said, the Roman Catholic Church claims to be the only true faith.

Texas Skies Generally Clear

By The Associated Press
Skies were generally clear over Texas Monday but a thunder-shower hit Galveston and other showers fell into the Gulf of Mexico off the southeast coast of the state.

Houston, Palacios, Brownsville, and Austin reported partly cloudy skies at dawn, but the rest of the state was cloudless.

Temperatures remained seasonally high through the night and shortly before daybreak ranged from 84 at Galveston, Laredo, and Cotulla to 82 at Junction.

Clear to partly cloudy weather through Tuesday with widely scattered afternoon and evening thundershowers were expected, forecasters said.

Some flooding was caused in Houston late Sunday when a brief but violent thunderstorm lashed the city with 2.77 inches of rain in less than an hour.

Doubt Expressed On Lyndon Draw
SAN ANTONIO (AP)—State Republican Committeeman Joe Shelton said Sunday he doubts that the presence of Sen. Lyndon Johnson on the Democratic ticket will have much effect on how Texans vote in November.
"I think most people make up their minds as to whom they will vote for and I think the candidate for vice president does not have too much influence upon the forming of their opinion," Shelton said.

A Sick Fidel May Give Reins To His Brother

HAVANA (AP)—Fidel Castro's continuing illness generated growing speculation today that the Cuban prime minister may yield the reins of government temporarily to his younger brother, Raul, whom he once described as more radical than himself.

Government-controlled radio stations broke their ban on Sunday newscasts to report that the Prime Minister — only 13 days away from his 34th birthday — is "still convalescing" despite official reports two weeks ago that he had recovered fully.

The surprise announcement said Castro now is "improving satisfactorily." It did not say what he was suffering from.
After he was stricken July 9, army doctors said Castro had a "pneumonic" infection of the left lung. This was generally interpreted to mean pneumonia. But there have been rumors of a more serious illness, including a suggestion major surgery would be necessary.

Dr. Antonio Rodriguez Diaz, who has been treating the Prime Minister, was reported by his aides out of the country on professional business. There was speculation that his trip might be in connection with Castro's illness.
One rumor said Castro would go to Moscow for treatment.

Castro's last public appearance was at the 7th anniversary celebration of his 26th of July revolutionary movement in eastern Cuba. He looked haggard and worn.
Maj. Raul Castro, minister of the armed forces, returned Saturday from a European trip that took him to the Soviet Union and a meeting with Premier Nikita Khrushchev, Czechoslovakia and the United Arab Republic.
Raul denied published reports that he cut short his trip and hurried back because of his brother's illness.

CINEMA COMMENT

By Bob Smith

If there's one thing to be learned from "Portrait in Black," it is that ordinary folks just don't get away with murder.

Only the cold-blooded, steel-nerved types can come anywhere close, especially those who make their living at it. In "Portrait in Black," you know almost from the start that the killers will get caught.

The film, playing at the Ritz, stars Lana Turner and Anthony Quinn as the lovers who plot the death of Lloyd Nolan, Lana's tyrannical husband; Richard Basehart as a behind-the-scenes evil genius, and with John Saxon and Sandra Dee for the young-love interest.

Lana manages to goop up the plot plenty as Quinn carries out his desperate assignment; left alone he might have succeeded. But they've no sooner accomplished one murder than they find they have to commit another; and then another.

The acting's pretty good all around, particularly the two principals who paint a harrowing picture of people shattered by ever-enclosing walls. They succeed in arousing some amount of audience sympathy, which is a hard chore for any actor. Quinn gives an especially good performance near the film's end.

The picture also has a few bad points, all attributable to a lazy script. Included are all the ingredients of the old plots, including the old wheeze about the inscrutable Oriental servant. The story seemed deliberately laid on the West Coast just so the film makers could include some Chinatown shots.

The ending is strictly contrived. Had the script writers gone a bit further, the plot would have been ridiculous, and the distributors could have passed it off as a burlesque of the murder mystery plot.

But when one sums up the good and bad points, "Portrait in Black" comes out ahead for mystery fans. And the movie does have a healthy charge of suspense.

Mount Etna May Be Cooling Off

CATANIA, Sicily (AP)—Mt. Etna appeared to be subsiding again today after a burst of new volcanic activity.

