Experts Got A Fright

MOSCOW (AP)—Two mongrel dogs in their space flight reacted alarmingly after the rocket blast-off last Friday, raising fears something had gone wrong, the Communist newspaper Pravda reported today. But 10-pound Belka (squirrel) and 12-pound Strelka (arrow), shown to newspapermen in Moscow for the first time, rallied and soon were eating as their space ship sped on its orbit, the party newspaper said. The newspaper also reported the capsule containing the two dogs, other animals, flies, plants and fungi made a smooth, undamaged landing in a meadow after being discharged from the mother space ship. The capsule came down Saturday after 18 revolutions around the earth in 24 hours, Pravda said. The 4 1/2-ton space ship, after discharging its living cargo at a low altitude, also made history by landing safely itself, Pravda said. It gave no details.

HUNG LIMP Scientists watching the reaction of the dogs by television placed aboard the space ship said the dogs' heads and paws hung limp and unmovable after emerging from the terrific pull of the take-off, Pravda said. "We were alarmed at that moment," one scientist told Pravda. "Only the data of the telemetric system quieted us. The dogs' pulse and breathing were continuing." Pravda said one scientist gave this account of the landing of the capsule: "The container with the dogs landed on a smooth meadow surrounded by arable fields. On landing four farmers were not far away. They surrounded the unusual guest from the cosmos and examined it. "Somebody read a sign on the container which carried a request to report the finding to a given address but they didn't have to send a telegram. Soon above their heads an airplane of observers appeared. It landed specialists who were the first to open the traveling ship.

RUSHED OUT "Belka and Strelka rushed out of it. They ran about the meadow fawning upon people and barking merrily." One Soviet scientist, Prof. D. V. Martynov, said that the satellite used in the test "could carry both a man and large variety of scientific instruments." Other scientists hailed the recovery of the ship as another big step toward sending a man into space.

The journey covered 700,000 kilometers—434,700 miles—in an orbit 190.8 miles above the earth. The Soviets said the landings were made within seven miles of the target spot. Strelka and Belka leaped from their cabin after their hatch was opened and "barked joyously and fawned on the people," Pravda said.

LIVELY Their companions on the epic flight were reportedly equally lively on returning, the mice nibbling on biscuits, the flies "keeping flying around the flasks" in which they traveled. "One of the plants that was on board the space ship continued to blossom," the Soviet news agency Tass reported.

TV cameras inside the space capsule recorded the actions of the dogs during the flight. Astronomer Mikhail Barabashov said they showed the phenomenon of weightlessness in space caused no grave disturbances of physical function. Some Soviet newspapers reported briefly the recovery of the 85-pound U.S. space capsule in the air over the Pacific but this was dismissed as an experiment for espionage purposes.

SOVIET LEAD West European newspapers generally viewed the Soviet achievement as another demonstration of the Soviet lead in the race with the United States to get a man into space. The London Observer said the Soviet feat "will be a bitter pill to American scientists who have also successfully recovered objects from orbit, but on a far more modest scale."

Prof. Alfred J. Lovell, director of Britain's giant radio telescope Jodrell Bank, said the Soviets "undoubtedly have a lead of several years over the Americans in their ability to put extremely heavy objects into orbit and also in the precision of their guidance. "But, on the other hand, the Americans, from the extremely wide scope of their scientific experiments and their ability to extract fundamental results, have a considerable lead over the Russians," Lovell added.

Stockholm's Dagens Nyheter said it was only a question of time "before the Russian technicians consider themselves sure enough to send a man into space."

Sierra Forest Fires Black Out Reno Area

RENO, Nev. (AP)—Sierra forest fires blacked out the Reno and Lake Tahoe areas Sunday night and exploded over 55,000 acres today. Threatened California mountain vacation resorts escaped the flames. A fire at Donner Lake, spread from 7,000 acres Sunday to a total of 24,700 acres today. It moved 17 miles in 24 hours to within five miles of the Nevada border, a California Forest Service spokesman said. A fire storm to the south in the Forest Hill Divide area of California raged over 30,000 acres and forced evacuation of several mountain hamlets. It burned all eight homes in Bath, two miles east of Forest Hill Saturday and about a dozen in nearby Michigan Bluff and the Baker Ranch community. Fire fighters were called in from Montana, Washington, Oregon and Idaho to assist the 1,650 men at the Forest Hill and the 550 at Donner Lake fires.

A third Sierra blaze—this one north in Nevada County, Calif.—exploded Sunday night from 1,500 acres to 7,000 acres and forced evacuation of North San Juan, a community of 300 persons. Forest Service officials said they hoped to save the town. Hundreds of tourists were stranded because gasoline pumps weren't working. Operators fitted their pumps with power motors, ancient hand pumps and diesel generators. Some 300 cars were trapped in a pigeon-hole garage in Reno because the elevator couldn't operate. Burglar alarms didn't work. Nevada sheriffs and highway patrol cars couldn't communicate with headquarters. Restaurants served cold meals by candlelight.

Marilyn Monroe's new picture "Let's Make Love" couldn't make its world premiere in Reno. A heavyweight fight between Tommy (Hurricane) Jackson of Long Island, N.Y., and Howard King of Reno had to be canceled. Water had to be rationed because electric water pumps were out. The gambling casinos did a booming business as usual. The major clubs turned on emergency diesel generators. Smaller clubs closed for fear of thieves in the dark.

A spokesman for the Sierra Pacific Power Co. said it might be two days before power lines could be restored.

Plans for an enlistment effort among its own constituency for a building fund have been developed by the Lakeview YMCA. At a meeting of volunteers Saturday evening, it was voted to set a goal of $10,000 for the fund, said Mrs. Opaline Finley, secretary. The drive dates have been fixed tentatively for Sept. 5-Oct. 5. While no limits have been set, workers are hopeful that there will be no gifts less than $1 and that they will run substantially higher than that.

There will be 10 captains under the direction of Ralph Ross, and each will have five workers. All will carry identifications and will issue receipts to donors. Among the team captains with Ross are Mrs. Neil Ross, Mrs. Clemma Johnson, Mrs. Marguerite Evans, Jesse Evans, Mrs. Isabelle Johnson, Odette Johnson, Mrs. Mary Lee McIntyre, the Rev. Sammy Davis and I. G. Baulehan.

Solar Pressure Dooms Satellite PASADENA, Calif. (AP)—Less pressure than a fly's weight is pushing the Echo I balloon satellite toward a fiery death in the earth's atmosphere. Scientists say the 80-pound balloon is dropping 2.2 miles closer to the earth every 24 hours because of infinitesimal pressure of sunlight. When the satellite was launched Aug. 12 its lowest point to the earth was 945 miles. Now it is 890 miles. Duane Muhlmann, research group supervisor at the Jet Propulsion Laboratory, said Sunday that at this rate the satellite "would hit the ground 450 days after launch—if you discounted the effect of atmosphere."

Congo Regime Withdraws Demands On U. N. Forces

Lonnie Smith Brings In First Bale

The first bale of the 1960 cotton crops belongs to Lonnie Smith. It was gained this morning at the Cotton Gin, 300 NE 2nd. Smith rolled into the cotton yards at 10:43 a.m. and was followed by T. C. Proctor at 11 a.m. The first bale weighed 550 pounds and was picked over 15 acres. The raw cotton weighed between 23 and 24 hundred pounds. Smith started 35 pickers to work this morning. As an incentive, he offered $10 to the picker weighing the most cotton. Dan Rise brought in 184 pounds to take the money and help Smith take the $500 award offered by the agriculture committee of the Chamber of Commerce. Wesley Deats is chairman of the committee. Smith's farm, located 14 miles northwest of Big Spring, has 65 acres in cotton. "I believe I could have gotten in Thursday or Friday if I had gone out and picked it," he said. "There is more cotton open out there than I thought," he added. Smith has farmed in this area since 1934. This is his first year to have the first bale of cotton.

An Anxious Weighting M. C. McClain, (L) of the Gular Gin weighs the first bale of cotton for 1960 with an anxious assist from Lonnie Smith (r.) who brought it in. Gin Manager G. C. Broughton Jr. looks on in the background. Smith had no cause for concern. The bale weighed 550 pounds, 100 pounds more than required to qualify for the $500 offered by the Agriculture Committee of the Chamber of Commerce for the first bale.

Reversal Brought By Council Action

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—The Congolese government today withdrew the demands it has been trying to impose on the United Nations Congo operation. In a sharp reversal of its previous position, the government announced it "sees no reason to press its demands" in view of the latest Security Council meeting on the Congo. The Security Council, in effect, reaffirmed the policy pursued by the U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold. He has been under fire by the Congolese who accused him of "blackmail, treason and plotting." Today, in a statement with neutrals in the Congolese capital, a Congolese government spokesman told newsmen: "The government is satisfied that Belgian troops will be withdrawn. The government considers that the atmosphere is good." Among the demands made by Premier Patrice Lumumba were withdrawal of all white United Nations soldiers from the Congo, a supply of planes by the U.N. to transport Congolese soldiers to deal with political dissension in the interior, and the appointment of an African-Asian committee to advise Hammarskjold. Lumumba had threatened that unless the Security Council bowed to his demands he would appeal for aid to another power. It has been made more or less clear that the other power would be the Soviet Union, which has been gaining more ground daily in this troubled African nation. The government's position was communicated to newsmen by Serge Michel, a left-wing communist Frenchman of Russian origin, who has been acting as Lumumba's chief press aide. Michel's statement followed a three-hour meeting of Lumumba and the silver-haired Soviet ambassador in the Congo, M. D. Yakovlev.

U.N. Overwhelmingly Endorses Dag.

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The U.N. Security Council Sunday night overwhelmingly endorsed Dag Hammarskjold's direction of U.N. military and civilian aid in the Congo. There was no formal vote in the council after more than 12 hours of debate, but speaker after speaker from all regions of the world upheld the U.N. secretary-general's policy of neutrality toward the Congo's domestic disputes. The council majority rejected the blasts of Congo Premier Patrice Lumumba and the harsh criticism by the Soviet Union that poured out over Moscow radio and was repeated here by Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Vasily Kuznetsov. Hammarskjold flew back to New York Aug. 16 seeking council support of his refusal to use the U.N. force of nearly 15,000 men to put Lumumba in control of mineral-rich Katanga province, whose Premier Moïse Tshombe declared his independence of Lumumba's government. Hammarskjold said that if Lumumba's view was upheld, the U.N. operation would have to be ended in the Congo. "BLACKMAIL" Lumumba cried blackmail and demanded that the U.N. force be put under his government's control and that Hammarskjold be supplanted by a commission from 14 African and Asian nations, Lumumba's emissary, Deputy Premier Antoine Gizenga, repeated the demands in the council debate. Kuznetsov proposed a resolution to create an Asian-African committee as a sort of overlord of the U.N. force. But as the council session neared its end after midnight, the gaunt, graying Soviet official confessed he could not get the seven votes necessary in the 11-nation council to approve the resolution. He withdrew the resolution and the marathon session—second in two weeks on the Congo situation—ended without a vote. It marked still another setback for the Soviet Union, which during the debate (1) demanded withdrawal of Canadian troops from the U.N. force "because Canada is an ally of Belgium"; (2) called Belgium an aggressor in the Congo, trying with NATO allies to establish a new form of colonialism under a U.N. flag; (3) and said the United States was trying to bring the Congo into the NATO sphere of influence under Hammarskjold's civilian aid program to get the Congo government zoning on a workable basis. UNMISTAKABLE The rejection of the Soviet contention was unmistakable. Hammarskjold took the floor three times to argue quietly with the statements of Gizenga and Kuznetsov. The secretary-general said he was adopting the Soviet suggestion for an advisory committee, which he said would be made up of governments contributing units to the U.N. military force in the Congo. But he said it would do his advising at U.N. headquarters, not in Leopoldville as Kuznetsov proposed, and it would not report to the Congo government as the Soviet demanded. Hammarskjold said he had made clear to the council previously that he did not believe U.N. forces could be used to solve internal political differences in the Congo and that no member of the council had challenged his view. He said this policy of neutrality "seems to me to be unquestionable" in the light of the U.N. charter and past U.N. practices. NO QUARREL Mongi Sliro of Tunisia, the African bloc's representative on the council, delivered for the majority of the nine-nation bloc an endorse-

Exiles Challenge Cuban Envoys As OAS Turns To Red Activities

SAN JOSE, Costa Rica (AP)—Cuba's representation in the meeting of Western Hemisphere foreign ministers was challenged in an open letter today by the anti-Castro Cuban Democratic Revolutionary Front. The challenge came from the front, formed recently by Cubans in exile, as the ministers turned to a discussion of Communist infiltration of Latin America. The Cuban people are not represented, the organization declared in a two-page advertisement in a San Jose newspaper. "Cuba's chair," it said, "will be occupied by an agent of the extracontinental movement that has taken violent control of our fatherland." Foreign Minister Raul Roa heads the Cuban delegation for the session, in which that island nation may be pointed out as a Trojan horse for communism in the Americas. Prime Minister Fidel Castro has already served notice Cuba will reject any such charge and will bitterly attack the United States. A Cuban walkout from the conference being held by the Organization of American States (OAS) is possible. The foreign ministers turned to discussing Communist infiltration of Latin America after signing a resolution condemning the dictatorial regime of Generalissimo Rafael L. Trujillo in the Dominican Republic. The United States joined with other members of the OAS Sunday in approving diplomatic and economic restrictions against the Trujillo regime until it makes democratic reforms. The Dominican delegation walked out of the conference Saturday in protest against the resolution, which it termed "illegal and coercive." The hemispheric foreign ministers are expected to proceed more cautiously in attacking Communist penetration and particularly the growing friendship between Cuba and the Soviet Union. Castro has many Latin-American followers; Dominican strongman Trujillo has few. But diplomatic observers are predicting a strongly worded resolution condemning Soviet attempts to intervene in the hemisphere's affairs. Cuba could be indicted—either directly or indirectly—as a nation which has direct links with Soviet communism. Roa already has anticipated such a charge. He told the ministers last week that the Castro government is following its own independent line and is not a satellite of anybody. A graver charge against Cuba—at least in Latin-American eyes—may be that it has become a dictatorship where human rights which the revolution pledged to protect are being violated. One of the first things the foreign ministers are expected to discuss will be the report of a five-nation Inter-American Peace Committee on its studies of tensions in the Caribbean. This report says tensions have been "considerably intensified as a result of the growing interest of the Soviet Union... in inter-American matters." A U.S. memorandum contained in the report charges Cuba is "being rapidly transformed into a dictatorial political state and also a state in which the reins of political control are being concentrated increasingly in the hands of the Communist party."

Well Heeled Oilers Worry About Knee

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

The Well Heeled Oilers Oilers are worried about a knee. The knee belongs to Billy Cannon, the high-priced two-time All-America and Heisman Trophy winner who survived the rigors of a court suit, but has yet to make his mark as a professional on the football field.

Cannon was lured into the new American Football League by Bud Adams, the oil-millionaire owner of the Houston club who supplied the Louisiana State great with a $100,000 three-year contract that also included lucrative fringe benefits.

Then Adams had to take his case to court when the Los Angeles Rams of the old National League also disputed a signed Cannon contract. Adams won the case, but hasn't really gained a ball player.

The potential to draw in the new league, Cannon has been shackled by an injured knee and has seen only limited action in Houston's first three exhibition games—two of them losses.

With Cannon sidelined, under-study Charlie Tolar took over and rammed over for two touchdowns as the Oilers made their home debut a success this weekend by overwhelming the Denver Broncos 42-3.

In other AFL preseason tests, he undrafted Dallas Texans blasted New York's Titans 38-14 and the Boston Patriots defeated the Buffalo Bills 21-7.

American Tracksters Said To Be In Excellent Condition

By WILL GRIMSLEY
ROME (AP) — The head of America's Olympic forces that the star-studded U.S. men's track and field team may be going stale and forecast a cascade of gold medals in the forthcoming games.

"From top to bottom, this is the finest collection of athletes we ever have sent to the games," said Kenneth (Tug) Wilson of Chicago, president of the U.S. Olympic Committee.

"They have been superbly trained and superbly handled. If we are beaten out for medals, it will be because of the competition. We will not beat ourselves."