The 10,705-foot volcano exploded Sunday in the fourth big blowup since July 17. Smaller explosions followed at the rate of five a minute.

POWERFUL NEW PLUNGER CLEANS CLOGGED TOILETS in a jiffy!

NEVER AGAIN that sick feeling when your toilet overflows
'TOILAFLEX'
Toilet Plunger

Ordinary plungers don't seat properly, forcing air and water to splash back. Thus you have a mess and you lose the very pressure needed to clear the clogging mass.

With "Toilaflex," designed for toilets, no air or water can escape. The patented, tapered tail forms an air-tight fit; the full pressure plows through the obstruction and swishes it down. Can't miss!

A Cool Way For A 'Hot Dog'

When the temperatures started to rise everyone tries to find a way to beat the heat, even shaggy dogs. Photographer Jim Argo of Labbeck found that by placing his dog, Skipper, on a cake of ice, cool relief was in store for the little Scalyhound.

GOP Will Fight For Texas Votes

HOUSTON (AP)—Republicans will fight for Texas' 24 electoral votes this year, state GOP Chairman Thad Hutcheson said here Sunday.

Hutcheson said he is confident Vice President Richard Nixon will make at least one campaign trip to Texas this fall.

Jack Porter, former GOP national committeeman, backed up the Republican platform and Texas' part in its final draft.

"Sen. Johnson spoke of cramming our platform down our throats," he said.

"Well, we fought the things we didn't like. At least we didn't voluntarily embrace a socialist platform like he did," Porter said.

TELL CITY, Ind. (AP)—With boilers stoked to a full head of steam, this Ohio River community goes on a tremendous toot tonight. Sponsors of the community's annual Schweizer Fest have arranged a unique "grand steam whistle concert" of 33 genuine steam whistles collected from factories, museums and private owners in a half-dozen states. "We think it's the first time it's ever been done anywhere," says Bert Penn, a whistle buff who is vice president of the Tell City Historical Society and an executive of the Tell City Chair Co. whose boilers will supply the power for the concert. Steam whistles once were common in the days when steam packets cruised the rivers, steam locomotives pulled the trains and steam boilers powered most factories. Some of the whistles collected for the concert are nearly four feet tall and eight inches in diameter. Several are of the "wildcat" type, so-called because they have a movable piston which causes a rising or falling note like a wildcat's scream. Such whistles were widely used as fire or other alarm signals a generation or more ago. Three factory whistles still in operation in Tell City will start the concert with their usual chorus at 5 p.m. For the next 90 minutes the others will be sounded individually. During the concert, 13 steamboat whistles, eight locomotive whistles, four "wildcat" type truck-exhaust whistles and seven others from factories and miscellaneous sources will be sounded separately. The finale will be a chorus of 10 whistles with accompaniment of them all, known locally as the "heul hand." It sounds like quite a show for this town of 6,000, founded a little more than a century ago by a group of Swiss immigrants who named it for the Swiss hero, William Tell, of bow-and-apple fame.

Derby Racer Goes Astray, Hits Crowd

SAN ANTONIO (AP)—A Soap Box Derby racer plunged into a crowd and slightly injured five young persons and the county official who was driving it Sunday. Deputy Sheriff Jack Young said the racer piloted by County Commissioner O. E. Wurzbach veered off the track when a control line broke.

The incident occurred in a novelty race preceding the trials in which the youngsters competed in homemade motorless racers for a trip to the National Derby in Ohio. The derby races were held as scheduled, with Jerry Ozan, 15, besting 86 competitors.

Asthma Formula Prescribed Most By Doctors—Available Now Without Prescription

Stops Attacks in Minutes... Relief Lasts for Hours!
New York, N. Y. (AP)—The asthma formula prescribed more than any other by doctors for their private patients is now available to asthma sufferers without prescription. Medical tests proved this formula stops asthma attacks in minutes and gives hours of freedom from recurrence of painful asthma spasms. This formula is so effective that it is the physicians' leading asthma prescription—so safe that now it can be sold without prescriptions—in tiny tablets called Primatene®.