Wilson's comments came in the wake of charges that the U.S. men's track squad faced an Olympic letdown because of so many preliminary meets, including the two-day weekend competition at Bern, Switzerland.

All In Vain

George Proas, (88) Baltimore Colts tackle, takes Tom Franckhauer, (32) Dallas Cowboys back, out of play to help pave the way for Lenny Moore, (24) Colts back, who raced 23 yards into the end zone. The play was called back and the Colts penalized 5 yards for a rules infraction. Play was in the third quarter of the Colts-Cowboys pre-season game in Dallas which the Colts won 14-0. (AP Wirephoto).

Others survived a fight-filled battle with Philadelphia for a 47-21 triumph and the Detroit Lions edged the St. Louis Cardinals 24-21 on a Jim Martin field goal with 3:15 left.

Tolar did the leg work and veteran NFL quarterback George Blanda tossed two touchdown passes in Houston's rout of Denver.

Signal-caller Cotton Davidson passed 42 yards to Johnny Robinson for one TD and scored twice himself as Dallas made it four triumphs in succession. New York's Bill Shockley ran 26 yards for a score to tie it 7-7 before a Jack Spikes field goal put the Cowboys ahead to stay.

Boston's winning touchdown against the Bills came on a spectacular 75-yard pitch from Tommy Greene to Oscar Lofton early in the third period.

The Eagles' Tommy McDonald caught scoring passes of 14, 8, 57 and 7 yards, but was unable to singlehandedly whip the 40ers. San Francisco's Fred Williams tangled with the Philadelphia bench in one of the messiest games in the league, but he was unable to break out, and the Eagles' Jerry Williams was banished after taking a swing at 40er John Thomas. Martin's clutch field goal won it for the Lions, but it was Jim Ninowski's passing which brought them within range against the Cards. Recently acquired from Cleveland, Ninowski completed 13 of 30 passes for 154 yards and two touchdowns in a second-half drive.

Fairfield Is 22 Under At St. Paul

St. Paul, Minn. (AP) — Don Fairfield didn't flinch as better known veterans took dead aim at his lead Sunday. He called a 22-under-par performance with a neat 67 to shut out all challengers in the St. Paul Open Golf tourney.

Fairfield, 30, of Jacksonville, Ill., took home $4,500 for his efforts, his first tournament victory since 1956 and only his second in five years on the tour.

His final 67 with previous rounds of 66, 68 and 65 gave him a 72-hole total of 266.

Fairfield shook off Lionel Hebert of Lafayette, La., with birdies on the 10th and 11th and wound it up with another bird on the 18th to leave Hebert two strokes behind.

Sharing runner-up honors with Hebert was Billy Casper of Apple Valley, Calif. Gardner Dickinson of Palm Beach, Fla., had the final day's best round, with a 63. Bunched at 270 for third place were Sam Snead, Don Whit of Borrego Springs, Calif., and Al Geiberger of Studio City, Calif.

QB TICKETS NOW READY

Quarterback Club members were urged again Monday by Dr. Robert Johnson, QB Club president, to get ticket packets for the annual barbecue honoring the Steer football squad.

These can be secured either at the Chamber of Commerce office or from Milton Carver, secretary at Carver Pharmacy. The barbecue is set for Sept. 6, three days before the Steers open in Pampa, and the tickets will be $1.50 and 75c.

This year Quarterback memberships are being sold separately for $2.

Marchants Win Places

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Marchant of Big Spring shared honors at the meeting of the West Texas Archery League Sunday at San Angelo.

Marchant took first place in the men's 175-yard event, while Mrs. Marchant took the top award in the women's 125-yard match.

The next meeting of the league will be held the third Sunday in September at Snyder.

Jack Kemer, Odessa, editor of the Texas Archery Bulletin, is due here this Sunday to inspect the local range, at the Western Sportsman's rifle range, northwest of Big Spring. Local archers are hoping for official approval of their layout.

BENEFACTIC BOSOX

If Baltimore's orioles should pull off the biggest upset of the 1960 baseball season and win the American League pennant, you can thank the Boston Red Sox.

Of the 18 games played between the two teams, the Orioles have won 14.

One of the reasons for the Orioles' superiority over the Red Sox has been Ronnie Hansen.

The 22-year-old shortstop, who seems bent on capturing rookie-of-the-year honors, hit one of Baltimore's two home runs Sunday as the Orioles drubbed the Red Sox 10-4 to move into a second-place tie with Chicago, only a game and a half behind the league-leading Yankees. The other Baltimore homer was a grand slammer by catcher Gus Triandos.

Season's Longest Shot Rumps Home At Ruidoso

RUIDOSO, N.M. — A 54-1 shot Victory Pal won the 13th race at Ruidoso Downs Sunday to pay one of the highest returns at the downs this year.

Victory Pal, owned by Mrs. B. D. Thorpe of Chandler, Ariz., combined with Little Paul for a Quinella of $273.30.

The featured "Robert Rockwell Allowance" was won by Dancing Hooper, owned by Jerry Garcia of Big Spring, Texas. Dancing Hooper negotiated the six furlongs in 1:20.6 and paid $20.10, $6.80 and 1:21.10.

Saturday Currie's Debonair Dandy had won the 11th race in the second division derby trials, an event at seven furlongs for three-year-olds in the same race. Dandy D, owned by J. C. Dillard of Big Spring, ran third.

Daily Double winners were San Patrio and Bella Bella, for a pay of $190.60. An estimated 4,100 pushed $288,207 through the gates. Pick up again.

Atkins And Bryant Win In Foursome

Teams composed of Madeline Atkins and Weldon Bryant and of Alta Lee Underwood and Max Milam captured Scotch Foursome play at the Big Spring Country Club on Sunday.

Mrs. Atkins and Bryant had the low gross and Mrs. Underwood and Milam were low net.

Second-low gross went to Betty Jones and Bill Cheek, while second low net was captured by Edith Ramsey and El Combs. The perseverance award went to Mickey Marcum and Pat Patterson.

The next Scotch Foursome play is set tentatively for Sept. 18.

It's becoming more evident each day that if Milwaukee is to overtake Pittsburgh, it will be done behind the strong arms of those immitable roommates, Warren Spahn and Lew Burdette, with an assist from Bob Buhl.

Spahn Sunday hurled his 15th victory, a 3-2 decision over Philadelphia. That cut Pittsburgh's first place lead to 6 1/2 games. The Pirates were beaten by Cincinnati 6-4.

The brilliant southpaw is now one up on rookie Burdette, whose 14th triumph last Thursday was a no-hitter against the same Pils.

Since the Fourth of July, Spahn has won nine of 11 and completed seven of 10 starts. He has relieved only twice. During the same span, Burdette has won six of nine decisions and has completed six of nine starts. He, too, has relieved only twice. Between them, Spahn and Burdette have won 29 of the 63 games they have pitched 23 of their 36 complete games.

Martin Easy PGA Winner

LUBBOCK (AP)—Little Iverson Martin, the smooth swinger from El Paso, tucked $1,000 into his jeans today as evidence that he beat out the challenge of stars of the golf tour and won the Texas PGA with 278-710 under par.

Martin had a par 72 Sunday as he coasted in with first money, two strokes to the good over the last gasp drive of Don January of Dallas.

January pulled within a stroke of Martin in the stretch run but when Iverson bagged a birdie at No. 11 it was all over. He had made the turn 1-over as January, playing ahead of him, moved within one stroke. January, though, bogged two holes to shoot himself out of contention. He also failed to pick up birdie putts on five of the back nine holes.

The Dallas star of the PGA tour had a closing 71 for 280 and won $600 second money.

Chuck Klea, of San Antonio, also had a 71 and wound up with 281 and third money of $300.

Dick Metz, of San Antonio, world's seniors champion, won the senior division title with 138 for 36 holes, getting $100, and also finished in a tie for fourth in the tournament proper, with 292 and won $287.50.

Tigers Defeat Brownfield, Make It 24 For The Season

Brownfield—Behind the 6-hit performance of Ronnie Mosier, who has yet to lose a decision this season, the Big Spring Tigers Sunday plastered a 13-4 defeat on Brownfield.