Primatene opens bronchial tubes, loosens mucous congestion, relieves taut nervous tension. All this without taking painful injections. The secret is—Primatene combines 3 medicines (in full prescription strength) found most effective in combination for asthma distress. Each performs a special purpose. So look forward to sleep at night and freedom from asthma spasms... get Primatene, at any drugstore. Only 98¢—money-back-guarantee. ©1958, Winthrop Pharmaceutical Company

Queen Mother Can Retire On $7 Week

LONDON (AP)—Queen Mother Elizabeth may become eligible this week for a $7 a week pension.

If she does, almost no one will know for sure. And she probably never will collect it.

On Thursday the mother of Queen Elizabeth II will be 60. At that age a British woman can collect an old-age pension—usually of 2 pounds 10 shillings—if her husband made his regular, compulsory contributions to the government health, insurance and pension plan.

But probably only a few officials and members of the royal family know if the late King George VI contributed. By law the sovereign is exempt from many taxes that plague ordinary mortals—income tax, customs and death duties, for example. Royal wills, inheritances, property sales, bank balances and the like are carefully guarded secrets.

If anyone raised the question of the pension with the Queen Mother, she would probably treat it as a joke.

Light-hearted, highly considerate, possessed of a quick sense of humor, she is the most charming of women, the sort of person who walks into a crowded room and speaks first to the shy guests along the walls.

At a gathering at Balmoral Castle not long ago she turned to government officials and diplomats and said with her winning smile: "I know you'll excuse me for making my farewells in advance. You see me so often. I want to spend my last few minutes here with some of the local people."

Once at a reception a bewildered photographer got caught up in a line of dignitaries. With a sniff, an elderly courtier whispered "He's only the press."

But the great charmer held out her hand to the cameraman and said: "This gentleman is an old friend of mine. How are you?" She will no doubt take to 60 with the same easy grace with which she reacted to bring 50.

On that milestone, a well-known court photographer sent her a set of pictures he had taken of her. They had been touched up.

The portraits were returned with thanks and a note that said: "Her majesty feels that having weathered 50 years of life on earth, she would not like her photographs to suggest that she has come through, completely unscathed."

Former U.S. Lawyer Dies

WASHINGTON (AP)—Philip B. Perlman, 70, former solicitor general of the United States, died Sunday.

Perlman was found dead in his hotel apartment, apparently the victim of a heart attack.

He had served as vice chairman of the platform committee of the recent Democratic National Convention in Los Angeles.

As the government's chief spokesman before the Supreme Court from 1947 to 1952, Perlman set a record for the number of cases argued personally by a solicitor general.

A native of Baltimore, Perlman worked there on newspapers before being admitted to the bar in 1911. He held city and state legal posts until he was named solicitor general by former President Harry S. Truman.

In 1952-53, he served as chairman of the President's Commission on Immigration and Naturalization. In recent years, he practiced law here and remained active in Democratic party affairs.

A Devotional For Today

Yield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness unto God. (Romans 6:13.)
PRAYER: Our Father, we pray that we may be eager to attain the best. Help us to grow more and more discontented with the pettiness and the sinfulness of our own lives so misguided when we reject Christ. Guide us with the presence of Christ. In the name of Jesus we ask these things. Amen.

Senators Come Into Own

United States senators have come into their own, after generations of obscurity insofar as the presidency is concerned. Both the major-party principals are products of the U. S. Senate; one, the Democratic standard-bearer, John F. Kennedy, is still a senator, while his opponent, the Republican Richard Nixon, went directly from the Senate into the vice presidency in 1953.

Senator Kennedy's runnimgmate is of them all, Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, Senate majority leader. The Republican Convention at Chicago continued this toga-strewn path to national leadership by naming Henry Cabot Lodge to second Dick Nixon. Mr. Lodge was a genuine U. S. senator until January 20, 1953, when he stepped down to

There's A General Dearth

One of our female columnists, Inez Robb, insists the campaign songs of the major parties this year are the worst ever foisted on the American public. Well, we seem to have come full-circle regarding one aspect of song writing. Lately we have noticed most songs of the "country" type consist mainly of two or three words endlessly repeated, like "Dog-bone my Dogbone," or maybe "Whistle Down the Well."

posers of songs selling in the millions of copies these days speak intelligible English, with many a college degree scattered among them. In short, they're educated people, with a shrewd business sense. These we came to another conclusion: The "market" which consumes all this trash must be incapable of absorbing more than three or four plain English words at a time, hence the constant reiteration of a single short theme. It seems to be a recurrence of the "Rye Straw" formula of long ago.