Mosier was never extended, but the Tigers had to come from behind to go ahead in the fifth on Billy Weatherall's seventh homer

Rawls Repeats At Asheville

ASHEVILLE, N.C. (AP) — Betsy Rawls of Spartanburg, S.C., played three holes in a driving rain but still shot a two-under par 69 Sunday to win the Asheville Women's Open Golf Tournament with a 54-hole total of 211.

It was the second straight Asheville Women's Open title for Miss Rawls. She had 13 one-putt greens and needed only 23 putts for the 18 holes.

Louise Suggs of Atlanta had a 72 on the final 18 holes for a 213, good for second place.

Jo Ann Prentice of Birmingham, Ala., tied with Miss Rawls at 142 after the first two rounds, scored to a 78 Sunday and finished third at 220.

The first place finish was worth $1,247 to Miss Rawls.

Joanne Gunderson Favored To Cop Women's Tourney

TULSA, Okla. (AP) — Tall, blonde Joanne Gunderson is slated to tee off today as favorite among the 102 players in the first round of the National Women's Amateur Golf Championship.

Action today on the 6,150-yard Tulsa Country Club course, with its par of 35-37, called for 38 first round matches. Twenty-six players drew byes.

Miss Gunderson, of Kirkland, Wash., caught the attention of spectators Sunday with her solid wood game over the well-matted Bermuda grass course.

"Her game looked just as good on the bent grass greens that most players described as 'extremely fast and far too small,'" Miss Gunderson met former Oklahoma champion Betsy Cullen in the opening round.

Defending champion Barbara McIntire, of Lake Park, Fla., played Gwen Brownlee of Tulsa, in her first round match.

The field also includes six members of the Curtis Cup team that came through with a 6 1/2-1 1/2 triumph over the British this year.

Bomb Victims Get Help In Race Violence

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP)—The Thomas Reid family rested across town from their bomb-shattered apartment today after friends, both white and Negro, came to their assistance.

The explosion Sunday stirred Mayor P. R. Oiglati to call the series of bombings "a disgrace to our city." He said he would ask the City Commission to post a $2,000 reward.

All the blasts—this made the fifth this month and the fourth in 10 days—were marked with racial overtones.

The pre-dawn explosion wrecked one side of the duplex apartment occupied by the Negro family, slightly injuring two of their four children.

White persons live some three blocks from the Reid home. Reid said he had "never had trouble of any kind, with anyone."

David Reid, 7 months, was sleeping in a bedroom with his parents. His bed, only a few feet from the center of the blast, was showered with glass. He and Sandra Lennise, 3, sleeping in another room, were treated for cuts at Children's Hospital.

The other two youngsters, Thomas Jr., 4, and Sharon Lynn, 2, escaped injury along with the parents. The family had lived in the apartment for four years.

The Reids were swamped with offers for help. An owner of the chemical company where Reid works offered a truck and personally helped him to move his furniture.

Scores of people from Reid's church and labor union were scurrying around the dwelling by mid-morning—cleaning up shattered glass and broken furniture.

Last Friday the entire police force was assembled by Police Commissioner H. P. Dunlap, who urged that "everything humanity possible" be done to end the blast.

Last Wednesday two blasts, seconds apart, ripped through the fashionable home of a white real estate salesman whose company had offered formerly white property for sale to Negroes.

All the other bombings were at Negro homes in racially mixed areas—or in historically white neighborhoods, now occupied by Negroes.

No arrests have been made in connection with any of the incidents.

THIS DAY IN TEXAS
By CURTIS BISHOP

The first issue of a historic Texas newspaper was distributed to subscribers on this day in 1842. The newly-born "Northern Standard" started at Clarksville by Colonel Charles DeMorse, was dated two days earlier, but probably composition and mechanical preparation did not measure up to the publisher's hopes.

DeMorse is usually referred to as the "father of Texas journalism." It was largely through his efforts that the Texas Press Association was organized.

As an editor DeMorse was aggressive and particularly vehement on the abuses of the public domain. He was instrumental in organizing the Land Fraud Board, to which he was appointed. This board reported to the Legislature that vast areas of the unsettled West Texas country had been fenced in by cattlemen without any sort of agreement and that many cow barons were grazing their herds upon the open range without paying a dollar in lease money.

The "Northern Standard" continued publication until October 25, 1887, when this journalistic landmark gave up. DeMorse, the colorful publisher, served with distinction during the Civil War.

Couple Killed By Lightning

BAY CITY, Mich. (AP)—Successive bolts of lightning killed a man and his wife Sunday. The furious electrical storm felled Marjorie Shook, 22, then killed her husband, Robert, 27, as he ran to her body. The couple left three young children. Mrs. Shook was visiting neighbors in suburban Linwood when the storm started. "I've got to get home to my kids," she told Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Chaffee. She ran out into the storm. David Stone, another neighbor, said "Mrs. Shook reached the center of the road and was trying to wrap a plastic raincoat around her when the first bolt hit her square. "Her husband was about 50 feet ahead, on his lawn. "He turned around and looked at her, stunned by the noise, and then he started to run back. The next one hit him before he got there," Stone said.

Fire Kills 4

FOWLERVILLE, Mich. (AP)—Fire killed four brothers Sunday as they played in a barn on their uncle's farm while the parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Crofoot, fished on a nearby lake. Relatives feared the worst when the children could not be found, but it was hours before the charred bodies were discovered in the ruins. Killed were Raymond, 6, Leonard, 5, Edward, 3, and Allendale, 16 months.

Tornado Hits Lake Dallas As Violent Storms Rake Area

By The Associated Press
A tornado smashed into Lake Dallas Sunday injuring one man seriously and blowing parts of buildings over a wide area. The twister hit as a violent thunderstorm and ominous black clouds swept the Dallas-Fort Worth region. Lightning, thunder and driving rain hit the area uprooting trees, knocking down wires and flooding some streets. Mr. and Mrs. Gene Williams of Fort Worth were in a grocery store in the small town of Lake Dallas, 30 miles north of Dallas, when the twister tore through the building. Williams suffered a possible fractured hip but his wife was less seriously hurt. Jeff Howe, one of the operators of the store, said "A hard sheet of water hit the plate glass in front. Then the windows blew out, the roof went, and everything just caved in." By early Monday the weather had calmed. Some thundershower activity was reported in the extreme southeastern portion of Texas. Skies over the state were generally clear to partly cloudy. Fog covered eastern portions of the state.

Scattered thunderstorms hit in West, South and East Texas. A severe weather alert for a wide section of southeastern Texas expired Sunday night with no violent weather reported. The area was bounded by Mexia, Palestine, Cushing, Stowell, Houston, Columbus, Bryan and back to Mexia. The heaviest rain of the day was at Carrollton, northwest of Dallas, where 4.36 inches fell during the 12 hour period ending at noon. Nearby Farmers Branch had 3.22, and Kaufman had 2.66. These totals did not include rain that fell after noon. During the 24 hours ending at 6 p.m. Sunday Fort Worth had 1.58 inches of rain, Dallas 1.54, Lufkin 1.43, Abilene .04, Amarillo .21, Beaumont .26, College Station .04, Childress .29, Galveston .03, Houston .04, Mineral Wells .95, Victoria .03, Waco .17 and Wichita Falls .32. The novice community in Coleman County had 2.89 inches of rain in one hour. Up to 4 inches of rain fell in that area. Cisco had 1.29 inches, Rising Star 1.19 and Eastland got .90. The heavy rains flooded some streets in Dallas and winds uprooted some trees and knocked out a few power lines.

SOUL OF THE LION. By Willard M. Wallace. Thomas Nelson $5.
"One of the most remarkable officers...ever to serve in any American army." That's a sweeping statement by the author of "Soul of the Lion" but it is not a whit more than truth. Joshua Lawrence Chamberlain was a remarkable man by any measurement, by none more so than in military achievement. It is possible that many who take some pride in their knowledge of the Civil War would have trouble placing Joshua Chamberlain in his proper niche. This reviewer had only casual knowledge of him until three years ago when John L. Pullen's stirring story of "The Twentieth Maine" rescued him from the limbo of forgotten heroes.

Steve Allen, Holt, Rinehart & Winston, $4.95.
Using a TV technical expression for title, Allen gives us a long book—after all he leads a busy life—with the Allen story in and out of the theater, and film, radio and TV studios. He is commendably aware of the problems social, political and moral of the world in which he has won his extraordinary fame, and he discusses family, prayer, TV, TV critics, communism, black list; he knows about Greece's Golden Age, Thomas Aquinas, Bertrand Russell, C. S. Lewis, Toynebee, Camus as well as Arthur Godfrey and Bob Hope. He also tells a few funny incidents.

As a soldier, Chamberlain took part in 24 battles. He was six times wounded, once so critically that his obituary was published in the newspapers and his recovery was considered so remarkable that his case was recorded in the war's official medical and surgical history. He was the only man to win a battlefield promotion from U. S. Grant. He was awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor for gallantry at Gettysburg where Chamberlain and the Twentieth Maine saved the Union right—and perhaps the battle—at Little Round Top.

A ready wit and a fine knack for clowning are as valuable as anything in this world, I suppose. But I would think that Allen, who knows how hard it is to be good in his own field even after years of experience, would realize it's just as hard to be good in, for instance, writing and would be content to wait till he's had more experience at it. Let him say a sentence, it is funny, let him write it, it falls flat. Set him in front of a camera and he opens up; in front of a typewriter, he clams up. Author Allen is no friend to Allen the man. And as for his poetry, with which he is too too generous, it's better than that of Julia Moore, the "sweet singer of Michigan," but it would not stand comparison with anybody else's at all.

—W. G. ROGERS
AP ARTS EDITOR

All this was accomplished without military training. If you want the truth about it, Chamberlain was a "political general"—but with none of the connotations of stupidity, pomposity and string-pulling usually associated with the breed. He came to the army as a professor of rhetoric and languages at Bowdoin College in his native Maine. He returned to Bowdoin as president after the war, served four terms as governor of Maine and had an illustrious career as educator, statesman, orator and writer.

In many ways, Chamberlain was ahead of his times. As a commander in battle, he was an innovator, particularly in discarding the closed-order charge in favor of open formation. As president of Bowdoin, he advocated stress on science and engineering. Many of his philosophies are as pertinent today as when he uttered them. It's high time that Chamberlain was given recognition. And it is gratifying that he receives that recognition in a work of real stature.

Getting The Buggs Out Of His Family
LONDON (AP)—There have been Buggs in the little Suffolk village of Wetheringsett for 250 years. But now the Buggs of Wetheringsett (Pop. 812) will be known as Boydens. Farmer Charles Edward Buggs was tired of his "annoying" surname and over the weekend gave public notice he's changing it.

Negro Kneel-In Maneuvers Fail

ATLANTA (AP)—Negroes made only three reported attempts to worship with white persons in Atlanta churches over the weekend and all failed.

Four Negroes were turned away at First Christian, four at Westminster Presbyterian and two at Grace Methodist on the third Sunday since the start of a kneel-in campaign.

No incidents were reported in Atlanta. But at Savannah a policeman was called when two Negro members of the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People tried to enter the First Baptist church.

The officer asked them to depart and they did. The two were among 16 NAACP members who attempted to visit 10 Savannah churches. They worked in pairs for the most part.

The visitors were welcomed and seated with the congregation at Christ Episcopal and Tabernacle Baptist and assigned balcony seats at the Lutheran Church of the Ascension.

Negroes declined balcony seats at two other churches, however, and were turned away at five churches including First Baptist.

Hope Dims For Family

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—Hope dimmed today for Henry Griffing and his family, missing since Tuesday on a plane flight from New Jersey to Oklahoma City, but an air-land search continued.

The search Sunday ranged from Oklahoma to northern New York. Searchers came across a pair of leads as to the fate of the Griffing family, but neither panned out.

Griffing, 53, left Teterboro, N.J., Tuesday morning with his wife Josephine, about 54, daughter Linda, 20 and son Phillip, 24. They haven't been heard from since.

Griffing is president of Video Independent Theaters, Inc. The firm has offered a $5,000 reward for information leading to his discovery.

A group of Oklahoma City attorneys Sunday sent telegrams to either the county attorney or the sheriff in 31 counties of Pennsylvania, Maryland, Ohio, Virginia and West Virginia asking them to organize search parties.

MEN IN SERVICE

Jimmy Damron, son of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Damron, 1608 Dunley, recently was promoted to private first class in Granite City, Ill., where he is a member of the Granite City Engineer Depot.

Damron, a clerk-typist in Headquarters Company of the depot's 55th Engineer Group, entered the Army last November and completed basic training at Fort Carson, Colo. The 23-year-old soldier is a 1954 graduate of Big Spring High School and a 1959 graduate of West Texas State College in Canyon.

Specialist Four Chester L. Morris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl B. Morris, Route 2, Colorado City, participated in Exercise Broadcast, the annual Seventh U. S. Army summer signal field exercise in Germany. The five-day exercise was concluded Aug. 31.

Specialist Morris is assigned to the 97th Signal Battalion's Company B in Stuttgart. He entered the Army in December, 1958 and completed basic combat training at Fort Carson, Colo.

The 24-year-old soldier attended Westbrook High School, before entering the Army, he was employed by the City of Colorado City.

Pvt. A. H. Roberts of Anson,

At Atlanta's Grace Methodist, an usher said he told two Negroes that they were "unwelcome because they are not Atlanta Negroes and are agitators not interested in truly worshipping as Christians."

Dr. John Richardson, pastor at Westminster Presbyterian, said ushers told four Negroes the church was not integrated and they departed.

The Rev. James W. Sosbee, pastor of First Christian, said four Negroes left quietly after church leaders told them the congregation had not yet reached a decision on integration and asked them not to attend.

Negro students visited 16 churches in the Atlanta area on the two previous Sundays. They were admitted at nine churches, turned away or asked to take seats in special pews, the balcony or auxiliary rooms at seven others.

The kneel-in efforts on Aug. 7 and 14 were sponsored by the Committee on Appeal for Human Rights, a bi-racial student organization. Between 25 and 35 students participated.

SAN ANTONIO (AP)—Funeral services for Ike West, 74, famed South Texas cattleman and one of the old trail drivers, will be held here Tuesday.

West died Saturday in a San Antonio hospital.

He was the son of pioneer Texas trail driver Sol West and the town of George West was named after his uncle. Survivors include his wife, two sons, a sister and two grandchildren.

Amarillo Airman Saved In Wreck

MANILA (AP)—Lt. Wallace F. Doolittle of Pratt, Kan., and Ens. John Antoine Provost of Wellsboro, Pa., were killed in the crash of a Navy jet bomber Saturday.

A helicopter rescued two enlisted crewmen—David W. Walters of Big Lake, Minn., and Roy D. Howington of Amarillo, Tex.—after the AS3 Skywarrior plunged into the sea off the Subic Bay Naval Base.

The 23-year-old soldier entered the Army last March.

He is a 1955 graduate of Lamesa High School and a 1959 graduate of Abilene Christian College.

Grand Jury To Probe Pen For 'Inhuman Treatment'

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—A grand jury will be asked to investigate conditions at the state penitentiary, where a former psychologist says inmates are subjected to "inhuman treatment."

William Bowden, only Negro member of the Davidson County grand jury, said he sent a telegram to foreman M. T. Gossett asking for a probe "of the entire situation" at the penitentiary, scene of much unrest in recent months.

Bowden's request came after Charles Cottle, the prison psychologist and classification officer, said he was fired for objecting to the "inhuman treatment," which, he says, has become common practice since July 26.

On that date, inmates set fire to two prison buildings and three inmates were shot. The outbreak came four months after two prisoners held 19 persons hostage a day and night in an unsuccessful escape attempt. It followed a week-long hunger strike by maximum security inmates.

After the fire, Gov. Buford Ellington ordered the prisoners stripped of virtually all their privileges, instituted a "get tough" policy and said a "Little Alcatraz" would be built for especially unruly prisoners.

Cottle said the other psychologist at the prison, Albert Balvere, was fired about two weeks ago and that the psychiatrist, Dr. A.M. Chapnick, has quit.

Asst. State Corrections Commissioner A. Patterson confirmed he fired Cottle Friday "for the good of the service."

Of the psychologist's charges, Corrections Commissioner Keith Hampton said: "That's his opinion."