Failure In Duty To Stockholders

"What we have done today is to take the final step in the rebuilding of the corporation which started three years ago."

Massachusetts Congressman and a stockholder, described the device as a "diamond mine."

NEWBERG made the mistake of dealing with himself. He approved purchases from a company in which he had a stock interest and stood to make a profit. As a Chrysler officer and director, he breached his trust to the company's stockholders.

A CONSTRUCTION company similarly built the fortunes of Charles Crocker, Leland Stanton, Mark Hopkins, and Collis Potter Huntington on the West Coast when they got the franchise for the Central Pacific Railroad. Construction companies also became conduits for many political fortunes. And today, a stake in companies selling to manufacturers is a logical extension of the construction-company idea.

"THE LAW GRANTS officers and directors wide latitude. They can make mistakes. They can exercise bad judgment. They can lose money. . . . But they must not abuse their powers and privileges. . . . They must not make profits at the expense of the corporation. They must not favor friends or relatives in business dealing to the detriment of the business."

Violations would subject vendors to severe retribution. They could lose not only the contract but perhaps be sued for their profits.

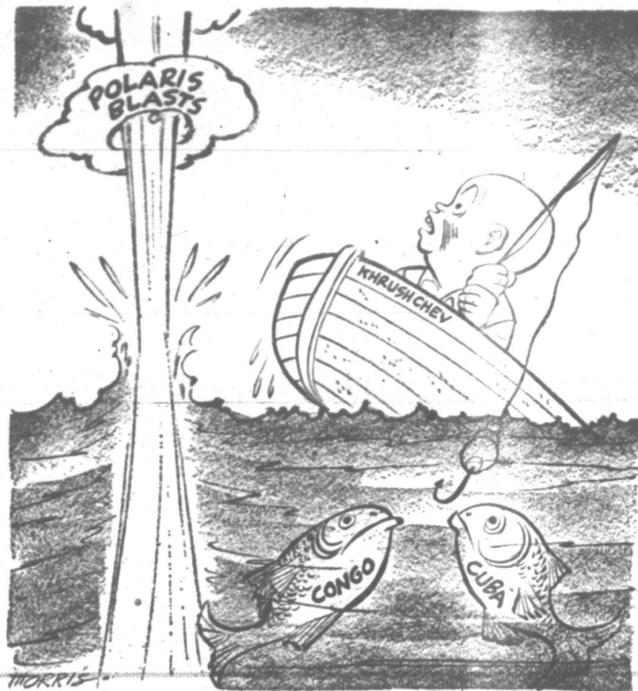

WHAT OTHERS SAY

Thousands, perhaps millions, of Americans unwittingly violate delicate rules of the Internal Revenue Service each year merely by being generous. Gifts, with certain exclusions, are taxable at a lower rate than ordinary income.

The court declined on the ground that "the problem is one which, under the present statutory framework, does not lend itself to any more definitive statement that would produce a talisman for the solution of concrete cases." This was a judicial way of taking the Fifth Amendment.

ROCKING THE BOAT

This Will Be A Fuzzy Campaign

WASHINGTON (AP) - This Presidential campaign will leave many voters so fuzzy on major issues their choice will turn on personality, history, and to some extent, on prejudice. This is the fuzzy area:

1. Democrats and Republicans agree on the need to step up the economy. Democrats say the national product must increase by at least 3 per cent. Republicans don't set a figure. How is a voter going to visualize something so vast and vague as the national product, especially in percentages?

2. In foreign affairs both parties agree communism must be considered. But how is it to be done in a way recognizably different from what's been done in the past? Both sides will have a time trying to make this clear.

Wanted: Cure For Snoring

LONDON (AP) - More than 3,000 people in need of a quiet night's sleep have written to the British medical magazine, Family Doctor, to get a cure for snoring. They wrote from every corner of the globe. But in this age of antibiotics, miracle vaccines, and even drugs that tame wild animals, there is no fool-proof remedy for the chronic snorer in full blast. Wives were claiming their husbands could snore in any position. A woman in Houston, Tex., said she had slept on the couch in the next room with the door shut, cotton in her ears, and a pillow over her head, and still she could hear her husband snoring.