Many Adults Set For School

'Round the nation, grown-ups too, are dusting off notebooks and readying themselves for classes.

About 35 million adults each year go back-to-school for various types of adult education. Of this number, between five and seven million are enrolled in public school programs for adult learning.

Nation-wide, the states of California, New York, Pennsylvania and Michigan offer the best developed and most comprehensive public programs. California alone enrolls approximately 10 per cent of its total population in adult education, sponsored by the public schools.

A Devotional For Today

The very God of peace sanctify you wholly. (I Thessalonians 5:23.)
PRAYER: Heavenly Father, help us today to stay open in mind and heart to Thee and available for Thy use. Fill us, soul, spirit, and body — with Thy transforming and keeping power, for we are Thine; through Christ Thy Son, in whose name we pray. Amen.

Powers And Propaganda

Although some have termed it unduly harsh and severe, the 10-year sentence meted to Francis Powers for his ill-fated U-2 flight over Soviet Russia comes as no surprise. Actually, if there is any element of surprise, it is the court stopped at three years in prison out of the 10.
Certainly it is regrettable that Powers must be imprisoned; it is regrettable that we live in a world where one nation must spy upon another; it is regrettable that the Powers case became an international football.
But the fact of the matter was that Powers was playing in a precarious game; the pay was high and the stakes were high. In

The first was plucked from the ocean, and the second was caught in the air. Meanwhile, Echo I goes silently on its way around the globe about every two hours, serving as a reflector for radio waves.
Russia has announced sending animals into space and returning them safely. Presumably this trip was in orbit, for previously dogs and monkeys had been hurled high into space and brought back alive. But these were like throwing a ball high

A Civil Right—The Right To Work

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senator Harry F. Byrd, Democrat, of Virginia has started a real fight for "civil rights." But it's not the kind of rights that interest those who are usually associated with the movement for "civil rights."
For the Virginia senator is championing the right of a working man not to be coerced into joining an organization in which he doesn't believe, and not to be forced against his will to support with money taken out of his wages a political-minded group with whose views he may differ. Freedom of belief and freedom of association are supposed to be guaranteed by the Federal Constitution.

SENATOR BYRD is challenging Senators Kennedy and Johnson, the Democratic nominees for the presidency and vice presidency, who have accepted the plank in the national platform which demands that all states hereafter be deprived of the right to decide for themselves whether membership in a labor union shall be made compulsory. Mr. Byrd said in a speech to the Senate:

"The 1960 Democratic platform adopted in Los Angeles makes the direct and unequivocal statement: 'We will repeal the authorization for right-to-work laws.'"

"THIS IS A platform promise that labor leaders will allow no one to forget. Repeal of the authorization would deny the right of states to enact laws protecting workers from forced membership in unions as a condition for employment. It would result in wholesale nullification of right-to-work laws enacted to date in 29 states, including constitutional provisions adopted by referendum in 8 states."

The 20 states referred to are Arizona, Indiana, North Dakota, South Dakota, Nebraska, Kansas, Nevada, Iowa, Utah, Texas, Arkansas, Louisiana, Alabama, Mississippi, Florida, Georgia, Tennessee, South Carolina, North Carolina and Virginia.

SENATOR BYRD points out that "nothing in them forbids union affiliation," and that "they protect the privilege of union membership for those who wish to join."

The biggest misrepresentation ever recorded in American politics has been the campaign of recent years by labor unions claiming that right-to-work laws are designed to take away the right of workers to organize in unions if they wish.
The Supreme Court says Congress may pass laws governing the operations of unions in businesses engaged in "interstate commerce," and nearly every business can be construed somehow to be in interstate commerce. Indeed, that's what the Supreme Court has done in many decisions that plainly go too far.

BUT SINCE CONGRESS has been given by the Court the power to regulate virtually all commerce, including the right to legislate exclusively in the field of labor relations if it wished, the Eisenhower administration has favored the arrangement embodied in existing law. This permits the states to legislate on the a sense he is one of the casualties of the game, one who might as easily have been a fatal casualty in a crash or before a firing squad.

Russia found the U-2 incident a godsend for propaganda purposes, and both the destruction of the reconnaissance plane and the Powers trial have been wrong for every last drop of value. Probably one reason for the softening of the sentence was to create the impression of Russian magnanimity, and if there is any further mitigation of the sentence it will be because Russia wants to do some breast-beating about its big-heartedness.

POLITICAL SNIPE HUNT

Nixon's Walking On Eggs

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon — compared with Sen. John F. Kennedy, his Democratic rival for the presidency — is like a man walking in an egg factory.

Kennedy is free to complain about President Eisenhower's leadership — or lack of it — and blame the Republican administration for mistakes at home and abroad. Not Nixon, even if he wanted to.
As the Republican candidate

Nixon can't afford to repudiate either the President or his administration or to antagonize Republicans.
Yet his campaign strategy is to try to sell himself rather than the Republican brand of government, or even the Eisenhower brand.
How then can he project an image of himself different from Eisenhower and the acts and attitudes of the Eisenhower administration without appearing to criticize?

HE IS DOING it bit by bit, nevertheless, on civil rights, defense spending, foreign policy, a farm program.
Eisenhower has been criticized for not asserting more leadership in the field of civil rights. Nixon, without criticizing the President, says that as president he would take the initiative and urge his cabinet to do so to find solutions.
Democrats and others have criticized the record of the Eisenhower administration. Nixon, again avoiding criticism, says the record of the administration is not something to stand on but to build on.

Eisenhower has insisted defense spending was insufficiently high. The Democrats have contended the administration has not been doing enough to keep ahead of the Russians.
NIXON MOVED beyond Eisenhower's position by accepting New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller's view that the defense program should be stepped up.

For seven years Eisenhower has backed up Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson, with whom a lot of farmers are unhappy. Nixon has avoided any direct criticism of the administration's farm program.
Yet he has made it clear he doesn't go along with Eisenhower and Benson on the farm problem. He says he considers it essential to get away from the "rigid position of the last seven years" and make a break through the stalemate.

For years Democrats have pounded on Eisenhower for not assuming a far more active personal role in the conduct of foreign affairs, particularly during the Foster Dulles administration.
Probably more than any president in history Eisenhower relied on his secretary of state — Dulles, that is — for handling foreign policy.

Nixon, very much aware of the criticism against Eisenhower in this field, meets it by saying that if elected he will exercise more direct control than does Eisenhower.
He said his views do not involve criticism of the Eisenhower administration but that "the situation has changed."

Men Are Getting Taller

NEW YORK (AP) — Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:
Here's good news for girls who want tall husbands. In 1959 only 1 in 25 U.S. men was a six-footer. Now one in five young men reach that height.
The art of tele-a-tele conversation may be dying, but telephone gabbing is still on the increase. America now has nearly 33 telephones for every 100 persons.

It Takes A Long Time To Reduce A Pot Belly

By JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M. D.
"Dear Dr. Molner: How does one get rid of a middle-aged pot belly? I do a lot of walking and have cut down on food, but the pot remains. What else can I do?"
D. L. B.
Quite often I take a long letter and reduce it to the nub of the problem. This time I haven't done any cutting. Would that I could cut down a middle-aged pot belly as readily as I can trim down a letter. But letters reduce more easily than P. B.'s.
Anyway, I thank you for cutting your original letter to the irreducible minimum. I will try to do the same with the answer.
It starts with this: How long did it take to acquire the pot belly? O. K. Then how long will it take to get rid of it? That's the problem!
A youngster, overweight, can combine diet and exercise, and as soon as the excess weight is gone, the remaining flesh goes to the "right places."
All right, add 20 or 30 years and see what happens. Weight increases. We quit playing "red rover" and "prisoner's base" and (on skates) the rugged game of "I got it." No more skin the cat, no more "raining," no more basketball, climb 'n' trees.
Or don't the kids do these things any more?
Anyway, we acquire a little excess poundage, a euphemism for

Around The Rim

Fiction Around Western Figures

One thing and another:
Some television viewers probably prefer not to believe it but Frank Waters in his new book, "The Earp Brothers Of Tombstone," says that Wyatt Earp "was an itinerant saloon keeper, cardsharp, gunman, bigamist, church deacon and supreme confidence man."
"A lifelong exhibitionist ridiculed alike by members of his own family, neighbors, contemporaries, and the public press, he lived his last years in poverty, still trying vainly to find someone to publicize his life, and died two years before his biography recast him in the role of America's most famous frontier marshal."

THE AUTHOR consulted a party who knew the man before he painted so bold and uncompromising a picture of the man — Wyatt's sister-in-law, Mrs. Virgil (Aunt Allie) Earp.
Waters says that most of the books and stories written about Wyatt were inspired by Stuart N. Lake's book, "Wyatt Earp, Frontier Marshal," published in 1931.

WATERS CALLS the Lake book "the most astoundingly concocted blood-and-thunder piece of fiction ever written about the West, and a disgraceful indictment of the thousands of true Arizona pioneers whose lives and written protests refuse every discolored incident in it."

Another outlaw popularized on TV, Bill Longley, was one of the real bad men of the old West. In his career of outlawry, he is given credit for killing 32 men, several of them sheriffs and peace officers.

LONGLEY, who lived in Texas, once collected the bounty put up for his own arrest. As a result of killing one sheriff, a price of $500 was put on Longley's head.
While riding with two outlaw companions, Longley discovered a notice of this, nailed to a tree at a crossroad.
He suggested that his friends tie him up and collect the bounty. They trusted him up, threw a lariat rope around his neck and, with revolvers drawn, led him to the jail in the county seat.

THE SHERIFF identified him immediately and paid over the reward to Longley's companions. Bill's confederates immediately turned their weapons upon the peace officer, took away his cell keys and freed Longley.
They locked the sheriff in the cell after tying him up, then rode out of town and split the reward money with Longley.
Longley was eventually cornered on another charge, this one for murder, and was tried, convicted and hanged.
He saved one of his best quips for his trip up the hanging scaffold.
Objecting to the rickety condition of the steps, he said:
"You better fix 'em. I might have got hurt coming up here."

NATO Sets A Good Example

RACQUENCOURT, France — Contrary to published reports, General Lauris Norstad is not about to resign as Supreme Commander of NATO — and his value either here or in Washington to the next President ought to be apparent. To the visitor, Gen. Norstad is a terrific type personally, fast of mind and motion, armed with a decade of experience in European command, showing no evidence of a recent occlusion, at 53 in the prime of intellectual powers.

Norstad, either in his present office or as a member or chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, would fill a particular need in the coming Administration. Norstad has been Supreme Commander longer than any other man. He now heads up an alliance which has survived many tests and reached a maturity which contains many lessons which the next President ought to ponder. Among them are:

SINGLE MILITARY SERVICE. Norstad is of the evolutionary school here. He would advise a new President to ask Congress for one Chief of Staff over all three services. He would like to see the three Service Secretaries of Army, Navy and Air Force reduced to Assistant Secretaries of Defense. He would recommend far greater exchange within the services, allowing many more officers and men to do time in all three branches.
Norstad stops short of saying that all service personnel should wear the same uniform. But his reasoning takes that direction. So does the ten-year record of the 15-nation, 3-service NATO command. The feeling of the old professionals at the Supreme Headquarters is that the military roles and missions today are functional and no longer easily divisible into land, sea and air. Virtually every operation is triphibious.

ACCENT ON fire-power. NATO today is twenty and one-third divisions against 175 divisions in the Soviet sector. France still has two divisions in Algeria. West Germany is still five divisions short of its quota. By 1953 the alliance will supposedly be at full strength with 30 divisions, only half of what was originally planned. But despite the overwhelming numbers of the Soviet forces, Norstad and his staff are confident of the NATO strength. The explanation is, of course, the feeding into the European alliance of American weapons, beginning with the Honest John and Nike family, which carry enormous hitting power, either with conventional or atomic munitions. Since the Western Powers are outnumbered everywhere — in the world, this buildup of hard-hitting weapons has to go on — whatever cost.

BUT ONE OF the signs of maturity in NATO is that the members, still entirely dependent on the U.S.A. for missiles, are beginning to see a danger in it to themselves. Some President beyond Kennedy or Nixon, or some Congress before that, may feel that Europe is strong enough to go it alone. What if that time finds Europe without the plants and the skills to build missiles?

As a result of this apprehension, there is in Europe a long-overdue move toward rearmament. A German company is the prime contractor for building the American-designed Sidewinder. France, Belgium, Italy and the Netherlands are pooled to make the U.S. Hawk. Britain is buying Thors and Hounddogs, and may soon be buying Davy Crockets.

THE NUCLEAR PROHIBITION. Europe is also the place where, probably within the next Presidential term, some modernization of nuclear laws must take place. Germany is forbidden by treaty to make its 20th century armament. France will not permit American atomic arms, but is making her own. American law permits us to give atomic weapons but not atomic ammunition to allies, and requires that the President himself give the order to use atomic and nuclear weapons. It is an unrealistic situation which the next President will have to alter.

Find a better hole? Lots of things are wrong with NATO, and some have been duly registered in this column. But it's a fact that Europe, the only place where Communism is confronted with a defensive force-in-being, is also just about the only place that Communism has not pulled a power play.
But despite threats over Berlin, all's quiet on the Western front. The new President should be well informed and well advised as to the reasons why.

Home-Made Pie Crust—But Quick

Kennedy or my preference in soap powders.
BUT THE YOUNG LADY, who looked halfway between beat and neat in clean shirt, shorts and untidy ponytail, banished these political suspicions when she planted herself even more firmly in front of my car and, fixing me with an eye as hypnotic as the Ancient Mariner's, reiterated, "How do you make piecrust?"

I surveyed the girl with compassion because it was plain as a pike staff that this kid, maybe 20, maybe 22, had invited her best beau to her pad and promised him a home-cooked dinner, including a pie just like mother used to make.
"Have you ever made piecrust before?" I asked, really wanting to help her.
"No," she snapped, not one to waste time on amenities.

"THEN I THINK you'll do better, if you're inexperienced, to buy a piecrust ready-mix. This new stick kind..."
"I want to make it from the beginning," she said impatiently, not allowing me to finish the sentence.
"But don't you have a cook book?" I asked, and if incredulity got the upper hand of my voice, it was only because of my wonder at her bravery in trying to snare a beau, bare-handed, so to speak, without a mother's or a cook-book's guide. The girl looked at me with both disdain and hauteur.

"NO," SHE SNAPPED, "I don't have a cook book." I, she continued, surveying me as if my dishpan hands shined even through my white gloves, "have no intention of becoming a professional! So don't bother!"
"But, please, I want to help," I said, as she dismissed me. "Don't bother!" she repeated and switched away angrily. I have been wondering ever since what kind of a meal and pie this cool cat achieved and if her beau survived. And, if he survived, if he is still her beau.

Well, sir, Americans are so accustomed nowadays to having their privacy and opinions violated by pollsters that I thought this was probably some new approach to whether I was going to vote for Vice President Richard Nixon or Senator John

Heirloom Gift Is Presented To Couple

STANTON — A gift to be treasured through the years was presented to Barbara Jane Smith and Delbert Donelson at a buffet supper Saturday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Woody Smith of the Tarzan community.

Hostesses, Betty Smith and Mrs. Harold Smith of Andrews, gave the couple a brown linen cloth on which each of the guests signed his or her name in permanent ink. Gifts of crystal were also part of the hospitality.

Parents of the two, who will be married Sept. 3 in the First Methodist Church, are Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Donelson.

Brown linen covered the table from which the dinner was served, and guests were seated at quarter tables decorated in a similar style. Yellow rosebuds and candles formed the central theme of the decor.

Twelve were included on the guest list.

Parker-Westmoreland Vows Exchanged Sunday

In a mid-afternoon ceremony Sunday, Dolores Ann Parker became the bride of Jon Marco Westmoreland in the Forsan Baptist Church. Rev. Rev. Darrell Robinson, pastor of the church, read the double ring ritual.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo J. Parker of Otis Chalk; parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. John A. Westmoreland of Coahoma.

A sunburst of yellow gladioli and yellow supreme daisies in a fern tree was flanked by seven-branch candelabra and other fern trees, which formed the setting for the bridal party.