Family Doctor Editor, Dr. Harvey Fleck now wants to find out whether chewing gum reduces the risk of snoring and whether musicians who play wind instruments suffer from snoring as much as other people. But a letter from a wife in Toronto probably provides a fitting postscript to the experiment. "I am convinced," she wrote, "that there is no cure for snoring other than killing your husband, which is not legal in our country."

To Your Good Health

Children's Exercise Is Up To Parents

By JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D. I asked for it, and I received it! Some time ago I exploded on the subject of physical fitness of our children. I asked readers to let me know whether they agreed—and believe me, they did. Some school systems asked permission to reproduce the columns in letters to parents. I was, of course, more than happy to grant such permission. But I couldn't even begin to print acknowledgments of the letters and postcards I received. So to all who wrote to me on this subject my thanks!

Such bowing of the legs at your age can be due to changes in the hip joint, in which case there is little that can be done. Aspirin and kindred remedies, however, subdue the discomfort. "Dear Dr. Molner: I am told I am near some repair work for restlessness. Just how serious is this? Could it be a pre-cancerous condition?"—S.E.A.

"Dear Dr. Molner: I am told I had very straight legs. In the last two years I have had terrible pains in my knees. It was so severe that my legs had to give in and now I am bow-legged, especially the right leg. Can anything be done? I am 71 years old and weigh 160 pounds."—MRS. J. M.

Around The Rim

The Kind Of Leader We Like

Perhaps the candidates selected in the recent national conventions held by the two leading parties didn't quite measure up to what we expected in the way of political messiahs. Perhaps, though, we're a little more adult and a little more inquisitive than we were when we thought Uncle Henry fitted our idea of the All-American Hero because (1) he fed us nickels to buy candy at the grocery store, (2) had a way with kids, and (3) had served a hitch in the Army during World War I, although he never saw combat.

John Randolph of Roanoke and pure intellectual like John Quincy Adams are not major idols. A modern counterpart is Adlai Stevenson, spurned by the voters because he made the mistake of talking over their heads so much of the time. An able man, says Wecter, must not glory in his cleverness although, by our standards, one is allowed sometimes, "to put over a fast one" — Benjamin Franklin and Abraham Lincoln did so repeatedly. He must not appear, however, to relish the coup for its own sake. Art must conceal art.

Ed Kotterba

Tips On Helping Those Dying Dogs

By ED KOTTERBA (Writing for Inez Robb, who is on vacation) CHICAGO - I got sore feet. The weight of two conventions was too much for this flat-foot floogie. So I did the logical. I ended up getting advice from the leading foot man of Chicago, Dr. Donald Anderson, dean of the Illinois College of Podiatrists. Dr. Anderson, an older man than I, had just bounced in from a quarter-mile run around the track. His feet rested high over his head at his desk. "Prop your feet up," he offered. You can imagine the curious sight of two men trying to eye each other over the tops of their shoes. Before the interview was over, the good doctor was saying: "I hadn't intended to be so loquacious." What he meant, I think, was he had no intention of giving me so much free advice.

person said, "is keep off your feet." Funny that never occurred to me. Next he said: "Keep your weight down. The heavier you are, the more weight your feet must bear." He explained that humans are not so fortunate as animals, who distribute their weight on four legs. If there were ever a "Be-Kind-to-Your-Feet Week," he indicated, his first advice would be: "Go on a diet." Women, he said, trying to be diplomatic, ruin their feet by wearing ridiculous shoes. "Just think of yourself walking on needle heels," he said. Men, he pointed out, show more sense in show-wearing.

Tell The Truth About The RB-47's

WASHINGTON, D. C. - The ambassador doth protest too much! In casting the U.S. in a role of injured innocence over the RB-47 affair, Henry Cabot Lodge is doing us all a disfavor and is not adding to his own stature.

"A TYPICAL RB-47 mission would be reconnaissance but strike reconnaissance. On a warlike sortie, the plane typically would be called upon to make a deep penetration of hostile territory for several possible purposes. "One purpose would be to look for missile sites and airfields from which attacks could be launched upon the U.S.A."