Mrs. Jesse Louis Overton provided a prelude of nuptial music and accompanied Lewis Lovelace of Coahoma as he sang "Whither Thou Goest", and, as the couple knelt at the altar, "The Lord's Prayer".

Escorted to the altar and given in marriage by her father, the bride was gowned in Chantilly lace over taffeta, ballerina length. The long sleeves of the fitted bodice came to points at the wrists, and a stand-up collar was of lace scalloped. The back of the skirt was marked with a large bow of silk organza which extended into a harem hemline.

An elbow length veil of illusion was attached to a tiara of pearls which was borrowed from Mrs.

Jerry Mathews of El Paso. The bride named as something old a yellow lace handkerchief, property of her grandmother, Mrs. F. F. Armstrong. The pearls she wore as something new were her gift from the bridegroom. Mrs. O. W. Fletcher had presented her with the blue garter which she wore. In her pumps were birthdate pennies.

On a white Bible the bride carried a bouquet of yellow rosebuds and white carnations in cascade with fantasy and picot ribbon.

Dena Ray Parker attended her sister as maid of honor; she chose a frock of yellow silk organza over taffeta with full skirt, deeply hemmed, and a round neckline. White feathers made her headpiece, and she carried white carnations accented with yellow tulie and satin ribbons.

Westmoreland was his son's best man. Guests were seated by Gary Jack Coker Jr. of Waco, a cousin of the bridegroom, and Larry Palmer of Jal, N.M., cousin of the bride.

Richard and Martha Coker, both of Waco were the candlelighters. Miss Coker was dressed identically to the maid of honor.

After the ceremony, guests assembled at the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Fairchild, for a reception. Their parents assisted the couple in receiving.

Alternating at the guest register were Martha Cowley of Abilene and a cousin of the bride, Mrs. Bob Burnett of Midland.

Members of the house party included the bride's cousins; Mrs. Larry Digby and Mrs. Dan Fairchild, both of Odessa; Joyce Shouls and Jan Stockton, both of Forsan; Darla Dunagan of Big Spring; the bride's aunts, Mrs. Fairchild and Mrs. B. L. Palmer of Jal, N.M.; Mrs. Jack Coker of Waco, an aunt of the bridegroom.

On the tea table, white net over white taffeta was caught at the four corners with wedding bells tied with yellow ribbon; the flowers of the bride and her attendant formed the floral centerpiece. A three-tiered cake, topped with a bride and groom, was frosted in yellow rosebuds.

For a wedding trip to New Orleans, La., the bride donned a sheath of brown and white check with large puffed sleeves, enhanced with bows on the elbow cuffs and on the belt; she used pearl and brown accessories and wore the corsage from her bridal bouquet.

The newly-married pair will return to a home at 408 N. Fourth in Coahoma, where the bride will continue her studies in the high school. In the Forsan school, she was a member of the FHA, student council, choir, Buff-A-La-Ettes, a cheer leader and a member of the basketball and volleyball teams.

Westmoreland, who is a graduate of Coahoma High School, will attend Howard County Junior College this year. He is employed by the Texas and Pacific Railroad in Big Spring. A member of the FFA, he also played football and tennis in Coahoma during his senior year.

Sewing Club Meets With Mrs. Cowley

FORSAN — Mrs. S. C. Cowley entertained the Pioneer Sewing Club in her home, with eight members attending. The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. R. A. Chambers in the Lockhart Addition, Sept. 6.

Guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Bailey, Muri and Cathie, were Joe Bailey of Grand Prairie and Sam Terry of Tulsa, Okla.

Mr. and Mrs. Rowland Howard have returned from their vacation at Estes Park, Colo.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Craig were Midland visitors.

J. H. Cardwell has been dismissed from Malone and Hogan Hospital Foundation.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Pike have been vacationing in Arkansas. Martha Cowley of Abilene is here with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Cowley, and will attend the Parker-Westmoreland wedding this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Jack Haynes of Dallas has been visiting friends in Forsan.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Barton and Van are on their vacation. They are visiting relatives in Fort Worth, Lewisville, Wichita Falls, and Georgetown.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Gooch and family were recent visitors in Abilene. Their guests have been Mr. and Mrs. Don Clemmen and son of Odessa; Mr. and Mrs. Burt Loving of Snyder, and Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Boyd of Big Spring.

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Shannon were in Snyder for a farewell supper, honoring three employees of Standard Oil Co., who are being transferred.

Lamesa Bride-Elect

Oct. 8 is the wedding date set for the marriage of Sue Vaughn and Troy Howard. Miss Vaughn is the granddaughter of L. B. Vaughn of Lamesa and the late Mrs. Vaughn, and her fiancé is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Howard of the Midway community. The ceremony is to be read at 7:30 p.m. in the sanctuary of First Baptist Church, Lamesa.

Gun Twirler Upsets Models

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The nude girls didn't mind the staring—they were used to that. But why was he twirling that gun?

Municipal Judge Raymond J. O'Connor couldn't figure it either, so he found Rodney C. Dause, 23, guilty of impersonating an officer and carrying a concealed weapon. O'Connor also ordered a psychiatric examination for Dause, a salesman, who was arrested at an art studio where nude models pose for camera fans.

Directors Pick Dr. Goodwin As Texas Tech President

LUBBOCK (AP)—Dr. Robert C. Goodwin, vice president and acting president since September, 1959, became Texas Tech's seventh president Saturday.

The college board of directors acted at a meeting which preceded summer commencement exercises. With the aim of starting the 1960 football season in Southwest Conference competition, the board voted to issue and sell $300,000 in revenue bonds. The proceeds will complete payments on an enlarged stadium which will seat 41,500. Altogether the stadium project has cost $1,940,811.

Dr. Goodwin has been acting president since the resignation of Dr. E. N. Jones. He is 62 and is a native of Brownwood, Tex. Goodwin joined the Tech faculty in 1939 as head of the chemistry department. He came here from the University of Florida.

In 1939 he was named dean of the graduate school and in 1943 was named dean of the school of arts and sciences. He became academic vice president in June, 1959. Since September he has been academic vice president and acting president.

Goodwin, who had said he would not accept the presidency, said Saturday two things caused him to change his mind: He felt that he had complete support of the board of directors and he thought the uncertain situation surrounding the president's office should be removed for the good of the college.

The board voted unanimously to name him president but took no action in naming a new academic vice president.

"Dr. Goodwin is well-liked on the campus," Douglas Orme, Texas Tech director and Cosden Petroleum Corp. vice president-traffic, said Monday morning. "His health is good and he will make the college a fine president."

By Bob Smith

London doesn't have a Broadway. But it does have Shaftesbury Ave., the theatrical district. Some related statistics: TV sets numbered 10,000 in 1946; and by 1950 there were 7 1/2 million. Shakespeare's MacBeth wasn't fictitious... he was the usurper king of Scotland from 1040 to 1058.

Remember Mischa Auer, the talented Russian actor? He was born in St. Petersburg, which later became Leningrad, and the reason he left for the U. S. had to do with the change of name.

The Tri-Tones, Big Spring's classy combo, auditioned Tuesday at the Sands, and their audience was well pleased. No arrangements had been worked out at last word, apparently awaiting a decision on keeping of the present lounge as is, or conversion of the dining room to a ballroom. There is a considerable difference between lounge music and dance music.

We're losing two junior high band directors, but there's no reason for anyone to be unhappy. They're getting much better positions—and the local band program is progressing smoothly and will not be kinked by the change in command.

Tommy Fry, who was here for 2 1/2 years, will take over direction of all public schools bands in Levelland. He reported his program at Goliad was in fine shape; will sponsor this year.

Tech Hands Out 472 Degrees

LUBBOCK (AP)—Four hundred seventy-two students received degrees, six of them doctorates, Saturday night at Texas Tech's 34th annual summer commencement exercises.

Among those receiving degrees was a mother of six, Mrs. Cora Nixon, of Cotton Center, near Lubbock.

Doctor's degrees went to Charles Frederick Mathews and Clarence Earl Williams Sr., both in education, and Edward Lee McMillan, philosophy in history, all from Plainview, Texas. K. L. Fry and Fry Sorell of San Francisco, Calif., education; John LaRue Bear of Lampasas, Tex., philosophy in chemistry, and Billy Ray Brunson of Lubbock, philosophy in history.