WHAT WOULD I SAY if I were Mr. Lodge? Well, I already said it back in May with a series of columns entitled, "The Business of Aerial Reconnaissance." Those pieces were not written in a backyard hammock. I tramped around the Pentagon and Capitol Hill, and I made a trip out of town to get the information.

"Another would be to 'listen' to the enemy's electronic communications and to test the enemy's defenses against our planes and missiles. "ANOTHER, AFTER an exchange of (atomic) weapons, would be to bring back information so that intelligence officers could evaluate bomb damage by our side and judge the necessity of hitting these same target again.

ON MAY 26TH I wrote that "U. S. aerial reconnaissance over Sino-Russian territory" had probably returned by that date to "a state of as-you-were." I had learned from an incontestable source that "the slinky work of spying" by U-2 planes in the guise of "weather" flights for the "peaceful" National Aeronautics and Space (NASA) Administration had been dropped in favor of the "honest business of military scouting."

AND I SAY IT IS NO credit to the U.S.A. for Mr. Lodge to pretend that the plane was merely taking a cruise when destroyed by "a criminal and reckless act of piracy" in which the Soviet leaders may be "actually seeking a pretext for war."

"THE BASIC SAC reconnaissance plane is the Boeing RB-47E which flies around 600 miles per hour at 40,000 feet with a range (subject to refueling) that is limited only by the endurance of its three-member crew."

Colemans Note Anniversary

Three of the eight great grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Coleman of Ackerly were present at a family reunion Sunday at the couple's Lake Thomas cottage.

The occasion was the 54th wedding anniversary of the Colemans, who were married in Loraine in 1906, the actual date being Aug. 1. The early date was selected for the reunion to enable guests to be present more easily.

After their wedding the couple moved to Mitchell County where they lived until 1924, when they came to Howard County to make a home.

There are eight children, all of whom are living; of the 20 grandchildren, seven attended the all-day gathering.

Included in the children who were at the reunion were Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Norman and family, of San Angelo; Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Hughes and Mr. and Mrs. Luther Coleman of Big Spring; Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Coleman of Ackerly.

Children who were unable to attend were Mr. and Mrs. Verne Coleman of Eunice, N.M.; Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Witt of Rising Star; Mr. and Mrs. Olan Neff of Grant, N.M.; Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Coleman of Tucumcari, N.M.

Knott Girl Is Winner

Martha Robinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Robinson of Knott, was winner of a blue ribbon in the 4-H Club dress contest held in Lubbock Saturday.

With no entries in the senior division, 16 junior girls represented Howard County at the luncheon and dress revue given at the Student Union Building at Texas Tech College.

Miss Robinson modeled a dress made along shirtwaist lines with which she wore white accessories. The frock was a blue eyelash cotton, with pink threads woven into it and clipped to form the eyelash effect. Her hat, which she had made of the same material, was a small flat bow.

Festive Fashions Help Lace-Making In Calais, France

CALAIS, France (AP)—If the inhabitants of Calais had their way, even Eve's figleaf would have been trimmed with lace.

In Calais, the French port on the English Channel, most of the famed French lace is produced. And the people have lace in their blood and in their hearts as well as in their looms.

The lace made for the naughty black lingerie, Bardot-style petticoats, fashionable cocktail dresses, romantic wedding gowns and luxurious ballgowns accounts for a turnover of some 20 million dollars per year, half of which is in foreign currency through export. In 1958 the United States alone imported Calais lace for 4 1/2 million dollars.

For 25,000 Calais people lace means bread and butter.

This year lace is a la mode in Paris. More than 80 numbers of the new French Spring Haute Couture styles have been made of lace. For six of the most beautiful Paris-designed wedding gowns for spring brides Calais has furnished the lace material. Pierre Cardin has even introduced woolen lace neck ties for men.

The lace makers of Calais are optimistic. The 1960 fashions promise to keep their looms and their workmen busy. The special school in Calais where boys are taught the art and craft of producing lace is full of young students.

In the school, which was founded and is still directed by a priest, youngsters from the age of 14 on are taught for three years the complex mechanism of the Leavers lace looms, the highly technical work of drawing new lace patterns and the process of cleaning, dyeing and treating lace. At the end of their studies they can expect to earn $38 to $40 per week and increase their salaries up to a weekly $80 in later years. Most of the boys come from lace-making families, the love for the delicate craft being handed down from generation to generation.

A slip and a man may die. Mrs. Johnson is the only woman repairing and packing parachutes at Lowry Air Force Base. She's been a repairer and packer for 19 years.

"You've got to remember in this business," she says, "that every chute you pack is a potential jump. I've never had a failure, but I've had some men jokingly ask: 'If this doesn't open, will you give me another one?'"

"The rough part is getting the chute back into the little bag. The chute has to be accordion folded and then put in the pack by pulling up the flaps on all four sides and fastening them with temporary pins until you put in the ripcord."

Chutes must be inspected every 10 days and repacked every 60 days. Mrs. Johnson is alternate foreman at Lowry. Along with three other civilian packers and a serviceman she services approximately 1,000 automatic-release chutes for Lowry and the Air Force Academy, drag chutes on transient jets passing through the base and the paratrooper chutes for three academy officers.

Mrs. Johnson has a specialty. She is the only person in the Lowry shop who replaces silk sections. The process involves cutting a new section from special yard goods, basting it in while the chute is held taut on a table and sewing it with a machine.

During her career, which began at Kelly Field in San Antonio, Tex., there have been times when her work has been put to the test. Once five men bailed out in chutes packed by Mrs. Johnson. They wound up in a cornfield. "They picked up their chutes and carried them all the way back to the highway," Mrs. Johnson says. "Then the mother of one of the boys came to see me because I was the one who'd packed her son's chute."

News Hens Get A Hand From Dane

AP Newfeatures Inger Lise Christensen is a veteran Danish journalist, but she admits she's scared to death of American women reporters.

The reverse should be true, for Inger Lise speaks three languages, has worked for the French Agency Press and The Associated Press in Copenhagen, and has friends among the great all over the world. She's now with a Scandinavian airline.

Reticent by nature, and completely unassuming about her own career, Inger Lise feels American women reporters are "so competent and informed they make me afraid."

The invitation to address the recent annual convocation of Theta Sigma Phi, women's honorary journalistic fraternity, overwhelmed her too. As the first woman from overseas to make the main address, she felt uneasy at being an "expert" on newspaper work. Women in America, she thinks, have a more acute consciousness of being women, in their own right. "When they organize a business, a welfare project, an association, they organize a woman's affair. In Denmark, to draw the comparison, the women journalists simply become members of the already-existing all-male journalists associations," Inger Lise says the apprenticeship system is a requisite for a job on a provincial paper rather than journalistic education. The apprentice is thrown into all types of news-gathering, from death to speedwork.

Only journalistic course available, at the University of Aarhus, is given after the student has had at least two years apprenticeship.

Local Girls Return From Camp In New Mexico

Back from a stay at Western Life Camp in Montezuma, N.M. are Beverly and Sherri Alexander and a group of local girls.

Daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Alexander, 707 W. 18th, Beverly was a counselor for the 8-10 group and an instructor in archery; Sherri was a camper, winning an intermediate swimming badge, 300-man in archery and being chosen camper of the week.

Others were Erin Marcum, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. C. B. Marcum, who was a member of the water ballet, the Davy Crockett Club and received a pro-marksman rank in riflery; Gene Ann Peacock, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. George Peacock, who received a bowman brassard in archery and made an overnight horseback trip to Elks Mountain, which is accorded third year campers.

Also in the group were Cheryl Wilbanks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grady Wilbanks, the recipient of five awards in archery, a member of the Davy Crockett Club and the water ballet and was camper of the week. Frankie Cherry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Cherry, was a camper of the week, received six archery awards, made the Elk Mountain trip and was a Davy Crockett Club member.

Another local girl, Sara Whittington, received a junior yeomanship in archery and the intermediate swimming badge. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Whittington.

Topping the entire membership at camp in receiving eight archery awards was Susie Weber, daughter of Col. and Mrs. H. L. Weber; she was a member of the water ballet and was vice president of the Robin Hood Club.

Campers

Just back from a New Mexico camp are, left to right, Sherri Alexander, Erin Marcum; Gene Ann Peacock, Cheryl Wilbanks, Frankie Cherry, Sara Whittington, Beverly Alexander, who was a camp counselor, and kneeling, Susie Weber.
